TRINITY IS VICTIM OF N. C. STATE QUINT

METHODISTS DEFEATED ON A.
& E. COURT—SCORE WAS
28 TO 18

In the second inter-collegiate basketball game of the season the A. & E. State College quint defeated the Trinity team by a score of 28 to 18 on the State College's floor at the Auditorium in Raleigh Tuesday night.

The contest was not exceedingly fast but was interesting all the way through. The guarding of both sides was the feature of the game. Trinity took the lead, scoring two fouls and a field goal, but the State College men found themselves, and being accustomed to the large court in the spacious auditorium, they led the Methodists a merry chase. The Agies gained the lead after the first few minutes and retained it throughout the remainder of the game. At end of the first half the score stood 12 to 9 in favor of the State College.

Both sides worked hard in the second half, but the Raleigh five succeeded in holding their lead, and by the splendid tossing of Gurley the score at the end of the game was 28 to 18. Besides Gurley, Kline did excellent work.

For the Methodists Starling made the stellar plays. The two guards deserve special mention. Aldridge made two goals on his man, besides holding him down to four points. Hathaway was all over the floor at once and altho' he did not throw any field goals, his guarding was one of the best features of the battle.

Lewis, of the Greensboro Y. M. C. A. refereed the game, and Chick Doak umpired. Black and Carter were scorers.

Quite a number of Trinity students attended the game, as well as a large delegation from the State College and Raleigh. After the game an informal dance was given for the visiting men.

The lineup:

Y. W. C. A. Held Japanese Tea Last Monday Night

The Y. W. C. A. had a Japanese tea last Monday night as a variation to the mission study. Mrs. Charles Poppler gave an explanatory talk on the book which she is to use in her mission study class and the little Misses Wilson, daughters of an American missionary to Japan, sang several Japanese songs. Mrs. Poppler's class will begin work next week, and the text used will be "Women Workers of the Orient," she announced.

After the talk, mints and tea were served to the Y. W. C. A. members as they sat about the room on cushions in Japanese fashion.

LIEUT. J. C. BOGGS IS BACK FROM FRANCE

FIRST TRINITY MAN TO BE WOUNDED—CITED FOR BRAVERY

First Lieut. John C. Boggs, '17, who has just returned from France where he was wounded once, cited for bravery, and was in some of the biggest fights of the war, was in Durham Saturday and Sunday visiting with friends in the city and on the campus.

Boggs left Trinity in the spring of 1917 and went to the first camp at Fort Oglethorpe, where he won a commission as a second lieutenant. He was attached to the 2nd Machine Gun Battalion, 1st Division of Regulars, and was sent across in September of the same year. After being in training in France for several months, he was in the first attack made by the Americans at Catigny on the night of January 20, 1918. He was in the trenches steadily from then until May when he was wounded by a bullet piercing his right hand, being the first Trinity man to receive a wound.

In July the young officer returned to the front, going this time to Chateau-Thierry, where the fierce German counter-drive was made. Having lost all the men in his platoon, he was transferred to an infantry platoon. From this platoon Lieut. Boggs selected a squad of six men to help him with a machine gun, which he procured for them. With his gun and crew he went over the top on the morning of July 21. By the time they had reached their final objective, he was the only officer left in the company, and had only the six men he had brought with him. Under his direction the squad of six men prepared to hold the sector. The Germans made a fierce counter-attack. Placing the weapon at an effective point, the men drove back the Germans, and by changing the gun from place to place, they made the Boches think there were seven or eight guns in the sector. They held the sector for a period of more than forty hours,—until

New "Dope" Shop Opened By Athletic Association

On Monday of this week a "dope" shop was opened at the old stand in the middle section of Aycock Hall under the auspices of the Athletic Association. It will carry complete lines of candy, tobacco, and drinks, which will be sold very reasonably to the students.

The firm will be managed by R. A. Few, who has had quite a bit of experience in this line, since he was proprietor of the shop last year. The Ashe Twins will render the services necessary for the dispensing of the confectioneries and smokes to the students of Trinity College.

