LEAGUE RATIFICATION CARRIED HERE 2 TO 1

RATIFICATION WITHOUT RESERVATIONS LED OTHER PROPOSITIONS 2 TO 1

TOTAL VOTES POLLED WAS 440

Election Was Spirited. Preliminary Meetings Characterized by Warm Debate by Students and Faculty

"I favor the ratification of the League and Treaty without reservations or amendments," was the sentiment expressed by the majority of the Trinity College students Tuesday, when all were given a chance to vote on the four propositions of the Treaty. Four hundred and fifteen students and twenty-five members of the faculty voted.

At the latest report received by the Associated Press last night, the fourth proposition, favoring ratification by compromise was leading, while proposition one, favoring the league from the standpoint of the democrats, were running far ahead of the Lodge resolutions and the point blank opposition to the League. Carolina carried for the "Hitchcock reservations," meaning proposition four.

In the December 17th issue of the CHRONICLE it was stated that plans were made to hold a referendum of college sentiment on the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations for Tuesday, January 13, and since then, meetings for the purpose of discussing the various points of the Treaty have been held by the faculty and students. In each of the two literary societies Saturday night speeches were made by students, who attempted to explain the four points or propositions in the referendum. Monday night a meeting of the college community was held in the Y. M. C. A. hall, and at this meeting, Dr. Layprade explained the four propositions, taking each of them separately. His lecture was followed by several five minute talks made by members of the faculty and the student body.

The Inter-collegiate Treaty Referendum was divided up into propositions which are as follows:

Proposition 1. I favor the ratification of the League and Treaty without reservations or amendments.

Proposition 2. I am opposed to the ratification of the League and Treaty in any form.

Proposition 3. I favor the ratification of the Treaty, but only with the Lodge reservations.

Proposition 4. I favor a compromise between the Lodge and Democratic reservations in order to facilitate the ratification of the Treaty.

The votes of the students for each of the four propositions were:

- Proposition 1. 281.
- Proposition 2. 26.
- Proposition 3. 8.
- Proposition 4. 100.

The votes of the faculty for each of the four propositions were:

- Proposition 1. 16.
- Proposition 2. 1.
- Proposition 3. 0.
- Proposition 4. 8.

COLUMBIA WON DEBATE FROM HESPERIAN TEAM

COLUMBIA WON THE DECISION BY TWO TO ONE VOTE OVER HESPERIA

WAS THE 28TH ANNUAL CONTEST

Winning Team, Judges, Officers and Debate Council Entertained by Hesperia in the Society Hall After Debate

In the twenty-eighth annual inter-society debate held in Craven Memorial Hall, Thursday, December 18, 1919, the Columbian Literary Society was successful in upholding the affirmative side of the question. Resolved, that the principle of the closed shop should be adopted in American industries; winning a two to one decision over the Hesperian team which defended the negative side of the question.

The victorious Columbian team, in the order in which they spoke was composed of J. L. Jackson, '23, of South Bend, Indiana; G. D. Harmon, '21, of Monroeville, N. C.; and J. T. Carpenter, '20, of Durham, N. C. The Hesperian speakers were T. P. Thomas, '20, of Henderson, N. C.; H. J. Her-ring, '22, of Burgaw, N. C.; and S. M. Holton, '21, of this city. Professor Harry Howell, of the Durham High School, Mr. Jones Fuller, of Durham, and Dr. D. D. Carroll, of the department of Economics at the University, acted as judges. The other officers of the debate were Dr. W. P. Few, presiding officer, and W. B. Unstead, timekeeper. According to custom each speaker was allowed twelve minutes for his first speech and five minutes for the rejoinder.

Upon the conclusion of the contest, the debaters, judges officers of the debate, officers of both societies, and members of the

Dr. John W. Oliver, of the University of Wisconsin, Gives Favorable Review of Work

The recently published December number of the American Economic Review contains an extended and very favorable review of Dr. William H. Glasson's book on "Federal Military Pension in the United States," by Dr. John W. Oliver, of the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Oliver has himself published a monograph on Civil War pensions between 1861 and 1865 and is therefore exceptionally well equipped to pass critical judgment on Dr. Glasson's work. Among the other Journals that have during the past year reviewed Dr. Glasson's work in favorable terms are the American Historical Review, the Literary Digest, the New York Evening Post, the Michigan Law Review, the Survey, the Far East (Tokyo, Japan), and the English Historical Review.

