The class basketball season closed last night with a memorable game between Seniors and Sophomores. Before this game the Sophomores were tied with the Juniors for first place in the pennant race, and if they had won from the Seniors they would have still had a chance for the championship. They seemed unequal to the task, however, and went down in defeat by the close score of fifteen to eleven. Both teams seemed slightly nervous, and possibly for this reason the game was one of the fastest of the season. The game throughout was hard-fought and full of spectacular play, especially on the part of the Seniors.

Holt started the scoring for his team by throwing a field goal in the first few minutes of play. Pleasants quickly followed him with another, and for some time it seemed that neither side would score again. Ferrell then managed to put one in the basket, and the hopes of the Sophomores were momentarily revived. Six fouls were called on the Seniors in this half, but Ferrell and Matton together were able to shoot only one of them. The half ended with the score eight to three in favor of the upper class men.

In the second half the Seniors showed their firm determination to win by displaying more pep than ever before in the history of the class, so far as basketball is concerned. Murray, Pleasants, and Highland each shot a goal in this half, and Pleasants threw one foul out of three chances. For the Sophomores Rone threw a field goal, and Matton shot six fouls out of seven chances.

"Mount" Pleasants was easily the star of the game, and his excellent work was largely responsible for the Senior's victory. He played in varsity style, and before the game was over had scored four field goals together with one foul. Holt and Murray also played well for their team. For the Sophomores Ferrell played a good game, although he did not come up to his usual form. Matton was exceptionally good on shooting fouls towards the latter part of the game, and deserves much credit for his work.

At the end of the game referee Cherry was called upon to award the championship banner to the Junior class. He stated that this class had clearly won the banner, although they had had to fight hard for it. He then turned the banner over to Captain Frank Brown of the Junior team, and at this point

VARSITY PRELIMINARIES AFTER VACATION TIME

FIRST COMES ON JAN'Y NINTH, AND SECOND ON FEB. TWELFTH

STATEMENT OF S. C. QUESTION

Both Intercollegiate in One Week in March. Men from Intersociety Debate for Navy Question Debate Council's Final Decision

The Debate Council in a rather lengthy session Monday afternoon discussed plans for the coming debates with Washington and Lee and South Carolina. Professors Cranford and Flowers, together with a third man whom they are to choose, were appointed as a committee to select the judges for the intersociety debate. It was decided to submit the following question to South Carolina: Resolved, That the United States should maintain a position as one of the three leading naval powers of the world. At least one but not more than two of the intersociety debaters will be placed on the Carolina debate. Professors Glasson, Boyd, and Laprade were appointed to make this selection. On the ninth of January the preliminary to select the remaining speaker or speakers will be held. The debate itself will come off sometime between the 16th and 21st of March.

The preliminary for the Washington and Lee debate will be held February 12th. The debate takes place March 14th. Trinity has the negative of the question which is: Resolved, That the states should enforce a minimum wage for women and children sufficient to maintain a fair standard of life (constitutionalality waived).

The Council will suggest to the literary societies that they debate the minimum wage question at an early date so that those who enter the preliminary may have a previous acquaintance with the subject.

It is notable that both the intercollegiate debates for this year fall on nights within at least a week of each other, a fact that may serve to arouse greater interest in these events than has hitherto been the case.

The science club held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the Science hall and was addressed by Dr. J. J. Wolfe, who discussed his research work done at Beaufort during the past summer.

HESPERIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

At the regular meeting of the Hesperian Literary Society on Saturday night, the quarterly election of officers was held and the following were chosen for the new quarter: B. W. Ruark, President; L. H. Barbour, Vice-President; J. W. Carr, Secretary; J. O. Renfro, Treasurer; H. B. Hill, Critic; E. R. Sikes, Chairman Executive Committee; T. T. Spence, Marshall; G. Hamilton was appointed Chaplain, and A. W. Wilson and H. Greenberg were appointed to serve on the Executive Committee. R. E. Brooks, W. W. Hutton, C. A. Tucker, and Gordon West were named to take the place of those retiring from the General Business Committee.

ENTHUSIASTIC ALUMNI BANQUETED AT OXFORD

OVER 100 ALUMNI HEARD THE SPEECHES AND ELECTED OFFICERS AT OXFORD

The Trinity College Alumni Association of the North Carolina Conference held its regular annual banquet at the Exchange Hotel in Oxford, Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. In the opinion of many this was one of the best and most enthusiastic banquets that the Association has had. The dining room of the hotel was filled and many could not get seats. There were over one hundred present. The toastmaster was Colonel Jno. E. Branton, of Wilson, a member of the Board of Trustees.

