TRINITY DEFEATED BY OLD BAPTIST RIVALS

WAKE FOREST DEFEATS TRINITY ON HOME FLOOR, 28 TO 26.

ANDERSON AND MARTIN STARS

Baptists Make Comeback in Last Half With 16-9 Score Against Them—Lilley Guards Opponent Closely.

Making a great come-back during the last few minutes of play, Wake Forest defeated Trinity in Angier Duke Gymnasium on last Tuesday night, January 25, by a score of 28 to 26. The defeat was the first that Trinity ever received at the hands of Wake Forest on the home floor.

Trinity began the game with a rush, Captain Martin getting a field goal during the first minute of play. Other goals followed; the Trinity guards covered the opposing forwards closely; and the half ended with the score standing 16 to 9 in favor of Trinity. In the second half, however, the Baptists came back and soon tied the score. During the last ten minutes of the game the score vacillated, Wake Forest leading for a minute, the score being tied, then Trinity leading for a minute until during the last minute of the game Hall, the Wake Forest right forward, scored a field goal, winning the game by a two-point margin.

The Trinity stars were Anderson, Captain Martin, and Lilley. In offensive play Anderson was probably the most effective man on the floor. He scored five field goals and his back-hand passes several times bewildered the Baptist players. Captain Martin was effective in both offensive and defensive play. He held the strong Wake Forest forward, Hall, to two field goals, pocketed the ball four times himself, and his passes were responsible for several other Trinity goals. Lilley played a great defensive game against Captain Holding, of the Wake Forest team. Although Holding pocketed the ball five times for field goals, it happened that each time he succeeded in getting away from the fast Trinity guard he was in the most favorable position for caging the ball. Ferrell was hardly in his usual form, pocketing the ball but twice, although he was effective in passing. Bunting was more effective than usual in defensive work, holding the opposing center to two field goals, but he failed to score a goal himself.

Captain W. Holding led the scoring of the Baptists and was by far the most effective man on the team. He scored five field goals and four foul goals out of nine chances. He succeeded in evading Lilley at opportune times, although he was closely guarded during most of the game. Hall was unable to play his usual game so far as the scoring of points went, being closely guarded by Captain Martin throughout the entire game. R. Holding, who succeeded Beam at right guard in the second half, held Anderson to two field goals during the half, pocketed the ball once himself, and his passes were largely responsible for the Wake Forest victory. JANUARY NUMBER OF REGISTER OFF PRESS

SUCCESS OF PUBLICATION ASSURED WITH CLOSE OF FIRST VOLUME.

SHEPPARD WRITES OF LAWSCHOOL

Fourth Article by Prof. Brooks on Braxton Craven and Trinity—Dr. Few Writes of Late Mr. Howard.

The January number of the Trinity Alumni Register, which closes the first volume of the publication, came from the press last week. The current number is among the most interesting which have yet been issued. During the first year the subscription list has almost doubled, and the publication has rendered so great a constructive service in bringing alumni closer to college that its success now seems assured.

The frontispiece of the number is a cut of Dean Samuel F. Mordecai, LL. D., of the Trinity College Law School. Other cuts appearing in the issue are of Messrs. Bunyan S. Womble, '04, of Winston-Salem, and J. A. Long, '05, of Roxboro, both of whom were last spring elected members of the Board of Trustees.

"Braxton Craven and Trinity College," the fourth of a series of papers by Professor E. C. Brooks, '94, contains many interesting facts regarding the taking over of the College by the Methodist Church, the organization of the College, the early curriculum, the size of the student-body, and the beginning of the Civil War period.

PRES. FEW'S ADDRESS IN "THE AMERICAN COLLEGE"

ADDRESS ON SOUTHERN COLLEGE PUBLISHED IN NEW BOOK

The address of President William P. Few on "The Present Status and the Probable Future of the College in the South," delivered at a conference on the American college which was held at Allegheny College, Meadville, Pennsylvania, on the occasion of the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of that college, together with the other addresses delivered on this occasion, has just been published in a book entitled The American College.

