Music Club Holds First Meeting

The recently organized music club of the Woman's college held its initial meeting on Friday afternoon, February 28, at 4:30 o'clock, in the parlors of Albemarle house, with Mrs. J. Foster Barnes and Miss Evelyn Barnes acting as hostesses.

A very interesting program was carried out, part of which was devoted to a study of the life and personality of Fritz Kreisler, led by Miss Virginia Tillman, and the rendition of several of his compositions by Johnny Long and Mrs. J. A. Greenwood. The latter part of the program dealt with a discussion of symphonies, and Miss Constance Blackwood told of the formation and history of the Barreille Little Symphony and the lives of its players.

An enjoyable social hour followed, and tea was served. The party was decorated beautifully with early spring flowers.

Kappa Alpha Theta Announces Initiation

Beta Rho chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta society announces the initiation on Saturday, February 25, of the following girls: Misses Eleanor Barrett, Stamford, Conn.; Jane Carlton, Greensboro; Margaret Cunningham, Nashville, Tenn.; Loomer, Fanning, Asheville, Va.; Hailig, Lamberport, Va.; Virginia Hilde, Upper Montclair, N. J.; Nancy Little, Stamford, Conn.; Mary Alice Rhodes, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Virginia Searcy, Lewisburg, Va.; Mary Carolyn Seel, Upper Montclair, N. J.; Susan Sheppard, Washington, D. C.; Jean Wallaker, White Plains, N. Y.; Michaela Watkins, Midlothian, Va.; and Eileen White, Baltimore, Md.

The initiation was followed by a banquet at the Washington Duke hotel, attended by all the members and a number of alumnae. Miss Eleanor Cummings was toastmistress on this occasion, and the speakers included Misses Elizabeth Sellers, president of the chapter; Lucille Gaiety, vice-president; Virginia Harbin, president of the pledges; and Margaret Landis, president of the Durham alumnae club.

The new initiates were entertained at breakfast at the Edwin Tavern on Sunday morning, by the alumnae.

Among the guests of the chapter who attended the initiation and banquet were Miss Lois Smathers, of Asheville; Miss Abbie Smith, of Burlington; and Miss Lee Dicks, of Greensboro.

CRAYON SKETCHES MUCH IN DEMAND

Many Avail Themselves of Opportunity to Have Sketches Made

For the past few days "dope shop" patrons have been entertained with an exhibition of sketching by James E. Cardwell, of Philadelphia, former newspaper cartoonist. Over 150 students have had sittings for sketches while Mr. Cardwell has been working on the West campus.

Starting as cartoonist for the New York Evening Telegram, Mr. Cardwell's first assignment was on the famous Harry K. Thaw murder case. Later he left the paper to sketching and painting, which took him on travels throughout every state in the Union. According to Mr. Cardwell, since beginning this work he has made sketches of "Al" Smith, Will Rogers, Jack Dempsey, Primo Carner, Gloria Swanson, Huey P. Long, "Alfalfa" Bill Murray, Enrico Caruso, William Jennings Bryan, and numerous other famous people.

Wednesday Mr. Cardwell is moving to the East campus to do sketches for the co-eds, and after several days there he plans to move to Chapel Hill for a few days before continuing on to do work for the winter colony at Placemart.

TO REIGN AS QUEEN

Dorothy Newsom, who has recently been elected to reign over this year's May Day ceremonies, Elizabeth York is to be her maid of honor.

DOROTHY NEWSOM IS 1933 MAY QUEEN

Women's Association Elects Versatile Durham Senior As May Court is Chosen

Dorothy Newsom, of Durham, was elected May Queen at a meeting of the Woman's College Government association, held Monday evening, February 27, in the East campus auditorium. Miss Newsom is president of the senior class, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and during her college career has been outstanding in several activities. She has chosen Elizabeth York as her maid of honor.

Other members of the May Court, elected for achievement, are Louisa Hooker, Virginia Hagan, Elizabeth Waters, Helen Moyer, Carlotta Waters, Virginia Green, Ann Ingles, Louise Sellers, Lucille Gaiety, Elizabeth Sellers, Louise Atkinson, and Helen Phillips. Two amendments were passed at the meeting. It was decided that in the future there should be no absence or proxy voting in the association, and that

RADIOS DISCUSSED IN CHAPEL PERIOD

Open Forum Vents Many Opinions Concerning Control of Amusements

Virtually all the chapel period last Thursday was devoted to the discussion of the obnoxious garbages in the dormitories of the West campus. Speaker Raymond Landers opened the floor for discussion of the topic.

