DR. WM. A. WEBB SPEAKER FOR BENEFACTOR'S DAY

WILL DELIVER ADDRESS OCT. THIRD, FIRST HOLIDAY OF THE YEAR

NEW PRES. OF RANDOLPH-MACON

Is a Native of Durham and Has Many Local Connections.—Comes of the Well Known Webb Family of Educators—Ex-President Central

For many years the third of October has been observed at Trinity College as Benefactor's Day, a time at which there have been brought to the College some of the foremost speakers of the country to deliver the Benefactor's Day address. The event this year promises to be even more interesting, and the speaker more of an attraction to local audiences than ever before, for the college authorities have invited Dr. William A. Webb, recently elected president of Randolph Macon Woman's College, to deliver the address this year, and the invitation has quite recently been accepted. Much interest in the speaker is felt in Durham on account of the family connections and early friends of the family who have resided here, Dr. Webb having been born in Durham while his father was pastor of Trinity Church. His recent election, after a most successful career as an educator, to the presidency of one of the foremost women's colleges in the country has given him a good deal of prominence all over the South.

Benefactor's Day was established some years ago as an annual holiday by action of the Board of Trustees to aid in the cultivation of a spirit of benevolence and as a time to give recognition to all those who have made contributions to the institution. This year it comes on Friday, and at the time when a number of visiting college men will be on the campus attending the Y. M. C. A. conference that comes to Trinity on that date.

The facts about Dr. Webb's early career are fairly well known but will always be of interest to friends who may not have kept up with his later life. He was born in Durham on July 30th, 1867, while his father, Rev. R. S. Webb, was pastor of Trinity Methodist Church. After preparatory education at the famous Webb School, of which his uncles are the principals, Dr. Webb entered Vanderbilt University, from which place he took his Bachelor's degree, and afterwards taught in the Webb School until 1895, when he attended the University of Leipzig for two winters. From 1897-99 Dr. Webb was principal of the Central Academy at Fayette, Missouri, and from 1899 to 1907 was professor of English in Central College at the same place, with the exception of a year spent at the University of Berlin. In 1907 he was elected President of Central College, where he made such a splendid record that at the death of the late Dr. W. W. Smith, the Executive Committee of Randolph Macon tendered him the position of President of Randolph Macon's Woman's College. At the opening of the present year he moved his family to Lynchburg and assumed control of the institution.

CAROLINA COLLEGE MEN MEET HERE NEXT WEEK

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE TO RUN FROM WEDNESDAY TO SUNDAY NIGHT

SPLENDID PROGRAM OF SPEECHES

A Full Course Covering Every Phase of College Religious Work. Special Events for Saturday Night and Sunday Afternoon Meetings

As announced in a previous issue, the Student Conference of the North Carolina Young Men's Christian Association will convene at Trinity College on next Wednesday, October 1, and continue through the following Sunday. The Conference is held each year under the auspices of the Interstate Executive Committee of the Carolina Young Men's Christian Associations.

According to Mr. E. G. Wilson, one of the Interstate Secretaries, the Conference will be more than a Bible Institute. It will furnish the opportunity, to those interested, for a thorough understanding of the important activities of the Student Association.

Men of State and National prominence will be here to take part in the program. Some of these are: Dr. W. D. Weatherford and W. H. Morgan, student secretaries of the International Committee; Mr. Wilber B. Smith, Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement; Rev. Melton Clark, Greensboro; Rev. John Little, Louisville, Ky; Dr. W. L. Poteat, President of Wake Forest College, and Dr. Franklin N. Parker, of Trinity College.

BASEBALL GAME AT HANES FIELD THIS AFTERNOON

Varsity Players and Material in First Game of Fall Practice

There is a baseball game going on this afternoon on Hanes Athletic Field between two picked teams from the college. All the available varsity material is being used, and the faculty and Park School have been called upon. Bundy and Claude West, two old Trinity stars, are to be seen on one of the teams.

The baseball diamond has been put in good shape and the squad is going through a stiff practice every afternoon. Two teams have been picked from the most promising material and pitted against each other this afternoon. Other games will probably follow to enable Captain Spence to get a line on some of the raw material that he is to be so largely dependent on for this year's team.

