OVERCONFIDENCE OF TEAM LOSES GAME TO DAVIDSON

Team Has Lost Only Two Games During the Entire Season

Trinity continued its victorious basketball career by defeating Elon College last Friday night at Elon by a score of 12 to 5. The game was hard fought from beginning to end as indicated by the small score and characterized by close guarding on the part of the Elonites. This was the first game played by the Methodists on the trip which began Friday afternoon and ended Sunday at Greensboro.

Trinity secured an early lead and managed to retain it throughout the game. The team, however, did not display its usual form in passing, and the scoring machine was slow in getting in its work. The first half ended 7 to 3. For Trinity the work of Aldridge as guard was the chief feature. The "Methodist midge" was all over the floor intercepting passing and doing splendid work for his team. He contributed also one-third of his team's aggregate of points.

The line-up:
Trinity                      Elon

   L. G.

Another victory was added to Trinity's string of successes when the Methodist quint defeated the Guilford basketball team at Guilford College last Saturday night by a score of 27 to 18. This was the second defeat inflicted on the Quaker contingent this season by the Methodist quint.

Unlike the preceding game between the two teams, the Guilford players offered strong resistance to the Trinity tossers and made them fight hard before carrying off the honors. The Methodists started in with a rush and amassed a considerable lead which they maintained throughout the early part of the game. At the end of the first period the score was 19-6 for the Methodists. In the second half, however, the Quakers came back strong and registered three field goals before the Trinity quint could get back on its feet. The remainder of the game was characterized by close guarding and long shots on the part of both teams.

Starling and Captain Cole as forwards were the chief factors in the Methodists victory. Starling registered six field goals while Captain Cole was accredited with two. Both players did excellent passing. The work of Page at center, who also scored two field goals, and the guarding of Hath-

DEBATERS SELECTED FROM INTER-SOCIETY

COLUMBIA AND HESPERIA TO HOLD FORENSIC CLASH MARCH 1

The Columbian and Hesperian Literary Societies held their preliminaries last week for the purpose of selecting men for the annual inter-society debate which is to be held March 1.

It has been the custom heretofore for these preliminaries to be held during the fall term, but due to the fact that the S. A. T. C. unit was established here last fall, college activities were a thing of the past. The Inter-society debates always create a great deal of excitement, especially among the students, and the contest which is to be held this spring promises to be a real live one.

The Columbian preliminary was held Friday night. The men who were trying for places on the team made excellent speeches on the subject Resolved, That the Federal Government should continue to control and operate the railroads for a period of five years according to the plan of Mr. McAdoo.

The contestants were J. E. Gilbreath, L. H. McNeely, J. E. Carpenter, C. B. Cooper, N. M. West, A. W. Cakes, J. H. Lanning, G. D. Harmon, W. E. Howard, and W. H. Cherry. The winners were: N. M. West, L. H. McNeely, C. B. Cooper, and J. H. Lanning; alternate.

The judges for the occasion were: Professor R. L. Flowers, Dr. W. K. Boyd, and Dr. W. H. Glasson.

The Hesperians held their preliminary Saturday afternoon. The same question was discussed by well prepared speeches from the following men aspiring for places on the team: H. C. Ripple, S. M. Holton, T. P. Thomas, J. F. Harward, H. J. Herring, R. E. Thigpen, T. R. Waggoner, R. L. Thornton, and C. C. Alexander.

Sigma Upsilon Initiate Seven Upper Classmen

The Fortnightly Club of the Sigma Upsilon Fraternity held its regular annual initiation Monday night in the West Duke Building. Seven men were admitted into the order.

The Sigma Upsilon Fraternity is an organization for the promotion and encouragement along a literary line among students. Undergraduates are admitted to a limited extent, but faculty members and post-graduates are also taken in. The fraternity serves to give a sympathetic audience to "amateurs," and the efforts of the individual members. It has been extended over the southern States within the last few years, and has won recognition for its work in the line of literature.

At eight o'clock Monday evening, the seven candidates assembled at the Washington Duke monument, and waited in silence. After a time some one appeared and ordered the men to fall in line, single file. They were marched into the West Duke Building. The door closed, and for more than two

TRINITY TO DEBATE SWARTHMORE COLLEGE

DEBATERS SELECTED IN COMPETITIVE CONTEST WEDNESDAY NIGHT

For the purpose of choosing two of the speakers for the Trinity-Swarthmore debate a preliminary was held in the Y. M. C. A. hall last night. Unlike the average preliminary contest, this one did not attract many contestants. The competition was confined to Messrs. H. E. Fisher, A. H. Gwyn, T. P. Thomas, S. M. Holton, R. E. Thigpen, and E. F. Dunstan. The successful aspirants to forensic form were Fisher and Gwyn. The third speaker will be chosen from the inter-society teams on the occasion of the debate between those teams.

