SUNDAY CLASS TO MEET ONCE MORE

Herring Speaks on Personality at Next to Last Assembly of Year

The Duke Sunday school orchestra opened the last meeting program with Chapin's Prelude. After a brief devotional service the meeting was turned over in the customary fashion to Dean Herring.

The subject of Mr. Herring's talk was "Personality." He stated that, though difficult to define, there are certain specific qualities of the term which are easily readily noticeable in a man of great dynamic personality.

Although character and internal nature are the source of a personality, physical attractiveness and method of dress usually accentuate it. Mr. Herring was an acute seer and forceful in his delivery and gave a very good college interpretation of personality.

The president delivered a good address at the meeting next Sunday morning, which will be the last of the college year. In the fall the class will be one of increasing the attendance with the development of a class roll.

Iota Gamma Pi Initiates

Three new were initiated last Saturday night by Iota Gamma Pi, local scientific fraternity, which recognizes outstanding achievement in the sciences. S. G. Flack, W. A. Day, and J. R. Jenkins were inducted.

ILLNESS ON CAMPUS IS MUCH DIMINISHED

Only Seven Duke Students Are Now Confined at Infirmary and Hospital

Sickness among the students of Duke is at the present time at a very low ebb. There are now only seven student cases of illness in the infirmary and hospital. One of these is a case of chicken pox, but otherwise there are no contagious diseases apparent, the students appearing having subsided, and also that of influenza.

Miss Jean Jackson of the Women's college, who was operated on for appendicitis about a week ago, is recovering satisfactorily, and Bill Britt, also operated on for appendicitis, about well. Charles Pritch, who was confined with an infected right leg, is learned, will soon be able to leave the hospital.

Although there are a number of minor illnesses treated daily, acute colds, sore throats, and the like, Dr. Speed states that chicken pox is the most common illness has almost completely subsided.

Davison Speaks

Dr. W. C. Davison, head of the recently delivered medical school and hospital, delivered the principal address at the convocation program held by the Rex hospital training school in Raleigh last Thursday. Dr. Davison's address to the class of graduating nurses was concerned with the mortality rate and how to reduce it.

guests during the evening from an artistically arranged tea table in the south end of the ball room. Mrs. J. H. Hester and her university officers furnished the music for the occasion.

Cabin Parties

Several fraternities have entertained with cabin parties during the past week. On Wednesday night the members of Sigma Chi entertained their friends on Friday night the Lambda Chi fraternity entertained; and on Saturday afternoon the members of Psi Kappa Alpha gave a cabin party.

In the recent election of officers held by the Town Girls' Club, Elizabeth Powell was elected president for next year. The other officers elected at the time were: vice-president, Marjorie Glaser; secretary, Peggy Stouth; and treasurer, Margaret Johnson. The committee chairman for next year will be appointed in the near future by the new president.

SWIMMING SQUAD HAS FAIR SEASON

The Duke swimming squad for 1951 started out with a new coach, a new pool, and practically all new material. With Captain Smathers, Smith, and Batsberg as the nucleus for the new team, Coach Persons started practice early and the team was getting along fairly well with the first meet.

The first meet with Washington and Leys had the freshmen and varsity taking part in this. But Duke ended up on the loser's end. The next match was at Charlottesville with Virginia. Bates, C. W. Carter, and Edgar S. Wallace, Russell, N. C. Laurs, J. McDaniel, and West, S. C. W. A. Curry, Baltimore, Md., Edward P. Dwyer, New Orleans, La., C. H. Hester, Durham, N. C., W. H. Delaport, Oxford, Ohio, N. P. Mitchell, Baton Rouge, La.

