FOOTBALL SPORT OF S. A. T. C. COMPANIES

COMPANY A WINS FIRST GAME;
SCORE OF SECOND GAME
WAS 0 TO 0

On last Saturday afternoon Co. A's team defeated the eleven from Co. B in a rather slow football game on the old athletic field by the score of 6 to 0. Although both teams showed up well considering the lack of practice and coaching, the Co. A men made the better appearance throughout the game, holding their opponents to retreating positions at all times.

At the close of each quarter the Co. A team had driven the opposing team dangerously near the goal line, but the defense of the team from Co. B prevented their opponents from making a single gain over that final mark. The only touchdown which was scored came when the Co. A team had their opponents within five yards of the goal line and Co. B was penalized ten yards, giving Co. A their winning score.

The end runs of Davis and Starling and the center rushes of Simmons combined with the head work of quarterback Toms was the features for Co. A. McGranahan was decidedly the star from Co. B, while Whitaker and Thomas deserve mention. Whitaker made some exceptional tackles. The linemen of both teams did good work.

The student body turned out almost to its limit to see the game, and the faculty was well represented among the spectators. As this was the first game of football to be played on Trinity campus for a number of years, it was interesting to note the lack of knowledge of the game among the spectators; however everyone seemed to know when their favorite team was gaining or losing ground and was ready to "root" for the fellows in the line.

Below is given the line up:

Co. A	Center	Co. B
Teague	Wilson
	Right Guard
Shieder	Edwards
	Left Guard
Berg	Long
	Right Tackle
Cashion	McWhorter

Toms	Thomas
	Right Halfback
Davis	Satterthwaite
	Left Halfback
Starling	Barrett

Simmons	McGranahan

Referees: Lieutenants Hopkins and Whitman; head linemen, Lieutenant Holmes.

Substitutes: Co. A, Thomas for Perry, and Perry for Simmons; Co. B, Thornton for Cavanaugh, Crawford for Woodley, and Ripple for Long.

VARSITY PRACTICE FOR BASKETBALL

PROSPECTIVE MATERIAL SHOW-ING GOOD FORM—DOAK
PROBABLE COACH

For the last few days varsity basketball practice has been progressing under the supervision of Earl Long, captain of the 1917-18 team. Prospects seem to be good. There are two letter men back and the material from last year's substitutes and the freshman class are showing up well.

Although ex-Captain Long does not expect to be here after the demobilization of the S. A. T. C., it is understood that several men of former teams are expected to return to college after Christmas. These men will add much to the strength of the team. Aldridge and Starling of last year's team are showing good form.

Plans are being executed whereby it is hoped that the services of "Chick" Doak will be secured for coaching the team. Coach Doak's work here for the last two years holds an excellent record. He was successful in putting out a team in 1916-17 which won the State Championship; and last year his team was defeated by only a small score in the final State Championship game.

Arrangements have been made to play a series of games with the Durham Y. M. C. A. before Christmas, but the definite dates have not been set.

The candidates are: Center, Brendal, Jerome, and Appleberry; forwards, Jeffries, Mowery, Toms, Teague, and Edgerton; guards, Aldridge, Long, Carver, Saunders, and Barrett.

Demobilization Hindered By Delay of the Forms

Demobilization of the S. A. T. C. men at Trinity, which did not begin as scheduled yesterday on account of the failure of the forms to arrive, will begin immediately upon receipt of the forms from headquarters.

It is the purpose of the commanding officer to demobilize first those students who are college graduates and those who do not expect to continue their college education.

There is to be an Army medical officer detailed here to assist in demobilization examinations. The process of discharging the student soldiers will go forward as rapidly as possible. It is estimated that it will take about two weeks to complete the work of demobilization here.

Second Lieutenant H. L. Caviness, ex-18, spent last Sunday on the campus. Lieutenant Caviness, with two hundred and fifty other officers, was discharged from Camp Sevier on November 30. He was enroute to his home at Coleridge, N. C.

Second Lieutenant Wesley Taylor, ex-20, was a recent visitor on the campus. Lieutenant Taylor was commissioned at Plattsburg last summer and since that time has been detailed as Personnel Officer at William and Mary College.

