TRINITY STUDENTS AID CITY IN SECURING FUEL

KNIGHTS OF HATCHET POPULAR AS STUDENT ORGANIZATION

Trinity Volunteers Cut, Split, and Stack Approximately Fifty Cords of Wood—Money Secured to be Donated for Service Flag

Large numbers of Trinity men went out to chop wood every afternoon from Monday through Friday of last week in answer to the call of Mayor M. E. Newsom, of Durham. The call was in connection with the movement of the Mayor and the Durham County Fuel Administrator to help out the fuel shortage in this community. After Mr. Garfield's drastic order to conserve fuel, the Mayor of Durham bought up several tracts of woodland just outside the city and asked for volunteers to cut the wood. Many citizens, who were not busy on Monday on account of so many business houses' closing, went out and felled trees.

The matter was brought up in College by Dean Wannamaker at the suggestion of Mayor Newsom, who is himself an alumnus of Trinity and a member of the Board of Trustees of the College. The volunteers from the College were carried out in large automobile trucks the first day, and afterwards on the trolley cars.

In spite of the fact that the semester examinations had just been begun, Trinity was well represented every day—an average of 40 men a day being present. Many members of the faculty went out and took a very active part. The Trinity men accomplished a great deal, and did their work thoroughly. A low estimate gives fifty cords of wood cut, split, and piled. The work of the students somewhat surprised many of the citizens of Durham who seemed to think the Trinity boys were going out for a picnic rather than for actual work.

The wood that has been cut goes to the city's wood yards. The city, however, has agreed to pay one dollar a cord for what is cut. At the suggestion of Dean Wannamaker, who was present every day, it was decided to use the money that the College will receive in paying for a Trinity service flag.

Mayor Newsom has expressed through Dean Wannamaker his appreciation of the spirit and work of the college men. When the work was suspended on account of the falling weather, the Trinity corps had cut more than any other group of volunteers. They had almost cleaned out the tract assigned to them. Another and more convenient tract has been placed at the disposal of the College, and as soon as the weather moderates the campaign will open again. Definite announcements about the matter will be made in chapel.

Miss Edith Fues, student secretary for Woman's Missionary Council, spoke to the young ladies of the Y. W. C. A. at a recent meeting.

BASKETBALL BOOSTED AT ENTHUSIASTIC PEP MEETING

M. A. BRASWELL CHOSEN CHEER LEADER TO SUCCEED H. Y. EDGERTON

Practically every Trinity student attended a very enthusiastic "pep" meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last Tuesday night. The object of the meeting was to elect a new cheer leader to fill the vacancy left by the departure of H. Y. Edgerton, and to stir up more "pep" for the on-coming basketball series. M. A. Braswell, of Whitakers, was elected to fill the vacancy.

The meeting was in charge of Cheer Leader E. S. Hale, who made a short talk in which he insisted that every student come in and support his team by lending his voice to the "rooting." Short talks were then made by Manager F. M. Wannamaker, of basketball, Captain Earle Long, of the basketball team, Manager J. A. Bolich, Jr., of baseball, Manager R. K. Smathers, of the college band, and the cheer leader elect. All of these men talked favorably of basketball prospects and strongly urged a better display of enthusiasm at the games. Professor W. W. Poole was then called upon for a short talk.

The meeting was well attended and enthusiastically executed. The college band was very effective in drawing the crowd and keeping up the "pep."

REV. H. E. SPENCE MAKES HELPFUL TALK TO Y. M. C. A.

ADVISES OLD MEN TO DREAM DREAMS AND YOUNG MEN TO SEE VISIONS

At the last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. before examinations, Rev. H. E. Spence spoke to the men from the text: "Your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions."

The speaker said that in college we fall into the habit of going along in our matter of fact way, crushing or stifling our faculties of vision. The faculty of vision is the same as any other faculty and can be cultivated or can be crushed. It is very necessary that we cultivate this faculty of vision. Those who do not have the faculty of vision can only see the hardships and suffering in life, while those who have developed the sense of vision can see the beautiful and noble side of the world.

