

CLEMSON LOST BOTH GAMES

In Two Fast Games Trinity Defeated South Carolinians.

CONTESTS IN GASTONIA AND WINSTON

5 to 3 and 1 to 0 Were the Scores—Second Game the Fastest Seen In Twin City in Many Moons—Summaries.

The ball team left here Thursday afternoon, spent the night in Greensboro, and arrived at Gastonia Friday morning just before noon. After dinner the team went to the field and did practice work till the game was called. The diamond was in very poor shape, being very uneven. The game was called at four o'clock. About seven hundred people witnessed the game. There were more Trinity supporters at this place than there were Clemson enthusiasts. The consensus of opinion before the game was that the Trinity nine would be successful in carrying off the honors.

Trinity began her scoring in the third inning. Claude West started the fire works by lashing out a beautiful three bagger to deep center and scored on error by pitcher. C. Flowers singled and was advanced to second by a pretty single by Bivens. Lane, next up, kept up the good work and made a good two bagger to deep right, scoring both Claude Flowers and Bivens. Armfield then advanced Lane to third by another single and Lane later scored on error of first baseman. Armfield, in attempting to steal third, lost out. W. West flew out to short, thus ending the scoring. The summary for this inning was four runs and five hits.

After this inning Clemson wisely changed pitchers, the latter holding Trinity down to three hits and one run during the remainder of the game. Trinity's last run was made in the fourth inning on a single by Fred Flowers who advanced to second on a passed ball and scoring on the pitcher's error.

Clemson was blanked until the fourth inning, Bob Gantt pitching magnificent ball. Kirby got a life on first on Short's error and while attempting to steal second C. Flowers threw the ball through Suiter to deep center, scoring Kirby. Clemson's next run came in the sixth inning. Cole's single, advanced to second by Bissell's hit, went to third on fielder's choice, and later scored on an error by C. Flowers. Her last run came in the eighth inning. Lee singled to left, stole second, advanced to third on Cole's third hit of the game and came home on fly-out to center.

The features of the game. Biven's batting; F. Flowers' beautiful catch in center while three men were on bases, saving probably three runs against Trinity, and Gantt's pitching. For Clem-

Trinity 1, Clemson 0.

Winston-Salem Journal, May 3d.
In the fastest game of baseball that has been seen on the local diamond in many a day, Trinity College yesterday afternoon defeated Clemson by the score of 1 to 0. The single score was not made until the last half of the eighth inning.

The game lasted only an hour and fifteen minutes and not more than five men went to the bat during any inning, for either team. It was a pitchers' battle throughout, each team being given superb support in the field and the game being void of costly errors. Hardly more than 200 people were present, but it was a good natured crowd from the start and there was plenty of rooting for both sides. "The quickest game I ever saw," "Best game I've seen in ten years," were among the comments made when it was over.

The game, in detail, was as follows:

Clemson takes the bat—Lee strikes out; Coles flies out to center; Bissell fans and is thrown out at first by Flowers.

Trinity—Bivens flies to short; Lane hits safe and steals second; Armfield singles, but Lane is not advanced but later steals third. Armfield steals second; W. West flies out to left field; Suiter draws a pass, making three men on bases. F. Flowers hits a fly to first, and all three men die on bases.

Clemson—Kirby and Wylie out at first; Sherrod singles, but Brown hits one to first base, retiring the side.

Trinity—C. West is thrown out at first by Goodman; C. Flowers likewise by Bissell; Bundy singles, tabs second off a pass ball, and stays there, Bivens going out on a fly to first.

Clemson—Goodman reaches first cushion on an error by Lane; Waldrop fouls out to C. Flowers; Lee knocks fly to second; Coles hits to C. West, who throws Goodman out at second.

Trinity—Kirby throws Lane and Armfield out at first station, and W. West is put off at the same spot by Goodman.

