ATHLETIC RELATIONS WITH U. N. C. RENEWED

FIRST GAME SCORELESS TIE—
SECOND MATCH LOST
3 TO 2

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP TO TRINITY OR WAKE FOREST

Methodists Win Series From State College—Lost Game Thursday
—Won Monday

The Trinity baseball nine met the team from the University of North Carolina on the East Durham ball park last Saturday in a fifteen inning game resulting in a scoreless tie. The contest marked the resumption of athletic relations between the two schools which have not existed since 1895, for 21 years. In a second contest between the two evenly matched teams, Wednesday, Trinity met her third defeat in the state out of twelve games, in a hard fought contest in which the Carolina south paw, Wilson, proved too much for her men.

But the state championship still hangs in the balance. It lies between Trinity and Wake Forest. The latter has played eight games in the state, winning six and losing two, while Trinity has lost only three out of twelve games in the state, leaving their percentage at 750 each. The University of North Carolina is out of the race, having a percentage of less than 600.

Trinity has played a series with every college in the state, with the exception of Elon, and has lost only to Carolina. Only two games have been played with Wake Forest, each school winning one. The final game, which will decide the series and the state championship as well, is pending, although Manager Few could make no definite announcement at this time.

First University Game

More than fifteen hundred people witnessed the most exciting game of the season, and one of the best games the Trinity aggregation has played, when the Methodists went up against the Carolina nine for the first time in 21 years, and played a scoreless tie of fifteen innings at the league ball park in East Durham. This was the first time the two colleges had met in athletics since 1895, and hundreds of students were on hand to urge their teams by wild rooping to put forth their best efforts.

Both teams had numerous chances to score, but on every occasion when the team on the field was in a pinch the pitcher would shut down tight, and each time they pulled out, ending the first leg of the championship series at the end of fifteen innings without a tally. Each team made only one error, and the manner in which either team backed its pitcher was remarkable.

Pitching honors were evenly divided. Wilson, of U. N. C., showed up in good form against the Trinity team because he is a left-hander, and it will be remembered that it was a left-handed man, Rustin of Wake Forest, that administered the first defeat to the Methodists. (It will also be remembered what happened the second time he went up against

Y. M. C. A. ADDRESSED BY MAYOR NEWSOM

"Stewardship" Theme Used by Speaker—Talk Was on Lines of Centenary Movement

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Sunday evening was unusually interesting. Mayor M. E. Newsom, of the city of Durham, was the speaker of the occasion. Mayor Newsom is always a very pleasing speaker, and the president of the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Gilbreath, was fortunate in getting him to come.

"Stewardship" was the theme used by the speaker. The following is a synopsis of his talk:

In the beginning God created the world, and over the world God gave man dominion. He created man a direct image of Himself, and instilled in him the things which God stands for. Hence, we have to acknowledge to Him a direct responsibility. Every man sometime in life feels this responsibility, and it is the human desire of every man to try to manifest this responsibility by doing something for God.

Before the war there was a coolness existing in the Methodist Church everywhere. Ministers were disappointed. The church had got to the place where it was a structure consisting only of mortar and stone. The reason for this condition was that the ministers and laymen had got away from the fact of direct stewardship. Since the war we find that the great impression which was left is the weight of the influence of God.

The church today is facing a condition that it has never faced before. Beautiful France is torn to pieces; England has been robbed of her prestige; Russia is in a condition of chaos; and America is in a state of turmoil.

Annual Initiation Held By Beta Omega Sigma

The Beta Omega Sigma, local Sophomore secret order, held its annual spring initiation on the evening of May 5, when seven members of the class of '22 were taken into the fraternity. Those initiated were: William Borlan, of Durham, N. C.; T. C. Battershill, of Virginia, Va.; J. D. Johnson, Jr., of Garland, N. C.; R. E. Lee, Jr., of Monroe, N. C.; S. J. Nicholson, of Littleton, N. C.; Martin Walt, III, of West Plains, Mo., and G. H. Wooten, of LaGrange, N. C. Following the initiation ceremonies an informal banquet was served at the Goody Shop.

