

THREE WON, THREE LOST.

The Home Players Had a Successful Trip North.

A RECEPTION TENDERED LAST NIGHT

Much Praise Given the Boys for Their Splendid Playing—The Batteries Were in Prime Form—Individual Records Made.

Three victories, three defeats: this was the record made by the Trinity baseball squad on its trip North from which it returned yesterday morning. In every way the tour was a success, the boys winning some noteworthy victories and withal having a pleasant time. The schedule was a hard one and but for the fine way in which the boys conducted themselves they would not have been able to make the splendid record they did. At every institution they visited they were accorded the very best sort of treatment. Especially was this the case at the University of Virginia where many courtesies were shown them. The weather, though somewhat cold for a few days, was such as to be almost ideal for the game. The team played the game for all it was worth. Keeping its head at all stages and as a consequent have nothing to be sorry for now that the trip is over. Nearly three whole days were spent in Washington, this allowing the players plenty of time to take in the city, which they did in good style. In battling the team showed up very strong, having a total of forty-four hits for the six games to its credit which netted just half as many runs. The number of errors was rather large but some were partly due to the rough conditions of the grounds to which the boys were unaccustomed, having at home the best college diamond in the South to practice on. Webb and Lane did all the pitching, alternating from day to day, and their twirling was so good that the number of hits made off them was very small when the batting ability of the players who faced them is considered.

A RECEPTION GIVEN BY STUDENTS

Last night the student body showed, in a very substantial way, what it thought of the team by giving, in its honor, a reception in the dining hall of the inn. About all the boys and the co-eds who room on the campus were there and the former made the hall ring with all sorts of yells. After refreshments consisting of cake, cream, and fruit had been served, Prof. R. L. Flowers, acting as master of ceremonies, called on the members of the team for speeches and each responded in a few words of appreciation for the reception given them and the support received by them from the student body. The crowd then called on Mr. Spence, Dr. Few, Mr. C. D. Daniel, Mr. Horne, Dr. Glasson

Rev. Mr. Moose, Returned Missionary From Corea, Presents the College With Large Number of Heathen Articles.

Rev. J. R. Moose, class of 1892, has been in Durham for more than a week, assisting Rev. G. T. Adams, the pastor, in a revival meeting at Trinity Methodist Church. Mr. Moose recently returned from Corea, where he had been engaged in missionary work. When preparing to return to America he remembered his alma mater and collected a number of articles for the historical and natural museums of Trinity. This collection he brought with him and has presented to the college. It is very valuable, especially as it contains numerous articles descriptive of the domestic habits and customs of the Coreans. In it are articles of dress of both the upper and lower classes of society, several coins, and other things.

The following is a list of the articles:

Ladies' and gentlemen's dress shoes.

Common shoes of the middle class.

Hemp and rice shoes, worn by all classes, and wooden shoes, for rain and snow.

Matchlock gun and powder flask.

Gentleman's cuffs.

Spoon and chopsticks.

The dwelling place of the spirit of the house.

Samples of mineral stones and samples of what is supposed to be coal.

Antelope's horns, from city of Aden, Arabia.

Three coins.

Public Scientific Lectures.

A course of public lectures will be given during the next month under the department of physics, covering some of the fundamental concepts of science as related to the mystery of matter. These lectures will be given in the Crowell Science Hall every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, beginning tomorrow evening and continuing till the series is completed. The course is as follows:

"The Atomic Theory of Matter," by Prof. C. W. Edwards.

"Radio-Activity," by Prof. W. H. Pegram.

"The Electron and Electrical Discharge Through Gases," by Prof. C. W. Edwards.

"The Electrical Theory of Matter," by Dr. L. L. Hendren. The lectures will be of a popular nature and as largely experimental as possible. The public is invited to attend.

Andrew Carnegie has subscribed $40,000 towards a swimming tank at Yale. It will be 75 by 30 feet and built in a new building near the gymnasium.

