Books

Bernice Johnson Reagon, editor

We'll Understand It Better By & By

Subtitled Pioneering African American Gospel Composers, this extensive volume explores the history of gospel music as both a sacred form and a profound influence on contemporary popular culture. Following a general overview of gospel music in African American social history, the book focuses on 6 pivotal figures in gospel music — Lucie, Eddie Campbell, Thomas Dorsey, Roberta Martin, Charles Albert Tindley, William Herbert Brewster, Sr., and Kenneth Morris — drawing on interviews with composers, families, associates, and performers. Included are musical analyses and 49 complete piano-vocal scores. Known to many as founder and artistic director of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Bernice Reagon is also a curator at the Smithsonian, author, researcher, and editor extraordinaire. (SIP1BK) 18.98

Gillian G. Gaar

She's A Rebel

Subtitled The History of Women in Rock & Roll, this book chronicles many of the women who have shaped rock and pop music for four decades — from the R&B charts of the 50s... the girl groups, Motown, folk rock and the counterculture of the 60s... the women's music scene and the punk explosion of the 70s... to the rappers, all-girl bands, and pop icons of the 80s and 90s. Packed with interviews, facts, and personal anecdotes, it also provides a provocative commentary on the male-dominated music business. (We think Ladyslipper should be described, or at least listed as a resource, but it's a valuable book in spite of that omission!) Paperback, 467 pages, photos, indexes, preface by Yoko Ono. (SLP8BK) 16.98

Laura Davis and Ellen Bass

The Courage to Heal (Book)

Now out of print, but we have a limited quantity which we urge you to order ASAP before they're forever gone. This inspiring, comprehensive Guide for Women Survivors of Child Sexual Abuse offers encouragement and hope, as the authors combine personal experience with professional knowledge. They provide clear explanations, practical suggestions, a map of the healing journey, and hundreds of interviews of survivors telling the stories of their experiences and their recovery process. (HRP348BK) 18.98

William Robertson

k.d. lang: Carrying the Torch

This 1993 publication is the first biography about the woman who continues to send shock waves through the music industry. Highlights include: her tomboy galthood... formative experiences at Reed Deer College... the making of her first 5 albums and her first film... her struggle to avoid being narrowly categorized by the music industry and to speak out for a variety of causes... her move away from country to jazz and pop... and how she put an end to constant media speculation about her sexual orientation. Includes photos from her high school years. 112 pages. Don't miss it! (ECW158BK) 9.98

Women's Spirituality ♦ New Age

Carole & Bren

You Are the One

Attention women's spirituality circles! This 1993 album features songs and chants to honor the healing of the earth and her people. The voices of Carole Ettler Engleheart and Bren Chambers intertwine with a fascinating array of instruments — cello, turtle whistle, rattles, serpent drum, keyboards, Celtic harp, and bowed psaltery — singing of oneness with the earth, healing from domestic violence and sexual abuse, healing through ancient wisdom and through new visions of how the world should be. (SIS6) CS: 9.95... CD: 15.99

The Elements, Volume II

More rhythmic than her first piece to the elements, especially the Brazilian-influenced Ocean Bossa (Samba for a Dove), this beautiful 1992 recording also represents the sounds native to other places on our planet. The fire aspect is expressed with water (!) in Hot Springs, a tribute to the belief of the native peoples of Washington's Olympic peninsula that dragon's breath heated the bubbling pools found there. The air principle is divinely represented with Air Song to Attract Swans, a hauntingly gorgeous piece first performed (fittingly) at the Concert of Angels in Rio, which ended with a seaside vigil and meditation with the Dalai Lama! Ending with earth's Evolution, a plainsong chant (similar in tone to Gregorian), this reviewer found herself wishing the recording would never end — and promptly punching the replay button I could go on and on, but will end with a recommendation that you avail yourself immediately of this precious gem. (MMH2292) CS: 10.99... CD: 15.99

Jean Shinoda Bolen

Goddesses in Everywoman

We once again have a supply of this now out-of-print title. Here, the noted author of the best-seller Demonstrates that there are 7 archetypal goddesses, or personality types, living within each woman, and shows how this knowledge empowers us to make the conscious choices that will bring the highest level of fulfillment. 60 min. (HRP1873) CS: 10.99

(Kay Gardner/Nurudafina Pili Abena)

One Spirit

This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world! The One Spirit duo is a charismatic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flute, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global music and rhythms from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this aural journey. Features a cameo appearance by Broken Medicine Eagle, on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle, also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Silence, Carnival, Asian Sunset, Happy Life, We Welcome You, Salafon, Agogo, Dumbek, Surdo, and Tan Rattles. — to the Lady Slipper label (and promise you'll be hearing more from her in the near future). Exciting, energetic, and meditative all at once... Highly recommended, of course! (LR113) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

L Montgomery/A Getty/R Hyde-Skeele

Changing Woman

This 1992 collection of women's spirituality songs and chants is performed by these women, Lou Montgomery, Adele Getty, and Rebecca Hyde-Skeele (some of you will recognize Adele from her work with Acoustic Medicine), with drumming accompaniment. Their material includes originals by members Lou and Adele, as well as Starhawk, Broken Medicine Eagle, and others. Includes Power of a Woman, Woman of Resistance, Peace of the Moon and Sun, Our Magic Is Our Giftaway, 13 all lyrics included, making this an excellent source of material for circles. (CHW1) CS: 9.99

Dream Partner

This 1992 release is a melodic flow of healing music, more melodic than her earlier works. With synthesized grand piano, 12-string guitar, and Peruvian flute, it was designed to enhance the listener's awareness about co-working with Spirit. This reviewer has little experience at these advanced stages of consciousness, but this music does tend to move one into an altered state! Seems ideal for meditation and massage, and lots of people have claimed miraculous healings from listening to Marcey's music. (MRC5) CS: 12.99... CD: 15.99

Marianne Williamson

On Dealing with Anger

In this lecture based on A Course in Miracles, Marianne discusses how the need to get in touch with anger and release it — rather than suppress it — is essential to our spiritual well-being and our relationships. In expressing anger, without attacking, we need to feel safe enough to share our truth, and willing to hear truth from others. (HRP1957) CS: 10.99

Marnie Jones

Grace

The remarkable music of whales and dolphins (all wild, from the Atlantic to the Pacific to the Amazon River), blended with harp, flute, cello, and Marnie's angelic voice, make this 1992 album a feast for the spirit as well as the ears. Moods range from reverent to playful, as the awesome creatures of the deep inspire the musicians to create from their deeper selves. This all-acoustic recording is accented with some brilliant hand percussion and Tibetan bowls. One of the best albums incorporating sea-mammal sounds we've heard, infused with a profound sense of intimacy and intricacy; very highly recommended! (MJ38) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Rachel Bagby

Mary Watkins

The Soul Knows

Arranged and interpreted with care and great affection, Mary treats familiar gospel hymns (in the words of Will Thompson) "softly and tenderly" on this 1992 album, in a generous attempt to share their healing and soothing qualities with a frenzied and wounded world. Performing solely on her synthesizers and electric pianos, she presents such gems as Amazing Grace, Blessed Assurance, Pass Me Not, By and By, I'll Fly Away. (WEN1) CS: 9.99

Fire Dance!

More Pagan and Earth-based ritual chants and songs by this vocal and instrumental mixed ensemble, for every season, includes Lammas Night, Haste to the Sabbath, The Wintry Queen, The Fairest Maid, Kiss Me My Laughing Lover, Invocation, Air / Am, 14 in all, both originals and traditional songs included. (ESC3) CS: 5.99

Moving Breath

She Changes

Subtitled A Collection of Songs from Healing Circles, this album was created to commemorate the Ecstatic Woman Gathering held in Santa Barbara on Halloween of 1991. These 24 chants and songs — both traditional invocation and Goddess songs, and original healing and affirming songs — are intended to open women's hearts to the power of healing. Beautiful harmonies and rhythms are employed by these 5 women (Mujita Ceballos, Valerie Girard, Lorin Green, Chris Leja, and Julie Lewis), with tasteful accompaniment on percussion and occasional flute, harp and guitar. Lyrics included to make learning these easy, includes Honored Maiden Huntress, She's Been Waiting, Powerful Woman, Sister Woman, She Changes, Heal the Mother, Moon Sister Moon, We All Come from the Goddess, and Like A Mountain (which they call Old and Strong and which they should have credited to Naomi Littlebear Motena, and hopefully will on future printings...) An excellent collection! (MVB1) CS: 9.99

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass

Songs of Healing

Including songs which appear on two of their guided imagery tapes (Opening the Heart and Living with Loss), this 1993 release is subtitled Chants of the World. It selections in all, very softly sung with many repetitive choruses. Includes See Me, Feel Me, Listen, Life Is Eternal, Heartful and Inspiring. (SHM1016) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Full

This spectacular new album is still in the works as we go to press for Spring 1993, but we expect it out by late summer, and wanted you to have full benefit of earliest possible notice! Original songs and chants, some with great rhythms and fantastic percussion, some suitable for circles... especially Full Woman (an anthem for encouraging and celebrating full womanhood), and one to the African goddess Yemaya. Recorded with members of Bobby McFerrin's vocal group Vocesetra, and expertly produced by Linda Tillery, most of this 1993 album comprises the soundtrack of the film Dialogues with Madwomen, as much a document of the ups and downs of everywoman's life as it is a critique of America's mental health system. If you love circle chants, extended chants, choral chants, and some incredible jazz scat here and there... if you've been missing the contributions, heritage and presence of women of color in the materials you've been using for circles... and if you're taken with music that's unique, inspired, inspiring, and celebratory, you'll love this! Very highly recommended! (RBG2) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Reclaiming Community

Chants: Ritual Music

The Reclaiming Community, co-founded by Starhawk, is a group working to unify spirit and politics. Rooted in Goddess spirituality, members of the collective hold public rituals for empowerment and change. This cassette of chants, created as a teaching tool, contains material by Starhawk, Deena Metzger, Shekinah Mountcastle, Judy Grath, Z. Budapest and other, performed by the Reclaiming Women (many) and men (a few). Includes: Reclaiming Her Deed, Snake Woman, Return to the Mother, Goddess Medley, Iris Astarte, I Am A Strong Woman, and many others. A wonderful resource for group singing and ritual. (REC1) CS: 9.98

Journey Through the Wheel (w/book)

This collection of original songs, centered around the ancient European seasonal cycle and Celtic Folklore, will appeal to Pagan/Wiccan audiences, Celtic revivalists, women's and earth-based spirituality groups, and folk and medieval enthusiasts. Beginning with a song for Yule/Imbolc, the album proceeds through Candlemas, Spring Equinox (with a lovely salutation to the Goddess), Beltane, Summer Solstice, First Harvest, Autumnal Equinox, and Samhain/Hallow's Eve. Simple and tasteful acoustic accompaniment, by Robin and Miriam (Edie Howe), Keaney and Zippora Klein, and others. Illustrated booklet with lyrics included. (RAM) CS: 11.98

Starhawk, Reclaiming & Friends

Let It Begin Now

Sublime Music From the Spiral Dance, this 1992 release features 11 songs which follow the structure of the Spiral Dance ritual, an annual tradition in the Bay Area celebrating the festival of Halloween as well as Starhawk's book The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Ranging from a cappella harmonies to full chorus and instrumentation, this music is intended to be shared and sung by all who wish to broaden their understanding of Halloween. Written and performed by Starhawk and the Reclaiming Collective, women and men working to link earth-based spirituality and eco-feminist politics...and friends. (REC2) CS: 9.98

Terry Garthwaite

Affirhythms

After a lengthy sabbatical from recording, one of our favorite vocalists is back with a fantastic 1992 recording of her affirmations: I Am Creative, I Carry Love, Sacred Within, Mother Earth, and I Am Sound. Side 2 repeats the vocals and percussion of Side 1, but gradually fades out the vocals so that you may fill the space with your own voice. The result embodies great spirit, and will definitely reach in and touch your heart. Very unique, and very recommended! (FJ008) CS: 11.98

Women's Music ♦ Feminist Music

Angela Motter

Outta Control

Perhaps you've read Angela's interview in the lesbian magazine DeNerve recently? With a degree in classical guitar performance (her teachers are probably very proud and spinning in their graves), this Atlanta native has covered great musical ground before gracing us with this 1992 debut album. With a clear, aching voice, incredible slide and 12-string guitars, and enough production smarts to turn out this finely-crafted release, she can write her own ticket in the future, we're sure! Joined by several women instrumentalists, and aided in production by Atlanta's Cede Vogt, the album includes the rocker, How Does It Feel?, reminiscent of Melissa Etheridge's Does She Love You Like I Do?, plus the bluesy title song. Highly recommended! (BDR1) CS: 9.98

Ann Reed

Hole in the Day

Our favorite midwestern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for y'all! This 1992 12-song release features her thrilling brown-sugar-&-molasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her wry love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miles Home to You, and No Road to Juneau. (AML2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bobbi Carmichael

Follow Thru

Well, the comparisons to James Taylor are just gonna continue — the heart-tugging acoustic guitar chords, sweet voice, soft rhythms, and warm and thoughtful lyrics all add up into a thoroughly enjoyable listening experience! She trades a tenderness and candor, writes great songs, and here on this 1992 album, is joined by a fantastic band (bass, drums, cello, fiddle, guitars). Recommended! (LOCs) CS: 9.98

Claire of the Moon - D.S.T.

This original soundtrack from the film includes an original song composed and performed by Teresa Tuft, Could It Hurt, plus piano themes, by a variety of artists and performers. (DEM1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Destiny

We Are Destiny..

This trio describes itself as a Lesbian-Feminist band singing songs about Lesbian life and love...they rock a little and swing a little, while celebrating the everyday lives of lesbian women (evident in their song titles: Lesbian Lover — an audience participation number that requires the audience to sing the word "lesbian" several times, plus Last, Provincetown, Pretty Woman, Homophobic Blues, Solipoli on Belmont Plateau). Comprised of MaryJo Paragino, her lover of 18 years Mary Abt, and professional Diana Bating, they have appeared at many regional and national lesbian and gay festivals and pride marches, including the March on Washington, Campfest, and the Gulf Coast Women's Festival. Refreshingly and matter-of-factly OUT music! (DESS43) CS: 9.98

Erica Wheeler

From That Far

This Massachusetts singer/songwriter embodies the finest qualities of folk music: the vocal warmth, the clear acoustic tones, the simplicity of the stories of our lives. Erica's voice is silky and sweet on this 1992 release, her songwriting direct and poetic...and contrary to popular theory, you can never have enough girls and guitars. When their artistry is of this caliber! Includes Amanda Chazy Wolf, the pining Down River, and the traditional I Know You Fider. (BP200) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Resting With the Question

Who'd have guessed that Ferron's musical gift could express its poetry through instrumental music as well as through songs with lyrics? Not I, certainly, but this 1992 release proves me mistaken! Eloquent compositions performed on synthesizer are saturated with emotion: lush, wistful, yearning, haunting, rich, and circular...elegant and probing dreamscapes. And you'll probably lapse into thinking you're hearing flutes, classical guitars, strings, piano, and human voices. A highly recommended opportunity to experience another dimension of this woman's artistry. (CW006) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Marly). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any albums: the concert favorite I Am A Game, and Shady Gate, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center. 15 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

Gwen Avery

Live at IMA

Gwen made a brief but indelible impression as part of the ground-breaking Varied Voices of Black Women four over a decade ago... and her song Sugar Mama, on the Lesbian concentrate album, has become an unforgettable classic — the disappeared from national view unfortunately. Emerging as a personal struggle stronger than ever, Gwen shares her journey here both in music and spoken word. This 1993 album of rhythm and blues from the source, gospel from the heart, captured in the moment and masterfully edited by June Millington, is a must for every music lover's collection. Recorded at IMA — Institute for the Musical Arts — a non-profit multi-cultural organization dedicated to the advancement of women in music. (FAB555) CS: 9.98

Musical Highlights: Fire/Rain Play

About this spring, 1993 release of highlights from her play Fire in the Rain, Holly says, "While doing the play, audiences kept asking for the cast recording. We didn't have one. The songs were spread out on 15 different recordings made over the last 20 years! A compilation? No, let me record these songs one last time... not like I sang them back then... maybe not even how I sing them in the show! I hope you enjoy this recording... a celebration of the last 20 years and a reassurance that there are many surprising years yet to come." (RR5303) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

June and Jean Millington

Ticket to Wonderful

This long-awaited 1993 release is the Millington sisters' best work yet! They combine their Philippine island roots, elevated lyrics and a folk-rock sensibility (honored in the 70's with their pioneering work in Fanny, the first all-woman rock band to achieve international prominence) to create a unique World Beat blend of island consciousness and rock-steely global rhythms. Original songs range from the upbeat and passionate Lighting the Night, to the crisp and hauntingly beautiful Indigo Skies, to the playful Goin' to Hawaii, to the prayerful Family (World of Love). Living up to its title, this album brings a new dimension to the words "soul music." (FAB556) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laura Love

Pangaea

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant — all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severt) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Mando Grifflin's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great bend, and a marvelous set of "s — there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet!" Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing. Nelson, Voices. Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner

Butch Fatale

At last! This hilarious and touching performer has released her first live recording, with 14 examples of her witty "dyke gal cabaret" — both live comedy songs for which she is well known, plus several stand-up monologues all interspersed with hilarious and sometimes scathing stage patter. Songs include Seven Nights ("Dear Joanne Lulam! I am writing you this letter! Hoping you can give me some advice — you seem so nice! — in the last 6 months we haven't done it twice cuz 7 nights a week she goes: Country Western dancer..."). Come home, a warm tribute to Sharon Kowalski and Karen Thompson's courage and strength in the face of their court-enforced separation, and the perfect example of incompatibility on a first date. Alone Together. (BNT32499) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Margie Adam

Another Place

Well, this 1993 album was worth the wait! Honestly, we thought we'd lost her for good, but she's back with a lovely collection of songs, chock full of her trademark wry and gentle observations on the ways of the heart. Her voice has matured and deepened, and by bringing together some of today's best Women's Music artists (old and new), she breathes a new, steady life into the scene. Brava! Includes the humorous Talk with my Heart, which features beautiful instrumental interludes whether her heart answers back, the steadfast Long Haul in which she honors those still fighting for our rights, and the heartbreaking Time Goes Slowly By, in which an elderly woman sits bewildered in a nursing home, waiting to be taken home (job, sniffler)... 13 gems in all, waiting for you to take them home! Highly recommended. (PLE2751) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mermaids in the Basement

Positive Energy

This Virginia-based rock quartet exudes plenty of energy! The lead vocalist, Shesha Forber, reminds this reviewer of early Melissa Etheridge — raw, powerful, and emotional — while the band combines standard rock instruments and styles (rock-kissed ballads) to create a great collection of 8 original songs. (MTB1) CS: 9.98

Mothers' Daughters

Take It To Another Place...

This 1992 debut album is "dedicated to the Power of Women, to Cultural Survival and to the Spirit of the Drums, Dance, and Music that lives in us all." Calling their music Women's World Beat, the songs written by this 4-woman band reflect spiritual and political consciousness and change and power... Earth Wisdom... and a deep commitment to wilderness. They're singers and drummers, percussionists and guitarists playing instruments from many cultures, performing both songs — such as Shes A Rebel, Apartheid in America, Cycles of Truth — and percussion-only pieces — Savibe 6/8 — great for movement and dance, or even for drumming along. Check them out! (GH01) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lulu's Walk

Here, finally available to and from us, is their 1987 debut recording — we loved it when we first heard it years ago, and still do! Beginning with Lulu's Walk, Connie and Kim bring their whimsical, avant-garde, funky styles to their own jazz-oriented compositions, as well as a couple by other songwriters. Lots of percussion, plus keyboards, keyboard bass, and vocals. (LU001) CS: 9.98

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 8 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, featured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive... and this 1992 release is as uplifter as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! (PEL001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick

You Deserve (Single)

You Deserve the Strong Love is one of the most frequently requested songs from Susan's Truth & the Lie album, and makes a very special gift for anyone you'd like to send this message to... kind of like a shipping telegram, with lyrics included. That's why she issued this as a cassette single. As always with Susan's work, highly recommended! (SH3) CS: 6.98

Tilik with Native Ban

National Tears

Tilik is a woman who qualifies as a veteran on several levels: as one of the founding members of the legendary early women's music band Belle K Roche, as a recovering druggie, and as the manager of one of DC's last venues for original music, The Food for Thought Cafe. Her debut album is a collection of 9 original songs, mostly rockers with a ballad or two, all of which encompass her passion for spotlighting social injustices. Songs include Lesbian Daughter, If You Don't Like Living ("a wake-up call to self-hate"), Hair Crimes, and the evocative North Carolina Penitentiary. (HPR1) CS: 9.98

Topp Twins

No War in My Heart

Once again available, now as an import from New Zealand (home of this fabulous sister-duo) so you can once again have access to their 1987 album which juxtaposes biting political satire with beautiful love songs. Includes President's Men, Throw Down Your Guns, Dolly Parton, The Queen, Untouchable Girls, and more. (TOP29020) CS: 10.98

Various Artists

Together, Proud & Strong (Single)

The Official Anthem of the 1993 March on Washington... for Lesbian, Gay & Bi-Equal Rights and Liberation... which if you were there, you heard! The anthem, written by Lynn Thomas, is performed here by a 63-voice ensemble representing the national (mostly-lesbian) community — Margie Adam, June Millington, Holly Near, Gwen Avery, Venus Envy, Susan Herrick, the Washington Sisters, Pam Hall, Jamie Anderson, Ron Romanovsky, Paul Phillips, Toni Armstrong of Hotwire Magazine, our own Tracy Drach and Reed Williams, and many many many others!! Also includes an instrumental version. A portion of the proceeds go to the March... an inspiring souvenir you can treasure for years to come! (SHT1002) CS: 6.98

Various Artists

A Family of Friends

This 1993 release may be the best sampler of women's music ever created! The title song, an anthem-to-be and a must-have for every woman's music lover, is one of the sweetest and most memorable tunes ever composed (it has been running around my brain now for weeks, to it's a good thing I love it)... as a collaboration, it expresses some of the highest spirit of our lesbian culture. Co-written by Sue Fink, Jamie Anderson, June Millington, Jane Emmer and Dakota, it is performed by (take a deep breath) songwriters Sue, Jamie, June and Jane, plus Margie Adam, Deirdre McCallis, Chris Williams, Traci Fure, Sharon Washington, Jean Millington, Susan Herrick, Robin Flower, Monica Grant, Helen Mookie, Mary Watkins, Barbara Borden, and others!! Then, there are tracks (many previously released) by the following individual artists: Alix Dobkin (with her previously unreleased My Kind of Girl), Pam Hall, Venus Envy, Yel Gelfand, One Spirit (Kay Gardner and Nurudanna Pili Abern), Sue Fink, June Millington, Mimi Baczynska, Laura Berkson, Diane Lindsay, Leah Zickel, Jamie Anderson. Some profits will be donated to a lesbian organization. A great introduction for friends and "family" new to women's music, and a classic for the confirmed. Highly recommended! ### Brooke Medicine Eagle

Grandmother Wisdom

Subtitled Lessons of the Moon-Pause Lodge (moon-pause means menopause), this 1992 teaching tape is specifically for the Grandmothers, and women who no longer experience their monthly bloods. Brooke lovingly guides women through the blessings now available to them, and teaches specific ways to honor the path toward Cronehood, to nurture and care for themselves and their communities. (BME12) CS: 9.98

Little Wheel Spin and Spin

Recorded in 1966, this classic album reveals the roots of Buffy's musical career: the folk and protest songs that revolutionized the 60's. Drawing on a repertoire of traditional European ballads with more than a hint of irony, she also introduces My Country 'Tis of Thy People You're Dying, probably the first recording to confront White America on its racism towards Native Americans. With acoustic and electric guitar accompaniment, plus mouthbow. (VAN79211) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

She Used To Wanna Be A Ballerina

This remake of Buffy's 1971 classic is welcomed most gratefully and enthusiastically into our midst! This reviewer was 11 (ed. III) when it was released, and listened to it every day after school (including the line, "fuck the war and bring our brothers home"), completely immersed in the passion and anger and beauty she projected. If you've never heard it before, treat yourself and thank the heavens you didn't miss it: if you're familiar with it, set aside that battered LP, put this on, and savor the trip back. Includes Soldier Blue, Neil Young's Helpless, the hypnotic The Surfer (also recorded by Gauridabarcand), and Leonard Cohen's Bells... Yay! (VAN79311) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Dhyani Ywahoo

Cherokee Teaching Stories

These teaching stories (The Story of the Magic Lake and The Coming of the Fire) are imparted in a loving and delightful style — her speaking voice is a lilting sort of singsong, which, when accompanied by flutes, drums, crickets, and other chanting voices, reverently illustrates her messages of treating the earth responsibly, and the necessity of following the spiritual path. Also includes a beautiful, stately chant, Immortals Among Us. (SUNS) CS: 10.98

Native Flute Ensemble

Gathering of Shamens

The theme of this 1993 release is the regular gatherings held by shamens in the Black Hills of South Dakota, The Four Corners Region of the American Southwest, and Atilan in Guatemala. Each of the 9 compositions, spotlighting the Native American cedar flute with enhancements by Native percussion and synthesizers, relates to one of these "power" areas, with distinct sounds and styles that will guide listeners on their aural journey. ### Vi Hilbert

Coyote and Rock-Lushootseed Stories

Vi Hilbert, a renowned Native American storyteller, is an Elder of the Upper Skagit Tribe of Washington State. She says, "My ancestors told us these stories, because these were our textbooks when we had no written language. This was the way our young people went to school, by learning these stories. They carried all of the information that was important to our culture, so that we would know how to grow up to be good people, through the lessons that were carried within each of these stories." 60 min. ## Jewish

The Healing Circle/ Refuah Shieyma

Hanna is a Jewish mystic, and a composer and singer of Hebrew and English music. With a holistic approach to biblical images that is inclusive and liberating, she often calls on the Shechina, the divine feminine presence, in her prayers and blessings. These 14 songs, recorded with Myra Rabinowitz and Nomi Fenson, feature vocal harmonies plus acoustic string instruments and percussion. Ancient prayers are combined with contemporary songs, to invoke the healing of body, emotions, mind and soul — use for listening, singing along, preparing for Shabbos, or healing from an injury or illness. Filled with a love of Torah and a twinkle of chutzpa, includes Blessed Be and The Fearless' Blessing. (HTS450) CS: 9.98

Edith Piaf

The Legendary Edith Piaf

Recorded live in Paris from 1955 - 1962, and at Carnegie Hall in 1957, this 18-song retrospective is delightful, much like the artist herself, we suspect. She introduces the American set in English, telling little stories about each song before launching that distinctive voice out at us. Includes her many classics, Je Ne Regrette Rien; La Gouaille du Pauvre Jean; Mon Dieu; and concludes with If You Love Me, Really Love Me (Hymne A L'Amour). Great liner notes (was she really born on a sidewalk and reared in a brothel?); lyrics not included. (EMI276127) CD: 15.98

Voices on the Eastern Wind

Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal musics of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment — and recognize their expertise. If this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge — they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, exotic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength." This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice... invigorating and beautiful. (DPH092) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

African

The Best of...

