LADYSLIPPER ON-LINE!

<http://www.ladyslipper.org>

The Ladyslipper On-Line Catalog and Web Site -- the Internet's most comprehensive site on Women in Music so far -- made its debut in the summer of 1996. Our full catalog is now on-line, searchable by artist or title and browsable by section, with over 1200 downloadable sound clips, expanded artist information and more! You can now set up an on-line account, and do some or all of your ordering on-line!

We're excited to make our information accessible to people all over the world, especially to those who don't already know about our resource but are searching for information on the artists and music we feature.

We hope you'll explore it, and let us know your thoughts and suggestions! We are continuing to make improvements, and will be adding more information as time goes on.

Hundreds of people are now visiting our site each day. It's thrilling to pour over our Web Report each morning and actually see which artists people were looking for... we can see the referrals from the search engines like Yahoo, with the exact words people typed in! And some people find us through other sites who have already linked to ours.

But we would like to see thousands of people at our site each day, and need your help.

If you are a Ladyslipper supporter and are on-line, there's lots you can do to help our site get the exposure it needs: please consider being a Slipper Surfer! You can help spread the word about our site wherever you go on-line where there are folks who might be interested in Women in Music.

Talk about our site (we hope you'll say good things!):

- In newsgroups
- On bulletin boards
- On chat lines
- In interest groups and listings on:
  - AOL
  - CompuServe
  - Prodigy

Help us get listed in directories.

Place a link to our site from your page if you have one, and ask others to do the same, if it is an appropriate place.

Subscribe to our E-Mail List and post our "New Release Information" on bulletin boards, newsgroups, etc.

If you're not on-line yet, perhaps you have friends who are; you might suggest an evening of surfing and exploring together!

Some of you have already put the word out there, and we appreciate it! Thanks -- and be in touch with your suggestions, ideas and comments.

If you have never received a Ladyslipper Catalog before this one and have never requested one by phone or mail, or if you picked this one up at a concert or event without signing the Ladyslipper Mailing List, chances are excellent that you're not on our mailing list.

If you'd like to be, because you plan to order in the future, please fill out and mail in the above form. We're glad to send catalogs to friends too; donations of a few dollars for each help defray printing and mailing costs.

If you received this catalog but do not want to be on our mailing list, check the code above your name on the mailing label. If it doesn't begin with SB, CLK, LR, or LS, you are probably NOT on our mailing list, but rather on someone else's list that we mailed to on a one-time basis. You should contact the companies you order from through the mail, and publications you subscribe to, and ask them not to exchange or rent your name to other organizations.

If you are ordering from us and do not want to occasionally receive mail from other like-minded organizations (all exchanges or rentals are always for one-time use only -- your name would never become part of someone else's permanent file under any circumstances, unless you order from them), ask when you place your order with us to be on our "Privacy List."

Some of you may receive more than one catalog, because you're on mailing lists of several organizations in addition to ours. We try to eliminate as many duplicates as possible, but the computers don't catch them all, so we'd appreciate it if you'd circulate extra catalogs to friends.

LADYSLIPPER LISTEN LINE: 919-644-1942

Remember wishing you could hear some of the albums which sound so intriguing in their descriptions? Now you can! We are pleased to offer readers the opportunity to actually listen to samples of music from many of the titles we list! We want you to know what they sound like, and that's why we annotate them, but language can only go so far in describing the art of music, which is always way beyond what mere words can convey. Until the day comes when each of you can spend weeks in our Listening Room, our Listen Line is the next best thing.

All album titles which have a phone symbol (☎) in the upper right hand corner of the description are now accessible by touchtone phone: just dial 919-644-1942 any time day or night, and listen for instructions. When prompted, enter the 4-digit Listen Line selection number (next to the ☎) of the album you wish to preview, and you can hear up to 3 tracks per title.

Some tips: Press the [*] key anytime you need help or instructions. Press the [#] key to return to previous menu. Press [4] for previous track; [5] to repeat track; [6] for next track. If you are previewing by category such as New Additions, press [1] for previous album; [2] to repeat album; [3] for next album. You can also press [7] to lower the volume or [9] to raise the volume. If you wish to place an order directly from the Listen Line during our normal business hours, return to the main menu by pressing [#] until you're there; then press [0].

Some titles with Listen Line selection numbers are "coming soon" (not "on line" yet), so we'll add them as they arrive... keep checking in. We hope to add new titles each catalog, so be sure to stay on our mailing list. We hope this feature awards you an informative and enjoyable interactive experience... Have fun browsing!

NEW... NEWER... THE NEWEST 99

The following 5 pages contain the newest of our listings. Since they're all grouped together, we didn't bother tagging them all with the NEW symbol you'll see on many items in the balance of this catalog. (Those titles retain the NEW symbols because they were just added in September.) To stay the most current with our new additions, which seem to arrive daily, join our E-Mail List!

Albita Dicen Que...

Albita was a commissioned singer for the Cuban government but defected to Mexico. Then, perhaps after a brief nap, she and her band walked across the border into the US, where she eventually made her way to Miami and the music clubs of Little Havana. Her stage presence, her deep, resonant voice, the percolating mambo rhythms of her music, her penchant for wearing 'men's' suits, all helped make her a local sensation and attracted the enthusiasm of the famous, including Madonna. This 1996 release, translated as "Rumour Has It," will definitely start your hips a'wiggling! (EPC67757) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Aleta Greene & Wall Matthews The Color of Dusk

Adapted from poems from The Women of Plums: Poems in the Voices of Slave Women by Dolores Kendrick, this powerful 1996 album features the soaring voice of Aleta Greene witnessing the stories of African-American slave women. The amazing djembe drumming of Mali, West Africa musician Abdou Doumbia, and the call-and-response vocals, all help transform guitarist Wall Matthews' compositions into a powerful testament of dignity and survival salvaged from great injustice. (CLC715) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco & Utah Phillips The Past Didn't Go Anywhere

Utah Phillips is a 61-year-old travelling storyteller, songwriter and political activist whose wry observations on life are subversively provocative and very funny. Ani has selected recordings from 20 years' worth of Utah's acoustic musings/performances and created unexpected but fitting musical settings for them. The result is, in Ani's words, "a spoken word, storytelling, rambling, sage-like, hip-hop, acoustic, dance-trance album" full of humor, emotion and insight. Utah's tales of real-life quirky characters are set amongst the sounds of funk, ambient, classical and rap music. Ani doesn't sing, but she's all over this 1996 release playing guitars, bass, Hammond organ, wurlitzer piano, thumb piano, percussion, and drum samples (plus some wordless vocals as instrumentation or ambient sound stuff) and produced the whole darn thing. Very cool. (RIG009) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco (Title Unknown - Double Live Album)

Don't know the title, or the price, or the exact release date as we go to press; but she's working on a double live album, for February or some other month during the first half of '97. Inquire when you call or write, or join our e-mail list, and we'll keep you posted!

Ani DiFranco More Joy, Less Shame

This late-'96 EP consists of all previously-unreleased remixes and rare live tracks (none of which will appear on the live album which is slated for release during the first half of '97). Contains exciting versions of Shameless, Both Hands, and Joyful Girl, including the Danger and Uncertainty Mix of the latter, featured in her video which should be receiving widespread exposure by the end of '96. (RIG010) CD: 7.98

Ars Femina Ensemble Musica De La Puebla De Los Angeles

Subtitled Music by Women of the Mexican, Cuban and European Baroque, this 1996 release collects both vocal and instrumental compositions by women from the 16th and 17th centuries. The liner notes detail the musical intermingling of cultures and religions of the "old" and "new" worlds, representing a variety of nationalities (Mexico, Cuba, Spain, Italy, Germany, The Netherlands) which give us an opportunity to compare and contrast. Most of the composers did their work from the relative freedom of a convent, and their music is religious in nature. The exception is Teodora Gines, who was born into slavery in Cuba, and is credited with being the "mother of Cuban folkloric music". Highly recommended! (NAN004) CD: 16.98

BeJae Fleming Red Cross Woman

This North Carolina native cut her musical teeth in Texas, but now homesteads on the prairies of Iowa (for more information, check out the song Iowa). Her 1996 debut release can be found at the corner where folk meets the blues. My favorite is the first song, Let's Drive On (Jackie Says); it's like a queer take on John Mellencamp's Jack and Diane. Red Cross mines the traditional southern blues vein with the all-important sexual bluntness metaphors ("I can feed your famine honey, I can stem your flood..."). Mainstream is a rollicking indictment about an acquaintance who reverted back to the middle class ("she lost her taste for the forbidden fruit"). These Summer Nights chronicles another woman who regrets her safe respectable choices. Perhaps the narrator was one of the "dangerous" roads not taken? Hmmm? A mighty satisfying album which won't leave you hungry again in an hour. (TER08) CD: 14.98

Bette Midler Mud Will Be Flung Tonight

Recorded live at Mort Glickman's Comedy Gulch (it says so on the CD insert) or somewhere in 1985, the Divine Miss M does her sullied but hilarious comedy riffs on all things relating to the physical body (this is an euphemism) and celebrity dish. Includes her famous take on Sophie Tucker (a.k.a. "Soph"). Things were better before the chart success of Wind Beneath My Wings. (ATL81291) CS: 7.98... CD: 13.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie Up Where We Belong

For over 30 years, this Native artist has written and performed her compelling songs of incisive and heartfelt expression to appreciative fans; along the way, many of them have become standards known the world over. This 1996 release is a collection of the songs most frequently requested of her in concert, re-recorded with new arrangements which she felt best suited them for today. Includes Now That the Buffalo's Gone, Universal Soldier, Piney Wood Hills, God Is Alive/Magic Is Afoot, Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee, Until It's Time For You to Go, Starwalker, Cripple Creek, title track, 15 in all. (ANG35059) CD: 15.98

Cesaria Evora A l'Olympia

If you're a fan, every recording you can get your hands on will be a requirement! This one documents the shows the "barefooted diva" gave at the Olympia in June of 1993. We haven't heard it as we go to press, but are giddy with delight in anticipation. (MEL795912) CD: 16.98

Chaka Kahn Epiphany: The Best of... Vol. One

This 1996 landmark anthology, from an artist whose refusal to be categorized has helped to expand and blur the boundaries of R&B, dance, pop and jazz, features her greatest hits plus 5 new tracks. Among the new: Newer Miss the Water, on which she is joined by Mi-Sheila Ndegeocello on vocals. Among the classics: I'm Every Woman (also the title of her autobiography); Ain't Nobody (recorded with Rufus); and the Prince-penned I Feel For You. She's one of this reviewer's absolute favorite divas, a 5-time Grammy winner and a voice to die for. (REP45865) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Cherish The Ladies New Day Dawning

With new member Aolfe Glancy on lead vocals, Cherish The Ladies' 1996 release is their strongest collection yet of their trademark mix of instrumentals and vocals, traditional and new songs, fast jigs and reels and slow, gentle ballads, sung both in English and Gaelic. Includes Aolfe's beautiful treatments of Robert Burns' Green Grow the Rubies and of Scott Dougie McLean's Broken Wings, the fiddler's Sohan Egan's original Rayleen's Real, and band-leader Joanne Madden's lonesome solo flute performance on Ned of the Hill. (GL1175) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Chloe Goodchild Devi

An acclaimed voice teacher in England, the artist writes, "Devi, Divine Feminine or Goddess, brings together many of my favourite devotional chants spanning the Hindu, Christian, Buddhist and Sufi traditions. I have sung these unison and multi-part chants with voice groups in Europe and America. Such chanting is vibrational medicine, a simple yet profound means of awakening the singing heart while sidestepping the everyday mind. Whether we choose to listen to Devi during a massage session or in preparation for meditation, it will restore equilibrium and harmony to every cell in the body." This 1996 release, full of grace and power, includes the chant to Devi, the Kyrie, the Indian Jaya Bhagavan entold with The Lord's Prayer, an improvised Ave Maria, the Armenian Taron, and Gone Gone Far Beyond, an English translation of the Buddhist Heart Sutra. Amazing! (RAV1951) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Dos Fallopia Pretty Girls, Not Too Bright

Seattle's reigning queens of sketch comedy (Lisa Koch and Peggy Platt) serve up a slew of hysterical and dysfunctional characters in their debut 1996 video release. Shot from live performances, the duo brings their hilarious comedy and music to life through their twisted alter egos. (DOS1VC) 19.98

Erica Wheeler The Harvest

Blending the best of folk, bluegrass and old-time music with evocative lyrics and honey-sweet harmonies, Erica's 1996 album is packed with goodness. Produced by Laurie Lewis (who also lends her talent on fiddle and backing vocals), this release also features Barbara Higbie on piano and vocals. Includes the fiddle-y ode to the outdoors, Spirit Lake, the almost painfully poignant Goodbye Moon about an unbreachable chasm between mother and daughter, the saucy blues of Hot, the acappella cover of Claudia Schmidt's Quiver Hills, and the slice-of-life of Sober Harley Guys. Good and good for you! (SSR1237) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Everything Relative

7 idealistic, radical feminists who bonded in college in the 70's reconcile their youthful dyke dramas, faded political convictions and post-therapy intimacy issues when reunited on the cusp of middle age in the 90's... sort of a lesbian version of Return of the Secaucus Seven or The Big Chill. This soundtrack album from the film features the music of Ani DiFranco, Holly Near, the Klezmatics and others, with an original score by Frank London. (RS0330) CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & The Mirrors Stillpoint: A Compilation

This 1996 release compiles songs from Gabrielle's past albums for "stillness". Includes tracks from Quiet, Trance, Tongues and Bones that are perfect for massage, yoga and "the subtle movements of the inner dance of stillness". (RAV5960) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

FEATURING k.d. lang & MELISSA ETHERIDGE

Gay Men's Chorus of Washington DC Pride & Joy: The Holiday Album

Selections on this versatile late '95 release include Down Home Country Christmas and Ringin' in Christmas Country Style, both performed with the Big Fite Out Country Band (11) as well as Hanukkah, Merry Christmas Darling and more. A low as well as traditional, but many are fresh and different. (GMW2) CD: 15.98

Gillian Welch Revival

I cannot understand how, but Gillian manages to convey the entire weight of the sadness in Appalachian/Deep Southern poor, rural lives on this 1996 release. Wrung from her young heart, ageless tales of crushed hopes, death, bad luck and lives that never stood a chance are leavened only by steadfast faith in a fair shake when they "cross over". Simple arrangements, direct lyrics and a delicately plain, but not overly plaintive singing style have grabbed us here at Ladyslipper and won't let us go. The easy-to-take twang of Crabapple, Tear My Shiloh Down, Barroom Girls and By the Mark seem like timeless classics gathered in the back mountain hollers, but they are all her originals! Essential listening to realign your perspective on the important things. (AL80006) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Hal-An-Tow Songs of the Six Celtic Nations

On this haunting album, classically-trained Canadian vocalist Sandra Reid sings in the original languages of the modern Celtic Nations: Brittany, Cornwall, Ireland, The Isle of Man, Scotland, and Wales. Accompanied only by the quiet rhythms of Randy Crafter's frame drums, her mezzo-soprano passionately soars as she sings ancient songs about the universal Celtic themes of love, death, bereavement, struggle against oppression, and the supernatural. (LYR7425) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

The Indianapolis Men's Chorus No One Is Alone

The baptism of fire for this 61 member gay male chorus came at the 1991 Indianapolis Gay rally when they classically shut down loud, angry fundamentalist protesters by singing the National Anthem. The chorus "strives to perform music from a wide variety of cultures as authentically as possible" and their 1995 release starts off with the exciting Bethlehem, a Christmas song dedicated to African and African-American traditions. They sing When I Fall in Love as a wry commentary on those who protest same-sex marriage and then accuse lesbians and gays of "promiscuity". They have performed with MUSE, the Cincinnati Women's Choir, and include here the sultry song Bread and Roses. (They note "Few, if any men's choruses have explored the rich heritage of women's music, and it is an honor for the men of IMC to join their sisters in this proud tradition.") Selections from Christine Lavin, The Fifth Dimension, Sondheim, and PP&M round out this wonderful recording. (IMC1) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Iris DeMent The Way I Should

On this 1996 release, Iris looks out at the world and is not really thrilled about what she sees. Her voice, beautifully twangy, speaks for those who do not have a protective coating. Wasteland of the Free declares "We got preachers dead" in politics and diamond mines and their speech is growing increasingly unkind. Letter to Mom lances the shame of a woman who finally reveals that she had been sexually molested by her mother's boyfriend. There's a Wall in Washington is a raucous cry at the unhealed wounds of the Vietnam War. In a more personal vein, there is the self-explanatory I'll Take My Sorrow Straight. When My Morning Comes Around which instigated a serious bout of soul searching on my end, and a respite of cheerfulness in the Merle Haggard co-written This Kind of Happy. The final cut, Trouble, is a road house blues, devil-may-care duet with Delbert McClimon that warms us up before sending us out into the chilly night. I'll have another round of this, please. (WB46188) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Jennifer Higdon Rapid Fire

A modern classical composer and performer, flautist Jennifer Higdon's debut release is an innovative album of great range and depth. At times passionate and fiery (as in the 3 part composition Voices, with its frenzied violin and cello accompaniments by members of the Windham Hill String Quartet) and in other pieces delicate (the flute-piano piece Autumn Reflections), this 1996 album is thoroughly modern. The Kronos Quartet is interested in recording her work, so here is your chance to say "I knew her when . . ." (JVR501) CD: 15.98

Joan Osborne Early Recordings

We have received many plaintive requests for Joan's early recordings which were released on her own label, Womanly Hips. Happily, we can now offer this 1996 combo of 1991's Soul Show (Live at Delta 88), which includes Son of A Preacher Man, and Fly Away, plus her 1993 3-song EP featuring Captain Beefheart's His Eyes Are a Blue Million Miles. Yes! (BL6534235) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

John Corigliano Of Rage & Remembrance

Originally commissioned by the Seattle, NY, and SF Men's Chorus, John Corigliano's cantata is a passionate elegy for those who are lost to AIDS. The piece combines a harshly stunning poem by William M. Hoffman with a fragment of the Hebrew 23rd Psalm and a recitation of names of men who have died of AIDS (this changes with every performance to honor the friends lost by members of the particular chorus). Mezzo soprano, men's choruses, boy soprano, low strings, timpani and chimes blend together to create a very powerful performance. Corigliano's second piece, Symphony No. 1, surges and ebbs with the inspiration from another of the composers' friends "lost in the toxic sweep". Recorded at the JFK Center in DC with Leonard Slatkin conducting the National Symphony Orchestra, this 1996 release is a fundraiser for Classical Action and The Names Project. (RCA68450) CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell Hits

This 1996 compilation includes Joni's biggest, well, "hits" from 1967 to 1994. Includes Big Yellow Taxi, Chelsea Morning, Both Sides Now, River, Raised on Robbery, Woodstock, The Circle Game and more! If you aren't aware of this musical genius (a favorite even of Led Zeppelin), this is a nice introduction. (If you already are "with it", this would be just nice to have around the house . . .) (REP46326) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell Misses

This 1996 flip side of the Hits compilation catalogues some of Joni's most challenging and visionary work from long neglected and misunderstood (think jazz) albums like The Hissing of Summer Lawns, Mingus and Dog Eat Dog. Includes For The Roses, Hajira, Nothing Can Be Done, Harry's House, Centerpiece and others. C'mon, take a chance! (REP46358) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Judy Garland Collector's Gems From the MGM Films

Spanning her work for the MGM movie studio from 1935-1949, this 2-CD boxed set includes performances (as well as outtakes, extended and alternate versions of songs) from such films as Love Finds Andy Hardy, Ziegfeld Girl, Thousands Cheer and Till the Clouds Roll By. Also includes 7 Irving Berlin classics Judy did for Annie Get Your Gun before Betty Hutton took over the role. A must for fans! (RH72543) CD: 29.98

Julie Cypher, Melissa Etheridge, k.d. lang Teresa's Tattoo (Video)

Directed by Melissa Etheridge's life partner/wife, Julie Cypher, this screwball comedy follows two thugs who accidentally kill the woman they are holding for ransom and quickly need a replacement. Their search for another redheaded, prominently-tattooed gal is enhanced by cameos of Melissa and k.d. lang. (WV25VC) 19.98

Karen Beth Magic

This singer-songwriter hereby invites us to enter a realm where we can wander between the worlds, through lands of dreams and wonder, endless possibilities, and enchantment. Featuring Karen on vocals, synthesizer, accordion, banjo and piano (with Layne Redmond helping out on frame drum), her 1996 release takes us on a gentle ride. She sweetly tells her original compositions Light of My Heart, Violet Eyes, Touching, The Dream, and other easy-going songs. Very simple and lovely. (STD103) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Karen Williams Way Out!

Recorded live at the Madison, Wisconsin Women's Apple Island Festival (a very lively venue), this 1996 release includes Karen's riffs on menopause, sex, butches, Cleveland, and other thoughtful but ultimately very funny takes on most issues which concern today's aware lesbian. (AR3) CS: 10.98

Kate MacKenzie Age of Innocence

The trill of a mandolin, the whine of a fiddle, the jingle of a banjo, and the "high, lonesome sound" of good bluegrass singing . . . ahhhh. Kate's a rising star in bluegrass, and this 1996 release should move her up another notch. She plays guitar and sings on her originals like Carolina and Epitaph and traditional tunes like Single Girl Sally Ann and What's the Matter with the Mill? Her voice is sweet, more folksy than sharply twangy, and she'd be just right to listen to as you rock away the sunset on the porch of your mountain home. (RHR91) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Luscious Trance

The "new tribal music" of Luscious Trance is graced by the voices of Adele Getty and Lou Montgomery, who write that the songs are rooted in a vision of the earth and a hope for future generations. Waterfall is a spare but powerful chant to the goddesses ("Mother, you're in everything"). Walk Through the Door is a call for a revolutionary shift for an earth-nurturing world. The Coyote Spirit Song, arranged by the sounds of birds and shaking rattles, is a lovely prayer to the universe. Crisp production adds to the pleasure of listening to these uplifting songs and chants that stay with you long after you've heard them. (MNM1) CD: 15.98

Lynzi Wildheart/Amazon Range Riders

Lights up on 2 women driving across the horizonless flat highways of Texas in one of those gas-guzzling convertibles that I think only exist in movies. They're dusty and sunburnt and thirsty and they pull off into the crunching gravel parking lot of a neon-adorned bar. In the next scene, the women walk in, their boot heels echoing off of the wooden floorboards. They hesitate until their eyes adjust, and the camera pans over a room full of dykes sitting around tables and leaning against walls listening to a band. That band is Lynzi Wildheart and the Amazon Range Riders. In real life they play women's music festivals and have earned their lesbian musician's honor badge by opening for The Indigo Girls and Melissa Etheridge. They do folksy rock with some dirty horns, harmonica and guitar flavoring to spice it up; "out" lyrics and sweet booklet photos make their allegiances clear. Their theme song, Amazon Range Riders, reclaims the hell-raiser yippee-aye-aye-aye cowgal legacy! We send out a big Girl Howdy whoop to them! (OTN1) CD: 14.99

Madonna et al Evita (2-Set)

If you are attuned to the world according to People Magazine, you know all about this 1996 phenomenon. Madonna is Eva Peron in the blockbuster adaptation of Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's musical Evita. This double album features all the tunes you know and love as well as a new Lloyd Webber/Rice ballad written for the film, You Must Love Me. We won't cry for her . . . (WB46346) CS: 19.98 . . . CD: 29.99

Marcey Music by Marcey Sampler

This 1996 release contains trance-channelled selections of healing music from the artist's first 5 albums: Inward Harmony, Z. Celestial Dance, Anthem to Soul, and Dream Partner. A great choice for those who can't decide which of her albums to buy! (MRC6) CD: 15.98

Mari Boine
Radiant Warmth

Mari is considered the most eloquent and exciting voice of the Sa'ami (more commonly known as "Laplanders", a term considered derogatory by the Sa'ami), a people native to what is now known as northern Norway, Finland, Sweden and Russia. Her powerful sound is a unique celebration of her culture and heritage. This 1996 release is a compilation of songs from her previous albums Eagle Brother and Unfolding; she combines ancient and modern textures, integrating her poetic imagery with a relentless groove, incorporating elements of rock, ambient, folk, and "folk" — the native chant of the Sa'ami people. (ANS533520) CD: 15.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
A Place in the World

Grammy Award-winning Mary-Chapin is slowly taking over the world! A country artist with big pop crossover appeal and a right-on gal who wears her feminist sensibilities like jacket fringe, we welcome her 1996 release. Filled with her trademark twang-less ballads like That's Real and easy rollickers like The Better To Dream of You and I Want To Be Your Girlfriend, she has also thrown in the honky-tonk Keeping the Faith and the fat horse-Blast-bell sound of Let Me Kiss Your Heart. Kudos to the poetic imagery washing through the thoughtful Ideas Are Like Stars. (COL67501) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked
Mercury Poise: 1988-1995

Uncompromising in her refusal to bow to expectations or to stay comfortably in one musical genre "box", Michelle's muse has taken her from folk to rock to big band to old-timey, and now back to folk. This 1996 release collects songs from her albums Short Sharp Shocked, Captain Swing and Arkansas Traveler. It also features Holy Spirit from the Victoria Williams benefit album Sweet Relief, Quality of Mercy from the Dead Man Walking soundtrack, and the stark Stillborn from Kind Hearted Woman. (MERS32960) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Miraj
A Moon Note

Miraj is an acronym of the names of the members of this Philadelphia-based Jewish feminist vocal trio: Margot Stein Azari, Juliet Irene Spitzer, and Geela Rayzel Raphael. Their voices weave in and out as they sing their original gender-sensitive songs, some in English and some in Hebrew. Miraj of Women and Love Until It Please are empowering songs about "earthly" matters. Some songs are about Jewish culture and belief. Gather In and Neshama Yelayna, with references to Shacharit, the divine feminine presence, celebrate Shabbat. Rosh Chodesh Moon is a beautiful "moon song", and Rock to The Rock combines Psalm 95 with the African-American gospel tradition. From ballads to klezmer to rounds, Miraj pleasingly blends many seemingly disparate elements on this 1995 release. (RTH1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maya Angelou
Miss Calypso

Well, most of us know her as a powerful, majestic writer, poet and Presidential inauguration speaker, but in 1956, at the height of her nightclub singing career, Maya Angelou recorded this calypso record! (The story goes that she really wanted to be a cabaret dancer, and could only get to dance if she sang too.) With only a gentle bongocongo and electric guitar backing, Maya mixes jazz, gospel, blues with Caribbean sounds. As part of the big Harry Belafonte-inspired calypso craze, she channels Trinidad on her originals like Tamo, Neighbor, Neighbor, Scandal in the Family; the Louis Jordan covers Run Joe and Push Ka Pici Pi and the always odd lighthearted murder-of-the-wife-beating-husband tale Stone Cold Dead in the Market. This is a very cool and retro-funky album! (SCM9705) CD: 16.98

Maya Angelou with Ashford & Simpson
Been Found

The multi-talented R&B duo Ashford & Simpson are known for classics like Ain't No Mountain High Enough, Your Precious Love and Ain't Nothing Like The Real Thing amongst others. This '96 release, their first in 7 years, is a smooth mix of "quiet storm" and easy grooves. Renowned poet and author Maya Angelou adds the distinctive flavor of her authoritative voice on several tracks, including the gospel-infected title track, and the sing-song "voiceover" of Just Talking; her poetic riffs are filled mostly with love imagery this time around. Maya recorded the album Miss Calypso in the early 60's but had avoided revisiting the musical medium... until now! (H534512) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa
Escondido en mi Pais

Though we haven't heard this late '96 release as we go to press, we wanted to have it in case you were lucky enough to catch her on her recent US tour (or, if you weren't). Includes Zamba a Monteros, Si Llegas a ser Tucumana, Ocas Azules, La Navidad de Luis, 15 in all. (PLD533031) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Michelle Shocked
A Kind Hearted Woman

Originally put out by Michelle by her own darn self and only sold at her concerts, this 1995 re-release was begun as a collaboration for a Mark Morris dance piece entitled Home. Michelle describes the album as "a very stark collection of storysongs set in rural America. These are stories I need to tell, songs I very much need to sing." Backed by members from The Hothouse Flowers, she blends country, folk, blues, bluegrass with a funk/punk/gospel edge. Her hard-core song stories include Stillborn, which tells of a midwife as she walks home after delivering a dead baby; A Child Like Grace about a bright young girl who dies before her fifth birthday; and Eddie, the story of a boy who saw his father struck by lightning and now lights fires of his own. Starkly beautiful. (PVT2145) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Miss "Lady" Bunny
Shame, Shame, Shame

Drag queen Miss Bunny has 5 (count 'em) remixes of Shirley & Co's 1975 hit on this '96 CD single. Polish the mirror ball and off we go... (MX2041) CD: 5.98

The Nields
Gotta Get Over Greta

It's hard to convey the charm these folks exude, even through the sterile speakers of my little boom box. This 1996 release is their fourth album (complete with their trademark comic book/liner notes) and their most complex to boot. Originally from VA, and now tearing up the town square in Williamstown MA, The Nields are "2 sisters, 3 Daves and 3 Nields." You've heard the lead singers, the sisters Karyn and Norissa Nields, backing Dan Williams on her albums. The title track rocks along as it bemoans the never-to-be-recaptured intensity of a childhood best friendship. Lines like "Memory has a keen edge, drawing blood and sometimes more" from All My Pretty Horses and "I used to be hard as candy, now I've been sucked on too long" from I Need A Doctor don't lose their sheen. Let yourself get swept up in Nields-mania! (RAT2622) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Noirin Ni Riain w/Monks of Glenstal
The Darkest Midnight

The simple but powerful sound of Noirin's stunning voice combined with the meditative sound of the monastic chorus from Glenstal Abbey resounds off of the ancient stones of a Gaelic church. On this 1992 release subtitled Religious Songs from the Irish Tradition, they perform the 17th and 18th carols of Luke Wadding and William Dewereaux (of the Fenns diocese in County Wexford, Ireland), with stark, unaccompanied grace. The carols are sung both in English and Gaelic and includes such songs as The Seven Joys of Mary, Christmas Day Is Come, Song for New Year's Day, O Via Virgo, O Blessed Virgin, and Solathureach Mhuire/Mary's Breastplate. Perfect for the winter holiday season and way beyond. (SND322) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Noirin Ni Riain
The Virgin's Lament

The only recording of the oldest surviving Celtic music, Noirin and the monks of Glenstal Abbey give uplifting tribute to medieval religious songs, women's spirituals, Gregorian chants and more. (SND320) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Noirin Ni Riain
Vox de Nube

Noirin and the monks of Glenstal Abbey in Limerick, Ireland, give voice to mystical hymns of praise, inviting us to link Heaven and Earth. Includes many rare liturgical chants, Latin plainchant, and the work of the 12th-century mystic Hildegard von Bingen. (SND318) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Odaline de la Martinez/ Lontano
British Women Composers Vol. 1

Odaline De La Martinez is an amazing woman, Cuban-born, USA-raised, and now living in London. Odaline felt that women didn't have a strong enough presence in the classical music field, so she set out to help remedy the situation. She was the first woman to conduct a complete BBC Promenade concert in 1990 she formed the European Women's Orchestra... she guest conducts and lectures all around the world... she has founded her own record label to promote the works of women composers, Latin American music from all centuries and other modern composers. These 2 volumes, released in 1992, feature modern compositions performed by Lontano, the contemporary ensemble of the London Chamber Symphony (of which she is the founder, musical director and conductor). This first volume consists of Nicole LeFanu's monodrama The Old Woman of Beane, which is based on a 9th or 10th century Irish poem, Errollyn Wallen's It All Depends on Vol. Lindsey Cooper's The Road is Wider Than Long and Elizabeth Macoskey's My Dark Heart. (LOR101) CD: 16.98

Odaline de la Martinez/ Lontano
British Women Composers Vol. 2

This second volume consists of Odaline's composition Canciones, based on her translations of 4 early Federico Garcia Lorca's poems, Judith Weir's Ains From Another Planet, Melinda Maxwell's Pibroch, Jamaican-born Eleanor Alberga's Suite from Dancing With The Shadow, and the Welsh Hilary Tann's Winter Sun, Summer Rain. A very interesting collection! (LOR103) CD: 16.98

Primitive Fire/Wayne Numan
Tomorrow Is Too Late/Entangled

This '96 German limited-edition import contains 2 CD singles and great cover art featuring a leather boy touching fingertips with a drag queen as a Michelangelo's Adam/God in the Sistine. Tomorrow is Too Late (and its remixes) feature sophisticated vocals (Bass-essque) and groovy beats-per-minute. Entangled does the mid-80's Euro-dance (a.g. Erasure) scene; very catchy! (STW9603) CD: 9.96

Red Hot Organization
Red Hot & Rio

This 1996 benefit release from the AIDS Awareness/Education Red Hot Organization features an amazing hybrid of classic 60's bossa nova rounds with contemporary pop/dance/jazz/hip-hop. Sophisticated but more importantly very, very fun, this great album includes spins on bossa nova standards by Everything But the Girl, Cesaria Evora with Caetano Veloso and Ryuchi Sakamoto, Flora Purim and Airto with PM Dawn, and Crystal Waters (with the absolutely essential Boy From Ipanema). Don't miss this one! (ANS533183) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Letter Day
Four Bowls of Colour

Wow, these gals are catchy! This Maryland duo features Suzanna Mallow on vocals and guitar and Andrea Jones on vocals, saxophone, harmonica and recorder, and their '96 release is very tasty acoustic folk/rock (and I mean that in the best, poppiest way possible). The closest comparison I can make, and I wish I were more imaginative, would be The Indigo Girls — you know, good lyrics, interesting arrangements and instrumentation, intense harmonies, all in all a real pleasure to listen to. California is a swell west coast disc; their hearts ooze all over the lovely On The Chesapeake Bay; Pandora's Box is as beguiling as the title promises. Trust me on this one. (ANT100) CD: 14.98

Shawn Colvin
A Few Small Repairs

Fans of Shawn Colvin love her with unstakable devotion. A singer-songwriter extraordinaire, this 1996 release traverses craggy terrain — Shawn's muse probably doesn't let her sleep well at night. The songs sound pretty and poppy and made in a big studio with many expensive blinking lights, but they don't paint a picture that would match your couch. Songs like Get Out of This House, Sunny Came Home, and Trouble don't bludgeon you, their insights remove the varnish and expose your fears, your disappointments, your pain to the air. Meanwhile, her voice is subtle and soft and sweet, secreting her incisive lyrics straight under your skin. This is good stuff. (COL67119) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sid Spencer
Chasin' That Neon Rainbow

Sid's fourth and final album, released late '96 or early '97, is a true testament to his talent and his spirit. Includes 8 previously unreleased tracks, then a surprise (ain't your curiosity piqued?), and a few of his best-loved songs from other albums. (AMT4) CD: 15.98

Sid Spencer
Celebration of Life

Edited from over 2 dozen camcorder videos from 1986-1996, this 3-hour video contains performances of over 40 songs, many previously only heard by his family. (SID1VC) 29.98

Susan Graham White

Not Afraid To Fly

This 1996 release is a solid album of original ballads from this singer/songwriter with the deep, gentle voice. Well-produced with light touches of guitar, piano, and violin, lines like "She makes footprints in the dewy morning grass while the wind chime plays a song of broken glass" flow quite nicely out of your speakers. Highlights include the title track, a tribute to the derring-do of Amelia Earhart, and Who's That Woman, about looking in the mirror and being impressed with how surprisingly far you've come. (BLX10029) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Suzanne Vega

Nine Objects of Desire

We're a long way from Luka... Thrust into the spotlight in the "Women in Rock" media trend of the early '80s, this incisive singer/songwriter is back (and she's feisty) with this 1996 release. Her mysterious monotone is pushed up against a complex, harder sound this time out. The drug and bondage references she leads off with in the jittery Birthday (Love Made Real) set you up for anything she might toss at you. The soft samba longing of Caramelo melts into the Steely Dan-ish of The Thin Man, then the African drums of Lokis, finally trickling into the decadent European cabaret of My Favorite Plum. Two thumbs up for Stockings, a song about a strong attraction to another woman ("Do you know when friendship ends and passion does begin?"). (AM563) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Tallitha MacKenzie

Spiorad (Spirit)

You might remember Tallitha as the amazing singer on Mouth Music's first album. Her vocalizing is rooted in the Celtic "mouth music" tradition, and she blends this ancient musical form with modern dance and pop rhythms on this 1996 release. She takes ancient Gaelic laments and wailing songs, with a handful of Breton, Bulgarian and Serbian dance songs thrown in for a good 44 measure, and transforms them with new arrangements for synthesizer, keyboard horn, harpsicord and sampling, transcending musical boundaries, both by era and genre. This album soars above the fray! (SHN76003) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

The Third Sex

Card Carryin'

A direct infusion of dyke rock angst from Portland, Oregon, The Third Sex's 1996 debut disc was produced by Team Dresch's Donna Dresch. The simple guitar/bass/drums lineup and jagged vocal ministrations make for a raw punk sound sweetened by "new wave" influences. Includes Crazy Blue, Love in the Basement ("they won't let me talk to her 'cause I am the lesbian freak"), Time Bomb and Un Deux Trois (AT) about the futility of expecting your cat's loyalty. (CHN15) CD: 15.99

Turtle Creek Chorale

Simply Christmas

The Chorale's 1996 Christmas offering is a simple and lovely collection of traditional favorites. Accompanied only by piano, piccolo, flute and oboe, their voices ring out on Carol of the Bells, Do You Hear What I Hear?, The First Noel, Silent Night as well as the Appalachian carol, I Wonder As I Wander and the French Veni, Veni, Emmanuel. Perfect for when the fire burns down low. (TCC1100) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Gay Classics Vol XII: Over and Out

They swear it's the last one! For the grand finale, here's Yvonne Elliman's Love Pains, Syreeta's Love Fire, The Fifth Dimension's Love Hangover, and, appropriately enough, Sharon Dee Clarke's Dance Your Way Out the Door. (HTP33140) CD: 15.99

Various Artists

Now and Then

A double-CD collection of the British label Altnighty's greatest hits. The first CD consists of the original late-80's jams and the second one has counterpart '86 remixes of them all. Includes Obsession's Never Ending Story, Rochelle's Think Twice, Abacabab's Dancing Queen, Sarah Washington's I Will Always Love You and, you guessed it, many more. (ALM17) CD: 24.99

Various Artists

Out Workout

This gay dance compilation, due January '97 from Atlantic Records' Gay/Lesbian Music division, features artists such as Toni Amos and RuPaul. (ATL82966) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Various Artists

Sisters: Women's Music from...

Celestial Harmonies... that's the last part of the title and the label presenting this 1996 anthology of diverse and wonderful 14 female artists/groups. The common thread is that the women are all musical alchemists with a deep sense of history, blending ancient song with a modern production, or actively involved in extending the boundary of possibilities for their chosen instrument. It opens with a West African percussion piece by Francine Martel from the group Takada... then we hear Tomoko Schizaki on koto; Nancy Hennings on Tibetan bells; soprano Anna Mallen sings a haunting medieval Armenian chant; sitar player Krishna Chakravarty combines ragas with talas; Ida Wadawad performs classical Sundanese music of ancient lyrical court poetry; Sylvan Gray demonstrates her mastery of the kantele, Finland's national zither-like instrument; the trio Sinfonije pays tribute to Hildegard von Bingen; the Hue Traditional Art Troupe honors Vietnamese sisters Trung Trac and Trug Nji; Theresa Schneider-Shekar offers a delicate tune for harp and voice; violinist Claes Pearce from the Australian ensemble Coolangubra thrills with her virtuosity. And I didn't even list them all. Recommended! (CEL131) CD: 15.99

Various Artists Divas of Mali

The West African country of Mali boasts an incredibly rich, diverse and influential array of musical styles, both traditional and popular. The most impressive Malian artists are female vocalists, and this 1996 collection brings together great performances from most of the biggest singing stars in Malian music from the past 20 years. 12 artists are featured, including legendary names like Fanta Damba, Amy Koita, Tata Bambo Kouyate, Samougue Kouyate, and Nahawa Doumbia. This is some of the finest and most powerful music on earth, so you're guaranteed an outstanding listening experience! (SHN64078) CD: 16.98

Various Artists God Shave The Queen!

If the title doesn't immediately pique your interest, perhaps the group cover photo of the multi-talented drag queens will. (I feel the amount of work that drag entails should qualify for a tax write-off. These gals sing, too!) Miss "Lady" Bunny does the tres bawdy dripping-with-70s-disco-soul, The Pussycat Song. Pussy Touré offers a remix of Who Does She Think She Is? Varla Jean Merman (yes, that reference is correct) treats Grace Slick's White Rabbit to a Phantom of the Opera interpretation. Joey Arias' No One Knows could tragically becom next to a Billie Holiday song. Other cuts would nicely fit into any anti-TV MTV video. This strong collection of diverse (and fabulously dressed) tunes demonstrates that music needs no rigid gender roles. (SWN1) CD: 15.98

Various Artists Free To Be 1

This series of dance compilations was developed exclusively within the gay community; they say "trust us, this ain't some straight person's idea of what comprises 'gay music'". Each CD is approx. 1 hour, specially sequenced, sprinkled with popular hard-to-find cult classics from both the US and Europe. The first volume includes tracks by Boy George, Lulu, Judy Cheeks, Jocelyn Brown, Charlene Smith and others. (TRF52285) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Free To Be 2

Patti Austin, Adeva, Teena Marie, Michelle Gayle, Lisa Lisa and more on this volume. (TRF52286) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Free To Be 3

Great tracks by Chaka Khan, Nona Hendryx, Alison Limerick, Jaki Graham and more. (TRF52287) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Free To Be 4

More from Klymaxx, Nina Hagen, Jody Watley, Gang of Four, Angie Gles and others. (TRF52288) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Free To Be 5

This last (for now) contains classics from Judy Garland, Eartha Kitt, Pam LaBelle, Peggy Lee, Tina Turner, and more, and more. (TRF52289) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Gay from Las Vegas

This lively recording, due February '97, is hosted by Frank Marino, the famous Joan Rivers female impersonator (she once sued him over it but they're now the best of friends...), and features comedy by Susie Berger, Elvira Karl, Scott Kennedy, and Mark Davis. (UPR3773) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Broadway Bound

Show tunes! Brand spanking new show tunes! Subtitled New Writers for the Musical Theatre, this 1996 release features Matthew Broderick and Sarah Jessica Parker doing Let's Get Domestic from The Tenants of 3R, Liz Callaway and Jason Graae with So Far, So Good from No Way to Treat a Lady, and many more classic-sounding future standards. (VS5676) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Celtic Spirit

The poignant beauty of the Celtic landscapes, with their ancient majesty, draws out spiritual thoughts and meditations. This 1996 collection of evocative religious-themed songs, mostly reworkings of ancient texts and prayers, shimmers with reverential gentleness. Corina Dover has set new music to a 9th century Gregorian Chant on Libi Caritas. Aoife Ni Fhearraigh sings the ancient medieval hymns praising Mary, Seacht Suanair na Maighde Mhara. Aine Mhogue offers the 14th century Latin plainchant Puer Natus. Harpist Teresa Schroeder-Sheker performs her symbolic Rosa Mystica. A perfect companion for prayer, meditation, or anytime you need to reflect on the eternal. (NA3829) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Celtic Twilight 3: Lullabies

This 1996 release, the third in the popular series, focuses on vocal and instrumental lullabies for sleepy children (or for those who need to get sleepy...) of all ages. Includes traditional and newly composed songs from Talitha Mackenzie, Barbara Higbie, Noirin Ni Riain, Mairead Sullivan, Anuna, Niamh Parsons and Frances Black (in Arcady), children's singer Linda Arnold and more. A wonderful sampler of some of the best Celtic singers around! (HS11107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists A Child's Celebration of Song 2

Various French Women Composers Fleurs Jetees

Featuring Rebecca de Pont Davies (mezzo-contralto) and Clare Toornet (piano) performing the works of the French composers Nadia Boulanger, Cecile Chaminade, Augusta Holmes and Pauline Viardot Garcia. Includes English translations. (LOR109) CD: 16.98

Various Women in Reggae Holding Up Half Sky/Roots Daughters

This 1996 compilation of Women in Reggae: Roots Daughters is truly the "best of" female artists in the genre! Includes the anthemic Black Woman by Judy Mowatt, Mary Ann Called by the I Threes (the mystical magical trio which consisted of Judy Mowatt, Marcia Griffiths and Rita Marley), solo tracks by Marcia and Rita (her famous tokon song, One Drop), the duo Althea and Donna, dub queen/social activist Sister Carol, Barbara Pridge, Nadine Sutherland, and other Jamaican greats, many from the pages of Lady'slipper Catalogs past. (SHN45027) CD: 16.98

Vartina Kokko

From Finland's leading folk/pop group, world-famous Vartina's 1996 release once again highlights their distinct, voice-driven sound, which combines crystal clear harmonies with pulsating rhythms — and then cranks it up. Their 10-piece band (including the 4 female vocalists) hints at Celtic, Scandinavian, and Russian influences while retaining a distinctive traditional-yet-modern character, a sort of whirling power-folk... with complex harmonies and rhythms which are, once again, very close to being too exquisite for words. Fans, don't pass this one up! As this reviewer can attest after seeing them live, "Vartina rocks!" (NON79429) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Village People Can't Stop The Music

Oh, my. The "Original Motion Picture Soundtrack Album" (accept no substitutes) for this fine (cough) 1980 film. The film featured Bruce Jenner, the 1976 Olympic Decathlon Champion and Wheaties shill, but, sadly, he contributed no music. The Village People shine throughout, but there are also selections from The Ritchie Family and David London. (CSB532932) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Wishing Chair Singing With The Red Wolves

This duo (guitarist/singer/songwriter Kiya Heartwood, an alum of the band Stealin' Horses, and singer/multi-instrumentalist Miriam Davidson) chose their name from a postcard picture of two elderly, Irish Gypsy women sitting on a rock formation in Ulster-County known as The Wishing Chair; legend has it that if you sit there, your dreams will come true. On the band's debut 1996 release, they pattern themselves after Celtic bands such as Altan, but with a definitely American, acoustic flavor. The title track, and cover art by feminist and Native artist, Dana Tiger, draw inspiration from lessons they learned from this nearly extinct species — part of the proceeds of this album go towards the Red Wolf Recovery Program in Kentucky. Victoria recounts the enduring power of a teenage romantic encounter with another cowgirl. On Traveler, Kiya uses symbols from the tarot to paint a picture of a modern gypsy. It's a little bit country, a little bit southwestern, quite musically engaging, and very "out" lyrically; recommended! (TRK1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac Voice of the Xtabey

The rediscovery of Yma Sumac is a wonderful thing, but the English language is an inadequate tool to describe either her music or the eternally exciting experience of listening to her. Her identity is shrouded in mystery; either she was born in the village of Ichoacan, Peru, a direct descendant of the last of the Incan Kings, or she was and is not. The songs she sings are either traditional Incan hymns and ceremonial songs or they are not. I personally think it's best not to know. The only incontrovertible fact is that she amazed! Her voices swoops through 4 or 5 octaves, she sings operatically one moment and then makes cultural or piercing otherworldly noises the next. This album combines two different classic records of the 50's: Voice of the Xtabey, conducted with dramatic orchestral overkill by Les Baxter, and Trice Taqui, conducted with not much less drama by her then-husband Moses Vivanco. It has not, does not, and conceivably will not get any better than Yma — she breathes life and color and excitement into the most humdrum of days! (TRF91217) CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac Mambo!

This time we're on the dance floor; the horns blow and the rhythms move your hips, working little-used muscles. The floor is parquet, perfume and smoke fill your nostrils, the only light comes from torches whose flames cast heat and dark shadows which crawl across your partner's face. On this release from her (and mambo music's) heyday during the 1950's, Yma sizzles and sears, on songs written by South American composer Moses Vivanco and arranged by Billy May. More fun and exciting than should be legal... Once you listen, Yma fever will grab hold and never let go; you have been warned! (TRF80863) CD: 15.98

HOW LISTINGS ARE ORGANIZED

Recordings are organized into categories and then alphabetically by first name. We do this because as women, first names have been more truly our own. Our last names have usually been transferred to us in a patrilinear fashion; historically, husbands and fathers were legally the property owners of the women in their families; and sometimes surnames actually came from slave owners or immigration officers. So our alphabetization-by-first-name method is a small gesture toward acknowledging and altering these customs. Some artists have listings in more than one category. We don't have space to cross-reference, so be sure to check the artist index (which is alphabetical by last name), in addition to reading through the entire catalog at least once!

HOLIDAY

Adelaide Symph Orchestra/Girls Choir A Universal Christmas

From Australia, the Adelaide Girls Choir joins this world-class symphony orchestra to present a joyous and magical 1996 collection of symphonic family favorites, including Handel's Hallelujah Chorus (from The Messiah), Shepherd's Pipe Carol, De Virgin Mary, Vivaldi's Gloria in Excelsis Deo, I Don't Know How to Love Him from Jesus Christ Superstar, and more. (RS0310) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Aine Minogue To Warm the Winter's Night

This 1995 Celtic Holiday Celebration from Irish emigre harpist and singer Aine is a beautiful collection of songs and spoken word pieces gathered from Ireland, England, Wales, Scotland and Brittany. A few of the songs such as Oiche Chuan, Silent Night and The Old Year Now Away Has Fied/Greenleaves are well known, but most of them are ancient, many-forgotten celebrations of winter, Yule, New Year and Winter Solstice. Produced by Noiseholic fiddler Johnny Cunningham, Aine and her harp are also joined by Irish pipes and whistles, Cello, and oboe for this enchanting holiday journey. (EVM014) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anne Murray Best of the Season

This 1996 compilation contains two Anne Murray holiday albums on one CD or cassette, including a bonus of the never-before-available This Season Will Never Grow Old. 25 familiar and classic Christmas carols, over 70 minutes of music, from this gorgeous-voiced songstress. (SBK31145) CS: 7.99 CD: 13.98

Anonymous 4 On Yoolis Night

Subtitled Medieval Carols & Motets, this 1993 release follows the phenomenal success of An English Ladymass, the debut album by this women's vocal ensemble, with a program of plainchant, songs, motets, and carols from English sources. The music illuminates aspects of the Christmas story and its many kindred legends: biblical precursors, Balaam's prophecy, Gabriel's greeting, Mary's virginity, the birth of Jesus, the rising of the star, the angels and the shepherds, the manger and its animals, the three Magi and their gifts. They have dispelled the myth that medieval chant is the sole domain of male voices! (HMU7099) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 A Star in the East

On their sixth album, released for the 1996 Christmas holidays, this amazing vocal quartet performs an evocative and transcendental program (could they do any other kind?) of rare Hungarian Christmas music. Flavored with modalities and cadences rooted in the folk tradition of medieval Hungary, this music will, of course, delight. (HMU7139) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Christmas Chant

These timeless medieval chants from the Christmas liturgy, sung in the original Latin, express a rare serene, spiritual beauty, recorded live at St. Cecilia's Abbey, Isle of Wight. (NW154) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Boston Gay Men's Chorus Freedom, Merriment & Joy

Recorded live in 1995 with a 25-piece orchestra, this lovely album mixes memorable versions of U.S. favorites with French, Spanish, and English carols — and the Yiddish title track! I especially enjoyed the Christmas Waltzes medley for the Alvin and the Chipmunks' Christmas Time Is Here segment and the 14 1/2 minute Audience Sing-Along finale (audience participation sing-alongs, I thought only lesbian folk musicians did that ...). (APK432) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Capitol Steps All I Want For X-Mas: A Tax Increase

The Steps are in rare form for this 1993 release. Parents won't want to make it a time for Kelly Rowley — I know this non-par-ent loved it. Other spoofs hit on Tipper Gore's rating system for music and the ever so popular Don't Ask, Don't Tell policy — and of course, Let Purl and Gun Nuts Boasting They Can Open Fire. A sure-to-be favorite though is the kind, gentle reminder that George le Horrie This Christmas. 32 jingles in all — a spoof for everyone, and to all a good night! (CS1013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Christmas Revels w/Jean Ritchie Wassail! Wassail!

Subtitled Early American Christmas Music, featuring music of Colonial America, Southern Appalachian, Native American and Black American traditions, this extraordinary collection includes shape-note hymns, Shaker songs, children's street games, string band dance music of the South, Native American carols and poetry. 21 selections in all, none of which are standard Christmas carols. Includes I Will Bow and Be Simple, Chicken Foot, Exultation, Children Go Where I Send Thee. (RVL1082) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cindy Paley Chanukah: A Singing Celebration

20 spirited Chanukah songs, performed in English, Hebrew, and Yiddish, from a variety of sources and traditions: contemporary songwriters such as Malvina Reynolds and Peter Yarrow; Russian and Israeli folksongs; and the traditional blessing over the candles. The songs tell the story of the Festival of Light, with beautiful harmonies and instrumental arrangements. Booklet with lyrics included. Recommended! (CP2) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson Snow Angel

A 1985 album to warm you and friends and family on a mid-winter's night. This is a winter holiday album, with songs for the variety of seasonal holidays ... you could think of a sort of as a "Cris-Ms" album ... okay, moving on. A perfect gift item. (OL943) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Deborah Henson-Conant/Schawkie Roth Flute and Harp for Christmas

The music, by composers such as Palestrina, Josquin, Morales, Victoria and others, incorporates the sounds of Gregorian plainchant, madrigals, polyphonic styles, and double-choir textures into a joyful kaleidoscope of beauty. This magnificent 1988 album of Traditional Christmas Carols and Dances with Hammered Dulcimer, Celtic Harp, and Other Instruments can be enjoyed all throughout the year, because of the fresh interpretations to both familiar and unusual tunes. Some carols, originally danced in ancient times, are recreated with the joyous rhythms of the cittern and Irish drum. Baroque-style medieval pieces are expertly enhanced with recorder, viola da gamba, and finger cymbals; most of the musicians are women. In 1990, his gift to us all is that he has gathered various folks from NYC's Outmusic (a lesbian and gay musicians association), to produce and perform 13 of these songs. Includes tracks from Sons & Lovers, Tom McCormick, Zenobia, Laura Wetzel, Grant King, Melinda Di Maio, David Clement, Janice Thompson (formerly a soloist with Lavender Light), in folk, pop and country styles. ### The Roches

We Three Kings

A full 60 minutes (24 songs) of Roches-style holiday cheer here, and if you haven't heard this but are familiar with their earlier works, simply recall their awe-inspiring rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus; that's the full-choir treatment they endow these songs with. They throw in a few zany versions of familiar tunes for good measure, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say that it's not always clear which are tongue-in-cheek, and that's okay... because it all feels good, like joy, which is the point anyway. #### Therese Schroeder-Sheker In Dulci Jubilo

We call this 1991 album a holiday recording, but you may well inquire "exactly which holiday?" after listening and reading! Therese has an in-depth appreciation for Christianity's origins in Goddess and nature religions; and many of her selections reflect her own personal devotion to all things Marian. ... in other words, this is more about Mary than about Jesus! With her sublime, seraphic voice, and impeccably played medieval and renaissance harps, psalteries, recorders and bells, she performs: The Holly and the Ivy (with subtle Grail and Goddess overtones); Down in Yon Forest (contrasts a fully developed Grail-epic imagery with the ancient nature's May Queen, all the while remembering the Nativity); the Salve Mater (a more recent processional hymn in praise of Mary); and more. Highly recommended! (CEL039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

This 1992 release must be the only album in existence with the song One Parent Christmas, performed by Saffire — The Uppity Blues Woman, and this song, together with Katie Webster's Deck the Halls with Boogie Woogie, make this holiday blues album quite worth having! Other cuts of note include blues-shouter Koko Taylor's Merry Christmas, Charles Brown's Boogie Woogie Santa Claus, Lonnie Brooks' Christmas on the Bayou, and other rockin', rollickin', and wailin' numbers. If you're sick of the schmaltz, try this for a breather! And a great gift for a blues fan. (ALL9291) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

This 12 by 13" 1997 color wall calendar presents 12 of her intricate, sensitive, and potent works... a brilliant marriage of the ancient and the contemporary. (POM671CL) $11.98

The Mystic's Wheel of the Year 1997

The subtitle of this information-packed little wall calendar is An Eco-Egalitarian Creation Spirituality Calendar... and you will not find a calendar with such comprehensive holiday information, from an earth-centered spirituality, pro-feminist, liberationist point of view, anywhere! Significant dates from almost every spiritual tradition in the world are tied together, and almost every day of the year is infused with a wonderful meaning. For instance, I'm writing this description in July, so I looked up July 4th, Independence Day is described as "day to celebrate the right of all peoples to exercise non-violent self-determination". July 10th is the "day Pope John Paul II apologized for the Catholic Church's past oppression of women (1995)". July 17th is "Japanese festival honoring Shinto Sun Goddess Amaterasu". July 18th is "the day apartheid was outlawed worldwide". July 20th is "Christian feast of St. Anna, Mother of Blessed Maria, Grandmother of Jesus; guide of grandmothers and elderly women". And that's only a few of July's special days. This is not a flashy art calendar, but it is highly recommended for the daily depth and breadth of information as well as the monthly Active Offerings and Experiential Meditations. (PT3CL) $11.50

Today's Out Look: 1997

This 365-Day Calendar of Gay & Lesbian History & Current Events is an educational tear-off desk calendar, chock-full of facts and info about the people (from Gertrude Stein to Ronald McDonald!) and the social/historical forces that have shaped the lesbian and gay communities. ### We'Moon '97: Womyn in Community

Subtitled Gaia Rhythms for Womyn, this is more than an appointment book, astrological moon calendar, spiritual guide, handbook in natural rhythm, and multi-cultural anthology of womyn's art and writing. It's a way of life: a creation of our international womyn's culture; interweaving art and writing from a whole Earth, womyn-loving, lunar perspective through the 13 Moons of the year. Includes week-at-a-glance, daily astrological aspects, complete ephemerides (with asteroids), 5 1/4 by 8", 224 pages, recycled paper. (MT1CL) $13.98

What Women Have Done: 1997

This 365-Day History Calendar is a day-by-day tear-off desk calendar, honoring and educating us about 365 different women, from Rosa Parks to Amelia Earhart: artists, musicians, educators, scientists, athletes, writers and more. A wonderful way to learn about women's history; compiled by the Library of Congress. (POM925CL) $9.98

Womanspirit Moving

... Toward Peace and Justice is the subtitle of this 1997 appointment book, which focuses on the contributions of women to the peace and non-violent movements internationally. It's published by the War Resisters League, an organization which believes war to be a crime against humanity, and advocates Gandhian non-violence as the method for creating a democratic society free of war, racism, sexism and human exploitation. This spiral-bound book isn't lavish or flashy, but it is a great way to learn some important information and to support a great organization at the same time (no less so in these times of debate about gays and lesbians in the military...), and for this we recommend it. (WRL1CL) $11.98

CLASSICAL

African-American Women Composers Kaleidoscope

Subtitled Music by African-American Women, pianist Helen Walker-Hill and her son, violinist Gregory Walker, perform works by 14 composers. In these compositions from 1918 through the present, the styles demonstrate much variety; although most of the composers worked within the classical tradition, some of the reveal influences from gospel and jazz, while others are quite contemporary. Better-known composers such as Florence Price are represented on this 1995 release, but for many, this is the first recording of their work. (LEO339) CD: 15.98

Anima/Hildegard von Bingen & Others Sacred Music of the Middle Ages

Anima is a 15-woman ensemble which specializes in the vocal music of Hildegard von Bingen and other (mostly anonymous) medieval composers. They have studied with members of the performance group Sequentia, and like their mentors, they remain true to the original purity of the chants and songs. Primarily a cappella, with intermittent accompaniment on recorders, harp, vielle and organ, they perform plainchant, polyphony, ornamented chant, and motets from the 12th-14th centuries, with Hildegard's music forming the core of their work. Latin texts with English translations show that many of these ethereal, exquisitely beautiful pieces sing the praises of Mary. We are most happy to add this 1994 recording to our catalog and recommend it wholeheartedly! (ANM001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anonymous 4/Sœur Marie Keyrouz/etc Ancient Voices/Vox Sacra

This low-priced sampler of ancient sacred music contains works by three different artists — Anonymous 4, Ensemble Organum (primarily male voices, directed by Marcel Perren) and Sœur Marie Keyrouz — each from a different album in their discographies. This is some of the most mystical, heavenly music we've heard, and an excellent way to familiarize yourself with the variety of work performed by each artist. 15 tracks, 57 minutes of music! (HMU290808) CD: 9.98

Anonymous 4 An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 13th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoires. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1992 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly prepared with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU7080) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 The Lily and the Lamb

This 1995 release of chant and polyphony from medieval England is a powerful and moving account of Mary's experience at the foot of the cross — spectacular beauty brought to you once again by this captivating female vocal quartet. (HMU7125) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 Miracles of Sant'Iago

The church of Santiago at Compostela in Spain was one of the main centers of medieval pilgrimage. Compostela was the legendary burial place of St. James the Greater, who was the first apostle and the first to die a martyr; his power as a miracle worker was renowned, and visitors to his tomb sought both physical and spiritual healing, as they do to this day. From the 12th century Codex Calixtinus (sermons, chants, legends, and lessons on Saint James), Anonymous 4 draws another hauntingly beautiful selection of chant and polyphony for this 1996 album. After I saw the Anonymous 4 in concert, I felt that the rest of my life would seem trite and banal, don't pass up the opportunity to hear them in person, if it comes your way. (HMU7158) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 Love's Illusion - Montpelier Codex

"Gemstones of song who deserve celebration... Their voices soaring higher than medieval spirits, they offer a glimpse into the spiritual side of femininity." On this 1994 release, the ensemble's alto and 3 sopranos perform a radiant collection of 13th-century French songs and motets on the art of courtly love. (HMU7109) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 et al Voices Of Light

Inspired by the avant-garde film classic Carl Dreyer's The Passion of Joan of Arc, Richard Einhorn composed this opera/oratorio. It celebrates Joan of Arc by a "patchwork of visions, fantasies and reflections assembled from various ancient sources", most importantly the writings of medieval female mystics, including Joan of Arc herself. The transcendent voices of the Anonymous 4 (who all represent Joan of Arc's "voice"), along with 4 female and male soloists, 3 instrumentalists, and the Netherlands Radio Choir and Philharmonic, contribute to this fascinating and wondrous 1995 recording. (SON62006) CD: 16.98

Ars Femina Ensemble Non Tacete! (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Nannert, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself... and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 8 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Carl Muzici by Bianca Maria Meda, an Ursuline nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1686 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica", a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented; and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! (NAN002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ars Femina Ensemble/Francesca Caccini La Liberazione di Ruggiero

Francesca Caccini (1587-1640) was a singer, harpsichordist, lutenist, and court composer to the Medici family of 17th-century Florence, where the musical genre we now know as opera flourished. Her work is brought to life by the Ars Femina Ensemble, dedicated to researching, reclaiming and recording music by early women composers. This opera is based on 3 cantos from an epic Renaissance poem, Orlando Furioso; it depicts an intriguing world of fantasy and reality as the nephew of Charlemagne struggles and chooses between love and fame. Beautifully performed and interpreted, the ensemble deserves much praise for this effort, which is one of the only recorded operatic works by a woman to our knowledge. Libretto included, most highly recommended. (NAN003) CS: 12.98 CD: 16.98

Barbara Strozzi Sacri Musicali Affetti

This album of baroque music consists primarily of compositions written by the 17th-century Venetian singer and composer Barbara Strozzi. She enjoyed a great deal of acclaim from her contemporaries due to the strong emotional content of her music, powerful lyrics (of course of a religious nature, as was expected at the time even from secular composers), the scope and richness of her rhythmic and harmonic vocabulary, and her perfect knowledge of the human voice. Soprano Maria Cristina Kiehl is accompanied by violin, cello, organ, triple harp, clavier, and other period instruments. The booklet provides fascinating information on how she transcended the institutionalized misogyny of her era in a variety of ways. (HMU3048) CD: 19.98

Bay Area Women's Philharmonic The Women's Philharmonic

Conducted by JoAnn Fallotta, this 1992 album features the works of Lili Boulanger (D'un Soir Triste and D'un Matin de Printemps), Fanny Mendelssohn (Overture), Clara Schumann (Piano Concerto in A Minor, Opus 7), and Germaine Tailleferre (Concerto for Harp and Orchestra). It's a lovely recording, ranging from the stately to melancholic to spritely, skillfully blended and presented by this country's premier women's orchestra. Features Angela Cheng on piano and Gillian Benet on harp. (KOC7169) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bay Area Women's Philharmonic Baroque Treasures

This long-awaited release, which we welcome with open arms, contains brilliantly executed 18th-century works by women composers, Marianne Marthe, Camilla de Rossi, Mlle. Duval, Maddalena Laura Lombardini Sirmet, and Elizabeth Jacquet de la Guerre. Four of the five works were first performed in the US by this orchestra; all the composers represented were noted in their time, although little is now known about some of them. Conducted by JoAnn Fallotta, the Bay Area Women's Philharmonic was founded in 1980 by Miriam Abrams to promote women composers, conductors and performers. 75 minutes. Highly recommended! (NOC0102) CS: 12.98

Benedictine Sisters of Atchison KS Ave Maria: Greg. Chants w/Waterfall

This 1994 release combines the rich, cathedral sounds of Gregorian chants with beautifully layered sounds of nature. The gorgeous packages include rare English translations of the Latin, giving new and deeper understanding to this peaceful music. Included: Tota Fulchra Es O Maria (You Are All Beautiful, O Mary); Ave Maria (Hail Mary); and other chants. (JNV1102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Mary Abbey Cantate Domino

The Choir of the Benedictine Nuns of the Saint Mary Abbey of Maumont, whose singing is inspired by the prayer life of their monastic tradition, performs beautiful Latin Gregorian chants on this 1995 release. In their own words, "the pieces recorded here were chosen because of their particular appropriateness to women's voices: antiphons from the rite of the consecration of virgin, the prayer of Queen Esther, and the traditional religious personification of the soul as a bride." Their outstanding vocal technique brings out the best in their clear, soprano voices. (MIL35692) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Ave Maria

The calm, stilling voices of the nuns of St. Cecilia's Abbey on the Isle of Wight radiate purity of heart and the depth of their devotion; ancient and timeless. (NW150) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Venite Ad Me

Beautiful medieval compositions sung by the calm, stilling voices of the Benedictine Nuns, radiating a purity of heart and a sense of attunement, with a depth of devotion and peace that is almost unparalleled. These chants are from the Feast of the Sacred Heart. (NW151) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Adorate Deum

These Gregorian chants from the liturgical year — Advent, Christmas, Lent/Holy Week, and Eastertide — are sung in the original Latin by the Nuns in their own Abbey, with chants and texts which vary in character according to the liturgical season or theme. Centering and uplifting. (NW155) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Brigitte Lesne Ave Eva: Chansons de Femmes

This lovely 1995 French import collects songs about women from the 12th and 13th centuries. Brigitte Lesne is the artistic co-director of the Centre de Musique Médiévale à Paris, where she teaches Gregorian Chants and early polyphony. She is also a member of the female vocal ensemble Discantus, but performs solo here, accompanying her beautiful, rich voice with her harp and simple percussion. The songs are a mixture of the religious (to the beloved Mary) and secular (to the beloved Lady), attributed to the Ms. Codex, King Alfonso X, the Comtesse de Die, anonymous (of course!) and others. (OP5134) CD: 18.98

Cello

Subliminal Blues & Greens

Defying a traditional image, this unique 4-woman classically-trained all-cello quartet has joined a growing number of musical groups pioneering the next wave of chamber music. On this 1995 release, they perform an eclectic yet accessible repertoire that runs the gamut from world music to classical... these compositions by 9 different 'young and hip' American composers were written specifically for the album. Unpredictable and broadly appealing, this dynamic group captivates younger and older audiences across the US and Europe. (DNT1011) CD: 19.98

Deborah Friou

Renaissance Muse

This solo Celtic harp album features elegant, courtly dance music and lyric ballads of the 16th and 17th centuries, drawn from the lute repertoire of England, Italy and Scotland, and the French dance scores of Preterius and Gervaise. Her arrangements and technique are spectacular, so it comes as no surprise that she has spent over 15 years teaching Celtic harp, nor that her book, Harp Exercises for Agility and Speed, is highly regarded by harp teachers and students throughout the world. Her contemporary recreation of this music will transport the listener to another time — highly recommended! (TSN411) CD: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Discantus

Eya Mater: Chant Gregorien

This 6-woman vocal ensemble, under the direction of Brigitte Lesne, performs 11th-12th century Gregorian chant and polyphony devoted to the Virgin Mary as the New Eve, mother of the New Adam, the admirable and consoling Mother, mediator between man and God. These sacred songs take on all the wide range of those to be found in medieval liturgy: versicles and responses from divine service, choral antiphons decorated with tropes, and psalmodes either for solo voice or for choir and sequences. (DPS143) CD: 16.98

The Grail Singers

Women's Celebration/Chant & Harmony

This beautiful collection of chant and chant-inspired choral selections, released in 1994, celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Grail — an ecumenical multi-national organization of women which has been committed to spirituality, ecology, feminism, the arts and social justice since 1944. Convinced that the weaving of song into the pattern of daily life is the basis of a vital musical culture, the 19 women of the choir, ranging in age from 17 to 67, developed a treasury of song, ranging from Gregorian chant through polyphony and contemporary compositions. The 28 pieces, sung in Latin and English, impart a deeply prayerful, meditative spirit; you may hear some ambient noises which occurred naturally during the recording session, including birds, cicadas, the creaking of the barn at Grailville, and the wind! (SKR1801) CD: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen

A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. This 1983 release, one of the first of the Hildegard 'revival' albums, is beautifully performed by soprano Emma Kirkby, with Gothic Voices. (HYP60039) CD: 14.98... CD: 18.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Ellen Oak

The Harmony of Heaven

This 1995 album of works by Hildegard is about as pure as you can get, probably sounding much as it did when Hildegard sang it herself... unadorned, contemplative and devotional. Here was a very feminine-oriented spirituality — several texts extolling virgins and numerous womanly attributes are included, with English translations. The music is performed here by the solo acappella voice of Ellen Oak, a singer, composer, conductor, dancer and minister trained in the Roman Catholic tradition; she tours the country with her one-woman show Sounding the Living Light, weaving together Hildegard's songs and writings which she has been studying for 15 years. (BIS0001) CD: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Norma Gentile

Meditation Chants

Norma Gentile's unaccompanied bell-like soprano graces her interpretations of Hildegard's poetry with serene beauty. Perspectives gained from her study of voice, vibrational healing and music history inform the sound and feel of this 1996 recording. The ethereal chant cycle featured, Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, comes from Hildegard's first theological text Scivias, which is based on a series of 26 visions. This cycle is a musical rendering of her final vision, in which Hildegard experienced "a sound like the voice of a multitude singing in harmony, in praise of the celestial hierarchy." The resulting song cycle characterizes Hildegard's belief that music makes the soul symphonic. (SKR1803) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sinfonie