Clemson—Bissell singles; Kirby hits to Lane who throws Bissell out at second, Kirby going to first; Wylie hits to Lane, and Kirby and Wylie go out in a double play, Lane to Suiter to Armfield.

Trinity—Suiter fans; F. Flowers is thrown out at first base by Kirby, and C. West is treated likewise by Goodman.

Clemson—Sherrod takes first sack on error by C. West; goes to second on a sacrifice hit by Brown; Goodman is thrown out at first by Suiter; Sherrod going to third in the meantime, but of no avail for Waldrop fans.

Trinity—C. Powers walks to first landing; Bundy bunts, Clemson here gets in some fast work, Flowers and Bundy both going out on a double play by Wylie to Goodman to Coles; Bivens hits hard for one bag, but is thrown out on the way to sack number two.

Clemson—Suiter throws Lee out at first, and Coles and Bissell start toward first, but don't get there.

Trinity—Lane hits hard for two pillows; Armfield flies out to left, West is thrown out at first, Lane going to third; Suiter hit a fly to center, retiring the side.

Clemson—Kirby knocks a fly to Lane; Wylie hits safe for one pad and goes to second while Sherrod is amusing himself by himself by letting C. West throw him out at first; Brown flies out to F. Flowers.

Trinity—Goodman throws F.

Flowers out at first; C. West hits safe, tries to steal second but is arrested, being caught by Wylie's quick throw; C. Flowers fans.

Clemson—Goodman and Waldrop each have three swings at sphere but fail to connect, the line being busy, and Lee is thrown out at first by W. West.

Trinity—In the eighth, Bundy goes out, short to first; Bivens hits safe for one cushion! Lane hits a slow one to second baseman, who is compelled to find to first, Bivens advancing to second; Armfield hits safe to right field, scoring Bivens; Armfield is caught at second, retiring the side.

Clemson—Suiter throws Coles out at first; Bissell flies out to center; Kirby hits for two bags, but does not advance, Wylie retiring the side by serving one to C. West who shot it over to first.

Marriage of Miss Mary Bassett to J. T. Loftin.

At the home of the Librarian and Mrs. J. P. Breedlove last Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Miss Mary Bassett was married to Mr. J. T. Loftin, of Seven Springs. The affair was very quiet, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only a very few intimate friends, by Rev. M. Bradshaw, pastor of Main Street Methodist church. After the ceremony the happy couple left on the eastbound train for Goldsboro.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. Breedlove and Dr. J. S. Bassett, who has for several years been of the department of history in this college, but who is now professor of history in Smith College, Northampton, Mass. The groom is a young business man of Seven Springs.

THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB MET

Literary Organization Held Highly Enjoyable Meeting Friday.

SIX NEW MEMBERS FROM JUNIOR CLASS

Address of Professor Wannamaker and an Informal Smoker Added Much to the Enjoyment of the Evening—Purposes of the Club.

There was a meeting of the Fortnightly Club last Friday evening in the Hesperian Literary Society Hall. Besides the regular business work of the club the following new members were received into the organization: M. A. Briggs, Durham; R. C. Goldstein Asheville; R. M. Norment, Jr., Lumberton; Gilmer Siler, Charlotte; C. L. Bivens, Waxhaw, and E. W. Knight, Rich Square. All of these students are members of the junior class.

After receiving the new members Prof. William H. Wannamaker, of the department of German, was introduced who entertained the club in a most attractive manner. Prof. Wannamaker spoke in an instructive way about the Norwegian dramatist, Hendrich Ibsen, and also read from one of his most popular plays, "Brand", which was highly enjoyable. In addition to this feature of the evening's meeting an informal smoker was also given by the members of the organization, and during the pleasantness of the evening Mr. John C. Winslow, of the senior class, read a most interesting paper on the origin of "The Devil's Thirteen", a secret society which used to exist at Old Trinity, and Professor Wannamaker told some interesting incidents connected with the custom of dueling in the German Universities.