Artie Erbler was the first to propose a method by which the noles might be eliminated. He suggested that the owners of radios be put on probation for the remainder of the spring semester and that if these boys were reasonable in the tuning of the radios, they be permitted to keep them next year. He proposed that, otherwise, the radios be removed entirely from the university campus.

Subsequent speakers did not favor the removing of the radios from the campus. The prospective remedy which was accepted upon the motion of Davis Williams was offered by John Brownlee. He suggested that each member of the student body act as a deputy and speak to any person who may insult the peace of the campus. If the censured person should not heed the warning, Mr. Brownlee proposed that the person be reported to a member of student house of representatives.

Other students who addressed the meeting were Ed Kellan, Gordon Fowler, and Al Cole.

Until this time the responsibility for keeping the dormitories quiet was left entirely to the House of Representatives.

members of the council shall not be required to pay student government dues. A vote was also taken on a resolution to be presented to the publications board regarding the Dilett, coed publication. The group favored continuance of that magazine.

CONCERT PLANNED BY WOMEN'S MUSIC CLUBS

Varied Program to Be Offered by Playing and Singing Groups

The musical clubs of the Woman's college, under the direction of Mrs. J. Foster Barnes and Miss Evelyn Barnes, will present a program in the East campus auditorium the evening of March 7. The glee club, quartet, string quartet, and the orchestra will participate.

The first group on the program consists of the following numbers: "Andante Con Moto," from Symphony in C Major, Schubert; "A Japanese Sunset," "Dappert," and "Parade of the Wooden Dolls," Ewing. The second group is composed of an air from the Paganini Concerto, "Sweet Spring is Advancing," Bach; Rimsky-Korsakov's "Song of the Shepherd Loh," "The Sandman," Brahms; and Mendelssohn's "Spring Song."

The third group includes "Presto," from Quartet No. 2, Haydn; "Mighty Lak a Rose," Neris; and a Spanish dance, "Estadulatina," by Lacombe. "Mishie," by Tchaikovsky, opens the next group, which continues with Herbert's "Serenade."

Other numbers on the program are Gounod's "Ave Maria," to be played by string trio; Schubert's "Moment Musical," by the glee club, and "Two Clowns," by Rogers.

DUKE DELEGATION TO ATTEND MEET

Students to Go to State Volunteer Conference in Greensboro Soon

The North Carolina State Volunteer union will hold its annual student conference on missions in Greensboro, March 3, 4, and 5. Sessions will be in the First Presbyterian church, and will be attended by 150 students, teachers, pastors, and missionaries of all races. There are to be one negro and two white speakers.

Dr. Fletcher Brockman, of Columbia, S. C., who was for 15 years secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of China, and John R. Wilson, general secretary of the Student Volunteer movement, for several years a missionary in Japan, will be the leading speakers. The Rev. Howard Thurman, pastor at Howard university, Washington, D. C., will lead the devotionals of the conference.

The theme of the meeting is "Re-thinking Christian Missions" and will be centered around the recent report of the lawmen's foreign missions inquiry. Platform addresses and discussion periods will be given to the consideration of the sever aspects of foreign missions. The Duke student volunteer group is to present a play, "The Color Line," Saturday afternoon, March 5, and secular music will be provided by the Negro colleges of Greensboro.

People know it..

Chesterfields Satisfy

WHEN smokers keep buying the same cigarette day after day... it's a pretty good sign that they're getting what they want... mildness, better taste—a smoke that's always the same.

So we're going right on making Chesterfields just as we always have... selecting choice, ripe tobaccos... ageing them... blending and cross-blending them... making them into cigarettes in the most scientific ways that are known.

As long as we do these things we know that smokers will continue to say, "They Satisfy". For that's what people are saying about Chesterfields.

If you smoke, why not find out about them? A package or two will tell you the whole story.