Harmony of Celestial Revelations

Sinfonie — a women's ensemble with a particular interest in repertoires sung, inspired or composed by women — combines improvisatory skills derived from traditional music with performance practices recreated from historical research. On this 1995 recording of the Symphony of the Harmony of the Celestial Revelations — the first volume of The Complete Hildegard von Bingen (more are yet to come) — they are joined by members of the Oxford Girls Choir to deliver an unforgettable celebration of Hildegard's praises, hymns, anthems and sequences honoring saints, virgins and Mary, in the plainchant tradition — a single vocal melodic line, common in liturgical singing of her time. (CEL127) CD: 15.98

Symphonies: Spiritual Songs

This recording of spiritual songs contains texts and music in praise of the female divinities who figured prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Maria, the virgins who inhabit heavenly realms at the end of time, St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered a feminine deity. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sinfonie, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harps, psalteries, lutes, flutes, and symphony. ## Hildegard von Bingen/ Sinfonie

Canticles of Ecstasy

On this 1994 release, the medieval ensemble Sinfonie (which consists of a 7-woman vocal ensemble, 2 lutes and medieval harp) brings an incandescent and authentic interpretation to Hildegard's original works. Extensive notes explain Hildegard's essentially feminist interpretations of biblical texts, attributing the victory of womanhood as a reversal of the Fall, present in the femina forma (female form) — manifest in the divine and victorious Maria, as well as in Cebitas, who is at once the Bride of the Song of Songs, Divine Wisdom, and Charity of the New Testament. Very recommended for the painstaking scholarship in the written material as well as for the authenticity and beauty of the musical presentation. (DHM77320) CD: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Voice of the Blood

Yet another transcendent rendering of the work of the "rediscovered" 12th century abbess! Hildegard viewed her compositions as having been divinely inspired and, like all sacred music, one of the highest forms of human activity as it aspires to the sounds of the heavenly spheres and angel choirs. The focus on this 1995 release is on St. Ursula of Cologne who, along with the 11,000 virgins who were her companions, was martyred by barbarian soldiers, and whose cult of worship was at a peak in Hildegard's time. Sinfonie's high standards of musical scholarship and integrity have yielded a stunning recording of meditative beauty. (DHM77340) CD: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Vision

This is a unique 1994 album — its producers have created a contemporary landscape of world beat rhythms, samples, and electronic syntheses to supplement Hildegard's 1000-year-old melodies. In a musical merger of the 12th and 20th centuries. But we wonder whether Hildegard would turn over in her grave if she could hear this... Performed by Benedictine Sister Germaine Fritz and early music vocalist/historian Emily van Evera. (ANG5246) CD: 10.98... CD: 16.98

I Cantori

A Choir of Angels

Crossing the barriers between World Music, Classical, New Age, and Latin styles, this 20-year-old mixed ensemble captivates with their ethereal acappella vocal pieces (plus 2 instrumentals). Recorded live in 1995, the album includes compositions from the Latin American Renaissance (including one of the first pieces of music published in the Western hemisphere, written by an Incan in 1610), a 1928 solo harp piece by 16-year-old John Cage; Stravinsky's Ave Maria; and Naomi Stephen's stunning work for female voices, Spring Song. They sing in English, Latin, the Incan language Quechua, the Aztec Nahuatl, and wordless tones. The unifying factor here, besides beauty, is that these composers were somehow affiliated with Los Angeles (the City of Angels), a crossroads for all of these cultures. Highly recommended! ## Lara St. John

Bach: Works for Violin Solo

This virtuosic violinist has posed the question, "What is classical music if not the epitome of sensuality, passion and understated erotica that popular music, even with all of its energy and life, cannot even begin to touch?" One of the reasons we're offering this excellent but controversial 1996 recording is because so many stores are refusing to carry it. (To explain: the cover features the bare torso of the 24-year-old artist — looking much younger to many, apparently — in a spartan b/w photo in which the violin covers her breasts... so without considering the artist's age or wishes, reviewers write only about the packaging, and male chain-store owners have decided this is child pornography... never mind the violent, misogynist stuff depicted in so much popular music. We're reminded of how we cannot use some of the most beautiful images of bare-breasted women on our catalog covers, because the Postmaster will not allow them through the mail... ) Back to the recording: she performs Bach's Partita No. 2 in D Minor (ending with the well-known Chaconne/Ciaccona) and Sonata No. 2 in G Major, with amazing strength, refinement, richness, tension, and beauty of phrasing. And in her words, "If this unusual album cover is responsible for even a few more people hearing and loving these incontestably great works of Bach, then to me it is all worthwhile." ## The Macalester Trio

Chamber Works by Women Composers

This 2-CD boxed set contains over 140 minutes (!!) of music composed for piano, violin, and cello by the following women: Clara Schumann, Amy Beach, Germaine Tailleferre, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Teresa Carreno, and Cecile Chaminade. Several of these compositions have been rarely (or never) previously performed, and demonstrate the creativity of the composers; booklet with autobiographical information included. ### In a Spanish Garden

The upbeat, infectious sound of nouveau flamenco blends with classic Spanish music on this 1985 album by a woman/man duo consisting of Madalyn Blanchett on concert flute and Terry Muska (who has studied with Segovia) on classical guitar; Alice Gomez also guests on keyboards and percussion. Occasional nature sounds give the listener the feeling of sitting in a Spanish garden on a warm afternoon, enjoying a private recital. Includes a suite of songs from the immortal opera Carmen; an entire Albertz suite, recorded for the first time in its entirety, and title composition by Alice Gomez. (AG3202) CD: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Musica Femina

Returning the Muse to Music

Janna (on classical guitar) and Kristan (on flute) blend lovely classical and new age sounds by historical and contemporary women composers on this 1989 release. Featured are a commissioned piece by Theresa Edell; compositions by Theresa Clark; Isabella Leonarda, the early Baroque Italian nun composer; Maria Theresa von Paradis of 18th century Vienna; a few by Janna, including Temple for Kristan, a gorgeous guitar solo. Demonstrates the strength, beauty, and diversity of acoustic instrumental music by women. (LIL3) CD: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Heartstreams

On this 1993 release, our favorite flute/guitar classical duo presents a lively variety of original "new acoustic" instrumental music — drawing upon Janna MacAuslan and Kristan Aspen's backgrounds in both folk and classical genres. Compositions include: Blochberg, a tribute to women healers who were burned as witches, and a celebration of contemporary women's circle energy worldwide; Open Door, inspired by the fear and elation of "coming out of the closet"; Apéry Toyé, a Renaissance-like dance with variations; Ocean Moon Chant, a simple musical line written at the ocean and performed here as a 20th century minimalist piece; De Mi Corazon, a very romantic musical valentine from Janna to Kristan; and many more. As a whole, the album communicates the artists' joys and struggles of nurturing a long-term loving relationship with each other and with the Earth. Serene and beautiful (and somewhat reminiscent of the beloved early Kay Gardner! Meg Christian instrumental duets — if you loved Lunamuse, you'll love this); highly recommended! (LIL4) CD: 9.98... ### Nancy Fierro, pianist

Riches & Rags: Piano Music by Women

16th- through 20th-century female composers are represented on this album recorded in 1992, performed by pianist Nancy Fierro, an acknowledged expert on music by women. Included are nocturnes, mazurkas, etudes, sonatas, scherzos, and rags, by nine different composers, truly representing A Wealth of Piano Music by Women in its range of style and emotion. Perhaps most beautiful (at least to this listener) are the brilliant, expressive etudes by Maria Agata Szymanowska and the Quatre Pieces Fugitives by Clara Wieck Schumann, but the works by less well-known composers are equally important. ### The San Quilmas Consort Miracles & Mountains

This consort, which specializes in Medieval and Early Renaissance music, consists of 1 man and 3 women — Alice Gomez, Madalyn Blanchett and Marilyn Rife, who appear in various configurations in our Native American, drumming and holiday sections. By using a variety of Medieval liturgical and secular styles (dance forms such as the galliard and courante) as a jumping off point, composer Alice Gomez presents a unique take on what is usually considered "ancient" music... a kind of cross-pollination that was actually common in Medieval Europe. Some compositions on this 1995 release combine the sounds of Medieval and Celtic flutes and percussion with elegant, electronic harmonies and nature sounds. Several feature the haunting sound of the gemshorn flute (a deep and mellow sound) performing Gregorian chant melodies. Unique and evocative! (IAQ201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Savae

Native Angels

In the 1900's, Spanish monks were sent to the "new world" to teach the Native Americans and African slaves to sing traditional Gregorian chants; their assignment was to "teach the Natives to sing like angels." However, the Native peoples and Africans added their own rhythms and instruments to the centuries-old Gregorian chants. On this 1996 release, the 8-member mixed-gender choral group Savae — accompanied by percussionist Eric Casillas — re-creates this ear-catching combination of African and Native drumming with Gregorian chant. The performance is based on the actual music found in Mexico City museums. (IAQ204) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sharon Isbin

J.S. Bach: Complete Lute Suites

Sharon "ropes" through chains of arpeggios, trills like a master and provides a wondrous flexibility of phrasing... We are always pleased to offer you works by virtuoso instrumentalists, especially in this case, classical guitarist Sharon Isbin. This 1999 album was chosen as Gramophone Magazine's "Critics' Choice Recording of the Year" and CD Review's "Editors' Choice Best Recording"; how could we anything but recommend it? (VIR59503) CD: 17.98

The Toronto Consort

Full Well She Sang

Subtitled Women's Music from the Middle Ages & Renaissance, this exceptional 1993 release from an award-winning Canadian ensemble features early music by or about women... much of it seldom heard, and most never before recorded. Included are solo songs with lute and vielle, madrigals for 4 and 5 voices, recorder solos and consorts, and dance music; by such "star" composers as German mystic Hildegard von Bingen... Barbara Strozz, virtuosic singer and composer of late Renaissance Italy... Francesca Caccini, who composed the first opera performed outside of Italy... and several by "Anonymous." Whether sacred or secular, the compositions weave a colorful tapestry from women's talents and aspirations. Texts and translations included; very highly recommended. (SRC005) CD: 15.98

Classical Erotica

If you are familiar with Sensual Classics, Too, you'll know it's an album of classical music marketed specifically to gay men; consider this one a similarly targeted release for the lesbian community. This 1995 romantic journey through some of the world's most famous sensuous orchestral works features music by male composers such as Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, and Puccini. Striking album artwork by lesbian photographer Judy Francesconi, a beautiful erotic photograph of two women passionately engaged. (RS0280) CD: 15.98

The follow-up to the highly successful first volume is released in Nov. 1996; again, Judy Francesconi's photographic art graces the cover. (RS0320) CD: 15.98

Vida

Acoustic Passion

This instrumental trio consists of Sunita Staneslow on harp, Laura Sewell on cello, and Steve Yeager on vibraphone and other percussion — a winning combination of instruments if there ever was one! But it is their flawless execution of a superbly selected repertoire which make this 1994 release truly exceptional. They redefine chamber music by melding ethnic, jazz and classical traditions; their primary musical sources are Mediterranean Rim — Spain, Ladino (songs from the Sephardic Jews of Medieval Spain) — plus Brazil, with shades of other evocative musics blended in. Of course, any good rendition of Villa-Lobos' Ana from Bachianas Brasileiras No. 3 has a place in my collection, and this one is excellent! Highly recommended; our only problem is that it doesn't fit neatly into any of our categories! (MAX2051) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Virginia Eskin, pianist

Fluffy Ruffle Girls: Women/Ragtime

Over 150 women composed and published ragtime music — a very disciplined and structured, almost classical form — around the turn of the century; but only recently has this fact been unearthed. It's the old, too-familiar story: many composed under pseudonyms, or with initials, or never had their works published. Here the acclaimed pianist plays 23 of the best of these catchy, tuneful, gorgeously swaying pieces by the most important female composer-pianists of that era; a dozen composers are represented, about whom biographical info was difficult to come by. Previously released under the title Pickles & Peppers, CD has 3 extra tracks. (NE9003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Trance Planet, Volume One

This spectacular 1994 release, which could be subtitled The World's Best... is a collection of 14 songs by female and male artists from Spain, India, Morocco, Zaire, Mozambique, Mongolia, Tahiti, Argentina, Corsica and America. What musical discoveries it contains! Tarota Nomades by Seinkho tells of a nomadic life in Tuva, land of shamanistic traditions and "throat singing." Mercedes Sosa sings Gracias a la Vida with characteristic power, simplicity, and eloquence. The title of vocalist extraordinaire Cesaria Evora's Sodade has been translated from Portuguese as "a longing for what once was, or might have been." Vox, an Anglo/German/Lebanese ensemble, here contributes While the Birds Sing; lead singer Fadia El-Hage's voice features the ululation and embellishment that marks the beauty of Arab song. This "mix of mysticism, exultation and enchantment" is very highly recommended! (TRL7206) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

It's difficult to convey the exuberance on this 4-set collection of true "party" music from 54 different countries and cultures. Divided into music for different types of celebrations — Dancing with the Gods: Religious Celebrations... Earth Spirit: Cycles of Nature... Passages: Turning Points... and Gatherings: Joyous Festivals — the diversity of life experiences and musical styles are tied together by the universal feeling of excitement and joy. You'll experience everything from the acappella mixed-gender choir Skandineikvordren of the pagan Latvian Midsummer's Eve song Celies, brālī, to West African husband/wife lute/singer team, Seckou and Ramata's song of praise to their family lineage Sibide Muso, to the Native American Hopi Singers' Water Maiden Dance to the Lapp female trio Angeln Työt "joking" Norma Jovina, to the Swahili singer's Zuhuru Swahili's wedding song Shani, to many other types of music that only a handful of VERY well-travelled people have had the fortune to come across. Over 35 nations are represented among the 41 selections, with tracks by fabulous artists such as Verónica, Tiddas, Durr Durr, Mercedes Sosa, Ulla, Marian Anderson, Aretha Franklin, Patsy Cline, Edith Piaf, Celia Cruz, Miriam Makeba, Cécile Maillé, Booker T. Jones, and many more. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to UNIFEM (United Nations Development Fund for Women), whose mission is to support the efforts of women in the developing world to achieve their objective for economic and social development and for equality. ## Aine Minogue The Mysts of Time

This delicate and "mystic" album, subtitled Chants and Melodies of the Ageless Celtic Lands, intertwines the foggy breath with a church alcove. For this 1995 offering, she interprets plainsong (Celtic Redemption), traditional Celtic religious (both the Christian I N Gail De and the pagan Keening Song) and secular music (Anach Cuan) — as well as originals honoring the goddess Brigit. Accompanied by guitar, cello, tuba, fiddle, oboe, bodhran, mandolin, Irish pipes and a wonderfully rich chorus, Aine's harp and vocal music is lush yet airy, a very lovely treat. (NS0083) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Aine Minogue Were You at the Rock

Aine (pronounced On-ya) has been called "one of the world's greatest Celtic harpists" by the Irish Echo... and comments such as "musical tears from heaven" often describe her. She hails from the town of Banteaville in County Tipperary, Ireland; her large musical family is part of the Minogue clan, with family records going back to the 11th century. This 1993 album, which includes both instrumental and vocal selections, contains lively dance tunes, spirited jigs and reels, haunting and ancient melodies, and delicate yet shimmering songs in Gaelic and English. There are very old tunes, pieces from the harp's renaissance period, and contemporary material. Includes the lovely Gaile na mBan (Laughter of the Women) and the ethereal, haunting King of the Faeries (Ri na Sidheag). (BCN10129) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Altan The Red Crow

Considered to be one of the world's best bands playing Irish music, this 1990 release is their third. As is so often true, the one female, in this case also vocalist/fiddler Mairead Ní Mhaoláigh (pronounced Ma-ra-dee Nee Mooney), provides the center and foundation for the rest of the ensemble. The selections offer a balanced mix of rhythms and tempos, with reels, jigs, ballads, waltzes; some are all-instrumental and some feature vocals. (GL1109) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Altan Island Angel

Starting off with a whirlwind, 3-ter set, Altan performs with equally stunning virtuosity a pair of highlands, a slingshot, a O'neagat mazurka of rare vintage, 3 Cape Breton jigs, other memorable reels, and a closing piece of original instrumental music from which the album takes its name. Of the 5 vocal selections, 4 are sung in Irish, including Brig Cig Ni Mhaile (Bridget O'Malley) and Dulaman. With this 1993 release, this Dublin-based sextet continues to garner recognition as one of the premier Irish traditional ensembles today. (GL1137) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Lister A Flame in Avalon

We have been hearing about this British singer/songwriter for many years now (she wrote the beautiful song Demeter's Daughter covered by Grace Griffith), so we are pleased to be able to offer you this 1995 recording. Her songs stem from myths and legends and have their roots in traditional Celtic story telling. With "massed choir" harmonies by Mary McLaughlin (and on some songs by herself), the simple yet moving songs are filled out by her acoustic guitar, harp, whistle, pipes, drone, Scottish small pipes, bouzouki and mando cello. Highlights are The Goddess and the Sea, a retelling of the legend of Icarus, the gateway to the land of Faerie Howlforth and the faithful search in the title track. (MF003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Various Artists A World Instrumental Collection

This 1995 compilation features works by instrumentalists who offer a fascinating fusion of traditional and contemporary music and rhythms. Includes selections by Sharon Shannon (Ireland), Alison Brown (US), Los Incas (Peru/France), Ali Akbar Khan (India), Brian Hughes (Loreena McKennitt's lead guitarist and producer), Baka Beyond (the selection here combines a polyphonic woman's chant from the Baka pygmies of Cameroon, used to call animals to the hunt, with Baka percussion and British folk musician Martin Croppick's Afro-Celtic mandolin) and more. (PUT123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists One World

This extremely upbeat, celebratory 1996 album — intentionally coinciding with the International Olympics — features 14 extraordinary artists from around the globe, of course. Some of our perennial favorites, such as Angelique Kidjo, Capersallie, and Toni Childs are included, as well as some women we're thrilled to make the acquaintance of, some new to us male artists we feel likewise about, and some well-known ones like Bob Marley, Peter Gabriel with Yousouf N'Dour, and more. Fabulous music. Is sure! (PUT126) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anuna

Anuna is a unique Irish choir of young women and men (average age of 25) who dress in black and perform a broad span of Celtic, chant-like music, much of it steeped in medieval tradition. Their ethereal, otherworldly, almost pagan sounds have been described as a "massage for the soul," and their live performances, often held in churches, regularly draw a devout following. They have worked with the likes of Sinead O'Connor, Sting, and Maire Brennan of Clannad. Their 1993 debut release includes Invocation, Sanctus, Crist and St. Marie, Ralph An Gleas, and many more with equally evocative titles, and an even more evocative sound — very recommended! (CH82733) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Anuna Invocation

This 1995 follow-up to their well-received debut release contains more of their mystical, otherworldly choral sounds. Selections include Wind On Sea, inspired by the pagan mythic and first Irish poet Amgenin, plus Winter, Fox & Snow (the title track to the holiday album by the same name), Christus Resurgens, Under the Greenwood, Imistree, Sleepsong. (CH82555) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Aoife Clancy It's About Time

Aoife (pronounced "Eeta", an ancient Gaelic name for "Ever") began her musical career in Tipperary, Ireland singing with her famous father, Bobby Clancy of the Clancy Brothers. After a stint of world travelling, she settled in Massachusetts and recorded this, her first album, which she describes as "a story about women and their relationship with the world". The songs range from the traditional no-trills Celtic of Martin & Green and Peggy Overseas to classic folk tunes like Factory Girl, Go Lasse Go (a.k.a. Wild Mountain Thyme), and staff favorites Don't Get Married Girls, to the unexpected sultry blues of Middle Crisis. She has received accolades like "Her singing would melt pack ice with its warmth and richness," which are right on the mark! 1993. (REG3017) CS: 10.98 CD: 13.98

The Black Family Time For Touching Home

Although Mary Black isn't pictured on the cover of this album (and does not lead vocals), she performs harmony vocals on every single track but one! This 1990 album contains beautiful renditions of traditional and contemporary songs performed by Frances, Martin, Shay and Michael Black, includes Time Alone, Weave and Mend (both featuring only Frances and Mary on vocals); the latter is a song for women, based on Ann Cameron's experience of working among the Native Nootka tribe in Vancouver), Eliza Lee, Song of the Doggera, and 9 more. (BLX10020) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Native Wisdom/World Music of Spirit

This collection brings together primarily traditional music from various cultures, including Africa, Polynesia, Scotland, Ireland, the American Southwest, South America and more. Artists featured include Norin Ni Riain, the Tahitian Choir, Mesa Music Consort, Bernardo Rubens, and Mac-tala. We're big fans of Gabrielle Roth — but her presence on this album does strike us as a misfit, as does the track by Hans Zimmer, since the presentation of the anthology implies music by native artists (or should), and seems to in fact be that except for these two. Introduction by Anna Wilson Schaefer (Irish/Cherokee), author of the book Native Wisdom for White Minds which inspired this collection. (NA3923) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Women of the World: International

This 1995 album is a joyous musical journey around the world! It features many of the world's greatest female artists, such as Angelique Kidjo (Benin, West Africa), Margaret Menezes (Brazil), Amira (Tunisia), Amoya (Mozambique), The Dalcroix Kids (South Africa), Desree (England), Yehudit Ravitz (Israel), Toni Childs (USA) and others. A portion of the proceeds will be contributed to grassroots women's organizations around the world. (PUT119) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Black Family

The first release by Mary plus her 4 siblings: her sister Frances, and her brothers Martin, Shay, and Michael (and we learn that they come from a long line of musicians and vocalists, with wide repertoires — no great surprise, really). They alternate lead on the vocals, then join together on some of the most exquisite harmonies to be heard in all of folkdom. Songs are a delightful mixture of original, traditional, and familiar songs of love, life and history; some favorites include Tomorrow Is a Long Time, The Bramble and the Rose, plus traditional like The Ploughboy Lads, Capannon, Will Ye Gang, Lover, Donkey Riding, and more. This Irish import is generally hard-to-find, but it's an absolute must-have for Mary Black and/or Frances Black fans! (BLX10019) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bonnie Rideout Celtic Circles

Some of you know this fiddle champion from her collaborations with Maggie Samson as a member of Ensemble Galien. On this 1994 album inspired by the ancient Celtic circles of her Scottish heritage, she pairs a musical picture joining the heavens and earth's cycles to the cycles of everyday life. The traditional and 2 Celtic-inspired originals — performed on fiddle, Great Highland bagpipe, Scottish smallpipes, Uilleann pipes, guitar, Celtic harp, viola da gamba, hammered dulcimer, bass and drums — are grouped according to the cycle of the day; tunes for dawn, noonday, evening, and night flow beautifully and naturally. (MM209) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bonnie Rideout Kindred Spirits

On this musical portrait of Scotland's women (most tunes were written for or about women) this rising star in the new generation of Scottish fiddlers reunites with the kindred spirits of her Scottish ancestors. This 1995 release includes some of the Scottish's greatest poets, Robert Burns, on the 200th anniversary of his death. One of the special guests is Abby Newton, leading exponent of cello in the Scottish tradition. (MM214) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Capercallie Secret People

Scotland's groundbreaking contemporary Celtic band is masterful at mixing modern soundscapes into their dense layered Celtic roots. On this 1995 release, Karen Matheson's voice soars over subtly shifting arrangements of shimmering synthesizers, funky African percussion, gentle bursts of fiddle, accordion and whistle, and a variety of electric and acoustic guitar and bouzouki effects, yielding sophisticated, textured rhythms. Most tracks are songs with lyrics in English and Gaelic; several originals deal with subjects like rural homelessness, the oil spill on Scotland's north shore, and modern struggles for justice. (GL3104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Crosswinds

This is the great 1987 debut release that introduced Karen Matheson's angelic vocals — soaring above mystical back-grounds — to the American public. These Scottish musicians move effortlessly from highly charged gigs and reels to serene, spellbinding ballads in both Gaelic and English, in a style that has been described as early Clannad crossed with Silly Wizard. Instruments include accordion, recorder and whistles, bouzouki, guitar, fiddles, basses, percussion. Do not miss! (GL1077) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Sidewalk

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes a solo The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited "walking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums; in the meantime, enjoy her on this 1989 release! (GL1094) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Delirium

The triumphant follow-up to Sidewalk is finally available in the US! Originally released in the UK in 1991, it marked a watershed in the band's career: boasting a breathtaking range of material, it includes their hit track, Coinch, a Ruin, the first Gaelic-language single to crack the UK's Top 40. Instrumentation here includes contemporary sounds of wind synthesizer, percussion and drums, blended with the more traditional bouzouki, whistles, fiddle, guitar, accordion... and of course Karen Matheson's lovely vocal performances. (GL1108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Get Out

A treat for Capercaillie fans, this 1996 release is a collection of remixed and rare live recordings — including their hit Coinch a Ruin (Walk My Beloved) — that had been previously unavailable. (GL1310) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carol Laula Precious Little Victories

As comfortable as an old pair of jeans, this 1994 release from a Paisley, Scotland twenty-something artist goes down easy. It's reminiscent of the late-afternoon-light feeling of early 1970's singer-songwriter classics as Carol King's Tapestry, only smoother and looser: the Scottish ensemble Deacon Blue adds touches of harmonica, cello, and Latin-esque acoustic guitar which aid and abet the nice and easy groove. Some of the themes are a little heavier on songs that deal with depression (Raincloud Court), domestic violence (Silent Watching Daughter), and the ravages of economic and spiritual poverty (Tragedy Waltz, with its opening line "I came across a child of nothing standing by the road" as the antithesis of the vision of Joni Mitchell's Woodstock). This is one of those albums that feels like you have always known it; recommended! (ME579677) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ceoltóirí Silver Apples of the Moon

Ceoltóirí continues to ascend heavenward, expanding their repertoire to include vocals and some original compositions. Connie continues her pristine guitar work while adding her celestial voice. Sue's harp work is flawless, and Karen adds pennywhistle and bowed flute to her dulcimer contributions! The songs include Gaelic versions of Arise and Dress Yourself, and Ore-Se De Bheatha Bhaile, which is sung in tribute to Grainne Mhaol, a woman pirate from the O'Malley Clan of County Mayo, plus a Yeats poem set to music, a celebration of Samhain (Halloween), the Scandinavian Póstea Set, and The Plain Girl's Lament. About half the selections are gorgeous instrumentals... Highly recommended! 1992. (MM202) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cherish the Ladies The Back Door

Irish America's first all-woman music and dance ensemble has dazzled audiences in Ireland, the US and Canada; here's their first true ensemble album (1992). Jigs, reels, polkas and hornpipes pour forth with tremendous energy from these 8 musicians, and 2 tracks feature some extraordinary hard-shoe step-dancing! Cathy Ryan's lovely voice graces 6 of the 14 songs — one in Irish, the rest in English. Fiddles, bodhrans, flutes, tin whistle, guitar and banjo punctuate such songs as Jessica's Polka, The Shepherd's Daughter, Maria Mhor (Big Mary), and title song, which is dedicated to all undocumented Irish aliens. (GL1119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cherish the Ladies Out and About

Regarded by some as America's most exciting Irish group today, this talented all-woman ensemble has never sounded better or lighter on this 1993 release, their second. Led by Cathy Ryan's gorgeous voice, the songs are searingly memorable, from the Gaelic The Muintir Róir to Cathy's own The Missing Piece... from strathspeys to reels (with step-dancing!), jigs, waltzes, polkas, and a slide. (GL1134) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Ann Fulton The Airs of Wales

This 1991 debut recording is the stunning result of years of research, combined with a fierce love of beauty. The Welsh Airs, that delicate combination of folk music with more formal, almost classical composition, simply burst with imagery, as they are expressed on that incredible instrument for which many of them were intended, the Welsh Triple Harp. Consisting of 3 rows of strings, the tunings and design allow the musician to play two rows in unison, creating a lovely shower of delicate sound. Cheryl is a master of her instrument, and one feels grateful for her dedication to it and its music. Extensive, informative notes included. (KOC7071) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Christine Collister Live

From one of the most acclaimed British folk/blues singers around, this exquisite album was recorded live in 1994 on her native Isle of Man. Christine had performed with the Richard Thompson Band, and then as part of the duo Gregson and Collister, before going solo. Her amazingly deep, rich voice (a British Cassandra Wilson meets Sandy Denny?) gently rocks through songs by K.D. Lang, Joni Mitchell, Rickie Lee Jones, and her interpretation of Janis Ian's Ruby is alone worth the price of this album. She smoulders through Randy Newman's Gully and knocks the pants off of Low Me Like a Man (a la Bonnie Raitt). A wonderful, wonderful treasure; highly recommended! (GL3106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad Banba

Gaelic and English lyrics laid gently over a haunting blend of traditional Celtic and contemporary rhythms characterize this 1993 release, which celebrates 20 years of recording together. Add in also an Abba-esque sound created by overdubbing lyrics on the song There For You, and it's hard to imagine anyone not liking at least something about this album. Face it, people everywhere are being captivated by their music, as it creeps into the background of everything from motion pictures to TV commercials: it's high time the artists are brought into the forefront! Includes I Will Find You (theme from The Last of the Mohicans, in which Maie sings in Mohican and Cherokee) and Mystery Game. (ATL2503) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Clannad Themes

A 1995 retrospective of Clannad recordings for film and TV dating back to 1982. Their unique and timeless sound, woven from strands first heard in the remote coastal regions of Gweedore where they grew up, has provided a backdrop for a wide variety of subjects depicted in films as well as commercials! Includes Lady Marian, Ancient Forest, Theme From the Dolphin Connection, Harry's Game, I Will Find You, and more. (CH82737) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad Magical Ring

A gorgeous, magical mixture of Irish, Gaelic and contemporary sounds, with lyrics in both Gaelic and English, this 1982 crossover release was one of their pivotal albums in engendering a New Age following, and many fans consider it their best. Includes The Fairy Queen, Theme from Harry's Game, Newgrange, and other original and traditional tunes. Recommended! (RCA66305) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad Legend

Subtitled Music from the TV Series "Robin of Sherwood", this 1984 release features the impressive vocals of Maie Brennan, one of our favorite Celtic singers whose work we strive to make available here in the States. Ten songs, with titles like Lady Marian, Ancient Forest, and Darkness, all evocative of the tale. (RCA66306) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad Macalla

Considered by some to be their best album, this 1985 release is also one of their most produced, with haunting, mystical effects created with synthesizer, multi-tracked Maie vocals, reverberating harmonies, and lots of contemporary instrumentation on top of their traditional accompaniment. Includes The Wild Cry, Close To Your Heart, Bawhail On Eirne. (RCA1063) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad Lore

This 1985 release contains selections in both Gaelic and English, including Trail of Tears, Farewell Love, Shen Fecis, Seanchas, Dwairimh Go Deo, and Fann Mharta. (ATL82753) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Clannad Crann Ull

This 1978 recording from Dublin's Tara Records contains pure traditional Gaelic and Irish material, impeccably performed, naturally revolving around Maie's heavenly voice... it's one of the last straight-forward, all-acoustic albums Clannad recorded before they embarked on their experimentalations with more contemporary sounds. Includes Gathering Mushrooms (which does include sister Enya on supporting vocals), and The Last Rose of Summer. (TAR3007) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad (with Enya) Fuaim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maie Ní Bhraonáin (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Claran and Pol, and their 2 uncles, Pádraig and Níel O Dúgáin. Eithne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. Pronounced "foam" and meaning "sound," this 1981 release (the only complete Clannad album with Enya) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional: you will hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 5-part generic harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (ATL2481) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Connemara Beyond the Horizon

This DC-area trio performs beyond all expectation. Beyond what can be described as beautifully, beyond your wildest dreams! Simply, one of the finest Celtic recordings we've received... Vocalist Grace Griffith breathes warmth and life into the carefully chosen and expertly arranged songs — the emotional resonance she creates is the closest to the incomparable Sandy Denny's that this reviewer has heard! Ace fiddler Cathy Palmer and harp virtuoso Tracie Brown round out the strong trio, each delivering award-winning performances. Soulful narrative tales intersperse with sprightly jigs, airs and strathspeys, all of which exude something special. A few interpretations of contemporary Celtic compositions: Loreena McKennitt (All Souls Night) and Clannad are included. Highly recommended! (BLX10032) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connemara Siren Song

On this 1995 release from one of our favorite DC-area Celtic-oriented ensembles, all the selections are ocean-related songs about mermaids, songs about legends of the seas, songs about ships, songs about sailing. Harper Blue Richards contributes her virtuosity to a couple of tracks, includes Abbie's Music Box, Witch of the Waves, Dublin Lady, The Mermaid's Tale, and Ripples in the Rockpool, one of the best (and bubbliest, speaking of water) tunes from their debut cassette, The Tempest. (BLX10031) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Goatlaglen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scots/Irish bands Silly Wizard, Capercaillie and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover The Wishing Well

With Connie's second album, she's achieved the goal all artists seek — she's topped herself! A bit more upbeat than her debut, this 1993 release once again offers a magical mix of songs from Scotland, Ireland, and America; her voice is rich and clear, her phrasing delicate, and the pure acoustic backing is a colation of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland's and Ireland's finest traditional musicians. (TPM0201) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cusan Tan
Kiss of Fire

Q247
Cusan Tan is an incredible Welsh ensemble (2 women, 5 men) whose name translates "Kiss of Fire," and their album is different — magical — captivating — entrancing! Some intricate vocal harmonies by their flutist and primary songwriter, Anni Morgan Jones, and alto Sue Jones-Davies (whose other claim to fame is that she played Judith, Jesus' girlfriend, in Monty Python's Life of Brian), these two women, both from Aberystwyth in Wales, are the group's founders. With instruments that include guitar (momentary shades of Bert Jansch), cello, and Welsh triple harp, they create a sound which is a heartbreaking combination of Celtic traditional, neo-traditional and classical, yet fresh and unique. Even the spellings of the Welsh words evoke a sense of mystery and magic. Very highly recommended! (FAM15002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

DeDanann (with Mary Black)
Song for Ireland

Before launching her solo recording career, Mary Black was known as the breathtaking vocalist with DeDanann; and here is one of the albums on which she is featured, for those of you who want a more complete discography. This Irish band, whose name is derived from "Tuatha De Danaan" — the people of the goddess Dana, transcends musical boundaries, while maintaining their advocacy for traditional music. 1990. (SUG1130) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Dolores Keane
Solid Ground

Known for her work with such influential groups as Planxty and DeDanann, one of Ireland's warmest voices now offers us a taste of what she can do solo, and it's delectable indeed! The title confirms the quality of her deep vocal timbre; words like deep-rooted and earthy come to mind, especially when she's harmonizing with the likes of Emmylou Harris! (The mostly) contemporary selections range from the courtly Spirit in My Heart and the stately Emigrant Eyes, to the sprightly title cut and a surprisingly successful cover of Steve Winwood's The Finer Things. 1993. (SHN007) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Eileen Ivers
Wild Blue

NEW!
A featured performer in London's highly acclaimed Irish music festival Riverdance as well as with Irish-American rap-rock group Paddy A Go-Go, this multi-faceted fiddler stretches the definition of Celtic music with her 1996 release. Combining Irish reels, hornpipes, bourees and jigs with the sounds of modern jazz, African, blues, Eastern European and swing, she fashions a new type of "fusion." From her wild flourishes on electric fiddle on the studio jam of Blue Groove (joined by Wolk straddling organ, 12-string and bass guitars and congas), to the rousing reel A la Africa, On Horseback, to the more traditional solo Lament for Staker Wallace, this woman takes us along wherever her great talent and sense of fun lead her! (GL1166) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Eilidh Mackenzie

Eideadh Na Sgeulachd
Dr. The Raiment of the Tale: Songs of the Scottish Gael. It's not often we find a whole album sung in Gaelic, and we've looked out here! Eilidh has won the Scottish national vocal medal for singing more than once (as has her sister Gillian, who joins in on vocal harmonies here), and it's easy to hear why: her voice is light and airy, and infused with such sweetness and longing, it's simply unbelievable when she self-harmonizes! The 14 songs feature traditional Gaelic material, like a Purta a Beir medley, meaning a light-hearted lighthearted split bit of nonsense (also known as mouth music), ballads and acappella love poems. Features Alison Kinnaird on Scottish harp. . . Delightful, and Western audiences who enjoyed the Bulgarian Women's Choir will probably like this as well. (TEM048) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Enya
Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "thickly" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of raw silk), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all entwining around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art. . . sigh. Highlights include the Gaelic Ebuda and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya
The Memory of Trees

Q414
This long-awaited follow-up to Shepherd Moons has been four years in the making, and the result is a haunting, mysterious, supernaturally beautiful 1995 album that finds her artistry in full flower. As we have come to expect, Enya herself plays virtually all the instruments and self-harmonizes all the parts, and once again, she recorded with her long-time producer Nicky Ryan. Songs include Anywhere Is, Pax Deorum, Althair ar Neamh, Tea-House Moon, La Sonadora. (REP46106) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Enya
The Celts

This is Enya's debut album (previously issued under the title Enya), and it's truly glorious: multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. The artist is definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice, complemented by: uilleann pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! 1986. (REP45681) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya
Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! 1988. (REP26774) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Fiona Joyce
This Eden

NEW!
Having heard her wistful songs on a number of Celtic compilations, we're glad to present a whole album by Fiona — who lives in County Wicklow in Ireland where she runs her own record label, on which this 1994 album (her second) was released. The moody sounds of her original compositions, laden with great sadness, flow along in the tradition of Fairport Convention. With a voice reminiscent of Mary McLaughlin, Fiona sings lyrics that are fraught with religious imagery (This Eden, Before the Resurrection). Marie Breathnach adds her heartrending violin and viola to the mix of whistle, guitar, drums, and keyboards. (RVR13) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Frances Black
Talk To Me

Q074
Mary's sister Frances' 1994 solo debut demonstrates that talent runs in families! The highlights are the 4 Nanci Griffith songs she covers (with background vocals on 2 of them by Nanci herself). Also includes songs by Mark Nevin, John Lennon, and a few other contemporary songwriters, some background vocals by siblings Mary Black and Michael Black, for all you Black family fans. (CHR2736) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Heidi Berry
Miracle

NEW!
Though Heidi's work is often compared to that of British folk legends of another era such as Sandy Denny, her music has a distinctly luminous quality that no one else can match. On this 1996 album (her fifth), her compositions spotlight the poetic songwriting and intimate vocal artistry that have been the hallmarks of her style — she continues to focus her lyrics on love, loss and relationships, while expanding her music to include lush Celtic rhythms. Also includes a vibrant cover of Jesse Colin Young's late-60's brooding masterpiece, Darkness. (4AD48029) CD: 16.98

Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this album. "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm & there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered acappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanie Madden
Song of the Irish Whistle

NEW!
While we've always been fond of the instrumental music by this reigning queen of the Irish tin whistle, we were unprepared for the achingly intense beauty of this 1996 release. Whether she's drawing out wistful, sweet ballads or tripping through bright-eyed dances, her dazzling musicality will alternately set hearts afire, and then melt them! The lush arrangements, featuring world-class musicians like fiddler Eileen Ivers, pianist John Boswell, percussionist Glen Velez, guitarist Brian Keane, and fretless bassist Dave Anderson, counterbalance her primary instrument which might otherwise sound sparse and minimalist in other musical settings. Includes Women of Ireland and The Mountain of Women (Slabh Na Mban); notes by Fiona Ritchie of the PBS radio show, The Thistle and Shamrock, highly recommended! (HS11066) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson
Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way . . . (and there are multitudes, believe me!) Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Berry MacNeill, Blind Mary, hammered dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan consort an accomplished ensemble (2 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitarist, a flutist, a violinist, and harper Sylvia Woods, all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-tinged pieces. Highly recommended! (DM102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson
Celtic Dreams

Joemy's third volume in her Irish series truly captures the mystical Celtic spirit. On the 9 glorious O'Carolan tunes and other magical melodies from Ireland, Wales, Scotland and the Isle of Man, her shimmering dulcimer is complemented by the usual brilliant accompaniment of Sylvia Woods' harp, Anis Angarola's guitar, Valene King's flute, and Mamón Miller's violin. Includes Faeries' Lamentation, Ash Grove, Mabel Kelly. (DM107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson
Celtic Treasures

Q285
The long-awaited sequel to Celtic Dreams contains several of the legendary harper Turlough O'Carolan's seldom recorded gems, such as Katherine O'More and Sean Jones. Numerous other Irish and Scottish favorites, such as The Gentle Maiden, Star of the County Down, Miss Hamilton, round out this 1994 hammered dulcimer + plus release . . . and the addition of bodhran to the usual Carolan Consort (Celtic harp, classical guitar, flutes and violins) lends a new energy. She considers it her most exciting release to date! (DM112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson/ S. Woods/ M. Moloney
Young Turlough and His Harp

Hammered dulcimer whiz and Turlough O'Carolan maven Joemy Wilson has written a charming, inspirational tale of the legendary 18th-century Irish harper's childhood and his triumph over blindness through music. Mick Moloney, one of Ireland's greatest musicians, narrates the story to the shimmering harp of All-Ireland champion Sylvia Woods. Then Joemy and the Carolan Consort perform over a half hour of O'Carolan's beloved music, including Fanny Power and Sheebeg and Sheemore. (DM116) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pintar
Celtic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pintar creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Defense of Queenweave, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Maze of Avalon. Very highly recommended. 1984. (SG123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pintar
Changes Like the Moon

This very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording contains selections based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore. The Robe of Feathers and The Skike. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this 1996 release is a gorgeous and titling follow-up to her highly successful Secrets From the Stone. (SG147) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Price
The Time Between

We've been getting several requests for this album by an artist who is being compared to Loreena McKennitt, in that her music blends cross-cultural influences and instrumentation with a lyrical female voice. Her repertoire consists of original compositions which are influenced by both Celtic and Slavic musical and literary traditions, as well as traditional ballads from Europe and the British Isles. Her lovely contralto is accompanied by hammered dulcimer, Swedish hummel (the 11th century predecessor of the fretted dulcimer), and piano. Some reviewers have described her as one part gypsy and one part fairy! (ACC1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Price
Deep Hearts' Core

This 1995 release, Kate's second, is more produced than her debut. She once again merges Celtic music with other world music rhythms — this time from Bulgaria and Sweden, making for a most interesting musical travelogue! Multi-layered vocals are beautifully blended with ethnic instruments in a western motif, played by virtuosos such as Paul McCandless and Teja Bell. Contains 7 vocals and 5 instrumentalists; songs include First Sweet Nymph, Places of Spirit, and Seamstress of Dreams. (ACC500) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Thompson
Dreams Fly Away

This career retrospective of the great British folk-rock singer and songwriter is a great mix of some of her better known songs of heartbreak and bitterness, performed with her ex-husband Richard, and her solo material. After a long, rocky career (she was voted best female vocalist in 1982 by both Time and Rolling Stone magazines, but never broke through commercially), she developed hysterical dysphonia ("you open your mouth and nothing happens") and so is now unable to sing at all. This 1996 compilation combines live versions, demos, remixes, really hard-to-find recordings with standard album cuts to make this both a good introduction to her as well as a real gift for devoted fans. Includes Telling Me Lies, her song that was made famous by the Dolly/Linda/Emmylou "Trio", For Shame of Doing Wrong, the scathingly bitter Talking Like a Man, the excellent female solidarity in Sisters (with the McGarrigles) and a cover of Sandy Denny's I'm a Dreamer. What a talent! What a collection! (HAN1379) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
The Veil

This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Childe, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece At Souls Night and the instrumental Tango To Evora, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album; hear the Italian lute coloring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greensleeves. And her indescribable musical rendition of Tennyson's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments; great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new vocal Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB26880) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Loreena McKennitt
The Mask and Mirror

On this 1994 eagerly-awaited 1994 release, Loreena combines her Celtic influences with world music to create a magical work of deep beauty and profound mystery. She says, "I looked back and forth through the window of 15th century Spain, through the hues of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and was drawn into a fascinating world: history, religion, cross-cultural fertilization." Blending harp and liddle with electric guitar and exotic percussion, mixing traditional songs with musical settings of Shakespeare and Yeats, this is a dazzling kaleidoscope of feelings united by the intensity of her voice. Contains The Mystic's Dream, The Dark Night of the Soul, Marrakesh Night Market, The Bonny Swans, Full Circle; instruments include cello (played by virtuoso Orla Harnoy!), bouzouki, bodhran, tamboura, dumble, oud, balalaika, Uilleann pipes and more. Highly recommended as usual! (WB45420) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Loreena McKennitt
Parallel Dreams

This 1989 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection, from the wistful original, Moore Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annachie Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Behane Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reference for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's explanation of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music; highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
Elemental

This extremely talented musician/vocalist must have been incarnated just to bring the musics of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1985 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Carnegiefergus, She Moved Through the Fair; Harps, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. Maddy Prior
Memento: The Best of Maddy Prior

On this 1995 retrospective from one of Britain's foremost folk divas, the 18 tracks are drawn mostly from 6 albums representing her solo career. Although Dolphin Mistress and Grey Fennel Line are from her collaboration with June Tabor on Silly Sisters. Fans will be pleased to know that the latter track served as the theme song to Sirens, a 1994 film. Also includes some rare and previously unreleased material: Mater Doloresa and a new version of Deep in the Darkest Night. Maddy comments that she chose not to include material from Steeleye Span and Carnival Band, preferring to represent a seam of work less familiar and largely unavailable. Our fav: Accapella Stella from Changing Winds — worth the price of the album! (PRK38) CD: 16.98

Maddy Prior/J. Tabor: Silly Sisters
No More to the Dance

Twelve years after their last recorded collaboration, a new masterpiece by these two vocalists, whose harmonies do truly sound like they are of a family, breaks new ground for traditional music. It features innovative textures with touches of Eastern European harmony, and constantly shifting combinations of western, eastern, modern and traditional instruments (Chinese flutes, alprano sax, Celtic harp by the women of Sileas, bagpipes, more). One of the most eagerly-awaited releases: ever, and very highly recommended! 1988 (SHN79068) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Maggie Sansone
Mist & Stone

This 1990 release is a beautiful collection of Celtic tunes from Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, and Galicia, performed on hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and other instruments. The selections explore the rich and varied musical kingdoms of an ancient past, as they create textures and moods which are often evocative and haunting. Includes Foggy Dew, Bally Gardens, 18th century harp airs, ligs and reels. Recommended! (MM106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone
Dance Upon the Shore

"Dance there upon the shore, What need have you to care? For wind or water's roar?" This 1994 release is a Celtic voyage to Ireland, Scotland and Brittany, with traditional tunes in new innovative arrangements — performed on hammered dulcimer, with exquisitely beautiful soprano sax and clarinet, plus flute, cittern, guitar, fretless electric bass and hand drums. A great combination of instruments, fusing jazzy rhythms with the ancient music of the Celts, and Maggie's best work so far, highly recommended! (MM109) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maire Breatnach
Angels Candles

On this 1993 release, the original pieces by this incredible composer instrumentalist sweep through a wide stylistic arc — from shippings to waltzes and marches... polkas and dance tunes that possess a light rhythmic bounce... to slow, haunting airs... rooted in both the Celtic traditional and classical disciplines. They bring forth images such as a child's window of wonder on the night sky, a vision woman's message of empowerment at Halloween, a remembrance of one who died young. Among the many artists who accompany Maire's fiddles, vocals, keyboards and occasional vocals: Sharon Shannon on accordion. (BLX10018) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maire Breatnach
The Voyage of Bran

One of Ireland's most innovative young composers and instrumentalists, this artist transforms myth into reality with this exquisite, atmospheric collection of original pieces inspired by the pre-Christian mythic Irish tale of the same name. Her vibrant and varied fiddle and violin playing combined with her fluency in many musical idioms will take the listener on a journey from the past into the unknown. Titles on her 1994 album include Yiss Sol, Amhewin, Chm Ripples, Magical and magnificent... highly recommended! (CH82734) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maire Brennan
Maire

Look out Enya, here comes your sister Maire, lead singer of the Clannad ensemble, with an exquisite solo album of her own, which we've been hoping for ever since we first heard Clannad. Mostly original songs in English and Gaelic, rooted in tradition but embracing progressive styles and speaking of change, employ Celtic and contemporary instrumentation as well as wonderful, multi-layered, familial harmonies by Dee Brennan, Olive Brennan, and Bridin Brennan. Includes Land of Youth, Voices of the Land, Against the Wind, and Oro, which she wrote as a lullaby for her daughter, who's pictured on the cover with her. (ATL82421) CD: 15.98

Maire Brennan
Misty Eyed Adventures

The lead vocalist of the incredible Celtic ensemble Clannad releases her second solo album... it includes her first single, a sensuous re-working of the Joni Mitchell classic Big Yellow Taxi; a couple of evocative songs in Gaelic, A Place Among the Stones, The Days of the Dancing. (ATL82701) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mairéid Sullivan
Dancer

If you've heard the album Celtic Voices: Women of Song, you've heard her already; she's one of the 4 featured vocalists. Born in West Cork, Ireland, the sonorous Mairéid (pronounced "My Raid") moved to San Francisco in the 1960's and then to Melbourne, Australia, to become an important part of the folk revival scene there. This 1994 album consists of half original compositions and half traditional Celtic (Irish, Scottish, Briton and Indo-European) set in contemporary folk arrangements. Accompanied by everything from banjo to bodhran and bouzouki, Mairéid gently stretches the boundaries of Celtic music while tying it all together with her fluid soprano. (LBM001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marie Rhines
The Reconciliation

Marie Rhines is phenomenal, and almost anything we can say about her would be an understatement. That's why when she notified us that she'd reissued the classic originally released in 1976 on the Fretless label (an old subsidiary of Philo), we made room for it immediately. She presents flawlessly executed Scottish, Irish and American music for fiddle, violin, and viola, with classically-trained tones and timbres that communicate a vast depth and range of emotion. Includes an outstanding heart-rending performance of the Irish waltz Sheebag. Sheemore, itself worth the price of the album. We hope you'll welcome her back as eagerly as we do; highly recommended! (SED1) CD: 15.98

Mary Black
Looking Back

This 1995 release offers 10 songs from 4 of the artist's past recordings, plus 2 new tracks. Highlights include a new duet version with Emmylou Harris of One A Woman's Heart (title cut from a compilation album which has become the best selling album in Irish history); her first single, Soul Sister, plus Ellis Island, Nia Framiers, Looking Forward, The Loving Time, Vanities, and more. She has held the title of "Best Female Vocalist" in Ireland for several years running; we predict this album could develop her as a serious international star, in addition to appealing to her US fans (like me)! (CUR77718) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary Black
Babes in the Wood

This 1991 recording is a collection of contemporary ballads and softly rocking pop songs in which Mary has succeeded in convincing this reviewer that her lovely voice is suited to styles other than traditional Celtic... Accompanied here by a rich variety of acoustic instruments (dobro, mandolin, accordion, guitar, piano, fiddle, double bass), she covers more earth than Joni Mitchell's The Urge to Go; Richard Thompson's The Diving of the Day, as well as other gems by contemporary folk songwriters. Impeccable arrangements and production. (GIF77528) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Coming to you directly from Dublin, Ireland, Mary's sound is a perfect blend of pop, jazz and traditional Celtic. And her voice! Clear as a bell and rich as cream. Known to many for her work as vocalist for the famous De Dannan band, her style is sometimes contemporary, and at other times, as in her beautiful rendition of Anachair Gordon, the most traditional essence. This 1982 album is for all you folkies who don't think you like pop music. (GIF10004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black Collected

This 1985 album contains both previously released and unreleased material, many traditional songs with Irish instrumentation (uilleann pipes, bouzouki, fiddle, sitar, etc.), including a beautiful Gaelic ballad and The Moves Through the Fair. (GIF10006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black The Holy Ground

This album entered the Irish charts at Number One! From the playful Summer Sent You to the starkly poignant Broken Words, Mary's voice takes you on a musical journey as varied as the human heart. Among the 12 tracks are songs by Sandy Denny, Noel Brazill, John Gorka, and Jesse Winchester, titles include Golden Thread, Lay Down Your Burden, Treasure Island, One Way Donkey Ride. Released in the U.S. in 1993. (GIF10010) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black By the Time It Gets Dark

This fan's favorite of Mary's back catalog is finally being re-released in 1994! Hear this indescribably wonderful vocalist sing Kate, a song of lost love; Sandy Denny's title song; Ewan McColl's song of coalminers; Schooldays Over. The accompaniment is exquisite, her phrasing impeccable, harmonies made in heaven, arrangements tasteful, and her vocals have that quality which can pierce one's heart. Highly recommended! (GIF10013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black Circus

New for September 1995, Circus was produced by Mary's longtime guitarist Declan Sinnott, and includes The Moon and St. Christopher, Wonderchild, Flaven in the Storm and more. (CUR7632) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary McLaughlin The Daughter of Lir

We were so taken with the mystical opening track on the anthology Celtic Voices: Women of Song, we told you that it alone was worth the price of the album. Well, it also opens this entire 1994 album by this amazing artist (we've been hoping one would materialize): which combines Irish, ambient, and world beat sounds with her incredible vocal range. It contains mostly original songs which are thematically linked by images of Ireland, Women and the Sea. The title track "was written after watching a television programme on prominent Irish women, and I was struck by the particular quality of spirit they had." The song Motherland uses the allegory of "the poor old woman" who is Ireland: a woman with strength and love who had been battered so much she had reached the point of saying "No more." Eyes of Africa contains gorgeous harmonies... but Seilweeman combined with the Hebridean chant Yondah is still the winner here. We have space limitations, so I must stop now... Very recommended! (ROW1) CD: 16.98

Maura O'Connell Stories

On this 1995 release, the acclaimed song stylist from Ireland's County Clare winds her beautifully-crafted, luminous vocal interpretations on classics by Shawn Colvin, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, John Gorka, Lennon McCartney, and other song poets. She is joined by special guests like Cheryl Wheeler, James Taylor, Jerry Douglas and other musical luminaries. (HAN1389) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell Blue Is the Colour of Hope

This 1992 release is another foray into contemporary folk (with jazz inflections), this time more acoustic, and with a bevy of country and folk luminaries on background vocals (Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, Rosanne Cash) and instrumentalists. Highlights include the jazz ballad Love to Learn; MC Carpenter's I Don't Bring You; plus The Blue Train. The overall feeling is a bit melancholy and languid (First You Cry, for example), but her voice is perfectly suited to the mood! (WB45063) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell Just In Time

This Irish artist is a chart-topping star in her own country, for obvious reasons known to anyone who's listened to her incredibly smooth, rich vocals, and she's now gaining an international reputation in the acoustic music community. Her 1988 U.S. debut release, produced by Bela Fleck, features Nanci Griffith and Jonathan Edwards on background vocals. Includes an a cappella, multi-tracked version of her self-harmonized The Water is Wide, plus others perfectly selected to complement her Irish inflections, such as The Isle of Malinbeg, Leaving Nedra. Recommended! (FHI124) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell Helpless Heart

Gorgeous, rising, rich, Irish — these adjectives come immediately to this reviewer's mind upon first listening to Maura's voice. Produced by the inestimable Bela Fleck, this recording combines the above qualities with New Acoustic influences & musicians (Bela, Dave Grammer, Greg Latsen) on acoustic guitar, dobro, banjo, mandolin, piano, pedal steel guitar, fiddles and bass — simply the greatest! Material covered is primarily contemporary folk, like Cheryl Wheeler's Summer, Nanci Griffith's Rough in the Field; Paul Brady's Helpless Heart, and Karla Bonoff's Only A Fool and Janis It Always Love. Highly Recommended! 1989. (WB26016) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The New St. George High Tea

If you were ever excited when you first discovered Steeleye Span or Fairport Convention (or if you're too young for that, but think you might love some fabulous electric British folk), you need to hear this! This most excellent 5-person folk-rock ensemble is fronted by 2 women: bandleader/diatonic button accordionist Jennifer Cutting (from Britain, transplanted to the DC area), and exceptionally fine lead vocalist/instrumentalist (and open and activist lesbian) Lisa McCarthys. This 1994 debut contains primarily traditional English folk songs and dance-tunes, beautifully researched. They aim to sing and write lyrics with woman-centered references, and include the only homo-erotic lyric they have ever discovered in the tradition, in Our Captain Cried "All Hands" (one of the strongest tracks on the album), when a maiden is killed by a mercenary soldier who runs off with her money, she sings: "Girls, if you must love, love one another!" In 1994 they'd already won 5 WAMMIE (Washington Area Music) Awards, and were nominated for 9 more. Their local recognition deserves to spread nationwide (at least) so we urge you to see what the buzz is about — highly recommended! (FE1415) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Noirin Ni Rian Celtic Soul

On this 1996 album of songs/meditations, recorded with the Paul Winter Consort, Noirin's voice works like the evocative wail and mellifluous trills of Paul Winter's soprano sax. She mixes ancient Celtic tunes with Indian Hindi songs, and finds a surprising kinship between them. The album has a cavernous sound, on which her ethereal voice and the sparse instrumentation — cello, uilleann pipes, guitar, harmonium, supeld (Indian harmonium), sax, synthesizers, tin whistle — create a wonderful and wondrous space. Includes Song of the Poet (poems are Celtic lyrics), the classic Down By the Sally Gardens, Ode to Mira Bai, a famous Indian female saint; and a Celtic counterpart, Ode to Bridget. Magical, unique, and recommended! (LM31) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Noirin Ni Rian Stor Amhran

On this immaculate recording, this Irish vocalist re-creates a nearly-lost Gaelic style. Her singing is like a voice from heaven — blissful and evocative of profound spiritual grace. The 18 traditional songs are accompanied by pipe organ, tin whistle, Indian harmonica and the voices of the monks of Glenstal Abbey. (SND269/270) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Noirin Ni Rian Soundings

This collection of Spiritual Songs From Many Traditions is a most unusual release. Noirin, an angelic Irish soprano with a voice of startling clarity, is joined by the Irish Chamber Orchestra (under the leadership of Fionnuala Hunt) to perform a rich repertoire of compositions ranging from Gregorian chant to Irish laments. Many female spiritual leaders are recognized highlights include Ave Maria, Ode to St. Bridget, two versions of Ave Maria, and other heavenly masterpieces by Hildegard of Bingen; the Shakers (Noirin honors their founder, Anne Lee), and a bhajan by Mirabai, India's most famous medieval saint. The artist has often shared the stage with the Paul Winter Consort. He co-produced one track here. Recommended! (SND271/272) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Norma Waterson

This 1996 release is truly a must-have for anyone who loves British folk revival music. This deep-voiced veteran has been performing for over 30 years — with siblings and cousins and husband, ex-Steeleye Span guitarist Martin Carthy, in The Watsons; and in the lauded Waterson/Carthy ensemble (Norma, Martin and their daughter, Eliza Carthy). On her ground-breaking first solo release (which features Eliza and Martin plus Richard Thompson and others on back-up), instead of taking on the traditional English material for which she is known, she delivers remarkable interpretations of songs by Elvis Costello, Billy Bragg, Jerry Garcia, herself, her sister Lal, and more... plus a totally remarkable rendition of the traditional There is a Fountain in Christ's Blood. Like her voice, the songs are not pretty or sugar-coated; they are gray and real, speaking of sorrow and pain as much as love and joy. (HAN1393) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Pendragon Passage to New England

This independent release was selected by a dozen or so radio stations for their best Celtic album of 1993, and we agree. It's lovely! Most outstanding is the quartet's solo lead vocalist and sometimes-singer, Mary Lee Partington. She is the author of some of the most compelling songs about her favorite theme, the early Irish settlers and their role in the mill and textile traditions of New England (New England's Daughter; The Last of the Name: Deer Island). And her voice has an unusual power and strength which, coupled with her lower registers, adds a different dimension to often-ethereal Celtic music. Accompanied on cittern, concertina, piano, uilleann pipes, whistles and bodhran, the songs are full of Yankee lore. Produced by fiddler Johnny Cunningham; recommended! (BCN10125) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sandy Denny Best of Sandy Denny (Best of Box)

Selections from the 3-CD boxed set Who Knows Where the Time Goes... sort of the best of the best, from one of the most formidable folk talents who ever lived. Includes, of course, Who Knows Where the Time Goes, plus Listen, Listen; The Lady; Late November; The Pond and the Stream. (HAN1328) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sharon Shannon Out the Gap

This 1995 release is a bewitching and beautiful cultural cocktail. From the first note, the astonishing skill and musicality of this amazing accordionist pours forth with lift, melody and spunk. She's assembled a band that can follow her energetic direction, and the tunes move easily from Irish traditional to rock to reggae with "insouciantly dovetailing" rhythms and melodies and constant cheeky surprises, like a skanking banjo, a reggae waltz or the mellifluous pairings of brass and accordion tones. Since her appearance on both volumes of A Woman's Heart, many of you have sampled her work, and we urge you to experience an entire album! (GL3095) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shelley Phillips and Friends The Fairie Round

This 1990 album showcases an extraordinary versatility of the artist on oboe, flute, piccolo, recorder, harp, English horn, mandolin, tin whistle and dulcimer. It's an eclectic anthology of traditional Irish, English and Welsh tunes and dances, Renaissance, Baroque and Classical selections — and even a bit of wild Bulgarian folk song. Shelley is joined by a talented ensemble of musicians on winds and strings in this delightful synergy; selections include The Ash Grove, Bourree, Homage, Chamber's Tune, Skye Boat Song. Highly recommended! (GOU105) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shelley Phillips and Friends Pavane

Although the cover proclaims the contents to be instrumental airs, dances, and folk tunes from England, Wales, Ireland, Scotland and Brittany, Shelley admits, "It's really music from my own, private, imaginary Renaissance. That pastoral, romantic beautiful world that never really existed except in our reveries." (And, thanks to Shelley and company, on this 1995 album.) Well, not totally true, that world did exist: most of these tunes are from traditional sources — an enchanting assortment of Elizabethan songs, traditional Irish airs, Renaissance dances and exquisite classical pieces. Shelley is still a Renaissance woman herself, playing harp, oboe, English horn, recorders and pennywhistle, joined by bassoon, cellos, and other ensemble instruments played by the Friends. Beautifully evocative; recommended, of course! (GOU119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sue Richards Hazel Grove

The reigning US National Celtic Harp Champion (and 3-time previous champion) presents incandescent, intimate duos and trios on this 1995 release, in her ongoing quest for powerful Irish, Scottish and Welsh music. She is joined by artists such as Karen Ashbrook on hammered dulcimer, flute and pennywhistle; Connie McKenna on classical guitar; other women and men on viola da gamba, fiddle, bodhran, recorders, button accordion and more. Many of you already know Sue Richards from her previous albums, both solo and as a member of Caplin and Ensemble Galois. (MM211) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan McKeown & The Chanting House

Bones NEW 0520
In high school in her native Dublin, Ireland, Susan McKeown — born Susan Ryan, but she took her mother's maiden name — abandoned an opera singer career track to concentrate on her burgeoning interest in Irish traditional music and folk. She founded her band in Ireland and then emigrated to NYC. Her traditional Celtic music is now mixed with original progressive acoustic rock songs with a decided and intentional feminist sensibility. Her current lineup features guitar, cello, acoustic bass and drums, with Susan on guitar and bodhran. This gorgeous 1995 debut album includes Gorm's (a traditional "keen" — a pre-Christian lamentation passed down through generations by women — and Snakes Mia na hEireann, a folk-rock original dealing with the oppression of women in Ireland. (And FYI, Susan's own label, Sheela-na-Go, is named after a many-breasted ancient fertility goddess often depicted holding her vulva open). Highly recommended! (SHE701) CD: $5.98

Teresa Doyle

Forerunner
Teresa is a most gifted singer whose roots are planted firmly in the Canadian Celtic tradition... but with performance credits encompassing jazz, classical, and English lute music, she has stretched musical boundaries to create "Celtic music on the fringe." Drawing on the oral tradition of storytelling once prevalent in her native Prince Edward Island, she has woven intricate melodic lines through tales of ghosts and other apparitions. Her 1991 album is an eclectic blend of traditional Celtic material (Agincourt Carol, The Sheaving, Cape Breton Lullaby, She's Like the Swallow) and original compositions (Maggie Dally, Blue's Horizon, The Slough "Swallow"), featuring lovely accompaniment on instruments such as uilleann pipes, tin whistle, rebec, recorder, guitar, cello, violin and percussion. Recommended! (BL002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Celtic Odyssey 0250
This 1983 compilation is a truly beautiful, exuberant, entrancing assortment of music by some of today's best Celtic artists, including Capercaille, the 2-woman harp-singing duo Silas, Scartaglen, Altan, Relativity (with Triona O'Donnell), Laurel Riley, Eileen Ivers, and more. And we must say, whoever did the song-picking did an exceptional job — both vocal and instrumental tracks — we couldn't have done better ourselves! The entirety of the album flows so smoothly, happily, mystically and magically, we recommend it both as a work unto itself, as well as a great way to acquaint yourself with musicians you may not have had the good fortune to have heard before. Celtic Legacy 0264
They've done it again! A 1995 companion to Celtic Odyssey, this exceptional compilation represents a global Celtic journey through the British Isles and beyond. One track which makes this an absolute must-have: a traditional waulking song with 4-part harmonies and an extraordinarily beautiful arrangement for harp, accordion, and guitar by the Poozies, a 4-woman Scottish band. Other artists featured are Eileen Ivers, Natalie MacMaster, Maire Breathnach, Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill (accompanied by her sister Triona), Tailiú MacKenzie (from the original Mouth Music), Lucy MacNeil (of the Barra MacNeils), and Mary Dillon (of Deanta), as well as several male musicians. Clearly much thought and care went into selecting artists, tracks, and sequence, very strongly recommended again! (NA3916) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alexis Kochan

Czarivna 0062
And now for something completely different: Ukrainian pre-Christian ritual songs and women's laments and chants, which don't sound much like the other traditional Ukrainian music we've heard. The songs reflect the importance of the seasons, with accompanying rituals for fertility, courtship and marriage — ending with sadness, as the young brides recognized their loss of freedom. With lush music scored for oboe, flute, strings and percussion, this is somber and intense, and extremely gorgeous. Alexis, who grew up in Winnipeg listening to traditional Ukrainian religious and folk music, lends her beautiful voice, many years of research, and quite a creative flair to this project. Interesting, highly listenable, and we recommend it most definitely! (OLE1) CD: 15.98

This 1995 companion album to the first volume is another journey to the timeless place where whistles and fiddles, harps and pipes, guitar and piano play in a fantastic landscape of synthesizers and electronic woodwinds. # Angelique Ionatos/Nena Venetsanou

Sappho de Mytilene 0454
Sappho's poems set to music! This 1991 French import is the brainchild of Angelique Ionatos, a Greek composer and guitarist who specializes in setting Classical Greek poetry to music. Joined in lovely harmonies by another well-known Greek vocalist, Nena Venetsanou, and with a simple tableau of instrumental accompaniment (guitar, oboe, recorders, oud, marimba, tabla, vibraphone), the result is a perfect marriage of lyric and musical expressions... Sappho, perhaps the most famed yet enigmatic of the Lesbian poets has historically received little acclaim for her genius, and this recording pays her just homage. Lyrics are sung in Classical and Modern Greek, but are translated only into French (liner notes are in English, French and Greek). Certainly one of the most unique and beautiful recordings in our catalog! Put this on at your next gathering of friends — may it lend you grace. (AUV6168) CD: 18.98

Bisserov Sisters

Music from the Pirin Mountains 0426
If you like Balkan and Eastern European women's singing, this is the REAL STUFF — it's about authentic as it comes, fresh and strong and vibrant, with no edges softened for western ears. This sister trio does the antiphonal singing characteristic of the Pirin region of Bulgaria where they were born into a musical family. Ljubinka sings the first part; Mira and Nada steadily and tunefully "lay" the second part. All 3 have mastered some musical and percussion instruments, and they are also accompanied by the instrumental trio Karadzovska. Bulgaria was under Turkish rule 1363-1878, and the Turkish influence on the modes (scales) and instrumentation is quite audible. 26 selections, over 70 minutes, informative notes (an ethnomusicologist's dream), recommended! (PAN133) CD: 15.98

Carmen Linares
La Luna En El Rio

Flamenco is a dramatic type of music from Andalusia in Southern Spain which is heavily influenced by the gypsy culture. Carmen Linares, accompanied by flute, violin, electric bass, percussion and, of course, the signature guitar, sings — no, emotes — no, powerfully undulates her way through this 1981 import. The result is riveting, powerful, and overwhelmingly soul-stirring. If you are familiar with flamenco, trust that Carmen Linares is one of its finest singers and if this is music that has not yet had a chance to enchant you, deny yourself no longer! Cantaora

0427

This outstanding Spanish artist is known as perhaps the greatest living female flamenco singer, with both respect for the traditional form and a creative penchant for innovation. Her voice goes from a throaty wail to a whispering plea, rich with emotion and with a total immersion in the lyrics. This passionate delivery simply amplifies flamenco's already high intensity, so that the listener cannot remain uninvolved — experience it for yourself! Accompanied, of course, by acoustic guitars, hand claps and foot stomps. One of the Women of the World series recommended! 1992 (RVB1004) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.98

In this world of ever-changing availability on Fiat tires, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (18 songs) and available on CD. Voices on the Eastern Wind

0430

Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal musics of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment — and recognize their expertise. If this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge! — they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, exotic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength." This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice... invigorating and beautiful. (DPH092) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kitka w/ Ensemble Alcatraz
Sacred Voices... Sacred Sounds

This 1995 album was recorded live in concert with Ensemble Alcatraz, an instrumental quartet which specializes in early European music and includes harpist Cheryl Ann Fulton. The 11-woman chorus sings traditional folk songs from Eastern Europe, plus an original written by their artistic director, Ben Brown. Includes Isopod Daba, an ancient Boemian incantation; Illeg Dja Bog, a Croatian song of blessings which calls for offerings to the altar of the Blessed Mother; and a beautiful version of the Macedonian favorite, Yvane Yvane (you'll recognize this if you're a fan of Balkan music). Kismet

0488

Known as one of the premier interpreters of Hungarian folk music, Marta has sung with Muzsikás and Deep Forest, and has been compared to Sandy Denny, Jane Siberry, The McCarty Sisters and the Goddess Parthenon! This 1996 album is her first of non-Hungarian songs: a rich, contemporary fusion of folk and modern instruments. It honors the rhythmic soul of Russia, Irish, Greek, Indian, and Bulgarian music while taking a fresh approach to a diverse collection of songs from around the world. She blends melodies and verses from different songs from different cultures, and fuses them into amazing, haunting and original arrangements. Notable are the Bosnian song Old, Silver or Love, and Leaving My Love, which combines an Irish emigration song learned from Dolores Keane with a Greek song from Epirus! We've gotten many requests for flamenco music recently, and we gladly respond with this 1995 import. Women's Voices of Portugal

Each region in Portugal maintains an instrumental and vocal legacy making up a kind of mosaic. On these highly varied 21 selections, the women's voices — in solo, duet or within a choir — perpetuate the tradition of religious hymns related to work, protest songs and of course fado, a passionate vocal style with guitar accompaniment. Artists include 83-year-old fado singer Judite Pinto; Catarina Chitas, ex-shepherdess and over 80 years old; the 17-woman choir Flores do Alentejo; the 22 women of the chorus Crainho; and others. 0438

As the great-granddaughter of Finnish immigrants, I was pleased and curious to review this recording, never suspecting the enormous beauty it contains! Four incandescent women singers with indescribable harmonies and vocal strength are accompanied by an array of acoustic instruments — accordion, sax, bouzouki, kantele, banjo, bass and more — giving contemporary interpretation to traditional songs, many of them runo spells and incantations. As one reviewer said, the vocal effect will make your hair stand on end! ... and as another said, this is some of the richest, densest acoustic music you've ever heard. By the end of the second song, I was in tears, simply in awe of the intense effect their voices evoke, similar in flavor to their Balkan cousins. Songs generally reflect the forbearance of Finnish women: one is a plaintive, sweet song sung by the sister of the groom, welcoming her new sister-in-law into the family home. Most highly recommended! (GL4006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The third release (1994) marks a creative change of direction for this Finnish women's vocal quartet: this time, their trademark harmonies, exotic runo signatures and traditional Finnish instrumentation (kantele, bouzouki, accordion, etc.) are blended with electric bass, keyboards, drums, and soaring saxophone — creating a most intoxicating, evocative blend of old and new. Rest assured, the incredible beauty of their sound is intact... the melodies and rhythms of these original songs are some of their most exquisite. This is their best work to date, displaying a new maturity and depth, and we most heartily recommend them once again! (XEN4026) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Azucar Y Crema (Sugar and Cream)
To Olidia: With Love

Love is the key word here, this all-women Latin salsa band truly pulls together their love for music, radiating passion and energy on their debut 1993 album. Lead by pianist/bassist Remy Amore Rodriguez, they project fresh musical vision incorporating various Latin, Afro-Cuban jazz melodies and rhythms as composed by Remy. Lead vocalist Maria Cora, the noted Puerto Rican poet and cultural activist, burns the microphone with searing inspirations. Other musicians are Mary Gameli on keyboards, Robin Carter on flute, saxes and percussion, Tami Ellis on trumpet, vocals and percussion, with Cash Ramos and Suki anchoring the rhythm section. Some of you '93 Michigan testis-goes will remember when they closed the daytime on Friday in a cloud of dust from everyone dancing wildly. Look for more to come from this band! (AYC1) CS: 8.98

Homenaje a los Santos is a rhythmic celebration of the deities (female as well as male) of the Afro-Cuban lucumi tradition, from the scorching-hot Cuban vocalist who is recognized worldwide as the reigning Queen of Salsa. Includes Yemaya, a tribute to the goddess of the ocean, Para Ti Alar (For Your Altar), and 10 more. Horns, piano, and percussion accompany, plus some vocal assistance by the men in her ensemble. 1994. (PLD521757) CD: 14.98

Claudia Gomez
Tierradentro

NEW!

