THE JUNIOR CLASS WINS RELAY RACE FOR SECOND TIME

SURPRISE SPRUNG WHEN FRESHMEN CAME OUT BEHIND UPPER CLASS

JUNIORS & SOPHOMORES CLOSE

Sophomores First Place on All But Fourth and Tenth Miles.—Cardie Won for the Juniors in the Tenth.—Freshmen Third, Seniors Last.

History failed to repeat itself Saturday afternoon when the Junior class of Trinity College won the annual inter-class relay race. This race has been run for the last three years and always heretofore the Freshman class has been the winner. This year however the final run was a close contest between the Sophomore and Junior classes, both of which had formerly carried off the cup for the event, the Juniors winning in the last mile by the phenomenal running of their last man, Cordie. The Junior's time for the ten miles was fifty-six minutes.

The race Saturday was the most dramatic in the history of the event. At no time in the course of the ten miles was the outcome assured until the last of the last lap around the track on the campus. The principal contest all through was between the Junior and Sophomore classes, and for the greater part of the distance it looked clearly like the event would go to the Sophomores. It was a remarkable fact that this class had the first place at the end of every mile except the fourth and the last, so that eight of these men ran better miles than anyone else, the race being lost only in the very last. The great surprise was that the Freshman class did not make a better showing. Many were of the opinion that this class would take off the honors for they had done the most work in preparation and made the best showing in the preliminary race last week. In the big event, however, they came out third. The fourth place was held in every mile by the Seniors, who were over half a mile behind on the last lap.

In the first mile the Sophomores finished first, Freshmen second, and Juniors third. At the end of the second mile the Freshmen fell back to third place and held this until the end, the juniors came up to second place, the Sophomores still holding first. From this point the race was between the last two mentioned classes. In the third mile, Lucas for the Juniors, made a long gain on the Sophomore lead, and in the next mile his successor, Whitesides, with a splendid run overtook his man and came in first. The next Junior, however, fell back to second place and the Sophomores held the lead until the last mile. On the ninth mile Few started for the Sophomores with a long lead, but the junior, Secrest, by a remarkable run overhauled him by the time they reached the Duke monument, where Few, however, sprinted to recover about fifty yards. Thus, on the last mile the sophomore, Downey, still had a comfortable lead and it looked like his race, but the last hope of

DEBATE COUNCIL MEETS

Recommends New Scheme for Intersociety and Collegiate Debates.

The Debate Council held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the faculty rooms of the East Duke building. The principal business of the meeting was a discussion of a new scheme with regard to the conduct of inter-society and inter-collegiate debating. The Council put itself on record as favoring the following plan, which is to be passed on by both the societies before it shall go into effect: The regular inter-society debate shall be held in the fall instead of in the spring, so as to avoid conflict with the inter-collegiate contests; the rules governing it shall be changed so as to allow of three men on each side with the order of rejoinders reversed as in the inter-collegiate debates; and finally, this debate shall serve as a kind of preliminary to the inter-collegiate debates, a separate committee from that which shall render the decision of the question selecting from the six men appearing two or three who shall form part of the inter-collegiate debating teams, leaving about the same number of places to be filled by contest later. It is thought that this plan will be of great benefit both to society and to collegiate debating.

Dr. Laprade Speaks to Association on Nature and Function Religion.

D. W. P. Laprade, of the department of History, addressed the regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Wednesday evening in the Association hall. The speaker took as his subject, "The Nature and Functions of the Christian Religion," and treated the subject in characteristic style. Christianity, he said, has meant many things to many men in many times and has called men to service in all lines of endeavor. Its influence in a college man's life is not necessarily that of creating doubt, or of shutting out any of the joy and brightness of life. The world was made as a place for growth, and each man's duty is to make it a better place to live in. To do this a man must live his belief as well as do good deeds. "Conformity to religious tenets will not make men true Christians, but getting close to Christ alone can make it come natural to sacrifice for others and be a man. To be a man ought to be the highest aim of every Christian."

Trinity vs. Guilford

Tennis Manager Carter announces that a game will be played on the home courts next Saturday with Guilford. It is hoped that a large number of men will turn out to witness this game. It promises to be a lively one. We have a good team, a team which can put up a first class exhibition of tennis and we hear a like report from the Quakers. We kicked them last year. Go out and pull for this game.

SIGMA CHI ENTERTAINS

Enjoyable Reception Given in Hall on Main Street.

