TRINITY DEFEATED WAKE FOREST IN A FAST GAME LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

GAME WAS CLEAN AND FULL OF THE OLD PEP THROUGHOUT

HOME QUINT HOLDS LEAD AT ALL TIMES—FINAL SCORE 41 TO 20

In the first inter-collegiate basketball game of the season, Trinity trounced her old time rival, Wake Forest, here last Friday night to the tune of 41 to 20. The Methodists opened the encounter with a rush that swept their Baptist opponents off their feet in the early stage of the game and succeeded in gaining a lead which at no time left the ultimate outcome in doubt. By all round superior teamwork, Trinity's basketballers passed the ball at will and secured goals with apparent ease over their opponents' defensive.

During the first half the Methodists amassed a score of twenty points over the nine which were accredited to Wake Forest. The second half opened with a short-lived comeback staged by the Baptists but which lasted no longer than it took the locals to get back on their feet. The game was fast from start to finish and was one of the cleanest exhibitions of the indoor sport staged this season on the local floor. A large attendance favored the players and enthusiasm ran wild throughout the game.

For Trinity, the work of Starling at forward, Page at Center, and Hathaway and Aldridge on the defensive were the outstanding features. The Methodist forward succeeded in placing fourteen points to the credit of his team. Page contributed eight points, and Aldridge found the basket eight times while holding his opponent to two field goals. Hathaway held his opponent scoreless and also contributed to the score of his own team. Captain Cole did excellent work in passing and shooting throughout the game.

For Wake Forest, the work of Floyd at center and Hanby at right guard deserve special mention. The former scored six of his teams twenty points, while the latter contributed exactly one half of his team's aggregate.

The line-up:

Trinity	Wake Forest
Cole (9)	Carlyle (2)
	L. F.
Starling (14)	Rabenhorne (2)
	R. F.
	C.
Hathaway (2)	Powell
	L. G.
Aldridge	Hanby (10)

Rev. M. F. Smith, A. B. '14, A. M. '15, was a recent victim of pneumonia which followed a severe case of influenza. Mr. Smith, who has resided in Mississippi for several years, entered Emory University the early part of this year and was taken sick with influenza two days after his arrival, dying with pneumonia within a short time at the Wesley Memorial Hospital in Atlanta.

PROF. R. L. FLOWERS TALKS AT Y. M. C. A.

REGULAR WEEKLY MEETINGS TO BE HELD ON SUNDAY EVENING

The revival of the devotional meetings of the Y. M. C. A., which took place last Sunday evening, was marked by both a large attendance and a manifestation of interest.

After reviewing briefly the conditions which existed on the campus last fall, and after calling attention to the fact that the Y. M. C. A. work will be continued during this scholastic year on the war basis, Mr. C. C. Alexander stated that there will be no student "Y" organization here this year. He said, however, that the cabinet which was elected last spring has agreed to assist Mr. Card in planning and carrying out the weekly programs.

The chief feature of the program was an excellent talk by Professor R. L. Flowers. His subject was, "The Possibility of Success in Everyone." Professor Flowers spoke in substance as follows:

One of the great tragedies of life is the failure of people to recognize their capacities until the opportunity for improvement is irrevocably passed. There are many ways by which this all-important awakening may be accomplished. If an education does not awaken and inspire a life, there is not much in the education. The best purpose of an education is the power it has to effect this change in men.

It has been said that Christianity is dead, but the experiences of the past few years are an unanswerable refutation of this statement. Since 1914 the world has been awakened to a realization of the forces of Christianity. The many differences of the world are to be settled on the basis of the Creed of Christ.

Inter-Society Debate to Be on Railroad Control

Owing to the fact that the French Army Band was to give a concert Saturday night, the two literary societies had very short sessions. In the Columbian Society a challenge to an inter-society debate was formed and sent to the Hesperian meeting. The challenge was accepted and the question to be debated with Swarthmore College was submitted. A committee to find out the exact wording of the question and to choose the side was appointed. This committee consisted of Lanning, West, and McNeilly.

In the Hesperian Society the Columbian debate challenge was accepted and the question of Federal control of railroads was submitted. After discussing other very pressing business the society adjourned.

