

GLEE CLUB'S ANNUAL TOUR.

Will Leave Here December 2nd for Western Part of State.

THE ITINERARY OF TRIP A GOOD ONE.

Director Well Pleased With Progress—Practice Will Continue Until Club Leaves—Preliminary Concert in West Durham Nov. 30th.

The Glee Club is now making all necessary arrangements to start out on its seventh annual tour. For the past three weeks practice has been going on regularly, and Director Tyler expresses himself well pleased with the men and the progress that has been made. Thrice-a-week practice in the afternoons will continue until the Club takes the trip, and the indications are that the organization will be as good, if not better, than any club that has ever represented the institution.

The organization this year consists of about twenty excellent voices. Besides the chorus, the Club will consist of a quartette, composed of Messrs. Tyler, first tenor; Berghauer, second tenor; Hawks, baritone; and White, bass. Mr. Gilmer Korner, Jr., will accompany the Club as violin soloist. Mr. Horton, the manager, states that Mr. "Reddy" Williams will also accompany the Club this year, and will render some of his famous humorous selections. Every one acquainted with the Trinity Glee Club knows something of the place occupied by Mr. Williams during the past, and it is not saying too much, when it is stated that he will add greatly to the success of the trip from the standpoint of attraction.

The Glee Club will leave here on the afternoon of December 2d, and will be away from the college one week. This year the Club will go to the Western part of the State, having gone East last fall. The itinerary of the trip is as follows:

Greensboro, Monday evening, December 2, G. F. College.
High Point, Tuesday evening, December 3, Opera House.
Concord, Wednesday evening, December 4, New Opera House.
Gastonia, Thursday evening, December 5, Opera House.
Salem Female College, Friday afternoon, December 6.
Winston-Salem, Friday evening, December 6, Palm Room of the Zinzendorf.
Burlington, Saturday evening, December 7, Opera House.

There will also be a preliminary concert in West Durham in the hall over the Smith Mercantile Company, Saturday evening, November 30th. The proceeds of this concert will be given to the Methodist church. This will be the only opportunity the college community will have of hearing the selections rendered by the Club before it gives its final concert in Durham next Spring. All members of the Glee Club Association will be given free tickets to this concert, provided the dues of such persons have been paid.

"SMALL THINGS COUNT."

Two Trinity Seniors Meet Noted Singer in Raleigh—Gave Them an Invitation to Visit Her.

There is a story going the rounds of the State papers, entitled "Small Things That Count," and of which two Trinity boys are principals, but the story, as printed, is not quite according to facts. The following is a more exact statement:

Mr. Korner, of the Senior class, and Mr. Tyler, director of the Glee Club, went to Raleigh on the noon train to attend the Schumann-Heink Concert on November 7, and were joined later by Mr. Berghauer, also of the Senior class. Meantime, while Messrs. Korner and Tyler were taking dinner at the Varborough, they presented the rosbuds to Madame Schumann-Heink, and the famous lady carried them to the stage with her and on seeing the young men in the hall that night as she was going to the theatre, waved the flowers at them and said: "These will bring me good luck!"

After the concert these same three men were enthusiastically discussing the program and the singer in the hotel lobby and held in their hands some photographs they were taking home as souvenirs. Mrs. Hoffman, Madame Schumann-Heink's accompanist, came in and on her return told Schumann-Heink what she had seen and heard and the great singer sent for the young men. A most pleasant half hour was spent in her room, where Mr. Rapp, her husband, was introduced and where she signed the pictures—not only her name and date, but also a personal word as "Good Luck!" "Don't Forget!" etc.

It was here that the invitation was extended to visit her at her home, one of the party having planned to spend some time in New York later in the season.

At the station the young men had the pleasure of further conversation with Madame Schumann-Heink, who, by the way, is a great humorist, and of helping the ladies aboard their Pullman.