DUKE MAKE QUINTET GOES TO FINALS OF SOUTHERN TOURNAMENT

TWO VICTORIES

Team Easily Conquers Virginia and Washington and Lee; Meets South Carolina

SEASON IS SUCCESSFUL

Triumphs at Raleigh Conclude Great Season For Cameron's Men on the Court

Encountering little opposition, Duke's state championship basketball team reached the finals of the Southern conference basketball tournament by defeating Virginia Friday night 28 to 24, and knocking Washington and Lee Saturday 16 to 32. By virtue of these victories the Blue Devils gained the right to play South Carolina Monday for the first championship of the newly organized conference.

With Jim Thompson leading the way with thirteen points, Duke had little trouble in disposing of Virginia in the opening round of the tournament Friday night.

Virginia took the lead in the opening minutes of play 8 to 5, but the Blue Devils rallied to bring the count to 20 to 14 at the end of the first period. For a short time the Cavaliers baffled the locals with a fine execution of the McManis system. The deceptive play was soon solved and Virginia never came within striking distance. Duke heavily outscored the Cavaliers in the second session to bring the score to the final count of 28 to 24.

Washington and Lee, after eliminating N. C. State in the first round, was easily defeated Saturday 41 to 52. The Blue Devils' success will, the Generali displaying little of the fight that N. C. State.

Horne rallied thirteen points to lead both teams in scoring for the evening. Numerous substitutions prevented the margin of victory being much greater. After the first team had relied on the comfortable lead of 39 to 14, Coach Cameron inserted many substitutes in order to save his varsity for the finals Monday.

Duke's tournament record clinched one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school. Eighteen games out of 22 resulted in victories for the Blue Devils. Although predicted to have mediocre team, Coach Cameron produced a few that brought Duke four consecutive state championships.

The season was opened shortly before the Christmas holidays by a three day invasion of Washington, Baltimore, Georgetown, and George Washington were not met defeated.

Returning home, Furman was added to the string of victories. Three days later the team traveled to Charlotte and overhauled Davidson. Jim Thompson gave an outstanding performance by amassing 24 points against the Wildcats. Duke's second Big Five victory followed the day later when Wake Forest, displaying unexpected strength, was defeated.

STARS WHO WILL COMPETE IN CHAPEL HILL MEET

Above are pictured some of the stars who will be attempting to set new records in the Southern conference Indoor Games to be held at Chapel Hill, Saturday afternoon and night, March 4. One of the feature duels will be the low hurdles race between Johnny Browne and Ed Fincklestein, both pictured above. Fincklestein tied the world indoor record in the 1951 meet at Carolina, but Browne has since set a new Southern conference outdoor record and duplicated Fincklestein's indoor mark in the 1953 meet. This will be their first meeting in the indoor Games, for Fincklestein was the Indoor Games star, for Fincklestein was the Indoor Games star, for Fincklestein was the Indoor Games star.

FRESHMEN ANNEX STATE CROWN BY LICKING CAROLINA

Connie MacC and His Camp Develop Deadly Aim to Become High Scorers

DEFEAT CENTRAL HIGH

After trouncing the North Carolina team, 40-30, on the home floor last Wednesday to clinch the State freshmen championship, the Duke yearlings closed the season with a 40-37 win over Central High School of Washington, D. C., in the gym last Saturday afternoon.

Needing a victory over The Tar Heels to win the State championship, the Blue Boys rolled into an early lead to hold a 25-13 advantage at the half time, and coasted to an impressive win, 40-30. Mack and Hainsworth, with 17 and 20 points, respectively, were outstanding for Duke. Nelson starred for Carolina, but Wink and Ferguson, Duke guards, stopped his usual smooth team work with his running mate, Moore.

The yearling teams of both Duke and State have lost two games this season, but by virtue of two wins over the State freshmen Duke can claim the State freshmen basketball championship for the 1951-52 season.

In the closing game of the year in the gym on Saturday, the freshmen closed out a 40-37 win by a last minute rush against Central High School, of Washington, D. C. Playing far below their usual form, the Duke men were unable to penetrate the Central defense with any consistency, and were on the short end of a 14-14 score at the half time. At the beginning of the second half the yearlings came back, to go into a 30-27 lead at the three quarter mark.

Just when it seemed that Central would keep the cup from Duke, the Blue Boys rolled in two magical points to win the game. The Blue Boys rolled in two magical points to win the game. The Blue Boys rolled in two magical points to win the game.

Tankmen Stay Undefeated By Wins on Northern Trip

Guess What!