The speakers were: Dr. James Cannon, Ex-Gov. Thos. J. Jarvis, Rev. J. W. Culbreth, Dr. E. T. White, and President W. P. Few.

Rev. M. T. Plyler, brought to the attention of those present the work being done by the Committee appointed by the Alumni Association at last Commencement to collect material for an Alumni Register.

The Association expressed in an appropriate way its sympathy with Mr. Lyon, a Trinity graduate who is seriously ill at his home in Oxford.

The speeches at the banquet were of a high order and the occasion was a most pleasant one.

To J. M. Daniels, Chairman of the Executive Committee much credit is due for the excellent arrangements made. The officers for next year were elected as follows: President W. V. McRae, Vice-President C. L. Read, Chairman of Executive Committee J. M. Daniels.

TRINITY DELEGATES TO KANSAS CITY MEETING

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONVENTION WILL DRAW FROM WHOLE COUNTRY

At the last meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association Cabinet the following men were elected as delegates to the Seventh International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement: Hill, Secrest, Lucas, Shaffer, and Lewis. The Convention is to be held in Kansas City, Missouri from the 31st, of December to the fourth of January inclusive.

The convention of the Student Volunteer Movement are held once in a student generation. The last one, which was held in Rochester, N. Y., in 1910, was attended by 3,747 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada, and was pronounced one of the greatest religious gatherings ever held in America. The coming Convention in Kansas City is expected to surpass the Rochester convention both in attendance and in results.

Some of the special features will be: Addresses each evening by some of the ablest Missionary speakers of North America and other lands. A part of each day will be devoted to a helpful consideration of questions concerning the student volunteer. One afternoon will be devoted to simultaneous conferences on the great mission fields, i. e., China, Japan, India, Africa and Turkey.

CHANTICLEER DEFICIT LESS THAN EXPECTED

MANAGER ROSE SHOWS CONDITIONS IN WORK TO BE MUCH IMPROVED

PERHAPS NOT EVEN $100 BEHIND

Losses Cut Down Over $500 in One Year, Although Many Copies Were not Sold. Good Prospects for Third Volume if Desired

The Chanticleer board met last Saturday afternoon in room 2D to consider plans for winding up last year's accounts. Manager J. H. Rose, business manager of last year's annual, was present and made a detailed statement of its financial condition. His report shows a present indebtedness of $187.87, which Manager Starnes has since succeeded in bringing down to $152.87. The assets of the annual are one hundred and ten books which have not been sold and $92 which various organizations on the campus still owe, and it is probable that most of these debts will be settled within the next few days.

In case this whole amount is collected, the indebtedness would be less than one hundred dollars, which looks exceedingly good to the Board when it is recalled that last year the Chanticleer was over six hundred dollars in debt. It is, at the very start, certain that the nineteen units backing the annual will not have to pay as much as ten dollars each, even if no more money is collected. A meeting will be held within the next few days at which the Board will determine the share of each organization, and the Chanticleer will be placed on a sound basis as soon as this is paid in. Then definite plans will be made for next year's book.

The Board decided to sell the books still on hand at the regular price of $3.00. No reduction will be made and anyone desiring an annual can get one from assistant business manager Few.

Manager Starnes has already let contracts for the engraving for this year's book, on condition, however, that the Board sees fit to publish the Chanticleer again. Assistants have been appointed in the various departments of the annual and all the members of the staff are ready to go to work as soon as the present debts are cleared up. Editor Bagley states that the editorial staff will start work next week.

COLUMBIAN MEETING

J. H. Rose, '13, of Kinston, attended the Columbian meeting last Saturday night and made a short speech.

The query for debate was "Resolved, That Durham should adopt the Commission form of Government." The following appeared on the affirmative: W. G. Eastman, A. B. Farmer and Deal. Those on the negative were: L. C. Allen, P. L. Groom and R. O. Lyday. The decision was won by the affirmative.

All students interested in Engineering are requested to meet in the Greek Recitation Room next Monday night at 7:30.

VARSITY SEASON OPENS WITH ELON GAME FIRST

PRE-CHRISTMAS TRIP STARTS MONDAY. GAMES IN WESTERN N. C.

TEAM AS PREDICTED LAST WEEK

Hard Work of Practice will Show in First Contest. Elon Only Game Here before Holidays. Change in Schedule for Roanoke Game

The first varsity game of basket ball for the season of 1913-'14 will take place Friday night, when Trinity meets Elon College on the home floor. The team is rapidly getting into good trim for the first game, and, in spite of the loss of "Little Jinny" Brinn, the prospects for a good season are exceedingly bright.

