BASKET BALL MEN CHOSEN.

After a Hard Contest the Team Has Been Finally Selected.

CAPT. KIKER HAS MEN IN FINE FORM.

This Season's Five Is Unusually Strong—Three of the Regular Team Back and Two Good Subs. From last Year to take the other Places.

The spirited contest for positions on the basket ball team which has been going on all the fall has finally closed, and the following have been announced as the winners:

Forwards: Stewart, Jones, and Scott.

Center: Kiker and Smith.

Guards: Hedrick, West W. B. and Brinn, J. E. The last named men: Scott Smith, and Brinn, will be the substitutes on the regular team. Puryear and Hunter are next in line as substitutes.

The men who have won out in this fight deserve the congratulation of the entire student body, for the battle has been no common one. At the beginning of the season, no man could be sure of his position. But as the season progressed and the constant practice brought out the real merits of the various candidates, the choice finally settled upon the above named. This seems to be the strongest team that could have been selected, and almost every student will agree upon this point.

Stewart of the Senior class, was the regular forward on the team last year, and he made an excellent record. His improvement this year has been very marked and he bids fair to make a record that will be even better than his record last year. He is undoubtedly the fastest man on the team, and can throw a goal from any position. He is also very accurate as a thrower of foul goals.

Jones, of the Sophomore class, will be the other forward. He was a substitute on last year's team and made a splendid showing in the few games in which he had an opportunity to take part. He has improved more rapidly than any other contestant, and will give a good account of himself. He is probably more accurate in throwing field goals than any other man in college. This is the real feature of his playing, like Stewart, it makes very little difference to him from what position he throws the ball. In fact, he is the most sensational goal thrower that has ever played here and he is sure to be one of the star players this year.

"Bull" Hedrick, of the Junior class who made the phenomenal record last season of having only one goal thrown on him, will hold down his old position this year with that same grace and ease that is characteristic of his playing. Hedrick cannot be called an expert in throwing goals, but he sticks to his man

THE GERMAN SOCIETY.

An Interesting Meeting Where the Members Play Games, Eat Turkey, and Have a Good Time In General.

On last Friday evening at the usual hour, the German babblers gathered together in their regular meeting, for one of the most enjoyable evenings yet spent. The first few minutes were spent in looking over and discussing some pictures of German scenery, among these being several views of the Rhine, including the cliffs of the Lorelei.

Then all the members imagined that they were children again and entered heartily into the games of their childhood. There was this difference, however, in the games, in childhood they were played in simple english but now, since the members of the Society have changed their nationality for the time being, they have to try to play in their native tongue. The result is a mixture of the ludicrous and the pathetic. It is truly ludicrous and truly pathetic to see a man trying to say a word when he hasn't any more idea than a post of what word he wants to say. His neighbor pities him but he cannot help him for he doesn't know what the word is either.

Most of the evening was spent in these games, but after all had enjoyed them to their fullest, the third part of the program was brought in. This consisted of turkey sandwiches, which Mrs. Wannamaker had been so kind as to prepare for the club. After saying German grace over these and doing true American Thanksgiving honor to them, the Society adjourned to meet again in two weeks.

Freshman Social Debate.

On December the eighteenth, the last Saturday night before the Christmas holidays, the two literary societies came together in a joint social meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. The occasion is a debate among the members of the Freshman class. Last Saturday night preliminary debates were held to select four Freshmen from each society, these men to be arranged in pairs on each side of the question; two columbian and two Hesperians on each side of the question.

The question to be discussed is: Resolved; "that the recent franchise amendment to the North Carolina Constitution is the best method of dealing with the negro political problem." The speakers from the Hesperian Society are, Check, Hornady, Harbison, and Warlick. The Columbian were; Byrd, Slaughter, Ward, and Hayman.

President Kilgo, Professors Wooten, Pegram, Flowers, Webb, Gill, Brooks, and Blanchard attended the sessions of North Carolina Conference in Raleigh.

Mr. Paul Best spent Thanksgiving at his home in Goldsboro.

THE BASKET BALL SCHEDULE.

Manager West Has Some Difficulty in Arranging Good Schedule.

FIRST GAME WITH GUILFORD COLLEGE.

Captain Kiker Out of the Game With a Sprained Ankle—Short Trip Arranged This Week—Schedule Includes Some Hard Games Here.