Awards of $50 each have been made to the following: Kate A. Foster, Danville, Va.; Argyle Gish, Richmond, Va.; C. A. Gosholtz, Milton, Pa.; J. H. E. Wright, Cincinnati, Ohio, C. C. Jennings, Durham, N. C.; Edgar S. Wallace, Russell, N. C.; Marjorie Glaser, N. C. Laurs, J. McDaniel, and West, S. C. W. A. Curry, Baltimore, Md.; Edward P. Dwyer, New Orleans, La.; C. H. Hester, Durham, N. C.; W. H. Delaport, Oxford, Ohio, N. P. Mitchell, Baton Rouge, La.

WOLF IS NAMED HEAD OF SCIENCE ACADEMY

Duke Man is Elected New President of the State Scientific Organization

Dr. F. A. Wolf, of the science department of Duke, was elected the new president of the North Carolina academy of science at its 1951 annual meeting at N. C. State college on May 8th. The meeting of the academy and the North Carolina section of the American Chemical society was brought to a close on Saturday, May 8th. The next meeting of the academy will be held at Wake Forest college.

Among the topics discussed at the meeting were "Cotton as a source of Aliphatics," by F. N. Conner and W. H. Richmond, of the University of North Carolina, and "The estimation of enoyal in commercial cottonseed oil," by F. N. Smith of N. C. State college.

F. H. Edmister and J. H. Edmister, of the University of North Carolina, took part in a discussion concerning laboratory concentration vs. individual laboratory work.

At Virginia and Kentucky ... down where tobacco grows college men choose this one outstanding SMOKING TOBACCO

THE men who go to the universities of Virginia and Kentucky know tobacco. They know it from the roots and what makes it grow.

So when Virginia students, and those who study and live at the South Limestone Street in Lexington, pick their pipes with Edgeworth, they choose tobacco grown about the cool, slow-burning quality of this favorite smoking tobacco.

For the same story everywhere—North, South, East and West. In 42 out of 54 leading colleges and universities, college men prefer the smooth, fragrant, hotly bland of Edgeworth. Try Edgeworth yourself. You'll find more pleasure in it than you ever knew before.

Free tobacco store has Edgeworth 15¢ this time. Or, for generous free sample, write to Laura B. Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

Newly Issued Yearbook Is Unusual In Many Respects

Prompt Appearance, Colorful Theme, Unique Feature Section, Student Art and Pictorial, and Pretentious Makeup Invite Praise for Chanticleer

Establishing a precedent yet unequalled in yearbook history at Duke, the 1931 Chanticleer was delivered at the appointed time. The first copies make their appearance here three weeks ago and distribution has been under way for some time.

This latest edition of the annual is dedicated to the spirit of modern youth and the moderate theme is evident throughout. The Gothic type of campus architecture is so linked with the moderate artistic work as to express modern college youth.

The opening section in colorful modernistic style expresses the ultra-extreme, which is offset, however, by the beautiful treatment of the essay sketches of campus edifices, which work is done in four colors.

The ultra-modernism in design pages is slightly edited. The sub-title pages, which are entirely student drawings, carry out the moderate art motif in unusually good taste and original ideas.

The entire class section is effective in its own clarity. The interest in the athletic section is aroused by the attractive layout and action pictures of all the teams, but it is doubtful if much of the lengthy descriptive material will be carefully read.

The section of the book designated as "Early Fair" shows further attractiveness of the moderate scheme, while the feature section is prepared in a clever and highly original manner which can only be well appreciated through a careful reading. It is a burlesque edition of a Duke literary magazine.

Colorful decorative material and design pages are done in the moderate design. The French fold principle used in the design pages is a new feature in yearbook construction.

There are a total of forty colored pages in the book, the largest number of color pages ever to appear in a North Carolina annual.

Student art work for major illustrations purposes was for the first time this year. This work shows ability and originality, and has received favorable comment from professional artists. Members of the art staff drew these sketches.

In spite of petty criticisms which have been heard from time to time, the compilation is the most beautiful which has yet appeared here, and the staff is to be congratulated upon its edition.

