SOUTHGATE MEMORIAL FUND GOES OVER THE TOP WITH $110,000: BUILDING PLANS BEING RUSHED:---PHI BETA KAPPA INSTALLATION TAKES PLACE: ONE OF THE BIGGEST EVENTS IN HISTORY OF TRINITY

CAMPAIGN WAS SUCCESS

FUND GOES OVER THE TOP BEFORE NOON OF THIRD DAY OF CAMPAIGN

STUDENTS GIVE OVER $5000

Entire College Community Subscribes $8,250. Students Average About $10 Per Man

LARGE INDIVIDUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

W. A. Erwin Gave $20,000; George W. Watts, $7,500; Mrs. Stagg, $5,000. Several Other Large Subscriptions

The Southgate memorial campaign ended officially Friday at noon with total subscriptions of $110,858.39. The overwhelming success of the campaign, announced at the regular luncheon held at the Y. M. C. A., will in all probability be increased in the future with additional subscriptions which have not yet reached the committee chairman. With 1,070 individual subscribers already recorded and others expected, the committee believe that when the drive is finally completed more than 1,110 will have taken a part.

The success of the campaign, Chairman Carmichael announced Friday night, will mean that in the not far distant future a handsome women's college will be erected on the knoll on the western part of the Trinity campus and will become a part of Durham's educational advantages. It has been assured that the $100,000 gift promised by one of the friends of the college leaves little doubt as to the raising of the total of $300,000 deemed necessary. Besides the $200,000 already in hand, an additional $100,000 is to be raised among members of the alumni and friends of the college outside of Durham.

While the active work of the campaign is over, Chairman W. H. Wannamaker, of the publicity committee, said Friday night that there is no reason to believe that the effect of the drive is over. The enthusiastic support of all the committees, the hearty response of the city, the splendid devotion to the ideal as personified in Mr. Southgate now known to be a quality of Durham people—all characterized the campaign and called forth the finest spirit of unity and co-operation ever seen in a Durham movement.

At the luncheon Friday at noon, Chairman Carmichael made a number of announcements of interest. One was the subscription of $7,500 made by Mr. George Watts, who though ill at his home, displayed great interest in the campaign. It was also stated that a voluntary subscription of $300 had been raised by a committee of colored citizens composed of Dr. A. M. Moore, C. C. Spaulding, and W. G. Pearson. There was a special subscription of $5,000, the name of the donor of which was not made public.

The subscriptions made by the

BRILLIANT ADDRESS MADE BY DR. PAUL SHOREY AT INSTALLATION EXERCISES

PAID COMPLIMENTS TO SOUTH ATLANTIC QUARTERLY AND TO THE SOUTH

The principle address at the public exercises held in connection with the installation of the Phi Beta Kappa chapter here was made by Professor Paul Shorey, of the University of Chicago. Professor Shorey is one of the most brilliant speakers that a Trinity audience has had the privilege of listening to in a long time, and he fully lived up to the reputation which he has made for himself by his contributions to American literature. He held the close attention of an appreciative audience throughout his address, which was both entertaining and inspiring. His frequent references and quotations from various writers gave evidence of a very wide acquaintance with the literature of all times.

Professor Shorey began his address by cautioning his audience against being swept off its feet by the revolutionary spirit which the present-day "soap box" orators were attempting to inspire in every one. After leaving these to the agents of the government, the speaker voiced his hearty disapproval of the spirit evinced by the greater part of the writings of today. One of the chief troubles of Germany has been that she has allowed herself to be influenced too much by the books of Karl Marx and others of his class. The speaker urged his hearers to read whole-

MISSIONARY WORK TO BE UNDERTAKEN BY TRINITY

Missionary Special Campaign Was Postponed Until After Easter Holidays

One of the results of the recent campaign for subscriptions for the Southgate Memorial Fund among students was the postponement of the proposed campaign for raising a Missionary Special. It will be recalled that during Dr. Chappell's meetings a large gathering of representative students endorsed the proposal that Trinity undertake a definite missionary work during this year. Committees appointed at that time have been at work ever since, corresponding with the Mission Board of the Methodist church, until two weeks ago final plans had been made for a mass meeting, an educational campaign of publicity, and a presentation of the appeal for the funds to the student body by a committee of students.

