TRINITY TURNS TIDE AGAINST WAKE FOREST

EACH TEAM WINS ON HOME DIAMOND BY A NARROW MARGIN

GAME TUESDAY AT TRINITY WAS BY EXTRA AGREEMENT

Wake Forest Won Saturday by Score of 3 to 2; Trinity Took Game Tuesday by 9 to 7

Trinity and Wake Forest in two games of baseball, one Saturday on the Wake Forest field and the other Tuesday on the home diamond, broke even, each winning on home ground. Wake Forest won by a margin of one score, while the Methodists took a two-point lead in their victory.

The game with Wake Forest Tuesday was not according to regular schedule; however, both teams had a game scheduled this week with Guilford College which were canceled. This cancellation by Guilford left both teams with open dates and Tuesday's game was arranged.

Saturday's Game
Trinity's first contest with Wake Forest, the second inter-collegiate game of the season, was played on the Wake Forest field last Saturday afternoon, and resulted in defeat for the Methodists by a score of 3 to 2. The Baptists hit Southard, Trinity's twirler, pretty hard the first two innings, making five hits, and scoring all three runs in that time.

After the second inning Southard clamped down and pitched air tight ball. Austin, pitcher for Wake Forest, was left handed, and the Durham boys couldn't at times seem to get next to him for effective hitting, although they did succeed in crediting themselves with six hits, as compared to Wake Forest's seven. Nevertheless he was wild—walked five men, and passed four men to first by hitting them.

White played an exceptional game in right field for the Baptists, as did Hathaway in left field for Trinity, while Wannamaker, for Trinity, and Blanchard, for Wake Forest, did stellar work with the stick.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR SERGT. EATMAN

Prof. R. L. Flowers Speaks Concerning His College Life—Mr. Breeding Also Speaks

Recently a memorial service was held in Cary, N. C. in honor of Sergeant Millard Glenn Eatman, '17. Sergeant Eatman died of Pneumonia, December 19, 1918, at Aignay-le-duc, France, and was buried the following day at Recy-Sur-Oucre Cote d'Or.

Mr. J. M. Templeton, Jr., an alumnus of Trinity, presided at the service and read a poem written by a distinguished Canadian on the death of his son who had fallen on a battlefield in France. Prof. M. B. Dry, Principal of the City Graded School, spoke very interestingly of Sergeant Eatman's record in this school. Rev. T. J. Daily, Pastor of the church, made the principal address of the evening. He dwelt on the gentlemanly conduct and fine record Sergeant Eatman had made in Trinity College. His address was very fine and was greatly appreciated by the members of the family and the entire audience.

Trinity College librarian, J. P. Breedlove, followed Professor Flowers. He knew Glenn Eatman more intimately perhaps than any other officer or professor.

Hon J. E. Pegram Spoke at Y. M. C. A. Sunday Evening

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday evening was unusually interesting. Mr. J. E. Pegram of the city of Durham was the speaker of the occasion. Mr. Pegram is always a very pleasing speaker, and the leader for the week, Mr. Lanning, was fortunate in getting him to come.

"My people perish for lack of vision," was the text used by the speaker. The following is a synopsis of his talk:

It behooves college students to look at life from the proper viewpoint; and seeing our goal, we should work for that end. The man without any definite purpose may be compared to a mariner at sea without any definite plan as to time or place of landing.

The means of accomplishing one's purpose is just as important as the determination of a goal. The prime essential to success is the proper spirit; one must have "steam," enthusiasm. With Noah Webster and Sir Isaac Newton the drudgery of their work was swamped in enthusiasm.

After making extensive trips through America, Lord Northcliffe said that the great American spirit was developed in the religious meetings of the country. The spirit of religion must be the heart of things in college, in the state, in the nation—everywhere. The Y. M. C. A. is the organization which is expected to develop this spirit at Trinity College.

A vocal solo by Miss Estelle Warlick was a very enjoyable feature of the program.

TRINITY TO DEBATE WASHINGTON & LEE

To Discuss Question of R. R. Control Date For Preliminary, Thursday April 24

On last Saturday afternoon a meeting of the Debate Council was called for the purpose of selecting a question to present to Washington and Lee University for debate this spring. At the meeting several questions were presented and discussed. The following question, however, received favorable consideration: "Resolved, That the immigration of foreign laborers into the United States should be prohibited for a period of at least five years after the ratification of the treaty of peace." Dr. Glasson was requested to frame the question definitely to present for discussion at a meeting of the Council to be held on Monday afternoon. At this meeting the Council voted to present the question as above stated to Washington and Lee.

After the decision of the Debate Council was reached, a message came from Washington and Lee presenting the question of government control of railroads. The Council was called together again Wednesday afternoon, and it was decided to accept the question proposed by Washington and Lee. The preliminary will be held Thursday, April 24.

Professor H. E. Spence filled the pulpit at the First Methodist Church of Rocky Mount last Sunday.