LATEST EDITION OF ARCHIVE REVIEWED

Next to Last Issue Contains Play, Short Story, Poetry, and Good Book Reviews

By JIM STEWART

The latest issue of the Archives, distributed to the students yesterday, is unfortunately one of the least attractive of the year. Of the creative work appearing in the April issue, only a little of the poetry is worthy of much mention. In contrast to this, however, the book reviews are exceptionally good, while the editorial comment is worth careful reading.

In his onset play appearing first in the issue, George Harwell has put down in dramatic form an old plot. The picture presented in the play, however, is effective. The other prose feature of the magazine, a short story by Albert Westley, is hardly better. The weak plot of a college professor's victory over material success is scarcely aided by a style made difficult to read through the constant repetition of the hero's name.

The second novel of Kenneth Munson is much better than his slightly hectic first work, although the diction of the first is good. Mr. Munson's poems suffer somewhat in comparison with the two sonnets of Edwin Myrd which are more crafts and convincing. The last poem in the April Archives, "Excellent Ant-

DRAMATIC ORDER HERE INDUENTS NEW MEMBERS

Theta Alpha Psi, national dramatics fraternity initiated six students and two faculty members at its annual initiation last Wednesday night.

Mr. Clarence Gluck and Mrs. N. L. Gluck were the first members initiated, and Jean Stuart, Helen Peacock, Frank Carden, Peter Krupp, Ray Carter, and Andreas Carlson were the students chosen.

This organization sponsors both amateur and professional dramatics, and student dramatists are eligible after they have played in three major parts, two major and two minor parts, or eight minor parts. Scenery, designing, and managerial services also are recognized. The local chapter is the only one in North Carolina.

A short story meeting was held and officers for next year were elected as follows: Moody Smith, president; Norman Humfelt, vice-president; Jeanne Mangel, secretary-treasurer; and Allen Gamble, and T. C. Kim, members of the board of directors. Three members of the U. N. C. Cosmopolitan club, Messrs. Melvin, Gump, and Barosky, and two other invited guests, J. Shennan Brennan, of Shanghai, China, and Miss M. Hozer, of Durham, were visitors of the club. The members present were: Professor and Mrs. Steinhauer, Dr. B. S. Rankin, Messrs. Norman Humfelt,

Business Meeting Is Followed by Enjoyable Weirer Roast for Members of Group

The Duke Cosmopolitan club enjoyed a happy evening last Tuesday, May 12, when its final meeting of the year was held at Camp Sacarus. The meeting was of a social nature, a weirer roast being the main attraction.

A short story meeting was held and officers for next year were elected as follows: Moody Smith, president; Norman Humfelt, vice-president; Jeanne Mangel, secretary-treasurer; and Allen Gamble, and T. C. Kim, members of the board of directors. Three members of the U. N. C. Cosmopolitan club, Messrs. Melvin, Gump, and Barosky, and two other invited guests, J. Shennan Brennan, of Shanghai, China, and Miss M. Hozer, of Durham, were visitors of the club. The members present were: Professor and Mrs. Steinhauer, Dr. B. S. Rankin, Messrs. Norman Humfelt,

TAURIAN PRESIDENT IS HONORED WITH GAVEL

Emile Atkins, of Gastonia, was recently presented with a gold gavel by his fellow members of the university dramatic group in recognition of his services to the Taurian Players during his four years at Duke.

Even in his freshman year, Atkins indicated his great interest in dramatics, and he has served in almost every minor capacity before being elected to the position of business manager for one year and later to that of president for two years. After his graduation in June he will continue his studies in dramatic art at Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh.

Charles Clay, Moody Smith, Allen Gamble, John Gamble, T. C. Kim, R. J. Bissell, and Hans Busch; Misses Jeanne Mangel, Jeanne Mangel, Elizabeth Mangel, Mary Ferrell, and Annette Barnes.

The Corda Prates association of cosmopolitan clubs is a national organization whose objects are to develop in the world the spirit of human justice, tolerance, co-operation and brotherhood, and the desire to serve humanity, culture, by color, race, nationality, creed or creed, by raising and fostering this spirit in college and university students of all nationalities. The spirit of the association is summed up in the motto, "Above All Nations is Humanity." The Duke chapter was organized in 1928.