The fact that two were German and that all three spoke the language greatly enhanced the pleasure of meeting this most distinguished German contralto. Madame Schumann-Heink's unusual reception of these young men, her kindness and the autographed pictures will ever be a most delightful memory and possession.

By death, Clemson College recently lost one of her best and most experienced teachers, Prof. P. T. Brodie. He was born in South Carolina in 1866 and was graduated from Furman. He has been professor of mathematics for a number of years, and did a great deal in developing the civil engineering department of that institution from small beginnings.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETS.

Regular Monthly Meeting Held in History Room Monday Evening.

PAPERS BY BOYD AND HOWERTON

No Curios Given to Society, But Documents of Interest Contributed—Manuscript Address Delivered at Trinity Commencement 1860.

Monday evening the Historical Society held its regular monthly meeting. While there was not a very large number present, yet the history room was nearly filled, and all those present manifested interest in the matters discussed. No curios were presented this time, but a large number of papers and documents were presented which will be turned over to the curator of the museum, Mr. R. T. Howerton, Jr., of the Senior class, read a very interesting paper on the Rose of Sharon Church, giving the history of the church when it was organized up until about ten years ago. This church was built in the country near Durham but about 1854 it was moved to town. The paper Mr. Howerton read contained a great deal of the records of the old church which were of interest, as well as amusing. The church is now called the First Baptist Church of Durham, and it was related that this church organized all the churches of this denomination in the city.

Dr. W. K. Boyd also read a very interesting paper on William Gaston, one of the most learned jurists prior to 1850. Judge Gaston was born in Newbern and spent his life in North Carolina, and was considered a very learned man, ranking almost with Webster.

One of the most interesting papers, from the standpoint of antiquity, presented, was the manuscript address, which was delivered before the two Literary Societies at Trinity College, June, 1860. The theme was "Esse quam videri malim," and was delivered by Edwin A. Thompson, of Goldsboro, a very prominent lawyer of his time.

Science Club.

The Science club has arranged a very interesting program for Monday evening. Several papers will be read on subjects of current interest, and in addition Prof. C. W. Edwards will address the club on "Some Recent Discoveries in Physical Science." It is thought that the meeting will be equally as interesting as the one held in October, and a large audience is expected. The entire community is invited. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 7 o'clock.

Yale University now has the largest Y. M. C. A. membership of any American college. There are 800 members at New Haven.

Fromme News Co., "thats all."

PARK SCHOOL ITEMS.

Enthusiastic Meeting and Election of Officers of Athletic Association—Students Will Spend Holiday at Home.

Several of the boys will spend Thanksgiving day at their homes.

Headmaster North, this morning, delivered an address before the Morehead School, this city.

Miss Eula Pearce, of the Senior class, is ill with typhoid fever at her home on Morris street.

The Park School basket ball team went down to Wake Forest last Thursday where they played at night. Though outclassed by the college boys, the younger team made a good showing. The score was 57 to 7.

Prof. W. S. Lockhart has been ill the past few days, but he is now rapidly improving and is able to be at his post of duty again.

Mr. R. J. Sykes is visiting on the park. He is now studying pharmacy in Greensboro.

Little Elizabeth, daughter of Prof. F. S. Aldridge, has been ill the past few days with diphtheria. Being a mild case she is now almost well again and the quarantine has been raised.

Since the departure of Prof. D. S. Murph, who gave up his work on account of ill health, his work has been done by Messrs. Morgan and Wilson, of Trinity College. It is probable that Mr. W. A. Bryan will be secured to fill his place—at least for the remainder of this year.

An enthusiastic meeting and organization of the Trinity Park School Athletic Association was held Monday night. Prof. W. S. Lockhart will manage the team, taking Prof. Murph's place. The following officers were elected: President, D. W. Bagley; Secretary and Treasurer, J. L. Lockhart; Temporary Captain of Baseball Team, W. P. Moore; "Chief Rooter" J. W. Burgess.

