OPENING SESSION OF THE CAROLINA Y. M. C. A. CONF.

DR. W. D. WEATHERFORD MAKES INITIAL ADDRESS AT 7:30 TONIGHT

GREAT MASS MEETING SUNDAY

Delegates Being Entertained by Durham Churches—100 Present—Addresses at Night to be Features. Informal Reception Saturday

The Student Conference of the North Carolina Young Men's Christian Association convenes this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Association Hall. The initial Inspirational Address will be made by Dr. W. D. Weatherford, student secretary of the International Y. M. C. A. Committee. His subject will be: "Principles that should guide in the choice of a Life Work."

The conference promises to be one of the most successful ever held. The number of delegates attending even surpasses expectations. As many as eighteen delegates are here from one College. There are large delegations from Davidson, Wake Forest Chapel Hill, and Elon. Practically all of these delegates are being entertained by the members of the Churches of the city. There are a few, however, being entertained on the campus. All the leaders and speakers who have been advertised, are here to take part in the program, and to do their part toward making the Conference a success.

Tomorrow morning the Conference begins its real work. From 9 to 10 o'clock Dr. Weatherford will lead a class in the study of the book, "Introducing Men to Christ." The same hour will be spent Thursday and Friday in a similar manner, will be a class study on Missionary From ten to twelve Thursday there Endeavor. On Friday, during the same hours, Bible Study will be the topic and on Saturday morning the class will study Social Service. At two o'clock each afternoon will be Inspirational talks on Leadership, Prayer, and the Holy Spirit. At three thirty o'clock each afternoon Dr. F. N. Parker will teach a normal class, studying the different phases of Association work. At seven-thirty each evening there will be platform addresses, at which time some of the foremost men of the State will address the Conference.

After the platform address Saturday evening the local Association will be the hosts of the visiting leaders and delegates at an informal reception.

Sunday will be the banner day for the Conference. The morning session will be held in Memorial Church, at which time Dr. W. L. Potat, President of Wake Forest College, will speak on "The Call to the Ministry." The afternoon session will be held in Craven Memorial Hall, will be a mass meeting to which all men in the community are invited, and is expected to be the great event of the meeting.

The closing address will be made Sunday night by Rev. Melton Clark of Greensboro. The subject as given out will be: Numbers 13:30—"Let us go up and possess the land, for we are able to overcome it."

R. L. Towe, '13, who is teaching in the Cary High School, was in the campus Sunday.

FALL PRACTICE BRINGS OUT PROMISING MATERIAL

VARSITY, YANNIGANS, FRESHMEN—ALL SHOW UP WELL—SIX T MEN BACK

In response to a call from Captain Spence, about forty candidates are out for fall baseball practice every afternoon on Hanes field where game are played daily. Several of last year's Varsity failed to return, owing to graduation and other causes. Captain Spence, Karpis, Maddox, McLean, and Anderson are survivors of last year's team who answered the call, and in addition to these is Fuller, who made the 1912 team in his Senior year. He is taking law and is out for this old place at first. All these old men are showing up in their best form, and make a good nucleus for a winning team.

Last season's Yannigans are out in full force in hopes of graduating to the Varsity. Jones is behind the bat and North, Siler, Rone, Shore, Carver, Cook, and Boyd are fighting to fill the infield positions now vacant, while Few, Thorne and Bond are in the outfield.

Much good freshman material has come out and promises to make it hard for the old men to win their places. McCall and Powell look good in the box. McKinnon, LeGrand, Durham, Sours, Weatherly, and Alderman seem to have the stuff, and with coaching next spring will develop into good infielders. Mayes and Smith are the only freshman candidates for the outfield.

HISTORIC ORDER OF 9019 INITIATES 12 MEN

MONDAY NIGHT SAW ENTRY OF LARGE CLASS INTO SECRET MYSTERIES

Twelve men received one of the most prized honors open to undergraduates of Trinity College when on Monday night the secret order, the 9010, held its initiation ceremonies on the college campus. Promptly at seven-thirty the candidates assembled under the old Inn tower and thereafter took part in various performances, varying from arduous love-making on the Franksback porch to the less strenuous task of swimming Swan creek. Initiation ceremonies proper in the West Duke Building were followed by an informal spread.

The 9019 is a scholarship fraternity corresponding to the national Phi Beta Kappa order.

