TRAINING SCHOOLS DRAW DUKE PROFS.

 are two recitation periods a night.
 Professor Spence taught at Burlington every night last week and met all of his little classes here by driving to and from Burlington for each service.
 Other professors have done similar double-time duty, but most of them leave the campus and devote their entire time for a week to their Sunday School teachings.

The Duke professors engaged in this work are by no means confined to the Bible Department, as will be seen from the following list of professors serving as teachers in the schools: Professors
 Branson, Cannon, Childs, Cranford, Holman, Proctor, Soper, Spence, Ormond, and Wilcox.

SALEM HISTORY CLUB HEARS DR. W. K. BOYD

 have a historical mind, and a sense of proportion.

Dr. Boyd discussed the legislation affecting the Loyalists in regard to their personal status, their property rights, and debts owed them. Those who never acknowledged allegiance to the Americans were imprisoned and fined, and the Tories, those who fought with the British in spite of their acknowledged allegiance to the Americans, were often put to death and their property seized. There were often very severe laws for the confiscation of property belonging to English subjects. There were certain limits, however, especially in Virginia where debts were not confiscated.

 North Carolina was more radical than Virginia in the seizure of Loyalist property. South Carolina, whose policy was guided by the population of the low country, was at first lenient. However, in 1780, after a British invasion, polities passed to up-country leaders, and laws of confiscation were adopted.
 Throughout the Southern states the Loyalists were treated disgracefully, sometimes being moved to different parts of the state, and always being suppressed by legislation and in the courts.
 Dr. Boyd said that no satisfactory conclusion could be stated in this problem, which assumed such importance in the national and international affairs during and for many years following the Revolution. This war seems to have been with a much property issue as a struggle for independence. The Southern planters had become in debt to British creditors, and by shaking off the yoke of England they not only got rid of their debts, but also obtained more property.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Dr. Boyd for his valuable and enlightening talk on the subject of vital importance in American history.

DUKE GLEE CLUB HEARD BY CROWD

accompaniment were beautiful, as "Waiting for the Sunrise," for example, can be. The audience seemed not to get enough of Frank Warner, and with results was good.

Not that the choral unit, the male quartet, the classical orchestra and the rest did not come in for their share of applause. They all had theirs, too. The choral unit under the direction of Prof.
 W. P. Twaddell was particularly pleasing in its last number, William Ernest Henley's stirring "Invictus" set to still more noble music. Nor will the wartles "A Basin" be quickly forgotten.
 Hobbs and Hatcher's black face acts though a little shorter than usual, was also good.

The utterly impossible Craven that stage formed a better background for the performers, even than did the more commodious stage at the high school.
 The careful use of a few lights and the white chalk drop made a splendid setting for the men in their evening attire. Even the classical orchestra never more than adequate appeared to good advantage on the stage.

Only comparison of former Duke glee clubs need be made to see the high standards for the better taken by the present one. In fact, it is no wonder that the indefatigable business managers, W.
 J. Hobbs, claims that the 1925-26 Model Club have been pronounced by critics of the western part of the state "to be one of the best if not the best glee club in the state."

It is interesting to note that two of the glee club songs, the "Song of the Vikings" and "On the Sea," were so victoriously masculine and so filled with the roll of the sea. "Invictus" also had that quality.

Another game lost, and with it all hopes for a chance at the state honors for this season.

Twice in succession the mighty Sorrell has held the Blue Devils scoreless, while both times his team-mates were hitting three Duke pitchers all over the field.

There can hardly be much doubt that the Deacon Deacons will win the championship this year. The only opposition they will meet is liable to be the Carolina bunch and that should not be so hard.

And then beat this Wake Forest team—with Sorrell pitching—but what good does it do to say that we beat them? The game yesterday was a farce indeed. They could hardly be called errors—just say plain "bone-headedness" on the part of some of Duke players. There was only about one run on the club who seemed to keep his "head up" and we must not forget that Saunders got two hits.

It is indeed hard to support what "Hip" Martin said in his speech at the Varsity Club banquet Saturday night about students standing behind their teams.

But never fear "better days are coming" wait and see . . .

The Blue Devils lost hard-fought contests to both William and Mary and the University of Virginia. It was hardly to be expected that the team should win against such teams as these, and their surprise was when they trounced the strong Navy team.

The Indians out hit the Blue Devils at Williamsburg and took the big out of a 11 to 4 score. Errors and loose pitching on the part of the Duke team made this a decisive victory for the Virginia team.

The game with the University of Virginia was a closer affair than the one the day before. The score against the Old Dominion team was 8 to 5, with Duke errors letting in numerous runs. But the Blue Devils redeemed themselves when they trounced the U. S. Naval Academy team by the score of 11 to 6. This was one contest when the whole Duke team went on a hitting spree, with Saunders and Weaver getting credit clouts.

If Carolina can lick Wake Forest there will be still more complications as to the Eddie Cameron and W. E. Tilson Both of W. & L. Are to Join DeHart.