Recorded in 1958-59, this amazing compilation gives us a glimpse of Miriam's earliest years, and in a sort of "girl group" situation paralleling the movement here in the West; she and several women were "adopted" by a studio which put them together with veteran studio musicians and engineers, and turned them loose! Enhancing their popularity was the fact that they combined traditional elements with contemporary ones, interjecting political references as well. These 18 songs comprise some of the smoothest, most effortless-sounding African pop we've ever heard! Great liner notes; recommended! (KAZ2624) CD: 16.98

The World of Miriam Makeba

This hard-to-find Barbadian import is once again in stock. Includes material in Spanish, English, and African languages; songs include Forbidden Games, Dubula, Pole Mee, Trados de Meda-Noche. (RCA2750) CS: 9.98

Tarika Sammy

Fanafody

Our first offering from the island of Madagascar! We're thrilled to find this 2-woman (sisters Noro Rahaamalala and Hanitra Rasoaivao), 2-man quartet who have taken the traditional music, rhythms and instruments of the different tribes and regions of their country and come up with this beautiful blend... you'll hear African rhythms, Asian vocal inflections, and European concertina melodies! Each member plays at least 5 different instruments; plus sings, and the sounds are sweet and rhythmic, both light and grounded! Title song is about herbal medicines, and means remedy, magic and good luck charms, while the lovely May Kab finds the singer dreaming that her song is being taken to its destination by the clouds, the wind, the sun and the rainbow. Characterized by a love of and dedication to beauty, this 1992 album is very highly recommended — of course! (GL4003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa

Taos to Tennessee

As Tish's popularity continues to rise, we are privileged to receive her earlier work in reissues such as this, recorded in Taos and initially released in 1987. It features local musicians, and she showcases many of their songs, along with 5 originals, plus a lovely interpretation of Irving Berlin's Always. Most so... in English, with a decidedly country-western flavor. Recommended! (WAT1008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nasida Ria

Keadilan: Qasidah Music from Java

One of the most remarkable recordings in our catalog! The 9 women of this ensemble (with 23 albums under their belts) are the leading exponents in Indonesia of Qasidah music. Qasida is a classical Arabic word for epic religious poetry traditionally performed by a storyteller/singer accompanied by percussion and chanting. Indonesian Muslims practice their own versions of this, improvising lyrics in local languages addressing contemporary concerns and moral issues. Nasida Ria present this in a pop-song format, accompanying themselves on electric guitars and keyboards, violins, flute, mandolin, and percussion. Rhythmic influences from other East Indian and Arabic popular music forms are blended with Indonesian lyrics, as they give advice to young lovers, extol a virtuous life, and warn against corruption. Recommended for all wanting to expand their musical horizons! (PIR26) CD: 16.98

Legend

Subtitled Music from the TV Series "Robin of Sherwood", this 1984 release features the impressive vocals of Maire Brennan, one of our favorite Celtic singers whose work we strive to make available here in the States. Ten songs, with titles like Lady Marian, Ancient Forest, and Darkmere, all evocative of the tale. (TAR3012) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Elemental

This extremely talented musician's vocalists must have been incarnated just to bring the music of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1985 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Carnegiefergus, She Moved Through the Fair. Harp, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 19.98

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with violin, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Gaenstal Abbey in Limerick and Guelph's Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Seasons, Balulaw, Let All That Are to Mirth Inclined. (QR102) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 19.98

Parallel Dreams

This 1989 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection, from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annachie Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Beltane Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almspiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's expansion of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music; highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 19.98

Lucinda Williams

Sweet Old World

Sweet new album! This 1992 collection of 12 originals is just shot through with honey and lemonade — Lucinda is a fantastic songwriter, weaving stories about people we've all known, and her voice and delivery have much of the same warmth and emotional depth as Jennifer Warnes'. Includes Hot Blood, Memphis Pearl. Really really, really recommended! (CHM11351) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith

Other Voices, Other Rooms

On this 1993 album, Nanci, an interpreter extraordinaire, performs 17 songs by her favorite writers, including Bob Dylan, Arlo Guthrie, Emmylou Harris, the Indigo Girls, Bela Fleck, Chet Atkins, John Prine, and others. Includes Woman of the Phoenix, Morning Song for Sally, From Glare to Here, Across the Great Divide. (EL61464) CS: 16.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Celtic

Maggie Sansone, Sue Richards et al

Music in the Great Hall

Subtitled Instrumental Music from the Ancient Celtic Lands, this 1992 live recording includes Maggie's trademark skill on the hammered dulcimer, plus Sue Richards, Bonnie Rideout, and Ensemble Galileo on Celtic harp, fiddle, recorders and viola da gamba. Includes Gaician Waltz, Mass Pattenston, Fingal's March and more. (MM107) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Maire Brennan

Maire

Look out Enya, here comes your sister Maire, lead singer of the Clannad ensemble, with an exquisite solo album of her own... which we've been hoping for ever since we first heard Clannad. Mostly original songs in English and Gaelic, rooted in tradition but embracing progressive styles and speaking of change, empathy, Celtic and contemporary instrumentation as well as wonderful, multi-layered, tonal harmonies by Dea Brennan, Olive Brennan, and Bridh Brennan. Includes Land of Youth, Voices of the Land, Against the Wind. Highly recommended! (ATL2421) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Mary Black

Thankfully back in print for late '92, cassettes in early '93! Coming to you directly from Dublin, Ireland, Mary's sound is a perfect blend of pop, jazz and traditional Celtic. And her voice! Clear as a bell and rich as cream. Known to many for her work as vocalist for the famous De Danann band, her style is sometimes contemporary, and at other times, as on her beautiful rendition of Archie Gordon, the most traditional essence. For all you folkies who don't think you like pop music. (GIF1004) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Without the Fanfare

Released for late 1992... cassettes in early '93. This album by the indescribably wonderful vocalist has leavings and separations as a theme: Ellis Island, As I Leave Behind Neirin, plus the plaintive Crow On the Cradle. (GIF10005) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Alison Brown

Twilight Motel

If you check into Twilight Motel, you might end up staying longer than you expect! With her 1992 release, this innovative artist (who is currently on tour with Michelle Shocked as musical director) creates a true synthesis between traditional bluegrass and progressive modern jazz, as she ventures more into a jazz direction than on her debut release. The cast of supporting musicians includes luminaries such as Jerry Douglas, Tony Rice, and Darol Anger, and Maura O'Connell contributes the vocal track on the Celtic folk song Sweet Thames Flow Softly. This album breaks down all barriers of banjo music; she's one of our faves; check it soon! (VAN79466) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra

Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice... absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the orientalism of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Dragan. She writes, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument — it is the one means of expression used by every culture... The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice — it links all cultures throughout time." (CAR2322) CD: 16.98

Collected

Back in print (CD's now, cassettes early '93)! This 1986 album contains both previously released and unreleased material; many traditional songs with Irish instrumentation (uilleann pipes, bouzouki, fiddle, sitar, etc.), including a beautiful Gaelic ballad and She Moved Through the Fair. (GIF10006) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Blue Is the Colour of Hope

This 1992 release is another foray into contemporary folk (with jazzy inflections), this time more acoustic, and with a bevy of country and folk luminaries on background vocals (Mary-Charin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, Rosanne Cash) and instruments. Highlights include the jazz ballad Love to Learn, MC Carpenter's It Don't Bring You, plus The Blue Train. The overall feeling is a bit melancholy and languid (First You Cry, for example), but her voice is perfectly suited to the mood! (WB45053) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Sue Richards

Morning Aire

This Celtic harp champion brings a joyous and inventive approach to music from Ireland and Scotland, on this 1993 album of Scottish strathspeys, marches, lively jigs, reels, and lush 18th century Irish airs by the legendary Turlough O'Carolan. Joined by the US Scottish fiddle champion Bonnie Rideout, Sue creates intricate harmonies and textures. Also features pennywhistle, guitar, and viola da gamba on some tracks. (MM104) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco

Puddle Dive

On this new release for spring 1993, her most complex effort to date, Ani (dubbed a folk-rock-feminist by one reviewer) goes boldly where no one has gone before... joined at various moments by pianist Ann Rabson from Saffire, the Uppity Blues-women, virtuoso violinist Mary Ramsey from the folk-rock duo John & Mary, and English harmonica sensation Rory McLeod. An in-your-face lyrical who exposes our hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status quo in sex, psychology and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. The Bird Sisters
Different Stories

A must-have album for all lovers of great harmonies, and one of our favorite new additions for 1993! With sparse acoustic accompaniment (the occasional fiddle, guitar, bass, and drums), the fledgling members of this Canadian trio open their mouths and simply soar — gorgeous sounds airt, reminiscent of the Roches or Two Neca Girls. Their repertoire includes the fantastic Why Can't You Read My Mind, a lush acappella version of Hoagy Carmichael and Johnny Mercer's Saylark, a tale of spiritual journeying called Back to the Desert, and the airborne Get Up and Fly. Imported from Canada; very highly recommended! (TBS002) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Rock

10,000 Maniacs
Our Time in Eden

Lush, poetic, dreamlike, this 1992 album's lyrics read like an intimate letter from a good friend — warm, philosophical, confidential. Natalie's focus remains panoramic, yet she delves into the realms of myth and history here to evoke imagined lives, and told with her own stories, as with any poet, she balances her reflections of innocence with betrayal, of glory with bewilderment and disappointment in a way that creates real beauty. Includes Mozart, Gold Rusn Bridek, Circle Dream. (EL61385) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Fluke
Cough It Up

Remember the DC women's rock band, Squeeze Louise? Here are two of the original members (ex-Blipper Flo Hollis and Robyn Griffin) plus Kris Koff and John McKay, back for more original thrash and smash rock 'n roll! 7 songs in all on their 1992 release, including a redone version of Wire Hangers, plus Mama's Gun, Lunatic Mythology, and Naked Bunch. Even features the closest they've ever got to a ballad, the imagistic Trial of Love ("dreamed I dove into the dark green sea; woke on the shore between your knees..."). Recommended! (FLK6002) CS: 7.98

Happy Rhodes
Equipoise

Vampires, angels, symbiots, aliens — this visionary artist seems to possess a multiplicity of perception, insights combined with prophecy, like floating in water and looking both above and below the surface at the same time — things get kinda wavy and never stop moving... Musically, the mood on this 1993 release is very languid, with a simpler musical structure (though still many multi-layered vocals) than in her previous recordings. Sweet, melancholy myths spiced with her amazing vocals — on several cuts she self-harmonizes in extreme high and low registers, and you'll be constantly reminding yourself that this isn't a Kate & Annie duet! We'll probably keep highly recommending this artist for years to come... but we advise you to check her out now! (AG0019) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

L7
Not exactly a romp thru the old yearbook, this reissue of their debut 1988 album of 11 slamin' tracks shows the grungy roots of these wild Madusas' early creative years ("please, sis, I'd like to be a cultural terrorist when I grow up" was probably on their little minds when they were in kindergarten). Plenty of throbbing bass and guitar, scorched vocals, convulsive drums. Includes Bite the Wax Tadpole, Mt. 45, Snake Handker, Car O' Nine Tails. (BPT85401) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

The Chenille Sisters
Whatcha Gonna Swing Tonight?

Joined on this 1992 release by James Dupogny's Chicago Jazz Band, this talented vocal trio takes us back to the Swingland era — the great jazz of the 20's through 40's, and this reviewer can't think of a more perfect place for the Chenilles! Their fabulous harmonies and ability to be equally expressive whether punching out a lanky split hop or sinking along in a languorous croon make these gals a must! Includes Sentimental Journey, Goodie Goodie, Rum and Coca Cola, Little White Lies. Recommended! (RH90) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Janis Ian
Between the Lines

Now that this well-known artist from the 60's and 70's has publicly come out as a lesbian (confirming years of audience hope-and/or speculation), we've been getting requests for her material. Here's a classic 1975 album, containing several of her "hits". At Seventeen, Tea & Sympathy, Lover's Lullaby, and more. (COL33394) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 13.98

Joan Baez
Play Me Backwards

This 1992 release, reflecting Joan's fourth decade of performance, shows her musically as strong and vibrant as ever. Includes several original plus outstanding songs by Janis Ian (Amsterdam), Mary-Chapin Carpenter (Stones in the Road), and other contemporary songwriters. (VIR85458) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Quigley Ensemble
Renovation

This quartet Canadianienne employs some of the most amazing vocal harmonies we've ever heard! As LF says, "Albums like this help me love my job again, for those sweet minutes of discovery..." All accomplished musicians with numerous accolades and awards, they interpret a diverse repertoire in French and English, including The Nursery, L'Amour De Moy, Antique Eyes, Isabelle... Their proficiency on such instruments as bodhran, guitars, percussion and wind instruments is fitting accompaniment for the magic they weave with their voices. Once again, a fresh wind from Canada reaches down and blows gently into our ears! Import; highly recommended. (MOK001) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Shawn Colvin
Fat City

This 1992 release finds the artist's voice stronger than ever, and her growth as a songwriter over is evident in her broadened use of musical styles, instruments, and subject matters. The title of the album, taken from the song Round of Blues, represents a feeling of hope, confidence, and dreams on the verge of coming true — themes which run through the album, includes Set the Prairie On Fire, a song so sultry you can feel the heat of the desert, Tennessee, an all-out rocker, and Orion In the Sky; a beautiful love ballad. (COL47122) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Suzi Katz

Short, painterly poetic vignettes, backed by imagistic, lush arrangements of acoustic bass, percussion and guitar. Suzi's voice is strong, rich, lustrous — she's been compared to Joni Mitchell, and with good reason! Her songs appear to rise up, mist-like, capturing a mood or landscape in simple terms, disguising the underlying sophistication. Highlights include an evocative interplay between two songs, We Ape and But I Forget; an invocation to The People, and the plaintive Whisper Low. Highly recommended! (ESD6064) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Small the Magic

They drop their drawers on stage, spit on reporters, defy just about every social norm that comes their way — gotta love 'em just for that, but they also play some of the best "hard rock" (too late a term for them, but they're a bit too sophisticated for the term "grunge") on the scene today. Love Fast and Frightening ("She makes the straight girls wanna be dykes..."), also Bromatrick and Parkin' A Rod. 1991. (SUG0079) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Madonna
Erotica (The Album)

As always at the center of controversy, Madonna released this 1992 album — about the thin lines between sex and love, power, pain and pleasure — to coincide with the publication of her even more controversial book, Sex. Includes title, Deeper and Deeper, Bad Girl, Secret Garden, and more. (WB43154) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Pain in the Middle

The perfect follow-up to their debut tape, this 1992 release is a fabulous blend — a kind of 90's kinda statement — with Trace Wren's cool jangly lead guitar setting the sometimes languorous, sometimes sharp feelings the songs generate. Very well-crafted rock 'n roll — look for these girls to gain more and more fame, if not notoriety! The 13 songs include the Cowboy Junkies-like You're All I've Got, the R.E.M. lip o' the hat Grantavie, and the totally inspiring Pain (a country western r'n' complete with synchronized pants of ecstatic agony!). Don't miss out on the fun here. (MSJ2) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

PJ Harvey
Dry

England's latest punk sensation, whom we like viddy much, thank you. Drol' musings and visceral images, and anti-harmonic (though hypnotically rhythmic) rock phrasings. She reminds us a bit of Squeeze Louise and the Throwing Muses, but with a decidedly Celtic slant, like in Sheela-Na-Gig (which is an ancient Celtic stone female figure pulling her vagina open and laughing)... Also includes the delightful Dress, the more cynical Happy and Bleeding, plus Oh My Lover and O Stella. Recommended, of course! (ING5001) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor
Am I Not Your Girl

Why, oh my yes, you are, I mean, she's! Ever stretching the boundaries, our girl has now recorded an album of standards and torch songs, in her words, "the songs I grew up listening to, the songs that made me want to be a singer..." Her phrasing at times conforms to the style in which the songs were originally recorded, but just as quickly she'll glide into another realm entirely, the Sinead zone, and then back again. It's fun, it's touching, it's tacky — it's our girl! Includes I Want To Be Loved By You, Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered, Black Coffee, How Insensitive (we'd like to dedicate this one to the crowd at Bob Dylan's October '92 tribute concert for boding her off the stage ostensibly for leaning up a picture of the Pope the previous week). Love it, love her! (CHR21952) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Straight Ahead Look Straight Ahead

This women's contemporary jazz quintet hails from Detroit, and while all 5 members figure prominently, it is really the spectacular contributions of violinist/vocalist Regina Carter which deserve special mention. Quite simply, her work on the electric violin is energetic, mesmerizing, and transcendent — Jean Luc Ponty move over! Her studies with Itzhak Perlman and Yehudi Menuhin are evident by the virtuosity with which she wields her instrument. Contains Büsen für Annie, Theme for Eileen... covers of material by John Coltrane, Stanley Clarke, and others supplement original works to make this 1992 album a great find — check it out! ### Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women

BroadCasting

This 1992 release finds Saffire pared down to a duo of the band's original founding members, Gaye Adegbola and Ann Rabson... with their trademark sound remaining powerfully intact: "irresistible portions of sass and soul, tradition and attitude... the wit and irony of blues divas of yesteryear, with an updated twist." Includes the following tunes: One Hour Mama, Dump That Crump, Mix Thang, It's Alright For A Man To Cry, Mind Your Own Business, 17 in all. (ALL4811) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sippie Wallace Women Be Wise

Along with Beanie Smith and Ma Rainey, Sippie was one of the greatest classic blues singers of all time. Her trademark singing style was the precursor to the styles of artists like Saffire - The Uppity Blues Women and Bonnie Raitt (who has performed with Sippie, recorded several of Sippie's songs, and always cites Sippie as her main inspiration!). This re-release of 1966 recordings, originally released on the Storyville label, includes 11 duet performances featuring Sippie ably backed by blues piano giants Roosevelt Sykes and Little Brother Montgomery, plus one track with Sippie accompanying herself on piano. ### Anonymous 4 An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 19th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoires. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1992 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly presented with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU0780) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Bay Area Women's Philharmonic

The Women's Philharmonic

Conducted by JoAnn Fallata, this 1992 album features the works of Lili Boulanger (D'un Soir Triste and D'un Matin de Pentecôte), Fanny Mendelssohn (Quintettes), Clara Schumann (Piano Concerto in A Minor, Opus 7), and Germaine Tailleferre (Concertino for Harp and Orchestra). Features Angela Cheng on piano and Gillian Benet on harp. (KOC7169) CD: 16.98

Lesley Garrett A Soprano At the Movies

A popular, rather than simply classical, opera singer, Lesley transforms the genre from a stuffy traditional hobby of silly passions (OK, I'm biased) into an interpretive vocal dance that will move the most inert opera-hater into a swoon! Each selection is a theatrical piece somehow used in a movie soundtrack, the most evocative being Come Exotic, the duet which served as a backdrop to Susan Sarandon's seduction by Catherine Deneuve in The Hunger! Also includes the notable Def's Love, a re-worked version of Bizet's Habanera from one of the first all-black Broadway musicals, Carmen Jones. 12 pieces in all, rendered golden by this amazing performer. Good reason that this appeared on the Billboard charts for over 40 weeks! (SLV1007) CD: 16.98

Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg It Ain't Necessarily So

Simply accompanied by Sandra Rivers on piano, this fiery violinist is free to interpret her favorite "bon-bone" classic gems which she adapts to her instrument... as the CD box says, her "uncanny ability to express herself distinctly is well known, but seldom has she laid her extraordinary talent so bare before us as in this very personal selection of encores. The variety of her choices; and the freedom of a solo album, all add up to this American violinist's most revealing recording." Includes tunes by Gershwin, a ragtime by Scott Joplin, and an assortment of classical pieces. 16 in all. Recommended! (EM154576) CD: 17.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes The Red Shoes

This tape, subtitled On Torment and the Recovery of Soul, illuminates how we are driven to destructive behavior by ignoring our own inner needs. Built around a retelling of the title story, the author offers, with Jungian commentary and helpful counsel, a treatise on building a life that is uniquely your own — the "hand-made life" — by listening to the instructive forces of your instinctual self. (SND202) CS: 10.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes Warming the Stone Child

On this tape subtitled Myths & Stories About Abandonment and the Unmothered Child, this gifted storyteller and Jungian analyst leads the listener past the gates of the conscious mind, to discover the unmothered child within. Drawing from many world cultures, she has gathered a collection of deep myths, fables and fairy tales (such as The Stolen Woman Moon) which illuminate the psychology of abandonment in childhood, how it affects people later in life, and its curiously special gifts and powers. Her storytelling creates a picture of the orphan figure through the ages, while helping us understand the meaning of pre-adolescent abandonment in our own lives... a challenging journey, with a practical edge. 90 min. (SND092) CS: 10.98

Laura Simms Women and Wild Animals (2-Tape Set)

Animals speak the natural rhythm of the earth, the joyful and fearless dance of birth and death, reminding us of our wilder, more instinctual selves. Hearing stories (re-walks) our animal ears and eyes, and reminds us, as all myths do, to live with wisdom and compassion as part of the natural world. Subtitled How! the Morning Welcome, this 2-tape set is a collection of stories based on sacred myth, animal lore, and personal experience... both an eloquent exploration of the feminine principle and an invocation to our animal and human ancestors. With music by Steve Gorn, includes Wolf Girl at Devil's River, Mother of the Animals, Eagle Mother, Mistress of the Waves, and more. 1 hour 40 min. (AUD37) CS: 16.98

Marsha Sinetar Work as a Spiritual Path (2 Tapes)

Work approached with total devotion of purpose follows in the richest spiritual traditions — the Buddhist view of "right livelihood," the Quaker ideal of spiritual service through work, and the Shaker tradition of putting our highest selves into each small daily chore. Here the author of the bestseller Do What You Love, the Money Will Follow offers the audio session for those seeking a meaningful work life that honors the spiritual path as well. Her ideas, stories and exercises will inspire a new understanding about the equation between work, the spirit, and the real wealth within us, founded on self-awareness and self-discipline. 2 tapes, 150 min. #### Play More Music

Thank God for these guys! I reckon they've hit upon the most successful way to communicate political information: kick-ass music you can't help but move to, combined with lyrics that will throw the doors to your heart open in joy that somebody's talking about the important stuff publicly! This San Franciscoan trio invites Wendy O Matik and Crack MC for contributions, and give the Yeastie Girls a cut of their own (You Suck). The overall result is guaranteed to motivate you, piss you off (especially when they hand the mike to their audience members for comments, and you get a taste of how reactionary the younger generation can be), enthrall you, and possess your body in a rhythmic manner. Includes Tool & Die, Veggie Beat Manifesto, Sex O Crits, and one member's coming out story, Accept Me For What I Am. 1992. (JRS13171) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '82 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RH49) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson

Now that this thing's packaged like a normal cassette, we're listing it again! ### Karen Williams

Wild Child At Large

This hysterical performance at the 1991 Michigan Womyn's Music Festival by one of the premiere stand-up comics of the Women's Music and Culture circuit has been captured on video... showing Karen being just what she thought would be an easy, satiating thing to do: an African American lesbian mother comic! Her ad-lib with the plastic baby "Pookie" had us in stitches... and if you missed this festival, you'll probably never see it in her act if you don't watch this. (YV1VC) 24.98

Keith Haring (A Portrait of...)