0511

From the flamenco-like strains of the opening title track, it's easy to get lost in the dark warmth of Claudia Gomez' voice. On this 1995 recording, the Columbian vocalist/guitarist takes us on a journey through a beautiful soundscape of Latin American music. Brazilian samba mixes with Cuban son and Colombian cumbia, sung in a voice that ranges from mournful to celebratory. Highlights include the scapella Solitario, the percussion-centered La Lluvia, and the call-and-response of Musica da Noite e do Dia. The album also showcases her guitar skills. recommended! (XEN4039) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Conjunto Cespedes
Una Sola Casa

0441

"Son" is the soul music of Cuba — a fiery, poly-rhythmic marriage of African drumming, Spanish flamenco and Caribbean heat. This group is led by the powerful sensual vocals of Cuban-born Gladys (Bob) Cespedes — a priestess in the Afro-Cuban lucumi tradition with over 25 years as a "daughter of Obatala" — and her nephew, Guillermo Cespedes, backup is provided by some of the Bay Area's hottest Latin instrumental talents. With this album, they invite a new generation of music lovers to dance to the commanding pulse of the bata, the tick of the claves and the shake of the shaker... music so compelling and sexually electric, it was once outlawed in Cuba. Virgen de la Candelaria contains prayers to both a Yoruba goddess and a Catholic saint, and Respeto a la Tierra is an anti-war statement emphasizing the belief that the environment must not be disregarded. Fantastic percussion and an irrepressible spirit on this 1993 release. (GL4007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gloria Estefan
Mi Tierra (My Homeland)

0443

In our opinion, her 1993 release is her best ever! With high-energy accompaniment by all-star Latin musicians including Sheila E. and Tito Puente, she performs a wide variety of songs in Spanish. The styles reflect and illustrate pride in her Cuban heritage as well as the musical tradition itself, with jubilant Afro-Cuban percussion and rhythms. The liner notes include translations as well as some information which will be helpful to a non-Latin audience — a bit of a cultural bridge. As her closing song says, "And with great admiration I offer this celebration of my roots: I bring you this guaguancó (another typical Afro-Cuban rhythm) So you'll never forget this unusual rhythm! And to awaken your pride in your origins." (EPC53807) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Gloria Estefan
Abriendo Puertas

Translated as Opening Doors, this 1996 musical melange celebrates the many types of Latin American and Caribbean music in the spirit of uniting all Latinos/Latinas. A spicy mix of accordion, brass horns, timbales, bongos, maracas, 12-string guitar, lively choruses and other "traditional" sounds, she blends different cultures' indigenous styles (e.g. Colombian vallenato with salsa, Colombian cumbia with Cuban son, Venezuelan tambora with Columbian chande) and comes up with a new Pan National groove. Many selections focus on hope and peace, while Big Party insists that we just let go of worry. With such persuasive arguments you won't find me begging to differ! Arriba! Guardabarranco
Si Buscabas / If You Were Looking

0254

Sister and brother Katia and Salvador Cardenal are part of the Nicaraguan New Song movement called Volcantes — from volcan (volcano) and canto (song) — symbolic of the eruption of music, poetry, and cultural expression in Nicaragua since the triumph of the Sandinista revolution in 1979. Produced by Jackson Browne, this is one of the first albums of Nicaraguan music available in the U.S. Its beauty is virtually indescribable — but could easily bring tears to one's eyes: the quiet vibrance and richness of the music and poetry transcends any language barriers — and "destroys State Department rhetoric right there before your eyes" says Holly Near. Recommended! 1985. (RR8501) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Guardabarranco
Días de Amor/ Days of Love

I didn't think I would find Guardabarranco's second release as moving, as breath-taking, as shockingly beautiful as I found their debut album. It seemed physically impossible! But, I am here to admit that this is true, as de verdad... Katala's voice still reaches that pure sweetness which bursts open the heart, with words of love, strength, y esperanza, hope. When she duets with her brother Salvador, the power of their genetic harmonies has the strength to move mountains! Includes Corazón de Niño, A Child's Heart, Celón, Hummingbird, and the luminous title song, Gorgéus, lovely, just plain great — get it! Sung in Spanish, with printed lyrics and English translations. (RR9102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Guardabarranco
Casa Abierta/ Open House

This popular sister-brother duo remains one of our favorites! Growing up in the war years has given them an edgy sense of perception and a profound capacity for love: witness how language barriers dissolve as Katala and Salvador offer their moving song-stories through vividly poetic lyrics and their gorgeous harmonies. This 1984 album showcases more of Katala's pure voice, as in the haunting ballad Mi Luna/ Moon of Mine and the catchy title song; another highlight is Soy Latino/ I'm Latin ("I like being a Latin woman/ having a wild heart... who loves profoundly; dancing in the street..."). Spanish lyrics with English translations. (RR9403) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Irene Farrera
Walking in the Jungle

Fantastic! This Venezuelan musician (singer, songwriter, guitarist, arranger) extraordinaire brings us, an ingles y español, a beautifully diverse collection of original works, backed by a small yet sophisticated band (amazing bass, great percussion, keyboards and sax). Her voice has a deep, husky, jazzy quality reminiscent of Julia Fordham; especially on the hypnotic Despertar/ Awake. The title song (which she dedicated to all creatures, including people of every political, spiritual and sexual orientation) is also a highlight; sinuous bass lines, trills around bird calls and a lazy saxophone melody, with Irene's lovely voice breathing heat into the steamy clearings — y que calor tiene! Her notes speak out against racism and homophobia several times, letting us know that these are priority issues to her. Highly recommended! (IF2) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Irene Farrera
Aíma Latina/ Latin Spirit

Venezuelan singer-songwriter Irene Farrera possesses the kind of rich, smoky voice that one associates with good chocolate, full of spice and flavor, and inspiring passionate declarations! At one moment, that voice is shy and tender, caressing the lyrics as if they were children, or it might wrap an athena's fist around poetry that cuts like a knife. Like her compatriot Soledad Bravo, Irene imbues her work with the essence of the Latin spirit — a fierce passion combined with romantic tenderness. This 1995 recording features her interpretations of classic songs by Latin American composers, including Chabuca Granda, Silvio Rodríguez, Violeta Parra, and Antonio Carlos Jobim. Joan Baez
Gracias a la Vida/ Here's To Life

Dedicated to her father, who gave the artist her Latin name as well as her optimism about life, this re-release of a 1974 album contains 14 songs, all sung in Spanish. Includes the beautiful title track by Violeta Parra, as well as Dida, Guantánamo, La Llorona, The Weeping Woman, Las Madres Cansadas/ All the Weary Mothers, Te Recuerdo Amandar/ I Remember You Amanda, and No Nos Moverán/ We Shall Not Be Moved. We're pleased to add this to our catalog, in response to several of your requests. (AM614) CD: 16.98

Latin Fever

We are ecstatic that this long out-of-print 1978 classic — an absolutely incredible rhythmic concoction of women's salsa — is back! Among these 14 female musicians you'll hear some of the country's finest jazz talents: percussionist Nydia Mata, Jean Fineberg and Ellen Seeling of DEUCE, and more, featuring very strong multi-member percussion and horn sections. With a few instrumentalists, vocals mostly in Spanish, some bilingual, it includes La Mujer Latina ("The Latin American Woman") by Cuban native Rosa Soy. Very highly recommended, for dancing and listening, as well as difficult to find. It's truly a treasure... don't pass it up! (FNA527) CD: 17.98

Lourdes Pérez
Recuerdate Por Mí

We were fortunately introduced to this Puerto Rican-born singer-songwriter, who performs "nuevas canciones" in the style of Mercedes Sosa and Violeta Parra, at the 1994 Michigan Women's Music Festival. Her voice is deep and rich, singing in Spanish with primarily guitar accompaniment. Highlights here include Sim Protopoio/ Without Protocol, a beautiful love-song to a woman, Compañeras, a song written for a female companion, partner, mate, Que Te Pudeo Decir/ What Can I Say To You?, dedicated to her brothers and sisters living with AIDS; Luzel Capellito, about a woman laborer organizer arrested in Havana in the early 1900's for dressing as a man; and her beautiful tribute to Atahualpa Yupanqui, one of the reviewers' favorite songwriters of all time. An exceptional blending of lesbian and Latina cultures; very recommended. And congrats to the artist, we hear she's opening for Mercedes Sosa in concert! (CWR1) CD: 15.98

Maria Bethania
Simplemente/ Simply The Best of...

This wonderful "tropicalismo" singer (she is part of a movement that revolutionized Brazilian popular music), sister of the famous lyricist Caetano Veloso, is quite "hot" in her native Brazil, so we hear. Her deep, smooth, husky, coffee-with-cream voice caresses songs in a variety of styles on this Best of compilation, includes the title song from her (and Brazil's) best-selling album, Amor, plus 20 other songs, all conveying depth and longing with such smoothness and an understated passion. We recommend her highly to anyone who likes Brazilian music. (VR986335) CS: 10.98

Mercedes Sosa
En Argentina

Recorded in 1982 and featuring all-acoustic accompaniment, this album contains her classic interpretation of Violeta Parra's Gracias a la Vida, which no collection should be without. And it's a very classic live recording, with much of the electricity of the performer/audience relationship preserved vividly. Contains 13 tracks, including an Atahualpa Yupanqui composition, Los Hermanos (love everything of his she has ever performed) and the beloved Brazilian lullaby Duarme Negrito. (PLGS10499) CD: 16.98

Mercedes Sosa
30 Años

Wow — what a fantastic compilation! Celebrating and representing 30 years of performance, this album contains some of her very best material ever, including her earlier, more acoustic recordings, which this reviewer is admittedly quite partial to. Contains her beloved classic Gracias a la Vida, plus other favorites such as Alopesina y El Mar, Si Se Calla El Cantor, Luna Tucumana, her beautiful lullaby Duarme Negrito, crowd pleaser Maria, a live song with Milton Nascimento, and writer Chely García entitled Inconciente Consciente, and many others; songwriters covered include Violeta Parra, Maria Elena Walsh, and Atahualpa Yupanqui. It's probably this long-time fan's favorite compilation... we highly highly highly recommend this one to both newcomers and devotees alike! (PLGS18789) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mili Bermejo
Identidad

Mili moved from her native Mexico to the United States in 1990 to study jazz at the Berklee College of Music in Boston, where she now teaches. Her marriage of Latin American New Song and North American jazz has yielded a wonderful live 1995 album. Her smoky, emotive voice, ably backed by piano, double bass, drums and congas quartet, wraps itself around both original compositions and moving interpretations of others' songs. Includes a stunning rendition of Atahualpa Yupanqui's Luna Tucumana, replete with scat. This jazz improviser remains deeply rooted in her Latin American music; fans of Mercedes Sosa, Gato Barbieri, and good jazz vocals should give this a spin. Highly recommended! (KEN4020) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Selena
Amor Prohibido (Forbidden Love)

Selena Quintanilla was a Tejano pop music star who was murdered in 1995 by the older female president of her fan club rumors, albeit denied, of unrequited love... Extremely popular in the Mexican-American community, Selena had won Grammy awards, and was in the process of recording her first English language album when she was killed. This 1994 album of synth-based, upbeat music was nominated for a Latin Music Grammy. Features the title track, translated as "Forbidden Love", her hit No Me Queda Más, and a Spanish language version of Chrissy Hynde's Back On the Chain Gang, entitled Falas Y Recuerdos. Soledad Bravo
Chants du (Songs of) Venezuela

One of the most beloved vocalists in South America, this Spanish-born singer (whose family fled Franco's oppressive regime and emigrated to Venezuela) has an enchanting, deeply resonant but clear-as-a-bell voice — similar to Joan Baez's, but often a good octave lower. She is accompanied by cuatro and bandola, traditional Colombian and Venezuelan stringed instruments, as well as harp and percussion. Song styles range from traditional Golpe (based on a melodic theme that is repeated and varied), Portuguese and African fulias, traditional work songs and lullabies — tied together by her voice which cuts right through and breaks your heart a little. She makes any language barrier a moot issue; this import recording is absolutely majestic and very highly recommended! (BUD92544) CD: 18.98

Tish Hinojosa
Homeland

A fusion of country, folk, pop, melodies and Latin instrumentation, the songs of this 1985 album reflect this Mexican-American singer-songwriter's musing in the inner notes... wondering how my love for my parents' humble Mexican heritage and language would mix with idealistic American images of a musical future. The first cut Joaquin imagines the motivations for illegal border crossing, while West Side of Town recites the story of her parents' lives; and Rancherita (Little Ranch Girl), is a sweet song of courtship. Sung partly in English and partly in Spanish, this album employs a variety of instruments, including harmonica, pedal steel, accordion, fiddle, bongos and more. (AM5263) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa
Fronteja

This 1995 release is a heartfelt labor of love, inspired by and dedicated to Tish's mother, Cuquita, who was a renowned singer in her home village of Ciudad Juárez, Mexico. But the album is no museum piece — it has all the spit, dust, and fire of the real Frontier. Sung mostly in Spanish and featuring Flaco Jiménez, this album is both deeply personal and as wide open as the West. (ROU3132) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa
Dreaming From the Labyrinth

Recorded in a 170-year-old convent chapel on the banks of the San Antonio river, this 1990 back-to-basics album blends both the "Old" and "New" Worlds. Tish wrote and sings all of the songs in both Spanish and English; the subtle production allows her sweet voice to float above the music. Highlights are the exquisite runs of Jon Reyes' Spanish guitar fills on When I Rain, Cuando Lueve and the rousing horns and percussion spices in Laughing River Running, Riendo El Río Corre. (WB46203) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa
Aquella Noche

Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist / singer / songwriter / guitarist brings an emotional intensity to her work that readily surpasses that of your average "folk singer". This live recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide line-by-line English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Pasaes, Vuelvete (You Who Can, Return), the Atahualpa Yupanqui classic, anthemicized so beautifully by Mercedes Sosa, her original waltz, Manos, Huesos Y Sangre (Hands, Bones and Blood, for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Buy this recording — you won't be disappointed, we promise! (WAT1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa
Destiny's Gate

Snappy country rhythms, a pop influence, and a heavy dose of folk characterize this 1994 release. Tish blends her familiar soft style with the influence of her Latina heritage to create a mix nothing short of spectacular. From the original opening title track, to the more widely known Looking For My Love in the Pouring Rain, her voice transcends categories: 9 songs in English, 2 in Spanish, and a great mini-bo in the liner notes — recommended! Yma Sumac

The Spell of Yma Sumac: Double Play

This artist, with a 5-octave vocal range, was one of the most influential as she was preparing to record Ingenue. She is enjoying a resurgence in popularity due to the lounge music revival — her powerful, almost otherworldly, sounds blow most other performers clear out of the water! Rumored to be a Peruvian princess, she had her hey-day in the 1950's and 60's, when her intense combination of traditional Incan music, mambo, and opera was a needed elixir to break through the veneer of willing conformity... and has appeared in a film about the excavation of Machu Picchu, Secret of the Incas. She displays absolutely phenomenal vocal range on this retrospective (a value-packed 16 songs fully), which contains songs in Spanish (and distinct Spanish/Incan influence) and native Incan language: Xabay (Lure of the Unknown), Accha Taku (Chant of the Chocoma Maidens), Sumac Sorotena (Beautiful Jungle Girl), Indian Carnival, Cambe-Matá (Calls of the Andes), and more. Very dramatic, operatic, and unique! (PR1172) CD: 15.98

Buddhist Nuns at Chuchikjall

Tibetan Prayer

This 1995 release contains Tibetan prayer chants which were recorded at the site of the 1000-year-old temple of the 11-headed god Avalokitesvara, overlooking the Tibetan village of Karcha. These hypnotic chants, floating in the rarified atmosphere of the Himalayas, are meditative reminders of a serene state of being. Includes Widom Shall Overcome and Prayer for the Dalai Lama. Here are some of the female voices which have been missing from the recent, highly popular chant albums. (INA5708) CD: 16.98

Sister Drum

Tagged as "The Chinese Enya", this 25-year-old from the Mainland abandoned carefully-laid plans for a teaching career and went to Tibet to immerse herself in its musical and spiritual culture. The resulting 1995 album is a beautiful and meditative work suffused with Buddhist philosophy; the music resonates and rolls, buoyed by melody and underpinned by a calm steady beat. Dadawa weaves a lush wall of music and chant and soul and wailing vocals on such tracks as Home Without Shadow and Sky Burial to create a stunning piece of art. (SIR61889) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice... absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the ornamentation of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Bhajan. She writes, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument... it is the one means of expression used by every culture... The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice — it links all cultures throughout time." (CAR2322) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Struggle

"I'm proud to be an Asian, an Asian Woman, and an Asian Woman in the Music Business." One of our best sellers from years past — and one of the loveliest, most creative works in our catalog — is back in print! On this lushly textured, harmonic, innovative up-tempo dance album, she brings together the seeming polarities and paradoxes of her life: A British citizen of Indian descent, her heritage is steeped in ancient traditions, and she values them; yet feels they must be used in a progressive context. This recording blends traditional eastern sounds, vocals, chants, and instruments (sitar, gamelan, Zildjian cymbals, tabla, tamboura, etc.) with western rhythms and technology to create... Indipop! Highly recommended. (CAR1781) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra/ Monsoon

Monsoon featuring Sheila Chandra

Back in 1982, the band Monsoon, fronted by the young vocalist Sheila Chandra, made major musical waves (and developed a large cult following) with their brilliant blend of traditional Asian music, contemporary western rhythms and avant garde sounds. They coined the phrase "Indipop" to describe their sound. This compilation contains their complete album Third Eye, plus the B-sides, special Hindi versions and 12" mixes released as singles in the UK. Instrumentation ranges from sitar, tabla, gamelan and gong to wasp, hurdy gurdy and fire extinguisher! Includes Shakti (The Meaning Of Within), Indian Princess, Third Eye and Tikka Tika. A true classic has returned for its first US release. (MER6527) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Abneconedrone

On a bright afternoon, you walk into a cool, dark, perfumed room and then pause; but your eyes never adjust. This 1996 album of 6 ambient "drones" is a mesmerizing experience of subtle shifts of tones and breaths that catches you in its lovely web. The middle-eastern sitar and tabla-like instrumentation blends well with a more electronic "rave" sound. This album will take you to another plane of consciousness whether you want it to or not! ## The Tahitian Choir

Rapa Iti

One of the most spectacular albums to come out any way, over 125 female and male voices sing the story of the people on the tiny island of Rapa Iti — total population 328 — 1000 miles southeast of Tahiti, the last piece of land before the South Pole. The quarter-tonal choral sound is often reminiscent of African singing, sometimes of western hymns, and at moments even Eastern European singing, in the vocal strength of the women especially. Some songs are translated into English, and others were not able to be translated, since much of the original dialect has been lost. A rare gem, actually hit the "Number 1" spot on Billboard's World Music Chart, highly recommended! 1992. (TRL7192) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Wu Man

Chinese Music for the Pipa

This is exquisite instrumental music for the ancient plucked lute (it dates back to the 7th century), by a performer who is recognized as a master internationally as well as in her native China; in the US she has collaborated with groups such as the Kronos Quartet. The moods on this 1993 solo album are by turn tender, elegant, steadfast, evocative, meditative, and frenetic; at times an earthy folk style is prevalent, at other times a refinement that is similar to that expressed in calligraphy. A 12-page booklet is included, with detailed information about the music and its history. (NIM5368) CD: 15.98

ARABIC * MIDDLE EASTERN

Chaba Fadela & Cheb Sakhroui

Hana Hana

While other ethnic stars can provide excellent examples of Rai music — a modern Arabic pop style whose roots lie in traditional Algerian folk music with African, Moroccan, Spanish and French influences — Chaba (title for a young female) is the premiere voice of the movement that blends cultures and generations to produce a distinctive and beautiful sound. Her rough sensuous voice has been described as "the pride of Algeria" and her compositions as the best examples of Rai music to be found. In fact, the success of Rai, in spite of government attempts to ban it for political reasons, is in large part attributable to her. A strong dance beat, with synthesizers, drum machines and multitracking, are paired with her haunting traditional Arabic vocals. Fadela co-wrote most of the selections, and performs them all with her male duo partner Cheb (title for a young male) Sakhroui. Contains the 85 Mix of their major hit N'Gel Fil. ## Djur Djura

Voice of Silence

"We sing about what our mothers hummed under their breath." We learned about this group from Libana several years ago, and are thrilled to learn of the US release of this album! Djura, an Algerian Berber musician, is the composer, lyricist, and principal vocalist of this band, now based in Paris. Passionately opposed to the constraints on women under an omnipotent, isolated patriarchy, she has dedicated herself to speaking and singing out her message of rebellion, and her songs to "all women who have been deprived of love, knowledge and freedom." So, their songs combine Berber folk melodies with non-traditional poetry, about the continuing struggle of women in North African societies, and the liberation of Algeria. Whether the songs express pain, anger, sorrow, nostalgia or festivity, the music is rhythmic and fresh, with a subtle polyphony. Songs include Ad Gellert Tadas (The Young Girls Are Going To Dance), Filal Azim (You Must Act). She is also a film-maker and best-selling author (The Veil of Silence) in France. We excitedly recommend this artist! 1993. (LB45211) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sazlar

Several folks have requested music appropriate for Middle Eastern and belly dancing — here's one we enthusiastically recommend for this purpose! Sazlar consists of 5 women from New Mexico, dancers and dance instructors, who studied Middle Eastern music with world class musicians after deciding they'd like to create live music for dancers. They perform traditional and contemporary music in Greek, Rumanian, Turkish, Arabic, Lebanese, Hebrew, Egyptian, Tunisian and Moroccan styles. All 5 women contribute vocals and play instruments including ney, oud, saz, darbuka, def, tar, violin, guitar, mandolin and clarinet. Whether you study Middle Eastern dance or not, this music is wonderful to accompany expressive movement of any kind. (SAZ1) CS: 9.98

Yoseta

Calling all Qira Haza fans: don't miss this similarly exciting 1993 "world beat dance" release! This young vocalist was born in Israel of Moroccan and Yemenite descent; she began her career as a soloist while serving in Israel's armed forces, and has continued in an upward spiral of success in both the Middle East and Europe. Native instruments such as the kanoun, oud, zurna, eastern violin and clarinet combine with traditional percussion such as the darbuka and bin drum; these are blended with western technology and production technique to create an amalgam both mystically ancient and hi-tech. Includes Green Eyed Lady, Yoseta ("I feel the presence of Yoseta — the spirit of love! She travels beside me through the desert"), and the traditional Moroccan Sidi Hbib. Recommended! (WDM7201) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Desert Speaks

An engagingly unrelated hybrid of eastern and western musical cultures, this 1996 concoction from the Israeli singer is the work of a modern world citizen. Recorded in Tel Aviv, Yoseta has fused the sounds, instruments and grooves of India, Persia, New York, with her own own Yemenite and Moroccan background. It's all danceable but each song has its own international twist: Arabic flute and tablas mysticism on The Orchestra Replies, the middle-eastern chanting on A Poisson from Morocco, the Spanish guitar and wash of keyboards on Longings, the slinky beat wrapped around a sitar on Taj Mahal, the accordion of a virtual Paris sidewalk cafe of Gold. A definite western pop sensibility permeates; I would unconsciously try to sing along until I would realize the lyrics were not in English! Very fun and accessible for those who want to ease gently into "World Music". (JEN35579) CD: 16.98

JEWISH

Canto Antiguo

Musical Traditions of the Sephardim

This early music ensemble is dedicated to the restoration and performance of Sephardic music from 15th-century Spain... and one reason we recommend it so highly, aside from its startling and exquisite beauty, is its authenticity. The 2-woman 2-man quartet's primary vocalist, mezzo-soprano Bonita Naboun Jara, is a descendant of the Jews of Iberia. Her grandparents were among the ever-diminishing group of people who spoke Ladino as a native and primary language, and her parents did not venture out of their community until Bonita was a child... and so her Sephardic and linguistic background has given rich insight into the poetic intention of each of the 21 songs. They are evocative and haunting with traditional wind, string, and percussion instrumentation. Excellent notes, and again, highly recommended! 1993. (T1215) CD: 16.98

Debbie Friedman

And You Shall Be a Blessing

We've had several people request Debbie's music now, so we're happy to offer you some of her work! She is known as an artist who presents Jewish tradition in a progressive and dignified way. This 1995 album reflects her belief that blessings are not nebulous, distant, magical intangibles, but rather the affirmation of faith in the Source of All Life and the enactment of the potential goodness with which each soul has been endowed. Includes her original Miriam's Song, and others in Hebrew and English, all with captivating original music, some lyrics based on traditional text, performed with her very lovely voice and a multitude of instruments. Arranged and orchestrated by E. Marcy Dieterow-Vaj, who contributed to some early women's music albums like Changer. Especially love the evocative Vahariru. (SWP601) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hanna Tiferet Siegel

The Healing Circle/Refuah Shleyma

Hanna is a composer and singer of Hebrew and English "soul" music. A liturgical artist who brings ancient prayers to life with contemporary melodies, she often calls on the Shekhina, the divine feminine presence, in her prayers and blessings. These 14 songs, recorded with Myrna Rabinowitz and Nomi Ferson, feature gentle vocal harmonies plus acoustic string instruments and percussion. The words and music invoke the healing of body, emotions, mind and soul. Used for listening, singing along, preparing for Shabbos, or healing from an injury or illness, it is filled with a love of Torah and a twinkle of chutzpah. Includes Blessed Be and The Priestess's Blessing. (HTS450) CS: 9.98

Olamama

This 1995 release combines the Hebrew word, "Olam," which means the world, and the universal word for mother, "Mama"... what a wonderful way to call on the Mother of the Universe! The title song invites us to live with the wonder of a child, appreciating the beauty of our Mother Earth and dedicating ourselves to live in harmony with Her. There is something for everyone here: folk ballads, cypso beat, Hasidic nigunim, jazz, and sacred chants. Whether travelling along the highway of life, reaching out for community, or creating sacred space in our homes, it invites us to sing, dance, and celebrate the Light that shines within and all around us. Over 60 minutes; produced by Fran Avni. (HTS451) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Klezmatics

Jews With Horns

Klezmer is "Yiddish party music," a cross-fertilization of sinuous Middle Eastern melodies, gypsy music and circus-like kinetic rhythms of Eastern Europe — happy and sad at the same time, like "laughter through the tears." The world's only radical Jewish roots band is an imaginative, adventurous, whirling dervish of a klezmer band; they weave in merengue, gait, hip-hop rhythms, Brazilian jazz chords and experimental rock. Members include openly lesbian fiddler Alicia Svigals and openly gay lead vocalist/accordionist Larin Sklamberg (note that most vocals are male). Songs include the homo-erotic and lively Mari in a Hat, Bulgars The Kiss, which was inspired by an ACT-UP kiss-in. Fishered, featuring backup vocals by BETTY; and in Karm, a popular Yiddish labor song ("We're hated and persecuted... only because we love") which they perform to comment on anti-gay bigotry. (XEN4032) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Klezmer Conservatory Band

A Touch of Klez!

From the 16 women and men who brought us Oy Cherukah!, an album of dance tunes and Yiddish songs, with Eastern touches in melody and harmony, for the rest of the year. The stand-outs are the rich vocals by Judy Bressler (described by a fan as a heaven-sent Russian goddess), including her brand of Klezmer scat, and Igno Moroson's poignant cornet improvisations. (VAN70455) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn

Gather Round

Subtitled Songs of Celebration and Renewal, this 1989 collection of original rounds and songs in Hebrew and English celebrates our heroines (Miriam, Ruth and Naomi), daily ritual, cycles of life, and peace and justice, with reference only to a genderless and/or feminine God. Sung mostly by an acappella women's ensemble with stunning harmonies, giving a unique sense of the feminist potential within Judaism. Includes Chanukah-Solstice, Miriam's Slow Snake Dance, The Full Moon Songs, Ruth and Naomi, Women Gathering Round. Recommended! (OYS1116) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Otra Haza

Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yemenite Jewish parentage, Otra may be Israel's biggest star, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old!) and world beat/dance/contemporary rhythms and instrumentation... resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Otra is part of the Musica Mazarani movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. 1997. (BHM4002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rosalie Gerut & Friends

We Are Here

Subtitled Songs of Remembrance, Hope & Celebration in the Jewish Tradition, this 1988 album is very unique in that the lead singer, several musicians, and members of the chorus are all children of Holocaust survivors. A special tribute to the martyrs and survivors of the Holocaust. It includes traditional Yiddish folk songs, lively klezmer tunes, original and other contemporary songs, and some songs preserved from the Jewish ghetto of Vilna. It was produced by Hankus Netsky, founder and director of the Klezmer Conservatory Band (with whom Rosalie guest-performs sometimes), and the album includes performances by band members. The CD booklet contains information on the contributors; parents, and we recommend that format especially because it reinforces their purpose of bearing witness to the Holocaust. Lawyer Alan Dershowitz said "One of the most poignant, beautiful and memorable recordings I have ever listened to. Rosalie Gerut's magnificent voice and music make you cry for the past, smile at the future and renew the promise never to forget." The artist is also an active volunteer with the Holocaust Memorial Museum, interviewing survivors and liberators of the Holocaust. (BHM101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shefa Gold

Chants Encounter

This 1994 album of original music from Rabbi Shefa Gold contains both songs and chants. The first half mixes Hebrew and English on songs such as the gospel-like Rani v'Simchi and Rabbi Jack Gabriel's Let That Be a Lesson to Us, and the delicate blessing of Wedding Song. The second half uses repetition to build the power of the Hebrew chants like Baruch Sheamar and Echad, which are mostly taken from passages in the Old Testament. Her warm, comfortable voice is accompanied by piano, flute, percussion, saxophone, guitar, bass and backup vocals to create captivating and, alternately, mesmerizing music. This "shikva" (how do you spell that?) can attest to the fact that this album can appeal to the most secular/inclined listener. Shefa rocks! (BEM1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sunita Staneslow

City of Gold

Delicate, dignified and graceful, this 1995 album of harp improvisations and orchestrations subtitled A Musical Portrait of Jerusalem was recorded in honor of Jerusalem's 3,000th anniversary. Sunita is an acclaimed performer of Jewish music on the harp and founder of the instrumental group, Vida. Here she is accompanied by a chamber ensemble which includes Laura Sewell on cello, producer Shelley Hanson on clarinet, Rachel Green on oboe and English horn, plus some achingly beautiful duets with violinist Tracy Silverman from the Turtle Island String Quartet. Includes Theme From Schindler's List, On the Rivers of Babylon, and the Israeli song Jerusalem, dedicated to the memory of Yitzhak Rabin. Very highly recommended, this is music of nobility and kindness. (MAX2061) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

B'Kol Ishah: Voice of Women Cantors

The voice of the cantor has always been an integral part of Jewish worship; but Jewish tradition forbade women to sing during religious ritual, for fear that the seductiveness in their voices would distract men from prayer. As recently as 10 years ago, there were no women cantors in Conservative Judaism. In 1994, for the first time in 5755 years of Jewish history, 7 women cantors gathered to perform a concert entitled B'Kol Ishah: The Voice of Woman, of sacred and secular music at a synagogue in Minneapolis — and this album preserves that landmark event! There are currently about 120 women cantors nationally; 40 in the Conservative movement, about twice that in Reform Judaism. Spiritual, inspirational, and of course beautiful! (BK1) CS: 9.98

A Different Night

Subtitled A Passover Musical Anthology, this 1995 recording will satisfy the longing of modern audiences for the sounds of Jewish chant. The internationally acclaimed 18-year-old quartet presents an astonishing collection of Passover chants and ballads — including 23 versions of Had Gadya! Instruments include ud, baglama, psaltery, harp, medieval lute, kamnija, Spanish medieval bagpipe, cornetto, chalumeau, bombard, dulciana and more (how many of these can you identify?) sung in Aramaic, Yiddish, Judeo-Spanish, Hebrew, Italian, Judeo-Provençal, and Judeo-Arabic. Long awaited, and truly unique! (KOL018) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Circle of Fire: A Hanukkah Concert

A quartet of 2 women and 2 men, Turtle specializes in the folk songs of the Sephardic Jews who were expelled from Spain and Portugal during the 15th centuries; this 1987 live recording is Volume 5 of their Songs of the Sephardim series. They combine vocal harmonies with exotic historical instruments (such as ud, shawm, soprano chalumeau, saz, baglama), reflecting the traditions of the Sephardim, preserving both the Judeo-Spanish culture and those of the lands through which they travelled while in exile. Songs are performed in Ladino and Hebrew. An unusual and historic Hanukkah gift! (T1159) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Angelique Kidjo Fila

0538

For this 1996 album, Angelique first travelled to her native Benin and recorded the basic tracks with traditional percussionists, flutists, backing singers and Derimbau players (from the liner notes, it appears there was a cast of hundreds involved). The tapes then travelled to Paris, London, Los Angeles and San Francisco to get the state-of-the-art Western treatment. The result is a funky hybrid of sweat and gloss, the spiritual and the worldly, a rich fabric of upbeat jams. Angelique asks in the opener, Sound of the Drums "I've been away for so long that I wonder if the sound of the drums still has its power". To which we reply, "Absolutely!" ## Angelique Kidjo Logozo

0270

Last year, we asked for info on this extraordinary artist, and you all sent us reams, for which we thank you! Born and raised in Benin on Africa's west coast, her extraordinarily fantastic music is a fusion of African polyrhythmic styles reflecting African roots (which includes Brazilian rhythms resulting from the Portuguese colonization of Benin), and Western influences in which you can also hear strains of Arabic and Caribbean sounds. She speaks 8 languages fluently, but recorded this 1991 album in her native tongue of Swahili and Fon. Her political stance is subtly woven into the lyrics which address issues ranging from censorship to torture. She moved to Paris to study law, but now wages her fight for human rights through her music, which reflects a broadening multi-culturalism. Includes the dance hit Satoroga... a beautiful version of one of the most famous traditional African songs. Makaka... Great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance. Very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CD: 16.98

Angelique Kidjo Aye

This very phenomenal artist has released a 1994 album, a seamless blend of driving funk, African cross-rhythms and dance beats topped with her dynamic vocals. Songs include Mmandia, to the Goddess of water ("We need to invoke her to quench the destructive fire of our rage"), Tombo ("Come down, Priestess of voodoo! Come down! Teach us your wisdom"), and Agolo ("At this moment don't despair, let's think of the love that mother earth offers us... Love, life, Mother Earth"... all songs include English and French translations. (MNG9934) CD: 16.98

Aster Aweke Kabu

This release by an amazing Ethiopian songwriter and vocalist, now residing in Washington DC, has an Afro-pop sound, with the exception of the haunting love ballad, Kabu, which means "sacred rock" and employs a marimba for both rhythm and melody... simply lovely! Backed on other tracks by a variety of percussion instruments, horns, keyboards and acoustic bass, her voice is rich and enchanting. Also includes several traditional Ethiopian songs with contemporary arrangements; lyrics are translated in liner notes; recommended! (COL47846) CS: 6.98 CD: 16.98

Cesaria Evora

Here's an album of deep, exquisite beauty! Born on the Cape Verde island of Sao Vicente (off the coast of West Africa; obviously colonized by Portugal, as you'll hear in the language and music — the similarities to Brazilian music are no surprise), she later emigrated to Paris where she began her recording career. Backed by an array of acoustic instruments — multiple guitars (including the cavaquinho, a small 4-string rhythm guitar), violin, accordion and clarinet — she creates a compelling musical atmosphere with her blend of smooth, intoxicating vocals and heartfelt lyrics. If you can imagine a sort-of-Brazilian-sounding Mercedes Sosa, she might sound something like Cesaria; highly recommended! (NON79379) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dark City Sisters/Flying JazzQueens

In the history of modern South African music, the Dark City Sisters form the crucial link between Miriam Makeba and Mahatshini & the Mahotella Queens. The Sisters loosened up the four-part harmonies of groups like these and poured in a distinctly Zulu vocal style. Their sound, known as live, has echoed in the vocal harmonies of virtually every South African pop group of the past 30 years. At last, in 1993, their music was released in America. This is a collection of 14 of the historic group's most popular singles from the 1960's, including Langa More and Sekwiler; also includes two hits by the Sisters' friendly rivals, The Flying Jazz Queens. (EW31) CD: 16.98

Mahotella Queens Women of the World

This 1993 release from the beloved South African mbaqanga trio is a significant one, since it's their first-ever without Mahatshini the "groomer"! With their striking harmonies they perform songs in both English and Zulu, including I'm Not Your Good Time Girl, I Shall Be Released, Homeless, Mbube and more — successfully venturing into the realm of pop and ballads, in addition to the traditional South African songs. Some songs are a cappella here, while others feature a variety of accompaniments. Don't miss this career-marking event, from one of the most successful and popular African groups in the world today! ## Miriam Makeba, w/Belafronte Singers The Click Song

0380

This is a classic, Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Belafronte Folk Singers! It includes her well-known songs, The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Windweh", House of the Rising Sun, Iya Guduzi, which triple tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, the humorous One More Dance, and others, performed in Xosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. Highly recommended! (ESP155564) CD: 16.98

Miriam Makeba Africa

This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1960-1965, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and timely! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup — guitar, percussion — and a lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (refreshing to hear the original African rendition!), The Retreat Song, The Click Song, Kwazulu in the Land of the Zulus, Nongongong, To Those We Love. 23 songs in all. ## Miriam Makeba Sangoma

0383

A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused; these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate prolifically and stunningly the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. (An interesting note: she was also exiled from the U.S. in 1968, after she married Stokely Carmichael.) Highly recommended! (WB25673) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Following the success of THE INDESTRUCTIBLE BEAT OF SOWETO, this 1986 release features "Zulu Live" tracks by four women's groups from South Africa: The Dark City Sisters, The Mqababa Queens, Irene and the Mesodans, and The Mahotella Queens. Wassoulou is the Southern region of Mali, a West African country with strong Middle Eastern cultural influences. Its traditional songs originate in a culture based on farming and hunting, and the region bears distinction due to the fact that 90% of its singers are women! Features strong, fast-paced melodies and rhythms which are led by upper register strings, rather than percussion. Singers include: Sali Sidibe, Oumou Sangare, and Coumba Sidibe (founder of L'Ensemble Instrumentale du Mali). Recommended! (STN1035) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Pronounced with an accent on the second 'ma', this fabulous 5-woman group is led by Marie Daulne, an African/Belgian woman who left her native Zaire as a child to escape the violence there. Returning after years in Belgium, she connected with the forest Pygmies who sheltered her as a child, and the music she and the group offer reflect that shared heritage. Sung in Bantu, French and English, primarily a cappella with some minimalist bass and percussion back-up, the multi-layered harmonies bloom in a riotous profusion of beauty and color. A sincere and superior tribute to and example of the power of the human voice. (LB45183) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Zap Mama Sabsyima

0388

This 1994 release finds the sound of the Belgian/African vocal ensemble continuing to evolve, with the music and multilingual words of leader Marie Daulne sending a powerful universal message. Their range has expanded to include everything from an Australian aboriginal woman's chant to James Brown, and their postmodern harmonizing is as beguiling as ever. (LB45537) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

AFRICAN HERITAGE

Akabu Warrior Queen

NEW

0518

Akabu (which means "African Women"), is an excellent London-based 6-piece, all-female modern reggae/dub group. Their keyboards, guitar, bass sound is painted with the sweet vocals of percussionist/songwriter Yvris Edgill, guitarist/songwriter Valerie Skeete and Madeline Edgill, and the righteous chanting of DJ Samantha "Pepsi" Edgill (coincidence or sisters?). This 1995 album of (mostly) original songs range from the heavy harmony dance floor dub of Fate of the World, to the gentle sway of Curtis Mayfield's People Get Ready, to the melowly powerful title track, to the beat-heavy, chanted No Crack and Madness and Mayhem. Very good stuff! (ONU71) CD: 16.98

Ashkaru Mother Tongue

NEW

0516

Hailing from Toronto, Canada, this fabulous mixed-gender Afro-Caribbean pop combo shaken the dance floor with original compositions on their 1996 release. Calling for world peace, unity and environmental awareness, the lead vocals are shared by Ceina Carroll from the Bahamas and Yared Tesfaye from Ethiopia... backed by congas, bongos, timbales, keyboards, flute, tin whistle, guitar, mbira, trumpet, djembe, bala, and coriander! Maray-Wolayay, suffused with the sounds of the thumb piano, the mbira, is dedicated to the women of Africa. Bellema is a traditional Ethiopian harvest tune adapted as an upbeat tribute to the children of Ethiopia. The flute-led reggae of Sigh Like You Do sounds like one of the better 10,000 Maniacs tunes. Odeying pigeonholing, Ashkaru makes the life of the reviewer difficult, but can lift the soul of any fan of "world beat" dance music. (TRL7214) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bernice Johnson Reagan River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible 1986 a cappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Since I Laid My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Flaming. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Casselberry-DuPree
Hot Corn in the Fire

Cassettes on sale! In source and timing, this 1994 release on Ladyslipper Records moves from ancient to traditional to contemporary, giving the listener a sense of the boundless depth and breadth of the duo's talent. Producer Toshi Reagon has assembled a group of first-rate musicians, and you'll hear the evolution of their signature sound, from acoustic to songs featuring dynamic ancient drum ensembles and shakers... with styles incorporating African, reggae, folk, gospel, R&B, as well as Cajun shuffle! Their material is all relevant and revolutionary as ever, from Last Pioneer, about the struggle for lesbian and gay rights (which they sang at the first National Lesbian Gay March on Washington)... to Pink Dress On (worn by a little girl whose elders are imploring her to sit still in such impractical attire)... an original song, inspired by Odetta's folk style... to The Kite, a compelling song mostly of us first heard performed by Richie Havens many years ago... to Toshi's original Faithful Attitudes, about the AIDS crisis... to Songs of War and Let There Be Peace, which acknowledge that there cannot be peace without justice. Very highly recommended, of course! (LR204) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Casselberry-DuPree
City Down

Cassettes on sale! One of the finest releases of the past decade is now back in print (on Ladyslipper, we are proud to announce), and on CD too. This duo, so long a favorite of audiences at women's festivals and pride rallies, synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary soul, even country, in an extraordinary and exciting blend. From the urban title track, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Obatala, the political South Africa, to the elegy written by Dory Previn to a black woman that did exist — Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Masterfully produced by Linda Tillery, highly recommended! (LR203) CS: 6.99 CD: 15.98

Faith Nolan
Freedom to Love

Focusing on black women historically and presently, Faith's selections — both her originals and her covers — give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles. Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman; an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire; the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery; Ma Rainey's Place It On Me; and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians, recommended! (RR8903) CS: 9.99 CD: 16.99

Linda Tillery/Cultural Heritage Chr
Good Time, A Good Time

This '95 release is an incredible presentation of African American music (much of it from the Gullah sea islands culture): work songs, field hollers, play songs, spirituals, intoned sermons, folk tales and African music, such as the rhythmic chant to the African ocean goddess, Yemaya. The Cultural Heritage Choir, which consists of 5 women — Melanie DeMore and Rashida Oji, and of course Linda and her stunning, fluid alto among them — employs call and response, multi-layered harmonies, poly-rhythms and repetitive verse, song forms which are considered by many historians, anthropologists and ethno-musicologists to be the very root sources of all American popular music. The Choir was assembled by Linda, as part of a 5-year period of research in the field of African American Folk Art. Highly recommended! (TUM1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Melanie DeMore
Share My Song

Melanie's buoyant vocals and rich lyrics, rooted in African American folk tradition, are captured in this 1992 release, featuring the title track, plus Lady Of Grace, I Hear the Mother Calling, Rise Up, Song for Mera, Kuumba and a sizzling rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Recommended! (RR9293) CS: 9.98

Rashida Oji
Big Big Woman

We've looked into a limited quantity of this very excellent but out-of-print 1992 album, so hurry! The artist combines the honesty of women's stories with contemporary music, drawing from spiritual, folk and rap. Her deliveries range from the acappella Vyry's Song, about an enslaved black woman, to acoustic ballads as well as dance tunes with a full band, such as the title cut (about the issue of weight). Also includes the notable No Way, about the pain of incest and battery, and others which deal with racism, alienation, love of earth, and love of women. Playful, innovative, intense and powerful... bleeding, crying and laughing all at the same time! Highly recommended! (FAB404) CS: 10.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Good News

Recorded live in Washington, DC in 1981, includes Breaths, probably their finest, most breath-taking track ever, a top-notch "circular sharing of historic wisdom, boundless energy and love." (FF245) CS: 9.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
We All... Everyone of Us

These 5 black women need and use nothing more than their voices to create music more complete and moving than a full orchestra. On this 1993 release, which includes favorites More Than a Paycheck and Battle for My Life, powerful lyrics join intertwining harmonies which leave a message that haunts you long after the record stops spinning. (FP317) CS: 9.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Still On the Journey: 20th Anniv.

Celebrating 20 years of performances, this 1993 release demonstrates the unequalled mastery of these 5 African-American women warriors for justice — as they continue to push the boundaries of unaccompanied choral music, singing a wide range of African American traditional song styles, including blues, ballads, hymns and rap. Songs include Stay Working Memories, Run On For a Long Time, Ballad of the Broken Word, Come By Here, No Mirrors In My Nana's House, Soljourner's Battle Hymn, Wadeable Nights. Produced by mother-daughter team Bernice Johnson Reagon and Toshi Reagon, the album coincides with the publication of the book. (EB2536) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
In This Land

In the struggle for peace, freedom and justice, 5 incomparable voices rise up in stunning acappella harmonies, reflecting the trying times we all face together. In the inspired congregational tradition of African American culture, this 1992 album goes straight to the hearts and souls of our lives, sharing truth, tragedy, comfort, outrage, hope, love, healing, solidarity and wisdom — and always at the highest levels of beauty and art. Includes (Women Should Be) A Priority, Fulani Chant, Patchwork Quilt, Now That the Buffalo's Gone, I Be Your Water. Always recommended. (EB2583) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Feel Something Drawing Me On

A different album concept from their previous discography, this 1985 release is unique. It is an album of sacred music: from Christian gospel songs sung by congregations in the deep south as well as Liberia, to traditional lullabies, to Marygro, a West African funeral song. Here they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in, and beautifully document the diverse cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. (FF375) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
B'lieve I'll Run On...

This 1978 album contains glorious acappella vocals (gospel-influenced, with an emphasis on harmonies). We have a special fondness for this album because it contains one of their most specific pro-lesbian statements, a song for women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers. It also contains originals about nuclear proliferation and Jimmy Carter; the experiences of Black women; and a few classics about specific strong Black women: Soljourner Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. Recommended! (RR3500) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Five Black Women Singing Mostly Acappella

Five Black women singing mostly acappella. Their name "symbolizes the range of colors worn by Black women: strength, consistency, warmth & gentleness." Intertwining harmonies accentuate their gospel sound. Songs on their 1976 album range from gospel to love songs to those with a specific political message. Includes Joann Little & Dream Variations. (FF022) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Breaths

This compact disc-only release is a combination of the cassette titles Good News and We All... Everyone of Us. Includes Biko, Eko's Song, Oughta Be A Woman: More Than A Paycheck, Azarian Freedom Song, Study War No More, Chile, Waters Run Red, Through Soweto, titles and more. Over 60 minutes in length. (FF105) CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Live at Carnegie Hall (Double)

This 1988 double-album release, containing all new material from both secular/topical and spiritual sources, was recorded live to preserve the dynamism, vitality, and immediacy of an in-concert experience of this acappella ensemble. Includes the African Denko, Song of the Exile, Ode to the International Debt, Green Song, Letter to Martin, Revelations. Makaya highly recommended. (FF106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
The Other Side

Sweet Honey addresses a spectrum of issues with a blend of contemporary, protest, topical, personal and love songs. This 1985 release includes Wenchesno (We Will Win), Mandacappella (a vocal improvisation based on West African drum rhythms), Woody Guthrie's Depothes, and Bernice Reagon's original Ma Frances. Recommended as always! (FF365) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Sacred Ground

African American religious music, born of oppression and tempered by resistance, profoundly influences almost every other modern genre: jazz, blues, rock and even country. On this 1995 release, this peerless ensemble revisits traditional African American religious music with reverence and passion, and adds their own boldly original explorations of what "sacred" means today. No More Auction Block and Jordan River testify to faith and fortitude during centuries of slavery, whereas Mystic Oceans and Would You Harbor Me expand and clarify modern notions of sanctity and right action. Together, these songs create a deeply personal yet evocative journey, delving into the mists of distant memory for contemporary relevance. (EB42580) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tiye Giraud
Dirty Dishy Divine

This unique 1994 release is taken from Tiye's tasty music/alter piece by the same name. Inspired by her mother's personal experience as a traveling minstrel, it is a tribute to African American musicians who crossed the country performing in traveling tent shows, carnivals and side shows, and endured and excelled despite Jim Crow laws. From Paulina Sophie whose strange encounter with a snake grants her an eerie empowerment, to Touch Song that sings of an odd alternative to the ultimate lover, to the defiant acappella of Gandy Dancer, to the title track that crackles with a bold and racy vitality, this album probes the psyches of those early black performers who sowed the seeds of jazz, rock, and R&B. The bewitching instrumentation here ranges from beer bottles to banjos to berrim-bacs. (TGR2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Toshi Reagon
The Rejected Stone

When she's not producing excellent music for folks like Casselberry DuPree, Toshi makes some of the freshest music around — she has a firm foundation in traditional African American music (thanks Bernice!) which she fuses with R&B and alternative rock influences for a truly inspired sound. 5 of the 8 songs on this 1994 release are originals, including Look Up Ahead, which rocks; others have new arrangements by her, including The Other Side. Nona Hendryx contributes additional vocal production on This Could Be Heaven; Toshi accompanies her own vocals on guitar, bass, and drums. A wonderful blend of past, present and future by an incredibly talented woman, highly recommended! (PRM6482) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Reggae Songbirds

The singing, swaying, syncretized world of Jamaican reggae is a very male-dominated domain. Sonia Pottinger, of High Note Records, was an exception. She produced a number of classic hits that are collected here, including: I Shall Sing by Judy Mowatt, Where Is the Love? by Sonya Spence and Sleeping Out of Babylon by Marcia Griffiths. Also features Carlene Davis, The Ebony Sisters, and others. (HB176) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various: Wade in the Water Vol. I
African American Spirituals

Bernice Johnson Reagon, founder of Sweet Honey in the Rock, compiled and annotated the valuable Wade in the Water series; this is its first volume, subtitled The Concert Tradition. The African American concert spiritual tradition, which combines African and formal European classical performance styles, began with a tour by Fisk College students in 1871 and continues today on college and university campuses throughout the US. This 1994 release contains 19 tracks by a variety of choirs, including The Fisk Jubilee Singers and the Howard University Chamber Choir. (SF40072) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various: Wade in the Water Vol. II
African Amer Congregational Singing

This 1994 album of ring shouts, lined hymns, and call-and-response devotional songs honors the 19th century roots of African American congregational singing, and demonstrates how vivaciously these styles endure as a vital part of community worship throughout the US today. Recordings were made in 1989 and 1992, compiled by Bernice Johnson Reagon; singers include The McIntosh County Shouters, The Rev. C.J. Johnson, and The Blue Spring Missionary Baptist Association Delegation. (SF40073) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

African American Gospel

On this 1994 release subtitled The Pioneering Composers, vocalists such as Tooti Reagon, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Michele Lancroster, Bernice Johnson Reagon, and Yasmien celebrate the work and legacy of six composers who created a new repertoire of sacred song. African American gospel music, which synthesizes African music, dance, poetry, oratory and drama, is as much a declaration of cultural identity as it is a celebration of the Christian experience of salvation and hope. Compiled by Bernice Johnson Reagon. (SF40074) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various: Wade in the Water Vol. IV

African American Community Gospel

NATIVE AMERICAN

Alice Gomez

Flute Dreams

This 1994 release is a particularly evocative instrumental album with a multiple-flute sound, revealing influences of the cultural heritage of the Native peoples of the Americas (especially Aztec, Inca and Mayan) ... and reflecting the specific belief that playing a flute or a variety of flutes would bring special dreams. Composer Alice Gomez is a Mexican-American of Mayan descent, with several symphonies and chamber works to her credit. Here she plays keyboard, guitar and ceremonial acoustic percussion. Along with her sister Madalyn Blanchett on recorder/flutes and Marilyn Rife on marimba, keyboards, and more percussion, she has created gorgeous music which ranges from primal ritual to symphonic in scope. You may already be familiar with some of her other work, if you've listened to Marimba Quest. Gorgeous ... Recommended! (TT125) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alice Gomez w/M. Blanchett, M. Rife

Journeys of the Flute

Through a series of original compositions, Alice Gomez traces the migrations of the Native peoples of the Western Hemisphere and their flute music. The journey starts on the American Great Plains, then moves to the fabled city of Chichen Itza where the cries of an eagle mix with a haunting flute melody; then onto Mayan themes and legends, and finally the sonic journey is completed in the Incan region of the Andes mountains. Exquisite, evocative multiple flutes/recorders are backed by guitar, synthesizers, marimba and percussion, performed by Alice, her sister Madalyn Blanchett, and Marilyn Rife. The composer has drawn on her multi-cultural background to create a work of deep beauty ... recommended! (TT128) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

While the Eagle Sleeps

This 1996 release takes its inspiration from Native lullabies and night chants. Both upbeat and reflective compositions for flute, recorders and the clay ocarina are framed by ceremonial percussive instruments (Tarahumara drums, Peruvian Bombo, African basket rattles, Native American dance bells, log drum), acoustic guitar, Yaqui harp, modern mood textures and chanting. Alice is accompanied by Madalyn Blanchett and Marilyn Rife on this graceful and serene album. (TT130) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle

Empowering Spiritual Warrior

Subtitled Walking a Beauty Path, this is an Elder Sister's teaching of techniques and tools for empowerment, by healing our own dysfunction and disharmony, by touching the Great Mystery to empower our spiritual actions, and by literally getting our hands in the sweet soil of Mother Earth to reflower this exquisite garden given us by Earth and Spirit. Chants, invocations, and spoken teachings are included: Attitude of Gratitude, Tools for the Journey, Vision Beauty Song, and more. (BME9) CS: 10.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle (w/K Gardner)

The Shaman's Cave

This late 1993 release contains 11 songs actually recorded in an ancient ceremonial Shaman's cave, known to have been used by two-leggeds for at least 6000 years, with beautiful background flute music by Kay Gardner and Ken Light. Brooke stood deep in a vaulted, dripping chamber (a challenging setting for a "live" recording!) near where a stone altar still remains; when this altar was found, a huge old buffalo skull lay upon it, and a stone carved on one side with a bear, on the other side a buffalo. Includes Altar Song, Women's Healing Song, Vision Wise. (BME13) CS: 10.98

Maiden

Subtitled Lessons of Menarche, these teachings are a part of the moon time (menstrual) series to awaken women to the ancient mysteries alive within their bodies. This tape focuses on the lessons and rituals involved in the passage from girlhood to womanhood — a young woman's first moon time. It opens with a beautiful song by Andrea Lyman, Her Alone They Sing Over, from her Return To Remember album; then it is primarily a spoken program, with 3 songs by Brooke. (BME14) CS: 10.98

A Gift of Song

Songs with messages of change and rebirth, with Brooke's drum accompaniment and gorgeous harmony vocals (plus a little harp) by Anne Williams. Includes Mother I Feel You, Blood of Life, about a woman's moon time cycle, Whirlwind Woman, or shaman woman, and others from Seneca, Suli, African, Maori, and other traditions, as well as originals by both Brooke and Anne. A wonderful collaboration, newly released on CD in late 1995. (BME8) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Joanne Shenandoah

Matriarch

This 1996 release is a collection of complex women's songs rooted in the history of the Haudenosaunee (the People of the Longhouse), composed to honor all women as the Lifegivers and as a series of thanksgivings for the bounties of Mother Earth, the true Matriarch and sustainer of us all. Recorded at ancient village sites on Oneida Territory, Joanne's solo voice is subtly enhanced by Native flute, drums and guitar. The liner notes offer an excellent overview of Haudenosaunee women's history and culture; individual songs are named after women members of the Shenandoah family, with notes about their personalities and contributions to the community. (SWR913) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah

Joanne, who was given the name Deguwa What'wa, "She Sings," is a member of the Oneida Nation-Iroquois Confederacy from NY; her mother is a Wolf Clan mother for the Oneida people. Through her contemporary ballads, she presents the Native American philosophy and heritage which continues today among the Iroquois and other tribes. Her 1989 album features her strong vocals in both English and Iroquois, with an enchanting blend of flute, rattles, bells, drums, harmonica, guitar and synthesizer. Her mostly original selections include We Are the Iroquois, They Don't Listen, Traditional Iroquois Social Songs. Recommended. (CNY545) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Once in a Red Moon

This artist's work has won deserved appreciation; she was named 1994 Native Musician of the Year by the First Americans in the Arts, for preserving traditional values within the field of contemporary music. She writes her songs both from her own experience as an Oneida and from memories passed down through generations. These stories, old and new, come alive in her ballads, as she witnesses for the preservation of the environment and an end to violence and oppression, while stressing the importance of roots. Flutes, violin, and acoustic guitar create a sound reminiscent of traditional country on this 1994 release, and the clarity of Joanne's talented voice is captivating. (CNY548) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Life Blood

This 1995 release features ancient Iroquois Haudenosaunee chants and melodies beautifully sung by Joanne (whose Native name means "She Sings" in the Oneida language), accompanied by the contemporary piano stylings of Peter Kater. Included are 2 women's songs — Woman's Dance and Path of Beauty — as well as a friendship song, a thunder dance, a fish dance, a pigeon song, and 2 rabbit songs. The project was recorded in Saugerties, NY near the site of the Woodstock '94 festival which she opened with her original song America, and some of you saw her in a segment of the 1995 PBS series How The West Was Lost. ## Joy Harjo and Poetic Justice

Letter From the End of the 20th C.

