Freshmen	0	2

The Seniors and Sophomores remain tied for first place in the interclass basketball series, the Seniors having defeated the Juniors by a score of 58 to 19 in the first game of the double-header last night, and the Sophomores having won from the Freshmen by the score of 61 to 17. Both games last night were fast and intensely interesting except for the fact that both were several times marred by unnecessary roughness.

SOPHOMORE-FRESHMEN

The game between the Sophomores and Freshmen was much faster and more interesting than was expected after the overwhelming of the first-year men by the Seniors last week. The first half closed with the score standing 34 to 8 in favor of the Sophomores; and at the end of the game the Sophomores had a total score of 61 to 17 for the Freshmen.

In the first half the Freshmen were able to shoot but two field goals, Beal getting one and Matton one. Captain Carver pocketed four foul goals out of five chances. In the second half Beal, by fast and thoroughly clean playing, got three field goals. Captain Carver shot one field goal and made good one out of five chances at foul goals. About five minutes before the close of the game Captain Carver was removed for the commission of four personal fouls. Taylor took the place of Carver at guard; and Elliott was substituted for Matton. Despite the fact that his opponent got five goals, Captain Carver was particularly good in defense, several times breaking up plays of his opponents.

Captain Swan was again the star of the Sophomores, scoring a total of twenty-three points, eight field goals and seven foul goals out of twelve trials. Swan was also effective in defensive work, holding his opponent to one goal. Getting five field goals, Long, at right guard, also scored more points than the opposing forward. Richardson succeeded well in keeping away from the opposing guard, and shot five field goals. Edgerton pocketed the ball for field goals five times; and Corkran four times.

The line-up: Sophomores, Richardson, r. f. (10); Edgerton, l. f. (10); Corkran, c. (8); Captain Swan, l. g. (23); Long, r. g. (10).

Freshmen: Beal, l. f. (8); Matton, r. f. (2); Minshaw, c.; Woodley, r. g.; Captain Carver, l. g. (7); Elliott, r. f.; Taylor, l. g.

Referee, Martin; Umpire, Patton; Time-keepers, Edwards and E. M. Thompson; Scorer, Ruff; Time of halves, twenty minutes.

"BOB" DOAK TO COACH TRINITY BASKET BALL

FORMER ELON COACH TO AR-RIVE MONDAY—SCHEDULE
ALMOST READY

All basket ball enthusiasts here will be glad to learn that the Athletic Council has obtained Mr. "Bob" Doak, for several years successful basket ball coach at Elon College, to coach the basket ball team here this year. Mr. Doak will come to Trinity on next Monday and remain until the close of the season.

With a comparatively small amount of material to select from, Mr. Doak has always turned out a successful team for Elon, the team last year being champions of North Carolina. Captain Martin is confident that, even though there are but two basket ball "T" men in College, with Coach Doak's services a successful team can be turned out.

The candidates for the team have been going through strenuous practice regularly for several weeks, and all have shown considerable improvement. After Coach Doak has had an opportunity to know the ability of the individual candidates, a squad of about fifteen men will be picked so that special attention can be given the most promising men.

Manager Seerest announces that the varsity schedule is almost read for publication. The full schedule will probably be announced next week. The plans of the manager at present are to have a total of twenty-two games.

SENIORS-JUNIORS

Matton and Ferrell, of the Seniors, were the stars of the second game, Matton throwing nine field goals and three fouls out of nine chances, and Ferrell throwing nine field goals and one foul out of four chances. Bunting played a good game, scoring five field goals. Patton scored three field goals, but played a rather rough game. Lilley played a very good game at guard, and threw one field goal himself.

Captain LeGrand led in the scoring for the Juniors, getting three field goals, and throwing one foul out of four chances. Smith came next with three field goals, missing all of his three chances at fouls. Arendell came into the game during the second half and threw two field goals. Mayes scored the other field goal for the Juniors. Bennett, Ferguson and Bradsher played a very good game, although they did no scoring.

The game was more interesting than the score—58 to 19—would indicate, and with the exception of a little roughness, which was injected at various times, was well played.