Drawing the Line

This inspiring, celebratory video profile tells the story of one of the most famous and controversial street artists of all time — and a crusader for gay rights. He often incorporated social issues, such as the fight against apartheid, crack and AIDS into his work. When he died in 1990 of AIDS at age 31, he left behind an astonishing artistic legacy that transcended all the usual boundaries. Highly recommended! (KUL1263VC) 19.98

Tom Wilson Weinberg

Get Used To It

This 1990 release presents Tom's political and satirical gay musical revue for the nineties, about which newspaper reviewers have said the following: "A joyous statement for all generations of gay culture..." ### William Finn & James Lapine

Falsettoland

The original cast recording from the 1990 off-Broadway musical play (or actually, Act II of a current version, and in fact part III of the "Marvin trilogy" — there, are you confused?). Anyway, it's about being gay and Jewish and living through the era of AIDS, with some lesbian characters, and includes the complete libretto. (DRG12601) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Babyslipper

Sigourney Weaver, narrator

The Snow Queen

Hear Amy Ehrlich's lovely story of Gertrud and Kai (based on the Hans Christian Andersen story) read deliciously by Sigourney, accompanied by soothing and evocative synthesizer music. The winter imagery is a perfect backdrop for the subplot of the children's journey as they encounter a robber girl who experiences generosity for the first time, an old woman who can turn into a crow, then Gertrud's rescue of the kidnapped Kai ("her hot tears dripping onto his frozen heart, thawing it so they can escape"), and finally, the Snow Queen's revelation about love. Side 1 is the story, side 2 the music only. Recommended. (LY5108) CS: 10.98

Drumming ♦ Percussion

Rhythms

from the Womb

Edwina Lee Tyler Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of djembe drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals; we've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "the cool side," and progressively beats things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage) as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wade in the Water) and a West African song (Ki Yaa Ki Yaa). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive, in your mind and your body! (PPQ1) CS: 9.99

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Dancing Toward the One

From this creative musician/composer, dedicated to inspire people to the trance- and ecstasy-inducing powers of music and rhythm, come two full-length pieces, replete with a large female and male cast of vocalists plus percussionists and electric instrumentalists. Sing the Body is the first power chant Gabrielle received from the spirit... a "rhythm ride" to be taken alone or with others. Can You See Me was created in a healing circle as a dance meditation, as a way of breaking down barriers between people. (RAV01) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primative, tribal-trance music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists, synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies: while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of asheko or djembe, Taps drum, kitembe, log drum, toke, jun-jun, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Evana. We have nothing else like this in our catalog... let yourself loose with this one! (RAV02) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume, it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV03) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors Bones

"...a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones..." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! (RAV04) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Ritual

Subtitled "...of remembrance for a forgotten earth, this is trance music for movement, massage, meditation and other rituals of remembrance. Extraordinary sounds of percussion are embellished with viola, oboe, synthesizer and vocal chants. (RAV06) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth Sacred Sexuality: God, Sex & Body

Healing the gulf between our physical, emotional and spiritual selves serves as the centerpiece for Gabrielle to weave a wondrous web of new possibilities for catalyzing life energy. On this New Dimensions Radio interview, she speaks of the stillpoint within, where all things are possible and intimacy can become a "divine act." Seeking the deepest well of our being, she takes us on a rhythmic ride through the sexual cycles of life, and makes the connection between the sexual and spiritual experience. 90 min. (NDR1935) CS: 10.99

Gabrielle Roth Teachings of an Urban Shaman

This program is an interview of Gabrielle, conducted by Michael Toms for New Dimensions Radio, with some of her music from Initiation and Totem woven in. She speaks of her love of dance and movement, her experiences over 20 years, and explains how ecstasy is attainable on a daily basis by using movement to release pain, heighten sexual fulfillment, and free emotion. (RAV05) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Waves

Haunting and uptempo, this 1991 release seduces the listener into an ecstatic whirlpool. A dervish wind blowing through a rising tide of rhythm and voice, the dance it evokes is joyful, abandoned and tribal. Selections include Invocation, Surrender Waves, Ecstasy, Trance, Spirit. (RAV07) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Trance

This late 1992 release is a trance-dance album, centered around percussion, extremely high energy of course! (RAV11) CS: 9.98... CD: 14.98

Jessica Marcus Conga Drum Teaching Tape

Mesmerized by the "passion of the drums" at an early age, Jessica has been studying, playing, performing and teaching percussion for over 20 years now. Her approach encompasses not only the musical component, but the spiritual and psychological as well, and the result is impressive! This tape is a straight-ahead drum lesson, intended for the beginner; we'd recommend combining this with her own tape of compositions (Sweet Beats & Busy Signals) so you can hear where the lesson is leading you to — if you apply yourself! (TP001) CS: 9.98

Jessica Marcus Sweet Beats & Busy Signals

The 8 compositions here encompass a variety of drumming styles (mostly Caribbean, we think) and instruments — conga drums, bembau, clave, bell, plus synth! for a thoroughly enjoyable collection of rhythmic treats! Great for dance, movement, tapping on the table top, or practicing your newly-acquired drumming skills! Includes Undy, Peles Bomba, M Bashi, Conga Santiago. (TP002) CS: 9.98

Amy Sophia Marashinsky Rhythms From the Womb

This 1991 release is a celebrated journey into our connection with the Earth, led by a drummer/storyteller/writer. A 40-minute solo conga tape, it is intended for meditation, trans-work, dancing, ceremony, healing, and/or as background to your own musical creation! Side 1 contains Voice of the Earth, while Heart Dance and Womb Dance are on Side 2. (ASM1) CS: 9.98

Barbara Borden All Hearts Beating

On this late 1990 release which is subtitled Drumming From the Source to the Core, Barbara takes you on an excursion through her world of drumming; an array of sounds, drums and percussion instruments paint a collage of multi-dimensional rhythms that resonate on a primal level. From the slow and sensual to the more uptempo pieces, you're surrounded with the quiet fire that is the underlying link of Barbara's creative expression... and In-Chant-Meant features the wondrous guest vocalist Rhiannon. Appropriate for ritual, dance, loving, and creative visualization, as well as plain clean listening! (CL2) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden I Always Wanted To Play Drums

This is an instructional tape for beginning drummers, by one of the most exciting and proficient drummers around. She begins with an exercise to relax the body (to a not percussive accompaniment — beats any exercise tape we've heard!), continues through theory, time divisions, call and response, and free drumming. Her instruction is very animated; even if you never thought you wanted to be a drummer, listening to this may change your mind! (PAR1) CS: 9.98

Beverly Botsford/ Khalid Saleem Rhythms of Life

We don't get many percussion tapes, and it's a pleasure to include one from a local Durham NC duo. Inspired by West African traditions, the pieces wind through a variety of pace and emotion, utilizing a diversity of instruments: djembe, balafon, fute, sanza, gongang, kelim (log drum), bells, donno, djundun, songos, shekers, and igogo, to name a dozen... Includes Celebration, Foto Funk, Cole-D'Vonne Inspiration. Cover art by "Goddess Storyteller" Louise Kessell. A great album for moving and/or perceiving along... Recommended! (RHY1) CS: 9.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing, as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a half hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin... with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk") and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. (BME10) CS: 9.98

EarthSpirit Community Tribal Drums

Recorded live at The Tribal Dance during the 1988 Twilight Covering of the EarthSpirit Community, an international network of Pagans and other nature-oriented people. Lots of percussion instruments here: doumbek, conga, frame drum, bongo, agogo, clave, tambourine, bembau, claves, to name several — played by both women and men of the Coyote Clan. A variety of cultures' rhythms are represented, includes Yan Rhythm, African Rhythm, Brazilian Rhythm, even of Some of proceeds benefit the Northeast Council of Covenant of the Goddess. (ESC2) CS: 11.98

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels
Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/North African/Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius; the instruments speak in torrents of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrances in the listener. Titles include Cone of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together. This 1992 album is simply one of the most honest and respectful recordings of women's ritual music we've ever listened to...also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Highly recommended! (RDM11) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff
Yamantaka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuosos Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later. Sounds heard here are unlike any other, emulating echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, mysterious, and meditative... raising the level of intensity through whirling gyrations, spectral harmonics and the cyclical resonances of the Tibetan Bells. (CEL003) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Airto/Flora Purim
Dafos

Dafos is an imaginary country, and this recording represents an aural journey, from its deserts to its polar ice floes to the Underworld, meeting with its spirits, and finally with its leader, the "Great Sound". Many of the pieces reflect structures and rhythms of specific cultures: Sudanese, Brazilian, Indonesian. Flora's wordless vocalizations are perfect for this fantasy land; smoky, keening, bird-like, it dances and flutters, swooshes and croons — this woman is an entire instrumental section herself! If you like polyrhythmic music, Rhythmic, or percussion, this is for you. (RYK108) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart, with Flora Purim
Planet Drum

One world-class vocalist, Flora Purim, teams up with several "world" percussionists — Mickey of course (drummer for the Grateful Dead, for any of you who missed that part of history), plus Airto Moreira, Sikiriz Adejoku, and Vikku — on this groundbreaking, noteworthy, multi-cultural 1991 album. A thrilling series of compositions expresses the wide variety of rhythms, tones, and lyric power of percussion. (RYK206) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Nancy Hennings & Henry Wolff
Tibetan Bells II

Utilizing solely the bells, bowls, cymbals and gongs of Tibet, these artists create sounds which could almost be confused for electronic music! An unprecedented synthesis of the sounds of East and West, of Past and Present, of Here and Beyond — quintessential space music, produced by Stephen Hill of Hearts of Space. This is the musical and metaphysical heir to their original 1971 underground classic, "Tibetan Bells". Prepare for an out-of-body experience. (CEL005) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Nancy Hennings & Henry Wolff
Tibetan Bells III: The Empty Mirror

This album completes the musical odyssey of Nancy and Henry begun in 1969-70 in India and Nepal. By the expression of subtle harmonic relationships, it quickly transcends the temporal domain. The resonance of the Tibetan Bell tones, far richer than any synthetically produced sound, builds an increasingly fine perception and subtle comprehension in the listener. (CEL027) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Nancy Hennings & Henry Wolff
The Bells of Sh'ang Sh'ung

With this 1991, new trails are blazed by the musicians who created the classic Tibetan Bells trilogy. Sh'ang Sh'ung is the Tibetan name for Shambhala, the fabled lost kingdom where the most precious teachings of Buddhism were conceived and remain preserved to this day. The artists musically depict a journey to this mythical place, complete with physical, mental and spiritual tribulations of the pilgrimage, and evoking the awe-inspiring spectacle of the Himalayas. Based upon but not limited to the unadorned music of the bells of Tibet, they utilize synthesizers and space-age electronics as counterparts to the magic resonances of the Tibetan bells. Strange and dazzling! (CEL037) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Women's Alliance
Drumming-1991 Her Voice, Our Voices

As mentioned in another of their listings, under the Women's Spirituality Section, Women's Alliance offers summer camps for women that incorporate spiritually, earth wisdom, psychology and the arts... and they sound amazing. This is an exciting compilation of live drumming along with other musical and narrational tidbits from their 1991 summer camp, recorded by Maya Nowell, a wonderful way to bring the incredible energy of Camp into your home! If you've never been there, this will probably inspire the desire, luckily their address is right on the tape, so you can send away for a brochure. (WA2) CS: 9.98

Native American

Asiba Tupahache
A Beginning to an End

This fast-moving spoken program is a very excellent, insightful analysis of the nature of all types of oppression, and strategies for ending them. Asiba is a Native American (Metacoc) woman and a survivor of child abuse, and she explores the similarities between personal and society-wide oppressions from the perspectives of both the powerful and the powerless. She discusses oppression in reference to addictions and co-dependency; guilt, blame, ACoAs, dysfunctional families, racism, sexism, homophobia, and other efforts to create invisibility and exploitation of minorities, and becoming empowered to change thought patterns, break addictions, and break the cycle. 90 min. Recommended! (SOJ1) CS: 9.98

Coincidence and Likely Stories

Back after a hiatus of many years, Buffy returns with the distinctive voice and strong mix of pointed political and personal songs that endeared her to, and perhaps woke up, an entire generation. Almost all original and mostly new material on this 1992 release, though songs like Starwalker will sound welcome and familiar to some of us. Unfortunately, her indictments of the US government in its dealings with Native American communities and other disenfranchised populations are as relevant as they were 30 years ago, and her commentaries on money and power junkies have become even more scathing. Hopefully more folks will be more ready to accept more responsibility now. Includes Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee, Draughtformation, The Priestess of the Golden Bull, Emma Lee. Recommended! I Dance To Be the Woman I Can Be

This feminist witch has created a tape of chants and circle songs for celebrating women's divinity and spirituality. Sources include Z. Budapest, Sut, gypsy, and others. Performed simply unaccompanied, with commentary... very well suited to creating our own rituals. (LLE820) CS: 9.98

Barbara Benary & Vincent McDermott
American Music for Gamelan

Gamelan: Son of Lion is an eclectic ensemble based in NYC specializing in new music written by Americans for Javanese instruments. Barbara Benary, composer and ethnomusicologist, builds the instruments, and on this recording, composed the East Coast ball, Side 1 - Hot Rolled Steel, which is what many of the instruments are formed out of, is structured on a traditional English bell-ringing pattern, while the drumming style was inspired by a Steely Dan song! A great recording for those interested in incorporating more diversity into their listening. (GSL1) CS: 9.98

Barbara Borden & Sheila Glover
Lady of the Serpent Skirt

Drummer Barbara (of Alive! fame) and keyboardist/flutist/vocal technician Sheila collaborate here on an entirely entrancing musical and rhythmic journey. The territory they cover is wide, varied, and previously uncharted, ricocheting back and forth between melodic and avant-garde, intense and mellow, primal and high-tech, winding through a suffusion of moods and imagery. Very sensual and captivating, and definitely recommended! (CL1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden & Sheila Glover
Portraits of Passion

Continuing to explore the interface between spacious electronic music, acoustic timbres and world beat drum stylings, their 1992 release is an evocative musical journey into the life and times of six historical visionaries—who were important in their day, but never quite made it into mainstream consciousness. The music will take you from a medieval monastery, over the Atlantic in a biplane, to an abolitionist rally... as the artists imaginatively and sonically portray the spirits of Hidegarde of Bingen, Beryl Marsham, Sojourner Truth, and others. Special guests include Mary Watkins, Linda Tillery, Vicki Randle. Mysterious and wonderful... recommended! (CL333) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Barok Folk
Joy After Sorrow

The graceful simplicity of traditional instrumental music combined with elegant performances by this wonderful Baroque chamber ensemble led by Carrie Crompton (recorders, hammered dulcimer, violin, guitar, psalter) creates an atmosphere of peace and joy that soothes the listener. The theme of the phoenix rising from the ashes, or joy after sorrow, is explored on this musical canvas. Works by Mozart, Bach, D'Carolan and others; includes a few country dance tunes. Selections include such diverse titles as Goddesses and Shall I See?, as well as Gavottes, Pavans and Menuets. (MLP2219) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Beth York
Transformations

Exquisite, restoring, delicious, perfect instrumental music composed by this Atlanta feminist and performed by Beth (on piano) and her group, The New Women's Chamber Ensemble (on oboe, sax, flute, synthesizer, bass, percussion). It could be termed classical-jazz fusion. If you've enjoyed Paul Winter Consort, Oregon, or Kay Gardner, you're sure to enjoy this. The sax is so sweet, the oboe so searing in its beauty, it's enough to lift the spirit of any lyric. A music therapist by profession, Beth has performed her works at the National Women's Music Festival, the National Women's Jazz Festival, and at Atlanta's Fox Theater, with Judy Chicago's Dinner Party. Includes title, Time and Again, and Doghouse, a dance piece. Very highly recommended. (LR104) CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose
Sacred Ground

Seeking to rise beyond an age of individual disconnection, this music springs from sources both ancient and universal, drawing on traditions such as pagan, Native American, western mystic, and Goddess spirituality. Betsy presents protest music at its best, music of community with background choruses which invite participation as well as listening. Sparse acoustic instrumentation allows the clarity of Betsy's words, music and voice to shine; adept production and accompaniment by Nina Gerber. A wonderful blend of music, spirit, and social concern. (KAL43) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Betsy Rose
In My Two Hands

One side of this tape represents a creative venture for an artist well-known to women's and folk audiences; it embodies a unique collaboration between an Asian and a North American artist, and expresses the interrelationship between engaged activism and the spiritual foundation which make continued activism possible. The songs were inspired and co-authored by Thot Nhat Hahn, a Vietnamese poet-teacher and Nobel Peace Prize nominee, who chaired the Vietnamese Buddhist Peace Delegation, and taught and lived "engaged Buddhism" in his country during the war. The music, sung by Betsy in English, blends eastern and western instrumentation: koto, bamboo flute, string bass and more. The other side consists of Betsy's own songs, reflecting her journey as a spiritual activist and eco-feminist. (PLX101) CS: 9.98

Cindee Grace
Songs of the Goddess

Feminist New Age music with a sense of humor! We love Cindee's combination of acid musicianship, clear, litting vocals, and affirming-yet-humorous lyrics. Styles range from a jazzy/folk blend to island rhythms, and with titles like Source-Heaven, Aphrodite, Angela, and Pre-Enlightenment Blues, how can you lose? Comes with lyric sheet -- the perfect Solstice gift for anyone with an interest in or appreciation of Pagan/Goddess themes. (GG51) CS: 9.98

Cindy Freedman
Live the Life You Dream

With a great voice, sparkling acoustic arrangements, and reverent and positive songs, this recording is pure pleasure! Cindy, whose audiences cross many boundaries including women's, folk/universal, and spirit/earth blessing, has taken beautiful songs from such luminaries as Linda Arnold, Judy Collins, Hari Singh Khalsa, and Kate Wolf, and infused them with her sweet spirit -- a lovely production! Includes Dancers in the Night, Sweet Mother Earth, The Life You Dream, Give Yourself to Love. (CIN2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Selections include Women I Am, I Am the Circle, Mother Moon, We Are Sisters, as well as more traditional images such as May the Blessings of God Rest Upon You and We All Come From God. Simple and lovely, we've been getting requests for this "underground classic," and are glad to be able to make it available; proceeds benefit the non-profit C.M.A., dedicated to providing better birth experiences through homebirth services. Conni Elisor night at the museum

Spectacular! This Juliet grad has a solid history doing Nashville studio work, but you'd never guess it by listening to this! Starting off with the soundtrack-like Make Out and Dream (weaving yes, she's also scored some films), you get the sense that her virtuosity on violin, cello and piano were merely the necessary steps toward realizing her composing genius. Fitting this 1991 recording into one category will keep our staff up at night, since it excels in several. Suffice it to say that it is strongly evocative, contemporary, instrumentally sophisticated, and fitting testament to an extremely talented woman's vision. Highlights include Dance of the Ho, Even the Surest Things Can Change. Excellent, highly recommended! (GNA1010) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Constance Demby
Novus Magnificat: Thru the Stargate

Subtitled SACRED SPACE MUSIC VOL. II, this amazing project of "space classical" music was composed and performed entirely on the new digital sampling synthesizer, the Emulator. It is a vast work, for symphony orchestra, cathedral organ and chorus (all found inside the Emulator)! This prolific, creative instrumentalist continues her invention of new form and sounds. Skies Above Skies

We are glad to make Constance's back catalog again available, for those of you who have enjoyed her highly successful releases on Hearts of Space, Ethereal, mythical, mystical, celestial, and yes, beautiful music for meditation and sheer listening pleasure. This multi-talented woman composed, performed (on hammered dulcimer, cheng, tamboura, synthesizer, cello, piano, organ, and vocal tones), and produced this recording with an East-West spiritual theme: Tibetan chant, St. Francis of Assisi prayer, and more. Constance Demby
Light of This World

Delightful title cut representing a true departure for the artist: a pop/rock/gospel song, on which she's joined by back-up vocalists from the Edwin Hawkins Singers! A rousing New Age Gospel statement of joy and oneness. The remainder is a BEST OF with selections from her first 5 albums; good for an overview of her work. 63 minutes. (SC5) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cynthia R. Crossen & Louise Kessel
Goddess Suite and Stories

Designed to invoke the energies of the goddesses within us, The Goddess Suite, on side 1, is a unique choral work in six movements by Cynthia; 37 minutes of 32 wonderful women's voices plus piano, oboe and flutes; celebrating seven goddesses: Artemis, Demeter, Persephone, Hera, Hestia, Aphrodite, Athena (recorded live in our hometown of Durham in 1987). Side 2 consists of highly animated Goddess Stories told by Louise Kessel, with Beverly Bolstford on congas, chimes, and tabla (thumb piano); includes the humorous Menstrual Rap (her favorite subject) and Menstrual Myth. Recommended! (CK1) CS: 9.98

Damaris
Quantum Leap

This album primarily contains beautifully-recorded rounds and chants (except for the last 4, which are more straightforward self-empowerment songs), all written by this shamanic transformational counselor. The presentation is quite professional, with multi-tracked vocals and soft conga accompaniment. Included: This Moment is a Gift, Birth of a Shaman, Atabei ("The source of power is the Mother of All Things"), Earth & Water - Fire & Air, a 3-part chant, and others, offering a lot of variety and an excellent source for new material for your repertoire. Recommended! (DAM1) CS: 10.98

Welcome to Annwn

The Neo-pagan cassette welcomes all to the Welsh underworld of ritual and magic, with songs of invocation and celebration. Anodes Judah's Gone Song is a paean to the Goddess in her various forms, while We Are A Circle salutes the elements of Earth, Water, Fire and Air. Two of the best are a melody of the traditional Gone! Up On the Mountain Break 'Em On Down! and Strolling, a beautiful, choral-like chant song. Interesting, unusual, enjoyable! (NEM3) CS: 9.98