Rev. J. H. Fitzgerald, class '95, who has been in Mexico for a number of years, is spending some time on a visit to his father at Linwood. His health has been very much impaired by his work in the Mexican mission field, but his stay in North Carolina has benefited him. He has been Presiding Elder of one of the districts in the Mexican Conference.

The annual session of the North Carolina Conference will meet at Newbern December 4th. There is only one minister in the city churches whose term expires by limitation. Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of Mangum Street church, has served this church for four years, and will therefore be assigned to some other charge. Rev. J. B. Hurley, Presiding Elder of the Durham District, Rev. G. T. Adams, Trinity church, Rev. T. A. Smoot, Main Street, Rev. J. H. McCracken, West Durham, Rev. E. M. Hoyle, Mangum Street, Rev. J. A. Dailey, Carr church and Rev. J. W. Autrey, Branson church, are all Trinity men.

BAPTISTS WERE VICTORIOUS

In a Fast and Hard Fought Game Defeated Trinity Monday Night.

BOTH TEAMS SHOWED TRAINING.

Final Score Was 20 to 11—Game Was Witnessed By a Large Crowd of Spectators and Was Very Exciting Throughout.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock Trinity College basket ball team went up against the Wake Forest team. The game was pulled off in the Angier Duke Gymnasium in the presence of about two or three hundred spectators. The playing throughout was brisk and full of spirit, frequently arousing intense enthusiasm of those witnessing the game. With reference to height, Trinity's men were some taller than those on the opposing team, but the players were evenly balanced in weight.

The halves lasted twenty minutes each, with a ten minutes intermission. Referee Crozier tossed up the ball, starting the game. From this point until the last minute of play the game was fast and furious, and although Wake Forest was the victor by a score of 20 points to 11, yet Trinity put up a hard fight.

Couch, for Wake Forest, made some particularly brilliant plays, showing remarkable accuracy in throwing goals from the field and from the foul line. In this half alone he scored two goals from the field, and three goals from the foul line. For Trinity, Messrs. Kiker, P. J. and Tuttle put up a strong game. Tuttle scoring one goal from the field by a difficult throw. At the end of this half the score stood 9 to 4 in favor of the visiting team. The play was frequently interrupted by fouls made on each side, and by outside throws.

In the second half, Couch, for Wake Forest, was again the star, sharing the honors in this half with Duffy, who scored two remarkable goals from the field. Kiker played his usual good game. Baxter was substituted for Tuttle during the last ten minutes of play, and showed up exceptionally strong, scoring four points. Tuttle also scored four points during the first ten minutes of this half.

The game was frequently interrupted by a large number of fouls made by both sides; and was at times slightly rough, though friendly feeling among the men prevailed at all times.

In team work Wake Forest seemed to have a slight advantage over Trinity, and were especially rapid in passing; but with the exception of Couch, Trinity kept her opponents well covered. Every man on the home team put up a good hard game, and it seemed at times as if nothing but hard luck prevented her from running up a larger score. The line up (Continued on third page.)

ATHLETICS AGAIN.

In the last issue of The Chronicle we had something to say in regard to the suspension of the University of Georgia on account of alleged professionalism in athletics. After writing the article it was also reported in the daily press that the Georgia School of Technology had also been suspended by the authorities of the Southern Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association for the same offense. We expressed the hope that a full investigation by the proper authorities would reveal the fact that no violation of the rules had been committed. The situation at present is set forth in the following press dispatch from Atlanta, dated November 23:—"At a meeting of the Southern Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association, held here this afternoon, the charges of professionalism against the football team of the Georgia School of Technology were cleared up, and the school reinstated in the association."

The charges of professionalism against the football team of the University of Georgia, were taken up but not fully decided. The institution was reinstated pending a decision, which will probably be decided at a later date.

Although the charges against the University of Georgia were not fully decided, Coach Whitney, of that college, was barred from coaching any other team in the Southern Association."

PROGRESS AND THANKSGIVING.