The management hopes to play a number of other games this fall, and every student in college who can play ball is urged to come out every afternoon for practice. In this way the management hopes to lay the foundation for a strong team next spring. In this, as in all other forms of athletics, the hearty co-operation and support of the students and friends of the college is necessary.

Mr. D. L. Hardee, class 1913, spent some time on the campus last week. He is now connected with the Atlantic Coast Realty Company with headquarters at Greenville.

OCTOBER 17th SET FOR INTER-CLASS RELAY RACE

FALL ATHLETIC CLASSIC LOOMS UP IN PROSPECT—TEN MILE RACE

ELECTIONS OF CLASS CAPTAINS

Practice Begins Preliminary to Event in Which Championship Cup Goes to Winning Team—Seniors Expected to Win Their Third Victory

The college year, so far as athletics are concerned, began in earnest Monday morning with the physical examination of the freshman. Many of the new men have already been measured up, and Physical Director Card states that with the completion of this work the Gymnasium classes will begin. Announcement will be made soon as to the date of the annual gymnasium exhibition.

While Cap is examining the length and breadth and depth and height of the fresh gentleman on the campus, the other classes have already elected their captains for the relay teams, and the men are being rounded into shape for this big event in the college athletic world. The captains are as follows: Seniors, F. F. Thompson; Juniors, R. L. Brown; Sophomores, C. F. Matton. These three men are all stars of last year's Varsity track team.

At a meeting of these three captains yesterday with the Varsity manager and captain, the date for the annual interclass relay was set for October the eighteenth. The preliminaries for all classes will be run on the seventh of the same month. These dates were chosen on account of the fact that they give time for practicing the competing teams and still do not interfere with the basketball schedule as it now stands. The freshman team has not yet organized but it is expected that this will be done within the next few days.

The annual interclass relay race has become one of the main athletic events of the year. The best ten runners from all four classes in college contest for a handsome silver cup, which is given to the winning class by the Snider-Wilcox-Fletcher Co. Each man runs a mile, and the class which comes out ahead at the end of the tenth mile is awarded the cup for one year. In case a class wins the race three years in succession it becomes the permanent possession of the cup. No class has yet accomplished this, however; the present seniors have won the cup twice, but not in succession, and they give promise of putting up a hard fight to win it again. The three other classes are equally determined, and the race is expected to be more hotly contested than ever before in the history of the event.

SENIORS ELECT PRESIDENT

The latter part of the hour for Senior Bible last Thursday was given over to the regular election of officers. The president of last year, J. R. Davis, presided and declared the meeting open for nominations.

M. R. Pleasants, manager of the Archivist and assistant editor of the Chanticleer, of Cary, was elected After he had thanked the class for the honor it had conferred upon him, it was found that the hour was up, and the election of the other officers was deferred until a later date.

CHRONICLE COMPETITORS INAUGURATE CONTEST

CALL FOR CANDIDATES BRINGS OUT MUCH PROMISING MATERIAL

EIGHTEEN MEN ENTER FOR PLACES

Work Assigned to Each Contestant and All Forms of Work Planned for Each Before Close of Contest—Another Meeting for Friday

Last Friday afternoon sixteen men gathered in the CHRONICLE office to hear outlined the plans for the four week's contest which is to determine the make-up of the CHRONICLE staff for the year. Some of the best writers in the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes were present and if the men work according to their ability, it will be a hot contest. Two entries have been made since the meeting.

The following men have entered for places: R. W. Adams, B. W. Barnard, F. B. Brown, S. C. Dellinger, B. F. Few, L. L. Ivey, R. M. Johnston, J. W. Lambeth, J. T. McAdams, P. H. North, B. H. Siler, E. R. Sikes, E. S. Savage, G. S. Sexton, Jr., C. A. Tucker, A. W. Wilson, and Jack Wallace.

In a few words the editor explained the purpose of the meeting, and the rules governing the contest were announced, these being the same as appeared in the last issue of THE CHRONICLE. A list of the important events of the week was gone over, and assignments to cover the various events given out.

