Three Hit Game

Accompanied by Coach Gorch and Manager Few, the baseball team left Thursday on a ten-day southern trip in which eight games will be played with two colleges in this state and four in South Carolina. Owing to the fact that the time was quite advanced this year before plans could be formulated, the usual trip into Georgia was omitted from the schedule.

The team left here in fine shape, with all the regular members of the club, and filled with confidence of a victorious return. They played first at Furman University, Greenville, S. C., Friday, and at Wofford College, Spartanburg, S. C., the next day. Monday and Tuesday two contests with Clemson College, Clemson, S. C., were scheduled. From Clemson they went to the University of South Carolina at Columbia, S. C., where two matches were staged Wednesday and Thursday. Returning from there to the old North state, they play Davidson at Davidson, Friday, April 18, followed by a game with Guilford in Greensboro, Saturday, returning to Durham Easter Sunday.

This schedule is quite a full one, and especial credit is due the men for the quality of their work considering the strain and hardship of such a strenuous trip. The next game on the local grounds is scheduled with Davidson on the 24th.

Furman Game

In the first game played on the trip, against Furman, which was the fourth inter-collegiate match of the season, Trinity put it all over Furman by a score of 4 to 0. Southard was the feature of the game, pitching a no-hit game, and not allowing a Furman runner to reach second. He was given good support by the team, the efficient and consistent fielding being a great factor in making such a remarkable record. To complete his record, Southard took three hits out of four times up from his rival twirler, and then showed his art at stealing bases. The Methodists made a brilliant double play when Towe fielded a grounded, tossed it to Carver on second, who threw the ball to Edens on first in time to catch the batter out at first.

NEWSOM SPEAKS ON CENTENARY SUNDAY

Campaign Director Points Out Duty of Laymen to Y. M. C. A.; Drive Will Open Soon

The Y. M. C. A. last Sunday evening was indeed very fortunate in having Dr. W. D. Newsom, Treasurer of the College, to address it on the great Centenary Movement, of which he has been appointed Campaign Director for the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church South. The Centenary Movement is a great campaign which is being waged in Southern Methodism to raise $35,000,000 for foreign missions. The drive to get this sum will be conducted from May 8 to May 25, 1919. Mr. Newsom spoke in substance as follows:

The Centenary Movement is distinctly a layman's movement. It is for the development of the lay forces of the church. In the past the laymen have not taken as active a part in church work as they should have, but the Centenary Movement is a distinct call to them. This movement is going to give the church and the world a mighty uplift, and in so doing this church is going to get its strength. We are going to be endowed with a vision, and the church is going to work a miracle.

The organization of the Centenary work is perfect. It is the product of experts, who have studied the needs and resources of the church. Experts have been sent abroad to study the conditions and needs of the countries, and the present organization of the Centenary Movement is the product of their efforts and investigations. Headquarters have been established in Memphis, Tennessee, and the organization is the greatest in the world; everything works in harmony. No

First Inter-Collegiate Tennis Tournament Today

The first inter-collegiate tennis tournament of the season is being played here this afternoon as the team from Elon College is meeting the Trinity varsity squad. The four men composing the Trinity team are: J. M. McCullen, G. E. Powell, J. H. Shinn, and F. C. Aldridge. These men qualified last week by eliminating the only other contestants for varsity places, R. A. Few and H. L. Caviness. As yet, the berth of first place has not been settled with any one of the four winners, as McCullen, Shinn, and Powell are tied for that honor. The finals determining who shall hold this place will be played in the near future.

The schedule of inter-collegiate tournaments for this year has been practically completed and will probably be as follows:

At Trinity, Elon, Randolph-Macon, U. of N. C.
Trinity at Elon, Randolph-Macon, V. M. I., U. of N. C.

Rev. W. G. McFarland, '17, was on the campus Monday.

First Lieut. Hiram King, ex-'19, who has recently returned from overseas, was a visitor on the campus Monday.

G. C. W. GLEE CLUB WAS MARVELOUS SUCCESS

BIG HIT MADE BY PERSONNEL AND PROGRAM—RECEPTION AFTER CONCERT

With a large crowd in attendance the Glee Club from Greensboro College for Women rendered a delightful program in Craven Memorial Hall last night. Every number was entertaining and brought hearty applause from the audience. At times the throng would burst into cheers and clapping, being spirited by the especially thrilling songs, etc.