The debates that were to be held last Saturday night were postponed until the night of February 1.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE FOR SEASON COMPLETE

CONTAINS SIX GAMES ON HOME FOUR AND SIX GAMES ABROAD

Manager of Basketball, F. M. Wannamaker, has just completed the arrangement of his schedule which he has been working on for the past two weeks. The schedule this year is limited to a very few games on account of the delay in commencing the season and to the fact that the manager has had but a short time in which to submit his schedule. The games which he has arranged, however, call for encounters with strong rivals of previous seasons and afford the Methodist contingent the opportunity of the usual northern trip. The schedule follows:

PARK SCHOOL REVIVAL TO BEGIN ON FEBRUARY TENTH

HEADMASTER ALDRIDGE ADDRESSED Y. M. C. A. LAST THURSDAY

The Park School Y. M. C. A. at its last meeting was addressed by Headmaster Aldridge, who spoke on "What it means to be Prepared." He used some very striking illustrations such as: One who does not get ready in time never gets ready. That one should live every day as though it were to be his last, and that knowing neither the day nor the hour, we should remain in readiness. The lecture was very good indeed and was highly enjoyed by all the students.

The annual revival services to be held at the school are planned to begin this year on Monday, the tenth of February, and are to be held by Rev. W. A. Cade, of Rocky Mount, of the class of 1913. A splendid meeting is being looked forward to, and the co-operation of the entire community is desired in order that the meetings may be made a striking success.

According to the results of the Calhoun Literary Society's debate on last Saturday night, there will be no League of Nations resulting from the present peace conference, for Messrs. Snow, Tuttle, Hardesty, and Bisette so represented the

STUDENT OFFICERS MARCH IN PARADE

JOIN IN WELCOME TO FRENCH BAND—GIVEN PASSES TO PERFORMANCE

On last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock the discharged army officers who are now students in Trinity College had the pleasure of participating in the parade of welcome to the French Military Band on Main Street. These officer students, twenty-two in number, assembled in formation in front of the Washington Duke Monument on Trinity Campus and marched in a column of two down Main Street to a point in front of the Washington Duke

Here Lieutenant Lockhart, in charge of the group of officers, reported to Captain Bernard Pollain, the head of the French Military Band, and then caused the Trinity officers to take their places in the formation of the parade. The Durham Hosiery Mill band was in the lead; behind the band followed the French veterans; and the Trinity officers marched at the rear of the parade. Many cheers and remarks of praise were heard from spectators.

The parade came to a halt in front of the Post Office, where the band played "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Marseillaise" and Mayor M. E. Newsom and other speakers of Durham made short addresses of welcome to the soldiers from the other side.

Captain Pollain introduced himself to each of the Trinity officers, with whom he exchanged salutes and cordial expressions of greetings. The Captain presented each of the twenty-two officers with a ticket to a box seat in the Academy of Music for the occasion of his band concert which was held Saturday night.

The officers present were: First Lieuts. L. J. Bust, Jr., Frank McNeill, and Lockhart; second lieuts. V. V. Herbert, R. A. Jackson, L. W. Smith, V. M. Dorrity, W. S. Elias, H. O. Woltz, R. K. Smathers, M. A. Braswell, M. B. Loftin, G. D. Harmon, Hugh L. Caviness, J. C. Mallard, Wesley Taylor, Carl C. Edens, Geo. M. Ivey, Wm. A. Thompson, Roy Norton, R. J. Tysor, and J. E. Gilbreth.

Candidates for R. O. T. C. Reporting Very Slowly

Captain Geo. A. Brewer issued a call for all men desiring to join the Reserved Officers' Training Corps which was being planned at Trinity to report at his office the first of this week and give in their names. Yesterday only about thirty-five had reported as candidates for enlistment in the R. O. T. C. Captain Brewer stated that unless one hundred men applied within the near future, the establishment at Trinity would be abandoned.

J. H. Burrus, who originally entered the class of '17, but left college on account of ill health, has returned with the expectation of graduating in June.

Dr. F. C. Brown, who has been ill for several days with the influenza, is able to be meeting his classes again.

