

RICHMOND DEFEATED, 4-0.

First Game on Northern Trip Won by Trinity.

ONLY TWO HITS MADE OFF LANE

Baseball Squad Left on Its Annual Trip Monday, Carrying Fifteen Men—Given Rousing Send-Off by Students.

The game yesterday between Trinity and Richmond College, played at Richmond, was fast and snappy and was won by the team from this college. The Baptists were given a shut-out, the score of the game being 4 to 0. The inability of the Richmondites to cross the home plate was due to Lane's magnificent pitching. Throughout the nine innings he was steady and sure, and was such an enigma that he was found for only two safe hits. Richmond's pitcher was found by Trinity for eight nice hits.

In fielding, as at the bat, the Baptists were outclassed. The errors of Richmond were three, while Trinity had charged to her only one, which amounted to nothing so far as it figured in allowing a score to be made. Star work was done, especially by Billy Smith, Chat Bivins, and Paul Webb. At one time it looked as if two runs were going to be made, but by a fine sprint and the clench of a vice Webb caught and held the ball and saved the day.

The score was received here by innings and a large crowd was at the Main Building to hear it read out.

The Trinity baseball squad, composed of thirteen players. Manager H. A. Page, Jr., and Director W. W. Card, left Monday evening over the Southern Railway, via Greensboro, on its annual tour which this season is North instead of South. The team left with a long string of victories to their credit, having played thirteen games of which nine were won. The schedule of the trip includes six games some of which are with exceptionally strong nines. The first game was played yesterday at Richmond with the Richmond College boys and today the team goes up against the line-up of Virginia on their own grounds. Tomorrow's game is with Washington and Lee, Friday's with V. M. L., the closing game being with George Washington University who lost both games played here last week to Trinity. Sunday will be spent by the boys in the Capitol City and on Monday, with Webb in the box, the boys will go up against the Georgetown University, this being the closing game of the trip. The team will get back home on Tuesday morning.

The players taken on the trip were: Captain W. M. Smith, short stop; F. R. Wrenn, catcher; Paul Webb and J. J. Lane, pitch-

CATALOGUE 1906-07.

It is Printed on Heavier Paper This Year—Only a Few New Things of Interest in It—The Enrollment.

The catalogue for 1906-07 is just out. It is printed this year on a heavier grade of paper which makes it much thicker than the catalogues of recent years.

The size of the pages and the size of the type are the same, however. It contains but few changes of note from that of last year. Some of the more important ones are: Beginning with 1908 Juniors and Seniors will have to submit their elective courses by May 1 of the year preceding that in which they will be Juniors and Seniors. The degree of cum laude has been cut out. Department honors will be given no longer to students who make the required grades unless the three electives have been in one subject—for instance, a student taking two courses in economics and one in sociology, which are classed under the same department, will not receive "honors in economics" as heretofore. For the first time the eligibility rules of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association by which Trinity's athletics are governed are printed in the catalogue.

The catalogue shows the enrollment of the year to be as follows: Graduates, 20; Seniors, 41; Juniors, 50; Sophomores, 70; Freshmen, 78; specials, 5; second year law students, 9; first year law students, 5; special, 2. With deduction for students counted twice, the total enrollment in college only is 270, a decrease of 17 from the enrollment of 1905-06. There is an increase of four in the number of teachers and officers in college.

The Park School yesterday defeated Bingham of Mebane on Trinity's diamond by a score of 11 to 1. The game was well played.

ers and right fielders; W. G. Puryear, first baseman; T. B. Suiter, second baseman; S. J. Asbury, third baseman; Chat Bivins, left fielder; Fred Flowers, center field; H. L. Smith, sub-catcher; K. B. Nixon, Claude Flowers, and C. B. Hicks, utility men.

GIVEN BIG SEND-OFF.

The team was accompanied to the station by a big crowd of boys and several young ladies, marching down street behind drum and flute. While waiting for the train to arrive, all the college yells and songs were given with a repetition of them while the train stood in the yard. The boys left in very jubilant spirits, feeling that they have the entire support of the student body behind them. The team was accompanied by Messrs. Angier B. Duke and Buchanan Lyon who went along to see the games and have a good time.

LAST TWO AVERA LECTURES

Delivered Last Wednesday and Thursday Evening at Main St. Church.