The following is a list of those initiated: A. R. Anderson, Statesville; B. W. Barnard, Asheville; J. W. Carr, Charlotte; B. F. Few, Geer, S. C.; S. L. Gullege, Albemarle; W. W. Hutton, Bell Buckle, Tenn.; E. R. Sikes, Burlington; B. H. Siler, Gainesville, Ga.; D. T. Stuts, Carthage; G. A. Warlick, Newton; H. E. Myers, Swann Station; and W. I. Wooten, Raleigh.

CLASSICAL CLUB

The meeting of the Classical Club on Thursday night was given over to the discussion of results of routine business and the reading of a paper by Dr. A. M. Gates on the subject, "The Name of Caesar." A general discussion followed.

ARCHIVE OUT ON TIME WITH OPENING NUMBER

SEVERAL CHANGES IN MAKE-UP OF THE STUFF FOR THIS YEAR

GOOD POETRY AND DEPARTMENTS

N. I. White, Diogenes, Yarrum, and Miss M. Y. Wescott do Good Work. Departments Show Up Well. Class Columns on Cover. No. of Ads.

Promptly on the first day of Oct. the first issue of the Archive is being distributed by the managers. The new volume is different in appearance from most previous issues in that the outside cover is done in the colors of the class of 1914, purple and white. The business manager has been at work and has a large amount of advertising matter.

Changes in the staff, have taken place since the opening of the year. Miss Laura Tillett and J. O. Renfro having been appointed to fill vacancies, and Miss Lizzie Mae Smith having been appointed to the new office of Co-ed. Business Manager.

The October number is somewhat small in amount of literary contributions, as these are made up of: Langeweile, anonymous; An Unusual Co-ed., By F. B. Brown; A Distant Song, by N. I. White; A Scurry Trick of Fate, by Trebor Yarrum; the Dorelict Ship and The Rose of All the World, by Miss Mary Wescott; and A Kite and a Heart, by M. B. Andrews.

The best thing in the magazine, as is usually the case whenever he writes for the Archive, is N. I. White's verse. To this Miss Wescott's verse and the contribution of Diogenes, in the Alumni Department come second, with the continued story by the Trebor Yarrum individual also making a good impression. There seems to have been a dearth of writers outside the staff of the Archive itself, but this is usually the case with the first number, and tends to correct itself.

The department seems to be in good hands: The editors are well written and deal with practical subjects; in fact it seems that the policy outlined in the Exchange department is pretty thoroughly tried out in this first number.

NEXT FRIDAY A HOLIDAY

Friday of this week will be Benefactor's Day and a holiday, and no classes will meet during the day, but at night there will be a public service in Craven Memorial Hall which all students are expected to attend. As announced previously the address will be delivered by Dr. Wm. A. Webb, of Randolph Macon Woman's College. The exercises will begin at eight o'clock.

Dr. C. R. McAdams, an ex-member of the class of 1905, was married to Miss Grace Ezell, at Charlotte. Dr. McAdams is located at Pineville, where, after a short wedding trip to the National Conservation Exposition at Knoxville, Tenn., they will make their future home.

J. R. English, of the Junior class is seriously ill at the Watts Hospital, having been operated on for appendicitis and found afflicted with ulcer of the stomach.

DATE OF PRELIMINARY CHANGED TO OCTOBER 8

LAW SCHOOL ENTERS TEAM FOR FIRST TIME—FINAL ON OCTOBER 18TH

Owing to circumstances that have necessitated a change since the setting of the date for the preliminary to the interclass relay race, the managers have set Wednesday, the eighth, as the time for this event in place of Tuesday the seventh, as previously announced. The race itself will come ten days later, that is on Saturday, the eighteenth of October.

The preliminary on Wednesday, will be held on the Circle, the starting point being the gymnasium, and a double circuit of the course being necessary to make a full mile. The races will start at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and the classes will run in the order of their rank.

Since talk of the race has been in the air, the Law School has decided to enter its team to add spice to the occasion, and while there are not over ten possible runners to be found in the Law Department, these will go through the preliminary also, so as to get all the training necessary. There are really some very good possibilities in such men as Cherry, McKinnon, Allison, Kirkman and Ratcliff, all of whom have been in the race in previous years, and from the rest of the membership there should be little difficulty in picking a strong team.

DR. WEBB SUCCESSOR TO DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

COLLEGE HAS HAD MANY FINE ADDRESSES IN RECENT YEARS. THE SPEAKERS

On Friday night at eight o'clock Dr. Wm. A. Webb will deliver the annual Benefactor's Day address in Craven Memorial Hall.