Mr. C. B. West, manager of the basket ball team, has been hard at work trying to arrange a good schedule for this season, but has met with much difficulty. Most of the colleges are playing foot ball in the early part of the fall and it takes some time after the season closes for them to become interested in basket ball. Mr. West has been untiring in his effort but has not yet succeeded in fully completing his schedule.

The schedule as arranged will include a number of games to be played here among which will be two games with the strong Y. M. C. A. team of Columbus, Ga. This team held the championship of the South two years ago. There will be two or more games with Wake Forest, one or two with Furman University, and games with Charlotte Y. M. C. A. and Guilford College.

The team leaves to-morrow for a short trip in the Western part of the state, playing Guilford to-morrow night and Charlotte Y. M. C. A. Friday and Saturday night. On this trip the team will be greatly handicapped by the loss of Captain Kiker who is temporarily out of the game, suffering with a badly sprained ankle.

The first game to be played here and the only one arranged before the holidays will be with Guilford College December 12. This game will give the college community their first chance to see what is in the team and it is hoped that the whole community will be at the gymnasium that night and that each one will bring some one from out the community.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

At the regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Wednesday evening, was held a students meeting. It has been the policy of the officers to hold these meetings often this fall and they have proved to be a great help to the students. A good crowd was out to the meeting and went away greatly blessed.

Short and helpful talks were made by Messrs. Rozelle, Aiken, and Pearson. Every body seemed to enjoy the meeting and it is hoped that another such one will be held soon.

Next Wednesday week will be held the yearly election of officers and the members are requested to have this matter in mind so as to be able to select the best man for the place.

GLEE CLUB'S TRIP.

A Nice Tour Arranged and the Members Well Trained for the Concerts.

In a few days the Glee Club will start on its annual tour. Manager Proctor has arranged a very attractive trip and one that will give a good deal of pleasure to the members and incidentally some advertising to the college. The club in its recent rehearsals shows each man well trained and adapted to his part. The solos are good and the quartets are especially fine. This is due to the efforts of Prof. Wilson and others who have been interested. Much interest is shown in the club by both its members and the college community.

The first concert arranged will be in West Durham on December 2. The club goes from there to Roxboro on December 3 and returns to Durham the next day. On Monday Dec. 6, they leave for Greensboro, giving a concert there that night. From this point they go to High Point, Ashboro, and Thomasville in the order named, returning to the campus December 10. This makes a nice trip and one that does not require that the fellows loose so much time from their class work.

The program used on this trip will be about as follows:

PART I.

College Life	Glee Club.
Rosary	Quartet.
Selection	String Quartet.
Tenor Solo	A. D. Jones.
Anchored	Glee Club.

PART II.

I Want To Go Down	South
Once Mo.	Glee Club.
Violin Solo	S. S. Alderman.
Sleep Ma Picanniny	Sleep
	Quartet.
Reading	W. G. Sheppard.
Baritone Solo	Edgar Howerton.
Absent	Glee Club.

The Glee Club for 1909-1910 is composed of the following men:

First Tenors: A. D. Jones, A. E. Burgess, G. M. Brooks, G. D. Gantt, and C. B. Wade. Second Tenors: J. M. Howard, C. K. Proctor, M. A. Smith, Jr., and C. W. White. Baritones: G. M. Daniels, R. G. Laney, S. S. Alderman, and Edgar Howerton. Basses: B. T. Hurley, W. G. Sheppard, J. B. Draper, and D. F. Kirkman. Vocal Quartet: First Tenor, A. D. Jones; Second Tenor, A. E. Burgess; Baritone, E. Howerton; Bass, W. G. Sheppard. String Quartet: Mandolins, G. M. Daniels, J. M. Howard, S. S. Alderman; Guitar, C. B. Wade.

Miss Wilson, of Winston-Salem, visited her brother, Mr. H. L. Wilson, last week. While here Miss Wilson was a guest at the Woman's Building.

Mr. C. E. Phillips, '08, who is principal of the Monroe High School, visited his brother Mr. B. L. Phillips of the Senior class, Thanksgiving.

CLASS BASKET BALL GAMES.

Two Exciting Contests Pulled Off in the Gymnasium This Week.

INTEREST IN THESE GAMES GROWING.

Juniors Defeat Seniors 13 to 11—Seniors Defeat Freshmen 35 to 21—Some Star Players Developed On All Teams.