Publishing Company Gives Complimentary Copies

Putnam's Word Book, a large synonym book published by G. T. Putnam's Sons, has recently been sold to 141 students of Trinity College and is proving to be useful and well appreciated. Because of the large volume of business secured on the campus, the publishers have donated a number of complimentary copies of the book to various members of the Ministerial Band. The copies have arrived and are now in the hands of these men.

TRINITY TO DEBATE AT W. & L. SATURDAY

TEAM COMPOSED OF STRONG MEN—VICTORY FULLY EXPECTED

The Trinity-Washington & Lee debate, the second intercollegiate debate of the year, will be held at Washington and Lee on Saturday evening, May 17. The question for debate is: "Resolved, That the immigration of foreign laborers into the United States should be prohibited for a period of at least five years after the ratification of the treaty of peace." Washington and Lee will uphold the affirmative side of this question, while Trinity will defend the negative.

The team that will represent Trinity this year will be composed of W. A. Rollins, L. H. McNeely and C. C. Alexander. Both Alexander and McNeely are old inter-collegiate debaters, while Rollins was a member of the team which defeated Swarthmore last year. The trio that the Washington and Lee will have to meet is unusually strong, and the chances are that Trinity will add one more victory to her long list of triumphs in the forensic realm. The debate this year is the second meet of the third series. Trinity won both the former series and also the debate last year, which was the first of the present series.

MOCK TRIAL OF EX-KAISER HESPERIAN SOCIAL FEATURE

Annual Reception of Hesperian Literary Society Big Event—Grand Success

The 67th annual reception of the Hesperian Literary Society on last Thursday evening proved to be one of the most brilliant events of the season. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags of all the allied countries, which gave a very appropriate setting for the program of the evening.

Contrary to the usual custom of having a toastmaster, the program this year was very unique and timely. After the guests had arrived and had enjoyed a splendid musical program rendered by Mr. Louis M. Blalock's orchestra, the ex-Kaiser William II of Germany was tried before an International Court of Justice on the charge of murder of helpless women and children during the past war. The Kaiser was represented by Wesley Taylor and was dressed in full military uniform. He was led into the court room by a squad of United States soldiers. The Judge of the Court, Dr. Frank C. Brown, of the English Department, had the clerk read the charge brought against the ex-monarch of Germany, to which the dethroned emperor answered not guilty.

All the principal Allied countries against whom Germany fought were represented on the list of prosecutors of the ex-monarch. He was defended by two of his own countrymen, but the evidence against him was so overwhelming that the verdict of the jury, which consisted of the audience, was unanimously in favor of guilty.

SECOND PLACE IS MADE BY TRINITY

University Won First Place in State Meet—Season Ended by Informal Banquet

At the State Inter-Collegiate Track Meet at Chapel Hill last Saturday, the Trinity team was defeated for first place by the University contingent, the winners' score being 58 to the Methodists' 35. A. & E. took third place, with a score of 26 points, while Elon was fourth. This was the last meet of the season, and it was only through unavoidable circumstances that the Trinity team was unable to walk away with first place. She put forth what was universally admitted to be the best all-round, most well-balanced team taking part; but in a few events she was outclassed by Carolina, and in few others by the State College. The result was that these two schools together were able to prevent Trinity's scoring.

Hesperian Society Elects Officers for Next Year

The Hesperian Literary Society held a call meeting Wednesday night, at which important business for the year was transacted. The regular election and installation of officers of the society for the first quarter of next year took place, and following this the two new members of the Chronicle governing board were elected.

Each society has two members from the senior class and two from the junior class on this board, the men elected serving two years, consequently causing only two men to retire each year. The men selected by Hesperia, from next year's junior class, were: L. B. Durham, of Siler City, N. C., and H. E. Fisher, Zebulon, N. C.