TRINITY'S DELEGATES REPORT FINE MEETING

FULL QUOTA OF DELEGATES FROM STUDENT CONFERENCE WERE GREATLY IMPRESSED

8000 DELEGATES WERE PRESENT

Number of World's Best Educators on List of Speakers. Delegates Royally Entertained by Des Moines

The eighth International Student Volunteer Convention was held at Des Moines, Iowa, December 31 to January 4, and Trinity College was represented by her full quota of delegates. The students who represented the college at this convention were H. K. King, of Wilmington; J. W. Hathecock, of Norwood; R. A. Parham, of Oxford; T. C. Kirkman, of High Point; Miss Blanche Barringer, of Norwood; Miss Lota Leigh Draughn, of Whitakers; and Paul Gibbs, of Hendersonville.

The meetings of the convention were held in the Coliseum, a magnificent structure with a seating capacity of 12,000. There were about 8,000 delegates in attendance, representing every college of any importance in the United States. In the mornings and evenings the delegates met in united sessions at the Coliseum, but the afternoon sessions were in the nature of group conference and were held in the various churches of the city.

The addresses of the convention were delivered by some of the ablest of America's and of the world's orators. In the list of the speakers were representatives of every country of the world, and quite a large number from the oriental nations. A few of the more important ones are named: Dr. John R. Mott, Robert E. Speer, Bishop McDowell, Bishop McConnell, Dr. Truett, Dr. McKenzie, Dr. Endicott, Samuel Higinbotham, Sherwood Eddy, Dr. T. Sallee, Dr. J. C. White, Dr. Charles Watson, Dr. W. H. Foulkes, and numerous other men of international fame.

Among the speakers at one of the meetings is found the name of R. A. Parham, who spoke on the subject, "The Opportunities of Des Moines Delegates in College Newspaper Work." Mr. Parham mentions the fact that he did not fail to try to put Trinity in the limelight and to boast its paper, the CHRONICLE.

Three of the delegates will make their reports this evening at the regular mid-weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A., and the rest will report at a special meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall Sunday evening. All delegates will report to their respective classes at the regular class meetings Saturday morning. It is hoped that all of the student body will be out to hear these reports since the movement was financed by the students at large, and this is one of the tangible results they can see of their contribution. The delegates have all prepared interesting talks, and it behooves every student to come out to hear them.

DR. C. G. CHAPPELL TO PREACH

Members of the Faculty Urge Students to Exert Their Efforts in Stirring Up Interest in the Meeting

The Ministerial Band held a joint meeting with the Student Volunteer Band last Friday evening to formulate plans for the revival which is to be held here immediately after the examinations. Associated with these organizations in this meeting were the members of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. cabinets, the members of the Student Life Committee of the Faculty, and other members of the student body at large.

Professor H. E. Spence presided over the meeting and called on several members of the faculty for speeches. Dr. W. I. Cranford, in speaking of the coming revival, urged all the students who were present to talk to the other members of their acquaintance as man to man in a friendly manner, trying to make them think seriously both by example and by friendly words. Professor R. L. Flowers told of his own personal experiences and urged all men to do their part in making this the most successful of all of Trinity's revivals. Mr. D. W. Newsom, Treasurer of the College stressed the fact that education was a drawing out of man and that this revival should be made to draw out of all the students the very best that was in them.

Following these speeches, Professor Spence announced that Dr. Clovis G. Chappell, pastor of the

CHEMISTS ORGANIZE CLUB IN HONOR OF W. H. PEGRAM

Emeritus Professor Paid Tribute by Students Organizing Club to Arouse Interest

A group of students and professors in the chemical department of Trinity College met last Friday evening and organized The William Howell Pegram Chemists Club. The club was named in honor of Dr. W. H. Pegram, Emeritus Professor of Chemistry, who has been actively connected with the college for more than forty years. The purpose of the club is to arouse and develop an interest in chemical subjects among its members and to build up a just appreciation of the value of chemistry in Trinity College and in the city of Durham.