At the request of the committees in charge of the Southgate Memorial, this project was postponed, and a large number of the workers for the missionary special campaigned for the memorial fund. In view of these circumstances the heads of organizations

TRINITY WALKS AWAY FROM ELON BY 9 TO 2

METHODISTS FIND ELON EASY PICKINGS AFTER SECOND INNING

BROWN AND CHANDLER STAR

Brown Pitched Good Game and Chandler Made Three Hits Out of Four Times Up-Town and Carson Played Well

In a game characterized by consistent team-work, Trinity College Monday afternoon defeated Elon in baseball by the score of 9 to 2. After getting away to a bad start, the Methodist team hit its stride in the third inning and from then until the end of the game had decidedly the best of the argument.

Caviness, who started the game for Trinity, failed to hold back the Elon hitters, allowing four safeties in the first inning. By flashy fielding, however, the Trinity team held the visitors to only one score. Elon annexed another score in the second by some additional hitting. In the fourth inning Brown, Trinity's southpaw pitcher, went in to replace Caviness and his work was little less than sensational. The Methodist hitters were unable to connect safely until the third inning. Caviness, first up in that frame, hit the shortstop who threw him to first, allowing him to reach the initial station. McArthur followed with a clean double over the centerfielder's head.

In the fourth inning Trinity reached a one-run lead on singles by Salmon, Chandler, and Brown. It was Brown's slashing single that drove in two runs. In the fifth inning Trinity scored three tallies on a base on balls, three singles, and an error. Again in the eighth Trinity went around the paths for three scores, making the total of nine. In this frame Johnson started the hitting with a single. Chandler followed by a clean hit. Carson sacrificed the runners to third and second, respectively. Brown doubled, scoring two runners. He later scored.

The game started with the Elon players showing an unusual amount of pep. The visitors talked incessantly, urging pitcher Sides to his best. Later when defeat appeared almost certain, a large portion of the pep died away and was taken up by the Methodists.

There were few outstanding features to the game. Brown, the southpaw pitcher, made perhaps the best showing of any Trinity player. He worked effectively for six innings. Chandler, the new second baseman of the Trinity team, also showed up well, getting three hits out of four trips to the bat. Captain Towe contributed three hits, but was at bat five times. Carson showed his usual amount of pep, but failed to connect safely during the game.

Fogleman was the only visiting player to connect safely more than

TRINITY IS REPRESENTED IN Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE AT N. C. STATE COLLEGE

PARHAM, VAUGHAN, AND DULIN REPRESENTED TRINITY IN OFFICERS' SCHOOL

Trinity College was represented by its full quota of delegates at the state Y. M. C. A. officers' conference which was held in Raleigh, at State College, during last week. The object of the conference which will be an annual affair every year now, was to give the newly-elected officers of the various college Y. M. C. A.'s a more adequate preparation for their work and to unify and strengthen the work of the Student Christian Associations of North Carolina.

Trinity's delegation consisted of three members of next year's cabinet, R. A. Parham, W. N. Vaughan, and Leroy Dulin. These men return with the report that the convention was a very helpful one and also that they were treated royally by the members of the State College student body during the days which they spent on the campus there. All of next year's cabinet will soon be given the benefit of what these men learned at the convention in a call meeting, and the three delegates are now devising various methods to make the work of the "Y" a great success next year.

Mr. J. B. Watson, one of the leading speakers of the convention, will address a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. this evening and it is hoped that a large number of the students will be out to hear this entertaining speaker.

