Carey Assumes Duties As 'Y' Head; Wins by 2-1

John Carey, Duke's first-string defensive fullback, defeated Bob Younts, of freshman tradition fame, in a run-off election last Wednesday afternoon for the presidency of the YMCA.

Between the hours of 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. a total of 321 voters, an increase of 14 over Monday's balloting, appeared in the Union Lobby to tally a 214-107 count in favor of the second year letterman.

The remaining officers, who were decided in Monday's elections were Nolan Rodgers, vice president, who defeated Henry Clark by 177-125; Don Beaty, secretary, who defeated Marion "Doc" McClellan by 156-136, and Rowe Fesperman, treasurer, who was unopposed.

Elected members of the board of directors are John Dozier, chairman, Dean W. C. Archie, Dr. H. A. Strobel, Dean R. B. Cox, Coach Jack Coombs, William Brinkley, Rev. Roland Rainwater and Dr. A. C. Jordan. Completing the board are ex-officio members Dr. J. H. Phillips and Mr. R. B. Fearing.

After tabulation of the last election a banquet in honor of the old and new officers and board members was held in a Union dining room at 5:30 p.m. In his acceptance speech Carey stressed stronger unification and a more active program and emphasized the strive to meet every campus need.

In addition to being a line-backer, Carey, who defeated Younts last year by a narrower margin for vice-presidency of the YMCA, is on the Dean's List, pre-ministerial, a member of FAC and a member of the ATO fraternity.

Commenting on the elections, past-president Bob Windom revealed his regrets over the influence of "politics" in the election, which he asserted were this year greater than ever, and expressed his hopes that they would not occur in succeeding years.

SANDBURG

Carl Sandburg Comes To Duke To Present An Informal Program

Carl Sandburg, whom many consider to be America's most truly native poet, will appear in the Woman's College Auditorium on Wednesday, April 2, at 8:15 p.m. under the auspices of the Student Forum Committee of WSGA.

The program, appropriately entitled "An Evening With Carl Sandburg," has been presented before lecture audiences throughout the country. During the evening, Sandburg will read his poetry, play his guitar and chat intimately with the audience.

The rustic septuagenarian has been proclaimed as the greatest living authority on Abraham Lincoln and has twice won the Pulitzer prize.

The general public is invited to the program. No admission will be charged.

Musical, Dance Feature Events

As Joe College settled down to a spring's rest before his invasion of Duke campus, the annual weekend's officials anticipated his arrival by releasing more detailed plans for the campus-wide celebration, April 17-20.

C. P. Deal, chairman of the event announced that the program would open Thursday night, April 17, at 8 in Page Auditorium when Hoof 'n' Horn members present the official premiere of their spring show, Anything Goes. The Cole Porter Broadway hit will run again Friday night at the same time.

Friday afternoon festivities will get under way at 3 with a parade on East Campus. Fraternity and East dormitories will vie for prizes with floats and other parade displays that are in keeping with the Joe College theme.

An exchange dinner at 5:30 p.m. in front of the East Union will follow the march on Woman's College. That night Hoof 'n' Horn will raise its curtain at 8 for the second time in as many evenings.

From Page, avid Joe College supporters will trek to the In-door Stadium to the first of three Elliott Lawrence performances, this one being an informal dance which gets the downbeat at 9:30 p.m.

Lawrence will again take the bandstand for a lawn concert Saturday afternoon in the West Main Quadrangle at 12:30.

A picnic lunch will be held on the lawn at the same time for all students.

Athletic events will make their appearance into the Joe College schedule Saturday at 2 p.m. Included in the list of events planned by the Athletic Association for the weekend are the Duke-Durham Relays, the Duke - Washington College lacrosse game, the Duke - North Carolina baseball game and the Duke-Carolina tennis match.

4th Annual Greek Week Will Begin April 2 With Services In The Chapel

Inter-fraternity Council's fourth annual Greek Week, which gives recognition to pledges and acquaints them with the fraternity system, is slated to commence on April 2 and extend through April 5.

