RELAY WILL BE RUN OVER A NEW COURSE SATURDAY

FIVE MILES ON RIGSBEE ROAD AND FIVE OVER DURHAM CITY STREETS

FINISH AT COLLEGE FLAG POLE

Leave Memorial Hall at Two O'clock with Finish at Five-Thirty—The Teams to Go Out in Machines. Judges at Each Mile's End

Next Saturday afternoon has been set as the date for the annual inter-class relay race, run each year in competition for a cup, presented to the winning class by the Snider-Wilcox-Fletcher Jewelry Company.

The cup is to become the permanent possession of the class which succeeds in carrying off the honors of the race for three successive years. It has been offered now for four years, but is still not in the permanent possession of any class. The class of 1914 has won the cup for two years, but not successively. In 1912 the class of 1915 won the cup, thus breaking the winning streak of 1914.

In the preliminary which was held last Saturday, and which figures elsewhere in the paper, runners were chosen who will represent the four classes in the coming race. The Law Class, which was granted permission by the Athletic Council to enter a team, has decided not to participate.

In order to avoid the hills and bad roads which were encountered last year and in previous years, the course of the race has been somewhat altered. As usual, however, the last lap will be run around The Circle on the campus. The course as mapped out for this year, will be as follows: starting five miles out on the Riggsbee road, the runners will come down that road to Chapel Hill street, thence down Chapel Hill to Gregson street, down Gregson to Main, up Main to Watts, thence out Watts to the Hospital, then back by Broad to Main, down to the campus, and twice around The Circle.

All four classes are represented this year by exceedingly strong teams, and the prospects point to a very close and interesting race. The seniors are after it strong; the juniors have been hard at work; the sophomores hope to win the cup for the next three years successively, and the freshmen are not figuring on being left out in the cold for a single year of their stay in the college.

It will be necessary for each class, through its treasurer, to arrange to have a machine on hand for the afternoon of the race, in which to carry its runners to their positions. These machines are to be paid for by subscription by the whole class, or in any way that the respective classes may see fit. The matter will be left in the hands of the class treasurers.

All spectators are requested to keep the roads clear for the runners, and those following the runners with machines must keep behind them, and not try to pass.

James Cannon and W. I. Wooten are in Raleigh taking the examination in competition for the Cecil Rhodes Scholarship.

COLLEGE SERMON BY DR. F. N. PARKER ON SUNDAY

SPOKE IN MEMORIAL HALL ON SIN AND ITS THREEFOLD BEARING

The first monthly sermon for the college year was preached by Dr. Franklin N. Parker in Craven Memorial Hall Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. For forty-five minutes he spoke forcefully on Sin, its repudiation of the primary conceptions of a man. His text was found in Hebrews, 3:12—"Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God."

He said that the essence of sin is departure from God. Sin is sinful, because it has some conviction of guilt in it. It is the repudiation of the primary conviction of a man's life. It is the breaking away from truth, love, and holiness.

Truth is the law of the intellect, love, the law of the heart; and holiness, the law of the conscience. The highest conceptions of these three are perfect in God alone. The mind is fundamentally turned to truth, and sin is the repudiation of truth. The progress of a race is measured by its apprehensions of truth.

The constitution of man's nature is to love. Most of the heroic deeds spring from love, love of country, or of home. Sin is cankerous to love. The law of the conscience, the law of right and wrong, is based on holiness. The touchstone of the conscience is God. The great men that have done things in this world have been touched by the great Conscience of the universe. Such a glimpse of the Infinite causes man to recognize the unholiness of himself.

The summing up of all the perfect things are set forth in Jesus Christ. God's last statement to the world was in the sending of Christ. It was the perfect statement, having absolutely no fault in it.

ATHENA SOCIETY WILL GIVE PRIZE FOR BEST SHORT STORY

CO-ED ORGANIZATION TOOK IN FIFTEEN NEW MEMBERS FRIDAY

The Athena Literary Society held its second meeting of the year in the Hesperian Hall Friday afternoon. The interest which the girls are manifesting in society work is very gratifying. Fifteen new members were initiated.

