WAKE FOREST WINS—SCORE 24 TO 10
FIRST BASKET BALL GAME
Played Friday Night Before an Enthusiastic Audience.

The star of the game for Trinity was as follows:
1. Right forward, G. Greener.
2. Left forward, C. R. Claywell.
3. Center, T. G. Stem (captain).
4. Right guard, E. Gore.
5. Left guard, L. G. White.

The Wake Forest team was done by Couch and Turner. Their marking was "Reddy" White as guard. He put up a good game and feels he will do well. Their passing was accurate and clean, and it was very seldom that a Trinity player was left uncovered. The Wake Forest practically won the game. The first half of the game was rather even, but in the second half Wake Forest practically won the game.

Mr. M. R. Long, who has been sick with a bad case of grip, is able to be out again. He left for New York City.

The March Gazette is out with the following table of contents:
April 12—Binghman School, of Asheville, at Durham.
April 19—Wake Forest School, the schedule is in no wise complete, as the manager intends to get a number of additional games.

Mr. Greenway went to his home at Henderson Friday.
Mr. B. F. Keith, Jr., of North Carolina, who recently made a visit to his home at Littleton, has returned to school. He is feeling well and expects to be back in Virginia once more. Mr. Greenway went to his home at Oxford Friday to visit relatives.

Mr. Percy Dawson, who recently made a visit to his home at Littleton, has returned to school. He is feeling well and expects to be back in Virginia once more.

Mr. Numa Crews went over to his home at Oxford Friday to visit relatives.

GIVE THEM THE "T."

At one time the Athletic Association of Trinity College did not make any provision for "T's" to be given as baseball game distinctive in different branches of athletic sports, but since the matter was taken in hand by this organization its ruling has been adequate and has given satisfaction generally. However, this ruling does not cover, and which has been repeatedly made to the managers of teams. Some letters give to managers their Lajoie's Guide.

Napoleon Lajoie's Official Base Ball Guide for 1906 is the first Guide on the market this spring copy of which has just been received at this office. Perfect has been awaiting the publication of this Guide with considerable impatience, because it has been a matter of general curiosity as to what kind of a publication the much talked about Lajoie's Guide would be, inasmuch as it is the first time that a player actively engaged in the game has ever essayed the publication of a Guide. If there have been any doubts about the merits of this Guide they are going to be very eagerly sur­
