TRINITY WAS THE VICTOR

Guilford Outclassed at Basket Ball by the Home Team.

TWENTY TO ONE WAS SCORE

Kiker and Lilly Starred for Trinity—The Visitors Could Not Find the Basket—The Line-up and Officials.

Trinity's basket-ball victory came as a fitting climax to the closing of the fall examinations last Thursday. For ten days previous the order of the day—and night—had been review, or cram. Thursday evening between two and three hundred care-free students witnessed Guilford's very decisive defeat.

The game was not as uninteresting as the one-sided score, twenty to one, would indicate. On the other hand, it was a lively game from beginning to end. However, there was a slight difference in the interpretation of some of the rules, and this caused a delay at several points of the contest. The Quaker boys had good men and a strong team but they just simply could not throw a goal. Cambo, playing left forward for Guilford, did pretty good work. His good work was overshadowed, however, by the fine defensive work of Stem. John Anderson scored Guilford's solitary point on a foul of a Trinity man.

The home team was at its best Thursday night. Each man did his full share of work and they all played in unison. Trinity's guard work was fine. Kiker and Lilly were the stars of the game. During the first half, Kiker threw two goals, and Lilly one. During the second Lilly placed the ball in the basket three times and Kiker did the same stunt. This made nine goals—18 points. Stem got the other two points on Guilford's fouls. Two of Kiker's goals were from near the middle of the field and were extra good work. The whole team played together and that is what piled up the score for Trinity and partly what kept it down for Guilford.

The line up was as follows:

Guilford	Trinity
Anderson, John R F	Puryear
Cambo, L F	Lilly
Petty, C	Kiker
Anderson, Joe R C	Capt. Stem
Lindley, L G	White

Referees: Card and Benson. Scorer: Hendren. Time keeper: Nixon. Score: Trinity 20, Guilford 1.

During the second half Baxter took Puryear's place for Trinity and Jones Petty's place on the Guilford team. Nine fouls were charged against Trinity and six against Guilford.

Trinity will play at Wake Forest Friday.

Rev. T. A. Smoot gave a very helpful talk at the Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening. His subject was optimism or "Looking on the Bright Side of Life."

IN FRATERNITY CIRCLES.

New Members Initiated by the Local Chapters—The Annual Conclave of Kappa Sigma Held in Durham.

The past week has been one of great activity in local fraternity circles, being the annual time for the initiation of new men.

The Alpha Tau Omega fraternity initiated six men Friday evening, after which a spread was served at the Durham Catering Co. in honor of these men. Those initiated were Messrs. K. W. Parham, of the Junior class, H. Fred Connelly, H. C. Doss, James L. Hutchison, W. B. Foreman, and Edwin McIntosh, of the Freshman class.

The initiation of the Kappa Sigmas took place Saturday evening and the men taken in were Messrs. Sneed Sasser, Julian J. Lane, Geo. A. Gray, Jr., Forest U. Lake and S. J. Asbury. The annual conclave of district four of Kappa Sigma was in session in the city Saturday with many delegates present from Wofford, A. & M., Davidson, and the University. These joined with the Trinity chapter in the initiatory ceremonies. A banquet followed at Hotel Carolina during which several toasts were responded to.

The Pi Kappa Alpha initiated the following: Messrs. John A. Ricks and Julian Frazier. The ceremony took place Saturday evening and was followed by a banquet at the cafe of the Durham Catering Co.

The initiation of the Kappa Alphas took place partly on Saturday evening, at which time Mr. Nathan W. LeGrande was taken in. Their banquet was held at the Durham Catering Co.'s dining hall Saturday evening.

Avera Lectures the First Week in April.

The series of lectures under the auspices of the Avera School of Biblical Literature will be delivered this year by Dr. Wilbur F. Tillett, Dean of the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University. These lectures will be delivered the first week in April. This series of lectures, given biennially, has been delivered by Bishop Wallace W. Duncan, Bishop Warren A. Candler, Chancellor James H. Kirkland, Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, and Bishop Charles B. Galloway. The establishment of this series of lectures was made possible by a gift made in honor of the late W. H. Avera by his wife.

