DOUBLE HEADER WON BY SOPHOMORES & JUNIORS

STILL TIED FOR LEAD BY TAKING GOOD GAMES FROM FRESH-SENIORS

FERRELL AND PLEASANTS CHIEF

Each Scored a Majority of His Team's Points. Carver Also Fast. Good Team Work by Freshmen and Juniors. Scores: 27-16, 18-14

	WON	LOST	P. C.
Juniors	4	1	.800
Sophomores	4	1	.800
Seniors	2	3	.400
Freshmen	0	5	.000

The interclass series has developed a propensity for double headers, another bargain night having been offered Tuesday, and two good games played between Freshmen-Sophomores and Juniors-Seniors.

FIRST GAME

Promptly at 7:15 referee Cherry blew his whistle and the game was on between freshmen and sophomores. Each side seemed determined to win, and from the start the contest was hard fought. Although the final score was twenty-seven to sixteen in favor of the sophs, the exhibition was interesting and at times highly exciting.

The freshmen took the lead in the first half, and owing to the good work of Legrand and Martin, scored four points in the first few minutes of play. The second year men then braced up and scored six points in quick succession. From then on first one team was ahead and then the other. The half ended, however, with the sophomores leading by a margin of eleven to eight.

In the second half the first year men again took the initiative and by hard, consistent playing managed to tie the score. This seemed to frighten the sophomores, for they suddenly got all kinds of pep and rapidly froged ahead.

"Midget" Ferrell was easily the star of the game, the tiny forward scoring fifteen points for his team. Rone and Matton also played well for the sophomores. For the freshmen, Legrand and Martin showed exceptional form and their fine work deserves much praise. Smith also was in rare form, shooting two field goals and holding Matton to the same number.

SUMMARY

Sophomores—Ferrell, l. f., (15) Rone r. f., (4), Matton, c., (4), Mills, r. g., (2), Patton, l. g., (2). Freshmen—Lindsay, l. f., (2), Legrand, r. f., (2), Smith, c., (4), Martin, l. g., (6), Weatherly, r. g.

JUNIORS-SENIORS

By the close score of 18-14 the juniors won the second game from the seniors. The juniors clearly outlasted their opponents in every phase of the game during the first half, gaining this lead chiefly by a class of team work such as is seldom seen in the inter-class games. Carver managed to stay clear of his guard during a great part of this half and scored three field goals and two fouls. The half ended 12 to 3 in favor of the juniors.

In the second half there was a shift in the seniors' line-up; Pleasants took Hyland's place at guard and Gaston played forward. The

PRELIMINARIES, FINAL, AND BANQUET OF THE THIRD 9019 DECLAMATION CONTEST WERE QUITE NOTABLY SUCCESSFUL

MEETINGS HELD ON THURSDAY NIGHT AND THE NEXT MORNING

THIRTY-NINE BOYS CONTESTED

Two Preliminaries with Ten Speakers Chosen for Final Contest. Good Variety in Subjects. Trip Taken to Two Tobacco Factories

The contestants in the 1919 contest began to arrive on Thursday morning; committees of the 9019 met all trains, and after the arrival of the largest group at six-twenty, a preliminary meeting was held in the hall of the Hesperian Literary Society. Thirty of those who had registered were present, and after a word of welcome from the representatives of the 9019 and the college, the plan of the contest was outlined and the men drew by lot for their places in the preliminary contests of the following day.

On Friday morning at nine o'clock the speakers, whose number had been increased to thirty-nine by arrivals on the night trains, were divided into two sections, from each of which five speakers were selected to appear in the final contest. Each man, in drawing his position, drew both the section in which he was to contest and the order in which he should

FRESH. WON BOTH GAMES ON THEIR THANKSGIVING TRAVELS

DEFEATED ATLANTIC C. C. 24-17 AND WILSON HIGHS 25-15

Notwithstanding numerous reports that the varsity basketball team played its first game in Wilson during Thanksgiving and suffered inglorious defeat at the hands of Atlantic Christian College, such was not the case. The freshman class team took this trip and succeeded in winning both of the games it played. The first was with the Atlantic Christian College and resulted in a score of 24 to 17 in favor of the freshmen. The second was with the Wilson High School quintette which was defeated 25 to 15.