By PAUL HAGER

Friends, ex-football players, and seniors: if by any chance there is a thought in your minds that you would like to coach, on your exodus from Duke, here is an excellent opportunity for a bit of preliminary coaching experience. Coach Alex Waite will be very glad to have any or all of those men who closed their college football careers last fall to come out and aid him with All-American football.

All the Free-throw teams that have been duly entered at the Intramural office, and who do not show up this week for their free throws will not only lose points in the personal side of the ledger but will also lose points for their fratercity, the same as they would for any defeat of the basketball season closed Saturday, in as far as our gymnasium is concerned, so there can be nothing to hold up the parsimony of this sport. Gentlemen please attend to this matter at once.

The chances are that outside of the immediate inmates of the gym there are very few among you who have ever heard of the All-American basketball team. This team has recently completed a very successful season. They lost only one game and that to the city champions of the South, 38 to 39. The players are: Dana All-Star, 40-23; Wrenn, 44-14; they played the Creedon Cafe team twice and defeated them twice to the tune of 50-45 and 50-27. The gentlemen serving men and this meet should give some indication of the probable chance in our outdoor track. The outdoor track meet will be held at Duke university this year.

The tennis tournament, as is going to be played shortly between Duke and Carolina will probably appeal to the eyes (Continued on page eight)

G. W. MEET CLOSE

Win by Relay Team Gives Victory to Duke in Last Dual Meet

VARELA SETS RECORD

Devilish Capture All But One First Place in Randolph-Macon Contest

Climaxing a most successful season, the Duke swimming team won their seventh consecutive dual meet last Saturday by sinking George Washington University in the first round. The score of the Washington meet was 32-32, but the victory was awarded to the Blue Devils because they won the relay.

The Devilish captured all except one of the first places against Randolph-Macon for a 49 to 17 win. The first event, the forty yard dash, was won by Clayton of the Yellow Jackets for their only five-pointer. Tennant, Varela, Young, T. Loom and Clark were first in their respective events, while Captain MacManis, Baskoe, O'Connor, and Ross won the relay for a win.

New Pool Records

Swimming against their steepest competition of the year, the Devilish noted over George Washington the next day in the relay to tie the score and win the meet. Pool records were broken in every event except the diving. Rate of G. W. came first in both the 50 and 100 yard dashes as did Ghorbany in the diving and breast stroke. Varela and Carter of Duke were first in the back stroke and 220 respectively.

During this season, Carter, Varela, the Loom brothers, Tennant, and MacManis have been consistent point winners. These meets were the last dual meets of the season. The next will be the (Continued on page eight)

VIRGINIA GRABS PUGILISTIC TITLE IN TWO DAY MEET

Freddie Lloyd Forced to Forfeit in Finals Because of Injury to Hand

CAROLINA GETS SECOND

An injury to Captain Freddie Lloyd's wrist, and a close decision against Leroy Sides in the semi-final, deprived Duke of securing one of the prominent positions in the Southern Conference boxing meet. The tournament, won by the University of Virginia with 29 points, was held at that school last Friday and Saturday night.

Nine in the total scoring was U. N. C., with 10 points. N. C. State placed third, capturing eight points, and South Carolina fourth in order, having five points. Duke, whose 1952 team tied for second place in the old conference, had to be satisfied to tie with Maryland, Washington, and Lee, and V. P. I. for fifth points.

Captain Lloyd, Duke's bantamweight, and last year's conference champion, won his way into the finals by taking two fast bouts. But Duke's hopes faded when it was found that Freddie had a violent bruise on his hand and was fighting his seminals. With his forced withdrawal, Arch Hahn, Virginia, received a forfeit, which gave him the championship in that class.

In the welterweight (145 pounds) division, another Blue Devil, Leroy Sides, fought his way into the semi-finals by a verdict over Epps, V. M. I., but lost out to the finalist, Birmingham, Virginia. Al Parrish, who drew a bye in the first round, was the only other Duke man to reach the semi-finals, where he lost to North Carolina's lightweight, Quintan.

"Click" Window, the main cog in giving Duke the State title and a well fought, tough battle to Clemson's lightweight, Megrison. The other Blue Devil to lose in the first round of the meet was Rip Scott, featherweight. Levison, U. N. C., although suffering from a broken hand in the second round, held an early lead over Scott, to offset the latter's third round comeback.