The approaching debate with Swarthmore, which will be held at the Pennsylvania College, March 15, will be the eighth battle of wits with that school and the second debate of the third series of three debates each. Out of the seven former debates Trinity has lost only one.

REVIVAL GREAT SUCCESS AT TRINITY PARK SCHOOL

SERVICES CLOSE ON FRIDAY NIGHT—SOCIETIES CONTINUE WORK

The revival services at Trinity Park School which were conducted by Rev. W. A. Cade, of Rocky Mount, during the week of February 10-15 came to a close on last Friday night. The meeting was a complete success in so far as results go. Almost every member of the entire student body either made a profession of faith or else reconsecrated his life to God. The spirit of the meeting was one of earnestness, and all were apparently sincere in their convictions and professions. Rev. Cade began his one thought on Monday night and successfully followed it up with triumphant results. Taking each opportunity as it presented itself, he mastered the situation and through vivid illustrations drove home to each boy's heart and life his message.

On last Saturday night the Calhoun Literary Society held an interesting debate on the subject: dealing with the desirability of making Jefferson's birthday a legal holiday. The decision was given to the negative side, composed of Messrs. R. G. Bailey, L. M. Harrison, and W. O. Jones, while the affirmative was represented by Messrs. H. B. Smith, O. G. Sawyer, and J. L. Wood. One of the most important events of this meeting was the critic's report which was unusually good.

The Grady Society, at its meeting on Saturday night, debated the question, Resolved: That the Federal Government should own and operate the telegraph wires. The negative, composed of Messrs. O. Z. Gentry, C. B. Deane, and C. C. Brown, won the decision over the affirmative, represented by Messrs. F. D. Ashley, J. I. Gray, and V. C. Lassiter. The declaimers for the evening were Messrs. H. M. Wester and H. C.

THREE FRATERNITIES INITIATE NEW MEN

K. S. S. P. E. AND A. T. Q. HOLD ANNUAL INITIATIONS THIS WEEK

Regular annual initiations by the fraternities have been taking place during the last week. Three of the fraternities have held initiations, and others are to take in new members within the next few days.

The Eta Prime Chapter of Kappa Sigma Fraternity held its initiation in the Odd Fellows Hall in the city of Durham on February 15. M. M. Whitaker, of Kingston, N. C., and J. E. Martin, of Johnson City, Tennessee, were introduced to the mysteries of Kappa Sigma.

Immediately after the initiation a banquet was served at the Goody Shop Cafe. Mr. H. G. Hedrick, of the city of Durham, acted as toastmaster. Responses were made by several members. The active members present were: L. J. Best, R. S. White, R. F. Brower, R. T. Jeffreys, and E. S. Toms. The visitors were Messrs. H. G. Hedrick, R. A. Michie, J. M. Hackney, and H. N. Michie, of Durham; Clay V. Ring, of Kernersville; and Hugh McKinnon and Midgett Morris, from University of N. C.

On last Saturday afternoon and evening the North Carolina Gamma Chapter of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity of Trinity and the North Carolina Beta Chapter of N. C. State College held a joint initiation in Durham.

The initiates from Beta Chapter were B. M. Gattling and W. A. Leslie. The men initiated for Gamma Chapter were W. L. Phelps, T. A. Banks, W. W. Bateman, and T. D. Northcott. The active members present were: from State College, Jimmy Cooper, J. H. Moss, B. D. Lovelace, and H. W. Bowen; from Trinity, R. T. Hambrick, M. K. Fuller, H. Y. Edgerton, and Dwight Turner.

Faculty Organize Club On Last Saturday Night

On Saturday night, February 15, the members of the faculty met and organized a Faculty Club. It is the intention of this organization to promote social intercourse and good fellowship among the members of the Club.

The Club is to be managed by a Board of Governors of five members. This Board consists of the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the Club and one additional member. The officers elected on Saturday night were: president, Dr. William K. Boyd; vice-president, Dr. William H. Glasson; secretary, Dr. H. M. Ellis; treasurer, Professor C. L. Hornaday. Professor R. L. Flowers was elected as the additional member of the Board of Governors. It is expected that the Club will furnish one of the parlors in the East Duke Building to be used as headquarters for its operations.

Mr. J. B. Ivey, of Charlotte, N. C., visited his son, G. M. Ivey, during the past week.