TALKS TO STUDENTS BY DR. TILLET

"The Gospel Within the Gospel" and "The Word Within The Word" Discussed—Both Lectures Thoughtful and Inspiring.

With a mighty outburst of eloquence that made a deep impression on the minds of his audience, Dr. W. F. Tillet, of Vanderbilt University, brought to a close last Thursday evening the sixth series of Avera Biblical Lectures. The attendance was larger on this evening than at either of the preceding lectures, yet it was very small when the character of the lectures is taken into consideration. The students of Trinity present were far too few.

The second lecture, delivered on Wednesday evening, was on "The Gospel Within the Gospel" and the third was on "The Word Within the Word." Both of them were related to each other and to the first one on "The Bible Within the Bible." In every way these lectures equaled those of the five preceding series which were delivered by Bishops Duncan, Candler, Wilson, Galoway, Chancellor Kirkland, of Vanderbilt.

In addition to the three lectures, Dr. Tillet made two talks to the students of the college. On Thursday morning he spoke in the Y. M. C. A. hall to the ministerial students and on Friday morning he conducted chapel and made a short talk. While here Dr. Tillet was the guest of President Kilgo.

"THE GOSPEL WITHIN THE GOSPEL." Speaking on "The Gospel Within the Gospel" on Wednesday evening Dr. Tillet said in part:

"The New Testament has a Greek body, a Hebrew soul, and a Christian spirit. By this Greek body is meant that it was written in the Greek language which, of all the ancient languages, was the noblest. It was pre-eminently the language of culture and civilization. By saying that the New Testament had a Hebrew soul is meant that the Greek is Hellenized and not classic Greek.

Hellenized Greek, so to speak, is a new dialect of the Greek, provided provisionally for the conveyance of Christianity and truth to the world. Classical Greek was saturated with mythological ideas and its words were imbued with heathen thought. It was fitting, therefore, that a new dialect of this great language should be provisionally prepared for the use of Christianity and the world. The Hebrew was the language of religion as the Greek was the language of culture and when the influence of one was brought to bear upon the other a new dialect was formed, making a fitting (Continued on second page.)

PARK SCHOOL NEWS.

Contents of April Gazette—Ball Games the "Preps" Have on Their Schedule—Other Items of Interest.

The baseball team leaves next Wednesday for Littleton, where it will play two games with the Littleton High School—Wednesday and Thursday.

On Friday, the 26th, it will play Warrenton.

The following games will be played here: Bingham, of Mebane, 16th; Bingham, of Asheville, 18th; Warrenton, 20th; Cluster Springs, May 1st.

The April number of the Park School Gazette has just come from the press. It is a very attractive issue. The Literary Department is composed of three stories: "The Girl With a Heart," by Owen Dudley; "A Morning's Chase," by T. D. Chatham, and "Her Man," by Herndon Tuttle. It also contains "His Proposal" (poem), by E. S. Blalock; "Patience" (poem), by Walter G. Sheppard; "Contentment," by J. C. M., and "Prayer" (poem), by Ted. All of the regular departments of the magazine are written up in good style.

Messrs. D. W. Harris and A. R. Cannon are confined to their rooms on account of sickness.

Mr. W. E. Bryant, who has been sick at Watts Hospital for some time, is improving.

Intersociety Debate Comes Off Saturday Evening.

The seventeenth annual debate between Columbian and Hesperian Literary Societies will be held next Saturday evening in Craven Memorial Hall at which time the question of ship subsidies will be discussed, the Hesperians favoring and the Columbian opposing them. The Hesperian speakers who have the affirmative side of the query, are Messrs. H. C. Doss and A. L. Wissburg. The Columbian representatives are Messrs. G. Milton Daniel and F. Swindell Love. The debate is expected to be hotly contested as it has always been heretofore. The indications also are that it will be on a high order, the speakers on each side being considered strong in argument and eloquent in presenting their points.

Ball Games Yet to Be Played.

The following are the games of baseball that will be played by the Trinity team after returning from its Northern trip:

April 25—Wake Forest, at Durham.

April 27—A. & M., at Durham.

April 30—Wake Forest, at Wake Forest.

May 1—Wake Forest, at Raleigh.

May 3-4—Clemson, at Charlotte.

May 6—Wake Forest, at Raleigh.