Poet Joy Harjo, author of many books including The Woman Who Fell From the Sky, is an enrolled member of the Muscogee tribe. Poetic Justice is a 6-member Native American reggae/jazz/rock band formed to provide a musical union with Joy's poetry. Joy plays saxophone and speaks her lyrical words over the multi-ethnic sounds, while Oskotans Susan and John Williams, Hopi Frank Poocha, Isleta Pueblo/Niwaño Willie Bluehouse Johnson and Richard Carvajal jam on drums, guitars and bass. If you missed them opening for the Indigo Girls on the "Honor The Earth" tour, here is another chance to experience this powerful music! (RED1) CD: 15.98

Lisa LaRue

Beloved Tribal Women

On this very unique album of instrumental music, Cherokee composer/keyboardist Lisa LaRue honors various Native women with 12 songs for synthesizer and piano with percussion accompaniment. Corresponding to each piece, the booklet contains a narrative of an important woman in Native history, plus a beautiful painting by Creek artist Joan Hill. Lisa says, "I have selected Indian women who achieved greatness or faced challenges, but are little known to some Indians, and especially non-Indian Americans. ... The Cherokees were a matriarchal society. ... I think it is important for today's people to see that this is not such a new idea." This 1994 album is issued by a Native American record company. Very beautiful, and very recommended for libraries and schools as well as individuals! (NV104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Little Wolf Band Dream Song

This 1995 album is a fascinating blend of traditional Native American and ambient music, imbued with a very meditative and spiritual feeling. Jim Wison, a Cherokee, wrote most of the music and did the subtle "programming" effects. Sublime vocals/wordless chants are provided by Priscilla Coolidge and Laura Coolidge-Satterfield (since Rita Coolidge is flanked in the liner notes, I'm assuming a family connection...) with the exception of Chief Dan George chanting on his own Prayer Song. Highlights are the gentle weaving of voices and drums on Song For The Journey and the powerful and plaintive prayer (in English) of the title track. A very original and compelling album! (TRL7212) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Native Flute Ensemble Ritual Mesa

Jessita Reyes, Lois Little Bear, and John "Pinky" Martinez blend Native American flute, Taos Drum, Yagui rain stick, Hopi rattle, and rain scraper with occasional synthesizer to create an environment in which traditional Southwestern and contemporary idioms meet. Clearly inspired by Native American ceremonial music, the sound is at once serene and evocative, unadorned yet complete... a soundscape of sacred sites and wondrous mesas. (TT101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Native Flute Ensemble Gathering of Shamen

The theme of this 1993 release is the regular gatherings held by shamen in the Black Hills of South Dakota, the Four Corners Region of the American Southwest, and Atitlan in Guatemala. Each of the 9 compositions, spotlighting the Native American cedar flute with enhancements by Native percussion and synthesizers, relates to one of these "power" areas, with distinct sounds and styles that will guide listeners on their aural journey. (TT119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Pura Fe Caution to the Wind

After many requests for work by this Tuscarora Indian vocalist, we are pleased to offer her debut 1995 solo album! The majority of the material here could be called modern R&B or jazz, but Great Grandpa's Banjo, which she wrote herself, is more in the style of Sweet Honey in the Rock. Roots/Fire the Cost of Freedom, the powerful closing track, incorporates traditional Native American chanting and recalls a more traditional style. Her amazing voice is also showcased beautifully against subtler arrangements like Bye Bye Missy Blue, Wait Till You Come Back, and This Is Progress. (CAC5013) CD: 15.98

Red Road Ensemble/Robbie Robertson Music for the Native Americans

Robbie Robertson (of The Band fame) coordinated this 1994 album of ambient-styled Native American (and Native American inspired) music. Ulali (Pura Fe, Soni and Jeni) sing their Mahk Jchi (Heartbeat Drum Song) and Ancestor Song (with The Silvercloud Singers). Kathleen, a duo made up of Florent Volant and Claude Mackenzie, are from the Innu tribe in Northeast Quebec and sing Akua Tuta in their native tongue. The rest of the album features Robbie and The Red Road Ensemble with "Coolidge" — made up of Rita and Priscilla Coolidge and Laura Satterfield — singing most of the backing vocals. Coolidge also presents the traditional Cherokee Morning Song, co-arranged by Rita. The use of synthesizers and other high-tech recording techniques makes this, ultimately, a very relaxing album of Native stories in a contemporary context. (CAP28295) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rita Coolidge Greatest Hits

This well-known vocalist, of Cherokee descent, has had a strong presence in American popular music since the early 70's. Many of her best-known songs are included here: Nice Feeling, (Your Love Has Lifted Me) Higher and Higher, Fever, Born Under a Bad Sign and 8 more. (AM3238) CS: 7.98 CD: 13.98

Sharon Burch Yazzie Girl

Beautiful contemporary expressions of traditional Navajo culture and spirituality, with original songs inspired by the chants and prayers she recalls from her childhood. Includes the song about the special bond among 4 generations of women from Sharon's maternal family (Red Shell Necklace Woman; White Shell Necklace Woman; Turquoise Necklace Woman — Sharon herself — and Obsidian Necklace Woman); Mother Earth; The Chant; Sacred Mountains; New Born Blessing; The Rain Song; and more. She accompanies her lovely vocals with guitar. 7 selections on this 1999 release are in Navajo, 2 in English and Navajo, with translations and transliterations included. Highly recommended! (CNY534) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sharon Burch Touch The Sweet Earth

Combining Navajo lyrics with folk-style melodies, this 1995 release features Sharon's originals plus a powerful version of Kate Wolf's Brother Warrior. The songs reflect on the themes of journeys of motherhood, exploration, family, survival and loss. On Hoogahs, the circular dwelling of the Navajo, Sharon utilizes circular harmonizations to sing about the respect for home. Welcome Home describes the Navajo's return to their homelands after 4 years of imprisonment by US troops in the 1800's and the welcoming sight of the mountains enriching the land of the Dine. Through her music, she explains the concept "to walk in beauty," which is "to experience all facets of your emotions. Working to balance the positive and negative forces you to really be alive... Experience all that leads to beauty." Oh yes. (CNY535) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sissy Goodhouse The Third Circle

The Third Circle is the Wicaglati, or women singers. We women have our own circle, not only around the drum but in life, too. From the bringing of the pipe, to the bringing forth of new life, we women have special places that insure the continuing of us as a people. Lakota culture has depended on the women since the beginning of time. Women display this at the drum. We add strength to the music, sometimes carrying or holding the song just a little longer. On this 1994 release, these Lakota songs and chants mirror the strength and simplicity of the drum itself. Sissy's husband and children also contribute vocals. (MAK113) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ulali Mahk Jchi

Several of you have requested music by this First Nations women's acappella trio who have toured with the Indigo Girls. ## Amy Ford Last Night's Dream

A rhythmic sound weaving of acoustic percussion, this 1995 album from a percussionist, teacher, leader and ex-student of Babatundé Olatunji is based primarily on West African rhythms. The predominant drum is the djembe but many other percussive instruments appear such as ju-ju, bongos, ng, caxixi, singstus, bar chimes and udu, just to name a few. Selections include Honey Goddess, Spider's Weave, Diving In, and other evocative titles. ## Ase Drumming Circle Souls A'Gathered

Pronounced Ah-Shay, this women's drumming and percussion group celebrates the diversity of African cultural expression through music and song. Their rich vocal blends, interlaced songs and spirit-driven drumming speak to their experiences as children of a culturally rich and musical diaspora. Their repertoire ranges from folkloric and ceremonial to contemporary music from North America, Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean, strongly influenced by the rhythms, chants and legends of the Yoruba, Dahomey and Vodou traditions... and embedded with themes of celebration, liberation and love. Individually, members have performed with Women of the Calabash, Rhythm Express, MotherSpirit Theatre Ensemble, Salsa Root, Daughters of the Drum, and other groups you may have had the good fortune to see. This exciting 1994 release is very highly recommended! (ASE1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden All Hearts Beating

On this late 1990 release which is subtitled Drumming From the Source to the Core, Barbara takes you on an excursion through her world of drumming: an array of sounds, drums and percussion instruments paint a collage of multi-dimensional rhythms that resonate on a primal level. From the slow and sensual to the more uptempo pieces, you're surrounded with the quiet fire that is the underlying link of Barbara's creative expression... and in Chant-Mant features the wonderful guest vocalist Rhannon. Beauty in the Beat

This 1998 release "spans the global possibilities of rhythm-driven melodies" . . . it's like a trip around the rhythmic world! Barbara employs many types of drums and percussion, including trap drums, hand drums, wooden blocks, bells and shakers — 40 different instruments in all — capturing the universal power of drumming with a delicacy that is rarely heard. Each of the 8 pieces, including Heaven's Bells, Heartbeat Culture, and Drumming A-Hourst, is a story, a mood, an exotic country of its own, imbued with a calm excitement that relaxes and energizes simultaneously. Very hot and very fabulous! (CL555) CD: 15.98

Conga Drumming (Book & CD Tape Set)

Want to learn conga drumming? Here's the perfect way to begin! Subtitled A Beginner's Guide to Playing With Time, this complete step-by-step course on conga drumming features charts which are big and easy to understand, instructions which are clear and accessible to the non-musician, and a CD or tape (narrated by Aian) which contains samples of all 175 rhythms included in the book. The authors say, "The conga drum grabbed us a few years back and plunged us deep into the magical world of Afro-Cuban rhythms. It was as if after a lifetime of singing in unison we had suddenly discovered harmony. We found a way to meditate that didn't require silence, a source of community that didn't require words, and a wellspring of pleasure that never ran dry." Don't wait to get started! Rhythms of Life

We don't get many percussion tapes, and it's a pleasure to include one from a local Durham NC duo. Inspired by West African traditions, the pieces wind through a variety of pace and emotion, utilizing a diversity of instruments: djembe, balafon, flute, canza, gongong, kalin (log drum), bells, dionna, djundun, songba, shakers, and agogo, to name a dozen . . . Includes Celebration, Foto Funk, Cole D'Vere Inspiration. Cover art by "Goddess Storyteller" Louise Kessel. A great album for moving and/or perceiving along . . . Brooke Medicine Eagle
Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing, as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a half hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin . . . with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk"); and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. EarthSpirit Community

Edwina Lee Tyler
Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of dombek drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals. We've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "the cool side" . . . and progressively heats things up as she performs original and progressively heated things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage) as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wade in the Water) and a West African song (Ki Yak Ki Yak). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive, in your mind and your body! (PP01) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth
Endless Wave Vol. 1

This 1996 album, divided into two parts, artfully combines her subtle, mesmerizing narrations with percussion-oriented dance music. The first half is a companion piece to the video "work-out", The Wave, and is designed to lead listeners/participants through the Five Rhythms (Flowing, Staccato, Chaos, Lyrical, Stillness), with narrated instruction by Gabrielle. The second half features new music, without narration, to inspire listeners to create their own unique and unguided "movement journey". Listeners can move at their own level of skill, regardless of age, weight, dance experience or fitness level. Great for exercise, trance dancing, and/or spiritual release! (RAV5854) CS: 9.98 . . . Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors
Waves

Haunting and uplifting, this 1991 release seduces the listener into an ecstatic whirlpool. A dervish wind blowing through a rising tide of rhythm and voice, the dance it evokes is joyful, abandoned and tribal. Selections include Invocation, Surrender, Waves, Ecstasy, Trance, Spirit. (RAV5916) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythmic patterns of the shamanic journey. I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume, it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV5683) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Trance

This 1992 release is "trance" dance music that calls the soul into the body, the body into the beat, and the beat into the belly . . . as it explores primal dance rhythms and ecstatic trance. Great for dancing around a fire . . . or around your living room! Drums and other percussion are accompanied by sax, didgeridoo, dholak, synthesizer, and Bie pen! ashtay!! among other exotic and exotic instruments. (RAV5927) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Luna

Gabrielle graces us with a 1994 release that is remarkably female-inspired, from the cover art to the album title to the song titles (Mother Night, Persephone's Song). Tongues

This 1995 release is intense! A lot of vocal work is embedded in strong rhythmic pulses: it includes chanting, vocalizations, percussive sounds, humming sounds, inspirational sounds, and even a song with actual words — in English — a first for this artist! Also features beautiful guitar work on several tracks, as well as their trademark acoustic drums: congas, asheiko, djembe, djun-djun, etc. Gabrielle and her troupe continue to turn out fabulous soundtracks for the union of body and spirit. Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors
Bones

a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future, a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones. Gabrielle's 1988 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced . . . skeletally! Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-france music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of asheiko or djembe. Taos drum, kisherba, log drum, toke, jun-jun, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Eternity. We have nothing else like this in our catalog. Let yourself loose with this one! (RAV5852) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Janalea Hoffman
Therapeutic Drumming

This specially metered drumming, in beats of three to correspond to a normal heartbeat, is intended to reduce heart rate and blood pressure, because your body will attempt to synchronize itself with external sounds. The music starts at exactly 80 beats a minute, and gradually slows down to 50 beats per minute. Accompanying the drum are Andean clay flutes, alto recorder, flute, cello and recorded wind sounds . . . so it's beautiful and relaxing, even aside from the specific therapeutic effects! Also good for shamanic work: it will help you into a hypnotic state, and enhance your inner vision imagery. Just don't pop this into your car cassette deck! (RM52) CS: 10.98

Jessica Marcus
No Thinkin' Aloud

For this Conga Drum Teaching Tape and Booklet set, a little prior experience or practice is probably a good thing. She teaches many fabulous rhythms from Africa and Cuba, and the "booklet" (actually it's the insert card) gives diagrams for each rhythm. And, as she explains, "Drumming these rhythms establishes a spiritual connection with our collective past. The experience of playing these rhythms offers the possibility of a deeper understanding of ourselves, and also can open the body/ mind/ spirit to expansive spiritual growth." (TP003) CS: 9.98

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels
Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/ North African/ Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius: the instruments speak in tonalities of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrances in the listener. Titles include Cone of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together; several feature spoken parts. This 1992 album is simply one of the most honest and respectful recordings of women's ritual music we've ever listened to . . . also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Highly recommended! (RDM11) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Madam Omoje & Madam Ogunfalu
Yoruba Women of the Drum

This 1995 release compiles two different styles of Nigerian voice-and-percussion music, also known as Yoruba street percussion, that have traditionally been associated with women. Madam Mujdat Ogunfalu and her Asake Waka group perform waka, a Muslim-derived style that utilizes chanting, a percussive instrument made of a hammered tin disc surrounded by metal rings and the four-finger tenor finger piano called the agidigbo. Madam Comfort Omoje and her Asake Igo group perform asheko, which derives from the Christian Yoruba of Lagos who had, in turn, been influenced by the samba from Brazil, via the community of returned slaves known as aguda. Both styles blend older musical traditions with modern hymns, slang and imported musical styles to create hypnotic 17-18 minute "song-suites". Most excellent! (ORG36) CD: 15.98

Marilyn Rife with Alice Gomez
Seasons of the Drum

The sounds of timpani (kettle drums) are uniquely dramatic, and when combined on this 1995 album with traditional Native American percussion instruments and flute plus nature sounds, the result is quite evocative. Marilyn, a timpanist and percussionist with the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra, collaborates here with composer/ synthesist/ percussionist Alice Gomez and Alice's sister, flutist Madalyn Bianchetti. Alice's compositions reflect both her Latino and Mexican Indian heritage: here she features the timpani as a melody instrument as well as a percussion instrument — the timpani can create a variety of tones by utilizing a pedal at the base of each drum. A beautiful, amazing sonic journey of the seasons! (TT129) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff
Yamataka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuoso Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later. Sounds heard here are unlike any other, emulating echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, mysterious, and meditative... raising the level of intensity through whirling gyrations, spectral harmonics and the cyclical resonations of the Tibetan Bells. One world-class vocalist, Flora Purim, teams up with several "world" percussionists — Mickey of course (drummer for the Grateful Dead, for any of you who missed that part of history), plus Arto Moreira, Sikru Adegoju, and Vikku — on this groundbreaking, noteworthy, multi-cultural 1991 album. A thrilling series of compositions expresses the wide variety of rhythms, tones, and lyric power of percussion. (RYK206) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Terra Drums

Nuru (Nurudafina Pili Abena)
Drum Call

"Rhythm is life. Vibration is breath. The heartbeat is the core of one's being." So says Nuru, conga, djembe player, and Afro-Caribbean and West African percussionist, who some of you know from the OneSpirit duo... and we proudly release this mid-1994 album on the Ladyslipper label! It opens with an inspired program of calls, celebratory chants and prayers, to the orisa (pronounced 'orisha'), or Yoruba deities. They're performed in the Yoruba/Lucumi language in a call-and-response style, with Nuru in lead, and several voices in response, with chants to deities such as Yemaya, ocean goddess and mother of all; Oshun, river goddess of love; Shango, god of thunder and lightning; Nuru then performs 3 all-instrumental djembe pieces; then to a Cuban instrumental, La Rumba; and lastly the unexpected hip-hop of the title track, with chorus and children's voices, and its critical message. Throughout, Nuru plays an astounding array of percussion, including 3 different congas (conga, quinto, tumbi), djembe, shakers, rain rattles, Ghanaian rain stick, bells, agogo, maracas, claves, djoung djoung, and more!! Experience the talent of this master percussionist. Highly recommended! (LR114) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

With help from a few great percussionists, she performs 15-minute jams of West African 4/4, 7/4, and 5/4 beats with congas, djembe, ankle bells, bongos and brikete, a palpat rhythm with quimbé, congas and maracas, samba with repinique, congas, danza and surdo, funk and a few others. 2 full hours of rhythm: the next best thing to a live percussion group for dance and movement; a percussion lover's and dancer's dream! Ubaka Hill
ShapeShifters

1995 brings a cause for true celebration: one of the most dynamic performers anywhere on earth finally releases her debut album, on Ladyslipper Records! We've never had so many requests for a single artist over so many years! Ubaka is a fiery, passionate, and radiant drummer, charter singer whose performance builds bridges and transcends boundaries while elevating the spirits of all who hear — her music is intensely woman-identified, life-loving, transformative, spiritual, and revolutionary, blending song, poetry, and myth into a heady brew. Motherbeat joyfully brings to life the exuberant imagery of women dancing down through the centuries. Night Flight, an evocative performance piece which incorporates the chant Spirit of the Wind, is a perfect vehicle for Ubaka's depth, artistry and grace; her intense rendition of the Jayne Cortez poem If The Drum Is A Woman will send chills down your spine; in High Massakela's Marketplace, she evokes the beauty of a woman she meets and spends a night of ecstasy with; and her trademark The Womyn United ("shall never be defeated/divided") is energizing and inspirational. Also includes a few fantastic percussion instrumentals for movement and dance. Our highest recommendation here — it deserves to go platinum! Warning: be prepared to experience an uncontrollable urge to buy a drum and join a drumming circle. (LR116) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

This mixed group of women and men performs original rounds and chants, mostly a cappella with percussion, with Native American drumming and themes of Great Spirit, Mother Earth, vision, wisdom, dance. Adele Getty and Lou Montgomery
Spiritual Healing

These two singers, whose voices have graced several other releases we have carried, present a 1994 extended chant album whose purpose is self-evident. Adele writes, "Whenever we sing together, we breathe together, when we breathe together we find ourselves in resonance with one another. This resonant field can be the laying-on-of-hands. It is one of the great myths of our time that healing should be traumatic, painful, and drawn out. It can be instantaneous, dramatic and ecstatic. All that is required is to sing, open to love, step aside and let the healing energy come through. This chant was a gift from the spirit. May it uplift your soul, and soothe and heal what ails you." Water In The Eyes of Time

All ye who find chant albums centering and useful, please take note! Founder of the Christa Healing Institute in Colorado, Adriene Wentworth has created a 1995 album of nine mantras set to original music of rhythmic upbeat melodies. Gentle bells, keyboards, didgeridoo, percussion, strings and nature sounds accompany the mantras to Gayatri, Lakshmi, Krishna, Ganesha, Rama, Shiva, Durga, Hanuman and Panduranga. These meditative chants were created to empower, heal and invoke protection. Amy Williams
Voices from the Temple Within

Trained in classic opera, Amy Williams had not originally intended to write music. A licensed massage therapist and Reiki healer, she began "listening" on her massage clients to soothe and heal them. Soon the tones transformed into chants and then into the songs that are on this 1995 album. Her soprano voice sings out praises to angels, the Lord, Mother Goddess, The Maker, Great Spirit, Earth Mother and the Light. Her combination of a cappella performances (invocation) and songs accompanied by subtle piano, synthesizer and harmony vocals (Earth Mother) yields an unusual album that speaks to the soul. Return to Remember

Even more beautiful than her first tape, she calls this one a musical map: a journey of remembering... and indeed something here seems to spark some ancient recall. Very female, ritualistic, and powerful, the songs and chants by this white student of healing and wholeness, earth stewardship and Native-based spirituality are poems to the Divine Mother and Mother Earth in her various forms. It's again a source of new chants, as well as an absolutely gorgeous blend of instrumental tape colors and lush vocal textures, woven into a shimmering tapestry of light. Includes Goddess of Fire, She Aims They Sing Over, Earthling, Dance, Ancient Voices, and more. 1991. (MB2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Angels of Venice Music for Harp, Flute, and Cello

These three women — Carol Tatum, Suzanne Teng, and Sarah O'Brien — state that they are dedicated to expressing, through music, the beauty and mystery of the human spirit and celebrating the gift of life. One way they express beauty and mystery is to defy convention and perform in white instead of traditional black. And although their 1995 album opens with the well-known Bach's Canon, it immediately moves beyond what we already know to break new ground with all original pieces, with the exception of the traditional Greenleafes. Includes Night Spirits, Luna Mystica, The Enchanted Forest, Chamberlaine, Romantic and dreamy (EPH1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Angels of Venice Awake Inside a Dream

This 1995 album is like a rich, velvet-lined treasure chest of musical jewels. The addition of guest vocalists (along with the sturdy guitar, oud, Irish bouzouki, recorder, Chinese bamboo flute, hammered dulcimer, udu, nagada, dundun, and Moroccan clay drum) creates a mystical, exotic album that explores musical borders. Harpist Carol Tatum wrote many of the songs, inspired by photos of China (China Moon), the film Braveheart (Lionheart), and French pianist Erik Satie (Light at the Edge of the World). She also arranged A Chantier Mer, the only surviving piece of French medieval troubadour music (12th century) written by a woman, Comtesse Beatrice de Dia. Absolutely recommended! ## Ani Williams & Mazatl Galindo Luna Trece (13 Moons)

Inspired by the 13 per-year cycle of the moon ... the 13 sacred trees in the Celtic yearly round ... and the ancient talisman symbols which were based on the natural rhythms of the moon, stars and planets ... harpist and vocalist Ani Williams wrote the majority of these celestial compositions on this exceptional 1995 album. Others were written by her musical collaborator Mazatl Galindo, who plays hoop drum, bells, seed pod rattles, turtle shells, kalimba, quena, and wind flute, as he infuses the entire album with an ancient yet timeless Latin American feeling. Also includes the traditional Aztec Kochal, as well as Casa de Pinturas, an interpretation from a 14th century Aztec poem. Lunar ... and lovely! (WW5) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Williams Song of Isis

Recorded and recorded in the Pyramids of Egypt during the Harmonic Convergence of 1987, this very special recording of harp, double pipes, flute, bells, and voice was created after a preparatory boat trip down the Nile. The echoing power of Spirit sings out through these inspired musical blessings, invocations, chants, and hymns to the great goddess, beautifully woven in delicate strands of sound. Timeless, transformative recommended! (ESS) CS: 9.98

Beth York Transformations

Exquisite, restoring, delicious, perfect instrumental music composed by this Atlanta feminist and performed by Beth (on piano) and her group, The New Women's Chamber Ensemble (on oboe, sax, flute, synthesizer, bass, percussion). The sax is so sweet, the oboe so searing in its beauty, it's enough to lift the spirit of any cynic. A music therapist by profession, Beth has performed her works at the National Women's Music Festival and the National Women's Jazz Festival. Includes Time and Again and Dolphina, a dance piece. Very highly recommended. (LR104) CS: 9.98

Caroline Lavelle Spirit

This lushly beautiful 1995 album feels like taking a warm bath while surrounded by delicate crystal. The trumpet, velvety sound of her rich voice matches the smooth, intense, and elegant textures of her acoustic and electric cello playing (I love a good cello). She elaborates, "I use cello where other may use guitar or saxophone. It's a lead instrument. A mixture of ambient beats and rhythms. Celtic-tinged melodies and classical structures make this reminiscent of Sarah McLachlan, Loreena McKennitt, Enya and Jane Siberry — yet totally fresh and unique. Mostly original compositions washed with strings and synthesizers (with a snaky version of Jars McNeill's A Case Of You) will take your breath away with their loveliness. Highly recommended! (D1577028) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Caryn Lin Honour the Rain

Each year we begin a new catalog: a few recordings by new artists really stand out as exceptional, and we take them in, hoping you'll believe our raves even if you've never heard of them. Caryn's one. She creates intensely beautiful music for her customized electric violin and viola (and never even seen an instrument shaped like hers) ... with amplification which provides clarification rather than distortion. Her classical training is evident, but her innovative, emotional compositions seamlessly blend many idioms — classical, folk, rock, jazz, Celtic, Indian, Native American — together into soundscapes of passion as well as tranquility. Credits include playing for the film Philadelphia. You guessed it — this 1993 instrumental album is very highly recommended! (GY639) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cecilia Voice of the Feminine Spirit

This 1994 album is one of unusual beauty, purity and clarity, impeccably performed by Norwegian-born Cecilia Kruttsen, who possesses a haunting, bell-like, classically trained voice; the songs inspire and soothe. The album also features renowned flautist and composer Tom Wheeler, as well as lyrics by Stuart Wilde, international lecturer and author of the mystical books, Tao Quintet. Sound effects from nature, including the sounds of wind, water, birds, and wolf add dimension; also some male voices included. Contains Daughter of the Midnight Sun, The Sacred Hum, Unto the Tribe, Mike Rowland's Silver Wings, Grieg's Solving's Song, and a gorgeous rendition of Amazing Grace (Prayer for the Whales), with whale sounds. (WD400) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Celestial Winds MoonSongs

How unusual and refreshing: Celestial Winds was a well-known mixed-gender duo until recently when they became an all-female duo ... and their 1995 release reflects this new configuration. Lisa Franco, who has been a principal since the beginning, plays electroacoustic Celtic harp, mandolin and Appalachian dulcimer; she is accompanied by Susan Craig on a variety of recorders and flutes. Many of the dreamlike tunes are originals (Advent's Arms is for Lisa's grandmother: Luna de Amor, Sell the Moon and more) ... also includes an instrumental version of Ann and Nancy Wilson's Just the Way. (LVS2504) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Melody Voice of the Angels

Subtitled A Healing Journey, this lovely 1995 recording consists of 2 parts. The first contains 7 soul-calming songs/chants, in which Cheryl's sweetly soothing angelic voice (with piano, sounds of river and ocean, and the harmony of singing Angels) will instill deep relaxation and healing, as they lead the listener to Trust, Journey, Surrender, Return, Open, Light, and Love. The second section is a guided meditation to the land of Paradise, based on healing through the chakras. The artist has been primarily a children's composer/performer, and in fact this album is perfectly suited to inner child work, and a valuable tool whenever a calming influence is sought. (CMP2946) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Colorado Midwives Association Ritual Songs

Acappella chants and songs performed by 4 members of the Colorado Midwives Association (C.M.A.), designed for sing-along learning. It contains material for gatherings (Blessingway, Rituals and Birth), as well as private meditations to cleanse, heal and strengthen. Selections include Woman I Am, I Am the Circle, Mother Moon, We Are Sisters, as well as more traditional images such as Mary the Blessings of God Rest Upon You and We All Come From God. Simple and lovely; we've been getting requests for this "underground classic," and are glad to be able to make it available, proceeds benefit the non-profit C.M.A., dedicated to providing better birth experiences through homebirth services. ## Constance Demby Light of This World

This multi-talented woman composes mystical, mystical, celestial, beautiful music for meditation and sheer listening pleasure. She performs on a grand array of instruments: hammered dulcimer, cheng, tarbouira, synthesizer, cello, piano, organ, and vocal tones. Delightful title cut represents a true departure for the artist: a pop/rock/gospel song, on which she's joined by back-up vocalists from the Edwin Hawkins Singers! ... a rousing New Age Gospel statement of joy and oneness. The remainder is a BEST OF, with selections from her first 5 albums, perfect for an overview of her work. Highly recommended! (SC5) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Constance Demby Aeterna

To create this meditative 1995 album of contemporary orchestral space music, Constance says she has gone deeper into the source of her sound and come back with melodies that pick up where Novus left off. This time she takes her inspiration from Rachmaninoff and Tchaikovsky. The grand piano sings the dominant voice here, beginning quietly, with a sense of mystery, and ending the album in a concerto that leaves the listener with a profound sense of serenity. Along the way, cascading piano chords reach a stormy climax, shakuhachi flute sets the mood for an introspective denouement, and angelic female voices create a backdrop for exploration of tragic emotions. Powerful! (HS11051) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Constance Demby Novus Magnificat

Subtitled Sacred Space Music Vol. II, this amazing project of "space classical" music was composed and performed entirely on the new digital sampling synthesizer, the Emulator. It is a vast work, for symphony orchestra, cathedral organ and chorus (all found inside the Emulator). This prolific, creative instrumentalist continues her invention of new form and sounds. For those of you who are familiar with the Hearts of Space label, note that this is their best-selling title ever! (HS11003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Delphys Ocean Born

Ship quietly into the watery realms of the heart! The Songs of Cathie Malach and Kim Rosen with Amy Fradon and Leslie Ritter, Vocalists is the fruit of an extraordinary collaboration, where the mind of the land honors the heart of the sea. (Set Them Free, 12 songs full of love and ocean spirit, many with Dolphin and Goddess themes, reminding us of our connections to our hearts and to these intelligent and beautiful beings. The songs are story-like and poetic, with keyboards, light percussion, and vocal harmonies which reach unearthly levels of beauty. This 1991 release includes the touching Goodbye, Cathie's letter to her dying mother, The Call and Set Them Free with Whale and Dolphin voices, and the gospel Kiss of Spirit. Most highly recommended! (DLP2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Denean Fire Prayer

This 1991 release is an album of original chants and songs, revering Mother Earth and the life of the spirit. Denean, raised in the hills of Kentucky, is primarily white with some Cherokee in her background; she draws inspiration from both Native American and country folk gospel traditions. Lots of percussion and nature sounds are interwoven with piano, synthesizers, flute, and her strong, sweet voice. Includes Song to the Mother, Spirit to the Center, Sacred Fire, The Tree. Very professionally produced, and a great source of new songs and chants. Some of the proceeds go to Native American organizations. (ETH101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Denean The Weaving

With many references to Grandmother Spirit, Earth Mother, and Precious Mother, Denean brings her wondrous visions of spirit and spirituality to the listener with her country angel voice. Included on her 1993 release are both instrumental and powerful vocal songs — all originals — that take you on a journey of the heart ... her keyboards and percussion evoke a most ethereal, celestial mood. Sort of Enya-esque ... and suggested to fans of Lisa Thiel's material. (ETH7102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Denean Thunder

"Thunder is the symbol ... of the shock that brings quiet — the shock that releases tension. It is the music of the earth." Howard Bad Hand, a Rosebud Sioux (Lakota) lecturer, teacher, and singer, is credited as a special guest who co-wrote some melodies and performs in his native language. This 1994 album represents her effort to bring forth something new by the uniting of our individual cultural backgrounds, in a way that diminished neither. Lyrics and translations are included on this 1994 release. (ETH7103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind Gaia, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hygienic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kristen Cygi on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements. "The earth is my body. Her water is my blood. Her winds are my breath. Her fire is my spirit." Kristen is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Danc Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary sounding devotional Goddess recordings we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is soothing yet full of contained energy, while Alles Krut is an vibrant movement. Kristen is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the West Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include Wind Dancer, Exploding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Return to the Goddess-Chants & Song

CD245
This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristin and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the start, and the material continues to honor and reveal the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include 2 Budapest's From the Goddess chant, which anyone who's attended a women's spiritually gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Say Yes To Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more austere in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended — and we additionally recommend all their albums for bellydancing and other movement. (DW1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Shekhina, Hebrew Goddess

This 1993 release, subtitled Restoring the Balance, is about Shekhina, the Hebrew Goddess of the Kabbalah: the music and lyrics contain a blend of Middle Eastern, Spanish, Celtic, and Hindu influences... about half in Hebrew and half in English. Sources are Old Testament, Talmud and Kabbalistic writings, showing the survival of the triple goddess in the basic foundations of Judaism. Extensive liner notes; a full 79 minutes in length; unique and recommended! (DW1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

This circle of 7 women is inspired to sing these songs in honor of the Earth they love... and over 50 chants and circle songs are included here!! Titles such as Mother/Daughter Circle Dance Song, I Am the Goddess, Mother I Feel You, Ocean Mother — by authors such as Starhawk, Z. Budapest, Lisa Thiel, Adele Getty, Charlie Murphy, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and Kate Wolf, as well as members of this ensemble — now easily from song to song, to song. One of the most complete recordings of women's circle songs we know about! (ED1) CS: 9.98

Elizabeth Rhoads
Unspoken Touch

Trained as a classical pianist and cellist, Elizabeth Rhoads was inspired to compose this 1995 album of ambient-like music while living in Sedona, Arizona. Her soft, elusive voice floats above a rich layering of cello, synthesizer, Shakuhachi flute, Celtic harp, zither harp, digeridoo, hypnotic percussion, and wordless choruses of singing and chanting, including some mermaid chanting. It has an Enya-esque, mysterious and dreamy quality that soothes your troubled brow. (WHW10) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Erica Kundidzora Azim
Mbira Dreams

NEW!
The mbira is metal-keyed thumb piano mounted on wood that has a wire, strung with buzzing beads, shells or bottle tops attached (perhaps to clear the mind from its clutter of thoughts). It has been played for spiritual ceremonies for over 1,000 years by the Shona people of Zimbabwe to induce trances, to heal, to celebrate and for meditation. Erica Kundidzora Azim, a white woman who studied this instrument for over 20 years while living in Zimbabwe and now teaches the mbira in Berkeley, plays and sings traditional songs on both high- and low-pitched mbiras to create a gentle, dream-like, lulling, meditative state. (We suggest listening to this before bed!) Includes Chakras, a song played for "mermaid spirits". (REL3261) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Erin Jacobsen
Hour of the Pearl

CD332
Looking for something to accompany massage? The gentle passages of this 1994 release are perfect! Each song is a blend of quiet synthesized keyboards, strings, and woodwinds that brings the listener to a meditative state of deep peace. Sounds of crashing waves highlight Aragon and Going Home; for an even more intense calming effect, Erin's commitment to love, tropical serenity, and classical music opens a way into the heart and spirit. Her original compositions do not sacrifice their genuineness when performed with synthesized instrumentation — this is an album of great beauty, tranquility, and spirituality. (SFS042) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Esther "Little Dove" John
The Elements

Produced under the artistic direction of Nancy Rumbel in 1989, this exquisite concert was inspired by and incorporates the sounds of the four elements: Water, Air, Earth and Fire. Flautist Esther "Little Dove" John, accompanied by synthesists Karen Moszore and Dent Davidson, weaves melodic, thematic improvised music into the recorded sounds of ocean, mountain stream, night creatures, and campfire, creating an ambience which is exotic, peaceful and visually provoking. This reviewer was a big fan of Paul Horn's flute compositions with The Elements back in the 70's... while quite different, this is just as charming. Use for relaxing, meditating, enjoying; highly recommended! (DPM2289) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Evaleon Hill/ Institute of Goddess
Daily Spiritual Program

This 1993 recording contains affirmations, relaxations, meditation, exercises, guided visualizations, and prayers from the Irish Celtic tradition, which invoke intimacy between human, natural, and divine (as manifested through the feminine) realms. Selections include Guided Goddess Visualization and Goddess Within Prayer; the program can be used every day, with Side 1 for morning, Side 2 for evening. The narrator is the founder of the Institute of the Goddess, which offers courses in meditation and the history and meaning of the Goddess, as well as seasonal, nature-based ceremonies. Flight of the Hawk
Shamanic Songs and Ritual Chants

CD45
Many members of the Flight of the Hawk community in California perform on this 1994 album, under the musical direction of Victoria McCarthy. With a primarily women's vocal ensemble, it includes beautiful renditions of favorites like The River She Is Flowing and Sweet Surrender, as well as contemporary shamanic songs such as Bones, plus originals like Victoria McCarthy's Grandmother Moon and Adele Getty's O Great Spirit. Excellent drumming and instrumentation on: hoop drum, dumble, djembe, conga, bongos, tabla, bone whistle, violin, acoustic bass, didgeridoo, alto flute and more. Very professionally done, and we recommend it wholeheartedly! (HT4071) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Gaia's Heart
Drumming the Dream

Calling it Goddess World Beat or "Womb Tunes", this 6-woman percussion and vocal collective creates original drum rhythms, poetry, song, and story to envision a new reality for women. Audiences respond to their music enthusiastically, identifying it as a force for personal transformation and the kind of music that makes the blood sizzle. Through the universal language of the drum, Gaia's Heart celebrates the Goddess in all of us and awakens our primal connections with each other and the earth. Their 1995 album journeys with the Goddess, beginning with the Song of Creation and then visiting women around the world with Green River, Aztec, and Amazon Journey. Also includes Womyn Weaving Circle of Womyn: Yomaya, Shekhina. (GHT1001) CS: 9.98

Grayhawk/ Helene Hess
Blissful Magic

NEW!
Subtitled Spiral of the Celtic Mysteries, this unusual 1995 recording is a Druid Earth Rite, honoring the Great Mother manifesting as Brigit, that fuses chanting (in both Gaelic and English) with lush, sophisticated neo-classical music. No simple circle-singing here! Grayhawk David Gibney collaborated with magician Helene Hess in creating trance channeling this ritual of initiation, healing and blessings (we wish she were credited on the album jacket). He composed the music and conducts the Isle of Avalon Orchestra. Using Celtic Shamanism and the craft of Magical and Wicca practitioners from both North America and Europe, this is a powerful and transcendent album filled with the Bardic Mystery Choir's beautiful choral accompaniment, with voices by priestesses and priests, and music of wooden flutes, hammered dulcimer, David Darling's cello, and percussion from the Fairy Drumming Circle. (DD103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Grupo Gekko

NEW!
A collaboration of 3 Toronto multi-instrumental musicians — Anne Bourne, Celine Campbell and Debbie Campbell — Grupo Gekko innovatively combines traditional western classical instruments (cello, viola, guitar and piano) with wordless vocals and Brazilian Berimbau, African kumbia, mbira, drums, and shakuhachi, a Japanese flute that was originally played only by monks as a form of Zen... almost exclusively played by men since women are not considered "strong" enough (yawn). Their 1995 album features a free flowing texture of rhythm and melody that draws you in and gets you lost in the lovely complexities of the music. (SGM9501) CD: 15.98

Gypsy
Enchantress

Gypsy is a present-day witch/priestess from Salem (no kidding) who writes and performs very magical pagan songs to honor the Goddess and the witches, to cast magic spells, to invoke medicine spirits and world peace. Accompaniment on violin and flute by Kenny and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady, Two Witches, Magic, Merlina's Theme, Medicine Song, and a (new) solstice song of the Old Religion: Bring Back the Light, Enchanting! (WLP1) CS: 10.98

Hanuman Fellowship
Jai Ma Kirtan/ Songs: Divine Mother

A truly beautiful 93-minute program of chanting in Sanskrit to the various aspects of God as the Mother: Kali, Durga, Amba, Radha, Ma Lakshmi, Gauri, etc. by primarily women's voices. Sung in Kirtan, an ancient Indian call-and-response form, includes the Hymn to the Goddess Mother, the Durga Arati Song. Traditional eastern instruments—tabla, tanpura, harmonium—are tastefully interwoven with western guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, silver flute. Cover pictures Shakti Yantra, a mandala used for meditation on the energy of the female aspect of God. Recommended! 1995 (SRJ006) CS: 11.98

Jami Sieber/ Charlie Murphy
Canticles of Light

CD180
Good news: after 10 years, this landmark album of songs and chants is being re-released in 1994! Performed with the Total Experience Gospel Choir, this expression of a pro-feminist, grounded spirituality is harmonious, lively and quite lovely. The lyrics of Blood of the Ancients, Calling On the Spirits, Light Is Returning, and others are empowering and inspiring. Instrumentation is diverse, representing a planetary orientation: cheng, sampona quina, kalimba, sitar, ocarina; in addition to English horn, cello, guitar and piano. Recommended! (SRP5) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jami Sieber
Lush Mechanique

CD261
We've known about Jami's incredible artistry for a long time now, through her musical associations with Charlie Murphy, Rumours of the Big Wave, and most recently with Ferion. Her 1995 debut solo album of electric cello music is peerless, however: if there is music in the next realm (which I'm sure there is), some of it must sound like this. She describes "lush mechanic" as the meeting of two different worlds — of one giving birth to the other — of them living side by side. The accompanying percussion, along with occasional layers of voice, creates a tribal, pulsating, intense, emotional, spiritual, evocative atmosphere. With her exquisite classically-influenced cello tones at the center. What depth and breadth; highly recommended! (OFM1008) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jana Runnalls & Bron Bradshaw
Tree Magic

This music began with a common vision of these two women of the power, beauty, and magic of trees on our world; it started in a Celtic tree circle near Glastonbury, traditionally a site of magic; and that is what this music is, absolute magic. Instruments such as hammered dulcimer (played to sound at times like a koto), clarinet, soprano recorder, are interwoven with African drum, marimba, xylophone... try to imagine the possibilities of these in combination, and you may come close to the beauty of these improvisations. Titles include Amazona, Spirit of the Forest, in the Tree Circle, African Walk, Rhythmic, creative, unique, inspired, and once again... highly recommended! (STC302) CS: 11.98

Janae Hoffman
Musical Acupuncture

CD304
Janae Hoffman developed this innovative concept in Music Therapy, which enables the listener to experience how music can conduct and move energy in the body similarly to an acupuncture treatment — without needles! Particularly effective for chronic pain such as arthritis, back pain, and headaches, as well as for preventive medicine, it features music specially measured at 50 beats per minute. Includes both music with vocal instruction and music alone; it's so beautifully melodic (and acoustic) that the second part is also recommended for meditation, deep relaxation, and stress management. (RMS3) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

KAY GARDNER

Sounding the Inner Landscape
Unleashed Meditations and Music

Janaia Hoffman Musical Massage

If you're looking for massage music, this is perfect. Created with very beautiful piano, cello, flute, violin and viola — all acoustic — the melody is flowing, soothing, and healing. This music will actually slow the heartbeat of the listener to 50 or 60 beats per minute, as the body tries to synchronize with external rhythms. Therefore, the music itself acts as a massage, as your body feels the vibration of the music! Each side has continuous music, suitable for uninterrupted body work. (RMS1) CS: 11.99 CD: 14.98

Jennifer Berezan w/Olympia Dukakis She Carries Me

This 1995 release is a highly original creation weaving gorgeous layers of vocals and instrumentation — a powerfully evocative and meditative piece of healing music to the Goddess in her many forms. Features Chris Webster, and special guest Olympia Dukakis reciting the Charge of the Goddess; also includes the long-playing piece Who Hears the Cry of the Wind and title track. (EOW21) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Jennifer Reif Mysteries of Earth

Simply, one of the best recordings of the Pagan Goddess genre we've heard! Jennifer's voice is a resonant alto, well-suited to the myriad of instruments she accompanies herself with: fretted dulcimer, guitar, dulcimer, and a variety of light percussion and bells — from frame drums to glockenspiel! Song for the Divine Mother Mary illuminates the qualities which the Christians sought to obliterate, the gorgeous Tara is sung in a style reminiscent of Ethiopian melismatic singing; and many circle songs are included as well — Mother Deepen Within Me, Song Fertility Chant, Birth Song. We recommend it muchly. 1992. (MEM1) CS: 10.98

Jillian Klari Womanspirit: Women's Songs & Chants

Ideal for use in women's ritual groups. Jillian self-harmonizes on this lovely 1991 album, some acappella, some to simple drumbeat accompaniment. Her layered vocals are beautiful and crystalline, so even though lyrics aren't included, you can easily learn these songs. Contains several Goddess traditions, such as She's Been Waiting and May the Circle Be Open, plus chants by Z. Budapest and Lisa Thiel, one Seneca chant, and 2 originals by Jillian herself: the track and Blessed Sister. Even though some of these songs are included on other compilations, we recommend this one for its clear sound and the beauty of its production. (JK1) CS: 9.98

Kath & Ina Affirmations

Wow! A most unusual recording by Ine and Kathy, two Australian women, who sing beautiful melodies in gorgeous harmony on songs affirming Life, Love, Strength, Forgiveness, Understanding, Power, Judgment, Order, Will and Zeal. And what's so great is they're catchy, you'll be singing along even after the tape stops — making the affirmations work in your own life! Breath-taking voices: straightforward, creative and, yes, affirming lyrics: sparse but effective back-up on synth, sax, flute, cornet, recorders, piano, guitar, percussion — which doesn't diminish the vocal power feel of a live acappella, per- fectly tribal sounding recording, as all woman production. This 1985 album is very highly recommended! (AFF1) CS: 9.98

Kathy Zavada Mother's Song

A beautiful collection of original songs — plus the classic You Are So Beautiful (To Me) — which leaves one with the feeling of being embraced by the most gentle, loving and nurturing Mother of all mothers. Kathy's voice is lilting and soft, floating over her lovely piano like a breeze. Susan Mazer joins in on one cut, and Kathy often self-harmonizes, sometimes in six parts! Includes Child of the Mother, Love Will Sustain You, Serve the Mother, and the comforting All is Well. Very soothing stuff! 1993. (PRE1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Katie Agresta Inside the Light

Right away, you'll be blown away by her voice. Katie is a Reiki master, a trained singer with an amazing, angelic alto voice of much vibrato and perfect pitch, and vocal coach to hundreds of big name rock stars (Annie Lennox, Cyndi Lauper, Phoebe Snow, Carole King, Connie Francis, members of the Rolling Stones, Ben Jovi, The Who, Turtles, Beastie Boys, Hookers, and on and on; her list of students is daunting). For this 1995 album, she combines extended ancient Sanskrit chants — Sadhana meditations for the Aquarian age — with beautiful original melodies (using keyboards, synthesizer, guitars and bass) to serve to "balance the left and right brain hemispheres". Majestic yet soothing, healing, and recommended. (AUB1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner Sounding the Inner Landscape (Tape)

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, this special long-playing project is Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path; Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Have your own private 70-minute workshop with Kay, anytime! (LR109) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner & Sunwomyn Ensemble Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern, western, northern, southern... an all hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1989 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path! Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Tort) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudalini Pil Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Vindicta, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! ### Kay Gardner Avalon

This tape of solo flute meditations was created when Kay coled a "women's mysteries" tour in Glastonbury, England, where Brigit, the Goddess of wells, flames, oaks, creative art/magic and healing, once dwelled and was worshipped. As Kay moved from High Avar to holy fountain to holy well, her flute improvisations were recorded by a hand-held tape player, and the magic of the place, of the healing waters, of those moments, and of the Goddess Brigit's inspiration can be heard by all. Remarkably good quality, quieting, and very suitable for meditation, includes The Lady's Chapel, Chalice Hill Fairy Circle. If you ever want to own this, don't delay: we have a limited quantity and because the original graphics have mysteriously disappeared off the face of the earth, they won't be re-manufactured. (LR106) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Drone Zone

Continuing her pioneering work with the healing properties of music, on this 1990 album Kay employs drone sounds and vibrations that resonate with the soul and the body using tone to "unlock" and heal. She combines a buzzing Indian tamboura with bamboo flute, Amazon insects with udu and rainstick, pipe organ pedal with concert flute in an Ancient Greek Dorian style, the chant OM, Socratic pipes, a windpipe, a Brazilian berimbau, and an Australian didgeridoo to create a wonderful worldwide spiritual sonic tapestry. ### Kay Gardner A Rainbow Path

Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this 1984 recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness, and this is probably the only such recording with impact Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Rowe on viola, Marita Siegel on cello, Vivian Stof on vibraphone, Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castles in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. LP includes bibliography and discography for further study. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, many-dimensional experience. (LR103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner Ocean Moon

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — this entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special... This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lynaval, which she considers the best piece she ever composed, with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release, which we heartily recommend! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner Mooncircles

Beautiful, classic 1990 album of flute compositions. Kay has played the flute for many years and this album reflects her mastery of both the instrument and of compositional music. Much of it is an ancient and, according to the album cover, Sapphic mode, and perfect for meditation or love-making. Also includes three vocals. Classical guitar accompaniment is by Meg Christian, piano by Athena Waters. (WWE80) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Moods & Rituals

Sublimed Meditations for Solo Flutes and extended for meditation and relaxation, this sequence of 4 compositions truly has the effect of evoking tranquility, a feeling of well-being and wide open space. On one long piece entitled Soul Flight, she employs an echoplex, which almost sounds like a second flute and works perfectly. Other pieces, each using a scale from a different culture, are entitled Saraswati for bamboo flute and bells, Mountain Melody, The Temple of Ishtar. This 1980 album represents another stage in Kay's research into the use of music in healing. (EKR39) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Ouroboros (Seasons of Life)

This 1994 recording is nothing short of a miracle... to tell you all about it would take volumes. Subtitled Women's Passages, this oratorio by Kay for 6 female soloists, women's chorus and orchestra is set to exquisite solo texts by Charlie Huchins (a woman), and powerful chant texts by Ilse Suzanne. It's a like recording of its premiere performance at the 20th National Women's Musical Festival in Bloomington, IN, and is one of the largest-ever classical productions featuring women musicians: 84 voices, 40 orchestra members. Except it's not classical, in the traditional sense. Performers as well as audience members were often teary-eyed during the performance, they were so profoundly moved. The work celebrates the ages of Woman, with each age corresponding to a holy day on the ancient Celtic calendar (solstices, equinoxes, Beltane, etc.) is strongly centered in female spirituality and relates to the birth/death/rebirth cycle. Lush and deeply healing, the music itself is somewhat reminiscent of A Rainbow Path. Stunning performances by soloists Seraiah Carol, Amanda Barrett (Ruth's 15-year-old daughter), and so many others (wish we could name them all) are interwoven with majestic choral interludes... this is Kay's absolute masterpiece to date. We're so thankful that the performance was preserved on tape, and proud that we can offer it to you now. Most highly recommended — whether or not you relate to "classical" music! (LR115) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summer-fall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your head (and heart). Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing: perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit, and, note sale price on cassettes. (LR111) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner/ Nurudafina Pili Abena OneSpirit

Cassettes now on sale! This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world. The OneSpirit duo is a charismatic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flute, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global musics and rhythms from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this aural journey. Features a cameo appearance by Brooke Medicine Eagle, on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle... also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Salvador, Carnival, Alien Sunset, Happy Life, We welcome Nuru — with her congas, djembes, quicos, dundun, pandeiros, balafon, agogo, dumbek, surdo, and rain rattles — to the Ladyslipper label (and promise you'll be hearing more from her in the near future!). Exciting, energetic, and meditative as at once... Highly recommended, of course! (LR113) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosically supreme. The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complementary sounds into pure magic. The most original of Kim's discography thus far: many Eastern sounds, interesting scales, includes Women of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past... or, if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Wood, Fire & Gold

Inspired by ancient Celtic and French melodies, Kim has created a 1995 musical collage of unparalleled beauty. The breath-taking purity of her ethereal voice, mingled with the sparkling yet serene sounds of her Celtic harp, soars over a richly woven tapestry of shimmering strings, haunting woodwinds and exotic percussion. (DM119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Treasures of the Celtic Harp

This 1995 release from a harpist extraordinaire combines the authentic tradition of the Celtic harp with her dynamic flair for world rhythms and improvisation. Timeless gems from the ancient isles include the Scottish Glenlivet and the Irish Shule Arann. Kim calls these melodies living traditions, and for her, playing them on the harp is like visiting with old friends. The album also includes four brilliant original compositions to count among your new friends. (DM114) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Water Spirit

In addition to original and Irish tunes this 1987 album contains some classical and earlier ones: Pachelbel's Canon, Faure's Pavane (a haunting piece), a Bach minuet, and 12th and 13th century French and Italian compositions. Digitally mastered, real-time duplicated... in other words, if you buy this, Kim will sit inside your speakers and play her 19th century French single action harp. A supreme recording, very highly recommended. (INV115) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Steve Kujala Wild Iris

One of Kim's most unusual and gorgeous to date (that's what we say about each of her new releases when we hear it!)... a true masterpiece of improvisation. Steve is a jazz flautist in his other life, and brings a playful, energetic smoothness and lightness (and at times plaintiveness) to the duets from Irish, Scottish, South American traditions, plus several originals by both Kim herself and the duo. Also includes the beautiful Pavane by Gabriel Faure, as well as some solos by Kim. Very, very highly recommended! (INV123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Angels in Disguise

Kim here showcases her haunting, angelic voice, reminiscent of both her heavenly harping and the vocals of Singh Kaur, to the accompaniment of her own harp as well as strings with tasteful touches of guitar and percussion. The material is a lovely mix of Celtic folk melodies and contemplative originals, and even one Japanese composition. Beautifully crafted; don't miss this! (INV124) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Bettine Clemen Love Song To a Planet

Virtually ignored by the mainstream music industry, Kim will probably be one of those composers who graces a relatively small number of us with her magic, then becomes posthumously knighted, or something! We keep saying that each new album is really her best, and it can't be helped, her artistry is perfect on so many levels, one wonders what goddess she pleased to be so blessed... Joined here, on her 18th recording, by the equally prolific flautist Bettine Clemen, for a joyful, reverent, gently loving and creative tribute to our Mother, our home. Flute and harp dance and blend into ethereal layers of sound, sometimes together, and sometimes joined by cello, bell, synthesizer and percussion, for an experience utterly drenched in grace. Includes Shanti, The Dark Island, Amazing Grace, Day of the Dolphin, and the ambitious Love Song for the Water Planet. Very highly recommended. (INV112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kiva Renewal

Kiva is a 3-woman acoustic ensemble performing beautiful original songs of the Goddess, healing, and Earth's ancient ways, under the direction of Ariana, a priestess of the Old Religion. The stand-outs on this 1991 album are chants which each feature two percussionists — Barbara and Robin — who employ African, Latin, Caribbean, Native and Brazilian rhythms, but the musicians' ease with traditional forms and harmonies also adds to this collection. Includes Dance in the Moonlight, Yemaya, Diana Fantase, Huntress, Fire Flow Free, The Earth is Our Mother. Recommended! (KIV2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kiva Alchemy

This early 1993 release weaves together the enchanting vocal harmonies and powerful rhythms of the earth religion, celebrating the alchemy of love and life that transforms us as we embrace ecstasy. The musicians are inspired by myriad forms and traditions, and this album showcases their instrumental range as never before, highlighting individual Kiva members and friends such as Robin Burdula and Ladyslipper friend Barbara McPherson. Includes Charger's Fire, Maid of Orleans, Grandmother Spider Woman, Persephone's Song, and more. (KIV3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kiva Mother Wisdom: Orig. & Trad. Chants

This 1994 album is an invitation to experience the Goddess in some of her many forms. Through original and traditional chants and songs, primal wisdom is shared about connecting to our ancient sources, the roots of which grow deep to Africa, Tibet, Greece, the Americas, India and beyond. These invocations to the divine feminine remember a time, past and future, of balance with Mother Earth. Includes Yemaya, Rushing Water, Aphrodite, Green Tara Chant, The Earth is Our Mother, Jai Ma, and more. Lovely percussion and some sound effects accompany, as well as the 12 voices of "The Chorus of Powerful Women." (KIV4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kiva Finding the Balance Within

This 1994 release speaks to the magical place within where we are whole and one with all of nature. From Summer Solstice Passion, with keyboard by NC's Kathleen Hannan, to May Queen and Aphrodite's Daughters Revisited, with Celtic harpist Sue Richards, to Star of the Sea, a joyous celebration of Yemaya, Mother of the Oceans with percussionists Robin Burdula and Barbara McPherson, this is their most passionate album yet. (KIV5) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kokila Celtic Angels

This 1995 release describes itself as "angelic, ancient Celtic style, meditative music, played on a vintage Steinway grand piano, with beautiful celestial echo and spatial effects." And extraordinarily beautiful it is — simple yet mystical. The artist has practiced meditation with Sri Chinmoy since she was 15 years old, and a profound sense of serenity and spiritual joy is apparent in her music. Compositions are entitled Angels of Avalon, Angels of Eternity, Angels of Skara Brae, and angels of other magical British Isles locations. (AST22) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

L. Montgomery/A Getty/R Hyde-Skeele Changing Woman

Their material includes originals by members Lou and Adele, as well as Starhawk, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and others. Includes Power of a Woman, Woman of Radiance, Dance of the Moon and Sun, Our Magic Is Our Giveway, 13 in all, lyrics included, making this an excellent source of material for circles. # Lady Isadora (with Lord Pan) The Witching Hour

Lady Isadora is a feminist Witch priestess and singer-songwriter. Her lovely 1981 debut cassette of witchy material, considered a classic in the Neo-Pagan community, contains 15 songs, one spoken chant with drums (Heartbeat of Creation), and one spoken ritual prose poem with musical accompaniment, with such titles as Witches and Amazons, The Goddess Sings, Isis, Tis Hallowen. # Lady Isadora The Queen of Earth and Sky

Lady Isadora's long-awaited solo effort features songs of love, magic, and Goddess religion in folk, rock, and medieval/Renaissance styles. The use of overdubs on several selections creates striking harmonies and multi-vocal textures. Original lyrics and mostly original melodies, includes Mistress of the Mysteries, The Pentacle and the Rose, Lion-Hearted Woman (a ballad about a Witch condemned to be burned at the stake), Ye Birds and Ye Beasts (a vegetarian anthem!) and a medley of Yule carols including Our Lady Greenwreath. Says HeartSong Review: "Her pure soprano voice comes from deep within her soul... Inspired and fulfilling music, highly recommended." 1990. (LJ2) CS: 10.98

Lady Isadora

Priestess of the Pentacle

Released simultaneously with The Queen of Earth and Sky as a companion album in 1990, here are more haunting melodies and thought-provoking lyrics from this Welsh singer-songwriter who has received critical acclaim in the Neo-Pagan Goddess spirituality press. Includes the whimsical autobiographical title song, plus Witches' Brew Blues, O Freya du skona (sung in Swedish to the Norse goddess), the humorous writer's anthem The Pen is a Magic Wand, Drawing Down the Moon (a spoken ritual piece), and the poignant Letter to Anne Frank. #### Lady Siobhan

Follow Me to the Forest

Lady Siobhan (pronounced "Shio-YAHN"), a.k.a. Rosanna E. Tufts, presents a joyous, folksy, Renaissance-flavored Pagan celebration. Her beautiful multi-layered classical-leaning soprano harmonies are sometimes a cappella, sometimes blended with guitar, flute, recorder, pennywhistle, bodhran, serial drums, and the Celtic harp of Sue Richards on the operatic Chastie Goddess of the Moon (Castia Diva). Also includes Dance Around the Fire, Stag of Seven Tines, Renaissance Faire, Power Spot, and others, some original, many recalling ancient times and rites, plus a few witty songs about contemporary topics. Her sources range from Macedonia (her title track is set to Shio mi e mila — if you've heard Bulgarian women's choruses, you've heard this tune!) to Wales to Spain to Gilbert and Sullivan. Fun, varied, and different! (L561794) CS: 9.98

Life Between the Lines

When there's so much mediocre instrumental music around, how do we communicate that an instrumental album is truly spectacular? We can tell you how you'll be immersed in the passionate, sensual and energetic soundscapes of her music, then swept away in an emotional torrent pushing mind, body and soul to its extremes... and hope you'll believe us! A classically trained pianist influenced by Beethoven, the Moody Blues and Elton John, she performs her original compositions on a variety of synthesizers, with some accompaniment on guitar, bass, tenor sax and drums. Textured, layered, melodic, with great depth, intensity and sophistication, we highly recommend this 1995 release! (ZP0102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

A Circle Is Cast

This 1986 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side 1 traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side 2 marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist litmas. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements, most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections: a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPH002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Libana

Fire Within

Finally, the long-awaited sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast! Synthesizing their two musical identities—as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual—this release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here: several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth is a Woman; Neosa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Tree Planter's Round; Clear Horizon; Rise Up O Flame; O Virgo Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you—on the Ladyslipper label—Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! 1990. (LR108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Thiel

Lady of the Lake

We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and electrifying lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arms of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Rune Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected, and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Gateway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. "The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother." This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists (see our listings for both artists in this section). #### Lorelei

Spiritus: Breath of Life

For years we have carried a most gorgeous collection of chant albums; probably the very first of this now-prolific genre, the Cimron series features Kim Robertson's harp accompanying one of the most heavenly vocalists we had ever heard. Back then, she recorded under the name Lorelei Kaur; here she is back under the name Lorelei. A thoughtful, spiritual seeker who is gifted with a powerful, ethereal voice, she creates a dreamy, joyful fusion of the world's oldest wisdom teachings with contemporary textures and rhythms. Lorelei contributes all the vocal orchestrations, keyboards and 12-string; musicians like Raphael and Steve Kinder add violin, flute and more. This 1996 release will transport you to the highest plane. (SOP7156) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marcey Inward Harmony

Marcey Hammett, a former nuclear engineer, became a healing music technician after a successful experience with alternative healing techniques following her car accident in 1985. Now she composes in a meditative trance in her self-designed computer music studio, and the resulting music is simply otherworldly, celestial choir, sweeping drone sounds, all very soothing and beautiful. Hundreds of people have come forth with remarkable testimonials about healings and other life changes this album has effected. Listening to this, you'll feel enveloped in a blanket of divine love. Tape is 90 minutes of continuous music. CD is 72 minutes. Recommended! 1995. (MRC1) CS: 12.99 CD: 15.98

Marcey Dream Partner

This 1992 release is a mellifluous flow of healing music, more melodious than her earlier works, with synthesized grand piano, 12-string guitar, and Peruvian flute. It was designed to enhance the listener's awareness about co-working with Spirit. This reviewer has little experience in these advanced stages of consciousness, but this music does tend to move one into an altered state! Seems ideal for meditation and massage, and lots of people have claimed miraculous healings from listening to Marcey's music. (MRC5) CS: 13.98 CD: 15.98

Marija Gimbutas Age of the Great Goddess (2 Tapes)

The mystery of the Goddess culture is brought to life here by one of the great archaeologists of our time. The story of this audiotape begins in the 1930's, when Marija was a young girl living in Lithuania; she was fascinated with the folktales of her region, where Christianity was introduced relatively late (the 16th century). Many of these stories concerned the "Old Religion" and the Great Goddess — and were passed down as folktales from before the birth of Christ. After training as an archaeologist, she led 5 expeditions over 3 decades to explore the origins of the earliest European religions. What emerged from her life's work is evidence of an advanced culture, based not on weapons and fear, but on the presence of the Great Goddess, symbolizing a sacred union with all of nature. 2 tapes, 120 min. ## Mindia Devi Klein Ragini: Fluted Voice of the Goddess

Ragini, the female Ragas of North Indian classical music, are musical embodiments of different forms of the Goddess. This 1995 rendering of the Raginis Durga and Bhairavi, and the bhajans Jai Anbe (Victory to the Mother) and Jai Jai Bhairavi (Victory to the Goddess) is a rarity; there are not many recordings of female musicians performing in the North Indian classical tradition. Mindia Devi, known for her founding work with the ensemble Ancient Future and her fusion of Indian, Western and Balinese elements, performs on the bansuri, the deeply resonant bamboo flute of India, accompanied by Dana Pandey on tabla, the dynamic and intricate Indian drums. The soft, mesmerizing drone of the tanpura weaves its strings throughout. Fast and furious, playful and joyous, introspective and soothing, the Raginis bring you into the world of Raga, the "coloring of the mind" by the many moods of the Goddess. These 24 chants and songs — both traditional invocation and Goddess songs, and original healing and affirming songs — are intended to open women's hearts to the power of healing. Beautiful harmonies and rhythms are employed by these 5 women (Mujba Cabugos, Valerie Gaud, Lori Green, Chris Leja, and Julie Lewis), with tasteful accompaniment on percussion and occasional flute, harp and guitar. Lyrics included to make learning these easy; includes Hundred Maiden Huntress, She's Been Waiting, Powerful Woman, Spider Woman, She Changes, Heal the Mother, Moon Sister Moon, We All Come from the Goddess, and Like A Mountain by Naomi Littlebear Moreno, which they call Old and Strong. ## Nana Simopoulos Gaia's Dream

Our highest recommendation goes to this exuberant 1993 recording which represents the music of our Mother Earth. The listener travels from the uplifting Afro-Greek rhythms of the celebratory Koula Koula to the deep Byzantine chanting and exciting Hallelujah chorus of Artemis Silver Bow. The Journey is a spiritual quest to the soul (includes some subtle male voices); Mary Moons breaks the barrier of time; and Like You and Raphael sent the listener to an upward celestial travel. The Indian star and bansuri flute combine with the African percussion of our wonderful neighbor Beverly Botstford, as well as soprano sax, guitar, synthesizers, choral vocals, and Helen Hooker's violin. All compositions are by Nana, clearly an artist with quite an expansive musical vision; we advise you to not miss out on this exceptional, inspired work! (BW13) CD: 14.98

Nancy Rumbel Notes from the Tree of Life

Woodwind artist Nancy Rumbel has long been one of our favorite instrumentalists in the world, and we rejoice in her 1995 debut solo release — it's exquisite! Whether spanning gorgeous oboe and English horn tones or breezy ocarina lines, she amazes us with her rich palette of sounds. The original compositions here are poignant, evocative, playful and joyous, always passionately and expertly performed; she intertwines them with a steel band, a Balkan women's choir, cello, African percussion and other unique sounds. Highly recommended! (NAL61050) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nancy Thompson Ritual Invoking the Goddess Isis

Nancy is an African-American writer and ritualist dedicated to the re-emergence of Divine Feminine Energy, as personified by the dark-skinned Goddess from Egypt in Africa. On side 1 of this audio tape, she explains why ritual is important and outlines the steps involved in creating ritual, and on side 2 she leads a meditation invoking the universal/mother/moon Goddess Isis. The program also includes invocations to the four elements — Fire, Water, Earth and Air — and a drumming piece used for raising the energy after coming out of the meditation. Her ritual is also featured in the book My Soul Is a Witness: African-American Women's Spirituality. (NTH1) CS: 10.98

Nancy Vedder-Shults and friends Chants for the Queen of Heaven

Susan Robbins, musical director of Libera, described this program of songs and chants to the Goddess as "a wonderful and varied collection of multicultural and original chants, performed with spirit and conviction, and arranged using a many-colored palette of instrumental and vocal textures." And, we recommend this for all of you who have loved Libera and were searching for something else sort of like them! Containing women's sacred and ritual music from around the world, this 1993 album reflects the richness and variety of many woman-honoring traditions. Material ranges from a celebratory Renaissance procession (with English horn, flute, cello and percussion) to meditative Eastern incantations accompanied by Tibetan bell; from the driving poly-rhythms of an Afro-Brazilian chant to the tranquil Shakuhachi flute of a Japanese song; from simple but haunting modal melodies to complex harmonies by a 9-woman ensemble. Chants include Volcano Woman, Old Crone of Mystery, Rise Up and Call Her Name, Yemaya, On Tara. Lyrics plus beautiful cover art. Recommended! (MMM001) CS: 9.98

This 1993 release carries the extended chant to a new level of complexity, with 48 tracks and 32 separate lines of choral music, while maintaining the stunning simplicity which creates wholeness and peace in the listener. Sides 1 and 2 are mixed differently: the first side, Remembrance, is gentler, more ambient; side 2 Celebration, features more variation, faster transitions and some intense male chanting. Imagine entering a Gothic cathedral as the great bell sounds the call to prayer. The thousand-year-old melodies of Gregorian chant echo through the cathedral as the monks intone: "Gloria in excelsis deo, in terra pax." ("Glory be to God and peace on earth.") The congregation responds, chanting again and on earth. The simple refrain "Adoramus te," ("I adore thee.") Serpentine
The First Coil

This performer's name conjures up dynamic images, all belting the unique music on her 1993 album. It could be called "Goddess rock" — gothic, tribal, ritualistic, with some almost terrifying sounds a la Diamanda Galas. Themes are sexuality, power, ecstasy, spirit, blood, darkness and death — this is not all gentleness and love, but it is intense! Most songs are original, titles include Cyclops, The Burning Times, Inanna, Lullaby, Belonging to No One ("but to herself"). This is entirely different than anything else we have, and for that we recommend it! (GRR001) CS: 10.98

Serpentine
Rock the Goddess

This 1994 release contains more passionate, compelling "Goddess rock" tracks. Most are fascinating originals such as Ride My Broom, Heru-ra-ha, I Am Your Husband, Into the Cauldron, Victorious and Little Witch House, but the traditional We All Come From the Goddess there given the title Rock the Goddess is given an electric treatment which magnifies its intensity and interest. Themes of strength and defiance, pleasure and power, set to tribal rhythms and evocative orchestrations: what a brew! (GRR002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Serpentine

This 1995 album of Hymns to the Divine Mother contains all original songs, chants and poems, performed in Susan's lovely crystal-clear acappella voice with some exquisite harmonies. The feeling imparted is very meditative and quieting, and we recommend this highly as a source for new material for circles, gatherings, rituals. (Note that printed lyrics are not included.) 20 tracks in all, including Isis, Kuan Yin, Emerging Goddess. Susan offers workshops and apprenticeships on "The Healing Power of Sound and Song"; if this recording is an example, we're believers! Lisa Thiel tells: definitely give this a try! (SHA2) CS: 9.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker
Rosa Mystica

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CELB04) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker
Historical Harp Volume I: Celebrant

Magnificent! On seven harps and two psalteries built by Lynne Llewandowski, Therese impeccably performs medieval sacred repertoire; elaborating upon monastic chants and improvising within the style as was customary in early music. The wide display of sound colors reflects some of the many voices typical to Romanesque, Gothic, Celtic, and early Renaissance harps. Some selections are accompanied by voice. Recommended for new age, as well as classical and early music lovers. (LAD1001) CS: 9.98

Triple Crescent
Music Celebrating the Goddess

What a wonderful melding of women's music and women's spirituality! And, of course, any album which contains the classic song Amazon by Maxine Feldman — a precursor of both the women's music and culture movement and women's spirituality movement, and the song which still opens the Michigan Festival every year — has a place in our catalog! The trio (Norma Jean Burton and Jade on vocals, Barbara Chused on keyboards) performs Willie Tyson's stunning Witching Hour, Charlie Murphy's The Burning Times, Judee Giff's beautiful Lady O (old times: stretch your memories, now back to Ginni Clemens' first album), Karen Mackay's Arms of the Goddess, Ruth Burnett's Every Woman Born, and more... all truly classics of classical! This is a must-have for the priceless, precious material contained herein! (TRC1) CS: 9.98

Troika
Goddess

Inspired by Kris Wodden's The Book of Goddesses, the CD booklet contains some of the beautiful images and edited stories from Kris's book, as well as an introduction by her. This 1996 recording contains instrumentals, composed by David Arkenstone, named after individual goddesses. Troika, a mysterious west coast trio (whose members will not reveal their identities — but we learn it is of mixed gender) has created mystical and dramatic soundscapes using layers of synthesizer, keyboards, sampled voices and percussion textures, for Venus, Diana, Oya, Zorya, Kuan Yin, Gwanthlyar, Athena, and Inanna. Some suggested uses: play the music while reading the stories to a child or a friend, or while meditating on each goddess and accompanying story. (EN962804) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Tunnel Singer/ Lee E. Shoemaker

Inner Runes

And now for something completely different... Lee Ellen Shoemaker, a Bay Area musician who bills herself as "The Tunnel Singer," recorded this 1995 album of resonant wordless echoes in a tunnel in San Francisco. Simple unadorned vocal improvisations, accompanied by the resonating tones of a Tibetan Singing Bowl, create an effect like devotional music in cavernous churches or temples. Woman Song, Celtic Overtones and Mysterious Dance interweave voice and the echo of the singer and the bowl to create an otherworldly sound. If you are in the Marin County area you can catch her performing in various tunnels! (LE8001) CD: 16.99

Earth Heart

Recorded at Fairy Godmother Studios in New South Wales, Australia, this wonderful ambient/aboriginal-inspired music was composed, performed and produced by Australian musician and singer Vicki Hansen. This 1995 release is primarily her ethereal wordless singing over different drone sounds and subtle acoustic and electronic sounds and tones. Highlights are Red Heart, which features aboriginal artist Alan Dargason's shimmering didgeridoo and samples of chanting Merriam Islander, and the gentle wailing Firewoman. The lushness of sound makes this perfect for massage, relaxation or gentle dance. (AUS5005) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Wheeler & Carol

Mystic Soul

We're resurrecting this item in an earlier catalog, because we think it's excellent, and hopefully folks are now more receptive to vocal works with a spiritual base. Gorgeous harmonies by Mary Elizabeth Wheeler and Jan Carol grace haunting melodies and lyrics revealing both depth and simplicity. All songs celebrate the inner life of the spirit (most are original), and feature rich accompaniment of urko, horns, and more, by David Carling, Nardafina Pili Abeno and others. Includes The Wheel Over the Circle, The Blessing, and the outstanding Oh Great Spirit. Lyrics included; highly recommended! 1988. (SPS1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Alice Di Miele

Searching

Alice is continuing on a fruitful musical journey, as this 1992 release demonstrates. Her rich, sweet, emotive voice rides and caresses her beautiful melodies and messages of love, caring, concern and passion. Her topics here are the earth (her land and her creatures) love (she writes sweetly about the long-term kind as well as the discovery of love), desire, domestic violence, the Gulf War (Land of Broken Promises). Some lovely violin accompaniment in addition to the guitar/bass/percussion. The title of That Sweetness, the closing song, probably sums up the album in two words. (ADM104) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.99

Naked

This 1994 release was recorded live, in studio and concert, to capture the spirit of her performances. Her wide-ranging voice is at its best here, with a variety of styles, from the folkie Bring Back the Rain to the jazzy If I Could Move the World to the Rhythm of My Heart. Included are 2 woman-identified blues numbers with the terrific jazz guitar of Mimi Fox, and 2 tunes with violin. Topics include love, personal healing, activism, traveling, and defending diversity. Acoustic music doesn't get any better than this — highly recommended! (ADM105) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.99

Alix Dobkin

Living With Lesbians

This outrageously funny yet warm & wise tribute to lesbians contains not only words of support, but the sweet voice of Alix. Trained in Balkan singing by Ethel Raim, Alix has incredible control over her voice. She utilizes it well on her own songs & a few traditional Balkan ones. Original compositions feature her on guitar with all-woman back-up singing to & about lesbians. Includes Mary B., Good Old Dara & Amazon ABC ("a saucy romp through the lesbo-alphabet"). (WWA002) CS: 9.98

Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney

Note sale price on cassette! This wonderful release was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1993. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Hossies, The Girls Want to Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very highly recommended! ## Love & Politics: A 30 Year Saga

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political/activist songs, and two "inspirations," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian Wars... plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shirin Through (which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian feminists). This release coincides with her first year off the road in sons, making it especially precious! Includes The Woman in Your Life, Amazon ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes, 14 more. Absolutely recommended! (WWA007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin, Kay Gardner

Lavender Jane Loves Women

The first blatantly lesbian album we know about (1974) and one of the first to be completely produced & engineered by & for women. An artful blend of serious & humorous material. Contains some real classics, like I Only Want to Be With You, a couple of traditional songs, help from the kids, Alix's voice-training yells, plus original lesbian compositions. Includes The Woman in Your Life at the end. Talking Lesbian & View From Gay Head. (WWA001) CS: 9.98

I Surrender

This long-anticipated 1996 release from the Grammy-nominated, critically acclaimed singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist has been well worth the wait! Accompanied by guitarist Nina Gerber, vocalist Chris Webster and a host of others, she presents a warm and lively mix of songs and tuneful instrumental originals, full to the brim with soulfulness, heart and joy. Hopefully some of you have witnessed her performance at one of the '96 "Three of Hearts" shows, with Margie Adam and Liz Story. (SLB92211) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Signs of Life

Awaited for so many years, here at long last is the 1990 solo album by one of the most talented keyboardist-composers around, known to many for her work with Teresa Trull and Montreux. And it will probably exceed your highest expectations. Here she blends her incredibly beautiful voice (which has been a secret to us for a long time) with stirring lyrics, adding to them her already accomplished instrumental style. Includes The Safest Place in the World, which couples will probably play over and over. Very highly recommended! (WH1099) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Now an enhanced CD for CD-ROM — take your ears and your eyes on a magical expedition through the melodic expanses of Limboland. This 1995 release is a 13-song masterpiece of rich harmonies, seductive melodies and infectious grooves. Included are the often-requested Hugin and Brave Old World, the lovely acappella Two Cherries which we first heard on a live Valentines Day interview on NPR, and A Typical Love from the film The Incredibly True Adventure of Two Girls in Love. It's further proof of Musica Magazine's claim that "BETTY is the world's foremost, all-girl, bi-racial, rock and roll performance trio of our time." (IN9175) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Different Stories

A must-have album for all lovers of great harmonies, and one of our favorite new additions for 1993! With sparse acoustic accompaniment (the occasional fiddle, guitar, bass and drums), the fledgling members of this Canadian trio open their mouths and simply soar — gorgeous sounds that, reminiscent of the Roaches or Two Nice Girls. Their repertoire includes the fantastic Why Can't You Read My Mind, a lush acappella version of Hoagy Carmichael and Johnny Mercer's Skyline, a tale of spiritual journeying called Back to the Desert, and the airborne Get Up and Fly. Imported from Canada; very highly recommended! (BS002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bird Sisters

She & She & She

This 1995 album contains a full complement of excellent self-performed songs from one of our favorite harmonizing Canadian trios. Am I features an anthemic all-woman chorus, performed by over 30 of their musical friends. Thousand Ages is fueled by a driving percussion backdrop, and Vadale's Laura's Song is a powerful emotional sequel to Carley's Song from their previous album Different Stories. Full band arrangements back most tracks, with guest performances by many notable Canadian musicians. (BS003) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Blazing Redheads

Put on your cha-cha slippers and get ready to dance... to the Latin jazz from this 7-woman band from the Bay area. With 3 percussionists, 2 sax/fute players plus bass and keyboards, you know the rhythm's gonna be driving, undulating and raucous! Each brings years of experience playing salsa, jazz, funk, Latin, Brazilian, and rock music, and together they form a tight ensemble. Material and arrangements are original... recommended! 1988. ### Cindy Pearson

Do You Live In Your Dreams NEW 0534
This 1995 album shows that this Oregon artist, with the slightly Feron-meets-Elvis voice, can swing out with the best of them. She and her tight band take us from the ethereal longing on "You Are the One For Me" to the rocking wah-wah reggae rhythms of the empowered Walking Away (dedicated "to all who have walked away from abuse") and dedicated to the women's resource center in Astoria, OR) to Dare to Be Different, honoring women who refuse to conform to what is expected of them. A very pleasing and stylistically varied pro-woman album! (ETP1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Lofton

With My Luck NEW 0509
This 1996 debut album from this out New York gal is a completely DIY project: she wrote and sang all of the songs, played all of the instruments (primarily acoustic and fuzzy electric guitar), produced and engineered it in her own home. A member of Out Music (the gay/lesbian music collective), Connie performs straight ahead rock on "Thinkin' About You" (about "cerebral infidelity"), country on "It Shoulda Been Me" (that of meeting up with the ex-lover situation), doo-wop on "It's Easy" (exploring the complicated relationship webs that lesbians often have) and acoustic folk simplicity on "I'm Not (But I Do)" (about the inability to say what we feel). Catch her at the next women's festival she's booked at; meantime, hear this. (SPP01) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

The Changer and the Changed 0019
There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as "Waterfall," "Song of the Soul," "Dream Child of Desire." If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. 1975. (OL904) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Blue Rider
Rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry on this 1982 studio album. Includes "Lucille," featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals. "Lodestar" which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Randle. "Levathan" — a song about whales, and "Heart to Heart." String arrangements by Mary Watkins. (OL931) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

Best of Cris Williamson
Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically, a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology, Portrait). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — "Sweet Woman," "Sister Joanna," "Summertime Dorothy" — and many others of her best ever, such as "Waterfall," "Soaring," "Strange Paradise." (OL959) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Circle of Friends: Cris Live
This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of The Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from The Changer — "Waterfall," "Sweet Woman," "Shooting Star," "Dreamchild," "Sister," "Song of the Soul" — as well as previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire: "If It Weren't For the Music" (well, it was released, but only on a 45 rpm), "Circle of Friends," "Sisters of Mercy," "Owl," "Milkshake," "Hey Good Lookin'," and more. A wonderful way to remember and to honor the album and the era. 72 minutes long. (OL963) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Wolf Moon
This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout! From "The Run of the Wolf," a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song "Honey Free" ("no longer the lone wolf"...) to the title song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also, "Goodnight Marjorie Morningstar," for Natalie Wood, "Teen Queen," about the innocence of adolescence; and a cover of the early 60's tune "Come and Go With Me." (OL951) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret Fure