The firm will be directed by a committee of five members of the student body and Professor Wilson, of the Faculty. Their duties will be to keep a complete stock on hand at all times, and

ATLANTIC QUARTERLY STARTS ON 18th YEAR

JANUARY ISSUE TO APPEAR—CONTAINS HISTORICAL ESSAYS

The January South Atlantic Quarterly, which will come from the press in a few days, is the opening issue of the eighteenth year of this well-established publication. The first article is by Dr. Clarence Poe, Editor of the Progressive Farmer. Dr. Poe writes on "The Ten-Century of Sir Walter Raleigh's Death." A celebration of this anniversary was to have been held in Raleigh under the auspices of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association, but the influenza epidemic interfered with this celebration. Dr. Poe, in his Quarterly article, pays high tribute to the well-known English explorer and colonizer after whom the capital city of North Carolina is named.

The second article is by Mr. E. V. Mills, of the University of Virginia. Mr. Mills writes about "The Case of Dr. Cooper." This was a prosecution under the Alien and Sedition Laws in the administration of John Adams, and is of timely interest in comparison with some of the war-time prosecutions of the past year. Dr. Cooper, who was convicted on this occasion, was a distinguished scientist, who in his later years became

PARK SCHOOL IS VICTIM OF DURHAM HIGH SCHOOL

CAPTAIN BREWER SPEAKS AT CHAPEL—OTHER NEWS
ITEMS

The Durham High School team won over the Trinity Park School in a rather slow game of basketball Wednesday night in the Angier Duke Gymnasium by a score of 31 to 9. This was the first game of the season for the Park School and their men suffered from the lack of practice and coaching. On the other hand the High School team has been at work all the season trying out for State High School Championship.

Barnes was the sole feature for the Park School team, scoring seven points out of nine for his team. Carmichael and Hefflin were the stars for the High School, Hefflin scoring thirteen points and Carmichael throwing seven field goals.

The lineup was as follows:

Barnes (7)	Hefflin (18)
	R. F.
Harrison	Speed (4)
	L. F.
Turner	Carmichael (14)
	C.
Durham	Brooks
	R. G.
Bissitt (2)	Fanning

At the meeting of the Calhoun Literary Society on last Saturday night, Mr. G. L. Parker gave a very interesting declamation. The debate was on the abolition of socialism and the negative side, setting forth its reasons as to why socialism should not be abolished, won the decision. The affirmative was represented by Messrs. H. B. Smith, W. W. Bulluck, H. I. Durham, and H. H. Bolich, while

PHYSICAL TRAINING ON NEW BASIS HERE

UNIVERSAL TRAINING FOR STUDENTS—CREDIT FOR ATHLETICS

A new era within the realm of athletics is approaching at Trinity. At the announcement at chapel some time ago by Dean Wainmaker that the faculty had taken definite action with reference to physical training this year, both the most dignified Senior and the most modest Freshman alike sat up and took notice. Those who had entertained fond expectations of not taking the training this spring were fully convinced of the fact that their wishes in the matter would not be given very much consideration.

However, the physical training this year has one redeeming feature. Instead of all the students taking "gym" work, there is to be a variety of games offered in which students may participate and receive credit for physical training. However, until this system can be thoroughly worked out, all the students have been assigned to regular classes at the "gym."

A student may, if he so desires, select tennis as the game in which he wishes to participate. The manager of tennis will have several assistants and either the manager or one of his assistants will have charge of the tennis courts each afternoon to ascertain which students have indulged in that particular sport. Each student must play at least three hours a week and on as many as three different days; however, the days are not specified on which he must play. The manager of tennis keeps a record of attendance and in turn reports to the college office where an accurate record is kept.

Not only may tennis be selected, but a student may choose volleyball, soccer, or golf. The golf links at the Country Club have been obtained for use by those who participate in that branch of athletics. Those students who play golf will receive the same credit as those who take "gym" work.