MEDICI PRINTS SHOWN AT WOMAN'S LIBRARY

Prints of Best Known Art Works Displayed Through Courtesy of London Society

Through the courtesy of the Medici society of London, England, beginning last Thursday, an interesting exhibit of Medici prints has been on display in the library of the east campus. This exhibit consists of some 100 prints of the best known painters in the history of art of Italy, Italian, English, and France.

The hours allotted for the study of the prints were from 10 until 12:30 in the mornings, and from 3 to 5:30 in the afternoons. The paintings occupied a large part of the gallery in the first floor of the library. The works of the artists Vermeer, Van Ruyssdael, Reynolds, Hoger, Rosetti, Watteau, Velasquez, Rembrandt, Raphael, and Corot have been included in the display.

REDEEMING KEYS

Locker keys may be redeemed at Capt. Carl's office on Thursday and Friday from 8:30-12:30. This will give all persons ample opportunity to turn in their keys at regular class periods without loss of time.

PASTORS SCHOOL TO BE HELD HERE

Annual School Will Be Conducted on This Campus From June 15-26

Professor J. M. Ormond is to be dean of the North Carolina Pastors' school to be held here from June 15-26. The school is under the management of the North Carolina and western North Carolina annual conferences.

There will be no tuition or fees of any kind at the school. Those in attendance will have no expense except for rail fares, food, board, and textbooks. No undergraduate course will be offered this year, as the courses are open to undergraduate students and pastors. The Pastors' school will be administered by a board of managers approved by the boards of Christian education of both conferences.

Rex A. W. Martin, of Nashville, Tennessee, is to be the director of the first session. The constitutional representatives to be: Elmer T. Clark, Jr., of Fisher Simpson, and Dr. W. M. Alexander, all of Nashville, Tenn.

The faculty this session is an unusually good one, consisting of college and university professors, board secretaries, and experienced pastors. They are men and men that could be had to teach the courses offered.

The faculty and the courses each member is teaching follow:

Dr. James Moffat, Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

1. Christ of the New Testament.

Dr. The Life and Letters of Paul.

Dr. Henry H. Tweedy, Yale university, New Haven, Conn.

1. Church Worship.

2. Preaching and Preaching Sermons.

Dr. Elbert Russell, Duke university, Durham.

1. The Bible—Its Origin and Growth.

Dr. Social Teachings of the Prophets.

Dr. W. P. King, book editor, Nashville, Tenn.

1. The Church Serving the (Industrial) Community.

2. Social Teachings of the Gospel.

Dr. T. T. Howe, Duke university, Durham.

1. Christian Beliefs.

2. The Spirit and Gospels of Methodism.

Dr. W. S. Shafford, Louisville, Ky.

1. Evangelism in the Church School.

2. Christian Education in the Local Church.

Mr. A. W. Martin, Board of Christian Education, Nashville, Tenn.

1. The Program of Work for the Rural Church.

2. The Curriculum of Christian Education.

Besides these outstanding leaders (others under inspirations) speakers will be Bishop Edwin D. Monson, Charlotte, and Bishop Paul Kern, Shanghai, China.

GREEK TO BE OFFERED IN SUMMER SESSION

For the first time in the history of Trinity college and Duke university Greek will be taught in the summer school. A six weeks' course in beginner's Greek will be given during the first term of the coming summer session. This is a full year's work in the elements of Greek and yields a credit of six semester-hours. It offers a good opportunity to get acquainted with the Greek language, and at the same time it opens the way for those who are interested to do more advanced work in Greek.

Students who want the course may consult Dr. W. C. Peppier in room 208 of the School of Religion building.

NOVEL PICTURE TO APPEAR HERE SOON

Quadrangle Pictures to Bring Charlie Chaplin in "City Lights" For Long Run

The Quadrangle Pictures is offering something new in presenting Charlie Chaplin in "City Lights" on an extended run which begins here Saturday evening.

