

Blue Devils Have Lost Only Two Games Out of the Eleven Played in Championship Race This Year

LENOIR AND CAROLINA ONLY STATE TEAMS WHO HAVE BEEN LUCKY

TEAM IS HAVING A GOOD TRIP

Blue Devils Seem to Be Leaving Trial of Fire Behind Them as They Sweep On In Southern Trip

Thus far the Blue Devil bachelors have made a good record. They have lost only two collegiate games and have won eleven. The season started with a rush, and the first four games were rung up as victories for Coach Jones' Blue Devils. The first defeat of the season came on the following day when the Lenoir game got the best of a 2-1 battle. Dempster and Moore pitched alright ball and though the home crowd was expected to fly by the Lenoir crew, the breakage gave Lenoir the game. Moore, besides his pitching, scored the winning run by a vital home. Brown hit three times out of four trips to the plate.

In the next two games the Methodists came back, and Dempster pitching alright ball kept the Wolf Pack from scoring back to back carrying with them a 7 to 4 defeat. The Baptists were then taken on for a second round, and the Game of One Field. The Wolf Pack after the Deacon Demos were dispatched to the time of 2 to 5.

The second defeat of the year came at the hands of Carolina during the Easter holidays. The game was a real big league style. Bryson allowed four hits while Hoodoo gave up but three. The majority of the innings were three up and three down. The only score of the game came in the fourth when Coffey singled, Morris walked, and then Dodder singled giving Morris a chance to score from second. Trinity threatened to tie the score in the ninth, but the rally fell short and the game went to their rivals. The pitching of both men featured the game.

The first game of the Southern trip resulted in a 10 to 4 victory over Wake Forest College for the Methodists. Dempster was ally with his wife, his team mates banged out enough to chalk up the large score.

The third game on the trip was with S. C. Peeding. The pill was administered. The Trinity boys deposed the Game Cocks by a score of 10 to 4. The weather was a big ally which perhaps accounts for the errors of S. C. Peeding. The game was snared by both teams, 14 by Trinity 10 by S. C. Johnson went good behind the bat. Base stealing was the style and extra bases seemed to be a fact with the boys. Turner made a double play unassisted.

The Auburn also fell before Dempster's looks on Monday by a score of 4-2. This made four games in succession for the invading Blue Devils.

Below is the total of the Blue Devil collegiate games so far:

- Trinity 13, Elon 2
- Trinity 8, Guilford 0
- Trinity 3, Wake Forest 2
- Trinity 3, Davidson 6
- Trinity 1, Lenoir 2
- Trinity 7, N. C. State 1
- Trinity 8, Wake Forest 5
- Trinity 0, Carolina 1
- Trinity 10, Wake Forest 2
- Trinity 5, P. C. 4
- Trinity 10, University of S. C. 4
- Trinity 4, Auburn 2

W. R. Brown Makes Short Talk at Vesper Service

In the failure of the regular speaker to appear at the Vesper Service the president W. R. Brown made an excellent extempore address. After the usual song service he recounted a few of his experiences while at the recent meeting of the Student Volunteers, and then gave a short discussion of the Beatitudes. The entire chapter from the Bible was read slowly in order that the listeners might appreciate better the true meaning of them, and a short exhortation was made in an appeal for the students to try harder to live up to the teachings.

"Love is a gross exaggeration of indifference between one person and all the rest."—Shaw.

COUNTY COMMENCEMENT WAS LIKE CIRCUS DAY

COUNTY LASSES AND THE OLD MAID TEACHERS WERE THE MAIN FEATURES

FRESHMEN TAKE HOLIDAY

Campus Wiggles with Hundred of School Children Last Friday at the Annual Commencement

Last Friday the campus had the appearance of a big circus day in the old town. There were no classes, no students, no teachers, and no school. There were plenty of monkeys and zebras, for of course the Freshmen and the grads were here. But the bulk of the camp was not the result of a circus, for the Durham county public school children would not have turned out in such large numbers merely for a circus—especially to see a prosaic menagerie composed of college animals and crows. It was Durham county commencement day, the end of the small school year's term, and the breaking of the spell of "copper love" among the swains and the country lass.

The swains and the lasses, however, made good use of the last day before their separation for the vacation. Hand in hand, with lunch baskets on their arms they began to appear on the campus at the time the early birds got out of bed to catch the choice worm. Prof. going to their classes mistook many of these for the small school children. The day was beautiful and sunny, the new green grass beneath the shady trees was inviting, the ice cream was delicious, and what was more it is the vacation time. The day was beautiful and sunny, the new green grass beneath the shady trees was inviting, the ice cream was delicious, and what was more it is the vacation time.

Even the students of the college, attracted by the feminine creatures chirping beneath their desks, occasionally a good-looking old maid school teacher who did not mind handsome college men enjoying looking at her beauty, and then of course the students who have cars on campus enjoyed the occasion. For they had an admiring audience when they raced through the campus at sixty miles an hour.