The students of Trinity College have an opportunity offered by few institutions in the South,—that of hearing the greatest men of the country lecture on themes covering almost every possible field. A glance at some of the orators of last year, together with their subjects, will give an idea as to the variety of fields of study that were opened to students of the college.

Dr. C. F. Reid on China's Awakening; Prof. T. W. Shannon, Sex Hygiene; Dr. John M. Manly on Wm. Vaughan Moody; Dr. F. G. Peabody on Success; Prof. W. E. Dodd on History-Patriotism; Dr. G. L. Kittredge on Macbeth; Rev. Thornton Whaling in Bible lectures for the Avera series; and Prof. K. F. Smith on A Modern Lover in the Augustan Age. The college commencement occasions have become known over the South as brilliant literary events. Last year the speakers were Senator Cummins, Dr. C. C. Woods, and Dr. Eckman.

Dr. Wm. A. Webb, who is to make the Benefactor's Day address Friday night, will make a worthy addition to the long list of distinguished men who have previously made this day memorable. In 1907 Bishop John C. Kilgo spoke on Some Tendencies of American Democracy; 1908, Plato T. Durham on The Men Who Fail; 1909, Bishop

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF ATHLETIC TICKET SALE

PROF. WILSON ISSUES SIGNED INTERVIEW EXPLAINING THE SYSTEM

MANAGERS WILL SELL TONIGHT

Special Privileges to Early Purchasers—Tennis Courts Closed to Non-Holders after Saturday of this Week—Five Dollar Rate Again

In a signed statement given to THE CHRONICLE yesterday afternoon, Prof. R. N. Wilson, Faculty Athletic Manager, outlined the plan for the sale of the season tickets admitting to all athletic contests on the college campus this year, and the use of all tennis courts and diamonds.

"The attention of students is called to the fact that the Blanket Tickets of the Athletic Council are now on sale.

The price of the ticket is $5.00, and the owner is admitted without further charge to take part in or to witness any and all intercollegiate and class games played on the local grounds by Trinity teams. The use of the tennis courts is also included. These tickets are not transferable among students.

Those who do not hold blanket tickets may have the use of the tennis courts by buying a special Tennis Ticket at $1.00 per term. However, the return of one of these tennis tickets will not be accepted as part payment for a regular blanket ticket bought later in the year.

After October 4, the tennis courts will be closed to all persons not holding some sort of ticket.

Purchasers of blanket tickets, obtaining them on or before October 10, will be given the privilege of paying half the purchase price down and the remainder on or before February 2, 1914.

As this is practically the only source from which funds are derived for the support of our athletic teams, the entire college community, Faculty, Students, and friends of the college are urged to take one or more of these blanket tickets.

For several years past our athletic sports have not had the support of the entire college. This ought not to be so, and will not continue so if everybody concerned will think about it straight and act accordingly.

A canvass of the college is being made and everybody will be given a chance to buy a ticket.

They may be obtained from H. B. Gaston, R. T. Lucas, F. B. Brown, and A. R. Anderson."

R. N. Wilson, Ch. Ex-Comm.

TRINITY PARK SCHOOL ITEMS

During the past few days much interest has been shown in basket ball. New grounds have been laid out and goals erected on the open space on the athletic field in front of the Ashbury building.

Mr. David L. Lockhart who graduated in the class of 1900 is a successful dentist in Ashboro, N. C.

Mr. J. L. Williams, '02, known while in school as "Reddy," has been married and is now practicing law in Newbern.

Miss Maude McClees has gone to High Point to resume her duties as teacher of domestic science in the schools of that city.

EDITORIAL

THE CHRONICLE extends the welcome of Trinity College to the delegates and speakers of the Carolina Y. M. C. A. Conference which holds its opening session tonight on the college campus. There is no guest of the community who ever receives anything else than the heartiest welcome and the most thoughtful attention of Trinity students, and as long as the Convention visitors are in the city every member of the community is theirs to command.

In another column appears the statement of the Faculty Athletic Manager concerning the sale of the blanket athletic tickets. THE CHRONICLE desires to call especial attention to the matters set forth in it, and to emphasize the absolute necessity of the hearty financial and moral support of every member of the college organization, and every friend of the college, in order to assure the success of the athletic policies for the present year. The matter of athletics in its general scope and bearing on other interest of the college is a matter that THE CHRONICLE hopes to take up at an early date, but now, while it is called today, is the time that the college, that part of it interested in healthy, manly sports, is calling for the assistance of every friend and well-wisher, not merely passively, but through the active agency of financial support in the present sale of athletic season tickets. There is always plenty of speculative thinking along all lines, but the time of action has now arrived when all the fine spun theories of college loyalty, college spirit, service, and endeavor must stand the acid test of practical business.