The work is to be turned in not later than seven o'clock every Monday night. The editor will keep a

TENNIS TOURNAMENTS BEGAN ON YESTERDAY

SEVEN NEW COURTS PUT IN USE MONDAY; REGULATIONS AS TO PLAYING

The tennis tournament began Tuesday with the following matches:

Court No. 1 at 2 o'clock, Siler vs. Few; Court No. 3, North vs. McAdams. At 4 o'clock Wallace played Lambeth on Court No. 1, and Parker played Larkin on Court No. 3. The results of these matches cannot be published till next week's issue. Several other matches will be played during the week and Manager A. R. Anderson hopes to complete the tournament as soon as possible. The winners in these matches will have the privilege of challenging either Anderson or White, who composed last year's Varsity.

Besides the courts which were in use last year, five new ones have been graded and were put in use for the first time on Monday.

Until the sale of the blanket tickets these courts may be used by any student of the College. The management, however, reserves the right to judge whether or not the courts are fit to be played on, and all players are required to respect any notice stating that the courts are unfit for use. The courts have been injured several times by matches played on them when they were not in good condition, and the management is very anxious that this shall not happen again.

Prospective intercollegiate matches are being arranged for the year and a plan is now on foot to play all the leading colleges of the State.

PRES. W. P. FEW'S ADDRESS OPENING COLLEGE YEAR

DELIVERED SUNDAY NIGHT TO LARGE MEMORIAL HALL AUDIENCE

TRIUMPH OF UNIVERSAL PEACE

Discussion of Present Day Problems in American College Education.—The Truly Great College a Place of Education, Society and Religion

In Craven Memorial Hall Sunday evening President Few made his annual opening address to the College. Despite the threatening weather a large crowd was present. Music for the occasion was furnished by a choir of Durham's most talented singers, with Mr. T. E. Cheek, director, and Mrs. S. W. Venable accompanist. Rev. G. F. Smith, of Memorial Church, offered the invocation. Miss Medora Smith sang a beautiful contralto solo, which was one of the special features of the evening.

The theme of the address was the Triumph of Universal Truth. President Few stated that the greatest asset to any piece of work is the amount of truth there is in it. It is often relevant to ask is it a fact, but it is sometimes impertinent to ask is it true. Men will always recognize in Hamlet a masterpiece, not because of the facts or its setting, but because of the truth there is in it.

A great college must be based on truth, and public opinion must be strengthened for institutions taking such a stand. Public opinion ought not to stand for the practice by the institutions in this and other sections of the country of sending out scouts and buying up promising athletes while they are in high schools, and even going so far as to proselyte college students wherever there seems to be an opening. Young men are offered inducements on account of their athletic ability, while their moral worth and educational abilities are overlooked. Trinity has suffered in this way, but no well informed man can really regret it if Trinity must suffer for the sake of such a cause.

Many of the educational institutions today are institutions with education left out. In the colleges of the East and the large State universities of the West the educational side is too greatly subordinated to numerous undergraduate evils. Woodrow Wilson made a brilliant and gallant, but losing fight, at Princeton against the subordination of the main to the lesser concerns of undergraduate life.

Like Jowett, the speaker held that the three fundamental conceptions of a college are: a place of education, a place of society, and a place of religion. The college ought to be a place free from luxury and illness, for by too sumptuous living the mind and body are impaired. A great college must have the combination of education and religion. He strongly opposed the recent action of Mr. Carnegie by which it was held that education and religion should not be combined, for, if so, both suffer in the mixing. "We need, especially, in this time of hesitancy and uncertainty in so many directions, colleges that are organically and fundamentally committed to the Christian religion; that are

IN RE EDITORIAL

THE CHRONICLE believes that the first duty of a newspaper is to present accurately the news at hand regardless of anything else, save when some pressing crisis, such as does not now exist, demands the statement of the position of the paper, its interpretation of events, or its voicing of a want that cannot be adequately portrayed through the news columns. In view of this fact, the news of the week takes precedence over whatever views the paper may hold in regard to that news, and so, for the present at least, this branch of the work will give way to the prime purpose of THE CHRONICLE's existence.