The officers elected were as follows:

President—T. P. Thomas, Henderson, N. C.
Vice-President—Wesley Taylor, Concord, N. C.
Secretary—J. D. Lewis, Rose Hill, N. C.
Treasurer—R. E. Thigpen, Wilmington, N. C.
Chairman of Executive Committee—H. E. Fisher, Zebulon, N. C.
Critic—R. L. Thornton, Newbern, N. C.
Auditor—S. M. Holton, Durham, N. C.
Marshal—T. R. Waggoner, Winston-Salem, N. C.
Member of Debate Council—Wesley Taylor.

Annual Money is Due for Collection Immediately

All money for annuals, club space and senior space in the annual is now due. There are only a few days left in which to get all annual matters adjusted. If you are a member of a class or of a club which has not yet paid its dues, please do your part to get them settled at once. You want to see the annual succeed. Please attend to the matter this week. Your prompt attention will mean much to the success of the "Victory."

COMMENCEMENT PLANS HAVE BEEN ANNOUNCED

BACCALAUREATE SERMON BY
JUNE 3

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS BY BISHOP McDOWELL, LL. D.

Board of Trustees Meeting—Senior
Reception—Alumni Dinner—
Memorial Exercises

Friends and alumni of the College will be interested to know that the commencement address this year will be delivered by Bishop William Fraser McDowell, of Washington, D. C. Bishop McDowell is pleasantly remembered here as the preacher of the baccalaureate sermon in 1912. At that time he delivered one of the most powerful addresses ever heard on the local platform. His coming will be looked forward to with great interest.

The baccalaureate sermon will this year be preached by the Reverend Charles L. Goodell, D.D., of New York City. Dr. Goodell is a man of much prominence and will no doubt bring a message which will be inspiring and helpful.

Final arrangements have been made for Alumni Day, which will be on Tuesday, June 3. In addition to the regular Alumni and Alumnae luncheons with the usual speeches and good fellowship, there will be other features of the day that promise to make this the most notable commencement in the history of the college. Arrangements are being made for some military features, such as dress parade, military drill, sham battles and other features. At the evening hour there will be held a memorial service in honor of Trinity's part in the war, and especially in honor of her heroic dead. Captain R. G. Cherry, '12, who was in the thickest of the fight, will make the address of the hour. Appropriate music will be furnished and military honors will be paid to the dead. It is expected that several hundred Trinity men in uniform will be present for this commencement, and their presence will be an added attraction.

In addition to the regular gathering of the graduates of the college, there is to be a reunion of the following classes: 1894, 1899, 1902, 1904, 1909, 1914, 1916 and 1918.

A full announcement of the program of commencement is given below.

Sunday, June 1—8:30 p.m., Baccalaureate Address, President William Preston Few, LL.D., Durham, N. C.

Monday, June 2—3:00 p.m., Meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Monday, June 2—8:30 p.m., Graduating Orations.

Monday, June 2—9:45-11:15 p.m., Reception in Honor of Graduating Class.

Tuesday, June 3—11:00 a.m., Baccalaureate Sermon. The Reverend Charles S. Goodell, D.D., New York City.

Tuesday, June 3—1:00 p.m., Alumni Dinner.

Tuesday, June 3—8:30 p.m., Memorial Exercise, Address, Captain Few.

RETROSPECTIVE

Another year is drawing to a close, and the record of this year will fill an important place in the annals of the college. To begin with, Trinity College goes on record with other leading educational institutions of the country as giving itself over entirely to the use of the government for training men for military purposes during a time of urgent need. Many of her men had already gone out, and the records of their deeds have been gathered in as far as possible this year. Plans have been drawn up, and an active campaign for funds is well under way for the erection of a new gymnasium, which, besides being one of the best departments of its kind in any southern college, will be dedicated to the memory of the Trinity men who made the supreme sacrifice and those who offered their services and lives on the field of battle. Trinity's record in the war is one of which she is justly proud.

