Tabulated Scores and Summaries.

The ball season is now on in full blast, two games having already been played. Last Friday the Trinity team played the first game of the season with the Trinity Park school team. As was expected, the college won this game, but the "preps" made a very good showing.

Although the game was, to a certain extent, slow the college team did good steady work throughout. The coaching and hard practice that Coach Stockdale has been putting the team through for the last two months showed up in good steady work with the bat and quick infield work. The pitchers also showed up well for the first game of the season. Webb, Nixon, Flowers, and Lane were in the box and all showed a steady head and a true arm. Of course the other end of the battery was held down by Trinity's old faithfuls, Wrenn and Henry Smith, both of whom did good work.

The final score of the game was 13-0 in favor of the college. At the end of the last inning the college team had eleven hits to their credit. The Park School had been able to make but five hits. The Trinity players had two errors against them and the preps five. The game was played in one hour and fifty five minutes.

THE GAME WITH BINGHAM.

Trinity won the second game played this season from Bingham School. The final score showed that Trinity players had crossed the rubber plate fifteen times while the visitors had a goose egg as the result of their efforts to do the same stunt.

Several times during the game Bingham had a chance of scoring but each time the steady work of Trinity's pitchers and the good working of the fielders retired the side before the plate could be crossed. They had men on third and no outs a number of times, and a timely hit would have brought in a man, but Bingham seemed unable to find Trinity's twisters—only three hits being made by the visitors during the game, two of which were scratches.

Trinity's heavy batting was a feature of the game—the Bingham pitcher allowing fourteen hits. Bill Smith and Fred Flowers knocked two two-baggers each and Hutchison and Webb one each. In addition to these Wrenn placed a ball to the fence making three bags and scoring two men in the 8th inning. The stick work of Bivins and Suiter was also

CO-EDS ATTEND SOCIETY.

Hesperians Gave a Program
Saturday Evening Which the Young Ladies Enjoyed —Refreshments Served.

The Hesperian Literary Society invited the Co-eds of the college to its meeting on last Saturday evening. The program rendered was only the regular order of business and literary procedure, this being considered the most appropriate entertainment for the fair sex, of which a literary society is capable. Since to the ladies every innocent formal amusement is so familiar, the society thought it proper to initiate them into more novel and probably more boring amusement which some call work.

At 7:30 o'clock the society was called to order with the fairest attendance in its history. After the opening ceremonies the society went into the transaction of business, thence proceeding to the literary program.

Messrs. C. C. Barnhart, E. O. Cole and Holland Holton were the orators of the evening, each responding with interesting and scholarly orations. After these the president appointed a committee to judge the debate. The committee appointed was composed of Messrs Brinson, Starr, and Godwin and Mr. R. S. Brown. The debate then proceeded on that momentous question, woman suffrage, the spirit of the query being that women should be allowed to vote. The affirmative won the decision.

After hearing the decision of the committee, the society formally adjourned. Then refreshments were served and everybody proceeded to have a good time.

Mr. Pegram to the Y. M. C. A. Last Wednesday evening the Young Men's Christian Association was conducted by Mr. J. Ed. Pegram, and the meeting proved to be very interesting and helpful to the large number of students who were present. Mr. Pegram is an alumnus of Trinity, and is now a member of the Law School. He is a worker in the church and the Y. M. C. A., and it was great pleasure to his friends to have him with them at their weekly devotional meeting. A large crowd came out to hear him and were greatly pleased and helped with the service.

Two Papers Before the Historical Society.

The Historical Society held its meeting for March in the History Room Friday evening, presenting the usual good program. Dr. Boyd presented the relics, which were mostly literary, received by the society since the previous meeting. A paper was then read by Mr. E. R. Franklin on "The Instruction of Senators in North Carolina." Dr. Edwin Mims followed Mr. Franklin speaking on "Some Old Southern Magazines." His paper was very interesting and instructive and was greatly enjoyed by the members who were present.

Grady Society Gives a Pleasant Reception—Calhoun Society Elects Chief Marshal & Officers For Last Quarter—Other Items.

A large crowd witnessed an interesting game of baseball Monday in Raleigh between the A. & M. College and Trinity Park School teams. The good work of Coach Stockdale was shown in the fine team work of the Park School boys. They pulled together from start to finish.

Clement, who pitched the first part of the game for A. & M. was relieved by Temple in the fifth inning and Jordan went to right field. Gaunt pitched five innings for the "Preps" and was relieved by McCoy in the sixth.

