Dear Wholesale Customers, a.k.a Retailers,

Welcome to the new Wholesale Edition of our catalog!

This year, like last year, our Wholesale Catalog/Pricelist is bound into the center of the Fall-Winter Retail Catalog.

The Wholesale Catalog is in the center, printed on the DIFFERENTLY-COLORED PAGES! (pp. with "W" prefix)

The annotated Retail Catalog (surrounding the Wholesale Catalog) is printed on the WHITE PAGES! (pp. 1-44/45-88)

We're repeating this format this year, so that:

1. You can have easy reference to annotations;
2. You can have easy access to suggested retail prices;
(You may want to use the artist index...see p. 87)
3. Same-size pages make for easier handling; and,
4. Someone doesn't have to hand-staple 7,000 wholesale catalogs into 7,000 retail catalogs for mailing.

Please note that lots of information printed on the WHITE PAGES is for Retail Customers only (that's not you... remember, you're a Wholesale Customer), and we hope this doesn't confuse you! So, please pay attention to the color of the page; your prices are on the colored pages.

We appreciate any feedback you may have on this format.

Here's to wonderful holiday sales and seasons,

The Slippers

About Ladyslipper

Ladyslipper is a North Carolina non-profit, tax-exempt organization which has been involved in many facets of women's music since 1976. Our basic purpose has consistently been to heighten public awareness of the achievements of women artists and musicians, and to expand the scope and availability of musical and literary recordings by women.

One of the unique aspects of our work has been the tri-annual publication of the world's most comprehensive Catalog & Resource Guide of Recordings by Women -- the one you now hold in your hands. This annotated catalog has given hundreds of thousands of people information about and access to recorded works by an expansive variety of female musicians, writers, comics, and composers. Many public and university libraries have added large portions of the catalog to their collections; thus the recordings are accessible to much larger populations, and are archived at the same time.

We distribute recordings to book and record stores nationally and internationally. If you know of a store in your town you'd like to see stocking the titles in this catalog, please introduce us to each other! Additionally, we supply distributors with several labels and titles.

Ladyslipper is also a small independent label; our purpose is to further new musical and artistic directions for women musicians. We have issued albums by Kay Gardner, Nurudafina Pili Abena, Libana, Lisa Thiel, Rhiannon, Casselberry-DuPree, Ruth Barrett, Sue Fink, Beth York, and other innovative artists.

Our name comes from an exquisite flower which is one of the few wild orchids native to North America and is currently an endangered species.

Donations are tax-deductible, and we do need the help of friends to continue to grow. We also seek endowments and bequests... as we grow older, many of us are having our wills drawn up; and we would ask that if you would like to, please remember us in your will! Many organizations have retained their continuity down through the centuries by the generosity of supporters in this fashion.

As a tax-exempt organization, we are also eligible for grants. If you are a grant-writer, and know of an agency you think will fund us, and would like to help us out by writing and submitting a grant application for us, please write!

If you would like us to send any of your friends, relatives or colleagues a free copy of this catalog, please send us their names and addresses; stamps appreciated.

We hope you enjoy reading this catalog/ resource guide, listening to the recordings you purchase, and celebrating with us the continuation of a rich and diverse women's culture.

How Listings Are Organized

Recordings are organized into categories and then alphabetically by first name. We do this because as women, first names have been more truly our own. Our last names have usually been transferred to us in a patrilinear fashion; historically, husbands and fathers were legally the property owners of the women in their families; and sometimes surnames actually came from slave owners or immigration officers. So our alphabetization-by-first-name method is a small gesture toward acknowledging and altering these customs. Some artists have listings in more than one category. We don't have space to cross-reference, so be sure to check the artist index (which is alphabetical by last name), in addition to reading through the entire catalog at least once!

Come For a Visit

We hope you'll stop in for a visit whenever you're in the neighborhood. We have a comfortable Listening Room open to the public, where you can check out all those recordings you've been curious about, or even do your next Women in Music research project! We're open Mondays-Fridays from 10-7, and Saturdays 11-5. Our address is 613 Vickers Ave. in Durham... call us at (919) 683-1570 for directions. Hope to see you soon!

Readers' Comments

Here are some quotes from just a few of the letters we've received. We love hearing your thoughts, whatever they may be, so please keep those notes and letters coming - we really do appreciate them!

"Once again you women at Ladyslipper have proven to be a bastion of hope in what is the vast wasteland of popular, mainstream commercial music. Oh! What fun it is to step off the beaten path and canvass the alternative pages of your catalog when it arrives. I know I'll always find something of interest to me. So here's another order and a small donation. Keep up your fantastic work."

"When I become wealthy & affluent I shall be ordering your entire catalogue's worth of fabulous women artists."

"Your magazine in my opinion is blatantly outrageous. I can't believe you would mail your 'pro-lesbian' magazine to people who never requested it or wanted it - in my opinion that is inflicting your 'macho woman', pro-lesbian views to people who not only didn't ask, but to those who are opposed to this type of behavior. I find it sad that in your quest for happiness you feel engaging in Homosexuality is the answer. I'm enclosing some pamphlets I hope you will take the time to read them - I hope when you find in your quest for happiness & change you'll come to find the real love in Jesus you are obviously looking for."

"I don't know where you got my name but please keep sending me your catalog. I will pass your name on, & thank you from the bottom of my heart for connecting me to this astonishing network of nurturance & joy."

"I love what you do and how you do it! I love: how international your selection is; and how amazingly diverse; your helpful and tempting descriptions of each recording; your boldness and humor, the way they come through the catalog; and your optimism and never-flagging enthusiasm for women and music. I spend almost as much money as I do for my therapist, and it's worth it. Thanks for helping me learn about so many different cultures."

"I do not like this kind of mail - next time I get your catalog I am reporting it to the government."

"I just wanted to thank you for the catalogs you donated to our university Women's Center. They are a great addition to our library. I am reassured to know that there are still organizations committed to helping educate others."

"I want you to know how much I appreciate Ladyslipper. I am a college professor who teaches about Feminist Spirituality and I'm also very active in the local Goddess community. I have used the music I've gotten from Ladyslipper extensively for both."

"Anyone who would carry the trash I found in your catalog is not someone who would ever get any of my business. I sincerely hope you change the standards by which you choose your artists and their works, or go bankrupt."

"Thank you, thank you for your lightning-fast response to my order. I phoned you on October 29 and received my tapes on November 3."

"You people are truly doing something wonderful! There are few things I receive in the mail by which I am so deeply impressed. Stay strong."

"You made the holidays so much more fun for me and my friends."

"Because of your work & dedication to keep the music, words, spirituality and energy of women alive and available, you have directly touched these two lives and enriched them in ways I can't begin to explain."

"Three years ago, as a college senior, I had the radical notion of compiling a tape of songs by women. It was drawn from the small collection my roommates and I had gathered of New England & Celtic folk & modern rock, & I thought that was all there was! Later my coming out introduced me to womyn's music, but your catalog has shown me worlds I never knew existed! I am delighted (and, according to my lover, obsessed) by your catalog. Thank you for bringing me into the world of women's music & creativity!"

"Thank you so much for your wonderful catalog! It's such a wonderful day when it arrives - I drop everything else and pore through it for hours, and then have to be physically restrained by my friends from grabbing the phone and my credit card and charging up to my limit! Then, the next day I am usually calmer and can order a more reasonable amount (but never enough - I never can afford even what I absolutely can't live without!). The annotations are great for making those tough choices!"

"Please remove my name and address from your records - and please do not send anything like this to my home again. This is a respectable neighborhood and we are not leftist."

"I've read of your company on the Arts Club Bulletin Board of the Prodigy Network. It seems you have many satisfied customers who are spreading the word about your mail order service."

"I'm writing to let you know how pleased I am with your catalog and all it contains. I've been completely satisfied with every cassette I've ordered. I never used to listen to blues, jazz or gospel music... I never realized how limited my musical tastes were! I'm really happy to be on your mailing list and do, please keep up the good work!"

"(This Musical Month Club member) wanted me to say how much she appreciated this service. Her order nearly always arrives just around her period, & it's become something of a menstrual celebration for her."

"Ladyslipper, where have you been all my life?" - signed, Walter S., Chief of Police/ Firearms Instructor

"Your newest catalog arrived today! WOW! Needless to say (as always) it cost me $$$. I think I have it figured out! Your catalog is a subtle feminist PLOT against men like me. 1) You send me the catalog. 2) I buy too much and spend all my money. 3) I then have to beg my wife for pocket change (she works - she keeps her own bank account). 4) I'm at her mercy. 5) It's tough - being a slave!"

"I don't ever want to find another one of your perverted catalogs in my mailbox! Peddle your filth in hell! I'm sure there will be many takers there. Shame on you for selling/marketing products promoting/supporting homosexuality, Wicca, Sorcery, meditation, 'self-help' etc. in a 'Holiday' Catalog - a Holiday honoring the birthday of the Son of God, my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. SHAME ON YOU for peddling Satan's trash but especially so during this most Holy Season. This is equivalent to crucifying my Lord over and over again."

"Just a short note to say I'm so glad to be on your mailing list. I'm a student and can't afford much, but I'm so goddamn mad that the family values anti-gay initiative passed in this state that this is what I'm doing to be good to myself."

"I just wanted to make sure that you realize there are males out here - straight at that! - who are always delighted to see a new Ladyslipper catalog arriving, and who only regret that there's never enough money to order all the things that just can't be found anywhere else."

"Everybody else said the CD didn't even exist! Thank you thank you!"

Mailing List Information

If you have never received a Ladyslipper Catalog before this one and have never requested one by phone or mail, or if you picked this one up at a concert or event without signing the Ladyslipper Mailing List, chances are excellent that you're not on our mailing list.

If you'd like to be, because you plan to order in the future, please fill out and mail in the above form. We're glad to send catalogs to friends too; donations of a few dollars for each help defray printing and mailing costs.

If you received this catalog in the mail but do not want to be on our mailing list, check the code above your name on the mailing label. If it doesn't begin with SBT, CW, LR, or LS, you are probably NOT on our mailing list, but rather on someone else's list that we mailed to on a one-time basis. You should contact the companies you order from through the mail, and publications you subscribe to, and ask them not to exchange or rent your name to other organizations.

If you are ordering from us and do not want to occasionally receive mail from other like-minded organizations (all exchanges or rentals are always for one-time use only -- your name would never become part of someone else's permanent file under any circumstance), ask when you order to be on our "Privacy List".

Some of you will receive more than one catalog, because you're on mailing lists of several organizations in addition to ours. We try to eliminate as many duplicates as possible, but the computers don't catch them all, so would appreciate if you'd circulate extra catalogs to friends.

Anonymous 4

On Yoolis Night

Subtitled Medieval Carols & Motets, this 1993 release follows the phenomenal success of "An English Lady's Mass," the debut album by this women's vocal ensemble, with a program of plainchant, songs, motets, and carols from English sources. The music illuminates aspects of the Christmas story and its many kindred legends: biblical precursors, Balaam's prophecy, Gabriel's greeting, Mary's virginity, the birth of Jesus, the rising of the star, the angels and the shepherds, the manger and its animals, the three Magi and their gifts. They have dispelled the myth that medieval chant is the sole domain of male voices! (HMU7099) CS: 12.95 ... CD: 17.95

The Barok Folk

Come Let Us Be Merry

Prior to the 19th century, Christmas carols were dance tunes with lyrics added. The old French verb "caroler" meant "to dance in a ring"; a "caroleur" was not a singer but a dancer. The Barok Folk trio (Carrie Crompton, Celia Wyckoff and Michael Rose) presents a program of lively and lovely instrumental dance tunes from England, Scotland, Ireland and France, performed on hammered and fretted dulcimers, recorders, viol, guitar and piano. You'll recognize a few, but many will become new additions to your carol vocabulary, as they bring a dancing spirit to your holidays. (MLP409) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 14.95

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's

Gregorian Chant: Christmas Chant

These timeless medieval chants from the Christmas Liturgy, sung in the original Latin, express a rare serene, spiritual beauty; recorded live at St. Cecilia's Abbey, Isle of Wight. (NW154) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

The Capitol Steps

All I Want For X-Mas/A Tax Increase

The Steps are in rare form for this 1993 release. Parents won't want to miss it's Time for Killa' Barney — I know this non-parent loved it. Other spoofs hit on Tipper Gore's rating system for music and the ever so popular Don't Ask, Don't Tell policy... and of course, Let Perot and Gun Nuts Boasting They Can Open Fire. A sure-to-be favorite though is the kind, gentle reminder that George Is Home This Christmas. 32 jingles in all — a spoof for everyone, and to all a good night! (CS1013) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Deborah Henson-Conant/Schawkie Roth

Flute and Harp for Christmas

Deborah's harp is truly music from heaven on these traditional Christmas carols... and if you've heard Schawkie Roth, you know he's one of the most amazing flutists on earth. The songs have an almost eerily haunting, wistful quality to them; the phrasing, tones, timbres, embellishments, arrangements are exquisite, radiating perfection. And since ancient days, their instruments have been the ones most often used to soothe and uplift the soul. Recommended! (HM0118) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Primarily keyboards, acoustic and electronic, plus bagpipes, light percussion and strings, includes a selection from Handel's Water Music, 2 Romanian carols adapted by Bela Bartok, a Polish lullaby, and a Mexican carol. Highly recommended! (INV119) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Klezmer Conservatory Band

It's about time, in all this Jewish joy can say, Klezmer is jazz-tinged Yiddish music which originated in the old country — Eastern Europe — and was further developed by Jewish immigrants in the first part of this century. Primary instruments are woodwinds, horns, violins, accordion, mandolin, drums, bass, piano; the energy and spirit is among the highest of any style. This recording, by a band of 15 women and men, contains celebratory instrumentals, informative narratives, and strong vocals by Judy Bressler. Loreena McKennitt

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with viols, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Glenstal Abbey in Limerick and Gwylph Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Seasons, Baluagow, Let All That Are to Birth Inclined. (QR182) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lorie Line
Sharing the Season

This pianist-arranger got her start playing for shoppers in a mall... and went on to produce a highly successful "line" of albums of instrumental piano music. She presents Christmas classics (even Bach's Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring) in an expressive, melodic mode, some with shades of a piano bar night club sound, perfect for unwinding, relaxing, romancing, or just watching the snowflakes fall. If your holiday time is frenzied enough to send you in search of some chill-out holiday music, this is perfect. 15 selections in all, featuring Lorie's piano with some soft accompaniment on violin, recorders, guitar, sax, oboe, percussion. (TLP03) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone
Sounds of the Season

This magnificent album of Traditional Christmas Carols and Dances with Hammered Dulcimer, Celtic Harp, and Other Instruments can be enjoyed all throughout the year, because of the fresh interpretations to both familiar and unusual tunes. Some carols, originally danced in ancient times, are recreated with the joyous rhythms of the citern and Irish drum. Baroque-style medieval pieces are elegantly enhanced with recorder, viola da gamba, and finger cymbals; most of the musicians are women. Maggie's artistry on the hammered dulcimer, with all its inventiveness and musical expression, really shines through. Highly recommended! (MM103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone
Sounds of the Season II

This companion volume to the highly successful Sounds of the Season is a fresh collection of Christmas carols featuring hammered dulcimer, solo and with Celtic harp, recorders, viola da gamba, zorb (an Arab drum) and other traditional instruments. Maggie Sansone & Ensemble Galilei
Ancient Noels

Haunting gregorian-style chants, medieval hymns and dancing carols evoke images of ancient civilizations, desert landscapes, and stone monasteries... This 1993 instrumental release is an exciting and upbeat collection of primarily little-known carols from England, Ireland, Holland, medieval Spain and its Basque country. The folk/classical arrangements are performed on a wonderful array of instruments, including hammered dulcimer, medieval and Renaissance frame drums, treble and bass viols, Celtic harp, fiddle, psaltery and recorders. (MM108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Margie Rosenthal & Ilene Satyan

This tape contains 15 gentle songs which tell the story of the Festival of Lights, to be enjoyed by adults and children alike, with accompaniment by guitar and flute. One of the definite highlights is Malvina Reynolds' Eight Candles (how many of you knew she wrote Chanukah music?). Includes material in both English and Hebrew. Fills a definite gap. (RSP11) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Marimba Quest
Christmas Carnival

This marimba-plus ensemble releases a unique holiday album for 1992: it contains 4 beautiful Latin American carols from Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Peru and Argentina, plus 6 traditional Christmas tunes. Several of the songs embody a strong "world" flavor, such as Jingle Bells, which receives a mambo treatment! The distinct dual marimba sound is backed by percussion, bass and nylon-string guitar. On a few selections, flutist and recorder-player Madelyn Bianchetti joins the trio (Alice Gomez, Marilyn Rife, and Michael Richter). (TT115) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Meg Bowles
Solstice Dreams

Unusual and evocative arrangements of both traditional Christmas music and beautiful original compositions inspired by the essence of the Winter Solstice. This talented composer-synthesist began her journey as a flutist, and progressed through advanced studies of shamanic healing and Jungian psychology... sensibilities she imparts through her electronically-produced music. Perhaps loveliest are her serene and majestic original composition Solstice Chant, and her cosmic versions of Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring and Carol of the Bells. (KUM384) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mitzie Collins/ R. Ziegler/ G. Dove
Rejoice

With the addition of a cello quartet and guitar as well as arrangements by award-winning composer Cary Ratcliff, this 4-woman collaboration yields some of the prettiest Christmas this reviewer has ever heard... 18 pieces, primarily from central and eastern European traditions, including the Basque carol Companions, All Sing, The Carol of the Beggars; The Snow Lay On the Ground from Italy's Abruzzi mountain region; Scotland's Baloo Linn, and the Catalonian Fum, Fum, Fum, plus 2 tunes from the American South. Odette
Christmas Spirituals

This collection of Black American spirituals, while appropriate to the holiday season, is a pleasure all year, because none of these gospel songs are specifically about Christmas! Odette harnesses her deep, distinctive, flexible, far-ranging, bone-shaking voice with passion and sensitivity, making spirituals like Go Tell It On the Mountain and Shout For Joy fresh and inspiring with her brilliant interpretations. Recommended! (ALC106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

In addition to Kwanzaa, she shares stories about Chanukah, Christmas, Las Posadas, and Winter Solstice... and includes a folktale from the Cherokee nation, as well as a Liberian version of the Jesus story. She accompanies her entrancing stories with vocals, shawere and balafon. (OPA1) CS: 9.98

The Roches We Three Kings

A full 60 minutes (24 songs) of Roches-style holiday cheer here, and if you haven't heard this but are familiar with their earlier work, simply recall their awe-some rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus: that's the full-choir treatment they endow these songs with. They throw in a few zany versions of familiar tunes for good measure, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say that it's not always clear which are tongue-in-cheek, and that's okay... because it all feels good, like joy, which is the point anyway. (MCA1002) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 15.98

Seattle Men's Chorus Snowbound

The nation's largest gay chorus (170 voices!) captures the holiday spirit in this 1991 release, with songs ranging from traditional selections to the Christmas Cantata. (SMC2) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Singh Kaur, Dean Evenson, D'Rachael What Child Is This?

Anyone who has enjoyed the Crimson series of chant tapes by Kim Robertson and Singh Kaur knows the incredible, exquisitely angelic sounds this vocalist can impart, and here she alchemically turns traditional carols into transcendent, totally peaceful experiences. Accompaniment consists of flute, harp, mandolin and bells, with many improvisational/vocalization breaks. A few of the selections are instrumental. 60 minutes. Heavenly! (SOP1137) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Solstice Assembly/Band of Ages/Buds Three Log Night

The Solstice Assembly is an 18-member mixed-gender vocal ensemble, directed by Jane Peppier. Here they perform gorgeous holiday music, much of which you may not have heard before, from early music to Hanukkah songs, shape note hymns, obscure NC songs, and some British Isles favorites like Gaudete. 25 songs in all. They say, "We hope you're tired of bloodless New Age Christmas recordings suitable for the waiting room, and want to have your socks knocked off. People who've bought this tape are playing it over and over, even in the summer. Buy early so when you fall in love with it there'll be time to order one for everyone on your list." (SKY1) CS: 9.98

South Coast Choral Christmastime

This 24-voice mixed chorus is a member of the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses, and their 1994 release presents a lovely mixture of cultures. It opens with Hiney Mah Tov, a traditional Hebrew song, and progresses through the beautiful chant Ubi Caritas; the 7-movement Seven Joys of Christmas, which was written as an a cappella work for women's chorus; and many others, including Coming Out at Christmas and Holiday Brunch, otherwise known as "Two Gay Carols." Recorded live in concert in December, 1993. (SCC1200) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Includes the classical music parody Pachelbel's Tantrum; The 12 Days of Analysis; and their generic holiday song, Happy Whatever You're Having. And they hereby introduce their 4th member, Mary Reynolds — their hit-notherapist. Give the gift of head-shrinking this holiday season... Therapy Sisters style! (TS1005) CS: 9.98

Therese Schroeder-Shaker In Dulci Jubilo

We call this a holiday recording, but you may well inquire "exactly which holiday?" after listening and reading! Therese has an in-depth appreciation for Christianity's origins in Goddess and nature religions; and many of her selections reflect her own personal devotion "to all things Marian"... in other words, this is more about Mary than about Jesus! With her sublime, seraphic voice and impeccably played medieval and renaissance harp, psalteries, recorders and bells, she performs: The Holly and the Ivy (with subtle Grail and Goddess overtones); Down in Yon Forest (contrasts a fully developed Grail-epic imagery with the ancient nature's May Queen, all the while remembering the Nativity); the Salve Mater (a more recent processional hymn in praise of Mary); and more. Highly recommended! (CEL039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa Memorabilia Navidena

This 8-song 1992 release grew out of a 4-song Christmas card cassette Tish had sent to friends and relatives the previous year. Fans learned of its existence, and high demand necessitated its commercial release, much to our pleasure! Her gorgeous voice, sweet acoustic guitar and understated backup band evoke a multicultural Christmas celebration which combines the two languages of Texas/Tejas and contrasts the contemporary with the past, includes Arbolito (Little Christmas Tree) in both languages, Milagro, A La Noiva Nana (a traditional Spanish lullaby). Recommended highly! (WAT1006) CS: 7.98 ... CD: 13.98

Various Artists Where's My Pony?

A delightfully sardonic, sarcastic X-mas compilation by a bunch of Austin bands — and 7 of the 9 regular tracks are by female artists or groups (and there's a 10th track, but it's a surprise holiday gift to you!). Lynn Keller's band, St. Cecilia, opens the tape with Fagan X-mas, and Austin's favorite female punk band, Fork, sings out with I've Got Baby Jesus in My Car, giving the true, raw picture of what it's like to ride around with baby Jesus on X-mas. In between, Girls in the Nose sing More Mackinac, Less Jesus, especially poignant during the Yule; Terri Lord sings about The Immaculate Deception (Mary Ain't a Virgin); Emily Kutz gives the real scoop on why Santa missed his kias, in Standing Under the Mistletoe; and more! Sure to brighten up any dull, listless holiday spirit. (STB1) CS: 9.98

A quartet of 2 women and 2 men, Turtle specializes in the folk songs of the Sephardic Jews who were expelled from Spain and Portugal during the 15th centuries; this live recording is Volume 5 of their Songs of the Sephardim series. They combine vocal harmonies with exotic historical instruments (such as oud, shawm, soprano chalumeau, saz, baglamas), reflecting the traditions of the Sephardim, preserving both the Judeo-Spanish culture and those of the lands through which they travelled while in exile. Songs are performed in Ladino and Hebrew. An unusual and historic Hanukkah gift! (T1159) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Althea Waites

Black Diamonds/ Florence Price

Virtuoso pianist Althea Waites (who also played with Kay Gardner on Mooncircles) focuses on music by Florence Price, an outstanding, trail-blazing, African-American classical woman composer. Born in 1898, Florence began composing at age 11 and continued to write symphonies, chamber works, arrangements for spirituals, and solo piano works until her death in 1953; among her influences were the urzeit, activism and the cultural movement called the Harlem Renaissance in the 1920s. This very lovely and accessible recording includes Sonata in E Minor, The Old Boatman, Cotton Dance, Dances in the Canebrakes. The CD also contains compositions by 3 other African American composers: Margaret Bonds, William Grant Still, and Ed Bland. Very highly recommended for both new and seasoned listeners of classical music. (CAM1027) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Amy Beach

Grand Mass in E-Fiat Major

"Mrs. (H. H. A.) Beach was an American composer at a time when an American composer could not be taken seriously as an artist. And she did it anyway. Mrs. Beach was a serious composer in an age where there was no such thing as a serious woman composer. And she did it anyway. They called her Mrs. Ha Ha Beach. And she did it anyway. She did it anyway. And her life is a story of success," wrote Michael May of the Michael May Festival Chorus, the performers here. We're glad that more and more works by this prolific Romantic composer (1867-1944) are being brought to the public's attention. She composed this unusual, non-traditional, exuberant mass — with chants, chorals, organ and percussion into which she incorporated some waltz and jazz elements (as revolutionary then as a rock mass would be now... as per Sister Act) — at age 18. A footnote is that her use of the name Mrs. was actually a bold move at the time, because she was making her gender unmistakable during an era when most women composed and published under male pseudonyms. (NC60008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Love's Illusion - Montpellier Codex

"Geniuses of song who deserve celebration... Their voices soaring higher than medieval spires, they offer a glimpse into the spiritual side of femininity." On this 1994 release, the ensemble's alto and 3 sopranos perform a radiant collection of 13th-century French songs and motets on the art of courtly love. (HMU7109) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 13th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoire. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1992 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly presented with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU7000) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

The Ars Femina Ensemble

Non Tacete! (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Nannerl, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself... and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 8 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Cantata by Bianca Maria Meda, an Ursuline nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1688 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica", a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented; and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! (MAN002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Women Composers for Organ

Spanning the music of 5 centuries, this 1993 release includes music of Fanny Mendelssohn, Amy Beech, Clara Schumann and 12 other noted women composers, including the performer herself. Recorded using the magnificent 1971 Schantz Organ, the album presents the more traditional works with a lovely, rich fullness of sound, and enhances the fascinating effects and unusual use of stops in the more modern compositions. This is one project of several which demonstrates Barbara's commitment to women composers, so that they may find the public appreciation and support which they so richly deserve. 72 minutes. (GSR294) CD: 15.98

18 C Harpsichord/ Women Composers I

This unique series by harpsichord master Barbara Harbach brings to light works by several neglected 18th century women composers who wrote for solo harpsichord. Back then, society didn't approve of professional women composers (big surprise); so while their male counterparts wrote for the church or courts, these women wrote for themselves, informal salons and each other, and therefore had more freedom to be innovative... and so they introduced new twists of harmony and melody. This volume includes beautiful works by Cecilia Maria Bartholomew, Marianne Martinez, Marianne d'Auenbrug, Elisabeth de Gannari, and Mary Hester Park. 66 min. Recommended! (KIN2010) CD: 15.98

Bay Area Women's Philharmonic

The Women's Philharmonic

Conducted by JoAnn Falletta, this 1992 album features the works of Lili Boulanger (D'un Soir d'été and D'un Matin de Printemps), Fanny Mendelssohn (Overture), Clara Schumann (Piano Concerto in A Minor, Opus 7), and Garmaine Jullienne (Concertino for Harp and Orchestra). It's a lovely recording, ranging from the stately to inebriated to sprightly, skillfully blended and presented by this country's premier women's orchestra. Features Angela Cheng on piano and Gillian Benet on harp. (KQC7159) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Baroque Treasures

This long-awaited release, which we welcome with open arms, contains brilliantly executed 18th century works by women composers: Marianne Martinez, Camilla de Roess, Mire Duval, Maddalena Laura Lombardi Sirmen, and Elizabeth Jacquet de la Guerre. Four of the five works were first performed in the US by this orchestra; all the composers represented were noted in their time, although little is now known about some of them. Conducted by JoAnn Falletta, the Bay Area Women's Philharmonic was founded in 1980 by Miriam Abrams to promote women composers, conductors and performers. 75 minutes. Highly recommended! (NC60102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Benedictine Sisters of Atchison KS

Ave Maria: Greg. Chants w/Waterfall

This 1994 release combines the rich, cathedral sounds of Gregorian chants with beautifully layered sounds of nature. The gorgeous packages include rare English translations of the Latin, giving new and deeper understanding to this peaceful music. Included: Tota Pulchra Es O Maria (You Are All Beautiful, O Mary), Ave Maria (Hail Mary), and other chants. (INV1102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gregorian Chant: Ave Maria

The calm, stilling voices of the nuns of St. Cecilia's Abbey on the Isle of Wight radiate purity of heart and the depth of their devotion; ancient and timeless. (NW150) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gregorian Chant: Venite Ad Me

Beautiful medieval compositions sung by the calm, stilling voices of the Benedictine Nuns, radiating a purity of heart and a sense of attainment, with a depth of devotion and peace that is almost unparalleled. These chants are from the Feast of the Sacred Heart. (NW151) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gregorian Chant: Adorate Deum

These Gregorian chants from the liturgical year — Advent, Christmas, Lent/Holy Week, and Eastertide — are sung in the original Latin by the Nuns in their own Abbey, with chants and texts which vary in character according to the liturgical season or theme. Centering and uplifting. (NW155) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cello

Cello is an all-women cello quartet, and they perform an interesting mixture of contemporary, classical and jazz compositions, by composers such as Bela Bartok (Hungarian Peasant Songs), Miles Davis (So What), Claude Debussy (Sarabande), and even Lennon-McCartney (Eleanor Rigby). The digital recording features innovative arrangements and excellent musicianship. (PRO500) CD: 15.98

Deborah Friou

Renaissance Muse

This solo Celtic harp album features elegant, courtly dance music and lyric ballads of the 16th and 17th centuries, drawn from the lute repertoire of England, Italy and Scotland, and the French dance scores of Preterius and Gervaise. Her arrangements and technique are spectacular, so it comes as no surprise that she has spent over 15 years teaching Celtic harp; not that her book, Harp Exercises for Agility and Speed, is highly regarded by harp teachers and students throughout the world. Her contemporary recreation of this music will transport the listener to another time — highly recommended! (TSN411) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ensemble Alcatraz Visions and Miracles

This collection of Galician and Latin sacred songs from 13th-century Spain — a period of a remarkable and productive mixing of cultures — is undoubtedly one of the more unusual and intriguing offerings in our catalog! This Bay Area quintet specializes in medieval and Renaissance music from Spain, Portugal, France and Italy — "alcatraz" is an early Iberian word for "pelican," itself an early religious symbol. Some of you will recognize Cheryl Ann Fulton's medieval harp — she records Celtic and other harp music as a solo artist — members also include Susan Rode Morris, soprano; Kit Higginson, recorders and psalter; Shira Kammen, viola, rebec and lute; and Peter Maund, percussion. Extensive, eloquent and excellent notes included; very recommended! (EL79180) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Sequentia Symphonies: Spiritual Songs

This recording of spiritual songs combines texts and music in praise of the female virtues who figure prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Mary, the virgin who inhabits heavenly realms at the end of time; St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered a feminine deity. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harps, psalteries, lutes, flutes, and symphony. (DHM77020) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen Ordo Virtutum (2-Set)

This double set includes Ordo Virtutum, one of Hildegard's mystery plays, in which she confronts the Devil and her own temptations, ultimately triumphing over them. Also included is the musical ensemble Sequentia performing medieval sequences — the most significant poetical and musical form of the Middle Ages — with lute, psalter, flute, harp and hurdy-gurdy. Once again available! (DHM77051) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphonia of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. Currently a renewal of interest is occurring in this composer, though her works are hard to come by. (HYP66039) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 18.98

Kronos Quartet et al Pieces of Africa

This is a beautiful and unique 1992 release, which like many of today defies categorization, so here it lives for now. Kronos Quartet is a 3-woman 3-man classically-trained string quartet (2 violins, viola and cello) from the US, known for their interpretations of world folk music. Here they perform songs by African composers, most with the composers also contributing musically to the performances, vocally and instrumentally. The sounds are stunning blends of cultures, or perhaps the creation of something new from traditional elements — much like the patchwork quilt design suggested by the cover art. Commentary from the composers is included. (EL79275) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Macalester Trio Chamber Works by Women Composers

This 2-CD boxed set contains over 140 minutes (71) of music composed for piano, violin, and cello by the following women: Clara Schumann, Amy Beach, Germaine Tailleferre, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hanseel, Teresa Carreno, and Cecile Chaminade. Several of these compositions have been rarely (or never) previously performed, and demonstrate the creativity of the composers. Booklet with autobiographical information included. (VOX5029) CD: 15.98

Musica Femina

Returning the Muse to Music

Janna (on classical guitar) and Kristan (on flute) blend lovely classical and new age sounds by historical and contemporary women composers on this 1992 release. Featured are a commissioned piece by Theresa Effelt; compositions by Theresa Clark; Isabella Leonardi, the early Baroque Italian nun composer; Maria Theresia von Paradis of 18th century Vienna; a few by Janna, including Tremolo for Kristan, a gorgeous guitar solo. Demonstrates the strength, beauty, and diversity of acoustic instrumental music by women. (LIL3) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heartstreams

On this 1993 release, our favorite flute/guitar classical duo presents a lively variety original "new acoustic" instrumental music — drawing upon Janna MacAulian and Kristan Aspen's backgrounds in both folk and classical genres. Compositions include: Blooming, a tribute to women healers who were burned as witches; and a celebration of contemporary women's circle energy worldwide. Open Door: inspired by the fear and elation of "coming out of the closet"; April Rye, a Renaissance-like dance with variations; Ocean Moon Chant, a simple musical line written at the ocean and performed here as a 20th-century minimalist piece. De Mi Corazon, a very romantic musical valentine from Janna to Kristan; and many more. As a whole, the album communicates the artists' joys and struggles of nurturing a long-term loving relationship with each other and with the Earth. Serene and beautiful (and somewhat reminiscent of the beloved early Kay Gardner/ Meg Christian instrumental duets — if you loved Lunamuse, you'll love this); highly recommended! (LILA) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg Vivaldi: The Four Seasons

The fire, the intense emotionality of this young violinist (her nickname is Flash!), combined with her fierce virtuosity, has caught the attention of audiences from within the classical world and without... who respond to her strong, adroitly, here-spirited, and feminist presence. She was born in Rome to an Italian-American mother and Russian father, and made her debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra at age 10. Here she performs one of the most popular of all Baroque compositions... Antonio Vivaldi's pictures of chirping springtime birds, thunderstorms of summer, autumn merriment and the chills of winter are etched vividly in Nadja's unique and passionate style of playing. She leads and solo with the New York-based Orchestra of St. Luke. Highly recommended! (ANG45767) CD: 17.98

Nancy Fierro, pianist

Riches & Rags: Piano Music by Women

18th- through 20th-century female composers are represented on this album recorded in 1992, performed by pianist Nancy Fierro, an acknowledged expert on music by women. Included are nocturnes, mazurkas, etudes, sonatas, scherzos, and ragas, by nine different composers, truly representing A Wealth of Piano Music by Women in its range of style and emotion. Perhaps most beautiful (at least to this listener) are the brilliant, expressive etudes by Maria Agata Szymanowska and the Quatre Pieces Fugitives by Clara Wieck Schumann, but the works by less well-known composers are equally important. (ARS2001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Otra Harnoy

Vivaldi — Cello Concertos

The leading lady of the cello, born in Israel and residing in Canada, presents five Vivaldi concertos for cello and one for cello and bassoon, accompanied by the Toronto Chamber Orchestra. Her musical intensity and exquisitely impeccable phrasing and tone will demonstrate why she is one of the world's greatest cellists. (RCA7774) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sharon Isbin

J.S. Bach: Complete Lute Suites

Sharon "ripples through chains of arpeggios, trills like a master and provides a wizardly flexibility of phrasing." — We are always pleased to offer you works by virtuosos instrumentalists, especially in this case: classical guitarist Sharon Isbin. This 1993 album was chosen as Gramophone Magazine's "Critics' Choice Recording of the Year" and CD Review's "Editors' Choice Best Recording." — how could we anything but recommend it! (VIR5953) CD: 17.98

Soeur Marie Keyrouz

Chant Byzantin

Exquisitely mysterious and beautiful Byzantine chant music is performed here by a member of the Lebanese community of the Order of the Sisters of Basil. She is a scholar of Byzantine and Gregorian chant as well as western plainsong, and is well-known in her own country and in parts of western Europe where she often gives concerts. The chants incorporate Arabic/Middle Eastern tones and scales, perhaps typical of Eastern Orthodox liturgical traditions, very haunting and intense! The material relates to the passion and resurrection of Christ; translations are given in English, French and German, though we are unsure about the language in which she is singing — Latin? — it hardly matters, it's so beautiful. Recommended! (HMU1315) CD: 17.98

Traditional Maronite Chant

With some lovely accompaniment by 6 vocalists plus instruments of the Near and Middle East — nay, od, qanun and percussion — Sister Marie Keyrouz presents Maronite liturgical singing, several in recent Arabic texts, plus a few examples from the Syrian Christian and Syrian Orthodox repertoires. Texts and translations included. (HMU1350) CD: 17.98

Melchite Sacred Chant

Subtitled Hymns to the Blessed Virgin/Hymnes à la Vierge, this Lebanese-born nun offers us, with a program of chants from the Melchite rite (the Arabic name for the Byzantine Church), a personal interpretation of the repertory dedicated to the Virgin Mary. Included are Hymn to the Blessed Virgin, Office of the Nativity of the Mother of God, and more, in the haunting Arabic scales; texts and translations included. (HMU1497) CD: 17.98

The Toronto Consort

Full Well She Sang

Subtitled Women's Music from the Middle Ages & Renaissance, this exceptional 1993 release from an award-winning Canadian ensemble features early music by or about women — much of it seldom heard, and most never before recorded. Included are solo songs with lute and viola, madrigals for 4 and 5 voices, recorder solos and consorts, and dance music by such "star" composers as German mystic Hildegard of Bingen... Barbara Strozz, virtuosa singer and composer of late Renaissance Italy... Francesca Caccini, who composed the first opera performed outside of Italy... and several by "Anonymous." Whether sacred or secular, the compositions weave a colorful tapestry from women's talents and aspirations. Texts and translations included; very highly recommended. (SRC005) CD: 15.98

Virginia Eskin, pianist

Fluffy Ruffle Girls: Women/Ragtime

Over 150 women composed and published ragtime music — a very disciplined and structured, almost classical form — around the turn of the century, but only recently has this fact been unearthed. It's the old, too-familiar story: many composed under pseudonyms, or with initials, or never had their works published. Here the acclaimed pianist plays 23 of the best of these catchy, tuneful, gorgeously swaying pieces by the most important female-composer-pianists of that era; a dozen composers are represented, about whom biographical info was difficult to come by. Previously released under the title Pickles & Peppers; CD has 3 extra tracks. (NE9003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Youra Guller

The Art of Youra Guller 1895-1980

Youra Guller, daughter of Russian and Rumanian parents who had emigrated to Paris, was widely known as a legendary pianist... and to listen to this disc, recorded in analog in 1975 (when she was 80!), is to understand and be awestruck by her intensity and virtuosity. Inside are photos of tributes from the likes of Pablo Casals, Yehudi Menuhin, Igor Stravinsky, Albert Einstein and such; so why does so little of her legacy remain? The selections are complex, emotional, gorgeous (one of the most beautiful piano albums I've listened to), with pieces by Chopin, Bach, Couperin, Granados, and other classical and romantic composers. Most highly recommended, for both sheer listening and for recovering the recognition women virtuosos deserve! (NIM5030) CD: 14.98

Barbara Borden I Always Wanted To Play Drums

This is an instructional tape for beginning trap drummers, by one of the most exciting and proficient drummers around. She begins with an exercise to relax the body (to a hot percussive accompaniment—beats any exercise tape we've heard!), continues through theory, time divisions, call and response, and free drumming. Her instruction is very animated, even if you never thought you wanted to be a drummer, listening to this may change your mind! (PAR1) CS: 9.98

Betsy Sansby & Alan Dworsky Conga Drumming (Book & CD/Tape Set)

Want to learn conga drumming? Here's the perfect way to begin! Subtitled A Beginner's Guide to Playing With Time, this complete step-by-step course on conga drumming features charts which are big and easy to understand, instructions which are clear and accessible to the non-musician, and a CD or tape (narrated by Alan) which contains samples of all 175 rhythms included in the book. The authors say, "The conga drum grabbed us a few years back and plunged us deep into the magical world of Afro-Cuban rhythms. It was as if after a lifetime of singing in unison we had suddenly discovered harmony. We found a way to meditate that didn't require silence, a source of community that didn't require words, and a wellspring of pleasure that never ran dry." Don't wait to get started! (DAN8801) CS: 24.98... CD: 24.98

Beverly Botsford/ Khalid Saleem Rhythms of Life

We don't get many percussion tapes, and it's a pleasure to include one from a local Durham NC duo. Inspired by West African traditions, the pieces wind through a variety of pace and emotion, utilizing a diversity of instruments: djembe, balafon, flute, sanza, gongong, kelin (log drum), bells, donno, djundun, songba, shekere, and agogo, to name a dozen... includes Celebration, Foto Funk, Cote D'Ivoire Inspiration. Cover art by "Goddess Storyteller" Louise Kessel. A great album for moving and/or perceiving along... Recommended! (RHY1) CS: 9.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing, as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a half hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin... with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk"), and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. (BME10) CS: 10.98

Carola Grey Noisy Mama

Yes, we know this is a jazz album, it's just that the drumming is so fantastic and primary to the compositions (Carola wrote most of the songs), that we had to bring it to you percussion fanatics' attention! Born in Germany and drumming since her teens, she now leads a NYC jazz band, and if you've never heard of her, that's OK; soon she'll be legendary! Introduction Bedside Story contains a most amazing drum solo which leads into some of the smoothest horn-based acoustic pop we've heard! Eight tracks in all, including the dynamic Don't Play It Again, Sam, the satiny Black Beauty, and the joyous Melange. (JL1130) CD: 15.98

EarthSpirit Community Tribal Drums

Recorded live at The Tribal Dance during the 1988 Twilight Covering of the EarthSpirit Community, an international network of Pagans and other nature-oriented people. Lots of percussion instruments here: doumbek, conga, frame drum, bongos, agogo, clave, tambourine, berimbau, claves, to name several! — played by both women and men of the Coyote Clan. And, a variety of cultures' rhythms are represented; includes Haitian Rhythm, African Rhythm, Brazilian Rhythm, even Waitz! Some of proceeds benefit the Northeast Council of Covenant of the Goddess. (ESC2) CS: 9.98

Edwina Lee Tyler Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of djembe drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals; we've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "the cool side," and progressively heats things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage) as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wade in the Water) and a West African song (Ki Yai Ki Yai). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive... in your mind and your body! (PPQ1) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-trance music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of asheiko or djembe, Taps drum, kühembe, log drum, toke, jun-jun, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Eterna. We have nothing else like this in our catalog... let yourself loose with this one! (RAV02) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume, it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV03) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Bones

"...a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! (RAV04) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Ritual

Subtitled "...of remembrance for a forgotten earth, this is trance music for movement, massage, meditation and other rituals of remembrance. Extraordinary sounds of percussion are embellished with viola, cello, synthesizer and vocal chants. (RAV05) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Waves

Haunting and uptempo, this 1991 release seduces the listener into an ecstatic whirlpool. A dervish wind blowing through a rising tide of rhythm and voice, the dance it evokes is joyful, abandoned and tribal. Selections include Invocation, Surrender, Waves, Ecstasy, Trance, Spirit. (RAV07) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Luna

Gabrielle graces us with a 1994 release that is remarkably female-inspired, from the cover art to the album title to the song titles (Mother Night, Persephone Song). This percussive brew weaves a sensuous web of mystery and delight that echoes deep into our ancestral bones and celebrates the dawn and dusk of our humanity. (RAV12) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors
Trance

This 1992 release is "trance" dance music that calls the soul into the body, the body into the beat and the beat into the belly... it explores primal dance rhythms and ecstatic trances. Great for dancing around a fire... or around your living room! Drums and other percussion are accompanied by sax, didjeridu, dotar, synthesizer, and Bic pen! (ashtray!) among other erotic and exotic instruments. (RAV11) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Janalea Hoffman
Therapeutic Drumming

This specially metered drumming, in beats of three to correspond to a normal heartbeat, is intended to reduce heart rate and blood pressure, because your body will attempt to synchronize itself with external sounds. The music starts at exactly 60 beats a minute, and gradually slows down to 50 beats per minute. Accompanying the drum are Andean clay flute, alto recorder, flute, cello and recorded wind sounds... so it's beautiful and relaxing, even aside from the specific therapeutic effects! Also good for shamanic work: it will help you into a hypnotic state, and enhance your inner vision imagery. Just don't pop this into your car cassette deck! (RMS2) CS: 10.98

Jessica Marcus
Conga Drum Teaching Tape

Mesmerized by the "passion of the drums" at an early age, Jessica has been studying, playing, performing and teaching percussion for over 20 years now. Her approach encompasses not only the musical component, but the spiritual and psychological as well, and the result is impressive! This tape is a straight-ahead drum lesson, intended for the beginner; we'd recommend combining this with her own tape of compositions (Sweet Beats & Busy Signals) so you can hear where the lesson is leading you to — if you apply yourself! (TP001) CS: 9.98

Sweet Beats & Busy Signals

The 8 compositions here encompass a variety of drumming styles (mostly Caribbean, we think) and instruments — conga drums, bembas, clave, bell, plus synth! for a thoroughly enjoyable collection of rhythmic treats! Great for dance, movement, tapping on the table to, or practicing your newly-acquired drumming skills! Includes Unity, Peña Bomba, M Bashi, Conga Samba. (TP002) CS: 9.98

No Thinkin' Aloud

This Conga Drum Teaching Tape and Booklet set takes up where her first instructional tape, Conga Drum Teaching Tape, leaves off: a little prior experience or practice is probably a good thing. She teaches many fabulous rhythms from Africa and Cuba, and the booklet gives diagrams for each rhythm. And, as she explains, "Drumming these rhythms establishes a spiritual connection with our collective past... The experience of playing these rhythms offers the possibility of a deeper understanding of ourselves, and also can open the body/mind/spirit to expansive spiritual growth." So, get ready to open yourself to new possibilities, while having lots of fun at the same time! (TP003) CS: 9.98

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels
Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/North African/Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius: the instruments speak in torrents of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrances in the listener. Titles include Cone of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together; several feature spoken parts. This 1992 album is simply one of the most honest and respectful recordings of women's ritual music we've ever listened to... also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Highly recommended! (RDM11) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff
Yamantaka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuoso Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later. Sounds heard here are unlike any other, emulating echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, mysterious, and meditative... raising the level of intensity through whirling gyrations, spectral harmonics and the cyclical resonances of the Tibetan Bells. (CE1003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/ Airoto/ Flora Purim
Dafos

Dafos is an imaginary country, and this recording represents an aural journey from its deserts to its polar ice floes to the Underworld, meeting with its spirits, and finally with its leader, the "Great Sound"... Many of the pieces reflect structures and rhythms of specific cultures: Sudanese, Brazilian, Indonesian; Flora's wordless vocalizations are perfect for this fantasy land: smoky, keening, bird-like, it dances and flutters, swoops and croons — this woman is an entire instrumental section herself! If you like polyrhythmic music, Rhythmic, or percussion, this is for you. (RYK108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart, with Flora Purim
Planet Drum

One world-class vocalist, Flora Purim, teams up with several "world" percussionists — Mickey of course (drummer for the Grateful Dead, for any of you who missed that part of history), plus Airoto Moreira, Sikiru Adejumo, and Vikku — on this groundbreaking, noteworthy, multi-cultural 1991 album. A thrilling series of compositions expresses the wide variety of rhythms, tones, and lyric power of percussion. (RYK205) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nuru (Nurudafina Pili Abena)
Drum Call

"Rhythm is life. Vibration is breath. The heartbeat is the core of one's being." So says Nuru, congera, djembe player, and Afro-Caribbean and West African percussionist, who some of you know from the OneSpirit duo... and we proudly release this mid-1994 album on the Ladieslipper label! It opens with an inspired program of calls, celebratory chants and prayers, to the orisha (pronounced "orisha"), or Yoruba deities. They're performed in the Yoruba/Lucumi language in a call-and-response style, with Nuru in lead, and several voices in response, with chants to deities such as Yemaya, ocean goddess and mother of all; Oshun, river goddess of love; Shango, god of thunder and lightning. Nuru then performs 3 all-instrumental djembe pieces; then to a Cuban instrumental, La Rumbera; and lastly the unexpected hip-hop of the title track, with chorus and children's voices, and its critical message. Throughout, Nuru plays an astounding array of percussion, including 3 different congas (conga, quinto, tumba), djembe, shekere, rain rattle, Ghanaian rain stick, bells, ago go, maracas, claves, djong djong, and more!! Experience the talent of this master percussionist... Highly recommended! (LR114) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Radish Zone Marimbas
Life in the Radish Zone

This is a very methodic recording, but since the marimba is considered a percussion instrument, we just might place this in our Percussion section... Sprouted as an acoustic offshoot of San Francisco's marimba-based band, Fuzz Factor, Nora Balaian and Shalonda Smith join together for some serious fun! Their instruments are modified on the Zimbabwean Shona marimba, which includes glued-on cigarette wrappers inside to create an adequate level of fuzz. Great melodies, harmonies and counter-harmonies on the instrumental pieces, and the same is true for the vocals. Pieces include Going to Bed With Strangers, Jam 1000, The Electric Sense of Este, Natural Thing... definitely unique! (RZ1) CS: 9.98

Rhythm Alive!
Drumming From Your Soul (Book/Tape)

On this 1994 release, subtitled Seeking the Source of Rhythm, Inani and Dean Buchanan present a step-by-step instructional tape and booklet teaching the following: basic African hand-drumming (ashiko and djembe) technique; drum musical notation and language; and a set of Root Rhythms which will allow you to enter any drum circle, understand what is happening, and play with confidence and spirit. Included are practice exercises as well as African tribal graphics and meditations. (RHA1) CS: 14.98

Tribe of Spirit
Dreamtime

This 1994 album of tribal chant percussion trance dance music, from a mixed ensemble, features Ariana Lightningstorm on lead vocals — some of you will recognize her from KIVA. This strongly percussion-based music is inspired by African, Indian, Indonesian, Latin American and Native American cultures; the music is fantastically, intensely rhythmic and pulsating, even the vocals by Ariana and the other members. ("Trace the roots of music in any culture and you inevitably wind up at the same source — voice and the heartbeat. Melody & rhythm magically intertwined.") Songs include Rhythm of Africa, Jampalsh, Road to Peace; instruments are balalon, drum set, congas, shekere, flute, bass, dream pipe, and thumb piano. Recommended! (TOS2) CS: 9.98

Adrienne Tort
Brooklyn From the Roof

A fairly spectacular instrumental album for piano and synthesizers by a virtuoso composer and keyboardist who some of you may remember as Holly Near's accompanist, several years ago; others of you have luckily witnessed her marvelous solo performances. If you fall into neither category, start now with this tape. Each piece has a varied sound and rhythm, keeping the listener's interest active... from avant garde to upbeat to emotional and intense to mellow and lyrical. Includes A Song for Soweto, for the poem by June Jordan, plus The Slow Return of Saturn, Things I Cannot Say, and, the loveliest, And So They Tie (Home). (AB0519) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Alice Coltrane
Journey in Satchidananda

Before there was New Age, there was Alice Coltrane, an amazing composer and instrumentalist... who fused her knowledge of world music, jazz and Eastern spirituality, and created sounds that were to become foundations for a genre. Recorded in 1970, this album combines her virtuosity on harp and piano with Pharoah Sanders' transcendental soprano sax, plus tamboura and oud, yielding original compositions that are evocative, meditative, searching, yearning, and just simply beautiful. Includes titles like Isis and Dahik, Something About John Coltrane, Shiva-Loka. A personal favorite of this reviewer 20 years ago, and still highly recommended! (MCA33119) CD: 15.98

Alicia Bonnet
Trusting

Heartbeats Review said: "There is a lovely wildness about Alicia's music... songs are prayer feathers let loose on the wind." Andrea Lyman

The Spirit Who Sings

Andrea, a white woman who has studied Native American spirituality under teachers such as Brooke Medicine Eagle, has created a tape of beautiful original chants and songs to call spirit, sing praise, and remind us of our connection with all things. At times strong and warrior-like, other times haunting and dreamlike, her powerful vocals are accompanied by drums, rattles, chimes, synthesizer and more. Includes Grandmother, White Buffalo Woman, Invocation, Mother/Father, Eagle's Lullaby; excellent production, and a good source for some new chants, if you're looking. Brooke Medicine Eagle recommends this, and we do too. (MB1) CS: 9.98

Andrea Lyman

Return to Remember

Even more beautiful than her first tape, she calls this one a musical map, a journey of remembering...and indeed something here seems to spark some ancient recall. Very female, ritualistic, and powerful, the songs and chants by this white student of healing and wholeness, earth stewardship and Native-based spirituality are peaceful to the Divine Mother and Mother Earth in her various forms. It's again a source of new chants, as well as an absolutely gorgeous blend of instrumental tone colors and lush vocal textures, woven into a shimmering tapestry of light. Includes Goddess of Fire, She Alone They Sing Over, Earthing, Dahu, Ancient Voices, and more. (MB2) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

All songs are original; acoustic instrumentation in Celtic and folk styles by female and male musicians; and some guest vocals which are spirited if not in perfect pitch in every single moment. Includes Sabbat Round, Cry of the Rebel Witch, Blessed Be Chant, Hymn to Brigit, Ode to Maat, Triple Goddess Blessing, making it a good resource for circles, rituals. (TRB1) CS: 9.98

Serenade at the Doorway

On this 1990 album which was created as a support tool for people experiencing a life transition — death of a loved one, of a relationship, of a dream or a way of being — this Canadian artist uses her beautiful voice and subtle rhythms, coupled with the passion and poetry of her lyrics, to deliver messages of hope and healing. Used by therapists and others who follow the belief that music is a healing tool, her messages are clear and direct. She sings of sorrow, grief, hope, anger, and empowerment boldly and smoothly; songs such as Anger Is Fever and I Won't Stay Silent Any Longer support the listener in accepting the emotions that we all experience. Anne "Ani" Williams

Children of the Sun

On this 1991 release, enchanting "music to honor a time of great awakening" reaches deep into the heart of the rainforest, with pre-Colombian flutes and percussion by Mazzi Galindo, weaving magic with the mystical beauty of Anne's — or Ani's, as she's now known — pure harp and vocals. Elegant, earthy, evocative, mystical — recommended! (ES8) CS: 9.98

Anne Williams
Summer Rose

Outstanding! This album is pure musical imagery — voice without words — which, with harp, autoharp, cello, flute and bells — becomes a sound that is felt rather than heard. All original and all performed by the artists, with innovative use of harmonies and rhythms. An emotional richness, an audio massage, celestial seasonings for the spirit! Highly recommended. (ES2) CS: 9.98

Song of Isis

Received and recorded in the Pyramids of Egypt during the Harmonic Convergence of 1987, this very special recording of harp, double pipes, flute, bells, and voice was created after a preparatory boat trip down the Nile! The echoing power of Spirit sings out through these inspired musical blessings, invocations, chants, and homages to the great goddess, beautifully woven in delicate strands of sound. Timeless, transformative, recommended! (ES5) CS: 9.98

Goddesses honored include Inanna, Nut, Maat, Ta Urt, Bridget, selections include Mother of All Ages, Isla Mujeres, Keepers of the Sacred Fire. Harmony vocals by Lisa Thiel and Alicia Bonnet. Magical and evocative. (EST) CS: 9.98

Anonymous

Free the Children

Subtitled Songs for survivors of cult & ritual abuse, and covered with warning stickers about the graphic content, this is a difficult tape to review. Recorded by a survivor and her therapist, it's a collection of original songs (one woman singing to acoustic guitar accompaniment) traveling through (in their words) "the worst of times to the healing..." They offer this recording in the hopes of breaking isolation many survivors feel, and to send the message that healing is possible. Due to the graphic content, it is strongly suggested that this tape only be used as a tool in therapy, and that it be listened to in safe company. (FTC1) CS: 11.98

Aym Kano & Company

Transformations

Exquisite, restful, delicious, perfect instrumental music composed by this Atlanta feminist and performed by Beth (on piano) and her group, The New Women's Chamber Ensemble (on oboe, sax, flute, synthesizer, bass, percussion). The sax is so sweet, the oboe so soaring in its beauty, it's enough to lift the spirit of any cynic. Includes title, Time and Again, and Dolphina, a dance piece. Very highly recommended. (LR104) CS: 9.98

Sacred Ground

Seeking to rise beyond an age of individual disconnection, this music springs from sources both ancient and universal, drawing on traditions such as pagan, Native American, western mystical, and Goddess spirituality. Betsy presents protest music at its best, music of community, with background choruses which invite participation as well as listening. Sparse acoustic instrumentation allows the clarity of Betsy's words, music and voice to shine; adept production and accompaniment by Nina Garber. A wonderful blend of music, spirit, and social concern. (KAL43) CD: 15.98

In My Two Hands

One side of this tape represents a creative venture for an artist well-known to women's and folk audiences; it embodies a unique collaboration between an Asian and a North American artist, and expresses the interrelationship between engaged activism and the spiritual foundation which make continued activism possible. The songs were inspired and co-authored by Thich Nhat Hahn, a Vietnamese poet-leader and Nobel Peace Prize nominee, who chaired the Vietnamese Buddhist Peace Delegation, and taught and lived "engaged Buddhism" in his country during the war. The music, sung by Betsy in English, blends eastern and western instrumentation: koto, bamboo flute, string bass and more. The other side consists of Betsy's own songs, reflecting her journey as a spiritual activist and eco-feminist. (PLX101) CS: 9.98

Caryn Lin
Honour the Rain

Each year we begin a new catalog, a few recordings by new artists really stand out as exceptional, and we take them in, hoping you'll believe our raves even if you've never heard of them; Caryn's one. She creates intensely beautiful music for her customized electric violin and viola (we'd never even seen an instrument shaped like hers)... with amplification which provides clarification rather than distortion. Her classical training is evident, but her innovative, emotional compositions seamlessly blend many idioms — classical, folk, rock, jazz, Celtic, Indian, Native American — together into soundscapes of passion as well as tranquility. Credits include playing for the film Philadelphia. You guessed it — this 1993 instrumental album is very highly recommended! (GY039) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The songs range from the inspirational Celebrate Life, to Mother Love and Say No, to Now and Not Yet, about finding love when we least expect it. Already widely circulated in recovery circles, this release has an almost universal appeal for people involved in the recovery process, the therapeutic community, survivors of childhood sexual abuse, and amongst the religious/spiritual community. Conni Ellisor
night at the museum

Spectacular! This Juillard grad has a solid history doing Nashville studio work, but you'd never guess it by listening to this! Starting off with the soundtrack-like Inside Out and Dreaming (yes, she's also scored some films), you get the sense that her virtuosity on violin, cello and piano were merely the necessary steps toward realizing her composing genius. Fitting this 1991 recording into one category will keep our staff up at nights, since it excels in several. Suffice it to say that it is strongly evocative, contemporary, instrumentally sophisticated, and fitting testament to an extremely talented woman's vision. Highlights include Dance of the Hill, Even the Sun, Things Can Change. Excellent, highly recommended! (GN01010) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fire Prayer

This 1991 release is an album of original chants and songs, revering Mother Earth and the life of the spirit. Denean, raised in the hills of Kentucky, is primarily white with some Cherokee in her background; she draws inspiration from both Native American and country/folk/gospel traditions. Lots of percussion and nature sounds are interwoven with piano, synthesizers, flute, and her strong, sweet voice. Includes Song to the Mother, Spiral to the Center, Sacred Fire, The Tree. Very professionally produced, and a great source of new songs and chants. Some of the proceeds go to Native American organizations. (ETH7101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Denean
The Weaving

With many references to Grandmother Spirit, Earth Mother, and Precious Mother, Denean brings her wondrous visions of spirit and spirituality to the listener with her country angel voice. Included on her 1993 release are both instrumentals and powerful vocal songs — all originals — that take you on a journey of the heart... her keyboards and percussion evoke a most ethereal, celestial mood. Sort of Enya-esque... and suggested to fans of Lisa Thiel's material. (ETH7102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Shekhina, Hebrew Goddess

This 1993 release, subtitled Restoring the Balance, is about Shekhina, the Hebrew Goddess of the Kabbala; the music and lyrics contain a blend of Middle Eastern, Spanish, Celtic, and Hindustani influences... about half in Hebrew and half in English. Sources are Old Testament, Talmud and Kabbalistic writings; showing the survival of the triple goddess in the basic foundations of Judaism. Extensive liner note; a full 79 minutes in length; unique and recommended! (DW1005) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Gala, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hypnotic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kristen Gyi on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements: "The earth is my body/ Her water is my blood/ Her winds are my breath/ Her fire is my spirit..." Kristen is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Dianic Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary-sounding devotional Goddess recordings we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is soothing yet full of contained energy, while Amra Kronia is all vibrant movement. Kristen is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the West Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include Wind Dancer, Exploding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Return to the Goddess-Chants & Song

This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristen and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the cradle, and the material continues to honor and revere the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include Z. Budapest's From the Goddess chant, which anyone who's attended a women's spirituality gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Say Yes To Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more acoustic in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended! (DW1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Diana Earthmission
Inner Voice: Songs of Spirit

Diana Grove
Stretch Breathe and Relax

This massage therapist and feminist yoga teacher is well known to many women's testie-piers for her "magic hands." Her 1991 tape provides step-by-step instructions for two individual sessions: 30 minutes each of stretching and yoga postures; 10 minutes each side of relaxation/meditation. These easy-to-perform movements are designed to tone muscles, reduce stress and improve flexibility, postural alignment, strength, and balance. The good sound quality, her clear and soothing voice, the descriptive notes and diagrams in the insert, and the background instrumentals by music therapist Deborah Phelps, all help make this an easy and appealing program to use. Recommended! (DMP91) CS: 9.98

Diane Stein
Meditation on Goddess W/in; Chakras

Side 1 allows you to experience the power and gentleness, strength and love, creativity and ability to change of the Goddess within. Side 2, entitled Meditation on the Chakras: The Rainbow helps in a full understanding of the Chakras as a channel for light and love... a must for healers. (LLE702) CS: 9.98

Earth Dance Singers
Songs of the Sacred Wheel

This circle of 7 women is inspired to sing these songs in honor of the Earth they love... and over 50 chants and circle songs are included here!! Titles such as Mother/Daughter, Circle Dance Song, I Am the Goddess, Mother I Feel You, Ocean Mother — by authors such as Starhawk, Z. Budapest, Lisa Thiel, Adrie Getty, Charlie Murphy, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and Kate Wolf, as well as members of this ensemble — flow easily from song to song. One of the most complete recordings of women's circle songs we know about! (ED1) CS: 9.98

Esther "Little Dove" John et al
The Elements

Produced under the artistic direction of Nancy Rumbel, this exquisite concert was inspired by, and incorporates, the sounds of the four elements: Water, Air, Earth and Fire. Flutist Esther "Little Dove" John, accompanied by synthesists Karen Motta and Carl Davidson, weaves melodic, thematic improvised music into the recorded sounds of ocean, mountain stream, night creatures, and campfire, creating an ambience which is exotic, peaceful and visually provoking. This reviewer was a big fan of Paul Horn's flute compositions with The Elements back in the 70's... while quite different, this is just as stunning. Use for relaxing, meditating, enjoying; highly recommended! (MMH2288) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Esther "Little Dove" John
The Elements, Volume II

More rhythmic than her first pagan to the elements, especially the Brazilian-influenced Ocean Bossa (Samba for a Dove), this beautiful 1992 recording also represents the sounds native to other places on our planet. The fire aspect is expressed with water (in Hot Springs, a tribute to the belief of the native peoples of Washington's Olympic peninsula that dragons' breath heated the bubbling pools found there. The air principle is divinely represented with Air/Song to Attract Seals, a hauntingly gorgeous piece first performed (fittingly) at the Concert of Angels in Rio, which ended with a seaside vigil and meditation with the Daisi Lama! Ending with earth's Evangelion, a plainsong chant (similar in tone to Gregorian), this reviewer found herself wishing the recording would never end — and promptly punching the replay button! I could go on and on, but will end with a recommendation that you avail yourself immediately of this precious gem. (MMH2292) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Evaleon Hill/ Institute of Goddess
Daily Spiritual Program

This recording contains affirmations, relaxations, meditation, exercises, guided visualizations, and prayers from the Irish-Celtic tradition, which invoke intimacy between human, natural, and divine (as manifest through the feminine) realms. Selections include Guided Goddess Visualization and "Goddess Within" Prayer; the program can be used every day, with Side 1 for morning, Side 2 for evening. The narrator is the founder of the Institute of the Goddess, which offers courses in meditation and the history and meaning of the Goddess, as well as seasonal, nature-based ceremonies. ## Flesh & Bone

Skeleton Woman

Inspired by the (strange) story by the same name in Clarissa Pinkola Estés' best-selling book Women Who Run With the Wolves, this 1993 release is an exciting musical adventure. The duo is comprised of Chris White, whose haunting, evocative wordless vocals are the centerpiece, and keyboardist/composer Peter Kater (who, by the way, are married to each other). They're supported by the pulsating rhythms of Glen Velez' frame drums. David Darling's intense cello, plus violin and sax. The tale, which is recounted in the insert, is based on myths, and is somehow about how love endures when cycles about life/death/rebirth are allowed to be part of the spiritual relationship between lovers. (BWR708) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gate Perrigo

Never Again the Burning

This striking collection of original poetry set to music explores the Neo-Pagan experience in a new way, with vivid words that paint memorable stories and characters. Features the haunting title piece, the powerful Dark Hecate's Hounds, plus Pagan's Way: Magic; Full Circle: A Creation Tale, and more. Original accompaniment by Kenny & Tzipora, on flute, fiddle, guitar and even vocals. (MAG1) CS: 9.98

Georgia Kelly

Gardens of the Sun

This 1993 release contains a collection of romantic and exotic pieces composed by this prolific harpist while living in Zagreb and Dubrovnik, Croatia in 1991. Inspired by the beauty of the Adriatic, but juxtaposed to the onset of civil war, this music reflects some of the region's last peaceful and tender moments. Consisting primarily of harp solos, there is also a delicate duet for harp and flute, and a haunting melody for harp and guitar. (HER112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gypsy

Enchantress

Gypsy is a present-day witch/priestess from Salem (no kidding) who writes and performs very magical pagan songs to honor the Goddess and the witches, to cast magic spells, to invoke medicine spirits and world peace. Accompaniment on violin and flute by Kenny and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady Two Witches, Magick, Merlin's Theme, Medicine Song, and a (new) solstice song of the Old Religion, Bring Back the Light. Enchanting! (WLP1) CS: 10.98

Ishar

Rites of the Dolphin

Eleven stars on a ten-star system! A very unusual, intoxicating, and totally exquisite instrumental offering from a mostly-women's trio which takes its name from the Babylonian goddess of the moon and interpreter of dreams. Lisa Moskow is a master of the sarod (a North Indian instrument with 25 strings, metal fretless fingerboard and brass resonating bowl) which is somewhat the centerpiece; Nicole Milner is the pianist-composer (her playing full of emotion); Doug Carroll is the cellist. Their innovative repertoire is inspired by a wide spectrum of musical ideas from Europe and Asia, creating an unique East-West fusion. Includes Moon Raga, Three Deet Haku, highly recommended! (ISH1) CS: 9.98

Jai Ma Kirtan:

Songs to the Divine Mother

A truly beautiful 93-minute program of chanting in Sanskrit to the various aspects of God as the Mother: Kali, Durga, Annapa, Radha, Ma, Lakshmi, Gauri, etc., by primarily women's voices. Sung in Kirtan, an ancient Indian call-and-response form. Includes the Hymn to the Goddess Mother, the Durga Arati Song. Traditional eastern instruments—tabla, tanpura, harmonium—are tastefully interwoven with western guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, silver flute. Cover pictures Shakti Yantra, a mandala used for meditation on the energy of the female aspect of God. Recommended! (SRI0006) CS: 10.98

Jalaja Bonheim

The Descent of Inanna

Set to music by Gwen Jones and Flovec, Jalaja presents a journey through the ancient Sumerian Goddess myth. Over 4000 years ago, the Sumerian people inscribed the myths of Inanna, and her descent into the underworld, onto stone tablets — one of the very first written epics. Powerful and universal, Inanna's journey is that of every woman facing loss, darkness or death. Text, narration, chant and background instrumentation created and performed by Jalaja, a counselor/writer/women's workshop leader who specializes in women's spirituality and on the healing of the body-spirit split. Music for sitar, Tibetan bowl, didgeridoo and more by Gwen Jones. (MUS46266) CS: 10.98

Ancestral Dream / Improvised Ritual

A very unique first solo recording by one half of the well-known British feminist duo, Ova. Passionately celebrating women's spirituality, Jana uses natural and special effects, pagan chants, and a vast array of instruments (temple bells, Indian and Chinese flutes, classical flute, clarinet, African drums, African kalimba / thumb piano, Indian tabla, dulcimer and percussion). Invocations are sung to Tiamat (Babylonian sky goddess), Diana (We all come from Goddess, chant to the pagan mother of all life), Kore (Greek earth goddess), Aesha (Celtic sky goddess), Kali (Hindu goddess of life). Beginning and ending with Deep Woman, and meandering through some spectacular instrumentals such as Spirit of Avalon along the way, this cassette offers an entry into the spirit-world like no other. Highly recommended. (STC300) CS: 11.98

Eye of the Womb

In the second volume of her Improvvised Ritual Music series, Jana continues her employment of primal, rhythmic energy as a creative expression of women's spirituality and as a bridge between politics and faith. She explores the realms of the womb as a creative source of deep power and radical awareness, with ritual chanting, vocal improvisations, and intense instrumentation from bamboo flute to percussion. Includes Witchwoman, Remember Goddess is Within, Mami Wulu (Hawaiian goddess), Inanna (Sumerian goddess), and more. The pulse is irresistible, the melodies haunting, and the meanings will be experienced on a multitude of levels. Recommended! (STC301) CS: 11.98

Jana Runnalls & Bron Bradshaw

Tree Magic

This music began with a common vision of these two women of the power, beauty, and magic of trees on our world; it started in a Celtic tree circle near Glastonbury, traditionally a site of magic; and that is what this music is: absolute magic. Instruments such as hammered dulcimer (played to sound at times like a koto), clarinet, soprano recorder, are interwoven with African drum, mamba, xylophone... try to imagine the possibilities of these in combination, and you may come close to the beauty of these improvisations. Titles include Amazona, Spirit of the Forest, In the Tree Circle, African Walk. Rhythmic, creative, unique, inspired, and once again... highly recommended! (STC302) CS: 11.98

Jana Runnalls & R. Schonfeld: Ova

Who Gave Birth to the Universe

Now at half price! Before Jana's solo work and collaborations with Bron Bradshaw, she and Rosemary Schonfeld were Ova — a British lesbian-feminist duo known and loved for their blend of politics, spirituality, and groundedness in the earth and woman-identification. From Healing Touch to Rainforest to Political Beings, this 1988 release brings their wide perspective and accomplished musicianship to a variety of concerns and musical styles, expressing both strength and gentleness. ### Musical Massage

If you're looking for massage music, this is perfect! Created with very beautiful piano, cello, flute, violin and viola — all acoustic — the melody is flowing, soothing, and healing. This music will actually slow the heartbeat of the listener to 50 or 60 beats per minute, as the body tries to synchronize with external rhythms. Therefore, the music itself acts as a massage, as your body feels the vibration of the music! Each side has continuous music, suitable for uninterrupted body work. (RMS1) CS: 11.98 CD: 14.98

Jane Evershed

Jagadamba ("Mother of the World")

This 1994 release is quite unique — the first recording based on original paintings, poems and meditations which had been made into a series of notecards! Jane is a white woman who was born in England, grew up in South Africa where she was educated under the system of Apartheid (and became aware of oppression at its worst), and now resides in the US. Jeanie Brindley, a (white) US woman, was so inspired by Jane's cards that she composed music to which she set Jane's words and paintings. The album features both the voice of African American singer Gwen Matthews, and the voice of Jane herself, reading poems and meditations which celebrate women, Mother Earth, liberation, spirituality and unity, over Jeanie's music — her words give voice to her belief that although the oppression of women is worldwide, it will be the compassion of women which will heal the Earth. A wide diversity of cultures and musical styles and sounds — African, Latin, jazz — are interwoven, and the result is much like Jane's artwork: bold and vibrant with color and motion. Listen for hours, and new threads keep emerging: there's really nothing else like this! (JES9401) CS: 15.98

Voices On the Wind

On this 1993 release, the artist turns her incredible vocal talent to a new avenue: women's spirituality. The album contains exquisite songs and chants of inspiration, healing and transformation from her work with feminist healer/teacher Vicki Noble, of Motherpeace Tarot fame. One side is a Tibetan chant to the Goddess Tara; also included are Purify and Heal Us, We Are Opening, and Windwalker is a chant in honor of the female Dakini. Deity, she accompanies herself on guitar, and vocal overdubs, producing a simple yet powerful sound. Very very recommended! (EOW2) CS: 10.98

Mysteries of Earth

Simply one of the best recordings of the Pagan! Goddess genre we've heard! Jennifer's voice is a resonant alto, well-suited to the myriad of instruments she accompanies herself with: fretted dulcimer, guitar, dumbac, and a variety of light percussion and bells — from frame drums to glockenspiel! Song for the Divine Mother Mary illuminates the qualities which the Christians sought to obliterate; the gorgeous Tara is sung in a style reminiscent of Ethiopian melismatic singing; and many circle songs are included as well — Mother Deepen Within Me, Spring Fertility Chant, Birth Song. We recommend it much. (MEM1) CS: 10.98

Jillian Klari

Womanspirit: Women's Songs & Chants

Ideal for use in women's ritual groups, Jillian self-harmonizes on this lovely album, some a cappella, some to simple drumbeat accompaniment. Her layered vocals are beautiful and crystalline, so even though lyrics aren't included, you can easily learn these songs. Contains several Goddess traditionals, such as Shea Been Waiting and May the Circle Be Open, plus chants by Z. Budapest and Lisa Thiel, one Seneca chant, and 2 originals by Jillian herself: title track and Blessed Sister. Even though some of these songs are included on other compilations, we recommend this one for its clear sound and the beauty of its production. (JK1) CS: 9.98

Joyful Noise and Friends

Come to the Circle

Chants, songs, rhythms, rounds and instrumentals from a variety of traditions: American folk, Native American, African, Russian, Middle Eastern — are presented by this 3-woman trio and their female and male friends. They're "eco-troubadours", who travel extensively giving workshops on peace, community, environmental awareness, earth music, bridging cultures, and a host of topics. A few of these you may already know, but there are several originals as well as more obscure songs and chants, making this a recommended source of wonderful material "to learn and share in your circles." Accompaniment is simple; includes Circle of Sound, Healing Circle, Circle Dance, Amajori, and many more. (JNT) CS: 9.98

Judith May

Heal the Broken Wing

We aren't adding many recovery titles these days, as it seems most folks in need of such are in programs and well on the way to healing... but this one's exceptional! Judith is a survivor of childhood sexual abuse, and these original songs speak openly and eloquently about her experiences and feelings. We especially love If You Come Near Me which expresses therapeutic sentiments like "You don't know shit about me, boy! You're just one big fucking prick... Bring your beef around me boy! I'll turn it into dead meat... So if you come near me/ I'm gonna have to kill you..." Also love the evocative and moving Wash Me Mother. Judy Fyell is among the supporting musicians. All in all, an album of deep emotion and high hope; highly recommended! (YYM1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Judith Sherven, Ph.D.