The freshmen played under great disadvantages in both of these games. Any semblance of what might have been an advantage was refused them, and they were forced to play straight Y. M. C. A. rules, which differ very decidedly from the customary inter-collegiate rules. Furthermore, the High School game was played on an out-door dirt court; and the good showing made in the face of these difficulties is indeed a credit to the team.

The freshmen soon accustomed themselves to the new conditions and got in some very good team work. Their star guard, Martin, was knocked out from a blow on the throat, but even this did not phase them, and they overcame a lead gained in the second half by the college and gained the victory with a margin of seven points. Fast open passing won from the High School. It would be hard to pick out any individual stars as all played unusually fast ball.

TEN GOOD DECLAMATIONS IN THE FINAL CONTEST FRIDAY

MEDAL WON BY ALLEN H. GWYN

Subject was Christian Young Men of America. Chas. H. Oliver Second. Men from Park School and Oak Ridge. Good Crowd Interested

The Third Annual Interscholastic Declamation Contest under the auspices of the 9019 came to a close Friday night in Craven Memorial Hall when an unexpectedly large audience heard the ten speakers chosen in the preliminaries of the morning deliver what were pronounced the ten best declamations delivered on any of the three occasions, and saw the beautiful gold medal awarded to Allen H. Gwyn of the Trinity Park School for his work in delivering the declamation, "Christian Young Men of America." In announcing the decision of the judges, Mr. S. B. Shepherd, of Raleigh, paid a fitting tribute to the work of the 9019 and of the College in providing an opportunity such as that of the contest for training students in public speaking. The other judges were Dr. T. C. Amick, of Elon College, and Mr. Marshall Delancy Haywood, of Raleigh.

Dean W. J. Gamford presided. Second place was given by the judges to Chas. H. Oliver, of Oak Ridge Institute, who delivered the declamation, "Wireless, Painless, Moneyless." Other speakers and their subjects were: Joe H. Snyder, of Winston-Salem High School, "Representative Government Versus Direct Legislation;" Clyde O. Ritchie, of Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute, "Men and Memories of the Southland;" Bynum E. Weathers, of Piedmont High School, "Sergeant Prentiss First Plea;" John B. Mallard, of Lincoln High School, "America's Duty to Resist;" Ira S. Harper, of Cary High School, "The Duty of the South to the Country Boy;" John V. Brookshire, of Asheville High School, "The Charm of the Impossible;" and Walter E. Furr, of Concord High School, "North Carolina in History and Song."

In order to avoid any appearance of partiality in decisions, the schools represented by the speakers were unknown to judges and audience, and few save the men from the Trinity Park School, knew the school represented by Gwyn until the prep arose en masse and made the fact unquestionably known. There was only one hitch in proceedings, which occurred when a number of students withdrew to the vestibule during a short intermission and occasioned some confusion in returning to their places. The interest in the speeches was very good and all were applauded impartially. So close was the contest that no man could say with assurance to whom the award would be made, and for the first time in the history of the contest, although the school has been represented every time, a Trinity Park man won the medal.

FINE SPIRIT MANIFESTED AT BANQUET FOLLOWING THE FINAL

OYSTER STEW: MANY SPEECHES

Contestants and Many Others Met at Table and Spoke of Sentiments. Over 100 Held Over until Late Hour by the Speeches

In accordance with the custom of preceding years, a very enjoyable banquet was given in honor of the high school representatives immediately following the final contest of Friday night. The banquet was held in the large room on the ground floor of the West Duke Building, and all the high school representatives, the judges of all contests, those entertaining contestants, the College and Park School faculty, 9019 men, and especially invited guests were present.

