The Chronicle to Print Articles By Dr. Soper

During the time that Campus News began its weekly operation, it was decided to introduce new features to the student body. One of these features is an article by Dr. Soper, who will be writing a monthly column for the newspaper.

Dr. Soper is a well-known figure on campus, and his articles are always interesting and informative. He has a unique perspective on the world, and his insights are always thought-provoking. His articles will cover a wide range of topics, from politics to philosophy, and everything in between.

The Chronicle welcomes Dr. Soper to its ranks, and we look forward to reading his articles every month. His insights will help us better understand the world around us, and we are sure that his articles will be a valuable addition to our publication.

Construction Work

Work is being done by Company of Philadelphia—River Rock Company. The construction site is located on the north side of the college campus, directly across from the football stadium.

The construction work is expected to continue for the next seventeen months, with a total of four million dollars being spent on the project. The work will include the construction of new dormitories, classrooms, and administrative buildings.

The company is working closely with the college administration to ensure that the construction work is done in a timely and efficient manner. The company has a team of experienced contractors who are skilled in the construction of educational buildings.

The construction work is expected to create a total of 1400 jobs for local residents, with the majority of the jobs going to skilled tradespeople. The company is committed to hiring local residents and ensuring that the work is done in a safe and responsible manner.

The construction work is expected to be completed in eighteen months, with the new buildings scheduled to open for the fall semester of the next academic year. The college administration is excited about the new buildings and the new opportunities they will bring for the students.

We wonder when colleges are going to begin giving the freshmen in the New Freshman courses that will prepare him for his particular type of work. He will not be able to make his second class choice of work until he has had a chance to study his first year's work. The better he knows himself, the better he can make this choice. The best college students are those whose ideas and aspirations are most in agreement with the work they are doing. The best college students are those who have been given the opportunity to develop their individuality.

Secondly, we feel that the New Freshman courses should be a part of the regular college curriculum and not an experiment. The New Freshman courses should be a part of the regular college curriculum and should be taught by regular college faculty members.

Thirdly, we feel that the New Freshman courses should be given every year. The New Freshman courses should be given every year and not just once. The New Freshman courses should be given every year so that all students can take advantage of them.

Fourthly, we feel that the New Freshman courses should be given to all students. The New Freshman courses should be given to all students, not just to the freshmen. The New Freshman courses should be given to all students so that all students can benefit from them.

Fifthly, we feel that the New Freshman courses should be given in all colleges and universities. The New Freshman courses should be given in all colleges and universities, not just in certain colleges and universities. OLD MEN ARE BACK IN FIELD
Those Who Have Been Watching the Duke Team Will Notice How It Has Improved in a Few Weeks.

PRACTICE DAILY
The probable line-up for the backfield is Jurgig, tackles; Bennett and Kelly, ends. Jenson and Culp, guards; Thompson and McInnis, in the start. Pickens, center; Mclnillis-iVsiiiilc power. While it is a little too early to be dogmatic about the strength of the 1924 Champions, it is fairly certain as to the line-up that will be used against the Quakers, it is fairly certain that these gaps will be closed and that the Blue Devils Should Beat Guilford By Good Margin.

HARRIS'S POETRY WINS RECOGNITION

Editor Harry E. Hart has Predicted a Magazine to be the History of College Journalism.

The October number of the Arch, the student weekly published in the School of Journalism, will appear in the early part of the month. It will be a better edition than any previous one of the magazine, according to Mr. Hart, who is the originator of the project.

The new edition of the Arch will be a semi-weekly publication, with a circulation of 1,500 copies. The magazine will consist of articles on current events, literary criticism, and reviews of books. The editors will be Mr. Hart and his assistants, who will be chosen from among the students of the School of Journalism.

In addition to his work on the Arch, Mr. Hart is also the editor of the Carolinian, the student newspaper of the School of Journalism. He has been a member of the faculty of the School since 1922.

The Arch will be available in the Student Union, the Duke Bookstore, and other university buildings. It will be sold for a nominal fee of 5 cents per copy.

The first issue of the Arch will be published on October 5th.
RAIN COMES TO AID IN OPENING COLLEGE

Under Durham's long drought has been feeling just what those University towns feel when opened on a schedule fine. A downpour of rain finally came, and when we blew our first smoke the next morning there was a beautiful sight. The water had covered the empty streets of the city. The rain had covered the dust and made the streets as pleasant to walk on as they were to drive on. The streets were clean and the sidewalks were dry.