Captain Siler has been working the men hard during the past few weeks. Siler will hold down his old position at forward, and McKinnon, a sub-forward of last year, will probably hold down the other forward. As sub-forward, Matton, Carver, Ferrell, and other less brilliant lights are fighting tooth and nail for the position.

In center, Neal will probably take the place of Cherry, who will doubtless be moved to guard. Neal is fast and sure of getting the tip-off on almost any man he happens to run up against. The guard positions will be played by Cherry and Thorne, both of whom are reported to be "hard as nails." In trying to secure a monopoly of this title to himself, each of the two men will probably become the terror of the forwards of the state. Brown and Wooten are showing class on the courts as guards.

The varsity team is beginning now to work together with almost clock-like precision. The first team is always the easy victor in the daily contests with the scrubs, in spite of the fact that the second team itself is fast and puts up some good team work. With five men on the regular team who have won "T's", and with an extra "T" man in the line-up of the subs, there is no doubt that Trinity will make a good run for the championship of the state.

Next Monday, the team will leave on a trip through the western part of the state, where games will be played with Wofford College, and with the Y. M. C. A. teams of Asheville and Charlotte. The trip will consist of six games and the remainder of the schedule will be played after Christmas, the first game being played with the University of Georgia on January 7. Contracts have not been signed for this game yet, but it is very likely that the matter will be closed in a few days. Since the schedule was published some time ago, the game with Charlotte at Trinity has been moved to January 22, and another game has been arranged with Doanoke College for January 28.

Mr. J. H. Rose, class of 1912, was on the campus Saturday and Sunday. He came up on business connected with the affairs of the Chanticleer of which he was manager last year. He is now principal of the Kinston High School.

THE TEAM

Friday sees the opening of the basket-ball season, and the appearance of the men who have been working hard for the perfecting of a finished scoring machine that in endurance and skill will be capable of adequately representing the College. Varsity athletics can never be successful without long and arduous preparation; the recently closed class series is the best assurance that material for college teams is being developed to take the place of that which drops out yearly.

Also those who take no active part in athletics but who are merely well-wishers and supporters have their first opportunity of performing their part of the task of making a good team. Compared to the long, hard road of training necessary for finished players the supporting caste of rooters has a ridiculously simple task—attendance, encouragement, and interest, seemingly nothing and in reality almost all, at once the superficial and the essential.

To lose one's self in something bigger than self is perhaps as sure a means as can be employed of finding one's real athletes, debaters, writers, who by their work for student interests as part of the College come to a forgetfulness of personal interests in the larger interest of serving the College, derive a benefit even greater than that of any technical skill they may acquire in the practice of their art; and if in the end there results a broader or a finer self as the result of losing that self then the work, whatever its nature, has abundantly justified itself.

To the team then, because it represents a work of patriotism as well as an exhibition of manly sport, is due a larger measure of encouragement, if it wins all the games, so much the more cause to rejoice, but no more cause to support. After all, is it any less The Team if it wins not a single game? Is the success of a work measured by its tangible results, or by the sincerity and the loyalty of the endeavor that goes into it?

HASN'T HIS TIME ABOUT COME?

But this is not meant as any hint that the team is not expected to be a winner of games; a Chronicle scribe of a past volume at a similar time delivered himself of a stirring exhortation "to dust the dandruff from Wake Forest's scalp." Therefore, O ye who toss the pill, here's looking at you! If in these days of the pompadour and the featheredge you find no dandruff to dust, bring back the scalp itself at your belt and hang it high on the walls of Angier Duke!

THE CHANTICLEER

THE CHRONICLE is printing in another column an account of the financial status of the Chanticleer as it is after the work of two years. The history of the publication is fairly well known, but a knowledge of all the facts in the case is essential to a proper analysis of the present standing of the work.

Three years ago there was set on foot a movement to establish here college annual. The movement was supported by a large number of students, and the financial responsibility was undertaken by an organization of organizations which agreed to assume certain proportions of the burden of any possible deficit. In its first year the work on the book was delayed by the fact that there were so many details of preliminary arrangement to be cleared away that there was all too short a time for the editorial and business managements to do their work. However, a book was published which was highly creditable to the College and which demonstrated the fact that there was sufficient literary and artistic talent in the student body to undertake the publication of an annual.