Virginia and Carolina dominated the conference tournament. The Cavaliers sent all eight of her batters through the preliminaries, and put seven of them in the finals. Carolina advanced six representatives by the first engagements, and entered four into the finals. Four of the Virginia boxers took championship titles, South Carolina won three, and N. C. State won the light middleweight. South Carolina captured the middleweight title, and N. C. Carolina (Continued on page eight)

DUKE LEADS IN CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

Quintet Of South Carolina Captures Southern Crown

Duke Leads at Half But Is Unable to Check Second Period Drive of Their Taller Opponents; Horne Plays Well For Losers

A favored outfit from the University of South Carolina came from behind in the second half to defeat the Blue Devils and win the Southern Conference title last Monday in the Raleigh city auditorium. The score was 33-21, but the final result of the tight battle that was waged in the first canto.

Henderson and Freddie Tompkins, the two towering stars of the Gamecocks, tied for high scoring honors with 13 points each. The height of the whole South Carolina team seemed to bother the Duke boys all through the game and was one of the reasons for their defeat. Time and again a Blue Devil tried to follow up a long wall jump, only to have some lanky South Carolinian snail the ball away.

The first period was exciting and close. Henderson started things off by sinking a foul, but in a few minutes Horne did the same thing. Then Henderson put the Gamecocks two points to the good with a pretty shot, but Horne matched this, too. On the heels of Rowland's two-pointer came Jim Thompson's first basket to put the score at 10-8. For the fourth time Freddie Tompkins placed his team out in front and for the fourth time Duke tied it up as Jim Thompson came through.

Duke Goes Into Lead Wendell Horne sent Duke ahead for the first time with a pretty basket, and South Carolina called for time out. But Horne crashed through for another. Then Henderson converted a free throw, and Horne scored another basket. But Blue Devils were on the long end of a 15-8 score. The stands were in an uproar, but the "Treason" came back. Henderson and the Tompkins brothers all took turns at swishing the net before the half ended. Duke was still leading, 15-13, and no one foresaw the avalanche that was coming.

Duke had clearly outplayed their tall, lanky opponents. But for all that, the terrible lack of their shot. At least four throws went in and out of the basket, nothing seemed to break for the boys, and it looked as though their luck was bound to turn.

Gamecocks Rally Freddie Tompkins led the score with a goal from the floor, his brother followed suit, and Henderson put his club three points to the good with a foul. Another basket by the greater Tompkins only made matters worse, but Horne and Jim each shot a foul, and Thompson had a basket a few minutes earlier, so the scoreboard read 21-15. South Carolina. Rowland and Henderson took turns sinking free shots, then the lanky center got a two-pointer, and Freddie Tompkins sunk one from the floor with only three minutes left to play.

Horne got two more scores for his team, Brenda Tompkins added a point, and brother Freddie made a goal just before the game went off. Final score, South Carolina, 33; Duke, 21.

Freddie Horne, playing his last game for the Devils, was the leading figure in their attack with ten points. Jim Thompson played a beautiful game the first half, but was off in his shooting. The Duke team made most of their passes good, but the height of their opponents proved to be too much of a handicap.

TENNIS PRACTICE GETS UNDERWAY; PROSPECTS GOOD

Garber and Norwood Only Ones Not Returning From Last Year's Team

Taking advantage of the approaching spring weather, the 1938 tennis squad is rapidly getting down to steady practice for what is forecasted to be their most successful season.

The make-up of the team will be determined by the results of a ladder system of tournament play, which has already been begun by Coach Gregory. Norwood and Garber are the only losers from last year's fine team. Several first-year freshmen stars are expected to see action with the varsity team this spring.

The contest for number one position on the team will be between Wilks, the outstanding veteran on the squad, and Higgins, star of the 1932 form team. These two men will also play as the number one doubles combination. Another certainty is that Butler and Martin, both lettermen, will make up the second doubles team. The other four singles positions and the remaining doubles pair will likely be taken from Peake, McNeil, Morehead, Doyle, and Graves, who seem to be most prominent in the competition at the present time.

Outstanding among the freshmen this year are Harris, winner of the first intramural, and "Y" trophies; Parsons, Kunkle, and Fugate. All of the latter three also placed high up in the above mentioned tournaments.

