How Listings Are Organized

Recordings are organized into categories and then alphabetically by first name. We do this because as women, first names have been more truly our own. Our last names have usually been transferred to us in a patrilinear fashion; historically, husbands and fathers were legally the property owners of the women in their families; and sometimes surnames actually came from slave owners or immigration officers. So our alphabetization-by-first-name method is a small gesture toward acknowledging and altering these customs. Some artists have listings in more than one category. We don't have space to cross-reference, so be sure to check the artist index (which is alphabetical by last name), in addition to reading through the entire catalog at least once!

Come For a Visit

We hope you'll stop in for a visit whenever you're in the neighborhood. We have a comfortable "Listening Room" open to the public, where you can check out all those recordings you've been curious about. We're open Monday through Fridays, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., with some additional weekend hours in the fall. Our address is 613 Vickers Ave. in Durham. Call us at (919) 683-1570. Hope to see you soon!

So, What's New?

Alison Brown

Twilight Motel

If you check into Twilight Motel, you might end up staying longer than you expect. With her 1992 release, this innovative artist (who is currently on tour with Michelle Shocked as musical director) creates a true synthesis between traditional bluegrass and progressive modern jazz, as she ventures more into a jazz direction than on her debut release. The cast of supporting musicians includes luminaries such as Jerry Douglas, Tony Rice, and Darol Anger, and Maura O'Connell contributes the vocal track on the Celtic folk song Sweet Thames Flow Softly. This album breaks down all barriers of banjo music; she's one of our faves; check in soon! (VAN79465) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anonymous 4

An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 13th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoires. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1992 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly presented with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU7080) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 18.98

Bobbi Carmitchell

Follow Thru

Well, the comparisons to James Taylor are just gonna continue — the heart-tugging acoustic guitar chords, sweet voice, soft rhythms, and warm and thoughtful lyrics all add up into a thoroughly enjoyable listening experience. She exudes a friendliness and candor, writes great songs, and here on this 1992 album, is joined by a fantastic band (bass, drums, cello, fiddle, guitars). Recommended! (LOC5) CS: 9.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle

Grandmother Wisdom

Subtitled Lessons of the Moon-Pause Lodge (moon-pause means menopause), this 1992 teaching tape is specifically for the Grandmothers, and women who no longer experience their monthly bloods. Brooke lovingly guides women through the blessings now available to them, and teaches specific ways to honor the path toward Gronehood, to nurture and care for themselves and their communities. (BME12) CS: 9.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie

Little Wheel Spin and Spin

Recorded in 1968, this classic album reveals the roots of Buffy's musical career, the folk and protest songs that revolutionized the 60's. Drawing on a repertoire of traditional European ballads with more than a hint of irony, she also introduces My Country 'Tis of Thy People You're Dying, probably the first recording to confront White America on its racism towards Native Americans. With acoustic and electric guitar accompaniment, plus mouthbow. (VAN79211) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Chenille Sisters

The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RH49) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claire of the Moon - O.S.T.

This original soundtrack from the film includes an original song composed and performed by Teresa Thill, Could It Hurt, plus piano themes by a variety of artists and performers. (DEM1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claire of the Moon: 6-Min Promo Vid

This promo video, containing clips of the film promising to be the new Desert Hearts, is quite an enticement... we expect it in theaters near us soon, so we'll tell you more later! (DEM2VC) 12.98

Cris Williamson

Lumiere

Now that this thing's packaged like a normal cassette, we're listing it again! Cris wrote the story and music to this children's science-fiction tale about X-Ray Ted, who is led to enlightenment by his female mentor Glory. Cris narrates, sings, and plays keyboards, with musical assistance from June Millington, Jackie Robbins, and Tret Fure. (PC7035) CS: 9.98

Dhyani Ywahoo

Cherokee Teaching Stories

These teaching stories (The Story of the Magic Lake and The Coming of the Fire) are imparted in a loving and delightful style — her speaking voice is a lifting sort of singsong, which, when accompanied by flutes, drums, crickets, and other chanting voices, reverently illustrates her messages of treating the earth responsibly, and the necessity of following the spiritual path. Also includes a beautiful, stately chant, Immortals Among Us. (SUN5) CS: 10.98

Ferron

Resting With the Question

Who'd have guessed that Ferron's musical gift could express its poetry through instrumental music as well as through songs with lyrics? Not I, certainly, but this 1992 release proves me mistaken! Eloquent compositions performed on synthesizer are saturated with emotion: lush, wistful, yearning, haunting, rich, and circular... elegant and probing dreamscapes. And you'll probably lapse into thinking you're hearing flutes, classical guitars, strings, piano, and human voices. A highly recommended opportunity to experience another dimension of this woman's artistry. (CW006) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 17.98

Ferron

Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any albums: the concert favorite I Know A Game, and Shady Gals, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center. 36 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 17.98

Joan Baez

Play Me Backwards

New 1992 release, just in time to make our holiday catalog listing. (VIR86458) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Karen Williams

Wild Child At Large

This hysterical performance at the 1991 Michigan Womyn's Music Festival by one of the premiere stand-up comics of the Women's Music and Culture circuit has been captured on video... showing Karen being just what she thought would be an easy, satisfying thing to be: an African American lesbian mother come! Her ad-lib with the plastic baby "Pookie" had us in stitches, and if you missed this festival, you'll probably never see it in her act if you don't watch this. (YV1VC) 24.95

KAREN WILLIAMS

Laura Love
Pangaea

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant — all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severn) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Nancy Griggs's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes — there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing, Nelson, Voices. Very highly recommended! (CB3) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
Elemental

This extremely talented musician/vocalist must have been incarnated just to bring the musics of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1985 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Carrigtergus, She Moved Through the Fair, Harps, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 19.98

Loreena McKennitt

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with viola, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Glenties Abbey in Limerick and Gualph's Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Seasons, Balulacaw, Let All That Are to Mirth Inclined. (QR102) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 19.98

Loreena McKennitt
Parallel Dreams

This 1989 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection; from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annachie Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Bellane Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's explanation of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music; highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 19.98

Lucinda Williams
Sweet Old World

Sweet new album! This 1992 collection of 12 originals is just shot through with honey and lemonade — Lucinda is a fantastic songwriter, weaving stories about people we've all known, and her voice and delivery have much of the same warmth and emotional depth as Jennifer Warnes'. Includes Hot Blood, Memphis Pearl. Really, really, really recommended! (CHM61551) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Madonna
Erotica (The Video)

The extremely controversial 4-minute clip, which you'll probably want along with your album and book!! (WAR33329VC) 14.98

Madonna
Erotica (The Album)

As always at the center of controversy, Madonna released this 1992 album — about the thin lines between sex and love, power, pain and pleasure — to coincide with the publication of her even more controversial book, Sex. Includes title, Deeper and Deeper, Bad Girl, Secret Garden, and more. (WB45154) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Madonna
Sex

OK, here's that book you've been hearing so much about, by an artist who continues to push boundaries farther and farther... it's a photo book depicting her personal sexual fantasies with both women and men (and more), which we couldn't wait to see. Adjectives that come to mind are trashy, funny, fun, stupid, scary, ridiculous, politically incorrect, infuriating, beautiful and some, certainly erotic... Some say that to Madonna, S&M stands for Success & Money; others say she's expressing her artistic freedom, doubling as a voice for honesty in a climate of taboo and hypocrisy. You decide! P.S. There's one women-only sequence which is pretty stunning. (WAR51732BK) 49.95

Maggie Sansone, Sue Richards et al
Music in the Great Hall

Subtitled Instrumental Music from the Ancient Celtic Lands, this 1992 live recording includes Maggie's trademark skill on the hammered dulcimer, plus Sue Richards, Bonnie Rideout, and Ensemble Galilei on Celtic harp, fiddle, recorders and viola da gamba. Includes Galician Waltz, Miss Patterson, Fingals March and more. (MM107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maire Brennan
Maire

Look out Enya, here comes your sister Maire, lead singer of the Clannad ensemble, with an exquisite solo album of her own... which we've been hoping for ever since we first heard Clannad. Mostly original songs in English and Gaelic, rooted in tradition but embracing progressive styles and speaking of change, employ Celtic and contemporary instrumentation as well as wonderful, multi-layered, familial harmonies by Dee Brennan, Olive Brennan, and Bridin Brennan. Includes Land of Youth, Voices of the Land, Against the Wind. Highly recommended! (ATL82421) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Mary Black

Thankfully back in print for late '92, cassettes in early '93! Coming to you directly from Dublin, Ireland, Mary's sound is a perfect blend of pop, jazz and traditional Celtic. And her voice! Clear as a bell and rich as cream. Known to many for her work as vocalist for the famous De Dannan band, her style is sometimes contemporary, and at other times, as on her beautiful rendition of Annachie Gordon, the most traditional essence. For all you folkies who don't think you like pop music. (GIF10004) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black
Without the Fanfare

Reissued for late 1992... cassettes by early '93. This album by this indescribably wonderful vocalist has leanings and separations as a theme: Ellis Island, As I Leave Behind Neidin, plus the plaintive Crow On the Cradle. (GIF10005) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black
Collected

Back in print (CD's now, cassettes early '93)! This 1996 album contains both previously released and unreleased material; many traditional songs with Irish instrumentation (uilleann pipes, bouzouki, fiddle, sitar, etc.), including a beautiful Gaelic ballad and She Moves Through the Fair. Mary Watkins
The Soul Knows

Arranged and interpreted with care and great affection, Mary treats familiar gospel hymns (in the words of Will Thompson) "softly and tenderly" on this 1992 album, in a generous attempt to share their healing and soothing qualities with a frenzied and wounded world. Performing solely on her synthesizers and electric pianos, she presents such gems as Amazing Grace, Blessed Assurance, Pass Me Not, By and By, I'll Fly Away. (WEN1) CS: 9.98

Mermaids in the Basement
Positive Energy

This Virginia-based rock quartet exudes plenty of energy! The lead vocalist, Sheila Fortner, reminds this reviewer of early Melissa Etheridge — raw, powerful, and emotional — while the band combines standard rock instruments and styles (kick-ass to ballads) to create a great collection of 5 original songs. (MTB1) CS: 9.98

Here, finally available to and from us, is their 1987 debut recording — we loved it when we first heard it years ago, and still do! Beginning with Lulu's Walk, Connie and Kim bring their whimsical, avant-garde, funky styles to their own jazz-oriented compositions, as well as a couple by other songwriters. Lots of percussion, plus keyboards, keyboard bass, and vocals. (LU001) CS: 9.98

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 5 white American women who make some of the best world-beat music this reviewer has heard!! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parashute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive... and this 1992 release is as upbeat as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! (PEL001) CS: 10.98 ... Budapest and other, performed by the Reclaiming women (many) and men (a few). Shawn Colvin
Fat City

This 1992 release finds the artist's voice stronger than ever and her growth as a songwriter over is evident in her broadened use of musical styles, instruments, and subject matters. The title of the album, taken from the song Round of Blues, represents a feeling of hope, confidence, and dreams on the verge of coming true — themes which run through the album. Includes Set the Prairie on Fire, a song so sultry you can feel the heat of the desert; Tennessee, an all-out rocker; and Onion in the Sky, a beautiful love ballad. (COL47122) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sinead O'Connor
Am I Not Your Girl

Why, oh my yes, you are, I mean, she is! Ever stretching the boundaries, our girl has now recorded an album of standards and torch songs, in her words, "the songs I grew up listening to, the songs that made me want to be a singer." Her phrasing at times conforms to the style in which the songs were originally recorded, but just as quickly she'll glide into another realm entirely, the Sinead zone, and then back again. It's fun, it's touching, it's tacky — it's our girl! Includes I Want to Be Loved by You, Bewitched, Bathed and Bewildered, Black Coffee. How insensitive (would like to dedicate this one to the crowd at Bob Dylan's October '92 tribute concert for boeing her off the stage assembly for teasing up a picture of the Pope the previous week). Love it, love her! (CHR21952) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sippie Wallace
Women Be Wise

Along with Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey, Sippie was one of the greatest classic blues singers of all time. Her trademark singing style was the precursor to the styles of artists like Saffire - The Uppity Blues Women and Bonnie Raitt (who has performed with Sippie, recorded several of Sippie's songs, and always cites Sippie as her main inspiration). This re-release of 1955 recordings, originally released on the Storyville label, includes 11 duet performances featuring Sippie alternately backed by blues piano giants Roosevelt Sykes and Little Brother Montgomery, plus one track with Sippie accompanying herself on piano. Subtitled Music From the Spiral Dance, this 1992 release features 11 songs which follow the structure of the Spiral Dance ritual, an annual tradition in the Bay Area celebrating the festival of Halloween as well as Starhawk's book The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Ranging from acappella harmonies to full chorus and instrumentation, this music is intended to be shared and sung by all who wish to broaden their understanding of Halloween. Written and performed by Starhawk and the Reclaiming Collective, women and men working to link earth-based spirituality and eco-feminist politics... and friends. (REC2) CS: 9.98

Straight Ahead
Look Straight Ahead

This women's contemporary jazz quintet hails from Detroit, and while all 5 members figure prominently, it is really the spectacular contributions of violinist/vocalist Regina Carter which deserve special mention. Quite simply, her work on the electric violin is energetic, mesmerizing, and transcendent — Jean Luc Ponty move over! Her studies with Itzhak Perlman and Yehudi Menuhin are evident in the virtuosity with which she wields her instrument. Contains Blues for Annie, Theme for Eileen, covers of material by John Coltrane, Stanley Clarke, and others supplement original works to make this 1992 album a great find — check it out! 10,000 Maniacs
Our Time in Eden

Lush, poetic, dreamlike, this 1992 album's lyrics read like an intimate letter from a good friend — warm, philosophical, confidential. Natalie's focus remains pangaeal: yet she delves into the realms of myth and history here to evoke imagined lives, and told with her own stories, as with any poet, she balances her reflections of innocence with betrayal, of glory with bewilderment and disappointment in a way that creates real beauty. Includes Jehzebel, Gold Rush Brides, Cinder Dream. (EL61365) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Therapy Sisters

Holiday

The Barok Folk

Come Let Us Be Merry

Prior to the 19th century, Christmas carols were dance tunes with lyrics added. The old French verb "caroler" meant "to dance in a ring"; a "caroleur" was not a singer but a dancer. The Barok Folk trio (Carrie Crompton, Celia Wyckoff and Michael Rose) presents a program of lively and lovely instrumental dance tunes from England, Scotland, Ireland and France, performed on hammered and fretted dulcimers, recorders, viol, guitar and piano. You'll recognize a few, but many will become new additions to your carol vocabulary, as they bring a dancing spirit to your holidays. (MLP409) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Snow Angel

An album to warm you and friends and family on a mid-winter's night. This is a winter holiday album, with songs for the variety of seasonal holidays...you could think of it sort of as a "Cris-Mo" album...okay, moving on...A perfect gift item. (OL943) CS: 9.98

Deborah Henson-Conant/Schawkie Roth

Flute and Harp for Christmas

Deborah's harp is truly music from heaven on these traditional Christmas carols...and if you've heard Schawkie Roth, you know he's one of the most amazing flutists on earth. The songs have an almost eerily haunting, wistful quality to them: the phrasing, tones, timbres, embellishments, arrangements are exquisite, radiating perfection. And since ancient days, their instruments have been the ones most often used to soothe and uplift the soul. Recommended! (HM0118) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald's Christmas

Recorded in 1967, and featuring many traditional carols like Away in a Manger, Angels We Have Heard on High, and O Holy Night, this album is arranged and produced with an overall feeling of gentleness - no jazzed up or scuffed versions, just her incredibly rich voice with choir, strings, horns and the occasional chime. Primarily keyboards, acoustic and electronic, plus bagpipes, light percussion and strings. Includes a selection from Handel's Water Music; 2 Rumanian carols adapted by Bela Bartok, a Polish lullaby, and a Mexican carol. Refined, beautiful, and tranquil; recommended! December Dulcimers

Most festive and imaginative music, and by a woman (Jennifer) who used to work at a women's music company to boot! All instrumentals, with two hammered dulcimers, plus recorder, flute, fiddle, maracas, et al. There are traditional tunes, and not-so-traditional ones, which are always the winners to this reviewer's ears...in this case, Calypto Christmas and Reindeer Rag probably take the cake, as well as an original tune by Jennifer, Mistletoe Waltz. There are many dulcimer holiday albums out these days, but don't overlook this one just 'cause you haven't seen it in every record shop. (DSM02) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sounds of the Season

This magnificent album of Traditional Christmas Carols and Dances with Hammered Dulcimer, Celtic Harp, and Other Instruments can be enjoyed all throughout the year because of the fresh interpretations to both familiar and unusual tunes. Some carols, originally danced in ancient times, are recreated with the joyous rhythms of the sitar and Irish drum. Baroque-style medieval pieces are elegantly enhanced with recorder, viola da gamba, and finger cymbals; most of the musicians are women. Accompanied by Kim Robertson on harp, as well as other talented ensemble musicians, this celebrated hammered dulcimerist (known to many NPR listeners) presents a bright and cheery collection of over 20 instrumental carols. They were revived from "banishment" during Queen Victoria's lifetime... they had been abolished, along with Christmas and other holiday celebrations, by the Puritan parliament of 1647!! The Roches We Three Kings

A full 80 minutes (24 songs) of Roches-style holiday cheer here, and if you haven't heard this but are familiar with their earlier work, simply recall their awe-some rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus; that's the full-choir treatment they endow these songs with. They throw in a few zany versions of familiar tunes for good measure, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say that it's not always clear which are long-in-the-tooth, and that's okay... because if it feels good, like joy, which is the point anyway. Here they perform gorgeous holiday music, much of which you may not have heard before, from early music to Hannukah songs, shape note hymns, obscure NC songs, and some British Isles favorites like Gaudete. 26 songs in all they say, "We hope you're tired of bloodless New Age Christmas recordings suitable for the waiting room, and want to have your socks knocked off. Therese Schroeder-Sheker In Dulci Jubilo

We call this a holiday recording, but you may well inquire "exactly which holiday?" after listening and reading! Therese has an in-depth appreciation for Christianity's origins in Goddess and nature religions; and many of her selections reflect her own personal devotion "to all things Marian". In other words, this is more about Mary than about Jesus! With her sublime, seraphic voice, and impeccably played medieval and renaissance harps, psalteries, recorders and bells, she performs: The Holly and the Ivy (with subtle Gail and Goddess overtones); Down in Yon Forest (corroborates a fully developed Grail-epic imagery with the ancient nature's May Queen, all the while remembering the Nativity); the Salve Mater (a more recent professional hymn in praise of Mary); and more. Tish Hinojosa Memorabilia Navideña

This 8-song 1992 release grew out of a 4-song Christmas card cassette Tish had sent to friends and relatives the previous year. Fans learned of its existence, and high demand necessitated its commercial release, much to our pleasure! Her gorgeous voice, sweet acoustic guitar and understated backup band evoke a multicultural Christmas celebration which combines the two languages of Texas/Texas and contrasts the contemporary with the past. Includes Arbolito (Little Christmas Tree) in both languages, Milagro, A La Ninita Nana (a traditional Spanish lullaby). Recommended highly! (WAT1006) CS: 7.98... CD: 13.98

They all contributed instrumental Christmas tracks to this benefit release for the National Coalition for the Homeless, of course! Voice of the Turtle Circle of Fire: A Hanukkah Concert

A quartet of 2 women and 2 men, Turtle specializes in the folk songs of the Sephardic Jews who were expelled from Spain and Portugal during the 15th centuries; this live recording is Volume 5 of their Songs of the Sephardim series. They combine vocal harmonies with exotic historical instruments (such as 'ud, shawm, soprano chalemme, saz, baglam), reflecting the traditions of the Sephardim, preserving both the Judeo-Spanish culture and those of the lands through which they traveled while in exile. Barbara Borden All Hearts Beating

On this late 1990 release which is subtitled Drumming From the Source to the Core, Barbara takes you on an excursion through her world of drumming: an array of sounds, drums and percussion instruments paint a collage of multi-dimensional rhythms that resonate on a primal level. From the slow and sensual to the more uptempo pieces, you're surrounded with the quiet fire that is the underlying link of Barbara's creative expression... and In-Chant-Meant features the wonderful guest vocalist Rhianon. Appropriate for ritual, dance, love-making, and creative visualization, as well as plain clean listening! (CL2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden I Always Wanted To Play Drums

This is an instructional tape for beginning drummers, by one of the most exciting and proficient drummers around. She begins with an exercise to relax the body (to a hot percussive accompaniment—beats any exercise tape we've heard!), continues through theory, time divisions, call and response, and free drumming. Her instruction is very animated; even if you never thought you wanted to be a drummer, listening to this may change your mind! (PAR1) CS: 9.98

Beverly Botsford/ Khalid Saleem Rhythms of Life

We don't get many percussion tapes, and it's a pleasure to include one from a local Durham NC duo. Inspired by West African traditions, the pieces wind through a variety of pace and emotion, utilizing a diversity of instruments: djembe, balaphon, flute, sanza, gongong, kelin (log drum), bells, donno, djundun, songba, shekere, and agogo, to name a dozen... includes Celebration, Foto Funk, Cote D'Ivoire Inspiration. Cover art by "Goddess Storyteller" Louise Kessel. A great album for moving and/or perceiving along... Recommended! (RHY1) CS: 9.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing, as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a half hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin...with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk"), and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. EarthSpirit Community Tribal Drums

Recorded live at The Tribal Dance during the 1988 Twilight Coven of the EarthSpirit Community, an international network of Pagans and other nature-oriented people. Lots of percussion instruments here: dumbek, conga, frame drum, bon-bon, agogo, clave, tambourine, berimbau, claves, to name a few! — played by both women and men of the Coyote Clan. A variety of cultures' rhythms are represented, including African Rhythm, African Rhythm, Brazilian Rhythm, even Waltz. Edwina Lee Tyler Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of djembe drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals; we've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "the cool side," and progressively heats things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage) as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wide in the Water) and a West African song (Ki Yaw Ki Yaw). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive, in your mind and your body! (PPQ1) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Dancing Toward the One

From this creative musician/composer, dedicated to inspire people to the trance- and ecstasy-inducing powers of music and rhythm, come two full-length pieces, replete with a large female and male cast of vocalists plus percussionists and electric instrumentalists. Sing the Body is the first power chant Gabrielle received from the spirit... a "rhythm ride" to be taken alone or with others. Can You See Me was created in a healing circle as a dance meditation, as a way of breaking down barriers between people. (RAV01) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-trance music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of asheko or djembe, Tass drum, kibumba, log drum, toms, juri-juri, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Elena. We have nothing else like this in our catalog...let yourself loose with this one! (RAV02) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, voices and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume; it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV03) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Bones

"...a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones..." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as oboe, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Waves

Haunting and uptempo, this 1991 release seduces the listener into an ecstatic whirlpool. Jessica Marcus Conga Drum Teaching Tape

Mesmerized by the "passion of the drums" at an early age, Jessica has been studying, playing, performing and teaching percussion for over 20 years now. Her approach encompasses not only the musical component, but the spiritual and psychological as well, and the result is impressive! This tape is a straight-ahead drum lesson, intended for the beginner; we'd recommend combining this with her own tape of compositions (Sweet Beats & Busy Signals) so you can hear where the lesson is leading you to — if you apply yourself! (TP001) CS: 9.98

SWEET BEATS & BUSY SIGNALS

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels
Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/North African/Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius; the instruments speak in torrents of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrances in the listener. Titles include Come of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together. This 1992 album is simply one of the most honest and respectful recordings of woman's ritual music we've ever listened to... also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff
Yamantaka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuoso Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later. Sounds heard here are unlike any other, emulating echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, mysterious, and meditative... raising the level of intensity through whirling gyrations, spectral harmonics and the cyclical resonances of the Tibetan Bells. (CEL003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/ Airtio/ Flora Purim
Dafos

Dafos is an imaginary country, and this recording represents an aural journey, from its deserts to its polar ice floes to the Underworld, meeting with its spirits, and finally with its leader, the "Great Sound". Many of the pieces reflect structures and rhythms of specific cultures: Sudanese, Brazilian, Indonesian. Flora's wordless vocalizations are perfect for this fantasy land-smoky, keening, bird-like, it canoes and flutters, swoops and croons — this woman is an entire instrumental section herself! If you like polyrhythmic music, Rhythmic, or percussion, this is for you. (RYK106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart, with Flora Purim
Planet Drum

One world-class vocalist, Flora Purim, teams up with several "world" percussionists — Mickey of course (drummer for the Grateful Dead, for any of you who missed that part of history), plus Airtio Moreira, Sikiru Adejumo, and Vikku — on this groundbreaking, noteworthy, multi-cultural 1991 album. A thrilling series of compositions expresses the wide variety of rhythms, tones, and lyric power of percussion. (RYK206) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nancy Hennings & Henry Wolff
Tibetan Bells II

Utilizing solely the bells, bowls, cymbals and gongs of Tibet, these artists create sounds which could almost be confused for electronic music! An unprecedented synthesis of the sounds of East and West, of Past and Present, of Here and Beyond — quintessential space music, produced by Stephen Hill of Hearts of Space. This is the musical and metaphysical heir to their original 1971 underground classic, "Tibetan Bells". Prepare for an out-of-body experience. (CEL005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nancy Hennings & Henry Wolff
Tibetan Bells III: The Empty Mirror

This album completes the musical odyssey of Nancy and Henry begun in 1969-70 in India and Nepal. By the expression of subtle harmonic relationships, it quickly transcends the temporal domain. The resonance of the Tibetan Bell tones, far richer than any synthetically produced sound, builds an increasingly fine perception and subtle comprehension in the listener. (CEL027) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nancy Hennings & Henry Wolff
The Bells of Sh'ang Sh'ung

With this 1991, new trails are blazed by the musicians who created the classic Tibetan Bells trilogy. Sh'ang Sh'ung is the Tibetan name for Shambhala, the fabled lost kingdom where the most precious teachings of Buddhism were conceived and remain preserved to this day. The artists musically depict a journey to this mythical place, complete with physical, mental and spiritual tribulations of the pilgrimage, and evoking the awe-inspiring spectacle of the Himalayas. Based upon but not limited to the unadorned music of the bells of Tibet, they utilize synthesizers and space-age electronics as counterparts to the magic resonances of the Tibetan bells. Strange and dazzling! (CEL037) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie Coincidence and Likely Stories

Back after a hiatus of many years, Buffy returns with the distinctive voice and strong mix of pointed political and personal songs that endeared her to, and perhaps woke up, an entire generation. Almost all original and mostly new material on this 1992 release, though songs like Starwalker will sound welcome and familiar to some of us. Unfortunately, her indictments of the US government in its dealings with Native American communities and other disenfranchised populations are as relevant as they were 30 years ago, and her commentaries on money and power junkies have become even more scathing. Hopefully, more folks will be more ready to accept more responsibility now. Includes Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee, Disinformation, The Priestess of the Golden Bull, Emma Lee. Recommended! Legends of North American Indians

"Before we had books, records, radio or television, we were story tellers. Like slender threads, these stories tied us to our past... The message and meaning of our stories are still the same today, to teach our young people to care for themselves that they might grow up strong and fulfill their visions, and teach us to respect and thank the mother earth who sustains our lives." This Cherokee/Cree woman is indeed an entrancing story-weaver. Includes Why Do They Call Us Indians?, The Gift of Corn, Circle of Life, The Magic Buffalo, and many more. (US9041) CS: 9.95

Outstanding! Even more beautiful than her first, in this reviewer's humble opinion, this cassette is pure musical imagery—voice without words—which, with harp, autoharp, cello, flute and bells—becomes a sound that is felt rather than heard. Again, all original and all performed by the artists, with invocations of harmonies and rhythms. An emotional richness, an old message, celestial seasonings for the spirit! Highly recommended. In My Two Hands

One side of this tape represents a creative venture for an artist well-known to women's and folk audiences: it embodies a unique collaboration between an Asian and a North American artist, and expresses the interrelationship between engaged activism and the spiritual foundation which make continued activism possible. The songs were inspired and co-authored by Thich Nhat Hahn, a Vietnamese poet-teacher and Nobel Peace Prize nominee, who chaired the Vietnamese Buddhist Peace Delegation, and taught and lived "engaged Buddhism" in his country during the war. The music, sung by Betsy in English, blends eastern and western instrumentation: koto, bamboo flute, string bass and more. Spectacular! This Juilliard grad has a solid history doing Nashville studio work, but you'd never guess it by listening to this! Starting off with the soundtrack-like Inside Out and Dream-weaving (yes, she's also scored some films), you get the sense that her virtuosity on violin, cello and piano were merely the necessary steps toward realizing her composing genius. Fitting this 1991 recording into one category will keep our staff up at night, since it excels in several. Welcome to Annwn

This Neo-pagan cassette welcomes all to the Welsh underworld of ritual and magic, with songs of invocation and celebration. Another Judith a Crane Song is a psalm to the Goddess in her various forms, while We Are A Circle salutes the elements of Earth, Water, Fire and Air. Two of the best are a melody of the traditional Goin' Up On the Mountain Break 'Em On Down and Strolling, a beautiful, choral-like chant song. Interesting, unusual; enjoyable! (NEM3) CS: 9.98

Delphys
Sacred Spaces for Inner Journeys

Delphys is the Greek word for womb, and this tape contains breath visualizations led by Kim Rosen (The Oceans Are Calling, The Delphys Connection, an inner journey guided by the dolphins, and Breathing Horle) with an original musical score. It is intended as a reminder of one's inner sanctuary, which can be tapped into for guided or personal meditation, and utilizes their gentle harmonies and music as a peaceful backdrop. With "Amy & Leslie" on vocals and Cathie Malach on keyboards, this release — subtitled Sacred Spaces for Inner Journeys — is a masterful meditation tool. (DLP1) CS: 10.98

Delphys
Ocean Born

Step quietly into the watery realms of the heart! Subtitled The Songs of Cathie Malach and Kim Rosen with Amy Fraden and Leslie Ritter, Vocalists, this lovely recording is the fruit of an extraordinary collaboration, where "the mind of the land honors the heart of the sea..." (Set Them Free). 12 songs full of love and ocean spirit, many with Dolphin and Goddess themes, reminding us of our connections to our hearts and to these intelligent and beautiful beings. The songs are story-like and poetic, the music mostly keyboards (some gorgeous solo piano) and light percussion, with the vocal harmonies reaching unearthly levels of beauty. Notable cuts include the touching Goodbye, Cathie's letter to her dying mother: The Call and Set Them Free, which include Whale and Dolphin voices; and the gospel, Kiss of Spirit. Most highly recommended! (DLP2) CS: 10.98

Denean
Fire Prayer

This 1991 release is an album of original chants and songs, honoring Mother Earth and the life of the spirit. Denean, raised in the hills of Kentucky, is primarily white with some Cherokee in her background; she draws inspiration from both Native American and country/folk gospel traditions. Lots of percussion and nature sounds are interwoven with piano, synthesizers, flute, and her strong, sweet voice. Includes Song to the Mother, Spiral to the Center, Sacred Fire, The Tree. Very professionally produced, and a great source of new songs and chants. Some of the proceeds go to Native American organizations. (ETH7101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Gaia, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hypnotic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kristen Gygi on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements: "The earth is my body! Her water is my blood! Her winds are my breath! Her fire is my spirit..." Kristen is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Dianic Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary-sounding devotional Goddess recordings, we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is nothing yet full of contained energy, while Rhea Kionia is all vibrant movement. Kristen is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the West Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include Wine Dance, Exploding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Return to the Goddess-Chants & Song

This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristen and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the cradle, and the material continues to honor and revere the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include 2 Budapest's From the Goddess chant, which anyone who's attended a women's spirituality gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Say Yes To Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more acoustic in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended! (DW1004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Stretch Breathe and Relax

This massage therapist and feminist yoga teacher is well known to many women's fests for her "magic hands." Her 1991 tape provides step-by-step instructions for two individual sessions: 30 minutes each of stretching and yoga postures; 10 minutes each side of relaxation/meditation. These easy-to-perform movements are designed to tone muscles, reduce stress and improve flexibility, postural alignment, strength, and balance. The good sound quality, her clear and soothing voice, the descriptive notes and diagrams in the insert, and the background instrumentals by music therapist Deborah Phelps, all help make this an easy and appealing program to use. Dyke Spino

Morning Dance

Koto fans, note this release! Chosen expressly for their healing qualities, the delicate and varied compositions here flow from Irish jig to Spanish Malaguena, to melodic lone poem, to waltz, and around again. Former director of the Eastern Sports Center, Dyke has been part of the Human Potential Movement for years. Her classical piano, her daughter Renee Teresa's flute, and Aethia Holt's koto (she is a scholar of ancient Japanese Court Music) inspire awakened perceptions and inner calm. (DYV100) CS: 9.98

Esther "Little Dove" John et al

The Elements

Produced under the artistic direction of Nancy Rumbel, this exquisite concert was inspired by, and incorporates, the sounds of the four elements: Water, Air, Earth and Fire. Flutist Esther "Little Dove" John, accompanied by synthesists Kaaren Molozza and Debi Davidson, weaves melodic, thematic improvised music into the recorded sounds of ocean, mountain stream, night creatures, and campfire, creating an ambience which is esoteric, peaceful and visually provoking. This reviewer was a big fan of Paul Horn's flute compositions with The Elements back in the 70's... while quite different, this is just as stunning. Use for relaxing, meditating, enjoying; highly recommended! (MMH2289) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Fiorella Terenzi

Music From the Galaxies

One of the most fascinating recordings ever "realized," by an Italian astrophysicist and experimental music scholar, termed Acoustic Astronomy — an uncommon fusion of science and art, astronomy and music. Her compositions are created from actual radio telescope raw data (high frequency radiation waves) from a distant galaxy called UGC 6657, which is first translated into number sequences, which are then converted into sound via computer. The extensive liner notes are clear and interesting, and the music is, well... spacey — this will definitely send you to the outer realm! Don't accept substitute "space music" when you can have the real thing! (ISL448788) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Gaia's Voice

The Chorus of Life

This Bay Area mixed chorus, directed by Deborah Hamouris, specializes in 20th century music that addresses themes of nature and Earth-centered (read Pagan) spirituality. They perform some great re-worked versions of old favorites, such as Unorthodoxy ("Praise Her from whom all blessings flow..."), Star Spangled Pagan, The Magic Wheel (to the tune of Green Grow the Rushes-O), and originals such as Gaia Speaks, One With Our Mother. Lyric book included — an excellent source of new material for group singing. (GV1) CS: 9.98

Accompaniment on violin and flute by Kenny and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady, Two Witches, Magick, Morning's Theme, Medicine Song, and a (new) solstice song of the Old Religion, Bring Back the Light. Enchanting! (WLPI) CS: 10.98

Womanspirit

A spoken meditation by Hallie, adapted from her book Womanspirit: A Guide to Women's Wisdom with exquisite harp accompaniment composed and performed by Georgia Kelly specifically for this tape. Exploring Women's Heritage is a journey back through one's "mother line" to contact and explore a source of ancient female power and wisdom. Living in harmony helps the listener integrate an understanding of natural cycles into her everyday life. The production represents a synthesis of femininity and spirituality, and recognizes woman as the creation maker. (WIS1) CS: 10.98

Hildegard of Bingen

Hildegard — abbess, scientist, medical woman, scholar, musician, composer, political and religious figure, and visionary who lived from 1090 to 1179 — is considered by many to represent the link between Christian spirituality and pre-patriarchal spirituality; in fact, many hail her as the greatest woman intellectual of all time. On this meditation tape, which represents one of the first times that her writings were translated into English, the listener is taken through her holistic, sensual spirituality and cosmology. Voice and concept by Debora Bluestone. (BMT21) CS: 10.98

Ishtar

Rites of the Dolphin

Eleven stars on a ten-star system! A very unusual, intoxicating, and totally exquisite instrumental offering from a mostly women's trio which takes its name from the Babylonian goddess of the moon and interpreter of dreams. Lina Moskwa is a master of the sarod (a North Indian instrument with 25 strings, metal fretless fingerboard and brass resonating bell) which is somewhat the centerpiece; Nicole Milner is the pianist-composer (her playing full of emotion); Doug Carroll is the cellist. Their innovative repertoire is inspired by a wide spectrum of musical ideas from Europe and Asia, creating an unique East-West fusion. Includes Moon Raga, Three Deer Haiku, highly recommended! Jal Ma Kirtan-Songs to Divine Mother

A truly beautiful 30-minute program of chanting in Sanskrit to the various aspects of God as the Mother: Keli, Durga, Amba, Radha, Ma Lakshmi, Gauri, etc., by primarily women's voices. Sung in Kirtan, an ancient Indian call-and-response form. Includes the Hymn to the Goddess Mother, the Durga Arati Song. Traditional eastern instruments — tabla, tanpura, harmonium — are tastefully interwoven with western guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, silver flute. Cover pictures Shakti Yantra, a mandala used for meditation on the energy of the female aspect of God. Recommended! (SRI0006) CS: 9.98

Jana Runnalls

Ancestral Dream / Improvised Ritual

A very unique first solo recording by one half of the well-known British feminist duo, Dna. Passionately celebrating women's spirituality, Jana uses natural and special effects, pagan chants, and a vast array of instruments (temple bells, Indian and Chinese flutes, classical flute, clarinet, African drums, African kalimba / thumb piano, Indian tabla, dulcimer and percussion). Invocations are sung to Tiamat (Babylonian sky goddess), Diana (We all come from Goddesses, chant to the pagan mother of all life), Kore (Greek earth goddess), Apsara (Celtic sky goddess), Kali (Hindu goddess of fire). Beginning and ending with Deep Woman, and meandering through some spectacular instrumentals such as Spirit of Avalon along the way, this cassette offers an entry into the spirit-world like no other. Highly recommended. (STC300) CS: 11.98

In the second volume of her Improvised Ritual Music series, Jana continues her employment of primal, rhythmic energy as a creative expression of women's spirituality and as a bridge between politics and faith. She explores the realms of the womb as a creative source of deep power and radical awareness, with ritual chanting, vocal improvisations, and intense instrumentalism from bamboo flute to percussion. Includes Witchwoman, Remember Goddess is Within, Mami Wata (Hawaiian goddess), huma (Sumerian goddess), and more. The pulse is irresistible, the melodies haunting, and the meanings will be experienced on a multitude of levels. Recommended! (STC301) CS: 11.98

Tree Magic

This music began with a common vision of these two women of the power, beauty, and magic of trees on our world; it started in a Celtic tree circle near Glastonbury, traditionally a site of magic; and that is what this music is, absolute magic. Instruments such as hammered dulcimer (played to sound at times like a koto), clarinet, soprano recorder, are interwoven with African drum, marimba, xylophone... try to imagine the possibilities of these in combination, and you may come close to the beauty of these improvisations. Titles include Amazona, Spirit of the Forest, in the Tree Circle, African Walk, Rhythmic, creative, unique, inspired, and once again... highly recommended! (STC302) CS: 11.98

Deep Daydreams

Rhythmic medicinal! Described as "specially metered music to lower heart rate and blood pressure", the synthesizer music on this tape is composed and performed at 60 beats per minute on Side One, and 50 BPM on Side 2. Since the body generally tends to synchronize with external beats, this is a perfect accompaniment for bodywork, stretching, relaxing, or just quiet enjoyment. (MEL1) CS: 12.98... CD: 15.98

The Wise-Woman Archetype

Subtitled Menopause as Initiation, the author of Goddesses in Everywoman presents the sacred dimensions of the wise-woman archetype, integrating insights from the Women's Movement with archetypal psychology. She discusses the triple goddess: blood mysteries in ancient cultures; the Inquisition as female holocaust, when strong female figures threatened patriarchy's domination over western culture; woman's pilgrimage, utilizing this archetype as a means of spiritual empowerment; and more. This is fascinating, useful information that takes us to the horizon of our understanding about the special wisdom that comes to women after menopause. (SNO137) CS: 9.98

Visualizations for Singers

Subtitled Mental Imagery for Vocal Performance, this singer/songwriter offers an excellent program in which exercises utilizing imagery, affirmative thinking, and mental rehearsal have potentially powerful effects on vocal development. On Side 1, The Healthy Voice, she discusses grounding and body awareness, boosting energy centers for breath, sound, and creativity, and healing the damaged voice. Side 2, Onstage Power, covers performance journey, channeling audience energy, meeting the inner coach, and affirmations. (VYL6) CS: 9.98

Judith Sherwen, Ph.D.