Line-up: Juniors: Smith, r. f. (6); Bennett, l. f.; Ferguson, c.; Captain LeGrand, l. g. (7); Mayes, r. g. (2); Arendell, r. f. (4); Bradsher, c.

Seniors: Ferrell, r. f. (19); Matton, l. f. (21); Bunting, c. (10); Captain Patton, l. g. (6); Lilley, r. g. (2).

Referee, Martin; Umpire, Carmichael; Timekeepers, Edwards and E. M. Thompson; Scorer, Ruff; Time of halves, twenty minutes.

DR. BRECK LECTURES ON ENLARGEMENT OF NAVY

NAVY LEAGUE REPRESENTA-TIVE GIVES STEREOPTICAN
LECTURE MONDAY

"OUR NAVY AND ITS MEANING"

Speaker Favors Large Navy for Preparedness Only—Sees No Danger of Militarism in United States

"Our Navy and Its Meaning" was the subject of a very interesting and instructive stereoptican lecture by Dr. Edward Breck, representative of the Navy League of America in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Monday evening.

Dr. Breck holds the A. M. and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Leipzig. For many years he was the Berlin correspondent for the New York Times and the New York Herald, and was later consul-general to Berlin. From this experience he gained first-hand information as to actual conditions in countries which maintain large armies and navies.

Dr. Breck, just as all practical minded people, frankly and firmly believes that war is horrible; but in extreme cases must be resorted to. According to his theory, it is very often the case that disagreeable things have to happen in daily life. A diseased limb of a person often has to be amputated, although it is a bad and disagreeable thing. Likewise many things of such a kind often happen in daily life. In short, all nature fights.

Hence since war is a thing unavoidable and likely to come, it should be our task to prepare for it just as for other disagreeable things which are likely to come about. We have the city police not for the purpose of conducting crimes, but for the purpose of being prepared against crime. In a like manner, we should have a good army and navy, not as a provocation of war, but as a protection against it.

Next Dr. Breck pointed out in how dire a need the United States was of armored cruisers, battle cruisers, torpedo boat destroyers, and almost every other thing necessary for a good navy. The Revolutionary War, the Spanish-American War, and above all the War Between the States were practically won by naval power. Yet in the past fifteen years, our country has done comparatively nothing for the strengthening of her naval defense.

The majority of people who are opposed to strengthening our navy and also our army say that there is danger that such a plan will lead America into a spirit of militarism. Dr. Breck dispenses danger of this kind by referring to present-day conditions. All the police in militaristic countries, such as Germany and Austria, must be officers of the army or the navy, and they are endowed with almost autocratic power, such as the right to strike down a man who fails to accord to them the proper dignity and reverence. Imagine such a thing taking place in our country. Also in these countries a man in a soldier's uniform is admissible into almost anything anywhere; the removal of his uniform is the last thing that a soldier or sailor

HESPERIA ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF NEW MEMBERS

MOCK TRIAL OF JAMES MCGINN
FEATURE OF AFFAIR—
CO-EDS ATTEND

In a very novel way on last Thursday evening the Hesperian Literary Society entertained in honor of its new members. All the co-eds were invited, and quite a large number was present. The reception proved to be a success from ever standpoint.

As the couples entered the hall, they were given cards containing a part of some legal term. Professor Brooks, who acted as master of ceremonies, announced that the holders of the cards would try to match their part of the legal term with the other part. This matching-up was carried on in a very vigorous manner for probably half an hour.

A moot court was then convened. Professor Brooks acting as judge, J. W. Wallace, solicitor, and A. R. Council, sheriff. The first person arraigned before the court was T. R. Summers on the charge of "maliciously slicing the cards so they could not be matched." He pleaded guilty and was let off with a light fine. Other minor cases were brought up and quickly disposed of.

James McGinn, of Meeklenburg County, was then brought before the court on a charge of "vagrancy, fragrant, abandonment, hanging around Kress's, general cussedness, and even unto the crime of living."