This picture is one of the very latest and will not be shown elsewhere in Durham in other sections of the country where it has appeared only recently. It has had the largest runs of any late production.

According to the manager of the campus theatre, two shows will be presented on Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings, and as long thereafter as the attendance merits. The usual short subjects and features will also be a part of the program.

The production is unique in that it was entirely written, directed, and produced by Chaplin himself. It is a non-talking comedy, and has unusual music scores. Chaplin is personally opposed to talkies and pastime work is the outstanding feature of the picture.

The right requirements of the leading company and the tremendous expense which bringing it here entails have forced the management to charge 10¢ cents for this one program only. The policy of the theatre is against the rise in price, but conditions under which this picture will be shown are such that the higher price for this entertainment is unavoidable.

The Y. W. C. A. is helping to sponsor the appearance of the show. Cooperation of the student body will assure the continuance of such high class productions in the future.

FLOWERS IS SPEAKER AT MASONIC MEETING

With more than a score of Duke professors in attendance, Duke night was observed one night last week by Durham Masonic lodge No. 362, A. F. and A. M. Dr. R. L. Plowman in view of both his influence in the Oxford Masonic chapter and his position as secretary-treasurer of the local lodge. Dr. Plowman is a well-known speaker. His address was on the application of the Masonic principles to life and was commended with the question, "What has Masonry done for the world?" The speaker, indeed, since the first expression was made of belief in God, was the prime reason in membership.

The meeting at which Dr. Flowers spoke was one of the best held by the local lodge since the plan for holding special programs was adopted by R. S. Harris, master, sometime ago.

GREEN DESCRIBES NEW SYSTEM TO FRESHMEN

The freshman class meeting held during chapel period Tuesday was called to order by President Loney. After the reading of some important announcements, the meeting was turned over to Dr. W. K. Greene, dean of the curriculum. Dr. Greene explained the system of honors courses to be introduced next year, which, if successful, will break the present method of the lock-step system that has been used for so many years. Before concluding his talk, Dr. Greene invited the class to the 1931-32 annual, which they had made during the year.

The long awaited and much talked of class materials were presented to the members of the freshman football team. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

IN congratulating the winners in the great Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the sale of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Cellophane wrapping the rich aroma and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.

DUKE NINE DIVIDES SERIES WITH TARS TO CAPTURE TITLE

Coombs Holds Carolina to Seven Scattered Flows as Bates Pound Out Win

TABLES TURNED MONDAY

Game Ended Great Season for Team
Ended Almost Entirely of Green Material

After capturing their third consecutive baseball title by defeating the Tar Heels 8 to 4 Saturday afternoon, the Blue Devils lost their first diamond contest to Carolina since 1927 when the Tar Heels handed them the loss of a 6 to 2 decision on Monday.

Coombs, star Devil rightfielder, was again in form Saturday as he let the heavy hitting Carolina club down with only seven scattered singles; while his mates pounced unmercifully upon the three Tar Heel hurlers for 11 base hits, including homers by Rutherford and Shaw in the first inning.

The Devils could muster but three hits off the delivery of Cecil Langford, Carolina hurler, on Monday afternoon and the Tar Heels collected nine lineages off the combined delivery of McKelthan and Duffy to stop the Duke winning streak over Carolina at eight straight.

The victories over Carolina and Davidson mark the final loss to the Tar Heels on Monday gives the Blue Devils a percentage of .575 within the state for the season. The Duke team won seven while dropping only one contest. Saturday's game, Box Score:

BROWNLEE MAKES SOUTHERN RECORD IN HURDLES EVENT

Tulane, Virginia, and Alabama Close for First Three Places With Carolina Fourth

FULMER GETS A THIRD

New Records Also Made in Quarter, One Mile Relay, Shot, and High Jump; Competition Keen

Entering the southern conference track meet as sort of a dark horse, the Blue Devil team, this time composed of three men, brought back a new southern record in the low hurdles and third place in the broad jump to give the team ninth ranking in the meet.