Mothering the Girl Within

This guided healing meditation tape consists of four sections: Getting to Know Your Girl, Mother and Your Identity, Father and Your Femininity, and Mothering the Girl Within. In each section, Judith leads us on an exploration of personal experiences, and helps identify where our self-image comes from. Her approach seems based in a background in psychology, so the insights you gain from this may resemble the work you'd do in a therapy session! Although she does use male/female relationships for some of her examples, she does make it clear that this tape is designed for both heterosexual and lesbian women. (SK1) CS: 10.98

Julia Haines

Odyssey: Afro-Celtic-Harp-Fusion

A stunning, evocative, radiant musical work by a woman who was half of the WindHarp duo (we carried their tape Wind/Water/Light when it was in print, and was one of our Top-Ten favorites back then). Her solo effort is a document of her continuing journey, illustrating her ability to create new sounds by interweaving elements of her primary influences: traditional eastern and western world music, classical, jazz, traditional West African drumming and kora (a stringed instrument), and even the power of silence. Mostly original instrumentals; plus one improvisation on an O'Carolan tune, and the stand-out piece here, Jato J'le Binaola—she combines harmonizing vocals and harp on a Mandingo blessing song, then segues into a similarly-arranged song from Mali for the liberation of all women—would love an entire album of this from her someday! Highly recommended. (AH1) CS: 9.98

Cave Diver

This 1-woman (Gem Caccetta) 1-man (Robin Circus) duo creates some unusually mystical compositions, which could more accurately be termed spells, invocations and chants! Gem is a Wiccan and a student of the Qabala, and the songs she writes reflect her experiences and feelings as an initiate on the path. Gem is also vocalist and synthesist on this electronically-sophisticated collection of songs that range from atmospheric instrumentals and gentle inductions to upbeat story songs and the strongly rhythmic and ritualistic. You'll find much material for exploration here, from Waters of Persephone to Robin Goodfellow. We advise you to don a set of headphones with this musical map of cosmic consciousness, and immerse yourself entirely in its vast, deep space... Recommended! (DCR1) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

KALI

The Australian vocal quartet Kali consists of Kath & Inl (see below) plus Annie & Lyndall. A simple recording yet harmonically stunning, especially on the a cappella numbers, as well as quite woman-identified—or, as their press release says, "a rich vocal texture and lyrics that express concern for the quality of relationships on our planet—humans and the earth, women and men, life and death; celebrating those that are mutually enhancing and questioning those that are not." Includes Cop-pow-woman, Bold Woman, Sister of the Sun, Rocking the Whale, Dreams & Visions, plus a few feminist topical songs. This tape will help make a vital connection with the world-wide women's (spirituality) movement. (AFF2) CS: 9.98

Finding the Goddess Within

The author of Awakening Female Power: The Way of the Goddess Warrior offers a companion tape which explores the essence of Goddess discovery. On side 1 (17 minutes), she discusses Goddess archetypes, how to connect with the Goddess within, and rituals for Goddess worship/awareness. Side 2 (also 17 minutes) offers guided meditation, to a musical accompaniment by Steven Halpern. (SS1) CS: 9.98

Affirmations

Wow! A most unusual recording by Ineke and Kathy, two Australian women, who sing beautiful melodies in gorgeous harmony on songs affirming Life, Love, Strength, Forgiveness, Understanding, Power, Judgment, Order, Will and Zeal. And what's so great is they're catchy, you'll be singing along even after the tape stops...making the affirmations work in your own life! Breath-taking voices; straightforward, creative and, yes, affirming lyrics; sparse but effective back-up on synth, sax, flute, cornet, recorder, piano, guitar, percussion...which doesn't diminish the vocal power! Feel of a live, a cappella, participatory, tribal-sounding recording; an all-woman production. Very highly recommended! (AFF1) CS: 9.98

Combining all the best from Mooncircles—all the instrumental tracks—and Emerging—the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway; if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special...This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamuse, which she considers the best piece she ever composed; with Meg Christian on guitar. A Rainbow Path

Please note sale price on LPI Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, art and color, and this recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle vocals. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness; and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Flowe on viola, Martha Siegel on cello, Vivian Stoll on vibraphone. Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Devian Hills. Primarily vocal, it has a distinctly traditional sound. The Earth side is rich with ballads, waltzes and female affirmation. The Sea side (this reviewer's favorite) is full of New England sea shanties. All songs directly relate to women's power, woman's story. The Ballad of Mary & Ann is about two New England women persecuted for being lesbians. Do you remember? is a deeply spiritual song which reverberates with the Matriarchy. Musicians include Kay on dulcimer, flutes and vocals, April Rain and Alex Dobkin on guitar. (EKR44) LP: 6.98... Other pieces, each using a scale from a different culture, are entitled Saraswati (for bamboo flute and bell), Mountain Melody, The Temple of Ishtar. This represents another stage in Kay's research into the use of music in healing. (EKR39) LP: 6.98... CS: 9.98

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, we proudly present a special long-playing project. Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed—for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion—specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path; Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Alto Flute Meditations with Sounds of the Rainforest

Kay Gardner Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summer/fall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your head(sets) and heart. Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing; perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. Very highly recommended — "naturally" (LR111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner & Sunwomyn Ensemble Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1990 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path. Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Arienne Fort's) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudalina Pili Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Viriditas, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! Kay Gardner Avalon

This tape of solo flute meditations was created when Kay co-lead a "women's mysteries" tour in Glastonbury, England, where Brigid, the Goddess of wells, flames, oaks, creative arts/music and healing, once dwelled and was worshipped. As Kay moved from High Altar to holy fountain to holy well, her flute improvisations were recorded by a hand-held tape-player, and the magic of the place, of the healing waters, of those moments, and of the Goddess Brigid's inspiration can be heard by all. Remarkably good quality, quieting, and very suitable for meditation. Includes The Lady's Chapel, Chalice Hill Fairy Circle. This is hopefully the first in a series to be recorded by Kay at women's holy places. (LR106) CS: 9.98

Kim Robertson Wind Shadows

Kim brings forth the mysterious and magical sound of the Celtic harp to its crystalline potential in her interpretation of traditional Irish and Scottish tunes, with simplicity and grace. Kim is classically trained on pedal harp but has made this more ancient instrument her life's work. In addition to some Carolan and other tunes from Ireland, this tape includes three original compositions which evoke stillness and calm. (INV111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Water Spirit

In addition to original and Irish tunes this contains some classical and earlier ones: Pachelbel's Canon, Fauré's Pavane (a haunting piece), a Bach minuet, and 12th and 13th century French and Italian compositions. Digitally mastered, real-time duplicated... in other words, for 9.98, Kim will sit inside your speakers and play her 19th century French single action harp. A supreme recording — very highly recommended. (INV115) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Steve Kujala Wild Iris

One of Kim's most unusual and gorgeous to date (that's what we say about each of her new releases when we hear it)... a true masterpiece of improvisation. Steve is a jazz flautist in his other life, and brings a playful, energetic smoothness and lightness (and at times plaintiveness) to the duets from Irish, Scottish, South American traditions, plus several originals by both Kim herself and the duo. Also includes the beautiful Pavane by Gabriel Fauré, as well as some solos by Kim. Very, very highly recommended! (INV123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Angels in Disguise

Kim here showcases her haunting, angelic voice, reminiscent of both her heavenly harping and the vocals of Singh Kaur, to the accompaniment of her own harp as well as strings with tasteful touches of guitar and percussion. The material is a lovely mix of Celtic folk melodies and contemplative originals, and even one Japanese composition. Beautifully crafted, don't miss this! (INV124) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosically supreme. "The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complimentary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far; many Eastern sounds, interesting scales. Includes Women of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past... or, if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kiva The Healing Art

Kiva is a 3-woman acoustic ensemble performing beautiful original songs of the Goddess, healing, and Earth's ancient ways. They employ vocal harmonies with traditional arrangements and instrumentation (cello, bodhran, mandolin, guitar), in a style that is contemplative and peaceful on side 1; inspirational of movement, laughter and dance on side 2. Lead singer-songwriter Ariana (formerly of Pomegranate) is a priestess of the Old Religion, and her lyrics are thus informed. Accompanied by a multitalented kaleidoscope of friends, among them long-time Ladyslipper helper Barbara McPherson on drums! Songs include Diana, Aphrodite's Flowers, Witch's Hour, The Healing Art, Jar Ma. Recommended! (KIV1) CS: 9.98

Kiva Renewal

More percussive Goddess and Earth songs and chants by Ariana's primarily acoustic ensemble. The stand-outs are the chants which each feature two percussionists — Barbara and Robin — who employ African, Latin, Caribbean, Native and Brazilian rhythms, but the musicians' ease with traditional forms and harmonies also adds to this collection. Includes Dance in the Moonlight, Yemaya, Diana Fantane!, Huntress, Fire Flow Free, The Earth Is Our Mother. Recommended again! (KIV2) CS: 9.98

Kutira Decostero Into the Dreamtime

"Oceanic Tantra: to merge in love with all creation, to undulate like a wave on an infinite, blissful sea of sound." This is evocative, ritualistic, vibrational music performed by the artist on Didgeridoo, accompanied by Sophia's and Singh Kaur's vocals, Raphael's keyboards, Terri Sternberg's dynamic whale-violin duets, juju and b. under drums and other percussion on Side 1. Side 2 is a sensual, shamanic guided journey led by Kutira's mellifluous voice to a meeting with your own Dolphin guide. Some proceeds go to dolphin and whale organizations. Unusual, enchanting, ancient, and ecstasy-inspiring; highly recommended! (KAH1) CS: 11.98

A Circle Is Cast

This 1986 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual; the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements, most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 23 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPN002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fire Within

Finally, the long-awaited sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast! Synthesizing their two musical identities—as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual—this release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here; several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman; Neesa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Tree Planter's Round; Clear Horizon; Rise Up O Flame; O Virgo Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you—on the LadySlipper label—Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LH108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lisa Dancing-Light

Point of Balance

Recommended by Brooke Medicine Eagle, Lisa's 1990 debut album features her original vocal compositions, intended for the healing of Mother Earth and the spiritual reawakening of all her children. If there were a New Age Radio Top 10, the title cut would certainly be in it, with a melody which you'll hear in your mind long after the album has ended, with tenor sax and more! Winds of Change, dedicated to Oya, Goddess of change and transformation; Power Chant; Mother Earth Chant and others; but you could buy this primarily for the title cut—it's worth it. Lisa Thiel/ Ani Williams

Sisters of the Dream

"The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother." This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists: Lisa's Songs of the Spirit, Prayers for the Planet, and Rising of the Phoenix; and Ani's Wind Spirit, Song of the Jaguar, and Children of the Sun (see our listings for both artists in this section). This would be an excellent way to sample works by both artists (we're sure many of you'll want to add more of their recordings to your collection), and this is also a magical compilation in its own right. Recommended! (GBE1) CS: 9.98

Lisa Thiel

Lady of the Lake

We proudly welcome Lisa to the LadySlipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arms of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Rune Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and title track. An uplifting treasure; most highly recommended! (LH112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Songs of Transformation

Anne Williams again collaborates (on vocals and harp) with Lisa on this beautiful recording of Goddess chants. Rising of the Phoenix

Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected; and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Giveaway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. Contains a guide for using the songs for healing and in ceremony. As always, highly recommended. (SD4) CS: 9.98

Loreena McKennitt
The Visit

This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer, and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Childe, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Souls Night and the instrumental Tango To Evoke, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album: hear the Italian tint coloring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greenfever. And her indescribable musical rendition of Tennyson's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments: great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new CD this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB26880) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Louise Hay/ Joshua Leeds
Safe Passage

Subtitled Affirming Songs of Hope and Healing, this lovely 1991 recording contains songs and chants — musical versions of Louise's affirmations — performed by a variety of vocalists, mostly women (and most notably Evie Sands). These affirmations become modern day mantras as they are lovingly repeated. Forgiving is an instrumental, with the suggested meditation "May I never count the number of times I forgive." Joshua is the musical composer, and the melodies are sweet, quiet and unobtrusive. Some of these songs are found on the album Songs of Affirmation. We think this recording will fulfill its intent to assist in deep inner-work and change; highly recommended! (NS0591) CS: 9.98

Sounding like music from other galaxies, or perhaps bells from heaven, this album is intended to assist in opening our dream states; the artist suggests you keep a dream journal for 6 weeks to help determine your own symbology for what is happening in your life. While this sounds very "far out", this title is my favorite of all her works to date (perhaps it's significant that I have a very active dream life and rarely understand their deeper meanings). Anyway, the sounds express a joy and exuberance with unexpected tone and pitch changes — its exciting as well as relaxing! 60 minutes of continuous music. Highly recommended! Marja Gimbutas
Civilization of the Goddess-2 Tapes

The mystery of the Goddess culture is brought to life here by one of the great archaeologists of our time. The story of this audiotape begins in the 1920's, when Marja was a young girl living in Lithuania; she was fascinated with the folktales of her region, where Christianity was introduced relatively late (the 16th century). Many of these stories concerned the "Old Religion" and the Great Goddess — and were passed down as folklore from before the birth of Christ. After training as an archaeologist, she led 5 expeditions over 3 decades to explore the origins of the earliest European religions. What emerged from her life's work is evidence of an advanced culture, based not on weapons and fear, but on the presence of the Great Goddess, symbolizing a sacred union with all of nature. 2 tapes, 120 min. In this New Dimensions Radio interview, author and pioneer of the woman's spirituality movement speaks of her own inspiration and vision. Drawing upon an ancient spiritual wisdom, she reveals the Goddess as the flow of life energy, nurturing and sustaining. At a time when the planet is threatened with destruction, the return of the Goddess embodies a profoundly ecological vision for the future. 60 min. (NDR2116) CS: 10.98

Michelle Sell

Circle 'Round the Moon: Harp Music

This beautifully crafted and textured instrumental work is rich with diverse melodies that encompass earthy rhythms, Brazilian dances, light jazz, and classical transcriptions. Michelle has been around for a long time, performing with artists from Margie Adam to Count Basie, Betty Carter to Linda Ronstadt, Liza Minnelli to Sarah Vaughan; her first solo work bespeaks these years of professional accomplishment. Contributions from such musical dignitaries as David Darling on cello and Radhika Miller on alto flute, as well as others on soprano sax, acoustic bass, and world percussion round out Michelle's harp and keyboards. Notable cuts include So Fine, a spicy Brazilian choro; her originals Three Sisters and Dancing Coyote; and the enchantingly rhythmic title cut. Highly recommended! (MC1102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mindia

Balinese Dream

Innovative World Music composer, flutist and Gamelan player Mindia Klein, co-founder of the Ancient Future ensemble, takes us on a journey to the Far East, exploring both inner and outer landscapes. Her musical impressions are interwoven with live sounds of the Balinese jungle and village life: Balinese gamangas, Indian tablas, bansuri flute, sarod and esraj, along with guitars and flutes, co-mingle with Balinese frogs, birds, and ocean — a passing musical procession to the temple or a waltz of the Monkey chant, a village renewal ritual, riding on a breeze. This gorgeous bouquet of eclectic rhythms, mysterious tonalities, and shimmering melodic episodes is filled with surprises... recommended! (MIN1) CS: 9.98

Nancee Kahler

Open the Sky

Each year we receive several hundred instrumental recordings seeking distribution... so to add one to our catalog, there needs to be something special about it. This one's an absolute stand-out! Nancee's a talented composer and keyboardist whose music is fresh, engaging, upbeat, vaguely in the spirit of Pat Metheny, Mason Williams or Earl Klugh at times: a beautiful blend of classical, jazz, folk and pop idioms, with strong melodies and (most of the time) back-up instrumentation of electric and acoustic guitar, violin, bass, percussion. Two of the best are Under the Influence of the Ninth... Beethoven's that is, and The Raven's Flight Back Home. Great driving music — Highly recommended! (BD4006) CD: 12.98

Nancy Rumbel / Eric Tingstad

Dedicated to the spirit of gardening and Earth stewardship, this amazing recording pays tribute in a variety of ways: Gorgeous, lilting compositions, beautiful artwork, interesting and varied notes, and proceeds benefit several environmentally responsible gardening organizations! All titles relate to the phenomenon of gardening, and include Bonsai Picnic, Ghostwood, The Parterre, Roses for Jesse and Big Weather. Perfect for any plant lover who's ever pored over a Smith & Hawken catalog with lust in her heart... or for your Walk(woman) while weeding! Recommended. (NAS4004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kalama: A Sufi Song of Love

This 1990 release carries the extended chant to a new level of complexity, with 48 tracks and 32 separate lines of choral music, while maintaining the stunning simplicity which creates wholeness and peace in the listener. On Side 2, the voices of On Wings of Song build to an ecstatic climax, as Eastern and Western influences are merged into a loving and heart-opening celebration. (SHM1013) CS: 9.98

Gloria

Imagine entering a Gothic cathedral as the great bell sounds the call to prayer. The thousand-year-old melodies of Gregorian chant echo through the cathedral as the monks intone: "Gloria in excelsis deo; et in terra pax." ("Glory be to God and peace on earth.") The congregation responds, chanting again and again the simple refrain "Adeamus te." ("I adore thee.") On this 1991 extended-chant album, male voices are joined in beautiful harmony by the women of On Wings of Song and the delicate accompaniment of classical guitar. (SHM1014) CS: 9.98

In A Light Garden

Our highest recommendation goes to this one... every second is pure listening pleasure, and it does not sound like every other new age recording you've heard; in fact, it doesn't sound like any other one. Original compositions for Celtic harp, cellos, violins, violas, flute and keyboards... glorious baroque sequences, rock riffs, jazz progressions, classical strains... sparkly magical soundbursts, playful, piddly dances over the soundwaves. Includes To Cecilia (For My Mother). (GP79324) CS: 9.98

Platero

Arpa De Las Americas

"Arpa Paraguaya y Guitarra": truly gorgeous Paraguayan harp and guitar performances of Latin American traditional folk music by North American duo Sandy Smith and Jack Montgomery. Sandy's harp is right out front, carrying most of the melodic lines; and her precision, proficiency and delicacy are unsurpassed to the east. This recording is simultaneously soothing and lively, stands up to repeated listenings, and is a perfect blend of New Age and International elements. Timeless and beautiful. If you were to represent it visually, your picture would be full of sparkles... fitting, since platero is the Spanish word for silver. Highly recommended! (PLT1001) CS: 9.98

Pomegranate

This 3-woman ensemble represents a new voice singing of the Old Religion, with ancient people's veneration of the Goddess as the keynote. Forceful and striking vocal harmonies blend with acoustic stringed instruments (guitar, cello) and percussion, creating chants and songs which are strong affirmations of the feminine. The first side of the tape musically casts a Dianic circle, and the second side includes songs of a more pantheistic nature. Two members, Ariana and Aiana, are both priestesses of the Old Religion; Diana is a classically-trained musician, influenced by multi-ethnic music; and the tape additionally features "a company of women." Includes Blessed Mother, May Queen, Earth Mother and more. 60 min. (POM1) CS: 9.98

Radhika Miller

The Lark's Bride

An exquisitely-woven tapestry of dance-like chamber duets improvised in a classical style, with cellist Eugene Friesen (of the Paul Winter Consort), combined with Radhika's gorgeous arrangements for flute and harp (Michelle Bell) or piano (Rob Ramos) of some of the most majestic Renaissance and traditional melodies — from the 13th century on. Her fourth recording is absolutely unequivocally most highly recommended. (RM1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Gems of Grace

A perfect title for this inspirationally centering work, on which she collaborates again with harpist Michelle Bell, cellist David Dorfing, and pianist Allaudin Mathieu. All compositions are variations on the theme of grace — the sense of balance and beauty which brings us peace. She explores new textures here, introducing French horn player Alicia Tefford, and some carefully chosen synthesized orchestral parts. Originally conceived of as a lullaby album for children (until she realized adults need unwinding more than their younger counterparts), it contains Her Majesty's Lullaby, Lullaby for Mary, Night Herding Song, and Motherless Child. As always, highly recommended. (RM1109) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Here and Faraway

We've come to expect nothing less than excellence from Radhika and her ensemble of talented friends, and this 1992 release captures that adjective beautifully. Her graceful combinations of Western classical elements with the instruments and styles of other cultures are joined by quiet flute works brimming with repose. A special highlight is Michelle Bell's exquisite harp, which adds a lush beauty to an already lovely sound. Pieces include the gorgeous Romanian Nightingale, the aching sorrow of the Celtic classic The Water is Wide, and the sweet synthesis of Adonemus. Recommended, of course! (RM1111) CS: 9.98 ... Eco Odyssey

On this 1992 release with a powerful environment theme, fluid melodies and beautiful lyrics carry the message of our deep interconnectedness with mother nature as well as conveying the heartbreaking damage that has been done to her. Includes a few delicious moments of Joanne Rand performing her song Koyanagator, and Ann Reed's incredible guitar will be heard on three selections. We All Come From the Goddess

Here's how Merlin Stone, author of When God Was a Woman, described this tape by Tori Rea, Molly Scott, and Sarah Benson... we couldn't say it better: "Drawing upon the Goddess images of Asia, the Near East and North America, these songs and chants create a magical space in which we can move thousands of years into the past or glide into visions of joyous future. Certainly a high point in the music emerging from women's spirituality!" Harmonizing vocals, some a cappella, some with flute, percussion, recorded in sacred places in southern France. Lyrics enclosed. Recommended! (MED1) CS: 9.98

Rashani

Songs of Interbeing

Environmental spiritual awareness is Rashani's focus again, as she releases a second 1992 album of songs and chants on the topic. She says, "We are rapidly losing thousands of species and are in the midst of an ecological disaster too devastating for words! These songs and spoken words come as an invocation and affirmation, to remind us of the intricate and magnificent web of creation of which we are all a sacred part." Beautiful harmonies once again grace this album; includes Walking on Sunshine, Medicine Wheel of Earth, Tall Trees, My True Names. (MED10) CS: 10.98

Rashani

Death is a Gateway

This 1991 release is subtitled Songs for the Sacred Passage... as she states in the notes, death has been a profound teacher in Rashani's life, and this recording came into being after the death of her father. A wealth of musicians, including Key Gardner, join her on these 15 songs, which are sung in almost a chanting fashion, with titles like Open Your Wings, Deep Peace, Breathing in Breathing Out, Return Again. Rashani shares these songs in the hope that the denial and fear around the natural death experience can be transformed. "There is no death, only a change of worlds." For use in hospices, hospitals and homes. (MED8) CS: 10.98

Deepening

Their trademark harmonies weave tales of natural cycles and seasons, women's spirituality, women as peacekeepers, women as workers, on original and traditional songs. Also includes 2 Renaissance instrumentals; and a song by Catherine Madsen about women who chose to throw themselves to the sea rather than undergo trial and burning as accused witches. The rich sound is created with a myriad of instruments, including tinari, Renaissance side drum, tambura bass, tuba, dirty trumpet, in addition to the usual dulcimers etc. Includes Where Only Lovers Go, Factory Girl, Imagine the World. Ruth Happel Loons of Echo Pond

One of the few environmental sound recordings done by a woman — Ruth is a tropical biologist and conservationist from Harvard. It's an exquisite one too; it chronicles the transition between night and day, when the haunting, unforgettable call of the loons takes over the ponds and lakes of NY State's Adirondack Mountains. The silence of evening is broken only occasionally by the clear tones of the peepers, or the croaks and anoreas of bullfrogs and pickerel frogs. Then from far away at the other end of the pond comes the unforgettable wail of the loon. Haunting and mysterious, the lone broken only by a brief rain shower. Recommended! Ruthanne Jones Voices

This is one of the more unusual additions to our catalog: an entire album of hauntingly, celestially beautiful songs without words, perfect for ceremony, ritual, healing work, or simply to create a contemplative environment. Ruthanne explores the potential of this unique "instrument," as her voice seemingly resonates on several planes at once. Indigenous, handcrafted global instruments (harp, flute, classical guitar, harmonium) are played by her, as sound syllables are spontaneously sung to weave many colors and textures of feeling. She describes this as "the expression of the opening of this Woman's Heart — Every Woman's Heart, and a remembering of the forgotten song we all once knew and sang always in Communal Joy, to be remembered again, as we walk once again in the Land of the Heart." These songs, or bhajans — melodic chant-like devotional songs — invoke Kali, the Goddess of Power and Liberation, to transform the seeker-singers. Through a combination of personal reverence to Kali and the energizing aspect of the universe which she embodies, singers and listeners both experience transformational energy which produces higher consciousness. The performers, a large international group of women singers and musicians (all devotees of Sri Chinmoy), accompany themselves on bells, harmonium, celeste, flute, guitar, hammer dulcimer, tamboura and synthesizer. Stephanie Bennett

Stories Seldom Told

Gorgeous, ailing, beautiful, evocative, dreamy, soothing, lovely — get the picture? Stephanie is an accomplished harper (she's done everything from tour with Sly Stone to record scary movie soundtracks!) who composed, arranged, and produced this fabulous album. Her expertise is also strong in the orchestration department: the accompanying ensemble of wind and chamber instruments (cello, viola, flutes, recorders, oboes, English and French horns, tympani, bells, tablas and more) blend gently with her neo-classical/ Celtic/new age virtuoso harp movements — as someone said, "How many hands does she have?" Includes The Magic Fawn, Dream Dance, Dragon-maker, if you like Kay Gardner's A Rainbow Path, check this out. Highly recommended! (HW9001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Elizabeth Hale

Circle the Earth with Song

"The chants on this tape are simple and repetitive. They are seeds with which to create your own verses, harmonies or songs. They are presented so that you may find your own voice and your own songs." These chants—both original and collected and performed with a minimum of percussion or flute accompaniment—are about The Goddess, Mother Earth, The Great Spirit, Kokopelli (the male hump-backed flute player from Hopi mythology), the Four Directions, and so forth. Insert has instructions on creating chants, rituals, and affirmations. Only complaint: we wish she had notated more about the origin of each chant, especially those she didn't write. Includes Ancient Mother, We All Come From the Goddess, with gorgeous harmonies and nature sounds. (SHA1) CS: 9.98

Signature

Some of you may have heard this incredible vocalist perform with the Paul Winter Consort. This is the first album she's recorded which she really feels has her signature on it. Includes Rolling Back the Stone, I'll Always Be a Lover, Winter's Dream, and John Lennon's Imagine. Her themes are affirmation, joy, openness, spirit. (LIF100) CS: 9.98

The Power of My Love For You

Note sale price on LP! If you are even remotely interested in spirituality, please read the fine print here: Susan consciously integrates feminizing images to symbolize sacred reality, and that has been somewhat of a rabbit-rouser as one of the early women to be ordained as a (UCC) minister, over 15 years ago. This album is a musical feast, with plentiful contributions by Rhannon, Linda Tilley, Larry Garthwaite (also the producer), Barbara Jordan, Mary Watkins, Janet Small, and many other talents. From the Native American drumbeats of the wind call to heal the earth, Simple Communion, to the shimmering brilliance of the closing refrains of Mama Tology, written during her mother's illness and death, Susan uses her insight, vision and richly-imbued voice to communicate spiritual realities. Highly recommended! (HL325) LP: 6.98 CS: 9.98

The Peace Church LIVE! (Double)

Susan serves as a minister to the Peace Church of Southern Maine, and this 80-minute 27-song tape for worship, meditation, chanting and community singing is performed by Susan and this ecumenical, interfaith congregational choir, with accompaniment by Janet Hood. All songs are original, except Oh Great Spirit and Go In Beauty, which are traditional Native American. Aleluia and Meditation, based on Pachelbel's Canon, and Lay My Burden Down, based on the traditional Black spiritual, proceeds benefit the Peace Church. Suzanne Ciani

Hotel Luna

Lush, romantic compositions grace this "balls" recording, created when the artist, a second-generation Italian-American, set out to find her Mediterranean roots and ended up writing this from the Isle of Capri, off the western coast of Italy. With her usual synthesizer sophistication, and joined by the Armadillo String Quartet, she creates personal portraits (Love Song is to her mother) and evocative descriptions of places and situations: the opera (balcony), the sea and its weather (Orchestra, Maremosso), the longing created by emigration (Italia). Altogether a beautiful album. (PVT2090) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker

Rosa Mystica

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 20th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker

Historical Harp Volume I: Celebrant

Magnificent! On seven harps and two psalteries built by Lynne Lawandowski, Therese impeccably performs medieval sacred repertoire, elaborating upon monastic chants and improvising within the style as was customary in early music. The wide display of sound colors reflects some of the many voices typical to Romanesque, Gothic, Celtic, and early Renaissance harps. Some selections are accompanied by voice. Recommended for new age as well as classical and early music lovers. (LAD1001) CS: 9.98

The Way to the Well

Utilizing drumming, song, chanting and visualization, the contemporary guided meditation is subtitled A Trance Journey for Empowerment, referring to accessing the well of power within us all, rather than always searching outside of ourselves for fulfillment. Rebirth of the Goddess

A talk on witchcraft, feminism, and social change, presented in 1981 at the University of Wisconsin by the author of THE SPIRAL DANCE. She does an excellent job of explaining the subject in a manner comprehensible and non-alienating to skeptics like this reviewer, in that the importance of feminism as a political movement is never dismissed. Spiral Dance

For a decade, Starhawk's book by the same name has been the primary resource for women to explore their spirituality. This cassette provides a rare opportunity for the listener to share in a ritual, a circle, or a meditation with Starhawk herself. Included are rituals for casting the circle, raising the cone of power, invoking the Goddess, and reaching trance states. She explains how these rituals are linked to psychological states, and how to create your own rites. The author is also a peace activist, founder of two covens, and a minister of the Covenant of the Goddess. 90 minutes. (HRP055) CS: 11.98

Magic, Vision & Action

With eloquent words and a sweeping vision, Starhawk evokes a spirit that calls us to recognize the sacredness of all life, and of the earth itself, on this tape subtitled Changing Consciousness - Healing the Earth. Opening the gateway to an expanded earth-based spirituality, she speaks of the special "magic" that is created when we learn how to change consciousness. She discusses Pagan rituals: earth mysteries; vision, imagination and values; and more. 90 min. (SND151) CS: 9.98

Starmony

These chants, drawn from various walkways of the Pagan movement, are simple to learn and easy to embellish. The vast spirals of raw energy found in Starmony I (originally meant as a 3-part rehearsal) spring from jubilent surprise at our success and reluctance to hear it end. Starmony II holds a driving, concentrated power evoking ancient rhythms and images of bonfire dancers... A virtual Pagan Tabernacle Chorus! This recorded workshop — "a handful of unheated experiments and a half with dynamic acoustics" — is a great resource! (ACE2) CS: 9.98

Recovery In an Addictive World

This noted psychologist-author offers a new model of the addictive system, based not on the individual, but on our entire culture. Charlotte Davis Kasl, Ph.D.

Many Roads, One Journey (2-Set)

...is subtitled Moving Beyond the 12 Steps. The author, an expert on healing from addictions, confronts the mystique around 12-step programs and examines the impact recovery groups and treatment programs have on individual lives. While many people find 12-step programs invaluable, others find the focus on conformity, humility, and personal failings counter to their tremendous need for affirmation in overcoming issues of childhood abuse, sexism, racism, poverty, and homophobia. She stresses the importance of social influences as well as personal awareness, and of finding our own voices and sources of strength and spirituality. She also offers a flexible 18-step alternative. 3 hours. (HRP2279) CS: 16.98

Giorgi

A Survivor's Tape

One of the most unusual and unique works in our catalog. It tells, in song, the very personal story of one woman's remembering and healing herself from her legacy of childhood sexual and physical abuse. The songs were never written, practiced, arranged and then produced; rather, she sang them only once, direct to tape as she composed them, as part of her healing process — and then later added instrumental tracks. In light of this, it's an amazingly musical and cohesive entity! She shares the deepest parts of herself here, in hopes that her honesty will help others survive their own difficult childhood hurts, whatever they may be, and thereby become empowered; we think her hope is a realistic one. Booklet included; recommended! (GD51) CS: 9.98

Pam's simple, direct and beautiful delivery add intensity to the meaning of these obviously heartfelt songs. Opportunity Knocks More Than Once

This amazingly talented woman, originally from Texas, is now local to us Ladyslipper! She produced, engineered, mixed and recorded these engaging songs she co-wrote with her mother Nancy Khoury, moving effortlessly between country, folk, pop, and blues, and tackling subjects from love to the JOCK with passion. Her voice is deep, evocative, emotion-laden, backed by her mother's vocals on some. A wonderful debut. (KH01) CS: 9.99

All Love Can Take

On her second album, the "singing shrink" seeks a broader healing than that possible from a therapist's couch! Timely, poignant lyrics and haunting melodies, co-written with her mother Nancy Khoury, characterize this 1992 release. From country to swing to blues to rock, this woman attacks each genre with a passion and comes up shining! Her voice is strong and soft in all the right places, and the arrangements are right on target. We love her Two Step On My Heart, as well as Co-Dependency Dogs and Souvenirs of What We Shared. Make A Change

If you're looking for some political folk music performed in an irresistibly gorgeous alto voice, try this! Her strong, deep, textured vocal quality will pull you right in and mesmerize you, as it effectively communicates her ideas: love for the earth and all creatures, a strong commitment to peace, political and social change, and to personal and political growth—pretty comprehensive, eh? It's A Miracle

Alice's second recording features a fuller sound—acoustic guitars and cello are joined by some sizzlin' sax and drums—and a lyrical exploration of the earth's wonders, spiritual connections, love and loss. Her sense of arrangement is uncanny—each song's instrumentation is the perfect accompaniment to the content, and her voice is infused with emotion, spirit, and beauty. Songs include Orange Moon, Silver Fire, Woke Up Cryin', The Beaver Song. (ADM102) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Too Controversial

This 1990 release features more of Alice's trademark heartfelt lyrics and soulful voice, plus tightly arranged accompaniment (acoustic guitar, bass, keyboards, percussion, soprano sax and cello). Many songs focus on detailing the oppressive aspects of American culture, but what saves this from being a ranting political manifesto is Alice's gorgeous vocal treatment—alternately sweet and growly, whispery and full-throated—and integral acoustic instrumentation. Other songs speak of a woman's love (Naomi), women's spirituality (New Moon), and a lovely cover of the traditional Water Is Flow. Overall, a great example of "personally political" music. Searching

Alice is continuing on a fruitful musical journey, as this 1992 release demonstrates. Her rich, sweet, emotive voice rides and caresses her beautiful melodies and messages of love, caring, concert and passion. Her topics here are the earth (her land and her creatures) love (she writes sweetly about the long-term kind as well as the discovery of love), desire, domestic violence, the Girl War (Land of Broken Promises), some lovely violin accompaniment in addition to the guitars/bass/percussion. The title of That Sweetness, the closing song, probably sums up the album in two words. (ADM104) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Love and Politics: A 30 Year Saga

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting—and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian Wars—plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shmrit Through (which gives great perspective on her journey—one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists). This release coincides with her first year off the road in 1992, making it especially precious. This incredibly wonderful release—in our opinion, Alix's best yet—was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Untying Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Husbands, The Girls Want to Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very, very highly recommended! Ann Reed
By Request

Featuring some great "environmentally friendly" packaging (would that it were all this way... no plastic cases to crack, replace, trash, store, ship, reship...!) this 1992 release is just what it says: material that Ann has issued by request of her fans. Ann with her glorious voice and 12-string is accompanied by Joan Griffith on bass and 6-string; includes Lisa's Song, Every Long Journey, Synchrom, and more. (AML1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Just Can't Stop

Ann is a fine 12-string guitarist with a fluid Fahey/Kotlik style. Here she plays with a rhythm section, including several women: sax, keyboards, bass, drums and percussion fill out her original tunes. Includes one instrumental, For Jane; some jazzy tunes; and a song written for Ann Bancroft, the first woman to reach the North Pole by dog sled in May 1986 (no, it's not the actress). Every Long Journey. (RH11) CS: 9.98

Ann Reed
Talk To Me

Ann's back with some great songwriting and guitar-playing with the same ensemble and producer as Just Can't Stop; she turns out originals which are strong melodically, exciting, and romantic yet solid...intelligently dealing with interpersonal relationships. Includes Autumn Rain, a meditation-like piece with guitars and vocals, and Complications To a Simple Life. (RH24) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Back & Forth

The Best is back... in print, that is; this contains the best from her first releases Carpetum and Room and Board, such as The Woman You'd Love, Jessie, Jaymie; plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston?. We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's irresistible voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and all-acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluesy vein. (WNO0291) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir
...but we fight for roses too

Established in 1975, Anna Crusis is one of the oldest feminist choirs in the US. Their multicultural repertoire seeks to reflect the rich diversity of human lives and struggles, especially those of women, with songs which are empowering, challenging, and fun. This long-awaited tape by the 40 or so members fulfills their goal, with truly stunning harmonies and a wonderful variety in melody, arrangement, and source...plus a tasteful touch of instrumentation. Includes Burning Times, about the burning of the witches, and Heaven, Dragana, Shikah, inspiring for regular listeners, as well as any who participate in a women's chorus. Recommended! (ANN1) CS: 10.98

Anne Seale
Sex for Breakfast

What an odd, different sort of a tape! Frankly lesbian lyrics, with a 1920's lounge sound and Allen Sherman-type humor and rhyming... her original songs include Body Heat, I Get a Rush from Relationships, Y'all Women's Bookstore, Provincetown, A Lesbian Cemetery. Watch for her at women's music festivals! (AS1) CS: 9.98

Assar Santata & Chamel No. 6
Live

Anyone who attended the 15th Anniversary Michigan Festival in 1990 will remember this dynamic percussionist and her world-beat women's ensemble from the Saturday night show Born in Brazil, she lived and traveled in Venezuela, Europe and West Africa before settling in Montreal... and brings the African, Latin, reggae and jazz traditions and rhythms from her life experiences to her music (she has also been invited to perform with Miles Davis) as well as a dedication to promoting women's talents. The 6-woman Chamel No. 6 (her name a caustic wordplay on the cognate) provides ample backup on sex, bass, guitar, keyboards and vocals to her songs, percussion, and lead vocals. This tape was recorded in 1989 at the Crossing Culture Festival in Toronto. Recommended! (NDA199) CS: 10.98

BETTY
Hello, BETTY!

This favored harmonizing DivaRock trio announces their debut release — it features the hit singles Wolfwoman, Bethcoat/Junction, Ms. Snake, Plonic Love Affair, Go Ahead and Spit, Mr. Amos, Man; 27 songs in all, 45 minutes of fun. We know how hard this has been to get, and we are visualizing that there are no further delays! (BET1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Blazing Redheads

Put on your cha-cha slippers and get ready to dance... to the Latin jazz from this 7-woman band from the Bay area. With 3 percussionists, 2 sax/flute players plus bass and keyboards, you know the rhythm's gonna be driving, undulating and raucous! Each brings years of experience playing salsa, jazz, funk, Latin, Brazilian, and rock music, and together they form a tight ensemble. Material and arrangements are original...recommended! (REF28) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Blazing Redheads
Crazed Women

The Redheads have a new one for 1991... jazzy and percussion-rich, with elements of Latin, R&B, and even rock... fun and exciting! Joy Juika plays bass on this one. (REF41) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bobbi Carmitchell
Crossing the Line

Debut album from a woman who's charmed audiences at the Southern and National Women's Music Festivals. She creates a soft easy folk sound, playing all the keyboards, acoustic guitars, bass, and singing all the vocals, with some additional accompaniment...there's something in her delivery and/or vocal inflections that's somehow reminiscent of James Taylor. Several of her songs are for particular women. (LOC1) CS: 9.98

Carol Stelzel
I'm Dangerous!

This 1991 debut album from a songwriter/comic from Portland tells the story, troubadour style, of this "raging, bad-assed dyke." Lots of great queer material, including Dangerous; a lesbian C & W tune called Old Friends Ain't, and her "hate trilogy": God Is Love, Leviticus, and Dying For Love, exposing the hypocrisy of the bible-thumpers, or "biblical schizophrenia" as she calls it. Recorded live, so it includes her concert commentary and humor as well as audience enthusiasm; and she accompanies her songs on guitar. (CST0191) CS: 9.98

Carole Etzler & Bren Chambers
Rainbows in My Mind

Rainbows appear when the sun and the rain embrace and create magic. In the same way, this 1989 album reaches out and lifts the spirit. From the delicate chimes of Cup of the Moon to the throbbeats of Chant for Mother Earth, the music touches the threads of our relationships with each other and the planet. Carole and Bren interweave cello, guitar, voices, piano, chimes, Aztec drum, gong, Celtic harp, and Tibetan singing bowls into a joyful celebration of life. (SIS4) CS: 10.98

Caryl DeGroot
Womoon to Womoon

Lovely lesbian music by a folksie Phoenix performer, who has written unabashed love songs in a strong woman-identified tradition. Guitar and harmony vocals accompany Gentle Womoon, Womoon Rise Up Rising, Come and Dance, Lay Me Down. Tired of vague references? This is for you. (ROL1) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor
Moonlight Grocery

Out of print in the US, but this Canadian import is again available, and now on CD... from LadySlipper! A late '84 release by one of our favorite singer-songwriters. Includes Maria's Place, the very feminist Get Back the Night, Talk Without Speaking. Caught in the Crosstine and more. (COV1002) CS: 10.98

Connie Kaldor
One of These Days

This album is a gem, it's great! The voice of this Canadian singer-songwriter is exceptionally fine and strong, some songs are feminist, and one is among the funniest we've ever heard: 'Jerks' With a capital J "Hey hey hey baby..." who whistle at and harass women walking by. This song is worth the price alone, but there's a whole album of good stuff with it. Another notable one is gospel-style Strength, Love and Laughter, exploring women to look inside for these treasures. However, this LP is one treasure you'll have to order from an external source (like us) and we hope you will! You won't be disappointed. (COV1317) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor
Wood River

Subtitled Home Is Where the Heart Is, this beautiful, haunting collection of Connie's songs from the Canadian prairies has finally captured the warmth and emotion of the artist's live show. It contains new material as well as her classics — her best-known and most-often requested compositions, such as the title track; also Margaret's Waltz, Grandmother's Song, Saskatoon Moon, Hymn from Pincher Creek, Bird On a Wing, Modern Lullaby, and more. (COV9101) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Aya!

In addition to a sensationally wonderful Canadian women's acappella ensemble, Aya is also the word for a Celtic goddess as well as a fern for a symbol of defiance in an African language. When they recorded this album, a benefit for AIDS Vancouver, they were a trio (they have since become a quartet), and their sumptuous, layered 3-part harmonies proclaim lyrics from women's labor, and other solidarity movements. Includes their powerful original When Hunt, which correlates the oppressions over the centuries of women herbalists, suffragists, Black liberationists, feminists, lesbians and gays, and other groups. Recommended! (SEV005) CS: 9.98

Barbara Higbie
Signs of Life

Awaited for so many years, here at long last is the 1990 solo album by one of the most talented keyboardist-composers around, known to many for her work with Teresa Tull and Montreux. And it will probably exceed your highest expectations. Here she blends her incredibly beautiful voice (which has been a secret to us for a long time) with stirring lyrics, adding to them her already accomplished instrumental style. Includes The Safest Place in the World, which couples will probably play over and over. Very highly recommended! (WH1090) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon
River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible acappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacco's Ladder, Since I Lost My Bunker Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon / Bill Moyers
The Songs Are Free (Audio Tape)

This is the audio track from the video by the same title (see Video section of this catalog), on which Bernice traces the history of communal singing and the repertoire rooted in the Black church — from songs of resistance, courage and pride to songs of determination and faith — and explores their roles from the Underground Railroad through the Civil Rights movement into the present. Includes dialogue, instruction, and performance, solo and with both the SNCC Freedom Singers and Sweet Honey in the Rock. (MY5902) CS: 11.98

Betsy Rose
Wings Against the Sky

The first recording in several years by this pioneering women's musician is a lovely collection of original songs about issues dear to her heart. From the angry House Full of Secrets about the lasting effects of child abuse, to Darlin' I'm Glad, a light-hearted coming-out story with a surprise ending, to a loving tribute to the Sanctuary movement, Open the Doors Again, the songs display her open-heartedness to all people. Accompanying vocalists include Judy Fiehl and Judy Friedman, as well as a funky scat solo by Rhiannon. (KAL21) CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose
Live From the Very Front Row

Produced by Ronia Bran (Laurie Anderson's producer, too), this is a very beautiful representation of this singer-songwriter's warm, compassionate, strong, funny and eloquent spirit. Betsy is a charismatic performer — an advocate for so many — and a live recording is her medium, second only to an in-person appearance. This album is a statement of love for women and men, of growing older, of wanting children, of a commitment to being true to herself, ever stepping outside of boundaries. One of the best songs is In the Very Front Row, about her woman minister friend. (PCR5485) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor
Gentle of Heart

A 1989 release of original songs infused with this Canadian artist's prairie-derived independence and sense of spaciousness, performed with her magnificently deep, emotive, resonant voice. Usually she includes at least one song on a specifically feminist issue; here it is One Hill Leads To Another, about wife-battering. An irrepressible energy and talent; it would be nice if her renown in the US would equal that which she is attaining in Canada! (OS019) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 16.95

Cris Williamson
The Changer and the Changed

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child of Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. (OL904) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Cris Williamson
Strange Paradise

Musically on par with Changer & the Changed, with more rock-n-roll influence & some phenomenal synthesizer. Joined by Jackie Robbins, June Millington, & on one cut, Bonnie Raitt. (OL921) CS: 9.95

Cris Williamson

A reissue of the 1971 Ampex recording which introduced Meg Christian to Cris' music and sparked the idea for the women's recording company which became Olivia. This is "vintage" Cris in her simultaneously raw and refined vocal power, with the first recorded versions of Joanna, Waiting, Frontier. (OL927) CS: 9.95

Cris Williamson
Blue Rider

Rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry on this new studio album. Includes Lucille, featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals. Lodestar which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Randle, Leviathan—a song about whales, and Heart to Heart. String arrangements by Mary Watkins. (OL931) CS: 9.95

Cris Williamson
Portrait

This retrospective compiled in 1983 is a collection of favorites drawn from her previous albums. (OL935) CS: 9.95

Prairie Fire

Singing of pioneering spirits and western expanses, Cris really rocks out on this one! The driving sounds of the title cut, the reggae of Colorado Dustbowl Days, the visionary rock of Tsunami (a Japanese word for new wave!) and the Native-American sound of Grandmother's Land make this a recording that will be hard to stop listening to. And bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, tight rhythm — what talent there! (OL941) CS: 9.95

Cris Williamson
Wolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout! From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("no longer the lone wolf"...) to the song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also Goodnight Marjorie, Morningstar, for Natalie Wood; Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence; and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (JL951) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Cris Williamson
Best of Cris Williamson

A special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology, Portrait). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Woman, Sister, Joanna, Surrender, Dorothy — and many others of her best ever, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. (OL959) CS: 14.95 ... CD: 15.95

Cris Williamson
Circle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Song of the Soul — as well as previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire. If it weren't for the music (well, it was released, but only on a 45 rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Olivia, Millworker, Hey Good Lookin', and more. A wonderful way to remember and to honor the album and the era, 72 minutes long. (OL953) CS: 14.95 ... CD: 15.95

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull
Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour; Calamity Jane, "good-time cowgirl romp"; and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways. And proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably AAR ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! (SW2013) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Cris Williamson & Meg Christian
Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire history-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Betsy Ross's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite oldies. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW933) CS: 14.95 ... CD: 15.95

Messages: Music for Lesbians

This technical and musical "Renaissance lesbian" has released a debut album that is quite striking on many counts. First of all it starts off in a rock 'n' roll mode, which is surprising for a solo tape; secondly, her voice is great; third, her lyrics are so to the point... very lesbian-affirming (she sings about dykes!), or political (Good Germans is a song about good Americans), or spiritual (Drying Her Messages is about the Goddess). And then there's her wizardry on a wide variety of high-tech instruments — and she explains how she did it all (and she did it all, except for a couple of sax solos). Fifth, the production's crystal-clear, amazing so for a self-engineered master. And, she created this for lesbians: So, that's 8 reasons why you should buy this! (CLA1) CS: 8.95

Dayna B. Kurtz

We were introduced to Dayna's music just prior to her debut women's festival appearance at Rhythm Fest 1990, and wish we'd known about her sooner! She's got an aching, bluesy, jazzy, caressing, sultry voice, with which she croons her haunting lyrics and evocative imagery; we wouldn't be surprised to be informed she'd been signed to a major label. You don't have to wait for that though: catch her debut album here. (DBK1) CS: 9.95

Deb Tiemens

A Place to Start

"Heart-warming" is the word which comes to mind when listening to Deb's angelic voice and emotionally-rich lyrics. Performing since early childhood, this AIDS worker/Choral Singer/Guitarist/Songwriter has a way of cutting straight to the emotional essence of a song, and composes her work with a spiritually balanced approach... Includes! Tomorrow Ever Comes, Matthew, Friends of the Heart, A New Song to Sing. Especially recommended for anyone working with loss and grief — this would be soothing and cathartic! (WRT1) CS: 9.95

Deidre McCalla

Don't Doubt It

Very hip, very contemporary, very danceable. Deidre's unique sound is clearly brought out by the superb production skills of Teresa Trull. Deidre has been performing for women's audiences for many years and this, her debut solo recording, has been anxiously awaited. Songs include Dance All Night, Wake Me Up Gently, Did You Think I Didn't Know. If you like Cris Williamson or Teresa Trull, you're sure to like Deidre. And we'd sure like to hear more from her! (OL930) CS: 9.95

Deidre McCalla
With a Little Luck

...and a ton of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deidre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album is even better than her first, from the irrepressible celebratory exuberance of All Day/Always (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words... Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Deidre McCalla

Everyday Heroes & Heroines

This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deidre's best yet! — demonstrates this singer/songwriter's exceptional talent, again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a foot-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love lost to social criticism. Includes All Over the World, Outside, Girl You Don't Know, Blessings, Sing Me To Sleep. Highly recommended! (OL965) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Dianne Davidson

Breaking All The Rules

While newly taking the women's music world by storm, Dianne's no newcomer to the larger music scene, as this high-energy, gutsy singer, who has performed with Tracy Nelson and Linda Ronstadt, makes her debut on Second Wave Records. Years ago we carried some of her now-out-of-print albums; but she outdoes any previous effort by a long shot here. The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away: it booms, it wails, it burns. It belts her mixture of blues, country, gospel, r&b, and ballads. About half her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist); the balance is perfectly chosen, includes Built For Comfort, Heaven Bound, Everything To Me. Backup vocals on one song by Tracy Nelson; outstanding production (by Dianne). Can ya tell we like this a lot?? Highly recommended! (SW2011) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Echo My Call

Sonia and Cindy Rutstein are blood sisters with captivating sister-harmonies, and their duo album is characterized by haunting melodies, constant that spans the personal to US intervention in Central America, and a scullful folkbeat delivery. All the material is by husky-voiced lead singer and guitarist Sonia. Nice debut; watch for them at festivals. (RER1002) CS: 9.95

Deep Soul Diver

With not much more than 2 voices, a guitar and a tambourine, this duo has created a surprisingly sophisticated sound. Veterans of Dinner Theater at the Southern Women's Music Festival, sisters Sonia and Cindy combine engaging melodies with catchy and thoughtful lyrics. This 1990 album balances emotional sincerity and irreverence in songs like For Hollywood I Willand Sexual Intimacy. (DSP1004) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Yay! Ladieslipper loves Sonia and Cindy present a spring 1992 release: 50 minutes, 13 songs — primarily live performance, acoustic and vocals from a November 1991 concert at this special NYC club, plus 4 tracks from Box of Heaven and an extra new studio track. Titles include Sixteen Roses, Love Isn't Dead, Love Insurance. This should satisfy fans, until their next (surprise!) studio release around fall of 1992... Box of Heaven

It's always great to be in at the beginning of a group that's really taking off, and that's definitely the case here! This four-song EP is further testimony to the duo's skill at mixing a rocking style with thought-provoking social commentary. Using harmonies reminiscent of the Indigo Girls, yet with a great dance beat, the duo addresses the politics of Jesse Helms in Sink the Canoe, and builds emotional intensity in Box of Tissues. Look for them at festivals and your favorite east coast haunts. (DSP1005) CS: 6.98

Dyketoones
Live in P-Town (Double)

The Fabulous Dyketoones album is once again back in print: a full hour and a half by everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's, at a dance party at Dyke High! From "I Know Her Is To Love Her to My Girlfriend's Back to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykeangel Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended! Ellen Hines
First Generation

This feminist musician from Asheville NC presents this 1992 debut album which showcases several fine attributes: her unusual, engaging, husky alto voice... her songwriting... and an ability to present material on a wide variety of political (and personal) topics without sacrificing musical integrity. Some highlights include title song, about which she writes, "As a daughter of survivors of holocausts, I cannot forget the holocausts still happening"; Te Amo Mujer (I Love You, Woman), the only non-original included here; Ancient Memories, Winnin' Grow Rice, and one of this reviewer's favorites, the watercolor-like impressions of Early Empty Beach. (MAR1001) CS: 9.98