The Fortnightly Club, which has been in existence only a few months, is now in good condition and has before it encouraging prospects. The purpose of this organization, which was formed through the efforts of Dr. Edwin Mims, of the English department, are to encourage distinctiveness and taste in all forms of literary composition to the end that its members may contribute to maintenance of high literary standard in the college periodicals and may do effective work by writing after they leave college, and to foster an appreciation of the best literature, particularly such contemporary literature as is characterized by originality and artistic form.

Membership in the club is open to members of the graduate department, seniors and juniors who have in their college work given evidence of literary culture and of proficiency in writing. One or more members of the faculty are also chosen to assist in the furtherance of the aims of the organization.

The club meets the first and third Friday nights of each month and from time to time the public will be invited. This is done in order that the organization may be benefit to the community.

DURHAM, N. C., May 6, 1908

Two more issues and then volume three of this paper will be closed. In many respects we have had an excellent year and have good reasons to rejoice over the success achieved. It is natural in making this survey that we should think also of some of the disagreeable sides of journalistic life; but when both sides are scanned there is no doubt but that the good thing outweighs the bad ones. We were told in the beginning that there were "thorns in the cushion," and consequently there was no surprise on this score when our troubles began. The knickers, although a few, have been up to their job. Many lines of policies have been suggested, and the non-acceptance of the advice has sometimes occasioned hard feelings among the paper. Our object, first of all, has been to get out a respectable newspaper devoted to the best interests of the college. Of course our ideals have not been fully realized, and no one knows more than we do the blunders that have been made. But thanks to all we have had indulgent readers and the censure has not been meted as we really deserved it.

Debate Council Meeting.

At a meeting of the Debate Council a few days ago the question of arranging inter-collegiate debates for the coming year came up, and steps were decided to be taken at once to arrange contests for another year. Trinity has, for the pass several years, held at least two inter-collegiate debates with colleges or universities of high standard. It is the purpose of the Debate Council which has all matters pertaining to debating interests in charge, to arrange at least two during the coming year, but at this time it is not known which institutions this college will meet in debate.

Mr. L. E. Blanchard, of the junior class, was on the sick list Thursday and Friday.

FANATORIALS.

Montreal bit the dust before Dr. Adkins' delivery on Friday; making the third game he has won for the Orioles this season, out of three pitched.

Rummy Wrenn, '07, has signed with Raleigh in the Eastern Carolina League. The press of that city is loud in the praise of Manager Kelly in signing Trinity's former star. He will no doubt set a fast pace for other catchers in the league.

After a fourteen inning tie we broke even with Clemson last year. It only took seventeen innings this year to put both games on them. They made a good fight but it took a better one to down the Methodist aggregation.

A leading Southern sporting editor says: The umpire should have prohibited the cannon firing in the University of Georgia Trinity game under Rule 77 or have given Trinity the game. Even the Georgia boy who saw the game through a knot hole says the treatment was unsportsmanlike.

The winning run and the only run of the game came in the eighth at Winston Saturday. How is that for a grand finale?

Out of eighteen games won ten are for shut-outs. That's base ball that makes a man far off sit up and take notice.

Were we to conquer the whole world and weep because there were no more worlds to conquer, Trinity fans could not be induced to burn the college rubbish.

Next Meeting of Science Club.

The last Science Club meeting for the year will be held Monday evening. Prof. R. L. Flowers will deliver a lecture on "Some Recent Criticisms of Our Naval Vessels." This is a subject that has been widely discussed in magazine articles and newspapers throughout the country. Prof. Flowers is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy, and has obtained some material from the government bearing upon the subject. The club has held some very interesting meetings during the past year, and from what can be learned concerning the lecture Monday evening, it will pay every one here to be on hand.

J. A. Morgan Elected to Cornell Fellowship.

Mr. J. A. Morgan, of the graduate department, has recently been elected by the faculty of Cornell University to a fellowship in political economy for the coming year. The value of this fellowship is $500. Such an appointment is not usually given at Cornell except to a man who has already been at least a year a graduate student in residence at Ithaca or at some other one of the large universities. In support of his application for the fellowship, Mr. Morgan submitted a regular term essay prepared in the college course in public finance on the subject "The State Finance of North Carolina."