ALUMNI REGISTER FOR JANUARY COMES OUT

CARRIES TIMELY ARTICLES AND VERY VALUABLE HISTORICAL DATA

The January number of the Trinity Alumni Register has just appeared with some very interesting features. This issue carries some very timely articles, and several letters from Trinity men in France.

The first feature of this issue is the photograph of Captain Geo. A. Brewer, which appears on the frontispiece, the commanding officer of the S. A. T. C. at Trinity and officer in charge of organizing an R. O. T. C. here.

The first and longest article of this issue of the Register is "The Beginning of the Hesperian Literary Society," by Professor Holland Holton. Among the interesting facts set forth are the founding of Hesperia by Braxton Craven, then the president of Trinity College, the roll of the charter members of the Society, the contents of its early constitution, and the intense zeal with which those pioneer Hesperians secured new members and literary material for their Society. This article shows considerable merit on the part of its author, both for collecting this valuable information from the archives of Hesperia and for giving it out so intelligently to the public.

The next article is entitled, "The Three Men Who Lived in the North-west Corner of Randolph County." This is a production of Miss Rose Leach Johnson, and it gives us a brief chapter in the ancient history of Trinity College. It tells how three men, James Leach, Joseph Mendenhall, and Joseph Johnson, brought about the advancement of a little log-house school, which later became Trinity College, at Old Trinity. This article covers little more than two pages in the Register, but it is very novel in its nature and is full of interest for all who have an interest in Trinity.

The next two articles are similar in nature and contain brief biographies of two old Trinity graduates. The first of these two articles set forth the successful and devoted life of Julius Lines Tomlinson, '72, who was one of the leading educators in the public and preparatory schools of North Carolina and who died in 1890, while he was holding the superintendency of the graded schools at Greensboro. The latter of these biographies shows the prominent career of Daniel Calhoun Roper, '88, who was appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue October 3, 1917. Both of these articles show very clearly two prominent examples of what Trinity men are doing out in real life.

The Register exhibits some very valuable letters from the following men across the seas: Lt. James W. Smoot, '17; Lt. John W. Carr, Jr., '15; Earl R. Sikes, '15; Lt. Linville K. Martin, ex-'17; Corporal Joe Osborne, '16; Sgt. Millard G. Eatman, '17, who died with influenza since the signing of the armistice; Capt. Alan R. Anderson, '17.

Communications and items of educational interest are solicited from Alumni. The writer's full name should accompany all communications, which must be of length proportionate to the space of THE CHRONICLE.

Checks and money orders should be made payable to the business manager, and all Business Communications should be addressed to him. All subscriptions and bills for advertisements are payable before the first of February.

We rode Wake Forest on a rail.

Air of different temperatures was moving at a high velocity in this vicinity Wednesday.

Trinity's athletic teams seem not to stop at pre-war conditions, but destined to advance to super-pre-war quality.

Since arrangements have been made whereby co-eds will use the library at nights, no doubt there will be greater interest in the contents of the library among the men of the college.

REPORTORIAL STAFF

The time for the contest among the Sophmores for places on the reportorial staff of the CHRONICLE having ended, the following men are announced as winners: H. E. Fisher, Zebulon, N. C.; H. O. Wolfe, Mount Airy, N. C.; G. B. Daniel, Littleton, N. C.; and C. H. Moser, Cherryville, N. C.

These men will report for the staff meetings each Friday night in room 205 Jarvis Hall at 7:00 o'clock.

MAKE A NOISE

Pep and enthusiasm which the student body displayed at the Trinity-Wake Forest game last Friday night was encouraging. However, in the second half, because the home team happened to hold the lead, there was a let up in the yelling on the part of spectators.

This tendency to slacken display of pep on the part of students often proves fatal. On the above mentioned occasion the visiting team began to pile up points; and had not there been a comeback of spirit displayed, the final score might have stood very different from what it does. The situation is just this; the student body weakens in its yelling; there is a quiet spell; some player relaxes; his opponent puts one over on him; the crowd becomes pessimistic; the team loses heart; and the game is lost.