Young Men's S. S. Class Gave Reception Last Week

Last Friday evening at eight o'clock in the basement of Memorial Church, the young men's Sunday school class of Trinity College gave a very delightful reception. A number of those who were present said it was one of the most enjoyable occasions of its kind in the history of the class. The number present was about one hundred and fifteen, consisting of the members of the class, and girls from the woman's building, and Southern Conservatory of Music.

At the close of the program refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream with cherries and nuts, and cake.

FRESHMEN WIN ANNUAL CLASS TRACK HONORS

MUCH "OLD TIME PEP" SHOWN—NON-LETTER MEN MAKE EXCELLENT SHOWING

CLOSE FIGHT BETWEEN THE JUNIORS AND THE FRESHMEN

Beautiful Silver Loving Cup Presented to Freshmen by Captain Smathers

The annual inter-class Field Day Contest took place on Hanes Athletic field Saturday afternoon of last week. This contest is the beginning of what promises to be the most successful season in Trinity's track history. The main feature of the contest was the unusual display of the "old-time ginger" by each of the four classes. It was up to the non-letter men to uphold the standard of their respective classes, considering the fact that letter men were deprived of the privilege of contesting. Creditable records were made, and it is a sure thing that the future records of some of the men who participated in the contest will necessitate the handing out of several "Ts" before the season is over.

From the beginning, it seemed to be a fight between the Juniors and the Freshmen, and there were many Freshmen biting their finger nails off when, before the meet was over, the Juniors had a two-point lead. However, the freshmen finally took the lead, and won the meet by a good margin. A silver Loving cup, (which was donated by the Tombs in 1911), was presented to L. M. Draper, Freshman track captain, by R. K. Smathers, captain of varsity track team.

The spectacular feat of the 100 and 220-yard dash was the display of the regular old time "run for your life" speed by Edwards, representing the freshmen class. Turner, for the Freshmen, took first place in the high jump.

For the Juniors, Harrison, Cooper, Jeffries, and Barnes, made a wonderful display of the old-time "20 pep", Harrison taking first place with the high hurdles, Cooper first place in the one-mile run, Jeffries first place at putting the shot, and Barnes winning in the mile walk.

Caveness, for the Seniors took first place in the 440-yard dash. Caveness was by far the swiftest runner on the field. He would have made Ralph De Palma and his Packard racing car look like a snail with his back broke. Cherry took first place in the 880-yard dash, and Olin won first place in throwing the discus.

For the Sophomores, Sanford showed remarkable agility in the two-mile run assuming at the end a margin of about twenty-five yards on his opponent. The following is the record of each feat:
100-yards dash: First, Edwards, '22; second, Bernhardt, '21; third, Moore, '22; fourth, Jones, '21. Time 10 3/5 seconds.
440-yard dash: First, Caveness, '19; second, Moore, '22; third, Gilbreath, '20; fourth, Newton, '20. Time 56 3/5 seconds.

TO THE BOARD

As has been the custom each year, the associate editors of the Chronicle will each get out a trial issue of the paper, beginning with the next issue. The Chronicle Board is expected to observe these issues closely that it may be able to render a just decision in selecting an editor for next year, the selection being made upon the merits of the trial issue and the general work of the different associates. Each associate will have entire charge of gathering copy, reading proof, writing headlines, and arranging the make-up of the paper. In each issue will be an announcement of who has charge that week.

CLASS GIFTS

At recent meetings of the various classes in college discussions of plans for making a contribution to the Memorial gymnasium have occupied a great part of the time. In fact, it is understood that committees from each class are already at work among the members to see what can be raised or pledged for this cause.

Of course a student in college does not usually have any means of making very much money, and many of us are unable to see much assurance awaiting us in the future. However, there are very few students in college that could not easily give the amount suggested according to the terms offered and never realize that they had given it. With this purpose for saving before the mind the average student could pay the installments and never be conscious of any sacrifice.

Nevertheless, if this cause is a worthy one—and who could question its unusual worthiness?—it is befitting the students and alumni of the College to make sacrifices to see it through. This is a day when men are being measured by the service they render, the sacrifices they make as a contribution to the heritage of the posterity of our country—and of every country. "A man's a man" today, not for what he makes himself to be, but for what he gives to society and leaves to those who are later to pass by where he has gone before.

It is hoped that everyone will consider seriously and give of his best and himself to this cause, which is a most appropriate way of showing appreciation for those who gave all for their country and of leaving something for those who are to come this way in the future.

Chief Marshal and Chief Manager Name Assistants

Recently the Hesperian and Columbian Literary Societies elected the chief marshal and the manager, respectively, for commencement. The men elected are Wesley Taylor, of Concord, N. C., and N. M. West, of Connel, N. C.

It has long been the custom for the literary societies to furnish the commencement marshals. The chief marshal and the manager have general supervision over the work of the marshals. These officers are elected by the societies, each society electing one officer one year and the other the next. The chief marshal and the manager are members of the junior class; each appoints six assistants, three sophomores and three freshmen.

The following are assistants for this year.