President Butler, of Columbia, and Chancellor McCracken, of New York University, will lecture in Copenhagen next fall. They are the first men chosen in the interchange of lectures between Denmark and the United States.

INTER-SOCIETY DEBATE.

Annual Contest Between Hesperian and Columbian Literary Societies Will be Held Friday Evening.

Next Friday evening at eight o'clock in Craven Memorial Hall the annual inter-society debate will take place, and the occasion promises to be one of much interest to the entire community. The Hesperian Society is represented by Messrs. T. M. Grant, of Wilmington, of the junior class, and C. S. Warren, of Fayetteville, Tenn., of the freshman class. The Columbian Society is represented by Messrs. R. L. Ferguson, of Oxford, of the sophomore class, and G. W. Vick, of Goldsboro, of the freshman class.

On the occasion of the inter-society debate there is always manifest a spirit of society feeling most loyal, and sometimes this spirit runs high. Of course the best of feeling always exists between the two organizations, but the members turn out and support their men in a most encouraging manner. The debate Friday evening will be of a high order. The young men have worked hard on the questions of local option as against state prohibition as a means of solving the liquor problem, and those who attend will receive a rare treat.

Work of L. T. Singleton, '06.

As he often does, Rev. L. T. Singleton, pastor of the M. E. Church, opened the doors of his church on Sunday morning last, and seventeen persons accepted his invitation to join the church. The ordinance of baptism was administered to fourteen of those joining, the three others preferring immersion will be baptized on Sunday afternoon, next, at 4 o'clock in the river. This makes twenty-four persons that have connected themselves with this branch of God's church since April 1st. For the past year Mr. Singleton has labored earnestly and zealously, and at times under great difficulties, with our people, and we realize now that his efforts have not been in vain. He has not tried to excite the people to action or frighten them into the church, but he has tried to persuade them, and by his plain, yet forcible sermons, teach them to accept Christ. By the life he has lived since being pastor of the church here he has won, and is still winning, the love and esteem of not only his own congregation, but that of the entire town, and the prospects are that, though a young man, his pastorate in Plymouth will be a glorious page in the history of his life.—Roanoke Beacon.

Mr. John D. Langston, class '03, of Mount Olive, has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for election to the House of Representatives from Wayne county. After his graduation here Mr. Langston was principal of the high school at Steadman for one year, after which he went to the State University and read law one year, and was admitted to the bar in February 1905. Mr. Langston has been very successful in his practice of law, and if he is nominated and elected to the House he will make his county a good representative.

Lane's Twirling and Support of His Mates Keep Younger Brothers From Crossing the Plate.

(Crowded Out of Last Issue.)

Trinity scored her ninth shut-out game of the season by defeating Trinity Park School, seven to nothing. The Park School nine put up a better game than several of the college teams which have played here, but they were utterly unable to hit Lane. In only one inning did they succeed in pushing a man as far as the third station. This was in the third when Lukens secured a scratch hit and advanced two stops on Suiter's error of Fitts' grounder.

The collegians obtained two runs in this session. The bases were filled by successive hits by Bundy, Bivens and Lane. Armfield fouled out and W. West fanned. Suiter was hit on the arm by a pitched ball, forcing in Bundy. Fred Flowers was given a base on balls and Bivens was forced home. With a man on second and third in the fifth, Claude West hit a timely, well placed single into the right pasture, scoring both.

The last three runs were gathered in the sixth chapter. Bundy reached first on the short stop's error. Bivens beat out an infield hit. Lane's foul was taken by Moore. Armfield then drove a hard one between the right and center fielder for two bases, affording Bundy and Bivens an opportunity to dent the pan. W. West was again unable to connect, but Suiter singled over second and Armfield tallied.