Corby Lyon, chairman of Greek Week, announced the activities would begin with a chapel service on Wednesday evening at 8:30 p.m. The regular help-day at Edgemont will be on Thursday and Friday afternoons with painting as a major project.

The traditional banquet is planned for Friday night for pledges, certain fraternity officers and others wishing to pursue the limited number of guest tickets. The field day competition will be Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in Duke Stadium with the awarding of two trophies to the highest teams. The highlight and conclusion of the week will be the informal dance held in the Old Gym with music furnished by the Duke Cavaliers.

Postpone Again

Although the IFC sponsors a large number of events, it is suggested that each of the fraternities add their own events to make the week more complete.

In other action this week the IFC postponed definite action on the first semester rushing proposal after a lengthy hour discussion of the question. In order to make it possible to vote on an earlier rushing plan, two amendments were proposed by C. P. Deal, chairman of the rushing revision committee. Both of the amendments were defeated with the criticism that they would limit formal rushing until mid-semester or later.

Deal reiterated the purposes of the new system: to limit the large amount of rushing done throughout the whole semester and to give freshmen a chance to get oriented to the fraternity system earlier.

Majority Approve

The council discussed the tentative plan for revision and straw votes were taken on the points suggested in order that the committee might know what action to take next. Seventeen of the 19 fraternities present voiced their approval of some type of formal rushing and pledging during the first semester. With regard to rushing as early as Oct. 1, only seven fraternities were in favor.

Crawford Campaigns For West Presidency

In the waning moments of the petition deadline Wednesday night, Narvel Crawford, senior of Theta Chi fraternity, threw his hat into the race for president of Men's Student Government Association.

Crawford served on the Public Relations Committee of MSGA this past year, and according to chairman Richard Hanner, did a "commendable job." He stated that it was his intention "to stimulate greater interest in running and greater activity if elected."

Although Theta Chi is in the Campus Party roster, they plan to support every party candidate except that of president. If he is elected, Crawford will stay over next year and graduate with the class of 1953.

Dady Zanner Will Succeed Becca Woolen To Pan-Hellenic Association Presidency

Dady Zanner, Alpha Chi Omega, will succeed Becca Woolen as president of Woman's Pan-Hellenic Association following elections held last Wednesday afternoon in a special meeting of all sorority girls. She defeated Ginny Jones, Zeta Tau Alpha, for the office.

Alpha Phi candidate Susie Parker won the position of vice-president over Ann Eflund, Delta Gamma.

Barbara DeLapp, Pi Beta Phi, was selected from a field of three for the office of secretary. Her opponents were Elaine Popp and Page Wilmer. Judy Kendall, a member of Delta Delta Delta, defeated Ann Causee for the position of treasurer.

Miss Zanner, who will take over the position of president, has served on Pan-Hel Council as secretary. A nurse's aide, she belongs to the Glee Club, Chapel Choir and Triple Trio. Member of Ivy her freshman year, she has been selected for the German honorary society, Delta Phi Alpha.

Miss Parker, also a Pan-Hel Council member, has been stage manager and mistress of props for Hoof 'n' Horn. She sings in the glee club and choir and has been on the business staff of the Chanticleer.

Secretary Barbara DeLapp is the activities chairman of Pi Beta Phi and the assistant recording secretary.

Judy Kendall was elected as freshman representative to WAA. She is a member of House Council and the assistant social chairman of her sorority.

Board Acts To Put Off Chest Drive

West Campus will not hold its annual Community Chest Drive this year, as a result of a decision made by the Chest Board Tuesday.

Al Raywid, chairman of the board, said the reason the drive would not be held was "the board felt a drive not held simultaneously with the National Chest Drive would not be nearly as successful. Rather than sponsor a partially successful drive, the board decided to direct its attention to a larger drive held at the beginning of next fall."

Last year the West Campus made its first contribution to a chest drive, which has been an annual affair on East. The board felt that the students would give more generously at the beginning of a year, than at the last of the year.

East Drive
Clayton McCracken, drive chairman, stated, "It is felt that by having the drive in the fall the committee will have time to plan and to gather information. The drive will probably be held at the same time as the East Campus Drive and the Community Chest Drive in Durham."