President Few reviews briefly the chaotic conditions of Southern colleges during the last half century and the efforts which have been and are being made toward remedying these conditions by the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Southern States, the educational commission of the Southern Methodist Church, the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the General Education Board of New York, and certain colleges which "have stood as beacons of light along the hard road of progress and as bulwarks of strength against which the intellectual confusions, and even at times the surging passions of the hour, have dashed themselves in vain."

DR. F. N. PARKER HOLDS THE ANNUAL REVIVAL

ANNUAL MEETING UNDER AUSPICES OF Y. M. C. A. NOW IN PROGRESS

TO CONTINUE THROUGH SAT'DAY

First Meeting Held Sunday Night By Rev. H. M. North—Two Services Daily—Strong Sermons Delivered.

The annual series of revival services under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. are being conducted this week in the Y. M. C. A. hall by Dr. Franklin N. Parker, for four years Professor of Biblical Literature here, now Professor of Systematic Theology in theandler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta.

Owing to the fact that Dr. Parker was unable to reach here before Monday, the services Sunday night and Monday morning were conducted by Reverend Harry M. North, pastor of Memorial Church. Mr. North preached two strong sermons, each prefatory to the services which followed. The subject of the second sermon was, "The Coming of the Holy Spirit."

Dr. Parker preached his first sermon Monday night from the text, "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon." For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the

FRENCHMAN SPEAKS HERE IN INTEREST OF ALLIANCE

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ORGANIZE CHAPTER OF ALLIANCE HERE.

Monsieur Louis Delamarre, professor of French in the College of the City of New York and Secretary of the Alliance Francaise, delivered a most interesting lecture here last Thursday evening. M. Delamarre is making a tour of the South, speaking in the largest cities and at the leading colleges in the interest of the Alliance.

The subject of M. Delamarre's address was "The Salon of Princess Matilda"; and the address was delivered entirely in French. The salon of Princess Matilda was the last of the great literary salons in France and served as a gathering place for such artists as Taine, Renan, Masson, Flaubert, Merimee, and others. The salons were also frequented by many leaders in political life and representatives of the nobility. The lecturer traced briefly the history of the seventeenth century salon with particular reference to that of Princess Matilda, who was a cousin to Napoleon III.

Professor Webb, the students of French in College, and many people in the city are interested in organizing a chapter of the Alliance in Durham, and it was for this reason that M. Delamarre was brought here.

ELON AND STATESVILLE DEFEATED BY TRINITY

TRINITY TEAM PILES UP OVERWHELMING SCORE IN BOTH GAMES HERE.

SWAN FEATURES AGAINST ELON

Score of Statesville Game is 45 to 13—Elon Loses by Score of 37-22—Captain Martin Stars in Both.

In the second game on the home floor the Trinity quintet defeated the Statesville Club on Thursday night, January 13, in Angier Duke Gymnasium by the score of 45 to 13. The first college game on the home floor was won from Elon on Thursday night, January 21, by a score of 37 to 22.

STATESVILLE GAME

The outstanding feature of the Statesville game was the work of Captain Martin, of the Trinity team, at right guard. He held the opposing forwards to three field goals, pocketed the ball seven times for field goals himself and seven times for foul goals. Anderson, at left forward, played his usual steady game, having four field goals to his credit. Bunting, center, scored four field goals. Patton, at left guard, played a good defensive game, and secured one field goal. Richardson, who played right forward in the first half, shot one field goal. He was replaced by Ferrell, who shot two field goals in the second half.

Guy, left forward, was the principal star of the visitors. He threw three field goals and played a very effective game in every respect. Wakefield, center, came

SHELTON AND MATHEWS FOR WASHINGTON AND LEE DEBATE

THIRD DEBATE COMES FEBRUARY 26—ALLEN IS ALTERNATE.