There was a sigh of regret that the visitors left the campus, and the college students sighed too, for they enjoyed the event as much as their guests—in spite of the refusal of the parents to give "cents" in honor of the occasion, and the numerous looks of Dean Hunt when he saw the grass suffering from the trampling of many feet.

Prof. Hall's Name is Omitted by a Mistake

In last week's edition of the Chronicle the name of Professor William Roland Hall was unintentionally omitted from the list of the alumni members elected this spring to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity. Prof. Hall, who is a member of the Trinity faculty, of the class of '09, is a B. C. E. of the University of Michigan.

COLLEGE IN SORROW OVER THE UNTIMELY DEATH OF JOE RUFF

BELOVED TRINITY MAN DIES AT JOHNS HOPKINS AFTER SERIOUS ILLNESS

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD

Durham Men Pay Tribute to Memory of one of the Most Esteemed Members of College Community

Saturday afternoon the college community and the entire City of Durham was saddened by the news of the death of Joe H. Ruff, Instructor in Law and Graduate Manager of Athletics at Trinity, and an active practitioner of the Durham bar. Mr. Ruff was carried to the local hospital about two weeks ago for an operation for appendicitis. He stood the operation well, but blood infection took hold of his entire system, and he was rushed to Johns Hopkins as a last resort to save his life. From the first little hope was held out by the specialists, but during the last few days encouraging news had been received from Baltimore. However, the disease was too serious, and he died late Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Ruff was born in Tupelo, Miss., October 24, 1882. He attended Belknap College for Boys in Tennessee, and eventually, Representative from the outbreak of the law he volunteered, and after a long service in France, he returned to Durham bringing with him a medal for distinguished service.

Mr. Ruff was chosen as his successor last year, and it was largely through his efforts that athletic activities of Trinity have reached such a high level.

The body was shipped Sunday morning from Baltimore to Tupelo where the funeral and interment took place. Dr. Gibson, who was a former teacher of Mr. Ruff and who at the time of Mr. Ruff's death was in Washington on his substantial holiday, went to Baltimore immediately, Representative from Trinity will attend the funeral services, together with representatives from the local bar of which Mr. Ruff was one of the most esteemed members.

Deveraux Players Are To Come to the College

The Clifford Deveraux Company, famous players who played for several years will present two comedies, "The Barber of Seville," and the "Mummy's Burial." On the woodland stage at Trinity College, Dr. W. C. Weeks of New York who has not reserved their tickets are requested to do so at once at the college office.

Musical Clubs of College Plan to Take Another Trip

Plans are being made by the manager of the Musical Club to take weekend trips to nearby towns commencing immediately after the inter-collegiate contest, which takes place May 1. In the meantime extra time is being devoted to practice in the college orchestra. There will be the highest school teachers for them at these meetings. Prof. W. T. Wright of North Carolina State College, Dr. W. C. Weeks of New York, and Mr. E. E. The Chemical Section of the Association will be represented by Prof. Halsey of N. C. State who is president of the latter meeting.

Student is Working on A Comprehensive Novel

An English 2 student, under Dr. Baum, is working on a novel in which he intends to introduce every main character who has appeared in his English 2 book this spring. He says that this novel will be a very comprehensive work and will require much effort. In this novel the plotline idea will be combined with the situation prevalent during the time of Richard Coeur de Lion. Just what to do with Robinson Crusoe has been a source of much speculation by the young writer. He recalls, however, that Crusoe was at one time worried as to what he should do with himself, and he feels that this problem will be worked out even as the other.

Annual May Day Festival to Begin Wednesday Night at Gym

"Come, My Corinna, Come let's go to a Maying!" This was the plea of a swain of old, however since the festival of the Trinity College will usher in May with fitting ceremony, no one will need to be urged to go to a Maying, and only the opportunity will be necessary in order to call every student of the college, from backroom to Orpheum board, from his task to the Annie May Garden at five o'clock on Thursday evening.

The May festivities will begin on Wednesday night in the Memorial Gymnasium. The regular carnival will be held at that time. Untold attractions await those who enter into the spirit of the occasion. Booths of every description, games, music, food, side shows, and etc., will all be on hand. Judging from past festivities this will be one of the gala days of the college year, and those in charge of the program declare that the event for the present year will exceed former occasions. Elizabeth Kramer will be crowned Queen of the May, Eva Bennett performing the rite. The attendants will include Mary Glen Lloyd, Beale Hayes, Elizabeth Hixson, Ann Haldridge, Elizabeth Albridge, Lucy Taylor, Mabel Wescott, Mary Edwards, Kitty Stubbs, Ida Munn, Elizabeth Showalter, and Lillian Thompson. The traditional May Pole Dance, interpretative and solo dances will form the entertainment for the queen. The dark green background of the wood hand stage will form a most effective setting for the picturesque ceremony. After the departure of the gay troupe, the garden in front of East Duke Building will be open.