S. A. T. C. STUDENTS SEE "I'M SO HAPPY"

COMPANIES ARE GIVEN FREE PASSES AT EXPENSE OF
P. X. FUNDS

All sorts of wild rumors were circulating on the campus Monday morning. It was generally accepted that something had been brought up at Headquarters and that something unusual was to take place that very night. When Captain Brewer held the S. A. T. C. men after Chapel, they all waited in wondering silence while he conveyed to them the glorious news. A storm of applause greeted him when he announced that the training unit would be taken in a body to "I'm So Happy," the musical comedy billed at the Academy of Music. And when he further explained that the expense was to be covered by the profits from the Post Exchange, a number of the more lean and hungry-looking soldiers looked triumphantly and said "I told you so" to those who had contended that the profits from the Post Exchange had been used as an auxiliary to the mess fund.

Study Hall was held an hour earlier Monday evening, and at 8 o'clock the two companies left the post information and marched down town, singing army songs and ditties. One-half of the main floor of the Academy was reserved for the soldiers and they were marched in in an orderly manner. Between the acts the students entertained the remainder of the audience with their singing. The show was rollicking from the time the curtain first went up until the final chorus, and Frederick V. Bowers, the leading man, made an immense hit among the Trinity rookies with his splendid acting and his timely military jokes. After the show the two companies marched back to the post, the men evincing their satisfaction by their high spirits.

NOVEMBER 29 DONATION DAY AT TRINITY PARK SCHOOL

NEAR FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS
GIVEN BY FRIENDS OF THE SCHOOL

In preparation for the opening of the present scholastic year, the increased enrollment necessitated the remodeling of the Lanier Dormitory, which for several years previously had not been used. Accordingly, this building was renovated at a great expense, and was at the beginning of school opened to the accommodation of the students.

After the opening in September things progressed in the best manner possible until the national epidemic of influenza, which paid a costly visit and then passed on, leaving in its wake a debt of some one hundred and seventy-five dollars. This expense was for medicine and professional services, and necessarily had to be borne by the school, since on account of the number of cases treated it could not be charged specifically to any special ones.

BATTALION REVIEW OF S. A. T. C. UNIT

AFTER PARADE DOWN TOWN
REVIEW ON THE CAMPUS
BY CAPT. BREWER

Tuesday afternoon at the regular drill period, instead of having to go through the usual monotony of "squads right" and "left front into line," the men were marched down town on parade. The student-soldiers shined their shoes and adjusted their new uniforms to make them look the best possible, and marched in sure-enough dress parade. The commanding officer marched the two companies down as a battalion. They first marched down through the business section at attention, but on the return they were given "route step" and sang as they marched through Main Street.

When they reached the campus, Captain Brewer took them out on the parade ground where Company C joined them in a Battalion Review. The Review was carried on in the regular prescribed manner, each company marching in company front formation down the parade ground and executing "Eyes Right" before the commanding officer as reviewing officer.

Professor R. L. Flowers, who has been visiting his brother, W. W. Flowers, of New York City, for the past ten days, returned to his duties at the College the first of this week. Professor Flowers stopped over in Washington on his return to hear the final address of President Wilson before Congress before his departure for Europe to attend the Peace Conference.

Britain Day Program To Be Held Saturday

At eleven o'clock Saturday morning, December 7, 1918, a Britain Day program will be rendered in Craven Memorial Hall at Trinity College. Among the many interesting features of the program will be the reading of several war poems by Dr. W. P. Few and the reading of a paper on "Anglo-American Relations" by Dr. W. K. Boyd. Mr. Overton of the Conservatory of Music will furnish the music for the occasion. The service will be well worth the attendance of everyone.

Some interesting letters have recently been received from Captain Alford Mordecai. One of these was to little Miss Sybil Flowers, thanking her for a fine pair of wollen socks which she had knit for him. These letters describe a trip through France as Capt. Mordecai was on his way to rejoin his company at the front. He finds the French people very hospitable and the land and customs intensely interesting. An item of special interest to Trinity men is the recount of his finding Captains Dave Fuller and E. C. Check, both well and in good spirits.

L. C. Richardson, '16, who has been attending a Marine Aviation School, has been a recent visitor of home folks in Durham and friends on the campus.

PRE-WAR BASIS FOR COLLEGE AFTER XMAS

CREDIT GIVEN FOR MILITARY SERVICE TOWARDS DEGREE IN COLLEGE

On November 26 the War Department issued orders to commanding officers of all units of the Students' Army Training Corps directing the demobilization and discharge of S. A. T. C. men, beginning December 4, with a view to completion of discharges by December 21. This of course means the demobilization of the S. A. T. C. in hundreds of colleges throughout the country before Christmas holidays.