An original program was carried out as follows:

A poem by Florence Holton, An Incident of the Summer Vacation by Fannie Vann, Reminiscences—by Mary Wescott.

Instead of having miscellaneous programs as has been the custom heretofore, more attention will be paid to debating this year.

In order to stimulate greater interest in original work a prize will be offered this year for the best short story submitted to the society. The story selected by the judges will be printed in the last issue of the Archive and the prize will be presented at commencement.

Osborne G. Foard, ex-'06, finished his work in the School of Architecture, Columbia University, and has recently been associated with the Architectural firm of Walker & Gillette, New York City.

Captains of Teams and Officials of College Ask for the Support and Participation of Many Men in Athletic Work of College

Last Thursday night the quiet stillness of the college community was suddenly broken by a tremendous burst of pent-up zeal emanating from the vicinity of Craven Memorial Hall. The occasion was the annual mass meeting for the purpose of advancing the interests of athletics; and a majority of the students were in attendance.

The meeting was called to order by Professor R. N. Wilson, Chairman of the Faculty Committee on Athletics, who stated briefly the purpose of the meeting, and called on B. H. Siler, Captain of the basketball team, as the first speaker. Captain Siler told of the good work of the basketball teams of the past, and emphasized the fact that by hard, persistent work on the part of players and supporters, the former records could be upheld and even eclipsed.

F. B. Brown, next spoke on track athletics. As Captain of this year's team, he urged all the men in college to come out, try for the team, and thus take advantage of the opportunities offered them to help Trinity put out a winning team this year.

R. L. Brown, a long-winded runner of last year's team, followed and then came W. G. Sheppard, a former baseball manager and enthusiast. Both Sheppard and Brown urged hearty co-operation and support on the part of all the students towards making Trinity successful in all forms of athletics. Sheppard stressing especially the financial backing of the different teams.

Dr. W. I. Cranford, Dean of the College, was introduced, and urged the men to get in with the different teams and help them fight. He did not like the idea, he said, of getting behind a team, for sometimes we are likely to get too far behind, also that there are enough men here physically able to make the very best athletic teams in the country; the will is the only thing lacking.

Captain T. S. Spence, of the baseball team, next gave a short talk about the prospects for the year in his line, urging hard work on the part of the contestants, and co-operation and support on the part of the supporters of the team.

President Few was then called upon. He emphasized clearly clean athletics, and declared that Trinity wants men who stand for the right things, and who are willing to work for what they know is right. He urged every man in College to work for every form of athletics both for the good of the College and for his own good. "Throw your whole heart and soul into the life here," he said, "and make it a success in every way." He announced that

BISHOP KILGO SPOKE ON VALUE OF BIBLE STUDY

MADE STRONG PRESENTATION OF SUBJECT—BIBLE STUDY CLASSES START

Bishop John C. Kilgo addressed the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A., last Wednesday evening on the subject: "The Value of Bible Study." After the regular meeting the dormitories were canvassed by the committees appointed to secure members for the Bible Study groups and more men were enrolled than ever before in the history of the Association. The first classes are to be held this evening at 6:45 o'clock. Bishop Kilgo spoke in part: When you left home your mother sent the Word of God with you; continue to read it. Search out the life of the World, and you will find this fact—it has been moulded by the Holy Scriptures. Whenever the Bible has controlled the minds of men, and has been held in reverence by them, then that has been a time of progress.

A lost Bible is the worst calamity that can befall a man, a Nation, an age, or a race. It may be hid in the Temple, kept in the library; it matters not how it is lost, if it is, then everything else is lost with it.

If one is to study the Bible he should approach it seriously and reverently. It is not a word, as some teachers of to-day would have us believe; it is The Word. The Bible is not to be studied as a volume of literature. Any man who approaches it from this standpoint will never understand its teachings. It is not to be studied by the Scientific method, the book is Divine; it is final, and will stand no criticism.