N. C. Academy of Science to Meet at Trinity Next Friday

23RD ANNUAL SESSION WILL BEGIN FRIDAY AND WILL LAST THROUGH SATURDAY

PROMINENT MEN TO ATTEND

Meetings Will Be Held in West Duke and All Students Are Invited to Hear Valuable Discussions

Next Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock the twenty-third annual meeting of the North Carolina Academy of Science will be held at Trinity College and the meetings will continue until Saturday at noon. All meetings will be held in Room 21 of West Duke Building and all students are invited to attend. Prof. Charles N. Heck is president of the Academy, and Prof. Cunningham of Trinity College is Secretary, and these officers will preside at the meetings.

A feature of the meeting will be a dinner given to the Society Friday evening at the college cafeteria. President Wright will deliver the opening address, and Dr. Fee will give the address of welcome to the visiting scientists. Following this address there will be a meeting of the Faculty Club to the visitors. Saturday morning the Allied Associations will meet in separate sections for their own discussions of interest. The following sections compose the North Carolina Association: North Carolina Section of Chemical Society, North Carolina Physics Teachers Association, and the North Carolina Section of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

The special features of these meetings will be a talk by ex-president Venning of the "Human Movement," Dr. W. D. Davidson College will give a non-technical discussion of relativity. There will be also an interesting discussion of the "Weekend of New York on Engineering." Dr. W. C. Weeks will represent the Carnegie Foundation and will speak under the auspices of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education.

All of the leading instrument manufacturers of the United States have sent their products and physical equipment to be used in the demonstrations in the lectures carried out by the Physics Teachers Association. There will probably be many of the high school teachers from the State of North Carolina, and there will be something especially noteworthy for them at these meetings. Prof. W. T. Wright of North Carolina State College, Dr. W. C. Weeks of New York, and Mr. E. E. The Chemical Section of the Association will be represented by Prof. Halsey of N. C. State who is president of the latter meeting.

SPENCERIAN PLAYERS GO TO SANFORD AND TO DUNN

Large Audiences Have Witnessed the Remarkable Dramatization of Story by Trinity Professor

The Spencerian Players under the direction of Prof. R. E. Spence, of the Department of religious education, returned to the college last Tuesday night after a short trip to Dunn and Sanford. The dramatization of Robert H. Story, "Where Roads Cross Again," was presented to large audiences at both places, and plans are being made to present the play at Wilson next Sunday. The trip was made in "Miss Carolina," one of the large white buses which runs between Raleigh and Durham.

Those who can, do; those who cannot, teach.

AN INTER-COLLEGIATE GLEE CLUB'S CONTEST AT TRINITY THURSDAY

PRACTICALLY EVERY COLLEGE IN THE STATE WILL BE REPRESENTED

SILVER CUP TO BE AWARDED

Many of the Durham Associations Are Active Workers in Getting the New Plan Adopted

The first annual Inter-Collegiate Glee Club Contest will be held in Craven Memorial Hall tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock. The glee clubs of Trinity, Wake Forest, Carolina and Guilford will be represented in this contest. A program of the clubs will probably be as follows: Music by the Trinity students, "Song, On the Sea," by glee clubs in toto. These two features will not be judged. The contest will then begin. Each glee club will sing "Great Is to Do With Zeal." A quartet from each club will be allowed ten minutes for selections. Another ten minutes will be allotted to each club for special stunts. These three events will be judged, and a silver cup will be awarded to the winner in each of the three classes.

The contest is a most interesting one of inter-collegiate glee clubs and is a new feature of the college year. The plan is to have a sum of $100.00 for the winner of the contest. The plan is to have a sum of $100.00 for the winner of the contest. The plan is to have a sum of $100.00 for the winner of the contest.

LAW STUDENTS WILL GIVE ANOTHER BIG MOCK TRIAL

Miss Virginia Gibbons Sues Westbrook on the Grounds of Malicious Defamation

The Sigma Nu Phi Legal Fraternity will hold its second mock trial of the year in the Columbia Library Society hall on Friday evening May 2nd at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Virginia Gibbons is bringing out against Mr. John Westbrook for the sum of $100.00. Miss Gibbons alleges in her complaint that the defendant promised to marry her and that he broke his promise without justification thereby exposing her to public ridicule and humiliation. The counsel for the plaintiff is composed as follows: Whitaker, Gill, Messersmith, and Jordan. A member of the Durham bar will preside and the jury will be selected from the audience. For the defense, Messersmith will be introduced. The public is cordially invited to attend this trial which promises to be even more entertaining than the last.