Mothering the Girl Within

This guided healing meditation tape consists of four sections: Getting to Know Your Girl, Mother and Your Identity, Father and Your Femininity, and Mothering the Girl Within. In each section, Judith leads us on an exploration of personal experiences, and helps identify where our self-image comes from. Her approach seems based in a background in psychology, so the insights you gain from this may resemble the work you'd do in a therapy session! Although she does use male/female relationships for some of her examples, she does make it clear that the tape is designed for both heterosexual and lesbian women. (SK1) CS: 10.98

Affirmations

Wow! A most unusual recording by Ineke and Kathy, two Australian women, who sing beautiful melodies in gorgeous harmony on songs affirming Life, Love, Strength, Forgiveness, Understanding, Power, Judgment, Order, Will and Zeal. And what's so great is they're catchy, you'll be singing along even after the tape stops...making the affirmations work in your own life! Breath-taking voices, straightforward, creative and, yes, affirming lyrics; sparse but effective back-up on synth, sax, flute, cornet, recorders, piano, guitar, percussion...which doesn't diminish the vocal power/feel of a live, acapella, participatory, tribal-sounding recording! An all-women production. Very highly recommended! (AFF1) CS: 9.98

Kathy Zavada

Mother's Song

A beautiful collection of original songs — plus the classic You Are So Beautiful (To Me) — which leaves one with the feeling of being embraced by the most gentle, loving and nurturing Mother of all mothers. Kathy's voice is lilting and soft, floating over her lovely piano like a breeze. Susan Mazer joins in on one cut, and Kathy often self-harmonizes, sometimes in six parts! Includes Child of the Mother, Love Will Sustain You, Serve the Mother, and the comforting All Is Well. Very soothing stuff! (PRE1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Kay Gardner/ Nurudafina Pili Abena

OneSpirit

This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world! The OneSpirit duo is a charismatic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flutes, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global musics and rhythms from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this aural journey. Features a cameo appearance by Brooke Medicine Eagle, on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle... also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Silencia, Carnival, Asian Sunset, Happy Life. We welcome Nuru — with her congas, djembe, quica, dundun, pandeiro, balafon, agogo, dumbek, sunbo, and rain rattles — to the Ladyslipper label (and promise you'll be hearing more from her in the near future). Exciting, energetic, and meditative all at once... Highly recommended, of course! (LR113) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Moods & Rituals

Subtitled Meditations for Solo Flutes and intended for meditation and relaxation, this sequence of 4 compositions truly has the effect of evoking tranquility, a feeling of well-being and wide-open space. On one long piece entitled Soul Flight, she employs an echoplex, which almost sounds like a second flute and works perfectly. Other pieces, each using a scale from a different culture, are entitled Saraswati (for bamboo flute and bell), Mountain Melody, The Temple of Ishtar. This represents another stage in Kay's research into the use of music in healing. (EKR39) CS: 9.98

Ouroboros (Seasons of Life)

This 1994 recording is nothing short of a miracle... to tell you all about it would take volumes. Subtitled Women's Passages, this oratorio by Kay for 8 female soloists, women's chorus and orchestra is set to exquisite solo texts by Charlie Hutchins (a woman), and powerful chant texts by Sa-Suzanne. It's a live recording of its premiere performance at the 20th National Women's Musical Festival in Bloomington, IN, and is one of the largest-ever classical productions featuring women musicians: 84 voices, 40 orchestra members. Except it's not classical, in the traditional sense. Performers as well as audience members were often teary-eyed during the performance, they were so profoundly moved. The work celebrates the ages of Woman, with each age corresponding to a holy day on the ancient Celtic calendar (solstices, equinoxes, Beltane, etc.), is strongly centered in female spirituality, and relates to the birth/death/rebirth cycle. Lush and deeply healing, the music itself is somewhat reminiscent of A Rainbow Path. Stunning performances by soloists Sarah Carol, Amanda Barrett (Ruth's 15-year-old daughter), and so many others (wish we could name them all!) are interwoven with majestic choral interludes... this is Kay's absolute masterpiece to date. We're so thankful that the performance was preserved on tape, and proud that we can offer it to you now. Most highly recommended — whether or not you relate to "classical" music! (LR115) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summer fall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your head/heart and heart. Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing; perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. Very highly recommended — "naturally"! (LR111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sounding the Inner Landscape (Tape)

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, we proudly present a special long-playing project, Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path; Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Have your own private workshop with Kay, anytime! Almost 70 min. (LR109) CS: 12.98

Avalon

This tape of solo flute meditations was created when Kay co-led a "women's mysteries" tour in Glastonbury, England, where Brigid, the Goddess of wells, flames, dais, creative arts/music and healing, once dwelled and was worshipped. As Kay moved from High Altar to holy fountain to holy well, her flute improvisations were recorded by a hand-held tape-player, and the magic of the place, of the healing waters, of those moments, and of the Goddess Brigid's inspiration can be heard by all. Remarkably good quality, quieting, and very suitable for meditation. Includes The Lady's Chapel, Chalice Hill Fairy Circle. This is hopefully the first in a series to be recorded by Kay at women's holy places. (LR106) CS: 9.98

A Rainbow Path

Please note sale price on LP! Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness, and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Plowe on viola, Martha Siegel on cello, Vivian Stoll on vibraphone, Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. LP includes bibliography and discography for further study. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, many-dimensional experience. (LR103) LP: 5.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mooncircles

Beautiful, classic album of flute compositions. Kay has played the flute for many years and this album reflects her mastery of both the instrument and of compositional music. Much of it is an ancient and, according to the album cover, Sapphic mode, and perfect for meditation or love-making. Also includes three vocals. Classical guitar accompaniment is by Meg Christian, piano by Althea Waites. (WWE89) CS: 9.98

Emerging

An exquisite instrumental masterpiece by Kay and a host of other classical musicians. Sounds range from Renaissance to contemporary to oceanic. Like Mooncircles, this music has an uncanny way of reaching way into one's depths and subtly producing a healing effect within body and spirit of the listener. Kay has demonstrated her ability as a composer of the highest caliber. (WWE83) CS: 9.98

Ocean Moon

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special... This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamuse, which she considers the best piece she ever composed; with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release, which we heartily recommend! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1989 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path! Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Tori's) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudafina Pili Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Viriditas, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious. It has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! ## Kay Gardner

Fishersdaughter

Subtitled Troubadour Songs, this recording reflects yet another step on Kay's journey to recreate music which reflects women's lives. Primarily vocal, it has a distinctly traditional sound. The Earth side is rich with ballads, wisdom and female affirmation. The Sea side (this reviewer's favorite) is full of New England sea shanties. All songs directly relate to woman's power, woman's story. The Ballad of Mary & Ann is about two New England women persecuted for being lesbians. Do You Remember? is a deeply spiritual song which reverts with the Matriarchy. Musicians include Kay on dulcimer, flutes and vocals. April Rain and Alix Dobkin on guitar. (EKR44) CS: 9.98

LOVE SONG TO A PLANET

Kim Robertson

Kim Robertson Moonrise

A rich and diverse collection of original, classical and international pieces, plus a few by other contemporary composers such as George Winston. Several refer in title to the moon, and you can feel the pull by the harp-strings on your body chemistry! (INV078) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Wind Shadows

Kim brings forth the mysterious and magical sound of the Celtic harp to its crystalline potential in her interpretation of traditional Irish and Scottish tunes, with simplicity and grace. Kim is classically trained on pedal harp but has made this more ancient instrument her life's work. In addition to some Carolan and other tunes from Ireland, this tape includes three original compositions which evoke stillness and calm. (INV111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Water Spirit

In addition to original and Irish tunes this contains some classical and earlier ones: Pachelbel's Canon, Faure's Pavane (a haunting piece), a Bach minuet, and 12th and 13th century French and Italian compositions. Digitally mastered, real-time duplicated...in other words, for 9.98, Kim will sit inside your speakers and play her 19th century French single action harp. A supreme recording—very highly recommended. (INV116) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Steve Kujala Wild Iris

One of Kim's most unusual and gorgeous to date (that's what we say about each of her new releases when we hear it)...a true masterpiece of improvisation. Steve is a jazz flautist in his other life, and brings a playful, energetic smoothness and lightness (and at times plainness) to the duets from Irish, Scottish, South American traditions, plus several originals by both Kim herself and the duo. Also includes the beautiful Pavane by Gabriel Faure, as well as some solos by Kim. Very, very highly recommended! (INV123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Angels in Disguise

Kim here showcases her haunting, angelic voice, reminiscent of both her heavenly harping and the vocals of Singh Kaur, to the accompaniment of her own harp as well as strings with tasteful touches of guitar and percussion. The material is a lovely mix of Celtic folk melodies and contemplative originals, and even one Japanese composition. Beautifully crafted, don't miss this! (INV124) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Tender Shepherd

This incomparable Celtic harper here performs lullabies and airs for all ages — melodies for quiet times — a treasury of songs beloved by generation after generation. From the timeless beauty of the traditional Irish, Welsh and Scottish Paddy Day, Bally Loo Lammie, and Gairan Mother's Lullaby to the classical grace of J.S. Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze, Kim magically combines meditative and sprightly moods to create a soothing time-out from a busy world. (GOU112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosity supreme. "The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complimentary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far, many Eastern sounds, interesting scales, includes Women of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past...or if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Bettine Clemen Love Song To a Planet

Virtually ignored by the mainstream music industry, Kim will probably be one of those composers who graces a relatively small number of us with her magic, then becomes posthumously knighted, or something! We keep saying that each new album is really her best, and it can't be helped; her artistry is perfect on so many levels, one wonders what goddess she pleased to be so blessed...Joined here, on her 16th recording, by the equally prolific flautist Bettine Clemen, for a joyful, reverent, gently loving and creative tribute to our Mother, our home. Flute and harp dance and blend into ethereal layers of sound, sometimes together, and sometimes joined by cello, bell, synthesizer and percussion, for an experience utterly drenched in grace. Includes Shanti, The Dark Island, Amazing Grace, Day of the Dolphin, and the ambitious Love Song for the Water Planet. Very highly recommended. (INV112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mother Wisdom: Orig. & Trad. Chants

This 1994 album is an invitation to experience the Goddess in some of her many forms. Through original and traditional chants and songs, primal wisdom is shared about connecting to our ancient source, the roots of which grow deep to Africa, Tibet, Greece, the Americas, India and beyond. These invocations to the divine feminine remember a time, past and future, of balance with Mother Earth. Includes Yamaya, Rushing Water, Aphrodite, Green Tara Chant, The Earth Is Our Mother, Jai Ma, and more. Lovely percussion and some sound effects accompany, as well as the 12 voices of "The Chorus of Powerful Women." (KIVA) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Finding the Balance Within

Finding the Balance Within

This fall 1994 release speaks to the magical place within where we are whole and one with all of nature. From Summer Solstice Passion, with keyboard by NC's Kathleen Hannan, to May Queen and Aphrodite's Daughters Revisited, with Celtic harpist Sue Richards, to Star of the Sea, a joyous celebration of Yamaya, Mother of the Oceans with percussionists Robin Burdulis and Barbara McPherson, this is their most passionate album yet. ### Kiva

The Healing Art

Kiva is a 3-woman acoustic ensemble performing beautiful original songs of the Goddess, healing, and Earth's ancient ways. They employ vocal harmonies with traditional arrangements and instrumentation (cello, bodhran, mandolin, guitar), in a style that is contemplative and peaceful on side 1; inspirational of movement, laughter and dance on side 2. Lead singer-songwriter Ariana (formerly of Pomegranate) is a priestess of the Old Religion, and her lyrics are thus informed. Accompanied by a multitalented kaleidoscope of friends, among them long-time Ladyslipper helper Barbara McPherson on drums! Songs include Diana, Aphrodite's Flowers, Within' Hour, The Healing Art, Jai Ma. Recommended! (KIV1) CS: 9.98

Renewal

More percussive Goddess and Earth songs and chants by Ariana's primarily acoustic ensemble. The stand-outs are the chants which each feature two percussionists — Barbara and Robin — who employ African, Latin, Caribbean, Native and Brazilian rhythms; but the musicians' ease with traditional forms and harmonies also adds to this collection. Includes Dance in the Moonlight, Yamaya, Diana Fanfare/Huntress, Fire Flow Free, The Earth Is Our Mother. Recommended again! (KIV2) CS: 9.98

Alchemy

This early 1993 release weaves together the enchanting vocal harmonies and powerful rhythms of the earth religion, celebrating the alchemy of love and life that transforms us as we embrace ecstasy. The musicians are inspired by myriad forms and traditions, and this album showcases their instrumental range as never before, highlighting individual Kiva members and friends such as Robin Burdulis and Ladyslipper friend Barbara McPherson. Includes Changer's Fire, Maid of Dreams, Grandmother Spider Woman, Pysophones Song, and more. (KIV3) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

(LIT1) CS: 10.99

Lady Isadora

The Queen of Earth and Sky

Lady Isadora's long-awaited solo effort features songs of love, magic, and Goddess religion in folk, rock, and medieval/Renaissance styles. The use of overdubs on several selections creates striking harmonies and multi-vocal textures. Original lyrics and mostly original melodies; includes Mistress of the Mysteries, The Pentacle and the Rose, Lion-Hearted Woman (a ballad about a Witch condemned to be burned at the stake), Ye Birds and Ye Beasts (a vegetarian anthem), and a medley of Yule carols including Our Lady Greenloves, Says Heartsong Review: "Her pure soprano voice comes from deep within her soul...inspired and fulfilling music, highly recommended." ## Libana

A Circle Is Cast

This 1986 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European. Inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements; most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPN002) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Fire Within

Finally, the long-awaited sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast! Synthesizing their two musical identities — as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual — this release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel; yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here; several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman; Neesa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Tree Planter's Round; Clear Horizon; Rise Up O Flame; O Virgin Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. Very proud and excited to offer you — on the Ladyslipper label — Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LR108) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Borderland

On this 1993 release, Libana deftly traverses hemispheres, continents, and borders with a dazzling repertoire of contemporary and traditional World Music. From a lyrical Finnish song of longing to the captivating pulse of Arabic rhythms... the stark poignancy of an Argentinian lament to the riveting drumming of the Zar, an Egyptian ritual ecstatic dance... Libana's music speaks to the essence of women's inner and outer realities. Compelling rhythms, incomparable vocal versatility, tenderness and strength join to create a musical mosaic of spirited integrity. Includes Djur Djura's Fihel Azhari. Don't miss this! ## Lisa Dancing-Light

Point of Balance

Recommended by Broode Medicine Eagle, Lisa's 1990 debut album features her original vocal compositions, intended for the healing of Mother Earth and the spiritual reawakening of all her children. If there were a New Age Radio Top 10, the title cut would certainly be in it, with a melody which you'll hear in your mind long after the album has ended, with tenor: sex and more; Winds of Change, dedicated to Oya, Goddess of change and transformation; Power Chant; Mother Earth Chant and others; but you could buy this primarily for the title cut — it's worth it. (ETR91) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Lisa Thiel

Songs of the Spirit

Prayers for the Planet

With Rainbow Woman, Latus Goddess, Song to the Grandmothers, Coramother Chant, Moon Mother, Lisa again weaves songs from eastern and western origins to create a second gorgeous compilation of very woman-oriented spiritual songs... songs given to her for energy and healing. All original except for a few adapted from Tibetan and Gaelic chants and prayers. Harmony vocals and ocarina by Anne Williams... also highly recommended. (SD2) CS: 9.98

Songs of Transformation

Anne Williams again collaborates (on vocals and harp) with Lisa on this beautiful recording of Goddess chants. ### Rising of the Phoenix

Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected, and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Giveaway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. Contains a guide for using the songs for healing and in ceremony. As always, highly recommended. (SD4) CS: 9.98

Lady of the Lake

We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arms of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Fine Song, as she calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and title track. An uplifting treasure; most highly recommended! (LR112) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Sisters of the Dream

"The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother." This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists: Lisa's Songs of the Spirit, Prayers for the Planet, and Rising of the Phoenix; and Ani's Wind Spirit, Song of the Jaguar, and Children of the Sun (see our ratings for both artists in this section). This would be an excellent way to sample works by both artists (we're sure many of you'll want to add more of their recordings to your collection), and this is also a magical compilation in its own right. Recommended! (SSET) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Gifts To Each Other...Chants & Drum

The full subtitle of this is Native American Chants and Drum, and this is a wonderful collection of both collected and original chants, both sung and drummed by Lyn. Some of them are The Earth Is Our Mother, a Hopi chant; We All Come From the Mother; Ancient Mother: I Am a Circle; Our Magic Is Our Greeting. Lyn's voice is rich and steady, from much experience chanting in Medicine Wheel gatherings and other spiritual circles. Recommended for many uses, including just listening! (LYN1) CS: 9.98

Lynne Dusenberry Crow

Coming Home to North American Roots

Excellent, Excellent, Excellent! And simply a must for any woman of European descent interested in Native culture and spirituality! Too often, many white women (lacking connection to their own roots, appalled by their own culture's racism, seeking to distance themselves from their cultural history) are drawn to more Earth-based cultures. Lynne's father was adopted by Salish Indian elders; her childhood, and subsequent return as an adult, taught her much about white interaction with Native peoples and attraction to those cultural and spiritual values. Lynne now teaches multicultural understanding for people who seek personal, spiritual and cultural identity. This tape consists of six talk sessions, from A Native American Connection to The Attraction of Native Teachings to The Quest for Earth Roots. She is a quiet yet charismatic speaker who uses her own experience to help us understand the elements of empowerment. A great teaching tool for those doing multicultural, anti-racism work. Highly recommended! (EWS11) CS: $9.98

Inward Harmony

Marcey Hamit, a former nuclear engineer, became a healing music technician after a successful experience with alternative healing techniques following her car accident in 1985. Now she composes in a meditative trance in her self-designed computer music studio, and the resulting music is simply otherworldly, celestial choirs, sweeping drone sounds, all very soothing and beautiful. Hundreds of people have come forth with remarkable testimonials about healings and other life changes this album has effected. Listening to this, you'll feel enveloped in a blanket of divine love. Tape is 90 minutes of continuous music. CD is 72 minutes. Recommended! (MRC1) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sounding like music from other galaxies, or perhaps bells from heaven, this album is intended to assist in opening our dream states; the artist suggests you keep a dream journal for 8 weeks to help determine your own symbology for what is happening in your life. While this sounds very "far out", this title is my favorite of all her works to date (perhaps it's significant that I have a very active dream life and rarely understand their deeper meanings)... anyway, the sounds express a joy and exuberance with unexpected tone and pitch changes — it's exciting as well as relaxing! 60 minutes of continuous music. Highly recommended! (MRC2) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dream Partner

This 1992 release is a mellifluous flow of healing music, more melodious than her earlier works, with synthesized grand piano, 12-string guitar, and Peruvian flute. It was designed to enhance the listener's awareness about co-working with spirit. This reviewer has little experience in these advanced stages of consciousness, but this music does tend to move me into an altered state! Seems ideal for meditation and massage, and lots of people have claimed miraculous healings from listening to Marcey's music. (MRC3) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marianne Williamson

On Dealing with Anger

In this lecture based on A Course in Miracles, Marianne discusses how the need to get in touch with anger and release it — rather than suppress it — is essential to our spiritual well-being and our relationships. In expressing anger, without attacking, we need to feel safe enough to share our truth, and willing to hear truth from others. (HRP1957) CS: 10.98

On Communication

These lectures entitled Excellence in Communication and Listening with Love explore the need for open, clear communication with all people in our lives and methods for achieving this goal. By working to share our personal truth, we can find harmony in relationships — even when we disagree — by listening and not reacting judgmentally. To really communicate, we must really go behind our masks and speak from our essential selves. It is by knowing our feelings and telling the truth that people come to truly know and love us; we can then let go of the illusion of separateness and our fear of loss. (HRP10011) CS: 10.98

On Self-Esteem

In these two lectures entitled Loving Yourself and Emotional Self-Sufficiency, Marianne discusses achieving self-esteem through self-awareness rather than looking to things outside ourselves to confirm our worth... and achieving emotional fulfillment by looking beyond old patterns and mistakes to the fact that we are all perfect creations. It is this "sense of self" that allows us to weather difficult situations, be confident in our true worth, see ourselves as lovable, and take responsibility for our own emotional support. (HRP1935) CS: 10.98

On Intimacy

In her lectures Intimacy and Control and Real Intimacy, Marianne challenges us to focus not on "getting" the perfect partner but on becoming the perfect partner. She tackles modern romantic ideals when she communicates the idea that a relationship with one person cannot fulfill all needs, and illustrates how our primary relationship is with the universe. By removing the barriers to intimacy which we've created in the past and through fear, we can live our lives fully and experience true intimacy — in love, at work and with friends. (HRP10001) CS: 10.98

Age of the Great Goddess (2 Tapes)

The mystery of the Goddess culture is brought to life here by one of the great archaeologists of our time. The story of this audiotape begins in the 1920s, when Marija was a young girl living in Lithuania; she was fascinated with the folktales of her region, where Christianity was introduced relatively late (the 16th century). Many of these stories concerned the "Old Religion" and the Great Goddess — and were passed down as folklore from before the birth of Christ. After training as an archaeologist, she led 5 expeditions over 3 decades to explore the origins of the earliest European religions. What emerged from her life's work is evidence of an advanced culture, based not on weapons and fear, but on the presence of the Great Goddess, symbolizing a sacred union with all of nature. 2 tapes. 120 min. ## Marnie Jones

Grace

The remarkable music of whales and dolphins (all wild, from the Atlantic to the Pacific to the Amazon River), blended with harp, flute, clarinet, cello, and Marnie's angelic voice, make this 1992 album a feast for the spirit as well as the ears. Moods range from reverent to playful, as the awesome creatures of the deep inspire the musicians to create from their deeper selves. This all-acoustic recording is accented with some brilliant hand percussion and Tibetan bowls. One of the best albums incorporating sea-mammal sounds we've heard; infused with a profound sense of intimacy and intricacy; very highly recommended! (MJ38) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Fire Of My Love

This devotional tape of songs for Gurumayi Chidvilasanda, performed by a woman known to many as one of the founding mothers of women's music, is truly gorgeous! Meg's vocals and guitar, accompanied by resonant cello, violin, recorder and tabla, are as rich as ever, perhaps better. 3 of the songs were written by Meg: Gurumother Oh My Gurumayi and Darshan, which was also recorded on FROM THE HEART; most other songs were written by Gurumayi herself. The prevailing mood is one of a deep peace, which can be experienced by anyone, regardless of spiritual orientation. Meg's music has always had the power to affect her listeners this way, and still does. Recommended! (SYD58) CS: 11.98

Mindia

Balinese Dream

Innovative World Music composer, flutist and Gamelan player Mindia Kiem, co-founder of the Ancient Future ensemble, takes us on a journey to the Far East, exploring both inner and outer landscapes. Her musical impressions are interwoven with live sounds of the Balinese jungle and village life: Balinese gamakas, Indian tablas, bansuri flute, sarong and sari, along with guitars and flutes, co-mingle with Balinese frogs, birds, and ocean — a passing musical procession to the temple or a waltz of the Monkey chant, a village renewal ritual, riding on a breeze. This gorgeous bouquet of exotic rhythms, mysterious tonalities, and shimmering melodic episodes is filled with surprises... recommended! (MIN1) CS: 9.98

The companion to the resource book Womanprayer, Woman song, this is a feminist Christian celebration, with songs which speak of God in the feminine, describing Her aspects with feminine imagery, and calling for the liberation and unification of women of the earth. Refreshing and inspiring, whatever your religious affiliation! Miriam, professor of liturgy, worship and spirituality, is also a Medical Mission Sister, a group which has recorded 12 albums, including the award-winning Joy Is Like the Rain; her voice is very sweet, complemented by beautiful women's harmonies. Includes a songbook. (MMS1) CS: 16.98

She Changes

Subtitled A Collection of Songs from Healing Circles, this album was created to commemorate the Ecstatic Woman Gathering held in Santa Barbara on Halloween of 1991. These 24 chants and songs — both traditional invocation and Goddess songs, and original healing and affirming songs — are intended to open women's hearts to the power of healing. Beautiful harmonies and rhythms are employed by these 5 women (Mujiba Cabugos, Valerie Girard, Lonn Green, Chris Leja, and Julie Lewis), with tasteful accompaniment on percussion and occasional flute, harp and guitar. Lyrics included to make learning these easy; includes Honored Maiden Huntress, She's Been Waiting, Powerful Woman, Spider Woman, She Changes, Heal the Mother, Moon Sister Moon, We All Come from the Goddess, and Like A Mountain by Naomi Littlebear Moore, which they call Old and Strong. This 1994 release breaks ground in the emerging realm of Numinous World Music. The 5 women of the ensemble infuse 13 original compositions with intriguing harmonies that will inspire and uplift; exploring the Earth's rhythms through voice and musical instrumentation (guitar, bass, piano, Celtic harp, recorder, flutes and percussion), they create a myriad of powerful images of the Sacred. This collection of chants, prayers, and songs, which includes Dreaming Woman, Winged Omens, Oya Aya, Suite of the Tides, and Aparita (Angel Lullaby), is designed to take listeners on a journey into and through the Dream. CD's expected in early '95. (MYB2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Gala's Dream

Our highest recommendation goes to this exuberant 1992 recording which represents the music of our Mother Earth. The listener travels from the uplifting Afro-Greek rhythms of the celebratory Koula Koula to the deep Byzantine chanting and exciting heterophony of Artemis Silver Bow. The journey is a spiritual quest to the soul (includes some subtle male voices). Many Moons break the barrier of time; and Like You and Rapture send the listener to an upward celestial travel. The Indian sitar and bansuri flute combine with the African percussion of our wonderful neighbor Beverly Botsford, as well as soprano sax, guitar, synthesizers, choral vocals, and Helen Hooker's violin. All compositions are by Nana, clearly an artist with quite an expansive musical vision; we advise you to not miss out on this exceptional, inspired work! (BW13) CD: 14.98

Tibetan Bells II

Utilizing solely the bells, bowls, cymbals and gongs of Tibet, these artists create sounds which could almost be confused for electronic music! An unprecedented synthesis of the sounds of East and West, of Past and Present, of Here and Beyond — quintessential space music, produced by Stephen Hill of Hearts of Space. This is the musical and metaphysical heir to their original 1971 underground classic, Tibetan Bells. Prepare for an out-of-body experience. (CEL005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chants for the Queen of Heaven

Susan Robbins, musical director of Libana, described this program of songs and chants to the Goddess as "a wonderful and varied collection of multicultural and original chants, performed with spirit and conviction, and arranged using a many-colored palette of instrumental and vocal textures." And, we recommend this for all of you who have loved Libana and were searching for something else sort of like them! Containing women's sacred and ritual music from around the world, this 1993 album reflects the richness and variety of many woman-honoring traditions. Material ranges from a celebratory Renaissance procession (with English horn, flute, cello and percussion) to meditative Eastern incantations accompanied by Tibetan bell; from the driving poly-rhythms of an Afro-Brazilian chant to the tranquil Shikuhachi flute of a Japanese song; from simple but haunting modal melodies to complex harmonies by a 9-woman ensemble. Chants include Volcano Woman, Old Crone of Mystery, Rise Up and Call Her Name, Yamaya, Om Tara. Lyrics plus beautiful cover art... Recommended! (MMM001) CS: 9.98

This 1990 release carries the extended chant to a new level of complexity, with 48 tracks and 32 separate lines of choral music, while maintaining the stunning simplicity which creates wholeness and peace in the listener. Sides 1 and 2 are mixed differently; the first side, Rememberance, is gentler, more ambient; side 2 Celebration, features more variation, faster transitions and some intense male chanting. ### Gloria

Imagine entering a Gothic cathedral as the great bell sounds the call to prayer. The thousand-year-old melodies of Gregorian chant echo through the cathedral as the monks intone: "Gloria in excelsis deo, et in terra pax." ("Glory be to God and peace on earth.") The congregation responds, chanting again and again the simple refrain "Adoramus te." ("I adore thee.") On this 1991 extended-chant album, male voices are joined in beautiful harmony by the women of On Wings of Song and the delicate accompaniment of classical guitar. (SHM1014) CS: 9.98

Forceful and striking vocal harmonies blend with acoustic stringed instruments (guitar, cello) and percussion, creating chants and songs which are strong affirmations of the feminine. The first side of the tape musically casts a Dianic circle, and the second side includes songs of a more pantheistic nature. #### Full

We're thrilled to bring this spectacular 1993 album to your attention! Original songs and chants, some with great rhythms and fantastic percussion, some suitable for circles... especially Full Woman (an anthem for encouraging and celebrating full womanhood), and one to the African goddess Yemaya. Recorded with members of Bobby McFerrin's vocal group Voces, and expertly produced by Linda Tillery. If you love circle chants, extended chants, choral chants, and some incredible jazz scat here and there... if you've been missing the contributions, heritage and presence of women of color in the materials you've been using for circles... and if you're taken with music that's unique, inspired, inspiring, and celebratory, you'll love this! #### The Lark's Bride

An exquisitely-woven tapestry of dance-like chamber duets improvised in a classical style, with cellist Eugene Friesen (of the Paul Winter Consort), combined with Radhika's gorgeous arrangements for flute and harp (Michelle Seil) or piano (Rob Ramos); of some of the most majestic Renaissance and traditional melodies—from the 13th century on. Her fourth recording is absolutely unequivocally most highly recommended. (RM1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Gems of Grace

A perfect title for this inspirationally centering work, on which she collaborates again with harpist Michelle Seil, cellist David Darling, and pianist Allaudin Mathieu. All compositions are variations on the theme of grace—the sense of balance and beauty which brings us peace. She explores new textures here, introducing French horn player Alicia Telford, and some carefully chosen synthesized orchestral parts. Originally conceived of as a lullaby album for children (until she realized adults need unwinding more than their younger counterparts), it contains Her Majesty's Lullaby, Lullaby for Mary, Night Herding Song, and Motherless Child. As always, highly recommended. (RM1109) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

We All Come From the Goddess

Here's how Merlin Stone, author of When God Was a Woman, described this tape by Tori Rea, Moly Scott, and Sarah Benson... we couldn't say it better: "Drawing upon the Goddess images of Asia, the Near East and North America, these songs and chants create a magical space in which we can move thousands of years into the past or glide into visions of joyous future. Certainly a high point in the music emerging from women's spirituality!" Harmonizing vocals, some a cappella, some with flute, percussion; recorded in sacred places in southern France. Songs include the brooding I But A Little Girl, which tells the story of the Salem Witch Trials from the point of view of one of the "possessed girls"; Language of Stones, a ritual meditation piece rich with dream-like imagery; and Vampire, an audience favorite for years at concerts. ### Serpentine

The First Coil

This performer's name conjures up dynamic images, all befitting the unique music on her 1993 album. It could be called "Goddess rock"—gothic, tribal, ritualistic, with some almost terrifying sounds (a la Diamanda Galas). Themes are sexuality, power, ecstasy, spirit, blood, darkness and death—this is not all gentleness and love, but it is intense! Most songs are original; titles include Cycle, The Burning Times, Inanna, Lilith, Belonging to No One ("but to herself"). This is entirely different than anything else we have, and for that we recommend it! (SWW1) CS: 9.98

Water Ceremonial

This unique tape is quite unique—it's a bath tub ritual! "Create your own water ceremonial. Relax in a hot bath to the soothing sounds of voice, harp, and piano. Add your choice of relaxing tea, candles, incense, and oils." Megha Rosezealia Ryzen is the creator of this 23-minute continuous-play piece, and provides voice, harp and finger cymbals. Dena Charmaine is the harmonizing voice (and the apparent inspiration), and Shayla the keyboard artist. The multi-tracking creates a truly watery, nipping, dreamy, relaxing effect; this would be a perfect healing gift for friend or self in times of stress... just add the suggested accessories! Same program on both sides. (SMD1001) CS: 9.98

Gorgeous, lifting, beautiful, evocative, dreamy, soothing, lovely — get the picture? Stephanie is an accomplished harp (she's done everything from tour with Sly Stone to record scary movie soundtracks!) who composed, arranged, and produced this fabulous album. Her expertise is also strong in the orchestration department: the accompanying ensemble of wind and chamber instruments (cello, viola, flutes, recorders, oboes, English and French horns, tympani, bells, tablas and more) blend gently with her neo-classical/Celtic/new-age virtuoso harp movements — as someone said, "How many hands does she have?" Includes The Magic Fawn, Dream Dance, Dragon-maker. If you like Kay Gardner's A Rainbow Path, check this out! Highly recommended! (HW001) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Susan Osborn Signature

Some of you may have heard this incredible vocalist perform with the Paul Winter Consort. This is the first album she's recorded which she really feels has her signature on it. Includes Rolling Back the Stone, I'll Always Be a Lover, Winter's Dream, and John Lennon's Imagine. Her themes are affirmation, joy, openness, spirit. (LIF100) CS: 10.98

Suzanne McIntosh Healing Journeys

Subtitled Original Music Created to Stimulate Self Healing, this gorgeous recording has an almost other-worldly feel to it. Suzanne, former principal cellist with the National Symphony of Colombia, tells us that when she creates her music for healing, she first enters a relaxed meditative state in which she asks the music to come through her and her cello for the Highest Good for all who will listen. One can't help but be affected by the sweet, rich, sonorous sounds which she coaxes from that most melancholy of instruments, the cello. The CD is 60 minutes long, the tape 45, and will indeed take the listener on a peaceful, inspiring, gently drifting ride. (SUZ001) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Terry Garthwaite Affirmations

After a lengthy sabbatical from recording, one of our favorite vocalists is back with a fantastic 1992 recording of her affirmations: I Am Creative, I Carry Love, Sacred Within, Mother Earth, and I Am Sound. Side 2 repeats the vocals and percussion of Side 1, but gradually fades out the vocals so that you may fill the space with your own voice. The result embodies great spirit, and will definitely reach in and touch your heart. Very unique, and very recommended! (FJ008) CS: 11.98

Therese Schroeder-Shekar Historical Harp Volume I: Celebrant

Magnificent! On seven harp and two psalteries built by Lynne Lowandowski, Therese impeccably performs medieval sacred repertoire, elaborating upon monastic chants and improvising within the style as was customary in early music. The wide display of sound colors reflects some of the many voices typical to Romanesque, Gothic, Celtic, and early Renaissance harp. Some selections are accompanied by voice. Recommended for new age as well as classical and early music lovers. (LAD1001) CS: 9.98

Therese Schroeder-Shekar Rosa Mystica

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 13th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Triple Crescent Music Celebrating the Goddess

What a wonderful melding of women's music and women's spirituality! And, of course, any album which contains the classic song Amazon by Maxine Fedman — a precursor of both the women's music and culture movement and women's spirituality movement, and the song which still opens the Michigan Festival every year — has a place in our catalog! The trio (Norman Burton and Jade on vocals, Barbara Chusid on keyboards) performs Willie Tyson's stunning Witching Hour. Charlie Murphy's The Burning Times. Judee Sill's beautiful Lady O (and listen: stretch your memories, now, back to Ginni Clemmens' first album), Karen Mackay's Arms of the Goddess. Ruth Barrett's Every Woman Born, and more... all truly classics of classics! This is a must-have for the priceless, precious material contained here! (TRC1) CS: 8.98

Wheeler & Carol Mystic Soul

We're resurrecting this from an earlier catalog, because we think it's excellent, and hopefully folks are now more receptive to vocal works with a spiritual base. Gorgeous harmonies by Mary Elizabeth Wheeler and Jan Carl grace haunting melodies and lyrics revealing both depth and simplicity. All songs celebrate the inner life of the spirit (most are original), and feature rich accompaniment of cello, horns, and more, by David Darling, Nurudafina Pili Abens and others. Includes The Wheel, Join the Circle, The Blessing, and the outstanding Oh Great Spirit. Lyrics included; highly recommended! (SPS1001) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Alice Gomez Flute Dreams

This 1994 release is a particularly evocative instrumental album with a multiple-flute sound, revealing influences of the cultural heritage of the Native peoples of the Americas (especially Aztec, Inca and Mayan)... and reflecting the specific belief that playing a flute or a variety of flutes would bring special dreams. Composer Alice Gomez is a Mexican-American of Mayan descent, with several symphonies and chamber works to her credit. Here she plays keyboard, guitar and ceremonial acoustic percussion. Along with her sister Madelyn Blanchett on recorder, flutes and Marilyn Rife on marimba, keyboards, and more percussion, she has created gorgeous music which ranges from primal/ritual to symphonic in scope. You may already be familiar with some of their other work. If you've listened to Marimba Quest, Gorgeous... Recommended! (TT125) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Brooke
Medicine Eagle

Live from
The Shaman's
Cave

Brooke Medicine Eagle (w/K Gardner) The Shaman's Cave

This late 1993 release contains 11 songs actually recorded in an ancient ceremonial Shaman's cave, known to have been used by two-leggeds for at least 6000 years, with beautiful background flute music by Kay Gardner and Ken Light. Brooke stood deep in a vaulted, dripping chamber (a challenging setting for a "live" recording!) near where a stone altar still remains; when this altar was found, a huge old buffalo skull lay upon it, and a stone carved on one side with a bear, on the other side a buffalo. Includes Altar Song, Women's Healing Song, Vision Wise. (BME13) CS: 10.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Singing Joy to the Earth

Born of mixed ancestry and raised on a Crow Reservation in Montana, Brooke Medicine Eagle received spiritual training under a Cheyenne medicine woman. She is a visionary healer, teacher, author, singer, intertribal matriarch, as well as a counselor, currently involved in a 4-year cycle of ceremonies to align the consciousness of people around the world. This is a vocal tape with narration, on Native American chants; includes Chant to Call Spirit, Women's Healing Chant, Ancient Mother. (BME1) CS: 9.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Visions Speaking

Subtitled Songs of a Beauty Way, this album includes traditional Native American songs as well as new songs written by Brooke and friends. Backed up on vocals and flutes by Anne Williams, and accompanying herself on drums and rattles, Brooke considers this her finest work so far (1991). (BME11) CS: 10.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Grandmother Wisdom

Subtitled Lessons of the Moon-Pause Lodge (moon-pause means menopause), this 1992 teaching tape is specifically for the Grandmothers, and women who no longer experience their monthly bloods. Brooke lovingly guides women through the blessings now available to them, and teaches specific ways to honor the path toward Cronehood: to nurture and care for themselves and their communities. (BME12) CS: 10.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Healing Through Ritual Actions

A very practical tape on rituals which both symbolize and enable personal transformation; doing literal and actual exercises to prepare for and propel toward change and liberation. Some of the exercises are having your cake and eating it too; crossing a bridge; leaving; dropping burdens; getting something off the ground; letting go; going for it; and more. An effective tool. (BME7) CS: 10.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle A Gift of Song

Songs with messages of change and rebirth, with Brooke's drum accompaniment and gorgeous harmony vocals (plus a little harp) by Anne Williams. Includes Mother I Feel You, Blood of Life, about a woman's moon time cycle, Whirlwind Woman, or shaman woman, and others from Seneca, Suli, African, Maori, and other traditions, as well as originals by both Brooke and Anne. A wonderful collaboration. (BME8) CS: 10.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Empowering the Spiritual Warrior

Subtitled Walking a Beauty Path, this is an Elder Sister's teaching of techniques and tools for empowerment, "by healing our own dysfunction and disharmony, by touching the Great Mystery to empower our spiritual actions, and by literally getting our hands in the sweet soil of Mother Earth to renew this exquisite garden given us by Earth and Spirit." Chants, invocations, and spoken teachings are included: Attitude of Gratitude, Tools for the Journey, Vision Beauty Song, and more. (BME5) CS: 10.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie Coincidence and Likely Stories

Back after a hiatus of many years, Buffy returns with the distinctive voice and strong mix of pointed political and personal songs that endeared her to, and perhaps woke up, an entire generation. Almost all original and mostly new material on this 1992 release, though songs like Starwalker will sound welcome and familiar to some of us. Unfortunately, her indictments of the US government in its dealings with Native American communities and other disenfranchised populations are as relevant as they were 30 years ago, and her commentaries on money and power junkies have become even more scathing. Hopefully, more folks will be more ready to accept more responsibility now. Includes Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee, Disinformation, The Priests of the Golden Bull, Emma Lee. Recommended! (CHR21920) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie Best of Buffy Sainte-Marie I (Double)

Buffy Sainte-Marie Best of Buffy Sainte-Marie II (Dbl)

We welcome back into print the second double-length volume, which contains some wonderful material from her out-of-print album Illuminations (Mary, Adam, Poppies), as well as other favorites such as Welcome Welcome Emigrants, It's My Way, Hey Little Bird, Babe in Arms. (VAN33/34) CS: 11.98... CD: 15.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie It's My Way!

On the heels of a new US album release, this much-requested title supplements Buffy's revived catalog. It's one of her earliest (1964) and, newly released in 1992, contains many great classics: Now That the Buffalo's Gone, Cripple Creek, The Universal Soldier, God's Name, and one some of us may have missed noticing last time around, The Incant Song. (VAN79142) CS: 8.98... CD: 14.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie Little Wheel Spin and Spin

Recorded in 1966, this classic album reveals the roots of Buffy's musical career, the folk and protest songs that revolutionized the 60s. Drawing on a repertoire of traditional European ballads with more than a hint of irony, she also introduces My Country 'Tis of Thy People You're Dying, probably the first recording to confront White America on its racism towards Native Americans. With acoustic and electric guitar accompaniment, plus mouthbow. (VAN79211) CS: 8.98... CD: 14.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie She Used to Wanna Be a Ballerina

This release of Buffy's 1971 classic is welcomed most gratefully and enthusiastically into our midst! This reviewer was 11 (ed. !!!) when it was released, and listened to it every day after school (including the line, "fuck the war and bring our brothers home"), completely immersed in the passion and anger and beauty she projected. If you've never heard it before, treat yourself and thank the heavens you didn't miss it; if you're familiar with it, set aside that battered LP, put this on, and savor the trip back. Includes Soldier Blue, Neil Young's Helpless, the hypnotic The Surfer (also recorded by Gaudabarrance), and Leonard Cohen's Bells. Yay! (VAN79311) CS: 8.98... CD: 14.98

Dhyani Ywahoo Cherokee Teaching Stories

These teaching stories (The Story of the Magic Lake and The Coming of the Fire) are imparted in a loving and delightful style — her speaking voice is a lilting sort of singsong, which, when accompanied by flutes, drums, crickets, and other chanting voices, reverently illustrates her messages of treating the earth responsibly, and the necessity of following the spiritual path. Also includes a beautiful, stately chant, Immortals Among Us. (SUNT) CS: 11.98

Dovie Thomason Wopila - A Giveaway: Lakota Stories

Dovie is a captivating storyteller and cultural educator who has been sharing the stories of her Lakota and Kiowa Apache background for years at schools, libraries and powwows. Good and evil are neither obvious or polarized here; the characters are multi-dimensional and face choices; the stories will draw you in and leave you pondering. For ages 7-adult; recommended! (YM44) CS: 9.98

(CAE1946) CS: 10.98

Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios Kupuri: Huichol Songs & Music

Recorded in 1990 at the ceremonies and in the Mexican homes of the Huichol Indians, this unique cassette includes ancient songs and music sung by Grandmother Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios, a ceremonial shaman and carrier of the Huichol tradition; guitar and violin are played by members of her family. The music is lively, sung in Huichol, with short English narratives explaining the meaning of each song provided by Larin Boyd — she also produced and directed this recording, after completing a 6-year apprenticeship with these Huichol elder shamans. Proceeds help support this large Huichol family. (FWC1) CS: 9.98

Also a psychic and archaeologist, she teaches shamanic healing and Native American medicine and spiritual wisdom, about which she says, "I've been taught the most sacred ceremony is the 'give-away' — and if you don't give it away, the wisdom will die... ## Jessita Reyes & Grupo Yaqui

Deer Dancer

Jessita, who is also a member of the Native Flute Ensemble (and perhaps the first woman to master the courting flute), collaborates with a percussion ensemble — their instruments (tuned-water drums, hide drums, gourd rattle and stick rasp) carry on an intense conversation with her flute melodies. Inspired by the deer dance rituals practiced by many tribes, including Yaqui and Pueblo Indians. (TT110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jessita Reyes/Native Flute Ensemble

The Native Flute Collection

This four-long album includes samplings from several recordings by Jessita alone, Jessita with Ben Tavera King, and the Native Flute Ensemble, an excellent way to become familiar with the seven releases it represents. (TT111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah

Joanne, who was given the name Ogeyia Watahwa, "She Sings", is a member of the Oneida Nation-Iroquois Confederacy from NY; her mother is a Wolf Clan mother for the Oneida people. Through her contemporary ballads, she presents the Native American philosophy and heritage which continues today among the Iroquois and other tribes. Featuring her strong vocals in both English and Iroquois, with an enchanting blend of flute, rattles, bells, drums, harmonica, guitar and synthesizer, her mostly original selections include We Are the Iroquois, They Didn't Listen, Traditional Iroquois Social Songs. Recommended. (CNY545) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah & A. Paul Ortega

Loving Ways

"This album is dedicated to all those who are in love, out of love, wanna be in love, and dream about love." This 1991 release features collaborations by Joanne, Onondaga-Six Nations Iroquois (daughter of Maie Shenandoah, an Onondaga Chief) and Paul, Mesquero Apache. All vocals, instrumentation, and songs are by the two of them — quite sweet and gentle, reflective of the Native American philosophy and culture. Includes A Prayer for Sundancer, Blessing the Little Ones, Indian Love Song. (CNY546) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joy Harjo

Furlous Light

Joy is a fine poet and a fairly well-known Native American voice, who writes in an impassioned and vivid style. Her Creek ancestors speak eloquently through her writing, as do her own experiences and observations. On this tape her poetry is set to sax accompaniment by Laura Newman; covers all her books plus work in manuscript. (WS192) CS: 10.98

Lisa LaRue

Beloved Tribal Women

On this very unique album of instrumental music, Cherokee composer/keyboardist Lisa LaRue honors various Native women with 12 songs for synthesizer and piano with percussion accompaniment. Corresponding to each piece, the booklet contains a narrative of an important woman in Native history, plus a beautiful painting by Creek artist Jean Hill. Lisa says, "I have selected Indian women who achieved greatness or faced challenges, but are little known to some Indians, and especially non-Indian Americans... The Cherokees were a matrilineal society... I think it is important for today's people to see that this is not such a new idea." This 1994 album is issued by a Native American record company. Very beautiful, and very recommended for libraries and schools as well as individuals! (NV104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Medicine Heart Woman

Medicine Land

The Medicine Land: Gifts From the Earth Mother is a 60-minute tape with 22 songs performed by Medicine Heart Woman (part Cherokee and adopted daughter into the Ojibwa tribe) and 3 other women (all mixed blood, primarily white with Lakota, Navajo, and Hopi in their backgrounds), honoring Earth Mother and Native Spirituality. Proceeds are being donated to earth healing and Native American organizations. Includes Grandmother Moon, Mother Night, Ancient Sisters, Walk Upon the Mother, and other original chants and songs, with drums and simple instrumental accompaniment. (STF1) CS: 10.98

Native Flute Ensemble

Enchanted Canyons

The second release by this 2-woman 1-man trio was inspired by the ancient Anasazi civilization, as it creates the imagery of such "power spots" as New Mexico's Chaco Canyon and Arizona's Canyon de Chelly. The flute is framed by Native percussion instruments and synthesizers, producing a sound based on tradition yet mixed with contemporary touches. (TT103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Temple of the Dream Jaguar

This trio has gone South of the Border for inspiration for its spring 1991 release. Drawing on a shared mythology between the Hopi and the Mayans, they combine their exquisite flute melodies with the hypnotic sounds of pre-Columbian instruments. (TT106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ritual Mesa

Jessita Reyes, Lois Little Bear, and John "Pinky" Martinez blend Native American flute, Taos Drum, Yaqui rain stick, Hopi rattle, and rain scraper with occasional synthesizer to create an environment in which traditional Southwestern and contemporary idioms meet. Clearly inspired by Native American ceremonial music, the sound is at once serene and evocative, unadorned yet complete... a soundscape of sacred sites and windswept mesas. (TT101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Riding Thunder

On this 1994 release, the legends and history of North America's wild horses inspire a driving series of compositions that retell the mustang story via Native American flutes, ceremonial drums and synthesizers. (TT123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gathering of Shamen

The theme of this 1993 release is the regular gatherings held by shamen in the Black Hills of South Dakota, The Four Corners Region of the American Southwest, and Atitlan in Guatemala. Each of the 9 compositions, spotlighting the Native American cedar flute with enhancements by Native percussion and synthesizers, relates to one of these "power" areas, with distinct sounds and styles that will guide listeners on their aural journey. (TT119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sharon Burch

Yazzie Girl

Beautiful contemporary expressions of traditional Navajo culture and spirituality, with original songs inspired by the chants and prayers she recalls from her childhood. She accompanies her lovely vocals with guitar. 7 selections are in Navajo, 2 in English and Navajo, with translations and transcriptions included. Highly recommended! (CNY534) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On this 1993 recording, the artist and her daughter provide vocals, to her own accompaniment on drums, rattles, chimes and other natural sounds of Mother Earth. Includes some originals (Drumming Gift, Walking the Desert, Soaring Eagle), plus Spirit of the Wind, Mother I Feel You, Whirlwind Woman, White Buffalo Woman, 17 in all, some from Brooke Medicine Eagle and other sources. The strength of this music is in the simplicity of the instruments and the strength of the voices; very female. (SEP194) CS: 10.98

All Love Can Take

On her second album, the "singing shrink" seeks a broader healing than that possible from a therapist's couch! Timely, poignant lyrics and haunting melodies, co-written with her mother Nancy Khoury, characterize this 1992 release. From country to swing to blues to rock, this woman attacks each genre with a passion and comes up shining! Her voice is strong and soft in all the right places, and the arrangements are right on target. We Love Her Two Step On My Heart, as well as Co-Dependence Didge and Souvenirs of What We Shared. ## Alice Di Miele

Make A Change

If you're looking for some political folk music performed in an irresistibly gorgeous alto voice, try this! Her strong, deep, textured vocal quality will pull you right in and mesmerize you, as it effectively communicates her ideas: love for the earth and all creatures, a strong commitment to peace, political and social change, and to personal and political growth — pretty comprehensive, eh? Includes Wise Old Woman, Dismantle, and more; primary accompaniment is cello, guitar, Nicel. (ADM101) CS: 9.98

Alice Di Miele

Searching

Alice is continuing on a fruitful musical journey, as this 1992 release demonstrates. Her rich, sweet, emotive voice rides and caresses her beautiful melodies and messages of love, caring, concern and passion. Her topics here are the earth (her land and her creatures) love (she writes sweetly about the long-term kind as well as the discovery of love), desire, domestic violence, the Gulf War (Land of Broken Promises). Some lovely violin accompaniment in addition to the guitars/bass/percussion. The title of That Sweetness, the closing song, probably sums up the album in two words. (ADM104) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Too Controversial

This 1990 release features more of Alice's trademark heartfelt lyrics and soulful voice, plus tightly arranged accompaniment (acoustic guitar, bass, keyboards, percussion, soprano sax and cello). Many songs focus on deflating the oppressive aspects of American culture, but what saves this from being a ranting political manifesto is Alice's gorgeous vocal treatment — alternately sweet and growly, whispery and full-throated — and integral acoustic instrumentation. Other songs speak of a woman's love (Naomi), women's spirituality (New Moon), and a lovely cover of the traditional Water Is Wide. Overall, a great example of "personally political" music. (ADM103) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Naked

This 1994 release was recorded live, in studio and concert, to capture the spirit of her performances. Her wide-ranged voice is at its best here, with a variety of styles, from the folksy Bring Back the Rain to the jazzy If I Could Move the World to the Hilarious TV Song. Included are 2 woman-identified blues numbers with the terrific jazz guitar of Mimi Fox, and 2 tunes with violin. Topics include love, personal healing, activism, traveling, and defending diversity. Acoustic music doesn't get any better than this — highly recommended! (ADM105) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Alive! (with Rhiannon)
City Life

Cassettes are back in print! "A triumph of human and musical spirit—that's City Life at its best. Their individual and collective mastery of idioms—from bebop and ballads to Afro-Cuban and pop—is abundantly evident on this album"—this quote from their jacket sums it up. The reasons Alive! is gaining recognition and respect in the greater jazz world will be no mystery to listeners. (ALV543) CS: 9.98

Alive! (with Rhiannon)
Call It Jazz

Cassettes are back on this one too; LPs at half price! If you love Rhiannon as a vocalist, but weren't around when she fronted this ensemble, take our word for it, you'll love this! Recorded at the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco in May 1981, it's dynamite...this recording actually preserves that elusive, most magical spirit which Alive! embodied in performance. Produced by Helen Kearse. (ALV484) LP: 4.98 CS: 9.98

Out of this blend has flowered some of the most revolutionary, unified & beautiful sounds being created these days by anyone. Among the songs here are City Life, Somebody's Talkin', Dark Side of the Moon, and one of the greatest songs ever, Spirit Healer. (WWEH4) LP: 4.98 CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin
Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney

This incredibly wonderful release — in our opinion, Alix's best yet — was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, The Girls Want to Be Intimate, Shameless Nuzzies, The Girls Want to Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years), simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very, very highly recommended! (WVA006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin
Love & Politics: A 30 Year Saga

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 29 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian Wars, plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shinin' Through (which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists). This release coincides with her first year off the road in work, making it especially precious! Includes The Woman in Your Life, Amazon ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes, 14 more. Absolutely recommended! (WVA007) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin
Living With Lesbians

This outrageously funny yet warm & wise tribute to lesbians contains not only words of support, but the sweet voice of Alix. Trained in Balkan singing by Ethel Raim, Alix has incredible control over her voice. She utilizes it well on her own songs & a few traditional Balkan ones. Original compositions feature her on guitar with all-woman back-up singing to & about lesbians. Includes Mary B., Good Old Dora & Amazon ABC ("a saucy romp through thelesbo-alphabet"). (WVA002) CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin
XX Alix

This collection of songs is, as usual, highly personal, concrete, articulate, thoughtful, & thought-provoking. Her originality, observations & experiences emerge as entities which are simultaneously aesthetic & contentful, vulnerable & solid-as-a-rock. Alix doesn't camouflage paradoxes with rhetoric, she explores them, uses them...so refreshing and satisfying. Features the talents of River Lightwoman & Susan Shanbaum, includes Theme from "Getting Ready", Living with Contradictions, Separation 78, Woman to Woman. The title, by the way, refers to both Alix's sign-off in letters (kisses) & double-dutch-somes of females. (WVA003) CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin
These Women/ Never Been Better

Ever in a ground-breaking, controversial mode, Alix will shock her folkie fans with some of these selectional Mixing high-tech sound with undiluted feminist and lesbian messages. Alix joins with Carol MacDonald and Wilton to create the honest, scathing Boy-Girl Rap, Some Boys, and a country remake of her classic The Woman in Your Life is You, then, switching to her more familiar and still-dear folk style, she delivers Big Girls, Crazy Dance, 100 Easy Ways to Lose a Man, and the lovely These Women. Never Been Better is how Alix views women's lives and women's culture...is how Alix empowers women to focus on strength and change...is what you'll say about Alix's music after you hear this! Highly recommended. (WVA005) LP: 4.98 CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin, Kay Gardner
Lavender Jane Loves Women

The first blatantly lesbian album we know about (1974) and one of the first to be completely produced & engineered by & for women. An artful blend of serious & humorous material. Contains some real classics, like I Only Want to Be With You, a couple of traditional songs, help from the kids. Alix's voice-training yells, plus original Lesbian compositions, includes The Woman in Your Life is You, Talking Lesbian & View From Gay Head. (WVA001) CS: 9.98

Angela Motter
Outta Control

Perhaps you've read Angela's interview in the lesbian magazine DeNeue recently? With a degree in classical guitar performance (her teachers are probably very proud and spinning in their graves!), this Atlanta native has covered great musical ground before gracing us with this 1992 debut album. With a clear, aching voice, incredible slide and 12-string guitars, and enough production smarts to turn out this finely-crafted release, she can write her own ticket in the future, we're sure! Joined by several woman instrumentalists, and aided in production by Atlanta's Dede Vogt, the album includes the rockin' How Does It Feel?, reminiscent of Melissa Etheridge's Does She Love You Like I Do?, plus the bluesy title song. Highly recommended! (BDRT) CS: 8.98

Ann Reed
By Request

Featuring some great "environmentally friendly" packaging (would that it were all this way...no plastic cases to crack, replace, trash, store, ship, reship...!) this 1992 release is just what it says: material that Ann has issued by request of her fans. Ann with her glorious voice and 12-string is accompanied by Joan Griffith on bass and 6-string, includes Lisa's Song, Every Long Journey, Styrofoam, and more. (AML1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Hole in the Day

Our favorite midwestern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for ya! This 1993 12-song release features her thrilling brown-sugar-&-molasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her wry love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miles Home to You, and No Road to Juneau. (AML2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Talk To Me

Ann's back with some great songwriting and guitar-playing; she turns out originals which are strong melodically, exciting, and romantic yet solid...intelligently dealing with interpersonal relationships. Includes Autumn Rain, a meditation-like piece with guitars and vocals, and Complications To a Simple Life. (RH24) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Back & Forth

The Best is back...in print, that is; this contains the best from her first releases Carpenter and Room and Board, such as The Woman You Love, Jessie, Jamie; plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston?. We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's irresistible voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and all acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluesy vein. (WNO291) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed & Phyllis Goldin
Strings Attached

Originally conceived as a mail-order or live stage-only recording that would feature instrumental pieces that Ann has been doing at her concerts, this 1993 project expanded to include Phyllis' piano responses to Ann's guitar instrumentals; a couple of solo piano pieces; and a mixed collection of songs written by both Phyllis and Ann, but sung only by Ann. Includes the two songs most often requested at Ann's concerts, I'll Keep My Hat and Perpetual Emergency; also, a sure hit with any of the 40-and-over crowd: This Isn't My Party — as well as Women's Room, Sadie, Arcestry Dance, and more. Production is light throughout, with mandolin, percussion, guitar, bass and piano. (AML3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir
...but we fight for roses too

Established in 1975, Anna Crusis is one of the oldest feminist choirs in the US. Their multicultural repertoire seeks to reflect the rich diversity of human lives and struggles, especially those of women, with songs which are empowering, challenging, and fun. This long-awaited tape by the 40 or so members fulfills their goal, with truly stunning harmonies and a wonderful variety in melody, arrangement, and source...plus a tasteful touch of instrumentation. Includes Burning Times, about the burning of the witches, and Heaven, Dragana, Shikari, inspiring for regular listeners, as well as any who participate in a women's chorus. Recommended! (ANN1) CS: 10.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir
Fresh Cut

This 1993 release by the country's oldest feminist choir boasts a multicultural repertoire that reflects the rich diversity of women's lives and struggles, sung in English, Spanish, Bulgarian, Yoruba and Latin. The liner notes offer insights about what the songs mean to the choir members, and what it was like to learn and perform them. Representing two years of work, this album includes compositions by two Philadelphia women, the playing of several fine Philadelphia instrumentalists, and is dressed in the beautiful art of Sara Steele. Selections include Daughter, Awake with the Moon; Quitting Time by Margaret Roche; Fred Small's Annie; and a medieval church psalm to Mary with refreshingly feminist notes. (ANN2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Barbara Higbie
Signs of Life

Available for so many years, here at long last is the 1990 solo album by one of the most talented keyboardist-composers around, known to many for her work with Teresa Trull and Montreux. And it will probably exceed your highest expectations. Here she blends her incredibly beautiful voice (which has been a secret to us for a long time) with stirring lyrics, adding to them her already accomplished instrumental style. Includes The Safest Place in the World, which couples will probably play over and over. Very highly recommended! (WH1090) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

BETTY

Kiss My Sticky (E.P.)