PLANS FOR NEW BUILDING ARE RUSHED BY ARCHITECT

NOTHING DEFINITE CAN BE GIVEN OUT YET. GENERAL PLAN STATED BY DR. FEW

The college architect is at work on the plans for the new Southgate Memorial building and will present them to the authorities just as soon as possible. Dr. Few, when interviewed concerning the plans, stated that there was no definite information to be given out just yet, as to the exact location, size, and nature of the building. He stated, however, that the general plan of the college authorities is to erect a building that will harmonize readily with the other buildings on the campus. It will contain a gymnasium for the women, and also class rooms enough to accommodate the Freshman and Sophomore classes, so that the girls in the two lower classes will not meet any recitations on the old campus. There will also be a spacious dining-room, in addition to the large number of dormitory rooms to be provided, together with parlors and reading rooms. It is hoped that the plans can be completed and accepted in time for construction to be begun by the first of July.

One of the most momentous events in the history of Trinity College took place on last Monday when a chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity was established here. The chapter established here is the Beta of North Carolina, Alpha being at the State University. The local chapter starts off with seven faculty members, thirty-seven alumni members, fourteen undergraduate members, and two honorary members, Governor Thomas W. Bickett and Mr. Joseph G. ## EDITORIAL

There will be no Chronicle on Wednesday, April 1. The next issue will be April 14. The reason for skipping an issue is evident. The staff needs a rest, and so do the readers. But watch for the issue on April 14. It will carry official dipe on the games played by the team on the northern trip.

The United States Senate hasn't got a thing on the Hesperian Literary Society. Some of the Hesperians seem to be about as long-winded, about as sensible, and get about as much done as some of the United States senators.

We would advise Oestricher to see the next game of baseball before he questions the outcome. It would be hard for us to put up a good game watch if we had seen the game and knew that we were right, much less staking a perfectly good timekeeper on what some of the law bulls tell us.

If there is anything we like better than being earnest, it is being frank, and when one is frank and earnest at the same time, my! what a combination. We wouldn't mention any names, of course, but one fair co-ed we know is almost such a rara avis. It is reported that she succeeded in revealing her sentiments in a most clever manner to the object of her admiration when she unintentionally (?) allowed him to overhear her speak her mind. We were not able to find out the exact contents of her remarks, but there must have been something of great weight and import, for it is said that they caused the "eavesdropper" to spill a perfectly good dope and drop a package of cigarettes. Anyone desiring further information might be able to secure it either at the Kilgo House, or perhaps at the English office.

THE SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN

With the successful close of the Southgate memorial campaign and a new woman's building assured, out of which is to develop a co-ordinate woman's college at Trinity, the students and alumni of Trinity College stand even more indebted to certain bounteous friends of the institution and to the people of the city of Durham. The immediate effect of the campaign is to make for Durham people a warmer place in the hearts of Trinity College students and friends and to give to the Durham people a keener interest and greater appreciation and love for the educational facilities which are at hand. The ultimate effect will be the creation of a women's college on the western part of Trinity campus, which will eventually mean the expansion of this institution into one of the foremost centers of education in the South.

In his address before the committees at the noon luncheon Friday, when the success of the campaign was announced, Dr. Few, in expressing the sentiments of the authorities of the college, also expressed the spirit of the students. His speech is given below:

"The executive committee of the trustees have directed me to thank the citizens of Durham for making the James H. Southgate Memorial in the form of a building for women at Trinity college, and also to thank the people of the whole community for their hearty co-operation in the undertaking which Friday at noon became a glorious success.

"The movement began with $100,000 offered by a friend of Durham and a friend of Trinity College, on condition that at least $100,000 in addition be raised. Durham's answer is to date $110,000; and other contributions will come from friends of Mr. Southgate and of the cause here and elsewhere.

"The college gratefully accepts the trust and will undertake to administer it in such way as to do most good. The building will be begun at the earliest possible moment.

"The value of the college to the town from the business standpoint has received some emphasis, and that is well. But everybody will of course always expect the college to be influenced not by commercial but ideal values, and to go forward along solid lines and with high aims rather than take short cuts that lead to mushroom growth and doubtful success. Especially will all our people need patience as administrators of higher education seek to adjust the processes of intellectual training to the new responsibilities that are coming to the women of America.