The following officers were elected: G. H. Satterfield, president; A. Rosenstein, secretary; Professor R. N. Wilson, chairman of executive committee. Charter members of the club are as follows: A. S. Barnes, L. M. Draper, H. K. Farrington, E. T. Harrison, J. H. Harrison, E. P. Jones, L. S. Richmond, B. U. Rose, A. Rosenstein, G. H. Satterfield, and Professors P. M. Gross and R. N. Wilson.

GUILFORD QUINT LOST TO TRINITY 22 TO 20

GAME CHARACTERIZED BY LARGE NUMBER OF FOULS. MARTIN WAS FEATURE

TRINITY DEFEATS ELON 18 TO 20

Durham Y.M.C.A. Also Defeated by Methodists in Game on "Y." Court Last Thursday Night

In the first intercollegiate game of the season, Trinity defeated Guilford, at Guilford, Monday night, by the close score of 22 to 20. The game almost set a record for the number of fouls called, 45 being called during the play. Both teams were at fault and appeared to be almost evenly matched. Field goals were few, as little time was left for real playing after all the foul shots were made. Some sensational playing was done by a few of the players, but it was rather spasmodic and uncertain. Of the 20 points scored by the Guilford crew, their center, Zachary, made 17,—14 on field goals and 3 on foul shots. Martin made the best shooting for the Trinity team, and created a sensation by shooting 15 out of 20 possible foul goals. Starling almost reached the sensational in some of his playing. Richardson, for Trinity, and Anderson, for Guilford, were put out of the game for fouling.

The first half ended with Guilford in the lead 12 to 10, so the Trinity quint had to put forth some strenuous efforts to get the final score in their favor. The Trinity team was greatly handicapped by the absence of Cole, who is out of the game for the time being. Some shifts in the line-up will probably be necessary before many more games are played. The game was rather unfortunate for both teams, as it was the first inter-collegiate game for both, and the large number of fouls served to take much of the spirit out of the game.

Substitutions—Stafford for Anderson, Barrett for Richardson. Referee—Stuart of Guilford.

Times—Rice, of Guilford; Brim, of Trinity.

ELON GAME

Full particulars of the game with Elon Tuesday night, played on the Elon floor, could not be learned in time for this issue of the CHRONICLE, but the Trinity quint emerged victorious with a score of 18 to 15. The game was a tie at the end of the second half, and an extra five minutes of play was given to break the tie.

Y. M. C. A. GAME

The varsity basketball team scored its second victory over last Durham Y. M. C. A. team on last Thursday night to the tune of 32 to 22. This was the third game and the third victory of the season for the varsity team. The

EDITORIAL

Someone has said that Trinity College has turned Episcopalian and adopted a prayer book for chapel. Whether this be true or not, the CHRONICLE compliments the originators of this excellent innovation.

Verily the times have changed! A ministerial student is reported as having paid one dollar to see a poor little freshman tossed in an icy pool on a wintry night.

Buck Braswell is about the most popular man we ever saw. He has had more dates with the "shackers" in the last week than all the rest of the men in college put together have had in the last two months. Only yesterday a good-looking black-eyed girl took it upon herself to make a date with him, and what did he do but turn right around and transfer the date to some stranger he has imported. What fools these mortals be.

THE ELECTION

The vote cast here in the election on the Treaty and the League Tuesday shows two things. It shows that the majority of the students are interested in affairs of the day, and that they have given thought to the matter. This group of students is to be commended upon its attitude.

But it is concerning the minority that we wish to speak just now. A table of statistics compile from the ballots shows the vote as follows:

For	Men	Women	Total
I.	221	60	281
II.	26	0	26
III.	7	1	8
IV.	88	12	100
Total	342	73	415

The total number of votes cast

by students was 415. There are at present at least 570 students in school. Of this number 145 are women. By the table it can be seen that 72 women and 83 men did not vote, which is one half the number of women in college, and one fifth the number of men. It does not need to be said that these students showed very poor spirit. They are the kind that drag on anything that the college community attempts to do.

Here is another thing that the students included might think about. A large majority of this number were town students. Nearly all the girls in the 72 that did not vote were day students. We are not criticising the town students from any standpoint of prejudice, but it is not too much to ask them to think of Trinity College more as an alma mater, and get interested in her activities, rather than regarding her as an institution that happened to be in Durham that they are taking advantage of just for what they can get out of it. Those who are hit by these statements know it, and our request of them is,—think it over.