This 5-song E.P. includes three mixes of the title track, a lascivious little number in which the line "Kiss my sticky and a cow will come out" makes me blush although I do not have any idea what it means. Also includes Alpacas, which extols the joys of cavorting amidst a llama herd, and the best version of High Hopes, that art/rubber plant chestnut, this side of Laverne and Shirley. This E.P. is a fundraiser for their next full-length album. Recommended, of course — it is from BETTY! (BET2) CD: 7.98

Blazing Redheads

Put on your cha-cha slippers and get ready to dance...to the Latin jazz from this 7-woman band from the Bay area. With 3 percussionists, 2 saxophone players plus bass and keyboards, you know the rhythm's gonna be driving, undulating and raucous! Each brings years of experience playing salsa, jazz, funk, Latin, Brazilian, and rock music, and together they form a tight ensemble. Material and arrangements are original...recommended! (REF26) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Crazed Women

The Redheads have a new one for 1991...jazzy and percussion-rich, with elements of Latin, R&B, and even rock...fun and exciting! Joy Julks plays bass on this one. (REF41) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bobbi Carmitchell

Follow Thru

Well, the comparisons to James Taylor are just gonna continue — the heart-tugging acoustic guitar chords, sweet voice, soft rhythms, and warm and thoughtful lyrics all add up into a thoroughly enjoyable listening experience! She exudes a friendliness and candor, writes great songs, and here on this 1992 album, is joined by a fantastic band (bass, drums, cello, flutes, guitars). Recommended! (LOC5) CS: 0.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connie Kaldor

Wood River

Subtitled Home Is Where the Heart Is, this beautiful, haunting collection of Connie's songs from the Canadian prairies has finally captured the warmth and emotion of the artist's live show. It contains new material as well as her classics — her best-known and most-often requested compositions, such as the title track; also Margaret's Waltz, Grandmother's Song, Saskatoon Moon, Hymn from Pincher Creek, Bird on a Wing, Modern Lullaby, and more. (COY9101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

One of These Days

This album is a gem, it's great! The voice of this Canadian singer-songwriter is exceptionally fine and strong, some songs are feminist, and one is among the funniest we've ever heard: "Jerk! With a capital J!" "Hey hey baby..." who whistle at and harass women walking by. This song is worth the price alone, but there's a whole album of good stuff with it. Another notable one is gospel-style Strength, Love and Laughter, inspiring women to look inside for their treasures. However, this album is one treasure you'll have to order from an external source (like us) and we hope you will! You won't be disappointed. (COY1317) CS: 9.98

Out of the Blue

This 1994 release contains more of Connie's "the romantic returns" ballads, a fairly raucous gospel love song called I'm a Believer, an acappella number entitled Relax, and a raft of the artist's trademark songs of love and life that reach out and grab you by the insides. She considers it her best yet! (COY015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

The Changer and the Changed

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child, Of Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. (OL904) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Strange Paradise

Musically on par with Changer & the Changed, with more rock-n-roll influence & some phenomenal synthesizer. Joined by Jackie Robbins, June Millington, & on one cut, Bonnie Raitt. (OL921) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

A release of the 1971 Ampex recording which introduced Meg Christian to Cris' music and sparked the idea for the women's recording company which became Olivia. This is "vintage" Cris in her simultaneously raw and refined vocal power, with the first recorded versions of Journa, Waiting, Frontier. (OL927) CS: 9.98

Blue Rider

Rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry on this new studio album. Includes Lucille, featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals. Lodestar which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Randle, Leviathan — a song about whales, and Heart to Heart. String arrangements by Mary Watkins. (OL931) CS: 9.98

Circle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Sweet Woman, Shooting Star, Dreamchild, Sister, Song of the Soul — as well as previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire: If It Weren't For the Music (well, it was released, but only on a 45 rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Olivia, Millwork, Hey Good Lookin', and more. A wonderful way to remember and to honor the album and the era, 72 minutes long. (OL953) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Best of Cris Williamson

Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically, a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology, Portrait). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Woman, Sister, Joanna, Surrender, Dorothy — and many others of her best ever, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. (OL959) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Wolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout! From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("no longer the lone wolf...") to the title song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also Goodnight Marjorie, Morningstar for Natalie Wood; Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence; and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (OL951) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Prairie Fire

Singing of pioneering spirits and western expanses, Cris really rocks out on this one! The driving sounds of the title cut, the reggae of Colorado Dustbowl Days, the visionary rock of Burnin' (a Japanese word for new wave!) and the Native-American sound of Grandmother's Land make this a recording that will be hard to stop listening to. And bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, tight rhythm — what talent there! (OL941) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson & Teri Fure

Postcards From Paradise

On this 1993 collaborative effort from two of the best-loved artists in women's music, evocative songwriting and stirring vocals challenge us to live in peace, honor the earth and love each other. About half the tracks are duets; most of the rest feature Cris on lead vocals, and Teri provides lead vocals on two. Includes Living On and The Best Interests of the Children, on which Cris and Teri are joined by Michael Callen, the "Olivia" and former member of the Fictions. Also includes Little World, Spinning Blue, The Scopes From Heisen's Field, Garden Ring, Creamboat (Rivers of Heaven), My Father's Hands, and more. (OL971) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull

Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour; Calamity Jane, "goodtime cowgirl romp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways...and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably ASR ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! (SW22013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Meg Christian

Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire history-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Betty Rose's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite oldies. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW933) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Don't Doubt It

Very hip, very contemporary, very danceable. Deidre's unique sound is clearly brought out by the superb production skills of Teresa Trull. Deidre has been performing for women's audiences for many years and this, her debut solo recording, has been anxiously awaited. Songs include Dance All Night, Wake Me Up Gently, Did You Think I Didn't Know. If you like Cris Williamson or Teresa Trull, you're sure to like Deidre. And we'd sure like to hear more from her! (OL939) CS: 9.98

With a Little Luck

...and a ton of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deidre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album is even better than her first, from the impressive celebratory exuberance of All Day Always (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words...Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Everyday Heroes & Heroines

This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deidre's best yet! — demonstrates this singer/songwriter's exceptional talent again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a foot-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love lost to social criticism. Includes All Over the World, Outside, Girl You Don't Know, Blessings, Sing Me To Sleep. Highly recommended! (OL955) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Destiny

We Are Destiny...

This trio describes itself as a Lesbian-Feminist band singing songs about lesbian life and love... they rock a little and swing a little, while celebrating the everyday lives of lesbian women (evident in their song titles: Lesbian Lover — an audience participation number that requires the audience to sing the word "lesbian" several times, plus Lust, Provincetown, Pretty Woman, Homophobic Blues, Softball on Belmont Plateau). Comprised of MaryJo Paranzino, her lover of 16 years Mary Abt, and percussionist Diane Biting, they have appeared at many regional and national lesbian and gay festivals and pride marches, including the March on Washington, Campfest, and the Gulf Coast Women's Festival. Refreshingly and matter-of-factly OUT music! (DESS43) CS: 9.98

Diane Lindsay

Give In to Love

One of the pioneers in early women's music — she wrote the classic Sweet Darling Woman, for instance — makes a comeback in 1994 with more great songwriting, serious vocals, and terrific bass-playing. Her lyrics, which reflect human hopes, struggles and weaknesses with compassion and honesty, are always paired with a catchy tune, so the more you listen, the more you want! Includes All Over Me, which appears on the Family of Friends album and was voted "Favorite Current Song" by Hot Wire Magazine readers. (CSC2) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dianne Davidson

Breaking All The Rules

While newly taking the women's music world by storm, Dianne's no newcomer to the larger music scene, as this high-energy, gutsy singer, who has performed with Tracy Nelson and Linda Ronstadt, makes her debut on Second Wave Records. Years ago we carried some of her now-out-of-print albums; but she outdoes any previous effort by a long shot here. The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away: it booms, it wails, it burns, it belts her mixture of blues, country, gospel, r&b, and ballads. About half her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist); the balance is perfectly chosen: includes Built For Comfort, Heaven Bound, Everything To Me. Backup vocals on one song by Tracy Nelson; outstanding production (by Dianne). Can ya tell we like this a lot? Highly recommended! (SW22011) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

disappear fear

I've been looking for this generation's Bob Dylan — a songwriter with passion and power — and I think that I've found that... only it turned out to be a woman named Sonia. That's how producer Craig Krampf feels about Sonia Frank, the creative force and songwriter for disappear fear, and that's why he wanted to produce this 1994 release. It features 10 new disappear fear songs and an updated cover of Phil Ochs' 60's anthem Is There Anybody Here? Special guests include Janis Ian and the Indigo Girls. (PH1171) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Echo My Call

Sonia Ruststein Frank and Cindy Frank are blood sisters with captivating sister-harmonies, and their duo album is characterized by haunting melodies, content that spans the personal to US intervention in Central America, and a soulful folkbeat delivery. All the material is by husky-voiced lead singer and guitarist Sonia. Nice debut; watch for them at festivals. (RER1003) CS: 9.98

Deep Soul Diver

With not much more than 2 voices, a guitar and a tambourine, this duo has created a surprisingly sophisticated sound. Veterans of Dinner Theater at the Southern Women's Music Festival, sisters Sonia and Cindy combine engaging melodies with catchy and thoughtful lyrics. This 1990 album balances emotional sincerity and irreverence in songs like For Hollywood and Willand Sexual Telepathy. (DSP1004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Live in P-Town (Double)

The Fabulous Dyktones album is once again back in print: a full hour and a half by everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's, at a dance party at Dyke High! From To Know Her Is To Love Her to My Girlfriend's Back to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykangelic Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended! ## Erica Wheeler

From That Far

This Massachusetts singer/songwriter embodies the finest qualities of folk music: the vocal warmth, the clear acoustic tones, the simplicity of the stories of our lives. Erica's voice is silky and sweet on this 1992 release, her songwriting direct and poetic; and tasteful production, coupled with some of the Northeast's best players, all serve to highlight her songs. Includes Amanda Crazy Wolf, the glowing Down River, the non-morogamy song Back Burner Blues, and Car With No Brakes, about being partners with an incest survivor. Infused with spirituality, landscapes, poetry and wit, we highly recommend this album! (BP200) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fern 2 Fern

Woman to Woman

Riding on the wave of the recent "lesbian chic" comes a most unusual 1993 release! This 5-woman (or should we say 5-femme) ensemble creates openly lesbian high-tech dance club music... and you can sure dance to it! Includes their single Switch ("Femme in the streets... butch in the sheets..."). Woman to Woman, All About Eve, Coming Out, Freedom of Choice — now you don't have to zone out the lyrics while you lose yourself to the beat! Perhaps some of you caught their appearance on the Geraldine show, with comic Karen Williams and Judy Diagacz of Olivia Records. We're thrilled to see a greater degree of mainstream acceptance, that's what this signifies, though time will tell what happens after the novelty/fad is over... in the meantime, enjoy it to the utmost! ### Song of Hands

This 1994 album debuts a 7-woman scappella ensemble (they sound like more than 7 to this listener!), whose name translates "woman, my friend". With soaring harmonies that clearly communicate a love of singing, they present songs from around the globe, from contemporary African freedom songs to Spanish Renaissance madrigals, plus originals and songs by other contemporary writers. The women are members of a Unitarian Universalist choir who first got together to sing songs from Libana — you'll hear some similarities in style as well as material. One highlight is a song we remember from a Jade and Sappaphia album, Home, also some songs from Carolyn McCade, and Linda Hirschhorn's Circle Chant... 18 in all, bound to please all lovers of women's voices. There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter...hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock "n' roll". Her testimony: "By our lives be we spirit...by our hearts be we women...by our eyes be we open...by our hands be we whole." (CW003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shadows on a Dime

This Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite, very highly recommended! (CW004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Driver

In Ferron's own words: "The road may go on forever but it is easier if we remember that the vehicle may change... From the opening song called Breakpoint, the invocation to perfect love, to the last song Maya, the dedication to actual love, this album of 10 songs is an exploration of how change and commitment interact with each other and with supposed meaning in our lives... I asked myself, and each of the 12 musicians, to play as though we had already got to where we were going and craved nothing more than to stretch out and hold sacred the now of the song. There is a place in each of the songs where I forget where I am, very much like what sometimes happens when we drive and think." Lyrical, lots of depth, layers and substance on this 1994 release, as usual, and as always, very highly recommended. (EB42564) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Resting With the Question

Who'd have guessed that Ferron's musical gift could express its poetry through instrumental music as well as through songs with lyrics? Not I, certainly, but this 1992 release proves the mistaken! Eloquent compositions performed on synthesizer are saturated with emotion: lush, wistful, yearning, haunting, rich, and circular... elegant and probing dreamscapes. And you'll probably lapse into thinking you're hearing flutes, classical guitars, strings, piano, and human voices. A highly recommended opportunity to experience another dimension of this woman's artistry. (CW006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any albums: the concert favorite I Know A Game, and Shady Gate, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center... 16 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Girls in the Nose

One of our top six for 1991!! Wild, raunchy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 6-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wilder persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hut, Prisoners of Pantyhose (so here's some advice from Girls in the Nose: Women unite, take back your hose! Take them back to the damn store... Let nylons be bygone!), and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (G1N1) CS: 9.98

Origin of the World

Wherever these gals blow their nose, audiences hold out their hankies for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands, "kickass lesbian rockers from the Lone Star State" whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless... This 1992 release contains: Breast Exam, More Madonna, Less Jesus, Pink Guitar, Medusa, Sodomy, Incongruity, and more, singing to and with sexuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pre-choice, pro-homo recording! (G1N2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Halcyon

I'm Naked and I'm Going to Paris

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies, ringing acoustic guitars, catchy tunes and upbeat rhythms. Their 1994 release is just in time for fans hungry for more, after their successful debut and festival tours, here with bass/drums/percussion accompaniment. Stephanie Callahan and Debbie Hunseder write their songs primarily around the lost-love theme in its various manifestations, as well as the more political Fire in the Church and Wait For You, about the patience and persistence of love. ## Heather Bishop

I Love Women...Who Laugh

This album is the embodiment of a successful transition in style, from a solid blues background to a more rock-oriented, funkier sound. Utilizing an incredible array of synthesizers, plus congas and saxophone, Heather produces strong moods and currents of emotion. Mostly original and clearly woman-identified material. Includes title cut, The Holocaust, Our Silence. Recommended. (MOP004) LP: 4.98 ... CD: 9.98

Heather Bishop

A Taste of the Blues

This 1987 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for... that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seduced!, Leslie Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armatrading's Taking My Baby Uptown ("with a pretty person on my arm"), Carolyn Brandy's Spirit Healer, and many originals. Sumptuous jacket, fine production, excellent artwork, wonderful woman. (MOP006) LP: 4.98 ... CD: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Walk That Edge

Heather's seventh recording has a simple down-home flavor, a contemporary folk sound with both country and rock influences. Her lyrics and music are sometimes saucy, sometimes sultry — daring to walk that edge — and sometimes sad and haunting, with images of separations, ghosts from the past, the path not taken. Includes Let Them Talk, which when sung by Heather becomes an affirmation of love between women, and I'm Not the One, about surviving an abusive relationship, with a driving guitar solo by Sherry Shute. A (wonderful) 1989 release. (MOP007) LP: 4.98 ... CD: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults: Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written, like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Rain. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Ancient Cry and Yes To Life. BORROWED: songs like Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom. BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 19 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print: lots of her best work here; very recommended of course! (MOP009) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Helen Hooke

Romancing the Soul

Helen is a veteran of women's music; one of the original members of the feminist rock group Deadly Nightshade, she has been making music with a woman's perspective for 20 years! She's put out a few solo releases since then; this, in our opinion, is her best yet! Great, catchy original songs — she wrote them all — and she sings and plays her famous violin on them all. Back-up instrumentation ranges from accordion to jazz guitar. Many of these songs could become soft rock classics, given the opportunity, especially the opening track River of Love. (MBK1003) CS: 9.98

Hershey: Quad-City Women's Chorus

Peace, Justice and Harmony

This 1992 release contains 22 touching and delightful songs by this 25-member women's chorus from the Quad Cities, an Iowa-Illinois community clustered on the Mississippi River. Their music addresses women's issues, multiculturalism, love for the earth and spirituality. Includes Beware, an original feminist take-off on fairy tales and nursery rhymes; Carolyn McCade's Spirit of Life; choral renditions of songs by Pat Humphries, Fernon, Ann Reed, Libana, Holly Near, Bernice Reagon, Therese Edell, Carole Etzler, and others. If you sing in or enjoy listening to a women's chorus, this is for you. (HER1) CS: 9.98

Imagine My Surprise!

...that Holly's most woman-identified album is not only back in print, it's also being issued on CD! Contains some funky country-style music, inspiring political stories, beautiful musical and vocal arrangements by Meg Christian, and a sweet lullaby. Includes title, Mountain Song, Kentucky Woman, The Women in My Life, You Bet I Sing Love Songs, Rock Me in Your Arms, Nine, Fight Back!. (RR401) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fire in the Rain

She's done it again! Holly's incredible talent as a singer/songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (she also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this LP has a tight arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as Golden Thread, Voices, & a remake of My Man's Got Trouble called I Got Trouble. Title cut sparkles with harmonics. (RR402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Don't Hold Back

Holly seems to present her listeners with one surprise after another, and this album is no exception! An entire volume of love songs: passion, heartbreak, and sheer fun... with hot arrangements and guest vocals by Bonnie Raitt, Linda Tillery, and Kenny Loggins. If you like the energy of contemporary radio and wish you could hear your favorite artists on it, you can rock out with that! For fans old and new. (RR413) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Musical Highlights From The Play...

About this spring 1993 release of highlights from her play Fire in the Rain, Holly says, "While doing the play, audiences kept asking for the cast recording. We didn't have one. The songs were spread out on 15 different recordings made over the last 20 years! A compilation? No, let me record these songs one last time... not like I sang them back then... maybe not even how I sing them in the show! I hope you enjoy this recording... a celebration of the last 20 years and a reassurance that there are many surprising years yet to come." There are also a few brand new songs here: her originals Find Me and Chango of Heart, as well as a couple of Broadway-type covers. (RR5303) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sky Dances

A 1989 folky, intimate, emotion-filled release which features Holly at her absolute best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Fernon (Tarimony), Bernice Johnson Reagon (They Are Falling All Around Me—especially relevant during the AIDS epidemic), Ruben Blades, Phil Ochs, Malvina Reynolds, and Holly herself (Nicaragua)... plus her inimitable interpretation of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. Her themes relate to life, death, and healing/carrying on after loss; accompanying her are John Bucchino, Michael Manning, Nina Gerber. This is the style which has endeared Holly to her thousands of fans; this album should make her many more. (RR8902) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Journeys

A representative sampling from her first six albums, compiled because so many folks, new to her music, have asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of It Could Have Been Me. (RR405) CS: 9.98 ... ## Holly Near/ Arlo/ Ronnie/ P. Seeger

HARP

When this reviewer dies and goes to folk heaven, she fully expects this recording to be heard in elevators and dentist offices. HARP bridges the gap of generations and gives a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. On this live recording, Pete and Ronnie (two original members of the legendary Weavers) lead the group on classic oldies like Jacob's Ladder, Oh, Mary Don't You Weep, Winowah. Arlo solos with such favorites as City of New Orleans and All Over The World. Holly's solos include Fine Time and a moving medley with Ronnie of Marvin Gaye's What's Going On—and her own Foolish Notion. The four perform together and weave harmonies. This is historical folk music at its best. (RR409) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert

Lifeline

A majestic collaboration of generations and spirits. Ronnie was one of the Weavers in the 40s and 50s, a folk group which loudly voiced the progressive and humanist concerns of the American people until the blacklist virtually silenced them, and which won the hearts and devotion of a huge following. Holly grew up admiring Ronnie's strong, proud singing and stance, and dedicated her second album (A Live Album) to her. They got together for the filming of "Wasn't That a Time", when Ronnie was learning some of Holly's songs for the Weavers' Carnegie reunion concert. Ronnie's awareness of women's issues and her consciousness of herself as a woman performer had grown because of Holly's music. They then began touring together, and this is a live recording from the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco. Styles encompass Broadway, folk, jazz, gospel. Includes the great song previously recorded by Kate Taylor, Harriet Tubman, plus Gracias a la Vida, Goodnight Irene, Hay Una Mujer (new arrangement), Singing For Our Lives. ### Singing With You

Both studio and live recordings from this inimitable duo. Includes a medley of old favorites (Imagine My Surprise, Something About the Women, more), Ruth Peltam's sweet, touching song from the perspective of a child whose parents have divorced, I Cried, Fernon's Kid's Song from her out-of-print record Ferron Backed Up, and a variety of others which relate to social issues, friendship and love. (RR410) CS: 9.98

A Season of Song

This Boulder-based women's acappella vocal ensemble has been evolving and performing since 1988. The 7-member coalition of singers, composers and instrumentalists, under the direction of organist and composer Joanna Lande, has developed a diverse repertoire including ethnic folk songs from Bulgaria to South Africa, original arrangements of American folk tunes, and original acappella pieces. On this 1992 debut release, the harmonies on Float Down the River are exquisite; other titles include Hymn to the Goddess, The Earth, She Speaks to Me, and Where the Song Went Where She Went & What Happened When They Met... all their songs speak to hopeful visions of a new world. (VCR101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Bad Hair Day

This late 1993 release features some of Jamie's funniest songs ever! Title cut, a LadySlipper personal favorite, looks at a problem we've all had at one time or another, while Sweet Maiden is simply a demented folk song. Wynona, Why Not? has a full Nashville sound, and Love Song is a look at some of the music we survived during the 70s; both these songs were produced by Lisa Koch of Venus Envy and Dos Fallopa. Together with songs from her first two albums, classics like Nothing (I'm nothing - without - you) and I'm Sorry (a song of condolences for heterosexuals), this comedic collection will brighten even your worst hair day. Highly recommended! (TSU1004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Closer to Home

This is a wonderfully lesbian-identified album filled with warmth, humor and honesty. From the hilarious Straight Girl Blues ("why do these straight girls look so butch to me?"), to the sultry eroticism of Dark Chocolate ("the way to a woman's heart is through her lips; through the shudder of her sighs and the motion of her hips"), to the country-flavored Wedding Song, which expresses outrage at a society that only gives toaster ovens to straight couples; Jamie explores topics near and dear to many of us! Her voice is sweet, delivery is straightforward, lyrics direct, thoughtful and refreshing. Highly recommended! (TSU1001) CS: 9.98

Center of Balance

Jamie's second release continues with her humorous, pointed material she's become quite known for and contains many of the songs she's performed on tour: I'm Sorry is her song of condolence for hats ("I'm sorry that you're straight! It can't be your fault! have you tried counseling or talking to god?")... All of Me is a funny song about body image ("Don't emphasize your butt! pretend that it's tiny! the first thing that folks notice/ shouldn't be your hiny!")... Loretta and Barnadine is about her great-aunt and her long-time companion... plus her usual array of contemplative and/or weird songs. Vocal assistance given by Sue Fink, Mimi Baczewski, Leah Zican. Always recommended! (TSU1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Wild Strings

If you can only purchase a few albums this year, make this one of them, for sure... it is magnificent, intelligent, absolutely a pleasure. The duo is now a trio (Carol and Michelle have been joined by Lydia Ruffin), and their awesome harmonies are even fuller. They have sustained their incredible powerhouse energy, plus strength in lyric, rhythm, melody. Mostly original material; includes Across the Wide, Muses, You Were Here, Seven Day Kiss. Produced by ace Terry Garthwaite, recorded with a full band. Very highly recommended! (JCE217) CS: 9.98

June & Jean Millington

In the Eye of the Storm

Produced by Robin Flower and featuring the excellent musicianship of Barbara Higbie and Nina Gerber, Jennifer's debut recording makes a distinct splash into the body of women's music. Many political and spiritual themes, passionately moving through the music in a variety of styles from folk to reggae to rock, will awaken the listener to anger at injustice, hope, and personal power and healing. Includes a song about a lesbian teacher, Charlie Murphy's haunting song of Women's Spirit, Burning Times: Kitchen Revolution, and more. Her guitar is impeccable, her voice strong yet gentle, and the arrangements superb. Absolutely recommended! (EOW19) CS: 9.98

Borderlines

This very long-awaited second release finally makes it in late 1993! Nurtured on the spaciousness and the spirit of the Canadian prairies, her strong voice brings us her sensibility, her spirituality, and her insight into the poverty of the "American" way. Produced by Mike Marshall and featuring lots of great instrumental backup, by Mike, Nina Gerber, and others. (FFB15) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Your Heart Will Show You

Born and raised in Zimbabwe, an 11-year resident of New Zealand, and now living in the US, this artist brings quite a world perspective to women's music! This 1994 release, her second solo effort, wraps the power of the human spirit in a package of kick-ass rock and tender ballads. All but one song here is original, sometimes moving, sometimes funny, sometimes rigorously political, sometimes inspiring, and always delivered with knockout Kiwi style. Includes They Are Coming For You, a resounding NO to right-wing encroachment featuring several raucous lesbians and one little person, plus Family Values, The UFO, and other beauties. (HLW1302) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jesse Richards

A Woman's Body

Wild would be an operative word here. Describing her music as avant-garde, theatrical, (and we add: sexy), pop-rock, with tribal funk and rhythms, she has said, "I would love to be on the radio, you know, top ten. But given the bizarre slant of my music, I'm not so sure that will ever happen." Neither are we... but, you need to hear her anyway. Her huge, tender voice seems to encompass three octaves in its mid-range, and her lyrics speak the hushed voices of lovers as easily as prophetic visions. Her harmonic inventiveness brings Annie Lennox to mind; she pushes against some of the same musical boundaries as Kate Bush; and she creates layered textures and harmonies, displaying both the control of a baroque contrapuntist and the wild abandon of Jimi Hendrix. Songs include the gleeful feminist fantasy Barbie is Dead, the humorous Pants Envy, plus Old Woman Dancing in the Wind, Wild Spirits, and the exquisitely beautiful Sarah. We highly recommend that you embark on this new musical adventure! (JGR1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Living On Dreams

73 minutes of live music, humor and stories from this Norwegian lesbian singer-songwriter! Her political wit is still finely tuned in Take a Leap, John Paul; Love That Goes the Distance commemorates the relationship between Sharon Kowalski and Karen Thompson; At Nancy's House is a great sing-along; Fallin' Out of Love is a funny yet poignant, and familiar, tale; and even some Scandinavian folk music. Have this concert in your very own living room! (HON106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Judy Fjell with Crystal Reeves

Best of Times

This 1993 release of politically wholesome music has some great stuff on it! I Was A Teenage Lesbian, complete with backup "jezzies," is a perfect 60's-style tune, while the oldtime song Buffalo Gals is sung with a new lesbian slant. Girls' Night Out is a lively tune of girls doing the night wind together on their brooms. Judy's beautiful original Sittin' On the Back Porch is woven together with strains of Shenandoah... and the song conveys the optimism of the lesbian/gay community under the Clinton administration. Fun and inspiring and heart-warming, this album is, featuring Crystal Reeves' lovely fiddling. Buy it! (HON108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Best of the 60's

This wonderful 1993 retrospective contains some of the best material — 17 songs! — from Judy's first 4 albums: Mothers, Daughters Wives: One Voice in the Crowd, Home Front, and A Natural Selection. Song titles include The I.P.O., The Family Maiden Aunt, Women of Our Time, From the Lambing to the Wool. In addition, she includes her popular but never before recorded song for recessionary times, Ordinary People. It's a lot of great songwriting for the money! And, watch for Judy on tour in the states, US Immigration Service willing. (CRA007) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Second Wind

This 1993 album (the year of Judy's 40th birthday) represents a shift in focus, both musically and in writing style. She collaborates here with pianist/composer David Bates, whose background is strongly influenced by jazz, and the result brings a new sophistication to Judy's composition. And, she gets to come out from behind her guitar! The songs still reflect her concern with matters of conscience; they speak of love, tell stories about peoples lives with which others can identify, and sometimes poke gentle fun at a world that at times takes itself too seriously. Includes Daughters of the Second Wave, Life Begins at Forty, Sacred Ground, Man Among Men, Lunch in a Modern World, and Maddy Prior's Woman in the Wings. Truly demonstrates the coming of age of a fine Australian artist. (CRA006) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ticket to Wonderful

This long-awaited 1993 release is the Millington sisters' best work yet! They combine their Philippine island roots, elevated lyrics and a folk-rock sensibility (honed in the 70's with their pioneering work in Fanny, the first all-woman rock band to achieve international prominence) to create a unique World Beat blend of island consciousness and rock-steady, global rhythms. Original songs range from the upbeat and passionate Lighting the Night, to the crisp and hauntingly beautiful Indigo Skies, to the playful Goin' to Hawaii, to the prayerful Family (World of Love). Living up to its title, this album brings a new dimension to the words "soul music." (FAB797) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from LadySlipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)!" Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works; each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording... The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthem Affirmation, which states "No! I will not lie down, I will not submit! I will not quiet, I will resist...," a moving cover of Ferron's Testimony, and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this recording enough! ## k.d. lang and the Reclines

A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found a supply of k.d.'s debut release, which we've been trying to get our hands on for about 4 years. Unfortunately, they come to us at a very high import cost. It's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chrono-cled: Ropulena ("she's my gal"), Hanky Panky, her original Pine and Stave, plus Ratay Cline's Stop, Look and Listen and 5 others. No k.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM88) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 25.98

Angel With A Lariat

This Canadian artist has become a major sensation in country-rock, and for good reason! Her deep voice is strong and resonant (yes, even that worn-out word powerful), her delivery punchy, and her high energy inspires a raucous good time; and she's already creating some new laws of country and rockabilly, from the ranks of women's music as well as from the mainstream. Includes several originals such as Watch Your Step, Polka and Tilt, plus other rousing numbers like Tune Into My Wave. Fabulous! (SIR25441) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shadowland

Highlight here is Honky Tonk Angels (a medley of In the Evening, When the Sun Goes Down, You Nearly Lose Your Mind, and Blues Stay Away From Me), with vocals by "The Honky Tonk Angels" — consisting of no less than Kitty Wells, Loretta Lynn, Brenda Lee, and k.d. herself! Some of you have no doubt seen the terrific video. More provocative, sultry, and powerful vocals from k.d., in less of a rowdy, more country-ballad style than her first release. It's dynamite; don't miss it! (SIR25724) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

k.d. lang and The Reclines

Absolute Torch and Twang

Following Shadowland, this album is true to the title, with country ballads resonating from the Canadian prairies. Some great originals, such as Nowhere to Stand, It's Me, Walkin' in, and Out of Your Arms, and Big-Boned Gal, as well as absolute country croons like Full Moon Full of Love... all her love songs quite gorgeous. A talent to be reckoned with, and an album for all fans. (SIR25877) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ingenue

Here's what the blurb sheet from the label said; and, we agree with it totally! "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dropped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chastelaine, Constant Craving, Wash Me Clean, and Save Me. (SIR26840) CS: 10.98 ... ### Miss Chastelaine: CD Maxi-Single

I never understood the point of CD "maxi-singles" which usually consist of several remixed versions of a song with an additional throwaway track stuck on. Why not just buy the whole album (in this case, Ingenue)? Well... it suddenly all makes sense! Besides the absolutely fab-u-lous cover photos of k.d. in her stacked hair, based on 1950's lemon yellow chiffon dress "drag" (it all gets so confusing sometimes) which are wise investments in and of themselves, the remixes transform the song into something else entirely. The St. Tropez Mixes will inspire you to rush on down to your local Arthur Murray studios for some rumba lessons. Who could have guessed? Also contains the single and album version plus Outside Myself. (SIR40792) CD: 8.98

Just Keep Me Moving: CD Maxi-Single

Taken from Even Cowgirls... this already very funkified song with its rubbery guitar/bass 70's thing happening is jacked up to complete dance floor compatibility with the Movin' Mix and the Wild Planet Mix. Also includes In Perfect Dreams. Cover photos are k.d.'s beefy cheesecake grunge-babe poses. (SIR41197) CD: 7.98

Lifted By Love: CD Maxi-Single

Take the original Cowgirls haunting ballad, install a slinky C-# at under it and presto! you have yourself a sly, sexy C#-scale song (the Club Xanax Mix). Or, if you rather turn up the beats-per-minute knob and move your body to the Elevate Your Love Mix. You also get the tropicalized Miss Chateaux and the enhanced Just Keep Me Moving. Most exquisite, however, is K.d.'s duet with gay boy Andy Bell from the group Erasure on the Diana Ross/Bertina Steinfeld '79 classic No More Tears (Enough is Enough!!!! is K.d. our new disco diva? Imagine white linen in the surf and you can get an idea of the scrumptious drip-dry cover photo. A must-have for any fan! (SIR41375) CD: 7.98

Even Cowgirls Get the Blues: O.S.T.

This is the soundtrack to the Gus Van Sant movie adaptation of the Tom Robbins novel; K.d. and Ben Mink collaborated on the music, which is influenced by the early '70s, and includes a polka, a jazz-fusion tune, a country waltz, and a Sly and the Family Stone boogie tune. Of course, all fans will want to have this!!! (SIR45433) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 10.98

Karen Beth
To Each One of Us

Karen remains Alex Dobkin's favorite songwriter, and you'll see why when you hear this album. It's a recording of extraordinary beauty and depth, weaving elements of women's spirituality with compassion, self-awareness, and love of women. Exquisite vocal harmonies by Amy Fradon and Leslie Ritter of Crystal Song, and a 10-woman Stardance Celestial Choir—which does include Alix—on Womanspirit Rising! Also includes Full Moonlight Dance, Patience, and Sarah, and one of this reviewer's favorite songs by Karen from one of her now-out-of-print albums—Bad of Song. Highly Recommended! (STD102) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Kathryn Warner
Glass House

Remember how you felt when you first heard Bonnie Raitt, Ellen McIlwaine, or Kris Williamson (or substitute your favorite vocalist here)... shills up and down your spine? Well, Kathryn possesses one of the most powerful and fabulous new voices to emerge on the scene (well, not completely new—she's a featured vocalist on two of Desert Wind's Goddess albums). Joined by veterans Nina Garber, Mary Watkins, Jean Fineberg and June and Jean Millington, Kathryn and musical partner Sandy Ayala offer this finely crafted album which includes the introspective Surrender to the River, the playful dance track Must Be Love, and the haunting Prisoner in My Head. Highly recommended—give her a chance to spellbind you. (FAB606) CS: 9.95

Kid Sister

North Carolina's own singer/songwriter/musician duo Ruth Vienneau and Piper Kessler (good chance you've already heard her melodic phone voice, if you've ever phoned Ladyslipper) debut their considerable talent on their 5-song eponymous release, and we're proud to include them in our catalog! Their vocal harmonies would do their stylistic neighbors the Indigo Girls proud as well, while their lyrics and arrangements convey a wistful longing, for a spiritual home (Rescue You, Carpet), and for love (Signal Fire, The Search). The effect is sweet and comfortable, and we can't wait to hear more from them! (KS1) CS: 6.95

Laura Love
Pangaea

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant—all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severt) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Nanci Griffith's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes—there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing. Nelson. Voices. Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Laura Love
Helvetica Bold

Incredible vocals, amazing African/Bulgarian yodeling and unique, percussive bass playing are featured in a mix of originals and novel renditions of well-loved classics—as she layers Appalachian, Celtic, African, and urban American sounds and sentiments into a pastiche of unforgettable melody and groove. In addition to her own tunes, she imprints her style on the folk chestnuts 500 Miles, Wayfaring Stranger, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and possibly the year's best dance party rave, Jackie DeShannon's Put A Little Love In Your Heart. Themes are where we fit in the world—how she sees it, how she wishes it were, how she hopes it will be... in her words, "that middle ground between Pollyanna and suicidal." She's one of our favorite artists, so we urge you not to miss this 1994 release. (OB4) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Z Therapy

Laura's second release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band—thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat G.I. Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos; Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Leah Zicari
Wouldn't That Be Fun?

A pretty super-duper lesbian-affirming tape by a femme dyke-with-bike-with-guitar, and a must for every woman who's ever had a crush on Martina ("Martina I'm wishing that you would serve me! Back and forth and me! Come on and court me! I'm wishing that love is the score!!") Also includes What Kind of Self-Respecting Lazzie Is She?, with additional verses built upon the Romanovsky and Phillips song Lava: Glory, Glory ("Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the queens", with an entire chorus)... and several other lovely lesbian songs. Add to that good voice, accompaniment and arrangements, and you have a definitely recommended tape! (GB101) CS: 9.95

Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco
Together in Harmony

Take note! This 1994 release is one of the first-ever lesbian/gay choral recordings... from the largest and oldest (110 voices, 14 years) mixed-voice openly-identified lesbian/gay chorus in the world! Not only that, they focus on the works of lesbian and gay composers, making their music a true celebration of the contributions of lesbian and gay artists. Includes Three Songs on Texts by Marguerite Radclyffe-Hall, with music by their accompanist Dwight Okamura; Survivors by John-Michael Albert; Reason To Sing by Rick Weaver, founding director of the Nashville Men's Chorus and now a member of this one; and many more. Under the direction of Pat Part, they sing beautifully, while accomplishing a wonderful mission. Recommended! (LGC1) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Lesbian/Gay Chorus of Washington DC
We Shall Not Give Up the Fight

To celebrate 10 years of performing, this 80-voice chorus presents a 1994 album of their best-loved and most-requested songs from live concert recordings over the past several years. Includes Leah Zicari's Martina: I Want You To Know Who I Really Am from Lucia Blue's Coming Out Kit, various freedom songs, and selections from their acclaimed performance at the Gay and Lesbian Association of Chorus (GALA) Festival. Libby Roderick
If the World Were My Lover

This feminist singer/songwriter just keeps getting better, as she proves on this 1993 release, which will truly move you to see the world as your lover. Includes the hauntingly beautiful title song, a hilarious country swing number Heaven Down Here, the poignant Because You Do, and Libby's first rock and roll song (!) Thunder, which warns of the rise of fundamentalism in US politics. We always recommend Libby! (TRT1003) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 14.95

Libby Roderick
Thinking Like a Mountain

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including this plus That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams, Go, Holy Thing to Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. Recommended. (TRT1002) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 14.95

Libby Roderick
If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. By far the most popular song here is her internationally acclaimed, poignantly simple ballad, How Could Anyone Ever Tell You, which has been sung in everything from incest recovery groups to kindergarten classes to peace gatherings. Also notable is Rose, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; additionally includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women; Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout; and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on this! An excellent debut album. (TRT1001) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 14.95

Lisa Koch
Colorblind Blues

A.k.a. one-fourth of the fabulous Venus Envy band, half of the comedy duo Das Fallopia, former Fabulous Dyketone Ms. Koch ("Coke") has put together a smashing first solo release: great production, vocals, lyrics—shades of June Millington meets Kate Clinton! Features the lovely All Night Long, the hilarious Beaver Cleaver Fever, the semi-autobiographical retro tune Hickey, and the AIDS anthem, Light of a Memory. Loads of talent here—a must! (TNG1) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Lisa Koch/Julie Wolf

Lisa's done it again, this time with some help from Julie Wolf on keyboards and vocals. There some re-mixes from Colorblind Blues (Hickey is even campier!) but the highlight is NARAL NARAL, a reproductive rights anthem done by a "politically correct" cheesy cocktail lounge band. Julie gets down-and-nasty on the I'm-over-the-breakup song Someone Else is Stepping in, and poignant on John Prine's Hello In There. If Jasmine had to perform Saturday Night Live skits, it might sound something like this! (TNG2) CS: 9.95

Lorraine Segato
Phoenix

Now half-price, this 1990 solo release by the fantastic lead singer of the Parachute Club... includes Beautiful and Dangerous, a song about a woman's love for a woman, but could describe Lorraine herself!... Phoenix is Rising Again, Good Medicine, and more... all with the inimitable mix of strong feminist/humanist politics, strong lyric, and strong rhythm the Parachute Club has been so famous for. Such a bargain; don't pass it up! (WB7102) CS: 4.95

Lucie Blue Tremblay
I Want You To Know Who I Really Am

Also known as Lucie's Coming Out Kit, this cassette (1-song tape) is perfect to send to parents, family, old friends... and if you love me as much as I love you then you'll love me! even if I'm not like you... The insert even gives contact addresses for organizations such as PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays). (DS001) CS: 6.95

Over the years, Lucie has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Kris Williamson and Meg Christian, here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Kris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Kris, Tré Fura, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McCallie. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous—treat yourself now! Recommended. (GL947) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Tendresse/Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her second album includes perceptive socio-political songs: Panique, Peeking; ever-touching love songs: Montreal, Abandon; and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL965) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay
Transformations

Another charmed release for late 1992 from this charming performer; songs in both English and French include Chez Nous, All Out of Love Tonight, Homeless, Sail Away, The Gully One. Highly recommended! (OL967) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
Butch Fatale

At last! This hilarious and touching performer has released her first live recording, with 14 examples of her witty "dyke gal cabaret" — both the comedic songs for which she is well known, plus several stand-up monologues all interspersed with hilarious and sometimes sobering stage patter. Songs include Seven Nights ("Dear Joanne Loulou, I am writing you this letter! Hoping you can give me some advice — you seem so nice! ... In the last 6 months we haven't done it twice! cuz 7 nights a week she goes Country Western dancin' ..."), Come Home, a warm tribute to Sharon Kowalski and Karen Thompson's courage and strength in the face of their court-enforced separation, and the perfect example of incompatibility on a first date, Alone Together. (BNT32499) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

You Are What You Wear

Yet another funny album from the dyke queen of cabaret camp. To further explain Lynn's musical and theatrical style, let us just say that she performs with the "festive duo" Romanovsky & Phillips in the "Leather and Lace Tour," and guess who wears what! This album ranges from the very serious Anne Frank, in which she reminds us that "Silence Equals Death," to the humorous account of That Festive Little Neighborhood ("In-stead of politicians, we've a queen"). (BNT33178) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
I'd Rather Be Cute

"I'm trying first of all to entertain. Second, I want to raise an awareness in people's minds of the state of gay life today, to show the ways we are similar and the ways we are different. And third, I am trying to pay off a 1983 Honda Accord." This Jewish lesbian from Brooklyn performs humorous material in a cabaret style, from A Mother's Lament ("Please, Lynnie, don't wear leather pants to the seder! and please cover your tattoo at the seder") to First Dyke On Dynasty. (BNT01369) CS: 9.98

Lynn Lavner
Something Different

From the title song: "All the other little girls liked Fred! fell in love with Ginger! ... All the other girls would brand their heads/ combed my hair with Bril-Creme/Greasy all right, but something different! ... Humorous, touching, affirming, these songs are mostly from her cabaret acts, and have titles like: Shelly, You've Gone Nelly on Me, Come to the Bar, The Role Playing Tango, 28 Barbary Lane (with reference to Armistead Maupin's best-of-the-decade Tales of the City book series). Piano accompaniment. (BNT92329) CS: 9.98

Best of Margie Adam

This late 1990 double-length edition is one of Olivia's Women's Music Classics collections, chosen from all of Margie's albums to commemorate one of Women's Music best-selling pianists and songwriters, and the first time Margie's work is available on CD! Includes Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Tender Lady, Naked Keys, and 14 more. (OL961) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Of the many moods reflected here, that of a childlike exuberance predominates. Outstanding vocal harmonies by Vicki Randie, Meg Christian & Chris Williamson. All original compositions, including Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Would You Like to Tap Dance on the Moon?, & 2 exquisite piano solos. (PLE2747) CS: 9.98

Margie Adam
Naked Keys

Eleven original solo piano performances...soothing, drifting, whimsical. This is Margie in some ways at her truest: her medium, her style. Her years at the piano, having this music flow through her, precede & underlie her singing & her song-writing ones. (PLE2748) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Here Is a Love Song

An elegant, beautifully-instrumented album of beautiful swopona and fun songs, with an extra-hot group of musicians: Jean Fineberg and Ellen Seeling on horns, Vivian Stoll on vibes, Barbara Cobb on bass, Barbara Borden, Susanne Vincenza, Carolyn Brandy, Diane Lindsay, and Michele Seli who used to play with Frank Sinatra on harp. Includes You Take My Breath Away, Cool Around You, The Time I Spent With You. (PLE2750) CS: 9.98

Margie Adam
Another Place

Well, this 1993 album was worth the wait! Honestly, we thought we'd lost her for good, but she's back with a lovely collection of songs, chock full of her trademark wry and gentle observations on the ways of the heart. Her voice has matured and deepened, and by bringing together some of today's best Women's Music artists (old and new), she breathes a new, steady life into the scene. Bravol! Includes the humorous Talk with my Heart, which features beautiful instrumental interludes when her heart answers back, the steadfast Long Haul in which she honors those still fighting for our rights, and the heartbreaking Time Goes Slowly By, in which an elderly woman sits bewildered in a nursing home, waiting to be taken home (sob, sniffle) ... 13 gems in all, waiting for you to take them home! Highly recommended. (PLE2751) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Meg Christian
I Know You Know

Olivia's first album, by one of the originators of Women's Music... a veritable classic. The poignant & humorous lyrics, the folk & classical influences in Meg's singing, song-writing, guitar playing, convey so much warmth & continue to carry a wealth of meaning. (OL902) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
Face the Music

Meg again transmits a wealth of music & experience, in her personal, reflective, & unique manner, with the added musical talents of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Holly Near, & many others. Includes Pleasant & Agreeable's favorite, Nipper. (OL913) CS: 9.98

Turning It Over

Meg is back with her 1st release since 1977, with love ballads, lovely instrumentals, reflective & humorous tunes. Includes Southern Home & For Mama, by Linda Lewis who wrote Good-bye Joanna. As always, Meg infuses her music with her "personality." Yet there is also something new here...a sense of self-recognition which will hit home for many...perhaps another season in the cycle. (OL925) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
From the Heart

Songs of gentle honesty from one of the founding mothers of Women's Music whose recording career spans ten years. This album of beautiful music will warm and melt your spirit in a rare musical experience of shared intimacy, poignancy and laughter. (OL937) CS: 9.98

Meg Hentges
Tattoo Urge

This former Two Nice Girls guitarist hits the pavement running with this 1992 debut solo EP (5 songs). She brings fellow Two Nice Girls Gretchen Phillips on board for guitar and vocal contributions, but it is really her own guitar and lyrical work (especially the multi-imaged Heaven Sent) that make this baby move. From the Los Roques-esque This Kind of Love Is, to the darkly sensual Flick of the Switch, Meg projects an intriguing combination of sly observer and vulnerable witness — there's some edges to that girl's heart that I'm sure many of us could relate to. Recommended! (TK42) CS: 7.98 ... CD: 12.98

Melinda Di Maio
Dyke Dramas

It's catchy, it's fun! Dyke Ditties might be a more appropriate title, as Melinda moves from scenario to scenario in the life of the anything-but-average dyke. A Way With the Ladies is a conversation I doubt many have actually had with dear old Dad, and Let's Be Friends chronicles the all-too-familiar tribulations of a young dyke. Other titles include Love Me Lisa, Sister Agnes, Remember Stonewall. Whining guitars, washboards, and cheese graters lend unique sounds guaranteed to have your toes tapping, as the lyrics evoke a sheepish grin or two! (AEM01) CS: 9.98

Melissa Etheridge
Never Enough

Fans will be relieved to know that this 1992 release maintains the power and intensity of previous albums while recreating that surreal Melissa Etheridge landscape of passion and obsession. These ten original songs, once again, demonstrate her virtuosity and versatility, her strength and her vision. We started to wonder, however, if there hadn't been some changes in her life with songs like The Laffing Go and Keep It Precious. The tongue-in-cheek Must Be Crazy for Me and charged 2001 reassured us that she hadn't changed too much though... recommended! (PLG510120) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Brave and Crazy

With tremendous energy and one of the sexiest voices ever recorded, Melissa sequels her blockbuster debut with an album guaranteed to please. From the chilling You Can Sleep While I Drive to the stirring No Souverain, she produces great range of tempo and rhythm, mixed with some of the most provocative lyrics in mainstream music. Also includes The Angels and Tears. Highly recommended! (PLG842302) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Melissa Etheridge

Known as "Melissa" to women's audiences, her high-powered debut album has made a significant impact in the commercial music world. It's full of raw passion, sexuality, intensity and emotion, explicitly lustful in a manner that's quite rare in a woman's musical repertoire... mesmerizing, and quite refreshing! All original songs with her own acoustic guitar and additional instrumentation, fairly produced, includes Similar Features and Bring Me Some Water. Recommended! (PLG842303) CS: 10.98 ... Melissa Etheridge
Yes I Am

And we're so glad she left! This 1993 release is a testament to the exhilaration of unbridled rock and roll, with Melissa at her most passionate — capturing the live feel Melissa wanted. Includes the bluesy, straight-ahead rocker I'm the Only One, plus Come To My Window, Silent Legacy, Talking to My Angel, and I Will Never Be the Same, originally heard in the Winona Ryder movie Welcome Home Roxy Carmichael and re-recorded for this album. Round Our Way

Finally, here's the American debut by a vibrant 8-woman a cappella group from London's East End... who combine soul, gospel, reggae, pop, and doo wop in unique arrangements. Some of you may know them from their contributions to the Do It A Cappella compilation, or from their appearances on "Saturday Night Live." This album combines live material and studio performances of their original songs mixed with covers of crowd pleasers such as The Snake, Higher and Higher, Mumbly Boy and more — their songwriting and vocal talent is sure to capture the imagination of music lovers everywhere. The Heart Of It

Backed by a full band (lots of great women musicians!) for her 1991 release, this SF Bay area singer/songwriter/guitarist/humorist serves up a righteous helping of her original witty, heart-felt, and honest songs. The Zenith of Love bemoans living in the state of Pre-Orgasm ("I would kill for just one spasm"). It's Your Goodbye is a country-flavored, bouncy response to being dumped which features Crystal Reeves' gorgeous fiddle work, and Just the Idea Of You is a straightforward, sad-yet-lovely relationship piece ("Like two little children, we race for that victim chair, someone loses when someone gets there..."). The Complicity Poika is this reviewer's favorite! Highly recommended... (GAN102) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Mrs. Fun
Lulu's Walk

Note the super-fun price! Here, finally available to and from us, is their 1987 debut recording — we loved it when we first heard it years ago, and still do! Beginning with Lulu's Walk, Connie and Kim bring their whimsical, avant-garde, funky styles to their own jazz-oriented compositions, as well as a couple by other songwriters. Lots of percussion, plus keyboards, keyboard bass, and vocals. (LU001) CS: 6.99

Mrs. Fun (with k.d. lang)
They Are Not a Trio

Now at a low price, for greater fun! They say, "We're a band, not a duo." All we can say is, "Yes, Ma'am!" Comprised of keyboardist/vocalist Connie Grauer and drummer/vocalist Kim Zick, Mrs. Fun's approach to jazz is akin to BETTY's approach to funk: stretch it! Stylistically urban, futuristic, rhythmic and inconstant; 10 of the 12 songs are original, including Lulu's Lament, highlighted by k.d. lang's vocal contribution; and 1 of the 2 "covers" is a seriously twisted satire of Stand By Your Man. Mrs. Fun also played backup on k.d.'s contribution to the Red, White and Blue album, as well as showing up on Phranc's I Enjoy Being a Girl. Here they also employ the talents of several other great female instrumentalists. Great... check them out! (LU002) CS: 6.99... CD: 10.99

MUSE - Cincinnati Women's Choir
Coming Into Our Voice

The 49 voices (plus guests) of this choir swing exuberantly through 14 feminist and progressive songs, under the talented leadership of artistic director Catherine Floma. Their repertoire features works by many of our favorites, such as Bernice Johnson Reagon (I'm Gonna Stand), Holly Near (Perfect Night), Something About the Women, Connie Kalton (Wanderlust), and Betty Rose (Coming Into My Years), as well as some lovely new arrangements of traditional songs like the Zulu Asikatali and Study War; in short, 14 songs of life, love and struggle to give us inspiration and sustenance. Natural Reaction
Pastiche

This 5-woman ensemble from the Philadelphia area creates a wide range of sounds, drawing influences from jazz, acoustic, Latin and classical styles. Their music is arranged for guitar, sax, percussion, keyboards, trumpet, clarinet, bassoon, flute and violin — at times is reminiscent of the early band Be Be K-Roc. Original songs cover themes of love and lesbian/gay pride (Freedom To Love, Nothing Here To Fear). A favorite is an original instrumental Changing Times — evocative and jazzy — and this 1994 album closes with the instrumental Andante Cantabile by Mozart, uncommon fare for a pop-oriented album! (BSM10474) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Pam Hall
Honey On My Lips

This sultry-voiced album from Mississippi's own features songs filled with love, feminist might, and woman-power. Whether it be blues, rock or ballads, taste a little Honey On My Lips — nothing could be sweeter... (Her voice has been compared to Joan Armatrading's.) Includes the rocking lesbian anthem Linda, her signature piece Chug On, and Don't Be Despaired, performed live with Mary Watkins. Brilliantly produced by Janet Millington, and highly recommended! (FAB303) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

The Parachute Club
At the Feet of the Moon

This is one of our favorite original Parachute Club albums, and it's now at half price! An excellent effort by Canada's foremost political rock band: the overall production and instrumentation is tighter and highly synthesized, while the lyrics remain political and inspiring. Songs include: Innuendo, Sexual Intelligence, Freedom Song, Walls and Laws. Highly recommended. (RCA0553) CS: 5.99

Wild Zone: Essential Parachute Club

This 15-track retrospective contains some of the most incredible, political material this band has ever recorded: 2 versions of their super-hit Rise Up (one of the best songs of the century) — the original plus a new 1992 dance remix — as well as Boys Club, Sexual Intelligence, Alienation and more... from their 3 previous albums: self-titled, At the Feet of the Moon, and Small Victories. Very highly recommended; we're relieved that some of this material is once again available! (RCA17284) CS: 7.99... CD: 15.99

Peaceful Women

This 4-woman a cappella group expresses a strong commitment to women's issues, women's spirituality, social justice, freedom, and the environment, through this lovely collection of songs and chants. Some are original, some are by contemporary songwriters like Ferron, Bernice Reagon, and Sandra Washington, some are traditional folk songs, all especially arranged for a cappella voices. There is some subtle accompaniment on drum castanets, maracas, tambourine, cabasa and rainstick, but it's the voices that'll rock you and hold you, includes Mother Earth Chant, Peace Is A Woman, Madre Campesina and 12 more. (PW1) CS: 10.99

Peggy Seeger
The Folkways Years 1955-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England; and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be An Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Willie Tyson's Debutante went out of print... we're thrilled the song's back in print, by its author no less, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face; Fred Small's talking Wheelchair Blues; and lots more... frankly, her best material ever! (Except for cover graphics) we highly recommend it! (SF40048) CS: 10.99... CD: 15.99

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 8 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as old the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive, and this 1992 release is as upbeat as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! (PEL001) CS: 10.99... Phranc
Bulldagger Swagger (7" Single)

This blue vinyl 7" single, containing two tracks, Bulldagger Swagger and Hillary's Eyebrows, was issued in 1994 to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots, the first act of queer resistance against police harassment and brutality in recent history. (KR5230) LP: 4.99

Phranc
I Enjoy Being a Girl

Phranc's second album could be the first major label release to contain a line such as "I'm a Jewish lesbian, you see," in a song called Take Off Your Swastika. A terrific mixture of serious and humorous, whimsical and satirical, personal and topical material, right down to the 50's cover artwork (Phranc with her glass of milk and her butch do!) includes her second ode to M-A-R-T-I-N-A, a memorial to her grandmothers Myriam and Esther, and others ranging in theme from South African apartheid to Toys R Us. You'll thoroughly enjoy this one! (PLG842579) CS: 7.99

Phranc
Folksinger

Phranc, whose music is a blend of topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary, has come somewhat full circle: early women's movement, to LA punk scene, playing with bands like Nervous Gender and Catholic Discipline, to modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective. This is one of few lesbian recordings to be released on an independent label other than one associated with women's music. Includes the laudatory Carolyn, Ballad of the Dumb Haindreser, One of the Girls, Female Mud Wrestling, Handcuffed, Amazon, ("I wanna live with Martina, like Nancy Lieberman"). Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. Very highly recommended! (PLG846366) CS: 7.99... CD: 15.99

Phranc
Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60's Tipton. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader/ member and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful a cappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Garrigue Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG848282) CS: 7.99... CD: 15.99

Rhiannon
Loosen Up and Improvise

This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alive!) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns... exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon takes you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique; if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHNT1) CS: 9.99

Rhiannon
Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy... for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-ups, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHNT2) CS: 9.99

Rhiannon
Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alive!, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material: from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Shenandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting talents of Betty Rose, Janet Small, Carolyn Brancy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! (LR202) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

The Rhythm Method

We think the title of this album is actually the symbols 4/ triangle woman/ note, but our computers and typesetters won't do that, so let's call it self-titled. We've had orders for it before even adding it to our catalog — and with good reason; the popularity of a cappella music has taken off lately, and these 4 Colorado women do it justice. They encompass a range of styles, from blues (like Me Rainy's Prove It On Me Blues), to gospel (Rivers of Babylon), and even barbershop (Last Night On the Back Porch). Lyrics are changed here and there to reflect their lesbian-feminist points of view, to hilarious effect in I Met Her On A Sunday: 3 of the 15 songs are originals; highly recommended. ## Ronnie Gilbert

Love Will Find A Way

Ronnie's 1989 solo release includes Music in My Mother's House, The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, Happy Birthday Mrs. Miller, No Rockin' Chair, and more great folk songs affirming women, growing older, love, and humanity in general. Primarily recorded live in concert, with John Buchino. Dedicated to her dear friend Donna. (AA915) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rude Girls

Rude Awakening

Dedicated to rude girls everywhere and to their awakening, this lively women's acoustic quartet presents a fine debut folk album. High on heart-breaking harmonies, strangled instruments, original tunes like Female Rambling Sailor, Ballad of Francine Hughes ("The Burning Bed"), The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, and Pete Sutherland's Yuppie Tri-Y-O ("get a job you old hippie"). Excellent production by Calfy Fink, back-up by Abby Newton, Marcy Marxer and other women...we recommend it heartily. (FF424) CS: 9.98

Mixed Messages

The long-awaited follow-up to their slap-in-the-face debut, this feminist string band is not afraid to get raunchy, even downright rude. As Ronnie Gilbert testifies on the back of their outlandish album art, "You Rude Girls don't know when to stop, do you? Thank Goodness! I love your outrageously mixed messages." Includes Maitreya Reynolds's We Don't Need the Men (one of this reviewer's all-time faves) and the condom-awareness song Safety First. (FF511) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sally Potter & David Motion

Orlando (O.S.T.)

This is the original motion picture soundtrack to the film by Sally Potter, based on the book by Virginia Woolf, written to protest the fact that her beloved Vita Sackville-West was forbidden by law to inherit her ancestral home, since women were not allowed to own property except through husbands or sons. It explores issues of gender... gender-changing... gender-bending... celebrating gender confusion, or perhaps gender disregard. Most of the music is instrumental, composed by Sally Potter and David Motion; a few selections feature Sally's voice, and Jimmy Somerville performs 3 different mixes of the song Coming. Other titles include A Change of Sex, Eliza, The Kiss. (V95413) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Feels Like Home

With a song roster reading like a Ladyslipper Best-Seller List (covers of songs by Ferron, Crie Williamson, Connie Kaldor, plus Christine Lavin's hilarious Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind), and some touching originals (Be Still is a beautiful ballad about a person with AIDS, and is dedicated to the Names Project), this women's vocal trio conjures up some astounding harmonies, mostly in a jazz ballad style. You may recognize Anna Louise White from Trapezoïd's Moon Run album. Backup instrumentation is simple, with piano, guitar and bass, lending more room for their voices to dance and weave and intertwine. Highly recommended! (WSK101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Excuses for Bad Behavior, Part One

"It's all about bad behavior, and accepting it... with love," says the artist. A musical and vocal album with spoken words and raps along the way, this 1994 release is a work about liberation and repression, love and loss, dreams and survival — a thought-provoking and entertaining comment about our culture and our times. Backed by her band, The Strap-Ons, she moves from rock to dance to soulful balladry. She salutes the late Sylvester with Mighty Reaf, a rousing anthem of sexual choice and freedom; remembers her friends lost to AIDS in the meditative Innocence; and employing layered rap, sings about fantasy, voyeurism and detachment — projecting your fantasy onto someone you never have to meet — on Phone Sex (Do You Want Me Tonight). Mixing boldness, honesty and vulnerability, she turns pop culture on its side! (EPCS7693) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Love, Love, and Love

Sandra reads her own creative, bitter, tender, scathing, ugly, beautiful stories about fascinating people you would not necessarily want to know. On this 1993 recording, she wildly careens from social commentary to tales of very emotionally damaged relationships to quiet poetic moments. Very high percentage of lesbian content, albeit about no one you would want to admit knowing/being! (SIM88338) CS: 11.98

Seraiah Carol

My Life Is Loving You

Not only is Seraiah one of our favorite soloists on Kay Gardner's Ouroboros, she has a long-standing solo career in music and theater (she's toured with several Broadway musical productions — Airt, Moshelem, Forgy & Bass, Annie Warbucks, Godspell and more). Her concerts and women's music festival appearances are energetic and fun (lots of choreography too) and her sound is upbeat and contemporary R&B... wouldn't be surprised to hear her songs on commercial radio one of these days! All songs on this 1992 debut album are original; Lisa Michele, Dear Lover, and 5 others; accompanying musicians include Juli Horn on keyboards and Lynn Keller on bass. (SCP1) CS: 9.98

Sherri Hammons

This Denver-area artist has been bringing packed houses to their feet, and her 1993 debut has been released by Artemis Records, whose mission it is to bring new women artists — especially lesbian artists — into the forefront of the music industry. It's smooth and polished, revealing jazz, rock and pop influences... From her driving anthem of testing the boundaries of self and society, Step Outside, to her story of self-preservation over love, The Wall, she displays a multi-level talent, taking the lead from the bass line of her songs, she offers listeners a tour de force of emotion and depth. (ARM101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

True Life Adventure

Sue's long-awaited second album of "songs of risk and reality" has finally been released in 1989, with two of her most fantastic songs in her Big Promise tradition — Popular War and Letters to Marie — as well as many other fine originals, more in a jazzy pop torchy style. It's a very polished, sophisticated production; if you're an Anita Baker fan, or a Sue Fink fan of course, you won't want to miss this True Life Adventure. (FRO101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Big Promise

On this globally important album, this wild and crazy woman unleashes her boundless energy, wit, and genius. It opens with the first totally contemporary new wave hit dance tune from a female perspective, Boys Are Thugs, proceeds with The End is Near, the anti-nuke technological extravaganza featuring the LA Women's Community Chorus, expressing the wisdom of a bag-lady; then, to title cut, a technopop tune about a woman who relates to a politician who promises her the same big choices he promises the voters... and more, from ballads to jazz to straight-ahead rock. The overall result is polished, creative, funny, refreshing, substantive and outrageous. Very highly recommended, if we do say so ourselves! (LR201) CS: 9.98

Easily Suede

Suede's long-awaited debut solo album features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home...her music, that is. (EAS1001) CS: 9.98

Barely Blue

This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy/biased stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister, My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Buchino songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Riddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Buchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sunny McHale SkyeDancer

Lesbian Nation

Subtitled One Nation Among Many, this 1991 album (her 3rd) represents one of the best lesbian-affirming submissions we've received lately — there aren't many to choose from anymore. You'll appreciate her wry and affirming humor shining through her lyrics in these 13 songs... her voice is strong and versatile, and her acoustic guitar accompaniment clear and melodic. In songs such as Got No Need For Scared, Keep Comin' Out, Hummingbird Sweet, she takes the essence of her life as a lesbian and distills it into songs which contain insight and celebration, weave webs of cultural power, shatter shackles of homophobia, and offer unexpected resolutions to daily problems. ## Susan Berman

What the Mother Pot Sings

Here's what our friend Maida Tichin, who years ago was the women's music reviewer for Boston's Gay Community News, wrote us after meeting Susan: "Her voice blew me away (editor: 'me too') — a small Jewish woman who sounds like a big African-American woman. She has been influenced by an Aztec dance and percussion group, creating perhaps the world's first Aztec Jewish music, played on indigenous instruments such as Aztec clay pots. She brings together many diverse musical cultures to create her own unique and entertaining style. She has a song based on an Elie Wiesel story, and a protest song about the rapes in Bosnia that has a great overblown Balkan holier. I especially liked Mung Bean, which is whimsical with great percussion." If we had the space, we could write pages of description and accolades about this exquisite collaboration of women's acappella vocal tradition, global politics, MesoAmerican, pre-Columbian tradition and the indigenous voices of world flutes and percussion (a multitude of world instruments are played by Larry Sargent and Susan). Suffice it to say, we very highly recommend this deeply emotional and spiritual resonance of women's songs, poems, chants, dreams and stories — it's one of the year's true treasures. ### Somewhere Between

Susan tragically died in 1985; but she gave a lot to Ladyslipper, and we'd like everyone to know her spirit and her music, which live on. Her album of 14 original, traditional and contemporary songs attests to her great sense of humor and strong love for women... includes Peace Camp (to the tune of Downtown), I Don't Know Where I'm Going (to the tune of I Know Where I'm Going), Why Do You Bob Your Hair, More Pretty Girls Than One, I'm Not Too Fat, Healing Time, and feature Kay Gardner on flute, among others. ### Loving Me

Now that you (hopefully) have Susan's newer album, some of you will probably want this debut folk recording too! While not specifically dealing with recovery issues, there is a strong healing theme — not surprising from a music therapist: includes Warrioress, The Dreams I Work For Are Mine, Step By Step, Inner Voice, The Embrace, little song... plus White Porch (a lovely image of two old lesbians in rocking chairs comes to this reviewer's mind). ### Truth & the Lie

A remarkable recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... were giving it our highest recommendation! (WFR1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick Soul Chant

We're so thrilled this artist has blessed us with another release for 1994! It includes songs she's been performing to wild audience response (and getting lots of requests that she put them on an album) — such as Motherland, Thunder, A Little More Laughter, Climb Your Tree, No Way Out — and features guest artists Margie Adam and Justine & Joyce. Soulful, sincere, insightful, passionate, intense, healing, rhythmic, mystical and archetypal... these are the words that come to mind when reflecting upon Susan's music, and it's been a joy for us to experience her growth as an artist. Highly recommended! (WFR1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

You Deserve (Single Tape/Card Pack)

You Deserve the Strong Love is one of the most frequently requested songs from Susan's Truth & the Lie album, and makes a very special gift for anyone you'd like to send this message to... kind of like a singing telegram, with lyrics included. That's why she issued this as a cassette single. Packaged with a card and a marker, ready for you to send: as always with Susan's work, highly recommended! (SH3) CS: 6.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie Unexpected

The women of this dynamic duo show their stuff on this LP as they have been doing on tour around the country. An eclectic bunch of styles—country, gospel, ballads—some simple, some fairly produced. Barbara is a pianist extraordinaire—don't miss her LP's on Windham Hill (see "Jazz" section). Includes our favorite Melissa Manchester oldie, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.95

Therapy Sisters Mood Swings

On this 1993 release, the zany trio members (Maurine McLean, lyrical analyst; Marilyn Rucker, sax therapist; and Lisa Rogers, spiritual nutritionist who plays the jello mold) present more wacky repertoire, such as Terminally Trendy, My Finger Is An Instrument Of Death, Shallow Men. They thank their Hire Power for their musical careers, and so do we; they're quite therapeutic! (T61904) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Topp Twins No War in My Heart

Once again available, now as an import from New Zealand (home of this fabulous sister-duo) so you can once again have access to their 1987 album which juxtaposes biting political satire with beautiful love songs. Includes President's Men, Throw Down Your Guns, Dolly Parton, The Queen, Untouchable Girls, and more. (TOP29029) CS: 10.98

Topp Twins Hightime

Get out your chickened skirts; our favorite sibling duo from New Zealand! Acetone dive this time into a rollicking country/western mode, and it's the perfect place for them! Their voices blend into near impossible harmonies, and their yodelling is simply divine — they've always been able to communicate political messages with so much love and humor and reverence, and we're happy to report that these 5 songs are some of their best! Includes Yodeling Accordion Girl, My Pinto Pony and I, and the sweetly poignant Call Club Day. (TOP3) CS: 10.98

Topp Twins Two Timing

This 1994 release is the long-awaited and highly-anticipated album from the best-known and most-loved twins in our world. 3 of the 12 titles are repeated from Hightime including Call Club Day (if anyone can tell us just what that is you'll earn our undying respect and affection). The 9 new tunes are favorites you've probably heard them perform at festivals: the country/western line dancing anthem Horse, the bluesy Whiteline to Georgia, and the heartwarming song to their mother, Jean Emily. As always, Lynda and Jools combine their wonderful harmonies with their keen sense of humor and timing, and throw in a yodel or two for good measure. (TOP4) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tracy Drach Another Door

Ladyslipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own! Gipsy! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing, whether performing solo or opening for such acts as K.d. lang or the Washington Sisters. This late 1990 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Laura Berkson's Miriam, to her lyric tale of young novice sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. With a little piano help from Nancy Day and a style that is uniquely Tracy, this album marks a personal favorite around our office and is wholeheartedly recommended. (DND001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tret Fure Terminal Hold

Gradually becoming a familiar presence on the music scene, starting with a solo LP in the 70's (now out-of-print) and later known as a back-up musician and vocalist for June Millington, Tret Fure (pronounced "Fury") is now squarely in the spotlight where she belongs. Her lyrical and vocal abilities bring an inevitable yet positive comparison to Chris Williamson, who co-produces and sings harmony vocals here. The songs are mostly rock ballads, with a scrappy insistence towards what can only be termed "melodic new wave." Songs include Annie's Fire, Cold, Cold Heart, Annie's Fire. (SW22003) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure Edges of the Heart

Tret's long-awaited second release packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements: a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly-hot number, Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. Recommended! (SW22009) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure Time Turns the Moon

This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Two Nice Girls Chloe Liked Olivia

Funny, kitschy, feisty, smart, brave, sexy, political, warm, or just plain wonderful... all of these qualities are in abundance on their 1991 release, a musical hybrid which transcends the boundaries of most musical genres. From the faux-disco of Let's Go Bonding, to the smooth-as-Smokey Swimming in Circles, to The Quaker Song and Princess of Power (be on the lookout for the video!), the girls have outdone themselves with 10 brilliant songs that run their usual range from tender to tongue-in-cheek. Title is from a Virginia Woolf book. Highly recommended! (RTR252) CD: 15.98

Various Artists A Family of Friends

This 1993 release may be the best sampler of women's music ever created! The title song, an anthem-to-be and a must-have for every woman's music lover, is one of the sweetest and most memorable tunes ever composed... as a collaboration, it expresses some of the highest spirit of our lesbian culture. Co-written by Sue Fink, Jamie Anderson, June Millington, Jane Enmar and Dakota, it is performed by (take a deep breath) songwriters Sue, Jamie, June and Jane, plus Margie Adam, Deirdre McCalla, Chris Williamson, Tret Fure, Sharon Washington, Jean Millington, Susan Herrick, Robin Flower, Monica Grant, Helen Hooke, Mary Watkins, Barbara Borden, and others! Also includes tracks by the following individual artists: Alix Dobson (with her previously unreleased My Kind of Girl), Pam Hall, Venus Envy, Yer Girlfriend performing Lez-Bop, OneSpot (Kay Gardner and Nurudalina Pili Aberia), Sue Fink, Jane and Jean Millington, Mini Baczewska, Laura Berkson, Diane Lindsay, Leah Zicari, and Jamie Anderson. #### For Therese

On March 10, 1990, to celebrate Therese Edell's 40th birthday, a group of artists and friends gathered to put on a one-of-a-kind concert that was also a loving tribute to Therese and her musical contributions; and, lucky for us, 60 minutes of this event have been preserved! Therese produced the album, which features musicians like Sue Fink, Betsy Lippitt, Kay Gardner, Deirdre McCalla, Nydia Mata, the Atlanta Feminist Women's Choir, and the MUSE choir. Instrumentation such as flute, oboe, bassoon, cello, harp, glockenspiel... and songs which include Betsy's For Therese, Sue Fink performing Therese's Emma, plus Sister Heathen, Pinetree's Calendar Days, Katie's Song, Good Friends Are the Best, Holly's Waltz, and O My Friends, co-written by Therese. Some songs even feature combined choirs! An early 1991 release; we know it will be fabulous! (SEA312) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

The Washington Sisters Understated

Now on CD! This debut album of hot sounds by identical twins Sandra and Sharon is full of unique harmonies and special songs: Breaths, Sweet Inspiration, Brown Like Me, Find the Spirit, and more. Acappella funk is combined with contemporary pop/folk/jazz and a touch of calypso. Back-up vocals by Linda Tillery and Vicki Randle; expertly produced by Teresa Trull. (SH5221) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Washington Sisters Take Two

Even better and more stylistically diverse than the harmonizing twins' first album, this 1991 follow-up includes blues, jazz, swing, country, and love songs. Most songs by Sandra, plus Sharon makes her debut as a songwriter here with Next Step, a touching love ballad. Also includes Pray for Peace, an upbeat Brazilian dance tune, Fly Me Away, a bossa-nova calypso acappella number with voice orchestra; and others they've been performing in concert. Produced by Teresa Trull, with back-up artists such as Linda Tillery, Marlene Montiel, Nina Gerbet, Paul McCandless, John Bucchino, even Teresa herself. (SH5222) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women in Comfortable Shoes Sole Searching

This album includes some priceless women's music favorites, like Leaping Lesbians (by Sue Fink and Joelynn Grippio), The Bloods as performed by the Berkeley Women's Music Collective (which we've received several requests for lately), My Dyke sung to the tune of My Guy, Two Nice Girls, I Spent My Last $10 (On Birth Control and Beer), Butch Fatale, and more classics and soon-to-be classics — even some serious songs, by John Lennon, Kate Wolf, etc. The sole searching duo is Harris Blackwood and Janice Gennivola, and we're glad they've brought some of these songs back into print! (MUM1) CS: 9.98

The Wyrd Sisters Leave A Little Light

Thanks to Pam & Julie for turning us on to these eclectic and talented women! The Canadian folk scene has long been a favorite of ours, and this trio is solid evidence why... Alternately thoughtful and crack-up funny topical/funny lyrics; beautiful acoustic instrumentation; clear, honest voices and stunning harmonies. Kim Baryluk and Nancy Reinhold write most of the lyrics, illuminating such subjects as the murderous rape of a battered woman in Don't Go Home (Louise), joyous masturbation in The Faucet, how close to home the Montreal massacre (This Memory) really is to us all... Also features Kim Sagal; really fine songwriting, voices, music — ayf! Highly recommended! (WYR1) CS: 9.98

Yagottawanna Live!