"Mr. Southgate saw before most men that women were to have a larger and juster share in the life of the world. Trinity was among the first if not the very first of the colleges for men in the old south to offer to women the opportunities of higher education. This memorial, in this form in this place seems then most appropriate, and we are all most grateful for it.

"I am particularly grateful that Durham united wholeheartedly in this campaign. It means much for the college and for the town. With this unity made permanent Durham can become the most influential centre of population in North Carolina.

"I am glad that Durham in this great way has honored one of her noblest sons. Durham is blessed perhaps above every other town in the state with public-spirited citizens and generous benefactors. It is well for us to give expression to our gratitude, and now we have set an example that is sure to be followed not only here but elsewhere.

"Now speaking for myself, I am most grateful to large contributors and small, to my neighbors and friends, for their noble gift and for the fine spirit that prompted it. I shall want to spend the rest of my life at work here, trying to show how much I think of this and how much I think of them."

FOR GREATER TRINITY

The installation of a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa marks an epoch in the history of Trinity College. It marks a recognition that has been received by no other college (outside of state universities) in the South, and is a true commendation for the high character of work and scholarship that Trinity College has maintained for the past quarter of a century. As a mark of recognition it is one more milestone passed in the march of a greater Trinity. Dr. Glasson, in his speech of acceptance, when he received the charter from Dr. Shorey, Monday, expressed the sentiment and spirit of Trinity, when he said:

"We at Trinity are proud of the fact that our college is to have a place in the venerable fraternity of Phi Beta Kappa, organized at a Southern college, and now nearly a century and a half old. We rejoice that henceforth our distinguished alumni and our undergraduates of great promise are to be admitted to the noble associations of this brotherhood of scholars. It is a brotherhood that despite the passage of years grows and increasingly flourishes because that it has perennial sources of strength and renewal in the elect youth of our colleges and universities. As they come into its charmed circle of character and scholarship and friendship, they give and they receive. They bring youthful vigor and enthusiasm, high ideals, and the capacity for generous and disinterested friendship. In turn they feel the satisfaction of merit fitly recognized and the stimulus of companionship with the promising youth of other days who have gone on to the goal of distinguished achievement. We prize this charter as opening the way for our Trinity men and women into the privileges and liberties of this noble fraternity of learning. High standards of character and scholarship are the requirements they must meet."

Phi Beta Kappa is an incentive to scholarship. It is the reward that is given to one who has adhered strictly to the task he set before himself when he entered college, and who has performed that task well. It is a recognition for achievements already made. Our alumni who have distinguished themselves will get a "place in the sun" just as will the undergraduates. The CHRONICLE wishes to express the appreciation of the entire student body and the alumni of the college to the eight men on the faculty, who, as members of Phi Beta Kappa at other institutions, labored so hard and so diligently to get the charter granted here, and it is in a large measure to their untiring efforts that we owe the recognition we have received.

TWO MORE GREEK-LETTER FRATERNITIES INITIATE

Kappa Alpha Takes In Five New Men; Sigma Phi Epsilon Initiates Three Freshmen

Immediately after the initiation, the members of the chapter and the initiates enjoyed a banquet at the Goody Shop.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

The North Carolina Gamma chapter of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity held its initiation Saturday night in the Masonic Hall down town. This was a joint initiation with the Beta chapter of A. and E. College.

The men initiated into the Gamma chapter were: B. D. Hicks, '23, Rockwood, Tenn.; L. D. Skidmore, '23, Norwood, N. C.; and G. C. Tudor, '23, Winston-Salem, N. C.

The out-of-town members present were: Manly and Dave Fuller, and John Gatlin.

