Bids Out Today

280 Freshmen Shake Up By Close of Rush Week

Nine hectic days of rush came to a close yesterday at 5 p.m. with fraternities reporting 280 freshmen shake-ups from approximately 350 men participating in this year's program.

Following invitational open-houses in the afternoon, quiet period terminated fraternity-freshmen communication until 4:30 p.m. tomorrow.

All fraternity bids were mailed today by IFC vice-president Mike Steer. Freshmen must return accepted bids with $3 to the IFC between 1 and 4:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Non C-average freshmen can be rushed any time after 4:30 tomorrow. Rushing of non C-men before that time will constitute a major violation of IFC regulations according to Steer.

This year's 400 freshmen eligible to rush constitute 57 per cent of the entire class. This indicates a 4 per cent increase over last year's eligible students. Last year 349 freshmen from a class of 650 participated in rush with 226 finally pledging fraternities.

Up to the beginning of quiet period no fraternity has been tried by IFC for a major violation of rush regulations either during fall semester or during the formal rushing period.

IFC's only action on rush violations this year came when the IFC executive committee levied a $40 fine on Alpha Tau Omega last October for "an act of poor judgment." ATO was found guilty of passing a coke out of a card room window to a freshman standing outside the section. The violation was ruled minor.

Lettermen to Occupy Front Rows at Game

All lettermen have been asked to sit on the front rows of the student sections at the Wake Forest-Duke basketball game in the Indoor Stadium tomorrow night.

In the interest of preventing an occurrence such as the one at Winston-Salem Thursday night, Athletic Association business manager Red Lewis is asking lettermen to keep students off the floor should any incident arise.

Lettermen are requested to wear their letter sweaters at the game. Their dates will be allowed to sit with them on the front rows.

Varsity 'D' Club president Bob Lavery has called a meeting of letter winners in the club room for 7 p.m. tonight to work out details for tomorrow evening.

Wallace Retains Top Office In Republican College Council

Terry Parker Wallace, junior electrical engineer and president of the campus Young Republican Club, was re-elected to the chairmanship of the YRC College Council by a 5-1 margin at the Saturday meeting of the North Carolina Federation of Young Republicans.

Chairman of the College Council is ordinarily chosen by the Council, but this year's vote showed a deadlock between Wallace and Nick Ellison of the University of North Carolina.

The question was then put to the entire convention, and Wallace was elected to his second consecutive term as chairman. He is the only person ever to serve two consecutive terms in this position.

Ralph Luker, a freshman here, was elected treasurer of the Council. Mike McManus, also a freshman, was defeated in his campaign for the office of state YRC treasurer.

The local YR Club, under the guidance of Philip Secor, served as hosts to the state convention, held this weekend at the Washington Duke Hotel.

In other convention business, a motion introduced by Wallace raised the voting strength of college and university clubs from four to five votes. The convention also passed a motion commending the local club and Wallace for the handling of arrangements for the convention.

A motion to strike from the YRC platform the section favoring school integration was defeated by the convention.

The campus YR club will elect officers at its next regular meeting, set for the first week in March.

Canadian Players To Present 'The Devil's Disciple' Tonight

REVOLUTIONARY AMERICA, 1777 — Ted Follows, Dawn Greenhalgh, Norman Welsh, Leo Leyden, and Eleanor Nicholls star in the Canadian Players' production of George Bernard Shaw's The Devil's Disciple.

Shaw's Melodrama Begins at 8:15 p.m.

The Canadian Players will present George Bernard Shaw's The Devil's Disciple tonight at 8:15 p.m. in Page Auditorium as the first in a series of Student Forum programs.

This play, called a "melodrama" by Shaw, also offers audiences satire and humor.

Dick Dudgeon (who calls himself the Devil's Disciple) is mistaken for a patriotic clergyman by the British. He is arrested and sentenced to be hanged by the Crown.

Meanwhile, the clergyman, Anthony Anderson, renounces his calling to become the leader of the Revolutionary troops and arrives in time to rescue Dudgeon.

A large part of the story concerns the association of the minister's young wife, Judith, and Dudgeon. General Burgoyne drifts in and out of this historical play.

The production will be done in a stylized manner, with no elaborate sets or props.

The Canadian group's production of The Devil's Disciple marks the first time a professional company has toured North America with the play since 1900 and 1901.