Between the Covers NEW
On this collection of originals, Cris and Tret traverse the musical map: joyful rockers and poignant ballads mix with reggae, folk, and steamy rhythms. Recorded at the innovative Institute for Musical Arts in '96, it features crisp production, stellar vocals, commanding lyrics and electrifying melodies. Standouts include the title track, "Please Say, Positive Solution," and the concert fave, "New Year's Look for an early '97 release (though maybe just maybe it will be a tad sooner); pre-order now for earliest possible delivery. Postcards From Paradise 0039
On this 1993 collaborative effort from two of the best-loved artists in women's music, evocative songwriting and stirring vocals challenge us to live in peace, honor the earth and love each other. About half the tracks are duets; most of the rest feature Cris on lead vocals, and Tret provides lead vocals on two. Includes "Living On" and "The Best Interests of the Child(er)," on which Cris and Tret are joined by Michael Callen, the "Diva" and former member of the Flirts. Also includes "Little World Spinning Blue," "The Stones From Helen's Field," "Garden Ring," "Dreamboat (Rivers of Heaven)," "My Father's Hands," and more. (OL971) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull

Country Blessed
A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' "Mother, Mother," written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour; "Calamity Jane," "good-time cowgirl romp;" and the glorious blessed love track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways... and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably A&R ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! 1999. (SW22013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Meg Christian

Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)
A deluxe double volume of the entire heretofore-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo "Anniversary Song," Cris' "Texas Ruby Red," Meg's rendition of Betsy Rasse's tribute to herself and all of us, "Glad to Be a Woman," and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on "Ain't No Mountain High Enough." Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite oldies. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW933) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Strange Paradise
Musically on par with Changer & the Changed, with more rock-n-roll influence & some phenomenal synthesizer. Joined by Jackie Robbins, June Millington, & on one cut, Bonnie Raitt. 1980. (OL921) CS: 9.98

Deirdre McCalla

With a Little Luck
...and a lot of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deirdre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album (1997) is even better than her first, from the irrepressible celebratory exuberance of "All Day Always" (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in "Would You Like to Dance" to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words. Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Deirdre McCalla

Everyday Heroes & Heroines 0271
This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deirdre's best yet! — demonstrates this singer/songwriter's exceptional talent again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a foot-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love ballads to social criticism. Includes "All Over the World," "Outside," "Girl You Don't Know," "Blessings," "Sing Me To Sleep." Highly recommended! (OL965) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Deuce

Windjammer
This accomplished jazz fusion band, led by saxophonist Jean Fineberg and trumpeter Ellen Seeling, has made their fans very happy in '96 by releasing their long-awaited second album of smooth instrumental originals — a tizzling blend of blues, funk, rock and Latin and other world music sounds. Former back-up musicians for the likes of Laura Nyro, Sister Sledge and Chic, Jean and Ellen have moved on to form one of the few women-fronted jazz bands playing exclusively original material, displaying virtuosity as instrumentalists, composers and bandleaders — as Michigan festie veterans well know. They offer a mix of light jazz soprano sax sounds, Tower-of-Power-sounding funk (complete with electronic scatting), soft rock guitar-dominated compositions, and balladry. Classy and sensual! (PIV10096) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Dianne Davidson

Breaking All The Rules
While newly taking the women's music world by storm, Dianne's no newcomer to the larger music scene. As this high-energy, gutsy singer, who has performed with Tracy Nelson and Linda Ronstadt, makes her debut on Second Wave Records, years ago we carried some of her raw-cut-on-print albums; but she outdoes any previous effort by a long shot here. The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away: it booms, it wails, it burns, it belts her mixture of blues, country, gospel, r&b, and ballads. About half her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist); the balance is perfectly chosen: includes "Built For Comfort," "Heaven Bound," "Everything To Me" (back-up vocals on one song by Tracy Nelson); outstanding production (by Dianne). Can ya tell we like this a lot? Highly recommended! 1988. (SW22011) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Seed In The Sahara
Their greatly anticipated June '95 album is intimate and uplifting at one moment, poignant and melancholic in another. Cindy Frank comes to sing along with Sonia, and Klaudia Promeski (Blazing Redheads) plays sax on "Millions of Roads." Also includes a new version of "Michelangelo," the long-awaited recording debut of B.Y.O.G. (bring your own god), the queer rights clarion cry "Laws of Nature," "Laura," "Today I Began," "Skin," 11 in all. It's the embodiment of Sonia embracing a strong and passionate direction for the sound of disappear fear's future. (PH1180) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Echo My Call
Now on CD!! Sonia Rutstein Frank and Cindy Frank are blood sisters with captivating sister-harmonies, and their duo album is characterized by haunting melodies, content that spans the personal to US intervention in Central America, and a soulful lo-fi beat delivery. All the material is by husky-voiced lead singer and guitarist Sonia. A fabulous debut! (RER1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

I've been looking for this generation's Bob Dylan — a songwriter with passion and power — and I think that I've found that... only it turned out to be a woman named Sonia. That's how producer Craig Krampf feels about Sonia Frank, the creative force and songwriter for disappear fear, and that's why he wanted to produce this 1994 release. It features 10 new disappear fear songs and an updated cover of Phil Ochs' '60's anthem "There Anybody Here?" Special guests include Janis Ian and the Indigo Girls. (PH1171) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Titles include "Sisters Roses," "Love Isn't Dead," "Love Insurance." This album and their recent touring have garnered them thousands of new fans — which they richly deserve. Deep Soul Diver
With not much more than 2 voices, a guitar and a tambourine, this duo has created a surprisingly sophisticated sound. Veterans of Dinner Theater at the Southern Women's Music Festival, sisters Sonia and Cindy combine engaging melodies with catchy and thoughtful lyrics. This 1990 album balances emotional sincerity and triverness in songs like "For Hollywood I Will" and "Sexual Telepathy." (PH1173) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dyketones

Live in P-Town (Double)

The Fabulous Dyketones album is once again back in print: a full hour and a half of everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's, at a dance party at Dyke High! From "To Know Her Is To Love Her" to "My Girlfriend's Back" to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykeangel Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended! (RRR1001) CS: 10.98

Erica Wheeler

From That Far

This Massachusetts singer/songwriter embodies the finest qualities of folk music: the vocal warmth, the clear acoustic tones, the simplicity of the stories of our lives. Erica's voice is silky and sweet on this 1992 release; her songwriting direct and poetic; and tasteful production, coupled with some of the Northeast's best players, all serve to highlight her songs. Includes Amanda Crazy Wolf, the glowing Down River, the non-monogamy song Back Burner Blues, and Car With No Brakes, about being partners with an incest survivor, infused with spirituality, landscapes, poetry and wit, we highly recommend this album! (BP200) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Woman to Woman

Riding on the wave of the recent "lesbian chic" comes a most unusual 1993 release! This 5-woman (or should we say 5-female) ensemble creates openly lesbian high-tech dance club music... and you can sure dance to it! Includes their single Switch ("Femine in the streets... butch in the sheets..."). Woman to Woman, All About Eve, Coming Out, Freedom of Choice — now you don't have to zone out the lyrics while you lose yourself to the beat! Perhaps some of you caught their appearance on the Geraldo show, with comic Karen Williams and Judy Dlugacz of Olivia Records. We're thrilled to see a greater degree of mainstream acceptance, if that's what this signifies; though time will tell what happens after the novelty/lad is over... in the meantime, enjoy it to the utmost! ### Animus

In 1994, this group excited and aroused the minds and ears of the lesbian community — and the American public — both with their music, and by speaking on the subject of lesbianism on TV, radio, on tour and on the news. They return with their 1995 follow-up album, which captures their trademark sound while highlighting their growth as a group. It's a compelling mix of both high energy pop tracks, which made the group a dance floor favorite in the clubs, and sultry ballads with erotic and sensual lyrics. Expect to see them back on the talk show and publicity campaign trail, speaking out about freedom of sexual preference once more! Includes their first single, Where Did Love Go. (TIO15429) CD: 16.98

Song of Hands

This 1994 album debuts a 7-woman acappella ensemble (they sound like more than 7 to this listener!), whose name translates "woman, my friend". With soaring harmonies that clearly communicate a love of singing, they present songs from around the globe, from contemporary African freedom songs to Spanish Renaissance madrigals, plus originals and songs by other contemporary writers. The women are members of a Unitarian Universalist choir who first got together to sing songs from Libano — you'll hear some similarities in style as well as material. One highlight is a song we remember from a Jade and Sarapajita album, Home; also some songs from Carolyn McCade, and Linda Hirschhorn's Circle Chant... 18 in all, bound to please all lovers of women's voices. ## Ferron

Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any albums: the concert favorite I Know A Game, and Shady Gate, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center... 16 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Phantom Center

One of the longest-awaited albums in the history of independent music, by an artist as singular as her name! Connecting rich, poetic, archetypal imagery with vibrant musical textures, this 1995 re-release of an album originally released in 1990 is guaranteed to create an immediate emotional impact. Many songs were re-recorded and/or re-mixed for the new version; guests include the Indigo Girls and Tori Amos. Songs include Stand Up, My My, Harmless Love, Indian Dreams, White Wing Mercy, Higher Wisdom. (EB42576) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Still Riot

With an all-star cast of supporting vocalists and musicians — which includes the great women who have been backing her music on stage and in studio for years and years (Shelley Jennings, Novi Novog, Jami Sinker, in addition to Indigo Girls, Emily Saliers, violinist Scarlett Rivera, percussionist Vicki Randle and others) — this 1996 release, her full-fledged major-label debut, could finally bring her to the wider audience she has deserved for two decades. Includes a few re-recorded old favorites as well as new stuff: Ain't Life A Broke, I Am Hungry, Venus As Appearances, Alice Says Yes, The Chosen Ones, Easy With Love, Takes A Little Time. Though the establishment press might want you to believe that Ferron is "broadening" her art and now "transcending her feminist pigeonhole", don't be fooled... we all know that it's merely a case of some people having being too dense to appreciate her for the last 20 years! ## Ferron

Driver

In Ferron's own words: "The road may go on forever but it is easier if we remember that the vehicle may change..." From the opening song called Breakpoint, the invocation to perfect love, to the last song Maya, the dedication to actual love, the album of 10 songs is an exploration of how change and commitment interact with each other and with supposed meaning in our lives... I asked myself, and each of the 12 musicians, to play as though we had already got to where we were going and craved nothing more than to stretch out and hold sacred the now of the song. There is a place in each of the songs where I forget where I am, very much like what sometimes happens when we drive and think "Lyrical, lots of depth, layers and substance on this 1994 release, as usual, and as always, very highly recommended. ### Testimony

There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter... hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock n' roll, her testimony "By our lives be we spirit... by our hearts be we woman... by our eyes be we open... by our hands be we whole." (CW003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ferron

Shadows on a Dime

This Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite, very highly recommended! (CW004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Resting With the Question

Who'd have guessed that Ferron's musical gift could express its poetry through instrumental music as well as through songs with lyrics? Not I, certainly, but this 1992 release proves me mistaken! Eloquent compositions performed on synthesizer are saturated with emotion: lush, wistful, yearning, haunting, rich, and circular... elegant and probing dreamscapes. And you'll probably lapse into thinking you're hearing flutes, classical guitars, strings, piano, and human voices. A highly recommended opportunity to experience another dimension of this woman's artistry. (CW006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Girls in the Nose

Origin of the Word

Wherever these gals blow their nose, audiences hold out their hankies for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands, "kickass lesbian rockers from the Lone Star State" whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless... This 1992 release contains Brave Exam, Mojo Madonna, Less Jesus, Pink Guitar, Medusa, Sodomy, Incongruity, and more, singing to and with sexuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pro-choice, pro-home record. Inq! CD's very limited quantity; please list alternative. (GIN2) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Girls in the Nose

One of our top picks for 1991! Wild, saucy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 6-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wider persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Ble Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hill, Prisoners of Pantyhose, So here's some advice from Girls in the Nose, Women unite, take back your hose, Take them back to the damn store, Let nylons be byones, and others in this win. Highly recommended! (GIN1) CS: 9.98

Halcyon

I'm Naked and I'm Going to Paris

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies, ringing acoustic guitars, catchy tunes and upbeat rhythms. Their 1994 release is just in time for fans hungry for more, after their successful debut and festival hours, here with bassdrums/percussion accompaniment. Stephanie Callahan and Debbie Hunseder write their songs primarily around the lost-love theme in its various manifestations, as well as the more political Fire in the Church and Wait For You, about the patience and persistence of love. (HAL1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Slightly Confusing to Strangers

Expanded instrumentation on their 1995 album takes them even farther than their last release! Electric guitar solos add intensity to the compelling, personal, political I Tell You Who I Am, and keyboards add dramatic flair on The Story, Good Intentions has an acappella introduction so soulful it hurts! Eleventh Hour shows that their folk-rock is as upbeat as ever. They branch out into a rockabilly sensibility with Insomnia Blues, then into a funky style in Dreams From Reality, with a little help from a wah-wah pedal. (HAL1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

A Taste of the Blues

This 1987 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for... that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seduced, Leslie Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armatrading's Taking My Baby Upstairs (with a pretty person on my arm), Carolyn Brandy's Spirit Healer, and many originals. Sumptuous jacket, fine production, excellent artistry, wonderful woman. (MOP006) LP: 4.98 CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults! Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written, like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Rain. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Ancient Cry and Yes To Life. BORROWED: songs like Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 19 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print; lots of her best work here; very recommended of course! ### Daydream Me Home

A rollicking, rousing and romantic "thinking person's" recording, this 1994 release follows in the tradition of Old, New, Borrowed, Blue of which Heather's review said, "Individually and collectively these are love songs for a planet and a people." Songs include the tongue-in-cheek If You Leave Me Darlin' (Can I Come Too?), the compelling spiritual Dream Line Special, Ann Martine's stirring Born To Live, Kim Baryluk's song about a woman growing into her own sense of power and purpose, Warrior, and Roy Forbes' bluesy, passionate Let Me Make It Up To You Tonight. ### Journeys

A representative sampling from her first six albums, compiled because so many folks, new to her music, have asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of It Could Have Been Me. (RR405) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sky Dances

A 1989 folk, intimate, emotion-filled release which features Holly at her absolute best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Ferron (Testimony), Bernice Johnson Reagon (They Are Falling All Around Me—especially relevant during the AIDS epidemic), Robin Blades, Phil Ochs, Malvina Reynolds, and Holly herself (Nicaragua)... plus her inimitable interpretation of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. Her themes relate to life, death, and healing/carrying on after loss; accompanying her are John Ducchene, Michael Manning, Nina Gerber. This is the style which has endeared Holly to her thousands of fans; this album should make her many more. (RR8902) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Musical Highlights From The Play

About this 1993 release of highlights from her play Fire in the Rain, Holly says, "While doing the play, audiences kept asking for the cast recording. We didn't have one. The songs were spread out on 15 different recordings made over the last 20 years! A compilation? No, let me record these songs one last time... not like I sang them back then... maybe not even now! I sing them in the show! I hope you enjoy this recording... a celebration of the last 20 years and a reassurance that there are many surprising years yet to come." There are also a few brand new songs here: her original Find Me and Change of Heart, as well as a couple of Broadway-type covers. (RR9303) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

This Train Still Runs

The magic is still there! It's been more than a decade since these two magnificent singers joined forces and recorded their first album. LifeLine... this 1996 collection features passionate duets and stirring solos from these long time artists, activists and cultural workers who have touched and transformed many lives. 19 tracks in all, including When I'm Not Near the Girl I Love, Marie, Pastures of Plenty, Agitator, Home Is Where the Heart Is, Music In My Mother's House. ### LifeLine

A majestic collaboration of generations and spirits. Ronnie was one of the Weavers in the 40's and 50's, a folk group which loudly voiced the progressive and humanist concerns of the American people until the blacklist virtually silenced them, and which won the hearts and devotion of a huge following. Holly grew up admiring Ronnie's strong, proud singing and stance, and dedicated her second album (A Live Album) to her. They got together for the filming of "Wasn't That a Time", when Ronnie was learning some of Holly's songs for the Weavers' Carnegie reunion concert. Ronnie's awareness of women's issues and her consciousness of herself as a woman performer had grown because of Holly's music. They then began touring together, and this is a live recording from the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco. Styles encompass Broadway, folk, jazz, gospel. Includes the great song previously recorded by Kate Taylor, Harriet Tubman, plus Gracias a la Vida, Goodnight Irene, Hey, Uta, Muler (new arrangement/words), Singing For Our Lives. 1988. ### Imagine My Surprise!

That Holly's most woman-identified album is not only back in print, it's also being issued on CD! Contains some funky country-style music, inspiring political stories, beautiful musical and vocal arrangements by Meg Christan, and a sweet lullaby. Includes title, Mountain Song, Kentucky Woman, The Women in My Life, You Bet I Sing Love Songs, Rock Me in Your Arms, New, Fight Back! (RR401) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fire in the Rain

She's done it again! Holly's incredible talent as a singer-songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (she also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this LP has a light arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as Golden Thread, Voices, & a remake of My Man & Gor Trouble called I Got Trouble. Title cut sparkles with harmonics. (RR402) CD: 15.98

Don't Hold Back

Holly seems to present her listeners with one surprise after another, and this 1987 album is no exception! An entire volume of love songs, passion, heartbreak, and sheer fun... with hot arrangements and guest vocals by Bonnie Raitt, Linda Tilley, and Kenny Loggins. If you like the energy of contemporary radio and wish you could hear your favorite artists on it, you can rock out with this! For fans old and new. (RR413) CD: 15.98

HARP

When this reviewer dies and goes to folk heaven, she fully expects this recording to be heard in elevators and dentist offices. HARP bridges the gap of generations and gives a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. On this live recording, Pete and Ronnie (two original members of the legendary Weavers) lead the group on classic oldies like Jacob's Ladder, Oh, Mary Don't You Weep, Wine, Wine, Arlo solos with such favorites as City of New Orleans and All Over the World. Holly's solos include Fine Time and a moving melody with Ronnie of Marvin Gaye's What's Going On and her own Foolish Notion. The four perform together and weave harmonies. This is historical folk music at its best. 1985. (RR409) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jamie Anderson

Never Assume

This favorite women's music performer's 1995 album delivers what her fans (and we) have come to expect: outrageously funny stories of true life adventures and touching ballads of life and love, all told with her evocative vocals. The title track challenges a few preconceived ideas: Midnight Alice is inspired by a teenage love affair — with a car. The true story of breast cancer, One Out of Three, is a strong, positive song with startling honesty and hope; Tell is the tale of growing up with family secrets. And what Jamie Anderson album would be complete without a few songs to make you laugh out loud? Menstrual Tango and When Cats Take Over the World will do the job. Produced by the infamous Lisa Koch. (TSU1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Center of Balance

Jamie's second release (1992) continues with her humorous, pointed material she's become quite known for and contains many of the songs she's performed on tour: I'm Sorry is her song of condolence for her father ("I'm sorry that you're straight; it can't be your fault; have you tried counseling or talking to god?"). All of Me is a funny song about body image ("Don't emphasize your butt; pretend that it's tiny; the first thing that folks notice shouldn't be your hery"). Loretta and Bernadine is about her great-aunt and her long-time companion... plus her usual array of contemplative and/or weird songs. Vocal assistance given by Sue Fink, Mimi Baczewski, Leah Zicari. Always recommended! (TSU1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Bad Hair Day

This late 1993 release features some of Jamie's funniest songs ever! Take out a Ladieslipper personal favorite: looks at a problem we've all had at one time or another: while Sweet Maiden is simply a demented folk song, Wynona, Why Not? has a full Nashville sound, and Love Song is a look at some of the music we survived during the 70's; both these songs were produced by Lisa Koch of Venus Envy and Dos Fallopa. Together with songs from her first two albums, classics like Nothing (I'm nothing - without - you) and I'm Sorry (a song of condolences for heterosexuals), this comedic collection will brighten even your worst hair day. Highly recommended! (TSU1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Jamie Fota

Out of the Silence

This woman-identified singer/songwriter's 1995 debut album is equal parts politics, romance, new age philosophy and affirmations. Combining folk with light rock, her songs range from walling saxophone rockers (I Think I'm Falling For You), to tropical samba rhythms (Evening Star) to delicate violin and acoustic guitar strumming on In the Shelter. She focuses on connecting with the power of the Goddess (Let Her Power Through), cherishing your Inner Child (From Within) and the healing that comes with just letting go and having a good time (Go Out and Party). Very pro-womanly empowering! (FOT1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Wild Strings

We know this is an old (1987) title, but if you love women's voices and don't own yet it, grab it before it's out of print, because it's one of the most exquisite albums ever recorded on the face of the earth... it is magnificent, intelligent, and absolutely a pleasure. These 3 talented women deliver awe-some harmonies, powerhouse energy, plus strength in lyric, rhythm, and melody (some of the finest songwriting this reviewer has had the opportunity to appreciate). Mostly original material: includes Across the Wide, Muses, You Were Here, Seven Day Kiss. Very highly recommended! (ICE217) CS: 9.98

Leave a Little Light Behind

We're happy to bring back her 1992 debut album, now that it's out on CD. Songs cover a wide range of topics including women's terrorism, friendship, incest, war, and our favorite Garth Brooks. Stylistically you'll hear country rock to ballads with even a little Mississippi Delta sound. (HLW1301) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Your Heart Will Show You

Born and raised in Zimbabwe, an 11-year resident of New Zealand, and now living in the US, this artist brings quite a world perspective to women's music! This 1994 release, her second solo effort, wraps the power of the human spirit in a package of kick-ass rock and tender ballads. All but one song here is original, sometimes moving, sometimes funny, sometimes righteously political, sometimes inspiring, and always delivered with knockout Kiwi style. Includes They Are Coming For You, a resounding NO to right-wing entrenchment featuring several raucous lesbians and one little person, plus Family Values, The UFO, and other beauties. (HLW1302) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jezebel

Acappella is hot — and it just got hotter with this righteous quartet. A little bit Sweet Honey in the Rock, a little bit BETTY, a little bit 70's soul sisters (a la LaBelle) and a touch of that early 60's "girl group" sound pervades through the 13 original compositions on the 1995 album. The lyrics are feisty and feminist, and songs like Testosterone and Glass Slipper show that not only are they NOT going to take it anymore, they aren't chewing off their lipstick worrying about the consequences. (DIS77021) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jo Miller and Laura Love

Sing Bluegrass and Old-Time Music

Ranch Romance's lead singer and the inimitable Laura Love join forces on this 95 release of 16 lovely, intense, pretty much traditional bluegrass and old-time songs — most of them duets. Full of fast-paced raves, beautiful ballads, and yes, yodeling. It features accompaniment by the amazing dobro/mandolin player Orville Johnson, plus Nancy Katz, Ivona Devonne and David Keenan of Ranch Romance. Jo and Laura have been occasionally performing as the Jo Miller/Laura Love Connection, between their other commitments, and crowd response has been phenomenal: so if you haven't yet, catch their gig here! ## Judy Small

The Best of the 80's

This wonderful 1993 retrospective contains some of the best material — 17 songs! — from Judy's first 4 albums: Mothers, Daughters Wives, One Voice in the Crowd, Home Front, and A Natural Selection... song titles include The I.P.D., The Family Maiden Aunt, Women of Our Time, From the Lambing To the Wool. In addition, she includes her popular but never before recorded song for recessionary times, Ordinary People. It's a lot of great songwriting for the money! And, watch for Judy on tour in the states, US Immigration Service willing. (CRA007) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Second Wind

This 1993 album (the year of Judy's 40th birthday) represents a shift in focus, both musically and in writing style. She collaborates here with pianist/composer David Bates, whose background is strongly influenced by jazz, and the result brings a new sophistication to Judy's composition. And, she gets to come out from behind her guitar! The songs still reflect her concern with matters of conscience, they speak of love, tell stories about people's lives with which others can identify, and sometimes poke gentle fun at a world that at times leaves itself too seriously. Includes Daughters of the Second Wave, Life Begins at Forty, Sacred Ground, Man Among Men, Lunch in a Modern World, and Maddy Prior's Woman in the Wings. Truly demonstrates the coming of age of a fine Australian artist. (CRA008) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Judy Small

Global Village

This 1995 release is as close to Judy's acoustic performance style as any of her prior recordings: voice with guitar and fiddle as the principal instruments. The songs reflect a mature reflectiveness, with just the right mixture of pathos, humor and politics. Includes Music in the Movement, a tribute to all women singers and songwriters who have nourished the women's movement in the last few decades; Love Is a Fearsome Thing, a ballad about how people are persecuted for falling in love outside of the socially accepted parameters; and What Was Her Name which celebrates the centenary of women's suffrage in Australia. (CRA009) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

June and Jean Millington

Ticket to Wonderful

This long-awaited 1993 release is the Millington sisters' best work yet! They combine their Philippine island roots, elevated lyrics and a folk-rock sensibility (honed in the 70's with their pioneering work in Fanny, the first all-woman rock band to achieve international prominence) to create a unique World Beat blend of island consciousness and rock-steady global rhythms. Original songs range from the upbeat and passionate Lighting the Night to the crisp and hauntingly beautiful Indigo Skies, to the playful Goin' to Hawaii, to the playful Family (World of Love). Living up to its title, this album brings a new dimension to the words "soul music." (FAB707) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Justina & Joyce
So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording. The best one I've ever purchased from Ladyslipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)." Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works; each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording. The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Affirmation, which states, "No, I will not lie down, I will not submit! I will not quiet, I will resist..." a moving cover of Ferron's Testimony, and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this 1991 recording enough! (HSR101) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Justina & Joyce
Rhythms, Rhymes and Rides

The 1995 release by this intense vocal duo contains 8 of Joyce's original songs (about love, passion, disappointment, freedom) plus 3 great covers: Marcia Taylor's universally true Why Forgive and Forget (When You Can Remember and Blame), Jamie Anderson's song about breast cancer, One Out of Three, and a gorgeous 16th century acappella motet, Mille Regretz, featuring the sublime voices of Cindy Kaefer and Susan Herrick. Favorite tracks include the erotic Sip of Water, the moving harmony of A Light To Lead Me Home, and of course the motet. 4 voices suited perfectly for the genre — do you think they'd make a whole album of that if enough of us asked? A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found an import supply of k.d.'s debut release... It's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have been on her video Cropped and Chronicled: Bopulena ("she's my pal"). Hanky Panky, her original Pine and Sire, plus Patsy Cline's Slog. Look and Listen and 5 others. No k.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM96) CS: 11.98... CD: 18.98

Shadowland

Highlight here is Honky Tonk Angels. Medley is medley of the Evening When the Sun Goes Down, You Nearly Lost Your Mind, and Blues Stay Away From Me, with vocals by "The Honky Tonk Angels" — consisting of no less than Kitty Wells, Loretta Lynn, Brenda Lee, and k.d. herself! Some of you have no doubt seen the terrific video. More evocative, sultry and powerhouse vocals from k.d., in less of a rowdy, more country-ballad style than her first release. It's dynamite: don't miss it! 1988. (SIR25724) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Absolute Torch and Twang

Following Shadowland, this 1989 album is true to the title, with country ballads resonating from the Canadian prairies. Some great originals, such as Nowhere to Stand, It's Me, Walkin' In and Out of Your Arms, and Big-Boned Girl, as well as absolute country crooners like Full Moon Full of Love... all her love songs quite genderless. A talent to be reckoned with, and an album for all fans. (SIR25677) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Miss Chateleine: CD Maxi-Single

I never understood the point of CD "maxi-singles," which usually consist of several remixed versions of a song with an additional throwaway track stuck on. Why not just buy the whole album (in this case, Ingenue)? Well... It suddenly all makes sense! Besides the absolutely fab-u-lous cover photos of k.d. in her stacked hair, beaded daisy jewelry! 1993's lemon yellow chiton dress "drag" (it gets so confusing sometimes) which are wise investments in and of themselves, the remixes transform the song into something else entirely. The St. Tropez Mixes will inspire you to rush on down to your local Arthur Murray studios for some rumba lessons. Who could have guessed? Also contains the single and album version plus Outside Myself. (SIR40792) CD: 8.98

Just Keep Me Moving: CD Maxi-Single

Taken from Even Cowgirls... this already very funky single song with its rubbery guitar-bass 70's thing happening is jacked up to complete dance floor compatibility with the Movin' Mix and the Wild Planet Mix. Also includes In Perfect Dreams. Cover photos are k.d.'s beefy cheesecake grunge-babe poses. 1993. (SIR41197) CD: 6.98

Lifted By Love: CD Maxi-Single

Take the original Cowgirls haunting ballad, install a stinky beat under it and presto! you have yourself a siliery sexy dance song (the Cub Xmas Mix). Or, if you rather, turn up the beats-per-minute knob and move your body to the Elevate Your Love Mix. You also get the tropicalized Miss Chateleine and the enhanced Just Keep Me Moving. Most exquisite, however, is k.d.'s duet with gay boy Andy Bell from the group Erasure on the Diana Ross/Bette Midler 78 classic, No More Tears (Enough is Enough)!!!! Is k.d. our new disco diva? Imagine white linen in the surf and you can get an idea of the sumptuous, drip-dry cover photo. A must-have for any fan! (SIR41379) CD: 8.98

k.d. lang
If I Were You

My, what a life. Ahem. From the moment you spy the garish faux-industrial, faux-import cover art, you can feel pretty confident that k.d. hasn't dusted off her vinyl cowboy boots for this one. Sure enough, on this 1995 release she has moved far away from the prairie to a place of shimmeringly beautiful and sophisticated pop. This is music that doesn't hit you over the head, rather, it holds you gently under your skin and affects you in ways you don't even realize. Sexuality is a sinky yet square-in-the-face come-on. It would be hard to say no. In Aquiesce, I enjoy her repeated imploring commands to do just that, especially since masterful usage of that word is so rare. Like a rich slice of chocolate cake, this is decadent! (SIR46034) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

If I Were You

This 1996 maxi-single includes 4 mixes of the title track, plus the album edit of Get Some. (SIR43624) CD: 8.98

k.d. lang
Ingenue

Here's what the blurb sheet from the label said, and, we agree with it totally! "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dripped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chateleine, Constant Craving, Warm Me Clean, and Save Me. 1992. Kathryn Warner
Glass House

Remember how you felt when you first heard Bonnie Raitt, Elton McIlwaine, or Chris Williamson (or substitute your favorite vocalist here)... chills up and down your spine? Well, Kathryn possesses one of the most powerful and fabulous new voices to emerge on the scene (well, not completely new — she's a featured vocalist on two of Desert Wind's Goddess albums). Joined by veterans Nina Garber, Mary Watkins, Jean Fineberg and June and Jean Mullington, Kathryn and musical partner Sandy Ayala offer this finely crafted album which includes the introspective Surrender to the River, the playful dance track Mist Be Love, and the haunting Prisoner in My Head. Highly recommended — give her a chance to spellbind you. (FAB508) CS: 9.98

Kathryn Warner
True North

What a voice! With the purity of an alto Joan Baez and the richness of Toolee, Kathryn Warner is a wonderful gift to cherish and hold close. Her 1996 album has a direct line to your heart and once there it tugs on the strings for all it's worth. Songs include the inspirational following-the-dream Freedom From Here, the redemptive I Remember You, written for a friend who has died, the empowering survivor-of-domestic-abuse I'm Leaving You and the Esteé-inspired We Are The Women. From blues to ballads, she creates beautiful mini-tapes with each song. Highly recommended! (FC101) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Kid Sister
Broken Bridges

This early 1995 release, Kid Sister's first full-length album, features an eclectic mixture of smooth acoustic melodies and downright edgy rock 'n' roll. The Durham NC-based duo (Ruth Viennieu and Piper Kessler) showcases their variety in taste and talent in their arrangements. Though they began as an all-acoustic duo, the evolution of their music was inevitable, and after hooking up with many local musicians to add their own personal flair to the sound, that evolution is now a reality! Includes Clare, Little Girl, Shiny Eyes (Lullaby), and Darkness of My Silence, a coming out song. (K52) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Kite
Talk To Me

This British feminist acappella trio (the members are Venice Manley, Joanna Foster and Helen Chadwick) delicately traverse a number of vocal traditions in this 1995 recording. The originals by Joanna Foster are complex quilts in a Sweet Honey in the Rock tradition. A highlight is House, in which she honors her "unrespectable" grandmother. They also sing the moving When I'm Gone and El Arbol de los Libres, based on Pablo Neruda poems, a traditional Irish air Lagan Love, a traditional Rumanian lullaby, and two African-American spirituals arranged by Ysaie M. Barnwell (speaking of Sweet Honey). A definite find for fans of female voices! (KT1) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

The Laura Love Collection

This beautifully designed compilation contains selections from Laura's 3 albums on her own Octonoon Biography label: Z Therapy, Pangaea, and Helvetica Bold. The Putumayo World Music label, who fell in love with her "Afro-Celtic" style, issued this retrospective in 1994 in the hopes of bringing her music to a wider listenership, and we hope they succeed — she deserves it, and we think she'll well on her way to greatness! (PUT118) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Laura Love
Z Therapy

Laura's 1990 release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band — thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat G. Several songs impart a world beat with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos. Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Laura Love
Pangaea

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant — all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severt) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Nanci Griffith's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes — there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing. Nelson, Voices. Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Laura Love
Helvetica Bold

Incredible vocals, amazing African/Bulgarian yodeling and unique, percussive bass playing are featured in a mix of originals and novel renditions of well-loved classics... as she layers Appalachian, Celtic, African, and urban American sounds and sentiments into a pastiche of unforgettable melody and groove. In addition to her own tunes, she imprints her style on the folk chestnuts 500 Miles, Wayfaring Stranger, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and possibly the year's best dance party tune, Jackie DeShannon's Put A Little Love In Your Heart. Themes are where we fit in the world — how she sees it, how she wishes it were, how she hopes it will be... in her words, "that middle ground between Pollyanna and suicidal." She's one of our favorite artists, so we urge you not to miss this 1994 release. (OB4) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Libby Roderick
If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. By far the most popular song here is her internationally acclaimed, poignantly simple ballad, How Could Anyone Ever Tell You, which has been sung in everything from incest recovery groups to kindergarten classes to peace gatherings. Also notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; additionally includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women, Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout, and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on thee! An excellent debut album. (TRT1001) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick
Thinking Like a Mountain

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including title plus Is That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams. Go, Holy Thing to Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. If the World Were My Lover

This feminist singer/songwriter just keeps getting better, as she proves on this 1993 release, which will truly move you to see the world as your lover. Includes the hauntingly beautiful title song, a hilarious country swing number Heaven Down Here, the poignant Because You Go, and Libby's first rock and roll song (Thunder, which warns of the rise of fundamentalism in US politics. We always recommend Libby! (TRT1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Lojo Russo
Dreamlife/colour

You might be familiar with the unvarnished charm of this Minneapolis singer/songwriter from the women's music festivals at which she frequently plays. This 1996 album features her delicate guitar picking juxtaposed nicely with her warm, inviting voice and leavened with everything from harp to fuzzy electric guitars to pennywhistles to durabeka to djembe. The sound isn't easy to smush into a category: she goes acoustic instrumentals (Winter/Summer) along with rocking blues (The Good Stuff) and humorous "testilyin'" absurdities (Holy Day Ham Sing). Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Olivia has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Chris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Chris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Chris, Tret Fure, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McCalla. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — treat yourself now! Recommended. 1986. (OL947) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tendresse/Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her 1989 album includes perceptive socio-political songs: Politique, Peaking, ever-touching love songs: Montreal, Absence, and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Transformations

Another charmed release for late 1992 from this charming performer: songs in both English and French include Chez Nous, All Out of Love Tonight, Homeless, Sail Away, The Gully One. Highly recommended! (OL967) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lynn Layner
Butch Fatale

At last! This hilarious and touching performer has released her first live recording, with 14 examples of her witty "dyke gal cabaret" — both the comedic songs for which she is well known, plus several stand-up monologues all interspersed with hilarious and sometimes sobering stage patter. Songs include Seven Nights ("Dear Joanne Loutan, I am writing you this letter hoping you can give me some advice — you seem so nice" ... in the last 6 months we haven't done it twice; cut 7 nights, a week she goes Country Western dance ...). Come Home, a warm tribute to Sharon Kowalski and Karen Thompson's courage and strength in the face of their court-enforced separation, and the perfect example of incompatibility on a first date, Alone Together. Margie Adam
Soon and Again

We have journeyed with Margie from Songwriter, featuring two piano solos to Naked Keys, with all piano instrumentals, to Another Place, with its instrumental interludes, and we arrive with her in 1995 at a creative project that is exclusively instrumental. Margie's solo piano is still purely her and still purely women's music. Of all the possible emotions that the pieces on this album could evoke, two of the strongest are hope and love. The title of one song, Something About Us, speaks perhaps about a relationship between two people, or perhaps about an entire community. A brilliant, expressive work. (PLE2752) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Naked Keys

Eleven original solo piano performances ... soothing, drifting, whimsical. This is Margie in some ways at her truest: her medium, her style. Her years at the piano, having this music flow through her, precede & underlie her singing & her songwriting ones. 1980. (PLE2740) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Margie Adam
Another Place

Well, this 1993 album was worth the wait! Honestly, we thought we'd lost her for good, but she's back with a lovely collection of songs, chock full of her trademark wry and gentle observations on the ways of the heart. Her voice has matured and deepened, and by bringing together some of today's best Women's Music artists (old and new), she breathes a new, steady life into the scene. Bravo! Includes the humorous Talk with my Heart, which features beautiful instrumental interludes when her heart answers back, the steadfast Long Haul in which she honors those still fighting for our rights, and the heartbreaking Time Goes Slowly By, in which an elderly woman sits bewildered in a nursing home, waiting to be taken home ... 13 gems in all, waiting for you to take them home! Highly recommended. (PLE2751) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Meg Christian
I Know You Know

Olivia's first album, by one of the original Women's Music artists ... a veritable classic which helped to bend in the age of Women's Music! Melissa Etheridge
Never Enough

Fans will be relieved to know that this 1992 release maintains the power and intensity of previous albums while recreating that surreal Melissa Etheridge landscape of passion and obsession. These ten original songs once again demonstrate her virtuosity and versatility, her strength and her vision. We started to wonder, however, if there hadn't been some changes in her life with songs like The Letting Go and Keep It Precious. The tongue-in-cheek Must Be Crazy for Me and charged 2007 reassured us that she hadn't changed too much though ... recommended! (PLG512120) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Brave and Crazy

With tremendous energy and one of the sexiest voices ever recorded, Melissa seeks her blockbuster debut with a 1989 album guaranteed to please. Also includes The Angels and Testify. Highly recommended! (PLG842302) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Melissa Etheridge

Known as "Melissa" to women's audiences, her high-powered 1988 debut album has made a significant impact in the commercial music world. It's full of raw passion, sexuality, intensity and emotion, explicitly lush in a manner that's quite rare in a woman's musical repertoire ... mesmerizing and quite refreshing! All original songs with her own acoustic guitar and additional instrumentation, fairly produced, includes Similar Features and Bring Me Some Water. Recommended! (PLG842303) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Your Little Secret

This 1995 release contains 10 finely-wrought, passionately performed tracks, as Melissa traverses the sometimes rocky landscape of love gained and love lost. From the opening drum beats of the hard-edged title track to the anthemic, yearning strains of Nowhere to Go, the sultry I Want to Come Over to the closing bars of the luxuriously layered This War is Over, she covers this terrain with the resonance and honesty that is her trademark. And we're so glad she is!! This 1993 release is a testament to the exhilaration of unbridled rock and roll, with Melissa at her most passionate — capturing the live feel Melissa wanted. Includes the bluesy, straight-ahead rocker I'm the Only One, plus Come to My Window, Silent Legacy, Taking to My Angel, and I Will Never Be the Same, originally heard in the Winona Ryder movie Welcome Home Rosy Carmichael and re-recorded for this album. For the Love of You

This 1996 release from a women's music veteran (whose last name is pronounced "Ba-sheh-ska") features 13 original songs with smooth vocals, intriguing harmonies, textured arrangements and booming personality. If you're familiar with her debut album, you'll notice the seasoned maturity in her voice too. From the folk-pop of Power Rides to the alternative edge of Forus, Mimi's lyrics reflect love, humor and pride in her Polish heritage. (MM2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Round Our Way

Finally, in 1994, here's the American debut by a vibrant 6-woman a cappella group from London's East End ... who combine soul, gospel, reggae, pop and doo wop in unique arrangements. Some of you may know them from their contributions to the Do It A Cappella compilation, or from their appearances on "Saturday Night Live." This album combines live material and studio performances of their original songs mixed with covers of crowd pleasers such as The Stakes, Higher and Higher, Mumblin' and more — their songwriting and vocal talent is sure to capture the imagination of music lovers everywhere. Parodisiac

Parodisiac: a person with an abnormal need to take other people's artistic endeavors and mess with them ... This 1995 tour de force is a great collection of Monica's side-splitting parodies. Subjects run a gamut, from lesbian parenting (Down at the Sporn Bank) to dating bisexual women (My Boyfriend's Back and I'm Gonna Be Bisexual). Also included is her celebrated parody of that most revered performer (hint: what rhymes with "heron"?). (GAN103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Motherlode
Precious Stone

Good news! Music from this 4-woman Northwest ensemble is again available through Ladieslipper. Their 1995 release reflects the artistic maturity of a folk band that has been together for 15 years. Voices and percussion celebrate the inner light in each person in Magic ... A dissonant clip of America's national anthem sets the tone for Outrage, a song for the redemption of victims of prejudice ... Co-Dependent No More speaks humorously to many lesbian couples ... and Cowgirl's Lullaby is truly the perfect lullaby for any girl-child. Producer Linda Waterfall adds her keyboard talent to create a glorious, ringing steel drum effect on Hero, an empowering call to our strength within. Also features guest artist Nina Gerber on guitar. Their music has a feminist and a spiritual focus — a great resource for women seeking hope and healing. (NEX125) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Mrs. Fun (with k.d. lang, indigos)
No Ennui

The perfect remedy for musical ennui! Joined by musicians such as k.d. lang, the indigo Girls, and Dayna Kurtz on background vocals, this duo stomps the jazz terra, breaking through old boundaries and establishing new ones. From the hard-driving funk of Gossip to the twisted swing of Thelma Houston's Mank's Epiphany, Connie Grauer's bass-driven piano coupled with Kim Zick's aggressive in-the-pocket drumming will rock your world. Honey On My Lips

This sultry-voiced 1992 album from Mississippi's own features songs filled with love, feminist insight, and woman-power. Whether it be blues, rock or ballads, taste a little Honey On My Lips — nothing could be sweeter ... Her voice has been compared to Joan Armatrading's. Includes the rocking lesbian anthem Linda, her signature piece Chug On, and Don't Be Despaired, performed live with Mary Watkins. Wild Zone: Essential Parachute Club

This 15-track retrospective contains some of the most incredible, political material this band has ever recorded: 2 versions of their super-hit Rise Up (one of the best songs of the century) — the original plus a new 1992 dance remix — as well as Boys Club, Sexual Intelligence, Alienation and more... from their 3 previous albums, self-titled, At the Feet of the Moon, and Small Victories. Very highly recommended; we're relieved that some of this material is once again available! (RCA17294) CS: 7.98

Peaceful Women
Earth Walker

The beauty of female voices — dipping and weaving into, over and under each other — are in full display on this 1996 release by a feminist acappella quartet. Singing a mixture of songs and rounds, both originals and well-chosen covers, they are concerned themselves with social activist themes: Bernice Johnson Reagan's Give Your Hands to Struggle, the Teles Nôres' Why Are the Farmers Dying?, and Peaceful Woman Madeline Hart's anti-capitalism Bank Teller and anti-gun Protect the Children. Their earth focus connects with the Zap Man-ish original Sing Back the Balance, the round Ring Around the Moon, and Chief Seattle's Every Part of This Earth. Finally they just have fun with Libby Frederick's How Could Anyone Ever Tell You and the Jackie Wilson/Rita Coolidge hit Higher and Higher. (PW2) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Peggy Seeger
The Folkways Years 1955-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England, and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be An Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Willie Tyson's Debutante went out of print... we're thrilled the song's back in print, by its author no less, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face, Fred Sosa's Talking Wheelchair Blues, and lots more... frankly, her best material ever! (Except for cover graphics) we highly recommend it! (SF40048) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 8 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive, and this 1992 release is as upbeat as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! Rhythm Rite (7-song EP)

This 1995 7-song EP actually contains remixed versions of selected cuts from a soon-to-be-released full-length album... so buy this now, unless you're the deferred gratification type. Dubbed "the wild women of world beat", this 8-piece all-women's band from Santa Cruz, CA, easily backs up that claim with a mixture of jazz, funk, rock, reggae and African rhythms. This project takes the energy of Madame Pele and mixes it with the Juju magic of producer extraordinaire George Acogny (Sereqah) whose previous credits include Mano Dibango, Youssef N'Dour, and virtually every other major African recording artist, as well as Peter Gabriel and Sinead O'Connor. (PEL002) CS: 8.98 CD: 12.98

Phranc
Goofyfoot

This 6-song CD EP is the 1995 release from the inimitable pioneering Jewish lesbian folk-singer! L.A. punk rocker, a.k.a. "my favorite bitch" to some AOL subscribers! It contains 3 classic covers (including Mrs. Brown, You've Got A Lovely Daughter — on ukulele) and 3 originals including title track and Bulldogger Swagger. She says, "Unplugged is a word I would use to describe my toaster, not my music!" There is nothing wrong with folk music. (KRS233) CD: 9.98

Phranc
I Enjoy Being a Girl

Phranc's 1989 album could be the first major label release to contain a line such as "I'm a Jewish lesbian, you see," in a song called Take Off Your Swastika. A terrific mixture of serious and humorous, whimsical and satirical, personal and topical material, right down to the 50's cover artwork (Phranc with her glass of milk and her bitch dog) includes her second ode to M-A-R-T-I-N-A, a memorial to her grandmothers Miriam and Esther, and others ranging in theme from South African apartheid to Toys R Us. Out of print, limited quantity, don't dawdle! (PLG842579) CS: 8.98

Phranc
Folksinger

Phranc, whose music is a blend of topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary, has come somewhat full circle: early women's movement, to L.A. punk scene, playing with bands like Nervous Gender and Catholic Discipline, to modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective. This is one of few lesbian recordings to be released on an independent label other than one associated with women's music. Includes the laudatory Carolyn, Ballad of the Dumb Hairdresser, One of the Girls, Female Mud Wrestling, Handicapped Amazons. ("I wanna live with Martina, like Nancy Lieberman"). Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. Out of print, limited quantity, order ASAP. (PLG846356) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

Phranc
Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60's music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a strong account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader/ member and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Sorter Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful acappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Gertrude Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our favorites, always recommended! (PLG848282) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Rebecca Riots

This Berkeley-based feminist folk trio (Eve Decker, Andrea Prachett, and Lisa Zeller), previously known as Final Girl, presents a 1995 "radical folk-rock" album which has garnered comparisons to Casselberry Dupree — both in the intense acoustic sound and the dynamic and political lyrics. Desperate Measures is a cry for civil disobedience in the face of injustice, while Slow Burn describes, from both perspectives, an encounter between a frightened woman and a homeless man. Cut Through The Super-wonders "what would happen if one woman told the truth about her life?" Other tracks like Faith, Choices, No Wings, and Landmines are by and about women who live the examined life. Recommended! (RR13) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Rene Russell

A native of Columbia SC, and now a part of the little Austin TX music scene, Rene has been on the road for over 10 years with her finger-picked 12-string guitar and friendly rock-n-roll. An out lesbian, she has opened for the Indigo Girls, Tom Chapin, and, hold on to your hats, Hoobie and the Blowfish. Her 1996 album of original mid-tempo originals with a little growl is reminiscent of Melissa Ferrick and gets down easily. (As I'm writing this, fellow Slips keep popping in to ask who I'm listening to. She's picked our interest!) Well-produced (not to be taken for granted...) with tasty arrangements for guitar, keyboards, bass, and drums, her songs are about universal themes with special interest to lesbians and gays. Choices is an indictment of hate-filled bigotry, and We Live and Breathe is an autobiographical song about knowing that you are different from other children (i.e. queer). Recommended! (VRG8950) CD: 14.98

Rhiannon
Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alvin, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material: from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Sherandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Rose, Janet Smal, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Boden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! Rhiannon
Loosen Up and Improvise

This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alvin) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns... exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon talks you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique; if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHN1) CS: 9.98

Rhiannon
Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy... for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-up, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHN2) CS: 9.98

Rhiannon
Live... On Tamales Bay

This concert album is all the more personal and intimate because it was recorded close to the artist's home on the California coast; it's like having a front row seat for a whole evening of her inspired musical artistry. Exquisitely rendered jazz standards like My One and Only and Love Comes and Goes are mixed with exciting performances of Caged Bird, Flying and more, all interwoven and punctuated with classic Rhiannon improvisations. She is inimitable, zany, tenderly heart wrenching, powerful jubilant and always touched by a higher spirit. This late-summer 1996 collection reaffirms her place as one of the most original and gifted stylists of our time. (RHN3) CD: 15.98

The Rhythm Method

We think the title of this album is actually the symbols 4, triangle, woman, note, but our computers and typesetters won't do that, so let's call it self-titled. We've had orders for it before even adding it to our catalog — and with good reason: the popularity of acappella music has taken off lately, and these 4 Colorado women do it justice. They encompass a range of styles, from blues (like Ma Rainey's Prove It On Me Blues) to gospel (Rivers of Babylon), and even barbershop (Last Night On the Back Porch). Lyrics are changed here and there to reflect their lesbian-feminist points of view, to hilarious effect in Met Her On a Sunday. 3 of the 15 songs are originals; highly recommended. ## Righteous Mothers

All the Rage & None of the Calories ☎0131
The Righteous Moms were regulars in our catalog back in the 80's, and we're happy to welcome them back! This 1991 release contains some of their best songs, including She Charly, a sea-type charity about childbirth; Big Legged Woman; Py, about a woman who bought off a slasher and lived; Waiting in Line (with 60 other women for one of 2 stalls in the "poorly designed" ladies room); and many other feminist and funny commentaries on women's experience. (NEX111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Righteous Mothers

Pesky Angels ☎0132
These 4 funny, fabulous, philosophical female folk-rock musicians have performed together since 1981. They transform Supreme Court decisions, annoying dreams, secret obsessions and other everyday experiences into great songs which they perform with seamlessly intricate Roche-like vocal harmonies, backed with keyboards, bass, guitar and percussion. This 1994 release, with contributions from Nina Gerber and Linda Waterfall, is charming, infectious and fun; highlights include The Homophobia Tango; 60,000 Naked Hoosiers; Don't Dial That Number; and Untitled Meditation No. 27. (NEX120) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Roy Orbison with k.d. lang

King of Hearts ☎0133
True: Roy Orbison was not a woman — good point — but this posthumous album, a collection of masters and demos from the late rock-n-roll legend, includes the much-desired, 1989 Grammy Award-winning duet with k.d. lang, a remake of his classic Crying. She is also heard doing the back-up vocal thing on You're the One. Remember, her experience with Roy influenced her musical change of direction away from Patsy Cline and gave the world Ingenue! (VIR05520) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Suede

Easily Suede ☎0334
The release of Suede's solo debut album in 1988 was long anticipated. It features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance; to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (you Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home — her music, that is. The CD has a few bonus tracks! (EAS1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Suede

Barely Blue ☎0334
This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy, bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister, My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unreleased works. She interprets two John Bucchino songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Bucchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick

Truth & the Lie ☎0232
A remarkable 1991 recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult, which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong; her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this — we're giving it our highest recommendation! (WFR1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick

Soul Chant
We're so thrilled this artist has blessed us with another release for 1994! It includes songs she's been performing to wild audience response (and getting lots of requests that she put them on an album) — such as Motherland, Thunder, A Little More Laughter, Climb Your Tree, No Way Out — and features guest artists Margie Adam and Justina & Joyce. Soulful, sincere, powerful, passionate, intense, healing, rhythmic, mystical and archetypal — these are the words that come to mind when reflecting upon Susan's music, and it's been a joy for us to experience her growth as an artist. Highly recommended! (WFR1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Therese Edell & Friends

For Therese
On March 10, 1990, to celebrate Therese Edell's 40th birthday, a group of artists and friends gathered to put on a one-of-a-kind concert that was also a loving tribute to Therese and her musical contributions, and, lucky for us, 60 minutes of this event have been preserved! Therese produced the album, which features musicians like Sue Fink, Betsy Lippitt, Kay Gardner, Deirdre McCaffrey, Lydia Mata, the Atlanta Feminist Women's Choir, and the MUSE choir. Instrumentation such as flute, oboe, bassoon, cello, harp, glockenspiel... and songs which include Betsy's For Therese; Sue Fink performing Therese's Emma; plus Sister Heathen; Spinner's Calendar; Days; Katie's Song; Good Friends Are the Best; Holly's Waltz; and O My Friends, co-written by Therese. Some songs even feature combined choirs! (SEA312) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tiddas

Sing About Life ☎0398
This harmonically, lyrically, instrumentally and culturally rich 14-song recording features 3 women from Australia. 2 of them Aboriginal ("Tiddas" means "sisters" in the Aboriginal language). From the pride expressed in Koori Woman, to issues of sisterhood in My Sister, to racism and discrimination in Malcolm Smith, to respect for each other and the land of the title track, this trio's soulful harmonies recount truthful tales of their life experiences. The acoustic instrumentation includes guitars, didgeridoo, clapsacks and woodblock... the vocals are evocative and deeply beautiful... we welcome Tiddas to our pages and very highly recommend this 1995 collection. ## Topp Twins

Two Timing
This 1994 release is the long-awaited and highly-anticipated album from the best-known and most-loved twins in our world. 3 of the 12 titles are repeated from Hightime including Call Club Day (thank you, Samantha, for enlightening us about that important New Zealand tradition!). The 9 new tunes are favorites you've probably heard them perform at festivals: the country-western line dancing anthem Horse; the bluesy Whisper to Georgia; and the heartwarming song to their mother, Jean Emily. As always, Lyndis and Joels combine their wonderful harmonies with their keen sense of humor and timing, and throw in a yodel or two for good measure. (TOP4) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tracy Drach

Another Door ☎0231
Ladyslipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own Slipper! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing; whether performing solo or opening for such acts as k.d. lang or the Washington Sisters. This late 1990 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Laura Berkson's Miriam, to her lyric tale of young novice Sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. With a little piano help from Nancy Day and a style that is uniquely Tracy, this album marks a personal favorite around our office and is wholeheartedly recommended. (DND001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tret Fure

Time Turns the Moon
This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls At Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Undertones

Six Women, No Strings ☎0522
This all-woman acappella sextet has been performing together since 1981; we had the good fortune to hear them at the '95 GALA (Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses) Festival where they were a BIG hit. On this 1996 recording, they cover the gamut of acappella styles: classic doo-wop with In the Still of the Night; the Flirtations' arrangements of Something Inside So Strong and Cris Williamson's Shooting Star; a magical interpretation of Dorothy Parker's sardonic poem, Coda; Leadbelly; Bernice Johnson Reagon's Solilo; a Manhattan Transitory version of Fred Small's feminist Fifty-Nine Cents; even a radical reworking of Disney's Kiss the Girl from The Little Mermaid — I certainly prefer this version! Solid, light, political, fun... what more do you need? (UT96) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Some proceeds will go to NABCO — The National Alliance of Breast Cancer Organizations, a non-profit network of 360 organizations — to provide information, assistance, and referrals. Once again, proceeds from a great 1996 compilation are going to breast cancer research; so when you're thinking of gifts that give, think of this one! Artists here include Indigo Girls (Power of Two), Carole King (Beautiful Natural Woman Medley), Tina Turner, Joan Osborne, Amy Grant, Sheryl Crow, Vanessa Williams (Sister Moon), Chela Adams and others; nice range of artists, which can appeal to not only yourself but many of the women in the extended families you might buy gifts for during the holiday season! ## Various Artists

I Am Woman
This odd little poppy post-ironic "tribute" to feminism hails from the hipster kid's cable channel, Nickelodeon. The cartoon retro 70's cover art has the appearance of a death-before-sincerity sensibility... I really don't think that the producers "get it". Nonetheless, it's a groovy collection of excellent songs: Helen Reddy's anthem, Gloria Gaynor's I Will Survive, Dolly Parton's I'm a Woman, Aretha's Respect and Roseanne Casp's Man Smart, Woman Smarter as well as Peggy Lee's I'm a Woman, Dionne Warwick's Walk on By, Pat LaBelle's New Attitude, Donna Summer's She Works Hard for the Money, Pat Benatar's Love is a Battlefield and more. This incredible 1995 celebration of lesbian and gay singers and songwriters includes contributions by a vast array of luminaries in the music world. The majority of songs are previously unreleased; these include Michael Callen performing the title track; Janis Ian with When Angels Cry; the Flirtations singing Angels Punkin' Raging Queens; Chris Williamson's Help Is On the Way; and Grant King's Ghosts. Also features selections by Ani DiFranco, Laura Love, Ann Reed, Pam Hall, Holly Near, Bill McKinlay, and others... 18 in all. ## Various Artists A Family of Friends

This 1993 release may be the best sampler of women's music ever created! The title song, an anthem-to-be and a must-have for every women's music lover, is one of the sweetest and most memorable tunes ever composed. . . as a collaboration, it expresses some of the highest spirit of our lesbian culture. Co-written by Sue Fink, Jamie Anderson, June Millington, Jane Emmet and Dakota, it is performed by (take a deep breath) songwriters Sue, Jamie, June and Jane, plus Margie Adam, Deirdre McCalla, Chris Williamson, Trent Fure, Sharon Washington, Jean Millington, Susan Herrick, Robin Flower, Monica Grant, Helen Hooker, Mary Watkins, Barbara Borden, and others! Also includes tracks by the following individual artists: Alex Dobkin (with her previously unreleased My Kind of Girl), Pam Hall, Venus Envy, Yer Girlfriend performing Lez-BBQ, One Spirit (Kay Gardner and Nuradina Pili Abena), Sue Fink, June and Jean Millington, Mimi Baczewski, Laura Benson, Diane Lindsay, Leah Zican, and Jamie Anderson. A classic! (TSU1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Contributors and tracks include: Ferron's Our Purpose Here; Tribe 8's Butch in the Streets; Phranc's Surfer Dyke; Pat Venus Envy's 12 Days of Christmas; Laura Love's Whenever Time Will Come; Meg Hentges' This Kind of Love; Pansy Division's Anonymous; 16 in all. ## Various Artists Sing, Don't Sign

This 1996 limited-edition cassette is a fundraiser for Idaho's "Decline to Sign" Campaign, a grassroots organization working to defeat the anti-lesbian and gay political initiatives sponsored by the bigoted Idaho Citizens' Alliance. Reprise Records and all of the artists have donated their work for this project. The 16 tracks include songs by Ani DiFranco, Pansy Division, Ferron, Phranc, Fred Schneider (of the B-52's), Crazy (with the excellent techno track Come Out Everybody), Extra Fancy and more. (REP8138) CS: 9.98

Wild Mango Oba

Like a tropical breeze, the mostly mellow Latinjazz stylings of this 7-woman California band are always welcome. Delicate shadings of congas, timbales, flute, guitar, and alto sax create a slinky groove for this 1996 album of vocal and instrumental originals (except for a slow, bass-heavy version of the Bacharach/David easy-listening jewel, The Look of Love—Sergio Mendes and Brasil 66 similarities are sprinkled throughout). Highlights are the flute- and Spanish guitar-led Tempestad, with lyrics adapted from a Pablo Neruda poem, and a more inamorous treatment to the traditional Cuban Zur Zur. Lyrics are both in Spanish and English. I wonder if Astrud Gilberto is still around and would like to sit in on a jam session? (MRQ2002) CD: 15.98

Wild Mango Made in Mango

Descended from The Blazing Redheads, Altazor, and the Caro Cats, these 7 women unite their Latin American, Caribbean, Middle Eastern and American traditions into a world class, sophisticated, absolutely hot 1994 album of songs! Erika Luckett's smoky vocals backed by superb horn and percussion sections will insure plenty of dancing. Features Oye, Lienar, a steamy declaration of love, Copa Negros, Dark Eyes (a lust-me-so-bad number perfect for repetitive play after a break up), and the dynamic Safari. Also, a medley of Little Arabic courtship idioms. Spanish (with some French and Egyptian) lyrics with English translations. Highly recommended! (RR9402) CD: 15.98

The Wyrd Sisters Inside the Dreaming

The Ladyslipper Catalog editor says, "One of the most brilliant albums to be released in 1994!" The name of this excellent Canadian trio is pronounced "wyrd," but they are not, although they are unusual, unique, original and provocative — rather, their name comes from the ancient Triple Goddess who represented the maiden, mother and crone. Like their harmonies, lyrically each song has layers of meaning which continue to reveal themselves during repeated listenings (inspirational without being syrupy), supported by arrangements that are varied, subtle and perfect. The title track is moody and evocative. One Hip Shaking is a bluesy, virtuosic song of love lost. Dance, Little Brother is a well-crafted emotional plea for action against AIDS. Wander is an a cappella feminist anthem equal in impact to Ferron's Feet; in fact, all 11 tracks are gems, no throw-aways here! Andy Stochanek (drummer for Ani DiFranco) is one of several talented guest performers featured; instrumentation is tight and all-around superb. This album is too hot to miss out on — is all fans of women's music, harmony and substantive contemporary singer-songwriting, very highly recommended! (WYR2) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Yer Girlfriend Not Afraid to Love

This late 1995 release, which our girlfriends consider their most powerful yet, once again blends gorgeous harmonies and melodies into songs of passion and political empowerment. From the jamming rap number Get Over It, to a version of Marge Adam's Beautiful Woman that will set you tingling and remind you what women's music is all about — this album is set to provide plenty of lyrical, instrumental and emotional fulfillment! (ER103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

7 Year Bitch Gato Negro

Formed in 1990, this Seattle all-woman thrash-rock band has toured with big names like L7, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and Cypress Hill. These women rock! Literally. They have a raw, gutsy sound — hard-driving guitar and drums with ravishingly raspy vocals ripping through awesome background chord noise. FYI, one of the members is a lesbian, and the drummer was the co-founder of an organization condemning violence against women. Unfortunately, we've been unable to obtain their first two releases lately, but don't despair: this 1996 release will rock your socks off! (ATJ82673) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Alanis Morissette Jagged Little Pill

This Grammy-winning, shoot-through-the-roof blockbusting Canadian artist was the big surprise on the 1995 pop charts. Alanis's aggressive snarly whine throws into sharp relief her contentious lyrics. Includes the hits (which are starting to chart on Mars about now) You Oughta Know, Hand in My Pocket and Iconic (MAV45901) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ani DiFranco

"With a 'do' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" To quote our venerable purchasing manager, Reggie. . . Ani (pronounced "Ah-nee") is a young songwriter, singer and guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Lost Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's 1990 debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin. . . highly recommended! (RIG001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Like I Said

On this 1993 release, 15 tracks from Ani DiFranco and Not So Soft have been combined, re-recorded, embellished, and generally messed with to make a new album. (RIG005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco & Utah Phillips The Past Didn't Go Anywhere

Newly announced as we go to press, more info in next catalog, but it's available now! (RIG009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Not So Soft

Well, this 1991 release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani! The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get active in the listening; when you hear her, you'll be compelled to move closer to the speakers, rock your body, experience your heart bimmering over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic. . . She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful soul harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dual trumpet! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented. Again, highly recommended. (RIG002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Imperfectly

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Littering in her pursuit of honesty, she strikes sparks incessantly as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She debates issues of sexual identity in In or Out and If I Ain't Her, and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in I'm No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shadings of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the third time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Puddle Dive

On this 1993 release, her most complex effort to date, Ani (dubbed a folk-rock/feminist by one reviewer) goes boldly where no one has gone before. . . joined at various moments by pianist Ann Rabson from Saffire, the Uptight Blueswomen, virtuoso violinist Mary Ramsey from the folk-rock duo John & Mary, and English harmonica sensation Rory McLeod. An in-your-face lyricist who exposes our hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status quo in sex, psychology and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. (RIG004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Dilate

This May 1995 release is guaranteed to demolish any preconceived notions about what Ani's up to! It's a journey through various emotional states — melancholy, anger, and so on — to the moment of personal deliverance expressed in Amazing Grace, culminating in the final track, Joyful Girl. And if you think you know what an Ani DiFranco song is supposed to sound like, take a listen to the hard-edged thrash of Dunta Me, Ono or the dreamy electronic textures of Going Down. Also includes many set list favorites like Unbreakable Face, Napoleon, built around her stark electric guitar work, and Adam and Eve, in which her voice swoops to the heavens before touching earth. (RIG006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Out of Range

This 1994 release is hailed as Ani's most adventurous effort to date. The 12 tracks include 2 versions of the title song — solo acoustic and rocking with a full band. The Cover, with sound effects scarfed from an all-night eatery in Toronto, How Have You Been, with a full-fledged horn section blowing funk riffs, Letter to John, a troubling song that breaches the bitter afterlife of sexual abuse from a stark and cynical point of view; If It Takes Anything, an outrageous snapshot of female desperados on the road; and the gutsy personal regrett of You Had Time. The power and penetrating insights of her poetry achieve a new peak here — we highly recommend Ani! (RIG008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco Not a Pretty Girl

The album title isn't just a title, it's a theme on her 1995 album. Ani comments, "God help you if you are an ugly girl, cause too pretty is also your doom." In 32 flavors, a beautifully produced song with exotic percussion solos. She observes that she isn't really all that pretty, but no one will know. In The Million You Never Made, a corporate-rock-sucks mind-blower. And, of course, the title track declares, "I am not a pretty girl that is not what I do." Also here: Asking Too Much (she calls it the German song for its mechanical rhythm and probing angst), a new poem, a new take on Coming Up (with thumb piano), and 8 others. . . some danceable, all quality! (RIG007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Beasts of Paradise
Gathered on the Edge

With a thrilling blend of world, trance and jazz rhythms, this most-excellent gunkel lays down a sound on their 1995 release like a more grounded Dead Can Dance noodling away in San Francisco during the Summer of Love. Masterful musicians all: the compositions revolve around the Sephardic stylings of resonant vocalist/songwriter Eda Maxym and the evocative harp of Barbara Imhoff, deepened by acoustic bassist Nancy Kasper, didgeridoo player Stephen Kent and multi-percussionist Geoffrey Gordon. Songs such as Flickering Blue and Song to the Siren link the sounds of diverse and ancient cultures to create music completely "alternative" and completely delightful. This is a must-listen-to; very recommended! (COT008) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bikini Kill
Reject All-American

In a world where "alternative" bands are being mined by major labels like so much Pittsburgh steel, Bikini Kill has held firm and fast to their independent, socially-conscious roots. Their long-awaited 1996 release will throw you off balance: these women have shed their grunge past and moved up to their rightful place as queens of modern punk. It's their most accessible, sing-along-friendly album yet—gone are the heavy grunge hooks and muffled lyrics; remaining, and stronger than ever, is their fierce, strongly pro-woman attitude, enmeshed in some of the catchiest pop hooks I've heard in a long time. Get this album, 'cause when you're singin' along with Kathleen on Jer Ski ("I'm not yours or I well, I'm not your dime store novel"), it's good to be a girl. (KRS260) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

Candice Pacheco
If Then... Else

The "groove-mistress" and co-founder of the electronic world percussion ensemble D'Cuckoo flies solo on this innovative 1995 release of techno/tribal/global pop funk. She creates her "songs" in her own studio by mixing and layering recorded samples (by diverse artists from around the globe) of multi-ethnic vocals and instruments through her synthesizer (note that some male vocals are included). Baroque and Native American flutes, the Middle-Eastern stringed instrument the oud, Arabic tambourine, and finger cymbals are just some of the instruments woven into this technical tapestry. This wonderful and remarkable synthesis of western dance and world music is not to be missed by D'Cuckoo fans! (RGS503) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cibo Matto
Viva! La Woman

Cibo Matto (pronounced "chee-bo matto"), Italian for "Food Madness" is a Japanese female duo (now in NY) whose 1996 debut album is all about food! This fact alone would guarantee it entry into the pantheon of Ladyslipper favorites; no matter what it sounded like, but fortunately, the album lives up to the importance of its subject matter. They combine punk, hip hop, avant-jazz and Brazilian pop, and mix them with careful sampling to create their quirky sound. Comparisons to the most famous Japanese expatriate avant-garde artist, Yoko Ono, are probably unavoidable, but not undeserved, as they share the task of unapologetically pushing the cultural and musical envelope. Songs such as Beef Jerky, White Pepper Ice Cream, and Birthday Cake will satisfy your craving for something new. (WR45989) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

D'Cuckoo
Umoja

Whew! — there's so much to say about these women, who write, perform, invent, and construct their music and their instruments: electronic marimbas and drum controllers. They're a multimedia, interactive, techno-arts ensemble whose music has been described as "neoclassical post-industrial cyber-tribal world funk." During live performances, the music is interwoven with storytelling, dancing and ritual. Their harmonic vocals lend an organic feel to the electronic music with sounds and patterns from Africa, India, the Middle East, and the Caribbean. This 1994 album is unlike anything you've ever heard, yet it is comfortable, danceable, and could even be used in high-energy ritual. We Slippers are quite excited and enthralled with this... one of our top picks for 1995... Absolutely, positively recommended! (RGS501) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dead Can Dance
Spiritchaser

This 1996 album has a bit of a Moroccan feel on Nierika, Native American chant on Song of the Stars, Indian/Gothic on Indus, Spanish on Song of the Dispossessed, all overlaid with their trademark trance groove. Take a "trip" around the world without having to worry about drinking the water! (4AD46230) CS: 16.98 CD: 10.98

Dead Can Dance
Into the Labyrinth

This 1993 release, marking the duo's debut on a US major label, finds them deepening their mysteries and expanding their sonic scope. Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry's contrasting vocal styles (her shimmering purity, his medieval crouch) are set against a curio shop of musical inspiration that spans everything from 12th Century Gregorian chants to 20th Century contemporary. Includes Yulunga (Spirit Dance), which will also be released as a video; Ariadne and the traditional song The Wind That Shakes the Barley. A haunting mix of the ancient and the exotic, once again. (4AD45384) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance
The Serpent's Egg

A complex matrix and bleeding of ancient cultural sounds, including East Indian and African, that marked a new direction for their music. Includes Song of Sophia, Mother Tongue. (4AD45576) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance
Toward the Within

Recorded live in concert in Santa Monica, this 1994 release contains 9 new tracks which offer spellbinding proof that their ability to enchant and surprise is no mere phenomenon of the recording studio. Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry lead a group of multi-instrumentalists through a set of remarkable variety that ranges from Lisa's sweeping vocal flights to Brendan's Tim Buckley-esque balladry. Includes Persian Love Song, Nakim, Cantera, Yulunga, The Wind That Shakes the Barley, American Dreaming. (4AD45769) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance
A Passage in Time