A jury of six gentlemen and six ladies was picked to try the case. The star witnesses in the case were J. H. Small, Jr., and W. L. Ferrell, Jr., for the prosecution, and J. H. Wilson and Professor R. N. Wilson, for the defense. Upon cross-examination of these witnesses by the attorneys some very interesting and humorous facts regarding the defendant were brought out. T. W. Sprinkle, attorney for the defense, made a very earnest and humorous appeal for the release of his client.

At this point, the court was adjourned, and refreshments consisting of candy, sandwiches, and coffee, were served.

Consider a parallel of this custom in our own country. Our present Secretaries of the Navy and of War are now fighting the tendency of our people of looking down on men in soldiers' uniforms and of debarring them from such public places as hotels and places of amusement.

In conclusion Dr. Breck asserted that every peace-loving nation should be strong. In time of peace our nation should prepare itself for what may come; for when war does come, it will be too late to prepare.

Directly after his lecture Dr. Breck gave an illustrated talk on various aspects of our navy, from the time of the American Revolution up to the present time and compared the present strength of the American navy to that of other navies.

Mr. George W. Koonce, '79, of the Law Office of the Bureau of Engineering in the War Department at Washington, spent last Thursday on the campus.

ALFRED NOYES TO BE HERE FRIDAY EVENING

NOTED ENGLISH POET TO COME TO TRINITY FOR PUBLIC LECTURE

PROF. B. F. SLEDD TO LECTURE

Wake Forest English Professor to Lecture Nov. 17 on Recent Tour
—Dr. Franklin, Physicist, on Dec. 17

Trinity is especially fortunate in having made arrangements for a lecture to be given in Craven Memorial Hall on Friday evening of this week by Mr. Alfred Noyes, perhaps the greatest poet in the world at the present time and visiting professor of English Literature at Princeton University. On November 17 Professor Benjamin F. Sledd, of Wake Forest College, will lecture here under the auspices of the fortnightly chapter of Sigma Upsilon; and on December 17 the Science Club will bring Dr. Franklin, well-known physicist at Columbia University, here for a lecture.

Mr. Noyes was born in England in 1880, being now only about thirty-five years of age, and has been for many years one of the best-known English poets. He, like many other great literary men, began writing poetry while a student at Oxford University, publishing his first productions in the special weekly issues of the London Times. His first volume of poems, "The Loom of Years," was published in 1902. The chief theme of Mr. Noyes's poetry has been universal international peace, even before the beginning of the great European War. He has written many poems on England which show his love for the past of the Empire and his faith in its future. "Drake," an epic published by Mr. Noyes several years ago, tells of the part played by Sir Francis Drake in the expansion of the Empire during the reign of Queen Elizabeth. One of his chief characteristics is his ability to portray the most commonplace things and scenes in a highly beautiful manner.

Professor Benjamin F. Sledd, who will lecture on November 17, is one of the best known literary men in North Carolina, having published several volumes of poems and having served as professor of English at Wake Forest for a number of years. He has been left free to select himself the subject of lecture here, and will probably speak upon some topic suggested by his recent tour around the world on a traveling fellowship of the Kahn Foundation, which chooses students of note for an appreciative study of foreign countries. He will also probably read from his own poetry. Professor Sledd was a teacher of John Charles McNeill, a talented North Carolina poet who wrote of southern life.

Professor Franklin, of the department of physics at Columbia University, who will speak before an open meeting of the Science Club on December 17, will choose his own subject on some phase of physics, and his wide reputation assures that his remarks will be of special interest to the college community as a whole.

EDITORIAL

After all our high hopes, the roughness had to come.

May be they forgot our hopes, though, and will do better in the future.

Some sixty organizations on the campus, and still they come.

For sometime it has been difficult to get an audience of students for lectures and addresses here, no matter how distinguished the speaker, how interesting the subject, or how few the other attractions or duties to interfere.

By a special effort there has been arranged for Friday evening a lecture by perhaps the greatest poet in the world at the present time. Every student who has a really serious purpose in being in college or who is genuinely interested in education should not fail to take advantage of this rare opportunity. While there will be other attractions, some of them worthwhile perhaps, on the same night, none of the attractions will be so good of their kinds as will Mr. Noyes's lecture.