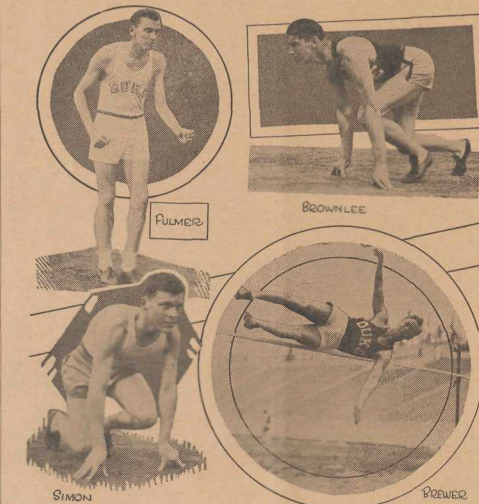

Placed in a first preliminary, Brownlee put on steam and outmaneuvered the south's best low hurdles, and set a new southern record of 24 seconds flat, bettering the old record by 4 of a second. This is the first southern conference track record ever to be held by a Duke man and ought to stand for quite a while. Brownlee, who has just finished his first year of varsity track, holds the state as well as the southern conference record in the low hurdles.

In the finals on the following day, Brownlee kept up his good work and again finished first in the hurdles, and again finished the old mark, this time clinching the victory in 24.3 seconds, thereby giving Duke five points.

Fulmer was the other Duke man to place in the finals, when he jumped 22 feet 8 1/2 inches to get third place in the broad jump. Winner of Virginia jumped 23 feet 5 1/2 inches to get first and Owens of Georgia 22 feet 8 inches to get second. Simon ran in the distance specialty, but hard luck dogged his heels and he failed to place.

Virginia gathered 31 points to note out of Virginia by two points and Alabama trailed the Cavaliers by only one-half point.

LEADERS IN SUCCESSFUL TRACK SEASON

FACULTY DEFEATS FOURTH YEAR MEN

Annual Baseball Classic Ends at Sound of Coach Coombs' Trusty Timepiece

The metallic ring of Jack Coombs' alarm clock put to an end the annual seniority baseball classic last Thursday afternoon as the shepherds hopefuls were being beaten by degree (Ph.D.'s, LL.D.'s, M.A.'s, B.A.'s et cetera). The final score as received by Doc Abbot, one of the degree men and quite a mathematician about this place, was 11 to 0 in favor of the much envied tars.

With Prexy Few holding down his official capacity as umpire of balls and strikes behind the pitcher's box, the game progressed smoothly and gave all appearances of being a peaceful affair. But no sooner had Chapin Few began to show an inclination to favor the fourth year residents, when all the wrath of faculty batters gave vent to itself in the form of fast moving pellets directed in the vicinity of the chief executive's territory. The pitcher angrily looked as if he would withstand the attack until one of the steaming hurlebursts grazed his left shoulder and, Coach Coombs moved in to take his place as the former umpire hurried to turn for an insurance policy to protect him against the possibility of injury in future faculty-senior games.

Although the two senior hurlers might have let up intentionally as the faculty batters strode to the plate, the degree holders pounded the ball to all corners of the diamond to court on runs by the end of the third inning.

Neither team registered in the fourth, but the diploma aspirants came back strong to score three times in the fifth. The seniors failed to score in higher half of the sixth, and there were two out chucked up against the men of higher learning when Coach Coombs' big ben, placed in the center of the diamond behind the pitcher's mound, blurted out an unbridled interruption to stifle the many fans that had gathered to witness the affair. As the protesting official Coach Jack yanked in his official capacity and declared the game called on account of general principles and an empty stomach.

