CAROLINA GAME

The most sensational game of baseball witnessed this year on the Hanes athletic field was played yesterday when the University of North Carolina defeated Trinity by the score of 1 to 0. It was a pitchers' battle between Carroll and Wilson, Wilson having a margin of 3 hits on Carroll. Although Carolina won the game, it lacked all of being the easiest victory the Tar Heels ever won. The Trinity boys fought grimly through the entire game, giving up the hard fight only when the last ball was thrown across the home plate.

Wilson, for Carolina, had the Trinity boys at his mercy. Allowing only two hits during the entire game, and these being made at a time when they were not most needed, he was completely master of the situation.

Carroll, for Trinity, as usual pitched a good game. He had the Carolina boys guessing during the entire fight, and although they succeeded in getting five hits off of him, every one added to Carolina's victory.

Carolina scored the winning run in the fifth inning, when Feimster hit to Chandler, who threw wild to first; Feimster went to second; Robbins doubled to left, scoring Feimster; Wilson singled to left and Robbins was thrown out at the home plate.

Trinity came very near scoring in the eighth, when Carver, batting for Chandler, walked; he went to second on a passed ball; Carroll sacrificed and Carver went to third; Barnhart hit to the pitcher; Carver undertook to go home, but was thrown out by Wilson.

The features for Trinity were: sensational stab of a long one in right field by Cole; triple by Neal in the seventh; and the pitching of Carroll.

For Carolina, the sensational catch of a foul ball made by Feimster; and the pitching of Wilson.

HONORABLE J. J. PARKER CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR MAKES CAMPAIGN ADDRESS

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE SPEAKS TO HIS DURHAM ADHERENTS MONDAY EVENING

"The state legislature will repeal the revaluation act before the Republicans have a chance at it next fall. If it does not, I shall be elected governor, and the first thing that I shall do will be to have the iniquitous act wiped off the statute books." In these words the republican candidate for governor, John J. Parker, of Monroe, speaking in the Craven Memorial hall last night under the auspices of the Parker Club attacked the recent revaluation act of the state. The speaker was introduced by the Hon. W. J. Bramham, of Durham, who fittingly repeated the words of the university professor, that "John J. Parker was the brightest man the university had ever sent forth."

The speaker, by this pleasing manner, captivated the audience of over three hundred who heard him. He declared for good schools and good roads in terms that swept the audience and denounced the league of nations as a moral obligation which its advocates would use to injure the name of the United States. He also stated himself as in favor of a woman suffrage, a state system of highways, and an immediate peace settlement.

FIRST TENNIS MEET OF THE SEASON WAS WON FROM ELON

Definite Arrangements for Other Games Will Be Made In the Near Future. Outlook Bright.

The Trinity College tennis team played the first inter-collegiate game of the season at Elon College Friday afternoon. Hackney lost a single to Holland, his Elon opponent, by only a very small margin. In the doubles Cornwell and Shinn were at their best and gave an excellent exhibition of skill and speed. Gray and Newman represented Elon in the doubles, and the visiting team was put to a real test against the strong local players. The scores are as follows: Holland vs. Hackney 6-2, 6-3; Shinn and Cornwell vs. Gray and Newman 6-4, 6-3; Shinn vs. Holland 6-4, 6-3.

Manager R. L. Thornton has not completely arranged the final tennis schedule, but arrangements for the games will be settled in the near future. There is no doubt that a number of interesting games will be played on the local court this season.

Misses Catherine Walker and Mary Lillian Sink, of Lexington, now students at G. C. W., were the guests of Miss Helen McCrary the past week end.

OVERALL CLUB FORMED HERE LAST WEDNESDAY

TRINITY COLLEGE CLUB FIRST TO BE ORGANIZED IN THIS PART OF SOUTH

DENIM AND CHAMBRAY POPULAR

Overalls and Bungalow Aprons Will Be Worn By the Students During the Remainder of the College Year

United in the belief that their measure would put into concrete application an effort to reduce the high cost of clothes, the entire student body of the college last Thursday agreed to wear overalls every day in the week, everywhere in Durham county, for the remainder of the school year. The movement, originated in other sections of the country, was presented locally by the law school and upon being represented by the law students won the approval of all the college classes. W. B. Unstead was elected president of the overall club, and Luther Ferrell and B. B. Jones, of the law school, with T. P. Thomas, J. W. Hathecock, and R. E. Thigpen, of the academic classes, were appointed as a steering committee for the organization. Letters have been sent to the other colleges of the state asking their support, and word has come from them favoring the movement.