Manager Tark has been working hard to arrange a fine schedule for the season. Although not definite as yet, the following schools will probably be met on the southern trip: W. & L., Virginia, Richmond, George Washington, Georgetown, Navy, Lehigh, and Princeton. Georgia Tech will meet the return on Duke courts.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ACTS ON CLASS AWARDS

By recent action of the athletic association class numerals will be awarded for participation on athletic teams. Freshman classes for the past several years have favored the plan, but have expressed little effort in speeding action on the subject.

The class of '34 awarded numerals two years ago at athletes in all freshman sports, independently of the athletic association.

RUNNERS UP IN CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT

After leading South Carolina at the end of the first half, the Duke basketball team, pictured above, was finally moved out to place as runners-up. In the picture, back row (left to right) are: Bob Kowen, Ed Mason, Jim Thompson, Wendell Horne, Frank Parago, Phil Weaver, Dudley Clarke, E. H. Polack, and O. B. Newton, student manager. Kneeling (left to right), Sam Bell, Reynolds May, Cawthon Brown, Charlie Hayes, Herb Thompson, Henry Lewis, and Fred Lewis.

FAST AND FURIOUS WERNERS LEADING IN LEAGUE GAMES

Long Runs by Bensley Are Feature of Contest Between Masons and Erslers

KEEN RIVALRY IN GAMES Blocked Punts Gain Victory For Werners in Otherwise Evenly Fought Contest

Last Saturday's game in the "Great outer League" saw the "Werners" of the college take the lead in the race for first place in the series of football games being played between these dormitory teams. The "Masons," or West team, also defeated the North team, 13-4, and are now in second place with one win and one tie. The South and North teams are tied for third with one tie and one loss each.

The Southeast game scored a safety early in the first quarter by means of a blocked punt and their touchdowns came by the same route. Except for these costly mistakes, the teams were evenly matched and fought out a close game for the remainder of the day.

Bensley scored both of the touchdowns and kicked the extra point to feature in the West's victory over the North. Both of these scores were the result of long runs in the last quarter after both teams had battled to a standstill during the first part of the game.

Next Saturday at 3:00 the Werners (East) will face the Erslers (North), and the Abbotts (South) play the Masons (West). All of the squads are getting into good condition, and with a large number of men competing, the last few weeks of the tournament should come exciting games. Practices are being held daily under the supervision of Coach Waite and the varsity football men in charge of the individual teams.

CAGERS ARE THIRD DUKE RUNNERS-UP

Blue Devils End Up Fifth Year of High Calibre Conference Play

Although the 1938 Blue Devils failed to win the Southern conference title, their entry into the finals Monday night marked the third time in the last five years that a Duke court team has reached the battle for the championship in tournament play.

In 1929, the Devils saw action in their first tourney and, regardless of being named a dark horse, proceeded to upset all manner of odds by eliminating some of the strongest contenders, to win the final round of the set-by, but they bowed to N. C. State. The following year practically the same team entered the meet as a favorite to copy the flag, due to the spectacular showing made at that sensational debut, but of Alabama disposed of the Blue Devil veterans in an upset victory in the finals.

During the next two years that Duke entered the championship fray at Atlanta was an entirely reversed outfit took the floor. However, even these two teams won the first rounds of play, the former being eliminated by Kentucky in the quarter-finals and the latter by Georgia in the semi-finals.

The present edition of the Blue Devils ought proved themselves a serious threat for the coveted crown by annexing wins over their first two opponents, Virginia and Washington and Lee, to meet the highly touted South Carolina Gamecocks in the deciding contest of the year.

We challenge any school in the present conference to submit a better record for a period of five years when it comes to action on the basketball court.

Jim Thompson Awarded All-Southern, Center Post

Selections For Associated Press Give Two Positions to South Carolina and One Each to V. P. I., Duke, and North Carolina State

At the close of the tournament Monday night, officials and coaches picked an all-Southern Conference basketball team for the Associated Press. Two South Carolina players and one each from V. P. I., Duke, and North Carolina State, made up the selection. Carolina placed two on the second team, and Maryland, South Carolina, and Duke, one each.

Freddie Tompkins, South Carolina forward, and Bud Hall, V. P. I. forward, were picked unanimously. Jim Thompson, Blue Devil star, received a first string vote on all but one ballot. Bonnie Tompkins, South Carolina guard, and Gilbert Clarke, North Carolina State guard, polled sufficient votes to place well ahead of the rest of the guard nominations.