Assistant marshals, from sophomore class, R. S. White, of Hertford, N. C.; H. O. Woltz, of Mount Airy, N. C.; J. D. Lewis, Whiteville, N. C.; and from freshman class, W. J. Bundy, of Farmville, N. C.; K. W. Partin, of Wilmington, N. C.; Martin Walt, III, of West Plains, Mo. Assistant managers, from sophomore class, R. J. Tyson, of Erect, N. C.; C. H. Moser, of Cherryville, N. C.; J. W. Hathcock, of Norwood, N. C.; from freshman class, R. L. Loftin, of Mount Olive, N. C.; R. A. Moore, of Canton, N. C.; H. V. Beamon, of Savage, N. C.

Mr. Breedlove told of the clean habits and pure life of Sergeant Eatman, and what valued service he had given the library. Lieut. Governor O. Max Gardner was the last speaker on the program. He represented the National Guard. He did not know Eatman, but when he learned he was an American soldier and had given his life for his country, he was glad to be present and do what he could for the honor of this hero.

Tuesday's Game

Trinity put it over on Wake Forest in the contest on Hanes Athletic Field Tuesday afternoon by a 9-to-7 score in a long, drawn-out game full of errors and zig-zag play. Neither team showed the usual form, and the game was characterized by streaks of slow plays and errors, closely followed by brilliant plays and fast work.

The Methodists did not get into good working order during the first inning, and allowed the Baptists to run in two scores right at the beginning, while they made only one when they came to bat. But during the second inning the local boys rattled Austin, Wake Forest's left-handed twirler, and made five runs before he could be replaced by Barnes. The new pitcher held them down for the next three innings, but they broke loose again in the sixth for two runs, and made the ninth one in the eighth inning.

Towe, short-stop for Trinity, led the hitting for his team, securing two successful swings. McArthur, Jerome, and Hathaway did good work in the outfield. Though each time recorded six errors, except at intervals, the work of both teams was good.

Wake Forest took two hits off Southard in the second inning, and he was replaced by Carroll in the fourth after Barnes knocked a three-bagger and brought in three runs. Carroll suffered a number of hits, but none of them were effective.

One feature of the game was a double play made by the Baptists in the third inning when Barnes, pitcher, fielded a grounder from McArthur, caught Southard out at second, and Ridge, on second, sent the ball to first in time to catch McArthur. Pittman came near rivaling Barnes' three-bagger when he hit for two bases.

Literary Societies Held Regular Weekly Programs

In the Columbian Society last Saturday evening two very appropriate orations were given by Messrs. Oaks, A. W., and Cooper, C. B. The question discussed in the debate was one which has been the topic of discourse of late between the Dean of the College and several members of the senior class, namely, "Resolved, That chapel attendance should not be compulsory." Messrs. Buffalo, Shaver, and Fitzgerald successfully upheld the affirmative side of this question against the onslaughts of Messrs. Elmore, Shelton, and Teague.

The program in the Hesperian Society was intensely interesting. Timely and appropriate orations were rendered by Messrs. Turner, R. Lewis, J. D., and Powell, G. E. Between the orations and the regular debate a number of two-minute extemporaneous speeches were made by the following men: Merritt, Z. L., Oestreicher, I. W., Herring, H. J., and Rutherford, N. A. The following query was debated: "Resolved, That all persons should be required to pass a satisfactory physical examination by government officials before being allowed to marry." The affirmative side of this question was upheld by Messrs. Barrett, J. M., Bundy, W. J., and Powell, W. E., while Messrs. Thigpen, R. E., Leonard, L. K., and Hambrick, R. T., representing the negative, successfully met the argument of the affirmative.

Several business items of importance were discussed at this meeting, one of them being to have an open house program with in the near future and to invite the Columbian and Athean Literary Societies to attend

T. C. Hoyle, '94, of Greensboro, spent Tuesday night on the campus.

Looks Like a Bank Outside Conducted Like a Bank Inside

No town in the State has a more dignified, well finished Banking Building than the FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

We are Bankers—that is our business—so we built and own our own home. We are proud of our Home. We are here to stay, and so long as we are here Banking will be our business, but to be of the greatest service and do the greatest amount of good for the community, we need your co-operation, and encouragement. You need the FIRST NATIONAL BANK, and the FIRST NATIONAL BANK needs you.

Thirty-two years ago the FIRST NATIONAL BANK was born here. We are owned and controlled by DURHAM FOLKS and we are anxious for our share of the business of DURHAM.

What has been your response to the appeal of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK?

Every member of the Board of Directors of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK are your neighbors and friends. You know them, you meet them every day upon our streets. One and all—they have but one purpose—and that is to serve the best interest and welfare of our town.

Thirty-two years of service proves that, through evil and good report they have done battle, for you and yours, most willingly, whenever and wherever necessary—now you have an opportunity to show us some appreciation.

We have increased our Capital Stock from $150,000 to $400,000, and are hunting for new business. Help the institution that for thirty-two years has made it its first duty to try to be of service to you.