Trinity College always manages to land some notables for its commencement. This year it gets Associate Justice David J. Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, and Rev. Dr. Donald Sage Mackay, pastor of the New York Collegiate Church.—Greensboro Telegram.

Be sure to read the ad of the King Drug Co., found in another column.

DEBATERS ARE CHOSEN

Messrs. Horton and Hobgood Will Face Tennessee's Team.

ONE A JUNIOR, OTHER A SOPHOMORE

Six Men Spoke in the Contest—Two Withdrew and Did Not Respond—The Question and the Judges—The Debate April 5.

Mr. A. W. Horton and Mr. E. B. Hobgood, of Durham, members of the Junior and Sophomore classes and of the Hesperian and Columbian societies, will represent Trinity in her first annual debate with the University of Tennessee. This debate will be in Knoxville, Tenn., and will be held on the evening of April 5, which is Good Friday. Mr. A. L. Wissburg, of the Junior class, is alternate.

The preliminary whereby these men were selected was held last Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. hall from 7:30 till 9:30. The meeting was presided over by Prof. A. C. McIntosh, and the committee of judges consisted of Prof. W. H. Pegram, Dr. W. H. Glasson, and Dr. W. K. Boyd. Six men took part in the contest and each was allowed fifteen minutes on his first speech and five on the rejoinder.

Though like all other occasions of the kind in most respects the debate was remarkable in one feature, viz., the speakers were very nearly matched with each other. The speeches they made were all uniformly good, and the selection of the best two was by no means an easy task for the committee of judges. One feature that the debate was lacking in was that the audience was not quite as large as it was on the last occasion of this kind, but all those that did attend were well paid and enjoyed the occasion very much.

The following query, which Trinity will have the affirmative side of when she meets the University of Tennessee, was used in the preliminary:

"Resolved, That the will of the people operates more effectively upon the administration of government under the English Cabinet system than under the Presidential System of America."

On the affirmative appeared Messrs. C. E. Phillips, E. B. Hobgood, A. L. Wissburg, and F. S. Love. On the negative were Messrs. A. W. Horton and W. G. Jerome. One speaker and the alternate, it will be seen, were on the same side, and on the side which Trinity will defend in the final battle.

Mr. Horton was the successful contestant in the Sophomore debate last spring. This will be the first appearance for both young men in an intercollegiate debate.

Two of the speakers who were in the race at the beginning withdrew before the preliminary. Mr. H. E. Spence, who was the alternate of the Vanderbilt debate and

INTERSOCIETY DEBATE.

Arrangements for It Are Being Made—Very Likely to Be Held in April—No Dearth of Speakers.

Now that the two speakers have been chosen to represent Trinity in the Tennessee debate, the leading debaters of the two literary societies are beginning to make preparations for the intersociety contest, which is a leading feature of each session. The two intercollegiate debates necessitated that the debate be held this year in the spring, instead of the fall, and at present arrangements are being made for it.

The Debate Council has decided that the preliminaries in the two societies should be held the first Saturday evening in March and that the debate should be pulled off about the middle of April, one or two weeks after the debate with the University of Tennessee. This recommendation of the council will be acted upon at the next meeting of the societies. In both it appears that there will be a large number of men who will enter for the honor of being the representative of their society, and so a good, spirited contest will be the result.

Entertained at the Home of Mr. Mordecai.

A few of the young ladies and young men of the college were entertained most delightfully last Friday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock at the home of Prof. S. P. Mordecai. The occasion was a tea given by Mr. Mordecai in honor of his two daughters, Misses Bessie and Ellen, who are on a visit to him. Refreshments were served during the evening and a pleasant time was had by all present. The guests of this occasion were: Misses Edna C. Kilgo and Alice Franklin, and Messrs. T. G. Stem, R. C. Kelly, W. H. Sanders, and A. L. Wissburg.

Interstate Y. M. C. A. Convention March 22-24.