May 13-14—Central University of Kentucky, at Durham.

BOYS IN BLUE WON BOTH

George Washington Defeated by Scores of 6-0 and 5-2.

IN SECOND TRINITY MADE NO ERRORS

Heavy Hitting by Home Team Characterized Both Contests—Webb's and Lane's Pitching Superb—Details of Each Game.

The George Washington University team went down in defeat last Friday before the Trinity nine. This was the first of the series of games to be played and the Hatchet Swingers were given the goose-egg, while the home team made six tallies. Five of these tallies were made in the first inning. Two pitchers, Titus and Carr, were in the box and eleven of Trinity's men handled the willow wand during the first inning.

Puryear, first up, got to first on a muffed ball by right fielder. Smith swatted the white sphere out for two bags and scored "Boogy." Wrenn got a long hit and scored Smith, but was thrown out at second from home, where the ball had been thrown in an attempt to cut off Smith's run. Suiter made first and stole second. Flowers walked and Webb got a hit, scoring Suiter and putting Flowers on third, with one man down. Carr went into the box at this point. Webb stole second and Bivins went to first on the Big Four route. Lane was made to do the same stunt and Flowers was forced across home plate. Asbury, the ninth man up, fanned. Puryear, again up in this inning, was given his base on balls and Webb was forced in. Smith was thrown out at first by second and the side was retired after five runs had been made.

The other run was made in the eighth inning by Bivins, first man up in that inning. He was given his base and got to second on a balk. Lane was out on a pop fly to third. Asbury advanced Bivins to third, but was thrown out at first. Puryear got a hit and scored Bivins. Smith flew out to right field, retiring the side. As neither team scored in the ninth this was all the scoring done, leaving the score 6-0 in Trinity's favor.

FEATURES OF THE GAME.

That Trinity outclassed her opponents is shown from the fact that forty-one Trinity men came to the bat during the game, while only thirty men faced Webb. Of these seven died at home plate and only five were able to reach first bag. Star work was done for the visitors by Hester and Titus in the field. Campbell handled everything on and around second and Stevenson caught a good game behind the bat. Carr pitched a fairly good game after he got himself out of the hole he found when he was called from the field. He fanned (Continued on third page.)

This would be no bad idea at

channel for conveyance of the new gospel. By saying that the New Testament has a Christian spirit it means that the truth therein revealed through it goes like a new spirit breathed into it by the Almighty Father. This Christian spirit is the Christ, and through Christ and in it is Christ incarnate.

The speaker further said:
"Traditional theology approaches the study of Christ more from the standpoint of his divinity and makes relatively less of his humanity than does modern theology which, while re-affirming his deity, yet approaches the study of the New Testament more from the standpoint of the human Jesus set forth in the first three gospels. Modern theology may be said, therefore, to make more of the human Jesus than did the old theology of the church, both alike, however, affirming his deity.
He then proceeded to take up Paul's place in the New Testament literature and his influence in history as the interpreter of the person and mind of Christ.
"All that is human in the Christ of the first three gospels and all that is divine in the Christ in the four gospels meet in the Pauline conception and interpretation of Christ.

"Paul stands for divine-human Christ evangelizing the world, the heart and power we find in three great truths about Christ. First, the divinity of Christ; second, the sacrificial death of Christ; and third, the resurrection of Christ, or Christ the divine Son of God, Christ and Him Crucified, Christ and the Resurrection. These truths and facts constitute the very heart and center of the gospel, and give it its evangelizing power for the conversion of the world.

"The value of Paul in the study of the New Testament cannot be overestimated, growing out of the facts that four of his epistles (Romans, 1st and 2d Corinthians, and Galatians) are the most certain and most universally accepted books of the New Testament.
Their genuineness are admitted by nearly all schools of critical thought. The Christ of these four epistles is unmistakably the divine Christ described in the four gospels."

"The Book of Acts was spoken of then as being the one whose omission from the New Testament would have been most seriously felt by the church. The book represents the dispensation of the Holy Spirit which took the saving truth of Christ's person and teaching and applied it to the salvation of individuals and the evangelization of the world. "The presence and power of the Holy Ghost is what makes the church."

"THE WORD WITHIN THE WORD."