Ellen Roemer

If you were impressed by the multi-octave voice of Horse, or are a devotee of Joan Armatrading, welcome to an interesting merger! Potent personal lyrics are brought to life by a deep voice, with full band on a couple of cuts, and various combinations of the artist with one or two guitarists, vocalists, and/or other instrumentalists. A great 1991 debut release from this Chicago-based musician, rock-ish at times, but mellow overall — you won't be disappointed! (HDS111859) CS: 9.98

Erica Wheeler
Strong Heart

No stranger to attendees of several women's music festivals, Erica will hopefully soon be no stranger to a wider group of listeners, thanks to this 1989 debut tape. Her voice is resonant yet with some vulnerable quality — the type that mesmerizes and holds the listener — and her lyrics thoughtful and poetic, the heart being the main theme. (SP010) CS: 9.98

Faith Nolan
Attriville

Focusing on Black women historically and presently, Faith's original songs give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles — blues, jazz, reggae, funk, African drumming. Here is a sampling of the topics you will learn about: Regina, a woman who was jailed for killing the white man who tried to rape her; Marie Joseph Angelique is a multi-tracked scappella song about a woman who was once a slave; Divide and Rule refers to the capitalist policy used on "colonized" people, and relates to the struggle in South Africa; Nobody Knows My People attempts to reverse the invisibility awarded by history books to everyone but white males; and title song is about the relocation of the largest Black community in Canada. All accompanying musicians are Black Canadians. Don't miss this! (MCW11181) CS: 9.98

Faith Nolan
Sistership

LPs on sale... This album focuses on the struggles and contributions of Black women: some songs relate to sexuality and lesbianism (She's Sixteen: "she is young, Black and gifted and gay..."); others to various political struggles. Also includes Libba Cotten's famous Freight Train and some traditional gospel and blues. Faith plays almost every instrument on the album: electric bass, 12-string, 6-string, slide guitar, harmonica and tambourine. (MCW11162) CS: 9.98

BEFORE AFTER

Faith Nolan
Freedom to Love

One of Faith's best releases! Includes an original rock anthem, Black Woman; an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire; the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery; Ma Rainey's lesbian song Prove It On Me; and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians. Recommended! (RRR903) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Faith Petric
Womanchild

Each day we all grow a little older, and when we think about it, we all know where we don't wanna be... would that all of us be able to be the Genital Gypsy, the "rambling renegade grandma" that Faith sings about. This is such a great inspirational song, we feel it's well worth the price of the tape! Also included: The Devil and the Farmer's Wife ("it confirms, yet again, if one needs reminding, the natural superiority of women"); Womanchild; The Family of Woman and Man, and other wonderful folksongs sung by a wonderful folksinger who, in her late 70's, is still performing at women's music festivals. Testimony

There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter... hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock "n' roll. Shadows on a Dime

This vibrant Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. Girls in the Nose

One of our top picks for 1991! Wild, raunchy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 6-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wilder persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hut, Prisoners of Pantyhose ("So here's some advice from Girls in the Nose! Women unite, take back your hose! Take them back to the damn store... Let nylons be byones!"), and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (GIN1) CS: 9.98

Origin of the World

Wherever these girls blow their nose, audiences hold out their hands for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands, "kickass lesbian rockers from the Lone Star State" whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless. This 1992 release contains Breast Exam, More Madonna, Less Jesus, Pink Guitar, Medusa, Sodomy, Incongruity and more, singing to and with sexuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pro-choice, pro-homo recording! Gypsy Heart

Known for their bluegrass from a woman's perspective, this Georgia ensemble consists of Louisa Branscomb (harmony vocals, banjo, mandolin, lead and rhythm guitar) and Kathleen Hatfield (lead and harmony vocals, rhythm guitar), with Dede Vogt, Sally Brooks, and Al Pieper. Featured here are 9 originals by Louisa, including Steel Rails, which many of you may know from Alison Krauss' rendition of it on her 1991 Grammy winner I've Got That Old Time Feelin'... and Ain't Justified, about the injustice of spouse abuse and male entitlement. (LS603) CS: 9.98

Halcyon

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies and ringing acoustic guitars — but Halcyon's expressive, emotional lyrics tread different waters on their debut 6-song tape. The main theme of lost love is explored from several angles, all evocative and deeply moving. Look for these women on festival stages — they're sure to be a hit! (HAL1) CS: 7.98

Halcyon
Before & After

Their second 6-song album is even better than their first: the harmonies are stronger and surer — sometimes they almost sound like a full chorus! Stand-out track is the opening If I Tell You Who I Am, with its moments of exquisite dissonance. Also includes Wing Bath and Good Intentions. We sure hope the next one will be a full-length album; they, and you the listeners, deserve it — but what this lacks in quantity, it makes up for in quality. Recommended! (HAL2) CS: 9.98

Heather Bishop
Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults: Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written, like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Rain. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Ancient Cry and Yes To Life. BORROWED: songs like Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom. BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 19 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print: lots of her best work here; very recommended of course! Heather Bishop
Walk That Edge

Save on this LP too... Heather's seventh recording has a simple down-home flavor, a contemporary folk sound with both country and rock influences. Her lyrics and music are sometimes sassy, sometimes sultry — daring to walk that edge — and sometimes sad and haunting, with images of separations, ghosts from the past not taken, includes Let Them Talk, which when sung by Heather becomes an affirmation of love between women; and I'm Not the One, about surviving an abusive relationship, with a driving guitar solo by Sherry Shute. A (wonderful) 1991 release. (MOP007) LP: 6.98... CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

I Love Women...Who Laugh

Save on the LP! This album is the embodiment of a successful transition in style, from a solid blues background to a more rock-oriented, funkier sound. Utilizing an incredible array of synthesizers, plus congas and saxophone, Heather produces strong moods and currents of emotion. Mostly original and clearly woman-identified material. Save on the LP. This 1997 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for...that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seducted, Leslie Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armistead's Taking My Baby Uptown ("with a pretty person on my arm"), Carolyn Brandy's Spirit Healer, and many originals. Helen Hooke
Verse-ability

The spirit and sound of the groundbreaking 70s feminist rock group Deadly Nightshade is alive and well and dwelling in the music of this former member. Helen puts forth some of her multi-instrumental best on this self-produced, 1993 release, blending electric violin, guitar, synthesizer, accordion, drums and percussion. The songs take on a personal heartfelt nature and are testimony to her "live in the moment" attitude. From the very personal I Can't Live Without You to the consciousness-raising Sex Roulette, her appealing style and dazzling violin riffs will keep your foot tapping. (MBM1001) CS: 9.99

The Heretics
Mass Hysteria

Toronto's premiere 4-woman band performs an inspired mix of dance music, funk and rock, and their first full-length album attests to their wit and creativity. Featuring all-around great musicianship as well as Pat Jeffries' powerful lead vocals, this 1991 release includes Reverent, a funk rave-up about a mental institution prophet; Move, a tale about the housing crisis; and He Thinks, a song which exposes the patriarchal anti-woman perspective, co-written with Lynne Farnie, who also wrote the Parachute Club's smash hit Rise Up. Hersong: Quad-City Women's Chorus
Peace, Justice and Harmony

This 1992 release contains 22 touching and delightful songs by this 25-member women's chorus from the Quad Cities, an Iowa-Illinois community clustered on the Mississippi River. Their music addresses women's issues, multiculturalism, love for the earth and spirituality. Includes Beware, an original feminist take-off on on fairy tales and nursery rhymes; Carolyn McDade's Spirit of Life; choral renditions of songs by Pat Humphries, Ferron, Ann Reed, Libana, Holly Near, Bernice Reagon, Therese Edell, Carole Etzler, and others. You Can Know All I Am

Powerful—sometimes playful, sometimes painful look at the conditions of many kinds of women: in prison, organizing in factories, initiating relationships. More produced than her previous albums but Holly's voice still sparkles through. Concert leader is Marty Dichterow who also does a beautiful violin solo on You've Got Me Flying. Includes a women's choir, Nicole & the stunning Sister Woman Sister. (RR3600) CS: 9.99

Her 1974 classic second album, which captures the dynamic quality of her performances, is now back in print. Contains many of the best-loved songs about women, from a "hiking boot" mother to working class women to a friendship between a young woman and an Old Time Woman. Also includes I Could Have Been Me, Get Off Me Baby and Water Come Down. Instrumentation here includes hammer dulcimers (played by John McCutcheon), violin, cello, mandola, and other newcomers to Holly's original topical songs plus a few. Lorraine Dault and Freyda Epstein from Trapezoid likewise add a fresh dimension. This live recording of some of Holly's best-loved songs, recorded in Oakland in 1982, captures the vitality of her live appearances that's difficult to duplicate in a recording studio. And the icing on the cake is that it features, miraculously, Ladyslipper favorite Mercedes Sosa on two songs, including Todavia Cantamos, a fantastic rendition of one of Mercedes' most popular performance pieces! Also contains Singing For Our Lives, Great Peace March, Sing To Me the Dream, Si Bussabas, We Who Believe in Freedom, and more, with John Bucchino on piano, Melissa Etheridge on guitar, Linda Tillery and Rhiannon on vocals. Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert
Lifeline

A majestic collaboration of generations and spirits. Ronnie was one of the Weavers in the 40's and 50's, a folk group which loudly voiced the progressive and humanist concerns of the American people until the blacklist virtually silenced them, and which won the hearts and devotion of a huge following. Holly grew up admiring Ronnie's strong, proud singing and stance, and dedicated her second album (A Live Album) to her. They got together for the filming of Wasn't That a Time, when Ronnie was learning some of Holly's songs for the Weavers' Carnegie reunion concert. Ronnie's awareness of women's issues and her consciousness of herself as a woman performer had grown because of Holly's music. They then began touring together, and this is a live recording from the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco. Styles encompass Broadway, folk, jazz, gospel. Includes the great song previously recorded by Kate Taylor, Harriet Tubman, plus Gracias a la Vida, Goodnight Irene, Hay Una Mujer (new arrangement/words), Singing For Our Lives. HARP

When this reviewer dies and goes to folk heaven, she fully expects this recording to be heard in elevators and dentist offices. HARP bridges the gap of generations and gives a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. On this live recording, Pete and Ronnie (two original members of the legendary Weavers) lead the group on classic oldies like Jacob's Ladder, Oh, Mary Don't You Weep, Wimoweh. Arlo solos with such favorites as City of New Orleans and All Over the World. Holly's solos include Fine Time and a moving medley with Ronnie of Marvin Gaye's What's Going On—and her own Foolish Noddy. The four perform together and weave harmonies. We're thrilled the debut album by this 7-woman ensemble, produced by Bernice Johnson Reagon, is finally ready: spine-chilling a cappella harmonies articulate and celebrate the diverse lives they share as social, political, and spiritual African American women. Their involvement began at a workshop given by the members of Sweet Honey in the Rock over several years; so imagine the quality, tradition, and consciousness you have experienced from the music of Sweet Honey, vocalized at once by 7 voices. Includes member Michelle Lancaster's moving original compositions: Patchwork Quilt for those who have died of AIDS, and War Children for the massacred children of South Africa; member Pam Rogers' original Wasteland, for homeless women; and Senzana, a South African freedom song. Jamie Anderson Center of Balance

Jamie's second release continues with her humorous, pointed material she's become quite known for and contains many of the songs she's performed on tour: I'm Sorry is her song of condolence for her (I'm sorry that you're straight! it can't be your fault! have you tried counseling, or talking to god?). All of Me is a funny song about body image ("Don't emphasize your butt! pretend that it's tiny! the first thing that folks notice! shouldn't be your hiny!"). Loretta and Bernadine is about her great-aunt and her long-time companion... plus her usual array of contemplative and/or weird songs. Jess Hawk Oakenstar Leave a Little Light Behind

We knew this artist first as a contributor to the wonderful New Zealand women's LP compilation Out of the Corners many years ago; and we're glad to have her solo 1992 debut release. Born and raised in Zimbabwe, an eleven year resident of New Zealand, and now living in the US, she brings somewhat of a world perspective to women's music! Almost all songs here are originals, sometimes moving, sometimes funny, sometimes inspiring, and always delivered with knockout Kiwi style. They cover a wide range of topics including women's heroism, friendship, incest, war, and our favorite Gertrude Stein; stylistically you'll hear country rock to ballads with even a little Mississippi Delta sound. 73 minutes of live music, humor and stories from this Norwegian lesbian singer-songwriter! Judy Small One Voice in the Crowd

A beautifully produced recording by an Australian woman who, with her prolific songwriting and dulcet voice, continues to broaden the often-too-narrow world consciousness of us U.S. citizen! Australian feminist and social protest themes are conveyed through her serious portraits (A Heroine of Mine) and wry parodies (The I.P.D. — a male equivalent of the I.U.D.). Judy Small Home Front

This wonderful folk artist presents a late '88 album of political songs covering a wide range of concerns. Annie, which some of you may know because Fred Small also recorded this, is about a lesbian school teacher. Golden Archies is an upbeat spoof of the MacDonald's invasion of so many countries; the title song is about the impact of the Viet Nam war on the wives, after the men come home. Both former members of the Anna Crusis Women's Choir, these two gals combine sensitive issues with humorous ones, creating moments of sad tenderness and joyful identification. Many of the songs are portraits of special people: Shikhan (Silence) is a Hebrew psalm to Yosef Begun, who was imprisoned in the USSR for teaching Hebrew to fellow Jews; Judy is an effort to let her friend know how lovely she is, and is accompanied by sprightly finger-picked guitar and banjo, plus a great fiddle! Justina & Joyce So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from Ladyslipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)!" Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works; each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording... The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Affirmation, which states "No! I will not lie down, I will not submit! I will not quiet, I will resist..."; a moving cover of Ferron's Wishmony, and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this recording enough! Karen Beth To Each One of Us

Karen remains Alix Dobkin's favorite songwriter, and you'll see why when you hear this album. It's a recording of extraordinary beauty and depth, weaving elements of women's spirituality with compassion, self-awareness, and love of women. Exquisite vocal harmonies by Amy Fradon and Leslie Ritter of Crystal Song, and a 10-woman Stardance Celestial Choir — which does include Alix — on Womanspirit Rising! North Carolina's own singer/songwriter/musician duo, Piper Kessler and Ruth Vienneau debut their considerable talent on their 5-song eponymous release, and we're proud to include them in our catalog! Their vocal harmonies would do their stylistic neighbors the Indigo Girls proud as well, while their lyrics and arrangements convey a wistful longing for a spiritual home (Rescue You/Carolina), and for love (Signal Fire: The Search). Debut album by a talented singer-songwriter with solid roots in folk, Jewish and women's traditions, for whom music is a medium for personal growth, community empowerment and world change. Included here are many originals of note, including Marie, the story of two high school girls who won the right to attend their prom together (it's a famous story now, mostly because of Laura's song); To Be Strong, for people with AIDS and their families/friends/lovers; Miriam who led the Jewish women out of the wilderness towards freedom; Open Eyes, featuring Laura's beautiful piano. Menstrual Hut (EP Tape)

A 19-minute debut cassette from one of the most distinguishing talents for our new 1990 catalog, and a voice you won't forget. Laura identifies strongly as a lesbian/feminist woman of color, and her material reflects this consciousness — both original songs and some carefully selected traditional folksongs. To her own guitar accompaniment, she presents, with a voice laden with depth and texture, her song I'm Your Daughter's Lover; Listen to Me, a tribute to Native American women; W-I-M-M-I-N, a spectacular rendition of the traditional Wayfaring Stranger; the title song, and more. We're sure this isn't the last we'll hear from Laura, but make this your introduction. Highly recommended! (OB1) CS: 8.98

Z Therapy

Laura's second release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band — thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Sweet Love, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat G. Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as congas, dumbek, congas, bongos; Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Smells Like Truth

We're predicting big success for this artist — both because her debut solo 1991 album is pretty great, and also because it's receiving a substantial promotional push from the major label who released it. Anyone who has the Two Nice Girls self-titled album will recognize her name and her music; she was one of the original trio, and several of her own songs were recorded there, including one which appears here too, Heaven on Earth. Oddly, her vocal qualities bring to mind, for this reviewer, early Jefferson Airplane... not Grace Slick, but rather the male vocalist who sang some of the slower, quieter songs... Her material is intense and emotive, "combining vibrant, syncopated guitar work with a telegraphic poetry of sound and feeling." (Some of that was from an old Two Nice Girls PR sheet, and it's still true!) All original songs here except for one perfect, brilliant rendition of Tim Buckley's Song to the Siren. Unique, compelling, hypnotic, and very highly recommended! (CHR21849) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Leah Zicari

Wouldn't That Be Fun?

A pretty super-duper lesbian-affirming tape by a femme dyke with-bike-with-guitar, and a must for every woman who's ever had a crush on Martina ("Martina I'm wishing that you would serve me! Back and forth and me! Come on and court me! I'm wishing that love is the score")! Also includes What Kind of Self-Respecting Lezzie Is She? with additional verses built upon the Romanovsky and Phillips song; Laws; Glory, Glory ("Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the queens", with an entire chorus)... and several other lovely lesbian songs. Add to that good voice, accompaniment and arrangements, and you have a definitely recommended tape! (GEN62233) CS: 9.98

Lee de Anza

A Touch of Love

Lee isn't the real name of this Latina lesbian from Texas: she uses an alias to protect her musical career in the "straight" world of the Latin pop market. This album, with one song in Spanish and the rest in English, contains woman-to-woman love songs (some covers), with styles from Top 40, Latin, rock and country. She plays guitar, bass, drums, keyboards, and sings lead and back-up vocals. Includes Solo Til, You Are My Lady, All the Women I Need, Lady in Red, She's Like the Wind. (INT1002) CS: 9.98

Libby Roderick

If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. Perhaps most notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; also includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women; Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout; and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on this! An excellent debut album. (TRT1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Thinking Like a Mountain

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including title plus Is That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams, Go, Holy Thing to Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. Recommended. (TRT1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Secrets

A soul-stirring, heart-warming, up-tempo, long-awaited, highly recommended album by this master of R & B/jazz/blues/contemporary music! This LP has achieved well-deserved play on black commercial radio. Count On Me fits right in there; The Chosen Ones gives us political nourishment; Fever in a jazz rendition which tops any previous cover, gives us chills... and a new insight into the relationship between Pocahontas and Sacajawes! Basin Street, a Trull-Obed collaboration, is also a fine song. Demonstrating the sly and varied nuances in her vocal power, sure to gain her a wider audience. (BLF736) CS: 9.98

Lisa Koch

Colorblind Blues

A.k.a. one-fourth of the fabulous Venus Envy band, half of the comedy duo Dos Fallopia, former Fabulous Dyke Ms. Koch ("Coke") has put together a smashing first solo release; great production, vocals, lyrics — shades of June Millington meets Kate Clinton! Features the lovely All Night Long, the hilarious Beaver Cleaver Fever, the semi-autobiographical retro lullaby Hickory, and the AIDS anthem, Light of a Memory. Loads of talent here — a must! Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Olivia has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Chris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Chris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Chris, Tret Fure, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McClellan. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — treat yourself now! Recommended. (OL947) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tendresse/Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her second album includes perceptive socio-political songs: Politique, Peaking, ever-louche love songs: Montreal, Absence, and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) LP: 9.98 CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lydia Lunch

Conspiracy of Women (C.O.W.)

"My language is not silence. My song is the scream, terror dwells in the shadow of my wings, my hope is my first battle and my last gasp. I am the knife with which the dead crack open the coxat." This recording, taken from a seminar Lydia gave in Berlin in 1990, utilizes her no-holds-barred poetry, narrative, stories, performance art (and creative dispatch of an anti-abortion heckler) to express her stark perspectives on living in a male-dominated world — there's a lot of anger here, and sadness, and no pretty solutions, but if you're interested in hearing an incredibly raw, creative, brilliant artist put her heart on the line, by all means, get this album and get ready for some inspiration, intensely recommended! (or, recommended for the intense!) (WSP21) CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner

You Are What You Wear

Yet another funny album from the dyke queen of cabaret camp. To further explain Lynn's musical and theatrical style, let us just say that she performs with the "fistive duo" Romanovsky & Phillips in the "Leather and Lace Tour," and guess who wears what! This album ranges from the very serious Anne Frank, in which she reminds us that "Silence Equals Death," to the humorous account of That Festive Little Neighborhood ("instead of politicians, we've a queen"). I'd Rather Be Cute

"I'm trying first of all to entertain. Second, I want to raise an awareness in people's minds of the state of gay life today, to show the ways we are similar and the ways we are different. And third, I am trying to pay off a 1983 Honda Accord." This Jewish lesbian from Brooklyn performs humorous material in a cabaret style, from A Mother's Lament ("Please, Lynn, don't wear leather pants to the seder! and please cover your tattoo at the seder") to First Dyke On "Dynasty". Something Different

From the title song: "All the other little girls liked Fred! fell in love with Ginger!... All the other girls would braid their heads! combed my hair with Brill-Creme/Greasy all right, but something different!" Humorous, touching, affirming, these songs are mostly from her cabaret acts, and have titles like: Shelly, You've Gone Nelly on Me, Come to the Bars, The Role Playing Tango, 28 Barbary Lane (with reference to Armistead Maupin's best-of-the-decade Tales of the City book series), Piano accompaniment. Courage

If the Rocky Horror Picture Show ever does a sequel, we want Lynn's opening song, Dykes, to be featured! Utilizing a variety of upbeat styles, and singing with a vocal strength reminiscent of Betty Midler, Lynn performs and performs songs like Lavender Love, Best Friend, Gone Fishing, and the lovely Conditions. M.J. Torrance

I Feel Fine

What a delight for us folksy/rock devotees that Girls in the Nose have "released" guitarist M.J. Torrance long enough to record this surprisingly sophisticated debut album! Echoes of Melissa Etheridge, Amy Ray and Janis Joplin easily stand out, but the spark is M.J.'s own. Her lyrics defy easy interpretation — which means we didn't entirely "get" them after one listen. But that's okay because we're already looking forward to playing this provocative collection of acoustic songs again. (MJT1) CS: 9.98

COME FOLLOW ME / MELANIE DeMORE

Melanie DeMore

Come Follow Me

Recipient of standing ovations, Melanie is one of the most exciting new recordings performing artists in women's music of the 90's! "Hard as obsidian", "sweet as chocolate", "strong as knots", "round as a waterdrop" are some of attempts to describe her voice in words; others have compared her to Patti (of Tuck and) or Joan Armatrading. She's the director of Voices, the Bay Area Lesbian Choral Ensemble, and her expertise in vocal possibilities is evident here, as well as her incredible range. Includes Black Jewels (in the Dawn), Glad to be Alive (Nappy Head Song). Hear her debut tape, and watch for her at festivals and concerts! (MOM1) CS: 9.98

Melanie DeMore

Share My Song

Melanie's buoyant vocals and rich lyrics, rooted in African American folk tradition, are captured in this 1992 release, featuring the title track, plus Lady Of Peace, I Hear the Mother Calling, Rise Up, Song for Maya, Kumbaya and a sizzling rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Recommended! (RR203) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Melanie Monsur

Opus K-4

Her long-awaited second recording features her all-instrumental compositions, performed on her Kawai K-4 digital synthesizer. The result is a captivating blend of styles and moods, both contemplative and rhythmic, melodic and just plain lovely. We especially love her piece Cinema; also includes Saved by the Saints, Ocean Good-bye. Produced and recorded by the talented June Millington. (MLN2) CS: 9.98

The Way You Move

This is an exciting debut album with a soulful, jazzy, sensual, sophisticated, breezy sound. Melanie's clear voice soars through complex instrumental arrangements, as she sings her original songs about loving women, of matters of the heart, of souls and bodies connecting. Tide out is particularly hot! At this writing she's beginning to tour the festival circuit with her band, and we hope to see her on our coast soon! (MMM101) CS: 9.98

Melissa Etheridge

Never Enough

Fans will be relieved to know that this 1992 release maintains the power and intensity of previous albums while recasting that surreal Melissa Etheridge landscape of passion and obsession. These ten original songs once again demonstrate her virtuosity and versatility, her strength and her vision. We started to wonder, however, if there hadn't been some changes in her life with songs like The Letting Go and Keep It Precious. The tongue-in-cheek Must Be Crazy for Me and charged 2001 reassured us that she hadn't changed too much though... recommended! (PLG510120) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Brave and Crazy

With tremendous energy and one of the sexiest voices ever recorded, Melissa seizes her blockbuster debut with an album guaranteed to please. From the chilling You Can Sleep While I Drive to the stirring No Souvenirs, she produces great range of tempo and rhythm, mixed with some of the most provocative lyrics in mainstream music. Also includes The Angels and Me. Highly recommended! (PLG842302) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Melissa Etheridge

Known as "Melissa" to women's audiences, her high-powered debut album has made a significant impact in the commercial music world. It's full of raw passion, sexuality, intensity and emotion, explicitly joyful in a manner that's quite rare in a woman's musical repertoire... mesmerizing, and quite refreshing! All original songs with her own acoustic guitar and additional instrumentation. Fairly produced, includes Similar Features and Bring Me Some Water. Recommended! (PLG842303) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Harbor Girl

Produced by Melanie Monsur and featuring supporting talents of Gayle Marie, Nina Gerber and other women, this 1989 debut tape contains such humorous originals as PMO, Best Girl and Coming Out Story plus the more serious Lovers Lullaby and title song. The Heart Of It

Backed by a full band (lots of great women musicians!) for her 1991 release, this SF Bay area singer/songwriter/guitarist/humorist serves up a righteous helping of her original witty, heart-fun, and honest songs. The Zenith of Love becomes living in the state of Pre-Organism ("I would kill for just one space"), it's Hour Goodbyes is a country-flavored, bouncy response to being dumped which features Crystal Heavens' gorgeous fiddle work, and Just the Idea Of You is a straightforward, sad-yet-lovely relationship piece ("Like two little children, we race for that victim chair, someone loses when someone gets there..."). The Codpendency Poika is this reviewer's favorite tho! Highly recommended... (GAN102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

They Are Not a Trio

They say, "We're a band, not a duo." All we can say is, "Yes, Ma'am!" Comprised of keyboardist/vocalist Connie Grauer and drummer/vocalist Ken Zick, Mrs. Fun's approach to jazz is akin to BETTY's approach to funk: stretch it! Stylistically urban, futuristic, rhythmic and irreverent, 10 of the 12 songs are original, including Lulu's Lament, highlighted by k.d. lang's vocal contribution; and 1 of the 2 "covers" is a seriously twisted satire of Stand By Your Man. Mrs. Fun also played backup on k.d.'s contribution to the Red, White and Blue album, as well as showing up on Phranc's I Enjoy Being a Girl. Here they also employ the talents of several other great female instrumentalists. Great... check them out! (LU002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Wild Zone: Essential Parachute Club

This 15-track retrospective contains some of the most incredible, political material this band has ever recorded: 2 versions of their super-hit Rise Up (one of the best songs of the century) — the original plus a new 1992 dance remix — as well as Boys Club, Sexual Intelligence, Alienation and more... from their 3 previous albums: self-titled, At the Feet of the Moon, and Small Victories. At the Feet of the Moon

Save on the LP here! Another excellent effort by Canada's foremost political rock band... and one of this reviewer's favorite albums of theirs. Songs include: Innuendo, Sexual Intelligence, Freedom Song, Walls and Laws. Highly recommended. (RCA0553) LP: 8.98... CS: 10.98

Produced by John Oates, of Hall & Oates, includes Come Is Fire, Tearing the Veil, Rhythm of the Heartbeat, Waves, Love and Compassion. The talents of this group are way beyond ordinary! The Folkways Years 1955-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England; and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be an Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Willie Tyson's Debutante went out of print... we're thrilled the song's back in print, by its author no less, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face, Fred Small's talking Wheelchair Blues; and lots more... frankly, her best material ever! Familiar Faces

A wonderful return recording—and a very feminist one—by one of our favorite folk artists! Plenty of fresh material relevant to women's lives, including Carry Greenham Home, about the women's peace movement; Women's Union; Woman on Wheels, for women in wheelchairs; and other topical songs of solidarity with a variety of movements, with poignant and humorous story-telling lyrics. Phranc

Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60s music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader/ member and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful acappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Gertrude Stein; Dress Code; I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG848282) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Phranc

Folksinger

Phranc, whose music is a blend of topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary, has come somewhat full circle: early women's movement, to LA punk scene, playing with bands like Nervous Gender and Catholic Discipline, to modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective. This is one of few lesbian recordings to be released on an independent label other than one associated with women's music. Includes the laudatory Carolyn, Bailed of the Dumb Hairdresser, One of the Girls, Female Mud Wrestling, Handicapped, Amazons. ("I wanna live with Martina, like Nancy Lieberman"). Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. Very highly recommended! (RH656) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

No Choosing

This lesbian/female production features early-Kate Bush-like keyboards and arrangements, electric guitar, drums, and lyrics in Hebrew and English, which deserve a new category — perhaps "Apocalyptic Pop"? Songs in English include Dykes and the Holy War ("I won't help murderers and rapists/ Struggling to be free"), Escape Will Always Fail ("...Even drama queens and heroes know/ Escape will always fail"), I Measure Every Brief I Meet, and a reverent version of Strange Fruit. Some funny Bob-Dylan-esque phrasing and joke intros. For US women, this album represents an important connection with the international lesbian community... recommended! (POL043) CS: 10.98... Rachel Bagby

Reach Across the Lines

Rachel is an incredible multi-talented musician, who has taken an artistic approach to confronting the issue of racism and to moving people past the "isms" of sex, class, and race. Her work is a combination of poetry, music, and performance, with wonderful scat, choral layering, haunting harmonies, utilizing the human voice in a myriad of ways, especially in the 3 versions of the stand-out title cut. She says the music of many peoples dance in her veins: Indian (Hindu) chants, southern root-woman's stories, Baptist ministers, jazz and gospel musicians, Celtic harpists, Cherokees, and classical training; and you'll hear all this and more on her debut tape. Highly recommended! (OTB101) CS: 9.98

Rashida Oji

Big Big Woman

This fall 1992 release last-minute catalog addition has been described as honest, playful, innovative, intense, powerful... and as "bleeding, crying and laughing all at the same time." She combines the honesty of women's stories with contemporary music, drawing from spiritual, folk and rap. Her deliveries range from the acappella Vry's Song, about an enslaved black woman, to acoustic ballads as well as dance tunes with a full band, such as title cut; also includes the notable No Way, about the pain of incest and battery. We're certain we'll recommend it once we've heard it! (FAB404) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Rhiannon

Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alive!, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material: from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Shennangoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Rose, Janet Small, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! Loosen Up and Improvise

This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alive!) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns... exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon takes you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique; if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHN1) CS: 9.98

Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy, for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-up, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHN2) CS: 9.98

Robin Flower

Babies with Glasses

This 1987 release chronicles the development of this instrumentalist/ singer/ songwriter's new acoustic sound: a mixture of bluegrass with jazz influences and bits of rock and classical strains. Contains 8 originals plus 2 by ace violinist Crystal Reeves, including a couple of lightning instrumentals, The War Song, the sensual Midnight Touch, With the Bleachers — lots of great women musicians! (FF428) CS: 9.98

Robin Flower & Libby McLaren!

This self-produced 1988 cassette features the talents of two of the industry's finest instrumentalist/ singer/ songwriters. Their lyrics are catchy and relevant, the arrangements light, and their voices light and sweet. Includes Back to Her, Movie Music, Dragon Waltz, Darwin, to LA (these last two originally recorded on Robin's debut album More Than Friends, one of our favorites and unfortunately out of print). Ronnie Gilbert

Love Will Find A Way

Ronnie's 1989 solo release includes Music in My Mother's House, The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, Happy Birthday Mrs. Miller, No Rockin' Chair, and more great folk songs affirming women, growing older, love, and humanity in general. Primarily recorded live in concert; with John Buccino. Dedicated to her dear friend Donna. (AA015) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Ronnie Gilbert

The Spirit is Free

On this, Ronnie's first solo recording in over 20 years, we hear stories of liberation and struggle. Ronnie is one of the original members of the Weavers, and her sense of history is clearly portrayed in this recording. With Holly Near on back-up vocals, Ronnie's title cut makes you want to leap with pleasure. Also includes Midnight Special, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and Judy Small's Mother, Daughters, Wives. A definite must for any serious folk collector. This woman has still got what it takes to pluck the heartstrings of social justice. (RR408) CS: 9.98

Rude Girls

Rude Awakening

Dedicated to rude girls everywhere and to their awakening, this lively women's acoustic quartet presents a fine debut folk album. High on heart-breaking harmonies, strung instruments, original tunes like Female Rambling Sailor, Ballad of Francine Hughes ("The Burning Bed"), The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, and Pete Sutherland's Yippie T-T-Y-O ("get a job you old hippie"). Excellent production by Cathy Fink, back-up by Abby Newton, Marcy Marxer and other women... we recommend it heartily! (FF424) CS: 9.98

Mixed Messages

The long-awaited follow-up to their slap-in-the-face debut, this feminist string band is not afraid to get raunchy, even downright rude. As Ronnie Gilbert testifies on the back of their outlandish album art, "You Rude Girls don't know when to stop, do you? Thank Goodness! I love your outrageously mixed messages." Includes Malvina Reynolds' We Don't Need the Men (one of this reviewer's all-time faves) and the condom-awareness song Safety First. (FF511) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Sanders, Kass & White Feels Like Home

With a song roster reading like a LadySlipper Best-Seller List (covers of songs by Ferron, Cris Williamson, Connie Kaldor, plus Christine Lavin's hilarious Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind), and some touching originals (Be Still is a beautiful ballad about a person with AIDS, and is dedicated to the NAMES Project), this women's vocal trio conjures up some astounding harmonies, mostly in a jazz ballad style. You may recognize Anne Louise White from trapezoid's Moon Run album. Backup instrumentation is simple, with piano, guitar and bass, lending more room for their voices to dance and weave and intertwine. Highly recommended! (WSK101) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Sapphic Journeys

A unique album, and now at a great price! The music makes this tape of lesbian erotic poetry by a variety of authors outstanding. The intermittent accompaniment on violin, viola, harp and flute—refined, wonderful, exquisite—was composed and arranged (and strings played) by E. Marcy Dichterow, who has done string arrangements and performed on various women's music recordings including Cris Williamson's The Changer and the Changed. The music glides from gypsy-like passion to gentle reflection and savoring. The poetry, by Sappho, Doris Davenport, Carol Schmidt, and others, is read by Exile Monet and Dimitra Stukas; an all-woman production; don't miss it! (WOM201) CS: 6.98

Sienna

Bedtime Stories

One of the better lesbian erotica tapes this reviewer has heard (and how many is that, you are wondering?)... two explicit short stories by Sienna: Lover and Welcome Home, softly and expressively told by Magarity and Annie. Bound to give you and/or your lover(s) a thrill—a great anniversary gift! Only women 18 or over, please. (DMK1) CS: 10.98

Sue Fink

True Life Adventure

Sue's long-awaited second album of "songs of risk and reality" has finally been released in 1989, with two of her most fantastic songs in her Big Promise tradition—Popular War and Letters to Marie—as well as many other fine originals, more in a jazzy pop/funk style. It's a very polished, sophisticated production; if you're an Anita Baker fan, or a Sue Fink fan of course, you won't want to miss this True Life Adventure. (FRO101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sue Fink

Big Promise

Save on the LPI! On this globally important album, this wild and crazy woman unleashes her boundless energy, wit, and genius. It opens with the first totally contemporary new wave dance tune from a female perspective, Boys Are Thugs, proceeds with The End Is Near the anti-nuke technological extravaganza featuring the LA Women's Community Chorus, expressing the wisdom of a bag-lady; then, to title cut, a technopop tune about a woman who relates to a politician who promises her the same big choices he promises the voters; and more, from ballads to jazz to straight-ahead rock. The overall result is polished, creative, funny, refreshing, substantive and outrageous. Very highly recommended, if we do say so ourselves! (LR201) LP: 6.98 CD: 9.98

Suede

Easily Suede

Suede's long-awaited debut solo album features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals; finally you can take her home... her music, that is. (EAS1001) CS: 9.98

Suede

Barely Blue

This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy/bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Bucchino songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Bucchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sunny McHale SkyeDancer

Lesbian Nation

Subtitled One Nation Among Many, this 1991 album (her 3rd) represents one of the best lesbian-affirming submissions we've received lately — there aren't many to choose from anymore. You'll appreciate her wit and affirming humor shining through her lyrics in these 13 songs... her voice is strong and versatile, and her acoustic guitar accompaniment clear and melodic. In songs such as Got No Need For Speed, Keep Comin' Out, Hummingbird Sweet, she takes the essence of her life as a lesbian and distills it into songs which contain insight and celebration, weave webs of cultural power, shatter shackles of homophobia, and offer unexpected resolutions to daily problems. Susan Graetz

Somewhere Between

Susan tragically died in 1985; but she gave a lot to LadySlipper, and we'd like everyone to know her spirit and her music, which live on. Her album of 14 original, traditional and contemporary songs attests to her great sense of humor and strong love for women. Includes Peace Camp (to the tune of Downtown), I Don't Know Where I'm Going (to the tune of I Know Where I'm Going), Why Do You Bob Your Hair, More Pretty Girls Than One, I'm Not Too Fat, Healing Time, and feature Kay Gardner on flute, among others. Susan's voice was big and wide; she sang it right out! (ODW001) LP: 1.98 CD: 2.98

Susan Herrick

Loving Me

Now that you (hopefully) have Susan's newer album, some of you will probably want this debut folk recording too! While not specifically dealing with recovery issues, there is a strong healing theme — not surprising from a music therapist! Includes Warrioress, The Dreams I Work For Are Mine, Step By Step, Inner Voice, The Embrace, title song... plus White Porch (a lovely image of two old lesbians in rocking chairs comes to this reviewer's mind). (SH1) CS: 9.98

Truth & the Lie

A remarkable recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from tender years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! Feel Something Drawing Me On

A different album concept from their previous discography, and a unique release. This is an album of sacred music; from Christian gospel songs sung by congregations in the deep south as well as Liberia, to traditional lullabies, to Meyanga, a West African funeral song. Here they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in, and beautifully document the diverse cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. Teresa Trull A Step Away

Everyone's favorite Durham-raised artist continues to develop her talents, range and audience, each new recording by Teresa attains new heights. This album is definitely one of the finest releases of the year, in every respect: music, material, production, everything! Each song has a complexity and a depth to it, as well as a contagious hope and joy, and instrumentation and arrangements are very full-sounding and original. Includes Maria, Rosalie, How Lucky. Highly recommended. (RR412) CS: 9.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie Unexpected

The women of this dynamic duo show their stuff on this LP as they have been doing on tour around the country. An eclectic bunch of styles—country, gospel, ballads—some simple, some fairly produced. Barbara is a pianist extraordinaire—don't miss her LP's on Windham Hill. (see "Jazz" section). Includes our favorite Melissa Manchester slide, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.98

Terry Garthwaite Moving Day

Now back in print, and for the first time on cassette! This 1985 release contains mostly original material in a contemporary vein, softer than previous releases, and one she considers to be more truly representative of her sound, with her sultry expressive voice right up front. Back-up musicians include Barbara Borden, Mary Fellig, Sheila Glover, and — on the outstanding cut Mother Earth — the San Geronimo Valley Girls. For those of you too young to remember, Terry (along with Toni Brown) was one of the first women to form and lead a successful rock 'n' roll band, The Joy of Cooking; and she was one of the most enthusiastically-received performer at some of the early Michigan festivals. So give your fore-mothers some respect! Buy this! (FJ007) CS: 10.98

The Therapy Sisters Multiple Personalities

Laboratory-tested, original songs of love, anger, and conflict resolution in which More, Gail and Lisa convert mundane situations into opportunities for self-actualization. Their music goes through mood swings, from tongue-in-cheek to heart-on-sleeve. Lisa bemoans her job in Guys in Ties, while Gail sings a poignant coming out song to her mother in Ocean. Kathy Kornholt from Two Nice Girls joins them for their punk ballad of a Middle Class White Girl who seeks a hippie image, if only for an evening. At least as much fun as your next therapy session. (TS1001) CS: 9.98

The Therapy Sisters Relapse

The Therapy Sisters are back with more harmonic tonic to keep your spirits high! Their 1991 second release contains 14 tunes, including the anatomically correct An Auditory Laundry and the solidarity-conscious Muffie and I Am One. More and Gail will relate to the explosive Teenager and Fine Day for the Blues. Also includes Peanuts, Envy and Shopping. For those who believe in the healing power of music! Tiye Giraud Hokumbe! (Celebration!!)