BOTH ARE STAR ATHLETES
Both Were Presidents of the Student Body at W. & L. and Captains of Football Teams.

Duke University is to have two new coaches, both from Washington and Lee, according to an announcement made by Dean W. H. Wannamaker at the last meeting of the Varsity Club Saturday night at the Washington Duke Hotel.

W. E. Tilson and Eddie Cameron both played under Coach DeHart as captains of the grid team at W. & L. and are perfectly familiar with his system. Both were presidents of the student body at that institution and otherwise all-around fine students.

Cameron, who graduated in 1924, was alsoformer full back in that year, and in the season of 1925 was coach of the General's cage team which won the state championship that year. At present he is head coach of football, basketball, and baseball at Greenbrier military institute, at Louisburg, Va.

Tilson played football for four years and was South-Atlantic tackle last year. In addition he made the same honor as light-heavyweight wrestler.

The two new coaches will be regular members of the physical education department at Duke under Coach DeHart and will assist in coaching the varsity teams.

probable champions, but if the result favors the Deacons, there can be little doubt but that the Baptists will finally get the honors.

The annual track meet between the state colleges was held on Riddick Field, at State College, last Friday and Saturday.

Carolina again came out with the highest scoring, holding a good advantage over the other contesting teams. State ran the Tar Heels second, and Duke came third.

The one individual star of the meet was not a Carolina man this year—he was a man from the insignificant Leesville College. This man, Spruick, by name, won first place in the shot put, javelin, discus, and second place in the javelin, making a total of 19 points.

In a game featured by errors on the part of Duke and superb pitching by Sorrell, Wake Forest ran away with a one-sided game on Hanes field Tuesday afternoon in the time of 11 to 0. Duke used three hurlers: Thompson, Thomas, and Jones, all of which were hit freely, with Jones allowing fewer hits.

DUKE GETS THIRD
IN STATE MEET

State Track Meet Held At State College Is Won by Tar Heels—State 2nd, Duke 3rd.

The University of North Carolina again annexed the state championship track honors in the meet held at State College last Friday and Saturday. Two state records fell during the course of the evening, one going to a Carolina runner and the other to a State contestant.

Forham, of U. N. C., hurled the javelin 151 feet 11 inches for his record, while McDowell, of State, cleared the high jump bar at 5 feet 8 inches.

Two Duke college records were set by Blue Devil men. Although not getting a first place, Beverly copied second place in the high jump with a bright barely above Hargrove's record of two years standing. The sand hopped with Deal, the pole vault, he cleared the bar at 10 feet 9-1/2 inches.

Spruick, Leont-Rhyne's lone entry, was the least score of the meet with 19 points to his credit. He took first place in the shot put, discus throw, broad jump, and second in the javelin event.

McPherson of Carolina took first place in both the 100-yard dash and the 220 dash.

Following is a summary of the events with the places which Duke men took: 100-yard dash—Duke (Duke), fifth place; Half mile run—Powell (Duke), fifth place; Mile run—Tuttle (Duke), fifth place; High hurdles—Ercle (Duke), fourth place; Hurdle—Beal (Duke), fifth place; Pole vault—Beal (Duke), fourth; Reed (Duke) and Hargrove (Duke) tied for fifth place.

High jump—Beverly (Duke), second place; Shot put—Caldwell (Duke) third place; Javelin—Bennett (Duke), third place; Broad jump—Aycock (Duke), fourth place.

Team scores: Carolina, 98; State, 46; Duke, 23; Davidson, 22; Lenore-Rhyne 10.

LAWYERS ARE TO

Interesting Contest Is to Be Expected If Both Sides Live Up to Promises.

The annual tilt between the lawyers and the preachers of Duke University will take place Thursday afternoon. This, the game will be played if the preachers do not back out and if the lawyers can stay sober enough to find the field. Both teams have solemnly promised to fulfill their obligations to a warm contest is certain.

In former years this memorable occasion has brought out almost as many fans as the other annual feature in which Dean Wannamaker holds down the second sack better than Eve English did in the years gone by. Consequently, all

The Blue Devils Shake Off Losing Streak and Show the Navy Team That They Can Play.

The Blue Devils struck their stride at Annapolis, and slugged their way to a 11 to 6 victory over the strong Navy team. Both teams made a number of errors, however, Duke managed to make the most of them also.

The Navy took the lead with four runs in the first inning as a result of two hits and five errors. Duke overcame this lead in the fourth and from then on it was Duke's game.

Weaver was the star with the willow, collecting a homer and three singles out of five trips to the plate. Saunders collected another homer and Crawford two singles. Goudra and Hargrove collected two hits each for the Middies. The Navy used two hurlers while Thomas pitched the entire game for Duke.

The Varsity Club Makes
Its Appearance At Banquet

DEHART SPEAKS

Officers Are Elected With Jim Thompson As President.

CALDWELL IS TOASTMASTER

Calls Upon Many Speakers All of Whom Respond With Enthusiastic Talks on Athletics.