Delphys
Sacred Spaces for Inner Journeys

Delphys is the Greek word for womb, and this tape contains breath visualizations led by Kim Rosen (The Oceans Are Calling), The Delphys Connection, an inner journey guided by the dolphins, and Breathing Home with an original musical score. It is intended as a reminder of one's inner sanctuary, which can be tapped into for guided or personal meditation, and utilizes their gentle harmonies and music as a peaceful backdrop. With "Amy & Leslie" on vocals and Cathie Malach on keyboards, this release -- subtitled Sacred Spaces for Inner Journeys -- is a masterful meditation tool. (DLP1) CS: 10.98

Delphys
Ocean Born

Step quietly into the watery realms of the heart! Subtitled The Songs of Cathie Malach and Kim Rosen with Amy Fradon and Leslie Ritter, vocalists, this lovely recording is the fruit of an extraordinary collaboration, where "the mind of the land honors the heart of the sea." (Set Them Free). 12 songs full of love and ocean spirit, many with Dolphin and Goddess themes, reminding us of our connections to our hearts and to these intelligent and beautiful beings. The songs are story-like and poetic, the music mostly keyboards (some gorgeous solo piano) and light percussion, with the vocal harmonies reaching unearthly levels of beauty. Notable cuts include the touching Goodbye, Cathie's letter to her dying mother; The Call and Set Them Free, which include Whale and Dolphin voices; and the gospel, Kiss of Spirit. Most highly recommended! (DLP2) CS: 10.98

Denean
Fire Prayer

This 1991 release is an album of original chants and songs, revering Mother Earth and the life of the spirit. Denean, raised in the hills of Kentucky, is primarily white with some Cherokee in her background; she draws inspiration from both Native American and country/folk/gospel traditions. Lots of percussion and nature sounds are interwoven with piano, synthesizers, flute, and her strong, sweet voice. Includes Song to the Mother, Spiral to the Center, Sacred Fire, The Tree. Very professionally produced, and a great source of new songs and chants. Some of the proceeds go to Native American organizations. (ETH101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Gaia, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hypnotic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kristen Gyg on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements: "The earth is my body/ Her water is my blood/ Her winds are my breath/ Her fire is my spirit..." Kristen is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Dianic Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary-sounding devotional Goddess recordings we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is soothing yet full of contained energy, while Rites Nocturne is all vibrant movement. Kristen is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the V. Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include The Dancer, Expanding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Return to the Goddess-Chants & Song

This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristen and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the cradle, and the material continues to honor and revere the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include Z. Budapest's From the Goddess chant, which anyone who's attended a woman's spirituality gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Say Yes To Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more acoustic in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended! (DW1004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Esther "Little Dove" John et al

The Elements

Produced under the artistic direction of Nancy Rumber, this exquisite concert was inspired by, and incorporates, the sounds of the four elements: Water, Air, Earth and Fire. Flautist Esther "Little Dove" John, accompanied by synthesists Kaaren Molloy and Dent Davidson, weaves melodic, thematic improvised music into the recorded sounds of coveys, mountain stream, night creatures, and campfire, creating an ambience which is ecstatic, peaceful and visually provoking. This reviewer was a big fan of Paul Horn's flute compositions with The Elements back in the 70s... while quite different, this is just as stunning. Use for relaxing, meditating, enjoying, highly recommended! (MMH2289) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Music From the Galaxies

One of the most fascinating recordings ever "realized," by an Italian astrophysicist and experimental music ecologist, termed Acoustic Astronomy — an uncommon fusion of science and art, astronomy and music. Her compositions are created from actual radio telescope raw data (high frequency radiation waves) from a distant galaxy called UGC 6657, which is first translated into number sequences, which are then converted into sound via computer. The extensive liner notes are clear and interesting, and the music is, well... spacey — this will definitely send you to the outer realms! Don't accept substitute "space music" when you can have the real thing! (SL846765) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Gaia's Voice

The Chorus of Life

This Bay Area mixed chorus, directed by Deborah Hammons, specializes in 20th century music that addresses themes of nature and earth-centered (read Pagan) spirituality. They perform some great re-worked versions of old favorites, such as Llewellyn's "Fraise Her, from whom, all blessings flow," Star-Spangled Pagan, The Magic Wheel to the tune of Green, Grow the Rushes-O, and originals such as Gaia Speaks, One with Our Mother. Lyric book included — an excellent source of new material for group singing. (GV1) CS: 9.98

Original accompaniment by Kenny & Tzipora, on lute, fiddle, guitar and even vocals. (MAG1) CS: 9.98

Gypsy

Enchantress

Gypsy is a present-day witch/priestess from Salem (no kidding) who writes and performs very magical pagan songs to honor the Goddess and the witches, to cast magic spells, to invoke medicine spirits and wood peace. Accompaniment on violin and lute by Kenny and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady, the Witches, Magick, Merlina's Theme, Medicine Song, and a (new) solstice song of the Old Religion. Bring Back the Light. Enchanting! (WLP1) CS: 10.98

Hallie Iglehart/Georgia Kelly

Womanspirit

A spoken meditation by Hallie, adapted from her book Womanspirit: A Guide to Women's Wisdom with exquisite harp accompaniment composed and performed by Georgia Kelly specifically for this tape. Experiencing Women's Heritage is a journey back through one's "mother line" to contact and explore a source of ancient female power and wisdom. Living in Harmony helps the listener integrate an understanding of natural cycles into her everyday life. The production represents a synthesis of feminism and spirituality, and recognizes women as the creation maker. (WIS1) CS: 10.98

Hildegard of Bingen

Hildegard — abbess, scientist, medical woman, scholar, musician, composer, political and religious figure, and visionary who lived from 1090 to 1179 — is considered by many to represent the link between Christian spirituality and pre-patriarchal spirituality; in fact, many hail her as the greatest woman intellectual of all time. On this meditation tape, which represents one of the first times that her writings were translated into English, the listener is taken through her holistic, sensual spirituality and cosmology. Voice and concept by Debora Bluestone. (BMT21) CS: 10.98

Ishtar

Rites of the Dolphin

Eleven stars on a ten-star system! A very unusual, intoxicating, and totally exquisite instrumental offering from a mostly women's trio which takes its name from the Babylonian goddess of the moon and interpreter of dreams. Lisa Moskwa is a master of the sarod (a North Indian instrument with 25 strings, metal fretless fingerboard and brass resonating bowl) which is somewhat the centerpiece; Nicole Milner is the pianist-composer (her playing full of emotion); Doug Carroll is the cellist. Their innovative repertoire is inspired by a wide spectrum of musical ideas from Europe and Asia, creating an unique East-West fusion. Includes Moon Raga, Three Daes, Haku... highly recommended! (ISH1) CS: 9.98

Jai Ma Kirtan-Songs to Divine Moth

A truly beautiful 80-minute program of chanting in Sanskrit to the various aspects of God as the Mother: Kali, Durga, Amba, Radha, Ma, Lakshmi, Gauri, etc. by primarily women's voices. Sung in Kirtan, an ancient Indian call-and-response form. Includes the Hymn to the Goddess Mother, the Durga Arati Song. Traditional eastern instruments—tabla, tanpura, harmonium—are tastefully interwoven with western guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, silver flute. Cover pictures Shakti Varma, a mandala used for meditation on the energy of the female aspect of God. Recommended! (SR10006) CS: 9.98

Ancestral Dream / Improvised Ritual

A very unique first solo recording by one half of the well-known British feminist duo, Ous. Passionately celebrating women's spirituality, Jana uses natural and special effects: pagan chants, and a vast array of instruments (tampura bells, Indian and Chinese flutes, classical flute, clarinet, African drums, African kalimba / thumb piano, Indian tabla, dulcimer and percussion). Invocations are sung to Tiamat (Babylonian sky goddess), Diana (We all come from Goddess, chant to the pagan mother of all life), Kore (Greek earth goddess), Aesha (Celtic sky goddess), Kali (Hindu goddess of time). Beginning and ending with Deep Woman, and meandering through some spectacular instrumentals such as Spirit of Avalon along the way, this cassette offers an entry into the spirit-world like no other. Highly recommended. (STC300) CS: 11.98

Eye of the Womb

In the second volume of her Improvised Ritual Music series, Jana continues her employment of primal, rhythmic energy as a creative expression of women's spirituality and as a bridge between politics and faith. She explores the realms of the womb as a creative source of deep power and radical awareness, with ritual chanting, vocal improvisations, and intense instrumentation from bamboo flute to percussion. Includes Witchwoman, Remember Goddess is Within, Mami Wata (Iwe-Iwas goddess), Inanna (Sumerian goddess), and more. The pulse is irresistible, the melodies haunting, and the meanings will be experienced on a multitude of levels. Recommended! (STC301) CS: 11.98

Jana Runnalls & Bron Bradshaw

Tree Magic

This music began with a common vision of these two women of the power, beauty, and magic of trees on our world; it started in a Celtic tree circle near Glasbury, traditionally a site of magic; and that is what this music is, absolute magic. Instruments such as hammered dulcimer (played to sound at times like a koto), clarinet, soprano recorder, are interwoven with African drum, marimba, xylophone... try to imagine the possibilities of these in combination, and you may come close to the beauty of these improvisations. Titles include Amazona, Spirit of the Forest, In the Tree Circle, African Walk. Rhythmic, creative, unique, inspired, and once again... highly recommended! (STC302) CS: 11.98

Deep Daydreams

Rhythmic medicine! Described as "specially metered music to lower heart rate and blood pressure", the synthesizer music on this tape is composed and performed at 60 beats per minute on Side One, and 80 BPM on Side 2. Since the body generally tends to synchronize with external beats, this is a perfect accompaniment for bodywork, stretching, relaxing, or just quiet enjoyment. (MEL1) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

This massage therapist and feminist yoga teacher is well known to many women's testis-goers for her "magic hands." Her 1991 tape provides step-by-step instructions for two individual sessions: 30 minutes each of stretching and yoga postures; 10 minutes each side of relaxation/meditation. These easy-to-perform movements are designed to tone muscles, reduce stress and improve flexibility, postural alignment, strength, and balance. The good sound quality, her clear and soothing voice, the descriptive notes and diagrams in the insert, and the background instrumentals by music therapist Deborah Phelps, all help make this an easy and appealing program to use. The Wise-Woman Archetype

Subtitled Menopause as Initiation, the author of Goddesses in Everywoman presents the sacred dimensions of the wise-woman's craft, integrating insights from the Women's Movement with archetypal psychology. She discusses the triple goddess; blood mysteries in ancient cultures; the Inquisition as female holocaust, when strong female figures threatened patriarchy's domination over western culture; woman's pilgrimage; utilizing this archetype as a means of spiritual empowerment; and more. This is fascinating, useful information that takes us to the horizon of our understanding about the special wisdom that comes to women after menopause. (SND137) CS: 9.98

Visualizations for Singers

Subtitled Mental Imagery for Vocal Performance, this singer-songwriter offers an excellent program in which exercises utilizing imagery, affirmative thinking, and mental rehearsal have potentially powerful effects on vocal development. On Side 1, The Healthy Voice, she discusses grounding and body awareness, boosting energy centers for breath, sound, and creativity, and healing the damaged voice. Side 2, Onstage Power, covers performance journey, channeling audience energy, meeting the inner coach, and affirmations. (VYL6) CS: 9.98

Judith Sherven, Ph.D.

Mothering the Girl Within

This guided healing meditation tape consists of four sections: Getting to Know Your Girl, Mother and Your Identity, Father and Your Femininity, and Mothering the Girl Within. In each section, Judith leads us on an exploration of personal experiences, and helps identify where our self-image comes from. Her approach seems based in a background in psychology, so the insights you gain from this may resemble the work you'd do in a therapy session! Although she does use male/female relationships for some of her examples, she does make it clear that the tape is designed for both heterosexual and lesbian women. (SK1) CS: 10.98

Julia Haines

Odyssey: Afro-Celtic-Harp-Fusion

A stunning, evocative, radiant musical work by a woman who was half of the WindHarp duo (we carried their tape Wind/Water/Light when it was in print, and was one of our Top Ten favorites back then). Her solo effort is a document of her continuing journey, illustrating her ability to create new sounds by interweaving elements of her primary influences: traditional eastern and western world music, classical, jazz, traditional West African drumming and kora (a stringed instrument), and even the power of silence. Mostly original instrumentals, plus one improvisation on an O'Carolan tune, and the stand-out piece here, Jato Jw Binkolo - she combines harmonizing vocals and harp on a Mendingo blessing song, then segues into a similarly-arranged song from Mali for the liberation of all women - would love an entire album of this from her someday! Highly recommended. (AH1) CS: 9.98

Cave Diver

This 1-woman (Gem Caccetta) 1-man (Robin Circus) duo creates some unusually mystical compositions, which could more accurately be termed spells, invocations and chants! Gem is a Wiccan and a student of the Gabaia, and the songs she writes reflect her experiences and feelings as an initiate on the path. Gem is also vocalist and synthesist on this electronically-sophisticated collection of songs that range from atmospheric instrumentals and gentle inductions, to upbeat story songs and the strongly rhythmic and dualistic. You'll find much material for exploration here, from Waters of Pansophone to Robin Goodfellow. We advise you to don a set of headphones with this musical map of cosmic consciousness, and immerse yourself entirely in its vast, deep space... Recommended! (OCR1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

KALI

The Australian vocal quartet Kali consists of Kath & Ini (see below) plus Annie & Lyndall. A simple recording yet harmonically stunning, especially on the scappella numbers, as well as quite woman-identified... or, as their press release says, "a rich vocal texture and lyric that express concern for the quality of relationships on our planet - humans and the earth, women and men, life and death; celebrating those that are mutually enhancing and questioning those that are not." Includes Copperwoman, Bold Woman, Sister of the Sun, Rocking the Whale, Dreams & Visions, plus a few feminist topical songs. This tape will help make a vital connection with the world-wide women's (spiritually) movement. (AFF2) CS: 9.98

Finding the Goddess Within

The author of Awakening Female Power: The Way of the Goddess Warrior offers a companion tape which explores the essence of Goddess discovery. On side 1 (17 minutes), she discusses Goddess archetypes; how to connect with the Goddess within, and rituals for Goddess worship/awareness. Side 2 (also 17 minutes) offers guided meditation, to a musical accompaniment by Steven Halpern. (SS1) CS: 9.98

Affirmations

Wow! A most unusual recording by Ineke and Kathy, two Australian women, who sing beautiful melodies in gorgeous harmony on songs affirming Life, Love, Strength, Forgiveness, Understanding, Power, Judgment, Order, Will and Zeal. And what's so great is they're catchy, you'll be singing along even after the tape stops... making the affirmations work in your own life! Breath-taking voices; straightforward, creative and, yes, affirming lyrics; sparse but effective back-up on synth, sax, flute, cornet, recorder, piano, guitar, percussion... which doesn't diminish the vocal power/feel of a live, scappella, participatory, tribal-sounding recording; an all-woman production. Very highly recommended! (AFF1) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner

Mooncircles

Note sale price on LPI Beautiful, classic album of flute compositions. Kay has played the flute for many years and this album reflects her mastery of both the instrument and of compositional music. Much of it is ancient and, according to the album cover, Sapphic mood, and perfect for meditation or love-making. Also includes three vocals. Classical guitar accompaniment is by Meg Christian, piano by Almea Wallis. (WWE80) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Emerging

An exquisite instrumental masterpiece by Kay and a host of other classical musicians. Sounds range from Renaissance to contemporary to oceanic. Like Mooncircles, this music has an uncanny way of reaching way into one's depths and subtly producing a healing effect within body and spirit of the listener. Kay has demonstrated her ability as a composer of the highest caliber. (WWE83) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Ocean Moon

Combining all the best from Mooncircles - all the instrumental tracks - and Emerging - the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special... This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamuse, which she considers the best piece she ever composed; with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release. Highly recommended, of course! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

A Rainbow Path

Please note sale price on LPI Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness, and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Rowe on viola, Martha Siegel on cello, Vivian Slot on vibraphone, Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. LP includes bibliography and discography for further study. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, many-dimensional experience. (LR103) LP: 6.95 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fishersdaughter

Save again on the LPI Subtitled Troubadour Songs, this recording reflects yet another step on Kay's journey to re/create music which reflects woman's lives. Primarily vocal, it has a distinctly traditional sound. The Earth side is rich with ballads, wisdom and female affirmation. The Sea side (this reviewer's favorite) is full of New England sea shanties. All songs directly relate to woman's power, woman's story. The Ballad of Mary & Ann is about two New England women persecuted for being lesbians. Do You Remember? is a deeply spiritual song which reveres with the Matriarchy. Musicians include Kay on dulcimer, flutes and vocals, April Rain and Alex Dobkin on guitar. (EKR44) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.95

Moods & Rituals

Save on the LPI Subtitled Meditations for Solo Flutes, intended for meditation and relaxation, this sequence of 4 compositions truly has the effect of evoking tranquility, a feeling of well-being and wide-open space. On one long piece entitled Soul Flight, she employs an octopole, which almost sounds like a second flute and works perfectly. Other pieces, each using a scale from a different culture, are entitled Saraswati (for bamboo flute and bell), Mountain Melody, The Temple of Laha. This represents another stage in Kay's research into the use of music in healing. (EKR39) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Sounding the Inner Landscape (Tape)

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, we proudly present a special long-playing project, Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed - for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion - specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditations, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path; Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and affects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Alto Flute Meditations with Sounds of the Rainforest

Kay Gardner Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summer/fall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambiance of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your head(sets) and heart. Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing; perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. Very highly recommended — "naturally" (LR111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner & Sunwomyn Ensemble Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1988 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label!) is another absolute masterwork which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path! Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Torfs) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring very percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudafina Pili Abera. But perhaps most important and most notable is Vividitas, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! ### Kay Gardner Avalon

This tape of solo flute meditations was created when Kay co-lead a "women's mysteries" tour in Glastonbury, England, where Brigid, the Goddess of wells, flames, oaks, creative arts/music and healing, once dwelled and was worshipped. As Kay moved from High Altar to holy fountain to holy well, her flute improvisations were recorded by a hand-held tape-player, and the magic of the place, of the healing waters, of those moments, and of the Goddess Brigid's inspiration can be heard by all. Remarkably good quality, quieting, and very suitable for meditation. Includes The Lady's Chapel, Chalice Hill Fairy Circle. This is hopefully the first in a series to be recorded by Kay at women's holy places. (LR106) CS: 9.98

Kenny & Tzipora Fairy Queen

This pair of well-known performers on the Neo-Pagan circuit play (mostly) original music that draws from American, Irish, and Gypsy folk styles. They live like modern-day gypsies, with their two children in a blue van, traveling the country playing music and telling of their wanderings. This 1988 album contains Charlie Murphy's powerful Burning Times, about the goddess-orphishing "witches" and the genocide of 9 million women in the Middle Ages, plus Brothels of the Forest, Full Moon, Han Dance, Brigit and more. ### Kim Robertson Tender Shepherd

This incomparable Celtic harpist here performs lullabies and airs for all ages — melodies for quiet times — a treasury of songs beloved by generation after generation. From the timeless beauty of the traditional Irish, Welsh and Scottish Foggy Dew, Bally Loo Lammie, and Garten Mother's Lullaby to the classical grace of J.S. Bach's Sheep May Safely Graze, Kim magically combines meditative and sprightly moods to create a soothing time-out from a busy world. (GOU112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Wind Shadows

Kim brings forth the mysterious and magical sound of the Celtic harp to its crystalline potential in her interpretation of traditional Irish and Scottish tunes, with simplicity and grace. Kim is classically trained on pedal harp but has made this more ancient instrument her life's work. In addition to some Carolan and other tunes from Ireland, this tape includes three original compositions which evoke stillness and calm. (INV111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Water Spirit

In addition to original and Irish tunes this contains some classical and earlier ones: Pachelbel's Canon, Faure's Pavane (a haunting piece), a Bach minuet, and 12th and 13th century French and Italian compositions. Digitally mastered, real-time duplicated... in other words, for 9.98, Kim will sit inside your speakers and play her 19th century French single action harp. A supreme recording — very highly recommended. (INV116) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Steve Kujala Wild Iris

One of Kim's most unusual and gorgeous to date (that's what we say about each of her new releases when we hear it!)... a true masterpiece of improvisation. Steve is a jazz fiddler in his other life, and brings a playful, energetic smoothness and lightness (and at times plaintiveness) to the duets from Irish, Scottish, South American traditions, plus several originals by both Kim herself and the duo. Also includes the beautiful Pavane by Gabriel Faure, as well as some solos by Kim. Very highly recommended! (INV123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson Angels in Disguise

Kim here showcases her haunting, angelic voice, reminiscent of both her heavenly harping and the vocals of Singh Kaur, to the accompaniment of her own harp as well as strings with tasteful touches of guitar and percussion. The material is a lovely mix of Celtic folk melodies and contemplative originals, and even one Japanese composition. Beautifully crafted; don't miss this! (INV124) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosity supreme. "The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complimentary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far, many Eastern sounds, interesting scales. Includes Women of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past... or if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Healing Art

Kiva is a 3-women acoustic ensemble performing beautiful original songs of the Goddess, healing, and Earth's ancient ways. They employ vocal harmonies with traditional arrangements and instrumentation (cello, bodhran, mandolin, guitar), in a style that is contemplative and peaceful on side 1; inspirational of movement, laughter and dance on side 2. Lead singer-songwriter Ariana (formerly of Pomegranate) is a priestess of the Old Religion, and her lyrics are thus informed. Accompanied by a multi-talented kaleidoscope of friends, among them long-time Ladyslipper helper Barbara McPherson on drums! Songs include Chans, Aphrodite's Flowers, Witchin' Hour, The Healing Art, Jai Ma. Recommended! (KIV1) CS: 9.98

Renewal

More percussive Goddess and Earth songs and chants by Ariana's primarily acoustic ensemble. Includes Dance in the Moonlight, Yemaya, Diana Fantasee, Huntress, Fire Flow Free, The Earth is Our Mother. Recommended again! (KIV2) CS: 9.98

A Circle Is Cast

This 1996 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements; most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPN002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fire Within

Finally, the long-awaited sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast! Synthesizing their two musical identities—as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual—this release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Haelian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here; several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman, Nessa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; The Planter's Round, Clear Horizon, Rise Up O Flame, O Virgo Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. Lisa Dancing-Light
Point of Balance

Recommended by Brooks Medicine Eagle, Lisa's 1990 debut album features her original vocal compositions, intended for the healing of Mother Earth and the spiritual reawakening of all her children. If there were a New Age Radio Top 10, the title cut would certainly be in it, with a melody which you'll hear in your mind long after the album has ended, with tenor sax and more. Winds of Change, dedicated to Oya, Goddess of change and transformation; Power Chant; Mother Earth Chant and others; but you could buy this primarily for the title cut—it's worth it. Lisa Thiel/ Ani Williams
Sisters of the Dream

The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother. This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists: Lisa's Songs of the Spirit, Prayers for the Planet, and Rising of the Phoenix; and Ani's Wind Spirit, Song of the Jaguar, and Children of the Sun (see our listings for both artists in this section). This would be an excellent way to sample works by both artists (we're sure many of you'll want to add more of their recordings to your collection), and this is also a magical compilation in its own right. Recommended! (GBE1) CS: 9.98

Lady of the Lake

We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the altar of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Rune Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and title track. An uplifting treasure; most highly recommended! (LR112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rising of the Phoenix

Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected; and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Giveaway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. Contains a guide for using the songs for healing and in ceremony. As always, highly recommended. (SD4) CS: 9.98

Loreena McKennitt

The Visit
This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Child, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Souls Night and the instrumental Tango To Evora, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album: hear the Italian tint exploring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greenleafies! And her indescribably musical rendition of Tennessee's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments; great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new age vocal/Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB25688) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Louise Hay/ Joshua Leeds