Score by innings: R H E
Seniors 2 0 1 0 0 - 0 5 1
Faculty 5 3 2 0 1 - 11 7 6

GOLFERS WIN TWO TILTS IN VIRGINIA

Devil Foursome Defeats Virginia and Medical College of Virginia

Placing their last matches of the year, the Duke golf team came through unscathed on their northern invasion, winning two out of three matches during the past week. In the first match they allowed the Virginia Cavaliers only three points while collecting the remaining fifteen for themselves. The Devils made a clean sweep of all of the singles, and broke even in the foursomes. Hay and Captain Handle won their three matches in their match with Caldwell and Zimmerman last night.

On Wednesday Duke met the Medical School of Virginia and continued the winning streak, defeating the doctors 17 to 1. The Blue Devil club winners won all of the doubles and singles. Hay and Zimmerman dropping a half point each. Captain Handle broke the jinx on the thirteenth hole when he looked out in one.

Tired by their travels, the Duke foursome went down before William and Mary, 5-1, in the last match of the year. Bill Hay won the only point for the day, defeating his opponent with a 78. The defending team had one of the strongest squads met this year, as the score would indicate.

Following the example of the baseball team last Saturday, the frosh golf squad won its first match of the season at the expense of the Carolina first year men. The Tar Heels were on the short end of a 14 to 0 score. Captain Poncek won two pointers from Allen Smith with his two 7's, also gaining low scores for the day. Fred McDermott split with Tyree and Stokes and all three from Glen of Carolina. McLean allowed his first point as a senior. (Continued on page six)

FROSH CLUB WINS LAST TWO GAMES

Defeat Carolina Bables and Then A. M. A. Cadets to Close Baseball Season

The Blue Imps closed a successful season last Friday by defeating the cadets from Augusta Military Academy 14-0, after beating the frosh from Carolina 8-1 a few days before. This gives the Imps thirteen wins in fifteen starts.

Albert pitched for the Imps in the Carolina game and allowed only four hits in the nine innings. Only one Tar Heel got as far as second and he scored the only run on a Duke error. This marks the second season that the Duke Imps has defeated the Tar Heels in both games.

Harbinder and Florin twirled for the Imps in the A. M. A. tilt and allowed only six hits between them, getting very good infield support at all times to give them their shut-out. Florin led the Duke frosh at the bat when he got four hits out of four trips to the plate. Schellmberger got a homer and two singles out of five tries with the stick to rival his team mate for batting honors. The Imps scored in every inning but the third and seventh, not taking their turn in the ninth frame.

The Imps won six big games this year, losing only one game to State. This gives the state championship to the Duke freshmen for the second season running and the frosh next year will have some job to keep up the record of these two teams.

Early in the season the frosh looked weak and yet they seemed to be cheered for they did not lose games because of their errors. Later in the season they improved tremendously and several members of the squad will be giving the varsity team a run for their money next spring.

BLUE DEVIL TEAM BEATEN AGAIN BY CAROLINA NETMEN

Powerful Aggregation From Chapel Hill Shuts Out Duke Representatives

FINAL MATCH OF SEASON

Garber and Peake Nearly Break Through Carolina in Last Frame, But Lose in Three Sets

As freely predicted in these parts, Carolina's really great tennis team ran roughshod over the Blue Devils last Monday, and whitewashed them for the second time this season by a score of 9 to 0. Giving credit where credit is due, it seems that the court aggregation from Hill is inferior to no college group in the country, and the Duke netmen did well to capture as many games as they did.

In the opening match, Rogers and Grant staged a much better battle than the score of 6-2, 6-1 would seem to indicate. Many of the games went to deuce and the entire fray was featured by brilliant rallies on the part of both men. The Duke captain, who carried the diamond team to three sets out at Carolina, squelched himself creditably in his final college match.

Jack Meyers, captain last year, was defeated in straight sets by Wilmer Hume. The score was 6-3, 6-4. However, Garber, a senior line player, was just last Saturday lost to Burwell of Sewanee in the finals of the Conference tournament, by capturing the first set but the Tar Heel vet rallied and finally triumphed by a count of 4-6, 6-1, 6-2. All the other singles matches were decided by scores of 6-0, 6-2.

