The New Spring Crop

Women's Spirituality ♦ New Age

Deb Criss Heartbeat

From our neighbor in Asheville NC, a tape featuring sweet harmonies and chant-like songs, celebrating earth, elements, womanhood, and cooperation. Simple percussion and accompaniment, with some environmental sounds blended in, and wonderful rhythms to convey the cyclical nature of things. Very refreshing. (CLS002) CS: 9.98

Shant Wind

Shekhina, Hebrew Goddess

This late 1990 release, subtitled Restoring the Balance, is scheduled to arrive by the time this catalog reaches you, dear readers. Were informed that it's about Shekhina, the Hebrew Goddess of the Kabbala, and that the music and lyrics contain a blend of Middle Eastern, Spanish, Celtic, and Hindu influences... about half in Hebrew and half in English. Sources are Old Testament, Talmud and Kabbalistic writings, showing the survival of the triple goddess in the basic foundations of Judaism. Extensive liner note: a full 79 minutes in length... from this tidbit of information, it sounds wonderful and intriguing! (DW1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Earth Dance Singers

Songs of the Sacred Wheel

This circle of 7 women is inspired to sing these songs in honor of the Earth they love... and over 50 chants and circle songs are included here!! Titles such as Mother/Daughter Circle Dance Song, I Am the Goddess, Mother I Feel You, Ocean Mother — by authors such as Starhawk, Z. Budapest, Lisa Thiel, Acacia Gelfy, Charlie Murphy, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and Kate Wolf, as well as members of this ensemble — flow easily from song to song. One of the most complete recordings of women's circle songs we know about! (ED1) CS: 9.98

Eva Leon Hill/Institute of Goddess

Daily Spiritual Program

This recording contains affirmations, relaxations, meditation, exercises, guided visualizations, and prayers from the Irish-Celtic tradition, which invoke intimacy between human, natural, and divine (as manifest through the feminine) realms. Selections include Goddess Visualization and "Goddess Within" Prayer; the program can be used every day, with Side 1 for morning, Side 2 for evening. The narrator is the founder of the Institute of the Goddess, which offers courses in meditation and the history and meaning of the Goddess, as well as seasonal, nature-based ceremonies. (IGS1) CS: 9.98

Jennifer Berezan Voices On the Wind

On this 1993 release, the artist turns her incredible vocal talent to a new avenue: women's spirituality. The album contains exquisite songs and chants of inspiration, healing and transformation from her work with feminist healer/teacher Vicki Noble, of Minneapolis fame. One side is a Tibetan chant to the Goddess Tara; also included are Purity and Heart Us, We Are One, and Windwalker, a chant in honor of the female Daxini. She accompanies herself on guitar, and vocal overdubs, producing a simple yet powerful sound. Very very recommended! (EDW2) CS: 10.98

Marianne Williamson On Intimacy

In her lectures Intimacy and Control and Real Intimacy, Marianne challenges us to focus not on "getting" the perfect partner but on becoming the perfect partner. She tackles modern romantic ideals when she communicates the idea that a relationship with one person cannot fulfill all needs, and illustrates how our primary relationship is with the universe. By removing the barriers to intimacy which we've created in the past and through fear, we can live our lives fully and experience true intimacy — in love, at work and with friends. (HRP10001) CS: 10.98

Marianne Williamson On Communication

These lectures entitled Excellence in Communication and Listening with Love explore the need for open, clear communication with all people in our lives and methods for achieving this goal. By working to share our personal truth, we can find harmony in relationships — even when we disagree — by listening and not reacting judgmentally. To really communicate, we must really go behind our masks and speak from our essential selves. It is by knowing our feelings and telling the truth that people come to truly know and love us; we can then let go of the illusion of separateness and our fear of loss. (HRP10011) CS: 10.98

Nana Simopoulos Gala's Dream

Our highest recommendation goes to this exuberant 1992 recording which represents the music of our Mother Earth. The listener travels from the uplifting Afro-Greek rhythms of the celebratory Koula Koula to the deep Byzantine chanting and exciting hallelujah choruses of Artemis Silver Bow. The journey is a spiritual quest to the soul (includes some subtle male voices); Mary Moore breaks the barrier of time; and Like You and Raphael send the listener to an upward celestial travel. The Indian sitar and bansuri flute combine with the African percussion of our wonderful neighbor Beverly Botsford, as well as soprano sax, guitar, synthesizers, choral vocals, and Helen Hooker's violin. All compositions are by Nana, clearly an artist with quite an expansive musical vision; we advise you to not miss out on this exceptional, inspired work! (BW13) CD: 14.98

Shayla/Megha/Dena Water Ceremonial

This unique tape is quite unique — it's a bath tub ritual! "Create your own water ceremonial. Relax in a hot bath to the soothing sounds of voice, harp, and piano. Add your choice of relaxing tea, candles, incense, and oils." Megha Rozealia Ryzen is the creator of this 22-minute continuous-play piece, and provides voice, harp and finger cymbals. Dena Charmaine is the harmonizing voice (and the apparent inspiration), and Shayla the keyboard artist. The multi-tracking creates a truly watery, rippling, dreamy, relaxing effect; this would be a perfect healing gift for friend or self in times of stress... just add the suggested accessories! Same program on both sides. (SMD1001) CS: 9.98

Shekhinah Mountainwater Songs & Chants of the Goddess I

Back in print — yay! Songs, chants, invocations, prayers, spells, and magic from among this priestess/teacher's most well-known work: Lady Mother of All, We Are the Flow, Charge of the Goddess, Pentagram, Parthenogenesis, Tha They Are Only Breath (based on a poem by Sappho), and many more, for ritual and singing along. (MSP2) CS: 9.98

Shekhinah Mountainwater Songs & Chants of the Goddess II

More favorites: Power Spot, Diad, The Witches Are Here, Nine Million Witches, Circle and a Rainbow, 23 in all, which she encourages you to use at your rituals and gatherings. (MSP5) CS: 9.98

Shekhinah Mountainwater Witch-A-Way

Kris Aaron of Circle Network News said, "With the voice of the Circle and the soul of the Goddess, this veteran musician has created an exciting, resonant album of new Witch songs. 'Gothic jazz' may be the only way to describe her magical between-the-notes style... this tape is women's Pagan liturgy at its best!" Includes Crone, O' the Hawk, Cosmic Cowgirl, Witch's Choice, a ballad of the Burning Times when the women walked into the sea, and more... 18 original songs in all, recorded live in concert, approx. 90 min. (MSP7) CS: 12.98

Susan Berman

What the Mother Pot Sings

Here's what our friend Maids Tilghy, who years ago was the women's music reviewer for Boston's Gay Community News, wrote us after meeting Susan: "Her voice blew me away (editor: 'me too') — a small Jewish woman who sounds like a big African-American woman. She has been influenced by an Aztec dance and percussion group, creating perhaps the world's first Aztec Jewish music, played on indigenous instruments such as Aztec clay pots. She brings together many diverse musical cultures to create her own unique and entertaining style. She has a song based on an Elie Weisel story, and a protest song about the rapes in Bosnia that has a great overdubbed Balkan holier I especially liked Mung Bean, which is whimsical with great percussion." If we had the space, we could write pages of description and accolades about this exquisite collaboration of women's acappella vocal tradition, global politics, MesoAmerican, pre-Columbian tradition and the indigenous voices of world flutes and percussion (a multitude of world instruments are played by Larry Sargent and Susan). Suffice it to say, we very highly recommend this deeply emotional and spiritual resonance of women's songs, poems, chants, dreams and stories — it's one of the year's true treasures. (FT101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Triple Crescent Music Celebrating the Goddess

What a wonderful melding of women's music and women's spirituality! And, of course, any album which contains the classic song Amazon by Maxine Feldman — a precursor of both the women's music and culture movement and women's spirituality movement, and the song which still opens the Michigan Festival every year — has a place in our catalog! The trio (Norma Jean Burton and Jade on vocals, Barbara Chusid on keyboards) performs Willie Tyson's stunning Witching Hour, Charlie Murphy's The Burning Times, Judea Be's beautiful Lady O (old timers: stretch your memories, now, back to Gimli Clemmens' first album), Karen Mackay's Arms of the Goddess, Ruth Barrett's Every Woman Born, and more... all truly classics of classical! This is a must-have for the priceless, precious material contained herein! (TRC1) CS: 9.98

Women's Music ♦ Feminist Music

Ani DiFranco Like I Said

On this 1993 release, 15 tracks from Ani DiFranco and Not So Soft have been combined, re-recorded, embellished, and generally messed with to make a new album. (RIG005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco Out of Range

This 1994 release is hailed as Ani's most adventurous effort to date. The 12 tracks include 2 versions of the title song — solo acoustic and rocking with a full band; The One, with sound effects scarfed from an all-night eatery in Toronto; How Have You Been, with a full-fledged horn section blowing funk riffs; Letter to John, a troubling song that breaches the bitter afterlife of sexual abuse from a stark and cynical point of view; If He Tries Anything, an outrageous snapshot of female desperados on the road; and the guilty personal regrets of You Had Time. The power and penetrating insights of her poetry achieve a new peak here — we highly recommend Ani! (RIG006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ann Reed & Phyllis Goldin Strings Attached

Originally conceived as a mail-order or from the stage-only recording that would feature instrumental pieces that Ann has been doing at her concerts, this 1993 project expanded to include Phyllis' piano responses to Ann's guitar instrumentals; a couple of solo piano pieces; and a mixed collection of songs written by both Phyllis and Ann, but sung only by Ann. Includes the two songs most often requested at Ann's concerts, I'll Keep My Hat and Perpetual Emergency; also, a sure hit with any of the 40-and-over crowd: This Isn't My Party — as well as Women's Room, Sadie, Ancestry Dance, and more. Production is light throughout, with mandolin, percussion, guitar, bass and piano. (AML3) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

BETTY Kiss My Sticky (E.P.)

This 5-song E.P. includes three mixes of the title track, a lascivious little number in which the line "Kiss my sticky and a cow will come out" makes me blush although I do not have any idea what it means. Also includes Alpacas, which extols the joys of cavorting amidst a llama herd, and the best version of High Hopes, that antirubber plant chestnut, this side of Laverne and Shirley. This E.P. is a fundraiser for their next full-length album. Recommended, of course — it is from BETTY! (BET2) CD: 7.98

Chris Vinsonhaler

Drench My Soul

From political ballads to the sweet and sexy jazz of Walking Past Midnight, this 1993 album is a fine debut by a Mississippi singer/songwriter/storyteller. Her tender vocals are reminiscent of an early Lucie Blue, and her piano arrangements weave magically through this collection of "revolutionary love songs" celebrating women's lives: a grandmother poet; a daughter triumphing over injury; Rebecca Jones who spoke out for peace. (CV1) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor

Out of the Blue

This 1994 release contains more of Connie's "the romantic returns" ballads, a feisty raucous gospel love song called I'm a Believer, an acappella number entitled Relax, and a raft of the artist's trademark songs of love and life that reach out and grab you by the insides. She considers it her best yet! We can't wait. (COY1015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

disappear fear

"I've been looking for this generation's Bob Dylan — a songwriter with passion and power — and I think that I've found that... only it turned out to be a woman named Sonia." That's how producer Craig Krampf feels about Sonia Frank, the creative force and songwriter for disappear fear, and that's why he wanted to produce this 1994 release. It features 10 new disappear fear songs and an updated cover of Phil Ochs' 60's anthem Is There Anybody Here? Special guests include Janis Ian and the Indigo Girls. (PH1171) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ferron

Driver

In Ferron's own words: "The road may go on forever but it is easier if we remember that the vehicle may change... From the opening song called Breakpoint, the invocation to perfect love, to the last song Maya, the dedication to actual love, this album of 10 songs is an exploration of how change and commitment interact with each other and with supposed meaning in our lives... I asked myself, and each of the 12 musicians, to play as though we had already got to where we were going and craved nothing more than to stretch out and hold sacred the now of the song. There is a place in each of the songs where I forget where I am, very much like what sometimes happens when we drive and think." Lyrical, lots of depth, layers and substance on this 1994 release, as usual, and as always, very highly recommended. (CW006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jamie Anderson

Bad Hair Day

This late 1993 release features some of Jamie's funniest songs ever! Title cut, a Ladyslipper personal favorite, looks at a problem we've all had at one time or another while Sweet Maiden is simply a demented folk song. Wynona, Why Not? has a full Nashville sound, and Love Song is a look at some of the music we survived during the 70's; both these songs were produced by Lisa Koch of Venus Envy and Doc Fallopia. Together with songs from her first two albums, classics like Nothing (I'm - nothing - without - you) and I'm Sorry (a song of condolences for heterosexuals), this comedic collection will brighten even your worst hair day. Highly recommended! (TSU1004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Jesse Richards

A Woman's Body

Wild would be an operative word here. Describing her music as avant-garde, theatrical, (and we add: sexy), pop-rock, with tribal licks and rhythms, she has said, "I would love to be on the radio, you know, too ten. But given the bizarre slant of my music, I'm not so sure that will ever happen." Neither are we... but, you need to hear her anyway. Her huge, tender voice seems to encompass three octaves in its mid-range, and her lyrics speak the hushed voices of lovers as easily as prophetic visions. Her harmonic inventiveness brings Annie Lennox to mind; she pushes against some of the same musical boundaries as Kate Bush; and she creates layered textures and harmonies, displaying both the control of a baroque contrapuntist and the wild abandon of Jimi Hendrix. Songs include the gleeful feminist fantasy Barbie is Dead, the humorous Penis Envy, plus Old Woman Dancing in the Wind, Wild Spirits, and the exquisitely beautiful Sarah. We highly recommend that you embark on this new musical adventure! (JSR1) CS: 9.98 ...

Judy Fjell with Crystal Reeves

Best of Times

This 1993 release of politically wholesome music has some great stuff on it! I Was A Teenage Lesbian, complete with backup "fizzies," is a perfect 60's-style tune, while the oldtime song Buffalo Gals is sung with a new lesbian slant... Girls' Night Out is a lively tune of girls riding the night wind together on their brooms... Judy's beautiful original Sittin' On the Back Porch is woven together with strains of Shenandoah... and the song conveys the optimism of the lesbian/gay community under the Clinton administration. Fun and inspiring and heart-warming, this album is, featuring Crystal Reeves' lovely fiddling. Buy it! (HON108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kathleen Hannan

Somebody's Been Missing

This Ladyslipper neighbor presents a lively 1993 collection of tunes on a variety of topics that many of us will identify with. There are lesbian-positive songs like Anastasia and title: fat-positive lyrics of Love: Ourselves Into Love (The Fat Song); the garden-positive Pas; and the silly Merpie. She's joined by talented musicians like Robin Burdette (of Rhythm Express) and Barbara McPherson on percussion, and the album was co-produced by Ariana Lightstorm of Kiva. One reviewer described it as "wonderfully affirming of the greener grass that grows in the post-homophobic, post-sexist realm," and is agreeable (MRP1) CS: 9.98

Kathryn Warner

Glass House

Folk, funk, blues and ballads by one of the most powerful new voices to emerge on the scene. Joined by veterans Nina Gerber, Mary Watkins, Jean Fineberg and June and Jean Milington, Kathryn and musical partner Sandy Ayala offer this finely crafted album which includes the introspective Surrender to the River, the playful dance track Must Be Love, and the haunting Prisoner in My Head. (FAB806) CS: 9.98

Lesbian/Gay Chorus of San Francisco

Together in Harmony

Take note! This 1994 release is the first-ever lesbian/gay choral recording... from the largest and oldest (110 voices, 14 years) mixed-voice openly-identified lesbian/gay chorus in the world! Not only that, they focus on the works of lesbian and gay composers, making their music a true celebration of the contributions of lesbian and gay artists. Includes Three Songs on Texts by Marguerite Radclyffe-Hall, with music by their accompanist Dwight Okamura; Survivors by John-Michael Albert; Reason To Sing by Rick Weaver, founding director of the Nashville Men's Chorus and now a member of this one; and many more. Under the direction of Pat Parr, they sing beautifully, while accomplishing a wonderful mission. Recommended! (LGCT) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

MINT JULEPS

Lesbian & Gay Chorus of Washington, DC We Shall Not Give Up the Fight

To celebrate 10 years of performing in 1994, this 30-voice chorus presents an album of their best-loved and most-requested songs from live concert recordings. Includes songs by writers such as Lucie Blue Tremblay and Leah Zicari, various freedom songs, and selections from their acclaimed performance at the Gay and Lesbian Association of Chorus (GALA) Festival. (L&GW1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mint Juleps Round Our Way

Finally, here's the American debut by a vibrant 6-woman a cappella group from London's East End... who combine soul, gospel, reggae, pop and doo-wop in unique arrangements. Some of you may know them from their contributions to the Do It A Cappella compilation, or from their appearances on "Saturday Night Live." This album combines live material and studio performances of their original songs mixed with covers of crowd pleasers such as The Snake, Higher and Higher, Mumbin' Boy and more — their songwriting and vocal talent is sure to capture the imagination of music lovers everywhere. (MT8052) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Herri Hammons

This Denver-area artist has been bringing packed houses to their feet, and her 1993 debut has been released by Aramis Records, whose mission it is to bring new women artists — especially lesbian artists — into the forefront of the music industry. It's smooth and polished, revealing jazz, rock and pop influences... From her driving anthem of testing the boundaries of self and society, Step Outside, to her story of self-preservation over love, The Wall, she displays a multi-level talent. Taking the lead from the bass line of her songs, she offers listeners a tour de force of emotion and depth. (ARM101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Susan Herrick Soul Chant

We're so thrilled this artist has blessed us with another release for 1994! It includes songs she's been performing to wild audience response (and getting lots of requests that she put them on an album) — such as Motherland, Thunder, A Little More Laughter, Climb Your Tree, No Way Out — and features guest artists Margie Adam and Justina & Joyce. Soulful, sincere, insightful, passionate, intense, healing, rhythmic, mystical and archetypal... these are the words that come to mind when reflecting upon Susan's music, and it's been a joy for us to experience her growth as an artist. Highly recommended! (WFR1003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Wild Mango Made In Mango

Wild Mango (formerly Mango Jam)'s all-original music mixes strains of various world musics blended with contemporary American jazz. This 7-woman band features talent from several multi-cultural groups, such as The Blazing Redheads, Alfazor, The Cairo Cats, and Grupo Campana. From the liner notes of this 1994 release: "The urgency of the beat is channeled through elegant structures held together by unique combinations of Latin American, Middle Eastern, and European instruments... And when the Wild Mango voices sweep through the mix in lilting leads and exuberant harmonies, whether expressing the longings and the ecstasies of love or the philosophical convictions that sustain us in our daily lives, the words of Luckett and Rago's Calyposos ring true: the melody, the rhythm and time unite their voice with happiness." (RR9402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Yagottawanna Live!

"A funny, sassy, political hybrid of Elvis, Loretta Lynn and The Mormon Tabernacle Choir"... This a cappella trio (sisters Janet and Kathryn Thompson along with Cindy Garthwaite) are out to make the world a better place through the power of sight harmonies, compassionate thought-provoking lyrics and fluorescent hi-top sneakers. Recorded in their stomping grounds of New Hampshire, this album captures the fun and warmth these women exude as they spread their message of hope and concern. Humorous highlights are Walking After Midnight, Take Two — an update of the classic that is more apropos to these times... and The 48-Hour-A-Day Blues, for those who just cannot seem to stop doing so much. Also includes A Chat With Your Mother! (YGT793) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

— WILD MANGO —

Zrazy Give It All Up

This Irish pagan funk duo combines a synthesized beat with a tin whistle and sensuous vocals and mixes them well with intelligent sexy pop-lesbian feminist lyrics to concoct a very heady brew. Their world jazz - reggae - soul - funk makes them equally at home at the top of the Irish charts, at women's music festivals and at lesbian/gay/bisexual pride rallies. Maria Walsh and Carol Nelson have built upon their background as professional jazz musicians to create the infectious grooves of I'm In Love with Mother Nature and 6794700 (the illegal phone number which provides information on abortion to women in Ireland). Zrazy wants you to get down and funky with them while you are working to change the world. As their motto asserts — "Zrazy don't ask, they demand you watch." Irish import; exuberantly recommended! (VEL2015) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 17.98

Comedy

Karen Williams OUTrageous

"She's not afraid to be as raunchy as hell" foreshadowed her introduction on this live performance recorded at the North East Women's Musical Retreat. Sex and politics meet over an unabashed mastery of words that they didn't teach you in Sunday School... topics include Butch-Femme roles and some unique ideas for a national "How To Identify a Lesbian" campaign. So whether you've caught her or missed her on the festival scene, here's a sample you can take home to keep. 45 minutes, recorded on one side only. (AR2) CS: 10.98

Rock ♦ Pop

10,000 Maniacs MTV Unplugged

This 1993 release, an inspired final cadence to the ten-year period of musical growth and flourishing (yes, they're breaking up), is a collection of songs from throughout their career. As on Our Time In Eden, they call upon woodwinds, strings and percussion for many of the tracks. Includes a stunning rendition of Patti Smith's Because the Night, as well as acoustic versions of previously released songs such as Natalie Reads These Are the Days, Candy Everybody Wants, and Jezebel. (EL61589) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Longing In Their Hearts

With 5 out of 12 originals and nearly all live vocals and tracks, Bonnie has reunited with co-producer Don Was, engineer Ed Cherney, and many of the same players who appeared on Nick of Time and Luck of the Draw, for this 1994 release. Includes Love Sneakin' Up On You, Circle Dance, Hell To Pay, Dimming of the Day, Storm Warning and more. We haven't heard it yet as this blurb goes to the typesetter, but we're wild about her recent stuff, and are sure we (and you) won't be disappointed! (CAP61427) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro Walk the Dog & Light the Light

The voice, harmonies and keyboards are all Laura on this 1993 release destined to be a favorite among her fans. (Editor: I'm reminiscing about my 16th summer, living in Provincetown, first job and first rent, staying out all night to the strains of Stoned Soul Picnic... ah... Well, moving ahead a quarter century...) Soft rhythms chase each other after song with messages of love, respect for animals, reverence for artists and hope for children. She covers a topic here not often mentioned in mainstream media in The Descent of Luna Rossa, dedicated to her period. Other songs such as Louis's Church and Broken Window will keep this album on your personal play list for a long time to come. (CCL32411) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Rickie Lee Jones Traffic From Paradise

Smoky coffee-house images of a poet and a 6-string come quickly to mind on this '93 release. With power and style, her song portraits conjure up images as diverse as the little might suggest. Some stand-outs include Beat Angels, with its catchy rhythm, and Rebel Rebel, which while it won't fit into the coffee-house scenario, is not to be missed. (GEF24002) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Various Artists Philadelphia O.S.T.

Includes the haunting Oscar-nominated Bruce Springsteen and Neil Young songs that bookend this important film; incidental but satisfying pieces from the Inigo Girls and Sade; and, of course, the transcendent Maria Callas aria, La Mamma Mortu, from the most compelling and talked-about scene in the movie. Various Artists Born To Choose

Cowboy Junkies, REM with Natalie Merchant, Lucinda Williams, Tom Waits, NRBQ, and other artists join in on this 1993 compilation of rare and previously-unreleased tracks. It was created in support of a woman's right to choose, and proceeds will benefit NARAL (National Abortion Rights Action League), BWARE (Brooklyn Women's Anti-Rape Exchange) WHAM! (Women's Health Action and Mobilization). Whoopi Goldberg et al Sister Act 2 (O.S.T.)

The 1993 film sequel to the '92 blockbuster comedy again stars Whoopi as nightclub singer Delores Van Cartier, who goes undercover as a music teacher, and once again finds herself dodging dogma, rockin' religion and converting her "class from hell" into a choir from heaven. The album includes a medley of R&B classics from Whoopi and the Nuns, plus Dancin' in the Streets, Oh Happy Day, title track from Aretha Franklin, and more! (HR61562) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Drumming

Nuru (Nurudafina Pili Abena)

Drum Call

"Rhythm is life. Vibration is breath. The heartbeat is the core of one's being." So says Nuru, conga, djembe player, and Afro-Caribbean and West African percussionist, who some of you know from the OneSpirit duo... and we proudly release this mid-1994 album on the Ladyslipper label! It opens with an inspired program of calls, celebratory chants and prayers, to the orisa (pronounced "orisha"), or Yoruba deities. They're performed in the Yoruba/Lucumi language in a call-and-response style, with Nuru in lead, and several voices in response, with chants to deities such as Yemaya, ocean goddess and mother of all; Oshun, river goddess of love; Shango, god of thunder and lightning. Nuru then performs 3 all-instrumental djembe pieces; then to a Cuban instrumental, La Rumbera; and finally the unexpected hip-hop of the title track, with chorus and children's voices, and its critical message. Throughout, Nuru plays an astounding array of percussion, including 3 different congas (conga, quinto, tumbal), djembe, shekere, rain rattle, Ghanaian rain stick, bells, ago go, maracas, claves, djoung djoung, and more!! Experience the talent of this master percussionist... Highly recommended! (LR114) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

African

Angelique Kidjo

Aye

The very phenomenal artist has released a 1994 album: a seamless blend of driving funk, African cross-mythms and dance beats topped with her dynamic vocals. Songs include 'Yemadja, to the Goddess of water' ('We need to involve her/ to quench the destructive fire of our rage'), 'Tomba' ('Come down, Priestess of voodoo/ Come down! Teach us your wisdom'), and 'Apolo' ('At this moment don't despair, let's think of the love that mother earth offers us... Love, life, Mother Earth'). All songs include English and French translations. (MNO9934) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Letta Mbulu

Not Yet Uhuru

We've been searching for something by this fabulous South African vocalist, and are thrilled to discover this album. Following 26 years of voluntary exile from her homeland, she found her return to be a bittersweet experience. Her voice is as sweet, so pure, so full of emotion in its beautiful vibrato, and her material, while quite varied in style, primarily pertains to the struggle for freedom and unity... and on the title indicates, true freedom for the people of South Africa is still somewhere up ahead. If you like Miriam Makeba, you need to hear Letta Mbulu... very highly recommended! (FLT505) CD: 16.98

Miriam Makeba

Sing Me A Song

On this 1993 release, Miriam's still-magnificent voice interprets a mixture of pop, contemporary, and African material, in English as well as various South African languages, with some synthesized accompaniment. Featured artists include her daughter Bongeli on vocals, and a tune co-written by Bongeli called 'Serenade Me', and guitarist Ray Phiri from Paul Simon's band. A few surprising titles: 'Good Grunge', 'Generation Rap', 'Bass Rap'. (SDG12702) CD: 16.98

Latin American

African American

Me'Shell NdegeOcello

Plantation Lullabies

"I am Me'Shell NdegeOcello. I play bass. I write music and I sing. Oh, and I happen to be a lesbian." This outspoken black Lesbian, who "uncovers new musical ground with a gritty hybrid of jazz, funk, and hip-hop," is the first artist to be recorded by Madonna on her new Maverick label. The artist describes the title's paradox: "Plantation is a metaphor for all sorts of urban situations, from Harlem to the shantytowns in Jamaica, just black urban living sort of thing. Lullabies are songs to lull your soul to rest, to caress your mind. We haven't heard it yet as we go to press, but we've been reading about her in lesbian/gay publications like the Washington Blade and in the Life, and look forward with anticipation. Queen Latifah

Black Reign

Some great material on this 1993 release, her third. The song 'D.N.I.T.Y.' asks the male rappers of the world "Who you callin' a bitch?" This lively, danceable rap track has a more serious message: a call for unity among women to put an end to the put-downs... and she co-directed the corresponding video. Also includes 'Bring the Flavor LA', 'There But For the Grace of God', 'Just A Flirt', and more. (MOT6370) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock

I Got Shoes

Produced by Terri Reagon (who is also a guest performer), this 1994 release is a collection of 14 traditional and new songs selected for their ability to inspire, educate and empower youngsters growing up in troubled and confusing times. Adding their youthful voices to this joyful and powerful recording is the Sweet Honey in the Rock Children's Chorus. This is a stunning range of African-American music appropriate for children, including 'Tema Tema Tamall', 'African Numbers', 'Freedom Now', 'Freedom Train', 'Young and Positive', 'Down the Road I Be Going', 'Run Moly Run', 'Spirit Lullaby', and more. Azucar Y Crema (Sugar and Cream)

To Olidia, With Love

Love is the key word here; this all-women Latin/salsa band truly puts together their love for music, radiating passion and energy on their debut 1993 album. Lead by pianist/bassist Remy Amore Rodriguez, they project fresh musical vision incorporating various Latin, Afro-Cuban jazzy melodies and rhythms as composed by Remy. Lead vocalist Maria Cora, the noted Puerto Rican poet and cultural activist, burns the microphone with searing inspirations. Other musicians are Mary Gemini on keyboards, Robin Carter on flute, saxes and percussion, Tami Ellis on trumpet, vocals and percussion, with Cathi Ramos and Suki anchoring the rhythm section. Some of you '93 Michigan festies-goers will remember when they closed the daystage on Friday in a cloud of dust from everyone dancing wildly... Look for more to come from this band! (AYC1) CS: 9.98

Gloria Estefan

Mi Tierra (My Homeland)

In our opinion, her best release ever! With high-energy accompaniment by all-star Latin musicians including Sheila E. and Tito Puente, she performs a wide variety of songs in Spanish. The styles reflect and illustrate pride in her Cuban heritage as well as the musical tradition itself, with vibrant Afro-Cuban percussion and rhythms. The liner notes include translations as well as some information which will be helpful to a non-Latin audience — a bit of a cultural bridge. As her closing song says, "And with great admiration I offer this celebration of my roots/ I bring you this guaguancó (another typical Afro-Cuban rhythm). So you'll never forget this unusual rhythm! And to awaken your pride in your origins." (EPCS3807) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Lydia Mendoza

Mal Hombre

Lydia was the first famous recording star of Mexican-American music, from the late 1920's through the post-World War II period — she became known throughout the Southwest and the Spanish-speaking hemisphere as "La Carictonera de los Pobres" ("the singer of the poor people") — and the title cut of this album (1934) was her first big hit. The songs are priceless... a few tall tales of horrible, mean, incestuous men, but most are beautiful and passionate love songs for women. Includes 'Los Besos de Mi Negra/The Kisses of My Dark Woman', 'No Quiero Ser Casado/I Don't Want To Be Married', 'Celia, La Costenita/Woman From the Coast' ("I'm in love with you, woman of my soul"), and more. She plays 12-string guitar, mandolin and violin, with some additional accompaniment provided by members of her family. (ARR7002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa

Vengo a Ofrecer Mi Corazon

Thankfully, another title by Argentina's finest singer (in fact, one of the world's finest singers) at a reasonable price. This is the first time this album has been released domestic. Includes 'Madre de Madres', 'Venás Abiertas', 'Los Bailes Vida'. (PLG825434) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Celtic ♦ British Isles

Island Angel

Starting off with a whirlwind, 3-reel set, Altan performs with equally stunning virtuosity a pair of highlands, a strathspey, a Donegal mazurka of rare vintage, 3 Cape Breton jigs, other memorable tunes, and a closing piece of original instrumental music from which the album takes its name. Of the 5 vocal selections, 4 are sung in Irish, including Brig O' Ni Mhaile (Bridget O'Malley) and Dulaman. With this 1993 release, this Dublin-based sextet continues to garner recognition as one of the premier Irish traditional ensembles today. (GL1137) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Celli's Muse Circles of Stone

Celli's Muse (pronounced "Kay-lee's Muse") is a Houston-based duo comprised of Stephany Freeman and Mary Maddux, who spend much time researching and performing Celtic music from Scotland, Ireland and England. Their clear, powerful sopranos weave and soar in rich, beautiful harmonies, as they interpret traditional ballads such as Red Haired Mary and The Queen of Argyle. Robert Burns songs like Ae Fond Kiss... and even a contemporary song such as Judy Small's feminist Mothers, Daughters, Wives. Mary provides all the delicate guitar instrumentation, along with help from friends who play bodhran, tambourine, piano, dumbek and flute. Melodic, melismatic, and very very sweet. Cherish the Ladies Out and About

Regarded by some as America's most exciting Irish group today, this talented all-woman ensemble has never sounded better or tighter on this 1993 release, their second. Led by Cathie Ryan's gorgeous voice, the songs are seemingly memorized, from the Gaelic The Mídhinn Ráir to Cathie's own The Missing Piece... from strathspeys to reels (with step-dancing!), jigs, waltzes, polkas, and a slice. Eleanor McEvoy

"Hi! My name is Eleanor McEvoy, and I'm a singer/songwriter from Dublin, Ireland. These are some of my songs. Much love, blood, sweat, a few tears & a lot of fun have gone into the writing of them. Hope you enjoy them." That's what the artist wrote on the cover of the advance cassette for this release... and we hope you enjoy them, too. We were introduced to this artist when the A Woman's Heart compilation CD came out — it includes her duet with Mary Black on the title song. But on this debut solo release, she performs this original song with her own voice on overdubs — it's exquisite! 12 more of her compositions are also included, with a mixture of acoustic and electric accompaniment, exploring a variety of personal topics. Loreena McKennitt The Mask and Mirror

On this eagerly-awaited 1994 release, Loreena combines her Celtic influences with world music to create a magical work of deep beauty and profound mystery. She says, "I looked back and forth through the window of 19th century Spain, through the hues of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and was drawn into a fascinating world: history, religion, cross-cultural fertilization." Blending harps and fiddles with electric guitars and exotic percussion, mixing traditional songs with musical settings of Shakespeare and Yeats, this is a dazzling kaleidoscope of feelings unified by the intensity of her voice. Contains The Mystic's Dream, The Dark Night of the Soul, Marrakesh Night Market, The Bonny Swans, Full Circle. Instruments include cello (played by virtuoso Ofra Harnoy!), bouzouki, bodhran, tamboura, dumbek, oud, balalaika, Uilleann pipes and more. Highly recommended as usual! (WB45420) CS: 10.98 ... Talitha MacKenzie Solus

We were so disappointed when Talitha, lead singer on Mouth Music's debut release, didn't appear on their follow-up... and now we're so thrilled that she's got an album of her very own! This 1994 release blends traditional Gaelic mouth music and other Celtic elements with modern music technology and even dance beats on some tracks. This is essential music for those who love to explore the richness and variety of world music... don't miss it! (SHN79084) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Teresa Doyle Stowaway

Continuing to draw inspiration from the history of Prince Edward Island, Teresa Doyle imbues her music with a little more urgency this time around. Woven amongst imaginative arrangements of traditional Celtic songs are folk-rock originals that pay tribute to the Scottish settlers of the island. Belle Marie and Stowaway chronicle the lives of two extraordinary women who came to the island centuries ago. Marie Granville was tried and burned at the stake for witchcraft; Christie Campbell, a stowaway on an immigrant ship who was cast aside by her fellow settlers, went to live with the Miqmaq Natives. Once again, Teresa seemingly effortlessly expands our understanding of "Celtic" music with her musical skill and savvy. (BL503) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Middle Eastern

Yosefa

Calling all Ofra Haza fans: don't miss this similarly exciting 1993 "world beat dance" release! This young vocalist was born in Israel of Moroccan and Yemenite descent; she began her career as a soloist while serving in Israel's armed forces, and has continued in an upward spiral of success in both the Middle East and Europe. Native instruments such as the kanoun, oud, zurna, eastern violin and clarinet combine with traditional percussion such as the darbouka and tin drum; these are blended with western technology and production technique to create an amalgam both mystically ancient and hi-tech. Includes Green Eyed Lady, Yaraya ("I feel the presence of Yaraya — the spirit of love. She travels beside me through the desert"), and the traditional Moroccan Sidi Hbib. Recommended! Native American

Alice Gomez Flute Dreams

This 1994 release is a particularly evocative instrumental album with a multiple-flute sound, revealing influences of the cultural heritage of the Native peoples of the Americas (especially Aztec, Inca and Mayan)... and reflecting the specific belief that playing a flute or a variety of flutes would bring special dreams. Composer Alice Gomez is a Mexican-American of Mayan descent, with several symphonies and chamber works to her credit. Here she plays keyboard, guitar and ceremonial acoustic percussion. Along with her sister Madaiye Blanchett on recorder/flutes and Marilyn Rife on marmba, keyboards, and more percussion, she has created gorgeous music which ranges from primal/ritual to symphonic in scope. You may already be familiar with some of their other work, if you've listened to Marimba Quest. Gorgeous... Recommended! (TT125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle (w/K Gardner) The Shaman's Cave

This late 1993 release contains 11 songs actually recorded in an ancient ceremonial Shaman's cave, known to have been used by two-leggeds for at least 6000 years, with beautiful background flute music by Kay Gardner and Ken Light. Brooke stood deep in a vaulted, dripping chamber (a challenging setting for a "live" recording!) near where a stone altar still remains; when this altar was found, a huge old buffalo skull lay upon it, and a stone carved on one side with a bear, on the other side a buffalo. Includes Altar Song, Women's Healing Song, Vision Wise. (BME13) CS: 10.98

Jazz

Billy Tipton Memorial Sax, Quartet Saxhouse

This women's quartet is named in honor of the late sax player and jazz band leader who lived her life passing as a man in order to be accepted as a serious musician. The "all sax, all the time" (with a little bit of drum thrown in) configuration makes for an unusual and arresting listening experience: funk, klezmer, Bulgarian folk tunes and all the many manifestations of jazz. Amy Davis's original compositions and arrangements, with their darting intertwining melodies and delightful harmonies, attest to an innovative musical talent; and all members participated in writing these selections. You'd be hard pressed to find anything like their closing piece, Bus Horn Concerto, an entertaining give and take between the quartet and their mass transit system! (KFW143) CD: 15.98

Asian

Sheila Chandra The Zen Kiss

This 1994 release distills a range of vocal fascinations, from chromatic sound collages to the ineffable links between Islamic and soul vocal. Despite the fact that the album was released on Peter Gabriel's Real World Records label, it is not defined by ethnicity; rather, it is the product of a unique and compelling talent, the universality of which defies cultural or geographical boundaries. Straight Not

Bjork Debut

This stunning album is the first solo offering from the banshee vocalist of the Sugarcubes, the one and only alternative rock band from Iceland to make it big. Bjork Gudmundsdottir has a voice with backbone, powerful and bracing, and beautifully showcased here on a wide variety of tracks. The sounds travel from the funkiness of Bigtime Sensuality to the ambience of the Indian string section on Venus As a Boy; from the driving house pulse of There's More to Life Than This (recorded live at the Milk Bar to the solo jazz-harp accompaniment on the standard Like Someone to Love. The Breeders Last Splash

Wonderful cacophony! Delightful noise! The demise of the Pixies seems to have left Kim Deal with the time and energy to more fully realize the Breeders as a cohesive unit. The latest incarnation includes Kim and her sister Kelley on guitars and vocals, Josephine Wiggs on bass and vocals, and Jim MacPherson on drums. I can't pretend to understand every song on this 1994 album, but I don't care — it's just great fun! Can-Non-Ball, the hit single, is full of hooks — you can hear snippets everywhere in ads and promotional spots. The Breeders cross 60's sugar pop with surf music by way of Kim's Pixies past and throw in some sampled effects and grungy guitars to create the best aural party I've heard in a while. Concrete Blonde Mexican Moon

Once again Johnette Napolitano has written or co-written most songs here, and plays bass plus some guitars and percussion... and did the insert artwork... and, she sings! This powerful 1993 release really shows the range of feeling Johnette's voice is capable of delivering: yearning in Rain and dangerous in Jesus Forgive Me (For the Things I'm About to Say)... and the band has matured thematically, lyrically, and musically. Organized religion is put in its place in a couple of tracks; the Middle Eastern-inspired I Call It Love and Jonestown, which begins with the eerie voice of Jim Jones orating fanatically to his followers. The best yet from a band that really rocks and a woman whose voice makes me jealous! (CAP81129) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dead Can Dance Into the Labyrinth

This 1993 release, marking the duo's debut on a US major label, finds them deepening their mystique and expanding their sonic scope. Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry's contrasting vocal styles (her shimmering purity, his medieval crier) are set against a curio shop of musical inspiration that spans everything from 12th Century Gregorian chants to 20th Century contemporary. Includes Yulunga (Spiral Dance), which will also be released as a video; Ariadne; and the traditional song The Wind That Shakes the Barley. A haunting mix of the ancient and the exotic, once again. (4AD45384) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Del Rubio Triplets Three Gals, Three Guitars

Utterly, utterly singular. This trio of triplets is recommended for those with a keen sense of camp! Monk Magazine describes them as an "ageless-retro-lounge act"... they've been in the biz for over 40 years, touring with Bob Hope in the 50's, and have recently been rediscovered with the help of their friend and business confidant Pee Wee Herman. The Del Rubios have attracted a sizable gay following with unusual harmonies and imaginative arrangements that turn your old and new favorites inside out. This 1988 release includes their vision of the Pointer Sisters' Neutron Dance, the Bangles' Walk Like An Egyptian, plus These Boots Are Made For Walkin', Light My Fire, Hey Jude, Ding Dong The Witch Is Dead, Fever, and more. Being hailed as her most personal album to date ("an album of immeasurable depth... of love and longing... of incredible beauty..."), this 1993 release has been 3 years in the making. Written and produced by Kate herself in the secluded privacy of the studio Kate built in a converted barn at her family's farm, the project has been enshrouded in mystery... but word has spread throughout her network of fans, who await this with tremendous excitement. Liz Phair Exile in Guyville

Usually this reviewer finds albums with the "college radio sound" mind-numbingly boring; but this hit of the university soundwaves grabs you by the seat of the pants and makes you want to listen. With her guitar, this post-modern woman gives us an intelligent, mid-20's view of life and her various kinds of relationships with "guys". The production is sparse, highlighting the monotonic yet infectious vocals. Stand-out cuts are Mesmerizing, with its Rolling Stones-like fat guitar lines, d'?, and Dance of the Seven Veils. Recommended! (MAT51) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Meryn Cadell Bombazine

The clever off-beat lyrics of this exciting 1993 release (one of the most promising in our spring '94 edition) express an intelligent, original, openly bisexual, sardonic view of life. This Canadian artist clearly revels in words, combining traditional song structure with spoken word musings to perfectly capture what it is like to be twenty-something and not really sure about the who's, the what's, the where's, the how's and the why's. Voice for Gloria, the best person to sex with a woman this reviewer has ever heard, contains the line which is the philosophical anchor to the whole enchilada, "You don't have to do anything that you don't want to, but don't get up in arms about what others choose to do." Jonny and Betty opens the album with a bang, with lyrics about gays and gay-bashing. Abelene and Window of Opportunity were co-written with K.D. Lang's collaborator, Ben Mink (he also accompanies on strings, guitar and more), with musical references to Ingenue yet completely original. Extremely, extremely recommended! No Safety Live at the Knitting Factory

This 2-woman 3-man band creates rock songs — many with "in your face" gay themes, primarily by member Chris Cochran — supported with heavy bass, controlled feedback, distorted guitars, a variety of textures, and a strong, tightly wound, sometimes eccentric sensibility. On this 1993 release, their hard-core edge has softened just a bit from their previous efforts, allowing for some improvisation and international sound — some can probably dance to the more followable rhythms! Includes Kind Year Old With an Oar, Hard Ass, Ms. Quoted, He's Some Right of a Dope Bitch, Master/Slave, Man or Monkey ("Eve didn't make a monkey out of a man; she made a man out of a monkey"). (KFW149) CD: 15.98

Red Hot Organization: Various No Alternative

This 1994 release from the Red Hot Organization (Red Hot & Blue and Red Hot & Dance) offers up some tunes for the rest of us. They say, "It is our belief that these songs simultaneously create one beautiful clamor and serve as a soundtrack to this suspended moment in time... We have no better voice than a community of bands... who have helped awaken us to the fact that music not only has the power to speak to a generation but for a generation. Don't categorize. Just listen." Foremother Patti Smith introduces Memorial Song by describing the loss of friend Robert Mapplethorpe. Also contains selections by The Breeders, Sarah McLachlan, and current alt-rock anti-heroes Smashing Pumpkins. Net proceeds will be donated to AIDS organizations worldwide. Here's a chance to expose yourself to some new sounds and support the ongoing battle against AIDS — two great reasons to recommend this album! (ARH737) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tori Amos Under the Pink

More candid observations about God, sex and personal relationships (often within the same song!), Tori takes some stylistic detours down the industrial, experimental path and pulls it all off with her usual disarming charm and aplomb. While Little Earthquakes was about a woman coming to grips with victimization, this 1994 effort describes a woman taking control both of her life and of her being. Includes Corvidae Girl, Bells for Her, Space Dog, The Wellness, Yes Anastasia, Part the Mission and The Wrong Band. Thumbs up to her for her voice as well! (ATL62567) CS: 10.98 ... Folk

Anne Louise White Then Again

Flying solo after work with both Trapeze and the Sanders, Kase and White trio, Anne blends a blues sound with contemporary folk for a gentle, 1993 album of stories and life lessons. Includes a couple of covers, such as Sandy Denny's Who Knows Where the Time Goes? and a soft-voiced version of Unchained Melody for those who like the song but not the Righteous Brothers! Primarily originals, though, not to be missed is the title song, about magazine images and how to overcome them ("take the magazine with the pretty little model, put her teeth my puppies and she keeps my floor dry"). Caroline Aiken Live at the Attic

A mainstay of the Atlanta acoustic scene, Caroline Aiken is someone who has paid her dues. Her voice is well seasoned by the heartaches of life, and her songs are those of a woman who has gone through the wringer and shares what she finds on the other side. The Indigo Girls, who credit her for getting them started as professionals, join in on the rousing Sailors/Aiken composition (and Indigo Girls concert staple), White House Blues. Emily contributes vocals and guitar on Another on the Rise, and Dede Vogt is featured on several tracks. That this finely-honed talent has not made the big time is one of the great injustices of our time. But this 1993 release, recorded at Eddie's Attic, is a surefire antidote to musical mediocrity. (CA1) CD: 15.98

Carrie Newcomer An Angel At My Shoulder

If you are crazy for Mary-Chapin Carpenter, give this a serious listen! She's by no means a newcomer to the scene, with several albums already in her discography, though this 1994 release marks her debut on a national independent label. It features a wide range of vocal stylings, from tough and punchy to warm and tender, with her resonant voice the constant. Her surfacing role as contemporary poet is a resounding accent to her distinct musical abilities. When there's an "angel" in the title these days, it seems like you can be assured there's top-notch folk talent inside (like DeMent, The Story, Rory Block, Patty Larkin), and Carrie's no exception. Cindy Kallet/Ellen Epstein/M Cicone Only Human

We're so glad that Cindy, Ellen, and Michael again collaborate for this 1993 release of vocal traditional and contemporary folk tunes, because they have such a warmly healing and elegant sound. Over half of the 15 songs are performed a cappella, with the rest accompanied by various combinations of guitar, hammered dulcimer, piano, violin, cittern and conga (this last by Marybeth Paffrath of Libana). Titles include I'm a Mammy, I But a Little Girl, The Mithrii Bhan, Be Like A Bird which you may know from Libana's repertoire, and Enya's Evening Falls. O lovers of the human voice, we do recommend this to you! (OAM2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cowboy Junkies Pale Sun Crescent Moon

More of their late-night-driving-through-the-heartland sound. More of their sad, quietly mournful tales of the down and out. Even though their song Pale Sun poses the question "Is it better to have words left unsaid than to have words misunderstood?" you already know that their answer, on this 1994 release, is a careworn yes. Freyda & Acoustic Attitude Midnight at Cabell Hall

If there's a more beautiful voice than Freyda Epstein's in all of folkdom, please someone tell me whose it is! We've been her major fan since her days with Trapeze, and she shines as brightly on this 1993 collaboration with Ralph Gordon (bass, violin) and Bob Vasile (guitar, cittern, vocals). Freyda is also an exceptional violinist and violist whose playing style blends classical technique with organic folk textures, painting musical pictures of intense mood and color. The musical arrangements range from once-classy and classical, lovely and timeless — it's a dramatic debut release which we highly recommend! (RH55) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

RORY BLOCK Angel of Mercy

Only Human

Indigo Girls Swamp Ophelia

This May 1994 release covers a broad range of emotions and musical thoughts, from Power of Two, a simple, hopeful love song, to Ruch Me Fall, a raw opus that deals with ego, the industry and true love, then journeys lyrically and musically toward chaos. Least Complicated is about learning lessons in love and life, and This Train (Revised) is a stark, powerful piece written after a visit to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. Guest artists include Jane Siberry, Lisa Germano, and the Roches. (EPC57621) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Kate Wolf Looking Back At You

From the back roads of the north coast of California, the transfixing voice of this beloved artist rang true for more than a decade, beginning in the mid-'70s. Her singing and songwriting were rooted in the pure folk tradition, which shares the simple joys and pains of everyday life with a near-confessional intimacy. Her performances and recordings were winning her an increasing legion of fans when she died of leukemia in 1988. This 1994 release presents 10 early Kate Wolf renditions of original songs, traditional folk ballads, and songs from some of her favorite contemporaries like Jackson Browne and Leonard Cohen. Like many of her best albums, it was recorded live in concert, at various venues in Los Angeles between 1977 and 1979. Includes Byd On A Wave, Hold On To Me Babe, and more. (RM71613) CD: 15.98

Laurie Lewis True Stories

Laurie's music is so honest and pure, it's hard to doubt the truth of any of the stories she sings to us in her sweet, somewhat melancholy voice on this 1993 release. With a cast of great supporting musicians like Nina Gerber and Mike Marshall, she sings originals like Va's Cabin and Knocking On Your Door Again; traditional tunes such as Singing Bird; and a smattering of songs by other contemporary songwriters. (ROU0300) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lui Collins Moondancer

There has always been a deeply spiritual basis to the music by this New England singer-songwriter, and it has never been more true than on this 1993 release. Subtitled Journey of the Child Within, each song reflects the revelations of ever-spiraling-inward layers of self-exploration, through pain and anger to safety, release, liberation, joy and love. Accompanied by musicians such as Linda Worster, Lorraine Lee and Eugene Friesen, she performs Invocation, The Holy Instant, Mermaid's Lullaby, Blessed and title track, with her smooth, evocative, lovely voice. (MLG1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary McCaslin Broken Promises

We welcome with open arms this 1994 release, Mary's first album of new songs in many many years (we've lost count, but take our word for it). They still have her signature, minor keys and interesting tunings, original interpretations of Lennon/McCartney tunes (this time Help), and a blend of songs about the West and more personal subjects — but this time, the latter predominates. Includes The Baggage Song, Someone Who Looks Like Me, Ghost Train. (PH1160) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Megon McDonough Blue Star Highway

Fresh from touring with the 4 Bitchin' Babes, Megon brings forth this album of contemporary folk tunes. A beautiful voice with the slightest hint of a Honky-Tonk tone leads the charge on songs like A Woman's Got Her Pride and Boots To Glory. A softer jazz sound is found on My One and Only Love, and the interesting rhythms of simple percussion blends splendidly with her voice on The Body Is A Car. Cassettes are out for 1993, CD's in early 1994. (SR52) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rory Block Angel of Mercy

Another milestone in Rory's continuous musical path, this 1994 release focuses on her songwriting talent which, combined with contemporary production, yields an album that goes beyond the rural blues beginnings of her career. Some of the songs relate to her endless travel and years on the road (If Be Gone); others are about women's views on love (title track) — or the lack of it (Love Without the Heart), homelessness (Somebody's Baby), sleazy agents (Big Bad Agent Man), and other important subjects. Her son Jordan contributes vocals on a couple of tracks. (ROU3126) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrells What Does It Mean To Love?

Rosalie once again emerges triumphant with this 1994 album which she says "started out to be a children's album, but (became) a conversation between an old woman... me... and a child... me." She combines the whimsy and lightheartedness of the best children's music with the maturity and seasoned voice of the veteran folksinger which she is. Includes stories and songs by Emily Dickinson, Malvina Reynolds, Coleate, Ogden Nash, Antoine de St. Exupery, Dr. Seuss, Rudyard Kipling, and Rosalie herself. Her natural and unaffected singing brings each song to life as no one else can — for children young and old! (GL2113) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan Fumbling Towards Ecstasy

This 1994 release from a ruby-throated artist is pure sensation. Introspective lyrics weave through the beautifully restrained production — a subtle mix of guitar, bass, drums and keyboard topped off by Sarah's layered vocals. The title track along with Good Enough and Circle shimmer with soulful intensity and strength. Ice Cream serves up a lassy comparison of love to chocolate as well as to our favorite frozen treat (mmm!). Sarah skillfully rounds out the triumvirate she shares with Kate Bush and Tori Amos. Includes an unfinished bonus track; extremely recommended. (AR8725) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Smith & Bakken Feel So Alive

We became familiar with this duo at the RhythmFest festival, and are glad for the introduction! Their tight, polished blend of rhythmic acoustic rock, blues and folk is quite captivating, and listening to this 1992 album will demonstrate their purported power to "tame a barroom, incite a riot in a coffeehouse or capture the hearts of a festival audience." Lisa Smith, who previously performed as a duo with Suzy Bogguss, wraps her voice around her guitar to pay a perfect compliment to Miki Bakken's heart-wrenched vocals. Be on the look-out for more from these talented gals! (DK1602) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Uncle Bonsai Boys Want Sex in the Morning

Fans of Christina Lavin should definitely check out this album. Recorded live in their hometown of Seattle, their trademark tight harmonies and skewed stage banter are shown off to their best advantage. This 2-woman 1-man ensemble of Benetton College Alumni offers up everything from Isaac's Lament (that's the bartender from the "Love Boat"), to the motherly advice in Don't Put It In Your Mouth, to the school spelled Cheerleaders on Drugs to the hilarious title track. In spite of the cover art (which repulses our catalog's editor and will probably elicit a similar response from some of you), the album's very funny, very well sung, and very recommended. (FRE1911) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Country

The Dixie Chicks Shouldn'ta Told You That

With no lack of rhythm or twang, this 1993 release is solid country, with 10 songs that are the cowgirls' road-tested winners. They put together the traditional lyrics — you know, "trouble love — sorry!" with a generous helping of steel guitar, dobro and a splash of piano and banjo. Sounds much like the music Mom warned me on, in fact her birthday is coming up... includes notables Whistles and Bells, Destiny, I Want Looking For You. Nanci Griffith The MCA Years - A Retrospective

18 of Nanci's best-loved songs selected from her major-label discography, including From A Distance, Late Night Grande Hotel, Trouble in the Fields, Ford Economic, Listen To the Radio, Love at the Five and Dime, and more. (MCA10914) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Classical

Benedictine Nuns

Gregorian Chant: Venite Ad Me

Beautiful medieval compositions sung by the calm, stilling voices of the Benedictine Nuns, radiating a purity of heart and a sense of atonement, with a depth of devotion and peace that is almost unparalleled. These chants are from the Feast of the Sacred Heart. (NW151) CS: 5.98 ... CD: 15.98

Benedictine Nuns

Gregorian Chant: Adorate Deum

These Gregorian chants from the liturgical year — Advent, Christmas, Lent/Holy Week, and Easter — are sung in the original Latin by the Nuns in their own Abbey, with chants and texts which vary in character according to the liturgical season or theme. Centering and uplifting. (NW155) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Musica Femina

Heartstreams

On this 1993 release, our favorite flute/guitar classical duo presents a lively variety of original "new acoustic" instrumental music — drawing upon Janna MacKusick and Kristan Asper's backgrounds in both folk and classical genres. Compositions include: Blochberg, a tribute to women healers who were burned as witches, and a celebration of contemporary women's circle energy worldwide; Open Door, inspired by the fear and elation of "coming out of the closet"; April's Day, a Renaissance-like dance with variations; Ocean Moon Chant, a simple musical line written at the ocean and performed here as a 20th century minimalist piece; De Mi Corazon, a very romantic musical valentine from Janna to Kristan; and many more. As a whole, the album communicates the artists' joys and struggles of nurturing a long-term loving relationship with each other and with the Earth. Serene and beautiful (and somewhat reminiscent of the beloved early Kay Gardner/Mag Christian instrumental duets — if you loved Lunamuse, you'll love this); highly recommended! (LIL4) CS: 9.98 ... Tales of the City (2-Tape Set)

The author reads his charming fictional chronicle of the denizens of a San Francisco apartment house circa 1979. Culture Club & Boy George

At Worst... Best of...

19 smash hits — a whole decade's worth! Includes all of Culture Club's biggest hit singles: Karma Chameleon, Do You Really Want to Hurt Me, and more... plus Boy George's solo triumphs, up to and including the 1993 comeback victory. The Crying Game. We haven't seen the album art yet as we go to press, but the pre-release flyer has a picture of Boy George, about which our sales rep wrote: "Here's your requested Boy (Girl) George info. He's looking pretty butch in that tweed suit, no? Nice herringbone check." We just had to share that with you. (SBK38041) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bill Russell & Janet Hood

Elegies For Angels/Punks/Raging Queens

Inspired by a viewing of the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt, Bill Russell began assembling poetry and writing his own verses to make a theatrical canvas of the many types of people both infected and affected by AIDS. A touching memorial to those who have been claimed by AIDS and a source of comfort for those left behind. Music by Janet Hood, still remembered by us as one half of the fabulous Jade and Sarasapilla duo. (FN2035) CD: 16.98

A Wise Tale About What Is Enough

Carolyn Gage

The Second Coming of Joan of Arc

Playwright Carolyn Gage has been touring nationally since 1989 in this award-winning one woman show. This electrifying reworking of a teenage lesbian Joan smashes the patriarchal stereotypes in this epic drama of betrayal and revolution. A bracing reminder of why feminism is so essential. Clarissa Pinkola Estes

The Gift of Story

Subtitled A Wise Tale About What Is Enough, this is a series of interlinking stories that answer the question, "What is enough?" They are healing stories born of deep suffering and handed down to the author/storyteller by elders within her foster family... about the bounty we have to give when there is nothing left to give... illustrating how love survives regardless of loss, and how the simple gestures are often the most rich. 60 min. Dorothy Allison

Bastard Out of Carolina (2-Tapes)

This amazing, wonderful, fabulous southern writer (we're fans — can ya tell?) reads her compelling, extraordinary story of a young girl caught up in family violence, incest, and redemption. Even if you've already read the book (perhaps especially if you've read the book), you'll love this... she's such a great reader. 2 cassettes, approx. 3 hours, abridged, recommended! Mehn's Music

Fred Small

Everything Possible

More topical songs of conscience on this 1993 release — a follow-up to his highly acclaimed album Jaguar — including Rodney King's Blessing and The Marine's Lament, or the Pink Pearl, which is a gently comic depiction of the tragedy inherent in the negative attitude toward gays in the military. Still one of the finest song-writers of our time. (FP625) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 15.98

Queer Conscience

Back To the Other World?

Queer conscience music is about the Queer experience: lives, issues, and songs. This very provocative, OUT music, performed by Rick Cresswell and others, deals with issues facing the Gay Community, such as outing, gays in the military, queer role models, queer definitions of family, and being visibly "out", to name a few. Rick's voice reminds some of us here of the Moody Blues, and the accompaniment is synthesized and often danceable. Songs include Harvey (The Ballad of Harvey Milk); Jamie, which proclaims the love and commitment of one man to his husband; title song, about the religious right; and But You're Not Threatened, about the cowardice of stereotypical straight males. Doug Stevens & The Outband

Out in the Country

Well, this little of reviewer couldn't two-step if her life depended on it, but if you're blessed with a little rhythm, there's lots here for you — and even if you're not, it's great listening. This 3-man 4-woman band showcases some snugglin' songs like Sweet Breath of Love and Joven Amor Tejanos as well as some heel-kickin' tunes like Born in Mississippi... also includes HIV Blues and Cactus County, which features alternate lead singer Desiree, Nydia "Liberty" Mala on drums and percussion, Lorn Sklamberg on guitar and accordion are a couple of the familiar band-members. Look for them on the '93 March on Washington video! (DGS101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maya Angelou

On the Pulse of Morning

Maya Angelou first explains the origins of some of the imagery in her amazing, powerful poem which was the most moving and memorable highlight of President Clinton's inauguration in January of 1993 (in fact of any presidential inauguration ever)... and then she reads it, on this commemorative edition. 10 minutes. Wouldn't Take Nothing...

In this beautifully rendered series of inspirational reflections entitled Wouldn't Take Nothing For My Journey Now, this author/poet/sage speaks from the soul with the wisdom of a lifetime. In a voice that vibrates with strength and pierces with honesty, she serves up the essence of her thoughts about how spirit and spirituality move and shape her life; about service and grace and giving; about how she celebrates the spirit of her people and the earthy sensuality of the sisterhood. 90 minutes. Sandra Bernhard

Love, Love, and Love

Sandra reads her own creative, bitter, tender, scathing, ugly, beautiful stories about fascinating people you would not necessarily want to know. On this 1993 recording, she wildly carns from social commentary to tales of very emotionally damaged relationships to quiet poetic moments. Very high percentage of lesbian content, albeit about no one you would want to admit knowing/being! (SMB3338) CS: 11.98

Turtle Creek/ Dallas Women's Chorus

John Rutter: Requiem/ 5 Anthems

This 1994 album is a stunning combined performance by the 100-voice Women's Chorus of Dallas and the 200-voice Turtle Creek Chorus, with Timothy Seelig conducting. They perform a rich and emotionally moving program by John Rutter, one of today's most-performed composers of choral music. His Requiem was influenced by the intimate, contemplative style of Palestrina and his shorter pieces — A Gaelic Blessing, All Things Bright and Beautiful, and more — share this lyrical quality. The 300 voices of the combined choruses have performed in Carnegie Hall, at Texas Governor Ann Richards' inauguration, and in a command performance for Queen Elizabeth II! With accompaniment on harp, cello, pipe organ, several winds and tympani, this is one of the best choral albums we've heard... Highly recommended! (REF37) CD: 15.98

Donna E Learn to Country Western Dance

This is a great instructional video for both two-stepping and country line dance! This nationally known dance instructor and DJ gives easy to follow, step-by-step instructions for the Texas Two-Step, the Waltz, and two of the most popular line dances, the Tush Push and the Tahoe Kick. In her usual warm authentic style... you'll see why she's a favorite at women's music festivals, cruises, conferences, and gay/lesbian clubs. Great tunes too: features Teresa Trull's 'Keep On', Laurie Lewis' 'Love Chooses You', Mary-Chapin Carpenter's 'Girls With Guitars'. Artfully produced by renowned photographer Irene Young and Melanie Moomin, with cutaways of women at actual dances, some of which utilize special effects. Recommended! (BWP1VC) 24.98

Donna Read, director Goddess Remembered

This stunning and poetic documentary is a salute to 35,000 years of "pre-history" to the matriarchal cultures of ancestors only recently remembered, and to our ancient goddess-worshipping religions. The caves of prehistoric France, the mysterious earthworks of ancient Britain, and the sun-drenched palaces of Delphi and Crete are brought to life here, in Part One of the Women and Spirituality series, with exquisite musical accompaniment by Loreena McKennitt. We've been receiving calls for years from folks looking for this film series, and we're glad to finally be able to offer them to you. (DCL307VC) 39.98

Donna Read, director The Burning Times (Video)

Part Two in the Women and Spirituality series offers new insights into the legends and misconceptions that surround the term witch. In this attempt to eradicate the woman-based power of midwives, wise old crones and healers, the Christian church instigated a reign of terror which resulted in the genocide of millions of women and the destruction of what had been an organic way of life. The film illustrates how this sanctioned torture and murder set the stage for modern society's cultural acceptance of massive violence against women. Building on ideas set forth in the discovery of goddess-based culture, this is a beautifully crafted tribute to the value and strength that women brought and bring to life. Music by Loreena McKennitt; highly recommended! (DCL330VC) 39.98

Donna Read, director Full Circle

In this final part of the Women and Spirituality trilogy, the filmmaker examines the many present-day manifestations of the women's spirituality movement. She finds authors like Anita Cameron, leaders and social activists like Starhawk, and others, meeting around kitchen tables and in circles on hilltops, discussing spirituality and performing rituals that give them strength to transform their inner beliefs into political and social action. This is her most personal film of the three — she discusses her own journey — and we finally learn about the dancer who has appeared in all 3 films... so the title is a fitting one. Music again by Loreena McKennitt; recommended again! (DCL462VC) 39.98

Last Call At Maud's

Great film! It's a fascinating look at the life and times of the world's longest-lived lesbian bar (1966-1988), Maud's in San Francisco. Interwoven are rare archives of the gay bar scene of the 40s, the vice raids of the 50s, and the counterculture of the 60s, together with personal stories of coming out, sexual politics, and humorous adventures. Includes commentaries by luminaries such as Sally Gerhart, Judy Grahn, and JoAnn Loeb... a witty and informative look at cultural evolution in the making. (WBF0404VC) 39.98

The Lesbian Avengers Eat Fire Too

Subtitled A Documentary of the First Year, this is a humorous, inspirational, and all-around terrific film about the antics, actions, marches, and celebrations of this radical all-lesbian direct action group. Not heat nor snow nor gloom of night shall keep these cycles from the swift completion of their appointed missions... they eat fire, ward off evil-doers, fly to the aid of lesbians in need, challenge the Christian right at every turn, raise statues, out hair, start Dyke Marches, tell stories, and motivate lesbians around the world to take action and be visible. With contributions by Michael Callen, Larry Kramer, Diamanda Galas, Sarah Schulman, and others, this 1990 film by Rosa von Praunheim (a man) with Phil Zwickler is a powerful documentary about the NYC gay community's response to the AIDS crisis. "Having neither the time nor the patience to mimic words, groups like ACT-UP, Queer Nation, and Guy Me's Health Crisis demand a response to the epidemic that has threatened to annihilate them, by a society that would rather ignore them. There is a sense of strength and determination in this film that makes it an immensely important historical document." 80 min. (FIR4VC) 39.98

Alison Kinneir

The Harper's Gallery

One of the leading exponents of Scottish harp music, Alison carries on the tradition of the great crasachs (small harp) players of the past. The opening cut of this album is actually stunning—and I try never to use that word—on which Anri is joined by harpist Lucy Carolan, plus a fiddle and viola...transporting. The collection consists of courtly 16th, 17th and 18th century music. Alison lends her voice to a few of the pieces. Includes one said to have been written by Mary Queen of Scots the night before her execution. The recording quality is excellent—very bright and clear and almost eerily present. Recommended. The Red Crow

Considered to be one of the world's best bands playing Irish music, this 1990 release is their third. As is so often true, the one female, in this case ace vocalist/fiddler Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh (pronounced Ma-ra-dee Nee Mooney), provides the center and foundation for the rest of the ensemble. The selections offer a balanced mix of rhythms and tempos, with reels, jigs, ballads, waltzes; some are all-instrumental and some feature vocals. (GL1109) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Harvest Storm

This 1992 release contains 4 songs and 9 instrumental tracks of riveting music that both reaffirms and enlarges the international stature of this Irish band. Never complacent, they experiment with harmony and choral singing on such stirring songs in Irish as Dónal agus Mór and Mo Chóir, led by Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh's extraordinarily expressive voice. This album proves that their vocal blend can match the mastery of their fiery instrumental playing! (GL1117) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

If we could install flashing neon arrows on our catalog pages, we'd use one in this margin! Anisa on classical guitar and Valerie on flute and piccolo are a pair of musicians whose skill is honed to near perfection in their execution of medieval, renaissance, Irish, Spanish, and impressionistic compositions. The phrasing and arrangements are elegant and dignified; even the sequencing is just right. Includes Parson's Farewell, Goddesses and the lively, embellished Carolan's Concerto. Have we said enough? Highly recommended. (JM100) CS: 9.98

Capercaille

Crosswinds

This is the great 1987 debut release that introduced Karen Matheson's angelic vocals—soaring above mystical back-grounds—to the American public. These Scottish musicians move effortlessly from highly charged gigs and reels to serene, spellbinding ballads in both Gaelic and English, in a style that has been described as early Clannad crossed with Silly Wizard. Instruments include accordion, recorder and whistles, bouzouki, guitar, fiddle, basses, percussion. Do not miss! (GL1077) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Capercaille

Sidewalk

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited "walking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums; in the meantime, enjoy her here! (GL1094) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Ceoltóirí

Silver Apples of the Moon

Ceoltóirí continues to ascend heavenward, expanding their repertoire to include vocals and some original compositions. Connie continues her pristine guitar work while adding her celestial voice. Sue's harp work is flawless, and Karen adds pennywhistle and boxwood flute to her dulcimer contributions! The songs include Gaelic versions of Arise and Dress Yourself, and Ore Se Do Bhratha Sháile, which is sung in tribute to Grainne Mhaol, a woman pirate from the O'Malley Clan of County Mayo, plus a Yeats poem set to music, a celebration of Samhain (Halloween), the Scandinavian Polska Set and The Plain Girl's Lament. About half the selections are gorgeous instrumentals... Highly recommended! (MM202) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Ceoltóirí

Celtic Lace

Ceoltóirí ("Kyul-tory") is comprised of Sue Richards on Harp, Karen Ashbrook on Hammer Dulcimer, and Connie McKenna on Guitar, and "Lacey" is the correct image one gets from the compositions they combine: light, airy and delicate reels, waltzes, aires, jigs, pipe marches and strathspeys. While many Celtic musicians occasionally combine two tunes for an interesting medley, this is the first recording we can recall where all of the pieces are woven into quilt-like combinations; different textures and colors interspersed within a graceful and stately meter. lovely! Cherish the Ladies

The Back Door

Irish America's first all-woman music and dance ensemble has dazzled audiences in Ireland, the US and Canada; here's their first true ensemble album (1992). Jigs, reels, polkas and hornpipes pour forth with tremendous energy from these 8 musicians, and 2 tracks feature some extraordinary hard-shoe stepping! Cathy Ryan's lovely voice graces 6 of the 14 songs—one in Irish, the rest in English. Fiddles, bodhrans, flutes, tin whistle, guitar and banjo punctuate such songs as Jessie's Polka, The Shepherd's Daughter, Maire Mhor (Big Mary), and title song, which is dedicated to all undocumented Irish aliens. Cheryl Ann Fulton

The Airs of Wales

This 1991 debut recording is the stunning result of years of research, combined with a fierce love of beauty. The Welsh Airs, that delicate combination of folk music with more formal, almost classical composition, simply burst with imagery, as they are expressed on that incredible instrument for which many of them were intended, the Welsh Triple Harp. Consisting of 3 rows of strings, the tunings and design allow the musician to play two rows in unison, creating a lovely shower of delicate sound. Cheryl is a master of her instrument, and one feels grateful for her dedication to it and its music. Extensive, informative notes included. P.S. Her harp lies so often, accompanying Cheryl on concert tours. It has its own Frequent Flyer Pass! (KOC7071) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Clannad (with Enya)

Fainm

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire Ni Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Claran and Pol, and their 2 uncles, Padraig and Noel O'Dugain. Eithne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. Pronounced "foom" and meaning "sound," this 1981 release (the only complete Clannad album with Enya) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional; you will hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 8-part genetic harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (ATL82481) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Clannad

Banba

Gaelic and English lyrics laid gently over a haunting blend of traditional Celtic and contemporary rhythms characterize this 1993 release, which celebrates 20 years of recording together. Add in also an Abba-esque sound created by overdubbing lyrics on the song There For You, and it's hard to imagine anyone not liking at least something about this album. Face it, people everywhere are being captivated by their music, as it seeps into the background of everything from motion pictures to TV commercials; it's high time the artists are brought into the forefront! Includes I Will Find You (theme from The Last of the Mohicans, in which Maire sings in Mohican and Cherokee) and Mystery Game. (ATL82503) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Clannad

Crann Uil

This 1978 recording from Dublin's Tír Records contains pure traditional Gaelic and Irish material, impeccably performed, naturally revolving around Maire's heavenly voice... it's one of the last straight-forward, all-acoustic albums Clannad recorded before they embarked on their experiments with more contemporary sounds, includes Gathering Mushrooms (which does include sister Enya on supporting vocals), and The Last Rose of Summer. (TAR3007) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Clannad

Magical Ring

A gorgeous, magical mixture of Irish, Gaelic and contemporary sounds, with lyrics in both Gaelic and English, this 1982 crossover release was one of their pivotal albums in engendering a New Age following, and many fans consider it their best. Includes The Fairy Queen, Theme from Harry's Game, Newgrange, and other original and traditional tunes. Irish import; recommended! (TAR3010) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Clannad

Dulaman

In this 5-person family ensemble, it is the exquisite voice of Maire Ni Bhraonain which centers the vocal harmonies, and her harp playing which provides the focal point for the instrumental arrangements. Their repertoire consists of traditional Gaelic songs which they infuse with an up-tempo, improvisational yet precise and delicate musicianship, includes Two Sisters. (SHN79008) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Clannad

In Concert

Spectacular lead singer Maire Ni Bhraonain is Enya's sister, but if you didn't know that, you might deduce it when you hear their styles... and in fact, the entire ensemble consists of close relatives to these two! This album affords you a rare opportunity to hear this ensemble in person—almost! (I really do it if you ever have the chance.) Includes Fairies Hornpipe, Off to California, Down By the Sally Gardens, and many Gaelic tunes. (SHN79030) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Clannad 2

This is the earliest Clannad album still in print as we write this in 1993, because their first album, entitled simply Clannad, hasn't yet been re-released. It's also one of the most traditional ones, even though it was considered experimental at the time. It showcases Maire's harping skills, on O'Carra, Eleanor Plunkett, and of course her vocals on the several beautiful Gaelic songs, plus their trademark ensemble work. (SHN79007) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Connemara Anam

Six songs in English, two in Gaelic, plus two shimmering instrumentals... this 1991 release features a splendid combination of their earlier, more traditionally-based style with a foray into a contemporary Fleetwood Mac-flavored vein, incorporating the so-always-incomparable vocals of Maire Brennan (the Anglocized version of Bhrannan) — suited to the old and the new, that is to say, simply beautiful however she uses it — plus lovely saxophone, multi-layered backup vocals, and a softly effective rhythm section. Lyrics in Gaelic and English... recommended! (ATL82409) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Connemara Legend

Subtitled Music from the TV Series "Robin of Sherwood", this 1994 release features the impressive vocals of Maire Brennan, one of our favorite Celtic singers whose work we strive to make available here in the States. Ten songs, with titles like Lady Marian, Ancient Forest, and Darkness, all evocative of the tale. (TAH3012) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connemara Sirius

This 1988 release is a somewhat more contemporary experiment: Connemara holds true to their smooth sounds and rhythms, but strays from the basic trend of their other releases. Songs are originals by the Connemara, all lyrics are in English, and it's quite a bit more up-tempo, though still beautifully layered. Recommended for those trying to ease into Celtic and new Celtic music from a pop-oriented world. (RCA68946) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Connemara Macalla

Considered by some to be their best album, this 1986 release is also one of their most produced, with haunting, mystical effects created with synthesizer, multi-tracked Maire vocals, reverberating harmonies, and lots of contemporary instrumentation on top of their traditional accompaniment. Includes The Wild Cry, Closer To Your Heart, Baughall On Eirne. (RCA8063) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connemara Pastpresent

What do you do if you make a TV commercial to sell a cat, but the 300 number you flash gets flooded with requests, not for the ad, but for the incredible background music? Well, it happened with Harry's Game, one of the 16 songs on this 1989 compilation, which is primarily a retrospective of 4 previous releases: Sirius, Macalla, Legend, and Magical Ring, on which the original Harry's Game appeared (it was later included on Anam as well), and it also includes two songs not previously released. It gives a taste of the breadth of their styles, as always anchored by the incredible vocals of Maire Brennan. (RCA9912) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Clishmaclaver Hearing Double