HIGH SCHOOL ISSUE OF THE CHRONICLE WAS A SUCCESS

Fifteen Hundred Have Witnessed the View of Interesting Graduates in Coming to Trinity

Following out the plan advocated by the college for getting in closer touch with the high school activities, Trinity College last week was devoted to a High School Issue. The paper contained every phase of college activities, and all of the articles were written in a way that would appeal to the high school graduate. Over fifteen hundred of these copies were mailed to all the high schools of the State, and the plan will in all probability have much influence upon the decision of the graduates of these schools when they decide upon their future college.

Every department of the college was represented in the issue, and the various athletic team records and the facilities for carrying on all college work was fully explained. The high school students, interested of interest to the college student, for there were many on the campus who had never realized how big Trinity College really had become. The issue was a marked success, and it will serve as a splendid introduction of Trinity College to the high school graduate. The plan will probably be followed from now on, for the college is making every effort to obtain the thoughtful consideration of the high school pupils.

"Very few things matter and nothing matters very much."

PARAGRAPHS

First call for the Faculty-Senior game!

The senior comes resemble the flowers of Biblical reference; they flourished for a season and then disappeared.

A generous sport editor of the State observed that Howard Jones must be a mighty good football coach, but no more of his dry wit has been forthcoming since the recent Carolina-Leanor game.

Although the Trinity-Wake Forest game did not settle the State Championship, it did settle the national question as to whether the devil is more to be feared than the demon.

The Easter holidays serve one good purpose in that they allow each student ample time to present his ability in person to the fond parents before the final examinations begin.

The coming commencement brought its due to the Freshmen, but it is a pity that it had to happen on the hottest day of the spring when the swimmers were deluged from the cooling waters of the pool. Let us hope that such a conflict will be avoided next year.

It is rumored that the spring composition classes have signed up one hundred per cent for tickets to the Devereaux play, but that's not the majority would rather see the Orphan and day. Practically every man in college has been guilty of the same tactics before.

The epidemic of backyard golf is sweeping the campus again, and this harmless recreation could be greatly facilitated if Dean Hunt would provide flights at convenient places so that students could occupy their leisure hours of the night in this muscular devouring exercise.

HALF MAST

On Monday the American flag was at half mast just in front of Craven Memorial hall as a last token of respect for a loyal son of Trinity who died in John Hopkins hospital last Saturday afternoon and a small circle of friends and relatives. The man for whom the flag was lowered was Joe H. Ruff, '17, lawyer, professor of law, and graduate manager of athletics at this institution.

His death, though reports of recovery were frequent, was not altogether unexpected. But, as the departure of all friends does, it came as a shock to the college community. Trinity mourns for yet departed son, but also mourns more for those few intimate loved ones he leaves behind. For theirs is the grief, the tears, and the anguish. And it is they who need a comforter.

Mr. Ruff was in the prime of manhood, at the very threshold of success in his profession, when ill health put a stop to his work and forced him to his bed from which he never arose. Though still in his early thirties, he had a record of achievements not only in academic work at Trinity but also on the foreign battle field, where he received the cross de guerre for distinctive bravery.

And so there is little that we can say that might add to the signal honor which has been bestowed upon him by the College; that is the lowering of the American flag. We extend our sympathy to those he left behind and hold our heads in honor of a true son of Trinity who devoted himself to her welfare.—J. D. S.

THE ASSOCIATE EDITOR

The present issue ends the trials of the associate editor, and while some students of the campus may have more interest in the competition that mere life in the university, and while there may be others who feel relieved that the series of amateur performances are over, surely there are some more interested to believe that the associate editor themselves. The aspirants to the position of editor-in-chief of the next year's Chronicle are human just as the others are, and probably their enthusiasm has been tried about as much as it could be. For the whole year they have listened indifferently to the pleadings of the editor to get the copy in on time, and just as indifferently they have written careless heads at the last minute, but they understand it all now. The series of competitive issues is finished, the paper takes back into its regular course, and the rest is left to the Chronicle Board, but the associate editor feels as if they are walking on air, they have got a slight taste of what it all means, and they are mildly surprised at their actual feelings. The final choice of the Board will determine who continues the work next year, and while each associate editor from their heart hopes that he will receive the mantle on his shoulders, at the same time his experience with the preliminary issues has formed in his mind a something which he will be eliminated. As a final word let us say, Hello to the Associate Editor, may his peace be undisturbed.

THE DEVEREAUX PLAYERS

The Devereaux players are coming to Trinity again and are bringing with them two of the best plays that will be seen in the State this year. The older students who have seen this group of players in action know what it is to be forthcoming, and the new men should not lose the opportunity to see the presentations of these famous dramatists who have a well-known reputation. To say the least, a treat it is sure for the Trinity students, and those who fail to attend these plays will wish one of the most enjoyable seasons of the year.