NOTICE

The management in charge of the sale of seats for the lecture by Irwin S. Cobb, to be given in the Academy of Music on the night of January 23, has offered to reserve a choice portion of seats for Trinity College students if they desire to take tickets in this manner. The first fourteen rows down stairs will sell for $1.50, while the remaining seats down stairs will sell for $1, as will the first four rows of the balcony. It has been suggested that the first row balcony seats be held for Trinity students. If the students that find this plan acceptable, and care to go under such an arrangement, will hand their names, on paper, to W. N. Evans, Jr., before noon of Friday, January 16, announcements will be made of further arrangements. This is a chance to reserve good seats, and those who are fortunate enough to be able to give up bonding on that night will not regret going to hear this noted writer lecture.

game was fast and spirited throughout, more of the old style pep being exhibited than in the other two contests. The "Y" aggregation made a much better showing during the second half of the game, as the first half ended with Trinity leading 27 to 9.

Martin, Starling, and Perrell were the outstanding stars for the varsity, and were primarily responsible for the victory. Martin shot seven field goals and two foul goals. Starling contributed four field goals. Perrell's fast passing helped feed the basket. Mangum, who recently returned to the Y. M. C. A. team, led in the scoring for his aggregation with four field goals and two foul goals. The only change in the line-up came during the second half when Landis substituted for Richardson of the Y. M. C. A. team.

Miss Caroline Hackney, of Lexington, has been spending the last few days on the campus with friends. Miss Hackney was a student here during the fall.

John Armstrong, ex-'19, of Greensboro, spent Sunday with friends on the campus.

Dr. Peppler Receives Interesting Letter From C. R. Bagley

Dr. C. W. Peppler recently received a letter from C. R. Bagley, '17, who is now a student in Oxford University, England. Bagley received his A. B. Degree here in 1916, and took his M. A. in 1917, in which year he won the Rhoades scholarship to Oxford, the first man from Trinity to win the distinction. In 1917 he answered the call to arms, and served for some months overseas as a captain. Receiving his discharge on the other side, Bagley went to Oxford to take up his studies.

In his letter he states that he is very much impressed with the life at the University, and he has agreed to write some articles for the CHRONICLE on the Rhoades Scholarships, and on the University Life at Oxford.

Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church, of Washington, D. C., a member of the class of 1905, and one of Trinity's best known preachers, would hold this revival. A committee was selected at this meeting to make a survey of the college community and find out the real state of religious matters on the campus. This survey will probably be made this week, and it is hoped that it will do a good deal towards paving the way for a successful revival. Plans are also now on foot which point towards special music for this series of services, which will come immediately after the examinations.

debate council, were entertained informally by the Hesperian Literary Society in the Hesperian Hall in East Duke Building. Dr. W. K. Boyd acted as toastmaster. After the refreshments were served, cigars were passed around and short speeches were made. Dr. W. H. Glasston spoke as a member of the debate council, Dr. Carroll spoke for the judges, C. D. Harmon for the Columbian team, and S. M. Holton for the Hesperian. The Debate Council announced that Mr. Herring, of the Hesperian team, was selected as intercollegiate debater from the intersociety teams, and Mr. Herring made a short speech in acknowledgment.

A brief summary of the main speeches in the order which they were delivered is given below:

JACKSON

J. L. Jackson, the first speaker for the affirmative traced the causes and events which gave rise to the question, contrasting the conditions in this country before the rise of the factory system with those existing today. He declared that the organization of labor was made necessary by the rise of the factory system, showing the rapid growth of class distinction and calling attention to the many privileges enjoyed by the capitalistic class. He next cited examples to show the entire helplessness of the individual laborer and his inability to secure satisfactory working conditions.