The function of the Community Chest Drive is to collect all the money for the different drives at one time. This eliminates the soliciting of money in the dormitories and the asking for the different drives.

The students will probably be asked what organizations they would like to include. Collection for money all through the year boxes for the drives that can not participate in the Chest drive will be allowed only in public places. These boxes are not allowed in the dormitories.

The Chest plans to expand its program concerning the Robert L. Flowers Scholarship, which was created by last year's drive. The Chest plans to ask alumni for money for the scholarship. This scholarship is organized similar to the Alice Baldwin Scholarship.

Politics Get Under Way As Both Parties Pick Radio Council, Pub Board Candidates

With the announcement of Radio Council and Publications Board candidates by both parties, the rusted wheels of campus politics are slowly beginning to turn.

Running for Pub Board under Campus Party sponsorship are Doug Climenson, Bill Duke, Chuck Graves, Bill Louis-Dreyfus, Sam Northrup and Dick Sykes, while Bob Getz, Lee Edwards and Denny Marks are representing the Union Party. Out of these, six will be elected to serve on the Board.

Union men Radio Council positions are Bob Botnik, Johnny Greene and Don DeLaski. Tom Bowles and George Lynch will run for the Campus Party. Only two of the candidates will be elected to serve on the Radio Council.

In a correction of the list of candidates, the Union Party announced that Bobby Bradshaw would represent the party in the fight for MSGA secretary, and that Ed Pizer will run for treasurer of the rising sophomore class while Luther Barnhardt is the candidate for secretary of the class.

Professors Glorify Ideal of Individualism
But Fear To Express Personal Convictions

by Virginia Roseborough

A benighted, misled professor dropped a remark to the effect that a university's primary function is to stimulate intellectual activity, and that unusual ideas should be supported merely for the sake of their nonconformity. Constantly the notion of individualism and mental self-reliance is glorified in Duke classrooms, but the same professors who deplore apathy and inactivity in the undergraduate mind all too rarely have any a substitute to offer. Why do no proposals emanate from the classrooms? Surely professors must have the courage of their own convictions to suggest fundamentally different ways of thinking? Or has the teaching process proved so discouraging that they have despaired of having their ideals catch fire in any student mind?

Even at the student-faculty coffee last week on the minority problem at Duke, everyone seemed uncomfortably fearful of expressing any firm opinion. Here in the University is congregated the largest percentage of intelligent people that most students will ever meet, and yet those intellectuals are so busily chary with their personal ideas. Perhaps objectivity is carried to an unpleasant extreme here; ideas do not implant themselves without some evidence of conviction behind them. The history of social movements, or of expanding faiths, is one of individuals bound together for action by a common credo. Apparently the faculty members either have no faith in anything, or they do not believe strongly enough in their ideas to consider them a worthwhile bequest to Duke undergraduates. Either alternative is sad; perhaps this is merely an era when passion for an idea is unfashionable, or even indelicately vulgar.

The hush and cry of mediocrity and standardization grows somewhat tiresome. Very little evidence exists to contradict what is apparently an overall dearth of ideas or their logical conclusions, concrete proposals.

It'll be babes, bottles, beaches, balmy nights and bouncing bungalows as Duke invades Daytona.

The authorities at Daytona Beach have said in their ad, "It's all your Duke," and in the past it has been just that. After being told last year that there were over 400 Duksters at Daytona during the week, when he was convinced there was a crowd "of at least 50", a member of the Chamber of Commerce pledged that something must be done in recognition of the Duke-Daytona holidays.

As a result, Duke students will be given a special Duke dance Friday, March 28, at the Palmetto Club.

A popular orchestra will provide professional entertainment. Come stag or drag one—or two if you can.

Duke's Lacrosse Team Opens Season Here Against Dartmouth; Practice Next Week

By ROGER LINDSAY

With two weeks of practice behind them, Coach Jack Person's Duke Lacrosse team is rounding into shape for their opening game against the Dartmouth Indians here April 1.

