CHANTICLEER STAFF BEGINS REGULAR WORK

MONEY PLEDGED BY STUDENTS
SETS ANNUAL AGAIN
IN MOTION

STUDENTS URGED TO PAY NOTES

Debits of Organizations are Also to be Removed—Holiday to be Photographed—Plan of Book

According to the latest figures $245 was pledged by students in the campaign which has just been waged for the purpose of wiping out the Chanticleer debt. This amount, together with the $150 owed the annual by various clubs and organizations on the campus, will go a long way towards paying the debt incurred by past Chanticleers and will make it possible for the annual to be upon a much more sound financial basis than ever before.

Business Manager R. H. Bennett, Jr., when seen by a Chronicle representative last night, stated that he wished to thank the student body for their co-operation and ready response to his plea for aid and to beg their continued co-operation throughout the year. It is his earnest desire that all persons who signed Chanticleer notes will meet these notes on the date they are due, Thursday, Nov. 2, and that the clubs and organizations which are indebted to the Chanticleer will settle with him as soon as possible.

The photographing this year will be entirely in the hands of Holladay, who during the past week has been taking class pictures and campus views. All clubs and organizations and also the Seniors are urged to have their pictures taken some time this month, as the photographer absolutely refuses to do any of the Chanticleer work after December 1 on account of his extra pre-Christmas work. All county clubs, therefore, which have not yet organized should do so at once and have their pictures taken at the earliest possible date. It may be of interest to these clubs to learn that a page space, including the picture, engraving and printing, in the 1917 Chanticleer will be ten dollars.

Beginning some time this week a campaign for subscriptions for the annual will be waged by Manager Bennett and his assistants. Formerly students have been signing for annuals and paying the entire three dollars when they secured their annual. As a result many persons who signed never called for their books but allowed them to remain in the book room unsold. Under the new plan to be tried this year, there will be no left-over annuals because a person pays a dollar down when he signs the agreement to take a copy of the Chanticleer. The other two dollars are not to be paid until the copy of the Chanticleer is received, but the earlier payment of the one dollar assured this later payment of two dollars.

Editor-in-chief J. H. Burrus has been one of the busiest men on the campus for the last several weeks. He has already designed the cover

JUNIORS MEET AND MAKE MERRY IN ANNUAL EVENT

CLASS OF '18 HOLDS SOCIAL IN CELEBRATION OF HALLOWEEN

With the basement of the West Duke Building decorated with Halloween lanterns and class colors, the Junior class on last Monday evening held the first of the class social events of the year.

President Gwyn, acting as toastmaster, impressed upon the assembly the presence of the spirits of Halloween and imparted to the atmosphere a supernatural tinge by inviting the spirits of Halloween to commune with the spirits of '18.

W. K. Carr responded to a toast on class spirit.

R. W. Giles responded in behalf of athletics, gave a short history of athletics in the Junior Class. He showed wherein the Junior Class had taken a momentous part in the athletic activities of the College and mentioned some of the laurels which she had carried off since her sojourn on the Park.

E. M. Spivey, in order to give to the occasion a serious aspect, read "Mark Twain and the Interviewer." Mrs. C. L. Hornaday also gave several readings which were a source of much entertainment and pleasure to all present.

Miss Kathleen Bain presided at the punch bowl. Refreshments, consisting of cream and cake, were also served. Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Boyd, Professor and Mrs. R. N. Wilson, and Professor and Mrs. C. L. Hornaday acted as chaperones for the occasion.

SENIORS-FRESHMEN

In one of the hardest fought class games ever played on the local court, the Seniors defeated the Freshmen 30 to 23 in the second game of the interclass series played last Friday night.

Close and effective guarding, accurate passing, and difficult goal shooting filled the whole game with thrills and interest. An unusual amount of "pep" was present from the very first sound of the referee's whistle until the last moment of play. Every man on both teams was in the game at all times and fought with every ounce of strength on every play. For one so hard fought, the game was unusually clean, the number of fouls called for unnecessary roughness being very small.