The business end of the first volume was not so successful as had been hoped, however, and despite hard work on the part of the managers, the Board was faced at the end of its first year and the opening of its second with a deficit of something over six hundred dollars. Before another volume could be issued this amount had to be paid off or satisfactory arrangements made to take care of it and the result was that the actual work on the second issue was delayed by the same causes that had operated in the first instance. Yet under such difficulties as these, the organizations that had backed the publication rallied and raised the necessary sums.

With the possibility of the second issue there came also the probability of its financial success or failure and after much hesitation the determination was finally

COMMENTS

Elon may be able to defeat the basket-ball team but she can't defeat the team and band together.

Peg says that "It is beautiful to love in Life's morning;" there are few College men who think so just at this time of the year.

He who would climb high in the English department must walk slowly, not play, and never rest.

The time has come for freshmen to count the intervening minutes before the Christmas holidays begin.

The most recent novelty along the tonsorial line is a lawn mower for the beard. It would be a paying proposition for the College Barber Shop to invest in one at an early date, as members of a certain class may soon realize that mustaches are transitory ornaments, destined to meet with severe disapproval on the morn of Dec. 25.

Is the Stygian blackness of the descent from the gymnasium balcony intended as a hint to hesitant couples or a possible death trap? Its possibilities for either are equally evident.

The Athletic Council continues to regard its transactions too deviations or too holy for the average lay ear. Is it a monopoly or only a close corporation?

reached to undertake the task again. In this instance also the session was almost half gone before any actual work could be done and as a result the second Chanticleer did not appear until almost commencement time. Chronic depletion of pocketbooks after the drain of nine months operated to lessen the number of copies that were sold and a resulting condition was that the managers were forced to pay for over a third of the number of copies they printed, and yet were unable to dispose of them, although there were plenty of men who would have been willing to buy if they had been able to do so.

The report of the business manager just made public reveals the fact that even though a loss of three hundred dollars was sustained through inability to market all the product, and even though an old deficit of six hundred dollars was paid during the course of the same year, still the present deficit amounts to a comparatively small sum, and in view of the fact that a larger number of organizations are interested and the burden is more widely distributed in the present instance, is still smaller. This report THE CHRONICLE regards as a distinct achievement, and on the basis of it believes that the publi-

CHAMPIONSHIP BANNER FOR BEST RACE WORK

GARRETT GETS CUP FOR PER-FECT SCORE. COMAN AND GO-FORTH ALSO REWARDED

In the recent hare and hound races, the last of which was run off Friday, the Seniors forged out ahead by twenty-five points, and hence the coveted banner goes to the team representing 1914. This is the second event that this class has won so far in track work, and the splendid work of Garrett, who made a perfect score, is largely responsible for the Senior victory.
Coman, for the Sophomores, comes next with 47.50, and Goforth, Junior, who came out with the total score of 44.50 points, was also largely responsible for his class total. All three of the above-mentioned men will be awarded trophy cups for their individual work.
The following are the respective class scores: Seniors 125, Juniors 65.0, Sophomores, 99.50, and Freshmen 48.

The hare and hound races were established three years ago and have now become a permanent annual event.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

Elected Sixteen Assistants

The Athletic Council had its second meeting for the year last Wednesday night. Much of the discussion centered around the granting of passes and sweaters to men making varsity teams. A set of by-laws were drawn up and passed upon, and it is understood, that the concessions desired by the
"T" men were granted.

One notable change in the wearing of "T's" was passed. Instead of managers wearing a T in common with the actual team men, they are to have a small M attached.

The following assistants to the managers were elected:

Sophomores—Secrest, Dalton,
Cannon, Hayes, Connel, Wilson,
Matton, Ring, C. V., Britt, G. W.
Freshmen—Maves, Bennett,
Ruff, Smith, Arendell, McKinnon, A. Britt, J. H.

ation of the Chanticleer should be continued. It has endeared itself to the larger part of the student body and its merit is recognized.

The literary side of the last issue showed an even more distinct advance than did the financial, and is proof positive that there is abundant talent for such a work.

Yet

even with these things in mind it must certainly be stated that the Chanticleer has not received quite as unmeasured support as it has deserved, and the College as a whole should be more united in the question before the publication can attain its perfect possibilities.

THE CAUSES

of financial distress in the two previous instances have been due, it appears, to the following facts:

Too many copies have been left on the hands of the managers.

Too many bad debts have remained on the books, and Both of these have been caused by the late appearance of the books.

THE REMEDIES

for these deficits have already been found by the managers, first in the decision to print only those copies actually subscribed for in advance, and second in the requirement that all so-called "mushroom" organizations shall pay in advance for their space.