The Devereaux players have made several trips to Trinity before, but the price of some of the past productions has been higher than the more conservative man felt able to pay. This year everything is changed. The price has been lowered until it amounts to no more than is charged for the average moving picture show, and certainly the plays that will be presented so far outclass the motion picture that a comparison would be ridiculous.

The success of the actors last year was gratifying, and the attendance was the best it had ever been, but the indifference this year is even greater. The officials in charge have done everything possible to bring these plays within the reach of the entire community, and they have succeeded admirably for they are now offering to the college a nationally famous group of players presenting plays that are equally famous at a price that seems unreasonably low. They stand at his chance, the price is comparatively small, and there will be something mutually wrong with the man who feels indifferent to such an opportunity.

THE NEW MOVEMENT

While there are rumors and counter-rumors of the future greatness of Trinity College, there are also plain evidences that something is being done now to bring the influence of the College into a position where it will be felt and respected throughout the State. The Alumni Association, aided and encouraged by the authorities of the college, have begun an active campaign to reach every high school graduate of North Carolina with the purpose of bringing these students to one of the outstanding educational institutions of the South. The High School Dedication Contest given under the auspices of the 90th Society has fostered this plan for some time, and now similar ones are being formulated.

This scheme of reaching prospective students really originated at Trinity, and since it has been adopted in a more elaborate form by the other colleges of the State, but Trinity is now planning to make the full use of her own idea. The High School Basketball Tournament, the Dedication Contest, and other ideas not yet matured are being seriously considered as the most useful method of advertisement of the advantages offered by Trinity.

The work should go forward. The other colleges of the State are having gratifying success with the same plan, and they are broadcasting lists of high school activities as fast as possible. Trinity has lagged somewhat in the past years, and it will be a hard matter to bring these things to the College, but according to indications the new policy will be such that results will inevitably follow. A high school graduate who once on the actual working plan of the College and wanders across a campus that has a state-wide reputation for its beauty will think twice before he gives a final negative reply. The new movement has wonderful possibilities, and it will be a great force in the preparation of high material for the greater Trinity.

HESPERIAN RECEPTION WAS OCCASION OF GREAT JOYS

Music, Program, and a Good Time Were Features of Great Affair Saturday Night

Last Saturday evening the annual reception given by the Hesperian Literary Society was enjoyed by an approximate number of guests. The society hall was the scene of the good time. It was decorated to resemble an Oriental Garden in the evening. This effect was accomplished by Oriental lanterns, vines, and flowers of various kinds. The main room was filled with delighted guests, while others were in the balcony, which represented an outdoor tea room. It was not, however, merely in the setting that the Reception featured. A short, but nevertheless interesting program was rendered. D. S. Johnson, the President of the society, welcomed the guests. Professor H. H. Holton made a short talk on society work in a general way. The Mandarin Club entertained for a little while with enjoyable music. During the latter part of the evening the Piedmont Strutters, a local orchestra made music, which was one of the most outstanding features of the evening. The guests were served with salad, ice, and ice cream by a number of Coeds dressed as Chinese girls.

Representatives from Columbia, the two Women's Societies, and a number of others were the guests. The evening was enjoyed by all, and the last letter retired from the hall about 11:30.

Another dog had been added to the Trinity collection. If some energetic student would get to work and train a dozen or more of the most intelligent dogs, he might have a dog show that would be a feature of the coming carnival.

CAMPUS CHATTER

A fortnight has passed since last Ye Old Editor favored the readers of the Chronicle with the latest talk in the world of gossip. For this lapse he has been accused in indolence, carelessness, and poverty of gossip; but the truth lies in some of these accusations. The first was lost through the negligence of the associate editor, while the latter was left on account of lack of space in the high school edition last week.

So much has come to light during these two weeks that Ye Old Editor hardly knows where to begin his gossip-ridden tirade for they are now offering to the college a nationally famous group of players presenting plays that are equally famous at a price that seems unreasonably low. They stand at his chance, the price is comparatively small, and there will be something mutually wrong with the man who feels indifferent to such an opportunity.

But no gossip is choice unless it is timely. So away with what is so far behind. Now one of the most recent social events on the campus was the Hesperian reception. For me, it was a composition reception, to say the least. There were the Chinese lanterns, the semi-oriental waitresses, the Yellow Jacket chorus between the Property and the Wren Takers, the American jazz orchestra, the Venetian moonlight effect, and the Trinity dumb bells.

Some one asked Ye Old Editor the other night what happened when six of them and a half dozen of the other

SIX PUBLICATIONS OF THE COLLEGE DEAL WITH EVERY INTEREST OF THE STUDENT

The Students Have Three Publications in Charge—Three Others Are Edited by Faculty

There are six publications issued by Trinity College organizations, each appearing at different times and each covering a different field. Among the first stands the South Atlantic Quarterly, which has no official connection with the College, but was established by the 90th society following an agitation for such a publication among the Trinity graduates. The paper is now owned by an incorporated company, and much of its support and contributions come from the active faculty of the College. It is edited by Drs. W. K. Boyd and W. H. Wanzanmaker.