You must recognize in the Word of God one great fact,—it is an unbroken, simple, and logical deliverance of God's mind. The purpose of the Scriptures is to redeem and save lost souls. Any man not interested in his own redemption can not be interested in the Scriptures, and no man who is not converted can understand them.

TEN FRESHMEN WERE OUT FOR GLEE CLUB POSITIONS FRIDAY

ENCOURAGING PROSPECTS FOR MEN TO TAKE VACANT PLACES

The Trinity College Glee Club met last Friday night to try out some of the new material. Owing to the scarcity of old men, Manager Patton has had grave fears as to the success of the club, but this practice showed that there was plenty of harmony about the campus yearning for expression and there seems to be an abundance of material for a good club. The greatest hindrance now is the lack of a director. Several attempts to get one have ended in failure, but it is hoped that a competent leader will soon be obtained.

Among those who seemed to be most promising were: 1st tenors—Woodward, Sledge, Baugh, Ruff, and Kearns; 2nd tenors—Gill, Johnson, Holloway, and Richardson; Baritone—Spencer, Cunningham Lovrance, Silke, Kirkman, and Patton; Basses—Hall, Larkin, Bond, Bender, Woosley, and Sheppard.

PRELIMINARY TO RELAY WAS RUN OFF SATURDAY

THERE WAS A STRIKING LACK OF CONTESTANTS AMONG UPPER CLASSES

BEST TIME BY SENIOR RUNNERS

Thompson Completed Mile in 5:7. 1-5. More Freshmen Than Other Three Classes Combined. R. L. Brown Osborne, Bunn, Other Firsts

The three-postponed preliminary for the relay race was held Saturday afternoon on the track around The Circle, and drew a good number of onlookers. The preliminary was in charge of Dr. F. C. Brown, Prof. R. N. Wilson, and Manager R. T. Lucas. Thompson, for the seniors, made the mile in the best time; 5:7 1-5, which was even better than the best time made in the preliminary last year.

Except that the track was a little slow in places, due to the past rains, the weather conditions were almost ideal, yet the seniors, juniors, and sophomores barely had a full team out.

The seniors were the first to run. True to precedent there were just about enough men out to make the required ten, and of course each made a place. In spite of the few participants they put up a good race for places, made the best time, and will doubtless make things interesting in the final. They finish in the following order: Thompson, Cordle, Garrett, Love, Pleasants, Stanback, Spence, Brooks, McMahan, and Paris.

The juniors ran next. The class showed a lack of interest in the event and had only eleven men out. Their running was rather tame for the first half mile, the runners lining up across the track and keeping step. They found their places on the last lap, and on a sprint R. G. Brown finished first with a substantial lead. His time was 5:22. The first ten finished as follows: Brown, Goforth, Barnard, Downey, Farrar, Hawfield, Bennett, Morgan, Ivey, and Kanipe.

Only twelve men appeared for the sophomores, although it is the usual thing in athletics for the two lower classes to make up for any possible lack of interest on the part of the upper classes. The runners may have been affected by the failure of their classmates to show up; and so their best time was 5:34 4-5. The team finished: Osborne, Tilley, Grigg, Gardner, McKay, Matton, Hawfield, Brown, and Austin.

The freshmen had plenty of candidates, and pep to spare. Their thirty-five men started together; at the end of the first lap about a hundred yards separated the leader and the trailer, while at the finish they dropped in at various intervals. The best time was 5:15. They finished: Bunn, Farmer, Durham, McKinnon, Smith, Price, Stanley, Cunningham, Phillips, and Few.

On June the twenty-fifth Rev. R. C. Craven, pastor of Trinity Church, officiated at the wedding of Miss Annie Mann, alumna of the college, whose home is in Durham; Miss Mann became the bride of Mr. C. N. Herndon, a successful druggist of Greensboro, N. C.