Seven years the lead singer and percussionist with Women of the Calabash, and now a founding member of the 4-woman ensemble LadyGourd Sangoma, this incredible artist performs traditional music of the Black diaspora. She draws upon African celebration, work, praise and love songs; slave songs from the American South; and stories from the Caribbean, reinterpreting and blending genres, rhythms, vocal styles and cultural traditions. From Sorcerer to Gap Tooth Woman to Oh Lady Death to perhaps the most outstanding track of the album, Moe Mae — a celebration song from Angola! Zaire — Tiye completely draws the listener into her material, which she adapted, arranged, plays various traditional percussion (some of which she handcrafted) such as berimbau, hindehu, gourd, and sings: her voice has rightly been called "so malleable, persuasive and sinewy that it is mesmerizing." A note: a personal priority of hers is researching and exploring the music of third world women everywhere. One of our top picks for 1992... very highly recommended! (TGT1) CS: 9.98

The material here is mostly original, though she does include a Georgia Sea Island song and Sting's Walking in Your Footsteps. Toshi Reagon Demonstrations

Not only a "strong voice in a new generation of Black women's music," a really fine voice, fine songwriting and stylistically distinctive musicianship from this woman of diverse and growing talents, Toshi plays electric lead and rhythm guitar, acoustic guitar, drums and bass, and does lead and background vocals. Co-producer with Toshi and a contributing percussionist and vocalist is Toshi's mom, Bernice Reagon of Sweet Honey in the Rock. The folk and rock 'n' roll numbers here are equally strong. Tracy Chapman Crossroads

At last you can hear the young singer/songwriter everyone's been talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary, her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Talkin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL60774) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman Matters of the Heart

This 1992 release captures ten original songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her folk-rock melodies and literate, lyrical compassion. Her evocative vibrato soars with hope on Dreaming On a World, Bang Bang Bang turns an unblinking eye on the frightening realities of the urban poor; while Open Arms is a love song for real people in an often harsh world; also includes Woman's Work, I Used To Be a Sailor. Throughout the album, her voice rings clear and her visions shines true. (EL61215) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tracy Drach Another Door

Ladyslipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own Slippers! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing, whether performing solo or opening for such acts as K.d. lang or the Washington Sisters. This late 1990 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Laura Berkson's Miriam, to her lyric tale of young novice Sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. With a little piano help from Nancy Day and a style that is uniquely Tracy, this album marks a personal favorite around our office and is wholeheartedly recommended. (DND001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tret Fure Terminal Hold

Gradually becoming a familiar presence on the music scene, starting with a solo LP in the 70's (now out-of-print) and later known as a back-up musician and vocalist for June Millington, Tret Fure (pronounced "Fury") is now squarely in the spotlight where she belongs. Her lyrical and vocal abilities bring an inevitable yet positive comparison to Cria Williamson, who co-produces and sings harmony vocals here. The songs are mostly rock ballads, with a scrappy insistence towards what can only be termed "melodic new wave." Songs include Angel Fire, Cold, Cold Heart, Annie Aircraft. (SW22003) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure Edges of the Heart

Tret's long-awaited second release packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements; a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly-hot number, Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. Recommended! (SW22009) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure Time Turns the Moon

This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

If you can imagine the layered harmonies and humor of the Roches, blended with vibrant, kaleidoscopic imagery as well as a true women-identified sensibility, you'll have an inkling of the Girls' style. They spoof hetero love, in I Spent My Last $10.00 (On Birth Control and Beer); they sing of their women-lovers self-consciously. And their rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection, which they integrate into Dear Jane, is alone worth the price of the album. Highly recommended! (RTR59) LP: 7.98

Herstory from the Edge

Highly harmonic songs of loving and healing, punctuated by an unexpected sense of humor, mark this wonderful debut album. With an unusual sound — a 1975 Les Ford electric guitar, finger-picked in a traditional folk style — Betsy Riordan and Gwen Hector have created memorable and moving pieces like Song for Ida (Grandmother's Song), Big Strong Woman, and the wry hate-song to a lover's cat, I Don't Love Lucy. They've played the Southern Women's Music Festival and gay pride marches, and we imagine we'll be seeing them around a whole lot more. Recommended! (WOT1) CS: 9.98

Yasmeen

Yasmeen of Sweet Honey in the Rock

This 4-song cassette represents the solo debut of Yasmeen, a 13-year member of the acclaimed acappella group, Sweet Honey in the Rock. Loosening up with a jazzy, contemporary R&B band behind her, she shows off her songwriting skills, gorgeous sultry voice, and just generally throws her hat into the Anita Baker ring — watch out Anita! Includes a moving gospel tune, Walking With God, plus the smoky Walking in the Way of Love. We can't wait for more! (SMR1) CS: 7.98

Yasmeen

Still Walking in the Way of Love

Well, we didn't have to wait long, because a month after we received her cassette, she informed us of the imminent release (Jul. 1992) of this 13-song CD! In addition to the 4 songs on the tape, it features an array of R&B, jazz, songs with spiritual content, and topical songs, in the tradition of Sweet Honey in the Rock. Included: title song, about homelessness; Colors, a pro-choice song; Monrovia, Liberia, a song by Michelle Lanchester of In Process; and covers of Knocking on Heaven's Door and James Brown's I Feel Good. Absolutely recommended for all Sweet Honey fans. (BMR2) CD: 15.98

Yeastie Girlz

Ovary Action (7" EP)

Back in print! In this day and age of defacing vinyl from our catalog, you might notice that we have not only added a piece of vinyl, but one with only a 7" diameter. Know that it's got to be real special, and this one is! About the most outrageous recording we've ever heard (and most of these graphics are from Betty Dodson's Liberating Masturbation book, it that gives you a clue...) There are actually 10 selections on this title disc, including Orgasm Addict, Fuck Yourself, Sperm Brain, FCC Rap. For a true vaginal celebration, let Camille, Jane, Kate and Joyce show you an unforgettable time! (LKT8) LP: $9.98

Yer Girlfriend

L-Word Spoken Here

Their 1992 release is a re-dedication to the out and proud lyric, and toe-tapping sounds audiences can't get enough of. Blues, rock or folk, they deliver each song with style, energy and heart. From the ballad Still Waters, a song about taking risks, to Take Back Our Lives, suggesting that women have more to conquer than just the night, their messages are as clear as their sound is hot. Yer Girlfriend is five Kentucky women who are committed to maintaining a strong political voice through the medium of popular music...to break down walls of homophobic prejudice and traditional stereotypes about women, while their audiences are tapping their toes to music that's fun. They do just that on this debut tape of original wonderfully-out lesbian and feminist songs, employing beautiful vocal harmonies. Watch for them at women's music festivals and lesbian/gay events! Zoe Lewis

Soup Kitchen "Swing"

Every once in awhile you run into a not-so-famous artist who turns out to be a complete delight — such is the luck here! With a pleasantly high range voice given to leaping into jazz inflections at the drop of a hat, a lighthearted sense of humor crossed with a social consciousness, and a great band (guitar, sax, bass, percussion, lapels), Zoe throws quite the bash! Here's hoping she'll tour more of the festivals soon. 10 original songs include titles like: Looking for Bagdad (inspired by the film "Bagdad Cafe" perhaps?), Shopping Mall, Mother Earth, Blues. Comedy

Capitol Steps George On My Mind

If you're depressed about life under the Bush administration, cheer up with this great musical political satire from the group often heard on NPR's All Things Considered. Lyrics primarily by Elaine Newport and Bill Strauss, with lots of folks singing in the chorus. Highlights include Your Statue Needs a 10-Tu, written especially for Jesse Helms who says "No Nudes in Good Nudes" and You Light Up My Flag. (CS1008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Capitol Steps Sheik, Rattle & Roll

Not missing a beat in current events, this 1990 release contains hits-to-be such as We Arm the World, Read My Lips, Who'll Put a Bomb on Saddam?, Dirty Dies, Satellites of the Fich and Ramouz, and many more from these musical political satirists. (CS1009) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Capitol Steps 76 Bad Loans

These crazy folks ought to run for office — anyone who does a Dan Quayle falsetto interpretation of "Stayin' Alive" (Slipped Disco: Keep Him Alive) deserves a vote or two! This, the Steps' 10th album, is brimming full of satiric send-ups of the goings-on in our nation's political machine, the no one really escapes their irreverence — see (big breath now) You Don't Bring Me Ficticulturally Diverse Polytrigrant Sociotically Challenged Multipetated Victims of Pesticidal Food Chain Chauvinism, a spoof on the current Multiculturalism debates. Also includes Mille the Poocher, Fun, Fun, Fun: Til Teddy Puts His T-Shirt Away, I Feel Petty, and the unfortunately racist Suahi and the M.C.A. 23 songs in all. (CS1010) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Capitol Steps Fools on the Hill

More silly sendups, just in time for the '92 elections! Maybe this would make you feel better about the whole mess: give Ground Control to Jack Brown a spin, and you'll cheer up immediately! Or perhaps the Boonds of Bongas, and the well-timed poke at David Duke, Stand by Your Klan. As usual, their humor falls off the deep end on at least one song: this album's offensive dirty is Heilo Mullat, Heilo Fatah, which makes fun of the Midwest Peace process. This group is most successful when taking on the culture from which most of them hail, namely the white middle class. (CS1011) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Debra Riggin Waugh Homo Neurotica

This DC-area storyteller/comic addresses your gaggle of garden-variety lesbian issues with a wit and self-deprecating humor. Taking her experiences growing up (Prepubescent Training in Heterosexuality and White Middle Class Values, A Fairy of Sorts, When I Was Sixteen I Was Cool, Chicken Dinner and coming out (Putting Out the Trash, Ex-Lover Weird Shift), she condenses them into funny vignettes that many of us will relate to. We hope she'll hit the festival circuit; her talent and style will be warmly received, we're sure of it! Recorded live in '92. (DRW1) CS: 9.98

Dos Fallopi My Breasts Are Out of Control

This outrageous feminist comic duo — e.e.a. twin sisters of different cut-de-accs — consists of Lisa Koch (also known for her participation in Venus Envy) and Peggy Platt, who create a riotous program of music, sketch comedy, stand-up, razor sharp wit, left-wing politics and general lunacy, to produce an act of wickedly funny commentary from a woman's point of view. Includes Fran and Annie's 12-Step Day Care, Spudd Family Gospelers: The Suny Bitches in Concert (with Laura Love and Linda Severn from Venus Envy), a really great Camp Song, and of course the title track. So warped, so refreshing! Recommended! (TNG300) CS: 9.98

Judith Sloan The Whole K'CUFIN' WORLD

This long-awaited 1992 release captures Judith in a selection of live performances replete with her assortment of characters. With her sharp and insightful social and political commentary, this artist is guaranteed to keep you laughing and thinking as she explores war, media, sexuality and plastics! (EART) CS: 9.98

Kate Clinton Live at Great American Music Hall

Note the sale price on the LP! In her inimitable style, where every breath pecks a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (covering her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, satirizes personal papers, sings her song for parthenogenesis, and tells how she answered the question What Do YOU Do? at an S/M workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material: get your TV sets tuned up! Kate Clinton Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politics to build laughter of fading fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Themapark: rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and fleeing away at Mom Pinata in Familyland! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Roseanne Barr I Enjoy Being a Girl

Staff comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Slipper says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on T.V." — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version) covers Sexual Preferences, Women's Medley, Men's Medley, 28-Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Rodeo Queen, Arsonist, and more — something to offend everyone. From The Juggs Jingle Jamboree to Fairwell to Fair Barbie to Mother Nature's On the Rag, they mix pop, progressive politics and parody... musically satirizing sports, sex, shopping, the Woodstock generation, the Gulf War, and the S&Ls, among other topics, mixing ragtime, rap, doo-wop, opera, jazz, heavy metal and polka. Jewish

Adrienne Cooper/Irena Klepfisz/etc. Partisans of Vilna

Subtitled The Songs of World War II Jewish Resistance, these 12 songs and poems reflect the strength and spirit of the Jewish resistance to Nazi occupation and domination. Originally heard in the 1986 documentary film by the same name, these songs were re-recorded in 1989 by various performers dedicated to preserving the cultural continuity of Yiddish-speaking Jews. Includes the haunting Yisrofil, sung by a young boy; Adrienne Cooper (of Vilde Khaya)'s achingly clear soprano on two selections; moving readings by writer Irena Klepfisz; and other contributions from women and men. Informative liner notes, lyrics sung in Yiddish, printed in English. (FF450) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Austin Klezmorim Texas Klez

Klezmer Jazz? You bet! This recording invokes images of the Roaring 20s in Europe — a fusion of Middle Eastern, Eastern European and European musical and vocal styles which seem to bring the best out of each genre without losing the strength and beauty of the original form. Features the gorgeous vocals of Donna Mittenhal, Suzie Stern and Susanna Sharpe, and some fantastic instrumental arrangements (tuba, accordion, violin, drums, bass, reeds, trumpet). Highly recommended, especially if you're new to exploring Jewish artistic and cultural expressions. (BAM1) CS: 9.98

The Aviva Duo From Generation to Generation

"From generation to generation Jewish song has provided a rich legacy for its dispersed people — a binding force for ethnic consciousness, a continuous musical expression of a culture, a history, a religion." And these two Canadian women, Merida Sachs and Shirley Steinberg, feel that although the songs are all in Hebrew and Yiddish, they have a universal quality and also want to share them with a non-Jewish audience. Translations included. It's an exceptionally lovely recording, with beautiful instrumentation by Kathryn Moses on flute and others. It includes a wordless Chassidic melody, modern Israeli compositions, a Yemenite folk melody, and Dona, Dona, a Yiddish folk melody. Highly recommended. (AV1001) CS: 9.98

Cindy Paley A Singing Seder

Cindy is well-known to the Jewish community of Los Angeles as a Hebrew and Yiddish folk singer. Here she sings all the songs from the traditional Passover Hagaddah (with a little help from a Cantor and a children's chorus), after she recites a brief introduction for each; beautiful arrangements, with harmony vocals, keyboards, flute, bass, and tambour. Booklet includes Hebrew, English, and transliterations. (CP1) CS: 12.98

Faith Rogow The Courage to Dare

This excellent resource celebrates strong Jewish women by bringing a Jewish voice to Jewish liturgy — pretty unique, in our opinion! Many pieces are written by Marcia Falk, author of The Book of Blessings: A Feminist-Jewish Reconstruction of Prayer. Faith accompanies herself on acoustic guitar, and accompanies some lovely and harmonious... includes the passionate My Sister, My Bride, ("With one flash of your eyes you excite me/ One jewel on your neck stirs my heart/ O my sister, my bride"), Friendship Blessing, Sabbath Candle Blessing, and the traditional Hazak, Hazak. Don't let the homemade quality of this recording keep you from being uplifted by Faith's message. (FR1) CS: 9.98

One of Klezmer's leading exponents, this band has spent the last decade spreading this old world beat around the planet. Laura Wetzler A World of Jewish Folk Music

Celebrating both the traditional and non-traditional role of Jewish women in Jewish life, Laura sings of the woman who fates to cook as well as the proud matriarch. Drawing from both Sephardic and Ashkenazic musical sources, she includes songs of garment workers, teachers, lovers, pioneers and resistance fighters. All 16 songs are sung in Hebrew, Yiddish, or Ladino, and are accompanied on guitar and Yemenite drum. Spirited and lovely! (MG1) CS: 9.98

Lauren Pomerantz Jewels of the Sephardim

Subtitled "Songs from Medieval Spain," this totally unique volume contains songs in Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) which originated between 900 and 1300 A.D. on the Iberian peninsula, at which time a marvelous cultural exchange was occurring between Hebrews, Arabs (Moors) and Christians (Spaniards). This ceased in 1492 with the Inquisition, and the Sephardic Jews scattered into mid-eastern, Mediterranean and North African areas. Since then the music has been passed from generations via the oral tradition. Lauren has done much of the research for this album. Her voice is just lovely and she also plays medieval fretted dulcimer, as a background of flutes and percussion. Lyrics in Ladino (15th century Castilian, almost identical to present-day Spanish). Linda Hirschhorn Songs for Shabbos

Linda, who freelances as a cantor in progressive synagogues, is a singer-songwriter of Jewish, women's, and political material. This album is an instructional tape that teaches how to sing — note by note and syllable by syllable with many repetitions — traditional Shabbos Z'murot (songs) including the blessing over the candles, and the option to use the feminine or masculine name of God. Lyrics included. (QVS1113) CS: 7.98

Linda Hirschhorn Gather Round (Tape)

Subtitled Songs of Celebration and Renewal, this collection of original rounds and songs in Hebrew and English celebrates our heroines (Miriam, Ruth and Naomi), daily ritual, cycles of life, and peace and justice, with reference only to a goddess and/or feminine God. Sung mostly by an acappella women's ensemble with stunning harmonies, giving a unique sense of the feminist potential within Judaism. Miriam Dvornik Grandma Soup: Yiddish Songs

"When we were kids we loved to go to Grandma's house, in the small apartment above the tailor shop the sounds of Yiddish songs mingled with the appetizing aroma of what we kids called Grandma Soup. Here is a taste of Grandma's delights we are still trying to appreciate fully." Not only does Miriam have an astonishingly beautiful voice, she gives impressively zealous performances here on violin, mandolin, autoharp, electric and acoustic guitar and electric bass — and, she produced it. Pronunciation guide and translations included. Very highly recommended for kids and adults. (SOU101) CS: 9.98

Ofra Haza Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yemenite Jewish parentage, Ofra may be Israel's biggest star, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old!) and contemporary rhythms... resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra is part of the Musica Mizrahi movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. (SHN54002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ofra Haza Kiryas

One of our favorite artists returns to the style of our very favorite of all her albums, Fifty Gates of Wisdom. This 1992 release features vocals in Aramaic, Hebrew and English, with some new surprises: backing vocals by Was Not Was, and a guest appearance by rock legend Iggy Pop, in a narrative role on the track Dav Da Haya, a song about a young woman sentenced to death for expressing her sexuality. Even when you don't speak the language she's singing in, the strikingly pure tone of her voice gets the meaning across; recommended! (SHN54043) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ofra Haza Desert Wind

Most of the songs on Ofra's 1990 release, which fittingly coincides with her first US concert tour, are sung partially in English; but the content is still about the Yemenite Jewish community, Yemenite tradition, and peace in the Middle East, with the imagery and rhythm of the desert an integral part of this music. Fantasmagoria, a tribute to her mother and other Yemenite Jews who were persecuted and banished to Yemen's desert, includes the voice of her mother singing in Arabic. The time's ripe for this sort of world music to gain a foothold in the arena of commercial recognition and success. (SIR25976) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Ofra Haza Shaday

Combines some of the best of Ofra's previously released Yemenite material (re-recorded and resynthesized, with added English verses), plus other traditional Yemenite tunes and original tunes she performs in English. This album is obviously intended to be more accessible to English-speaking audiences, and raise her to the same super-star status in the Western world that she already enjoys in Israel. We prefer her earlier Fifty Gates of Wisdom, but the traditional material here makes this worthwhile for all Ofra Haza fanatics. (SIR25916) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tofa'ah The Sound of Joyous Song

An absolutely gorgeous album by a group of 7 women living in Jerusalem, Israel, originally from the U.S. and Australia. They combine a variety of musical heritages to create new and original Jewish music which speaks of individual and collective Jewish struggles and joys. Instruments are voices, acoustic and electric guitar, bass, percussion, banyo, flute, and violin. Songs are in Hebrew, with translations enclosed. Includes New Moon: Woman/Moon, "With each new moon comes a new woman... You are unique and full as the moon is light in the darkness... Flow with new life of coming months... Moon... Celebrate Woman!" These are the written words to the most beautiful song in the collection; it is vocalized with musical tones only, no words. Very highly recommended. (TOF7) CS: 9.98

Voice of the Turtle From the Shores of the Golden Horn

The first volume in the "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora" series (500 years after Columbus set sail by this 2-woman, 2-man quartet, it features music of the Spanish Jews of Turkey, one of several discrete paths of exile following the Inquisition and expulsion from Spain. This collection includes lyric songs, romances, coplas (strophic festival songs), encochias (dirges) and more, performed in Ladino, a language preserved largely by the women. Accompaniment consists of dumbeks, 'ud, kamanja, naqqara, saz, baglama, finger cymbals, and such, a highly unusual and valuable repertoire. (T1173) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Voice of the Turtle Bridges of Song

Subtitled Music of the Spanish Jews of Morocco, this is the second volume in the ensemble's "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora/Paths of Exile" series. Unlike the Jews who traveled to the Ottoman Empire, those who settled in Morocco maintained continual exposure to European influence, especially during the period when Spain ruled parts of Morocco; so their spoken language Hakelita, as well as their repertoire, reflected Spanish, as well as Hebrew and Arabic, influence. Voice of the Turtle Balkan Vistas/ Spanish Dreams

1992 marks not only the year the Native Americans discovered Columbus invading their shores; it also marks 500 years since the Inquisition, and subsequent exile, for Spanish Jews. This remarkable album follows two paths of this exile, and brings to light the music of the Sephardic Jewish communities which flourished for centuries in Bulgaria and Yugoslavia, mostly Sarajevo. Influences of Turkish instrumentation and Balkan folk rhythms can be heard. During WWII, the Bulgarian Jews were protected by their government, but many Yugoslavian Jews were led to the concentration camps. Most of the remaining Yugoslavian and Bulgarian Jews eventually emigrated to Israel. Recommended as always! (T1203) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

African

Les Amazones De Guinee Au Coeur de Paris

This live recording of a women's vocal group from Guinea conveys such a joie d'vivre that you wish you'd been at the show! The next best thing is this CD, which is guaranteed to generate movement in your body and your heart! Liner notes are in French, which this reviewer exhausted her repertoire of in the first sentence, so we are left guessing as to the content of the lyrics, but the exuberance of the performance is such that you'll enjoy it immensely regardless of your native tongue... it's worth the high import price. Angelique Kidjo Logozo

We don't know much about this artist... we don't know what country she's from, or the language of many of these songs... (notes are in French and English; so we assume she's from a French-speaking African country) except that it includes the dance hit Bafongo and that this 1991 album is fantastic! We'll try to find out more in time for our next catalog — anyone out there have any info? In the meantime, believe this: great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance, very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Aster Aweke

Wow! Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing this talented DC resident; she sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wail, croons to a native harp and light percussion, leans over a classically-tinged piano — this is "World Beat" at its best! Highly recommended! (COL46348) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Aster Aweke Kabu

The second effort of this amazing Ethiopian songwriter and vocalist has more of an Afro-pop musical sound, with the exception of the haunting love ballad, Kabu, which means "sacred rock" and employs a slow marimba for both rhythm and melody... simply lovely! Backed up on other cuts by a variety of percussion instruments, horns, keyboards and acoustic bass, Aster's voice is again rich and enchanting. Lyrics are translated in the liner notes. Also includes several traditional Ethiopian songs, with contemporary arrangements. Recommended! (COL47846) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Balafon Marimba Ensemble

We didn't know where to list this album, because it's African instrumental music created by an American 5-woman, 4-man marimba ensemble! So here it is, for lack of a more accurate category. Their purpose is to promote understanding of other cultures with the ultimate goal of global unity, peace, and sense of community. With a full chorus of marimbas (bass, baritone, tenor and soprano), plus congas, timbales, hosho, bells and other percussion, they produce a high energy recording which is recommended for dance, listening, and educational uses — it's great music! Histories of the compositions are explained in the liner notes. (SHN67002) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Dorothy Masuka Pata Pata

This Zimbabwean woman has a beautiful, flowing voice and is backed up by other female vocalists and a "typical" Afro-pop band — twangy finger-picked electric guitar, steady percussion with lots of handclaps, keyboards and horns, yielding a tribal, hypnotic effect, some of it great for dancing. We learned from Dirty Linen Review that she is "well known in her native country since the 60's as a singles artist" and that this is her first worldwide album release. CD contains 3 bonus tracks. Kronos Quartet et al Pieces of Africa

This is a beautiful and unique 1992 release, which like many of today defies categorization, so here it lives for now. Kronos Quartet is a 1-woman 3-man classically-trained string quartet (2 violins, viola and cello) from the US, known for their interpretations of world folk music. Here they perform songs by African composers, most with the composers also contributing musically to the performances, vocally and instrumentally. The sounds are stunning blends of cultures, or perhaps the creation of something new from traditional elements — much like the patchwork quilt design suggested by the cover art. Commentary from the composers is included. (EL79275) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

M'Bella Bel Bameli Soy

One of our top picks for the year! By one of Africa's top female vocalists, she is from Zaire, and the album is replete with Congolese rhythms, harmonies, percussion and energetic joyousness. (SHN43025) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

The Mahotella Queens Izibani Zomqashayo

Striking harmonies in the Mbube style, from 4 women of South Africa's best female vocal group. They sing in Zulu, with the very upbeat backing of Mbanga music: an electric guitar with machine-gun licks of paired notes, whizzing up and down the fretboard; bass notes of rapid counter-melodies played high up in the instrument's register. The content of their material is not overtly political, since it would be banned and the musicians probably jailed if it were, but it reflects the strength and indomitability of their spirits. Recommended! (SHN43036) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens Marriage Is A Problem

South Africa's premiere mbanga harmony quartet soars with unlimited energy and exciting harmonies on this 1991 release, as they look back to traditional ways, to a time before Apartheid. Songs include Selakia Attractive Woman, Kgarebe Baga Mofusi: Mother's Daughter, Nyalo Ea Tshwenya. Marriage Is A Problem (luckily one that many of us don't have to contend with!) Very danceable, upbeat, certain to lift any dragging spirits! Highly recommended as always! (SHN43080) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens & Mahlathini Rhythm and Art

Already widely known and recognized for high energy stage shows and soaring vocals, this female trio (back after their temporary retirement, and now just 3) and male vocalist have revolutionized the South African pop scene. On this 1990 album the group performs 5 new compositions and 2 English versions of their most popular songs; includes what could be the most incredible version of a gospel song, God Is On Your Side, ever recorded! Again, don't expect overtly political lyrics, but be prepared to be swept away by the sheer power of this release! Highly recommended! (SHN43068) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens & Mahlathini Mbanga

This 1992 album finds itself way up there on the Billboard charts, signifying the worldwide recognition that this South African group is finally enjoying, deservedly joyful harmonies, spiced with guitars, saxophone, penny whistle, and intense drumming characterize their rhythmic style. Miriam Makeba Africa

This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1960-1965, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and timely! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup — guitar, percussion — and lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (refreshing to hear the original African rendition!), The Retzat Song, The Click Song, Kwazulu/ In the Land of the Zulus, Nongqongqo/ To Those We Love. 23 songs in all. Miriam MakebaPata Pata

Do you kinda wonder why recordings by this vocalist from South Africa are becoming so rare?? This limited-quantity import contains "a multifaceted repertoire that knocks down walls, bridges, barriers, and transforms a dozen different languages into a universal tongue." Her daughter Songi does back-up vocals; includes several originals such as Amantondo, West Wind, Nigoma Kurila, plus Tanzanian folk tune Mataika, and other writers' works. The CD contains 4 extra songs. (ESP155508) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Miriam MakebaEyes on Tomorrow

This 1991 release features some very special guest artists: Nina Simone, Dizzy Gillespie, and Hugh Masekela! Freedom is the absolute theme on this internationally-recorded album (Johannesburg, Brussels, Bologna, NYC), with a very upbeat and dedicated spirit. Nina Simone collaborates with Miriam on a song well known in Nina's repertoire; they combine the traditional African Thulizwe with I Shall Be Released. Rich, resonating backing vocal choirs throughout. Recommended! (PLG849313) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 19.98

Miriam MakebaWolela

This dynamic 1989 release contains songs in both English and African dialects, including a re-interpretation of her classic Pata Pata, which means Touch, Touch, as well as African Sunset, Soweto Blues. (URB938208) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Miriam MakebaSangoma

A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused: these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate prolifically and stunningly the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. (An interesting note: she was also exiled from the U.S. in 1968, after she married Stokely Carmichael.) Highly recommended! (WB25673) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Chaba Fadela*You Are Mine

While other ethnic stars can provide excellent examples of Rai music — a modern Arabic pop style whose roots lie in traditional Algerian folk music with African, Moroccan, Spanish and French influences — Chaba (title for a young female; Fadela is the premiere voice of the movement that blends cultures and generations to produce a distinctive and beautiful sound. Her rough sensuous voice has been described as "the pride of Algeria," and her compositions as the best example of Rai music to be found. In fact, the success of Rai, in spite of government attempts to ban it for political reasons, is in large part attributable to her. A strong dance beat, with synthesizers, drum machines and multitracking, are paired with her haunting traditional Arabic vocals on this 1988 release. Includes her major hit, N'Sei Fik, performed with Cheb (title for a young male) Saharoui. Very highly recommended! (MNG9827) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Chaba Fadela & Cheb SaharouiHana Hana

If you liked You Are Mine, you'll love this too. Fadela co-wrote most of the selections, and performs them all with her male duo partner... they are compelling and unique. Contains the 89 Min of the hit N'Sei Fik. A bonus is that the insert contains actual photos of the artists; many other Rai albums, including You Are Mine and Nights Without Sleeping, instead show models on the cover, presumably in accordance with the Islamic prohibition of photographs. Miriam Makeba, w/Belafronte SingersThe Click Song

This is a classic! Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Belafronte Folk Singers! It includes her well-known songs: The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Wimboweh", House of the Rising Sun, Iya Gudutu, which triple tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, the humorous One Move Dance, and others, performed in Xosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. Highly recommended! (ESP155564) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Nahawa DoumbiaDidadi

Recognized in the 1984 Radio France competition as the best talent in the category of African music, this artist is a newcomer only to the universality of appeal her music has achieved. Her birthplace, Mali, serves as a gateway between Africa and the Middle East, and her music is rooted in those cultural traditions. Malian music has drawn upon Latin music from Senegal, highlife from Ghana, Afrobeat from Nigeria, soukous from Zaïre; this album blends a mixture of horns, percussion and powerful vocals into a showcase for Nahawa's majestic abilities. Includes Banani, a discourse on living well and avoiding evil, and Nierwe, a tale of how a person's life is judged. Highly recommended! (SHN64015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Oumou SangareMoussolou / "Women"

Recorded in 1989, when Oumou was a mere 21, this fantastic recording has sold over 200,000 copies in West Africa alone! Her strong voice, rhythmic melodies and progressive lyrics make this import a must for your collection. Songs are in Wassoulou (a Malian dialect), and instrumentation, while not listed in the otherwise informative liner notes, features a smooth bass, light percussion, and violin-like strings both plucked and bowed. Includes the title song, which encourages society to recognize and respect our "contributions", and Diya Gbese (Great Love), which favors couples being able to choose their own partners rather than submit to prearranged weddings. Highly recommended! (WCD021) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Sanougue KouyateBalendala Djibe

Here's how a reviewer from Option Magazine described this album: "This woman has pipes! Kouyate comes from Mali, and a family of Mandingo Griots, traditionally singers, tribal historians, and storytellers. The music is very traditional, the dominant instruments being the harp-like kora and the marimba-like balafon. The instrumental accompaniment, then, is delicate; and what a contrast to Kouyate's volcanic voice, which soars over the hypnotic kora and balafon lines, scorching everything in its wake, leaving absolutely no doubt as to its authority. The only western comparison I can think of is Aretha Franklin. But I can't think of another world music recording I've heard that is so instantly electrifying..." Why try saying it better? Very highly recommended! (MNG9874) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sone DiabateGirls of Guinea

A member of a famous griot (traditional singers/musicians/storytellers) family from Guinea, one of the richest areas of African musical tradition, Sone has also made an impact as singer-guitarist with the all-female Les Amazones de Guinea band. On this solo recording, her powerful, passionate vocals are backed by female voices and acoustic guitars, creating an enchanting, melodious sound steeped in tradition yet recasting ancient melodies and rhythms in new settings. Definitely recommended! (SHN65007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chaba ZahouaniaNights Without Sleeping

On this excellent recording of Rai music, Zahouania uses her deep and sultry voice to convert Bedouin chants into vocal improvisations; the accompaniment blends traditional middle eastern instrumentation with contemporary western instruments and production techniques. She's following in the footsteps of the originators of Rai: rural women singers called "Cheikates" who, in the early part of this century, adapted the chants of the nomadic herders to their own improvised words, often singing of the taboo subjects of sex and alcohol. Her family has prohibited public performances and photographs, so the cover here features the same model as Fadela's You Are Mine! (MNG9831) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

FairuzThe Very Best of Fairuz

This Lebanese vocalist is one of the best-known female singers in the Arab world; the songs are in Lebanese, and she incorporates traditional Arabic music into her style. Absolutely outstanding! Following the success of THE INDESTRUCTIBLE BEAT OF SOWETO, this 1985 release features "Zulu Jive" tracks by four women's groups from South Africa: The Dark City Sisters, The Magaba Queens, Irene and the Melodians, and The Mahotella Queens. The rhythms, the harmonies, the pure energy all make for a vibrant anthology...this is the spirit that can't be killed. Highly recommended! (SHN43041) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various ArtistsWomen of Mali: The Wassoulou Sound

Wassoulou is the Southern region of Mali, a relatively medium-sized West African country with strong Middle Eastern cultural influences. Its traditional songs originate in a culture based on farming and hunting, and the region bears distinction due to the fact that 90% of its singers are women! Features strong, fast-paced melodies and rhythms which are led by upper register strings, rather than percussion. Singers include: Sali Sidibe, Oumou Sangare, and Coumba Sidibe (founder of L'Ensemble Instrumentale du Mali). Recommended! (STN1035) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nesrin Sipahi*Sharki: Love Songs of Istanbul

The "sharki" is a lament or love song from the Ottoman empire of Turkey. The tone is generally melancholy, and as it has been presently preserved, is played on European instruments. This 1991 recording of sharki is the first to use authentic instrumentation, thus providing a unique look at the repertoire from the 18th through early 20th centuries. Nesrin was born in Istanbul, and like many of her generation, initially wanted to become more "europesized" in her artistic expression. Lucky for us, she has become a leader in the renaissance of Turkish classical music, lending her graceful and expressive voice to the flowing melodies and plaintive lyrics. (CMP3009) CS: 9.98 ... Umm KulthumThe Twinkling Star

No longer living, this woman (whose name is also written Oum Koulthoum, Um Kulthoum, or Umm Kulthum) remains Egypt's and the Arab world's most esteemed vocalist. She sang into her 60's, performing lengthy concerts with long improvised epic tales, projecting dignity and strength. An interesting fact to note: in addition to being married, she also had a long-time, very public female companion named Shawfika Durr; this relationship was supported by her husband, and tolerated for the most part by the Arab public; she basically transcended the boundaries of convention. Mieko Totem

First of all, this is fantastic dance music, so all you DJ's (closet or otherwise) take note! Japanese singer-songwriter Mieko Totem blends Japanese melodies with African rhythms, Arabic overtones, and western technology, creating a unique, high-energy sound and style from a melting pot of cultural references. She began her career performing traditional Japanese songs, moved on to jazz and then to "ethno-jazz", and is now concentrating on developing her personal style while incorporating various types of world music and still maintaining a wide-spread appeal. She recently moved to England, and this is a U.K. import. (WDL0011) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Najma Qareeb

This beguiling album showcases the ethereal, haunting music of this stunning Indian vocalist based in Great Britain. With power and grace, she mixes ancient Indian ghazals (short romantic poems) with original melodies in an "Indipop" style, combining traditional and western instrumentation. An album of great immediacy and impact, offering an arresting new musical experience. (SHN64009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra The Struggle

"I'm proud to be Asian, an Asian Woman, and an Asian Woman in the Music Business." One of our best-sellers from years past — and one of the loveliest and most creative works in our catalog — is back in print! On this lushly-textured, harmonic, innovative, up-tempo dance album, Sheila brings together the seeming paradoxes and polarities of her life. A British citizen of Indian descent (known previous to her solo releases for her vocal work with the band Monsoon), her heritage is steeped in ancient traditions, and she values them, yet feels they must be used in a progressive context. The recording blends traditional eastern sounds, vocals, chants, and instruments (sitar, gamelan, Zildjian cymbals, tabla, tamboura, etc.), with western rhythms and technology to create "Indipop." If you have enjoyed Oria Haza, try this for sure...very highly recommended! (IND3) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Sheila Chandra Roots and Wings

Note sale on LPs! This 1989 release is Sheila's first album since her eccentric decision to "retire" in 1985 at the age of 20. Part of that hiatus was spent researching fresh musical and vocal approaches, which she explores here: Kompoli (A Dante incorporates a musical language of percussive vocal syllables — the Indian version of scat, various multi-tracked vocals over traditional Indian instruments such as ghatam (a finely tuned clay pot) and mridangam (a very intricate percussion instrument); even mixes of African log drum and oonga with Indian percussion. We welcome her back to the recording world! (IND5) LP: 15.98 CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Sheila Chandra Silk 1983-1990

This is a "Best of..." retrospective, covering material from her five solo releases to date: The Struggle, Nada Brahma, Roots and Wings, Quiet, and Out On My Own. Styles range from crossover Indipop to traditional chants to a Scottish lament. A wonderful way to sample her work, and to experience the breadth of her talent and her growth as an artist. And, her first title to be pressed domestically. (SHN64035) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Tahitian Choir Rapa Iti

One of the most spectacular albums to come our way, ever! 126 female and male voices sing the story of the people on the tiny island of Rapa Iti — total population 328 — 1000 miles southeast of Tahiti, the last piece of land before the South Pole. The quarter-tonal choral sound is often reminiscent of African singing, sometimes of western hymns, and at moments even Eastern European singing, in the vocal strength of the women especially. Some songs are translated into English, and others were not able to be translated, since much of the original dialect has been lost. A rare gem; highly recommended! (TAL7182) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tomoko Sunazaki Tegoto: Japanese Koto Music

From one of Japan's foremost koto masters, a "best of" compilation from previous Fortuna releases (Moon at Dawn, Spring Night, Sound of Silk Strings), and is of course exquisite. This exciting and incredible trio of percussionists from Vancouver, consisting of 2 women, Leslie Komon and Eileen Kage, and 1 man, John Endo, Greenway, revives the traditional Japanese Taiko, which means "big drum", the revival in popularity of this instrument is occurring in both Japan and among sansei (third generation Japanese North American). The trio is adeptly assisted by other musicians such as Xiao Yu on pipa, a stringed instrument, and Takeshi on shakuhachi, a bamboo flute, and together they weave magic with their blend of Asian and North American music and rhythms. Dedicated to the spirit of Ame No Uzume No Mikoto, "The Heavenly Dancing Female." (Grateful and hypnotic... recommended!) (FF556) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Works of both Sheila Chandra and Najma are included in this unusual anthology of female and male artists who define and expand upon the term "Indipop". A beautiful, creative fusion of South Asian and western forms, styles, and technologies. New Bhangra alongside Ghazal-Jazz; Indipop alongside Asian house/hip-hop; dancefloor mixes alongside Indian classical experiments. Alison Kinnaird The Harper's Gallery

One of the leading exponents of Scottish harp music, Alison carries on the tradition of the great clarsach (small harp) players of the past. The opening cut of this album is actually stunning—and I try never to use that word—on which Ann is joined by harpist Lucy Carolan, plus a fiddle, and viola...transporting. The collection consists of courtly 16th, 17th and 18th century music; Alison lends her voice to a few of the pieces. Includes one said to have been written by Mary Queen of Scots the night before her execution. The recording quality is excellent — very bright and clear and almost eerily present. Recommended. Altan The Red Crow

Considered to be one of the world's best bands playing Irish music, this 1990 release is their third. As is so often true, the one female, in this case ace vocalist/fiddler Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh (pronounced Ma-ra-dee Nee Mooney), provides the center and foundation for the rest of the ensemble. The selections offer a balanced mix of rhythms and tempos, with reels, jigs, ballads, waltzes; some are all-instrumental and some feature vocals. (GL1109) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Altan Harvest Storm

This 1992 release contains 4 songs and 9 instrumentals tracks of riveting music that both reaffirms and enlarges the international stature of this Irish band. Never complacent, they experiment with harmony and choral singing on such stirring songs in Irish as Dona! agus Morag and Mo Choll, led by Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh's extraordinarily expressive voice. This album proves that their vocal blend can match the mastery of their fiery instrumental playing! (GL1117) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola Irish Aires and Dances

Since 1984, Anisa's guitar artistry has enhanced all 7 of Joemy Wilson's hammered dulcimer recordings, as well as her own duet recording with Valerie King, Pastorale. Now Anisa takes center stage, in this exciting collection of traditional dance music from Ireland. Accompaniment of flute, recorder, hammered dulcimer (Joemy, of course) and bodhran add special color; impeccable classical technique and the energy and emotion of the music unite to create a recording of special charm. (DM110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola/Valerie King Pastorale

If we could install flashing neon arrows on our catalog pages, we'd use one in this margin! Anisa on classical guitar and Valerie on flute and piccolo are a pair of musicians whose skill is honed to near perfection in their execution of medieval, renaissance, Irish, Spanish, and impressionistic compositions. The phrasing and arrangements are elegant and dignified; even the sequencing is just right. Includes Parson's Farewell, Goddesses and the lively, embellished Caravan's Concerto. Have we said enough? Highly recommended. (JM100) CS: 9.98

Capercaillie Crosswinds

This is the great 1987 debut release that introduced Karen Matheson's angelic vocals — soaring above mystical back-grounds — to the American public. These Scottish musicians move effortlessly from highly charged gigs and reels to serene, spellbinding ballads in both Gaelic and English; in a style that has been described as early Clannad crossed with Silly Wizard. Instruments include accordion, recorder and whistles, bouzouki, guitar, fiddles, basses, percussion. Do not miss! (GL1077) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Sidewalk

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band; in our opinion it's the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited "walking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums; in the meantime, enjoy her here! (GL1094) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ceoltóirí Silver Apples of the Moon

Ceoltóirí continues to ascend heavenward, expanding their repertoire to include vocals and some original compositions. Connie continues her pristine guitar work while adding her celestial voice. Sue's harp work is flawless, and Karen adds pennywhistle and bodhran to her dulcimer contributions! The songs include Gaelic versions of Anise and Dreas (yourself), and Oro "Se Do Bheatha" (Shall), which is sung in tribute to Grainne Mhaol, a woman pirate from the O'Malley Clan of County Mayo, plus a Yeats poem set to music, a celebration of Samhain (Halloween), the Scandinavian Polska Set, and The Plain Girl's Lament. About half the selections are gorgeous instrumentals... Highly recommended! (MM202) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ceoltóirí Celtic Lace

Ceoltóirí ("Kye-toi-ry") is comprised of Sue Richards on Harp, Karen Ashbrook on Hammer Dulcimer, and Connie McKenna on Guitar, and "lacey" is the correct image one gets from the compositions they combine; light, airy and delicate reels, waltzes, aires, jigs, pipe marches and strathspeys. While many Celtic musicians occasionally combine two tunes for an interesting medley, this is the first recording we can recall where all of the pieces are woven into quilt-like combinations; different textures and colors interspersed within a graceful and stately meter... lovely! Cherish the Ladies The Back Door

Irish America's first all-woman music and dance ensemble has dazzled audiences in Ireland, the US and Canada; here's their first true ensemble album (1992). Jigs, reels, polkas and hornpipes pour forth with tremendous energy from these 8 musicians, and 2 tracks feature some extraordinary hard-shoe stepdancing! Cathy Ryan's lovely voice graces 5 of the 14 songs — one in Irish, the rest in English. Fiddles, bodhrans, flutes, tin whistle, guitar and banjo punctuate such songs as Jessica's Polka, The Shepherd's Daughter, Maire Mhor (Big Mary), and title song, which is dedicated to all undocumented Irish aliens. Six songs in English, two in Gaelic, plus two shimmering instrumentals... this Irish import features a splendid combination of their earlier, more traditionally-based style with a foray into a contemporary Fleetwood Mac-flavored vein, incorporating the as-always incomparable vocals of Maire Brennan (the Anglicized version of Bhraonain) — suited to the old and the new, that is to say, simply beautiful however she uses it — plus lovely saxophone, multi-layered backup vocals, and a softly effective rhythm section. CLANNAD MAGICAL RING

Clishmaclaver Hearing Double

The debut release by a long-acquainted duo is marked by its rich vocal harmony; Jennifer Culey and Brooke Parkhurst blend complimentary voices in this collection which reflects their appreciation for the traditional Gaelic sound (even their name is a Scottish Gaelic phrase meaning "idle gossip"). They incorporate history into their songs, employing one of the oldest traditions of storytelling. For instance, Susannah Martin, the story of a woman accused in Old Salem of being a witch, is recounted as the timeless medium of the "song tale" is maintained. Also includes a sample of Scottish "mouth music" (a tickety-split tongue-twister), an Appalachian shape-note hymn and a few contemporary ballads. Recommended! (BRP001) CS: 9.98

Clishmaclaver Roots Entwined

Clishmaclaver Roots Entwined

This recording, the duo's second, features mostly a cappella versions of Celtic (primarily Scottish) ballads and laments, both traditional and contemporary. They are also joined in spirit, yet crystalline, acoustic accompaniment — harp, bouzouki, cello, guitar — often one instrument per song, for a rich, clean sound; makes one think of sea-washed air and soft colors... Also includes Frankie Armstrong's I Don't Want Your Red, Red Roses; Twiddles: The Fire in the Glen; and Alvin Dunn. (BRP002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connie Dover Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scartaglen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scottish band Billy Wizard, Clippacallie and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Dordan Irish Traditional & Baroque

Some of you long-time Ladyslipper customers may recall an album by Irish tin whistle master Mary Bergin called Feadoga Stain. She's back (again on tin whistle of course), joining forces with Kathleen Loughrane and Dearbhail Standon on harp and fiddle in a great new Irish trio. Their music ranges in mood from the delicacy and sensitivity of a chamber trio, to the vigorous attack characteristic of traditional musicians. Many pieces reflect the lively musical links between Europe and Ireland over the last few centuries. Included: An How Pleasant 'Tis to Love Sylvia, The Fairy Reel, The Queen of the West, From a Little Notebook for Anna Magdalena Bach. Recommended! (SHN79079) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya

This is Enya's debut album, and it's truly glorious: multi-layered harmonies, chorals like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. Enya's definitely charting some new musical territory in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice: complemented by mellow pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! (ATL81842) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Enya Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Drinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! (GEF24233) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Enya Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "thickly" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of raw silk), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all entwining around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art... sigh... Highlights include the Gaelic Ebba and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this album... "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm & there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered a cappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jean Redpath First Flight

This 60-minute-plus collection brings together the best of her long out-of-print first recordings made for Elektra in the 60's. Recently over from Scotland, she sings traditional songs from varied sources, accompanying herself on guitar. (ROU11556) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jean Redpath, with Abby Newton

Lady Nairne

If you're collecting albums by Jean, we hope you'll consider this one, informing us that many of the best known and loved of Scottish popular songs are in fact the work of one woman. Jean here brings focused attention to this little-celebrated composer. Lady Nairne, a.k.a. Caroline Ophir, wrote during the late 1700s and early 1800s, usually anonymously with disguised handwriting, because women at the time were taught to shun notoriety. The songs were written for voice only (instruments were considered artificial music and were not permitted) but here are accompanied by Abby's lovely cello. Recommended! (PH1087) CS: 9.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!). Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Betty MacNeill, Blind Mary, Hammered dulcimer by Joemy with the Carolan Consort—an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitarist, a fiddler, a violinist, and harpist Sylvia Woods—all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended! (DM102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cottage

Joemy's second volume of music on hammered dulcimer by Turlough O'Carolan is yet another supreme album which deserves a spot on your shelf and stereo. With graceful accompaniment by the Carolan Consort (which includes Sylvia Woods, and Anissa Angorola), Joemy will transport you to the hills and fields of 18th century Ireland, via pianities and airs. Enchanting, don't miss it. (DM104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Celtic Dreams

Joemy's third volume in his Irish series truly captures the mystical Celtic spirit. On the 9 glorious O'Carolan tunes and other magical melodies from Ireland, Wales, Scotland and the Isle of Man, her shimmering dulcimer is complemented by the usual brilliant accompaniment of Sylvia Woods' harp, Anissa Angorola's guitar, Valerie King's flute, and Miamon Miller's violin. Includes Fairies Lamentation, Ash Grove, Mabel Kelly. (DM107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Celtic Harp: Secrets From The Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Defense of Guinevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional Celtic and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. (SQ123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Changes Like the Moon

A very witty-looking Celtic harp recording, based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: THE ROBE OF FEATHERS and THE SILKIE. Each tells a story of a beautiful magical female creature who is captured by a human male and is forced into marriage, until one day she escapes joyfully to her freedom. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and flauto, this is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful Secrets From the Stone. (SQ147) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

June Tabor

Airs and Graces

Few finer voices exist anywhere; this old favorite was originally released in 1976 on the Topic label, and was hard to find domestically. June was deservedly voted top British female vocalist more than once, and no collection of British Isles music would be complete without this. Features roxochord, bassoon and soprano; some double-tracked vocals; some acappella ballads carried solely by her mysterious, lower-register rare vocal timbre. Recommended. (SHN79055) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

June Tabor and the Oyster Band

Freedom and Rain

The majestic Queen of British folk collaborates here with renegades of electric folk, resulting in a stunning symbiosis of sound. This exuberant 10-song collection, featuring both traditional and contemporary material by writers such as Si Kahn, Billy Bragg, and Richard Thompson, makes us glad that June continues to stretch her musical self. Maddy Prior & June Tabor

Silly Sisters

An exquisitely wonderful duet album of traditional English songs. Though lyrics aren't your most progressive, these two outstanding British vocalists create perfect harmonies; plus a few fine solos... a better blend of voices is hard to find. Maddy Prior/J. Tabor; Silly Sisters

No More To The Dance

Twelve years after their first recorded collaboration, a new masterpiece by these two vocalists, whose harmonies do truly sound like they are of a family, breaks new ground for traditional music. It features innovative textures with touches of Eastern European harmony, and constantly shifting combinations of western, eastern, modern and traditional instruments (Chinese flutes, soprano sax, Celtic harp by the women of Siles, bagpipes, more). One of the most eagerly-awaited releases ever, and very highly recommended! (SHN79068) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone

Hammered Dulcimer Traditions

Maggie's second tape features all-instrumental arrangements of Celtic dance tunes and folk songs from England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, and America spanning the 13th to 20th centuries. The hammered dulcimer is embellished with an array of traditional instruments—harp, pennywhistle, concertina, bouzouki, viola da gamba, recorder, dobek, percussion—adding interesting and varied accompaniments, harmonies, and counter-rhythms. And, most of the musicians are women. High quality duplication; nice! (MM102) CS: 9.98

Mist & Stone

This 1990 release is a beautiful collection of Celtic tunes from Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, and Galicia, performed on hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and other instruments. The selections explore the rich and varied musical kingdoms of an ancient past, as they create textures and moods which are often evocative and haunting. Includes Foggy Dew, Sally Gardens, 18th century harp airs, ligs and reels. Recommended! (MM106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

No Frontiers

Characterized by lots of tremendous harmonies, this 1989 release leans more toward a pop sound, while still retaining an acoustic foundation: guitars, double bass, accordion, piano, sax... and Mary's interpretive abilities still shine through. Includes several beautiful love songs, and, no less, a cover of the Dionne Warwick hit Say a Little Prayer. (GIF77308) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Babes in the Wood

This 1991 recording is a collection of contemporary ballads and softly rocking pop songs in which Mary has succeeded in convincing this reviewer that her lovely voice is suited to styles other than traditional Celtic... Accompanied here by a rich variety of acoustic instruments (dobro, mandolin, accordion, guitars, piano, fiddle, double bass), she covers none other than Joni Mitchell's The Urge for Going, Richard Thompson's The Denning of the Day, as well as other gems by contemporary folk songwriters. Impeccable arrangements and production. (GIF77528) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Maura O'Connell

A Real Life Story

Moving into a more slick production and electric sound can't hide the fact that Maura's lovely voice is deepening into a seasoned richness that is as rare as it is enjoyable—joined on one cut (A Family Tie, about alcoholism) by her three sisters; other highlights include: Shawn Colvin's I Don't Know Why, Janis Ian's Unwinding, and Lennon/McCartney's For No One, with only dobro and acoustic guitar accompaniment—gorgeous! Maura O'Connell