The alumni advisory board of Yale is considering the advisability of raising the tuition from $155 to $168.

A CLOSE AND SNAPPY DEBATE

In Their Sixteenth Contest Columbians Won Over Hesperians.

HOW THE RECORD STANDS AT PRESENT

Only a Small Crowd Heard the Contest—Debate Council Praises Mr. Cole for Intercollegiate Debating—Hesperians at a Smoker.

The annual inter-society debate between the Columbian and Hesperian Literary Societies was held last Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, in Craven Memorial Hall. The debate was of the usual high quality and was a supremely interesting occasion to the college community; in fact, there is no contest in the year to which all students look forward with such keen interest and anxiety as to this debate, there being strong but wholesome rivalry between the two societies. There was but a very small crowd present to hear the debate, but those few were kept intensely interested, showing lively enthusiasm all the way through. The Hesperians were bunched together in the right side of the auditorium and the Columbians in the left. The building was kept in a continuous roar with society songs and yells, except when interrupted by the speakers. The faculty and those of our friends present from the city occupied the central portion of the hall and during the noise and clamor of enthusiastic Columbians and Hesperians to the left and right, seemed to enjoy the occasion.

The query was: "Resolved, That the United States should pay subsidies to encourage the building of ships under the American flag." The Hesperians had the affirmative side of the question and were represented by Messrs. H. C. Doss, '10, and A. L. Wissburg, '08; the Columbians, on the negative, were represented by Messrs. G. M. Daniel, '10, and F. S. Love, '08. The judges were as follows: Dr. Wm. K. Boyd, Dr. J. J. Wolfe, and Rev. S. S. Bost, rector of the Episcopal Church, of Durham. Dr. Edwin Mims presided over the debate and Prof. D. S. Murph, of Trinity Park School, was timekeeper. The time limit was twenty-three minutes for each speaker. The ushers were: Hesperians—R. S. Brown, J. M. Hays, W. H. Sanders, and Sneed Sasser; Columbians—J. W. Bagby, A. M. Proctor, C. N. Crawford, and A. J. Templeton.

The debate was interesting and spirited; the speakers showed themselves thoroughly familiar with their subject and fired arguments at each other thick and fast, proving to each one's credit that he had worked for himself and his constituents diligently and faithfully. They acquitted themselves with great credit and, although two of them had to lose, each one may very well rest

NO SONG IS SELECTED.

Several Meritorious Compositions Submitted but None of the Proper Quality for a College Melody

Trinity is yet without a song. The committee in the $25 contest instituted by The Achieve, after careful examination and consideration of the songs submitted, came to the conclusion that there was no particular one of the bunch suitable to be adopted and handed down to future generations as the song of the college.

The committee consisted of Dr. Edwin Mims, Mr. Garland Grever, and Headmaster H. M. North. There were some ten or twelve songs, some very creditable ones included, handed in for adoption. Out of the number four or five of considerable merit were found but no one, with the different characteristics to it, that ought to be selected as a song for such a college as Trinity. Believing, however, that some of the songs could be remodeled by the authors and that there might be some others submitted, the committee recommended that the $25 still be held as a prize till June 1 and the suggestion was favorably received by the editor of the magazine. The contest is, therefore, still open and it is urgently requested that more songs be offered for adoption. If any of the persons who have already handed in their compositions desire to work them over or polish them up in any way, they are requested to notify the editor of The Archive at once and he will return the manuscripts.

Preps Win One and Lose One.

The Trinity Park School ball team played last week, on Thursday and Saturday afternoons, the teams of Bingham School of Asheville and Warrenton High School. The game with the former team resulted in a score of 8 to 7 in favor of the visitors, ten innings being necessary to decide it. The game was characterized by heavy hitting by both teams, and a large number of errors. The score was tied and untied several times, this making the contest very exciting.

The game with Warrenton was won by the "Preps," the score being 8 to 3. The visitors played well, with their crippled condition, several of the players having been injured in a wreck that morning.