This banquet was in the nature of an oyster stew, and was in charge of the faculty committee working in connection with the 9019. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all. A delightfully congenial spirit was manifested, all the visiting representatives expressing themselves as feeling perfectly at home at Trinity. The presence of several 9019 alumni made the banquet take on the ap-

HESPERIA AND COLUMBIA IN REGULAR WEEK-END MEETINGS

DEBATED SHIP SUBSIDY AND WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE QUESTIONS

In the Columbian Society Hall last Saturday night M. B. Andrews delivered an oration on "Education for Prisoners;" Subject for debate was: Resolved, that North Carolina should adopt Woman's Suffrage. Appeared on the affirmative, J. W. Bennett, H. B. Templeton, R. N. Beckwith, and J. W. Hoyle. On the Negative were L. L. Ivey, J. H. Stroud, S. B. Farmer, and P. L. Groomer. The decision was in favor of the negative.

In Hesperian Hall, orators were P. H. North, on "Donbt;" R. C. Goforth on "Energy;" Guy Hamilton on "The Dignity of Toil," and Byron Conly on "The Combustion of Man." Question for debate was Resolved that the American Merchant Marine should be subsidized. On the affirmative appeared Larkin and A. E. Brown on the Negative, H. Thompson and D. D. Saunders. Decision in favor of the affirmative. Quarterly election of officers will be held next Saturday night.

The Athena Society will have its regular meeting Friday of this week. Program of Christmas selections.

President W. P. Few and Professor R. L. Flowers left yesterday to attend the session of the North Carolina Conference.

Rev. S. T. Moyle spent some time on the campus on a visit to his son who is a member of the sophomore class.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR CHAMPIONSHIP VARSITY

MANY POSSIBILITIES AMONG THOSE OUT FOR THE TEAM

GOOD NUCLEUS FROM LAST YEAR

Siler, McKinnon, Neal, Cherry, Thorne Will Probably Start in the First Game Next Week. Other Good Material. Fights for Places

Before the smoke of the class basketball series has well cleared away, the varsity season comes on apace, and the men who are left from last year's team, both old Varsity men, and subs, have shown such class that the state championship seems more than a possibility.

In an interview last night, Captain Siler waxed quite eloquent over the work of his men. He himself has his old form, the pass, the eye, the wind, and nerve that go to make a finished player, and at forward is again expected to astonish the natives with his ease and grace. His foul shooting is good enough to make sure that he will again toss the one-point counters for Trinity. The other forward's position is open to sharp competition, although McKinnon, substitute forward of last year, seems to have the call here, having improved greatly in speed, in addition he is a sure shot, and handles his guard well. However, there are other good men out for the place who are working hard. Ferrell is a young wonder for his size, but this handicap is probably too great when the Varsity comes into consideration. Matton, who has done such good work in the class series, is also working well, but his height is not quite sufficient for a Varsity centre his natural position being at forward. And then there are Pleasants, who is an equal possibility for either forward or guard, and who, after his unequalled work last night, cannot be left out in any tentative line-up.

At centre, Cherry, who played the position all last season, is there with the goods, but the same is equally true of Neal, one of the best men on the squad. For these reasons it will be no great surprise to see Neal as the regular centre with Cherry playing regular guard where he has been working in practice of late, and has shown great stuff. The other guard's position will probably go again to Thorne, a man who developed into class and then into Varsity material in the single season last year. He is faster than ever and as hard as nails.

While these men, Siler, McKinnon, Neal, Cherry, and Thorne, will doubtless start the first game against Elon Friday week, the team, and even the squad, has been by no means picked yet. Brown and Wooten are both putting stiff fights for positions at guard, and with the experience they have had, it may be that one of them will land a guard's berth as a regular and that there will be two centres.

Others who have been working hard and showing up well are Anderson and Carver at forward and Martin and Legrand at guard. In all, some fifteen men are reporting regularly for practice with

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

The declaimers have come, declined, and gone. Probably few will remember their speech; many will remember the event. It is for its possibilities, its opportunities, that the contest is significant and important, rather than for its intrinsic interest. Because of its possibilities THE CHRONICLE feels that all the time and work put forth that the contest might be successful were, and are, fully worth while.