Safe Passage
Subtitled Affirming Songs of Hope and Healing, this lovely 1991 recording contains songs and chants — musical versions of Louise's affirmations — performed by a variety of vocalists, mostly women (and most notably Eylee Sande). These affirmations become modern day mantras as they are lovingly repeated. Forgiving is an instrumental, with the suggested meditation "May I never count the number of times I forgive." Joshua is the musical composer, and the melodies are sweet, quiet and unobtrusive. Some of these songs are found on the album Songs of Affirmation. We think this recording will fulfill its intent to assist in deep inner work and change; highly recommended. (INS0591) CS: 9.98

Z
Sounding like music from other galaxies, or perhaps bells from heaven, this album is intended to assist in opening our dream states; the artist suggests you keep a dream journal for 6 weeks to help determine your own symbology for what is happening in your life. While this sounds very "far out", this tale is my favorite of all her works to date (perhaps it's significant that I have a very active dream life and rarely understand their deeper meanings). Anyway, the sounds express a joy and exuberance with unexpected tone and pitch changes — it's exciting as well as relaxing! 60 minutes of continuous music. Highly recommended! This is a panel discussion featuring Margot and Selena plus Robert Arion Wilson and Isaac Bonewitz. On Work and Career

Marianne's speaking style may remind you of Joanne Loutan's: quick, bright and funny. Her interpretive talks on how to use the spiritual wisdom gathered in "A Course in Miracles" rely on her own experiences: much as one would hear in a 12-step meeting. On this 85-minute tape, recorded live at two lectures entitled Making A Living and Andromeda vs. Inspiration, she focuses on our culturally-ingrained attitudes toward work and prosperity, and suggests how we might make our contributions to the Universe, our life's work, a joyful experience. ACIM is a self-study program of spiritual psychotherapy which uses Christian terminology and concepts to advance the acceptance of a thought system based on love rather than fear. Some listeners may have trouble with Marianne's usage of "He" in reference to God or the Christian referencing; try to get beyond it, because the messages contained in ACIM, and in her talks, hold some important spiritual gems. 2.5 hours. Merija Gimbutas
Civilization of the Goddess-2 Tapes

The mystery of the Goddess culture is brought to life here by one of the great archaeologists of our time. The story of this audiotape begins in the 1920's, when Merija was a young girl living in Lithuania; she was fascinated with the folktales of her region, where Christianity was introduced relatively late (the 16th century). Many of these stories concerned the "Old Religion" and the Great Goddess — and were passed down as folklore from before the birth of Christ. After training as an archaeologist, she led 5 expeditions over 3 decades to explore the origins of the earliest European religions. What emerged from her life's work is evidence of an advanced culture, based not on weapons and fear, but on the presence of the Great Goddess, symbolizing a sacred union with all of nature. 2 tapes, 130 min. The Fire Of My Love

This devotional tape of songs for Gurumayi Chidvilasananda, performed by a woman known to many as one of the founding mothers of women's music, is truly gorgeous! Meg's vocals and guitar, accompanied by resonant cello, violin, recorder and tabla, are as rich as ever, perhaps better. 3 of the songs were written by Meg: Gurumother, Oh My Gurumayi, and Arzhan, which was also recorded on FROM THE HEART; most other songs were written by Gurumayi herself. The prevailing mood is one of a deep peace, which can be experienced by anyone, regardless of spiritual orientation. Open the Sky

Each year we receive several hundred instrumental recordings seeking distribution... so to add one to our catalog, there needs to be something special about it. This one's an absolute stand-out! Nancee's a talented composer and keyboardist whose music is fresh, engaging, upbeat, vaguely in the spirit of Pat Metheny, Mason Williams or Earl Kugh at times; a beautiful blend of classical, jazz, folk and pop idioms, with strong melodies and (most of the time) back-up instrumentation of electric and acoustic guitar, violin, bass, percussion. This 1990 release carries the extended chant to a new level of complexity, with 48 tracks and 32 separate lines of choral music, while maintaining the stunning simplicity which creates wholeness and peace in the listener. #### Gloria

Imagine entering a Gothic cathedral as the great bell sounds the call to prayer. The thousand-year-old melodies of Gregorian chant echo through the cathedral as the monks intone: "Gloria in excelsis deo, et in terra pax." ("Glory be to God and peace on earth.") The congregation responds, chanting again and again the simple refrain "Adeamus te." ("I adore thee.") On this 1991 extended-chant album, male voices are joined in beautiful harmony by the women of On Wings of Song and the delicate accompaniment of classical guitar. (SHM1014) CS: 9.98

In A Light Garden

Our highest recommendation goes to this one... every second is pure listening pleasure, and it does not sound like every other new age recording you've heard: in fact, it doesn't sound like any other one. Original compositions for Celtic harp, cello, violin, viola, flute and keyboards... glorious baroque sequences, rock riffs, jazz progressions, classical arias... starkly magical soundscapes, playful, giddy dances over the soundwaves. Includes In Cecilia (For My Mother). (QP79324) CS: 9.98

Arpa Paraguaya y Guitarras

"Arpa Paraguaya y Guitarras" truly gorgeous Paraguayan harp and guitar performances of Latin American traditional folk music, by North American duo Sandy Smith and Jack Montgomery. Sandy's harp is right out front, carrying most of the melody lines, and her precision, proficiency and delicacy are sumptuous to the ear. This recording is simultaneously soothing and lively, stands up to repeated listenings, and is a perfect blend of New Age and international elements. Timeless and beautiful, if you were to represent it visually, your picture would be full of sparkles... fitting, since platero is the Spanish word for silver. Highly recommended! (PLT1001) CS: 9.98

Pomegranate

This 3-woman ensemble represents a new voice singing of the Old Religion, with ancient people's veneration of the Goddess as the keynote. Forged and striking vocal harmonies blend with acoustic stringed instruments (guitar, cello) and percussion: creating chants and songs which are strong affirmations of the feminine. The first side of the tape musically casts a Dianaic circle, and the second side includes songs of a more pantheistic nature. Two members, Ariana and Alaina, are both priestesses of the Old Religion; Diana is a classically-trained musician, influenced by multi-ethnic music; and the tape additionally features "a company of women." Includes Blessed Mother, May Queen, Earth Mother, and more. 60 min. (POM1) CS: 9.98

Pomegranate Rose

Such Is the Garden

This tape of songs, rounds and chants communicates devotion and renewal in Goddess spirituality, with lovely 4-part women's harmonies and inspiring original lyrics. Come to her breast and drink of her love." From our home area of North Carolina. (PR2) CS: 9.98

Radhika Miller

The Lark's Bride

An exquisitely-woven tapestry of dance-like chamber duets improvised in a classical style, with cellist Eugene Friszen (of the Paul Winter Consort), combined with Radhika's gorgeous arrangements for flute and harp (Michelle Sell) or piano (Rob Ramo), of some of the most majestic Renaissance and traditional melodies—from the 13th century on. Her fourth recording is absolutely unethnically most highly recommended. (RM1107) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Gems of Grace

A perfect title for this inspirationally centering work, on which she collaborates again with harpist Michelle Sell, cellist David Darling, and pianist Allaudin Mathieu. All composers are variations on the theme of grace — the sense of balance and beauty which brings us peace. She explores new textures here, introducing French horn player Alicia Telford, and some carefully chosen synthesized orchestral parts. Originally conceived of as a lullaby album for children (until she realized adults need unwinding more than their younger counterparts), it contains Her Majesty's Lullaby, Lullaby for Mary, Night Herding Song, and Motherless Child. As always, highly recommended. (RM1109) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Here and Faraway

We're come to expect nothing less than excellence from Radhika and her ensemble of talented friends, and this 1992 release captures that adjective beautifully. Her graceful contributions of Western classical elements with the instruments and styles of other cultures are joined by quiet flute works brimming with repose. A special highlight is Michelle Sell's exquisite harp, which adds a lush beauty to an already lovely sound. Pieces include the gorgeous Romantic Nightingale, the aching sorrow of the Celtic classic The Water Is Wide, and the sweet synthesis of Adventus. Recommended, of course! (RM1111) CS: 9.98 . . . #### Eco Odyssey

On this 1992 release with a powerful environment theme, fluid melodies and beautiful lyrics carry the message of our deep interconnectedness with mother nature as well as conveying the heartbreaking damage that has been done to her. Includes Ancestors, Invocation, Blessing Song, Bestiary, We Who Believe in Freedom, and many more. If this doesn't inspire you to action, perhaps you're beyond convincing! (MED9) CS: 10.98

We All Come From the Goddess

Here's how Merin Stone, author of When God Was a Woman, described this tape by Tori Rea, Molly Scott, and Sarah Benson... we couldn't say it better. "Drawing upon the Goddess images of Asia, the Near East and North America, these songs and chants create a magical space in which we can move thousands of years into the past or glide into visions of joyous future. Certainly a high point in the music emerging from women's spirituality!" Harmonizing vocals, some a cappella, some with flute, percussion; recorded in sacred places in southern France. Lyrics enclosed. Recommended! (MED1) CS: 9.98

Songs of Interbeing

Environmental spiritual awareness is Rashani's focus again, as she releases a second 1992 album of songs and chants on the topic. She says, "We are rapidly losing thousands of species and are in the midst of an ecological disaster too devastating for words! These songs and spoken words come as an invocation and affirmation, to remind us of the intricate and magnificent web of creation of which we are all a sacred part." Beautiful harmonies once again grace this album; includes Walking on Sunshine, Medicine Wheel of Earth, Tall Trees, My True Names. (MED10) CS: 10.98

Death is a Gateway

This 1991 release is subtitled Songs for the Sacred Passage... as she states in the notes, death has been a profound teacher in Rashani's life, and this recording came into being after the death of her father. A wealth of musicians, including Kay Gardner, join her on these 15 songs, which are sung in almost a chanting fashion, with titles like Open Your Wings, Deep Peace, Breathing in, Breathing Out, Return Again. Rashani shares these songs in the hope that the denial and fear around the natural death experience can be transformed; "There is no death, only a change of worlds." For use in hospices, hospitals and homes. (MED5) CS: 10.98

Cycles of Truth

Tori, adapted sister of Brooke Medicine Eagle, is a singing shaman who has worked with Elisabeth Kubler-Ross. This recording is about a mandate piece, the Cycles of Truth, also known as the Medicine Wheel, a tool with which to deepen the inner dance. Accompanied by percussion, flute, guitar, she performs chants and songs including Let Us Cast a Circle, Earth Mother Lost to music by Kate Wolf, Only Within Burns the Fire, Kinzie (Poem by a Buddhist nun), Sundancer, Songs to the 4 Elements, and a chant from a women's circle. Their trademark harmonies weave tales of natural cycles and seasons, women's spirituality, women as peacemakers, women as warriors; on original and traditional songs. Also includes 2 Renaissance instrumentals, and a song by Catherine Madson about women who chose to throw themselves to the sea rather than undergo trial and burning as accused witches. ## INVOCATION TO FREE WOMEN

Parthenogenesis

1. From the Greek Parthenos, Virgin plus GENESIS, unitary creation without conjunction. 2. Process of a woman creating her Self by opening to her ability to define herself apart from the patriarchal mythos. 3. The album: An award-winning collection of original songs with powerful woman-identified mythic imagery, celebrating the Goddess with a unique blend of contemporary and traditional instrumentation. Kay Gardner calls Ruth a musician/priestess to lead us into the next century, and this album a must for anyone who believes in the political power of women's spirituality. We proudly present this to you on the Ladieslipper label; it's one of the most woman-loving, sensual/sexual, angry, mystical and magical albums we have heard. Songs include Crone, Naisid, Kadiatu (Holy Woman), Sisters' Eyes. Very highly recommended! (LR110) CS: 9.98

Ruth Barrett & F. Artemis Flowers

Invocation to Free Women

This is a musical and poetic narrative unfolding the continuum of women's spirituality, with a colorful variety of invocations, stories, songs, myths, chants, and teachings, artfully woven together, many original, others from sources such as Starhawk, Z. Budapest, traditional Yoruba and Aztec, Shekinah Mountainwater. Also features the work of Melina de Oiga, Afro-Cuban percussion artist. A strong statement of woman-identification, the goddess within, activism, self-healing, peacekeeping, and earth consciousness...quite inclusive, dramatic and beautifully done. Recommended! ### Aeolus

A superbly executed album of woman-oriented ballads, with themes of goddesses, magic ritual, witchery. Melodies are traditional, with vocal harmonies, dulcimers and other traditional instruments; naturally, many lyrics and verses were rewritten...a perfect convergence of consciousness and tradition! ### Music of the Rolling World

Beautiful spring and midsummer seasonal celebration and magical songs, with dulcimer, harp, psaltery, cello, and more, recalling a time when "women, with their knowledge of plants and herbs, birth and death, were the healers of their communities." Some depict strong women and working women (The Female Highwayman), some are dances, some legends (Fairies Love Song) and to some they have added their own verses. (AEO002) CS: 9.98

Ruth Happel

Loons of Echo Pond

One of the few environmental sound recordings done by a woman — Ruth is a tropical biologist and conservationist from Harvard. It's an exquisite one too; it chronicles the transition between night and day, when the haunting, unforgettable call of the loons takes over the ponds and lakes of NY State's Adirondack Mountains. The silence of evening is broken only occasionally by the clear tones of the peepers, or the croak and anores of bullfrogs and pickerel frogs. Then from far away at the other end of the pond comes the unforgettable wail of the loon. Haunting and mysterious, the call of the loon takes over the evening soundscape, the tone broken only by a brief rain shower. Recommended! (WSC1508) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ruthanne Jones

Voices

This is one of the more unusual additions to our catalog: an entire album of hauntingly, celestially beautiful songs without words, perfect for ceremony, ritual, healing work, or simply to create a contemplative environment. Ruthanne explores the potential of this unique "instrument", as her voice seemingly resonates on several planes at once. Indigenous, handcrafted global instruments (harp, flute, classical guitar, harmonium) are played by her, as sound syllables are spontaneously sung to weave many colors and textures of feeling. She describes this as "the expression of the opening of this Woman's Heart — Every Woman's Heart, and a remembering of the forgotten song we all once knew and sang always in Communal Joy, to be remembered again, as we walk once again in the Land of the Heart." Recommended! (LDS1) CS: 9.98

Sarah Benson

Flutes of Interior Time

Sarah Benson, co-founder of the Sound Healers Association and flautist extraordinaire, is known to some of our customers for her collaboration with Teri Rias and Molly Scott on We All Come From the Goddess; this "solo" effort (which does feature Elizabeth Fleck on accompanying tamboura) astutely echoes the sonic energies of the ancient healing temples of Egypt. Each side contains one long composition — title on the first, Ecstatic Flutes on the second — a format often requested for use in meditation, deep relaxation and massage. It's beautiful, and we recommend it. (BP24007) CS: 9.98

Songs of Pagan Folk

Thirteen songs and chants including Isis Invocation, Healer Song, Circle Round, and other songs about Neo-Paganism, Wicca, Goddess cultures, feminist spirituality, etc. (CRL5) CS: 9.98

Shakti & Ambika

Hazorns: Improvs for Harp & Flute

30 minutes of some of the most exquisite music ever improvised, composed, or performed on these already heavenly instruments! It just flows and rolls, crescendos and cascades in melodies which reverberate with some inner chord. And though it's a bit pricey, profits help support needy children in India; so, don't hesitate on that account...especially since it's twice the length of most tapes. Titles include Temple Moon, Buddhas' Garden, Owl's Omen, Nightcolors. An excellent choice for musical pleasure, relaxation, meditation, massage...recommended! (SRH007) CS: 12.98

Shakti Gawain

Creative Visualization

This absolutely unique series for healing, with celestial vocals by Singh Kaur, and Celtic harp and keyboards by Kim Robertson, consists of long recordings (40 minutes per side and repeated on both sides) of the same phrase chanted over and over, with some of the most gorgeous music ever heard, and which truly uses some power to transform the listener into a serene state. This volume induces a healing state of consciousness; in the ancient scriptures the phrase is said to strengthen the connection with the inner spirit and to develop a sense of purpose and guidance. In ancient times, Ardas was known as the prayer that goes beyond all prayers; the power of this healing sound will continue even after the audible sound current has finished. Sophia has the voice of an angel, and it has been said to have healing powers! This 1991 album contains earthy and shamanic chants plus lyrical songs; she (on guitar, dulcimer, tamboura, thunder drum, rainstick, and of course vocals) is joined by a cadre of gifted and inspired musicians such as Raphael and Jim Scott. ### Devi: In Praise of Universal Mother

This 1990 album is designed to carry the listener into deep attainment with the loving energy of the Divine Mother, through beautiful mantras. On Side 1 which is devoted to Laxshmi (Hindu goddess of abundance, beauty and love), Sophia's celestial harmonies blend with the deep, gentle voice of Bhava, a man. Side 2 contains two songs: mantras sung by Bhava alone, invoking Kali, Laxshmi, and Saraswati; and Song of Praise performed by Sophia. Subtle yet moving accompaniment is provided by the vocalists on tamboura, thunder drum and guitar, plus Teri Sternberg on violin, Kutra Decostard of Diddarodo, and Raphael on synthesizers. Heavenly, dreamy and uplifting! (BHA1) CS: 9.98

Spirit Sounds w/Rosie & Joe Dolphin

Dolphin Dreams

Subtitled A Delphonic Birthing Environment, this unique recording is perfect for anyone interested in exploring interspecies communication, as well as pregnant and birthing women, infants, meditators, message therapists, and general listeners! Artfully combined are the delphonic voices of Rosie and Joe Dolphin as well as wild dolphins: angelic choir, which includes the voices of Molly Scott and Sarah Benson, singing a dolphin lullaby; the tinkling of quartz crystals, which are found to activate the crown chakra center; the heartbeat of a woman; sounds of sea gulls; and rolling Oms. Amazingly joyful and relaxing, and a wonderfully therapeutic use of sound and music! (SP23007) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Sri Chinmoy Bhajan Singers

Festival of Divine Power

These songs, or bhajans — melodious chant-like devotional songs — invoke Kali, the Goddess of Power and Liberation, to transform the seeker-singer. Through a combination of personal reverence to Kali and the energizing aspect of the universe which she embodies, singers and listeners both experience transformational energy which produces higher consciousness. The performers, a large international group of women singers and musicians (all devotees of Sri Chinmoy), accompany themselves on bells, harmonium, celeste, flute, guitar, hammer dulcimer, tamboura and synthesizer. The bhajans are written by Sri Chinmoy in the fourth Indian language Bengali. Mystical and lovely; insert contains transliterations and translations of the chants. (SC83) CS: 9.98

Stephanie Bennett Stories Seldom Told

Gorgeous, lilting, beautiful, evocative, dreamy, soothing, lovely — get the picture? Stephanie is an accomplished harper (she's done everything from tour with Sly Stone to record scary movie soundtracks!) who composed, arranged, and produced this fabulous album. Her expertise is also strong in the orchestration department: the accompanying ensemble of wind and chamber instruments (cello, viola, flutes, recorders; oboes, English and French horns, tympani, bells, tablas and more) blend gently with her neo-classical/Celtic/new age virtuoso harp movements — as someone said, "How many hands does she have?" Includes The Magic Fawn, Dream Dance, Dragonmaker. If you like Kay Gardner's A Rainbow Path, check this out! Highly recommended! (HW9001) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Circle the Earth with Song

"The chants on this tape are simple and repetitive. They are seeds with which to create your own verses, harmonies or songs. They are presented so that you may find your own voice and your own songs." These chants—both original and collected and performed with a minimum of percussion or flute accompaniment—are about The Goddess, Mother Earth, The Great Spirit, Kokopelli (the male hump-backed flute player from Hopi mythology), the Four Directions, and so forth. Insert has instructions on creating chants, rituals, and affirmations. Only complaint: we wish she had notated more about the origin of each chant, especially those she didn't write. Includes Ancient Mother: We All Come From the Goddess, with gorgeous harmonies and nature sounds. (SHA1) CS: 9.98

Susan Osborn

Signature

Some of you may have heard this incredible vocalist perform with the Paul Winter Consort. This is the first album she's recorded which she really feels has her signature on it. Includes Rolling Back the Stone, I'll Always Be a Lover, Winter's Dream, and John Lennon's Imagine. Her themes are affirmation, joy, goodness, spirit. (LIF100) CS: 9.98

Susan Savell

The Power of My Love For You

Note sale price on LP! If you are even remotely interested in spirituality, please read the fine print here: Susan consciously integrates feminizing images to symbolize sacred reality, and thus has been somewhat of a rabble-rouser as one of the early women to be ordained as a (UCC) minister, over 15 years ago. This album is a musical feast, with plentiful contributions by Rhannon, Linda Tillery, Terry Garthwaite (also the producer), Barbara Borden, Mary Watkins, Janet Small, and many other talents. From the Native American drumbeats of the vivid call to heal the earth, Simple Ceremonies, to the summery brilliance of the closing refrains of Mama Trilogy, written during her mother's illness and death; Susan uses her insight, vision and richly-imbued voice to communicate spiritual realities. Highly recommended! (HL325) LP: 6.98 . . . CS: 9.98

The Peace Church LIVE! (Double)

Susan serves as a minister to the Peace Church of Southern Maine, and this 90-minute 27-song tape for worship, meditation, chanting and community singing is performed by Susan and this ecumenical, inter-faith congregational choir, with accompaniment by Janet Hood. All songs are original, except Oh Great Spirit and Go in Beauty, which are traditional Native American; Aleluia and Meditation, based on Pachelbel's Canon, and Lay My Burden Down, based on the traditional Black spiritual. Proceeds benefit the Peace Church. (HL425) CS: 14.98

Suzanne Ciani

Hotel Luna

Lush, romantic compositions grace this "bella" recording, created when the artist, a second-generation Italian-American, set out to find her Mediterranean roots and ended up writing this from the Isle of Capri, off the western coast of Italy. With her usual synthesizer sophistication, and joined by the Armadillo String Quartet, she creates personal portraits (Love Song is to her mother) and evocative descriptions of places and situations: the opera (betanto), the sea and its weather (Crudine, Maremmano), the longing created by emigration (Italia). . . . Together a beautiful album. (PVT2090) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Rosa Mystica

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 20th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Historical Harp Volume I: Celebrant

Magnificent! On seven harps and two psalteries built by Lynne Lawandowski, Therese impeccably performs medieval sacred repertoires, elaborating upon monastic chants and improvising within the style as was customary in early music. The wide display of sound colors reflects some of the many voices typical to Romanesque, Gothic, Celtic, and early Renaissance harps. Some selections are accompanied by voice. Recommended for new age as well as classical and early music lovers. (LAD1001) CS: 9.98

Her blend of evocative lyrics and haunting melodies make this a must for anyone with the soul of a dreamer. (ACE1) CS: 9.98

The Way to the Well

Utilizing drumming, song, chanting and visualization, this contemporary guided meditation is subtitled A Trance Journey for Empowerment, referring to accessing the well of power within us all, rather than always searching outside of ourselves for fulfillment. The listener is encouraged to become the protagonist of the story, thus facing an opportunity for transformation. (STAR1) CS: 9.98

Rebirth of the Goddess

A talk on witchcraft, feminism, and social change, presented in 1981 at the University of Wisconsin by the author of THE SPIRAL DANCE. She does an excellent job of explaining the subject in a manner comprehensible and non-alienating to skeptics like this reviewer, in that the importance of feminism as a political movement is never dismissed. (CRL2) CS: 9.98

Spiral Dance

For a decade, Starhawk's book by the same name has been the primary resource for women to explore their spirituality. This cassette provides a rare opportunity for the listener to share in a ritual, a circle, or a meditation with Starhawk herself. Included are rituals for casting the circle, raising the cone of power, invoking the Goddess, and reaching trance states. She explains how these rituals are linked to psychological states, and how to create your own rites. The author is also a peace activist, founder of two covens, and a minister of the Covenant of the Goddess. 90 minutes. (HRP055) CS: 11.98

Opening the gateway to an expanded earth-based spirituality, she speaks of the special "magic" that is created when we learn how to change consciousness: she discusses Pagan rituals; earth mysteries; vision, imagination and values; and more. 90 min. (SND151) CS: 9.98

Victoria Ganger et al
Starmony

These chants, drawn from various walkways of the Pagan movement, are simple to learn and easy to embellish. The vast spirals of raw energy found in Starmony I (originally meant as a 3-part rehearsal) spring from jubilant surprise at our success and reluctance to hear it end. Starmony II holds a driving, concentrated power-evoking ancient rhythms and images of bonfire dancers. A virtual Pagan Tabernacle Chorus! This recorded workshop — "a handful of unrehearsed experimenters and a hail with dynamic acoustics" — is a great resource! (ACE2) CS: 9.98

Recovery in an Addictive World

This noted psychologist-author offers a new model of the addictive system, based not on the individual, but on our entire culture. Blunt (she is impatient with "the twelve-steppers") and provocative (she says that treatment centers themselves are addictive structures), she challenges our thinking about addiction as she shakes the addiction field to its foundations. 90 min. (SND153) CS: 9.98

Carolyn Stearns

For Women Who Were Sexually Abused

Focusing on the concept of self-empowerment, Carolyn outlines steps that she, as both a therapist and a survivor, has found helpful in the recovery/healing process. She takes a more cosmic approach than do some therapists, discussing the inner sanctum, the need for action in order to change, and ways of taking feelings of pain and victimization and making them sources of learning. 90 minutes. Already widely circulated in recovery circles, this release has an almost universal appeal for people involved in the recovery process, the therapeutic community, survivors of childhood sexual abuse, and amongst the religious/spiritual community. (CM001) CS: 9.98

Charlotte Davis Kasi, Ph.D.