"The dominant place of the divine human personal Christ in the written Word is what I mean by "The Word Within the Word," the all-dominant place which modern theology gives to Christ in this study of the Word. Jesus was, to the mind of the Father, what a word is to the mind of man—the vehicle of expression and communication to others.
St. John, in the beginning of his gospel, calls Christ the Logos, which, translated into English, is the "Word." Words are outward expressions of one's thoughts, ideas, and feelings. In calling Christ the Word of God the Holy Scriptures meant to teach that His visible and audible expression are the mind and heart of God.
Christ is the perfect revealer of God the Father to man. God the Father plans; God the Son executes; God the Holy Ghost applies.

"Christ is the key in the history of the world. Not only does all harmonize with the mission of Christ; all is subordinated to it.
I marvel no more at miracles; a far greater miracle has been reserved for our times, namely, the spectacle of the connection of all human events in the establishment and preservation of the doctrine of Christ."

"Our whole modern civilization is a result of His influence in history. We cannot well think of God, of man, or of human society through any other medium than that of Christ. The sign of His supremacy is everywhere to be seen. Christ may be called the creator of our modern human world. All of our ideals of life we derive either directly or indirectly from Him.

"Christ invested the events of His life and the days in which these events were transacted with such universal interest and such a moral significance that these dates have become a part of all time and are being ever lived over again in the consciousness of the world. He is a cotem-porary of all ages. Other men who lived long ago in the centuries have become ancient; Christ never becomes ancient. He is the most modern of all the characters of history. Christianity has its wood, hay, and stubble, but it also has its gold and silver.

The wood, the hay, and the stubble are essential, but are nevertheless perishable things. They change with times and seasons and have to be renewed and replaced by other things of like substance. The fire which consumes the wooden building does not destroy the fire-proof vault within which is filled with gold and silver and precious stones.
Christianity has its gold and silver, as well as its wood, hay and stubble. The moral and spiritual elements of the Christian religion are its gold and silver. Its purest gold, its most perfect jewel, is the Christ of Christianity. No fires of criticism can ever consume Him. After the fires of criticism are over, it is always found that the Christ of Christianity shines brighter to faith than ever before.
Christ is, then, the Word. This is his greatest gift to man."

SOME SPECKS OF DIAMOND DUST.

Paul Webb is leading the team this season in "pinch" hitting, having several times met the occasion when men were on bases waiting to be batted across the plate.

Wasn't that a very striking contrast of physiques when Captain Billy Smith, in the game last Saturday, stood up beside that 300-pound coach of the Hatchetites and told him what was what when he kicked because Wrenn got to third safely? The man with the camera missed a fine picture when he failed to snapshot that scene.

Nine "rabs (or more) for the young ladies of the Conservatory who give such liveliness to the grand stand during nearly every game. In that Wake Forest game they were especially in a jolly mood and, of course, were instrumental in winning the game. We look forward to the game with Wake Forest on the 25th with added interest, knowing that the same young ladies will be present at that contest.

Who was it said "thirteen" was unlucky? Remember the game of last Saturday was the thirteenth one played by the home team this season and that it was played on the thirteenth day of the month, and you can easily see whether it was unlucky or not for Trinity.

George Washington was able to throw a sovereign across the Atlantic Ocean, but the pitchers from the University which bears his name were not able to throw a ball across the plate which the Boys in Blue could not smack when they felt very strongly inclined to. Witness those sixteen hits in two games for a total of twenty-one bases and eleven runs.

The features on Trinity's side were the heavy slugging of Puryear, Smith and Wrenn, Webb's pitching and the all-round good support given him. Only one insignificant error was made, while the visitors made four. Trinity also figured in two pretty and quick double plays between Suiter and Puryear and Smith and Puryear.

On Saturday Trinity won the last game to be played before the team left on its Northern trip. This was the second game with Geo. Washington team, and was the thirteenth game Trinity has played, and it was pulled off on the thirteenth day of the month, but the final wind-up showed that Trinity had scored five times, while the Hatchettes had done so only twice.

Lane, who was in the box for the home team, fanned seven of those who faced him and allowed seven hits. Webb did fine work in right field and Puryear did good work on first bag. Trinity's bat work was also good. Eleven hits were made off Hester, the big south-paw of the visiting team. Smith got two two-baggers and Puryear and Wrenn made one each.