The men of Beta Lambda chapter of Sigma Chi were at home to their friends last night from eight-thirty to twelve in the Sigma Chi hall on Main street. The hall itself was beautifully and tastefully decorated with the fraternity colors, blue and gold, while many fraternity pennants and college banners added to the effect. The guests were met by Miss Fannie Kilgo and James Cannon, who introduced each arrival to those who had preceded. At the punch table, banked with the fraternity flower Miss Willie Cox served punch to the thirsty, while vocal and instrumental music was furnished for the company by Misses Mildred Sinclair, Placide Kramer, Katie Lee McKinnon and Estelle Flowers.

A feature of the evening was a contest in fraternity information, each guest being furnished with a booklet in the shape of the fraternity badge done in blue and gold and containing a poem by one of the hosts. In this poem were certain blanks which the contestants were to fill with names of fraternities so as to complete the rhyme and metre. The prize for the successful contestant was a beautiful sheepskin wall banner bearing the coat-of-arms of the fraternity; this going to Miss Willie Cox and being presented by Prof. R. L. Flowers. After light refreshments served in several courses a Sigma Chi yell closed the evening, pronounced by all to have been perfect.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Few and Prof. and Mrs. R. L. Flowers chaperoned the following couples: W. G. Sheppard and Miss Mildred Koonce, D. R. Kirkman and Miss Lucille Hundley, W. B. Cannon and Miss Fannie Kilgo, W. R. Sykes and Miss Mary Berry, H. L. Cook and Miss Willie Cox, R. L. Towe and Miss Estelle Flowers, J. M. Thompson and Miss Placide Kramer, T. P. Pace and Miss Katie Lee McKinnon, H. B. Ingram and Miss Ruby Elliott, J. H. Rose and Miss Ella Bodie, B. B. Jones and Miss Florence Green, F. W. Terrell and Miss Nellie McCles, P. H. North and Miss Irma Tapp, H. A. Maddox and Miss Katharine Thomas, E. C. McCles and Helen Gribble, H. M. Ratcliff and Miss Mildred Sinclair, W. W. Hutton and Miss Mary Louise Manning, C. A. Tucker and Miss Flossie Jeffreys, Frank Gibbs and Miss Susie Markham, James Cannon and Miss Amy Muse, and D. W. Maddox.

Bishop Denny Visits

Bishop Collins Denny of Richmond, Virginia, was an appreciated visitor at the College Tuesday. He made an inspection of the College buildings and grounds and was much interested in the work of the College. Bishop Denny was for many years Professor of Philosophy in Vanderbilt University before his election to the Episcopacy. Bishop Denny's coming to Durham was for the purpose of preaching before a Missionary Society meeting held in Memorial Church. During his stay in Durham he was the guest of Mr. Benjamin N. Duke.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL TRANSACTS MUCH BUSINESS

NEW PLAN ADOPTED FOR TWELVE GENERAL ASSISTANT MANAGERS

WILL WITHDRAW FROM S. I. A. A.

Officers Elected, Carter Tennis Manager, Hedrick and Brinn for Basketball Coaches.—Will Not Play Carolina.—Awarding of Initials.

The Athletic Council met last Monday night in one of the most important sessions of the past few years. A large ticket of business was transacted. Officers were elected, arrangements were made for basketball coaching, managers and assistants were elected for the various teams, basketball, tennis, and baseball T's were awarded for the past year, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for withdrawal from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Mr. W. W. Flowers was re-elected chairman of the Council for this year. Dr. F. C. Brown was elected vice-chairman, J. M. Thompson secretary, and J. E. Pegram treasurer. An executive committee was formed, composed of Prof. Wilson, J. M. Thompson and J. E. Pegram.

The resignation of Mr. N. I. White from the position of manager of tennis was accepted and E. M. Carter was elected to the place. The Council adopted the recommendation of Prof. Wilson which provided that twelve general assistant managers be elected, six from the Freshman and six from the Sophomore classes, who shall be apportioned to the managers of any of the phases of athletics. The men chosen were: from the Sophomore class, Bond, Brown, F. B. Carver, Lewis, Thorne; from the Freshman class, Adams, King, Wilson, Hayes, Lambeth, Ring. Such of these men as show ability and energy will stand in line for election to the managership in their senior year, of that team with which they have worked. E. N. Brower of the Sophomore class was elected assistant manager of the basketball team. A committee composed of Prof. Wilson, Anderson and Siler was appointed to name to the Council an assistant baseball manager. C. B. Brinn and H. G. Hedrick, both former stars of the floor, were elected to the positions of basketball coaches.