Many Roads, One Journey (2-Set)

...is subtitled Moving Beyond the 12 Steps. The author, an expert on healing from addictions, confronts the mystique around 12-step programs and examines the impact recovery groups and treatment programs have on individual lives. While many people find 12-step programs invaluable, others find the focus on conformity, humility, and personal failings counter to their tremendous need for affirmation in overcoming issues of childhood abuse, sexism, racism, poverty, and homophobia. She stresses the importance of social influences as well as personal awareness, and of finding our own voices and sources of strength and spirituality. She also offers a flexible 16-step alternative. 3 hours. (HRP2279) CS: 16.98

Giorgi

A Survivor's Tape

One of the most unusual and unique works in our catalog, it tells, in song, the very personal story of one woman's remembering and healing herself from her legacy of childhood sexual and physical abuse. The songs were never written, practiced, arranged and then produced; rather, she sang them only once, direct to tape as she composed them, as part of her healing process — and then later added instrumental tracks. In light of this, it's an amazingly musical and cohesive entity! She shares the deepest parts of herself here, in hopes that her honesty will help others survive their own difficult childhood hurts, whatever they may be, and thereby become empowered; we think her hope is a realistic one. Booklet included; recommended! (GDS1) CS: 9.98

Feeding Yourself Forgiveness

Narrated by Michelle, a registered dietitian, this tape is an affirming guided relaxation program for women with eating disorders, and is intended for use with meals. Gently paced and with soothing flute and ensemble accompaniment, it helps the listener prepare for a wonderful meal ("eating experience"), become fully relaxed before and during eating, and to be more aware of and comfortable in her body. Approx. 45 minutes. Recommended. (MPG1) CS: 10.98

Nancy Day

Survivor

Music about the experience of and recovery from sexual assault, from a survivor. Nancy presents, with honesty and candor, the range of conflicting emotions which surface and are an important part of the healing process. A significant and crucial work. (ND4) CS: 9.98

Pam Morgan

Me and Enid/Survivor

This 1990 release is directed to survivors of child abuse, but the messages included can easily be applied to anyone who needs to re-evaluate self-worth and put the pains of the past behind them. Her messages focus on the lovability of everyone in spite of the negative harmful influences that bring us down on ourselves. Pam's simple, direct and beautiful delivery add intensity to the meaning of these obviously heartfelt songs. With charged songs such as More Aware, Take Care of Myself! and Daddy's Little Girl, this tape is recommended for both content and clarity. Our only complaint: we wish the lyrics were included. Rokele Lerner

Challenge of Intimacy for ACoA's

"Healthy intimacy is the ability to give and receive full attention. This kind of attention is often overwhelming for children of alcoholics. As children, full attention may have meant violence, abuse or criticism. This tape will guide the listener into discovering their patterns of intimacy in order to achieve more fulfilling relationships." Rokele is the author of the best-selling book Daily Affirmations for Adult Children of Alcoholics. (HC99) CS: 9.98

Trailblazers

This is truly trailblazing music, in that it addresses issues of recovery from dysfunctional and alcoholic families in an entertaining and universal context that everyone can enjoy. Both Ruth and Kate are experienced singer-songwriters and instrumentalists, and their excellent songs, harmonizing vocals, sparkling guitars and magical keyboards form a healing and sometimes hilarious potpourri of musical styles. Includes Seaweed Emotions, I Am Innocent, I Deserve to Thrive, and more. Recommended! (CIP1) CS: 9.98

Step to the Music

Subtitled Songs of Affirmation for Personal Growth, this is a lovely and uniquely arranged collection geared toward fostering self-love. Side One, the vocal side, features choruses of positive affirmations coupled with a "fill in the blank" format every third verse is instrumental, allowing the listener to create their own affirmation. Side Two contains the instrumental versions of the songs on side one, so you can be the soloist. Joined all vocals by Alan O'Day plus Etton John's keyboardist, Guy Babylon, and others. Includes Love Is Opening My Heart, My Higher Power is Taking Care of Me, I Live This Day (I Live in This Moment). Very well produced, and very recommended! (SOC1) CS: 9.98

Recovering Joy (Double)

This 90-minute, double-length-plus cassette features 20 new songs that celebrate the spirituality of healing from any sort of painful life experiences, including the 12-step recovery process from co-dependency and/or addictions. Representing 10 years of Susan's own work on recovery, this is one of the most lyrically excellent, thorough, inspirational bodies of work on the subject, eloquently communicating each step of the process, including the move from self-healing to justice in the world. And, pronouns for the "higher power"—when used—are primarily female. Recorded live, with piano by Janet Hood. (HL523) CS: 14.98

Opportunity Knocks More Than Once

This amazingly talented woman, originally from Texas, is now local to us Ladyslips! She produced, engineered, mixed and recorded these engaging songs she co-wrote with her mother Nancy Khoury, moving effortlessly between country, folk, pop and blues, and tackling subjects from love to the KKK with passion. Her voice is deep, evocative, emotion-laden, backed by her mother's vocals on some. A wonderful debut. (KH01) CS: 9.98

All Love Can Take

On her second album, the "singing shrink" seeks a broader healing than that possible from a therapist's couch! Timely, poignant lyrics and haunting melodies, co-written with her mother Nancy Khoury, characterize this 1992 release. From country to swing to blues to rock, this woman attacks each genre with a passion and comes up shining! Her voice is strong and soft in all the right places, and the arrangements are right on target. We love her Two Step On My Heart, as well as Co-Dependence Didge and Souvenirs of What We Shared. (KH02) CS: 9.98

Alice Di Michele

Make A Change

If you're looking for some political folk music performed in an irresistibly gorgeous alto voice, try this! Her strong, deep, textured vocal quality will pull you right in and mesmerize you as it effectively communicates her ideas: love for the earth and all creatures, a strong commitment to peace, political and social change, and to personal and political growth — pretty comprehensive, eh? Includes Wise Old Woman, Diamonds, and more; primary accompaniment is cello, guitar, voice! (ADM101) CS: 9.98

It's A Miracle

Alice's second recording features a fuller sound — acoustic guitars and cello are joined by some azzini! sax and drums — and a lyrical exploration of the earth's wonders, spiritual connections, love and loss. Her sense of arrangement is uncanny — each song's instrumentation is the perfect accompaniment to the content, and her voice is infused with emotion, spirit, and beauty. Songs include Orange Moon, Silver Fire, Woke Up Dying, The Beaver Song. (ADM102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Too Controversial

This 1986 release features more of Alice's trademark heartfelt lyrics and soulful voice, plus lightly arranged accompaniment (acoustic guitar, bass, keyboards, percussion, soprano sax and cello). Many songs focus on detailing the oppressive aspects of American culture, but what saves this from being a ranting political manifesto is Alice's gorgeous vocal treatment — alternately sweet and growly, whispery and full-throated — and integral acoustic instrumentation. Other songs speak of a woman's love (Naomi), women's spirituality (New Moon), and a lovely cover of the traditional Water is Wide. Overall, a great example of "personally political" music. (ADM103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Searching

Alice is continuing on a fruitful musical journey, as this 1992 release demonstrates. Her rich, sweet, earnest voice rises and caresses her beautiful melodies and messages of love, caring, concern and passion. Her topics here are the earth (her land and her creatures) love (she writes sweetly about the long-term kind as well as the discovery of love), desire, domestic violence, the Gulf War (Land of Broken Promises). Some lovely vocal accompaniment in addition to the guitars/bass/percussion. The title of That Sweetness, the closing song, probably sums up the album in two words. (ADM104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

City Life

LP's now on sale! "A triumph of human and musical spirit—that is City Life at its best. Their individual and collective mastery of idioms—from bebop and ballads to Afro-Cuban and pop—is abundantly evident on this album"—this quote from their jacket sums it up. The reasons Alive! is gaining recognition and respect in the greater jazz world will be no mystery to listeners. (ALV543) LP: 9.98 CD: 9.98

Call it Jazz

About to be out of print, and now at a great price, so order ASAP. If you love Rhiannon as a vocalist, but weren't around when she fronted this ensemble, take our word for it, you'll love this! Recorded at the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco in May 1981, it's dynamic... this recording actually preserves that elusive, most magical spirit which Alive! embodied in performance. Produced by Helen Keane. (ALV5484) LP: 6.98

Alive!

Order this classic recording now, before it becomes ever out of print. With Rhiannon as lead singer, Alive! was one of the most dynamic jazz ensembles ever to hit the Women's Music scene... & one of the most dynamic ensembles of any kind ever to hit the jazz scene. This 5-woman band weaves instrumental & vocal improvisation with jazz & classical sounds, with traditional African & Latin polyrhythms, with female images & feminist lyrics. Out of this blend has flowered some of the most revolutionary, unified & beautiful sounds being created these days by anyone. Among the songs here are City Life, Somebody's Talkin', Dark Side of the Moon, & Spirit Healer. (WWE94) LP: 6.98

Alix Dobkin, Kay Gardner

Lavender Jane Loves Women

The first blatantly lesbian album we know about (1974) and one of the first to be completely produced & engineered by & for women. An artful blend of serious & humorous material. Contains some real classics, like I Only Want to Be With You, a couple of traditional songs, help from the kids, Alix's voice-training yells, plus original lesbian compositions. Includes The Woman in Your Life is You, Talking Lesbian & View From Gay Head. (WWA001) CS: 9.98

Love and Politics: A 30 Year Saga

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific, in addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian Wars... plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Sound Through (which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists). This release coincides with her first year off the road in song, making it especially precious! Includes The Woman in Your Life, Amazon ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes. 14 more highly recommended! (WWA007) CS: 12.98 CD: 15.98

Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney

This incredibly wonderful release — in our opinion, Alix's best yet — was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Island, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Rhinoceros, Shameless Husbands, The Girls Want to Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very, very highly recommended! (WWA006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

These Women! Never Been Better

Again, note reduced LP price! Ever in a ground-breaking, controversial mode, Alix will shock her folkie fans with some of these selections! Mixing high-tech sound with unadulterated feminist and lesbian messages, Alix joins with Carol MacDonald and Witch to create the honest, scathing Boy-Got Rap, Some Boys, and a country remake of her classic The Woman in Your Life is You. Then, switching to her more familiar and still-clear folk style, she delivers Big Girls, Crazy Dance, 100 Easy Ways to Cooze a Man, and the lovely These Women Never Been Better. It's how Alix views women's lives and women's culture... is how Alix empowers women to focus on strength and change... is what you'll say about Alix's music after you hear this! Highly recommended! (WWA005) LP: 6.98 CD: 9.98

XX Alix

Note sale price on LP! Alix's material just gets better and better. This collection of songs is, as usual, highly personal, concrete, articulate, thoughtful, & thought-provoking. Her originality, observations & experiences emerge as entities which are simultaneously aesthetic & contentful, vulnerable & solid-as-a-rock. Alix doesn't camouflage paradoxes with rhetoric, she explores them, uses them... so refreshing and satisfying. Features the talents of River Lightwoman & Susan Shanbaum, includes Theme from "Getting Ready", Living with Contradictions, Separation '75, Woman to Woman. The title, by the way, refers to both Alix's sign-off in letters (kisses) & double chromosomes of females. (WWA003) LP: 6.98 CD: 9.98

Living With Lesbians

This outrageously funny yet warm & wise tribute to lesbians contains not only words of support, but the sweet voice of Alix, trained in Balkan singing by Ethel Raim. Alix has incredible control over her voice. She utilizes it well on her own songs & a few traditional Balkan ones. Original compositions feature her on guitar with all-woman back-up singing to & about lesbians. Includes My B, Good Old Dora & Amazon ABC ("a saucy romp through the lesbo-alphabet"). Ann Reed

By Request

Featuring some great "environmentally friendly" packaging (would that it were all this way... no plastic cases to crack, replace, trash, store, ship, reship...) this 1992 release is just what it says: material that Ann has issued by request of her fans. Ann with her glorious voice and 12-string is accompanied by Joan Griffith on bass and 6-string; includes Lisa's Song, Every Long Journey, Styfoam, and more. (AML1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Just Can't Stop

Ann is a fine 12-string guitarist with a fluid Fahey/Kotke style. Here she plays with a rhythm section, including several women: sax, keyboards, bass, drums and percussion fit out her original tunes. Includes one instrumental, For Jane, some jazzy tunes; and a song written for Ann Badcroft, the first woman to reach the North Pole by dog sled in May 1986 (no, it's not the actress); Every Long Journey. (RH11) CS: 9.98

Ann Reed

Talk To Me

Ann's back with some great songwriting and guitar-playing; with the same ensemble and producer as Just Can't Stop, she turns out originals which are strong melodically, exciting, and romantic yet solid...intelligently dealing with interpersonal relationships. Includes Autumn Rain, a meditation-like piece with guitars and vocals, and Complications To a Simple Life. (RH24) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Back & Forth

The Beat is back... in print, that is; this contains the best from her first releases Carpenter and Room and Board, such as The Woman You'd Love, Jessie, Jaymie, plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston?. We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's irresistible voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and all acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluesy vein. (WNO0291) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir

...but we fight for roses too

Established in 1975, Anna Crusis is one of the oldest feminist choirs in the US. Their multicultural repertoire seeks to reflect the rich diversity of human lives and struggles, especially those of women, with songs which are empowering, challenging, and fun. This long-awaited tape by the 40 or so members fulfills their goal, with truly stunning harmonies and a wonderful variety in melody, arrangement, and source... plus a tasteful touch of instrumentalism. Includes Burning Times, about the burning of the witches, and Heaven, Drum, Shukah. Inspiring for regular listeners, as well as any who participate in a women's chorus. Recommended! (ANN1) CS: 10.98

Anne Seale

Sex for Breakfast

What an odd, different sort of a tape! Frankly lesbian lyrics, with a 1950's lounge sound and Allen Sherman-type humor and ryming... her original songs include Body Fax, I Get a Rash from Relationships, Was Women's Bookstore, Provincetown, A Lesbian Cemetery. Watch for her at women's music festivals! (AS1) CS: 9.98

Assar Santata & Chanel No. 6

Live

Anyone who attended the 15th Anniversary Michigan Festival in 1990 will remember this dynamic percussionist and her world-beat women's ensemble from the Saturday night show! Born in Brazil, she lived and traveled in Venezuela, Europe and West Africa before settling in Montreal... and brings the African, Latin, reggae and jazz traditions and rhythms from her life experiences to her music (she has also been invited to perform with Miles Davis) as well as a dedication to promoting women's talents. The 6-woman Chanel No. 6 (their name a caustic wordplay on the cologne) provides ample backup on sax, bass, guitar, keyboards and vocals to her congas, percussion, and lead vocals. This tape was recorded in 1989 at the Crossing Culture Festival in Toronto. Recommended! (NDA169) CS: 10.98

Aya!

In addition to a sensationally wonderful Canadian women's acappella ensemble, Aya is also the word for a Celtic goddess as well as a term for a symbol of defiance in an African language. When they recorded this album, a benefit for AIDS Vancouver, they were a trio (they have since become a quartet), and their sumptuous, layered 3-part harmonies proclaim lyrics from women's labor and other solidarity movements. Includes their powerful original Which Hand, which correlates the oppressions over the centuries of women: herbalists, suffragists, Black liberationists, feminists, lesbians and gays, and other groups. Recommended! (SEV005) CS: 9.98

Barbara Higbie

Signs of Life

Awaited for so many years, here at long last is the 1990 solo album by one of the most talented keyboardist-composers around, known to many for her work with Teresa Trull and Montreal. And it will probably exceed your highest expectations. Here she blends her incredibly beautiful voice (which has been a secret to us for a long time) with stirring lyrics, adding to them her already accomplished instrumental style. Includes The Safest Place in the World, which couples will probably play over and over. Very highly recommended! (WH1090) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon

River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible acappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Sinner I Laid My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 15.98

Betsy Rose

Wings Against the Sky

The first recording in several years by this pioneering women's musician is a lovely collection of original songs about issues dear to her heart. From the angry House Full of Secrets about the lasting effects of child abuse, to Darin I'm Glad, a light-hearted coming-out story with a surprise ending, to a loving tribute to the Sanctuary movement, Open the Doors Again, the songs display her open-heartedness to all people. Accompanying vocalists include Judy Fjell and Judy Friedman, as well as a funky soul solo by Rhannon. (KAL31) CS: 9.98

CONNIE KALDOR

BETTY

Hello, BETTY!

This favored harmonizing DivaRock trio announces their debut release — it features the hit singles Wifewoman, Beltcoat Junction, Ms. Shake, Picnic Love Affair, Go Ahead and Spit, Mr. Amos, Man 21 songs in all, 48 minutes of fun. We know how hard this has been to get, and we are visualizing that there are no further delays! (BET1) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Blazing Redheads

Put on your cha-cha slippers and get ready to dance...to the Latin jazz from this 7-woman band from the Bay area. With 3 percussionists, 2 sax/flute players plus bass, two keyboards, you know the rhythm's gonna be driving, undulating and raucous! Each brings years of experience playing salsa, jazz, funk, Latin, Brazilian, and rock music, and together they form a tight ensemble. Material and arrangements are original...recommended! (REF26) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Blazing Redheads

Crazed Women

The Redheads have a new one for 1991...jazzy and percussion-rich, with elements of Latin, R&B, and even rock...fun and exciting! Joy Jenkins plays bass on this one. (REF41) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bobbi Carmithell

Crossing the Line

Debut album from a woman who's charmed audiences at the Southern and National Women's Music Festivals. She creates a soft easy folk sound, playing all the keyboards, acoustic guitars, bass, and singing all the vocals, with some additional accompaniment...there's something in her delivery and/or vocal timbre that's somehow reminiscent of James Taylor. Several of her songs are for particular women. (LOC1) CS: 9.98

Carol Steinel

I'm Dangerous!

This 1991 debut album from a songwriter/comic from Portland tells the story, in a style of this "raging, bad-assed dyke." Lots of great queer material, including Dangerous!, a lesbian C & W tune called Old Friends Ain't; and her "triple trilogy": God Is Love, Lavender, and Dying For Love, exposing the hypocrisy of the bible-thumpers, or "biblical schizophrenia" as she calls it. Recorded live, so it includes her concert commentary and humor as well as audience enthusiasm; and she accompanies her songs on guitar. (CST0191) CS: 9.98

Carole Etzler & Bren Chambers

Rainbows in My Mind

Rainbows appear when the sun and the rain embrace and create magic. In the same way, this 1993 album reaches out and lifts the spirit. From the delicate chimes of Cup of the Moon to the drumbeats of Chant for Mother Earth, the music touches the threads of our relationships with each other and the planet. Carole and Bren interweave cello, guitar, voices, piano, chimes, Aztec drum, gong, Celtic harp, and Tibetan singing bowls into a joyful celebration of life. (SIS4) CS: 10.98

Caryl DeGroot

Womoon to Womoon

Lovely lesbian music by a folkie Phoenix performer, who has written unabashed love songs in a strong woman-identified tradition. Guitar and harmony vocals accompany Genie Womoon, Womoon Rise Up Fling, Come and Dance, Lay Me Down. Tired of vague references? This is for you. (ROL1) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor

Moonlight Grocery

Out of print in the US, but this Canadian import is again available... from LadySlipper! A late '84 release by one of our favorite singer-songwriters. Includes Maria's Place, the very feminist Get Back to the Night, Talk Without Speaking, Caught in the Crossfire and more. (COY1002) CS: 10.98

Connie Kaldor

One of These Days

This album is a gem, it's great! The voice of this Canadian singer-songwriter is exceptionally fine and strong, some songs are feminist, and one is among the funniest we've ever heard: "Jerks/With a capital J/Hey hey hey baby..." who whistle at and harass women walking by. This song is worth the price alone, but there's a whole album of good stuff with it. Another notable one is gospel-style Strength, Love and Laughter, imploring women to look inside for these treasures. However, this LP is one treasure you'll have to order from an external source (like us) and we hope you will! You won't be disappointed. (COY1317) CS: 6.98

Connie Kaldor

Wood River

Sublime Home is Where the Heart is, this beautiful, haunting collection of Connie's songs from the Canadian prairies has finally captured the warmth and emotion of the artist's live show. It contains new material as well as her classics — her best-known and most-often requested compositions, such as the title track; also Margaret's Waltz, Grandmother's Song, Saskatoon Moon, Nymn from Pincher Creek, Bird On a Wing, Modern Lullaby, and more. Gentle of Heart

A 1989 release of original songs infused with this Canadian artist's prairie-derived independence and sense of spaciousness, performed with her magnificently deep, emotive, resonant voice. Usually she includes at least one song on a specifically feminist issue; here it is One Hit Leads To Another, about wife-battering. An inexpressible energy and talent; it would be nice if her renown in the US would equal that which she is attaining in Canada! (OS019) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

The Changer and the Changed

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child or Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. (OL904) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Frontier

A reissue of the 1971 Ampex recording which introduced Meg Christian to Cris' music and sparked the idea for the women's recording company which became Olivia. This is "vintage" Cris in her simultaneously raw and refined vocal power, with the first recorded versions of Joanna, Waiting, Frontier. (OL927) CS: 9.98

Rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry on this new studio album. This retrospective compiled in 1983 is a collection of favorites drawn from her previous albums. (OL935) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson
Prairie Fire

Singing of pioneering spirits and western expanses, Cris really looks out on this one! The driving sounds of the title cut, the wobble of Colorado Dustbow, Days, the visionary rock of Bumali (a Japanese word for new wave!) and the Native-American sound of Grandmother's Land make this a recording that will be hard to stop listening to. And bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, light rhythm — what talent there! (OL941) CS: 9.98

Wolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout! From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("no longer the lone wolf...") to the song about listening to Wolfgang (a Japanese word for new wave!) and the Native-American sound of Grandmother's Land make this a recording that will be hard to stop listening to. And bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, light rhythm — what talent there! (OL941) CS: 9.98

Best of Cris Williamson

Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically, a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology Portrait). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Woman, Sister, Joanna, Surrender Dorothy — and many others of her best ever, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. Circle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Sweet Woman, Shooting Star, Dreamchild, Sister, Song of the Soul — as well as previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire: If It Weren't For the Music (well, it was released, but only on a 45 rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Divina, Millworker, Hey Good Lookin', and more. A wonderful way to remember and to honor the album and the era: 72 minutes long. (OL963) CS: 14.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour. Calamity Jane, "good-time cowgirl romp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways... and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably A&R ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! (SWZ2013) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Meg Christian
Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire herstory-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Betsy Ross's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite classics. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (5W933) CS: 14.98 . . . CD: 15.98