Student Volunteer Band is Addressed by Dr. Hounchell

Dr. C. G. Hounchell, secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist church, was the speaker before the meeting of the student volunteer band, held Friday afternoon. Dr. Hounchell emphasized the urgent call the church is making for trained ministers and physicians for service in the foreign lands. In recent years, due to the drain army service has made on manpower, the church has not been able adequately to meet the growing need for workers. The speaker complimented Trinity on having such a large and active missionary organization.

Plans for Class Reunions at Commencement Under Way

Plans are being worked out for reunions for every class whose graduating year can be divided by five, and for both the class of 1917 and of 1919. A large number of men from these classes will be back for commencement, June 6th to 9th.

Special emphasis will be placed on the class of 1895 for its twenty-fifth anniversary. Mr. James Lee Bost, of Washington city, has these arrangements in charge.

J. A. Sharpe, who is editor and owner of the Robersonian, the semi-weekly paper of Roberson county, and president of the North Carolina Press Association, was at Trinity Monday for the installation exercises of the Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Sharp is one of the alumni members of the Trinity chapter.

The college community and friends throughout North Carolina of Professor and Mrs. R. L. Flowers will be glad to learn that Mrs. Flowers, after an extended stay in a Baltimore hospital, was able to return home Sunday, and they will wish for her a speedy and complete recovery.

Highest Individual Score Accredited to Barnhardt and Moore, Each of Whom Scored Ten Points. Fine Showing

The annual inter-class field day, which was held on the Hanes Field Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, was won by the Sophomores with a total score of 44 out of a possible 125. The scores of the other classes were: Freshmen 29, Juniors 20, Seniors 19. The only record broken was by M. B. Loftin, of the Senior class, who broke his own previous record, the Trinity record, and possibly the state record, when he ran the two miles in ten minutes and 51 seconds.

The highest individual scores were made by L. W. Barnhardt, '21, and T. F. Moore, '22, each of whom won two first places and had a total of ten points to their credit. C. C. Gray '22, made the next highest score when he won one first place and tied another. His score was nine points.

There were four entries for the one-mile run. First place was made by W. E. Powell, '20, in four minutes, 51 seconds, which lacked only about eight seconds of being as good as Smather's state record. The other places were won by Neal Ruthford, '22, and M. Q. Tuttle, '23.

T. F. Moore threw the discus 95 feet for first place, J. C. Knox, '22, made second place, and A. E. Stevens, '21, third.

LITERARY SOCIETIES HOLD REGULAR WEEKLY MEETINGS

Usual Line of Orations and Debates Given in Both Societies. Hereafter Held Forth

Very interesting programs were given at both of the literary societies at the regular meetings Saturday night. At the Columbian meeting R. A. Smith delivered an oration on "The Unappreciated Idealist"; J. T. Carpenter spoke on "The Stability of Man"; K. L. Elmore gave a general oration on "The New Phase of Education"; and Henry Belk gave a humorous oration on "Notes from the Campus". The question for debate was, "Resolved, That Secretary Lansing was justified in calling meetings of the cabinet during the illness of the President." The affirmative was successfully upheld by Claude Grigg, W. A. Rollins, and C. E. Buckner, while Henry Belk, W. Q. Grigg, and R. D. Ware defended the negative. In the open debate which followed J. E. Ramsey spoke. The judges decided that Carpenter made the best oration, and Rollins and W. Q. Grigg made the best appearances on their respective sides of the debate. As extempore speakers W. R. Waggoner spoke on "The Woman's Building at Trinity College," and D. W. Kanoy on "How It Feels to Be in Love."

The installation of the officers elected at a recent meeting was the first business taken up by Hesperia. The officers installed were: H. K. King, president; G. T. McArthur, vice-president; L. B. Hathaway, secretary; H. E. Fisher, auditor; T. R. Waggoner, marshal; and E. W. Finch, chairman of the executive committee. After the installation of the officers the regular program was carried out. Woodard delivered the only oration. The extempore speakers were: L. M. Draper, who spoke on "Trinity College for Women"; D. T. Miller, on "The State Championship in Basketball"; S. S. Farrabow, on "The Rising of Sap"; and T. R. Waggoner, on "The Prospects for Football." The question for the debate was: "Resolved, That the government should control the price of food to prevent profiteering." The affirmative was successfully upheld by M. Bradshaw, Jr., and H. J. Herring, while S. M. Holton, Jr., and W. C. Allen defended the negative. After the program, a business session was begun, which continued until rather late.