Both teams played such a kind of ball that to pick out individual stars would be a difficult matter. For the Seniors, Anderson was in the game every moment and by securing three goals in the last half contributed much towards the victory. Roth, like Anderson, scored three goals, all of which were made on difficult shots, in the last half. He secured one goal in the first half, made good at shooting fouls six times out of eleven chances, and did much towards bringing victory to his team by his fast floor-work and clever handling of the ball. Captain Mayes also played a strong game at center for the Seniors, securing four field goals and holding Groome, the big Freshman center, to two. LeGrand and Bunn, at guards, displayed clever blocking and accurate passing and broke up many plays of the opposing team. In fact, the whole Senior team played excellent ball.

For the Freshmen, Tomlin and Groome probably played the best game. Tomlin, besides playing a strong defensive game, pocketed the ball twice and made good at shooting fouls thirteen times out of twenty chances. Groome scored two field goals and was particularly effective in breaking up possessions of the opposing team. Brushingham, who took Starling's place at left forward in the first half, secured the only other field goal credited to them. Moore and Durant, the two Freshman guards, played strong defensive games and rushed into every play with "pep" and vim. The Freshman team, however, did not play as steady a game as did the Seniors, but at times appeared to be extremely nervous on the floor.

TRINITY RACKETEERS WIN ONE MATCH AND LOSE TWO

OVERWHELM RANDOLPH-MACON AND LOSE TWICE TO CAROLINA

In the three tennis matches which the Trinity team has engaged in thus far during the present season, the odds have been against the locals. Two matches with Carolina were lost and one with Randolph-Macon was easily won. A brief account of each match follows:

TRINITY VS. CAROLINA

The first match of the year was played Thursday between Carolina and Trinity, in which the visitors were victorious. Combs and Herty represented Carolina, while Young and Larkin composed the home team. Young defeated Combs in the first single by a score of 6-0; 6-2. Herty defeated Larkin 6-4; 6-4. The doubles were rather slow and resulted in a victory for Carolina 3-0; 6-4; 6-4. Young starred in the singles and easily defeated his opponent. Larkin and Herty were well matched, and only after two hard-fought sets, was Herty victorious. The match was refereed by Cunningham and Few, Trinity.

TRINITY VS. RANDOLPH-MACON

On Friday Trinity came back with lots of "pep," and easily defeated Randolph-Macon in both singles and doubles. Newton and Swift represented Randolph-Macon;

BISHOP KILGO ASKS AID OF FRIENDS OF TRINITY

INTERESTED FRIENDS INVITED TO MAKE CONTRIBUTIONS TO GYM FUND

Bishop John C. Kilgo has recently drawn up a letter which is to be sent to all the friends of the College and which is to solicit their aid in the construction of the new gymnasium. This letter, in part, follows:

Just twenty-five years ago Trinity College was moved to Durham N. C. This quarter of a century in her life of the College has been a period of nothing less than a marvelous growth. There is nothing like it in the educational history of our region. It is now recognized as the most attractive college plant in the southeast, and has the abiding devotion of hosts and hosts of friends.

It has never been the disposition of Trinity College to publish her deeds of service to others, and in this she has followed the true standard of such service. She has not aided youth and then capitalized her assistance. Such a policy is always distasteful, but at this time I do not think it a violation of her spirit to say Trinity College has been in the field of education unsurpassed in her benedictions.

There is another aspect of the work of Trinity College which gives her a most exalted place. She is the creature of the Methodist people in North Carolina, and stands as representative of the patriotic devotion these Methodist citizens have to the highest wel-

VARSITY BASKETBALL PRACTICE IS NOW ON

CAPTAIN MARTIN CALLS OUT
CANDIDATES FOR TEAM
ON MONDAY

FOUR LETTER MEN FORM NUCLEUS

Captain Martin, Patton, Ferrell, and Swan Again on Court—Much Good Material Out—As to Schedule

At the first regular basketball practice for the varsity, which Captain "Hip" Martin called for last Monday afternoon, twenty-five men appeared and signed the usual pledge of abstinence for the remainder of the season. This number is expected to increase with the addition of various freshmen try-outs who have been going through signal practice for the past few days prior to the Freshman-Sophomore game of last night.

From the showing made in the first two practices by the men of last year's squad who are again in College and by several new candidates, it appears that Trinity's chances for an unusually good team for the coming season are excellent. Captain Martin is very much pleased with his material and expresses himself as being quite sanguine as to the outlook.