The game reached its climax in the fourth inning when Clement hit over left field for a home run. In the same inning Clement gave Armstrong a base on balls with three men on bases which gave T. P. S. a forced run. Goos, for A. & M., got three hits.

The score by innings:
T. P. S. - 1 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 - 4

Last Friday evening the Grady Literary Society gave a reception which was very much enjoyed by those present. A number of young ladies, the members of the Grady Society, the old members, the faculty, the officers of the Calhoun Society and the inter-society debaters were present.

The Calhoun Literary Society has elected the following officers for the next quarter; R. R. Wicker, president; B. B. Flora, vice-president; W. G. Sheppard, recording secretary; E. L. Smith, corresponding secretary; F. S. Bru, treasurer, S. M. Strange, marshal. At the same meeting Mr. D. F. Cheatham was elected chief marshal for Commencement.

Prof. H. M. North is holding a meeting at Mangum Street church. Prof. F. S. Aldridge was called away a few days ago on account of the death of his Aunt.

Miss Nannie Aldridge is visiting Prof. Aldridge.

Mr. James L. Lockhart, a former student of Trinity Park School, has been on the campus for several days.

Good Speeches Characterized the Mass Meeting Thursday Evening.

J. L. HORNE ELECTED CHIEF ROOTER

Talks Were Made by Prof. Flowers, Dr. Kilgo, Director Card and Others—The Audience in Fine Humor.

The mass meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. hall last Thursday evening was a very enthusiastic affair and was well attended by the student body and members of the faculty most interested in athletics here. The best of order prevailed. The chief characteristics of all the speeches made were their wit and practical value. This made them not only enjoyable but valuable as well.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 by President Stem. The first thing done was the election of a chief rooter to lead the cheering at the games on the home diamond this spring. Mr. J. L. Horne, Jr., was unanimously elected to the position. He was called on and made a short speech.

Prof. Flowers was the next speaker and his speech was an excellent one. He spoke of the stand Trinity has taken for pure athletics and what difficulties she has had to encounter on that account in the way of securing games with teams. He also referred to what the Georgia Tech had said in regard to the teams of 1905-6.

Director Card was on the program next and he spoke very strongly about athletics in general and more particularly about track and field athletics, urging the boys to come out and take part in these forms of sport. In speaking of base ball, his "first love" as he called it, he made some remarks that greatly pleased the audience.

Mr. John Hutchison, of the baseball team, spoke then and was followed by Dr. Kilgo, who came in that juncture. Dr. Kilgo's talk was a most delightful one and increased the good humor of the evening. Following him were Captain Billy Smith, Messrs. Paul Webb, and Kemp Nixon, of the ball team; H. E. Spence, "Reddy" Williams, and C. E. Phillips, the latter speaking in the capacity of treasurer of the association.

Mr. Nixon, during his talk, referred to the fact that Mr. Stockdale, who has been Trinity's coach for a number of years, would probably not be back next year in this capacity. He made a motion that in recognition of the excellent work he had done here, a committee be appointed to raise a fund with which to purchase a handsome gift to be presented to Mr. Stockdale. The motion was passed unanimously and President Stem will name the committee.

THE EXEMPTION GRADE SYSTEM OF EXAMINATIONS.

We are printing in part below an article which appeared in the March number of The Vanderbilt Observer, written by Mr. Paul W. Terry, on "The Exemption Grade System" of examinations. The plan of this system is that a student having made a daily and monthly grade of a certain per cent, what per cent this shall be to be decided by the faculty, shall be relieved of the necessity of taking the mid-year and final examinations.

After outlining the evils connected with term examinations, such as the elements of chance involved, the great strain resulting from late hours and cramming, the moral dangers, etc., the writer says: "Now we come to the important question, do term examinations induce the students to take a comprehensive review? There are some students who, having applied themselves industriously throughout the term, can in the day or so allowed, if they have such a purpose in mind, go back over the work and get an excellent bird's eye view. As for the men who have wasted their time during the year, they cannot possibly, in the short time, gain anything beyond a mere glimpse of the subject, though they may pass. When we get right down to the practical working of this review period we see that not one student in seventy-five studies for the clear review. They study to pass, and the most convenient way to do that is to learn the spots and hobbies—in fact, the only way in the limited time. We have begun to believe the examination to be the very end of all our endeavor. . . . From the very nature of the case the only kind of review which would be beneficial is one which is free from the necessity of cramming and spotting—that is, a review with no examination in sight. These facts can readily be substantiated by quizzing any number of students about their last examinations. Hence we are forced to say that the term examination does not give a comprehensive review, which is its principal purpose."