220-yard dash, and M. V. Lavalie, '21, made second.

C. C. Gray, '22, and J. H. Moore, '21, tied for the first place on the high jump when each jumped five feet.

The judges for the meet were H. P. Martin, W. S. Elias, and F. C. Patton. W. W. Card acted as time-keeper and W. J. Rothensies as starter.

The cup was presented to the Sophomores by Professor James Cannon, III, who congratulated them on their good work, but reminded them that they had yet to beat the record of the class of 1914, which won the cup in its first, second, and fourth years. If any class wins the cup every year it is in college, the cup will belong to that class permanently.

GLEE CLUB MADE GREAT HIT AT G. C. W. LAST WEDNESDAY

Program Given Out Announced Fourteen Numbers—Program, Including Encores, Numbered 50

"All the requisites that go to make up a popular Glee Club were to be found in the Trinity College Glee Club, which appeared at the Greensboro College for Women last night," says the Greensboro Daily News in reporting the appearance of Trinity's musical organization in that city. "The refreshingly youthful artists met with a strikingly enthusiastic audience; and evincing the accommodating nature of the Glee Club and the pleasure the audience was deriving were the large number of encores, every number being recalled two or more times. Especial demand for returns was made for the readings, the drums, the quartet, and the stringed instruments. The entire program showed the results of skilled training, and, affording an evening of genuine amusement, evoked enthusiastic approval."

The Glee Club was given a six-o'clock dinner as guests of the faculty, and immediately following the program, a reception was held in the college parlors. The trip was a success in every respect, not the least of which was the cordial way in which the Club was treated by the citizens of Greensboro and the college community.

Manager Draper states that several trips are planned, to be taken after the holidays, including a possible return engagement at Greensboro, an appearance at Salem College, and a trip into Virginia.

Davis Reads Paper Before Classical Club Thursday

The Classical Club held its fortnightly meeting Thursday evening in West Duke building. The club voted to limit all future meetings to one hour.

H. L. Davis read a paper on "The Attitude of Ancient Rome to Religion and Religious Cults." The paper was well prepared and was very interesting. A general discussion of the paper followed the reading.

Chemist Club in Regular Session Heard Two Papers

The William Howell Pegram Chemists' Club held its regular meeting Friday night at seven o'clock. Edwin Jones and B. U. Rose discussed the present status of nitrogen fixation, and some reasons for the establishment of nitrate plants in the United States. There was also a general discussion of the various processes for the manufacture of nitrogen, and some reasons for and against each process. A somewhat detailed discussion on the manufacture of cyanide at the United States government nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, brought out some interesting facts concerning that project. In connection with the discussion, experiments were carried out to prove that the manufacture of nitrates is possible.

J. B. Warren, '08, has recently become publicity director of the North Carolina Division of the American Cotton Association, with headquarters at Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Warren is also editor of Cotton Facts, the official organ for the American Cotton Association in North Carolina.

INSTALLATION IS HELD

The undergraduate members of the society are elected from the senior class. High scholarship standing is the principal requirement for eligibility. The undergraduates who were elected to membership were: Margaret M. Cameron, Durham; J. T. Carpenter, Durham; Vera G. Carr, Durham; L. S. Elkins, Elston; J. G. Leyburn, Rome, Ga.; Nannie Maxwell, Hazelwood; Gladys V. Price, Wilmington, C. M. Ramsey, Durham; W. A. Rollins, Lawndale; Florence L. Shuman, Black Mountain; N. C. Teague, Siler City; Bernice Ulrich, North Wilkesboro; J. B. Whitener, Sherrill's Ford; F. R. Yarbrough, Cary.