The speaker showed that all worthy action depends upon a sense of vision; and the men who have made high marks in life were pointed to as men who have dreamed dreams and who have worked these dreams out.

Miss Edith Smith, class of '19, left college at the close of the last term. Miss Smith has entered Brenau College Conservatory, Gainesville, Georgia.

Miss Lucille Litaker attended a Y. W. C. A. Conference at Greensboro last week. Representatives from the Associations all over the state met in this conference to discuss plans for the spring.

ANNUAL REVIVAL BEGINS WITH SUNDAY SERVICES

PRAYER MEETINGS ORGANIZED IN DORMITORIES LAST NIGHT

Rev. R. S. Truesdale, of Sumter, in Charge of Revival—Prof. R. L. Flowers and Dr. W. I. Cranford Speak

With a preparatory service Sunday evening, the regular annual revival under the auspices of the College Y. M. C. A. began Monday at 7:30. As Reverend R. S. Truesdale, of Sumter, S. C., the scheduled speaker, did not arrive in the city until Tuesday morning, Dr. W. I. Cranford spoke at the Monday service, and Reverend Truesdale made his first appearance on the following morning. Regular services will continue throughout the week at 12 and 7:30 o'clock daily. As has been the custom in the past, all college activities will be suspended during the noon hour.

Student prayer meetings were inaugurated last night in every section of the dormitories. These meetings will be held every night as long as the revival continues. By this means it is hoped to give the services a more personal aspect and bring the matter of spiritual betterment into closer touch with the students and student life.

The program of services up until the time of publication for the CHRONICLE has been as follows:

SUNDAY NIGHT

The program Sunday night preparatory to the mid-term revival was intended to awaken and stimulate religious interest on the campus. This program consisted of a short talk by C. C. Alexander, a member of the student body, and an address by Professor R. L. Flowers.

The talk by Alexander was an exhortation to the students to turn aside from the material things of life and devote the next few days to the development of the spiritual side of their nature.

Professor Flowers, in his address said, "It is a tragedy in human life for a young man to disable himself physically, intellectually, or spiritually. Such a young man is a traitor." He stated, also, that the things needed to win this war were physical strength, intellectual strength, and spiritual strength. Professor Flowers dwelt upon and emphasized the paramount importance of spiritual strength.

MONDAY NIGHT

In his talk on Monday night Dr. W. I. Cranford based his remarks upon the following passage, "Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only."

Dr. Cranford discussed first "The Religious Aspect of Habit."

SERGEANT W. E. PLAINE TELLS ABOUT LIFE IN EUROPE'S TRENCHES

"Life in the Trenches" was the subject of a lecture given in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last Friday night by Sergeant-Major W. E. Plaine of the Canadian expeditionary forces. Sergeant Plaine was a member of the famous "Princess Patricia" regiment which distinguished itself by valiant service at the outbreak of the war, and he himself has given nearly three years of active service to his country.

The speaker told of his own personal experiences at the front and gave his hearers a vivid picture of trench warfare. All of the horrors and agonies of war were presented "first hand" by one who has been an eye witness at the scene of battle. Sergeant Plaine was wounded three times while in action; the last wound was of a more serious nature rendering necessary his return to Canada. The speaker also made the humorous side of warfare evident by telling numerous personal experiences and current jokes, which kept the audience in a constant uproar.

Sergeant Plaine is now military director of a private school at Pinhurst, N. C., and came to Trinity under the auspices of the College authorities.

SOUTHGATE MEMORIAL TABLET OFFICIALLY GIVEN COLLEGE

PRESENTATION MARKED BY APPROPRIATE EXERCISES IN LIBRARY

On January 23rd the Memorial tablet to the late James H. Southgate recently placed in the library by the National Association of Insurance Agents, of which the deceased was a loyal and valued member, was officially presented to the College. The presentation took place in the library with President Few in charge.

Mr. W. E. Sharpe, of Burlington, N. C., president of the Association, spoke as a representative of that organization, expressing his sorrow over the loss of Mr. Southgate, and paying a tribute to the memory of the deceased.