To form a nucleus for a team this season, four letter men are again on the court. These are Captain Martin, Patton, Ferrell, and Swan. Captain Martin has been with the team for the two past seasons and has served already one term as pilot of Trinity's quintet. In recognition of his services as a good all-around guard, he was last season awarded a place on the All-State team. Patton has, since his entrance into College, played creditably in several class series and he was last year one of the three guards on the varsity five. Ferrell, former star forward of the team representing the class of '16 and one of the regular forwards of the varsity last season, is back to contest for his position on this year's squad. Swan, also of class basketball fame, pilot of his team last season, and regular of the varsity basketball last year, is getting into his old time form for the coming season.

Mayes, sub-center of the quint last year, although he did not succeed in getting a "T", proved a valuable replacer of the impregnable Bunting. He is piloting the seniors this year and is getting into good condition to rush somebody for the central position on this year's squad. Long, captain of the juniors, and LeGrand, of the seniors, are playing exceptionally well at guard and promise to make a strenuous race for regular positions. Among other old class men trying out for places on the team are Roth, Bennett, Bunn, Harris, Caviness, and Arendell, of the Seniors; Groome, Moore, Durant, Tomlin, Brushingham, Starling, and Hornaday, of the Freshmen; and Falls, of the Juniors.

Manager Smith has not as yet been able to arrange a definite schedule, but he is practically as-

EDITORIAL

After a threatened night of silence, the Chanticleer has again started crowing.

Well, we are at least to be thankful for the warm weather which we are having during this coal famine.

We can readily sympathize with the freshman who presented his blanket ticket at the College office and called for the bed covering which he thought was due him.

Is it fear or a lack of confidence that is keeping the freshman from attending the initial basketball practices? Come on out, freshies, you have as much chance as any of the rest of 'em.

There are two things that Trinity can be said to have: no band and no glee club. But we are optimistic and believe that the students who are musically inclined are not going to permit the dying out of these two important factors.

NEEDED SPIRIT

Regular practice for another basketball season has begun; the campus watches and waits—watches the progress of try-outs and waits to see what showing Trinity will this year make with her opponents.

Captain Martin has some unusually good material, both new and old, to pick from; negotiations are now on for procuring the service of a good coach; and in every way the outlook for a successful season is extraordinarily bright.

Just as the beginning of another basketball season is at hand, so the dawn of a new day of the spirit of loyalty on the part of the students, it is to be hoped, is drawing near. Heretofore we have had a mere simmering loyalty for our athletic teams; we haven't shown the squads that we are really behind them. We ought to display, on the other hand, a bubbling spirit of patriotism. Other colleges as large as ours give vent in one way or the other to a true feeling of patriotism. They have college songs, original yells, rooters' clubs, and other such agents for exhibiting their staunch support. We haven't these things and therefore show very little spirit of backing.

And the question is invariably asked why the people of Durham don't offer any support to our athletic contests. "Charity begins at home" and so does college spirit. The townspeople fail to show any interest in our teams because we ourselves are guilty of the same fault.

It is high time now that these conditions were changing. We desire and the College needs successful athletics. No childish manifestation of support such as we have had in the past will bring about this change. Trinity students must show that their blood runs hot for Trinity and their interests; that their defeat is their defeat and their victory, their victory.

Let us wake up! Let us all join in and help revive that spirit of long ago when students, professors, friends, alumni, and townspeople used to come out in enthusiastic mobs and see "Bob" Gantt fan two out of every three opposing batters! Let us all get together and climb out of this pit of indifference and deadliness, into which we have fallen! Surely the despicable jinx, who has been harbored here for so long, will not be able to carry on his mischief in the new atmosphere which such a resurrection will create.

FRIENDS NOW AID

Bishop Kilgo recently took another step toward securing aid for the erection of Trinity's new gymnasium. This was his drawing up of a letter of solicitation to be sent to the friends of the College.

This fact goes to show that the Bishop's proposed gymnasium was by no means a dream. He is working diligently for this improvement as he has for many other improvements of the College. And considering the support his assiduous efforts are gaining from the devoted sons of Trinity, it is safe to say that the new letter will call forth the hearty backing of the hosts of sincere and unselfish friends which Trinity is proud of having.