The co-eds, under the direction of the Student Government Cabinet, took similar action and pledged themselves to dispense with spring "togger" and wear simple bungalow dresses. Pictures for circulation in the pictorial sections of national newspapers have been made of Trinity's "economy" organizations, and as the pioneers in the movement among the colleges, will be seen throughout the nation.

COLUMBIA HAS ITS REGULAR MEETING SATURDAY EVENING

Members Deliver Orations and Speeches On the Coming Missionary Campaign. Good Meeting

The Columbian Literary Society held its regular meeting Saturday evening. N. C. Teague and R. A. Parham delivered good orations on the general purpose of missions and the missionary spirit at Trinity College.

The regular debate was postponed, and the house was left open to a general discussion of the mission program. Several strong, enthusiastic speeches were made in favor of the program. Two members volunteered to bring out the negative points. The discussion was very interesting and there was a strong sentiment in favor of Trinity supporting at least one missionary in the foreign field.

This program, though it was a decided innovation in the regular routine of the society's work, proved to be a huge success, making a very interesting meeting.

V. M. I. WINS TRACK MEET BY SCORE 77-48

A SPLENDID SPORTING SPIRIT WAS EXHIBITED THROUGHOUT THE MEET

TWO NEW STATE RECORDS MADE

Trinity's Team Showed Up Well in the Races, But Lost In the Field and Weight Events. Excellent Meet

In the second track meet of the season, Trinity's team lost to that of Virginia Military Institute by the score of 77 to 48 on the Hanes field Saturday afternoon. The meet was one of the best ever seen on the local field, and several new records were made in various events.

The cadets were in fine form and Trinity can only attribute her decisive defeat to the fact that she met a team much superior to her own. A very fine sporting spirit was shown throughout the entire meet and all of the events were lively contested.

The two-mile run was the first event. Loftin, on whom Trinity depended for the victory, suffered an attack of appendicitis and fell out in a serious condition near the end of the race. An operation was performed on Loftin Monday morning at Wats hospital. Allen Trinity's other entry, and White, for the cadets, ran a fast race. White winning by a narrow margin after a fast sprint down the final stretch in the time of 10 minutes and 33 seconds.

Barnhart carried off the honors in the 100-yard dash in the time of 10 1-5 seconds. Edwards was a close second and Coetollo finished third.

PREACHERS DEFEAT LAWYERS IN SPIRITED GAME OF BALL

The Game Was Tied At the Beginning of Ninth Inning, and the Final Score Was 14 to 16

In a baseball game, rather slow, and filled with errors, the Ministerial Band won from the Law School last Friday afternoon, by the score of 14 to 16. The score was tied at the beginning of the ninth and Parham's snatching line drive to left field brought in the two men on bases, adding the two-point margin, which won the game.

Gwynn opened the game for the lawyers, but the heavy hitting preacher organization soon drove him off the mound. Unstead went in and finished the game, pitching very good ball in some periods of the game. Stott twirled the entire game for the ministerial players, and especially in the last few innings, his pitching was very effective as he allowed only two hits in the last four innings of the game. The two teams will meet again on Thursday this week and, as they are just about evenly matched, a lively contest is expected.

Dr. W. P. Few left Monday for New York City on a business trip for the college.

CO-ED NUMBER OF THE TRINITY ARCHIVE OUT

THE MARCH ISSUE CONTAINS A WIDE VARIETY OF SPLENDID ARTICLES

CO-ED ISSUE A VERY GOOD ONE

Three Interesting Short Stories and Several Excellent Poems. Well-written Article By Miss Bullard

We wish to congratulate the co-eds upon the excellent issue of the Archive, which they have given for the March or co-ed issue. It shows anew that neither interest, industry, nor intellect is lacking on that end of the campus.