As a collegiate year, considering the circumstances, the current term has been very successful. Trinity has held her own with and is forging ahead of other colleges. Getting a late start in basketball, and without the aid of a coach, the team made a close race for the state championship. In track work our contingent has made an excellent record, and to cap it all, Trinity bids fair to walk away with the state championship in baseball. Athletic relations with the University of North Carolina have been resumed, and Trinity is recognized as one of the strongest institutions in the Carolinas.

The prospects were never brighter for next year. With the war over, a return to normal conditions with normal enrollment is fully expected. There is a good chance that intercollegiate football will be allowed here next year, and that, with renewed relations with the University, will give Trinity a great boost in athletics, and she has always had equal and superior material to any college in the state. There is no reason why, with athletics on a sound and prosperous basis, Trinity should not take all honors next year. It is to be expected that she will maintain her enviable position in forensic and literary honors, and, on the basis already established, expand into larger activity. It has been rumored from semi-official authority, that the chances for obtaining Phi Beta Kappa, the national scholarship society, next year are excellent. The establishment of a chapter of this universally recognized order at Trinity would be of inestimable worth to the college. Trinity College, with her wealth, faculty of strong men, her library, resources, opportunities and field from which to draw material, will soon rival any educational institution in the South.

NOTICE

At a meeting of the Chronicle Board on last Friday an Editor and a Manager were elected for next year. W. N. Evans, Jr., of West Plains, Missouri, was elected editor and L. W. Smith, of Ayden, North Carolina, was elected business manager. These men will not take up their regular duties until the first issue next fall; however, Mr. Evans has done a majority of the work on this issue.

FAREWELL

With this issue another year of the life of the Chronicle goes into history. New officers have been elected and henceforth the "old sheet" passes out of the hands of the present editorship and management into the care and custody of others.

It is useless for the retiring editor to say more than a word as his last issue goes to press. Although the passing year's editorship has brought with it unusual hardships and responsibility, being begun during the time of the S. A. T. C. and run without a staff until after the Christmas holidays, still it is with a sense of gratitude that the privilege of putting out the paper this year has been attempted. With memories of rising for a trip down to Seeman's before breakfast twice a week, there are certain sensations of the more pleasant side of the work coming in to compensate. Along with the realization that in many cases neither the highest goal nor the ideals of the editor have been reached, there is a sensation of satisfaction over the fact that at least every issue has come out on time and the year's effort has gone down as experience for all that have had a part in the work.

The editor cannot close his last attempt in these columns without acknowledging the indebtedness to others for the degree of success that can be accorded the closing year of the Chronicle's history. This is a college paper and the whole community is largely responsible for its success, if success can be claimed. All assistants on the staff who have been active in gathering news deserve special credit for faithful work and direct effort. The managing board, by promptly and efficiently performing its duties, has indeed made the Chronicle possible. Even every member of the college community that has taken part in college activities, helping to make college history during the year, have contributed his or her proportionate share to the success of the paper. The workmen at the printery also deserve to be classed with those who have labored considerably and efficiently to make the "old sheet" a success. Especial mention should be accorded "Hutch," the linotype man, and Crane, the man who really puts out the Chronicle after the material is set up. It is with gratitude to these and any others who may have had a part that the editor recognizes the part they played.

With the return to normal conditions next year and the broader possibilities that that will bring, a future of greater accomplishments is wished and expected for the Chronicle by those who have it in charge this year. It is hoped and believed that those who come after us will use our faults and mistakes as stepping stones to future progress. Here's to the "old sheet" and its prosperity!

them.) Southard worked in excellent form, striking out five men, and allowing no long hits.

The features of the game were the fielding of Wannamaker, Trinity's crack third sacker, who redeemed himself from Thursday's hard luck by throwing out nine runners at first, without making an error; a wonderful catch made by Cole in right field, in the 12th inning, which would have probably meant the game if he had missed it. Carson, the game little Methodist catcher, played an excellent game. He was hurt in the ninth inning, when his knee cap was injured while blocking a runner from third.