Professors Webb, Wilson, and Mr. Anderson were appointed as a committee to meet with a committee of the faculty to consult as to arrangements whereby Trinity may withdraw from the S. I. A. A. and may schedule games with colleges not in this association. This action, of course, means that Trinity will withdraw from the S. I. A. A. and will attempt to form a state athletic association.

The following men were formally presented with initials for athletic attainments of the past year: for baseball, McLean, Fuller, Spence, J. A. Thompson, Rose, Kanipe, Boshamer, Ivey, and Manager Sheppard; for basketball, Houston, Jones, Brinn, Moore, Cherry, Hedrick, Crowell, and a committee is to decide between White and Barringer; for tennis, White and McCles.

It was moved and passed that the

FORTNIGHTLY MEETS

Dr. Parker Gives Talk on the Creoles of Louisiana.

The Fortnightly Club held its first literary program last Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the West Duke Building, at which time Professor F. N. Parker, of the department of Biblical Literature, spoke to the Club on "The Creoles of Louisiana and their Relation to the Literature of the Country."

Dr. Parker is a native of Louisiana. He knows the people of that state thoroughly, and has always been especially interested in the Creole population. For this reason his address to the Club was of unusual interest.

He prefaced his remarks with an account of the settlement of the French and Spaniards in the territories of Louisiana. These people he said, while they are intensely patriotic to the United States, are yet remarkably retentive of the French language and racial ideals. They are to be distinguished into two classes: the Acadians, who are descendants of those who migrated from Canada, and who form the ignorant peasant class; and the true Creoles, who are of fine intellectual attainments, for the most part highly educated, with a fine aesthetic sense, and bilingual, speaking English and French with equal fluency. These Creoles formerly were the proprietors of the vast landed estates, with which is associated so much romance. They have been gradually pushed into the city, however, by the scientific advance of the Americans in sugar

Advances to the literature of these people, Dr. Parker viewed this in two ways: what they have themselves written, and what material for literature they have furnished. They have produced little themselves. A few histories of Louisiana are about all, but they have furnished a distinct racial type and a most romantically interesting type, which is a wonderful material for literature.

*George Cable is the most distinguished representative of the Creoles. He gathered up the tales of their life, and worked them into real literature. His Old Creole Tales, a book of short stories, is well worth study. Here he has given a true picture of the Creole life, and what is more remarkable, has produced, as perfectly as it can be done, the quaint soft burr with which the Creole speaks the English language. The characters in his longer novels are well drawn and true to life.

One thing, Dr. Parker said, which has not been worked up is the relation of these people to the Civil War. General Beauregard was a Creole. Many of them fought on the Confederate side and their relation to this war would make a workable theme for literature.

Mr. H. H. Wynneoff, '09, is Latin Professor at the Greensboro High School.

Council enter the basketball league as formed in Raleigh last Saturday, if Trinity can do so without playing the University. Arrangements were also perfected whereby the new blanket ticket for athletics is to be put on sale this week.

THE COLLEGE MAN'S NEWSPAPER, PRINTING EVERYTHING OF INTEREST TO TRINITY MEN

Entered as Second-Class Matter September 19th, 1906, at the Postoffice at Durham, N. C. under act of March 3d, 1879.

Printed by THE SEEMAN PRINTERY, Durham, N. C.

Communications and items of educational interest are solicited from Alumni. The writer's full name should accompany all communications.

Advertising rates made known on application. Checks and money orders should be made payable to the business manager, and all business communications should be addressed to him.

All subscriptions and bills for advertisements are payable before the first of February.

SUBSCRIBERS WILL PLEASE NOTIFY THE MANAGER OF ANY CHANGE OF ADDRESS.

The editor of the CHRONICLE has changed his office again but will be found from now on, and even for evermore, in room 209 in the Jarvis Hall. If you have any criticism, recommendation, suggestion, request, or complaint to make feel free to come up and do so. We will be delighted to talk over with you anything which could be of benefit to either party or to the College in general. If you would like to fly into print with some pet theory or to make public your views on some subject of common interest, write out what you have to say and we will consider printing it. Remember the paper is yours as much as anybody's.