Just in Time

This Irish artist is a chart-topping star in her own country, for obvious reasons known to anyone who's listened to her incredibly smooth, rich vocals, and she's now gaining an international reputation in the acoustic music community. Her U.S. debut release, produced by Bela Fleck, features Nanci Griffith and Jonathan Edwards on background vocals. Includes an acappella, multi-tracked version of her self-harmonies on The Water is Wide; plus others perfectly selected to complement her Irish inflections, such as The Isle of Malachy, Leaving Naidin. Recommended! (PH1124) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell

Helpless Heart

Gorgeous, lilting, rich, fresh—these adjectives come immediately to this reviewer's mind upon first listening to Maura's voice. Produced by the inestimable Bela Fleck, this recording combines the above qualities with New Acoustic influences & musicians (Bela, Dave Grisman, Grey Larson) on acoustic guitar, dobro, banjo, mandolin, piano, pedal steel guitar, fiddles and bass—simply the greatest! Material covered is primarily contemporary folk, like Cheryl Wheeler's Summerly, Nanci Griffith's Travelling in the Fields, Paul Brady's Helpless Heart, and Karla Bonoff's Only a Fool and Not if Always Love. This 1991 release reconfirms the legendary group's pre-eminence in the British folk-rock scene. The unique combination of Jacqui McShee's haunting vocals, Nigel Portman-Smith's virtuosic bass and keyboards, and Bert Jansch's amazing guitar, creates a vibrant blend of folk, jazz and blues. Who Knows Where the Time Goes 3-Set

This definitive collection, a 3-CD boxed set with 20-page booklet, features over 50 per cent previously unreleased material from studio recordings, live performances, out-takes and demos, plus rare versions of some of her best. The songs and notes track her history and remarkable singing and songwriting contributions to Fairport Convention and Folketing, plus early works from Sandy and the Strawbs, movers from The Bunch, and many solo selections. She was one of the originators of British folk-rock, influencing a decade of British and American music by introducing traditional ballads and a revivalist folk approach to the solid rock generation. Scartagien Last Night's Fun

Featuring the crystalline vocals of Connie Dover (not to mention her skilled harmonium and keyboard contributions), this quartet explores the history and mystery of Celtic music. The album delves into the Irish roots of American music, featuring instrumental reels and jigs, a Civil War-era lament, and a song about Irish emigration. While the gorgeously-played instrumentals strive to outshine the vocals, the listener will be captivated by Connie's singing; her voice is as strong and clear as a finely-tuned bell, and lucky for us, graces several of the songs, including title cut, The May Morning Dew, and Rosemary Lane. This 1992 release is destined to become one of your favorites, we're sure! (CIT3342) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shelley Phillips and Friends The Fairie Round

This 1990 album showcases an extraordinary versatility of the artist on oboe, flute, piccolo, recorder, harp, English horn, mandolin, tin whistle and dulcimer. It's an eclectic anthology of traditional Irish, English and Welsh tunes and dances, Renaissance, Baroque and Classical selections — and even a bit of wild Bulgarian folk song. Shelley is joined by a talented ensemble of musicians on winds and strings in this delightful synergy; selections include title, The Ashgrove, Bourrée, Hornpipe, Chanters' Tune, Skye Boat Song. Steeleye Span Below the Salt

We thought we'd give this ground-breaking group, which Maddy Prior has graced with her amazing lead vocals for over 20 years now, another whirl in our catalog. This band has contemporized traditional British Isles folk ballads with fresh interpretations and rock-oriented instrumentation... their selections sometimes zany, sometimes merry, sometimes sinister! This album is one of their earliest, but in this reviewer's humble opinion, one of their best. (SHN79039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sue Richards Grey Eyed Morn

Celtic harp virtuosa and 3 times US National Scottish Harp Champion, Sue breaks new ground in her debut solo album of traditional tunes from Scotland, Ireland and Wales. Bringing a new vitality to this traditional music without compromising the essence and spirit of its source, an engaging combination of harp solos and ensemble music is created, rich in texture and endless variety evoking the myths and legends of the ancient Celts. She is accompanied on fiddle, viola da gamba, guitar and hammered dulcimers... a stunning showcase from beginning to end! (MM201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tailtha MacKenzie & Martin Swan Mouth Music

Truly a remarkable, innovative, mesmerizing synthesis of the traditional Gaelic singing style called "puirt a beul" or "mouth music," with African rhythms and modern keyboard technology! Tailtha is the vocalist on this intense material which she discovered when she traveled to Edinburgh to study Scottish and ancient Gaelic culture in depth. Martin the instrumentalist and arranger (except on one which Tailtha arranged). They say it's a matter of finding a strong rhythm which complements the traditional song structures, and then creating some kind of tension or powerful or surprising harmonic context in which they happen... and they've certainly accomplished just that. Highly recommended! (RYK196) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists A Celebration of the Irish Harp

This double-length album (90 minutes) encompasses a collection of harpers, harps and styles of the likes which we've never heard or seen! Nearly 40 tracks were recorded by 10 of Houston's best harpers, all female, including 10-year old Stacey Franklin, performing on a dazzling variety of harps and featuring a touch of additional instrumentation: guitar, flute, voice, bodhran, cello and sax. Quite simply the most comprehensive collection of Irish harp we've got! If you like Irish music or harp music, you're in for a treat! (BEL101) CS: 12.98

Angelique Ionatos/Nena Venetsanou Sappho de Mytilene

Sappho's poems set to music! This French import is the brainchild of Angelique Ionatos, a Greek composer and guitarist who specializes in setting Classical Greek poetry to music. Joined in lovely harmonies by another well-known Greek vocalist, Nena Venetsanou, and with a simple tableau of instrumental accompaniment (guitar, oboe, recorders, oud, marimba, table, vitraphone), the result is a perfect marriage of lyric and musical expressions... Sappho, perhaps the most famed yet enigmatic of the Lesbian poets has historically received little acclaim for her genius, and this recording pays her just homage. Lyrics are sung in Classical and Modern Greek, but are translated only into French (liner notes are in English, French and Greek). Certainly one of the most unique and beautiful recordings in our catalog! Put this on at your next gathering of friends — may it lend you grace. (AUV0160) CD: 16.98

Annabouboula In the Baths of Constantinople

This blend of ancient and contemporary music is created by 1 female and 2 male Greek-Americans who currently divide their time between Athens and NY. In an effort to bridge the strict division between Greek traditional music and the western pop scene, they have taken belly dance and rembetika music, and added a funky rhythm and a wild psychedelic undertow to moody songs of passion and heartbreak. Lead singer Anna Padooussi-Dreksipoulou gives voice to songs like Moroccan Girl and I'm Not a Little Girl. Annabouboula is a Greek word meaning: all mixed up, brou-ha-ha, cacophony or babble or noise, an unholy racket, a confused uproar. (SHN64022) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Annabouboula Greek Fire

On their second release, this trio performs more material based on traditional Greek music, particularly rembetika ("originating as folk songs associated with the hash-smoking bohemian underclass of large Aegean seaports, rembetika music is analogous to American blues: dark and moody songs of passion"), using traditional as well as electric instruments and adding pop and dance rhythms. Includes Opium Bride. (SHN64027) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Carmen Linares Cantaora

This outstanding Spanish artist is known as perhaps the greatest living female Flamenco singer, with both respect for the traditional form and a creative penchant for innovation. Her voice goes from a throaty wail to a whispering plea, rich with emotion and with a total immersion in the lyrics. This passionate delivery simply amplifies Flamenco's already high intensity, so that the listener cannot remain uninvolved — experience it for yourself! Accompanied, of course, by acoustic guitars, hand claps and foot stomps. One of the Women of the World series... recommended! (RVB1004) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Dzintars: The Latvian Women's Choir Songs of Amber

Dzintar is the Latvian word for amber, a warmly glowing fossilized stone that is considered a national symbol among Latvians. The Dzintars Choir is the leading female choir in Latvia, with 76 vocalists plus 2 conductors, 2 instrumentalists, 2 choir masters, and a soloist! Produced by Mickey Hart and Jerry Garcia when the choir toured the US in 1988, the album features a cross-section of their extensive repertoire, including traditional and modern Latvian music as well as songs of other countries. Edith Piaf Very Best of/ Voice of the Sparrow

In this world of ever-changing availability on Piaf titles, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (16 songs) and available on CD. Ingrid Karklins A Darker Passion

This 1992 release is a most amazing and unique addition to our catalog! Ingrid, a resident of Austin, grew up with the music and dance of Latvia. Using an ancient lap harp, violin, keyboards and sampler, she creates music that, while rooted in tradition, is experimental, daring and assertive, shades of Laurie Anderson! Latvian melodies and American lullabies combine within textures that are at once dreamlike and nightmarish, while her own diverse voice wafts over African-inspired percussion. Therefore, we have no "earthly" idea where to place this in our catalog... so because we're pretty taken with her Latvian material, we guess we'll classify it there, but don't be expecting a whole album of traditional stuff. Highly recommended! (GL1119) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jeanne Newhall French Cafe

The mood here is romantic, Parisian, impressionistic. Jeanne is an exceptionally talented American pianist, who has created an album of music by primarily French composers — all her own piano arrangements. We don't carry much solo piano music, usually it's too nondescript... but this is quite varied (from Edith Piaf's La Vie en Rose to Gabriel Faure's Pavane), and thematic enough to hold the threads together, and somehow appeals to some underlying romanticism that must be present in most of us. Listening to this, I'm able to pretend that I am sitting in a French Cafe. (MZP0921) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kitka

Called "Le Mystère des Voix San Francisco" by one of the soloists of the Bulgarian State Female Vocal Choir, Kitka performed at the Michigan festival in 1990, and this debut tape is available for those of you who didn't make the past event! They're indisputably one of the most outstanding U.S. women's vocal ensembles specializing in the hauntingly beautiful and emotive vocal music of Eastern Europe. Included here are diaphanous village-style duets, modern Balkan choral works, and original arrangements of traditional melodies by artistic director Ben Brown. Cello, recorder, cimbalom and flute accompany the 14 vocalists, who can sound like twice that many. The selections are tremendous; highly recommended! (KIT1) CS: 9.98

Koutev Bulgarian National Ensemble Bulgaria's Great Women's Voices

Years before Le Mystère des Voix Bulgares, this recording was issued, and has been sitting in the record label's back catalog in relative obscurity... well, it's time to change that, so buy this! This company of 75 singers, dancers and musicians from Sofia performs traditional songs and dances. The vocal harmonies are particularly astounding, of course. Also contains 4 selections by the Pinn Bulgarian Folk Ensemble — equally incredible. Recommended! (MON402) CS: 9.98

Le Mystère des Voix Bulgares

An entrancing and thoroughly gorgeous recording which has captivated the imaginations of thousands of American listeners. The Bulgarian Female Vocal Choir performs traditional folk tunes with breathtaking harmonies which can be either melodic or dissonant, natural or surprising, but are always precise, luxuriously rich, and resonant. Mari Boine Persen

Gula Gula

Mari Boine is Sa'mi (more commonly known as a "Laplander", a term considered derogatory by the Sa'mi), a people native to what is now known as Northern Finland, Norway, Sweden and Russia. As with many aboriginal cultures, maintaining their language and cultural sovereignty in the face of domination by another culture is very difficult, and this recording communicates thousands of words for each one uttered. Gula Gula means "Hear the Voices of the Foremothers", and many of the songs here are reflective of an oppressed woman's rage and determination to succeed. Titles include Viiges Soit (White Thief), Bale Badiel Go Vuolttin (When I Win Against Fear), Eapman Ba'it (To Woman), Oppasit for Herve'loik (Recipe for a Master Race). Sung in Sa'mi, with English translations; the label is Peter Gabriel's, designed to promote world music. Highly recommended! (RW91631) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Maria Burmaka

Maria

This Ukrainian singer possesses a vibrant, passionate and endearing voice, so even if you don't speak her language, you'll probably understand the emotion and political statement behind her words. Drawing upon centuries of her culture's folk repertoire, plus songs by powerful young poets, her music is a statement of pride — of being Ukrainian, at a time of Ukraine's rebirth. Compelling and gorgeous; reminiscent of Latin American New Song, both aurally and in purpose and effect. Recommended! (YFP1064) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Celia Cruz & Ray Barretto

Ritmo en el Corazon

Produced by and backed up by Ray Barretto and his orchestra, Celia continues to scorch the airwaves with her lightning-hot vocals. The music here reflects more of an island influence, with the piano and congas in the forefront, and a slightly mellower horn section than is usual for many salsa recordings. Songs include El Chisme (The Gossip), Mala Suerte (Bad Luck), and Bamburaca Tunga. Recommended! (HOT124) CS: 10.98

Eli Machado

Edi

With an unmistakably Afro-Brazilian beat and a vibrant array of percussion instruments, Eli makes her mark by successfully combining elements from the following traditions: Brazilian samba, African rhythms, Latin and American funk, reggae, and jazz scat! Eli is also a renowned dancer, and she builds the sound and rhythm very specifically around the dance. (She grew up in the Brazilian city of Bahia; there, she learned the dancing styles of the candomblé rites, which fused African tribal with Roman Catholic traditions.) Her material is original, her voice spicy, her delivery high-energy, and the overall performance a creative blend of cultures. (BNS102) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Marta Sebestyen

Muzzikas

Muzzikas is Hungary's most popular folk group; Marta is the band's wonderful lead singer, and this album is considered to be one of her best! The traditional dances and songs feature instruments such as violin, zither, kobos, kontra, buzuki, duduk, and shawm, creating very haunting, gypsy-like sounds, blending eastern and western idioms. Marta Sebestyen

Apocrypha

Known to most as the lead singer of the Hungarian traditional group, Muzzikas, Marta also has 3 collaborations with Karoly Cserepes: Love, Christmas and Emigration. Western demand has been steadily increasing, and this resulting compilation features cuts from each of those albums. The instrumentation is a rich blend of synthesized and traditional sounds, quite unique and beautiful, with lyrics sung in Hungarian — English and French translations provided. The best contemporary Hungarian music we've found to date! (HAN1368) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Sophia Billedes

Greek Legacy

This Greek-Italian second-generation American presents traditional songs from the mainland, island, and Asia Minor populations of Greece for both listening and dancing. Comfortable with a wide variety of regional vocal styles, from island synto to urban zaberkio, her voice is deep and rich and expressive. She accompanies herself on the traditional santouri (hammered dulcimer), while being supported on laouto (lute), violi (violin), clarino (clarinet), and dumbelisi (drum). These aren't updated, waterlized versions of traditional songs with dance beats or synthesized instrumentation; it's the pure stuff, well researched, with an "old world" sound of ageless beauty. Vychodna Dolina

Echoes of Slovakia

This album features a choir of 12 Carpatho-Rusyn Slovak women from Czechoslovakia (now residing in NYC) accompanied by director Stephanie Salony on accordion, performing 16 songs from the different Slovak regions, in each area's particular dialect. Many of the songs feature the chorus with solo vocal interludes. The overall effect is bouncy and fun-inspiring — folks, anyone? (VYC25) CS: 9.98

Altazor

Blending music from the New Song movements of South America, from Afro-Puerto Rican ritual, from the traditional rhythms of Cuba, and from other sources, Altazor's sounds and messages are vibrant, passionate, and wonderful! The ensemble of 4 women — Licha Fuentes from Chile (some of you will remember her from Grupo Raiz), Vanessa Wang from the US, Dulce Argueta from Cuba, and Jacqueline Bago from Venezuela — employs gorgeous harmonies and a rich variety of traditional instrumentation, with lyrics reflective of the struggles of people the world over. Recommended! (RR8904) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Amigas Y Su Grupo Ritmo

This fantastic Latin salsa ensemble from New Mexico is headed by two women, Yvonne Urbani and Chris Phillips; vocalists, instrumentalists and songwriters. Their band, consisting of one woman and 4 men, provides an astounding amount of percussion; together they create one of the sweetest, most rhythmic, exciting and danceable offerings in our catalog. Most songs in Spanish. (UB1) CS: 9.98

Amparo Ochoa

El Cancionero Popular

This album of political folk songs features the contributions of another of Mexico's primary voices of Nueva Canción, Los Folkloristas. Songs include El Barzon, Tierra Humeda, Jugar a la Vida, Mi Abuelo. Mexican import. (ALC022) CS: 11.98

Emma Junaro/ Matilde Casazola

Mi Corazon en la Ciudad

Mercedes Sosa fans, take note! Here's another artist you'll probably appreciate. Emma Junaro's history: the Bolivian group Altaplano's lead singer, and the one who introduced them to Nueva Canción, she chose to stay on after the 1980 coup forced many artists to flee, developing a more subtle style of protest song — obvious to the people but incomprehensible to the government. Her first solo album went gold, one of the only Bolivian releases to ever do so. Here she performs all songs by another great Bolivian woman — composer/poet singer/guitarist/painter, Matilde Casazola — in an inspired effort to develop a new direction for Andean music. It's a quietly beautiful album, led by acoustic guitar, with Andean pan pipes, piano and percussion, all wrapped around her soft, strong voice. First in a series entitled Women of the World. Highly recommended! (RVR1003) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Fior de Cana

Dancing on Wall/Bailando en Muralia

There's much more to say about this 1991 album than space allows, but here goes: This 5-woman, 5-man group combines a very successful blend of Latin American musics, from Puerto Rican bombas and Dominican merengues to Uruguayan candombes and vals from Venezuela (plus a variety of salsas). Lead vocalist Rosemarie Brainer-Amador's delivery is sweet and succinct, while the lyrics (primarily Spanish, with printed English translations) succeed in conveying the pain and exultation of "po, xai" issues without being rhetorical or ranting. The rich bevy of instruments are expertly played, and while reflecting the heritage of the cultures they are from, are also mixed up with a light-hearted reverence; e.g. using Andean pipes on an Afro-Puerto Rican bomba. Highly recommended! (FF577) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Guardabarranco

Si Buscabas (If You Were Looking)

Sister and brother Kalia and Salvador Cardenal are part of the Nicaraguan New Song movement called Volcanta—from volcan (volcano) and canto (song)—symbolic of the eruption of music, poetry, and cultural expression in Nicaragua since the triumph of the Sandinista revolution in 1979. Produced by Jackson Browne, this is one of the first albums of Nicaraguan music available in the U.S. Its beauty is virtually indescribable—but could easily bring tears to one's eyes: the quiet vibrance and richness of the music and poetry transcends any language barriers, and "destroys State Department rhetoric right there before your eyes" says Holly Near. Spanish lyrics and English translations included only with LP. Recommended! (RR8501) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Días de Amar (Days of Love)

I don't think I would find Guardabarranco's second release as moving, as breath-taking, as shockingly beautiful as I found their debut album; it seemed physically impossible! But, I am here to admit that this is true, es de verdad... Kalia's voice still reaches that pure sweetness which bursts open the heart, with words of love, strength y esperanza hope. When she duets with her brother Salvador, the power of their genetic harmonies has the strength to move mountains! Includes Corazón de Niño, A Child's Heart, Colibrí Hummingbird, and the luminous title song. Gorgeous, lovely, just plain great—get it! Sung in Spanish, with printed lyrics and English translations. (RR8102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Huayucaltia

Amazonas

Cindy Harling, a founding member of the group Sabia, is married to the incredible Peruvian guitarist Ciro Hurtado; both of them are pivotal members of this very excellent quintet (Cindy is the only woman, the primary occasional vocalist, and the only member from the U.S.; the others are from Mexico, Argentina, and Colombia). This 1992 release is a primarily instrumental passage through a teeming jungle of primordial rhythms and glistering cascades of sound. The music is like no other: a blending of elegant jazz, jubilant flamenco, and haunting folk and classical styles. They perform on a myriad of Andean instruments from which they coax incredible sounds: rushing water, birds, keening winds. Musically outstanding! (ROM26012) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Irene Farrera

Irene

A sumptuous, very womanly and woman-oriented tape by a Venezuelan singer/guitarist who now resides in Oregon. Her voice is strong, deep, and richly-textured; her rhythms abundant, and she beautifully interprets works of contemporary Brazilian composers and other South American songwriters such as Chilean and Peruvian poets Violeta Parra and Chabuata Granda. The sambas, reggaes, and baiões are performed with Brazilian/Caribbean/Latin nuances... she plays the music of a continent, of the tropics, of the people of Latin America. Includes Gracias a la Vida, Magdalena, Senora Melancholy. Highly recommended! (IF1) CS: 9.98

La India Mellyara

La Sonora Mellyara

Melida Yara Yanguma, nicknamed "La India" due to her strong native appearance, has become one of Colombia's only female band leaders... as well as a fabulous singer, known to many for her work with super-group Sonora Dinamita. Here, interpreting cumbia (Colombia's traditional national) rhythms with great skill and passion, she presents an album perfect for dancing and moving, with lots of percussion and horns. One of the Women of the World series. (RVB1005) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Los Folkloristas

Mexico!

This 2-woman, 5-man ensemble has been in existence for 25 years (I don't think there have always been women in it—I'm sure someone will correct me if I'm wrong), and in spite of such an extensive performing and recording history, this is the first U.S. pressing of any of their titles. Involved in the preservation of the traditional music of Latin America and its massive repertoire, they sing in Spanish and several indigenous dialects, and play over 100 different instruments! This volume offers an overview of music from all over Mexico, representing a variety of cultures, and includes lyrics and English translations. (FFS21) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Margareth Menezes

Elegio

This African/Brazilian vocalist has a husky style reminiscent of Lorraine Segato (Parachute Club), and an eclectic musical sensibility: songs range from pop to samba to merengue to reggae, in languages from Portuguese to Yoruban to French! Elegio is an ancient Yoruban city, and the song is an exaltation to Osala, god of the African rituals; other titles include: Natureza Mãe (Mother Nature), Maravilha Morina (Dark Skinned Wonder), Negra Melodia (Black Melody) and Hino Das Águas (Hymn to the Waters). Produced by David Byrne of the Talking Heads. (MNG9855) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maria Bethania

Memória da Pele/ Memory of Skin

This wonderful and popular "tropicalist" singer, sister of the famous lyricist Caetano Veloso, is quite "out" in her native Brazil, so we hear her deep, smooth, husky, coffee-with-cream voice caresses songs in a variety of lush styles on this 1989 release. Includes Morena (Dark-Skinned Girl), Paio do Ouro (Storehouse of Gold), whose lyrics translate: "Oxum, goddess of the waters. Sweet, singer queen. You reign over my throat, from whence this sound comes. I offer you perfume and flowers for having given me this talent"; and Salve as Folhas (Save the Leaves), a song to the spirit which governs the leaves, an integral part of Afro-Brazilian rhythm. Mercedes Sosa

Assorted Titles-Ladyslipper To Pick

Mercedes Sosa is an Argentinian New Song vocalist/interpreter, people's musician, whose vocal qualities are not easily described, but words like penetrating, melancholy, searing, dark, intense, reverent, steadfast, beautiful, exquisite, scolding, intelligent come close. She sings in Spanish, but somehow communicates a message that is political even to those who don't speak that language. Her music was banned in Chile in the early 70s when the military junta took power, and was also banned in her home country for awhile. Perhaps some of you will have heard her on Holly's 1990 release Singer in the Storm, and being as moved by her as we are, will want to explore her discography. We hope everyone who reads this catalog will try out her music; but, supply is so erratic, we can rarely predict which titles will be available. The simplest thing to do is to order this generic "Assorted Titles," and let us pick one for you. If there are any you already have or do not want, please specify. (SOSA7) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 19.98

Milly, Jocelyn y los Vecinos

7+1 = Vecinos

Meet Milly Quetzada, merengue's first and most well-known female superstar, her sister Jocelyn, and her two brothers. Merengue is lickety-split-fast Latin dance music originating in the Dominican Republic, with lots of percussion and horns, and some vocals reminding us of Scottish mouth music in its sheer speed. Milly's also the first woman to sing merengue commercially, and the only merengue great to live outside the Dominican Republic (her family came to New York in 1965). She reputedly enjoys singing about women leaving machista men; no lyrics or translations are provided here, so we're not sure of the content, but this is one of their most recent releases (1991), and includes La Reina (The Queen). Fabulous sound; you'll never sit still. Highly recommended! (MP6038) CD: 15.98

Sabia

Portavoz

Fortunately we still have some recordings available from this accomplished Nueva Cancion ensemble which is unfortunately (for us) now disbanded. This 1985 release presents a repertoire of political and liberation songs about the people of Nicaragua, El Salvador, Bolivia, and other parts of the globe. About a third is instrumental, a third in Spanish, and a third in English; recommended! (FF412) CS: 9.98

MERCEDES SOSA

Live! En Vivo!

Their tenth anniversary live-in-concert album features some of their best material and all of the group's present and alumni members. Includes La Andina, Volver a los 17 by Violeta Parra, Mujer Sandinista and more. Never Turning Back includes spontaneous participation by the LA Women's Community Choir! Spontad, rhythmic, political, compassionate, harmonious. Recommended! (FF494) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sukay

Mama Luna

This 1-woman 2-man trip presents lovely Ecuadorian, Peruvian, and Bolivian music featuring pitched bamboo flutes, pan pipes, and charangos or Andean guitars, with lead vocals by Quentin Howard (a woman). Some contemporary material with Spanish lyrics is included in addition to their trademark traditional instrumentals; so this, their fifth release, should appeal to an even broader audience. Tish Hinojosa

Homeland

A fusion of country/folk/pop melodies and Latin instrumentation, the songs of this 1989 album reflect this Mexican-American singer/songwriter's musings in the liner notes, "...wondering how my love for my parents' humble Mexican heritage and language would mix with idealistic American images of a musical future." The first cut Joaquín imagines the motivations for illegal border crossing, while West Side of Town recreates the story of her parents' lives, and Rancherita (Little Ranch Girl), a sweet song of courtship. Sung partly in English and partly in Spanish, this album employs a variety of instruments, including harmonica, pedal steel, dobro, accordion, fiddle, bongos and more. (AM5263) CS: 10.98 ... Tish Hinojosa

Aquella Noche

Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist/singer/songwriter/guitarist brings an emotional integrity to her work that readily surpasses that of your average "folk singer"; this live recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide line-for-line English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Fueces, Vuelvete (You Who Can Return—the Atahualpa Yupanqui classic anthemicized so beautifully by Mercedes Sosa), her original waltz Menos Huecos y Sangre (Hands, Bones and Blood, for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Dixie Chicks

Thank Heavens for Dale Evans

This very last minute addition to our 1993 catalog has been off-requested and suggested, so we're glad we can offer it even though we don't even have time to review it properly! Terrific music from an all-women's ensemble on their 1990 debut release: a perfect blend of country, bluegrass, and western swing played with impressive vocal skill and sterling vocal harmonies. (CCR9103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dixie Chicks

Little Ol' Cowgirl

Ditto on their second, 1992 release: here they present a little less bluegrass and a little more country, with a bit of doo-wop and even the jazzy original Pink Zephyr. Good choices in covers too: includes an interesting bluegrass version of Sam Cooke's You Send Me, and a raging take on Mary Chapin-Carpenter's A Road Is Just A Road. Be sure to not miss!! Emmylou Harris

Bluebird

Favored by some as her best recording, this 1988 effort certainly shines! Always a "songwriter's singer", she chooses material here which features her strongest vocal trait — the ability to break your heart in just a few notes! Joined by Bonnie Raitt, Kate and Anna McGarrigle, and a host of other talented folks, songs include the McGarrigle's Love Is, her original A River for Him, John Hiatt's icy Blue Heart, and the rickrolling Heartbreak Hill. Iris DeMent

Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelhood by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Cry). Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Hotter Than Mojave in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing — she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. k.d. lang and the Reclines

A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found a supply of k.d.'s debut release, which we've been trying to get our hands on for about 4 years. Unfortunately, they come to us at a very high import cost. It's a great rock-out album (1994) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chronicled: Bopatia ("she's my gal"), Hanky Panky, her original Pine and Stew, plus Patsy Cline's Stop, Look and Listen and 5 others. No k.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM06) CS: 14.98 CD: 25.98

k.d. lang and the Reclines

Angel With A Lariat

This Canadian artist has become a major sensation in country-rock, and for good reason! Her deep voice is strong and resonant (yes, even that worn-out word powerful), her delivery punchy, and her high energy inspires a raucous good time, and she's already creating some new fans of country and rockabilly from the ranks of women's music as well as from the mainstream. Includes several originals such as Watch Your Step Polka and the song, plus other rousing numbers like Tune Into My Wave. Fabulous! (SIR25441) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang

Shadowland

Highlight here is Honky Tonk Angels' Medley (a medley of In the Evening, When the Sun Goes Down, You Nearly Lost Your Mind, and Blues Stay Away From Me), with vocals by "The Honky Tonk Angels", consisting of no less than Kilty Wells, Loretta Lynn, Brenda Lee, and k.d. herself!! Some of you have no doubt seen the terrific video. More evocative, sultry and powerhouse vocals from k.d., in less of a ready, more country-ballad style than her first release. It's dynamite; don't miss it! (SIR25724) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang and The Reclines

Absolute Torch and Twang

Following Shadowland, this album is true to the title, with country ballads resonating from the Canadian prairies. Some great originals, such as Nowhere to Stand, It's Me, Walkin' In And Out of Your Arms, and Big-Boned Gal, as well as absolute country croons like Full Moon Full of Love. All her love songs quite genderless. A talent to be reckoned with, and an album for all fans. (SIR25877) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ingenue

Since we're writing this prior to its actual release, here's from the blurb sheet: "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dripped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chetelaine, Constant Craving, Wash Me Clean, and Save Me. K.T. Oslin

80's Ladies

This release by one of country music's rising stars is gaining a lot of word-of-mouth popularity in the women's community. Most of the songs are original, and it's all solid pop country material: broken hearts, mended hearts, loves lost and found, and, of course, a few memories. In the title song, she sings about the ways women her age (late 30's) have grown up over the years. Also includes the humorous Younger Men ("the only trouble with being a woman my age is the men my age"). (RCA5924) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

A Collection of Hits

Kathy was nominated for country singer of the year in 1990, gaining her much-deserved recognition, and this album is a taste of all of her best. From the first cut, a rendition of Nancy Griffith's Love at the Five and Dime, she demonstrates her ability to make a song her own. This album also includes Walk the Way the Wind Blows, Train of Memories, and 18 Wheels and a Dozen Roses. A must for all long time Kathy Mattea fans and new converts. I Don't Know If They Let Cowgirls In

From lead and harmony vocals, to pedal steel, banjo, guitars, keyboards, midi bass and linn drum, to production, to engineering, to graphics... these two women did it all! They cover favorite country tunes, stylistically as true to form as one can get, with wonderful harmonies and arrangements. Just When I Needed You Most, The Rose, I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, Help Me Make It Through the Night, Texas When I Die, and others requested by the audiences in the women's bars where they often perform. Buy this tape and help them get their name out there a bit farther: they deserve it, and it's pure enjoyment. Recommended! (CIM001) CS: 9.98

This 1986 album created quite a buzz. Her delivery is straightforward and frank, expressing in her songs an approach to love she feels is an outgrowth of feminism — a wish to have what she wants, live as she wants. She has a great country voice, strains of Louisiana and Texas, and the back-up is tasteful, just country enough. (RTR47) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lucinda Williams

Ramblin'

Recorded in 1976, this album reminds us that few artists have shared Lucinda's ability to get to the heart of country blues. She brings to the songs of Robert Johnson, Memphis Minnie and others, her already distinctive sound, filled with melancholy yet powerfully direct. Remastered and re-released in 1991. Mary-Chapin Carpenter

Shooting Straight in the Dark

This 1990 release of mostly original songs confirms the promise of the earlier albums of this city girl gone country. Ranging from raucous and highly danceable cuts such as Right Now and Down at the Twist and Shout to the plaintive ballad of The More Things Change, these songs are about looking for love and love lost. Shawn Colvin makes a guest appearance on The Moon and Saint Christopher. Strongly suggested. (COL46077) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter

Come On Come On

Her spectacularly smooth voice and suggestive, often hard-hitting, lyrics make a great combination once again on this 1992 release — she blends her country/folk rhythms with some feminist messages that should make many men think twice! He Thinks He'll Keep Her looks at the motivations of many housewives who choose the road instead of their husbands, while The Hard Way will remind many women to appreciate how far we've come against odds men never face. Also includes a great rendition of Lucinda Williams' Passionate Kisses, and the outstanding title cut. Some background vocals by Indigo Girls, Shawn Colvin, Roseanne Cash. (COL48987) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter Hometown Girl

Her 1987 debut album contains title, Heroses and Heroines, A Lot Like Me, Other Sheets and Other Towns, and more — mostly originals, with her fabulous voice being the reason you just gotta have this. We didn't know about this in 1987, but are glad we do now! (COL44226) CS: 10.98 CD: 13.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter State of the Heart

If you weaken at the knees at the sound of a great voice, this is for you. This rising star has one of the strongest, surest, most wonderful voices in contemporary country music, and this 1989 album is a testament to her songwriting, vocal, and instrumental talents. Includes Read My Lips, This Shift, Down in Mary's Land, Quiltin' Time, and back-up vocals by her good friend Shawn Colvin! (COL44226) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Little Love Affairs

Nanci's album covers are nearly as evocative as her music, and this one's no exception. It's an intimate portrait of her dressed as a Texas schoolgirl (complete with bino on her school uniform and bluebonnet in hand) surrounded by books and records by other Texans who've obviously been significant to her. The album is full of touching portraits of real lives and loves, beautifully rendered by Nanci and her back-up musicians. Features the poignant, Irish-sounding title song. (MCA42102) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith One Fair Summer Evening

This 1988 release, recorded live in concert, contains Looking For the Time (Workin' Girl), Trouble in the Fields, favorites from A Distance, Once in a Very Blue Moon, and more, on her only bare-boned acoustic album to date. Intimately communicates the ambience of her musical herstory — the club it was recorded in, Anderson Fair, is where she received much of her musical education when she was growing up. (MCA42255) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith Lone Star State of Mind

Underscoring her fall-fledged move into the country arena, her first major-label release comes complete with dobro and pedal-steel backup. Includes In the Distance, Sing One for Sister, Cold Hearts, Closed Minds, Fort Eleonore (for Rosalie Sorrels and Kate Wolf), Trouble in the Fields, about the difficulties of the farmers, and a re-recording of the sweet tribute to her best childhood friend, There's a Light Beyond These Woods (Mary Margaret). Highly recommended...a favorite in the Slipper office! (MCA5527) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Storms

This 1989 release, like her previous titles, is another great traveling companion: primarily original ballads, with images of the road, driving with music playing, and the country south. Includes Drive-In Movies and Dashboard Lights. It's a Hard Life Wherever You Go. (MCA5319) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith Late Night Grande Hotel

On this 1991 release, this "folkabilly" artist continues her tradition of singing "stories and vignettes of life" — her literate short-story songs with Gatsby-drawn characters. Highlight is Heaven, another jewel by Julie Gold, of From A Distance fame (and in fact, you can hear Julie herself sing this on the folk collection On A Winter's Night, under Various Artists in our Folk Section). Also included are duets with Tanita Tikaram (It's Too Late Now) and Phil Everly (It's Just Another Morning Here). (MCA10306) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

ALISON BROWN Simple Pleasures

Aileen Vance Take A Step

This 1986 recording debuts Aileen's wonderful sweet voice, 6- and 12-string guitars, and covers both original and interpreted material. Like many other female folkies of note (Sally Rogers and Claudia Schmidt, for example), Aileen's "spark" as a folksinger comes from her ability to take the small personal details of our lives and speak larger truths about them. Includes Grandma's Banjo, a lovely, passionate reminiscence to a youngster by a foremother marching to protect future generations, plus Your Daughters and Your Sons and The Strength to Keep Going. (AVE001) CS: 9.98

Nanci Griffith Once in a Very Blue Moon

Nanci's third release has a real country rock sound that makes you want to grab your favorite partner and dance. Daddy Said is among her best, followed closely by Bailed of Robin Hunter-Smith. Her style, though definitely Texan, brings to mind this reviewer's time spent in the El Dorado Hotel in Weedsport, NY...got the picture? If you like Rosanne Cash, Bonnie Raitt, or Emmylou Harris, you're sure to love Nanci. (PH1095) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith There's a Light Beyond These Woods

The title song is a touching original bailed to her childhood best friend, Mary Margaret, many other originals of love, lost dreams, and her Texas home. Lovely acoustic guitar and voice! Eric Taylor on one lead vocal. Recommended. (PH1097) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Poet in My Window

A beautifully self-produced LP of original country-style songs, dedicated to Marilyn Monroe and Carson McCullers, among others. Fine voice and harmonies with tasteful accompaniment. Includes Marilyn Monroe/Neon and Waiters, Julie Anne, Heart of a Miner. (PH1098) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith The Last of the True Believers

Nanci's 4th album is beautifully filled out with acoustic instrumentation, providing a perfect backdrop for her vignettes of Americana: her voice smooth and silvery as ever. Nanci is rapidly becoming one of the top country/folk performers. (PH1109) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline/Kitty Wells 20 Great Hits

Two of the most influential vocalists in the history of country music alternate hits on this album. Includes Kitty's It Wasn't God Who Made Honky-Tonk Angels, Heartbreak U.S.A., Making Believers, and Patsy's Crazy, I Fall to Pieces, Walking After Midnight, and lots more! (DLX7880) CS: 6.99 CD: 10.98

Patsy Cline The Rockin' Side: 1st Recordings 3

This album focuses on her rockabilly/rock 'n' roll recordings: hillbilly boogie, jump honky-tonk swing, urban r&b, and uptempo pop songs! Some of her best, and most of this is not included in other collections of her material; thus it is an aspect of her talent often overlooked. Includes Gotta Lot of Rhythm in My Soul, Am I No Wheels On This Ship. (RH70060) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patsy Cline Greatest Hits

For some, hard to listen to without an image of Jessica Lange! Twelve songs which represent the apex of Patsy's long country-blues career, including Crazy, I Fall to Pieces, Sweet Dreams (Of You), Walking After Midnight, She's Got You. Her exceptional voice epitomizes emotion and heart; recommended! (MCA12) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline At Her Best

This 1992 release has hit the Billboard charts for Top Country Albums! Includes Stop the World, Too Many Secrets, In Care of the Blues, Walkin' After Midnight, and 5 others. (HOL462) CS: 5.98 CD: 10.98

Patsy Cline, Kitty Wells, et al Country Gals

This anthology contains selections by 8 great women in country music: Patsy Cline, Kitty Wells (It Wasn't God Who Made Honky-Tonk Angels), Loretta Lynn (Don't Come Home A Drinker With Lovin' On Your Mind), Tanya Tucker, Donna Fargo, Jeanne C. Riley (Harper Valley P.T.A.), Jan Howard, and Jeannie Russell, performing country classics, many of them songs that became associated with their names. (MCA20534) CS: 6.98

Aileen Vance After the Night

One of the winners of the Songwriter's Contest at the 1990 Kerrville Folk Festival (that's where Michelle Shocked made her recording debut with the Sony walkman...), Aileen is indeed a singer/songwriter of note. Just ask Judy Small, sponsor of Aileen's Australian tour! Weaving together contemporary and traditional styles, she sings of ordinary people, of peace and justice, of personal growth and humor. Included here: In the Country of the Savior, her award-winning song about the priests murdered in El Salvador; Amorok, a haunting honoring of the wolf; and She's Like the Swallow, a re-write of a traditional ballad which transforms the female subject from victim to proud survivor. Give her a listen! (AVE002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Patsy Cline 20 Golden Hits

Lots of her greatest: I Fall to Pieces, Walking After Midnight, Crazy, Hungry for Love, I'm Blue Again, The Heart You Break May Be Your Own, and 14 more. (DLX7887) CS: 6.98 CD: 10.98

Ranch Romance Western Dream

From several opening dates for k.d. lang to their 1990 debut women's festival performances, this 4-woman trad-but-rad band has brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythm, hot instrumental work and wild yodeling to thousands of new fans around the country! Perfect for 2-stepping or any other partner dancing you'd care to do, as well as foot-stomping and finger-snapping, their old standards like Why Don't You Love Me (Like you Used To) and Loverick Blues are mixed with originals by lead vocalist Jo Miller; her Baby's On the Town features heartbreak Jo singing of her woman lover who's playing the town. Highly recommended! (SUG3799) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance Blue Blazes

This 1991 release is a hot mix of "regressive country" originals, incorporating acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing. Characterized by thoughtful original lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass, it has been described as k.d. lang and Patsy Cline meet Bob Wills. Includes The Buckaroo, which could be called an oral version of Thelma & Louise. Look for more tour dates on the East Coast! (SUG3794) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweethearts of the Rodeo Sisters

The Sweethearts are Kristine Arnold and Janis Gill, and their music is easy and sweet with gentle, country-style harmonies. Wendy Waldman co-produced, co-wrote some of the songs, and provides some back-up vocals here. Includes Sisters (Best of Friends), a proclamation of everlasting devotion and friendship. (COL47658) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Tim Williams Creole Nightingale

Yes Tim is a woman, and yes the power of her deep voice might send you through the ceiling! It's clear why she's the best loved female country singer in Louisiana, and why she's raised 10,000 people to her feet at the New Orleans Jazz Festival — she has the makings of a superstar. If you're a country fan who has ever wished for a little more gusto in the voices of female vocalists, here's your ticket! Includes Laissez Le Bon Temps Roulez, Make Your Woman Feel Wanted, Steppin' Out Blues. Recommended! (GS11022) CS: 9.98

Wynonna Judd Wynonna

Flying solo on this 1992 release, Wynonna's daughter holds true to the pure, soft country sound she and her mom were famous for. Includes the hit song She's His Only Need, the inspirational When I Reach the Place I'm Born, and a heartfelt ballad of unrequited love in My Strongest Weakness...and she jazzes things up a bit with the hit single, No One Else On Earth. Sure to please any Judds fan! (MCA10529) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Alison Brown Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Ben Fieck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tones that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Alison's steal the show here! Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle; Dave Griesman on mandolin; Mike Marshall on guitar. As instrumental, one of our Top Pick for 1992, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this...so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79459) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss

I've Got That Old Feeling

This prodigious artist picked up the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Recording for this album at the 1991 ceremonies, at the ripe old age of 19! Expert fiddler and soulful vocalist, she breathes vitality and passion into these songs about leaving and being on the road. She and banjo-playing Alison Brown are the show-stoppers, along with other members of her acoustic band. (R000275) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss and Union Station

Every Time You Say Goodbye

This Grammy winner returns with this outstanding 1992 album of contemporary bluegrass and country music, backed by the men of her band, Union Station. She affirms her bluegrass roots with the same fresh vocal style and award-winning fiddle playing that have brought her success on the country music charts. She draws material from the country, bluegrass and gospel traditions, along with songs by Shawn Colvin and Karla Bonoff, and originals by current and former members of Union Station. Includes New Foot. (R000265) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Amy Fradon & Leslie Ritter

Amy & Leslie

Their second release is technically excellent, with more beautiful harmonies and several selections definitely worth hearing. Highlights for us include the Celtic-influenced women's spirituality songs: The Moonrise, Nadya, Faerie Song; their version of Once in a Very Blue Mood; and Hymn to Her for the earth... also includes more love songs to men than their previous releases. Rory Block briefly guests on slide guitar. (ALC110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco

Ani DiFranco

"With a 'do' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" (to quote our venerable purchasing manager Reggae). Ani (pronounced 'Ah-ree') is a young songwriter, singer and guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Lost Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin... highly recommended! (RIG001) CS: 9.98

Ani DiFranco

Not So Soft

Well, this release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani! The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get active in the listening; when you hear her, you'll be compelled to move closer to the speakers, rock your body, experience your heart brimming over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic... She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful self harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dulcimer broods! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented... Again, highly recommended. (RIG002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco

Imperfectly

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Unflinching in her pursuit of honesty, she strikes sparks incessantly as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She struggles with sexual identity in In or Out and If It Isn't Her, and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in I'm No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shadings of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the third time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anne Hills

Woman of a Calm Heart

What most of us aspire to be, for sure...and the title song, written by assistant producer Renee Weles, is alone worth the price of this beautiful contemporary folk album. Anne's voice is pure and smooth, crystal clear, and her carefully-selected repertoire is a perfect match. Includes a lovely duet with Livingston Taylor, Akasha Wind, plus Eliza Gilkyson's Tennessee Road, Pollock, her own The Child Within, and Angel in Paradise, featuring background vocals by Rory Block. (FF484) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen

Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the results are fabulous as their fans might expect! It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their acappella work; most songs include back-up by producer/collaborator Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...) Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Belgium for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF548) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities

Take A Dance

How to characterize this lovely bit of musicianship? As their extensive and informative liner notes indicate, this is a problem the band faces regularly, but can best be summed up as "beautiful but slightly eclectic English dance music." The mostly traditional material on this 1991 release is arranged in a unique manner: one person plays the melody while the others improvise harmonies and counter-melodies, making the recording especially fresh and spontaneous. Includes the achingly beautiful classical piece, The Wood Duck. Again, highly recommended! (FF554) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities

English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lea, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddis in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and lifting beauty sounds Baroque/classical/new-age, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, soar, float, and chase each other with counter-melodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, lute, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Beth Holmgren & Jane Peppier

Courting Disaster

These 21 songs about love (mostly failed, of course, with a few cheerful exceptions) reflect women's perspectives — with some anti-marriage undertones — of several centuries from the following sources: traditional music, early music, world music, rhythm and swing; from Siberia to Macedonia to Scotland to New York, from Godric the Monk to the Boswell Sisters (whew!). Beth and Jane have sung together since the 70's, when they were both members of Laduvane, an acappella women's ensemble specializing in music of the Balkans. Beth currently sings with the women's quartet Malaka; Jane directs the Solstice Assembly, a vocal ensemble specializing in Gregorian chant, Medieval Beach Music and more (listed elsewhere in our catalog). Strong harmonies, acappella or with tasteful accompaniment. (SKY208) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

blackgirls

blackgirls are in reality 3 white women from North Carolina who bring together vocal excellence and classical training on a variety of acoustic instrumentation (strong on violins; no percussion) to create a new folk/punk sound. The melodies reflect their musical background, adding a simple beauty to the thought-provoking lyrics imparted in 3-part harmonies. The tempo changes from song to song, from dreamy to jarring, keeping listener interest sparked. Produced by Joe Boyd, known for his work with Fairport Convention, Sandy Denny, and 10,000 Maniacs, to give you a clue about the sound. Includes A Visit to the Behaviourist. Highly recommended! (MAM0017) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

When the computer ate my somewhat rambling first review of this recording not once but twice, I figured it was Divine Intervention, and thus went back and listened again. How to describe the uncategorizable? To compare them thematically and musically to the Indigos, Bush, Joni, Roches & Raincoats does not do justice...But, life isn't fair, a fact these girls recognize and (sometimes cheerfully) lament. No simple downer missives of life and love's lumps, but wistful observations, multi-layered declarative chants, honest (& therefore clever) statements — all with lovely vocals and instrumentation. Produced again by Joe Boyd. Buy this, I mean it. (MAM0024) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Blue Rose