The fourth annual Interstate Convention of the Y. M. C. A. of the Carolinas will be held at Wilmington March 22-24. A long list of special speakers will make addresses, among whom will be Governor Glenn, Mr. A. G. Knebel, of New York, and Messrs. C. L. Gates and W. D. Weatherford, of Atlanta. Reduced railroad rates and free entertainment will be given delegates. The Trinity association will be represented by several students.

was looked upon as likely to be one of the representatives against Tennessee, resigned from the contest on assuming the pastorate of Epworth Church at Raleigh, and Mr. A. J. Templeton also deemed it best not to speak Saturday evening. The six men spoke with enthusiasm and rose a number of times to much warmth and eloquence, with the result that the audience was greatly divided in its opinion of the two men who made the best appearance.

REVIVAL IN PROGRESS

Dr. Detwiler Preached His First Sermon Monday Evening.

SERVICES BEING HELD TWICE EACH DAY

Afternoon Meeting Held at 3 and Evening at 7:00—The Attendance Has Been Very Good—Services All the Week.

The usual revival, which is held here every year immediately after the mid-year examinations, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, began last Sunday afternoon with Dr. Kilgo's monthly class meeting. Quite a number of the students, as well as members of the faculty, were present at the service, and took part in it, and much interest was manifested from the very beginning, and the prospects of a very helpful meeting are good.

Dr. Detwiler, of Greensboro, arrived on Monday afternoon, to be present during the week and to conduct the services, and preached his first sermon on Monday evening at seven-thirty. Despite the very inclement weather, the Y. M. C. A. Hall was almost crowded with students and friends of the college community, and the service proved to be a most inspiring one. Dr. Detwiler used as his text for this the first of his sermons the sixteenth verse of the first chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans: "For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth."

He began by speaking of the mighty forces for good that were represented by the home, the church, the sabbath, etc., which are all institutions of Christianity, and how these things influenced men and women so wonderfully in their lives; how that one, surrounded by all the helpful influences which come from these sources, honors and respects those things for which the Christian religion stands, that men and women in modern times, as in fact in all times, allowed form, ceremony, and conventionality to have much weight with them, and were prone to neglect the stronger and more potent things in their religious lives.

But these things cannot save men, for there must be something back of them all to finally affect and change a man's life, and there must be some actual power, some dynamic force to bring to the minds of men the necessity of recognizing in their individual lives the power of the Gospel of Christ. This is the faith that Paul had, and this is the kind of faith that all must have, said the speaker, if the best development of the Christian life is realized.

Services are held every afternoon at 3 and evening at 7:00 o'clock, and they are being well attended, and much interest is being taken in the success of the meeting. It will continue throughout the week.

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 6, 1907

What is the matter with that constitutional committee appointed last fall? We are all very anxious to hear its report.

The basket ball playing given last Thursday evening was the kind we all always appreciate. It caused us all to forget "the late unpleasantness" and refreshed our minds very much. The team therefore has the thanks of us all.

Elsewhere we publish the annual report of the librarian as to the number of books and pamphlets received by the library during the past year. The library continues to grow each year seeing the addition of a considerable number of books. If a record of the number of users of the reading room and the library could be kept, it would be of very great interest. It would show, doubtless, that the percentage of students who make use of the books and other reading matter of the library is comparatively small.
There would probably be a majority—and a large majority, too
—who do not take out during a year as many as a dozen books.
Reading is a habit and one that needs acquiring by a large number of college students. It is necessary to the making of the full man.

On the rear seats at chapel a number of students, upper classmen, too, are sometimes guilty of a little ill conduct. It seems that boyish pranks could be dispensed with for five minutes each day during prayers. There surely can be no excuse why a student should strike the one nearest him over the head with a book,
pull his hair, or should himself move his position and get as near as possible to the door by the time "Amen" is heard. Still others do not stand or bow during prayers. A large number we are glad to say do endeavor to worship in the proper spirit, and it is hoped that those who have heretofore not done as they should will do all in their power to better their conduct. We believe that all the improper conduct has been due to nothing save thought-lessness, and that the mere mention of it will mean its correction.

gave some of his selections and received hearty applause for his cleverness. After the singing, refreshments were served and the

ing of this committee was authorized at the last annual conference
at Rocky Mount.

meeting under the auspices of the committee will be announced

WHY ADVERTISING PAYS.