Heading the cast is Ted Follows as Dick Dudgeon. Dawn Greenhalgh, who plays Rosalind, appeared here last year in Shakespeare's Othello.

Other cast members include Norman Welsh as Anthony Anderson, Eleanor Nicholls as Judith and Geoffrey Alexander as General Burgoyne.

Denis Carey, the director, has played with the Abbey and Gates Theatres in Dublin and served as director of the Bristol Old Vic Company. He was the first director of the American Shakespeare Festival at Stratford, Connecticut.

Coads can use Student Forum tickets. The Page box office will be open until curtain time tonight. Admissions are $1, $1.50 and $2.

Director Paul Young's Illness Postpones Tour Scheduled for Women's Glee Club

By ESTHER BOOE

The Women's Glee Club tour, scheduled for February 20-22 has been postponed due to the illness of its director, Paul Young.

Young was admitted to the hospital February 4 and was scheduled for a minor operation. Upon further examination, however, the removal of a tumor, constituting major surgery, was found to be necessary. The growth proved non-malignant upon removal.

Complications followed the operation but Young is due to leave the hospital this week.

A concert in Sanford, N. C. had been planned for Friday,

February 20, and one in Kingston, N. C. was scheduled for the next day. A dance had also been planned by St. Mark's Church, the glee club's Kinston sponsor, to entertain the group. A second date for the tour has not yet been arranged, although plans are now being formulated.

Bill Tew has acted as student director for the Men's Glee Club in Young's absence and Geoff Simon has taken over the direction of the women's group. Dr. Paul Bryan, conductor of the University Symphony Orchestra, has led the Chapel Choir.

Due to the extent of Young's illness and the prolonged infection it was feared that the Men's Glee Club home concert, to be presented February 26 in Page Auditorium, might be canceled. At the moment there is no indication that this cancellation will be necessary.

HISTORIC WEDDING—Miss Mary Ann Edens Saturday afternoon became the first President's daughter to be married in the University Chapel. Miss Edens was married to Ensign Jefferson Dunston Wingfield, Jr., of Norfolk, Virginia. Mrs. Wingfield is a graduate of the School of Nursing and Ensign Wingfield is a graduate of the School of Engineering.

Editor Akin Terms 'Archive's' Reading Of Poems, Short Stories 'Great Success'

Miss Polly Akin, editor of the Archive, termed the reading of a selection of poems and short stories last Wednesday night a "great success."

The program featured readings from chosen material and a panel-audience discussion. The three stories discussed were "Laura", "Cover Your Tracks", and "Dry Spell." Although the material was composed of pieces that may be used in the April Festival, actual selections were not made at the meeting; however, the audience's interest in the stories and poems will influence the final choice.

The meeting, attended by over a hundred students, was conducted by Dr. William Blackburn. Assisting him were Neil Hudson, Miss Akin, and a Reynolds Price. Miss Akin predicted that because of the enthusiasm shown in this first reading, another reading will be held during the spring semester.

Miss Akin also announced that the next Archive will be ready around spring holidays. One of the largest issues ever published, the student literary magazine will contain six stories and sixteen poems.

Seniors Mailed Letters

Lin Hollowell, president of the senior class of Trinity College, has sent a letter to every class member encouraging attendance at the class meeting Thursday at 12:50 p.m. in 208 Flowers Building.

Miss Fannie Y. Mitchell from the Appointments Office will speak on the subject of job interviews since most of the interviews for liberal arts students will be in March and April.

Better Timing

This year's shortened rush system on West was admittedly too brief, but with a few minor timing changes it can be made quite desirable.

The main trouble was caused by having the first open houses on a weekend, thereby forcing fraternities to have rush parties before seeing over half of the freshmen. In order to have enough freshmen at their parties, fraternities took the first men that came along, or else they resorted to dirty rushing in the fall semester.

By starting the open houses on either the first Wednesday or Thursday of the second semester, much of this problem could be alleviated. Freshmen would have visited all fraternities before invitations had to be extended, and the overall rush period would be lengthened by only a day or a day and a half. This additional time to "get acquainted" would prevent many of the hurried judgments that were even more numerous this year.