The debut release by a long-acquainted duo is marked by its rich vocal harmony; Jennifer Cufey and Brooke Parkhurst blend complimentary voices in this collection which reflects their appreciation for the traditional Gaelic sound (even their name is a Scottish Gaelic phrase meaning "idle gossip"). They incorporate history into their songs, employing one of the oldest traditions of storytelling. For instance, Susanah Martin, the story of a woman accused in Old Salem of being a witch, is recounted as the timeless medium of the "song tale" is maintained. Also includes a sample of Scottish "mouth music" (a tickety-split tongue-twister), an Appalachian shape-note hymn and a few contemporary ballads. Recommended! (BRP001) CS: 9.98

Clishmaclaver Roots Entwined

This recording, the duo's second, features mostly acappella versions of Celtic (primarily Scottish) ballads and laments, both traditional and contemporary. They are also joined in spare, yet crystalline acoustic accompaniment — harp, bouzouki, or guitar — often one instrument per song, for a rich, clean sound... makes one think of sea-washed air and soft colors... Also includes Frankie Armstrong's I Don't Want Your Red, Red Roses, Twiddle, The Fire in the Glen, and Aileen Durr. (BRP002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connemara Beyond the Horizon

This DC-area trio performs beyond all expectation, beyond what can be described as beautifully, beyond your wildest dreams! Simply, one of the finest Celtic recordings we've received... Vocalist Grace Griffith breathes warmth and life into the carefully chosen and expertly arranged songs — the emotional resonance she creates is the closest to the incomparable Sandy Denny's that this reviewer has heard! Ace fiddler Cathy Palmer and harp virtuosa Tracie Brown round out the strong trio, each delivering award-winning performances. Soulful narrative tales intersperse with sprightly jigs, airs and strathspeys, all of which exude something special. A few interpretations of contemporary Celtic composers Loreena McKennitt (All Souls Night) and Connemara are included. Highly recommended! (CON2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Connemara The Tempest

Buy this for the opening track, from whence they drew their name! Flapies in the Rockpool: Kiss of the Fiddle relates to the life of the 16th century Irish pirate Grace O'Malley... and the first part of the tune was written by the band's fiddler, Cathy Palmer, at age 13! At the recording of their debut release, this ensemble consisted of 3 women and 1 man; here, their clear, strong vocals (especially Grace Griffith's), excellent instrumentation (fiddles, Celtic harp, bodhran, psaltery, concertina and bells), and a lovely repertoire make this a fine first recording for a band destined to go places. (CON1) CS: 9.98

Connie Dover Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scartaglen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scottish bands Silly Wizard, Capercaille and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 6th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connie Dover The Wishing Well

With Connie's second album, she's achieved the goal all artists seek — she's topped herself! A bit more upbeat than her debut, this 1993 release once again offers a magical mix of songs from Scotland, Ireland, and America; her voice is rich and clear, her phrasing delicate; and the pure acoustic backing is a collection of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland's and Ireland's finest traditional musicians. (TPM0201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Deanta

This is the debut album by a relatively young 2-woman, 2-man Northern Irish band who, while interpreting traditional songs with grace and sensitivity, also intermingle their own works, mostly instrumental, with a proper reverence for tradition. Lead vocalist Mary Dillon is a 2-time All-Ireland singing champion, and it's easy to see why — her sweet voice is soft and evocative of the innocence and hopefulness of girlhood. Mary additionally plays synth, guitar and harp; also features the fine instrumental work of Kate O'Brien on fiddle, viola and guitar, and Clodagh Warnock on bouzouki, fiddle, bodhran and percussion... helping to break the long-standing gender barrier for women instrumentalists in Irish bands! (GL1126) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

DeDanann (with Mary Black) Song for Ireland

Before launching her solo recording career, Mary Black was known as the breathtaking vocalist with DeDanann; and here is one of the albums on which she is featured, for those of you who want a more complete discography. This Irish band, whose name is derived from "Tuatha De Danann" — the people of the goddess Dana, transcends musical boundaries, while maintaining their advocacy for traditional music. (BUG1130) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dolores Keane Solid Ground

Known for her work with such influential groups as Planxty and DeDanann, one of Ireland's warmest voices now offers us a taste of what she can do solo, and it's delectable indeed! The title confirms the quality of her deep vocal timbre, words like deep-rooted and earthy come to mind, especially when she's harmonizing with the likes of Ennrylou Harist. Her (mostly) contemporary selections range from the courtly Storm In My Heart and the stately Emigrant Eyes, to the sprightly See Out and a surprisingly successful cover of Steve Yankwood's The Finer Things. (SHN8007) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dordan Irish Traditional & Baroque

Some of you long-time Ladyslipper customers may recall an album by Irish tin whistle master Mary Bergin called Feedogs Stain. She's back (again on tin whistle of course), joining forces with Kathleen Loughnane and Dearbhail Standun on harp and fiddle in a great new Irish trio. Their music ranges in mood from the delicacy and sensitivity of a chamber trio, to the vigorous attack characteristic of traditional musicians. Many pieces reflect the lively musical links between Europe and Ireland over the last few centuries. Included: Ah How Pleasant 'Tis to Love Sylvia, The Fairy Reel, The Queen of the West, From a Little Notebook for Anna Magdalena Bach. Recommended! (SHN79078) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ellidh Mackenzie Eideadh Na Sgeulachd

Or, The Raiment of the Tale: Songs of the Scottish Gael. It's not often we find a whole album sung in Gaelic, and we've lucked out here! Ellidh has won the Scottish national vocal medal for singing more than once, (as has her sister Gillan, who joins in on vocal harmonies here), and it's easy to hear why: her voice is light and airy, and infused with such sweetness and longing, it's simply unbelievable when she soft-harmonizes! The 14 songs feature traditional Gaelic material, like a Fuir a' beul melody, meaning a light-hearted tickety-split bit of nonsense (also known as mouth music), ballads and acappella love poems. Features Alison Kinnaird on Scottish harp... Delightful, and Western audiences who enjoyed the Bulgarian Women's Choir will probably like this as well. (TEM048) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya

This is Enya's debut album, and it's truly glorious! multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. Enya's definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice: complemented by millen pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! (ATL81842) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our lack of word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms In Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! (REP26774) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Enya Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "thickly" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of raw silk), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all entwining around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art... sigh... Highlights include the Gaelic Ebulla and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Frankie Armstrong And the Music Plays So Grand

This amazing British folk vocalist is known for her powerful delivery of material rooted in British Isles tradition but with a distinctly feminist and socially conscious bent, and she doesn't disappoint us on this live-in-concert 1978 album. We've long been a major fan, but her works have been hard to come by recently, so we're glad to have unearthed this gem! With songs such as The Factory Girl, Boys Will Be Boys, The Female Drummer, A Woman's Work, Peggy Seeger's Winnie and Sam, and others — several a cappella — this is a perfect selection if you love British folk but find some of the sexism hard to deal with. Recommended! (SRR4211) CS: 9.98

Best of Golden Bough

Performers of Celtic and New Acoustic Music with many loyal fans on both sides of the Atlantic, this 2-woman 1-man ensemble has 8 albums to their credit. This retrospective combines vocal harmonies with violin, viola, recorder, Irish whistles, Celtic harp, bodhran, guitar, accordion, mandolin and mandola. Songs like Cathie Milligan's Fancy from Flights of Fancy, Logs to Burn from their holiday release Winter's Dance, and The Song of the Swan Maiden from Winding Road reflect the magic and magnetism of British Isles music. Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this album. "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm & there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered a cappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2015) CS: 9.98 ... Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!) Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Betty MacNeill, Bind Mary. Hammered dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan consort — an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitarist, a flutist, a violinist, and harper Sylvia Woods — all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended! (DM102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cottage

Joemy's second volume of music on hammered dulcimer by Turlough O'Carolan is yet another supreme album which deserves a spot on your shelf and stereo. With graceful accompaniment by the Carolan Consort (which includes Sylvia Woods and Anissa Angarola), Joemy will transport you to the hills and fields of 18th century Ireland, via planicies and airs. Enchanting; don't miss it. (DM104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Celtic Dreams

Joemy's third volume in her Irish series truly captures the mystical Celtic spirit. On the 9 glorious O'Carolan tunes and other magical melodies from Ireland, Wales, Scotland and the Isle of Man, her shimmering dulcimer is complemented by the usual brilliant accompaniment of Sylvia Woods' harp, Anissa Angarola's guitar, Valerie King's flute, and Mignon Miller's violin. Includes Faeries' Lamentation, Ash Grove, Mabel Kelly. (DM107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Celtic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Delirium of Guenevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. (SG123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Changes Like the Moon

A very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording, based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore. THE ROBE OF FEATHERS and THE SILKIE. Each tells a story of a beautiful magical female creature who is captured by a human male and is forced into marriage, until one day she escapes joyfully to her freedom. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful Secrets From the Stone. (SG147) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Julia Haines

Odyssey: Afro-Celtic Harp Fusion

A stunning, evocative, radiant musical work by a woman who was half of the WindHarp duo. Her solo Celtic harp album is a document of her continuing journey, illustrating her ability to create new sounds by interweaving elements of her primary influences: traditional eastern and western world music, classical, jazz, traditional West African drumming and kora (a stringed instrument), and even the power of silence. Mostly original instrumentals, plus one improvisation on an O'Carolan tune, and the stand-out piece here, Jato Jye Binkolo — she combines harmonizing vocals and harp on a Mandingo blessing song, then segues into a similarly-arranged song from Mali for the liberation of all women — would love an entire album of this from her someday! Highly recommended. (AHT) CS: 9.98

June Tabor

Angel Tiger

This deeply moving 1992 release documents an evolutionary aspect of this extraordinary artist, as she walks the line between Celtic and more contemporary expressions. Accompanied by a fascinating mixture of soprano sax, clarinet, accordion, strings and such, she explores topics of a frequently serious, reflective, even brooding nature. Includes individualized interpretations of Billy Bragg's Flowers of War; Elvis Costello's All This Useless Beauty; and more, and a haunting version of the traditional warning to young women, Let No Man Steal Your Thyme. (GL30742) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

June Tabor

Airs and Graces

Few finer voices exist anywhere; this old favorite was originally released in 1976 on the Topic label, and was hard to find domestically. June was deservedly voted top British female vocalist more than once, and no collection of British Isles music would be complete without this. Features roachbox, bassoon and soprano; some double-tracked vocals; some a cappella ballads carried solely by her mysterious, lower-register rare vocal timbre. Highly recommended! Knodel & Valencia

The Harper's Masque

Subtitled A Celebration of Celtic Harps, this 1992 edition of rare beauty and quality lives up to its promise! Containing primarily original arrangements of traditional tunes plus a couple of exquisite original compositions, the artists Debra Knodel (harp) and Jane Valencia (who plays harp and English horn) weave a sonorous, spacious, magical sound tapestry. Drawing on Scottish, Irish, French and Italian music, they explore the possibilities of the instrument, until in the final piece, they "transport an ancient Gaelic air far into post-modern harperspace," to quote one reviewer! Though this may be their debut release, we're sure it won't be their last. Highly recommended! (KV1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Elemental

This extremely talented musician/vocalist must have been incarnated just to bring the music of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1995 album captures her magic in 11 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Carraigthea, She Moved Through the Fair. Harp, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Parallel Dreams

This 1999 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection; from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annachie Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Beltane Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's explanation of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music. Highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

Loreena McKennitt

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with viola, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Glenstal Abbey in Limerick and Gueph's Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Seasons, Balulaw, Let All That Are to Mirth Inclined. (QR102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Visit

This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Childe, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Spins Night and the instrumental Tango to Evora, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album; hear the Italian first opening Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greenleeval. And her inimitable musical rendition of Tennessee's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments; great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new age vocal/Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB26880) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lorraine Lee Hammond

Barley Break

Subtitled An Elizabethan Songbook with Arrangements for Appalachian Dulcimer, this is an unusual and truly gorgeous album of music from 16th and 17th century England, arranged for an instrument not commonly used in this setting... but should be! And since Lorraine is an expert dulcimer teacher, she describes her techniques in some detail in the insert. These are rounds, airs and dance tunes, many originally written for lute. Includes Away with These Self-Loving Lads, O Mistress Mine, Now is the Month of Maying, performed on dulcimers plucked, picked, bounced, strummed and bowed. Highly delightful, and just as recommended! (YM2) CS: 9.98

Maddy Prior & June Tabor

Silly Sisters

An exquisitely wonderful duet album of traditional English songs. Though lyrics aren't your most progressive, these two outstanding British vocalists create perfect harmonies, plus a few fine solos... a better blend of voices is hard to find. Includes My Husband's Got No Courage in Him and The Seven Joys of Mary. (SHN79040) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior/J. Tabor: Silly Sisters

No More To the Dance

Twelve years after their first recorded collaboration, a new masterpiece by these two vocalists, whose harmonies do truly sound like they are of a family, breaks new ground for traditional music. It features innovative textures with touches of Eastern European harmony, and constantly shifting combinations of western, eastern, modern and traditional instruments — flutes, soprano sax, Celtic harp by the women of Silly Sisters (piper, more). One of the most eagerly-awaited releases ever, and very highly recommended! (SHN79009) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone

Hammered Dulcimer Traditions

Maggie's second tape features all-instrumental arrangements of Celtic dance tunes and folk songs from England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, and America spanning the 13th to 20th centuries. The hammered dulcimer is embellished with an array of traditional instruments—harp, pennywhistle, concertina, bouzouki, viola da gamba, recorder, bodhran, percussion—adding interesting and varied accompaniments, harmonies, and counter-rhythms. And, most of the musicians are women. High quality duplication; nice! (MM102) CS: 9.98

Maggie Sansone

Traditions

This CD-only release contains (almost) all the material from her first two hammered dulcimer releases, Hammered Dulcimer & Guitar and Hammered Dulcimer Traditions. (MM104) CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone

Mist & Stone

This 1990 release is a beautiful collection of Celtic tunes from Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, and Galicia, performed on hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and other instruments. The selections explore the rich and varied musical traditions of an ancient past, as they create textures and moods which are often evocative and haunting. Includes Foggy Dew, Sally Gardner, 18th century harp airs, jigs and reels. Recommended! (MM106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone, Sue Richards et al

Magic in the Great Hall

Subtitled Instrumental Music from the Ancient Celtic Lands, this 1992 live recording includes Maggie's trademark skill on the hammered dulcimer, plus Sue Richards, Bonnie Riddout, and Ensemble Galilae on Celtic harp, fiddle, recorders and viola da gamba. Includes Galician Waltz, Miss Patterson, Fingal's March and more. (MM107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maire Brennan

Maire

Look out Enya, here comes your sister Maire, lead singer of the Clannad ensemble, with an exquisite solo album of her own... which we've been hoping for ever since we first heard Clannad. Mostly original songs in English and Gaelic, rooted in tradition but embracing progressive styles and speaking of change, employ Celtic and contemporary instrumentation as well as wonderful, multi-layered, familial harmonies by Dee Brennan, Olive Brennan, and Bridie Brennan. Includes Land of Youth, Voices of the Land, Against the Wind. Highly recommended! (ATL52421) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jury Bergin

Feodoga Stain 2

Mary is acknowledged as the greatest Irish tin whistle player of all time, and this 1993 all-new instrumental release shows off her stuff, for sure! She's joined by members of Dordan, De Danann, and other Irish bands, who add sounds of harp, uilleann pipes, guitars, fiddle, bodhran, bass and percussion to her piping, melodic instrument. The reels, jigs, slow airs, hornpipes, and even polkas sound very much like forest fairy or leprechaun music: joyful and whimsical, as well as masterful. (SHN79063) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Thankfully back in print for late '92, cassettes in early '93! Coming to you directly from Dublin, Ireland, Mary's sound is a perfect blend of pop, jazz and traditional Celtic. And her voice! Clear as a bell and rich as cream. Known to many for her work as vocalist for the famous De Danann band, her style is sometimes contemporary, and at other times, as on her beautiful rendition of Anaitha Gordon, the most traditional essence. For all you folkies who don't think you like pop music. (GIF10004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Without the Fanfare

Released for late 1992... cassettes by early '93. This album by this indescribably wonderful vocalist has leavings and separations as a theme: Ellis Island, As I Leave Behind Neidin, plus the plaintive Crow On the Cradle. (GIF10005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Collected

Back in print (CD's now, cassettes early '93)! This 1986 album contains both previously released and unreleased material, many traditional songs with Irish instrumentation (uilleann pipes, bouzouki, fiddle, harp, etc.), including a beautiful Gaelic ballad and She Moves Through the Fair. (GIF10006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Babes in the Wood

This 1991 recording is a collection of contemporary ballads and softly rocking pop songs in which Mary has succeeded in convincing this reviewer that her lovely voice is suited to styles other than traditional Celtic... Accompanied here by a rich variety of acoustic instruments (dobro, mandolin, accordion, etc., piano, fiddle, double bass), she covers none other than Joni Mitchell's The Unruly Heart, Richard Thompson's The Dimming of the Day, as well as other gems by contemporary folk songwriters. Impeccable arrangements and production. (GIF77526) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black

The Holy Ground

This album entered the Irish charts at Number One! From the playful Summer Sent to the starkly poignant Rowan Words, Mary's voice takes you on a musical journey as varied as the human heart. Among the 12 tracks are songs by Sarsly Denny, Noel Brazill, John Dorkin, and Jessie Winchester. Titles include Golden Thread, Lay Down Your Burden, Treasure Island, One Way Donkey Ride. Released in the U.S. in 1993. (GIF10010) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Black

No Frontiers

Characterized by lots of tremendous harmonies, this 1989 release leans more toward a pop sound, while still retaining an acoustic foundation: guitars, double bass, accordion, piano, sax... and Mary's interpretive abilities still shine through. Includes several beautiful love songs, and, no less, a cover of the Dionne Warwick hit Say a Little Prayer. (GIF77306) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell

Just in Time

This Irish artist is a chart-topping star in her own country, for obvious reasons known to anyone who's listened to her incredibly smooth, rich vocals, and she's now pairing an international reputation in the acoustic music community. Her U.S. debut release, produced by Bela Fleck, features Nanci Griffith and Jonathan Edwards on background vocals. Includes an a cappella, multi-tracked version of her self-harmonies on The Water Is Wide, plus others perfectly selected to complement her Irish inflections, such as The Isle of Malachy, Leaving Neidin. Recommended! (PH1124) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell

Helpless Heart

Gorgeous, lifting, rich, fresh — these adjectives come immediately to this reviewer's mind upon first listening to Maura's voice. Produced by the inestimable Bela Fleck, this recording combines the above qualities with New Acoustic influences, & musicians (Bela, Dave Gribman, Grey Larson) on acoustic guitar, dobro, banjo, mandolin, piano, pedal steel guitar, fiddles and bass — simply the greatest! Material covered is primarily contemporary folk, like Cheryl Wheeler's Somewhere, Nanci Griffith's Trouble in the Field, Paul Brady's Helpless Heart, and Karla Bonoff's Only a Fool and I. It Always Love. Highly Recommended! (WB26018) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell

A Real Life Story

Moving into a more slick production and electric sound can't hide the fact that Maura's lovely voice is deepening into a seasoned richness that is as rare as it is enjoyable — joined on one cut (A Family Tie, about alcoholism) by her three sisters. Other highlights include: Shawn Colvin's I Don't Know Why, Janis Ian's Unwinding, and Lennon/McCartney's For No One, with only dobro and acoustic guitar accompaniment — gorgeous! (WB26342) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blue Is the Colour of Hope

This 1992 release is another foray into contemporary folk (with jazzy inflections), this time more acoustic, and with a bevy of country and folk luminaries on background vocals (Mary Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, Rosanne Cash) and instruments... Highlights include the jazz ballad Love to Learn, MC Carpenter's I Don't Bring You, plus The Blue Train. The overall feeling is a bit melancholy and languid (First You Cry, for example), but her voice is perfectly suited to the mood! (WB45065) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mouth Music

Truly a remarkable, innovative, mesmerizing synthesis of the traditional Gaelic singing style called "puirt a beul" or "mouth music," with African rhythms and modern keyboard technology! Talitha MacKenzie is the vocalist on this intense material which she discovered when she traveled to Edinburgh to study Scottish and ancient Gaelic culture in depth. Martin Swan the instrumentalist and arranger (except on one, where Talitha arranged). They say it's a matter of finding a strong rhythm which complements the traditional song structures, and then creating some kind of tension or powerful or surprising harmonic context in which they happen... and they've certainly accomplished just that. Highly recommended! (RYK1690) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mouth Music

Mo-di

By the time this second release came to be, Mouth Music had made some major personnel changes. The two dynamic female vocalists, Michaela Rowan and Jackie Joyce (who have replaced Talitha MacKenzie), sing in an array of languages: Scots Gaelic, French, English, and Zhona. A couple of Scottish instrumentalists have joined the ranks; and mastermind Martin Swan remains. This is an album of contrasts, a densely layered musical map of the world, where African grooves meet rhythm and blues... where easy going hip-hop rhythms and relaxed toasting are surrounded by a swirling wash of mysterious voices and synthesizers... where Celtic funk crosses the Brazilian border, and then melts into Arabic rhythm and violins. Very high-tech and rhythmic; yet all from a spiritual base; sources range from traditional chants, to medieval pagan French poets, to contemporary experience. To call this World Music is an understatement! (RYK242) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pentangle

Think of Tomorrow

This 1991 release reconfirms the legendary group's pre-eminence in the British folk-rock scene. The unique combination of Jacqui McShee's haunting vocals, Nigel Portman-Smith's virtuosic bass and keyboards, and Bert Jansch's amazing guitar, creates a vibrant blend of folk, jazz and blues. After 20 years, the ensemble continues to flourish at the top of a very notable heap. (GL3057) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rita Connolly

This Dublin native has been singing since an early age, which is evident from the ease and fluidity with which she wields her "instrument"! As the album's producer, she's made the leap into a combination of traditional and contemporary music, utilizing a variety of styles and musical inspirations, from the Caribbean Miracles, to jazz — yes, a completely respectable Stormy Weather — to a languidly beautiful original ballad, Fanny Hawke. Many songs about women (Factory Girl, Alice in Jericho), harmony vocals by relatives of both genders as well as other ensembles and choirs. (TAR3029) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ruth Barrett & Cynlia Smith

A Dulcimer Harvest

Ever since 1979 when Ruth and Cynlia began their musical collaboration, folks have been requesting an all-instrumental album. Twelve years later, their wishes are answered with this elegant and magical collection of favorites from the duo's first 3 albums, plus new compositions and traditional pieces. Their classical fingerpicking style is complemented by added acoustic instruments, such as Sylvia Woods' harp, Miamon Miller's violin (both from Joerny Wilson's consort), cello and more. Includes Faerie's Love Song, King of the Faeries, Grace's Dance, I Live Not Where I Love. An excellent holiday gift for any season... recommended! (AE0004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sandy Denny

Best of Sandy Denny (Best of Box)

Selections from the 3-CD boxed set Who Knows Where the Time Goes..., sort of the best of the best, from one of the most formidable folk talents who ever lived. Includes, of course, Who Knows Where the Time Goes, plus Listen, Listen, The Lady, Late November, The Pond and the Stream. (HAN1328) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sandy Denny

Who Knows Where the Time Goes 3-Set

This definitive collection, a 3-CD boxed set with 20-page booklet, features over 50 per cent previously unreleased material from studio recordings, live performances, out-takes and demos, plus remixed versions of some of her best. The songs and notes trace her history and remarkable singing and songwriting contributions to Fairport Convention and Fotheringhay, plus early works from Sandy and the Strawbs, rockers from The Bunch, and many solo selections. She was one of the originators of British folk-rock, influencing a decade of British and American music by introducing traditional balladry and a revivalist folk approach to the acid rock generation. A must for fans! (HAN5301) CD: 45.98

Scartaglen

Last Night's Fun

Featuring the crystalline vocals of Connie Dover (not to mention her skilled harmonium and keyboard contributions), this quartet explores the beauty and mystery of Celtic musics. The album delves into the Irish roots of American music, featuring instrumental reels and jigs, a Civil War-era lament, and a song about Irish emigration. While the gorgeously-played instrumentals strive to outshine the vocals, the listener will be captivated by Connie's singing; her voice is as strong and clear as a finely-tuned bell, and lucky for us, graces several of the songs, including little cut, The May Morning Dew; and Rosemary Lane. This 1992 release is destined to become one of your favorites, we're sure! (CIT3342) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sharon Shannon

This young accordion player from County Clare, Ireland, possesses such incredible talent and virtuosity that you'll understand why it's the most successful folk debut ever in Ireland. Her execution of waltzes, airs, hornpipes, jigs, banjo tunes, reels, even congas — Portuguese dance tunes — is breathtaking... and she plays the fiddle too! Titles include Queen of the West, Tixie Her Leg, The Marguerite Suite, Margherita Lullaby... check out this wonderful instrumentalist who's also one of the contributors to the Irish compilation A Woman's Heart. Shelley Phillips and Friends The Fairie Round

This 1990 album showcases an extraordinary versatility of the artist on oboe, flute, piccolo, recorder, harp, English horn, mandolin, tin whistle and dulcimer. It's an eclectic anthology of traditional Irish, English and Welsh tunes and dances, Renaissance, Baroque and Classical selections — and even a bit of wild Burgundian folk song. Shelley is joined by a talented ensemble of musicians on winds and strings in this delightful synergy; selections include the Ashgrove, Bourne/ Hornpipe, Chanters Tune, Skye Boat Song. Highly recommended! (GOU105) CS: 9.95 ... CD: 15.98

Sileas

Delighted with Harps

At the forefront of the revitalization of Scottish music are Patsy Saddon and Mary Macmaster, the two women who comprise Sileas (pronounced Shee-lis) — one of the only harp duos in all of Scotland. Artfully blending gut-strung and metal-strung harps with the recently developed Gamco electro-harp and vocals, they produce magical sounds with challenge and complement each other, melding traditional with creative sounds on both instrumental sets and songs. A range of women's experience is reflected in their choice of material, plaintively sung in Gaelic. (GL3039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.99

Steeleya Span Below the Salt

We thought we'd give this ground-breaking group, which Maddy Prior has graced with her amazing lead vocals for over 20 years now, another whirl in our catalog. This band has contemporary traditional British Isles folk ballads with fresh interpretations and rock-oriented instrumentation... their selections sometimes zany, sometimes merry, sometimes sinister! This album is one of their earliest, but in this reviewer's humble opinion, one of their best. (SHN79039) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sue Richards Grey Eyed Morn

Celtic harp virtuosa and 3 times US National Scottish Harp Champion, Sue breaks new ground in her debut solo album of traditional tunes from Scotland, Ireland and Wales. Bringing a new vitality to this traditional music without compromising the essence and spirit of its source, an engaging combination of harp solos and ensemble music is created, rich in texture and endless variety evoking the myths and legends of the ancient Celts. She is accompanied on fiddle, viola da gamba, guitar and hammered dulcimers... a stunning showcase from beginning to end! (MM201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sue Richards Morning Aire

This Celtic harp champion brings a joyous and inventive approach to music from Ireland and Scotland, on this 1993 album of Scottish strathspeys, marches, lively jigs, reels, and lush 18th century Irish airs by the legendary Turlough O'Carolan. Joined by the US Scottish fiddle champion Bonnie Rideout, Sue creates intricate harmonies and textures. Also features pennywhistle, guitar, and viola da gamba on some tracks. Celtic music with chamber qualities! (MM204) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

TERESA DOYLE: FORERUNNER

Teresa Doyle Forerunner

If you like Loreana McKennitt, we urge you to take a chance and give this artist a listen! We had the good fortune to receive copies of Teresa's work in our mailbox, and hope to share this blessing with you, even though you may not have heard of her work previously. Teresa is a most gifted singer whose roots are planted firmly in the Canadian Celtic tradition... but with performance credits encompassing jazz, classical, and English lute music, she has stretched musical boundaries to create "Celtic music on the fringe." Drawing on the oral tradition of storytelling once prevalent in her native Prince Edward Island, she has woven intricate melody lines through tales of ghosts and other apparitions. This eclectic blend of traditional Celtic material (Agincourt Carol, The Shearling, Cape Breton Lullaby, She's Like the Swallow) and original compositions (Maggie Daly, Blue's Hollow, The Slough "Swoosh") features lovely accompaniment on instruments such as uilleann pipes, tin whistle, rebec, recorder, guitar, cello, violin and percussion. Very recommended! (BL002) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Triona Ni Dhomhnaill Triona

Striking harpichord playing along with traditional ballads — some in Gaelic, some in English — by an artist who has imprinted her distinctive voice on 5 great Irish groups: Skara Brae, The Botby Band, Touchstones, Relativity, and Nightnoise. Excellent choice of material; our favorite is When I Was a Fair Maid, about a woman who joined the navy during the 17th or 18th century, when "Britannia and Women's Liberation ruled the waves!" She's joined by her sister Mairiad and her brother Michael, as she brings her lovely interpretations to the music of O'Carolan and the dances of Brittany. (GL3034) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Celebration of the Irish Harp

This double-length album (90 minutes) encompasses a collection of harpers, harps and styles of the likes which we've never heard or seen! Nearly 40 tracks were recorded by 10 of Houston's best harpers, all female, including 10-year old Stacey Franklin, performing on a dazzling variety of harps and featuring a touch of additional instrumentation: guitar, flute, voice, bodhran, cello and sax. Quite simply the most comprehensive collection of Irish harp we've got, if you like Irish music or harp music, you're in for a treat! (BEL101) CS: 12.98

A Woman's Heart

We've been hearing about this compilation from many folks, and expect it in any time now! Six Irish women — Mary Black, her sister Frances Black, Maura O'Connell, Dolores Keane, Sharon Shannon and Eleanor McEvoy — each contribute two tracks, some from previous albums. The title track, Only A Woman's Heart, has elicited the most enthusiasm from listeners; it's a newly recorded duet between Mary Black and Eleanor McEvoy, and we can't wait to hear it ourselves! Irish import. (DAR158) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 17.98

Celtic Odyssey

This 1993 compilation is a truly beautiful, exuberant, entrancing assortment of music by some of today's best Celtic artists, including Capersallia, the 2-woman harp-singing duo Sileas, Scartaglen, Altan, Relativity (with Triona O'Donnell), Laurie Riley, Eileen Ivers, and more. And we must say, who's did the song-picking did an exceptional job — both vocal and instrumental tracks — we couldn't have done better ourselves! The entirety of the album flows so smoothly, happily, mystically and magically, we recommend it both a work unto itself, as well as a great way to acquaint yourself with musicians you may not have had the good fortune to have heard before. Women's Spirituality ♦ New Age

Acoustic Medicine

Return of the Circle

This mixed group of women and men performs original rounds and chants, mostly a cappella with percussion, with Native American drumming and themes of Great Spirit, Mother Earth, vision, wisdom, dance. A few of the selections feature women's voices exclusively. Includes Mother I Feel You and others which can easily be learned for ritual gatherings. Lyrics included. (AMP201) CS: 9.98

Adrienne Tori

Brooklyn From the Root

A fairly spectacular instrumental album for piano and synthesizers by a virtuosa composer and keyboardist who some of you may remember as Holly Near's accompanist, several years ago; others of you have luckily witnessed her marvelous solo performances. If you fall into neither category, start now with this tape. Each piece has a varied sound and rhythm, keeping the listener's interest alive... from avant garde to upbeat, to emotional and intense to mellow and lyrical. Includes A Song for Soweto, for the poem by June Jordan, plus The Slow Return of Saturn, Things I Cannot Say, and, the loveliest, And So They Two (Home). (AB0518) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Akasha

In the Cosmic Flow

Akasha is a group of five women from Sweden. With voices and a blend of Eastern and Western instruments — flutes, guitar, harmonium, and the sitar-like sarai — they weave ethereal harmonies to songs written by Sri Chinmoy, based on simple Indian folk music and sung in the Bengali language. They have toured extensively in Europe and have recently completed a U.S. tour, which incorporated a workshop on music and healing, Angelic and heavenly. (HEAT1) CS: 9.98

Alice Coltrane

Journey in Satchidananda

Before there was New Age, there was Alice Coltrane, an amazing composer and instrumentalist... who fused her knowledge of world music, jazz and Eastern spirituality, and created sounds that were to become foundations for a genre. Recorded in 1970, this album combines her virtuosity on harp and piano with Pharoah Sanders' transcendental soprano sax, plus tamboura and oud, yielding original compositions that are evocative, meditative, searching, yearning, and just simply beautiful. Includes title, Isis and Osiris, Something About John Coltrane, Shiva-Loka. A personal favorite of this reviewer 20 years ago, and still highly recommended! (MCA33119) CD: 15.98

Alicia Bonnet

Trusting

HeartSong Review said, "There is a lovely wildness about Alicia's music... songs are prayer feathers let loose on the wind." This 1991 collection of Alicia's songs is an inspirational, joyous celebration of life... her rich vocals move through a variety of moods from reflective to expressive; the accompaniment includes piano, sax, violin, flute and mandolin. Includes the beautiful Goddess/ Let Me Feel, Pelicans, Care of the Angels. (DS9998) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Andrea Lyman

Andrea Lyman The Spirit Who Sings

Andrea, a white woman who has studied Native American spirituality under teachers such as Brooke Medicine Eagle, has created a tape of beautiful original chants and songs to call spirit, sing praise, and remind us of our connection with all things. At times strong and warrior-like, other times haunting and dreamlike, her powerful vocals are accompanied by drums, rattles, chimes, synthesizer and more. Includes Grandmother, White Buffalo Woman, Invocation, Mother/Father, Eagle's Lullaby, excellent production, and a good source for some new chants, if you're looking. Brooke Medicine Eagle recommends this, and we do too. (MB1) CS: 9.98

Andrea Lyman Return to Remember

Even more beautiful than her first tape, she calls this one a musical map, a journey of remembering... and indeed something here seems to spark some ancient recall. Very female, realistic, and powerful, the songs and chants by this wise woman of healing and wholeness, earth stewardship and earth-based spirituality are peace to the Divine Mother and Mother Earth in Her various forms. It's again a source of new chants, as well as an absolutely gorgeous blend of instrumental tone colors and lush vocal textures, woven into a shimmering tapestry of light. Includes Goddess of Fire, She Alone They Sing Over, Earthing, Danu, Ancient Voices, and more. (MB2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Angie Remedi The Mother Calls

This celebration of women's spirituality and neo-Paganism includes 20 songs and chants honoring Goddesses from around the world for The Goddess in Her many guises, as the case may be, celebrating the seasons and the Wheel of the Year, and giving tribute to the ideals and culture of ancient matriarchal people. All songs are original; acoustic instrumentation in Celtic and folk styles by female and male musicians; and some guest vocals which are spirited if not in perfect pitch in every single moment. Includes Goddess of Fire, She Alone They Sing Over, Earthing, Danu, Ancient Voices, and more. (MB2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Anne "Ani" Williams Children of the Sun

On this 1991 release, enchanting "music to honor a time of great awakening" reaches deep into the heart of the rainforest, with pre-Colombian flutes and percussion by Mazatl Galindo, weaving magic with the mystical beauty of Anne's — or Ani's, as she's now known — pure harp and vocals. Elegant, earthy, evocative, mystical — recommended! (ES9) CS: 9.98

Anne Williams Summer Rose

Outstanding! This album is pure musical imagery — voice without words — which, with harp, autoharp, cello, flute and bells — becomes a sound that is felt rather than heard. All original and all performed by the artists, with innovative use of harmonies and rhythms. An emotional richness, an audio message, celestial seasonings for the spirit! Highly recommended. (ES2) CS: 9.98

Anne Williams Song of Isis

Received and recorded in the Pyramids of Egypt during the Harmonic Convergence of 1987, this very special recording of harp, double pipes, flute, bells, and voice was created after a profound out trip down the Nile! The echoing power of Isis' song out through these inspired musical blessings, invocations, chants, and melodies to the great goddess, beautifully woven in delicate strands of sound. Timeless, transformative, recommended! (ES5) CS: 9.98

SONG OF THE JAGUAR

Anne Williams

Anne Williams Song of the Jaguar

Inspired by Celtic, Mayan, Aztec, Egyptian, and Sumerian cultures, this beautiful Goddess-oriented collection of ritual songs, blessing chants, and homages incorporates an array of Latin American flutes and percussion instruments. Most songs are original, yet draw upon traditional material for lyric adaptation; feast verses, and teachings. Goddesses honored include Inanna, Nani, Maat, Te Uru, Bridget; selections include Mother of All Ages, Isis Mijena, Keepers of the Sacred Fire. Harmony vocals by Lisa Thiel and Alicia Bonnet. Magical and evocative. (ES7) CS: 9.98

Annie Locke The Living Earth

Considered one of the best meditation albums on the market, this album of gently flowing synthesized melodies was inspired by crystals. The effects are to draw the listener into a deeper awareness, to calm and soothe, even to relax the listener into a trance-like state of sleep. (SFS003) CS: 9.98

Barbara Borden & Shellah Glover Lady of the Serpent Skirt

Drummer Barbara (of Alivel fame) and keybordist/vocal technician Shellah collaborate here on an entirely entrancing musical and rhythmic journey. The territory they cover is wide, varied, and previously uncharted, nooching back and forth between melodic and avant-garde, intense and mellow, primal and high-tech, winding through a suffusion of moods and imagery. Very sensual and captivating, and definitely recommended! (CL1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden & Shellah Glover Portraits of Passion

Continuing to explore the interface between spacious electronic music, acoustic timbres and world beat drum stylings, their 1992 release is an evocative musical journey into the life and times of six historical visionaries — who were important in their day, but never quite made it into mainstream consciousness. The music will take you from a medieval monastery, over the Atlantic in a barge, to an abolitionist rally... as the artists imaginatively and sonically portray the spirits of Hildegard of Bingen, Beryl Markham, Sojourner Truth, and others. Special guests include Mary Watkins, Linda Tillery, Vicki Randle. Mysterious and wonderful... recommended! (CL333) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Barokk Folk Joy After Sorrow

The graceful simplicity of traditional instrumental music combined with elegant performances by this wonderful Baroque chamber ensemble led by Carrie Crompton (recorders, hammered dulcimer, violin, guitar, psaltery) creates an atmosphere of peace and joy that soothes the listener. The theme of the phoenix rising from the ashes, or joy after sorrow, is explored on this musical canvas. Works by Mozart, Bach, O'Garrahan and others; includes a few country dance tunes. Beth York Transformations

Exquisite, restoring, delicious, perfect instrumental music composed by this Atlanta feminist and performed by Beth (on piano) and her group, The New Women's Chamber Ensemble (on oboe, sax, flute, synthesizer, bass, percussion). It could be termed classical-jazz fusion. If you've enjoyed Paul Winter Consort, Oregon, or Kay Gardner, you're sure to enjoy this. The sax is so sweet, the oboe so soaring in its beauty, it's enough to lift the spirit of any cynic. A music therapist by profession, Beth has performed her works at the National Women's Music Festival, the National Women's Jazz Festival, and at Atlanta's Fox Theater, with Judy Chicago's Dinner Party includes title, Time and Again, and Delphinus, a dance piece. Very highly recommended. (LR104) CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose Sacred Ground

Seeking to rise beyond an age of individual disconnection, this music springs from sources both ancient and universal, drawing on traditions such as Pagan, Native American, western mystical, and Goddess spirituality. Betsy presents protest music at its best, music of community, with background choruses which invite participation as well as listening. Sparse acoustic instrumentation allows the clarity of Betsy's words, music and voice to shine; adept production and accompaniment by Nina Gerber. A wonderful blend of music, spirit, and social concern. (KAL43) CD: 15.98

Betsy Rose In My Two Hands

One side of this tape represents a creative venture for an artist well-known to women's and folk audiences; it embodies a unique collaboration between an Asian and a North American artist, and expresses the interrelationship between engaged activism and the spiritual foundation which make continued activism possible. The songs were inspired and co-authored by Thich Nhat Hahn, a Vietnamese poet-leader and Nobel Peace Prize nominee, who chaired the Vietnamese Buddhist Peace Delegation, and taught and lived "engaged Buddhism" in his country during the war. The music, sung by Betsy in English, blends eastern and western instrumentation: koto, bamboo flute, string bass and more. The other side consists of Betsy's own songs, reflecting her journey as a spiritual activist and eco-feminist. (PLX101) CS: 9.98

Carole & Bren Rainbows in My Mind

Rainbows appear when the sun and the rain embrace and create magic. In the same way, this 1989 album of songs and chants reaches out and lifts the spirit. From the delicate chimes of Cup of the Moon to the drumbeats of Chant for Mother Earth, the music touches the threads of our relationships with each other and the planet. Carole Etzler and Bren Chambers interweave cello, guitar, voices, piano, chimes, Aztec drum, gong, Celtic harp, and Tibetan singing bowls into a joyful celebration of life. (SIS4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carole & Bren You Are the One

Attention women's spirituality circles! This 1993 album features songs and chants to honor the healing of the Earth and her people. The voices of Carole Etzler Eagleheart and Bren Chambers intertwine with a fascinating array of instruments — cello, turtle whistle, rattles, serpent drum, keyboards, Celtic harp, and bowed psaltery — singing of oneness with the earth, healing from domestic violence and sexual abuse, healing through ancient wisdom and through new visions of how the world should be. Included: Cradled in the Arms of the Goddess, Southern Sisters, Strong Woman, I Come From the Tide of the Ancient Women. (SIS6) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cindee Grace Songs of the Goddess

Feminist New Age music with a sense of humor! We love Cindee's combination of solid musicianship, clear, lilting vocals, and affirming-yet-humorous lyrics. Styles range from a jazzy folk blend to island rhythms, and with titles like Source-Healer, Aphrodite, Angels, and Pre-Enlightenment Blues, how can you lose? Comes with lyric sheet — the perfect Solstice gift for anyone with an interest in or appreciation of Pagan/Goddess themes. (GG51) CS: 9.98

Colorado Midwives Association

Ritual Songs

Acappella chants and songs performed by 4 members of the Colorado Midwives Association (C.M.A.), designed for sing-along learning. It contains material for gatherings (Blessing-way, Rituals and Birth), as well as private meditations to cleanse and strengthen. Selections include Woman I Am, I Am the Circle, Mother Moon, We Are Sisters, as well as more traditional images such as May the Blessings of God Rest Upon You and We All Come From God. Simple and lovely; we've been getting requests for this "underground classic," and are glad to be able to make it available; proceeds benefit the non-profit C.M.A., dedicated to providing better birth experiences through homebirth services. Conni Ellisor night at the museum

Spectacular! This Juillard grad has a solid history doing Nashville studio work, but you'd never guess it by listening to this! Starting off with the soundtrack-like Inside Out and Dragonweaving (yes, she's also scored some films), you get the sense that her virtuosity on violin, cello and piano were merely the necessary steps toward realizing her composing genius. Fitting this 1991 recording into one category will keep our staff up at night, since it equals in several. Suffice it to say that it is strongly evocative, contemporary, instrumentally sophisticated, and fitting testament to an extremely talented woman's vision. Highlights include Dance of the Hu, Even the Sweet Things. Can I Charge: Excellent; highly recommended! (DMA1016) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Constance Demby

Novus Magnificat: Thru the Stargate

Subtitled SACRED SPACE MUSIC VOL. II, this amazing project of "space classical" music was composed and performed entirely on the new digital sampling synthesizer, the Emulator. It is a vast work, for symphony orchestra, cathedral organ and chorus (all found inside the Emulator!) This prolific, creative instrumentalist continues her invention of new form and sounds. Skies Above Skies

We are glad to make Constance's back catalog again available, for those of you who have enjoyed her highly successful releases on Hearts of Space. Ethereal, mythical, mystical, celestial, and yes, beautiful music for meditation and sheer listening pleasure. This multi-talented woman composed, performed (on hammered dulcimer, cheng, tamboura, synthesizer, cello, piano, organ, and vocal tones), and produced this recording with an East-West spiritual theme: Tibetan chant, St. Francis of Assisi prayer, and more. Light of This World

Delightful title cut representing a true departure for the artist: a pop/rock/gospel song, on which she's joined by back-up vocalists from the Edwin Hawkins Singers!...a rousing new Age Gospel statement of joy and oneness. The remainder is a BEST OF, with selections from her first 5 albums: good for an overview of her work: 63 minutes. (SC5) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Damaris

Quantum Leap

This album primarily contains beautifully-recorded rounds and chants (except for the first 4, which are more straightforward self-empowerment songs), all written by this shaman/transformational counselor. The presentation is quite professional, with multi-tracked vocals and soft songs accompaniment. Included: This Moment is a Gift, Birth of a Shaman, Atabei ("The source of power is the Mother of All Things"), Earth & Water - Fire & Air, a 3-part chant, and others, offering a lot of variety and an excellent source for new material for your repertoire. Recommended! (DAM1) CS: 10.98

Ocean Born

Step quietly into the watery realms of the heart! Subtitled The Songs of Cathie Malach and Kim Rosen with Amy Fragon and Leslie Ritter, Vocalists, this lovely recording is the fruit of an extraordinary collaboration, where "the mind of the land honors the heart of the sea..." (Set Them Free). 12 songs full of love and ocean spirit, many with Dolphin and Goddess themes, reminding us of our connections to our hearts and to these intelligent and beautiful beings. The songs are story-like and poetic, the music mostly keyboards (some gorgeous solo piano) and light percussion, with the vocal harmonies reaching unearthly levels of beauty... Notable cuts include the touching Goodbye, Cathie's letter to her dying mother; The Call and Set Them Free, which include Whale and Dolphin voices; and the gospel, Kiss of Spirit. Most highly recommended! (DLP2) CS: 10.98

Denean

The Weaving

With many references to Grandmother Spirit, Earth Mother and Precious Mother, Denean brings her wondrous visions of spirit and spirituality to the listener with her country angel voice. Included on her 1993 release are both instrumentals and powerful vocal songs — that take you on a journey of the heart... Her keyboards and percussion evoke a most ethereal, celestial mood. Sort of Enya-esque... and suggested to fans of Lisa Thiel's material. (ETH7102) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Fire Prayer

This 1991 release is an album of original chants and songs, revering Mother Earth and the life of the spirit. Denean, raised in the hills of Kentucky, is primarily white with some Cherokee in her background; she draws inspiration from both Native American and country/folk/gospel traditions. Lots of percussion and nature sounds are interwoven with piano, synthesizers, flute, and her strong, sweet voice. Includes Song to the Mother, Spirit to the Center, Sacred Fire, The Tree. Very professionally produced, and a great source of new songs and chants. Some of the proceeds go to Native American organizations. (ETH7101) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Gaia, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hypnotic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kristin Gygi on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements: "The earth is my body! Her water is my blood! Her winds are my breath! Her fire is my spirit..." Kristin is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Dianic Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary-sounding devotional Goddess recordings we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is soothing yet full of contained energy, while Rhea Kronia is all vibrant movement. Kristin is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the West Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include: Wind Dancer, Exploding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Return to the Goddess Chants & Song

This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristin and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the cradle, and the material continues to honor and revere the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include 2. Budapest's From the Goddess chant, which anyone who's attended a women's spirituality gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Say Yes to Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more acoustic in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended! (DW1004) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Diana Earthmission

Inner Voice: Songs of Spirit

Diana Earthmission is a circle of 15 women journeying together in song and ritual, to learn of their power and practice living in balance with the earth. This tape contains 25 harmonious acappella songs and chants, such as Grandmother, invocation to the 4 directions; We All Come From the Goddess; Beautiful Woman; Wild Woman; I Am a Circle, and more originals and songs from Native American and other traditions. Quite lovely! Proceeds to help defend people of Big Mountain in Arizona from U.S. gov't forced relocation attempt. Includes illustrated lyric booklet. (DE1) CS: 10.98

Stretch Breathe and Relax

This massage therapist and feminist yoga teacher is well known to many women's fest-goers for her "magic hands." Her 1991 tape provides step-by-step instructions for two individual sessions: 30 minutes each of stretching and yoga postures; 10 minutes each side of relaxation/meditation. These easy-to-follow movements are designed to tone muscles, reduce stress and improve flexibility, postural alignment, strength, and balance. The good sound quality, her clear and soothing voice, the descriptive notes and diagrams in the insert, and the background instrumentals by music therapist Deborah Phelps, all help make this an easy and appealing program to use. Inner Dance 1: Intro/ Earth & Sky

From Diane's book Inner Dance come a series of tapes for meditation and healing, with narrations by Diane, vocals by Shuli, and atmospheric musical improvisations by some of the world's most wonderful musicians. Side 1 here is Inner Dance Talk: a clarifying, connecting presentation to help dispel the isolation of the 80's, the chaos of the world, focusing on making peace with oneself. Side 2 is Earth and Sky Meditation: a spacious, grounding daily practice which can be used again and again. Percussion and Tibetan bells by Nurudalina Pili Abena. (AQ1) CS: 10.98

Esther "Little Dove" John et al

The Elements

Produced under the artistic direction of Nancy Rumbel, this exquisite concert was inspired by, and incorporates, the sound of the four elements: Water, Air, Earth and Fire. Esther "Little Dove" John, accompanied by synthesists Kari Motta and Dori Davidson, weaves melodic, thematic, involved music into the recorded sounds of ocean, mountain stream, night creatures, and campfire, creating an ambience which is exotic, peaceful and visually provoking. This reviewer was a big fan of Paul Horn's flute compositions with The Elements back in the 70's... while quite different, this is just as stunning. Use for relaxing, meditating, enjoying; highly recommended! (MMH2289) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Esther "Little Dove" John

The Elements, Volume II

More rhythmic than her first ocean to the elements, especially the Brazilian-influenced Ocean Bossa (Samba for a Dove), this beautiful 1992 recording also represents the sounds native to other places on our planet. The fire aspect is expressed with water (!) in Hot Springs, a tribute to the belief of the native peoples of Washington's Olympic peninsula that dragon's breath heated the bubbling pools found there. The air principle is divinely represented with Air Song to Attract Seals, a hauntingly gorgeous piece first performed (fittingly) at the Concert of Angels in Rio, which ended with a seaside vigil and meditation with the Daul Lamas. Ending with earth's Ewensong, a plainsong chant (similar in tone to Gregorian), this reviewer found herself wishing the recording would never end — and promptly punching the replay button! I could go on and on... but will end with a recommendation that you avail yourself immediately of this precious gem. (MMH2232) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Fiorella Terenzi

Music From the Galaxies

One of the most fascinating recordings ever "realized," by an Italian astrophysicist and experimental music scholar, termed Acoustic Astronomy—an uncommon fusion of science and art, astronomy and music. Her compositions are created from actual radio telescope raw data (high frequency radiation waves) from a distant galaxy called UGC 6897, which is first translated into number sequences, which are then converted into sound via computer. The extensive liner notes are clear and interesting, and the music is, well... spacey — this will definitely send you to the outer realms! Don't accept substitute "space music" when you can have the real thing! (ISL848766) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Flesh & Bone

Skeleton Woman

Inspired by the (strange) story by the same name in Clarissa Pinkola Estés' best-selling book Women Who Run With the Wolves, this 1993 release is an exciting musical adventure. The duo is comprised of Chris White, whose haunting, evocative wordless vocals are the centerpiece, and keyboardist/composer Peter Kater (who, by the way, are married to each other). They're supported by the pulsating rhythms of Glen Velez' frame drums, David Darling's intense cello, plus violin and sax. The tale, which is recounted in the insert, is based on myths, and is somehow about how love endures when cycles about life/death/rebirth are allowed to be part of the spiritual relationship between lovers. Gala's Voice

The Chorus of Life

This Bay Area mixed chorus, directed by Deborah Hamouris, specializes in 20th century music that addresses themes of nature and Earth-centered (read Pagan) spirituality. They perform some great re-worked versions of old favorites, such as Unorthodoxology ("Praise Her from whom all blessings flow..."), Star-Spangled Pagan, The Magic Wheel (to the tune of Green Grow the Rushes-O), and originals such as Gala Speaks, One with Our Mother. Lyrics book included — an excellent source of new material for group singing. (GV1) CS: 9.98

Georgia Kelly

Jardens of the Sun

This 1993 release contains a collection of romantic and exotic pieces composed by this prolific harpist while living in Zagreb and Dubrovnik, Croatia in 1991. Inspired by the beauty of the Adriatic, but juxtaposed to the onset of civil war, this music reflects some of the region's last peaceful and tender moments. Consisting primarily of harp solos, there is also a delicate duet for harp and flute, and a haunting melody for harp and guitar. (HER112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Womanspirit

A spoken meditation by Hallie, adapted from her book Womanspirit: A Guide to Women's Wisdom with exquisite harp accompaniment composed and performed by Georgia Kelly specifically for this tape. Exploring Women's Heritage is a journey back through one's "mother line" to contact and explore a source of ancient female power and wisdom. Living in Harmony helps the listener integrate an understanding of natural cycles into her everyday life. The production represents a synthesis of feminism and spirituality, and recognizes women as the creation maker. (WIS1) CS: 10.98

Ishtar

Rites of the Dolphin

Eleven stars on a ten-star system! A very unusual, intoxicating, and totally exquisite instrumental offering from a mostly-women's trio which takes its name from the Babylonian goddess of the moon and interpreter of dreams. Lisa Moskowitz is a master of the sarod (a North Indian instrument with 25 strings, metal fretless fingerboard and brass resonating bowl) which is somewhat the centerpiece. Nicole Milner is the pianist-composer (her playing full of emotion); Doug Carroll is the cellist. Their innovative repertoire is inspired by a wide spectrum of musical ideas from Europe and Asia, creating an unique East-West fusion. Includes Moon Raga, Three Dear Haiku... highly recommended! Jai Ma Kirtan:

Songs to the Divine Mother

A truly beautiful 93-minute program of chanting in Sanskrit to the various aspects of God as the Mother: Kali, Durga, Aniba, Radha, Ma, Lakshmi, Gauri, etc., by primarily women's voices. Sung in Kirtan, an ancient Indian call-and-response form. Includes the Hymn to the Goddess Mother, the Durga Arati Song. Traditional eastern instruments—tabla, tanpura, harmonium—are tastefully interwoven with western guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, silver flute. Cover pictures: Shakti Yantra, a mandala used for meditation on the energy of the female aspect of God. Recommended! (SRID006) CS: 10.98

Jalaja Bonheim

The Descent of Inanna

Set to music by Gwen Jones and Rover, Jalaja presents a journey through the ancient Sumerian Goddess myth. Over 4000 years ago, the Sumerian people inscribed the myths of Inanna, and her descent into the underworld, onto stone tablets — one of the very first written epics. Powerful and universal, Inanna's journey is that of every woman facing loss, darkness or death. Text, narration, chant and background instrumentation created and performed by Jalaja, a counselor/writer/women's workshop leader who specializes in women's spirituality and on the healing of the body-spirit split. Music for sitar, drum, Tibetan bowl, didgeridoo and more by Gwen Jones. (MUS46265) CS: 10.98

Jana Runnalls

Ancestral Dream / Improvised Ritual

A very unique first solo recording by one half of the well-known British feminist duo, Ova. Passionately celebrating women's spirituality, Jana uses natural and special effects, pagan chants, and a vast array of instruments (temple bells, Indian and Chinese flutes, classical flute, clarinet, African drums, African kalimba / thumb piano, Indian tabla, dulcimer and percussion). Invocations are sung to Tiamat (Babylonian sky goddess), Diana (We all come from Goddess, chant to the pagan mother of all life), Kore (Greek earth goddess), Aesha (Celtic sky goddess), Kali (Hindu goddess of love). Beginning and ending with Deep Woman, and meandering through some spectacular instrumentals such as Spirit of Avalon along the way, this cassette offers an entry into the spirit-world like no other. Highly recommended. (STC300) CS: 11.98

In the second volume of her Improvised Ritual Music series, Jana continues her employment of primal, rhythmic energy as a creative expression of women's spirituality and as a bridge between politics and faith. She explores the realms of the womb as a creative source of deep power and radical awareness, with ritual chanting, vocal improvisations, and intense instrumentation from bamboo flute to percussion. Includes Witchwoman, Remember Goddess is Within, Mami Wata (Hawaiian goddess), Inanna (Sumerian goddess), and more. The pulse is irresistible, the melodies haunting, and the meanings will be experienced on a multitude of levels. Recommended! (STC301) CS: 11.98

Tree Magic

This music began with a common vision of these two women of the power, beauty, and magic of trees in our world; it started in a Celtic tree circle near Glastonbury, traditionally a site of magic; and that is what this music is, absolute magic. Instruments such as hammered dulcimer (played to sound at times like a koto), clarinet, soprano recorder, are interwoven with African drum, marimba, xylophone... try to imagine the possibilities of these in combination, and you may come close to the beauty of these improvisations. Titles include Amazona, Spirit of the Forest, In the Tree Circle, African Walk. Rhythmic, creative, unique, inspired, and once again... highly recommended! (STC302) CS: 11.98

Deep Daydreams

Rhythmic medicine! Described as "specially metered music to lower heart rate and blood pressure", the synthesizer music on this tape is composed and performed at 60 beats per minute on Side One, and 50 BPM on Side 2. Since the body generally tends to synchronize with external beats, this is a perfect accompaniment for bodywork, stretching, relaxing, or just quiet enjoyment. (MEL1) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Wise-Woman Archetype

Subtitled Menopause as Initiation, the author of Goddesses in Everywoman presents the sacred dimensions of the wise-woman / crone. Integrating insights from the Women's Movement with archetypal psychology, she discusses: the triple goddess; blood mysteries in ancient cultures; the Inquisition as female holocaust, when strong female figures threatened patriarchy's domination over western culture; woman's pilgrimage; utilizing this archetype as a means of spiritual empowerment; and more. This is fascinating, useful information that takes us to the horizon of our understanding about the special wisdom that comes to women after menopause. (SNO137) CS: 9.98

Mysteries of Earth

Simply, one of the best recordings of the Pagan / Goddess genre we've heard! Jennifer's voice is a resonant alto, well-suited to the myriad of instruments she accompanies herself with: fretted dulcimer, guitar, dulcimer, and a variety of light percussion and bells — from frame drums to glockenspiel! Song for the Divine Mother Mary illuminates the qualities which the Christians sought to obliterate; the gorgeous Tara is sung in a style reminiscent of Ethiopian melismatic singing; and many circle songs are included as well — Mother Deepen Within Me, Spring Fertility Chant, Birth Song. If you enjoy Lisa Thiel, you're bound to love this album; highly recommended! (MEM1) CS: 10.98

Mothering the Girl Within

This guided healing meditation tape consists of four sections: Getting to Know Your Girl, Mother and your identity, Father and Your Femininity, and Mothering the Girl Within. In each section, Judith leads us on an exploration of personal experiences, and helps identify where our self-image comes from. Her approach seems based in a background in psychology, so the insights you gain from this may resemble the work you do in a therapy session! Although she does use male/female relationships for some of her examples, she does make it clear that the tape is designed for both heterosexual and lesbian women. (SK1) CS: 10.98

Cave Diver

This 1-woman (Gem Caccetta) 1-man (Robin Sircus) duo creates some unusually mystical compositions, which could more accurately be termed spells, invocations, and chants! Gem is a Wiccan and a student of the Qabala, and the songs she writes reflect her experiences and feelings as an initiate on the path. Gem is also vocalist and synthesist on this electronically-sophisticated collection of songs that range from atmospheric instrumentals and gentle inductions, to upbeat story songs and the strongly rhythmic and rhapsodic. You'll find much material for exploration here, from Waters of Persephone to Robin Goodfellow. We advise you to don a set of headphones with this musical map of cosmic consciousness, and immerse yourself entirely in its vast, deep space... Recommended! (DCR1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Kath & Ini Affirmations

Wow! A most unusual recording by Ineke and Kathy, two Australian women, who sing beautiful melodies in gorgeous harmony on songs affirming Life, Love, Strength, Forgiveness, Understanding, Power, Judgment, Order, Will and Zeal. And what's so great is they're catchy, you'll be singing along even after the tape stops...making the affirmations work in your own life! Breath-taking voices, straightforward, creative and, yes, affirming lyrics; sparse but effective back-up on synth, sax, flute, cornet, recorder, piano, guitar, percussion...which doesn't diminish the vocal power/feel of a live, a cappella, participatory, tribal-sounding recording; an all-women production. Very highly recommended! (AFF1) CS: 9.98

Kathy Zavada Mother's Song

A beautiful collection of original songs — plus the classic You Are So Beautiful (To Me) — which leaves one with the feeling of being embraced by the most gentle, loving and nurturing Mother of all mothers. Kathy's voice is lilting and soft, floating over her lovely piano like a breeze. Susan Mazer joins in on one cut, and Kathy often self-harmonizes, sometimes in six parts! Includes Child of the Mother, Love Will Sustain You, Serve the Mother, and the comforting All is Well. Very soothing stuff! (PRE1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Kay Gardner Moods & Rituals

Subtitled Meditations for Solo Flutes and intended for meditation and relaxation, this sequence of 4 compositions truly has the effect of evoking tranquility, a feeling of well-being and wide-open space. On one long piece entitled Soul Flight, she employs an ecoblock, which almost sounds like a second flute and works perfectly. Other pieces, each using a scale from a different culture, are entitled Sanskari (for bamboo flute and bell), Mountain Melody, The Temple of Light. This represents another stage in Kay's research into the use of music in healing. (EKR39) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Fishersdaughter

Subtitled Troubadour Songs, this recording reflects yet another step on Kay's journey to re-breathe music which reflects women's lives. Primarily vocal, it has a distinctly traditional sound. The Earth side is rich with ballads, wisdom and female affirmation. The Seaside (this reviewer's favorite) is full of New England sea shanties. All songs directly relate to woman's power, woman's story. The Ballad of Mary & Ann is about two New England women persecuted for being lesbians. Do You Remember? is a deeply spiritual song which reverberates with the Matrarchy. Musicians include Kay on dulcimer, flutes and vocals, April Rain and Alix Dobkin on guitar. (EKR44) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner A Rainbow Path

Please note sale price on LP! Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness! and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Rowe on viola, Martha Siegel on cello, Vivian Stoll on vibraphone. Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. LP includes bibliography and discography for further study. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, many-dimensional experience. (LR103) LP: 4.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summer/fall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your head(sets) and heart. Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing: perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. Very highly recommended — "naturally!" (LR111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner & Sunwomyn Ensemble Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1989 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label!) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path! Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Torfa) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudafina Pili Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Widdits, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! Kay Gardner Sounding the Inner Landscape (Tape)

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, we proudly present a special long-playing project. Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path: Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Have your own private workshop with Kay, anytime! Almost 70 min. (LR109) CS: 12.98

Kay Gardner Avalon

This tape of solo flute meditations was created when Kay co-led a "women's mysteries" tour in Glastonbury, England, where Brigid, the Goddess of wells, flames, oaks, creative arts/music and healing, once dwelled and was worshipped. As Kay moved from High Altar to holy fountain to holy well, her flute improvisations were recorded by a hand-held tape-player, and the magic of the place, of the healing waters, of those moments, and of the Goddess Brigid's inspiration can be heard by all. Remarkably good quality, quieting, and very suitable for meditation. Includes The Lady's Chapel, Chalice Hill Fairy Circle. This is hopefully the first in a series to be recorded by Kay at women's holy places. (LR106) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Mooncircles

Beautiful, classic album of flute compositions. Kay has played the flute for many years and this album reflects her mastery of both the instrument and of compositional music. Much of it is an ancient and, according to the album cover, Sapphic mode, and perfect for meditation or love-making. Also includes three vocals. Classical guitar accompaniment is by Meg Christian, piano by Althea Waites. (WWE80) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Emerging

An exquisite instrumental masterpiece by Kay and a host of other classical musicians. Sounds range from Renaissance to contemporary to oceanic. Like Mooncircles, this music has an uncanny way of reaching way into one's depths and subtly producing a healing effect within body and spirit of the listener. Kay has demonstrated her ability as a composer of the highest caliber. (WWE83) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner Ocean Moon

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably need to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long, intimate sessions with someone special... This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamare, which she considers the best piece she ever composed; with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release. Highly recommended. (WWE85) CD: 15.98

(Kay Gardner/Nurudafina Pili Abena) One Spirit

This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world! The One Spirit duo is a charismatic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flutes, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global musics and rhythms from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this aural journey. Features a cameo appearance by Brooke Medicine Eagle, on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle... also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Silencia, Carnival, Asian Sunset, Happy Life. We welcome Niru — with her congas, djembe, quica, dundun, pandeiro, balafon, agogo, dumbek, sardo, and rain rattles — to the Ladyslipper label (and promise you'll be hearing more of her in the near future). Exciting, energetic, and meditative... at once... Highly recommended, of course! (LR113) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Bettine Clemen Love Song To A Planet

Virtually ignored by the mainstream music industry, Kim will probably be one of those composers who grace a relatively small number of us with her magic, then becomes posthumously knighted, or something! We keep saying that each new album is really her best, and it can't be helped: her artistry is perfect on so many levels, one wonders what goddess she pleased to be so blessed. Joined here, on her 18th recording, by the equally prolific flautist Bettine Clemen, for a joyful, reverent, gently loving and creative tribute to our Mother, our home, flute and harp dance and blend into ethereal layers of sound, sometimes together and sometimes joined by cello, bass, synthesizer and percussion, for an experience utterly drenched in grace. Includes Shanti, The Dark Island, Amazing Grace, Way of the Dolphin, and the ambitious Love Song to the Water Planet. Very highly recommended. (ENT20112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Tender Shepherd

This incomparable Celtic harp here performs lullabies and airs for all ages — melodies for quiet times — a treasury of songs beloved by generation after generation. From the timeless beauty of the traditional Irish, Welsh and Scottish Foggy Dew, Sally Loo Lammie, and Gartan Mother's Lullaby to the classical grace of J.S. Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze, Kim magically combines meditative and sprightly moods to create a soothing time-out from a busy world. (GOU112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Moonrise

A rich and diverse collection of original, classical and international pieces, plus a few by other contemporary composers such as George Winston. Several refer in title to the moon, and you can feel the pull by the harp strings on your body chemistry! (INV078) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Wind Shadows

Kim brings forth the mysterious and magical sound of the Celtic harp to its crystalline potential in her interpretation of traditional Irish and Scottish tunes, with simplicity and grace. Kim is classically trained on pedal harp but has made this more ancient instrument her life's work. In addition to some Carian and other tunes from Ireland, this tape includes three original compositions which evoke stillness and calm. (INV111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Water Spirit

In addition to original and Irish tunes this contains some classical and earlier ones: Pachelbel's Canon, Faure's Pavane (a haunting piece), a Bach minuet, and 12th and 13th century French and Italian compositions. Digitally mastered, 1991-time duplicated...in other words, for 9.98. Kim will sit inside your speakers and play her 18th century French single action harp. A supreme recording—very highly recommended. (INV116) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Steve Kujala Wild Iris

One of Kim's most unusual and gorgeous to date (that's what we say about each of her new releases when we hear it!)...a true masterpiece of improvisation. Steve is a jazz flautist in his other life, and brings a playful, energetic smoothness and lightness (and at times pliancy) to the flute from Irish, Scottish, South American traditions, plus several originals by both Kim herself and the duo. Also includes the beautiful Requiem by Gabriel Faure, as well as some solos by Kim. Very, very highly recommended! (INV123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Angels in Disguise

Kim here showcases her haunting, angelic voice, reminiscent of her heavenly harping and the vocals of Singh Kaur, with accompaniment of her own harp as well as strings with subtle touches of guitar and percussion. The material is a lovely mix of Celtic folk melodies and contemplative originals, and even one Japanese composition. Beautifully crafted, don't miss this! (INV124) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron

Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosity supreme. "The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complementary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far, many Eastern sounds, interesting scales. Includes Waters of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past...or, if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kiva

The Healing Art

Kiva is a 3-women acoustic ensemble performing beautiful original songs of the Goddess, healing, and Earth's ancient ways. They employ vocal harmonies with traditional arrangements and instrumentation (cello, bodhran, mandolin, guitar), in a style that is contemplative and peaceful on side 1; inspirational of movement, laughter and dance on side 2. Lead singer-songwriter Ariana (formerly of Pomegranate) is a priestess of the Old Religion, and her lyrics are thus informed. Accompanied by a multi-talented kaleidoscope of friends, among them long-time Ladyslipper helper Barbara McPherson on drums! Songs include Diana, Aphrodite's Flowers, Witchin' Hour, The Healing Art, Jai Ma. Recommended! (KIV1) CS: 9.98

Kiva

Renewal

More percussive Goddess and Earth songs and chants by Ariana's primarily acoustic ensemble. The stand-outs are the chants which each feature two percussionists — Barbara and Robin — who employ African, Latin, Caribbean, Native and Brazilian rhythms, but the musicians' ease with traditional forms and harmonies also adds to this collection. Includes Dance in the Moonlight, Yamaya, Diana Fantasia, Huntress, Fire Flow Free, The Earth Is Our Mother. Recommended again! (KIV2) CS: 9.98

Kiva

Alchemy

This early 1993 release weaves together the enchanting vocal harmonies and powerful rhythms of the earth religion, celebrating the alchemy of love and life that transforms us as we embrace ecstasy. The musicians are inspired by myriad forms and traditions, and this album showcases their instrumental range as never before, highlighting individual Kiva members and friends such as Robin Burdulis and Ladyslipper friend Barbara McPherson. Includes Charger's Fire, Maid of Orleans, Grandmother Spider Woman, Persephone's Song, and more. (KIV3) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kutira Decosterd

Into the Dreamtime

"Oceanic Tantra: to merge in love with all creation, to undulate like a wave on an infinite, blissful sea of sound." This is evocative, ritualistic, vibrational music performed by the artist on Didgeridoo, accompanied by Sophia and Singh Kaur's vocals, Raphael's keyboards, Tom Sternberg's dynamic white-noise duets, juju and thunder drums and other percussion on Side 1. Side 2 is a sensual, shamanic guided journey led by Kutira's mellifluous voice to a meeting with your own Dolphin guide. Some proceeds go to dolphin and whale organizations. Unusual, enchanting, ancient, and ecstasy-inspiring: highly recommended! (KAH1) CS: 11.98

L Montgomery/A Getty/R Hyde-Skeele Changing Woman

This 1992 collection of women's spirituality songs and chants is performed by three women, Lou Montgomery, Adele Getty, and Rebecca Hyde-Skeele (some of you will recognize Adele from her work with Acoustic Medicine), with drumming accompaniment. Their material includes originals by members Lou and Adele, as well as Starhawk, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and others. Includes Power of a Woman, Woman of Radiance, Dance of the Moon and Sun, Our Magic Is Our Giveaway, 13 in all, lyrics included, making this an excellent source of material for circles. (CHWT) CS: 9.98

Lady Alaina

Meditation with Lady Alaina

Lady Alaina, a priestess of the Old Religion, is known to some of you for her work with the ensemble Pomegranate. This tape contains two long meditations, one per side. In Elements, a meditation with only drumbeat accompaniment, relaxation is created through a reminder of how the four elements live within you. Rainbow, with acoustic guitar accompaniment, utilizes the seven chakras and the rainbow of the color spectrum as a source for healing yourself and others. The instrumental accompaniment works well to make these meditations enjoyable to practice, and effective in producing the desired results. (POM2) CS: 9.98

Lady Isadora (with Lord Pan) The Witching Hour

Lady Isadora is a feminist Witch priestess and singer-songwriter. Her lovely debut cassette of witchy material, considered a classic in the Neo-Pagan community, contains 15 songs, one spoken chant with drums (Heartbeat of Creation), and one spoken ritual prose poem with musical accompaniment, with such titles as Witches and Amazons, The Goddess Sings, Iain, The Hallowe'en. Her clear soprano and guitar styles are in keeping with traditional Celtic folk song; the majority of the songs are original, the rest by Lord Pan; the accompaniment includes guitars, recorders, piano, pipe organ, vocal overdubs. (L11) CS: 10.98

Lady Isadora

The Queen of Earth and Sky

Lady Isadora's long-awaited solo effort features songs of love, magic, and Goddess religion in folk, rock, and medieval/Renaissance styles. The use of overdubs on several selections creates striking harmonies and multi-vocal textures. Original lyrics and mostly original melodies; includes Mistress of the Mysteries, The Pentacle and the Rose, Lion-Hearted Woman (a ballad about a Witch condemned to be burned at the stake), Ye Birds and Ye Beasts (a vegetarian anthem), and a melody of yule carols including Our Lady Greenleaves. Says HeartSong Review: "Her pure soprano voice comes from deep within her soul...inspired and fulfilling music, highly recommended." (L12) CS: 10.98

Priestess of the Pentacle

Released simultaneously with The Queen of Earth and Sky as a companion album, here are more haunting melodies and thought-provoking lyrics from this Witch singer-songwriter who has received critical acclaim in the Neo-Pagan Goddess spirituality press. Includes the whimsical autobiographical title song, plus Witches Brew Blues, O Freya du ekont (sung in Swedish to the Norse goddess), the humorous waltz asthema, The Pen is a Magic Wand, Drawing Down the Moon (a spoken ritual piece), and the poignant Letter to Anne Frank. Libana, A Women's Chorus: Vol. 1

Formed in 1973, this ensemble researches and performs vocal, instrumental, and folk dance music which celebrates women's traditions from a variety of cultures through the ages. Their first tape, recorded live in concert, celebrates women and nature with primarily eastern European/Balkan music, plus a little early medieval music and contemporary folk. Also includes Sunni Paz. Music! (L14) CS: 9.98

Sojourns

From Bulgaria to Bolivia, the 13 women of Libana maintain the captivating sounds and rhythms of the world's women. They carry juxtaposed diverse traditional and contemporary expressions into a collage of shifting vocal colors, and lush instrumental textures. Sojourning into the lives and hearts of women from Eastern Europe, the Middle East, the Mediterranean and South America, they sing of love, work, defiance and celebration. Recommended! A Circle Is Cast

This 1986 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side 1 traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side 2 marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements; most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPN002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fire Within

Finally, the long-awaited sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast! Synthesizing their two musical identities — as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual — this release features poems, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here; several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman, Neesa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Red Painter's Round, Clear Horizon, Rise Up O Flame, O Virgo Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you — on the Ladyslipper label — Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LR108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Borderland

On this 1993 release, Libana deftly traverses hemispheres, continents, and borders with a dazzling repertoire of contemporary and traditional World Music. From a lyrical Finnish song of longing to the captivating pulse of Arabic rhythms... the stark poignancy of an Argentinian lament to the riving drumming of the Zar, an Egyptian ritual ecstatic dance... Libana's music speaks to the essence of women's inner and outer realities. Compelling rhythms, incomparable vocal versatility, tenderness and strength join to create a musical mosaic of spirited integrity. Includes Our Djura's Fines Azem. Don't miss this! Lisa Dancing-Light

Point of Balance

Recommended by Brodie Medicine Eagle, Lisa's 1990 debut album features her original vocal compositions, intended for the healing of Mother Earth and the spiritual reawakening of all her children. If there were a New Age Radio Top 10, this title cut would certainly be in it, with a melody which you'll hear in your mind long after the album has ended, with tenor sax and more. Winds of Change, dedicated to Oya, Goddess of change and transformation; Power Chant; Mother Earth Chant and others; but you could buy this primarily for the title cut — it's worth it. Songs of the Spirit