The article proceeds then with a discussion of the pernicious influences which the term examinations exert in that they offer encouragement to the students to neglect their daily work and the writer very truly says that "character is made by regular daily toil and not by occasional heroic efforts."

The exemption grade system will do much to increase daily work. "We believe that if daily and monthly efforts constitute the sole basis of grading, as would be the case under the new system, there would be a great increase in daily application. The student would have a keener interest in his daily work, an incentive to do well at every recitation.

"In the writer's experience he has never come in contact with either a student or teacher who liked the examination period; indeed, we go further to say we have never heard of one who did not consider it an abomination. If by any manner of means we can avoid this abominable period of strain and cramming we will do it.

"To come to the point, if by a certain amount of daily work the student can be relieved of the term examinations, he will do that amount of work, and the teacher, freed from a great care, will rejoice in his pupils' vigorous efforts. As is the case in other institutions, it would soon be a disgrace to have to take the examinations in Vanderbilt. The great advantage which the exemption grade system has over the examination system is that the former stimulates daily work, while the latter has exactly the opposite effect."

The exemption system is not merely a theoretical one, but one that has been tried with great success in several universities and other institutions. Three of the largest and best universities in the United States now have it in operation, these being Columbia, Cornell, and Leland Stanford, Junior. Purdue also has it and in a letter to Mr. Terry the president says that it "possesses for us great advantages over the old system." Our sister institution, Vanderbilt, is about to adopt it. The entire student body is almost unanimous for it, and they have presented a petition to the faculty asking for it. The faculty's report on the matter has not yet been made. Whether Vanderbilt adopts it or not, The Chronicle sees no reason why it would not be a system in every way superior to that we now have. The student body will approve it, without doubt, and the faculty ought to judge from the way they express themselves on class, to heartily favor a plan that has every indication of being something that would improve daily class work. We hope to see the system put into operation with the beginning of the session of 1907-8.

From every standpoint the mass meeting and athletic rally last Thursday evening was all that could be desired. The attendance was large, the Y. M. C. A. hall being practically filled; the conduct of the students was ideal; the speeches were strong and to the point, and we are sure that much good was accomplished. The student body is going to give the baseball team its heartiest support, whether it wins or loses; and the team is in turn going to play ball on the square as it has always done whatever be the consequences. That is the only kind of team that can and will represent this college. In reaching this point, Trinity has had a steep and rough road to climb, but by following the right always in the scorn of consequences, the top has been reached until today our team can get a schedule of games with teams that play nothing but clean ball—a condition that was not possible a few years ago, as one of the speakers said at the rally. For all of which we are justly proud and trust and believe that in the future it will continue to be so.

The excellent address of Mr. Henry A. Page, delivered here on Feb. 22, is printed in full in last Sunday's Charlotte Observer. We endeavored to secure it for publication in The Chronicle the week after it was delivered but Mr. Page said he preferred that it should not be printed till after the adjournment of the Legislature. It is a good address and well worth preserving.

The first baseball game in Virginia this year, which was played by two prep schools, was a record breaker. The score was 129 to 22. North Carolina may be first in many things, but she can't touch that by hook or crook or in any other way.

Baseball Men Entertained.
Coach Stocksdale entertained the baseball team at his home on Cleveland street Wednesday night. The dining hall was beautifully and tastefully decorated in Trinity colors, with a large pennant hanging over the center of the table. But Mrs. Stocksdale knew what appealed to the boys more than decoration, for she had the table full of good things to eat. It is needless to remark on the appetites of the boys. Owning to previous engagements of some of the team, only the following were present: Bill and "Rastus" Smith, "Rummy" Wrenn, "Boogy" Puryear, John Hutchison, Fred and Claude Flowers, and Kemp Nixon.

Columbian Society Officers Elected.

In the Columbian Literary Society Saturday evening all literary duties were dispensed with and officers for the last quarter of this session were elected as follows: President, C. E. Phillips; vice-president, L. P. Wilson; recording secretary, A. M. Proctor; treasurer, R. C. Goldstein (re-elected); marshal, G. P. Pope. The president appointed the following J. B. Sidbury, censor; M. Y. Self, chaplain; L. B. Pendergraph, chairman, S. A. Richardson, C. C. Cunningham, Willis Smith, C. N. Crawford, executive committee; L. M. Peele, chairman, R. T. Howerton, Jr., J. L. Home, Jr., tribunal; J. L. Hutchison, clerk of tribunal.

Sophomore Debaters Appointed.