Second University Game

Wednesday's match with Carolina, as stated above, proved fatal to the Methodists, with a score of 3 to 2. Carolina started the scoring in her half of the first frame. Saunders singled to left, was advanced by Herty's infield hit, and went out at third when Southard fielded Feimester's intended sacrifice. Powell walked, advancing both runners. Herty was forced in when Roberts also got a pass, and Feimester scored on Salmon's passed ball. Carolina scored her third run in the fifth, when Bryant walked, was sacrificed to second and went to third on a single, scoring on Herty's fly to Cole.

BIOLOGICAL CLUB MEETS

The regular meeting of the Biological club Monday evening was followed by an informal feed given by the members of the club. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Wolfe, and her guest.

This feed served as a culmination of a very beneficial and interesting year. Many papers have been read by the members at these weekly meetings which were exceedingly interesting. This has been one of the most prosperous years in the history of the club, and there is no reason why next year should not be equally as prosperous for it.

which she has not been in since the civil war. Christianity will solve the problem and help to restore these nations to their normal state. Before the Centenary Movement is over there will be a revolution in our Church, and preachers will preach nothing but the pure gospel and laymen will wake up. When this comes to pass, we shall begin to realize our stewardship, and we shall have come to the recognition of the fact that we are repaying God for what he has done for us.

enough first places to give her the lead.

First places in events were scored for Trinity by Loftin in the two-mile run, by Ruff in the broad jump, and by Caviness in the 440-yard dash. A number of second and third places were also taken, in several events both second and third being scored.

As a celebration of the end of the season when all men on the squad might break training, a feed was held on the evening of May 12. Faculty members of the Athletic Council present were Profs. A. M. Webb and R. N. Wilson, the latter presiding as toastmaster. Responses were made by Prof. Webb, Capt. R. K. Smathers, and members of the team. In summing up the results of the entire season, Capt. Smathers pointed out the fact that this has been one of Trinity's most successful years on the track. With only five "T" men from last year's team, a Varsity of twenty-six men was picked from a squad of fifty-five. Several local records were either tied or broken, among them being the time of 4:43 for the mile, made by Smathers at V.M.I., and the distance for 130 feet for the javelin hurl, made by Jeffries.

Trinity started the season off by winning from Wake Forest, 81 to 45. A week later Elon was soundly blanked, 115 to 10. On the trip into Virginia, the Methodists lost to V.M.I., 81 to 45. Then came the State meet with its hard-fought defeat.

Especially credit is due Prof. Webb for his untiring efforts in training both runners and weight men, and to Capt. Smathers both for his individual record as a runner and his work in coaching the men of the team.

M. B. "Gyp" Loftin was elected captain of the team for next year. In their talks, both Prof. Webb and Prof. Wilson intimated that because of his efficiency reflected in the team work of this year, Capt. Smathers may be secured as a coach for next season. It was also stated that a change in requirements is under way, whereby track activities will be made a major rather than a minor sport at Trinity.

Miss Mary Blair Maury spent Sunday visiting in Roxboro.

Miss Estelle Warlick was called to her home at Granite Falls, N. C. Saturday to be at the bedside of her mother, who was critically ill.

Wilson, took second on Wannamaker's ground ball to first, and scored when Salmon hit to left garden. Again in the seventh the Methodists threatened to put the game on tie. Edens singled, Towse moved him along with a safe clout to right. Wannamaker drew a pass, filling the bases. In an attempted squeeze, Edens was forced at the plate. Southard singled and Towse scored on it, but Wannamaker went out at the plate, caught by Saunders' throw-in. McArthur grounded to Wilson, who tagged Salmon in a run-up from third to the plate.

Southard's work was the most notable feature of the game for Trinity. After the first he tightened down and pitched fine ball, allowing only one hit after this.

He came very near winning his own game with his hit in the seventh.