Cheered on by seventy-five of their yelling, rooting, frenzied classmates, the Sophomores defeated the Seniors last Wednesday evening in an interesting game of basket ball by the close score of 13 to 11. No fault was to be found with the rooting. A. E. Burgess as chief roter and Bennett and McCoy as assistants in the yelling and singing were there with the goods. Never before has there been such an exhibition of class spirit and patriotism shown in the gymnasium; it inspired the teams and made the game fast and snappy. The Senior team was not lacking in backers either; behind them stood the other classes united to cheer each play, to encourage and to enthuse.

The Senior team showed surprising strength. The work of Scott, Smith, and Marr was beyond criticism; always aggressive, they played a heady game and were really the backbone of the team. Whitaker and Ashby, without recent practice, although playing an entirely defensive game, played it well. To them belongs, really, the credit of keeping the Sophomore score down. The work of Puryear for the Sophomores was phenomenal. As Capt. he kept his team together, yet played Scott so closely that he was able to score only once. Time and again he would do the seemingly impossible and break up sure plays. Houston was a star for the Sophomores. He scored seven of their thirteen points. Brinn was not in his usual good form and played in tough luck. Moore in center and Barringer as guard did good work. The team was matched as follows.

Seniors	Sophomores.
Scott	R. F. Brinn
Smith	L. F. Houston
Marr	C. Moore
Whitaker	R. G. Puryear
Ashby	L. F. Barringer

SUMMARY: FIELD GOALS: Marr 1, Scott 1, Smith 3 Sophomores; Moore 1, Houston 2, Puryear 2. FOUL GOALS: Seniors; Whitaker 1, Sophomores; Houston 3 FOULS: Seniors 7, Sophs. 12. Umpire, J. E. Brinn; Referee, Kiker; Time keeper, Bagley and Korner; Scorer, Cooper.

Last night the Senior team defeated the Freshmen in a hard-fought, last game by the score of 35 to 21. The rooting of the Seniors was conspicuous by its absence; it seemed to be unnecessary. The large crowd of Freshmen made up the deficit, as they enthusiastically did their part in

Basket Ball Number.

The prominent news articles of this issue are concerning basket ball hence we call this our Basket Ball Number. We have no foot ball as the other colleges do in the fall and we hope to make basket ball take the place of it. Foot ball is being weighed in the balance and found wanting and it is only a question of time until it will be altogether eliminated from our colleges. Basket ball offers a good substitute for it and we want Trinity to take the lead in introducing it.

The fact that most of the colleges are playing foot ball makes it impossible for the manager to arrange a schedule in the early part of the fall. However, it is hoped that later, by including games with some Y. M. C. A. teams, a good schedule can be arranged.

There has never before been quite so much interest in this form of sport and the team turned out this year is the strongest that has ever been here. We hope by giving so much space to this sport that this interest will be greatly increased. We want to see every man in college on fire for basket ball, for that is hereafter to be the fall sport at Trinity College.

College Morals.

There is no where to be found a class of men who are more lenient toward an offender in their midst than the men of a college community. Certain men are always ready to take advantage of every opportunity for preying upon the leniency of others, ready to do anything contrary to the laws of society, provided they know that they will not have to be held accountable for their conduct. Hence, in a college community, there is always to be found a class of men ready to go just as far as they dare to go without the faculty taking a hand and expelling them. The majority of the students cry out against the sins of this class and think it a shame that such an element is in college. We wish to try to show that these students are responsible for this element being in college or at least could get rid of it if they wanted to do so.

The thing which is mostly responsible for the existence of that element is the feeling among all students that the conduct of the student body is entirely beyond the jurisdiction of the faculty and any interference in their affairs by the faculty is an insult not only to the party punished but to the whole student body. Students of the colleges which have abandoned the system of military discipline feel that it is for them to make their own laws of conduct and that every one should be allowed to fix his own standard.
This feeling has given rise to the multifarious standards of morals in our various colleges and in some instances to no morals at all.

All students jealously guard this their chief right of college life and this jealousy has given rise to a spirit that would denounce the man who would attempt to create a sentiment against the man whose influence is for evil.
This jealousy of what the students regard as their chief right has led to the idea that each man should live his own way and pay no attention to the way his neighbors lives. All the good students will condemn the conduct of a wicked and pernicious student if that conduct happens to cross their path but let a man take steps to get rid of that man and his conduct and they are ready to take up arms in his defense. They would rather expell the man who started the movement against the wicked fellow than to expell the fellow himself, even though they know that the college would be benefited by his absence.