A collection of visionary medicine songs — for healing and awakening the consciousness of our own divinity — from eastern and western Indian traditions as well as her own talented songwriting skills, presented with bells, guitar, Lisa's divine voice, chants, self-harmonies. Includes White Buffalo Woman, I Am the Goddess, Mother of All Things, There is a Goddess, Rainbow Trail... a highly recommended selection for anyone interested in women's spirituality. (SD1) CS: 9.98

Prayers for the Planet

With Rainbow Woman, Lotus Goddess, Song to the Grandmothers, Coramother Chant, Moan Mother Lisa again weaves songs from eastern and western origins to create a second gorgeous compilation of very woman-oriented spiritual songs. Songs given to her for energy and healing. All original except for a few adapted from Tibetan and Gaelic chants and prayers. Harmony vocals and ocarina by Annie Williams... also highly recommended. Songs of Transformation

Annie Williams again collaborates (on vocals and harp) with Lisa on this beautiful recording of Goddess chants. Lisa selects both original and traditional songs and mantras from a range of cultures — Tibet, Sikh, Hindu — which express the human search for divine wisdom, strength, joy and love, through spiritual transformation. Includes Lady of the Flowing Waters, She's Been Waiting, Candlemas Song, May the Circle Be Open. Lisa is also the creator of the lovely cover artwork. (SD3) CS: 9.98

Rising of the Phoenix

Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected; and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Giveaway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. Contains a guide for using the songs for healing and in ceremony. As always, highly recommended. (SD4) CS: 9.98

Lady of the Lake

We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arms of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Pure Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and the track An uplifting treasure, most highly recommended! (LR112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sisters of the Dream

"The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother." This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists: Lisa's Songs of the Spirit, Prayers for the Planet, and Rising of the Phoenix; and Annie's Wind Spirit, Song of the Jaguar, and Children of the Sun (see our listings for both artists in this section). This would be an excellent way to sample works by both artists (we're sure many of you'll want to add more of their recordings to your collection), and this is also a magical compilation in its own right. Escape of the Circus Ponies

This collection of solo piano pieces is a vivid, joyful exploration of original compositions by one of the most recognized female pianists. Liz's lively style and tempo produce a melodic, mesmerizing effect that both calms and inspires. From the carousel subtleties in the title track to the echoing sounds of The Empty Forest, she takes the listener on an incredible keyboard journey. Truly a work of depth and emotion and a complement to any record collection. Highly recommended! (WH1999) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Louise Hay/Joshua Leeds

Safe Passage

Subtitled Affirming Songs of Hope and Healing, this lovely 1991 recording contains songs and chants — musical versions of Louise's affirmations — performed by a variety of vocalists, mostly women (and most notably Eve Sands). These affirmations become modern day mantras as they are lovingly repeated. Forgiveness is an instrumental, with the suggested meditation "May I never count the number of times I forgive." Joshua is the musical composer, and the melodies are sweet, quiet and unobtrusive. Some of these songs are found on the album Songs of Affirmation. We think this recording will fulfill its intent to assist in deep inner work and change; highly recommended. (INS0591) CS: 9.98

Gifts To Each Other...Chants & Drum

The full subtitle of this is Native American Chants and Drum, and this is a wonderful collection of both collected and original chants, both sung and drummed by Lyn. Some of them are The Earth Is Our Mother, a Hopi chant; We All Come From the Mother; Ancient Mother; I Am a Circle; Our Magic Is Our Giveaway. Lynne Dusenberry Crow

Coming Home to North American Roots

Excellent, Excellent, Excellent! And simply a must for any woman of European descent interested in Native culture and spirituality. Too often, many white women (looking connection to their own roots, appalled by their own culture's racism, seeking to distance themselves from their cultural history) are drawn to more Earth-based cultures. Lynne's father was adopted by Salish Indian elders; her childhood, and subsequent return as an adult, taught her much about white interaction with Native peoples and attraction to those cultural and spiritual values. Lynne now teaches multicultural understanding for people who seek personal, spiritual and cultural identity. This tape consists of six talk sessions, from A Native American Connection to The Attraction of Native Teachings to The Quest for Earth Roots. She is a quiet yet charismatic speaker who uses her own experience to help us understand the elements of empowerment. A great teaching tool for those doing multicultural, anti-racism work; highly recommended! (EWS11) CS: 9.99

Maniko

Standing Naked

An aptly titled album, as the artist's lovely voice indeed stands alone with sparse accompaniment by guitar, saxophone and flute. This is a gentle and affirming collection of mostly original songs, intimate and resonant with poetic purity. Many lyrics are inspired by her spiritual connection with Osho Rajneesh, but are relevant to other spiritual journeys as well. One of the most serenely beautiful and evocative examples of the recently expanding genre of spiritually-oriented folk music. (WSM0031) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Inward Harmony

Marcey Hamlin, a former nuclear engineer, became a healing music technician after a successful experience with alternative healing techniques following her car accident in 1995. Now she composes in a meditative trance in her self-designed computer music studio, and the resulting music is simply otherworldly, celestial choirs, sweeping drone sounds, all very soothing and beautiful. Hundreds of people have come forth with remarkable testimonials about healings and other life changes this album has effected. Listening to this, you'll feel enveloped in a blanket of divine love. Tape is 90 minutes of continuous music. CD is 72 minutes. Recommended! (MRC1) CS: 13.99 CD: 15.99

Z

Sounding like music from other galaxies, or perhaps bells from heaven, this album is intended to assist in opening our dream states; the artist suggests you keep a dream journal for 6 weeks to help determine your own symbology for what is happening in your life. While this sounds very "far out", this life is my favorite of all her works to date (perhaps it's significant that I have a very active dream life and rarely understand their deeper meanings)... anyway, the sounds express a joy and exuberance with unexpected tone and pitch changes — it's exciting as well as relaxing! 60 minutes of continuous music. Highly recommended! (MRC2) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.99

Dream Partner

This 1992 release is a mellifluous flow of healing music, more melodious than her earlier works, with synthesized grand piano, 12-string guitar, and Peruvian flute. It was designed to enhance the listener's awareness about co-working with Spirit. A reviewer has little experience in these advanced stages of consciousness, but this music does tend to move one into an altered state! Seems ideal for meditation and massage, and lots of people have claimed miraculous healings from listening to Marcey's music. (MRC5) CS: 13.99 CD: 15.99

Margot Adler

From Witch to Witch Doctor

This program subtitled Healers, Therapists and Shamans, this author, expert on neopaganism and goddess worship, and radio announcer on NPR's "All Things Considered" examines the crossover of shamanic applications into therapy. While there recently has been a strong resurgence of interest in shamanic methods and their impact on modern therapy, controversy continues to surround the acceptance of Shamanism as a valid approach for healing mind and body. Also contains a comparison of various shamanic techniques, including excerpts from a presentation by renowned psychiatrist R.D. Laing. 60 min. (ACE3) CS: 9.99

Marianne Williamson

On Relationships

This 73-minute cassette contains two unabridged lectures on relationships, and the guidance "A Course in Miracles" lends the subject. The titles are Romantic Delusions and Friendship, and the essence of each is about transforming your relationships through the power of love. (HRP1932) CS: 10.99

Marianne Williamson

On Work and Career

Marianne's speaking style may remind you of Joanne Louten's: quick, bright and funny. Her interpretive talks on how to use the spiritual wisdom gathered in "A Course in Miracles" rely on her own experiences much as one would hear in a 12-step meeting. On this 65-minute tape, recorded live at two lectures entitled Making A Living and Ambitions vs. Inspiration, she focuses on our culturally-ingrained attitudes toward work and prosperity, and suggests how we might make our contributions to the Universe, our life's work, a joyful experience. (HRP1933) CS: 10.99

Marianne Williamson

On Self-Esteem

In these two lectures entitled Loving Yourself and Emotional Self-Sufficiency, Marianne discusses achieving self-esteem through self-awareness rather than looking to things outside ourselves to confirm our worth, and achieving emotional fulfillment by looking beyond old patterns and mistakes to the fact that we are all perfect creations. It is this "sense of self" that allows us to weather difficult situations, be confident in our true worth, see ourselves as lovable, and take responsibility for our own emotional support. (HRP1935) CS: 10.99

Marianne Williamson

On Success

Ideas of success, money, power, and material things often occupy the place of God in our society. In these lectures entitled Success in the World and Giving Up Failure, Marianne shows how achieving real success in the world depends on our ability to offer something of value to the universe with honor and respect. In letting go of the idea of failure, we then have a choice to look at each experience as an opportunity for growth. When we are willing to begin again and learn from our experiences and relationships, we will always have success. (HRP1955) CS: 10.99

Marianne Williamson

On Dealing with Anger

In this lecture based on A Course in Miracles, Marianne discusses how the need to get in touch with anger and release it — rather than suppress it — is essential to our spiritual well-being and our relationships. In expressing anger, without attacking, we need to feel safe enough to share our truth, and willing to hear truth from others. (HRP1957) CS: 10.99

Marianne Williamson

On Love

In these lectures entitled What is Love? and Love Without an Agenda, Marianne discusses how the application of the principles of universal love create breakthroughs in all our personal relationships... how our desire to control situations, as well as our romantic idea of one imagined perfect partner, that destroys relationships... and how letting go of pre-conceived notions of what romantic love should look like, we open ourselves to the possibilities that exist for the truest kind of love. (HRP1958) CS: 10.99

Marianne Williamson

On Money

Money is energy and energy is infinite in the universe. By doing what we love to do — and working for love and not for money — we will benefit in many ways. In these two lectures entitled The Meaning of Money and Money Spiritualized, Marianne explains that the key is to see money as a neutral entity, neither good nor bad, and find work we love. The money we receive from work can also be used to heal the world through the continuous flow it provides from ourselves to others and back again. (HRP1964) CS: 10.99

A Return To Love (2-Tape Set)

This 1992 double set is an abridged reading of her popular bestseller of the same name, subtitled Reflections on the Principles of A Course in Miracles. ACIM is a self-study program of spiritual psychotherapy which uses Christian terminology and concepts to advance the acceptance of a thought system based on love rather than fear. Some listeners may have trouble with Marianne's usage of "He" in reference to God or the Christian referencing; try to get beyond it, because the messages contained in ACIM, and in her talks, hold some important spiritual gems. 2.5 hours. Marija Gimbutas

Age of the Great Goddess (2 Tapes)

The mystery of the Goddess culture is brought to life here by one of the great archaeologists of our time. The story of this audiotape begins in the 1920's, when Marija was a young girl living in Lithuania; she was fascinated with the folktales of her region, where Christianity was introduced relatively late (the 16th century). Many of these stories concerned the "Old Religion" and the Great Goddess — and were passed down as folklore from before the birth of Christ. After training as an archaeologist, she led 5 expeditions over 3 decades to explore the origins of the earliest European religions. What emerged from her life's work is evidence of an advanced culture, based not on weapons and fear, but on the presence of the Great Goddess, symbolizing a sacred union with all of nature. 2 tapes, 120 min. Marion Weinstein

The Ancient Modern Witch

This New York author-lecturer offers her analysis on the revival of Witchcraft, one of the world's most ancient religions. She discusses how this early spiritual wisdom still applies to current needs... the place in the community the religion held 4000 years ago, and the role of a modern Witch in our global village today. From a lecture given Halloween night, 1990, at a Greenwich Village nightclub. 52 min. (EMP336) CS: 9.99

Marnie Jones

Grace

The remarkable music of whales and dolphins (all wild, from the Atlantic to the Pacific to the Amazon River), blended with harp, flute, clarinet, cello, and Marnie's angelic voice, make this 1992 album a feast for the spirit as well as the ears. Moods range from reverent to playful, as the awesome creatures of the deep inspire the musicians to create from their despair. This all-acoustic recording is accented with some brilliant hand percussion and Tibetan bowls. One of the best albums incorporating sea-mammal sounds we've heard, infused with a profound sense of intimacy and intricacy; very highly recommended! (MJ36) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Marsha Burack

Reiki — Healing Yourself

This Reiki master teacher guides you through a comprehensive hands-on body treatment you can perform on yourself. Reiki is a subtle but powerful art — it is a method of healing and attunement in which energy is transferred and released through touch, sounds and symbols, hands and breath. Marsha proceeds through the chakras, then the back, shoulders and spine; she gives gentle instructions over a calming musical background by Kristopher Willy. Recommended for novices as well as Reiki practitioners, for centering, energizing, and relaxing. 66 minutes. (RSH101) CS: 12.99

Medical Mission Sisters

EarthSong

A gorgeous collection of ritual songs, chants, prayers from this ecumenical community of feminist, woman-identified Sisters, dedicated to global healing. Featuring six sublime vocalists accompanied by piano, cello and oboe, the selections speak of the She-Creator and her deeds, the interconnectedness of all life here on earth, and defining one's self in relation to God. Beautiful, and a wonderful resource for ritual! (MM52) CS: 10.99

Meg Christian w/ Shaktivilas Ensemble

The Fire Of My Love

This devotional tape of songs for Gurumayi Chivilasandra, performed by a woman known to many as one of the founding mothers of women's music, is truly gorgeous! Meg's vocals and guitar, accompanied by resonant cello, violin, recorder and tabla, are as rich as ever, perhaps better. 3 of the songs were written by Meg: Gurumother: Oh My Gurumayi, and Darshan, which was also recorded on FROM THE HEART; most other songs were written by Gurumayi herself. The prevailing mood is one of a deep peace, which can be experienced by anyone, regardless of spiritual orientation. Meg's music has always had the power to affect her listeners this way, and still does. Recommended! (SYD58) CS: 11.99

Melissa Morgan & Diane Clarke

Invocation to Isis

Original music, co-written for Melissa's celestial harp and Diane's expressive flute — interwoven with occasional gang vocals and environmental sound effects — evokes mystical and romantic moods as well as magically playful ones. Their compositions include: Madonna, Darius, Gypsy, Isis, sound like... two women making beautiful music together! balanced, smooth, sweet, glad to be there. Perfect for playing on a breezy day when your windows are open. Recommended! (MM3) CS: 9.99

Michelle Sell

Circle 'Round the Moon: Harp Music

This beautifully crafted and textured instrumental work is rich with diverse melodies that encompass earthy rhythms, Brazilian dances, light jazz, and classical transcriptions. Michelle has been around for a long time, performing with artists from Margie Adam to Count Basie, Betty Carter to Linda Ronstadt, Liza Minnelli to Sarah Vaughan; her first solo work bespeaks these years of professional accomplishment. Contributions from such musical dignitaries as David Darling on cello and Radhika Miller on alto flute, as well as others on soprano sax, acoustic bass, and world percussion round out Michelle's harp and keyboards. Notable cuts include So Pra Mim, a spicy Brazilian choro; her original Three Sisters and Dancing Coyote; and the enchantingly rhythmic title cut. Highly recommended! (MC1102) CS: 9.98

Mindia

Balinese Dream

Innovative World Music composer, flutist and Gamelan player Mindia Klein, co-founder of the Ancient Future ensemble, takes us on a journey to the Far East, exploring both inner and outer landscapes. Her musical impressions are interwoven with live sounds of the Balinese jungle and village life: Balinese gamelan, Indian tabla, bansuri flute, sarod and esraj, along with guitars and flutes, co-mingle with Balinese frogs, birds, and ocean — a passing musical procession to the temple or a waltz of the Monkey chime, a village renewal ritual, riding on a breeze. This gorgeous bouquet of exotic rhythms, mysterious tonalities, and shimmering melodic episodes is filled with surprises. Recommended! (MINT) CS: 9.98

Miriam T Winter/Med Mission Sisters

Womansong (2-Tape Set)

The companion to the resource book Womanprayer, Womansong, this is a feminist Christian celebration, with songs which speak of God in the feminine, describing Her aspects with feminine imagery, and calling for the liberation and unification of women of the earth. Refreshing and inspiring, whatever your religious affiliation! Miriam, professor of liturgy, worship and spirituality, is also a Medical Mission Sister, a group which has recorded 12 albums, including the award-winning Joy Is Like the Rain; her voice is very sweet, complemented by beautiful women's harmonies. Includes a songbook. (MM51) CS: 15.98

MotherTongue

All Beings of the Earth

Subtitled Songs & Chants of the EarthSpirit Community (an international network of Pagans and Nature-oriented people), this collection celebrates our connection to Sacred Earth. The ritual chorus consists of 14 women and men, backed by various percussion; includes Clean Mother, Burn Fire, The Moon Is High, Air I Am, The Circle Stappes Up, and more. An excellent source of simple chants and rounds for group singing. And, they advertise it as "the perfect holiday gift — they won't already have this one!" (ESC1) CS: 9.98

MotherTongue

Fire Dance!

More Pagan and Earth-based ritual chants and songs by this vocal and instrumental mixed ensemble, for every season: includes Lammas Night, Haste to the Sabbat, The Wintery Queen, The Fairest Maid, Kiss Me My Laughing Lover, Invocation, Air I Am, 14 in all, both originals and traditional songs included. (ESC3) CS: 9.98

Moving Breath

She Changes

Subtitled A Collection of Songs from Healing Circles, this album was created to commemorate the Ecstatic Women Gathering held in Santa Barbara on Halloween of 1991. These 24 chants and songs — both traditional invocation and Goddess songs, and original healing and affirming songs — are intended to open women's hearts to the power of healing. Beautiful harmonies and rhythms are employed by these 3 women (Mujba Cabogus, Valerie Girard, Lori Green, Chris Leja, and Julie Lewis), with tasteful accompaniment on percussion and occasional flute, harp and guitar. Lyrics included to make learning these easy; includes Honored Maiden Huntress, She's Been Waiting, Powerful Woman, Spiller Woman, She Changes, Hear the Mother, Moon Sister Moon, We All Come from the Goddess, and Like A Mountain (which they call Old and Strong and which they should have credited to Naomi Littlebear Morrisio, and hopefully will on future printings.) An excellent collection! (MVB1) CS: 9.98

Tibetan Bells II

Utilizing solely the bells, bowls, cymbals and gongs of Tibet, these artists create sounds which could almost be confused for electronic music! An unprecedented synthesis of the sounds of East and West, of Past and Present, of Here and Beyond — quintessential space music, produced by Stephen Hill of Hearts of Space. This is the musical and metaphysical heir to their original 1971 underground classic, Tibetan Bells. Prepare for an out-of-body experience. (CEL005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Chants for the Queen of Heaven

Susan Robbins, musical director of Loana, described this program of songs and chants to the Goddess as "a wonderful and varied collection of multicultural and original chants, performed with spirit and conviction, and arranged using a multi-colored palette of instrumental and vocal textures." And, we recommend this for all of you who have loved Loana and were searching for something else sort of like them! Containing women's sacred and ritual music from around the world, this 1993 album reflects the richness and variety of many woman-honoring traditions. Material ranges from a celebratory Renaissance procession (with English horn, flute, cello and percussion) to meditative Eastern incantations accompanied by Tibetan bowl, from the driving poly-rhythms of an Afro-Brazilian chant to the tranquil Shikuhachi flute of a Japanese song; from simple but haunting modal melodies to complex harmonies by a 9-woman ensemble. Chants include Vibiana Women, Old Crane of Mystery, Rise Up and Call Her Name, Vemaya, Om Tara. Lyrics plus beautiful cover art. Recommended! (MMM001) CS: 9.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass

Medicine Wheel

This 1992 release in their Chants of the World series blends the sounds of spiritual choral music with traditional Native American music and musicians — including singer-teacher Brooke Medicine Eagle. On one extended track, several meditative Native American chants are woven with the sounds of Indian flutes, all set into a field of crickets, cicadas, and birds. Also included is The Song of Chief Seattle, a passionate call to honor and care for the earth. Very timely, it coincides with the year of the Quincentennial. 60 minutes. Ancient Mother

The spirit of the Great Goddess comes to life as traditional female singers, priestesses and shamans from Celtic, Afro-American Yoruba, Hawaiian, East Indian, Hungarian and Native American traditions — including Muradafina Pili Abena, Kay Gardner, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and Z. Budapest — are joined by the renowned On Wings of Song singers, on this 1993 release. The music is both ageless and contemporary, ranging from the 11th century plainsong of Hildegard of Bingen to ecstatic gospel rock, all set in natural environmental backgrounds of birds, rivers, cicadas and crickets, humpback whales and the ocean. 60 minutes. O Great Spirit

"O Great Spirit, Earth, Sun, Sky and Sea! You are inside And all around me." This Native American-inspired chant, written by Adele Getty, is performed as an extended chant by mostly women's voices with angelic harmonies and subtle accompaniment of flute, percussion, touch of synth, and the nighttime songs of crickets and cicadas. Excellent for centering, meditation, ritual. 60 minutes. (SHM1009) CS: 9.98

Kalama: A Sufi Song of Love

This 1990 release carries the extended chant to a new level of complexity, with 45 tracks and 52 separate lines of choral music, while maintaining the stunning simplicity which creates wholeness and peace in the listener. Sides 1 and 2 are more different; the first side, Remembrance, is gentler, more ambient; side 2, Celebration, features more variation, faster transitions and some intense male chanting. Sufism is a native Middle Eastern mysticism which stresses the underlying unity of all traditions. (SHM1011) CS: 9.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass Heart of Perfect Wisdom

On this 1990 extended chant album, Side I is an extraordinary cross-cultural tapestry based on the Buddhist Heart Sutra. Side II is a meditative journey skillfully blending Eastern overtones, Tibetan bells and bowls, and Nepalese bamboo flutes. The frequencies created can affect brain waves, heart beat, and respiration, and induce alpha and theta states of deep meditation. Ancient yet technologically futuristic! (SHM1012) CS: 9.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass Shri Ram

The artists compare this 1991 release to two of their previous titles: Om Namah Shivaya and From the Goddess. Side I is a beautiful weaving of the simple melody of this widely-known Sanskrit chant — ideal for relaxation or meditation. On Side 2, the voices of On Wings of Song build to an ecstatic climax, as Eastern and Western influences are merged into a loving and heart-opening celebration. (SHM1013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass Gloria

Imagine entering a Gothic cathedral as the great bell sounds the call to prayer. The thousand-year-old melodies of Gregorian chant echo through the cathedral as the monks intone: "Gloria in excelsis deo, et in terra pax." ("Glory be to God and peace on earth.") The congregation responds, chanting again and again the simple refrain "Adeamus te." ("I adore thee.") On this 1991 extended-chant album, male voices are joined in beautiful harmony by the women of On Wings of Song and the delicate accompaniment of classical guitar. (SHM1014) CS: 9.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass From the Goddess / O Great Spirit

This CD contains the extended chants From the Goddess, a well-loved celebration of the Divine Feminine, as well as the Native American-inspired O Great Spirit, 60 minutes of "new spiritual" choral music. (SHM6003) CD: 15.98

Pan Morrigan Ship of Visions

With much reverent spirit, Pan offers up her considerable talent in honor of her inspirations, the Mothers and Fathers of her voice — everyone from Billie to Baroque to Victor Jara — in this fantastic 1991 debut recording. She possesses great vocal power and control, conveying a unique pastiche of the elements: airy yet deeply emotional, sharp and clear yet smoky at the same time. Her songs are evocative portraits, like beautiful imagistic movies, of people (Praise Song for Walt Whitman), of living (title song), and worship (Moon Prayer inspired by the ancient Gaels). Features the excellent transcendental drumming, balafon, and mbira of Tony Vaccaro, as well as her own guitar, pennywhistle, and double-holed flute. Vaguely reminiscent of the unusual multi-layered vocal music of Sally Oldfield; highly recommended! (BWM1) CS: 9.98

Paul Winter Consort w/ Susan Osborn Missa Gala/ Earth Mass (2-Set)

Recorded live in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine (with the pipe organ of the world's largest Gothic Cathedral) and in the Grand Canyon. Along with the voices of wolf, whale and loon and the rhythms of Africa and Brazil, it creates a joyous, contemporary celebration of Mother Earth. (LM0002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Penny Little In A Light Garden

Our highest recommendation goes to this one... every second is pure listening pleasure, and it does not sound like every other new age recording you've heard; in fact, it doesn't sound like any other one. Original compositions for Celtic harp, cellos, flutes, violas, flute and keyboards... glorious baroque sequences, rock riffs, jazz progressions, classical strains... parkly magical soundscapes: playful, giddy dances over the soundwaves. Includes To Cecilia (For My Mother). (GP79324) CS: 9.98

Pomegranate

This 3-woman ensemble represents a new voice singing of the Old Religion, with ancient people's veneration of the Goddess as the keynote. Forceful and striking vocal harmonies blend with acoustic stringed instruments (guitar, cello) and percussion, creating chants and songs which are strong affirmations of the feminine. The first side of the tape musically casts a Dianic circle, and the second side includes songs of a more pantheistic nature. Two members, Ariana and Ailana, are both priestesses of the Old Religion; Diana is a classically-trained musician, influenced by multi-ethnic music; and the tape additionally features "a company of women." Includes Blessed Mother, May Queen, Earth Mother and more. 60 min. (POM1) CS: 9.98

Pomegranate Rose Such is the Garden

This tape of songs, rounds and chants communicates devotion and renewal in Goddess spirituality, with lovely 4-part women's harmonies and inspiring original lyrics. Includes Four Directions, Hecate, On Mother Earth, First Woman, with light acoustic accompaniment. "Come home to the earth, love the earth... Her wind breathes your name! Come to her breast and drink of her love." From our home area of North Carolina. (PR2) CS: 9.98

Rachel Bagby

Rachel Bagby Full

We're thrilled to bring this spectacular 1993 album to your attention! Original songs and chants, some with great rhythms and fantastic percussion, some suitable for circles... especially Full Woman (an anthem for encouraging and celebrating full womanhood) and one to the African goddess Nemaya. Recorded with members of Bobby McFerrin's vocal group Voces, and expertly produced by Linda Talley. If you love circle chants, extended chants, choral chants, and some incredible jazz soul here and there... if you've been missing the contributions, heritage and presence of women of color in the materials you've been using for circles... and if you're taken with music that's unique, inspired, inspiring, and celebratory, you'll love this! Radhika Miller Here and Faraway

We've come to expect nothing less than excellence from Radhika and her ensemble of talented friends, and this 1992 release captures that adjective beautifully. Her graceful combinations of Western classical elements with the instruments and styles of other cultures are joined by quiet flute works brimming with repose. A special highlight is Michelle Sell's exquisite harp, which adds a lush beauty to an already lovely sound. Pieces include the gorgeous Romanian Nightingale, the aching sorrow of the Celtic classic The Water is Wide, and the sweet synthesis of Adoniam. Recommended, of course! (RM1111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Radhika Miller The Lark's Bride

An exquisitely-woven tapestry of dance-like chamber duets improvised in a classical style, with cellist Eugene Friesen (of the Paul Winter Consort), combined with Radhika's gorgeous arrangements for flute and harp (Michelle Sell) or piano (Radhika), of some of the most majestic Renaissance and traditional melodies—from the 13th century on. Her fourth recording is absolutely unequivocally most highly recommended. (RM1107) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Radhika Miller Gems of Grace

A perfect title for this inspirational centering work, on which she collaborates again with harpist Michelle Sell, cellist David Diering, and pianist Alaudin Mathieu. All compositions are variations on the theme of grace—the sense of balance and beauty which brings us peace. She explores new textures here, introducing French horn player Alicia Telford, and some carefully chosen synthesized orchestral parts. Originally conceived of as a lullaby album for children (until she realized adults need unwinding more than their younger counterparts), it contains Her Majesty's Lullaby, Lullaby for Mary, Night Healing Song, and Motherless Child. As always, highly recommended. (RM1109) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Rashani

Death is a Gateway

This 1991 release is a subtitled Songs for the Sacred Passage... as she states in the notes, death has been a profound teacher in Rashani's life, and this recording came into being after the death of her father. A wealth of musicians, including Kay Gardner, join her on these 15 songs, which are sung in almost a chanting fashion, with titles like Open Your Wings, Deep Peace, Breathing In, Breathing Out, Return Again. Rashani shares these songs in the hope that the desire and fear around the natural death experience can be transmuted: "There is no death, only a change of worlds." For use in hospices, hospitals and homes. (MED3) CS: 10.98

Rashani (Tori Rea)/M Scott/S Benson We All Come From the Goddess

Here's how Merlin Stone, author of When God Was a Woman, described this tape by Tori Rea, Molly Scott, and Sarah Benson... we couldn't say it better: "Drawing upon the Goddess images of Asia, the Near East and North America, these songs and chants create a magical space in which we can move thousands of years into the past or glide into visions of joyous future. Certainly a high point in the music emerging from women's spirituality! Harmonizing vocals, some a cappella, some with flute, percussion, recorded in sacred places in southern France. Reclaiming Community Chants: Ritual Music

The Reclaiming Community, co-founded by Starhawk, is a group working to unify spirit and politics. Rooted in Goddess spirituality, members of the collective hold public rituals for empowerment and change. This cassette of chants, created as a teaching tool, contains material by Starhawk, Deana Metzger, Shekinah Mountainwater, Judy Grahn, Z Budapest and other, performed by the Reclaiming women (many) and men (a few). Includes Touching Her Deep, Snake Woman, Return to the Mother, Goddess Medley: Ise Ashtar, I Am A Strong Woman, and many others. A wonderful resource for group singing and ritual. (REC1) CS: 9.98

Robin & Miriam

Journey Through the Wheel (w/book)

This collection of original songs, centered around the ancient European seasonal cycle and Celtic Folklore, will appeal to Pagan/Wiccan audiences, Celtic revivalists, women's and earth-based spirituality groups, and folk and medieval enthusiasts. Beginning with a song for Yule, the album proceeds through Candlemas, Spring Equinox (with a lovely salutation to the Goddess), Beltane, Summer Solstice, First Harvest, Autumnal Equinox, and Samhain/Hallow's Eve. Simple and tasteful acoustic accompaniment, by Robin and Miriam (Eole Howe), Kenny and Tzipora Klein, and others. Illustrated booklet with lyrics included. (RNM1) CS: 11.98

Ruth Barrett

Parthenogenesis

1. From the Greek Parthenos, Virgin plus GENESIS, unitary creation without conjunction. 2. Process of a woman creating her Self by opening to her ability to define herself apart from the patriarchal mythos. 3. The album: An award-winning collection of original songs with powerful woman-identified mythic imagery, celebrating the Goddess with a unique blend of contemporary and traditional instrumentation. Kay Gardner calls Ruth a musician/poetess to lead us into the next century, and this album a must for anyone who believes in the political power of women's spirituality. We proudly present this to you on the Ladyslipper label; it's one of the most woman-loving, sensual/sexual, angry, mystical and magical albums we have heard. Songs include Come, Navea, Kadatu (Holy Woman), Sisters' Eyes. Very highly recommended! (LR110) CS: 9.98

Ruth Barrett & F. Artemis Flowers Invocation to Free Women

This is a musical and poetic narrative unfolding the continuum of women's spirituality with a colorful variety of invocations, stories, songs, myths, chants, and teachings, artfully woven together, many original, others from sources such as Starhawk, Z Budapest, traditional Yoruba and Aztec, Shekinah Mountainwater. Also features the work of Malena de Olga, Afro-Cuban percussion artist. A strong statement of woman-identification, the goddess within, activism, self-healing, peace-making, and earth consciousness, quite inclusive, dramatic and beautifully done. Recommended! Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith
Aeolus

A superbly executed album of woman-oriented ballads, with themes of goddesses, magic ritual, witchery. Melodies are traditional, with vocal harmonies, dulcimers and other traditional instruments; naturally, many lyrics and verses were rewritten... a perfect convergence of consciousness and tradition! Includes The Mermaid, Lullaby For Amanda, and Every Woman Born, written for an L. A. Take Back the Night March and Z. Budapest's birthday. (AE0001) CS: 9.98

Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith
Deepening

Their trademark harmonies weave tales of natural cycles and seasons, women's spirituality, women as peacemakers, women as workers, on original and traditional songs. Also includes 2 Renaissance instrumentals, and a song by Catherine Madsen about women who chose to throw themselves to the sea rather than undergo trial and burning as accused witches. The rich sound is created with a myriad of instruments, including Irish, Renaissance side drum, tamburica bass, flute, dirty trumpet, in addition to the usual dulcimers etc. Includes Where Only Lovers Go, Factory Girl, Imagine the World. Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith
The Heart Is the Only Nation

This long-awaited late-1993 or early-1994 release is the duo's first vocal album in almost a decade! It contains original, goddess-oriented songs and instrumentals that have been enjoyed and requested by their audiences over the past few years... with lush instrumentation than previous releases (still all acoustic), includes Bridget, Apples of Avalon, Blessing Song, The May Queen is Waiting, and many more. Fans will not be disappointed! (AE0005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ruthanne Jones
Voices

This is one of the more unusual additions to our catalog: an entire album of hauntingly, celestially beautiful songs without words, perfect for ceremony, ritual, healing work, or simply to create a contemplative environment. Ruthanne explores the potential of this unique "instrument", as her voice seemingly resonates on several planes at once. Indigenous, handcrafted global instruments (harp, flute, classical guitar, harmonium) are played by her, as sound syllables are spontaneously sung to weave many colors and textures of feeling. She describes this as "the expression of the opening of this Woman's Heart" — Every Woman's Heart, and a remembering of the forgotten song we all once knew and sang always in Communal Joy to be remembered again, as we walk once again in the Land of the Heart. Recommended! (LOS1) CS: 9.98

Sarah Benson
Flutes of Interior Time

Sarah Benson, co-founder of the Sound Healers Association and flautist extraordinaire, is known to some of our customers for her collaboration with Tori Res and Molly Scott on We All Come From the Goddess; this "solo" effort (which does feature Elizabeth Reeke on accompanying tamboura) exquisitely echoes the sonic energies of the ancient healing temples of Egypt. Each side contains one long composition — little on the first, Ecstatic Flutes on the second — a format often requested for use in meditation, deep relaxation and massage. Its beautiful, and we recommend it. (SP24007) CS: 9.98

Sarah Stockwell
Dark of Moon

Sarah is an initiate of the Glanville Sidhe Order of Witches and a member of Mother Tongue, the EarthSpirit ritual performance group; here's her 1992 solo debut of pagan folk music. Accompanying herself on guitar, she evokes the quiet, mysterious world that lies in dreams and around the corners of the everyday... nature and the earth are prominent themes, as is the inner landscape. Songs include the brooding But A Little Girl, which tells the story of the Salem Witch Trials from the point of view of one of the "possessed girls"; Language of Stones, a ritual meditation piece rich with dream-like imagery; and Vampire, an audience favorite for years at concerts. Sheilah Glover
Power of the Soul

This late 1993 release captures the colorful, introspective journey of the singer/songwriter who has collaborated with Barbara Borden on her previous recordings. From this debut solo album's title cut — calling forth ancient archetypes to create future possibilities — to Goddess Returning, to Lullaby, a touching song to the inner child, Sheilah connects heart to music through her crystalline voice. Musicians include Barbara Borden on drums; Susan Mascarella on piano; Mary Feltig on tenor sax, and more. (CL444) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Singh Kaur / Kim Robertson
Crimson Vol. 1: Guru Ram Das

This absolutely unique series for healing, with celestial vocals by Singh Kaur, and Celtic harp and keyboards by Kim Robertson, consists of long recordings (40 minutes per side and repeated on both sides) of the same phrase chanted over and over, with some of the most gorgeous music ever heard, and which truly uses some power to transform the listener into a serene state. This volume induces a healing state of consciousness. In the ancient scriptures the phrase is said to strengthen the connection with the inner spirit and to develop a sense of purpose and guidance. Very highly recommended! (INV301) CS: 9.98

Starhawk
The Way to the Well

Utilizing drumming, song, chanting and visualization, this contemporary guided meditation is subtitled A Trance Journey for Empowerment, relating to accessing the well of power within us all, rather than always searching outside of ourselves for fulfillment. The listener is encouraged to become the protagonist of the story, thus facing an opportunity for transformation. (STAR1) CS: 9.98

Starhawk
Rebirth of the Goddess

A talk on witchcraft, feminism, and social change, presented in 1981 at the University of Wisconsin by the author of THE SPIRAL DANCE. She does an excellent job of explaining the subject in a manner comprehensible and non-alienating to skeptics like this reviewer, in that the importance of feminism as a political movement is never dismissed. (CRL2) CS: 9.98

Starhawk
Magic, Vision & Action

With eloquent words and a sweeping vision, Starhawk evokes a spirit that calls us to recognize the sacredness of all life, and of the earth itself, on this tape subtitled Changing Consciousness - Healing the Earth. Opening the gateway to an expanded earth-based spirituality, she speaks of the special "magic" that is created when we learn how to change consciousness. She discusses Pagan rituals, earth mysteries, vision, imagination and values; and more. 90 min. (SND151) CS: 9.98

Starhawk, Reclaiming & Friends
Let It Begin Now

Subtitled Music From the Spiral Dance, this 1992 release features 11 songs which follow the structure of the Spiral Dance ritual, an annual tradition in the Bay Area celebrating the festival of Halloween as well as Starhawk's book The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Ranging from acappella harmonies to full chorus and instrumentation, this music is intended to be shared and sung by all who wish to broaden their understanding of Halloween. Written and performed by Starhawk and the Reclaiming Collective, women and men working to link earth-based spirituality and eco-feminist politics... and friends. (REC2) CS: 9.98

Stephanie Bennett
Stories Seldom Told

Gorgeous, lilting, beautiful, evocative, dreamy, soothing, lovely — get the picture? Stephanie is an accomplished harper (she's done everything from tour with Sly Stone to record scary movie soundtracks!) who composed, arranged, and produced this fabulous album. Her expertise is also strong in the orchestration department: the accompanying ensemble of wind and chamber instruments (cello, viola, flutes, recorders, oboes, English and French horns, tympani, bells, tablas and more) blend gently with her neo-classical/Celtic/new age virtuoso harp movements — as someone said, "How many hands does she have?" Includes The Magic Fawn, Dream Dance, Dragon-maker. If you like Kay Gardner's A Rainbow Path, check this out! Highly recommended! (HW9001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stephanie Bennett
Imaginocean

This 1993 album consists entirely of solo harp improvisations, inspired by the beauty of nature, especially the sea. The variety of discernible stylistic influences include guitaristic folk, traditional ballads of the British Isles, and especially the floating harmonies reminiscent of 20th century French impressionists, so well-suited to the airy yet dynamic sound of the harp. On the cover, Stephanie is shown playing the harp while floating under the ocean (in Maui), as curious fish swim by. An avid scuba diver, she enjoyed the free-diving photo session, especially when, while underwater, she heard the migrating whales happily singing in the distance! (HW9301) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Elizabeth Hale
Circle the Earth with Song

"The chants on this tape are simple and repetitive. They are seeds with which to create your own verses, harmonies or songs. They are presented so that you may find your own voice and your own songs." These chants—both original and collected and performed with a minimum of percussion or flute accompaniment—are about The Goddess, Mother Earth, The Great Spirit, Kookpelt (the male hump-backed flute player from Hopi mythology), the Four Directions, and so forth. Inset has instructions on creating chants, rituals, and affirmations. Only complaint: we wish she had noted more about the origin of each chant, especially those she didn't write. Includes Ancient Mother, We All Come From the Goddess, with gorgeous harmonies and nature sounds. (SHA1) CS: 9.98

Susan Nimue (w/Lisa Thiel)
Muffin's Story

With gorgeous music provided by Lisa Thiel (Inner Mother Song), Susan warmly and quietly leads the listener into a story which is intended to help create inner tools for self-reliance, self-love, and self-esteem. Many have found the concept of the inner child helpful; Susan turns this around here, recounting Muffin's journey to meet her Inner Mother (an inner helper). She learns what intimacy and trust are and discovers what is nurturing for herself. Very loving, sweet, and relaxing; recommended. (HTH1) CS: 9.98

Crimson Vol. 2: Mool Mantra

The second volume is designed to open the heart; this mantra will gently remove the problems of the day and free the resources of the spirit, becoming relaxed, graceful and radiant with dignity and success assured. Harp and synthesizers by Kim are haunting, ethereal, and the vocals are heavenly. Very highly recommended! (INV302) CS: 9.98

Singh Kaur / Kim Robertson
Crimson Vol. 5: Mender of Hearts

This sound current has the ability to heal the heart and the wounds of life, and to reawaken joy and enthusiasm; a love song in the purest sense, to the infinite within. (INV305) CS: 9.98

Singh Kaur / Kim Robertson
Crimson Vol. 6: Ardas

In ancient times, Ardas was known as the prayer that goes beyond all prayers; the power of this healing sound will continue even after the audible sound current has finished. Kim double-tracks harp over her keyboard, and with Singh Kaur's voice, the result is not of this earth. Its floating bodiless in the galaxy. (INV306) CS: 9.98

Sri Chinmoy Bhajan Singers
Festival of Divine Power

These songs, or bhajans — melodic chant-like devotional songs — invoke Kali, the Goddess of Power and Liberation, to transform the seeker-singers. Through a combination of personal reverence to Kali and the energizing aspect of the universe which she embodies, singers and listeners both experience transformational energy which produces higher consciousness. The performers, a large international group of women singers and musicians (all devotees of Sri Chinmoy), accompany themselves on bells, harmonium, celesta, flute, guitar, kammer dulcimer, tamboura and synthesizer. The bhajans are written by Sri Chinmoy in the North Indian language Bengali. Mystical and lovely; inset contains transliterations and translations of the chants. (SCB3) CS: 9.98

Susan Osborn

Signature

Some of you may have heard this incredible vocalist perform with the Paul Winter Consort. This is the first album she's recorded which she really feels has her signature on it. Includes Rolling Back the Stone, I Always Be a Lover, Winter's Dream, and John Lennon's Imagine. Her themes are affirmation, joy, openness, spirit. (LIF100) CS: 10.98

Susan Savell

The Power of My Love For You

If you are even remotely interested in spirituality, please read the fine print here: Susan consciously integrates feminizing images to symbolize sacred reality, and thus has been somewhat of a rabble-rouser as one of the early women to be ordained as a (UCC) minister, over 10 years ago. This album is a musical feast, with plentiful contributions by Rhannon, Linda Tillery, Terry Garthwaite (also the producer), Barbara Borden, Mary Watkins, Janet Small, and many other talents. From the Native American drumbeats of the vivid call to heal the earth, Simple Ceremonies, to the shimmering brilliance of the closing refrains of Mama Tiliy, written during her mother's illness and death, Susan uses her insight, vision and richly-timed voice to communicate spiritual realities. Highly recommended! (HL325) CS: 9.98

Suzanne McIntosh

Healing Journeys

Subtitled Original Music Created to Stimulate Self Healing, this gorgeous recording has an almost other-worldly feel to it. Suzanne, former principal cellist with the National Symphony of Columbus, tells us that when she creates her music for healing, she first enters a relaxed meditative state in which she asks the music to come through her and her cello to heal the Highest Good for all who will listen. One can't help but be affected by the sweet, rich, sonorous sounds which she coaxes from that most melancholy of instruments, the cello. The CD is 60 minutes long, the tape 45, and will indeed take the listener on a peaceful, inspiring, gently drifting ride. (SUZ001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Free The Children

(Songs for survivors of cult & ritual abuse)

Anonymous

Free The Children

Subtitled Songs for survivors of cult & ritual abuse, and covered with warning stickers about the graphic content, this is a difficult tape to review. Recorded by a survivor and her therapist, it's a collection of original songs (one woman singing to acoustic guitar accompaniment) traveling through (in their words) "the worst of times to the healing..." They offer this recording in the hopes of breaking isolation many survivors feel, and to send the message that healing is possible. Due to the graphic content, it is strongly suggested that this tape only be used, as a tool in therapy, and that it be listened to in safe company. (FTC1) CS: 11.98

Carolyn Stearns

For Women Who Were Sexually Abused

Focusing on the concept of self-empowerment, Carolyn outlines steps that she, as both a therapist and a survivor, has found helpful in the recovery/healing process. She takes a more cosmic approach than do some therapists, discussing the inner alchemy, the need for action in order to change, and ways of taking feelings of pain and victimization and making them sources of learning. 90 minutes. Cathy A. Munsey

No More! - Songs of Healing

Dedicated to "the children of the world who, as of yet, have no voice," Cathy addresses many painful topics with an emphasis on healing, recovery and empowerment. The songs range from the inspirational Celebrate Life, to Mother Lion and My No, to Now and Not Yet, about finding love when we least expect it. Already widely circulated in recovery circles, this release has an almost universal appeal for people involved in the recovery process, the therapeutic community, survivors of childhood sexual abuse, and amongst the religious/spiritual community. Terry Garthwaite

Affirhythms

After a lengthy sabbatical from recording, one of our favorite vocalists is back with a fantastic 1992 recording of her affirmations: I Am Creative, I Carry Love, Sacred Within, Mother Earth, and I Am Sound. Side 2 repeats the vocals and percussion of Side 1, but gradually fades out the vocals so that you may fill the space with your own voice. The result embodies great spirit, and will definitely reach in and touch your heart. Very unique, and very recommended! (FJ008) CS: 11.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker

Rosa Mystica

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniment, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Saphardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roads draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 20th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker

Historical Harp Volume I: Celebrant

Magnificent! On seven harps and two psalteries built by Lynne Lewandowski, Therese impeccably performs medieval sacred repertoire, elaborating upon monastic chants and improvising within the style as was customary in early music. The wide display of sound colors reflects some of the many voices typical to Romanesque, Gothic, Celtic, and early Renaissance harps. Some selections are accompanied by voice. Recommended for new age as well as classical and early music lovers. (LAD1001) CS: 9.98

Recovery

Giorgi A Survivor's Tape

One of the most unusual and unique works in our catalog, it tells, in song, the very personal story of one woman's remembering and healing herself from her legacy of childhood sexual and physical abuse. The songs were never written, practiced, arranged and then produced; rather, she sang them only once, direct to tape as she composed them, as part of her healing process — and then later added instrumental tracks. In light of this, it's an amazingly musical and cohesive entity! She shares the deepest parts of herself here, in hopes that her honesty will help others survive their own difficult childhood hurts, whatever they may be, and thereby become empowered. We think her hope is a realistic one. Booklet included; recommended! (GDS1) CS: 9.98

Judith May

Heal the Broken Wing

We aren't adding many recovery titles these days, as it seems most folks in need of such are in programs and well on the way to healing... but this one's exceptional! Judith is a survivor of childhood sexual abuse, and these original songs speak openly and eloquently about her experiences and feelings. We especially love If You Come Near Me which expresses therapeutic sentiments like "You don't know shit about me, boy! You're just one big fucking prick... Bring your beef around me boy! I'll turn it into dead meat... So if you come near me! I'm gonna have to kill you." Also love the evocative and moving Wash Me Mother. Judy Felt is among the supporting musicians. All in all, an album of deep emotion and high hope, highly recommended! (YYM1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Judy Grah

March to the Mother Sea...

The complete title of this amazing performance piece continues: Healing Poems of Baby Girls Raped at Home. Composed during a two-year process of Judy's own memory recovery and therapeutic grappling with incest, the thirteen poems — presented with innovative musical contexts consisting of keyboards, percussion, and electronic effects — reflect this progression in a very powerful and empowering way. A unique and significant contribution to the body of recorded works by women. (LAV1) CS: 9.98

Victoria Ganger

Neandil, Lady of the Flame

Victoria is an artist who performs her unique folk compositions at pagan and medieval - reconstruction events across the country. This one-hour tape contains some of her finest music, as 16 of her original songs weave a tapestry of fantasy imagery and contemporary energy. Magical creatures, warriors, goddesses, maidens and denizens of Faerie move through songs of love, glory, and celebration. Her blend of evocative lyrics and haunting melodies make this a must for anyone with the soul of a dreamer. (ACE1) CS: 9.98

Wheeler & Carol

Mystic Soul

We're resurrecting this from an earlier catalog, because we think it's excellent, and hopefully folks are now more receptive to vocal works with a spiritual cast. Gorgeous harmonies by Mary Elizabeth Wheeler and Jan Carol grace haunting melodies and lyrics revealing both depth and simplicity. All songs celebrate the inner life of the spirit (most are original), and feature rich accompaniment of cello, horn, and more, by David Darling, Nuradshina Pili Abens and others. Includes The Wheel, Join the Circle, The Blessing, and the outstanding Oh Great Spirit. Lyrics included; highly recommended! (SPS1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Her Voice, Our Voices: In Harmony

The Women's Alliance is a non-profit organization dedicated to the empowerment of the feminine as a foundation for inner growth, social action and planetary healing; they organize annual "Women's Summer Camps" led by a variety of feminist spiritual leaders. This spirited tape contains 5 songs and chants featuring women's voices accompanied by drums and percussion, plus 3 drumming pieces. Includes contributions by Barbara Borden, Adele Getty (formerly of Acoustic Medicine), and past campers. Includes She's Been Waiting, Like a Mountain (Can't Kill the Spirit), Rise With the Fire, If Every Woman, songs by Paula Walowitz, Libby Roderick, Naomi Littlebear Morena, Starhawk and others. Music about the experience of and recovery from sexual assault, from a survivor. Nancy presents, with honesty and candor, the range of conflicting emotions which surface and are an important part of the healing process. A significant and crucial work. (ND4) CS: 9.98

Pam Morgan

Me and Enid/ Survivor

This 1990 release is directed to survivors of child abuse, but the messages included can easily be applied to anyone who needs to re-evaluate self-worth and put the pains of the past behind them. Her messages focus on the lovability of everyone in spite of the negative harmful influences that bring us down on ourselves. Pam's simple, direct and beautiful delivery add intensity to the meaning of these obviously heartfelt songs. With charged songs such as More Aware, Take Care of Myself, and Daddy's Little Girl, this tape is recommended for both content and clarity. Our only complaint: we wish the lyrics were included. Asiba Tupahache

A Beginning To an End

This fast-moving spoken program is a very excellent, insightful analysis of the nature of all types of oppression, and strategies for ending them. Asiba is a Native American (Malineco) woman and a survivor of child abuse, and she explores the similarities between personal and society-wide oppressions from the perspectives of both the powerful and the powerless. She discusses oppression in reference to addictions and co-dependency, guilt, blame, ACoAs, dysfunctional families, racism, sexism, homophobia, and other efforts to create invisibility and exploitation of minorities, and becoming empowered to change thought patterns, break addictions, and break the cycle. 60 min. Buffy Sainte-Marie

Coincidence and Likely Stories

Back after a hiatus of many years, Buffy returns with the distinctive voice and strong mix of pointed political and personal songs that endeared her to, and perhaps woke up, an entire generation. Almost all original and mostly new material on this 1992 release, though songs like Starwalker will sound welcome and familiar to some of us. Unfortunately, her indictments of the US government in its dealings with Native American communities and other disenfranchised populations are as relevant as they were 30 years ago, and her commentaries on money and power junkies have become even more scathing. Hopefully, more folks will be more ready to accept more responsibility now. Includes Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee, Disinformation, The Preach of the Golden Bull, Emma Lee. Recommended! She Used To Wanna Be A Ballerina

This release of Buffy's 1971 classic is welcomed most gratefully and enthusiastically into our midst! This reviewer was 11 (ed: 11!) when it was released, and listened to it every day after school (including the line, "fuck the war and bring our brothers home"), completely immersed in the passion and anger and beauty she projected. If you've never heard it before, treat yourself and thank the heavens you didn't miss it; if you're familiar with it, set aside that battered LP, put this on, and savor the trip back. Includes Soldier Blues, Nez Perce's Heh-heh, the hypnotic The Surfer (also recorded by Gaurdabharmanco), and Leonard Cohen's Bells... Yai! (VAN79311) CS: 8.99 CD: 14.99

Dhyani Ywahoo

Cherokee Teaching Stories

These teaching stories (The Story of the Magic Lake and The Coming of the First) are imparted in a loving and delightful style — her speaking voice is a fitting sort of singsong, which, when accompanied by flutes, drums, crickets, and other charming voices, reverently illustrates her messages of treating the earth responsibly, and the necessity of following the spiritual path. Also includes a beautiful, stately chant, Immortals Among Us. (SUN5) CS: 10.99

Sunsongs: Chants & Visions...

Dhyani Ywahoo is a Clan Chiefess of the Etowah Cherokee Nation, Tibetan Buddhist, and founder of the Sunray Meditation Society. Trained by her Grandparents, she is the 27th generation to carry the ancestral wisdom of the Ywahoo lineage. This tape, subtitled Chants and Visions for the Peacekeeper, is a collection of chants which call forth the vision of planetary peace and harmony. Includes some flute and harp accompaniment for meditation. (SUN1) CS: 10.99

Dhyani Ywahoo

Our Hearts & Heart of Earth Are One

This tape is a very instructional guide to meditation, with Dhyani leading chants and visualizations geared toward developing a basic practice with which to "deepen awareness of one's true nature, life purpose, and inherent unity with all life." Side Two contains more chanting, plus drumming and musical accompaniment by Paul Temple. (SUN2) CS: 10.99

Journey to Temple of Understanding

Side One is a guided meditation based on Cherokee teachings which offers the opportunity to trace the roots of our thoughts and step into the past to reaffirm our path. Side Two is a Dream Practice intended to gain a deeper understanding and level of clarity in one's life. (SUN3) CS: 10.99

Dovie Thomason

Wopila - A Giveaway: Lakota Stories

Dovie is a captivating storyteller and cultural educator who has been sharing the stories of her Lakota and Kiowa Apache background for years at schools, libraries and powwows. Lakota stories, traditionally told on winter evenings, are intended to teach proper behavior or a moral lesson, without the narrow moralizing of familiar fables. Good and evil are neither obvious or polarized here; the characters are multi-dimensional and face choices; the stories will draw you in and leave you pondering. For ages 7-adult. Recommended! Elizabeth Wilson

Nez Perce Stories

This 91-year-old Nez Perce woman tells old stories, legends, and songs being the members from her childhood. Recorded in 1972, this friend of Chief Joseph shares very special personal moments of the tribe's history. Includes Indian Belong, Coyote Story, Walla Walla Pool Story. (WSC1601) CS: 9.99

Gayle Ross

How Rabbit Tricked Otter

...and Other Cherokee Animal Stories are from a time when animals and people still spoke the same language. Rabbit is the Cherokee mischievous trickster, and his ways with Possum, Bear and Otter frequently have unexpected consequences. Gayle is a direct descendant of John Ross, principal chief of the Cherokee nation during the infamous "Trail of Tears," when the Cherokee were marched from the east coast to Oklahoma to relocate them, and many died. Her grandmother told her these stories when Gayle was a child, and she has been passing on her rich legacy at schools, colleges and festivals across the US and Canada. 60 min. (CAE1858) CS: 10.98

HULCHO!
SONGS & MUSIC

Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios

Geri Keams

Sacred Twins and Spider Woman

A member of the Sreak-of-Black-Forest Clan, Geri was born and raised in the Painted Desert of the Navajo Nation, greatly influenced by her grandmother who is a storyteller and rug weaver. Here she carries on her tradition, telling these Navajo creation stories — title story plus 4 others — and passing on the seeds of ancient wisdom and magic from one of the oldest cultures in America. 60 minutes of storytelling is mixed with drums and song. Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios

Kupuri: Hulcho! Songs & Music

Recorded in 1990 at the ceremonies and in the Mexican homes of the Hulcho Indians, this unique cassette includes ancient songs and music sung by Grandmother Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios, a ceremonial shaman and carrier of the Hulcho tradition; guitar and violin are played by members of her family. The music is lively, sung in Hulcho, with short English narratives explaining the meaning of each song provided by Larin Boyl — she also produced and directed this recording, after completing a 5-year apprenticeship with these Hulcho elder shamans. Proceeds help support this large Hulcho family. (FWC1) CS: 9.98

Jamie Sams

Giving-Away the Wisdom

Of Seneca Cherokee ancestry, her great great grandfather was the first elected chief of the Cherokee nation, from the Trail of Tears era. Jamie is a member of the Wolf Clan Teaching Lodge of the Seneca Nation, and the Seneca Indian Historical Society. Also a psychic and archaeologist, she teaches shamanic healing and Native American medicine and spiritual wisdom, about which she says, "I've been taught the most sacred ceremony is the 'give-away' — and if you don't give it away, the wisdom will die... I have presented my truth in a way that assists people of all races and all nations." She is the author, with David Carson, of Medicine Cards and Sacred Path Cards, both symbol-card/book sets designed for use as instructional intuitive guides and cultural bridges. This tape is from a New Dimensions Radio interview. (NDR2212) CS: 10.98

Jessita Reyes

Coyote Love Medicine

Jessita, who is also a member of the Native Flute Ensemble, is most likely the first woman to master the courting flute and record her music! Here she interweaves Native American courting flute, ritual percussion instruments, and synthesizers on this unusual recording inspired by the legendary Indian trickster Coyote. On such cuts as Not Too Proud to Howl and Coyote Blues she brings in subtle touches of blues and jazz, while others have a more traditional sound. A very unique and innovative solo flute performance! (TT102) CS: 9.98

Seasons of the Eagle

Inspired by the seasonal rituals of America's Native peoples, Jessita paints a picture of the four seasons. She uses her distinctive Native American musical palette to perform this cycle of flute and percussion compositions, this time sans synthesizer. (TT105) CS: 9.98

Jessita Reyes/Native Flute Ensemble

The Native Flute Collection

Jessita Reyes & Grupo Yaqui

Deer Dancer

On the third release in the artist's spirit animal trilogy, Jessita collaborates with a percussion ensemble, whose instruments (tuned-water drums, hide drums, gourd rattle and stick rasp) carry on an intense conversation with her flute melodies, inspired by the deer dance rituals practiced by many tribes, including Yaqui and Pueblo Indians. Joanne Shenandoah

Joanne, who was given the name Deguiya Whan'na, "She Sings", is a member of the Oneida Nation-Iroquois Confederacy from NY; her mother is a Wolf Clan mother for the Oneida people. Through her contemporary ballads, she presents the Native American philosophy and heritage, which continues today among the Iroquois and other tribes. Featuring her strong vocals in both English and Iroquois, with an enchanting blend of flute, rattles, bells, drums, harmonica, guitar and synthesizer, her mostly original selections include We Are the Iroquois, They Didn't Listen, Traditional Iroquois Social Songs. Recommended. (CNY545) CS: 9.98

Joanne Shenandoah & A. Paul Ortega

Loving Ways

"This album is dedicated to all those who are in love, out of love, want to be in love, and dream about love." This 1991 release features collaborations by Joanne, Oneida-Six Nations Iroquois (daughter of Maissie Shenandoah, a Wolf Clan Mother, and the late Clifford Shenandoah, an Onondaga Chief) and Paul, Mesquero Apache. All vocals, instrumentation, and songs are by the two of them — quite sweet and gentle, reflective of the Native American philosophy and culture. Includes A Prayer for Sundancer, Blessing the Little Ones, Indian Love Song. (CNY545) CS: 9.98

Joy Harjo

Furious Light

Joy is a fine poet and a fairly well-known Native American voice, who writes in an impassioned and vivid style. Her Creek ancestors speak eloquently through her writing, as do her own experiences and observations. On this tape her poetry is set to sax accompaniment by Laura Newington, covers all her books plus work in manuscript. (WS192) CS: 10.98

Leslie Gray

On the Way to Wisdom

A Native American psychologist who developed what she calls "Shamanic Counseling" — which adapts traditional shamanic practice to the needs of contemporary urban dwellers — Leslie Gray tells of meeting the Cherokee shaman who opened her to ancient wisdom and a deep intelligence, beyond the intellect. She describes shamanism as a spiritual technology which accesses extraordinary wisdom, helping one to be more effective in the world. From a New Dimensions Radio interview. (NDR2214) CS: 10.98

Medicine Heart Woman

Medicine Land: Gifts From Earth Mother

The Medicine Land: Gifts From the Earth Mother is a 80-minute tape with 22 songs performed by Medicine Heart Woman (part Cherokee and adopted daughter into the Ojibwa tribe) and 3 other women (all mixed blood, primarily white with Lakota, Navajo, and Hopi in their backgrounds), honoring Earth Mother and Native Spirituality. Proceeds are being donated to earth healing and Native American organizations. Includes Grandmother Moon, Mother Night, Ancient Sisters, Walk Upon the Mother, and other original chants and songs, with drums and simple instrumental accompaniment. (STF1) CS: 10.98

Native Flute Ensemble

Ritual Mesa

Jessita Reyes, Lois Little Bear, and John "Pinky" Martinez blend Native American flute, Taos Drum, Yaqui rain stick, Hopi rattle, and rain scraper with occasional synthesizer to create an environment in which traditional Southwestern and contemporary idioms meet. Clearly inspired by Native American ceremonial music, the sound is at once serene and evocative, undomestic yet complete — a soundscape of sacred sites and windswept mesas. (TT101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Temple of the Dream Jaguar

This trio has gone South of the Border for inspiration for its spring 1991 release. Drawing on a shared mythology between the Hopi and the Mayans, they combine their exquisite flute melodies with the hypnotic sounds of pre-Columbian instruments. (TT108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gathering of Shamen

The theme of this 1993 release is the regular gatherings held by shamen in the Black Hills of South Dakota, The Four Corners Region of the American Southwest, and Ahtitlan in Guatemala. Each of the 9 compositions, spotlighting the Native American cedar flute with enhancements by Native percussion and synthesizers, relates to one of these "power" areas, with distinct sounds and styles that will guide listeners on their aural journey. (TT119) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Native Flute Ensemble

Enchanted Canyons

The second release by this 2-woman 1-man trio was inspired by the ancient Anasazi civilization, as it creates the imagery of such "power spots" as New Mexico's Chaco Canyon and Arizona's Canyon de Chelly. The flute is framed by Native percussion instruments and synthesizers, producing a sound based on tradition yet mixed with contemporary touches. (TT103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Paula Horne

Heart Songs of Black Hills Woman

A most unusual collection of prose and songs created by Paula, a Dakota Sioux woman: "a vision created for all people who are of the Sacred Hoop of life... an inspirational journey that will touch the ancient one within you." With the richness deriving from her Native culture, she passes on values and wisdom, serving as a bridge of understanding. Pieces include Kun-ai Ya O Do-wan (This song is for Grandmother, I-na ma-ca (For Mother Earth)), I-na Ya O Do-wan (For Mother), (DIR1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sharon Burch with A. Paul Ortega

The Blessing Ways

Side 1 introduces Sharon, a Navajo from Chichiltan NM, whose original songs about her people and particularly women are performed in her native language, yet have the power to cross the language barrier. Her voice is lovely, incorporating occasional speaking-tones into sung phrases in songs such as Mother Earth, Cradle Song, Corn Song, Grandmother's Ways. On side 2, Paul Ortega, a Mesquero Apache, performs his songs covering some of the spiritual and philosophical views of Native Americans. (CNY533) CS: 9.98

Sharon Burch

Yazzie Girl

Beautiful contemporary expressions of traditional Navajo culture and spirituality, with original songs inspired by the chants and prayers she recalls from her childhood. Includes title song, about the special bond among 4 generations of women from Sharon's matrilineal family (Red Shell Necklace Woman, White Shell Necklace Woman, Turquoise Necklace Woman — Sharon herself — and Obsidian Necklace Woman); Mother Earth: The Chant; Sacred Mountains; New Born Blessing; The Rain Song; and more. She accompanies her lovely vocals with guitar. 7 selections are in Navajo, 2 in English and Navajo, with translations and transcriptions included. Highly recommended! (CNY534) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Songs of Warm Springs Indian Reser.

Five women (two of them 90 at the time of this recording) perform material they selected to insure it would not be forgotten. 14 tribes reside harmoniously on this reservation in Oregon, the majority being Warm Springs, Wasco, and Northern Paiute. Includes Cougar Dance, Flaming Arrow Song, Laughing Song. (CNY6123) CS: 9.98

Vi Hilbert

Coyote and Rock-Lushootseed Stories

Vi Hilbert, a renowned Native American storyteller, is an Elder of the Upper Skagit Tribes of Washington State. She says, "My ancestors told us these stories, because these were our textbooks when we had no written language. This was the way our young people went to school; by learning these stories. They carried all of the information that was important to our culture, so that we would know how to grow up to be good people, through the lessons that were carried within each of these stories." 60 min. Drumming ♦ Percussion

Amy Sophia Marshinsky Rhythms From the Womb

This 1991 release is a celebrated journey into our connection with the Earth, led by a drummer/storyteller/writer. A 40-minute solo conga tape, it is intended for meditation, transference, dancing, ceremony, healing, and/or as background to your own musical creation! Side 1 contains Voice of the Earth, while Heart Dance and Womb Dance are on Side 2. (ASM1) CS: 9.98

Balafon Marimba Ensemble

The purpose of this American 5-woman 4-man marimba ensemble is to promote understanding of other cultures with the ultimate goal of global unity, peace, and sense of community. With a full chorus of marimbas (bass, baritone, tenor and soprano), plus congas, timbales, hushie, bells and other percussion, they produce a high-energy recording of African instrumental music which is recommended for dance, listening, and educational uses — it's great music! Histories of the compositions are explained in the liner notes. (SHN07002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden All Hearts Beating

On this late 1990 release which is subtitled Drumming From the Source to the Core, Barbara takes you on an excursion through her world of drumming: an array of sounds, drums and percussion instruments paint a collage of multi-dimensional rhythms that resonate on a primal level. From the slow and sensual to the more uptempo pieces, you're surrounded with the quiet fire that is the underlying link of Barbara's creative expression... and In-Chant-Ment features the wonderful guest vocalist Rhiannon. Appropriate for ritual, dance, love-making, and creative visualization, as well as plain clean listening! (CL2) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Barbara Borden I Always Wanted To Play Drums

This is an instructional tape for beginning trap drummers, by one of the most exciting and proficient drummers around. She begins with an exercise to relax the body (to a hot percussive accompaniment — beats any exercise tape we've heard!), continues through theory, time divisions, call and response, and free drumming. Her instruction is very animated, even if you never thought you wanted to be a drummer, listening to this may change your mind! (PAR1) CS: 9.98

Beverly Botsford/ Khalid Saleem Rhythms of Life

We don't get many percussion tapes, and it's a pleasure to include one from a local Durham NC duo. Inspired by West African traditions, the pieces wind through a variety of pace and emotion, utilizing a diversity of instruments: djembe, balafon, flute, banza, gonggong, kalin (log drum), bells, dundo, djundun, songba, shikari, and agogo, to name a dozen... Includes Celebration, Foto Funk, Cote D'Ivoire Inspiration. Cover art by "Goddess Storyteller" Louise Kessel. A great album for moving and/or perceiving along... Recommended! (RHY1) CS: 9.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing, as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a half hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin... with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk"), and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. (BME10) CS: 9.98

Carole Grey Noisy Mama

Yes, we know this is a jazz album, it's just that the drumming is so fantastic and primary to the compositions (Carole wrote most of the songs), that we had to bring it to you percussion fanatics' attention! Born in Germany and drumming since her teens, she now leads a NYC jazz band, and if you've never heard of her, that's OK; soon she'll be legendary! Introduction Bedside story contains a most amazing drum solo which leads into some of the smoothest horn-based acoustic pop we've heard! Eight tracks in all, including the dynamic Don't Play It Again, Sam, the salty Black Beauty, and the joyous Melange. (JL11130) CD: 15.99

EarthSpirit Community Tribal Drums

Recorded live at The Tribal Dance during the 1988 Twilight Gathering of the EarthSpirit Community, an international network of Pagans and other nature-oriented people. Lots of percussion instruments here: doumbek, conga, frame drum, bongos, agogo, cave, tambourine, berimbau, claves, to name several — played by both women and men of the Coyote Clan. And, a variety of cultures' rhythms are represented: includes Haitian Rhythms, African Rhythms, Brazilian Rhythms, even Celtic! Some of proceeds benefit the Northeast Council of Covenant of the Goddess. (ESC2) CS: 9.98

Edwina Lee Tyler Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of djembe drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals; we've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "The cool side," and progressively heats things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage), as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wade in the Water) and a West African song (Ko Yik Ki Yek). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive, in your mind and your body! (PP01) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Bones

"...a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a caring to the inner dance, the dance around your bones." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, bodie, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! (RAV04) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Ritual

Subtitled "...of remembrance for a forgotten earth, this is trance music for movement, massage, meditation and other rituals of remembrance. Extraordinary sounds of percussion are embellished with viola, oboe, synthesizer and vocal chants. (RAV06) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Trance

This 1992 release is "trance" dance music that calls the soul into the body, the body into the beat and the beat into the belly... as it explores primal dance rhythms and ecstatic trance. Great for dancing alone or around your living room! Drums and other percussion are accompanied by sax, didjeridu, oboe, synthesizer and Bic bern ashtray (!), among other erotic and exotic instruments. (RAV11) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume; it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV03) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Waves

Haunting and uplifting, this 1991 release seduces the listener into an ecstatic whirlpool: A derisive wind blowing through a rising tide of rhythm and voice, the dance it evokes is joyful, abandoned and total. Selections include Invocation, Surrender Waves, Ecstasy, Trance, Spirit. (RAV07) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-trance music for dancing and raising. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of ashiko or djembe. Taps drum, kinemba, log drum, toke, jin-jin, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Edina. We have nothing else like this in our catalog... let yourself loose with this one! (RAV02) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth Sacred Sexuality: God, Sex & Body

Healing the gulf between our physical, emotional and spiritual selves serves as the centerpiece for Gabrielle to weave a wondrous web of new possibilities for catalyzing life energy. On this New Dimensions Radio interview, she speaks of the stillpoint within, where all things are possible and intimacy can become a "divine act." Seeking the deepest well of our being, she takes us on a rhythmic ride through the sexual cycles of life, and makes the connection between the sexual and spiritual experience. 60 min. Jessica Marcus Conga Drum Teaching Tape

Inspired by the "passion of the drums" at an early age, Jessica has been studying, playing, performing and teaching percussion for over 20 years now. Her approach encompasses not only the musical component, but the spiritual and psychological as well, and the result is impressive! This tape is a straight-ahead drum lesson, intended for the beginner; we'd recommend combining this with her own tape of compositions (Sweet Beats & Busy Signals) so you can hear where the lesson is leading you to — if you apply yourself! (TP001) CS: 9.98

Jessica Marcus No Thinkin' Around

This Conga Drum Teaching Tape and Booklet set takes up where her first instructional tape, Conga Drum Teaching Tape, leaves off: a little prior experience or practice is probably a good thing. She teaches many fabulous rhythms from Africa and Cuba, and the booklet gives diagrams for each rhythm. And, as she explains, "Drumming these rhythms establishes a spiritual connection with our collective past... The experience of playing these rhythms offers the possibility of a deeper understanding of ourselves, and also can open the body/mind/spirit to expansive spiritual growth." So, get ready to open yourself to new possibilities, while having lots of fun at the same time! (TP003) CS: 9.98

Sweet Beats & Busy Signals

The 6 compositions here encompass a variety of drumming styles: mostly Caribbean, we think, and instruments — conga drums, bembé, clave, bell, plus synth for a thoroughly enjoyable collection of rhythmic treats! Great for dance, movement, tapping on the table to, or practicing your newly-acquired drumming skills! Includes Unity, Peas & Berries, M. Gosh!, Conga Samba. (TP002) CS: 9.98

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels

Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/North African/Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius; the instruments speak in torrents of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrances in the listener. Titles include Come of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together. This 1992 album is simply one of the most honest and respectful recordings of women's ritual music we've ever listened to... also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Highly recommended! (ROM11) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff

Yamantaka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuoso Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later. Sounds heard here are unlike any other, emulating echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, mysterious, and meditative... raising the level of intensity through swirling gyrations, spectral harmonies and the cyclical resonances of the Tibetan Bells. The Radish Zone Marimbas

Mickey Hart/ Airtio/ Flora Purim

Dafos

Dafos is an imaginary country, and this recording represents an aural journey from its deserts to its polar ice floes to the Underworld, meeting with its spirits, and finally with its leader, the "Great Sound". Many of the pieces reflect structures and rhythms of specific cultures: Sudanese, Brazilian, Indonesian. Flora's wordless vocalizations are perfect for this fantasy land: smoky, keening, bird-like, it dances and flutters, swoops and croons — this woman is an entire instrumental section herself! If you love polyrhythmic music, Rhythmic, or percussion, this is for you. (RYK 008) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart, with Flora Purim

Planet Drum

One world-class vocalist, Flora Purim, teams up with several "world" percussionists — Mickey of course (drummer for the Grateful Dead, for any of you who missed that part of history), plus Airtio Moreira, Sikiru Adesopo, and Vikku — on this groundbreaking, noteworthy, multi-cultural 1991 album. A thrilling series of compositions expresses the wide variety of rhythmic, tonal, and lyric power of percussion. (RYK205) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

The Radish Zone Marimbas

Life in the Radish Zone

This is a very melodic recording, but since the marimba is considered a percussion instrument, we just might place this in our Percussion section... Sprouted as an acoustic offshoot of San Francisco's marimba-based band, Fuzz Factor, Nora Balaban and Shalanda Smith join together for some serious fun! Their instruments are modified on the Zimbabwean Shona marimbas, which includes glued-on cigarette wrappers inside to create an adequate level of fuzz. Great melodies, harmonies and counter-harmonies on the instrumental pieces, and the same is true for the vocals. Pieces include Going To Bed With Strangers, Jan 1000, The Electric Sense of Cold, Natural Thing... definitely unique! (RZ1) CS: 9.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon

River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible acappella album features Bernice slacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-15 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Since I Laid My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals, I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 9.98... Casselberry-DuPree

City Down

One of the finest releases of the past decade is now back in print (on Ladyslipper Records, we are proud to announce), and CD's coming soon for the first time ever! This duo, so long a favorite of audiences at women's festivals and pride rallies, synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary, soul, even country in an extraordinary and exciting way. From the urban life track, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Obatala, the political South Africa, to the song written by Dory Previn to "a black woman that did exist" — Old Jesus Have a Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Masterfully produced by Linda Tillery; highly recommended! (LR203) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Casselberry-DuPree

Hot Corn in the Fire

Their long-awaited second album — after a recording hiatus of 7 years! — is slated for release late 1993 or early 1994, on Ladyslipper Records... and we couldn't be more excited! In source and feeling, it moves from ancient to traditional to contemporary, giving the listener a sense of the boundless depth and breadth of the duo's talent. Producer Toshi Reason has assembled a group of first rate musicians, and you'll hear the evolution of their signature sound, from acoustic to songs featuring dynamic ancient drum ensembles and shekars... with styles incorporating African, reggae, folk, gospel, R&B, as well as Cajun shuffle! Their material is as relevant and revolutionary as ever, from Last Pioneer, about the struggle for lesbian and gay rights (which they sang at the first National Lesbian/Gay March on Washington)... to Pink Dress On (worn by a little girl whose elders are ignoring her to sit still in such impractical attire) — an original song, inspired by Odessa's folk style... to The Klan, a compelling song many of us first heard performed by Richie Havens many years ago... to Songs of War and Let There Be Peace, which acknowledge that there cannot be peace without justice. Order now, for shipment at the earliest possible date! Very highly recommended, of course! (LR204) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Faith Nolan

Freedom to Love

Focusing on Black women historically and presently, Faith's selections — both her originals and her covers — give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles. Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman, an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire; the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery; Ma Rainey's lesbian song Prove It On Me; and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians. Recommended! (RR9903) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Four the Moment

We're Still Standing

Canada's answer to Sweet Honey in the Rock: it's an unavoidable comparison! This 4-woman acappella group lends distinctive harmonies to primarily original material with a range of political, empowering themes, from I Love You Woman, to Inkylukito Iyeva Freedom's Coming, to Lydia Jackson, slave madonna; their songs reverberate with the experience and perspective of Black women everywhere. You've heard their vocals if you've heard Lillian Allen's Conditions Critical; don't miss this in either case. Recommended! (FTM1087) CS: 10.98

Four the Moment

10th Anniversary Live

Gwen Avery

Live at IMA

Gwen made a brief but indelible impression as part of the ground-breaking Varied Voices of Black Women tour over a decade ago... and her song Sugar Mama, on the Lesbian Concentrate album, has become an unforgettable classic — yet she disappeared from national view until recently. Emerging from personal struggle stronger than ever, Gwen shares her journey here both in music and spoken word. This 1993 album of rhythm and blues from the source, gospel from the heart, captured in the moment and masterfully edited by June Millington, is a must for every music lover's collection. Recorded at IMA — Institute for the Musical Arts — a non-profit multi-cultural organization dedicated to the advancement of women in music. (FAB305) CS: 9.98

In Process...