The numbers rendered by the Club en masse showed skill and training. Every part was well represented and harmony was so blended as to produce a pleasing effect at all times. The popular airs were greeted with unusual applause by the assembly.

Misses Brittain, Harrell, Buckner, and Moore as soloists made a very favorable impression and in almost every case brought forth a demand for an encore. Miss Thelma Harrell, accompanist, won many favorable comments on her graceful and skillful performance at the piano. Of course Messrs. Bates, director, and Hurley, manager, were overshadowed in the eyes of the male students by the more attractive members of the Club of the fairer sex; but

PARK SCHOOL Y. M. C. A. ADDRESSED BY PROF. BOLICH

Theme "Honor Thy Father and Mother"—Literary Societies Convened Interesting Debates

The Y. M. C. A. at its meeting last Thursday evening, was addressed by Professor W. B. Bolich, who took as his text the verse of scripture: "Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." Professor Bolich began his talk by sowing that today the mother's love, sacrifice, and devotion is not sufficiently rewarded by the child's honor for her, in that this honor is growing, in some cases to be less and less. He showed how this honor was first kindled in the child's heart through his home training, and how the child could show his appreciation for his training by amounting to something in the world. He showed on the one hand that honor for one's parents creates respect for one's self and reflects credit upon one's parents at the same time, while on the other hand it was simply the fulfilling of one's Christian duty to the laws of God.

In the Calhoun Society on last Saturday night the query debated was: "Resolved, That a minimum wage scale to be operated in workshops, factories, and department stores, should be provided for by law." The affirmative side of the query was debated by J. W. Brown, W. D. Currie, and O. G. Sawyer, while the decision was rendered in favor of the negative, which was upheld by C. D. Carter, D. M. Crews, and M. L. Wilson. Declarations were given by J. H. Swain, G. L. Parker, and C. W. Durham. J. J. Baldwin read a paper entitled "Grin."

Efficient Management and Able Editorship Promise Best Annual Put Out in Years

Thanks to the efficient editorship and management of W. R. Bradshaw and A. J. Hobbs, respectively, the material for what promises to be our most successful annual ever gotten by Trinity College students is now ready for the press.

Unlike the other publications of the college, the annual is published exclusively by the senior class. From 1912 to 1916 the annual publication of the College was the Chanticleer. In 1917 the exodus of the greater part of the senior class to training camps precluded the possibility of publishing an annual and last year because of abnormal conditions, no regular annual was published, a feature edition of the Archive being substituted instead. However, this year there seemed to be among the students a unanimous desire for an annual, and in response to this desire, the class of '19 determined to attempt publishing one regardless of the many handicaps. As a result of their effort, we have an annual in the making; it will be ready for distribution about the middle of May.

The spirit which prompted the inception of the forthcoming annual is indeed commendable. Very fittingly the seniors decided to make this a "victory" edition, and the name "Victory" was chosen for it. It is the purpose of the management to make the Victory reflect something of the appreciation which the College feels for the exemplary part which Trinity men played in the war just ended. In short, it is to be a "victory" edition first and last, inside and out.

First Inter-Collegiate Track Meet Here Friday

The first inter-collegiate track meet of the season is scheduled to take place Friday afternoon, when Wake Forest's team will compete with the Trinity team on the Hanes Athletic Field. Wake Forest claims to have a strong outfit this year, inasmuch as they have a number of old men returned to college. Trinity is very well fixed, having a number of letter men in school, and the contest should be very interesting. The Methodists are handicapped however, by the fact that several men on whom Captain Smathers was depending failed to pass sufficient work to be eligible in the meet. It seems that for several years Trinity has tried to get a meet with Wake Forest, but the Baptists, fearing to meet too strong a delegation, have held off, until now when a misfortune has come upon our team they are ready to give battle. However, our team is only weak in a few places, where Captain Smathers had depended upon putting new men in, and the old men have entered in sufficient numbers to win the meet and have a goodly margin besides.