Examinations will be given at Trinity both to the S. A. T. C. men and to the regular college students from December 14 to 21 in the subjects they are now pursuing. These examinations are to be given by the college instructors and will become a part of each man's record on the college files.

College will reopen, after the Christmas holidays, on January 3 and will be run as before the war. S. A. T. C. men will receive credit for the work done this quarter, and these credits will be so adjusted that all the men may fall back into the regular college work leading to degrees.

Military subjects will be dropped from the curriculum and college subjects will take their places in the course of study. All S. A. T. C. students are urged to complete their work for the sake of reference in the future as well as seeming college credit.

Students now being released from the Army may return to College and begin current work of the year. Service in the Army will be accepted in lieu of college work up to the time when men re-enter. Men who expected to enter the freshman class last September, but who instead went into the Army may enter after Christmas and complete the work of the year before commencement, which will come this year on June 4.

It is hoped that a large percentage of the men now in the S. A. T. C. may remain as regular college students and that a great many undergraduates soon to be released from the Army may be able to return and go on with their college work. The College will do everything in its power to co-operate with all these men and their parents in this transfer from the S. A. T. C. or the Army back into college.

R. M. Cannon, ex-19, stopped over with friends at the College last week as he was enroute to Miami, Florida. Mr. Cannon, who is son of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., has been attending the Ground School of the Marine Aviation Corps at Boston Tech., from which place he was being transferred to the Marine Aviation Flying Field at Miami, Florida.

William G. Mordecai, a former student of the college and son of Dean Mordecai of the Law Department, recently received a commission as 2d Lieutenant. Lt. Mordecai has been in the Officers' Training Camp at Camp Gordon.

Communications and items of educational interest are solicited from Alumni. The writer's full name should accompany all communications, which must be of length proportionate to the space of THE CHRONICLE.

Football, eh? Correct.

News of demobilization and a free pass to "I'm So Happy" all in a week—the silver lining of the S. A. T. C.

Regardless of what they were singing, the S. A. T. C. men on their trip down town Monday night kept marching to "I'm So Happy."

Any subscriber to the CHRONICLE who wishes at any time to have the address changed will please notify the manager, J. H. Lanning.

Last Monday was pay day for the S. A. T. C. students; but collectors for laundry, War Work funds, college fees, the CHRONICLE, and other "worthy" causes were accused of spoiling the day.

The CHRONICLE is in receipt of a kind letter from H. W. (Slim) Kendall, its last year's editor. The readers will be glad to know that Mr. Kendall has recovered from a severe attack of influenza and is able to resume his duties as government employee at Washington.

WHAT SHALL THE S. A. T. C. MEN DO?

"What shall I do after I am demobilized?" is a question that comes to the mind of every S. A. T. C. man and, as for that, to every man who is to be discharged from the Army.

Of course there are some men in the S. A. T. C. who have finished their education. There are a few others whose peculiar situation may make it not advisable for them to continue their education; but to the most of S. A. T. C. men the means of an education can be found if the desire is present. It is natural after living under military restrictions for the men to have the inclination to leave the S. A. T. C. and even the place where they were stationed. But let's see. Men went into the army for the sake of their country, for the sake of world democracy. To maintain the principle for which we are fighting, to carry these ideals to Europe as a guarantee against future world war are tasks that only educated men can accomplish. Opportunities will come to everyone. Who are those that will regretfully realize they are unprepared to take advantage of them? Certainly not the man who loses no time in educating himself for the work.

Trinity Alumni in the Western Conference

At the recent session of the Western North Carolina Conference quite a few changes were made among the Trinity Alumni who are serving as pastors in that conference. Among these changes we note the following:

Rev. M. B. Clegg, '00, goes from Henrietta-Carolton to Connelly Springs. He is succeeded by Rev. W. R. Shelton, who was last year Sunday School Field Secretary for the Western Carolina Conference. At the outbreak of the war, Mr. Shelton went to Oglethorpe, where he received his commission as Second Lieutenant. He now returns to his conference for work.

Rev. W. A. Lambeth, '01, goes from Salisbury to High Point. He, there, succeeds Rev. G. T. Rowe, '95. Mr. Rowe goes to Centenary. Winston to succeed Rev. E. K. McLarty, '95, who goes to Central, Asheville.

Rev. E. R. Welch, '99, who has been engaged in Army Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Greene, goes to Spring Garden, Greensboro.

John Cline, '17, is stationed at Jonathan.