We're thrilled the debut album by this 7-woman ensemble, produced by Bernice Johnson Reagon, is finally ready; spritzing anapaests harmonies, articulate and celebrate the diverse lives they share as social, political, and spiritual African American women. Their involvement began at a workshop given by the members of Sweet Honey in the Rock over several years, so imagine the quality, tradition, and consciousness you have experienced from the music of Sweet Honey, vocalized at once by 7 voices, includes member Michelle Lancheater's moving original compositions Patchwork Quilt for those who have lived AIDS, and War Children for the massacred children of South Africa; member Pam Rogers' original Wasteland, for homeless women; and Genesis, a South African freedom song. As Evelyn Harris of Sweet Honey says: "Their repertoire is not top 40. It's top priority." Highly recommended! (INP1) CS: 10.98

Linda Tillery

Secrets

A soul-stirring, heart-warming, up-tempo, long-awaited, highly recommended album by this master of R&B, jazz, blues, contemporary music! This album has achieved well-deserved play on black commercial radio. Count On Me fits right in there. The Chosen Ones gives us political nourishment; Fever, in a jazz rendition which tops any previous cover, gives us chills; and, a new insight into the relationship between Pocahontas and Sacagawea: Basin Street, a Tru-Oleto collaboration, is also a fine song. Demonstrating the sly and varied nuances in her vocal power, sure to gain her a wider audience. (BLP706) CS: 9.98

Melanie DeMore

Share My Song

Melanie's buoyant vocals and rich lyrics, rooted in African American folk tradition, are captured in this 1992 release, featuring the title track, plus Lady Of Peace, I Hear the Muther Calling, Rise Up, Song for Mera, Kuumba and a sizzling rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Recommended! (RR9203) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Melanie DeMore
Come Follow Me

Recipient of standing ovations, Melanie is one of the most exciting new recording/performing artists in women's music of the 90s! "Hard as obsidian," "sweet as chocolate," "strong as knots," "round as a waterdrop" are some of attempts to describe her voice in words; others have compared her to Patti (of Luck and) of Joan Armatrading. She's the director of voices, the Bay Area Lesbian Choral Ensemble, and her expertise in vocal possibilities is evident here, as well as her incredible range. Includes Black Jewels (in the Dawn), Glad to Be Alive (Nappy Hair Song), Hear her debut tape, and watch for her at festivals and concerts! (MDM1) CS: 9.99

COME FOLLOW ME / MELANIE DeMORE

Rachel Bagby
Reach Across the Lines

Rachel is an incredible multi-talented musician, who has taken an artistic approach to confronting the issue of racism and to moving people past the "isms" of sex, class, and race. Her work is a combination of poetry, music and performance, with wonderful scat, choral layering, haunting harmonies, utilizing the human voice in a myriad of ways, especially in the 3 versions of the stand-out title cut. She says the music of many peoples dance in her veins: Indian (Hindu) chants, southern root-women's stories, Baptist ministers, jazz and gospel musicians, Celtic harpists, Cherokees, and classical training; and you'll hear all this and more on her debut tape. Highly recommended! (OTB101) CS: 9.99

Rashida Oji
Big Woman

This fall 1992 release last-minute catalog addition has been described as honest, playful, innovative, intense, powerful... and as "bleeding, crying and laughing all at the same time." She combines the honesty of women's stories with contemporary music, drawing from spiritual, funk and rap. Her deliveries range from the acappella Vyry's Song, about an enslaved black woman, to acoustic ballads as well as dance tunes with a full band, such as title cut (about the issue of weight). Also included the notable No Wyr, about the pain of incest and battery, and other songs which deal with racism, alienation, love of earth, and love of women. Highly recommended! (FAB404) CS: 9.99

Five Black women singing mostly acappella. Their name "symbolizes the range of colors worn by Black women: strength, consistency, warmth & gentleness." Intertwining harmonies accentuate their gospel sound. Songs range from gospel to love songs to those with a specific political message. Includes Joan's Little & Dream Variations. Sweet Honey in the Rock
Good News

Recorded live in Washington, DC in 1981, includes Breaths, probably their finest, most breath-taking track ever, a top-notch "circular sharing of historic wisdom, boundless energy and love." (FF245) CS: 9.99

Sweet Honey in the Rock
We All...Everyone of Us

These 5 black women need and use nothing more than their voices to create music more complete and moving than a full orchestra. On this 1983 release, which includes favorites More Than A Paycheck and Battle for My Life, powerful lyrics join intertwining harmonies which leave a message that haunts you long after the record stops spinning. Sweet Honey in the Rock
Still On the Journey: 20th Anniv.

Celebrating 20 years of performances, this 1993 release demonstrates the unequalled mastery of these 5 African-American women warriors for justice — as they continue to push the boundaries of unaccompanied choral music, singing a wide range of African-American traditional song styles, including blues, ballads, hymns and rap. Songs include Stay Wanting Memories, Run On For a Long Time, Ballad of the Broken Word, Come By Here, No Mirrors in My Nana's House, Southern's Battle Hymn, Wodashe Nights. Produced by mother-daughter team Bernice Johnson Reagon and Toshi Reagon, the album coincides with the publication of the book. (EB2536) CS: 10.99 ... CD: 16.99

Over 60 minutes in length. (FF105) CD: 15.99

Sweet Honey in the Rock
B'lieve I'll Run On...

Second album of acappella vocals, gospel-influenced, with emphasis on harmonies. Original songs about nuclear proliferation & Jimmy Carter; women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers; the experiences of Black women; a couple about specific strong Black women—Solomon Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. Sweet Honey in the Rock
The Other Side

Sweet Honey addresses a spectrum of issues with a blend of contemporary, protest, topical, personal and love songs. Includes Venceremos (We Will Win), Mendiaccapella (a vocal improvisation based on West African drum rhythms), Woody Guthrie's Deportees, and Bernice Reagon's original Mae Frances. Recommended as always! (FF366) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 15.99

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Feel Something Drawing Me On

A different album concept from their previous discography, and a unique release. This is an album of sacred music: from Christian gospel songs sung by congregations in the deep south as well as Liberia. In traditional, lullabies, to Meyango, a West African funeral song. Here they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in, and beautifully document the diverse cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. Sweet Honey in the Rock
Live at Carnegie Hall (Double)

This 1988 double-album release, containing all new material from both secular/topical and spiritual sources, was recorded live to preserve the dynamism, vitality and immediacy of an in-concert experience of this acappella ensemble. Includes the African Dinko, Song of the Exile, Ode to the International Debt, Dream Song, Letter to Martin, Bestitudes. Always highly recommended. (FF106) CS: 14.99 ... CD: 15.99

Sweet Honey in the Rock
All For Freedom

This is technically a children's album, but will inspire and be enjoyed by adults and children alike. Drawing on their rich heritage of African musical traditions, Sweet Honey has put together this dynamic and empowering collection of African songs, African stories, and gospel songs, including Calypso Freedom, Kumbaya, Joba, The Little Shikano, and title. Sweet Honey in the Rock
In This Land

In the struggle for peace, freedom and justice, 5 incomparable voices rise up in stunning acappella harmonies, reflecting the trying times we all face together. In the inspired congregational tradition of African American culture, this 1992 album goes straight to the hearts and souls of our lives, sharing truth, tragedy, comfort, outrage, hope, love, healing, solidarity and wisdom — and always at the highest levels of beauty and art. Includes (Women Should Be) A Priority, Futari Chant, Patchwork Quilt, Now That the Buffalo's Gone, I Be Your Water. Always recommended. (EB2583) CS: 10.99 ... CD: 15.99

Tiye Giraud
Hokumbe! (Celebration!)

Seven years the lead singer and percussionist with Women of the Calabash, and now a founding member of the 4-woman ensemble LadyGourd Sangones, this incredible artist performs traditional music of the Black diaspora. She draws upon African celebration, work, praise and love songs, slave songs from the American South, and stories from the Caribbean, reinterpreting and blending genres, rhythms, vocal styles and cultural traditions. From Soverness to Dap Joan Woman to O' Lady Dinah to perhaps the most outstanding track of the album, Moe Mae — a celebration song from Angola! Zaire — Tiye completely draws the listener into her material, which she adapted, arranged, plays various traditional percussion (some of which she handcrafted) such as berimbau, hindehu, gourd, and sings. Her voice has rightly been called "so malleable, percussive and sinewy that it is mesmerizing." A note: a personal priority of hers is researching and exploring the music of third world women everywhere. One of our top picks for 1992... very highly recommended! (TGR1) CS: 9.99

Toshi Reagon
Justice

Finally, it's here... a stunning new album from this young multi-instrumentalist and singer-songwriter who fuses traditional soul with contemporary energy. The material here is mostly original, though she does include a Georgia Sea Island song and Sing's Walking in Your Footsteps. With her famous mother, Bernice Johnson Reagon of Sweet Honey in the Rock, as well as Casselberry-Dupree and Annette Aguilar. Recommended! (FF526) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 15.99

Toshi Reagon
Demonstrations

Not only a "strong voice in a new generation of Black women's music," a really fine voice, fine songwriting and stylistically distinctive musicianship from this woman of diverse and growing talents. Toshi plays electric lead and rhythm guitar, acoustic guitar, drums and bass, and does lead and background vocals. Co-produced with Toshi and a contributing percussionist and vocalist is Toshi's mom, Bernice Reagon of Sweet Honey in the Rock. The folk and rock 'n' rollish numbers here are equally strong. (TR582) CS: 9.99

Yasmeen
Still Walking in the Way of Love

Yasmeen is known to many of us as one of the early, long-time members of Sweet Honey in the Rock. Her 10-song 1993 release features an array of R&B, jazz, songs with spiritual content, and topical songs, as she carries on the tradition of Sweet Honey. Included: In This Land, about homelessness; Colors, a pro-choice song; Mohriva, Liberia, a song by Michelle Lanchester of In Process... and covers of Knocking on Heaven's Door and James Brown's I Feel Good. Absolutely recommended for all Sweet Honey fans! (SMR2) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 15.99

Ysaye Barnwell
Singing...African American Trad'n

This 6-cassette set with instructional booklet teaches rhythms, harmonies, vocal techniques and stylistic subtleties of the African American singing tradition. Sweet Honey member Ysaye Barnwell teaches all the parts to 20 wonderful choral and congregational songs, including Chants and Calls, Spirituale, Ebony Gospel, Songs of the Civil Rights Movement and Contemporary South African Songs of Resistance and Protest. Perfect for individuals, church, camp and community groups of any background. Recommended by Alice Walker, Horrie Gilbert, Pete Seeger, and Ladyslipper! (HOM1) CS: 59.99

All Love Can Take

On her second album, the "singing shrink" seeks a broader healing than that possible from a therapist's couch! Timely, poignant lyrics and haunting melodies, co-written with her mother Nancy Khoury, characterize this 1992 release. From country to swing to blues to rock, this woman attacks each genre with a passion and comes up shining! Her voice is strong and soft in all the right places, and the arrangements are right on target. We love her Top Step On My Heart, as well as Co-Dependence Didge and Souvenirs of What We Shared. Make A Change

If you're looking for some political folk music performed in an irresistibly gorgeous alto voice, try this! Her strong, deep, textured vocal quality will pull you right in and mesmerize you, as it effectively communicates her ideas: love for the earth and all creatures, a strong commitment to peace, political and social change, and to personal and political growth — pretty comprehensive, eh? Includes Wise Old Woman, Diamonds, and more; primary accompaniment is cello, guitar, Nickel (ADM101) CS: 9.98

It's A Miracle

Alice's second recording features a fuller sound — acoustic guitars and cello are joined by some sizzlin' sax and drums — and a lyrical exploration of the earth's wonders, spiritual connections, love and loss. Her sense of arrangement is uncanny — each song's instrumentation is the perfect accompaniment to the content, and her voice is infused with emotion, spirit, and beauty. Songs include Orange Moon, Silver Fire, Woke Up Crying, The Beaver Song. (ADM102) CS: 9.98

Alice Di Miele

Too Controversial

This 1990 release features more of Alice's trademark heartfelt lyrics and soulful voice, plus tightly arranged accompaniment (acoustic guitar, bass, keyboards, percussion, soprano sax and cello). Many songs focus on detailing the oppressive aspects of American culture, but what saves this from being a ranting political manifesto is Alice's gorgeous vocal treatment — alternately sweet and growly, whispery and full-throated — and intricate acoustic instrumentation. Other songs speak of a woman's love (Napalm), women's spirituality (New Moon), and a lovely cover of the traditional Water in Wine. Overall, a great example of "personally political" music. Searching

Alice is continuing on a fruitful musical journey, as this 1992 release demonstrates. Her rich, sweet, emotive voice rises and caresses her beautiful melodies and messages of love, caring, concern and passion. Her topics here are the earth (her land and her creatures), love (she writes sweetly about the long-term kind as well as the discovery of love), desire, domestic violence, the Gulf War (Land of Broken Promises). Some lovely violin accompaniment in addition to the guitars/bass/percussion. The title of That Sweetness, the closing song, probably sums up the album in two words. (ADM104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin

XX Alix

Alix's material just gets better and better. This collection of songs is, as usual, highly personal, concrete, articulate, thoughtful, & thought-provoking. Her originality, observations, & experiences emerge as entities which are simultaneously aesthetic & contentful; vulnerable & solid-as-a-rock. Alix doesn't camouflage paradoxes with rhetoric, she explores them, uses them... so refreshing and satisfying. Features the talents of River Lightwoman & Susan Shanbaum, includes Theme from "Getting Ready", Living with Contradictions, Separation '79, Woman to Woman. The title, by the way, refers to both Alix's sign-off in letters (kisses) & double chromosomes of females. (WWA003) CS: 9.98

These Women/ Never Been Better

Again, note reduced LP price! Ever in a ground-breaking, controversial mode, Alix will shock her folkie fans with some of these selections! Mixing high-tech sound with unadorned feminist and lesbian messages, Alix joins with Carol MacDonald and Witch to create the honest, scathing Boy-Girl Rap. Some Boys, and a country remake of her classic The Woman In Your Life is, too. Then, switching to her more familiar and still-dear folk style, she delivers Big Girl's Crazy Dance, 100 Easy Ways to Lose a Man, and the lovely These Women, Never Been Better... is how Alix views women's lives and women's culture... is how Alix empowers women to focus on strength and change... is what you'll say about Alix's music after you hear this! Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney

This incredibly wonderful release — in our opinion, Alix's best yet — was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Russians, The Girls Want to Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very very highly recommended! Love & Politics: A 30 Year Saga

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian Wars... plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shinin'! Through which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists. This release coincides with her first year off the road in 1992, making it especially precious! Includes The Woman In Your Life, Amazon ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes, 14 more. (WWA007) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Lavender Jane Loves Women

The first blatantly lesbian album we know about (1974) and one of the first to be completely produced & engineered by & for women. An artful blend of serious & humorous material. Contains some real classics, like I Only Want to Be With You, a couple of traditional songs, help from the kids, Alix's voice-training yells, plus original lesbian compositions. Includes The Woman in Your Life as You, Thinking Lesbian & View From Gay Head. (WWA001) CS: 9.98

Living With Lesbians

This outrageously funny yet warm & wise tribute to lesbians contains not only words of support, but the sweet voice of Alix. Trained in Balkan singing by Ethel Raimi, Alix has incredible control over her voice. She utilizes it well on her own songs & a few traditional Balkan ones. Original compositions feature her on guitar with all-woman back-up singing to & about lesbians. Includes Mary B, Good Old Dora & Amazon ABC ("a saucy romp through the lepto-alphabet"). (WWA002) CS: 9.98

Angela Motter

Outta Control

Perhaps you've read Angela's interview in the lesbian magazine DeNeuve recently? With a degree in classical guitar performance (her teachers are probably very proud and spinning in their graves!), this Atlanta native has covered great musical ground before gracing us with this 1992 debut album. With a clear, aching voice, incredible slide and 12-string guitars, and enough production smarts to turn out this finely-crafted release, she can write her own ticket in the future, we're sure! Joined by several women instrumentalists, and aided in production by Atlanta's Dede Vogt, the album includes the rocker How Does It Feel?, reminiscent of Melissa Etheridge's Don't Sit Love You Like I Do?, plus the bluesy title song. Highly recommended! (BDR1) CS: 9.98

Ann Earthing & the Planets

Planet Talk

This Euro-American women's band is rooted by Ann (Ana Perez) Earthing, who wrote or co-wrote the 12 songs and sings with great feeling and enthusiasm. Styles range from a kind of reggae-ish pop to full-on boogie, incorporating Latin and African influences, with a ballad thrown in here and there for good measure! The mood is fun, and the lyrics are personal and feminist, global and ecological; titles include Lost in the Androgynous Zone and Anarchismo Boogie. These girls would be great to experience live; hope they make it to the US (from Germany) festival circuit. An almost-all-woman production! Nydia Mata on percussion, engineered by Karen Kane. Ann Reed

Back & Forth

The Best is back... in print, that is; this contains the best from her first releases Carpenter and Room and Board, such as The Woman You'd Love, Jessie, Jaymie, plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston? We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's inimitable voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and all acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluesy vein. (WHD029) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Talk To Me

Ann's back with some great songwriting and guitar-playing; she turns out originals which are strong melodically, exciting, and romantic yet solid — intelligently dealing with interpersonal relationships. Includes Autumn Rain, a meditation-like piece with guitars and vocals, and Complications To a Simple Life. (RH24) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Read

Hole In The Day

Our favorite midwestern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for y'all! This 1993 12-song release features her thrilling brown-sugar & molasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her sexy love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miles Home to You, and No Road to Juneau. (AML3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir

...but we fight for roses too

Established in 1975, Anna Crusis is one of the oldest feminist choirs in the US. Their multicultural repertoire seeks to reflect the rich diversity of human lives and struggles, especially those of women, with songs which are empowering, challenging, and fun. This long-awaited tape by the 40 or so members fulfills their goal, with truly stunning harmonies and a wonderful variety in melody, arrangement, and source — plus a tasteful touch of instrumentation. Includes Burning Times, about the burning of the witches, and Heaven, Dragon, Shikah, inspiring for regular listeners, as well as any who participate in a Women's chorus. Recommended! (ANN1) CS: 10.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir

Fresh Cut

This 1993 release by the country's oldest feminist choir boasts a multicultural repertoire that reflects the rich diversity of women's lives and struggles, sung in English, Spanish, Bulgarian, Yoruba and Latin. The liner notes offer insights about what the songs mean to the choir members, and what it was like to learn and perform them. Representing two years of work, this album includes compositions by two Philadelphia women, the playing of several fine Philadelphia instrumentalists, and is dressed in the beautiful art of Sara Steale. Selections include Daughter Awake with the Moon, Quitting Time by Margaret Roche, Fred Small's Annie, and a medieval church psalm to Mary with refreshingly feminist notes. (ANN2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Seale

Sex for Breakfast

What an odd, different sort of a tape! Frankly lesbian lyrics, with a 1930s lounge sound and Allen Sherman-type humor and rhyming... her original songs include Body Hair, I Get a Bath from Relationships, Your Women's Bookstore, Provincetown, A Lesbian Cemetery. Watch for her at women's music festivals! (AS1) CS: 9.98

Assar Santana & Shamell No. 6

Ileea

Anyone who attended the 15th Anniversary Michigan Festival in 1990 will remember this dynamic percussionist and her world-beat women's ensemble from the Saturday night show! Born in Brazil, she lived and traveled in Venezuela, Europe and West Africa before settling in Montreal, and brings the African, Latin, reggae and jazz traditions and rhythms from her life experiences to her music (she has also been invited to perform with Miles Davis) as well as a dedication to promoting women's talents. The 5-woman Shamell No. 6 (their name a classic wordplay on the cognizer) provides ample backup on sax, bells, guitar, keyboards and vocals to her congas, percussion, and lead vocals. Very recommended! (SAS001) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Barbara Higbie

Signs of Life

Awaited for so many years, here at long last is the 1990 solo album by one of the most talented keyboardist-composers around, known to many for her work with Teresa Trull and Montreal. And it will probably exceed your highest expectations. Here she blends her incredibly beautiful voice (which has been a secret to us for a long time) with stirring lyrics, adding to them her already accomplished instrumental style. Includes The Safest Place in the World, which couples will probably play over and over. Very highly recommended! (WH1090) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Betsy Rose

Wings Against the Sky

The first recording in several years by this pioneering women's musician is a lovely collection of original songs about issues dear to her heart. From the angry House Full of Secrets about the lasting effects of child abuse, to Darlin' I'm Glad, a light-hearted coming-out story with a surprise ending, to a loving tribute to the Sanctuary movement, Open the Doors Again, the songs display her open-heartedness to all people. Accompanying vocalists include Judy Tjell and Judy Friedman, as well as a funky scat solo by Rhannon. (KAL31) CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose

Live From the Very Front Row

Produced by Roma Baran (Laune Anderson's producer, too), this is a very beautiful representation of this singer-songwriter's warm, compassionate, strong, funny and eloquent spirit. Betsy is a charismatic performer — an advocate for so many — and a live recording is her medium, second only to an in-person appearance. This album is a statement of love for women and men, of growing older, of wanting children, of a commitment to being true to herself, ever stepping outside of boundaries. One of the best songs is In the Very Front Row, about her woman minister friend. (PCR5455) CS: 9.98

Hello, BETTY!

This favored harmonizing DivaRock trio announces their debut release — it features the hit singles Wolfwoman, Bedroom Junction, Mr. Snake, Placid Love Affair, Go Ahead and Spit, Mr. Amoral Man. 21 songs in all, 48 minutes of fun. We know how hard this has been to put, and we are visualizing that there are no further delays! (BET1) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Blazing Redheads

Put on your cha-cha slippers and get ready to dance... to the Latin jazz from this 7-woman band from the Bay area. With 3 percussionists, 2 saxophone players, plus bass and keyboards, you know the rhythm's gonna be driving, undulating and raucous! Each brings years of experience playing salsa, jazz, funk, Latin, Brazilian, and rock music, and together they form a tight ensemble. Material and arrangements are original... recommended! (REF25) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Blazing Redheads

Crazed Women

The Redheads have a new one for 1991... jazzy and percussion-rich, with elements of Latin, R&B, and even rock... fun and exciting! Joy Jinks plays bass on this one. (REF41) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bobbi Carmitchell

Follow Thru

Well, the comparisons to James Taylor are just gonna continue — the heart-tugging acoustic guitar chords, sweet voice, soft rhythms, and warm and thoughtful lyrics all add up into a thoroughly enjoyable listening experience! She exudes a friendliness and candor, writes great songs, and here on this 1992 album is joined by a fantastic band (bass, drums, cello, fumes, guitars). Recommended! (LOC5) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carol Steinel

I'm Dangerous!

This 1991 debut album from a songwriter/comic from Portland tells the story: troubadour style, of this "taging, bad-assed dyke." Lots of great queer material, including Dangerous, a lesbian C & W tune called Old Friends Ain't, and her "hate trilogy": God is Love, Leviticus, and Dying For Love, exposing the hypocrisy of the bible thumpers, or "bitchal schizophrenia" as she calls it. Recorded live, so it includes her concert commentary and humor as well as audience enthusiasm; and she accompanies her songs on guitar. (CST0191) CS: 9.98

Claire of the Moon - O.S.T.

This original soundtrack from the film includes an original song composed and performed by Theresa Trull, Could It Hurt, plus piano themes by a variety of artists and performers. (DEM1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Kaldor

Moonlight Grocery

Out of print in the US, but this Canadian import is again available, and now on CD. A late '84 release by one of our favorite singer/songwriters. Includes Marie's Place, the very feminist Get Back the Night, Talk Without Speaking, Caught in the Crossfire and more. (COY1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Kaldor

One of These Days

This album is a gem. It's great! The voice of this Canadian singer-songwriter is exceptionally fine and strong, some songs are feminist, and one is among the funniest we've ever heard: "Jesus With a Capital J/Hay hey hey baby..." who whistle at and harass women walking by. This song is worth the price alone, but there's a whole album of good stuff with it. Another notable one is gospel-style Strength, Love and Laughter, imploring women to look inside for these treasures. However, this LP is one treasure you'll have to order from an external source (like us) and we hope you will! You won't be disappointed. (COY1317) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor

Gentle of Heart

A 1989 release of original songs infused with this Canadian artist's prairie-derived independence and sense of spaciousness, performed with her magnificently deep, emotive, resonant voice. Usually she includes at least one song on a specifically feminist issue, here it is One Hit Leads To Another, about wife-battering. An inexpressible energy and talent, it would be nice if her renown in the US would equal that which she is attaining in Canada! (COY1009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Kaldor

Wood River

Subtitled Home Is Where the Heart Is, this beautiful, haunting collection of Connie's songs from the Canadian prairies has finally captured the warmth and emotion of the artist's live show. It contains new material as well as her classics — her best-known and most-often requested compositions, such as the title track; also Margaret's Waltz, Grandmother's Song, Saskatoon Moon, Hymn from Pincher Creek, Bird On a Wing, Modern Lullaby, and more. (COY1011) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret Fure

Postcards From Paradise

On this 1993 collaborative effort from two of the best-loved artists in women's music, evocative songwriting and stirring vocals challenge us to live in peace, honor the earth and love each other. About half the tracks are duets; most of the rest feature Cris on lead vocals, and Tret provides lead vocals on two. Includes Little World Spinning Blue, In The Best Interest of the Children (which Cris wrote for the soundtrack of a very excellent film about lesbians and child custody), The Stones From Heinen's Field, Garden Ring, Dreamboat (Rivers of Heaven), My Father's Hands, and more. (OL871) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

The Changer and the Changed

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child of Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. (OL904) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Strange Paradise

Musically on par with Changer & the Changed, with more rock-n-roll influence & some phenomenal synthesizer. Joined by Jackie Robbins, June Millington, & on one cut, Bonnie Raitt. (OL921) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

Blue River

A reissue of the 1971 Ampex recording which introduced Meg Christian to Cris' music and sparked the idea for the women's recording company which became Olivia. This is a "vintage" Cris in her simultaneously raw and refined vocal power, with the first recorded versions of Joanna, Waiting, Frantic. (OL927) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

Blue River

Rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry on this new studio album. Includes Lucifer, featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals. Lodestar which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Randle, Leviathan — a song about whales, and Heart to Heart. String arrangements by Mary Watkins. (OL931) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

Prairie Fire

Singing of pioneering spirits and western expanses, Cris really rocks out on this one! The driving sounds of the title cut, the reggae of Colorado Dustbowl Days, the visionary rock of Tsunami (a Japanese word for new wave!) and the Native-American sound of Grandmother's Land make this a recording that will be hard to stop listening to. And bassist Carrie Barr and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a tight, tight rhythm — what talent there! (OL941) CS: 9.98

Best of Cris Williamson

Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology, Portraits). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Woman, Sister Joanna, Surrender, Dorothy — and many others of her best music, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. (OL959) CS: 14.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Circle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Sweet Woman, Shooting Star, Dreamchild, Sister Song of the Soul — as well as previously unreleased songs from Cris' early repertoire: If It Weren't For the Music (well, it was released, but only on a 45 rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Olivia, Millworker, Hey Good Lookin', and more. A wonderful way to remember and to honor the album and the era. 72 minutes (mpg). (OL953) CS: 14.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Wolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout. From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("no longer the lone wolf...") to the song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also Goodnight Marjorie, Morningstar, for Natalie Wood, Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence; and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (OL951) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull

Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother (written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour; Calamity Jane, "good-time cowgirl romp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways... and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably A&R ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! (SW22013) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Meg Christian

Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire history-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo, Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Bettye Rosen's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tiller's knock-out vocals on Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite oldies. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW933) CS: 14.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Deidre McCalla

Don't Doubt It

Very hip, very contemporary, very danceable. Deidre's unique sound is clearly brought out by the superb production skills of Teresa Trull. Deidre has been performing for women's audiences for many years and this, her debut solo recording, has been anxiously awaited. Songs include Dance All Night, Wake Me Up Gently, Did You Think I Didn't Know (if you like Cris Williamson or Teresa Trull, you're sure to like Deidre. And we're sure like to hear more from her!) (OL939) CS: 9.98

Deidre McCalla

With a Little Luck

...and a ton of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deidre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album is even better than her first, from the irresistible celebration of All Day Always (bound to become a classic) to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words. Recommended! (OL933) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Deidre McCalla

Everyday Heroes & Heroines

This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deidre's best yet — demonstrates this singer/songwriter's exceptional talent again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a foot-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love ballads to social criticism. Includes All Over the World, Outside, Girl You Don't Know, Breakings, Sing Me to Sleep. Highly recommended! (OL965) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Destiny

We Are Destiny...

This trio describes itself as a Lesbian-Feminist band singing songs about Lesbian life and love... they rock a little and sing a little, while celebrating the everyday lives of lesbian women (evident in their song titles: Lesbian Lover — an audience participation number that requires the audience to sing the word "lesbian" several times, plus Lost Provincetown, Pretty Woman, Homophobic Blues, Softball on Belmont Plateau). Comprised of MaryJo Paranzino, her lover of 18 years Mary Abt, and percussionist Diana Blitting, they have appeared at many regional and national lesbian and gay festivals and pride marches, including the March on Washington, Comptest, and the Gulf Coast Women's Festival. Refreshingly and matter-of-factly OUT music! (DE5543) CS: 9.98

Dianne Davidson

Breaking All The Rules

While newly taking the women's music world by storm, Dianne's no newcomer to the larger music scene, as this high-energy, gutsy singer, who has performed with Tracy Nelson and Linda Ronstadt, makes her debut on Second Wave Records. Years ago we carried some of her now-out-of-print albums, but she outdoes any previous effort by a long shot here. The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away. It booms, it wails, it burns. It belts her mature blues, country, gospel, r&b, and ballads. About half her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist); the balance is perfectly chosen, includes Built For Comfort, Heaven Bound, Everything To Me, Backup vocals on one song by Tracy Nelson; outstanding production (by Dianne). Can ya tell we like this a lot? Highly recommended! (SW22011) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Live at the Bottom Line - NYC

Yay! Ladieslipper favors Sonia and Cindy present a spring 1992 release: 50 minutes, 13 songs... primarily live performance, acoustic and vocals from a November 1991 concert at this special NYC club, plus 4 tracks from their now out-of-print EP, Box of Heaven and an extra new studio track. Titles include Sixteen Roses, Love Isn't Dead, Love Insurance. This album and their recent touring have garnered them thousands of new fans — which they richly deserve. Deep Soul Diver

With not much more than 2 voices, a guitar and a tambourine, this duo has created a surprisingly sophisticated sound. Veterans of Dinner Theater at the Southern Women's Music Festival, sisters Sonia and Cindy combine engaging melodies with catchy and thoughtful lyrics. This 1990 album balances emotional sincerity and irreverence in songs like For Hollywood / Willard Sexual Teapathy. (DSP1004) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Echo My Call

Sonia Rulstein Frank and Cindy Frank are blood sisters with captivating sister-harmonies, and their duo album is characterized by haunting melodies, content that spans the personal to US intervention in Central America, and a soulful folkbeat delivery. All the material is by husky-voiced lead singer and guitarist Sonia. Nice debut, watch for them at festivals. (RR1092) CS: 9.98

Dyketones

Live in P-Town (Double)

The Fabulous Dyketones album is once again back in print: a full hour and a half by everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's, at a dance party at Dyke High! From To Know Her Is to Love Her to My Girlfriend's Back to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykesangelia Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended! (RR1001) CS: 10.98

Ellen Hines

First Generation

This feminist musician from Asheville NC presents this 1992 debut album which showcases several fine attributes: her unusual, engaging, husky alto voice... her songwriting... and an ability to present material on a wide variety of political (and personal) topics without sacrificing musical integrity. Some highlights include title song, about which she writes, "As a daughter of survivors of 'olocausts', I cannot forget the Holocaust still happening"; To Amo Mujer (I Love You, Woman), the only non-original included here; Ancient Memories, Winnin' Grow Rice, and one of this reviewer's favorites, the watercolor-like impressions of Early Empty Beach. (MAR1001) CS: 9.98

Ellen Rosner

If you were impressed by the multi-octave voice of Horse, or are a devotee of Joan Armatrading, welcome to an interesting merger! Personal lyrics are brought to life by a deep voice, with full band on a couple of cuts, and various combinations of the artist with one or two guitarists, vocalists, and/or other instrumentalists. A great 1991 debut release from this Chicago-based musician, rock-ish at times, but mellow overall — you won't be disappointed! (NBS11859) CS: 9.98

Erica Wheeler

Strong Heart

No stranger to attendees of several women's music festivals, Erica will hopefully soon be no stranger to a wider group of listeners, thanks to this 1990 debut tape. Her voice is resonant yet with some vulnerable quality — the type that mesmerizes and holds the listener — and her lyrics thoughtful and poetic, the heart being the main theme. (BP010) CS: 9.98

Erica Wheeler

From That For

This Massachusetts singer/songwriter embodies the finest qualities of folk music: the vocal warmth, the clear acoustic tones, the simplicity of the stories of our lives. Erica's voice is silky and sweet on this 1992 release, her songwriting direct and poetic, and tasteful production, coupled with some of the Northeast's best players, all serve to highlight her songs. Includes Amanda Crazy Wolf, the glowing Down River, the non-monogamy song Black Burner Blues, and Car With No Brakes, about being partners with an incest survivor. Infused with spirituality, landscapes, poetry and wit, we highly recommend this album! (BP200) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Fem 2 Fem

Woman to Woman

Finding on the wave of the recent "lesbian chic" comes a most unusual 1993 release! This 5-woman (or should we say 6-femme) ensemble creates openly lesbian high-tech dance club music... and you can sure dance to it! Includes their single Switch ("Femme in the streets... butch in the sheets..."). Woman to Woman, All About Eve, Coming Out, Freedom of Choice — now you don't have to zone out the lyrics while you lose yourself to the beat! Perhaps some of you caught their appearance on the Geraldine show, with comic Karen Williams and Judy Dugasz of Olivia Records. We're thrilled to see a greater degree of mainstream acceptance, if that's what this signifies, though time will tell what happens after the novelty/fad is over... in the meantime, enjoy it to the utmost! Ferron

Testimony

There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter... hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock 'n' roll, her testimony, "By our lives be we spirit... by our hearts be we women... by our eyes be we open... by our hands be we whole." (LUC003) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Ferron

Shadows on a Dime

This Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite, very highly recommended! (LUC004) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Ferron

Phantom Center

One of the longest-awaited albums in the history of independent music, by an artist as singular as her name, is finally ready! Connecting rich, poetic, archetypal imagery with vibrant musical texture, it is guaranteed to create an immediate emotional impact. Instrumentalists include Barbara Higbie and Hoyt; songs include Stand Up, Inland Dreams, White Wing, Mercy, Higher Widdow. (CHM74830) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ferron

Resting With the Question

Who'd have guessed that Ferron's musical gift could express its poetry through instrumental music as well as through songs with lyrics? Not I, certainly, but this 1992 release proves the musician. Eloquent compositions performed on synthesizer are saturated with emotion: lush, wistful, yearning, haunting, rich, and circular... elegant and probing dreamscapes. And you'll probably lapse into thinking you're hearing flutes, classical guitars, strings, piano, and human voices. A highly recommended opportunity to experience another dimension of this woman's artistry. (CW006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ferron

Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any album: the concert favorite I Know A Game, and Shady Gate, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center. 16 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Girls in the Nose

One of our top picks for 1991! Wild, raunchy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 6-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wider persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hut, Prisoners of Pantyhose ("Go here's some advice from Girls in the Nose! Women unite, take back your hose! Take them back to the damn store... Lat nylons be typones"), and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (GIR1) CS: 9.98

Origin of the World

Wherever these girls blow their nose, audiences hold out their hands for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands: "kickass lesbian rockers from the Lone Star State" whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless... This 1992 release contains Breast Exam; More Madonna, Less Jesus; Pink Guitar; Medusa; Sodomy; Incongruity; and more, singing to and with sexuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pre-choice, pro-homo recording! (GIR2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

I Love Women...Who Laugh

Save on the LP! This album is the embodiment of a successful transition in style, from a solid blues background to a more rock-oriented, funkier sound. Utilizing an incredible array of synthesizers, plus congas and saxophone, Heather produces strong moods and currents of emotion. Mostly original and clearly woman-identified material. Includes title cut, The Holocaust, Our Silence. Recommended. (MOP004) LP: 4.99 ... CS: 9.98

Heather Bishop

A Taste of the Blues

Save on the LP! This 1987 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for... that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seduced, Leanne Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armistead's Taking My Baby Up Town ("with a pretty person on my arm"), Carolyn Brandy's Spirit Healer, and many originals. Sumptuous jacket, fine production, excellent artistry, wonderful woman. (MOP006) LP: 4.99 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

Walk That Edge

Save on this LP too... Heather's seventh recording has a simple down-home flavor, a contemporary folk sound with both country and rock influences. Her lyrics and music are sometimes sassy, sometimes sultry — daring to walk that edge — and sometimes sad and haunting, with images of separations, ghosts from the past, the path not taken. Includes Let Them Talk, which when sung by Heather becomes an affirmation of love between women, and I'm Not the One, about surviving an abusive relationship, with a driving guitar solo by Sherry Shute. A wonderful 1989 release. (MOP007) LP: 4.99 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults: Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written, like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Rain. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Angels Cry and Yes to Life. BORROWED: songs like Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom. BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 19 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and lively since her early albums are going out of print: lots of her best work here! very recommended of course! The Heretics

Mass Hysteria

Toronto's premiere 4-woman band performs an inspired mix of dance music, funk and rock, and their first full-length album attests to their wit and creativity. Featuring all-around great musicianship as well as Pat Jeffries' powerful lead vocals, this 1991 release includes Hesitant, a funk rave-up about a mental institution prophet; Moves, a tale about the housing crisis; and He Thinks, a song which exposes the patriarchal anti-woman perspective, co-written with Lynne Ferrie, who also wrote the Perichute Club's smash hit Rise Up. Recommended! (FRI1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hersong: Quad-City Women's Chorus

Peace, Justice and Harmony

This 1992 release contains 22 touching and delightful songs by this 25-member women's chorus from the Quad Cities, an Iowa-Illinois community clustered on the Mississippi River. Their music addresses women's issues, multiculturalism, love for the earth and spirituality. Includes Bewere, an original feminist take-off on an fairy-tale and nursery rhyme; Carolyn McDuffie's Spirit of Life; choral renditions of songs by Pat Humphries, Ferron, Ann Reed, Litana, Holly Near, Bernice Reagon, Thelma Adell, Carole Etzel, and others. If you sing in or enjoy listening to a women's chorus, this is for you. (HER1) CS: 9.98

Holly Near (w/Mercedes Sosa)

Singer in the Storm

Coinciding with the publication of Holly's autobiography comes the next best thing to being at this once-in-a-lifetime event in person! This live recording of some of Holly's best-loved songs, recorded in Oakland in 1989, captures the vitality of her live appearances that's difficult to duplicate in a recording studio. And the icing on the cake is that it features, miraculously, Ladylipper favorite Mercedes Sosa on two songs, including Rodavila Cantamos, a fantastic rendition of one of Mercedes' most popular performance pieces! Also contains Singing For Our Lives, Grate Peace March, Sing To Me the Dream, Si Bascabas, We Who Believe in Freedom, and more, with John Buochino on piano, Melissa Etheridge on guitar, Linda Tillery and Rhannon on vocals. Very, very highly recommended! (CHM74032) CS: 9.98

This 2-cassette "audio autobiography" is the closest most of you fans will come to taking Holly home with you! This spoken interview-style recording, with cuts from 25 songs, expresses Holly's wit and humor, honesty and candor, travail and triumph, musical talent and ability to live from the heart, as she sings and tells her story in her own words. This is not a reading from her book, but rather an animated conversation. 120 minutes. Recommended! (ENH06) CS: 15.98

You Can Know All I Am

Powerful—sometimes playful, sometimes painful look at the conditions of many kinds of women: in prison, organizing in factories, initiating relationships. More produced than her previous albums but Holly's voice still sparkles through. Concert leader is Marcy Dichterow who also does a beautiful violin solo on You've Got Me Flying. Includes a women's choir, Nicolle & the stunning Sister Woman Sister. (RR3800) CS: 9.98

A Live Album

Her 1974 classic second album, which captures the dynamic quality of her performances, is now back in print. Contains many of the best-loved songs about women, from a "taking boot" mother to working class women to a friendship between a young woman and an Old Time Woman. Also includes If Could Have Been Me, Get Off Me Baby and Water Come Down. A personal favorite of this reviewer, and in an ancient quirky circumstantial way, one of the catalysts for the idea of Ladylipper. (RR3700) CS: 9.98

Hang in There

Holly's first album, made soon after her visit to Viet Nam during the war and inspired by the experience. Reflects her anti-war, anti-imperialist and beginning feminist consciousness and a concern for oppressed people worldwide. Contains one song performed by a choir of Vietnamese women, includes No More Genocide and Birthday Children. (RR3800) CS: 9.98

Imagine My Surprise!

that Holly's most woman-identified album is not only back in print, it's also being issued on CD! Contains some funky country-style music, inspiring political stories. Beautiful music and vocal arrangements by Meg Christian, and a sweet lullaby includes title, Mountain Song, Kentucky Woman, The Women In My Life, You Bet I Sing Love Songs, Rock Me In Your Arms, Nina, Fight Back!. Fire in the Rain

She's done it again! Holly's incredible talent as a singer-songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (who also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this LP has a tight arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as Golden Thread, Voices, & a remake of My Man's Got Trouble called I Got Trouble. Title cut sparkles with harmonies. (RR402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Speed of Light

Polished, punchy rock 'n' roll, with an infusion of funk and reggae... Holly's musical odyssey continues! This album has an upbeat, clean feeling, light without a commercial, over-produced sound. Most unusual is Unky, on which she is accompanied by African Dreamland, a male reggae band from Nashville. Other musicians include Adrienne Tori on piano, Carrie Barton bass, Ray Obiedo on guitar. Contains Power, an anti-nuke song; Dancing Bird, the bluesy Back Off. (RR403) CS: 9.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Glibert

Lifeline

A majestic collaboration of generations and spirits. Ronnie was one of the Weavers in the 40's and 50's, a folk group which loudly voiced the progressive and humanist concerns of the American people until the blacklist virtually silenced them; and which won the hearts and devotion of a huge following. Holly grew up admiring Ronnie's strong, proud singing and stance, and dedicated her second album (A Live Album) to her. They got together for the filming of Wasn't That a Time?, when Ronnie was learning some of Holly's songs for the Weavers' Carnegie reunion concert. Ronnie's awareness of women's issues and her consciousness of herself as a woman performer had grown because of Holly's music. They then began touring together, and this is a live recording from the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco. Styles encompass Broadway, folk, jazz, gospel. Includes the great song previously recorded by Kate Taylor, Harriet Tubman, plus Gracias a la Vida, Goodnight Irene, Hay Una Mujer (new arrangement/words), Singing For Our Lives. Musical Highlights From The Play...

About this spring 1993 release of highlights from her play Fire in the Rain, Holly says, "While doing the play, audiences kept asking for the cast recording. We didn't have one. The songs were spread out on 15 different recordings made over the last 20 years! A compilation? No, let me record these songs one last time... not like I sang them back then... maybe not even how I sing them in the show! I hope you enjoy this recording... a celebration of the last 20 years and a reassurance that there are many surprising years yet to come." There are also a few brand new songs here: her originals Find Me and Change of Heart, as well as a couple of Broadway-type covers. (RR9303) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Watch Out!

This dynamic singer/songwriter continues to "go the extra measure in her music." Here she collaborates with the West Virginia folk and traditional quartet Trapezoid, well known for their Appalachian instruments and styles, and so enters yet another musical genre, acoustic folk music. Instrumentation here includes hammer dulcimers (played by John McCutcheon), violin, cello, mandolin, and other newcomers to Holly's original topical songs plus a few Lorraine O'Connell and Freyda Epstein from Trapezoid likewise add a fresh dimension. Includes Child (about physical and sexual abuse of children). The Moon Is Getting Ready and Step If Out Nancy. (RR406) CS: 9.98

Sing to Me the Dream

In spring of '84, Holly toured with an exiled 6-man Chilean ensemble and this LP was recorded during those concerts. Inti's music is partly instrumental, South American folk music, and the vocals are part of what's known as New Song—a Latin American political/cultural movement. (RR407) CS: 9.98

HARP

When this reviewer dies and goes to folk heaven, she fully expects this recording to be heard in elevators and dentist offices. HARP bridges the gap of generations and gives a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. On this live recording, Pete and Ronnie (two original members of the legendary Weavers) lead the group on classic oldies like Jacob's Ladder, Oh, Mary Don't You Weep, Windmills, Arlo solos with such favorites as City of New Orleans and All Over the World. Holly's solos include Fine Time and a moving duet with Ronnie of Marvin Gaye's What's Going On—and her own Foolish Notion. The four perform together and weave harmonies. This is historical folk music at its best. (RR409) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sky Dances

A 1989 folk, intimate, emotion-filled release which features Holly at her absolute best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Perton (Testimony), Bernice Johnson Reagon (They Are Falling All Around Me—especially relevant during the AIDS epidemic), Ruben Blades, Phil Ochs, Malvina Reynolds, and Holly herself (Nicaragua)...plus her imitable interpretation of Somebody Over the Rainbow. Her themes relate to life, death, and healing/carrying on after loss, accompanying her are John Burchino, Michael Manning, Nina Gerber. This is the style which has endeared Holly to her thousands of fans; this album should make her many more. (RR8902) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hunter Davis

Torn

A wonderful sequel to Harmony, this 1988 release features more of Hunter's bluesy, soulful vocals underscored by the excellent production talents of Teresa Trull. Highlights are a terrific country duet with Chris Williamson, Arm and a Leg, the bluesy Ship accompanied by Ten Percent Masquerade, Star Struck, for those seriously crushed out on a performer, infatuation, and more Hunter originals about love lost and found. Real well done! (RR8903) CS: 9.98

A Season of Song

This Boulder-based women's a cappella vocal ensemble has been evolving and performing since 1988. The 7-member coalition of singers, composers and instrumentalists, under the direction of organist and composer Joannis Lande, has developed a diverse repertoire including ethnic folk songs from Bulgaria to South Africa, original arrangements of American folk tunes, and original a cappella pieces. On this 1992 debut release, the harmonies on Fort Down the River are exquisite; other titles include Hymn to the Goddess: The Earth, She Speaks to Me, and Where the Song Went Where She Went & What Happened When They Met...all their songs speak to hopeful visions of a new world. Closer to Home

This is a wonderfully lesbian-identified album filled with warmth, humor and honesty. From the hilarious Straight Girl Blues ("why do these straight girls look so sultry to me?"), to the sultry eroticism of Dark Chocolate ("the way to a woman's heart is through her lips" through the shudder of her sighs and the motion of her hips"), to the country-flavored Wedding Song, which expresses outrage at a society that only gives toaster ovens to straight couples; Jamie explores topics near and dear to many of us! Her voice is sweet, delivery is straightforward, lyrics direct, thoughtful and refreshing. Highly recommended! (TSU1001) CS: 9.98

Center of Balance

Jamie's second release continues with her humorous, pointed material she's become quite known for and contains many of the songs she's performed on tour: I'm Sorry is her song of condolence for hats ("I'm sorry that you're straight! It can't be your fault! Have you tried counseling or talking to god?")... All of Me is a funny song about body image ("Don't emphasize your butt! pretend that it's tiny! the first thing that folks notice! shouldn't be your hunk")... Lorena and Bernadine is about her gay-bait and her long-time companion... plus her usual array of contemplative and/or weird songs: Vocal assistance given by Sue Pink, Mimi Baczewski, Leah Zicat. Always recommended! (TSU1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Wild Strings

If you can only purchase a few albums this year, make this one of them. For sure...it is magnificent, intelligent, absolutely a pleasure. The duo is now a trio (Carol and Michelle have been joined by Lydia Ruffin), and their awesome harmonies are even fuller. They have sustained their incredible powerhouse energy, plus strength in lyric, rhythm, melody. Mostly original material; includes Across the Wide, Missouri, You Were Here, Seven Day Kiss. Produced by ace Terry Garthwaite, recorded with a full band. Very highly recommended! (JCE217) CS: 9.98

In the Eye of the Storm

Produced by Robin Flower and featuring the excellent musicianship of Barbara Higbie and Nina Gerber, Jennifer's debut recording makes a distinct splash into the body of women's music. Many political and spiritual themes, passionately moving through the music in a variety of styles from folk to reggae to rock, will awaken the listener to anger at injustice, hope, and personal power and healing. Includes a song about a lesbian teacher, Charlie Murphy's haunting song of Womanspirit, Burning Times, Kitchen Revolution, and more. Her guitar is impeccable, her voice strong yet gentle, and the arrangements superb. Absolutely recommended! (EOW19) CS: 9.98

Borderlines

This very long-awaited second release finally makes it in late 1992! Nurtured on the spaciousness and the spirit of the Canadian prairies, her strong voice brings us her sensibility, her spirituality, and her insight into the poverty of the "American" way. Produced by Mike Marshall and featuring lots of great instrumental backup, by Mike, Nina Gerber, and others. (FF615) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Leave a Little Light Behind

We knew this artist first as a contributor to the wonderful New Zealand women's LP compilation Out of the Corners many years ago; and we're glad to have her solo 1992 debut release. Born and raised in Zimbabwe, an eleven year resident of New Zealand, and now living in the US, she brings somewhat of a world perspective to women's music! Almost all songs here are originals, sometimes moving, sometimes funny, sometimes inspiring, and always delivered with knockout Kiwi style. They cover a wide range of topics including women's heroism, friendship, incest, war, and our favorite Gertrude Stein; physically you'll hear country rock to ballads with even a little Mississippi Delta sound. Welcome this not-so-new newcomer! (HLW1301) CS: 9.98

Live! On Dreams

73 minutes of live music, humor and stories from this Norwegian lesbian singer-songwriter! Her political wit is still finely tuned in Take a Leap, John Paul Love That Goes the Distance commemorates the relationship between Sharon Kowalski and Karen Thompson; At Nancy's House is a great sing-along; Fallin' Out of Love is a funny yet poignant, and familiar, tale; and even some Scandinavian folk music. Have this concert in your very own living room! (HON108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Best of the 80's

This wonderful 1993 retrospective contains some of the best material — 17 songs! — from Judy's first 4 albums: Mothers, Daughters Wives; One Voice in the Crowd; Home Front; and A Natural Selection... song titles include The I.P.D., The Family Maiden Aunt, Women of Our Time, From the Lumber to the Wool. In addition, she includes her popular but never before recorded song for recessionary times, Ordinary People. It's a lot of great songwriting for the money! And, watch for Judy on tour in the states, US Immigration Service willing. (CRA007) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Second Wind

This 1993 album (the year of Judy's 40th birthday) represents a shift in focus, both musically and in writing style. She collaborates here with pianist/composer David Bates, whose background is strongly influenced by jazz, and the result brings a new sophistication to Judy's composition. And, she gets to come out from behind her guitar! The songs still reflect her concern with matters of conscience; they speak of love, tell stories about people's lives with which others can identify, and sometimes poke gentle fun at a world that at times takes itself too seriously. Includes Daughters of the Second Wave, Life Begins at Forty, Sacred Ground, Man Among Men, Lurch in a Modern World, and Maddy Prior's Woman in the Wings. Truly demonstrates the coming of age of a fine Australian artist. (CRA006) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

One Voice in the Crowd

A beautifully produced recording by an Australian woman who, with her poetic songwriting and dulcet voice, continues to broaden the often-too-narrow world consciousness of us U.S. citizens! Australian feminism and social protest themes are conveyed through her various portraits (A Heroine of Mine) and wry parodies (The I.P.D.—a male equivalent of the I.U.D.). Includes The Family Maiden Aunt from her first Australian release A Natural Selection, and a few songs which deny the power of U.S. presence—military and otherwise—on the international scene. (RR8503) CS: 9.98

Judy Small Home Front

This wonderful folk artist presents a late '86 album of political songs covering a wide range of concerns. Annie, which some of you may know because Fred Small also recorded this, is about a lesbian school teacher. Golden Arches is an upbeat spoof of the MacDonald's invasion of so many countries; the title song is about the impact of the Viet Nam war on the wives, after the men come home. Thoughtful, thought-provoking. Judy is one of the most important songwriters of our time. (RR8806) CS: 9.98

Judy Small Snapshot

This 1990 release, coinciding with a repeat US tour, is a welcome addition to her collection of political and humorous protest songs; if you liked her previous albums, you'll love this one! Includes The Revolution's Here, No Tears for the Widow, Pearl, The Advertising Game. (RR9003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

June and Jean Millington Ticket to Wonderful

This long-awaited 1993 release is the Millington sisters' best work yet! They combine their Philippine island roots, elevated lyrics and a folk-rock sensibility (honed in the 70's with their pioneering work in Fanny, the first all-woman rock band to achieve international prominence) to create a unique World Beat blend of island consciousness and rock-steady, global rhythms. Original songs range from the upbeat and passionate Lighting the Night, to the crisp and hauntingly beautiful Indigo Skies, to the playful Goin' to Hawaii, to the prayerful Fanny (World of Love). Living up to its title, this album brings a new dimension to the words "soul music." (FAB707) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Justina & Joyce So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from Ladyslipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)!" Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works; each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording... The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Affirmation, which states "I will not lie down, I will not submit! I will not quiet, I will resist..." a moving cover of Ferrer's Testimony, and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this recording enough! k.d. lang and the Reclines A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found a supply of k.d.'s debut release, which we've been trying to get our hands on for about 4 years. Unfortunately, they come to us at a very high import cost. It's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chrono-cled. Bopaiena ("this is my gal"), Hanky Panky, her original Pine and Stew plus Patsy Cline's Stop, Look and Listen and 5 others. No k.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM66) CS: 14.98 CD: 25.98

k.d. lang and the Reclines Angel With A Lariat

This Canadian artist has become a major sensation in country-rock, and for good reason! Her deep voice is strong and resonant (yes, even that worn-out word powerful), her delivery punchy, and her high energy inspires a raucous good time; and she's already creating some new fans of country and rockabilly, from the ranks of women's music as well as from the mainstream. Includes several original songs such as Watch Your Step (a duet with Patsy Cline) and Step, plus other rousing numbers like Tune Into My Wave. Fabulous! (SIR25441) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Even Cowgirls Get the Blues: O.S.T.

As we go to press, k.d. is working on the soundtrack to the Gus Van Sant movie adaptation of the Tom Robbins novel, and it's expected to be released fall 1993. She and Ben Mink are collaborating on the music, which is influenced by the early 70's, and so far includes a polka, a jazz-fusion tune, a country waltz, and a Sly and the Family Stone boogie tune. Of course, all fans will want to have this!! (SIR7) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

k.d. lang Shadowland

Highlight here is Honky Tonk Angels (a medley of In the Evening when the Sun Goes Down, You Nearly Lost Your Mind, and Blues Stay Away From Me), with vocals by "The Honky Tonk Angels" consisting of no less than Kilty Wells, Lorella Lynn, Brenda Lee, and k.d. herself! Some of you have no doubt seen the terrific video. More evocative, sultry, and powerhouse vocals from k.d., in less of a rowdy, more-country-balled style than her first release. It's dynamic; don't miss it! (SIR25724) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

k.d. lang and The Reclines Absolute Torch and Twang

Following Shadowland, this album is true to the title, with country ballads resonating from the Canadian prairies. Some great originals, such as Nowhere To Stand, It's Me, Walkin' In and Out of Your Arms, and Big-Boned Gal, as well as absolute country covers like Full Moon Full of Love... all her love songs quite genderless. A talent to be reckoned with, and an album for all fans. (SIR25877) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang Ingenué

Since we're writing this prior to its actual release, here's from the blurb sheet: "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dripped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chastity, Constant Craving, Wash Me Clean, and Saw Me. (SIR26840) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Karen Beth To Each One of Us

Karen remains Alix Dobkin's favorite songwriter, and you'll see why when you hear this album. It's a recording of extraordinary beauty and depth, weaving elements of women's spirituality with compassion, self-awareness, and love of women. Exquisite vocal harmonies by Amy Fradon and Leslie Riffer of Crysalis Song; and a 10-woman Stardance Celestial Choir—which does include Alix—on Womanland (Rising) Also includes Full Moonlight Dance, Patience and Sarah, and one of this reviewer's favorite songs by Karen from one of her now-out-of-print albums—Bird of Song. Highly Recommended! (STD102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kid Sister

North Carolina's own singer/songwriter/musician duo Ruth Vienneau and Piper Kessler (good chance you've already heard her melodic phone voice, if you've ever phoned Ladyslipper) debut their considerable talent on their 5-song anonymous release, and we're proud to include them in our catalog! Their vocal harmonies would do their stylistic neighbors the Indigo Girls proud as well, while their lyrics and arrangements convey a wistful longing, for a spiritual home (Rescue You Carolina), and for love (Signal Fire, The Search). The effect is sweet and comfortable, and we can't wait to hear more from them! (KST) CS: 6.98

Laura Berkson

Debut album by a talented singer-songwriter with solid roots in folk, Jewish and women's traditions, for whom music is a medium for personal growth, community empowerment and world change. Included here are many originals of note, including Marie, the story of two high school girls who won the right to attend their prom together (it's a famous story now, mostly because of Laura's song); To Be Strong, for people with AIDS and their families/friends/lovers; Miriam who led the Jewish women out of the wilderness towards freedom; Open Eyes, featuring Laura's beautiful piano. (BA101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laura Love Menstrual Hut (EP Tape)

A 19-minute debut cassette from one of the most distinguishing talents for our new 1990 catalog, and a voice you won't forget. Laura identifies strongly as a lesbian/feminist woman of color, and her material reflects this consciousness—both original songs and some carefully selected traditional folk songs. To her own guitar accompaniment, she presents, with a voice laden with depth and texture, her song I'm Your Daughter's Lover. Listen To Me, a tribute to Native American women; Wet M-M-I-N, a spectacular rendition of the traditional Wayfaring Stranger; the title song, and more. We're sure this isn't the last we'll hear from Laura, but make this your introduction. Highly recommended! (OB1) CS: 8.98

Laura Love Z Therapy

Laura's second release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Heine Christopher from the Z-Band—thus the title, ah! Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat G. Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, durbek, congas, bongos, Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laura Love Pangaea

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant—all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severn) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Nancy Griffith's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes—there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Day Lives, with incredible harmonizing, Neilson. Voices: Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laah Zicari Wouldn't That Be Fun?

A pretty super-duper lesbian-affirming tape by a femme dyke-with-bike-with-guitar, and a must for every woman who's ever had a crush on Marina ("Marina I'm wishing that you would serve me! Back and forth and forth and forth! I'm wishing that love is the score!") Also includes What Kind of Self-Respecting Lizzie Is She? with additional verses built upon the Romanovskys and Phillips song; Lava; Glory Glory ("Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the queen" with an entire chorus); and several other lovely lesbian songs. Add to that good voice, accompaniment and arrangement, and you have a definitely recommended tape! (GB) CS: 9.98

Libby Roderick
If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. By far the most popular song here is her internationally acclaimed, poignantly simple ballad, How Could Anyone Ever Tell You, which has been sung in everything from incest recovery groups to kindergarten classes to peace gatherings. Also notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular, additionally includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women. Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout, and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on thee! An excellent debut album. (TRT1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick
Thinking Like a Mountain

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including the title plus Is That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams, Go, Help Things to Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. Recommended (TRT1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick
If the World Were My Lover

This feminist singer/songwriter just keeps getting better, as she proves on this 1993 release, which will truly move you to see the world as your lover. Includes the hauntingly beautiful title song; a hilarious country swing number Heaven Down Here; the poignant Because You Do; and Libby's first rock and roll song (!) Thunder, which warns of the rise of fundamentalism in US politics. We always recommend Libby! (TRT1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Lisa Koch
Colorblind Blues

A.k.a. one-fourth of the fabulous Venus Envy band, half of the comedy duo Doe Fatolipa, former Fabulous Dyketone Ms. Koch ("Coke") has put together a smashing first solo release; great production, vocals, lyrics — shades of June Millington meets Kate Clinton! Features the lovely All Night Long, the hilarious Beaver Cleaver Fever, the semi-autobiographical retro tune Hickey, and the AIDS anthem, Light of a Memory. Loads of talent here — a must! (TNG1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Koch/Julie Wolf

Lisa's done it again, this time with some help from Julie Wolf on keyboards and vocals. There come re-mixes from Colorblind Blues (Hickey is even campier!) but the highlight is NARAL NARAL, a reproductive rights anthem done by a "politically correct" cheesy cocktail lounge band. Julie gets down-and-nasty on the I'm-over-the-breakup song Someone Else is Stepping In, and poignant on John Prine's Heaven In Their Arms. If Jasmine had to perform Saturday Night Live skits, it might sound something like this! (TNG2) CS: 9.98

Lorraine Segato
Phoenix

Almost impossible to get, but we've managed to locate a supplier... Lorraine herself! (We have plenty of cassettes, anyway...) 1990 solo release by the fantastic lead singer of the Parachute Club... includes Beautiful and Dangerous, a song about a woman's love for a woman, but could describe Lorraine herself!... Phoenix is Rising Again, Good Medicine, and more, all with the inevitable mix of strong feminist/humanist politics, strong lyric, and strong rhythm the Parachute Club has been so famous for. Lucie Blue Tremblay
I Want You To Know Who I Really Am

Also known as Lucie's "Coming Out Kit," this cassette (T-song tape) is perfect to send to parents, family, old friends... and if you love me as much as I love you/then you'll love me/ even if I'm not like you... This insert even gives contact addresses for organizations such as PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays). (DS001) CS: 6.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Olivia has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Chris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Chris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Chris, Tiet Fars, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McCaffa. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — treat yourself now! Recommended. (OL947) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay
Tendresse/Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her second album includes perceptive socio-political songs; Pollique, Peaking; even-touching love songs; Montreal, Passage; and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk song The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Transformations

Another charmed release for late 1992 from this charming performer; songs in both English and French include Chez Nous, All Out of Love Tonight, Homeless, Sail Away, The Guilty One. Highly recommended! (OL967) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
Butch Fatale

At last! This hilarious and touching performer has released her first live recording, with 14 examples of her witty "dyke gal cabaret" — both the comedic songs for which she is well known, plus several stand-up monologues all interspersed with hilarious and sometimes sobering stage patter. Songs include Seven Nights ("Dear Joanne Loutan! I am writing you this letter/Hoping you can give me some advice — you seem so nice/...in the last 6 months we haven't done it twice out of 7 nights a week she goes Country Western dancin'..."), Come Home, a warm tribute to Sharon Kowalski and Karen Thompson's courage and strength in the face of their court-enforced separation, and the perfect example of incompatibility on a first date, Alone Together. (BNT32499) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
You Are What You Wear

Yet another funny album from the dyke queen of cabaret camp. To further explain Lynn's musical and theatrical style, let us just say that she performs with the "festive duo" Romanovsky & Phillips in the "Leather and Lace Tour," and guess who wears what! This album ranges from the very serious Anne Frank, in which she reminds us that "Silence Equals Death," to the humorous account of That Festive Little Neighborhood ("in-laid of politicians, we're a queen"). (BNT33175) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
I'd Rather Be Cute

"I'm trying first of all to entertain. Second, I want to raise an awareness in people's minds of the state of gay life today, to show the ways we are similar and the ways we are different. And third, I am trying to pay off a 1983 Honda Accord." This Jewish lesbian from Brooklyn performs humorous material in a cabaret style, from A Mother's Lament ("Please, Lynn, don't wear leather pants to the seder! and please cover your tattoo at the seder") to First Dyke On Dynasty. (BNT01369) CS: 9.98

Lynn Lavner
Something Different

From the title song: "All the other little girls liked Fred/I fell in love with Ginger... All the other girls would trade their heads/I combed my hair with Bril-O-Creme/Greasy all night, but something different..." Humorous, touching, affirming, these songs are mostly from her cabaret acts, and have titles like: Shelly, You've Gone Nelly on Me, Come to the Bar, The Role Playing Tango, 28 Barbary Lane (with reference to Armistead Maupin's best-of-the-decade Days of the City book series). Piano accompaniment. (BNT92329) CS: 9.98

Lynn Thomas
Courage

If the Rocky Horror Picture Show ever does a sequel, we want Lynn's opening song, Dykes, to be featured! Utilizing a variety of upbeat styles, and singing with a vocal strength reminiscent of Bette Midler, Lynn pens and performs songs like Lavender Love, Best Friend, Gone Fishing, and the lovely Conditions. Margie Adam
Songwriter

Of the many moods reflected here, that of a childlike exuberance predominates. Outstanding vocal harmonies by Vicki Randle, Meg Christian & Chris Williamson. All original compositions, including Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Would You Like to Tap Dance on the Moon?, & 2 exquisite piano solos. (PLE2747) CS: 9.98

Margie Adam
Another Place

Well, this 1993 album was worth the wait! Honestly, we thought we'd lost her for good, but she's back with a lovely collection of songs, chock full of her trademark wry and gentle observations on the ways of the heart. Her voice has matured and deepened, and by bringing together some of today's best Women's Music artists (old and new), she breathes it new, steady life into the scene. Bravol includes the humorous Talk with My Heart, which features beautiful instrumental interludes when her heart answers back, the steadfast Long Hair in which she honors those still fighting for our rights, and the heart-breaking Time Goes Slowly By, in which an elderly woman sits bewildered in a nursing home, waiting to be taken home (so, sniffling...), 13 gems in all, waiting for you to take them home! Highly recommended. (PLE2751) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Best of Margie Adam

This late 1990 double-length edition is one of Olivia's Women's Music Classics collections, chosen from all of Margie's albums to commemorate one of Women's Music best-selling pianists and songwriters, and the first time Margie's work is available on CD! Includes Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Tender Lady, Naked Keys, and 34 more. (OL961) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Margie Adam
Naked Keys

Eleven original solo piano performances... soothing, peering, whimsical. This is Margie in some ways at her truest: her medium, her style. Her years at the piano, having the music flow through her, precede & underlie her singing & her songwriting ones. (PLE2748) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Margie Adam
We Shall Go Forth

Now that Margie's touring again, we're adding this 1992 golden oldie back into our listings, since it contains songs which have been in-concert favorites for years: Tender Lady, I'm Not a Service Station, Baby, Child, Dare to Struggle, Who Among Us, and the title song. All are original vocal pieces, recorded live. (PLE2749) CS: 9.98

Margie Adam
Here Is a Love Song

An elegant, beautifully-instrumented LP of beautiful swoons and fun songs, with an extra-hot group of musicians: Jean Fineberg and Ellen Sealing on horns, Vivian Stoll on vibes, Barbara Cobb on bass, Barbara Borden, Susanne Vincenza, Carolyn Brandy, Diana Lindsay, and Michele Gell who used to play with Frank Sinatra on harp. Includes You Take My Breath Away, Cool Around You, The Time I Spent With You. (PLE2750) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
I Know You Know

Olivia's first album, by one of the originators of Women's Music... a veritable classic. The poignant & humorous lyrics, the folk & classical influences in Meg's singing, song-writing, guitar playing, convey so much warmth & continue to carry a wealth of meaning. (OL302) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
Face the Music

Meg again transmits a wealth of music & experience, in her personal, reflective, & unique manner, with the added musical talents of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Holly Near, & many others. Includes Pleasant & Agreeable's favorite, Nipper. (OL913) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
Turning It Over

Meg is back with her 1st release since 1977, with love ballads, lovely instrumentals, reflective & humorous tunes. Includes Southern Home & For Mama, by Linda Lewis who wrote Good-bye Joanne. As always, Meg infuses her music with her "personality." Yet there is also something new here... a sense of self-recognition which will hit home for many... perhaps another season in the cycle. (OL925) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
From the Heart

Songs of gentle honesty from one of the founding mothers of Women's Music whose recording career spans ten years. This album of beautiful music will warm and melt your spirit in a rare musical experience of shared intimacy, poignancy and laughter. (OL937) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
Best of Meg Christian

A special long-playing compilation, approx. 75 minutes, containing all your favorites from this revered artist, and for the first time on compact disc! This musical time capsule portrays a poignant journey of an artist constantly seeking and discovering joy, laughter, love, and transformational awareness in her life and through her music. Includes Valentine Song, Sweet Darling Woman, The Road I Took to You, ODE to a Gym Teacher, Gym II, From the Heart, and 11 more. (OL957) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Meg Hentges Tattoo Urge

This former Two Nice Girls guitarist hits the pavement running with this 1992 debut solo EP (5 songs). She brings fellow TNG refugee Gretchen Phillips on board for guitar and vocal contributions, but it is really her own guitar and lyrical work (especially the multi-imaged Heaven Sent) that make this baby move. From the Lou Reed-esque This Kind of Love Is, to the darkly sensual Flick of the Switch, Meg projects an intriguing combination of sly observer and vulnerable witness — there's some edges to that girl's heart that I'm sure many of us could relate to. Recommended! (TK42) CS: 7.98 . . . CD: 12.98

Melissa Etheridge Yes I Am

And we're so glad she is!! This 1993 release is a testament to the exhilaration of unbridled rock and roll, with Melissa at her most passionate — capturing the live feel Melissa wanted. Includes the bluesy, straight-ahead rocker I'm the Only One, plus Come To My Window, Silent Legacy, Talking to My Angel, and I Will Never Be the Same, originally heard in the Winona Ryder movie Welcome Home Rosy Carmichael and re-recorded for this album. (PLG846550) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Melissa Etheridge Never Enough

Fans will be relieved to know that this 1992 release maintains the power and intensity of previous albums while recreating that surreal Melissa Etheridge landscape of passion and obsession. These ten original songs once again demonstrate her virtuosity and versatility, her strength and her vision. We started to wonder, however, if there hadn't been some changes in her life with songs like The Letting Go and Keep It Precious. The tongue-in-cheek Must Be Crazy for Me and charged 2001 reassured us that she hadn't changed too much though... recommended! (PLG510120) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Melissa Etheridge Brave and Crazy

With tremendous energy and one of the sexiest voices ever recorded, Melissa seizes her blockbuster debut with an album guaranteed to please. From the chilling You Can Sleep While I Drive to the Shining No Souvenirs, she produces great range of tempo and rhythm, mixed with some of the most provocative lyrics in mainstream music. Also includes The Angels and Tequila. Highly recommended! (PLG842302) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Melissa Etheridge

Known as "Melissa" to women's audiences, her high-powered debut album has made a significant impact in the commercial music world. It's full of raw passion, sexuality, intensity and emotion, explicitly tasteful in a manner that's quite rare in a woman's musical repertoire... mesmerizing, and quite refreshing! All original songs with her own acoustic guitar and additional instrumentation, fairly produced, includes Similar Features and Bring Me Some Water. Recommended! (PLG842303) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Mermaids in the Basement Positive Energy

This Virginia-based rock quartet saunders plenty of energy! The lead vocalist, Sheila Fortner, reminds this reviewer of early Melissa Etheridge — raw, powerful, and emotional — while the band combines standard rock instruments and styles (kick-ass to ballads) to create a great collection of 8 original songs. (MTB1) CS: 9.98

Monica Grant Harbor Girl

Produced by Melanie Mansur and featuring supporting talents of Gayle Marie, Nina Garber and other women, this 1989 debut tape contains such humorous originals as FMS, Best Girl and Coming Out Story, plus the more serious Lovers Lullaby and title song. An up-and-coming talent to watch out for. (GAN1) CS: 9.98

Monica Grant The Heart Of It

Backed by a full band (lots of great women musicians!) for her 1991 release, this SF Bay area singer/songwriter/guitarist/humorist serves up a righteous helping of her original witty, heart-felt, and honest songs. The Zenith of Love becomes living in the state of Pre-Organism ("I would kill for just one spasm"). It's Your Goodbye is a country-flavored, bouncy response to being dumped which features Crystal Reeves' gorgeous fiddle work, and Just the Idea Of You is a straightforward, sad-yet-lovely relationship piece ("Like two little children, we race for that victim chair, someone loses, when someone gets there..."). The Codependency Poiks is this reviewer's favorite! Highly recommended... (GAN102) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mothers' Daughters Take It To Another Place...