Duncan, for the Preps, played his usual strong game, being credited with three put-outs and six assists. Moore played his position well. The whole Trinity team gave Lane good support and batted well.

Warrenton High School Defeated by T. P. School.

With blood in their eyes for the former defeat by Warrenton High School at Warrenton, Trinity Park went into the game Saturday against that institution with a determination to win and by a striking majority. After four innings of play the locals clinched the game by heavy hitting, connected with errors they pushed thirteen men across the rubber.

Weeks, who pitched for the Warrenton preps showed good form and had proper support been given him the game would have proved more interesting. Ross was in the firing pit for the Trinity contingency and connected with perfect support by his teammates and four hits off his delivery the visitors completed the circuit only once.

Winners of Medals.

Saturday evening the two literary societies awarded medals for the most improvement in debating and delivering orations. With one exception the contests were evenly matched, and there was considerable speculation as to who the winners of the prizes would be. There was only one man competing for the orator's medal in the Hesperian Literary Society, and consequently he had no difficulty in obtaining what he was working for.

The following were the successful men: From the Columbian Literary Society, J. B. Sidbury, orator's medal; E. W. Knight, sophomore-junior debater's medal; and G. W. Vick, freshman medal. The following Hesperians were the winners in that society: C. C. Barnhardt, orator's medal; T. M. Grant, sophomore-junior debater's medal, and C. O. Fisher, the freshman debater's medal.

Mr. C. C. Barnhardt spent Thursday in Raleigh.

North Carolina Academy of Science.

Professors W. H. Pegram, C. W. Edwards and J. J. Wolfe, of the department of science, were in attendance at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Academy of Science and the North Carolina section of the American Chemical Society which met in Greensboro Friday and Saturday. The meetings were conducted in the Library building of the State Normal College. Trinity College faculty extended the organizations an invitation to meet here next spring. The invitation was accepted and the next annual meeting will be held here, which will be sometime about the first of May. The organizations are composed of all the leading scientists of the state, the number being about forty.

The "V. d. W.", a local literary organization at the Woman's Building, was entertained at the home of Mrs. McDowell, in West Durham last Friday afternoon. During the time refreshments were served, and Dr. W. K. Boyd, of the department of history, addressed the club on "The Rise of the University in the Middle Ages."

THE TIDE OF SPRING.

WHEN the average man gets ready to buy a Spring Suit of Clothes he first looks for style and pattern, if he's tasteful; then he looks for quality, if he's particular; after that comes fit, if he's discriminating—and then the matter of price, if he's economical. Whatever the desire or requirement may be relative to a Suit it can be best met at this best of clothing stores. No matter how critical or how fastidious or how exacting or how economical you may be, Sir, we can serve you to your eminent satisfaction.

Finest Variety, Correct Style, Fairest of Prices.

There's no best in town, if it is not here.

Minor Happenings About The Campus.
With a Record of People Coming and Going.

A number of the students witnessed the game between Carolina and Guilford last Wednesday afternoon, at Chapel Hill.

His friends will regret to learn that Mr. B. C. Jurney, of the Sophomore class, will not be in college the remainder of the term.

President Kilgo went to Cary Monday afternoon where he delivered an address in the evening. He returned to the park Tuesday.

Mr. F. S. Love, of the senior class, went to Duke last Saturday, where on Sunday he filled the pulpit of the Methodist church of that town.

After spending several days the guests of friends at Whitakers, Mrs. D. W. Newson, and little son, Dallas Walton, Jr., returned to the park Thursday.

Go to the Conservatory o Music tonight and hear your Glee Club. It will be a good performance, and you can show your college spirit by attending.

Last Friday being the first day of May students expecting to return next year were given the privilege of signing for rooms in the various dormitories.

At the annual session of the North Carolina Conference which takes place in Trinity Methodist odist church, this city, some time in December next, Bishop A. W. Wilson will preside.