STAFF NOTICE

With this issue the contest for places on the staff of THE CHRONICLE for the present year is brought to a close, but the announcement of the winners will not be made until next week, as all the stories submitted by the contestants have not been fully graded yet.

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT

The business manager requests all those who subscribe for THE CHRONICLE, but who have been having trouble of any kind in getting the paper, to notify him of the difficulty and he will remove it at once.

The preliminary has been held. What does that mean to you winners? It means that the responsibility is on you. Get busy; do yourself and your class justice by training—make yourself fit. You substitute man, what are you going to do? Get out and run with the others. If you can consistently show your heels to any man on the team, he ought to give way to you in the final.

Let everybody boost to make the relay race again the classic in the yearly course of athletics. It is a representative event, and thus should be considered of first importance. To do good is the program now; to do better is the program now.

Miss Lucile Dixon is the guest of Miss Irma Tapp.

We gather from the Greenville Reflector that Rev. Daniel Lane, a capable young man who graduated at Trinity College last June, has been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Rev. E. M. Hoyle, who has been released from that charge and transferred to Haywood Street Church, Asheville, on account of his wife's health. We are not informed as to the fact, but if he is the son of the Daniel Lane of that section (New Bern) whom we know, he comes of good stock. We wish for him great usefulness in his work.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

Mr. Lane is a graduate of Trinity College of the class of 1913. Rev. E. M. Hoyle, who was pastor of the church at Greenville is also a graduate of Trinity College. Mrs. Hoyle was also a student at Trinity and THE CHRONICLE regrets to know that her health has not been good.

COMMENTS

THE TRINITY CHRONICLE

The Trinity Chronicle, the weekly newspaper of Trinity College, volume 9, number 1, lies on our desk. It is a six-page paper brimful of items of interest to the students and friends of the college, and (this is especially pleasing to the heart of an editor) it carries a generous amount of advertising. The mechanical work and makeup of the paper is excellent and the editorial work shows care and skill.

THE TRINITY CHRONICLE

The Trinity Chronicle, a weekly paper published by students of Trinity College, Durham, N. C., has recently made announcement that it will hereafter follow the competitive method of choosing its staff. The plan which has been adopted resembles that pursued by Topics, the staff being chosen from competitors after one month's try-out.

But in at least one particular The Chronicle, aided by the authorities of the college, has taken a step ahead of Topics. Arrangements have been made with the School of English whereby certain credits will be given for Chronicle work provided certain specifications are complied with. This, it would seem, is a distinct movement forward.

—College Topics.

THE TRINITY CHRONICLE

The Trinity Chronicle has started a new plan for selecting associate editors each year, which is a very good one. Instead of appointing the editors at the beginning of the year, the appointment is left to be worked out on a competitive basis, and the selection of a staff is made from those students who manifest the most interest in this kind of work. The articles appearing in the issues of the Chronicle are selected from those turned in by the students, and those doing the best work are awarded a place on the editorial staff. The appointment of a man as an editor of a newspaper is considered an honor at most colleges and the students generally take a pride in writing articles for their weekly paper.

Last Friday evening at the regular meeting of the Ministerial Band Dr. Peppier spoke of his trip abroad. He told of the different places of religious interest and significance, and especially of Wesley's Chapel.

PARK SCHOOL ITEMS

The Grady and the Calhoun Literary societies have entered upon their work after taking in quite a number of new members. Much interest is now manifested in this phase of the school work since the opening of school and the subsequent rivalry is securing new members.

Professor I. B. McKay spent the recent holiday and week end visiting friends and relatives in Orange County. His family had preceded him. He was unable to meet his classes Monday on account of illness.

The Y. M. C. A. is this year under the management of Mr. E. M. Spivey, and each meeting is well attended and good work is being done. Quite a delegation represented the Y. M. C. A. at the recent state convention held at Trinity College.