Real progress at college cannot be summed up in terms of athletics alone. Sports have their place, but they are only incidental. In looking over the field to ascertain what has been accomplished for any given length of time a number of things are to be taken into consideration.

Of course, we have not gone very far this year along the journey, but we do feel that we have advanced far enough and witnessed enough to state that things have been moving along extremely well this fall. No one can take a pessimistic view of any phase of college life now, and unless things change the fault-finders of the community, if there be any, will certainly not be over-worked during the session.

Fundamentally, there has been the best of relations between the classes, and everybody attends to his own affairs and not the business of the community. In addition to this, the students this fall have "cut" very few recitations, and "he who runs may read," even on the faces of the faculty, that there is great delight with the class work. Of course, there are instances where the class work has not been all that could be desired, yet, as a general proposition, it is safe to say that the instructors have no trouble in arousing interest in the different departments.

The part that the students have been taking in their organizations is also worthy of mention. The Y. M. C. A., a number have already observed and stated, is in a better working condition than it was last year. In addition to the well attended and excellently conducted meetings, the Association has organized seven or eight Bible classes that meet weekly for a systematic and devotional study of the Scriptures. This organization has a very important place in a college, and should, at all times, be the dynamic force to put forth all that is noble and upright. When it does not fulfill this mission it has failed in its work.

The literary societies have been well attended, and it is claimed that some of the best debaters for a long time have lately taken place in the halls of the societies. As long as the members will take pride in the societies there is hope and evidence of progress in this line of work.

Of course, all know what we have done along athletic lines. The tennis team has certainly done good work this fall, and we are all proud of the record that it made. The basket ball team has also done good work. Of course we will lose some games this year, but winning games is not the entire object of athletics. We do not expect to be victorious every time, no matter into what contest we go. We realize that there are other contestants who are capable of putting up good fights.

In addition to the spirit of good fellowship which exists, the seriousness of purpose evident on all sides, and the high standard of conduct and deportment of the students, etc., we have other things to be thankful for. It would be indeed hard to enumerate the things for which we should be grateful. Among the many things already mentioned we ought to return thanks for the host of loyal friends our institution possesses, for the many benefactors who have contributed so liberally to the college and to its ever increasing usefulness. Never before in the history of Trinity College was the influence of the institution so far reaching, nor rendering a more unselfish service, than at present.

Of course, we ought at all times to render thanks unto the Lord, but tomorrow being the day set apart as a day of thanksgiving, it would be well indeed to think especially over these things.

DEBATE COUNCIL MEETS.

Question Submitted for Discussion Between Trinity and University of Tennessee—Debate Will Be Held Here.

The Debate Council met last Saturday afternoon to consider questions with a view to submitting to the University of Tennessee a question which will be discussed by that institution and Trinity next Easter. A committee was appointed from that body to consider several questions which were suggested, and at the meeting of that committee Monday, the following question was selected and has been submitted to the University of Tennessee: "Resolved, That as a means of dealing with the liquor traffic a single constitutional or statutory enactment prohibiting it in a whole State is unwise."

Dr. Mims, chairman of the Council, expects to hear from the representatives of the University of Tennessee in a few days regarding this question. At this time it cannot be said whether it will be accepted by the Tennesseans or not, or whether some other question will have to be submitted. On account of the prominence of this question at this time, a great deal of interest being taken in it, it is reasonable to suppose that it will be an interesting debate, provided, of course, the question is accepted. At any rate, whether this or some other question is ultimately decided on, the debate with the University of Tennessee this year promises to be a very live one. Last year it will be remembered that Trinity won from this institution in the first of a series of three debates. The first debate was held at Knoxville last spring. The debate this year will be held here some time about the Easter holidays, in all probability Friday, April 17th, 1908. The preliminary for this debate will take place about the middle of February, and it is expected that quite a number of debaters will contest for places on it.

