ATHLETIC COUNCIL HAS FIRST MEETING OF YEAR

SANCTIONS ATHLETICS AND ELECTS VARIOUS MANAGERS

Full Attendance Marks Related Meeting—New Members from Alumni and Student Body Appear in Personnel of Council

The election of managers for the various branches of athletics and the official sanctioning of intercollegiate athletics for the present year comprised the work of the new Athletic Council at its first meeting of the year last Monday night.

As a result of the managerial elections, the following men now head the various branches of athletics at Trinity: J. A. Bolich, of Winston-Salem, manager of baseball; T. M. Wannamaker, of Orangeburg, S. C., assistant manager of baseball; F. M. Wannamaker, of St. Matthews, S. C., manager of basketball; J. H. Harrison, of Littleton, N. C., assistant manager of basketball; R. H. Durham, of Siler City, manager of track; assistant managers yet to be elected; P. F. Evans, of Lexington, N. C., manager of tennis; N. W. White, of Norfolk, Va., assistant manager of tennis. The Council also chose Earl Long, of Spray, N. C., temporary captain of the basketball team.

The Council went on record as being heartily in favor of intercollegiate athletic but of being especially in favor of building up a strong system of athletics within the college itself. This position of the Council is clearly set forth in statement signed by a representative of that body and published elsewhere in the Chronicle.

Now that the various heads have been elected, active preparations will be begun at once for assuring the success of all forms of athletics for the year 1917-18. Class basketball practice has already started, and the interclass schedule will be announced at an early date. As every man in college is eligible for the class teams this year and as every contestant for a position will be kept in condition in that way, regular varsity practice will not begin at the usual early date. The interclass baseball series will be continued according to the changed schedule announced in this issue of the Chronicle.

The personnel of the Council has changed considerably since last year. The present Council is composed as follows: from the faculty, Dean W. H. Wannamaker, Prof. R. L. Flowers, and Prof. R. N. Wilson; from the Alumni, Dr. Arch Cheatham; '85, J. E. Pegram, '99, H. G. Hedrick, '11, who replaces J. H. Huebake, and W. B. Bolich, '17, who takes the place of C. B. West; from the student body, M. S. Lewis, '18, A. L. Carver, '19, S. T. Carson, '20, H. P. Cole, '21. At the meeting last Monday, this body elected the following officers: president, Dr. Arch Cheatham; Vice-President, H. G. Hedrick; Secretary, M. S. Lewis; treasurer, J. E. Pegram; chairman of executive committee, Prof. R. N. Wilson.

RIFLE CLUB IS ORGANIZED AMONG TRINITY STUDENTS

PERMANENT OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED AT EARLY DATE

The first meeting of the Trinity Rifle Club was held in the Economics room on last Thursday evening. A plan for the organization of a Rifle Club at Trinity was submitted to the men present by Professor W. H. Hall, and by a unanimous vote it was decided that the formation of such a club be undertaken.

The officers of the club are to be elected at the next meeting, and will consist of a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Captain, who, acting together, will constitute the Executive Committee. They will be elected by popular vote, and will hold office for one

STUDENTS TO PRESENT PETITION TO FACULTY

ASK FOR MORE DRILL AND CREDIT FOR THREE HOUR COURSE

A petition drawn up by the student body of the college, providing for more drill work and eliminating any three hour course of study, was circulated on the campus last Monday. The petition was very enthusiastically received by the student body; at the present time approximately two hundred signatures have been secured, and it is expected that practically the entire corps of cadets will sign the document before its presentation to the faculty.

The petition points out the fact that Trinity is not holding her own with other colleges of the state in this phase of college work. The necessity of military drill is stressed as an all-important factor in preparing students for present world conditions, and that whereas the regular prescribed drill course is inadequate to bring about the necessary training, a more thorough course is desired. In order to lighten the regular college work, it asked that all students who take this drill be allowed to discontinue any three hour course in the academic department. It is hoped in this way to provide more efficiency in the military course prescribed by the college and at the same time to facilitate the pursuance of such a course by the elimination of a part of the college work.