This 1992 debut album is "dedicated to the Power of Women, to Cultural Survival and to the Spirit of the Drums, Dance, and Music that lives in us all." Calling their music Women's World Beat, the songs written by this 4-woman band reflect spiritual and political consciousness and change and power... Earth Wisdom... and a deep commitment to limitlessness. They're singers and drummers, percussionists and guitarists playing instruments from many cultures, performing both songs — such as Shes A Rebel, Apartheid in America, Cycles of Truth — and percussion-only pieces — Samba, 6/8 — great for movement and dance, or even for drumming along. Check them out! (GH01) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mrs. Fun Lulu's Walk

Here, finally available to and from us, is their 1987 debut recording — we loved it when we first heard it years ago, and still do! Beginning with Lulu's Walk, Connie and Kim bring their whimsical, avant-garde, funky styles to their own jazz-oriented compositions, as well as a couple by other songwriters. Lots of percussion, plus keyboards, keyboard bass, and vocals. (LU001) CS: 9.98

Mrs. Fun They Are Not a Trio

They say, "We're a band, not a duo." All we can say is, "Yes, Ma'am!" Comprised of keyboardist/vocalist Connie Grauer and drummer/vocalist Kim Zick, Mrs. Fun's approach to jazz is akin to BETTY's approach to funk, stretch it! Stylistically urban, futuristic, apocalyptic and irreverent, 10 of the 12 songs are original, including Lulu's Lament, highlighted by k.d. lang's vocal contribution; and 1 of the 2 "covers" is a seriously twisted satire of Stand By Your Man. Mrs. Fun also played backup on k.d.'s contribution to the Red, White and Blue album, as well as showing up on Phranc's I Enjoy Being a Girl. Here they also employ the talents of several other great female instrumentalists. Great... check them out! (LU002) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

MUSE - Cincinnati Women's Choir Coming Into Our Voice

The 48 voices (plus guests) of this choir swing exuberantly through 14 feminist and progressive songs, under the talented leadership of artistic director Catherine Roma. Their repertoire features works by many of our favorites, such as Bernice Johnson Reagon (I'm Gonna Stand), Holly Near (Perfect Night), Something About the Women, Connie Kalor (Wanderlust), and Betsy Rose (Coming Into My Years), as well as some lovely new arrangements of traditional like the Zulu Asikazi and Study War in short, 14 songs of life, love and struggle to give us inspiration and sustenance. Pam Hall Honey On My Lips

This sultry-voiced album from Mississippi's own features songs filled with love, feminist insight, and woman-power. Whether it be blues, rock or ballads, taste a little Honey On My Lips — nothing could be sweeter. (Her voice has been compared to Joan Armatrading's.) Includes the rocking lesbian anthem Linda, her signature piece Chug On, and Don't Be Despaired, performed live with Mary Watkins. Brilliantly produced by June Millington, and highly recommended! (FAB103) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

The Parachute Club At the Feet of the Moon

This is one of our favorite original Parachute Club albums, and it's now at a reduced price! An excellent effort by Canada's foremost political rock band, the overall production and instrumentation is lighter and highly synthesized, while the lyrics remain political and inspiring. Songs include: Innuendo, Sexual Intelligence, Freedom Song, Walls and Laws. Highly recommended. (RCA0553) CS: 7.99

The Parachute Club Wild Zone: Essential Parachute Club

This 15-track retrospective contains some of the most incredible, political material this band has ever recorded: 2 versions of their super-hit Rise Up (one of the best songs of the century) — the original plus a new 1992 dance remix — as well as Boys Club, Sexual Intelligence, Alienation and more... from their 3 previous albums: self-titled, At the Feet of the Moon, and Small Victories. Very highly recommended; we're relieved that some of this material is once again available! (RCA17284) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

The Parachute Club Small Victories

Great band, great album, now at a really great price... Lorraine Segato's the lead singer of the Parachute Club, and their third album maintains the band's integrity and is simultaneously their most mainstream so far. Produced by John Oates, of Hall & Oates; includes Love Is Fire, Tearing the Veil, Rhythm of the Heartbeat, Waves, Love and Compassion. The talents of this group are way beyond ordinary! (RCA5743) CS: 4.98

Peaceful Women

This 4-woman a cappella group expresses a strong commitment to women's issues, women's spirituality, social justice, freedom, and the environment, through this lovely collection of songs and chants. Some are original, some are by contemporary songwriters like Ferron, Bernice Reagon, and Sandra Washington, some are traditional folk songs, all especially arranged for a cappella voices. There is some subtle accompaniment on drum castanets, maracas, tambourine, cbsasa and rainstick, but it's the voices that'll rock you and hold you. Includes Mother Earth Chant, Peace Is A Woman, Madre Campesina and 12 more. (PW1) CS: 10.98

Peggy Seeger The Folkways Years 1955-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England; and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be An Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Wise Tyson's Debutante went out of print... we're thrilled the song's back in print, by its author no less, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face, Fred Small's Wheelchair Blues, and lots more... frankly, her best material ever! (Except for cover graphics) we highly recommend it! (SF40048) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 8 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive... and this 1992 release is as upbeat as the title suggest. Highly recommended! (PEL001) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Phranc

Folksinger

Phranc, whose music is a blend of topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary, has come somewhat full circle: early women's movement, to LA punk scene, playing with bands like Nervous Gender and Catholic Discipline, to modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective. This is one of few lesbian recordings to be released on an independent label other than one associated with women's music. Includes the laudatory Carolyn, Ballad of the Dumb Handcrafter, One o' the Girls, Female Mud Wrestling, Handicapped Amazons, ("I wanna live with Martina, like Nancy Lieberman"). Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. Very highly recommended! (PLG846358) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Phranc

I Enjoy Being a Girl

Phranc's second album could be the first major label release to contain a line such as "I'm a Jewish lesbian, you see," in a song called Take Off Your Swastika. A terrific mixture of serious and humorous, whimsical and satirical, personal and topical material, right down to the 50% cover artwork (Phranc with her glass of milk and her butch do). Includes her second parent to M-A-R-T-I-N-A, a memorial to her grandmothers Mymant and Esther, and others ranging in theme from South African apartheid to Toys R Us. You'll thoroughly enjoy this one! (PLG842579) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Phranc

Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60s music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader; member and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful a cappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Gertrude Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG848282) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Pollanna Frank

No Choosing

This lesbian/Israeli production features early-Kate Bush-like keyboards and arrangements, electric guitar, drums, and lyrics in Hebrew and English, which deserve a new category — perhaps "Apocalyptic Pop"? Songs in English include Dykes and the Holy War ("I won't help murderers and rapists/Struggling to be free"), Escape Will Always Fail ("...Even drama queens and heroes know/Escape will always fail"), I Measure Every Grief I Meet, and a reverent version of Strange Fruit. Some funny Bob-Dylan-esque phrasing and joke intros. For US women, this album represents an important connection with the international lesbian community. recommended! (POL043) CS: 10.98... Appalachian Wind

This all-woman band celebrates their tenth anniversary of making music together with this 1990 album featuring several additional female musicians as guest performers. They alternate lead vocals on this great selection of songs — several original, and several about women. Includes Henhouse Lament, Lily May, Mama Used to Dance, Ellen's Song, as well as the South African freedom song Too Many People and Bernice Reagon's Chile. Your Waters Run Red Through Soweto — different material for a stringband — plus a lovely instrumental. (PF517) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Rhiannon

Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy...for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-ups, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHN2) CS: 9.98

Rhiannon

Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alive!, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material, from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Shenandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Volcestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Roes, Janet Schell, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! Rhiannon

Loosen Up and Improvise

This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alive!) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response...suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns...exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon talks you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique; if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHN1) CS: 9.98

Robin Flower

Babies with Glasses

This 1997 release chronicles the development of this instrumentalist singer/songwriter's new acoustic sound; a mixture of bluegrass with jazz influences and bits of rock and classical strains. Contains 8 originals plus 2 by ace violinist Crystal Fleaves, including a couple of lightning instrumentals, The War Song, the sensual Midnight Touch. With the Blossoms — lots of great women musicians! (FF428) CS: 9.98

Robyn E.

Stage Right

Robyn's career has spanned impersonating Elvis in a high school talent show, to founding and fronting the New Orleans "funk and roll" band Single Family Dwelling, to emceeing the LoneStar Women's Music Festival. Her voice is resonant and her sound a bouncy folk/rock, with a dose of soul. Although there aren't specifically women-identified lyrics on the tape, you can hopefully catch her at the (now famous) Northampton Lesbian Festival or the Gulf Coast Women's festival sometime! Ronnie Gilbert

Love Will Find A Way

Ronnie's 1989 solo release includes Muscle in My Mother's House, The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, Happy Birthday Mrs. Miller, No Rockin' Chair, and more great folk songs affirming women, growing older, love, and humanity in general. Primarily recorded live in concert, with John Bucchino. Dedicated to her dear friend Donna. (AA915) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Ronnie Gilbert

The Spirit is Free

On this, Ronnie's first solo recording in over 20 years, we hear stories of liberation and struggle. Ronnie is one of the original members of the Weavers, and her sense of history is clearly portrayed in this recording. With Holly Near on back-up vocals, Ronnie's title cut makes you want to leap with pleasure. Also includes Midnight Special, Henk Williams, I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and Judy Smalley's Mother, Daughter, Wives. A definite must for any serious folk collector. This woman has still got what it takes to pluck the heartstrings of social justice. (RR488) CS: 9.98

Rude Girls

Rude Awakening

Dedicated to rude girls everywhere and to their awakening, this lively women's acoustic quartet presents a fine debut folk album. High on heart-breaking harmonies, strangled instruments, original tunes like Female Flamingo Sailor, Ballad of Francine Hughes ("The Burning Bed"), The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, and Pete Seeger's Ruppie Ti-Yi-O ("get a job you old hippie"). Excellent production by Cathy Flirk, back-up by Abby Newton, Marcy Markel and other women...we recommend it heartily. (FF424) CS: 9.98

Rude Girls

Mixed Messages

The long-awaited follow-up to their stop-in-the-face debut, this feminist string band is not afraid to get raunchy, even downright rude. As Ronnie Gilbert testifies on the back of their outlandish album art, "You Rude Girls don't know when to stop, do you? Thank goodness! I love your outrageously mixed messages." Includes Melvin Reynolds, We Don't Need the Men (one of this reviewer's all-time faves) and the condom-awareness song Safety First. (FF511) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Sally Potter & David Motion

Orlando (O.S.T.)

This is the original motion picture soundtrack to the film by Sally Potter, based on the book by Virginia Woolf, written to protest the fact that her beloved Vita Sackville-West was forbidden by law to inherit her ancestral home, since women were not allowed to own property except through husbands or sons. It explores issues of gender, gender-changing, gender-bending...celebrating gender confusion, or perhaps gender disregard. Most of the music is instrumental, composed by Sally Potter and David Motion; a few selections feature Sally's voice; and Jimmy Somerville performs 3 different mixes of the song Coming. Other titles include A Change of Sex, Eliza, The Kiss. (VS5413) CS: 10.98... CD: 14.98

Sanders, Kass & White

Feels Like Home

With a song roster reading like a Ladyslipper Best-Seller List (covers of songs by Farron, Cns Williamson, Connie Kaidor, plus Christine Lavin's hilarious Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind), and some touching originals (Be Still is a beautiful ballad about a person with AIDS, and is dedicated to the Names Project), this women's vocal trio conjures up some astounding harmonies, mostly in a jazz ballad style. You may recognize Anne Louise White from Trapezoid's Moon Run album. Backup instrumentation is simple, with piano, guitar and bass, lending more room for their voices to dance and weave and intertwine. Highly recommended! (WSK101) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Sapphic Journeys

A unique album, and now at a great price! The music makes this tape of lesbian erotic poetry by a variety of authors outstanding. The intermittent accompaniment on violin, viola, harp and flute is refined, wonderful, exquisite, gliding from gypsy-like passion to gentle reflection and savoring. The poetry, by Sappho, Doris Gaverport, Carol Schmidt, and others, is read by Ebelle Monet and Clitara Stukas; an all-woman production; don't miss it! (WOM201) CS: 5.98

Sue Fink

True Life Adventure

Sue's long-awaited second album of "songs of risk and reality" has finally been released in 1989, with two of her most fantastic songs in her Big Promise tradition — Popular War and Letters to Marie — as well as many other fine originals, more in a jazzy pop-rock style. It's a very polished, sophisticated production; if you're an Anita Baker fan, or a Sue Fink fan of course, you won't want to miss this True Life Adventure. (FRO101) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Sue Fink

Big Promise

Save on the LP! On this globally important album, this wild and crazy woman unleashes her boundless energy, wit, and genius. It opens with the first totally contemporary new wave hit dance tune from a female perspective, Boys Are Thugs, proceeds with The End is Near, the anti-nuke technological extravaganza featuring the LA Women's Community Chorus, expressing the wisdom of a bag-lady; then, to sile cut, a technopop tune about a woman who relates to a politician who promises her the same big choices he promises the voters...and more, from ballads to jazz to straight-ahead rock. The overall result is polished, creative, funny, refreshing, substantive and outrageous. Very highly recommended, if we do say so ourselves! (LR201) LP: 4.98... CS: 9.98

Suede

Easily Suede

Suede's long-awaited debut solo album features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Dancho Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home...her music, that is. (EAS1001) CS: 9.98

Suede

Barely Blue

This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy/bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Bucchino songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Messiah of Sadness, co-written by John Bucchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sunny McHale SkyDancer

Lesbian Nation

Subtitled One Nation Among Many, this 1991 album (her 3rd) represents one of the best lesbian-affirming submissions we've received lately — there aren't many to choose from anymore. You'll appreciate her wit and affirming humor shining through her lyrics in these 13 songs... her voice is strong and versatile, and her acoustic guitar accompaniment clear and melodic. In songs such as Got No Need For Scared, Keep Comin' Out, Hummingbird Sweet, she takes the essence of her life as a lesbian and distills it into songs which contain insight and celebration, weave webs of cultural power, shatter shackles of homophobia, and offer unexpected resolutions to daily problems. Susan Graetz

Somewhere Between

Susan tragically died in 1985, but she gave a lot to Ladyslipper, and we'd like everyone to know her spirit and her music, which live on. Her album of 14 original, traditional and contemporary songs attests to her great sense of humor and strong love for women. Includes Peace Camp (to the tune of Downtown), I Don't Know Where I'm Going (to the tune of I Know Where I'm Going), Why Do You Boo Your Hair Girls, More Pretty Girls Than One, I'm Not Too Fat, Healing Time, and feature Kay Gardner on flute, among others. Susan's voice was big and wide: she sang it right out! (ODW001) CS: 9.98

Susan Herrick

Loving Me

Now that you (hopefully) have Susan's newer album, some of you will probably want this debut folk recording too! While not specifically dealing with recovery issues, there is a strong healing theme — not surprising from a music therapist! Includes Wanderers, The Dreams I Work For Are Mine, Step By Step, Inner Voice, The Embrace, title song... plus White Porch (a lovely image of two old lesbians in rocking chairs comes to this reviewer's mind). (SH1) CS: 9.98

You Deserve (Single Tape/Card Pack)

You Deserve the Strong Love is one of the most frequently requested songs from Susan's Truth & the Lie album, and makes a very special gift for anyone you'd like to send this message to... kind of like a singing telegram, with lyrics included. That's why she issued this as a cassette single. Packaged with a card and a letter, ready for you to send; as always with Susan's work, highly recommended! (SH3) CS: 6.98

Susan Herrick

Truth & the Lie

A remarkable recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie

Unexpected

The women of this dynamic duo show their stuff on this LP as they have been doing on tour around the country. An eclectic bunch of styles — country, gospel, ballads — some simple, some fairly produced. Barbara is a pianist extraordinaire — don't miss her LP's on Windham Hill. (see "Jazz" section). Includes our favorite Melissa Manchester eldiz, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.98

Terry Garthwaite

Moving Day

Now back in print, and for the first time on cassette! This 1985 release contains mostly original material in a contemporary vein, softer than previous releases, and one she considers to be more truly representative of her sound, with her sultry expressive voice right up front. Back-up musicians include Barbara Borden, Mary Fabb, Shellah Glover, and — on the outstanding cut Mother Earth — the San Geronimo Valley Girls. For those of you too young to remember, Terry (along with Toni Brown) was one of the first women to form and lead a successful rock 'n' roll band, The Joy of Cooking; and she was one of the most enthusiastically-received performers at some of the early Michigan festivals. So give your fore-mothers some respect! Buy this! (FJ007) CS: 11.98

The Therapy Sisters

Relapse

The Therapy Sisters are back with more harmonic tonic to keep your spirits high! Their 1991 second release contains 14 tunes, including the anatomically correct An Auditory (Auditory) and the solidarity-conscious Muffs and I Am One. Moms and teens will relate to the explosive Isengard and Fire Day for the Blues. Also includes Peanuts Envy and Shopping. For those who believe in the healing power of music! Mood Swings

Well, you can be sad because their first album's out of print... but feel happy 'cause their second cassette is still available (for a little while, anyway)... put now, since their second CD's all gone... but wait, Mood Swings have arrived, just in time! On this 1993 release, the zany trio members (Maurine McLean, lyrical analyst; Marilyn Rucker, sex therapist; and Lisa Rogers, spiritual nutritionist who plays the jello mold) present more wacky repertoire, such as Terminally Trendy, My Finger Is An Instrument Of Death, Shallow Men. They thank their Hira Power for their musical careers, and so do we; they're quite therapeutic! (TS1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tik with Native Ban

National Tears

Tik is a woman who qualifies as a veteran on several levels: as one of the founding members of the legendary early women's music band BeBe & the Roches, and as the manager of one of OC's last venues for original music, The Food for Thought Cafe. Her debut album is a collection of 9 original songs, mostly rockers with a ballad or two, all of which encompass her passion for spotlighting social injustices. Songs include Lesbian Daughter, If You Don't Like Living ("a wakeup call to self-hate"), Hate Crimes, and the evocative North Carolina Penitentiary. (HPH1) CS: 9.98

Topp Twins

No War in My Heart

Once again available, now as an import from New Zealand (home of this fabulous sister duo) so you can once again have access to their 1987 album which juxtaposes biting political satire with beautiful love songs. Topp Twins

Hightime

Get out your checkered skirts; our favorite sibling duo from New Zealand! Aotearoa dive this time into a rollicking country/western mode, and it's the perfect place for them! Their voices blend into near-impossible harmonies, and their yodelling is simply divine — they've always been able to communicate polidice messages with so much love and humor and incoherence, and we're happy to report that these 8 songs are some of their best! Includes Yodelling Accordion Girl, My Pinto Pony and I, and the sweetly poignant Calf Club Day. (TOP3) CS: 10.98

Tracy Drach

Another Door

Ladyslipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own Slipper! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing, whether performing solo or opening for such acts as K.d. lang or the Washington Sisters. This late 1990 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Lease Berkson's Miriam, to her lyric tale of young novice Sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. With a little piano help from Nancy Day and a style that is uniquely Tracy, this album marks a personal favorite around our office and is wholeheartedly recommended. (DND001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tret Fure

Terminal Hold

Gradually becoming a familiar presence on the music scene, starting with a solo LP in the 70s (now out-of-print) and later known as a back-up musician and vocalist for June Millington, Tret Fure (pronounced "Fury") is now squarely in the spotlight where she belongs. Her lyrical and vocal abilities bring an invaluable yet positive comparison to Cris Williamson, who co-produces and sings harmony vocals here. The songs are mostly rock ballads, with a scrappy insistence towards what can only be termed "melodic new wave." Songs include Angel Fire, Cold, Cold Heart, Annie Avarat. (SW22003) CS: 9.98

Edges of the Heart

Tret's long-awaited second release packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements; a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly-hot number, Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. Recommended! (SW22009) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure

Time Turns the Moon

This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universal personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (see usual), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Guts, All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Vinyl on sale! Funny, kitschy, feisty, smart, brave, sexy, political, warm, or just plain wonderful... all of these qualities are in abundance on their 1991 release, a musical hybrid which transcends the boundaries of most musical genres. From the faux-disco of Let's Go Bonding, to the empathic-Smokey Swimming in Circles, to The Queer Song and Princess of Power (be on the lookout for the video!), the girls have outdone themselves with 10 brilliant songs that run their usual range from tender to tongue-in-cheek. A Family of Friends

This 1993 release may be the best sampler of women's music ever created! The title song, an anthem-to-be and a must-have for every woman's music lover, is one of the sweetest and most memorable tunes ever composed (it has been running around my brain now for weeks, so it's a good thing I love it)... as a collaboration, it expresses some of the highest spirit of our lesbian culture. Co-written by Sue Fink, Jamie Anderson, June Millington, Jane Enmer and Dakota, it is performed by (take a deep breath): songwriters Sue, Jamie, June and Jane, plus Margie Adam, Deidre McCall, Cris Williamson, Traci Fure, Shari Z. Washington, Jean Millington, Susan Herrick, Robin Flower, Monica Grant, Helen Hooke, Mary Watson, Barbara Borden, and others! Then, there are tracks by the following individual artists: Alix Dobkin (with her previously unreleased My Kind of Girl), Pam Hall, Venus Envy, Yer Girlfriend performing Lez-Bop, OneSpirit (Kay Gardner and Nurudafina Pili Abernethy), Sue Fink, June and Jean Millington, Mimi Baczawski, Laura Bencaon, Diane Lindsay, Leah Zicari, Jamie Anderson. Some profits will be donated to a lesbian organization. A great introduction for friends and "family" new to women's music, and a classic for the confirmed. Highly recommended! (TSU1003) CS: 9.98 ... For Therese

On March 10, 1990, to celebrate Therese Edell's 40th birthday, a group of artists and friends gathered to put on a one-of-a-kind concert that was also a loving tribute to Therese and her musical contributions; and, lucky for us, 60 minutes of this event have been preserved! Therese produced the album, which features musicians like Sue Fink, Betsy Lippitt, Kay Gardner, Deidre McCall, Nydia Mata, the Atlanta Feminist Women's Choir, and the MUSE choir... instrumentation such as flute, oboe, bassoon, cello, harp, glockenspiel... and songs which include Betsy's For Therese; Sue Fink performing Therese's Emma; plus Sister Heathen (written by Therese); Calendula Days; Katie's Song; Good Friends Are the Best; Holly's Waltz; and O My Friends, co-written by Therese. Even better and more stylistically diverse than the harmonizing twins' first album, this 1991 follow-up includes blues, jazz, swing, country, and love songs. Most songs by Sandra, plus Sharon makes her debut as a songwriter here with Next Step, a touching love ballad. Also includes Pray for Peace, an upbeat Brazilian dance tune; Fly Me Away, a bossa-nova calypso acapella number with voice orchestra; and others they've been performing in concert. Leave A Little Light

Thanks to Pam & Julie for turning us on to these eclectic and talented women! The Canadian folk scene has long been a favorite of ours, and this trio is solid evidence why... Admiration, thoughtful and crack-up funny topical lyrics; beautiful acoustic instrumentation; clear, honest voices and stunning harmonies. Kim Baryluk and Nancy Rainold write most of the lyrics, illuminating such subjects as the murderous rage of a battered woman in Don't Go Home (Laurie), joyous maturation in The Faucet, how close to home the Montreal massacre (This Memory) really is to us all... Also features Kim Segal; really fine songwriting, voices, music... ey? Highly recommended! (WYRT) CS: 9.98

Soup Kitchen "Swing"

Every once in awhile you run into a not-so-famous artist who turns out to be a complete delight... such is the luck here! With a pleasantly high range voice given to leaping into jazz inflections at the drop of a hat, a lighthearted sense of humor crossed with a social consciousness, and a great band (guitar, sax, bass, percussion, fiddle), Zoe throws quite the bash! Here's hoping she'll tour more of the festival soon. 10 original songs include tunes like: Looking for Baghdad (inspired by the film "Bagdad Cafe" perhaps?), Shopping Mall, Mother Earth's Blues. The Capitol Steps

76 Bad Loans

These crazy folks ought to run for office... anyone who does a Dan Quayle falsetto interpretation of "Stayin' Alive" (Stupid Disco: Keep Him Alive) deserves a vote or two! This, the Steps' 10th album, is brimming full of satirical send-ups of the goings-on in our nation's political machine, the no one really escapes their reverence... see (big breath now) You Don't Bring Me Politically Diverse, Polyfragant Politically Challenged, Multipetual Victims of Pesticidal Food Chain Chauvinism, a spoof on the current Multiculturalism debates. Also includes Millie the Fooncher, Fun, Fun, Fun, Til Teddy Puts His T-Shirt Away, I Feel Petty, and the unfortunately racist Sushi and the M.C.A. 23 songs in all. (CS1010) CS: 9.98 ... Fools on the Hill

More silly sendups, just in time for the '92 elections! Maybe this would make you feel better about the whole mess: give Ground Control to Jed Brown a spin, and you'll cheer up immediately! Or perhaps the Sounds of Trogas, and the well-timed poke at David Duke, Stand by Your Klan. An usual, their humor falls off the deep end and on at least one song: this album's offensive ditty is Hello Mullah, Hello Patah, which makes fun of the Middle East Peace process... This group is most successful in taking on the culture from which most of them hail, namely the white middle class. (CS1011) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Derivative Duo

Opera For The Masses

This simply fabulous duo rewrites opera as social satire from a lesbian perspective, and 11 of their classics - with a twist - are contained on this 1993 release. Familiar strains from operatic or choral standards (The Magic Flute, The Messiah, Carman, The Barber of Seville, Romeo and Juliet) are transformed lyrically into gems like The Barbie Doll Song, *R.M.S. Buy This, Pigs!

Featured on HBO's Women of the Night video, this "petite flower, giver-goddess, fashion plate, saint" has a very unique take on life. Accompanying herself on accordion, she shares with her audience (whom she calls her personal love slaves) her feelings about those who do not show her enough deference (e.g. the Queen of England), dating and death and Catholic sermons. Highlights are her country western song about dating the Pope, and her twist on relationships with men. Bizarre and recommended! (EL60746) CS: 9.98

Kate Clinton

Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politics to build laughter of fading tears and connections rhyme. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme Park; rubbernecking on the Planet of the Quays, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and flailing away at Mom Pinata in Familyland! WHOOPI GOLDBERG

Lea DeLaria

Buildyke in a China Shop (Double)

The long-awaited debut recording by this bawdy, riotously funny comic legend (dubbed the "lesbian Lenny Bruce"), packed with non-stop laughs lampooning lesbian life... plus music! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Recorded live in Atlanta, 90 minutes of true fun and pleasure... Highly recommended, for all-but the timid! (GSP99) CS: 12.98

Roseanne Barr

I Enjoy Being a Girl

Staff comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Sticker says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on T.V." — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version) covers Sexual Preferences, Women's Medley, Mrs. Medley, 28 Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Rodeo Queen, Archie Hart, and more — something to offend everyone. Women of the Night

This cassette presents the talents of three formidable stand-up talents in the out-there world of comedy — Diane Ford, Paula Poundstone, and Cathy Ladman — recorded live in 1988. They make fun of fashion, men, PMs, and other humorous aspects of life and American culture. Order while supplies last — out of print, limited quantity! (BLR5220) CS: 9.98

Whoopi Goldberg

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight?

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Mu'takin' Banner, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the junkie with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religious wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here"), AIDS, and everyone and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings. Very highly recommended! (MCA42243) CS: 8.98

Jewish

Adrienne Cooper/Irena Klepfisz/etc.

Partisans of Vilna

Subtitled The Songs of World War II Jewish Resistance, these 12 songs and poems reflect the strength and spirit of the Jewish resistance to Nazi occupation and domination. Originally heard in the 1986 documentary film by the same name, these songs were re-recorded in 1989 by various performers dedicated to preserving the cultural continuity of Yiddish-speaking Jews. Includes the haunting Yizkor, sung by a young boy; Adrienne Cooper (of Vilde Khayel)'s achingly clear soprano; on two selections, moving readings by writer Irena Klepfisz; and other contributions from women and men. Informative liner notes, lyrics sung in Yiddish, printed in English. (FF450) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Austin Klezmerim

Texas Klez

Klezmer jazz? You bet! This recording involves images of the Roaring 20's in Europe — a fusion of Middle Eastern, Eastern European and European musical and vocal styles which seem to bring the best out of each genre without losing the strength and beauty of the original form... Features the gorgeous vocals of Donna Mittenfath, Suzie Stern and Susanna Sharpe, and some fantastic instrumental arrangements (tuba, accordion, violin, drums, bass, reeds, trumpet). Highly recommended, especially if you're new to exploring Jewish artistic and cultural expressions. (RAM1) CS: 9.98

Hanna Tiferet Siegel

The Healing Circle/Refuah Shleyma

Hanna is a Jewish mystic, and a composer and singer of Hebrew and English music. With a holistic approach to biblical images that is inclusive and liberating, she often calls on the Shachna, the divine feminine presence, in her prayers and blessings. These 14 songs, recorded with Myrna Rabinowitz and Naomi Ferson, feature vocal harmonies plus acoustic string instruments and percussion... Ancient prayers are combined with contemporary songs, to invoke the healing of body, emotions, mind and soul — use for listening, singing along, preparing for Shabbat, or healing from an injury or illness. Filled with a love of Torah and a twinkle ofchutzpah, includes Blessed Be and The Priestess' Blessing. (HTS450) CS: 9.98

The Klezmer Conservatory Band

Old World Beat

One of Klezmer's leading exponents, this band has spent the last decade spreading this old-world beat around the planet. With traditional melodies alongside brand new tunes, this 1991 release reflects the eclectic nature of Klezmer — alternately brooding and raucous, always spirited and engaging. The Klezmer Conservatory Band

A Touch of Klez!

From the 16 women and men who brought us Oy Chanukah!, an album of dance tunes and Yiddish songs, with Eastern touches in melody and harmony, for the rest of the year. The stand-outs are the rich vocals by Judy Bressler (described by a fan as a heaven-sent Russian goddess), including her brand of Klezmer scat, and Ingrid Monson's poignant-comat improvisations. Koleet

A Celebration of Jewish Folk Music

Koleet is an ensemble of three distinctive women's voices: Cindy Paley, Ann Brown, and Amy Helperin Krivis. With new and traditional arrangements in vocal harmony and instrumentation, they weave beautiful melodies and rhythms which span the multitude of languages reflected in Jewish culture: Ladino, Yiddish, Russian, Hebrew and Yemante. Includes Chassidic Medley, Dvor Yikhe ("A Call to Freedom"), a Yemante Shabbat song, and Yiddish songs from the Second Avenue Theatre era. Recommended! (CPJ) CS: 9.98

Lauren Pomerantz

Jews of the Sephardim

Subtitled Songs from Medieval Spain, this totally unique volume contains songs in Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) which originated between 900 and 1300 A.D. on the Iberian peninsula, at which time a marvelous cultural exchange was occurring between Hebrews, Arabs (Moors) and Christians (Sephardim). This ceased in 1492 with the Inquisition, and the Sephardic Jews scattered into mid-eastern, Mediterranean and North African areas. Since then the music has been passed from generations via the oral tradition. Lauren has done much of the research for this album. Her voice is just lovely and she also plays medieval lute/dulcimer to a background of flutes and percussion. Lyrics in Ladino (15th century Castilian, almost identical to present-day Spanish). Linda Hirschhorn

Subtitled Songs of Celebration and Renewal, this collection of original rounds and songs in Hebrew and English celebrates our heroines (Miriam, Ruth and Naomi), daily ritual, cycles of life, and peace and justice, with reference only to a genderless and/or feminine God. Sung mostly by an acappella women's ensemble with stunning harmonies, giving a unique sense of the feminist potential within Judaism. Includes Chanukah/Solstice, Miriam's Slow Snake Dance, The Full Moon Songs, Ruth and Naomi, Women Gathering Round. Recommended! (OYS1116) CS: 9.98

Linda Hirschhorn

Roots and Wings

This 1992 follow-up to Gather Round combines contemporary concerns with ancient teachings. Original rounds and songs with intricate harmonies celebrate the earth, speak out against injustice, bless our children and commemorate the friends who have died — especially notable is a beautiful peace round, Not By Might, in English, Hebrew and Arabic. Features the singing of Linda's acappella performing group, Voices. (OYS1117) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn
Songs for Shabbos

Linda, who freelances as a cantor in progressive synagogues, is a singer-songwriter of Jewish, women's, and political material. This album is an instructional tape that teaches how to sing—note by note and syllable by syllable—with many repetitions—traditional Shabbos "Zmros" (songs) including the blessing over the candles, and the option to use the feminine or masculine name of God. Lyrics included. (JY51111) CS: 7.98

Margot Stein Azen
Create Out of Nothing

Probably our first offering by a rabbinical student! Margot takes ancient texts combined with contemporary concerns (primarily feminism and the environment), and with special attention to the untold stories, creates unique midrashim—stories which fill in the gaps of missing sacred text. Shevi evokes the power and strength of ancient scriptural women. She Said No based on the Book of Esther; while Mother's Sister mirrors a contemporary woman's search for identity. This 1991 debut album successfully fulfills its goal of creatively communicating Jewish wisdom. (JZ591) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 11.98

Miriam Dvorin
Grandma Soup: Yiddish Songs

"When we were kids we loved to go to Grandma's house... in the small apartment above the tailor shop the sounds of Yiddish songs mingled with the appetizing aroma of what we kids called Grandma Soup. Here is a taste of Grandma soup, that mysterious blend of culinary and cultural delights we are still trying to appreciate fully." Not only does Miriam have an astoundingly beautiful voice, she gives impressively zealous performances here on violin, mandolin, autoharp, electric and acoustic guitar and electric bass—and, she produced it. Very highly recommended for kids and adults. (SQU101) CS: 9.98

Ofra Haza
Kirya

One of our favorite artists returns to the style of our very favorite of all her albums, Fifty Gates of Wisdom. This 1992 release features vocals in Aramaic, Hebrew and English, with some new surprises: backing vocals by Was Not Was, and a guest appearance by rock legend Iggy Pop, in a narrative role on the track Dea Da Hyd, a song about a young woman sentenced to death for expressing her sexuality. Even when you don't speak the language she's singing in, the strikingly pure tone of her voice gets the meaning across. Recommended! (SHN6043) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Ofra Haza
Desert Wind

Most of the songs on Ofra's 1990 release, which fittingly coincides with her first US concert tour, are sung partially in English; but the content is still about the Yemenite Jewish community, Yemenite tradition, and peace in the Middle East; with the imagery and rhythm of the desert an integral part of the music. Fantasmagoria—a tribute to her mother and other Yemenite Jews who were persecuted and banished to Yemen's desert. Includes the voice of her mother chanting in Arabic. (SHR26976) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Ofra Haza
Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yemenite Jewish parentage, Ofra may be Israel's biggest star; winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old!) and world beat/dance/contemporary rhythms and instrumentation... resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra is part of the Musica Mizrahi movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. (SHNR4002) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Silenced Voices

This important 1992 compilation subtitled Victims of the Holocaust seeks, with reverence and pride, to breathe life into the works of 3 Jewish composers, all of whom lost their lives to the Nazis. The only woman here, pianist and conducting student Vitezslava Kapralova, is under-represented in our opinion, but we're grateful to see some of her works come to light at all; she was 25 when she succumbed to tuberculosis. The inestimable Virginia Eskin interprets her Dubnova Prelude Suite, for solo piano, with the dignity and passion it deserves. The works of two men, Ervin Schulhoff and Gideon Klein, are superbly rendered by the Hawthorne String Quartet and guest musicians. (NE248) CD: 15.98

Voice of the Turtle
From the Shores of the Golden Horn

The first volume in the "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora" series (500 years after Columbus set sail) by this 2-woman, 2-man quartet; it features music of the Spanish Jews of Turkey, one of several discrete paths of exile following the Inquisition and expulsion from Spain. This collection includes lyric songs, romances, coplas (strophic festival songs), endechas (dirges) and more, performed in Ladino, a language preserved largely by the women. Accompaniment consists of dumbeks, ud, kamaniya, nagmara, saz, baglama, finger cymbals, and such: a highly unusual and valuable repertoire. (T1173) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Bridges of Song

Subtitled Music of the Spanish Jews of Morocco, this is the second volume in the ensemble's "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora: Paths of Exile" series. Unlike the Jews who traveled to the Ottoman Empire, those who settled in Morocco maintained continual exposure to European influence, especially during the period when Spain ruled parts of Morocco; so their spoken language Hakdika, as well as their repertoire, reflected Spanish, as well as Hebrew and Arabic influence. (T1169) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Voice of the Turtle
Balkan Vistas/ Spanish Dreams

1992 marks not only the year the Native Americans discovered Columbus invading their shores; it also marks 500 years since the Inquisition, and subsequent exile, for Spanish Jews. This remarkable album follows two paths of this exile, and brings to light the music of the Sephardic Jewish communities which flourished for centuries in Bulgaria and Yugoslavia, mostly Sarajevo. Influences of Turkish instrumentation and Balkan folk rhythms can be heard. During WWII, the Bulgarian Jews were protected by their government, but many Yugoslavian Jews were led to the concentration camps. Most of the remaining Yugoslavian and Bulgarian Jews eventually emigrated to Israel. Recommended as always! (T1203) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Altazor

Blending music from the New Song movements of South America, from Afro-Puerto Rican ritual, from the traditional rhythms of Cuba, and from other sources, Altazor's sounds and messages are vibrant, passionate, and wonderful! The ensemble of 4 women—Liche Fuentes from Chile (some of you will remember her from Grupo Raiz), Vanessa Wang from the US, Dulce Arguillas from Cuba, and Jacqueline Rago from Venezuela—amplify gorgeous harmonies and a rich variety of traditional instrumentation, with lyrics reflective of the struggles of people the world over. Recommended! (RR8994) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Altazor
Concurrencia

This spring 1993 release, the second by this 4-woman ensemble, is every bit as exquisite as their first. Half the songs are based on works by Nicolas Guillen, recently deceased poet laureate of Cuba, whose voice affirmed the African heritage of Cuba as well as the universal nature of people everywhere. One track features lyrics by Gabriela Mistral, Chilean poet and educator; also includes Venezuelan folk songs, and one original. Beautiful arrangements, with traditional instrumentation, this is Nueva Cancion at its finest. (RR9302) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Conjunto Céspedes
Una Sola Casa

"Son" is the soul music of Cuba—a fiery, poly-rhythmic marriage of African drumming, Spanish flamenco and Caribbean heat. This group is led by the powerful sensual vocals of Cuban-born Gladys (Bob) Céspedes—a priestess in the Afro-Cuban Lucumí tradition with over 25 years as a "daughter of Obatala"—and her nephew, Guillermo Céspedes; backup is provided by some of the Bay Area's hottest Latin instrumental talents. With this album, they invite a new generation of music lovers to dance to the commanding pulse of the bata, the tick of the claves, and the shake of the chekers... music so compelling and sexually electric, it was once outlawed in Cuba. Virgen de la Candelaria contains prayers to both a Yoruba goddess and a Catholic saint, and Respeto a la Tierra is an anti-war statement emphasizing the belief that the environment must not be despoiled. Fantastic percussion and an irrepressible spirit. (GL4007) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Edi Machado
Edi

With an unmistakably Afro-Brazilian beat and a vibrant array of percussion instruments, Edi makes her mark by successfully combining elements from the following traditions: Brazilian samba, African rhythms, Latin and American funk, reggae, and jazz scat! Edi is also a renowned dancer, and she builds the sound and rhythm very specifically around the dance. (She grew up in the Brazilian city of Bahia; there, she learned the dancing styles of the candomblé rites, which fused African tribal with Roman Catholic traditions.) Her material is original, her voice spicy, her delivery high-energy, and the overall performance a creative blend of cultures. (BN5102) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Emma Junaro/ Matilde Casazola
Mi Corazon en la Ciudad

Mercedes Sosa fans, take note! Here's another artist you'll probably appreciate. Emma Junaro's history: the Bolivian group Atiplano's lead singer, and the one who introduced them to Nueva Cancion, she chose to stay on after the 1980 coup forced many artists to flee, developing a more subtle style of protest song—obvious to the people but incomprehensible to the government. Her first solo album went gold, one of the only Bolivian releases to ever do so. Here she performs all songs by another great Bolivian woman—composer/poet/singer/guitarist/painter, Matilde Casazola—in an inspired effort to develop a new direction for Andean music. It's a quietly beautiful album, led by acoustic guitar, with Andean pan pipes, piano and percussion, all wrapped around her soft, strong voice. First in a series entitled Women of the World. Highly recommended! (RVB1003) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Fior de Cana

Dancing on Wall/Bailando en Muralia

There's much more to say about this 1991 album than space allows, but here goes: This 2-woman, 5-man group combines a very successful blend of Latin American music, from Puerto Rican bombas and Dominican merengues to Uruguayan candombes and vals from Venezuela (plus a variety of salsa). Lead vocalist Rosmarie Strajler-Amador's delivery is sweet and succinct, while the lyrics (primarily Spanish, with printed English translations) succeed in conveying the pain and exultation of "political" issues without being rhetorical or ranting. The rich bevy of instruments are expertly played, and while reflecting the heritage of the cultures they are from, are also mixed up with a light-hearted irreverence, e.g. using Andean pipes on an Afro-Puerto Rican bomba. Highly recommended! (FF577) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 15.99

Guardabarranco

Días de Amar (Days to Love)

I don't think I would find Guardabarranco's second release as moving, as breath-taking, as shockingly beautiful as I found their debut album; it seemed physically impossible! But, I am here to admit that this is true, as de verdad... Katia's voice still reaches that pure sweetness which burles open the heart, with words of love, strength y esperanza/hope. When she duets with her brother Salvador, the power of their genetic harmonies has the strength to move mountains! Includes Corazon de Niño/A Child's Heart, Colibrí/Hummingbird, and the luminous title song. Gorgeous, lovely, just plain great — get it! Sung in Spanish, with printed lyrics and English translations. Irene Farrera

Walking in the Jungle

Fantastic! This Venezuelan musician (singer, songwriter, guitarist, arranger) extraordinaire brings us, en inglés y español, a beautifully diverse collection of original works, backed by a small yet sophisticated band (amazing bass, great percussion, keyboards and saxes). Her voice has a deep, husky, jazzy quality reminiscent of Julia Fordham, especially on the hypnotic Despertar/Awake. The title song (which she dedicates to all creatures, including people of every political, spiritual and sexual orientation) is also a highlight; sinuous bass lines snake around bird calls and a lazy saxophone melody, with Irene's lovely voice breathing heat into the steamy clearings — y que calor tiene! Her notes speak out against racism and homophobia several times, letting us know that these are priority issues to her. Highly recommended! (IF2) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 14.99

Jane Bunnett

Spirits of Havana

This Canadian soprano sax player/flutist pays homage, on her fantastic debut release, to a wealth of Cuban musics by skillfully incorporating traditional Cuban compositions and rhythms with contemporary jazz idioms. She's accompanied by one of Cuba's most renowned percussion ensembles, Grupo Yoruba Andabo, as well as by pianist Gonzalo Rubalcaba... and about half the tunes feature Mercedes Sosa. Cuban singer and interpreter of Lucumi ritual music. Many different musical moods are represented here, and often the textures and instrumentation shift repeatedly during the course of a single song. Selections range from Hymn, an almost meditative interweaving of flute and percussion, to salsa-flavored tunes, to Song from Argentina, beautiful mellow jazz showcasing Jane's soprano sax (reminiscent of Gato Barbieri's searingly beautiful Latin America albums), to Ocoron, a traditional call-and-response liturgical hymn of the Yoruba religion, to Yemaya, a swirling flute/piano offering to the goddess of the waters. This is an exciting, creative blend of world music; very highly recommended! (ME5525) CD: 15.99

La India Mellyara

La Sonora Mellyara

Melida Yara Yanguma, nicknamed "La India" due to her strong native appearance, has become one of Colombia's only female band leaders... as well as a fabulous singer, known to many for her work with super-group Sonora Dinamita. Here, interpreting cumbia (Colombia's traditional national) rhythms with great skill and passion, she presents an album perfect for dancing and moving, with lots of percussion and horns. Elegido

This African/Brazilian vocalist has a husky style reminiscent of Lorraine Segato (Parachute Club), and an eclectic musical sensibility; songs range from pop to samba to merengue to reggae, in languages from Portuguese to Yoruban to French! Elegido is an ancient Yoruban city, and the song is an exaltation to Oxala, god of the African rituals; other titles include: Natureza Mãe (Mother Nature), Maravilha Morena (Dark Skinned Wonder), Negra Melodia (Black Melody) and Hino Das Águas (Hymn to the Waters). Mercedes Sosa

Live in Europe

Mercedes Sosa is an Argentinian New Song vocalist/interpreter/peoples musician, whose vocal qualities are not easily described, but words like penetrating, melancholy, searing, dark, intense, reverent, steadfast, beautiful, exquisite, soothing, intelligent come close. She sings in Spanish, but somehow communicates a message that is political even to those who don't speak that language. Her music was banned in Chile in the early 70's when the military junta took power, and was also banned in her home country for awhile. This title is one of the best we currently stock: excellent variety, clear sound, all-acoustic accompaniment, and includes her stage commentary which is great to hear whether or not you speak Spanish. Booklet in Spanish and German. We highly recommend this one, whether you're just starting your Mercedes Sosa collection or adding to it. (TRO68936) CS: 13.99 ... CD: 19.99

De Mi

This 1992 release, recorded live in Buenos Aires in 1990, features some great songs with beautiful acoustic instrumentation, as well as some with synthesized keyboards. On the opening track, La Estrella Azul, her voice descends into some of the lowest registers we've heard — incredible! Madurando Sueños is a rhythmic "chacarera" with energetic audience participation... and a highlight is Taki Orgy II, a reclamation of pride in the native Indian heritage of South America; this song alone is well worth the price of the album. Sound quality is excellent too, and the booklet includes lyrics in Spanish as well as German. Import. (TRO68955) CS: 13.99 ... CD: 19.99

This 1992 release, hailed as Tish's "breakthrough" album, contains a delightful mixture of songs from and for the heart and head. She sings her "Texas-style Nueces Cancion" with a sweet, pure voice in English and Spanish; lyrics included with translations and personal notes. Contains Something in the Rain dedicated to Cesar Chavez and the United Farmworkers of America, and the uplifting Bandera del Sol (Flag of the Sun). (ROU3122) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Homeland

A fusion of country, folk, pop, melodies and Latin instrumentation, the songs of this 1989 album reflect this Mexican-American singer-songwriter's musings in the inner notes, "...wondering how my love for my parents' humble Mexican heritage and language would mix with idealistic American images of a musical future." The first cut, Joaquin (imagines the motivations for illegal border crossing), while Love Side of Town recreates the story of her parents' lives; and Rancherita (Little Ranch Girl), is a sweet song of courtship. Sung partly in English and partly in Spanish, this album employs a variety of instruments, including harmonica, pedal steel, dobro, accordion, fiddle, bongos and more. (AMS263) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Tish Hinojosa

Aquellos Noches

Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist / singer / songwriter / guitarist brings an emotional integrity to her work that readily surpasses that of our average "folk singer"; this live recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide line-for-line English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Pasa, Vuelvete (You Who Can, Return — the Alabazul Yupaqui classic anthemized so beautifully by Mercedes Sosa), her original waltz Manos, Huecos Y Sonrisa (Hands, Bones and Blood, for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Buy this recording — you won't be disappointed, we promise! (WAT1005) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Tejano Roots: The Women

A wonderful compilation of Mexican music in Texas from 1945 to 1964, featuring primarily female duets such as Carmen y Laura, Hermanas Mendoza, Hermanas Guerrero, and many other sisters and singing partners, also includes a few selections by Lydia Mendoza, one of the most successful and well-known Mexican-American artists. 22 songs, 60 plus minutes, and a 30-page booklet with notes, photos, Spanish lyrics and English translations are included. Some of the songs: Pardor Mujer (Forgive Me, Woman), The Married Woman ("Those women who haven't married I say it isn't worth the bother"), Adios Angelita Rivas (Goodbye Angelita Rivas). Brazilian! The Music of Rhythm

Another fabulous release from Rykodisc, a company dedicated to recording music of the world respectfully results in this compilation of unprecedented educational and entertainment value! The history and variations of "Samba," the national song style and dance originating in the Bahian region of Brazil, are explained and represented in great detail. Many women are featured here (a rarity in compilations), including Beth Carvalho, Gal Costa, Maria Bethania, Alcione, and Joana — they comprise over half of the 22 songs selected! The music is joyous and polymetric, ranging from slow and sultry to fast and festive, and above all, entirely captivating. Do yourself a favor and add this important recording to your collection... you won't regret it! (RYK153) CD: 15.95

Rita Marley

We Must Carry On

This 1991 release, Rita's first in seven years, presents a strong collection of songs, including four Bob Marley compositions (two of which have never been released before), in this year of tenth anniversary tributes. Includes Dem A Fight, a strong appeal against war and violence, and Earth Runnings, a rocking tempo, rhythmic tune complemented by Rita's wailing gospel-like vocals along with rich supporting harmonies. Sister Carol

Jah Disciple

One of our best-selling reggae artists (of Black Cinderella fame) offers more political, social, and personal commentary on this 1989 release of original songs. She performs in the DJ dub, or "toasting" style; this is when a DJ raps or talks, often about current issues, over a rhythm track. Includes Intelligence, a trait she esteems and cultivates as a woman; Get It Straight Africans; and A No Me Name Peggy, stating that "I don't like when a man doesn't show respect to a woman." Boukman Eksperyans

Vodou Adja

We're carrying this recording, despite the predominance of male singers and musicians, because it's the only Haitian recording we've found with any women on it, and you've been requesting them! Here, the songs are primarily sung in Creole French, and are about the different elements of the Haitian peoples' traditional culture and religion, Vodou (more commonly spelled "voodoo" in the states), as well as their historic and constant struggles for political unity and independence. Their name comes from a priest named Boukman, a slave leader who launched the revolution which led to the establishment of the first black republic in the world. This particular dance music, "Vodou Adja," bridges influences from religious drumming and the high-energy springtime festival, called "Rara." One song in particular, Mink a Mandé (Song for a Woman) insists that it's time for women's equality to be recognized, and is sung by the female songwriter, Mmesse Beaudin. Lyrics with translations are provided. Hypnotic and compelling! (MNC8859) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Angelique Ionatos/Nana Venetsanou

Sappho de Mytilene

Sappho's poems set to music! This French import is the brainchild of Angelique Ionatos, a Greek composer and guitarist who specializes in setting Classical Greek poetry to music. Joined in lovely harmonies by another well-known Greek vocalist, Nana Venetsanou, and with a simple tableau of instrumental accompaniment (guitar, pipes, recorders, oud, marimba, table, vibraphone), the result is a perfect marriage of lyric and musical expressions... Sappho, perhaps the most famed yet enigmatic of the Lesbian poets has historically received little acclaim for her genius; and this recording pays her just homage. Lyrics are sung in Classical and Modern Greek, but are translated only into French (liner notes are in English, French and Greek). Certainly one of the most unique and beautiful recordings in our catalog! Put this on at your next gathering of friends — may it lend you grace. (AUV8168) CD: 18.95

Judy Mowatt

Black Woman

Probably the best release ever by this familiar voice in mainstream reggae. She wrote & arranged 6 of the 10 songs, giving us a rare glimpse into a Rastafarian woman's perspective. Black Woman is a tribute of remarkable strength and beauty. Slave Queen exhorts women to "remove the shackles on your mind," while Sisters' Chant & Strength to Go Through give promise to the vision of women shaping our personal & political futures. An exciting album, both political & spiritual, & very danceable... highly recommended! (SHN43011) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Lillian Allen

Revolutionary Tea Party

Merely the finest album of dub poetry in our reggae section and in our catalog...but what else would you expect from a righteous feminist dub poet who teams up musically with Parachute Club members Lorraine Segato, Laurie Conger, and Billy Bryans?? A Jamaican-born Canadian resident, Lillian incorporates the ferment of the Black Power movement of the 60s; the Antiwar, Liberation, Peace and Women's movements of the 70s; and the revitalized activism of the 80s, to create a voice for equality, justice, pleasure and empowerment. Includes unique selections written expressly from a woman's perspective: Birth Poem, Birth Version, and also features the Toronto All-Girls Subversive Chorus. Lillian herself describes it as "the broadest get down and boogie message album to hit the streets this decade. WATCH OUT! So, take heed... Highly recommended. (RR8867) CS: 9.95

Annabouboula

Greek Fire

On their second release, this trio performs more material based on traditional Greek music, particularly rembetika (originating as folk songs associated with the hash-smoking bohemian underclass of large Aegean seaports, rembetika music is analogous to American blues: dark and moody songs of passion), using traditional as well as electric instruments and adding pop and dance rhythms. Includes Cyprus Bride. (SHN44027) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Carmen Linares

Cantora

This outstanding Spanish artist is known as perhaps the greatest living female Flamenco singer, with both respect for the traditional form and a creative penchant for innovation. Her voice goes from a throaty wail to a whispering plea, rich with emotion and with a total immersion in the lyrics. This passionate delivery simply amplifies Flamenco's already high intensity, so that the listener cannot remain uninvolved — experience it for yourself! Accompanied, of course, by acoustic guitars, hand claps and foot stomps. One of the Women of the World series... recommended! (RVB1004) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Cheremshyna

Each year there a few finds which truly excite us, and this is one for 1989-90! Cheremshyna is a Ukrainian women's trio from Montreal, and this is an extraordinary recording of their distinct harmonious vocal blend of both traditional and contemporary Ukrainian folk song — expressing beauty and love, joy and sorrow. The voices, arrangements, melodies, harmonies, and sheer energy are captivating, engaging, outstanding... if you're looking to know the world by the best music it has to offer, try this. Dzintars: The Latvian Women's Choir

Songs of Amber
Dzintar is the Latvian word for amber, a warmly glowing fossilized stone that is considered a national symbol among Latvians. The Dzintars Choir is the leading female choir in Latvia, with 76 vocalists plus 2 conductors, 2 instrumentalists, 2 choir masters, and a soloist. Produced by Mickey Hart and Jerry Garcia when the choir toured the US in 1999, the album features a cross-section of their extensive repertoire, including traditional and modern Latvian music as well as songs of other countries. Contains three Yiddish folk songs, including Of Hanukkah (imagine 76 voices singing this popular holiday song...). A work of spectacular beauty; recommended! (RYK130) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Edith Piaf

Very Best of Voice of the Sparrow
In this world of ever-changing availability on Piaf titles, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (18 songs) and available on CD. Lots of hits, and we hope it stays in print longer than 15 minutes. Includes La Vie, L'Amour, La Vie en Rose; Le Vieux Piano; Hymne à L'Amour. (CAP9632) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

The Legendary Edith Piaf
Recorded live in Paris from 1955-1962, and at Carnegie Hall in 1957, this 30-song retrospective is delightful, much like the artist herself, we suspect. She introduces the American set in English, telling little stories about each song before launching that distinctive voice out at us. Includes her many classics, like Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien; La Goulue du Pauvre Jean; Mon Dieu; and concludes with If You Love Me, Really Love Me (Hymne à L'Amour). Great liner notes (was she really born on a sidewalk and reared in a brothel?); over 70 minutes of music. (EMI276127) CD: 15.99

Ingrid Karklins

A Darker Passion
This 1992 release is a most amazing and unique addition to our catalog! Ingrid, a resident of Austin, grew up with the music and dance of Latvia. Using an ancient lap harp, violin, keyboards and sampler, she creates music that, while rooted in tradition, is experimental, daring and assertive... shades of Laurie Anderson! Latvian melodies and American lullabies combine within textures that are at once dreamlike and nightmarish, while her own diverse voice wafts over African-inspired percussion. Therefore, we have no "earthly" idea where to place this in our catalog... so because we're pretty taken with her Latvian material, we guess we'll classify it there, but don't be expecting a whole album of traditional stuff. Highly recommended! (GL1118) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Jeanne Newhall

French Cafe
The mood here is romantic, Parisian, impressionistic. Jeanne is an exceptionally talented American pianist, who has created an album of music by primarily French composers — all her own piano arrangements. We don't carry much solo piano music; usually it's too nondescript... but this is quite varied (from Edith Piaf/Louisbourg's La Vie en Rose to Gabriel Fauré's Pavane), and thematic enough to hold the threads together, and somehow appeals to some underlying romanticism that must be present in most of us. Listening to this, I'm able to pretend that I am sitting in a French Cafe. (MZP0821) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Kitka

Voices on the Eastern Wind
Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal musics of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment — and recognize their expertise. If this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge! — they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, exotic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength." This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice... invigorating and beautiful. (DPH092) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Kitka

Called "Le Mystere de Voix San Francisco" by one of the soloists of the Bulgarian State Female Vocal Choir, Kitka performed at the Michigan festival in 1990, and this debut tape is available for those of you who didn't make the gala event! They're indisputably one of the most outstanding U.S. women's vocal ensembles specializing in the hauntingly beautiful and emotive vocal musics of Eastern Europe. Included here are diaphanous village-style duets, modern Balkan choral works, and original arrangements of traditional melodies by artistic director Don Brown. Cello, recorder, cimbalom and flute accompany the 14 vocalists, who can sound like twice that many. The selections are tremendous; highly recommended! (KIT1) CS: 9.99

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares

Melody, Rhythm & Harmony (2-Set)
This 30-track (24 previously unrecorded) double album captures all the energy and pageantry of their acclaimed live performances, with over 100 minutes of music! Recorded at the Nidaros Cathedral in Norway, the 24 female vocalists are backed by 4 instrumentalists on bagpipes, traditional woodwinds, mandolin and lute. Their trademark, hypnotic, throaty harmonies synthesizes past and future, as they bridge cultures, generations, and musical genres... This 1993 collection beautifully documents the current musical creation of this extraordinary choir. (MSA79056) CS: 15.99... CD: 27.99

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares

An entrancing and thoroughly gorgeous recording which has captivated the imaginations of thousands of American listeners. The Bulgarian Female Vocal Choir performs traditional folk tunes with breathtaking harmonies which can be either melodic or discordant, natural or surprising, but are always precise, luxuriously rich, and resonant. Mari Boine Persen

Gula Gula
Mari Boine is Sámi (more commonly known as a "Laplander", a term considered derogatory by the Sámi), a people native to what is now known as Northern Finland, Norway, Sweden and Russia. As with many aboriginal cultures, maintaining their language and cultural sovereignty in the face of domination by another culture is very difficult, and this recording communicates thousands of words for each one uttered... Gula Gula means "Hear the Voices of the Foremothers", and many of the songs here are reflective of 8th oppressed woman's rage and determination to succeed. Titles include Váies Sulo (White Throat), Báse Basse, Go Vuelltan (When I Win Against Fear), Eadniin Bákti (75 Women), Goekvilt for Herraokk (Recipe for a Master Race), Sung in Sámi, with English translations; the label is Peter Gabriel's, designed to promote world music. Maria Burmaka

Maria
This Ukrainian singer possesses a vibrant, passionate and endearing voice, so even if you don't speak her language, you'll probably understand the emotion and political statement behind her words. Drawing upon centuries of her culture's folk repertoire, plus songs by powerful young poets, her music is a statement of pride — of being Ukrainian, at a time of Ukraine's rebirth. Compelling and gorgeous; reminiscent of Latin American New Song, both aurally and in purpose and effect. Recommended! (YFP1085) CS: 11.99... CD: 16.99

Marta Sebestyen

Muzsikás
Muzsikás is Hungary's most popular folk group. Marta is the band's wonderful lead singer; and this album is considered to be one of her best. The traditional dances and songs feature instruments such as violin, zither, kobza, kontra, buzuki, duduk, and shawm, creating very haunting, gypsy-like sounds, blending eastern and western idioms. Sophia Bilides

Greek Legacy
This Greek-Italian second-generation American presents traditional songs from the mainland, island, and Asia Minor populations of Greece for both listening and dancing. Comfortable with a wide variety of regional vocal styles, from island syrtos to urban zebekiko, her voice is deep and rich and expressive. She accompanies herself on the traditional santouri (hammered dulcimer), while being supported on laouto (lute), violi (violin), piano (clannet), and dembek (drum). These aren't updated, westernized versions of traditional songs with dance beats or synthesized instrumentation; it's the pure stuff, well researched, with an "old world" sound of ageless beauty. Värttina

Seleniko
As the great-granddaughter of Finnish immigrants, I was pleased and curious to review this recording, never suspecting the enormous beauty it contains! Four incredible women sing with indescribable harmonies and vocal strength are accompanied by an array of acoustic instruments — accordion, sax, bouzouki, kantele, banjo, bass and more — giving contemporary interpretation to traditional songs, many of them rune spells and incantations. As one reviewer said, the vocal effect will make your hair stand on end!... and as another said, this is some of the richest, densest acoustic music you've ever heard. By the end of the second song, I was in tears, simply in awe of the intense effect their voices evoke, similar in flavor to their Balkan cousins. Songs generally reflect the forbearance of Finnish women; one is a plaintive, sweet song sung by the sister of the groom, welcoming her new sister-in-law into the family home. Translations included (Värttina means spindle, by the way); most highly recommended!! (GL4006) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Yerevan Women's Choir of Armenia

One of the most innovative choral groups of Armenia, this is a 30-member a cappella choir (ages 15-35) whose colorful cantatas of voices, youthful dynamism, and inclusive repertoire have brought it broad critical acclaim. They perform compositions which range from Armenian monastic sacred music of the 5th century, to Armenian folk music, to works of the Western choral tradition, to contemporary music from Scandinavia and Russia. This notes are detailed; the 18-selection album gives a full 71 minutes of listening pleasure... and we recommend it highly! (MEG002) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Chaba Fadela You Are Mine

While other ethnic stars can provide excellent examples of Rai music — a modern Arabic pop style whose roots lie in traditional Algerian folk music with African, Moroccan, Spanish and French influences — Chaba (title for a young female) Fadela is the premiere voice of the movement that blends cultures and generations to produce a distinctive and beautiful sound. Her rough, sensuous voice has been described as "the pride of Algeria," and her compositions as the best example of Rai music to be found. In fact, the success of Rai, in spite of government attempts to ban it for political reasons, is in large part attributable to her. A strong dance beat, with synthesizers, drum machines and multitracking, are paired with her haunting traditional Arabic vocals on this 1996 release. Includes her major hit, N'Sei Fik, performed with Cheb (title for a young male) Sahraoui. Very highly recommended! (MNG9927) CD: 16.98

Chaba Fadela & Cheb Sahraoui Hana Hana

If you liked You Are Mine, you'll love this too. Fadela co-wrote most of the selections, and performs them all with her male duo partner... they are compelling and unique. Contains the 89 Mix of the hit N'Sei Fik. A bonus is that the insert contains actual photos of the artists; many other Rai albums, including You Are Mine and Nights Without Sleeping, instead show models on the cover, presumably in accordance with the Islamic prohibition of photographs. Angelique Kidjo Logozo

Last year, we asked for info on this extraordinary artist, and you all sent us reams, for which we thank you! Born and raised in Benin on Africa's west coast, her extraordinarily fantastic music is a fusion of African polyrhythmic styles reflecting African roots (which includes Brazilian rhythms resulting from the Portuguese colonization of Benin), and Western influences... in which you can also hear strains of Arabic and Caribbean sounds. She speaks 6 languages fluently, but recorded this 1991 album in her native tongue of Swahili and Fon. Her political stance is subtly woven into the lyrics which address issues ranging from censorship to torture. She moved to Paris to study law, but now wages her fight for human rights through her music, which reflects a broadening multi-culturalism. Includes the dance hit Batonga... a beautiful version of one of the most famous traditional African songs. Malika... Great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance, very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.98

Aster Aweke

Wow! Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing this talented DC resident: she sings over dance beats in a live Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wail, croons to her live harp and light percussion, keeps over a classically-tinged piano — this is "World Beat" at its best! Highly recommended! (COL46848) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.98

Chaba Zahouania Nights Without Sleeping

On this excellent recording of Rai music, Zahouania uses her deep and sultry voice to convert Bedouin chants into vocal improvisations; the accompaniment blends traditional middle eastern instrumentation with contemporary western instruments and production techniques. She's following in the footsteps of the originators of Rai: rural women singers called "Cheikhaies" who, in the early part of this century, adapted the chants of the nomadic herders to their own improvised words, often singing of the taboo subjects of sex and alcohol. Her family has prohibited public performances and photographs, so the cover here features the same model as Fadela's You Are Mine! (MNG9631) CD: 16.98

Djur Djura Voice of Silence

"We sing about what our mothers hummed under their breath." We learned about this group from Libana several years ago, and are thrilled to learn of the US release of this album! Djura, an Algerian Berber musician, is the composer, lyricist, and principal vocalist of this band, now based in Paris. Passionately opposed to the constraints on women under an omnipotent, outdated patriarchy, she has dedicated herself to speaking and singing out her message of rebellion, and her songs to "all women who have been deprived of love, knowledge and freedom." So, their songs combine Berber folk melodies with non-traditional poetry, about the continuing struggle of women in North African societies, and the liberation of Algeria. Whether the songs express pain, anger, sorrow, nostalgia or festivity, the music is rhythmic and fresh, with a subtle polyphony. Songs include Ad Gethent (The Young Girls Are Going To Dance), Fine! Azim (You Must Act). She is also a film-maker and best-selling author (The Veil of Silence) in France. We excitedly recommend this artist! (WB45211) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.00

Mahotella Queens Women of the World

This 1993 release from the beloved South African mbangaqos trio is a significant one, since it's their first-ever without Mahathiini the "groaner"! With their striking harmonies they perform songs in both English and Zulu. Including I'm Not Your Good Time Girl, I Shall Be Released, Homeless, Mtshabe and more — successfully venturing into the realm of pop and ballads, in addition to the traditional South African songs. Some songs are a cappella here, while others feature a variety of accompaniments. Don't miss this career-marking event, from one of the most successful and popular African groups in the world today! Already widely known and recognized for high energy stage shows and soaring vocals, this female trio (back after their temporary retirement, and now just 3) and male vocalist have revolutionized the South African pop scene. On this 1990 album the group performs 5 new compositions and 2 English versions of their most popular songs, includes what could be the most incredible version of a gospel song, God Is On Your Side, ever recorded! Miriam Makeba & the Skylarks The Best of...

Recorded in 1958-59, this amazing compilation gives us a glimpse of Miriam's earliest years, and in a sort of "girl group" situation paralleling the movement here in the West, she and several women were "adopted" by a studio which put them together with veteran studio musicians and engineers, and turned them loose! Enhancing their popularity was the fact that they combined traditional elements with contemporary ones, interjecting political references as well. These 16 songs comprise some of the smoothest, most effortless-sounding African pop we've ever heard! Great liner notes! recommended! (KA22624) CD: 16.98

Nesrin Sipahi Sharki: Love Songs of Istanbul

The "sharki" is a lament or love song from the Ottoman empire of Turkey. The tone is generally melancholy, and as it has been presently preserved, is played on European instruments. This 1991 recording of sharki is the first to use authentic instrumentation, thus providing a unique look at the repertoire from the 18th through early 20th centuries. Nesrin was born in Istanbul, and like many of her generation, initially wanted to become more "Europeanized" in her artistic expression. Lucky for us, she has become a leader in the renaissance of Turkish classical music, lending her graceful and expressive voice to the flowing melodies and plaintive lyrics. (CMP3009) CS: 9.98... A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused: these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate prolifically and stunningly the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1960-1965, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and timely! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup -- guitar, percussion -- and a lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (rehearsing to hear the original African rendition), The Retreat Song, The Click Song, Kwazulu: In the Land of the Zulus, Nongqongqo! To Those We Love. 23 songs in all. (RCA3155) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Netsanet Mellesse

Spirit of Sheba

On this album subtitled New Beat Music From Ethiopia, one of Ethiopia's younger generation singers here paradoxically remains loyal to the traditional vocal style, while the older more established group she fronts, The Wallas Band, takes off into more contemporary, Western-influenced realms. The result is a fabulous mix, successful in every sense of the word, and representative of the cultural mix of Arabic and African influences common in Ethiopian music today -- at times reminiscent of Algerian Rai music. Netsanet's voice embodies the best; its fluidity and range convey emotion and mood, so that an English-speaking listener can understand the music in spite of the lack of translations. Recommended! Sanougue Kouyate

Balendala Djibe

Here's how a reviewer from Option Magazine described this album: "This woman has pipes! Kouyate comes from Mali, and a family of Mandingo Griots. Traditionally singers, tribal historians, and storytellers. The music is very traditional, the dominant instruments being the harp-like kora and the marimba-like balafon. The instrumental accompaniment, then, is delicate; and what a contrast to Kouyate's volcanic voice, which soars over the hypnotic kora and balafon lines, scorching everything in its wake, leaving absolutely no doubt as to its authority. The only western comparison I can think of is Aretha Franklin. But I can't think of another world music recording I've heard that is so instantly electrifying." Why try saying it better? Very highly recommended! (MNG9874) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tarika Sammy

Fanafody

Our first offering from the island of Madagascar! We're thrilled to find this 2-woman (sisters Noro Raharmalala and Hanitra Rasoafo) 2-man quartet who have taken the traditional music, rhythms and instruments of the different tribes and regions of their country and come up with this beautiful blend... you'll hear African rhythms, Asian vocal inflections, and European concertina melodies! Each member plays at least 5 different instruments, plus sings, and the sounds are sweet and rhythmic, both light and grounded! Title song is about herbal medicines, and means remedy, magic and good luck charms, while the lovely Misy Kalo finds the singer dreaming that her song is being taken to its destination by the clouds, the wind, the sun and the rainbow. Characterized by a love of and dedication to beauty, this 1992 album is very highly recommended -- of course! (GL4003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Soweto Never Sleeps

Absolutely outstanding! Following the success of THE INDESTRUCTIBLE BEAT OF SOWETO, this 1986 release features "Zulu Jive" tracks by four women's groups from South Africa: The Dark City Sisters, The Mqababa Queens, Irene and the Melodians, and The Mahlatla Queens. The rhythms, the harmonies, the pure energy all make for a vibrant anthology. This is the spirit that can't be killed. Highly recommended! (SHN43041) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Women of Mali: The Wassoulou Sound

Wassoulou is the Southern region of Mali, a relatively medium-sized West African country with strong Middle Eastern cultural influences. Its traditional songs originate in a culture based on farming and hunting, and the region bears distinction due to the fact that 90% of its singers are women! Features strong, fast-paced melodies and rhythms which are led by upper register strings, rather than percussion. Singers include: Sali Sidibe, Oumou Sangare, and Coumba Sidibe (founder of L'Ensemble Instrumentale du Mali). Recommended! (STN1035) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Zap Mama

Adventures in Afropea 1

Pronounced with an accent on the second "ma", this fabulous 5-woman group is led by Marie Daouine, an African/Belgian woman who left her native Zaire as a child to escape the violence there. Returning after years in Belgium, she connected with the forest Pygmies who sheltered her as a child, and the music she and the group offer reflect that shared heritage. Sung in Ewe, French and English, primarily a cappella with some minimalist bass and percussion back-up, the multi-layered harmonies bloom in a riotous profusion of beauty and color. A sincere and superior tribute to an example of the power of the human voice. (WB45163) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nasida Ria

Keadilan: Qasidah Music from Java

One of the most remarkable recordings in our catalog! The 9 women of this ensemble (with 23 albums under their belts) are the leading exponents in Indonesia of Qasidah music. Qasida is a classical Arabic word for epic religious poetry, traditionally performed by a storyteller/singer accompanied by percussion and chanting. Indonesian Muslims practice their own versions of this, improvising lyrics in local languages addressing contemporary concerns and moral issues. Nasida Ria present this in a pop-song format, accompanying themselves on electric guitars and keyboards, violins, flute, mandolin, and percussion. Rhythmic influences from other East Indian and Arabic popular music forms are blended with Indonesian lyrics, as they give advice to young lovers, extol a virtuous life, and warn against corruption. Recommended for all wanting to expand their musical horizons! (PIR26) CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra

Quiet

The 9 interrelated movements of Quiet, recorded in 1984, are fragile, meditative islands of minimalism. Piano, bells, sitar, and other instruments undulate under her spoken, rhythmic chants, which are based on traditional Indian drumming. This CD also contains 4 tracks from the 1985 release Nada Brahma, and the song Mecca, recorded in 1986. 70 minutes. (IND02) CD: 16.98

Out On My Own

The material on this CD was recorded at Indipop studios during 1983 (the album released under the same title) and 1985 (4 tracks from the LP Nada Brahma). Sheila very quickly ascended to the top of the just-then emerging Asian Fusion scene, and this contains some of the first music she made "out on her own" after her famous recordings with Monsoon; continuing with a similar style of "Indipop," her signature blend of house with elements of Hindi traditional and film music still mesmerizes. Includes Village Girl, Unchanged Maiden. (IND1) CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra

Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice... absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the ornamentation of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Bhajan. She writes, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument -- it is the one means of expression used by every culture... The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice -- it links all cultures throughout time." (CAR2322) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Roots and Wings

This 1982 release is Sheila's first album since her eccentric decision to "retire" in 1985 at the age of 20. Part of that hiatus was spent researching fresh musical and vocal approaches, which she explores here: Konnokol Al Dante incorporates a musical language of percussive vocal syllables -- the Indian version of scat, various multi-tracked vocals over traditional Indian instruments such as ghatam (a finely tuned clay pot) and mrindangam (a very intricate percussion instrument); even mixes of African log drum and conga with Indian percussion. We welcome her back to the recording world! (IND5) CD: 16.98

Silk 1983-1990

This is a "Best of..." retrospective, covering material from her five solo releases to date: The Struggle, Nada Brahma, Roots and Wings, Quiet, and Out On My Own. Styles range from crossover Indipop to traditional chants to a Scottish lament. A wonderful way to sample her work, and to experience the breadth of her talent and her growth as an artist. And, her title to be pressed domestically. (SHN44035) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Brown Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Bela Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Alisons steal the show here — Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle, Dave Granman on mandolin, Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, one of our Top Picks for 1992. We think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this, so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. Its simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79459) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Alison Brown Twilight Motel

If you check into Twilight Motel, you might end up staying longer than you expect! With her 1992 release, this innovative artist (who is currently on tour with Michelle Shocked as musical director) creates a true synthesis between traditional bluegrass and progressive modern jazz, as she ventures more into a jazz direction than on her debut release. The cast of supporting musicians includes luminaries such as Jerry Douglas, Tony Rice, and Darol Anger; and Maura O'Connell contributes the vocal track on the Celtic folk song Sweet Thomas Flow Softly. Alison Krauss I've Got That Old Feeling

This prodigious artist picked up the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Recording for this album at the 1991 ceremonies, at the ripe old age of 19! Sheila Chandra The Struggle

"I'm proud to be Asian, an Asian Woman, and an Asian Woman in the Music Business." One of our best-sellers from years past — and one of the loveliest and most creative works in our catalog — is back in print! On this lushly textured, harmonic, innovative, up-tempo dance album, Sheila brings together the seeming paradoxes and priorities of her life. A British citizen of Indian descent (known previous to her solo releases for her vocal work with the band Moksos), her heritage is steeped in ancient traditions, and she values them, yet feels they must be used in a progressive context. The recording blends traditional eastern sounds, vocals, chants, and instruments (sitar, gamelan, Zildjian cymbals, tabla, tamboura, etc.) with western rhythms and technology to create...Indipop! If you have enjoyed Ota Haza, try this for sure...very highly recommended! (IND3) CD: 15.98

The Tahitian Choir Rapa Iti

One of the most spectacular albums to come our way, ever! 125 female and male voices sing the story of the people on the tiny island of Rapa Iti — total population 328 — 1000 miles southeast of Tahiti, the last piece of land before the South Pole. The quarter-tonal choral sound is often reminiscent of African singing, sometimes of western hymns, and at moments the even Eastern European singing, in the vocal strength of the women especially. Some songs are translated into English, and others were not able to be translated, since much of the original dialect has been lost. A rare gem; actually hit the "Number 1" spot on Billboard's World Music Chart; highly recommended! (TRL7192) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tomoko Sunazaki

Tegoto: Japanese Koto Music

From one of Japan's foremost koto masters, a "best of" compilation, from previous Fortuna releases (Moon at Dawn, Spring Night, Sound of Silk Strings), and is of course exquisite. Melancholy, contemplative, playful and elegant, she performs classical and contemporary Japanese pieces. Over 67 minutes. (FOR17068) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Uzume Taiko

Chirashi

This exciting and incredible trio of percussionists from Vancouver, consisting of 2 women, Leslie Komori and Eileen Kage, and 1 man, John Endo Greenway, revives the traditional Japanese Taiko, which means "big drum"; the renewal in popularity of this instrument is occurring in both Japan and among sansel (third generation Japanese North American). The trio is adeptly assisted by other musicians such as Xiao Yu on pipa, a stringed instrument, and Takeo on shakuhachi, a bamboo flute, and together they weave magic with their blend of Asian and North American music and rhythms. Dedicated to the spirit of Amie No Uzume No Mikoto, "The Heavenly Alarming Female." Graceful and hypnotic... recommended! (FF558) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

CompiAsian 1

Works of both Sheila Chandra and Najma are included in this unusual anthology of female and male artists who define and expand upon the term "Indipop." A beautiful, creative fusion of South Asian and western forms, styles, and technologies; new findings alongside Ghazal-Jazz; Indipop alongside Asian house/funk-hop; dancefloor mixes alongside Indian classical experiments. We only wish the insert offered more information on the 13 or 14 musicians represented. Very rhythmic, and much of it is quite danceable. (IND7) CS: 12.99 ... CD: 16.99

Ani DiFranco

"With a 'do' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" (To quote our venerable purchasing manager, Reggie)... Ani (pronounced "Ah-nee") is a young songwriter, singer and guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Lost Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's debut tape; even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin... highly recommended! (RIG001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco Not So Soft

Well, this release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani! The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get active in the listening; when you hear her, you'll be compelled to move closer to the speakers; rock your body, experience your heart brimming over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic... She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful self-harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dust broom! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented... Again, highly recommended. (RIG002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco Imperfectly

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Unflinching in her pursuit of honesty, she strikes sparks incessantly as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She struggles with sexual identity in In or Out and If It Isn't Her; and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in I'm No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shades of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the first time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco Puddle Dive

On this new release for spring 1993, her most complex effort to date, Ani (dubbed a folk-rock-feminist by one reviewer) goes boldly where no one has gone before... joined at various moments by pianist Ann Rabson from Gaffney, the Uppity Bluegrass woman, virtuoso violinist Mary Ramsey from the folk-rock duo John & Mary, and English harmonica sensation Rory McLeod. All in-your-face lyricist who exposes her hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status quo in sex, psychology and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. Anne Hills

Woman of a Calm Heart

What most of us aspire to be, for sure...and the title song, written by assistant producer Irene Weiss, is alone worth the price of this beautiful contemporary folk album. Anne's voice is pure and smooth, crystal clear, and her carefully-selected repertoire is a perfect match. Includes a lovely duet with Livingston Taylor, Akasha Wind, plus Eliza Gilkyson's Tennessee Road, Pollock, her own The Child Within, and Angel in Paradise, featuring background vocals by Rory Block. (FF484) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the results are fabulous as their fans might expect if it took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their a cappella work; most songs include back-up by producer/cellist Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues... it includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities

Take A Dance

How to characterize this lovely bit of musicianship? As their extensive and informative liner notes indicate, this is a problem the band faces regularly, but can best be summed up as "beautiful but slightly esoteric English dance music." The mostly traditional material on this 1991 release is arranged in a unique manner; one person plays the melody while the others improvise harmonies and countermelodies, making the recording especially fresh and spontaneous. Includes the achingly beautiful classical piece, The Wood Duck. Again, highly recommended! (FF564) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities

English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lea, Peter Barnes and Earl Gadsby in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk-dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and lifting beauty sounds Baroque/ classical/new-age, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, scot, float, and chase each other with countermelodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, bagpipe, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Bird Sisters Different Stories

A must-have album for all lovers of great harmonies, and one of our favorite new additions for 1993! With sparse acoustic accompaniment (the occasional fiddle, guitar, bass and drums), the fledgling members of this Canadian trio open their mouths and simply soar — gorgeous sounds emit, reminiscent of the Roches or Two Nice Girls. Their repertoire includes the fantastic Why Can't You Read My Mind, a lush acappella version of Hoagy Carmichael and Johnny Mercer's Skylark, a tale of spiritual journeying called Back to the Desert, and the ebullient Get Up and Fly. Imported from Canada; very highly recommended! (TBS002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

blackgirls Procedure

blackgirls are in reality 3 white women from North Carolina who bring together vocal excellence and classical training on a variety of acoustic instrumentation (strong on violins; no percussion) to create a new folk/punk sound. The melodies reflect their musical background, adding a simple beauty to the thought-provoking lyrics imparted in 3-part harmonies. The tempo changes from song to song, from dreamy to jarring, keeping listener interest sparked. Produced by Joe Boyd, known for his work with Fairport Convention, Sandy Denny, and 10,000 Maniacs, to give you a clue about the sound, includes A Visit to the Behaviorist. Highly recommended! (MAM0017) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

blackgirls Happy

When the computer ate my somewhat rambling first review of this recording not once but twice, I figured it was Divine Intervention, and thus went back and listened again. How to describe the uncategorizable? To compare them thematically and musically to the Indigos, Bush, Joni, Roches & Raincoats does not do justice... But, life ain't fair, a fact these girls recognize and (sometimes cheerfully) lament. No simple downer misadventures of life and love's lumps, but wistful observations, multi-layered declarative chants, honest (& therefore clever) statements — all with lovely vocals and instrumentation. Produced again by Joe Boyd. Buy this, I mean it. (MAM0024) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Carla Sciaky Spin the Weaver's Song

This 1992 release is a remarkable celebration of weaving, spinning, and sheep-shearing songs from all over the world. This 60-song, 70-minute plus album tells the story of the people who have carried the process "from sheep to shawl" over the years. In addition to the British Isles as a source to be expected, the collection also represents Croatia, Armenia, Hungary, Australia, Paraguay, and other locales. Beautiful harmonies to Carla's vocals are provided by Cindy Mangsen, Pete Sutherland, and others. A great gift for any weaver or spinner you know, but don't limit this to them: fans of traditional folk music will love this too. (GL2106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cathy Fink Banjo Halku

This 1992 release is a terrific collection of 26 clawhammer banjo tunes, played by an award-winning, expert instrumentalist. Diverse enough for the banjo connoisseur and tasteful enough for all acoustic instrumental fans to enjoy, she covers a wide variety of tunings, tempos and timbres demonstrating the versatility of the old time banjo... in 55 minutes! One vocal is included, and two feature the guitar accompaniment of her partner Marcy Marxer. Includes Ladies Wait Ribbon, Buffalo Gals, Ms. McLeod's Reel, Lisa Jane, Kitchen Girl. This handsome volume contains three one-hour cassettes and a music book... great lessons and great fun! (HOM3) CS: 37.98

Catie Curtis From Years to Hours

This woman's stunning voice is going to be compared to Kasia Bonoff and Cheryl Wheeler for a long time, I can tell. What's going to set her apart is an uncanny blend of strength and vulnerability, a gorgeous combo. If you ask me! This is her second recording, and features 11 originals packed with evocative, bittersweet lyrics, a great folk/rock band (including Janet Hood on piano — remember Jade and Sarsaparilla? — and a fabulous sax player, Myanna Parloppidani), and of course, Catie's fantastic voice and acoustic guitar. Highlights include the sadly sweet Grandmother's Name (I've got my grandmother's name! But she don't remember who I am... Is it morning? Is it night? She don't know! Can't remember which is dark and which is light!), the Fern-ish Wallpaper Dreams, and the hilarious Preacher Recommended. (MGS102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm

From a hilarious reworking of La Bamba, wherein the refrain becomes "listen to your mama," to an ode to chocolate, to a beautiful original by Connie Huber called Roadmap, to their exquisite harmonizing on jazz classics like The Wind and Hummin' To Myself, the Chenilles lift their artistry to new heights on this 1991 release. (RH39) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters Whatcha Gonna Swing Tonight?