The tablet was presented by Mr. A. W. Neal, former president of the Association, of Cleveland, O. He spoke of his friendship with Mr. Southgate. He stated that although he had known Mr. Southgate for only eight years, in that time he had come to love him and to realize his fine qualities. Mr. Neal spoke of Mr. Southgate as being an eloquent man and a true Christian. He stated that he was glad to present the tablet to Trinity College; and the hope was expressed that the students at Trinity would receive some inspiration from the memory of such a man.

The tablet was accepted by Dr. W. P. Few, who expressed his appreciation for the gift, and his anxiety to make the College a storehouse of personalities who have been inspirers and helpers of the College. He stated that he wished

THREE WINS OUT OF FOUR STARTS FOR METHODISTS

N. C. STATE, GUILFORD, AND EMORY AND HENRY DEFEATED

Local Tossers Run Up Large Count in Last Home Game—N. C. State Wins Return Struggle in Raleigh by 28-18 Score

N. C. STATE AT DURHAM In the first inter-collegiate basketball game of the season Tuesday, Trinity surprised even the most enthusiastic supporters by defeating N. C. State College by the decisive score of 35 to 26. The game was hotly contested from start to finish, and it was not until the second half that the Methodists gained their lead.

The "Aggies" began the game with smart display of teamwork and lost no time in securing the first field goal. This lead was maintained throughout the first half. During this half, the Methodists played hard and succeeded in pocketing the ball for five field goals with four fouls to their credit. At the end of the first half, the score stood 16 to 14 in favor of the visitors. The local tossers came back strong in the second half, however, and succeeded in gaining ten field goals while their opponents were held to only three. Accurate shooting and effective passing were the most potent factors in the Methodist's victory.

For Trinity, Cole at right forward, was the decided star of the game. Pocketing the ball five times in a single half the Trinity forward was all over the floor intercepting the visitors' passing and aiding in teamwork. Starling, at left forward, also performed creditably having three field goals to his credit, while Douglas, at center, and Hathaway, at guard, played ed stellar games.

Line-up:

N. C. State: Ripple, l. f. (2); Leeper, r. f. (4); Ducey, c. (6); Lewis, l. f. (12); Gurley, r. f. (2). Trinity: Cole, r. f. (10); Starling, l. f. (6); Douglas, c. (6); Long, r. g. (10); Hathaway, l. f. (2).

Referee, Holden; timekeeper, Bolich; scorers, Carver and Gray.

TRINITY—GUILFORD

The Methodists annexed their second victory on Wednesday, January 24, when they triumphed over "Brother Bob's" quintet from Guilford by a score of 40 to 32 on the local floor. The Blue and White tossers obtained the lead early in the game and maintained it throughout the contest by means of aggressive team work, excellent passing, and accurate shooting. Several times the Quaker five made threatening spurts towards victory, but each time "Elder Brother Chick's" basketekers played them off their feet and nipped the hopes of victory short by a stronger counter-sput.

The entire Methodist quintet played a fast, fighting game, reminding of last year's championship five. Starling and Cole, the two Trinity forwards, with five goals each to their credit were the

No, Geraldine, Trinity does not offer a course to milliners; hence the fair co-eds could be of no assistance to ye gallant knights in trimming stubby pines and gnarled oaks.

CONCERNING CONTRIBUTIONS

Within the last few days the CHRONICLE has received by mail a voluntary contribution from some member of the student body.

While the article had some real merit, the very fact that it was unsigned made its publication impossible. THE CHRONICLE stands ready to back up and defend any article or statement which it may publish and wants to be considered responsible for any unsigned story which may appear within its columns. It cannot, however, print any article written by an outsider as the work of the regular staff and the opinion of the paper in itself.

The receipt of this article, above all, offers the Chronicle a chance to reiterate its wish to serve as a medium for the sentiments and views of the student body. Such is the prime object of the paper, and with such a prime object it is useless to say that contributions from any member of the student body are always welcomed. Any form of story, but especially any article dealing with some problem of college life or any criticism of things in general, will find a hearty welcome and prompt publication, provided it is signed by the writer. THE CHRONICLE cannot undertake to champion the opinions or the stories of any would-be reformer or satirist whose identity is shrouded in mystery.