Memorial Services Held for Lieutenant Harris

Memorial services in honor of Lieutenant Edward Cedric Harris, '17, were held in the Methodist Church at Wendell, North Carolina, at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, February 2. Dr. W. P. Few and J. P. Breedlove, College Librarian, attended these services and participated in the program.

Lieut. Harris left college in May, 1917, and went to the first officers' training camp at Fort Oglethorpe, where he received his commission. He was soon sent to France and was fortunate enough to escape injury until November 11, 1918, on which date he received his fatal wound just a short time before hostilities ceased. He died the following day.

The memorial services which were held at Wendell last Sunday were presided over by Rev. Fisher, pastor at that place. On this occasion

MORALITY PLAY GIVEN BY ATHENIAN SOCIETY

LITERARY SOCIETY ELECTS
OFFICERS—TO REPEAT
PLAY

At the last regular meeting of the Athena Literary Society the officers for the spring term were elected and Miss Vera Wiggins retired to a private seat among the other members after her very successful term of office as president. The new officers are: Arita Harper, president; Mary Pettit, vice-president; Leonora Aiken, secretary; Estelle Warlick, treasurer; Nellie Reade, third member of Executive committee; Gladys Price, chairman of Program committee; Bernice Ulrich, censor; Thelma Howell, critic; Margie White, reporter; Mary Outlaw, chaplain; Gertrude Adams and Ruth Hicks, marshals.

There was a special meeting of the Society Tuesday afternoon, called by the president for the double purpose of giving the morality play "Beyond the Gate" a tryout, and of giving every member of the society a chance to see it free. The play was presented by the fall term program committee, Misses Arita Harper, Gladys Price, and Margie White, and directed by Mrs. F. A. G. Cowper, whose services the committee were very fortunate to secure. The play is to be presented again Saturday afternoon, February 8, at 4:00 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium to the feminine public. All the ladies and children of Durham are invited to come. Admission for women will be twenty-five cents and for children fifteen cents.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Day Dream—Estelle Warlick.
Corinna, young maiden—Irene Price.
Idleness—Lota Leigh Draughton.
Work—Martha Wiggins.
Pleasure—Coma Cole.
Joy—Margie White.
Love—Gladys Price.
Discontent—Mary Latta.
Failure—Mary Gooch Pitts.
Harvesters—Pearl Adams, Mable Crumpler, and Clara Nichols.
Poppy—Elizabeth Card.
Clowns—Charles and Norman Livengood.
Sleepy-Head—John Webb.
Fancy—Grizzelle Hartsell.

Y. M. C. A. Addressed by Dr. Gates Sunday Night

The regular meeting last Sunday evening of the Y. M. C. A. was addressed Dr. A. M. Gates. His lecture was very impressive and was much appreciated by those who heard him. Dr. Gates spoke in substance as follows:

No person can attain to any marked success in this life unless he recognizes God as his chief aid. God intended that we should be ambitious; but if we try to carry out these ambitions ourselves, we fail. We must assume for our foundation a conversion. It is not easy to do right, and as long as we are in the world, we are beset with temptations. God will do

Communications and items of educational interest are solicited from Alumni. The writer's full name should accompany all communications, which must be of length proportionate to the space of THE CHRONICLE. Checks and money orders should be made payable to the business manager, and all business communications should be addressed to him. All subscriptions and bills for advertisements are payable before the first of February.

Who said Trinity wouldn't have an R. O. T. C.?

We'll show N. C. State on the 11th that a tide will turn.

Compulsory physical training for every student, even the women—the unthinkable.

"Billy" Sunday in the Auditorium on Monday proved fatal for Trinity on Tuesday.

A "dope" shop with the Ashe twins handing "stuff" over the counter reminds us of the good old days gone by.

THE "DOPE" SHOP

The student body on the campus is a community of a few hundred people living in the same vicinity and having, to some degree, the same end in view. There are certain organizations and institutions existing among the students for the convenience of the student body as a whole or a certain class of students. For the College community to enjoy the most advantages possible and the program of things on the campus to be the greatest success, it is necessary that every student should co-operate with these organizations and support these institutions.