It is hoped that an unusually large number of men will enter the preliminaries for the Interscholastic Debate to be held on November 20. In recent years a remarkably small number of men has entered. If one makes a place on the final debate, he receives valuable training, not only for future debating in college, but training which will be useful to him all through life. If one fails to make a place, he will have received a certain amount of this valuable training in preparing for the preliminary and will have made someone else try harder for a place.

The new men should feel no hesitancy in entering the preliminary, for nobody has yet made a place, and, as a matter of fact, at least one new man nearly always makes a place on one of the teams. In debating, as in nearly every other college activity, an early start is necessary for the achievement of the greatest success and benefit.

DRS. BROWN AND BOYD TO RALEIGH

Dr. Frank C. Brown, of the department of English, left Monday for Raleigh to attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Folk-Lore Society, of which he is secretary and treasurer. It was largely through the efforts of Dr. Brown that the Society was first organized three years ago.

Dr. William K. Boyd, of the department of History, was a member of the committee which yesterday awarded the Patterson Memorial Cup, offered for the best volume published within the year by a resident of North Carolina, to President William Louis Poteat, of Wake Forest College. The Cup is presented each year at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association.

DR. KILGO A VISITOR

Bishop John C. Kilgo, president emeritus of the College, was a visitor on the campus Thursday and Friday of last week. Miss Fannie Kilgo, '13, A. M. '15, came with him and is now visiting at the Woman's Building.

The chief purpose of Dr. Kilgo's coming to Durham was to deliver the sermon at the dedicatory exercises of the handsome new Edgemont Baptist Church. The subject of this sermon was "Ye are the salt of the earth," or, as Dr. Kilgo translated the sentence, "Christian people are the preservative of Christ's Kingdom on Earth."

YOUNG IS TENNIS ALTERNATE

After the close of the 'varsity tennis tournaments for the selection of the regular members of the team, Captain Anderson changed his plans for the selection of the alternate. It was formerly planned that the contestant who was defeated only by the two regular members of the team should have the place as alternate, but was later decided that it would be better to have new tournaments for the position. In the final match of the tournament on Monday afternoon Young won the alternate's place by defeating Wallace, 6-3, 4-6, and 6-3.

The following card was received by THE CHRONICLE last week:

Willis Smith and W. B. Duncan announce the formation of a partnership for the practice of law under the firm name of Smith and Duncan with offices at 203-204-205 Citizens National Bank Building, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Mr. Smith graduated from Trinity in the Class of 1910 and finished the law course in 1912. Mr. Duncan was a member of the Class of 1913 and finished the law course last year.

Dr. Frank C. Brown, of the department of English, delivered an address on Friday night in Hillsboro on ballad literature.

Roy F. Marr, ex-'18, of Charlotte, was a visitor on the campus Monday and Tuesday.

G. M. Carver, '15, of City Point, Virginia, was a visitor on the campus on last Wednesday night.

JUNIOR ORATORS

November first was the day for the first-draft orations in the Junior Oratorical Contest, in competition for the ten-dollar prize offered for the first time this year, to be submitted to Professor Holland Holton, of the department of Argumentation and Oratory. Nine men responded, and it is expected that most of them will be selected to appear in the preliminary to be held shortly after the Christmas holidays for the selection of the men to appear in the final contest to be held sometime later.

The men selected by Professor Holton will have their orations in final form by November 20. As soon after that as the men have their speeches memorized, the contestants will be given special training by Professor Pegram.

The following are the contestants and their subjects: David Brady, "The Abuse of Liberty;" C. S. Bunn, "The Influence of Ideals;" Fred W. Cunningham, "America's Present Responsibilities;" E. C. Fow, "True Aspirations;" H. C. Greenburg, "Humanity, Justice, and Peace;" A. R. Reep, "Noble Discontent;" R. H. Shelton, "America's Opportunity;" J. H. Small, Jr., "The Wilson Doctrine;" and H. C. West, "Peace and Preparedness."