The second team selections were Wilmer Hines of North Carolina, and Rufus Vincent of Maryland, at the forward positions; with Dana Henderson, the Gamecock's high-scoring star, as center. Virgil Thompson, of North Carolina, and Herb Thompson, of the Blue Devil quintet, drew the guard berths.

The balloting was done by the system of two votes for a first-string nomination, and one for a second. Seven coaches and two officials cast ballots for the mythical line-up. Coach Eddie Cameron and Jerry Gerard, one of the officials, did not vote, as it is the policy of the Duke Athletic association to refrain from picking all-star teams.

GOLF CANDIDATES IN CLOSE CONTEST FOR TEAM BERTHS

Roger Peacock and June Caldwell Form Strong Nucleus For 1939 Team

For the last few weeks, the 1939 golf squad has been getting in trim for the tournament to be run off south to determine the men who will play No. 3 and No. 4 man on the team. The loss of Freddie McCanles and Earl Stokes of last year's team necessitates this.

Last spring the combination of Peacock, Caldwell, McCanles, and Stokes proved a winning one. They won the State Intercollegiate title and were runners-up in the Southern Intercollegiate at Atlanta, losing by 640 to 641 at the hands of Carolina, whom they previously defeated in the State meet.

Of that team there remain Roger Peacock and June Caldwell, who will hold the number one and two positions on this season's foursome, in the order previously mentioned. They are both well experienced men. Peacock is District Champion of Washington as well as North Carolina Intercollegiate title holder. He played in the National Amateur at Baltimore, as did Caldwell. Duke was the only college to qualify two men in the national meet last year.

Caldwell will be playing his third year as a member of the Duke golf team. Bayard Storm has shown up fairly well in practice and should be able to fill the shoes that McCanles left vacant. Just who is to take Stokes' place cannot be told as yet, but from present indications it will be quite a scramble. The competition will be between Bud McLean, Jake Sullivan, Chase, Marjorie, Gilbert, and Lamar.

Live Lecture On Light Enlightens Listeners

Illumination Expert of Duke Power Company Entertains and Instructs Audience in Talk on Qualities of Light; Shows Many Interesting Effects

ROY A. PALMER, illumination expert of the Duke Power company, entertained and instructed a large and appreciative audience in the biology lecture room Monday night last, showing many uses and characteristics of light that are comparatively unknown to the average layman.

Mr. Palmer began the lecture by telling of the improvements that have taken place in the field of illumination in the past few years. He told of the great improvement that the present incandescent lamp has over the first carbon filament lamps that were used, and what a far greater improvement this was for the kerosene and gas lamps that were in use before the time of the first carbon lamp.

Improvements are being made continually along these lines and engineers are continually striving to obtain the maximum amount of power and to have the light without the harmful glare that is in the lamp now in use.

The use of light and illumination is divided into three fields, according to Mr. Palmer. The first, which is the most important, is the aid light gives in helping men to see. The next field is that of health, and the third and last field is beauty.

The use of light in the field of beauty proved to be the most interesting and most fascinating part of the lecture. Mr. Palmer showed several fresh effects that

QUINTESSANCE TO FINALS OF SOUTHERN TOURNAMENT

The second trip of the season to Washington proved less successful than the first. Maryland nosed out the Blue Devils, 30 to 28 for the locally first defeat. The following day the string Navy five doubled the score on Duke, 44 to 22.

Wake Forest and N. C. State were defeated in order in away games. Returning to their home court the Blue Devils trounced V. M. I. Carolina, beating of an undefeated record was defeated in the most exciting game ever played in the local gym.

A three day invasion of Virginia followed the brilliant victory over the Tar Heels. W. and L. P. I. and V. M. I. were defeated handily. Davidson was again dropped in a game played in the Duke gym.

The Blue Devils invaded the Tin Can at Chapel Hill and clinched the state championship by again defeating Carolina. The locals played at the peak of their form and outlasted the losers in every department of the game.

N. C. State gave Duke her only big five defeat by taking an upset victory, 40 to 28. The home court activities ended when the 1934 wonder team played the 1933 outfit in an effort to deliver, mine which was Duke's greatest team. The present Duke outfit was off form but managed to take a 30 to 27 victory over Crook and Councillor had been snuffed from the game via personal foul route.

