TRINITY TAKES GAME FROM DAVIDSON NINE

DAVIDSON AHEAD UNTIL LUCKY 7th, WHEN TRINITY RALLIED AND WON THE GAME

BROWN PITCHES WINNING BALL

Striking Out Eleven Men and Allowing Only Seven Hits, Brown Defeated His Opponent in Pitchers' Battle

Trinity came back in old time form on last Friday afternoon and won one of the most interesting games seen on Hanes field this year by the score of four to three. The locals knew before the game that they were up against a hard proposition when they tackled Davidson, for the Presbyterians had a fine record for games against the other colleges of the state. They knew it would be no walk-over for either team, and they were not disappointed. The outcome of the game was in doubt until the very last. In fact, Davidson almost rallied sufficiently during her half of the ninth to tie up the score and carry the game in extra innings. The rally failed to materialize sufficiently well to prove serious; and so Trinity left the field one run to the good.

The game started out as a pitcher's duel between Brown, Trinity's southpaw standby and Miley, a right-handed curve tosser from Davidson. For three innings the batters went out in one, two, three, order, either from strike-outs, or from easy infield assists. Brown secured the lead on his opponent, however, although Davidson managed to score first. The port-side allowed seven hits and struck out eleven men, while the Davidson tosser allowed eight hits and only struck out four men. Neither pitcher had much advantage at any stage of the game, but the breaks seemed to favor Brown.

Trinity and Davidson both managed to secure one hit each in the first frame of the contest, but as they were not followed up, the runners died on bases. The second inning went by with three men up, three men down for both teams, as did the third when Brown unworked all he had and struck out three in a row. Davidson opened up in the fourth, and three hits coupled with a couple of errors by the Trinity aggregation allowed them to score two runs. A third run was narrowly averted by a close play at the plate by Carson. Trinity managed to cut down the lead in the fourth by scoring once on singles by Neal and Cole. Davidson received a goose-egg for her half of the frame. Davidson came back in the fifth and put another run across, while Trinity was unable to duplicate her feat of the previous inning. With this run the scoring on the part of Davidson stopped, but just at this point the situation looked desperate for the locals. The lucky seventh did not fail us though. Salmon, the first man to bat, lined out a three bagger to deep right. Hathaway followed

Glee Club Takes Extended Trip to Eastern Carolina

The Trinity College Glee Club, orchestra, and mandolin club left Tuesday for a week's engagement in eastern North Carolina. This is the third trip the Glee Club has made this year, and it is certain that the success it has won on all of its former appearances will continue. An extended trip, covering points in Virginia, had been planned, but due to various uncontrollable circumstances these dates had to be cancelled. A new program including recent song hits and an act of up-to-date grand opera will be given on this trip, and it is probable that a return appearance at Craven Memorial hall will be given within the next few weeks.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO HOLD MEETING THURSDAY

Topics of Interest to be Discussed by Dr. Bassett and Baron Korff in Meeting

Under the auspices of the Trinity College Historical Society, Dr. John Spencer Bassett, professor of history at Smith College and secretary to the National Historical Association, will deliver a lecture Thursday night at eight o'clock on "The Office of the President of the United States." Dr. Bassett, who was formerly head of the department of history at Trinity College, ranks among the foremost historians of this country, and a large crowd is expected to hear his lecture on this timely subject.

On Tuesday night Baron Korff, a Russian nobleman and former professor of constitutional law at the University of Helsingfors, will lecture under the auspices of the Historical society on "Bolshevism and the Russian Revolution." Baron Korff was a member of the revolutionary party which overthrew the Czar, and for a time was assistant governor of Finland under the Lvoir-Kerensky regime. He is sent to Trinity by the Institute of International Education with which the Historical Society is affiliated.

Members of Faculty at Inauguration of Dr. Chase

Trinity College will be represented by Dr. W. H. Wannamaker at the inauguration of Dr. Chase at the state university Wednesday. Other schools will be represented by the following: Dr. W. H. Glasson, Cornell; Dr. F. C. Brown, Chicago; Dr. Gates, Johns-Hopkins, and Dr. W. K. Boyd, who will represent the American Historical Association.