"There's a charge for store
rent and a charge for advertising in the price you pay for every pair of shoes," said E. J. Bliss, managing director of the Regal Shoe Company, who is probably one of the best-informed shoe manufacturers in the United States, to a reporter who called to make some inquiries about Regal advertising.

"The charge for rent is a necessity. Does the advertising add to the cost of selling, per pair, or reduce it? Let's see.

"A store paying $20 a day for rent and selling twenty pairs of shoes, without advertising, would have to charge you $1 per pair
for rent alone.

"If by spending $20 per day additional for advertising the same store can sell 200 pairs of shoes instead of twenty pairs,
then the rent and advertising combined would cost only 20 cents per pair instead of $1.00.

"It is a favorite argument
with unadvertised shoe stores
that they can give better value
than the Regals, for instance,
because they do not advertise.
It would be just as sensible to say that they have not trade enough to employ more than one salesman.

"It is the volume of sales that reduces the cost of selling each pair. And the quickest and best way to get volume, when the shoes are of the right kind, is by advertising."—The Advertising World.

BEST MEETING YET.

Historical Society Outdoes Itself—Four Papers of High Grade Read—Attendance the Largest of the Year.

There were more students present at the meeting of the Historical Society last Friday evening than there has been at any previous meeting of the society this year. The program was also the best, each paper dealing with some subject that was interesting and that appealed to the members and others present. The meeting lasted only for an hour and a half and every moment was made enjoyable.

Before entering upon the literary program, the gifts to the museum of the society were announced by President Boyd. The number of these was large and some of them are very valuable. The list included one or two old and rare books, a number of industrial pamphlets of towns of the State, several letters, a powder horn of the war of 1812, and other relics of note. An especially interesting gift was two record books of a Theological Society which formerly existed at Trinity. These contain the constitution of the society, its membership, and a list of the books which were studied by theological students in those days. These records were found in the book room and presented by Prof. Meritt.

The leading paper read was that by Mr. E. R. Franklin on Henry Clay's visit to the city of Raleigh in 1844 when he was a candidate for the presidency of the United States on the Whig ticket. The main facts and incidents of this visit of the great statesman and how the people of Raleigh and the State received him were admirably sketched.

Following Mr. Franklin Mr. W. A. Bryan read a paper relating to the founders of the Rich Square meeting of the Quaker sect which was written by Miss Juliana Peele, of Rich Square. A splendid account it was of the work of the Quakers in that section of the State.

To those who are not acquainted with the eastern part of our Commonwealth and especially the ocean which bathes its shore the paper of Mr. L. E. Blanchard entitled "The Sand Banks of North Carolina" was both instructive and entertaining. This paper and also that by Miss Peele will be published.

A very short paper was read by Mr. U. N. Hoffman giving an account of the first cotton mill which was built south of the Potomac River. This factory was located on a small creek not far from Lincoln, in Lincoln county, N. C. It was built in 1813.

The society seems to be in a very flourishing condition now. It has a large membership which is continually increasing and many of the students are taking an active interest in what is being done to preserve the State's history. With a repetition each month of such a program as that given last week there will probably be a larger regular attendance of both members and non-members than the society has ever enjoyed.

Mr. J. J. Hatch was a visitor in Raleigh several days last week.

The University of Pennsylvania has broken off all athletic relations with Harvard. The trouble arose over football, when Harvard, twice defeated, refused to play, and the decision of the Pennsylvania Athletic Committee in effect as follows: "If our football teams are not good enough to meet you, our other teams are too good to meet you. If there is to be discrimination in one sport let it come in all."

BRAIN AND EYE

HOW EYE-STRAIN RETARDS STUDY

Many students possessing superior minds oftentimes fancy themselves dull because they fail in their studies.

The reason is simply this: They are afflicted with so much eye-strain that it requires nearly all the nerve force they possess to fix the eye upon their books, thereby exhausting the energy of the brain.

Many students unwittingly sacrifice their health in attaining an education, because of the large amount of brain-strain sustained in the close use of their eyes, though their vision seems excellent. This form of brain-strain is easily detected by an expert and most always remedied by glasses properly adjusted.

If you break your glasses don't send them away for repair, taking the chances of delay and mistakes. Just bring the pieces to my office and I will do the rest.