The exercises attendant to the installation of the society lasted throughout the day Monday. The public exercises were held in the Craven Memorial Hall at 8:30 P. M. Professor Paul Shorey, of the University of Chicago, was the principal speaker. He entered a plea for the greater South. Dr. Shorey was followed by T. W. Bickett, who gave a short talk denouncing political parties for their appeal to particular groups and classes of people. After these addresses, Dr. Shorey presented the charter of the new chapter to Dr. W. H. Glasson, who was elected initial president of the chapter. In his speech Dr. Shorey paid a compliment to the South Atlantic Quarterly, a publication edited and operated by members of the Trinity College faculty. Dr. Glasson accepted the charter, thanking Dr. Shorey, as a senator of the society of Phi Beta Kappa, for the honor that the organization was paying to the institution, an honor of which the entire college community is proud.

Monday afternoon at six o'clock the chapter banquet was held in the East Duke building parlor. The room was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers, and music was rendered by the college orchestra, Mrs. T. N. Yancey taking Leyburn's place at the piano.

Dr. Glasson presided as toastmaster, and those responding to toasts were: Governor Bickett; J. G. Brown, chairman of the board of trustees; Dr. E. C. Brooks; President W. P. Few; Dr. Paul Shorey; Miss Kate Herring; Professor Richard Crawford, and W. A. Rollins, for the undergraduates.

Following the public exercises of Monday night, a delightful reception was held at the home of Dr. Few. A large number of the guests were in attendance. Fruit punch and ice cream and cake were served.

The secret part of the installation ceremonies took place at 2:30 P. M. in the Hesperia Literary Society Hall, at which time also the constitution was adopted and the following officers were elected: President, Dr. William H. Glasson; vice-president, Dr. William K. Boyd; secretary-treasurer, Dr. Charles W. Peppeler. The formal reception of the foundation members into the society also occurred at that time.

Representatives of the Phi Beta Kappa chapters at other institutions in nearby states were in attendance at all the exercises. The delegates appointed to attend the installation were: Professor Paul Shorey, Ph. D., LL. D., of the University of Chicago, senator of the united chapters of Phi Beta Kappa; Professor Richard M. Crawford, of William and Mary College; W. L. Foushee, of Durham, representing Johns Hopkins University; President H. N. Snyder, Wofford College, representing Vanderbilt University; Professor D. B. Easter, Washington and Lee University; Professor F. W. Martin, Randolph-Macon Woman's College; and H. S. Everett, of the University of North Carolina.

colored people was a touching proof of the love and esteem which Mr. Southgate enjoyed in his home city, Mr. Carmichael said.

Dean Wannamaker spoke of the wonderful spirit manifested by all students in the campaign and announced a total subscription of $8,269 from the college community, with more to come. Superintendent E. D. Pusey, of the city schools, announced the raising of $1,118.14. Mr. White, of the Liggett and Myers factory, reported the raising of $1,722 among the employees.

Mr. Carmichael, to whom much of the credit of the success of the campaign is due, thanked the committeemen and all those who had made donations, expressing appreciation particularly to him, who by his gift of $100,000, has made a great memorial sure. He presented Dr. Few with the city's gift.

Dr. Few accepted the gift and promised to administer it in all fidelity and worthiness. He conveyed to the workers the request of the executive committee of the college board of trustees that a local advisory board of five men and five women be selected by the central committee to preserve the life and merit of the campaign and to cultivate further the good relations between the town and the college. On motion of Mr. W. G. Frasier, the request was enthusiastically granted and the selections later made were: men—W. D. Carmichael, W. A. Erwin, R. H. Sykes, M. E. Newton, and J. L. Lindsey; women—Mesdames W. J. Brogden, J. A. Robinson, J. S. Hill, L. B. Markham, and J. E. Staggs.

BRILLIANT ADDRESS MADE BY DR. PAUL SHOREY AT INSTALLATION EXERCISES

same literature instead of being poisoned in mind by the influence of writers of the type of Karl Marx.