Dr. Few and Professor Flowers are in Nashville, attending a meeting of the Educational Committee of the Methodist Church.

Professor C. W. Edwards has returned from Washington City where he attended a meeting of

INTERESTING PROGRAM HELD

Various Speeches Made By Students and Members of the Faculty in the Meeting Wednesday Night

The missionary campaign which lasted about a week was begun here last Wednesday evening when an elaborate program was given before a mass meeting of the students in the Y. M. C. A. hall. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Greater Trinity Club and M. A. Braswell, the president of this splendid organization, presided over the meeting. Braswell in making the opening speech stated that the campaign had the whole-hearted support of the organization which he represented. He then introduced Miss Estelle Warlick and Mr. Eugene Chesson who delivered short speeches on the Davidson convention.

Prof. R. L. Flowers, of the department of mathematics was the next speaker, having no definite subject but speaking on the general subject of missions. Professor Flowers spoke in part as follows "I fear that the best results of the war will soon be lost, for the moral enthusiasm of

REGULAR MEETINGS HELD BY LITERARY SOCIETIES

Regular Programs, Including Debates And Orations Were Rendered By Each Society

At the recent meeting of the Hesperian Literary Society T. P. Thomas delivered a good oration on "Round Pegs and Square Holes, and C. H. Woodard spoke interestingly on "Tick of the Clock, Witch of the Watch, and Tale, Tale of Time." Extempore speeches were made by T. A. Banks, C. C. Holt, D. T. Millar, and R. T. Dunstan. Following this a good debate was held on the query Resolved, That Trinity College is not doing its duty to the Student Volunteer Movement. The affirmative, represented by H. J. Herring, T. A. Morse, and Mike Bradshaw, defeated the negative supported by W. F. Murphy, Leo Brady, and Isawo Tonaka.

A well prepared program was given in the Columbian Literary Society Saturday evening. J. T. Carpenter spoke on "The Triend of Industrialism," H. W. Carter read a paper on "The Need for Better Education," and C. W. Bundy spoke on "Campus Wit." An unusually interesting discussion was held on the query, Resolved, That school teachers should become organized and affiliate themselves with labor unions. R. D. Ware and W. Q. Grigg, favoring the query won a unanimous decision over H. K. Elmore and B. I. Satterfield.

Impromptu speeches were then made by G. G. Adams and R. L. Johnson.

Trinity Debating Team to Meet Emory Univ. Friday

The second inter-collegiate debate of this year will take place next Friday evening in Atlanta, where the Trinity team, composed of H. E. Fisher, N. M. West, and G. D. Harmon, will measure forensic ability with the representatives of Emory University. The proposition for discussion is, Resolved, That legislation should be enacted providing for compulsory arbitration of disputes between the employers and the employees of public-service corporations. All of these men have had previous experience in public debating, and it is expected that they will find no serious difficulty in taking their way to a decision favorable to the affirmative.

DR. PEGRAM LECTURES TO STUDENTS TUESDAY NIGHT

Gave Interesting Lecture on Einstein's Relativity Theory Under Auspices of Physics Club

The college community was given the opportunity on Tuesday night of hearing Dr. George B. Pegram, dean of the faculties of applied science of Columbia University, who gave a very interesting lecture on Einstein's Relativity Theory. Dr. Pegram is an alumnus of Trinity, and is the son of Dr. W. H. Pegram, head of the chemistry department now.

The speaker traced the development of all physical theories from that of Capernicus and Galileo, Newton's theories of gravitation, the ether theory, down to the present development of the Relativity Theory. The theory reconciles the forces of matter, electrically, light, mechanics, and gravitation, into one group by the supposition that there exists an imaginary quantity, a fourth dimension, a dimension in time rather than in space, as are the other three.

Dr. Pegram stated that the theory may not endure, that something better may supersede it, but at present it seems to be the best ever advanced and is being gradually accepted as true.