A funny, sassy, political hybrid of Elvis, Loretta Lynn and The Mormon Tabernacle Choir... This acappella trio (sisters Janet and Kathryn Thompson along with Cindy Garthwaite) are out to make the world a better place through the power of tight harmonies, compassionate thought-provoking lyrics and fluorescent hi-top sneakers. Recorded in their stomping grounds of New Hampshire, this album captures the fun and warmth these women exude as they spread their message of hope and concern. Humorous highlights are Walking After Midnight, Take Two, an update of the classic that is more apropos to these times; and The 48-Hour-A-Day Blues, for those who just cannot seem to stop doing so much. Also includes A Chat With Your Mother (YGT793) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Ovary Action (7" EP)

Back in print! In this day and age of deleting vinyl from our catalog, you might notice that we have not only added a piece of vinyl, but one with only a 7" diameter. Know that it's got to be real special, and this one is! About the most outrageous recording we've ever heard (and most of their graphics are from Betty Dodson's Liberating Masturbation book, if that gives you a clue...). There are actually 10 selections on this little disc, including Dream Addict, Fuck Yourself, Sperm Brain, FCD Rap. For a true vaginal celebration, let Cammie, Jane, Kate and Joyce show you an unforgettable time! (LKT9) LP: 5.98

Yer Girlfriend

L-Word Spoken Here

Their 1992 release is a re-dedication to the out and proud lyrics and toe-tapping sounds audiences can't get enough of. Blues, rock or folk, they deliver each song with style, energy and heart. From the ballad Still Waters, a song about taking risks, to Take Back Our Lives, suggesting that women have more to conquer than just the night, their messages are as clear as their sound is hot. (ER102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Yer Girlfriend

We Won't Be Silent

Yer Girlfriend is five Kentucky women who are committed to maintaining a strong political voice through the medium of popular music... to break down walls of homophobic prejudice and traditional stereotypes about women, while their audiences are tapping their toes to music that's fun. They do just that on this debut tape of original wonderfully-out lesbian and feminist songs, employing beautiful vocal harmonies. Watch for them at women's music festivals and lesbian/gay events! (ER101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Soup Kitchen "Swing"

Every once in awhile you run into a not-so-famous artist who turns out to be a complete delight — such is the luck here! With a pleasantly high range voice given to leaping into jazz inflections at the drop of a hat, a lighthearted sense of humor crossed with a social consciousness, and a great band (guitar, sax, bass, percussion, fiddle), Zoe throws quite the bash! 10 original songs include titles like: Looking for Bagdad (inspired by the film Bagdad Cafe perhaps?), Shopping Mall Mother Earth's Blues. (ZOE1) CS: 9.98

A Little Piece of Sky

Part wandering troubadour, part court jester, Zoe Lewis will charm your socks right off. You might know her as the British-accented, less smarmy half of Provincetown's Lesbian Lounge Lizards. The songs are mostly rollicking celebrations of her free-wheelin' lifestyle or affectionately wry observations of her adopted country. Highlights are the title track, a perfect piece of acoustic pop; the melancholy Waiting for Time to Fly; the coy Kiss Me (You Fool); the "let's just stick with relationships that work" tune Dog Love; and then there is also... oh, so hard to pick and choose! Not to be missed! (ZOE2) CS: 9.98

Give It All Up

This Irish pagan punk duo combines a synthesized beat with a tin whistle and sensuous vocals and moves them well with intelligent, sexy, eco-lesbian feminist lyrics to concoct a very heady brew. Their world jazz - reggae - soul - funk makes them equally at home at the top of the Irish charts, at women's music festivals and at lesbian/gay/bisexual pride rallies. Maria Walsh and Carole Nelson have built upon their background as professional jazz musicians to create the infectious grooves of 17m in Love with Mother Nature and 6794700 (the illegal phone number which provides information on abortion to women in Ireland). Zrazy wants you to get down and funky with them while you are working to change the world. As their motto asserts — "Zrazy don't ask, they demand you watch." Irish import, exuberantly recommended! ## Capitol Steps

Lord of the Fries

Their political parody leaves no current event unturned, on this 1994 album recorded live at Chelsea's Cabaret, Washington DC. There's Snippets Bobbitt, Sounds of Suckin', Middle-Aged Lady Named Janet Reno ("Go, Janet, go Janet, go Janet Go!"), and more, from the Clinton years. (CS1014) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Debra Riggan Waugh

Homo Neurotica

This DC-area storyteller comic addresses your gaggle of garden-variety lesbian issues with a wry wit and self-deprecating humor. Taking her experiences growing up (Prepubescent Training in Heterosexuality and White Middle Class Values, A Fairy of Sorts, When I Was Sixteen I Was Cool, Chicken Dinner and coming out (Putting Out the Trash, Ex-Lover Weird Shift), she condenses them into funny vignettes that many of us will relate to. We hope she'll hit the festival circuit; her talent and style will be warmly received, we're sure of it! Recorded live in '92. (DRW1) CS: 9.98

The Derivative Duo

Opera For The Masses

This simply fabulous duo rewrites opera as social satire from a lesbian perspective, and 11 of their classics — with a twist are contained on this 1993 release. Familiar strains from operatic or choral standards (The Magic Flute, The Messiah, Carmina, The Barber of Seville, Romeo and Juliet) are transformed lyrically into gems like The Barbie Doll Song, P.M.S. Aria, Coming Out Mozart, and The Honolulu Chorus, which features the 24-voice acappella Esoterics. It's truly a blast — highly recommended! (DEF1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dos Fallopia

My Breasts Are Out of Control

This outrageous feminist comic duo — E.K.A. twin sisters of different cul-de-sacs — consists of Lisa Koch (also known for her participation in Venus Envy) and Peggy Platt, who create a riotous program of music, sketch comedy, stand-up, razor-sharp wit, left-wing politics and general lunacy, to produce an act of wickedly funny commentary from a woman's point of view! Includes Ran and Arnie's 12-Step Day Care, Spodd Family Gospelists: The Surly Bitches in Concert (with Laura Love and Linda Severi from Venus Envy), a really great Camp Song, and of course the title track. So warped, so refreshing! Recommended! (TNG300) CS: 9.98

Judy Tenuta

Buy This, Pigs!

Featured on HBO's Women of the Night video, this "petite flower, given-goddess, fashion plate, saint" has a very unique take on life. Accompanying herself on accordion, she shares with her audience (whom she calls her personal love slaves) her feelings about those who do not show her enough deference (e.g. the Queen of England), dating and death and Catholic aerobics. Highlights are her country/western song about dating the Pope, and her twist on relationships with men, Bizarre and recommended! (EL50746) CS: 9.98

Karen Williams

OUTrageous

"She's not afraid to be as raunchy as hell" touts her introduction on this live performance recorded at the North East Women's Musical Retreat. Sex and politics meet over an unabashed mastery of words that they didn't teach you in Sunday School... topics include Butch-Femme roles and some unique ideas for a national "How To Identify a Lesbian" campaign. So whether you've caught her or missed her on the festival scene, here's a sample you can take home to keep. 45 minutes, recorded on one side only. (AR2) CS: 10.98

Live at Great American Music Hall

Note the sale price on the LP! In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (coveting her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, satirizes personals in papers, sings her song for parthenogenesis, and tells how she answered the question What Do YOU Do? at an S/M workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material; get your TV sets tuned up! (WHY103) LP: 4.95 ... CS: 9.98

Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politics to build laughter of fading fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme park; rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeLox, and falling away at Mom Finata in Familyland! (WHY104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lea DeLaria

Bulldyke in a China Shop (Double)

The long-awaited debut recording by this bawdy, not-busy funny comic legend (dubbed the "lesbian Larry Bruck"), packed with non-stop laughs lampooning lesbian life... plus music! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Recorded live in Atlanta, highly recommended for all but the timid... and, being released on CD, for the first time in late 1994. (GSP69) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 15.98

You Make My Pants Pound

This 1994 compilation contains splendid selections from musical theatre shows on which this comic genius has worked. The hilarious title track, a story of "lust-at-first-sight" at a fast food drive-through, and All My Steppaddies are done by " dysfunctional mother-daughter country western superstars", The Spudds, who were also featured on Dos Fallopia's My Breasts Are Out of Control. The Bouffants, a "much loved, little known 60's girl group" campily offer Vanity and The Curse of No Return (which includes the requisite tragic teen car crash). On the more serious side are Three Times a Year, a heart-rending ballad from a straight man about his gay brother, and Violette, a beautiful song about one woman's "all-consuming infatuation" for another from the point of view of salonnistes from the 1920's. All these and more, so do not miss this sampler of musical treasures! (TNG2458) CS: 9.98

Roseanne Barr

I Enjoy Being a Girl

Staff comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Sticker says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on T.V." — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version!) covers Sexual Preferences, Women's Medley, Men's Medley, 26 Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Rodeo Queen, Arsenic Nuts, and more — something to offend everyone. Recorded live in 1990. (RR81000) CS: 7.98 ... CD: 12.98

Teresa Chandler & Karen Ripley

I Survived A Femma!

From the Over Our Heads Comedy Company comes this duo, reminiscent of Des Filopis's branchid, "The Spuds." With a country flair, they blast such situations as picking up the Waffle House waitress in Desperately Dunking (a great take-off on Helplessly Hoping), and wandering eyes in Squealer's Yours. The title track speaks volumes, and a few political messages find their way in as well in Tax the Rich and Woman Go Where A Woman Want — a strong message with a calypso beat. Accompanists include Robin Flower on lead guitar, mandolin and backup vocals, Crystal Reeves on fiddle, and Janet (Jake) Lampert, from the ol' Berkeley Women's Music Collective on drums! A fun collection overall! (RN102) CS: 9.98

Various Artists

Women of the Night

This cassette presents the talents of three formidable stand-up talents in the out-there world of comedy — Diane Ford, Paula Poundstone, and Cathy Ladman — recorded live in 1988. They make fun of fashion, men, PMS, and other humorous aspects of life and American culture. Order while supplies last — out of print, limited quantity! (BLR5220) CS: 9.98

Whoopi Goldberg

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight? (Tape)

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Banner, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the junkie with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religious wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here!"), AIDS, and everyone and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings. Very highly recommended! (MCA42243) CS: 8.98

African Heritage

Cassellberry-DuPree

City Down

One of the finest releases of the past decade is now back in print (on Ladyslipper, we are proud to announce), and on CD too. This duo, so long a favorite of audiences at women's festivals and pride rallies, synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary, soul, even country, in an extraordinary and exciting blend. From the urban title track, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Obatala, the political South Africa, to the elegy written by Cory Previn to "a black woman that did exist" — Oh Jesus Have a Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Masterfully produced by Linda Tillery. Highly recommended! (LR203) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hot Corn in the Fire

This incredible 1994 release on Ladyslipper Records is finally here!! (Talk about "long-awaited"...) In source and feeling, it moves from ancient to traditional to contemporary, giving the listener a sense of the boundless depth and breadth of the duo's talent. Producer Toshi Reagon has assembled a group of first rate musicians, and you'll hear the evolution of their signature sound, from acoustic to songs featuring dynamic ancient drum ensembles and shekers... with styles incorporating African, reggae, folk, gospel, R&B, as well as Cajun shuffle! Their material is as relevant and revolutionary as ever, from Last Pioneers, about the struggle for lesbian and gay rights (which they sang at the first National Lesbian/Gay March on Washington)... to Pink Dress On (worn by a little girl whose elders are impeding her to sit still in such impractical attire) — an original song, inspired by Odette's folk style... to The Kwan, a compelling song many of us first heard performed by Richie Havins many years ago... to Toshi's original Foolish Attitudes, about the AIDS crisis... to Songs of War and Let There Be Peace, which acknowledge that there cannot be peace without justice. Very highly recommended, of course! (LR204) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Faith Nolan

Freedom to Love

Focusing on black women historically and presently, Faith's selections — both her originals and her covers — give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles. Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman, an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire; the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery; Ma Rainey's lesbian song Prove It On Me; and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians. Recommended! (RR8903) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Four the Moment

Live!

Canada's answer to Sweet Honey in the Rock, it's an unavoidable comparison! This 4-woman a cappella group (3 of African descent, 1 of European) lends distinctive harmonies to primarily original material with a range of political, empowering themes, from I Love You Woman (Black Mother Black Daughter) to Africville to Betty's Blues to Freedom Has Beckoned. Their songs reverberate with the experience and perspective of Black women everywhere. This 1993 release, their second, celebrates their 10th anniversary as a performing group. ## Gwen Avery

Live at IMA

Gwen made a brief but indelible impression as part of the ground-breaking Varied Voices of Black Women tour over a decade ago... and her song Sugar Mama, on the Lesbian Concentrate album, has become an unforgettable classic — yet she disappeared from national view until recently. Emerging from personal struggle stronger than ever, Gwen shares her journey here both in music and spoken word. This 1993 album of rhythm and blues from the source, gospel from the heart, captured in the moment and masterfully edited by June Millington, is a must for every music lover's collection. Recorded at IMA — Institute for the Musical Arts — a non-profit multi-cultural organization dedicated to the advancement of women in music. (FAB505) CS: 9.98

In Process...

We're thrilled the debut album by this 7-woman ensemble, produced by Bernice Johnson Reagon, is finally ready: spine-chilling a cappella harmonies articulate and celebrate the diverse lives they share as social, political, and spiritual African American women. Their involvement began at a workshop given by the members of Sweet Honey in the Rock over several years; so imagine the quality, tradition, and consciousness you have experienced from the music of Sweet Honey, vocalized at once by 7 voices. Includes member Michelle Lancaster's moving original composition Patchwork Quilt for those who have died of AIDS, and War Children for the massacred children of South Africa; member Pam Roger's original Wasteland, for homeless women; and Benzonia, a South African freedom song. As Evelyn Harris of Sweet Honey says "Their repertoire is not Top 40, it's top priority." Highly recommended! (INP1) CS: 10.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon

River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible a cappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Since I Laid My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 9.98 ... ## Boukman Eksperyans

Vodou Adjaz

We're carrying this recording, despite the predominance of male singers and musicians, because it's the only Haitian recording we've found with any women on it, and you've been requesting them! Here, the songs are primarily sung in Creole, and are about the different elements of the Haitian peoples' traditional culture and religion, Vodou (more commonly spelled "voodoo" in the states), as well as their historic and constant struggles for political unity and independence. Their name comes from a priest named Boukman, a slave leader who launched the revolution which led to the establishment of the first black republic in the world. This particular dance music, "Vodou Adjaz", bridges influences from religious drumming and the high energy springtime festival, called "Rara". One song in particular, Mizik a Mande (Song for a Woman) insists that it's time for women's equality to be recognized, and is sung by the female songwriter, Mimerose Beaubrun. Lyrics with translations are provided. Hypnotic and compelling! (MNG9899) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Black Woman

Probably the best release ever by this familiar voice in mainstream reggae. She wrote & arranged 6 of the 10 songs, giving us a rare glimpse into a Rastafarian woman's perspective. Black Woman is a tribute of remarkable strength and beauty. Slave Queen exhorts women to "remove the shackles on your mind," while Sisters' Chant & Strength to Go Through give promise to the vision of women shaping our personal & political futures. ## Secrets

A soul-stirring, heart-warming, up-tempo, long-awaited, highly-recommended album by this master of R&B/jazz/blues/contemporary music! This album has achieved well-deserved play on black commercial radio. Count On Me fits right in there. The Chosen Ones gives us political nourishment: Fever, in a jazz rendition which tops any previous cover, gives us chills... and, a new insight into the relationship between Paganism and Sacerdotalism. Basin Street, a Tru-Obedo collaboration, is also a fine song. Demonstrating the sly and varied nuances in her vocal power, sure to gain her a wider audience. (BLF736) CS: 9.98

Linda Tillery/Cultural Heritage Chr

This late '94/early '95 release is an incredible presentation of African American music (much of it from the Gulf of Mexico islands culture): work songs, field hollers, play songs, spirituals, inflected sermons, folk tales and African music, such as the rhythmic chant to the African ocean goddess Yemaya. The Cultural Heritage Choir, which consists of 6 women — Melanie DeMore and Rashida Oji, and of course Linda and her stunning, fluid alto among them — employs tall and response, multi-layered harmonies, poly-rhythms and repetitive verse, song forms which are considered by many historians, anthropologists and ethnomusicologists to be the very root sources of all American popular music. The Choir was assembled by Linda, as part of a 5-year period of research in the field of African American Folk Art. Highly recommended! (TUM1) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Me'Shell NdegeOcello

Plantation Lullabies

"I am Me'Shell NdegeOcello. I play bass. I write music and I sing. Oh, and I happen to be a lesbian." This outspoken black lesbian, who "uncovers new musical ground with a gritty hybrid of jazz, funk, and hip-hop," is the first artist to be recorded by Madonna on her new Maverick label. The artist describes the title paradox: "Plantation is a metaphor for all sorts of urban situations, from Harlem to the shantytowns in Jamaica, just black urban living sort of thing. Lullabies are songs to lull your soul to rest, to caress your mind." ## Come Follow Me

Recipient of standing ovations, Melanie is one of the most exciting new recording/performance artists in women's music of the 90s! "Hard as obsidian," "sweet as chocolate," "strong as knots," "round as a waterdrop" are some of attempts to describe her voice in words; others have compared her to Patti (of Tuck and) or Joan Armatrading. She's the director of Voices, the Bay Area Lesbian Choral Ensemble, and her expertise in vocal possibilities is evident here, as well as her incredible range. Includes Black Jewels (in the Dawn), Glad to be Alive (Nappy Head Song). Hear her debut tape, and watch for her at festivals and concerts! (MDM1) CS: 9.98

Reach Across the Lines

Rachel is an incredible multi-talented musician, who has taken an artistic approach to confronting the issue of racism and to moving people past the "isms" of sex, class, and race. Her work is a combination of poetry, music and performance, with wonderful scat, choral layering, haunting harmonies, utilizing the human voice in a myriad of ways, especially in the 3 version of the stand-out title cut. She says the music of many peoples dance in her veins: Indian (Hindu) chants, southern root-wootens stories, Baptist ministers, jazz and gospel musicians, Celtic harpists, Cherkess, and classical training; and you'll hear all this and more on her debut tape. Highly recommended! (OTB101) CS: 9.98

Big Big Woman

This fall 1992 release last-minute catalog addition has been described as honest, playful, innovative, intense, powerful... and as "bleeding, crying and laughing at the same time." Her deliveries range from the acappella Vyta's Song, about an enslaved black woman, to acoustic ballads as well as dance tunes with a full band, such as Life Cut (about the issue of weight). Also included: the notable No Wig about the pain of incest and battery; and other songs which deal with racism, alienation, love of earth, and love of women. Highly recommended! (FAB404) CS: 9.98

Second album of acappella vocals, gospel-influenced, with emphasis on harmonies. Original songs about nuclear proliferation & Jimmy Carter, women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers; the experiences of Black women; a couple about specific strong Black women—Soljourner Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. # Sweet Honey in the Rock

In This Land

In the struggle for peace, freedom and justice, 5 incomparable voices rise up in stunning acappella harmonies, reflecting the trying times we all face together. In the inspired congregational tradition of African American culture, this 1982 album goes straight to the hearts and souls of our lives, sharing truth, tragedy, comfort, outrage, hope, love, healing, solidarity and wisdom — and always at the highest levels of beauty and art. Includes (Women Should Be) A Priority, Pulaski Chant, Patchwork Quilt, Now That the Buffalo's Gone, I Be Your Water. Always recommended. (EB2583) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Hokumbel (Celebration!!)

Seven years the lead singer and percussionist with Women of the Calabash, and now a founding member of the 4-woman ensemble LadyGourd Sangoma, this incredible artist performs traditional music of the Black diaspora. She draws upon African celebration, work, praise and love songs; slave songs from the American South; and stories from the Caribbean, reinterpreting and blending genres, rhythms, vocal styles and cultural traditions. From Sorcerer to Gaps (both Women to O' Lady Diah) to perhaps the most outstanding track of the album, Moe Mae — a celebration song from Angola/Zaire — Tiye completely draws the listener into her material, which she adapted, arranged, plays various traditional percussion (some of which she handcrafted) such as berimbau, hindahu, gourds, and sings; her voice has rightly been called "so malleable, percussive and sinewy that it is mesmerizing." A note: a personal priority of hers is researching and exploring the music of third world women everywhere. One of our top picks for 1992... very highly recommended! (TGR1) CS: 9.98

Justice

Finally, it's here... a stunning new album from this young multi-instrumentalist and singer-songwriter who fuses traditional soul with contemporary energy. The material here is mostly original, though she does include a Georgia Sea Island song and Sting's Walking in Your Footsteps. With her famous mother, Bernice Johnson Reagon of Sweet Honey in the Rock, as well as Casselberry-Dupree and Annette Aguilar. Recommended! (FF526) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Demonstrations

Not only a "strong voice in a new generation of Black women's music," a really fine voice, fine songwriting and stylistically distinctive musicianship from this woman of diverse and growing talents, Toshi plays electric lead and rhythm guitar, acoustic guitar, drums and bass, and does lead and background vocals. Co-producer with Toshi and a contributing percussionist and vocalist is Toshi's mom, Bernice Reagon of Sweet Honey in the Rock. The folk and rock 'n' roll numbers here are equally strong. (TR582) CS: 9.98

The Rejected Stone

When she's not producing excellent music for folks like Casselberry-Dupree, Toshi makes some of the freshest music around — she has a firm foundation in traditional African American music (thanks Bernice!) which she fuses with R&B and alternative rock influences for a truly inspired sound. 5 of the 8 songs on this 1994 release are originals, including Look Up Ahead, which rocks; others have new arrangements by her, including The Other Side. Nona Hendryx contributes additional vocal production on This Could Be Heaven; Toshi accompanies her own vocals on guitar, bass, and drums. A wonderful blend of past, present and future by an incredibly talented woman; highly recommended! (PRM6482) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Yasmeen

Walking in the Way of Love

Yasmeen is known to many of us as one of the early, long-time members of Sweet Honey in the Rock. Her 10-song 1993 release features an array of R&B, jazz, songs with spiritual content, and topical songs, as she carries on the tradition of Sweet Honey. Included: In This Land, about homelessness; Colours, an original pro-choice song; Monrovia's Hills by Yasmeen; Look It Up, a song by Michelle Lanchester of In Process... two by Ysaie Barnwell of Sweet Honey; one written by Yasmeen's daughter, Summer, at age 6; and a cover of Bob Dylan's Knockin' on Heaven's Door. Absolutely recommended for all Sweet Honey fans! (SMR63) CD: 15.98

Ysaie Barnwell

Singing...African American Trad'n

This 8-cassette set with instructional booklet teaches rhythms, harmonies, vocal techniques and stylistic subtleties of the African American singing tradition. Sweet Honey member Ysaie Barnwell teaches all the parts to 20 wonderful choral and congregational songs, including Chants and Calls; Spirituals; Early Gospel; Songs of the Civil Rights Movement and Contemporary South African Songs of Resistance and Protest. Perfect for individuals, church, camp and community groups of any background. Recommended by Alice Walker, Ronnie Gilbert, Pete Seeger, and Ladyslipper! (HOM1) CS: 59.98

Alison Kinnaid

The Harper's Gallery

One of the leading exponents of Scottish harp music, Alison carries on the tradition of the great clarsach (small harp) players of the past. The opening cut of this album is actually stunning — and I try never to use that word — on which Ann is joined by harpichordist Lucy Carolan, plus a fiddle and viola... transporting. The collection consists of courtly 16th, 17th and 18th century music; Alison lends her voice to a few of the pieces. Includes one said to have been written by Mary Queen of Scots the night before her execution. The recording quality is excellent — very bright and clear and almost early present. Recommended. (TEM003) CS: 9.98

Altan

The Red Crow

Considered to be one of the world's best bands playing Irish music, this 1990 release is their third. As is so often true, the one female, in this case ace vocalist/fiddler Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh (pronounced Ma-ra-dee Nee Mooney), provides the center and foundation for the rest of the ensemble. The selections offer a balanced mix of rhythms and tempos, with reels, jigs, ballads, waltzes; some are all-instrumental and some feature vocals. (GL1109) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Harvest Storm

This 1992 release contains 4 songs and 9 instrumentals tracks of riving music that both reaffirms and enlarges the international stature of this Irish band. Never complacent, they experiment with harmony and choral singing on such stirring songs in Irish as Donat agus Moraq and Mo Choll, led by Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh's extraordinarily expressive voice. This album proves that their vocal blend can match the mastery of their fiery instrumental playing! (GL1117) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Island Angel

Starting off with a whirlwind, 3-reel set, Altan performs with equally stunning virtuosity a pair of highlands, a strathspey, a Donegal mazurka of rare vintage, 3 Cape Breton jigs, other memorable reels, and a closing piece of original instrumental music from which the album takes its name. Of the 5 vocal selections, 4 are sung in Irish, including Bog Og Ni Mhaire (Bridget O'Malley) and Dulaman. With this 1993 release, this Dublin-based sextet continues to garner recognition as one of the premier Irish traditional ensembles today. (GL1137) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola/Valerie King

Pastorale

If we could install flashing neon arrows on our catalog pages, we'd use one in this marginal Anisa on classical guitar and Valerie on flute and piccolo are a pair of musicians whose skill is honed to near perfection in their execution of medieval, renaissance, Irish, Spanish, and impressionistic compositions. The phrasing and arrangements are elegant and dignified; even the sequencing is just right. Includes Parson's Farewell, Goddesses and the lively, embellished Carolan's Concerto. Have we said enough? Highly recommended. (JM100) CS: 9.98

Aoife Clancy

It's About Time

Aoife (pronounced "Eefa", an ancient Gaelic name for "Eve") began her musical career in Tipperary, Ireland singing with her famous father, Bobby Clancy of the Clancy Brothers. After a stint of world travelling, she settled in Massachusetts and recorded this, her first album, which she describes as "a story about women and their relationship with the world." The songs range from the traditional no-frills Celtic of Mantle of Green and Paddy Overseas to classic folk tunes like Factory Girl, Go Lassie Go (a.k.a. Wild Mountain Thyme), and staff favorite Don't Get Married Girls, to the unexpected sultry blues of Mid-life Crisis. She has received accolades like "Her singing would melt pack ice with its warmth and richness," which are right on the mark! (REG3017) CS: 10.98... CD: 13.98

Soft May Morn

This US national Scottish fiddle champion, known for her unique rendering of Highland bagpipe tunes on the fiddle, presents a rare collection of ancient melodies from the North Highlands and Western Isles of Scotland, performed in elegant classical style on fiddle with piano and guitar. The artist uncovered this rare manuscript during her stay as resident musicologist at Scotland's Armdale Castle on the Isle of Skye. In addition to haunting airs and lively reels, this 1994 album contains an 8-minute lament in the improvisational bagpipe "piobroch" style. (MM258) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Celtic Circles

Some of you know this fiddle champion from her collaborations with Maggie Samson as a member of Ensemble Galilei. On this 1994 album inspired by the ancient Celtic circles of her Scottish heritage, she paints a musical picture joining the heavens and earth's cycles to the cycles of everyday life. The traditional and 2 Celtic-inspired originals — performed on fiddle, Great Highland bagpipe, Scottish snailpipes, Uilleann pipes, guitar, Celtic harp, viola da gamba, hammered dulcimer, bass and drums — are grouped according to the cycle of the day: times for dawn, noonday, eventime, and night flow beautifully and naturally. ## Aine Minogue

Were You at the Rock

Aine (pronounced On-ya) has been called "one of the world's greatest Celtic harpists" by the Irish Echo... and comments such as "musical tears from heaven" often describe her. She hails from the town of Bormackane in County Tipperary, Ireland; her large musical family is part of the Minogue Clan, with family records going back to the 11th century. This 1993 album, which includes both instrumental and vocal selections, contains lilting dance tunes, spirited jigs and reels, haunting and ancient melodies, and delicate yet shimmering songs in Gaelic and English. There are very old tunes, pieces from the harp's renaissance period, and contemporary material. Includes the lovely Gaire na mBan (Laughter of the Women) and the ethereal, haunting King of the Fairies (Ri na Sidhoga). (BCN10129) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Crosswinds

This is the great 1987 debut release that introduced Karen Matheson's angelic voice — soaring above mystical back-grounds — to the American public. These Scottish musicians move effortlessly from highly charged gigs and reels to serene, spellbinding ballads in both Gaelic and English, in a style that has been described as early Clannad crossed with Sily Wizard. Instruments include accordion, recorder and whistles, bouzouki, guitar, fiddles, basses, percussion. Do not miss! (GL1077) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Sidewalk

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 11-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentalists from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited "walking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums; in the meantime, enjoy her here! (GL1094) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Celli's Muse Circles of Stone

Celli's Muse (pronounced "Kay-lee's Muse") is a Houston-based duo comprised of Stephany Freeman and Mary Maddux, who spend much time researching and performing Celtic music from Scotland, Ireland and England. Their clear, powerful sopranos weave and soar in rich, beautiful harmonies, as they interpret traditional ballads such as Red Haired Mary and The Queen of Argyll... Robert Burns songs like Ae Fond Kiss... and even a contemporary song such as July Smalls' feminist Mothers, Daughters, Wives. Mary provides all the delicate guitar instrumentation, along with help from friends who play bodhran, tambourine, piano, dumbek and fluta. Melodic, melancholic, and very very sweet. (CEM8873) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Ceoltoiri Silver Apples of the Moon

Ceoltoiri continues to ascend heavenward, expanding their repertoire to include vocals and some original compositions. Connie continues her pristine guitar work while adding her celestial voice. Sue's harp work is flawless, and Karen adds pennywhistle and boxwood flute to her dulcimer contributions. The songs include Gaelic versions of Arise and Dress Yourself, and O' Se Do Bheatha Shille, which is sung in tribute to Grainne Mhaol, a woman pirate from the O'Malley Clan of County Mayo, plus a Yeats poem set to music, a celebration of Samhain (Halloween), the Scandinavian Potluck Set, and The Plain Girl's Lament. About half the selections are gorgeous instrumentals... Highly recommended! (MM202) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ceoltoiri Celtic Lace

Ceoltoiri ("Kyl-tory") is comprised of Sue Richards on Harp, Karen Ashbrook on Hammer Dulcimer, and Connie McKenna on Guitar, and "lacey" is the correct image one gets from the compositions they combine: light, airy and delicate reels, waltzes, aires, jigs, pipe marches and strathspeys. While many Celtic musicians occasionally combine two tunes for an interesting medley, this is the first recording we can recall where all of the pieces are woven into quilt-like combinations: different textures and colors interspersed within a graceful and stately meter... lovely! (MM203) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cherish the Ladies The Back Door

Irish America's first all-woman music and dance ensemble has dazzled audiences in Ireland, the US and Canada; here's their first true ensemble album (1992). Jigs, reels, polkas and hornpipes pour forth with tremendous energy from these 8 musicians, and 2 tracks feature some extraordinary hard-shoe stepdancing! Cathy Ryan's lovely voice graces 5 of the 14 songs — one in Irish, the rest in English. Fiddles, bodhrans, flutes, tin whistles, guitar and banjo punctuate such songs as Jessica's Polka, The Shepherd's Daughter, Mairé Mhor (Big Mary), and title song, which is dedicated to all undocumented Irish aliens. (GL1119) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cherish the Ladies Out and About

Regarded by some as America's most exciting Irish group today, this talented all-woman ensemble has never sounded better or tighter on this 1993 release, their second. Led by Cathy Ryan's gorgeous voice, the songs are searingly memorable, from the Gaelic The M'Intin Rair to Cathy's own The Missing Piece... from strathspeys to reels (with step-dancing!), jigs, waltzes, polkas, and a slide. (GL1134) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Ann Fulton The Once and Future Harp

This album of new instrumental music for harps of 5 centuries is a uniquely cosmic collection — a wondrous journey across time and space, evoking a world of visions from the profound stillness of an Alaskan midnight to an ancient castle in the south of France. Her classical training, with emphasis on the music of the medieval and Renaissance eras, complements her nature-inspired originals... which she performs with equal virtuosity on a variety of instruments, including 3 different medieval lap harps, contemporary folk harp, and the Welsh triple harp. Includes 14th and 17th century Italian pieces, her originals, and more. (GOU111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Ann Fulton The Ains of Wales

This 1991 debut recording is the stunning result of years of research, combined with a fierce love of beauty. The Welsh Ains, that delicate combination of folk music with more formal, almost classical composition, simply burst with imagery, as they are expressed on that incredible instrument for which many of them were intended, the Welsh Triple Harp. Consisting of 3 rows of strings, the tunings and design allow the musician to play two rows in unison, creating a lovely shower of delicate sound. Cheryl is a master of her instrument, and one feels grateful for her dedication to it and its music. Extensive, informative notes included. (KQC7071) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Clannad Anam

Six songs in English, two in Gaelic, plus two shimmering instrumentals... this 1991 release features a splendid combination of their earlier, more traditionally-based style with a foray into a contemporary Fleetwood Mac-flavored vein, incorporating the as-always-incomparable vocals of Maire Brennan (the Anglicized version of Bhraonain) — suited to the old and the new, that is to say, simply beautiful however she uses it — plus lovely saxophone, multi-layered backup vocals, and a softly effective rhythm section. Lyrics in Gaelic and English... recommended! (ATL82409) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Clannad 2

This is the earliest Clannad album still in print as we write this in 1993, because their first album, entitled simply Clannad, hasn't yet been re-released. It's also one of the most traditional ones, even though it was considered experimental for the times. It showcases Maire's harping skills, on O'Carolans Eleanor Plunkett, and of course her vocals on the several beautiful Gaelic songs, plus their trademark ensemble work. (SHN79007) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad Dulaman

In this 5-person family ensemble, it is the exquisite voice of Maire Ni Bhraonain which centers the vocal harmonies, and her harp playing which provides the focal point for the instrumental arrangements. Their repertoire consists of traditional Gaelic songs which they infuse with an up-tempo, improvisational yet precise and delicate musicianship. Includes Two Sisters. (SHN79005) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad Legend

Subtitled Music from the TV Series "Robin of Sherwood", this 1984 release features the impressive vocals of Maire Brennan, one of our favorite Celtic singers whose work we strive to make available here in the States. Ten songs, with titles like Lady Marian, Ancient Forest, and Darkinere, all evocative of the tale. (RCA88306) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad Macalla

Considered by some to be their best album, this 1986 release is also one of their most produced, with haunting, mystical effects created with synthesizer, multi-tracked Maire vocals, reverberating harmonies, and lots of contemporary instrumentation on top of their traditional accompaniment. Includes The Wild Cry, Closer To Your Heart, Bauchall On Eime. (RCA8063) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad Magical Ring

A gorgeous, magical mixture of Irish, Gaelic and contemporary sounds, with lyrics in both Gaelic and English, this 1992 cross-over release was one of their pivotal albums in engendering a New Age following, and many fans consider it their best. Includes The Fairy Queen, Theme from Harry's Game, Newgrange, and other original and traditional tunes, Irish import; recommended! (RCA86305) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad Banba

Gaelic and English lyrics laid gently over a haunting blend of traditional Celtic and contemporary rhythms characterize this 1993 release, which celebrates 20 years of recording together. Add in also an Abba-esque sound created by overdubbing lyrics on the song There For You, and it's hard to imagine anyone not liking at least something about this album. Face it, people everywhere are being captivated by their music, as it creeps into the background of everything from motion pictures to TV commercials: it's high time the artists are brought into the forefront! Includes I Will Find You (theme from The Last of the Mohicans, in which Maire sings in Mohican and Cherokee) and Mystery Game. (ATL82593) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Clannad Crann Uil

This 1978 recording from Dublin's Tara Records contains pure traditional Gaelic and Irish material, impeccably performed, naturally revolving around Maire's heavenly voice... it's one of the last straight-forward, all-acoustic albums Clannad recorded before they embarked on their experiments with more contemporary sounds. Includes Gathering Mushrooms (which does include sister Enya on supporting vocals), and The Last Rose of Summer. (TAR3007) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad (with Enya) Fusim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire Ni Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Clannad and Pol, and their 2 uncles, Padraig and Noel O'Dugain. Eithne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. Pronounced "foom" and meaning "sound," this 1981 release (the only complete Clannad album with Enya) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional: you will hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 6-part genetic harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (ATL82481) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Clannad In Concert

Spectacular lead singer Maire Ni Bhraonain is Enya's sister, but if you didn't know that, you might deduce it when you hear their styles... and in fact, the entire ensemble consists of close relatives to these two! This album affords you a rare opportunity to hear this ensemble in person — almost! (Really do it if you ever have the chance...) Includes Fairies Hornpipe! Off to California, Down By the Sally Gardens, and many Gaelic tunes. (SHN79030) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad Pastpresent

What do you do if you make a TV commercial to sell a car, but the 800 number you flash gets flooded with requests, not for the auto, but for the incredible background music? Well, it happened with Harry's Game, one of the 16 songs on this 1989 compilation, which is primarily a retrospective of 4 previous releases: Sirius, Macalla, Legend, and Magical Ring, on which the original Harry's Game appeared (it was later included on Anam as well), and it also includes two songs not previously released. It gives a taste of the breadth of their styles, as always anchored by the incredible vocals of Maire Brennan. (RCA9912) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Clishmaclaver Roots Entwined

This recording, the duo's second, features mostly acappella versions of Celtic (primarily Scottish) ballads and laments, both traditional and contemporary. They are also joined in sparse, yet crystalline acoustic accompaniment — harp, bouzouki, cello, guitar — often one instrument per song, for a rich, clean sound; makes one think of sea-washed air and soft colors... Also includes Frankie Armstrong's I Don't Want Your Red, Red Roses; Tiddies; The Fire in the Glen; and Ailein Dunt. (BAP002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connemara The Tempest

Buy this for the opening track, from whence they drew their name! Ripples in the Rockpool: Kiss of the Fiddle relates to the life of the 16th century Irish pirate Grace O'Malley... and the first part of the tune was the band's lullaby. Cathy Palmer, at age 13! At the recording of their debut release, this ensemble consisted of 3 women and 1 man; here, their clear, strong vocals (especially Grace Griffith's), excellent instrumentation (fiddles, Celtic harp, bodhran, psaltery, concertina and bells), and a lovely repertoire make this a fine first recording for a band destined to go places. (CON1) CS: 9.98

Connemara Beyond the Horizon

This DC-area trio performs beyond all expectation, beyond what can be described as beautifully, beyond your wildest dreams! Simply, one of the finest Celtic recordings we've received... Vocalist Grace Griffith breathes warmth and life into the carefully chosen and expertly arranged songs — the emotional resonance she creates is the closest to the incomparable Sandy Denny's that this reviewer has heard! Ace fiddler Cathy Palmer and harp virtuoso Tiscie Brown round out the strong trio, each delivering award-winning performances. Soulful narrative intersperses with sprightly jigs, airs and strathspeys, all of which exude something special. A few interpretations of contemporary Celtic composers Loreena McKennitt (All Souls' Night) and Clannad are included. Highly recommended! (CON2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Connie Dover Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scartaglen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scots/Irish bands Sily Wizard, Capercaille and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connie Dover The Wishing Well

With Connie's second album, she's achieved the goal all artists seek — she's topped herself! A bit more upbeat than her debut, this 1993 release once again offers a magical mix of songs from Scotland, Ireland, and America; her voice is rich and clear, her phrasing delicate, and the pure acoustic backing is a collection of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland's and Ireland's finest traditional musicians. (TPM0201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cusan Tan Kiss of Fire

Cusan Tan is an incredible Welsh ensemble (2 women, 5 men) whose name translates "Kiss of Fire," and their album is different — magical — captivating — entrancing! Some intricate vocal harmonies by their flutist and primary songwriter, Ann Morgan Jones, and alto Sue Jones-Davies (whose other claim to fame is that she played Judith, Jesus' girlfriend, in Monty Python's Life of Brian); these two women, both from Abergavenny in Wales, are the group's founders. With instruments that include guitar (momentary shades of Bert Jansch), cello, and Welsh triple harp, they create a sound which is a heart-breaking combination of Celtic traditional, neo-traditional and classical, yet fresh and unique. Even the spellings of the Welsh words evoke a sense of mystery and magic. Very highly recommended! (FAM15002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

DeDanann (with Mary Black) Song for Ireland

Before launching her solo recording career, Mary Black was known as the breathtaking vocalist with DeDanann, and here is one of the albums on which she is featured, for those of you who want a more complete discography. This Irish band, whose name is derived from Tuatha De Danann — the people of the goddess Dana, transcends musical boundaries, while maintaining their advocacy for traditional music. (BUG1130) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dolores Keane Solid Ground

Known for her work with such influential groups as Planxty and DeDanann, one of Ireland's warmest voices now offers us a taste of what she can do solo, and it's delectable indeed! The title confirms the quality of her deep vocal timbre; words like deep-rooted and earthy come to mind, especially when she's harmonizing with the likes of Emmaylou Harris! The (mostly) contemporary selections range from the courtly Storm in My Heart and the stately Emigrant Eyes, to the sprightly title cut and a surprisingly successful cover of Steve Winwood's The Finer Things. (SHN0007) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eilidh Mackenzie Eideadh Na Sgeulachd

Or, The Raiment of the Tale: Songs of the Scottish Gael. It's not often we find a whole album sung in Gaelic, and we've looked out here! Eilidh has won the Scottish national vocal medal for singing more than once (as has her sister Gillian, who joins in on vocal harmonies here), and it's easy to hear why: her voice is light and airy, and infused with such sweetness and longing. It's simply unbelievable when she self-harmonizes! The 14 songs feature traditional Gaelic material, like a Purta-beul medley, meaning a light-hearted lighthearted-split bit of nonsense (also known as mouth music), ballads and acappella love poems. Features Alison Kinnaird on Scottish harp... Delightful, and Western audiences who enjoyed the Bulgarian Women's Choir will probably like this as well. (TEM048) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eleanor McEvoy

This Dublin, Ireland artist brings the purity of voice expected from traditional Celtic music, and encompasses it firmly in modern pop. Her velvety vocals pour out over and through both jangly rock tunes and the woodwind/string-infused ballads. Clannad, it ain't. Her songs are about how life and love are much more complicated than most other pop songs would have us believe — this is what "Adult Rock" should really mean! Her bittersweet, heartstring-tugging Only a Woman's Heart has been featured as a duet with Mary Black on the A Woman's Heart compilation. Her music plugs into the part of me that Eleanor herself explores when she writes in Breathing Hope, "I heard music lighting up my darkness; felt the phrase melt away my sadness, a melody as potent as wine." If you are interested in intelligent, catchy, schlock-free folk/pop/rock, step right up, you need look no further! (QEF24606) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! (REP25774) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "stickily" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of raw silk), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all entwining around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art... sigh... Highlights include the Gaelic Eboria and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya The Celts

This is Enya's debut album (previously issued under the title Enya), and it's truly glorious: multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. The artist is definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice; complemented by millenium pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! (REP45681) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Frances Black & Kieran Goss

Mary Black's family is known all over the world as a family full of talented musicians, and here's a new offering from her sister Frances... who many of you have already heard, on the beloved A Woman's Heart compilation. She and Kieran, a man with a likewise lovely voice, alternate lead vocals on this album of primarily contemporary songs. Mary Black fans won't want to miss this. (SHN79088) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Frankie Armstrong And the Music Plays So Grand

This amazing British folk vocalist is known for her powerful delivery of material rooted in British Isles tradition but with a distinctly feminist and socially conscious bent, and she doesn't disappoint us on this live-in-concert 1978 album... We've long been a major fan, but her works have been hard to come by recently, so we're glad to have unearthed this gem! With songs such as The Factory Girl, Boys Will Be Boys, The Female Drummer, A Woman's Work, Peggy Seeger's Winnie and Sam, and others — several acappella — this is a perfect selection if you love British folk but find some of the sexism hard to deal with. Recommended! (SRR4211) CS: 9.98

Geraldine O'Grady & Oonagh Keogh Heartstrings in Harmony

Long established as Ireland's leading solo violinist (as opposed to "fiddler"), Geraldine performs both classical and Irish compositions — plus a few popular tunes — with her daughter Oonagh on this exquisite album of duo violin music. Both four widely as soloists and with orchestras, their technique is flawless, heart-rending, vibrant and sensual, and as the Irish Times said about their duo work, "their partnership is complete and equal." They are accompanied on piano by Margaret O'Sullivan on this album of many of their favorite pieces. If you're a sucker for a beautiful violin, and enjoy the meeting of classical tone with some traditional material, you need this! It's soothing, uplifting, and healing. (REG3025) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 13.98

Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this album... "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm and there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered acappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joanie Madden

A Whistle On the Wind

Joanie is the powerhouse who ignites the wonderful all-woman Irish band Cherish the Ladies, and an extraordinary tin whistle and fiddle player — what brilliant technique! — what exquisite, heart-captivating tone! Her solo debut contains a rich variety of material, from tunes executed at top speed to a pastoral setting for Mary Hynes, a poem read by Liam Clancy. Favorites of this reviewer are the slower, more wistful songs. Accompanists include John Williams on concertina, Eileen Ivers on fiddle. Recommended! (GL1142) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!) Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Betty MacNeill, Blind Mary, Hammered dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan Consort — an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitarist, a flutist, a violinist, and harpist Sylvia Woods — all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding, Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended!! (DM102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cottage

Joemy's second volume of music on hammered dulcimer by Turlough O'Carolan is yet another supreme album which deserves a spot on your shelf and stereo. With graceful accompaniment by the Carolan Consort (which includes Sylvia Woods and Anissa Angorola), Joemy will transport you to the hills and fields of 18th century Ireland, via pianissimo and arias. Enchanting; don't miss it. (DM104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Celtic Dreams

Joemy's third volume in her Irish series truly captures the mystical Celtic spirit. On the 9 glorious O'Carolan tunes and other magical melodies from Ireland, Wales, Scotland and the Isle of Man, her shimmering dulcimer is complemented by the usual brilliant accompaniment of Sylvia Woods' harp, Anissa Angorola's guitar, Valerie King's flute, and Miamon Miller's violin. Includes: Faerie's Lamentation, Ash Grove, Mabel Kelly. (DM107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Celtic Treasures

The long-awaited sequel to Celtic Dreams contains several of the legendary harpist Turlough O'Carolan's seldom recorded gems, such as Lady Dillon, Katherine O'More, and Sean Jones. Numerous other Irish and Scottish favorites, such as The Gentle Maiden, Star of the County Down, Miss Hamilton, round out this 1994 hammered dulcimer + plus release... and the addition of bodhran to the usual Carolan Consort (Celtic harp, classical guitar, futes and violins) lends a new energy. She considers it her most exciting release to date! (DM112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Celtic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Defense of Guinevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. (SG123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Changes Like the Moon

A very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording, based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: THE ROSE OF FEATHERS and THE SILKIE. Each tells a story of a beautiful magical female creature who is captured by a human male and is forced into marriage, until one day she escapes joyfully to her freedom. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful Secrets From the Stone. (SG147) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Angel Tiger

This deeply moving 1982 release documents an evolutionary aspect of this extraordinary artist, as she walks the line between Celtic and more contemporary expressions. Accompanied by a fascinating mixture of soprano sax, clarinet, accordion, strings and such, she explores topics of a frequently serious, reflective, even brooding nature. Includes individualized interpretations of Billy Bragg's Rumours of War, Elvis Costello's All This Useless Beauty, and more, and a haunting version of the traditional warning to young women, Let No Man Steal Your Thyme. (GL30742) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Airs and Graces

Few finer voices exist anywhere; this old favorite was originally released in 1976 on the Topic label, and was hard to find domestically. June was deservedly voted top British female vocalist more than once, and no collection of British Isles music would be complete without this. Features richorchard, bassoon and soprano; some double-tracked vocals; some a cappella ballads carried solely by her mysterious, lower-register rare vocal timbre. Highly recommended! (SHN79055) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Karen Ashbrook

Hills of Erin

This sweeping sonic travelogue, released in 1994, blends the timeless music of Ireland with the cool contemporary sounds of soprano sax, ethereal Irish flute and whistle melodies; hammered dulcimer, lush classical-style piano accompaniments, viola da gamba, bass and world percussion. Song titles include Back of Red Roses, Reaping the Rye, Connaughtman's Rambles, The Osprey, and hornpipes and aires. The artist, a premiere exponent of traditional Irish music, is the author of the book Playing the Hammered Dulcimer in the Irish Tradition. (MM207) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Knodel & Valencia

The Harper's Masque

Subtitled A Celebration of Celtic Harps, this 1992 edition of rare beauty and quality lives up to its promise! Containing primarily original arrangements of traditional tunes plus a couple of exquisite original compositions, the artists Debra Knodel (harpist) and Jens Valencia (who plays harp and English horn) weave a sonorous, spacious, magical sound tapestry. Drawing on Scottish, Irish, French and Italian music, they explore the possibilities of the instrument, until in the final piece, they "transport an ancient Gaelic air far into post-modern harpspace." To quote one reviewer! Though this may be their debut release, we're sure it won't be their last. Highly recommended! (KVR) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Elemental

This extremely talented musician/vocalist must have been incarnated just to bring the music of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1985 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Carraigfhergus, She Moved Through the Fair. Harp, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Parallel Dreams

This 1989 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection; from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annachie Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Beltane Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's explanation of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music; highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Mask and Mirror

On this this eagerly-awaited 1994 release, Loreena combines her Celtic influences with world music to create a magical work of deep beauty and profound mystery. She says, "I looked back and forth through the window of 15th century Spain, through the hues of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and was drawn into a fascinating world: history, religion, cross-cultural fertilization." Blending harp and fiddle with electric guitars and exotic percussion, mixing traditional songs with musical settings of Shakespeare and Yeats, this is a dazzling kaleidoscope of feelings unified by the intensity of her voice. Contains The Myricid Dream, The Dark Night of the Soul, Marykesh Night Market, The Bonny Swans, Full Circle; instruments include cello (played by virtuoso Orla Hamoyll), bouzouki, bodhran, tamboura, dumbek, oud, balalaika, Uilleann pipes and more. Highly recommended as usual! (WB45425) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Visit

This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Child, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Souls Night and the instrumental Sango To Ewera, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album; hear the Italian tint coloring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tim Walts-inspired version of Greenweave. And her indescribable musical rendition of Tennyson's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments; great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new age vocal Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB25880) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with violas, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Glendalough Abbey in Limerick and Guelph's Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Seasons, Banulawa, Let All That Are to Mirth Inclined. (QR102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mac-talia

Mairidh Gaol is Ceol

"These folks are not jumping on the bandwagon — They are the bandwagon!" All members of this ensemble are leaders in their field of Gaelic song and music. Each Mackenzie, Christine Primrose, and Arthur Connack have all led the way in breaking the mold into which Gaelic song had been forced, through their extensive repertoires, fine voices, impeccable style and critically acclaimed albums. The audience for this proud tradition has been vastly widened. They are accompanied by leading teacher and exponent of Scottish harp, Alison Kinnaird, as well as Blair Douglas, from Skye, on keyboards and accordion. Originally they came together just to record this album, but word slipped out and they've been invited to perform at many top venues. This 1994 release is truly a Gaelic-song showcase! (TEM054) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior/J. Tabor: Silly Sisters

No More To the Dance

Twelve years after their first recorded collaboration, a new masterpiece by these two vocalists, whose harmonies do truly sound like they are of a family, breaks new ground for traditional music. It features innovative features with touches of Eastern European harmony, and constantly shifting combinations of western, eastern, modern and traditional instruments (Chinese flutes, soprano sax, Celtic harp by the women of Sileas, bagpipes, more). One of the most eagerly-awaited releases ever, and very highly recommended! (SHN79089) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mist & Stone

This 1990 release is a beautiful collection of Celtic tunes from Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, and Galicia, performed on hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and other instruments. The selections explore the rich and varied musical kingdoms of an ancient past, as they create textures and moods which are often evocative and haunting. Includes Foggy Dew, Sally Gardens, 18th century harp airs, jigs and reels. Recommended! (MM106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone, Sue Richards et al

Music in the Great Hall

Subtitled Instrumental Music from the Ancient Celtic Lands, this 1992 live recording includes Maggie's trademark skill on the hammered dulcimer, plus Sue Richards, Bonnie Rideout, and Ensemble Galilei on Celtic harp, fiddle, recorders and viola da gamba. Includes Gaelic Waltz, Miss Patterson, Fingal's March and more. (MM107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

"...one of the area's most thrilling singers..."

...one of the finest, keenest folk voices in the area...

...glorious...one could be forgiven for thinking that this is the best album [Judy] Collins never recorded..." THE WASHINGTON POST

"This is an exceptional recording, with great material, classy production, inspired instrumental performances, and bewitching vocals." DIRTY LINEN MAGAZINE

"Griffith shines a thousand times on this release." MUSIC MONTHLY

"Critics have to scramble to describe Griffith's voice..."

THE CITY PAPER, BALTIMORE

WAMMIE (Washington Area Music Association Award) winning vocalist Grace Griffith presents her first solo recording "Every Hue and Shade." This sparkling collection ranges from traditional celtic material to works by contemporary writers such as Anne Lister and Betsy Rose, with guest appearances by some of the region's finest performers. With co-producer Marcy Marxer, singers Freyda Epstein (formerly of Trapezoid) and Debi Smith, the members of Griffith's celtic trio Connemara, and others, Griffith weaves a magical journey through songs "of every hue and shade". This album is popular from California to Griffith's native Maryland. You'll know why when you hear it.

GRACE GRIFFITH

JESS HAWK OAKENSTAR's
new album "Your Heart
Will Show You" wraps
the power of the human spirit in a package of kick-ass rock and tender ballads. Also contains
"They Are Coming for You",
a resounding NO! to right-
wing encroachment.

MOVING BREATH's brilliant new release SHE DREAMS breaks ground in the emerging realm of Numinous World Music. The five women who brought you the beautiful vocal arrangements on SHE CHANGES, now infuse thirteen original compositions with intriguing harmonies that will inspire and uplift you. Exploring the Earth's rhythms through voice and musical instrumentation (guitar, bass, piano, celtic harp, recorder, flutes and percussion), Moving Breath creates a myriad of powerful images of the Sacred. This recording is designed to take the listener on a journey into the Dream. This collection of chants, prayers and songs include: Dreaming Woman, Winged Omenis, Oya Aya, Suite of the Tides and Apsaras (Lullaby for Leyla). There is something for everyone on SHE DREAMS...we know you will love this entire recording!

Redwood

Sublime New World Rhythms!

All of Redwood's new releases are being supported by national tours; call 510-835-1445 x21 for details.

Descended from the Blazing Redheads, Altazor & the Cairo Cats, these seven women unite their Latin American, Caribbean, Middle Eastern and American traditions into a world class, sophisticated, absolutely hot recording which Billboard calls a "brilliant package," and the Bay Guardian describes as, "world music for those who want to think and dance at the same time."

Fall 94 Tour

Led by Broadway veteran (and founding member of Sweet Honey in the Rock!!) Louise Robinson, this quartet of three women and two men enters the realm of African American a capella solidly at the forefront! Or as Bernice Johnson Reagon says, "a sound mirror - reflecting our lives and our memories, making us believe in our going on."

Fall 94 Tour

Pioneering percussionist / rhythm dancer Keith Terry combines five cultures with five moving and singing drummers, bending and blending traditions to produce an exciting new musical language, "creat[ing] an emotional force beyond words," according to CMJ's New Music Report.

Fall 94 Tour

Nicaragua's leading sibling duo brings us another gem from their volcanic land; passionate songs of love, family, the earth and moon, war and change. Special appearance by Jackson Browne. "Guardabarranco's risky tender songs...make it impossible to see the world as 'us' and 'them'," says author Barbara Kingsolver.

Fall 94 Tour

Holly's life in music has touched so many of us - now, she's arranged and orchestrated her favorite songs for this collection, based on her one-woman show, "Fire in the Rain". 1993 Naird Honorable Mention, Soundtrack category.

UMOJA—the new debut album by the all-woman, cyber-tribal multimedia band, O'Cuckoo. The music is an engaging mix of heartfelt harmonies, state of the art electronics, and world rhythms. Joyous African, Asian, and Caribbean-influenced beats energize topical songs about politics, metaphysics, women's issues, and global unity.

O'Cuckoo are renaissance women for the next millennium, writing original songs and music, designing, building, and playing their own one-of-a-kind instruments—glow in the dark electronic marimbas, neon-blue drum controllers called "turtles," and the MidiBall, a giant glitter-and-helium filled transparent sphere that triggers sounds interactively as the audience bounces it around!

O'CUCKOO

This is the "most-excitingest" group I have heard in ages.

—Carol Wright, NAWA TRADE JOURNAL

"O'Cuckoo taps into both the most advanced and ancient aspects of drumming."

THE BIRD SISTERS

"...the Bird Sisters' angelic vocals lift this release far above even the most beautiful of folk albums. In fact, the Sisters' three-part harmonies are so impressive that their voices should be listed as instruments in the album credits." - CMJ

THE WISHING WELL

The long-awaited successor to her acclaimed debut album, Somebody, this new collection of Celtic songs and ballads highlights Connie's ravishing voice and richly-layered vocal harmonies.

THE WISHING WELL is a quietly stunning musical journey that carries the listener from the highlands of Scotland to the cloisters of medieval Europe, and from 17th Century Ireland to the wilderness of the American West.

The pure acoustic backing is a collation of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland and Ireland's finest traditional musicians.

"Calling all singers and aspiring vocalists - This is how to sing!"

-Michael Roberts, Celtic Connection, Canada

"Surely one of the most exciting vocal finds on the Celtic music scene." -John O'Regan, Radio Limerick, Ireland

NEW! FROM JUDITH MAY

Heal the Broken
Wing

Heal the Broken Wing

An album for survivors of childhood sexual abuse

"Judith May truly gives voice to the experience of surviving and transforming sexual abuse — with power, great beauty, and grace." —Margot Silk Forrest, The Healing Woman

"Judith's music touched me deeply. She truly has the gift!" —Marilyn Van Derbur Adler, Former Miss America, Incest Survivor

These 11 songs take the listener on an inspiring journey of self-affirmation and solace. Their musical forms range through folk, jazz and ballad, while the lyrics chronicle one woman's odyssey from fear to wonder. This album is exquisitely crafted by Judith May, who holds a Master of Music degree from The Juilliard School, and a Masters in Psychology from Antioch University.

