NORTHERN TRIP SUCCESS FOR METHODIST TOSSERS

VIRGINIA AND W. AND L. FALL BEFORE HEFTY TRINITIANS

V. M. I. and Staunton Manage to Nose Out Ahead of Coach Doak's Fighters —Brief Review of Trip Taken by Team.

Out of the four basketball engagements on the Virginia trip, the Trinity quint Friday returned with an even break of victories. The Methodists made a surprisingly good showing in all four games and succeeded in wresting victory from two of her most formidable foes, Washington & Lee and the University of Virginia. The quint was defeated decisively at V. M. I. and in the game with S. M. A., the Virginians succeeded in obtaining a one point victory. In all four games, except the first in which the team was worn out by all-day travel, the quint performed creditably, and the Virginia trip may well be considered successful.

In the first game of the trip, the Methodists met defeat at the hands of the strong quint of Virginia Military Institute. After traveling all day the team reached Lexington at 8 p. m., and at 8:30 p. m. the game was commenced. The cadets gained the upper hand from the outset and succeeded in maintaining the lead throughout the game. The game ended with a 51-26 count in favor of the Virginians.

For Trinity, Douglas and Cole contributed most to the Methodists' aggregate of points. Douglas, at center, pocketed the ball four times while Cole, at left forward, gained an equal number of goals.

For V. M. I. Captain Marshall, at center, led his team in scoring, adding a total of 18 points to his team's score. The work of Wills and Thomas was also effective in defeating the Tar Heels.

In the second engagement in Lexington, Trinity redeemed itself by defeating the Washington and Lee quint by a count of 24 to 16. The Methodists began the game by a smart display of teamwork and succeeded in keeping the lead from start to finish. The first half ended 12 to 12 favoring the Tar Heels. The Methodists opened the second half with a burst of speed and succeeded in amassing twelve points while holding their opponents to four. Unlike last year, when Trinity was defeated at the hands of a W. & L. quint by a two point margin, the Generals were this year completely outplayed by their southern opponents.

Cole, at left forward, was the individual star for Trinity. Gaining one-half of his team's aggregate of points, the Methodist forward was all over the floor and in to every play. The entire team performed well.

For W. & L. Captain Bethel, at center, and Fain and Fox, as forwards, were the chief forces in contributing counters.

At Staunton the Methodists suffered the second reverse of the trip. Unlike the engagement with V. M. I., however, the game with S. M.

FINAL ISSUE OF ARCHIVE CONVERTED INTO YEAR BOOK

SENIOR CLASS DONATES LIBRARY BONDS TO GYMNASIUM FUND

To convert the May issue of the Archive, the Senior class literary magazine, into a year book which will replace the Chanticleer to a great extent and to donate the Liberty Bonds recently purchased by the class to the Gymnasium fund were the plans adopted by the one-time-wearers of the mustache at a special meeting in the West Duke Building last Thursday morning. The decision to enlarge the final issue of the Archive so as to have it contain Senior pictures and probably pictures of the other classes and organizations, and to a certain extent fill the place of the defunct Chanticleer, was reached after short talks by Editor R. L. Fisher and Business Manager E. M. Spivey.

The proposed issue of the Archive, as outlined to the class by Editor Fisher, will embrace at least a hundred pages, not including advertisements, will be printed upon enamel paper and have a permanent book binding. The volume will sell at the lowest possible price which has not yet been determined but which will range somewhere between $1.00 and $1.50.

Manager Spivey will begin taking subscriptions for the proposed issue just as soon as the details of the plan are definitely worked out.

BASEBALL PRACTICE STARTED WITH EXCELLENT PROSPECTS

FORTY CANDIDATES RESPOND TO CAPTAIN CARVER'S FIRST CALL

In answer to the call issued by temporary Captain A. L. Carver about forty men were on hand for the first baseball practice of the season last Wednesday afternoon. Although there are only two members of last year's team back in college, judging from the looks of the material out for the first practice Trinity will be able to put out a team which will more than hold its own with the record of any of recent years.

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Council a committee was appointed to secure the services of a coach. Several men are now available for the position, and in all probability a definite contract will be made in the near future.