Photograph of Capt. George A. Brewer, who was Commanding Officer of the S. A. T. C. and who has been Detailed to Establish an R. O. T. C. at Trinity

Moral: Make a noise!

Library Reopens and Observes Night Hours

The library will be open at nights in the future. Mr. Breedlove, the Librarian, made the announcement a few days ago, and the lights were on in the big dome last night for the first time since last year. Henceforth the hours will be from 8:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M., the usual daytime hours, and also from 7:30 to 10:30 P. M. on every night during the week except Saturday, when it will close at 1 P. M. R. K. Smathers and L. W. Saunders have been engaged as assistants to the librarian and will be in charge of the reading room at night, which will be the only part accessible to the students in the evenings.

During the Fall, while the S. A. T. C. was in vogue, study hall usurped the hours previously known as the library period. No provision had been made at that time for the co-eds to use the library at night, so there was no need of it, and the library doors remained closed. But because of repeated requests from the students showing the urgent need of the use of the reading room at night, Mr. Breedlove has consented to return to the pre-war custom.

In addition to the previous advantages offered to the students, the Dean of Women has arranged a plan, after a conference with Mr. Breedlove, whereby the girls may have access to the reading room as well as the boys. That privilege is due the co-eds, and it is only fair that they should have it.

President W. P. Few left Durham last Friday morning for New York City where he has gone to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the "James Fund," of which he is a member. The purpose of this Fund is the development of negro rural schools in the South. On his way home Dr. Few will stop in Washington for a short time, arriving in Durham the latter part of this week.

Historical Society Meets and Reorganizes for Year

The Historical Society met and reorganized Tuesday night. On account of the S. A. T. C. unit which was established here during the fall term, and the general upheaval of college activities, the society had not been organized prior to the time of this meeting. Dr. W. K. Boyd opened the meeting by saying a few words in regard to the interests and purpose of the society. He stated that the organization was one of the oldest intellectual organizations of the college, being founded in the year 1892, and that the purpose of it was to create and stimulate an interest in history by collecting and preserving historical documents, books, papers, and other material. It is hoped that those students who are interested in history, and especially North Carolina history, will ally themselves with this organization.

The following officers were elected for the spring term: Dr. W. K. Boyd, president; J. W. Norton, vice-president; Miss Mary Pettit, secretary; and Claude Moser, Treasurer.

Civic Celebration to be February Twenty-second

A committee consisting of representatives of the faculty and of the "9019" met Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of formulating plans for the usual Civic Celebration, which is held February 22 each year. It was thought at one time that it would not be wise to have the celebration this year, but the development of later events made it expedient to hold the same. A list of speakers was presented at this meeting from which a speaker will be selected and invited to perform on this occasion.

THE CHRONICLE is in receipt of a recent copy of the Plane News, which is a paper published by the American Air Service Forces in France. It is gratifying to note that Lieut. J. H. Small, Jr., a former member of the CHRONICLE staff, is assistant officer in charge of this publication.

Rev. H. E. Spence Speaks to the Ministerial Band

The ministerial band met on Friday evening of last week with a large number of its members in attendance. The meeting was called to order by the President of the band, I. L. Shaver, who read the Scripture Lesson and offered a short prayer.

The speaker of the evening, Rev. H. E. Spence, was then introduced. He presented to the band three problems to be considered as part of its year's work. They were: First, the custom of holding an Intercircle. "This Intercircle," said the speaker, "should be a group of really serious college men that meet once a week for prayer and the discussion of religious work." Second, the holding of Bible classes in the rooms of the students. Third, the doing of some personal work in the college community. Rev. Spence closed his speech with this stirring remark, "The only way that you can reach a college man is by personal touch, and not by preaching or talking religion all over the campus."

Secretary W. W. derson, '15; Capt. Sidney S. Alderman, '13; Capt. Charles R. Bagley, '14, A. M. '15. The reading of the letters of these men will give anyone some very vivid pictures of what our friends and college mates have experienced in their military career, all the way from drilling with wooden guns on Trinity campus to breaking the ill-starred Hindenburg Line in France.