Not only will they protect a pernicious fellow in their midst but they will take means to try to conceal him. It is just as easy to find out who committed a crime among a band of students as it is among a regiment of negro soldiers. We believe that this spirit is largely responsible for the laxity of morals in our colleges to-day. A man knows that his conduct will either be approved or concealed from the world and hence he is naturally not very particular that his conduct conform to the best standards unless he is a man of high moral standards.

What reason is there for this to exist among colleges? Should not the sentiment against crime and misconduct be as great there as anywhere? It is high time for the students of our colleges to get together and create a sentiment that will not allow this rougher and worse element of college to dominate and to create the sentiment of the college. As it is now they do create it, for there is no man so loud in denouncing any effort to eradicate the worse element as the man who belongs to that element and for this long time his voice has prevailed.

But we see the time is coming when it will not prevail. The honor system was established to destroy its influence but in most cases this has proven a miserable failure because it meant that the man who served on the various honor committees had to do it at a sacrifice of their popularity and hence at the expense of the major portion of their influence.

The only solution of the problem is for the majority of the students to get together and be firm. To put their foot down on such practices and if their disapproval will not stop them then let them drive the offender from their midst.
This is the only way for the matter to be handled, the faculty are helpless, for the students hinder them rather than aid them.

Now there are several things in our college that should be stopped. It is wholly in the power of the student body to stop them and they only can stop them. The first of these is the custom of certain men to use loud and boisterous profanity in the halls at night nor is this conduct confined to Freshmen and Sophomores as it might be supposed but there are certain Seniors who are guilty.

Again there is the habit that certain men have of stacking a neighbors room when he is out.
Of course this is but a kiddish prank intended to do no harm as a rule but it can lead to harm and it was through just such pranks that hazing had its beginning. Then if a man is old enough to be capable of directing his own conduct it does seem that he would be too old for playing such kiddish tricks. Already these tricks have led to dangerous and destructive conduct and it is time for the better element of the college to call a halt. One fellow upon coming back from town after the lights were out found that his chairs, tables, and bed together with the rest of his belongings were piled up in the center of his room and a rope tied across his door so that he would stumble and fall in the midst of his property. As it happened he struck a match and saved himself the fall else he might have split his head on a chair leg. Another fellow went away for a trip of a day or two and securely locked his room. When he got back he found his transom knocked in and a step ladder thrown through it.
If there had been anything before the door it would have been destroyed. As it was, the only damage was the broken transom.
These are but a few examples of what this spirit leads to. There are many other unmentionable and disgraceful things.

We are perfectly well aware that a great howl will be raised against what has been said in this article and we are also aware that the men who do the biggest howling are the men who do the most of these evils herein mentioned. We feel sure that there are enough serious minded men in college to put a stop to such conduct and we call upon them for their support.

Junior-Sophomore Debate.

On Saturday evening December 11, in the Hesperian Society will be held a debate between the Juniors and Sophomores. The question to be discussed is: Resolved,
"That the United States Government should prohibit the shipment of intoxicating liquors into dry territory."

The Juniors have the affirmative side of the question and are represented by Messrs. Elliott, Kiker, and Hedrick. The negative will be upheld by the Sophomores and their men are Messrs.
Jones, L. M., Bennett, and Aiken.

all the time, and, after all, this should be the prime work of every guard. Besides, there are two forwards and a center who will throw enough goals to win most of the games. Hedrick's ability to pass the ball and to break up the passing of the other team is one of his strong points.

Walter West, of the Senior class, will be the other guard. He has already made his fame in the base ball world, and it is believed that he will have no difficulty in starting as a basket ball artist. His experience in athletic contests will be an invaluable help to him in the more strenuous and exciting game of basket ball. West will prove a valuable man not only as a guard and passer, but as a goal thrower, in all of which he has shown a very marked improvement.

P. J. Kiker the tall man, will be at center, of course. He may not be an especial star in any one point, but he comes very near to being a star in every phase of the game. Without doubt, he is the most valuable man on the team. On account of his height, he can catch balls and throw goals that the others will have to let go by. It is very seldom that he fails to get the tip off at center, and this will be a valuable help to the team. He is no new man at the game, either for this is the third year that he has played here. In addition to being a star player, Mr. Kiker is also Captain of the team, and he has proved to be very efficient in this capacity.