Throughout the season the wonderful guarding of Herb Thompson and Phil Weaver accounted for a goodly portion of the victories. The passing and shooting of Horse, Hayes, and Jim Thompson and the excellent work of Lewis, Bell, and Clark in the role of substitutes were outstanding.

GUESS WHAT!

of the right man, material for the Duke varsity tennis team, so enthusiasm is not to be hesitant when the call comes. It won't be long now.

There have been many questions asked recently as to what sports will follow the handball and freestyle tournaments. Well, it seems that the next sport on the docket is swimming, the date of which event has not been definitely decided on by the director of intramural athletics, "Cerry" Gerard, but he has intimated that as soon as these previously mentioned sports were over, swimming would start. Anyone except the varsity swimming team may participate. So on your marks and get ready for the big swim, boys.

It would be of tremendous help to the intramural department if the fraternities would, when making entries, state the class to which the members of their team belong. It seems that there is some talk of keeping the points, also in relation to the class, as has been done in relation to fraternities, and individuals. This favor would facilitate matters greatly.

Southern conference meet this Saturday and the state championship on March 11th here. Duke won the state championship last year and seems slated to repeat, due to her two wins over N. C. State, the strongest competitor.

The summaries of the two meets follow:
Randolph-Macon
40 yard free style: Won by Clinton, (R. M.). second, O'Connor, (D. I.); third, Henry, (R. M.). Time, 21 seconds.

100 yard breast stroke: Won by Tennah, (R. M.). second, McManis, (D. I.) third, Ford, (R. M.). Time, 1:48.45.

150 yard back stroke: Won by Varada, (D. I.). second, Tennant, (D. I.); third, Perry, (R. M.). Time, 2:10.45.

The varsity football practice last Saturday showed some hand-daring playing. Lacey's absence, because of temporary injury, was quite evident by the play used. His running in scrimmage has shown a good improvement in his shifting and spinning from tacklers.

Freddie Lloyd played in tough back when he broke his hand in the boxing semi-finals. Chances were pretty good that he would have retained his bantamweight title.

Roy Alpert, when we all remember on the basketball and baseball teams last year, has gone out to Los Angeles for a tryout with the New York Giants before spring training. It's a long jump from collegiate baseball to pro ball, but Roy was one peach of a pitcher when he was here.

BLISSON:
Look at this remarkable lady... With three lovely and perfect heads... all attached to a normal body. She appears to sit on the stage, with the lower part of her body concealed by flowers. She can wink, smile, and nod. She can talk, laugh, and sing—all at the same time. Thousands of people have seen this feat of magic and pronounced it a wonderful sight!

EXPLANATION:
Audiences used to pay an extra fee to go behind the scenes to see how this trick was worked. They discovered that the three-headed woman was merely a reflection in a mirror. The glass showed the heads of three girls but the body of only one. The other two were cleverly hidden so that only their heads showed in the mirror.

QUADRANGLE PICTURES TO HOLD ANNUAL PARTY

Attractive and Varied Program Is Due For Dates of March 15, 16

Quadrangle Pictures' 75th Birthday Party, scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, March 15 and 16, will feature Jimmy Durante as "the peppy choice" for "The Phantom President," co-starring George M. Cohan. In addition to the particularly attractive screen program, including a Laurel & Hardy comedy, five stage acts are scheduled, including a minstrel by the Men's golf club, a concert-orchestra by The Duke Players, Paul Gyles—personality comedian, musical hits of recent years by a mixed chorus of 30 picked voices accompanied by a solo orchestra, and Edly Lettich and his augmented University Club orchestra in "Radio Rhythms." The first show on each of the two dates will begin at 2 p. m. The regular admission of 25c will apply with the exception of 100 reserved seats in the mezzanine. Tickets for reserved seats are now on sale at the box-office at Page auditorium.

Both Georgia teams were put out of the tourney in the first few rounds. Georgia Tech beat won a tournament game in so long that you have to drive in the records to find a victory. And another interesting point is the fact that changes of the previous year have gone out in the last round for the past four seasons.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

American men and women have smoked more billions of Camels than any other brand because of the appeal of more expensive tobaccos and matchless blending. Won't you stack up your own experience with a cigarette made from milder, costlier tobaccos... against magic claims about "cigarettes and your throat"?