As is announced elsewhere in this issue, there has been recently established on the campus a "dope" shop under the direction of the Athletic Association. The profits from this institution will go to promote athletics at Trinity. There is a majority of the students who will spend some money for smokes and confectioneries. If these articles can be purchased on the campus as cheaply as they can down town and at the same time the success of athletics be made more certain, it becomes the duty of every loyal student to spend what money he has for such purposes at this establishment. The CHRONICLE hopes to see the Athletic Association "dope shop" declare high dividends to the athletic sports of the College.

There are other institutions on the campus, such as a pressing club, etc., which if they do not contribute to athletics, they add to the convenience of the students and aid some one in paying his expenses in college. These institutions, when they offer as good accommodations, deserve the patronage of the students in preference to outside institutions of like nature.

USE THE LIBRARY

There appeared an article in the last issue of the CHRONICLE announcing the opening of the College Library for night hours. As will be noted from this article and former records, even more liberal hours have been arranged than in the past.

This arrangement has been made by the College for the convenience of the students and at an expense of time and money. There will have to be extra records kept by the librarian, assistants will have to be paid to keep the library open at these hours. There will also be minor expenses.

The CHRONICLE urged the opening of the library. Now that it is open, it wishes to express an appreciation in behalf of the students and also to urge the students to use this opportunity the College has made possible to the best advantage and not to abuse it.

The library is an institution for the benefit of the College community. The students should seek to use this institution and its contents for the best possible advantage in their work in College. Also they should realize that others have an equal right to its advantages and not abuse this privilege. There are certain regulations governing the use of the library which were instituted for the good of all concerned. These regulations have to do with taking books and periodicals from the building, time of holding books in one's possession, and conduct in the library. Any student who does not endeavor to observe these regulations is not worthy of the privilege the library offers. It is hoped that no trouble because of violation of these rules will come about this spring.

R. O. T. C. at Trinity Starts Regular Drill

Regular drill work for the Reserved Officers' Training Corps at Trinity College started yesterday under Captain Geo. A. Brewer, Professor of Military Science and Tactics. There were about fifty men out for drill on the first day. Possibly fifty or more others have signified their intention of joining, but their enrollment had not been completed yesterday.

The hours for drill will be every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 4:00 to 5:00 o'clock. The work for the first few weeks will consist of instruction in the school of the soldier, school of the squad, and close order drill. From this work advancement will be made to the manual of arms and the higher features of military science.

M. A. Braswell was called to Burlington, Vermont, this week on business.

Date of Contest Entries Moved Up to March 1st

The last day for submitting subjects for the Braxton Craven Medal and the Wiley Grey Contest, in normal times, is February 1.

The Braxton Craven Medal is ditions on the campus this year the date for submitting these subjects has been moved up to March 1. The Braxton Craven Medal is a gift of General Julian S. Carr. It is offered annually for the best essay submitted by an undergraduate student of Trinity College. The Wiley Grey Medal was established by the late Robert T. Gray, Esq., of Raleigh, N. C., to be awarded annually in memorial honor of his brother, from whom the medal takes its name. It is intended to be a reward for the graduating oration that shall be, in the opinion of a committee appointed on the day of commencement, the best speech, with respect to both declamation and composition.

Literary Societies Take in New Men—Hold Programs

That both the Hesperian and the Columbian Societies are again getting down to effective work was evident to those who attended the meetings last Saturday night.

In Hesperia the regular program was preceded by the initiation of new men, eleven freshmen being inducted into Hesperianism. The orators of the occasion were G. E. Powell and Wesley Taylor. An interesting discussion was given on the following proposition: "Resolved, That the Federal Government should continue to control and operate the railroads for five years, according to Secretary McAdoo's plan." W. C. Ormond and R. E. Thigpen, appearing for the affirmative, were successfully opposed by E. T. Newton and Reginald Turner.

The Society enjoyed an interesting talk by Lieutenant J. C. Boggs, who has been recently discharged after seeing overseas duty.