This year a trip is to be taken about the second week in April that will bring the team into contest with the nines of some of the strongest southern institutions. Manager Bolich has not yet announced his schedule, but in all probability games will be played with the University of Georgia, Wofford, University of South Carolina, Furman, and a number of other colleges. The definite schedule and the dates will be announced some time soon.

Captain C. H. Bagley, graduate and former instructor of modern languages at Trinity, visited friends on the campus recently.

S. S. INSTITUTE TO BE HELD HERE NEXT WEEK

WELL KNOWN SPEAKERS WILL HAVE PLACES ON PROGRAM

Institute Will Begin Monday and Continue Through Friday—Schedule of Lectures and Recitations—Course Open to Bible XII Students.

Final arrangements have been worked out for the Training School for Sunday School workers which is to be held at Trinity College February 24-March 1. Beginning Monday, February 24, there will be a program each day consisting of conferences, lunch hour, recitation periods, and lectures.

At 5:30 each afternoon there will be a conference held in room 2D of West Duke building. These conferences will be in the nature of round table discussions and will last for one hour. After the conference there will be light lunch served in the basement of West Duke building. This lunch will be furnished by the different churches of the city and the college. All regularly enrolled students in the training courses will be admitted to these lunches free of charge. This hour of free lunch will tend to stimulate the social interest among those participating in the school.

The evening program will consist of two recitation periods interrupted by a lecture hour. The recitations for the different courses will be conducted in various class rooms of West Duke building. The devotional exercises and lectures will take place in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. A complete schedule of conferences, classes, and lectures follows:

5:30-6:30—Conference.
6:30-7:10—Lunch Period.
7:10-7:45—Recitation Period.
7:45-8:30—Devotional Exercises and Lecture.

8:30-9:15—Recitation Period. Special impetus will be given these programs by the inspiring instruction and lectures to be given by Mr. J. M. Way, of Spartanburg, South Carolina, and Miss Minnie E. Kennedy, of Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. Way is Divisional Sunday School Secretary for the South Atlantic Division of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Miss Kennedy is General Superintendent of the Elementary Department of the Sunday Schools of Southern Methodism.

The conferences with the leaders and the lectures with speakers are as follows:

Monday—Conference on music and hand-work in the Sunday school, conducted by Miss Kennedy; Lecture on "What the Teacher Should Be," by Dr. Few.

Tuesday—Conference on the Home Department, conducted by Mr. Way; Lecture on "What the Teacher Should Do," by Prof. E. C. Brooks.

Wednesday—Conference on Adult Bible Classes, conducted by Mr. Way; Lecture on "What the Teacher Should Know," by Miss Kennedy.

Thursday—Conference on Story-telling, conducted by Miss Kennedy; Lecture on "Jesus, the Mas-

METHODISTS DOWN ELON AND GUILFORD WITH EASE

STINGING DEFEATS ADMINISTERED TO QUAKERS AND CHRISTIANS

Trinity emerged victorious over the strong Elon quint in the first game of the Western North Carolina trip at Elon College last Monday night by the score of 22 to 11.

This was the first of the scheduled engagements with Elon and by doubling the score on their opponents the Methodists did much toward paving the way to the coveted state championship.

The game was hard fought from beginning to end and marked by close guarding and good passing. Trinity secured the first score of the game when Long made good a foul goal during the first minute of the play. Elon drew first blood from the floor by scoring two field goals in rapid succession. The Methodists came back strong, however, and secured three field goals before the half ended. The first period closed with a 11-6 count in favor of Trinity. The second half was characterized by an unnecessary roughness on both sides. During this period the Methodists scored eight points from the floor while Long pocketed in four goals the remaining points which constituted Trinity's aggregate.

CAPTAIN HOBSON SPEAKS TO TRINITY STUDENTS

REMINDS THEM OF THEIR TASKS AS RISING AMERICAN CITIZENS

Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Spanish-American war fame, former Congressman from Alabama, and noted prohibition leader, spoke to Trinity students immediately after chapel exercises Monday morning in the Y. M. C. A. hall. Captain Hobson lectured to a large audience at Trinity church Sunday night, and at the request of college authorities made the short talk at chapel on the following morning.