As in any work that is real, that is lasting, the Declaration Contest requires work, and hard work, from those who undertake it. The fact that the organization behind the contest is willing to spend itself in such efforts is its fullest justification, and one more chapter has been added to its book of good endeavor.

WHY?

THE CHRONICLE is somewhat at a loss to understand why there should have been sent out so many reports from Wilson regarding the Thanksgiving trip of the freshman basketball team that were absolutely contrary to the facts in the case. The following from the Greensboro Daily News, in a news letter from Wilson, is merely a sample:

"In the first college basketball game of the season played here Thursday night the Atlantic Christian College team defeated the Trinity College team by a score of 24 to 17. The Trinity team made a splendid showing, captained by 'Kid' Anderson, a Wilson boy, and one of the best athletes ever sent out from this town, but the local college team was too strong, both offensively and defensively."

Others papers of the state carried practically the same account, and the paper at Wilson in the morning after the game also gave a quite incorrect statement of the game. Minor errors are often made and the wrong team accidentally given credit for the big end of a score, but seldom if ever in instances where so much detail is supplied.

RETRIBUTION

Seest thou yon fleeting thing of arabesque arms and shining shanks wending its furtive way to shiver and shrink 'gainst the pulleys and mats of the White House? (rechristened form for Cap's gym). Go thou and do not likewise, for such is the penance of three years' dereliction to duty,—the summary catastrophe that snatched from his warm library chair, his cozy afternoon nap or contemplated Arcade trip—perchance even the cultivation and embellishment of a beloved hirsute ornament—some grave senior of dignity hitherto untarnished and mien unbending before sundry admiring followers. Heed not in his present fallen state that lofty air of non-chalance, those vague hints at overwork, recent realization of value of exercise, good example to freshmen, y' know,—etc. Nay, nay, Pauline—heath that outward bearing of gracious dignity lies a veritable raging sea of fierce rebellion and supreme disgust—and at what? Why naught, forsooth, save that that cherished seniorial dignity, that age-long privilege, has been rudely snatched away by unfeeling and summary word from the realms above announcing:

"Mr. _____, you are charged with 39 cuts in the required work of the gymnasium, tabulated by the instructor as follows: 1910-11, (Ah, yes, that freshman year), 1911-12, 12 (Soph.—bolder now); 1912-13, 22 (Junior.—Where!—Oh, I've got a pull; they won't make me work 'em off in this manner)—Kindly see that my senior year is straightened out at once."

Sincerely yours,

Alas, poor Yorrick!
Wherefore, O thou who lovest thine ease, arise, get thee hence to Cap's gym. Say not within thyself: "Yon vaunting senior cut unharmed."
"If such there be, go mark him well,
To him Jim Cutter's story tell!
Haste thee, away!"

COMING

Do you hear that band of ours these nights making the rafters of Craven Hall wince they could jump down and follow its lead in a circus parade or on to a baseball victory? Well just keep on listening and then remember that it is the offspring of your support and that it is going ahead on the strength of that subscription you made one night, and then remember to add just that much to your next month's account. The Band is what it is because it was originated by and has been entrusted to the care of men who work—perhaps quietly (although it seems somewhat contradictory for anything connected with a band to be quiet) but nevertheless constructively, and if their handiwork is good they may justly rejoice.

In this connection THE CHRONICLE takes it upon itself to state that the real credit for originating the idea of the band should go to the Tombs, an organization that for reasons of its own has not put itself in the foreground in the matter, but whose members have been working as individuals for the success of the organization they fostered. While modesty might prevent the claiming of undue credit by the organization as such, still honor should be given to whom honor is due.

TIMES CHANGE

Yea, verily things are looking up in the debating line. With more men out for an intersociety preliminary than were usually out for all the intercollegiate of any entire year not many moons gone, there seems every prospect that Trinity will be able to keep up her record of straight wins as long as was once the case of straight losses. The Swarthmore preliminary in the first year of the present senior class brought out exactly eight men, four of whom were freshmen. Yet this very fact in itself is significant in that those freshmen are now the men who are on the teams—although needless to say there was not one of the bunch who made the Swarthmore contest. In debating more than in any other line, perhaps, it is true that practice and experience tell the tale of those who make the places.