Lawyers Defeat Preachers in Game of Baseball

The lawyers administered a rather smarting defeat to the preachers last Thursday afternoon in the second ball game of their series. The game was won by the score of 13 to 3. There were few sensational and spectacular features about the game which was rather one-sided from start to finish.

Unstead pitched a steady game for the lawyers, while Stott also pitched very good ball for the ministerial aggregation but he did not receive much support. The game was replete with errors and no one individual player of either team can be mentioned as a particular star of the game.

TRINITY SPLITS EVEN IN TWO TRACK MEETS

DEFEATS WAKE FOREST TEAM

In Interesting Meet Held Here Trinity Downs Wake Forest by Narrow Margin

WAKE FOREST MEET
A score of 72 to 56, in favor of Trinity, was the result of the track meet between Trinity and Wake Forest which was held on the Hanes field Wednesday, April 21. Although no records were broken, the meet was close and interesting throughout and neither college was certain of victory until the final event.

Heckman, of Wake Forest, was the highest individual scorer since he took first place in four events and third place in a fourth. His score was 21. Cole and Barnhardt shared this honor for Trinity, as both took two first places. Powell, of Trinity, did stellar work by winning the mile and taking the second place in the two mile, although he had not trained for the latter event.

Heckman won first place in the hundred-yard dash for Wake Forest although he was crowded close by Barnhardt, of Trinity, who won second honor. The time of the hundred was ten and two-fifths seconds. Edwards took the third place in this event.

Powell, for Trinity, ran the mile in four minutes and 57 seconds and Cooper took the third place. The second place went to Hall, of Wake Forest. Heckman carried off the honors in the high hurdles by running them in 19 seconds. Hall secured second place although he was hard pushed by Harrison who took the third. Dave Lewis, for Trinity, walked away with the first place with the 880-yard in two minutes and eight seconds and Cline won the third. Penner, for the Baptists, won the second place. In the 220-yard run Heckman again won a first place with a time of 236 seconds. Hall came in second and Barnhardt third. Barrett won the first place in the 440-yard dash for Trinity in 55 seconds. Spivey took the second place and Thigpen won the other point. The two mile run was a much feared event for Trinity since Loftin, Trinity's star in the event, was laid up with appendicitis. Allen ran well and took the first place with a time of 11 minutes and four and six-tenths seconds. Powell did a good piece of running and took the second place although he had already won the mile. Carlyle, of Wake Forest, came in for the third place. Heckman's fourth first place was won when he ran the 220-yard low hurdles in 31 seconds. Hall took the second place and Harrison took the third. Moss, of Wake Forest, won the first place when he put the shot 35 feet. Barrett took the second and Armstrong the third place. Henry Cole, of Trinity, took

EDITORIAL

The preachers evidently had the devil on their side in the ball game last Thursday.

The 18th Constitutional amendment, to the contrary notwithstanding, Trinity students are frank and above board in giving evidence of their possession of an enormous amount of spirit.

OBLIGATION

Great things are being planned for the future of Trinity College. With the donation of funds by the friends of the college for the purpose of erecting a woman's building, the way has been opened into the future. The Alumni of the college see the responsibility of the future of the institution, and they realize that this is an opportune time for all to think and to think seriously in regard to what can be done for our alma mater.

At a recent meeting of the Alumni Association, composed of the alumni of the state, a definite campaign was launched to complete the campaign for funds for the erection of the proposed new gymnasium which is to be built within the near future in honor of the men who gave their lives in the past great war. The question of a new gymnasium, which has seemingly been a doubtful undertaking in the minds of some students, promises to be no longer a dream but a living reality and one which is to be realized within the near future. Proof of this lies in the fact that plans for this magnificent building have been drawn, a large sum of money has already been pledged, and plans for the laying of the foundation of the building this summer have been made. A definite date for the securing of the remainder of the subscriptions has been set. The alumni are organizing themselves throughout the state, and an attempt is being made for the closing up of this work within the first two weeks of May. A secretary of the association was elected at this meeting. Prof. B. W. Barnard was elected to fill this position, and the work of the entire campaign will be under his supervision. A secretary for the association has been a need of long standing. The lack of a secretary has perhaps been the main reason why this work has made little progress in the past. This secretary will advance the interests of the college through the alumni. He will keep in touch with the high schools of the state; he will keep in touch with the men going out from the college each year, and will have charge of the collection and the handling all of the finances of the association. Therefore, it is evident that the alumni of the state are extremely interested in the welfare and future of the institution. Men, who have interests of their own which command their attention, are working day and night for the betterment of our college. They are putting forth every effort to make Trinity College a greater Trinity.