Rev. M. A. Smith, a member of the Board of Trustees, has been stationed at Waynesville as pastor of the Methodist church at that place. He has been pastor of the church at Wadesboro for four years.

Dr. T. F. Marr, Vice-President of the Board of Trustees, has been made Presiding Elder of the Winston district. For two years he has been pastor of the Methodist church at High Point. His address will be Winston, N. C.

SOME INTERESTING DATA

Figures Compiled By Director Card Show Average in Age, Etc. for Past Six Years—Object to Make Chart.

Director W. W. Card has been at work for sometime getting up figures to show the general averages of weight, height, etc. of the men he has examined here. His object in doing this is to have a chart that will show the general averages of Trinity men for the past ten years. When completed the scheme will be of value to the students, as it will show at a glance, in a general way, the physical development of Trinity College students over a long period of time. Already he has made calculations for six years. These figures are very interesting, and are given below. Only the averages covering age, weight and height are shown.

Age: 1902, 19 years 7 months; 1903, 19 years; 1904, 18 years; 1905, 18 years 3 months; 1906, 18 years 1 month; 1907, 18 years 8 months.

Weight: 1902, 133 pounds; 1903, 129 pounds; 1904, 128 pounds; 1905, 134 pounds; 1906, 127 pounds; 1907, 128 pounds.

Height: 1902, 67.5 inches; 1903, 60.3 inches; 1904, 67.8 inches; 1905, 60.9 inches; 1906, 60.8 inches; 1907, 66.2 inches.

General average: Age, 19 years 3 months. Weight, 128 pounds. Height, 63.5 inches.

As a general proposition it is seen that students enter college a year sooner than they did six years ago. This may be due to several causes. Perhaps it is on account of the economic conditions of the country as well as to the greater educational advantages for the youth in this State. For the past few years there has been decided advancement in high school methods, and young men are being taught that a college education is more needed now than ever before for life equipment. Of course, not entering at so mature an age, physical development is not what it would be otherwise. In all other respects the figures speak for themselves.

Dr. E. C. Register left last night for New York, where Friday he will sail aboard the Deutschland, of the Hamburg-American line, for England. While abroad Dr. Register will make his headquarters in Oxford, the great university centre. The object of his trip is to prosecute his studies on fevers, a subject of which he is a recognized expert. He will be absent from the city for several months.—Charlotte Observer.

Dr. Register is an honored member of the Board of Trustees of Trinity. He has recently published a book on the care and treatment of fever cases, which has been most favorably received.

Rev. J. R. Scroggs, a member of the Board of Trustees, has been appointed pastor of the Methodist church at Statesville. Last year he was Presiding Elder of the Western district.

Mr. E. O. Cole, class '07, who was admitted to the Western North Carolina Conference, on trial, at its last session, has been transferred to the Montana Conference.

SKETCH OF '90 MAN.

Mr. B. B. Nicholson, '90. Prominent Lawyer at Washington, N. C.—Represented His County in Legislature. Blake Baker Nicholson, class '90, is engaged in the practice of law in Washington, where he is making a great success in his profession. There has been few more popular students at Trinity than Mr. Nicholson. After his graduation he was instructor in law, when Judge A. C. Avery was Dean of the Law Department. He studied law at the University of Virginia under the late Dr. Miner. Mr. Nicholson later returned to Trinity and was for one year a professor in the institution. He gave up this work to enter actively in the practice of law at Washington. He has a host of friends among Trinity men, and none have been surprised at his success he has achieved. He was identified with all the phases of college life, both as a student and later as a member of the faculty.

In 1898, he represented his county in the legislature, having been elected by an unusual majority, which fact showed his popularity. An extract from a sketch of his life, published while a member of the legislature, says: "No better man could have been selected than the subject of our sketch. A brilliant lawyer, a fluent speaker, and popular with every one, he was just the man to command votes."

He was again elected in 1900 to represent his county.

He has always taken an active interest in political affairs, and few men are better qualified to succeed in politics than he, but he has retired from active politics and is devoting his time to his practice and the business enterprises with which he is identified.