Three very much above the ordinary short stories are found in this issue. "A Victorious Battle," by Adelaide Lyons, shows that a war story can still be handled in an interesting and entirely original way. "Dreams Come True," by Helen McCrary, makes a charming departure from the path of the commonplace. "How to Be Happy Though at College," by Margie White gives some timely suggestions as to solving this difficult problem.

He that hath ears to hear may well hear and heed "A Parable," an essay, by Vera Carr. We especially recommend this to the attention of the classes in English I. Ruth Merritt's "Congressional Business of 1950," vividly describes a dream which should cause even a congressman to wake up and look around.

Lucile Bullard's "History of Women in the Teaching Profession in the United States," is a well organized and instructive explanation of the when, why, and how of the subject.

The poems "Imagining" and "The Fugitive," by Mary Westcott, "Do You Stand Alone?" by Ruth Merritt, "When I Love You Best," by Jake Hazelwood, and "Written in Loving Sympathy of a Freshman," are all excellent examples of the better type of college verse and are a credit to the college as well as to the authors.

Jake Hazelwood's "Review of Tagore's Gitanjali," makes us desire a closer acquaintance with the author in question.

The editorials might be addressed respectively to the faculty and the students and they may well be heeded by both, for they touch upon live and timely questions.

Wayside Wares are always good, but those in this issue are the best we have yet seen. We commend to special notice "To the Library," and "Wanted: Knowledge."

The exchange is full of constructive criticism and merited praise of the periodicals of the neighboring classes.

On the whole this is the best issue of the Archive that we have seen for some time and we hope that it will continue to raise its already high standard.

EDITORIAL

Congratulations to the Profs. with overalls! Here's hoping that many more will soon fall in line.

Boys in denim—girls in chambray—now we can tell who is really good-looking.

The preachers evidently had the Lord on their side in the recent ball game.

Some of our affected college dudes remark that they feel so unnecessary in their overalls. All of us had as well be frank about the matter and admit that we feel quite natural for a very large portion of us are perfectly at home in them.

We all knew that Wesley Taylor couldn't edit an annual, but none knew that he was a daily newspaper editor. Yet it is true. Look at yesterday's Herald. The editorial column is his. Hats off to the splendid work of Taylor!

DENIM AND CHAMBRAY

Quite a decided innovation in the way of dress has made its appearance on the campus during the last few days, that of denim and chambray. The movement thus far has met with phenomenal success and with the proper student support the movement can be made to have a far-reaching effect. Practically every member of the resident student body is now wearing the official dress of denim or chambray and the college is to be complimented on the fact that it has perfected the first overall club in the state. All of the leading colleges of the state have now formed overall clubs and so far we have been able to learn our organization was the first to be worked out.

But all good movements tending to the betterment of human society have met with opposition and so has the overall movement. The merchants of the city have protested, saying that we as students are not appreciative of what they did for the college in the recent Southgate Memorial drive. Their position is an entirely erroneous one. The movement has not been fostered here with any desire to make it directly effect the Durham merchants. The overall club idea is not only in this college but it is in all colleges of this state and practically all of the United States. The students are not seeking to impair the business of the city merchants yet they are, on the other hand, fully appreciative of what these generous men have done for the institution recently.

And they have attacked us as "fadists." Even the Morning Herald agreed with this view and stated that the movement would be only temporary. To say the least we are not fadists, for no one would call wearing a pair of overalls two months a fad; it is rather more of a hardship. Civilian dress is much more comfortable and no one will deny that it looks very much better. We are wearing this cheap and inexpensive dress not for novelty or for pleasure; we are doing this for a principle, namely, that of helping in a logical and sensible way to combat the present day high cost of living. We are hoping in this way to influence public sentiment against profiting in this line and to render our country material aid by furthering an idea which cannot terminate without beneficial results if we give it the proper support.

This, then, is the criticism which has already been offered against the movement. The matter now lies squarely up to the student body. We have all pledged ourselves to wear our overalls until the last day of school and are thereby honor bound to carry this thing to a successful finish. The city papers have prophesied that "old h. c. l." would soon be enjoying a hearty laugh at our expense. If we do what we said that we would do, this hearty laugh will be reversed and our purpose will be accomplished. We fully appreciate the fact that the task is not altogether an easy one. We are all agreed that denim and chambray is not altogether as pleasant as serge and silk, but the principle for which we are striving is the main idea and we can afford to bear a little of hardship to successfully carry out this principle.