In the absence of President Hobbs, Columbia was presided over by Vice-President Lanning. After the initiation of members was completed, the regular program was rendered. The orators were R. K. Snathers and W. H. Cherry. A spirited debate was given on the question, "Resolved, That the legislative and executive departments of the Federal Government should be more closely associated by an amendment to the Constitution. The affirmative team was composed of J. E. Gilbreath and L. H. McNeely; the negative was supported by C. B. Cooper and C. H. Moser. The decision rendered was in favor of the negative.

The Society was delighted by a short extemporaneous talk by a man of pristine forensic fame, Mr. L. C. Allen, who has just been discharged from the army.

Professor R. L. Flowers has been confined to his room since last Friday. The college community will regret to learn of his illness and wish him a speedy recovery.

On last Friday the XI Chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity initiated H. O. Woltz. The initiation started in the afternoon and lasted throughout the evening.

L. L. Gobbel, '18, has accepted a position as Associate Editor of the Southern Good Roads and the Dispatch, Lexington, N. C.

Rutherford College Club Organizes for This Year

The Rutherford College Club met January 25 and organized for the spring term. The purpose of this club is to endeavor to encourage Rutherford College men to come to Trinity after they have finished the prescribed work there. Rutherford has in the past years been well represented here, but it is hoped that in the future this representation will be greatly increased.

The following officers were elected: Claude Moser, president; L. H. McNeely, vice-president; H. B. Higgins, secretary; Ray J. Tyson, treasurer.

Other members of the club are: J. H. Lanning, I. L. Shaver, H. C. Ripple, Leroy Dulin, F. L. Hinkle, H. D. Waldrop, U. C. Hines, W. A. Rollins, W. H. Cherry, T. F. Higgins, J. H. Brendall, M. S. Louder, and O. T. Bradley.

Lieut. R. E. Parker, '17, who was recently discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps, has returned to College to take his Master's degree.

relieved on the morning of July 24, after they had lost two men, and had wiped out almost an entire German company.

After this fight Boggs was retired to a rest billet where he was cited for bravery, awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, promoted to the rank of first lieutenant, and given orders to return to the United States to organize a machine gun company. He returned to America in October of last year, and was here when the armistice was signed.

Young Boggs, who is the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Boggs, 125 S. Laurel St., Richmond, Va., was a popular student in college, and is well remembered by many of the upper classmen today. He entered with the Class of '17, in the fall of 1913, and soon became interested in all college activities. He was a member of the Hesperian Literary Society and the Botanical Club, was member of Y. ## PARK SCHOOL IS VICTIM OF DURHAM HIGH SCHOOL (Continued from Page 1)

Messrs. C. W. Durham, R. L. Armstrong, W. A. Dixon, and C. D. Carter represented the negative.

In the Grady Society the debate was centered on discussing the importance of the part France played in the recent war, as contrasted with that of England. The debate called forth much originality in setting forth the points in the argument, and was very interesting. The affirmative, composed of Messrs. W. H. Smith, O. A. Robinson and J. W. Ross, won the decision over the negative represented by Messrs. J. C. Owen, G. W. Roebuck, and W. R. Taylor. Mr. W. L. Fitzhugh acted as reader, and a declamation was given by Mr. Woodard.

The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was addressed by Headmaster Aldridge, who spoke from the 13th chapter and 33rd verse of Matthew, and very emphatically placed these words before the students, showing that God, by working on the inside and not on the outside of man, brought His plans about, he used the illustration of the mustard seed to a good advantage, in that it was a striking example of how the life of the human race was wrapped up in the inner life of man, and that although the outer man be changed, his inner being ruled, being in no way subjected to the outward nature.

On Tuesday morning the school was fortunate in having Captain Brewer from the college speak to the students concerning enlistment in the proposed R. O. T. C. of the College. He made a very pointed talk and very clearly presented the matter to the students. The school was indeed pleased to have him present at the morning devotional exercises, and enjoyed his talk very much.