Dance Upon the Shore

"Dance there upon the shore: What need have you to care? For wind or water's roar?" This 1994 release is a Celtic voyage to Ireland, Scotland and Brittany, with traditional tunes in new innovative arrangements — performed on hammered dulcimer, with exquisitely beautiful soprano sax and flannet, plus flute, cittern, guitar, fretless electric bass and hand drums. A great combination of instruments, fusing jazzy rhythms with the ancient music of the Celts, and Maggie's best work so far, highly recommended! (MM109) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Maire Brennan

Maire

Look out Enya, here comes your sister Maire, lead singer of the Clannad ensemble, with an exquisite solo album of her own... which we've been hoping for ever since we first heard Clannad. Mostly original songs in English and Gaelic, rooted in tradition but embracing progressive styles and speaking of change, employ Celtic and contemporary instrumentation as well as wonderful, multi-layered, familial harmonies by Dee Brennan, Olive Brennan, and Brian Brennan. Includes Land of Youth, Voices of the Land, Against the Wind. Highly recommended! (ATL82421) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 10.98

Mary Black

Coming to you directly from Dublin, Ireland, Mary's sound is a perfect blend of pop, jazz and traditional Celtic. And her voice! Clear as a bell and rich as cream. Known to many for her work as vocalist for the famous De Dannan band, her style is sometimes contemporary, and at other times, as on her beautiful rendition of Anaéche Gordon, the most traditional essence. For all you folks who don't think you like pop music. (GIF10004) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Without the Fanfare

This album by this inimitably wonderful vocalist has leavings and separations as a theme. Ellis Island, As I Leave Behind, Neidín, plus the plaintive Crow On the Cradle. (GIF10005) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Collected

This 1995 album contains both previously released and unreleased material, many traditional songs with Irish instrumentation (Uilleann pipes, bouzouki, fiddle, sitar, etc.), including a beautiful Gaelic ballad and She Moves Through the Fair. (GIF10006) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

The Holy Ground

This album entered the Irish charts at Number One! From the playful Summer Sent You to the starkly poignant Parson Words, Mary's voice takes you on a musical journey as varied as the human heart. Among the 12 tracks are songs by Sandy Denny, Noel Brazill, John Gorka, and Jesse Winchester; titles include Golden Thread, Lay Down Your Burden, Treasure Island, One Way Donkey Ride. Released in the U.S. in 1993. (GIF10010) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

No Frontiers

Characterized by lots of tremendous harmonies, this 1989 release leans more toward a pop sound, while still retaining an acoustic foundation: guitars, double bass, accordion, piano, sax... and Mary's interpretive abilities still shine through. Includes several beautiful love songs, and, no less, a cover of the Dionne Warwick hit Say a Little Prayer. (GIF77308) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Babes in the Wood

This 1991 recording is a collection of contemporary ballads and softly rocking pop songs in which Mary has succeeded in convincing this reviewer that her lovely voice is suited to styles other than traditional Celtic. Accompanied here by a rich variety of acoustic instruments (dobro, mandolin, accordion, guitars, piano, fiddle, double bass), she covers none other than Joni Mitchell's The Urge for Going, Richard Thompson's The Dying of the Day, as well as other gems by contemporary folk songwriters. Impeccable arrangements and production. (GIF77528) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

By the Time It Gets Dark

This fan's favorite of Mary's back catalog is finally being re-released in 1994! Hear this inimitably wonderful vocalist sing Katie, a song of lost love; Sandy Denny's title song; Ewan McColl's song of coalminers; Schooldays Over. The accompaniment is exquisite, her phrasing impeccable, harmonies made in heaven, arrangements tasteful, and her vocals have that quality which can pierce one's heart. Highly recommended! ## Maura O'Connell

Just in Time

This Irish artist is a chart-topping star in her own country, for obvious reasons known to anyone who's listened to her incredibly smooth, rich vocals, and she's now gaining an international reputation in the acoustic music community. Her U.S. debut release, produced by Bela Fleck, features Nanci Griffith and Jonathan Edwards on background vocals. Includes an a cappella, multi-tracked version of her self-harmonies on The Water Is Wide, plus others perfectly selected to complement her Irish inflections, such as The Isle of Malachy, Leaving Naidín. Recommended! (PH1124) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell

Helpless Heart

Gorgeously, lilting, rich, fresh — these adjectives come immediately to this reviewer's mind upon first listening to Maura's voice. Produced by the inestimable Bela Fleck, this recording combines the above qualities with New Acoustic influences & musicians: Bela, Dave Griesman, Gray Larson on acoustic guitar, dobro, banjo, mandolin, piano, pedal steel guitar, fiddles and bass — simply the greatest! Material covered is primarily contemporary folk, like Cheryl Wheeler's Summerly, Nanci Griffith's Trouble in the Fields; Paul Brady's Helpless Heart; and Karla Bonoff's Only A Fool and I and It Always Love. Highly Recommended! (WB25016) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Real Life Story

Moving into a more slick production and electric sound can't hide the fact that Maura's lovely voice is deepening into a seasoned richness that is as rare as it is enjoyable — joined on one cut (A Family Tie, about alcoholism) by her three sisters, other highlights include: Shawn Colvin's I Don't Know Why, Janis Ian's Unwinding, and Lennon/McCartney's For No One, with only dobro and acoustic guitar accompaniment — gorgeously! (WB26342) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blue Is the Colour of Hope

This 1992 release is another foray into contemporary folk (with jazzy inflections), this time more acoustic, and with a bevy of country and folk luminaries on background vocals (Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, Rosanne Cash) and instruments... Highlights include the jazz ballad Love to Learn, MC Carpenter's It Don't Bring You, plus The Blue Train. The overall feeling is a bit melancholy and languid (First You Cry, for example), but her voice is perfectly suited to the mood! (WB45063) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Mouth Music

Mo-di

By the time this second release came to be, Mouth Music had made some major personnel changes. The two dynamic female vocalists, Michaela Rowan and Jackie Joyce (who have replaced Talitha MacKenzie), sing in an array of languages: Scots Gaelic, French, English, and Zosha. A couple of Scottish instrumentalists have joined the ranks, and a mastermind Martin Swan remains. This is an album of contrasts, a densely layered musical map of the world, where African grooves meet rhythm and blues... where easy going hip-hop rhythms and relaxed toasting are surrounded by a swirling wash of mysterious voices and synthesizers... where Celtic funk crosses the Brazilian border, and then melts into Arabic rhythm and violins. Very high-tech and rhythmic, yet all from a spiritual base; sources range from traditional chants, to medieval pagan French poets, to contemporary experience. To call this World Music is an understatement! (RYK242) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mouth Music

Truly a remarkable, innovative, mesmerizing synthesis of the traditional Gaelic singing style called "puirt a beir" or "mouth music," with African rhythms and modern keyboard technology! Talitha MacKenzie is the vocalist on this intense material which she discovered when she traveled to Edinburgh to study Scottish and ancient Gaelic culture in depth. Martin Swan the instrumentalist and arranger (except on one which Talitha arranged). They say it's a matter of finding a strong rhythm which complements the traditional song structures, and then creating some kind of tension or powerful or surprising harmonic context in which they happen... and they've certainly accomplished just that. Highly recommended! (RYK196) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Nightnoise

Shadow of Time

Among the members of this quartet are Trippa hi Dhonnmail and her brother Michael, together with Brian Dunning and Johnny Cunningham, they produce little and magical music in which traditional Celtic flavors merge seamlessly with elements of jazz, classical, and pop, in the original contemporary compositions by all members. Those penned by Trippa (Three Little Pieces, title track, and more) are particularly graceful and lovely on this 1993 album, their lifts. (WH1130) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 16.95

Pendragon

Passage to New England

This independent release was selected by a dozen or so radio stations for their best Celtic album of 1993, and we agree, it's lovely! Most outstanding is the quartet's alto lead vocalist and sometimes-songster, Mary Lee Parlington. She is the author of some of the most compelling songs about her favorite theme, the early Irish settlers and their role in the mill and textile traditions of New England (New England's Daughter; The Last of the Name; Over Island)... and her voice has an unusual power and strength which, coupled with her lower registers, adds a different dimension to often-ethereal Celtic music. Accompanied on cittern, concertina, piano, Uilleann pipes, whistles and bodhran, the songs are full of Yankee lore. Produced by fiddler Johnny Cunningham; recommended! (BCN10125) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Pentangle

Think of Tomorrow

This 1991 release reconfirms the legendary group's pre-eminence in the British folk-rock scene. The unique combination of Jacqui McShee's haunting vocals, Nigel Portman-Smith's virtuosic bass and keyboards, and Bert Jansch's amazing guitar, creates a vibrant blend of folk, jazz and blues. After 20 years, the ensemble continues to flourish at the top of a very notable heap. (GL3057) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith

A Dulcimer Harvest

Ever since 1979 when Ruth and Cynthia began their musical collaboration, folks have been requesting an all-instrumental album. Twelve years later, their wishes are answered with this elegant and magical collection of favorites from the duo's first 3 albums, plus new compositions and traditional pieces. Their classical fingerpicking style is complemented by added acoustic instruments, such as Sylvia Woods' harp, Miamon Miller's violin (both from Joemy Wilson's consort), cello and more. Includes Faerie's Love Song, King of the Fairies, Grace's Dance, I Live Not Where I Love. An excellent holiday gift for any season... recommended! (AEO004) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Sandy Denny

Best of Sandy Denny (Best of Box)

Selections from the 3-CD boxed set Who Knows Where the Time Goes... sort of the best of the best, from one of the most formidable folk talents who ever lived. Includes, of course, Who Knows Where the Time Goes, plus Listen, Listen; The Lady, Late November; The Pond and the Stream. (HAN1326) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Scartaglen

Last Night's Fun

Featuring the crystalline vocals of Connie Dwyer (not to mention her skilled harmonium and keyboard contributions), this quartet explores the beauty and mystery of Celtic music. The album delves into the Irish roots of American music, featuring instrumental reels and jigs, a Civil War-era lament, and a song about Irish emigration. While the gorgeously-played instrumentals strive to outshine the vocals, the listener will be captivated by Connie's singing; her voice is as strong and clear as a finely-tuned bell, and lucky for us, graces several of the songs, including title cut, The May Morning Dew, and Rosemary Lane. This 1992 release is destined to become one of your favorites, we're sure! (CIT3342) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.88

Sharon Shannon

This young accordion player from County Clare, Ireland, possesses such incredible talent and virtuosity that you'll understand why it's the most successful folk debut ever in Ireland. Her execution of waltzes, airs, hornpipes, jigs, banjo tunes, reels, even corridos — Portuguese dance tunes — is breathtaking... and she plays the fiddle too! Titles include Queen of the West, Tickle Her Leg, The Mercurita Suite, Marinar Luimnigh... check out this wonderful instrumentalist who's also one of the contributors to the Irish compilation A Woman's Heart. (PH1153) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 15.95

Shelley Phillips and Friends

The Fairie Round

This 1990 album showcases an extraordinary versatility of the artist on oboe, flute, piccolo, recorder, harp, English horn, mandolin, tin whistle and dulcimer. It's an eclectic anthology of traditional Irish, English and Welsh tunes and dances, Renaissance, Baroque and Classical selections — and even a bit of wild Bulgarian folk song. Shelley is joined by a talented ensemble of musicians on winds and strings in this delightful synergy; selections include title, The Ashgrove, Bourree, Hornpipe, Chamber's Tune, Skye Boat Song. Highly recommended! (GOU105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sue Richards

Grey Eyed Morn

Celtic harp virtuosa and 3 times US National Scottish Harp Champion, Sue breaks new ground in her debut solo album of traditional tunes from Scotland, Ireland and Wales. Bringing a new vitality to this traditional music without compromising the essence and spirit of its source, an engaging combination of harp solos and ensemble music is created, rich in texture and endless variety evoking the myths and legends of the ancient Celts. She is accompanied on fiddle, viola da gamba, guitar and hammered dulcimers... a stunning showcase from beginning to end! (MM201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Morning Aire

This Celtic harp champion brings a joyous and inventive approach to music from Ireland and Scotland, on this 1993 album of Scottish strathspeys, marches, lively jigs, reels, and lush 18th century Irish airs by the legendary Turlough O'Carolan. Joined by the US Scottish fiddle champion Bonnie Rideout, Sue creates intricate harmonies and textures. Also features pennywhistle, guitar, and viola da gamba on some tracks. Celtic music with chamber quality! (MM204) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tallitha MacKenzie

Solas

We were so disappointed when Tallitha, lead singer on Mouth Music's debut release, didn't appear on their follow-up... and now we're so thrilled that she's got an album of her very own! This 1994 release blends traditional Gaelic mouth music and other Celtic elements with modern music technology and even dance beats on some tracks. This is essential music for those who love to explore the richness and variety of world music... don't miss it! (SHN79084) CD: 15.98

Teresa Doyle

Forerunner

If you like Loreena McKennitt, we urge you to take a chance and give this artist a listen! We had the good fortune to receive copies of Teresa's work in our mailbox, and hope to share this blessing with you, even though you may not have heard of her work previously. Teresa is a most gifted singer whose roots are planted firmly in the Canadian Celtic tradition... but with performance credits encompassing jazz, classical, and English lute music, she has stretched musical boundaries to create "Celtic music on the fringe." Drawing on the oral tradition of storytelling once prevalent in her native Prince Edward Island, she has woven intricate melody lines through tales of ghosts and other apparitions. This eclectic blend of traditional Celtic material (Agnus Dei, The Shearman, Cape Breton Lullaby, She's Like the Swallow) and original compositions (Maggie Daly, Blue's Hollow, The Slough "Swoosh") features lovely accompaniment on instruments such as uilleann pipes, tin whistle, rebec, recorder, guitar, cello, violin and percussion. Very recommended! (BL002) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Stowaway

Continuing to draw inspiration from the history of Prince Edward Island, Teresa Doyle imbues her music with a little more urgency this time around. Woven amongst imaginative arrangements of traditional Celtic songs are folk/rock originals that pay tribute to the Scottish settlers of the island, Belle Marie and Stowaway chronicle the lives of two extraordinary women who came to the island centuries ago. Marie Granville was tried and burned at the stake for witchcraft; Christie Campbell, a stowaway on an immigrant ship who was cast aside by her fellow settlers, went to live with the Micmac Natives. Once again, Teresa seemingly effortlessly expands our understanding of "Celtic" music with her musical skill and savvy. (BL003) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Woman's Heart

Six Irish women — Mary Black, her sister Frances Black, Maura O'Connell, Dolores Keane, Sharon Shannon and Eleanor McEvoy — each contribute two tracks, some from previous albums. The title track, Only A Woman's Heart, has elicited the most enthusiasm from listeners. It's a newly recorded duet between Mary Black and Eleanor McEvoy. Irish import. (DAR158) CS: 11.98 ... ### Celtic Odyssey

This 1993 compilation is a truly beautiful, exuberant, entrancing assortment of music by some of today's best Celtic artists, including Capercaille, the 2-woman harping-singing duo Sileas, Scartaglen, Allan, Relativity (with Triona O'Donnell), Laurie Riley, Eileen Ivers, and more. And we must say, whoever did the song-picking did an exceptional job — both vocal and instrumental tracks — we couldn't have done better ourselves! The entirety of the album flows so smoothly, happily, mystically and magically, we recommend it both as a work unto itself, as well as a great way to acquaint yourself with musicians you may not have had the good fortune to have heard before. ## Angelique Ionatos/Nena Venetsanou

Sappho de Mytilene

Sappho's poems set to music! This French import is the brainchild of Angelique Ionatos, a Greek composer and guitarist who specializes in setting Classical Greek poetry to music. Joined in lovely harmonies by another well-known Greek vocalist, Nena Venetsanou, and with a simple tableau of instrumental accompaniment (guitar, oboe, recorders, oud, mandolin, table, vibraphone), the result is a perfect marriage of lyric and musical expressions... Sappho, perhaps the most famed yet enigmatic of the Lesbian poets has historically received little acclaim for her genius, and this recording pays her just homage. Lyrics are sung in Classical and Modern Greek, but are translated only into French (liner notes are in English, French and Greek). Certainly one of the most unique and beautiful recordings in our catalog! Put this on at your next gathering of friends — may it lend you grace. (AUV5166) CD: 18.98

Carmen Linares

Cantaora

This outstanding Spanish artist is known as perhaps the greatest living female Flamenco singer, with both respect for the traditional form and a creative penchant for innovation. Her voice goes from a throaty wail to a whispery plea, rich with emotion and with a total immersion in the lyrics. This passionate delivery simply amplifies Flamenco's already high intensity, so that the listener cannot remain uninvolved... experience it for yourself! Accompanied, of course, by acoustic guitars, hand claps and foot stomps. One of the Women of the World series... recommended! (RVB1004) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheremshyna

The Best of Cheremshyna

This Ukrainian ensemble from Montreal, originally a 3-woman trio, is now a 3-woman 2-man quintet, and their first CD release contains their best songs from their three previous albums. (YFP1071) CD: 16.98

Cheremshyna

Each year there are a few finds which truly excite us, and this is one for 1989-90! Cheremshyna is a Ukrainian women's trio from Montreal, and this is an extraordinary recording of their distinct harmonious vocal blend of both traditional and contemporary Ukrainian folk song — expressing beauty and love, joy and sorrow. The voices, arrangements, melodies, harmonies, and sheer energy are captivating, engaging, outstanding... if you're looking to know the world by the best music it has to offer, try this. Very highly recommended! (YFP1023) CS: 10.98

Dzintars: The Latvian Women's Choir

Songs of Amber

Dzintar is the Latvian word for amber, a warmly glowing fossilized stone that is considered a national symbol among Latvians. The Dzintars Choir is the leading female choir in Latvia, with 76 vocalists plus 2 conductors, 2 instrumentalists, 2 choir masters, and a soloist! Produced by Mickey Hart and Jerry Garcia when the choir toured the US in 1989, the album features a cross-section of their extensive repertoire, including traditional and modern Latvian music as well as songs of other countries. Contains three Yiddish folk songs, including Di Hanuka (imagine 76 voices singing this popular holiday song...). A work of spectacular beauty; recommended! (RYK130) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Edith Piaf

Very Best of/ Voice of the Sparrow

In this world of ever-changing availability on Piaf titles, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (18 songs) and available on CD. Lots of hits, and we hope it stays in print longer than 15 minutes. Includes La Vie, L'Amour, La Vie en Rose, Le Vieux Paris, Hymne à L'Amour. (CAP9632) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Legendary Edith Piaf

Recorded live in Paris from 1955 - 1962, and at Carnegie Hall in 1957, this 20-song retrospective is delightful, much like the artist herself, we suspect. She introduces the American set in English, telling little stories about each song before launching that distinctive voice out at us. Includes her many classics, like Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien; La Goulante du Pauvre Jean; Mon Dieu; and concludes with If You Love Me, Really Love Me (Hymne à L'Amour). Great liner notes (was she really born on a sidewalk and reared in a brothel?); over 70 minutes of music. (EMI276127) CD: 15.98

Kitka

Called "Le Mystere de Voix San Francisco" by one of the soloists of the Bulgarian State Female Vocal Choir, Kitka performed at the Michigan festival in 1990, and this debut tape is available for those of you who didn't make the gala event! They're indisputably one of the most outstanding U.S. women's vocal ensembles specializing in the hauntingly beautiful and emotive vocal music of Eastern Europe. Included here are diaphanous village-style duets, modern Balkan choral works, and original arrangements of traditional melodies by artistic director Ben Brown. Cello, recorder, cimbalom and flute accompany the 14 vocalists, who can sound like twice that many. The selections are tremendous; highly recommended! (KIT1) CS: 9.98

Voices on the Eastern Wind

Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal musics of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment — and recognize their expertise. If this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge! — they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, ecstatic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength." This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice... invigorating and beautiful. (DPH052) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kukuruz

Crossing Borders

"Folk & Bluegrass Music From Russia"? You bet! This blend of traditional Russian folksongs (plus a few contemporary songs and originals), mostly sung in Russian and arranged in a bluegrass/new acoustic format, is a terrific meeting of two cultures that works beautifully. At the center of the 6-person ensemble is their phenomenal vocalist Irina Surina — strong, emotive, amazing range, timbre that will pierce your heart — prepare to be blown away by her voice! And she duets with Maure O'Connell on one song: double ecstasy! The fabulous instrumentation, all played by the male members, includes banjo, mandolin, dobro, carinet, guitars, acoustic bass, drums, and fiddle, which doubles as gypsy-style violin. What a pleasurable way to broaden some cultural horizons — very recommended! (SUG3814) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares

An entrancing and thoroughly gorgeous recording which has captivated the imaginations of thousands of American listeners. The Bulgarian Female Vocal Choir performs traditional folk tunes with breathtaking harmonies which can be either melodic or discordant, natural or surprising, but are always precise, luxuriously rich, and resonant. Over the years we have featured many recordings of US women performing Balkan choral singing; here's who they've learned from. (NON79185) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Melody, Rhythm & Harmony (2-Set)

This 30-track (23 previously unrecorded) double album captures all the energy and pageantry of their acclaimed live performances, with over 100 minutes of music! Recorded at the Nidaros Cathedral in Norway, the 24 female vocalists are backed by 4 instrumentalists on bagpipes, traditional woodwinds, mandolin and lute. Their trademark, hypnotic, throaty harmonies synthesize past and future, as they bridge cultures, generations, and musical genres... This 1993 collection beautifully documents the current musical creations of this extraordinary choir. (MSA78058) CS: 15.98 ... CD: 27.98

Ritual

This unusual 1994 release features chants and songs from religious and celebratory occasions... from Christmas carols to fertility songs sung in spring, to a specially-commissioned composition of 3 Jewish songs based on traditional Sephardic melodies and lyrics. Once again, their rhythmic vitality, joyful attitude, and musical excellence together form a singular presence that can't be duplicated, only marveled at. (NON79249) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Mari Boine Persen

Gula Gula

Mari Boine is Sa'mi (more commonly known as a "Laplander", a term considered derogatory by the Sa'mi), a people native to what is now known as Northern Finland, Norway, Sweden and Russia. As with many aboriginal cultures, maintaining their language and cultural sovereignty in the face of domination by another culture is very difficult, and this recording communicates thousands of words for each one uttered... Gula Gula means "Hear the Voices of the Foremothers", and many of the songs here are reflective of an oppressed women's rage and determination to succeed. Titles include "Vilges Suola (White Thief)", "Balu Badjel Go Vuonitan (When I Win Against Fear)", "Eadnan Ba'kti (To Woman)", "Oppskrift for Hemmelok (Recipe for a Master Race)". Sung in Sa'mi, with English translations; the label is Peter Gabriels, designed to promote world music. Highly recommended! (CAR2312) CD: 16.98

Sophia Bilides

Greek Legacy

This Greek-Italian second-generation American presents traditional songs from the mainland, island, and Asia Minor populations of Greece for both listening and dancing. Comfortable with a wide variety of regional vocal styles, from island syrtos to urban zeibekiko, her voice is deep and rich and expressive. She accompanies herself on the traditional santouri (hammered dulcimer), while being supported on lauto (lute), violi (violin), clarino (clarinet), and dumblekei (drum). These aren't updated, westernized versions of traditional songs with dance beats or synthesized instrumentation; it's the pure stuff, well researched, with an "old world" sound of ageless beauty. (ET101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Vartina

Seleniko

As the great-granddaughter of Finnish immigrants, I was pleased and curious to review this recording, never suspecting the enormous beauty it contains! Four incandescent women singers with indescribable harmonies and vocal strength are accompanied by an array of acoustic instruments — accordion, sax, bouzouki, kantele, banjo, bass and more — giving contemporary interpretation to traditional songs, many of them runic spells and incantations. As one reviewer said, the vocal effect will make your hair stand on end... and as another said, this is some of the richest, densest acoustic music you've ever heard. By the end of the second song, I was in tears, simply in awe of the intense effect their voices evoke, similar in flavor to their Balkan cousins. Songs generally reflect the forbearance of Finnish women; one is a plaintive, sweet song sung by the sister of the groom, welcoming her new sister-in-law into the family home. Most highly recommended! (GL4006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Oi Dai

This is for everyone who already has Seleniko, and wants more! It's actually an earlier album, the one that launched their household-name status in Finland in 1991, but not released in the US until 1994. Powerful and heartbreaking 5-part women's vocal harmonies, accompanied by traditional and exotic folk instruments (accordion, double bass, mandola, flute, fiddle and percussion) playing in uncommon time signatures, and specializing in the music of Karelia, in eastern Finland. Oy vey! (GL4014) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Yerevan Women's Choir of Armenia

One of the most innovative choral groups of Armenia, this is a 30-member acappella choir (ages 15-35) whose colorful cantata of voices, youthful dynamism, and inclusive repertoire have brought it broad critical acclaim. They perform compositions which range from Armenian monastic sacred music of the 5th century, to Armenian folk music, to works of the Western choral tradition, to contemporary music from Scandinavia and Russia. The notes are detailed, the 18-selection album gives a full 71 minutes of listening pleasure... and we recommend it highly! (MEG002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Altazor

Concurrencia

This spring 1993 release, the second by this 4-woman ensemble, is every bit as exquisite as their first. Half the songs are based on works by Nicolas Guillen, recently deceased poet laureate of Cuba, whose voice affirmed the African heritage of Cuba as well as the universal nature of people everywhere. One track features lyrics by Gabriela Mistral, Chilean poet and educator; also includes Venezuelan folk songs, and one original. Beautiful arrangements, with traditional instrumentation, this is Nueva Cancion at its finest. (RR9302) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Azucar Y Crema (Sugar and Cream)

To Oldia, With Love

Love is the key word here; this all-women Latin/salsa band truly puts together their love for music, radiating passion and energy on their debut 1993 album. Lead by pianist/bassist Remy Arnone Rodriguez, they project fresh musical vision incorporating various Latin, Afro-Cuban jazz melodies and rhythms as composed by Remy. Lead vocalist Maria Cora, the noted Puerto Rican poet and cultural activist, turns the microphone with searing inspirations. Other musicians are Mary Gemini on keyboards, Robin Carter on flute, saxes and percussion, Tami Ellis on trumpet, vocals and percussion, with Cathi Ramos and Suki anchoring the rhythm section. Some of you '93 Michigan festle-goers will remember when they closed the daystage on Friday in a cloud of dust from everyone dancing wildly... Look for more to come from this band! (AYC1) CS: 8.98

Celia Cruz & Ray Barretto

Ritmo en el Corazon

Produced by and backed up by Ray Barretto and his orchestra, Celia continues to scorch the airwaves with her lightning-hot vocals. The music here reflects more of an island influence, with the piano and congas in the forefront, and a slightly mellower horn section than is usual for many salsa recordings... Songs include "El Chime (The Gossip)", "Mala Suerte (Bad Luck)", and "Bambaleke Tunga. Recommended! (HOT124) CS: 10.98

Conjunto Cespedes

Una Solo Casa

"Son" is the soul music of Cuba — a fiery, poly-rhythmic marriage of African drumming, Spanish flamenco and Caribbean heat. This group is led by the powerful sensual vocals of Cuban-born Gladys (Bob) Cespedes — a priestess in the Afro-Cuban Lucumi tradition with over 25 years as a "daughter of Obatala" — and her nephew, Guillermo Cespedes; backup is provided by some of the Bay Area's hottest Latin instrumental talents. With this album, they invite a new generation of music lovers to dance to the commanding pulse of the bato, the tick of the claves and the shake of the chekere... music so compelling and sexually electric, it was once outlawed in Cuba. Virgen de la Candad contains prayers to both a Yoruba goddess and a Catholic saint, and Respeto a la Tierra is an anti-war statement emphasizing the belief that the environment must not be disrespected. Fantastic percussion and an irrefragable spirit. (GL4007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Edi Machado

Edi

With an unmistakably Afro-Brazilian beat and a vibrant array of percussion instruments, Edi makes her mark by successfully combining elements from the following traditions: Brazilian samba, African rhythms, Latin and American funk, reggae, and jazz soul! Edi is also a renowned dancer, and she builds the sound and rhythm very specifically around the dance. (She grew up in the Brazilian city of Bahia; there, she learned the dancing styles of the candomble rites, which fused African tribal with Roman Catholic traditions.) Her material is original, her voice spicy, her delivery high-energy, and the overall performance a creative blend of cultures. (BNS102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Altazor

Blending music from the New Song movements of South America, from Afro-Puerto Rican ritual, from the traditional rhythms of Cuba, and from other sources, Altazor's sounds and messages are vibrant, passionate, and wonderful! The ensemble of 4 women — Liche Fuentes from Chile (some of you will remember her from Grupo Raiz), Vanessa Wang from the US, Dulce Arguelles from Cuba, and Jacqueline Rago from Venezuela — employs gorgeous harmonies and a rich variety of traditional instrumentation, with lyrics reflective of the struggles of people the world over. ### Mi Corazon en la Ciudad

Mercedes Sosa fans, take note! Here's another artist you'll probably appreciate. Emma Junaro's history, the Bolivian group Altiplano's lead singer, and the one who introduced them to Nueva Cancion, she chose to stay on after the 1980 coup forced many artists to flee, developing a more subtle style of protest song — obvious to the people but incomprehensible to the government. Her first solo album went gold, one of the only Bolivian releases to ever do so. Here she performs all songs by another great Bolivian woman — composer/poet/singer/guitarist/painter, Matilde Casazola — in an inspired effort to develop a new direction for Andean music. It's a quietly beautiful album, led by acoustic guitar, with Andean pan pipes, piano and percussion, all wrapped around her soft, strong voice. First in a series entitled Women of the World. Highly recommended! (RVB1003) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Fior de Cana

Dancing on Wall/Bailando en Muralla

There's much more to say about this 1991 album than space allows, but here goes: This 2-woman, 5-man group combines a very successful blend of Latin American musics, from Puerto Rican bombas and Dominican merengues to Uruguayan candombes and vals from Venezuela (plus a variety of salsas). Lead vocalist Rosemarie Stralzer-Amador's delivery is sweet and succinct, while the lyrics (primarily Spanish, with printed English translations) succeed in conveying the pain and exultation of "political" issues without being rhetorical or ranting. The rich bary of instruments are expertly played, and while reflecting the heritage of the cultures they are from, are also mixed up with a light-hearted irreverence, e.g. using Andean pipes on an Afro-Puerto Rican bomba. Highly recommended! (FF577) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.98

Gloria Estefan

Mi Tierra (My Homeland)

In our opinion, her best release ever! With high-energy accompaniment by all-star Latin musicians including Sheila E. and Tito Puente, she performs a wide variety of songs in Spanish. The styles reflect and illustrate pride in her Cuban heritage as well as the musical tradition itself, with jubilant Afro-Cuban percussion and rhythms. The liner notes include translations as well as some information which will be helpful to a non-Latin audience — a bit of a cultural bridge. As her closing song says, "And with great admiration I offer this celebration of my roots/ I bring you this guaguancó (another typical Afro-Cuban rhythm)/ So you'll never forget this unusual rhythm/ And to awaken your pride in your origins..." ## Guardabarranco

Si Buscabas/ If You Were Looking

Sister and brother Katia and Salvador Cardenal are part of the Nicaraguan New Song movement called Volcanto—from volcán (volcano) and canto (song)—symbolic of the eruption of music, poetry, and cultural expression in Nicaragua since the triumph of the Sandinista revolution in 1979. Produced by Jackson Browne, this is one of the first albums of Nicaraguan music available in the U.S. Its beauty is virtually indescribable—but could easily bring tears to one's eyes; the quiet vibrance and richness of the music and poetry transcends any language barriers...and "destroys State Department rhetoric right there before your eyes" says Holly Near. Recommended! (RR8501) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Guardabarranco

Casa Abierta/ Open House

This popular sister-brother duo remains one of our favorites! Growing up in the war years has given them an edgy sense of perception and a profound capacity for love; witness how language barriers dissolve as Katia and Salvador offer their moving song-stories through vividly poetic lyrics and their gorgeous harmonies. This 1994 album showcases more of Katia's pure voice, as in the haunting ballad Mi Luna/ Moon of Mine and the catchy title song; other highlights include Soy Latina/ I'm Latin ("I like being a Latin woman/ having a wild heart... who loves profoundly/ dancing in the street...") and Cancion Pequena/ Little Song, for her daughter Lela. Also includes their first English song, the tender I Will Survive. Spanish lyrics with English translations. (RR9403) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Guardabarranco

Días de Amor/ Days of Love

I didn't think I would find Guardabarranco's second release as moving, as breath-taking, as shockingly beautiful as I found their debut album; it seemed physically impossible! But, I am here to admit that this is true, as de verdad... Katia's voice still reaches that pure sweetness which bursts open the heart, with words of love, strength y esperanza/ hope. When she duets with her brother Salvador, the power of their genetic harmonies has the strength to move mountains! Includes Corazon de Niño/ A Child's Heart, Colibri/ Hummingbird, and the luminous title song, Gorgeous, lovely, just plain great — get it! Sung in Spanish, with printed lyrics and English translations. (RR9102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Irene Farrera

Walking in the Jungle

Fantastic! This Venezuelan musician (singer, songwriter, guitarist, arranger) extraordinaire brings us, on ingles y español, a beautifully diverse collection of original works, backed by a small yet sophisticated band (amazing bass, great percussion, keyboards and sax). Her voice has a deep, husky, jazzy quality reminiscent of Julia Fordham, especially on the hypnotic Despertar/ Awake. The title song (which she dedicates to all creatures, including people of every political, spiritual and sexual orientation) is also a highlight: sinuous bass lines snake around bird calls and a lazy saxophone melody, with Irene's lovely voice breathing heat into the steamy clearings — y que color tiene! Her notes speak out against racism and homophobia several times, letting us know that these are priority issues to her. Highly recommended! (IF2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Jane Bunnett

Spirits of Havana

This Canadian soprano sax player/ flutist pays homage, on her fantastic debut release, to a wealth of Cuban musics, on her fantastic debut release, to a wealth of Cuban musics by skillfully incorporating traditional Cuban compositions and rhythms with contemporary jazz idioms. She's accompanied by one of Cuba's most renowned percussion ensembles, Grupo Yoruba Andabo, as well as by pianist Gonzalo Rubalcaba... and about half the tunes feature Mercedesitas Valdes, Cuban singer and interpreter of Lucumi ritual music. Many different musical moods are represented here, and often the textures and instrumentation shift repeatedly during the course of a single song. Selections range from Hymn, an almost meditative interweaving of flute and percussion, to salsa-flavored tunes, to Song from Argentina, beautiful mellow jazz showcasing Jane's soprano sax (reminiscent of Gato Barbieri's searingly beautiful Latin America albums), to Ochum, a traditional call-and-response liturgical hymn of the Yoruba religion, to Yemaya, a swirling flute/piano offering to the goddess of the waters. This is an exciting, creative blend of world music; very highly recommended! (MEB5825) CD: 15.98

La India Mellyara

La Sonora Mellyara

Melida Yara Yanguma, nicknamed "La India" due to her strong native appearance, has become one of Colombia's only female band leaders... as well as a fabulous singer, known to many for her work with super-group Sonora Dinamita. Here, interpreting cumbia (Colombia's traditional national rhythms with great skill and passion, she presents an album perfect for dancing and moving, with lots of percussion and horns. One of the Women of the World series. (RVB1005) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lourdes Perez

Recuerdate Por Mi/ Remember For Me

We were fortunately introduced to this Puerto Rican-born singer/ songwriter, who performs "nuevas canciones" in the style of Mercedes Sosa and Violeta Parra, at the 1994 Michigan Women's Music Festival. Her voice is deep and rich, singing in Spanish with primarily guitar accompaniment. Highlights here include Sin Protocolo/ Without Protocol, a beautiful love song to a woman; Compañeras, a song written for a female companion, partner, mate; Que Te Puede Decir/ What Can I Say To You?, dedicated to her brothers and sisters living with AIDS; Luzita Capelillo, about a woman laborer organizer arrested in Havana in the early 1900s for dressing as a man; and her beautiful tribute to Atahualpa Yupanqui, one of this reviewer's favorite songwriters of all time. An exceptional blending of lesbian and Latina cultures; very recommended. And congrats to the artist: we hear she's opening for Mercedes Sosa in concert! (CWR1) CD: 15.98

Lydia Mendoza

Mal Hombre

Lydia was the first famous recording star of Mexican-American music, from the late 1920's through the post-World War II period — she became known throughout the Southwest and the Spanish-speaking hemisphere as "La Cancionera de los Pobres" (The singer of the poor people) — and the title cut of this album (1934) was her first big hit. The songs are priceless... a few tell tales of horrible, mean, incestuous men, but most are beautiful and passionate love songs for women. Includes Los Besos de Mi Nagra/ The Kisses of My Dark Woman, No Quiero Ser Casado/ I Don't Want To Be Married, Celia, La Costanera/ Woman From the Coast ("I'm in love with you, woman of my soul"), and more. She plays 12-string guitar, mandolin and violin, with some additional accompaniment provided by members of her family. (ARH7003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa

Gracias A La Vida

Title track is one of her most well-known and best-loved songs, by Violeta Parra, and of course we recommend any album of hers with this on it — even better when it's a US release at a lower-than-import price! (PLG832314) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

30 Años

Wow — what a fantastic compilation! Celebrating and representing 30 years of performance, this album contains some of her very best material ever, including her earlier, more acoustic recordings, which this reviewer is admittedly quite partial to. Contains her beloved classic Gracias a la Vida, plus other favorites such as Alfonsina y El Mar/ Si Se Cae El Canto, Luna Tucumana, her beautiful lullaby Duerme Niño, crowd pleaser María, María, a live song with Milton Nascimento and writer Chary García entitled Inconciente Colectivo, and many others, songwriters covered include Violeta Parra, María Elena Walsh, and Atahualpa Yupanqui. It's probably this long-time fan's favorite compilation... we highly highly highly recommend this one to both newcomers and devotees alike! (PLG518789) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sera Posible El Sur?

This 1984 recording includes the audience-rousing  Todavía Cantamos (We Still Sing), Mi Abuela Baila la Zamba (My Grandmother Danced the Samba); a few selections are backed by full orchestra, one with double tracking of her earth-moving voice. (PLG824332) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Vengo a Ofrecer Mi Corazon

Thankfully, another title by Argentina's finest singer (in fact, one of the world's finest singers) at a reasonable price... this is the first time this album has been released domestically! Includes Madre de Madres, Venas Abiertas, Los Baños de la Vida. (PLG826434) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Live in Europe

Mercedes Sosa is an Argentinian New Song vocalist/ interpreter/ people's musician, whose vocal qualities are not easily described, but words like penetrating, melancholy, searing, dark, intense, reverent, steadfast, beautiful, exquisite, soothing, intelligent come close. She sings in Spanish, but somehow communicates a message that is political even to those who don't speak that language. Her music was banned in Chile in the early 70's when the military junta took power, and was also banned in her home country for awhile. This title is one of the best we currently stock: excellent variety, clear sound, all-acoustic accompaniment, and includes her stage commentary which is great to hear whether or not you speak Spanish. We highly recommended this one, whether you're just starting your Mercedes Sosa collection or adding to it. (TRO68938) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 19.98

De Mi

This 1992 release, recorded live in Buenos Aires in 1990, features some great songs with beautiful acoustic instrumentation, as well as some with synthesized keyboards. On the opening track, La Estrella Azul, her voice descends into some of the lowest registers we've heard — incredible! Madurando Sueños is a rhythmic "chacarera" with energetic audience participation... and a highlight is Taki Onqui II, a reclamation of pride in the native Indian heritage of South America; this song alone is well worth the price of the album. Sound quality is excellent too. Import. (TRO68955) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 19.98

En Argentina

Recorded in 1982 and featuring all-acoustic accompaniment, this album contains her classic interpretation of Violeta Parra's Gracias a la Vida, which no collection should be without. And it's a very classic live recording, with much of the electricity of the performer/ audience relationship preserved vividly. Contains 19 tracks, including an Atahualpa Yupanqui composition, Los Hermanos (love everything of his she has ever performed) and the beloved Brazilian lullaby Duerme Niño. ## Mercedes Sosa

Sino

One of her few albums to be manufactured in the US, and therefore (thankfully) more reasonably priced, this 1993 studio release was recorded in Buenos Aires. It contains a range of material by Latin American artists, including Milton Nasomiento and Leon Gieco, in a wide range of styles, from those with simple acoustic accompaniment to the more ornate. (PLOS14226) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sabia

Portavoz

Fortunately we still have some recordings available from this accomplished Nueva Cancion ensemble which is unfortunately (for us) now disbanded. This 1986 release presents a repertoire of political and liberation songs about the people of Nicaragua, El Salvador, Soweto, and other parts of the globe. About a third is instrumental, a third in Spanish, and a third in English. recommended! (PF412) CS: 9.98

Tish Hinojosa

Homeland

A fusion of country/folk pop melodies and Latin instrumentation, the songs of this 1989 album reflect this Mexican-American singer/songwriter's musings in the liner notes, "...wondering how my love for my parents' humble Mexican heritage and language would mix with idealistic American images of a musical future." The first cut Joequin imagines the motivations for illegal border crossing, while West Side of Town recreates the story of her parents' lives; and Rancherita (Little Ranch Girl), is a sweet song of courtship. Sung partly in English and partly in Spanish, this album employs a variety of instruments, including harmonica, pedal steel, dobro, accordion, fiddle, bongos and more. (AMS263) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Culture Swing

This 1992 release, hailed as Tish's "breakthrough" album, contains a delightful mixture of songs from and for the head and heart. She sings her "Texas-style Nueva Cancion" with a sweet, pure voice in English and Spanish; lyrics included with translations and personal notes. Contains Something in the Rain, dedicated to Cesar Chavez and the United Farmworkers of America, and the uplifting Bandera del Sol (Flag of the Sun). (ROU2122) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Aquella Noche

Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist/singer/songwriter/guitarist brings an emotional integrity to her work that readily surpasses that of your average "folksinger": this live recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide one-for-one English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Pasa (Vuelvete (You Who Can, Return) — the Atlatzapa Yipangu classic anthemized so beautifully by Mercedes Sosa), her original waitz Manos, Huevos Y Sangre (Hands, Bones and Blood, for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Buy this recording — you won't be disappointed, we promise! (WAT1005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Destiny's Gate

Snapppy country rhythms, a pop influence, and a heavy dose of folk characterize this 1994 release. Tish blends her familiar soft style with the influence of her Latina heritage to create a mix nothing short of spectacular. From the original opening title track, to the more widely known Looking For My Love in the Pouring Rain, her voice transcends categories: 9 songs in English, 2 in Spanish, and a great mini-bio in the liner notes — recommended! (WB45588) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tao to Tennessee

As Tish's popularity continues to rise, we are privileged to receive her earlier work in reissues such as this, recorded in Tao and initially released in 1987. It features local musicians, and she showcases many of their songs, along with 5 originals plus a lovely interpretation of Irving Berlin's Always. Most songs in English, with a decidedly country-western flavor. Recommended! (WAT1006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tejano Roots: The Women

A wonderful compilation of Mexican music in Texas from 1945 to 1964, featuring primarily female duets such as Carmen y Laura, Hermanas Mendoceros, Hermanas Guerrero, and many other sisters and singing partners; also includes a few selections by Lydia Mendoza, one of the most successful and well-known Mexican-American artists. 22 songs, 60 plus minutes, and a 30-page booklet with notes, photos, Spanish lyrics and English translations are included. Some of the songs: Pecador Moya (Forgive Me, Woman), The Married Woman ("Those women who haven't married, I say it isn't worth the bother"), Adios Angelita Rivas (Goodbye Angelita Rivas). ### Brazilian! The Music of Rhythm

Another fabulous release from Rykodisc, a company dedicated to recording music of the world respectfully results in this compilation of unprecedented educational and entertainment value! The history and variations of "Samba," the national song style and dance originating in the Bahian region of Brazil, are explained and represented in great detail. Many women are featured here (a rarity in compilations), including Beth Carvalho, Gal Costa, Maria Bethania, Alcione, and Joanna — they comprise over half of the 22 songs selected! The music is joyous and polyrhythmic, ranging from slow and sultry to fast and festive, and above all, entirely captivating. Do yourself a favor and add this important recording to your collection... you won't regret it! (RYK153) CD: 15.98

Wild Mango

Made in Mango

Descended from The Blazing Radheads, Altazor, and the Cairo Cats, these 7 women unite their Latin American, Caribbean, Middle Eastern and American traditions into a world class, sophisticated, absolutely hot 1994 album of songs! Erika Luckett's smoky vocals backed by superb horn and percussion sections will insure plenty of dancing. Features Oye/Listen, a steamy declaration of love; Cyos Negros/Dark Eyes (a hurt-me-so-bad number perfect for repetitive play after a break-up!); and the dynamic Salem Ale! Casanova medley of Latin-Arabic courtship idioms. Spanish (with some French and Egyptian) lyrics with English translations. Highly recommended! (RR9402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac

The Spell of Yma Sumac-Double Play

One fact we know is that this artist was one of k.d. lang's influences as she was preparing to record Ingenue. Other than that, we're relying on info conveyed by readers who wrote us in search of this artist's music, because there are no liner notes with this 1987 release. This Peruvian singer recorded as early as the 50's, and her material has included traditional Inca music. She also appeared in a film about the excavation of Machu Picchu, Secret of the Incas. She displays absolutely phenomenal vocal range on this album, which contains songs in both Spanish (and distinct Spanish/flamenco influence) and native Inca language: Xtabay (Line of the Unknown), Accla Jaqui (Chant of the Chosen Maidens), Sumac Sonetena (Beautiful Jungle Girl), Indian Carnival, Cumbe-Mata (Call of the Andes), and more. Very dramatic, operatic, unique, and (you guessed it) recommended! (PR1172) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

African

Logozo

Last year, we asked for info on this extraordinary artist, and you all sent us reams, for which we thank you!! Born and raised in Benin on Africa's west coast, her extraordinarily fantastic music is a fusion of African polyrhythmic styles reflecting African roots (which includes Brazilian rhythms resulting from the Portuguese colonization of Benin), and Western influences... in which you can also hear strains of Arabic and Caribbean sounds. She speaks 5 languages fluently, but recorded this 1991 album in her native tongues of Swahili and Fon. Her political stance is subtly woven into the lyrics which address issues ranging from censorship to torture. She moved to Paris to study law, but now wages her fight for human rights through her music, which reflects a broadening multi-culturalism. Includes the dance hit Balongo... a beautiful version of one of the most famous traditional African songs, Malaka... Great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance, very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Aye

This very phenomenal artist has released a 1994 album: a seamless blend of driving funk, African cross-rhythms and dance beats topped with her dynamic vocals. Songs include Yemanda, to the Goddess of water ("We need to invoke her! to quench the destructive fire of our rage"), Tombo ("Come down, Priestess of voodoo! Come down! Teach us your wisdom"), and Agolo ("At this moment don't despair, let's think of the love that mother earth offers us... Love, like Mother Earth"... all songs include English and French translations. (MNG9934) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Aster Awake

Wow! Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing this talented DC resident: she sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wail, croons to a native harp and light percussion, keens over a classically-sung piano — this is "World Beat" at its best! Highly recommended! (COL4848) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Balafo

Marimba Ensemble

The purpose of this American 3-woman 4-man marimba ensemble is to promote understanding of other cultures with the ultimate goal of global unity, peace, and sense of community. With a full chorus of marimbas (bass, baritone, tenor and soprano), plus congas, timbales, hushos, bells and other percussion, they produce a high energy recording of African instrumental music which is recommended for dance, listening, and educational uses — it's great music! Histories of the compositions are explained in the liner notes. (SHN67002) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Letta Mbulu

Not Yet Uhuru

We've been searching for something by this fabulous South African vocalist, and are thrilled to discover this album. Following 26 years of voluntary exile from her homeland, she found her return to be a bittersweet experience. Her voice is so sweet, so pure, so full of emotion in its beautiful vibrato, and her material, while quite varied in style, primarily pertains to the struggle for freedom and unity... and as the title indicates, true freedom for the people of South Africa is still somewhere up ahead. If you like Minnie Nkomo, you need to hear Letta Mbulu... very highly recommended! (FLT505) CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra

Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice... absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the ornamentation of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Bhajan. She writes, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument — it is the one means of expression used by every culture... The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice — it links all cultures throughout time." (CAR2322) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra Roots and Wings

This 1989 release is Sheila's first album since her eccentric decision to "retire" in 1985 at the age of 20. Part of that hiatus was spent researching fresh musical and vocal approaches, which she explores here: Konnokol Ai Dente incorporates a musical language of percussive vocal syllables — the Indian version of scat; various multi-tracked vocals over traditional Indian instruments such as ghatam (a finely tuned clay pot) and mrindangam (a very intricate percussion instrument); even mixes of African log drum and conga with Indian percussion. We welcome her back to the recording world! (IND6) CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra Silk 1983-1990

This is a "Best of..." retrospective, covering material from her five solo releases to date: The Struggle, Nada Brahma, Roots and Wings, Quiet, and Out On My Own. Styles range from crossover Indipop to traditional chants to a Scottish lament. A wonderful way to sample her work, and to experience the breadth of her talent and her growth as an artist. And, her first title to be pressed domestically. (SHN64035) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra The Struggle

"I'm proud to be Asian, an Asian Woman, and an Asian Woman in the Music Business." One of our best-sellers from years past — and one of the loveliest and most creative works in our catalog — is back in print! On this lushly textured, harmonic, innovative, up-tempo dance album, Sheila brings together the seeming paradoxes and polarities of her life. A British citizen of Indian descent (known previous to her solo releases for her vocal work with the band Monsoon), her heritage is steeped in ancient traditions, and she values them, yet feels they must be used in a progressive context. The recording blends traditional eastern sounds, vocals, chants, and instruments (sitar, gamelan, Zildjian cymbals, tabla, tambura, etc.), with western rhythms and technology to create... Indipop! If you have enjoyed Ofra Haza, try this for sure... very highly recommended! (IND3) CD: 15.98

Chaba Fadela You Are Mine

While other ethnic stars can provide excellent examples of Rai music — a modern Arabic pop style whose roots lie in traditional Algerian folk music with African, Moroccan, Spanish and French influences — Chaba (title for a young female) Fadela is the premiere voice of the movement that blends cultures and generations to produce a distinctive and beautiful sound. Her rough, sensuous voice has been described as "the pride of Algeria," and her compositions as the best example of Rai music to be found. In fact, the success of Rai in spite of government attempts to ban it for political reasons, is in large part attributable to her. A strong dance beat, with synthesizers, drum machines and multitasking, are paired with her haunting traditional Arabic vocals on this 1988 release. Includes her major hit, N'Sei Fil, performed with Cheb (title for a young male) Sahraoui. Very highly recommended! (MNG9827) CD: 16.98

Chaba Fadela & Cheb Sahraoui Hana Hana

If you liked You Are Mine, you'll love this too. Fadela co-wrote most of the selections, and performs them all with her male duo partner... they are compelling and unique. Contains the 89 Mix of the hit N'Sei Fil. A bonus is that the insert contains actual photos of the artists; many other Rai albums, including You Are Mine and Nights Without Sleeping, instead show models on the cover, presumably in accordance with the Islamic prohibition of photographs. (MNG9856) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra The Zen Kiss

This 1994 release distills a range of vocal fascinations, from onomatopoeic sound collages to the ineffable links between Islamic and soul vocal. Gracefully demonstrating the fundamental similarities among musics of all peoples by taking threads of various musical traditions and placing them side by side, this is a revelatory tapestry, woven with only her voice — the product of a unique and compelling talent, the universality of which defies cultural or geographical boundaries. Includes La Sapeuse (Women, I'm Calling You), Woman and Child. (CAR2342) CS: 10.98... CD: 18.98

Sheila Chandra Quiet

The 9 interrelated movements of Quiet, recorded in 1984, are fragile, meditative islands of minimalism. Piano, bells, altar, and other instruments undulate under her spoken rhythmic chants, which are based on traditional Indian drumming. This CD also contains 4 tracks from the 1985 release Nada Brahma, and the song Mecca, recorded in 1988. 70 minutes. (IND2) CD: 18.98

The Tahitian Choir Rapa Iti

One of the most spectacular albums to come our way, ever! 126 female and male voices sing the story of the people on the tiny island of Rapa Iti — total population 328 — 1000 miles southeast of Tahiti, the last piece of land before the South Pole. The quarter-tonal choral sound is often reminiscent of African singing, sometimes of western hymns, and at moments even Eastern European singing, in the vocal strength of the women especially. Some songs are translated into English, and others were not able to be translated, since much of the original dialect has been lost. A rare gem; actually hit the "Number 1" spot on Billboard's World Music Chart; highly recommended! (TRL7192) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Tomoko Sunazaki

Tegoto: Japanese Koto Music

From one of Japan's foremost koto masters, a "best of" compilation, from previous Fortune releases (Moon at Dawn, Spring Night, Sound of Silk Strings), and is of course exquisite. Melancholy, contemplative, playful and elegant, she performs classical and contemporary Japanese pieces. Over 67 minutes. (FOR17068) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Tutut Choir

Polynesian Odyssey

Produced and engineered by Pascal Nabel-Meyer, who also brought us the wonderful Rapa Iti, this 1993 album was recorded on the isolated and undeveloped South Pacific island of Tutut, southeast of Tahiti. Missionaries attempted to abolish traditional pagan ceremonies, rituals, dances and chanting, but this ancient music lives on, albeit generally with biblical lyrics sung in their native tongue. The a cappella choir of mixed voices continues to keep this Mahoi culture alive. (SHN64049) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Uzume Taiko

Chirashi

This exciting and incredible trio of percussionists from Vancouver, consisting of 2 women, Leslie Komori and Eileen Kage, and 1 man, John Endo Greenway, revives the traditional Japanese taiko, which means "big drum"; the renewal in popularity of this instrument is occurring in both Japan and among sansel (third generation Japanese/North American). The trio is adeptly assisted by other musicians such as Xiao Yu on pipa, a stringed instrument, and Takao on shakuhachi, a bamboo flute, and together they weave magic with their blend of Asian and North American music and rhythms. Dedicated to the spirit of Ame No Uzume No Mikoto, "The Heavenly Dancing Female." Graciously and hypnotic... recommended! (FF558) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

CompilAsian 1

Works of both Sheila Chandra and Najma are included in this unusual anthology of female and male artists who define and expand upon the term "Indipop"... A beautiful, creative fusion of South Asian and western forms, styles, and technologies; New Bhangra alongside Ghazal/Jazz; Indipop alongside Asian house/hip-hop; dancefloor mixes alongside Indian classical experiments. We only wish the insert offered more information on the 13 or 14 musicians represented. Very rhythmic, and much of it is quite danceable. (IND7) CS: 7.98... CD: 17.98

Wu Man

Chinese Music for the Pipa

This is exquisite instrumental music for the ancient plucked lute (it dates back to the 7th century), by a performer who is recognized as a master internationally as well as in her native China; in the US she has collaborated with groups such as the Kronos Quartet. The moods on this 1993 solo album are by turn tender, elegant, steadfast, evocative, meditative, and frenetic; at times an earthy folk style is prevalent, at other times a refinement that is similar to that expressed in calligraphy. A 12-page booklet is included, with detailed information about the music and its history. (NIM5368) CD: 15.98

Sazlar

Several folks have requested music appropriate for Middle Eastern and belly dancing — here's one we enthusiastically recommend for this purpose! Sazlar consists of 5 women from New Mexico, dancers and dance instructors, who studied Middle Eastern music with world class musicians after deciding they'd like to create live music for dancers. They perform traditional and contemporary music in Greek, Rumanian, Turkish, Arabic, Lebanese, Hebrew, Egyptian, Tunisian and Moroccan styles. All 5 women contribute vocals and play instruments including ney, oud, set, darbuka, del, tar, violin, guitar, mandolin and clarinet. Whether you study Middle Eastern dance or not, this music is wonderful to accompany expressive movement of any kind. (SAZ1) CS: 9.98

Yosefa

Calling all Ofra Haza fans: don't miss this similarly exciting 1993 "world beat dance" release! This young vocalist was born in Israel of Moroccan and Yemenite descent; she began her career as a soloist while serving in Israel's armed forces, and has continued in an upward spiral of success in both the Middle East and Europe. Native instruments such as the kanoun, oud, zurna, eastern violin and clarinet combine with traditional percussion such as the darbuka and tin drum; these are blended with western technology and production technique to create an amalgam both mystically ancient and hi-tech. Includes Green Eyed Lady, Yaraya ("I feel the presence of Yaraya — the spirit of love! She travels beside me through the desert"), and the traditional Moroccan Sidi Hbibi. Recommended! ## Djur Djura

Voice of Silence

"We sing aloud what our mothers hummed under their breath." We learned about this group from Libana several years ago, and are thrilled to learn of the US release of this album! Djura, an Algerian Berber musician, is the composer, lyricist, and principal vocalist of this band, now based in Paris. Passionately opposed to the constraints on women under an omnipotent, outdated patriarchy, she has dedicated herself to speaking and singing out her message of rebellion, and her songs to "all women who have been deprived of love, knowledge and freedom." So, their songs combine Berber folk melodies with non-traditional poetry, about the continuing struggle of women in North African societies, and the liberation of Algeria. Whether the songs express pain, anger, sorrow, nostalgia or festivity, the music is rhythmic and fresh, with a subtle polyphony. Songs include Ad Cethent (The Young Girls Are Going to Dance), Fihel Azim (You Must Act). She is also a film-maker and best-selling author (The Veil of Silence) in France. We enthusiastically recommend this artist! (LB45211) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

The Very Best of Fairuz

This Lebanese vocalist is one of the best-known female singers in the Arab world; the songs are in Lebanese, and she incorporates traditional Arabic music into her style. Her material stands in solidarity with the oppressed people of Palestine, and in support of their right to a nation-state under leadership of their choosing. (VOI241) CS: 10.98... CD: 19.98

Canto Antiguo

Musical Traditions of the Sephardim

This early music ensemble is dedicated to the restoration and performance of Sephardic music from 15th-century Spain... and one reason we recommend it so highly, aside from its startling and exquisite beauty, is its authenticity. The 2-woman 2-man quartet's primary vocalist, mezzo-soprano Bonita Nahum Jeros, is a descendant of the Jews of Iberia. Her grandparents were among the ever-diminishing group of people who spoke Ladino as a native and primary language, and her parents did not venture out of their community until Bonita was a child... and so her Sephardic and linguistic background has given rich insight into the poetic intention of each of the 21 songs. They are evocative and haunting with traditional wind, string, and percussion instrumentation. Excellent notes, and again, highly recommended! (T1215) CD: 16.98

Debbie Friedman

And You Shall Be a Blessing...

We've had several people request Debbie's music now, so we think it's time we offered you some of her work! She is known as an artist who presents Jewish tradition in a progressive and dignified way. This 1989 album reflects her belief that blessings are not nebulous, distant, magical intangibles, but rather the affirmation of faith in the Source of All Life and the enactment of the potential goodness with which each soul has been endowed. Includes her original Miriam's Song, and others in Hebrew and English, all with captivating original music, some lyrics based on traditional text, performed with her very lovely voice and a multitude of instruments. Arranged and orchestrated by E. Marcy DiCarrow-Vai, who contributed to some early women's music albums like Changer. Especially love the evocative Vahamtu. (SWP601) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hanna Tiferet Siegel

The Healing Circle/Refuah Shleyma

Hanna is a Jewish mystic, a rabbinical student, and a composer and singer of Hebrew and English music. With a holistic approach to biblical images that is inclusive and liberating, she often calls on the Shekhina, the divine feminine presence, in her prayers and blessings. These 14 songs, recorded with Myrna Rabinowitz and Nomi Fenton, feature vocal harmonies plus acoustic string instruments and percussion... Ancient prayers are combined with contemporary songs, to invoke the healing of body, emotions, mind and soul — use for listening, singing along, preparing for Shabbos, or healing from an injury or illness. Filled with a love of Torah and a twinkle of chutzpah! Includes Blessed Be and The Pious Blessing. (HTS450) CS: 9.98

Klezmer Conservatory Band

Live! The 13th Anniversary Album

What happens when a Yiddish band turns thirteen? This, their "Bat Mitzvah Album" provides the answer, with in-concert performances of many of their favorite Yiddish and Klezmer classics, along with exciting original compositions. Celebrate their "coming of age", and share in the unique spirit of a great KCB concert performance! (ROU3125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Touch of Klez!

From the 16 women and men who brought us Oy Chanukah!, an album of dance tunes and Yiddish songs, with Eastern touches in melody and harmony, for the rest of the year. The stand-outs are the rich vocals by Judy Bressler (described by a fan as a heaven-sent Russian goddess), including her brand of Klezmer scat, and Ingrid Monson's poignant cornet improvisations. (VAN79455) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Koleet

A Celebration of Jewish Folk Music

Koleet is an ensemble of three distinctive women's voices: Cindy Paley, Ann Brown, and Amy Helpin Kriva. With new and traditional arrangements in vocal harmony and instrumentation, they weave beautiful melodies and rhythms which span the multitude of languages reflected in Jewish culture: Ladino, Yiddish, Russian, Hebrew and Yeminite. Includes Chassidic Medley, D'vor Yikra ("A Call to Freedom"), a Yeminite Shabbat song, and Yiddish songs from the Second Avenue Theatre era. Recommended! (CP3) CS: 9.98

Lauren Pomerantz

Jewels of the Sephardim

Subtitled Songs from Medieval Spain, this album contains songs in Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) which originated between 900 and 1300 A.D. on the Iberian peninsula, at which time a marvelous cultural exchange was occurring between Hebrews, Arabs (Moors) and Christians (Spaniards). This ceased in 1492 with the Inquisition, and the Sephardic Jews scattered into mid-eastern, Mediterranean and North African areas. Since then the music has been passed from generations via the oral tradition. Lauren has done much of the research for this album. Her voice is just lovely and she also plays medieval fretted dulcimer, to a background of flutes and percussion. Lyrics in Ladino (15th century Castilian, similar to present-day Spanish). (SB1401) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Wings of Time

With the current hope for peace in the Middle East, this 1994 release is especially apropos, as it contains Sephardic music from Medieval Spain, which enjoyed 400 years of cultural exchange in the arts and sciences between Christian, Arab and Jew. The instrumentation is especially beautiful, provided by founding members of Ensemble Alcatraz, it includes recorders, psaltery, vielle, rebec (early bowed strings) and percussion, in addition to Lauren's dulcimer. Ladino lyrics and English translations provided. (SB1405) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn

Songs for Shabbos

Linda, who freelances as a cantor in progressive synagogues, is a singer-songwriter of Jewish, women's, and political material. This album is an instructional tape that teaches how to sing — note by note and syllable by syllable with many repetitions — traditional Shabbos "Zmiros" (songs) including the blessing over the candles, and the option to use the feminine of masculine name of God. Lyrics included. (OYS1113) CS: 7.98

Gather Round (Tape)

Subtitled Songs of Celebration and Renewal, this collection of original rounds and songs in Hebrew and English celebrates our heroines (Miriam, Ruth and Naomi), daily ritual, cycles of life, and peace and justice, with reference only to a penderless and/or feminine God. Sung mostly by an acappella women's ensemble with stunning harmonies, giving a unique sense of the feminist potential within Judaism. Includes Chanukah-Sch-ah-ah, Miriam's Slow Snake Dance, The Full Moon Song, Ruth and Naomi, Women Gathering Round. Recommended! (OYS1116) CS: 9.98

Roots and Wings

This 1992 follow-up to Gather Round combines contemporary concerns with ancient teachings. Original rounds and songs with intricate harmonies celebrate the earth, speak out against injustice, bless our children and commemorate the friends who have died — especially notable is a beautiful peace round, Not By Might, in English, Hebrew and Arabic. Features the singing of Linda's acappella performing group. Vocelot. (OYS1117) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Margot Stein Azen

Create Out of Nothing

This rabbinical student takes ancient texts combined with contemporary concerns (primarily feminism and the environment), and with special attention to the untold stories, creates unique midrashim — stories which fill in the gaps of missing sacred text. Shivti evokes the power and strength of ancient scriptural women; She Said No is based on the Book of Esther; while Mother's Silver mirrors a contemporary woman's search for identity. This 1991 debut album successfully fulfills its goal of creatively communicating Jewish wisdom. (OZS91) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 11.98

Miriam Dvorin

Grandma Soup: Yiddish Songs

"When we were kids we loved to go to Grandma's house. In the small apartment above the tailor shop the sounds of Yiddish songs mingled with the appetizing aroma of what we kids called Grandma Soup. Here is a taste of Grandma soup: that mysterious blend of culinary and cultural delights we are still trying to appreciate fully." Not only does Miriam have an astonishingly beautiful voice, she gives impressively zealous performances here on violin, mandolin, autoharp, electric and acoustic guitar and electric bass — and, she produced it. Very highly recommended for kids and adults. (SOU101) CS: 9.98

Ofra Haza

Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yeminite Jewish parentage, Ofra may be Israel's biggest star, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old!) and world beat/dance/contemporary rhythms and instrumentation... resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yeminite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra is part of the Musica Mizrahi movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. (SHN44002) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kiryas

One of our favorite artists returns to the style of our very favorite of all her albums, Fifty Gates of Wisdom. This 1992 release features vocals in Aramaic, Hebrew and English, with some new surprises: backing vocals by Was Not Was, and a guest appearance by rock legend Iggy Pop, in a narrative role on the track Daw De Hys, a song about a young woman sentenced to death for expressing her sexuality. Even when you don't speak the language she's singing in, the strikingly pure tone of her voice gets the meaning across; recommended! (SHN44043) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

From the Shores of the Golden Horn

The first volume in the "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora" series (500 years after Columbus set sail by this 2-woman, 2-man quartet; it features music of the Spanish Jews of Turkey, one of several discrete paths of exile following the Inquisition and expulsion from Spain. This collection includes lyric songs, romances, coplas (strophic festival songs), endechas (dirges) and more, performed in Ladino, a language preserved largely by the women. Accompaniment consists of dumbeks, ud, kamanya, nagara, saz, baglama, finger cymbals, and such — a highly unusual and valuable repertoire. (T1173) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 18.98

Balkan Vistas/ Spanish Dreams

1992 marks not only the year the Native Americans discovered Columbus invading their shores; it also marks 500 years since the Inquisition, and subsequent exile, for Spanish Jews. This remarkable album follows two paths of this exile, and brings to light the music of the Sephardic Jewish communities which flourished for centuries in Bulgaria and Yugoslavia, mostly Sarajevo. Influences of Turkish instrumentation and Balkan folk rhythms can be heard. During WWII, the Bulgarian Jews were protected by their government, but many Yugoslavian Jews were led to the concentration camps. Most of the remaining Yugoslavian and Bulgarian Jews eventually emigrated to Israel. Recommended as always! (T1263) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bridges of Song

Subtitled Musical of the Spanish Jews of Morocco, this is the second volume in the ensemble's "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora/ Paths of Exile" series. Unlike the Jews who traveled to the Ottoman Empire, those who settled in Morocco maintained continual exposure to European influence, especially during the period when Spain ruled parts of Morocco; so their spoken language Haketa, as well as their repertoire, reflected Spanish, as well as Hebrew and Arabic, influence. (T1189) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Alternative

4 Non Blondes

Bigger, Better, Faster, More!

This San Francisco band (3 women, 1 man) presents a delightful mixture of funky-punky rock, blues, and ballads. Singer/songwriter/guitarist Linda Perry sounds like Pat Jeffries (The Heretics) meets Johnette Napolitano (Concrete Blonde) at a Janis Joplin festival. This 1992 album contains songs about love, life, politics and society, and, of course, drugs. (INT92112) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sick 'Em

We've had some requests for this wild 4-woman band, so here goes. Remember those generic mudflap bimbo silhouettes you always see on big rig trucks? Well, they seem to be the band's logo, if that gives you any indication of their fuck-you porno attitude... Basically they thrash and bash (love how songwriter Elizabeth Davis' mega-bass loosens your fillings) and shriek about love and anti-love (Lorna, In Lust You Trust, You Smell Lonely) and violence (No Fucking War — "So bitch pull out! Like your father should have" — and Dead Men Don't Rape). The album is dedicated to guitarist Stephanie Sargent who died of a heroin overdose after making this recording, but before the album's release. (CZ48) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Viva Zapata!

This long-awaited 1994 album (their last indie release — they've been signed to a major), named in memory of murdered Gila's vocalist Mia Zapata, has a "pure power, unadorned passion, and the kind of chemistry between band members few artists will ever be lucky enough to find." Selenia's confrontational lyrics are delivered in a sing-song semi-rap style that balances the buzzing guitar, obvious bass and thrashing drums. Highlights include It's Too Late and Get Lit. Tight, heavy, and riveting! (CZ78) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Ani Difranc

"With a 'do' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" (to quote our venerable purchasing manager, Reggie)... Ani (pronounced "Ah-neh") is a young songwriter, singer and guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Lost Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin... highly recommended! (RIG001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Not So Soft

Well, this release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani! The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get active in the listening; when you hear her, you'll be compelled to move closer to the speakers, rock your body, experience your heart brimming over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic... She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful self-harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dust broom! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented... Again, highly recommended. (RIG002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Imperfectly

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Unflinching in her pursuit of honesty, she strikes sparks incessantly as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She struggles with sexual identity in In or Out and If It Isn't Her, and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in I'm No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shadings of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the third time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Puddle Dive

On this new release for spring 1993, her most complex effort to date, Ani (dubbed a folk-rock-feminist by one reviewer) goes boldly where no one has gone before... joined at various moments by pianist Ann Rabson from Saffire, the Uppity Blues-women, virtuoso violinist Mary Ramsey from the folk-rock duo John & Mary, and English harmonica sensation Rory McLeod. An in-your-face lyricist who exposes our hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status quo in sex, psychology and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. (RIG004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Like I Said

On this 1993 release, 15 tracks from Ani Difranc and Not So Soft have been combined, re-recorded, embellished, and generally massaged with to make a new album. (RIG005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Out of Range

This 1994 release is hailed as Ani's most adventurous effort to date. The 12 tracks include 2 versions of the title song — solo acoustic and rocking with a full band; The Diner with sound effects scarfed from an all-night eatery in Toronto; How Have You Been, with a full-fledged horn section blowing funk riffs; Letter to John, a troubling song that breaches the bitter afterlife of sexual abuse from a stark and cynical point of view; If He Dies Anything, an outrageous snapshot of female desperados on the road; and the guilty personal regrets of You Had Time. The power and penetrating insights of her poetry achieve a new peak here — we highly recommend Ani! (RIG006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Belly

Star

A really terrific 1993 album by former Throwing Muses guitarist - vocalist and queen of feedback (the guitar kind) Tanya Donelly, who with her band performs danceable pop tunes as well as some darker, more psychedelic numbers. Fans of Throwing Muses are sure to enjoy this venture from Tanya who added a woman to her touring band because she wanted gender equity in their stage presence. Belly has been reviewed everywhere in the mainstream press — this is non-mainstream music for a wide audience. Put it on and sing, dance, and play your air guitar around the house; highly recommended for those who expect more from their pop bands. (SIR45187) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bikini Kill

This 6-song EP belongs on vinyl, I haven't heard anything so intense, angry, and personal since the days of vinyl. Ex-stripper turned riot grrrl Kathleen Hanna coos, screams and rages with a poignancy that's uncomfortable and unnerving... backed by a mostly female punk-inspired band, who're all really pissed off. It's hard to describe the band without explaining the riot grrrl movement that they helped form in a very nebulous, underground way: both the band and the movement combine power, anger and sexuality into a strange feminist brew that (thankfully) shocks and inspires. Look for more from Bikini Kill; they've finished recording a few songs with producer Joan Jett. Revolution Grrrl Style Now! (KRS204) LP: 7.98

Pussy Whipped

Now those of you who've traded in your turntables for CD players can experience the raw power of this band without losing one bit of intensity. For all of us who've ever wanted to scream out loud about our rapes, let Kathleen pull you along in Star Beloved Boy. Struggle with our roles and labels in Allen She... just flat out enjoy the love song and near-ballad For Tammy Rae... and sing/scream along with the now famous Rebel Girl ("you're the queen of my word"). And how! (KRS218) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Bjork

Debut

This stunning album is the first solo offering from the banshee vocalist of the Sugarcubes, the one and only alternative rock band from Iceland to make it big. Bjork Gudmundsdottir has a voice with backbone, powerful and bracing, and beautifully showcased here on a wide variety of tracks. The sounds travel from the funkiness of Bigtime Sensuality to the ambience of the Indian string section on Venus as a Boy; from the driving house pulse of There's More to Life Than This (recorded live at the Mlix Bar toletal) to the solo jazz-harp accompaniment on the standard Like Someone to Love. Recommended! (EL61468) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Blood, Smut and Tears

Smut

"Pure DIY hardcore punk from four strong and fearless women who have a lot to say — and say it at the top of their lungs." The music is very metal and the often-feminist lyrics cover a myriad of socio-political and personal subjects. Take Back the Night describes rape as sport, and its impact and aftermath... Women has guitarist Dawn spitting out name-calling lyrics as is the male point of view and then replying "We women say fuck-off". Autumn Storm is a stately anthem for Native American causes ("And by the way it's Ojibwa not Chippewa"). Smut will put some more in your metal! (SPF09240) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bratmobile

Pottymouth

Some people try to pin this 3-woman band as having some musical resemblance to Bikini Kill just because the two bands have done tanzines and other ventures together, but nothing could be so untrue. Bratmobile is simple, pretty, 60's garage-style pop songs stripped to the barest minimum instrumentally (guitar - Erin Smith and drums - Molly Neuman) with the most foul-mouthed and bitter 22-year-old singer (vocals - Allison Wolfe) you've ever heard. Not for the faint of heart: includes Stab, Fuck Yr Fans, Bitch Theme, Juswanna (Fuk U.), Cherry Bomb, and Panik, sort of a "lesbian-friendly" song. (KRS206) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Breeders

Last Splash

Wonderful cacophony! Delightful noise! The demise of the Pixies seems to have left Kim Deal with the time and energy to more fully realize the Breeders as a cohesive unit. The latest incarnation includes Kim and her sister Kelley on guitars and vocals, Josephine Wiggs on bass and vocals, and Jim MacPherson on drums. I can't pretend to understand every song on this 1994 album, but I don't care — it's just great fun! Canonball, the hit single, is full of hooks — you can hear snippets everywhere in ads and promotional spots. The Breeders cross 60's sugar pop with surf music by way of Kim's Pixies past and throw in some sampled effects and grungy guitars to create the best aural party I've heard in a while. (EL61508) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Concrete Blonde

Mexican Moon

Once again Johnette Napolitano has written or co-written most songs here, and plays bass plus some guitars and percussion... and did the insert artwork... and, she sings! This powerful 1993 release really shows the range of feeling Johnette's voice is capable of delivering: yearning in Rain and dangerous in Jesus Forgive Me (For the things I'm About to Say)... and the band has matured thematically, lyrically, and musically. Organized religion is put in its place in a couple of tracks, the Middle Eastern-inspired I Call It Love and Jonestown, which begins with the eerie voice of Jim Jones orating fanatically to his followers. The best yet from a band that really rocks and a woman whose voice makes me jealous! (CAP81129) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

D'Cuckoo
Umoia

When you're listening so much to say about these women, who write, perform, invent, and construct their music and their instruments: electronic marimbas and drum controllers. They're multimedia, interactive, techno-arts ensemble whose music has been described as "neoclassical post-industrial cyber-tri-ethnic world funk." During live performances, the music is interwoven with storytelling, dancing and ritual. Their harmonic vocals lend an organic feel to the electronic music with sounds and patterns from Africa, India, the Middle East, and the Caribbean.

This 1994 album is unlike anything you've ever heard, yet it is comfortable, danceable, and could even be used in high-energy ritual. We Shippers are quite excited and enthralled with this... one of our top picks for 1995. Absolutely, positively recommended! (RBB501) CS: 9.96 CD: 15.96

Dead Can Dance

A Passage in Time

this duo consist of Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry, but from the sounds they create, you'd think there were at least 6 of them! Australians of Anglo-Irish descent, they find their musical inspiration in the music of the Middle Ages through the early Renaissance, or for us history funnies, from the 12th through the 16th centuries... and they're a rock band! Lisa's gorgeous voice rings like a bell, vibrates like a flute, soars like a bird - plainly, one of the most distinctive singers of the decade! Includes Song of Sophia, The Host of Seraphim, The Song of the Sybil, Spirit, plus 12 more. This 1991 recording isn't like anything you've heard lately, at least not for the past 5 or future 2 centuries! Heavenly! (RVK215) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dead Can Dance Into the Labyrinth

This 1993 release, marking the duo's debut on a US major label, finds them deepening their mysteries and expanding their sonic scope. Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry's contrasting vocal styles (her shimmering purr, his medieval croon) are set against a cumbrous of musical inspiration that spans everything from 12th Century Gregorian chants to 20th Century contemporary. Includes Willowes (Spirit Dance), which will also be released as a video; Ariloude; and the traditional song The Wind That Shakes the Belfry. A haunting mix of the ancient and the exotic, once again. (4AD45304) CS: 10.98 - CD: 16.98.

Dead Can Dance Alone

Their early works are now back in print, and we bring you some in light of the popularity of their more recent titles. This one is a celebration, a very classical sounding album that seems to be imbued with light where in other recordings shadows lurk. Includes The Song of the Sibyl, As The Bell Rings the Maypole Spins, The Promised Womb. (4AD45575)
 CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance
The Serpent's Egg

A complex matrix and blending of ancient cultural sounds, including East Indian and African, that marked a new direction for their music. Includes Song of Sophia, Mother Tongue. (4AD45576) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance
Within the Realm Of a Dying Sun

Somber, poetic music, shedding a soft light on a dark reality, mysteriously compelling to the listener's ear, includes Summoning of the Muse, Persephone (The Gathering of Flowers).