THOMAS

T. P. Thomas, first on the negative, gave a brief summary and analysis of existing labor conditions, discussing the rights of labor and capital respectively and giving the merits of each case. His purpose was to show that the

NEW ORDER OF WORSHIP IS PROVIDED BY CHAPEL BOOK

New Book of Songs, Responsive Reading, and Order of Worship Designed by Prof. Spence

A new program of Chapel exercises has been inaugurated since the holidays which will serve to make the daily exercises more interesting to the student body.
In place of the hitherto rather slow and uninteresting exercises, a program has been arranged by the Chapel Committee that is more interesting and moves faster than the old arrangement, and yet consumes no more time than formerly.
New chapel books have been printed containing a large number of well-known hymns and college songs with a number of selections for responsive reading. The new arrangement gives an opportunity for the entire student body to take some part in the exercises.

principle of the closed shop was unjust and wrong. His argument tended to show that the closed shop would injure the union man by discouraging initiative and lowering the standard of the workmen by reducing the wages of all to a dead level. Non-union men would be forced to join the unions, which coercion would be illegal.

HARMON

G. D. Harmon, second speaker for the affirmative, showed that the only means by which labor organizations may be operated with the greatest degree of success possible is by the establishment of the closed shop. The benefits now enjoyed by the laboring class are results of the labor organizations, but they have been seriously handicapped in the past by the presence of the non-union worker.

HERRING

H. J. Herring, second for the negative, contended that the principle of the closed shop would create a labor monopoly that would be dangerous to the political welfare of our country. He warned his opponents that unlimited power should be placed in the hands of no one class of people and that the closed shop would build up a government within a government. His second main charge was that the principle of the closed shop would be impractical for the laboring men as they are organized today.

CARPENTER

J. T. Carpenter, final speaker
for the affirmative showed that the closed shop would be fair to all, in that it benefited the laborer, the employer, and finally the general public. The organization of labor would give the laborer more time for social, intellectual, and moral development.

HOLTON

The third man on the negative, S. M. Holton, showed that the child labor laws and the minimum wage laws, as well as the various state labor bills, were passed through the influence of public opinion, which is opposed to unionism. These bills were accomplished by labor as it is now organized.

has served in this position since 1917, gave the reason that the duties of the office required more time than he was able to spare justice. He has made a very ef-

PREP SCRUBS DEFEAT WEST DURHAM HIGH BY 24 TO 16

Game Rather Slow, But Close Enough to be Interesting. Spencer and Bolich Starred

In a slow but rather close basketball game Monday night the Trinity Park School second team defeated the West Durham High School team by a score of 24 to 16. The first half started out with a decided lack of pep, but Bolich at right guard managed to pocket two balls from the field before the opposing team got on their feet. They drew their strings tight, however, and the first half ended with the score 13 to 0 in favor of West Durham.

In the second half the guarding of the west Durham team was very close, but fouls committed by Phillips and a change in the line-up of the Park School team caused the score to stand at a tie at the end. An extra five minutes was played and the Park School boys got on their feet for the first time during the game. Within about three minutes Spencer, at left forward, shot three field goals, which won the game. For West Durham Sneed and Agner at forward scored the most points pocketing 4 to 2 respectively, while Spencer and Bolich were the outstanding contributors for the Park School, throwing 5 and 4 field goals respectively.

In the Columbian Hall proposition number 1 was defended by Miss Margaret Harvey and W. A. Rollins; Number 2 by H. W. Carter and Sam Maxwell; Number 3 by R. A. Smith and R. A. Parham; Number 4 by Miss Herminia Haynes, B. I. Satterfield, and J. L. Jackson.

In the Hesperian Hall, Wesley Taylor and C. F. Woodard spoke in defense of the first proposition, W. N. Evans, Jr., and W. J. Bundy upheld the second, Miss Bernice Ulrich and T. R. Sometimes

We love to touch the human side of folks. After all money making is not all there is in business, leastwise not with

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

THE MAN behind the dollar interests us.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

wants the public to consider it as a MAN MAKER, as well as a MONEY MAKER. Every bank owes the other fellow something. There is but 100 cents in a Dollar, but there is the word of encouragement, the human touch that will help lift the burden. Many a poor fellow is hungry for a word of sympathy, "the hello, hooray Bill, we are betting on you" spirit that makes a MAN MAKER as well as a MONEY MAKER.

Dan Henderson interpreted the thoughts and plans of

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

When he sang:

Weave for the world the flag of man!
Finish the fabric our sires began!
Out of our lives shall the thread be spun!
Out of our veins shall the color run!
Out of our deed shall rise its lustre!
Out of our dreams its stars shall cluster!
Wide as the heavens spin the span
Of freedom's fabric—the flag of man!