In October 1902 he was married to Mrs. Sallie Owens Bryant, of Oxford, Miss. In 1904, he formed a co-partnership with E. A. Daniel, Jr., under the firm name of Nicholson & Daniel.

Mr. Nicholson has one child, a little boy of two years of age, who can even now talk about Trinity.

He was, for a number of years, a member of the Board of Trustees of Trinity. His success is a credit to himself and his alma mater.

The Asheboro correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "The new $30,000 graded school building here has an enrollment of about 400 pupils under the control of Prof. Scarborough, the new superintendent. Mr. Scarborough is giving general satisfaction and the patrons of the school are much pleased with his management."

Prof. J. J. Scarborough is a graduate of Trinity College, class '88. He has spent several years in the West in educational work. He returned to North Carolina and was last year in charge of the Albemarle Academy at Elizabeth City. He was elected superintendent of the Asheboro graded schools.

Headmaster H. M. North, of the Trinity Park School, preached the annual Thanksgiving sermon to the members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics at the Second Baptist church in Durham Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. Musical Exercises.

Last Wednesday evening the Y. M. C. A. held a very enjoyable meeting for about a half an hour. The program consisted solely of music—both instrumental and vocal. This is the first time in a number of years that the organization has had a meeting similar to this, and from the success and interest manifested in this one it is probable that the Association will hold another one sometime before the year closes. The program was as follows:

Quartette: "Holy Ghost With Light Divine," Messrs. Berghauer, Wyche, White, Hawks.

Vocal Solo, "Come Unto Me," Miss Linthicum.

Instrumental Solo, "Chopin Etude Opus 25," Miss Hattie Brinson.

Duet, "God That Madest Earth and Heaven," Miss Pearl Brinson and Mr. Wyche.

Vocal Solo, "O, Fair, O, Sweet, O, Holy," Miss Aycock.

Those participating in the musical represent the very best talent of a musical nature in Trinity College and the Conservatory of Music. Misses Linthicum, Aycock and Miss Hattie Brinson were those from the latter institution.

ALUMNI NOTES.

[Items for this Department are Solicited by the Editor from all Students and Graduates of Trinity.]

Mr. Cyrus Stewart, class '07, is now located at Hull, Fla. He is connected with orange grove work.

Misses Eva Branch and Fannie Brooks, A. M. '07, are teaching in the Richmond, Va. graded schools.

Mr. B. F. Harrison, an Indian, who graduated at Trinity in '97, is now a member of the legislature in the new State of Oklahoma. He was also a member of the Constitutional Convention. He was a very popular man in college, and left behind him a most excellent record.

Mr. James A. Bell, class '86, is a member of the law firm of Pharr and Bell, of Charlotte. Mr. Bell has been very successful as a practitioner and is now considered one of the most prominent members of the Charlotte bar. He is also county chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee.

Here's a Clean-cut Looking Fellow

THIS remark is often made concerning the young man wearing our Handsome Suits. The young man of today demands the very newest fashions—the very latest innovations. No stubby coats, no narrow lapels, no bag-hanging garments for him this season. We select certain lines of suits from tailoring houses that are specialists in young men's clothes—whose styles are patterned after what one sees on the college campus—dashingly daring, but not to the extreme.

$15 or $18.60 or $20 or $25

But reserve your opinion until you have seen the suits.

The Cut of the Coat

Tells the taste of the tailor. The garment that strikes your fancy may not be the one that you should wear. In the mirror of the retail clothier you cannot see yourself as others see you. Is it safe to trust your appearance to the judgment of the ready-made salesman; biased by the necessity of fitting you to the clothing rather than the clothing to you? Individuality and character are subtly expressed in every garment I make. Years of experience in serving the best dressers guarantee that clothing made by me is perfect in style and finish, and is of the color and cut best suited to the wearers' complexion.