With the valuable assistance of Director Card, a number of signs and trick plays have been adopted. Every man has been given a fair show, and no one can truthfully say that he has not had an opportunity for showing his real ability. Every new man who has shown good form has been recognized and given careful attention.

There has been no let up in the practice from the very beginning, and all the men are now in good physical condition. If the team should not make a good showing, this certainly cannot be charged to any carelessness on the part of Captain Kiker.

Scott, Smith and Brinn are all good men, and no one of them would have any difficulty in taking a place on the regular team in case any one of them should be disabled in any way.

There is no reason why the team should not have a very successful season this year. All the men have had experience in inter collegiate matches before and experience is worth lots in contests of this kind, for teams often lose games by getting rattled. It is simply up to the student body to get behind the team and support it, and with this encouragement, victory will come their way.

Basket ball, while a comparatively new game at Trinity, is becoming more and more popular, and Trinity's teams have been growing more and more successful as the years advance. For the last few years, a large majority of the games have been won by the Trinity teams. The record for the last season was novel in that it contained only one defeat for the local team. The present team seems to be a stronger, better working organization than the one last year, and there is no reason why it should not make equally as good, if not better record although the schedule is going to be much more difficult and interesting.

helping their team. The game was one of the best exhibition of basket ball seen this year in the series of inter-class games. Both teams did good work in passing, goal throwing, and foul throwing. Whitaker and Houston starred in the later. The game abounded in good plays and thrilling moments. The Freshmen, though playing a losing game from the first, kept at it with surprising tenacity, and when the final whistle blew, they were playing as furiously as ever.

The playing of Scott and Houston was far above the average; Scott threw seven field goals and Houston scored a total of thirteen points. Scott was in the game at every point and at every moment was seen either with the ball or near it. The summary shows that each of the Seniors played well. For the Freshmen, Houston and Ratcliffe featured in some brilliant playing. Henderson, also, played his usual, fast, heady, game.

They were lined up as follows:

SENIORS	FRESHMEN
Scott L. F.	Houston
Smith R. F.	Henderson
Marr C.	Hardee
Faucette R. G.	Gannt
Whitaker L. G.	Ratcliffe
Summary: FIELD GOALS;
Seniors, Scott 7, Smith 3, Marr 2, Faucette 3.	Freshmen, Houston 4, Henderson 2, Hardee 1, Ratcliffe 1. FOUL GOALS;
Seniors, Whitaker 4, Faucette 1.	Freshmen, Houston 5, Relesee, Hedrick, Umpire, Puryear.

Dr. Steel Monday Night.

Last Monday night in the Craven Memorial Hall a large crowd of both students and visitors came to hear Dr. S. A. Steele, of Texas, in his lecture "Home Life in Dixie During the War." For two hours Dr. Steel held his audience almost spell bound. At no time did the interest abate, but the audience moved from one side-splitting laugh to another with just about the proper breathing space between each. The subject of the lecture was one dear to the heart of every man, woman, and child in Dixie, and during the course of the evening the speaker was greeted with round after round of applause. But he said that he received the same applause when lecturing in Chicago so the South and North must at last be united.

Not only was Dr. Steele's address one of fun and merriment but it was more than the ordinary lecture of this kind, it was instructive. He told in a pleasant laughable way of life in Dixie as he saw it during the war and as the younger generation can know only in just such lectures as his. Those who hitherto did not know what their fathers went through during the war owe Dr. Steel a debt of gratitude for his lecture last night.

This was the first of the faculty lectures and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Others will be arranged later.

Minor Happenings About the Campus With a Record of People Coming and Going.

Rev. W. V. McRae, '08, was a visitor on the campus yesterday.

Mr. C. C. Barbee, ex-10, of Chapel Hill, was a visitor on the campus Thanksgiving.

Mr. H. G. Hedrick, of the Junior class, went to his home in Lexington to spend Thanksgiving.

Mr. L. I. Jaffe, associate editor of the Chronicle, spent Thanksgiving in South Boston, Va. at home.

Prof. C. C. Cunningham, '09, of the Roxboro Graded Schools, spent several days on the campus last week.