This duo consists of Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry, but from the sounds they create, you'd think there were at least 6 of them! Australians of Anglo-Irish descent, they find their musical inspiration in the music of the Middle Ages through the early Renaissance, or for us history junkies, from the 12th through the 15th centuries... and, they're a rock band! Lisa's gorgeous voice rings like a bell, vibrates like a flute, soars like a bird — plainly, one of the most distinctive singers of the decade! Includes Song of Sophia, The Host of Seraphim, The Song of the Sybil, Spirit, plus 12 more. This 1991 recording isn't like anything you've heard lately, at least not for the past 5 or future 2 centuries! Heavenly! (RYK215) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Diamanda Galas
Plague Mass (Double-Length)

The powerful, dramatic and controversial work of this unusual vocalist-composer finds its pinnacle in this monumental piece. Recorded live at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in NYC in 1990, it has been described by The Washington Post as a "literally stunning 90-minute scream-opera about those who suffer from AIDS and those who dare to judge them." (MUT61043) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Happy Rhodes
RhodesSings

This 1993 retrospective contains some tracks from previously released albums, some from a radio-only CD called HR5, which features some incredible acoustic versions of Save Our Souls, Feed the Fire, and Bowie's classic Alhambra to Ashes; plus a new one or two. If you're not familiar with this amazing, visionary artist, this is a great way to experience the breadth of her talent and see what all the commotion's about; and if you're a fan already, you'll just have to have it. (AG0021) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry
Teenager

These 13 songs were written by Jane during her teens, and recorded and released in 1996 (as she was turning 40) — the true meaning of "retrospective" includes the first song she ever wrote, called For My Father (with a snippet of a version recorded at age 17), plus Bessie (the companion song to Mystery of Ogwen's Farm from her self-titled debut), Oh My Sister, and Trumpeter Swan (a tribute to an aunt that she later named herself after). Acoustic and basically unadorned, it features Jane on vocals, guitar and piano, with just back-up vocals and accordion accompanying. The liner notes contain insightful and wonderful musings on the creative process and ways of hearing/listening... this is a special treasure for those of us who have been her fans for years and years. (SH8001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry

The first release by an artist most of you are familiar with (we hope), this Toronto-based musician has, for good reason, been likened to Joni Mitchell, Dory Previn, and the Roches, and we'd add Ferron to that, but she's too quirky to really be like anyone else. These are clever, imaginative original songs; Jane accompanies her voice with ringing harmonies plus guitar, piano, synthesizer, and co-produced on her label. There isn't an accurate category for this album... it has strains of folk and even punk, in her bizarre sense of humor. One of the best here is The Mystery of Ogwen's Farm, a lament for a cow who disappeared. Hear the first manifestations of this woman's genius! 1981. (STR002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry
No Borders Here

We're hanging onto this fabulous album, hoping that anyone recently familiar with this artist won't overlook it — it's one of the most highly recommended recordings in our catalog: lyrically and instrumentally adventuresome, features beautiful harmonies and harmonies, electricity, includes Dancing Class, Waitress, Extra Executives, Symmetry. Like new air for old, tried, cynical ears. The form here is more rock/new wave (not acoustic) and again we don't know which category to place it in. Your album collection, perhaps? 1984. (OAO502) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Jane Siberry
When I Was a Boy

This 1993 release, a brilliantly conceived set of impressionistic songs and visions, combines innovation with accessibility. A highlight is her memorably unearthly duet with k.d. lang, Calling All Angels, which first appeared on the Until The End Of The World soundtrack (lang's long-time music/business cohort Ben Mink also contributes viola on this track)... also includes Sal Across the Water; The Gospel According to Darkness; and Sweet Incarnadine. Co-produced by Brian Eno. So it has a world title; she's still one of our all-time favorite artists! (REP26824) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Maria

This 1995 release is certainly her most unusual to date! It begins with 9 songs on which the artist is supported by a jazz-based band; then there's a 2-minute pause before her epic Oh My My begins. A 20-minute-long evocation of memory and loss, loneliness and growth, topped off with a tabla, a star and a choir singing Puff the Magic Dragon, this is an imaginative masterpiece. If Gertrude Stein had written songs, she might have written one like this. Also includes Lovin' Cup, Begin Begat, Goodbye Sweet Pumpkinhead. (REP45913) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Jett with The Gits
Evil Stig

Mia Zapata, the lead singer of the Seattle alternative rock group The Gits, was raped and murdered in 1993, and the rapist and murderer have never been found; proceeds from this 1996 release will fund the ongoing investigation. The title of the album is an anagram for "Gits Live" and features Joan Jett filling in the lead singing slot, performing both Gits originals and some of her own classics like Activist Girl. (WB43988) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kaia (lead singer of Team Dresch)
Kaia

Kaia's first solo album shows her taking a short break from Team Dresch's punk-inspired pop. This 1996 creation is acoustic, but never folksy, and is full of those minor chord, melancholic love songs that make you feel like any other time you've suffered through was better than how you are feeling now. Kaia's voice has such a sweet, longing ache that you will immediately be reminded of that one last love you will never quite get over. Perfect for those lonely nights when you just want to wallow. (CHN14) CD: 15.98

Lisa Gerrard
The Mirror Pool

Here's the first solo effort from the incredible vocalist who for the past 15 years has been known as one-half of the musical partnership known as Dead Can Dance. Drawing on classical music, medieval liturgical chants and Middle Eastern music, this 1995 album pairs exquisite orchestrations with the unearthly and chanting beauty of Lisa's voice. Instrumentation includes bouzoukis, keyboards, ying ch'in, bass-tabbas, camel drum, and derabukkas, in addition to the entire Victorian Philharmonic Orchestra! Among the 16 tracks are Sanjean (I Am Your Shadow), Persian Love Song (The Silver Gun), The Rise, Mahaveva's Music Box. (4AD45916) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary Fortune Express The Immortality Box

Named after a Flannery O'Connor short story, Mary Fortune Express is an Atlantic alt-rock combo risen from the ashes of The Ellen James Society. Sounding like a simmering stew of Heart, 4 Non Blondes and Michael Steele (ex-Bangle), vocalist/guitarist/songwriter Chris McGurn (Ellen James' lead singer) crashes her way through mid-tempo rock-anthems originals on this 1996 debut release. The sweetly humid, Spanish-moss-covered songs feature backing vocals by Kristen Hall and Michele Malone. (MW001) CD: 12.98

Maul Girls Rump Roast

Fat, chunky guitars, funky drums, Pati Smith-esque vocals. The women of the Maul Girls play, sing and write the songs that make the world pay attention. Songs include Luck of the Irish, a disgusted commentary on the anti-gay bigotry of the NYC St. Patrick's Day parade; No Saint For Suzie, a commentary on the emptiness of a 9 to 5 grind (these women HAD "real" jobs at one time); and their moshable, jaunty theme song, Maul Girl Love. (MM01) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Meryn Cadell Bombazine

The clever off-beat lyrics of this exciting 1993 release (one of the most promising in our spring '94 edition) express an intelligent, original, openly bisexual, sardonic view of life. This Canadian artist clearly revels in words, combining traditional song structure with spoken word musings to perfectly capture what it is like to be twenty-something and not really sure about life, who's, the what's, the where's, the how's and the why's. Voice for Gloria, the best poem to sex with a woman this reviewer has ever heard, contains the line which is the philosophical anchor to the whole enchilada: "You don't have to do anything that you don't want to, but don't get up in arms about what others choose to do." Jenny and Betty opens the album with a bang, with lyrics about gays and gay-bashing; Apolymie and Window of Opportunity were co-written with k.d. lang's collaborator, Ben Mink (he also accompanies on strings, guitar and more), with musical references to Ingenue yet completely original. Extremely, extremely recommended! (SIR45398) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mouth Music (T. Mackenzie/M. Swan)

Truly a remarkable, innovative, mesmerizing synthesis of the traditional Gaelic singing style called "puirt a beul" or "mouth music," with African rhythms and modern keyboard technology! Tarnya Mackenzie is the vocalist on this intense material which she discovered when she traveled to Edinburgh to study Scottish and ancient Gaelic culture in depth; Martin Swan the instrumentalist and arranger (except on one which Tarnya strangled). They say it's a matter of finding a strong rhythm which complements the traditional song structures, and then creating some kind of tension or powerful or surprising harmonic context in which they happen... and they've certainly accomplished just that. Highly recommended! 1991. (RYK195) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mouth Music Shoreline

This 1995 album completes Mouth Music's evolution from pop-influenced world music to a sensuous dance band, this Scottish ensemble is all at once ethereal, funky, ancient, and orbital. With spicy touches of Celtic and African music, their beautiful modern music pulsates with hypnotic melodies, unstoppable grooves, and the unforgettable vocals of Jackie Joyce. Mouth Music still retains their Gaelic and world music influences, but recasts them in an alluring (post)modern context. Includes Move On, a spirit-invoking, incredibly rhythmic dreamscape. (RYK309) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Pea Shy Who Let All the Monkeys Out

Sprouting from the Tampa, Florida alt-literary scene, the not-cabably named Pea Shy was founded by writers/vocalists/accordionists: guitarists Cindy Wheeler and Jenny Jurado (who also adds piano and clarinet to her CV and on this 1996 CD). Their sweetly awkward indie pop ballads, spoken word vignettes, and funny-funny Casio programmed beats and burps address bitter-sweet love, LSD-laced mayonnaise, lust for young dudes and UFO's. A highlight is Dance Motherfuckers, a swell, violent revenge fantasy coping strategy for sexism. (BLG532122) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maul Girls

Pretty & Twisted

Subtle and sultry, Johnette Napolitano's dark voice seduces, and before you realize what's happening, its rhythms have insinuated themselves into your body. Known as the lead singer for the hard driving Concrete Blonde, she takes a (somewhat) softer approach here, but still takes you on a wild pyride. Train Song (Edge of Desperation) will make you wince with recognition, while Hide is just waiting for some generation to claim it as their theme song. This 1995 album flows like, well, great sex. Tempos change and moods shift while still maintaining a sustained intensity. It is a total body experience! (WB45910) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Hot Organization Red Hot & Bothered

This '95 release, subtitled The Indie Rock Guide to Dating, is a benefit for the "Red Hot" AIDS charity organization. A surprisingly sweet, collection (heavy on the electric guitars and slightly dissonant vocals), this contains many bands that I haven't heard of (but, hey, then I live under a rock...) along with Lisa Germano, Freedom Cruise (with the ex-Breeders' sis combo Kelly and Kim Deal), Noise Addict, The Grifters and Future Bible Heroes (with Magnetic Fields' Stephen Merritt). Bonus: includes a sexually-active young hipster's version of the board game "Candyland". (REP45983) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ring Soul to the Pleasure

A ring is a completed circle, the comfort and security of enclosure. Soundwaves move in ring forms, from point of origin and out into infinity. Ring is also the name of the vocal-harp ambient duo Pats Clements and Barbara Imhoff. Pats (a founding member of the all-woman techno/worldbeat group D'Cuckoo) has a voice that is compared to both Enya and Annie Lennox. Barbara (from the tribal ensemble Beasts of Paradise) uses her experience from years of orchestral work to make her harp the core around which bass, guitar, drums and ambient electronic effects revolve. Their sound is sensuous, moving from resonant African-tinged pop to lush ballads, on this wholly pleasing, trance-inducing 1996 album. (COTD10) CD: 15.98

Skunk Anansie Paranoid & Sunburnt

The snarling vocals of Skin, the black lesbian who fronts the band, grab you by the shirtfront and demand that you pay attention to this multi-racial British quartet's blistering debut 1995 recording. An invigorating blend of punk, funk, hard rock and reggae, the band (whose name is from skunk, "the stinkiest thing we could think of," plus Anansi, the 8-legged "king of mischief" from Jamaican and African folktales), wails through riveting tunes that dissect issues of racism, sexism and religion. Selling Jesus attacks organized religion for misleading lies that only serve to line their pockets. Little Baby Swastikka was written after Skin saw a swastika that appeared to be the work of a small child on a wall. Intellectualize My Blackness reaches back to Skin's college experience where she encountered a student running for student body presidency who was more concerned with mastering the "correct" rhetoric than dealing with his own internalized racism. (EPC67216) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sleater-Kinney Call The Doctor

Formed in 1994 in Olympia, Washington by Corin Tucker from Heavens to Betsy and Carrie Brownstein of Excuse 17, this 3-woman band's disaffected indie-rock worms its way into this 1996 release with its catchy, yet mishappy harmonies and crunchy, stick-in-the-molars power chords. One of the best of the no-gulf-taking girl sound, their guitar/drums churn away under blurring bravado vocals, wailingly sweet. As they put it, "I'm not waiting till I grow up to be a woman." Turn it up until your speakers' distortion kicks in... it hurts so good. (CHN13) CD: 15.98

Team Dresch Personal Best

This lesbianic all-dyke 4-woman punk band from the northwest has been making major waves nationally... from the alternative scene to the queer bars they play (and straight bars, as long as they advertise their show as a queer show) to the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival in 1995! The material on their 1994 album is actually quite melodic and lyrical, yet filled with intense emotional and sexual rhythm and energy. Songs include Fagitarian and Dyke, Hate the Christian Right, She's Amazing. One writer said, "Oh yeah and none of them have ever had a boyfriend... pretty cool." (CAS11) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Team Dresch Captain My Captain

On their 1995 album (their second), Team Dresch continues to remind us that in the whiny, boy-riddled world of indie rock, it's really the women who carry on the punk spirit with style, ferocity and melodious power-chord-driven grace. If you were (or are) one of those girls in high school who never fit in with the pretty, popular crowd, you'll wish that Team Dresch had been there for you then (or thank the universe that they are here now). All of the awkward sweetness of their being young, belligerent misfits surges back, but this time cut with their kicking hooks. Never a band to side-step issues, underneath those deceptively simple melodies they let be known their thoughts on homophobia, dysfunctional families and indie bands on MTV. (CAS18) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tori Amos Hey Jupiter (EP)

The 1996 EP includes the following (please pay attention): a remake of the title track, a live version of Professional Widow from Boys From Pele, 2 previously unreleased originals, recorded live, Sugar and Honey, and a live recording of that of Judy Garland signature tune, that's right, Over the Rainbow. (ATL82955) CD: 10.98

Tori Amos Little Earthquakes

If you're a Kate Bush fan, buy this! If you aren't a Kate Bush fan, buy this too — Tori possesses only KB's best qualities. The lyrics are intelligent and literary, the arrangements are tightly layered, her acoustic piano rivals Kate's in sheer beauty and melody, and her voice is slightly fuller... OK, OK, enough comparisons. Songs on her 1991 album include the pop tune Leather, the poetic ballad Mother, plus the scappella Me and a Gun, a haunting narrative of a rape ("yes I wore a stinky red thing does that mean I should spread for you, your friends, your father..."). Highly recommended. (ATL82358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tori Amos Boys For Pele

Tori keeps going farther and farther out there and I, for one, am willing to risk the loss of gravitational pull to follow her. On this 1996 release, Tori, with her moody piano, abstract yet tortured lyrics studded with pop culture references, otherworldly voice, and unsettling album photos (that sucking pig is something!) takes us far past the comfort zone, but I feel it is for our own good. Blood Roses is a disturbing configuration of chicken flesh, human flesh, twisted relationships and sex in front of a lovely backdrop of harpsicord, harmonium organ and delgany church bells. Father Lucifer implies that she has found no peace about her Christian upbringing. Other songs touch on, well, I don't really know what they touch on but they sure sound nice... (ATL82862) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Transisters

Goddesses of the "Pink Rock" (multi-gendered rock 'n' roll) movement, the NYC-based Transisters work, like their name, on a few levels. They are made up of lead singer/lyricist Chloe (a male-to-female transsexual), bassist/songwriter Gydé Gash, drummer Tracy Almazan, and guitarist Kathy Rey (from one of the first all-female punk bands, The Bloods). With a sound reminiscent of late 70's/early 80's "classic" punk, they tackle subjects such as child abuse and addiction (Horses to Heroin), incest (Carolina Vagina), the politics of gender and sexuality (Transie Chaser and Boys/Girls), and AIDS (Kaposis Koverstock — which includes a monologue about a HIV-infected "freak's" treatment by the medical system). On top and in your face, this 1995 7-song EP cuts close to the edge. (TRN100) CD: 9.98

Tribe 8 By the Time We Get to Colorado

We'll let this Bay-area queer-core band speak for itself: "We're validating cultural identity in the underground music scene for dykes... being dykes and playing music is political. If you refuse to conform in any way, and you state that fact in public repeatedly, and shout it, yell it, in spite of the fact that people may be sitting on you... and you insist on doing it anyway... and are confrontational about it, that is like the most militant politics that any artist can express." Expect extreme and explicit lyrics from this band whose name is a play on the word "tribade." Includes Lezbo-phobia. (OUT7) CD: 9.98

Tribe 8

Roadkill Cafe

This 1995 CD EP is a teaser for their next full-length release due March '96; contains 2 new studio tracks (including a psych cover of Golden Earring's Radar Love) plus 2 extra live tracks. (VRS173) CD: $9.98

Snarkism

Their second full-length album, a 1995 release, is chock-full of snide comments and sarcasm; hence the title Snarkism. Liberally sprinkled throughout their unique brand of social commentary are traces of ska, funk, pop, punk and outright trash and surprising touches of saxophone and violins — lesbian chic has never sounded so... unique! Long known for their aggressive in-your-face live shows and confrontational posture, Tribe 8 still manages to break down the queercore barrier to rock everyone's world. (VRS181) CD: $13.98

Annie Lennox

Medusa

With her trademark vocal style and delivery intact, Annie has once again reinvented herself! On this 1995 follow-up to her near double platinum debut, Diva, she offers her personalized interpretation of a unique and eclectic collection of popular and in some cases, completely unknown songs. (ARI25717) CS: $13.98 CD: $16.98

Diva

"In a sense I feel like this is my very first album, and because of that it had to be something that represented me totally and exactly... I wanted to come up with material that was authentic and completely true to myself... In preparing for this album I also knew that I wanted to take my time, releasing it only when I felt it was strong enough — and not a moment before." Annie's 1992 solo debut proves that her artistry is a lot more than just half the Eurythmics. Includes Money Can't Buy It, Little Bird, The Girl. (ARI704) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Bonnie Raitt

Road Tested (Double Album)

This live double album was recorded in July 1995 in Oakland, CA when Bonnie, joined by friends such as Jackson Browne, Bryan Adams, Rush Brown, Charles Brown, Bruce Hornsby and Kim Wilson, performed to sold-out audiences — an event, 25 years in the making. It contains both well-known and Grammy award-winning songs and great new material: Have a Heart, Something to Talk About, Longing in Their Hearts, Angel in Montgomery, Love Letter, Come to Me, My Opening Farewell, her 1995 single Rock Steady, and many more. (CAP33705) CS: $15.98 CD: $29.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Women Be Wise, in an previously unreleased duet with Sippie Wallace; No Way To Treat a Lady, one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louise, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery, 19 in all, culled from her 9 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract! (WB26242) CS: $14.98 CD: $16.98

Carole King

Tapestry

This 1966 classic, one of the best selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes (You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34948) CS: $9.98 CD: $15.98

The Del Rubio Triplets

Three Gals, Three Guitars

Utterly, utterly singular. This trio of triplets is recommended for those with a keen sense of camp! Monk Magazine describes them as an "ageless retro-lounge act" — they've been in the biz for over 40 years, touring with Bob Hope in the 50s, and have recently been rediscovered with the help of their friend and business confidant Pee Wee Herman. The Del Rubios have attracted a sizable gay following with unusual harmonies and imaginative arrangements that turn your old and new favorites inside out. This 1988 release includes their version of the Porter Sisters' Neutron Dance, the Bangles' Walk Like an Egyptian, plus These Boots Are Made For Walkin', Light My Fire, Hey Jude, Ding Dong, The Witch Is Dead, Fever, and more. (DRT1) CS: $10.98 CD: $15.98

Fist City

"We are San Francisco's own all-dyke, all-out, in-your-face, blade-brandishing, gang-castrating, dodo-swingin', bullshit-detecting, aurally pornographic, neanderthal-pervert band of patriarchy-smashing bushlickers." That about sums up this band's stance and attitude, backed up with overdriven guitar rock with no apologies, thought-provoking, confrontational lyrics. This 1995 15-song album is a welcome addition to the Ladyslipper catalog! (VRS156) CS: $9.98 CD: $12.98

Everything But the Girl

Walking Wounded

The huge chart success of the dance remix of Missing has turned EBTG down a new path. For this 1995 release, they have traded in their usual delicate shadings for a new dance-floor friendly Eurobeat which keeps a steady (but characteristically melancholy) groove. Heck, vocalist Tracy Thorn could be plunked down in front of chainsaws grinding on steel girders and I probably would still melt at her sublime sad musings. Her voice is one of the great treasures of the modern world. Includes the single Wrong. (ATL82912) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Indigo Girls

We had already gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area where they played frequently, when they made their debut on a major label in 1989. This album is folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, need, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: $9.98 CD: $15.98

Indigo Girls, w/Elton James Society

Nomads * Indians * Saints

While the music of Emily Saliers and Amy Ray is firmly rooted in the folk-rock tradition, this 1990 release leans more towards the contemporary-pop end of the spectrum. Thoughtful, introspective and self-challenging are still apt descriptions of their lyrical content; but the music has a harder edge to it, especially those songs which feature Amy's husky voice. With guest appearances by Mary Chapin Carpenter on Southland in the Springtime and the Elton James Society on I, 2, 3, A must for fans who want to follow the evolution of the band. (EPC46020) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Rites of Passage

This 1992 release rides high on a rhythmic undercurrent of Latin and African percussion, a new maturity in songwriting, and a renewed sense of vitality in their delivery. Includes guest vocal appearances by the Roches, Jackson Browne and David Crosby; great fiddle by Lisa Germano; includes Virginia Woolf, Cedar Tree, Ghost. Emily Saliers says, "The freshness of this album is that we recorded these songs without any preconceived notions of how they should sound." (EPC48865) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Swamp Ophelia

This May 1994 release covers a broad range of emotions and musical thoughts, from Power of Two, a simple, hopeful love song, to Touch Me Fall, a raw opus that deals with ego, the industry and true love, then journeys lyrically and musically toward chaos. Least Complicated is about learning lessons in love and life, and This Train (Revised) is a stark, powerful piece written after a visit to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. Guest artists include Jane Siberry, Lisa Germano, and the Roches. (EPC57621) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

1200 Curfews (Double Set)

This 1995 double live album captures the warmth and magnetism of the Girls in a way the studio albums never do. Featuring 26 songs, it contains over 2 hours of live concert favorites culled from a wide range of venues over the years; plus 8 in-concert versions of previously unreleased songs and their new studio recording of Buffy Sainte-Marie's Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee. Other memorable moments include their cover versions of Joni Mitchell's Blue, Neil Young's Down By the River, and Bob Dylan's Tangled Up in Blue, with a surprisingly down and dirty vocal from Emily. (EPC67229) CS: $15.98 CD: $24.98

Home Alive: The Art of Self Defense

This 1995 45-track mega double-set is put out by a "collective of performance and visual artists hell-bent on fighting all forms of violence, including rape, domestic abuse, gay/lesbian bashing, racism and all forms of oppression" — co-founded by 7 Year Bitch drummer Valerie Agnew following the rape and murder of Gits' lead singer (and her close friend) Mia Zapata. Includes selections by Tribe 8, The Gits, 7 Year Bitch, Joan Jett and the Blackhearts, Lydia Lunch, Exene Cervenka, Heart's Ann and Nancy Wilson, Mia Zapata, Nirvana, Jello Biafra, Soundgarden, and other musicians and spoken-word performance artists, all of whom donated their work to support this cause. (EPC67486) CS: $14.98 CD: $20.98

Outpunk Dance Party

A great 1994 compilation on the all-queer Outpunk label: 12 bands including the now-defunct CWA (Cunts With Attitude), Power Snatch (featuring some Girls in the Nose), Pansy Division, the incredible Sister George from the UK, and of course, Tribe 8. This isn't no disco — but it's one helluva party! (OUT12) CS: $9.98 CD: $15.98

Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains title cut plus Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: $9.98 CD: $15.98

Jane Olivor

In Concert

Many customers have put in requests for titles by this vocalist, and we see why... gorgeous, expressive voice, excellent selection of songs. This 1982 release contains Pretty Girl, Annie's Song, and more. (COL37938) CS: $9.98 CD: $13.98

Janis Joplin

18 Essential Songs

Culled from the boxed set, this 1995 distilled version is like the best of the best: over 70 minutes, digitally remastered, from her earliest album through her last. Includes all her classic greatest hits, plus rare gems, live recordings, and previously-unissued tracks: an acoustic version of Me and Bobby McGee, an alternate take of Summertime, a live, not-previously-issued version of Ball and Chain, and more, from one of the greatest rock and blues artists of all time. (COL67005) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Jewel

Pieces Of You

I must admit the cover photo of the sun-toussed blonde young woman on this 1994 album and her one-word moniker had me expecting valid synth-pop; but my ear did a double take when the first moody acoustic strains of these heartfelt songs with jagged edges of pain poured over me. Jewel's songs get through all of the scar tissue with the indelible Who Will Save Your Soul, the disorienting examinations of the title track ("They say he's a faggot, does it make you want to hurt him? are you afraid you're just like him?"), the Tori Amos-like intensity of Footloose Heart. Some of the songs were recorded live at a coffeehouse, which adds an even more intimate patina. An auspicious debut from a true poet for a new generation! Recommended for those who enjoy the sharp blade of sadness and drink their coffee without sugar. (ATL82709) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Jill Sobule

With sharp wit and unexpected lyrical turns, this now-out "bi" artist explores doomed relationships, hidden lives, and things forbidden with adventurous spirit (the same spirit that guided her through a stint with the Green Berets and a successful career in neurosurgery!)... and a girlish voice which resembles Juliana Hatfield's. This 1995 debut release includes her famous (or infamous) make-it-works song I Kissed A Girl (and I may do it again!); her single Supermodel from the film Clueless; plus Good Person Inside, Karen By Night, and Margaret, an endearing song with an unforgettable chorus. (ATL92620) CS: $10.98 CD: $16.98

Things Here Are Different

We carried this 1990 album when it first came out, and now we're bringing it back due to the chart success of I Kissed A Girl. Wonderfully produced by rock guru Todd Rundgren, her quirky pop tunes are filled with evocative details (e.g. "a wet moon shines a pruned light" from Living Color) and a burnt-before-it-lit song titles like Too Cool to Fall in Love, Life Goes On Without You, and Gifted Child are representative of her concerns. The title track is an attempt to understand the cultural disparity between an American songwriter and a Spanish woman. So kind touches the situation of a woman trapped in an abusive relationship. Full of stories, plus an all-women's philharmonic string quartet on 3 songs! (MCA6375) CD: $14.98

Joan Armatrading Greatest Hits

This 1995 release contains truly the best ever of Joan Armatrading — all the way back to her acoustic beginnings in 1973, with Whatever's For Us, For Us, through Back to the Night, Down to Zero, Love and Affection, Show Some Emotion, all the way up to 1986's Kind Words (And a Real Good Heart). 18 selections in all (the CD even has a bonus track, a live version of Kissin' And A Huggin'). This is a highly recommended retrospective. (AM525) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Armatrading Square the Circle

In ancient spirituality, the circle depicted the spirit, the square the material plane. Squaring the circle was bringing a spiritual idea into material reality. On this 1992 release, she brings her art into real life, blending her smooth vocals with poignant, artful lyrics, and delivers messages of love and betrayal. She dives with heart and soul into topics such as infidelity on Weak Woman, abuse on Sometimes I Don't Want to Go Home, on love and trust on True Love and title track. Most outstanding though is the song If Women Ruled the World — what a concept! (AM528) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Armatrading What's Inside

This 1995 release, considered by the artist to be her most personal to date, contains the spectrum of classic Armatrading styles: the elegant acoustic simplicity of Merchant of Love, the blues of Lost the Love, the country-gospel strains of Beyond the Blue, complete with slide guitar; the driving beat of Can I Stop Loving You. Her ballad Trouble is a stately, loving tribute to her mother. And one of the best tracks, Shapes and Sizes, even features the strings of the Kronos Quartet! Over two decades of recording and delighting audiences with her rich, warm vocals, and still going strong. (RCA27259) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Osborne Relish

You can read Joan's indie past in this 1995 major release. She is a dynamic artist who defies categorization: alternative rock or 90's soul music? Her influences include Bonnie Raitt and Aretha Franklin, but voice, poetic style, and guitar tell a story of earnestness with PJ Harvey. This woman is exuberantly risqué — not at all shy, she sings about her parties in a wad at the bottom of her purse and asks raw questions like "What if God is one of us? Just a slob like one of us?" Joan's approach to music and reality is decidedly compelling! (BLG526699) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell Turbulent Indigo

This 1994 release, a series of passionate meditations on justice and humanity, spans the personal and political. Billboard's editor in chief calls it "one of the most commanding statements of a peerless 17-album career... a brave blend of romantic faith and fervid realism... her most devoutly individual disc in a decade." Co-produced and largely played by Joni herself, it also contains contributions by Wayne Shorter and David Crosby. Songs include Sev Killa, How Do You Stop, The Magdalene Laundry, Yvette in English. (REP46786) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Jordan Hill

Although she's only 17, Jordan Hill has made a very big splash with her 1995 debut album. Her sultry voice dips down the sides of smooch R&B stylings (think Geri Halliwell). Toni Braxton kind of a girl who is slugged with the jewel of a club hit, For the Love of You. Also includes her cover of The Much Heaven, with backing vocals from the actual Bee Gees! She lobbied to perform at the 1995 Los Angeles Pride March, which gains her an entry in the "Straight Youth Who Get It" book. (ATL82949) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Karen Carpenter

One of my favorite childhood memories is playing my mother's Carpenters' albums. Karen's exquisite alto voice still blisses me out, and I still think it was SO COOL that she played drums! So I am giddy with excitement to discover that her self-titled solo album, recorded in 1979, is finally being released! Without any "help" from her brother Richard, this recording is one of the last ones she made before her death from an eating disorder. Produced by Phil Ramone and recorded with Billy Joel's backup band (it's a 1970's live rock groove), this album includes Paul Simon's Still Crazy After All These Years, Last One Singing the Blues, and a duet with Chicago's Peter Cetera on his Making Love in the Afternoon. (AM588) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Karla Bonoff

One of our favorites, with Love Again, Isn't It Always Love, Someone to Lay Down Beside Me. Most songs are original; in addition to her outstanding voice, she contributes piano and acoustic guitar. Wendy Waldman and Linda Ronstadt on background vocals. (COL34672) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Kristen Hall Real Life Stuff

The debut album from this Atlanta-based singer/songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and, well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice. It's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy... aw heck, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE8855) CS: 9.98

Kristen Hall Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release showcases the artist's captivating songwriting: contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's) and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Gang of Four and 8-Side). It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Cut in the Country, and some with I Have My Reasons, highly recommended! (HST10316) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kristen Hall Be Careful What You Wish For

Kristen has one of those honey-smoked voices that could make the most wildly exuberant thoughts sound wistful. This 1994 release is a big heaping plateful of the "Atlanta Sound", the gently rolling beats of electrified folk, and some help from friends Matthew Sweet, Sara Lee, Jules Shear, Michelle Malone, and i-Girl Emily Saliers. Although in Don't Tell Me Kristen sings a cautionary "Well, to tell you the truth I'm lonely, but that is a feeling I do well", the gist of the album is that she is beginning to get some ideas as how to navigate through the stormy ocean of life (see Following My Compass). Though far from content and serene, she has learned enough from her burns to realize "Baby, look before you leap into the fire" (from Heaven Knows). Good stuff for those beautiful, thoughtful sad-little-smile days. (HST10326) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Maria McKee

This 1989 album is one of my all-time favorites. Actingly beautiful vocals and a huge ethereal sound burnish the first solo effort by the lead singer of the dearly departed band Lone Justice to a dusky sheen. It takes you to a falling-down porch where you just stand and stare out onto a vast desolate horizon, and the only thing etching is the dust that leaves a fine layer of grit on your teeth. These songs are about the lost, the lonely, the loveless and the ones who have just been knocked around so much that they have lost all elasticity. Songs titled I've Forgotten What It Was in You, That Put the Need in Me, Am I the Only One Who's Ever Felt This Way?, Nobody's Child, and This Property is Condemned evoke the feeling of keeping on keeping on even when you have been tossed into a seemingly bottomless well of grief and pain. This album always scoops me up, drags me along on bumpy ride to the seedier parts of life and finally drops me off feeling somehow redeemed. This is art. (GEF24229) CS: 8.98

Marshall Chapman Love Slave

Beloved by music critics for years, roots rocker Marshall's 1996 album features a little help from Emmylou Harris and Beth Nielsen Chapman. Hopefully, this release will free her from the "best kept secret" ban and chain. (ISL524288) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Melissa Ferrick Willing to Wait

A 1995 release from an out lesbian artist who is maturing well, her style is changing — more acoustic, more complex, more lyrical, she lets her voice sound more vulnerable on quieter tracks like I Am Not, while keeping it strong for heavier ones like the title track. The acoustic version of Faking, a song from her debut album, carries her new imprint. Also includes Cracker Jack Kid and Tell Your Dead. Good news: this one was produced by women, recorded and mixed by a woman, and features Marika Tjelta on bass! (ATL82747) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Michelle Malone New Experience

This Atlanta artist takes a rest from her recent tours with the Indigo to re-issue the 10 songs from her first album, with the addition of 6 new tracks recorded at Daemon Studios (actually Amy Ray's living room). Her vocals are gritty yet eloquent, revealing a woman who has lived through a lot, but still possesses passion and charismatic warmth. Two songs co-written with Kristen Hall, the rest are originals, some acoustic, others more rockin'; this 1993 release offers a welcome glimpse into her past as well as her future. (AJ5025) CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart w/Mint Juleps Mickey Hart's Mystery Box

Grateful Dead drummer Planet Drum maestro Mickey Hart has a whole new bag! This 1995 pop music collection features the superb London female vocal sextet, The Mint Juleps, lushly backed by members of the Planet Drum troupe. The sound is like Barbra Streisand on a tropical sea accompanied by didgeridoo! Mickey talks/sings on three tracks, including the tribute to the late Jerry Garcia Down the Road. A highlight is Where Love Goes (Sss), an empowering song about dealing with violence against women. (RYK338) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Natalie Merchant Tigerlily

The beloved lead singer and guiding light of 10,000 Maniacs goes solo here on her 1995 debut. We already knew she's a talented artist — here she writes and sings all of her own material: a collection of passionate, shimmering songs which expose a more sultry, soulful edge than her previous work. She accompanies herself on piano, organ, and vibraphone. Jennifer Turner contributes vocals and electric and acoustic guitar. Includes the moving Beloved Wife, plus Carnival which features Kelli Keating on backing vocals. (ELF57145) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

October Project Falling Farther In

The deep, resonant voice of lead singer Mary Fatti will transport you to a windswept bluff, while the soft rock sound of the band's keyboards, guitar, strings base will take you to the big city. This delightful experience of getting lost between two worlds is the October Project. Their complex, almost cathedral-like vocal harmonies are a trademark, and lyricists Julie Flanders and Emil Adler were conscious of a common theme in their lyrics here: The idea that falling is the key to everything, learning, loving, waiting, flying, letting go, being free. Fans of Clannad's later work should give this 1995 album a listen! (EPC67018) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patti Smith Gone Again

Who am I to try to encapsulate the timeless genius of this essential and brilliant artist? Well, since such humility is minimally helpful, I will try. Sounding neither heavy nor soft, gloomy nor frothy, angry nor resigned, this 1996 album is dedicated to and suffused with the memory of her dead husband Fred Sonnet Smith (of the MC5). Her aggression from her punk heydays in the 1970's has distilled into an understanding, but not jaded acceptance, of great sadness. Her voice, unpretty but sublimely beautiful, has lost none of its power. Her lyrics are the musings of a great poet, bloodied but unbowled. Tap into the eternal. This is a necessity. (AR8747) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Paula Cole Harbinger

Paula stands in good company — she toured with Melissa Etheridge in '95. Ties on her 1994 album hint at a feminist perspective, and her lyrics won't let you down, as they examine threats to female soliloquy in Saturn Girl and Believer. She treats race issues in a more committed way than most other white artists, including the KKK, and celebrating interracial relationships. With the groovy rhythms and subtlety of Sinead O'Connor, Paula's uncluttered soft-rock sound, sometimes comes down to just a beat, her voice, and sprightly used guitar chords. Oh, and by the way, she also creates rhythm with her hands and mouth (mouth percussion and beat box). We hope this album is a harbinger of more great ones to come! (IMG46041) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Hot Organization: Various Red Hot & Blue

This 1990 collection, created as a benefit for AIDS, is a serious treatment of Cole Porter songs by hot, current artists. Its range includes a traditional rendition of You Do Something to Me by Sinead O'Connor, a heart-breaking version of So In Love by k.d. lang, and contributions by David Byrne, Annie Lennox, Menahem Golan, and others. This is one compilation tape that really works, with eclectic nature, originality and imagination... a great album for expanding your horizons! (CHR21799) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Reversing Hour Life Without Television

The second release from this Atlanta-based quartet blends strong songwriting and unique melodies with unusual instrumentation (accordion, lute, Chapman Stick) and mostly female vocals, to create a lush album of moody, melodic rock. Features guest appearances by Amy Ray of the Indigo Girls, Cooper Seay of Viva La Diva and Elton James Sobety, and Lori Carson of the Golden Palominos. (DAE19009) CD: 15.98

Rickie Lee Jones Naked Songs

This '95 release is a disarmingly intimate live recording of some of her finest compositions, featuring just Rickie Lee herself on vocals, guitar and piano (with a guest appearance by Rob Wasserman, who plays bass on 2 tracks)... resulting in a starkly beautiful glimpse of a very original talent! The album draws on tunes from throughout her career, from Chuck E's in Love all the way up through The Horses and including her new song Stewart's Coat. (REP45950) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sheryl Crow

This 1996 release follows up her blockbuster, Grammy Award-winning Tuesday Night Music Club, in a tougher, bluesier vein. Includes If It Makes You Happy, Sweet Rosalyn, Maybe Angels, On Marie and more. (AM567) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor Universal Mother

Any album that begins with a quote from Germaine Greer and whose booklet begins with The Charge of the Goddess would be interesting enough, but after Germaine's intro ends, the fat, fat bass line of Five On Baby kicks in, and I was blown away. A lovely combination of hip happy grooves and ballads, this 1994 album weaves personal, political and spiritual themes. The artist seems to have pulled through an intense period of self-doubt (due in part, perhaps, to severe media scrutiny and criticism) to emerge stronger, grateful, and still a bit angry. Famine is a rap about Ireland. "And if there ever is gonna be healing there has to be remembering..." (CHR30549) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tanita Tikaram Lovers in the City

This 1995 album marks the long-awaited return of this young singer/songwriter (she was 18 when she released her debut in 1987). This collection, her most confident to date, features her trademark haunting vocals and finely crafted lyrics, and she produced half the tracks herself. Jennifer Warnes contributes back-up vocals; includes Feeding the Witches, Yodeling Song, I Might Be Crying, Wonderful Shadow, Happy Taxi. (REP45883) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Toni Childs The Woman's Boat

Toni has always used her music as a vehicle for intensely personal views of major social issues; but on this 1994 release, she journeys beyond that, into the spiritual realm. Thematically it traces the course of women's lives through the cycle of birth, growth, death and rebirth. Many songs are danceable (we expect Lay Down Your Pain to hit the clubs any time now), and there's a world music feel with some tracks recorded in India, and contributions by Peter Gabriel, Robert Fripp, and members of Zap Mama. If you're already familiar with her incredible voice, you'll probably be buying this anyway. If not, buy it for the artwork, and because she dedicates it "to the female spirit in every living thing." Amazing, outstanding, and insistently recommended. (GEF24518) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tracy Nelson/Mother Earth Best of Tracy Nelson/Mother Earth

This 1996 anthology brings back into print, for the first time in decades, some of the truly remarkable music made by Tracy and her band in the late-60's and early 70's. Mixing strains of r&b, country, folk and rock in a decidedly straightforward style — miles removed from the more over-the-top acts of the era — Mother Earth was an extraordinarily sympathetic vehicle for Tracy's powerful singing. Includes their veritable classic Down So Low, plus Temptation Took Control of Me and I Fell, Satisfied, Dry On, Mother Earth, Ruler of My Heart, 17 in all. (WAR46232) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various inc. Melissa Etheridge Concert/Rock and Roll Hall of Fame

It's big, it's hyped, it's recorded live in Cleveland! This 1996 double album captures the highlights from the concert at the opening of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Includes 3 covers by Melissa (The Ronettes' Be My Baby, The Supremes' Love Child, and The Shangri-las' Leader of the Pack), Natalie Merchant performing I Know How to Do It, Aretha's spin on I Can't Turn You Loose, plus tracks by Bob Dylan, James Brown, Jackson Brown, Bruce Springsteen, and many others. (COL67477) CS: 19.98 CD: 29.98

Various Artists Spirit of '73: Rock for Choice

A celebration of women's independence and creative spirit, this '95 release features female singers of the 50's covering songs made famous by male singers of the 70's. It's the first recording made to benefit the Rock for Choice organization, which was founded by L7 and The Feminist Majority as a way to mobilize the music community to raise money to protect abortion rights and educate young adults about standing up for their reproductive freedom. (1973 was the year that the Supreme Court legalized abortion in Roe v. Wade.) Includes tracks by Indigo Girls, Sarah McLachlan (Blue), Ebony Vibe Everlasting (We Are Family), Rosanne Cash, Sophie B. Hawkins, L7 and Joan Jett, and more; each song was chosen by the artist because it was a personal favorite from the period or because it somehow expresses the artist's passion for the cause. (SON66879) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists Siren Song

This early 1996 compilation features a variety of female artists from the Sony Music roster; includes Indigo Girls' Closer To Fine, Cyndi Lauper's Sally's Pigeons, Sadie's Smooth Operator, Basia's Time and Tide, Deevree's Fuel So High, and 5 others. (EPIC6215) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various, inc. Melissa Etheridge Ain't Nuthin' But A She Thing

This 1995 album benefits the Shirley Dovers Foundation, a clearinghouse which distributes funds to women-oriented charities. Melissa Etheridge performs Joan Armata's Weakness in Me; Sinead O'Connor sings an a cappella version of a traditional Gaelic song translated as Women of Ireland; plus great tracks by Michelle Ndegocello, Patti Smith, Queen Latifah, Annie Lennox, Salt-N-Pepa, Luscious Jackson, and more. (LON628674) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists, inc. k.d. lang The Unplugged Collection

This late '94 release includes k.d. lang's song Barefoot from the film Salmonberries (which several of you have requested), as well as selections by Annie Lennox, 10,000 Maniacs, Eric Clapton, Paul Simon, Elvin Costello, Neil Young, R.E.M., Paul McCartney, Sting, and others. (WB45774) CS: 13.98 CD: 19.98

Various: Ulali, Indigo Girls, et al Honor (2-Set)

This specially-priced, 1996 double compilation features 9 tracks by Native artists — including Ulali, Indigenous, Keith Secola & Wild Band of Indians, and Jay Harjo & Poetic Justice — in addition to 12 more tracks by Indigo Girls (performing Blood Quantum, their only '96 release), Jane Siberry, Bonnie Raitt & David Grisman, Victoria Williams, Reversing Hour, Exene Cervenka, Bruce Cockburn and others. The intention of the project is to create widespread support for Native environmental struggles, and the album benefits Native environmental groups and Native women's projects chosen in conjunction with the Indigenous Women's Network, the Seventh Generation Fund, and the Indigenous Environmental Network. (DAE19012) CS: 11.99 CD: 19.99

FOLK * SINGER-SONGWRITER

Alison Brown Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Beta Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Alisons steal the show here — Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle. Dave Grisman on mandolin, Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, one of our Top Pix for 1992, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this, so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79459) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Brown Quartet

Normally, if we were to describe this 1996 instrumental album as "Alison's most jazz-influenced to date," we'd watch these babies sit on our shelves and collect dust, because most of Ladyslipper's readers don't tend to order music with the [word, too bad, because Alison's original compositions are brilliant, fun, feel-good, refreshing, fabulous, creative — do I have your attention yet? Her polka-like banjo and guitar, joined here by piano, drums, and bass, will add a lightness and whimsy to your day. If you'll just give her a chance — especially if you think you don't like jazz stuff. A perfect soundtrack for diving, unwinding, toe-tapping, cooking, eating, conversing... Recommended! (VAN79466) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss Now That I've Found You

This 1995 retrospective traces Alison's evolution from a fiddle prodigy to a mature (at age 23) musician and singer with an unerring ear for choosing and interpreting songs. Includes highlights from all previous Rounder releases, tracks from outside projects, and 3 brand new tracks. (ROU0325) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss I've Got That Old Feeling

This prodigious artist picked up the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Recording for this album at the 1991 ceremonies, at the ripe old age of 19! Expert fiddler and soulful vocalist, she breathes vitality and passion into these songs about leaving and being on the road. She and banjo-playing Alison Brown are the show-stoppers, along with other members of her acoustic band. (ROU0275) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Life Gets Real

This 1995 release is a quintessential midlife exploration to complete the trilogy that began with Road of the Heart and Hole in the Day. Ann's full, deep, exquisite voice and artful self-harmonizing are just two of the features that make this album distinctive. The title track is a rocking reality check that offers insights about perspective and philosophy of life. Love Online is a humorous country song about e-mail relationships. "Your hair, your eyes, well these are things I've never seen. But ooh your voice appears so warm upon my screen." Walk is a beautiful and compelling piece dealing with domestic violence. Excellent rhythms and melodies — her best yet — highly recommended! (AML4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed By Request

Featuring some great "environmentally friendly" packaging (would that it were all this way... no plastic cases to crack, replace, trash, store, ship, reship...!) this 1992 release is just what it says: material that Ann has issued by request of her fans. Ann with her glorious voice and 12-string is accompanied by Joan Griffith on bass and 6-string; includes Lisa's Song, Every Long Journey, Stylocam, and more. (AML1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Hole in the Day

Our favorite modern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for ya! This 1993 12-song release features her thrilling brown-sugar-&-molasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her wry love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miles Home to You, and No Road to Juneau. (AML2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's irresistible voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and all acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluesy vein. (TC10074) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Back & Forth

The Best is back... in print, that is: this contains the best from her first releases Carpenter and Room and Board, such as The Woman You Love, Jessie, Jaylie; plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston? We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen
Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the result is as fabulous as their fans might expect. It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their scappella work; most songs include back-up by producer/bassist Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...). Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities
English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite 1995 instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lee, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddis in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and living beauty sound: Baroque/ classical/new-age, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, solar, float, and chase each other with counter-melodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, flageolet, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Caroline Aiken
Live Bait

Caroline's second live album, recorded at Eddie's Attic in Atlanta in 1994, comes with high recommendations from Ladyfinger staff! The 15 tracks include 7 originals, plus covers of songs by Rude the Wood, Elton John, and Don Henley. The roster of guest performers is long. Caroline's 8-year-old daughter, even sings Michelle Malone's Greatest Show on Earth! Caroline's style of folk contains unmistakable country and blues elements. Her exceptional voice ranks with greats like Kathy Mattea. Outstanding guitar, too: it's An DiFranco's guitar gets you going, you need to try this album! (CA0004) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Carrie Newcomer
An Angel At My Shoulder

All you who are crazy for Mary Chapin Carpenter, give this angel a serious listen! She's by no means a newcomer to the scene, with several albums already in her discography, though this 1994 release marks her debut on a national independent label. It features a wide range of vocal stylings, from tough and punchy to warm and tender, with her resonant voice the constant. Her surfacing role as contemporary poet is a resounding account to her distinct musical abilities. When there's an "angel" in the title these days, it seems like you can be assured there's top-notch folk talent inside: (Iris DeMeo, The Story, Fery Block, Patty Larkin), and Carrie's no exception. (PH1163) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carrie Newcomer
The Bird Or the Wing

Carrie makes an immediate impact; her singing is confident and expressive; her songwriting is casual but focused — whether she's looking outward at relationships or looking inside herself. This 1995 release — which we're thrilled to add, since her previous release has been one of our favorites around the Ladyfinger warehouse and offices, and this one's even better! — features lush ballads and spunky country, and makes an impact strong enough to last. Songs include The Yes of Yes, Holy Ground, and Wisdom is Watching (written in the aftermath of the killing of Dr. Gunn by an anti-abortionist, she calls it "a song for women, a song for mature spirituality and a song for what is good and feminine in the universe"). Highly recommended! (PH1163) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carrie Newcomer
My Father's Only Son

With a voice described by producer Don Dixon as "like the soul of Mother Teresa and the sensibility of Mother Maybelle, coming through the lips of Peggy Lee", Carrie has come up with a rich palette of folk-pop sounds on this 1996 release. Includes the tender The Rooms My Mother Made, the cajun stylings of You Can Choose, and the exuberant pop of Crazy in Love and Carpenter. Listen close. (PH1203) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Visions and Dreams

This 1995 re-release of Carrie's first solo album showcases the intimate yet powerful style of this evocative songwriter and breathtaking singer. Accompanied by Lisa Germano on violin and mandolin among others, she sings folk/rock/country songs about finding hope and strength to keep on keeping on during hard times, clinging to friends and faith through the dark nights (I'm On Your Side and the title track), as well as humorous tracks such as Right Brain Born (in a Left Brain World). (PH1193) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis
Truth From Lies

If you loved her earlier stuff as much as we did, you won't be disappointed by this 1994 follow-up. Her heartbreaking vocals and acoustic guitar are backed up by drums and bass, with some guest appearances by Patty Larkin and John Gorka. Our favorite songs include Everybody Was Dancing, the poignant tale of a woman's loneliness in a 30-year marriage, and Radical, which affirms the freedom of loving with no political statements attached. (GUA35435) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Chenille Sisters
Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm

From a hilarious reworking of La Bamba, wherein the refrain becomes "listen to your mama," to an ode to chocolate, to a beautiful original by Connie Huber called Roadmaps, to their exquisite harmonizing on jazz classics like The Wind and Hushin' To Myself, the Chenilles lift their artistry to new heights on this 1991 release. (RHR39) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters
True To Life

This 1995 album is a return to the spirit and stylistic content of their early days, and at the same time a great leap forward: great production, with clear and spacious sound, capturing the full nuance and inflection of each voice. It contains some of their funniest songs ever: in Pizza Deliverance, a vision of the Virgin Mary appears in a pizza; Help! I'm Turning Into My Parents is a scary realization lots of us identify with; and Name Droppings is my inner child's favorite! Some serious and tender songs round out the mix in this excellent collection. (RHR67) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Chenille Sisters
Haute Chenille: A Retrospective

Find out why Hillary and Chelsea Clinton asked reporters in Ann Arbor, Michigan, "Isn't this where the Chenilles are from?" This '95 release is a knock-out collection from their first 7 albums, plus two hilarious new tracks — 13 songs in all — featuring the very best of what Chenille fans have come to adore: clever yet human lyrics, smooth-as-silk harmonies, and a sound that ranges from folk to jazz to pop. (RHR81) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Before we encountered this 1985 album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Llama soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual: strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes; best cut may be Behind the Barr, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Half a Wheel

On this 1987 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (NS0005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Driving Home

The sweet-sounding, rhyming slices of life provided on this 1993 release are mostly nostalgic and thoughtful, delivered in Cheryl's straightforward manner and lovely alto. She writes with insight about relationship dead-ends, and with true appreciation of the changing seasons. The tempo is occasionally lightened by selections such as the tongue-in-cheek Don't Forget the Guns. With vocal support on a few selections by Mary Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, and Patty Larkin (and Jonathan Edwards, who also produced) how can you go wrong? (PH1152) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts, in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town (nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment), to Artow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses"! Re-release available in early 1995. (PH1162) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Mrs. Pinocci's Guitar

This 1995 collection of 14 Wheeler originals reaffirms her reputation as one of the premiere singer-songwriters on the contemporary folk scene! Whether yearning for simplicity (Howl at the Moon) or diving headlong into the complexities of love (So Far to Fall) or goofing on pop culture (TV and Is It Peace Or Is It Prozac?), Cheryl always gets to the heart of the matter and delivers every nuance. (PH1192) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin/Live at Cactus Cafe
What Was I Thinking?

Captured on tape one night at a live performance at a small Texas club in 1993, when Christine forgot to tell the audience about the taping... so all the audience spontaneity... and sass-back... was preserved! She performs some of her old (Bald Headed Men, Shopping Cart of Love) and new favorites (We Are The True Americans, Dear Dan, The Dakota), and as a bonus track, you get the studio recorded What Was I Thinking? The Dance Mix... How can you miss this Saturday night event? Well, if you did, you don't have to anymore. (PH1159) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin
Please Don't Make Me Too Happy

This 1995 release — her first solo studio recording in 3 years — features many songs that have been live favorites in her concerts over the last few years, including Oh No (where she loses her glasses and orders pizza) and Waiting For the B Train (the poignant tale of a puppy on the subway tracks). Her serious side also comes out here, with songs about the Kennedy assassination (The Sixth Floor), old friends who drift apart and come together again (Jane), and, of course, relationships (the secrets at This Wedding, and the title track). Quintessential Christine! (SHN8016) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cindy Kallet/ Ellen Epstein/ M Ciccone
Only Human

We're so glad that Cindy, Ellen, and Michael again collaborate for this 1993 release of vocal traditional and contemporary folk tunes, because they have such a warmly healing and elegant sound. Over half of the 15 songs are performed a cappella, with the rest accompanied by various combinations of guitar, hammered dulcimer, piano, violin, cittern and conga (this last by Marytha Patrath of Libana). Titles include I'm a Mammal, I But a Little Girl, The Mhavi Bhan, Be Like A Bird which you may know from Libana's repertoire, and Enya's Evening Falls. O lovers of the human voice, we do recommend this to you! (OAM2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Commonbond
Colors of Life

Recorded live in 1995 at the Birchmere in Virginia, the dynamic DC duo performs their original acoustic tunes with their voices ringing in harmony. Includes the AIDS benefit song People Laugh, the living Forever in My Rain and their tria-by-Nashville tune Hippie Cowgirl. (COM002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Cowboy Junkies
Lay It Down

"Just when I thought that I'd discovered the secret of peace and tranquility, that lovely sinking feeling creeps up on me". Oh, yeah. This 1995 album chugs along on the local which stops only at the barren and hopeless deserts. Filled with yet more stories of the depressed and the depressing, it's apparent that no one in the band is on Prozac yet. The guitars and harmonies are more polished on this go-round, but it still works as late-night driving music. (GEF24952) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies
The Trinity Sessions

Margo Timmins is the vocalist of this mostly-Timmins ensemble, and her voice is the distinguishing characteristic of the group: it's smoky, moody, bluesy, evocative... and electric guitar is the prevailing instrumentation, making for a heady ambience. Includes the loveliest version of Low So Lonesome I could ever recorded, and a cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane. Recorded live in Toronto, 1988. (RCA8558) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Danielle Howle
Live at McKissick Museum

This Columbia, SC artist (whose fans and friends list includes the Indigo Girls, and whose album is manufactured by Amy Ray's Daedra label) sounds like someone you would accidentally stumble upon in a southern college town: someone who's funny and wryly observant and wearing old jeans and really easy to hang out with. This 1995 album is just her, a guitar, and an appreciative, intimate audience, as she chats and sings through songs like Big Fatly Get Handwriting, Frog Song, Why You Worry. There are flashes of a mellow darks Japan, but all in all it's a down-home, acoustic thing. (DAE19010) CD: 15.98

Dar Williams
The Honesty Room

This young, vibrant singer-songwriter is making waves around the country lately, acoustic luminaries such as Christine Lavin have been raving about her, the Folk Music bulletin boards of the Internet have been buzzing, she's garnered a fair bit of radio play, and made knockout folk festival appearances. Her remarkable lyric style is coupled with a supple sense of melody and a superb 3-octave voice, which carresses songs that convey a great mix of politics, social commentary, love and observation. This 1993 release includes the gender-bender When I Was A Boy, plus The Babysitter's Here, Atelula, The Great Unknown. On the look-out for some fine new talent? Try Dar. (RAT2816) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dar Williams
Mortal City

What can you say about brilliance? Well, a lot, really. This 1996 sophomore effort by critically acclaimed folk musician and Joan Baez tourmate Dar Williams is so substantial and exquisite and meaningful and accomplished that it shines like polished bronze. Kicking off with the bouncing As Cool As I Am, an upbeat feminist tune with the sing-a-long anthem-esque chorus "I will not be afraid of women" can start your day right. February brings you down with her wistfully evocative soprano and a tender metaphor for a failed love, The Christians and the Pagans is an endearing story about a pagan lesbian couple sharing an ecumenical Christmas celebration with an uncle's family. Other songs such as The Pointless, Yet Poignant, Crisis of a Co-Ed and Southern California Wants To Be Western New York live up to their billing. Oh, I could go on but I mustn't... highly I really really mean it recommended. (RAT2621) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Legends of Rainmaker

Most notable here, on her second release, is an original country-rock song Rose Strike Back, a passionate plea for a woman to leave an abusive relationship, on which she is backed by Bonnie Raitt... second, a beautiful cover of the early 60's hit song written by her father, Terry, Greenfields (surely one of you remember that? Once there were greenfields kissed by the sun...). A beautiful follow-up to Pilgrims. (GC71323) CS: 9.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Pilgrims

If you think folk music is lacking lyrically, melodically, or spiritually, never fear. Eliza Gilkyson is here! This accomplished singer-songwriter has created this dazzling album from her very heart, and it's sure to touch a chord in yours. As a captain in self-exploration, she charts aspects of her quest for love and understanding with a compelling, magnetic voice - at times reminiscent of the qualities of Chris Williamson or Ferron. Includes Material Man ("...dicking with the dollars... miserably mad..."), Faithful Heart, Calling All Angels. Her first release since her out-of-print 1979 debut album on Hellos Records, which we had long ago... incredibly talented, intensely aware, searching and caring. Eliza offers a musical gift not to be passed by. Highly recommended. (MT395) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Four Bitchin' Babes
Fax It, Charge It...

...Don't Ask Me What's For Dinner... but this 1995 release serves up some great bitchin' tunes by Babes Christine Lavin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingerett, now joined by Dabi Smith (of the Smith Sisters). Tracks range from poignant ballads like Dabi's My Mother's Hands and Sally's indictment of domestic violence, She Won't Be Walkin' to the chuckle-generating Great Big Bug, where Christine takes us on a cockroach hunt, and Megan's Microphone Life. Also includes a studio version of Christine's live classic What Was I Thinking, sung with help from guest Babe Mary Tavers. (5H98018) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Four Bitchin' Babes

Life According to 4 Bitchin' Babes
Christine Lavin plus Patty Larkin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingerett were recorded Live at the Birchmere, alternately entitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair... their unforgettable concert tour together has been eternalized and immortalized here. You'll get to experience their humor, indescribable voices, and very on-target material. Includes Junk Food, Laches Lunch, Sensitive New Age Guys, Prisoners of Their Hands, Not Bad For a Broad, These Boots Are Made For Walkin', and Home Is Where the Heart Is, a touching vignette by Sally about a lesbian couple and a gay couple. Approx. 60 minutes... recommended! 1991 (PH1140) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Four Bitchin' Babes
Four Bitchin' Babes, Volume 2

This 1993 release - subtitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair... - features the current babes (Christine Lavin, Sally Fingerett, Megan McDonough, and Julie Gold), returning with their second volume of song, wit and wisdom. Highlights include Julie Gold's (Fun To Be) Perfect and her great song From A Distance (though I still think that the Apollo 8 astronauts who wrote some of these very same words in 1968, quoted in a book about composing called Let It Rot, oughta be given credit for inspiration); Christine Lavin's lyrics to the Jeopardy theme and her cover of Sealed With a Kiss; Megan McDonough's Butter and Sally Fingerett's Take Me Out to Eat. And they all do harmony vocals on each other's songs. Of course recommended! (PH1150) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gayla Drake Paul

It's been quite a while since a folk artist has generated the attention and interest that Gayla seems to be generating (and quite a while since this editor was so knocked out by someone's acoustic fingerstyle guitar, where's her all-instrumental album?) - she's been called brilliant, accomplished, inspirational and refreshing. With a strong yet ethereal voice, she conjures up images of folk greats like Joni Mitchell on her 1994 debut album. Her pluck-ish guitar style, played almost exclusively in DADGAD (a tuning common in Irish music) lends a captivating backdrop to her well-grounded lyrics. Especially like Tra Be Dau, the only non-origins here (sung in Welsh perhaps? Wish the notes gave more info). Recommended! (JVN11494) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gayla Drake Paul
Waiting for the Spark

With lyrics that fall like well-measured poetry, her songs like Let Me Make You Mine and One Sweet Taste of You become consummate lovers' tales on this 1995 release. As an added bonus and nod to her Irish music background, she does a rendition of Auld Lang Syne that is simply not to be missed! Gayla's second release features some guests, including John Hartford's banjo on one of her instrumental tracks, but overall it maintains a sparse elegance. Her careening, gossamer-yet-substantial vocal quality is like a feather which supports a bird in flight. (After racking my brain trying to figure out who Gayla's voice reminds me of, it finally came to me: Woody Simmons. Feather in the Wind, for you old timers - it was the feather connection.) And her guitar solo on an Irish "planxty" is superb; recommended! (JVN20995) CD: 15.98

Grace Griffith
Grace

The debut album of Connecticut's vocalist, Every Shade and Hue, was re-worked somewhat to create this 1996 re-release of well-chosen tunes in a Celtic-folk vein. She opens with Betsy Raser's spiritually cleansing Water, Fire and Smoke... then delicately caresses the Gershwin chestnut Summertime as it's brushed by harp and violin. Along with the harmony vocals of Dabi Smith, pennywhistle, bodhran and harp she sings the traditional Celtic "crush on woman tied on the heath" theme in The Star of the Country Down, Castle Kelly... but perhaps one of the most gorgeous is Anne Lister's Dameter's Daughter. A beautifully crafted gem, definitely infused with grace. (BLX10028) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Hazel Dickens and Alice Gerrard
Pioneering Women of Bluegrass

As the title implies, Hazel Dickens and Alice Gerrard were trail-blazers in bluegrass music. As Hazel writes in the copious liner notes, their recordings "were the first time that two women sat down and picked out a bunch of songs and had guts enough to stand behind what they picked out and say: 'We're not changing anything.'" This 1996 release combines their remastered seminal albums Who's That Knocking? and Won't You Come Sing For Me, both recorded in the mid-60's. Alice sings (mostly) the lead high tenor vocals and plays banjo and guitar, Hazel sings the harmony low tenor and plays the bass, and they are accompanied by legendary fiddler Chubby Wise. Their sublime "high lonesome sound", yodels and all, comes through plaintively sweet on songs by the Carter Family, Bill Monroe and Hazel's classic Won't You Come Sing For Me? and others. There are 26 tracks in all, over 68 minutes of the FINEST of bluegrass. Fans of Alison Krauss, discover the women who started it all! (SF40065) CD: 15.98

Ian & Sylvia
Greatest Hits (Double Set)

Classics from the vast discography of this excellent Canadian folk duo from the 60's: their original You Were On My Mind, plus Four Strong Winds, Early Morning Rain, Come In Stranger, Some Day Soon, Un-Canadian Errand, and more. (VAN5-5) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Jaime Morton
Animals Are Moving

We can't pin it down. The Story has it, Cate Curtis has it. It's that bending, sugging, grabbing vocal thing, and it's Jaime's signature. This 1989 debut album by a gifted singer-songwriter showcases a wide range in musical styles, from folk rock to jazz, all rich in their instrumental and vocal arrangements. Songs include True Love and Feeding the Lonely, testaments to coming up to love, and the very upbeat and sensual Pulse Of My Dream. Note low sale price! (SAR576806) CS: 4.98

Janis Ian
Revenge

When Janis Ian performed songs from this 1995 album at the National Women's Music Festival, thousands of women were ecstatic, about her very "out" commentary as well as her artistry. Silent Fire is a passionately angry piece written following a breakup; and When Angels Cry speaks movingly about AIDS. "Some say it's a judgment on us all; can't believe that God could be that small." This acclaimed songwriter - with a voice that can be touching in its delicacy or energizing in its vigor - is going strong in her comeback, over 30 years after her first major hit! (BEC51559) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Janis Ian
Breaking Silence

Nostalgic for the 60's and 70's? You're not alone! Fans everywhere are crying for new releases from the folk legends, and after a 12-year hiatus, Janis delivers! Not staying away from controversy personally (coming out of the closet) or in her music, her song topics touch issues such as the Holocaust in Tajitos, physical abuse in My Hands, child abuse and molestation in the title track, and eroticism (given new meaning) in Ride Me Like A Wave. Two songs were co-written with Jess Leary, whose music so impressed us years ago that we loved her 45... And whatever you do, don't miss Guess You Had To Be There, 'cause if you were conscious at all during the 60's, she's playing your song. 1992. (MOR20023) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Janis Ian
Society's Child (2-CD Set)

Janis was 15 when Society's Child, her startlingly mature composition about an interracial affair, became a hit and made her a star. She recorded 4 folk-rock albums from 1967-1969, while she grew from a teen prodigy into an adult artist. This classic set, subtitled The Verve Recordings, is an overview of her extraordinary beginnings, and features 41 songs including title track, Pro-Girl, Younger Generation Blues, Janey A Blues, Queen Merka & Me, Insanity Comes Quietly to the Structured Mind. This 1995 (re-release includes 24-page booklet with a new interview with the artist, rare photos and complete track annotation. (PLD7591) CD: 29.98

Janis Ian
Between the Lines

Now that this well-known artist from the 60's and 70's has publicly come out as a lesbian (confirming years of audience hope and/or speculation), we've been getting requests for her material. Here's a classic 1975 album, containing several of her "hits": At Seventeen, Tea & Sympathy, Lover's Lullaby, and more. (COL33394) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

The Jazzabels Skyway

While continuing in the Jazzabel tradition of fine harmony and well-crafted songs, this 1995 release stretches into new territory — including jazz fango, backbeat zydeco, delta blues mystery, and transcontinental fiddle. From late-night musings to cruising the open road, these songs take you there. (DEL96011) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

The Jazzabels Cafe All Day

From the city that spawned Ani DiFranco and Mary Ramsey comes this songwriting, folk/country swing blues/Tex-Mex/rock-n-roll duo! There is not a dull cut to be found on their 1994 album. One reviewer exclaims: "If you don't care for your folk guitar cut with accordions, flutes, pennywhistles, and the occasional recorder or cello, you're in the wrong coffeehouse!" Good Time Girls, about female friendship, and Can't Forget, on remembered heritage, are songs with transformative potential. Dynamic pace changes and sparkling wit — as in (I Wish I Could Sing Like) Johnny Cash — make the album endlessly entertaining; pristine harmonies and spunky musicianship tie it all together. ## Joan Baez w/Indigos, Janis Ian, etc Ring Them Bells

Over 4 special nights in April '95, at NYC's Bottom Line, a remarkable array of women artists shared the spotlight with Joan Baez in an amazing celebration of the art and timelessness of American music. Songs include Jesse (with Janis Ian), Don't Think Twice It's Alright (with Indigo Girls), title track (with Mary Black), Swallow Song (with Joan's sister Mimi Farrow), Diamonds and Rust (with Mary Chapin Carpenter), You're A Part of Me (with Dar Williams), Pajarito Borrado (with Tish Hinojosa), Willie Moore (with Kate and Anna McGarrigle), and other Baez classics such as The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down. Even if you weren't one of the 1,200 folks lucky enough to be there for this historic event, you can still share these moments of great music and inspiring artistry. (GUA34999) CS: 10.98... ## Joanne Rand Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice gorgeous voice gorgeous voice environmental songs gorgeous voice social/political/spiritual songs gorgeous voice... This woman's range will take your breath away! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves; her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness; and I already told you about her voice, about which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1989 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaanisqatsi, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Joanne Rand & the Little Big Band The Monkey Puzzle

Joanne calls her music "power-folk-fusion-rock" and "acoustic ritual" — an apt description, because her music is truly designed to "heat us all and startle us to consciousness." This 1995 release (finally with a beautiful cover that does it justice!) has more of an internal/universal orientation, although you will find a few of her trademark environmental pieces. One of the best tracks here is Earth My Body, a medley of songs by Starhawk, Adele Getty and Windsong, compiled and embellished by Joanne into a dynamic, powerful arrangement. More instrumentation than previous releases, her band's acoustic and electric bass, drums, congas and percussion weave a rich fabric through which threads her unmistakable voice. (JR4) CS: 9.98... ## Kate & Anna McGarrigle Matapedia

Very much rooted in the soil of eastern Canada and northern New England, right down to its bilingualism, this 1995 album proves that after 2 decades in the business, the McGarrigles are still operating at peak brilliance. Matapedia is a town in Quebec, a river that flows through the province, and a lake on the Gaspe Peninsula... It is also, to hear the sisters sing and speak of it, a state of mind. Song titles include Why We Must Die, Going Back to Marlon, The Bike Song. Take the time to reconnect! (HAN1394) CD: 15.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Finally back in print, for real! The debut classic 1975 album by these Canadian sisters with "generic" harmonies includes their beautiful original ballad Heart Like A Wheel, also featuring their third sister Janie on vocals and organ, which propelled them (and Linda Ronstadt) to fame and fortune. Instrumentation — accordion, fiddle, harmonica, guitar, banjo — and vocal style are drawn from French Canadian tradition, though most of the material is original. Also includes Tell My Sister, Jigsaw Puzzle of Life, Travelin' On For Jesus. (HAN4401) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle Heartbeats Accelerating

The mesmerizing 1991 release fills a musical void left by the sisters' 8-year absence from the recording studio! With their trademark glorious vocals, flawless harmony and haunting guitar work, this collection melds a variety of styles, from folk to pop to Cajun to Celtic. Includes Love Is ("Love is a meter chord"), Love is a mental ward, Love is its own reward and Mother Mother. (PVT2070) CS: 10.98... CD: 18.98

Kate Wolf Gold in California (2-Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1986. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death; she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rises Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Eritria Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. (RH71485) CS: 14.98... CD: 23.98

Kate Wolf The Wind Blows Wild

This 1988 release contains all previously unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's untimely death at age 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1986, the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Rising of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on... and on... through her still-growing discography. (RH71486) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf Looking Back At You