IFC does not have to return to a two-week period (we know what headaches that causes) or a first semester plan in order to have a workable rush system. If it will just make a few timing changes at the beginning of this shortened period, the problem will be solved.

Foreign Students or Music?

Whether or not music is to be installed in the East Campus dining halls will be decided tonight in house meetings.

Undoubtedly the major question for those participating in last week's straw vote was whether or not the individual likes music while she is eating. This will have to remain a matter of personal choice; we are not prepared to argue any points concerning the psychological effects of Mantovani on the digestive process.

Certainly this is hardly one of the major issues of the day. The $800 which student organizations will be expected to get up over a period of time, should the measure pass, is not a great deal of money. However, a lack of money coupled with a constant demand for it is a chronic ailment of student organizations. There is only so much to give.

It is these same groups which support the Foreign Student Fund, instituted a few years ago. This has been one of the most selfless and worthwhile of student enterprises. The question, then, is whether or not the necessity to help pay for the music will detract from financial support of the Foreign Student Fund. Surely, if it is to be a choice between the two projects, there should be no question as to how to vote. The Foreign Student Fund is the more worthwhile.

Letters To The Editor

Music for $3000?

Editor, the Chronicle;

The WSGA assembly was asked last Monday night to consider having music in the East Campus Union. In house meeting this Monday we shall be asked to vote on this matter. The proposal involves $3,000, eight hundred of which is to be raised by East Campus organizations. There are two questions I would like to raise.

1. Why don't we collect that $800, if we are so anxious to spend $800, for the Foreign Student Fund or for the Alice M. Baldwin Scholarship fund instead of using it for music in the union when they few of us spend as many as two and a half or three hours a day? Sure, it would be nice to have music, but can't we spend the money in a more constructive manner?

2. Why is the Union interested in spending $2200 for music when they find it necessary to raise the board fee $50 next year because they are lacking money to operate efficiently?

Please think again girls before we vote on this matter in house meetings Monday night.

Sincerely,
Diana Tilley

Thanks Board

Editor, the Chronicle;

We on East certainly are glad to have the library open on Sunday nights. It should solve many little Sunday night "where-can-I-go-to-get-away-from-the-world" study problems. But I, for one, was very sorry to note that on page five of the Friday Chronicle (February 6), where you noted this change, you failed to make any mention of the Co-ordinate Board—after all, they were the ones who really worked so hard to secure the change.

So I say, thanks to Mr. Powell, but also thanks to a hard-working Co-ordinate Board.

Sincerely,
Betsy Goldman

Chow!?

By CARLYLE WINDLEY

It was a lovely chowtrain! The Moat is such a delightful place to dine. Its washroom grey walls radiate hospitality, and its hushed hush is broken only by the staccato of crashing kitchen crockery.

The climax of the fraternal feast was an exquisite creation called the Crusade Special.

Served in a battered bowl, this gourmet's delight was an unbelievable blob of shriveled raisins strewn on a quivering crust of caramel coated bread pudding. Having assaulted and conquered this putrid porridge the victors sat back and began to talk of other nights of gastronomical conquests.

First there was the Cattle Club with its barn-like atmosphere and home-cooked vittles where bouef on the bouef reigns supreme and composite composition puts any bull to shame.

Corrects Error

Editor, the Chronicle;
Re: "East Assembly Defeats Party Rule from Code."

Though I do not want to appear as if I am rehearsing an old issue, I deem it necessary to correct an error made in last Wednesday's paper. I was quoted as having said, "The rule still has to exist, but for us to carry it out is unfair." I did not take this stand. Instead, I merely asked a question to clarify the reasons for the council's recommendation to release the illegal party rule from its jurisdiction. My real objective was to ask if the Woman's College had brought pressure to bear on West's Administration to enforce the rule. (Unfortunately, the answer was that West Administration had done little to heed East's requests for such enforcement.)

It is probable that the reporter was unable to hear me distinctly; but, nonetheless, I prefer not to be quoted as favoring a motion, to which I was, in reality, vehemently opposed.

Duke Battles Deacs Tuesday

Sensational Navy Win Provides Momentum

By ART SANTO DOMINGO
Chronicle Sports Editor

Wake Forest's battling Deacons, losers to a good St. Joseph's team by 76-67 in their last outing, will stir up plenty of trouble for the Blue Devils tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Indoor Stadium. The Deacs, recent participants in the Winston-Salem riot and guilty of two technicals against St. Joe's, are led by their talented center, Dave Budd.