In the doubles, Rogers and Meyers carried Hume and Grant to three sets over eight games, and Fulp and Clarke won a total of eight games in their straight-out defeat by Hume and Grant. Nevertheless, Garber and Peake provided the feature of the afternoon in the last match when they hoveled only four three-bitterly-dog sets, the scores of which were 3-6, 6-2, 6-4.

PHI DELTS LOSE IN BASEBALL FINALS TO PI EPSILON PI

Local Fraternity Cops Championship as Opposing Pitchers Wage Close Duel

FINAL SCORE IS 2 TO 1

Ruttenberg Limits Lossers to Two Hits as Futrell Stars in Field For Newly-Crowned Champions

The interfraternity baseball tournament was brought to a very successful conclusion yesterday afternoon when the Pi Epsilon Pi nine defeated the Phi Delta Theta stars in the final round by a score of two to one. The winners put on a rally in the fifth frame when their hits produced two markers; these were sufficient, for with Ruttenberg in his usual stellar form on the mound, the Phi Delt's were able to gather only two hits during the course of the fray. These both came in the fourth frame and resulted in their lone tally.

Bolden, the stellar pitcher, individual stars for the victors included "Paik" Futrell at third and Charley Bernstein in first. The last corner guardian cleared everything that came his way and turned in the holding highlight of the battle when, in the first frame, he eluded about ten feet into the air and came down with Smith's line drive clutched in one hand.

The first baseman for the Pi Ep's reached base in four of the seven rounds, and they had a total of nine strands, making five hits in all. There was no scoring for the first three innings despite opportunities for both teams. The Phi Delt's had two on with one down in the second, but Ripley speared a star over for an unassisted double play.

The first break in the new of game eggs came in the last of the fourth, when Smith singled and rode all the way home on a flurry of errors. However, after this single ascension the Pi Ep's settled down and never presented another opening, although Cochrane broke off a single immediately after Smith's solo expedition. In the final of the fifth Ripley stretched a hit to left into a double by fast base-running, and Puffer beat out an infield single to place men on first and third. In this crisis Bertram grounded to third, Puffer, crouching with the tying count, Puffer pulled some more heavy base-running and went around to third on a hit from whence he registered the winning run on Hughes' one-base hit, but with two down in the next chucker, but were stranded. Only a single ball, with the exception of their two safe snacks, was hit by the outfield by the losers.

COMIC OPERA RAPIDLY
NEARING READINESS FOR FRIDAY PRESENTATION

In the second act of the opera, the two most famous songs appear. These are "Brown October Ab" sung as a last song only with the chorus and the "Cento solo solo." "Oh Promise Me," sung by Miss Helen Peacock in the part of the Duke's daughter, is a beautiful song in front of an inner, where the sheriff, disguised as a tinier is rapidly becoming drunk with the ale previously sung about. Fortunately for the hero, the sheriff drinks enough to reveal his true identity. The remainder of the act is taken up with the aftermath capture of this party by the other, until the villain's group finally emerge victorious, and Robin is taken captive to Nottingham.

The scene of act three is laid in Nottingham, on the day of the last Sir Guy to marry Marion, and the sheriff, Anselm, the love of Allan-a-Dale. But the outcast's faithful hand in various disputes once to save their master and the opera ends in a triumphant happy satisfactory to all the two villains.

During the part of the sheriff, Mr. McPeck will provide a great deal of the comedy of the evening. Mr. Upchurch has for four years been outstanding all musical activities, and in his role he is provided with the greatest possibilities of his career. In the leading role, Edmund Macarty, who will give his final performance, while as contrast to these two, Miss Anna Duff appearing in the leading role will give her first Duke performance. The elaborate scenery made for the comic opera has been recently completed by the play production class under the direction of Mr. A. T. West. Mr. West has also spent much time in using Director Barnes, with acting. Daily practices with full chorus and orchestra are rapidly shaping the production in the form it will be presented Friday evening.