Another old tradition is being torn down and cast upon the rubbish heap, and one which has for the past few years galled upon the students of Trinity College considerably. They have long felt that it was unfair to them when the powers that be in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association effectually run things way down in the balmy Southland with the result that we are debarred from playing our near neighbors, with whom contests would be both financially profitable and intensely interesting, while we play teams from the far north plainly made up of "ringers," and teams from the far south whose claims to non-professionalism might be questioned. But if we are to judge from the present trend of things such will be no longer the case. The action of the Athletic Council Monday night makes it practically certain that Trinity will ask for a release from the S. I. A. A. It is also practically certain that the desire of years will be realized in that we will be permitted to make independent arrangements for playing colleges of the state. It is expected to play games with A. & M., Wake Forest, Davidson, and Guilford. If this be the case we look to next spring for a season unparalleled in our history. We believe we will have a good ball team and the prospects are that we will have the best schedule in several college generations.

The completion of the new Jarvis Hall will mark the beginning of a new epoch in the intellectual life of the students. Since the great fire in January of 1910, there has been no single moment when there was not some change in progress on the campus. There has never been a moment when the student could look upon the body of his alma mater and be assured that in the next it would be the same. He would fall into his troubled slumbers at night with a certain concept of the place in his mind only to have it rudely shattered the next morning by seeing a new road built, a new trench cut, a new pipe laid, or an old wall torn down. The very skin of the ground has been metamorphosed out of all semblance of its former self. The whole contour of the place has been changed. Even the center of gravity of the campus has been shifted some hundred yards to the west.

Now we have taken great pride in all this. We have rejoiced to see the evolution of our college and to follow its growth. But it is not an altogether fantastical idea to say that this mutability this lack of fixity in the externals of the place has had an unquieting effect upon our minds. It has been hard to settle down to consistent work in an unsettled environment. It is hard to compose the mind when the material surroundings have been continually on the move. The constant scratching and lacerating of the campus, upon sensitive temperaments at least, had a sympathetically irritating effect.

It is with great satisfaction, therefore, that we see this evolutionary period draw to a close and know that the greater part of the transformation has been wrought. We hope now that an academic peace and quiet will fall upon the community which will have a soothing and at the same time revivifying influence upon all forms of collegiate endeavor.

Campbell-Allison

Mr. Clairborne McMillan Campbell, Jr., an alumnus of the College, will be married to Miss Helen Coiner Allison, of Mocksville, N. C., Wednesday, November 6, 1912. After leaving College Mr. Campbell taught in the Durham High School and in 1911 was elected Superintendent of the Graded School at Jonesboro. He has been very successful in his work, and is today one of the strongest men engaged in public education in the State. The CHRONICLE extends its congratulations and best wishes.

Relay Racers, Attention!

Professor Wilson calls for a meeting of the men who ran in the relay race this year and any other men interested in track athletics tomorrow afternoon in the West Duke building. The purpose of the meeting is to stir up interest in cross country running. Prof. Wilson has up his sleeve a plan for picking class cross country teams of five men each and arranging a five mile cross country course over which to run a race after the cold weather begins. Possibly from these teams a college cross country team will be picked. It is also intended to arrange a series of hare and hounds runs this fall to be pulled off before Thanksgiving. All who are interested in the advancement of track and distance running and other like forms of athletics will please meet tomorrow to discuss these plans.

Classics Initiate

The Classical Club held its annual initiation in the Latin room of the Library last Thursday evening, and enrolled nine new members in the pursuit of special information relating to Latin and Greek culture. Several new and original stunts were pulled off in the course of receiving the new men, and added much to the interest of the ceremonies. After the men had been formally received the club adjourned to partake of numerous good things prepared to delight the palates of all, and after a pleasant time the members dispersed. Those admitted to membership are: W. G. Sniter, W. F. Stanes, B. B. Slaughter, C. R. Bagley, B. H. Siler, W. W. Hutton, B. K. Snow, T. J. Gill, and W. I. Wooten.

The Story of Cotton Selling

The Rand, McNally Company of Chicago, publishers of The Story of Cotton, by Professor E. C. Brooks of Trinity College, has announced that the State of Texas a few days ago adopted this book for use in the schools of that State. This makes five states that have adopted The Story of Cotton, as follows: North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Arkansas and Texas. In fact, every Southern state that has adopted text books since this book was published has adopted it for use in the schools. The widespread use of this book as a text book in the public schools is evidence of the excellence of the work done by the author. This book has received the most favorable commendation from educators in all sections of the country.