D. A. Clarke
Messages: Music for Lesbians

This technical and musical "Renaissance lesbian" has released a debut album that is quite striking on many counts. First of all it starts off in a rock 'n' roll mode, which is surprising for a solo tape; secondly, her voice is great; third, her lyrics are so to the point... very lesbian-affirming (she sings about dykes), or political (Good Germans is a song about good Americans), or spiritual (Crying Her Messages is about the Goddess). And then there's her wizardry on a wide variety of high-tech instruments — and she explains how she did it all (and she did it all, except for a couple of sax solos). Fifth, the production's crystal-clear, amazingly so for a self-engineered master. And she created this for lesbians. So, that's 6 reasons why you should buy this! (OLA1) CS: 8.98

Dayna B. Kurtz

We were introduced to Dayna's music just prior to her debut women's festival appearance at Rhythm East 1990, and wish we'd known about her sooner! She's got an aching, bluesy, jazzy, caressing, sultry voice, with which she croons her haunting lyrics and evocative imagery; we wouldn't be surprised to be informed she'd been signed to a major label. You don't have to wait for that though; catch her debut album here. (DBK1) CS: 9.98

Deb Tiemens
A Place to Start

"Heart-warming" is the word which comes to mind when listening to Deb's angelic voice and emotionally-rich lyrics. Performing since early childhood, this AIDS warrior/Choral Singer/Guitarist/Songwriter has a way of cutting straight to the emotional essence of a song, and composes her work with a spiritually balanced approach... Includes! Tomorrow Ever Comes, Matthew, Friends of the Heart, A New Song to Sing. Especially recommended for anyone working with loss and grief — this would be soothing and cathartic! (WRT1) CS: 9.98

Deidre McCalla
Don't Doubt It

Very hip, very contemporary, very danceable. Deidra's unique sound is clearly brought out by the superb production skills of Teresa Trull. Deidra has been performing for women's audiences for many years and this, her debut solo recording, has been anxiously awaited. Songs include Dance All Night, Wake Me Up Gently, Did You Think I Didn't Know. If you like Cris Williamson or Teresa Trull, you're sure to like Deidra. And we'd sure like to hear more from her! (OL936) CS: 9.98

Deidre McCalla
With a Little Luck

...and a lot of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deidra has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album is even better than her first, from the irrepressible celebratory exuberance of All Day Always (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words... Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Everyday Heroes & Heroines

This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deidra's best yet! — demonstrates this singer/songwriter's exceptional talent again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a fast-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love lost to social criticism. Includes: All Over the World; Outside; Girl You Don't Know; Blessings; Sing Me To Sleep. Highly recommended! (OL968) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Dianne Davidson
Breaking All The Rules

While newly taking the woman's music world by storm, Dianne's no newcomer to the larger music scene, as this high-energy, gutsy singer, who has performed with Tracy Nelson and Linda Ronstadt, makes her debut on Second Wave Records. Years ago we carried some of her now-out-of-print albums; but she outdoes any previous effort by a long shot here. The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away: it booms, it walls, it burns, it betrays her mixture of blues, country, gospel, r&b, and ballads. About half her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist); the balance is perfectly chosen: includes Built For Comfort, Heaven Bound, Everything To Me. Backup vocals on one song by Tracy Nelson; outstanding production (by Dianne). Can you tell we like this a lot? Highly recommended! (5W22011) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

disappear fear
Echo My Call

Sonia and Cindy Rutstein are blood sisters with captivating sister-harmonies, and their duo album is characterized by haunting melodies, content that spans the personal to US intervention in Central America, and a soulful folkbeat delivery. All the material is by husky-voiced lead singer and guitarist Sonia. Nice debut; watch for them at festivals. (RER1002) CS: 9.98

disappear fear
Deep Soul Diver

With not much more than 2 voices, a guitar and a tambourine, this duo has created a surprisingly sophisticated sound. Veterans of Dinner Theater at the Southern Women's Music Festival, sisters Sonia and Cindy combine engaging melodies with catchy and thoughtful lyrics. This 1990 album balances emotional sincerity and irreverence in songs like For Hollywood & Wild and Sexual Telepathy. (DSP1004) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Live at the Bottom Line - NYC

Yay! Ladieslipper loves Sonia and Cindy present a spring 1992 release: 50 minutes, 13 songs... primarily live performance, acoustic and vocals from a November 1991 concert at this special NYC club, plus 4 tracks from Box of Heaven and an extra new studio track. Titles include Sixteen Roses, Love Isn't Dead, Love Insurance. This should satisfy fans, until their next (surprise) studio release around fall of 1992... (DSP1006) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

GIRLS IN THE NOSE

Dyketones Live in P-Town (Double)

The Fabulous Dyketones album is once again back in print: a full hour and a half by everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's, at a dance party at Dyke High! From To Know Her Is To Love Her to My Girlfriend's Back to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykeangelie Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended! (RRR1001) CS: 10.98

Ellen Hines First Generation

This feminist musician from Asheville NC presents this 1992 debut album which showcases several fine attributes: her unusual, engaging, husky alto voice... her songwriting... and an ability to present material on a wide variety of political (and personal) topics without sacrificing musical integrity. Some highlights include the song, about which she writes, "As a daughter of survivors of holocausts, I cannot forget the holocausts still happening" - To And Myself (I Love My Woman), the only non-original included here; Ancient Memories, Within Grow Rice, and one of this reviewer's favorites, the watercolor-like impressions of Early Empty Beach. (MAR1001) CS: 6.98

Ellen Rosner

If you were impressed by the multi-octave voice of Horse, or are a devotee of Joan Armatrading, welcome to an interesting merger! Potent personal lyrics are brought to life by a deep voice, with full band on a couple of cuts, and various combinations of the artist with one or two guitarists, vocalists, and/or other instrumentalists. A great 1991 debut release from this Chicago-based musician, rockish at times, but mellow overall - you won't be disappointed! (NBS11859) CS: 9.98

Erica Wheeler Strong Heart

No stranger to attendees of several women's music festivals, Erica will hopefully soon be no stranger to a wider group of listeners, thanks to this 1989 debut tape. Her voice is resonant yet with some vulnerable quality - the type that mesmerizes and holds the listener - and her lyrics thoughtful and poetic, the heart being the main theme. (BP010) CS: 9.98

Faith Nolan Africville

Focusing on Black women historically and presently, Faith's original songs give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles - blues, jazz, reggae, funk, African drumming. Here is a sampling of the topics you will learn about: Regina, a woman who was jailed for killing the white man who tried to rape her; Marie Joseph Angelique is a multi-tracked acappella song about a woman who was once a slave; Divide and Rule refers to the capitalist policy used on "colonized" people, and relates to the struggle in South Africa; Nobody Knows My People attempts to reverse the invisibility awarded by history books to everyone but white males; and title song is about the relocation of the largest Black community in Canada. All accompanying musicians are Black Canadians. Don't miss this! (MCW11181) CS: 9.98

Faith Nolan Slater'ship

LP's on sale... This album focuses on the struggles and contributions of Black women: some songs relate to sexuality and lesbianism (She's Sixteen: "she is young, Black and gifted and gay..."); others to various political struggles. Also includes Leba Coffin's famous Freight Train and some traditional gospel and blues. Faith plays almost every instrument on the album: electric bass, 12-string, 6-string, slide guitar, harmonica and tambourine. (MCW11162) CS: 9.98

Faith Nolan

Freedom to Love

One of Faith's best releases! Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman; an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire; the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery; Ma Rainey's lesbian-song Prove It On Me; and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians. Recommended! (RRR003) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Faith Petric Womanchord

Each day we all grow a little older, and when we think about it, we all know where we don't wanna be... would that all of us be able to be the Gentle Gypsy, the "rambling renegade grandma" that Faith sings about. This is such a great inspirational song, we feel it's well worth the price of the tape! Also included: The Owl and The Farmer's Wife (I'll confirm, yet again, if one needs reminding, the natural superiority of women!), Womanchord; The Family of Woman and Man, and other wonderful folk songs sung by a wonderful folksinger who, in her late 70's, is still performing at women's music festivals. (CNT2) CS: 9.98

Phantom Center

One of the longest-awaited albums in the history of independent music, by an artist as singular as her name, is finally ready! Connecting rich, poetic, archetypal imagery with vibrant musical textures, it is guaranteed to create an immediate emotional impact. Instrumentalists include Barbara Higbie and Novi; songs include Stand Up, Indian Dreams, White Wing Mercy, Hesper Wisdom. (CHM74830) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Testimony

There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter... hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock "n' roll. Her testimony: "By our lives be we spirit... by our hearts be we women... by our eyes be we open... by our hands be we whole." (LUC003) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shadows on a Dime

This vibrant Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Gartwright. (LUC004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Four the Moment We're Still Standing

Canada's answer to Sweet Honey in the Rock, it's an unavoidable comparison! This 4-woman acappella group lends distinctive harmonies to primarily original material with a range of political, empowering themes, from I Love You Woman, to Intuitive (yes! Freedom's Coming), to Lydia Jackson, slave madonna... their songs reverberate with the experience and perspective of Black women everywhere. You've heard their vocals if you've heard Lillian Allen's Conditions Critical, don't miss this in either case. Recommended! (FTM1987) CS: 10.98

Girls in the Nose

One of our top picks for 1991!! Wild, raucous, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock 'n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 5-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wilder persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hut, Prisoners of Parityhouse ("So here's some advice from Girls in the Nose/ Women: urgh, take back your nose, take them back to the damn store... Lat nylons be by-gones"), and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (GIN1) CS: 9.98

Origin of the World

Whenever these gals blow their nose, audiences hold out their handkerchiefs for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands, "kicksass lesbian rockers from the Lone Star State" whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless... This 1992 release contains Breast Exam; More Madonna; Less Jesus; Pink Guitar; Medusa; Sodomy; Incongruity; and more, singing to and with sexuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pro-choice, pro-home recording! (GIN2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Gypsy Heart

Known for their bluegrass from a woman's perspective, this Georgia ensemble consists of Louisa Branscomb (harmony vocals, banjo, mandolin, lead and rhythm guitar) and Kathleen Hatfield (lead and harmony vocals, rhythm guitar), with Dede Vogt, Sally Brooks, and Al Pieper. Featured here are 9 originals by Louisa, including Steel Rails, which many of you may know from Allison Krauss' rendition of it on her 1991 Grammy winner I've Got That Old Time Feeling... and Ain't Justified about the injustice of spouse abuse and male entitlement. (LS003) CS: 9.98

Halcyon

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason - both groups employ strong vocal harmonies and ringing acoustic guitars - but Halcyon's expressive, emotional lyrics tread different waters on their debut 6-song tape. The main theme of lost love is explored from several angles, all evocative and deeply moving. Look for these women on festival stages - they're sure to be a hit! (HAL1) CS: 7.98

Before & After

Their second 6-song album is even better than their first; the harmonies are stronger and surer - sometimes they almost sound like a full chorus! Stand-out track is the opening If I Tell You Who I Am, with its moments of exquisite dissonance. Also includes Wrong Train and Good Intentions. We sure hope the next one will be a full-length album; they, and you the listeners, deserve it - but what this lacks in quantity, it makes up for in quality. Recommended! (HAL2) CS: 9.98

Old New Borrowed Blues

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults: Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written, like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Ren. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Ancient Cry and Yes To Life. BORROWED: songs like Old Jesus Hew a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom. BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 18 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print; lots of her best work here; very recommended of course! (MOP009) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Walk That Edge

Save on this LP too... Heather's seventh recording has a simple down-home flavor, a contemporary folk sound with both country and rock influences. Her lyrics and music are sometimes sassy, sometimes sultry - daring to walk that edge - and sometimes sad and haunting, with images of separations, ghosts from the past, the path not taken. Includes Let Them Talk, which when sung by Heather becomes an affirmation of love between women, and I'm Not the One, about surviving an abusive relationship, with a driving guitar solo by Sherry Shute. A wonderful! 1989 release. (MOP007) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Grandmother's Song

Save on the LP on Heather's very first release. The title song gives the perspective of a pioneer woman growing old on the prairies. Heather is also a painter, and used a beautiful original of her grandmother for the cover art. (MOP001) LP: 6.98
... CD: 9.98

I Love Women...Who Laugh

Save on the LP! This album is the embodiment of a successful transition in style, from a solid blues background to a more rock-oriented, funkier sound. Utilizing an incredible array of synthesizers, plus congas and saxophone, Heather produces strong moods and currents of emotion. Mostly original and clearly woman-identified material. Includes title cut, The Holocaust, Our Silence. Recommended. (MOP004) LP: 6.98

A Taste of the Blues

Save on the LP. This 1987 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for... that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seduced, Leslie Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armatradig's Taking My Baby Uptown (with a pretty person on my arm), Carolyn Brady's Spirit Healer, and many originals. Sumptuous jacket, fine production, excellent artistry, wonderful woman. (MOP006) LP: 6.98 ... CD: 9.98

Helen Hooke

Verse-ability

The spirit and sound of the groundbreaking 70's feminist rock group Deadly Nightshade is alive and well and dwelling in the music of this former member. Helen puts forth some of her multi-instrumental best on this self-produced 1988 release, blending electric violin, guitar, synthesizer, accordion, drums and percussion. The songs take on a personal heart/felt nature and are testimony to her "live in the moment" attitude. From the very personal I Can't Live Without You to the consciousness-raising Sex Roulette, her appealing style and dazzling violin riffs will keep your foot tapping. (NBM1001) CS: 9.98

Mass Hysteria

Toronto's premiere 4-woman band performs an inspired mix of dance music, funk and rock, and their first full-length album attests to their wit and creativity. Featuring all-around great musicianship as well as Pat Jeffries' powerful lead vocals, this 1991 release includes Heaven, a funk rave-up about a mental institution prophet, Move, a tale about the housing crisis; and He Thinks, a song which exposes the patriarchal anti-woman perspective, co-written with Lynne Fernie, who also wrote the Parachute Club's smash hit Rise Up. Recommended! (FR1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Hersong: Quad-City Women's Chorus

Peace, Justice and Harmony

This 1992 release contains 22 touching and delightful songs by this 25-member women's chorus from the Quad Cities, an Iowa-Illinois community clustered on the Mississippi River. Their music addresses women's issues, multiculturalism, love for the earth and spirituality. Includes Beware, an original feminist take-off on fairy tales and nursery rhymes; Carolyn McDade's Spirit of Life; choral renditions of songs by Pat Humphreys, Ferron, Ann Reed, Libana, Holly Near, Bernice Reagon, Theresa Edell, Carole Etzler, and others. If you sing in or enjoy listening to a women's chorus, this is for you. (HER1) CS: 9.98

You Can Know All I Am

Powerful—sometimes playful, sometimes painful look at the conditions of many kinds of women: in prison, organizing in factories, initiating relationships. More produced than her previous albums but Holly's voice still sparkles through. Concert leader is Nancy Dierow who also does a beautiful violin solo on You've Got Me Flying. Includes a women's choir, Nicola & the stunning Sister Woman Sister. (RR3600) CS: 9.98

A Live Album

Her 1974 classic second album, which captures the dynamic quality of her performances, is now back in print. Contains many of the best-loved songs about women, from a "hiking boot" mother to working class women to a friendship between a young woman and an Old Time Woman. Also includes It Could Have Been Me, Get Off Me Baby and Water Come Down. A personal favorite of this reviewer, and in an ancient quirky circumstantial way, one of the catalysts for the idea of Ladyslipper! (RR3700) CS: 9.98

Hang in There

Holly's first album, made soon after her visit to Viet Nam during the war and inspired by the experience. Reflects her anti-war/anti-imperialist and beginning feminist consciousness and a concern for oppressed people worldwide. Contains one song performed by a choir of Vietnamese women. Includes One More Genocide and Birthday Children. (RR3800) CS: 9.98

Fire in the Rain

She's done it again! Holly's incredible talent as a singer/songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (she also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this LP has a tight arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as Golden Thread, Voices, & a remake of My Man's Got Trouble called I Got Trouble. Title cut sparkles with harmonics. (RR402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Speed of Light

Polished, punchy rock 'n' roll, with an infusion of funk and reggae. Holly's musical odyssey continues! This LP has an upbeat, clean feeling, tight without a commercial, over-produced sound. Most unusual is Unity, on which she is accompanied by African Drummer, a male reggae band from Nashville. Other musicians include Adrienne Tort on piano; Carrie Barton bass; Ray Obiedo on guitar. Contains Power, an anti-nuke song; Dancing Bird; the bluesy Back Off. (RR403) CS: 9.98

Journeys

A representative sampling from her first six albums, compiled because so many folks, new to her music, have asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of It Could Have Been Me. (RR405) CS: 9.98

Watch Out!

This dynamic singer/songwriter continues to "go the extra measure in her music." Here she collaborates with the West Virginia folk and traditional quartet Trapezoid, well known for their Appalachian instruments and styles, and so enters yet another musical genre, acoustic folk music. Instrumentation here includes hammer dulcimers (played by John McCutcheon), violin, cello, mandolin, and other newcomers to Holly's original topical songs plus a few. Lorraine Durrant and Freyda Epstein from Trapezoid likewise add a fresh dimension. Includes Child (about physical and sexual abuse of children); The Meek Are Getting Ready and Step It Out Nancy. (RR406) CS: 9.98

Sky Dances

A 1989 folksy, intimate, emotion-filled release which features Holly at her absolute best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Ferron (Testimony), Bernice Johnson Reagon (They Are Falling All Around Me—especially relevant during the AIDS epidemic), Ruben Blades, Piri Ochs, Malvina Reynolds, and Holly herself (Nicaragua)—plus her inimitable interpretation of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. Her themes relate to life, death, and healing/carrying on after loss, accompanying her are John Buccino, Michael Manning, Nina Gerber. This is the style which has endeared Holly to her thousands of fans; this album should make her marly more. (RR8902) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Singer in the Storm

Coinciding with the publication of Holly's autobiography comes the next best thing to being at the once-in-a-lifetime event in person! This live recording of some of Holly's best-loved songs, recorded in Oakland in 1989, captures the vitality of her live appearances that's difficult to duplicate in a recording studio. And the song on the cake is that it features, miraculously, Ladyslipper favorite Mercedes Sosa on two songs, including Todavia Cantamos, a fantastic rendition of one of Mercedes' most popular performance pieces! Also contains Singing For Our Lives, Great Peace March, Sing To Me the Dream, Si Buscabas, We Who Believe in Freedom, and more, with John Buccino on piano, Melissa Etheridge on guitar, Linda Tillery and Rhannon on vocals. Very, very highly recommended! (CHM74832) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert

Lifeline

A majestic collaboration of generations and spirits. Ronnie was one of the Weavers in the 40's and 50's, a folk group which loudly voiced the progressive and humanist concerns of the American people until the blacklist virtually silenced them, and which won the hearts and devotion of a huge following. Holly grew up admiring Ronnie's strong, proud singing and stance, and dedicated her second album (A Live Album) to her. They got together for the filming of Wasn't That a Time?, when Ronnie was learning some of Holly's songs for the Weavers Carnegie reunion concert. Ronnie's awareness of women's issues and her consciousness of herself as a woman performer had grown because of Holly's music. They then began touring together, and this is a live recording from the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco. Styles encompass Broadway, folk, jazz, gospel. Includes the great song previously recorded by Kate Taylor, Harriet Tubman, plus Gracias a la Vida, Goodnight Irene, Hay Una Mujer (new arrangement/words), Singing For Our Lives. ### Sing to Me the Dream

HARP

When this reviewer dies and goes to folk heaven, she fully expects this recording to be heard in elevators and dentist offices. HARP bridges the gap of generations and gives a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. On this live recording, Pete and Ronnie (two original members of the legendary Weavers) lead the group on classic oldies like Jacob's Ladder, Oh, Mary Don't You Weep, Wimowah. Arlo solos with such favorites as City of New Orleans and All Over the World. Holly's solo include Fine Time and a moving medley with Ronnie of Martin Gayer's What's Going On—and her own Foolish Notion. The four perform together and weave harmonies. This is historical folk music at its best. (RR409) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hunter Davis

Torn

A wonderful sequel to Harmony, this 1988 release features more of Hunter's blossy, soulful vocals underscored by the excellent production talents of Teresa Trull. Highlights are a terrific country duet with Kris Williamson, Arm and a Leg, the blue-harp accompanied Ten Percent Masquerade, Star Struck, for those seriously crushed out on a performer, Infatuation, and more Hunter originals about love lost and found. Real well done! (RR8803) CS: 9.98

In Process...