In the preliminary debate held on the night of January 15 in the Hesperian Hall for the selection of two members of the team to meet Washington and Lee University in the third debate of the series on February 26, W. W. Mathews, of Vidalia, Georgia, and W. R. Shelton, of Durham, were given the places. L. C. AP and H. C. West.

Henry C. Greenburg, of Durham, was chosen a member of the team on the occasion of the Inter-society Debate in December.

The query which was debated in the preliminary and which will be used in the debate is "Resolved, That the proposed administration policy of armament increase is to the best interests of the United States." Trinity will uphold the affirmative. Washington and Lee will debate the University of Pennsylvania on the same question on the same night of the debate here; and Pennsylvania in turn debates Cornell and Columbia on the same question one week later.

The debate, which will be held in Craven Memorial Hall on Saturday, February 26, will be the third and deciding contest of the series, Trinity having won here in 1914 and having lost in Lexington last year.

FERRELL ANNOUNCES BASEBALL SCHEDULE

SCHEDULE PROVIDES TWENTY-FIVE GAMES, THIRTEEN AT TRINITY.

TEAM TO TAKE SOUTHERN TRIP

Opening Game With Trinity Park on March 25—Davidson, W. and L., Guilford, and Other New Teams.

The varsity baseball schedule, which was announced yesterday by Manager W. L. Ferrell, Jr., provides for thirteen games at home and twelve abroad as follows:

March 25, Trinity Park School at Trinity.

March 30, Wake Forest at Trinity.

April 4, William and Mary at Trinity.

April 8, Wake Forest at Wake Forest.

April 10, V. P. I. at Trinity.

April 13, Davidson at Statesville.

April 14, Davidson at Davidson.

April 15, Guilford at Winston-Salem or High Point.

April 17, A. and M. at Raleigh.

April 20, Guilford at Trinity.

April 23, A. and M. at Trinity.

April 24 and 25, University of Georgia at Trinity.

April 26, Davidson at Trinity.

April 27 and 28, Clemson at Trinity.

May 3 and 4, University of Georgia at Athens.

May 5 and 6, Georgia Tech, at Atlanta.

May 8 and 9, Clemson at Clemson.

May 10, Furman at Greenville, South Carolina.

May 12 and 13, Washington and Lee at Trinity.

The season begins this year about two weeks later than usual on account of the fact that the weather is usually bad during the latter part of March, and only one of the northern teams which usually come South will make the trip this year.

The schedule is an unusually large and strong one and provides for games with several teams which were not played last year; among these are Washington and Lee, Clemson, Georgia Tech, V. P. I., William and Mary, Furman, Guilford, and Davidson. All of these teams are exceptionally strong ones and will put up hard-fought games. The game with A. and M. on Saturday before Easter is again included, but the Easter game will be played with the University of Georgia instead of the Durham Leaguers.

Last year twelve games, including two with junior colleges and one with a league team, were played on the home ground; this year thirteen games, twelve with colleges and one with the Park School, are to be played on Hanes Field.

The chief difference between the schedule for this year and that of last year is that the team is to take a southern instead of a northern trip.

Manager Ferrell regrets that the schedule provides for five games on the home ground on successive days, but was unable to make other arrangements.

EDITORIAL

It is to be hoped that the latest thing in the way of the celebration of athletic victories, which was introduced on the Trinity campus apparently by Wake Forest students last week, died at its birth and that college students, whether of Wake Forest, Trinity, or any other institution, will be able in the future to restrain their feelings sufficiently to avoid defacing the property of other colleges to the extent of causing even temporary damage.

Trinity students were not hasty in charging Wake Forest with having committed the act, although, with no evidence either way, the most natural thing was to suspect members of the basketball team of the Baptist institution. It is to be hoped that the students here and all other people will remember that, if the painting was done by Wake Forest men, as appears to be the case, only a few men allowed their feelings to run away with them. The Baptist institution should not be held responsible as an institution for the fact that a few men who happened to be students there committed the ill-considered act.

A GREAT PRIVILEGE

The students are having a great privilege this week of hearing Dr. Parker, that good and saintly man, that powerful preacher, whom every man on the campus loves, in the annual revival meetings.