Co-operation from the student body, articles—signed articles, mind you—THE CHRONICLE desires most earnestly. Come out, speak your views, and serve to make the paper a real student publication. Be brave, however, and do not necessitate plagiarism on the part of THE CHRONICLE or undue modesty or shifted responsibility on the part of yourself by hiding behind a non-de-plume.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Red Cross work at the College has received new impetus since the close of examinations. Between forty and fifty college girls and women of the college community were at work in the room on last Friday afternoon. The Red Cross room is now open from two to five-thirty o'clock on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

Lieutenant L. K. Martin, Law-ex-'18, spent several days on the campus with friends and was present at several basketball games played on the Trinity floor last week.

Lieutenant Martin was captain of last year's basketball quint and was among the many students who left the College for Ogleshorpe early last spring. He received his commission as second lieutenant at Fort Oglethorpe and was then sent to Camp Jackson, S. C. He was then transferred to Fort Sill, Okla., where he is now an aerial observer. Lieutenant Martin happened to an injury some weeks ago when his fingers froze while he was making a flight at Fort Sill. Due to this injury, he was given quite a lengthy furlough.

largest scorers from the floor for the victorious Methodists. The former worked the ball well and was all over the court, while the latter duplicated his performance and at the same time pocketed several most difficult shots. On the defensive Hathaway and Douglas showed up strong. The big guard held his opposing forward to one single field goal and located the basket once. Douglas, at center, held Groome, All-State pivot man on the championship Methodist five of last year, to two lone counters and himself broke away for the same number. Captain Long also played a strong game, getting two shots from the floor and making good at fouls ten times out of eighteen chances.

For the defeated Quaker five Jones, at left forward, was the decided star of the game. By fast floor work and spectacular shooting he pocketed eight goals from the court and at the same time shot eight fouls out of a possible fourteen chances for a total of twenty-four of the thirty-two points accredited his team. Groome, with two goals, Walser and Reddick, with one each, contributed the other counters for the Quakers.

Line-up and Summary: Trinity, Starling, r. f., Cole, l. f., Douglas, c., Hathaway, r. g., Long, l. g.; Guilford, Walser, r. f., Jones, l. f., Groome, c., Reddick, r. g., Zachary, l. g.; referee, Pond; timekeeper, Bolich; scorer, Carver; time of halves, twenty minutes.

TRINITY—EMORY AND HENRY On the night of the 30th the Trinity quintet romped through a game with the basketcoers of Emory and Henry and piled up a score of 75 to 27. The Emory and Henry team was clearly outclassed by the Blue and White tossers, and the game started off with the second team in position. The teams were then pretty evenly matched, and in all probability the second team would have made good if allowed to remain longer.

Towards the middle of the first half, the arsy team was run in, and a deluge of goals followed.

The Emory and Henry team fought pluckily but were unable to reduce the odds against them. Stanley at center was the lone star for the Virginians with nine field goals to his credit. Cole led the scoring for Trinity with eight field goals, Starling and Douglas with seven each coming as close seconds.

Line-up: Emory and Henry: Jackson, l. f. (3); Grant, r. f. (2); Stanley, c. (18); Graham l. g. (4); Knight, r. g.

Trinity: Cole, r. f. (16); Kopf, l. f.; Starling, l. f. (14); Hornaday, l. f. (6); Douglas, c. (14); Daniels, c. (6); Long, r. g. (11); Aldridge, l. g. (8); Hathaway, l. g.

Timekeeper, Bolich; referee, Clay; scorer, Carver; time of halves, 20 minutes.

N. C. STATE IN RALEIGH

By a 28 to 18 count Trinity suffered the first intercollegiate reverse of the season at the hands of N. C. State on the auditorium court in the Techs' City last Saturday night. The contest was a return game for the one which went Trinityward by an eleven point margin on the preceding Tuesday night, and was the first struggle of the year for the new Methodist five on foreign territory.

The greater weight of the Aggies and the unusually large size of the court, coupled with steady teamwork and brilliant passing, gave the Raleighites an early lead and enabled them to maintain and strengthen it as the struggle progressed. Close and effective guarding kept Coach Doak's tssers from securing but four baskets from the floor, while the Techs broke away for ten two-point counters.