"There is a new era at hand," began Captain Hobson after having been introduced by Professor R. L. Flowers, who had been his college mate at Annapolis in past years, "and the keynote of this new era is co-operation. The time for brute force is past, and that nation which dares to live by the sword shall perish by the sword. New institutions must be constructed for this new era, and the task of forming these new institutions evolves upon the college man of today."

In this new construction two things are primary—the clearing of ground and the laying of foundations. There must be a preliminary elimination—of autocracy, of oppression, of militarism. Men must be freed, and every person in the universe must have the chance to take part in the activities of his life.

TRINITY STUDENTS OPEN CAMPAIGN FOR FOOTBALL

WILL PRESENT PETITION TO BOARD TRUSTEES NEXT JUNE

Campaign Launched by Enthusiastic Mass Meeting—Speeches by Members of Committee—Petition Presented and Signed by Students.

Launched by a wholesale scattering of hand bills, portraying in huge type the demand, "Why Can't Trinity Have Football?" over the campus and throughout the buildings and the hanging of a large football banner across the main driveway through the College grounds during the wee small hours of Thursday morning, and given additional impetus by an enthusiastic mass meeting of the student body that night, a student campaign for football at Trinity College is well under way and already appears to be meeting with noticeable success.

At the mass meeting last Thursday night the question of football and how it might be secured was placed before the student body by C. C. Alexander, chairman of the committee chosen several weeks ago to work out a definite plan of action. Short talks were also made by F. C. Caviness, J. A. Bolich, M. A. Braswell and H. W. Kendall, the other members of the committee. Meanwhile a canvass was made among those present for financial aid and a sum sufficient to carry on a systematic campaign by means of correspondence secured.

The last speaker presented a petition which set forth the demand for football and will be presented to the Board of Trustees at commencement next June. Already approximately three hundred students, or practically all students who have been approached, have affixed their signatures to the petition, and an effort will be made to secure the signature of every single student before the plea goes to the Board of Trustees. The petition, which asks for inter-class football for the duration of the war and inter-Collegiate football after that time, is as follows:

"We, the undersigned students of Trinity College, having at heart the best interest of our College and realizing the dire need of new impetus to student life and activities in these times that tend to tear down college ideals and highest traditions, in the sincere belief that football will better students physically and thus make them more fit to serve their country, increase college spirit and loyalty, further the good name and glory of Trinity College, serve as a character builder, and materially swell the college enrollment, do hereby with all consideration and respect petition the Board of Trustees of Trinity College to lift the ban that has been placed on football at the aforesaid institution, tolerate interclass football for the duration of the war, and after that time allow this branch of sport to become inter-collegiate one.

"We likewise do beg the privilege of having one or more student representatives to appear in person before the said Board of Trustees

"Why Can't Trinity Have Football?"

And the Methodist unit took a trip through Virginia last week.

Trinity may not have military training as yet, but Generals are numbered among her fallen foes.

Quite naturally the Knights of the Hatchet will play a prominent part in the celebration of George Washington's birthday.

Now aren't you sorry you mutilated your mustache? Of course there is not going to be any Chanticleer, but the Archive is going to run a pictorial section for the special benefit of Seniors.

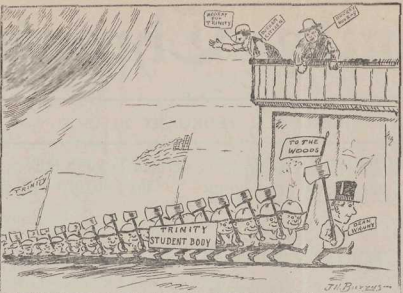

The aviators who dropped such vast quantities of stirring literature upon the campus last Thursday morning certainly did a thorough job. Wonder if they have been mentioned in official dispatches?

AS TRINITY SEES FOOTBALL

"Why can't Trinity have football?" is a question that practically every student in the college is just at present trying to solve. As the echo "have football?" rolls back from building to building the CHRONICLE too takes up the question and asks with all sincerity just why can't Trinity have football?