N. C. English, '03, has recently been on the campus. He came to attend his brother, a Trinity student, who is ill at the hospital. Mr. English is in business in Monroe.

Mr. J. F. McGhee, class 1907, has been spending some time on the campus. In the fall of 1907 he began teaching biology in the Camden High School, Camden, N. J. He taught there for two years, at the same time doing work in chemistry at Medicho-Chi, Philadelphia. In the fall of 1909, he entered the Cornell University Medical College, Ithica, N. Y., and was there until the spring of 1911, when he left because of the illness of his father. He then became sales-manager of the Kasson Mica Co., Camden, N. J. Soon afterwards he became General Manager of the National Feldspar Company, Philadelphia, Pa. After his father's death in December, 1911, he came South. In January, 1912, he became Assistant Superintendent of the Southern Electro-Chemical Co., 200 Fifth Avenue, New York, and Charlotte, N. C. In July, 1913, he left this company to become a sales-manager of the Cole Razor and Stroppler Co., Charlotte, N. C.

One of the most loyal alumni the college has is Mr. C. R. Warren of Chatham, Virginia. There are several students at Trinity who came through his influence. For a number of years after his graduation in 1906, Mr. Warren was in charge of the Chatham Training School. He gave up his school work to go into journalism, and is now editor of the Chatham Enterprise. Mr. Warren is a forceful speaker who has always taken an active interest in politics, and his services have been in demand in the political campaigns in Virginia.

L. J. Carter, 1908, is on the staff of the Virginia-Pilot, Norfolk, Va.

STANDING COMMITTEES

At the recent meeting of the faculty of the college, the principal business enacted was the appointment of the various standing committees for the coming year. The following are the standing committees as appointed:

In looking over some papers sometime ago he found the list given him by Dr. Craven, then president of Trinity. This list also gives an insight into the system of grading. There are many students now in Trinity who would be glad to have an average as high as the members of the class of '79:

A BRILLIANT CHURCH WEDDING

MISS BLANCHE PATTON AND
MR. HORACE FLOWERS MAR-RIED IN DANVILLE

At the First Presbyterian Church in Danville on last Wednesday evening Miss Blanche Lacy Patton, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Patton, was married to Mr. George Horace Flowers, son of Colonel and Mrs. G. W. Flowers of Durham, N. C.

The church, which was lavishly decorated with palms, white chrysanthemums and candelabra, presented a beautiful sight. The bride, gowned in embroidered chamoise entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Henry Patton.

Mrs. J. A. Irvin, sister of the bride, acted as dame of honor, and Miss Katherine Rison as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Patton, of Richmond; Irma Joyner, of Baltimore; Theodosia Gray, of Winston-Salem; Iram Allen, of Danville; and Estelle Flowers, of Durham.

Mr. W. W. Flowers, brother of the groom, acted as best man and the groomsmen were Messrs. W. F. Patton, Jr., Pittsburg; Dr. S. B. Pierce, Durham; J. S. Ingram, of Richmond; Albert Patton and Hannon Schoolfield of Danville. The ushers were Messrs. Peter Arrington of New York City; E. G. Currin, of Richmond; Robert L. Flowers and R. P. Reade of Durham; J. S. Irvin, and J. E. Hughes of Danville.

HEARD KEY-NOTE TALKS

the new athletic field would soon be completed and ready for use.

Professor Wilson, in conclusion, stated that every man in college regardless of who or what he is, will be given a chance to buy a blanket ticket immediately.

Tickets were distributed among the men present, and many of them signed up for one or more. These tickets entitle the holder to all athletic contests of the year, and the price is only five dollars.

The meeting closed with the best of harmony and good spirit, and every man left determined to do all in his power to advance the interest of athletics throughout the year. It is to be hoped that good results will follow.

Mr. Stewart is a graduate of Trinity College and has been in the East for several years. After graduation he taught for sometime at Trinity Park School and afterwards attended Yale University.