The danger of a late appearance of the publication is now too well realized to allow a repetition of the mistake, and the staff already at work can insure success chiefly by its assiduity.

The Chanticleer feels, therefore, that if it is in any way possible, the Chanticleer should be again started on its course, and calls on the student body as a whole

THE CHRONICLE establishes this week a department which may and which may not become a permanent part of its weekly make-up.

This department is established largely to remedy a defect in the editorial columns caused by the lack of those contributions to the modern newspaper known usually as squibs. This staff will be open to the entire staff of THE CHRONICLE and also to any students of the College who may feel interested therein. So long as contributions of merit are submitted, the department will be continued
under the direction of the Editor and the Chief of Staff, but will be summarily abolished if it fails to justify its own existence.

The Lake Mohonk Conference,
on International Arbitration, offers three prizes for essays submitted by college students. One prize of $100 is offered to the male undergraduate who submits the best essay on International Arbitration, and two prizes, one of $200 and one of $100, are offered to the undergraduate woman students who write the best essays on International Peace.

The Junior rosters took charge of the ceremony.

The opposing teams lined up as follows:

Seniors: Secrest, I. F., Murray, r. f., (2); Holt, c., (2); Pleasants, r. g., (9); Hyland, l. g., (3).

Sophomores: Mills, l. f.; Rone, r. f., (3); Matton, c., (7); Ferrrell, r. g., (2); Wallace l. g.

Referee, Cherry; scorer, Bagley; timekeeper, Professor R. N. Wilson; time of halves, 20 minutes.

FRIDAY'S GAME

In a game featured by fast accurate passing and guarding the juniors defeated the freshmen last Friday night by the score of 27-10. This game closed the season for the freshmen and put the juniors in the lead.

The first half was begun with a goal by Hawfield, followed soon by two field shots for the freshmen. For the remainder of the half the juniors had a decided advantage, closing the period with six successive goals. Anderson, A. R., and Jenkins did stellar work each getting three field goals. The score for the half ended 17-6 for the juniors.

McKinnon was substituted for Smith at centre for the Freshmen in the second half. Two freshmen goals at the beginning of this period gave rise to shortlived hopes for '17's rosters, but the team failed to score again. The juniors ended the game with four goals thrown without a break. In this half Weatherly had plenty of speed and aggressiveness, but seemed unable to pocket the ball many times.

The freshmen relied largely on long shots, although at times their team work was good. The guarding of Martin for the freshmen and Hawfield for the juniors is worthy of special mention.

Line up, and points scored: juniors: Jenkins, c. (8); Anderson, r. f., (10); Carver, l. f., (1); Brown, l. g., (4); and Hawfield, r. g., (4).

Freshmen: Smith, McKinnon, c.; Lindsey, r. g., (4); LeGrand, l. f.; Weatherly, l. g., (4); and Martin, r. g., (2).

DR. LAPRADE SPOKE

The Y. M. C. A. was addressed last Wednesday night by Dr. W. T. Laprade who discussed the various phases of student problems in college life.

In dealing with student problems the commonplace things ought first to attract our attention. One should realize the importance of spending four years at college in the most pliable part of one's life so that the most good may be derived from it. These are years of foundation, in which the foundation of character is laid.

Students trying to go through college in the very easiest way with the least amount of effort expended get no real good from trying to deceive professors. They are trying to deceive the professors without their knowing it.

In college days men should look to their faith and see that it is strong enough to tie themselves to. If it is weak they should think out what they really do believe and tie to that. In this each man should be perfectly honest with himself.

Prayers should be the expression of what is meant, not a mere form. Too often prayer forms are said while the speaker does not realize what he is saying.

INTERESTING CHANGES

Changes of interest to the College in the Durham Methodist appointments for the coming year are: Rev. L. P. Howard comes to Memorial Church to succeed Rev. G. F. Smith, who goes to Elizabeth City. Rev. H. M. North, comes from Edenton Street, Raleigh to be presiding elder of the Durham District. Both of these are alumni of the College, Mr. North having also served as Headmaster of the Park School for several years.

Rev. C. B. Culbreth goes to Epworth Church, Raleigh, and is succeeded at Mangum Street by Rev. C. J. Harrell. B. B. Slaughter is succeeded by Rev. R. E. Atkinson, and E. C. Durham takes L. D. Hayman's place at Lakewood Park.

Rev. W. A. Cade, '13, goes this year to Newbern as junior preacher, and Daniel Lane to Lillington Circuit.