TOMBS TAKE TWELVE MEN THROUGH SECRETS

INITIATION LASTS THROUGH TUESDAY NIGHT AND WEDNESDAY

BANQUET WEDNESDAY NIGHT MARKS END OF INITIATION

Candidates Entertain Public With Initiatory "Stunts" on Streets of Durham

"Peanut Butter, hit me harder," was the cry that heralded the annual initiation of Tombs on the campus Tuesday night. Twelve new men were taken in. The initiation started Tuesday night, and lasted throughout Wednesday, being wound up by a magnificent banquet at the Goody Shop.

The Tombs is a local organization, founded in 1903, with the purpose of backing athletics and all college activities financially as well as morally. Since that time a great many things have been accomplished by the Tombs, and its influence has been felt in all branches of college activities, athletic, literary, and forensic.

At 6:45 P. M. Tuesday the old members of the Tombs, and the twelve prospective members, gathered at the Washington Duke Monument. The candidates were blindfolded, and lined up, one behind the other with hands on the shoulders of the man in front. They marched around the drive, crying "Peanut butter, hit me harder," the cries being drowned out by the dreadful concussion of paddles. After an hour of "treat 'em rough" medicine, the men were taken to the Fraushack, where an excellent program was rendered. Songs—solos and duets—and speeches, and the wonderful dancing by the initiates were features. The program was closed by a mock trial, in which McArthur was charged with the audacious crime of looking in at one of the Fraushack windows. Norton presided on the bench, and was a sober, serious, and fair judge. Braswell and Cooper, representing the defense and prosecution, respectively, made excellent lawyers, and a hot legal fight ensued before the defendant was finally cleared.

Wednesday the initiates appeared with derbies, a white and a black sock, dress shirt, collar and tie, as has been the custom for a number of years. They were marched to Chapel before the gaze of the wondering students and spectators.

Wednesday afternoon they were outfitted with pacifiers and other baby toys, and marched down street for display. Quite a number of interesting stunts were pulled, among them being the opening speeches made by the different individuals before a large crowd in front of Haywood and Boone Drug Co. The boys sold newspapers on the streets, took charge of the street cleaning for a few minutes, relieved the traffic cops for a while, and harangued the crowd at intervals. Two young fellows were occupied serving as waiters in one of the cafes, while another stood on the street corner and fished in a can full of water. After a series of Everybody smile and be ready for the photographer who is coming to take pictures for the annual.

Judging from the number of male students that pass that way, the walk through by the Alpaugh dormitory is much shorter than in former years.

CONTRIBUTIONS

The purpose of the editorial page of the CHRONICLE is to give expression of the thought and general attitude of the student body. Contributions in the nature of editorial discussions of conditions on the campus or other matters of interest to Trinity men are solicited from upper classmen. Since he is held responsible for the paper and at times space may be scarce, the editor reserves the right to publish or reject any articles turned over to him. No article will be published unless signed by the author.

RELATION BETWEEN CITY AND STUDENTS

The relation of down-town interests with Trinity students and college activities has long been in a certain degree strained, either on account of something which is lacking on the part of the students or on account of a lack of interest on the part of Durham citizenship.

For the past few years, critical Durhamites have remarked that Trinity students do not possess the enthusiasm and spirit which is common to college students of other institutions. The present year has seen probably evidences of enthusiasm which have been unparalleled in the history of Trinity College at Durham, and yet these celebrations have been disapproved by a large portion of Durham citizens. Now does the fault lie with the students or with the Durham citizenship?

Of course no one approves of boisterous celebrations which result in the destruction of personal and municipal property, but any fair minded person could not oppose any effort on the part of the student body to celebrate its victories over other colleges by harmless demonstrations. But the attitude of the city for the most part toward these demonstrations has been decidedly antagonistic. The students appreciate the fact that Durham is a manufacturing city and is naturally peopled by a class who can not so readily sympathize with the apparently foolish and ridiculous pranks practiced by the students in the downtown districts. On the other hand, it might be mentioned that the advantages which a college like Trinity offers to a city are to be envied by any community, and the demonstrations conducted by the students are intended for no other purpose than to show the people of Durham that they have a live institution in their midst. It is to be hoped that more pleasant relations may be maintained in the future.

THE 1919 ANNUAL

For the benefit of the student body the following article concerning the 1919 Victory is written.

