SECOND BASKET BALL GAME

Played at Wake Forest Wednesday Between Trinity and Wake Forest.

TRINITY DEFEATED BY SCORE OF 15 TO 7

Contest Characterized by Brut Brougham—Coach, Ward, and White Played Especially Good Game

Second-String basketball team suffered defeat for the second time at the hands of the Wake Forest boys at Wake Forest last Wednesday afternoon, the final score being 15 to 7. This is the second game in which Trinity has participated, and the work of the home boys evinced their markedly acquired knowledge of the game. Their playing was stronger and more aggressive than in their first contest as they will attest. The playing of Wake Forest was better also. Her men worked together in a much better manner than the former. The bases on balls, strike out nine and one two-bagger. Clement gave four good curves, fair control, and a fairly good head. DURHAM, N. C., May 20, 1900

DURHAM IN KENTUCKY.

During the past year there has been a movement among many colleges to abolish the gate receipts of athletic contests and to conduct all such contests without charge. In this manner, athletics would have to be conducted all such contests without gate receipts, and the college would have to use its endowment fund to support the athletic association. Furthermore, since the expense of the college's athletic associations is less than the surplus of the college, athletics are self-supporting and even produce a surplus for the college.

In all ages plagiarism seems to have been common, for in the age of Plato, the author admitted that he was those to whom he would be willing to give credit. Even if otherwise, the practice by some of the most ancient authors at the present day, and in no less unfavorable to this and deserves all of the censure that may be heaped upon him.

Once more we will have to note a fault, or shall we say in this case, an inadvertence, to which the production of the editorial staff of the paper referred to the failure to credit this article with the authorship.

In all ages plagiarism seems to have been common, for in the age of Plato, he was one of those to whom he would be willing to give credit. The production of the editorial staff of the paper referred to the failure to credit this article with the authorship.

In all ages plagiarism seems to have been common, for in the age of Plato, he was one of those to whom he would be willing to give credit. By seeing printed in one of our weekly papers an editorial in the Evening Chronicle (Charlotte), which appeared in the columns of this paper. The article was a discussion of whether or not a college education paid off and was copied with the name of its author, appearing the production of the editorial staff of the paper referred to the failure to credit this article with the authorship.

If the failure to credit this article with the authorship was through carelessness such laxity can be excused. If otherwise, the practice cannot be too severely condemned.

Speaker Are Selected to Take Part in the Sophomore Debate, Which Will Be Held April 27.

The preliminary to the annual Sophomore Debate was held on Thursday evening of last week in the Y. M. C. A. hall. It was not open to the public, and only the committee of judges was present, these being Dis. Cranford and Misses and Mr. E. R. Cooper. Since the same question that was used on this occasion will be used at the final contest, only one of the speakers was allowed in the hall at a time, in order that they might not learn anything about each other's speeches. The query used was that 'a Western railroad field bill should be passed by the Senate. The committee selected the following men: J. B. Aiken, A. C. Wright, E. F. Love, W. V. McRae, S. A. Richardson, and W. A. Stanbury. This debate will be used at the final contest, April 27. The speakers have been arranged on the question as follows:

Affirmative. Negative
Aiken, Hinton, Love, Richardson, Stanbury.
