BIG SPORTS SCRIBES READY

All of Ex-Basball Luminaries on the Faculty Prepared to Win in a Walk from Unsuspecting Seniors

With spring now upon us, the sports scribs all over the South are preparing their fleets to be given out on the annual Faculty-Senior baseball game which will be played off here on the campus some time about the first of May. This game yearly crowds the rest of the sports off the pages of the leading dailies of the nation, and the outlook this year is that the New York Times, following the lead of the Chronicle, will have several men down to cover the game and write side lights on it.

Dr. H. Wamsucker, famous all over the United States and parts of Virginia as "the perpetual winner" of the game, has announced that this year an entirely different play will be followed out as regards the playing of the game. Dean Wamsy, after a conference with Amos Jackson, Cashdollar Savage, and Elroy Mery, has decided to enter this year the game which would be played at the expense of the campus, and that this year the game would be played at the expense of the campus, and that this year the game would be played at the expense of the campus.

IN THE BLEACHERS WITH NAT S. DIN

Not much doing this week; but the same old number of columns must be filled regularly, so we find ourselves in the usual situation, with no news. A stroll down to Hanes Field showed that the boys were taking advantage of the spring sun to get in shape, with DeLart working his men to bigger "suppers," and Buschett pushing his boys to bigger and better rounds. The revival of the inter class track meet has brought out a large number of aspirants, and things look rosy for the 1939 edition of the boys of the older class.

WAGGON SPOTS MARVEL

From his press box seat in the bleachers, Jinks (or Jink?) Waggon has discovered an unexpected track race that should prove a treat to any quarter mile in the state. Coming from such a well known track authority, his opinion gives great weight to this statement, and all are looking forward to the mystery man's debut previous to the state meet to be held in Greensboro. If he is the sprinter that Rev. Waggon predicts him to be, the time Duke 440 will hold their place.

This being a quiet week in the Duke sport world we tried to think of something different for a change, and our best idea was to attempt to refute the old adage that college professors are "Old Fags." From a drawing of ten names of Duke professors the name of Dr. Grooms was the first to be drawn giving him the "honors" of starting the series of articles. The second name drawn was of another well known teacher but he was not inclined to give out any news so we will only have one article of this type this week. Next week the athletic prowess of Professor Toss and Spencer will be revealed once more. Watch for it on this page!

SEE-PIPER

I must go down to the dean again, to the tyrant lord in his den.
And all I ask is a good line and a drag to help me then.
But my long face, and my sog song, and my lowdown cackling.
Toll a tale of my weak heart and my poor knees shakling.

I must go down to the dean again, to the tyrant lord in his den.

"Service That Satisfies"

Imagine the governor's set for a solid evening of comfort in his cozy old library—and finding that the women folks had "modernized" it with triangular, conical armchairs, and July 4th rug.

Now, imagine you bought some cigarettes, and discovered that they were supposed to do almost everything in the world except what you bought them for, i.e., satisfy your taste for tobacco.

bacco. Maybe it's the modern idea, but—oh, well, let's talk about something else!

Chatterboxes, now. They satisfy. Their only "specialty" is high tobacco quality. Friendly, your most comfortable armchair, a full of flavor as your favorite book. A splendidly made and blended cigarette. And—maybe we are old-fashioned—recommended today for their very reason.