The war was on last year, and the students, feeling it their patriotic duty, decided not to issue an annual; but a few weeks ago the Senior Class met and discussed the advisability of getting out a 1919 book, and it proved to be the will of the entire class that we have an annual for this college year. Heretofore the annual has been issued wholly by the different organizations on the campus, and in some instances the book has not met with satisfactory success. This year, however, the Senior Class assumes the responsibility—and a commendable move it is—of issuing a first-class annual representing every phase of student life for this college year. For various and sundry reasons it was deemed wise to give the 1919 annual a new name; and so now we bid farewell to the Chancellor and greet the newcomer—Victory. Someone has asked the question, "What's in a name?" Those who meet up with a Victory when it comes from the press in May, will realize that there is more than a volume in the name "Victory." The material inside the book will sound the note of victory, and those Trinities who went to the front and fought and died for our freedom will be remembered. Were the book not to be called Victory, it would be a victory edition just the same, for we could not issue it and leave out the expression of triumph.

Yet there is another side to this Victory proposition. In order that the book may be in reality all that the name indicates, we must have not only the co-operation of the Senior Class, but the concurrent effort of the entire student body. To make the book a real success, a large number of the former county clubs, high school clubs, and numerous other bands and societies should reorganize at once and take space in the annual. If we have the co-operation of all the students, we can promise you a real annual; without it we cannot.

Beginning Thursday, February 20, a photographer from New York City will be on the campus to make all the individual and group pictures that are to go into the new book. Appointments for sittings will have to be made with the Victory manager, A. J. Hobbs, Jr., who will be glad to assist the students in every way possible in getting the pictures made. Every student is expected to keep his appointment with the photographer when it is once made, in order that there may be no confusion.

In the very near future the students will be canvassed for orders for the book. Of course we know the Trinity students will not have to be approached in any lachrymose manner in the interest of the annual, for the realcitizens are not among us. Let us rally to the cause and put out a Victory worthy of its name and of Trinity.

(Signed) A. J. HOBBS, JR.

Various Clubs Organize and Elect Their Officers

The organization of clubs has been a feature of this week's activities on the park. Every room available in the East and West Duke building has witnessed the birth of a club. Even the old flag pole, if it should ever be able to speak, could say that it had been the witness of every thing that has happened on the park, from an automobile race around the race track to the organization of a club under its shadow. The purpose of the organization of these clubs is to have pictures made for the 1919 Annual.

The Trinity Park School Club was organized Tuesday. The members of this club are graduates of Trinity Park School. The Park School has always been well represented at the College, and has always led the membership of other clubs. The following officers were elected: W. A. Thompson, president; Ivey Rogers, vice-president; and T. A. Banks, secretary and treasurer.

The Sand Fiddler's Club met and organized Tuesday afternoon. The members of this club are students from the eastern part of the State. The officers elected at this meeting were: E. F. Dunsten, president; C. B. Cooper, vice-president; Lucille Merritt, secretary; and G. W. Murphy, treasurer.

The Durham High School club was organized Monday afternoon in the Columbian Literary Society hall. The members of this club are graduates of the Durham High School. Arthur Carver was elected president; LeRoy W. Saunders, vice-president; and Arta Harper, secretary and treasurer.

Students from South Carolina met in the Columbian Society hall Tuesday afternoon and organized the South Carolina Club. The delegation from our sister State is usually very large at Trinity. Frank Wannamaker was elected president, and E. T. Newton was elected Treasurer.

Students from Duplin county met and organized the Duplin County Club Monday afternoon. The purpose of this organization is to encourage more men from this county to come to Trinity. The following officers were elected: G. W. Murphy, president; J. D. Jerome, vice-president; Inogen Hix, secretary; and W. R. Hanehey, treasurer.

Musical Program Given By "Y" Sunday Night

At 6:45 last Sunday evening the Y. M. C. A. held its regular weekly service. It is the custom for each of the cabinet members of the Association, sometime during the spring, to arrange for and conduct one of the regular services. Mr. J. E. Gilbreath, whose turn it was this week to conduct the meeting, arranged to have a special musical program, and he succeeded in getting Mrs. Max Bryant, Miss Green, and Miss Barnes, of the Southern Conservatory of Music, and Miss Doris Overton, of the Woman's Building, to aid in the musical program. A quartette composed of Messrs. Parham, Merritt, Draper, and Farrington contributed to the program. There was a very large crowd present and the service was a success in every respect. The program is as follows:

1. Song.
2. Prayer
3. Quartette.
4. Violin Solo, by Mrs. Max Bryant.
5. Piano Solo, by Miss Green.
6. Vocal Solo by Miss Doris Overton.
7. Piano Solo by Miss Barnes.
8. Reading of Scripture.
9. Song.