The new Varsity Club of Duke University made its formal appearance at a banquet held at the Washington Duke hotel Saturday night. The new club is an enlargement of the old D. Club and incorporates within itself the old V Club as well. It comprises all the present and former varsity men of the University and has as its purposes the closer cooperation between the alumni and the University.

Many of the old letter men were present in addition to the rest of the occasion. After the hearty appetites of the men had been appeased the constitution was read and approved. Next came the election of officers. John Frank was elected secretary-treasurer; J. E. Thompson, president; Mr. Joe Seapark of Gastonia, honorary president; Fred Grigg, vice-president; Tom Neal, J. D. Johnson and R. C. Leach were elected as a board of governors.

The toastmaster, Jack Caldwell, next called upon Coach DeHart, and those present were treated to a talk on spirit and obligation to the university which surpassed anything that most of the men had heard heretofore. It was truly an inspiring talk and it is pity that every man now at the university could not have heard it.

President Frew was next with the theme, "The test of manhood is the ability to put out all you have at the necessary moment." Mr. Seapark gave one of his interesting talks during which he promised the football team a dinner at the best hotel in New York when they played Carolina University there next fall.

Dr. Wannamaker made the announcement that Duke was to have on its coaching staff two of the best athletes and students which Washington and Lee has produced in several years, Eddie Cameron and W. E. Tilson.

"Bob" Gantt, Jim Thompson, John Frank, and Tom Neal all made short talks pertaining to cooperation with the team, while "Hip" Martin brought the occasion to a close with a rousing talk on enthusiasm and support.

His admiration of the athletic is not admiration of the old, but of the natural.—Bacon.

the next few days all necessary arrangements will be made to make this an efficient and purposeful organization.

"The great hope of our state lies in the furthering of education and the prevention of its free growth would be a lasting shame and disgrace. "These were the words spoken at the meeting the other night, but the newspapers of the state have taken up the cry and made the issue even more definite than it was outlined at the meeting of the students. The Durham Herald expresses the thought that this idea is prevalent in most colleges, and among the elders as well as the youth of our state. The purpose of this organization will be to run counter to the Committee of One Hundred who is so strongly active in putting forward bills to restrict freedom in the field of education.

Each of the teams will have a booth in West Duke building as a center for their activities, and some one will be in charge all during the day. The mammoth score board will be arranged in front of the Washington Duke monument and much interest will be displayed as the Pirates and Senators battle toward victory.

claimed, "It is an enormous responsibility carrying with it a big trust which you have conferred on us new men. In our appreciation, moreover, we do not forget this responsibility and do not fail to realize that without your absolute and active support we are helpless."

Kirkpatrick stated forcefully that the council officers were not a police force, and after reading a section of the constitution, he said that the matter of enforcement depended upon the individual, that the popularity of student government in matters of honor was wholly dependent upon the grace with which the students received and spread its influence.

In conclusion the new president said, "I urge and exhort you not merely to continue in your interest and concern with student government, but to increase that interest and concern. And let me remind you here of your prerogative of calling for a referendum vote on any question through a petition signed by 100 men."

GIRLS CARRY OUT DELIGHTFUL MAY DAY PROGRAMME

Then everybody was invited to the minstrel which was staged on the platform around the pool. Here the black-faced minstrels assisted by Mr. Sam Bundy, dressed as a clown, furnished much amusement in their excellent take off on the Duke University Glee Club. Quite a bit of excitement was caused when Mr. Bundy fell into the pool.

The next feature, the Beauty Contest, was the decided hit of the evening. Some of the college boys wearing the latest spring models and representing the latest Greensboro, "Miss Asheville," "Miss Raleigh," etc., were introduced by Mr. Frank Warner. The audience was then asked to vote for the prettiest one. Mr. Sam Veal representing "Miss Haw River" received the largest number of votes. Immediately afterwards Mr. W. J. Hobbs, representing Madame Scaramoisky, dressed in a becoming evening gown of beaded green georgette, appeared out of a huge American Beauty Rose placed in the center of the floor. He charmed the audience with a delightful Russian dance. Then Madame Scaramoisky's Orchestra, assisted by Madame Tortinsky (Miss Rebecca Land) as a soloist furnished excellent music.

The merry-making continued until eleven o'clock. It was claimed one of the most successful carnivals ever given here.

When it's the night of the season's most festive dance—
and Mimi, herself, has consented to go—when in a last moment before starting you thank your good fortune
—have a Camel!

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. The most skillful blending. The most scientific packaging. No other cigarette made in the Camels. No better cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

WHEN the night of the famous prom has come—and you contemplate your luck and your greatness—have a Camel!

For Camel adds of its own romance to every memorable event. Camels never tire the taste, never leave a cigarette after taste. When you light a Camel, you may know you are smoking the world's mellowest cigarette.

So this night, as you face boldly forth to society's most romantic and gayest affair—learn then how sympathetic, how really fine and friendly a cigarette can be. Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not get more Camels, is that you try them. By trying you will know Camels with any cigarette made in this country. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company