The speakers for the Sophomore debate this year have been appointed by Dr. Edwin Mims, who has charge each spring of this contest. Heretofore he has made it a practice of selecting from a dozen to sixteen men from the class and then having them speak to a committee which selected the six or eight who showed up best. On account of the lack of time, Dr. Mims selected the following men who will contest for the set of books which is given as a prize by Hon. J. H. Southgate, chairman of the board of trustees: Messrs. R. C. Goldstein, E. W. Knight, M. A. Briggs, and A. J. Templeton, from the Columbian Society; Messrs. J. M. Hays, L. Herbin, J. A. Livingston, and L. G. White, of the Hesperian Society. The debate will be held on April 26.

so very noticeable. Capt. Smith did star-fielding throughout the game. The field work of the visitors was rather ragged. The second baseman, Cocke, made one very pretty catch, however. This was a high fly over his head and he had to run back to get it.

The next team that Trinity will play will be Lafayette College, Pennsylvania, on Friday 22. It is expected that this will be a good game as it is reported that the Pennsylvanians have a pretty good team. The showing that Trinity has made, however, gives assurance of another victory.

SOME NOTES AND COMMENT.

The game Friday was the seventh which Trinity has played with Trinity Park School. The score of three of these games has been 13-0. The first two of these scores were made in 1901 and 1902. The scores for the other four years have been: 1903, 8-4; 1904, 9-0; 1905, 11-2; 1906, 7-0. For the years 1901-6 Trinity's record of games won has been: 6 of 12, 12 of 20, 9 of 15, 14 of 21, 8 of 16.

This is the first year in the past six or more that Trinity has not had a southpaw among her staff of pitchers. However, she has one left-handed man on the team, this being "Boogy" Puryear who played in the center garden when he was a member of the team before his graduation. He is holding down first this season and is doing it well.

The official emblem of the team this spring is a red game rooster. This emblem is worn by Captain Billy Smith on the back of his shirt, just over the right shoulder blade, having been put there by a kind friend of his. It is a very appropriate sign for the team to follow, for it is a very game team and expects to "win its spurs." In Hoc Signo Vinciat.

Lafayette comes for two games this week, on Friday and Saturday. For eight or ten years past Trinity has played the teams from that college and looking over the record since 1899 we find that we have won a majority of them. In 1899 we took both, in 1900 there was no game, in 1901 Lafayette won, in 1902 it was an even split, in 1903 the single game played was won by the home team, in 1904 we again put it on them, in 1905 it was an even split, last year rain prevented both games scheduled. This is the first year to have three games scheduled with the team. If past records with the Lafayette line-up can be any forecast of future ones, the odds are in our favor this season.

Dr. Kilgo's Speech in Raleigh.

President Kilgo spoke Friday evening in Raleigh on invitation of the Chamber of Commerce. The subject of his talk was "The City Beautiful" and "in the most perfect language did he paint the city that is beautiful in material things, but he showed that material beauty is not all that is to be desired and some of the most beautiful cities in the world in material things are farthest from what they should be," says the Raleigh Times. "The city beautiful the speaker thought should be a place with not only beautiful streets, handsome buildings, beautiful homes and well-kept lawns, but a city in which the Christian spirit pervades all of the commerce, the place where man can trust his fellow man knowing that by that trust he will not be taken advantage of."

Mr. S. F. Thorne, Jr., spent Sunday in Greensboro.

BRAIN AND EYE

HOW EYE-STRAIN RETARDS STUDY

Many students possessing superior minds oftentimes fancy themselves dull because they fail in their studies.

The reason is simply this: They are afflicted with so much eye-strain that it requires nearly all the nerve force they possess to fix the eye upon their books, thereby exhausting the energy of the brain.

Many students unwittingly sacrifice their health in attaining an education, because of the large amount of brain-strain sustained in the close use of their eyes, though their vision seems excellent. This form of brain-strain is easily detected by an expert and most always remedied by glasses properly adjusted.

If you break your glasses don't send them away for repair, taking the chances of delay and mistakes. Just bring the pieces to my office and I will do the rest.

ALUMNI NOTES.

[Items for this Department are Solicited by the Editors from all Students and Graduates of Trinity.]

Dr. C. A. Woodard, class of 1900, has decided to locate in Durham for the practice of his profession. Dr. Woodard has had most excellent training, and is thoroughly equipped for his work. The Chronicle welcomes him to Durham, and wishes for him the success which he so well deserves.

R. L. Davis, class of '92, has been elected State Organizer and lecturer under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of North Carolina.