In behalf of the entire community, the Chronicle takes this fitting opportunity to repeat our deep appreciation to Bishop Kilgo for his endeavors to further our interests and to express our gratitude to those friends of the College who are coming forward to aid in the construction of the gymnasium.

STATE AND COUNTY CLUBS

On Thursday night, October 26, the Tennessee Club met in room 104 Aycock Hall. The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Percy C. Young, Memphis; vice-president, H. L. Hoffman, Paris; secretary and treasurer, C. C. Alexander, Martin; chairman of social committee, R. C. Barrow, Columbia.

Other members of the organization are: Dr. C. A. Moore, Trenton; G. E. Spangler, Humboldt; E. E. McLenore, Jr., Columbia; Millard Thompson, Cleveland; J. E. Gilreath, Columbia; Harle Wilson, Cleveland; Guy C. Chambers, Fulton; Martin Chambers, Fulton; Frank Chappell, Shuems; J. K. Maddin, Nashville; and Newell Fowler, Memphis.

The purpose of the organization is to aid in securing students from Tennessee to come to Trinity. During the past summer, the Club did some active work through its corresponding secretary and individual members. As a result of this effort, the number of students from the Volunteer State has increased seventy five per cent over that of last year. The work of prospective students for next year has already been taken up by having the Trinity Chronicle sent to the reading rooms of several preparatory and high schools over the state.

The Rutherford College Club held its first meeting of the year last night, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, R. M. Phillips; vice-president, John Cline; secretary, I. McNeely; and treasurer, I. L. Shaver.

The Club has this year in all twenty-four members, as follows: John Cline, Thos. Higgins, Lester McNeely, Hix Cherry, D. H. Peeler, Lindsay Frazier, M. F. Teeter, D. A. Clark, Ed. Earnhardt, Geo. Earnhardt, J. M. Groves, R. M. Phillips, O. T. Bradley, Chas. Poe, W. A. Rollins, I. L. Shaver, B. C. Reeves, A. R. Reep, Roy Giles, A. G. Honeycutt, Joseph Brendall, C. G. Falls, H. G. Love, and E. C. Clegg.

K. A. INSPECTOR VISITS

Miss Elizabeth Corbett, of Jacksonville, Florida, the materials inspector of the Kappa Delta Sorority and editor of the Angelos, was the guest of Sigma Delta chapter of Kappa Delta last week.

On Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Cranford, Kappa Delta gave a tea to the members of all the sororities in honor of Miss Corbett. On Wednesday evening at the Woman's Building, Alpha Delta Pi entertained informally for Miss Corbett. On Thursday evening Miss Corbett was one of Kappa Delta's honor guests at a box party at The Princess Pat.

of the annual and decided upon the color scheme and plan of the book. According to his plan, the book is to have a semi-flexible back or cover of green leather, and the design upon the cover is to be an adaptation of the Doric architecture of the entrance to the Main Building. Green will be the color scheme used throughout the entire volume. Even the fly leaves and department sheets will be run in sunburnt paper with a green cloud effect throughout. The plan of the book will in all probability embrace six departments: classes, athletics, activities, organizations, fraternities, and feature. Special attention will be given this year to the feature department. This department will be given over entirely to jokes, cartoons, kodak views and humorous sketches.

All Freshmen and Sophomores who wish to try out for athletic managerships will please report to Professor Wilson or J. W. Smoot before Friday.

All students who have not secured blanket tickets from the Athletic Council may get them upon application to the following men: seniors, J. W. Smoot, juniors, J. A. Bolich, sophomores, C. W. Toms, freshmen, Roy Giles.

FRESHMEN-SOPHS

In a game featured by the goal-shooting of the Freshmen, the Sophomores were overwhelmingly defeated by the class of '20 last night by the score of 58 to 22.

The Freshmen put up a much better class of basketball than in the game on Friday night. The first half was intensely interesting, neither side seeming to have any advantage over the other until near the end of the half when the freshmen began to strike their stride, the half ending 24 to 18.

Scoring 28 of his team's points, Captain Groome, of the freshmen, was easily the star of the game. He threw nine field goals in the first half and five in the second, and held his opponent to two in the first and scoreless in the second. Durant, at left guard, and Starling who replaced him in the second half each secured four field goals. Tomlin, right forward, pocketed the ball twice for field goals, and threw six fouls out of nine chances. Hornaday and Moore each secured one goal.