Professor Shorey made an appeal particularly for a study of the good literature of the past. He said: "An esthetic estimate of the literature of today is not the point I am stressing. What I would point out is that we must make use of the accumulation of the ages. We should not be swept away by the spirit of the age. Fanatical absorption in the present is always bad for culture and education. We are living in a period of literary decadence. Uncertainty of aim and confusion of purpose are everywhere evident.

RELIGIOUS TALK MADE BY DR. LOWERY TO Y. M. C. A.

Professor of Education Delivers the Fifth of Series of Faculty Lectures

Dr. Lowery, of the department of education, was the speaker at the fifth of the series of faculty lectures before the Y. M. C. A. on last Wednesday evening, using as a basis for his remarks the scriptural injunction, "ye must be born again." Dr. Lowery showed that this was not a finality, but was the beginning of an infinite series. "The most valuable asset of a state, is the religion of its people," said the speaker, and called attention to the fact that it was this element in its life that had made North Carolina a leader, religiously, educationally, and commercially, not only in the South, but throughout the nation. He cited Governor Bickett's figures to the effect that since April, 1917, North Carolina had paid more federal taxes than state taxes in all the period since the Civil War.

"Upon the college man of today," concluded Dr. Lowery, "rests the responsibility of preserving the high standard of religious life, not allowing prosperity and wealth to destroy its foundations, and preserving for posterity the good name we now enjoy."

The date on which the debate with Emory University will take place is April 23.

PARK BOYS DEFEATED HIGH TEAM 40 TO 30

FASTEST GAME OF SEASON ENDS
BASKETBALL PERIOD WITH GREAT VICTORY

T. P. S. JOYOUS OVER VICTORY

Roane, For T. P. S. (and Byrd, For the Highs, Were Particular Stars.
Game Was Rather Rough,
But Clean

In the fastest game of the season the Trinity Park School won from the Durham high school, the final game of basketball, by a score of 40-30, Friday night, March 26th. Neither team had practiced for two or three weeks, but in spite of this fact, they played a fast and hard game throughout. The outcome was, after the first five minutes, practically assured by the Park School. They took an early lead and held it during the entire game. The first half ended in a 16-to-9 score, the high school throwing only two field goals during the half. The second half started in a rush by both teams. For a while neither team was able to gain on the other, but each held its own. Finally, the Park School broke loose when Roane, center, threw four in rapid succession. The high school received about the same number, scattered among the whole team.

The field-goal throwing of Roane, T. P. S. center, and the foul-goal throwing of Captain Byrd for the highs were the spectacular features of the game. Neither were able to keep the ball out of the basket when they had their respective chances of shooting. For the high, Baer and Cobb did their usual good passing game, at the same time throwing three and two field goals, respectively. Bissett and Ormond for the Park did good work in passing the ball and shot five and three goals, respectively. Crute played his usual good game and pocketed three goals for counters in the first half. Primakoff and Crute were put out of the game in the second half on account of unnecessary roughness.

For Trinity Park School, this was the greatest victory of the whole year, although the score did not indicate it. This is the first game the Park School has won from the high school in its history. It has been the sole object of continuing practice since the influenza epidemic. The high school won in the first game of the season by a margin of one point, largely because the Park team did not have Bissett on guard and Crute was out of condition. This time the Park failed to throw foul goals because of the absence of "Jimie" Simpson, who was knocked out of the game in a trip taken in Eastern North Carolina.

Summary: Field goals—Roane 6, Bissett 5, Baer 3, Ormond 3, Spencer 3, Crute 3, Cobb 3, White 2, Byrd 2, Bullington 1. Foul goals, Byrd 8. "Chie" Doake, referee. W. B. Bolick, timekeeper. Starling and Young, scorers.

of students when consulted decided to postpone their appeal until just after the Easter holidays. At that time the work will be resumed, and it is thought by those in touch with the movement that there is every promise of success.

The large number of student volunteers at Trinity is an indication of the unusual missionary interest among students of the College.