VOLUNTEERS ORGANIZE

A Student Volunteer Band, composed of all students who are preparing for work in foreign mission fields or are particularly interested in the work, was organized on Sunday night. With the exception of Trinity and Guilford, all of the colleges in the state have for several years had volunteer bands; and the founding of the organization here is an important step in the religious life of the community. It is hoped that others interested in the work will join the Band later.

The following officers were elected: president, G. W. Harley; vice-president, E. G. Harris; secretary and treasurer, J. W. Fitzgerald; teacher, W. G. McFarland, and assistant teacher, I. L. Shaver.

BOOMERS ELECT

The Mountain Boomers' Club, one of the largest organizations of its kind here, met several days ago and reorganized for the year. The following officers were elected: president, G. W. Harley; vice-president, J. W. Elliot; secretary and treasurer, J. H. Coman.

The following new members were taken into the club: S. E. Stone, Frank Calfee, R. H. Shelton, E. L. Shelton, Bommer Ray, Edwin Burge, S. G. Corpening, R. K. Smathers, G. L. Nichols, W. D. Hyatt, W. M. Bouterse, A. Moody, and Miss Bessie Fineststein; faculty member, Professor R. N. Wilson.

SANDFIDDLERS ELECT

The Sandfiddlers' Club at its first meeting on last Tuesday afternoon elected the following officers for the year: president, B. B. Jones; vice-president, H. G. Swan; secretary, A. L. Hibbard; and treasurer, C. F. Bunting.

The Club has a membership of thirty-five. At the meeting on Tuesday a committee was appointed to report at the next meeting a program of work for the Club to undertake for the year.

Mr. Bruce Craven, ex-'03, of Trinity, attorney and contributor to newspapers and magazines, yesterday visited his uncle, Professor W. H. Pegram, on Faculty Ave.

DR. KNIGHT PUBLISHES BOOK

"Some Principles of Teaching as Applied to the Sunday School"

"Some Principles of Teaching as Applied to the Sunday School" is the subject of a book by Dr. Edgar W. Knight, Assistant Professor of the History and Science of Education here, which last week appeared from the Pilgrim Press. The book is highly interesting and contains valuable suggestions for all Sunday School workers—superintendents, teachers, and pupils.

This book is the result of work which the author has done as leader of training classes for teachers, and is a practical aid to teachers, superintendents, pastors, and other Sunday school workers, especially those who have had little or no opportunity to acquaint themselves with certain principles of teaching and of child psychology which may be used to advantage in Sunday school teaching. The introduction to the book is written by Dr. Franklin N. Parker, formerly Averá Professor of Biblical Literature here and now professor of Systematic Theology in Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia.

The book opens with a brief, but very comprehensive chapter on the history of the Sunday school. Other chapters are on the following subjects: Need for trained teachers, successful Sunday school teaching, qualifications and preparation of the teacher, planning the lesson, teaching the lesson, attention and interest, the art of questioning, using the pupil's memory, the teacher's personality, and Jesus as a teacher. At the end of each chapter references and suggestions for further study are appended.

Dr. Knight has a special interest in Sunday school work, having successfully conducted teacher-training classes in the Sunday school of Memorial Church, at Littleton Female College, and in the First Methodist Sunday School at Kinston. Most of the material in the book was used in conducting these courses.

COLLEGE DEBATE COUNCIL HOLDS ITS FIRST MEETING

CONTRACT WITH WASHINGTON AND LEE FOR TWO DEBATES
—DR. BOYD CHAIRMAN

The College Debate Council at its first meeting Monday afternoon elected officers and started debating on its course for the year.

Dr. William K. Boyd was chosen chairman of the Council; and A. B. Farmer was elected recording secretary. Mr. Holland Holton, instructor in Debating and honorary member of the Council, was reelected corresponding secretary.

The Council passed a resolution inviting the State Peace Conference to hold its annual meeting here sometime in February. If this invitation is accepted, the State Peace Oratorical Contest, to which all of the colleges in the state send representatives, will be held here.

Corresponding Secretary Holton announced that a contract had been signed with Washington and Lee University providing for two more debates. The Council will decide upon a question to submit for the Washington and Lee debate at a later meeting.