"Czar" Persons stated "this year's schedule is one of the toughest Duke has ever faced, and the boys will have to play exceptionally well to beat such foes as Princeton, Maryland, Washington College, and R. P. I." The last team mentioned here has never lost to a Duke squad.

As for practice over the spring holidays, Duke was fortunate to receive an invitation from the headmaster of the Friends' School in Baltimore to train at the school's grounds, using the field house and playing grounds. This gesture was accepted by Duke, and practice games were scheduled against the University of Baltimore, the Friends' School, and the Maryland Lacrosse Club. One of these games may be on television from Baltimore.

This year's team will use as a nucleus All-Americans Don Bofford and Bob Bickel, and All-Southern Jim Whitescarver, Nolan Rogers, Brook Cotman, and Otto Diefenbach. The squad that turned out this year was one of the largest in history, and is filled with new blood due to the number of graduates from last year's honorable mention National Champions.

Probable lineup:

Bofford, goal; Bickel, defense; Ballinger, defense; Rogers, defense; Peacock, Midfield; Barry, midfield; Rutherford, midfield; Cotman, attack; Whitescarver, attack; Taylor, attack.

Netmen Blank Brown In Seasonal Opener

By WILLIE LUCAS

The Duke Tennis Team successfully launched its 1952 season by trouncing Brown University, 9-0, here Monday. The Bruins from Providence, R. I., were unable to secure a win in any match in the singles or doubles.

Lettermen Norman Schellenger, from Miami Beach, Fla., and Kes Deimling, from River Forest, Ill., paved the way in the singles match. Also winning for Duke in the singles were Ralph Paris, Joe Cardozo, and freshmen Buzzy Hettelman, Dave Schimmel.

In the doubles Duke won every match in straight sets. Collecting wins for the Blue Devils include Deimling-Schimmel, Paris-Hettelman, and Schellenger-Cardozo.

The next match for the Duke Netters will be at Jacksonville Naval Air Station, Monday.

THE DU PONT DIGEST

Ch. E's at Du Pont

Work as production supervisors prepares chemical engineers for jobs in management

The last issue of the Digest described the broad opportunities offered chemical engineers in research and development at Du Pont. Now let's look at the opportunities in production supervision.

In this important phase of plant operation, Ch. E.'s and others are responsible for investment in plant facilities, supply of raw materials, supervision of operation and maintenance, cost and shipment of finished products, as well as personnel relations, training and safety.

George B. Bradshaw, Jr., B.S.Ch.E., M.I.T., '49, assistant superintendent, inspects a unit used in ammonia synthesis operation.

Normally, chemical engineers enter production supervision by reason of preference and special abilities. Their first step depends on which of ten operating departments they work in. For example, in one department they follow a training program as student operators. In another, training in a plant laboratory familiarizes the engineers with processes and products.

After the training period, the men are given supervisory responsibilities, usually starting as foreman. At this level they meet problems like these:

1. Occasionally, in a still connected to a sulfonator by a pipe line with a single valve, the product disappeared, and residue increased. The supervisor's study of control data showed that small amounts of gaseous sulfur trioxide were venting into the still causing decomposition of the product. His recommended installation of a positive pressure block in the pipe line eliminated the difficulty.

2. A high temperature batch reaction process was revised to increase production of a critical material. For safety, adjacent reactors had to be shut down as work on each unit proceeded. The supervisor planned maintenance and batch schedules to minimize costly down-time and re-trained personnel for the new process.

In solving such problems, supervisors have an opportunity to use all their knowledge and ingenuity. Equally important, they acquire the Inspecting nylon filaments during manufacture. They are made by extruding molten polymer through spinnerets under pressure.

Duke Nine Faces Six Foes Next Week; Open Home Slate With Yale March 31

By JOHN THULOVE
Duke's Southern Conference baseball champions swing into action next week with six games in six days against league competition in South Carolina. Coach Jack Coombs' boys, who have been at drills since February 18, start their march through the South Monday and continue action until Saturday.

The Blue Devils tangle with Yale here a week from Monday to inaugurate their home schedule on the local diamond. The initial clash will be at Columbia Monday, when Duke meets South Carolina's Gamecocks. The Gamecocks are scheduled again for Tuesday. From Columbia Duke moves to Greenville for two games with Furman on consecutive days and then to Clemson for a two-day stand with the Tigers.