Diamanda Galas
Plaque Mass (Double-Length)

the powerful, detailed and controversial work of the unusual socialist composer finds its pinnacle in this monumental piece, subtitled (1984 - End of the Epidemic). Recorded live at the Cathedral of St John the Divine in NYC in 1990, it has been described by The Washington Post as a "literally stunning 90-minute scream-opera about those who suffer from AIDS and those who dare to judge them." And the New York Times said, "Gassie is a kind of terrorist. She subvertes old ways of making music just as she is an unsettling presence in the cold war against AIDS." (MUT61043) CS: 19.98 CD: 15.98

Diamanda Galas
The Sinner

Operatic arioso, gothic emotional rampages... this is how Diamanda's usual work would be characterized. Focusing on death and morbidity after her brother succumbed to AIDS, she became an imposing performer on the NYC scene. This 1992 recording is a collection of ten gospel and blues standards, interpreted as only Diamanda could, with just her deepseeded voice and a piano. Includes I Put a Spell On You, Gloomy Sunday, Balm in Gilead, See That My Grave Is Kept Clean, Judgement Day. (MUTE61278) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Diamonda Galas
Vena Cava

Another overwhelmingly powerful work from a performer whose harrowing work has been known to cause panic attacks in her audience. On this 1993 album, Diamanda uses her three-and-a-half octave voice, original compositions, samples from Mozart, Purcell and Amazing Grace, along with music pieces from her brother, Philip Dimitri Galas, whose death from AIDS-related complications added an uncaring and hostile system to the destruction of the infected and dying. The piece explores the dark nature of the mind through the various illnesses of clinical depression and AIDS dementia. Recommended for those who can handle it. (MUT 71459) CD: 16.98.

God Is My Co-Pilot Straight Not

This large tribe of queers and straights, grinds and boys together presents a protean, hard to pigeonhole vision of roles and their meanings. In and out of the music (and in and out of the closet) Musically abrasive and morally judgmental as the band is, their main strategy seems to be to beguile as much as to confront, and to include their listeners (rather than talk down to them). Jump rope rhymes, hardcore thrash and avant jazz are all equal parts of the program. Lead singer Sheron Topper lays before us snippets of life from the young, the aware and the angry. Songs include Shel's Got Butch, I Saw Helen's Tits, You, Boy, Both Ways (a Queer-Bis anthem?), Girl In A Car, Singin' Along with the Radio (GPA) C+ B- 98 CD: $9.95

Happy Rhodes
Warpaint

This 1991 release, Happy's 5th (not bad for a mere babe of 26), and most polished to date, "drifts into the listener's psyche like urgently whispered messages from the spirit world..." The self-confessed music addict brings a fresh energy to our collection of electronic/experimental music by combining fly-on-the-wall observations of life and living with an impressive array of electronic effects, plus a touch of haunting European-ish violin. The result is warmer than most synthesizer recordings, mostly due to her voice, which remains primarily in the lower registers here (Annie Lennox, is she yours?). Her bold and beautiful expression, vision and artistry account for her large cult following, which we predict you'll be joining as soon as you experience her. Highly recommended! (AG0017) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Equipoise

Vampires, angels, symbionts, aliens – this visionary artist seems to possess a multiplicity of perception; insights combined with prophecy, like floating in water and looking both above and below the surface at the same time – things get kinda wavy and never stop moving... Musically, the mood on this 1993 release is very languid, with a simpler musical structure (though still many multi-layered vocals) than in her previous recordings. Sweet, melancholy rhythms apoclyp with her amazing vocals – on several cuts she self-harmonizes in extreme high and low registers, and you'll be constantly reminding yourself that this isn't a Kate & Annie duet! We'll probably keep highly recommending this artist for years to come... but we advise you to check her out now! (A50019) CS: 2.98 CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes
RhodeSongs

This 1993 retrospective contains some tracks from previously released albums; some from a radio-only CD called HRS, which features some incredible acoustic versions of Save Our Souls, Feed the Fire, and Bowie's classic Ashes to Ashes; plus a new one or two. If you're not familiar with Happy Rhodes, this is a great way to experience the breadth of her talent, and see what all the commotion's about; and if you're a fan already, you'll just have to have it. (AG00021) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Building the Colossus

Always the fluent writer, Haas presents 12 songs on this 1994 album that we hope will finally bring her the widespread recognition her talent deserves. Laced with her ever-present lush arrangements, this time she has reached to some guest players to compliment her 4-octave vocals. She also adds a more acoustic feel to synthesizer brilliance produced again by her and Kevin Bartlett... and feels it's her best work to date. (A/Q0020) CS: 9.00 CD: 15.98

Hole
Pretty On the Inside

Those of you who follow Madonna's every move may have heard about Hole — they were the first band she wanted to sign when she acquired her own record label (but so far hasn't). Even though her musical style couldn't be more different from this 3-woman 1-man band's grungy punk, there's a similarity: they both push their limits as far as they can. Lead singer Courtney Love (who says, "We're coming at things with a more feminine, lunar viewpoint. There's been so much white male posturing in rock that what's really important to me is getting across the female perspective — and that includes both rage and vulnerability") has a voice from hell that you want to make love to and run from at the same time. This 1991 album's been compared to Patti Smith's Horses — it's a raw nerve, completely uncensored. Kim Gordon of Sonic Youth produced this gut-wrenching, pissed-off piece of work; highly recommended for those that can handle it. [CAR1710] CS: 18.95 ... CD: 16.98

Hole
Live Through This

It's too bad that the 1994 album will rarely be heard without Courtney Love's husband's suicide hanging over it; hopefully the curious as well as the fans will buy this and discover that Courtney's a better songwriter than Kurt Cobain ever was. Her pregnancy influences most songs, either overtly as in Plump, or symbolically in the many references to milk: sour milk, sickening milk, no milk. This production's a bit more polished than on their debut, but loses none of the intensity delivered by the core of guitar, bass, drums, and most importantly Courtney's whisper-to-a-scream voice. Additional vocals provided by former blackgiris member Dana Kiefer; standout tracks include the aforementioned Plump (schwearing the pretty side of motherhood) and Doll Parts ("I take it to real I am beyond fake"). Someday you will ache like I ache" (GEF24631) CD: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Huggy Bear
Taking the Rough With the Smooch

England's answer to the riot grrrl genre is this 5-member mixed-gender primitive and compelling punk band, which describes itself as Queercore for the Queercorps. Song titles include Fansy 'Wist, Shaved Pussy Poetry, Harjazz, No Sleep ("No sleep till I can hear the sound of your voice... telling me there is no choice.") Vocals are shared by these women and men who say in their liner notes, "Can such a weapon as you and me be dismissed as mere nuisance?" (KR5214) CS: 9.98 ...

Insane Jane
A Green Little Pill

This Georgia-based band, who recently played at the Atlanta Gay Pride Celebration, has audiences and critics alike responding to their passionate vocals, stinging guitar lines and rock steady rhythm section. "The one female in the band is... of course, the center of the revolution... is found in lead vocalist/lyricist Yellow, whose vocals are fantastic: full and earthy, at one moment delicate and beautiful, relentless and raging the next. Inspiring comparisons by various reviewers to Grace Slick, Patti Smith, Janis Joplin, Etta James, and Johanna Napolitano of Concrete Blonde. This 1991 album includes Empress of Pop, She Is Falling, Once In Your Mouth Recommended [SKR 5040] CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Jane Siberry
No Borders Here

One of the most highly recommended recordings in our catalog and even better than her first: lyrically and instrumentally adventuresome, features beautiful harmonies and harmonies, electricity, takes you on a journey. Includes Dancing Class, Waitress, Extra Executives, Symmetry. Like new air for old, tired, cynical ears. The form here is more rock/new wave (not acoustic) and again we don't know which category to place it in. Your record collection, perhaps? (OA6362) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jane Siberry
Bound By the Beauty

Another brilliant creation from this Canadian artist with the ethereal voice! Recorded at a small studio in the middle of an apple orchard, the pastoral environment makes its influence felt throughout. A primary theme is her relationship to nature, and how much less complicated it is than her relationship to people. Lyrically she creates musical snapshots that capture the quirky way she interprets the world; Hockey, Half Angel, Half Eagle, Something About Trains are full of these small frozen moments... Musically she has moved away from synthesizers, and the sounds are drawn from country, rock, jazz and Latin idioms. A definite highlight is Everything Reminds Me of My Dog, a great lesson in how the whole world can be seen through a canine lens. (REP25942) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jane Siberry
When I Was a Boy

This 1993 release, a brilliantly conceived set of impressionistic songs and visions, combines innovation with accessibility. A highlight is her memorably unearthly duet with k.d. lang, Calling All Angels, which first appeared on the Until The End Of The World soundtrack (lang's long-time music/business cohort Ben Mink also contributes viola on this track)... also includes Sail Across the Water, The Gospel According to Darkness, and Sweet Incarnadine. Co-produced by Brian Eno. So it has a weird title, she's still one of our all-time favorite artists! (REP25824) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The first release by an artist most of you are familiar with (we hope), this Toronto-based musician has, for good reason, been likened to Joni Mitchell, Dory Previn, and the Roches, and we'd add Ferron to that, but she's too quirky to really be like anyone else. These are clever, imaginative original songs: Jane accompanies her voice with mingling harmonies plus guitar, piano, synthesizer, and co-produced on her label. There isn't an accurate category for this album... it has strains of folk and even punk, in her bizarre sense of humor. One of the best here is The Mystery of Owens Farm, a lament for a cow who disappeared. Our endorsement is qualified by the lyrics to one song which promote a generalized, oppressive misconception about why fat women are fat (fear of being attractive to men)... but all in all, the strengths outweigh this flaw, and we highly recommend this for all the other cuts. (STR002) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kate Bush
The Red Shoes

Being hailed as her most personal album to date ("an album of immeasurable depth... of love and longing... of incredible beauty..."), this 1993 release has been 3 years in the making. Written and produced by Kate herself in the secluded privacy of the studio Kate built in a converted barn at her family's farm, the project has been enshrouded in mystery... but word has spread throughout her network of fans, who await this with tremendous excitement. Includes Rubberband Girl, Big Stripes, Lie Lie Lie, Eat the Music, and features guest performances by Jeff Beck, Eric Clapton. (COL53737) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

L7
Smell the Magic

They drop their drawers on stage, spit on reporters, defy just about every social norm that comes their way — gotta love 'em just for that, but they also play some of the best "hard rock" (too late a term for them, but they're a bit too sophisticated for the term "grunge") on the scene today. Love Fast and Frightening ("She makes the straight girls wanna be dykes..."), also Broomstick and Puddin'. A Rod. 1991. (SUB0079) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

L7
Hungry For Stink

This 1994 release is reassuring. Since seeing these women in fashion layouts and generally all over the media recently, I was kinda worried. Whew — somehow they've managed to become lighter, more mature players and lyricists without losing their edge. They're still coming from a firmly feminist stance with songs like Can I Run, about the fear that follows a lone woman on foot in a city, and Stinky which quotes the race car driver and refrains "How many times must you be told? There's nowhere that we don't go." As if this weren't enough, the insert sports some of the most intriguing photos — who are those people? A must! (SLH45624) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Laurie Anderson
Bright Red

On this 1994 release, Laurie's first album in 5 years, she returns to the essential core of her art. With its stripped-down sound — courtesy of producer Brian Eno — and its emphasis on spoken word, it showcases the artist's voice and her thoughts. At the center of the material is the question, "And what I really want to know is: Are things getting better? Or are they getting worse? Can we start all over again?" By turns funny and serious, playful and elegiac, the album is a set of mirrors held up to all our lives, as it reaffirms her position as one of the sharpest commentators on the human condition. Includes The Puppet Motel, World Without End. (WB45534) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Laurie Anderson
Mister Heartbreak

Oh, Missus Lady! This album will put you under Laurie Anderson's magical spell, as she takes you on a journey through lush, surreal musical landscapes. The high level of structural and emotional diversity seems impossible to attain, but the universal result will reach into the tender depths of any listener's soul. Gorgeous instrumentation (Korean kayagum, synthesizer, electronic conches, shekere, violin, bells, wood blocks, guitars, bass, bamboo, to name a few) with help from such talents as Roma Baran, Peter Gabriel, Bill Laswell, Anton Fier, William Burroughs, Phoenix Snow... Songs include: Kokoru, Blue Lagoon, Excellent Birds, Sharky's Day, Sharky's Night, Gravity's Angel. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed. (WB25077) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Liz Phair
Whip-Smart

This 1994 follow-up to the debut by this Chicago singer/songwriter contains 14 new songs, all as witty, gutsy, and manic as anything on its predecessor! Songs include Supernova, May Queen, Alice Spring, Dogs Of L.A. (MAT92429) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Liz Phair
Exile in Guyville

Usually this reviewer finds albums with the "college radio sound" mind-numbingly boring; but this hit of the university soundwaves grabs you by the seat of the pants and makes you want to listen. With her guitar, this post-modern woman gives us an intelligent, mid-20's view of life and her various kinds of relationships with "guys". The production is sparse, highlighting the monotonic yet infectious vocals. Stand-out cuts are Mesmerizing, with its Rolling Stones-like fat guitar line, "67", and Dance of the Seven Veils. Recommended! (MAT51) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Luscious Jackson
In Search of Manny

Bring down the dance beat of Soho just a notch, throw in some My Sister Jane-esque rap n' ramble, and you just might find this NY-based 4-woman ensemble. This 1993 7-song album is a surefire hit for dance-club dykes from NY to SF! Feminist lyrics and a dance beat permeate songs like Daughters of the Kae and Let Yourself Get Down. Highly recommended! (GR27582) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Melting Hopefuls
Space Flyer

This 1994 album contains some highly-touted alternative pop from a 3-woman, 3-male ensemble: the lyrics are all from women, and the "unique, unpredictable, playful" vocals are all from Renee LeBuc. Grungy, droning guitars top rocky pop melodies for a most pleasant danceable sound. Highlight is the feminist What She's Wearing, bemoaning the double standard in the biz: "Whenever they review a hat, foremost is his playing... Whenever they review a shoe, first comes what she's wearing." Recommended! (SHN5703) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Meryn Cadell
Bombazine

The clever off-beat lyrics of this exciting 1993 release (one of the most promising in our spring '94 edition) express an intelligent, original, openly bisexual, sardonic view of life. This Canadian artist clearly revels in words, combining traditional song structure with spoken word musings to perfectly capture what it is like to be twenty-something and not really sure about the who's, the what's, the where's, the how's and the why's. Voice for Gloria, the best poem to sex with a woman this reviewer has ever heard, contains the line which is the philosophical anchor to the whole enchilada, "You don't have to do anything that you don't want to, but don't get up in arms about what others choose to do." Jonny and Betty opens the album with a mess, with lyrics about gays and gay-bashing; Abelene and Window of Opportunity were co-written with k.d. lang's collaborator, Ben Mink (he also accompanies on strings, guitar and more), with musical references to Ingenue yet completely original. Extremely, extremely recommended! (SIR45398) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

No Safety
Live at the Knitting Factory

This 2-woman 3-man band creates rock songs — many with "in your face" gay themes, primarily by member Chris Cochran — supported with heavy bass, controlled feedback, distorted drones, a variety of textures, and a strong, tightly wound, sometimes eccentric sensibility. On this 1993 release, their hard-core edge has softened just a bit from their previous efforts, allowing for some improvisation and international sound — some can probably dance to the more followable rhythms! Includes Eight Year Old With an Urn, Hard Ass, Ms. Duplex, Help Some Kind of a Dope Bitch, Master/Slave, Man or Monkey ("Eve didn't make a monkey out of a man/ she made a man out of a monkey"). (KFW148) CD: 15.98

PJ Harvey
Rid Of Me

I have a picture of PJ Harvey hanging over my desk here at work — just a photo torn from a magazine. She's sitting, facing the camera head on, elbows resting on chair arms, head cocked slightly, dark hair pulled back. What I love about the picture are her eyes; she's just looking at the camera — no fluff, no artifice, just a pure, honest stare... calm, powerful, self-confident. So is this 1993 release — if you can call the banished calm. It's darker and more desolate, purposefully gender-ambiguous (Yuri G and Man-Size are definitely about women). People (mostly men) call her a feminist and man-hater, labels she denies, but her anger is palpable and matter-of-fact, just like her stare. Includes a great cover of Bob Dylan's Highway 61 Revisited and the song Dry that inspired the title of her debut album... a "frank physiological description of man's failure to excite her". Pooka

"A pooka is an Irish goblin that appears charming, but then turns nasty," says Sharon Lewis, who along with Natasha Jones makes up Pooka — the folk answer to riot grrrl. With lyrics reflecting the energy and intimacy of women's close friendship, their music runs the gamut from soft to raucous, primarily on acoustic guitar accompanied by light percussion, a touch of sax, and sprinklings of electric guitar. They lean toward dissonant harmonies, twist comfortable melodies into odd shapes, stretch their voices to breaking point and drop spitfire punchlines into stories that are otherwise doing nothing to disturb the deceptive air of tranquility... This album will grow on you with each listening — you'll notice another interesting turn of phrase, a really terrific guitar lick, another impossible harmony. Let Pooka charm you and take you for that ride. (EL61624) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Raincoats

This is a classic album; originally released in 1979, it's now back in print! The Raincoats were one of the first punk-influenced women's bands to independently record, during the first wave of punk music. The movement began in the mid to late 70s, with music that was political and anarchistic, reflective of the alienated mood of the young adult population of working-class England. This was their debut release, and one of their more feminist; includes The Void (later covered by Courtney Love) and Lots. (GEF24622) CS: 15.98

Red Hot Organization: Various No Alternative

This 1994 release from the Red Hot Organization (Red Hot & Blue and Red Hot & Dance) offers up some tunes for the rest of us. They say, "It is our belief that these songs simultaneously create one beautiful clamor and serve as a soundtrack to this suspended moment in time... We have no better voice than a community of bands... who have helped awaken us to the fact that music not only has the power to speak to a generation but for a generation. Don't categorize. Just listen." Foremother Patti Smith introduces Memorial Song by describing the loss of friend Robert Mapplethorpe. Also contains selections by The Breeders, Sarah McLachlan, and current alt-rock anthems Smashing Pumpkins. Net proceeds will be donated to AIDS organizations worldwide. Here's a chance to expose yourself to some new sounds and support the ongoing battle against AIDS — two great reasons to recommend this album! (ARI8737) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Slits

The Peel Sessions

Recorded in '77-'78 for Jon Peel's Radio One program, this could very well become a collector's item in a few years! Featuring seven of this quintessential band's early songs (Love and Romance, Shop Lifting, So Tough, FM), it really epitomizes the anger and attitude of the early-to-mid punk movement, where women took the liberty to be as obnoxious as they damn well pleased. Remember that quick drum phrasing and guitar thumping, choppy vocals swooping in and out of (and behind) the music? God, they were great... (SFT9304) CS: 8.98

Little Earthquakes

If you're a Kate Bush fan, buy this! If you aren't a Kate Bush fan, buy this too — Tori possesses only KB's best qualities. The lyrics are intelligent and literary, the arrangements are tightly layered, her acoustic piano rivals Kate's in sheer beauty and melody, and her voice is slightly fuller. OK, OK, enough comparisons. Songs include the pop tune Leather, the poetic ballad Mother, plus the scappetta Mr. and Mrs. Gun, a haunting narrative of a rape (Yes I wore a stinky red thing does that mean I should spread for you, your friends, your father...?), highly recommended. (ATL82358) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Under the Pink

More candid observations about God, sex and personal relationships (often within the same song!), Tori takes some stylistic detours down the industrial, experimental path and pulls it all off with her usual disarming charm and aplomb. While Little Earthquakes was about a woman coming to grips with victimization, this 1994 effort describes a woman taking control both of her life and of her being. Includes Cornflake Girl, Bells for Her, Space Dog, The Witness, Yes Anastasia, Past the Mission and The Wrong Band. Thumbs up to her incredible voice as well! (ATL82567) CS: 10.98 ... ### Tribe 8

By the Time We Get to Colorado

We'll let this Bay-area queer-core band speak for itself: "We're validating cultural identity in the underground music scene for dykes... being dykes and playing music is political. If you refuse to conform in any way, and you state that fact in public repeatedly, and shout it, yell it, in spite of the fact that people may be spitting on you... and you insist on doing it anyway... and are confrontational about it, that is like the most militant politics that any artist can express." Expect extreme and explicit lyrics from this band whose name is a play on the word "tribe." Includes Lezbo-phobia. (OP1) CD: 10.98

Rock ♦ Pop

10,000 Maniacs MTV Unplugged

This 1993 release, an inspired final cadence to the ten-year period of musical growth and flourishing (yes, they're breaking up), is a collection of songs from throughout their career. As on Our Time in Eden, they call upon woodwinds, strings and percussion for many of the tracks. Includes a stunning rendition of Patti Smith's Because the Night, as well as acoustic versions of previously released songs such as Natalie Reads, These Are the Days, Candy Everybody Wants, and Jezabel. (EL81599) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Aimee Mann Whatever

This solo debut from the lead singer/songwriter of the now-defunct band Til Tuesday is for those who like their rock-n-roll well crafted. Aimee's warily melancholy alto is still the same, but the music is grittier and fuller; the songs are about loss, missed opportunities, love gone sour, regrets of dreams unfilled... in short, life. She's angrier, wiser, and sounding better than ever! (MG21017) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Andrews Sisters Greatest Hits

They were one of the defining sounds of the 1940s, and their watertight harmonies sound just as good today! Included are Patty, Maxene and Laverne's boppies — Hold Tight (Wait! Some Sealed Mama), Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, Rum and Coca-Cola — plus two duets with Bing Crosby, Don't Fence Me In and Ac-Cent-Tchu-Are the Positive, and more. Unfortunately, they don't write songs this well anymore! (CUR77400) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Annie Lennox Diva

"In a sense I feel like this is my very first album, and because of that it had to be something that represented me totally and exactly... I wanted to come up with material that was authentic and completely true to myself... In preparing for this album I also knew that I wanted to take my time, releasing it only when I felt it was strong enough — and not a moment before." Annie's 1992 solo debut proves that her artistry is a lot more than just half the Eurythmics. Includes Money Can't Buy It, Little Bird, The Gift. (ARI8704) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Barbra Streisand Back to Broadway

Idolized by gay men, some Lady Slipper staffers and their mothers, Barbra's appeal spans the generations. This sequel to her wildly successful Broadway Album is another testament to her ability to turn a song into a sensation. Highlights are Everybody Says Don't, a sentiment she has resisted throughout her career; I Have a Love; One Hand, One Heart, a duet with Johnny Mathis; and a feminist interpretation of Luck Be a Lady. Classic, timeless, the essence of "adult contemporary" music! (COL44189) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Basia

The Sweetest Illusion

This 1994 release is lushly-produced ear candy. It contains 11 songs, all written, arranged and produced by Basia and her longtime partner, Danny White — "the most live album we've made". Even though it includes songs with titles like The Prayer or A Happy Housewife, Perfect Mother, She Deserves It, Rachera's Wedding, most of us don't listen to Basia for the lyrics — it's the total sound we love! (EPC84225) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bette Midler

Experience the Divine/Greatest Hits

No one takes a song and makes it her own quite like Bette. They're all here — from her gloriously tacky early days: Only in Miami, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, Do You Want to Dance?... and also her more recent mega-hits: The Rose, From A Distance, Wind Beneath My Wings. Also includes One For My Baby (And One More For The Road), from her appearance as the final guest on the Tonight Show with Johnny Carson. (ATL82497) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bonnie Hayes Good Clean Fun

Many of you will remember Bonnie from Teresa Trull's tour in the late 80s, post Barbara Higbie... Bonnie's a SF Bay Area rock icon, writing for the likes of Huey Lewis and performing regularly with her band, Wild Combo. She's got light, sexy vocals and rollicking good-time rock 'n' roll, San Francisco style, plus a habit of writing infectious pop melodies infused with fun lyrics (see Teresa Trull's A Step Away for examples). Includes her hit Shelly's Boyfriend plus Girls Like Me, Raylene, Loverboy. (SLH112) CS: 9.98

Bonnie Raitt

Longing in Their Hearts

With 5 out of 12 originals and nearly all live vocals and tracks, Bonnie has reunited with co-producer Don Was, engineer Ed Cherney, and many of the same players who appeared on Nick of Time and Luck of the Draw; for this 1994 release, includes Love Sneakin' Up On You, Circle Dance, Hell to Pay, Dimming of the Day, Storm Warning and more. (CAP81427) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Nick of Time

Could be the best recording she's ever done; this 1989 release has a distinct air of maturity, and apparently grows out of her new sobriety. Includes her own The Road's My Middle Name and the title cut, about aging and realizing one is running out of time; two by Bonnie Hayes; and Nobody's Girl. Plenty of her signature blues, some background vocals by David Crosby and Graham Nash. (CAP91269) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly-recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Woman Be Wise, in an previously unreleased duet with Sippie Wallace; No Way to Treat a Lady; one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louise, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery; 19 in all, culled from her 11 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract! (WB26262) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 16.98

Carole King Tapestry

This classic, one of the best-selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Del Rubio Triplets Whip It

This 1991 release contains more priceless favorites from triplets Mila, Elena and Eadie Del Rubio: title track from Devo, (I Got) Ants in My Pants and I Feel Good from James Brown... Wake Up Little Susie, Chain of Fools, Chica Chica Boom Chic... and a version of the Stones' Satisfaction that puts Mick to shame. (DRT2) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Del Rubio Triplets Three Gals, Three Guitars

Utterly, utterly singular. This trio of triplets is recommended for those with a keen sense of camp! Mook Magazine describes them as an "ageless retro-lounge act" — they've been in the biz for over 40 years, touring with Bob Hope in the 50s, and have recently been rediscovered with the help of their friend and business confidant Pee Wee Herman. The Del Rubios have attracted a sizable gay following with unusual harmonies and imaginative arrangements that turn your old and new favorites inside out. This 1988 release includes their vision of the Pointer Sisters' Neutron Dance, the Bangles' Walk Like an Egyptian, plus These Boots Are Made For Walkin', Light My Fire, Hey Jude, Ding Dong The Witch Is Dead, Fever, and more. (DRT1) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.98

The Ellen James Society Reluctantly Wo

This 2-woman 2-man band combines the riveting energy of the punk movement with post-punk intricacy and accuracy... their music demands attention, captivating the listener both musically and lyrically. Lots of indie girls connections: the album features a live cut recorded with them; the two anemoes have been touring together; this record label was created by Amy Ray of the Indigo Girls, and she co-produced it with the 2 women of the band, Chris McGuire and Cooper Seay. You might recognize the Society's name — from The World According to Garp; Ellen James was a woman whose tongue was cut out by her rapist, and many women cut out their own tongues to express their support for her. (DAE91) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Eurythmics Be Yourself Tonight

Antha Franklin teams up with Annie Lennox here to perform the phenomenal feminist declaration Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves. "a song to celebrate the conscious liberation of the female state! Mothers, daughters and their daughters too! Women to women! We're singing with you... Sisters are doing it for themselves! Standin' on their own two feet! And ringin' on their own bells." (RCA5429) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Horse

God's Home Movie

A poet with a voice that defies gender in its range, Horse will blow you away! Looking for a companion to do her justice, Toni Childs and Anita Baker come to mind. Moving from the up-tempo Celebrate to the seductive and slow Natural Law, she causes quite a stir here among the Slippers... Her back-up musicians are top-notch too... A definite foot-mover not to be missed. (MCA10935) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jane Child

Here Not There

Remember the infectious hit Don't Want to Fall in Love? Jane's back with a 1993 funk-filled album that'll take you from R&B to the edge of alternative metal music. She's penned most songs here, and handles keyboards, synths, and at times "everything else." She also seems to be making some progressive statements lyrically: Mona Lisa Smiles is a sexy scorch about "lavender lovers"; I Do Not Feel As You Do celebrates independence and difference without apology. — Sarasvati takes a spiritual walk through Eastern ideology and music with some terrific percussion thrown in. Lyrics are included with this great dance album. (WB45296) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jane Olivor

In Concert

Janis Joplin's Greatest Hits

Includes Summertime, Piece of My Heart, Ball and Chain, Me and Bobby McGee, accompanied by Big Brother and the Holding Company, Kozmo Blues Band, and Full Tilt Boogie Band. (COL32168) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Janis Joplin

Songs include Woman Is Loser, On Sweet Mary, Me and Bobby McGee, Ball and Chain, Summertime, Tell Mama, Little Girl Blue. This definitive overview of her short but prolific career is a must-have for serious fans. (COL48848) CS: 39.99 ... CD: 51.98

Jennifer Warnes

Best of Jennifer Warnes

Some of her biggest hits here, including Right Time of the Night, I Knew A Heartache When I See One, Shot Through the Heart, I'm Restless, Come To Me, and more, from 1978 through 1982. (AR18348) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Track Record

A sort of "Greatest Hits" album, which really demonstrates her diversity. Includes cuts from The Key, Walk Under Ladders, Me Myself I, Joan Armatrading, Show Some Emotion, and the EP How Cruel. Also features two songs not recorded elsewhere, Heaven and Frustration. (AM3310) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joan Armatrading

Hearts and Flowers

This 1990 release, all written, performed and arranged by Joan, can best be described as the alter ego to The Shouting Stage. The subject matter is once again relationships, but this time focuses on the positive side: she explores the depth of true friendship in More Than One Kind of Love; talks about finding true love only when the rules of society are abandoned in Promise Land; and describes the wonderful changes in a person's outlook when love is found in The Power of Dreams. A must for fans, and a great place to start for newcomers to her unique blend of synthesized sounds and tender ballads. (AM5298) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Square the Circle

In ancient spirituality, the circle depicted the spirit, the square the material plane; squaring the circle was bringing a spiritual idea into material reality. On this 1992 release, she brings her art into real life, blending her smooth vocals with poignant, astute lyrics, and delivers messages of love and betrayal. She dives with heart and soul into topics such as infidelity on Weak Woman, abuse on Sometimes I Don't Wanna Go Home, on love and trust on True Love and title track. Most outstanding though is the song If Women Ruled the World — what a concept! (AM5388) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Joan Jett and the Blackhearts

Pure and Simple

Long-time dyke favorite Joan Jett bangs her telltale electric guitar with the Blackhearts for a non-stop rock experience. Teaming up song-writing with Bikini Kill's Kathleen Hanna and L7's Donna Sparks, she commands your attention with in-your-face lyrics and a made-to-be-played-loud sound. Favorites include Rubber & Glue, a take-off on the childhood limerick; Spinner, and You Got a Problem, all of which carry the L7 or Bikini Kill influence — also Activity Girl. (WB45567) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell

Court & Spark

We think this is one of her best releases ever, so we're offering it for all you nostalgic types. (ASY1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Night Ride Home

From the first cricket call on the title song, this album pulls the listener in with its mellow, sensuous sound. Described as a mixture of her older and more recent styles, this 1991 release is highly accessible yet still retains the Joni Mitchell stamp of individuality. With a richness musically, lyrically, and vocally, titles include Cherokee Louise, about an abused child, Slouching Towards Bethlehem, and Ray's Dad's Cadillac. Strongly suggested listening material. (GEF24302) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Blue

Here's another classic classic, it's time to replace that old worn-out vinyl! (REP2039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Karla Bonoff

One of our favorites, with Love Again, Isn't It Always Love, Someone to Lay Down Beside Me. Most songs are original; in addition to her outstanding voice, she contributes piano and acoustic guitar; Wendy Waldman and Linda Ronstadt on background vocals. (COL34672) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Restless Nights

Includes the beautifully harmonic song Baby Don't Go and The Water is Wide. We love her. Midline. (COL35799) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Kristen Hall

Real Life Stuff

The debut album from this Atlanta-based singer/songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and, well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice; it's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy... we back, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE5055) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's), and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Gang of Four and B-52's). It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Cur in the Country, and some with I Have My Reasons, highly recommended! (HST19216) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Be Careful What You Wish For...

Kristen has one of those hickory-smoked voices that could make the most wildly exuberant laughs sound wistful. This 1994 release is a big heaping plateful of the "Atlanta Sound", the gently rolling beats of electrified folk, and some help from friends: Matthew Sweet, Sara Lee, Jules Shear, Michelle Malone, and i-Girl Emily Saliers. Although in Don't Tell Me Kristen sings a careworn "Well, to tell you the truth I'm lonely, but that is a feeling I do well", the gist of the album is that she is beginning to get some ideas as how to navigate through the stormy ocean of life (see Following My Compass). Though far from content and serene, she has learned enough from her burns to realize "Baby, look before you leap into the fire" (from Heaven Knows). Good stuff for those beautiful, thoughtful sad-little-smile days. (HST10326) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro

Christmas and the Beads of Sweat

One of her most wonderful early albums, and tapes are now at a great sale price; includes Brown Earth, When I Was A Freeport And You Were The Main Drag, Up On The Roof, and more. (COL30259) CS: 4.98 ... CD: 13.98

Walk the Dog & Light the Light

The voice, harmonies and keyboards are all Laura on this 1993 release destined to be a favorite among her fans. (Editor: I'm reminiscing about my 16th summer, living in Provincetown, first job and first rent, staying out all night to the strains of Stoned Soul Picnic — ah... Well, moving ahead a quarter century.) Soft rhythms chase each other song after song with messages of love, respect for animals, reverence for artists and hope for children. She covers a topic here not often mentioned in mainstream media: In The Descent of Luna Rose, dedicated to her period. Other songs such as Louis's Church and Broken Window will keep this album on your personal play list for a long time to come. (COL52411) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Marianne Faithfull

The Best of Marianne Faithfull

This 1994 release chronicles a career now in its 4th decade, of the 60's icon who became a drug casualty in the 70's, then cleaned up and began to record again. Includes her first hit, the 60's standard As Tears Go By, as well as songs from during and after her drug addiction, Sister Morphine, Broken English, the haunting song The Ballad of Lucy Jordan which was re-popularized in the film Thelma and Louise; her nearly recorded rendition of Patti Smith's Ghost Dance; and She, a track from a forthcoming album. This anthology documents one of the most intriguing and legendary figures in rock and pop culture. (ISL24004) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Michelle Malone

New Experience

This Atlanta artist takes a rest from her recent tours with the Indigos to re-issue the 10 songs from her first album, with the addition of 6 new tracks recorded at Daemon Studios (actually Amy Ray's living room). Her vocals are gritty yet eloquent, revealing a woman who has lived through a lot, but still possesses passion and charismatic warmth. Two songs co-written with Kristen Hall, the real are originals, some acoustic, others more rockin'; this 1993 release offers a welcome glimpse into her past as well as her future. (AJ5025) CD: 15.98

My Sister Jane

Pain in the Middle

The perfect follow-up to their debut tape, this 1992 release is a fabulous blend — a kind of 90's kinda statement — with Trace Wren's cool jangly lead guitar setting the sometimes languorous, sometimes sharp feelings the songs generate. Very well-travelled rock 'n roll — look for these girls to gain more and more fame, if not notoriety! The 13 songs include the Cowboy Junkies-like You're All I've Got, the R.E.M. tip o' the hat Grantville, and the totally inspiring Pain (a country western riff complete with synchronized pants of ecstatic agony). Don't miss out on the fun here. (MSJ2) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Oleta Adams

Evolution

The title of this 1993 release is a fitting one. The 2-time Grammy nominee, who has been called everything from a jazz crooner and gospel beller to an R&B soulstress and pop singer, really comes into her own on this stunning collection of intimate vocal stylings. She showcases her own considerable songwriting talent with 6 originals, and interprets the work of other writers like James Taylor and Billy Joel. (PLG314985) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Circle of One

Discovered in a small hotel piano bar by the band Tears for Fears, Oleta was first tapped to contribute vocals to their 1989 album — in fact, they refused to finish recording until she consented to quit her job and join them! One listen to the smoky, glowing embers of her incredible voice shows you why! Features the hit Got Here, plus Rhythm of Life as well as Little, I've Got a Right and other originals. Pull up a comfy chair, pour a cup of tea, and warm yourself by her fire! (PLG946346) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Hot Organization: Various

Red Hot & Blue

This collection, created as a benefit for AIDS, is a sensational treatment of Cole Porter songs by hot, current artists. Its range includes a traditional rendition of You Do Something to Me by Sinead O'Connor, a heartbreaking version of So In Love by k.d. lang, and contributions by David Byrne, Annie Lennox, Neneh Cherry, and others. This is one compilation tape that really works, with eclectic nature, originality and imagination... a great album for expanding your horizons! (CHR21796) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rickie Lee Jones

Traffic From Paradise

Sincky coffee-house images of a poet and a 6-string come quickly to mind on this '93 release. With power and style, her song portraits conjure up images as diverse as the title might suggest. Some stand-outs include Beat Angels, with its catchy rhythm, and Rebel Rebel, which while it won't fit into the coffee-house scenario, is not to be missed. (GEF24902) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sam Phillips

Martins and Bikinis

Sam Phillips (not of Sun Studios fame) has created a 1994 album of swirly summer-of-love keyboard driven melodies that are counterpoised by her beautifully pessimistic and tenebrous voice. She's a dropout from Christian Rock stardom, and many of her songs can be read as jabs at the God-packaging and marketing industry. Although she has sauntered away from the institutionalized fold, she has thankfully retained great religious metaphors and images, and uses them to good effect. The album was produced by hubby T-Bone Burnett and incorporates the talents of REM's Peter Dinklage, XTC's Colin Moulding and Van Dyke Parks. One of many highlights is a top-notch version of John Lennon's Gimme Some Truth. Mmmmmmm, good!! (VIR26438) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sophie B. Hawkins

Whaler

This 1994 album reflects the profound talent of a songwriter whose lyrics remain challenging, bold, and sometimes cryptic with a wry, poignantness that gives her songs an emotional depth. Her eclectic influences have been fully integrated into her own unique musical style: in addition to pop/dance tunes, there are stripped-down ballads and some, well, Cole Porter-ish sounds here, a la Red, Hot & Blue, especially in Sometimes I See. Also includes Right Beside You; don't miss this one! (COL53300) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tanita Tikaram

Ancient Heart

Cassettes at half-price! There's a quality about this British woman's voice that's almost mesmerizing. It's so deep, yet light and airy; so expressive, so unusual. If you want something with a truly unique sound, try this. All original songs. Tanika on all vocals and guitar, very tastefully and simply produced, recommended! (REP25839) CS: 4.98 CD: 15.98

The Sweet Keeper

Cassettes on sale! This follow-up to her debut album contains more original songs of inner secrets and stories, in her amazing, exotic voice that's a good octave below most women's ranges — and that much richer. Beautiful melodies and arrangements; includes Little Sister Leaving Town, Once & Not So. (REP26091) CS: 4.98 CD: 15.98

Everybody's Angel

Another great album at another great price! This 1991 release manages to be incredibly rich, simple and sophisticated all at the same time. While the list of instruments is impressive in itself — fugal horn, alto and tenor sax, trumpet, guitar, drums, piano, Hammond organ, loop horn, and a whole string orchestra — Tanita's deep, husky voice soars above, weaving through lyrics which defy easy interpretation. Jennifer Warnes provides vocal support on Mud In Any Water and Only the Close We Love. (REP26486) CS: 4.98 CD: 15.98

Eleven Kinds of Loneliness

Again, cassettes at half-price! Simply the most distinctive voice in the biz, guaranteed to make those unfamiliar with her stop and ask, "Who is that?" On this 1992 release, her 4th, you may ask "What in the world is she talking about?" Well, we can't give you any answers to that, but rest assured, she's the real thing! Her voice and lyrics become dance partners, each dependent upon the moves of the other, yet each are mesmerizing in and of themselves. Includes Heal You, You Make the Whole World Cry. (REP26835) CS: 4.98 CD: 15.98

House of Hope

Combining a voice like Roland Gift's and the intensity of Melissa Etheridge, Toni Childs adds something all her own to create unique and compelling songs. Her themes on this latest album are varied — spouse and child abuse, falling in love, angst — but no simple phrase can express the nuances she manages to pack into each piece. With a great voice, complex music and soul-searching lyrics, this is a fantastic follow-up to a promising debut album. Listen for the title song during one of the driving sequences in the movie Thelma and Louise. (AM5358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Woman's Boat

Toni has always used her music as a vehicle for intensely personal views of major social issues; but on this 1994 release, she journeys beyond that, into the spiritual realm. Thematically it traces the course of women's lives through the cycle of birth, growth, death and rebirth. Many songs are danceable (we expect Lay Down Your Pain to hit the clubs any time now), and there's a world music feel with some tracks recorded in India, and contributions by Peter Gabriel, Robert Fripp, and members of Zap Mama. If you're already familiar with her incredible voice, you'll probably be buying this anyway. If not, buy it for the artwork, and because she dedicates it "to the female spirit in every living thing." Amazing, outstanding, and insistently recommended. (GEF24618) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Philadelphia O.S.T.

Includes the haunting Oscar-nominated Bruce Springsteen and Neil Young songs that bookend this important film; iconic but satisfying pieces from the Indigo Girls and Sade; and, of course, the transcendent Maria Callas aria, La Mamma Morta, from the most compelling and talked-about scene in the movie. (EPC57624) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Also features works by the Persuasions, Rockapella, Take 6, True Image, and more by Ladysmith. Referring to Roe v. Wade, this 1994 sampler is designed to spur awareness of women's reproductive rights. Several songs were recorded just for the album and reflect the theme: Madonna's Goodbye to Innocence, Kristen Hersh's Hysterical Bending, John Wesley Harding's Right to Choose, Danielle Dax's Defiled, Poster Children's Roe v. Wade, the Waterlilies cover Helen Reddy's I Am Woman, there's a remix of Betty's It's Not Unusual, 16 great songs in all. (SIR45645) CD: 10.98

Deloris & The Sisters perform Hail Holy Queen, My Guy (My God), I Will Follow Him, Shout. Also includes Deloris & The Ronettes' opening lounge medley: Fortieth Anniversary, Rescue Me, Lady Soul's If My Sisters In Trouble, and more. Recommended, of course! ## Alison Brown

This innovative banjoist/guitarist/composer continues to pursue diverse musical directions on this 1994 instrumental album, as she draws upon Cajun, Australian, Celtic, Native American, Caribbean and jazz rhythms and traditions. World class accompanists include Paul McCandless on soprano sax, Andy Narrell on steel pans, Vassar Clements on fiddle, and others on wood flutes, didjeridu, Uilleann pipes, and a host of exciting and interesting sounds and combinations on these 10 original compositions. We encourage you to partake of the gift of Alison's talent — it's rare, and full of fun, whimsy, and beauty. (VAN79477) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss

I've Got That Old Feeling

This prodigious artist picked up the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Recording for this album at the 1991 ceremonies. At the ripe old age of 19! Expert fiddler and soulful vocalist, she breathes vitality and passion into these songs about leaving and being on the road. She and banjo-playing Alison Brown are the show-stoppers, along with other members of her acoustic band. (ROU0275) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Brown

Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Bela Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Allison steal the show here — Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle; Dave Gribman on mandolin; Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, one of our Top Pix for 1992, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this, so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79459) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Hills

Woman of a Calm Heart

What most of us aspire to be, for sure...and the title song, written by assistant producer Ilene Weiss, is alone worth the price of this beautiful contemporary folk album. Anne's voice is pure and smooth, crystal clear, and her carefully-selected repertoire is a perfect match. Includes a lovely duet with Livingston Taylor, Akasha Wind, plus Eliza Gilkyson's Tennessee Road, Politics, her own The Child Within, and Angel in Paradise, featuring background vocals by Rory Block. (FF464) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen

Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the results are as fabulous as their fans might expect! It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their acappella work; most songs include back-up by producer/cellist Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...). Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anne Louise White

Then Again

Flying solo after work with both Trapeze and the Sanders, Kate and White trio, Ann blends a blues sound with contemporary folk for a gentle 1993 album of stories and life lessons. Includes a couple of covers, such as Sandy Denny's Who Knows Where the Time Goes? and a soft-voiced version of Unchained Melody, for those who like the song but not the Righteous Brothers! Primarily originals though; not to be missed is the title song, about magazine images and how to overcome them ("Take the magazine with the pretty little model, put her teeth my puppies and she keeps my floor dry"). ## Bare Necessities

English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lea, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddia in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk-dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and fitting beauty sounds Baroque! classical! new-agey, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, soar, float, and chase each other with countermelodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, flageolet, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Different Stories

A must-have album for all lovers of great harmonies, and one of our favorite new additions for 1993! With sparse acoustic accompaniment (the occasional fiddle, guitar, bass and drums), the fledgling members of this Canadian trio open their mouths and simply soar — gorgeous sounds emit, reminiscent of the Roches or Two Nice Girls. Their repertoire includes the fantastic Why Can't You Read My Mind, a lush acappella version of Hoagy Carmichael and Johnny Mercer's Skylark, a tale of spiritual journeying called Back to the Desert, and the airborne Get Up and Fly. Imported from Canada; very highly recommended! (TB5002) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

blackgirls

Procedure

blackgirls are in reality 3 white women from North Carolina who bring together vocal excellence and classical training on a variety of acoustic instrumentation (along on violin; no percussion) to create a new folk/punk sound. The melodies reflect their musical background, adding a simple beauty to the thought-provoking lyrics imparted in 3-part harmonies. The tempo changes from song to song, from dreamy to jarring, keeping listener interest sparked. Produced by Joe Boyd, known for his work with Fairport Convention, Sandy Denny, and 10,000 Maniacs, to give you a clue about the sound. Includes A Visit to the Behaviorist. Highly recommended! ### Happy

When the computer ate my somewhat rambling first review of this recording not once but thrice, I figured it was Divine Intervention, and thus went back and listened again. How to describe the uncategorizable? To compare them thematically and musically to the Indigos, Bush, Joni, Roches & Ramcoats does not do justice...But, she ain't fair, a fact these girls recognize and (sometimes cheerfully) lament. No simple downer misuses of life and love's lumps, but wistful observations, multi-layered declarative chants, honest (& therefore clever) statements — all with lovely vocals and instrumentation. Buy this, I mean it. (MAM0024) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Caroline Aiken

Live at the Attic

A mainstay of the Atlanta acoustic scene, Caroline Aiken is someone who has paid her dues. Her voice is well seasoned by the heartaches of life, and her songs are those of a woman who has gone through the wringer and shares what she finds on the other side. The Indigo Girls, who credit her for getting them started as professionals, join in on the rollicking Salters' Aiken composition (and Indigo Girls concert staple), White House Blues. Emily contributes vocals and guitar on Another on the Rise... and Dede Vogt is featured on several tracks. That this finely-honed talent has not made the big time is one of the great injustices of our time. But this 1993 release, recorded at Eddie's Attic, is a surefire antidote to musical mediocrity. ## Carrie Newcomer

An Angel At My Shoulder

All you who are crazy for Mary-Chapin Carpenter, give this artist a serious listen! She's by no means a newcomer to the scene, with several albums already in her discography, though this 1994 release marks her debut on a national independent label. It features a wide range of vocal stylings, from lough and punchy to warm and tender, with her resonant voice the constant. Her surfacing rise as contemporary poet is a resounding accent to her distinct musical abilities. When there's an "angel" in the title these days, it seems like you can be assured there's top-notch folk talent inside. (Iris DeMent, The Story, Rory Block, Patty Larkin, and Carrie's no exception. ## The Carter Family

Anchored in Love: 1927-1928

The recordings of the Carter family — husband and wife A.P. and Sara, and Sara's cousin Maybelle who married A.P.'s brother Eck — are among the most important in the history of American folk and country music. Released here in entirety are their first 2 recording sessions for the RCA Victor record label during 1927 and 1928 (originally on 78's, of course) — and some of their most classic tunes are preserved! Keep On the Sunny Side (their theme song); Wildwood Flower; Little Darling Pal of Mine; Single Girl, Married Girl; Will You Miss Me When I'm Gone; and even my personal favorite Chewing Gum, revived by Alex Dobkin many years later, all appear here! Sara is the primary vocalist, Maybelle the guitarist, and Maybelle and A.P. chime in for some harmony work (and hey, let's give him credit for driving them to this gig). Music historians and folk/country fans, don't miss this! (ROU1064) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis

From Years to Hours

This woman's stunning voice is going to be compared to Karla Bonoff and Cheryl Wheeler for a long time, I can tell. What's going to set her apart is an uncanny blend of strength and vulnerability, a gorgeous combo, if you ask me! This is her second recording, and features 11 originals packed with evocative, bittersweet lyrics, a great folk/rock band (including Janet Hood on piano — remember Jade and Sarsaparilla? — and a fabulous sax player, Myanna Pontopiddan), and of course, Catie's fantastic voice and acoustic guitar. Highlights include the sadly sweet Grandmother's Name ("I've got my grandmother's name! But she don't remember who I am... Is it morning? Is it night?/ She don't know/ Can't remember which is dark and which is light"), the Ferroni-ish Wallpaper Dreams, and the hilarious Preacher. Recommended. (MGS102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

Whatcha Gonna Swing Tonight?

Joined on this 1992 release by James Dapogny's Chicago Jazz Band, this talented vocal trio takes us back to the Swingland era — the great jazz of the 20's through 40's, and this reviewer can't think of a more perfect place for the Chenilles! Their fabulous harmonies and ability to be equally expressive whether punching out a lickety-split bop or sinking along in a languorous croon make these gals a must! Includes Sentimental Journey, Goody Goody, Rum and Coca Cola, Little White Lies. Recommended! (RHS0) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm

From a hilarious reworking of La Bamba, wherein the refrain becomes "listen to your mama," to an ode to chocolate, to a beautiful original by Connie Huber called Roadmaps, to their exquisite harmonizing on jazz classics like The Wind and Hummin' To Myself, the Chenilles lift their artistry to new heights on this 1991 release. (RH39) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Half a Book

On this 1987 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (AM0107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Before we encountered this album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Uanna soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual: strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes; best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Driving Home

The sweet-sounding, rhyming slices of life produced on this 1993 release are mostly nostalgic and thoughtful, delivered in Cheryl's straightforward manner and lovely alto. She writes with insight about relationship dead-ends, and with true appreciation of the changing seasons. The tempo is occasionally lightened by selections such as the tongue-in-cheek Don't Forget the Guns. With vocal support on a few selections by Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, and Patty Larkin (and Jonathan Edwards, who also produced) how can you go wrong? (PH1152) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts, in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses." Re-release available in early 1995. (PH1162) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Future Fossils

This is Christine's first album (she had an earlier EP called Husbands and Wives, about relationships—the unequal kind!) full of social commentary, 50/50 humor and serious, somewhere between five and studio, of original songs. This artist is someone the NY Times calls "a pungent folk-pop humorist...writes wryly comic vignettes of city life that also have an emotional edge." Includes Cold Pizza for Breakfast, a spoof of diets, Regretting What I Said which skewers men who find it difficult to tell the truth, and Don't Ever Call Your Sweetheart by His Name which turns the tables on men who've called women "darling" for centuries...this song was banned from Gracie Mansion. During a discussion of New Age music with this reviewer, Christine said, "My mantra is pizza." (PH1104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Beau Woes

From undoubtedly the sharpest wit in the contemporary folk scene, it's splendidly entertaining, lively, honest and eclectic album. Includes her clever Biological Time Bomb; her song for all those athletically challenged, Ballad of a Ballgame; the more serious Gettin' Used to Leavin' with veteran folkie Eric Andersen; her spoof on Camping; and other humorous and cynical vignettes. A gem. (PH1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind

First of all, if you are a Suzanne Vega listener, this album is an absolute must for your collection...Christine's Mysterious Woman adds new dimensions to the existential meanings of defrosting the refrigerator! The song accurately describes the delicious experience of eating sushi (sucking down a bucketful of tentacle alme; or, chewing the suction cups off the bottom of an old bathtub mat) and other activities tolerated in the name of love. Both satire and good folk music fit this album, and even a duet with Livingston Taylor. (PH1121) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Attainable Love

Ten more serio-comic songs that debunk, explore and create the myths of contemporary (het) romance; includes Shopping Cart of Love and Sensitive New Age Guys, as well as the somewhat more serious Victim/Volunteer, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From, and Life. A straightforward acoustic production from this insightful observer/ commentator. (PH1132) LP: 4.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin
Compass

People Magazine said: "She is a sly wily songwriter who seems to have undergone an irony-lift... It's as semi-detached observer that Lavin is most striking, though, if we could get her and Loudon Wainwright III named our national folk music laureates, we'd have most of the country's problems accurately described, if not solved, in no time." This 1991 release takes a light-hearted look at inter-personal relationships, and includes Blind Dating Fun, I Bring Out the Worst in You, Replaced, and more... title song is a response to the off-beat line "I'd be lost without you," which made her wonder if they were dating a compass! Recommended! (PH1142) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin/Live at Cactus Cafe
What Was I Thinking?

Captured on tape one night at a live performance at a small Texas club in 1993, when Christine forgot to tell the audience about the taping... so all the audience spontaneity — and sassa-back — was preserved! She performs some of her old (Bald Headed Men, Shopping Cart of Love) and new favorites (We Are The True Americans, Dear Dan, The Dakota); and as a bonus track, you get the studio recorded What Was I Thinking? The Dance Mix... How can you miss this Saturday night event? Well, if you did, you don't have to anymore. (PH1159) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cindy Kallet
Working on Wings to Fly

"Listening to you is like lying on your back while someone feeds you grapes," said someone to this Martha's Vineyard musician. We rarely carry LPs of folksinger-with-guitar music unless there's something really distinctive about it and in this case it's her enchanting voice—a good octave lower than your average folksinger but with the same sort of timbre heard in the clearest soprano. An outstanding acappella number in 3 parts (with friend), plus other original songs about New England coastal life. Accomplished guitar accompaniment. Highly recommended. (FL13) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet/Ellen Epstein/M. Ciccone
Only Human

We're so glad that Cindy, Ellen, and Michael again collaborate for this 1993 release of vocal traditional and contemporary folk tunes, because they have such a warmly healing and elegant sound. Over half of the 15 songs are performed acappella, with the rest accompanied by various combinations of guitar, hammered dulcimer, piano, violin, cittern and conga (this last by Marytha Patrath of Libana). Titles include I'm a Mammal, I But a Little Girl, The Mhairi Ban, Be Like A Bird which you may know from Libana's repertoire, and Enya's Evening Falls. O lovers of the human voice, we do recommend this to you! (OAM2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cindy Mangsen
Songlines

Cindy's smooth, exceptional alto has been enjoyed by us for years on the album Voices which she recorded with Anne Hills and Pricilla Herdman... and you can hear this trio acappella once again on one of the highlights of this 1992 album: Nancy White's humorous (and often true) satire Daughters of Feminists, which several of our customers have sought! Accompaniment is exquisite, featuring instruments such as oboe, bassoon, concertina, plus Abby Newton's cello. Both traditional and original material included; all in all, a rich, deep, veritable feast for lovers of essential folk music. (CRMS) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Claudia Schmidt/ Sally Rogers
Closing the Distance

An absolute aural delight by two of the finest musicians in the acoustic music universe. They trade licks, leads and harmonies on their first joint album of original, traditional and new material. Includes Lovely Agnes, Mama, I Miss You Tonight, the acappella Appalachian Round, a Native American melody Hey, Hey Waterway, I Walk in Beauty. Highly recommended! (FF425) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt
Essential Tension

Her most personal statement to date, this 1991 release of all original material communicates an introspectiveness that clearly marks a period of profound growth and change for the artist. Her voice has a powerful new edge and, with its incredible 3-octave range, has never been more expressive. The album reflects a greater maturity as both a composer and a poet in love with the sound and meaning of language. Worth the 3-year wait! (RH39) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt
It Looks Fine From Here

This 1994 album, Claudia's first solo album in 3 years, features an amazingly full and vibrant sound. The inspired vocals are accompanied by her trademark dulcimer and 12-string guitar, augmented by 6-string and innovative percussion with traces of African, Appalachian, and Caribbean influences. All music and lyrics are original, including two lovely instrumentals, and as is common to her music, these are folk songs with a distinctly spiritual bent. Quiet Hills is a hymn of hope and healing, and the uplifting, sing-along chorus of Rising will simply do good things for your heart. (RH84) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Cowboy Junkies
Whites Off Earth Now!!

Recorded live in 1986, this is the little-known first recording by the Cowboy Junkies. It includes eight covers (that don't sound anything like the originals) of material by artists ranging from Bruce Springsteen to John Lee Hooker and Robert Johnson, plus one original by Margo and Michael Timmins. Margo is so forsy that she steams on cuts like State Trooper and Forgive Me. Slow and smoky, this album is highly recommended. (RCA2380) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies
The Trinity Sessions

Margo Timmins is the vocalist of this mostly-Timmins ensemble, and her voice is the distinguishing characteristic of the group; it's smoky, moody, bluesy, evocative... and electric guitar is the prevailing instrumentation, making for a heady ambience. Includes the loveliest version of I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry ever recorded; and a cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane. Recorded live in Toronto. (RCA8568) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies
Black Eyed Man

This album, the Junkies' 4th, is — dare we say it? — more upbeat than their previous honey-drippin' pace. Not that this is fast, mind you, if just picks up the beat a tad. Margo's voice continues to strengthen, as if she were taking her vitamins now, yet still with that sweet hickory-smoked flavor, for which the word "languid" could have been created... We love how the instruments are recorded to sound like they're in a hazy club, each musician staring off into space wondering if the boss will spring for burgers and beer... includes If You Were the Woman and I Was the Man, Cowboy Junkies Lament. Recommended. (RCA61049) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies
Pale Sun Crescent Moon

More of their late-night-driving-through-the-heartland sound. More of their sad, quietly mournful tales of the down and out. Even though their song Pale Sun poses the question "Is it better to have words left unsaid than to have words misinterpreted?" you already know that their answer, on this 1994 release, is a careworn yes. (RCA66344) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Legends of Rainmaker

Most notable here, on her second release, is an original coun-try-rock song Rosie Strike Back, a passionate plea for a woman to leave an abusive relationship, on which she is backed by Bonnie Raitt... second, a beautiful cover of the early 60's hit Greenfields (surely some of you remember that? "Once there were greenfields kissed by the sun..."). A beautiful follow-up to Pilgrims. (GC71323) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Pilgrims

If you think folk music is lacking lyrically, melodically, or spiritually, never fear. Eliza Gilkyson is here! This accomplished singer-songwriter has created this dazzling album from her very heart, and it's sure to touch a chord in yours. As a captain in self-exploration, she charts aspects of her quest for love and understanding with a compelling, magnetic voice — at times reminiscent of the qualities of Chris Williamson or Ferron. Includes Material Man ("...looking with the dollars...miserable envy madness..."), Foolish Heart, Calling All Angels. Her first release since her out-of-print 1979 debut album on Helios Records, which we had long ago...incredibly talented, intensely aware, searching and caring, Eliza offers a musical gift not to be passed by. Highly recommended. (GC71307) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Through the Looking Glass

On this 1993 release, the artist continues to explore a range of experiences, from personal relationships to life's mysteries, through her beautifully melodic musical framework. Includes Santa Fe about her love/hate relationship with her town of residence that has now become quite commercialized; her favorite, All You Want, about the dynamics of the heart; Odyssey, dedicated to men on a journey of self-discovery; I Become the Moon, for women getting in touch with their powerful mysteries long suppressed by organized religion; and Emmanuel, inspired by the beautiful hymns of the Anglican church. (PVT2109) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Four Bitchin' Babes
Life According to 4 Bitchin' Babes

Christine Lavin plus Patty Larkin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingerett were recorded Live at the Birchmere, alternately entitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair..., their unforgettable concert tour together has been eternalized and immortalized here. You'll get to experience their humor, indescribable voices, and very on-target material. Includes Junk Food, Ladies Lunch, Sensitive New Age Guys, Prisoners of Their Hairsdos, Not Bad For a Broad, These Boots Are Made For Walkin', and Home Is Where the Heart Is, a touching vignette by Sally about a lesbian couple and a gay couple. Approx. 60 minutes... recommended! (PH1140) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Four Bitchin' Babes
...Four Bitchin' Babes, Volume 2

This 1993 release — subtitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair... — features the current babes (Christine Lavin, Sally Fingerett, Megan McDonough, and Julie Gold), returning with their second volume of song, wit and wisdom. Highlights include Julie Gold's (Fun To Be) Perfect and her great song From A Distance (though I still think that the Apollo 8 astronauts who wrote some of these very same words in 1968, quoted in a book about composting called Let It Rot, ought to be given credit for inspiration); Christine Lavin's lyrics to the Jeopardy theme and her cover of Sealed With a Kiss; Megan McDonough's Butter; and Sally Fingerett's Take Me Out to Eat. And they all do harmony vocals on each other's songs. Of course recommended! (PH1150) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Freyda & Acoustic Attitude
Midnight at Cabell Hall

If there's a more beautiful voice than Freyda Epstein's in all of folkdom, please someone tell me whose it is! We've been her major fan since her days with Trapezoid, and she shines as brightly on this 1993 collaboration with Ralph Gordon (bass, violin) and Bob Vasile (guitar, cittern, vocals). Freyda is also an exceptional violinist and violist whose playing style blends classical technique with organic folk textures, painting musical pictures of intense mood and color. The musical arrangements here are at once classy and classical, lovely and timeless — it's a dramatic debut release which we highly recommend! (RH55) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Grace Griffith
Every Shade and Hue

In addition to her work with the Celtic ensemble Connemara, this DC-area artist has a noteworthy solo repertoire, which she gifts us with on this 1993 album. Songs here range from haunting ancient Irish ballads to works by contemporary songwriters such as Betsy Rose and Anna Lalec, all performed in her ethereal, glorious, poignantly beautiful voice. Guests such as Freyda Epstein, Martin Simpson, Marcy Marxer and others create a sparkling array of finely crafted settings for songs of every hue and shade. Full of grace, and recommended! (GG001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Heartbeats Rhythm Quartet
Spinning World

Fresh from a '92 tour with 10,000 Maniacs and Mary-Chapin Carpenter, this lovely innovative 4-woman ensemble released their debut album, and we think it'll put the happy in your bones! Sweet, engaging vocal harmonies, kickin' Ole Timey fiddles and washboard and accordion and guitar and bass — but with a contemporary twist that adds up to pure pleasure — some have called their sound "zyde-grass", commenting on their sharp rhythmic attack and intense approach to Appalachian string band music. They serve up a delightful mix of traditionals (Colton-Eyed Joe and Black Mountain Rag), a cover (Jean Ritchie's Blue Diamond Mine), and a mess of originals, like the ecstatic coming-of-age in They Don't Know You, the Go-Gosh Power to Run, or the pop-Cajun opener, Ocean. It's a sizzler — highly recommended! (GL2111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Early Morning Rain

This classic has recently been rescued from out-of-print land, and a good thing it is, because it was one of their best original volumes. ## Indigo Girls

We've gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area where they've played frequently, so as they debut on a major label, we thought it time to answer to our customers' wishes. Folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, need, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains five cut-out Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls, w/Ellen James Society

Nomads * Indians * Saints

While the music of Emily Saliers and Amy Ray is firmly rooted in the folk-rock tradition, this 1990 release leans more towards the contemporary-pop end of the spectrum. Thoughtful, introspective and self-challenging are still apt descriptions of their lyrical content, but the music has a harder edge to it, especially those songs which feature Amy's husky voice. With guest appearances by Mary Chapin Carpenter on Southland in the Springtime and the Ellen James Society on I, 2, 3, A Must for fans who want to follow the evolution of the band. (EPC46620) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Live: Back On the Bus Y'all

This 1991 release is an 8-song album containing live renditions of some of their most often-requested material from their earlier albums, plus their cover of Dylan's All Along the Watchtower (not currently available on other titles) and a previously released version of I, 2, 3 thrown in for good measure. They are accompanied on several selections by the Ellen James Society. Rather than lyrics, you'll find four photos in the insert. (EPC47508) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rites of Passage

This 1992 release rides high on a rhythmic undercurrent of Latin and African percussion, a new maturity in songwriting, and a renewed sense of vitality in their delivery. Includes guest vocal appearances by the Roches, Jackson Browne and David Crosby; great fiddle by Lisa Germano; includes Virginia Woolf, Cedar Tree, Ghost. Emily Saliers says, "The freshness of this album is that we recorded these songs without any preconceived notions of how they should sound." (EPC48865) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Swamp Ophelia

This May 1994 release covers a broad range of emotions and musical thoughts, from Power of Two, a simple, hopeful love song, to Touch Me Fair, a raw opus that deals with ego, the industry and true love, then journeys lyrically and musically toward chaos. Least Complicated is about learning lessons in love and life, and This Train (Revised) is a stark, powerful piece written after a visit to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. Guest artists include Jane Siberry, Lisa Germano, and the Roches. (EPC57621) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jaime Morton

That Wild Blue

Her second album is an outstanding, harder-edged follow-up to her debut; her vocals are stunning and heart-wrenching, her guitar work accomplished (Patty Larkin, look out!), and her lyrics always literate. Includes some ballads, some rockers, songs about taking risks in life (Amelia, The Bicycle Song, and love (Not Forgiven, Last Chance). Her wry sense of humor shines through on Frank Perdue, a statement on the genetic engineering of chickens, and tempers the grief of love lost in The King Came in, my favorite Elvis reference to date. Lots of harmony and other instrumentation; highly recommended! (ECR001) CD: 15.98

Animals Are Moving

We can't pin it down. The story has it, Cate Curtis has it, it's that bending, tugging, grabbing vocal thing, and it's Jaime's signature. This 1989 debut album by a gifted singer-songwriter showcases a wide range in musical styles, from folk rock to jazz, all rich in their instrumental and vocal arrangements. Songs include True Love and Feeding the Lonely; testaments to opening up to love, and the very upbeat and sensual Pulse Of My Dream. (SAR578008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Janie Mitchell

Psalm & Squall

First you think that she sounds like Jane Siberry, then like a slightly disgruntled Enya, and by the third song you realize that Janie Mitchell is unlike anyone you've heard before. Drawing upon the influences of medieval church music and traditional acoustic airs, this 1992 album combines the ambient timelessness of ancient melodies with electronic synthesized sound and choral harmony. Stormy lyrics are delivered with bluesy wails and Celtic and Eastern European intonations... both her Welsh heritage and the Portland, Oregon progressive music scene are heard here. Her angelic voice and diverse instrumentation make this an unusually fascinating folk album. Recommended! (NWR454) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Between the Lines

Now that this well-known artist from the 60's and 70's has publicly come out as a lesbian (confirming years of audience hope and/or speculation), we've been getting requests for her material. Here's a classic 1975 album, containing several of her "hits": At Seventeen, Ris & Sympathy, Love's Lullaby and more. (COL33394) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 13.98

Breaking Silence

Nostalgic for the 60's and 70's? You're not alone! Fans everywhere are crying for new releases from the folk legends, and after a 12-year hiatus, Janie delivers! Not shying away from controversy, personally (coming out of the closet), or in her music, her song topics touch issues such as the Holocaust in Tattoo, physical abuse in Her Hands, child abuse and molestation in the title track, and eroticism (given new meaning) in Ride Me Like A Wave. Two songs were co-written with Jess Leary, whose music so impressed us years ago that we listed her 45... And whatever you do, don't miss Guess You Had To Be There, 'cause if you were conscious at all during the 60's, she's playing your song. (MOR20023) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jenny Bird

Eternal Flight

"Jenny's voice is like a bird, and can she soar!" Great range, beautiful timbre, and that sultry bluesy touch somewhat reminiscent of our own Tracy Drach (a personal favorite of many of us here). And the vocal harmonies by Eliza Gillyson and Rory Block bring special noteworthiness to this 1994 release. Earthy nature themes abound in her all-original songs, with a generous helping of personal discovery and spirituality as well as social and political elements. Instrumentation covers everything from synthesized keyboards to hammered dulcimer. For voice connoisseurs everywhere! (ELT2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rare, Live & Classic (Boxed Set)

An incredible collection of work spanning an incredible 31-year career! This boxed set of 4 tapes or 3 CD's contains: a 32-page book with interviews and photos... 60 songs, including 18 previously unreleased, from live performances and broadcasts as well as recordings from 3 different record labels... and a plethora of songs featuring Joan with other great artists such as Bob Dylan, the Grateful Dead, her sister Mimi Farrow, Judy Collins, Donovan, Kris Kristofferson, Odette, and more! This 1993 release, two years in the making, makes a great gift for any fan you know and love, including yourself. (VAN12577) CS: 38.98 ... CD: 46.98

Play Me Backwards

This 1992 release, reflecting Joan's fourth decade of performance, shows her musically as strong and vibrant as ever. Includes several originals plus wonderful songs by Janis Ian (Amsterdam), Mary Chapin Carpenter (Stones in the Road), and other contemporary songwriters. Perhaps most outstanding is her original title track, a very disturbing and dramatic song about the experience of ritual abuse — an issue finally coming forth from centuries of complete silence. As in all, the album is drenched in meaning, and pathos, and recognition, and is probably her best work yet. (VIR88458) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Diamonds & Rust

This classic contains her original Dida and title track; Janis Ian's Jesse; Jackson Browne's Fountain of Sorrow; and more. (AM2233) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joan Baez