The Council approved the question which has been chosen for the Intersociety Debate—Resolved, that the United States should pursue a policy of military preparedness commensurate with the position of a first-class world power. The speakers were limited to twelve minutes on the first speech and five minutes on rejoinder. The matter of using the Intersociety Debate as a preliminary for the selection of intercollegiate speakers was discussed, but no definite action was taken.

The following are members of the Council this year: from the Faculty, Dr. W. K. Boyd, Dr. W. H. Glasson, and Professor R. L. Flowers; from the Columbian Literary Society, J. Horace Grigg and A. B. Farmer; and from the Hesperian Literary Society, W. R. Shelton and David Brady.

KAPPA DELTA ENTERTAINS

The local chapter of the Kappa Delta Sorority gave a very enjoyable rotation party last night in honor of many of their friends.

About forty girls and boys who were invited to the party assembled at the home of Miss Mary White Cranford and after partaking of a delicious course of tea and sandwiches, journeyed in a body to the class basketball games. After the games the crowd went to the home of Miss Estelle Flowers, where a delightful salad course was served. The crowd of fun-seekers finally ended up at the home of Miss Ruth Fallon.

The invited ones were: W. F. Page with Miss Ruth Fallon, J. O. Durham with Miss Ella Tuttle, C. W. Toms, Jr., with Miss Mary Erwin, H. E. Newbury with Miss Eleanor Erwin, R. M. Cannon with Miss Myrtle Humble, J. C. Boggs with Miss Mary White Cranford, M. G. Alderman with Miss Kathleen Bain, J. W. Lambeth, Jr., with Miss Annie Mahler, J. W. Smoot with Miss Nannie Karnes, and T. R. Summers with Miss Gertrude Fallon. Those tagging were: H. N. LeGrand, G. W. H. Britt, Banks Arendell, R. K. Courtney, L. C. Matton, C. F. Matton, G. F. Mayes, A. G. Flythe, W. H. Powell, R. H. Bennett, Jr., T. M. Wannamaker, F. M. Wannamaker, J. H. Small, Jr., S. B. White, Jr., W. J. Woodley, L. B. Hurley, and C. J. Fisher.

COLUMBIA ELECTS

L. C. Allen Elected President—Other Officers Elected and Appointed

The Columbian Literary Society on last Saturday evening elected the following officers for the second quarter: president, L. C. Allen, Apex; vice-president, R. M. Johnston, Greensboro; secretary, G. H. Ferguson, Reidsville; treasurer, J. H. Burrus, Shelby; and marshal, J. H. Grigg, Lawndale. The new president made the following appointments: corresponding secretary, C. A. Poole; chaplain, M. B. Woosley; censor, J. W. Hoyle, Jr.; chief tribune, G. Y. Newton; associate tribunes, G. R. Jordan and C. A. Reep; clerk of tribunal, L. L. Gobbel; and executive committee, M. S. Lewis, chairman, E. C. Harris, H. W. Kendall, E. M. Spivey, and I. L. Shaver.

ALPHA DELTA PI ENTERTAINS

The local chapter of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority entertained last Saturday night from 8:30 to 11:30 at the Woman's Building in honor of Miss Fannie Kilgo, '13, A. M. '15, of Charlotte. The parlors were decorated with pennants and autumn flowers. After the guests had expressed their opinion of "Apple Dumpling Pie" and argued the most interesting question, "which is higher, and which is lower," refreshments consisting of two delicious courses were served.

Among those invited were: Miss Fannie Kilgo with A. R. Anderson; Miss Annie Mahler with J. H. Small, Jr.; Miss Nannie Karnes with J. S. Anderson; Miss Nannie Green with J. C. Michie, Jr.; Miss Ruby Elliott with A. W. Wilson; Miss Rosamond Lucas with B. F. Few; Miss Charlotte Averá with A. G. Flythe; Miss Janet Smith with H. H. Nicholson; Miss Vera Wiggins with J. R. Rone; Miss Amy Muse with L. B. Hurley; Miss Edna Taylor with J. Raymond Smith; Miss Lorraine Isley with J. I. Tomlin; Miss Lucille Baldwin with V. C. Hall; Stags, E. C. Few, J. M. Hackney, and K. C. Towle.