The usual drill program has been continued for the past week under the direction of Prof. W. H. Hall, and the newly formed

HESPERIA ENTERTAINS IN HONOR NEW MEN

MUSICAL NUMBERS AND READINGS FEATURES OF PROGRAM

Tribute Paid to Members of Society New in Active Service—Hall Decorated in Patriotic Colors for Occasion

The 66th annual reception of the Hesperian Literary Society on last Friday evening proved to be one of the most brilliant social events of the season.

Immediately after their entrance, the guests were handed printed programs by little Miss Elizabeth Card, dressed as a Red Cross nurse. The society hall was timely decorated with flags. Red, White, and Blue crepe paper was suspended from the walls. The patriotic color scheme was also carried out in the lights.

Contrary to the usual custom of having a toastmaster, the program this year was a rather novel one. After the guests had assembled in the hall, President R. L. Fisher, delivered the address of welcome. Speaking on Hesperia and Old Glory he told of the merits of the Society and the contributions she had made for the sake of the cause. High tribute was paid to those members who were not able to return to college this year because they were engaged in the active service of the country.

The next number on the program was a piano solo by Eugene C. Craft, of the Trinity Glee Club. Mr. Craft played Chopin's Military Polonaise in a manner characterized by its broadness of tone.

Mrs. C. L. Hornaday, wife of Professor C. L. Hornaday, of the department of Romance Languages, gave a reading entitled "A Telephone Romance." The reading was very humorous and entertaining.

"Ever a Song," a vocal solo by Miss Rosa Mae Warren, formerly of the Durham Conservatory of Music and now a student in Trinity, was one of the most enjoyable features of the program. Miss Warren's voice was exceptionally good, and she graciously responded to an encore.

"The Trials of the Night Before the Wedding" was another reading rendered by Mrs. W. W. Card, wife of Director of Physical Education, W. W. Card. Mrs. Card's dramatic ability was clearly demonstrated by her performance and this number was especially enjoyed by all.

The last number on the program was a vocal solo by Mr. W. L. Lindsey, a resident of Ohio, now at the Durham Conservatory

SOPHOMORES DOWN SENIORS IN CLASS GAME

BEST GAME OF CLASS SERIES RESULTS IN DEFEAT FOR SENIORS

In the most exciting game of the present interclass series the Sophomores humbled the Seniors yesterday afternoon to the tune of 7 to 6.

Courtesy and Saunders, of the fourth year men, furnished the sensational fielding stunts of the game with a one-handed stab and a long running catch. For the Sophs, Carson, McArthur, and Burrows featured in the field, Carson with a single and a double and Burrows and Lewis with doubles led in the stick work.

A combination of base on balls, hits, and errors gave the Sophomores a run in the first frame and another in the second. Several consecutive hits contributed another run in the fourth and one in the fifth. A base on balls, a stolen base, a sacrifice, and two consecutive hits gave the second year men counters in the seventh. Their last run came in the eighth as the result of a pass to McWhorter, two errors, and a single.

Caviness scored the first two runs for the Seniors. In the first frame and again the third he received a base on balls, stole second, was advanced to third on an error, and was sacrificed home. In

9019 TO GIVE ANNUAL DECLAMATION CONTEST

HONORARY SOCIETY DECIDES TO CONTINUE ANNUAL CONTEST

That the annual declamation contest for high schools and preparatory students should be continued this year at the regular time and under the same general rules and conditions, was the decision reached by the 9019, the local scholarship and patriotic organization which inaugurated the contest seven years ago and has conducted it ever since that time, at a meeting of that organization held last Thursday.