A very important section of the editorial notes shows that, according to the information secured, Trinity has furnished 1,029 alumni for military service since August, 1914, and that twenty alumni have given their lives on the battlefields of France.

The remaining part of the Register is taken up with "On the Campus" notes, "Alumni Notes," and "Alumnae Notes." The last two of these divisions reflect a great deal of credit on the staff of the magazine because they furnish a vast amount of information which is very significant and interesting to all Trinity descendants and which is exceedingly difficult to secure.

In speaking of the Trinity Alumni Register, we are forced to say that the work it has done at all times has been exceedingly vital to the welfare of Trinity College and its patrons; but, at this time, when the sun is never set on all the sons and daughters of Trinity at one time, the work of the Register is especially valuable. For that reason we feel that this issue is one of the most important that has ever been published.

question against Messrs. Glenn, Wilson, Armstrong, and Tripp that the judges thought it unwise to make such a step forward. After this question had been definitely settled, Mr. C. W. Durham gave a very interesting declamation.

In the Grady Society, there was an extemporaneous debate abolishing the study hall as a probable feature of the Park School in the future for Saturday night. When the Saturday night study hall bill as proposed by the affirmative composed of Messrs. Lee, Gray, Brown, and Fitzhugh as a fitting substitute for the literary societies, all opposition was broken down by the negative composed of Messrs. Brantley, Deane, Lassiter, and C. R. Gray, and it was permanently decided that the good work of the societies should continue in the future, unmolested by any form of study hall.

Lt. Allan H. Gwyn, ex-'18, who was recently discharged from the service at Camp Pike, Arkansas, was a visitor on the campus last Tuesday. Lt. Gwyn anticipates returning to college sometime next week in order to pursue his studies leading to graduation in June.

Rev. W. W. Peele, recent Avera Professor of Biblical Literature at Trinity, now pastor of Edenton Street Methodist Church of Raleigh, was on the campus this week.

Kappa Delta Sorority initiated Miss May B. Waller, of Durham, January 28, in the Chapter room in Alspaugh Hall. After the initiation an informal banquet was given.

The Z A T Sorority entertained the A A I Sorority Saturday at a delightful suite party. There were various amusing stunts by the "goats," and a flower contest in which Miss Sarah Hudgins received as a prize a dainty, crepe-de-chine handkerchief, which was blue, carrying out the color scheme by which the suite was decorated. After the contest, refreshments were served in the forms of fruit, salad, saltines, and cocoa with marshmallows. In addition to the sorors, Miss Ruth Hall, of Louisville was present.

Chaplain Cannon Given Recognition for Bravery

The friends of Chaplain James Cannon, III, '14, will be interested in the following extract of a general order issued by the First Divisional Commander, American Expeditionary Forces, Germany, the order being dated December 8, 1918, wherein Chaplain Cannon was cited for unusual bravery while under extremely heavy fire:

"Voluntarily he joined a battalion of his regiment which was taking part in the attack and spent two days and nights with the men in the extreme front line. Displayed unusual courage in searching for and personally carrying back and burying the dead several times under extremely heavy fire. His coolness and bravery being a fine example to his men."

Golf Club Becomes Part of Athletic Activities

The newest development in the athletics of the college is the organization of a golf club. The organization will be perfected at a meeting tomorrow afternoon.

The club will be composed of between fifteen and twenty of the Trinity college students; and those in the association will be given the same credit toward athletics as the men who take part in the older forms of athletics.

The members of the Club will, through the kindness of Mr. John Sprunt Hill, be allowed the use of the golf course at the Country Club. Dr. F. C. Brown and C. B. Cooper are the principal promoters of the Club. Dr. Brown has received instructions under some of the leading players of the country; and he offers his assistance to those desiring to learn the game.

Economy Expressed in Fall Clothes—Good clothes cost more today

There is no getting around that fact. By lowering our quality and value-giving standards, we could offer cheaper clothes. But we shall stick by the guns of quality for our customers' best interests and our own.

Our Clothes for Fall carry out this policy to the letter. They evidence how good clothes can be made and not how cheap. They will make a stronger appeal to the man who knows real value and that true economy is gauged by quality and not price.