College students are too prone to lose sight of the great matter of religion and to overvalue other things, or to grow lax in their religious life out of sheer carelessness and failure to think. It is a duty which every man owes himself to attend the meetings and, under the influence of Dr. Parker's strong preaching, to correct the mistakes of the past. The most important thing, however, is that the reawakening shall not pass with the benediction at the last meeting, but shall be permanent.

DR. W. G. BRADSHAW DEAD

In the death of Dr. W. G. Bradshaw, '75, of High Point, on January 15, Trinity lost one of its most influential alumni and trustees. Besides attaining prominence in business, Dr. Bradshaw served two terms as mayor of High Point, was for some time chairman of the Guilford County Board of Commissioners, was postmaster at the time of his death, and had for many years been a member of the Board of Trustees of the College.

FORMER STUDENTS HERE

The following former students were visitors on the campus during the period of examinations: B. S. Womble, '04, of Winston-Salem; Willis Smith, '10, of Raleigh; H. A. Hayes, '13, of Raleigh; E. R. Bond, '15, of Greensboro; Miss Lou Ola Tuttle, '11, of Burlington; Miss Mary Gorham, '12, of Fayetteville; Miss Catherine Thomas, '15, of Danville, Virginia; and W. H. Morgan, Jr., '15, of Washington.

H. G. Foard, '06, of Wilmington, special agent of the Home (Fire) Insurance Company for North and South Carolina, was a visitor on the campus last Thursday. Mr. Foard was co-founder and first editor of THE CHRONICLE.

ORATORICAL PRELIMINARY

As previously announced in the CHRONICLE, there is to be held this year for the first time a Junior Oratorical Contest for a prize of ten dollars. The first preliminary to this contest was held on January 17, nine men appearing. The final appearance will be about the first of May, whether publicly or privately has not been decided.

The entire object of this contest is to give prospective Senior orators an opportunity to be trained by Professor Pegram to some extent at least before preparation for the Wiley Gray Contest. Such preliminary training has always been found to be much needed, and from the amount of drill required for these Junior orations it is expected that considerably more finish will be obtained for the Senior orations.

Each of the judges of the first preliminary graded the speakers as they were considered best, and these grades were combined for a final standing according to this first preliminary. This standing was not given out, but will be added as a fourth judge in the final contest for determining the winner. None of the nine speakers were dropped, but all are required to write entirely new speeches and to drill with Professor Pegram for the May contest.

The following nine speakers appeared: David Brady, C. S. Bunn, F. W. Cunningham, E. C. Few, H. C. Greenburg, A. R. Reep, R. H. Shelton, J. H. Small, Jr., and H. C. West.

Professor Walter S. Lockhart, of the Trinity Law School, is soon to have printed the second edition of his book entitled Law of Evidence for North Carolina. The first edition, which was published six months ago, met with such a hearty reception that it is now exhausted, and the book is being used by about one-fourth of the lawyers in the State.

next with one field goal and three foul goals out of eight chances. Kimball, a former Trinity man, left forward during the first half, was able to secure only one field goal against the effective guarding of Captain Martin.

Line-up: Trinity—Anderson, l. f. (8); Richardson, r. f. (2); Ferrell, r. f. (4); Bunting, c. (8); Captain Martin, r. g. (21); Patton, l. g. (2).

Statesville—Brady, r. f., r. g.; Kimball, l. g. (2); Guy, l. f. (6); Wakefield, c. (5); Morrison, r. g.; Orr, l. g.

Referee, Frank Brown, '15; Timekeeper, Edwards; Scorer, Mills. Time of halves, twenty minutes. Foul goals: Martin 7 out of 12; Wakefield 3 out of 8.

ELON GAME

From the first moment of play the locals had everything going their way. It was but a brief time after the opening of the game before Trinity made the first score, and from that moment the outcome was never in doubt. It was evident throughout the whole game that the ancient rivals of Trinity and former State champions were doomed to defeat at the hands of the locals.