A publicity campaign to assure the success of the 1917 contest was begun on the day after the decision to have a contest this year had been reached. On that day printed pamphlets, containing an announcement of the contest, the rules governing it, and an urgent invitation to send a representative every high school in North Carolina, and to many such schools in Virginia and South Carolina. This publicity campaign, carried on by means of various pamphlets, letters, and cards, will be continued until only a few days before Thanksgiving, the date on which the actual contest will take place.

At the meeting last Thursday a committee, consisting of F. C. Caviness, H. W. Kendall, R. L. Fisher, H. L. Hoffman, and R. W. Bradshaw, was placed in charge of all arrangements for the contest. This committee will wage the publicity campaign, but will have associated with it in the wroking out of the final plans for

TRINITY STUDENTS TO WAGE BOND CAMPAIGN

FIRST COLLEGE IN U. S. TO UNDERTAKE PATRIOTIC WORK

Committee Appointed to Decide Upon Definite Plan—Mass Meeting of Student Body to be Held to Stimulate Interest

That Trinity will be the first college in the United States in which students, individually or collectively, will further the Liberty Loan Campaign seems likely. A group of representative students met with a member of the faculty committee appointed to conduct the campaign in this section of Durham last night, and as a result of this conference plans are now on foot which provide for a whirlwind campaign and sale of Liberty Bonds on the Trinity campus within the next ten days.

Whether the campaign and sale will be worked through the various student organizations, through the classes, through the individual students, or through all these decided. Dean W. H. Wannamaker, the representative from the faculty committee, suggested at the meeting last night that the classes, or the two literary societies, or the student organizations each purchase a bond, and it seems probable that the campaign will be worked out along one of these lines. Individual students, however, will also be given a chance to purchase a bond.

The faculty committee through Dean Wannamaker, its temporary chairman, appointed a committee representing every organization of any importance on the campus last night. This committee, of which H. P. Newman, the originator of the student campaign idea, was chosen chairman, will meet Friday night at 7:30 in the Economics Room for the purpose of working out a definite plan for the campaign. It is probable that a mass meeting of the student body will be called at an early date and the whole matter placed before them for consideration.

The preliminary plans and the angle from which the campaign will be conducted will be threshed out by the student committee at the meeting Friday night. This committee, in conjunction with the faculty committee composed of President W. P. Few, Dean W. H. Wannamaker, and Prof. R. L. Flowers and E. C. Brooks, will have complete supervision of the whole campaign. According to a tentative plan, the campaign will consist of a committee meeting Friday night, a mass meeting of the student body at which several competent speakers will deliver addresses Monday night, and the actual sale of bonds Tuesday and Wednesday. Full announcement, however, will be made later.

At the meeting of the Ministerial Band last Friday evening, the new constitution and by-laws were read. After they had been voted upon and adopted by the Band, the election of officers was held. W. G. McFarland was elected president; B. O. Merritt, vice-president; I. L. Shaver, secretary and treasurer.

Communications and items of educational interest are solicited from Alumni. The writer's full name should accompany all communications, which must be of length proportionate to the space of THE CHRON.

Checks and money orders should be made payable to the business manager, and all Business Communications should be addressed to him. All subscriptions and bills for advertisements are payable before the first of February.

And the Trinity delegation welcomed Governor Bickett last night—quite a noisy welcome he got, but one true and sincere.

Free drinking water to thirsty students is the latest contribution of the college to suffering humanity. At this late date no limit has been placed upon the amount to be drunk by each student daily. No restriction whatever—wonderful, isn't it?

The petition requesting more drill, which is now being circulated on the campus, clearly shows the patriotic spirit prevalent among Trinity students. The petition and the dissatisfaction which it bespeaks with the present light military program testify that Trinity men mean business and that they have the good of their college and their country at heart. That credit for this additional heavy work should be demanded is only just, natural, and logical. Human nature and reason both support this demand.