There are now few places where there is so purely communal a form of living as in the colleges of today, especially in colleges such as Trinity, where a comparatively limited number of students are brought together under common living conditions for a common purpose. And so, in such a state of social relations, the best results for all can be obtained only through the co-operation of all for the common good.

The system by which it is sought to interest the students of the college in their own living conditions has taken the form here of the appointment of certain members of the Senior class to have charge in their immediate surroundings of the affairs that need attention, and probably few things have been attempted here that have had any greater possibilities for becoming agencies for bettering living conditions than has this idea of President Few's which has recently been put in operation. THE CHRONICLE gives its hearty endorsement to the movement.

THE CHRONICLE takes pleasure in recommending for the patronage and support of the college community THE Trinity Archive, appearing today for the first time under the administration of the present editors and managers. To all those who are interested in original literary work THE Archive offers a medium of publication for any worthy contributions. The magazine has had an enviable position among college magazines during most of its history, and there seems every reason to expect that this will be an even more successful year than ever before.

Lack of space prevents the printing of a great deal of interesting matter that has been given THE CHRONICLE for publication, and if, in the process of elimination, it appears that some favorite news item has not been given a place, that is no sign that THE CHRONICLE is not deeply grateful for the many kindnesses that have been shown its management already.

Every student of the college is expected to be present at the exercises of Benefactor's Day on Friday night. The occasion promises to be an event well worth the attendance of every student.

If the aviators keep on performing such stunts as was pulled off in Paris recently, when a French birdman turned topsy-turvy a couple of times, turned like a bird with a broken wing, steadied himself and then did the spiral glide safely down to mother earth, we will no longer look for Barnum-Bailey, but rather for the aerial circus.

AN ALUMNUS PROTESTS

Prof. R. L. Flowers,

DEAR PROF. FLOWERS:

I received yesterday a letter from M. R. Pleasant, Business Manager of the Trinity Archive. I am enclosing to you the letter, and will let you see how he dared to address me, and I want you personally to see that time will not let me lose my identity in Trinity College. Just to think of the man, that was always known at Trinity as "Jesse James" to be addressed away down in a little town in Georgia, as "T. T. Jones." NOW, I can put up with a good many things, but do you think I ought to sit idly by and be traduced in any such way and be called merely Jones? Just to think, that I was in that dauntless crew that went to Richmond on the James, aided to down and defeat the defiant "Garth" and came back and was paraded criminally touching off the torch to the big bonfire of barrels, and participated in the banquet at Prof. Bandy's the Euclidian wizard, where Grape Juice was used, and the faculty held a meeting to have Prof. Pegman analyze the contents of the cup to see if any of the strict rules were violated; I repeat just to think I aided in all of these things, and was then known as "Jesse James," and now some late Business Manager of our old Magazine, who no doubt has never smelled the smoke of battle or aided in taking the wounded off the field, writes to you as "T. T. Jones;" it is almost unbearable. Don't you think so? If you do not agree with me, then please turn this letter over to "Billy" Cranford. He will understand, and no doubt will volunteer to act as my attorney in any suit for slander that might be begun. Just suppose I were to go to the Old Columbian Hall some Friday night, and the President were to introduce me to that August body as "T. T. Jones" from Georgia. Wouldn't the censor have the right to bring him before the Tribunal, to show cause why he should not be fined for contempt.

However, in my long practice in the law, I shall not harbor malice. I have learned not to do that, and I am signing my name for a subscription to the Archive as it should be. Please tell Mr. Pleasant, whose very name does not indicate that he would be much on a "Center Rush," that my name is James and not Jones. Jones played the piano, but James played ball.

With best wishes,
Yours truly,
T. T. JAMES.