This is a 5-woman super-stringband! Cathy Fink, Marcy Macker, Laurie Lewis, Molly Mason, and Sally Van Meter, some of the finest players in the country-folk field, put their talents together beautifully, creating one of the smoothest, clearest, loveliest albums you'll encounter. The material, which underscores their perfectly-matched harmonies, is unusual: Gerardine and Ruthie Mae, for instance, is a touching tale of two bag ladies; and we guess they got their name by combining their songs Blue Love and Wild Rose. Recommended. (SUG3768) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carla Sciaky

Spin the Weaver's Song

This 1992 release is a remarkable celebration of weaving, spinning, and sheep-shearing songs from all over the world. This 30-song, 70-minute plus album tells the story of the people who have carried the process "from sheep to shawl" over the years. In addition to the British Isles as a source to be expected, the collection also represents Croatia, Armenia, Hungary, Australia, Paraguay, and other locales. Beautiful harmonies to Carla's vocals are provided by Cindy Mangsen, Peta Guthrie, and others. A great gift for any weaver or spinner you know, but don't limit this to them; fans of traditional folk music will love this too. (GL2106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cathy Fink

Banjo Haiku

This 1992 release is a terrific collection of 26 clawhammer banjo tunes, played by an award-winning, expert instrumentalist. Diverse enough for the banjo connoisseur and tasteful enough for all acoustic instrumental fans to enjoy, she covers a wide variety of tunings, tempos and timbres, demonstrating the versatility of the old time banjo... in 55 minutes! One vocal is included; and two feature the guitar accompaniment of her partner Marcy Macker. Includes Ladies Waist Ribbon, Buffalo Gals, Mr. McLeod's Reel, Liza Jane, Kitchen Girl. High quality duplication; recommended! (CMM202) CS: 11.98

Cathy Fink/Marxer/R & L Williams

Learn to Sing Harmony (3-Tape & Bk)

Cathy, Marcy, Robin and Linda — all wonderful singers themselves — teach beginners or experienced singers the principles of two, three, and four-part harmonies to enhance favorite folk, country and bluegrass songs. A special feature: the parts are recorded on separate stereo tracks for practicing either with the melody or harmony lines. This handsome volume contains three one-hour cassettes and a music book... great lessons and great fun! (NOM3) CS: 37.98

Catie Curtis

Dandelion

This 1989 cassette debuts the inestimable talent of Catie Curtis, a young singer/songwriter who got her start drumming in a local production of Maria Thomas' Free to Be... You and Me at the age of 11! Here, she writes poignant and humorous (mostly love) songs, sings them alternately with great feeling and a quiet restraint — an element crucial to any folk singer's success, in this reviewer's opinion! Joined by a terrific saxophonist and bassist on most cuts, the band also utilizes mandolin, guitar, percussion and harmonica. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes: Street Shoes, Baby Grade, Love on the Line, and a sweet ode to her sister's pregnancy, Still Round. (MG5101) CS: 9.98

Catie Curtis

From Years to Hours

This woman's stunning voice is going to be compared to Karla Bonoff and Cheryl Wheeler for a long time. I can't tell. What's going to set her apart is an uncanny blend of strength and vulnerability, a gorgeous combo. If you ask me! This is her second recording, and features 11 originals packed with evocative, bittersweet lyrics, a great folk-rock ballad (including Janet Hood on piano) — remember Jade and Sarsaparilla? — and a fabulous sax player, Myanna Pontopoli. Highlights include the fantastic voice and acoustic guitar. Highlights include the sadly sweet Grandmother's Name ("I've got my grandmother's name, but she don't remember who I am... Is it morning? Is it night? She don't know? Can't remember which is dark and which is light?"), the Fenonian Wallpaper Dreams, and the hilarious Preacher. Recommended. (MGS102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

At Home with the Chenille Sisters

Recorded live, their second album captures all of the outrageous charm, wacky humor, and lush vocal harmonies that have made The Chenilles a legend in the Midwest. From the silly hilarity of originals like Girl Shoes and The Break-Up to rarely-heard chestnuts like Kalamazoo, To Tambuktu and songs of conscience like Holly Near's Hay and Miser Desaparecida, this release should ensure their national fame. (RH26) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

Tight, jazzy harmonies and a substantial dose of humor might briefly characterize the debut release by these 3 midwestern talents who have appeared on Prairie Home Companion. They sail through an upbeat, zippy, varied repertoire: originals, Dinah, 50's and 60's pop tunes, contemporary stuff, some excellent a cappella performances. Even the lyric sheet is funny. If you think their harmonies sound generic, they say, "We really are sisters. We just have different parents." Definitely recommended. (RH29) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm

From a hilarious reworking of La Bamba, wherein the refrain becomes "listen to your mama," to an ode to chocolate, to a beautiful original by Connie Huber called Roadmaps, to their exquisite harmonizing on jazz classics like The Wind and Hummin' To Myself, the Chenilles lift their artistry to new heights on this 1991 release. (RH39) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Half a Book

On this 1987 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (AM0107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Before we encountered this album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Liauna sound-track. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual, strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes; best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts. In addition to her combination of strength and fragility, Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses." Limited quantity, list alternative. (CAP92063) CS: 9.98

Christine Lavin

Future Fossils

This is Christine's first LP (she had an earlier EP called Husbands and Wives, about relationships—the unequal kind) full of social commentary, 50/50 humor and serious, somewhere between live and studio, of original songs. This artist is someone the NY Times calls "a pungent folk-pop humorist... writes wryly comic vignettes of city life that also have an emotional edge." Includes Cold Pizza for breakfast, a spoof of diets. Repeating What I Said which skewers men who find it difficult to tell the truth, and Don't Ever Call Your Sweetheart by His Name which turns the tables on men who've called women "darling" for centuries... this song was banned from Gracie Mansion. During a discussion of New Age music with this reviewer, Christine said, "My mantra is pizza." (PH1104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Beau Woes

From undoubtedly the sharpest wit in the contemporary folk scene, a splendidly entertaining, lively, honest and eclectic album. Includes her clever Biological Time Bomb; her song for all those aesthetically challenged, Ballad of a Balinese, the more serious Gettin' Used to Leavin' with veteran folkie Eric Andersen; her spoof on Camping, and other humorous and cynical vignettes. A gem. (PH1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind

First of all, if you are a Suzanne Vega listener, this album is an absolute must for your collection... Christine's Mysterious Woman adds new dimensions to the existential meanings of delecting the refrigerator! Title song accurately describes the delicious experience of eating sushi (stuck down a bucketful of tentacles) or, chewing the suction cups off the bottom of an old bathtub mat; and other activities tolerated in the name of love. Both satire and good folk music fill this album, and even a duet with Livingston Taylor. (PH1121) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Attainable Love

Ten more serio-comic songs that debunk, explore and create the myths of contemporary (he!) romance. Includes Shopping Cart of Love and Sensitive New Age Guys, as well as the somewhat more serious Victim/Volunteer, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From, and title, a straightforward acoustic production from this insightful observer/commentator. (PH1132) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Compass

People Magazine said: "She is a slyly witty songwriter who seems to have undergone an irony-lift... It's as semi-detached observer that Lavin is most striking, though. If we could get her and Loudon Wainwright III named our national folk music laureates, we'd have most of the country's problems accurately described, if not solved, in no time." This 1991 release takes a light-hearted look at interpersonal relationships, and includes Blind Dating Fuh!, I Bring Out the Worst in You, Replaced, and more... title song is a response to the oft-heard line "I'd be lost without you," which made her wonder if they were dating a compass! Recommended! (PH1142) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cindy Kallet

Working on Wings to Fly

"Listening to you is like lying on your back while someone feeds you grapes," said someone to this Martha's Vineyard musician. We rarely carry LPs of folksinger-with-guitar music unless there's something really distinctive about it and in this case it's her enchanting voice—a good octave lower than your average folksinger but with the same sort of timbre heard in the clearest soprano. An outstanding a cappella number in 3 parts (with friend), plus other original songs about New England coastal life. Accompanied guitar accompaniment. Highly recommended. (FLR3) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet, E. Epstein, M. Cicone

Angels in Daring

Cindy teams up vocally here with Ellen Epstein and Michael Cicone to present a stunning collection of primarily a cappella music drawn from contemporary and traditional sources of the British Isles and America, with a liberal sprinkling of sea music. Their close, perfectly-pitched harmonies have inspired enthusiastic responses from audiences and critics alike, described as warm and healing, technically elegant... and it's all true. Includes Sail Away Ladies, a couple of shape-note hymns, and Cold is the Night, which Cindy wrote expressly for these 3 minstrels. Definitely recommended! (KEC1) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet

Dreaming Down a Quiet Line

The title encapsulates the beauty and the peaceful simplicity of both the northern New England coast and of this 1989 release of primarily original contemporary folk songs. Featuring beautiful harmony vocals on some by Ellen Epstein, Michael Cicone, and Lisa Kallet-Mark, it includes Song for Margaret, Sarah's Song, Glacier Song. (STM1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt/ Sally Rogers

Closing the Distance

An absolute aural delight by two of the finest musicians in the acoustic music universe. They trade licks, leads and harmonies on their first joint album of original, traditional and new material... includes Lovely Agnes, Mama, I Miss You Tonight, the a cappella Appalachian Round, a Native American melody Hey Hey Waterway, I Walk in Beauty. Highly recommended! (FF425) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt

Essential Tension

Her most personal statement to date, this 1991 release of all original material communicates an introspectiveness that clearly marks a period of profound growth and change for the artist. Her voice has a powerful new edge and, with its incredible 3-octave range, has never been more expressive. The album reflects a greater maturity as both a composer and a poet in love with the sound and meaning of language. Worth the 3-year wait! (RH38) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt & Sally Rogers

While We Live

This 1991 release breaks new ground for both artists at every turn — it's a blending of voices and musical spirits rooted in a friendship that goes back many years. Exciting originals as well as stirring covers are included: Claudia's Gong By is a profound life anthem that reverberates with Balkan-esque harmonies... Sally's I See the Moon is a tender and beautiful lullaby... Cathy Fink's Sewing a Name is a moving song about the AIDS Quilt... and many more gems. (RH45) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Coon Creek Girls

Early Radio Favorites

We've waited a long time for a reissue of the music of this Kentucky group, featuring banjo-picker Lily May Ladford. They were one of the last, best, and most popular mountain string bands on the old-time music scene, and certainly one of the only recognized female ensembles in their time and genre. Between them they played banjo, fiddle, mandolin, guitar and bass. Made in the 1930s, their entire output of early recordings is included here, with Banjo Picking Girl, Bile Them Cabbage Down, How Many Banjos Can You Eat? and a medley they performed for the Roosevelts and England's king and queen at the White House in 1939. (CH142) CS: 9.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Caution Horses

Their third release — 1990 — contains Witches ("There are witches in the hills calling my name/ saying come join us sister, come kiss the flame"), as well as Fun Comes Up, its Tuesday Morning: Cause Cheap Is How I Feel, Rock and Bird, and Powderfinger. The Cowboy Junkies

Whites Off Earth Now!!

Recorded live in 1986, this is the little-known first recording by the Cowboy Junkies. It includes eight covers that don't sound anything like the originals; of material by artists ranging from Bruce Springsteen to John Lee Hooker and Robert Johnson, plus one original by Margo and Michael Timmins. Margo is so torchy that she steams on cuts like State Trooper and Forgive Me. Slow and smoky, this album is highly recommended. (RCA3388) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies

Black Eyed Man

This album, the Junkies' 4th, is — dare we say it? — more upbeat than their previous honey-dripping pace. Not that this is fast, mind you, it just picks up the beat a tad. Margo's voice continues to strengthen, as if she were taking her vitamins now, yet still with that sweet hickory-smoked flavor, for which the word "languid" could have been created. We love how the instruments are recorded to sound like they're in a hazy club, each musician staring off into space wondering if the boss will spring for burgers and beer... Includes If You Were the Woman and I Was the Man. Cowboy Junkies Lament. Recommended. (RCA61049) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Trinity Sessions

Margo Timmins is the vocalist of this mostly-Timmins ensemble, and her voice is the distinguishing characteristic of the group; it's smoky, moody, bluesy, evocative... and electric guitar is the prevailing instrumentation, making for a heady ambience. Includes the loneliest version of I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry ever recorded, and a cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane. Recorded live in Toronto. (RCA8568) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Eileen Joyner

Always Wear Underwear

If you ask most female songwriters who their main influence has been, 90 percent of them will name Joni Mitchell. Not Eileen Joyner. "Frank Zappa and Dr. Seuss" she replies when asked. Social, political, and personal commentary fill her 1991 debut release: title track, Periodic Blues, Trickle Down, Socially Appropriate (Politically Correct), and several relate to her relocation to Washington DC. From the outer cover to what's under—I mean inside, definitely off-beat! (UND1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Pilgrims

If you think folk music is lacking lyrically, melodically, or spiritually, never fear. Eliza Gilkyson is here! This accomplished singer-songwriter has created this dazzling album from her very heart, and it's sure to touch a chord in yours. As a captain in self-exploration, she charts aspects of her quest for love and understanding with a compelling, magnetic voice—at times reminiscent of the qualities of Chris Williamson or Ferron. Includes Material Man ("dicking with the dollars, missile-envy madness..."), Foolish Heart, Calling All Angels. Her first release since her out-of-print 1979 debut album on Helios Records, which we had long ago... Incredibly talented, intensely aware, searching and caring, Eliza offers a musical gift not to be passed by. Highly recommended. (GC171007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Legends of Rainmaker

Most notable here is an original country-rock song Rainie Strike Back, a passionate plea for a woman to leave an abusive relationship, on which she is backed by Bonnie Raitt. Second, a beautiful cover of the early 60's hit song written by her father, Terry. Greenfields (surely some of you remember that? "Once there were greenfields kissed by the sun..."). A nice follow-up to Pilgrims. (GC171323) CS: 9.98

Elizabeth Cotten

Freight Train & Other NC Folk Songs

It's hard to believe that a talent as rare and true as Libba's can go unrecognized for so many years, but thankfully, by the time she died in 1987 at the age of 95, she was finally gaining a small portion of her deserved acclaim. What she was able to record in her last 30 years is best described as legendary. Her most popular original song Freight Train, her well-known Oh Babe It Ain't No Lie, and her beautifully simplistic rendition of the gospel classic What a Friend We Have in Jesus appear on this recording, which was originally released in 1958 as Folk Songs & Instrumentals for Guitar. Any fan of traditional folk, blues and gospel will appreciate this treasure, and will recognize the impact she has had on countless other performers, from the Seegers to Faith Nolan. The Most Dulcimer

"Over the years, I have made about 40 record albums...They all have had some dulcimer accompaniments, but people looking through the record bins always study the record jackets, bemusedly and sooner or later ask The Question: "Which one has the most dulcimer?" Joanne Rand

"Her sound embodies the strong but supple spirit of primal warrior woman, of Womanspirit Rising. Her voice comes across exuberant yet steadfast, with an unyielding sensuality... If there is a category called Environmental Female Singers, Joanne Rand has quickly and forcefully become a favorite, with the most unquestionably Deep Ecology lyrics yet." (Earth First Journal) Start your Joanne Rand collection with Choosing Sides, and if you like that one, come back for this worthwhile 1988 debut release, includes Nobody Lays a Hand On Me, Radiation On My Windshield, Thanks. Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice gorgeous voice gorgeous voice environmental songs gorgeous voice social/political/spiritual songs gorgeous voice... This woman's range will take your breath away! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves; her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness; and I already told you about her voice, about which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1989 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaanisqatsi, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Back Roads

Recorded with friends in the living room, this record of country-folk music is remarkably well done. While some songs lean towards melancholic nostalgia, others show that it's more desire for a simpler life ahead that inspired the words of this singer/songwriter. (KAL06) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Gold in California (Double Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1986. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death; she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rides Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Emma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. Kristina Olsen

Here's what Christine Lavin had to say: "The first time I saw Kristina Olsen in concert I was knocked out by every aspect of her performance—her songwriting, her singing, her mastery of instruments and musical styles, her sense of humor, and her rapport with the crowd. They went wild, simply wild. After the show I was shocked to find out they she had never released an album nationally. Thank goodness that is no longer the case...and what an album it is! Beautiful songs, superbly produced, and like Kristina Olsen herself, an exquisite piece of work." (PH1147) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Lawlis & Kathy Kallick
Together

This bluegrass duet album hails from two of the Bay Area's most popular acoustic performers: both are singer-songwriters, Laurie is fiddler, Kathy a rhythm guitarist. Their long-time friendship and association (they were both members of the Good Ol' Persons string band, and Kathy is still their lead singer) is evident in their collaboration. We're excited about this fall 1991 release! (KAL44) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Malaika
Women on the Edge

This eclectic quartet specializes in lovely vocal harmonies, which they employ on a variety of (mostly) traditional European folk songs, with the delightful odd ditty thrown in. Most are a cappella, but occasionally you'll hear guitar and spoons, mountain and hammer dulcimers. Includes several Bulgarian tunes, plus Java Jive, Cool of the Day and the lovely Sephardic Quando El Rey Nimrod. Lovers of women's voices, don't miss this; their spectacular vocals make this 1992 release highly recommended in our catalog! (MAL101) CS: 9.98

Mary McCaslin
Old Friends

Who'd ever think anyone could send chills up your spine by singing the Supremes' song My World Is Empty Without You? Babe or the Beatles' Things We Said Today? Mary has done it on this record—with an unusual minor-guitar tuning & exquisite harmonies in her arrangements. These 2 songs, plus her original title cut, make this album one of our favorites & are worth the price of the album. (PH1048) CS: 9.98

Megon McDonough
Day by Day

Finally, the fourth "Bitchin' Babe" joins our catalog; we've been searching for this for the past couple of years, due to customer requests! As suggested by the cover, love is one of the themes on her debut release, the spiritual kind, that is...as well as respect for life and Mother Nature. Titles include Evening Love, Serenity Song (of the 12-step program), Oh Great Spirit, Joy in the Journey, Katy's Sweet, Every Living Thing, and the beautiful Wake Up and Dream. (SFM1) CS: 9.98

Megon McDonough
American Girl

Megon's second release is more filled out and produced than her first (tastefully, of course), with love as a theme again, this time the personal kind, with metaphors of water and dreams a frequent image in her songs. The majority of songs are again originals, and feature lovely arrangements with accompaniment on recorder, harmonica, mandolin, piano, guitar and bass. Includes Dreams of Deep Water, River of Wishes, If Love Is a Dream, Big Blue River (see what we mean about the water imagery!) (SR51) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked
Arkansas Traveler

Rambling along in a Winnebago with a mobile recording unit set inside an 18-wheeler, Michelle traveled the country (and beyond). She recorded songs, fiddle tunes mostly, that she put her own words to, with some of her all-time heroes and respected contemporaries: Doc Watson, TN Matul, Alison Krauss, to name a few. This album brings to fruition her trilogy concept, which began with Short Sharp Shocked on through Captain Swing. Includes Prodigal Daughter (Cotton Eyed Joe), Strawberry Jam, Come a Long Way, 33 RPM Soul. (MER512101) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Michelle Shocked
The Texas Campfire Tapes

The amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording, first creating a ragging cult following for this young itinerant folk artist, then catapulting her to national fame and fortune! Her style on this "debut" recording is a re-issue of the very same walkman-recording (is an absolutely appealing blend of taking blues and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and ironies, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the crockets who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long-winded; gets better and more intriguing with every listening. recommended! (MER834581) CS: 8.98 CD: 14.98

Captain Swing

On this highly anticipated follow-up to Short Sharp Shocked, Michelle once again surprises and challenges her audience. The 10 original songs are decidedly swing oriented, with full band and horn sections. She describes this as "music that goes from one end of Mississippi to the other, from Chicago R & B to New York be-bop to New Orleans mambo." Includes God Is a Real Estate Developer, Must Be Luff, My Little Sister. (MER838878) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Pat Humphries
Same Rain

Pats the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to anthemicize common struggles and triumphs. This album represents 7 years of work, most of it internal. She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed by the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the 1986 Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes songs co-written with Judy Small and Allen Vance; her exquisitely beautiful Shooting Star, and her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! Joined by Cathy Fink, Marty Marker and others; highly recommended! (MFM360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin
Tango

Proving that change can be inspirational, forever-Bostonite Patty has headed West, and with the help of several of the SF Bay Area's premier musicians (most notably Michael Manning on bass) has given birth to a beautiful new baby — er, album! The production is first rate, Patty's vocals are soft and clear, and the acoustic tones of the band are sparkling and pure. As ever, her lyrics explore the myriad of directions our paths take us on: inner reflections, outward quests, and the nature of relationships. Song titles include: Lapside Down, Solo Flight, Deadlines and Dollar Signs, and Kathleen. (HST10312) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

This 1992 release adds a new dimension to these sisters' repertoire. Rory Block
Rhinestones & Steel Strings

This recording certainly has the sparkle suggested in the title. Rory's voice has developed in timbre and elasticity: it springs all over, seemingly without effort, and she sure doesn't stay stuck in one style. Treat yourself to the incredible way she uses her blues voice on an old folk tune, The Golden Vanity to hammered dulcimer accompaniment—stunning—and, to a guitar/synthesizer almost-classical instrumental, El Vuelo Del Alma. Also notable is the scappella God's Gift to Women with the Pearlusions. And of course, plenty of good blues and steel guitar. Recommended. (ROU3085) CS: 9.98

Rory Block
I've Got a Rock in My Sock

With musical contributions by Stevie Wonder and Taj Mahal, this album features blues, traditional and original contemporary material — her most varied to date — and all done justice by Rory's forceful and heart-rending vocals, plus her new ventures into synthesized bass and drum programming. Includes her own Send the Man Back Home, as well as a lovely acoustic guitar/synthesizer instrumental, Recorded and mixed in 7 different locations; probably a record-setter, so to speak. Recommended! (ROU3097) CS: 9.98

The Early Tapes 1975-1976

This young white artist began performing the music she learned from the Mississippi Delta in the early '70s in Greenwich Village; her pure blues style, with its original spontaneous and genuine flavor, is preserved here in this collection of standards and originals culled from her first LP recording sessions. (ALC111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block
House of Hearts

Dedicated to her son Thiele who died tragically in 1986 at age 20, this is Rory's most personal album to date. With the exception of Krye, written and performed by her other son, the songs here are all Rory's—filled with hauntingly beautiful melodies and poetic lyrics. Her brilliant guitar and synthesizer playing and exquisite blues-soul voice carries every line of this very touching eulogy. Recommended! (ROU3104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block
Mama's Blues

Bonnie Raitt said, "Rory Block has been an inspiration to me since we started out years ago. Her guitar playing, singing and songwriting are some of the most soulful in traditional and modern blues." This is Rory at her blues best here! On this outstanding 1991 release, she pays tribute to the great musicians who have always been her source of inspiration: Robert Johnson, Son House, Tommy Johnson, Beanie Smith, and others. Several are "originals" (but stylistically culled from lots of rural blues material), and others are her personal renditions of songs she has heard and studied. This recording should answer her most-often-asked question: "How come a young white girl from NYC was drawn to the blues music of the black rural south of the 1930s?" (ROU3117) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block
Ain't I A Woman

This 1982 release is, quite frankly, absolutely superb. The stylistic variety is amazing, for one thing (folk, rock, blues, jazz, gospel, with absolute artistry in each genre); as are her voice and guitar playing, as always. Several songs are about women here, the title cut of course, featuring the words of Sojourner Truth, given a deeply impressionist jazz-tinged treatment by Rory; also includes Sisters and Maggie Campbell. And her renditions of the blues song Cool Drink of Water and the gospel standard Walk in Jerusalem are spectacular. Her best yet, very highly recommended! (ROU3120) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels
Be Careful There's A Baby..

...In the House. We're proud to announce the arrival of The Perfect Gift! It's for those loved ones who are expecting a Little Person to join their household soon — they'll need to learn lullabies, soothing and hostile (Baby Rocking Medley) and stories (Mohitapi and Her Kitten); those with children, so they can be reminded just why they had them in the first place (London Wainwright it's title song, plus God Bless the Child, Two Years Later); those who don't have any kids, and need an excuse to gloat; and yourself, because you deserve the best! Warm, alternately whimsical and serious, Rosalie introduces many of the songs with personal observations and stories (great liner notes too), and makes clear her opinion that children and motherhood are sacred, but to be chosen, not required. Includes an emotional reading of Marge Piercy's Right to Life. Recommended! But of course! Please treat yourself and others right now! (GL2100) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels
Report from Grimes Creek

This 1991 release is the culmination of a career and of a remarkable life. As reflected in thoughts and recollections of the log cabin in Utah in which she grew up and now again lives, she weaves a tale, through song and story, of home, roots, and rural western America. Poignant and articulate. (GL2105) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett
Unraveled

A woman of many identities, Sally's also known as one of the "4 Bitchin' Babes," and should be considered Shawn Colvin's stylistic soul sister. Indeed, if you were as hooked by Shawn's artistry as we were, do yourself the favor of discovering Sally! Her 10 original songs explore the landscape of the myriad of relationships, whether it's enjoying the nostalgia of an old flame (Smilin' Boy), realizing the nature of her love for her child (The Return), or what sounds like the lament of anyone's parents (He Loved Her So, The Ballad of Harry and Esther). As in all, the treatment is tender and feeling, the music beautiful, and her voice warm and inviting. Recommended! (AME97798) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sam Weis
So True!

With a deep, earthy voice and celestial 12-String guitar, Sam Weis is perhaps familiar to you from her debut instrumental album of several years ago, called Mologram. Anyway, she's a delightful songwriter as well, focusing on this reviewer's favorite subject, yes, LOVE! The satisfying kind (Til We've Seen It All, When You Rock Me) and the bummer kind (Trouble in Paradise, You Left). Also includes an incandescent instrumental, Nazty Habits. Nicely produced too! (SRM101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan
Touch

We were introduced to this singer-songwriter when she shared a bill with Holly Near, and here's her debut 1989 release, it features her wide vocal range, gorgeous harmonies, and introspective lyrics. Tapes and CD contain one bonus track. (ARI8594) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan
Solace

We don't have much specific info about this woman, but her voice contains a gorgeous fresh tint, kinda like Bread meets Enya, both soft and sweet and as strong and multicolored as polished titanium... Absolutely captivating! The material is mostly original; she writes simple vignettes about longing (Home), and loneliness (Lost), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thorns, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven. Instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, guitars, and the packaging is quite impressive, even for a major label. (ARI8831) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin
Steady On

Shawn contributes back-up vocals on Suzanne Vega's album (including her best-known song Luka). Suzanne does the same on Shawn's, that simple fact tells you a bit about what to expect here. The debut album by this "acoustic pop" singer-songwriter (whose history includes eight months performing with the Red Clay Ramblers) features her silvery vocals, acoustic guitar and thoughtful lyrics, against a backdrop of tasteful accompaniment. Includes Diamonds in the Rough. (COL45209) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Short Sisters
A Planet Dancing Slow

Three women (neither short nor sisters) present material which truly reflects their fondness for gorgeous melodies, opportunities for interesting harmonies, and both pertinent and impertinent subject matter in celebration of their first decade together, they put together this 1991 collection of songs about seasons and changes. Includes two beautiful rounds: My Candles (the Chariot Chase) and Round and Round, plus Queer Bird, The Reign of the Fair Maid, and a song every person who beats with wood will appreciate only too well, More Wood. Recommended! (BS865412) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Solstice Assembly
Under the Drawbridge

Subtitled Music from the 13th to 20th Century, this hour-long 1991 recording of music from every season is performed by the Solstice Assembly (18 singers directed by Jane Peppier), New Hope Harmony, and the Band of Ages: primarily mixed-gender scappella vocal ensembles, with a few instrumental groupings. They say "Let us take you to the strange worlds we inhabit for a out-of-century experience," and they accomplish that quite successfully! Their repertoire spans centuries, continents, and world-views, with interesting arrangements by Jane Peppier. A most eclectic collection, with an underlying foundation of fun, amusement, humor... and great music. (SKY205) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Story
Grace in Gravity

D'ya know that feeling, when you first hear a new group or artist, where the voices and music reach that perfect synergy and you just sink into a warm relaxation of wonder and pleasure? Well, help yourself to this Two Boston area women, Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball, synthesize their voices, lyrics, acoustic and occasional electric accompaniment into a superb arrangement of contemporary folk with jazz and New Acoustic influences — lots of pristine acoustic guitar, floating acoustic bass, and crisp drum work, plus simply angelic vocals (Suzanne Vega meets Jannine) and poetic, painterly lyrics. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! P.S. — Love the comic-strip feeling of Dog Dreams... (EL81321) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Susan Graham White Rescue

Every once in a while, you hear an artist whose voice seems to jump right off the speakers into your living room... Susan is such an artist. One reviewer described her voice as "unvarnished"... the appeal is in its directness, presence, lack of adornment, honesty, realism. This 1992 debut release from this DC-area artist includes two DC-area themes: Homeless Heart, a song for the homeless, is dedicated to Mitch Snyder; and Facing the Wall expresses the grief experienced by most viewers of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall. She also reflects on love, the seasons, music on the radio, and other universal topics. If you enjoy discovering new talent, put this on your must-have list. (OOP1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Suzanne Vega

Already likened to Canadian counterparts Ferron and Jane Siberry for her poetic lyrics and emotional intensity, Suzanne Vega is rapidly gaining national attention for her debut album. While the crisp and sparkling instrumental arrangements alone are enough to recommend it, it is the subtly-layered lyrical complexity that puts it in this reviewer's all-time Top 10... using colorful analogies and stark images, the affect sparks recognition and identification with the situations she illustrates, however obliquely... Highly recommended. (AM5072) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Suzanne Vega

99.9F
Last-minute addition as we go to press for 1993! (AM5) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Suzanne Vega Solitude Standing

Gaining her a significantly more wide-spread recognition of her exceptional lyric talent, this second release includes Luke, about an abused child (the initial "hit" on the album—says something for a bit of public consciousness), the acappella Tom's Diner, the pure folk progression of Gypsy, the title song with images of the female persona of solitude. Again, sharp fragments of life as we have all experienced it, tumbling in a kaleidoscope arrangement, juxtaposing all sorts of contrasts, recognizing yet transcending the limitations of language. (AM5136) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Suzanne Vega Days of Open Hand

The falsetto voice and emotionally inspired songs make her third release "classic Vega," as it expands on her folk forte and includes her unique communications of consciousness and observation. Background vocals by Shawn Colvin and rhythmic accompaniment accent her thought-provoking messages. Includes Block of Dreams and Big Space, which calls for "precision in the language." (AM5293) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Theories of the Old School Time to Heal / Even the Navajo

Tight, interesting instrumentation, crafted phrasing, and thoughtful lyrics characterize this captivating ensemble composed of 2 female singer/songwriters, instrumentalists and a male percussionist. Using guitars, flutes, Chapman Stick, congas, piano and various percussion, Theories harmonizes its way through a range of original songs covering subjects from love to nuclear waste; includes Last Dolphin, Yucca Mountain, etc. By the way, this is almost the same album which was previously released under the title Even the Navajo. Recommended! (CUE21992) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists, inc. Suzanne Vega Tom's Album

Did you happen to catch the bootleg version of Suzanne's song Tom's Diner on the radio in 1990? The one where her ethereal, angelic voice ("dah dah doo dup, dah dah doo dup, dah dah doo dup, doo dup, doo dup...") swerved in and out of hip hop drums and synth samples? Well, that one creative dabbling served as a sort of notice to the world of frustrated songsters, who came up with their own versions! Yes, this album consists of 13 versions of the same song, collected (although not solicited) by Suzanne: Jeannie's Diner, Tom's Diner Rap, and more. Some completely change the lyrics, while reinterpreting the catchy tune and chorus. The result, in Suzanne's words: "some are funny, some are brilliant, some are... very strange." We like this one a lot — if you appreciate guerrilla musicians, you will too! (AM5363) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists The Redwood Collection

This sampler album includes selections by Holly Near, Ronnie Gilbert, Inti-Illimani, "H.A.R.P.", Ferron, Linda Tillery, Mary Watkins, Guardabarranco, Judy Small, and Nancy Vogel. — all of whom have records released on the Redwood label. Great for introducing new audiences to the Redwood roster. (RR411) CS: 6.98

Various/producer: Christine Lavin On A Winter's Night

Submitted The Best of the New Singer/Songwriters, as well as Ballads to Warm the Heart, this anthology includes songs by several artists that make it well worth the purchase price. Firstly is Heaven, a gorgeous song written and performed by Julie Gold, author of the now-very-famous From A Distance. I forwarded right to this cut, and was not disappointed! (So where's her solo album??) Also included are selections by the 3 other "Bitchin' Babes" — Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, and Megan McDonough — as well as Cheryl Wheeler, and other women and men. Christine has done lots over the years to create exposure for artists, which we really appreciate, and you will too! (H50028) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Various/producer: Christine Lavin When October Goes

Submitted Autumn Love Songs, this lovely collection features some of today's best folk artists offering their favorite songs about that sad, quiet season. Opening with Cheryl Wheeler's sweetly gorgeous, When Fall Comes to New England, and including solos by (we dare you to figure this one out): 5 of the 4 Bitchin' Babes (Christine, Megan McDonough, Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, Julie Gold), and others. 15 songs in all, over half by women. Pour yourself a cup of tea, light a few candles, and settle in for a cozy evening with this warm recording! (PH1143) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Velma Frye I Am To Someone

We're not sure how this 1988 release escaped notice, but we're sure glad to be able to offer it to you now! Velma is an accomplished pianist and songwriter, with a strong, clear voice and a talent for interesting and creating intelligent, poetic folksongs. Many are graced with her ragtime-influenced piano, and she includes a couple of original instrumentals here: the old-timey-sounding Terrycloth Rag conjures up images of an old saloon, while The Olive includes soaring and wordless vocalizations — lovely! And when she overdoes and self-harmonizes (some acappella), she manages to sound like the Roche Sisters! Includes the soulful Grandmother's Song, the plaintive My Simple Request, and the gorgeous Shores of Your Sweetness. Recommended! (FF498) CS: 9.98

The Weavers Greatest Hits (Double Set)

For the hard-core fan, this is of course the definitive collection; it contains If I Had A Hammer, Guantanamera, Aunt Ruthie, Goodnight Irene, Wimoweh, and 20 others. (VAN18/19) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Rock

Annie Lennox Diva

"In a sense I feel like this is my very first album, and because of that it had to be something that represented me totally and exactly... I wanted to come up with material that was authentic and completely true to myself... In preparing for this album, I also knew that I wanted to take my time, releasing it only when I felt it was strong enough — and not a moment before." Annie's 1992 solo debut proves that her artistry is a lot more than just half the Eurythmics. Includes Money Can't Buy It, Little Bird, The Gift. (ARI8704) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Basia London Warsaw New York

The second release (1989) by this Polish singer-songwriter, creator of beautiful many-tracked harmonies, conveys a big airy sound. Styles range widely, from the primary theme song Copernicus, with a rhythmic, Brazilian sound, to the jazzy and playful You're Mine. Love is a strong theme — ending, beginning, changing. (EPC45472) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Begonia Blueswoman

Begonia doesn't do your typical hot and heavy blues war about drinking and drugging and cheating lovers. Instead, they fuse rock, reggae, folk, country and soul around a solid blues core. The strong, sensuous, sultry voices of Beth Jochim and Brenda Fisher sing affirming lyrics about loving lovers and experience together and three cassette releases, this is an all-female rock/blues band without a "gimmick" — except they make great music. (KK202) CS: 9.98

Bette Midler Beaches

The incredible soundtrack from the incredible movie sums up the amazing breadth of Bette's talent as a vocalist and song interpreter; a favorite around the Ladyslipper office. We hope it truly brings her the recognition she should have received years ago, for her supreme musicianship. Includes Under the Boardwalk, I Think It's Going to Rain Today, The Glory of Love. Highly recommended! —Bette, we love you! (ATL81933) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bette Midler Some People's Lives

Once again Bette lends her outstanding vocal style to the works of contemporary songwriters such as Janis Ian, Cole Porter, and Julie Gold. This release includes the smash hit From A Distance, a song of timeless importance but which carries a special message for the 90's. Also includes Night and Day and The Gift of Love. Highly recommended. (ATL82129) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bonnie Hayes Good Clean Fun

Many of you will remember Bonnie from Teresa Trull's tour in the late 80's, post Barbara Hight... Bonnie's a SF Bay Area rock icon, writing for the likes of Huey Newton and performing regularly with her band, Wild Combo. She's got light, saucy vocals and rollicking good-time rock 'n' roll, San Francisco style, plus a habit of writing infectious pop melodies infused with fun lyrics (see Teresa Trull's A Step Away for examples). Includes her hit Shelly's Boyfriend plus Girls Like Me, Raylene, Loverboy. (SLH112) CS: 6.98

Bonnie Raitt Nick of Time

Could be the best recording she's ever done, this 1989 release has a distinct air of maturity, and apparently grows out of her new sobriety... includes her own The Road's My Middle Name and the title cut, about aging and realizing one is running out of time; two by Bonnie Hayes; and Nobody's Girl. Plenty of her signature blues, some background vocals by David Crosby and Graham Nash. (CAP91258) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Luck of the Draw

The anxiously-awaited follow-up to the multi-Grammy-award-winning Nick of Time, this 1991 release is filled with heartfelt ballads as well as down-in-the-groove bluesy rockers... songs that are highly personal, and disarming in their honesty and clarity about relationships. Bonnie has reached a smoother point in life — sobriety, love, success and recognition all rolled into one — and her music has never sounded better. Contains Something to Talk About, plus 4 originals, including Come To Me. Bonnie financed the special environmentally-friendly packaging of the CD: it's free of plastic jewel box and blister pack, all that permanent junk! (CAP96111) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly-recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Woman Be Wise, in an previously unreleased duet with Sippie Wallace; No Way to Treat a Lady, one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louisie, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery, 19 in all, culled from her 6 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract. (WB25242) CS: 14.98 CD: 16.98

Carole King

Tapestry

This classic, one of the best-selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes (You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

Concrete Blonde

Walking in London

Remember when you fell in love with the Pretenders? Well, prepare to fall in love again! This 3-piece band is led by bassist/vocalist/songwriter Johnette Napolitano, and she penned all the songs on this feminist-leaning 1992 album except James Brown's It's A Man's World. She's deep and dark on City Screaming, quirky and funny on Ghost of a Texas Ladies' Man, knowingly cynical on I Want to Be Your Friend Again, and just plain great on Woman to Woman. Recommended to anyone who likes a strong tough woman's voice. By the way, Johnette's hair is not blonde. (JRS13137) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Dead Can Dance

A Passage in Time

This duo consists of Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry, but from the sounds they create, you'd think there were at least 6 of them! Australians of Anglo-Irish descent, they find their musical inspiration in the music of the Middle Ages through the early Renaissance, or for us history junkies, from the 12th through the 15th centuries...and, they're a rock band! Lisa's gorgeous voice rings like a bell, vibrates like a flute, soars like a bird — plainly, one of the most distinctive singers of the decade! Includes Song of Sophia, The Host of Seraphim, The Song of the Sybil, Spirit, plus 12 more. This 1991 recording isn't like anything you've heard lately, at least not for the past 5 or future 2 centuries! Heavenly! (RYK215) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Diamanda Galas

The Singer

Coercive, anarchic, gothic, emotional rampages...this is how Diamanda's usual work would be characterized. Focusing on death and morbidity after her brother succumbed to AIDS, she became an imposing performer on the NYC scene. This 1992 recording is a collection of ten gospel and blues standards, interpreted as only Diamanda could, with just her deep-deep-deep voice and a piano. Includes I Put a Spell On You, Gloomy Sunday, Balm in Gilead. See That My Grave Is Kept Clean, Judgement Day. (MUT01278) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

Shooting Rubberbands at the Stars

Artfully blending the music, ambience, sentiments, and vocal and lyrical styles of the Bohemian 50's, folk-rock 60's, punk 70's, and New Folk/New Age 80's, Edie adds her own light loobies and distinguishing signature to her debut album of original material. Primary instrumentation consists of guitars of various sorts — many of them electric — drums and bass; and her vocal quality is somewhat reminiscent of Suzanne Vega, Michelle Shocked, Christine Lavin, you get the picture. (GEF24192) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

Ghost of a Dog

Picking up where their first album left off, this release uses a more varied instrumentation to produce a slightly smoother sound. Opening with the catchy and clever Mama Help Me, Edie weaves words into that distinctive bohemian sound. Also includes Carmelita, a lighthearted tale of infidelity, and the romantic Times Like This. (GEF24304) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Ellen James Society

Reluctantly We

This 2-woman 2-man band combines the riveting energy of the punk movement with post-punk intimacy and accuracy...their music demands attention, captivating the listener both musically and lyrically. Lots of Indigo Girls connections; the album features a live cut recorded with them; the two ensembles have been touring together; this record label was created by Amy Ray of the Indigo Girls; and she co-produced it with the 2 women of the band, Chris McGuire and Cooper Seay. You might recognize the Society's name from The World According to Garp; Ellen James was a woman whose tongue was cut out by her rapist, and many women cut out their own tongues to express their support for her. (DAE01) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ellen James Society

The Survivors Parade

Their second (1992) release spins punchy with pop sensibilities and underground attitude, expanding their trademark loud guitar sound with slide and bowed guitar, cello, trumpet and more vocal interplay...a logical progression of the Ellen James sound. Includes Resistance, Proper Rocker, Sighting at the Sun, and 7 others. (DAE054) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Eurythmics

Be Yourself Tonight

Alecia Franklin teams up with Annie Lennox here to perform the phenomenal feminist declaration Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves...a song to celebrate the conscious liberation of the female state! Mothers, daughters and their daughters too! Woman to woman! We're singing with you...Sisters are doing it for themselves! Standin' on their own two feet! And singin' on their own terms. (RCA5426) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Everything But the Girl

Idewild

This English duo consists of Tracey Thorn on vocals and Ben Watt on guitars and (mostly) backing vocals, and they co-write many of the songs. How to describe the results? How about poetic, literary vignettes on love and life and relationships, backed by some of the poppiest persuasive effects and pristine keyboards and guitar this reviewer has ever heard? Tracey's voice is simply lovely; sounds kinda like caramel tastes, dark and rich and sweet, and her lyrics are like letters home to a friend. I like that she's not afraid to show her warts, as they say, on subjects like jealousy and possessiveness (I Always Was Your Girl, Tears All Over Town), and that she bonds her girlfriends (Blue Moon Rose) and loves her nephew (These Early Days). Overall, a wonderful recording, worthy of playing over and over! (SIR25821) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Happy Rhodes Volume I

Most debut releases are a bit tentative, and usually rightly so. However, this upstate New York native debuted herself into the music world with a double cassette (this, plus Volume II) in 1986, obviously having no qualms about showing herself — and how thrilled we are that she's here! Incredible voice, lots of dramatic synthesizer, plus her earlier work such as this album is also characterized by lovely acoustic melodies. The artwork is an original painting of something hungry-looking (out of Clive Barker's Claw). Highly recommended (a comment you're going to be reading frequently among the next few listings!) (AQ0008) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Volume II

If you haven't read the review of Volume I yet, please do so now, then order them both. In fact, read on, and get them all! I promise you won't regret it, unless the covers give you nightmares, or something (and if they do, perhaps this is the time to check out that great therapist your friends keep recommending). Includes Under and Over the Brink, One Alien, To the Funniest, The Revelation. (AQ0007) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes

Rearment

More electronic than her first two releases, this 1986 recording contains shades of early Kate Bush (most notably Lionheart) lovely ethereal vocals, multi-layered melodies that reach right in and hook you, and wry, quirky lyrics. Her first 3 albums were released within the same year, all we can assume is that she's been singing, songwriting and playing since the early embryonic stages, given the high level of sophistication and all-around superb quality. Includes The Perfect Body, I Am a Legend, Dreams Are Crystal Globes, Anybody's Dream. Also some stylistic references to Cocteau Twins: Love this artist, and each of her recordings! (AQ0011) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes

Ecto

Happy has a voice which will be (exhaustively) compared to Kate Bush and Annie Lennox; there's just no way to avoid the comparisons, but her visions are a bit darker, say in the gothic-apocalyptic vein — or, rather, lots of blood red roses and peeling wallpaper kind-of moods... Anyway, it's just the greatest voice, and when she self-harmonizes, the result is just heavenly! The instrumentation is highly melodic and sometimes heavy synth, with brightly counterpoints — complex and labyrinthine but at the same time totally natural! This 1987 release is her 4th, highly recommended! (AQ0013) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes

Warpaint

This 1991 release, Happy's 5th (not bad for a mere babe of 25!) and most polished to date, "drifts into the listener's psyche like gently whispered messages from the spirit world." This self-confessed music addict brings a fresh energy to our collection of electronic/experimental music by combining fly-on-the-wall observations of life and living with an impressive array of electronic effects, plus a touch of haunting European-ish violin... The result is warmer than most synthesizer recordings, mostly due to her voice, which remains primarily in the lower registers here (Annie Lennox, is she yours?). Her bold and beautiful expression, vision and artistry account for her large cult following, which we predict you'll be joining as soon as you experience her. Highly recommended! (AQ0017) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hole

Pretty On the Inside

Those of you who follow Madonna's every move may have heard about Hole — they were the first band she wanted to sign when she acquired her own record label (but so far hasn't). Even though her musical style couldn't be more different from this 3-woman 1-man band's grungy punk, there's a similarity: they both push their limits as far as they can. Lead singer Courtney Love (who says, "We're coming at things with a more feminine, lunar viewpoint. There's been so much white male posturing in rock that what's really important to me is getting across the female perspective — and that includes both rage and vulnerability") has a voice from hell that you want to make love to and run from at the same time. This 1991 album's been compared to Patti Smith's Horses — it's a raw nerve, completely uncensored. Kim Gordon of Sonic Youth produced this gut-wrenching, present-of-piece-of-work, highly recommended for those that can handle it. (CAR1710) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Horse

The Same Sky

From the opening song And She Smiled, Horse sets the tone for this "must have" album. Her androgynous look may confuse some (not unintentionally; the label rep we first spoke to was reluctant to confirm the gender of this artist), but one listen to her multi-octave voice and her "play it till you drop" band should convince you that this album should earn a respected place in your stereo cabinet. Other tracks like The Speed of the Bear of My Heart and Never Not Going to Will prove that an artist with heart, beat and talent can still blend just enough vocal and just enough instrumentation to overwhelm without overpowering. Very highly recommended. (CAP48986) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Indigo Girls