IN THE LEAD

Again Trinity has assumed the lead in the collegiate world—this time in the waging of a campaign for the sale of Liberty Bonds among the student body. Such a campaign, though previously waged with unusual vigor in all towns, cities, and commercial communities, has never been attempted in a college community and conducted by students on their own initiative.

At present it is unknown as to the exact nature of the campaign. A committee representing every student organization on the campus has been appointed, and through this representative body as a medium, the matter will be worked out and placed before the whole student body. Just whether an attempt to canvass every individual student will be made or whether the sale of bonds will center around the student organizations, the various classes, or the literary societies, has not yet been decided. The present committee which has the matter in charge will confer with a committee from the faculty at the earliest possible date, work out the most feasible plan, and present it to the student body for approval at a mass meeting to be called for that purpose. Several competent speakers will be present at this meeting, explain the benefits to be derived from the bonds, and make clear how they may be paid for.

Whatever plan of campaign may be decided upon is now a matter of small consequence. The fact that Trinity has assumed the lead over other colleges in this matter and that the campaign must be successfully carried through to the very end, should be sufficient to arouse the co-operation and interest of every student male and female, on the campus. Patriotism, true Americanism, to say nothing of college spirit and loyalty, demands that the Liberty Bonds be subscribed to as liberally as possible.

The Chronicle feels sure that Trinity students will stand by "Uncle Sam" and "Old Glory" during this present crisis. As evinced by the intense interest displayed in military drill and by the large number of men who have left college in the past to enter some branch of the service, no more patriotic body will be found than the several hundred students on the Trinity campus. There are other ways than fighting to display loyalty and love of country, and of these other ways none is a more genuine test of a true-hearted Americanism than a devoted sacrifice represented by the dollars and cents put into a Liberty Bond.

When the proper time arrives and the canvass is made on the campus, make some sacrifice, "do your bit", and prove your loyalty to the government by purchasing a Liberty Bond. Such a purchase means that you have actively entered the war, for you will be helping "a fighter fight." Probably that very fighter whom you are helping fight will be an old Trinity man. Hadn't thought about such a thing, had you? Both as an investment and an act of patriotism and loyalty, the purchase of a Liberty Bond should be carefully considered by every student and every organization on the campus. The government calls—now will you answer the call? The whole matter is left entirely with you.

STATEMENT FROM ATHLETIC COUNCIL

At a regular meeting last night of the Athletic Council of the College attended by practically the full membership it was decided to stress this year especially intra college athletics and to make provision for holding as many contests of this kind in all forms of college sports as possible. This year seemed to the Council a most opportune time for building up at Trinity this sort of contests in order to draw into all forms of athletics a large number of our students. It is hoped by the Council that so much same and helpful interest in athletics of this nature can be aroused as to attract a much larger number of students into the various branches of sport than has heretofore been the case in most of our colleges. Full announcement will be made later as to just what steps will be taken to secure the hoped for results.

Besides planning these contests to take place between various teams of the college in the several sports, the Council also put itself on record as being in favor of preparing for a more limited than usual schedule of games between our college and other institutions. Provision will be made at once for training a team in basketball, and the manager of this branch of sport has been empowered to arrange a schedule. The Council, however, does not think it is best to have as full a schedule as has been the case heretofore. The reason for this position is self-evident. Managers of other teams have also been elected, and the Council assumes the position that preparations ought also to be made for intercollegiate games in these branches. Should events during the year make it seem unwise to have such intercollegiate games, the proper steps can be easily taken to make a change in arrangements.

The Council, therefore, hopes that all students of the College interested in sports and a large number who have heretofore not participated in some form of sport will at once enter actively into training for that branch for which they are best fitted and in which it would seem they can do their best work.

M. S. Lewis,
Secretary of Council.

ALUMNI REGISTER ELECTION

At a recent meeting of the Managing Board of the Trinity Alumni Register, the following editors were elected for the ensuing year: Prof. C. L. Hornaday, managing editor; Prof. R. L. Flowers, E. C. Brooks, Holland Holton, Mr. H. E. Spence, Field Secretary for the Eastern North Carolina Conference with headquarters in the East Duke Building, and Rev. H. M. North, pastor of Memorial Church in this city.