Duke lettermen, on the request of business manager Red Lewis, will sit in the front rows of seats in the student sections at the game in order to prevent any possible trouble.

In the two clubs' last meeting, Johnny Frye's last second basket knocked out the Baptists in Winston-Salem. The visitors are currently 5-8 in the ACC and are but half a game behind the third place Dukes.

DUKE PRESS SANK NAVY

A spectacular, come-from-behind win over Navy's sharp shooting Middies sends the Blue Devils into tomorrow night's fray. As Jack Boyd commented shortly after the game, "The way we came from behind tonight shows we must have it somewhere." Assistant coach Fred Shabel nodded his assent to the remark.

The "it" Boyd referred to was an extremely effective press which threw the sailors into a panic; Navy blew a 21-point lead in the second half. The Blue Devils switched from a man-to-man press to a zone press in order to successfully confuse the visitors, and Coach Hal Bradley's plan worked excellently.

YOUNGKIN A WORKHORSE

Workhorse Carroll Youngkin led the Duke offensive, which was almost nil in the first half, with 26 points, but the teamwork on the press was what turned the tide. The struggling Dukes threw the fans into hysterics as they caught up, fell behind with two minutes to go, and then went ahead, 64-63, on Youngkin's three-point play with 15 seconds left.

Prior to tomorrow's varsity encounter Whit Cobb's Blue Imps, winners in a romp over Fort Bragg, 75-57, take on Wake Forest's crack freshman squad. The Imps have won only one of three from Wake, and the lone win was in the Indoor Stadium back in December.

The last meeting, in Greensboro, saw the Baby Deacs clobber the Imps, 88-44, led by Len Chappell's 30 points. The 6-8, 225 pounder from Portage, Pa., is an attraction by himself.

YOUNGKIN TWISTS FOR TWO POINTS

Regular Cage Season Closes Wednesday; IM Playoff Games Will Begin Thursday

The intramural basketball season rushes to a close with the final round of games on Wednesday. Several divisions are still undecided, and the field for the playoffs which begin Thursday night is incomplete.

IM manager Clark Abbott announced that 15 teams will more than likely make up the playoff field. One team from each of the twelve divisions will make it, and three others, chosen from the close races will be picked, probably from the top three divisions.

In division I, the Beta (A) team faces the KA (A) club with a 6-1 mark. The KA's could clinch the title since they have an unblemished 7-0 record as they meet on Wednesday.

The KA (C) team in division V will have to play off with the Shabblers if they lose to the Sigma Chi (C) club. In division VII, the Sigma Nu (B) team can clinch with a win over the ZET team. Otherwise they will finish tied with Phi Psi. The division VII Volunteers can take the crown with a win on Wednesday over the Phi Kaps.

Schumacher Breaks Own Mark in Devilish Victory

By RONNIE JOHNSON

The Devilfish of Duke University took first place honors in all but two events and went on to defeat the frogmen of Washington and Lee by a score of 56-30 on Saturday.

The Duke Aquamen were led by Donnie Schumacher, who set a new pool record in the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:33 flat. The previous record time was 2:35.6 set also by Schumacher ten days ago when he broke Carroll Daley's 25 year old mark of 2:36.

Laird Blue, Schumacher, Ken Whitney and Bill Weber posted a 4:15.6 time in winning the 400-yard medley relay, while the 400 yard free-style relay was copped in three minutes 41.1 seconds by Whitney, Weber, Steve Smith, and Bruce Soule.

Besides wins registered by Soule with a 2:26 time in the 220-yard freestyle, Smith with a speed of 23.3 in the 50 yard free-style, Weber with 2:30 in the 200 yard butterfly, Whitney in the 100 yard freestyle with 55 flat, and Blue with 2:27.8 in the 200 yard backstroke, the Duke-men captured second place in three events and third in two.

Although he mentioned that he was disappointed in some events, Coach Jack Persons said that his boys "gave a real good effort." Coach Persons believes that the meet would have been closer if the Generals had not recently lost a top back stroker.

"Rush hurt us a great deal but it was good to have a meet like this to get us in shape for our next one," concluded the Devilfish mentor.