President Kilgo in Missouri.

Last Wednesday afternoon President Kilgo left for St. Louis, Mo., to attend the meeting of the Board of Education of the Southern Methodist Church. While there he is also attending an educational conference, having been appointed by the Board of Education of the N. C. Conference which met here recently. Dr. Kilgo made an address before the conference and on Sunday he preached at Fayette, Mo. He will return to college the latter part of this week.

RECEIVED AT WHITE HOUSE

Trinity's Ball Team Greeted by President and Other Officials.

INTRODUCED BY HON. C. D. ELLSWORTH

Several Moments Spent With Secretary Cortelyou—Hon. Elihu Root Also Met—The News Sent Out by Associated Press.

An unusual honor, one that is seldom accorded the members of any baseball team, was that given by President Roosevelt to the boys from this college on last Monday afternoon when he received them at the White House and shook hands with them all. The president said that it was very nice of them to call on him and they thought it very nice that he allowed them the privilege of meeting him.

Shortly before noon the members of the team, under the guidance of Hon. G. D. Ellsworth, a graduate of Trinity who is now supervising architect for the United States Government, went to the White House and were received by Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou, who chatted with them some time about base ball and other things. It was not then Mr. Roosevelt to receive visitors but after he had finished a conversation with Secretary of State Elihu Root, which was in progress when they arrived, the boys were ushered into the President's private office and greeted very cordially by the President and Mr. Root. The President was in a very pleasant humor and expressed himself as delighted to have the boys call. They were with him only a few moments but long enough, however, to have the representative of the Associated Press find it out and the news was sent out over the country that the President had received the members of the Trinity College base ball team of Durham, N. C., at a special reception.

DURHAM, N. C., April 17, 1907

The students of Trinity are greatly pleased to note the fine record which Coach Stockdale has made so far this season with the pitching staff of the Memphis team of the Southern League. Both of the games which he has pitched have been won by his team. Here's wishing him continued success through the entire season.

The attendance at the debate Saturday evening was, to say the least, extremely woeful. When men work as hard as the four speakers of the evening did and then have no larger audience of their fellow-citizens than was out Saturday evening, it is certainly not treating them as they deserve. The debate was just as good as anyone could wish to listen to and the weather, quite out of the ordinary, was fine. There certainly was no excuse for the smallness of the crowd, and we trust that in the future it will be as large as it ought to be.

With victory perched high on their banner Trinity's baseball players returned Tuesday from their northern trip. Their record is the best we have yet heard of a North Carolina team making on a trip this season, and we are all very proud of the boys. The teams they had to meet were strong ones and this makes their victories all the more glorious. At every place they visited they acted in the best sort of style and had numerous compliments paid them by individuals and newspapers, who said that they were the most gentlemanly and sportsmanlike boys, the fastest and best team, showing the strongest pitching staff and the most perfect team work, of any baseball aggregation that had come their way recently. We are not surprised in the least at this praise for we knew before the team left that it was possible to say it about them. Having shown themselves so favorably to the public we, therefore, as the organ of the student body of this college, take this occasion to thank those who went on the trip for the fine way in which they represented us in both victory and defeat, and we vouchsafe to them are heartiest support during the remainder of the season.

and Mr. Murphy, the latter speaking for the Park School team which was present. The meeting broke up after a short talk from Prof. Flowers.

TRINITY, 1; VIRGINIA, 2.

The second game of the trip was played with the strong team of the University of Virginia on last Wednesday and was the best game the boys played while away. They held down the Jeffersonians, who had already won so many decisive victories, to the close score of 2-1. Webb was in the box and allowed but six hits. The Charlottesville Progress said that it was the swiftest and prettiest game of the season on the local grounds. It said further: "The infield work of the North Carolinians was better than that of any visiting team seen here this spring. Smith at short and Suiter at second performed in great style. The Trinity boys played like real league ball players and were liberally applauded for their work." Virginia played without errors, while Trinity had two charged against her. The contest, after the first two innings, developed into a pitchers' battle, in which Webb had the honors in his favor.