Professor C. B. Markham has been unable to meet his classes since Friday on account of the illness of his little daughter.

CHAPLAIN VICKERS CAUSES COMMENT BY FEARLESSNESS

There are many evidences of the fact that Trinity men have played their part nobly in the great conflict. Another testimony of this fact is the following extract which appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer of Sunday, February 3, 1919:

"Chaplain Thurman G. Vickers voluntarily exposed himself fearlessly to heavy rifle, machine gun, and artillery fire in order to minister to the wounded in the front line. His conduct was so exceptional as to cause comment from all who saw him. This was near Manheulles, France."

Chaplain Vickers is a graduate of Trinity, class of 1911. Before his entrance into the army he was a member of the North Carolina Conference.

CO-ED NEWS

Miss Ethel Drake received a visit from her mother and little adopted sister Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Pridgen, '18, formerly Miss Ione Bivins, has been a recent visitor to the college community.

Miss Lucile Bullard, Secretary to President Few, visited friends at Wake Forest and Raleigh during the past week.

The students of the Alspaugh Hall felt privileged to look surprised and answer, "I don't know," to all academic questions Wednesday, for wasn't the Tombs' initiation a sufficient excuse for unprepared lessons?

Miss Vera Carr gave a Valentine Party in her suite in the Alspaugh Hall Saturday evening from 7:30 to 11:00 o'clock. The rooms were attractively decorated with red paper hearts and ribbons. Punch was served and the guests played games and enjoyed the music of the victrola.

Monday afternoon Kappa Delta Sorority entertained their patronesses and Kappa Deltas in the city from 4:30 to 5:30 at informal tea in Alspaugh Hall. Miss Doris Overton sang several Kappa Delta songs while refreshments were being served. The guests included: Mesdames W. P. Few, F. C. Brown, W. I. Cranford, C. W. Edwards, J. K. Mason, W. D. Carmichael, R. P. Lewis, Frank Webb, Watts Carr, J. L. Morehead, and Misses Martha Buchanan, Estelle Flowers, Ruth Fallon, Mary Louise Manning, Annie Cobb, and Mary Erwin.

The Trinity chapter of the A Δ Π sorority entertained the Trinity chapter of the Z T A sorority in their suite in the Alspaugh Hall Saturday evening from 7:30 to 10:30. The rooms were decorated to suit the occasion.

Hostesses and guests sang songs and drank toasts and then engaged in a verse mixing contest on the subject of St. Valentine's Day. The winner was Miss Bernice Ulrich. The prize was a dainty vanity case. After the contest a salad course was served.

The Athena Literary Society met at the usual time Tuesday afternoon and attended to a number of business matters. The society decided to buy two pages in the senior annual, and several members ordered Athena pennants.

Miss Price appointed Misses Martha Wiggins and Lota Leigh Draughon as the other two members of the program committee. Miss Price stated that most of the programs for the spring term would be built on the general theme of women's work in the modern world.

The literary program consisted of the reading of an article by Miss Ruth Merritt, entitled "Women Weighed in the Scales of the Middle Ages," and one by Miss Thelma Howell, entitled, "The Employment of Women in Chemical Industries." Miss Mary Gooch Pitts read a paper on the subject of "Recognition of Women Students at Trinity."

Walter G. Sheppard, '12, graduate of law '14, at present an attorney at Farnville, visited friends on the campus and in the city of Durham recently.

Economy Expressed in Fall Clothes—Good clothes cost more today
There is no getting around that fact. By lowering our quality and value-giving standards, we could offer cheaper clothes. But we shall stick by the guns of quality for our customers' best interests and our own.

Our Clothes for Fall carry out this policy to the letter. They evidence how good clothes can be made and not how cheap. They will make a stronger appeal to the man who knows real value and that true economy is gauged by quality and not price.

Trinity basketball quint met her second defeat for the season at the hands of the Davidson College team last night on the home floor by the close score of 20 to 19. The first half was hard fought and Trinity emerged with a score double that of her opponent, standing 12 to 6 in the Methodists favor. In the second half, however, over confidence seemed to play upon members of the home team and they apparently slackened in their efforts. The Davidson team played hard at this interval and ran up the score to a lead which they held for the remainder of the game.

Captain Cole's work as forward and Hathaway's guarding were the features for Trinity. Cole made nine points out of the nineteen scored by his team. Hathaway held his man to one field goal and was not guilty of the slackening in the second half which characterized the work of most of the team.

The throwing of five field goals by McAskill at center was the individual feature for Davidson. The whole team displayed excellent passing.