From the back roads of the north coast of California, the transfixing voice of this beloved artist rang true for more than a decade, beginning in the mid-'70s. Her singing and songwriting were rooted in the pure folk tradition, which shares the simple joys and pains of everyday life with a near-confessional intimacy. Her performances and recordings were winning her an increasing legion of fans when she died of leukemia in 1986. This 1994 release presents 10 early Kate Wolf renditions of original songs, traditional folk ballads, and songs from some of her favorite contemporaries like Jackson Browne and Leonard Cohen. Like many of her best albums, it was recorded live in concert, at various venues in Los Angeles between 1977 and 1979. Includes Bird On A Wire, Hold On To Me Babe, and more. (RH71613) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf Close To You

One of Kate's best-loved albums, originally released in 1981, we bring it back to Ladyslipper by popular request! Sweet harmonies, gentle rhythms, thoughtful lyrics; includes Across the Great Divide, Like A River, Friend of Mine, Unfinished Life. (RH71482) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf Carry It On

These recordings were originally made in 1978-1981, then compiled and remastered by accompanist Nina Gerber and released as a body of work in 1995. It contains both originals (2 of the 5 previously unreleased) and songs by some of Kate's major influences, from the title track by Gil "Jellyroll" Turner, to classics from Joni Mitchell, Woody Guthrie, Arlo Guthrie and more. These selections, representing some of the best songwriting from the folk tradition, do "carry on" Kate's legacy. (FRR301) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf Breezes

These early sessions, recorded over a few days in 1973, are raw and unpolished, yet showcase Kate's voice and her beautiful delivery. She co-wrote and sings lead on all tracks on this album, released in 1995, several years after her untimely death. A must for collectors! (GAD210) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf Give Yourself to Love (2-Set)

This live 1983 release of mostly previously-unrecorded material features Kate's long-time colleague Nina Gerber on mandolin, harmonica, guitar, and vocals throughout the "show." Most closely resembles her concerts and includes some songs by other musicians that she enjoyed performing over the years. Compiled from three performances, in San Francisco (Great American Music Hall), Davis, and Nevada City. Includes a live version of Redtail Hawk, and her originals Green Eyes and title song. (RH71483) CS: 14.98... CD: 23.98

Lucy Kaplansky The Tide

Grammy-winner Shawn Colvin (Lucy's former duo partner) both produced and performed on this exciting 1994 release. Lucy has been an important part of the Greenwich Village folk scene, sharing the stage with Suzanne Vega, the McGarrigles, and Nancy Griffith. Her album contains striking originals like The Tide and You Just Need a Home, plus songs by heavy-weight composers, including Richard Thompson, Sting, and Robin Battison. One of Lucy's most outstanding characteristics is her innovative vocal phrasing. Her completely original approach to singing and songwriting makes her a refreshing presence in acoustic music! (RRH65) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Lynn Miles Slightly Haunted

A friendly voice with a hint of twang gently bumping down a country road, Canadian Lynn Miles' 1995 album is like a well worn quilt. Kind of a Joni Mitchell meets Nancy Griffith for coffee and Janis Siberry joins them from the next booth over. She sings about leaving and being left in front of easy-going but tight guitars, drums and harmonica. Good music to watch the dust floating in the afternoon sunbeams by. (PH1190) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Lynn Morris Mama's Hand

There's something about bluegrass that affects me unlike anything else; I always get a catch in my throat as an inevitable sense of sadness comes over me. Lynn Morris' 1996 album has me grasping for a connection to the Appalachian roots I do not have. She has won most every bluegrass award there is, with her adeptness at both clawhammer and bluegrass banjo and her simple yet sweet singing. The influence of blues, old-timey, gospel, country and rockabilly permeate her instrumental originals (such as the sprightly Dancing in the Hog Trough) and covers of vocal tunes. The highlight is the title track, a cover of a Hazel Dickens song, with Susan Cox (of the Cox Family) singing harmony. This story about leaving home and family makes you feel that the fiddle is bowing directly on your heart strings. (ROU0328) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Megan McDonough American Girl

Megan's second release is more filled out and produced than her first (tastefully, of course), with love as a theme again; this time the personal kind, with metaphors of water and dreams a frequent image in her songs. The majority of songs are again originals, and feature lovely arrangements with accompaniment on recorder, harmonica, mandolin, piano, guitar and bass. Includes Dreams of Deep Water, River of Wishes, If Love Is a Dream, Big Blue River. (See what we mean about the water imagery?) 1990. (SRS1) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked The Texas Campfire Tapes

The amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording first creating a raging cult following for this young itinerant folk artist, then catapulting her to national fame and fortune! Her style on this 1986 "debut" recording (a re-issue of the very same walkman recording) is an absolutely appealing blend of talking blues and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and ironies, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the trick-ets who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long wearing, gets better and more intriguing with every listening. recommended! (MER534581) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Morgan & Phelan Celebrations of Love

Need an anniversary gift? A valentine gift? A commitment ceremony gift? A seduction soundtrack, perhaps? If you're searching for an album of the purest, gentlest, deepest love songs, this is it! Peggy Morgan and Bette Phelan, with incredible vocal harmonies and tight, crystalline acoustic instrumentation, present original music which speaks of the depths of love and friendship (so deep it's probably between women!). Well, there are just a couple of songs about parings, but except for those, this collection of songs is about LOVE—honest, real, and present. Includes Anniversary Song, You Are the One I Love, Some Kind of Magic, and more—a beautiful celebration, for sure. 1993. (WIM001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Essential Odetta (Double)

This "double" includes No More Auction Block For Me, If I Had a Hammer, When I Was a Young Girl, much more. (VAN43/44) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries Same Rain

Back in our catalog, by popular demand! Pat's the kind of songwriter who stumble upon very infrequently—one with the ability to anthemic common struggles and triumphs. She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed in the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere—not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! (MFM360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin Strangers World

Her bright and shiny 1995 release features Shawn Colvin, Bruce Cockburn, and Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball (from The Story) on background vocals, as well as your favorite folk instrumentation (mandolin, bawzoki, cello). Johnny Was A Pyro showcases Patty's sharp articulation and outstanding ability to use her voice expressively. Mary Magdalene, a feminist reworking of the female Biblical figure, is simply gorgeous. We and That Train comes with spunky lyrics (trucks were sliding sideways like sons of bitches) and a generous helping of bass. (HST10335) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Peggy Seeger An Odd Collection

One of the most eloquent voices for a variety of socio-political issues, especially women's issues, for over 50 years, Peggy Seeger continues this activist tradition with her 1996 album. Backed by guitar, mandolin, and dulcimer, her ironic and humorously understated songs incisively comment upon domestic violence, environmental destruction, the need for unions, and the ravages of patriarchal values. All but 4 of the songs here are previously unrecorded and recently written (1989-1995). Another important salvo for the forces of good! (ROU4031) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary & ... LifeLines

Better than a folk festival! This revered trio again shares the stage with a fabulous roster of artists they've sung with at festivals, marches and concerts. Ronnie Gilbert, Molly Near, Pete Seeger, Judy Collins, Carly and Lucy Simon, Richie Havens, B.B. King, Emmylou Harris, John Sebastian, Dave van Ronk and others. They say, "We share the music on this album as if PP&M had expanded and added new members. And, in a way, that's what happened." The sum is greater than the parts: that's what folk music is all about! This 1995 release includes House of the Rising Sun, River of Jordan, and a duet between Mary Travers and Molly Near on Home Is Where the Heart Is. Sally Fingers' beautiful song about lesbian and gay relationships, alone worth the price of the album. Recommended! (WB45851) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Roches Can We Go Home Now

Brilliant songwriting and performances will surprise and delight longtime Roches fans and new converts! This 1995 release contains beautifully recorded acoustic songs that feature the insight and incredible vocals of Maggie, Suzzy, and Terra Roche. Their songs navigate the great expanse of the human heart, from tragedy to elation, engaging in deep and reflective exploration of the human experience. From the joyous Move, to the sorrowful Christine, to the warm storytelling of Home Away From Home, to the priceless My Winter Coat, the sisters have created yet another work of cohesion and humor. (RYK299) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches

Their first album as a trio, and the one which firmly endeared them to great numbers of music lovers, who also appreciated humor and ingenuity. Their harmonic and lyric accomplishments reached new peaks here. All acoustic, simply and skillfully produced, includes the autobiographical We, Mr. Seftack. Quilting Time. Recommended! 1979. (WB3298) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block Ain't I A Woman

This 1992 release is, quite frankly, absolutely superb. The stylistic variety is amazing, for one thing (folk, rock, blues, jazz, gospel, with absolute artistry in each genre); as are her voice and guitar playing, as always. Several songs are about women here: the title cut of course, featuring the words of Sojourner Truth, given a deeply impassioned jazz-tinged treatment by Rory; also includes Sisters and Maggie Campbell. And her rendition of the blues song Cool Drink of Water and the gospel standard Walk in Jerusalem are spectacular. Her best yet, very highly recommended! (ROU3120) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block When a Woman Gets the Blues

Like Mama's Blues, this 1995 release is a terrific collection of hand-picked country blues classics. Long recognized as the finest female acoustic blues guitarist performing today, she presents here the purest expression of a genre she has made her own. Not only is she without peer as a guitarist, but her affecting and soulful vocals update the classic blues tradition of female singers going back to Ma Rainey and Bessie Smith. (ROU3139) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block Tornado

This ambitious 1995 album features some of Rory's trademark Mississippi Delta blues stylings on such songs as Mississippi Bottom Blues and Gone Woman Blues, while also steering into other rich musical territory. Rory's versatility in songwriting is shown off on the 10 (of 12) originals, which range from blues to pop, traditional to contemporary. The Last Levathan is a stand-out, with lush vocal harmonies on the Irish-styled ballad that are truly stunning. Joining her are such great artists as Mary Chapin Carpenter and renowned fiddler Stuart Duncan. (ROU3140) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels Borderline Heart

After 30 years of traveling the highways and byways of America, armed with just a guitar and an iron will, this premiere folk artist and storyteller presents us with an outstanding 1995 album. At once rural in its imagery and sophisticated in its literary approach, it is an uncompromising collection of songs about revolution, strong-willed women, broken dreams, heart-breaking loss, and the road. With instrumental support from some of the finest musicians around: Barbara Higbie, Nina Gerber, Laurie Lewis, and others, includes La Bruja, Nevada Moon, Ragweed Ruff, and 11 more. (GL2119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels & Utah Phillips The Long Memory

Two grand masters of American topical folk present this unique 1996 collection of songs and stories about the labor struggle in America's mines, mills and factories—a side of our history that's usually omitted from the history books! Rosalie presents some of the words of organizer Aunt Molly Jackson, and her great song I Ain't A Union Woman... as well as gems by her friend Melvina Reynolds: Carolina Cotton Mill and Bury Me In My Overalls. Utah Phillips, the subject of several tribute projects himself (including one by Ani DiFranco) tells and sings about Mother Jones and Nevada Jane and much more. Anyone working for justice will love the detail and depth of this educational and inspirational piece. (RHR03) CD: 15.98

Sara Hickman Necessary Angels

Sara was dropped from Elektra Records when she chose to sacrifice pop marketability to create an album of intimate songs embracing a personal perspective. To buy back rights to her album, she sold her house and belongings, and hundreds of fans ("angels") donated money. She recorded seven new songs for the album, dropping eight old ones, and remixed it, releasing this more cohesive combination on a smaller label in 1994. Sara says her writing is about hope. Many of her songs, including Shadowweaving and Time Will Tell, are quiet folk. Others, like Pursuit of Happiness and Tiger in a Teacup Town break out into funky rock. An inspiring, community-supported work! (DIS77010) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan Solace

We don't have much specific info about this woman, but her voice contains a gorgeous Irish tint, kinda like Sinéad meets Enya, both soft and sweet and as strong and multicolored as polished titanium. Absolutely captivating! The material on her 1994 album is mostly original; she writes simple vignettes about longing (Home), and loneliness (Loss), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thorns, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven. Instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, guitars, and the packaging is quite impressive, even for a major label. (ARI0631) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan Touch

We were introduced to this singer-songwriter when she shared a bill with Holly Near, and here's her debut 1989 release; it features her wide vocal range, gorgeous harmonies, and introspective lyrics. Tape and CD contain one bonus track. (ARI0594) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan Fumbling Towards Ecstasy

This 1994 release from a fiery-throated artist is pure sensation. Introspective lyrics weave through the bitingly restrained production—a subtle mix of guitar, bass, drums and keyboard topped off by Sarah's layered vocals. The title track along with Good Enough and Circle shimmer with adult intensity and strength. Ice Cream serves up a tasty comparison of love to chocolate as well as to our favorite frozen treat (mmm!). Sarah skillfully rounds out the instrumental she shares with Kate Bush and Tori Amos, includes an unlisted bonus track, extremely recommended. (ARI0725) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan The Freedom Sessions

This 1995 release is a collection of fan favorites from Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, newly recorded live and acoustic in the studio by Sarah and her band, plus her cover of a Tom Waits song. BUT, the CD is the big deal here: it contains a 30-minute bonus multi-media track for MAC and WINDOWS, with interactive music samples for every track from her catalog; video clips of Sarah on tour, backstage, in the studio, and her trip to Thailand; plus audio narration and commentary by Sarah. This is a first, but no doubt a harbinger of things to come, as the music medium becomes revolutionized by computer technology. (ARI0704) CS: 8.98 CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin Live '88

For the first time on CD, this 1995 acoustic release includes the original 8 tracks from her original rare solo live "tape" that she sold at her early gigs—plus 3 more never before available. Includes Shotgun Down the Avalanche, Diamond in the Rough, and I Don't Know Why. A must for anyone wanting Shawn's complete discography! (PLU5901) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Story Plumb

This '95 release from Jonathan Brooke and The Story is about ambiguities and hard choices—plumbing the depths, re-emerging to the vertical. (BTH7003) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Story Grace in Gravity

O ya know that feeling, when you first hear a new group or artist, where the voices and music reach that perfect synergy and you just sink into a warm relaxation of wonder and pleasure? Well, help yourself to this! These two Boston area women, Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball, synthesize their voices, lyrics, acoustic and occasional electric accompaniment into a superb arrangement of contemporary folk with jazz and New Acoustic influences—lots of pristine acoustic guitar, floating acoustic bass, and crisp drum work, plus simply angelic vocals (Suzanne Vega meets Jasmine) and poetic, painterly lyrics. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! P.S.—Love the comic-strip feeling of Dog Dreams. (EL61321) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Story The Angel in the House

Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball's 1993 release, featuring more compelling, touching stories sung with haunting melodies and intense harmonies, has more layered arrangements (using more modern technology that make for a less folksy feel). The depth of their lyrics, along with their quirky outlook, is underscored by a starting yet welcome dissonance. Each song will surprise you and tug at your heart ("You might have told me that love is not enough" from The Gilded Cage) or make you smile ("The church will hold a picnic and Jesus and Elvis will get in free" from When Two and Two are Five, with its funky horns and R&B feel). Another highlight is So Much Mine, a mother's song to a daughter coming of age. Even more highly recommended than their first! (EL61471) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sue Witty
Radio Daze

Q485
We're hoping for a local-girl-makes-good story for this Raleigh, NC singer-songwriter. This 1995 release, reminiscent of early 10,000 Maniacs, is chock-full of songs about trying to follow your dreams in a world that is not making it easy whilst wondering if you will ever trip over the BIG LOVE of your life. A highlight is the tinged-with-sadness Unspoken Forever, about never saying that which is most important and subsequently losing the very people that matter most (ouch, that hits a little too close . . .). Radio is an upbeat jaunt about a musician looking for success ("So many treasures in this world are hard to see, and I keep praying for someone to discover me") that just may be the admission ticket Sue Witty is needing. Check out this bright new artist, so you can say "I knew her when . . ." — we recommend it! (BCR1026) CD: 14.98

Susan Werner
Midwestern Saturday Night

Christine Lavin has called this Philadelphia artist "the fastest rising new star in the folk world," and this 1993 studio debut backs up the claim. Highlights are the title song about an old-fashioned date, the humorous Rubber Glove Blues (sex in the 90's), and the poignant Uncle John about the "unmarried" but not unloved family member. Accompaniment includes Julia Haines' Celtic harp, plus bass, percussion, harmonica, and Susan's piano, keyboards, and guitar. (SUS001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Suzanne Vega

NEW
Thrust into the spotlight in the "Women in Rock" media trend of the early 80's, this inclusive singer-songwriter is back with a September '96 release. Includes No Cheap Thrill, Caramel, Casual Match, Birth-day (love made real) and more. (AM583) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tracy Chapman

Her 1986 album made her the young singer-songwriter everyone was talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary; her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Talkin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL60774) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman
New Beginning

Q413
As a singer and songwriter, few artists can match Tracy's gentle but passionate vibrato, her literate lyrical compassion and her uncompromising stance. This 1995 album was recorded virtually live in the studio with her own band, and contains 11 songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her melodies and the depth of her emotions. Her voice rings clear and her vision shines true on the uplifting Heaven's News, On Earth, the tender love song Smoke and Ashes, the delicate longing of The Promise, and the spiritual I'm Ready. (EL61850) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Uncle Bonsai

Boys Want Sex in the Morning

Fans of Christine Lavin should definitely check out this album. Recorded live in their hometown of Seattle in 1986, their trademark tight harmonies and skewed stage banter are shown off to their best advantage. This 2-woman 1-man ensemble of Bennett College Alumni offers up everything from Isaac's Lament (that's the bartender from the "Love Boat"), to the motherly advice in Don't Put It In Your Mouth, to the school spirited Cheerleaders on Drugs to the hilarious title track. In spite of the cover art (which repulses our catalog's editor, and will probably elicit a similar response from some of you), the album's very funny, very well sung, and very recommended. (FR1911) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Donna B (The Ebony Cowgirl)
Mo' Betta Country

Q165
If you think that country music is all white, think again! Donna B., an African American artist who calls herself "The Ebony Cowgirl", is pure country, with a voice that can melt you down or shake you up! Her 1994 debut album includes an acappella version of the Patsy Cline standard Sweet Dreams that shows off her ability to croon a slow ballad . . . the other 6 songs here are originals. Steel Magnolia (The Girl Biker Song) is based on her actual experience as a member of the Steel Magnolias, a women's motorcycle riding club, and Mine is Bigger Than Yours (The Belt Buckle Song) is great for country line dancing. My DeMent

Before country was "cool" or "hot", a twangy voice and acoustic guitar were the staples of artists sharing heartbreak and hard times with eager listeners. Iris captures that feeling with a style reminiscent of honky-tonk and slow dancing . . . her voice is the most genuine since early Loretta Lynn, and the simple acoustic arrangements are the perfect backdrop. Messages of joy and sorrow abound in her lyrics, almost all originals. This reviewer's favorites are No Time To Cry, Childhood Memories, and The Shores of Jordan. An excellent follow-up to her debut, and quite recommended. 1994. (WB45493) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ever since its heyday in the 60's, contemporary folk music has been indispensable in the weaving of music and culture . . . and this 1993 compilation is a tribute to the enduring beauty of folk music and its ability to reinvent itself in a new and different time. Both issue-oriented and poetic lyrics characterize this compilation by some of today's finest artists — both legends and current-generation icons — including Mary Black, Kristen Hall, Catie Curtis, Joan Baez, Christine Lavin, Indigo Girls, and several male singer-songwriters. A great compilation — recommended! (PUT107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Includes previously unrecorded songs by Catie Curtis (On the Phone With My Sister), Christine Lavin (The Voice on the Relaxation Tape), Carrie Newcomer (Amelia, Almost Thirteen), along with songs from Rory Block, Tom Paxton, Mary McCaslin, Kristina Olsen, the Kallet Epstein/Crone trio and others. When October Goes

Subtitled Autumn Love Songs, this lovely 1991 collection features some of today's best folk artists offering their favorite songs about that sad, quiet season. Opening with Cheryl Wheeler's sweetly gorgeous When Fall Comes to New England, and including solos by (we dare you to figure this one out!) 5 of the 4 Bachin Babes (Christine, Megan McDonough, Patty Carlin, Sally Fingert, Julie Gold), and others: 15 songs in all, over half by women. Pour yourself a cup of tea, light a few candles, and settle in for a cozy evening with this warm recording! (PH1143) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Victoria Williams
Swing the Statue!

Sleeping with the homespun charm of her native Louisiana, yet sophisticated enough to stand out on the arty L.A. acoustic scene, Victoria's music is funky and surprising and beautiful. This 1990 album is full of dissonances and minor keys as well as wild imagery. Her voice — sometimes high and thin, sometimes deeper and fuller, sometimes raggedly and energetic — is accompanied by a full range of instruments, from cowbells to marimba to pedal steel. Good price on cassettes, too. (RTA50) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Wendy Bucklew
Painting Sidewalks

We're fascinated and thrilled by the proliferation of excellent women musicians and songwriters from the Southern regions lately! Excitantly produced by Wendy and Atlanta's perennial Dede Vort (anybody remember the Scallion Sisters?), this 1994 collection of 10 originals features crystalline acoustic strings (guitar, mandolin), plus her searing electric guitars, Dede's trademark slide, and some mean dobro and sweet harmony work (Kristen Hall on one song). Wendy's got her own songwriting style, but reflects some of her contemporaries as well. Think indigos in mood, Melissa in vocal intensity, and Edie Brickell in whimsy and infection. Think about adding this to your collection of Artists, capital "A". Recommended! (IN5603) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Iris DeMent
Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelina by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Cry). . . Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Hotter Than Mojave in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing — she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. 1992. (WB45238) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lucinda Williams
Sweet Old World

Sweet new album! This 1992 collection of 12 originals is just shot through with honey and lemonade — Lucinda is a fantastic songwriter, weaving stories about people we've all known, and her voice and delivery have much of the same warmth and emotional depth as Jennifer Warnes. Includes Hot Blood, Memphis Pearl. Really, really, really recommended! (CHM61351) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.98

Lucinda Williams
Passionate Kisses — 5-Song EP

This specially-priced 1992 EP contains 4 new live performances — a new version of Side of the Road plus 3 previously unreleased songs — in addition to the title cut, which is from her self-titled album. . . now back in print. (CHM61388) CS: 6.99 CD: 11.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Come On Come On

Her spectacularly smooth voice and suggestive, often hard-hitting lyrics make a great combination once again on this 1992 release — she blends her country/folk rhythms with some feminist messages that should make many men think twice! He Thinks He'll Keep Her looks at the motivations of many housewives who choose the road instead of their husbands, while The Hard Way will remind many women to appreciate how far we've come against odds men never face. Also includes a great rendition of Lucinda Williams' Passionate Kisses; and the outstanding title cut. Some background vocals by Indigo Girls, Shawn Colvin, Rosanne Cash. (COL48881) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Stones in the Road

This artist has been quietly redefining the creative and artistic possibilities of country music, and this 1994 release, her most fully-realized and cohesive to date, continues to showcase that gift. It contains 13 original songs which address a range of emotions and viewpoints from optimism to resignation; overall, the tone is confident and hopeful as characterized by songs such as Why Walk When You Can Fly, Jubilee, This Is Love, also includes The End of My Private Days and the single Shut Up and Kiss Me. (COL84327) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Flyer

This 1994 release contains 14 original songs of love and life, written mostly during her travels over the past few years, and rendered in the honest and emotional style that has earned her international acclaim. Also features Southbound Train by Julie Gold, author of From A Distance, is songwriter whose material is obviously suited for Nanci's brilliant interpretation. Contributing artists are the Indigo Girls, the Chieftains, and many more. Song titles include Goodnight To A Mother's Dream, Going Back To Georgia, Nobody's Angel. (EL61681) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Nanci Griffith
Lone Star State of Mind

Underscoring her full-fledged move into the country arena, her first major-label release comes complete with dobro and pedal-steel backup. Includes In the Distance; Sing One for Sister; Cold Hearts; Closed Minds; Ford Econoline (for Rosanne Sorrels and Kate Wolf); Trouble in the Fields, about the difficulties of the farmers, and a re-recording of the sweet tribute to her best childhood friend, There's A Light Beyond These Woods (Mary Margaret). Highly recommended. . . a favorite in the Slipper office! (MCA5927) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Other Voices, Other Rooms (Album)

On this 1993 album, Nanci, an interpreter extraordinaire, performs 17 classic songs by her favorite writers, including Kate Wolf (Across the Great Divide), Bob Dylan (Roots of Spanish Leather), Malvina Reynolds (Turn Around), Tom Paxton, Woody Guthrie, John Prine, and others. Guest artists include Emmylou Harris, the Indigo Girls, Odetta, Arlo Guthrie and his DeMent, includes Woman of the Phoenix, Morning Song for Sally, From Clare To Here. Quite a tribute to great songwriting! (EL61464) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.98

Rosanne Cash
10 Song Demo

People were so blown away by the austere power of the demo tape for her new album, they convinced Rosanne Cash to release this 1996 recording "As-Is". Accompanying herself on acoustic guitar and piano, with a little fill-in by producer John Leventhal, Rosanne's bruised survivor stories shine in their rough-hewn glory. Not exactly country nor quite folk, just basic music that you can chew on. (CAP32390) CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Queens of Country

There is absolutely nothing like classic country music. This collection of the great women of country has some of the best big-haired music you could hope for: I love these women! Their songs have the most self-effacing, go-ahead-and-test-out-your-recipes-on-me lyrics, but you know they can kick serious butt around the sawdust bar floor. (Actually, female country musicians were in charge of their own careers decades before it was considered acceptable). These songs have twang, the pathos, the wonderfully cheesy arrangements, and the soul that's missing from the brushed tunes of modern "country". There's Patsy, Loretta, Reba, Kitty, Tanya, Dolly, Tanya, Crystal and others with whom we might not be on a first name basis. Rose Garden, Coal Miner's Daughter, Harper Valley PTA and even Stand By Your Man all in one place! Ecstasy! Check out what got a.d. all bothered in the first place! (GNP2233) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women of Country (Book/CD Set)

This deluxe set includes both an 18-track CD and a 72-page illustrated book. The book details the struggles of women country music performers to gain creative and economic control over their music in a largely male-dominated industry. Beginning with the oral traditions of the nineteenth century South, it traces the traditions and movements that influenced the development of country music and tells the stories of the women within those traditions. The accompanying CD includes songs by Kitty Wells, Patsy Cline, Loretta Lynn, Patsy Montana, Anne Murray, Emmylou Harris, Mary-Chapin Carpenter, and more. A valuable and entertaining history! (FFX24527) CD: 16.98

Billy Tipton Memorial Sax. Quartet
Box

The queens of squawk are back with their funkified Eastern European New Orleans' jazz bag for this 1995 album. The heights of fancy of the 4 women all-size-all-of-the-time lineup are solidly grounded by the now permanent addition of ex-Two Nice Gals drummer Pam Barger. The disc features a truly mix of up-tempo romps like To Morsk and Disruptured Postal Worker, the traditional Cajun tune Belle, as well as the Jimi Hendrix Miles Davis hybrid All Manic thrown in for added flavor. Their brave new frontier of jazz is where avant-garde runs into the listenably fun! (NWL80495) CD: 15.98

Cafe Noir

An amazing 1986 album of "symphonic gypsy swing," a unique repertoire which blends European and American jazz with Middle Eastern, gypsy and classical elements, by a 1-woman, 3-man ensemble. The violin, viola, and cello of Gale Hess stand at the center, and her heart-wrenching virtuosity is bound to send chills up and down your spine. She's joined by acoustic guitars and bass, and the result is hot, soulful, haunting and incredible. Includes Villa-Lobos, Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5, Aria Cantilena and Variazione on a Theme by Paganini. (COM31010) CD: 15.98

Carolyn Brandy
Skin Talk

This woman-identified percussionist and composer from the Bay Area is known to many from her years as a member of the jazz group Alive! — and in fact, a lot of this 1995 album sounds a lot like Alive! She combines jazz, Latin jazz, and a world beat style, drawing on the musical traditions of Cuba, Brazil, and West Africa, with her accomplished percussionist putting it all together. Her instruments include congas, bongos, shakers, woodblocks, gongs, and agogo bells; the contributions of dynamic vocalist Faye Carol (and Rhiannon on one track), along with the many other musicians on sax, piano, bass, mid guitar, trumpet, and trombone, result in a full sound. Carolyn definitely succeeds in her goal of producing music that is symbolic of diversity! Includes Grandma's Voice, Udda Mujer, and Mary Watkins' Step By Step. Plenty of percussive magic; highly recommended! (SKN6040) CD: 15.98

JAZZ

Alive! (with Rhiannon)
City Life

Cassettes are back in print, and on sale! "A triumph of human and musical spirit—that is City Life at its best. Their individual and collective mastery of idioms—from bebop and ballads to Afro-Cuban and pop—is abundantly evident on this album"—this quote from their jacket sums it up. The reasons Alive! gained so much recognition and respect in the greater jazz world will be no mystery to listeners. (ALV543) CS: 6.98

Alive! (with Rhiannon)
Call It Jazz

Now back in print, and at a great sale price! If you love Rhiannon as a vocalist, but weren't around when she fronted this ensemble, take our word for it, you'll love this! Recorded at the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco in May 1951, it's dynamite. . . this recording actually preserves that elusive, most magical spirit which Alive! embodied in performance. (ALV8484) CS: 6.98

Alive! (with Rhiannon)
Alive!

Cassettes back in print and on sale! With Rhiannon as lead singer, Alive! was been one of the most dynamic jazz ensembles ever to hit the Women's Music scene. . . & one of the most dynamic ensembles of any kind ever to hit the jazz scene. This 5-woman band weaves instrumental & vocal improvisation with jazz & classical sounds, with traditional African & Latin polyrhythms, with female images & feminist lyrics. Out of this blend has flowered some of the most revolutionary, untitled & beautiful sounds being created these days by anyone. Among the songs here are City Life, Somebody's Talkin', Dark Side of the Moon, and one of their greatest songs ever, Spirit Healer. 1979. (WWE84) CS: 6.98

B. Holiday, E. Fitzgerald, et al
Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!

A 1994 release of the collection which has been growing and changing since the release of Ella, Lena and Sarah! in 1955. Some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever. Includes Billie's What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's East of the Sun (And West of the Moon). (COL57638) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday
The Billie Holiday Songbook

This excellent anthology includes one of the very few in-print issues of Strange Fruit — about the lynching of African-Americans, it was one of the most haunting and significant recordings she ever made. Banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio, it is frequently omitted from anthologies even today. Also: Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song; clear sound; we recommend this collection highly. (WVH82348) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Billy Tipton Memorial Sax. Quartet
Make It Funky God

Their lively 1994 release shows an expanding range, on which they perform 3 traditional, one by mid-60's composer Sun Ra, and 2 originals. Incredible interpretive travels on the hot, melodic Mexican traditional tune El Camelo and the Klezmer Der Heyser Bulgar plus an original (Entropic Nocturne) that is structured around a conversation between two saxes are part of the festivities on this petite album (28 minutes). And the addition of drummer Pam Barger sets them apart from other sax quartets, not to mention from other bands in general, because simple, quality drumming like Pam's is hard to come by! Plug into their energy! (MHR1) CD: 9.98

Billy Tipton Memorial Sax. Quartet
Saxhouse

This women's quartet is named in honor of the late sax player and jazz band leader who lived her life passing as a man in order to be accepted as a serious musician. The "all sax, all the time" (with a little bit of drum thrown in) configuration makes for an unusual and arresting listening experience, funk, klezmer, Bulgarian folk tunes and all the many manifestations of jazz. Amy Denio's original compositions and arrangements, with their daring interweaving melodies and delightful harmonies, attest to an innovative musical talent, and at members participated in writing these selections. You'd be hard pressed to find anything like their closing piece, Bus Horn Concerto, an entertaining give and take between the quartet and their mass transit system! 1993. (KFW143) CD: 15.98

Cassandra Wilson
New Moon Daughter

With a voice as deep and as transformative as night, Cassandra Wilson sings haunting originals and covers that she has re-arranged in her own lustrous image. She is one of the most interesting of modern jazz singers, steeped in equal parts of the blues and fierce pride. This woman has presence. On this 1996 release, the sound of a match being lit flawlessly begins her haunting cover of Strange Fruit (an unforgettable song about lynching made famous by Billie Holiday). In addition to her fine original compositions, she also metamorphoses songs by U2, Hank Williams, The Monkees and Neil Young into high art. Do not miss this artist! (BLN32661) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Diva: No Man's Band
Something's Coming

Following the proud tradition of International Sweethearts of Rhythm, this 15-woman ensemble plays, and plays very well, "progressive, mainstream big band jazz." Led by drummer Sherrie Maricle, Diva is based in NYC, where they have sold out Carnegie Hall. Consummate professionals, their sound is tight but it swings! Their "set list" on this 1995 recording has wonderful and original arrangements (including sweet, jamming solos) of such standards as Sardust and My Favorite Things, a sizzling Ding Dong, The Witch Is Dead along with a sophisticated original by Sherrie, 80 Chestnut Street. They can be heard regularly in the Chestnut Room at Tavern on the Green so if anyone is going there, would you consider taking along this enthralled reviewer? (PER1216) CD: 16.98

Ella Fitzgerald

The Essential Ella: The Great Songs 0365
The First Lady of Jazz has been swinging the band for nearly 60 years, and here's a great hour-long anthology with some of her best tunes. Included are Lady Be Good in both scat and slow versions, A-Tisket A-Tasket, Summertime, Ding! Dong! The Witch Is Dead, Drop Me Off in Harlem, Mack the Knife, Little Jazz, and 8 more. And unlike many reissues, this one has good sound and liner notes! Love that great bouncy big band sound; put this on at your next party for an enjoyable romp. (VRV517176) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hot Lavender Swing

A Lesbian and Gay Swing Band??? Well, it is about time! Hailing from NYC, musical director and saxophonist Susan G. Winthrop runs a tight jazz ship. Heavy on saxes, trumpets, and trombones (and with a female tuba player) as any good band should be, these cats jump! Their 1994 album features such standards as Sweet Georgia Brown, Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, Two O'Clock Jump, It Don't Mean a Thing If It Ain't Got That Swing, and a sizzling version of Saint Louis Blues (blow those horns!). Shine up those wing tips and let's cut the rug! (HOT1) CS: 9.98

BLUES

Bessie Smith
The Collection

Released in 1989, this 16-song collection is a great introduction to this early blues Queen's hits! Her voluptuous, rich voice is incomparable on songs like Young Woman's Blues, Taint Nobody's Business If I Do, Gimme A Pigfoot, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, You've Been A Good Ole Wagon, Alberta Hunter and Love Austin's Downhearted Blues, and many others. Includes ample liner notes, which many reissues don't, and sound's not bad, considering this is some of the earliest recorded music. (COL44441) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton
Ball N' Chain

This 60-minute album is an excellent Big Mama anthology. Includes Hound Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it, even though over 2 million copies were sold). The title song, which Big Mama wrote, was recorded also by Janis Joplin — but Big Mama never received any royalties, because she had to sign over the copyright in order to record it herself! (And please note that this artist died at age 57, in virtual financial destitution... how different it would have been had she been compensated for her tremendous contributions!) Other hits here are Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Linkin' Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARR305) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Katie Webster
Swamp Boogie Queen

Bonnie Raitt considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion... which we'd agree with! And, she's already released over 500 recordings; it's about time for her to gain some notoriety. This 1988 album, her first in several years, is a musical gumbo of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, r&b and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie piano. Includes: Who's Making Love?, Black Satin. (ALL4766) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maria Muldaur
Louisiana Love Call

Forget the oasis, let's head down south and get some real comfort, the "Bluesiana" type, that is. She's older, she's wiser, and she's found a new home! Every song on this 1992 release evokes that steamy, sexy nighttime heat. Joined by a plethora of local talent (Dr. John, some Neville Brothers, Lucy Burnett on vocals, others), Maria sings in that primal way of hers, combining hormones and heart for a potent combination — her voice is perfectly suited to the music of the region, passionate and strong and sometimes wavery with emotion. The title waltz is a knock-out, with Aaron Neville on background vocals, while Cajun Moon is more contemporary sounding (and just as hot); also includes her bad girl hit, Don't You Feel My Leg. (BLT1081) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nina Simone
The Best of Nina Simone

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes black-listed and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Pirate Jenny, plus Four Women, See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You... which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHP822646) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tuck & Patti
Learning How To Fly

The 1995 release by this exceptional duo continues to amaze and delight connoisseurs of acoustic music: jazz and the human voice. Includes the consummate rendition of Joni Mitchell's Woodstock (Joni probably wrote it for this performance, though she may not have known it at the time). Other highlights are several originals written plus sung and/or styled by Patti, which demonstrate her immense song-writing talent. Strength, at the core of a woman's spirit, counterpointing extreme despair; Drum, an as-scaled vocal instrumental; Live In The Light, Wide Awake; and the beautiful title track, which aptly describes the duo's musical stave! (EPC64439) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tuck & Patti
The Best of Tuck & Patti

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart — this woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk — and her vocal relationship to husband Tuck Andress: incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slip and slide around the corners of jazz ballads, contemporary songs and originals. This 1994 retrospective includes the best tracks from their previous Windham Hill releases: Takes My Breath Away, Tears of Joy, Dream, Love Warriors, As Time Goes By, and Cindy Lauper's Time After Time. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in their collaboration is impressive and engaging — recommended! (WH1152) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

This 1994 set includes both a digitally remastered CD and 72-page illustrated book which provides a comprehensive look at the emergence of female jazz vocalists from Bessie Smith to Betty Carter. As you learn about the struggle for recognition that women singers faced as they contributed to a vocal jazz tradition, you can listen to their outstanding recordings. The 20-track CD includes songs by Billie Holiday, Sarah Vaughan, Doris Day, Carmen McRae, and more. This set is a remarkable tribute to the women of jazz and a valuable preservation of their music, as well as an educational tool. (FFX24476) CD: 16.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women
Cleaning House

Their previous release, Old, New, Borrowed and Blue, paid tribute to the classic blues performers who inspired them; but this 1996 album contains mostly original songs featuring their unique interpretation of the blues. The most popular blues act in the world, these 3 women mix downhome musical settings (acoustic guitar, upright bass, acoustic piano, plus harmonica and mandolin) with their contemporary, earthy (and sometimes bawdy) lyrics: observations. Join their diverse following that includes devotees of classic blues, folk and women's music! (ALL4846) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women
Old, New, Borrowed & Blue

After pairing down to a duo for 1992's BroadCasting, the band is now a trio again with the addition of vocalist Andra Faye McIntosh to founding members Gaye Adegbalola and Ann Robinson. This 1994 release is the band's musical tribute to the blues legends who inspired them, like Bessie Smith, Ma Rainey, Big Mama Thornton and Pinetop Smith, in addition to cover versions of some of their favorites by these and other artists. It also features band originals, including some of their most popular live material such as Do Your Duty, You Got To Know Her, and Fools' Night Out. Essential for fans of classic blues. (ALL4826) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women
Hot Flash

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy bluewomen live, by all means go! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica, and kazoo accompaniment. Titles on their 1991 release include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1 & 2, No Need Pleas, On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4796) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Saffire
The Uppity Blues Women

The Washington Post describes this 1990 album as: "Sassy, brassy, raunchy... racy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jellolite harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their second release includes Even Yuppies Get the Blues, Anna's Blues, Kiss Up When You Kiss Up Your! (ALL4780) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Saffire
The Middle Aged Blues

Natural acoustic down-home blues on this debut tape by a culturally and geographically diverse trio: Gaye, a black Virginia Baptist; Earlene, part Cherokee and all Okie; and Ann, a Jewish Chican. They rotate vocals on this collection of blues songs—some original, and all play a variety of the following instruments: guitar, bass, piano, harmonica. Includes Middle Aged Boogie Blues, Your Husband's Cheating On Us, Fun! (SAF1) CS: 9.98

Sippie Wallace
Women Be Wise

Along with Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey, Sippie was one of the greatest classic blues singers of all time. Her trademark singing style was the precursor to the styles of artists like Billie Holiday. The Uppity Blues Women and Bonnie Raitt (who has performed with Sippie) recorded several of Sippie's songs, and always cited Sippie as her main inspiration. This re-release of 1966 recordings, originally released on the Storyville label, includes 11 duet performances featuring Sippie alternately backed by blues piano giants Roosevelt Sykes and Little Brother Montgomery, plus one track with Sippie accompanying herself on piano. (ALL4810) CD: 15.98

Swamp Mama Johnson
Wetlands

Awwwwwwright! Sweaty, classic rhythm and blues (as in that 60's Muscle Shoals "Soul Music" sound) from a smoking 5-woman band with a "taking not one drop of gulf" attitude! Hailing from the decidedly non-swampy environs of Bellingham WA, the band lays it down with wailing harmonics, honking tenor sax, burning fat guitar, and heavy drums and bass. Vocalist Lisa Miller proudly carries the whiskey-soaked 70's Bonnie Raitt tradition on their mostly original songs. My big of favorite is Gasoline ("You're playin' with matches in a pool of gasoline... if you're playing with me boy, you're gonna get burned"). Oooh, I can feel the humidity rising! Love it! (BM5995) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Tracy Nelson
In the Here and Now

The blues roots of this remarkable contralto run deep on this 1993 release. Both before and since her late 60's days with Mother Earth, she has demonstrated that she can sing the blues with a power and emotion that is rarely matched. Here she pays tribute to the music that inspired her, more in the urban R&B vein than the acoustic country blues many of us recall from her 1985 debut Deep Are the Roots. Although this album does include Motherless Child Blues, which also appeared on that out-of-print classic, we'd give anything to have that early album back in our catalog, but in its absence, here's the next best thing. The closing track, Please Send Me Someone To Love, features a duet vocal with Irma Thomas, soul queen of New Orleans. (ROU1123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Blues Women Today

Catch up with 10 of America's best blues and soul singers on this 1995 sampler! Includes selections by great women from East, West, and Gulf coasts: Rory Block, Marcia Ball, Irma Thomas, Ann Peebles, Angela Strehli, and more. Sassy, soulful and seductive. (ESD7010) CS: 6.98 CD: 8.98

Various Artists
Sissy Man Blues: Str't & Gay Blues

Blues vocals with a sexual theme from the 20s, 30s and 40s, pertaining to women and men—lesbian, gay and straight—demonstrating how gay elements have always been a part of the American musical counter-culture. Contains selections from 2 LPs on the Stash label. AC-DC Blues: Gay Jazz Reissues and Straight And Gay. Includes Faerie Blues and Bessie Jackson's B D Woman's Blues (B.D. for Bull Dagger or Bull Dye, the story goes). (JAS13) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

GOSPEL

Aretha Franklin
Aretha Gospel

This 1991 release shows us Aretha's musical beginnings as a gospel singer; this was recorded when she was 14, singing in her father's church, and includes This Little Light of Mine, Yield Not to Temptation, Power, and more. (CHS9105-521) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Lavender Light-Les/Gay Gospel Choir
Lavender Light

And their 1994 release guarantees the rest of the world the opportunity to savor the rich musical terrain of gospel music, with selections ranging from rocking, hand-clapping numbers to anthems to spirituals, including stunning arrangements of Over My Head, Oh Glory, and I've Been Blessed. Founded to preserve the Black Gospel tradition in an environment supportive of lesbian and gay people, the choir brings a message of hope and inspiration that will make you shout for joy. (LVL1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Mahalia Jackson
Greatest Hits

Probably the greatest gospel singer ever recorded, every rich nuance of this woman's voice embodies devotion; you don't have to subscribe to Christianity to appreciate her lovely countenance! Includes her greatest Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Walk in Jerusalem, The Upper Room and more, all with her vocal magnificence. (COL37710) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Sisters of Glory
Good News in Hard Times

"The universal and elemental force of gospel music, its message of good news and hope in hard times borne of a celebration of faith in a higher power, reaches beyond commercial considerations, religious affiliations, racial separations and age differences." This gospel super-group, which includes Alberta Walker, Phoebe Snow, Thelma Houston, CeCe Peniston, and Lois Walden, releases their debut title in '95, following a classic performance at Woodstock '94. Includes Will the Circle Be Unbroken, Precious Lord, and an unusual rendition of Oh Happy Day. Notes include an excellent historical overview of the genre and its pioneers. Recommended! (SHN0004) CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Includes Something Inside So Strong, which many of you know from the Parlatone. (VER43013) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sisters

Subtitled Songs of Friendship, Joy and Encouragement For Women, this album features many top female artists in contemporary Christian, gospel, and traditional music—including Deniece Williams, Sandi Patti, and many others—performing a musical tribute to the spiritual bonds that all women share. Using 10 diverse songs penned especially for this 1994 album, producer Cheryl Rogers has interwoven passionate performances from more than 40 artists into a tapestry of friendship, joy and encouragement that celebrates the beauty and complexity of being a woman. Includes title track, These Are the Women We Come From, The Strongest Hearts, and the affirming Just the Way You Are. (WRA45613) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists

R&B * RAP

Aretha Franklin
The Very Best of Aretha Franklin

Includes Respect, (You Make Me Feel Like A) Natural Woman, Do Right Woman—Do Right Man, Chain of Fools... in other words, just what the title says. (RH71596) CS: 8.98 CD: 13.98

Maria Glen
Love & Respect

Her story is an amazing one. Born in Chicago to a family of musicians who were close friends with B.B. King and Muddy Waters, Maria ran away as a teenager and worked at a series of odd jobs. While she was working as a night security guard, she met Nina Simone and went to work as her bodyguard, cleaning women, cook and companion! She moved to France and won acclaim in Europe with her deep raspy voice (eerily like Nina Simone's) and her transgender style (she looks great with her pompadour and suits and ties—yes, she is out). The sound on this 1995 release is a mixture of upbeat Euro-dance tunes and heavy laden blues. The spotlight shines on the sizzling superlative Ministry of Art! That A Shame: my, that hurts so good. (ZOO11120) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Me'Shell NdegeOcello
Peace Beyond Passion

This 1996 release reaches beyond soul, funk, jazz and hip hop into a brand new groove. Her heavy bass lines and deep funk vocals shimmer, and the incisive lyrics cut deep and true. She squarely tackles religion, and a whole bunch of "isms" with Leviticus, Faggot, Deuteronomy, Niggerman, a seducing of Mary Magdalene and a spiritual God Shiva, amongst other cuts, and comes through shining. Meshell gets a little help from Billy Preston on organ and Joshua Redman on sax on this stupendous, so-good-it-almost-hurts album. (MAV46033) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Queen Latifah
Nature of a Sista

Afrocentric, woman-identified, artistic, and gracefully no-nonsense, Queen Latifah reigns proud here, on her second recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Fancy and Bad As A Mutha, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to: Give Me Your Love and the incandescent How Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism and sexism on the part of male R&B radio programmers, she would have the same (or more!) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. Highly recommended! 1991 (TB1035) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

DANCE

ABBA Gold - Greatest Hits

This Swedish 2-woman 2-man supergroup's bright pop nuggets achieved world domination in their time. The irresistible strains of Queen of Hearts, Knowing Me, Knowing You, Waterloo, Take a Chance on Me, Voulez-Vous, Fenando... they're all here. You know your life will be better, happier, more hopeful, with this album by your side. ABBA-licious! (PLD517007) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

The Donna Summer Anthology (2-Set) Assuming that the boycott against the only true disco superstar is over (like grapes, I'm never sure...), this double album, the first ever complete career collection (34 tracks, including her digitally remastered 14 top ten hits and with a glossy 24-page booklet) is enough to give one a nosebleed of ecstasy. From Love to Love You Baby to She Works Hard for the Money and Don't Cry for Me Argentina (?!?) it's all here, kids! Just roll around and cover yourself in it! (CHC518144) CS: 19.98 CD: 29.98

Lippy Lou Liberation

We love this! A Jamaican-American expatriate who is thriving in the London "multicultural" club scene, Lippy Lou espied Boy George at a gay club and convinced him then and there to sign her to his record label. She "chats", a reggae-ish sing-song rapping, to a killer groove about lesbian and gay liberation, coming out and comingling, to create one of the best rug-cutting jams this reviewer has heard in a loopy time. This EP consists of mixes of the lip-smacking title song (such as: Come Out on the Radio Mix, Shut Up & Suck Mix, Pussy Dread Mix) and the as-yet-unheard Freddie. Come out and get down! Ignore this summer '96 release at your own peril. (MRP7129) CD: 9.98

Various Artists The Project

Includes tracks by "Little" Louie Vega, Armand Van Helden, Erick "More" Morillo, DJ Pierre, Johnny Visconti and others. Other artists include Martha Reeves and the Vandellas, High Energy, and Syreeta. (PLG539608) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Dance Floor Divas: The 70's

On the dance floors of the '70's and '80's, disco music thrived on the flamboyant emotionalism of its divas, creating an energy shared between dancer and performer. Yet the albums they made have a life beyond the confines of the club: disco's greatest singers grounded their vocal flights in R&B's gospel and blues roots, giving them an amazing power. This 1996 compilation contains some of the most classic of classics: Sister Sledge's We Are Family, A Taste of Honey's Boogie Oogie Oogie, LaBelle's Lady Marmalade, and more from Chic, Chaka Khan and others, 16 in all — almost all Top 10 hits and the biggest records of each artist's career. # CABARET

Ann Hampton Callaway

NEW

This 1992 album from the wondrous cabaret singer includes originals and standards like Lush Life, Here's That Rainy Day, a samba treatment of Our Love is Here to Stay and a sassy I've Got the World On a String, in which she sings the tenor sax, trumpet, clarinet and bass parts! (DRG1411) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Hampton Callaway

Bring Back Romance

NEW

An excellent cabaret-style singer with a 3-octave range, she is much beloved by the Midwest gay men's community and has recorded with gay men's choruses. Her vocal style and arrangements are reminiscent of Barbra (all right, all right, I know that no one else is Barbra, but she does kind of sound like her). This 1994 album mixes both originals (like Besidey samba Music and the peppy A Little Track) that blend in seamlessly with sophisticated treatments (spiced with some mellifluous scatting) of Garshwin, Arlen, Mercer, Van Heusen and Burke standards. (DRG1417) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Hampton Callaway/Liz Callaway

Sibling Revelry

NEW

Oooh, this is nice! Recorded live at Rainbow & Stars in NYC in 1995, sisters jazz chanteuse Ann and Broadway (Miss Saigon and Cats) star Liz charmingly work the room. Their voices blend in exquisitely sweet harmony as they sing duets (and shine on their solos) with a swinging piano/bass/drums accompaniment. Prepare to be thoroughly entertained by Ann's scat in Rhythm in My Nursery Rhymes, Liz's tenderness in My Heart Is So Full of You, and their big 10-minute blowout in their 15-song The Hugs Medley. It's the cabaret life for me! (DRG1443) CD: 15.98

Bette Midler

Bette of Roses

0391

This 1995 album is Bette's first non-soundtrack effort in 5 years, and she returns with a collection of heart-felt, organic songs that effectively showcase the full emotional range of her much-heralded voice. For even longtime fans, this album reveals a side of the artist yet unheard in quite this way. Includes To Deserve You, In This Life, and As Dreams Go By. (ATL82623) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Judy Garland

America's Treasure

NEW

This is your one-stop shopping for all of your "smiling through the tears" diva needs. This compilation of live recordings (we're not sure where or when the performances were... but, hey, it's Judy — these petty details don't matter) includes Rainbow, Swaine, San Francisco, The Man That Got Away, Chicago, Trolley Song plus dialogue snippets filled with wit and pathos. (GRD13) CD: 12.98

Liza Minnelli
Results

Produced by The Pet Shop Boys, this 1989 album sounds like Liza meets... well, The Pet Shop Boys. Includes quite tasty versions of Stephen Sondheim's Losing My Mind, Tania Tikanam's Twist in My Sobriety (avec the "Liza with a Z" rap), and the Boys' own Real Lip-smacking! (EPC45098) CD: 14.98

Liza Minnelli
Maybe This Time

Annihhh... Liza, an orchestra, show tunes, who could ask for more? The liner notes assert that this is from 1988, but I don't believe them. Contains Try to Remember, Together Wherever We Go, It's Just a Matter of Time, I Knew Him When and a relatively subtle version of the title track, her Cabaret showstopper. (CAP48443) CD: 13.98

Liza Minnelli
Gently

Liza has a lot of friends, and many of them appear on this 1998 release, her self-dubbed "make out" album. A collection of understated (for Liza, this can't have come easy) standards (and standard-esque), arranged by the likes of Billy Strich and Marvin Hamlisch, in a sweltering small-jazz-combo style. Johnny Mathis duets on his Chances Are. Melissa Manchester does back up harmonies on the samba-y You Stepped Out of a Dream. Donna Summer shares airspace on Does He Love You, and Herbie Hancock tickles the ivories on In the Wee Small Hours of the Morning. (ANG35470) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Liza Minnelli
Live From Radio City Music Hall

There's no business like... Liza. Recorded live in 1992, this 17-song album includes Stepping Out, Some People, Old Friends, Men's Medley, and, of course, Theme From New York, New York. (COL53169) CS: 7.98... CD: 15.98

Cabaret

The original cast recording from Harold Prince and Ruth Mitchell's musical, starring Jill Haworth and Lotte Lenya. Based on the play by John van Druten and stories by Christopher Isherwood, Cabaret is both an engaging plot musical and a spectacular cabaret entertainment of a kind you might have seen in Berlin just before Germany turned to Nazism. Walter Kerr of the New York Times called this show "a stunning musical, brilliantly conceived." (COL3040) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Cirque du Soleil
Saltimbanco

We don't know a lot about this ensemble Quebecois, but many of us were enchanted when a track from this 1992 album was played during an intermission at a National Women's Music Festival stage, and we had to find out who it was! Their albums are essentially soundtracks to their performances, which are derived from small, sophisticated European circuses and feature dazzling costumes and breathtaking acrobatics. Anyway, the lovely, haunting voice of Francine Potrait prevails on most selections here, with names like Kumbalaine, Kaze, Azazoria, Pokoro, a mixed choir accompanies; compositions are by their male director, Rene Dupere. (RCA61488) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Incredibly True Ad./2 Girls in Love

This 1995 incredibly true soundtrack to the original motion picture by Maria Maggenti includes music by BETTY (A Typical Love), Lois (Page Two), Scrawl (The Clock Song), and Mozart. Most of the instrumental music, however, was written by composer and multi-instrumentalist Terry Dame, founding member of the Celtic instrumental group "Jane's Arre", which performed at such venues as the Michigan and East Coast Lesbian festivals; here these instrumental selections are performed by a quartet (3-woman, 1-man) in which Terry plays soprano saxophone. ### Rent (2-Set)

NEW

This 1996 soundtrack from the excellent hit production was written by 35-year-old visionary lyricist/composer Jonathan Larson, who ironically died of an aortic aneurysm the night before it opened on Broadway. Hailed as the rock opera of the 90's, it quickly outgrew its underground theater beginnings to become a cultural landmark on the level of Hair, with over 6 million in pre-ticket sales. Inspired by Puccini's La Bohème, Larson created a deeply moving and tragically funny work celebrating a modern day community of young NY East Villagers as they struggle with soaring hopes amid the tough realities of poverty, AIDS, drugs and sexual definition. The powerful score incorporates rock, pop, r&b, rap, reggae and tango; includes the entire musical set and score plus a performance of Seasons of Love by Stevie Wonder and the cast. (DRM50003) CS: 19.98 CD: 29.98

RuPaul is Star Booty

0194

"She's big, she's beautiful, she's bad!" Badder than Bond, more bullets than Rambo, sexier than Bo... 017" of Raw Power. She pulled herself up from the depths of ghetto life to become one of America's top black models. Now she's an agent for the United States government. Yeah! This soundtrack to the 1986 "action-flick" was produced by The Fabulous Pop Tarts with less glossy overcoat than Supermodel. Very 1980's synth-pop sound (don't you just miss that?). The songs range from the wistful strains of Ghetto Love to the intense camp drama of the title track to the free form stylings of Ernestine's Rap. The closing sentiments foretell the shape of things to come as well as serve as a nice little affirmation: "Believe in yourself, then you're gonna be a star." (EVE23) CD: 12.98

The Secret of Roan Inish

On this 1995 soundtrack from the film by John Sayles, starring Jeni Courtney, Mason Daring's compositions set the mood for the plot turns of Rosalie K. Fry's novel. The Roan Inish Theme is graceful and enigmatic; Fiona is perky; Fiona's Walk tells a story of melancholy; Scampering Away establishes a festive mood only to shift into quiet reflection. The sounds of fiddles, flutes, whistles, pipes, harp, bouzouki, bodhran, and mandocello combine in Daring's traditional Irish music. All of the vocalists on this album are women; Eileen Loughan sings Selkie Song in Gaelic, and the female vocals in Return to Roan Inish are no less than sublime. (DRM3015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stonewall

NEW

This soundtrack to 1995 film release about this pivotal moment in the history of the Lesbian and Gay Rights Movement consists primarily of "Girl Group" music that was popular in the late 1960's - music that was an integral part of the gay and drag communities of the times. These songs are not just remembrances of yesteryear, but anthems that are still heard, and to some extent, still performed in the drag community today. Includes the Shangri-Las' Give Him A Great Big Kiss, the Ad Libs' Boy From New York City, Judy Garland's Somewhere Over the Rainbow, and more "music from a revolution." (COL67555) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything!

0394

A lot like the Priscilla soundtrack except without the ABBA! This 1995 release features music by Salt-N-Pepa, the High Holy Divas reunion of LaBelle (that's Patti LaBelle, Nona Hendryx, and Sarah Dash, if you have to ask), Chaka Kahn, Crystal Waters, and a re-mix of Cindy Lauper's Hey Now (Girls Just Want to Have Fun) (MCA11231) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Vampires Sound Incorporation

NEW

Vampires Lesbos

Subtitled Saxadelic Dance Party, this unique 1995 re-release is very groovy, in a reclaiming-the-explosive-with-irony sort of a way. Original soundtracks to three 1960's B-movie films which starred the Spanish Soledad Miranda and were made by the Italian horror-porn director Jess Franco, this is the kind of music meant to be heard low-fi. Fuzzy guitars, rubbery bass, "exotic sitars", sizzingly cool organs, hallucinatory horns (think Herb Alpert on peyote) and bizarre non-verbal vocals all gel into the way a drug trip is "supposed" to sound. Enjoyment of this album is enhanced by wearing white vinyl clothing and a lovely wrap-around of camp sensibility. (MTL1) CD: 15.98

Victor/Victoria

0196

Twelve years after the fabulous film's release, the soundtrack shows up, and we're getting requests for it, so here it is! Who wouldn't think back nostalgically on songs like The Shady Dame From Seville and Gay Paree? Vocals by Julie Andrews, Robert Preston, and Lesley Ann Warren; music by Henry Mancini, lyrics by Leslie Bricusse (GNP8038) CD: 15.98

Waiting To Exhale

Some of the biggest names in modern R&B appear on this 1995 smooth- and-sweet-as-a-chocolate-milkshake collection. Whitney Houston, Toni Braxton, SWV, Brandy, Mary J. Blige, TLC are mixed in with foremothers of the Old School: Aretha Franklin, and Chaka Khan and Patti LaBelle. Features the Babyface-penned Whitney Houston hit Exhale (Shoop Shoop) (ARIS796) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Wigstock: The Movie

This film documents Wigstock, the annual drag queen festival which, since 1985, has been celebrating life, love, liberty, lipstick and big hair! Features music from many of today's hottest dance and pop artists, including RuPaul, Erasure, Dee-Lite, Marc Almond, Jon Of The Pleasured Womman, Crystal Waters, and more, plus some sound-bites from the festival itself. Tracks include Mother Nature Must Be a Drag Queen, RuPaul's Free To Be, Mistress FortMika's Fight For Your Right To Be Queer. (SIR51819) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

CHORAL

Anna Crusis Women's Choir Fresh Cut

This 1993 release by the country's oldest feminist choir boasts a multicultural repertoire that reflects the rich diversity of women's lives and struggles, sung in English, Spanish, Bulgarian, Yoruba and Latin. The liner notes offer insights about what the songs mean to the choir members, and what it was like to learn and perform them. Representing two years of work, this album includes compositions by two Philadelphia women, the playing of several fine Philadelphia instrumentalists, and is dressed in the beautiful art of Sara Steele. Selections include Daughter, Awake with the Moon; Quitting Time by Margaret Roche; Fred Small's Annie; and a medieval church psalm to Mary with refreshingly feminist notes. (ANN2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Boston Gay Men's Chorus Visions: Words For the Future

Under the musical direction of Robert Barney, this 90-voice, community-based chorus presents 9 world premiere recordings of works commissioned by gay choruses, 6 commissioned by the BGMC itself, on their 1994 debut release. The compositions demonstrate the diversity, power and talent that the gay choral movement has inspired during the last decade: includes David Conte's Invocation and Dance, Conrad Susa's A Winter Serenade, and, most delightfully, Bobby McFerrin's version of Psalm 23, alone worth the price of the album: "The Lord is my shepherd; I have all I need; She makes me lie down in green meadows; Beside the still water She leads me; She restores my soul; She rights my wrongs; She leads me in the path of good things; And fills my heart with song." (AFK426) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Denver Women's Chorus First Ten Years: A Decade of Daring

A wonderful and varied repertoire from the 80 voices of one of the oldest women's choruses around. Lovely four-part harmonies on Ancient Mother... one of the finest songs ever penned by Holly Near; Simply Love... Fred Small's Everything Possible (nice to hear it performed by multiple women's voices); Fair Warning ("When I am an old woman, I shall wear purple"); Pat Humphries' Never Turning Back with joyful percussion and syncopation... an African Medley... and many more to keep your spirits lifted. (DWC1) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles Hidden Legacies

Jon Bailey, artistic director of the Chorus, commissioned Roger Bourland and John Hall to compose a major choral work dealing with the AIDS crisis in "clear unequivocal terms". The result is this cantata in 7 movements scored for synthesizers, bass guitar, drums and the men's chorus, whose "very existence is a response to the crisis". This 1993 album is, in the words of the composer, "a tribute to those living with HIV, to those left behind, and to those who have offered selfless help in times of pain and intense sorrow." (GMC2) CS: 12.98 CD: 16.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles

Songs of Love

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles Songs of Love

NEW

For this 1996 recording, the chorus recorded a newly-commissioned song cycle by Hollywood composer Thomas Pasatieri. Entitled Mornings InnoCent, it consists of six songs based on poems by May Swenson, Adrienne Rich and Bill Wright, which chronicle the stages of romantic lesbian and gay love relationships. Also contains songs expressing "love of nature" (The Pasture, based on a Robert Frost poem and Shearwater), "love in the face of AIDS" (All There is in Love, with text by Paul Monette) and "love as a blessing and a gift" (Gaelic Blessing and Love's Gift). (GMC3) CD: 16.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles Diversity

The repertoire of this recording is taken from the 109-member GMCLA's 1991 European tour, and reflects the diversity of American music and of gay life in America. Contains both popular and concert music, traditional men's choral pieces and recently composed works, with an emphasis on works by gay composers... Cuts include Somewhere Medley; Connie Kaldor's There Comes A Time; Ned Rorem's stunning Love Alone, a poem cycle by Paul Monette elegizing the death of his lover, Roger Horowitz; plus Canto de Esperanza, Family, and a gorgeous rendition of Ave Maria, in Latin, of course! If you enjoy men's voices, you're sure to appreciate this recording! (GMC1) CD: 16.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Washington DC Singing Free

A very eclectic mix of material, similar to their live performances, appears on this 1994 release: opera to gospel, Broadway to comedy, ballads, even 2 originals. Founded in 1981, the 140-member chorus has appeared in the Kennedy Center, the Cherry Blossom Parade, and inaugural celebrations for a Mayor and a President. Favorites include a great rendition of Christine Lavin's Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind; Love Don't Need a Reason, co-written by Michael Callen; and Leonard Bernstein's My House, for a now-forgotten version of Peter Pan. ### Gori Women's Choir/ Shalva Mosidze Archaica

The Gori Women's Choir was founded in 1970 in the country of Georgia (formerly part of the Soviet Union) and has since won numerous awards at international competitions and festivals across Europe. The 30-woman ensemble performs a spiritually-oriented repertoire ranging from the Renaissance to the present day, with particular emphasis on music by contemporary Georgian composers who have written pieces specifically for the choir. They meld modern approaches with the fascinating polyphonic traditions unique to this part of the world. Pushing vocal music into exhilarating, weird and wonderful directions, the album will enthrall and enchant fans of choral and Eastern European Music, and surprise those who think this kind of music is "boring." Who needs rock 'n' roll, really? (SON66924) CD: 16.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus

How Fair This Place

Born in 1976 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to tour nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity, inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing and love—a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular (Love Medley, including Unchained Melody), theatrical (selections from Miss Saigon, Chess and Jekyll & Hyde), and sacred pieces (Irish Blessing, Gabriel's Oboe; On Earth As It Is in Heaven... English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SFG10-91) CS: 11.98... CD: 15.98

Naked Man

Commissioned by the chorus for their performance at the 1996 GALA (Gay and Lesbian Association of Chorus) conference, this album is a song cycle composed by Robert Seeley (their composer-in-residence) with libretto by Philip Littell. Philip interviewed and spent time with the chorus, gathering their perceptions and feelings on "gay life in the 90's." The result captures the hopes, disappointments, joy and rage of gay male sexuality, pride, death, identity and many other specific and universal themes. (SFG96) CS: 11.98... CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek, Women's Chorus/Dallas

Requiem/5 Anthems (by John Rutter)

This 1994 album is a stunning combined performance by the 100-voice Women's Chorus of Dallas and the 200-voice Turtle Creek Chorale, with Timothy Seelig conducting. They perform a rich and emotionally moving program by John Rutter, one of today's most-performed composers of choral music. His Requiem was influenced by the intimate, contemplative style of Fauré, and his shorter pieces — A Gaelic Blessing, All Things Bright and Beautiful, and more — share this lyrical quality. The 300 voices of the combined choruses have performed in Carnegie Hall, at Texas Governor Ann Richards' Inauguration, and in a command performance for Queen Elizabeth II. With accompaniment on harp, cello, pipe organ, several winds and tympani, this is one of the best choral albums we've heard... Highly recommended! (REF57) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

The Gershwin Scrapbook

Their first album that contains all popular repertoire by one composer, this 1996 release is a collection of classic and not-so-well-known George and Ira Gershwin tunes from the 1930's and 40's. Features the 200-voice choir, 10 TCC soloists, a guest solo by Gershwinist Michael Feinstein (who inspired and selected songs for this project), and a solo by Tim Seelig, the artistic director. The Chorus sings with its characteristic lush sound, while capturing the buoyancy inherent in these delightful pieces. (TCC1090) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

When We No Longer Touch

Subtitled A Cycle of Songs for Survival, this album is a benefit for the American Foundation for AIDS Research, created by Kristopher John Anthony. The first half features the chorale, and deals with the stages of grief: denial, isolation, anger, bargaining, depression, and finally acceptance and then hope. ("And through all the sadness and the pain comes the one thought that can make me smile again: I have loved.") The second part, Traces of Myself, is a piece inspired by poet Peter McWilliams from his work How To Survive the Loss of Love, and is performed by the Tereso String Quartet. Solemn yet redemptive. (TCC3) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

The gay and lesbian community has found its voice and is ready to sing out! Turtle Creek performs powerful numbers like Love Don't Need a Reason, and the Women's Chorus performs a medley of 2 women's music classics by Celine Williamson and Ferron, Sister's Testimony. Songs performed by the two groups together include Family and We Shall Overcome. The cover art by Siroc complements the album perfectly with a joyous representation of unity. Included are Bobby McFerrin's Psalm 23; The Lord Is My Shepherd, Gyorgy Orbán's Missa II and the glorious The Awakening by Joseph M. Martin, which includes the line: "Wherever emptiness is found, let there be joy and glorious sound. Awake! Awake! Let music live!" lending the album its title and perhaps its purpose. ## Vancouver Men's Chorus

Signature

Founded in 1981, this gay men's chorus, conducted by Will Zwodessky, has created a well-produced and interesting trip around the musical map. They perform their "signature songs" on this 1992 recording: a mixture of Women's Music compositions by Connie Kalar and Ronnie Gilbert (who guest solos on her own Music In My Mother's House), the Violeta Parra's anthem Gracias A La Vida, Stephen Foster's Hard Times, and an assortment of pieces from Van Morrison to Noel Coward to other Canadian songwriters like Ian Tyson and Gordon Lightfoot. ## The Women's Chorus of Dallas Our Turn

This glorious 90-voice women's chorus, under the able direction of Dr. Timothy Seelig (who also directs the Turtle Creek Chorale), releases its first album in 1994 to celebrate its fifth season. Selections range in style from Mozart's Alleluia, to a haunting composition by Pablo Casals, to a medley from Les Misérables, to a Women's Medley, with accompaniment on piano, voice, English horn, flute and harp. Some proceeds benefit the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, so it's a great cause too. One of the best women's chorus recordings we've heard, especially for the more classically-leaning pieces; very tight and professional, great arrangements by their principal accompanist Anne Albritton. Highly recommended! (WCD1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women's Chorus of Dallas Music in Our House

On this 1995 recording, over 100 women under the musical direction of Dr. Timothy Seelig sing compositions ranging from the lush Joanna's "Serenity Todd" by Sondheim, Sheep May Safely Graze by J.S. Bach, to the beautiful Ordinary Miracles, originally performed by Barbra Streisand. Special guests include soprano Cheryl Parrish and the 14-member flute ensemble, Flutes Unlimited. # "MEHN'S MUSIC"

"I like the fact that we're part of a movement of gay and straight men who are creating non-sexist music. But for those who have never heard of the men's movement, to say that we do Men's Music only conjures up images of songs about pick-up trucks. Indeed, most music since the beginning of time has been Men's Music by subliminally or not-so-subliminally promoting patriarchal values. For this reason, I think we need to make a distinction by spelling it Mehn's Music."

— Ron Romanovsky, originator of the Mehn's Music spelling!