Speaking of Dreams

Soon to be out of print, so hurry! This celebration of Joan's 30 years of performing is a wonderful collection of her trademark mixtures of political and love songs. It features guest appearances by Jackson Browne — who duets with her on a song about El Salvador — and Paul Simon, who produced and sings back-up on Whispering Bells. Three originals are included: China, Warriors, and Wile. (GCT1324) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The First Ten Years

This double-album set contains eighteen of the best songs from Joan's earlier repertoire: includes Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, Mary Hamilton, Farewell Angelina, There But For Fortune, other Dylan, contemporary and traditional songs. (VAN5506T) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joanne Rand

Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice gorgeous voice gorgeous voice environmental songs gorgeous voice social/political/spiritual songs gorgeous voice... This woman's range will take your breath away! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves; her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness; and I already told you about her voice, about which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1989 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaanisqatsi, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Live

This Georgia native-turned-Northern Californian possesses one of the finest voices we've heard — see above reviews for further raves — and this tape gives one the privileged experience of hearing her live performance. Her piano and guitar are joined by Don Lax's violin, and the songs are as lovely and impassioned as ever. Includes Dream of Peace, Never Alone, Sacred Spaces, Working Woman and Earth My Body. (JR3) CS: 9.98

Judith Kate Friedman

Count Me In

This is a quintessential folk album, with everything a folk album should have: impassioned vocals; eloquent and poetic songwriting; beautiful melodies; poignant vignettes; political commentary; tender love ballads; sparkling acoustic accompaniment. Judith Kate has been taking her music on the road to women's and folk audiences for years now; in addition to new material, this 1993 release contains remakes and new versions of favorites from her first two albums. In Tribes she tells of the struggles of her Jewish ancestors; in Current Events she sings her wish for peace; in The Painting By the Window she splashes all the vibrant colors of the rainbow into your mind. Thoughtful, finely crafted, and a pleasure to savor. (PA113) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 14.98

Julia Fordham

Falling Forward

Julia Fordham always transports me to a warm place cooled by ocean breezes where beautifully sad people sigh as they recline on impossibly stain-free furniture. Her songs are about lost love and dashed hopes, but the blows are softened by lush harmonies and soothing music that make up her trademark sound. On this 1994 album, the mellow jazz mix is flavored by a touch of gospel (Love & Forgiveness); and some intriguing European instrumentation (check out the bandoneon on the title track). Falling Forward flows over you and is the perfect balm for a harried soul. (VIR39559) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

French Record

At last resurrected into print, this is the classic early album with all French material. And, not only two but three McGarrigle sisters are featured: sister Jane, executive producer, also sings harmony and plays organ. We welcome it back! (HAN1302) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dancer with Bruised Knees

Their 1977 second album has also been blessedly re-released in 1993! Includes the charming gem Ferrine Etait Servant, with Kate on button accordion, Anna on recorder, and both singing in exquisite harmony. And, sister Janie McGarrigle contributes organ on some tracks. Songs are in both English and French. (HAN4402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heartbeats Accelerating

This mesmerizing 1991 release fills a musical void left by the sisters' 8-year absence from the recording studio! With their trademark glorious vocals, flawless harmony and haunting guitar work, this collection melds a variety of styles, from folk to pop to Cajun to Celtic. Includes Love Is ("Love is a minor chord/Love is a mental word/Love is its own reward"), Mother Mother (PVT2070) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Finally back in print, for real! The debut classic 1975 album by these Canadian sisters with "genetic" harmonies includes their beautiful original ballad Heart Like A Wheel, also featuring their third sister Janie on vocals and organ, which propelled them (and Linda Ronstadt) to fame and fortune. Instrumentation — accordion, fiddle, harmonica, guitar, banjo — and vocal style are drawn from French Canadian tradition, though most of the material is original. Also includes Tell My Sister, Jigsaw Puzzle of Life, Travelin' On For Jesus. (HAN4401) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

Looking Back At You

From the back roads of the north coast of California, the transfixing voice of this beloved artist rang true for more than a decade, beginning in the mid-70's. Her singing and songwriting were rooted in the pure folk tradition, which shares the simple joys and pains of everyday life with a near-confessional intimacy. Her performances and recordings were winning her an increasing legion of fans when she died of leukemia in 1986. This 1994 release presents 10 early Kate Wolf renditions of original songs, traditional folk ballads, and songs from some of her favorite contemporaries like Jackson Browne and Leonard Cohen. Like many of her best albums, it was recorded live in concert, at various venues in Los Angeles between 1977 and 1979. Includes Bird On A Wire, Hold On To Me Babe, and more. (RH71613) CD: 15.98

Lines on the Paper

Mostly soft country-folk music, almost all written by Kate. Her songwriting reflects feelings about life and changes. Her voice is even & well-suited to the laid-back folk sound. The second album from this northern California native. (RH71480) CD: 15.98

Safe at Anchor

The third album by this northern California folksinger tells somehow of a woman and her strength alone. Includes Seashore Mountain Lady & She Rides Like the Dolphin...all songs by Kate. (RH71481) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

Close to You

A sweet collection of Kate Wolf songs...sweet harmonies, gentle rhythms, thoughtful lyrics...and this woman can sing. (RH71482) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

Give Yourself to Love (2-Set)

This live 1983 release of mostly previously-unrecorded material features Kate's long-time colleague Nina Gerber on mandolin, harmonica, guitar, and vocals throughout the "show." Most closely resembles her concerts and includes some songs by other musicians that she enjoyed performing over the years. Compiled from three performances, in San Francisco (Great American Music Hall), Davis, and Nevada City. Includes a live version of Redtail Hawk, and her originals Green Eyes and title song. (RH71483) CD: 23.98

Kate Wolf

Gold in California (2-Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1986. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death: she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rides Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Emma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. (RH71485) CD: 23.98

The Wind Blows Wild

This 1999 release contains all previously-unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's untimely death at age 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Ply Away, to 1986, the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously-unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Rising of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on...and on...through her still-growing discography. (RH71486) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

Poet's Heart

Kate's sixth album, which she co-produced, features all original songs including In China Or A Woman's Heart, See Here She Said, Carolina Pines. (RH71484) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

An Evening in Austin

The full 74 minutes of the 1985 concert that's also available as a video (see our Videos section for the description). This appearance, just a few months before she was diagnosed with leukemia, was her first major television exposure, for the show Austin City Limits, and it captures her ease and radiance. Included are some songs not previously recorded by her. (RH71487) CD: 15.98

Kristina Olsen

Love Kristina

Kristina's star is bound to rise higher in the singer/songwriter galaxy with this 1993 release. Nina Gerber's production is utterly seamless, and Teresa Trull (harmony vocals), Barbara Higbie (piano), and Gary Black (bass) all turn in outstanding performances. But, above all, Kristina herself writes, sings and plays like no one else, her own person from start to finish, with gorgeous, jazz-inflected vocals and superb musicianship. Includes Keeping This Life of Mine (Song for Battered Women), This Bed of Dura, Little Failings. (PH1157) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Lewis

True Stories

Laurie's music is so honest and pure, it's hard to doubt the truth of any of the stories she sings to us in her sweet, somewhat melancholy voice on this 1993 release. With a cast of great supporting musicians like Nina Gerber and Mike Marshall, she sings originals like Val's Cabin and Knocking On Your Door again; traditional tunes such as Singing Bird; and a smattering of songs by other contemporary songwriters. (ROU0300) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lul Collins

Made in New England

Her debut album vividly reflects her folk and traditional influences as well as the changing of the New England seasons. "As strong as a stone wall and as peaceful as a wood fire," the collection is sometimes light-hearted, sometimes pensive, but always touching. Love her originals as well as her covers of three Julie Snow songs — an incredible songwriter, beautifully interpreted by Lul. (GL1058) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Baptism of Fire

On her second release, every song touches an emotion. Again, her interpretations of Julie Snow's beautiful songs (including title track), as well as her own, create a lyrical and classic folk collection. (GL1060) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

There's A Light

Her third album is a portrait of her change and growth; the addition of cello, oboe, bass, drums, and electric keyboards to the more traditional instruments creates a variety of moods. (GL1061) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Moondancer

There has always been a deeply spiritual basis to the music by this New England singer-songwriter, and it has never been more true than on this 1993 release. Subtitled Journey of the Child Within, each song reflects the revelations of ever-spiraling-inward layers of self-exploration, through pain and anger to safety, release, liberation, joy and love. Accompanied by musicians such as Linda Worster, Lorraine Lee and Eugene Friesen, she performs invocation, The Holy Instant, Melancholy Lullaby, Blessed and title track, with her smooth, evocative, lovely voice. (MLG1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary McCaslin

Broken Promises

We welcome with open arms this 1994 release, Mary's first album of new songs in many many years (we've lost count, but take our word for it). They still have her signature: minor keys and interesting tunings, original interpretations of Lennon/McCartney tunes (this time Help!), and a blend of songs about the West and more personal subjects — but this time, the latter predominates. Includes The Baggage Song, Someone Who Looks Like Me, Ghost Train. (PH1160) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Best of... Things We Said Today

Truly a wonderful volume of her best songs — mostly about the West, and friendships — from her first 4 albums, and a must for all fans of this contemporary folk musician from the 70's...who don't already have her complete discography! Here are the highlights: Ghost Riders in the Sky, Circle of Friends, Old Friends, The Bramble and the Rose, San Bernardino Waltz, Way Out West, her unusual interpretations of the Supremes' My World Is Empty Without You and the Beatles' Things We Said Today and Blackbird... 18 in all, and the booklet shows guitar tunings for her many songs which use non-standard tunings. In her time she was quite an influential artist, and this 1992 release should help bring her back into some limelight. Recommended! (PH1149) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Megon McDonough

Day by Day

Finally, the fourth "Bachin' Babe" joins our catalog: we've been searching for this for the past couple of years, due to customer requests! As suggested by the cover, love is one of the themes on her debut release, the spiritual kind, that is... as well as respect for life and Mother Nature. Titles include Everlasting Love, Serenity Song (of the 12-step programs), Oh Great Spirit, Joy in the Journey, Katy's Sweet, Every Living Thing, and the beautiful Wake Up and Dream. (SFM1) CS: 5.98

American Girl

Megon's second release is more filled out and produced than her first (tastefully, of course), with love as a theme again, this time the personal kind, with metaphors of water and dreams a frequent image in her songs. The majority of songs are again originals, and feature lovely arrangements with accompaniment on recorder, harmonica, mandolin, piano, guitar and bass. Includes Dreams of Deep Water, River of Wishes, If Love Is a Dream, Big Blue River. (See what we mean about the water imagery?) (SR51) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Blue Star Highway

Fresh from touring with the 4 Bachin' Babes, Megon brings forth this album of contemporary folk tunes. A beautiful voice with the slightest hint of a Honky-Tonk tone leads the charge on songs like A Woman's Got Her Pride and Boots To Glory. A softer jazz sound is found on My One and Only Love, and the interesting rhythms of simple percussion blends splendidly with her voice on The Road to A Car. Cassettes are out for 1993, CD's in early 1994. (SR92) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Michele Shocked

Arkansas Traveler

Rambling along in a Winnebago with a mobile recording unit set inside an 18-wheeler, Michele traveled the country (and beyond). She recorded songs, fiddle tunes mostly, that she put her own words to, with some of her all-time heroes and respected contemporaries: Doc Watson, Taj Mahal, Alison Krauss, to name a few. This album brings to fruition her trilogy concept, which began with Short Sharp Shocked on through Captain Swing, includes Prodigal Daughter (Cotton Eyed Joe), Strawberry Jam, Come A Long Way, 33 RPM Soul. (MER512101) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Texas Campfire Tapes

The amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording, first creating a raging cult following for this young itinerant folk artist, then catapulting her to national fame and fortune! Her style on this "boot" recording is a re-issue of the very same walkman-recording (an absolutely appealing blend of talking blues, and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and ironies, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the creaks who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long-wearing; gets better and more intriguing with every listening; recommended! (MER834561) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Short Sharp Shocked

Michele's first studio recording, a wild success for her and established her firmly in the US music scene. Title comes from a behavior modification technique used by the psych industry. (MER834924) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Morgan & Phelan

Celebrations of Love

Need an anniversary gift? A valentine gift? A commitment ceremony gift? A seduction soundtrack, perhaps? If you're searching for an album of the purest, gentlest, dearest love songs, this is it! Peggy Morgan and Bette Phelan, with incredible vocal harmonies and light, crystalline acoustic instrumentation, present original music which speaks of the depths of love and friendship (so deep it's probably between women)... Well, there are just a couple of songs about partings, but except for those, this collection of songs about LOVE — honest, real, and present. Includes Anniversary Song, You Are the One I Love, Some Kind of Magic, and more — a beautiful celebration, for sure. (WIM001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Mother Folkers Confluence

"The Most Carefully Pronounced Name in Show Business" celebrated its 20th anniversary in 1993! The Mofo's are a group of 11 women who join forces once a year, create an entirely new show, and tour the concert within their home state of Colorado. With strong harmonies and a wide variety of acoustic instruments — mandolin, guitar, fiddle, bass, dobro, hammer dulcimer and various percussion — they deliver a wonderful collection of originals, plus a few traditional folk songs from South America and the American South for good measure. We love the humor and warmth they exude, and bet their concerts are fantastic. Highlights include Mama's Been Drunkin', I'm Getting Used to Sleeping in My Nightgown, Honey in the Rock, the lively instrumental Forty Something, and the lovely Alma, Corazon y Vida. (RES606) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Odetta

The Essential Odetta

This "twofer" includes No More Auction Block For Me, If I Had a Hammer, When I Was a Young Girl, much more. (YAH43/44) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Open Mind

The Stones We Carry...

You asked for it and here it is, their debut album first released in 1991. Chantal and Cynthia mix vocal harmonies with 12- and 6-string guitars; there's the addition of a bass on Things I Know How to Do, and lots of folks join in a "live" version of Aphrodisiac. A personal favorite is The Mystic, telling of an enlightening visit with a gypsy; the chorus of this song has yet to leave my head. (OM1) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Suspect Terrain

This acoustic folk duo, with a magical chemistry and crystalline harmonies, took their hometown of Hamilton, Ontario, by storm, and we're glad to bring them to you as they make their way to wider audiences. The obvious comparison to the Indigo Girls is mostly based on Chantal Chamberlain's husky voice, with the heart-wrenching cracks and hitches, though Cynthia Kerr's songwriting is simpler and more direct than that of their musical sisters. The material jumps from political issues to love themes, adding a humorous touch to mistaken identity in the bedroom in Blue Box, rapidly becoming a fan favorite. This 1993 release is their second, and if you ask for it, we'll add their debut in a future issue. (OM2) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Live at La Luna

This 1994 album was recorded live in the Canadian duo's hometown of Hamilton, Ontario, so the energy is up and comfortable with amusing, friendly banter between Chantal and Cynthia and the fans. Most is new material, mostly personal songs about relationships including Undone a.k.a. The Orgasm Song. Production is good for an independent live recording, with the women's harmonies and 12- and 6-string guitars coming through clearly. (OM3) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries

Same Rain

Pat's the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to anthemicize common struggles and triumphs. This album represents 7 years of work, "most of it internal." She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed by the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the 1988 Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes songs co-written with Judy Small and Aileen Varcoe; her exquisitely beautiful Shooting Star, and her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! Joined by Cathy Fink, Marcy Marxer and others; highly recommended! (MFM360) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin

Tango

Proving that change can be inspirational, forever-Bostonite Patty has headed West, and with the help of several of the SF Bay Area's premier musicians (most notably Michael Manning on bass) has given birth to a beautiful new baby — Tango, album! The production is first rate, Patty's vocals are soft and clear, and the acoustic tones of the band are sparkling and pure. As ever, her lyrics explore the myriad of directions our paths take us on: inner reflections, outward quests, and the nature of relationships. Song titles include: Upside Down, Solo Flight, Deadlines and Deaf Signs, and Kathleen. (HST10312) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Angels Running

This 1993 release is a bright showcase of the singer/songwriter's deft skill with a phrase, a word, a tune and an album. Features Mary-Chapin Carpenter and The Story on background vocals... song titles include Heaven, My Dog Wouldn't Run, Channelling Mariela, Pundits and Poets. (HST10318) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

In the Square

Recorded live at Sanders Theater in Harvard Square, this 1990 release includes both new and favorite songs, with the added sparkle of Patty's witty introductions and off-the-cuff exchanges with the audience. The album demonstrates why she's one of the most in-demand acoustic performers, particularly in her home region of New England. (PH1136) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Priscilla Herdman

Darkness Into Light

Buy this for a most superb a cappella rendition of Sojourner Truth's speech Ain't I A Woman?, set to music by Priscilla with harmony vocals by Anne Hills, Cindy Mangsen — chilling! Her flowing also, with Abby Newlon's smooth cello and other acoustic instrumentation, also does justice to songs by some of the best contemporary writers, such as Judy Small, Connie Keldor, Melvina Reynolds... a quintessential folk album, with themes of peace, children growing, people working and loving. (FF420) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Queen Ida

Mardi Gras!

I'm homesick! Queen Ida, vocalist and accordionist extraordinaire, once again delivers the bayou sound to Yankees and Cajun wanna-bes everywhere. Mardi Gras is the largest annual celebration in the US, and this 1994 release also celebrates the Zydeco sound with a touch of country and Tex-Mex... like a good gumbo, it's all in there! She hits the tempo and keeps it going throughout the whole recording — mais cher, it'll wear you plumb out! Comment Cajun Va has a country flavor, and Louisiana is a theme song for anyone who misses what this state can offer. She does a tribute to Creedence Clearwater Revival with a rendition of Molina, and doesn't neglect that ever-popular part of the culture, Cajun Gumbo! Her son provides vocal and instrumental support. C'est si bon! (GNP2227) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rise Up Singing Teaching Tapes

Holy Ground (5 Cassettes)

197 songs on 5 tapes, from the following chapters of the fabulous Rise Up Singing songbook: Faith, Gospel, Sacred, Rounds & Chants, and Spirituals. Includes simple vocal and guitar renditions in the same order as they appear in the songbook — not the complete songs, but always enough to learn the full melody. (SNG746386) CS: 34.98

Everything Possible (6 Cassettes)

Subtitled 164 Songs About Community & Change, these 6 tapes contain songs from the Rise Up Singing songbook, chapters Ecology, Peace, Freedom, Unity, Men, and Women, with simple vocal and guitar renditions in the same order as they appear in the book. Cassettes do not contain complete songs, but enough to learn the full melody. (SNG746387) CS: 34.98

The Roches

A Dove

This 1992 release adds a new dimension to these sisters' repertoire. On previous albums, they've generally written and arranged songs collaboratively; most of these songs were written individually, making this a rich and diverse collection of witty, insightful songs with the usual amount of imaginative vocal interplay and harmonizing. Includes Ing, Someone's Gonna Have To Be Me, You're The One, You're The Two. (MCA10501) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Roches

Their first album as a trio, and the one which firmly endeared them to great numbers of music lovers who also appreciated humor and ingenuity. Their harmonic and lyric accomplishments reached new peaks here. All acoustic, simply and skillfully produced. Includes the autobiographical We, Mr. Selfack, Cutting Time. Recommended! (WB3298) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rory Block

Mama's Blues

Bonnie Raitt said, "Rory Block has been an inspiration to me since we started out years ago. Her guitar playing, singing and songwriting are some of the most soulful in traditional and modern blues." This is Rory at her blues best here! On this outstanding 1991 release, she pays tribute to the great musicians who have always been her source of inspiration: Robert Johnson, Son House, Tommy Johnson, Bessie Smith, and others. Several are "originals" (but stylistically culled from lots of rural blues material), and others are her personal renditions of songs she has heard and studied. This recording should answer her most-often-asked question, "How come a young white girl from NYC was drawn to the blues music of the Black rural south of the 1930's?" (ROU3177) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ain't I A Woman

This 1992 release is, quite frankly, absolutely superb. The stylistic variety is amazing, for one thing (folk, rock, blues, jazz, gospel, with absolute artistry in each genre); as are her voice and guitar playing, as always. Several songs are about women here: the title cut of course, featuring the words of Sojourner Truth, given a deeply impassioned jazz-tinged treatment by Rory; also includes Sisters and Maggie Campbell. And her renditions of the blues song Cool Drink of Water and the gospel standard Walk in Jerusalem are spectacular. Her best yet; very highly recommended! (ROU3120) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Angel of Mercy

Another milestone in Rory's continuous musical path, this 1994 release focuses on her songwriting talent which, combined with contemporary production, yields an album that goes beyond the rural blues beginnings of her career. Some of the songs relate to her endless travel and years on the road (I'll Be Gone); others are about women's views on love (title track) — or the lack of it (Love Without the Heart), homelessness (Somebody's Baby), sleazy agents (Big Bad Agent Man), and other important subjects. Her son Jordan contributes vocals on a couple of tracks. (ROU3126) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels

Be Careful There's A Baby...

...In the House. We're proud to announce the arrival of The Perfect Gift! It's for those loved ones who are expecting a Little Person to join their household soon — they'll need to learn lullabies, soothing and hostile (Baby Rocking Medley) and stories (Mohitabel and Her Kittens); those with children, so they can be reminded just why they had them in the first place (Louisa Wainwright); it's title song, God Bless the Child, Two Years Later; those who don't have any kids, and need an excuse to gloat; and yourself, because you deserve the best! Warm, alternately whimsical and serious, Rosalie introduces many of the songs with personal observations and stories (great liner notes too), and makes clear her opinion that children and motherhood are sacred, but to be chosen, not required. Includes an emotional reading of Marge Piercy's Right to Life. Recommended? But of course! Please treat yourself and others right now! (GL2100) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Always A Lady

This classic album, one of our favorites from her, is finally back in print! Dedicated "to my mother... who taught me that a lady is someone who never does anything unintentionally vulgar," she starts off with a story-song about her muse, Mohitabel the Cat, and moves into a medley which includes a hostile baby-rocking song... the whole album is worth these two gems! Her gentle, soothing voice flows well with her choices of original and other songs. (GL2110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

What Does It Mean To Love?

Rosalie once again emerges triumphant with this 1994 album which she says "started out to be a children's album, but (became) a conversation between an old woman... me... and a child... me." She combines the whimsy and lightheartedness of the best children's music with the maturity and seasoned voice of the veteran folksinger which she is. Includes stories and songs by Emily Dickenson, Melvina Reynolds, Colette, Ogden Nash, Antoine de St. Exupery, Dr. Seuss, Rudyard Kipling, and Rosalie herself. Her neutral and unaffected singing brings each song to life as no one else can — for children young and old! (GL2113) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett Unraveled

A woman of many identities, Sally's also known as one of the "4 Bitchin' Babes," and should be considered Shawn Colvin's stylistic soul sister. Indeed, if you were as hooked by Shawn's artistry as we were, do yourself the favor of discovering Sally! Her 10 original songs explore the landscape of the myriad of relationships, whether it's enjoying the nostalgia of an old flame (Smilin' Boy), realizing the nature of her love for her child (The Return), or what sounds like the lament of anyone's parents (He Loved Her So/The Ballad of Harry and Esther). All in all, the treatment is tender and feeling, the music beautiful, and her voice warm and inviting. Recommended! (AME977798) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett Ghost Town Girl

Crafted of equal parts empathy and insight, the 11 original songs on this 1993 release highlight Sally's rich and colorful songwriting. More than on previous albums, she addresses an awareness of the difficult, different situations in which women are placed, from the title track to Windows, which explores the onset of "womanhood" (the curse of turning 13) set against the consequences of another woman's backroom abortion (and complemented by background vocals from the Moms for Choice chorus). She's also adept at crafting vivid song portraits, which she demonstrates in Mama Ghetto Rose and Give Me a Sign written for a friend whose battle with cancer ended last year. As this album proves, she just keeps getting better. (AME977799) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan Touch

We were introduced to this singer-songwriter when she shared a bill with Holly Near, and here's her debut 1989 release: it features her wide vocal range, gorgeous harmonies, and introspective lyrics. Tape and CD contain one bonus track. (AR18594) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan Solace

We don't have much specific info about this woman, but her voice contains a gorgeous Irish tint, kinda like Sinéad O'Brien. Enya, both soft and sweet and as strong and multi-colored as polished titanium... Absolutely captivating! The material is mostly original; she writes simple vignettes about longing (Home), and loneliness (Lost), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thomas, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven. Instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, guitars, and the packaging is quite impressive, even for a major label. (AR18631) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan Fumbling Towards Ecstasy

This 1994 release from a ruby-throated artist is pure sensation. Introspective lyrics weave through the blissfully restrained production — a subtle mix of guitar, bass, drums and keyboard topped off by Sarah's layered vocals. The title track along with Good Enough and Circle shimmer with soulful intensity and strength. Ice Cream serves up a tasty companion of love to chocolate as well as to our favorite frozen treat (mmm). Sarah skillfully rounds out the triumvirate she shares with Kate Bush and Toni Amos. Includes an unlisted bonus track; extremely recommended. (AR18725) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin Steady On

Shawn contributes back-up vocals on Suzanne Vega's album (including her best-known song Luka). Suzanne owes the same on Shawn's; that simple fact tells you a bit about what to expect here. The debut album by this "acoustic pop" singer-songwriter (whose history includes eight months performing with the Red Clay Ramblers) features her silvery vocals, acoustic guitar and thoughtful lyrics, against a backdrop of tasteful accompaniment. Includes Diamonds in the Rough. (COL45209) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shawn Colvin Fat City

This 1992 release finds the artist's voice stronger than ever, and her growth as a songwriter over is evident in her broadened use of musical styles, instruments, and subject matters. The title of the album, taken from the song Round of Blues, represents a feeling of hope, confidence, and dreams on the verge of coming true — themes which run through the album. Includes Set the Prairie on Fire, a song so sultry you can feel the heat of the desert; Tennessee, an all-out rocker; and Orion in the Sky, a beautiful love ballad. (COL47122) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin Cover Girl

When Shawn was an up-and-coming performer on the NYC club circuit, she usually broadened her set with her favorite songs by her favorite performers — and with her incredible voice and guitar, made these songs her own. Even today she has continued to perform them in her shows, and after years of requests from fans to include them on an album, Shawn has granted their wishes: a 1994 album of covers! Included are songs from the repertoires of Bob Dylan, the Talking Heads, the Police, Greg Brown, and others; and features a duet with Mary-Chapin Carpenter — a heavenly combination of voices. (COL57875) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Short Sisters A Planet Dancing Slow

Three women (neither short nor sisters) present material which truly reflects their fondness for gorgeous melodies, opportunities for interesting harmonies, and both pertinent and impertinent subject matter. In celebration of their first decade together, they put together this 1991 collection of songs about seasons and changes. Includes two beautiful rounds: My Car-dies (the Chanukah Chase) and Round and Round; plus Queer Bird, The Reign of the Fair Maid, and a song every person who heats with wood will appreciate only too well, More Wood. Recommended! (BS885412) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Smith & Bakken Feel So Alive

We became familiar with this duo at the RhythmFest festival, and are glad for the introduction! Their tight, polished blend of rhythmic, acoustic rock, blues and folk is quite captivating, and listening to this 1992 album will demonstrate their purported power to "take a person, invite a riot in a coffeehouse or capture the hearts of a festival audience." Lisa Smith, who previously performed as a duo with Suzzy Borguie, wraps her voice around her guitar to pay a perfect compliment to Mikki Bakken's heart-wrenched vocals. Be on the look-out for more from these talented girls! (DK1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Solstice Assembly Under the Drawbridge

Subtitled Music from the 15th to 20th Century, this hour-long 1991 recording of music from every season is performed by the Solstice Assembly (18 singers directed by Jane Peppier), New Hope Harmony, and the Band of Ages: primarily mixed-gender, a cappella vocal ensembles, with a few instrumental groupings. They say "Let us take you to the strange worlds we inhabit for an out-of-century experience," and they accomplish that quite successfully! Their repertoire spans centuries, continents, and world-views, with interesting arrangements by Jane Peppier. A most eclectic collection, with an underlying foundation of fun, amusement, humor, and great music. (SKY206) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

St. Elmo's Choir White Stocking Day

This 5-woman vocal ensemble from the Pacific Northwest is breaking new ground in the traditionally male genre of maritime music. With strong, hearty voices, they perform the chanteys that sailors sang to the rhythm of their work. All but one are sung a cappella, in a call-and-response style, with all 5 members taking their turns at lead. Most selections have a British Isles feel; however, others are from the Caribbean and the southern US. Includes live and studio recordings, with both sounding very clear. A most unique offering; we guarantee you'll be singing along before you know it! (SEC201) CS: 9.98

The Story The Angel in the House

Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball's 1993 release, featuring more compelling, touching stories sung with haunting melodies and intense harmonies, has more layered arrangements utilizing more modern technology that make for a less folksy feel. The depth of their lyrics, along with their quirky outlook, is underscored by a startling yet welcome dissonance. Each song will surprise you and tug at your heart ("You might have told me that love is not enough," from The Eldest Cage) or make you smile ("The church will hold a picnic and Jesus and Elvis will get in line," from When Two and Two are Five, with its funky horns and R&B feel). Another highlight is So Much Mine, a mother's song to a daughter coming of age. Even more highly recommended than their first! (EL61471) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Story Grace in Gravity

O'ya know that feeling, when you first hear a new group or artist, where the voices and music reach that perfect synergy and you just sink into a warm relaxation of wonder and pleasure? Well, help yourself to this! These two Boston-area women, Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball, synthesize their voices, lyrics, acoustic and occasional electric accompaniment into a superb arrangement of contemporary folk with jazz and New Acoustic influences — lots of pristine acoustic guitar, floating acoustic bass, and crisp drum work, plus simply angelic vocals (Suzanne Vega meets Jasmine). And poetic, painterly lyrics. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! PS — Love the comic-strip feeling of Dog Dreams. (EL61321) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Susan Werner Midwestern Saturday Night

Christine Lavin has called this Philadelphia artist "the finest rising new star in the folk world," and this 1993 studio debut backs up the claim. Highlights are the title song about an old-fashioned date, the humorous Rubber Glove Blues (sex in the 90s), and the poignant Uncle John about the "unmarried" but not unloved family member. Accompaniment includes Julia Haines' Celtic harp, plus bass, percussion, harmonica, and Susan's piano, keyboards, and guitar. (SUS001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Werner Live at the Tin Angel

We've had several inquiries about this near-prodigy who learned guitar at age 5, sax at 6 and piano by 11. Her classically trained voice is pure and angelic; she can run the gamut from Piaf's La Vie En Rose (goosepimples!) to the jazzy Cole Porter's Maybe If I Sang Cole Porter to rompin' stompin' country. Ain't I Lovely Tonight. This 1993 well-produced live album, on which she accompanies herself with piano and guitar, is a lovely and intimate introduction to an exciting new folk artist. (SUS002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Theories of the Old School Time to Heal

Tight, interesting instrumentation, crafted phrasing, and thoughtful lyrics characterize this captivating ensemble composed of 2 female singer/songwriters/instrumentalists and a male percussionist. Using guitars, flutes, Chapman Stick, congas, piano and various percussion, Theories harmonizes its way through a range of original songs covering subjects from love to nuclear waste; includes Last Dolphin, Ruca Mountain, Tide. By the way, this is almost the same album which was previously released under the title Even the Navajo. Recommended! (CUE21992) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman

At last you can hear the young singer/songwriter everyone's been talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to widely appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with biting political/social commentary; her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in 'Takin' Bout A Revolution and Why?'. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL60774) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman Matters of the Heart

This 1992 release captures ten original songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her folk-rock melodies and lyrical compassion. Her evocative vibrato soars with hope on Dreaming On a World. Bang Bang Bang turns an unblinking eye on the frightening realities of the urban poor; while Open Arms is a love song for real people in an often harsh world; also includes Woman's Work, I Used to Be a Sailor Throughout the album, her voice rings clear and her visions shines true. (EL61215) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tracy Chapman
Crossroads

The second release by this Grammy-winning artist is an exploration into new styles and techniques, while maintaining her tradition of exposing life's realities through often haunting ballads: a worthy follow-up to her first album! (EL80888) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Uncle Bonsai
The Inessential Uncle Bonsai

This greatest-hits live album contains over 70 minutes of "catch me if you can" lyrics done to screaming and/or acoustic guitars, from this "tell it like it is" band without remorse. Bringing forth stereotypes and childhood images for slaughter, they hold no punches. They tackle subjects such as Penis Envy and blast social mores in the come-along, sing-along Boatboard Love; also includes Boys Want Sex in the Morning, Fat Boys, Suzy A Lonely Grain of Corn, and more. Were sure fans won't want to be without! (YTR1002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Uncle Bonsai
Myn Ynd Wymyn

Now on CD for the first time, a classic album which up 'til now had not been commercially released. Includes Men And Women, Wormyn With A Y (Wormyn), Family Restaurant, Doug At His Mom's, Bedroom Eyes, and more. Over 70 minutes of music. (YTR1003) CD: 16.98

Uncle Bonsai
Boys Want Sex in the Morning

Fans of Christine Lavin should definitely check out this album. Recorded live in their hometown of Seattle, their trademark light harmonies and skewed stage banter are shown off to their best advantage. This 2-woman 1-man ensemble of Benetton College Alumni offers up everything from Isaac's Lament (that's the bartender from the "Love Boat"), to the motherly advice in Don't Put It In Your Mouth, to the school spirited Cheerleaders on Drugs to the hilarious title track. In spite of the cover art (which repulses our catalog's editor, and will probably elicit a similar response from some of you), the album's very funny, very well sung, and very recommended. (FRE1911) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Best of Folk Music: Contemporary

Ever since its heyday in the '60s, contemporary folk music has been indispensable in the weaving of music and culture... and this 1993 compilation is a tribute to the enduring beauty of folk music and its ability to reinvent itself in a new and different time. Both issue-oriented and poetic lyrics characterize this compilation by some of today's finest artists — both legends and current-generation icons — including Mary Black, Kristin Hall, Cate Curtis, Joan Baez, Christine Lavin, Indigo Girls, and several male singer-songwriters. A great compilation — recommended! (RH71448) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Betsy
Rough Around the Edges

Betsy, an out lesbian, has been primarily known up until now as Garth Brooks' sister and bandmate; this 1994 debut release promises that finally she'll be acknowledged in her own right. She's a guitarist and bassist who offers up a spicy blues and country music gumbo, with a dash of R&B and a pinch of poprock flair. Betsy and Garth's mother, 50's country star Corleen Carroll, pitches in here on the reflective ballad This House; other songs include Love Me Like You Mean It, You Can Look (But You Can't Touch), Southern Wind. We know this album will be welcomed by her current legions of fans, and gain her new ones as well! (NOS92428) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Vicki Pratt Keating
Blue Apples

This DC-area singer-songwriter has been receiving numerous accolades and awards lately (including two Wammies), and this 1993 album shows why! Her voice is airy, ethereal, a bit smoky... her lyrics imagistic and poetic... the production and accompaniment on cello, violin, Uilleann pipes, bazouki, banjo, etc., light... and her sound quite distinctive, a blend of avant folk with melodic pop. This album will easily stand up to off-repeated listenings, it's so full of substance, from Into the Amazon to Sylvie, written for Sylvia Plath. We predict a long and fruitful career for this artist, but no need to wait to experience her gift. (VPK001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Victoria Williams
Swing the Statue!

We've had several requests again for this artist, and we've located some copies of this title, even though it's technically out of print. Steeped with the homespun charm of her native Louisiana, yet sophisticated enough to stand out on the artsy L.A. acoustic scene, Victoria's music is funky and surprising and beautiful. This 1990 album is full of dissonances and minor keys as well as wild imagery. Her voice — sometimes high and thin like a little girl's, sometimes deeper and fuller, sometimes raggedy and energetic — is accompanied by a full range of instruments, from cowbells to marimba to pedal steel. Unique! (RT850) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Wendy Bucklew
Painting Sidewalks

We're fascinated and thrilled by the proliferation of excellent women musicians and songwriters from the Southern regions lately! Excellently produced by Wendy and Atlanta's perennial Dede Vogt (anybody remember the Scallion Sisters?), this collection of 10 originals features crystalline acoustic strings (guitar, mandolin), plus her searing electric guitars, Dede's trademark bass, and some mean dobro and sweet harmony work (Kristen Hall on one song). Wendy's got her own songwriting style, but reflects some of her contemporaries as well... Think Indigos in mood, Melissa in vocal intensity, and Edie Brickell in whimsy and inflection. Think about adding this to your collection of Artists, capital "A"... Recommended! (IN9603) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various/producer: Christine Lavin
When October Goes

Subtitled Autumn Love Songs, this lovely collection features some of today's best folk artists offering their favorite songs about that sad, quiet season. Opening with Cheryl Wheeler's sweetly gorgeous, When Fall Comes to New England, and including solos by (we dare you to figure this one out!): 5 of the 4 Bitchin' Babes (Christine, Megan McDonough, Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, Julie Gold), and others. 15 songs in all, over half by women. Pour yourself a cup of tea, light a few candles, and settle in for a cozy evening with this warm recording! (PH1143) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Big Times/Small Town-Vineyard Tapes

Christine Lavin's tireless advocacy for other singer-songwriters bears amazing fruit on this collection recorded at her "First Annual Martha's Vineyard Singer/Songwriters' Retreat"... and it's a wonderful way to get acquainted with a variety of very talented people whose songs range from deeply moving to laugh-out-loud funny. Includes The Story's Jonathan Brooke with the unparalleled Dog Dreams (featuring Patty Larkin on accordion), Cheryl Wheeler with Further and Further Away, Patty Larkin with Chained to These Lovin' Arms, a medley from the "Impromptu A Capella Choir" that tears up the house, and much, much more. It sounds like they had so much fun that I wonder if I could go next year and hang out! I promise to wash dishes... (PH1155) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On A Winter's Night

Subtitled The Best of the New Singer/Songwriters, as well as Ballads to Warm the Heart, this anthology includes songs by several artists that make it well worth the purchase price. Firstly is Heaven, a gorgeous song written and performed by Julie Gold, author of the now-very-famous From A Distance... I forwarded right to this cut, and was not disappointed! (So where's her solo album??) Also included are selections by the 3 other Bitchin' Babes — Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, and Megan McDonough — as well as Cheryl Wheeler, and other women and men. Christine has done lots over the years to create exposure for artists, which we really appreciate, and you will too! (PH1167) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Country

Dixie Chicks
Thank Heavens for Dale Evans

This very last minute addition to our 1993 catalog has been off-requested and suggested, so we're glad we can offer it even though we don't even have time to review it properly! Terrific music from an all-women's ensemble on their 1990 debut release: a perfect blend of country, bluegrass, and western swing played with impressive vocal skill and sterling vocal harmonies. (CCR9103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dixie Chicks
Little Ol' Cowgirl

Debut on their second, 1992 release; here they present a little less bluegrass and a little more country, with a bit of doo-wop and even the jazzy original Pink Toes. Good choices in covers too: includes an interesting bluegrass version of Sam Cooke's You Send Me, and a raging take on Mary-Chapin Carpenter's A Road Is Just A Road. Be sure to not miss! (CCR9250) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Dixie Chicks
Shouldn'ta Told You That

With no lack of rhythm or twang, this 1993 release is solid country, with 10 songs that are the cowgirls' road-tested winners. They put together the traditional lyrics — you know, 'bout love — expected in country tunes (except no mothers or trucks... sorry!) with a generous helping of steel guitar, dobro and a splash of piano and banjo. Sounds much like the music Mom weaned me on, in fact her birthday is coming up... Includes notables Whistles and Bells, Desire, I Wasn't Looking For You. (CCR9369) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dolly Parton, L Ronstadt, E Harris
Trio

This long-awaited collaboration by 3 top country artists — Dolly, Linda, and Emmylou — includes Widowers, Those Memories of You, Hobo's Meditation, Farther Along, Sweet. (WB25491) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Emmylou Harris
Cowgirl's Prayer

If you're Emmylou Harris, and you blend your own songs with songs from writers like Lucinda Williams, and back them up on vocals with the likes of Tina Turner and Alison Krauss, you can't go wrong! This 1993 album explores all facets of country music, from up-tempo rockers to soulful ballads, as it demonstrates the artist's ability to stretch the musical envelope by recording a spoken-word tune, a Leonard Cohen composition, and a self-penned tune, Prayer In Open D, which marks her return as a songwriter. (EL61542) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Iris DeMent
Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelina by newcomer Iris DeMent. In fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Meris's Cry. Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Holler Than Mojave in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing — she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. (WB46238) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Iris DeMent
My Life

Before country was "cool" or "hot", a twangy voice and acoustic guitar were the staples of artists sharing heartbreak and hard times with eager listeners. Iris captures that feeling with a style reminiscent of honky-tonk and slow dancing... her voice is the most genuine since early Loretta Lynn, and the simple acoustic arrangements are the perfect backdrop. Messages of joy and sorrow abound in her lyrics, almost all originals. This reviewer's favorites are No Time to Cry, Childhood Memories, and The Shores of Jordan. An excellent follow-up to her debut, and quite recommended. (WB45493) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

K.T. Oslin
Greatest Hits

We couldn't resist anything subtitled Songs From an Aging Sex Bomb, and neither can you! Includes her best stuff, just like the title says, including 80's Ladies, This Woman, Get Back in the Saddle, and 8 more. (RCA66227) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Lucinda Williams
Sweet Old World

Sweet new album! This 1992 collection of 12 originals is just shot through with honey and lemonade — Lucinda is a fantastic songwriter, weaving stories about people we've all known, and her voice and delivery have much of the same warmth and emotional depth as Jennifer Warnes'. Includes Hot Blood, Mardi Gras, Really, really, really recommended! (CHM1351) CS: 16.98 ... CD: 16.98

Lucinda Williams

This 1988 album created quite a buzz. Her delivery is straightforward and frank, expressing in her songs an approach to love she feels is an outgrowth of feminism — a wish to have what she wants, live as she wants. She has a great country voice, strains of Louisiana and Texas, and the back-up is tasteful, just country enough. (CHM1307) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Lucinda Williams
Passionate Kisses — 5-Song EP

This specially-priced EP contains 4 new live performances — a new version of Side of the Road, plus 3 previously unreleased songs — in addition to the title cut, which is from her self-titled album... now back in print. (CHM1368) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 11.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Hometown Girl

Her 1987 debut album contains title, Heroes and Heroines, A Lot Like Me, Other Streets and Other Towns, and more — mostly originals, with her fabulous voice being the reason you just gotta have this. We didn't know about this in 1987, but are glad we do now! (COL40758) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
State of the Heart

If you weaken at the knees at the sound of a great voice, this is for you. This rising star has one of the strongest, surest, most wonderful voices in contemporary country music, and this 1989 album is a testament to her songwriting, vocal, and instrumental talents. Includes Read My Lips, This Shirt, Down in Mary's Land, Quitting Time, and back-up vocals by her good friend Shawn Colvin! (COL44228) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Shooting Straight in the Dark

This 1990 release of mostly original songs confirms the promise of the earlier albums of this city girl gone country. Ranging from raucous and highly danceable cuts such as Right Now and Down at the River and Shout to the plaintive hill sound of The More Things Change, these songs are about looking for love and love lost. Shawn Colvin makes a guest appearance on The Moon and Saint Christopher. Strongly suggested. (COL46077) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Stones in the Road

This artist has been quietly redefining the creative and artistic possibilities of country music, and this 1994 release, her most fully-realized and cohesive to date, continues to showcase that gift. It contains 13 original songs which address a range of emotions and viewpoints from optimism to resignation; overall, the tone is confident and hopeful as characterized by songs such as Why Walk When You Can Fly, Jubilee, This Is Love; also includes The End of My Private Days and the single Shut Up and Kiss Me. (COL54327) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Come On Come On

Her spectacularly smooth voice and suggestive, often hard-hitting, lyrics make a great combination once again on this 1992 release — she blends her countryfolk rhythms with some feminist messages that should make many men think twice! He Thinks He'll Keep Her looks at the motivations of many housewives who choose the road instead of their husbands, while The Hard Way will remind many women to appreciate how far we've come against odds men never face. Also includes a great rendition of Lucinda Williams' Passionate Kisses, and the outstanding title cut. Some background vocals by Indigo Girls, Shawn Colvin, Rosanne Cash. (COL46081) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Other Voices, Other Rooms

On this 1993 album, Nanci, an interpreter extraordinaire, performs 17 classic songs by her favorite writers, including Kate Wolf (Across the Great Divide), Bob Dylan (Boots of Spanish Leather), Malvina Reynolds (Turn Around), Tom Paxton, Woody Guthrie, John Prine, and others. Guest artists include Emmylou Harris, the Indigo Girls, Odette, Arlo Guthrie and Iris DeMent; includes Woman of the Phoenix, Morning Song for Sally, From Clare to Here. Quite a tribute to great songwriting! (EL61464) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
One Fair Summer Evening

This 1988 release, recorded live in concert, contains Looking For the Time (Workin' Girl), Trouble in the Fields, favorites From A Distance, Once in a Very Blue Moon, and more, on her only bare-boned acoustic album to date. Intimately communicates the ambience of her musical herstory — the club it was recorded in, Anderson Fair, is where she received much of her musical education when she was growing up. (MCA42255) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Lone Star State of Mind

Undergoing her full-fledged move into the country arena, her first major-label release comes complete with dobro and pedal-steel backup. Includes In the Distance, Sing One for Sister, Cold Hearted, Closed Minds, Ford Econoline (for Rosanne Sorrels and Kate Wolf), Trouble in the Fields, about the difficulties of the farmers, and a re-recording of the sweet tribute to her best childhood friend, There's A Light Beyond These Woods (Mary Margaret). Highly recommended...a favorite in the Slipper office! (MCA5927) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Storms

This 1989 release, like her previous titles, is another great traveling companion: primarily original ballads, with images of the road, driving with music playing, and the country south. Includes Drive-In Movies and Dashboard Lights, It's A Hard Life Wherever You Go. (MCA5319) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
There's A Light Beyond These Woods

The title song is a touching original ballad to her childhood best friend, Mary Margaret, many other originals of love, lost dreams, and her Texas home. Lovely acoustic guitar and vocal. Eric Taylor on one lead vocal. Recommended. (PH1097) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
The Last of the True Believers

Nanci's 4th album is beautifully filled out with acoustic instrumentation, providing a perfect backdrop for her signatures of Americana, her voice smooth and silvery as ever. Nanci is rapidly becoming one of the top country/folk performers. (PH1169) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
The MCA Years - A Retrospective

18 of Nanci's best-loved songs selected from her major-label discography, including From A Distance, Late Night Grande Hotel, Trouble in the Fields, Ford Econoline, Listen to the Radio, Love at the Five and Dime, and more. (MCA10914) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Flyer

This 1994 release contains 14 original songs of love and life, written mostly during her travels over the past few years, and rendered in the honest and emotional style that has earned her international acclaim. Also features Southbound Train by Julie Gold, author of From A Distance, a songwriter whose material is obviously suited for Nanci's brilliant interpretation. Contributing artists are the Indigo Girls, the Chieftens, and many more; song titles include Goodnight to A Mother's Dream, Going Back to Georgia, Nobody's Angel. (EL61661) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Once in a Very Blue Moon

Nanci's third release has a real country rock sound that makes you want to grab your favorite partner and dance. Daddy Said is among her best, followed closely behind by Ballad of Robin Hunter-Smith. Her style, though distinctly Texan, brings to mind this reviewer's time spent in the El Dorado Hotel in Woodstock, NY...got the picture? If you like Rosanne Cash, Bonnie Raitt, or Emmylou Harris, you're sure to love Nanci. (PH1096) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline
Greatest Hits

For some, hard to listen to without an image of Jessica Hahn. Twelve songs which represent the apex of Patsy's long country-blues career, including Crazy, I Fall to Pieces, Sweet Dreams (Of You), Walking After Midnight, She's Got You. Her exceptional voice epitomizes emotion and heart; recommended! (MCA12) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance
Blush Blazes

This 1991 release is a hot mix of "regressive country" originals, incorporating acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing. Characterized by thoughtful original lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass, it has been described as k.d. lang and Patsy Cline meet Bob Wills. Includes The Buckaroos, which could be called an oral version of Thelma & Louise. Look for more tour dates on the East Coast! (SUG3794) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance
Western Dream

From several opening dates for k.d. lang to their 1990 debut women's festival performances, this 4-woman trad-but-lad band has brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythm, hot instrumental work and wild yodeling to thousands of new fans around the country! Perfect for 2-stepping or any other partner dancing you'd care to do, as well as feet-stomping and finger-snapping, their old standards like Why Don't You Love Me (Like you Used To) and Lovesick Blues are mixed with originals by lead vocalist Jo Miller; her Baby's On the Town features heartbreak Jo singing of her woman lover who's playing the town. Highly recommended! (SUG3799) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance
Flip City

This flamboyant band sashays into Flip City loaded for action and ready to knock you out! This 1993 release features hot songs, death-defying yodeling, tight-as-leather harmony, and a solid western beat... with Jo Miller's big-as-the-sky vocals and heartfelt original songs, Nova Devonne's colorful accordion riffs, Barbara Lamb's fiddle tale, Nancy Katz driving the beat on bass, and David Keenan's jazz/swing guitar stylings. Invite them to your cow town today! (SUG3813) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Red Hot & Country

Kathy Mattea, who initially organized this project for the Red Hot Organization, said, "I've never been Miss Controversial. I've never wanted to rock the boat. But when my friends started dying I had to do something about it." In addition to supporting clinical and basic AIDS research, proceeds will fund a special education project which will target rural communities. This 1994 release contains 17 tracks by a long list of country luminaries, including Kathy Mattea, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Dolly Parton, Willie Nelson, Johnny Cash, and more. (MERS22639) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Rosanne Cash
The Wheel

Pass! Hey, don't tell anybody but I really like this album. I don't usually like country music, because it's usually about trains and guns and whiskey and somebody doin' somebody wrong. But this is music with the sophisticated, metaphysical theme of the wheel: death and rebirth, old loves and new loves, personal growth and transformation. On the final track, If There's a God On My Side, it's a wonderful surprise to hear, "Why don't she show me her face?... Could she not hear me call?" Rosanne's also joined by Mary Chapin Carpenter and Patty Larkin on the title track. Recommended for country, folk, and pop music fans. (COL52729) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Adele
Love or Lust

This New Jersey turned European sensation, where she is the undisputed queen of "house" music, exudes tremendous lung power as well as a volcanic eruption of attitude and conviction. She seems equally at home ripping it up (It Should Have Been Me) or smoothing it out (Try My Love)... also includes Independent Woman, I Would Die For You, Cold Blooded. Put this on at your next dance party (or aerobic class) and get ready to move. (CAP95762) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin
Young, Gifted and Black

Finally re-released in 1993, this 1972 release is considered a milestone for the legendary Queen of Soul. In addition to the monumental Nina Simone-penned title track, it includes some top 10 hits, in addition to the intimate Aretha original First Snow in Kokomo. A must for any fan; highly recommended! (RH71527) CS: 8.99... CD: 13.99

Aretha Franklin
The Very Best of Aretha Franklin

Includes Respect, You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, Do Right Woman - Do Right Man, Chain of Fools... in other words, just what the title says. (RH71598) CS: 8.99... CD: 13.99

Aretha Franklin
Aretha Gospel

Aretha's musical beginnings as a gospel singer; this was recorded when she was 14, singing in her father's church, and includes This Little Light of Mine, Yield Not to Temptation, Power, and more. (CHS9105/521) CS: 6.99... CD: 13.99

Mahalia Jackson
Greatest Hits

Probably the greatest gospel singer ever recorded, every rich nuance of this woman's voice embodies devotion; you don't have to subscribe to Christianity to appreciate her lovely countenance! Includes her greats Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Walk in Jerusalem, The Upper Room and more, all with her vocal magnificence. (COL37710) CS: 6.99... CD: 13.99

Various Artists
Say Amen, Somebody (Double Set)

Musical from the original soundtrack plus more recorded live in performance. If you saw the documentary film, you witnessed the effervescence and amazing vocal powers of Willie Mae Ford Smith, affectionately known as "Mother Smith," and the Barrett Sisters. Also includes music by Thomas A. Dorsey (called "The Father of Gospel Music," who was Ma Rainey's accompanist back in '24), Zella Jackson Price of the "Mother" Smith Tribute, the O'Neal Twins, and Mahalia Jackson... i.e., many of the gospel greats. (DRG12584) CS: 12.98... CD: 15.98

Rosie Flores
After the Farm

Ya know, I wanted a lot more info from the liner notes about this Tejana with the whiskey voice, big guitar and dusty - from - the - road songs than who did her hair and makeup (not that they didn't do a great job or anything, but unless you're gonna include city or phone numbers, forget it, I'll have to stick with Jon Jon down at Hairnancia). Anyway, she's got a great sound, kinda California rock meets Tex-Mex country (one of the few women doing it), with fantastic voice, her own fantastic electric guitar, a 4-boy back-up band with touches of lap steel and slide guitars... love to see her in a club sometime! She wrote or co-wrote all the songs here, including the great opening track, More To Offer, with its somewhat feminist message. So pull up a stool, pour yourself a long cool one and let Rosie do the rest... Recommended! (HT8033) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Wynonna Judd
Tell Me Why

Be still my throbbing heart! This sultry, passionate and proud singer with a voice the size of Cincinnati, truly cut from behind her mama's shadow, steps forward on this 1993 release with 10 contemporary tunes, styles ranging from a Delta swing to a scorching gospel, with ballads and hit-the-floor dance tunes in between. Hope, devastation and redemption are her main themes, and she'll bring you to your knees with the emotion she wrings out of each piece. Includes M.C. Carpenter's Gina With Guitars, a couple of Jesse Winchester gems, and one we'd like to hear Teresa Thall cover, Only Love... If you're a country fan, you'll know her; if you're a two-step refugee, sure you can't stand another 4/4 with a twang, do yourself a favor and get this! (MCA10822) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

R&B ♦ Rap ♦ Dance

Queen Latifah
All Hail the Queen

Now at a great sale price! Queen Latifah, i.e., Dana Owens, has established herself as one of the most significant forces shaping the powerful fusion of rap, dancehall reggae, hip-hop and funk... with a heaping dose of political content. Included here are the scathing The Evil That Men Do, which attacks the oppressions of racism and poverty; Ladies First ("Stereotypes have got to go"); A King and Queen Creation in which she traces her ancestry, and that of all black people, back to Queen Neferiti of Egypt; Mama Gave Birth to the Soul Children, Princess of the Pussies. Recommended! (TB1022) CS: 4.99... CD: 10.98

Queen Latifah
Nature of a Sista

Afrocentric, woman-identified, artistic, and graciously no-nonsense, Queen Latifah reigns proud here, on her second recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah's Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Fancy and Bad As A Mutha, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to, Give Me Your Love and the incandescent How Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism (and sexism on the part of male R&B radio programmers), she would have the same (or more!) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. Highly recommended! (TB1035) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.99

Queen Latifah
Black Reign

Some great material on this 1993 release, her third. The song U.N.I.T.Y. asks the male rappers of the world "Who you callin' a bitch?" This lively, danceable rap track has a more serious message: a call for unity among women to put an end to the put-downs... and she co-directed the corresponding video. Also includes Bring the Flavor LA, There But For the Grace of God, Just A Flow, and more. (MOT6370) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.98

Soho
Goddess

Now at a special price! Soho, powered by the vocal blend of the beautiful black twin sisters Jacqueline and Faunie, broke easily into the alternative dance music scene with their hit HippyChick, and their rhythm permeates this entire album. This playful release bounces from the light clear lyrics of Out of My Mind, to Girl On a Motorbike, to the happy-with-love-and-love message of Nuthin' on My Mind, to the title cut. We can't say enough about the great beat and danceability of this album, so we dare you to try it and get stilt while listening to it! (ATL91585) CS: 8.99... CD: 12.98

Various Artists
The Project

A benefit compilation for Lifebeat, the AIDS funding foundation of the music industry, this 1994 release combines classic and soon-to-be classic dance favorites. Visions of strobe lights and sweaty bodies come to mind, as Grace Jones, the 49ers, Third World, and others lend their best dance mixes or re-mixes to this non-stop party prop... includes Touch Me, Hold On, Feel Up and Talk to Me. (GJ0010) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Gospel

Various Artists
The Great Gospel Women

Contains 31 songs by 16 artists, including Mahalia Jackson, Willie Mae Ford Smith, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Marion Williams, Clara Ward, Cora Martin and others. An outstanding collection, and an excellent way to introduce yourself to many of the women who created and sustained this important African-American music genre. If you don't already know them... a style of music which has been passionate, dynamic, commanding, expressive, and improvisatory. (SHN6004) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.99

Billie Holiday the billie holiday songbook

CAROL CHALKIN

B. Holiday, E. Fitzgerald, et al Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!

A collection which has been growing and changing since the release of "Ella, Lena and Billie" in 1956. Some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever. Includes Billie's What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's East of the Sun (And West of the Moon). (CDL57636) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday

The Billie Holiday Collection

This compilation includes our favorite Billie Holiday songs: Strange Fruit, plus Fine and Mellow, Don't Explain, I Cover the Waterfront, Lover Come Back to Me, ten "Golden Greats" in all. (DV5018) CS: 7.98

Billie Holiday

The Billie Holiday Songbook

This excellent anthology includes one of the very few in-print issues of Strange Fruit — about the lynching of African-Americans. It was one of the most haunting and significant recordings ever made. Banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio. It is frequently omitted from anthologies even today. Also: Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song. Clear sound. We recommend this collection highly. (VRV823245) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Billy Tipton Memorial Sax. Quartet Saxhouse

This women's quartet is named in honor of the late sax player and jazz band leader who lived her life passing as a man in order to be accepted as a serious musician. The "all sax" all the time (with a little bit of drum thrown in) configuration makes for an unusual and arresting listening experience. Funk, klezmer, Bulgarian folk tunes and all the many manifestations of jazz. Amy Denio's original compositions and arrangements, with their darling interweaving melodies and delightful harmonies, attest to an innovative musical talent, and all members participated in writing these selections. You'd be hard pressed to find anything like their closing piece, Bus Horn Concerto, an entertaining give and take between the quartet and their mass transit system! (KFW143) CD: 15.98

Cafe Noir

An amazing album of "symphonic gypsy swing," a unique repertoire which blends European and American jazz with Middle Eastern, gypsy and classical elements, by a 1-woman, 3-man ensemble. The violin, viola, and clarinet of Gale Hees stand at the center, and her heart-wrenching virtuosity is bound to send chills up and down your spine. She's joined by acoustic guitars and bass, and the result is hot, soulful, haunting and incredible. Includes Villa-Lobos' Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5, Aria Cantilena and Variations on a Theme by Paganini. (CDM31010) CD: 15.98

Carol Chalkin

Hold on tight! This woman — who some of you know from her appearances at the Michigan Women's Music Festival and from Lea DeLaria's album and shows — can blow a sax with the best of 'em. Using flute, piano, bass and drums for background, she moves from the toe-tappin' tempo of a New Orleans jazz club to a seductively slow sax sound with incredible ease. Several complex improvisations round out this 1990 release — highly recommended for sax and jazz enthusiasts. (GOT1337) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dave's True Story

It is hard to imagine this group existing anywhere but at a cafe surrounded by blue French cigarette smoke and affectedly bored barefaced goateer/turtleneck ensembles... they embody the original meaning of the word "cool". The duo (silly-voice chanteuse Kelly Flint and writer/guitarist/arranger David Cantor) does that upright bass/sax/trumpet/vibes/guitar '40's-'50's jazz thing that makes me weak in the knees, then mixes it with 90's porno lyrics. Can't Get You Out of My System equates love with STD's. Sommeil Blues is a bitter, ironic spin on a relationship past saving ("As long as we're not talking anyway, let's just talk French"); in Nadine, she sets out to seduce another woman ("So take me where you dream and see what dreams can mean, just fall into my arms, Nadine"). For those times you want to be a "crazy, wigged-out chick" like the one in Sequenced Emerald Dress, this album is your first-class ticket there. (BEP1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald

The Essential Ella: The Great Songs

The First Lady of Song has been swingin' the band for nearly 60 years, and here's a great hour-long anthology with some of her best tunes. Included are Lady Be Good in both scat and slow versions; A-Tisket A-Tasket, Swingtime, Ding! Dong!, The Witch Is Dead, Drop Me Off in Harlem, Mack the Knife, Little Jazz, and 8 more. And unlike many releases, this one has good sound and liner notes! Love that great bouncy big band sound: put this on at your next party for an enjoyable romp. (VRV517176) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marian McPartland

The Music of Mary Lou Williams

This album from the great jazz pianist Marian McPartland marks the first time anyone has ever recorded an entire album of the legendary Mary Lou Williams' timeless music (besides Mary Lou herself). Of the 14 tunes Marian plays in this heartfelt tribute, 11 were penned by Mary Lou, most of them based on the blues. Of the 3 non-MLW cuts, 2 were favorites of hers: It's a Grand Night for Swingin' (Mary Lou's theme song) and My Blue Heaven; and the other, Themody, is a McPartland original, a floating waltz lament dedicated to Mary Lou. The stripped down sound of the piano/bass/drum format ensures delightful treatments of such MLW classics as Cloudy, Wakin' and Swingin' and What's Your Story, Morning Glory?, to which a later and more famous tune, Black Coffee, seems eerily similar (Hmmm... A must-have for jazz fans or for really any fans of great American Music! (CJ4505) CD: 15.98

Solo Concert at Haverford

Marian has always been one of our favorite jazz pianists, and this album has always been one of our favorites of Marian's albums (from her huge discography) — just her and her incredible talent, performing both original compositions and other wonderful pieces like Send In the Clowns. Note great price on the LP, too. (NAL111) LP: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nina Simone

The Tomato Collection (2-CD Set)

A most impressive collection of much of Nina's best work, spanning different periods and different settings in her career, through R&B, jazz, blues, cabaret, gospel, pop and folk. Includes her self-penned young, Gifted and Black, plus Backlash Blues, When I Was a Young Girl, Black is the Color, House of the Rising Sun, Please Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood, Porgy, I Want a Little Sugar in My Bowl, and many more... 2 discs, 37 songs in all! (RH71212) CD: 27.98

The Best of Nina Simone

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes blacklisted and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Platte Jenny, plus Four Women, See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You, which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHB22046) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nina Simone

The 19 selections here emphasize her swingin' and standard jazz repertoire — a preponderance of Ellington tunes, a few Gershwin and Rodgers & Hart — Mood Indigo, The Gai From Joe, It Don't Mean A Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing), plus a couple of songs to change the pace a bit, like Angel of the Morning, Black is the Color. (KP532) CD: 13.98

A Single Woman

After a long hiatus from the recording studio, this incomparable jazz legend returns in triumph with a 1993 release. The title track captures her for the first time in front of a live orchestra, with a richer sound than we've heard before... then from the soundtrack to the film Yentl, Papa, Can You Hear Me? is an impassioned cry to a departed loved one... she breathes new life into an old chestnut, in The More I See You. Lonesome Blues has an endearingly wry spirit... and only a woman who's lived her extraordinary life could bring new meaning to a song long associated with Sinatra — Lover's Been Good To Me. We welcome back one of our all-time favorites! (ELB1503) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sarah Vaughan Favorites

Sarah began singing professionally in 1943 and continued to become one of the greatest jazz vocalists ever, with the distinguishing characteristics of a pronounced vibrato and perfect control. This album includes 9 selections, including Corner to Corner, Vanity, City Called Heaven, Ave Maria. (SON13517) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 10.98

Alberta Hunter Amtrack Blues

A variety of material, representative of her performances at the NYC Club, "The Cookery," over the past several years. Includes Sweet Georgia Brown, My Handy Man Ain't Handy, No More. (COL36430) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Bessie Smith The Collection

This 16-song collection is a great introduction to this early lesbian Blues Queen's hits! Her voluptuous, rich voice is incomparable on songs like Young Woman's Blues, Taint Nobody's Business If I Do, Gimme A Pigfoot, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, You've Been A Good Ole Wagon, Alberta Hunter and Lovely Austin's Downhearted Blues, and many others. Includes ample liner notes, which many releases don't, and sound's not bad, considering this is some of the earliest recorded music. (COL44441) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton Ball N' Chain

This 60-minute album is an excellent Big Mama anthology, includes Hound Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it, even though over 2 million copies were sold). The title song, which Big Mama wrote, was recorded also by Janis Joplin — but Big Mama never received any royalties, because she had to sign over the copyright in order to record it herself! (And had to compensate for her tremendous contributions!) Other titles here are Wade In The Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH305) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ida Cox Wild Women Don't Have the Blues

A volume originally recorded in 1961. Many folks have since belted this blues song, but here is the woman who wrote & first sang it in 1924... it's one of the strongest, no-nonsense women's statements ever made. Ida was one of the most important Classic Blues singers of the golden era. ("the only decade when women reigned"). (ROS1364) CS: 9.98

Katie Webster Swamp Boogie Queen

Bonnie Raitt considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion... which we'd agree with. And, she's already released over 500 recordings; it's about time for her to gain some notoriety. This, her first album in several years, is a musical gumbo of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, r&b and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie piano. Includes Who's Making Love?, Black Sam. (ALL4768) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Koko Taylor Queen of the Blues

On this all-out, foot-stomping, house-rocking recording, Koko wraps her giant voice around 10 great songs, including Queen Bee, Flamin' Mamie, Come to Mama, I Can Love You Like a Woman (Or I Can Fight You Like a Man). With guest performances by Albert Collins, James Cotton, Son Seals, and Lonnie Brooks. (ALL4740) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Straight Ahead Body & Soul

On their 1993 release, these 5 women prove that their debut album was a portent of great music to come. This eclectic collection spans 50 years and several styles, from the frenetic Hot House to the mellow title track. The album's topped off by The Needy Theme, a surprising and very contemporary spoken piece in which a homiegirl complains about her boyfriend; set to a house beat, this is a cut one might expect to hear from a pop group such as En Vogue. Highlights include their rendition of Jealous and their signature Straight Ahead, an energetic and inspiring song strengthened by Cynthia Dewberry's vocals. (ATL82482) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tuck and Patti Tears of Joy

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart, accompanied only by her husband Tuck Andress' guitar. Each song is a perfect gem: notably Cindy Lauper's Time After Time, plus Takes My Breath Away, title, and more. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in her style is impressive and engaging, the result of nine years of working in this duo. Very fine. (WH0111) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Maria Muldaur Louisiana Love Call

Forget the oaks, let's head down south and get some real comfort, the "Bluesians" type, that is... She's o'clock, she's wiser, and she's found a new home! Every song on this 1992 release evokes that steamy, sexy nighttime heat. Joined by a plethora of local talent (Dr. John, some Neville Brothers, Lucy Burnett on vocals, others), Maria sings in that primal way of hers, combining hormones and heart for a potent combination — her voice is perfectly suited to the music of the region, passionate and strong and sometimes wavery with emotion. The title waltz is a knock-out, with Aaron Neville on background vocals, while Cajun Moon is more contemporary sounding (and just as hot); also includes her bad-girl hit, Don't You Feel My Lag. (BLT1061) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire The Uptight Blues Women

The Washington Post describes this as "Sassy, brassy, raunchy... racy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jell-roll harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their second release includes Even Yuppies Get the Blues, Annie's Blues, Feet Up When You Mess Up, Yeah! (ALL4780) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire The Middle Aged Blues

Natural acoustic down-home blues on this debut tape by a culturally and geographically diverse trio: Gaye, a black Virginia Baptist; Earlene, part Cherokee and all Okie; and Ann, a Jewish Ohioan. They rotate vocals on this collection of blues songs, some original, and all play a variety of the following instruments: guitar, bass, piano, harmonica. Includes Middle Aged Boogie Blues, Your Husband's Cheating On Us, Funk! (SAF1) CS: 9.98

Saffire — The Uptight Blues Women Hot Flash

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy blueswomen live, by all means go! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1/2, No Need Pissin' On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4795) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire — The Uptight Blues Women BroadCasting

This 1992 release finds Saffire pared down to a duo of the band's original founding members, Gaye Adegbole and Ann Rabson... with their trademark sound remaining bawdy intact: "irresistible portions of sass and soul, tradition and attitude... the wit and irony of blues divas of yesteryear, with an updated twist." Includes the following tunes: One Hour Mama, Dump That Chump, Miz Thang, It's Alright For A Man To Cry, Mind Your Own Business, 17 in all. (ALL4811) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sippie Wallace Women Be Wise

Along with Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey, Sippie was one of the greatest classic blues singers of all time. Her trademark singing style was the precursor to the styles of artists like Saffire - The Uptight Blues Women and Bonnie Raitt (who has performed with Sippie, recorded several of Sippie's songs, and always cites Sippie as her main inspiration!). This re-release of 1935 recordings, originally released on the Storyville label, includes 11 duet performances featuring Sippie alternately backed by blues piano giants Roosevelt Sykes and Little Brother Montgomery, plus one track with Sippie accompanying herself on piano. (ALL4810) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tuck and Patti Dream

No ordinary "girl with guitar" here! This woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk, and her vocal relationship to Tuck's incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slide around the corners of jazz ballads (As Time Goes By, Friends in High Places), 3 of Patti's originals (High Heel Blues is her acappella ode to the agony and ecstasy of addictive shoe shopping, which this reviewer is also cheerfully powerless over!) and Wendy & Lisa's From Now On (We're One). Recommended. (WH0130) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Various Artists Women in Jazz: Feminist Retrospect