PARAGRAPHS

Topics Too Short for Separate Heads.

Honorable James H. Southgate,
President of the Board of Trustees of Trinity College, has been elected President of the National Association of Fire Insurance Agents, which recently met in Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. Franklin N. Parker, of the Department of Biblical Literature, returned Monday from the University of Virginia, where he preached before the students of the University.
Dr. Parker was one of the University preachers last year.

Rev. J. C. Wooten, pastor of Grace Church, Wilmington, was married to Miss Lydia Yates, of Wilmington, October 16. Mr.
Wooten is a graduate of Trinity, and was Professor of Biblical Literature at Trinity before going to Wilmington. The CHRONICLE extends its best wishes.

The Sigma Chi Quarterly, published by the Sigma Chi Fraternity, contains three articles concerning the installation of the Beta Lambda Chapter at Trinity College last spring, by Rev. W. B. Ricks, of Nashville, Tenn., James Cannon,
Jr., of the local chapter, and Dr.
James F. Royster, of the University of North Carolina. The Quarterly contains very artistic cuts of the college buildings and also a cut of the local chapter.

Bishop J. C. Kilgo spent Sunday in New York where he preached at the celebration of the one hundred and fifty-sixth anniversary of John Street Methodist Church. Bishop Kilgo was invited to preach the anniversary sermon. As the official representative of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, he indicated a reunion of the Northern and Southern branches of Methodism.
He also presided at a platform meeting in the afternoon.

The Rev. M. H. North, pastor of Edenton Street Church in Raleigh was a visitor at the Park today.
Mr. North is always a welcome visitor at the College where, as a student, and later as Headmaster of Trinity Park School, he was actively identified with the life and activities of the college community.
He is now the popular pastor of one of the most important and influential churches in the state.
He is a loyal alumnus, and his friends at the college rejoice at the efficient services he is rendering.

At the session of the Pacific Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held in Bakerville, California, Oct. 9, Rev. J. B. Markham was stationed at Princeton, Cal., and Rev. J. F. Totten at Tuolumne, Cal. Mr. Needham and Mr.
Totten are graduates of Trinity College. Mr. Needham went west soon after graduation, and has been a member of the California Conference for several years. After leaving college, Mr. Totten taught for a number of years in this State and then joined the Western North Carolina Conference. After serving several churches in this State he transferred to the Pacific Conference.

Basket Ball League Formed

For the purpose of forming a State Basketball Association, representatives from Trinity, A. & M., Carolina, Wake Forest, Guilford, and Elon held a conference in the Yarrowbrough Hotel at Raleigh last Saturday night and formally inaugurated the plan. An organization was formed and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: R. O. Huffman, of Carolina, president; J. A. Rand, of Trinity, vice-president; C. G. Doak, of Guilford, secretary and treasurer.

The matter of deciding upon some eligibility rules was then taken up with the result that a four-year rule, a rule requiring players to have entered college before October 15, a rule forbidding the offering of inducements by the institution, and a rule barring summer ball players from participating in any games played in the association, were passed. The managers of the various teams then got busy arranging a schedule, it being agreed that each team should play every other team two games, one on the home floor and one abroad.

The representation was as follows: R. O. Huffman and Nat. J. Cartmell, of Carolina; R. N. Wilson and J. A. Rand, of Trinity; W. C. Hodkins, of A. & M.; C. G. Doak and H. A. Stewart, of Guilford; Carey Dowd and T. B. Henry, of Wake Forest; Mr. Doak, of Elon.

Freshman Measurements

A statement of the results obtained in the physical examination of the members of the freshman class has finally been obtained from "Cap" Card. Though it is rather late, we will print it.

The average freshman, if he could be realized, would be a rosy-cheeked lad of nineteen summers, five feet seven and nine-tenths inches high, with a weight of 134.4 pounds. In comparing this average with that of last year we see that the class of 1916 is one year older but is  $5\frac{1}{2}$  pounds lighter, and falls short  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inches in height.

The tallest man in the class is Mr. L. Adams, who is 6 feet 2.2 inches. The heaviest is Mr. R. O. Edgerton, who tips the balance at 215 pounds. The lightest man weighs 97 pounds. The strongest grip belongs to Mr. L. K. Turner, who mashes the machine with a pressure of 154 pounds. Mr. Edgerton has the broadest shoulders in the class, measuring 17.7. The largest collar is filled by Mr. H. M. Baucom, with a neck measuring 15 inches. The record for greatest lung capacity goes to Mr. O. E. Culler, who blows 360 cubic inches. Mr. Edgerton carried off the following records: Circum of chest, 41 inches; depth of chest, 9.9 inches; circuit of upper arm, 14.5 inches.