The Blue Devils, if they are in last year's championship form, show possibilities of a repeat performance in the race for the Conference crown. Capable fill-ins for the losses by graduation from last year's nine already have gained probable starting berths for next week's game. Eight pitchers will be among the nineteen-man aggregation to make the southern swing.

The strength of the Duke team will depend largely in the performance of the mound staff. Top pitching stars of last year's squad, Bob "Dizzy" Davis and Joe Lewis, will be supplemented by the talent of Earl Hannel, George Carver, Paul Parker, Arnold Seesholtz, Bill Ward, and Bill Goodman. With the exception of schedules like the opening week of play, Davis and Lewis will probably bear the brunt of the hurling duties. Last year the pair combined to pitch shutout victories in the Southern Conference tournament at Greensboro. Lewis blanked Maryland 11-0 and Davis stopped Clemson 5-0 to sweep the event. Davis was named the tournament's most valuable player. On the receiving end of the battery combinations will be Dick Denny, Jack McGuire, Dick Hoppe, and Jack Tar.

Benny Cavalier, last year's hard-luck boy who suffered a broken leg in the season's first game and who was kept out of action as a result thereafter, will return to center field. Bill Lee at second and Bill Dunnegan or Glen Wild at third complete the infield with first baseman Bill Werber and All-America shortstop Dick Groat.

Trackmen Journey To Florida To Defend Relay Title; Poss, Loub and Field Ailing

A below strength Duke track team heads South Sunday on its annual Florida trip to meet the University of South Carolina in a practice meet on Monday. The Blue Devils will also run next Saturday in the Florida Relays, which last year they won taking four out of five relay events.

Henry Poss, number one sprinter, and Art Loub are nursing leg injuries, while Finney

Field is recovering from the flu. All three will be making the trip, however it is not known whether they will be in shape for the Relays. Aside from the relay events, the 100-yard dash, the high hurdles, and the field events will be on the Florida Relays program. For Duke, Poss, Field, Sykes and Schoonmaker will compete in the 100-yard dash.

Groat Appears on TV

Dick Groat appeared on the Look magazine All-American basketball television program Monday night from New York, and on the Colliers TV show Thursday night also from New York.

The Thursday night feature, which was seen locally from Greensboro, showed Groat in his final season performance against North Carolina.

Blue Tops White, 13-0

The Blue team, quarterbacked by freshman Worth Lutz, and paced by the elusive running of another frosh, Charlie Niven, defeated the White team, 13-0, in the annual Blue-White football game last Saturday.

Sponsored by the Varsity "D" Club contest closed the spring drills at Duke.

Cage Team Honored

Duke's varsity and jayvee basketball team members, coaches, and managers were guests of Durham alumni and supporters at a banquet at Harvey's Cafeteria Tuesday evening in which the seniors were awarded traveling cases by the group.

Dick Groat, Dick Latimer, Dick Crowder, Bill Fleming, Carl Glasow, and manager Dave Johnson were the recipients of the cases.

Mock Election

Truman or Eisenhower? or Kefauver or Taft? That will be the question not only throughout the nation but also on the Duke campus this fall as the Bench 'n' Bar Society will stage a mock national election.

The pre-legal society will sponsor this straw poll in an effort to predict the winner in national elections.

Thanks A Lot DEVILS!

DUKE'S MIXTURE

By JOAN BRIGSTOCKE AND DENNIS MARKS

IDO* NEWS: Society event of the week was the marriage of beauty nominee and queen, Ruth Ann Fisher. B. K. Sims caught the bouquet, and the superstition has a good chance since she has plans for a June wedding to West Point cadet Lew Andrews. Three of her bridesmaids went from the wedding to the PiKap pledge dance. —The only time three women showed up wearing the same dress without embarrassment.

The prettiest dancing chorus ever in H 'n' H's Anything Goes. Looking through an old issue of the Chronicle we found a big picture of today's coed editor Joanie Brigstocke symbol of the Goon Day. My, how times have changed!