The October number of the Register is now on the press, and it is expected that it will be out within the next week. The Register will contain matters relative to the participation of the Trinity Alumni in the war as well as the regular contributed articles which usually appear in the magazine. One of the chief features of this number will be a reminiscent letter from Dr. John Spencer Bassett of the class of '88. Prof. E. C. Brooks will also continue his biography of the life of Braxton Craven. Every effort has been made by the Managing Board to make this first number of the Alumni Register one of the best issues of the year.

W. S. Lee, ex-'16, of Monroe, N. C., was last week married to Miss Maggie Yorke Houston, of the same town. For several months Mr. Lee has held a responsible position with the Efrid chain of department stores and has only recently been placed in charge of the new store opened at High Point by the Efrid Company.

J. O. Erwin, '16, and E. K. Patterson, ex-'17, have completed the course in the Aviation School in Atlanta. Erwin was a recent visitor on the campus.

9019 TO GIVE DECLAMATION CONTEST

the contest several other committees, yet to be announced, in order that minute details of the plan may be so perfected that the various contestants need meet with no expense and trouble during their stay on the campus.

The 9019, as a whole, wishes the co-operation of every student on the campus in making the contest this year, despite the existing unsettled conditions throughout the state, the most successful one of its kind yet given. Especially is the committee in charge anxious that every high school in the state should receive notice that the contest will be held. If there is any man on the campus who thinks that there is a possibility that the school from which he came has been neglected or overlooked in the publicity campaign, he would do the committee a great favor by handing to one of its members the name of his school.

Students may also contribute much to the success of the whole affair by writing a personal letter to the school superintendent back home, acquainting him with the merits of the contest, and urging him to send a representative to Trinity when the proper time, November 30, arrives.

FRESHMAN ELECTION

The class of 1921 held its first meeting in the Y. M. C. hall on Tuesday afternoon. The class officers for the coming year were elected, and consist of the following students: A. P. Flythe, Vice-President; Aubrey Wiggins, Secretary; Mary Blair Maury, Treasurer; L. B. Hathaway, Representative to the Athletic Council.

A few plans for this year's work were discussed. A committee to select the class colors was appointed, and will report at the next meeting.

President W. P. Few, Dean W. H. Wannamaker, and Prof. W. W. Peele all spent Sunday out of the city. President Few attended the dedication of the new Front Street Methodist Church at Burlington by Bishop Collins Denny, of Richmond, Va. Dean Wannamaker made the principal address at the Rally Day services of the Presbyterian Church, at Graham. Prof. Peele was the speaker at the West End Methodist Church, Winston-Salem.

Under the leadership of Captain H. Y. Edgerton, practically all of the Trinity College and Trinity Park School students marched down to hear Governor T. W. Bickett deliver his address in behalf of the Liberty Loan Campaign last night.

year. Members of the faculty as well as students will be allowed to hold office.

The object of the Trinity Rifle Club is to get the students of Trinity interested in shooting. The organization is to be a part of the National Rifle Association, and will compete with other Colleges for national prizes. In the near future the shooting will be done with small bore rifles, but later those of larger caliber will perhaps be substituted. Definite plans have not been arranged as to where the practice shooting will be held. It is thought, however, that the armory on Main Street will be used for the present at least. Every man in college is invited to join the club, and to help Trinity win a name as producing some of the best marksmen in the state.

RELIGIOUS CELEBRATION TO BE HELD OCTOBER 31

The fourth centennial anniversary of the nailing of the ninety-five Theses on the church door at Wittenburg by Martin Luther will be celebrated in Craven Memorial Hall on the evening of October 31. Prof. W. H. Wannamaker will speak treating of, "Luthers Influence on the German Language and Literature," and Dr. W. K. Boyd, will speak on, "The Influence of Luther on the National Life of Germany."