Prof. A. H. Merritt will deliver a lecture before the State Nurses' Convention which meets in this city from June 17 to 19. His subject will be "The Hospital and Nursing in Ancient Athens."

Prof. A. H. Merritt, of the department of Greek, preached at St. Joseph's A. M. E. church, Sunday. Next Friday evening Professor Merritt will lecture before the same congregation on "Bible Study."

Dr. W. H. Glasson, of the department of Political Economy, delivered a lecture in Goldsboro last Friday. He addressed a club in that city on some economic question pertaining to civic improvement.

Prof. E. C. Brooks will leave tomorrow morning for Greensboro where he has an engagement to deliver a lecture before the training class at the State Normal in the afternoon. He will return to the park on the afternoon train.

Mr. R. J. Matlock, ex-'09, was a visitor on the campus a few days ago. Mr. Matlock was enroute to his home in Burlington. He has been, during the past year engaged in teaching in Hookerton, where he closed during the past week a very successful school.

President Kilgo has an engagement to deliver an address before the graduating class of the Kinston High School next Friday evening. On the following Sunday Dr. Kilgo will be in attendance at the Rockingham District Conference which meets in Maxton.

Mr. Geo. R. Hood, of The International Committee, of the Young Men's Christian Association, was a visitor on the campus last week. While here Mr. Hood spoke to the cabinet Friday afternoon and Friday evening he delivered an address before the student body. He is a graduate of Amherst College, and although this was his first visit to the local association he made a very favorable impression on the community. He spoke in encouraging terms of the work of the Y. M. C. A. here.

Miss Alice Franklin, of the senior class, visited in Winston Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Reeves, Oldham Godwin, Lyda and Tapp, of the Woman's Building, went to Raleigh last Monday afternoon where they witnessed "The Winter's Tale," given by the Dramatic Club of the Baptist University. They returned to the college Tuesday morning.

Mr. W. V. McRae, of the senior class, has been selected as pastor of the church at Maxton, and from now until commencement he will go once each week to that town to preach. After commencement Mr. McRae will assume charge of the entire work. He will attend the District Conference there the last of this week.

Dr. R. A. Whitaker, of Kinston, a member of the class of 1882, was a visitor on the park Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Whitaker came over to see his son, Mr. R. J. Whitaker, Jr., of the sophomore class, who has been unwell for several days. He decided to take his son out of college for a week or two in order that he might regain his strength. They both left Sunday for their home in Kinston.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Wednesday evening, Mr. W. J. Brogden, a member of the Durham park, was present to address the students and members of the organization. The address was one of thought and weight, and was listened to by quite a number of the students with much interest. Mr. Brogden was, for a short while, a student in the Law Department here. He is now practicing his profession in this city, being a member of the law firm of Chambers and Brogden.

Mr. H. G. Foard on the Park.

Mr. H. G. Foard, class '06, of Wilmington, is a welcomed visitor on the park. Mr. Foard has a very responsible position with a fire insurance company and travels over the state in the interest of his company, calling on the various sub-agencies. Mr. Foard while a student here participated in many phases of college life, and was an all-round college man. He has the distinction of being the first editor of The Chronicle, and it was partly through his instrumentality that the paper was founded. Mr. Foard in his editorship set a high standard of excellence, and his successors have striven hard to maintain respectable issues.

Death of L. C. Blalock.

After about a week's illness Mr. L. C. Blalock, ex-'02, of Norwood, died Sunday, his death being the result of pneumonia. Mr. Blalock was taken sick just about a week before the close of his school, and was unable to take part in the closing exercises. Mr. Blalock had only been in charge of the school at Norwood for a year but during the brief period he had succeeded in building up a good attendance, and the school was in a flourishing condition. Mr. Blalock had planned to return to college next fall and complete his A. B. course with next year's senior class.

The Olympian team will sail for London June 27, on the steamer Philadelphia. They will arrive about July 4, and have a few days in which to prepare for the competitions which open in the Stadium, July 13.