E. L. Shelton, '17, goes to Mill Spring.

W. R. Jenkins, '17, is to be at Linwood.

W. B. Davis, ex-'14, changes from Polkton to Mt. Zion.

B. C. Reavis, who has been recently stationed at Lakewood, Durham, goes to Dudley Shoals.

Rev. W. H. Willis, who was last year pastor at Lexington, is now Presiding Elder of the Asheville District.

"Cap" Card Returns From "Y" Convention

"Cap" W. W. Card has just returned from Atlanta where he attended the convention of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries of the Southeastern Division engaged in S. A. T. C. work.

Mr. Card comes back beaming with enthusiasm for the future of Y. M. C. A. work in the colleges. According to Mr. Card, the work of this organization is to be continued with redoubled energy during the present scholastic year; there is to be a revival of religious training. Pursuant of the high resolutions passed by the convention, classes for a systematic study of the Bible are to be organized. It is hoped that the Y. M. C. A. will exercise over the students a taying influence similar to that which the organizations in the camps of America and France are striving to bring to bear on the soldiers.

It will perhaps be of interest to many to know that the establishment of a moving picture show in connection with the "Y" at Trinity is quite probable. Mr. Card gives the assurance that if there is sufficient demand, "movies" will be put in operation here within a short time. It is not to be doubted that the demand will be forthcoming.

Warren McCullers Spends Week in Evacuated Camp

Below are given extracts from a very interesting letter written by Edward Warren McCullers, ex-'18, later a student in the Law School, from the Western Front to his parents at Clayton, N. C.:

"I am on terrain of recent German evacuation and for a week have lived in a captured German camp. Our journey to this German camp led through stretches of shell-torn fields and woodland which had recently been a forest, now only a few torn and broken tree trunks. We passed ruin after ruin of fair French cities, now vast piles of scattered debris and limestone walls that shone out in the moonlight like skeletons of the past. We also passed large burial grounds enclosed with railings, surrounded with the Imperial eagle, encircling the graves of the German dead. Again we passed lone white crosses in forest and field, marking as the burial spot of an American soldier the place at which he fell.

"The German barracks in which we stayed were far more comfortable than ours. These were well heated wooden barracks, having roomy kitchens with running water brought down the mountain side in pipes. The officers' quarters were especially attractive with vine-clad wine gardens built out on the bluff overlooking the valley.

"Yesterday, which was my day off, I enjoyed very much. All around us there were unexplored German tunnels and trenches—untouched since their hasty abandonment. Having filled my canteen with water and taking my gas mask, I set out on an exploring expedition. I explored dugouts hundreds of feet deep. As I reached the depths, I took from my pocket a candle and matches and made a light; in this way I explored one whole battery emplacement and machine gun emplacement, including many lines of communicating trenches. In the trenches were many evidences of hasty retreat. There were unbroken boxes of ammunition, while the trenches were strewn with bolts of machine gun cartridges; there were also many garments thrown aside. These I did not touch, only to prod with a stick, for they might contain mustard gas, which is torturing in its cancerous eating."

A Training Camp for Civilians is to be opened at Camp Pershing, near Louisville, Kentucky, January 5 and will last until January 18. The number of applications that will be accepted for this camp is limited to 500. The cost of attendance will be $30, which covers cost of instruction and board. Further information and application blanks can be had by writing Professor R. L. Flowers, Professor Military Science, Trinity College, Durham, N. C.

Lieut. W. H. Wannamaker, personnel officer of the post, made a business trip to Raleigh last Monday.

"All of the men will lay flat of their backs and move their legs as if they were riding a bicycle," said the instructor to the new men. A few minutes elapsed and one pair of feet were seen to be motionless. "Here, you," shouted the officer, "why do you keep your feet still?" "If you please, sir, I'm coasting," answered the new man.

WITH THE SOCIETIES

HESPERIAN

At an informal meeting of the Hesperian Literary Society held Saturday night, it was decided to adjourn the society until after the Christmas holidays. Owing to the fact that the S. A. T. C. is to be disbanded and also that examinations are soon to be held, it was thought that the action taken by the society was for the best interests of literary work.

COLUMBIAN

At the regular meeting on last Saturday night of the Columbian Literary Society the following program was carried out:

Resolved, That President Wilson should go to the Peace Conference.

Affirmative: J. O. Long, J. T. Carpenter.

Negative: W. A. Rollins, N. M. West.

The decision was in favor of the negative.

Ina Young, '17, is teaching in the high school at Ayden, North Carolina.