Arrangements have been made whereby this celebration may be held in conjunction with the regular Y. M. C. A. services on that night. The religious organizations of the city have been invited to participate in the celebration and it is hoped that an unusually large crowd will attend. The college has made every possible preparation for this occasion which will be one of the most important meetings of the Fall term.

ATHLETICS AMONG CO-EDS

An unusual amount of interest in athletics is being manifested by the co-eds of the college this year. A number of the young women students desire to take gymnasium work. Director Card agrees to give them the training if a sufficient number will respond regularly. The matter is being agitated, and so far thirty-seven co-eds, more than one-third of the women enrolled in college, have promised to take the gymnasium work. Girls' basket ball teams will be started in the near future, and will do a great deal to hold interest and enliven the work.

At a regular meeting of the Classical Club held last Thursday evening R. W. Bradshaw read an unusually interesting paper on "Livy as an Orator." Following the reading of the paper a lively discussion of the subject took place.

units are fast getting under way. The course in calisthenics has been given regularly by Gymnasium Instructor W. W. Card each morning from 7:15 to 7:45. It is expected hereafter, however, that a part of these exercises will be given in the afternoons as the condition of the grounds makes the lying-down exercises impossible in the mornings. The Park School students are drilling regularly on their own campus under the direction of Prof. J. H. Co-man. When sufficiently trained, the Park School unit will form a part of the Trinity battalion. As yet, no arrangements have been made for equipment, but it is hoped that both guns and uniforms will be provided.

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS ENTHUSIASTIC STUDENTS MEETING

The Y. M. C. A. held a student meeting last Wednesday night, all of the speakers being members of the student body. The first address was by R. K. Courtney, who took for his subject, "What Students Should Strive For." J. A. Bolich then talked to the men on, "Our Duty to Trinity College." H. L. Hoffman, the last speaker, spoke of "The Necessity of Using Our Present Opportunities."

After these speeches, several business matters were brought before the Association. F. C. Cavinness, of Asheboro, N. C., was elected vice-president, to take the place of A. H. Gwynn, who failed to return to college this fall. Immediately after this regular meeting an important meeting of the Association cabinet, composed of the chairman of the various committees, was held.

Rev. Seeley K. Tompkins, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will address the Y. M. C. A. at its regular mid-weekly meeting at 7:30 tonight in the Association Hall. Rev. Tompkins, who is actively connected with the war work now being done by the Y. M. C. A. and who comes to Trinity highly recommended as a speaker, will choose for his subject tonight some phase of the Y. M. C. A. work and the war.

First Lieutenant B. W. Barnard, '14, and Second Lieutenants H. C. West, '17, K. C. Towse, ex-'18, D. H. Fuller, A. B. '12 and Law '14, N. M. Patton, '15, Law ex-'17, and E. G. Harris, '17, all stationed at Camp Jackson, Columbia, have been recent visitors on the campus.

Engene Allison, '12, and a graduate of the Trinity Law School, is a Second Lieutenant in Battery F, 113 Field Artillery, Camp Sevier, S. C.

William M. Sherrill, '15, is in Company Headquarters of one of the North Carolina Infantry Companies at Camp Sevier, S. C.

of Music. Mr. Lindsey was at his best, and this proved to be one of the most attractive features of the evening.

The Paris Orchestra furnished music while an elaborate menu was being served. The refreshments consisted first of salad, sandwiches, saltines, and pickles. Pink ice cream, bedecked with silk flags, and cakes followed this course. Wine punch was also served.

The reception this year was unique in every respect. Credit for the success of the event is due Chairman H. P. Newman, of the social committee, and his co-workers. Other members of the committee were: J. B. McCullen, R. C. Wiggins, W. A. Thompson, and R. H. Durham.