The CHRONICLE wishes to impress on the minds of the students of the institution that, while the alumni of the college are making these plans for the betterment and the advancement of our beloved college, there is a work which we as students can do. There is no doubt that the present sophomore class will have the privilege of enjoying the conveniences of the new gymnasium; therefore, when we see that our dreams of the past are coming true, we should feel it incumbent upon us to lend our support now as we have never done before, not only with the money which we can subscribe, but by boosting the project during the coming vacation. Trinity College alumni are scattered all over the state. Some of them have accumulated wealth, and just a boosting word from a student sometime during the summer months may bring wonderful results. Furthermore, it is natural that the prestige of the present body will to a large degree determine the future of the college. The greatest force which can be brought to bear in forming the public opinion of the college and its worth is not what it has been in the past but what it is at the present time. What it is at the present time must be determined by the present student body and its attitude toward the institution as seen by those interested in the college. The total reflection of the real merits of the college must be found in the present students, for it is through them that the college is judged by those interested in the college. If Trinity is to become a greater Trinity, if the standard of the institution is to be raised to a higher level, if we as students are to enjoy those things which go to make a greater Trinity, it remains for us to show that we are worthy. Each and every student of Trinity College has a desire to see the institution the greatest in the south, and by conforming individually and collectively to the standards which have been established, our hopes will be realized.—C. H. M.

COLLEGE SPIRIT

In a mass meeting held Monday night, April 19, in Craven Memorial hall, an attempt was made to stir up spirit for the Carolina game. A majority of the students participated in this meeting, and as a result, there was more "pep" on the campus afterwards than there is spring fever at the present time. (This, however, is a big statement to make, but it is gratifying to know that it is nevertheless true.) On the evening of the game with Carolina, the students, as directed, took the places assigned for them on the farther bleachers; and although the team played a losing game, at no time was there evidence of lack of "pep" on the part of the Trinity students. At no time during the entire game did quiet reign among this band of ardent supporters, who were not willing to cease the uproar until the last ball was thrown across the plate and Carolina had won the game. During the Davidson game Friday afternoon, the enthusiasm did not run high at the first of the game, but later on when things were beginning to look dark for Trinity, pandemonium reigned in the bleachers, and had it not been for the excellent support of the students during the latter part of the game, it is very likely that it would have been lost. The only criticism to offer is that the spirit did not run very high at the beginning of the game.

The CHRONICLE wishes to commend the students for the splendid support which they have given the baseball team in the games which have been played here this season, while at the same time the CHRONICLE does not wish to leave the impression that is now time for this enthusiasm to die. It is to be remembered that the season is not over and that our hardest games are yet to be played. It is by no means that Trinity has won the state championship; although our chances are equally as good as those of Carolina, Wake Forest, and the State College, but in order for the team to be successful in defeating the above mentioned colleges, the same old support from the students is necessary, absolutely necessary. As has been said so many times in these mass meetings, the team cannot win unless it has the enthusiastic support of the students. This being the case, there can be only one solution, and that is for every man to put his whole support behind the old team and win the state championship.—C. H. M.

CORRECTION

In last week's issue of the CHRONICLE the following misleading sentence appeared due to a printer's typographical error, "We all knew that Wesley Taylor couldn't edit an annual." The sentence should have been, "We all knew that Wesley Taylor could edit an annual."

MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN CONDUCTED ON CAMPUS

the war seems to be a thing of the past with the American people. A nation-wide missionary movement would help to conserve the benefits of the war for any one who participates in a great movement of this kind cannot but receive a great benefit from it."