Elliott, at right forward, led in scoring for the Sophomores with four field goals. He was replaced near the end of the second half by Thomas who failed to score. Aldridge, left forward, secured two field goals and threw one foul out of three chances. Corpening, at center, threw two field goals in the first half, but his opponent kept him so busy in the second that he failed to score. Captain McCutcheon secured one field goal, and McMullen threw three fouls out of four attempts. After the freshmen struck their stride in the second game, the sophomores were hopelessly outclassed from every point of the game.

TRINITY RACKETEERS WIN ONE MATCH AND LOSE TWO (Continued from Page One)

Young and Larkin, Trinity. In the first single Newton was defeated by Swift, 6-1; 6-1; in the second Swift was defeated by Larkin, 9-6; 6-6. The doubles were fully as disastrous to Randolph-Macon since they went down in defeat by a score of 4-6; 1-6. Newton for Randolph-Macon had a good serve, but was not always able to get it inside the receiving court. Both Trinity men played star games, and should be highly commended on their work.

CAROLINA VS. TRINITY

The third match of the week was played with Carolina at Chapel Hill, Tuesday. Trinity put up a hard fight, but was defeated in the doubles and one of the singles. Young, of Trinity, defeated Combs, of Carolina, 6-4; 6-4. Herty, of Carolina, defeated Larkin, of Trinity, 6-1; 6-2. In the doubles Carolina was victorious by a score of 2-6; 6-4; 6-3. The singles were fast and interesting. Young did good work for Trinity, while Herty started for Carolina. The game was attended by a large and enthusiastic audience.

POLITICS CONTINUE ON BIG BOOM AROUND CAMPUS

The Wilson-Bickett Democratic Club of Trinity College met at the flag pole on last Wednesday evening immediately following the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and marched in a body down to the Academy of Music where Hon. T. W. Bickett, the democratic candidate for governor, delivered an eloquent address on the political issues of the day. The balcony had been reserved for the Club, and some three hundred were there to fill the seats.

On Saturday night the Club met at Craven Memorial Hall at seven o'clock and observed Wilson Day. Immediately following the reading of President Wilson's "Address to his Countrymen" by R. H. Shelton, the Club marched in a body to the temporary court-room down town, and heard an address by Hon. O. Max Gardner, the democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor.

The Hughes Alliance at Trinity is also active in its support of the Republican Party. Last night the members of the Alliance attended a meeting of the Republican party down town, where Hon. Thomas Settle and Jake Newell delivered eloquent addresses in support of the party.

CLASSICAL CLUB INITIATES

At the regular meeting of the Classical Club last Thursday evening, the annual initiation of new members took place. The meeting was conducted by President C. W. Poppler.

The following new men were taken in: R. W. Bradshaw, E. P. C. Craft, R. M. Cannon, S. E. Delap, H. L. Hoffman, R. M. Price, and C. W. Toms, Jr.

ADVANCE IN PRICE

On account of the very great advance in price of the paper stock from which they are made it is impossible to sell notebooks and similar supplies at the same prices this year as formerly. The stock of bluebooks purchased for last year is now exhausted. These were sold at the old price as long as they lasted. The price of the new stock will be: two for 5c; five for 10c; thirteen for 25c.

BISHOP KILGO ASKS AID OF FRIENDS OF TRINITY

fare of the state and an undeniable illustration of their faith in higher education. The state owes Trinity College a lasting debt of gratitude.

The administration and the Alumni have decided to celebrate this quarter-centennial year by erecting a new, adequate, and complete gymnasium. The plans have been prepared, the general architectural style of which follows the Craven Memorial Hall, a gift of the Alumni to their College. Already the sons of the College have set in motion this enterprise, and many have subscribed to it. The letters written by the sons of the College expressing their enthusiasm for their Alma Mater are full of inspiration, and their subscriptions abound with devotion to her. It is the wish of all that every alumnus and every friend who is not an alumnus will join heartily in this celebration of the twenty-fifth year of Trinity in her new home. It should be done with enthusiasm. The handsome buildings which adorn the campus have been gifts of individuals to the College, except the Craven Memorial Hall, and as an expression of our appreciation of all her good fortune, I ask all the sons and all the friends of the College to unite in this glad celebration.