The game was won by the Virginians at their first bat. Hornaker and Walker singled and were advanced on Hoff's sacrifice. On a fielder's choice the former scored and on Asbury's overthrow of first the latter came in. Trinity's one run was made in the next session, when Flowers walked to first, was sacrificed to second by Webb and scored on Lane's timely single. Things looked good for a run or two more for the visitors in the same inning. Asbury walked and Puryear clouted to center, filling the bases. Smith's grounder to first was safely handled, however, retiring the side.

Both catchers had their flying machines in good trim and not a single man who attempted to pilfer second succeeded. Of Trinity's player the Charlottesville paper said: "Wrenn, Trinity's veteran backstop, put up a splendid game. Not a single Virginian could steal second. Several who made the attempt were headed off by yards."

TRINITY 3; WASHINGTON & LEE 4.

The third game was with Washington and Lee University at Lexington last Thursday, the Virginians winning in the eleventh inning by the close score of 4 to 3.

Lane was in the box for Trinity and pitched steady ball throughout striking out eight men, passing only two men to first on balls, and allowing eight hits. The opposing pitcher gave no bases, struck out 4 men and was touched for six hits.

Pipes opened for W. & L. by putting the first ball thrown him over the fence for a home run. Trinity scored twice in the sixth inning on Asbury's and Smith's two-baggers and Wrenn's and Suiter's singles. Another score was added in the eighth on a combination of errors and a sacrifice. In the ninth inning Washington and Lee tied the score on a base on balls, a three-bagger and a long fly to out-field. There was nothing doing on either side till the latter half of the eleventh when a man was got to first on an error of second baseman, was advanced on a sacrifice and scored on a bit, giving the game to the Virginians.

TRINITY 4; V. M. I. 2.

In a good game which was played in spite of a fierce wind and much coldness Trinity defeated the Virginia Military Institute team on Friday by a score of 4 to 2. Webb's work in the box for Trinity was a distinct feature of the contest. He fanned ten of the cadets, gave no passes to first, and was found for but three safe singles. Besides this he won his own game when, in the sixth inning, with two men on bases, he made a two-base hit that scored two runs. In the first inning both teams had crossed the plate twice and the score was tied when Webb's hit broke the knot.

Fred Flowers was out of this game and the one the previous day, having been hurt in the game with Virginia when he and Bivins both went after the same fly and as a consequence collided. Bivins caught the ball and held it though he was considerably hurt as well as Flowers. In both games when Fred was out Claude Flowers played right field and Bivins center with Lane and Webb alternately in the left garden.

The V. M. I. pitcher was pounded by the visiting line-up for eight singles and two doubles. These were distributed among the whole team, with the exception of Asbury. Puryear and Smith led by getting two each, one of the former's being a double.

TRINITY 9; GEORGE WASHINGTON 8

The game on Saturday was with the Hatchettes at Washington and Trinity defeated them for the third time this season. The contest was very slow, more than two hours being consumed in playing eight innings at the end of which the game was called on account of darkness.

Carr and Lane were the opposing pitchers during most of the game, Lane having the honors, so far as hits went, in his favor but he was very wild and gave five passes to first in six innings. Webb then went in with but little warm-up and in the two innings he performed five hits were made off his delivery while he gave one base on balls. Trinity's errors were two and George Washington's five.

The decisive score of the game was made in the first inning. Puryear got a slashing three-bagger and scored on Suiter's single.

Neither side could cross the rubber then until the sixth when Trinity showed two over, three each were also made in the seventh and eighth. George Washington, fighting gamely to wipe out the two defeats here, by a strange coincidence came back in each inning with as many tallies as Trinity made but the one in the first inning gave the Methodists the lead. After two more runs were made in the ninth by Trinity the big coach of the Washingtonians called the game and the score went back to the preceding inning, 9-8 in Trinity's favor.