This two-compact-disc set contains material from the Stash label's double LP Jazz Women plus cuts from their Women in Jazz series, now out of print as single albums... in other words, selections from the also out-of-print 5-LP set Forty Years of Women in Jazz. Over 40 cuts, over 2 hours, featuring women as bandleaders, arrangers, horn players, pianists, with liner notes by Mary Lou Williams. Historically significant, highly recommended! (JAS910) CD: 24.98

Sippie Wallace

Sue Foley Young Girl Blues

This young Canadian blues singer/guitarist is simply amazing! Some quotes from the artist: "Women grow up faster than men and that shows in the way they play guitar." And: "I'm going to play as good as a man and I ain't gonna be no rhythm player." Well, at the tender age of 22, this is already true — in fact, she's probably better than most men. Her 1992 debut release showcases her diverse abilities: she mixes low-down originals in the Lightning Hopkins vein with cool instrumentals from Earl Hooker and vintage numbers from Memphis Minnie and Tampa Red; also a vocal duet with Angela Strehli. Recommended! (AN0019) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy Nelson In the Here and Now

The blues roots of this remarkable contralto run deep on this 1993 release. Both before and since her late 60's days with Mother Earth, she has demonstrated that she can sing the blues with a power and emotion that is rarely matched. Here she pays tribute to the music that inspired her, more in the urban R&B vein than the acoustic country blues many of us recall from her 1965 debut Deep Are the Roots... although this album does include Motherless Child Blues, which also appeared on that out-of-print classic. We'd give anything to have that early album back in our catalog, but in its absence, here's the next best thing. The closing track, Please Send Me Someone To Love, features a duet vocal with Irma Thomas, soul queen of New Orleans. (ROU3123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists Sissy Man Blues: Str't & Gay Blues

Blues vocals with a sexual theme from the '20s, '30s and '40s, pertaining to women and men—lesbian, gay and straight—demonstrating how gay elements have always been a part of the American musical counter-culture. Contains selections from 2 LPs on the Stash label, AC-DC Blues: Gay Jazz Revelations and Straight And Gay. Includes Fairy Blues and Bessie Jackson's S.D. Woman's Blues (S.D. for Sult Dogger or Bull Dyke, the story goes). (JAS13) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists Ind. Women's Blues 1: Mean Mothers

First in a series of Independent Women's Blues... and one of the best, most refreshing anthologies of women's blues in existence. Good sound quality, which is difficult to obtain with releases... outstanding selection of material. Includes Bessie Brown's Any Much Good in the Best of Men Nowadays (1923), a 1938 Ida Cox recording One Hour Mama (she also wrote Wild Women Don't Get the Blues), Billie Holiday's Baby Got Lost. ## Clarissa Pinkola Estes The Gift of Story

Subtitled A Wise Tale About What Is Enough, this is a series of interlocking stories that answer the question, "What is enough?" They are healing stories born of deep suffering and handed down to the author/storyteller by elders within her foster family...about the bounty we have to give when there is nothing left to give...illustrating how love survives regardless of loss, and how the simple gestures are often the most rich. 60 min. (SND228) CS: 9.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes Stories, Spirit and Soul

On this radio interview, the author discusses how the soul constantly broadcasts guidance and assistance to us through body sensations, intuition, dreams, and storytelling. Stories speak the symbolic language of the soul, speaking through it and to it, changing both teller and listener. She illustrates this with the telling of "Skeleton Woman," an Aleutian story about life, death and love, and offers some of her own wisdom for developing more authenticity and balance in the daily activities of our lives. 50 min. (NDR2344) CS: 10.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes Warming the Stone Child

On this tape subtitled Myths & Stories About Abandonment and the Unmothered Child, this gifted storyteller and Jungian analyst leads the listener past the gates of the conscious mind, to discover the unmothered child within. Drawing from many world cultures, she has gathered a collection of deep myths, fables and fairy tales (such as The Stolen Woman Moon) which illuminate the psychology of abandonment in childhood, how it affects people later in life, and its curiously special gifts and powers. Her storytelling creates a picture of the orphan figure through the ages, while helping us understand the meaning of pre-adolescent abandonment in our own lives...a challenging journey with a practical edge. 90 min. (SND104) CS: 10.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes In the House of the Riddle Mother

On this 2-cassette set, the creator of Women Who Run with the Wolves surveys the most common archetypal patterns of women's dreams, and using this information to answer unresolved questions buried within the psyche. Dream motifs explored include: birth, orgasm, injured animals, disaster, finding and losing treasure, snakes, and more. Based on 20 years of work, this is a dense, poetic storehouse of information about the dream lives of women. 180 min. (SND152) CS: 18.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes The Red Shoes

This tape, subtitled On Torment and the Recovery of Soul Life, illuminates how we are driven to destructive behavior by ignoring our own inner needs. Built around a retelling of the title story, the author offers, with Jungian commentary and helpful counsel, a treatise on building a life that is uniquely our own — the "hand-made life" — by listening to the instructive forces of our instinctual selves. (SND202) CS: 10.98

Women Who Run with the Wolves 2-Set

This program preceded the publication of the best-selling book by the same name, and is similar in content, though not identical — it is magical storytelling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and women and wildlife really, have been tarred with the same brush. They have been destroyed, misled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tribe of females indeed. These tapes are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine." Her delivery is excellent, and the subject matter fascinating: female sexuality; lust and sublimation; passion and creativity; wolf-woman; and much more. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND069) CS: 18.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes How to Love a Woman (2-Tape Set)

Subtitled On Intimacy and the Erotic Life of Women, these words and stories of guidance are for all women and men who thirst to love and be loved by a woman. This psychoanalyst/cantadora (keeper of the old stories) teaches that in love relationships, each partner challenges, nourishes and transforms the other; that achieving life-long love requires an understanding of the mysterious internal cycles that fuel relationships; that every relationship fades and expires, only to be reborn in a fresh and strengthened form. Included are her new versions of ecstatic love poems by Sappho, the story of Skeleton Woman, and a section on the importance of the erotic dimension in a relationship. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND222) CS: 18.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes The Radiant Coat

This 90-minute cassette is an exploration into the great mystery of death, through the seamless storytelling and psychological commentary that has become Dr. Estes' hallmark. As she shares her lifetime of work collecting teaching stories which seek to penetrate the meaning of death, she offers a poetic vision that removes the cloak of fear surrounding what happens when we die. (SND118) CS: 10.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes The Creative Fire (2-Tape Set)

This riveting synthesis of myths, advice, and commentary is created especially for those who depend on their creative powers every day: writers, artists, teachers, and anyone working to cultivate their own instinctive abilities to give birth to ideas, projects, and relationships. By igniting creativity, she teaches, we ignite the spark which connects us with the divine. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND211) CS: 18.98

Dorothy Allison

Bastard Out of Carolina (2-Tapes)

This amazing, wonderful, fabulous southern writer (we're fans — can ya tell?) reads her compelling, extraordinary story of a young girl caught up in family violence, incest, and redemption. Even if you've already read the book (perhaps especially if you've read the book), you'll love this, she's such a great reader. 2 cassettes, approx. 3 hours, abridged, recommended! She blends her own experiences, parables from the lives of people as diverse as Mahatma Gandhi and Julie Andrews, and research on the meaning of self-esteem. She offers practical ways of looking inward to learn from the unique knowledge inside, and takes us on a voyage through nature, spirituality, and the capacities of the human brain. 2 cassettes, 3 hours. ## Jean Shinoda Bolen

The Wise-Woman Archetype

Subtitled Menopause as Initiation, the author of Goddesses in Everywoman presents the sacred dimensions of the wise-woman's crane, integrating insights from the Women's Movement with archetypal psychology. She discusses: the triple goddess; blood mysteries in ancient cultures; the Inquisition as female holocaust; when strong female figures threatened patriarchy's domination over western culture; woman's pilgrimage; utilizing this archetype as a means of spiritual empowerment; and more. This is fascinating, useful information that takes us to the horizon of our understanding about the special wisdom that comes to women after menopause. (SND137) CS: 9.98

Her wild sex talk will embolden, inform and tickle... both intellectually and sexually! Topics include: sexual healing for people living with AIDS; lesbian "safe sex"; hot sex related to longevity of lesbian relationships; consequences of denying sexuality, and much more. ## Laura Simms

Women and Wild Animals (2-Tape Set)

Animals speak the natural rhythm of the earth, the joyful and fearless dance of birth and death, reminding us of our wilder, more instinctual selves. Hearing stories reawakens our animal ears and eyes, and reminds us, as all myths do, to live with wisdom and compassion as part of the natural world. Subtitled How! the Morning Welcome, this 2-tape set is a collection of stories based on sacred myth, animal lore, and personal experience... both an eloquent exploration of the feminine principle and an invocation to our animal and human ancestors. ### Moon On Fire...Power of Feminine

On this storytelling tape for adults, Laura brings to life the Feminine Principle through her vivid portrayals of the old crone, the wise consort, and other symbols of female being. Folktales from Africa, Siberia, Hawaii, and Persia are told with animation, imagination, and colorful characterizations. Laura says, "They can be heard as separate narratives, or as story within story of the bigger story of ourselves. If we seduce Her to awaken us, She will nurture our world. If we ignore Her, She will destroy in order to awaken us." Recommended. (YM1) CS: 9.98

LoveWorks: Sonika Tinker/Debra Rein Creating & Nurturing Relationships

For Lesbians, is the complete title of this 70-minute mini-workshop. The presenters, as some of you will know from their workshops at the Michigan Women's Music Festival and West Coast Women's Music and Comedy Festival, take a radical and effective approach to relationship coaching — not therapeutic, but educational. Through both lecture and participatory exercises, they illustrate how to: replace unhealthy patterns, bring out the best in one's self and others, create a healthy relationship foundation, and deal with difficult situations... to move from wanting to having more intimacy, joy, passion, and fulfillment. (LW1) CS: 11.98

Lynda Barry

The Lynda Barry Experience

Luckily, this isn't an album of music, or listeners might be frightened by the exuberant and aggressively off-key song which opens and closes this collection of short stories and bizarre answering machine messages. Lynda's bittersweet stories of growing up in a lower middle-class neighborhood in the late 1960's will be a theme familiar to fans of her syndicated strip Ernie Pook's Comeback. Speaking through the voice of a young teenage girl, she has the ability to make us simultaneously laugh and cry at the world. One of the many highlights is the story about how "lesbianism" became the rage in her elementary school class... as the theme song says, "It's a way out, way out experience!" This tape almost didn't make it into this catalog because it was so busy circulating among the staff here; highly recommended! (GOS22009) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

BLOOD AS A BRIGHT COLOR

Word From Michelle T. Clinton

Michelle T. Clinton

Blood As A Bright Color

"My work is an attempt to assimilate the racist & sexist violence experienced by my body." Michelle Clinton has no intention of mining words, as poet, performance artist and teacher, the themes addressed in her work range from sexual violence to her personal recovery from child abuse, themes which are expressed with strength, force, and vehemence. This recording is absolutely compelling, amazing, humorous, powerful, frank, graphic, and necessary. This deep body of work has been bolstered by international readings, her lectures on sexism and the feminist creative process, and the development and performance of literary presentations on the works of African American women writers. Highly recommended! (NAR066) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Parents of Lesbians and Gays

Accepting Your Gay or Lesbian Child

In their own words, mothers and fathers who are members of PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays) tell how parents can overcome their judgments towards their lesbian or gay children, and love them just the way they are. They discuss what it's like to discover your child is gay; how to talk openly about it; religion, homophobia, and much more. A great gift for a parent who needs it! 90 minutes. (SND122) CS: 9.98

The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release, even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RH49) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Roseanne Arnold

My Lives (2-Cassette Set)

On this 3-hour abridgement of her autobiography which took her 4 years to write, the author herself tells the unvarnished, uncensored, raw and raunchy truth about what has happened to her since Roseanne became a hit. She also talks openly about her personal life, surviving the pain of her childhood, and the many personalities that live inside of her (thus, the title). She once again breaks the mold and speaks with honesty, bluntness, and courage. (RDH338) CS: 16.98

Light Worker: Stories with Music

Shanta Nurullah, an exceptional African American storyteller, "channels" this 1994 collection of spiritual stories that will truly carry the listener to the places of wonder of which they speak. As has been the task of storytellers since ancient times, her soothing and enchanting voice encourages the discovery of our power of loving, healing, and creating space. The accompanying music demonstrates Shanta's mastery of instruments from around the world: sitar, mbira, reed zither, Kenyan harp, Ghanaian peg drum, electric bass. Especially love the very powerful and feminist Village of Women (sounds like Michigan!), accompanied by her women's band "Samana" — suitable for children, large and small — Highly recommended! ## The Children of Selma

Who Will Speak for the Children

Jesse Jackson said of this album: "Unbelievable harmonic messages of peace, love and justice that could transform the world if the world would listen." This collection of new songs from community children of the historic Civil Rights Movement, produced by Cathy Fink and Jane Sapp, is a highly political and moving statement of continuing strength and struggle. It weaves strands from the musical traditions of gospel, blues, and rap, with lyrics by Rose Sanders which are at once poetic and direct, speaking out against racism and sexism and war-making, and for self-respect, a rainbow coalition. Piano by Jane Sapp, vocals by 25 female and male children and teens. Includes Unite Children, Black Is Beautiful, If Children Rule the World, I Just Want to Be Me. Highly recommended. ## Heather Bishop

Bellybutton

Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC — Canada's national radio network — this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' albums around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaldor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lot") and title song: "On my bellybutton I love you... You're the only friend I have — the one who really cares/care every time I need you — you're always there... When things get down and looking kinda grim/ simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in... Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. Heather produced and mixed. (MOP003) CS: 9.98

Purple People Eater

Well folks, we lucked out! Heather Bishop decided to focus her considerable talent, wit, and warmth on another kids' album. Opening with a moving rendition of Ghost Riders In The Sky complete with female pronouns, she then swings into The Fairy Song and the rollicking The Name Game ("Shirley Shirley bo biley..."). Winter Lullaby will soothe sleepheads of all ages, as will her gentle version of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. Connie Kaldor, Tracy Riley & Ilana Zarembo contribute inspired back-up vocals and again, production and instrumentation is highly sophisticated. Recommended for preschool, middle young. ### A Duck In New York City

Winner of the Gold Parents Choice Award, and following in the tradition of Bellybutton and Purple People Eater, Heather's third children's album is much more than a collection of songs — it's the story of the adventures of a country duck in the big city. From a chance meeting with a robot on the street to playing a guitar solo with the Slug Opera, Heather's whimsical fantasy abounds — funny and touching in turns. Several of the songs are by Connie Kaldor, who accompanies Heather on vocals. Includes Dancing Fool and I Want A Robot. Highly recommended! (MOP008) CS: 9.98

Danger the Dog Yard Cat (Tape-Book)

Not only was Libby the first woman to win the famous Iditarod sled dog race across Alaska, she's a talented children's author, song-writer and vocalist! She co-wrote these tunes about how her cat, Danger, leads a woman musher's dog team to victory as "lead cat"! The 36-page book was written with Shelley Gill (an experienced musher herself — she completed the Iditarod in 1978) and beautifully illustrated by Shannon Cartwright; if you read the book while listening, just turn the page when you hear the Meow! This whimsical and musical tale of the far north makes a wonderful gift for the adventurous girl. (PAW8) CS: 14.98

Marlo Thomas and Friends

Free To Be...A Family

Just a list of the artists who appear on this follow-up to the original Free To Be is enough reason to present this to every child you know. Whoopi Goldberg, Lily Tomlin's brilliant Edith Ann, Bea Arthur playing fairy godmother to Gilda Radner's comic Cinderella, Bonnie Raitt singing on I'm Never Afraid To Say What's On My Mind; there's Ladysmith Black Mambazo, Carly Simon, Kermit the Frog and The Muppets; Robin Williams, Mel Brooks, Jane Curtin, Pat Benatar, and the list goes on. A companion piece to the best-selling book by the same name, or all by itself, the songs, stories and poems on this album encourage kids to feel part of the universal family. (AM5196) CS: 10.98

Free To Be...You And Me

With Carol Channing, Diana Ross, Alan Alda, & others. There may never have been any kids' album in history which so thoroughly charmed kids, adults & anyone else. That it can communicate anti-sexist material in such a delightful, creative, appealing, exuberant way is remarkable. Includes numbers like Girl Land, William's Doll, Parents Are People, It's All Right to Cry. One kid said "Listening to this record is like listening to my heart laughing." Highly recommended! ## Mary Akerman

Child to Child

Don't just buy this for kids! Yes, you can make a great gift for a child with this... but these gorgeous classical guitar renditions of such sweet tender melodies deserves to be heard and savored by us elders too (inasmuch as all) Mary's interpretive talents and beautiful technique reveal the haunting essences of familiar lullabies like All the Pretty Little Horses, All Through the Night, Brahma's Lullaby, and more, as well as an ancient Hebrew lullaby, Standing Under My Baby's Cradle, and others from Afro-Cuban, Chinese, Latin American, Caribbean, and American spiritual traditions. ## Mary-Kate & Ashley Olsen

Brother for Sale

These young, identical twin sisters present a whole tape by kids for kids, reflecting some of the actual issues of utmost importance to the average 5-year old: Brother for Sale, Desperate For a Dog, Peanut Butter, I Can't Hear My Parents Call, Uh-Oh Accident. It's refreshing to hear what seem to be genuine sentiments, such as the song about the girl who says "Sewer, sewer, I hate boys and that means you!" rather than adults singing about their versions of what kids should be thinking. All the songs do end on positive, reconciliatory notes, and we think children, especially girls, will enjoy these songs because they'll be able to identify! (ZM30016) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Pamala Ballingham

Earth Mother Lullabies, Vol. 1

Selected by the ALA as a Notable Children's Recording for 1986, this is a lovely and even celestial collection of timeless lullabies from a myriad of traditions. Includes carefully-chosen representations from the Icelandic, Iroquois (the chant-like Ho Ho Watanai), Irish (Gartan Mother's Lullaby), Jewish, Japanese, African, Australian, Russian, and Spanish cultures. It's unique in the fact that the instrumentation — harp, flute, mandolin, guitar and percussion — is sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy, without diminishing the effectiveness of its purpose: to put little ones to sleep! Booklet of words included. (EM1) CS: 9.98

Treasury of Earth Mother Lullabies

Okay y'all, this is a test... We want to know whether we should be stopping children's CDs (lots are available) as this is a fad, since when we did, you didn't buy any; as this is a fad, since when we did, you didn't buy any; as this is a fad, since when we did, you didn't buy any... we have no CD-only release that we think is worth having, or lack of them, choice but to offer it in this format! ## Priscilla Herdman

Star Dreamer-Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinary. The first side contains wonderful fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waltzing bears and stuff; side 2 consists of 8 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Springing from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen. Charming! (ALA1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 13.98

The Re-Bops

Funny 50's & Silly 60's

This isn't just a "Volume II" of the Re-Bops' first hit album; it's a collection of some of the wackiest, nuttiest songs that the baby-boom generation ever drove their parents crazy with! Updated versions of those favorites, from Purple People Eater to Woody Bully to Witch Doctor to Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on the Bedpost Overnight?, will keep you and the kids in your life giggling, jumping and singing for years to come. (RB102) CS: 10.98

Amazing!

One of the most amazing kids' albums we've heard, and we know others share our sentiments. The music's extremely high-energy, the production very professional, the instrumentation representative of world cultures, the lyrics pretty right on and aware as well as fun, and we can't imagine that this wouldn't be a hit anywhere! Songs promote self-confidence, owning one's inner power (as opposed to transferring it to TV superheroes), peaceful co-existence, friendship, and mischief! Includes Chocolate Pudding Queen, Rainbow of Colors, The Power, I'm Cool. For ages 4-11... highly recommended! (AMZ01) CS: 9.98

Emilio Delgado (Lulu from Sesame Street) narrates this bilingual journey through Latin America... and teaches some key Spanish words as in the process. A host of musicians, including Bobi Caspedes, Jacqueline Rago, Sukay, and Carolyn Brandy (in fact, mostly women artists), provide great sounds and rhythms, certain to entertain and absorb children. They learn traditional Mexican folk songs, a bilingual rap, play songs, and a peaceful Cuban lullaby. The music is fun, sophisticated, and easy to learn; the Spanish pronunciation is clear and accessible. A terrific multi-cultural adventure for young people! (MLP42525) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Rainbow Sign

About the most diversified album of children's music we've ever seen, which should delight adults with good taste just as much as their younger charges! From Sweet Honey in the Rock, to the Holly Near/Ronnie Gilbert/Arlo Guthrie/Pete Seeger collaboration... from Flor de Cano to Navajo artist Sharon Burch... there's Mike and Peggy Seeger, Beauséjour, Tom Chapin, Children of Selma, Yellowman, Patricia Shih, John McCutcheon, and more, chock-full of important humanitarian messages! A highlight is Sally Rogers' fabulous song 1492, which exposes the misinformation connected with Columbus and which needs to be heard by all kids in case they're still spreading lies in schools... So do some kids and their adults a favor: make this quality '92 release your next gift! (ROU0025) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Walk A Mile

One of the most animated, contemporary, professional, hippest kids' recordings we've heard; it should have strong appeal to kids from a wide range of cultural and socio-economic backgrounds, as it cures the problem of boring children's music! This ensemble of mixed gender, race, and age (half are kids, half adults) sings songs by Jan Nigro, Laura Nyro's brother, leading us to conclude that good songwriting is a family trait. Great messages, about independent thinking, justice, truthfulness, conflict resolution, and more. Winner, 1992 Parents' Choice Award. Highly recommended! (LCM101) CS: 9.95

"Mehn's Music"

"I like the fact that we're part of a movement of gay and straight men who are creating non-sexist music. But for those who have never heard of the men's movement, to say that we do Men's Music only conjures up images of songs about pick-up trucks. Indeed, most music since the beginning of time has been Men's Music by subliminally or not-so-subliminally promoting patriarchal values. For this reason, I think we need to make a distinction by spelling it Mehn's Music."

— Ron Romanovsky, originator of the Mehn's Music spelling!

Adult Children of Heterosexuals

From the title to the cover photos on this 1992 4-song cassette EP, this group of women and men takes camp to new heights, and graphic titles and lyrics do justice to the shock value they promote. Whether tuned in to the Butch Side or Femme Side, you'll be treated to funny, harsh, and often trashy lyrics. A must for anyone coping with the "right" — great therapy! (ACH1) CS: 6.95

Bill McKinley

Everything Possible

About this 1993 release, Michael Cullen said, "... a stunning musical debut. Any true connoisseur of great singing, good taste and queer content will immediately rush out and BUY THIS ALBUM." And Kate Clinton said Bill "sings like an angel." We don't need to add much to these accolades, because we agree with them... it's gay-positive and loving and beautiful. So, do it! ## Bill Russell & Janet Hood

Elegies: Angels/Punks/Raging Queens

Inspired by a viewing of the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt, Bill Russell began assembling poetry and writing his own verses to make a theatrical canvas of the many types of people both infected and affected by AIDS. A touching memorial to those who have been claimed by AIDS and a source of comfort for those left behind. Music by Janet Hood, still remembered by us as one half of the fabulous Jade and Sarsaparilla duo. (FNU035) CD: 16.95

Childman

A powerful offering from the lead singer of Consolidated, this 1993 release is a laser blast against all things patriarchal. Performing in front of a musical backdrop that varies from industrial to hard rock to sweet 1970's soul, Adam Sherbourne condemns male violence against women, children and the earth. If the furious indignation that drives this album were from a woman, it would be called "incident." Childman paints personal montages of the pain and destruction caused by traditional male attitudes and challenges men to reject this inflexible, a strong anti-sexist sentiment summed up by the incredible song Refuse To Be A Man. Highly recommended! (NET30050) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 16.95

Consolidated

Business of Punishment

Fusing sampling technology with conventional rock instrumentation, this SF band uses the pop music medium to examine social and political issues, as well as critiquing pop music itself. Once again on this 1994 release, doing what they do so outrageously well, they address patriarchy, sexism, abuse, crime, rape, AIDS and HIV, reproductive rights, justice, the pornography, AIDS and HIV, reproductive rights, justice, the media and more (what?). Against a musical backdrop of rock, metal, rap and funk, songs include Born Of A Woman, Woman Shoots John, No Answer For A Dancer, Emancipate Yourself, Would love to see their shows, they've introduced post-gig discussion sessions to foster communication and dialogue about human and animal rights — a spontaneous form of democratic interaction that is at the heart of their vision for the potential utility of pop music. ## Consolidated

Friendly FaScism

The first anti-patriarchal, pro-feminist, anti-racist & non-homophobic radical vegetarian hip hop group of guys this reviewer has ever encountered! The liner notes don't give their identities, but the lyrics are printed, and damn, they're good! San Francisco-based, they employ rap, hip hop & industrial styles to convey their disgust at this culture's anti-life systems, artistically and intelligently exposing the connections between all the rampant "isms": Unity of Oppression compares patriarchal devaluing of women with meat-eating. Typical! Male describes the different identities today's jerk may wear ("the sensitive rapist... the pseudo feminist... thinks with his D.I.C.K.") and the daily atrocities they commit; the title song is a chilling, bouncy tune that makes George Orwell's vision look like a child's story... and Sexual Politics of Meat features Carol Adams reading from her book of the same name. All in all, this is one of the most important releases of the decade, politics you can't help but dance to. Highly recommended. (IRS13089) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Culture Club & Boy George

At Worst... Best of...

19 smash hits — a whole decade's worth! Includes all of Culture Club's biggest hit singles: Karma Chameleon, Do You Really Want To Hurt Me, and more... plus Boy George's solo triumphs, up to and including the 1993 comeback victory, The Crying Game. We haven't seen the album art yet as we go to press, but the pre-release flyer has a picture of Boy George, about which our sales rep wrote: "Here's your requested Boy (Girl) George info. He's looking pretty butch in that weed suit, no? Nice herringbone check. We just had to share that with you." (S&K35041) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Dan Martin & Michael Biello

Hu'Man*Be'Ing

On the second (1992) release by the makers of Homo Love Song, these co-writers continue to carve out a place as gay songwriters and performers. Simply produced, Dan performs their out and heartfelt songs, including Let Me Love You Now, Drop, Dance, So Many Lay Your Burden Down and more. (HMO2) CS: 9.95

Doug Stevens & The Outband

Out in the Country

Well, this little ol' reviewer couldn't two-step if her life depended on it, but if you're blessed with a little rhythm, there's lots here for you — and even if you're not, it's great listening. This 3-man 4-woman band showcases some stragglin' songs like Sweet Breath of Love and Love Amor Te amo as well as some heel-kickin' tunes like Born in Mississippi... also includes HIV Blues and Cactus Country, which features alternate lead singer Dastee. Nydia "Liberty" Mats on drums and percussion, Lorin Sklamberg on guitar and accordion are a couple of the familiar band members. Look for them on the 93 March on Washington video! ## The Fabulous Pop Tarts

Gagging on the Lovely Extravaganza

This is house music for the post-modern queer nation, with over an hour of music as fun as the song titles imply. My Kitty is a Martian, International Twinkie Song, Planet Pop, Voodoo, Do, and Disco Music Paradise Features the "sampledelicacies" of Dee-lites' Lady Miss Kier and RuPaul. It's a concoction of one snoop Pet Shop Boys, one snoop Erasure, a spritz of bubbly soda and heaped with those rainbow jimmies. As the title track advises "Turn in, turn on, wig out!" (FUN23) CD: 16.95

The Flirtations

Live: Out On the Road

Our favorite boy acappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural acappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun, Clayton Be A Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon; Donde Esta Dolores?; Michael Callen's Living in Wartime; and fun ragot favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. A terrific mixture of pleasure and politics; highly recommended again! (FLR1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beats. Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Font; Sweet Honey's Breath; and an incredible cover of Chris Williamson's Shooting Star. A wonderfully varied album; very highly recommended! (SIG903) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fred Small

I Will Stand Fast

This 1985 release contains a beautiful duet with Chris Williamson, This Love, Scott and Janis, the true story of two children removed from their foster home solely because the parents were two gay men; Denmark 1943, the story of the escape of 7000 Jews from occupied Denmark to Sweden on the eve before their arrest; If I Were A Moose, based on the true tale of moose-cow courtship; and other vignettes, each a poem of lyric, melody and thought. Accompanists include John McCutcheon, Lorraine Dulist of Trapezoid. (FF491) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jaguar

On this 1991 release, lawyer turned folksinger/activist performs his own material that addresses everything from war to endangered wildlife to child abuse. Each song tells a story and makes a point in his inimitable manner; includes Light in the Hall, based on the recollections and writings of an incest survivor; Simple Living; All the Time in the World. (FF570) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Everything Possible

More topical songs of conscience on this 1993 release — a follow-up to his highly acclaimed album Jaguar — including Rodney King's Blessing and The Marine's Lament, or The Pink Pearl, which is a gently comic depiction of the tragedy inherent in the negative attitude toward gays in the military. Still one of the finest song-writers of our time. (FF625) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Heart of the Appaloosa

Fred's prolific and eloquent songwriter, who has written a wealth of material in support of various progressive political movements, including feminist, environmental, peace, and disability. This album, which features the instrumental and vocal talents of folks like Betsy Rose, Sally Rogers, and Maxine Feldman, includes Talking Wheelchair Blues; Face At the Window, a powerful song which deals with rape, queer-bashing, and violence, discrimination, and outlaw status awarded to minorities and "heretics" everywhere; and Annie, about a lesbian teacher. Great songs and excellent delivery and production. (ROU4014) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Washington DC

Singing Free

A very eclectic mix of material, similar to their live performances, appears on this 1994 release: opera to gospel, Broadway to comedy, ballads, even 2 originals. Founded in 1981, the 140-member chorus has appeared in the Kennedy Center, the Cherry Blossom Parade, and inaugural celebrations for a Mayor and a President. Favorites include a great rendition of Christine Lavin's Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind; Love Don't Need a Reason, co-written by Michael Callen; and Leonard Bernstein's My House, for a now-forgotten version of Peter Pan. (GMW1) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles

Diversity

The repertoire of this recording is taken from the 109-member GMLCA's 1991 European tour, and reflects the diversity of American music and of gay life in America. Contains both popular and concert music, traditional men's choral pieces and recently composed works, with an emphasis on works by gay composers. Cuts include Somewhere Medley, Dennis Kaldor's There Comes A Time, Ned Florm's stunning Love Alone, a poem cycle by Paul Monette elegizing the death of his lover, Roger Horowitz, plus Canto de Esperanza, Family, and a gorgeous rendition of Ave Maria, in Latin, of course! If you enjoy men's voices, you're sure to appreciate this recording! (GMC1) CD: 16.98

Hidden Legacies

Jon Bailey, artistic director of the Chorus, commissioned Roger Bourland and John Hall to compose a major choral work dealing with the AIDS crisis in "clear unequivocal terms". The result is this cantata in 7 movements scored for synthesizers, bass guitar, drums and the men's chorus, whose "very existence is a response to the crisis". This 1993 album is, in the words of the composer, "a tribute to those living with HIV, to those left behind, and to those who have offered selfless help in times of pain and intense sorrow". (GMC2) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jimmy Somerville

The Singles Collection 1984/1990

John Buccino

Solitude Lessons

If you're a romantic, this is for you! John writes eloquent and beautiful pieces about the many aspects of love in a way that's likely to speak to you and your experiences, with titles like: To The Heart in Each Other's Eyes, If I'd Been With Him, Love Will Find A Way. We especially like Period of Time, a play on words that is both clever and sensitive. With his trademark keyboards, expanded to include synthesized drums and rhythms. (DIN302) CS: 9.98

John Orlando

Drum Songs

A very fantastic album of acoustic drumming and percussion rhythms, created by a talented artist who has played drums with the San Francisco Gay Freedom Band since the band hit the streets in the 70's. John utilizes over 21 percussion instruments from all corners of the earth — including djembe, bongo, kalimba, gourd, sacred chimes, woodblock, timbales, shaman drum, snare drum, Turkish cymbals, congas and rito toms — in addition to live crickets and birds, to produce enchanting melodies and elegant polyrhythms. It's one of the best percussion albums we've heard; interesting, compelling, never a dull or repetitive moment... and we highly recommend it! (CLM2740) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Larry Kramer

The Normal Heart (2-CD Set)

Larry Kramer's explosive drama of the early years of the AIDS epidemic first opened to thunderous critical acclaim in 1985. Eight years later, as the plague raged on, a group of celebrated talents joined forces in a benefit reading of the play to raise money and awareness. Their performance is now Broadway legend — a one-night-only union of hearts and voices raised in anguish, anger and love that electrified the audience and confirmed again the fiery brilliance of the play. This presentation captures the legendary night forever, from the urgent poignancy of Barbra Streisand's opening remarks to the spontaneous outpouring of emotion at the final curtain. All author and performer royalties donated to Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS. (SIM86295) CD: 24.98

Lunacy

The Hand of Desire

This 1992 release is, like their first effort, acappella, pagan in intent, and queer in its messages... containing both original material and newly-arranged pieces from Starhawk and others. Includes God Was A Woman, Lament for the Queer Dead, Sacred Bitch, Trance, Ancestress Invocation, and more excellent songs — we love hearing Goddess chants from these guys; well executed, and recommended! (LUN2) CS: 10.98

Lunacy

This album is a first, an entrancing album of pagan/goddess spirituality music from two "laggot witches," as they call themselves. This acappella duo — Greg Johnson and Sparky T. Rabbit — performs primarily original songs, with occasional material from Starhawk and others. One of the most notable songs here is Boys Burned Too, a very tender and touching tribute to the gay men who were burned along with the witches. Also includes Paula Walowitz's Shes Been Waiting; Aphrodite's Song, Demeter's Song, The Moon Song ("The full moon is her vagina spread wide! With the wild realm of all possibilities! Every possibility pouring out..."), Kali Ma ("Dark Mother/Black Mother"), Purple God ("Queer God"). We like this album — recommended! (LUN1) CS: 10.98

Michael Callen

Purple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who has been battling AIDS since 1981, has been in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education; testifying before Congress, editing publications, appearing on major TV shows, participating in fund-raising events. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic" without getting caught up in the polemic)... from How To Have Sex. Songs include Where the Boys Are, Me & Dickie D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Wartime, performed with band-partner ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. And, he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance. Enough to recommend it highly. (SIG881) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

New York City Gay Men's Chorus

Love Lives On

The best known of the 100 gay choruses in the US, NYCGMG has a huge following, and, thankfully, a recording back in print with this 1991 release! Composed of 150 all-volunteer voices who make and perform music for the education, enjoyment and cultural enrichment of their vast audience, they produce 3 sold-out concerts annually at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. A portion of the proceeds from this album will be donated to AIDS research. Includes line, Boogie Woogie Bop, Boy No One is Alone, Tuxedo Junction, 14 more. (VIR91647) CD: 15.98

The Nylons

The Best of the Nylons

This wonderful collection from the Canadian acappella quartet contains, natch, their best-loved tunes, 16 of them: Kiss Him Goodbye, That Kind of Man, The Lion Sleeps Tonight, Happy Together, Up On the Roof, Boo Till You Drop, and many more, all from their first four studio albums, with their four original members. (OAO308) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pansy Division

Undressed

San Francisco's premier queer boy pop-punk band has unleashed its 1993 debut album! Containing 13 songs in the Buzzcocks/Ramones vein, it's catchy, humorous, and sexually explicit. Songs include The Cockrocker Club, Rock & Roll Queer Bar (a rewritten cover of the Ramones' Rock & Roll High School), Boyfriend Wanted, Fam in a Black Leather Jacket, and Anthem, in which they declare themselves "the outflunkers of rock & roll." Unensored, uncompromised, and unlike anything you've heard! (LKT70) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 13.98

Deflowered

This SF in-yo-face, in-each-other's-pants queer rock pop-punk combo presents a second album, in 1994, featuring a louder, fuller, crunchier guitar sound. Contains the expected array of sexually explicit anthems, but also has several introspective songs covering various aspects of gay life. In addition to their originals, it includes covers of songs by Jonathan Richman and Pete Shelley. (LKT87) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 13.98

Philandros (Seattle Men's Chorus)

Swelllegant Elegance

Philandros is made up of 16 of the 180-190 members of the Seattle Men's Chorus... and this 1993 album contains the music from which they developed their show of the same name. Subtitled The Music of Cole Porter, they take a fresh, witty and romantic look at 31 classic Cole Porter tunes. They've divided his music into nifty categories, like Cole By Night, Cole in Love, Cole in Society, Cole on Broadway... includes My Heart Belongs to Daddy, Miss Otis Regrets, Anything Goes, The Gypsy in Me, and lots more swell songs. (BMC4) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pussy Tourette

In Hi-Fi!

And now for something completely different... raunchy, ribald and ridden with double entendres, this sexuality-in-your-face 1993 offering from the Bay area drag queen — with a large lesbian fan contingent — is not for the easily offended or aurally conservative. He (or, as some would say, she) serves up both dance music and cabaret plus a Gilbert and Sullivan-esque ditty I Think He's Gay; aided and abetted by 3 very acapella female back-up singers, shaking up some commonly-held ideas of "male" and "female" with a whole new tang. Some here at Ladyslipper are wondering what this is doing in our catalog; others say, "Create a scene, frighten the neighbors, make a statement — get this album!" (FB93012) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Choral

Testament

This 150-voice male chorus is accompanied by the Dallas Wind Symphony, on this stirring 1992 release of works by 20th-century American composers. Included are Randall Thompson's The Testament of Freedom with text by Thomas Jefferson, Song of Democracy by Howard Hanson with text by Walt Whitman, Simple Gifts by Aaron Copland, Make Our Garden Grow by Leonard Bernstein, and other choral works. ## Turtle Creek/ Dallas Women's Chorus

John Rutter: Requiem/ 5 Anthems

This 1994 album is a stunning combined performance by the 100-voice Women's Chorus of Dallas and the 200-voice Turtle Creek Choral, with Timothy Seelig conducting. They perform a rich and emotionally moving program by John Rutter, one of today's most-performed composers of choral music. His Requiem was influenced by the intimate, contemplative style of Fauré; and his shorter pieces — A Gaelic Blessing, All Things Bright and Beautiful, and more — share this lyrical quality. The 300 voices of the combined choruses have performed in Carnegie Hall, at Texas Governor Ann Richards' Inauguration, and in a command performance for Queen Elizabeth II. With accompaniment on harp, cello, pipe organ, several winds and lute, this is one of the best choral albums we've heard. Highly recommended! (REF57) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

From the Heart: Live

This 150-voice men's chorus based in Dallas is now well into their second decade of performing. This album was recorded in 1990, and features a warm and enjoyable program of popular and traditional songs by a wide variety of songwriters. Artistic direction by Timothy Seelig. ### When We No Longer Touch

Subtitled A Cycle of Songs for Survival, this album is a benefit for the American Foundation for AIDS Research, created by Kristopher John Anthony. The first half features the choral, and deals with the stages of grief: denial, isolation, anger, bargaining, depression, and finally acceptance and then hope. ("And through all the sadness and the pain comes the one thought that can make me smile again: I have loved.") The second part, Traces of Myself, is a piece inspired by poet Peter McWilliams from his work How to Survive the Loss of Love, and is performed by the Teresa String Quartet. Solemn yet redemptive. (TCC3) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Turtle Creek Choral, et al United We Sing (Double Set)

This 1994 release is an unusual collaboration between the 200 men of the Turtle Creek Choral, the 150-voice male chorus of the First Baptist Church of Hamilton Park, and the women of New Arts Six. This double CD set or double-length cassette is a 2-hour musical journey from the African continent to American soil, featuring African music, African American spirituals, and contemporary Black gospel. Artistic direction by the inimitable Dr. Timothy Seelig. (TCC6) CS: 12.95 CD: 15.95

Memento Bittersweet

This 1994 release is devoted entirely to music composed by people who are — or were — infected with the AIDS virus. It serves as an annual memento of their artistry and of an era that radically changed the future of the arts. The styles of these classical compositions range from haunting and melancholy, to lush and melodic, to contemplative and serene. Fred Herth's Songs Bittersweet, which inspired and opens the album is particularly gorgeous, as is the unusually combined classical guitar and organ in the exquisite God Is Our Highways, by AIDS activist Chris DeBlasio. A portion of the proceeds go to the not-for-profit organization Classical Action: Performing Artists Against AIDS. Highly unusual and recommended! (CATE1979) CD: 16.95

The AIDS Quilt Songbook

This song cycle by various composers to poems by or about people living with AIDS was the inspiration of the American baritone William Parker — one of the 4 baritones who performs here, and who has since died of complications caused by AIDS. The premiere took place in June 1992 at Alice Tully Hall in NYC, and this album was recorded two days later. Several of the songs deal metaphorically with AIDS, but most confront the painful details of the disease and its attendant havoc... variously morbid and bitter, jazzy and plaintive, tonal and atonal. The artists — both gay and straight, healthy and ill — each give something personal and revelatory to the whole. Most selections are for voice plus piano, a few for voice plus clarinet. 60 minutes, proceeds go to the not-for-profit AIDS Resource Center. (HMU7602) CD: 15.95

Zero Patience: A Musical About AIDS

With the wit, impatience, precision and unpredictability of an ACT-UP zap, director John Grayson has woven a tall tale of love and loss, sex and science, history and hysteria in the age of AIDS, as it re-tells the story of Patient Zero, the first attendant blamed by some for the epidemic. A zany, post-modern musical which draws from influences as diverse as Bertold Brecht, Barbra Streisand, Jesus and Mary Chain, and Ricky Ricardo, this movie musical sings and dances its way through a gloriously queer expose of the greed, homophobia and careerism underlying media and scientific responses to AIDS. Danceable and thought-provoking, the music composed by Glenn Schellenberg, ranges in style from calypso to barbershop to alternative to Broadway. A highlight: Michael Callen, who played Miss HIV (in drag of course) performs 2 vocals. (MIL5675) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Can't Help Lovin' That Man

A collection of 25 songs from the 1920's and 1930's, when singers were not allowed to change one single word that the songwriters penned, resulting in some very "queer" tunes indeed: Treat Yourself to Chaps Crooning The Man I Love, Hold Your Man, Love for Sale, Come Up and See Me Sometime, and, of course, the title track. Be sure to not miss crooner numero uno, Bing Crosby, treating us to Gay Lovin' Limer notes analyzing gay music by Village Voice's Michael Musto lend historical context. Sit back, loosen your tie, pour yourself something to drink and sing along! (COL52955) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

The Village People

Best of the Village People

One of the original "mainstream" gay groups releases this retrospective in 1994, just as disco is making its comeback! Though we haven't received it yet as we go to press, we assume it'll include his YMCA and In the Navy! (PLG522039) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

William Finn

March of the Faissetos

Showtunes! Winner of the 1981 "Best Musical" Outer Critics' Circle award, and the second part of the heralded Marvin Trilogy — which is described as "a series of highly personal, idiosyncratic, chamber pieces that revolve around a thoroughly charming, intelligent, spoiled, neurotic hero". It tells the story of Marvin, who leaves his wife and young son for a male lover, and then loses everything except the possibility of reestablishing a relationship with his son. This is one of the most popular of the gay-themed musicals. (DRG12581) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

William Finn & James Lapine

Faissetoland

The original cast recording from the 1990 off-Broadway musical play (or actually, Act II of a current version, and in fact part III of the Marvin Trilogy — there, are you confused?). Anyway, it's about being gay and Jewish and living through the era of AIDS, with some lesbian characters, and includes the complete libretto. (DRG12601) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

the wimps

War and Quiche

the wimps are a punkish Philadelphia band dedicated to challenging, or at least exposing, outmoded patriarchal concepts of men's roles, especially toward women, and traditional concepts of what makes a man "manly". Their second release (1992) continues their tradition of wit, insight and outrage. Besides the two title topics, the album looks at small-town homophobia (Rosie Fingered Dawn, a story of little girls' games) and cross-dressing (My Favorite Skirt), and asks the musical question, "If Robert Bly and his pals want to prove their manliness, why don't they stay home and actually do some work?" Our sentiments exactly! Sometimes melodic, sometimes noisy, always reverent, lyrics included; recommended! (WIM2) CS: 6.95

Worm

This musical duo consists of lesbian and gay twins Janie and Jimmy Worm, a unique connection which, in and of itself, speaks loudly and clearly in favor of the wholesomeness of gay families — whether they be genealogical or by choice. They grew up under a strong matriarchal influence, where they cultivated the rich, melodic harmonies they apply to songs about justice, equality, empowerment, unity, love and peace. Songs include Woman Of The Third Wave, Gay Nineties, I've Got The Right, Let Freedom Ring, and other melodious morsels. Our only complaint is the lack of lyrics and liner notes in the package... maybe with the next printing! P.S. We're putting this in the Men's Music section because Jimmy's voice is somewhat more prominent than Janie's, and because we think the content will be of high interest to Gay/Lesbian bookstores. (WRM1) CS: 9.95

Y'ALL: White Trash Country Gospel

An Evening of Stories & Songs

Categorizing this 1993 album by a gay-guy duo is something of a challenge. Are they campy? Yes. Funny? Definitely. Offensive? Possibly. It's a sort of haw-haw homo act — a sound track to their cabaret show — which blends everything from southern beauty parlors and rodeo "queens" to glitches in the old family tree, with downhome acoustic accompaniment. They make no apologies for their presentation (overalls and cowboy hat with sequins) or their stereotypical images. Totally tacky, right down to their closing tear-jerker, My Man, Our Horses. And Me. (YAL1) CS: 9.95

The Next Big Thing

As Tom Meitzer, of the Five Chinese Brothers, writes on the liner notes of this late 1994 release, "Y'ALL, like the Blue Sky Boys, the Louvin Brothers and the Everly's before them, achieve that rare-rare beauty of male country duet singing. Like their stylistic forebearers, Y'ALL also boasts a repertoire flush with craftily inimitable hummable tunes about life's simple pleasures. Ironically, Y'ALL has plucked their sound from a decidedly fundamentalist tradition, then applied it artfully, gleefully, and appropriately (!) to gay life. That their music plays to straights as well as a big commercial bonus: that it does so without compromising its vision is a huge artistic bonus." (YAL2) CS: 9.95 CD: 14.95

Goddess Remembered

This stunning and poetic documentary is a salute to 35,000 years of "pre-history," to the matriarchal cultures of ancestors only recently remembered, and to our ancient goddess-worshipping religions. The caves of paleolithic France, the mysterious earthworks of ancient Britain, and the sun-drenched palaces of Delphi and Crete are brought to life here. In Part One of the Women and Spirituality series, with exquisite musical accompaniment by Lorena McKennitt. We've been receiving calls for years from folks looking for this film series, and we're glad to finally be able to offer them to you. (DCL307VC) 29.98

Donna Read, director
The Burning Times (Video)

Part Two in the Women and Spirituality series offers new insights into the legends and misconceptions that surround the term witch. In the attempt to eradicate the woman-based power of midwives, wise old crones and healers, the Christian church instigated a reign of terror which resulted in the genocide of millions of women and the destruction of what had been an organic way of life. The film illustrates how this sanctioned torture and murder set the stage for modern society's cultural acceptance of massive violence against women. Building on ideas set forth in the discovery of goddess-based culture, this is a beautifully crafted tribute to the value and strength that women brought and bring to life. Music by Loreena McKennitt; highly recommended! (DCL330VC) 39.98

Full Circle

In this final part of the Women and Spirituality trilogy, the filmmaker examines the many present-day manifestations of the women's spirituality movement. She finds authors like Anne Cameron, leaders and social activists like Starhawk, and others, meeting around kitchen tables and in circles on hilltops, discussing spirituality and performing rituals that give them strength to transform their inner beliefs into political and social action. This is her most personal film of the three — she discusses her own journey — and we finally learn about the dancer who has appeared in all 3 films... so the title is a fitting one. Music again by Loreena McKennitt; recommended again! (DCL462VC) 39.98

Dyke TV

Politics, entertainment, news, cooking, arts, music, sports, health, comedy, dyke dish, dyke fashion, lesbian herstory, and lesbian interest stories are covered in a news-magazine format... and here's a 47-minute sampler containing some of their favorite segments. It's funny, informative, healing and heartening, with a high quality production for an independent and coverage of issues you won't see in the mainstream. Consider this highly recommended! (DTV1VC) 19.98

Dyke TV 2: The Best of Winter 1994

Another fabulous compilation of Dyke TV segments. Top highlights here are stories about Girls in the Nose, one of our favorite rock bands, and filmmaker Barbara Hartman. The only problem with watching these videos is that regular TV becomes that much more of a disappointment! Fast moving, funny, informative, and heartening — recommended again! (DTV2VC) 19.98

Enya

Moon Shadows

Contains four videos from her Watermark album — including Olympo Flow — plus Caribbean Blue from Shepherd Moons. Lush colors and impressionistic images — some real creative stuff — perfectly complement the shimmering mystery of her music. Guest appearance by Steve Martin from his (serious) flick The LA Story... for a non-sequiter! 25 minutes; Recommended! (WR38289VC) 19.98

Et L'Amour

This short impressionistic film of a romantic, erotic interlude between two women — set among flickering candles and film noir images of other lands — becomes a sensuous blur filled with suggestive, longing glances and unspoken desires. A poetic vignette, no dialogue. 24 minutes. (PGP5000VC) 29.98

The Families We Choose

This program explores the diverse kinds of families lesbians have chosen to create — with best friends, co-workers, lovers and children — as they work through issues common to families. In general: being an interracial or working class family, dealing with addictions, deciding to legalize bonds. Informative for both lesbian/gay and straight audiences! Produced by Lisa Pontopidan and Cheryl Qamar. 37 min. (ML1VC) 29.98

Forbidden Love

This is a great flick about the lesbian pulp novel genre of the 50's... totally delightful, lots of heretofore information, and the highlight is when one of these novels comes to life! Compelling, often hilarious and always rebellious, the 10 women interviewed paint a portrait of lesbian sexuality and survival during the '50's and '60's, when lesbian love was "the love that dare not speak its name." Starring Ann Bannon, author of the Beebo Brinker series. Highly recommended! (WMM1VC) 69.98

Framing Lesbian Fashion

A fun and fascinating trip through the evolution of lesbian dress codes and identities — Butch/Femina, Femme, androgyny, cross-dressing and drag, queer flamboyance, S/M and leather, lipstick and more. Includes conversations with JoAnn Louian, Sally Gearhart, Kitty Tsui, and many others, and wonderful photos from the archive of our collective past, by JEB and others. It's humorous, nostalgic, outrageous, and occasionally hard to watch (unless you're into piercing; I had to cover my eyes), but generally very well done. Directed and produced by Karen Everett. 56 min. (WV8VC) 39.98

Fried Green Tomatoes

Mary Stuart Masterson, Mary-Louise Parker, Jessica Tandy and Kathy Bates star in this screen adaptation of the Fannie Flagg novel (which, by the way, you should read if you haven't: huge chunks of the book are left out of the flick). Of course you've seen it. If you'd like to see it many more times, owning a copy is the way to go. (MCAB228VC) 29.98

Gabrielle Roth

The Wave

Subtitled Ecstatic Dance for Body & Soul, this moving meditation journeys through 5 powerful universal rhythms: Flowing, Staccato, Chaos, Lyrical, and Stillness. Georgia O'Keeffe

This documentary of one of the greatest painters of our time features her artwork, her inspiration in the New Mexican desert, interviews with people who were close to her, and the artist herself speaking candidly about her work and her life. A gorgeous and valuable film. 60 min. (OKE01VC) 49.98

Gilda Radner

The Best of Gilda Radner

This video thankfully preserves some of Gilda's funniest performances from the early years of Saturday Night Live: Roseanne Roseannadanna, Emily Litella, Baba Wawa, Lisa Lupine, Lucy Ricardo, and more, which she personally selected for this compilation. The world, and we, will miss her continuing wit and brilliance; she died of cancer in 1989, to which she would have said, "It's always something..." Highly recommended! (WAR35148VC) 29.98

Gloria Kaufman
Women, Ritual & Religion

A few sections of this video have audio or video flaws (too dark, poor contrast, equipment hum) but we offer it in spite of these imperfections because we like the content! So only order it if feminist theology is of interest to you, and don't expect great technical quality (and we won't take any defective returns, since we're telling you about the defects up front). GK, that said, the program focuses on Judaism, Christianity, and witchcraft, and their relation to women and feminism. Z. Budapest explains that the establishment of patriarchy brought glorification of war; performs and explains the self-blessing ritual; and discusses witchcraft and Goddess-worship. Naomi Goldberg discusses the sexism of Judaism and Christianity; and Carol P. Christ discusses the roots of oppression in Western religion, and more. (GK3VC) 39.98

Politics of Humor: A Feminist View

This video combines analysis with lively and various examples of feminist humor — more pick-up than put-down — unlike sexist mainstream humor, which causes women to bond with men against other women. Humor by Flo Kennedy, Nikki Giovanni, Whoopi Goldberg, (early) Kate Clinton, Ladies Against Women, women photographers, cartoonists, political activists, and many others is presented and discussed. Gloria Kaufman, a retired women's studies teacher, had previously only sold these videos through women's studies programs; we're glad they're more widely available now, because there's some good info in here. 60 min. (GK1VC) 39.98

Greta Garbo
Queen Christina

Queen Christina of Sweden, played by Garbo, was independent, witty, androgynous, and the wore men's clothes. This film, while throwing in the obligatory Hollywood heterosexual stuff, does communicate an ambiguity in Queen Christina's sexuality with a bit of a lesbian undertone. Since the notes call the film a blend of history and fiction, we like to think that she really ran off with the woman she keeps kissing throughout the flick. 1934, black & white, 100 min. (MGMS31VC) 29.98

Greta Schiller
Before Stonewall

Narrated by Rita Mae Brown, winner of 2 Emmy Awards, this program employs films and interviews to give a decade-by-decade history of the lesbian and gay rights movement and experiences, from the 1920's through the present. Revealing, humorous, and emotionally charged. Directed by Greta Schiller. 87 min. (CG102VC) 39.98

The Human Race Club
The Unforgettable Pen Pal

New super-low price!! Subtitled A Story About Prejudice and Discrimination, this cool animated video for kids will help them learn the negative effects of prejudice, and the importance of forming their opinions about others intelligently... a very PC cartoon! In the story, when A.J. and his pen pal, Joey, discover their mutual interest in basketball, they become the best of friends. But the chance to finally meet one another at a professional basketball game leads them to encounter prejudice where they least expect it. 30 minutes, based on the books by Joy Berry. Recommended! (CHE6043VC) 9.98

I've Heard the Mermaids Singing

This weird and wonderful feature-length Canadian film is a delight... for one thing, it depicts one of the main characters — the beautiful, sophisticated curator — in a believable, matter-of-fact lesbian relationship. It's also just a neat film. Written and directed by Patricia Rozema. (CNA90234VC) 24.98

And, the actors are not Hollywood young-blond-things, but rather look like regular ordinary lesbians. Sections are set to original music by Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith. Made by women (Gwen Tucker & Janet Lisa) for women. 54 min. (TRH1VC) 49.98

(LRL3VC) 39.98

Jan Oxenberg

Thank You & Goodnight

Jan Oxenberg had a small bit of recognition years ago in the women's community (didn't some of her films play at the Michigan Women's Music Festival, and on the women's film circuit in the mid 70s?), but this incredible film should establish her as a top-notch filmmaker to a much wider audience (and is of high enough quality to merit a run in art theaters nationally). It's a truly wonderful, creative, unique, special film — a brilliant blend of comedy, autobiography, documentary, realism, imagination, and magic, which tells the story of Jan's grandpa as she lives the last months of her life... and the story of small Jan too. Since most of you won't ever see this in your local theater, don't bypass this opportunity — one of the best times I've seen this year. I highly recommend it! 61 minutes. (FLV1072VC) 39.98

This hour-long commemorative is to be treasured for years to come, by anyone who attended (or missed!) this major historic event... and, proceeds benefit the March itself. Highly recommended! (MPH2VC) 29.98

Four lesbian and gay comics share the bill here! ### Karen Williams

Live at Michigan

This hysterical performance at the 1991 Michigan Women's Music Festival by one of the premiere stand-up comics of the Women's Music and Culture circuit has been captured on video... showing Karen being just what she thought would be an easy, satisfying thing to be: an African American lesbian mother come! ### Kate Wolf

An Evening in Austin

A 74-minute concert video, which had been edited for Austin City Limits, but here's the entire show! A must for all true Kate Wolf fans, and will make a fan out of anyone who's not one already. Great film! It's a fascinating look at the life and times of the world's longest-lived lesbian bar (1966-1985), Maud's in San Francisco. Includes commentaries by luminaries such as Sally Gerhart, Judy Grahn, and JoAnn Loutan... a witty and informative look at cultural evolution in the making. (WBP8045VC) 39.98

Ritual Drumming

This unique video successfully combines instructions on practical drumming techniques with primal metaphysical concerns on drumming and rhythm. In a very straightforward manner, Layne shows how the basic tones and strokes of a frame drum, such as the tambourine, have a direct relationship to the elemental qualities of earth, water, fire and air. Drawing on the long heritage of women frame drummers and the nurturing nature of the archetype feminine spirit, this program will enrich the viewer with a new sense of the power of rhythm and pulse. Through luminous demonstrations and inspiring performances, Layne and The Mob of Angels, a women's ensemble, show how drumming and chanting can be used to create new and empowering ritual. Recommended! (WM2VC) 39.98

The Lesbian Avengers Eat Fire Too

Lillian Hellman

The Children's Hour

Starring Shirley MacLaine (she's great!) and Audrey Hepburn, this 1961 film, based on Lillian Hellman's controversial play, shattered the stage and film taboo against depicting or mentioning lesbianism. It was inspired by an actual case of two school-teachers whose careers and lives were radically damaged when rumors that they were in a lesbian relationship circulated in their community. It doesn't end as any of us would wish it did, but you can either cut off your VCR a minute early, or acknowledge the reality of internalized homophobia, especially back then. Recommended! (MQM20094VC) 29.98

Hilarious characterizations: Tommy Velour, Purvis Hawkins, and more, with appearances by Dolly Parton and Jane Fonda. This won an Emmy Award, and it deserved it! Over an hour, recommended! (TWT4VC) 19.98

Long-Awaited Pleasure

Produced by women for women, this is a story about two women meeting, courting, and falling in love. Lois and Peggy, the stars, co-founded the New York feminist theater company, Split Britches, and recently completed an extended run in the play version of Patience and Sarah. Directed by Giovanna Marana, starring Lois Weaver and Peggy Shaw, 90 min. (POP1VC) 39.98

Nicole Conn

Claire of the Moon (Full Video)

Finally, what many of you have been asking for... the actual full-length film of the lesbian love story of Claire and Noel, who meet at a writers' colony on the Oregon coast. It's a story of one woman's journey into her sexual identity, and another woman's journey through fear to intimacy. The movie was made on a deceptively low budget, (you'd never know that by watching it) by film-maker/writer Nicole Conn, and has played at major theaters across the country. Many great scenes, definitely worth seeing! (DEM3VC) $9.98

Includes a special "featurette": a behind-the-scenes look at the characters of the show. (WV10VC) 19.98

The focus is on two former leaders of one of the biggest ex-gay ministries who just happen to fall in love, which adds to the humor of this unique documentary. (RIS5VC) 39.98

What News brings a feminist slant to TV news. B. Girls from Planet Q follows 2 convicted fashion queens in their daring interplanetary escape from their evil warden, Mary Kay. #### Dreamers of the Day

A great independently-produced soap-like lesbian flick! There's Claire, well-to-do and successful in her career, who has to drink too much to get her passion free. In her own mind, she's no lesbian — just sexually adventurous. And Andrea, a she's no lesbian — just sexually adventurous her passion for film-maker who has long acknowledged her passion for women, she has everything in her current project carefully plotted — except for Claire. The plot (attempts to reveal Claire's deception... will their love transcend? The producer of this film, who lives in Canada, set out to fill the void for good entertaining material that relates to lesbian lives... and she's succeeded marvelously on her first project. 90 minutes; definitely worth the more-than-reasonable price; highly recommended! ### Positive

With contributions by Michael Catian, Larry Kramer, Diamanda Galas, Sarah Schulman, and others, this 1990 film by Rosa von Praunheim (a man) with Phil Zwickler is a powerful documentary about the NYC gay community's response to the AIDS crisis. Having neither the time nor the patience to mimic words, groups like ACT-UP, Queer Nation, and Gay Men's Health Crisis demand a response to the epidemic that has threatened to annihilate them, by a society that would rather ignore them. There is a sense of strength and determination in this film that makes it an immensely important historical document. 90 min. (FIR4VC) 39.98

Randa Downs

In My Father's Bed

This is a compelling, brilliant, incredible one-woman performance, basically about surviving and healing from father-daughter incest. Randa, the author and performer, says, "Incest is a tragedy. This play is not. It is rather a loving gift to all survivors and the people who care about them." It is superbly acted by the author, and is actually quite joyful in the freeing/freedom it conveys... far from the grim, depressing "downer" a potential viewer might want to avoid, this is an intimate and empowering theater piece that we recommend highly for all viewers! Produced and directed by Marilyn Freeman; 70 min. (WV13VC) 39.98

Red Hot: Various Artists

No Alternative (Video)

This video accompanies the first Red Hot release — the No Alternative album — and is full of AIDS-related info, as well as music videos by The Breeders, Smashing Pumpkins, Matthew Sweet, and more. What truly makes the video recommendable, though, are the short films from Michael Stoe, Jennie Livingston, and others that include interviews with Kim Gordon, Courtney Love, Kathleen of Beni Kill (masked), members of Luscious Jackson, and — no fool! — Diane DiMassa (Motherfucker!) 65 minutes. (PLG53946VC) 19.98

Ideal for classes and groups, but also for individuals who want to share in rejoicing their choice! (ROCIVC) 29.98

Without You I'm Nothing (Video)

Adapted from the hit off-Broadway show, this cinematic comedy-cabaret is a collage of vignettes which poke fun at pop culture. Through song, dance, monologues and jokes (and lots of costume changes), the presents caustic parodies of glamour "scenes", fashion, advertising, astrology, the upscale art world, rock 'n' roll, and more. 90 minutes. (NP6267VC) 29.98

Sandy Dwyer

Throwing Our Weight Around

This compelling documentary examines the physiological life of chronic dieting, as it explores how our culture views the issues of fat, beauty and health. Produced from a feminist perspective, it evaluates: the mis-information propagated by the capitalist diet and health industry; our culture's preoccupation with dieting and being thin; the impact of stereotypes of fat people; discrimination against fat people (especially women) in employment, health care, public access, friends and lovers, clothing, and more. This video offers, with humor and hope, resources and alternatives to the isolation that many fat people live with. 60 min. Recommended! (RST1VC) 39.98

Sorceress

This suspenseful drama revolves around a 13th century Dominican friar who, sent by the Pope to seek out heretics, arrives in a small French village where he discovers Elida, the strangely beautiful and mysterious forest woman. Elida is respected in the village because she performs ancient healing rituals and understands nature's secrets. As an inquisitor, the friar sets out to investigate these practices, resulting in an explosive confrontation between the pagan-based ancient customs and the patriarchal religious dogma. Produced, directed and written primarily by women. 98 minutes; a compelling film, and highly recommended! (MYS177VC) 29.98

Strangers in Good Company

This Canadian film is the delightful story about a group of remarkable women travelers who, when stranded, turn their escape into a truly magical time of humor and adventure. They lost their way... and found each other. It was not produced in the usual fashion, wherein actors are given precise scripts; rather, the basic story was outlined, and the women (most not professional "actors") improvised, just like their characters, yielding a more authentic and honest story, with more depth than films usually reach. Especially loved Mary Maiga's portrayal of her lesbian self, though there is not a single woman you won't love by the end. Very highly recommended! (TST1354VC) 29.98

Su Friedrich

Damned if You Don't

This "experimental narrative" is about a young nun who becomes attracted to another woman. It's an avant-garde, dream-like, strange film, with several sub-themes woven in and out, such as a reading from a 17th century account of a lesbian nun, and reminiscences of an ex-nun about the crushes in the convent. The final love-making scene is probably more erotic than any video with that explicit intention. For recovering Catholics and non-Catholics alike! (SFRI1VC) 29.98

Susan Weed

Menopause Metamorphosis

This 55-minute video explores menopause as the ultimate woman's mystery and offers simple home remedies for uncomfortable symptoms of The Change. ## Two in Twenty: Episodes 1 & 2

We're just tickled that this 5-episode lesbian soap opera (2 in 20 because 1 in 10 sounds so lonely) is now available on video! The characters in two lesbian households confront child custody, lesbian parenting, AIDS, substance abuse, racism, coming out, monogamy, non-monogamy, crushes, lust, sex, bisexuality, and of course therapy (you name it, they confront it)! Ada for fictitious products, rooted in feminist and lesbian humor, satirize the consumerism at the core of daytime TV. Cameo appearances by lots of stars: closed captioned. In the first 2 episodes, we meet all the characters... in one household there's Nikki, the therapist everyone loves to hate; her lover of 10 years, Lee; Lee's teenage daughter Charlie; Luna Birdsong, the spacy tarot card-reading dyke; and Sharon, the try-sexual med student... in the other household meet Helene, a baby dyke who's yet to sleep with a woman; and MJ, her roommate, who's yet to pass one by. Produced by Laurel Chiten. 90 min. (TWO4VC) 29.98

(FOO1VC) 39.98

Nurudafina Pili Abena Drum Call T-Shirts

We are so taken with the beauty of Nurudafina's album design, created by Momodu Cessay, a male West African artist, because of its strength and because it breaks the stereotype that women don't play percussion. We want to see a society in which there's nothing "non-traditional" about women playing drums. Wear this and inspire all who see you! Specify size L, XL, 2XL. (DRC1TS) 15.98

Well Sexy Women

This informative and candid safer sex guide for lesbians is presented through a frank and lively round-table discussion among a group of British women, plus short demonstration clips. Made by and for lesbians, the film doesn't shy away from sensitive subjects — it delivers timely information with the facts, not the sermon, pointing out what's not considered safe as well as what is. Since this potentially life-saving information is so often absent from the general scholastic about AIDS, HIV, and other STDs, we're glad to see it addressed here, and recommend it for sexually-active lesbians everywhere. (GCH1051VC) 39.98

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight (Video)

This is a very hysterical characterization of Fontaine, who has just graduated from the Betty Ford Clinic: facing the world sober for the first time in years, he is shocked at what he finds! Politicians, evangelists, homosexuality, and many other subjects will evoke belly-laughs as well as nods of affirmation, as Whoopi's comic genius takes center-stage. Highly recommended! (HBO90235VC) 19.98

Witchcraft in America

This 50-minute educational documentary should help to eradicate some common misconceptions. It describes — and explains the differences between — the various religions often lumped under the heading "witchcraft": neo-Paganism, Wicca, voodoo, and Satanism (which in fact has nothing to do with witchcraft). It also gives a historical overview of the persecution and murder of people who were perceived to be witches, beginning with the Salem witch trials and continuing through this century. This film is like a program you'd see on public TV. (AAE10007VC) 29.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part I The Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone — beginner or veteran of women's culture — who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture... the Goddess culture which preceded this... the power of symbols... and much much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. No matter how much you think you already know, you'll learn something more from watching this; it's the result of many years of research by writer-narrator Mary R. Hopkins. Produced by Claire Simon. (QV2VC) 39.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part II

From Earth Mother to Love Goddess

Also highly recommended! The second volume documents, through an analysis of art, the fall of female divinity and the rise of patriarchy. Where the Love Goddess is one of the only permissible roles for women. The characteristics represented in Diana, Athena, and Sophia are explored as well. (QV3VC) 39.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part III

Woman and Her Symbols - Part IV

The Muse in the Mirror

Subtitled Creativity, Projection, and Internalized Oppression, this program continues exploring the interesting research of Mary R. Hopkins. From a perspective that acknowledges but doesn't accept the patriarchal point of view, she discusses the metaphor of the broken X chromosome in males, and where that extra piece of genetic material has gone... and how the problems between heterosexual men and women have skewed society so peculiarly. We strongly agree that this entire set should be in the permanent collection of every school and library. (QV5VC) 39.98

Women of the Night

Four very different stand-up female comedians show their stuff here — Judy Tenuta, Ellen DeGeneris, Paula Poundstone, and Rita Rudner — satirizing man, exercise, shopping, prayer, and more! 56 min. (HBO90241VC) 19.98

Women Who Made the Movies

From the very beginnings of motion picture history, women have played major roles behind as well as in front of the camera, a little-known fact! This documentary traces the careers and films of such filmmakers as Alice Guy Blache, Ida Lupino, Ruth Ann Baldwin, and many others who made lasting contributions to cinema history. The use of clips from many of these rare films, as well as stills and other archival material, brings to life the works of these often-neglected filmmakers. The music used in this film was composed and played by a variety of all-women orchestras of the era. Written and directed by Gwendolyn Foster-Dixon. 56 min. For every film buff you know! #### We Who Believe in Freedom

The book brings the full range of voices of these dynamic African American women to the page, as it accomplishes Bernice Reagon's goal: "I want people to see the stage, I want readers to see under and behind the stage, the sound board, the pianos and rehearsals, the writing of the songs, and the finding of the voice. I want the reader to meet and know the wonderful, courageous, original people who make up SHIR." 384 pages, including 32 pages of photos. (DBL45862BK) 15.98