The only argument outside of the old time-honored reason "just because" that seems to be given in reply to this question is unfavorable of the times for such a demand and campaign, the plea to put aside local, trivial matters and remember that your country, the whole world, is at war and thousands of souls are being sent forth into eternity daily.

So long as the world conflict rages, one must necessarily be cognizant of the horrible yet momentous times in which he lives. But to be patriotic and to co-operate in the successful prosecution of the war does not mean that one must wear a long face and puritanic expression; it implies cheerfulness and a faithful following of the some course pursued before the war so far as such a thing is possible.

A college student, therefore, can do no more patriotic act than to remain in college and endeavor to make college life the same that it was before nation arrayed itself against nation. Any noticeable decay of college life or breaking down of student activities only works to stir up excitement and make students restless, shiftless, and dissatisfied. Any factor which will operate to allay this spirit of restlessness, strengthen college activities, and bind together more closely the elements that go to make up student life, in these times that tend to tear down and destroy, should be welcomed as a godsend and a savior.

It is in this conception of football as a savior of college life and activities, a renewer of college spirit and loyalty, that Trinity students launched the campaign for football last week—a campaign free from boisterousness and noisy demonstration but marked by sincerity, concertedness, and consideration for Trinity and her best interests. The wagers of the campaign, the student body, do not believe that the times are unfavorable to football but rather that present conditions demand the introduction of the sport as a wartime measure, both to better students physically and to serve as the tie that binds.

For such reasons, therefore, the student body of Trinity, as a whole, wants football, inter-class for the duration of the war and inter-collegiate after that time, and awaits with keenest interest, expectancy, and anxiety the final answer of the final court as to just why Trinity shouldn't have football.

THE CHRONICLE wishes to acknowledge with many thanks the cartoon in this issue from the pen of J. H. Burrus, ex-'17, whose many friends on the campus will be glad to learn that he has completely recovered his health and is now making his home at Morganton, N. C.

DR. W. S. HALL SPEAKS TO TRINITY STUDENTS

"Manliness and the War," was the subject of a lecture delivered to the students of the college last week by Dr. Winifred Scott Hall, of Northwestern University, Chicago. Dr. Hall stressed the fact that a man must keep himself in perfect physical condition if he is to give his best to the country. He showed that the efficiency of the American army is lessened by so many men being physically unfit.

There was a large audience to hear Dr. Hall's lecture; and the talk was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

way secured four of his team's points from mid-floor. Starling and Douglas played consistently and secured three goals each. The work of Captain Long was effective in foul shooting.

TRINITY-GUILFORD

In the second game of the season between Trinity and Guilford played last night on the Guilford floor, Trinity won by a score of 28 to 21. After the game, Mrs. Charlie Doak, who lives at Guilford College, gave a reception in honor of the two teams.

The game was full of interest from beginning to end, the work of both teams being of a high order. Starling, Trinity right forward, was the individual star of the contest, throwing eight field goals for 16 points. Long, of Trinity, threw eight foul goals. For Guilford, Jones led his teammates in scoring, throwing nine foul goals and one field goal for a total of 11 points. Zachary also played well, adding six points to Guilford's score.

The line-ups were as follows: Guilford, Jones and Zachary, forwards; Groome, center; Reddick and Newlin, guards. Trinity: Cole and Starling forwards; Douglas, center; Hathaway, Watson and Long, guards. Field goals, Jones, 1; Zachary, 3; Groome, 2; Starling, 8; Douglas, 2; foul goals, Jones, 9; Long, 8. Referee, Sharpe, Greensboro Y. M. C. A. Scorer, Webster, Greensboro.

The systematic poisoning of the human race, a protoplasmic poisoning, is the most dangerous attack from which the world must be freed. The speaker then discussed the self-inflicted harm done to an alcoholic and the effect of alcohol on the gray matter of the brain.

Resolve to get the maximum usefulness out of life, was the final thought presented by the speaker. Cast aside the things that run contrary to this resolution, work in harmony with nature, and you may live a satisfactory life and be of help to the world.