TRINITY, 1; GEORGETOWN, 4.

The worst defeat of the trip was that received on Monday at the hands of the Georgetown players, who made four runs to Trinity's one. The Georgetown slabsman, Devine, was a perfect puzzle for the wearers of the Blue and only one clean hit was made off him and that not until the ninth inning, when Wenn rapped out a pretty grounder that went clipping across second base. In several tight places the southpaw pulled himself out masterly, proving himself a twirler of much ability. Georgetown's hits numbered only four, all of which were singles. Two of them came together in the fourth inning, when they brought in runs.

It was three up and three down for both teams till the fourth inning, when all the runs of the game were scored. Trinity scored first. Puryear got one in the ribs and sauntered to first. Smith bunted and on the catcher's error was safe at first. Another error was responsible for Puryear's tally. In the same inning Georgetown got busy and scored four times before a halt could be called. A base on balls, two singles, and three successive errors tell the tale. For the remaining five innings it was hit the ball, run to first and be called out there. With one exception every Georgetown man that got there was shy about trying a steal on Wenn, for he caught them by yards, as in the Virginia game. In fact he made as good a record as could be asked of any players in his position in each of the six games.

in a happy sense of duty well performed.

About 9:30 the debate was concluded, at which time the judges retired to make up their decision. After a brief interval they returned and Rev. Mr. Bost in a very unique and tantalizing manner redeigned the committee's decision in favor of the negative. The opinion of the committee was not unanimous.

MR. E. O. COLE HONORED.

While the committee was out Dr. Mims called Mr. E. O. Cole, of the Senior Class, to the rostrum and read to him a high tribute of praise and appreciation from the debate council. Mr. Cole has rendered great service to the college as a debater. Three times he has represented Trinity in inter-collegiate debates, losing one and winning two, but every time, whether he lost or won, he acquitted himself with honor and reflected credit upon his college. In addition to these intercollegiate debates he once represented the Hesperian Society in a successful contest with the Columbians.

A HESPERIAN SMOKER.

After the conclusion of the exercises in the Memorial Hall, the Hesperians gave a smoker in their hall in honor of their representatives in the debate and also of Messrs. A. W. Horton and E. B. Hobgood, Trinity's speakers in the recent debate with the University of Tennessee. The old members, honorary members, and the judges of the debate were invited to be present. Refreshments and cigars were served and everybody had a jolly good time.

HOW THE RECORD STANDS.

The first debate between the two societies was held in the spring of 1890 and with the exception of two years, one has been held each year since, making sixteen in all. The audience for the first three contests consisted of the entire audience and in the third battle both sides claimed a majority of votes. One year there were no judges. The record stands at present as follows:

1889-90—Columbian.
1890-91—Hesperian.
1891-92—No decision.
1892-93—Hesperian.
1893-94—Columbian.
1894-95—No decision.
1895-96—Columbian.
1896-97—Hesperian.
1897-98—Columbian.
1898-99—No contest.
1899-00—No contest.
1900-01—Columbian.
1901-02—Hesperian.
1902-03—Columbian.
1903-04—Columbian.
1904-05—Hesperian.
1905-06—Hesperian.
1906-07—Columbian.

BRAIN AND EYE HOW EYE-STRAIN RETARDS STUDY

Many students possessing superior minds oftentimes fancy themselves dull because they fail in their studies.

The reason is simply this. They are afflicted with so much eye-strain that it requires nearly all the nerve force they possess to fix the eye upon their books, thereby exhausting the energy of the brain.

Many students unwittingly sacrifice their health in attaining an education, because of the large amount of brain-strain sustained in the close use of their eyes, though their vision seems excellent. This form of brain-strain is easily detected by an expert and most always remedied by glasses properly adjusted.

If you break your glasses don't send them away for repair, taking the chances of delay and mistakes. Just bring the pieces to my office and I will do the rest.