Curtain going back up on Nan Harshied and Art Steuer. Quo Vadis?

The Miami Triad rather got their signals mixed on their "On to Daytona" theme. The snow didn't quite fit in with the Bermuda shorts and bare feet idea. Gus-Gus Wacker won hands down on the best costume contest . . . he came clothed in a terrycloth robe and a beer can.

Jackie Hanna cooked her first meal for her fiancé and wanted it kept a secret. It wasn't, and when someone mentioned it to her she cried, "I'll bet it's all over the campus by now!"

West Students Must Pay Advance Fee

All West Campus students line or else pay in their respective houses on designated days. The final deadline is April 11. If the deadline is not met, East coeds will be unable to sign for rooms next fall. In this case, it will be necessary for them to wait until all rooms are assigned before re-applying.

Sharp character on campus — he's not easily duped by deceptive devices! From the onset of the tricky cigarette tests, he knew there was one true test of mildness. Millions of smokers throughout America have learned, too!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

East Dorm Becomes Spanish Community For All Summer Senoritas and Caballeros

By BEN CRUMPLER

Southgate Hall will once again become the Residencia for all local senioritas and caballeros this summer when the Duke School of Spanish Studies begins its eleventh annual session.

The tiny Spanish community will begin to function on June 10, and will be the scene of study, social contact and celebration along Spanish lines until July 19.

The School of Spanish Studies is intended to offer students and teachers an opportunity for intensive training in the knowledge and use of the language. Toward this end, all participants in the program will live in Southgate Hall, eat in the same dining hall and speak in Spanish at all times.

Direct Program

The program is directed towards aiding the study of teachers, prospective teachers, students with a major or minor in Spanish and undergraduates who desire more than a reading knowledge in the language. Students will be grouped according to their present ability to speak Spanish.

Along the line of entertainment, social functions will play a large part in the program. La Fiesta de San Juan and other formal balls have become school traditions.

Dr. Gifford Davis, director of the School of Spanish Studies, will head the staff. Dr. Enrique Imbert of Argentina will serve in the capacity of visiting professor.

Nine North Carolina High School Seniors Attain Scholarships

Three out-of-state high school seniors were chosen winners of newly established University Regional Scholarships. These scholarships, also worth $3,000 each, were awarded to John Edmonds, Jr., Washington, D. C.; Samuel Marney, Jr., Bristol, Va.; and Ruth Harrell, Norfolk, Va.

MSGA Passes Resolution for Ceremony Honoring Double All-American Dick Groat

Students May Apply For NACT Posts

Non-ROTC students who have completed a minimum of 60 semester hours may now qualify for the Naval Aviation Cadet Training program, it was announced here this week.

Students who are between the ages of 18 and 27 and who pass the necessary physical and mental requirements will be sent into pre-flight training at Pensacola, Florida, in preparation for their commissions as Ensigns in the Navy Air Corps.

Prospective cadets must sign up for 4 years service, 18 months of which will be spent in flight training. Students must be single and must not have received notice from their draft board to report for induction at the time of application.

Men's Student Government Association voted Wednesday night to honor double All-American Dick Groat in the form of a three plan resolution.

The resolution requests the Athletic Department to retire permanently Groat's basketball jersey and to have it displayed in the Indoor Stadium showcase. It also directs the President of SGA to appoint a committee of three to work with the Athletic Department on arranging an appropriate ceremony honoring Groat before as large a portion of the student body as possible.

In addition, MSGA shall purchase a plaque to be presented to Groat at the ceremony.

Student government, attempting measures to put a stop to thievery on West parking lots, enacted a resolution demanding a letter of explanation from the administration as to the reason for no lights in the student lots.

There was once a young fellow named Merlin,

Who had all of the gals just a'whirlin.

In his swim shorts when out on the beaches

He snared all the beautiful peaches.

At night he really could win 'em,

When clad in his sport coat of linen.

His success, it just didn't happen—

He planned it; he shopped at van Straaten's.

P. S. A last minute visit to van Straaten's will almost insure your success as a correctly attired "Duke". "Happy beach-combing."