CIVIC CELEBRATION WILL BE HELD TOMORROW NIGHT

The annual civic celebration under the auspices of the "9019" will be held Thursday night, February 21, at 8 o'clock, in Craven Memorial Hall. The speaker of the evening will be William Mather Lewis, Executive Secretary of the National Committee of Patriotic and Defense Societies.

Another interesting feature of the occasion will be the presentation of a large service flag by the students of the college. The flag will be presented by C. C. Alexander, who was chosen for that purpose by the student body yesterday, and will be accepted in behalf of the college authorities by Mr. Joseph G. Brown, of Raleigh, president of the Board of Trustees. The flag is quite a large one, containing in all over 300 stars with quite a number more to be added. This flag was purchased partly by the proceeds obtained by the students while engaged in cutting wood for the city.

Captain C. R. Bagley, graduate Camp Jackson, spent several days of last week in the city.

R. A. Few has sufficiently recovered from an attack of pneumonia to leave the hospital and be out on the campus again.

TRINITY STUDENTS WILL STUDY RACE PROBLEM

On last Wednesday evening Mr.
N. C. Newbold, a Trinity graduate and well known educator of this state, spoke to a large audience in the Y. M. C. A. hall. The lecture was on the race problems which confront this nation.

Mr. Newbold spent several days on the campus and aroused a great deal of interest among Trinity students. His work here resulted in the organization of a class of about a hundred pupils whose purpose will be the study of the race problems. Dr. E. C. Brooks, of the Department of Education, will deliver several lectures to the class.

and make clear the sentiment and status of the student body in this matter."

The present campaign is but a culmination or outgrowth of several similar campaigns that have been unsuccessfully waged at Trinity. Ever since the ban was placed upon football years ago sporadic demonstrations for that sport have taken place, the most prominent of these being during the collegiate year 1913-14 when students literally painted Durham red and were unnecessarily loud in their howls for football. The present campaign, however, differs from the campaigns of the past in that it is free from boisterousness and howling protestations, is being conducted in a systematic manner, and has already made more headway than has any other uprising.

Mr. A. W. Byrd, A. B. '13, Law
'15, is now with the 54th Pioneer
Infantry, Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, South Carolina, in the regular army.

The regular annual initiation of Beta Omega Sigma, Sophomore
order of the college, was held last Monday night in the hall of the Knights of Pythian at West Durham.

The Campus club met with Dr.
and Mrs. F. C. Brown last evening and was directed by Mrs. Wilson. After the business session was over the club was delightfully entertained and refreshments were served.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, Mesdames Hornaday and Mrs. R. N. Wilson,
Misses Mary White Cranford, Nancy Maxwell and Malone, and Messrs. H. O. Woltz, W. D. Sim-

NORTHERN TRIP SUCCESS FOR METHODIST TOSSERS (Continued from Page 1)

A. was exciting from beginning to end. The game was hotly contested from the outset, and there were times when victory seemed assured to either side. The first half ended 18 to 14 for the cadets and the final score broke 29-28 against the Carolinians.

Douglas, at center, and Captain Long, at left guard, were the Methodists' greatest assets in this engagement. Douglas pocketed the ball four times, and Captain Long made good twelve free goals while securing three difficult shots from the floor.

For S. M. A. Young, at left guard, and Captain Curry, at center, outstripped their team mates in amassing points. A bulldozed referee was a strong factor in the cadets' victory.

The game with the University of Virginia at Charlottesville was the final and most exciting game of the trip. The Methodists found themselves in this game and by consistent passing, accurate shooting, and all round superior team work succeeded in defeating the Virginians
by the decisive score of 32 to 25.

The Virginians played hard but only one time during the game were they able to cut down the Carolynians' lead. The first half ended twelve to eight for the Methodists, and the final score ended 32-25 for Trinity.

In this game, Stirling, at right forward, and Douglas were the chief features for Trinity. Although the entire team performed well, these two succeeded in securing two-thirds of the Methodists' total score.

For the defeated Virginians,
Captain Rien, at center, and Pet-way, at right forward, were the most potent factors in withstanding the Tar Heels.