THE CHRONICLE would call the attention of those of the community who are interested in original writing to the fact that the Fort-nightly Club has offered fifteen dollars in gold for the best work in short story writing done by an undergraduate during the present year. While the prize will probably serve at first more as a reward for good work than as a stimulant for work by those not previously interested, yet on either basis it will fulfill a purpose that is most commendable. No man has a right to criticize his college magazine until he has himself done all that he can to make it as good as it is possible to make it in view of the talent that exists in the College.

The indications are that a goodly number of Trinity students will participate in the Carnival which is to be held in Durham, December 15th. If the fellows can get a little thanksgiving "Pep" no doubt they will take off some of the prizes offered.

VISITING ALUMNI

A number of alumni spent part of Thanksgiving week on the campus. Most of them had been in attendance on the Teacher's Assembly in Raleigh. The following, with their present locations given, were here: W. G. Gaston, '11, Dover; W. M. Marr, '10, Elizabeth City; Dennis Simmons, '10, Elizabeth City; R. L. Towe, '13, Cary; T. W. Lee, '13, Kenansville; A. M. Bonner, law, '12, Winston-Salem; A. R. Reep, ex-'15; J. W. Harbison, '12, Atlantic; W. E. Eller, '12; A. W. Byrd, '13, Bailey; S. B. Underwood, '06, Kinston; R. L. Phillips, '10, Hert-ford.

On Wednesday before Thanksgiving the Y. M. C. A. meeting heard a short, but clear and forceful talk by Headmaster W. W. Peele, of the Park School, on the Thanksgiving Spirit.

Dr. W. T. Laprade will speak tonight.

The condition of Miss Iris Chappelle, who is now at Watt's Hospital, is very favorable. The burns which she received as the result of an accident which occurred on Sunday morning are painful, but not serious.

Mrs. Samuel Bullard, of Creed-moor, is visiting at the Woman's Building, having been called to Durham on account of the accident to her daughter, Miss Chappelle.

speak within that section, and after a short delay the speaking began. Both preliminaries lasted until twelve-thirty and all the declamations in both sections were of an unusually high order, being noticeable largely for the fact that fewer of the old favorites were used than in either of the previous contests.

Section A, in charge of James Cannon and S. L. Gullledge, met in the Columbian Society Hall. The judges in this section were Rev. R. C. Craven, Mr. C. B. Green, and Dr. C. A. Moore.

The men appeared in the following order, being called by number and the judges not knowing either the name or school of the man as he spoke.

W. R. Jenkins, of Southern Industrial Institute, on "Kossuth on His Welcome to New York." Hubert Ellis, of Washington High School, on "Sergeant Prentiss' First Plea." Norman O'Brian, of East Durham, on "The March of Mind." Roy Keller, of King's Mountain, on "The Teacher the Hope of America." Lafayette Isley, of Friendship, on "Centralization in the United States." C. O. Ritchie, of Mount Pleasant Col- legiate Institute, on "Men and Memories of the Southland." Sidney High, of Franklinton, on "The Old North State." John B. Mallard, of Lincolnton, on "America's Duty to Resist." Nathan Gooding, of Newbern, on "Ay- cock on Robert E. Lee." James Groome, of Jamestown, on "The March of the Flag." Durham Moore, of Shelby, on "America's Mission." Sam Bason, of Burling- ton, on "The People in Art, Govern- ment and Religion." Bacon Hardee, of Stem, on "The Blue and the Gray." Walter Furr, of Concord, on "North Carolina in History and Song." John Brook- shire, of Asheville, on "The Charm of the Impossible." Manly Mason, of Atlantic, on "Robert Edward Lee." William T. Crane, of Hen- dersonville, on "The New South." I. L. Shaver, of Rutherford Col- lege, on "The Doom of Claudius and Cynthia."