Y. M. C. A. MEETS

The Y. M. C. A. held a students' meeting last Wednesday evening when it was addressed by Messrs. J. H. Coman and W. R. Shelton.

Mr. Coman spoke on "The Youth of Today." In the course of his remarks Mr. Coman said that the youth was the masterpiece of Christ's greatest work. The youth is very responsive to his environments. In other words he is influenced for good or evil by his associations. We then are responsible for the influence we exert over our fellow-students who are in the prime of youth.

The title of Mr. Shelton's talk was "Salvation—Its Definition." The speaker stated that there were three ways to salvation: pardon, sanctification, and glorification. In the first stage man is delivered from the guilt of sin. The second stage is a daily struggle to resist temptation. The last stage is the deliverance of man from the penalties of sin by glorification. We are adrift on the great sea of life. So it is incumbent upon college students to work out their salvation, and not only their own but that of their brothers.

At the University of Mississippi plans are under way for the installation of a moving picture show, to be held every Tuesday evening by the university authorities in the chapel building.

ALUMNI DINNER IN RALEIGH

Alumni Attending Teachers' Assembly to Have Dinner November 26

The Trinity College Alumni are planning a meeting and dinner in Raleigh Friday evening, November 26, at 6 o'clock, and the occasion promises to be most interesting and helpful. This dinner is to be similar to the one so successfully planned and so greatly enjoyed at Charlotte last Thanksgiving when seventy-five or eighty former students and friends of the College were present.

The meeting this year will be held during the Teachers' Assembly which is to be in session in Raleigh from the 24th to the 26th. During this time a large number of Trinity men and women who are teaching in the state will be in Raleigh attending the session of the Teachers' Assembly. Friday evening, November 26, has been set apart as the "College Get-Together Night," and from six until eight o'clock these college dinners and meetings will be held at various places in the city.

The preparations for the Trinity dinner are being made by a faculty committee consisting of Professors E. C. Brooks and R. L. Flowers, and Dr. E. W. Knight, who are conferring with a committee appointed by the Wake County Alumni Association. This latter committee is composed of Messrs. Willis Smith, Hal A. Hayes, Reverend J. C. Wooten, and Dr. Albert Anderson, who are being assisted by numerous other alumni in Raleigh. The committee from Trinity College has prepared a letter which is being sent to a large number of Trinity men and women who are likely to be in Raleigh attending the Teachers' Assembly or who will go to Raleigh especially for the dinner. From present indications it appears that as many as a hundred and fifty or perhaps more will be present at that time.

PRE-MEDS ORGANIZE

Pi Mu Kappa, a local secret order of students preparing for the study of medicine, was organized last Friday evening with a membership of nineteen. The organization urges its members to obtain the degree from Trinity before taking up the study of medicine and will make investigations of the merits of various medical schools. Local physicians will later be invited to address the order.

The following are members of the new order: C. Raner Edwards, J. W. Smoot, J. S. Bradsher, W. L. Lambert, R. W. Giles, J. E. Thompson, E. C. Harris, W. E. Giles, O. R. Hodgkin, J. I. Erwin, F. C. Smith, J. W. Sauls, A. G. Flythe, J. J. Hambrick, J. M. Hackney, F. R. Yarborough, J. C. Boggs, G. W. Harley, and R. L. Fisher. In the future students will not be eligible to membership until after the fall term of the sophomore year.

BOTANICAL CLUB MEETS

Thursday night in Crowell Science Hall the regular meeting of the Botanical Club was held. The program consisted of a paper by B. L. Smith on "Recent Discussions of the Mutation Theory."

W. E. Giles, J. C. Gaither, and J. C. Boggs became members of the Club.

Rev. J. W. Bennett, '15, pastor of the Methodist Church at Rougemont, on October 27 was married to Miss Sarah Eudora Patillo at Billingsley, Alabama. Reverend and Mrs. Bennett were visitors here last Wednesday.