MR. C. L. TOWNSEND

Comes as Assistant Professor of French and German—Harvard Graduate

Mr. Charles Louis Townsend, who will this year hold an instructorship in French and German in Trinity College, began work with classes Monday. He comes to the college, with an unusually fine record, both as an undergraduate and graduate student, and the best of testimonials as a teacher. He is a first honor graduate of McGill University, of Montreal, Canada, where he has distinguished himself for excellent work, especially in modern language. After graduating, Mr. Townsend began teaching in the Crichton School of Montreal, and later became a member of the faculty of the Nainaiue High School. In both of these schools, Mr. Townsend showed marked ability as a teacher and as a scholar. Since 1910, he has been a student in the graduate school of Harvard University. As elsewhere, Mr. Townsend there distinguished himself. The head of the Department of German there says of him: "He is one of the ablest men we have ever had in German."

He is now at work on his thesis and will next June apply for the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy from Harvard University, as he

COLUMBIAN MEETING

The Columbian Literary Society took in eleven new men last Saturday night, making a total of thirty-seven members initiated this year.

The regular literary program was carried out. D. W. Holt, and M. B. Andrews delivered orations. On the query, "Resolved that President Wilson's attribute toward the Mexican Republic should be upheld." R. M. Johnston and B. F. Few, appeared for the affirmative, while G. C. Allen and B. W. Barnard defended the negative. The decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

There will be no meeting of the society Saturday night.

has already completed his residence work for the degree.

It will be interesting to note that Mr. Townsend, with Mr. A. P. McMahon, won the Susan Anthony Potter prize in Comparative Literature. This prize consisted of $100. His essay was entitled, "The Dramatization of the Amphitryon Legend."

THE CLASS OF '17 ORGANIZES

On last Friday afternoon, the Freshman Class met in Craven Memorial Hall for the purpose of electing officers. No one in the campus can remember a Freshman election characterized by so great a degree of calmness, and so little factionalism. J. H. Ruff, the temporary chairman called the meeting to order. The result of the election was as follows: President, J. H. Ruff, of Tupelo, Mississippi; Vice-President, H. M. LeGrand, of Durham; Secretary, Miss Edna Taylor; Treas., D. D. Crawford, of Winston-Salem; Representative to the Athletic Council, J. Anderson, of Wilson; Temporary Captain of the Basketball team, H. M. Legrand; Temporary Captain of the Relay team, L. O. White, of Henderson. The matter of class colors was brought up and the President appointed a committee to look after this.

After the election was over, Dean W. I. Cranford gave the new men some wholesome advice concerning "Cuts."

TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Good weather favored Manager Anderson in running through his schedule of class tennis tournaments. The matches on Tuesday of last week resulted in Siler defeating Few, McAdams defeating North, Wallace defeating Lambeth, and Parker defeating Larkin; on Wednesday Anderson, R. B. defeated Bagley, Few defeated Morgan, and Larkin defeated Few, E.

The class teams are: Senior, Anderson, R. B. and Bagley; Junior, Siler, and Few, B. F.; Sophomore, Wallace, and Lambeth; Freshman, Parker, and Larkin.

Now that the class tournaments are out of the way the Varsity tournament will be in full swing this week. These matches started Friday with Anderson, R. B., defeating Siler, and McKinnon, H. A., defeating Parker, L. B. Four more matches will take place. Anderson R. B., will play McKinnon. The

DRESS REGULATIONS

The athletic Committee of the Faculty has passed the following regulations which students are expected to observe.

"On account of the fact that there has been some criticism of the students of the college for wearing gymnasium and track suits on the campus when not engaged in track and gymnasium work, students are urged to do everything possible to prevent such criticisms.

They are urged to comply with the following suggestions:

(1) Gymnasium and track suits should not be worn on the tennis courts.

(2) When gymnasium and track suits are worn between the dormitories and the Gymnasium, long coats should be worn over them.

(3) Gymnasium suits should not be worn off the College campus, nor track suits except during the relay race, or other actual race.

(4) Athletic suits should be worn on the campus only when students are engaged in athletic exercises, and then only in the Gymnasium, on the athletic field or on the running track.

(5) Captains, managers, and others who have the athletic work of the student in charge, are expected to help in this matter by seeing that the spirit of these suggestions is not violated by the men under their care."

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

The Historical Society held its first meeting of the year last night in the East Duke Building. The following officers were elected: Pres: Dr. W. K. Boyd, Vice-President, B. W. Ruark, Sec.-Treas. J. R. Davis, Curator of the museum, E. R. Sikes. A campaign for new members was set on foot and Messrs Sherrill, Cathay, Secrest, and Brown were appointed to solicit members from their respective classes. Seven men joined the association last evening.

Dr. Boyd spoke briefly of the relics and papers of historical importance that had been presented to the Association during the summer.