The judges in Section B, were Rev. Mr. Yandell, Dr. W. H. Glasson, and City Attorney Chas. Scarlett. Mr. Holland Holton and N. I. White had this section in charge, and the speakers were: A. H. Gwyn, of Trinity Park School, on "Christian Young Men of America." Stover Bogle, of Hixdenite, on "Popular Education." G. C. Hunter, of Greens- boro, on "I still Live." C. H. Oliver, of Oak Ridge Institute, on "Wireless, Painless, Moneyless." Manly Peele, of Burgaw, on "The New South." B. O. Stephenson, of Clayton, on "The New South." Leonard Epstein of Goldsboro, on "Spartacus to the Gladiators." Milton Stephens of Merry Oaks, on "The Stars and Stripes." Thomas Pace, of Oxford, on "The Face n the Floor." At the close of the preliminaries the judges made their decisions, which were announced at two o'clock in the Columbian Hall, following which the lucky ten who were selected drew lot for their positions in the final contest.

At three o'clock the speakers were taken on a tour of the Duke's Mixture and Bull Durham tobacco factories, trips arranged by the courtesy of the officials of the factories and thoroughly enjoyed by all the contestants and others who were along.

pearance of a reunion.

Mr. Holland Holton was the toast-master of the evening, and in introducing the speakers, said that he was glad to welcome all the visiting representatives, and was especially glad that this contest had taken on new life. Dr. T. C. Amick, of Elon College, one of the final judges, was the first speaker. He told of his great pleasure in being present, and then urged the losers in the contest not to lose heart, but to gain new courage to win next time. Messrs Shepherd and Haywood, the other judges, told how glad they were to be present, although the job of picking the winner had been a hard one. They were followed by Lester Seligson, the Raleigh representative, and by Charles H. Oliver, the unanimous second choice in the contest. Oliver said this was the first time he had been on a college campus, but that the college spirit was fine. He ad- vised the losers not to be discourag- ed by the present failure. W. G. Gaston, '11, spoke on the first declamation contest, and the work in connection with it, and W. M. Marr, '10, spoke in a similar way of the second contest. H. L. Dal- ton, '16, related his experiences in participating in both of the former contests. John V. Brookshire, of the Asheville High School, spoke for the contestants in section A of the preliminary contest, telling of their appreciation of the invita- tion to participate, and Leonard Epstein, of Goldsboro, spoke for section B. J. H. Sydnor of Clus- ter Springs Academy, Va., was then called on as being the only representative from a school out- side of North Carolina. J. W. Carr gave an idea of the hard work of the general runabout committee, while Professor Wannamaker told of the work of the faculty com- mittee, which although it had been hard, was pleasant. Dean W. I. Cranford spoke in behalf of the college, and gave the assurance that the contest would be a perma- nent institution. A. H. Gwyn, the successful contestant of Trini- ty Park School, spoke on winning,

TOBACCO

A CHECKMATE to your smoke that bites and burns! Velvet—the selected tender middle leaf—aged in the leaf over two years—producing a mellowness that only the measured pace of time can encompass. A flavor and smoothness tremendously good!

Pipe smoking with Velvet is a revelation—proving that time only can make tobacco what we would all have it—smooth.

and said all who had spoken in the contest had won something, even though there was but one medal.

James Cannon III ended the speech making, speaking for the 1919. He said this organization would stand or fall on its work, the best thing that had been said of it being that it had instituted good movements for helping the Col- lege and the State.

The guests, having been abun- dantly served with splendid Nor- folk oysters, departed about 12:30, thus ending the third 1919 De- claration Contest.

FRASHACK ITEMS
Dinner to Kappa Delta

On Thanksgiving Day, at two- thirty o'clock, an unusually well appointed dinner was given at the Malbourne Hotel by Mr. T. B. Pierce, of Durham, to the Sigma Delta chapter of the Kappa Delta sorority, and guests especially in- vited for the occasion.

The decorations and menu cards were artistically carried out in green and white, the sorority colors white roses, the flower of the soror- ity, were most conspicuous.

Immediately following the din- ner the entire party automobiled to Raleigh and returned later in the afternoon.