The Trinity College Historical Society also issues two publications. The Annual Publication of Historical Papers is an annual collection of papers contributed by the members and other interested documents. The Society also issues a series of books, The John Lawson Monographs, three volumes of these books having been issued since 1910.

The Archive is a monthly publication of the Senior class. Its contributions are papers and various types of compositions of the students. The Editor and business manager are elected each year by the rising seniors from among themselves, and the other members of the staff are appointed by the editor. The editors this year are H. C. Oliver, Editor-in-chief; R. H. James and Margaret Frank, associate editors; and W. J. Bullock, business manager.

The Trinity Alumni Register is a monthly publication of the alumni association with the purpose of keeping the alumni of the College in touch with each other and with the happenings of the College. The present staff is composed of Richard E. Thayer, Editor; Basil Aremell, '17, associate managing editor; Holland Holton, '07, Hersey E. Spence, '07, J. B. Warren, '08, S. A. Alderman, '13, L. J. Jaffe, '11; Mrs. Kenneth M. Brim, '20, associate editors, and a managing board consisting of W. K. Boyd, '07, M. A. Briggs, '09, Willis Smith, '10, and A. E. Tilgner, '22.

The Chronicle is the college newspaper published every Wednesday of the school year by the Columbian and Herperian Literary Societies. The present staff consists of James D. Secret, Editor-in-chief; Arthur W. Shinn, Managing Editor; David T. House, Business Manager; and William G. Bradshaw, Joseph G. Whitman, and Franklin H. Allen, Associate Editors.

The Chancellor is the student annual of the College and it is edited each year by a specially selected staff of students who have had previous experience while in college. This publication is among the most important of the year, and it serves as a record of the college events of the year by means of pictures, poems, and sketches which cover all phases of college life. The staff is composed of George V. Allen, editor-in-chief; and John H. Tyler, business manager.

"Life is a damned middle—a foot ball game with every one offside and the referee getting rid of—every one claiming that the referee would have been on his side."—P. S. Fitzgerald.

got together. But he thought the question insane and consequently ignored the snore that asked it.

The social spotlight just now seems to be turned on the May Day festival and incidentally the May Queen. Ye Old Editor can scarcely refrain from quoting from the well known poem on the American army officer who went to bed drunk and left word with his orderly to call him early, for he was to be queen of the May. But his conscience constrains him.

Then, too, Ye Old Editor recalls the May Pole dance of the festival of last year. But even that brings tears to his eyes. He understands, however, that the girls responsible for the tangle last year are not here now. Praise the gods!

Ye Old Editor recommends that the Student Council incorporate in its constitution an ordinance against these dreaded bugs that infest a lighted room on a warm night. These pests could be exterminated without fear of political disaster.

people of Durham were present. Rev. Dr. Seaton of the First Presbyterian Church of Durham made the opening prayer, and he was followed by Dr. Wain, who gave a short summary of the life of Mr. Buff and explained the purpose of the service. Dr. Few made a short address in which he recounted the incidents of interest while Mr. Buff was in school at Trinity and various other characteristics that he held up as examples for the students.

Belmont of the Durham bar was present, and he made a brief eulogy of the life of Mr. Buff while he was engaged in the practice of law in Durham. Prof. Flowers ended the program with an appealing message to the students to follow the ideals of such a man, and he brought out many incidents of the college life and later life of Mr. Buff to prove what a high and purposeful life had been led. The Trinity quartet rendered one selection at the beginning of the service, and following Dr. Few's talk Miss Rosa Warren of Durham sang the beautiful solo, "One Sweetly Solenn Thought."

RICHMOND OUTSTRIPS BLUE DEVIL RUNNERS

VIRGINIANS ARE WINNERS BY THE LARGEST SCORE OF THE SEASON

SEVERAL RECORDS ARE BROKEN
Trinity Team Showed Up Well But Were Against the Fastest Team They Have Met This Year

Smashing five Trinity records, tying one and monopolizing on first place, the Richmond University track team overhauled the local trackmen Saturday in their annual meet with a score of 113 to 34. The Trinity lads took only two first places, tying for a third, and in each case the winners of these places broke a Trinity record.

The following Trinity records were broken or tied: 220 yard dash tied by Richmond; 220 low hurdles broke by Richmond; 440 broke by Richmond by 2 seconds; half mile broke by Richmond by 5 seconds; two mile broke by Richmond by 12 seconds; 120 high hurdles broke by Richmond by 3.5 seconds; discus broke by Trinity by 3 feet; javelin broke by Trinity by 4 feet; high jump broke by Trinity by 3.2 inch. In the two mile and the 220 low hurdles Mabry and Lusknetter bettered the Trinity records, but since they were not winners of the events their time will not be registered on a new Trinity record.