First A. & E. Game

Trinity suffered her second defeat in the state and the third of the season when the team went up in the air in the seventh inning of the game against State College last Thursday, allowing the Aggies to score five runs in that inning and close the game with a score of 6 to 0. Outside of the "unlucky" seventh, the game was fast and lively, although the Methodists were never at their usual strength.

The first three innings State College attempted to score but twice, and were cut off at home plate, while two of the Trinity men went down on third because of Murray's consistent pitching. In the fifth inning Southard went to first on an error, and was advanced to second by McArthur's sacrifice. Hathaway fanned, and Carver came to bat and made a long drive into deep left field, which might have been good for three bases had not Norwood been playing back and caught it.

In the inning in which the game was lost the team went to pieces.

Second A. & E. Game

In the game against State College, Monday, the Trinity men came back in their old form and defeated the Aggies by a score of 4 to 2. The Methodists started the scoring in the first inning, when they led off with a hit by McArthur, the first man up, off of Murray, the same twirler that held them so close last Thursday. McArthur went to second on a single by Hathaway, and both runners were moved up by Carver's sacrifice hit. A single by Cole brought them home, while Cole went to second on the throw, and scored on a sharp single to center by Edens. The last run was scored in the seventh, when Wannamaker was hit by the pitcher, went to second on Caviness's sacrifice, and scored on McArthur's single to right.

The Aggies scored their first run in the fifth on singles by W. Johnson and Norwood, and made their second on an error by Caviness, another error, a hit by Murray and a balk by Caviness.

The features of the game were the pitching by Caviness and Murray. After the first inning Murray tightened up, but was not really a match for Caviness. McArthur made three beautiful catches in centerfield, while Edens distinguished himself with the stick. The fast work of the entire Methodist nine was very notable.

BIRTHDAYS AND BANKS

In the BRIGHT LEXICON

OF MODERN WOMAN

There is no such thing

As BIRTHDAYS

A GIRL is a GIRL

So long as she MARCELS HER HAIR

Has the PEP to wear a STRAIGHT FRONT GOWN

And drive her OWN MACHINE

A GIRL is a GIRL

So long as she considers

The GAME worth the CANDLE

And the GAME of LOVE

Worth the HEARTACHE

And the DANCE

Worth the HEADACHE

And had rather put on a TIGHT FROCK and

Go down stairs and Entertain a Man

Than loll around in a KIMONO

And read an interesting BOOK and go to BED

At half past NINE

And that every WOMAN

Who is CREATING THINGS

Or CHILDREN or SMILES

Or HATS or GOWNS or PIES

Or FAME or a FORTUNE or a HOME

Or JUST HAPPINESS

Is YOUNG with the eternal

Youth of the GODS

And has no business

Bothering with BIRTHDAYS

And that NO WOMAN

Is as old as she looks

BEFORE BREAKFAST

Or as young as she Feels just after she has

Received a PROPOSAL of MARRIAGE

Or a THRILLING COMPLIMENT

Or a BOX OF FLOWERS

ONE and ALL

At that age—it is

Not a matter of

BIRTHDAYS.

But of SENTIMENT

EMOTION

And ENTHUSIASM

The YOUNGEST WOMAN in TOWN

Is just TWENTY-THREE

And has a GOOD LIVE

BANK ACCOUNT with the

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

That being so

She is never the SAME AGE

TWO DAYS in succession

Or in TWO DIFFERENT HATS

But the

GIRL, in SUNLIGHT

Or MOONLIGHT

IS A QUEEN

And universally so considered

Her heart is young enough

To be a DAUGHTER or old

Enough to be a SWEETHEART

To the MAN SHE LOVES

OTHER GIRLS may say

I will tell you the size of

MY FOOT, the number of

MY GLOVE, but my

AGE—NEVER, NEVER

Just write me down as

TWENTY-NINE by Candle Light

The truth to tell is

My MISTAKE in LIFE

Has been—I have not

The passing years

Kept an Account with