DOUBLE HEADER
whole senior team played speedier ball during this half, but Pleasants was the shining star, shooting two beautiful goals from the distant end of the floor, two other goals, and one foul: out of a total of 14 senior points Pleasants scored 12 during the game, and in the second half practically outplayed the whole junior team, scoring alone 9 points to its 6; Holt is to be commended for his effective guarding of Carver. Hawfield, who has played guard formerly, played center and showed up well. Carr was a new man for the junior team. Brown guarded his man closely.

The teams lined-up as follows:
Juniors—Anderson, r. f. (2); Carver, l. f. (10); Hawfield, c. (2); Grown, l. g., and Capt. (4); Carr, r. g.
Seniors—Secrest, r. f. (2); Pleasants, Capt., l. f., and r. g. (12); Murray, c.; Holt, l. g.; Hyland, r. g.; Gaston, l. f.
Referee, Cherry; Umpire, McKinnon; Scorekeeper, Few; Timekeeper, Staek; Time of halves, 20 minutes.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS
the Varsity, and every afternoon after a short preliminary workout there are thirty minutes of the hardest kind of play. The team will be a fast, good passing one, but there seemed no dribblers in the bunch. Signals are working well also, and when Coach Clay has had a chance to put on the finishing touches there will be nothing more to ask save the results of the games.
It is probable that Claude West will be secured as regular referee.

GYMNASIUM CLASSES STARTED
Compulsory attendance at the gymnasium, which is in force from Thanksgiving until Easter of each winter, began on Monday of this week. Classes have been arranged including every man in college except those who have a written excuse from the athletic committee, and those few seniors who have kept their cuts worked off and are not now under the necessity of attending save as their desire indicates.

CLASS CHAMPIONSHIP
The finals of the inter-class tennis tournament recently played off, resulted in the Sophomores' copping the championship. The game was rather slow. Wallace and Lambeth, representing the Sophomores, defeated Siler and Few, of the Juniors, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2. Manager Anderson was aided in running off the tournaments by the unusually favorable weather of the past fall, and the tournaments were played off without a hitch. Since the Juniors and the Sophomores have defeated respectively the Seniors and Freshmen, this last match decides the class championship.

Last week an order for all the necessary instruments for the band was sent off and they are expected to arrive in time for the regular weekly practice Thursday night. The instruments that were ordered are these; a bass drum, a bass, baritone, and an alto horn; and a valve trombone. These instruments, while of course not the best, are, nevertheless, good ones, and the band members will no doubt make some classy music with them.

At a called meeting held last Monday afternoon, W. S. Lee was elected assistant manager.

DURHAM CIVIC CELEBRATION
THE 15TH
Next Monday week December 15th, Durham will be the scene of quite a jubilee. On that date a Carnival, or rather a Civic Celebration, will be held, and not only are the business men of the town interested, but the community at large. Everybody in and around Durham is looking forward to the occasion with much pleasure.
The secretary of the Commercial Club has appointed R. T. Lucas on the committee of arrangements. He is looking out for the interest of the College and seems to think that it will be well represented when the spectacle marches up Main Street.
Prizes will be awarded to those whose dress makes the biggest appeal. Any one desiring to enter the contest and compete for the prizes is privileged to dress in any costume his ingenuity will help him rig up,—it matters not whether it be a Mexican Rebel's uniform or the very latest Decollete.

"Keeping in Front"
You fellows know what that means!
We've been very successful in this regard with Fatima Cigarettes. By the way, these cigarettes were first sold in the college towns—and you agreed with us that they were good.
Then we put out for the big race,
to make Fatimas of nation-wide reputation, and today more are sold than any other cigarette in this country.
No purer, or more carefully chosen tobacco grows than that in Fatimas.
We purposely put them in a plain inexpensive wrapper—in this way we can afford quality tobacco, and twenty of the smokes for 15 cents.
Now your college crew is of utmost importance to you—so is a good cigarette, and it's your aim in life to keep Fatimas in the lead—right up to their good quality—right up to where you first found them, and will always find them.
Success fellows! You started this cigarette on its successful career—and you pull a strong oar all over this country.