From the other side the meet may look bad for the Methodists, however a glance at the time and records will show that the team has improved much since last season, and only the dazzling speed and the all-around balanced team of the Virginians was responsible for the defeat. Goode was high scorer for Richmond with 15 points to his credit. Decker and Thayer tied for second by adding 11 points each.

Huckabee added three feet to the former discus record, Jones heaved the javelin for four additional feet, and Harprow added one-half inch to the high jump.

TRINITY NETMEN SUFFER BAD DEFEAT WITH V. M. I.

The Two Teams Split on Singles But the Trinity Men Are Showed Under as the Doubles Started

The Trinity netletchers proved to be no match for the fast playing aggregation from V. P. I. on last Tuesday afternoon. Winning both sets of doubles and dividing four sets of singles with Trinity, V. P. I. won by the count of 100 to 40. Captain Johnson and James were the winning players on the Trinity team.

The singles were split between the two teams. Burns lost to Finks of V. P. I. by the score, 3-6, 7-9. Marr also lost to Finks of V. P. I. 1-6, 6-3, 2-6. Captain Johnson won from Rogers of V. P. I. by the counts 7-5, 6-8, 6-3, while James won from Jones 7-5, 6-4. In the doubles Trinity was completely smothered. Burns and Johnson of V. P. I. by the score of 6-0, 2-6. In the other doubles Whitman and Marr of Trinity were the losers to Buck and Gayle of V. P. I. 1-6, 2-6.

EL CENTRO ESPANOL IS NAME OF SPANISH CLUB

Club Organized Monday Night Under the Direction of Professor Steinhauer

At a meeting of the advanced students of the Spanish classes last Monday night under the direction of Prof. Steinhauer a new club was organized. The club is composed of only those students who have completed at least three semesters of Spanish, and the purpose of the new organization is to foster a more intensive study of the Spanish language. The name of the new club was decided to be El Centro Espanol. The following officers were elected for the next term: John Ramsey, President; Elizabeth Ashbridge, Secretary; and Elizabeth Johnson, Vice-President. The other members of the new club are: L. E. Rock, Annie McSwain, J. E. Goode, E. L. Cannon, J. R. Abernathy and O. F. Trullinger.

Nine to Kiss a Miss, But to Miss Held Finable

Arthur Johnson, Jr., of North Chicago, who was caught kissing a Lake Forest girl in Lake Bluff, was arraigned before Magistrate John D. Doyle in Waukegan recently on a charge of disorderly conduct. Said the court:

"Now, a kiss, which is like a man and a miss, is nothing amiss in restraint in Lake Bluff. Now, had he kissed her so hard as to blister, or tried to and missed her, there'd be grounds for complaint of rough stuff. 'Tis the law on the books for a girl or her folks that some could resist her or fail to resist her by even so much as a kiss. So had he not kissed her I'd fine this young rascal, but the charge in this case I dismiss."

Interesting Debate is A Feature of Columbia

Columbians are firm in their belief that our civilization is not in a decadent state, and that present indications do not point to a decay in the future. Last Saturday evening the query, "Resolved that present indications point to a decay in our civilization similar to that experienced by the former civilizations of Greece and Rome," was debated. Lucy Thompson and Lane contended that such indications were apparent, but W. A. Abrams and N. P. Edens successfully refuted these contentions and won by a 26 to 5 vote.

As secretary, by J. R. Abernathy, which he urged the need of a reception building to which young men might take their mothers, sisters and sweethearts during commencement and other such occasions, was made to say the least. R. M. Stafford was the second orator of the evening. The program was rather short on account of the Hesperian reception in which the officers of the society were invited.

Youth is like having a big plate of candy. Sentimentalists think they want to be in the pure, simple state they were in before they ate the candy. They don't. They just want to have the fun of eating it all over again.

Most of us don't want to repeat our innocence. We merely want the fun of being again.

RED DEVILS LOSE GAME TO DAVIDSON BY ERRORS

Freshmen Show Best Form of Season But Careless Fielding Cost Them the Game

Lady Luck was still unfavorable to the Trinity Red Devils Tuesday afternoon when they met the Davidson titans on Hanes Field and were defeated by a score of 6 to 2. The game was slow and characterized by errors on both sides, however both of the pitchers did good work. Thomas for Trinity was a little wild at the opening, but he warmed up and had it not been for poor fielding in the inner circle, he might have won the game. Hampton for the Wildcats pitched a good game, and his left twist proved effective against the Red Devils bats.

All around the freshmen played one of the best games of the season. Greene, second base, made several unusual stops from his position. The hitting also was good, however, the Davidson out-hit the Davidsonians although they lost the game, nine hits being rung up by the Red Devils to the eight of the titans. The Freshmen really played as good a game as the visitors, but they lost the game by careless fielding and wild throws when they should have been sure.