Their fabulous harmonies and ability to be equally expressive whether punching out a licksy-split bop or skimming along in a languorous croon make these gals a must! Cheryl Wheeler Half a Book

On this 1997 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (AM0107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Anne, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Entente Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses." Limited quantity, last alternative. (CAP02063) CS: 8.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Before we encountered this album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Lianne sound-track. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual; strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes: best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk-pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler Driving Home

The sweet-sounding, rhyming alices of life provided on this 1993 release are mostly nostalgic and thoughtful, delivered in Cheryl's straightforward manner and lovely alto. She writes with insight about relationship dead-ends, and with true appreciation of the changing seasons. The tempo is occasionally lightened by selections such as the tongue-in-cheek Don't Forget the Guns. With vocal support on a few selections by Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, and Patty Larkin (and Jonathan Edwards, who also produced) how can you go wrong? (PH1152) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin Boau Woos

From undoubtedly the sharpest wit in the contemporary folk scene, a splendidly entertaining, lively, honest and eclectic album. Includes her clever Biological Time Bomb; her song for all those aesthetically challenged, Ballad of a Ballgame, the more serious Gettin' Used to Lavin' with veteran folkie Eric Anderson; her spoof on Camping; and other humorous and cynical vignettes. A gem. (PH1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind

First of all, if you are a Suzanne Vega listener, this album is an absolute must for your collection... Christine's Mysterious Woman adds new dimensions to the existential meanings of defrosting the refrigerator! Title song accurately describes the delicious experience of eating sushi (jacking down a bucketful of tarted acid; or, chewing the suction cups off the bottom of an old bathtub mat) and other activities tolerated in the name of love. Both satire and good folk music fit this album, and even a duet with Livingston Taylor. (PH1121) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin Future Fossils

This is Christine's first album (she had an earlier EP called Husbands and Wives, about relationships — the unequal kind) full of social commentary, 50/50 humor and serious, somewhere between live and studio, of original songs. This artist is someone the NY Times calls "a pungent folk-pop humorist... writes wryly comic vignettes of city life that also have an emotional edge." Includes Cold Pizza for Breakfast, a spoof of diets, Regretting What I Said which skewers men who find it difficult to tell the truth, and Don't Ever Call Your Sweetheart by His Name which turns the tables on men who've called women "darling" for centuries... this song was banned from Gracie Mansion. During a discussion of New Age music with this reviewer, Christine said, "My mantra is pizza." (PH1104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin Attainable Love

Ten more satirical songs that debunk, explore and create the myths of contemporary (hetero) romance, includes Shopping Cart of Love and Sensitive New Age Guys, as well as the somewhat more serious Victim/Volunteer, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From, and title. A straightforward acoustic production from this insightful observer/commentator. (PH1132) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98 ... LP: 4.98

Christine Lavin Compass

People Magazine said: "She is a slyly witty songwriter who seems to have undergone an irony-ift... It's as semi-detached observer that Lavin is most striking, though. If we could get her and Loudon Wainwright III named our national folk music laureates, we'd have most of the country's problems accurately described, if not solved, in no time." This 1991 release takes a light-hearted look at interpersonal relationships, and includes Blind Dating Fun, I Bring Out the Worst in You, Replaced, and more... title song is a response to the oft-heard line "I'd be lost without you," which made her wonder if they were dating a compass! Cindy Kallet Working on Wings to Fly

"Listening to you is like lying on your back while someone feeds you grapes," said someone to this Martha's Vineyard musician. We rarely carry L.P.s of folksinger-with-guitar music unless there's something really distinctive about it and in this case it's her enchanting voice — a good octave lower than your average folksinger but with the same sort of smoky heat in the clearest soprano. An outstanding acappella number in 3 parts (with friends), plus other original songs about New England coastal life. Accomplished guitar accompaniment. Highly recommended. (FLB3) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet, E. Epstein, M. Cicone Angels in Daring

Cindy teams up vocally here with Ellen Epstein and Michael Cicone to present a stunning collection of primarily acappella music drawn from contemporary and traditional sources of the British Isles and America, with a liberal sprinkling of sea music. Their close, perfectly-pitched harmonies have inspired enthusiastic responses from audiences and critics alike, described as warm and healing, technically elegant... and it's all true. Includes Sail Away Ladies, a couple of shape-note hymns, and Cold Is the Night, which Cindy wrote expressly for these 3 minstrels. Definitely recommended! (KEC1) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet Dreaming Down a Quiet Line

The title encapsulates the beauty and the peaceful simplicity of both the northern New England coast and of this 1989 release of primarily original contemporary folk songs. Featuring beautiful harmony vocals on some by Ellen Epstein, Michael Cicone, and Lisa Kallet-Marx. It includes Song for Margaret, Sarah's Song, Glacier Song. (STM1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cindy Mangsen Songlines

Cindy's smooth, exceptional alto has been enjoyed by us for years on the album Voices which she recorded with Anna Hills and Phyllis Herdman... and you can hear this trio acappella once again on one of the highlights of this 1992 album, Nancy White's humorous (and often true) satire Daughters of Feminists which several of our customers have sought! Accompaniment is exquisite, featuring instruments such as oboe, bassoon, concertina, plus Abby Newton's cello. Both traditional and original material included; all in all, a rich, deep, variable feast for lovers of essential folk music. (CRM5) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Claudia Schmidt/ Sally Rogers

Closing the Distance

An absolute aural delight by two of the finest musicians in the acoustic music universe. They trade licks, leads and harmonies on their first joint album of original, traditional and new material... includes Lovely Agnes, Mama, I Miss You Tonight, the Acappella Appalachian Round, a Native American melody Hey Hey Watery!, I Walk in Beauty. Highly recommended! (FF425) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt

Essential Tension

Her most personal statement to date, this 1991 release of all original material communicates an introspectiveness that clearly marks a period of profound growth and change for the artist. Her voice has a powerful new edge and, with its incredible 3-octave range, has never been more expressive. The album reflects a greater maturity as both a composer and a poet in love with the sound and meaning of language. Worth the 3-year wait! (RH38) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt & Sally Rogers

While We Live

This 1991 release breaks new ground for both artists at every turn — it's a blending of voices and musical spirits rooted in a friendship that goes back many years. Exciting originals as well as stirring covers are included. Claudia's Going By is a profound life anthem that reverberates with Balkan-esque harmonies. Sally's I See the Moon is a tender and beautiful lullaby. Cathy Fink's Sewing a Name is a moving song about the AIDS crisis... and many more gems. (RH45) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Caution Horses

Their third release — 1990 — contains Witches ("There are witches in the hills calling my name/saying come join us sister, come join the flame"), as well as Sun Comes Up, It's Tuesday Morning, Cause Cheap Is How I Feel, Rock and Bird, and Power/Finger. (RCA2058) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Cowboy Junkies

Whites Off Earth Now!!

Recorded live in 1986, this is the little-known first recording by the Cowboy Junkies. It includes eight covers (that don't sound anything like the originals) of material by artists ranging from Bruce Springsteen to John Lee Hooker and Robert Johnson, plus one original by Margo and Michael Timmins. Margo is so toasty that she steams off cuts like State Proper and Foggy Me. Slow and smoky, this album is highly recommended. (RCA2380) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cowboy Junkies

Black Eyed Man

This album, the Junkies' 4th, is — dare we say it? — more upbeat than their previous honey-dripping past. Not that this is fast, mind you, it just picks up the beat a tad. Margo's voice continues to strengthen, as if she were taking her vitamins now, yet still with that sweet hickory-smoked flavor, for which the word "languid" could have been created... We love how the instruments are recorded to sound like they're in a hazy club, each musician staring off into space wondering if the boss will spring for burgers and beer... Includes If You Were the Woman and I Was the Man. Cowboy Junkies Current. Recommended. (RCA61045) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Trinity Sessions

Margo Timmins is the vocalist of this mostly-Timmins ensemble, and her voice is the distinguishing characteristic of the group. It's smoky, moody, bluesy, evocative... and electric guitar is the prevailing instrumentation, making for a heavy ambience. Includes the loveliest version of I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry ever recorded, and a cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane. Recorded live in Toronto. (RCA6568) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Pilgrims

If you think folk music is lacking lyrically, melodically, or spiritually, never fear, Eliza Gilkyson is here! This accomplished singer-songwriter has created this dazzling album from her very heart, and it's sure to touch a chord in yours. As a captain in self-exploration, she charts aspects of her quest for love and understanding with a compelling, magnetic voice — at times reminiscent of the qualities of Ole Williamson or Fernon. Includes Material Man ("...dicking with the dollars, mistle-veny madness..."), Foolish Heart, Calling All Angels. Her first release since her out-of-print 1979 debut album on Helios Records, which we had long ago... incredibly talented, intensely aware, searching and caring, Eliza offers a musical gift not to be passed by. Highly recommended. (GC71307) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Through the Looking Glass

On this 1993 release, the artist continues to explore a range of experiences, from personal relationships to life's mysteries, through her beautifully melodic musical framework. Includes Santa Fe, about her love/hate relationship with her town of residence that has now become quite commercialized; her favorite, All You Want, about the dynamics of the heart; Odysey, dedicated to men on a journey of self-discovery; I Become the Moon, for women getting in touch with their powerful mysteries long suppressed by organized religion; and Emmanuel, inspired by the beautiful hymns of the Anglican church. (PVT2109) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Legends of Rainmaker

Most notable here, on her second release, is an original country-rock song Rose Strike Back, a passionate plea for a woman to leave an abusive relationship, on which she is backed by Bonnie Raitt... second, a beautiful cover of the early 60's hit song written by her father, Terry: Greenfields (surely some of you remember that? "Once there were greenfields kissed by the sun..."). A beautiful follow-up to Pilgrims. (GC71323) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Elizabeth Cotten

Freight Train & Other NC Folk Songs

It's hard to believe that a talent as rare and true as Libba's can go unrecognized for so many years, but thankfully, by the time she died in 1987 at the age of 95, she was finally gaining a small portion of her deserved acclaim. What she was able to record in her last 30 years is best described as legendary. Her most popular original song Freight Train, her well-known Oh Babe It Ain't No Lie, and her beautifully simplistic rendition of the gospel classic What a Friend We Have in Jesus appear on this recording, which was originally released in 1958 as Folk Songs & Instrumentals for Guitar. Any fan of traditional folk, blues and gospel will appreciate this treasure, and will recognize the impact she has had on countless other performers, from the Seegers to Faith Nolan. (SF40008) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Erin Corday

Butterfly Tattoo

Known to some for her association with Laura Love's band, this solo recording will shoot Erin into her own spotlight. With lovely jazzy-folk arrangements of her (mostly original) songs, rich in rhythmic and harmonic complexity, she yields the gift of panoramic observations, where world truths are reflected in the small details of daily life and relationships. Her voice is clear and enchanting, and achieves perfection when she self-harmonizes — really! — and the acoustic accompaniment, which includes lots of interesting percussion, is likewise perfect. Highlights include the aching Ashes, a loving and soft memorial to her adoptive mother, and another family picture window, the gorgeous Fly Away, as well as the traditional Vietnamese folksong about forbidden love, Wind on the Bridge. If you haven't had the opportunity to hear this artist in the past, you do now! Very highly recommended! (LBD2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Four Bitchin' Babes

Life According to 4 Bitchin' Babes

Christine Lavin plus Patty Larkin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingert were recorded live at the Birchmere, alternately entitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair. Their unforgettable concert tour-together has been eternalized and immortalized here. You'll get to experience their turn-of-millennium voices, and very on-target material. Includes Junk Food, Ladies Lunch, Sensitive New Age Guys, Prisoners of Their Hairs, Not Glad for a Broad, Thyme Boots Are Made for Walkin', and Home is Where the Heart Is, a touching vignette by Sally about a lesbian couple and a gay couple. Approx. 60 minutes... recommended! (PH1140) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Four Bitchin' Babes

Four Bitchin' Babes, Volume 2

This 1993 release features the current babes (Christine Lavin, Sally Fingert, Megan McDonough, and Julie Gold), returning with their second volume of song, wit and wisdom. Highlights include Julie Gold's (Fun To Be) Perfect and her great song From A Distance (though I still think that the Apollo 8 astronauts who wrote some of these very same words in 1968, quoted in a book about composing called Let It Rot, ought to be given credit for inspiration); Christine Lavin's lyrics to the Jeopardy theme and her cover of Sealed With a Kiss; Megan McDonough's Butter; and Sally Fingert's Take Me Out to Eat. And they all do harmony vocals on each other's songs. Of course recommended! (PH1150) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Heartbeats Rhythm Quartet

Spinning World

Fresh from a '92 tour with 10,000 Maniacs and Mary Chapin Carpenter, this lovely innovative 4-woman ensemble released their debut album, and we think it'll put the happy in your bones! Sweet, engaging vocal harmonies, kickin' Ole Timey fiddles and washboards and accordion and guitar and bass — but with a contemporary twist that adds up to pure pleasure — some have called their sound "cyde-grass", commenting on their sharp rhythm attack and intense approach to Appalachian string band music. They serve up a delightful mix of traditional (Cotton-Eyed Joe and Black Mountain Rag), a cover (Jean Ritchie's Blue Diamond Mines), and a mass of originals, like the ecstatic coming-of-age in They Don't Know You, the Go-Go-ish Power to Run, or the pop-Cajun opener, Ocean. It's a roller — highly recommended! (GL2111) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ian & Sylvia

Greatest Hits (Double Set)

Classics from the vast discography of this excellent Canadian folk duo from the 60's: their original, You Were On My Mind, plus Four Strong Winds, Early Morning Rain, Come In Stranger, Some Day Soon, Un-Canadian Enfant, and more. (VAN46) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ian & Sylvia

Early Morning Rain

This classic has recently been rescued from out-of-print land and a good thing it is, because it was one of their best original volumes. Includes title, Darcy Farrow, Song for Canada, For Lovin' Me, Come In Stranger, Awake Ye Drowsy Sleepers, Maude's Blues, Red Velvet and more. (VAN79175) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Indigo Girls

We've gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area where they've played frequently, so as they debut on a major label, we thought it time to answer to our customers' wishes. Folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, need, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains title cut plus Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Indigo Girls, w/Ellen James Society

*Nomads * Indians * Saints*

While the music of Emily Saliers and Amy Ray is firmly rooted in the folk-rock tradition, this 1990 release leans more towards the contemporary-pop end of the spectrum. Thoughtful, introspective and self-challenging are solid apt descriptions of their lyrical content; but the music has a harder edge to it, especially those songs which feature Amy's husky voice. With guest appearances by Mary Chapin Carpenter on Southland in the Springtime and the Ellen James Society on I, 2, 3. A must for fans who want to follow the evolution of the band. (EPC46820) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Live: Back On the Bus Y'All

This 1991 release is an 8-song album containing live renditions of some of their most often-requested material from their earlier albums, plus their cover of Dylan's All Along the Watchtower (not currently available on other titles) and a previously released version of I, 2, 3 thrown in for good measure. They are accompanied on several selections by the Ellen James Society. Rather than lyrics, you'll find tour photos in the insert. (EPC47508) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Rites of Passage

This 1992 release rides high on a rhythmic undercurrent of Latin and African percussion, a new maturity in songwriting, and a renewed sense of vitality in their delivery. Includes guest vocal appearances by the Roches, Jackson Browne and David Crosby; great fiddle by Lisa Germano; includes Virginia Woolf, Cedar Tree, Ghost, Emily Saliers says, "The freshness of this album is that we recorded these songs without any preconceived notions of how they should sound." (EPC48865) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

SALM & SQUALL

Jane & Julia

Heavy on imagery and poetic phrasings, ghostly backup vocals, and acoustic instrument-as-a-kind-voice (piano, percussion, guitar), this Baltimore duo brings to mind what Janie might have sounded like if they'd been folkies instead of jazzies! Gorgeous voices, great instrumentation, and slick production all combine to make this debut 1992 release a must for any serious collector of women songwriters and singers! Includes Lily, a vignette about a child of a failed revolutionary, the rocking Blue Love, and a lovely little poem to friendship, Sweet Darlin'. Recommended! (NSK1) CS: 9.98

Janie Mitchell

Psalm & Squall

First you think that she sounds like Jane Siberry, then like a slightly disgruntled Enya, and by the third song you realize that Janie Mitchell is unlike anyone you've heard before. Drawing upon the influences of medieval church music and traditional aqueous airs, this 1992 album combines the ambient timelessness of ancient melodies with electronic synthesized sound and choral harmony. Stormy lyrics are delivered with bluey wails and Celtic and Eastern European intonations... both her Welsh heritage and the Portland, Oregon progressive music scene are heard here. Her angelic voice and diverse instrumentation make this an unusually fascinating folk album. Recommended! (NWR454) CS: 9.98

Janis Ian

Between the Lines

Now that this well-known artist from the 60's and 70's has publicly come out as a lesbian (confirming years of audience hope and/or speculation), we've been getting requests for her material. Here's a classic 1975 album, containing several of her "hits." At Seventeen, See A Symmetry, Love's Lullaby and more. (COL33394) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Janis Ian

Breaking Silence

Nostalgic for the 60's and 70's? You're not alone! Fans everywhere are crying for new releases from the folk legends, and after a 12-year hiatus, Janis delivers! Not shying away from controversy personally (coming out of the closet) or in her music, her song topics touch issues such as the Holocaust in Tattoo, physical abuse in My Hands, child abuse and molestation in the title track, and eroticism (given new meaning) in Role My Like A Wize. Two songs were co-written with Jess Leary, whose music so impressed us years ago that we listed her 45. And whatever you do, don't miss Guess You Had To Be There, "cause if you were conscious at all during the 60's, she's playing your song. (MOR20023) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Baez

Diamonds and Rust in the Bullring

1995 marks Joan's 30th year of performing, as well as the release of this album. Recorded live in the bullring, literally, in Bilbao, Spain, it contains an equal number of songs in English and Spanish. Features an incredible duet with Mercedes Sosa on Gracias a la Vida — alone worth the price of the album! — plus Famous Blue Raincoat, Let It Be, No Woman No Cry, and No No Mowant, her Spanish version of the civil rights anthem We Shall Not Be Moved. (GC71321) CS: 9.98

Joan Baez

Speaking of Dreams

Soon to be out of print, so hurry! This celebration of Joan's 30 years of performing is a wonderful collection of her trademark mixtures of political and love songs. It features guest appearances by Jackson Browne — who duets with her on a song about El Salvador — and Paul Simon, who produced and sings back-up on Whispering Bells. Three originals are included: Chita, Warriors, and 116. (GC71324) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Baez

Brothers in Arms

This 1991 release is a collection of political and social songs Joan recorded for Gold Castle Records 1987-1991, but it does include some previously unreleased songs: Warriors of the Sun, Shir's Got a Ticket, which combines her own Warriors with Tracy Chapman's Ticket, and her version of Billy Joel's Goodnight Saigon. Also contains China, 60s, Let Us Break Bread, Together, and her duet with Jackson Browne, El Salvador. Limited quantity, list alternative. (GC71353) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Baez

Rare, Live & Classic (Boxed Set)

An incredible collection of work spanning an incredible 31-year career! This boxed set of 4 tapes or 3 CDs contains: a 32-page book with interviews and photos... 60 songs, including 18 previously unreleased, from live performances and broadcasts as well as recordings from 8 different record labels... and a plethora of songs featuring Joan with other great artists such as Bob Dylan, the Grateful Dead, her sister Mimi Farrow, Judy Collins, Donovan, Kris Kristofferson, Odetta, and more! This 1993 release, two years in the making, makes a great gift for any fan you know and love, including yourself. (VAN125/7) CS: 38.98 CD: 46.98

Joan Baez

The First Ten Years

This double-album set contains eighteen of the best songs from Joan's earlier repertoire: includes Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, Mary Hamilton, Firewall Angelina, There But For Fortune, other Dylan, contemporary and traditional songs. (VAN6580/1) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Baez

Hits/Greatest & Others

As indicated, hits of hers that were also hits by some of the greatest songwriters of our time. Includes Phil Ochs' There But For Fortune, Dylan's Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, Lennon-McCartney's Let It Be, Robbie Robertson's The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down, Kris Kristofferson's Help Me Make It Through the Night, and more. (VAN79332) CS: 8.98 CD: 14.98

Joan Baez

Play Me Backwards

This 1992 release, reflecting Joan's fourth decade of performance, shows her musically as strong and vibrant as ever. Includes several originals plus wonderful songs by Janis Ian (Amsterdam), Mary-Chapin Carpenter (Slaves in the Road), and other contemporary songwriters. Perhaps most outstanding is her original title track, a very disturbing and dramatic song about the experience of ritual abuse — an issue finally coming forth from centuries of complete silence. All in all, the album is drenched in meaning, and pathos, and recognition, and is probably her best work yet. (VIR00458) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice gorgeous voice gorgeous voice environmental song gorgeous voice social/political/spiritual songs gorgeous voice... This woman's range will take your breath away! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves; her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness; and I already told you about her voice, about which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1989 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaniscaper, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Joanne Rand

Live

This Georgia native-turned-Northern Californian possesses one of the finest voices we've heard — see above reviews for further raves — and this tape gives one the privileged experience of hearing her live performance. Her piano and guitar are joined by Don Lax's violin, and the songs are as lovely and impassioned as ever, includes Dream of Peace, Never Alone, Sacred Spaces, Working Woman and Earth My Body. Porcelain

More stunning harmonies, very very smooth and delicious, with more exploration of styles than her first. Includes the incredible long Island ("So don't you test my love, like you test the love of your boyfriends! Oh don't you know the love for a woman, for a woman is there to the end, there to the end"). (VIR91325) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

French Record

At last resurrected into print, this is the classic, early album with all French material. And, not only two but three McGarrigle sisters are featured: sister Jane, executive producer, also sings harmony and plays organ. We welcome it back! (HAN1302) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Finally back in print, for real! The debut classic 1975 album by these Canadian sisters with "genetic" harmonies includes their beautiful original ballad Walt Like A Wheel, also featuring their third sister Janie on vocals and organ, which propelled them (and Linda Ronstadt) to fame and fortune. Instrumentation — accordion, fiddle, harmonica, guitar, banjo — and vocal style are drawn from French Canadian tradition, though most of the material is original. Also includes Tell My Sister, Jigsaw Puzzle of Life, Travellin' On For Jesus. (HAN4401) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Dancer with Bruised Knees

Their 1977 second album has also been blessedly re-released in 1993! Includes the charming gam Perrine Etait Servant, with Kate on button accordion, Anna on recorder, and both singing in exquisite harmony. And, sister Janie McGarrigle contributes organ on some tracks. Songs are in both English and French. (HAN4402) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Back Roads

Recorded with friends in the living room, this record of country-folk music is remarkably well done. While some songs lean towards melancholic nostalgia, others show that it's more than a simpler life ahead that inspired the words of this singer-songwriter. (RH71479) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

Lines on the Paper

Mostly soft country-folk music, almost all written by Kate. Her songwriting reflects feelings about life and changes. Her voice is even & well-suited to the laid-back folk sound. The second album from this northern California native. (RH71480) CD: 15.98

Give Yourself to Love (2-Set)

This live 1983 release of mostly previously-unrecorded material features Kate's long-time colleague Nina Gerber on mandolin, harmonica, guitar, and vocals throughout the "show." Most closely resembles her concert and includes some songs by other musicians that she enjoyed performing over the years. Compiled from three performances, in San Francisco (Great American Music Hall), Davis, and Nevada City. Includes a live version of Redtail Hawk, and her originals Green Eyes and the song. (RH71483) CD: 23.98

Kate Wolf

Poet's Heart

Kate's sixth album, which she co-produced, features all original songs including In China Or A Woman's Heart, See Here She Said, Carolina Pines. (RH71484) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf

Gold in California (2-Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1986. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death; she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection. It also contains Unfinished Life, She Rides Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Enma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. (RH71485) CD: 23.98

The Wind Blows Wild

This 1989 release contains all previously-unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's untimely death at age 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1986, the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously-unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Flying of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on...and on...through her still-growing discography. (RH71486) CD: 15.98

An Evening in Austin

The full 45 minutes of the 1985 concert that's also available as a video (see our Videos section for the description). This appearance, just a few months before she was diagnosed with leukemia, was her first major television exposure, for the show Austin City Limits, and it captures her ease and radiance. Included are some songs not previously recorded by her. (RH71487) CD: 15.98

Kristina Olsen

Here's what Christine Lavin had to say: "The first time I saw Kristina Olsen in concert I was knocked out by every aspect of her performance — her songwriting, her singing, her mastery of instruments and musical styles, her sense of humor, and her rapport with the crowd. They went wild, simply wild. After the show I was shocked to find out that she had never released an album nationally. Thank goodness that is no longer the case... and what an album it is! Beautiful songs, superbly produced, and like Kristina Olsen herself, an exquisite piece of work." (PH1147) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Love Kristina

Kristina's star is bound to rise higher in the singer-songwriter galaxy with this 1993 release. Nina Gerber's production is utterly seamless, and Teresa Trull (harmony vocals), Barbara Higbie (piano), and Gary Black (bass) all turn in outstanding performances. But, above all, Kristina herself writes, sings and plays like no one else, her own person from start to finish, with gorgeous, jazz-inflected vocals and superb musicianship. Includes Keeping This Life of Mine (Song for Battered Women), The Bed of Ours, Little Failings. (PH1167) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Laurie Lewis & Kathy Kallick

Together

This bluegrass duet album hails from two of the Bay Area's most popular acoustic performers: both are singer-songwriters, Laurie a fiddler, Kathy a rhythm guitarist. Their long-time friendship and association (they were both members of the Good Ol' Persons string band), and Kathy is still their lead singer) is evident in their collaboration. We're excited about this fall 1991 release! (KAL44) CS: 9.98

Malaika

Women on the Edge

This eclectic quartet specializes in lovely vocal harmonies, which they employ on a variety of (mostly) traditional European folk songs, with the delightful odd ditty thrown in. Most are a cappella, but occasionally you'll hear guitar and spoons, mountain and hammer dulcimers. Includes several Bulgarian tunes, plus Jays Jive, Cool of the Day, and the lovely Sephardic Quando Er Rey Nivrod. Lovers of women's voices, don't miss this: their spectacular vocals make this 1992 release highly recommended in our catalog! (MAL101) CS: 9.98

Mary McCaslin

Old Friends

Who'd ever think anyone could send chills up your spine by singing the Supremes' song My World Is Empty Without You (see Best of... Things We Said Today)? Mary has done it on this record — with an unusual minor guitar tuning & exquisite harmonies in her arrangements. These 2 songs, plus her original title cut, make this album one of our favorites & are worth the price of the album. (PH1046) CS: 7.98

Mary McCaslin

Best of... Things We Said Today

Truly a wonderful volume of her best songs — mostly about the West, and friendships — from her first 4 albums, and a must for all fans of this contemporary folk musician from the 70's... who don't already have her complete discography! Here are the highlights: Ghost Riders in the Sky, Circle of Friends, Old Friends, The Bramble and the Rose, San Bernardino Waltz, Way Out West, her unusual interpretations of the Supremes' My World Is Empty Without You and the Beatles' Things We Said Today and Blackbird... 15 in all, and the booklet shows guitar tunings for her many songs which use non-standard tunings. In her time she was quite an influential artist, and this 1992 release should help bring her back into some insight. Recommended! (PH1149) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Megon McDonough

Day by Day

Finally, the fourth "Bitchin' Babe" joins our catalog; we've been searching for this for the past couple of years, due to customer requests! As suggested by the cover, love is one of the themes on her debut release, the spiritual kind, that is... as well as respect for life and Mother Nature. Titles include Everlasting Love, Serenity Song (of the 12-step program), Oh Great Spirit, Joy in the Journey, Katy's Sweet, Every Living Thing, and the beautiful Wake Up and Dream. (SFM1) CS: 9.98

Megon McDonough

American Girl

Megon's second release is more filled out and produced than her first (naturally, of course), with love as a theme again, this time the personal kind, with metaphors of water and dreams a frequent image in her songs. The majority of songs are again originals, and feature lovely arrangements with accompaniment on recorder, harmonica, mandolin, piano, guitar and bass. Includes Dreams of Deep Water, River of Wishes, If Love Is a Dream, Big Blue River (See what we mean about the water imagery!) (SR51) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked

Short Sharp Shocked

Michelle's first studio recording, a wild success for her, and established her firmly in the US music scene. Title comes from behavior modification technique used by the psych industry. (MER834924) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked

The Texas Campfire Tapes

The amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording, first creating a raging cult following for this young itinerant folk artist, then catapulting her to national fame and fortune! Her style on this "debut" recording (a re-issue of the very same walkman-recording) is an absolutely appealing blend of talking blues and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and ironies, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the croaks who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long-wearing; gets better and more intriguing with every listening; recommended! (MER834591) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked

Captain Swing

On this highly anticipated follow-up to Short Sharp Shocked, Michelle once again surprises and challenges her audience. The 10 original songs are decidedly swing oriented, with full band and horn sections. She describes this as "music that goes from one end of Mississippi to the other, from Chicago R & B to New York bebop to New Orleans mambo." Includes God Is a Real Estate Developer, Must Be Luff, My Little Sister. (MER838878) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked

Arkansas Traveler

Rambling along in a Winnebago with a mobile recording unit set inside an 18-wheeler, Michelle traveled the country (and beyond). She recorded songs, fiddle tunes mostly, that she put her own words to, with some of her all-time heroes and respected contemporaries: Doc Watson, Taj Mahal, Alison Krauss, to name a few. This album brings to fruition her trilogy concept, which began with Short Sharp Shocked on through Captain Swing. Includes Prodigal Daughter (Cotton Eyed Joe), Strawberry Jam, Come A Long Way 33 RPM Soul. (MER512101) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

The Mother Folkers

Confluence

"The Most Carefully Pronounced Name in Show Business" celebrated its 20th anniversary in 1991! The Molo's are a group of 11 women who join forces once a year, create an entirely new show, and tour the concert within their home state of Colorado. With strong harmonies and a wide variety of acoustic instruments — mandolin, guitars, fiddles, bass, dobro, hammer dulcimer and various percussion — they deliver a wonderful collection of originals, plus a few traditional folk songs from South America and the American South for good measure. We love the humor and warmth they exude, and bet their concerts are fantastic. Highlights include Mama's Been Drunk, I'm Getting Used to Sleeping in My Nightgown, Honey in the Rock, the lively instrumental Forty Something, and the lovely Alma Corazon y Vida. At Town Hall

This thickly-back-in-print classic contains Carry It Back to Rosie, Freedom Trilogy, Children's Trilogy, and 13 other great songs from folk, blues, spiritual, and work song repertoires... all grounded in dignity, strength and resistance. (VAN2109) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Open Mind

Suspect Terrain

This acoustic folk duo, with a magical chemistry and crystalline harmonies, took their hometown of Hamilton, Ontario, by storm, and were glad to bring them to you as they make their way to wider audiences. The obvious comparison to the Indigo Girls is mostly based on Chantal Chamberlain's husky voice, with the heart-wrenching cracks and hitches, though Cynthia Kerr's songwriting is simpler and more direct than that of their musical sisters. The material jumps from political issues to love themes, adding a humorous touch to mistaken identity in the bedroom in Blue Box, rapidly becoming a fan favorite. This 1993 release is their second, and if you ask for it, we'll add their debut in a future issue. (OM003) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Pat Humphries

Same Rain

Pat's the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to anthemize common struggles and triumphs. This album represents 7 years of work, "most of it internal." She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed by the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the 1986 Michigan Womyn's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes songs co-written with Judy Small and Aileen Vance; her exquisitely beautiful Shooting Star, and her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! Joined by Cathy Flirk, Marcy Marxer and others; highly recommended! (MFN350) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin

Tango

Proving that change can be inspirational, forever-Bostonite Patty has headed West, and with the help of several of the SF Bay Area's premier musicians (most notably Michael Mahring on bass) has given birth to a beautiful new baby — er, album! The production is first rate, Patty's vocals are soft and clear, and the acoustic tones of the band are sparkling and pure. As ever, her lyrics explore the myriad of directions our paths take us on: inner reflections, outward quests, and the nature of relationships. Song titles include: Upside Down, Solo Flight, Deadlines and Dollar Signs, and Kathleen. (HST10012) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Patty Larkin

In the Square

Recorded live at Sanders Theater in Harvard Square, this 1990 release includes both new and favorite songs, with the added sparkle of Patty's witty introductions and off-the-cuff exchanges with the audience. The album demonstrates why she's one of the most in-demand acoustic performers, particularly in her home region of New England. (PH1136) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin

Angels Running

This 1993 release is a bright showcase of the singer/songwriter's deft skill with a phrase, a word, a tune and an album. Features Mary-Chapin Carpenter and The Story on background vocals... song titles include Heaven, My Dog Wouldn't Run, Channeling Marlene, Pundits and Poets. (HST10318) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Peter, Paul & Mary

The Best of PP&M: 10 Years Together

13 of their "greatest hits": Puff the Magic Dragon, Leaving On a Jet Plane, Blowin' in the Wind, If I Had a Hammer, Steady, As She Goes, and more, from their first 10 years of performance. (WB3105) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Priscilla Herdman

Darkness Into Light

Buy this for a most superb a cappella rendition of Sojourner Truth's speech Ain't I a Woman? set to music by Priscilla with harmony vocals by Anne Hills, Cindy Mangsen — chilling! Her flowing alto, with Abby Newton's smooth cello and other acoustic instrumentation, also does justice to songs by some of the best contemporary writers, such as Judy Small, Connie Kaldor, Malvina Reynolds... a quintessential folk album, with themes of peace, children growing, people working and loving. (FF420) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Queen Ida and Her Zydeco Band

Cookin' with Queen Ida

She cooks up a hearty menu of traditional Zydeco and Cajun harmony, blending in blues, reggae and more, on this 1989 release. Includes Hard Headed Woman and C'est Moi, her personal lament to life on the road. (GNP2197) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Quigley Ensemble Renovation

This quartet Canadiane employs some of the most amazing vocal harmonies we've ever heard! As LF says, "Albums like this help me love my job again, for those sweet minutes of discovery..." All accomplished musicians with numerous accolades and awards, they interpret a diverse repertoire in French and English, including The Nursery, L'Amour De Moi, Antique Eyes, Isabeau... Their proficiency on such instruments as bodhran, guitars, percussion and wind instruments is fitting accompaniment for the magic they weave with their voices. Once again, a fresh wind from Canada reaches down and blows gently into our ears! Import: highly recommended. (MOK0001) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Roches A Dove

This 1992 release adds a new dimension to these sisters' repertoire. On previous albums, they've generally written and arranged songs collaboratively; most of these songs were written individually, making this a rich and diverse collection of witty, insightful songs with the usual amount of imaginative vocal interplay and harmonizing. Includes Ing, Someone's Gonna Have To Be Me, You're The One, You're The Two. (MCA10001) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Roches

Their first album as a trio... and the one which firmly endeared them to great numbers of music lovers who also appreciated humor and ingenuity. Their harmonic and lyric accomplishments reached new pinnacles here. All acoustic, simply and skillfully produced. Includes the autobiographical We, Mr. Selack, Quitting Time. Recommended! (W&B2298) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rory Block House of Hearts

Dedicated to her son Thiele who died tragically in 1986 at age 20, this is Rory's most personal album to date. With the exception of Krye, written and performed by her other son, the songs here are all Rory's—filled with hauntingly beautiful melodies and poetic lyrics. Her brilliant guitar and synthesizer playing and exquisite blues-soul voice carries every line of this very touching eulogy. Recommended! (ROU3104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rory Block Mama's Blues

Bonnie Raitt said, "Rory Block has been an inspiration to me since we started out years ago. Her guitar playing, singing and songwriting are some of the most soulful in traditional and modern blues." This is Rory at her blues best here! On this outstanding 1991 release, she pays tribute to the great musicians who have always been her source of inspiration: Robert Johnson, Son House, Tommy Johnson, Bessie Smith, and others. Several are "originals," but stylistically culled from lots of rural blues material, and others are her personal renditions of songs she has heard and studied. This recording should answer her most-often-asked question, "How come a young white girl from NYC was drawn to the blues music of the black rural south of the 1930's?" (ROU3117) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rory Block Ain't I A Woman

This 1992 release is, quite frankly, absolutely superb. The stylistic variety is amazing, for one thing (folk, rock, blues, jazz, gospel, with absolute artistry in each genre); as are her voice and guitar playing, as always. Several songs are about women here, the title cut of course, featuring the words of Sojourner Truth, given a deeply impassioned jazz-tinged treatment by Rory; also includes Sisters and Maggie Campbell. And her renditions of the blues song Cool Drink of Water and the gospel standard Walk in Jerusalem are spectacular. Her best yet, very highly recommended! (ROU3120) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrells Report from Grimes Creek

This 1991 release is the culmination of a career and of a remarkable life. As reflected in thoughts and recollections of the log cabin in Utah in which she grew up and now again lives, she weaves a tale, through song and story, of home, roots, and rural western America. Poignant and articulate. (GL2105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrells Be Careful There's A Baby...

...In the House. We're proud to announce the arrival of The Perfect Gift! It's for those loved ones who are expecting a Little Person to join their household soon — they'll need to learn lullabies, soothing and hostile (Baby Rocking Medley) and stories (Mehitabel and Her Kittens); those with children, so they can be reminded just why they had them in the first place (London Wainwright); those who don't have any kids, and need an excuse to gloat; and yourself, because you deserve the best! Warm, alternately whimsical and ferocious, Rosalie introduces many of the songs with personal observations and stories (great liner notes too), and makes clear her opinion that children and motherhood are sacred, but to be chosen, not required. Includes an emotional reading of Marge Piercy's Right to Life. Recommended! But of course! Please treat yourself and others right now! (GL2100) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrells Travelin' Lady Rides Again

Yes, finally reissued after a long time spent out-of-print, this 1976 album is actually a re-conceptualization of her classic debut album, Travelin' Lady, to date still out of print. From Sylvia Tyson's Trucker's Cafe, to Suzanne Clark's We Were Kinda Crazy Then, to the traditional Bad Girl's Lament, to her own Post Card From India, this is like a great travelogue from one tough but tender lady on the move. (GL2100) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrells Always A Lady

This classic album, one of our favorites from her, is finally back in print! Dedicated "to my mother... who taught me that a lady is someone who never does anything unintentionally vulgar," she starts off with a story-song about her muse, Mehitabel the Cat, and moves into a medley which includes a hostile baby-rocking song... the whole album is worth these two gems! Her gentle, soothing voice flows well with her choices of original and other songs. (GL2110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett Enclosed

The original 1984 release of this album was followed by a traffic accident which took Sally off the road and placed her in a domestic writing period; the LP made its way to Christine Lavin's ears and earned Sally a place with the Four Bitchin' Babes on 2 albums and tours. This debut album shows a lot of promise in the songwriting, more fully realized in her later two; musically, it's a bit sweeter. Remastered and re-released in 1993, this will be a find for fans. (AME97797) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett Unraveled

A woman of many identities, Sally's also known as one of the "4 Bitchin' Babes," and should be considered Shawn Colvin's stylistic soul sister. Indeed, if you were as hooked by Shawn's artistry as we were, do yourself the favor of discovering Sally! Her 10 original songs explore the landscape of the myriad of relationships, whether it's enjoying the nostalgia of an old flame (Smilin' Boy), realizing the nature of her love for her child (The Return), or what sounds like the lament of anyone's parents (He Loved Her So), The Ballad of Harry and Esther... All in all, the treatment is tender and feeling, the music beautiful and her voice warm and evocative. Recommended! (AME977798) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett Ghost Town Girl

Crafted of equal parts empathy and insight, the 11 original songs on this 1993 release highlight Sally's rich and colorful songwriting. More than on previous albums, she addresses an awareness of the difficult, different situations in which women are placed, from the title track to Windows, which explores the onset of "womanhood" (the curse of turning 13) set against the consequences of another woman's backroom abortion (and complemented by background vocals from the Moms for Choice chorus). She's also adept at creating vivid song portraits, which she demonstrates in Mama Gheto Rose and Save Me a Seat, written for a friend whose battle with cancer ended last year. As this album proves, she just keeps getting better. (AME977799) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan Touch

We were introduced to this singer-songwriter when she shared a bill with Holly Near, and here's her debut 1985 release; it features her wide vocal range, gorgeous harmonies, and introspective lyrics. Tape and CD contain one bonus track. (ARI8594) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Sarah McLachlan Solace

We don't have much specific info about this woman, but her voice contains a gorgeous Irish tint, kinda like Sinéad meets Enya, both soft and sweet and as strong and multicolored as polished titanium. Absolutely captivating! The material is mostly original; she writes simple vignettes about longing (Home), and loneliness (Lost), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thorns, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven; instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, guitars, and the packaging is quite impressive, even for a major label. (ARI8531) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin Steady On

Shawn contributes back-up vocals on Suzanne Vega's album (including her best-known song Luka). Suzanne does the same on Shawn's; that simple fact tells you a bit about what to expect here. The debut album by this "acoustic pop" singer-songwriter (whose history includes eight months performing with the Red Clay Ramblers!) features her silvery voice, acoustic guitar and thoughtful lyrics, against a backdrop of tasteful accompaniment. Includes Diamonds in the Rough. (COL45209) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shawn Colvin Fat City

This 1992 release finds the artist's voice stronger than ever, and her growth as a songwriter over is evident in her broadened use of musical styles, instruments, and subject matters. The title of the album, taken from the song Round of Blues, represents a feeling of hope, confidence, and dreams on the verge of coming true — themes which run through the album. Includes Ser the Prairie On Fire, a song so sultry you can feel the heat of the desert. Tennessee, an all-out rocker, and Orion In the Sky, a beautiful love ballad. (COL47122) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Short Sisters A Planet Dancing Slow

Three women (neither short nor sisters) present material which truly reflects their fondness for gorgeous melodies, opportunities for interesting harmonies, and both pertinent and important subject matter. In celebration of their first decade together, they put together this 1991 collection of songs about seasons and changes. Includes two beautiful songs: My Candles (the Chanukah Chase) and Round and Round, plus Queer Bird, The Reign of the Fair Maid, and a song every person who heats with wood will appreciate only too well, More Wood. Recommended! (B5465412) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Smith Sisters A Canary's Song

Geometric harmonies aren't easily described, but rank high among our favorite musical elements; your mind understands the difference between the voices and personalities, while your ear grasps the echo of each in the other, often raising goosebumps! These sisters — Debi on lead vocal, guitar and bodhran; Megan on harmony vocals and bass — possess such a gift, and in this live recording, swing those gorgeous voices through 16 country folk songs: Cheryl Wheeler's Arrow, Barbara Keith's The Bramble & the Rose, several originals. Most illustrate the human condition from a working class perspective with warmth and vigor — and they're fun in concert! (FF616) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Solstice Assembly Under the Drawbridge

Subtitled Music from the 13th to 20th Century, this hour-long 1991 recording of music from every season is performed by the Solstice Assembly (18 singers directed by Jane Peppier), New Hope Harmony, and the Band of Ages: primarily mixed-gender a cappella vocal ensembles, with a few instrumental groupings. They say "Let us take you to the strange worlds we inhabit for an out-of-century experience," and they accomplish that quite successfully! Their repertoire spans centuries, continents, and world-views, with interesting arrangements by Jane Peppier. A most eclectic collection, with an underlying foundation of fun, amusement, humor, and great music. (SKY256) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Solstice Assembly Some Assembly Required

Again the Assembly is joined by the Band of Ages and New Hope Harmony (all from our home area) to bring us 25 songs that span 8 centuries. Self-described as World - Renaissance - More or Less Traditional - Offbeat, this 1993 album has a bit of everything. Between French and British chanteys, a 15th century carol, a Chasidic song in Yiddish, blues and gospel tunes, and madrigals are titles such as Spontaneous Human Combustion (speaks for itself), Double Cheese and Ham (an ode to pizza), and One More Shopping Day (you'll recognize the tune). The unifying theme of these mostly a cappella songs is simply an obvious respect and love for the voice. Direction and most arrangements by Jane Peppier; liner comments note each song's source. It's like a music history lesson you'll truly enjoy — guaranteed to make you smile! (SKY210) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

St. Elmo's Choir White Stocking Day

This 5-woman vocal ensemble from the Pacific Northwest is breaking new ground in the traditionally male genre of maritime music. With strong, hearty voices, they perform the chanteys that sailors sang to the rhythm of their work. All but one are sung a cappella, in a call-and-response style, with all 5 members taking their turns at lead. Most selections have a British Isles feel; however, others are from the Caribbean and the southern US. Includes live and studio recordings, with both sounding very clear. A most unique offering: we guarantee you'll be singing along before you know it! (SEC201) CS: 9.98

The Story The Angel in the House

Jonatha Brooke and Jennifer Kimball's 1993 release, featuring more compelling, touching stories sung with haunting melodies and intense harmonies, has more layered arrangements utilizing more modern technology than that make for a less folksy feel. The depth of their lyrics, along with their quirky outlook, is underscored by a startling yet welcome dissonance. Each song will surprise you and tug at your heart ("You might have told me that love is not enough," from The Gilded Cage) or make you smile ("The church will hold a picnic and Jesus and Elvis will get in free," from When Two and Two are Five, with its funky horns and R&B feel). Another highlight is So Much Mine, a mother's song to a daughter coming of age. Even more highly recommended than their first! (EL51471) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Story Grace in Gravity

Dya know that feeling, when you first hear a new group or artist, where the voices and music reach that perfect synergy and you just sink into a warm relaxation of wonder and pleasure? Well, help yourself to this! These two Boston area women, Jonatha Brooke and Jennifer Kimball, synthesize their voices, lyrics, acoustic and occasional electric accompaniment into a superb arrangement of contemporary folk with jazz and New Acoustic influences — lots of pristine acoustic guitar, floating acoustic bass, and crisp drum work, plus simply angelic vocals (Suzanne Vega meets Jasmine) and poetic, painterly lyrics. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! P.S. — Love the comic-strip feeling of Dog Dreams... (EL61321) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Susan Graham White Rescue

Every once in a while, you hear an artist whose voice seems to jump right off the speakers into your living room... Susan is such an artist. One reviewer described her voice as "unvarnished" — the appeal is in its directness, presence, lack of adornment, honesty, realism. This 1992 debut release from this DC-area artist includes two DC-area themes: Homeless Heart, a song for the homeless, is dedicated to Mitch Snyder; and Facing the Wall expresses the grief experienced by most viewers of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall. She also reflects on love, the seasons, music on the radio, and other universal topics. If you enjoy discovering new talent, put this on your must-have list. (DOP1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Suzanne Vega $9.98

More stylistically adventurous than her previous works, or maybe just grayer, her fourth album unfolds like a movie, as acknowledged in If You Were in My Movie. Always the lone visual reporter out on the ledge, she illuminates little slices of life with her laser vision, refracting her communications through billowing curtains and edges of the heart, pulsing out, beat after beat, the truths sometimes too sanguine to view directly. Blood Makes Noise speaks from that lonely place where the inner din makes outside contact undesirable, even impossible; the body's "strange information" is perused, detachedly missing on a male-to-female transsexual's success in As Girls Go; and she fixes a fierce eye on a mother's daughter rift as the result of Bad Wisdom. Take off your shades, uncover your heart and treat yourself... Recommended! (AM5) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Suzanne Vega

Already likened to Canadian counterparts Ferron and Jane Siberry for her poetic lyrics and emotional intensity, Suzanne Vega is rapidly gaining national attention for her debut album. While the crisp and sparkling instrumental arrangements alone are enough to recommend it, it is the subtly-layered lyrical complexity that puts it in this reviewer's all-time Top 10 — using colorful analogies and stark images, the effect sparks recognition and identification with the situations she illustrates, however obliquely... Highly recommended. (AM5072) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Suzi Katz

Short, painterly poetic vignettes, backed by imagistic, lush arrangements of acoustic bass, percussion and guitar. Suzi's voice is strong, rich, luminous — she's been compared to Joni Mitchell, and with good reason! Her songs appear to rise up, mist-like, capturing a mood or landscape in simple terms, dispelling the underlying sophistication. Highlights include an evocative interplay between two songs, He Aye and But I Forget, an invocation to The People, and the plaintive Whisper Low. Highly recommended! (ESD8064) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Theories of the Old School Time to Heal

Tight, interesting instrumentation, crafted phrasing, and thoughtful lyrics characterize this captivating ensemble composed of 2 female singer/songwriter instrumentalists and a male percussionist. Using guitars, flutes, Chapman Stick, congas, piano and various percussion, Theories harmonizes its way through a range of original songs covering subjects from love to nuclear waste; includes Last Dolphin, Yucca Mountain, title. By the way, this is almost the same album which was previously released under the title Even the Navajo. Recommended! (CUE21992) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman

At last you can hear the young singer/songwriter everyone's been talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary; her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Takin' Soul A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL60774) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman Crossroads

The second release by this Grammy-winning artist is an exploration into new styles and techniques, while maintaining her tradition of exposing life's realities through often haunting ballads: a worthy follow-up to her first album! (EL60888) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman Matters of the Heart

This 1992 release captures ten original songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her folk-rock melodies and lyrical, lyrical compassion. Her evocative vibrato soars with hope on Dreaming On a World; Bang Bang Bang turns an unblinking eye on the frightening realities of the urban poor; while Open Arms is a love song for real people in an often harsh world; also includes Woman's Work, I Used To Be a Sailor. Throughout the album, her voice rings clear and her visions shine true. (EL61215) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Various/producer: Christine Lavin On A Winter's Night

Subtitled The Best of the New Singer/Songwriters, as well as Ballads to Warm the Heart, this anthology includes songs by several artists that make it well worth the purchase price. Firstly is Heaven, a gorgeous song written and performed by Julie Gold, author of the now-very-famous From A Distance... I forwarded right to this out, and was not disappointed! (So where's her solo album??) Also included are selections by the 3 other Bilchin' Babes — Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, and Megan McDonough — as well as Cheryl Wheeler, and other women and men. Christine has done lots over the years to create exposure for artists, which we really appreciate, and you will too! (NS0028) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Various/producer: Christine Lavin When October Goes

Subtitled Autumn Love Songs, this lovely collection features some of today's best folk artists offering their favorite songs about that sad, quiet season. Opening with Cheryl Wheeler's sweetly gorgeous, When Fall Comes to New England, and including songs by (we dare you to figure this one out!) 5 of the 4 Bilchin' Babes (Christine, Megan McDonough, Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, Julie Gold), and others. 15 songs in all, over half by women. Four yourself a cup of tea, light a few candles, and settle in for a cozy evening with this warm recording! (PH1143) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Victoria Williams Swing the Statue!

We've had several requests again for this artist, and we've located some copies of this title, even though it's technically out of print. Steeped with the homespun charm of her native Louisiana, yet sophisticated enough to stand out on the artsy L.A. acoustic scene, Victoria's music is funky and surprising and beautiful. This 1990 album is full of dissonance and minor keys as well as wild imagery. Her voice — sometimes high and thin like a little girl's, sometimes deeper and fuller, sometimes raggedy and energetic — is accompanied by a full range of instruments, from cowbells to mambos to pedal steel. Unique! (RTR50) CS: 7.98 ... CD: 13.98

Dixie Chicks Little Ol' Cowgirl

On to their second, 1992 release; here they present a little less bluegrass and a little more country, with a bit of doo-wop and even the jazzy original Pink Town. Good choices in covers too: includes an interesting bluegrass version of Sam Cooke's You Send Me, and a raring take on Mary Chapin Carpenter's A Road to Just A Road. Be sure to not miss! (CCR8250) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dixie Chicks Thank Heavens for Dale Evans

This very last minute addition to our 1993 catalog has been pre-requested and suggested, so we're glad we can offer it even though we don't even have time to review it properly! This music from an all-women's ensemble on their 1990 debut release, a perfect blend of country, bluegrass, and western swing played with impressive vocal skill and sterling vocal harmonies. (CCR9103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dolly Parton, L. Ronstadt, E Harris Trio

This long-awaited collaboration by 3 top country artists—Dolly, Linda and Emmylou—includes Wildflowers, Those Memories of You, Hobo's Meditation, Farther Along, Sweet. (WB25491) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Emmylou Harris Bluebird

Favored by some as her best recording, this 1988 effort certainly shines! Always a "songwriter's singer", she chooses material here which testifies her strongest vocal trait—the ability to break your heart in just a few notes! Joined by Bonnie Raitt, Kate and Anna McGarrigle and a host of other talented folks, songs include the McGarrigles' Love Is, her original A River for Him, John Hiatt's By Blue Heart, and the rollicking Heartbreak Hill. (REP25776) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Evangeline

Crankin' out of the bayous of Louisiana, this pop/country all-woman quintet blends foot stompin' rhythms with a touch of soulful balladry for a full range of auditory pleasures. They lyrics are a bit mainstream on some songs, but the themes and music are unique. Includes Hurricane, Gulf Coast Highway, San Temps La Louisiana, and Hey Rene. This ain't no zydeco, but this New Orleans native gives it two thumbs up! (MCA10582) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heather Myles
Just Like Old Times

With the pathos of Patsy Cline and the guts of Wynonna, this country newcomer is on the right path. In our opinion! She's got a strong deep voice, a pretty healthy respect for the older country queens' styles (check out her homage to Patsy Cline on Why I'm Walkin'), and some good songwriting skills. The production here is crisp, the musicians are great, strong rockin' honky-tonk sound, and we hope she'll make it big! And, you might find some good one-dancing tunes on here. (HT8035) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Iris DeMent Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelina by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Dory). Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Hotter Than Mojave in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing—she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. (WB45235) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Judds
Wynonna and Naomi

Some great songs for you line dancers and 2-steppers: Had A Dream, Blue Nun Cafe, and Cry Myself to Sleep, plus their major hit Mama He's Crazy, as well as Naomi's original Change of Heart. 6 songs in all from this beloved mother-daughter duo. (RCA8402) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

K.T. Oslin
Greatest Hits

We couldn't resist anything subtitled Songs From an Aging Sex Bomb, and neither can you! Includes her best stuff, just like the title says, including 20's Ladies, This Woman, Get Back in the Saddle, and 8 more. (RCA68227) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kathy Mattea
A Collection of Hits

Kathy was nominated for country singer of the year in 1990, gaining her much-deserved recognition, and this album is a taste of all of her best. From the first cut, a rendition of Nancy Griffith's Love at the Five and Dime, she demonstrates her ability to make a song her own. This album also includes Walk the Way the Wind Blows, Trail of Memories, and 10 Wheels and a Dozen Roses. A must for all long time Kathy Mattea fans and new converts. (PLG842330) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lucinda Williams

This 1988 album created quite a buzz. Her delivery is straightforward and frank, expressing in her songs an approach to love she feels is an outgrowth of feminism—a wish to have what she wants, live as she wants. She has a great country voice, strains of Louisiana and Texas, and the back-up is tasteful, just country enough. (CHM61367) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lucinda Williams
Passionate Kisses — 5-Song EP

This specially-priced EP contains 4 new live performances—a new version of Side of the Road, plus 3 previously unreleased songs—in addition to the title cut, which is from her self-titled album—now back in print. (CHM61388) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 11.98

Lucinda Williams
Happy Woman Blues

Lady-slipper carried this 1980 recording years ago! Scheduled for re-release in 1990 in all formats, it's a country blues recording consisting of original tunes which deserves a spot in your Lucinda Williams collection. (SF40003) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lucinda Williams
Sweet Old World

Sweet new album! This 1992 collection of 12 originals is just short through with honey and lemonade—Lucinda is a fantastic songwriter, weaving stories about people we've all known, and her voice and delivery have much of the same warmth and emotional depth as Jennifer Warnes'. Includes Hot Blood, Memphis Pearl. Really, really, really recommended! (CHM61351) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lucinda Williams
Ramblin'

Recorded in 1978, this album reminds us that few artists have shared Lucinda's ability to get to the heart of country blues. She brings to the songs of Robert Johnson, Memphis Minnie and others, her already distinctive sound, filled with melancholy yet powerfully direct. Remastered and re-released in 1991. (SF40042) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Hometown Girl

Her 1987 debut album contains title, Harves and Heroines, A Lot Like Me, Other Streets and Other Towns, and more—mostly originals, with her falsetto voice being the reason you just gotta have this. We didn't know about this in 1987, but are glad we do now! (COL40758) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
State of the Heart

If you weaken at the knees at the sound of a great voice, this is for you. This rising star has one of the strongest, sweetest, most wonderful voices in contemporary country music, and this 1989 album is a testament to her songwriting, vocal, and instrumental talents. Includes Read My Lips, This Shirt, Down in Mary's Land, Quiltin' Time, and back-up vocals by her good friend Shawn Colvin! (COL44226) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Come On Come On

Her spectacularly smooth voice and suggestive, often hard-hitting, lyrics make a great combination once again on this 1992 release—she blends her country/folk rhythms with some feminist messages that should make many men think twice! He Thinks He'll Keep Her looks at the motivations of many housewives who choose the road instead of their husbands, while The Hard Way will remind many women to appreciate how far we've come against odds man never faces. Also includes a great rendition of Lucinda Williams' Passionate Kisses, and the outstanding title cut. Some background vocals by Indigo Girls, Shawn Colvin, Roseanne Cash. (COL48891) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Shooting Straight in the Dark

This 1990 release of mostly original songs confirms the promise of the earlier albums of this city girl gone country. Flaming from raucous and highly danceable cuts such as Right Now and Down at the Twist and Shout to the plaintive ballad of The More Things Change, these songs are about looking for love and love lost. Shawn Colvin makes a guest appearance on The Moon and Saint Christopher. Strongly suggested. (COL48077) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Other Voices, Other Rooms

On this 1993 album, Nanci, an interpreter extraordinaire, performs 17 classic songs by her favorite writers, including Kate Wolf (Across the Great Divide), Bob Dylan (Boots of Spanish Leather), Malvina Reynolds (Turn Around), Tom Paxton, Woody Guthrie, John Prine, and others. Guest artists include Emmylou Harris, the Indigo Girls, Odette, Arlo Guthrie and Iris DeMent; includes Woman of the Phoenix, Morning Song for Sally, From Clare to Here. Quite a tribute to great songwriting! (EL61464) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
There's A Light Beyond These Woods

The title song is a touching original ballad to her childhood best friend, Mary Margaret, many other originals of love, lost dreams, and her Texan home. Lovely acoustic guitar and vocal! Eric Taylor on one lead vocal. Recommended. (PH1097) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Late Night Grande Hotel

On this 1991 release, this "loquacious" artist continues her tradition of singing "stories and vignettes of life"—her literate short story-songs with deftly-drawn characters. Highlight is Heaven, another jewel by Julie Gold, of From A Distance fame (and in fact, you can hear Julie herself sing this on the folk compilation On A Winter's Night, under Various Artists in our Folk Section). Also included are duets with Tanita Tikaram (It's Too Late Now) and Phil Everly (It's Just Another Morning Here). (MCA10305) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
One Fair Summer Evening

This 1988 release, recorded live in concert, contains Looking For the Time (Workin' Girl), Trouble in the Fields, favorites From A Distance, Once in a Very Blue Moon, and more, on her only bare-boned acoustic album to date. Intimately communicates the ambience of her musical herstory—the club it was recorded in, Anderson Fair, where she received much of her musical education when she was growing up. (MCA42255) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Lone Star State of Mind

Underscoring her full-fledged move into the country arena, her first major-label release comes complete with dobro and pedal-steel backup. Includes In the Distance, Sing One for Sister, Cold Hearts, Closed Minds, For Ecocline (for Rosalie Sorrels and Kate Wolf), Trouble in the Fields, about the difficulties of the farmers, and a re-recording of the sweet tribute to her best childhood friend, There's A Light Beyond These Woods (Mary Margaret). Highly recommended—a favorite in the Slipper office! (MCA8927) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Storms

This 1989 release, like her previous titles, is another great traveling companion: primarily original ballads, with images of the road, driving with music playing, and the country south. Includes Drive-In Movies and Dashboard Lights. It's A Hard Life Wherever You Go. (MCA8319) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Once in a Very Blue Moon

Nanci's third release has a real country rock sound that makes you want to grab your favorite partner and dance. Daddy Said is among her best, followed closely behind by Ballad of Robin Hunter-Smith. Her style, though definitely Texan, brings to mind this reviewer's time spent in the El Dorado Hotel in Weedsport, NY—got the picture? If you like Roseanne Cash, Bonnie Raitt, or Emmylou Harris, you're sure to love Nanci. (PH1095) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Poet In My Window

A beautifully self-produced album of original country-style songs, dedicated to Marilyn Monroe and Carson McCullers, among others. Fine voice and harmonies with tasteful accompaniment. Includes Marilyn Monroe/Neon and Waitress. Julie Anne, Heart of a Miner. (PH1096) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
The Last of the True Believers

Nanci's 4th album is beautifully filled out with acoustic instrumentation, providing a perfect backdrop for her vignettes of Americans, her voice smooth and silvery as ever. Nanci is rapidly becoming one of the top country/folk performers. (PH109) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline
20 Golden Hits

Lots of her greats: I Fall to Pieces, Walking After Midnight, Crazy, Hungry for Love, I'm Blue Again, The Heart You Break May Be Your Own, and 14 more. (DLX7587) CS: 6.98

Patsy Cline
Greatest Hits

For some, hard to listen to without an image of Jessica Lange! Twelve songs which represent the apex of Patsy's long country-blues career, including Crazy, I Fall to Pieces, Sweet Dreams (Of You), Walking After Midnight, She's Got You. Her exceptional voice epitomizes emotion and heart; recommended! (MCA12) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance
Western Dream

From several opening dates for K.d. lang to their 1990 debut women's festival performances, this 4-woman trad-but-rad band has brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythms, hot instrumental work and wild yodeling to thousands of new fans around the country! Perfect for 2-stepping or any other partner dancing you'd care to do, as well as feet-stomping and finger-snapping, their old standards like Why Don't You Love Me (Like you Used To) and Lovesick Blues are mixed with originals by lead vocalist Jo Miller: her Baby's On the Town features heartbreak Jo singing of her woman lover who's playing town. Highly recommended! (SUG3799) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blue Blazes

This 1991 release is a hot mix of "regressive country" originals, incorporating acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing, characterized by thoughtful original lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass. It has been described as L.D. Lang and Patsy Cline meet Bob Wills. Includes The Buckaroo, which could be called an oral version of Thelma & Louise. Look for more tour dates on the East Coast! (SUG3794) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance

Flip City

This flamboyant band sashays into Flip City loaded for action and ready to knock you out! This 1993 release features hot songs, death-defying yodeling, tight-as-leather harmony, and a solid western beat... with Jo Miller's big-as-the-sky vocals and heartfelt original songs. Nova Devonia's colorful accordion riffs, Barbara Lamb's fiddle fairs, Nancy Katz driving the beat on bass, and David Keenan's jazz swing guitar stylings. Invite them to your oow town today! (SUG3813) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosanne Cash

The Wheel

Passit! Hey, don't tell anybody but I really like this album. I don't usually like country music, because it's usually about trains and guns and whiskey and somebody doin' somebody wrong. But this is music with the sophisticated, metaphysical theme of the wheel, death and rebirth, old loves and new loves, personal growth and transformation. On the final track, If There's a God On My Side, it's a wonderful surprise to hear "Why don't she show me her face? Could she not hear me call?" Rosanne's also joined by Mary-Chapin Carpenter and Patty Lahti on the title track. Recommended for country, folk, and pop music fans. (COL52729) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rosie Flores

After the Farm

Yo know, I wanted a lot more info from the liner notes about this. Telenova with the whiskey voice, big guitar and dusty - from the - road songs that who did her hair and makeup (not that they didn't do a great job or anything, but unless you're gonna include city or phone numbers, forget it. I'll have to stick with Jon Jon down at Hairandall. Anyway, she's got a great sound, kinda California rock meets Tex-Mex country (one of the few women doing it), with fantastic voice, her own fantastic electric guitar, a 4-boy back-up band with touches of lap steel and slide guitars... love to see her in a club sometime! She wrote or co-wrote all the songs here, including the great opening track, More To Offer, with its somewhat feminist message. So pull up a stool, pour yourself a long cool one and let Rosie do the rest... Recommended! (HTB033) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tim Williams

Croole Nightingale

Yes Tim's a woman, and yes the power of her deep voice might send you through the ceiling! It's clear why she's the best loved female country singer in Louisiana, and why she's raised 10,000 people to their feet at the New Orleans Jazz Festival—she has the makings of a superstar. If you're a country fan who has ever wished for a little more gusto in the voices of female vocalists, here's your ticket. Includes Laissez Le Bon Temps Roulez, Make Your Woman Feel Wanted, Steppin' Out Blues. Recommended! (GS11022) CS: 9.98

Wynonna Judd

Wynonna

Flying solo on this 1992 release, Naomi's daughter holds true to the pure, soft country sound she and her mom were famous for. Includes the hit song She Is His Only Need, the inspirational When I Reach the Place I'm Goin', and a heartfelt ballad of unrequited love in My Strongest Weakness. And she jazzes things up a bit with the hit single, No One Else On Earth. Sure to please any Judds fan! (MCA10529) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Wynonna Judd

Tell Me Why

Be still my throbbing heart! This sultry, passionate and proud singer with a voice the size of Cincinnati, truly out from behind her mama's shadow, steps forward on this 1993 release with 10 contemporary tunes, styles ranging from a Delta swing to a scorching gospel, with ballads and hit-the-floor dance tunes in between. Hope, devastation and redemption are her main themes, and she'll bring you to your knees with the emotion she wrings out of each piece. Includes M.C. Carpentier's Girls With Guitars, a couple of Jesse Winchester gems, and one we'd like to hear Teresa Trull cover, Only Love. If you're a country fan, you'll know her; if you're a two-step refugee, sure you can't stand another 4/4 with a twang, do yourself a favor and get this! (MCA10822) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Babes in Toyland

Fontanelle

Customers have suggested this 3-woman hard-core band to us. They are loud, nasty, angry, and... did I mention loud? If you are looking to possibly perforate your eardrums while slumming, this is for you! Everybody into the mosh pit! (REP25598) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Belly

Star

A really terrific 1993 album by former Throwing Muses guitarist - vocalist and queen of feedback (the guitar kind) Tanya Donelly, who with her band performs danceable pop tunes as well as some darker, more psychedelic numbers. Fans of Throwing Muses are sure to enjoy this venture from Tanya who added a woman to her touring band because she wanted gender equity in their stage presence. Belly has been reviewed everywhere in the mainstream press — this is non-mainstream music for a wide audience. Put it on and sing, dance, and play your air guitar around the house; highly recommended for those who expect more from their pop bands. (51R45187) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bikini Kill

This 6-song EP belongs on vinyl; I haven't heard anything so intense, angry, and personal since the days of vinyl. Ex-stripper turned riot grrrl Kathleen Hanna coos, screams and rages with a potency that's uncomfortable and unnerving... backed by a mostly female punk-inspired band, who're all really pissed off. It's hard to describe the band without explaining the riot grrrl movement that they helped form in a very nebulous, underground way, but the band and the movement combine power, anger and sexuality into a strange feminist brew that (thankfully) shocks and inspires. Look for more from Bikini Kill; they've finished recording a few songs with producer Joan Jett. Revolution Grrrl Style Now! (KRS204) LP: 7.98

Alternative Rock

Bratmobile

Pottymouth

Some people try to pin this 3-woman band as having some musical resemblance to Bikini Kill just because the two bands have done fanzines and other ventures together, but nothing could be so untrue. Bratmobile is simple, grubby, 90's garage-style pop songs stripped to the barest minimum instrumentally (guitar - Eric Smith and drums - Molly Neuman) with the most four-mouthed and bitter 22-year-old singer (vocals - Allison Wolfe) you've ever heard. Not for the faint of heart; includes Slab, Fuck It, Fans, Bitch Theme, Juwanna (Fuck U.), Cherry Bomb, and Pink, sort of a "lesbian-friendly" song. (KRS208) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Concrete Blonde

Walking in London

Remember when you fell in love with the Pretenders? Well, prepare to fall in love again! This 3-piece band is led by bassist/songwriter Johnette Napolitano, and she penned all the songs on this feminist-leaning 1992 album except James Brown's It's A Man's World. She's deep and dark on City Screaming, quirky and funny on Ghost of a Texas Ladies' Man, knowingly cynical on I Wanna Be Your Friend Again, and just plain great on Woman to Woman. Recommended to anyone who likes a strong tough woman's voice. By the way, Johnette's hair is not blonde. (IRS13137) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance

A Passage in Time

This duo consists of Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry, but from the sounds they create, you'd think there were at least 6 of them! Australians of Anglo-Irish descent, they find their musical inspiration in the musics of the Middle Ages through the early Renaissance, or for us history junkies, from the 12th through the 15th centuries... and they're a rock band! Lisa's gorgeous voice rings like a bell, vibrates like a flute, soars like a bird — plainly, one of the most distinctive singers of the decade! Includes Song of Sôphie, The Host of Seraphim, The Song of the Sybil, Spirit, plus 12 more. This 1991 recording isn't like anything you've heard lately, at least not for the past 5 or future 2 centuries! Heavenly! (RYK215) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Diamanda Galas

Plague Mass (Double-Length)

The powerful, dramatic and controversial work of this unusual vocalist/composer finds its pinnacle in this monumental piece, subtitled (1984—End of The Epidemic). Recorded live at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in NYC in 1990, it has been described by The Washington Post as a "literally stunning 90-minute scream-opera about those who suffer from AIDS and those who dare to judge them." And the New York Times said, "Galas is a kind of terrorist. She sabotages old ways of making music just as she is an unsettling presence in the cold war against AIDS." (MUT01043) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Diamanda Galas

The Singer

Operatic anarchy, gothic emotional rampages... this is how Diamanda's usual work would be characterized. Focusing on death and morbidity after her brother succumbed to AIDS, she became an imposing performer on the NYC scene. This 1992 recording is a collection of ten gospel and blues standards, interpreted as only Diamanda could, with just her deep-deep voice and a piano, includes I Put a Spell On You, Glorious Sunday, Balm in Gilead. See That My Grave Is Kept Clean, Judgement Day. (MUT61278) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Ellen James Society

Reluctantly We

This 2-woman 2-man band combines the riveting energy of the punk movement with post-punk intricacy and accuracy... their music demands attention, captivating the listener both musically and lyrically. Lots of Indigo Girls connections: the album features a live cut recorded with them; the two ensembles have been touring together; this record label was created by Amy Ray of the Indigo Girls; and she co-produced it with the 2 women of the band; Chris McGuire and Cooper Seay. You might recognize The Society's name from The World According to Garp; Ellen James was a woman whose tongue was cut out by her rapist, and many women cut out their own tongues to express their support for her. (DAE01) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ellen James Society

The Survivors Parade

Their second (1992) release spins punchy with pop sensibilities and underground attitude, expanding their trademark loud guitar sound with slide and bowed guitar, cello, trumpet and more vocal interplay... a logical progression of the Ellen James sound. Includes Resistance, Proper Rocker, Squinting at the Sun, and 7 others. (DAE5054) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Fluke

Cough It Up

Remember the DC women's rock band, Squeeze Loluse? Here are two of the original members (ex-Slipper Flo Hollis and Robyn Griffin) plus Kris Koth and John McKay back for more original thrash and smash rock 'n' roll 7 songs in all on their 1992 release, including a redone version of Wine Hangers, plus Mama's Gun, Lunatic Mythology, and Naked Bunch. Even features the closest they'll ever get to a ballad, the majestic Isle of Love ("dreamed I dove into the dark green sea/woke on the shore between your knees..."). Recommended! (FLK0002) CS: 7.98

4 Non Blondes

Bigger, Better, Faster, More!