Mr. Willis Smith, the hustling business manager of the Archive, went to Raleigh last week on business connected with the magazine.

Mr. M. A. Briggs, '09, editor of the Archive last year, was a visitor on the campus last week. Mr. Briggs is now teaching at Chester, S. C.

Rev. M. Y. Self ex-'09, spent a few hours here on his way home from the Conference at Raleigh. Mr. Self was sent to Plymouth for the next year.

Mr. G. M. Daniels, of the Senior class, attended the session of the North Carolina Conference last week and was admitted on trial. He was sent to West Durham as Assistant Pastor.

Luxuries or Necessities?

At a New England academy two middle-aged men met in a class reunion. After renewing the old acquaintance, one of them said:

"I have a boy here now."

"So have I," said the other man. "When I went through," the first man continued, reflectively, "I worked my way doing chores of various kinds. My annual expense seldom ran over $200. I find things quite different here now. Last year I paid out $750 to keep my boy here in the style he says he must put on to be any body."

"I paid over $800 last year for my boy," said the second man; "yet when I was in this academy twenty-five years ago, I swept out the building, milked cows, shoveled off sidewalks, and boarded for $2.50 a week. My expenses were less than $500."

"Does your boy do any work while in school?"

"No. Does yours?"

"Not a stroke. The academy hired hands to take care of the boys room, black his shoes, put his daily paper upon the table for him every morning and do all the things you and I use to have to do for ourselves."

"The boys of to-day are getting luxuries where we got necessities. Are they any better students than the boys of twenty-five years ago?"

"I doubt it. Yet their education costs from three to four times what yours and mine cost. Are they getting three or four times as good an education?"

"Doubt it. Shall we take our boys out?"

"Where else could we put them?"

"I don't know. Civilization and progress are great things, aren't they?"

"Yes, great."—Selected.

Mrs. Pettigrew Entertains in Honor of Miss Browning.

During last week several of the college boys and girls were the honored recipients of the following cards:

Mrs. W. J. Pettigrew
At Home

in Honor of the Birthday of Miss Annie Browning.
Tuesday Evening, Nov. 30
at Eight O'clock.

Promptly at the hour named the guests gathered in the parlors of Mrs. Pettigrew's pretty home on Trinity Heights and the evening was most pleasantly spent in playing games, discussing the problems of college life, and awaiting the unfortunate lot of those who have to study lessons. Later in the evening the guests repaired to the dining hall where delightful refreshments were served. The parlors and dining hall were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums. In the hall was a large table where the presents were opened and there were many of them, both artistic and useful. The hours were from eight to eleven-thirty and so pleasantly they were spent that they spent that they slipped away unnoticed and were gone much too soon. Altogether it was a most pleasant affair and Mrs. Pettigrew's hospitality will be long remembered by those present.

The following couples were present: Mr. Vickers and Miss Koonce; Mr. H. L. Scott and Miss Tuggle; Mr. Ormond and Miss Scott; Mr. C. B. West and Miss White; Mr. W. B. West and Miss Freeman; Mr. Proctor and Miss Mann; Mr. Fulford and Miss McKiver; Mr. Wright and Miss Lyons; Mr. Constable and Miss Brown; Mr. Hamlin and Miss Duke; Mr. Covington and Miss Wade; Mr. Brogden and Miss Browning.

Washington-Lee Game Postponed.
A large number of students were disappointed when the Washington-Lee tennis team failed to show up. Every preparation had been made for the game but when three o'clock came, the expected team had not arrived. A letter received the next morning stated that their trip through North Carolina had to be called off for the present because some of the colleges failed to give them a game as they expected.

Juniors Tennis Champions.

Last Saturday afternoon the Juniors met the Freshmen in a sharp tennis contest, to decide the class championship of the college. Sometime ago the Freshmen defeated the Sophomores and the Juniors defeated the Seniors. This left the contest between the Juniors and Freshmen. Although the game was quite spirited the Juniors had less difficulty in winning than they did when they played the Seniors. The Freshies put up a game contest but were outclassed by the superior work of Hanes and Adams for the Juniors. The result of this contest leaves the championship with the Juniors, making the second successive year that they have won this honor. Messrs. C. W. and N. I. White composed the Freshman team and the score was as follows:

Juniors, 6 6 6

Freshmen, 3 4 1