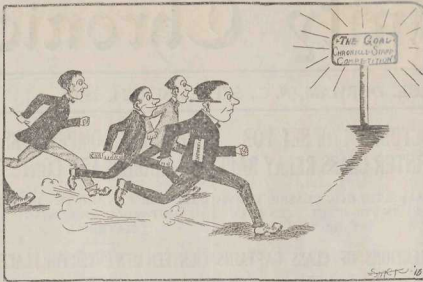

On account of an unforeseen circumstance and a great press of news matter, it is impossible to give the full text of President Few's address of Sunday night, as had been expected, and whatever opinion in respect to its contents THE CHRONICLE might have intended to express will therefore be deferred. The document deserves a careful reading and thought of all college men along the lines laid down by the President and the address should properly serve as his annual message to the community.

Too much pressure cannot be brought to bear in urging the importance of a great number of men going out for the sports planned for the fall, particularly the relay race, the fall baseball practice, the tennis tournaments, and the basketball practice for both class and Varsity teams.

SOPHOMORE ELECTION

What came near being "a unanimous election of officers," was that held by the Sophomore class on Saturday last in the Bible room. President Wilson called the meeting promptly at 9:30 P. M., and presided until R. W. Adams was elected to take his place. The office of President was the only one in which there was more than one candidate. Those nominated for President were Patton, Lambeth, Adams, and Mills. President Adams and ex-President Wilson made short speeches. The other officers were elected unanimously. They are:

local association, states that about 125 delegates will attend the Conference, coming from every college in the State, and will be entertained by the members and friends of the Trinity College Association.

The conference is expected to be in a large measure a copy of the conference held every summer at Blue Ridge, and several events are to stand out prominently on the program. On Wednesday, the opening night of the Conference, and every night thereafter, there will be an inspirational address. The first of these will be delivered by Dr. W. D. Weatherford. On Thursday morning at nine o'clock Dr. Weatherford will lead a class in the study of the book, "Introducing Men to Christ."

From ten to twelve on Thursday there will be a study of missionary endeavor which on succeeding mornings will be replaced by Bible Study and Social Service topics. At two o'clock on the respective days will come devotional talks on Leadership, Prayer, and the Holy Spirit. At three-thirty every day Dr. F. N. Parker will lead a normal class and at seven-thirty will come the platform addresses, followed by group conferences.

On Saturday night, after the platform address, there will be a social gathering at which the local branch will be the host of the visitors. On Sunday morning the topic is Evangelism, and it is hoped that services may be held in the various city churches. On Sunday afternoon at three will come the greatest meeting of the series, when a mass meeting will be held and an effort made to get every college student to attend.

Committees are now at work securing homes for the delegates.

DEBATE COUNCIL ORGANIZES

The Debate Council held its first meeting of the year in the East Duke Building Tuesday afternoon and started this activity of the students on its course for the year. The election of officers resulted in the selection of Dr. W. K. Boyd, as chairman, and B. F. Dalton as recording secretary. Prof. Holland Holton, of the Department of Debating met with the Council and was reelected corresponding secretary. No challenge to debate has yet been received from any college, nor has the council delivered any challenge, but letters in regard to debates have been received from a number of colleges and Prof. Holton was asked to reply to these. The council hopes to arrange two or three debates for the year.

The Junior class election at noon today resulted as follows: President F. B. Brown; Vice-President E. S. Savage; Secretary, Miss Catherine Thomas; Athletic Representative, B. H. Siler; Captain Class Basketball Team, F. B. Brown.

complete list of work turned in by each man together with a note as to that printed. At the end of the contest the staff will be appointed by using these record-sheets as an aid in securing the best man.

The work for the first week consisted in writing up the body of the stories. Next week headline writing will be included, and on succeeding weeks men will be taken to the composing room to get actual experience in setting up the forms. Finally every man will be given a chance to show his ability in writing editorials. Thus the contest will be a thorough, practical test extending through the entire scope of newspaper work.

The new plan for selecting the staff is being watched with keen interest, for it is a distinct innovation, and bids fair to be a great improvement over past methods of conducting the paper.

On Friday at one-thirty the men will meet again at 210 Aycock Hall to go over the work done for this issue and to get assignments for the coming week.