For the victorious Aggies Lewis and Leeper were the decided stars. The former secured two goals from the floor and made good at foul shooting seven times out of ten chances, while the latter found the basket for four difficult shots. Ripple contributed three field goals and Ducey one to the total score of the visitors. For the defeated Methodists Douglas and Cole, who each secured two field counters, contributed the only points from the floor for their quint. Captain Long was especially setrong on foul shooting, and made possible the other ten points accredited the Blue and White basketcoers by finding the basket on free shots ten times out of a possible thirteen chances.

He explained the psychological importance of habit in religious life.
Also, he showed that one could not help forming some kind of habit. If one does the thing he ought to do, he stated, it will be easier for him, under similar conditions, to do the right thing next time; if one refuses to do the right thing, he is forming the habit of doing the wrong thing. Then Dr.
Cranford discussed the superior value of religion and urged the students never to let an opportunity pass without doing some religious exercise.

TUESDAY MORNING

Rev. R. S. Truesdale, of Sumter, S. C., preached his first sermon Tuesday morning on account of traffic congestion on the railroads, which threw him a day late of schedule. He took his text from the second chapter of Ezekiel and the first verse, "And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee." All through the sermon the speaker emphasized the importance of standing on one's feet not only in everyday life, but also in the Christian life. He cited several practical illustrations, and applied them to the religious lives of young men.

"Patriotism is not enough," said Rev. Truesdale, "we must be followers of God and fight the great battles of the world for the liberty of all people and all nations." Then he told of the bigness of the age in which we live; of the changes which have taken place in the past few years, and of the misdirection of the wonderful civilization which God has given us.

TUESDAY NIGHT

The fourth service of the annual series of religious meetings was held in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Tuesday night. The service was the second one conducted by Reverend Truesdale. The meeting was well attended, and although short, was very interesting.

Reverend Truesdale chose his text from the sixth chapter of Judges. In his talk he desired men to stop and consider their own lives, and see if they should not profit by the example of Gideon.
Gideon felt his own weakness, but the spirit of the Lord strengthened him, and God worked through him. Now, just as in the time of Gideon, there is work to be done.
Should we not search our minds and lives and see if God is work-

TRINITY MEN PROMOTED

Lieut. David H. Fuller, a graduate of both Trinity and Trinity Law School, has only recently been promoted from first lieutenant to captain. The Columbia State has the following to say about Captain Fuller:

"Captain Fuller has been one of the busiest men at Camp Jackson, having charge of the government insurance drive for the division.
He is a native of Lumberton, N. C.
He is a graduate of Trinity College and also of the Harvard Law School. He attended the first officers' training camp at Fort Oglethorpe, where he received a commission as second lieutenant.
He has been directing the insurance campaign since last October."

Among other Trinity men and instructors who have been promoted are First Lieutenants E. C.
Cheek, T. S. Graves and J. N.
Aiken to captains. Second Lieutenants V. C. Hall, H. K.
King, W. R. Shelton, C. L. Mat-ton, J. S. Anderson and N. M.
Patton to first lieutenants.

SIGNATURES OF TRINITY MEN AT TRAINING CAMP RECEIVED

Through the efforts of the Y.
M. C. A. officers at Fort Oglethorpe the original signatures of all Trinity men who were in the second officers' training camp at that place have been secured and sent to President W. P. Few. The list, which contains a total of thirty-six signatures, will be framed and preserved in the College library.

ATHENA ELECTS OFFICERS

At the last meeting of the Athena Literary Society, officers for the coming term were elected. The officers elected were: President, Cora Moss; vice-president, Janie Chandler; secretary, Vera Wiggins; treasurer, Hallie Baldwin; chaplain, Laura Matthews; marshals, Mabel Crumpler, Martha Wiggins; program committee, Ione Bivins, Lucille Litaker, and Arlita Harper; third member executive committee, Maude Bass; ing through us? The secret of Dwight L. Moody's success was his complete surrender to God. He heard that no one had ever absolutely surrendered himself to the Almighty. He worked as the Lord's agent, and the enormous power of God operated through him as a powerful engine does work through machinery. God can work much better when he has whole-hearted and loyal servants. Primitive man was seriously handicapped because he lacked the wonderful aid that the marvelous inventions of the present civilization have given us.