His part to help us overcome these temptations if we will do ours. He is as much obligated to help us as we are to serve Him, and the very moment we decide to be guided by God in all our deeds and acts, just that very moment he is willing to be our guide and instructor. The moment that we are tempted by the devil and begin to argue the case with him, we are as good as lost. The avoidance of temptation is wise, but we should occupy our minds with good thoughts in such a way that there will be no room for temptation.

casian Mr. Breedlove, to whom Lieut. Harris had been assistant librarian while in college, made a talk on the personal life of the deceased. Dr. Few spoke on what it meant to give one's life as a sacrifice for his country. Letters were also read from Lieut. Harris' officers concerning his bravery and life as a soldier.

It is interesting to note that while in college Lieut. Harris was assistant to the librarian from 1915 to 1917 along with M. G. Eatman, I. S. Harrell, Percy Groome, and Paul L. Sample. All of this quintette entered the service. All except Sample were sent overseas. Two, Harris and Eatman, were buried in France. Lieut. Harris' grave is only about five miles from Verdun.

ATLANTIC QUARTERLY
STARTS ON 18TH YEAR

President of South Carolina College.

Dean Carl Holloway, of the University of Toledo, Ohio, writes an interesting paper entitled "Lincoln's God." This essay will be especially appropriate in connection with the annual celebration of Lincoln's birthday, and as a fitting tribute to the influence of religion in Lincoln's life.

An interesting description of conditions of life and society in Virginia a century ago as compared with the present time is contained in Mr. A. J. Morrison's essay entitled "Virginia Works and Days, 1814-1819." This paper appears fittingly at the time of the centennial of the University of Virginia.

Miss Kate M. Herring, who has been engaged in the campaign for the sale of War Savings Stamps in North Carolina, contributes an interesting article showing the creditable part played by the negroes of the State in the purchase of these Stamps. Her paper is entitled "The Negro and War Savings in North Carolina."

Professor William K. Boyd, of Trinity College, presents some results of his researches in the history of North Carolina in an able article entitled "Federal Politics in North Carolina, 1824-1836."

Those who are interested in French literature will be gratified to read a critical article on "Paul Hervieu and His Work" by Professor W. H. Scheidley, of the University of Indiana.

An article of importance to students of Southern literature is that contributed by Miss Kate White, of Knoxville, Tennessee, who writes on "Father Ryan, the Poet Priest of the South."

Mr. Edward J. Woodhouse, of Yale University, contributes a short article on "Conservation and Criminology" based upon the recent book on "Criminology" by Mr. Maurice Parmelee.

The number also contains several important book reviews by professors of Trinity College and other institutions, and also an interesting department of Notes and News.

PHYSICAL TRAINING
ON NEW BASIS HERE

They will report to their manager or captain, who in turn will report to the College office.

As has been the custom in the past, those students who are candidates for the different college varsity teams will not be required to take regular "gym" work, but will be allowed to count their regular practice work for this required physical training.

Those students who take the R. O. T. C. drill will also not be required to take any of this physical training, the R. O. T. C. sufficing.

Although no provision has as yet been made for the young ladies of the College, they are given assurance that they will not be disappointed or shunned in any way.

also to take charge of the profits that are made.

It should be of interest to the students to know that the profits made will be used by the Athletic Association for what they think best as regards promotion of athletics this spring.

Sound Business Investment Has Its Well-
Defined Limits of Profits

The world is full of rascals seeking to defraud—one of their chief methods is the promising of impossible dividends on stock that is practically worthless.

It requires an experienced business man to distinguish between legitimate investments and clever frauds. We gladly offer our service and experience to our customers in this regard.

On the basis of safety and satisfactory service we solicit your account.

Economy Expressed in Fall
Clothes—Good clothes cost more today

There is no getting around that fact. By lowering our quality and value-giving standards, we could offer cheaper clothes. But we shall stick by the guns of quality for our customers' best interests and our own.

Our Clothes for Fall carry out this policy to the letter. They evidence how good clothes can be made and not how cheap. They will make a stronger appeal to the man who knows real value and that true economy is gauged by quality and not price.