This San Francisco band (3 women, 1 man) presents a delightful mixture of funky-punky rock, blues, and ballads. Singer/songwriter/guitarist Linda Perry sounds like Pat Jeffries (The Harems); meets Johnette Napolitano (Concrete Blonde) at a Janis Joplin festival. This 1992 album contains songs about love, life, politics and society, and, of course, drugs. (INT92112) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Happy Rhodes Volume I

Most debut releases are a bit tentative, and usually rightly so. However, this upstate New York native debuted herself into the music world with a double cassette (this, plus Volume II) in 1986, obviously having no qualms about showing herself — and how thrilled we are that she's here! Incredible voice, lots of dramatic synthesizer, plus her earlier work such as this album is also characterized by lovely acoustic interludes. The artwork is an original painting of something hungry-looking (but of Clive Barker's "Cabe"?). Highly recommended (a comment you're going to be reading frequently among the next few listings!) (AG007) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Volume II

If you haven't read the review of Volume I yet, please do so now, then order them both. In fact, read on, and get them all! I promise you won't regret it, unless the covers give you nightmares, or something (and if they do, perhaps this is the time to check out that great therapist your friends keep recommending). Includes Under and Over the Brink, One Alien, To the Funnymen, The Revelation. (AG008) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Rearmament

More electronic than her first two releases, this 1986 recording contains shades of early Kate Bush (most notably Lionheart): lovely ethereal vocals, multi-layered melodies that reach right in and hook you, and wry, quirky lyrics. Her first 3 albums were released within the same year, all we can assume is that she's been singing, songwriting and playing since the early embryonic stages, given the high level of sophistication and all-around superb quality. Includes The Perfect Ironic I Am a Legend, Dreams Are, Crystal Orbs, Atty Ally Christmas. Also some stylistic references to Cocteau Twins, Love this artist, and each of her recordings! (AG0011) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Ecto

Happy has a voice which will be (exhaustively) compared to Kate Bush and Annie Lennox: there's just no way to avoid the comparisons, but her voice is a bit darker, say in the gothic-apocalyptic vein — or, rather, lots of blood red roses and peeling wallpaper kind-of moods... Anyway, it's just the greatest voice, and when she self-harmonizes, the result is just heavenly! The instrumentation is highly melodic and sometimes heavy synth, with sprightly counterpoints — "complex and labyrinthine but at the same time totally natural." This 1987 release is her 4th; highly recommended! (AG0013) CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Warpaint

This 1991 release, Happy's 5th (not bad for a mere babe of 26!) and most polished to date, "drifts into the listener's psyche like urgently whispered messages from the spirit world." This self-confessed music addict brings a fresh energy to our collection of electronic/experimental music by combining fly-on-the-wall observations of life and living with an impressive array of electronic effects, plus a touch of haunting European-ish violin... The result is warmer than most synthesizer recordings, mostly due to her voice, which remains primarily in the lower registers here (Annie Lennox, is she yours?). Her bold and beautiful expression, vision and artistry account for her large cult following, which we predict you'll be joining as soon as you experience her. Highly recommended! (AG0017) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Empoise

Vampires, angels, symbionts, aliens — this visionary artist seems to possess a multiplicity of perception; insights combined with prophecy, like floating in water and looking both above and below the surface at the same time — things get kinda wavy and never stop moving... Musically, the mood on this 1993 release is very languid, with a simpler musical structure (though still many multi-layered vocals) than in her previous recordings. Sweet, melancholy rhythms spiced with her amazing vocals — on several cuts she self-harmonizes in extreme high and low registers, and you'll be constantly reminding yourself that this isn't a Kate & Annie duet! We'll probably keep highly recommending this artist for years to come... but we advise you to check her out now! (AG0019) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Happy Rhodes RhodeSongs

This 1993 retrospective contains some tracks from previously released albums; some from a radio-only CD called HRS, which features some incredible acoustic versions of Save Our Souls, Feed the Fire, and Bowie's classic Ashes to Ashes; plus a new one or two. If you're not familiar with Happy Rhodes, this is a great way to experience the breadth of her talent, and see what all the commotion's about; and if you're a fan already, you'll just have to have it. (AG0021) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hole Pretty On the Inside

Those of you who follow Madonna's every move may have heard about Hole — they were the first band she wanted to sign when she acquired her own record label (but so far hasn't). Even though her musical style couldn't be more different from this 3-woman 1-man band's grungy punk, there's a similarity: they both push their limits as far as they can. Lead singer Courtney Love (who says, "We're coming at things with a more feminine, lunar viewpoint. There's been so much white male posturing in rock that what's really important to me is getting across the female perspective — and that includes both rage and vulnerability") has a voice from hell that you want to make love to and run from at the same time. This 1991 album's been compared to Patti Smith's Horses — it's a raw nerve, completely uncensored. Kim Gordon of Sonic Youth produced this gut-wrenching, pissed off piece of work; highly recommended for those that can handle it. (CAR1710) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Insane Jane A Green Little Pill

This Georgia-based band, who recently played at the Atlanta Gay Pride celebration, has audiences and critics alike responding to their passionate vocals, singing guitar lines and rock steady rhythm session. The one female in the 4-person band — of course, the center around which it all revolves — is founder/lead vocalist/lyricist Yellow, whose vocals are fantastic; full and earthy, at one moment delicate and beautiful, relentless and raging the next, inspiring comparisons by various reviewers to Grace Slick, Patti Smith, Janis Joplin, Exene Cervera, and Johnette Napolitano of Concrete Blonde. This 1991 album includes Empress of Poo, She Is Falling, Once I... Your Mouth. Recommended! (SKR5040) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Insane Jane Each Finger

In this second, 1993 offering from the Georgia band, lead singer/longtime Yellow demands to know, "Is this a game?" The answer is emphatically "No!" This is hard, nasty, loud alternative rock. Her wailing vocals deliver up songs full of feminist imagery, as she sings about an erotic dancer (Daisy), rails against organized Christian religion (I Won't Stand), and even gives us sexual candy metaphors (Lollipop Serenade). This is serious business! (SKR5041) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry Bound By the Beauty

Another brilliant creation from this Canadian artist with the ethereal voice! Recorded at a small studio in the middle of an apple orchard, the pastoral environment makes its influence felt throughout. A primary theme is her relationship to nature, and how much less complicated it is than her relationship to people. Lyrically, she creates musical snapshots that capture the quirky way she interprets the world: Hockey Hall Angel, Half Eagle, Something About Trains are full of these small frozen moments... Musically, she has moved away from synthesizers, and the sounds are drawn from country, rock, jazz and Latin idioms. A definite highlight is Everything Reminds Me of My Dog, a great lesson in how the whole world can be seen through a canine lens. (REP25942) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry No Borders Here

One of the most highly recommended recordings in our catalog and even better than her first: lyrically and instrumentally adventuresome, features beautiful harmonies and harmonies, electricity takes you on a journey. Includes Dancing Class, Waitress, Extra Executives, Symmetry. Like new air for old, tired, cynical ears. The form here is more rock/new wave (not acoustic) and again we don't know which category to place it in: Your record collection, perhaps? (OAG302) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry

The first release by an artist most of you are familiar with (we hope), this Toronto-based musician has, for good reason, been likened to Joni Mitchell, Dory Previn, and the Roches, and we'd add Ferron to that, but she's too quirky to really be like anyone else. These are clever, imaginative original songs; Jane accompanies her voice with ringing harmonies plus guitar, piano, synthesizer, and co-produced on her label. There isn't an accurate category for this album... it has strains of folk and even punk, in her bizarre sense of humor. One of the best here is The Mystery of Cyprien Farm, a lament for a cow who disappeared. Our endorsement is qualified by the lyrics to one song which promote a generalized, oppressive misconception about why fat women are fat (fear of being attractive to men)... but all in all, the strengths outweigh this flaw, and we highly recommend this for all the other cuts. (STR002) LP: 6.98 CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry When I Was A Boy

This 1993 release, a brilliantly conceived set of impressionistic songs and visions, combines innovation with accessibility. A highlight is her memorably unearthly duet with k.d. lang, Calling All Angels, which first appeared on the Until The End Of The World soundtrack (lang's long-time music/business cohort Ben Mink also experiences violence on this track)... also includes Sail Across the Water, The Gospel According to Darkness, and Sweet Incarnade. Co-produced by Brian Eno. So it has a weird title; she's still one of our all-time favorite artists! (REP25824) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Bush Hounds of Love

This 1985 recording resembles little in Kate's previous discography. Images of spirituality and conflicting layers of consciousness pervade: myth and reality merge and split love and life and death and rebirth — you'll be lucky to land with your feet on the ground! Instrumentation is similarly textured: subtle vocals and piano peek through wave after wave of electronically-altered keyboards, drums, vocals, a wide array of synthesizers. Side 2 is subtitled "The Ninth Wave" in reference to Tennyson's The Coming of Arthur. Highly, highly recommended for the acoustically challenged. (EMI17171) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Bush The Whole Story

This is a BEST OF album, with some of her most well-known cuts from previous recordings including Babooshka, Wow, Breathing, Wuthering Heights, Hounds of Love, The Dreaming. (EMI17242) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

L7

Not exactly a romp thru the old yearbook, this release of their debut 1988 album of 11 slammin' tracks shows the grungy roots of these wild Madonnas' early creative years ("please, sir, I'd like to be a cultural terrorist when I grow up" was probably on their little minds when they were in kindergarten!). Plenty of throbbing bass and guitar, scorched vocals, convulsive drums. Includes 9/11 the Way Tadpole, Mis-48, Snake Handler, Car O' Nine Tails. (EPT88401) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bricks Are Heavy

Finally! Punk by women whose gender is consequential only because there are so few women in the genre. This 1992 album has everything: buzz saw guitars, raspy voices, kick-ass lyrics. These 4 women are unafraid and they believe real rock n' roll isn't pretty... they're not chicks with lots of hair holding guitars looking cute; they're for real, and will show that fact down your throat if you get a chance to see them live. And if you like your bands to be politically correct, L7 helped found "Rock for Choice." Contains the college radio favorite Pretend We're Dead, an anthem to non-conformity. (SLK28784) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Smell the Magic

They drop their drawers on stage, spit on reporters, defy just about every social norm that comes their way — gotta love 'em just for that, but they also play some of the best "hard rock" (too like a term for them, but they're a bit too sophisticated for the term "grunge") on the scene today. Love Fast and Frightening ("She makes the straight girls wanna be dykes..."), also Broomstick and Packer, A Rod. 1991. (SUB00079) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Anderson Mister Heartbreak

Oh, Missus Lady! This album will put you under Laurie Anderson's magical spell, as she takes you on a journey through lush, surreal musical landscapes. The high level of structural and emotional diversity seems impossible to attain, but the universal result will reach into the tender depths of any listener's soul. Gorgeous instrumentation (Korean kayagum, synclavier, electronic conches, shekere, violin, bells, wood blocks, guitars, bass, bamboo, to name a few) with help from such talents as Roma Baran, Peter Gabriel, Bill Laswell, Anton Fier, William Burroughs, Phoebe Snow... Songs include: Kokaku, Blue Lagoon, Excellent Birds, Sharky's Day, Sharky's Night, Gravity's Angel. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed. (WB25077) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Anderson Strange Angels

Two intense years in the making, this 1989 release is Laurie's most direct to date, more melodic, with Laurie somehow more emotionally exposed than in previous recordings. Her vocal abilities are more upfront (than she's a soprano!), and she incorporates vocal contributions from such greats as Bobbie McFerrin and the Roches. Includes Beautiful Red Dress, a paean to her period ("look out baby! I'm at high tide") with sarcastic references to unequal pay for equal work ("for every dollar a man makes a woman makes 63 cents. Now, fifty years ago that was 62 cents. So, with that kind of luck, it'll be the year 3,888 before we make a buck"). Angels are another Mary theme, and their counterparts, devils, too. A significant piece in the developing vision of this artist — recommended. (WB25900) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Anderson
Big Science

This excellent album is a wonderfully bizarre compilation of poetic musings taken from an original body of work entitled United States (IV). The rhythm and flow of the lyrics are enhanced by the synthetic re-structuring of Laurie's voice... various electronic "instruments" and synthesizers work to render it from a clipped and almost inhuman chant to an echo-y and dreamlike narration... spooky fun! Songs include: Sweaters, O Superman, It Tango. Co-produced by the talented Roma Baran. Highly recommended. (WB3674) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Madder Rose
Bring It Down

I first heard the song Swim on our college radio station and was immediately struck by how fresh and original it sounded in a sea of fresh and original music. Singer Mary Larson's voice has been compared to Suzanne Vega's and Juliana Hatfield's... and there's the grungy, buzzing guitar droning below the lead for that Cowboy Junkies/My Bloody Valentine atmosphere. Comparisons run rampant, but in the end the sound is their own and they do it so well. Includes the slow hip-hop of Swim, the instrumental guitar waltz Pocket Puffa Medicine, the early punk-influenced Lay Down Low, the menacing pop honey of Sugarsweet. Buy this one — there's not a dumber on it! (SEE14229) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

PJ Harvey
Rid Of Me

I have a picture of PJ Harvey hanging over my desk here at work — just a photo torn from a magazine. She's sitting, facing the camera head on, elbows resting on chair arms; head cocked slightly, dark hair pulled back. What I love about the picture are her eyes; she's just looking at the camera — no bluff, no artifice, just a pure, honest stare... calm, powerful, self-confident. So is this 1993 release — if you can call the banshee calm. It's darker and more desolate, purposefully gender-ambiguous (Nut G and Man-Size are definitely about women). People (mostly men) call her a feminist and man-hater, label her a denier, but her anger is palpable and matter-of-fact, just like her stare. Includes a great cover of Bob Dylan's Highway 61 Revisited and the song Dry that inspired the title of her debut album... a "frank physiological description of men's failure to excite her." (ISL514696) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

PJ Harvey

Dry

England's latest punk sensation, whom we like viddy much, thank you. Droll musings and visceral images, and anti-harmonic (though hypnotically rhythmic) rock phrasings. She reminds us a bit of Squeeze Louise and the Throwing Muses, but with a decidedly Celtic slant, like in Sheela-Na-Gig (which is an ancient Celtic stone female figure pulling her vagina open and laughing)... Also includes the delightful Dress, the more cynical Happy and Bleeding, plus On My Lover and O Stella. Recommended, of course! (ING5001) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

7 Year Bitch
Sick 'Em

We've had some requests for this wild 4-woman band, so here goes. Remember those generic mudflap bimbo silhouettes you always see on big rig trucks? Well, they seem to be the band's logo. If that gives you any indication of their fuck-you porno attitude... Basically they thrash and bash (love how songwriter Elizabeth Davis' mega-bass loosens your fillings) and shriek about love and anti-love (Lorna, in Lust You Trust; You Shriek Lonely) and violence (No Fucking War — "So Bush pull out! Like your father should have" — and Dead Men Don't Rape). The album is dedicated to guitarist Stephanie Sargent who died of a heroin overdose after making this recording, but before the album's release. (CZ48) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

The Slits

The Peel Sessions

Recorded in '77-'78 for Jon Peel's Radio One program, this could very well become a collector's item in a few years! Featuring seven of this quintessential band's early songs (Love and Romance, Shop Lifting, So Tough, FM), it really epitomizes the anger and attitude of the early-to-mid punk movement, where women took the liberty to be as obnoxious as they damn well pleased. Remember that quick drum phrasing and guitar thumping, choppy vocals swooping in and out of (and behind) the music? God, they were great... (SFT8304) CS: 8.98... CD: 11.98

Tori Amos

Little Earthquakes

If you're a Kate Bush fan, buy this! If you aren't a Kate Bush fan, buy this too — Tori possesses only KB's best qualities, and none of her worst ones: The lyrics are intelligent and literary, the arrangements are lightly layered, her acoustic piano rivals Kate's in sheer beauty and melody, and her voice is slightly fuller and not given to heavenward histrionics... OK, OK, enough comparisons. Songs include the pop tune Leather, the poetic ballad Mother, plus the scapellata Me and a Gun, a haunting narrative of a rape ("yes I wore a silky red thing does that mean I should spread for you, your friends, your father..."). Highly recommended. (ATL82358) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Tribe 8

By the Time We Get to Colorado

Folks have been recommending that we stock some music by this Bay Area radical dyke riot grrrl punk band for a while... We just received notice of this release so we can't say much about it other than it includes their song Lezbo-phobia. So, you can order it now, and we'll tell you more about this one next issue! Rock ♦ Pop

Aimee Mann
Whatever

This solo debut from the lead singer/songwriter of the now-defunct band Till Tuesday is for those who like their rock-n-roll well-oiled. Aimee's warbly melancholy alto is still the same, but the music is grittier and fuller; the songs are about loss, missed opportunities, love gone sour, regrets of dreams unfulfilled... in short, life. She's angrier, wiser, and sounding better than ever! (IMG21017) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Annie Lennox
Divine

"In a sense I feel like this is my very first album, and because of that it had to be something that represented me totally and exactly... I wanted to come up with material that was authentic and completely true to myself... In preparing for this album I also knew that I wanted to take my time, releasing it only when I felt it was strong enough — and not a moment before." Annie's 1992 solo debut proves that her artistry is a lot more than just half the Eurythmics. Includes Money Can't Buy It, Little Bird, The Gift. (ARL8704) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Barbra Streisand
Back To Broadway

Identified by gay men, some Ladyfinger staffers and their mothers, Barbra's appeal spans the generations. This sequel to her wildly successful Broadway Album is another testament to her ability to turn a song into a sensation. Highlights are Everybody Says Don't, a sentiment she has resisted throughout her career; I Have A Love/One Hand, One Heart; a duet with Johnny Mathis; and a feminist interpretation of Luck Be A Lady. Classic, timeless, the essence of "adult contemporary" music! (COL44189) CS: 10.98... CD: 16.98

Begonia
Blueswoman

Begonia doesn't do your typical hot and heavy blues wail about drinking and drugging and cheating lovers. Instead, they fuse rock, reggae, folk, country and soul around a solid blues core. The strong, sensuous, sultry voices of Beth Jochum and Linda Fisher sing affirming lyrics about loving lovers and loving women and controlling your own life. With ten years experience together and three cassette releases, this is an all-female rock/blues band without a "gimmick" — except they make great music. (KK202) CS: 9.98

Bette Midler

Experience the Divine/Greatest Hits

No one takes a song and makes it her own quite like Bette. They're all here — from her gloriously tacky early days: Only in Miami, Bogie Woogie Bugie Boy, Do You Want to Dance?... and also her more recent mega-hits: The Rose, From A Distance, Wind Beneath My Wings. Also includes One For My Sissy (And One More For The Road), from her appearance as the final guest on the Tonight Show with Johnny Carson. (ATL82497) CS: 10.98... CD: 18.98

Bonnie Hayes

Many of you will remember Bonnie from Teresa Trull's tour in the late 80's, post Barbara Higbie... Bonnie's a SF Bay Area rock icon, writing for the likes of Huey Newton and performing regularly with her band, Wild Combo. She's got light, saucy vocals and rollicking good-time rock 'n' roll, San Francisco style, plus a habit of writing infectious pop melodies infused with fun lyrics (see Teresa Trull's A Step Away for examples). Includes her hit She's a Boyfriend plus Girls Like Me, Raylene, Loverboy. (SLH112) CS: 9.98

Bonnie Raitt
Nick of Time

Could be the best recording she's ever done; this 1989 release has a distinct air of maturity, and apparently grows out of her new sobriety. Includes her own The Road's My Middle Name and the title cut about aging and realizing one is running out of time, two by Bonnie Hayes; and Nobody's Girl. Plenty of her signature blues, some background vocals by David Crosby and Graham Nash. (CAP91268) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

Bonnie Raitt
Luck of the Draw

The anxiously-awaited follow-up to the multi-Grammy-award-winning Nick of Time, this 1991 release is filled with heartfelt ballads as well as down-in-the-groove bluesy rockers... songs that are highly personal, and disarming in their honesty and clarity about relationships. Bonnie has reached a smoother point in life — sobriety, love, success and recognition all rolled into one — and her music has never sounded better. Contains Something to Talk About, plus 4 originals, including Come To Me. Bonnie financed the special environmentally-friendly packaging of the CD; it's free of plastic jewel box and blister pack, all that permanent junk! (CAP96111) CS: 15.98... CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Women Be Wise, in an previously unreleased duet with Sippie Wallace; No Way To Treat a Lady, one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louise, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery; 19 in all, culled from her 9 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract! Icemakers of the Revolution
Number of Days

These midwestern rock missionaries are social activists, working hard — with drums, bass, guitars, fiddle, sax, congas, and 3-part harmonies — for women's rights, peace, environmental and humanitarian issues! The 4 women and 3 men of the band create a carnivalesque mix that blends in-your-face political rock 'n' roll with irresistible dance grooves, mock polka stomps with rapped tributes to vegetarians, psychedelic sheets of noise with unforgettable melodies. And the lyrics are consistently intelligent and thought-provoking, yet personal and accessible. Includes Upset With the Set-Up, Carnivores, and more... bursting with hope for Change... recommended! (DPM1) CS: 10.98... CD: 11.98

Hearts and Flowers

This 1990 release, as written, performed and arranged by Joan, can best be described as the alter ego to The Shouting Stage. The subject matter is once again relationships, but this time focuses on the positive side: she explores the depth of true friendship in More Than One Kind of Love; talks about finding true love only when the rules of society are abandoned in Promise Land; and describes the wonderful changes in a person's outlook when love is found in The Power of Dreams. A must for fans, and a great place to start for newcomers to her unique blend of synthesized sounds and tender ballads. (AM5298) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Square the Circle

In ancient spirituality, the circle depicted the spirit, the square the material plane; squaring the circle was bringing a spiritual idea into material reality. On this 1992 release, she brings her art into real life, blending her smooth vocals with poignant, astute lyrics, and delivers messages of love and betrayal. She dives with heart and soul into topics such as infidelity on Weak Woman, abuse on Sometimes I Don't Wanna Go Home, on love and trust on True Love and title track. Most outstanding though is the song Women Ruled the World — what a concept! (AM5388) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

True Frontiers

This 1993 debut solo album shines the spotlight on an artist also known as the leader, singer and songwriter of the south-west band Stealin' Horses. It features music of heat, dust and sweat: a country sound with rock, folk and Latin influences, and whiskey-soaked vocals which will inevitably inspire Melissa Etheridge comparisons. These songs from a lonely cowgirl will make you want to grab a partner and cut loose on a sawdust-covered floor. Highlights include Home, a lively Mexican-sounding folk tune; Handle With Care, a honky-tonk raver; and Promised Land, which is dedicated to the people of the Cherokee Nation. Real Life Stuff

This debut album from this Atlanta-based singer/songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and, well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice: it's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy... hey, heck, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE5095) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kristen Hall

Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's) and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls), ex-Gang of Four and B-52's. It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Out in the Country and same with I Have My Reasons, highly recommended! (HST 10316) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro

Christmas and the Beads of Sweat

One of her most wonderful early albums, and tapes are now at a great sale price, includes Brown Earth, When I Was A Firestart and You Were The Main Drag; Up On The Roof, and more. (COL30255) CS: 4.98 CD: 13.98

Lisa Germano

On the Way Down From Moon Palace

Known to some as the fiddler who performs with John Cougar Mellencamp, or on the Indigo Girls' Rites of Passage album, Lisa is a great musician in her own right, and deserves to be heard. The Moon Palace is a place where women live through men's fight; she's on her way out there! A highly diverse album in style and mood, this 1991 solo debut contains both original instrumentals (she plays almost all the instruments: violin, guitar, mandolin, piano, accordion, autoharp) and rockers with vocals and a fuller band. Quite unique, and somehow compelling, with her beautiful violin-playing holding the many strands together. (MBL191) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lois L.

Precious

Fronted by two sisters, Monique and Suzanna Kleinmann, Lois L. is already a sensation in Europe where they are known as Lois Lane. Prince, his royal purpleness, asked them to accompany him on his European tour and produced 3 tracks on this 1993 release: Sex, Qualified, and Crying; and his influence is apparent in the bump-and-grind grooves. Other times they sound like Basia, early Janet Jackson, not-so-wholesome Wilson Phillips, and even Rickie Lee Jones on one track, She Came By. The definite highlight is I Love A Woman, a song about being in love with a woman and a man at the same time ("Without her I can't live... She seems to understand it all so well"). Female bisexuality straightforwardly presented by a major record label... the times they are a'changing. (PLD519255) CS: 10.98

Marilyn Monroe

The Marilyn Monroe Collection

20 greatest hits by this mythical persona, some of which were recently discovered in MGM's vaults — perfect for educating the entry-level Marilyn fan; many know her for her incandescent sexuality, but she actually had a great voice. Includes Bye Bye Duet with Jane Russell, Happy Birthday Mr. President, which she sang to JFK at Madison Square Garden in 1962, Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend, Heat Wave (a very dated and so-dumb-it's-funny Berlin tune), Little Girl From Little Rock, Kiss, and more. (DV2001) CS: 9.98

My Sister Jane

This is a great last minute addition to our 1991-92 catalog, and if it weren't so much fun, this album would have been set aside for next spring's consideration! This 5-woman band from Salt Lake City defies form and function — their songs are direct and unpredictable, yet altogether appealing. They combine blues, folk, country, and funk roots with an unorthodox approach to rock: interesting rhythms and rhythms, with instrumentation ranging from mouth harp to rhythm guitar, bass and drums, to sax, flute and mandolin — and vocals! of vocals. Some were members of Wild Women for Peace, 2 of most were previously in a band called Cowgirls Kinda. We advise you to catch them in this incarnation. Recommended! (M531) CS: 9.98

My Sister Jane Pain In the Middle

The perfect follow-up to their debut tape, this 1992 release is a fabulous blend — a kind of 90's kinda statement — with Trace Worn's cool (angry) lead guitar setting the sometimes languorous, sometimes sharp feelings the songs generate. Very well-crafted rock 'n' roll — look for these girls to gain more and more fame, if not notoriety! The 13 songs include the Cowboy Junkies-like You're All I've Got, the R.E.M. tip o' the hat Grantville, and the totally inspiring Pain (a country western riff complete with synchronized pants of ecstatic agony!). Don't miss out on the fun here. (MSJ2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Oleta Adams Evolution

The title of this 1992 release is a fitting one. The 2-time Grammy nominee, who has been called everything from a jazz crooner and gospel singer to an R&B soulstress and pop singer, really comes into her own on this stunning collection of intimate vocal stylings. She showcases her own considerable songwriting talent with 6 originals, and interprets the work of other writers like James Taylor and Billy Joel. (PLG514865) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Oleta Adams Circle of One

Discovered in a small hotel piano bar by the band Taste for Stars, Oleta was first tapped to contribute vocals to their 1989 album — in fact, they refused to finish recording until she consented to quit her job and join them! One listen to the smoky, glowing embers of her incredible voice shows you why! Features the hit Get Here, plus Rhythm of Life as well as title, I've Got a Right and other originals. Pull up a comfy chair, pour a cup of tea, and warm yourself by her fire! (PLG5446346) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rickie Lee Jones Flying Cowboys

Her best ever, take our word for it...right from the opening cut. Flight seems to be a theme here, as well as her usual collage/kaleidoscope of wonderful images, personalities, truths, emotion, nuances and poetic clips. Includes Rodeo Girl (GEF24249) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got

This 1990 release opens with the Serenity Prayer and ends with the title cut which sounds like a Buddhist meditation; in between are songs about topics ranging from social statements to the physical aspects of love to recognition of spiritual realities and inner strength. Includes Nothing Compares 2 U and I Am Stretched On Your Grave. ("My grief for the girl that I loved as a child... the priests and the friars' approach me in dread because I still love you... if your hand were in mine I'd be sure we'd not sever my apple tree my brightness") (CHR21759) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor Am I Not Your Girl

Why, oh my yes, you are, I mean, she is! Ever stretching the boundaries, our girl has now recorded an album of standards and torch songs, in her words, "the songs I grew up listening to, the songs that made me want to be a singer." Her pinning at times conforms to the style in which the songs were originally recorded, but just as quickly she'll glide into another realm entirely. The Sinead zone, and then back again. It's fun, it's touching, it's tasty — it's our girl! Includes I Want to Be Loved By You, Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered, Black Coffee, How Insensitive (we'd like to dedicate this one to the crowd at Bob Dylan's October '92 tribute concert for booing her off the stage ostensibly for tearing up a picture of the Pope the previous week). Love it, love her! (CHR21952) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sophie B. Hawkins Tongues and Tails

We've heard her concerts are enlightening, or rather "out" standing, and she's a favorite pick of DJ's everywhere (including our shipping room). Her smooth sensual voice carries you through Damn I Wish I Was Your Lover and moves you uncontrollably to Mysteries We Understand. Also includes Live and Let Love, a title we take to heart. Just put this on at your next party and press the Repeat button — it has a bit of every mood you want to generate! (COL46797) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Stealin Horses Mesas and Mandolins

Kiya and Kopana (and band) are back, this time on an independent record label which gave them the creative control they needed to bring their vision into being. Frankly, this 1991 album is the better for it! If there were such a genre as "Southwestern Rock", they would be the divas of it. The vocals are husky and tight (move over Melissa), the guitars are sparkly and melodic, and Kopana's drumming keeps the arrangements crisp. Highlights include This House, If You Want to Be Lovers, and Broad Form Dead, a lovely adaptation of the traditional Shady Grove. (WAL7406) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stevie Nicks The Other Side of the Mirror

A half-price special for you bargain-hunters! Stevie is known for her many years with Fleetwood Mac, as well as for her accomplishments as a solo artist in her own right. Her silvery voice, always her trademark, here graces mostly original songs, including Juliet and Alice. This 1989 album is dedicated to "Alice (in wonderland), my grandmother, the Queen of Hearts." (ATL91245) CS: 4.98 CD: 7.98

Tanita Tikaram Ancient Heart

There's a quality about this British woman's voice that's almost mesmerizing; it's so deep, yet light and airy; so expressive, so unusual; if you want something with a truly unique sound, try this. All original songs, Tanita on all vocals and guitar, very tastefully and simply produced; recommended! (REP25839) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tanita Tikaram The Sweet Keeper

Great album at a sale price! This follow-up to her debut album contains more original songs of inner secrets and stories, in her amazing, exotic voice that's a good octave below most women's ranges — and that much richer. Beautiful melodies and arrangements. Includes Little Sister Leaving Town, Once & Not Speak. (REP26091) CS: 6.98 CD: 14.98

Tanita Tikaram Everybody's Angel

Another great album at another great price! This 1991 release manages to be incredibly rich, simple and sophisticated all at the same time. While the list of instruments is impressive in itself — flugel horn, alto and tenor sax, trumpet, guitar, drums, piano, Hammond organ, loop horn, and a whole string orchestra — Tanita's deep, husky voice soars above, weaving through lyrics which defy easy interpretation. Jennifer Warnes provides vocal support on Mud In My Water and Only the Ones We Love. (REP26486) CS: 6.98 CD: 14.98

Tanita Tikaram Eleven Kinds of Loneliness

Simply the most distinctive voice in the biz, guaranteed to make those unfamiliar with her stop and ask, "Who is that?" On this 1992 release, her 4th, you may ask "What in the world is she talking about?" Well, we can't give you any answers to that, but rest assured, she's the real thing! Her voice and lyrics become dance partners, each dependent upon the moves of the other, yet each are mesmerizing in and of themselves. Includes Heal You, You Make the Whole World Cry. (REP26835) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

10,000 Maniacs Hope Chest

This compilation is a Maniacs' fan's dream! Reissuing their previously out-of-print first two recordings, Human Conflict No. 5 (1982) and Secrets of the I Ching (1983) is the kind of treatment one usually wishes for, but rarely gets realized! The liner notes give extensive information on the band's early days, as they scraped out a living taking leaves and writing songs — including My Mother the War Natalie's song which propelled the band to fame first in England, then in the US. 14 songs in all, a little rougher and jangly (and perhaps more adventurous) than their now characteristic seamless pop, but gems nonetheless! Lyrics included. (EL60962) CS: 6.98 CD: 14.98

10,000 Maniacs Our Time in Eden

Lush, poetic, dreamlike, this 1992 album's lyrics read like an intimate letter from a good friend — warm, philosophical, confidential. Natalie's focus remains on the past, yet she delves into the realms of myth and history here to evoke imagined lives, and told with her own stories, as with any poet, she balances her reflections of innocence with betrayal, of glory with bewilderment and disappointment in a way that creates real beauty. Includes Jezebel, Gold Rush Brides, Circle Dream. (EL61285) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Til Tuesday Welcome Home

This 1986 release is just the thing to put on the stereo after a hard day at the pond — the lyrics are sweet, soothing, wistful, intimate and sensitive, to use just a few appropriate adjectives! Bassist and songwriter Anne Marr also happens to have one of the most gorgeous voices this reviewer has ever heard — trust me, and give this a try. Includes Coming Up Close, Lovers' Day, Angela Never Call, and No One is Watching You Now. Oh yeah, most enthusiastically recommended! (EPC40314) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tina Turner What's Love Got To Do With It?

This 1983 release contains 3 songs recorded specifically for the movie about this world-class superstar, as well as 7 newly re-recorded versions of her 60's and 70's classics. Includes title, I Don't Wanna Fight, Why Must We Wait Until Tonight, Stay Awake, and more. (VIR88189) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Toni Childs House of Hope

Combining a voice like Roland Gift's and the intensity of Melissa Etheridge, Toni Childs adds something all her own to create unique and compelling songs. Her themes on this latest album are varied — spouse and child abuse, falling in love, angst — but no simple phrase can express the nuances she manages to pack into each piece. With a great voice, complex music and soul-searching lyrics, this is a fantastic follow-up to a promising debut album. Listen for the title song during one of the driving sequences in the movie Thelma and Louise. (AM5358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists Red Hot & Blue

This collection, created as a benefit for AIDS, is a sensational treatment of Cole Porter songs by hot, current artists. Its range includes a traditional rendition of You Do Something to Me by Sinead O'Connor, a heartbreaking version of So In Love by k.d. lang, and contributions by David Byrne, Annie Lennox, Neneh Cherry, and others. This is one compilation tape that really works, with eclectic nature, originality and imagination... a great album for expanding your horizons! (CHR21799) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists, Inc. k.d. lang Tame Yourself

This anthology of exclusive songs produced to benefit People For The Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA), the world's largest animal rights organization, features k.d. lang (Damned Old Dog), Indigo Girls with Michael Stipe (I'll Give You My Skin), and others by Nina Hagen and Lene Lovich; Exene Cervenka, the B-52's (Quiche Lorraine) and lots more! (RHT6772) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various, Inc. The Mint Juleps Do It A Cappella

At this point in 1991, this is the only recorded audio work we have of the oft-requested amazing women's a cappella sextet the Mint Juleps; they perform 3 cuts here: Don't Let Your Heart I Want to Live Easy; and Higher and Higher; and they collaborate with LadySmith Black Mambazo on The Lion Sleeps Tonight. Also features works by the Persuasions, Rockapella, Take 6, True Image, and more by LadySmith. This is the original soundtrack recording from the film starring Spike Lee, Debbie Allen, and the above musicians. (EL60963) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Whoopi Goldberg et al Sister Act - Original Soundtrack

You saw the movie — right? And you loved it — right again? Now you can enjoy the fabulous music over and over again in case you were wondering, that was Whoopi singing all her own vocal parts! Deloris & The Sisters perform Hail Holy Queen, My Guy (My God), I Will Follow Him, Shout. Also includes Deloris & The Ronelles' opening lounge medley, Fon-tall-a Bass, Rescue Me, Lady Soul's If My Sister's In Trouble and more. Recommended, of course! (HR61334) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Midl, Maxi & Etti

1992 RELEASE

R&B ♦ Rap ♦ Dance

Midl, Maxi & Etti

We know next to nothing about this group, except they are a vocal trio, look like sisters, and this 1992 release was recorded and mixed in Sweden... but regardless, the music is a slammin' blend of African/Caribbean based techno-pop, the beat is relentless, their vocals are great, and we suspect they're pretty popular overseas. 12 songs in all, perfect for dancing or parties, includes Go-Girls Go, Poppadink Those, Masenko, Culture of Youth, Ragsa Steady and Sisterhood of Africa... meant to be played loud! (COL48891) CS: 10.98

Queen Latifah

All Hail the Queen

Now at a great sale price! Queen Latifah, a.k.a. Dana Owens, has established herself as one of the most significant forces shaping the powerful fusion of rap, dancehall reggae, hip-hop and funk... with a heaping dose of political content. Included here are the scathing The Evil That Men Do, which attacks the oppressions of racism and poverty, Ladies First ("Stereotypes have got to go"), A King and Queen (Creation in which she traces her ancestry, and that of all Black people, back to Queen Nefertiti of Egypt, Mama Give Birth to the Soul Children, Princess of the Possa. Recommended! (TB1022) CS: 6.98 CD: 11.98

Queen Latifah

Nature of a Sista

Atrocious, woman-identified, artistic, and gracefully no-nonsense, Queen Latifah reigns proud here, on her second recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Fancy and Bad As A Mutha, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to, Give Me Your Love and the incandescent Huw Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism (and sexism on the part of male R&B radio programmers), she would have the same (or more!) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. Highly recommended! (TB1035) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin

The Best of Aretha Franklin

Includes Respect, (You Make Me Feel Like A) Natural Woman, Do Right Woman - Do Right Man, Spanish Harlem, Chain of Fools...in other words, just what the title says. (ATL1280) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

En Vogue

Funky Divas

Self-worth, bigotry, pride, losing and finding love are only some of the themes found on the multi-sound second release (1992) by these 4 young women. They call upon rap, reggae, soul and rock to deliver their contemporary commentary, putting it all together with great vocals and harmonies. Includes Free Your Mind, My Lovin' (You've Never Gonna Get It), and their self-proclaiming It Ain't Over 'Til the Fat Lady Sings. (EW92121) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Gospel

Aretha Franklin

Aretha Gospel

Aretha's musical beginnings as a gospel singer; this was recorded when she was 14, singing in her father's church, and includes This Little Light of Mine, Yield Not to Temptation, Power and more. (CHS9105/521) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Mahalia Jackson

World's Greatest Gospel Singer

Contains many songs not included in other anthologies, such as Keep Your Hand On the Plow, Out of the Depths, Jesus Met the Woman At the Well, I'm Going to Live the Life I Sing About in My Song, and more expressions of her greatness. (CBS12275) CS: 6.98 CD: 12.98

Mahalia Jackson

Greatest Hits

Includes her greatest Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Walk in Jerusalem, The Upper Room and more, all with her vocal magnificence. (COL37710) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

The Mahalia Jackson Collection

Probably the greatest gospel singer ever recorded, every rich nuance of this woman's voice embodies spiritual devotion; you don't have to subscribe to Christianity to appreciate her lovely counterpoint! Contains 20 well-known and loved traditional hymns, including In the Upper Room (parts 1 and 2), Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Walk in Jerusalem, My Story, Bless This House. (DV2906) CS: 9.98 CD: 18.98

Marion Williams

Strong Again

And what incredible strength she possesses! Marion recently received ecstatic reviews in Rolling Stone and NY Times for her previous album, as well as national attention for her performance in the PBS Special Amazing Grace. This 1991 release, considered her best yet, contains a generous 25 selections, including several geared to the modern gospel audience. (6F1012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Watkins

The Soul Knows

Arranged and interpreted with care and great affection, Mary treats familiar gospel hymns (in the words of Will Thompson) "softly and tenderly" on this 1992 album, in a generous attempt to share their healing and soothing qualities with a frenzied and wounded world. Performing solely on her synthesizers and electric pianos, she presents such gems as Amazing Grace, Blessed Assurance, Pass Me Not, By and By, I'll Fly Away. (WENT) CS: 9.98

Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Sincerely, Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Not just gospel—blues and jazz too—by the foremother who popularized gospel music on the secular stage...at spots such as the Cotton Club and the Apollo. As Sophie Willeke said, "Honey, there ain't no difference between blues and gospel. In the church we say Jesus, and in the blues we say baby." Many church members felt Rosetta had committed sacrilege, but she felt the Lord would listen whenever she sang. Belcandons were recorded primarily in the 40's, including Shout Sister Shout, Swing Low Sweet Chariot, Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child, Down by the Riverside. Several are accompanied by her own hot guitar. Recommended! (ROB1317) CS: 9.98

Soho

Goddess

Now at a special price! Soho, powered by the vocal blend of the beautiful black twin sisters Jacqueline and Paulina, broke easily into the alternative dance music scene with their hit Hippychock, and their rhythm permeates this entire album. This playful release bounces from the light clear lyrics of Out of My Mind, to Girl On a Motorbike, to the happy-with-life-and-love message of Nuthin' on My Mind, to the title cut. We can't say enough about the great beat and danceability of this album, so we dare you to try it and sit still while listening to it! (ATL91885) CS: 6.98 CD: 12.98

Various Artists

Red Hot & Dance

Once again, popular artists have contributed their talents to raise funds to fight AIDS, but this time they've done it with original cuts and some dynamite re-mixes of their own songs. Contributions by Madonna, George Michael (including the smash hit Too Funky), Lisa Stansfield, Sabrina Johnson, Sly and the Family Stone, and Crystal Waters are showcased on this all-star compilation. The Great Gospel Women

This 1993 release spotlights the most legendary female figures in the gospel field, with over 70 minutes of all-time great gospel music performances. Contains 31 songs by 16 artists, including Mahalia Jackson, Willie Mae Ford Smith, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Marion Williams, Clara Ward, Cora Martin and others. An outstanding collection, and an excellent way to introduce yourself to many of the women who created and sustained this important African-American music genre, if you don't already know them...a style of music which has been passionate, dynamic, commanding, expressive, and improvisatory. (SHN5004) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Say Amen, Somebody (Double Set)

Music from the original soundtrack plus more recorded live in performance. If you saw the documentary film, you witnessed the effervescence and amazing vocal powers of Willie Mae Ford Smith, affectionately known as "Mother Smith," and the Barrett Sisters. Also includes music by Thomas A. Dorsey (called "The Father of Gospel Music," who was Ma Rainey's accompanist back in '24), Zella Jackson Price at the "Mother Smith Tribute," the O'Neal Twins, and Mahalia Jackson...many of the gospel greats. (DRG12584) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Blues

Bessie Smith

The Collection

This 18-song collection is a great introduction to this early lesbian Blues Queen's rich, soulful, rich voice is incomparable on songs like Young Woman's Blues, Taint Nobody's Business If I Do, Gimme A Pigfoot, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, You've Been A Good One Wagon, Alberta Hunter, and Louis Armstrong's Downhearted Blues, and many others. Includes ample liner notes, which many releases don't, and sound's not bad, considering this is some of the earliest recorded music. (COL4441) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton

Ball N' Chain

This 50-minute album is an excellent Big Mama anthology, includes Howl Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received 10¢ for it); title song, one of her originals, recorded also by Joplin; Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky One and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH305) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bobi JacksonAlligator Woman

This woman heralds the next generation of Swamp Queens — lighter on the boogie, heavier on the funk — with a joyous, amphibious splash! This 1992 debut features 6 Crooko-Rocker originals, plus 2 covers, all guaranteed to move you in a variety of directions! Bobi plays keyboards, electric guitar and bass, plus wails croon/bells it out — you get the picture! Includes the sweet Would You Be Here, for Janis Joplin, plus Hard Rockin' Woman, Born Under a Bad Sign, Menda, which introduces Venetta Phillips on trumpet. (ELP411) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Etta BakerOne-Dime Blues

She's a virtuoso performer in a style heard infrequently these days — the finger-picked guitar tradition known as the "Piedmont blues." Using a 2- and 3-fingered technique similar to that of other North Carolina guitarists such as Elizabeth Cotten and Reverend Gary Davis, Etta fingerpicks with clarity and precision. However, she never sacrifices emotion for technique, creating music that's remarkable in range and depth — by turns gentle and strong, subtle and assertive. This 1991 album contains her first recordings since 1956; masterworks from an exceptional artist. (ROU2112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ida CoxWild Women Don't Have the Blues

A volume originally recorded in 1961. Many folks have since basted this blues song, but hers is the woman who wrote it first sang it in 1924... it's one of the strongest, no-nonsense women's statements ever made. Ida was one of the most important Classic Blues singers of the golden era ("the only decade when women reigned"). (ROS1304) CS: 9.98

Katie WebsterSwamp Boogie Queen

Bonnie Raitt considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion... which we'd agree with. And, she's already released over 500 recordings; it's about time for her to gain some notoriety. This, her first album in several years, is a musical jumbo of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, R&B and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie piano. Includes Who's Making Love?, Black Satin. (ALL4760) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Koko TaylorQueen of the Blues

On this all-out, foot-stomping, house-rocking recording, Koko wraps her giant voice around 10 great songs, including Queen Bee, Platin' Mama, Come to Mama, I Can Love You Like a Woman (Or I Can Fight You Like a Man). With guest performances by Albert Collins, James Cotton, Son Seals, and Lonnie Brooks. (ALL4740) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marcia BallGatorhythms

Blending a fine mix of original hot Gulf Coast Blues, R&B and swamp-rockin' Boogie Woogie with some classics (What's A Girl To Do, Red Hot), this girl ups it up with smoky vocals, soulful piano, bouncy accordion and organ fills... she could be a one-woman band, but is joined here by some fantastic accompanists plus the joyful background vocals of hometown girls Angela Strehli and Lou Ann Barton. Includes Mama's Cooking and the reverent Power of Love. (ROU3101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maria MuldaurLouisiana Love Call

Forget the cassis, let's head down south and get some real comfort, the "Bluesiana" type, that is... She's older, she's wiser, and she's found a new home! Every song on this 1992 release evokes that steamy, sexy nighttime heat. Joined by a plethora of local talent (Dr. John, some Neville Brothers, Lucy Burnette on vocals, others), Maria sings in that primal way of hers, combining hormones and heart for a potent combination — her voice is perfectly suited to the music of the region, passionate and strong and sometimes wavery with emotion. The title waltz is a knock-out, with Aaron Neville on background vocals, while Cajun Moon is more contemporary sounding (and just as hot); also includes her bad-girl hit, Don't You Feel My Leg. (BLT1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

SIPPY WALLACEWOMEN BE WISE*Saffire*The Uppity Blues Women

The Washington Post describes this as "Sassy, brassy, raunchy... racy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jellolite harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." SaffireThe Middle Aged Blues

Natural acoustic down-home blues on this debut tape by a culturally and geographically diverse trio: Gaye, a black Virginian; Baptist, Earlene, part Cherokee and all Okie; and Ann, a Jewish Ohioan. They rotate vocals on this collection of blues songs, some original, and all play a variety of the following instruments: guitar, bass, piano, harmonica. Includes Middle Aged Boogie Blues, Your Husband's Cheating On Us. Fun! (SAF1) CS: 9.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues WomenHot Flash

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy bluewomen live, by all means get! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-media trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Totch Song #1 & 2, No Need Pissin' On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4796) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues WomenBroadCasting

This 1992 release finds Saffire pared down to a duo of the band's original founding members, Gaye Adagoola and Ann Rabboni... with their trademark sound remaining bawdily intact: "irresistible portions of sass and soul, tradition and attitude... the wit and irony of blues blues of yesteryear, with an updated twist." Includes the following tunes: One Hour Mama, Dump That Chump, Mz Thang, It's Alright For A Man To Cry, Mind Your Own Business, 17 in all. (ALL4811) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sippie WallaceWomen Be Wise

Along with Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey, Sippie was one of the greatest classic blues singers of all time. Her trademark singing style was the precursor to the styles of artists like Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women and Bonnie Raitt (who has performed with Sippie, recorded several of Sippie's songs, and always cites Sippie as her main inspiration). This re-release of 1966 recordings, originally released on the Storyville label, includes 11 duet performances featuring Sippie alternately backed by blues piano giants Roosevelt Sykes and Little Brother Montgomery, plus one track with Sippie accompanying herself on piano. TRACY NELSON

IN THE HERE AND NOW

SAFFIRE—THE UPPITY BLUES WOMEN*Sue Foley*Young Girl Blues

This young Canadian blues singer/guitarist is simply amazing! Some quotes from the artist: "Women grow up faster than men and that shows in the way they play guitar." And: "I'm going to play as good as a man and I ain't gonna be no rhythm player." Well, at the tender age of 22, this is already true — in fact, she's probably better than most men. Her 1992 debut release showcases her diverse abilities; she mixes low-down originals in the Lightning Hopkins vein with cool instrumentals from Earl Hooker and vintage numbers from Memphis Minnie and Tampa Red; also a vocal duet with Angela Strehli. Recommended! (AND019) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy NelsonIn the Here and Now

The blues roots of this remarkable contralto run deep on this 1993 release. Both before and since her late 60's days with Mother Earth, she has demonstrated that she can sing the blues with a power and emotion that is rarely matched. Here she pays tribute to the music that inspired her; more in the urban R&B vein than the acoustic country blues many of us recall from her 1965 debut Deep Are the Roots... although this album does include Motherless Child Blues, which also appeared on that out-of-print classic. We'd give anything to have that early album back in our catalog, but in its absence, here's the next best thing. The closing track, Please Send Me Someone To Love, features a duet vocal with Irma Thomas, soul queen of New Orleans. (ROU3123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blues vocals with a sexual theme from the '20s, '30s and '40s, pertaining to women and men—lesbian, gay and straight—demonstrating how gay elements have always been a part of the American musical counter-culture. Contains selections from 2 LPs on the Stash label. AC-DC Blues: Gay Jazz Reissues and Straight And Gay. Includes Fairy Blues and Bessie Jackson's *B.D. First in a series of independent women's blues... and one of the best, most refreshing anthologies of women's blues in existence. Good sound quality, which is difficult to obtain with reissues... outstanding selection of material. Includes Bessie Brown's Ain't Much Good in the Best of Men Nowadays (1926), a 1939 Ida Cox recording One Hour Mama (she also wrote Wild Women Don't Get the Blues), Billie Holiday's Baby Get Lost. They were one of the defining sounds of the 1940s, and their watertight harmonies sound just as good today! The Billie Holiday Collection

Ten golden greats, including one of the very few currently-in-print issues of Strange Fruit. This song, about lynching, was one of the most political and significant recordings she ever made. It was banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio; even today, it is almost always omitted from anthologies—except occasional European ones, like this release from Italy—to remind us how far our society hasn't come. One of our best sellers. (OV5018) CS: 9.98

The Billie Holiday Songbook

Here's an excellent anthology we've located, which also includes Strange Fruit in addition to Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song; clear sound; we recommend this collection highly. (VRV63248) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cafe Noir

An amazing album of "symphonic gypsy swing," a unique repertoire which blends European and American jazz with Middle Eastern, gypsy and classical elements, by a 1-woman, 3-man ensemble. The violin, viola, and clarinet of Gale Hess stand at the center, and her heart-wrenching virtuosity is bound to send chills up and down your spine. She's joined by acoustic guitars and bass, and the result is hot, soulful, haunting and incredible. Includes Villa-Lobos' Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5, Aria Cantilena and Variations on a Theme by Paganini. (GAJ1001) CS: 9.98

Diane Schuur

In Tribute

Diane's a great jazz vocalist who's been pretty "out" lately... and this is a wonderful tribute to the great legendary female jazz vocalists and their songs, because "they had the power to free a little girl to express her feelings, learn about living, and give her hope for the future!" Each song description specifies which artist she is paying tribute to; so Sweet Georgia Brown is in tribute to Anita O'Day; Sophisticated Lady is in tribute to Ivie Anderson; How High the Moon to Ella; God Bless the Child we don't have to tell you; Body and Soul to Libby Holman; and others to Carmen McRae, Sarah Vaughan, Dinah Washington, Peggy Lee, Helen Morgan, Mabel Mercer, and Nancy Wilson. Love the concept and its execution! photos of the vocalists included in the insert. (GRP2006) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dinah Washington

Wise Woman Blues

"Miss D was a witch and didn't hesitate to use her witchcraft, shouting unadorned incantations to cast a magic spell." This compilation contains both blues and jazz tunes, genres which the artist helped bridge, combining the best of both Bessie and Billie, while making the music her own. This volume, part of the Foremothers series, includes some great tunes. In addition to the title track: Mellow Mama Blues; My Voodoo Is Really Voodoo; Shoo Shoo Baby (play this one at your next jibe-bug party). Most songs recorded 1943-45; one in 1963. The Essential Ella: The Great Songs

The First Lady of Song has been swingin' the band for nearly 60 years, and here's a grand hour-long anthology with some of her best tunes. Included are Lady Be Good in both scat and slow versions; A-Tisket A-Tasket; Summertime; Ding! Dong!; The Witch Is Dead; Drop Me Off in Harlem; Mack the Knife; Little Jazz; and 8 more. And unlike many reissues, this one has good sound and liner notes! International Sweethearts of Rhythm

There were many all-women's jazz bands in the 40's (men were away, women could play) but this was the hottest and the first integrated women's group. Although the band lasted over a decade, it was ignored by the white media because it played primarily for black audiences and is still omitted from history books. Don't miss this essential history. Marian McPartland

Solo Concert at Haverford

Marian has always been one of our favorite jazz pianists, and this album has always been one of our favorites of Marian's albums (from her huge discography) — just her and her incredible talent, performing both original compositions and other wonderful pieces like Send In the Clowns. Note great price on the LP, too. (HAL111) LP: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Nina Simone

A Single Woman

After a long hiatus from the recording studio, this incomparable jazz legend returns in triumph with a 1993 release. The title track captures her for the first time in front of a live orchestra, with a richer sound than Yentl, Papa, Can You Hear Me? is an impassioned cry to a departed loved one... she breathes new life into an old chestnut, in The More I See You. Lonesome Cities has an endearing wry spirit... and only a woman who's lived her extraordinary life could bring new meaning to a song long associated with Sinatra — Lovers Reunited. We welcome back one of our all-time favorites! (EL81503) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Best of Nina Simone

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes blacklisted and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Pirate Jenny plus Four Women; See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You... which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHP922846) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Favorites

Sarah began singing professionally in 1943 and continued to become one of the greatest jazz vocalists ever, with the distinguishing characteristics of a pronounced vibrato and perfect control. Straight Ahead

Body & Soul

On their 1993 release, these 5 women prove that their debut album was a portent of great music to come. This eclectic collection spans 50 years and several styles, from the frenetic Hot House to the mellow title track. The album's topped off by The Needy Theme, a surprising and very contemporary spoken piece in which a homie girl complains about her boyfriend, set to a house beat. This is a cut one might expect to hear from a pop group such as En Vogue. Highlights include their rendition of Icons and their signature Look Straight Ahead, an energetic and inspiring song strengthened by Cynthia Dewberry's vocals. (ATL82492) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Straight Ahead

Look Straight Ahead

This women's contemporary jazz quintet hails from Detroit, and while all 5 members figure prominently, it is really the spectacular contributions of violinist/vocalist Regina Carter which deserve special mention. Quite simply, her work on the electric violin is energetic, mesmerizing, and transcendent — Jean Luc Ponty move over! Her studies with Itzhak Perlman and Yehudi Menuhin are evident in the virtuosity with which she wields her instrument. Contains Blues for Annie, Theme for Eileen... covers of material by John Coltrane, Stanley Clarke, and others supplement original works to make this 1992 album a great find — check it out! Tuck and Patti

Tears of Joy

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart, accompanied only by her husband Tuck Andrus guitar. Each song is a perfect gem, notably Cindy Lauper's Time After Time, plus Take My Breath Away title, and more. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in her style is impressive and engaging, the result of nine years of working in this duo. Very fine. (WH0111) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tuck and Patti

Dream

No ordinary "girl with guitar" here! This woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk, and her vocal relationship to Tuck's incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slip and slide around the corners of jazz ballads (As Time Goes By, Friends in High Places), 3 of Patti's originals (High Heel Blues is her acapella ode to the agony and ecstasy of addictive shoe shopping, which this reviewer is also chest-thumping over!), and Wendy & Lisa's From Now On (We're One). Recommended. (WH0130) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Just Wait a Minute!

Bringing together 4 very accomplished female musicians in a jazz-oriented string quartet (2 violins, viola and cello), this 1992 release (their second) presents a wide-ranging assortment of compositions — some extremely complex — performed in their unique all-string swinging sound. Includes bebop standards such as Along Came Betty; a great rendition of the traditional hymn Amazing Grace; Gershwin's Summer-time; a tango drum piece, Sister Harriet, as well as original compositions by two of the members. Althea Waites Black Diamonds/ Florence Price

Virtuosa pianist Althea Waites (who also played with Kay Gardner on Mooncircle) focuses on music by Florence Price, an outstanding, trail-blazing, African-American classical woman composer. Born into a climate of unrest, activism and the cultural movement called the Harlem Renaissance in 1897, Florence began composing at age 11 and continued to write symphonies, chamber works, arrangements for spirituals, and solo piano works until her death in 1933. This very lovely and accessible recording includes Sonata in E Minor, The Old Boatman, Cotton Dance, Dances in the Canyons. The CD also contains compositions by 3 other African American composers: Margaret Bonds, William Grant Still, and Ed Blount. Very highly recommended for both new and seasoned listeners of classical music. (CAM1027) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Amy Beach Grand Mass in E-Flat Major

"Mrs. (H. H. A.) Beach was an American composer at a time when an American composer could not be taken seriously as an artist. And she did it anyway. Mrs. Beach was a serious composer in an age where there was no such thing as a serious woman composer. And she did it anyway. They called her Mrs. H. H. Beach. And she did it anyway. She did it anyway. And her life is a story of success," wrote Michael May, of the Michael May Festival Chorus, the performers here. We're glad that more and more works by this prolific Romantic composer (1867-1944) are being brought to the public's attention. She composed this unusual, non-traditional, exuberant mass — with chants, chorals, organ and percussion into which she incorporated some jazz elements (as revolutionary then as a rock mass would be now... as per Sister Act) — at age 18. A footnote is that her use of the name Mrs. was actually a bold move at the time, because she was making her gender unmistakable during an era when most women composed and published under male pseudonyms. Amy Beach Dark Garden

This excellent collection of Songs, Violin Pieces, and Piano Music is the most comprehensive gathering of Amy Beach's works we've seen. A Romantic at heart (and by cultural definition at the time), her primary works feature the art song. Interpretations of lyrical poetry set to music. Selections featuring mezzo-soprano D'Anna Fortunato here include Shakespeare's O Mistress Mine, and poetry by Browning, Oliver Wendell Holmes and others. Pianist (and authority on women composers) Virginia Eakin ably transforms Amy's piano pieces into the dynamic, impressionistic entities they were composed as; a special inclusion is the lovely From Grandmother's Garden, 5 musical flower etudes. The violin selections include her acclaimed 1893 composition for violinist Maud Powell, Romance, plus a previously unpublished pensive waltz, Lento Espressivo, Opus 125. 26 pieces in all, lovingly and expertly interpreted. The Ars Femina Ensemble Non Tacete! (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Nanner, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself... and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 8 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Cari Musicali by Blanca Maria Meda, an Ursuline nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1666 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica", a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented; and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! Barbara Harbach Women Composers for Organ

Spanning the music of 5 centuries, this 1993 release includes music of Fanny Mendelssohn, Amy Beach, Clara Schumann and 12 other noted women composers, including the performer herself. Recorded using the magnificent 1971 Schantz Organ, the album presents the more traditional works with a lovely, rich fullness of sound, and enhances the fascinating effects and unusual use of stops in the more modern compositions. This is one project of several which demonstrates Barbara's commitment to women composers, so that they may find the public appreciation and support which they so richly deserve. 72 minutes. Barbara Harbach 18 C Harpsichord/ Women Composers I

This unique series by harpsichord master Barbara Harbach brings to light works by several neglected 18th-century women composers who wrote for solo harpsichord. Back then, society didn't approve of professional women composers (big surprise); so while their male counterparts wrote for the church or courts, these women wrote for themselves, informal salons and each other, and therefore had more freedom to be innovative... and so they introduced new twists of harmony and melody. This volume includes beautiful works by Cecilia Maria Bartholomew, Marianne Martinez, Marianne d'Auenbrugg, Elisabeth de Gambarin, and Mary Hester Park. 65 min. Recommended! (KIN2010) CD: 15.98

Ensemble Alcatraz Visions and Miracles

This collection of Galician and Latin sacred songs from 13th-century Spain — a period of a remarkable and productive mixing of cultures — is undoubtedly one of the more unusual and intriguing offerings in our catalog. This Bay Area quintet specializes in medieval and Renaissance music from Spain, Portugal, France and Italy — "alcatraz" is an early Iberian word for "pelican," itself an early religious symbol. Some of you will recognize Cheryl Ann Fulton's medieval harp — she records Celtic and other harp music as a solo artist — members also include Susan Rose Morris, soprano; Kit Higginson, recorder and psalter; Shira Kammen, viola, rebec and lute; and Peter Maund, percussion. Hildegard von Bingen/Sequentia Symphoniae: Spiritual Songs

This recording of spiritual songs contains texts and music in praise of the female divinities who figured prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Mary, the virgins who inhabit heavenly realms at the end of time, St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered to be feminine. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harp, psalteries, fiddles, flutes, and symphony. Hildegard von Bingen

A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revolutions, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. Currently a renewal of interest is occurring in this composer, though her works are hard to come by. (HYF66039) CS: 14.98 CD: 18.98

Kronos Quartet et al Pieces of Africa

This is a beautiful and unique 1992 release, which like many of today defies categorization, so here it lives for now. Kronos Quartet is a 4-woman 3-man classically-trained string quartet (2 violins, viola and cello) from the U.S., known for their interpretations of world folk music. Here they perform songs by African composers, most with the composers also contributing musically to the performances, vocally and instrumentally. The sounds are stunning blends of cultures, or perhaps the creation of something new from traditional elements — much like the patchwork quilt design suggested by the cover art. Commentary from the composers is included. (EL79275) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

CHANT BYZANTIN - REGINA ET RESURRECTION SOEUR MARIE KEYROUZ, S.B.C.

Exquisitely mysterious and beautiful Byzantine chant music is performed here by a member of the Lebanese community of the Order of the Sisters of Basil. She is a scholar of Byzantine and Gregorian chant as well as western plainsong, and is well-known in her own country and in parts of western Europe where she often gives concerts. The chants incorporate Arabic/Middle Eastern tones and scales, perhaps typical of Eastern Orthodox liturgical traditions, very haunting and intense! The material relates to the passion and resurrection of Christ; translations are given in English, French and German, though we are unsure about the language in which she is singing — Latin? — it hardly matters, it's so beautiful. Recommended! (HMU1315) CD: 17.98

Lesley Garrett

A Soprano At the Movies

A popstar, rather than simply classical, opera singer, Lesley transforms the genre from a stuffy traditional hotbed of silly passions (OK, I'm biased) into an interpretive vocal dance that will move the most ardent opera-hater into a swoon! Each selection is a theatrical piece somehow used in a movie soundtrack, the most evocative being Donizetti's duet which served as a backdrop to Susan Sarandon's seduction by Catherine Deneuve in The Hunger. Also includes the notable Daria Love, a re-worked version of Bizet's Habanera from one of the best all-black Broadway musicals, Carmen Jones. 12 pieces in all, rendered golden by this amazing performer. Good reason that this appeared on the Billboard charts for over 42 weeks! (SLV1007) CD: 16.98

Lucille Field

Songs by American Women Composers

Lucille Goodman, accompanied by Harriet Whiggen on piano, employs an explosive, hypnotic voice to bring to life original compositions by 5 renowned female composers: Florence Price, Ruth Crawford Seeger, Nancy Van de Vate, Miriam Gideon, Patsy Rogers, and Dorothy Klotzman. Her range and intensity go beyond performance alone and reflect a commitment to the intended emotion of the songs. As a founding member of the International Congress of Women in Music, her contributions to the promotion of work by women is already established. Highly recommended for those who appreciate outstanding vocal discipline. (CAM1037) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

The Macalester Trio

Chamber Works by Women Composers

This 2-CD boxed set contains over 140 minutes (11) of music composed for piano, violin, and cello by the following women: Clara Schumann, Amy Beach, Gertrude Tieleman, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Teresa Carreno, and Cecile Chaminade. Several of these compositions have been rarely (or never) previously performed, and demonstrate the creativity of the composers; booklet with autobiographical information included. (VOX5029) CD: 15.98

Soeur Marie Keyrouz

Chant Byzantin

Exquisitely mysterious and beautiful Byzantine chant music is performed here by a member of the Lebanese community of the Order of the Sisters of Basil. She is a scholar of Byzantine and Gregorian chant as well as western plainsong, and is well-known in her own country and in parts of western Europe where she often gives concerts. The chants incorporate Arabic/Middle Eastern tones and scales, perhaps typical of Eastern Orthodox liturgical traditions, very haunting and intense! The material relates to the passion and resurrection of Christ; translations are given in English, French and German, though we are unsure about the language in which she is singing — Latin? — it hardly matters, it's so beautiful. Recommended! (HMU1315) CD: 17.98

Adrienne Rich

Planetarium: Retrospective 1950-80

This retrospective covers published work plus work in manuscript by one of the most vital feminist voices over the last two decades. Includes studio recordings of earlier works from 1951 to 1981, from books such as Dreams of a Common Language. 1 hour. (WS201) CS: 10.98

Musica Femina

Returning the Muse to Music

Janna (on classical guitar) and Kristan (on flute) blend lovely classical and new age sounds by historical and contemporary women composers on this 1989 release. Featured are a commissioned piece by Theresa Edel; compositions by Theresa Clark; Isabella Leonardi, the early Baroque Italian nun composer; Maria Theresia von Paradis of 18th century Vienna; a few by Janna, including Temple for Kristan; a gorgeous guitar solo. Demonstrates the strength, beauty, and diversity of acoustic instrumental music by women. (LIL3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg

Mendelssohn/Saint-Saens/Massenet

The fire, the intense emotionality of this young violinist (her nickname is Faust), combined with her fierce virtuosity, has caught the attention of audiences from both within the world of classical music and without...who respond to her strong, extroverted, free-spirited, and feminist presence. She was born in Rome to an Italian-American mother and Russian father, and made her debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra at age 10. Here she performs Mendelssohn's popular Concerto in E Minor; Saint-Saens' Introduction & Rondo Capriccioso and Havanaise; and Massenet's Meditation from Thais, with the New York Chamber Orchestra. Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg

Vivaldi: The Four Seasons

The sensational Italian-American violinist performs one of the most popular of all Baroque compositions...Antonio Vivaldi's pictures of chirping springtime birds, thunderstorms of summer, autumn merriment and the chills of winter are etched vigorously in Nadja's unique and passionate style of playing. She leads and solos with the New York-based Orchestra of St. Luke. Highly recommended! (ANG49757) CD: 16.98

Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg

It Ain't Necessarily So

Simply accompanied by Sandra Rivers on piano, this fiery violinist is free to interpret her favorite "bon bons," classic gems which she adapts to her instrument...as the CD box says, her "uncanny ability to express herself distinctly is well known, but seldom has she laid her extraordinary talent so bare before us as in this very personal selection of encores. The variety of her choices, and the freedom of a solo album, all add up to this American violinist's most revealing recording." Includes tunes by Gershwin, a ragtime by Scott Joplin, and an assortment of classical pieces, 18 in all. Recommended! (EMI54578) CD: 17.98

Otra Harnoy

Vivaldi - Cello Concertos

The leading lady of the cello, born in Israel and residing in Canada, presents five Vivaldi concertos for cello and one for cello and bassoon, accompanied by the Toronto Chamber Orchestra. Her musical intensity and exquisitely impeccable phrasing and tone will demonstrate why she is one of the world's greatest cellists. (RCA7774) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Virginia Eakin, pianist

Fluffy Ruffle Girls: Women/Ragtime

Over 150 women composed and published ragtime music — a very disciplined and structured, almost classical form — around the turn of the century, but only recently has this fact been unearthed. It's the old, too-familiar story: many composed under pseudonyms, or with initials, or never had their works published. Here the acclaimed pianist plays 23 of the best of these catpaw, tuneful, gorgeously swaying pieces by the most important female composer-pianists of that era; a dozen composers are represented, about whom biographical info was difficult to come by. Previously released under the title Pickles & Peppers; CD has 3 extra tracks. (NE9003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alice Walker

Looking Deeply

On this New Dimensions Radio interview, the amazing author of many books of poetry and fiction, including The Color Purple and Possessing the Secret of Joy, tells us how her life is informed by a host of "ancestors" and characters from her own writing, and how this provides her with strength, a broad perspective. She speaks of the need to free ourselves from oppression of all kinds, and stresses in particular how common female circumcision still is. (NDR2338) CS: 10.98

Audre Lorde
Shorelines

This excellent compilation of poems consists of selections from "Chosen Poems, Old and New" and "Black Unicorn." The breadth and depth of the pain and struggle, joy and growth of our extraordinary lives are exposed here. Chosen, where women bear their father's children but cannot leave him. The House of Yemanjá, where motherhood is both enriching and sustaining yet terrifying. Audre reads with passion and clarity. Highly recommended. (WS178) CS: 10.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes

How to Love a Woman (2-Tape Set)

Subtitled On Intimacy and the Erotic Life of Women, these words and stories of guidance are for all women and men who thirst to love and be loved by a woman. This psychoanalyst/cantadora (keeper of the old stories) teaches that in love relationships, each partner challenges, nourishes and transforms the other; that achieving life-long love requires an understanding of the mysterious internal cycles that fuel relationships; that every relationship fades and expires, only to be reborn in a fresh and strengthened form. Includes the story of Skeleton Woman and a section on the importance of the erotic dimension in a relationship. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND222) CS: 18.98

Warming the Stone Child

On this tape subtitled Myths & Stories About Abandonment and the Unmothered Child, this gifted storyteller and Jungian analyst leads the listener past the gates of the conscious mind, to discover the unmothered child within. Drawing from many world cultures, she has gathered a collection of deep myths, fables and fairy tales (such as The Woman Who Moans) which illuminate the psychology of abandonment in childhood, how it affects people later in life, and its curiously special gifts and powers. Her storytelling creates a picture of the orphan figure through the ages, while helping us understand the meaning of pre-adolescent abandonment in our own lives... a challenging journey, with a practical edge. 90 min. (SND104) CS: 10.98

The Radiant Coat

This 90-minute cassette is an exploration into the great mystery of death, through the seamless storytelling and psychological commentary that has become Dr. Estes' hallmark. As she shares her lifetime of work collecting teaching stories which seek to penetrate the meaning of death, she offers a poetic vision that removes the cloak of fear surrounding what happens when we die. Clarissa Pinkola Estes

In the House of the Riddle Mother

On this 2-cassette set, the creator of Women Who Run with the Wolves surveys the most common archetypal patterns of women's dreams, and using this information to answer unresolved questions buried within the psyche. Dream motifs explored include: birth, orgasm, injured animals, disaster, finding and losing treasure, snakes, and more. Based on 20 years of work, this is a dense, poetic storehouse of information about the dream lives of women. 180 min. (SND152) CS: 18.98

The Red Shoes

This tape, subtitled On Torment and the Recovery of Soul Life, illuminates how we are driven to destructive behavior by ignoring our own inner needs. Built around a retelling of the title story, the author offers, with Jungian commentary and helpful counsel, a treatise on building a life that is uniquely our own — the "hand-made life" — by listening to the instructive forces of our instinctual selves. Clarissa Pinkola Estes

The Creative Fire (2-Tape Set)

This riveting synthesis of myths, advice, and commentary is aimed especially for those who depend on their creative power every day: writers, artists, teachers, and anyone working to cultivate their own instinctive abilities to give birth to ideas, projects, and relationships. By igniting creativity, she teaches, we ignite the spark which connects us with the divine. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND211) CS: 18.98

Wild Woman Archetype (2-Tape Set)

Previously released as Women Who Run With the Wolves, this program preceded the publication of the best-selling book by the same name, and is similar in content, though not identical — it is magical storytelling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and women and wildlife really, have been tarred with the same brush. They have been destroyed, exiled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tribe of females indeed. These tapes are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine." Her delivery is excellent, and the subject matter fascinating: female sexuality, lust and sublimation, passion and creativity, wolf-woman; and much more. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND069) CS: 18.98

Daughters of Yam

Fierce Love

Two African-American artists, Deborah Major and Opal Palmer Adisa, combine their talents here out of respect for each other's work and their shared desire to revitalize the tradition of poetry as a dynamic oral art. Weaving poetry and vocals over a background of jazz, they create compelling performance pieces, emphasizing the possibilities of the present, while maintaining the unique strengths of their heritage and gender. They're about celebration, fortitude and defiance... about pride and tenderness. This 1993 release includes Black Woman I, Resistance, Afro-American Song, In Praise of Black Men, Filimo's Woman, Jazz Me, and more. Their vast combined experiences — as authors, teachers, actors and multi-media artists — all contribute to the power of this work. (IR17) CS: 9.98

Deena Metzger

This Body, My Life (2-Tape Set)

Deena shares her story of her recovery from a radical mastectomy, and her profound discovery that creativity and imagination can heal. She sees personal illness as a metaphor for the planet's disease, and discusses the links between life-threatening illness and the toxic environment we live in. She also discusses healing as a political act, the wisdom of older women, and much more. While this program concerns the challenge of cancer, it is not about slipping quietly into death, but rather about awakening into life through creativity and love. 2 tapes, 150 minutes. Laura Simms