Like primitive man, God is handicapped in his work because he lacks machinery, or men who will surrender themselves to him and serve Him.

DATE SET FOR DEBATES

The question for intercollegiate debates this year is, "Resolved, that the war time scope of Federal regulation (in principle) should be permanently established for times of peace." In the contest with Swarthmore, Trinity will uphold the negative side, while in the debate with Washington and Lee, Trinity will defend the affirmative.
The preliminary for both debates will be held February 23.
The Swarthmore debate will be held March 23, and the Washington and Lee debate on March 16.

All who expect to try out for the debates should hand their names to Mr. R. L. Fisher, secretary of the Debate Council, between now and February 23, which is the day of the preliminary.

Professor C. L. Hornaday, of the department of German, has been confined to his home for the past several days on account of an attack of la grippe. He is much improved and hopes to resume his duties in a few days.

SEVEN NEW STUDENTS MA- TRICULATE FOR SPRING TERM

Without a single click or catch in the college machinery, the spring term began at Trinity February 1. The mid-year examinations came to a close on January 1, and on the following day all classes were suspended in order that the entire day might be devoted to matriculation of students for the new term.

Practically all the old students matriculated, and in addition seen new ones have been enrolled up to date. These new students, called new although several of whom were in college last year, are as follows: Hunter Barrow, W. H.
Adams, F. N. McGranahan, H. L.
Oswald, F. C. Sherrill, R. T. Jef-

CHURCH WILL MEET EXIGENCIES OF TIMES

MINISTERS OF DURHAM AND ADJOINING COUNTIES
ADOPT PLANS

At a two days' session just concluded here at Trinity the Methodist preachers of this District, including Durham, Orange, Alamanace, Caswell and Person counties, took far-reaching action on three subjects that are close akin and grow out of the exigencies of this momentous time. First, all seemed to be overmastered with the idea that the note which must prevail until this war is won, is the necessity of winning it, and that the church must co-operate in its winning. Many suggestions were made and accepted as to the best ways of co-operating with the government in this perilous moment.
As a result of this meeting the pulpits of Durham District Methodism will sound no uncertain note in the call to their people to rally in the cattle for righteousness.

A second notable thing done was the adoption of some plans which were introduced by the officers of the Durham District Sunday School Conference. These plans provide for an unusual campaign for the advancement of this particular branch of church work. There is to be no hit-and-miss campaign, but a systematic effort to discover the resources of Methodism in this district, to organize its schools for better teaching and more effective worship; to enlist its Bible classes into strong working units, to enroll its teachers in training classes, to provide for the maintenance of its home life, and to evangelize the district as far as possible. The strength of the Sunday schools, also was pledged to the assistance of the government so far as the influence of the pastors may reach. It is confidently expected that this district shall double its working efficiency within the next few months along Sunday school lines.

The third note that merits especial attention was the attitude taken towards education, towards the conserving of the man-power of the church and state and providing men of training and character to undertake the great tasks of reconstructing the world after the war. Hearty endorsement was given to the attempt to hold young men true to their educational ideals. Through their efforts, students will be recruited for the college halls as well as for those other training camps to which our country has called our youth. Great things may be expected of the Durham District in these "times that try men's souls."

A letter from D. B. Herring, ex-'19, who recently enlisted in the service, announces his transfer from Fort Thomas, Ky., to Camp Joseph E. Johnson, Jacksonville, Fla. Lieuts. W. L. Ferrell and W. W. Matthews, and L. C. Larkin and C. W. Bundy are also stationed at this same camp.

ed that these would not be kept as remembrances but as inspirers. Dr.
Few spoke of the greatness of the life of Mr. Southgate. He spoke especially of his prophetic vision.
It was stated that Mr. Southgate had been a great servant and helper of the College. In closing, the speaker said that he thought it very appropriate that a tablet in memory of such a man as Mr.
Southgate should be placed among us to inspire us to nobler things.

Sincerity Clothes