Dr. Brooks Reads Paper

The Historical Society held its regular meeting Tuesday evening in the new Y. M. C. A. hall in the East Duke Building. Several new men were received into membership. Dr. Boyd made several presentations to the library.

The feature of the meeting was a paper by Dr. E. C. Brooks on the Westward Movement, which comprises one of the chapters of his recent book The Story of Corn. The paper took up in detail the conditions in Europe conducive to migration to America and showed the influences tending to build up the western part of the United States.

THE JUNIOR CLASS WINS RELAY RACE FOR 2ND TIME

The Juniors proved his worth; Cordle overtook his man and finished about thirty yards ahead amid the wild enthusiasm of his class-mates.

The crowd, feeling that the race was won, was about to forget that the Senior runner had not arrived, but he finally came in to be welcomed with open arms by his class-mates who showed their appreciation for his endeavors by carrying him around on their shoulders.

The course used for the race Saturday was the same as that used last year. The starting point was five miles in the country. The runners entered the city over Holloway street went on over Cleveland to Chapel Hill, thence to Main street at Five Points, from which place they ran to Watts street. There they turned and went a little more than a mile north, until the road near the hospital was reached. Here the course turned west and went into the hospital and into Broad street, again returning south until West Main was reached at the turning of the car line at the intersection of Main and Broad in West Durham. The course then turned into the campus at the main entrance and the ninth mile ended at the flag pole. The last mile was over the circle, as has been stated.

After the race was finished the crowd gathered around to hear President Few read the messages of the classes which the runners had borne. They were as follows: 1916—"The end might have been worse."

1915—"We have run with patience the race that was set before us."

1914—"The class of 1914 may not be invincible but it is always on the job."

1913—"13 also ran."

The runners for the various classes together with the judges, named according to the miles that they ran and in the order of the ranking of their classes, beginning with the seniors, and following with the juniors, sophomores and freshmen, are as follows:

First mile—Lane, Garret, Finch, Palmer. Judges, Nelson and Kimball.

Second—Ratcliffe, Thompson, Brown, Gardner. Judges, E. Warlick and Cannon.

Third—White, Lucas, Siler, Comann. Judges, Carter and Bagley.

Fourth—Cade, Whitesides, Hawfield, Matton. Judges, Byrd, Godfrey, Hayes.

Fifth—McClees, Spence, Goforth, Lilly. Judges, Sheppard, Brinn and Wilson.

Sixth—Lotspeich, Williamson, Jenkins, Crowell. Judges, Duncan, Hedrick, White.

Seventh—Smart, Lowe, Barnard, Percoll. Judges, Terrell, Marr and Starnes.

Eighth—Towe, Highland, Thorne, Grigg. Judges, McKinnon, Ray Waggoner.

Ninth—Kirkman, Secrest, Few, Osborne. Judges, Professors Wannamaker, Boyd, and Peppler.

The officials of the race were as follows:

Chief marshal, R. G. Cherry; assistant marshals, D. L. Hardee, A. T. Knott, J. A. Rand, W. G. Suiter, J. R. Davis, E. R. Bond, Robert Matthews, D. C. Lewis.

Guides: At Holloway and Cleveland streets, Gordon Carver. At Cleveland and Chapel Hill streets, B. C. Snow.

"GERONIMO'S LAST RAID" FRIDAY

A Two-Reel Feature at the

EDISONIA

The Edisonia will offer Friday, for one day only, the "American" two-reel feature film "Geronimo's Last Raid." This is a magnificent historical subject of the out-of-ordinary kind.

You all remember Geronimo—the famous Indian Chief, whose death a few years ago removed a constant source of trouble to the Southwestern settlers and army posts on the border. It is a vivid and intensely dramatic portrayal of Geronimo's last raid, historically accurate and deeply interesting.

A delightful love story winds its way through beautiful settings. Realistic battle scenes where close to 300 Indians and soldiers participate. Altogether the exception in motion pictures. This special picture will be shown at the Edisonia Friday afternoon and night, October 25th. Don't fail to see it.