We've gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area, where they've played frequently, so as they debut on a major label, we thought it time to answer to our customers' wishes. Folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, road, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains little cut plus Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls, w/Ellen James Society

Nomads * Indians * Saints

While the music of Emily Saliers and Amy Ray is firmly rooted in the folk-rock tradition, this 1990 release leans more towards the contemporary pop end of the spectrum. Thoughtful, introspective and self-challenging are still apt descriptions of their lyrical content, but the music has a harder edge to it, especially those songs which feature Amy's husky voice. With guest appearances by Mary Chapin Carpenter on Southbound in the Springtime and the Ellen James Society on 1, 2, 3, 4, a must for fans who want to follow the evolution of the band. (EPC46820) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Live: Back On the Bus Y'All

This 1991 release is an 8-song album containing live renditions of some of their most often-requested material from their earlier albums, plus their cover of Dylan's All Along the Watchtower (not currently available on other titles) and a previously released version of 1, 2, 3, 4 thrown in for good measure. They are accompanied on several selections by the Ellen James Society. Rather than lyrics, you'll find tour photos in the insert. (EPC47508) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Rites of Passage

This 1992 release rides high on a rhythmic undercurrent of Latin and African percussion, a new maturity in songwriting, and a renewed sense of vitality in their delivery. Includes guest vocal appearances by the Roches, Jackson Browne and David Crosby; great fiddle by Lisa Germano; includes Virginia Woolf, Cedar Tree, Ghost, Emily Saliers says, "The freshness of this album is that we recorded these songs without any preconceived notions of how they should sound." Insane Jane A Green Little Pill

This Georgia-based band, who recently played at the Atlanta Gay Pride celebration, has audiences and critics alike responding to their passionate vocals, stinging guitar lines and rock steady rhythm session. The one female in the 4-person band — of course, the center around which it all revolves — is founder/lead vocalist/lyricist Yellow, whose vocals are fantastic: full and earthy, at one moment delicate and beautiful, relentless and raging the next, inspiring comparisons by various reviewers to Grace Slick, Patti Smith, Janis Joplin, Exene Cervenka, and Johnette Napolitano of Concrete Blonde. This 1991 album includes Empress of Pop, She Is Falling, Once I... Your Mouth. Recommended! (SKR5040) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Jane Oliver In Concert

Many customers have put in requests for titles by this vocalist, and we see why... gorgeous, expressive voice, excellent selection of songs. This 1982 release contains Pretty Girl, Amie's Song, and more. (COL37938) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 13.95

Jane Oliver First Night/Chasing Rainbows

This specially priced 2-on-1 cassette contains 2 entire albums; songs include Come Slightly To Me, L'important C'est La Rose, Liliana, The French Waltz, and 16 more heartfelt interpretations. (COL38224) CS: 9.95

Jane Siberry No Borders Here

One of the most highly recommended recordings in our catalog and even better than her first: lyrically and instrumentally adventuresome, features beautiful harmonies and harmonies; electricity; takes you on a journey. Includes Dancing Glass, Waitress, Extra Executives, Symmetry. Like new air for old, tired, cynical ears. The form here is more rock/new wave (not acoustic) and again we don't know which category to place it in. Your record collection, perhaps? (DA0302) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 16.95

Jane Siberry Bound By the Beauty

Newly announced as we go to press, and certainly bound to be beautiful, as she's one of our very favorite artists. (REP25942) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 16.95

Jane Siberry

The first release by an artist most of you are familiar with (we hope), this Toronto-based musician has, for good reason, been likened to Joni Mitchell, Dory Previn, and the Roches, and we'd add Ferron to that, but she's too quirky to really be like anyone else. These are clever, imaginative original songs; Jane accompanies her voice with ringing harmonies, plus guitar, piano, synthesizer, and co-produced on her label. There isn't an accurate category for this album...it has strains of folk and even punk, in her bizarre sense of humor. One of the best here is The Mystery of Ogwen's Farm, a lament for a cow who disappeared. Our endorsement is qualified by the lyrics to one song which promote a generalized, oppressive misconception about why fat women are fat (fear of being attractive to men)...but, all in all, the strengths outweigh this flaw, and we highly recommend this for all the other cuts. (STR002) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95 ... LP: 6.95

Janis Joplin Pearl

This classic contains Me and Bobby McGee, Mercedes Benz, Cry Baby, A Woman Left Lonely, Buried Alive in the Blues, and more. (COL30322) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 13.95

Janis Joplin Farwell Song

Contains material which was never released prior to her death, some from live performances. Includes Tell Mama, Meclay, Amazing Grace, Heel Sneakers, One Night Stand with the Butterfield Blues Band, and title song, with an eerie reference to dying at the end. (COL37569) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 13.95

Janis Joplin's Greatest Hits

Includes Summertime, Price of My Heart, Ball and Chain, Me and Bobby McGee, accompanied by Big Brother and the Holding Company, Kozmic Blues Band, and Full Tilt Boogie Band. (COL32160) CS: 8.95 ... CD: 13.95

Jennifer Warnes

Best of Jennifer Warnes

Some of her biggest hits here, including Right Time of the Night, I Know A Heartache When I See One, Shor Through the Heart, I'm Reckless, Come To Me, and more, from 1975 through 1982. (AR18348) CS: 8.95 ... CD: 14.95

Jennifer Warnes

The Hunter

The long-awaited follow-up to Famous Blue Raincoat, this 1992 release by one of the world's most spectacular voices includes the tender Rock You Gently, a song that could probably describe many of our love relationships! Also, a great song/chant co-written with Leonard Cohen, Way Down Deep, plus Lights of Louisiana, The Whole of the Moon, and more. (PVT2088) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Jennifer Warnes

Famous Blue Raincoat

Inspired interpretations of 9 songs by one of the '60's most important songwriters, Leonard Cohen — Joan of Arc, Song of Bernadette, Bird On a Wire — performed in Jennifer's inimitable vocal style, recorded in 1986. (PVT2092) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Joan Armatrading

Whatever's For Us

Joan's very first recorded work, at age 22, a collaboration with Pam Nestor — almost all acoustic and all as lovely as the magical jacket. Joan was born in St. Kitts in 1950, Pam in Guyana in '48. Both moved to England during childhood, met in '69 and started writing together shortly afterwards, to create classics like Visionary Mountains, Gave It A Try, and the title love song. Recommended! (AM3227) CS: 8.95

Joan Armatrading

Includes Love and Affection, Down to Zero, Save Me, Somebody Who Loves You. (AM3226) CS: 8.95 ... CD: 14.95

Joan Armatrading

Show Some Emotion

With the title song, Wancho, Come On Home, Opportunity, Mama Mercy Willow, this 1977 release showcases her distinctive throaty vocals and superb guitar style. (AM3273) ... CD: 14.95

Joan Armatrading

Track Record

A sort of "Greatest Hits" album, which really demonstrates her diversity. Includes cuts from The Key, Walk Under Ladders, Me Myself I, Joan Armatrading, Show Some Emotion, and the EP How Cruel. Also features two songs not recorded elsewhere, Heaven and Frustration. (AM3319) CS: 8.95 ... CD: 14.95

Joan Armatrading

Hearts and Flowers

This 1990 release, all written, performed and arranged by Joan, can best be described as the alter ego to The Shouting Stage. The subject matter is once again relationships, but this time focuses on the positive side; she explores the depth of true friendship in More Than One Kind of Love; talks about finding true love only when the rules of society are abandoned in Promise Land; and describes the wonderful changes in a person's outlook when love is found in The Power of Dreams. A must for fans, and a great place to start for newcomers to her unique blend of synthesized sounds and tender ballads. (AM5298) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Joan Armatrading

Square the Circle

In ancient spirituality, the circle depicted the spirit, the square the material plane; squaring the circle was bringing a spiritual idea into material reality. On this 1992 release, she brings her art into real life, blending her smooth vocals with poignant, astute lyrics, and delivers messages of love and betrayal. She dives with heart and soul into topics such as infidelity on Weak Woman, abuse on Sometimes I Don't Wanna Go Home, on love and trust on True Love and Little Trick. Most outstanding though is the song If Women Ruined the World — what a concept! (AM5388) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Joni Mitchell

Court & Spark

We think this is one of her best releases ever, so we're offering it for all you nostalgic types. (ASY1001) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Joni Mitchell

Chalk Mark in a Rain Storm

This 1988 release, which features guest artists such as Peter Gabriel, Willie Nelson, Billy Idol, Tom Petty, and Wayne Shorter, contains Lakota, My Secret Place, The Tea Leaf Prophecy (Lay Down Your Arms), and others, as she addresses the institutions of militarism, materialism, marriage and more. Also, her lovely version of the traditional Cordona, which she calls A Bird That Whistles. (GEF24172) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 14.95

Joni Mitchell

Night Ride Home

From the first cricket call on the title song, this album pulls the listener in with its mellow, sensuous sound. Described as a mixture of her older and more recent styles, this 1991 release is highly accessible yet still retains the Joni Mitchell stamp of individuality. With a richness musically, lyrically, and vocally, titles include Cherokee Louise, about an abused child, Slouching Towards Bethlehem, and Ray's Dad's Cadillac. Strongly suggested listening material. (GEF24332) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 15.95

Blue

Here's another classic classic, if it's time to replace that old worn-out vinyl! (REP2039) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Julia Fordham

Swept

"Don't scare me, don't scare me/With talk of forever and always/Just stay" (Scare Me) sums up Julia's favorite theme on her third recording. Sadness and fear fuel her incredible "instrument" — her voice, as she croons, moans, and cries out her pain in songs like Shame and Walk, Talk, Drive. Sounds like a total bummer, but it's not! Her jazzy intonations and clever phrasing will really hook you — Love Moves in Mysterious Ways is guaranteed to implant itself into your brain cells — most song arrangements lean towards the lounge... (VIR91748) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Juliana Hatfield

Hey Babe

Following the demise of the Boston alternative pop trio Blake Babies, this bassist and singer/songwriter's first solo effort is a heady, poignant mixture of her sweet voice and potent rocking arrangements. She sings about bad relationships and self-doubt using quirky melodies bedded in layers of power pop. Ironic lyrics are delivered by her vulnerable soprano — a contradiction that works. A Who's Who in alternative music fills out the tracks, including Evan Dando of the Lemonheads and John Wesley Harding. (MAM0035) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Karla Bonoff

One of our favorites, with Love Again, I Ain't It Always Love, Someone to Lay Down Beside Me. Most songs are original; in addition to her outstanding voice, she contributes piano and acoustic guitar; Wendy Waldman and Linda Ronstadt on background vocals. (COL34672) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 13.95

Karla Bonoff

Restless Nights

Includes the beautifully harmonic song Baby Don't Go and The Water is Wide. We love her. Midline. (COL35799) CS: 6.95 ... CD: 13.95

Kate Bush

Hounds of Love

This 1985 recording resembles little in Kate's previous discography. Images of spirituality and conflicting layers of consciousness pervade; myth and reality merge and split love and life and death and rebirth—you're lucky to land with your feet on the ground! Instrumentation is similarly textured: subtle vocals and piano peek through wave after wave of electronically-altered keyboards, drums, vocals, a wide array of synthesizers. Side 2 is subtitled "The Ninth Wave" in reference to Tennyson's The Coming of Arthur. Highly, highly recommended for the acoustically challenged. (EMI17171) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.95

Kate Bush
Lionheart

The mellowest Kate Bush we've found... if Kate can ever be called mellow... Symphony in Blue and On England My Lionheart are both melancholy and beautiful, while Kashka from Baghdad is a light, shimmering piece about two men in love, and Fulham documents the inner splits and struggles that we face as women. (EMI17006) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Kate Bush
The Whole Story

This is a BEST OF album, with some of her most well-known cuts from previous recordings including Baboganka, Wiv, Breathing, Wuthering Heights, Hounds of Love, The Dreaming. (EMI17242) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kristen Hall
Real Life Stuff

The debut album from this Atlanta-based singer/songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and... well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice: it's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy...aw heck, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE5055) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall
Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voices. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's) and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Gang of Four and B-52's). It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Out in the Country and same with I Have My Reasons; highly recommended! (DAE5053) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

L7
Bricks Are Heavy

Finally! Punk by women whose gender is consequential only because there are so few women in the genre. This 1992 album has everything: buzz saw guitars, raspy voices, kick-ass lyrics. These 4 women are unafraid and they believe real rock n' roll isn't pretty...they're not chicks with lots of hair holding guitars looking cute; they're for real, and will shove that fact down your throat if you get a chance to see them live. And if you like your bands to be politically correct, L7 helped found "Rock for Choice." Contains the college radio favorite Pretend We're Dead, an anthem to non-conformity. (SLH26784) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro
Christmas and the Beads of Sweat

One of her most wonderful early albums, includes Brown Earth, When I Was A Freeport and You Were The Main Drag. Up On The Roof, and more. (COL30250) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Laura Nyro and Labelle Gonna Take a Miracle

Sweet, wild harmonies, and some great old tunes—Monkey Time, Dancing in the Streets, Spanish Harlem, Jimmy Mack, I Met Him on a Sunday. Nydia Mata on congas and bongos. (COL30987) CD: 13.98

Laura Nyro
Nestled

Original songs about passion, the universe, and her unborn child. Also some social commentary, as in American Dreamer. "Autumn's child is catchin' hell/ For having been too naive to tell/ Property rights from wedding bells..." Cut-out, limited quantity. (COL35448) CS: 6.98

Laurie Anderson
Mister Heartbreak

Oh, Missus Lady! This album will put you under Laurie Anderson's magical spell... as she takes you on a journey through lush, surreal musical landscapes. The high level of structural and emotional diversity seems impossible to attain, but the universal result will reach into the tender depths of any listener's soul. Gorgeous instrumentation (Korean kayagum, synthesizer, electronic conches, shekere, violin, bells, wood blocks, guitars, bass, bamboo, to name a few) with help from such talents as Roma Baran, Peter Gabriel, Bill Laswell, Anton Pier, William Burroughs, Phoebe Snow... Songs include: Kokoku, Blue Lagoon, Excellent Birds, Sharkey's Day, Sharkey's Night, Granny's Angel. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed. (WB25077) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Anderson
Strange Angels

Two intense years in the making, this 1989 release is Laurie's most direct to date, more melodic, with Laurie somehow more emotionally exposed than in previous recordings. Her vocal abilities are more upfront (hey, she's a soprano!), and she incorporates vocal contributions from such greats as Bobbie McFerrin and the Roches. Includes Beautiful Red Dress, a peen to her period ("look out baby! I'm at high tide") with sarcastic references to unequal pay for equal work ("for every dollar a man makes a woman makes 63 cents. Now, fifty years ago that was 62 cents. So, with that kind of luck, it'll be the year 3,666 before we make a buck"). Angels are another primary theme, and their counterparts, devils, too. A significant piece in the developing vision of this artist — recommended! (WB25900) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laurie Anderson
Big Science

This excellent album is a wonderfully bizarre compilation of poetic musings taken from an original body of work entitled United States I-IV. The rhythm and flow of the lyrics are enhanced by the synthetic re-structuring of Laurie's voice...various electronic "instruments" and synthesizers work to render it from a clipped and almost inhuman chant to an echo-y and dreamlike narration...spooky fun! Songs include: Swabara, O Superman, It Tango. Co-produced by the talented Roma Baran. Highly recommended. (WB3674) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Germano
On the Way Down From Moon Palace

Known to some as the fiddler who performs with John Cougar Mellencamp, or on the Indigo Girls' Rites of Passage album, Lisa is a great musician in her own right, and deserves to be heard. The Moon Palace is a piece where women live through men's light; she's on her way out there! A highly diverse album in style and mood, this 1991 solo debut contains both original instrumentals (she plays almost all the instruments: violin, guitar, mandolin, piano, accordion, autoharp) and covers with vocals and a fuller band. Quite unique, and somehow compelling, with her beautiful violin-playing holding the many strands together. (MBL181) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mamas & Papas
16 Greatest Hits

All the hits by the classic foursome which included Cass Elliott and Michelle Phillips (for those of you who weren't born yet: mother to Chynna Phillips of Wilson Phillips, and Paige Matthews of Knots Landing). Includes California Dreamin', Dedicated to the One I Love, I Saw Her Again, Last Night, Monday Monday, I Call Your Name, Dream a Little Dream of Me, and more. (MCA1647) CS: 8.98

Martha Reeves and the Vandellas
Greatest Hits

Includes Dancing in the Street, (Love Is Like a) Heatwave, and more by one of the greatest girl groups of all time. (MOT204) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

My Sister Jane

This is a great last minute addition to our 1991-92 catalog... and if it weren't so much fun, this album would have been set aside for next spring's consideration! This 5-woman band from Salt Lake City defies form and function — their songs are direct and unpredictable, yet altogether appealing. They combine blues, folk, country and funk roots with an unorthodox approach to rock: interesting mymes and rhythms, with instrumentation ranging from mouth harp to rhythm guitars, bass and drums, to sax, flute and mandolin — and vocals, lots of vocals. Some were members of Wild Women for Peace, and most were previously in a band called Cowgirls Kinda... we advise you to catch them in this reincarnation. Recommended! (MSJ1) CS: 9.98

Nona Hendryx
Female Trouble

This 1987 album from this power-filled, passionate singer-songwriter — now at a great price — is dedicated to Winnie Mandela, and contains Winds of Change (Mandela to Mandela), a beautiful tribute, as well as Too Hot to Handle, Drive Me Wild, and other tunes, mostly original, brimming with sexuality, desire and confidence. (EMI46550) CS: 5.98 CD: 9.98

Oleta Adams
Circle of One

Discovered in a small hotel piano bar by the band Tears for Fears, Oleta was first tapped to contribute vocals to their 1989 album — in fact, they refused to finish recording until she consented to quit her job and join them! One listen to the smoky, glowing embers of her incredible voice shows you why! Features the hit Got Here, plus Rhythm of Life as well as title, I've Got a Right and other originals. Pull up a comfy chair, pour a cup of tea, and warm yourself by her fire! (PLG846346) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patti Smith
Easter

This is our favorite Patti Smith album jacket... where else in the commercial realm did you see hairy armpits on a woman in 1978? Includes Rock n' Roll Nigger, opening with frantic poetry. Because the Night, co-written with Springsteen; Space Monkey, Babelogue. High on Rebellion. (AR18349) CS: 8.98 CD: 14.98

Patti Smith
Dream of Life

Finally, the album that so many have been awaiting... as Patti comes bounding out of a long retirement with this 1989 release. Beginning with the visionary People Have the Power and ending with the gentle lullaby The Jackson Song, she explores the relationships and the thin boundaries between dreaming and waking life, heaven and earth, physical and spirit worlds... showing she has lost neither her punch nor her poetry. (AR18453) CS: 8.98 CD: 14.98

Rickie Lee Jones
Flying Cowboys

Her best ever, take out word for it... right from the opening cut. Fight seems to be a theme here, as well as her usual collage/kaleidoscope of wonderful images, personalities, truths, emotion, nuances, and poetic clips. Includes Rodeo Girl. (GEF24244) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rickie Lee Jones
Pop Pop

This 1991 release is a 1987-era, acoustic, jazz-influenced album, featuring songs both familiar and obscure... an intriguing collection. Includes Bye Bye Blackbird, Spring Can Really Hang You Up the Most, Up From the Skies. (GEF24428) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor
I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got

This 1990 release opens with the Serenity Prayer and ends with the title cut which sounds like a Buddhist meditation; in-between are songs about topics ranging from social statements to the physical aspects of love to recognition of spiritual realities and inner strength. Includes Nothing Compares 2 U and I Am Stretched On Your Grave. ("my grief for the girl that I loved as a child... the priests and the nuns/ approach me in dread/ because I still love you... if your hand were in mine I'd be sure we'd not sever/ my apple tree my brightness"). (CHR21759) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor
The Lion and the Cobra

Sinead has been part of the renaissance of women artists which has been the surprise of the 1988 commercial music scene. Her debut album is raw, intense, and varied, demonstrating her own quick extremes and contradictions (lovely yet demure; wild and loud yet innocent) as well as her ability to create within a multitude of musical styles. (CHR41912) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Silts
The Peel Sessions

Recorded in '77-'78 for Jon Peel's Radio One program, this could very well become a collector's item in a few years! Featuring seven of this quintessential band's early songs (Love and Romance, Shop Lifting, So Tough, FM), it really epitomizes the anger and attitude of the early-to-mid punk movement, where women took the liberty to be as obnoxious as they damn well pleased. Remember that quick drum phrasing and guitar thrumming, choppy vocals swooping in and out of (and behind) the music? God, they were great... (SFT8304) CS: 8.98 CD: 11.98

Sophie B. Hawkins Tongues and Tails

We've heard her concerts are enlightening, or rather "out"standing, and she's a favorite pick of DJ's everywhere (including our shipping room!). Her smooth sensual voice carries you through Damn I Wish I Was Your Lover and moves you uncontrollably to Myestesies We Understand. Also includes Live and Let Love a title we take to heart. Just put this on at your next party and press the Repeat button — it has a bit of every mood you want to generate! (COL45797) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

10,000 Maniacs

Hope Chest

This compilation is a Maniacs' fan's dream! Reissuing their previously out-of-print first two recordings, Human Conflict No. 5 (1982) and Secrets of the I Ching (1983) is the kind of treatment one usually wishes for, but rarely gets realized! The liner notes give extensive information on the band's early days, as they scraped out a living raking leaves and writing songs — including My Mother the War, Natalie's song which propelled the band to fame first in England, then in the US. 14 songs in all, a little rougher and jangly (and perhaps more adventurous) than their now characteristic seamless pop, but gems nonetheless! Lyrics included. (EL60963) CS: $9.98 CD: 14.98

Throwing Muses

House Tornado

Looking (and sometimes sounding) like a demented cherub, band leader Kristin Hersh writes songs where you're following her thought, when Bambi she's off on an Impressionist/Surrealist/Cubist kinda tangent, but hey, it works, so you keep following her down the peculiar, loopy trail she leaves... Very imagistic, heavy on jangly guitars and staccato drums, light on traditional rock structures. Includes Mexican Woman, a kinda Flrida Kahlo-does-and experience, plus The River, Saving Grace, Marriage Tree, Giant. (SIR25710) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Real Ramona

This 1991 album favors a more conventional form than their previous releases, utilizing more vocal harmonies and recognizable rhythms. While Kristin still leads the band, Tanya Donnelly now adds songwriting to her guitar and vocal contributions. The songs remain strange and painterly, with such titles as Golden Thing, Elton West, Book in Her Head, Honeychain. (SIR26489) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Til Tuesday

Welcome Home

This 1988 release is just the thing to put on the stereo after a hard day at the grind — the lyrics are sweet, soothing, witty, literate and sensitive; to use just a few appropriate adjectives! Assistant and songwriter Ames Mann also happens to have one of the most gorgeous voices this reviewer has ever heard — trust me, and give this a try. Includes Coming Up Close, Lovers' Day, Angels Never Call, and No One is Watching You Now. Oh yeah, most enthusiastically recommended! (EPC40214) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Til Tuesday

Everything's Different Now

Many documentations of the loss of one's lover would simply wallow in melancholy and blame, boring us to tears — well, this is certainly not the case here! As with any exceptional artist, Ames Mann has taken the stuff of her life and skillfully transformed it into a thing of beauty. Some of the songs on this 1988 release do reflect pain, yes, but with such sweet candor and desire to process what went wrong and get on with life, that the listener is gifted with the resulting recording — highly recommended, if you haven't already guessed! (EPC44041) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Toni Childs

Union

Infused with polyethnic rhythms, moods, arrangements and background vocal styles, Toni's debut album showcases her amazingly rich, deep, full, expressive, emotive, powerhouse voice (at intermittent moments recalling Joan Armatrading or Nina Simone) as well as her conceptual, songwriting, and collaborative abilities. Zimbabwe and other cuts feature vocal tracks by African choirs from Zambia and Swaziland. This album offers depth and sustained interest, each listening will uncover new strands and layers... recommended! (AM5175) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Toni Childs

House of Hope

Combining a voice like Roland Gift's and the intensity of Melissa Etheridge, Toni Childs adds something all her own to create unique and compelling songs. Her themes on this latest album are varied — spouse and child abuse, falling in love, angst — but no simple phrase can express the nuances she manages to pack into each piece. With a great voice, complex music and soul-searching lyrics, this is a fantastic follow-up to a promising debut album. Listen for the title song during one of the driving sequences in the movie Thelma and Louise. (AM5356) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tori Amos

Little Earthquakes

If you're a Kate Bush fan, buy this! If you aren't a Kate Bush fan, buy this too — Tori possesses only Kate's best qualities, and none of her worst ones. The lyrics are intelligent and literary, the arrangements are lightly layered, her acoustic piano rivals Kate's in sheer beauty and melody, and her voice is slightly fuller and not given to heavenward histrionics... OK, OK, enough comparisons. Songs include the pop tune Leather, the poetic ballad Mother, plus the acappella Me and a Gun, a haunting narrative of a rape (Yes I Was a Slinky Red Thing does that mean I should spread for you, your friends, your father...), Highly recommended. This collection, created as a benefit for AIDS, is a sensational treatment of Cole Porter songs by hot, current artists. Its range includes a traditional rendition of You Do Something to Me by Sinead O'Connor, a heartbreaking version of So In Love by k.d. lang, and contributions by David Byrne, Annie Lennox, Neneh Cherry, and others. Various, inc. The Mint Juleps

Do It A Cappella

At this point in 1991, this is the only recorded audio work we have of the oft-requested amazing women's acappella sextet the Mint Juleps; they perform 3 cuts here. Don't Let Your Heart, I Want to Live Easy, and Higher and Higher, and they collaborate with Ladysmith Black Mambazo on The Lion Sleeps Tonight. Also features works by the Persuasions, Rockapella, Take 6, True Image, and more by Ladysmith. This is the original soundtrack recording from the film starring Spike Lee, Debbie Allen, and the above musicians. (EL80953) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Wendy Waldman

Letters Home

She's been one of our faves for years... even though it's not always easy to keep her titles in stock... she has a beautiful voice, kind bluesy. This 1987 album contains all original songs, and she really rocks out on some of them. This Wall, Destined to Be Wild, The Renegade Side, and more. And, a budget price! (CYP66114) CS: 4.98

Whoopi Goldberg et al

Sister Act - Original Soundtrack

You saw the movie — right? And you loved it — right again? Now you can enjoy the fabulous music over and over again! In case you were wondering, that was Whoopi singing all her own vocal parts! Deloris J. The Sisters perform Hail Holy Queen, My Guy (My God), I Will Follow Him, Shout. Also includes Deloris & The Ronettes' opening lounge medley, Fantella Bass, Rescue Me, Lady Soul's If My Sister's in Trouble, and more. Recommended, of course! (HR61334) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Yoko Ono

Walking on Thin Ice

Following the 1992 release of the 6-CD boxed set of Yoko's music, this single album of 19 highlights was compiled from the 105-song retrospective. Once considered experimental, her music now sounds incredibly contemporary, and this album is a testament to the fact that Yoko was simply way ahead of her time. It reveals her many compelling musical sides: from the undeniable groove of the like cut, a 1960 hit, to the tender lilt of Nobody Sees Me Like You Do, to the all-out rock and camp of Midsummer New York. Hell in Paradise could set any dance floor jumping, while Death of Samantha is a cool, almost jazz-influenced tune about the spiritual death of a young woman. And then there's Woman Power... released in 1973, mind you! Over 70 minutes, a great opportunity to more fully appreciate this passionate, precocious artist who was too often primarily defined by her relationship to a man. (RYK230) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stealin Horses

Mesas and Mandolins

Kiys and Kopana (and band) are back, this time on an independent record label which gave them the creative control they needed to bring their vision into being. Frankly, this 1991 album is the better for it! If there were such a genre as "Southwestern Rock", they would be the divas of it. The vocals are husky and tight (move over Melissa), the guitars are sparkly and melodic, and Kopana's drumming keeps the arrangements crisp. Highlights include This House, If You Want to Be Lovers, and Broad Form Dead, a lovely adaptation of the traditional Shady Grove. (WAL7406) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stevie Nicks

The Other Side of the Mirror

A special for you bargain-hunters! Stevie is known for her many years with Fleetwood Mac, as well as for her accomplishments as a solo artist in her own right. Her silvery voice, always her trademark, here graces mostly original songs, including Juliet and Alice. This 1989 album is dedicated to "Alice (in wonderland), my grandmother, the Queen of Hearts." (ATL91245) CS: 5.98 CD: 8.98

Tanita Tikaram

Ancient Heart

There's a quality about this British woman's voice that's almost mesmerizing: it's so deep, yet light and airy; so expressive; so unusual; if you want something with a truly unique sound, try this. All original songs, Tanika on all vocals and guitar, very tastefully and simply produced; recommended! (REP25835) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tanita Tikaram

The Sweet Keeper

This follow-up to her debut album contains more original songs of inner secrets and stories, in her amazing, exotic voice that's a good octave below most women's ranges — and that much richer. Beautiful melodies and arrangements, includes Little Sister Leaving Town, Once & Not Speak. (REP26001) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tanita Tikaram

Everybody's Angel

This 1991 release manages to be incredibly rich, simple and sophisticated all at the same time. While the list of instruments is impressive in itself — fogel horn, alto and tenor sax, trumpet, guitar, drums, piano, Hammond organ, loop horn, and a whole string orchestra — Tanita's deep, husky voice soars above, weaving through lyrics which defy easy interpretation. Jennifer Warnes provides vocal support on Mud In Any Water and Only the Ones We Love. (REP26486) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tanita Tikaram

Eleven Kinds of Loneliness

Simply the most distinctive voice in the biz, guaranteed to make those unfamiliar with her stop and ask, "Who is that?" On this 1992 release, her 4th, you may ask "What in the world is she talking about?" Well, we can't give you any answers to that, but rest assured: she's the real thing! Her voice and lyrics become dance partners, each dependent upon the moves of the other, yet each are mesmerizing in and of themselves. Includes Heal You, You Make the Whole World Cry. (REP26035) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Blind Man's Zoo

Natalie Merchant offers a second album full of of musical, lyrical, pointed song-vignettes. She gracefully tackles topics from poverty to environmental pollution to war to imperialism to racism, powerfully communicating messages of conscience in songs like Hateful Hate, Jubilee, The Lion's Share, Dust Bowl, Fusion in the Wall. May the radio signals ever be filled with sounds like these! (EL60815) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

R&B ♦ Rap ♦ Dance

En Vogue Funky Divas

Self-worth, bigotry, pride, losing and finding love are only some of the themes found on the multi-sound second release (1992) by these 4 young women. They call upon rap, reggae, soul and rock to deliver their contemporary commentary, putting it all together with great vocals and harmonies. Includes Free Your Mind, My Lovin' (You've Never Gonna Get It), and their self-proclaiming I Ain't Over Till the Fat Lady Sings. (EW92121) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Grace Jones Nightclubbing

This recording is Grace's finest, in this reviewer's humble opinion... It combines crucial elements of island rhythms and rock/disco hits to create a sultry, smoky-hot compilation of dance tunes. Recommended! (PLG842368) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

Monie Love Down to Earth

Perhaps familiar to you as Queen Latifah's partner on the incendiary Ladies First, or perhaps from her radio hit, It's A Shame — regardless, buy this immediately, put it on your stereo, push the "repeat" button, and get ready for some serious fun! Monie is one of the few female rappers who doesn't spend most of her time complaining about or lending off-dishes from the guys — she's got better things to do, like telling the music industry bosses Don't Funk With the Ms., exhorting her slack sisters to clean up their acts in Pips Lickin' Boce, strutting off an abusive lover in Just Don't Give A Damn, and thoroughly embodying self-respect, independence and a joyous intelligence. Highly recommended! (WB26358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Pointer Sisters Serious Slamin'

Emerging from the age of funk, the Pointer Sisters use and live up to the spirit of today's dance and rap music. This recent album features songs like Serious Slamin', Shut Up and Dance, and Flirtatious — draw your own conclusions! So, if you're ready to dance, let June, Anita and Ruth turn you on. (RCA8562) CS: 4.98

Queen Latifah All Hail the Queen

Queen Latifah, a.k.a. Dana Owens, has established herself as one of the most significant forces shaping the powerful fusion of rap, dancehall reggae, hip-hop and funk... with a heaping dose of political content. Included here are the scathing The Evil That Men Do, which attacks the oppressions of racism and poverty; Ladies First ("Stereotypes have got to go"), A King and Queen (in which she traces her ancestry, and that of all Black people, back to Queen Nefertiti of Egypt), Mama Gave Birth to the Soul Children, Princess of the Poses. Recommended! (TB1022) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Queen Latifah Nature of a Sista

Afrocentric, woman-identified, artistic, and graciously non-sensational, Queen Latifah reigns proud here, on her second recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Funxy and Sad As A Mother, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to: Give Me Your Love and the incandescent How Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism (and sexism on the part of male R&B radio programmers), she would have the same (or more) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. Highly recommended! (TB1035) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Salt-N-Pepa Blacks' Magic

Considered to be one of their best albums ever, this 1990 release contains a "Mystical Side" and a "Magical Side". Salt, Pepa and Spinderella kick off with what was the platinum Number One Rap Single of the year, Expression, and continue with the driving rhythms and rhythms of their gold singles (Talk About Sex and Do You Want Me), plus independent, like track and more. (NP41019) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Salt-N-Pepa The Hits Remixed

This rap trio (Salt, Pepa, and Spinderella, their DJ) has been rapping it up for years now, with their trademark snazzy, sassy feminist lyrics and great beat; this collection of remixed hits is a fine chronology of their careers. Beginning with Do You Want Me, and of course featuring their monster hit Push It, it also includes Independent and Let's Talk About Sex... truly a blitz of Salt-N-Pepa hits! (NP41025) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Soho Goddess

Soho broke easily into the alternative dance music scene with their hit Hippychock, and their rhythm permeates this entire album. This playful release bounces from the light clear lyrics of Out of My Mind, to Girl On a Motorcycle, to the happy-with-life-and-love message of Nuthin' on My Mind, to the title cut. We can't say enough about the great beat and danceability of this album, so we dare you to try it and sit still while listening to it! (ATL91555) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Soho Thug

15 tracks of the highly synthesized Soho sound on this 1992 release! We could spend weeks deciphering the meaning of their lyrics so we'll leave that up to you (heck, we're still trying to figure out the lyrics). Suffice to say this London-based group does some acappella experimentation but holds true to their dance floor domain. Includes Ride, Radio Soul Drops, Hawk, Yippie Saves the World. (ATL92141) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists Red Hot & Dance

Once again, popular artists have contributed their talents to raise funds to fight AIDS, but this time they've done it with original cuts and some dynamic re-mixes of their own songs. Contributions by Madonna, George Michael (including the smash hit Too Funky), Lisa Stansfield, Sabrina Johnston, Sly and the Family Stone, and Crystal Waters are showcased on this all-star compilation. (COL52826) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Yo Yo Make Way For the Motherlode

Familiar to rap fans as the LA high schooler/hip-hopster who puts N.W.A. Ice Cube in his place, this founder of the intelligent Black Women's Coalition is a delight as she thymes her way through such issues as pregnancy, sex, and disrespectful males. Includes Stand Up for Your Rights, You Can't Play with My Yo Yo, Sisterland, The BWC National Anthem, Girl Don't Be No Fool. Ice Cube shows up to do and be dissed on one cut. (EW91605) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Yo Yo Black Pearl

Hard-hitting and no-holds-barred lyrics deliver messages on issues many artists shy away from. She does a bit of everything here, from redefining superheros to bashing the Bush-Quayle agenda. She reminds us that things could be worse, and issues a challenge to everyone to beat the system; this mix is rap at its roughest and best! Includes Home Girl Don't Play Dat, Woman to Woman, Cleopatra. (EW92120) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Adeva

This New Jersey native turned European sensation, where she is the undisputed queen of "house" music, exudes tremendous lung power as well as a volcanic eruption of attitude and conviction. With driving acid house beats and stirring melodies, the tracks on this debut album encapsulate the energy and excitement of the 90's dance boom. By the time of its 1990 release in the US, it had already gone platinum and gold in several countries around the world. Includes her incredible dance cover of Respect, plus Musical Freedom, Warning!, I Thank You. Recommended! (CAP93708) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Adeva Love or Lust

Well, either one is just fine with Miss Adeva. If you ask me! This dancefloor demi-goddess seems equally at home ripping it up (It Should Have Been Me) or smoothing it out (Try My Lovin'... also includes Independent Woman, I Would Die For You, Cold-Blooded. Put this on at your next dance party (or aerobic class!) and get ready to move. (CAP95762) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin What You See Is What You Sweat

This hot 1991 release includes Everyday People, Mary Goes Round, Ever Changing Times, and her electrifying version of I Dreamed A Dream, from the Broadway show Les Miserables, which she has adapted as an unforgettable tribute to Martin Luther King. (ARI8528) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin Aretha's Greatest Hits

Includes Respect, Natural Woman, Baby I Love You, Do Right Woman, Do Right Man, Spanish Harlem, Chain of Fools... in other words, just what the title says. (ATL8295) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Deee-Lite Infinity Within

Rachel Pepper, writer/music critic/music buyer, describes this album this way: "...poorly political, Infinity Within has just as many songs which deal with serious issues like racism, environmental awareness and voter registration as it does about the powers of love. And whatever the sexual orientation of the three members of the band, everything... from Deee-Lite's statement about being pro-choice to their thanks to folks like ACT UP and Anita Hill to their sound and look and lyrics, is about as queer-identified as it gets... And though Deee-Lite may always be known more for their danceable beat than for the changing politics of our time, at least her city kids, burnt out on activism and just wanting to rave, can at least feel political as they party!" (EL91333) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin Aretha Gospel

Aretha's musical beginnings as a gospel singer, this was recorded when she was 14, singing in her father's church, and includes This Little Light of Mine, Yield Not to Temptation, Power, and more. (CH59105/021) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Mahalia Jackson World's Greatest Gospel Singer

Includes her greats Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Walk in Jerusalem, The Upper Room and more, all with her vocal magnificence. (COL37710) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

The Mahalia Jackson Collection

Probably the greatest gospel singer ever recorded, every rich nuance of this woman's voice embodies spiritual devotion; you don't have to subscribe to Christianity to appreciate her lovely countenance! Contains 20 well-known and loved traditional hymns, including in The Upper Room (parts 1 and 2), Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Walk in Jerusalem, My Story, Bless This House. (DV2006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marion Williams Strong Again

And what incredible strength she possesses! Marion recently received ecstatic reviews in Rolling Stone and NY Times for her previous album, as well as national attention for her performance in the PBS Special, Amazing Grace. This 1991 release, considered her best yet, contains a generous 20 selections, including several geared to the modern gospel audience. (5F1013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gospel

Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Sincerely, Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Not just gospel—blues and jazz too—by the first woman who popularized gospel music on the secular stage...at spots such as the Cotton Club and the Apollo. As Gipper Wallace said, "Honey, there ain't no difference [between blues and gospel], in the church we say Jesus, and in the blues we say baby." Many church members felt Rosetta had committed sacrilege, but she felt the Lord would listen wherever she sang. Selections were recorded primarily in the '40s, including Shout Sister Shout, Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child, Down by the Riverside. Several are accompanied by her own hot guitar. Recommended! (RGS1317) CS: 9.98

Bessie Smith

The Bessie Smith Collection

This ten-song compilation is a good introduction to this early lesbian Blues Queen's popular "hits," you might supplement it with a book or some reading material, since like many releases there are no liner or recording notes, just her voluptuous, rich voice. Pretty good recording quality for such old stuff, too. Includes Young Woman's Blues, Careless Love, Alexander's Ragtime Band, Hard Time Blues. (DV2008) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton

Bail N' Chain

This 60-minute CD is an excellent Big Mama anthology; includes Hound Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it); title song, one of her originals, recorded also by Janis Joplin; Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH305) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Bobi Jackson

Alligator Woman

This woman heralds the next generation of Swamp Queens — lighter on the boogie, heavier on the funk — with a joyous, amphibious splash! This 1992 debut features 6 Groove-Rocker originals, plus 2 covers, all guaranteed to move you in a variety of directions! Bobi plays keyboards, electric guitar and bass, plus wails/roars/belts it out — you get the picture! Includes the sweet Would You Be Here, for Janis Joplin, plus Hard Rockin' Woman, Born Under a Bad Sign, Menda, which introduces Veneta Phillips on trumpet. (ELP411) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Etta Baker

One-Dime Blues

She's a virtuoso performer in a style heard infrequently these days — the finger-picked guitar tradition known as the "Piedmont blues." Using a 2- and 3-fingered technique similar to that of other North Carolina guitarists such as Elizabeth Cotten and Reverend Gary Davis, Etta fingerpicks with clarity and precision. However, she never sacrifices emotion for technique, creating music that's remarkable in range and depth — by turns gentle and strong, subtle and assertive. This 1991 album contains her first recordings since 1956: masterworks from an exceptional artist. (ROU2112) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Ida Cox

Wild Women Don't Have the Blues

A volume originally recorded in 1961. Many folks have since called this blues song, but here is the woman who wrote & sang it in 1924...it's one of the strongest, no-nonsense women's statements ever made. Ida was one of the most important Classic Blues singers of the golden era ("the only decade when women reigned"). (RGS1304) CS: 9.98

Katie Webster

Swamp Boogie Queen

Bonnie Raitt considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion...which we'd agree with. And, she's already released over 500 recordings; it's about time for her to gain some notoriety. This, her first album in several years, is a musical jumble of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, r&b and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie piano. Includes Who's Making Love?, Black Satin. (ALL4766) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Katie Webster

Two-Fisted Mama!

To find a better mix of blues, soul and boogie than this, one would have to club-hop in New Orleans for a week! Her booming voice and piano prowess predominate on every song, and the transition from blues to boogie proves to be no challenge for her big league talent. Includes C.O. Boogie, a song commemorating the birth of her grandchildren, and So Far Away a gospelized version of the Dire Straits song. Recommended for anyone with an appreciation for the down-home New Orleans sound! (ALL4777) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

No Foolin'!