E. E. Bunday, 1912, a "T" man in base ball and captain-elect of the 1912 team when disqualified by the S. I. A. A., has entered the graduate school and is taking advanced work in Latin. During the past year he taught in the Salem Graded School.

MID-WEEK Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Hears Practical Talk by Professor Flowers

Prof. R. L. Flowers addressed the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A., last Wednesday evening. The speaker took for his subject: "A Personal Talk About the Y. M. C. A., Work for the Year." He spoke of the peculiar relations existing among college men, placing particular emphasis upon the fact that a student is always a part and parcel of his College, and that every student influences his associates either for good or for bad. He said that the purpose of Trinity College is to develop men of high ideals and ideals who will be powers towards all that makes for good in our state and country.

"Make this a community all of whose influences are for good and right," were words that Prof. Flowers would have every student remember. He appealed to the members of the Association to do everything in their power to help the men here get the most out of their college life, and to make it had for them to do wrong.

"Stay out of every organization which does not exert a good influence, elevate its members, and make them better and stronger." It should be impossible," he continued, "for the sentiment here to allow any one to utter a sentence or an oath that would shock the college community. If one goes out of college shipwrecked in faith, and with a shaky character, he will surely fail when the real test comes."

REORGANIZATION OF QUILL CLUB

At a meeting of the "Quill Club" Tuesday night, the newspaper correspondents of Trinity College re-organized for the year. New officers were elected, and a constitutional committee was appointed to draw up rules and regulations by which the organization should be governed.

The "Quill Club" is an organization of reporters and newspaper men of the college, the purpose of which is to encourage newspaper work on the part of the student body, and incidentally, to give the college a wide range of publicity. The "Quill Club" is a kind of mutual aid society for the reporters to the various papers.

The following officers were elected Tuesday night: President, F. B. Brown, of Raleigh, N. C.; Vice-President, D. W. Holt, of McLeansville, N. C.; and Secretary-Treasurer, R. A. Stamey, of Greensboro, N. C.

SENIORS AS HOUSE COMMITTEE

Elect Officers and Choose Insignia

At the Senior Bible hour last week, President Few put before the class a proposal for the seniors rooming in the various dormitories to act as a kind of house committee to look after the matters in the dormitories that need attention. This plan was first tried last year and gave promising results. All the members of the class volunteered to look after their respective sections.

In the postponed election of officers, R. B. Murray was elected Vice-President; Miss Mildred Sinclair, Secretary; J. O. Renfro, Treasurer; and T. T. Spence Athletic Representative.

A further matter that was decided was the adoption of the proposal that all seniors carry canes during the present year, and in addition grow, or attempt to grow, one mustach per senior.

HESPERIAN MEETING

An interesting program was carried out in the Hesperian Hall Saturday night. The orators for the occasion were I. T. Poole and R. W. Ruark. The former took as his subject The Monroe Doctrine as a Permanent Policy, while Ruark spoke on "The Social Evil."

The subject for debate was: "Resolved, That the United States should recognize the present Mexican government." The speakers for the affirmative were Carr, North, Brown, R. L.; negative, Bunn, Fine, Conly. Safford and Goforth appeared with voluntary debates. By a vote of the house, the affirmative won the debate decision.

Two old Hesperians, Prof. W. L. Lockhart of the Law School, and Mr. Scarlet, City Attorney, were present and gave interesting bits of humor and advice, after which 13 new members were initiated.

On account of the Y. M. C. A. meeting next Saturday night, the society will not meet again until Saturday night week.

The Ministerial Band held its regular meeting in the East Duke Building last Friday, there being in attendance the largest number of men ever at one of the meetings. Dr. F. N. Parker delivered a short address on "The Power of Prayer."

You fellows know what that means!
We've been very successful in this regard with Fatima Cigarettes. By the way, these cigarettes were first sold in the college towns—and you agreed with us that they were good.

Then we put out for the big race, to make Fatimas of nation-wide reputation, and today more are sold than any other cigarette in this country.

No purer, or more carefully chosen tobacco grows than that in Fatimas.
We purposely put them in a plain inexpensive wrapper—in this way we can afford quality tobacco, and twenty of the smokes for 15 cents.

Now your college crew is of utmost importance to you—so is a good cigarette, and it's your aim in life to keep Fatimas in the lead—right up to their good quality—right up to where you first found them, and will always find them.

Success fellows! You started this cigarette on its successful career—and you pull a strong oar all over this country.