This far in the season the Freshmen have won two games and have lost three out of the five played. Carolina and State freshmen proved too much for the Freshmen, but they made a beginning of a comeback by defeating the Methodist Orphanage of Raleigh and the Hills Wonders who hailed from Greensboro. Two more hard games come next on the schedule. Carolina and State Freshmen come in for another game before the season ends. Both of these two teams have won the first round, but the Red Devils seem to be getting their stride now, and in all probability the next fight will be a great deal stiffer than the first was.

CLASS OFFICERS WERE ELECTED ON SATURDAY

ONLY TWO MEN ARE CHOSEN
WHILE NOMINEES FAIL TO GET A MAJORITY

FARRISS FROM SENIOR CLASS

Second Elections Will Be Held Next
Time at Regular Class Meetings to Decide Upon Others

Last Saturday class elections were held at the different class meetings to select representatives of the classes on the Student Council for the year 1924-25. Due to the fact that the classes were unable to reach majorities on the men nominated there were only two members elected to the council on that day. J. J. Farriss was elected as one of the representatives from the Rising Senior class by a slight majority over John Dempster, W. R. Brown, H. A. Crest, and W. G. Bradshaw. Crest was eliminated from the running in the vote on Saturday while the class will elect its other member for the Council at its meeting next Saturday from John Dempster, W. R. Brown and W. G. Bradshaw.

No one of the men nominated as representatives from the rising Junior class received a majority. George T. Leach receiving 22 votes, W. P. Craven, 50 votes, and W. S. Blakesley, 50 votes. J. P. Frank, L. S. Laprade, Tom Aldridge and C. S. Rowland were eliminated. In a meeting of this class held after chapel Monday G. T. Leach and W. P. Craven were elected members of the Council for the ensuing year.

First Jones, of the rising Sophomore class, was elected to serve his class as representative as a member of the Student Council over Thomas Leach and J. T. Gobbel.

Track Season Will End With Three More Trips

Only three meets remain on the schedule of the trackmen. The team is now undergoing hard training for the state meet which will be held in Raleigh on May 1. The coach, though not expecting to win the championship, believes that several of the men will show up well against the other teams of the state.

The week following the state meet the team will take a short jaunt into Virginia and will clash with William and Mary College on May 8. Following this meet members of the team will be entered in the South Atlantic meet which will be held in Richmond on May 10.

The list of men who are to make the trip to Raleigh and Virginia has not yet been given out, but the majority of the men who have been running close in the recent meets will doubtless compose the squad.

Paper on Greek Music is a Feature of Classical Club

A very interesting program was rendered at the regular meeting of the Classical Club last Monday night in West Duke Building when W. A. Kale discussed the origin and methods of the Greek Music. The Greek Music was traced as far as the Greeks carried it and the various musical notations and the differences of the Greek music from that of the modern time was shown.

Lantern slides were used to illustrate the lecture, and selections that were of a similar instructive nature were played upon the phonograph. The feature of the program was the playing of the hymn to Apollo, which was discovered at Delphi in 1895. The ancient song is supposed to have been written as early as 275 B. C. After the regular business session, the meeting was adjourned until the next meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

"The Love of money is the root of all evil." The Irish add that we'd all like to have the tree growing in our garden.

Co-Ed News

There is no institution at Trinity to which the young women point with more pride than the Young Woman's Student Government Association. It was established seven years ago, and although it has never served merely in the capacity of a policeman, its first function was practically nothing more than to regulate the hours and conduct of the young women who lived in the dormitory. Steady and consistent growth, however, have changed it into an organization whose membership includes each woman matriculate of the college, and whose purposes are wholly constructive.

The association tries to set standards rather than to make rules. In other words the council governs primarily by appealing to the better instincts of the young women rather than by enforcing rules, a policy which has been a marked success. Furthermore the association at Trinity seems to be unique in that the girls report themselves for any violation of the few rules, simply as a matter of course, rather than waiting for someone to report them or letting the infringement pass unnoticed.

The establishment of the honor system in co-operation with the men's association is the most recent achievement of the organization. The introduction of this system presupposes the existence of a high concept of honor, however, in the face of that, the association is doing everything within its power to keep the standard or honor maintained above par.

The work of the Young Woman's Christian Association is also very commendable. The cabinet is, of course, composed principally of committees, each of which concentrates its attention upon a particular branch of service. The social service which the association has done is especially worthy of comment, as many of the poor folk have been given invaluable aid. The social committee gives parties and arranges other social functions in order to make life at South-east more pleasant.

It is interesting to note that the membership of the Y. W. C. A. is almost as large as that of the Student Government Association. A most desirable feature of its work is that efforts are made to place each member of the Association on the committee with which she prefers to work.

"When a stupid man is doing something he is ashamed of, he always declares that it is his duty."

Q—"Who did you open my letters?"