GLEE CLUB MEETING

Sledge Assistant Manager—Trips in Prospect

Those students of the college who are musically inclined will soon have an opportunity to display their talents. At a meeting of the College Glee Club called last Friday night in the Memorial Hall, J. B. Sledge was elected assistant to Manager N. M. Patton and plans for the year were discussed. Although only a few of last year's club are back, the management refuses to believe that there are no Carousos in the Freshman class, and so music is being ordered and preparations are being made to put out the best club possible to represent the college.

Manager Patton has a splendid trip in sight for this season's tour, including such towns as Raleigh, Sanford, Rockingham, Wadesboro, Monroe, and Concord.

Mr. Overton of the Southern Conservatory of Music will probably train the club and it is hoped that a large number of men will report when the first practice is called.

The Glee Club last year was such a marked success that those who remain for the present season's work should form a sufficient nucleus on which to build quite a star caste, and with the addition of a possible stringed or even wind orchestra there should be no doubt of the outcome of the season.

The first meeting of the Classical Club for the year will be held in the Latin room of the Library tomorrow night at seven thirty. The program will consist of a paper by Dr. A. M. Gates on the subject, "The Name of Caesar," and the discussion will be led by Prof. W. F. Gill. A full attendance of members is urged.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULES AND TRIPS FOR SEASON

CLASS SERIES TO START OCTO-
BER 31.—TRIPS IN CAROLINA AND VIRGINIA

As soon as the sound of a basket ball will not interfere with Cap's attentive ear on the breast of a fast-breathing freshman, practice for the great fall sport will start in the gymnasium. Outdoor courts will be placed on the athletic field, and training will begin in earnest for the class series which is played each fall for the college championship. Manager F. B. Brown has arranged the following schedule:

Seniors and Freshman, October 31

Juniors and Sophomores, November 4.

Juniors and Seniors, November 7.
Freshman and Sophomores, November 11.

Freshmen and Juniors, November 14.

Seniors and Sophomores, November 18.

Seniors and Freshmen, November 21.

Juniors and Sophomores, November 25.
Juniors and Seniors, November 28.

Sophomores and Freshmen, December 2.

Juniors and Freshmen, December 5.

Seniors and Sophomores, December 9.

The season for the varsity team will open December 12 with Elon College.

The only varsity games that have been arranged so far are two with Elon on December 12th and 15th and with Guilford on February 4th and 20th.

The management proposes to make two trips this year. One will be in December, when games will be played with Elon at Elon, the Y. M. C. A. teams of Charlotte and Asheville, and the teams of Wofford College at Spartanburg, S. C.

The other trip, which it is hoped will be arranged, is to Virginia, Washington, and Annapolis. An effort is being made to schedule games with Washington and Lee, Virginia, Virginia Military Institute, Virginia Christian College, Catholic University, Georgetown, and the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Besides these trips, which are of course not yet definitely decided upon, Trinity will play almost all of the other Colleges of the State, both on the home floor and at other places. These trips are well worth working for, and the promising material here bids fair to develop a team capable of holding its own

INFORMAL RECEPTION

Tendered by Organization of Trinity Church

On Friday night last one of the most important social features of the college year occurred. Trinity Church, reviving the custom of past years, tendered to the students of the Southern Conservatory of Music, Trinity College, and the Trinity Park School a reception. Despite the inclemency of the weather, over six hundred guests were in attendance.

The Sunday school room was tastefully decorated with palms and ferns. The pastor, Rev. R. C. Craven, met his guests at the door, and General Julian S. Carr started the ball rolling by introducing boys and girls. Every tinge of formality was removed, and the ice was broken, not to say crushed. Soon everybody knew everybody else, and the receiving line dissolved into a mass of chattering young people. Couples adjourned to the punch bowl, where they were served with fruit punch, and then to adjoining classrooms, where they were served with ice cream and cake.

During the evening an organ program was rendered by Miss Alice Hundley. The program ranged from the lighter popular music to the heavier Bach Fugues and the grand Handel choruses.

SUCCESS OF NEWSPAPER MAN

"Mr. J. Paul Lucas, who for nearly a year has been the editor of The Evening Chronicle, has resigned his position to give his entire attention to his business interests. With the exception of about two years spent as editor of The Winston-Salem Journal, Mr. Lucas has been connected with the staff of the Observer and the Chronicle for nearly a dozen years, and is one of the best equipped newspaper men in the State. He is highly popular both within and without the profession.