SCIENTISTS TO MEET IN CONFERENCE HERE

N. C. ACADEMY OF SCIENCE HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING MAY 2 AND 3

INTERESTING PROGRAM WILL FEATURE POPULAR LECTURES

"Extraordinary Method of Fishing" and "Reptilian Folk Lore" Two Interesting Papers

Fifty of the leading scientists of the state, members of the North Carolina Academy of Science, will be the guests of Trinity College May 2d and 3d, when the organization will hold its regular annual meeting here. In conjunction with it the North Carolina Section of the American Chemists' Society, many of the members of which are also members of the Academy of Science, will meet here. This announcement was made by Prof. Bert Cunningham, of the science department here, who is secretary and treasurer of the organization, Wednesday. Dr. Wolfe, also of the Trinity science department, is a member of the executive committee.

This meeting will mean quite a treat to Trinity students, and members of the college community, as well as the citizens of Durham. The membership of the Academy includes nearly all the live scientists, outside of the medical profession, in the state. In attendance here will be men interested in chemistry, physics, biology, agriculture, geology, forestry, plant and animal breeding, and other branches of science,—men who are instructors in colleges and high schools, members of the state board of health, of the Marine hospital at Wilmington.

The program as planned will be very interesting, embracing a number of talks along popular lines as well as treatises of a purely scientific and technical nature. The president of the Academy of Science, Dr. E. W. Gudger, professor of science in the State Normal College at Greensboro, will give a lecture on "An Extraordinary Method of Fishing—these of the Remora for Catching Fish and Turtles." This talk is to be a popular sketch of old time ways of fishing, as compared with the new methods and devices, and Dr. Gudger will explain the use of the living hook.

There will be another paper on a popular theme, known as "Reptilian Folk Lore," and a motion picture demonstration of mosquitos, their actions, habits, dangers, and prevention. All the meetings of the society, which for the most part will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall in the East Duke building, will be open to the public, with the possible exception of the business meeting which is to be held Saturday morning, May 3rd. Some of the meetings which require apparatus will have to be conducted in the Science Hall where material is obtainable, but the students and the public at large, especially any one interested in science, are invited to attend any or all of the lectures or conferences.

Imagine the smile on Southard's face after that Furman game!

That Victory seems destined to prove a true victory under the piloting of Editor Bradshaw and Manager Hobbs.

Some of the unscrupulous professors say that they hardly miss on the second exams the few that passed on the first trial.

A few of the bald-headers may like a little more movement than was displayed by the performers last night; but who can kick on the talent of that G. C. W. Troupe?

It is said that between four and five hundred students of N. C. State College have signed a petition asking the present president of that institution to resign immediately. A few weeks ago a band of students of the University of S. C. took a similar action. Even college students need to guard against Bolshevism.

NOTICE

This edition of the CHRONICLE is under the direct editorship of Associate Editor Evans. The unsigned editorials are products of his and he has had control of the entire production of this issue. The other associates will be given an opportunity to publish a trial issue, in which it will be announced in each case who has charge.

G. C. W.

Although the proposed visit of the Glee Club from Greensboro had to be postponed, their visit last night was a pleasing delight to Trinity and was enjoyed by every one present at the concert. The CHRONICLE feels like congratulating the whole college community upon having been the recipient of such a treat.

The program was of the highest type and worth twice the price and time it cost anyone to hear it. The music was exceptional, and fell little short of professional in skill. Life was not absent from any part of the performance. Those who are fond of "pep" were not disappointed, while art and skill were sufficiently prominent to interest the most classic minds.

Furthermore, this was an occasion given by the representatives of a sister college; and as a college community Trinity student body was ready to support it. The only regret is that there were any students who found it impossible to attend this concert. Trinity feels a sensation of warm relations with any college or its representatives. This is especially felt with G. C. W., our Sister. It is hoped that more occasions will arise in the future than has in the past to bring closer together Trinity and this women's college of our church.

G. C. W., you were welcome on our campus. We trust that you hail this way again.—C. C. A.

FORECAST

Trinity is to be congratulated on her good fortune in securing the meeting of the North Carolina Academy of Science. Such a conference as the one that is to be held at the college the first of May is a great benefit, both to the college and to the men in attendance. Bringing educated men to the college for a meeting will afford the students an opportunity to see, learn, and know what is going on about them, what is being done by men around them, of whose activities they are often unaware. The practical lessons in agriculture, horticulture, and especially of forestry, as well as the theoretical side of chemistry and physics, that will be brought out in the carefully prepared essays that these men will bring with them, will be of inestimable value to all.