Thus far very few of the students have been seen not wearing the official dress since the installation of the scheme here. The Chronicle wishes to commend this spirit and to urge the students as a whole to stick to this plan until the very last day of school. Every student should feel it his duty to see that any man who does not have on denim has a very good reason. If we carry out this plan to a finish, the criticism of Durham will be turned into commendation and some good will certainly accrue as a result of our honest efforts. If we do not support the movement, we shall be the laughing stock of Durham and "fadists" in every sense of the word. The matter is left with the students and the exhortation of the Chronicle is "Remain loyal 'til June 10."—R. A. P.

MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN

The missionary campaign, which is now being carried on under the auspices of the delegates to the Des Moines conference, is a very worthy movement and one that is wholly unknown to the student body. Trinity College has not been taking any part whatever in this great work in the past, and it is a progressive and far-reaching step which this committee has instigated to forward this valuable phase of college activity.

It is a discreditable, yet very true fact that Trinity College, the leading Methodist institution of the entire south, has not done anything in the last ten years for foreign missions. If the college is to maintain any longer its reputation of being a Christian school, we must support this drive for $1,000 to be used in a missionary special. Other colleges are doing their part in this work. Davidson gives $800 annually to foreign missions with a student body much smaller than ours. Georgia School of Technology, not even supposed to be a religious school, gives $1,000 to missions annually, and many other colleges in this and other states are doing their part in this work. The students of Trinity College now have the opportunity placed before them to put this college on the map in this important work and we feel fully confident that they will give this movement the same support which they accorded the championship basketball team and which they are now giving the various other college activities.

The comparatively small sum of $1,000 which is being asked for this year means that each student will have to pay as much as two dollars. This meagre sum will work a hardship on no one in the college community, for most of us can save this much by staying away from town for a week. The whole question, if considered in this light, seems very easy, but the movement will not be a success without the support of the entire student body. It already has the support of the faculty, of all the leading student organizations, and of a large number of the more prominent students. Give it your support and help make for Trinity College a name that will compare favorably with that of any college not only in this state but in the entire south.—R. A. P.

CAROLINA, STATE COLLEGE, AND DURHAM "BULLS," GIVE TRINITY DECISIVE DEFEATS

A. and E. GAME

In what may be called a pitchers' battle between Caviness and Murray, the State College defeated Trinity College by the score of 4 to 2. Murray had the advantage over Caviness by the margin of one hit and much better support.

A. and E. led the scoring in the first inning, when Gurley crossed the home plate. In the second inning, Carson and Johnson scored two runs, putting the Methodists in the lead until the sixth inning, when Kirkpatrick hit a safe one to short; Wood was thrown out at first; Sipe safe to first; Chandler fumbled the ball hit by Norwood; and Kirkpatrick scored. Sipe also scored in this inning. Another run was scored by the Teeds in the seventh. Not after the third did Murray allow the visitors to reach the scoring point.

Although Murray allowed six hits to Caviness seven, Trinity added to the innability to hit Murray properly, some very costly errors, which were largely responsible for the loss of the game.

DURHAM "BULL" GAME

Monday afternoon at the East Durham ball park, the Durham leaguers defeated Trinity College by the score of 5 to 1. The league players won the game, although they were out-hit by the Methodists, who landed 10 safe swats against their 5. The score would have been closer had not Carson made a wild throw in the fifth. There were three men on the war-path when Carson made this wild heave over Salmon's head at first, and two of these professionals scored as a result. Another man scored in the same inning on an error.

"Chick" Doak, coach for the Trinity team, worked on the mound, doing very creditable pitching, allowing no hits until the fifth inning. He walked six men, however, and was partly responsible for the full bases in the fifth inning.

Trinity scored its only run in the fifth inning when Doak doubled. He was sacrificed to third and scored on Salmon's single.

Durham scored twice in the fourth inning. Barnes walked, was sacrificed to second, and scored when Smith tripled. Smith error.