Women and Wild Animals (2-Tape Set)

Animals speak the natural rhythm of the earth, the joyful and fearless dance of birth and death, reminding us of our wilder, more instinctual selves. Hearing stories reawakens our animal ears and eyes, and reminds us, as all myths do, to live with wisdom and compassion as part of the natural world. Subtitled How the Morning Welcomes, this 2-tape set is a collection of stories based on sacred myth, animal lore, and personal experience... both an eloquent exploration of the feminine principle and an invocation to our animal and human ancestors. With music by Steve Gorn; includes Wolf Girl at Devil's River, Mother of the Animals, Eagle Mother, Mistress of the Waves, and more. 1 hour 40 min. (AUD37) CS: 16.98

Laura Simms

Moon On Fire...Power of Feminine

On this storytelling tape for adults, Laura brings to life the Feminine Principle through her vivid portrayals of the old crone, the wise consort, and other symbols of female being. Folktales from Africa, Siberia, Hawaii, and Persia are told with animation, imagination, and colorful characterizations. Laura says, "They can be heard as separate narratives, or as story within story of the bigger story of ourselves. If we seduce Her to awaken us, She will nurture our world. If we ignore Her, She will destroy in order to awaken us." Recommended. (YM1) CS: 9.98

Lynda Barry

The Lynda Barry Experience

Luckily, this isn't an album of music, or listeners might be frightened by the exuberant and aggressively off-kay song which opens and closes this collection of short stories and bizarre answering machine messages. Lynda's bittersweet stories of growing up in a lower middle class neighborhood in the late 1960's will be a theme familiar to fans of her syndicated strip Ernie Pook's Comeek. Speaking through the voice of a young teenage girl, she has the ability to make us simultaneously laugh and cry at the world. One of the many highlights is the story about how "lesbianism" became the rage in her elementary school class... as the theme song says, "It's a way out, way out experience!" This tape almost didn't make it into this catalog because it was so busy circulating among the staff here; highly recommended! (GOS22008) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Work as a Spiritual Path (2 Tapes)

Work approached with total devotion of purpose follows in the richest spiritual traditions — the Buddhist view of "right livelihood," the Quaker ideal of spiritual service through work, and the Shaker tradition of putting our highest selves into each small daily chore. Here the author of the bestseller Do What You Love, the Money Will Follow offers this audio session for those seeking a meaningful work life that honors the spiritual path as well. Fortysomething: Women in Transition

This tape was created for the 19 million American Baby Boomers who are (often reluctantly) entering perimenopause. Born in 1948, this "Maverick for Menopause" wants to "get the myth of menopause out of the closet. Menopause is not a disease, it is a step toward freedom." She discusses the physiological changes that take place during this decade, how to get a handle on the health issues, and how to make the necessary attitude adjustments to help you sail through menopause with ease. (MLL011) CS: 10.98

Myths/Realities About Menopause (3)

This 3-tape set from the Women's Middle Health Project presents lots of useful information and helpful advice for women ages 40-60, from six female experts (medical doctors, professors, even a health commissioner) on menopause. Here are the topics discussed: What is happening to your body?; Hormone replacement therapy — is it for you?; Alternative approaches to menopausal discomfort; How to cope with the emotional rollercoaster; Sexually at midlife (primarily in heterosexual terms, though there is a reference to lesbians); and How to maximize your health and physical well-being. The Chenille Sisters The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RH49) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Children of Selma Who Will Speak for the Children

Jesse Jackson said of this album: "Unbelievable harmonic messages of peace, love and justice that could transform the world if the world would listen." This collection of new songs from community children of the historic Civil Rights Movement, produced by Cathy Fink and Jane Sapp, is a highly political and moving statement of continuing strength and struggle. It weaves strands from the musical traditions of gospel, blues, and rap, with lyrics by Rose Sanders which are at once poetic and direct, speaking out against racism and sexism and war-making, and for self-respect, a rainbow coalition. Piano by Jane Sapp, vocals by 25 female and male children and teens. Includes: Unite Children, Black is Beautiful, If Children Rule the World, I Just Want to Be Me. Highly recommended. Heather Bishop Bellybutton

Save on the LP! Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC—Canada's national radio network—this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' albums around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaldor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lotamus") and little songs: "Oh my bellybutton I love you... You're the only friend I have—the one who really cares/ cause every time I need you—you're always there... When things get down and looking kinda grim/ simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in...". Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. Heather produced and mixed. Heather Bishop Purple People Eater

Well folks, we fucked out! Heather Bishop decided to focus her considerable talent, wit, and warmth on another kids' album. Opening with a moving rendition of Ghost Riders in the Sky complete with female pronouns, she then swings into The Fairy Song and the rickrolling The Name Game ("Shirley Shirley be Shirley..."). Winter Lullabye will soothe sleepyheads of all ages, as will her gentle version of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. Connie Kaldor, Tracy Riley & Ilana Zarembo continue inspired back-up vocals and again, production and instrumentation is highly sophisticated. Recommended for pre-school, middle young. A Duck in New York City

Winner of the Gold Parents Choice Award, and following in the tradition of Billy Button and Purple People Eater, Heather's third children's album is much more than a collection of songs — it's the story of the adventures of a country duck in the big city. From a chance meeting with a robot on the street to playing a guitar solo with the Slugs, Heather's whimsical fantasy abounds — funny and touching in turns. Several of the songs are by Connie Kalcut, who accompanies Heather on vocals, includes Dancing Fool and I Want A Robot. Highly recommended! (MOP008) CS: 9.98

Lullaby Magic

Remarkable — I had to leave the keyboard and take a nap! Sweet little lullabies, uniquely designed with vocals on one side and instrumental versions of the same songs on the flip side, so you can sing to the baby yourself; lyrics included. Features music by Buffy St. Marie, Mozart, Brahms, James Taylor, the Beatles and more. Beautifully packaged, easy to use, Joanie's voice is very soothing, and the instrumentals are superbly arranged in a quasi-classical style with oboe, bassoon, cello, and other instruments rarely heard on children's recordings. Enchanting. (DIS1) CS: 10.98

Joemy Wilson

Dulcimer Lullabies

Featuring Joemy on hammered dulcimer with her usual ensemble of Celtic harp, guitar, violin and flute, this all-instrumental 1991 collection of lullaby favorites (Brahms' Lullaby, All Through the Night, Hushabye) as well as some less familiar quiet-time gems from several countries is bound to be a favorite of adults as well as kids! It was the logical album for Joemy to record, since for years parents and teachers have been telling her that they play her soothing sounds to settle down their hyper young things! Judy Collins

Baby's Bedtime

Judy Collins' soothing voice takes young sleepyheads on a gentle journey into sweet dreams, with this spellbinding collection of 27 best-loved lullabies. This will be treasured by parents as well as children. (LYS102) CS: 10.98

Libby Riddles/Shelley Gill/Hobo Jim

Danger the Dog Yard Cat (Tape-Book)

Not only was Libby the first woman to win the famous Iditarod sled dog race across Alaska, she's a talented children's author, song-writer and vocalist! She co-wrote these tunes about how her cat, Danger, leads a woman musher's dog team to victory as "lead cat"! The 38-page book was written with Shelley Gill (an experienced musher herself — she completed the Iditarod in 1979) and beautifully illustrated by Shannon Cartwright; if you read the book while listening, just turn the page when you hear the Meow! This whimsical and musical tale of the fair north makes a wonderful gift for the adventurous girl. (PAW6) CS: 14.98

Lillian Allen

Nothing But A Hero

This award-winning — and amazing — Canadian dub poet (see her adult albums in Reggae section) has written two books for children and young people. Out of them, she has created this 1992 release of songs in a reggae style for children; includes Harriet Tubman (Nothing But A Hero), Mother Earth, I & Africa, Mandela, and several more. Margie Rosenthal/ Ilene Safyan

Where Dreams Are Born

Sublime Jewish Lullabies, this enchanting cassette features lullabies and ballads from many different Jewish cultures: Eastern European, Sephardic, Israeli and American, and are sung in Yiddish, Hebrew, Ladino and English. Margie and Ilene are the sublime vocalists; other musicians are listed as contributing the gorgeous guitar, piano and flute. Lyrics and translations are included, includes: Duma, Duma; Tumbalaka; Over the Rainbow; A Sephardic Lullaby. Lovely, just lovely... (SR004) CS: 9.98

Free To Be...A Family

Just a list of the artists who appear on this follow-up to the original Free To Be is enough reason to present this to every child you know: Whoopi Goldberg, Lily Tomlin's brilliant Edith Ann, Bea Arthur playing fairy godmother to Glode Adrien's comic Cinderella, Bonnie Raitt singing on I'm Never Afraid (To Say What's On My Mind), there's LadySmith Black Mambazo, Carly Simon, Kermit the Frog and the Muppets, Robin Williams, Mel Brooks, Jane Curtin, Pat Benatar, and the list goes on. A companion piece to the best-selling book by the same name, or all by itself, the songs, stories and poems on this album encourage kids to feel part of the universal family. (AM5196) CS: 10.98

Free To Be...You And Me

With Carol Channing, Diana Ross, Alan Aida, & others. There may never have been any kids' album in history which so thoroughly charmed kids, adults & anyone else. That it can communicate anti-sexist material in such a delightful, creative, appealing, exuberant way is remarkable. Includes numbers like Girl Land, Williams Doll, Parents Are People, It's All Right to Cry. One kid said "Listening to this record is like listening to my heart laughing." Highly recommended! Child to Child

Don't just buy this for kids! Yes, you can make a great gift for a child with this... but these gorgeous classical guitar renditions of such sweet tender melodies deserves to be heard and savored by us older folks too (inasmuch as all!) Mary's interpretive talents and beautiful technique reveal the haunting essences of familiar lullabies like All the Pretty Little Horses, All Through the Night, Brahms' Lullaby, and more, as well as an ancient Hebrew lullaby, Standing Under My Baby's Cradle, and others from Afro-Cuban, Chinese, Latin American, Caribbean, and American Spiritual traditions. Pamala Ballingham

Earth Mother Lullabies, Vol. 1

Selected by the ALA as a Notable Children's Recording for 1986, this is a lovely and even celestial collection of timeless lullabies from a myriad of traditions. Includes carefully-chosen representations from the Icelandic, Iroquois (the chant-like Ho Ho Watanai), Irish (Garten Mother's Lullaby), Jewish, Japanese, African, Australian, Russian, and Spanish cultures. It's unique in the fact that the instrumentation — harp, flute, mandolin, guitar and percussion — is sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy, without diminishing the effectiveness of its purpose: to put little ones to sleep! Booklet of words included. (EMI) CS: 9.98

Treasury of Earth Mother Lullabies

Okay y'all, this is a test... We want to know whether we should be stocking children's CD's (lots are available that we're not using, since when we did, you didn't buy any); as this is a CD-only release that we think is worth having, we have no choice but to offer it in this format! Your orders, or lack of them, will be telling! 14 of the best selections (58 minutes) from Pamala's 3 volumes of Earth Mother Lullabies, from all over the world, proven effective for sleeplessness in both children and adults. Peter, Paul & Mary

Peter, Paul & Mommy, Too

This 1993 release continues to charm children (of all ages), both old and new fans, with sing-along tracks such as I Know An Old Lady Who Swallowed A Fly, We Shall Overcome, Pastures of Plenty, Garden Song, and once again, Puff (The Magic Dragon). (WB45216) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Priscilla Herdman

Star Dreamer-Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinaire. The first side contains wonderful fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waiting bears and stuff; side 2 consists of 9 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Springing from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen. Charming! (ALA1001) CS: 9.98

Priscilla Herdman

Daydreamer

This extraordinary songfinder and eloquent performer presents a worthy follow-up to her best-selling children's album, Star Dreamer, with this 1993 release. The 15 songs celebrate the power of imagination, as she dedicates the album to daydreamers of all ages. She's joined in the effort by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen on harmony vocals; Abby Newton on cello; Molly Mason on bass; songs include Dreamcatcher, A Fairy Went A-Marketing, What A Wonderful World. A portion of the royalties are being donated to UNICEF. (MLP2720) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Re-Bops

Oldies For Kool Kiddies

Custom-made for the young and the nostalgic: for baby boomers and boomer kids! Rock 'n' roll favorites from the 50's and 60's, like Lollipop, Monster Mash, Rockin' Robin, Blue Moon, Spish Splash, The Loco-Motion, and many more, re-recorded by a children's chorus and a bunch of baby boomer adults! The cover lends itself to the kinds of stereotypes we at Ladyslipper don't endorse, but maybe you can use the opportunity to discuss that with your kids, if you agree with us. Or throw the cover away and make your own! We think the inside cassette is worth it. (RB101) CS: 9.98

The Re-Bops

Funny 50's & Silly 60's

This isn't just a "Volume II" of the Re-Bops' first hit album; it's a collection of some of the wackiest, nuttiest songs that the baby-boom generation ever drove their parents crazy with! Updated versions of those favorites, from Purple People Eater to Woolly Bully to Witch Doctor to Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on the Bedpost Overnight?, will keep you and the kids in your life giggling, jumping and singing for years to come. (RB102) CS: 9.98

The Re-Bops

Raised on Rock n' Roll

This collection of bouncy, fun tunes (More Oldies for Kool Kids and Their Grownups) will keep you and your kids busy for hours, as you first listen, sing along, and then try to explain to them the meaning of songs like Who Put the Bomp and The Lion Sleeps Tonight. Also includes Poison Ivy, Come Go With Me, Mockingbird. Features both male and female lead vocals, with kids' chorus (and commentary!). (RB103) CS: 9.98

Robin Goodrow & Michael Goodrow

Amazing!

One of the most amazing kids' albums we've heard, and we know others share our sentiments. The music's extremely high-energy, the production very professional, the instrumentation representative of world cultures, the lyrics pretty right on and aware as well as fun, and we can't imagine that this wouldn't be a hit anywhere! Songs promote self-confidence, owning one's inner power (as opposed to transferring it to TV superheroes), peaceful co-existence, friendship, and mischief! Includes Chocolate Pudding Queen, Rainbow of Colors, The Power I'm Cool For ages 4-11... highly recommended! (AMZ01) CS: 9.98

Bill Folk

Lookin' for Mr. Right

A wonderfully honest, frank, emotion-filled, gay-affirming 1991 album by a Bay Area singer/songwriter. With the instrumental assistance of folks such as Barbara Borden, John Bucchino, and Jan McKinley, he presents songs such as title track: A Song About Women and Love about being the only man at a women's music concert; Man Lovin', Lovin' Man and No More Daydreams, two tender love songs; and Castro Street Station, a cruising tune. Everything Possible

About this 1993 release, Michael Callen said, "...a stunning musical debut. Any true connoisseur of great singing, good taste and queer content will immediately rush out and BUY THIS ALBUM." And Kate Clinton said Bill "sings like an angel." We don't need to add much to these accolades, because we agree with them... its gay-positive and loving and beautiful. So, do it! Childman

A powerful offering from the lead singer of Consolidated, this 1993 release is a laser blast against all things patriarchal. Performing in front of a musical backdrop that varies from industrial to hard rock to sweet 1970's soul, Adam Sherbourne condemns male violence against women, children and the earth. If the furious indignation that drives this album were from a woman, it would be called "strident." Childman paints personal montages of the pain and destruction caused by traditional male attitudes and challenges men to reject this inheritance, a strong anti-sexist sentiment summed up by the incredible song Refuse To Be A Man. Highly recommended! (NET30080) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Communards

Red

We have a small stash of this out-of-print gem, but hurry, as supplies are limited! This forthright, catchy and polished album contains two songs dealing with AIDS: the incredible For A Friend, and Victims; the celebratory There's More To Love Than Boy Meets Girl; and Tomorrow about partner abuse. Play More Music

Thank God for these guys! I reckon they've hit upon the most successful way to communicate political information: kick-ass music you can't help but move to, combined with lyrics that will throw the doors to your heart open in joy that somebody's talking about the important stuff publicly! This San Francisco trio invites Wendy O. Matik and Crack MC for contributions, and give the Yeastie Gutz a cut of their own (You Suck). The overall result is guaranteed to motivate you, piss you off (especially when they hand the mike to their audience members for comments, and you get a taste of how reactionary the younger generation can be), enthrall you, and possess your body in a rhythmic manner. Includes Tool & Die, Veggie Bear Manifesto, Hip O' Criss, and one member's coming out story, Accept Me For What I Am. 1992. (IRS13171) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rainbow Sign

About the most diversified album of children's music we've ever seen, which should delight adults with good taste just as much as their younger charges! From Sweet Honey in the Rock, to the Holly Near! Bonnie Gilbert! Arlo Guthrie! Pete Seeger collaboration... from Flor de Cano to Navajo artist Sharon Birch... there's Mike and Peggy Seeger, Basia, Tom Chapin, Children of Salina, Yellowman, Patricia Sitt, John McCutcheon, and more, chock-full of important humanitarian messages! A highlight is Sally Rogers' fabulous song 1492, which exposes the misinformation connected with Columbus and which needs to be heard by all kids in case they're still spreading lies in schools... So do some kids and their adults a favor: make this quality '92 release your next gift! (ROU8025) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Walk A Mile

One of the most animated, contemporary, professional, hippest kids' recordings we've heard; it should have strong appeal to kids from a wide range of cultural and socio-economic backgrounds, as it cures the problem of boring children's music! This ensemble of mixed gender, race, and age (half are kids, half adults) sing songs by Jan Nigro, Laura Nyro's brother, leading us to conclude that good songwriting is a family trait. Great messages, about independent thinking, justice, truthfulness, conflict resolution, and more. Winner, 1989 Parents' Choice Award. Highly recommended! (LCM101) CS: 9.98

"Mehn's Music"

"I like the fact that we're part of a movement of gay and straight men who are creating non-sexist music. But for those who have never heard of the men's movement, to say that we do Men's Music only conjures up images of songs about pick-up trucks. Indeed, most music since the beginning of time has been Men's Music by subliminally or not-so-subliminally promoting patriarchal values. For this reason, I think we need to make a distinction by spelling it Mehn's Music."

— Ron Romanovsky, originator of the Mehn's Music spelling!

Friendly FaScism

The first anti-patriarchal, pro-feminist, anti-racist & non-homophobic radical vegetarian hip hop group of guys this reviewer has ever encountered! The liner notes don't give their identities, but the lyrics are printed, and damn, they're good! San Francisco-based, they employ rap, hip hop & industrial styles to convey their disgust at this culture's anti-life systems, artistically and intelligently exposing the connections between all the rampant "isms": Unity of Oppression compares patriarchal devaluing of women with meat-eating. Typical Male describes the different identities today's jerk may wear ("the sensitive racist... the pseudo feminist... thinks with his D.I.C.K.") and the daily atrocities they commit; the title song is a chilling, bouncy tune that makes George Orwell's vision look like a child's story... All in all, this is one of the most important releases of the decade, politics you can't help but dance to. Highly recommended. (IRS13089) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Font; Sweet Honey's Breath, and an incredible cover of Chris Williamson's Shooting Star. Live: Out On The Road

Our favorite boy acappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural acappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun, Oughta Be A Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon; Donde Esta Dolores?; Michael Callen's Living in Warzone; and fun taggotee favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles
Diversity

The repertoire of this recording is taken from the 109-member GMCLA's 1991 European tour, and reflects the diversity of American music and of gay life in America. Contains both popular and concert music, traditional men's choral pieces and recently composed works, with an emphasis on works by gay composers. Cuts include Somewhere Medley, Connie Kaldor's There Comes A Time, Ned Rorem's stunning Love Alone, a poem cycle by Paul Monette elegizing the death of his lover, Roger Horowitz, plus Canto de Esperanza, Family, and a gorgeous rendition of Ave Maria, in Latin, of course! If you enjoy men's voices, you're sure to appreciate this recording! (GMC1) CD: 16.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles
Hidden Legacies

Don Bailey, artistic director of the Chorus, commissioned Roger Bourland and John Hall to compose a major choral work dealing with the AIDS crisis in "clear unequivocal terms". The result is this cantata in 7 movements scored for synthesizers, bass guitar, drums and the men's chorus, whose "very existence is a response to the crisis". This 1993 album is, in the words of the composer, "a tribute to those living with HIV, to those left behind, and to those who have offered selfless help in times of pain and intense sorrow". Joe Bracco
True To Myself

This gay songwriter was on the verge of receiving national acclaim when he was taken by AIDS in 1991, at age 30. Thanks to amazing modern technology as well as the dedication of a friend, Paul Phillips (half of the Romanovsky and Phillips duo) was able to take 10 of Joe's rough home recordings into the studio, adding rhythm, instrumental and additional vocal tracks (some by Ron and Paul) to Joe's vocal and guitar — to create this posthumous release. Friend In My Pocket encourages condom use; With Our Voices is a stirring anthem written after the '87 March on Washington for Lesbian/Gay Rights; Coming Out is a song which Joe had recorded in the studio himself, and Golden Boy is presented without any extra instrumentation. Were uncomfortable with some of the sentiments expressed in a couple of the songs, Yo No Pago and Nas Me in Spanish; maybe they'll spark some productive discussion. (FRFJ81) CS: 9.98

John Bucchino
Solitude Lessons

If you're a romantic, this is for you! John writes eloquent and beautiful pieces about the many aspects of love in a way that's likely to speak to you and your experiences, with titles like: To The Heat In Each Other's Eyes, If I'd Been With Him, Love Will Find A Way. We especially like Period of Time, a play on words that is both clever and sensitive. With his trademark keyboards, expanded to include synthesized drums and rhythms. (DIN302) CS: 9.98

John Orlando
Drum Songs

A very fantastic album of acoustic drumming and percussion rhythms, created by a talented artist who has played drums with the San Francisco Gay Freedom Band since the band hit the streets in the 70's. John utilizes over 21 percussion instruments from all corners of the earth — including djembe, bongos, kalimba, gourd, sacred chimes, woodblock, timbales, shaman drum, snare drum, Turkish cymbals, congas and roto toms — in addition to live crickets and birds, to produce enchanting melodies and insistent polyrhythms. It's one of the best percussion albums we've heard: interesting, compelling, never a dull or repetitive moment... and we highly recommend it! (CLM2748) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lunacy

This album is a first, an entrancing album of pagan/goddess spirituality music from two "faggot witches," as they call themselves. This acappella duo—Greg Johnson and Sparky T. Rabbit—performs primarily original songs, with occasional material from Starhawk and others. One of the most notable songs here is Boys Burned Too, a very tender and touching tribute to the gay men who were burned along with the witches. Also includes Paula Walowitz's She's Been Waiting, Apophis's Song, Demeter's Song, The Moon Song ("The full moon/ is her vagina spread wide/ With the wild realm of all possibilities/ Every possibility pouring out..."), Kali Ma ("Dark Mother/ Black Mother"), Purple God ("Queer God"). We like this album — recommend it! (LUN1) CS: 10.98

The Hand of Desire
This fall 1992 release is, like their first effort, acappella, pagan in intent, and queer in its messages... containing both original material and newly-arranged pieces from Starhawk and others. This description is in advance of its release, so we'll write more next year! (LUN2) CS: 10.98

Michael Callen
Purple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who has been battling AIDS since 1981, has been in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education: testifying before Congress, editing publications, appearing on major TV shows, participating in fund-raising events. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic/ without getting caught up in the polemic"... from How To Have Sex). Songs include Where the Boys Are, Me & Dickie D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Warlike, performed with band-partner ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. Ah! he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance. Enough to recommend it highly. (SIG581) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

New York City Gay Men's Chorus
Love Lives On

The best known of the 100 gay choruses in the US, NYCGMC has a huge following, and, thankfully, a recording back in print with this 1991 release! Composed of 150 all-volunteer voices who make and perform music for the education, enjoyment and cultural enrichment of their vast audience, they produce 3 sold-out concerts annually at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. A portion of the proceeds from this album will be donated to AIDS research. Includes Little Boogie Woogie, Boogie Woogie, No One Is Alone, Tuxedo Junction, 14 more. (WIR91647) CS: 16.98

Swelllegant Elegance

Philandros is made up of 16 of the 180-190 members of the Seattle Men's Chorus... and this 1993 album contains the music from which they developed their show of the same name. Subtitled The Music of Cole Porter, they take a fresh, witty and romantic look at 31 classic Cole Porter tunes. They've divided his music into ratty categories: Like Cole By Night, Cole in Love, Cole in Society, Cole on Broadway... includes My Heart Belongs to Daddy, Miss Otis Regrets, Anything Goes, The Gypsy in Me, and lots more swell songs. Pussy Tourette
In Hi-Fi!

And now for something completely different... Raunchy, ribald and ridden with double entendres, this sexually-in-your-face 1993 offering from the Bay area drag queen — with a large lesbian fan contingent — is not for the easily offended or aurally conservative. He (or, as some would say, she) serves up both dance music and cabaret plus a Gilbert and Sullivan-esque ditty (I Think He's Gay) aided and abetted by 3 very soulful female back-up singers, shaking up some commonly-held ideas of "male" and "female" with a whole new thrang. Some here at Ladyslipper are wondering what this is doing in our catalog; others say, "Create a scene, frighten the neighbors, make a statement — get this album!" (FB93012) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips
I Thought You'd Be Taller!

An energetic, humorous, loving, campy, gay-affirming album, as evidenced by some of the song titles: Womb Envy, The Prince Charming Tango, Closest Case, I Can Have/ Affluence, these guys are simply the cat's paws, the crown princes(esses) of the Renaissance of gay men's music... don't miss an opportunity to see them live! (FRF101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips
Trouble in Paradise

Dedicated to gay and lesbian activists around the world, this LP practically leaps out of your speakers and turns your immediate environment into a rollicking carnival of gay delight! Produced by Teresa Trull, it's one of the finest examples of music/commentary/comedy to emerge from the growing genre of political gay men's music. You can't listen to some of the songs—What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot Am I?, Wimp, Guilt Trip—without feeling, at the very least, any amusement at seeing yourself in them...also includes Homophobia and some great advice for Ronnie and others, Don't Use Your Penis (For a Brain). Instrumentation is sophisticated: some of the best of Bay Area talent put in an appearance. Highly recommended. (FRF102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Emotional Rollercoaster

Returning to more of an acoustic sound, the third album from the "queens" of political camp (and we don't mean Camp David) is again chock-full of humor and social commentary. It's as gay- and lesbian-positive as the others, with even more political determination because of the fight against AIDS and the renewed homophobia from the right. The empowering Living With AIDS could be the theme song of our generation—and makes this album a must for everyone. And from an expose of the absurdity of the Crimes Against Nature laws to the rallying cry for unity and responsibility in the face of AIDS fear ("We don't have to sacrifice our passion or our pride; we just have to be on the safe side") and the humor of My Mother's Clothes, Wait For the New Age, Straightening Up the House a la Kate Clinton, Ron and Paul demonstrate they know that the personal is political. Very highly recommended! (FRF103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips Be Political, Not Polite

Packed with 15 new songs, this challenging and political—perhaps even a bit controversial—four-song 1991 release is their best, in their opinion! John Buccino is keyboardist/arranger, and they've enlisted the help of a few friends to sing back-up on several songs: Holly Near, Aliz, Dinkin, Phranc, and Michael Callen (of the Filartinos). Includes On No... I'm in Love (with My Therapist), When Heterosexism Strikes, Queers in the Closet, Love Is All It Takes, for lesbian and gay parents, and many other new hits. Of course we recommend this! (FRF104) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ron Romanovsky Hopeful Romantic

Produced by Teresa Trull, Ron Romanovsky's first solo effort is best described as "a romantic album with moments of comic relief." The 12 original cuts include collaborations with John Buccino and Tom Wilson Weinberg, and run the gamut from pop ballads such as The Telephone Company Loves Me (a long-distance love song) to the eccentric and hilarious I Like To Folia. A temporary departure from his work with Paul Phillips, this album could be subtitled Romanovsky Lite: 60 percent less political! (FRF105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rumors of the Big Wave Burning Times

This eclectic rock/folk-rock 1992 album features the most haunting rendition ever recorded of band-member Charlie Murphy's Burning Times, his well-known original song about the burning of the witches during the Inquisition; plus 9 other vintage Charlie Murphy songs. Haunting and powerful. (EB42535) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

RuPaul Supermodel of the World

Everybody say love! If the film Paris Is Burning had been made a few years later, Supermodel (You Better Work) could have been its theme song. This drag queen has sashayed into MTV superstardom with his flamboyant attitude coupled with a driving dance-club beat. Includes Back To My Roots, a tribute to his mother's hair dressing salon and racial pride. What other top 40 phenomenon sings about love at first sight between two men? RuPaul takes up where the late great Sylvester left off. Subversive and eminently danceable! (TB1056) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus How Fair This Place

Born in 1978 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to tour nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity, inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing and love—a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular (Love Medley, including Unchained Melody), theatrical (selections from Miss Saigon, Chess and Jekyll & Hyde), and sacred pieces (Utter Blessing, Gabrieli's Oboe, On Earth As It Is In Heaven). English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SFG10-91) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus Brahms, Bernstein & The Boys!

This fully orchestrated 1993 release is more classically oriented than their previous, featuring primarily music by Mozart, Brahms, and Leonard Bernstein. You'll enjoy the Bernstein medley, with songs from West Side Story, Candide, Wonderful Town, and On the Town... song titles include Gitter And Be Gay, My Darlin' Eisen, I Can Cook Too! Also includes their 15th anniversary commission by openly gay composer Robert Seeley entitled Everyone Sang! Featured are a soloist from the company, plus 2 women soloists: one of whom is a "fabulously" out lesbian cabaret singer... A whopping 72 minutes of music! (SFG393) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus Tours America '81

In 1992, this chorus re-released their 1981 debut album of classics, from a Germain medley including The Man I Love and Embraceable You, to Wagner's Pilgrim's Chorus, to Schubert's Night Song in the Forest. (SFG81) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sylvester Stars

Four extended dance-tunes—title, Body Strong, I (Who Have Nothing), I Need Somebody to Love Tonight—to commemorate the life of this well-known and well-loved vocalist/drag queen who died of AIDS. Ted Fox One Of Us

Paul Phillips (of Romanovsky & Phillips) recommended this singer/songwriter to us, whose life journey has taken him from swimming and trampolining competitions, to jail, to professional theater, to finally this music that bubbles over with gay pride! He credits his volunteer work with the NAMES Project AIDS Quilt as the motivation to write and sing the truth about his life. With his acoustic guitar, he performs alternately rousing and introspective songs about coming out, losing friends because of their homophobia, and affirming long-term relationships. You'll catch yourself humming along with his gay pride anthem Sink Or Swim... also includes a beautiful synthesizer instrumental inspired by the Quilt. (TED1) CS: 9.98

Tom Wilson Weinberg Get Used To It

This 1993 release presents Tim's political and satirical gay musical revue for the nineties, about which newspaper reviewers have said the following: "A joyous statement for all generations of gay culture..." "A humorous look at serious gay issues..." "The romantic songs are every bit as sweet and uplifting as the satirical songs are biting and funny." Songs include Breaking the Penal Code With You, Friends in High Places, Who Did Langston Love?, Three Letter Word, Means To An End, Colorblind Blues. (AB106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tom Wilson Weinberg Ten Percent Revue

This studio recording of this fabulous Gay Revue (made a few years after the "live in Boston" version) features Tom Wilson Weinberg, Jennifer Firestone, Paul Hardt, Jimmy Humphrey, Helena Snow, and Lisa Bernstein in a humorous, touching, serious, enriching and just-plain-wonderful presentation. Chronicles growing up gay (The Ballad of Plain Jane), facing pressure to be heterosexual (Wedding Song), embracing and empowering ourselves as gay men and lesbians (Flaunting It, We're Everywhere). Turtle Creek Choral Testament

This 150-voice male chorus is accompanied by the Dallas Wind Symphony, on this stirring 1992 release of works by 20th-century American composers. Included are Randall Thompson's The Testament of Freedom with text by Thomas Jefferson, Song of Democracy by Howard Hanson with text by Walt Whitman, Simple Gifts by Aaron Copland, Make Our Garden Grow by Leonard Bernstein, and other choral works. (REF49) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Choral From the Heart: Live

This 150-voice men's chorus based in Dallas is now well into their second decade of performing. This album was recorded in 1990, and features a warm and enjoyable program of popular and traditional songs by a wide variety of songwriters. Artistic direction by Timothy Seelig. (TCC1) CS: 9.98 ... Turtle Creek Choral When We No Longer Touch

Subtitled A Cycle of Songs for Survival, this album is a benefit for the American Foundation for AIDS Research, created by Kristopher John Anthony. The first half features the chorus, and deals with the stages of grief: denial, isolation, anger, bargaining, depression, and finally acceptance and then hope. ("And through all the sadness and the pain comes the one thought that can make me smile again; I have loved.") The second part, Traces of Myself, is a piece inspired by poet Peter McWilliams from his work How To Survive the Loss of Love, and is performed by the Teresa String Quartet. Solemn yet redemptive. (TCC3) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists Feeding the Flame

Subtitled Songs by Men to End AIDS, this anthology by several of the leading artists in the Men's Music genre takes up where the out-of-print Folkways anthology, Walls to Roses, left off. It includes songs by Romanovsky & Phillips (their previously unreleased One of the Enemy, about a teacher unable to be cut to her/his students), Tom Wilson Weinberg, Michael Callen, John Buccino, Pete Seeger, Fred Small, Geoff Morgan, Willie Sarrell, and Peter Altop. A great way to become acquainted with these diverse, pro-feminist musicians! (FF541) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists We're All In This Together

Subtitled A Benefit for AIDS, 2 dollars for every CD sold is being donated by the label to charitable organizations for the fight against AIDS. This 1993 compilation includes contributions by Pat Austin (the title song, which she performed at the '93 March on Washington), John Coltrane, Diane Schuur, Dave Grusin, Ellis Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday (singing Love Me), and others; 3 tracks are available only on this album. William Finn March of the Falsettos

Showtunes! Winner of the 1981 "Best Musical" Outer Critics Circle award, and the second part of the heralded Marvin Trilogy—which is described as "a series of highly personal, idiosyncratic, chamber pieces that revolve around a thoroughly charming, intelligent, spoiled, neurotic hero." It tells the story of Marvin, who leaves his wife and young son for a male lover, and then loses everything except the possibility of reestablishing a relationship with his son. This is one of the most popular of the gay-themed musicals. (DRG12581) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

William Finn & James Lapine Falsettoland

The original cast recording from the 1990 off-Broadway musical play (or actually, Act II of a current version, and in fact part III of the Marvin Trilogy—there, are you confused?). the wimps War and Quiche the wimps are a punkish Philadelphia band dedicated to challenging, or at least exposing, unexamined patriarchal concepts of men's roles, especially toward women, and traditional concepts of what makes a man "manly." Their second release (1992) continues their tradition of wit, insight and outrage. Besides the two title topics, the album looks at small-town homophobia (Rose Fingers Dawn, a story of little girl games) and cross-dressing (My Favorite Shirt), and asks the musical question: "If Robert Bly and his pals want to prove their manliness, why don't they slay home and actually do some work?" Our sentiments exactly! Sometimes melodic, sometimes noisy, always incoherent; lyrics included; recommended! (WIM2) CS: 6.98

Lesbian Sexuality

Barbara Hammer was one of the first lesbian filmmakers who in the 70s began to create lesbian erotic art films, and her works are considered classics. This video actually contains 4 short avant-garde films: Dyketactics, Barbara's "lesbian commercial," was made in 1974; 4 minutes, 110 images. Double Strength, 1976, 16 minutes, depicts a trapeze artist as an allegory for a relationship; Women 1 Love, 1976, 27 minutes, consists of footage taken over 5 years; and Multiple Orgasm, 57 min. total. Lesbian Humor

The 6 avant-garde films included here reflect the filmmaker's satirical use of technology: Superdyke is a comedy about a troop of shield-bearing Amazons; Menses, Our Trip, Sync Touch, Doll House, and No No Nooky TV. 55 min. (BH2VC) 39.98

Behind the Veil: Nuns

This wonderful, interesting, engrossing, feminist documentary explores the history of women in the Catholic Church, while exposing the patriarchal and patriarchal attitudes and hierarchies that have prevailed. Part 1 contrasts the experiences of several contemporary nuns, while Part 2 reviews periods in history when women held power: pre-Christian Celtic spirituality as well as scholarly women in the Middle Ages such as Hildegard of Bingen. Worm

This musical duo consists of lesbian and gay twins Janie and Jimmy Worm, a unique connection which, in and of itself, speaks loudly and clearly in favor of the wholesomeness of gay families — whether they be genealogical or by choice. They grew up under a strong maternal influence, where they cultivated the rich, melodic harmonies they apply to songs about justice, equality, empowerment, unity, love and peace. Songs include Woman Of The Third Wave, Gay Nineties, I've Got The Right, Let Freedom Ring, and other melodious morsels. Our only complaint is the lack of lyrics and liner notes in the package... maybe with the next printing! P.S. We're putting this in the Menn's Music section because Jimmy's voice is somewhat more prominent than Janie's, and because we think the content will be of high interest to Gay/Lesbian bookstores. The tone is light and playful, and the material informative and humorous. And the narrator changes her clothes incessantly... great costumes! 32 minutes, black and white. (GK2VC) 39.95

Women, Ritual & Religion

A few sections of this video have audio or video flaws (too dark, poor contrast, equipment hum) but we offer it in spite of these imperfections because we like the content! So only order it if feminist theology is of interest to you, and don't expect great technical quality (and we won't take any defective returns, since we're telling you about the defects up front). OK, that said, the program focuses on Judaism, Christianity, and witchcraft, and their relation to women and feminism. Z. Budapest explains that the establishment of patriarchy brought glorification of war; performs and explains the self-blessing ritual; and discusses witchcraft and Goddess-worship. Naomi Goldberg discusses the sexism of Judaism and Christianity, and Carol P. Christ discusses the roots of oppression in Western religion, and more. (GK3VC) 39.95

Greta Garbo

Queen Christina

Queen Christina of Sweden, played by Garbo, was independent, witty, androgynous, and she wore men's clothes. This film, while throwing in the obligatory Hollywood hat romantic stuff, does communicate an ambiguity in Queen Christina's sexuality with a bit of a lesbian undertone. Since the notes call the film a blend of history and fiction, we like to think that she really ran off with the woman she keeps kissing throughout the flick. 1934, black & white; 100 min. (MGM531VC) 29.95

Greta Schiller & Andrea Weiss

International Sweethearts of Rhythm

This multi-award-winning film tells the story of the 16-piece swinging, multi-racial, all-women's jazz band of the 1940's; their respect for and love for each other; their travels through the segregated south; and how they had to struggle to be taken seriously as musicians in spite of the amazing talent they collectively represented. A most wonderful documentary; highly recommended! (JEB1VC) 39.95

Greta Schiller & Andrea Weiss

Tiny & Ruby: Hell Divin' Women

The award-winning companion documentary to International Sweethearts of Rhythm about the legendary jazz trumpeter Tiny Davis (of the Sweethearts of Rhythm, as well as leader of her own women's ensemble, the Hell Divers) and her musical and life partner of over 40 years, drummer-pianist Ruby Lucas. Touching, powerful narrative poetry by Cheryl Clarke is interwoven with film footage, interviews, and photographs, creating a film that is intimate, inspirational, and joyful. Recommended! Greta Schiller

Before Stonewall

Narrated by Rita Mae Brown, winner of 2 Emmy Awards, this program employs films and interviews to give a decade-by-decade history of the lesbian and gay rights movement and experiences, from the 1920's through the present. Revealing, humorous, and emotionally charged. Directed by Greta Schiller. 87 min. (MPI1689VC) 39.95

Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios

Huichol: Sacred Pilgrimage/Wirikuta

This rare and beautiful award-winning documentary follows the Huicholes on their annual pilgrimage to Wirikuta, the sacred land, where the medicine cactus, peyote, grows. It is a joyous and inspiring journey about unity, to find their life, and to seek their visions. Includes ceremonies, sacred sites and shamanic healings, and features Huichol shamans Guadalupe de la Cruz Rios and Elestasis Perez. Produced and directed by Larain Boyll, who has completed a 6-year apprenticeship with these Huichol elder shamans; proceeds help support these Huichol families. 29 min. (FWC2VC) 39.95

Heroines: Early Women Sports Stars

With footage from the 1920's through the '60's, this film documents the excellence and achievements of many, many women athletes such as Babe Dickson, Amelia Earhart, and Billie Jean King, from tennis, golf, track and field, swimming and diving, skiing, skating, aviation, softball, baseball, basketball, field hockey, gymnastics, weightlifting, boating and other sports. 60 min. Singing For Our Lives Video

Now you can have the inspiration and power of this passionate entertainer and important social thinker in your own living room; spirited concert footage and backstage interview segments make this a memorable keepsake. Holly is backed by John Buccichino on piano; includes favorites Great Peace March, Fire in the Rain, Watch Out, Started Out Fine, Imagine My Surprise, and more. 30 minutes. (HM1VC) 29.95

The Human Race Club

The Unforgettable Pen Pal

Subtitled A Story About Prejudice and Discrimination, this animated video for kids will help them learn the negative effects of prejudice, and the importance of forming their opinions about others intelligently... a very P.C. cartoon! In the story, when A.J. and his pen pal, Joey, discover their mutual interest in basketball, they become the best of friends. But the chance to finally meet one another at a professional basketball game leads them to encounter prejudice where they least expect it! 30 minutes, based on the books by Joy Berry. Recommended! I've Heard the Mermaids Singing

This weird and wonderful feature-length Canadian film is a delight... for one thing, it depicts one of the main characters — the beautiful, sophisticated curator — in a believable, matter-of-fact lesbian relationship; it's also just a neat film. Written and directed by Patricia Rozema. (CHA9024VC) 24.95

Images: A Lesbian Love Story

A gentle, sensuous story, erotic without being explicit, and one which deals realistically with issues faced by most women in relationships. And, the actors are not Hollywood young-blondies, but rather look like regular ordinary lesbians. Sections are set to original music by Ruth Barnett & Cynthia Smith. Made by women (Gwen Tucker & Janet Lisa) for women. 54 min. (TR1VC) 49.95

Janis: The Way She Was

An unforgettable look, through interviews and rare concert footage, at one of music's most electrifying performers. She discusses her attitudes and philosophy as this documentary traces her life from childhood through ultimate superstardom. 14 songs, 95 minutes. (MCA80000VC) 29.95

JEB (Joan E. Biren)

For Love & For Life: 1987 March

Subtitled The 1987 March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights, this full-length multi-image presentation captures the meaning, the spirit, the excitement, the magnitude, and the intensity of the march like no other. Viewing it is almost like being there again (or for the first time, for anyone who missed this history-making event, the largest civil rights march ever)... and the narration is so incredibly comprehensive, so steeped in history of movements, that even folks who participated will gain a new perspective of its significance. You'll laugh, cry, be moved, proud, and inspired, as she documents the Quilt, the wedding, the march and rally, the civil disobedience action, and more. JEB, who has been documenting lesbian history and culture for many years, once again demonstrates her talent as one of the most insightful eyes of our day. Open-captioned version available upon request. Very highly recommended! (MFM1VC) 39.95

JEB (Joan E. Biren), director

A Simple Matter of Justice (Video)

This is the official 1993 March on Washington for Lesbian/Gay/Bi Rights video! It covers the morning and afternoon rallies, the march, major speeches, the wedding, the Quilt, the Holocaust memorial, the pay veterans; includes appearances by Martina, Melissa Etheridge, Casselberry-DuPre, Jesse Jackson, RuPaul, Phil Donahue, and others! Due out late fall 1993, this hour-long commemorative is to be treasured for years to come, by anyone who attended (or missed!) this major historic event. (MFM2VC) 29.95

k.d. lang and Others Country's First Ladies

On and off stage, singing and speaking from the heart on this 30-minute video are k.d. lang, plus Kathy Mattea, Emmylou Harris, Patty Loveless and Lurrie Morgan. k.d. says she came out of the womb singing... and she's here to prove it, dueling with legends Lurrie Lynn, Brenda Lee, Kitty Wells, and Roy Orbison. Also includes her "Meat Sinks" ad, which we've been waiting to see... it's a gem! (SE5943VC) 19.98

k.d. lang Harvest of Seven Years

Now our best-selling video! Subtitled Cropped & Chronical, this 1991 video presents 60 minutes of almost everyone's favorite country artist. Containing around 15 songs plus some other choice clips, it includes Barefoot, not released on any album at this time; a rare recording of a duet with Roy Orbison on his classic Crying; plus Polly Ann, Three Chordettes in an Ashling, Trail of Broken Hearts, Pullin' Back the Reins, Hanky Rock Angels, Just Walk On By, and more. Highly recommended! (SIR35234VC) 29.98

k.d. lang Salmonberries

After years of constant craving to see this film, we hear, as we go to press, it's finally about to be available in the States! We're told that k.d. lang plays a young part-time woman in the frozen north, who falls in love with a woman librarian (and in one scene, appears nude in the library... though it's all hearsay, mind you) — those of you who have seen her music video compilation, Harvest of Seven Years, have seen just a clip from the film. We've had multitudes of customer requests for this, and we can't wait to see it ourselves. If it's anything like our expectations, we'll be recommending it highly! (MCA7VC) 89.98

Karen Williams Live at Michigan

This hysterical performance at the 1991 Michigan Women's Music Festival by one of the premiere stand-up comics of the Women's Music and Culture circuit has been captured on video... showing Karen being just what she thought would be an easy, satisfying thing to be: an African American lesbian mother comic! Her ad-lib with the plastic baby "Pookie" had us in stitches, and if you missed this festival, you'll probably never see it in her act if you don't watch this. (ARTVC) 24.98

Kate Wolf An Evening in Austin

A 74-minute concert video, which had been edited for Austin City Limits, but here's the entire show! A must for all true Kate Wolf fans, and will make a fan out of anyone who's not one already. She and guitarist Nina Gerber exhibit a wonderful rapport on stage, as the genuineness, sweetness, ease and radiance of Kate's personality really shine through. Includes many of Kate's favorite concert songs; most are original; lyric booklet included. Recommended! (OWL005VC) 29.98

Katharine Hepburn Sylvia Scarlett

Katharine Hepburn masquerades as a boy in this daring 1935 film of comedy, tragedy, and sexual ambiguity. It wasn't a hit then and rarely gets selected for Hepburn festivals now... wonder why? (TNR6199VC) 29.98

Kay Weaver One Fine Day

A film about the women who have come before us... the women who have made our road a little easier. One of the most inspiring short films on women's achievements ever made... audiences everywhere have gone wild during the showings! Set to Kay's rousing feminist anthem. 5+ minutes. (CRC1VC) 29.98

Kay Weaver Take the Power

Sequel to ONE FINE DAY, this new video-anthem begins where Kay's first video leaves off, with present-day women's lives, famous and unknown, and projects us into the future. It urges us to "take the power" for it is this planet is to survive, we women must not only take the reins in our own lives, but also assume roles of leadership on a national and international scale. 6 minutes. (CRC2VC) 39.98

Keith Haring (A Portrait of...) Drawing the Line

This inspiring, celebratory video profile tells the story of one of the most famous and controversial street artists of all time — and a crusader for gay rights. He often incorporated social issues, such as the fight against apartheid, crack and AIDS into his work. When he died in 1990 of AIDS at age 31, he left behind an astonishing artistic legacy that transcended all the usual boundaries. Highly recommended! (KUL1263VC) 19.98

Layne Redmond & The Mob of Angels Ritual Drumming

This unique video successfully combines instructions on practical drumming techniques with primal metaphysical concerns on drumming and rhythm. In a very straightforward manner, Layne shows how the basic tones and strokes of a frame drum, such as the tambourine, have a direct relationship to the elemental qualities of earth, water, fire and air. Drawing on the long heritage of women frame drummers and the nurturing nature of the archetype feminine spirit, this program will enrich the viewer with a new sense of the power of rhythm and pulse. Through luminous demonstrations and inspiring performances, Layne and The Mob of Angels, a women's ensemble, show how drumming and chanting can be used to create new and empowering ritual. Recommended! (IWM2VC) 39.98

Lesbian Tongues

Both famous and infamous lesbians — JoAnn Louian, JEB, Joan Nestle, Barbara Grier, Jewelle L. Gomez, and more — talk about life, love and sex, and relate some of their funniest experiences about the realization of their love for women. (POPSVC) 29.98

Lesbionage

In this romantic thriller, blackmail, kidnapping, and fraud combine to give two lesbian private detectives (and lovers) their toughest case. Will their love survive? Watch it and see! Directed by Giovanni Mariani, features Jewelle Gomez. 90 min. (POF3VC) 39.98

Lillian Hellman The Children's Hour

Starring Shirley MacLaine (she's great!) and Audrey Hepburn, this 1961 film, based on Lillian Hellman's controversial play, shattered the stage and film taboo against depicting or mentioning lesbianism. It was inspired by an actual case of two school-teachers whose careers and lives were radically damaged when rumors that they were in a lesbian relationship circulated in their community. It doesn't end as any of us would wish it did, but you can either cut off your VCR a minute early, or acknowledge the reality of internalized homophobia, especially back then. Recommended! Lily Tomlin, Mario Thomas et al NOW's 20th Anniversary

A fantastic 2-hour documentary of NOW's 20th anniversary celebration in December 1986, documenting the last 20 years of feminism and women's rights activity. Covers the history of ERA, abortion rights, lesbian rights, Title IX, and more, celebrating the victories and mourning the defeats. A star-studded cast of presenters and clips: Sharon Gless and Tyne Daly, Martina, Sally Ride, Gloria Steinem, 100's of others. Highlight is Lily Tomlin's priceless enactment of her crush on her grade-school teacher, Miss Sweeney. Inspiring... Recommended! (PEG1VC) 29.98

Lily Tomlin Ernestine: Peak Experiences

Some of the earliest Lily Tomlin on tape, this priceless 15-minute video includes a clip from Ernestine's switchboard on a 1969 episode of Laugh-In... a later one from Saturday Night Live... and a terrific Flashdance parody extravaganza. (TWT1VC) 19.98

Lily Tomlin Appearing Nightly

Her classic "Broadway" show includes some of the most classic Tomlin characters: Lu and Mae, based on her parents in Detroit (whose names have been changed to protect them)... Glenna, child of the 60's... Crystal, the quadruplegic on her way to go hang-gliding off Big Sur... the dude in the singles bar (complete with perfect crotch-grab)... and of course, Judith Beasley and others. Astonishing, mind-boggling, brilliant. Long ago we stocked the LP from this show, and the video is even better, of course! Over 70 min. (TWT2VC) 29.98

Lily Tomlin Lily for President?

Out promoting her show The Seven Ages of Woman, Lily becomes politicized, runs for president, wins, transforms the country and saves the world. She's assisted by a marvelous group of characters: Judith Beasley, Edith Ann, Trudy the Bag Lady, Purvis Hawkins the messiah of soul, folk-singer Holly Oneness (IT), punker Agnes Angst, crooner Tommy Velour and more. Appearances by Jane Fonda, Sally Field, Linda Lavin, James Garner, Pee Wee Herman, Edwin Newman round out the program... over an hour of inspiring fun! (TWT3VC) 29.98

Lily Tomlin Lily Sold Out!

Lily gets an offer she can't refuse to take her one woman show, The Seven Ages of Woman, to Las Vegas. Everyone keeps insisting that she must make her strangely symbolic art piece more commercial. She vows not to compromise her integrity, but by curtain time, under severe pressure, she sells out... to the gaudy excesses of Las Vegas. Hilarious characterizations: Tommy Velour, Purvis Hawkins, and more, with appearances by Dolly Parton and Jane Fonda. This won an Emmy Award, and it deserved it! Over an hour; recommended! (TWT4VC) 29.98

Lily Tomlin/ written by Jane Wagner Search for Signs...Intelligent Life

The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe is finally available! Starring humanity in a role of a lifetime, finally humankind's mood swings are captured on film... In this movie that asks the question, "What was the question?" Trudy the Bag Lady narrates this travelogue of the 20th century, threading her way through the dozen characters that populate the play. Lily received the 1986 Tony Award for Best Actress for this performance. 120 minutes. (TWT5VC) 89.98

Lily Tomlin The Lily Tomlin Video Collection

Highlighting the creative diversity of the performer, this 5-video collection captures vintage Lily Tomlin portraying 25 now-classic characters — including Ernestine, Edith Ann, Mrs. Beasley, Tommy Velour, and Trudy the Bag Lady — as she presents her unique and hilarious view of American cultural life and its idiosyncrasies. Contains Tony Award-winners The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe and Appearing Nightly (a Ladytopper favorite); Emmy Award-winner Lily Sold Out!; plus Ernestine: Peak Experiences and Lily for President? Each tape includes "fan bonuses" from Lily — personal archive footage, much of it never seen before, all of it fun! You'll find yourself traveling through today and yesterday to exotic trouble spots of the human condition... so realistic you'll think you actually were there. Over 200 years in the making; over 5 hours; highly recommended! (TWT6VC) 149.98

Linda Bove Sign-Me-A-Story

Linda Bove, the deaf actress all children know and love from Sesame Street, introduces viewers to American sign language here, on this program subtitled Sign Language Fun for Everyone! With a voice interpreter, first she teaches some simple signs, then she and other performers act out the "sign-along" stories of Little Red Riding Hood and Goldilocks and the Three Bears using ASL. Recommended for both hearing-impaired and hearing children, as well as hearing adults who are interested in learning to sign. Closed captioned, 30 minutes. (RDH89232VC) 39.98

Long-Awaited Pleasure

Produced by women for women, this is a story about two women meeting, courting, and falling in love. Boudie's a shade muddy in spots, but it's a nice first effort by a lesbian video company, and you'll enjoy the story and the "soft" love scenes, smoothly integrated into the plot. Lois and Peggy, the stars, co-founded the New York feminist theater company, Split Britches, and recently completed an extended run in the play version of Patience and Sarah. Directed by Giovanna Mariani, starring Lois Weaver and Peggy Shaw. 90 min. (POP1VC) 39.98

Longtime Companion

Rolling Stone Magazine called this film the best movie of 1990... and we agree! In an unusually honest and moving way, it explores the progression and effects of AIDS — on individuals, couples, and on the community... and on physical, emotional, and spiritual levels. 100 minutes; highly recommended! Madonna

A Certain Sacrifice

"Certain to shock, certain to be talked about, certain to be a collector's item!" This 1979 film stars a then-unknown 20-year-old named Madonna: it's weird and technically rough, but features an erotic scene between Madonna and her "family of lovers," several of whom are women. So Justify My Love was nothing new for her! A must for fans. (WHV7008VC) 19.98

Claire of the Moon (Full Video)

Finally, what many of you have been asking for... the actual full-length film of the lesbian love story of Claire and Noel, who meet at a writers' colony on the Oregon coast. It's a story of one woman's journey into her sexual identity, and another woman's journey through fear to intimacy. The movie was made on a deceptively low budget, (you'd never know that by watching it) by film-maker/writer Nicole Conn, and has played at major theaters across the country. Many great scenes, definitely worth seeing! (DEM3VC) 89.98

Not All Parents Are Straight

This excellent documentary examines the dynamics of the parent-child relationship within several households where children are being raised by lesbian and gay parents. Through open and honest interviews with the remarkable children and their parents, the film explores the love, conflicts, custody problems, and discrimination experienced by these families. Produced and directed by Kevin White. 58 min. Moving, humorous, informative, and recommended! (FFP1VC) 39.98

Out For Laughs

This lesbian/gay TV comedy pilot is somewhat modeled after Saturday Night Live; its cast includes 5 female and 5 male comedians at play with their own stereotypes. Includes 6 skits as follows: Camp Camp addresses the many myths about how people become gay, and takes aim at a humorous boot camp for gays. In Row Model, a nerd transforms into gay icon Emma Peete to fend off a group of queer bashers. What Naze brings a feminist slant to TV news. B. Gile from Planet Q follows 2 convicted fashion queens in their daring interplanetary escape from their evil warden, Mary Kay. In Pat Names, lesbians disclose the origins of their lovers' nicknames... and Apartment of Eden is a sitcom about a lesbian artist and a gay male yuppie who suddenly become roommates. (WV7VC) 39.98

Out in Paradise

Celebrating the ethnic and cultural diversity of lesbians in Hawaii, this video presents role models of lesbians living honest, open, productive lives. Producers Sara Banks and Kate Sample have videotaped over 30 women, ranging in age from 23 to 83, from all walks of life: doctor, lawyer, pregnant mother, teachers, foster parents, construction workers, artists, grandmothers. Coming out stories, romantic moments, and bitter-sweet struggles are all shared with laughter and tears, as these women discuss their lives and relationships with family, friends, and co-workers. And by the way, if UPS would just lower their rates to and from Hawaii, LadySlipper would be relocating! 82 minutes. (WAN1VC) 39.98

Dreamers of the Day

A great independently-produced soap-like lesbian flick! There's Claire: well-to-do and successful in her career, she has to drink too much to set her passion free. In her own mind, she's not lesbian — just sexually adventurous. And Andrea: a film-maker who has long acknowledged her passion for women, she has everything in her current project carefully plotted — except for Claire. The plot unfolds to reveal Claire's deception... will their love transcend? The producer of this film, who lives in Canada, set out to fill the void for good entertaining material that related to lesbian lives... and she's succeeded marvelously on her first project. 90 minutes; definitely worth the more-than-reasonable price; highly recommended. Ranch Romance

Hot as Blue Blazes (Video)

The 5 women and 1 man of Ranch Romance have created music videos of 6 of their hits — primarily from their album Blue Blazes, plus the title cut from Western Dream. The setting for some is a country western bar, with some great country western couple dancing, when it they are all hot... Love the lead singer, a spirited and well-done production. (RAN1VC) 19.98

Throwing Our Weight Around

This compelling documentary examines the physiological ills of chronic dieting, as it explores how our culture views the issues of fat, beauty and health. Produced from a feminist perspective, it evaluates the mis-information propagated by the capitalist diet and health industry, our culture's preoccupation with dieting and being thin, the impact of stereotypes of fat people, discrimination against fat people (especially women) in employment, health care, public access, friends and lovers, clothing, and more. This video offers, with humor and hope, resources and alternatives to the isolation that many fat people live with. 60 min. Recommended! (RST1VC) 39.98

Say Amen, Somebody

This joy-filled documentary about gospel music and some of its foremost performers — Mother Smith, the Barrett Sisters, Thomas A. Dorsey and others — celebrates the music created for the purpose of uplifting the human spirit. Time Magazine called it "A movie to which even a tone-deaf atheist will say Amen," and we would agree, interjecting "or post-Christian matriarchist" after the word "atheist"! (PAV547VC) 29.98

Seattle Men's Chorus

Radio Craze

A high-spirited tribute to the days when Big Bands filled the airwaves with tunes by Duke Ellington, George Gershwin and Fats Waller. They recreate a steamy Miami Beach nightclub floor show and present an unapologetically gay USO show, complete with a rifle drill team and their very own version of the Andrews Sisters! This was the first TV special which featured a gay men's chorus. 22 tunes, proceeds benefit the SMC Family AIDS Project. (SMC3VC) 19.98

Sheila McLaughlin

She Must Be Seeing Things

This full-length contemporary film deals with the love affair between Judith, a lawyer, and Jo, a filmmaker, and their exploration of the dynamics of sexuality, career, commitment, jealousy, fidelity and companionship. Running parallel to this plot is the storyline of one of Jo's films-in-the-making about a 17th-century nun's rebellion against the convent. Starring Sheila Dabney and Lois Weaver. 95 minutes. (FIRTVC) 59.98

Sorceress

This suspenseful drama revolves around a 13th century Dominican friar who, sent by the Pope to seek out heretics, arrives in a small French village where he discovers Elia, the strangely beautiful and mysterious forest woman. Elia is respected in the village because she performs ancient healing rituals and understands nature's secrets. As an inquirer, the friar sets out to investigate these practices, resulting in an explosive confrontation between the pagan-based customs and the patriarchal religious dogma. Produced, directed and written primarily by women. 98 minutes, a compelling film, and highly recommended! (MY5177VC) 29.98

Strangers in Good Company

This Canadian film is the delightful story about a group of remarkable women travelers who, when stranded, turn their escape into a truly magical time of humor and adventure. They lost their way... and found each other. It was not produced in the usual fashion, wherein actors are given precise scripts; rather, the basic story was outlined, and the women (most not professional actors) improvised, just like their characters, yielding a more authentic and honest story, with more depth than films usually reach. Especially loved Mary Meigs' portrayal of her lesbian self, though there is not a single woman you won't love by the end. Very highly recommended! (TST1354VC) 29.98

Su Friedrich

Damned if You Don't

This "experimental narrative" is about a young nun who becomes attracted to another woman. It's an avant garde, dream-like, strange film, with several sub-themes woven in and out, such as a reading from a 17th century account of a lesbian nun, and reminiscences of an ex-nun about the crushes in the convent. The final love-making scene is probably more erotic than any video with that express intention. For recovering Catholics and non-Catholics alike! (SFR1VC) 49.98

Weeds to the Wise

Herbalist Susan Weed teaches the Wise Woman Tradition, the oldest healing tradition, which stands apart from the scientific method and from the "heroic" or holistic method; this tradition is connected to the natural cycles of the plants, the earth, the moon, and our bodies. On an outdoor tour through her Wise Woman Center in upstate NY, she identifies these herbs and demonstrates how they can be prepared for the body's health. (WHB1VC) 29.98

Two in Twenty: Episodes 1 & 2

We're just tickled that this 5-episode lesbian soap opera (2 in 20 because 1 in 10 sounds so lonely) is now available on video! The characters in two lesbian households confront child custody, lesbian parenting, AIDS, substance abuse, racism, coming out, monogamy, non-monogamy, crushes, lust, sex, bisexuality, and of course therapy (you name it, they confront it)! Ads for fictitious products, rooted in feminist and lesbian humor, satirize the consumerism at the core of daytime TV. Cameo appearances by lots of stars; closed captioned. In the first 2 episodes, we meet all the characters... in one household there's Nikki, the therapist everyone loves to hate; her lover of 10 years, Lew; Lew's teenage daughter Charlie; Lina Birdsong, the sexy tarot card-reading dyke; and Sharon, the try-sexual med student... in the other household meet Helena, a baby dyke who's yet to sleep with a woman; and MJ, her roommate, who's yet to pass one by. Produced by Laurel Chilen. 80 min. (TWOAVC) 39.98

Two in Twenty: Episodes 3 & 4

What does Sharon, the struggling med student, have in common with David, a man with AIDS? Will Nikki and Lew have to reevaluate their commitment? Why is Helena's mom suddenly so hungry? And why is Helena so furious with her roommate MJ? Tune in for more drama and intrigue! 90 min. (TWOBCVC) 39.98

Two in Twenty: Episode 5 & Outtakes

In the last episode (so far) of this riveting soap opera with a twist, Lew confronts the homophobes she meets in court. Helena reaps the fruit of her first love. Sharon grapples with her conscience, and MJ's music video is finally unveiled. Also included is a 15-minute segment called The Making of Two in Twenty... watch the actors flub their lines and have a great time! 90 min. (TWOCCVC) 39.98

Subtitled A Glimpse Into the Lives of Nine Old Lesbians, here are candid portraits of women who all part of a support group. They say, "We call ourselves old to reclaim the word which has been used disparagingly in our society for people over 60. We are Old Lesbians inventing ways to live out our aging... fighting our own internalized ageism and the ageism of society... We do not represent or speak for the whole Old Lesbian community. Woman and Her Symbols - Part I

The Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone — beginner or veteran of women's culture — who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture... the Goddess cults which preceded this... the power of symbols... and much much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. No matter how much you think you already know, you'll learn something more from watching this; it's the result of many years of research by writer/narrator Mary R. Hopkins. Produced by Claire Simon. (QV2VC) 49.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part II

From Earth Mother to Love Goddess

Also highly recommended! Woman and Her Symbols - Part IV

The Muse in the Mirror

Subtitled Creativity, Projection, and Internalized Oppression, this program continues exploring the interesting research of Mary R. Hopkins. From a perspective that acknowledges but doesn't accept the patriarchal point of view, she discusses the metaphor of the broken X chromosome in males, and where that extra piece of genetic material has gone... and how the problems between heterosexual men and women have skewed society so peculiarly. We strongly agree that this entire set should be in the permanent collection of every school and library. (QV5VC) 49.98

Women Who Made the Movies

From the very beginnings of motion picture history, women have played major roles behind as well as in front of the camera, a little-known fact! This documentary traces the careers and films of such filmmakers as Alice Guy Blache, Ida Lupino, Ruth Ann Baldwin, and many others who made lasting contributions to cinema history. The use of clips from many of these rare films, as well as stills and other archival material, brings to life the works of these often-neglected filmmakers. The music used in this film was composed and played by a variety of all-women orchestras of the era. Written and directed by Gwendolyn Foster-Dixon. 56 min. For every film-buff you know! We Who Believe in Freedom

Subtitled Sweet Honey in the Rock... Still On the Journey, this is a joyous, lyrical celebration of the renowned musical ensemble that reintroduced a cappella music to the contemporary national and international music scene — on their 20th anniversary! Moving with energy and good pacing through the lives and rhythms of the women who make up the group Sweet Honey in the Rock (SHIR), it includes essays by each member of the group and their support team, historical essays, and appreciations by Alice Walker and Angela Davis. The book brings the full range of voices of these dynamic African American women to the page, as it accomplishes Bernice Reagon's goal: "I want people to see the stage, I want readers to see under and behind the stage, the sound board, the planes and rehearsals, the writing of the songs, and the finding of the voice. I want the reader to meet and know the wonderful, courageous, original people who make up SHIR." 384 pages, including 32 pages of photos. (DBL4882BK) 14.95

The Women's Spirituality Book

Once the basis for all religion, the Goddess is being reclaimed by women who are searching for inner development and wholeness. The author presents the deceptions of history and hidden secrets of our matriarchal past... in other words, she presents the women's spirituality movement in a true historical perspective. She also shares the techniques of ritual, group structure, individual work, healing, crystals, tarot and the I Ching, and much more. (LLE761BK) 9.95

Gillian G. Gaar

She's A Rebel

Subtitled The History of Women in Rock & Roll, this book chronicles many of the women who have shaped rock and pop music for four decades — from the R&B charts of the 50's... the girl groups, Motown, folk rock and the counterculture of the 60's... the women's music scene and the punk explosion of the 70's... to the rappers, all-girl bands, and pop icons of the 80's and 90's. Packed with interviews, facts, and personal anecdotes, it also provides a provocative commentary on the male-dominated music business. (We think Ladyslipper should be described, or at least listed as a resource, but it's a valuable book in spite of that omission!) Paperback, 467 pages, photos, indexes, preface by Yoko Ono. Hallie Iglehart Austen

The Heart of the Goddess

One of the most gorgeous and informational books we have seen! Subtitled Art, Myth and Meditations of the World's Sacred Feminine, this exquisite volume presents a worldwide, multi-cultural selection of the art, the values, and the living lessons of Goddess culture. An inspiring blend of art, history and spirituality, profusely illustrated with high-quality color and black and white plates. 175 pages, coffee-table size paperback. We highly recommend it, and so do Marja Gimbutas, Merlin Stone and Starhawk! (WBW99BK) 24.95

Hildegard of Bingen

Meditations w/ Hildegard of Bingen

This introduction to the thought and writings of the great medieval mystic — and musician, composer, poet, scholar, scientist, healer, abbess, and visionary — contains selections from Hildegard's eleven books. Compiled by Gabriele Uhlem, (BEA12BK) 7.95

Hildegard of Bingen's Medicine

This ground-breaking contribution to medicine and healing, written by Wichard Streibow and Gottfried Hertzka, is based on Hildegard's divinely inspired visions — which included information on how to heal and which plants and herbs to use. Her remedies are being used actively in Germany today. She discusses ways to heal nervous disorders, indigestion, heart problems, and cancer, and gives tips on diet and fasting. (BEA44BK) 9.95

Holly Near

Fire in Rain... Singer in the Storm

In this winning autobiography, Holly not only reveals her professional triumphs and setbacks, but also her personal side, her politics and ideas, giving an in-depth view of this remarkable musician and performer. She takes us through her childhood in rural California; her Hollywood and TV career; her political activism; her friendships and affairs with men and women; the founding of her record label; and the forging of her unique, personal musical style. Paperback. (WMP6733BK) 9.95

Jewelry

Barb Yoder/ Crone's Throw Pottery Porcelain Pendants, Pins, Earrings

The designs come from many sources. Many are ancient, such as the rune signs. Some are contemporary, and all are oriented to Women's Culture, selected to touch and inspire the inner spirit we all share. Each piece is approx. 1" in diameter. Every design is available as a pendant, strung on a silk cord; as a pin (make your own bolot); and as earrings, which hang from pierced earwires... please specify.

Oak Tree

For the ancient Druids, the oak tree was sacred, and the ancient Greeks felt the oak embodied the Goddess Divine. It is a symbol for wisdom and power. Pendant (CT4PE) 9.98 ... Pin (CT4PN) 8.98 ... Earrings (CT4EA) 14.98

Labrys

The double-bladed ax has been adopted by lesbians because of its connection to the mythic Amazons and their goddess, Artemis. Although the original symbol was a battle ax, the modern interpretation stands for strength and building of community. Pendant (CT3PE) 9.98 ... Pin (CT3PN) 8.98 ... Earrings (CT3EA) 14.98

Joined Women

A design which depicts the love and connection between all women. Pendant (CT2PE) 9.98 ... Pin (CT2PN) 8.98 ... Earrings (CT2EA) 14.98

Moon and Star

Almost everyone has experienced a sense of awe while gazing at the night sky; it's no wonder that this design has a cross-cultural meaning of spirituality. Pendant (CT7PE) 9.98 ... Pin (CT7PN) 8.98 ... Earrings (CT7EA) 14.98

Moon and Sea

The forces of the moon cause the sea tides to ebb and flow. These interconnected symbols have a unique relationship to the feminine essence and life force. Pendant (CT8PE) 9.98 ... Pin (CT8PN) 8.98 ... Earrings (CT8EA) 14.98

T-Shirts

4000 YEARS of WOMYN'S MUSIC

4000 Years of Womyn's Music T-Shirt

This wonderful t-shirt design, based on ancient Egyptian artwork, shows that our herstory is a long one, harkening back to the beginnings of civilization! A project of Market Wimmen, screen-printed by Snake & Snake, we're happy to make this great shirt available to all of you who might not make it to the festivals. Multi-colored design on light turquoise crew-neck t-shirt; specify size M, L, XL, 2XL, 3XL (MW1TS) 15.98

Betty LaDuke

Myths and Magic Notecards—Set of 6

The artist says, "African women, between myth and reality, dominate my imagery, as mothers bringing forth, sustaining and nurturing all life forms; cultural guardians and healers; mythical goddesses; and sexual beings... They are my praise song to Africa." Her incredible, colorful, striking, powerful paintings are printed on notecards so you can share this artwork with friends and associates. A beautiful blend of myth, spirituality and cultural diversity; her work deserves maximum exposure and visibility, in our opinion! (SCWSNC) 8.98

CANADIAN & INTERNATIONAL ORDERS: Payment in US dollars via international bank money order, postal money order, or Mastercard or Visa ONLY.

CHARGE CARD ORDERS: are processed as prepaid orders, just like checks with your entire order billed up front.

PHONE ORDERS AND INQUIRIES: You may charge Mastercard and Visa orders by phone on our toll-free line: 1-800-634-6044. For all other inquiries, please call 919-683-1570. We can take your call Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern time, and Saturday 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. For charge orders: please have your order blank filled out, your charge card handy, and please read us your charge number very carefully! If you are calling to inquire about your order, please have a copy of your filled-out order blank on hand.

FAX ORDERS: You may fax your charge order; our 24-hour fax line is 919-682-5601.

CUSTOMER #: For faster service please have your 8-digit customer number ready. If this is your first order, we'll need the last 3 digits of your social security number to create your unique customer #.

SHOPPING IN PERSON: You are invited to visit our Listening Room and to shop at our Durham location, 613 Vickers Ave., anytime you are passing through North Carolina! We are open Monday through Friday 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and Saturday 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

NC SALES TAX: North Carolina residents must include 6% sales tax.

CATALOG EXPIRATION AND PRICES: We will honor prices in this catalog (except in cases of dramatic increase) until April. After that, when our new catalog will be in circulation, these prices are subject to change.

BACK-ORDERS AND ALTERNATIVES: If we are temporarily out of stock on a title, we will automatically back-order it unless you include alternatives (should be same-priced titles). Listing alternatives will give you faster service. If we back-order for you, you may contact us at any time to instead choose a substitute, credit or refund. Your packing slip will serve as your only back-order notice. If the recording should become unavailable, we'll send you credit or refund. All back-orders are shipped ground.

ADDITIONAL ORDERS: If you've used your order blanks, use a plain sheet of paper, and indicate stock #, title, format, page number, quantity and price; add postage/handling, give your name and address, and enclose payment.

GIFT ORDERS: We'll be glad to send your gift orders directly. You may enclose your own gift card; please indicate whether you'd like us to enclose a catalog. If you don't specify, we'll send one.

RECEIVING: You should receive your shipment within 2-4 weeks from the time we receive your order if you have specified special fourth class; 1-3 weeks for First Class/UPS (our choice); 2-4 working days for 2-Day Air. Please notify us if you have not received a shipment or a back-order notice after that time has elapsed.

SECOND DAY AIR SHIPMENTS: Second day air means two days in transit from date shipped, not date ordered. We will give priority to second day air shipments, and we usually ship within 48 hours unless the item is out of stock, but cannot guarantee arrival date. Best to phone in second day air shipments. All back-orders are shipped ground.

BOUNCED CHECKS: $15.00 service charge on all returned checks.

RETURNS: Occasionally recordings are damaged in some way. We hope you never receive a defective item from us, but if you do, please return it with an explanation of the problem and we'll replace it immediately with another copy of the same title. Sorry, we are unable to swap opened recordings for other titles.

FORMAT: Each description states which formats are available. LP = record, CS = cassette, CD = compact disc. Some recordings are available only on LP or only on cassette, as indicated in the description. If you order, for instance, a title which is only available as a cassette, and you check the LP box, you will be sent the cassette, and any returns will be at your own expense. SO PLEASE ORDER CAREFULLY!

INTERNATIONAL POSTAGE & HANDLING RATES: Surface Rates: $5.75 first item, $1.75 each additional item. Air Rates: $5.75 first item, $4.25 each additional item. Due to inconsistencies in the weights of items and in postage rates to different countries, these rates are based on averages. When actual postage and handling costs are substantially less than what you've paid, we'll send you a credit slip for use on your next order. If you'd like to know the exact postage and handling costs before ordering, please call or write. Duties and customs fees are the responsibility of the customer.

Payment in US dollars via international bank money order, postal money order, or Mastercard or Visa ONLY.

Ouroboros Concert & Recording

On Thursday, June 2, 1994, The National Women's Music Festival in Bloomington, Indiana presents the premiere performance of Kay Gardner's latest composition, Ouroboros (Seasons of Life): Women's Passages. This composition is the first and only classical work celebrating the cycles of women's lives. It is scored for a 100-voice women's choir, a 40-piece orchestra, and six female soloists (representing ages 8, 13, 21, 34, 55, and 89). It's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to witness one of the largest classical productions featuring women musicians, and we invite you to attend! Ladyslipper will be there to record this performance, with plans to release the recording on CD and cassette later in the year. For further information, please contact the National Women's Music Festival, PO Box 1427, Indianapolis IN 46206, or call (317) 927-9355.