Both teams showed good form in the recent game, especially in passing. Elon men threw away many chances to score by taking luck shots at the goal from the middle of the floor. The visitors were unusually weak in defensive work.

Swan, who appeared for the first time in the varsity line-up as the Trinity right forward, was the star of the whole game. Besides passing well and breaking up many shots of his opponents, he threw a total of eight field goals. Captain Martin also played gilded ball. He held the opposing forward to two field goals and threw five field goals himself. Anderson was in the game at all times, although he succeeded in getting only three field goals. Lilley played a good defensive game; and Bunting threw two goals to his opposing center's one.

For the visitors R. Bradford showed stellar form. His passing was of high order and his eye at the basket was accurate. He led his team in scoring with six field goals. Beard played a good defensive game. J. Bradford and Morrison each shot two field goals.

Line-up: Trinity—Swan, r. f. (16); Anderson, l. f. (6); Bunting, c. (4); Lilley, r. g.; Captain Martin, l. g. (11).

Elon—J. Bradford, r. g. (4); Captain R. Bradford, l. f. (12); Beard, c. (2); Sorrels, r. g.; Sewell, r. g.; Smith, r. g.; Morrison, l. g. (4).

Referee, Clay, of Durham Y. M. C. A.; Scorer, Rug; Timekeeper, Lambeth; time of halves, twenty minutes. Foul goals: Martin 1 out of 5; Anderson 0 out of 1; R. Bradford 0 out of 3.

Immediately following the lecture refreshments were served, consisting of hot chocolate, sandwiches, ice-cream, and cake. On motion of Mr. W. A. Bryan, '07, principal of Fuller School, a committee composed of Mr. Bryan, representing the people of the city Mrs. R. L. Flowers, representing the ladies; and Banks Arendell representing the College, was appointed to take charge of the organization of a chapter of the Alliance here.

ARTICLE BY DR. GRAVES

Offers New Theory as to Date of Shakespeare's Pericles.

Dr. T. S. Graves, of the department of English here, has just published in Modern Philology, an article, "On the Date and Significance of Pericles," which outlines a theory upsetting the generally accepted idea as to the date of this drama. The article has been reprinted for private circulation.

In regard to the theory which he offers, Dr. Graves modestly suggests that it is "incapable of demonstration" and that "certain objections to such a theory will inevitably arise."

"Although Pericles (first published in 1609) is a play of problems," says Dr. Graves, "scholars are now virtually agreed in believing that the drama substantially as it has come down to us was acted before May 20, 1608." Dr. Graves' investigation, however, undertakes to show that "there is some reason for believing that a play on Pericles was acted by the king's company late in 1606 or early in 1607."

Bishop John C. Kilgo, of Charlotte, president emeritus of the college, spent several days on the campus during the examination period.

"Reverend Leslie Powell Howard," by President Fovell, is an appreciation of this son of Trinity and late pastor of Memorial Church, whose death, a little more than a year ago, caused sorrow to everyone who knew him directly or indirectly. The paper was read at the last session of the North Carolina Conference.

The reproduction of the Annual Commencement Program of 1877 is among the most interesting features of the issue. The names of Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court W. R. Allen and Solicitor H. E. Norris appear as commencement managers; and Dr. T. N. Ivey, now editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate, and Mr. G. W. Koonce, of the War Department, were commencement marshals. Rev. Dr. M. Bradshaw, pastor of Edenton Street Church in Raleigh, was a Junior orator. The late Governor Z. B. Vance was one of the speakers.

Walter G. Sheppard, '12, Law '14, a member of the Durham bar, writes a most interesting history of the Trinity College Law School. A brief sketch is given of the teaching of law during the early days of the College by President Craven and of the organization in 1891 of a separate Law School with Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court A. C. Avery as dean. Such prominent attorneys as Senator E. M. Simmons, Judge of Superior Court O. H. Allen, Col. John A. Barringer, G. S. Bradshaw, and Representative J. H. Small are pointed out as having been early students of law at Trinity. The article closes with a sketch of the reorganization of the Law School in 1904 with Dean Morehead at the head, and of the recent progress.