WILLIAM AND MARY

A rally in the last inning won the game for William and Mary with the score two to one in their favor. The game was played at Williamsburg on April 14 and was the last game played by Trinity on her northern trip.

William and Mary began the scoring in the third inning when a single, an error, and another single enabled them to bring in a home counter.

Trinity tied the score in the first of the ninth when Parrish muffed Salmon's two-base fly. Salmon reached third on a fielder's choice and scored on an error.

Virginia's winning run was scored when Allen was hit by a pitched ball in the ninth and was scored by a brace of singles.

V. M. I. WINS TRACK

MEET BY SCORE OF 78 TO 48

Carr carried off the 120-high hurdles for V. M. I. in 16 1-5 seconds, Harrison, E. T., for Trinity winning a close second.

Lewis for Trinity established a new state record for the 880-yard run in the remarkable time of 2 minutes and 1 second. The cadets carried off both second and third places easily.

Powell set a record for Trinity by running the mile in 4 minutes and 41 seconds. This race, although won by fifty yards, was a very fact, and exciting one.

V. M. I. took first place in the 220-yard dash when Smith ran it for them in 23 and 1-5 seconds. Barnhart and Moore, J. H., of Trinity, took respectively second and third places.

Bude carried off first place for V. M. I. in the 440-yard dash in the time of 55 seconds. Thigpen, for Trinity, was a close second, while Edwards took third.

V. M. I. won both first and third places in the 220-yard hurdles, when Dixon took first in 27 2-5 seconds and Jordan third. Harrison, J. H., obtained second place.

Trinity suffered her greatest losses in the field and weight events, capturing only one first place in the six events. Mantor, for V. M. I., hurled the discus 110 feet 3 inches, followed by Van Schelling, of V. M. I., and Moore, T. F., of Trinity, in order.

Seeman took the high jump for V. M. I. at 5 feet and 8 inches with McGranahan, of Trinity, and Brown, of V. M. I., tied for second place.

Barrett won the only first place Trinity obtained in the field events, when he put the shot a distance of 33 feet and 8 inches. Mantor and Van Schelling, of V. M. I., obtained, respectively, second and third places.

Seeman carried off the pole vault at 10 feet with McGranahan a close second.

The javelin throw went to Mantor, of V. M. I., at 146 feet and 9 inches, his team-mate, Waters, capturing second place. Jeffries obtained third place for Trinity.

Seeman captured his third first place for V. M. I. when he won the broad jump at 20 feet and 6 inches. Brown, of V. M. I., was second and Jeffries, of Trinity, third.

Seeman obtained more points than any other man, capturing three first places, or 15 points. Mantor was second with 10 points. Several new men showed up well for Trinity, notably Allen, on the two-mile, and Barrett on the shot-put. The loss of the meet was no discouragement to the team, for it was realized that the V. M. I. team is one of the best in the South.

DIES AT HOME IN VIRGINIA

The college community and their friends throughout the state will sympathize with Dr. and Mrs. Few in the death of Mrs. Few's father, Mr. L. S. Thomas, which occurred last Monday at his home in Martinsville, Va. Mr. Thomas was a prominent lawyer and newspaper man, and for years a leader in his section of the state. Mr. Thomas was a great friend of Trinity College, having sent three of his children here for graduation.

Sometimes

We love to touch the human side of folks. After all money making is not all there is in business, leastwise not with

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

THE MAN behind the dollar interests us.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

wants the public to consider it as a MAN MAKER, as well as a MONEY MAKER. Every bank owes the other fellow something. There is but 100 cents in a Dollar, but there is the word of encouragement, the human touch that will help lift the burden. Many a poor fellow is hungry for a word of sympathy, "the hello, hooray Bill, we are betting on you" spirit that makes a MAN MAKER as well as a MONEY MAKER.

Dan Henderson interpreted the thoughts and plans of

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

When he sang:

Weave for the world the flag of man!
Finish the fabric our sires began!
Out of our lives shall the thread be spun!
Out of our veins shall the color run!
Out of our deed shall rise its lustre!
Out of our dreams its stars shall cluster!
Wide as the heavens spin the span
Of freedom's fabric—the flag of man!

HATS OFF!