On the other hand, the meeting is of prime importance in that it will give this body of educated men, the leading and live scientists of the state, an opportunity to see Trinity College, and to see and feel the activity that is here. They will feel the force and influence of the college more than before,—it will be brought closer to them, especially to those who did not attend college at this institution. It is certain that there will be great and lasting benefits from the coming conference.

New Books in Library

The following novels and short stories by Hamlin Garland are now on the New Book Shelf. They may be used in the reading room now and after one week may be taken out for the usual period. All of Mr. Garland's books have been ordered and will be placed in the reading room as soon as they are received.

Boy Life on the Prairie, Captain of the Gray-horse Troop, Her Mountain Lover, Hesper, Light of the Star, The Long Trail, Money Magic, Other Main-travelled Roads, Prairie Folks, Rose of Dutcher's Coolly, Shadow World, A Son of the Middle Border, They of the High Trails, Trail of the Goldseekers, Tyranny of the Dark, Victor Olney's Discipline.

Ministerial Band Draws up a Set of Resolutions

Rev. W. A. Ayers, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church, addressed the Ministerial Band at its regular meeting on last Friday night. Rev. Ayers used as his subject, "Dedication and Consecration," showing that a man could be consecrated to God to no greater degree than he was dedicated or given to the cause of God.

At this meeting resolutions were passed by the Band expressing its disapproval of certain forms of immorality and the profane language prevalent on the college campus. The resolutions follow:

"Whereas, there exists at present, in the college community, various forms of immorality that tend to characterize the college as unchristian, which evils if unchecked will, in our humble opinion, seriously hinder Trinity College in her task of making strong Christian men of the students who come under her care; and,

Whereas, Trinity is a church college, owned and controlled by a Christian denomination, and therefore should seek to promote and emphasize the highest and best things that go to make up a Christian citizenship, be it resolved:

First, that we, the Ministerial Band of Trinity College, express our disapproval of the evils so prevalent among the student body.

Second, that we call attention to certain uncalled-for "practices" existing on and about the campus, and the use of unbecoming language on the athletic fields, and that we respectfully call upon all right thinking men of the college to stand for clean speech and wholesome conduct on the athletic fields and in all activities of the college.

Third, that we submit a copy of these resolutions for publication in the college paper."

Profs. Call Full Roll on Make-up Exams This Week

"Ye who have tears prepare to shed them now," for the make-up examinations are in full swing. Beginning last Tuesday, the 15th, and for a week thereafter, the minds of many who take so much delight in examinations that they stand two of them each term, will be concentrated in books and their efforts directed towards attempting to "spot the profs". Many will groan because they lack the time to take their tri-weekly somersaults in the gymnasium.

Although the greater portion of those interested in the second examinations are those who enjoy taking as many examinations as possible, there are a few who were physically disabled or otherwise incapacitated from taking the March examinations.

The examinations will be held each afternoon from two to four.

G. C. W. GLEE CLUB WAS MARVELOUS SUCCESS

nothing except complimentary words can be spoken of their part in the program.

As a deviation from the musical trend of the program, Miss Louise Dixon delighted the audience with her humorous readings. Laughter abounded during her numbers and wave on wave of applause followed after the close of each.

After the program an informal reception was given in honor of the visiting club by the Officers' Club, under the auspices of which the club was brought to Trinity.

The reception was held in Alspaugh Hall, and the Dean of Women and the women students were hostesses.

It was announced in last week's CHRONICLE that this Club would be here on Saturday night, April 12; but in view of the fact that a very popular Grand Opera was later billed to be in town on that date, it was decided to postpone the coming of the Glee Club until last night.

The purpose of the Centenary Movement is not to raise $35,000,000, this is merely incidental. If we can get our people on the basis of intercession and stewardship, the money will be forthcoming. Germany represented the anti-centenary spirit; America represents the centenary spirit. The world today is looking to America for the gospel of Christ. They are watching us with keen eyes. We are no longer separated from the nations of the world. We are cheating ourselves when we do not give. This movement should not be regarded as a matter of taxation, but should be regarded as an opportunity or chance for doing good. The war has given us a vision, and no great nation can exist without this vision. All cannot go as missionaries, but all can dedicate their lives to the cause.