The regular departments are all well filled. The Register of Former Students contains information concerning students who entered between 1903 and 1908. The next number will contain the complete directory of former students.

JUBILANT WAKE FORESTERS CELEBRATE IN NOVEL WAY

Score of Basket Ball Game Painted on Trinity Buildings and W. F. Pennant Hoisted on Flag Pole.

Trinity students awoke last Wednesday morning to find a Wake Forest pennant on the college flag pole and the score of the basket ball game of the night before painted in every conspicuous place on the campus.

Naturally the first thought was that the Wake Forest students had "sprung a new one!" in the way of celebrations, although the Trinity authorities and students withheld judgment until evidence had been found. Members of the Wake Forest basket ball team denied any knowledge of the affair. During the day, however, a handkerchief besmeared with paint and bearing the name of a Wake Forest student and two empty paint cans bearing the label of a kind of paint which was not for sale in Durham were reported to have been found on the campus. It is said that the authorities have in their possession a towel besmeared with paint, which was found in a room occupied by three members of the visiting basket ball team.

A dispatch from Wake Forest to the state papers stated that it was generally thought that a few jubilant students of the Baptist institution came to Durham in an automobile after hearing of the victory, hoisted the Wake Forest pennant and painted up the score, and returned to Wake Forest the same night.

Most of the accounts of the affair appearing in the state papers contained flagrant misstatements of facts. These may be accounted for by the fact that they were not written by Trinity correspondents, but by down-town correspondents who had little opportunity for knowing the real facts. Chief among these incorrect statements was the story that Trinity students had prepared a coffin or a hearse for the celebration of the anticipated funeral of the visitors. Trinity students expected a victory, but had prepared no form of celebration.

It appeared at first that it would be impossible to remove the paint, but practically all of it has now been removed, although not without some damage to the buildings.

The following appeared in the Charlotte Observer yesterday under the Durham date-line of January 31: "That the Wake Forest College students who one night last week 'painted up' Trinity College should be made to pay the damage done and also to apologize is the opinion of Professor J. Henry Highsmith, of the Baptist institution, in the city on a visit to relatives today. 'Friendly athletic relations between Trinity and Wake Forest will not be impaired under any condition,' said Professor Highsmith.

"The Wake Forest man made it plain that there is no mystery about the affair, stating that all students partaking in the painting had admitted their guilt."

AVERA LECTURES IN APRIL

Series of Lectures to be Delivered By Bishop E. R. Hendrix

Announcement has recently been made to the effect that the Avera Bible Lectures will be delivered this year in the early part of April, by Bishop E. R. Hendrix, of Kansas City, Missouri.

These lectures were established as a biennial institution many years ago by Mrs. E. B. McCullers, of Clayton, in memory of her first husband, W. H. Avera. Mrs. McCullers gave an amount of money which founded the Avera Department of Biblical Literature, under the auspices of which the Avera Bible Lectures are held.

The College considers itself very fortunate in having a man of such repute as Bishop Hendrix to conduct the Avera Lectures this year. Bishop Hendrix is a graduate of Wesleyan College, Connecticut, and has won much distinction in writing. He is senior member of the College of Bishops, and is its ex officio president.

These lectures were to be given last year, but at the last moment Bishop Hendrix, who was to conduct them, was forced to cancel his engagement on account of ill health.

Many prominent ministers have conducted these lectures in the past. Among them are Bishop W. W. Duncanson, Spartanburg, S. C.; Bishop Warren A. Candler, Atlanta, Ga.; Chancellor James H. Kirkland, Nashville, Tenn.; Bishop Alphens W. Wilson, Baltimore, Md.; Bishop Charles B. Galloway, Jackson, Miss.; Dean Wilbur F. Tillett, Nashville; Franklin N. Parker, D. D., Alexandria, Louisiana; President Thornton Whaling, Columbia, S. C.