Dr. W. T. Laprade, of the department of history, spoke on the subject "The Missionary Spirit." The speaker showed that the greatest single failure of this age is that of letting the opportunity of Christian service slip by us. We all should be profoundly interested not only in ourselves but in all our brothers.
Peace will never reign in the world until the world is Christianized. Dr. Laprade urged the students to give their money,
their prayers, and their whole-hearted support to this movement.

Prof. H. E. Spence, head of the Biblical department, delivered a very humorous address, the main argument of which was to this campaign and also support the overall movement, give until it hurts and then some. He very forcibly impressed on the students the fact that since they could not go to the foreign fields
they should be willing and glad to help send those who can go
and who are now ready to go.
Professor Spence's subject was
"What I Think of the Overall

Movement," and he showed in a very convincing manner that it was a very economical and commendable scheme and not a fad.
Mixed in with his plea for overall support, he added quite a few remarks about the missionary spirit of Trinity College which were very timely and instructive.

W. B. Umstead, head of the Trinity College Overall Club
made a short speech urging all the members of the club to wear their official regalia all of the time and to wear it with as much dignity as possible. He especially urged the students not to think that since they were wearing cheap and inexpensive clothing that they could fall into the style of dress that usually accompanies denim and cham-bray. He asked all the students to wear their overalls and bungalow aprons just as they would a stylish fifth avenue suit of a Paris dress.

H. K. King, chairman of the missionary committee, then presented to the students gathered in this mass meeting the plans of raising $1,000.

Very enjoyable music was rendered by the Trinity College Apron Club during the course of the evening. Miss Pete Carter, of the Southern Conservatory of Music, rendered a very fine vocal selection.

first place in the high jump. He jumped five feet five inches. The other places went to McGranahan and Penner. Moore, of Trinity, threw the discus 108.55 feet which won for him the first place. The second place went to Geddy, of Wake Forest, and the third place to Jeffries, of Trinity.

Although McGranahan had often vaulted over ten feet, he was unable to make his pole stick to the ground Wednesday; so the first place went to Mills, of Wake Forest, with a vault of only eight feet and six inches. McGranahan, Grey, and Newton all tied for the other places. The javelin throw was unique in that all places were won by Trinity men. Moore threw the javelin 135 feet and won the first place. Armstrong won the second place and Jeffries won the third.

Cole, of Trinity, won the final event, the broad jump. He jumped twenty feet and three inches. Gray, of Trinity, won the second place and Heckman, of Wake Forest won the third.

STATE COLLEGE MEET

Trinity was defeated by a narrow margin in the track meet which was held with State College in Raleigh, Saturday, April 24. The final score was 60 1-2 to 35 1-2 in favor of the State College. The defeat was probably due to the hardness of the track, since the meet was held on the fair grounds and the races were run on the hard clay track. Trinity took five first places and tied for the high jump.

The 100-yard dash went to the State College man, Roberson, with a time of ten and three-fifths seconds. The first place in the half mile event went to Craft, whose time was two minutes and six seconds. Lewis and Cline, of Trinity won the second and third places. Lawrence, of State College won the high hurdles in 19 3-5 seconds while the second place went to Ernest, of State College. Harrison, of Trinity, won the third place. Sometimes

We love to touch the human side of folks. After all money making is not all there is in business, leantwise not with

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

THE MAN behind the dollar interests us.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

wants the public to consider it as a MAN MAKER, as well as a MONEY MAKER. Every bank owes the other fellow something. There is but 100 cents in a Dollar, but there is the word of encouragement, the human touch that will help lift the burden. Many a poor fellow is hungry for a word of sympathy, "the hello, hooray Bill, we are betting on you" spirit that makes a MAN MAKER as well as a MONEY MAKER.

Dan Henderson interpreted the thoughts and plans of

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

When he sang:

Weave for the world the flag of man!

Finish the fabric our sires began!

Out of our lives shall the thread be spun!

Out of our veins shall the color run!

Out of our deed shall rise its lustre!

Out of our dreams its stars shall cluster!

Wide as the heavens spin the span

Of freedom's fabric—the flag of man!

HATS OFF!