Slow doughtboy to Fair Damsel: "What a lovely dog! Is he affectionate?"

F. D.: "Is he affectionate? Well I guess yes. Here, Fido, come show Johnny Faintheart how to kiss me."

NOVEMBER 29 DONATION DAY AT TRINITY PARK SCHOOL (Continued from Page 1)

Being left to bear these debts, and after losing many students who were admitted into the Students' Army Training Corps, finding that the expense of remodeling the Lanier Hall was almost a needless one, officials of the school planned to set apart Friday, November 29, as a Donation Day for the school. In accordance with this plan the patrons of the school were notified that any gifts would be gratefully received.

Thus, on last Friday night a Thanksgiving service was held, at which time thanks were given to God for his mercy shown to everyone in the school community during the influenza epidemic, and at the same time announcements were made, stating the amounts and givers of the donations that had been received. At this service, Professor W. W. Peele, a former headmaster of the school, was the speaker. In a very vivid manner, he impressed upon the minds of his audience the prevailing spirit of Thanksgiving. After a brief sketch of the first American Thanksgiving, he spoke of the things for which we at present should be thankful, showing that it is the regularity of God's blessings that causes people to become lax in their praise and thanksgiving to him. He impressed upon his hearers the facts that one never appreciates sleep until it is a blessing which no longer can be enjoyed, and that those of this world who have the least in earthly goods are always the ones who render thanks for what they have, while those in their abundance of earthly wares are likely to forget the giver of them all. After showing that every good and perfect gift comes from above, he showed that God was the giver of friends, and football was played between Companies A and B, in which the score was 0 to 0. In this game the team from Company A still showed home advantage; but the strong defence put forth by Company B held their opponents' shorter gains.

Thomas starred for Company A with his quick breaking through and tackling his opponent behind the line. Broome also did excellent work, successfully intercepting two forward passes.

For Company B Satterthwaite made a sensational long run; while Yost played a good game, doing valuable line work and making successful end runs. Whitaker also deserves mention for his fast work as tackle.

The line up for this game was the same as the first excepting the following substitutes: In Company A, Thomas for Perry, Jacobs for Broome, Broome for Simmons, and Perry for Cashion; in Company B, Yost for Barrett, Barrett for McWhorter, Turner for Barrett.

Without question the CHRONICLE wrote up the account of the football game of Saturday afternoon just as it was given to its reporter. After the story was set up, the referee notified the editor that he desired to reverse his judgment on the seeming touchdown, which would mean that the score in the first game was 0 to 0. The CHRONICLE is glad to make this correction.

quoting from Lowell, advised that it is better to "Spend all things else, but of friends be most miserly."

After the address by Professor Peele, announcements were made, naming the donors and their gifts, and it was found that the amount received was approximately four hundred and fifty dollars with promise of making it five hundred. The literary societies held their regular weekly meetings on last Saturday night and carried out very interesting programs. The Grady Society had for its subject of debate: Resolved, That wheat is more important than cotton. Those on the affirmative side of the question were Messrs. C. C. Brown, J. H. Taylor, and C. Willard, while the negative was represented by Messrs. C. B. Deane, C. C. Culbreth, and W. A. Smith. A declamation was given by Mr. J. C. Owens, and a quartet composed of Messrs. Britt, Parker, Thompson and Gentry furnished music for the evening.

The Calhoun Society debated on the subject: Resolved, That wireless telegraphy is of more value to the armies of the world than is the airship. The affirmative composed of C. B. Davis, J. W. Brown, and H. C. Cunningham, opposed Messrs. S. E. Phelps, W. Atwater, and J. H. Swain, who represented the negative side. A very interesting declamation was given by Mr. J. B. Jackson and an extemporaneous speech was made by Mr. W. O. Jones.

The work of the school is progressing rapidly and a very great interest seems to be taken in it by the student body. The term's examinations are only a few days distant, being scheduled to begin on the 14 of December. Including all disturbances of sickness and the like, the school has scarcely ever had a better term than the present one has been.

Economy Expressed in Fall
Clothes—Good clothes cost more today

There is no getting around that fact. By lowering our quality and value-giving standards, we could offer cheaper clothes. But we shall stick by the guns of quality for our customers' best interests and our own.

Our Clothes for Fall carry out this policy to the letter. They evidence how good clothes can be made and not how cheap. They will make a stronger appeal to the man who knows real value and that true economy is gauged by quality and not price.