Andy Freilich Dragons

Andy is an openly gay musician associated with Outmusic in New York City. His 1995 release addresses gay-related issues: coming out, dating, safe sex, AIDS, discrimination. "Momma told me people may stare when I hold my boyfriend's hand! Some will hate me, others debate me, most don't give a damn." His music has a 60's-style folk rock sound; his self-harmonizing in See Me Now and Zanna's mandolin in Gold in My Hand make these tracks distinctive. Drugs also stands out with its fascinating electric guitar lead and organic-sounding percussion. (DRX001) CS: 7.98 CD: 12.98

Bill McKinley Everything Possible

About this 1993 release, Michael Callen said, "... a stunning musical debut. Any true connoisseur of great singing, good taste and queer content will immediately rush out and BUY THIS ALBUM." And Kate Clinton said Bill "sings like an angel." We don't need to add much to these accolades, because we agree with them. It's gay-positive and loving and beautiful. So, do it! (EP92801) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bruce Roberts Intimacy

Bruce Roberts has written many a hit tune (including Streisand's Summer's Enough is Enough) and is friends with the famous, a few of whom appear on this 1995 album. Elton John duets on the a la Pat Shop Boys hit When the Money's Gone. Appearances by All-4-One, James Ingram and Luther Vandross add to the silky sheen of this 1980's-sounding delicious wallow in sweet sentimentality. K-d lang adds her stellar pipes to the achingly fragile harmonies on the title track, the stunning highlight of the album. (ATL82765) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Charles Cermele Look In My Eyes

His rich baritone, which has enraptured enthusiastic New York cabaret audiences for some time, now wraps itself around this 1995 collection of standards (and a sprinkling of well-served new material). Charles both caresses and soars above Fly Me To The Moon, My Foolish Heart, All the Things You Are, Nearness of You and the previously unrecorded title song. Backed by the tinkling ivories of Christopher Marlowe, this is quintessentially sophisticated, romantic music. (ARC001) CS: 15.98

Chris Cochrane's Suck Pretty 3 Heads

This 1995 release takes the ultra avant-garde in rock and jazz to the queer-core level. Having worked with No Safety, Bongwater, and the inimitable John Zorn, Chris obviously knows a little something about the atonal funk it takes to make zany, dark, experimental pop music. Some songs attack hard with a sonic wash of guitars; others are rooted in a deep, heavy rock groove that provides a bare framework for his gnawing, melancholy lyrics. Although Chris is an out gay man (billed as the coolest queer rocker in New York) and his lyrics are expressive of that, this music is for anyone who enjoys challenging their musical boundaries. (KFW181) CS: 15.98

Christian Johnson King Baby

New York big-city living, teenage punk-art band noodlings, and perhaps a handful of drugs have tempered the musical P.O.V. of Christian Johnson so that this 1995 album could be born. It's a heaping plateful of 70's-esque power pop/rock replete with sweet hooks and po-mo cynicism, with a subtly nasty temper. The cracker-jack prize is the ballad Steven, about the eyespelling Eureka of first-boy-love. This would have sounded extra sweet on 8-Track. (TRP4274) CS: 13.98

Club 69 Adults Only

This 1995 dance album includes such veritable classics as Divas, Let Me Be Your Underwear, Sugar Pie Guy, Pleasure, Warm Leatherette, and Riding Into Battle With Her High Heels On. (IRS32875) CS: 15.98

David Brown Splendid Wings

Sounding like a blend of the lesbian singer/songwriter Phranc and Simon and Garfunkel (well, I guess he couldn't sound like both Simon and Garfunkel, but you get the idea...), this New Yorker has lovingly molded a very fine album of stories told from an aware gay male perspective. Accompanying himself on piano and guitar (and, of course, with a little help from friends), his young, friendly voice sings gentle folk about anonymous sex (Mr. Right), a simpler and lovely harmonized duet with Crissy Wade (Do You Need Me?), a gay pride anthem (Every Kiss is a Revolution), the lovely title song about transforming AIDS grief, and a "gay roommate/spirit donor to lesbian couple" story (Cathy and Claire). Evocative details delivered straight-forwardly yet warmly make this a very satisfying treat! (CHU1) CS: 11.98

David Clement Be More Like Me

The biting wit of this 1995 release is out & queer. Here's what people are saying: "Clement steps to the plate with a thought-provoking exploration of prejudice that simmers with quiet but unwavering anger, and jarring, acerbic humor." Billboard: "No one is making music like this... it's like being let in on a really great secret." — Liz Phair. (WMR22962) CS: 15.98

David Sereda The Blue Guide

One of the featured performers at the 1995 Gay Spirit Visions Conference, this Canadian singer/songwriter released this very polished 1994 album after he lost his partner of 7 years to complications from AIDS. The recording features intelligent, passionate lyrics which universalize his story of two people who find love but recognize that it must end... and one must continue to live after the death of the other. His clear, rich voice journeys from moving ballads like Intuition to the gospel-influenced sing-along, Powerful Love, with ease. Expert production by David Gray (ex-Parachute Club), and background vocals by Connie Kaldor and others. Recommended! (RWR136) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Dennis Schaefer The Road To Reunion

It's not often that some of the proceeds from a male artist's album are donated to breast cancer prevention, but that's the case here. The album is dedicated to his mother, who was killed by breast cancer. This 1995 release rolls gently along in early '70's singer-songwriter groove (complete with acoustic guitar picking); Celtic artist Kate Price duets on the shimmering Love To You and provides back-up singing throughout... and the talent of such contributing musicians as Paul McCandless and Teja Bell imbue the sound with a mellow richness. (ACC400) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Divine The Best of Divine: Native Love

Harris Glenn Myles, better known as Divine, the big drag queen star of many of John Waters' twisted films, also had a number of disco hits in Europe and in gay US clubs. What he lacked in vocal talent he made up for in attitude! Includes songs produced by both Bobby Orlando and Pete Waterman (of the Stock/Aiken/Waterman powerhouse British production team). Titles like Jungle Jezebel, Kick Your Butt, Walk Like A Man, Shoot Your Shot and I'm So Beautiful give you a good idea of what to expect. (HTP16) CS: 15.98

Doug Stevens & The Outband Out In the Country

Well, this little of reviewer couldn't two-step if her life depended on it, but if you're blessed with a little rhythm, there's lots here for you on this 1993 release—and even if you're not, it's great listening. This 3-man 4-woman band showcases some snuggly songs like Sweet Breath of Love and Joven Amor Tejana as well as some heel-kickin' tunes like Born in Mississippi. Also includes HIV Blues and Cactus Country, which features alternate lead singer Desiree. Nydia "Liberty" Mata on drums and percussion, Lorin Sklamberg on guitar and accordion are a couple of the familiar band members. Look for them on the 92 March on Washington video! (DGS101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Doug Stevens & The Outband When Love Is Right

This 1995 release blends Cajun and bluegrass with reggae rhythms, and it comes out country! 6 of the 15 original songs are written and performed by women, reflecting the evolving influence of women in the band. The material is both compelling and fun, addressing the gay community while enlightening the mainstream listener. The poignant Love is a Lie tells the story of a lesbian being banned from her small town. Can't Get It Right panders the lighter side of gay "rendezvous"; and political stances are examined in Proud To Be an American. (DGS102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dudley Saunders Restore

Renaissance man Dudley Saunders is a writer, composer, actor, curator, music journalist, performance artist and musician. This 1995 album features music from his most recent performance pieces: although he dubs himself an "anti-folk", he sings hauntingly sad acoustic originals that cover the same thematic ground of the rural poor as does writer Dorothy Allison. Mixing the traditional folk and gospel of his Kentucky childhood with some untraditional dissonances to create his sound, and backed by the duo Y'all, Dudley shares "modern folk tales" of conversations with corpses, of crazed women in rain-swept truck stops, and of men who calmly wait on riverboats to be shot. (FNG1) CS: 15.98

Extra Fancy Sinnerman

The opening explosive-filled exhortation crashes into a chorus of surf guitars and then tumbles then into raw-voiced, guitar-crunched dirge musings about rough trade. We have entered into the world of Extra Fancy, L.A. boys who are gay but not happy and definitely not airbrushed. Their songs on this 1995 release cover the affects of violence against the human soul, be it through anti-gay bigotry, the neglected ravages of the AIDS epidemic, drug addiction, or shattered dreams of life and love. The music strips away the protective glossy coat to reveal a sordid underbelly of life in the L.A. land without descending into a pharisee mess of primal screaming. Weird short spoken word vignettes sprinkled throughout just add to the confusion. The cover art of Satan in front of tacky burlesque marquee and song titles like You Surf Like a Porno Star, Sonny, Violator, and the sardonic Goddamn Beautiful World to us off right away that this ain't no disco. (ATL82697) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay a cappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Liza Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Forti; Sweet Honey's Breath, and an incredible cover of Celine Dion's Shocking Blue. A wonderfully varied album, very highly recommended! 1990. (SIG9002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Live: Out on the Road

Our favorite boy a cappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural a cappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Guit, Oughta Be a Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon, Donde Esta Dolores?, Michael Callen's Living in Wartime, and fun tag-team favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. A terrific mixture of pleasure and politics; highly recommended again! (FLR1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Three

They are now a trio — the acclaimed women's jazz vocalist Suede has become the first member of the famed a cappella group, joining veteran Jimmy Rutland and group founder Jon Arterton — and we happily present their third album in June, 1995! Highlights include the Suede favorite Sister, plus Time After Time, Think, Myer Sandman, Something to Talk About, and We Shall Be Free. "In their new trio formation, they rank with the best a cappella groups of the world!" (Das Band, Bern, Switzerland) (FLR3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fred Hersch

Passionflower

Superbly talented, this openly gay jazz pianist has crafted an exquisite 1996 tribute to the music of Billy Strayhorn (the writer of Lush Life, among other classics). Hersch, an AIDS activist who produced the critically acclaimed benefit album Last Night When We Were Young, has created here a lush, orchestrated, gorgeous album that manages to be both emotionally moving and sexy. Called by Downbeat, "One of the handful of brilliant musicians of his generation," and by the New Yorker, "A poet of a pianist," his sensitivity amazes. (NON78395) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Plays Rodgers & Hammerstein

This 1996 release from the Grammy-nominated pianist (one of the few openly gay jazz musicians!) is a delicate solo piano album of some of the greatest show tunes of all time. Includes songs from Oklahoma, South Pacific, The King and I, State Fair, Me and Juliet and Cinderella. (NON79414) CD: 16.98

Fred Small

Everything Possible

Fred's a prolific and eloquent songwriter, who has written a wealth of material in support of various progressive political and social movements, including feminist, gay, lesbian, environmental, peace, and disability. In addition to the very famous title track, an amazing lullaby written for a child of a lesbian mother and now anthem for adults, children, and "inner children" this 1993 release also includes Rodney King's Blessing and The Marine's Lament, or the Pink Pearl, which is a gently comic depiction of the tragedy inherent in the negative attitude toward gays in the military. This "straight white guy with guitar" — with an uncanny ability to create moving, poetic vignettes which go straight to the heart of so many issues — is truly one of the finest songwriters of our time. (FF525) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Geen Harwood

Two Oldest Gay Men in America: 2-CD

This 1995 2-CD set is the first published collection of Geen Harwood and Bruce Mera's songs. Geen (86) and Bruce (84), who have been lovers since 1930, were profiled in Nancy Andrews' Family: A Portrait of Gay & Lesbian America. To create the album, Geen performed 44 songs on piano (from memory!) in their chronological order from 1930 to 1995. Most of the songs are romantic ballads, lovely and melodic, with a decidedly old-fashioned quality; over 2 hours of music total. Bruce's lyrics are unsung but are included in a 20-page booklet. We are pleased to be able to make this piece of gay history available! (GHT) CD: 16.98

Grant King

Let Love Out

This 1994 release, the artist's third, is a beautiful collection of original urban folk songs about love and loss and deep emotion, very gay-identified, and full of hope. Two tribal anthems bookend the album, Common Ground and the title track; this last is probably the best cut of all, an inspiring choral piece featuring several familiar lesbian and gay musicians, some of which have performed with Lavender Light Gospel Choir, Village People, and Rhythmic Express. Also includes Michael, written for Michael Callen on the occasion of his farewell performance with the Flirts, and To Hold And Be Held. Instrumental support from Dan Martin, Tom McCormack, and many more. Recommended! (KMS003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gregory Gray

Euroflake in Silverlake

This '95 release from an openly gay artist from Northern Ireland is an enthusiastic and touching mixture of modern keyboards, grinning social commentary, dance rhythms and irresistible hooks. Songs include Three Minute Requiem, The Pope Does Not Smoke Dope, and Lover, Brother, Friend. (SBK34358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Harvey Fierstein

This Is Not Going To Be Pretty

The first ever performance album from this 3-time Tony Award-winning gay playwright and actor (Torch Song Trilogy, La Cage aux Folles, Mrs. Doubtfire, Bullets Over Broadway) displays the multiple dimensions of his talent. Recorded live at NYC's Bottom Line, this provocative 1995 album includes stand-up comedy, 2 compelling dramatic monologues, and his special musical style: hilarious, moving, and completely entertaining. (PLU5904) CD: 15.98

Jallen Rix

The Sacred and the Queer

On this 1995 release from a non-profit label, this songwriter and keyboardist integrates themes of sexuality and spirituality in his folk-pop music. He travels in many directions to explore the connections between the two and arrives at valuable insights. While he examines how religion has been used to support discrimination in We Have Learned to Hate Each Other and tells the story of a boy sexually assaulted in What the Preacher Did to Me, Jallen's songs also find the sacred in his own experience, including his sexuality and community (one of his most memorable lines is "I saw Jesus down at Stonewall"). Especially recommended for his gorgeous song The Pendulum Swings. (TRM7426) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jeff Krassner

Strong For You

This ex-director of Outmusic has been busy lately, performing at places like THE Olympics in Atlanta as well as at numerous Pride events... but not too busy to turn out a well-produced album of mostly original songs in 1995. The sound is light and smooth and appealing (at least as good as anything you hear on the radio), with plenty of gospel influence and spiritual references. Several songs were co-written by Betsy Hirsch, who played in the Ronnie Spector band, and many feature some great female back-up vocalists. Jeff's voice is a warm, soulful tenor, well suited to his songs of yearning, love and redemption. The Flowers That Be a slammin' house mix, closes the disc that Billboard rated a "Critics' Choice." (JDE527) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jesse Hultberg

If you've ever heard Constant Thing (I Was Raised A Straight Boy), the closing theme on Gay Entertainment Television's nationally syndicated show "Party Talk", you've heard Jesse and a track from this 1994 album. This album is characterized by Jesse's gentle, mellifluous voice, his honest, introspective lyrics — many with gay themes — and a creative mixture of acoustic and high-tech... a great way to drag the music industry kicking and screaming into a world where "the love that dares not speak its name" sings it out clearly and in a way that anyone can sing along. Jesse also appeared in the film Longtime Companion, singing the Village People's YMCA with the Fingerlakes Trio. Recommended! (WMR27960) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jimmy Somerville

Read My Lips

The great falsettoed one's 1989 album (his first solo venture since breaking away from Bronski Beat and The Communards) is a finely wrought chunk of sophisticated dance music. Highlights are the inspirational gay rights anthem of the title track, his hi-NRG cover of Sylvester's Mighty Real, and a collaboration with French alternative pop star Serge Gainsbourg, Comment Te Dire Adieu. (PLG828166) CD: 13.98

The Singles Collection 1984/1990

This fantastic 17-song compilation features great dance material with Bronski Beat and the Communards, as well as his own solo hits (plus one with Marc Almond). Includes Smalltown Boy, Why?, You Make Me Feel (Mighty Real), To Love Somebody, There's More to Love Than Boy Meets Girl. (PLG828226) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dare To Love

This 1995 album marks his return to music after a 4-year break from recording (of course, he was quite busy working in film, appearing in Orlando and setting up a gay film company). Includes his hit single Heartbeat, his cover of Susan Cadogan's 1975 reggae hit Hurt So Good, the topical title track and several upbeat dance tracks. (PLG828540) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dance... Or Else

Being hailed as the next Sylvester or Jimmy Somerville, and with a full-page interview in Billboard, this gay artist is well on his way to becoming big. Hi-NRG news! This 1995 album, on a gay record label he launched, takes listeners on a non-stop journey compelling them to dance... or else... from the heavy house underground kickoff groove Hips or Lips (Dean Martin), to the hit singles Live To Tell and Get It Up, to the mellow wind-down of LOVE. This Austin, whose incredible voice propelled Snap's Rhythm Is A Dancer to international acclaim, co-wrote, co-produced, and/or sings background vocals on 3 tracks. (OR82000) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Ke

I Am [ ]

Pop that goes down nice-n-easy, this 1995 album from the openly gay New Yorker gently ensnares you. He has a very androgynous voice (but we're not talking falsetto), tinged with a whiney tang, that's somehow very appealing. We've been getting requests for this, so now ya have it! (RCA86582) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lee Lessack

We first learned about this vocalist on the gay/lesbian compilation A Love Worth Fighting For; he is one of the contributing artists. On this 1995 album, he gracefully interprets material by such diverse songwriters such as Michael Callen & Marsha Malamet, Ann Hampton Callaway, Johnny Mercer & Harold Arlen, Rodgers & Hammerstein, Wendy Waldman, and Jimmy Webb (whose beautiful ballad All I Know Lee covers here — last heard by this reviewer on an Art Garfunkel album in the early 70s?) — plus classics like The Water Is Wide. (LML101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Michael Callen Legacy (Double Set)

0541

This 1996 release is a long-awaited deluxe double volume of works by the beloved singer/songwriter/activist who died of AIDS after surviving the disease for over a decade. Highlights include a stunning version of Bernice Johnson Reagon's They Are Falling All Around Me, performed with Cris Williamson, Holly Near and John Bucchino; Healing Power of Love, an AIDS anthem; Two Men Dance the Tango, a duet with Tom Robinson, one of the first openly gay musicians; Gutter and Be Gay from Candide by Leonard Bernstein (on which Michael "does" a great Barbara Cook); Sometimes Not Often Enough, sung with the Flirtations; We've Had Enough, an ACT UP anthem; Mother Mother, performed with Cris Williamson and Tret Fure; Redeeming the Family: Love Worth Fighting For, and many many more, variously infused with sadness, silliness, anger, humor, triumph, and extraordinary vision and love. Approximately half are originals, many recorded during the final months of his life. Instrumentalists include Greg Weiss from k.d. lang's band, jazz musician Fred Hersch and others. Celebrate Michael's life, spirit, and legacy with this beautiful retrospective. In his own words: "Trust me, it'll be the queerest sold album I've ever heard." (SIG991) CD: 24.98

Michael Callen Purple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who had been battling AIDS since 1981 (and died in 1994), was in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education for many years: testifying before Congress, editing publications, appearing on major TV shows, participating in fund-raising events, and performing with the Flirtations. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic" without getting caught up in the polemic)... from How To Have Sex. Songs include Where the Boys Are, Me & Dickie D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Wartime, performed with band-partner ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. And, he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance... a tribute to his incredible life. 1988 (SIG881) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.98

Michael Feinstein Nice Work If You Can Get It

Known for his matinee idol looks, informed music historical perspectives and "indeterminate" affectional proclivities, Michael croons, glides and belts his way through this 1996 album of Gershwin standards. No chirpy synthesized sounds here: full orchestral accompaniment fleeths out the piano-driven versions of Someone to Watch Over Me, the title track, They Can't Take That Away From Me, an original-cant-recording treatment of Fascinating Rhythm (it's even a medley!) and many others. (ATL82833) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

The Nylons Run For Cover

The Nylons' blend of doo-wop harmony and contemporary R&B vocal stylings imbue their versions of classics from the 60's to the 90's with the back-to-basics of their trademark sound. This 1995 album includes remakes of The Beach Boys' God Only Knows, The Beatles' Lady Madonna, Stevie Wonder's My Cherie Amour and The Bronte's Smalltown Boy. (SCT75499) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Pansy Division Pile Up

0184

In the two and a half years since their debut release, this band has cranked out singles every 3 or 4 months, in addition to 2 full-length recordings. This 1995 album combines all the 7" tracks, adds songs from a couple of compilations, and throws in a few rarities, issuing them on cassette and compact disc for the non-vinyl buying public. They've done covers galore for B-sides, from Beat Happening to Spiral Tap to Nirvana. Some of their queerest, raunchiest stuff is included here: 20 songs in all. (LKT110) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Pansy Division Undressed

San Francisco's premier queer boy pop-punk band has unleashed its 1993 debut album! Containing 13 songs in the Buzzcocks/Ramones vein, it's catchy, humorous, and sexually explicit. Songs include The Cocksucker Club, Rock & Roll Queer Bar (a rewritten cover of the Ramones' Rock & Roll High School), Boysfriend Wanted, Fern in a Black Leather Jacket, and Anthem, in which they declare themselves "the buttfuckers of rock & roll." Uncensored, uncompromised, and unlike anything you've heard! (LKT770) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Pansy Division Wish I'd Taken Pictures

The boys' 1995 release, their fourth, is filled with their trademark tales of gay sexcapades plus more serious songs on relationships, sexual politics and solitude. Song titles such as Horny in the Morning, Cluck of Death, and Fee Shy ensure that this is a genuine Pansy release, not an imposter! (LKT133) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Pansy Division Deflowered

This SF-in-your-face, in-each-other's-pants queer rock pop-punk combo presents a second album, in 1994, featuring a louder, fuller, crunchier guitar sound. Contains the expected array of sexually explicit anthems, but also has several introspective songs covering various aspects of gay life. In addition to their originals, it includes covers of songs by Jonathan Richman and Pete Seeger. (LKT87) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Pet Shop Boys Bilingual

The 1996 release, from the low-affect lads from London, combines their trademark understated irony and sophisticated dance music with a Latin edge on this go-round. Includes Before, Discothecca, It Always Comes As A Surprise and my fave clever-pop-reference title, Saturday Night Forever. (ATL82915) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Pussy Tournette In Hi-Fi!

0033

And now for something completely different... Raunchy, raucous and ridden with double entendres, this sexually-in-your-face 1993 offering from the Bay Area drag queen — with a large lesbian fan contingent — is not for the easily offended or aurally conservative. He (or, as some would say, she) serves up both dance music and cabaret plus a Gilbert and Sullivan-esque ditty I Think He's Gay, aided and abetted by 3 very scullery female back-up singers, shaking up some commonly-held ideas of "male" and "female" with a whole new slant. Some here at Ladyslipper are wondering what this is doing in our catalog; others say, "Create a scene, frighten the neighbors, make a statement — get this album!" (FB301) CD: 15.98

Pussy Tournette ... Kiss All My Misery

0195

She calls this 1995 release a Maxi-Triple — 65 minutes long, it contains 11 tracks total, 2 songs (... Kiss, All My Misery) with various mixes (Pussy in the House Mix, Deep Pussy Mix, Deep N.Y. Misery, etc.), plus 4 new mixes of French Bitch from the Pussy Tournette In Hi-Fi album. (FB302) CD: 6.98

Pussy Tournette Who does she think she is?

This long-awaited 1996 release contains dance, blues, cabaret, boogie-woogie and camp à la Pussy. There's the Gilbert and Sullivan-esque Dyke That You Are, a boogie woogie entitled All You Can Eat, the title track which is set to be video-ized, and ... Kiss and All My Misery from the "Maxi-Triple," a cover of The Car Hop Song from The Flintstones TV show plus many more. (FB303) CD: 15.98

Queen Live Magic

NEW

Featuring the flamboyant but closeted lead singer Freddie Mercury, who died of AIDS... this 1996 album consists of material recorded in 1986 during their "It's A Kind of Magic" Tour, most of the tracks from their last-ever show at Knebworth Park. Includes Another One Bites the Dust, Under Pressure, We Will Rock You, We Are the Champions, Bohemian Rhapsody, and most appropriately, God Save The Queen. (HR61267) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Queer Conscience Gayja Vu

0400

This 1995 release has some great surprises: first of all, 2 dance tunes with gay lyrics: Gay Music and The Coast Is Queer... and 2 "holiday" songs: Your Coming Out Day for Oct. 11 (if you missed it this year, this song will have you ready for it when it rolls around next year) and Marchin' in Southie for March 17 (St. Patrick's Day). In fact, each of the 14 tunes is pointedly topical and relevant to gay and lesbian issues in an educational and inspirational way — and always well-produced with a great beat! As Queer Conscience says, "Why settle for less?" (SSP3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Let's Flaunt It!

Recorded in February 1994 live in concert (at the cabaret room at Choices, Cathedral City CA — near the gay/lesbian resort of Palm Springs), this 1995 release features our favorite guys at their best, relating to a live audience. All new hits, including Missy and Heidi, If There Is a God (He's a Queen), Homophobes in Robes (about the lovely dresses worn by KKK, popes and justices, as they pass their judgments on the queers), Some Of My Best Friends Are Straight, He Is My L-O-V-E-R, and more great songs with humorous, political, on-target lyrics. If you're new to the genius of these rowdy birds, get with it! Buy it! And Flaunt it! (FRF106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Brave Boys - The Best of & More

0004

This 1994 retrospective-plus includes 12 original songs from their first 5 duo albums and Ron's solo, in addition to 2 new songs. Includes a new studio version of Ho Ho Homophobia — a very hip dance tune — and live renditions of the following with updated lyrics: Don't Use Your Penis (For A Brain), What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot? Politically Correct Lesbian Am I?, The Prince Charming Tango. Hear the best... and more... of the reigning queens (truly the best) of the main's music genre. They are unequalled in their consciousness, wit, and charm, and remain our very favorites always. (FRF107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips I Thought You'd Be Taller!

Released in 1984, this is an energetic, humorous, loving, campy, gay-affirming album, as evidenced by some of the song titles: Womb Envy, The Prince Charming Tango, Closest Case, (I Can Have) Attitude... these guys are simply the cat's p.j.'s, the crown prince(s) of the Renaissance of gay men's music, don't miss an opportunity to see them live! (FRF101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Trouble in Paradise

Dedicated to gay and lesbian activists around the world, this 1986 album practically leaps out of your speakers and turns your immediate environment into a rollicking carnival of gay delight! Produced by Teresa Trull, it's one of the finest examples of music/commentary/comedy to emerge from the growing genre of political gay men's music. You can't listen to some of the songs — What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot Am I?, Wimp, Guilt Trip — without feeling, at the very least, wry amusement at seeing yourself in them... also includes Homophobia and some great advice for Ronnie and others, Don't Use Your Penis (For A Brain). Instrumentation is sophisticated; some of the best of Bay Area talent put in appearances. Highly recommended. (FRF102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Emotional Rollercoaster

Returning to more of an acoustic sound, the 1988 album from the "queens" of political camp (and we don't mean Camp David) is again chock-full of humor and social commentary. It's as gay, and lesbian-positive as the others, with even more political determination because of the fight against AIDS and the renewed homophobia from the Right. The empowering Living With AIDS could be the theme song of our generation — and makes this album a must for everyone. And from an expose of the absurdity of the Crimes Against Nature laws to the rallying cry for unity and responsibility in the face of AIDS fear ("We don't have to sacrifice our passion or our pride; we just have to be on the safe side") and the humor of My Mother's Clothes, Wait For the New Age, Strengthening Up the House à la Kate Clinton, Ron and Paul demonstrate they know that the personal is political. Very highly recommended! (FRF103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Be Political, Not Polite

Packed with 15 new songs, this challenging and political — perhaps even a bit controversial — hour-long 1991 release is their best, in their opinion! John Bucchino is keyboardist/arranger, and they've enlisted the help of a few friends to sing back-up on several songs: Holly Near, Alix Dobson, Phranc, and Michael Callen (of the Flirtations). Includes Oh No... (I'm In Love With My Therapist), When Heterosexism Strikes, Queers in the Closet, Love Is All It Takes, for lesbian and gay parents, and many other new hits. Of course we recommend this! (FRF104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ron Merritt The Silver Screen Collection

0226

This 1993 solo album by a pianist extraordinaire is a collection of 14 songs from film favorites, including Yentl, Moonstruck, Out of Africa, Ghost, Somewhere in Time, and On Golden Pond. Recapture your favorite silver screen moments with these familiar themes! (FCM1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ron Merritt The Broadway Collection

0295

This 1995 solo piano album will delight musical theater fans. Includes impeccably-performed selections from A Chorus Line, Phantom of the Opera, Cats, Les Misérables, Evita, Sunset Boulevard, and more. (FCM1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ron Romanovsky Hopeful Romantic

Produced by Teresa Thull, Ron Romanovsky's first solo effort is best described as "a romantic album with moments of comic relief." The 12 original cuts include collaborations with John Bucchino and Tom Wilson Weinberg, and run the gamut from pop ballads such as The Telephone Company Loves Me (a long-distance love song) to the eccentric and hilarious I Like To Polka. A temporary departure from his work with Paul Phillips, this 1992 album could be subtitled Romanovsky Lite: 80 percent less politics! (FRF105) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rumors of the Big Wave (w/J Sieber) Burning Times

Jani Sieber fans note that she plays on this album as a band member! This eclectic rock (with a slight lean towards folk-rock) 1992 album features the most haunting rendition ever recorded of band member Charlie Murphy's Burning Times, his well-known original song about the burning of the witches during the inquisition; plus 9 other vintage Charlie Murphy songs. Haunted vocals, heavy bass lines, early 80's-sounding echoey synth flourishes - very powerful! (EB42535) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

RuPaul Foxy Lady

Ms. Thang's late 1996 release includes the single Snapshot. (RH72256) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

RuPaul Supermodel of the World

Everybody say love! If the film Paris Is Burning has been made a few years later, Supermodel (You Better Work) could have been its theme song. This drag queen has sashayed into MTV superstardom with his glamorous attitude coupled with a driving dance-club beat. Includes Back to My Roots, a tribute to his mother's hair dressing salon and racial pride. What other top 40 phenomenon sings about love at first sight between two men? RuPaul takes up where the late great Sylvester left off. Subversive and eminently danceable! (TB1058) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rus McCoy The Gravelly Bell

The eloquent lyrics by this African-American gay singer tackle such heavy topics as gay-bashing, homophobia, self-hatred and disrespect, alcohol abuse, and loss of loved ones from AIDS (one haunting song, His Great Escape From Gravity is dedicated to Michael Callen) — but never sound pedantic. His poetry is informed by compassion, pride and grace. God's Ear is a psalm to a proud drag queen, Diver Down is a tribute to Greg Louganis. This album title refers to the heart, which "draws all things to it... and rings from the impact." Travelling from orchestrated and sparse ballads to acoustical jaunts, this is a well-crafted 1995 recording from an angry but generous soul. (RRA1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Sid Spencer Out-n-About, Again

Sid's 1995 album is country/western music with a twist: after many years of listening to mainstream country music, this independent artist created an album especially for the lesbian and gay community. His songs are about painful breakups, being single, monogamy, and more. When he sings songs by other artists, he changes pronoun gender so that the songs correlate with his own experience. The album includes both ballads and fast-stepping dance numbers. (AMT3) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sid Spencer Lovin' Stranger

This gay cowboy's first album, released in 1993, is a combination of fast-stepping dance numbers, heart-wrenching ballads, and a beautiful country waltz, demonstrating his vocal styles and versatility. The title track is an extremely viable love song for the 90's. (AMT9235) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sons & Lovers

This openly-gay a cappella quintet (which includes old-time fave in the men's music genre, Elliot Pishaw) sings out with heart and humor, successfully accomplishing its goals — they believe in the power of music to inspire, entertain, promote tolerance, celebrate community, and to encourage social change. Their wide repertoire ranges from soulful ballads to up-beat Doo-Wop, from Holly Near to Romanovsky & Phillips to girl-group rock. Their tight, cohesive sound and their infectious energy make for a great combo... and if you draw natural comparisons with the Flirtations, you won't be surprised to learn that Elliot was one of the original founders of that group! 1994. (SNL1994) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Spencer Brewer & Paul McCandless Torches on the Lake

Because the artists and label are donating a percentage of proceeds to Project Sanctuary, which helps battered women, we think this title is worthy of a spot in our catalog. Fans of Kenny G and other purveyors of "lite jazz" would definitely cotton to this accessible 1996 instrumental album. Brewer (piano, synths) and McCandless (soprano and alto sax, oboe, clarinet, English horn... with a long, distinguished history with revolutionary improvisational ensembles like Paul Winter Consort and Oregon) are joined on their smooth, mostly original compositions by Alex de Grassi and others. (ACC700) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Steve Lynn Sings Gay Country (EP)

Steve's music is solid country with lyrics gay men can relate to. His 1994 release contains four songs: Don't Be So Quick to Judge Me is addressed to homophobic religious fundamentalists. I'm Still A Man is about a young man coming out to his father. It Don't Hurt to Fly and Quit Playing Hard to Get me as gay you want hear them on the radio. (Get your own copy!) (TRH001) CD: 14.98

Steven Kowalczyk Moods and Grooves

Sounding like Michael Franks with more swing, this openly-gay jazz vocalist has caused quite a buzz with his 1995 debut album. Ahmet Ertegun, the founder of Atlantic Records and jazz fanatic, came out of semi-retirement to produce the gem. All songs are originals (except for a lovely version of Polka Dots and Moonbeams) which already sound like great pop standards which will reverberate in piano bars for years to come. The one big difference here from the classic songbooks (such as Cole Porter) is the openly gay lyrics! Listening to his voice will melt the heart of every jazz traditionalist. So dim the lights; put this on, and lose yourself in romance and passion. Better yet, invite a friend! (ATL82817) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sylvester Original Hits

This very "out" vocalist and drag queen, who died of AIDS in 1988, was well-known and well-loved in many communities, from gay to inner city teenagers to aerobizing housewives. This disc features 11 of his most danceable hits, including Dance (Disco Heat), Can't Stop Dancing, Stars, Body Strong, I Need You, Cry Me A River, You Are My Friend. (FANT710) CD: 16.98

Theo Bleckmann & Kirk Nurock Theo & Kirk

This highly original piano-vocal duo creates a jazz! performance art blending of the artistry of these two openly gay men. German-born vocalist Theo Bleckmann and American pianist Kirk Nurock. The breadth of music here includes yearning jazz ballads (a cover of Ellington's In a Mellow Mood; experimental vocal forays (wolf howls on The Truth Is Spoken With Your Eyes), poems set to music (Robert Louis Stevenson's Keepsake Mill) and playful scat (Asphalt Nightman). Their adventurousness and imagination makes them impossible to pigeonhole, and their 1993 debut album is a delightful and interesting musical ride. (TRA2404) CD: 15.98

Theo Bleckmann & Kirk Nurock Looking-Glass River

For their 1995 release, Theo and Kirk once again deliver the unexpected. 8 originals/compositions by Kirk have lyrics from Robert Louis Stevenson (title track) and Shakespeare (It Was the Lark and My Verse) and even an improvised language by Theo! There is an edgy version of Lennon/McCartney's Norwegian Wood and a tender one of the classic Side by Side. Theo's deeply resonant voice and Kirk's virtuosity on piano can both tell you and then shake you out of the doldrums. A sure-fire antidote to the "Been there, done that's." (TRA2412) CD: 15.98

Tim Seelig Everything's Possible

Trading baton for the recording studio, the acclaimed director of the Turle Creek Chorale steps out on his own as a vocalist to present a work of incredible warmth. An anthology of love songs done with an air of empowerment and pride, it includes songs from venues as diverse as South Pacific and La Cage Aux Folies. Proceeds benefit 3 Texas AIDS organizations, including the Nelson-Tebedo Community Clinic whose Women's Health Program moves them beyond the gay men's community into the lesbian community as well. 1993. (TCC4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tom McCormack Missing

This piano-based songwriter has been getting lots of attention lately. Billboard said, "Well-crafted, poignant slice of life outside the closet," the All Music Guide said, "One gets the feeling... this is the definitive gay album... artists in our community have been trying to write for years." The artist's songs and voice (occasionally reminiscent of Tim Buckley) have brought him onto PBS's In the Life. This 1994 release contains 10 pop-rock songs ranging from one about a woman's coming out (Coming) to the celebratory "front-porch jam," Love is Love. (SPD9406) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Tom McCormack Rose Colored Glasses

In Tom's second album, released in 1993, irony and melody get equal attention. He is a songwriter with a strong lyric presence who journeys deep into the shadowed areas of life with stories of money, desire, and identity. Tom's varied sound moves from rock voicings (Every Once In A While) to orchestral drama (Charade) to swing (Businessman's Blues), with his powerful vocals and piano functioning as unifying constants throughout. (SPD9305) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Tom Wilson Weinberg Don't Mess With Mary (Stonewall 25)

Somewhere between Andrew Lloyd Weber and the Rocky Horror Picture Show we find this 1994 Stonewall commemorative CD-EP release. 4 songs by Tom are all themed around the Stonewall 25 demonstration/celebration, each addressing a different facet of the movement. Various lead singers (Jan Tiley, Wayne Barker, NYC Gay Men's Chorus Chamber Choir, and Tina Benaz & Plato) bring to life tunes with titles like Bricks And Bottles (with a scorching rock vocal performance by Jan Tiley), Safe Sex Slut, and Before Stonewall (these last 2 have been specially re-recorded for this project). The title track comes in 2 forms, since no Stonewall commemorative release would be complete without a good dance mix. (AB107) CD: 6.98

Tory Beatty I Just Came To Dance

This buffed gay club sensation hails from the South Beach, Miami scene. On his 1996 release, a compilation of songs and remixes from the last 5 years (when he fronted the group "Proposition"), his mixture of Pat Shop Boys/Erasure Euro-cool vocals and steamy US house grooves makes for a solid dance disc. Includes the club anthemic title track (plus remix by renowned Miami DJ David Knapp), the sliethy ballad You're Always There, the sweetie Go With It, and his covers of Never Knew Love Like This Before and I'll Never Love This Way Again. Everybody dance now! (DIT1996) CD: 15.98

Various Artists Sensual Classics, Too

"Over 75 Minutes of Musical Passion!" packaged for a gay audience (on the cover is a photograph of two men in a romantic embrace...) This classical compilation includes concertos, nocturnes, pavanens, symphonies by Chopin, Beethoven, Schubert, etc. (TEL89724) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists Out Classics

This 1995 release contains over an hour of classics by 8 of the world's greatest composers who are known to have been gay (such as Tchaikovsky, Saint-Saens, Schubert), or at least have had gay sentiments, such as Chopin. The booklet acknowledges the omission of homosexuality from many biographies and histories; the release of a compilation like this on the highly-regarded RCA Red Seal classical label thankfully interrupts this silence. We learn some fascinating points: for instance, when Tchaikovsky and Saint-Saens first met, they were thrilled to discover they shared not only their homosexuality, but also their love of impersonating female ballet dancers, and proceeded to perform an impromptu pas de deux! The selections here are performed by a variety of internationally known orchestras and soloists, including Otha Harrow. Too bad they packaged this in such an undignified way — the composers deserve better; recommended anyway for the information it imparts! (RCA68261) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists Out Classics II: Stepping Out

Over 75 minutes of some of the most famous classical "dance" music ever written by gay composers, including Copland, Tchaikovsky, Handel, Corelli, Bernstein and others; on this follow-up to the highly successful first volume. (RCA68430) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various, inc. Kronos Quartet Gay American Composers

The booklet will inform you that throughout this century, gay composers have played a central role in the maturing art form of American classical music. This 1996 compilation, which includes both instrumental and vocal pieces written by gay male composers and performed by both male and female soloists and ensembles, is a good way to dip a toe into the world of modern classical music. The liner notes convey each composer's thoughts on the "gayness" of his music. The record label, GRI (Composers Recordings, Inc.), gathered these works from their own catalog, and they hope to soon present a collection of music by lesbian American composers - watch for it! (CR721) CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Heartkeys: The AIDS Memorial Album

This 1995 release is a legendary event bringing together the finest keyboard talents in contemporary instrumental music. Using the rich and expressive quality of the piano, it is a project in memory of loved ones lost to AIDS. It includes performances by artists with AIDS, artists whose careers were ended by AIDS, and artists whose music was inspired by the tragedy of the disease. Featured are Liberace, Steven Halpern, Lorie Line, Tom Barabas, Di Schering, Paul Sullivan, and many others. A portion of the proceeds benefits LIFEbeat, the music industry organization fighting AIDS. (RS6260) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Silbance #1

This innovative little thing is subtitled The Quarterly Queer Audiozine of Aural Penetration; we're trying out issue #1 from winter '96 which promises music, soundscape, poetry & prose; rantings, babble, life. A compilation of queer, mostly electronic, sampling, happy experimental sounds and songs; you will be hard-pressed to find it boring. A sampling: Eric Mars' "girl-group"-ish Gym Queens, Mark Strait and his Boy Lecher Choir's scatological reworking of Jesus Loves Me called Hymn #465, and Piv-Cum's story of a violent lover, the Maroon-referenced Charlie Cw the Wolf. (TRP5001) CD: 6.98

Various Artists
Can't Help Lovin' That Man

A collection of 25 songs from the 1920's and 1930's, when singers were not allowed to change one single word that the songwriters penned, resulting in some very "queer" tunes indeed! Treat yourself to chaps crooning The Man I Love, Hold Your Man, Love for Sale, Come Up and See Me Sometime; and, of course, the title track. Be sure to not miss crooner numero uno, Bing Crosby, treating us to Gay Love. Liner notes analyzing gay music by Village Voice's Michael Musto lend historical context. Sit back, loosen your tie, pour yourself something to drink and sing along! (COL52655) CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Stage 1: How I Love You

This 1996 collection of refurbished Broadway love songs, sung by men to men, includes showtune classics from Pat Joey, Carousel, The King and I as well as songs from contemporary musicals such as Miss Saigon, Chess, and Passion. The focus is on downplayed, romantic and sentimental arrangements for voice and piano... with a dreamy, eye-catching album jacket. (DINK1996) CD: 15.98

This Way Out

The genres represented on this 1994 release embrace almost every musical audience, including alternative rock, adult contemporary, dance, pop and punk. All the artists are openly gay or lesbian, and have recorded music specifically to speak to this audience. Wayne Numan, Bofo Santana-Jones, Special Head (Motorcycle Butt), Phideaux, John-Fredrick (Drag Queen), Eclipse, and Christian Johnson. A portion of the proceeds will be contributed to non-profit organizations committed to ending the AIDS crisis. (TRP4272) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

The Village People
Best of the Village People

One of the original "mainstream" gay groups releases this retrospective in 1994, just as disco is making its comeback! Though we haven't received it yet as we go to press, we assume it'll include hits YMCA and In the Navy! (PLG522039) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Worm
I Pledge

Jimmy Worm is a gay singer/songwriter who learned to sing with his butch lesbian guitar-playing twin sister. Inspired by Ennui, Bronski Beat, and George Michael, his music is easy, light, synthesized pop with gay-oriented lyrics. His 1995 album is a one-man pride festival and call to action, which he calls his lesbian pledge of allegiance. Songs such as I Pledge: The Rainbow Striped Banner: United, Stonewall, and This Love Is Right speak about love, anger, unity, freedom, and justice. And the pledge? "I pledge allegiance to the flag/ In the United States of America/ And to the thin ice on which they stand/ Queer Nation under Goddess/ Very Visible/ With levity and safe sex for ALL." (WRN9501) CD: 14.98

COMEDY

Ellen DeGeneres
Taste This

It's a long way from working at the Dinah Shore Classic... She does TV, movies, and books (and has an exhibit at Disney's EPCOT center), but, surprisingly, this 1996 live recording is Ellen's first full-length comedy album! Ellen gives her unique spin on Camping and Hunting, Cat in Heat, Public Bathrooms, Licking a Frog and her classic Phone Call to God. The "enhanced" CD includes a unique, downloadable "Ellen"-styled computer screensaver and soundbites! (ATL92724) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Judy Tenuta
In Goddess We Trust

"Hey, Pigs! Just blow hard on the Goddess, kiss her squeeze box and she'll let you chew her gum forever. It could happen!" Welcome to Judy's magical world. Recorded live in 1995, this is a combination of raucously bad disco originals of questionable taste, plus skewerings of everybody from Robo McEntire to West Virginia to the Kennedys to most of the top news stories of the year. Judy has her audience participate, whether mountain pig snorting, having a couple dance to The Wedding Polka and then renew their wedding vows as Mr. Judy, or mending a man's broken heart with the Stod Puppet Healing and Song. Not for the easily or not so easily offended. I'll see you at her next show... (GOD1041) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Buy This, Pigs!

Featured on HBO's Women of the Night video, this "petite flower, piper-goddess, fashion plate, saint" has a very unique take on life. Accompanying herself on accordion, she shares with her audience (whom she calls her personal love slaves) her feelings about those who do not show her enough deference (e.g. the Queen of England), dating and death and Catholic aerobics. Highlights on this 1987 recording are her country-western song about dating the Pope, and her twist on relationships with men. Bizarre and recommended! (EL60746) CS: 9.98

Karen Williams
Outrageous

"She's not afraid to be as raunchy as hell" touts her introduction on this live performance recorded at the North East Women's Musical Retreat. Sex and politics meet over an unabashed mastery of words that they didn't teach you in Sunday School... topics include Butch-Femme roles and some unique ideas for a national "How To Identify a Lesbian" campaign. So whether you've caught her or missed her on the festival scene, here's a sample you can take home to keep. 45 minutes, recorded on one side only. (AR2) CS: 10.98

Kate Clinton
Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bloody politics to build laughter of tiding fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with-than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme park: rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and falling away at Mom Pinata in Familyland! (WHY104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton
Live at Great American Music Hall

In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (covey her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, satirizes personals in papers, sings her song for parthenogenesis, and tells how she answered the question What Do YOU Do? at an S-M workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material: get your TV sets tuned up! 1995. (WHY103) CS: 9.98

Lea DeLaria
Bulldyke in a China Shop (Double)

The long-awaited debut recording by this bawdy, riotously funny comic legend (dubbed the "lesbian Lenny Bruce"), packed with non-stop laughs lampooning lesbian life... plus music! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Recorded live in Atlanta, highly recommended for all but the timid... and, being released on CD, for the first time in late 1994. (GSP69) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Koch
You Make My Pants Pound

This 1994 compilation contains splendid selections from musical theatre shows on which this comic genius has worked. The hilarious title track, a story of "last-at-first-sight" at a fast food drive-through, and All My Steppaddies are done by "dysfunctional mother-daughter country western superstars", The Squids, who were also featured on Dos Fallopia's My Breasts Are Out of Control. The Bouffants, a much loved, little known 60's girl group, campily offer Vanity and The Curve of No Return (which includes the requisite tragic teen car crash). On the more serious side are Three Times a Year, a heart-rending ballad from a straight man about his gay brother, and Violette, a beautiful song about one woman's "all-consuming infatuation" for another from the point of view of saloonkeepers from the 1920's. All these and more, so do not miss this sampler of musical treasures! CD includes 4 bonus tracks. (TNG2458) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Capitol Steps
A Whole Newt World

Could a more perfect target for these parodists have stepped into national scrutiny than Newt Gingrich? Well, everyone's perfectly suited for something on this earth... Their 1995 release is, as usual, filled with great satire, at least as relevant as the current events they spoof! Includes How the Gimp-Grinch Stole Christmas, This is the House O.J. Built, 22 in all. (CS1015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Derivative Duo
Opera For The Masses

This simply fabulous duo rewrites opera as social satire from a lesbian perspective, and 11 of their classics - with a twist are contained on this 1993 release. Familiar strains from operatic or choral standards (The Magic Flute, The Messiah, Carmen, The Barber of Seville, Romeo and Juliet) are transformed lyrically into girms like The Barbie Doll Song, P.M.S. Aria, Coming Out Mozart, and The Honolulu Chorus, which features the 24-voice acappella Esoterics. It's truly a blast - highly recommended! (DER1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Derivative Duo
Mutiny at the Matinee

On this fall '96 release, the lesbian duo once again musses the hair of the great opera, ballet and piano concert classics. Aided and abetted by Pro Homo Voci, a Seattle lesbian and gay chorus (who gives the album a "true" operatic feel - better to parody you with, my dear), they tweak Verdi's La Traviata as the co-dependent saga of The Cat Who Loved Too Much, Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite as the dilemma of a lesbian torn between her new lover and her family in Christmas Quandary, Off's Carmina Burana as Carmina Winnebago, the thrilling tale of a cross-country convoy of RV-ing women, and more! (DER2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dos Fallopia
My Breasts Are Out of Control

This outrageous feminist comic duo - a.k.a. twin sisters of different cul-de-sacs - consists of Lisa Koch (also known for her participation in Venus Envy) and Peggy Platt, who create a riotous program of music, sketch comedy, stand-up, razor sharp wit, left-wing politics and general lunacy, to produce an act of wickedly funny commentary from a woman's point of view! Includes Fran and Annie's 12-Step Day Care: Soadd Family Gospelers; The Surly Bitches in Concert (with Laura Love and Linda Seyvert from Venus Envy), a really great Camp Song, and of course the title track. So warped, so refreshing! Recommended! (TNG300) CS: 9.98

Roseanne
I Enjoy Being a Girl

Staff comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Slicker says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on TV" — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version) covers Sexual Preferences, Women's Medley, Men's Medley, 26 Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Rodeo Queen, Archie Hall, and more — something to offend everyone. Recorded live in 1990. (HR61000) CS: 7.99 CD: 9.99

Whoopi Goldberg
Fontaine: Why Am I Straight? (Tape)

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Banner, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the jinx with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religious wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here!"), AIDS, and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings. Very highly recommended! 1988. (MCA42243) CS: 8.99

This rare and precious cassette includes both conversations with and readings of her poems, stories and essays along with comments by Adrienne Rich, Alice Walker, Joseph Beam, Mary Helen Washington, Kate Rushin, and others, about how her work and her life has influenced them. Clarissa Pinkola Estes
Warming the Stone Child

On this tape subtitled Myths & Stories About Abandonment and the Unmothered Child, this gifted storyteller and Jungian analyst leads the listener past the gates of the conscious mind, to discover the unmothered child within. Drawing from many world cultures, she has gathered a collection of deep myths, fables and fairy tales (such as The Striped Woman Moon) which illuminate the psychology of abandonment in childhood, how it affects people later in life, and its curiously special gifts and powers. Her storytelling creates a picture of the orphan figure through the ages, while helping us understand the meaning of pre-adolescent abandonment in our own lives... a challenging journey, with a practical edge. 90 min. (SND164) CS: 10.99

Clarissa Pinkola Estes
The Creative Fire (2-Tape Set)

This riveting synthesis of myths, advice, and commentary is created especially for those who depend on their creative powers every day: writers, artists, teachers, and anyone working to cultivate their own instinctive abilities to give birth to ideas, projects, and relationships. By igniting creativity, she teaches, we ignite the spark which connects us with the divine. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND211) CS: 18.99

Clarissa Pinkola Estes
Women Who Run With the Wolves 2-Set

This program preceded the publication of the best-selling book by the same name, and is similar in content, though not identical — it is magical storytelling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and women and wildlife really, have been tamed with the same brush. They have been destroyed, exiled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tribe of females indeed. These tapes are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine. Her delivery is excellent, and the subject matter fascinating: female sexuality, lust and sublimation, passion and creativity, self-woman, and much more. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND068) CS: 18.99

Clarissa Pinkola Estes
How to Love a Woman (2-Tape Set)

Subtitled On Intimacy and the Erotic Life of Women, these words and stories of guidance are for all women and men who thirst to love and be loved by a woman. This psychoanalytic cantadora (keeper of the old stories) teaches that in love relationships, each partner challenges, nourishes and transforms the other: that achieving life-long love requires an understanding of the mysterious internal cycles that fuel relationships; that every relationship fades and expires, only to be reborn in a fresh and strengthened form. Included are her new versions of ecstatic love poems by Sappho, the story of Skeleton Woman, and a section on the importance of the erotic dimension in a relationship. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND222) CS: 18.99

Clarissa Pinkola Estes
The Faithful Gardener

Raised by a family of refugee immigrants who revered stories as healing instruments, Dr. Estes mines this rich storytelling tradition to unearth a series of lyrical stories that illustrate how faith is the one immortal force in our lives. This tape captures and expresses the common desire to know that gripping with sudden and unexpected twists of fate and challenging transitions — however painful — is never in vain. 90 min. (SND278) CS: 10.99

Jayne Cortez & the Firespitters
Taking the Blues Back Home

Anyone familiar with Ubaka Hill's ShapeShifters album is already aware of poet Jayne Cortez — she wrote the powerful piece If the Drum Is a Woman. This 1990 album is Jayne's eighth (she also has published 10 books of poetry, and lectures and performs worldwide). Her political, surrealist, dynamic words are accompanied by the innovative music of The Firespitters (saxophones, harmonica, kora, djembe, drums, guitars, vocals) and the resulting mixture resonates with the blues rhythms of New York, Nigeria, Brazil, Cuba, Morocco and Mexico. (HRM321918) CD: 16.99

Lydia Lunch and Exene Cervenka
Rude Hieroglyphics

This album of righteously angry poetry and vitriolic social analysis was recorded in 1995 at the Sapphire Supper Club in Orlando, Florida (not a hotbed of radicalism, which makes for an interesting live recording...). Lydia (ex-member of The Jicks) and Exene (from X) are 2 unapologetic feminist modern-day Cassandra's with a forum for their thoughts on O.J. Simpson, rampant sexism and violence against women, the assault on abortion rights, and government hypocrisy, to create a riveting assessment of the mid-90's in the crumbling empire of the US of A. It's worth the price of admission for their adroit shutting down of a male heckler which proves that the ones with the access to the microphones and thechutzpah to use them, win! (RYK326) CD: 15.99

Maya Angelou
On the Pulse of Morning

Maya Angelou first explains the origins of some of the imagery in her amazing, powerful poem which was the most moving and memorable highlight of President Clinton's inauguration in January of 1993 (in fact of any presidential inauguration ever) — and then she reads it, on this commemorative edition. 10 minutes. (RDH292) CS: 5.99

Maya Angelou
Wouldn't Take Nothing

In this beautifully rendered series of inspirational reflections entitled Wouldn't Take Nothing For My Journey Now, this author/poet/sage speaks from the soul with the wisdom of a lifetime. In a voice that vibrates with strength and pierces with honesty, she serves up the essence of her thoughts about how spirit and spirituality move and shape her life; about service and grace and giving; about how she celebrates the spirit of her people and the surly sensuality of the sisterhood. 50 minutes. (RDH298) CS: 11.99

Noirin Ni Riain
River of Stars

Dubbed "one of Ireland's living treasures", this amazing Celtic singer speaks about her musical and spiritual journey on this 1996 release. She discusses the inspiration she drew and continues to draw from other women, and the "deep bonds" she feels with St. Brigid, Hildegard von Bingen, poets Emily Dickenson and Ryonon (from Japan) on her quest for the divine source. Includes her previously unavailable original song for Mary Magdalene, On Lone Calvary, and her thoughts on women's music and creativity, the transcendental nature of song, and more. ## The Chenille Sisters The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RHR49) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connie Kaldor & Carmen Campagne Lullaby Berceuse

This French-English bi-lingual collection won the 1989 Juno Award in Canada, but it's because Connie's voice is one of the finest on earth that if I were a baby, I'd pick this one! Includes her own lullabies and traditional lullabies like All Through the Night. Connie sings the lullabies, Carmen the berceuses — can you guess the translation? Sure to calm and soothe. 1990. (MLP2206) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Freyda Epstein Globalullabies

This amazing, excellent, evocative vocalist presents a 1995 release of tender lullabies from all over the world performed in their native languages. From the first hauntingly familiar tunes of Dreams of Harmony to the last soothing strains of Lya Lya Lya Lya, parents as well as infants and toddlers will find enchantment in the breathtaking beauty of the melodies and the lilting sounds of the instruments. Includes songs from Nigeria, Czechoslovakia, Mexico, Japan, Russia, and more. (MLP42571) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop Bellybutton

Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC/Canada's national radio network, this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' albums around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaldor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lotus") and title song: "Oh my bellybutton I love you ... You're the only friend I have the one who really cares cause every time I need you you're always there ... When things get down and looking kinda grumpy simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in ... Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. Heather produced and mixed. (MOP003) CS: 9.98

Jill Rogoff The Celtic Cradle

On this lovely 1995 album of traditional Celtic lullabies, Jill sings ancient songs from Ireland, the Isle of Man, Wales, Scotland, Brittany, Cornwall, all in the original language (English lyrics are enclosed on the liner notes). She accompanies herself on lap harp and guitar (with a little help from friends on mandolin, flutes, piano and uilleann pipes). Timeless music to soothe both young and old bonnie lasses and lads; recommended! (ALC2003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 13.98

Joemy Wilson Dulcimer Lullabies

Featuring Joemy on hammered dulcimer with her usual ensemble of Celtic harp, guitar, violin and flute, this all-instrumental 1991 collection of lullaby favorites (Brahms' Lullaby, All Through the Night, Hushabye) as well as some less familiar quiet-time gems from several countries is bound to be a favorite of adults as well as kids! It was the logical album for Joemy to record, since for years parents and teachers have been telling her that they play her soothing sounds to settle down their hyper young things! (DM111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Linda Ronstadt Dedicated to the One I Love

This glossy, lavish, multi-tracked 1995 album is just the thing for harried baby boomer parents and their infants. Linda's voice echoes with sampled harp and strings and glass harmonica (think of an Enya-esque symphonic vocal sound). In addition to the title track, she covers Be My Baby, Baby, I Love You, and Devoted to You with Valerie Carter harmonizing. She teams up with Aaron Neville for a nice Brahms' Lullaby and ends with The Beatles' Good Night. A surprise appearance by the list-pumping Queen anthem We Will Rock You (get it?) with a soothing heartbeats-inflected arrangement, never ceases to amaze me. Feel so sleepy ... ## Marlo Thomas & Friends Free To Be ... You And Me

With Carol Channing, Diana Ross, Alan Alda, & others. There may never have been any kids' album in herstory which so thoroughly charmed kids, adults & anyone else as this 1972 classic. That it can communicate anti-sexist material in such a delightful, creative, appealing, exuberant way is remarkable. Includes numbers like Girl Land, William's Doll, Parents Are People, It's All Right to Cry. One kid said "Listening to this record is like listening to my heart laughing." Highly recommended! ## Pamala Ballingham Earth Mother Lullabies, Vol. 1

Selected by the ALA as a Notable Children's Recording for 1986, this is a lovely and even celestial collection of timeless lullabies from a myriad of traditions. Includes carefully chosen representations from the Icelandic, (roques like the chant-like Ho Ho Watanay), Irish (Gartan Mother's Lullaby), Jewish, Japanese, African, Australian, Russian, and Spanish cultures. It's unique in the fact that the instrumentation—harp, flute, mandolin, guitar and percussion—is sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy, without diminishing the effectiveness of its purpose: to put little ones to sleep! Booklet of words included. (EM1) CS: 9.98

Priscilla Herdman Star Dreamer-Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinary. The first side contains wonderful fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waltzing bears and stuff; side 2 consists of 8 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Springing from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen. Charming! (ALAT001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Priscilla Herdman Daydreamer

This extraordinary songfinder and eloquent performer presents a worthy follow-up to her best-selling children's album, Star Dreamer, with this 1993 release. The 13 songs celebrate the power of imagination, as she dedicates the album to daydreamers of all ages. She's joined in the effort by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen on harmony vocals, Abby Newton on cello, Molly Mason on bass; songs include Dreamcatcher, A Fairy Went A-Marketing, What A Wonderful World. A portion of the royalties are being donated to UNICEF. (MLP42591) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Roches Will You Be My Friend?

The beautiful harmonies that characterize this sister trio bring to life some of the most emotional and humorous themes you can find on this 1994 children's album. The symbolic and serious message of the title track is followed by an ode to the dog every child seems to inevitably wish for in Rowdy. Do The Boondance leads off the album, winning the awards for both catchiest tune and most humorous, as it takes you through folky-inspired dance steps. Also includes When Kids Are Mean, Little Baby, My New Bicycle, and more, all originals ... a great range of serious to silly, sure to capture a child's attention and imagination. And the vocal prowess of the sisters will surely do the same for the adults as well. Highly recommended! (BB3004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Produced by Toshi Reagon (who is also a guest performer), this 1994 release is a collection of 14 traditional and new songs selected for their ability to inspire, educate and empower youngsters growing up in troubled and confusing times. Adding their youthful voices to this joyful and powerful recording is the Sweet Honey in the Rock Children's Chorus. We highly recommend that you spring for the extra cents for this colorful, informative, wonderful addition! 1994. (MLP42552) CS: 11.98

Tish Hinojosa Cada Niño/Every Child

This charming 1995 album features gently rocking song-along tunes with a Tex-Mex flavor. (Accordion is so hard to find on kids' songs!). All of the songs are sung in both English and Spanish with the lyrics (along with accompanying song descriptions and crayon art) printed in the detailed liner notes. My favorite is Barnyard Dancer. Baila Vegetal, a vaudeville-sounding rave-up about dancing vegetables. Warning: if you get this for your favorite small person you will have to resist the temptation to keep it for yourself. (ROU8032) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists The World Sings Goodnight

Lullabies For Little Dreamers

This 1996 release can be enjoyed by both babies and harried parents who want musical reminders of simpler times when they could sleep through the night (my hunch is that it's really for the parents). It's like a compilation tape of some of the great artists (mostly of the 1970's) without loud rockers or anything with drug references. Includes Cass Elliot's "Dream A Little Dream of Me," Fleetwood Mac's "Songbird," Emmylou Harris's "Mister Sandman," The Carpenters' "Crystal Lullaby" and more by Carly Simon, James Taylor, Aretha Franklin, Don McLean, Manhattan Transfer, Hall & Oates. About the most diversified album of children's music we've ever seen, which should delight adults with good taste just as much as their younger charges! ### A Child's Celebration of Folk Music

When people used to talk of "folk music," sounds of laughing mandolins, staccato banjos, warm guitars, playful pennywhistles and lilting choruses came to mind: sounds of home and hearth, with songs passed down from generation to generation. This collection honors that folk tradition, with songs that generations can gather together and share. Children will love to learn the simple melodies and fun-to-sing lyrics of Michelle Shocked's "See The Sea," Pete Seeger's "If I Be Comin' Round The Mountain," Woody Guthrie's "Car Song," Maria Muldaur's "Would You Like To Swing On A Star," Sweet Honey in the Rock's "Run Molly Run," Taj Mahal's "Little Brown Dog," Doc Watson's "Grandfather Clock," David Grisman and Jerry Garcia's "There Ain't No Bugs On Me," and many more classical hits to a joyous family gathering! ## Costa Brava

This fabulous, quirky, sophisticated comedy from Catalonia, Spain (but, hey, it's in English!) has racked up a number of "Best Picture" awards at 1995 Lesbian/Gay Film Festivals and for very good reason. Written, directed by and starring Maria Balletbo-Cel (a cross between Woody Allen and Rosie O'Donnell), the film centers around her tour-guide/lesbian playwright character Ana and her relationship with Monserrat, an Israeli scientist (played by the lesbian San Franciscan actress Desi del Valle), who originally insists that she is not a lesbian but falls for Ana anyway. ### Desert Hearts

To our great delight, this fine life is back in print as of 10/28/95 — in time for the holidays. Based on the novel by Jane Rule, turned into film by Donna Deitch, and needs no introduction because most of you have probably seen it several times already! If you haven't, suffice it to say it's a love story between two women with one of the most erotic scenes ever filmed, one you'll want to watch over and over. Highly recommended. (VE55120VC) 29.96

Dreamers of the Day

And Andre: a film-maker who has long acknowledged her passion for women, she has everything in her current project carefully plotted — except for Claire. The plot unfolds to reveal Claire's deception... will their love transcend? In all 3, women have established emotional and financial independence by separating from the patriarchal system, yet each community is vastly different. 36 min. (WV18VC) 29.98

Fiction & Other Truths: Jane Rule

Directors Lynne Fennie and Aeryn Weisman, who also brought us the fabulous film Forbidden Love, present an excellent documentary about the life of Jane Rule. Here she discusses her writing, being a "public" lesbian before it was common, fighting against censorship, her move to Canada during the McCarthy era, and more. 57 min. (NFB9194VC) 59.98

Forbidden Love

This is a great flick about the lesbian pulp novel genre of the 50's... totally delightful, lots of historical information, and the highlight is when one of these novels comes to life! Compelling, often hilarious and always rebellious, the 10 women interviewed paint a portrait of lesbian sexuality and survival during the '50's and '60's, when lesbian love was "the love that dare not speak its name." Filmmaker and southern expatriate Ellen Spiro decided to pack her dog Sam and her video camera into a van to travel around the south for a year. She visits the Gay Rodeo, a gay Mardi Gras crew, Rhythmfest Women's Music Festival (where she interviews our own Mandy Carter), NC author Alan Gurganus, The Moxies of Monk Magazine (with a wonderful "country tag" by fishing" olympic-style moment), a Radical Faerie camp in Tennessee, and Chance, a very cool 18-year-old Georgia lesbian, among others. #### Radiant Life: Meditations & Visions

Subtitled Meditations & Visions of Hildegard of Bingen, this 1996 video is a most excellent presentation on the life and writings, music and art of the amazing, visionary composer/leader/artist/mystic, whose works expressed an intense relationship with Sophia, or Mother Wisdom. First some facts and details of her life are presented (for instance, did you know she was "given" to a convent at a very early age, because she was the tenth child in her family, and custom was to give the tenth child as a title to the church??!!). Then many of her writings are recited, to a background of music she composed (performed by 4 women on voice, vielle, harp, recorder, psaltery and percussion), while her illuminations and works of art are shown. Informative, instructive, and recommended! (WSM1VC) 19.98

Through her awareness that becoming sexually liberated was a powerful factor in women's quest for equality, Betty's work has proven that women communicating with women about sex can reverse the repression conditioned so deeply within the psyche, leading to the ability to reclaim their bodies as a source of joy, strength, and power over their lives. Betty is the author of the feminist classic Liberating Masturbation and Sex For One: The Joy of Selfloving. (BDN1VC) 39.98

Eida is respected in the village because she performs ancient healing rituals and understands nature's secrets. As an inquisitor, the friar sets out to investigate these practices, resulting in an explosive confrontation between the pagan - based ancient customs and the patriarchal religious dogma. Produced, directed and written primarily by women. 88 minutes; a compelling film and highly recommended! (MYS177VC) 29.98

Straight From the Heart

This excellent documentary, produced by Dee Mosbacher and Frances Reid and nominated for an Academy Award, presents moving accounts of parents' struggles with homophobia as they journey through the misinformation of the Radical Right to a new understanding of the children they love. It's an accurate portrayal of real people in real settings: two highlights are interviews with the Washington Sisters, Sandra and Sharon (well known to women's music fans), and their mom, and with Tracy Thorne (the naval aviator who was discharged from the military after coming out as a homosexual) and his father. Highly recommended — any gay or lesbian person with struggling family members should send them a copy of this! (MVM1VC) 29.98

Strangers in Good Company

This Canadian film is the delightful story about a group of remarkable women travelers who, when stranded, turn their escape into a truly magical time of humor and adventure. They lost their way... and found each other. It was not produced in the usual fashion, wherein actors are given precise scripts; rather, the basic story was outlined, and the women (most not professional "actors") improvised, just like their characters, yielding a more authentic and honest story, with more depth than films usually reach. Especially loved Mary Meigs' portrayal of her lesbian self, though there is not a single woman you won't love by the end. Very highly recommended! (TST1364VC) 19.98

Sing for Freedom

This video captures a 1995 live performance in San Francisco where Sweet Honey, the congregation of the Guide Memorial Church, and children all sang along in joyous celebration. Drawn mostly from Sweet Honey's award-winning children's recordings, All for Freedom and I Got Shoes, the songs include old spirituals, tradition-rich play songs, a moving medley of civil rights anthems, and even an uplifting a cappella rap. Interviews with children in the audience and Bernice Johnson Reagan, founder and artistic director of the group, add depth and perspective to this "concert for the child in each of us." (MLP5205VC) 15.98

In this entertaining lesbian soap opera, the characters in two lesbian households confront child custody, lesbian parenting, AIDS, substance abuse, racism, coming out, monogamy, non-monogamy, crushes, lust, sex, bisexuality, and of course therapy (you name it, they confront it)! Ads for fictitious products, rooted in feminist and lesbian humor, satirize the consumerism at the core of daytime TV. Cameo appearances by lots of women's music stars: closed captioned; includes all 5 episodes plus outtakes (watch the actors flub their lines). Produced by Laurel Chten. (TWO2VC) 59.98

The War Widow

Whoopi Goldberg

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight (Video)

This is a very hysterical characterization of Fontaine, who has just graduated from the Betty Ford Clinic, facing the world sober for the first time in years, he is shocked at what he finds! Politicians, evangelists, homosexuality, and many other subjects will evoke belly laughs as well as nods of affirmation, as Whoopi's comic genius takes center-stage. Highly recommended! (HBO00335VC) 19.98

Witchcraft in America

This 50-minute educational documentary should help to eradicate some common misconceptions. It opens with a somewhat "sensationalist" approach, but goes on to describe — and explain the differences between — the various religions often lumped under the heading "witchcraft": neo-Paganism, Wicca, voodoo, and Satanism (which in fact has nothing to do with witchcraft). It also gives a historical overview of the persecution and murder of people who were perceived to be witches, beginning with the Salem witch trials and continuing through this century. This film is like a program you'd see on public TV, for beginners and general public, not advanced students! (AAE10007VC) 19.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part I

The Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone — beginner or veteran of women's culture — who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture... the Goddess culture which preceded this... the power of symbols... and much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. No matter how much you think you already know, you'll learn something more from watching this; it's the result of many years of research by writer-narrator Mary R. Hopkins. Produced by Claire Simon. (GV2VC) 39.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part II

From Earth Mother to Love Goddess

Also highly recommended! The second volume documents, through an analysis of art, the fall of female divinity and the rise of patriarchy, where the Love Goddess is one of the only permissible roles for women. The characteristics represented in Diana, Athena, and Sophia are explored as well. (GV3VC) 39.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part III

Women Revisioning Ourselves

Explores the post-patriarchal vision of women through contemporary art: over 100 images by 17 artists from the US and Canada participate. This entire set should be in the permanent collection of every school and library! (QVAVC) 39.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 1 Goddess Remembered

This stunning and poetic documentary is a salute to 35,000 years of "pre-history," to the matriarchal cultures of ancestors only recently remembered, and to our ancient goddess-worshipping religions. The caves of prehistoric France, the mysterious earthworks of ancient Britain, and the sun-drenched palaces of Delphi and Crete are brought to life here, with exquisite musical accompaniment by Loreena McKennitt. This 3-part series is expertly directed by Donna Reed. (DCL307VC) 39.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 2 The Burning Times (Video)

Part Two in the Women and Spirituality series offers new insights into the legends and misconceptions that surround the term witch. In the attempt to eradicate the woman-based power of midwives, wise old crones and healers, the Christian church instigated a reign of terror which resulted in the genocide of millions of women and the destruction of what had been an organic way of life. The film illustrates how this sanctioned torture and murder set the stage for modern society's cultural acceptance of massive violence against women. Building on ideas set forth in the discovery of goddess-based culture, this is a beautifully crafted tribute to the value and strength that women brought and bring to life. Music by Loreena McKennitt; highly recommended! (DCL330VC) 39.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 3 Full Circle

In this final part of the Women and Spirituality trilogy, the filmmaker examines the many present-day manifestations of the women's spirituality movement. She finds authors like Anna Cameron, leaders and social activists like Sternhaw, and others, meeting around kitchen tables and in circles on hilltops, discussing spirituality and performing rituals that give them strength to transform their inner beliefs into political and social action. This is her most personal film of the three — she discusses her own journey — and we finally learn about the dancer who has appeared in all 3 films... so the title is a fitting one. Music again by Loreena McKennitt; recommended again! (DCL462VC) 39.98

Women Speak Up

This wonderful video document was recorded at the 1995 United Nations International Women's Forum, which was held in Huairou and Beijing, China, and was attended by 30,000 women from 189 countries. Produced by Linda Leehman and Esther Parnsworth, members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, this "collage of pinnacles, workshops, interviews, spontaneous events and music" combines both the serious themes of the conference (e.g. the effects of militarism, globalization of the economy, and violence against women and girls) with the "joyfulness and celebration of women coming together for peace and justice." Includes a study guide and resource booklet. 58 min. (MCM2091VC) 19.98