More rollicking good times with Katie and crew — this woman is simply the best piano-thumping, floor-stomping, blues-beltin' Delta Queen this reviewer has ever heard! She can croon, she can holler, she can hurt ya bad and make ya beg for more! Includes A Little Meat on the Side, I'm Bad, Mama Cat Catin' No Slack. (ALL4803) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Koko Taylor

Queen of the Blues

On this all-out, foot-stomping, house-rocking recording, Koko wraps her giant voice around 10 great songs, including Queen Bee, Furnin' Mama, Come to Mama, I Can Love You Like a Woman (or I Can Fight You Like a Man). With guest performances by Albert Collins, James Cotton, Son Seals, and Lorie Brooks. (ALL4749) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Marcia Ball/A. Strehli/L.A. Barton

Dreams Come True

These 3 Gulf Coast Blueswomen (Marcia, Angela, and Lou Ann) each have flourishing solo careers in the Austin, Texas music scene, and it took 5 years to pull this group effort together. We're glad they hung in there, because the result is a fantastic testament to each of their strengths, vocally, musically, and lyrically. Joined by bassist/producer/songwriter Sarah Brown, they move smooth as silk and hard as nails through 12 tracks, ranging from the Turner's A Fool in Love to Marcia's Snake Dance and Sarah's Bad Thing. The liner notes are a bit disappointing, but recommended anyway! (AN0014) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Marcia Ball

Gatorhythms

Blending a fine mix of original hot Gulf Coast Blues, R&B and swamp-rockin' Boogie Woogie with some classics (What's A Girl To Do, Red Hot), this girl nps it up with smoky vocals, soulful piano, bouncy accordion and organ riffs...she could be a one-woman band, but is joined here by some fantastic accompanists plus the joyful background vocals of hometown girls Angela Strehli and Lou Ann Barton. Includes Mama's Cooking and the reverent Power of Love. (ROU3101) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

The Uppity Blues Women

The Washington Post describes this as "Sassy, brassy, raunchy...raucy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jolly-ho harmonies. Sue Foley

Young Girl Blues

This young Canadian blues singer/guitarist is simply amazing! Some quotes from the artist: "Woman grow up faster than men and that shows in the way they play guitar." And: "I'm going to play as good as a man and I ain't gonna be no rhythm player." Well, at the tender age of 22, this is already true — in fact, she's probably better than most men. Her 1992 debut release showcases her diverse abilities: she mixes low-down originals in the Lightning Hopkins vein with cool instrumentals from Earl Hooker and vintage numbers from Memphis Minnie and Tampa Red; also a vocal duet with Angela Strehli. Million Dollar Secret

A strong, wonderful debut album by the popular hot young Chicago blues singer who appeared as Big Maybelle in the movie Great Balls of Fire; the story of rockabilly legend Jerry Lee Lewis; other theatrical roles have included portrayals of Ma Rainey and Bessie Smith — get the picture of her power? This followed her opera and classical training! Includes great originals like Independent Blues; songs that cry out from the blues' most extreme depths like Gold, Cold Feeling; Bessie Smith classics like Dirty No-Gooder's Blues, which harbor no illusions about men...Accompanied by Sunnyland Slim and other Chicago musicians. Another dynamite collection of tunes, mostly reissued here for the first time, like Ethel Waters' No Man's Mama, Ora Alexander's Man Sure Ain't Deceiving, Billie Holiday's Now Baby or Never, Rosetta Feltz compiled the series; background noises are filtered out, yielding a very clean, clear sound quality. An anthology of bawdy blues, most dealing with women's sexuality, others just rowdy in language, spoken or omitted, such as a line by Sweet Peas Spivey (younger sister of Victoria who died at age 33): "When I first met you, I thought I fell in good luck/Now I know you ain't worth a..." Boogie Blues: Women Sing & Play

Passion, vitality, sensuality, intensity...these are the foundations of the type of blues known as boogie woogie. In fact, the word "boogie" was a euphemism for sex around the turn of the century, and that "the boogie and the boogie beat were integral to the blues." Boogie woogie was referred to as "fast western" or "fast blues," as differentiated from the slow blues of New Orleans and St. Louis. Sixteen cuts from 1930 to 1961, including Christine Chapman's The Boogie Woogie Girl, Hazel Scott's Brown Bear Boogie, Ella Fitzgerald's Cow Cow Boogie, and other greats. (RGS1309) CS: 9.98

Sorry But... Women's RR Blues

In the 1920's & 1930's, thousands of black men headed north on the trains for the factory jobs... jobs not accessible to women, so they stayed behind. The Billie Holiday Collection

Ten golden greats, including one of the very few currently-in-print issues of Strange Fruit. This song, about lynching, was one of the most political and significant recordings she ever made. It was banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio; even today, it is almost always omitted from anthologies—except occasional European ones. Light Foot on the Exhilarator

A fantastic Boston women's jazz ensemble releases their fantastic 1990 debut album! Vibraphonist/composer Jeanette Muzina has been leading this flexible quintet (usually) for 13 years; so it's a bit overdue, but welcome nonetheless. This configuration consists of 7 women; adding tenor sax, bass, keyboards, drums and percussion, and even a vocal. Audible influences are Latin and Eastern in addition to pop and jazz. Jeanette's compositions here include the lyrical Shalom Sarabat, with haunting Eastern modalities; plus Olaf and Yelapa Dream. If you've been missing the sounds of women's jazz lately, let this fill the void. (MUZY) CS: 9.98

Cafe Noir

An amazing album of "symphonic gypsy swing," a unique repertoire which blends European and American jazz with Middle Eastern, gypsy and classical elements, by a 1-woman, 3-man ensemble. She's joined by acoustic guitars and bass, and the result is hot, soulful, haunting and incredible. Includes Villa-Lobos' Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5, Aria Cantelana and Variations on a Theme by Paganini. (GAJ1001) CS: 9.98

In Tribute

Diane's a great jazz vocalist who's been pretty "out" lately... and this is a wonderful tribute to the great legendary female jazz vocalists and their songs, because "they had the power to free a little girl to express her feelings, learn about living, and give her hope for the future!" Each song description specifies which artist she is paying tribute to; so Sweet Georgia Brown is in tribute to Anita O'Day; Sophisticated Lady is in tribute to Ivie Anderson; How High the Moon to Ella; God Bless the Child we don't have to tell you; Body and Soul to Libby Holman; and others to Carmen McRae, Sarah Vaughan, Dinah Washington, Peggy Lee, Helen Morgan, Mabel Mercer, and Nancy Wilson. Love the concept and its execution; photos of the vocalists included in the insert. (GRP2006) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Wise Woman Blues

"Miss D was a witch and didn't hesitate to use her witchcraft, shouting unadorned incantations to cast a magic spell." This compilation contains both blues and jazz tunes, genres which the artist helped bridge, combining the best of both Bessie and Billie, while making the music her own. This volume, part of the Foremothers series, includes some great tunes, in addition to the title track: Mellow Mama Blues; My Voo! Is Really Voo!; Shoo Shoo Baby (play this one at your next jitterbug party). Most songs recorded 1943-45; one in 1963. (RGS1313) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald

The Ella Fitzgerald Collection

This ten-song collection begins with a version of Lover Come Back to Me which must be from the 40's (like many reissues, this has no liner or recording notes) and ends with a slightly more mature-sounding A Ticket A Ticket, but they could have been from the same recording session. The sound quality is pretty good, and the selections are that great bouncy big band sound. Put this on at your next party for an enjoyable romp. (DV2004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Emily Remler

This Is Me

"It is important to understand what this collection of music is all about. Emily, while being acknowledged the world over as one of the great jazz guitarists, was encumbered with the reputation of being a straight-ahead player who could interpret other people's music her way, however great that was. What drove her intensity was a passion to get to a point in her career which would allow her to play and write her music her way. And that is what she accomplished with this collection." This 1990 release, Emily's last before her untimely death, is truly incredible, bringing out her song-writing talents for the world to hear; music that is emotive, fluid, melodic, transformative. Includes Song for Maggie, Deep In a Trance, Carina, Majestic Dance. Highly recommended! (JUS0501) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Flora Purim

Queen of the Night

Considered by many to be the premier Brazilian jazz vocalist since the death of Ella Regina, Flora definitely has our vote for Queen! Her voice is mature yet sweet, and capable of an amazing range. This album is more hybrid Brazilian jazz than her trademark experimental work, yet many pieces will remind the listener of Alvin's (especially Rhiannon's) later sound... her duets with the horns are simply fabulous! Most songs in Portuguese; great band, very tight, and includes the great sax player Mary Felbig on one cut. English translations included. (SDW89009) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

International Sweethearts of Rhythm

There were many all-women's jazz bands in the 40's (men were away, women could play) but this was the hottest and the first integrated women's group. Marian has always been one of our favorite jazz pianists, and this album has always been one of our favorites of Marian's albums (from her huge discography) — just her and her incredible talent, performing both original compositions and other wonderful pieces like Send In the Clowns. Mary Lou Williams

Zoning

Check out the super-bargain price on the LP! Mary Lou Williams, 1910-1981, was the only major jazz pianist who lived through and played the music of each new era of jazz. She started recording in 1927 and stayed in the forefront through the big band, swing and modern transitions. This, her last album on her own Mary Isabel (which the LP is still on; the CD has been re-issued by Smithsonian/Folkways), consists of instrumental compositions for piano and back-up instruments. Each selection stands in its own right, but they all blend together to form a whole: part of her concept of musical zoning. Highly recommended! (SF40811) LP: 4.95 ... CD: 15.98

Natalie Cole

Unforgettable... With Love

Anyone who has heard Natalie's trademark smooth voice and sensual delivery will be thrilled with this 1991 recording! Told by her record company that the idea wouldn't sell, she found another label and went on to win a Grammy! She offers up her own interpretations of 22 of her father Nat King Cole's best-known and -loved songs, and the effort proves to be simply fabulous! She croons through a duet with Nat on Unforgettable thanks to modern technology, and the effect is lovely and heart-breaking at the same time. Memorial Album: I'll Be Seeing You

Sarah began singing professionally in 1943 and continued to become one of the greatest jazz vocalists ever, with the distinguishing characteristics of a pronounced vibrato and perfect control. She died in April of 1990, and this collection was created as a tribute to her greatness. Includes unreleased performances from 1949-1962, with Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Woody Herman, Joe Williams and Nat King Cole. Tuck & Patti

Love Warriors

Their second incredible release maintains the intimacy of the first recording while reaffirming their position in the realm of contemporary jazz. With one voice and one acoustic guitar, they present an eclectic combination of Brazilian sounds, jazz standards and gospel. Tuck and Patti

Tears of Joy

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart, accompanied only by her husband Tuck Andress' guitar. Each song is a perfect gem: notably Chilly Lauper's Time After Time, plus Takes My Breath Away, title, and more. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in her style is impressive and engaging, the result of nine years of working in this duo. Very fine. (WH0111) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tuck and Patti

Dream

No ordinary "girl with guitar" here! This woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk, and her vocal relationship to Tuck's incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slip and slide around the corners of jazz ballads (As Time Goes By, Friends in High Places). 3 of Patti's originals (High Heel Blues is her acappella ode to the agony and ecstasy of addictive shoe shopping, which this reviewer is also cheerfully powerless over!) and Wendy & Lisa's From Now On (Where One). Includes bebop standards such as Along Came Betty; a great rendition of the traditional hymn Amazing Grace; Gerhart's Summer-time; a tango drum piece, Sister Harriet; as well as original compositions by two of the members. AMY BEACH

Grand Mass in E-Flat Major

"Non Tacete!" (I'll not be silent)

Amy Beach

Grand Mass in E-Flat Major

"Mrs. (H. H. A.) Beach was an American composer at a time when an American composer could not be taken seriously as an artist. And she did it anyway. Mrs. Beach was a serious composer in an age where there was no such thing as a serious woman composer. And she did it anyway. They called her Mrs. He He Beach. And she did it anyway. She did it anyway. And her life is a story of success," wrote Michael May, of the Michael May Festival Chorus, the performers here. We're glad that more and more works by this prolific Romantic composer (1867-1944) are being brought to the public's attention. She composed this unusual, non-traditional, exuberant mass — with chants, chorals, organ and percussion into which she incorporated some waltz and jazz elements (as revolutionary then as a rock mass would be now... as per Sister Act) — at age 18. A footnote is that her use of the name Mrs. was actually a bold move at the time, because she was making her gender unmistakable during an era when most women composed and published under male pseudonyms. Non Tacete! (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Nannerl, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself... and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 6 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Carl Music by Bianca Maria Meda, an Ursuline nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1686 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica", a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented; and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! Barbara Harbach

18 C Harpsichord/ Women Composers I

This unique series by harpsichord master Barbara Harbach brings to light works by several neglected 18th century women composers who wrote for solo harpsichord. Back then, society didn't approve of professional women composers (big surprise); so while their male counterparts wrote for the church or courts, these women wrote for themselves, informal salons and each other, and therefore had more freedom to be innovative... and so they introduced new twists of harmony and melody. This volume includes beautiful works by Cecilia Maria Barthelemon, Marianne Martinez, Marianne d'Auenbrugg, Elisabeth de Gambanni, and Mary Hester Park. 65 min. Recommended! (KIN2010) CD: 14.98

The Music of Florence Price

A premiere recording of an outstanding, trail-blazing Black American classical woman composer, by virtuoso pianist Althea Waites (who also played with Kay Gardner on Moonchild). Born into a climate of unrest, activism and the cultural movement called the Harlem Renaissance in 1893, Florence began composing at age 11 and continued to write symphonies, chamber works, arrangements for spirituals, and solo piano works until her death in 1953. This very lovely and accessible recording includes Sonata in E Minor, The Old Boatman, Cotton Dance, Dances in the Canyons, Prayers. Produced by Jeannie Poole. Music of 5 centuries is performed beautifully by Elena on harp, with La Camerata on almost every other instrument of the period: crumhorn, vielle, schrammle, lute, zarl and more. 12 pieces from medieval days and 33 from the Renaissance are brought together on this 63-minute album, making it easy to follow the transition from vocal style to a more dance-oriented instrumental basis over the years. The Baroque Harp

During the 17th century, the harp was primarily used to perform music written for the lute, spinet, organ, and clavichord (except for in the Celtic countries, where it enjoyed a reputation in its own right, due to the traveling poets). This recording demonstrates material drawn from both sources of repertoire, primarily performed at solo harp pieces, accompanied by recordings on a few. Hildegard von Bingen

A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. Currently a renewal of interest in this composer, though her works are hard to come by. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harps, psalteries, lutes, flutes, and symphony. With works by female composers Haruna Aoki, Ruth Watson, Henderson, Deon Neilsen Price and Kazuko Osawa, this album offers a rare blend of Eastern sounds and the classical genre. Side one, entitled Joya for Fifteen Musicians, from a traditional Buddhist New Year ceremony, is a composition whose tempo was originally set by Buddhist monks who struck a gong in cadence with their heartbeats; the music and translated poetry focus on the positive side to every life situation. Side two, which includes Missa Breve for Concert Choir, Big Sur Tryptich, and Mon, also accents positive emotion through its uplifting tempo. Clarissa Pinkola Estes

Women Who Run with the Wolves 2-Set

Magical storytelling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and women and wildlife really, have been tarred with the same brush. They have been destroyed, exiled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tribe of females indeed. These tales are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine." Her delivery is excellent, and the subject matter fascinating: female sexuality, lust and sublimation, passion and creativity, wolf-woman; and much more. Two 90-minute cassettes. (SND069) CS: 18.98

Naomi Newman

Snake Talk/Messages from the Mother

Presented by "A Traveling Jewish Theater," this unique program, subtitled Urgent Messages from the Mother, is built around the following premise: In pre-patriarchal times the Goddess had as her ally and teacher the snake. Together they carried the wisdom of the cyclical nature of all existence. The 3 aspects of women — the maiden, the mother and the crone — were seen as the Three Fates or the Triple Goddess who served as the creator, preserver, and destroyer of life in ancient peoples' mythologies. In this theatrical piece, each of these aspects is embodied in a contemporary character: Elise, Rika, and Hag. As Naomi moves from one character's home place to the others', we witness one woman simultaneously experiencing 3 parts of herself while moving through the circle of her life. (TJT1) CS: 10.98

Save on the LP! Rated the top children's album in 1965 by the CBC—Canada's national radio network—this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' LP's around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaidor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lotamus"), and title song: "On my bellybutton I love you... You're the only friend I have—the one who really cares! Cause every time I need you—you're always there... When things get down and looking kinda grim I simply sit up my shirt and stick my finger in..." Also a song by Ferron, Boom Boom, which was on her 2nd now-out-of-print LP. Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. Heather produced and mixed. (MOP003) LP: 6.98 CS: 9.98

Joanie Bartels

Lullaby Magic

Remarkable — I had to leave the keyboard and take a nap! Sweet little lullabies, uniquely designed with vocals on one side and instrumental versions of the same songs on the flip side, so you can sing to the baby yourself; lyrics included. Features music by Buffy St. Marie, Mozart, Brahms, James Taylor, the Beatles and more. Beautifully packaged, easy to use, Joanie's voice is very soothing, and the instrumentals are superbly arranged in a quasi-classical style with oboe, bassoon, cello, and other instruments rarely heard on children's recordings. Enchanting. (DIS1) CS: 9.99

Joemy Wilson

It was the logical album for Joemy to record, since for years parents and teachers have been telling her that they play her soothing sounds to settle down their hyper young things! Libby Riddles/Shelley Gill/Hobo Jim

Danger the Dog Yard Cat (Tape-Book)

Not only was Libby the first woman to win the famous Iditarod sled dog race across Alaska, she's a talented children's author, song-writer and vocalist! She co-wrote these tunes about how her cat, Danger, leads a woman musher's dog team to victory as "lead cat." The 36-page book was written with Shelley Gill (an experienced musher herself — she completed the Iditarod in 1975) and beautifully illustrated by Shannon Cartwright. If you read the book while listening, just turn the page when you hear the Meow! This whimsical and musical tale of the far north makes a wonderful gift for the adventurous girl. (PAW8) CS: 14.99

Free To Be...A Family

Just a list of the artists who appear on this follow-up to the original Free To Be is enough reason to present this to every child you know: Whoopi Goldberg, Lily Tomlin, brilliant Edith Ann, Bea Arthur, playing fairy godmother to Gilda Radner's comic Cinderella, Bonnie Raitt singing on I'm Never Afraid (To Say What's On My Mind); there's Lady Smith Black Mambazo, Carly Simon, Kermit the Frog and the Muppets, Robin Williams, Mel Brooks, Jane Curtin, Pat Benatar, and the list goes on. Priscilla Herdman

Star Dreamer-Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinaire. The first side contains wonderful fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waiting bears and stuff; side 2 consists of 8 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Springing from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen. Charming! (ALA1001) CS: 9.99

The Re-Bops

Oldies For Kool Kiddies

Custom-made for the young and the nostalgic, for baby boomers and boomer kids! Rock 'n' roll favorites from the 50's and 60's, like Lollipop, Monster Mash, Rockin' Robin, Blue Moon, Spanish Splash, The Loco-Motion, and many more, re-recorded by a children's chorus and a bunch of baby boomer adults! The cover lends itself to the kinds of stereotypes we at Ladyslipper don't endorse; but maybe you can use the opportunity to discuss that with your kids, if you agree with us. Or throw the cover away and make your own! We think the inside cassette is worth it. (RB101) CS: 9.99

The Re-Bops

Funny 50's & Silly 60's

This isn't just a "Volume II" of the Re-Bops' first hit album; it's a collection of some of the wackiest, nuttiest songs that the baby-boom generation ever drove their parents crazy with! Updated versions of those favorites, from Purple People Eater to Wooly Bully to Witch Doctor to Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on the Bedpost Overnight?, will keep you and the kids in your life giggling, jumping and singing for years to come. Robin Goodrow & Michael Goodrow

Amazing!

One of the most amazing kids' albums we've heard, and we know others share our sentiments. The music's extremely high-energy, the production very professional, the instrumentation representative of world cultures, the lyrics pretty right on and aware as well as fun, and we can't imagine that this wouldn't be a hit anywhere! Songs promote self-confidence, owning one's inner power (as opposed to transferring it to TV superheroes), peaceful co-existence, friendship, and mischief! Includes Chocolate Pudding Queen, Rainbow of Colors, The Power, I'm Cool. For ages 4-11... highly recommended! (AM201) CS: 9.99

Consolidated Friendly FaScism

The first anti-patriarchal, pro-feminist, anti-racist & non-homophobic radical vegetarian hip hop group of guys this reviewer has ever encountered! The liner notes don't give their identities, but the lyrics are printed, and damn, they're good! San Francisco-based, they employ rap, hip hop & industrial styles to convey their disgust at this culture's and-life systems, artistically and intelligently exposing the connections between all the rampant "isms": Unity of Oppression compares patriarchal devaluing of women with meat-eating; Typical Male describes the different identities today's jerk may wear ("the sensitive racist... the pseudo feminist... thinks with his D.I.C.K."); and the daily atrocities they commit; the title song is a chilling, bouncy tune that makes George Orwell's vision look like a child's story. All in all, this is one of the most important releases of the decade, politics you can't help but dance to. Highly recommended. (IRS13089) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

This unique collection of songs about adoption explores the feelings and perspectives of all members of the adoption triad: birthparents, adoptive parents, and adoptees. Several of the participants in this project are adoptees, others adoptive parents; the material deals with subjects like self-esteem, searches and reunions with birthparents, adopting a child from another land, loss and separation as well as love and happiness. Very well done, enlightening, entertaining. Musicians include six-year-old adoptee Christy Tofanelli, adoptee Sammi Whytecap, adoptive father Ken Scaggs, and Tom Paxton. Recommended for educators, caseworkers, all triad members, relatives, and general listenership, young and adult both. (ADP1) CS: 9.98

Vitamin L Walk A Mile

One of the most animated, contemporary, professional, hippest kids' recordings we've heard; it should have strong appeal to kids from a wide range of cultural and socio-economic backgrounds, as it cures the problem of boring children's music! This ensemble of mixed gender, race, and age (half are kids, half adults) sings songs by Jan Nigro, Laura Nyro's brother, leading us to conclude that good songwriting is a family trait. Great messages, about independent thinking, justice, truthfulness, conflict resolution, and more. Winner, 1989 Parents' Choice Award. Highly recommended! (LCM101) CS: 9.98

Whoopi Goldberg & Herbie Hancock
Koi and the Kola Nuts

This West African story is told by the very expressive Whoopi and set to music by the ultra-talented Herbie Hancock. It tells of a chieftan's son who sets out on a journey to find his rightful place in the world. His acts of generosity to the animals he befriends are rewarded after he is captured and intended for the cooking pot. The story is generally sweet, yet contains a stereotypical overly-hungry fat woman and traditional reward-of-the-king's-daughter ending; good opportunities to discuss these issues with your kids! Whoopi is a spectacular storyteller and we hope she'll continue. Side 2 = instrumental only. (RH70454/5) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Flirtations

Our favorite boy acappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural acappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love); The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun; Cughta Be A Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon; Donde Esta Dolores?; Michael Callen's Living in Wartime; and fun taggart favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Font; Sweet Honey's Breath; and an incredible cover of Chris Williamson's Shooting Star. Fred BartonMiss Gulch Returns

This "wicked musical" is a totally quirky parody of Dorothy's weird neighbor (the one with the bicycle and basket, who became the wicked witch of the west) who was out to get her little dog Toto in The Wizard of Oz. Fred performs her character in her famous costume, and delivers an entire history for her. Joe BraccoTrue To Myself

This gay songwriter was on the verge of receiving national acclaim when he was taken by AIDS in 1991, at age 35. Thanks to amazing modern technology as well as the dedication of a friend, Paul Phillips (half of the Romanovsky and Phillips duo) was able to take 10 of Joe's rough home recordings into the studio, adding rhythm, instrumental and additional vocal tracks (some by Ron and Paul) to Joe's vocal and guitar — to create this post-humous release. Friend In My Pocket encourages condom use; With Our Voices is a stirring anthem written after the 17 March on Washington for Lesbian/Gay Rights; Coming Out is a song which Joe had recorded in the studio himself; and Golden Boy is presented without any extra instrumentation. We're uncomfortable with some of the sentiments expressed in a couple of the songs, Yo No Pago and Kiss Me in Spanish; maybe they'll spark some productive discussion. (FRFJ61) CS: 9.98

JOHN BUCCHINO
Solitude Lessons

John BucchinoOn the Arrow

Known to many as the talented pianist generally in Holly Near's company, John has written, arranged and produced a tape of his own vocal material... which reflects both lyrical acumen and a vulnerability, as well as some of his lightning piano. (DIN301) CS: 9.98

John BucchinoSolitude Lessons

If you're a romantic, this is for you! John writes eloquent and beautiful pieces about the many aspects of love in a way that's likely to speak to you and your experiences, with titles like: To The Heart in Each Other's Eyes, If It Had Been With Him, Love Will Find A Way. We especially like Period of Time, a play on words that is both clever and sensitive. With his trademark keyboards, expanded to include synthesized drums and rhythms. (DIN302) CS: 9.98

Lunacy

This album is a first, an entrancing album of pagan goddess spirituality music from two "faggot witches," as they call themselves. This acappella duo—Greg Johnson and Sparky T. Rabbit—performs primarily original songs, with occasional material from Starhawk and others. One of the most notable songs here is Boys Burned Too, a very tender and touching tribute to the gay men who were burned along with the witches. Also includes Paula Walowitz's She's Been Waiting; Aphrodite's Song, Demeter's Song, The Moon Song ("The full moon is her vagina spread wide! With the wild realm of an ocellus!"). Every possibility pouring out...), Kali Ma ("Dark Mother/Black Mother"), Purple God ("Queer God"). We like this album — recommended! (LUN1) CS: 10.98

LunacyThe Hand of Desire

This fall 1992 release is, like their first effort, acappella, pagan in intent, and queer in its messages... containing both original material and newly-arranged pieces from Starhawk and others. This description is in advance of its release, so we'll write more next year! (LUN2) CS: 10.98

Marc AlmondEnchanted

This "out" musician has worked with Bronski Beat and Jimmy Somerville. This 1990 release (no longer in print, but we've located a stash) is a pretty fabulous album of synthesizer pop... and though his lyrics are not overtly gay, there is little question of his sensibility on dance tunes like Madame de la Luna and Carnival of Life. "Eros awake! Our hearts to take! Ready to break every law! I find I'm no longer! Chasing my youth! The truth is that I'm chasing yours..." (CAP84404) CS: 9.98

Mark GinsbergReclaiming the Wind

This gay composer, singer and musician (piano, guitar, synthesizer, flute, congas and percussion!) says this release "is about bringing back the magic that has been long forgotten, buried deep within our hearts... By listening to the inner voice we will find the loving truth of the living God/Goddess." Mainly Jewish spiritual themes, sung in Hebrew and English, some truly beautiful lyrics from traditional Hebrew sources (translated from Shlomo HaShirim: "O that he would kiss me with his lips. Indeed your kisses are better than wine..."). We Will Make It is an upbeat song peace in the Middle East. Altogether musically and vocally superior, and lyrically imaginative — highly recommended! (MRK1) CS: 9.98

Mark WeigleOne Good Reason

Mark's original, guitar-accompanied folk songs deal with his process of coming out; they recall his previous pain and isolation, and his discovery of peace and pride since affirming his gayness. Includes Leave the Light Alone, a declaration of love between two men; Love Is So Hard To Hide, inspired by the book The Front Runner; and more. (MKW1) CS: 9.98

Michael CallenPurple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who has been battling AIDS since 1981, has been in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education; testifying before Congress; editing publications; appearing on major TV shows; participating in fund-raising events. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frank about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic without getting caught up in the polemic"... from How To Have Sex). Songs include Where the Boys Are, Me & Dickie D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Wartime, performed with band-partner, ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. And, he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance. Enough to recommend it highly. (5IG881) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

New York City Gay Men's ChorusNY, NY * A Broadway Extravaganza

A fantastic tribute to NYC by the city's own Gay Men's Chorus, a non-profit educational organization founded in 1969. Directed by Gary Miller, this group lovingly paints the town red with songs like Jerome Kern's All the Things You Are, a Sondheim medley, Rogers and Hart's New York, and of course, the title song. Excellent orchestration and recording. (PRO198) CS: 19.98 CD: 15.98

The NylonsFour on the Floor

Marc Connor died (we think of AIDS) in 1991, and this 1990 in-concert recording is a wonderful commemoration of his contribution to this fantastic quartet. Included are Marc's lead vocals on his original Amazon, as well as on Up On the Roof and Wildlife; it also contains Good Old Acapella, Dream, Heavenly Bodies, Kiss Him Goodbye, and other favorites. Recommended! (SCT75224) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The NylonsRockapella

In addition to an excellent acappella-with-percussion version of the Parachute Club's paean to liberation, Rise Up, this 1989 release includes both originals like Another Night Like This and covers of great tunes such as Don't Away, Poison Ivy, Wildfire, All I Have To Do Is Dream. One of their best recordings to date. (WH1086) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Romanovsky & PhillipsI Thought You'd Be Taller!

An energetic, humorous, loving, campy, gay-affirming album, as evidenced by some of the song titles: Womp Envy, The Prince Charming Tango, Closest Case, I Can Have. Attitude... these guys are simply the cat's p.j.s, the crown prince(sses) of the Renaissance of gay men's music... don't miss an opportunity to see them live! (FRF101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & PhillipsTrouble in Paradise

Dedicated to gay and lesbian activists around the world, this LP practically leaps out of your speakers and turns your immediate environment into a rollicking carnival of gay delight! Produced by Teresa Trull, it's one of the finest examples of music/commentary/comedy to emerge from the growing genre of political gay men's music. You can't listen to some of the songs—What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot Am I?, Wimp, Guilt Trip—without feeling, at the very least, wry amusement at seeing yourself in them... also includes Homophobia and some great advice for Ronnie and others, Don't Use Your Penis (For a Brain). Instrumentation is sophisticated, some of the best of Bay Area talent put in an appearance. Highly recommended. (FRF102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & PhillipsEmotional Rollercoaster

Returning to more of an acoustic sound, the third album from the "queens" of political camp (and we don't mean Camp David!) is again chock-full of humor and social commentary. It's as gay- and lesbian-positive as the others, with even more political determination because of the fight against AIDS and the renewed homophobia from the Right. The empowering Living With AIDS could be the theme song of our generation—and makes this album a must for everyone. And from an expose of the absurdity of the Grimes Against Nature laws to the rallying cry for unity and responsibility in the face of AIDS fear ("We don't have to sacrifice our passion or our pride; we just have to be on the safe side") and the humor of My Mother's Clothes, Waltz For the New Age, Straightening Up the House is a Kate Clinton, Ron and Paul demonstrate they know that the personal is political. Very highly recommended! (FRF103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Be Political, Not Politic

Packed with 15 new songs, this challenging and political — perhaps even a bit controversial — hour-long 1991 release is their best, in their opinion! John Buchino is keyboardist/arranger, and they've enlisted the help of a few friends to sing back-up on several songs: Holly Near, Alix Dobson, Phranc, and Michael Callen (of the Flirts). Includes Oh No, I'm In Love (With My Therapist), When Heterosexism Strikes, Queers in the Closet, Love Is All It Takes, for lesbian and gay parents, and many other new hits. Of course we recommend that (FRF104) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Ron Romanovsky Hopeful Romantic

Produced by Teresa Thull, Ron Romanovsky's first solo effort is best described as "a romantic album with moments of comic relief." The 12 original cuts include collaborations with John Buchino and Tom Wilson Weinberg, and run the gamut from pop ballads such as The Telephone Company Loves Me (a long-distance love song) to the eccentric and hilarious I Like To Polka. A temporary departure from his work with Paul Phillips, this album could be subtitled Romanovsky Lite: 80 percent less political! (PHF105) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rumors of the Big Wave Burning Times

This eclectic rock/folk/rock 1992 album features the most haunting rendition ever recorded of band-member Charlie Murphy's Burning Times, his well-known original song about the burning of the witches during the inquisition; plus 9 other vintage Charlie Murphy songs. Haunting and powerful. (QXM9201) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus How Fair This Place

Born in 1978 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to tour nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity. Inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing, and love — a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular (Love Medley, including Unchained Melody), theatrical (selections from Miss Saigon, Chess, and Jekyll & Hyde), and sacred pieces (Irish Blessing, Gabriel's Oboe, On Earth As It Is In Heaven). English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SPG10-91) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

This posthumous release, compiled of both previously unreleased material and fresh "house" remixes of his classics, demonstrates why he was so loved in so many communities, from gay to inner city teenagers to serotizing housewives. Included are Do You Wanna Funk, Menage, Man Enuff, He'll Understand, Rock the Box, and even a rousing and moving gospel rendition of How Great Thou Art. The cover photo is what Sylvester sent back to the president of this record company upon being asked to "tone down the drag (butch it up)." He died of AIDS in 1986 (his lover, Rick, died a year earlier), after having given much of his time toward educating the Black and minority communities about the disease, as well as bringing in millions of dollars through fundraisers and benefits. the wimps

the wimps are a punkish-Philadelphia band dedicated to challenging, or at least exposing, outmoded patriarchal concepts of men's roles, especially toward women, and traditional concepts of what makes a man "manly." Their second release (1992) continues their tradition of wit, insight and outrage. Besides the two title topics, the album looks at small-town homophobia (Rosie Fingert Dawn, a story of little girls' games) and cross-dressing (My Favorite Skirt), and asks the musical question, "If Robert Sly and his pals want to prove their manliness, why don't they stay home and actually do some work?" Our sentiments exactly!! Sometimes melodic, sometimes noisy, always irreverent, lyrics included; recommended! (WIM2) CS: 6.98

Ritual Drumming

Layne Redmond & The Mob of Angels Ritual Drumming

This unique video successfully combines instructions on practical drumming techniques with primal metaphysical concepts on drumming and rhythm. In a very straightforward manner, Layne shows how the basic tones and strokes of a frame drum, such as the tambourine, have a direct relationship to the elemental qualities of earth, water, fire and air. Drawing on the long heritage of women frame drummers and the nurturing nature of the archetype feminine spirit, this program will enrich the viewer with a new sense of the power of rhythm and pulse. Through luminous demonstrations and inspiring performances, Layne and The Mob of Angels, a women's ensemble, show how drumming and chanting can be used to create new and empowering ritual. Lillian Hellman The Children's Hour

Starring Shirley MacLaine (she's great!) and Audrey Hepburn, this 1961 film, based on Lillian Hellman's controversial play, shattered the stage and film taboo against depicting or mentioning lesbianism. It was inspired by an actual case of two school-teachers whose careers and lives were radically damaged when rumors that they were in a lesbian relationship circulated in their community. It doesn't end as any of us would wish it did, but you can either cut off your VCR a minute early, or acknowledge the reality of internalized homophobia, especially back then. Recommended! Long-Awaited Pleasure

Produced by women for women, this is a story about two women meeting, courting, and falling in love. Sound's a shade muddy in spots, but it's a nice first effort by a lesbian video company, and you'll enjoy the story and the "soft" love scenes, smoothly integrated into the plot. Lois and Peggy, the stars, co-founded the New York feminist theater company, Split Britches, and recently completed an extended run in the play version of Patience and Sarah. Damned if you Don't

This "experimental narrative" is about a young nun who becomes attracted to another woman. It's an avant garde dream-like, strange film, with several sub-themes woven in and out, such as a reading from a 17th century account of a lesbian nun, and reminiscences of an ex-nun about the crushes in the convent. The final love-making scene is probably more erotic than any video with that express intention. For recovering Catholics and non-Catholics alike! (SFR1VC) 49.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part I

The Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone — beginner or veteran of women's culture — who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture... the Goddess culture which preceded this... the power of symbols... and much much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. No matter how much you think you already know, you'll learn something new from watching this; it's the result of many years of research by writer-narrator Mary R. Hopkins. Produced by Claire Simons. (QV2VC) 49.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part II

From Earth Mother to Love Goddess

Also highly recommended! The second volume documents, through an analysis of art, the fall of female divinity and the rise of patriarchy, where the Love Goddess is one of the only permissible roles for women. The characteristics represented in Diana, Athena, and Sophia are explored as well. (QV3VC) 49.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part III

Women Revisiting Ourselves

Explores the post-patriarchal vision of women through contemporary art; over 100 images by 17 artists from the US and Canada participate. This entire set should be in the permanent collection of every school and library! (QV4VC) 49.98

Women of the Night

Four very different stand-up female comedians show their stuff here — Judy Tenuta, Ellen da Genere, Paula Poundstone, and Rita Rudner — satirizing men, exercise, shopping, prayer, and more. 56 min. (HBD90241VC) 18.98

Women Who Made the Movies

From the very beginnings of motion picture history, women have played major roles behind as well as in front of the camera; a little-known fact! This documentary traces the careers and films of such filmmakers as Alice Guy Blache, Ida Lupino, Ruth Ann Baldwin, and many others who made lasting contributions to cinema history. The use of clips from many of these rare films, as well as stills and other archival material, brings to life the works of these often-neglected filmmakers. The music used in this film was composed and played by a variety of all-women orchestras of the era. Written and directed by Gwendolyn Foster-Dixon. 56 min. For every film-buff you know! (VCI9001VC) 29.98

World of Light: Portrait May Sarton

A wonderful, intimate portrait of this prolific writer, as she speaks frankly about her life: writing, the process of creation, solitude, aging, being a woman, her relationships with women who acted as the source for her art, and more. An excellent film, by Marita Simpson and Martin Wheelock... recommended! 30 minutes. (SR1VVC) 39.98

Readers' Comments

Here are some quotes from just a few of the letters we have received this past year. We love hearing your thoughts, whatever they may be, so please keep those notes and letters coming—we really do appreciate them!

"I love your catalog and am very glad that it found its way into my life. As a mother and career woman, it is sometimes hard to find time for 'me.' However, I can always order something for myself and pamper myself while reading or listening to the tapes I ordered! Thank you for giving me a way to find what my soul/psyche yearns for—woman's spirituality."

"It makes me laugh to think back (before I knew about you) a few years ago when a friend asked me to compile a list of women musicians because she realized she only had 'male music.' I asked everyone I knew to help and only ended up with one page of artists. Your being here is a necessity of life."

"In case it's not obvious from my name, I'm male. I'm interested only in women, but not from your perspective. I ordered a . . . tape from you without realizing I was also buying a point of view. I thought I was just appreciating a talented artist. Your catalog in my mail is an embarrassment to me and a waste of money for you. And the aggressive optimism of its contents, the concocted names, the goddesses and other illusions speak depressingly of pain and ostracism. I have burdens of my own without adding yours. Spare us both. Please remove me from your mailing list."

"Enclosed is my order. Please keep me on your mailing list. I am a pagan feminist who is against any discrimination against others for personal sexual preference! We all come from the Goddess!"

"I appreciate the work that Ladyslipper does in the field of women's music. Where would we be without you? Hopelessly sucked in by patriarchal crap. Take care!"

"I love the convenience, service & promptness. Your company is great! You save me time, energy and gas money! Many thanks!"

"Receiving your catalog was like meeting a friend! I was feeling lonely, feeling no one shared my interest in feminism & spirituality, then an acquaintance loaned me a copy of your catalog—the whole world opened up! You're doing a great service—may you be blessed with ever-increasing prosperity!"

"Please take me off your mailing list and do not give my name to any other socio-sexual groups. I am asexual and would never buy gender or sexuality-based music. I know these forms of expression to be part of the 'BIG LIE' which works to deny the total experience of self as individual."

"Y'all are great! I buy the majority of my music from you because you sell the music I want to hear. All the stuff I want is right there—easy to find. Thanks for everything!"

"I am thrilled to be able to support a women-owned business. If it was not for Ladyslipper I would not be able to experience my sisters' music. Our hearts dream in tandem."

"Thank you for producing such a wonderful service. Ladyslipper is an inspiration, a kind soulmate, and an evil temptress. Stay always so."

"I don't know how I got on your mailing list—but I am very grateful that I did. The CD I've ordered I searched southern Vermont, western Mass., Washington DC, and Annapolis MD for. No one has carried it—but you do! There are also a lot of other selections I've circled for future reference."

"I also want to let you know how much your catalog drives me crazy. I always make a 'wish list' when I get it. I feel like a kid in a candy store. Since finances have improved here, I'll be ordering again."

"This is the first year we've actually ordered from you, tho' we've received your catalog in the past. Every year when it arrives, we huddle 'round, and pour over every page—and agonize & groan over all the items we need, but can't afford. I'm really glad we can help support you this year—because in the past, when we couldn't afford to order anything, we sure appreciated knowing you were there."

"You know what the problem with your catalog is? Too many fabulous things to choose from!"

"I spent three days reading and re-reading your catalog. I love it, I love it, I love it! . . . Thank you for the variety in women's music. Ya can't find it where I live."

"Ladyslipper has opened up a whole new world of first-rate music to me and I'd like to thank you for continuing to send me catalogs. My mother likes your tapes too . . . It's especially good to see feminist-related cassettes available, since we seem to be experiencing a backlash against feminism in the U.S."

"Enclosed is my most recent order. I would just like to say that I was very happy with my last order, as it was also my first. I loved every cassette I received, and if possible would order as many as my paycheck would allow. Unfortunately, I do have to eat and am able to only order in radical spurts. This is one. Please keep up the wonderful job you do."

"Randolph and I love your catalog, and wish we had more money to spend exploring the music you offer. I've read some letters to you from straight women condemning you. And I worried that you might become bitter toward those who have chosen the 'standard' way of life. So, this note is, in part, my effort to let you know that I think you are good and brave people. Thank you for working so hard to provide quality music, and a model for living out one's values."

Visions of Slipper Plums

'Tis the month before solstice and all through the store, Slippers are busting and packing shipments galore. To east coast and west coast and lands overseas Parcels leave here full of music to please.

As we send off our wares to share music with all, Our minds turn to the questions asked so often this fall. Situations arise and we are put to the test, "What if," "What if," which music is best?

WHAT IF WE WERE . . .

SETTING THE MOOD ON A FIRST DATE?

- Anything by Ferron, endless discussion about the meanings of lyrics climaxing in delirious experimentation!
- "Ingenue" by k.d. lang (SIR26840) hey, it's worked for me!
- Something lively and fun like "Chloe Liked Olivia" by 2 Nice Girls (RTR262).
- "Collected" by Mary Black (GIF10006). I died and went to heaven when we found her old stuff available again. She makes me feel mushy, strong, and incredibly glad to hear magic again.
- "Colorblind Blues" by Lisa Koch (TNG1), it's bluesy, jazzy, sexy and hilarious.
- "Watermark" by Enya (GEF24233). You don't have to listen to the words & the music is a great mood setter for . . . talking, yeah that's it, talking.

JUST COMING OUT?

- "Honey On My Lips" by Pam Hall (FAB303). If you're on the edge of fasting a woman's sweet nectar, Pam's sexy lyrics and sultry voice will push you over the edge—no, change that, you'll want to dive head first into the sweetness, rocking and rolling all the way!
- "Deep Soul Diver" by disappear fear (DSP1004) for the "baby dyke" and "Best of Cris Williamson" for the more mature lesbian. Every Lesbian has to know who Cris is, it's a requirement.
- "Changer and the Changed" by Cris Williamson (OL904), classic Lesbian!
- "We Won't Be Silent" by Yer Girlfriend (ER101) I sent this to my girlfriend when she was stuck in "Desert Storm" and this is what got her through it.
- I'd probably be listening to all the really "out there" groups like Girls in the Nose, both their self-titled one (GIN1) and "Origin of the World" (GIN2).
- "L-word Spoken Here" by Yer Girlfriend (ER102), very positive, affirming lyrics and the song "L-word" is great to sing along with!
- Anything by Holly Near, may as well pass through that phase ASAP.
- Justina & Joyce "So Strong" (HSR101)—and so empowering.
- Kay Gardner "Ocean Moon" (WWE63) because 17 years ago I wore out my LP during lesbian love-making, maybe the CD would last longer.

GETTING A GIFT FOR A STRAIGHT FRIEND?

- "50 Gates of Wisdom" by Otra Heza (SHN64002), she has created music to die for—my friends love me when I give them this tape!
- "Be Political Not Polite" by Romanovsky & Phillips (RRF104), a) because I like the shock factor and b) it might just help them understand.
- "Track Record" by Joan Armatrading (AM3319), so much great music on one selection.
- Anything by Libana, my best friend says that "it's good music to have babies by" . . . I didn't ask further.
- "I'll Be A Homo For X-Mas" by Venus Envy (VE2) so they can review their options.
- "Night at the Museum" Conni Ellisor (GNA5010) if anyone had any preconceived idea of music by women, such as "boring," this one would blow the lid off that notion. It's intelligent, sophisticated and reeks of genius.

TOTALLY STRESSED?

- "Garden of Ecstasy" by Kay Gardner (LR107) no explanation necessary.
- "Ingenue" by k.d. lang (SIR26840) k.d.'s smooth as molasses voice will slide over those raw nerve endings till you find yourself in a puddle on the floor.
- "Late Night Grande Hotel" by Nanci Griffith (MCA10306), relaxation for real life.
- Adrienne Torfs "Brooklyn From the Roof" (ABO519) because she's an extraordinary pianist, and that crush I've had on her for years doesn't hurt!
- Anything by Alice di Michele, she has a beautiful rich voice and even though much of her music is very political, the overall effect is like a warm bath.
- "If You See A Dream" by Libby Roderick (TRT1001), I love her gorgeous voice and I find her lyrics empowering and uplifting.
- Lisa Thiel "Lady Of The Lake" (LR112) gets me back in touch with the more important aspects of life.

GOING TO DANCE AROUND THE HOUSE WITH NO WITNESSES?

- "Chloe Liked Olivia" by 2 Nice Girls (RTR262), perfect just to get down and dance.
- "Funky Divas" by En Vogue (EW92121) One of the hottest groups around, I'll dance to these four women with or without witnesses.
- "Braziliance! The Music of Rhythm" (RYK153), nothing like the rhythm of a hot Samba to make you feel like it's carnival time!
- "Totem" by Gabrielle Roth (RAV02), the Ladyslipper catalog is my cultural bible, this is what the reviewer said to do with this music.
- Parachute Club, "Wild Zone" (RCA17254)—not much makes me feel like dancing anymore at this advanced age, but I'll still be dancing to them at age 100.

- Beverly Botsford/Khalid Saleem "Rhythms of Life" (RHY1)—it's an unpremeditated bodily response.
- "Logozo" Angelique Kidjo (MNG9918) put this one on and I dare you to sit still. You'll create movements you didn't think were possible. It's upbeat and rhythmic and will get that lower chakra pumping.

TAKING LIFE TOO SERIOUSLY?

- "They Are Not A Trio," Mrs. Fun (LU002) These gals will send you out on a limb with their futuristic humorous approach to music.
- "My Breasts Are Out Of Control" by Dos Fallopia (TNG300) Who says Lesbians have no sense of humor? This album gives new meaning to the phrase "tighten up."
- Put all the Kay Gardner you have on your multi-disc player, program it for continuous play, when you're done, head down to Francesca's for ice cream and coffee and repeat the process until you fall in love with someone from afar.
- "Fontaine, Why Am I Straight" by Whoopi Goldberg (MCA42243) I never get tired of listening to her trash the Reagan's, she's always right on target! Your problems are nothing after listening to this!
- Lea DeLaria, "Bulldoze In A China Shop" (GSP69) Irreverent and fun.

BUYING MOM OR DAD A PRESENT?

- Billie Holiday "The Billie Holiday Collection" (DV5018) Classic music Mom loves.
- "Same Rain" Pat Humphries (MFM360) Gorgeous folk and just enough politics for Mom.
- "Torch Song Trilogy" by Harvey Fierstein (COL2829VC) if only I had the ovaries to give this gift.
- "Rise Up Singing" (SNG1375B) Mom's crazy about songbooks, this one is one of the best I've seen.
- k.d. lang "Absolute Torch & Twang" (SIR25877) because she thinks Patay Cline had the best voice in country music, and yes Mom, she's even a Lawrence Welk fan too!
- Lisa Thiel's newest release "Lady of the Lake" (LR112) I was playing it when she visited and she commented that it was very pretty and my Mom is usually oblivious to music so I thought that was kind of exceptional.
- "Watermark" by Enya (GEF24233) Beautiful, soothing music Mom will love. (I really did buy this one for her birthday!)
- Anna Crusis Women's Choir, "But We Fight For Roses Too" (ANN1), I would have even taken Mom to one of their concerts, but she doesn't visit enough.
- "Self Loving" by Betty Dodson (BDN1VC) . . . NOT!
- "Little O' Cowgirl" by The Dixie Chicks (CCR250) It's country & bluegrass and since Mom's a down home kind of gal I think she'd appreciate this one and probably have the words to "Pink Tonale" down and singing them in no time at all.

THROWING OUR FIRST SOLSTICE PARTY?

- "Amazon" by Kay Gardner (LR111) Nature sounds of the Peruvian Rainforest with Kay's improv alto flute meditations would certainly set the stage for a magical, celebratory party atmosphere.
- Libana, Libana, Libana
- Janis Joplin "Greatest Hits" (COL32168) Endless intergenerational lip-synching fun.
- "In This Land" by Sweet Honey (EB2563), because I'd hate to limit the party to one type of music—this has everything from traditional African lullabies to rap!
- I'd play "Children of the Sun" by Ani Williams (ES8), the songs celebrate women and a wholeness of spirit and body. The songs are nurturing and gentle while still being interesting and pretty.
- "Lady Of The Lake" by Lisa Thiel (LR112) I'd never be caught dead throwing a solstice party, but if I did I'd play Lisa Thiel.
- Sorry I'm solstice impaired.
- "Fire Within" by Libana (LR108) Lots of earth/goddess/woman centered chants and rounds, great for group gatherings.

ENTERTAINING A PRE-PUBESCENT NIECE OR NEPHEW FOR A LONG WEEKEND?

- "Free To Be You And Me" by Mario Thomas (ARI18325) Great album for kids, memories of childhood, fun, fun, fun.
- "Who Will Speak For The Children" by The Children of Selma (ROU8008) This tape contains enough recognizable songs to keep children's attention while teaching them about all the "isms" in a direct but poetic way.
- "All For Freedom" by Sweet Honey (MLP2230) It's the only children's tape I wouldn't hate if I had to listen to it over and over and over!
- "Bulldoze In A China Shop" by Lea DeLaria (GSP69) . . . Just kidding.
- "Funny Fifties & Silly Sixties" The Reboys (RB102). The songs are nostalgic for the Aunt and silly for the pre-pubescent. We could pantomime and have a great time giggling over rock versions of "Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor On The Bedpost Overnight" and "Wooly Bully" as well as many others.

YOU HAD TO PICK YOUR FAVORITE HOLIDAY TITLE?

- "Danny's First Noel," Capitol Steps (CS1005) I'm not into Christmas music, but great political satire will always put me in a festive mood.
- "I'll Be A Homo For Christmas" by Venus Envy (VE2) I wouldn't play it for my grandmother, but maybe to detox after a family visit.
- I hate Christmas, but "I'll Be A Homo For Christmas" by Venus Envy (VE2) makes it not only bearable but fun.