Mr. Lucas is a Trinity man who has made a great success in journalism. Before coming to Trinity he was on the staff of the Observer. While in college he did work for a number of papers and he agitated the question of the establishment of a weekly paper at Trinity, and while THE CHRONICLE was not published until a year after he left college he was active in the movement which culminated in its establishment.

Mrs. Lucas was Miss Alice C. Croft, of Wilmington, a member of the class of 1905. R. T. Lucas, of the senior class, and business manager of THE CHRONICLE is a brother of Mr. J. Paul Lucas.

HERSPERIAN MEETING

Literary Program and Initiation

The Hesperian Literary Society held its second meeting Saturday evening in its hall in the East Duke Building. This session of the Society is probably the most important one of the year, that being the first opportunity new men have of joining either society. The president opened the meeting with a few words of welcome to the new men.

The regular literary program was followed and W. G. Sheppard delivered his oration on Universal Peace. Then followed a very lively discussion of the query: Resolved that large combinations of capital are detrimental to the general welfare of the nation. Messrs. Lewis, Hill, and Glauss upheld the affirmative, while the negative was defended by Messrs. Ruark, Adams, and Brown, R. L. The decision was rendered in favor of the negative.

Following the debate, several made characteristic speeches. Vice-President Conly and M. F. Morgan were first; D. L. Hardee, class '13 followed and was succeeded by Messrs. Ruark and Hill. In the campaign for members twelve new men were enrolled and were initiated as loyal Hesperians, each responding as called upon with suitable expression of sentiment.

PATTON—FLOWERS

Invitations to the marriage of Mr. George Horace Flowers, class 1903, have recently been issued. The invitation is as follows:

"Mrs. Julius Allen Patton requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter, Blanche Lacy, to Mr. George Horace Flowers, on the evening of Wednesday the eighth of October, Nineteen Hundred and Thirteen, at nine o'clock, First Presbyterian Church, Danville, Va."

A number of people from Durham will attend the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Flowers will live in Richmond where Mr. Flowers is connected with the Export Tobacco Company.

The Richmond Virginian says of the coming marriage:

"Invitations have been received in Richmond this week for the marriage of Miss Blanche Lacy Patton, daughter of Mrs. Julius Allen Patton, to George Horace Flowers, formerly of North Carolina, but now of Richmond, the wedding to take place on the evening of Wednesday, October 8th, at 9 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian Church in Danville. A reception at the home of the bride's mother will follow the ceremony at the church, and the wedding is to be a brilliant and fashionable event of the early fall season. Miss Patton is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Patton, of West Franklin Street, and has spent a great deal of time here. A great many of Richmond people will go to Danville next month to attend the wedding.

Following a wedding journey, Mr. Flowers and his bride will be at home in Richmond, having taken a house at the corner of Laurel and Grace Streets for the season."

COLUMBIA INITIATES

Takes in Twenty-Six Members

The Columbian Literary Society held its second meeting of the year Saturday night. As usual, there was great interest in this meeting, for it was the time for many of the new men to decide with which society they would cast their lot. Twenty-five new members were initiated, as against twenty-six last year and thirty-six year before last.

The program consisted of short speeches by various members. President J. R. Daves made the first of these and then called upon W. F. Starnes, B. F. Dalton, E. L. Secrest, B. W. Barnard, F. B. Brown, C. B. Culbreth, Eugene Allison, and finally upon the old war-horse, R. G. Cherry.

After the initiation, all the new members were called upon for short speeches. Each one acquitted himself with credit and showed that the quality of the new men was much above the average.

TRINITY PARK SCHOOL ITEMS

The regular school work has gotten under way and prospects for a good year at the Park School are bright. Especial interest just at this time in the literary societies is manifest among the students and there is the usual friendly rivalry in securing new members.

Two of the new tennis courts on the athletic field have been turned over on the use of Park School students and this game is the favorite with a number during these pleasant days for outdoor exercise.

E. T. Humphries, who recently spent some days at the Watts Hospital, has entirely recovered and has entered upon his work.

Several new students arrived this week and also there have been some additions to the local students.

I. W. Medlin, who was here last fall, has returned to complete his course.