DR. F. N. PARKER HOLDS THE ANNUAL REVIVAL (Continued from Page One)

Lord." In his characteristic forceful manner Dr. Parker drew many lessons from this text. He said that although God is everywhere and ever-present, He sometimes seems far away. The reason for this feeling of remoteness is dissimilarity between the individual and God. There are times when God comes near to the sinner, special times of manifestation. When the Spirit comes, the only thing to do is to forsake sin. The speaker said further that religion is not a matter of mere sentiment; it is a great reality. It is not complex beyond the comprehension of man; it is within his reach. God sends his Spirit to help man to rise above his sin; special grace is given. When the Spirit comes, the only thing to do is to break with sin.

The subject of the sermon Tuesday morning was the text, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls." Dr. Parker said that religion is dead without Christ in it. Christ is the strong personality, the authority, that is needed to make a free and happy life. The strength of every man lies in the thing upon which he depends as his authority. When Christ offers himself, He should be accepted as authority, for men never refuse something good without being worse for the refusing. In His pure life there is redeeming power. Christ in the life of man makes him strong where he was weak. He gives to a scholar exquisite-ness, to a merchant, security, and to a statesman, a deeper sympathy for men. In Christ there is serenity, the thing that the world much needs.

Dr. Parker preached Tuesday night from the text, "His own iniquity shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins." He said that there is a tendency now-a-days to think that responsibility rests not upon individuals, but upon the masses and that we are simply carried by a current. Such thoughts are in vain. Man is by his every act building something, and it is his own will that is responsible for the thing he builds. If he is careless and indifferent, sin comes into the life and becomes a part of that life. It takes hold, increases by calling in other sin. He is bound not by one cord, but by many cords.

Much interest in the meeting has been manifested. Large audiences have listened attentively to the sermons preached with earnestness and power by Mr. North and Dr. Parker. Prayer services are being held every morning at 7:30 under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. and the Ministerial Band. Beginning tonight, prayer services are to be held at 7:00 P. M. in each section of the dormitories. The services will continue to be held throughout the week at noon and 7:30 at night.

TREES PLANTED

Along with many other improvements on the campus there have recently been planted about one hundred and fifty shade trees. Fifty of these trees are Darlington oaks, and the remaining one hundred are Pallustris oaks. Most of these trees have been set out in front of the two Duke Buildings, a few were planted at the southern end of Jarvis Hall, and others were planted near Craven Memorial Hall and the Library.

The work on the granite wall is progressing rapidly. The wall across the front has been completed except for a small space near the gate; and work was finished last week on the stretch along Broad Street to the wall of the Athletic Field. The workmen are now busy on the Guess Street section.

The work of macadamizing the northern end of the circle is also nearing completion; and the walk leading to the boarding houses north of the campus has been greatly improved.

R. G. Honeycutt, who was a member of the Class of 1915 through the fall term of the Junior year, has re-entered College.

PRE. FEW'S ADDRESS IN "THE AMERICAN COLLEGE"

Discussing the future of the Southern college, Dr. Few says, "But success in this difficult field, I believe, lies rather in magnifying the office of the teacher, and in giving to education itself a larger meaning and mission in our whole national life. Hivelings can never give the truest service. The measuring of a man by the wage scale can never lift teaching above a stale and unprofitable business. The greatness of our colleges will depend upon the elevation of the teaching profession, and the elevation of the teaching profession does not depend upon higher salaries, better technical training or more elaborate equipment, but upon giving it the proper dignity and importance in our life."

The other addresses included in the book are by President W. H. P. Faunce, Brown University; Professor Paul Shorey, University of Chicago; Dean Chas. H. Haskins, Harvard University; Professor E. G. Conklin, Princeton University; President Rush Rhees, University of Rochester; President C. F. Thwing, Western Reserve University; President J. H. Finley, University of the State of New York; President W. F. Slocomb, Colorado College; President Alexander Meiklejohn, Amherst College; and United States Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton.