The return of the Trinity basketball squad to Durham marks the second successful invasion by a Methodist quint into Virginia territory. Last year Coach Doak led a Trinity team over the same territory with four wins out of six engagements. The team last year suffered defeat at the hands of W.
& L. and Catholic University at Washington. This year without the return of a single letter man, Trinity revenge itself on Washington and Lee and administered a second defeat on the University of Virginia. Although last year's quint defeated both V. M. I. and S. M. A., the handicap of all-day travel preceding both of these reverses might be taken into consideration.
This fact is especially noticeable when we learn that V. M. I. was twice defeated by the University of Virginia. It will also be observed that the first encounter at Lexington last year after the same journey was with W. & L. and was unsuccessful.

Lieut. J. H. Ruff, a student of the Law School last year, now stationed at Camp Jackson, was a campus visitor Sunday. Lieut.
Ruff has recently been promoted from second to first lieutenant.

The other matter taken up by the class, that of donating the class gift to the Gymnasium fund, was acted upon on the suggestion of President Few. As a vigorous effort is now about to be launched to secure sufficient funds to erect a new gymnasium, the class deemed the contribution of the regular Senior gift to this purpose most appropriate.

The question of caps and gowns for commencement was also brought before the class and P. L. Sample authorized to take the contract for furnishing these necessary accoutrements.

GREEK LETTER ORGANIZATIONS HOLD INITIATIONS

THREE FRATERNITIES AND TWO SORORITIES TAKE IN NEW MEMBERS

During the past week three of the national Greek letter fraternities with chapters on the campus and two of the national sororities have held their regular annual initiations. Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Chi, and Alpha Tau Omega are the fraternities, and Kappa Delta and Alpha Delta Pi the sororities that have already initiated. The other Greek organizations will "shoot their pledges through" some time in the near future. Accounts of the initiations in their chronological order are as follows:

PI KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Alpha chapter of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity held its regular annual initiation in the Odd Fellows' Hall Thursday afternoon. At that time Blackwell Pierce, of Weldon, and W. H. Adams, of Durham, were received into the fraternity.

On account of prevailing conditions the initiation was made very informal and only the regular members of the chapter were present. Following the initiation an informal feed was held in Cat's Head.

Short talks were made by several old members of the chapter and the two initiates over smokes.

SIGMA CHI

The Beta Lambda Chapter of the Sigma Chi Fraternity held its regular annual initiation on Saturday night, February 16, 1918. Three men, all of the class of '21, were initiated. They were: Edward M. Knox, of Winton, N. C.; Oliver L. Skinner and James G. Leyburn, both of Durham, N. C. After the initiation a banquet was served at the Goody Shop Cafe.

Those present at the initiation and banquet were: The entire Trinity chapter, Dr. M. T. Adkins, of the alumni, and the following men from the State University: R. B. McKnight, G. W. King, S. H. Reams, L. W. Ingram, B. S. Whiting, H. C. Bristol, R. Phillips, D. W. Hodges, George Grantham, A. P. Flythe and J. W. Hayes, Jr.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

North Carolina Xi chapter of Alpha Tau Omega held its annual initiation of freshmen last Saturday afternoon in the I. O. O. F. Hall, of the city. Frank Martin Page, of Aberdeen, was initiated. Following the initiation, an informal banquet was given in the A. T. O. Hall at the college.

Those present at the banquet besides the initiates were as follows:

R. W. Bradshaw, M. A. Braswell, R. K. Courtney, E. T. and J. H. Harrison, J. C. Smoot, Jr., of the local chapter; Prof. Floyd Bennett, an alumnus of the city, and L. de R. MacMillan and W. D. Poindexter, of the chapter at the University.

KAPPA DELTA

The annual initiation of Kappa Delta Sorority was held Saturday evening in the Sigma Delta chapter room. The initiate was Miss Mary Blair Maury, Danville, Virginia. After the initiation a "feed" was served in the chapter room. Miss Myrtle Humble was an out-of-town guest.

ALPHA DELTA PI

The Omicron chapter of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority held its initiation at the Woman's Building on last Saturday evening. Miss Martha Wiggins was the initiate. After the initiation, an informal "feed" was given in the chapter room.