The game Saturday was very much like the first game, though Trinity made the majority of her runs in the seventh inning, instead of the first. Exactly the same number of Trinity men faced the pitcher, forty-one. Of these Hester fanned three more than were fanned in the first game, but more hits were allowed. Stevenson repeated his fine work behind the bat. Campbell jumped and caught a very difficult fly and cut off a hit, and Orrison on short played a pretty

TRINITY SCORES FIVE.

The Trinity players scored one run in the fourth and four in the seventh inning. Wrenn, first up, swatted out a two-base hit. Suiter singled, advancing Wrenn to third. He remained there till Webb came up and hit the ball, Wrenn scoring on the catcher's error, while Webb stole second. Things looked favorable for some more runs, but the side was retired before anything was doing. In the seventh inning, however, things livened up and four runs were made. Bivins was thrown out at first. Lane singled safely and stole second. Asbury made first, while Lane was safe at third on that baseman's error. Asbury then stole second. Puryear laid up against the ball for a two-bagger, scoring Lane and Asbury. Smith got a two-base hit, scoring Puryear. Wrenn was out, from pitcher to first, Smith advancing to third. Suiter hit safely and scored Smith. Flowers was hit by the ball, and Webb was out at first, retiring the side. Score: Trinity 5, Geo. Washington 0.

G. W. U. SCORES TWICE.

The visiting team made their runs in the eighth inning. Orrison, first up, got a safe hit, and later stole second and third. Campbell walked to first and stole second. Titus sacrificed, putting Orrison across the plate. Brannan was out on a high fly to Wrenn, but Stevenson got a hit, scoring Campbell. He died on second, however, for Flowers made a star catch of Fair's fly and retired the side. The Washingtonians made a desperate effort to tie the score in the ninth inning, but the fine work of Smith, Lane, and Wrenn retired the side after four men had come to the bat. The final score was: Trinity 5, Geo. Washington 2.

BRAIN AND EYE

HOW EYE-STRAIN RETARDS STUDY

Many students possessing superior minds oftentimes fancy themselves dull because they fail in their studies. The reason is simply this: They are afflicted with so much eye-strain that it requires nearly all the nerve force they possess to fix the eye upon their books, thereby exhausting the energy of the brain.

Many students unwittingly sacrifice their health in attaining an education, because of the large amount of brain-strain sustained in the close use of their eyes, though their vision seems excellent. This form of brain-strain is easily detected by an expert and most always remedied by glasses properly adjusted.

If you break your glasses don't send them away for repair, taking the chances of delay and mistakes. Just bring the pieces to my office and I will do the rest.

Two of Four Are Trinity Men.

It is somewhat of a coincidence that The Chronicle can report the fact that in two instances, at two of the large universities of the country, where four men have been chosen to places of honor two, in each case, are Trinity alumni. At a preliminary held recently at Vanderbilt University, open to all academic, biblical, and law students, out of four men chosen to speak for the Founder's Day Medal, two were graduates of Trinity. These were Messrs. J. M. Culbreth, class of 1900, and Mr. C. J. Harrell, class of 1906, both now in the biblical department of Vanderbilt.

In the second instance, of the four men from the South at Harvard University who have been awarded fellowships for next year two are alumni of Trinity. One is Mr. E. C. Perrow, mention of whose appointment was made last week, and the other is Mr. R. E. Sessions, who took an A. M. degree here in 1905. Mr. Sessions received the highest distinction in the department of education and was awarded a scholarship worth $250. He is in his first year at Harvard.

The Science Club Meeting. The Science Club held its regular monthly meeting last Friday evening in the Physics lecture room before an audience of usual size. Prof. E. N. Tillet, assistant in the department of chemistry, discussed the new pure food and drug laws of the United States. Mr. J. M. Templeton read his paper on the new ways for curing cancer and Mr. Luther Kilgo read a paper on some recent developments in applied mathematics.

The last meeting of the club for the year will be held on May 6, at which time Prof. Pegram will lecture. Officers for the next year will be elected at the same time.

A Publication of Merit. The South Atlantic Quarterly, of Trinity College, is a publication which does great credit to North Carolina and the South, and there has perhaps never been a more interesting or valuable number of it than that for April. This quarterly is of universal worth and interest, but in particular the thoughtful people of North Carolina and the South should by all means have it on their list of papers and magazines.—Charlotte Observer.