We've filled the debut album by this 7-woman ensemble, produced by Bernice Johnson Resgon, is finally ready: spine-chilling scappella harmonies articulate and celebrate the diverse lives they share as social, political, and spiritual African American women. Their involvement began at a workshop given by the members of Sweet Honey in the Rock over several years; so imagine the quality, tradition, and consciousness you have experienced from the music of Sweet Honey, vocalized at once by 7 voices. Includes member Michelle Lanzetta's moving original composition Patchwork Quilt for those who have died of AIDS, and War Children for the massacred children of South Africa; member Pam Roger's original Wasteland, for homeless women; and Santzenina, a South African freedom song. As Evelyn Harris of Sweet Honey says: "Their repertoire is not top 40, it's top priority." Highly recommended! (JNP1) CS: 10.98

Center of Balance

Jamie's second release continues with her humorous, pointed material she's become quite known for and contains many of the songs she's performed on tour: I'm Sorry is her song of condolence for vets ("I'm sorry that you're straight! It can't be your fault! Have you tried counseling or talking to god?"). All of Me is a funny song about body image ("Don't emphasize your butt! Pretend that it's tiny! The frat thing that folks notice! shouldn't be your tiny"). Loretta and Bernadine is about her great-aunt and her long-time companion... plus her usual array of contemplative and/or weird songs. Vocal assistance given by Sue Fink, Mimi Barzewska, Leah Zicari. Always recommended! (TSU1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Closer to Home

This is a wonderfully lesbian-identified album filled with warmth, humor and honesty. From the hilarious Straight Girl Blues ("why do these straight girls look so bitch to me?"), to the sultry eroticism of Dark Chocolate ("the way to a woman's heart is through her lips/ through the shudder of her sighs and the motion of her hips"), to the country-flavored Wedding Song, which expresses outrage at a society that only gives toastier ovens to straight couples; Jamie explores topics near and dear to many of us! Her voice is sweet, delivery is straightforward, lyrics direct, thoughtful and refreshing. Highly recommended! (TSU1001) CS: 9.98

Janice DeLozier

My Time With You

This Pennsylvania artist presents 8 original songs, which feature her energetic rhythmic guitar-playing as well as her ability to create a soft mellow sound. Includes Real World, a perfect response to this election year's obsession with "Family Values" as well as a strong statement of respect and appreciation for different cultures and abilities; Out of Hand, a plea for sobriety; and a song of pride in her Grandmother. (KB1) CS: 9.98

Jasmine

Wild Strings

If you can only purchase a few albums this year, make this one of them, for sure... it is magnificent, intelligent, absolutely a pleasure. The duo is now a trio (Carol and Michelle have been joined by Lydia Ruffin), and their awesome harmonies are even fuller. They have sustained their incredible powerhouse energy, plus strength in lyric, rhythm, melody. Mostly original material; includes Across the Wide, Muleat, You Were Here, Seven Day Kiss. Produced by ace Terry Barthwaite, recorded with a full band. Very highly recommended! (CE217) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98

Jennifer Berezan

Borderlines

This very long-awaited second release finally makes it in late 1992! Nurtured on the spaciousness and the spirit of the Canadian prairies, her strong voice brings us her sensibility, her spirituality, and her insight into the poverty of the "American" way. Produced by Mike Marshall and featuring lots of great instrumental backup, by Mike, Nina Gerber, and others (FF415) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

In the Eye of the Storm

Save a buck — take the LP! Produced by Robin Flower and featuring the excellent musicianship of Barbara Higbie and Nina Gerber, Jennifer's debut recording makes a terrific splash into the body of women's music. Many political and spiritual themes, passionately moving through the music in a variety of styles from folk to reggae to rock, will awaken the listener to anger at injustice, hope, and personal power and healing. Includes a song about a lesbian teacher, Charlie Murphy's haunting song of Woman's Spirit, Burning Times, Kitchen Revolution, and more. Her guitar is impeccable, her voice strong yet gentle, and the arrangements superb! Absolutely recommended! (EOW19) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98

Leave a Little Light Behind

We knew this artist first as a contributor to the wonderful New Zealand women's LP compilation Out of the Corner many years ago, and we're glad to have her solo 1992 debut release. Born and raised in Zimbabwe, an eleven year resident of New Zealand, and now living in the US, she brings somewhat of a world perspective to women's music! Almost all songs here are originals, sometimes moving, sometimes funny, sometimes inspiring, and always delivered with knockout Klez style. They cover a wide range of topics including woman's heroism, friendship, incest, war, and our favorite Gertrude Stein; stylistically you'll hear country rock to ballads with a little Mississippi Delta sound. Welcome this not-so-new newcomer! (HLW1301) CS: 9.98

Dance in the Moment

Finally her famous Modie-Aged-Body (with Teenage Emotions), the song which speaks for a generation, is preserved, on this 1988 album! Also The Goddess Lives, Thank You Lucky Stars (I Never Married You), I Love You... But I Don't Love Your, and more. Judy's humor helps us keep things in perspective. (HON195) CS: 9.98

Livin' On Dreams

73 minutes of live music, humor and aches from this Norwegian lesbian singer-songwriter! Her political wit is still finely tuned in Take a Leap, John Paul Love That Goes the Distance commemorates the relationship between Sharon Kowalek and Karen Thompson; Al Nancy's House is a great sing-along; Fallin' Out of Love is a funny yet poignant, and familiar, tale; and even some Scandinavian folk music. Have this concert in your very own living room! (HON108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Love and Justice

This 1991 release is a collection of Judy's political songs (plus a few by Malvina Reynolds), which started out to be a small, simple, available, only-at-concerts project, until folks started clamoring for it to be available more widely, so here it is, in its simple and straightforward essence. She deals with lesbian/gay, peace, environmental, feminist and labor issues, just to name a quick few! Includes Sacred Mother, Do Not Tax Our Bodies, Callin' It Sick. Great songs, lyrics included. (HON107) CS: 9.98

Mothers, Daughters, Wives

The second release from this Australian feminist songwriter contains stories of everyday life... includes title cut, which charted on Australian radio. This is the domestic release of the same album released in Australia under the title Ladies and Gents. (RR2105) CS: 9.98

One Voice in the Crowd

A beautifully produced recording by an Australian woman who, with her prolific songwriting and dulcet voice, continues to broaden the often-too-narrow world consciousness of us U.S. citizens! Australian feminism and social protest themes are conveyed through her serious portraits (A Harp of Mine) and wry parodies (The L.P.D. — a male equivalent of the L.U.D.). Includes The Family Maiden Aunt from her first Australian release A Natural Selection, and a few songs which deny the power of U.S. presence—military and otherwise—on the international scene. (RR0503) CS: 9.98

Home Front

This wonderful folk artist presents a late '88 album of political songs covering a wide range of concerns. Annie, which some of you may know because Fred Small also recorded this, is about a lesbian school teacher; Golden Arches is an oddball spoof of the McDonald's invasion of so many countries; the title song is about the impact of the Viet Nam war on the wives, after the man comes home. Thoughtful, thought-provoking, Judy is one of the most important songwriters of our time. (RR8908) CS: 9.98

Snapshot

This 1990 release, coinciding with a repeat US tour, is a welcome addition to her collection of political and humorous protest songs; if you liked her previous albums, you'll love this one! Includes The Revolution's Here, No Tears for the Widow, Peart, The Advertising Game. (RR9003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Julie Stewart, Lena Einhorn & Frnds

Fellow Travelers

Both former members of the Annis Cecilia Women's Choir, these two girls combine sensitive issues with humorous ones, creating moments of sad tenderness and joyful identification. Many of the songs are portraits of special people: Shikha (Science), is a Hebrew parable to Yusuf Bapun, who was imprisoned in the USSR for teaching Hebrew to fellow Jews; Jody is an effort to let their friend know how lonely she is, and is accompanied by sprightly finger-picked guitar and banjo, plus a great fiddle! Also includes Garbo, Tell Me Seema, and Beats With Every Drum, dedicated to their summer rubber raft flotilla! Very well done, and highly recommended. (FEL1) CS: 9.98

So Strong

Justina & Joyce

So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from LadySlipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)!" Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works: each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording... The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Lady, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Affirmation, which states "No I will not be down, I will not submit, I will not quiet, I will resist..." a moving cover of Ferron's Testimony; and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother; 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this recording enough! (HSR101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

To Each One of Us

Karen remains Alex Dobkin's favorite songwriter, and you'll see why when you hear this album. It's a recording of extraordinary beauty and depth, weaving elements of women's spirituality with compassion, self-awareness, and love of women. Equivocal vocal harmonies by Amy Fradon and Leslie Ritter of Crystal Song; and a 10-woman Stardance Celestial Choir—which does include Alix—on Woman's Spirit Rising! Also includes Full Moonlight, Dance, Patience and Sarah, and one of this reviewer's favorite songs by Karen from one of her now-out-of-print albums—Bird of Song. Highly Recommended! (STD182) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kid Sister

North Carolina's own singer/songwriter/musician duo Piper Kessler and Ruth Vienneau debut their considerable talent on their 5-song eponymous release, and we're proud to include them in our catalog! Their vocal harmonies would do their stylistic neighbors the Indigo Girls proud as well, while their lyrics and arrangements convey a wistful longing for a spiritual home ("Rescue You/Carolina"), and for love ("Signal Fire, The Search"). The effect is sweet and comfortable, and we can't wait to hear more from them! (K51) CS: 8.98

Laura Berkson

Debut album by a talented singer-songwriter with solid roots in folk, Jewish and women's traditions, for whom music is a medium for personal growth, community empowerment and world change. Included here are many originals of note, including Maria, the story of two high school girls who won the right to attend their prom together (it's a famous story now, mostly because of Laura's song); To Be Strong, for people with AIDS and their families/friends/lovers; Miriam who led the Jewish women out of the wilderness towards freedom; Open Eyes, featuring Laura's beautiful piano. (BA101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Menstrual Hut (EP Tape)

A 19-minute debut cassette from one of the most distinguishing talents for our new 1990 catalog, and a voice you won't forget. Laura identifies strongly as a lesbian/feminist woman of color, and her material reflects this consciousness — both original songs and some carefully selected traditional folksongs. To her own guitar accompaniment, she presents, with a voice laden with depth and texture, her song I'm Your Daughter's Lover; Listen To Me, a tribute to Native American women; Wit-M-M-i-N; a spectacular rendition of the traditional Wayfaring Stranger, the title song, and more. We're sure this isn't the last we'll hear from Laura, but make this your introduction. Highly recommended! (OB1) CS: 8.98

Z Therapy

Laura's second release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band — thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat G! Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos; Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurio Freelove

Smells Like Truth

We're predicting big success for this artist — both because her debut solo 1991 album is pretty great, and also because it's receiving a substantial promotional push from the major label who released it. Anyone who has the Two Nice Girls self-titled album will recognize her name and her music; she was one of the original trio, and several of her own songs were recorded there, including one which appears here too, Heaven on Earth. Caddy, her vocal qualities bring to mind, for this reviewer, early Jefferson Airplane... not Grace Slick, but rather the male vocalist who sang some of the slower, quieter songs... Her material is intense and emotive, "combining vibrant, syncopated guitar work with a telegraphic poetry of sound and feeling." (Some of that was from an old Two Nice Girls PR sheet, and it's still true!) All original songs here except for one perfect, brilliant rendition of Tim Buckley's Song to the Siren. Unique, compelling, hypnotic, and very highly recommended! (CHR2184) CS: 10.98

Leah Zicari

Wouldn't That Be Fun?

A pretty super-duper lesbian-affirming tape by a femme dyke-with-bike-with-guitar, and a must for every woman who's ever had a crush on Martina ("Martina I'm wishing that you would serve me/ Back and forth and me/ Come on and court me/ I'm wishing that love is the score")! Also includes What Kind of Self-Respecting Lizzie Is She? with additional verses built upon the Romanovsky and Phillips song; Lava; Glory Glory ("Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the queens", with an entire chorus)... and several other lovely lesbian songs. Add to that good voice, accompaniment and arrangements, and you have a definitely recommended tape! (GEN2233) CS: 9.98

Lee de Anza

A Touch of Love

Lee isn't the real name of this Latina lesbian from Texas; she uses an alias to protect her musical career in the "straight" world of the Latin pop market. This album, with one song in Spanish and the rest in English, contains woman-to-woman love songs (some covers), with styles from Top 40, Latin, rock and country. She plays guitar, bass, drums, keyboards, and sings lead and back-up vocals. Includes Solo Tu, You Are My Lady, All the Woman I Need, Lady In Red, She's Like the Wind. (INT1002) CS: 9.98

If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accords vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. Perhaps most notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; also includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women; Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children so-called; and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on thee! An excellent debut album. (TR1001) CS: 8.98 CD: 14.98

Thinking Like a Mountain

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including title plus is That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams; Go, Holy Thing to Love; and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. Recommended. (TR1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Linda Tillery

Secrets

A soul-stirring, heart-warming, up-tempo, long-awaited, highly recommended album by this master of R & B/jazz/blues/contemporary music! This LP has achieved well-deserved play on black commercial radio. Count On Me fits right in there; The Chosen One gives us political nourishment; Fever in a jazz rendition which tops any previous power gives us chills... and a new insight into the relationship between Pocahontas and Sacajawea! Basin Street, a Trill-Chindo collaboration, is also a fine song. Demonstrating the sly and varied nuances in her vocal power, sure to gain her a wider audience. (BLF736) CS: 9.98

Colorblind Blues

A.k.a. one-fourth of the fabulous Venus Envy band, half of the comedy duo Dos Fallopia, former Fabulous Dyketopia Ms. Koch ("Coke") has put together a smashing trio solo release; great production, vocals, lyrics — shades of June Millington meets Kate Clinton! Features the lovely All Night Long, the hilarious Beaver Cleaver Fever, the semi-autobiographical retro tune Hickey, and the AIDS anthem, Light of a Memory. Loads of talent here — a must! (TNG1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lorraine Segato

Porrainex

Almost impossible to get, but we've managed to locate a supplier... Lorraine herself! 1990 solo release by the lead singer of the Parachute Club. We hope to be able to keep this in stock more consistently than before... we have an ample supply as we go to press. (WB71202) CS: 10.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay

I Want You To Know Who I Really Am

Also known as Lucie's "Coming Out Kit," this cassette (1-song tape) is perfect to send to parents, family, old friends, "...and if you love me as much as I love you/ then you'll love me/ even if I'm not like you..." The insert even gives contact addresses for organizations such as PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays). (DS001) CS: 8.98

Transformations

Another charmed release for late 1992 from this charming performer; songs in both English and French include Chez Nous, All Out of Love Tonight, Homeless, Sail Away, The Guilty One. (OL967) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Olivia has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Cris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Cris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Cris, Tril Fura, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McCalla. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — treat yourself now! Recommended. (OL947) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tendresse/Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her second album includes perceptive socio-political songs: Poétique, Peaking, ever-touching love songs: Montreal, Absence, and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lydia Lunch

Conspiracy of Women (C.O.W.)

"My language is not silence. My song is the scream, terror dwells in the shadow of my wings, my hoops is my first battle and my last gasp. I am the knife with which the dead crack open the ceiling." This recording, taken from a seminar Lydia gave in Berlin in 1990, utilizes her no-holds-barred poetry, narrative, stories, performance art (and creative dispatch of an anti-abortion heckler) to express her stark perspectives on living in a male-dominated world — there's a lot of anger here, and sadness, and no pretty solutions, but if you're interested in hearing an incredibly raw, creative, brilliant artist put her heart on the line, by all means get this album and get ready for some inspiration. Intensely recommended! (or recommended for the intense!) (WSP21) CD: 15.98

You Are What You Wear

Yet another funny album from the dyke queen of cabaret camp. To further explain Lynn's musical and theatrical style, let us just say that she performs with the "leisure duo" Romanovsky & Phillips in the "Leather and Lace Tour," and guess who wears what! This album ranges from the very serious Anne Frank, in which she reminds us that "Silence Equals Death," to the humorous account of That Festive Little Neighborhood ("instead of politicians, we've a queen"). (BNT3176) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

I'd Rather Be Cute

"I'm trying first of all to entertain. Second, I want to raise an awareness in people's minds of the state of gay life today, to show the ways we are similar and the ways we are different. And third, I am trying to pay off a 1983 Honda Accord." This Jewish lesbian from Brooklyn performs humorous material in a cabaret style, from A Mother's Lament ("Please, Lynn, don't wear leather pants to the seder! and please cover your tattoo at the seder") to First Dyke On 'Dynasty'. (BNT61368) CS: 9.98

Something Different

From the title song: "All the other little girls liked Fried! I fell in love with Ginger... All the other girls would braid their heads! combed my hair with Bibi-Creme/Greasy all right, but something different..." Humorous, touching, affirming, these songs are mostly from her cabaret acts, and have titles like: Shelly, You've Gone Nelly on Me, Come to the Bars, The Role Playing Tapes, 38 Barbary Lane (with reference to Armistead Maupin's Doll-of-the-decade Tales of the City book series). Piano accompaniment. (BNT92329) CS: 9.98

Lynn Thomas

Courage

If the Rocky Horror Picture Show ever does a sequel, we want Lynn's opening song, Dykes, to be featured! Utilizing a variety of upbeat styles, and singing with a vocal strength reminiscent of Bette Midler, Lynn performs and performs songs like Lavender Love, Best Friend, Game Fishing, and the lovely Conditions. (LT1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

M.J. Torrance

I Feel Fine

What a delight for us folk/rock devotees that Girls in the Noise have "released" guitarist M.J. Torrance long enough to record this surprisingly sophisticated debut album! Echoes of Melissa Etheridge, Amy Ray and Janis Joplin easily stand out, but the spark is M.J.'s own. Her lyrics defy easy interpretation — which means we didn't entirely "get" them after one listen. But that's okay because we're already looking forward to playing this provocative collection of acoustic songs again. (M/T1) CS: 9.98

COME FOLLOW ME / MELANIE DeMORE

Melanie DeMore
Come Follow Me

Recipient of standing ovations, Melanie is one of the most exciting new recordings performing artists in women's music of the 90s! "Hard as opium", "swept as chocolate", "strong as knots", "round as a waterdrop" are some of attempts to describe her voice in words; others have compared her to Faith (ol' Tuck and) or Joan Armatrading. She's the director of Voices, the Bay Area Lesbian Choral Ensemble, and her expertise in vocal possibilities is evident here, as well as her incredible range. Includes Black Jewels (in the Dawn), Glad to be Alive (Nappy Head Song). Hear her debut tape, and watch for her at festivals and concerts! (MDM1) CS: 9.98

Melanie DeMore
Share My Song

Melanie's bouyant vocals and rich lyrics, rooted in African American folk tradition, are captured in this 1992 release, featuring the title track, plus Lady Of Peace, I Hear the Mother Calling, Rise Up, Song for Mera, Kumbia and a sizzling rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Recommended (RR9203) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Melanie Monsur
Opus K-4

Her long-awaited second recording features her all-instrumental compositions, performed on her Kawai K-4 digital synthesizer. The result is a captivating blend of styles and moods, both contemplative and rhythmic, melodic and just plain lovely. We especially love her piece Caverna; also includes Saved by the Saints, Ocean Good-bye. Produced and recorded by the talented June Millington. (MLM2) CS: 9.98

Melanie Morrison
The Way You Move

This is an exciting debut album with a soulful, jazzy, sensual, sophisticated, bluesy sound. Melanie's clear voice soars through complex instrumental arrangements, as she sings her original songs about loving women; of matters of the heart; of souls and bodies connecting. Title cut is particularly hot! At this writing she's beginning to tour the festival circuit with her band, and we hope to see her on our coast soon! (MMM101) CS: 9.98

Melissa Etheridge
Never Enough

Fans will be relieved to know that this 1992 release maintains the power and intensity of previous albums while recreating that surreal Melissa Etheridge landscape of passion and obsession. These ten original songs once again demonstrate her virtuosity and versatility, her strength and her vision. We started to wonder, however, if there hadn't been some changes in her life with songs like The Letting Go and Keep It Precious. The tongue-in-cheek Must Be Crazy For Me and charged 2001 reassured us that she hadn't changed too much though. Recommended! (PLG310120) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Brave and Crazy

With tremendous energy and one of the sexiest voices ever recorded, Melissa sequels her blockbuster debut with an album guaranteed to please. From the chilling You Can Sleep While I Drive to the stirring No Sorrow, she produces great range of tempo and rhythm, mixed with some of the most provocative lyrics in mainstream music. Also includes The Angels and Resilly. Highly recommended! (PLG842302) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Melissa Etheridge

Known as "Melissa" to women's audiences, her high-powered debut album has made a significant impact in the commercial music world. It's full of raw passion, sexuality, intensity and emotion, explicitly lustful in a manner that's quite rare in a woman's musical repertoire... mesmerizing, and quite refreshing! All original songs with her own acoustic guitar and additional instrumentation, fairly produced, includes Similar Features and Bring Me Some Water. Recommended! (PLG842303) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Monica Grant
Harbor Girl

Produced by Melanie Monsur and featuring supporting talents of Gayle Marie, Nina Gerber and other women, this 1989 debut tape contains some humorous originals as PMS, Best Girl and Carving Out Story, plus the more serious Cover's Lullaby and title song. An up-and-coming talent to watch out for. (GAN1) CS: 9.98

Monica Grant
The Heart Of It

Backed by a full band (lots of great women musicians!) for her 1991 release, this SF Bay area singer/songwriter/guitarist/humorist serves up a righteous helping of her original witty, heartful, and honest songs. The Zenith of Love bemoans living in the state of Pre-Orgasm ("I would kill for just one sperm"), It's Your Good-byes is a country-flavored, bouncy response to being dumped which features Crystal Reeves' gorgeous fiddle work, and Just the Idea Of You is a straightforward, sad-yet-lovely relationship piece ("Like two little children, we race for that victim chair, someone loses when someone gets there..."). The Coodenography Poika is this reviewer's favorite tho! Highly recommended. (GAN102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

They Are Not a Trio

They say, "We're a band, not a duo." All we can say is, "Yes, Ma'am!" Comprised of keyboardist/vocalist Connie Grauer and drummer/vocalist Kim Zick, Mrs. Fun's approach to jazz is akin to BETTY's approach to funk stretch it! Stylistically urban, futuristic, rhythmic and irreverent; 10 of the 12 songs are original, including Lulus Lament, highlighted by k.d. lang's vocal contribution, and 1 of the 2 "covers" is a seriously twisted take of Stand By Your Man. Mrs. Fun also played backup on k.d.'s contribution to the Red, White and Blue album, as well as showing up on Phranc's I Enjoy Being a Girl. Here they also employ the talents of several other great female instrumentalists. Great... check them out! (LU002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Parachute Club

Wild Zone: Essential Parachute Club

This 15-track retrospective contains some of the most incredible, political material this band has ever recorded: 2 versions of their super-hit Rise Up (one of the best songs of the century) — the original plus a new 1992 dance remix — as well as Boys Club, Sexual Intelligence, Alienation and more... from their 3 previous albums, self-titled, At the Feet of the Moon, and Small Victories. Very highly recommended, we're relieved that some of this material is once again available! (RCA17294) CS: 10.95 ... CD: 16.98

At the Feet of the Moon

Save on the LP here! Another excellent effort by Canada's foremost political rock band... and one of this reviewer's favorite albums of theirs. The overall production and instrumentation is tighter and highly synthesized, while the lyrics remain political and inspiring. Songs include: Innocent, Sexual Intelligence, Freedom Song, Walls and Laws. Highly recommended. (RCA0553) LP: 8.99 ... CS: 10.98

Small Victories

Great band, great album, now at a really great price, and even greater on the LP. Lorraine Segato's the lead singer of the Parachute Club, and their third album maintains the band's integrity and is simultaneously their most mainstream so far. Produced by John Oates, of Hall & Oates, includes Love Is Fire, Tearing the Veil, Rhythm of the Heartbeat, Waves, Love and Compassion. The talents of this group are way beyond ordinary! (RCA5743) LP: 4.98 ... CS: 6.98

The Folkways Years 1955-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England; and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be An Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Willie Tyson's Debutante went out of print... we're thrilled the song's back in print, by its author no less, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face; Fred Small's talking Wheelchair Blues; and lots more... frankly, her best material ever! (Except for cover graphics) we highly recommend it! (SF40048) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Familiar Faces

A wonderful reform recording—and a very feminist one—by one of our favorite folk artists! Plenty of fresh material relevant to women's lives, including Carry Gwentham Home, about the women's peace movement; Woman's Union, Woman on Wheels, for women in wheelchairs; and other topical songs of solidarity with a variety of movements, with poignant and humorous story-telling lyrics. Peggy gives the listener a personal and up-close look at her subjects' "familiar faces." (RR8905) CS: 9.98

Peggy Ward

We Are the Dance

Anyone who recognizes the vast talent that's emanating from Canada these days will want to check this Alberta woman out! Her voice is deep and strong and sure and beautiful; her lyrics woman-affirming, anti-racist, anti-patriarchy, pro-gay, environmental, all those good things. Includes Sophia's Song, Bring 'er Around Lass, People Belong to the Land. (L0L1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Phranc

Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60's music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader; member and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful acappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Garrude Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG848202) CS: 10.98

Folksinger

Phranc, whose music is a blend of topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary, has come somewhat full circle, early women's movement, to LA punk scene, playing with bands like Nervous Gender and Catholic Discipline, to modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective. This is one of few lesbian recordings to be reissued on an independent label other than one associated with women's music, includes the laudatory Caroline, Ballad of the Dumo Handreiser, One of the Girls, Female Mud Wrestling, Handcapped Amazons, ("I wanna live with Marlene, like Nancy Lieberman"). Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. Very highly recommended! (RH894) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 14.98

Polianna Frank

No Choosing

This lesbian/Israeli production features early-Kate Bush-like keyboards and arrangements, electric guitar, drums, and lyrics in Hebrew and English, which deserve a new category — perhaps "Apocalyptic Pop"? Songs in English include Dyked and the Holy War ("I won't help murderers and rapists/ Struggling to be free"), Escape Will Always Fail ("... Even drama queens and heroes know/ Escape will always fail"), Measure Every Grain of Meat, and a reverent version of Strange Fruit. Some funny Bob Dylan-esque phrasing and joke lyrics. For US women, the album represents an important connection with the international lesbian community... recommended! (POL843) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Reach Across the Lines

Rachel is an incredible multi-talented musician, who has taken an artistic approach to confronting the issue of racism and to moving people past the "isms" of sex, class, and race. Her work is a combination of poetry, music and performance, with wonderful scat, choral layering, haunting harmonies, utilizing the human voice in a myriad of ways, especially in the 3 versions of the stand-out title cut. She says the music of many peoples dance in her veins: Indian (Hindu) chants, southern root-women's stories, Baptist ministers, jazz and gospel musicians, Celtic harpists, Cherokee, and classical training, and you'll hear all this and more on her debut tape. Highly recommended! (OTB101) CS: 9.98

Rashida Oji

Big Big Woman

This fall 1992 release last-minute catalog addition has been described as honest, playful, innovative, intense, powerful... and as "bleeding, crying and laughing all at the same time." She combines the honesty of women's stories with contemporary music, drawing from spiritual, folk and rap. Her deliveries range from the acappella Vivry's Song, about an embalmed black woman, to acoustic ballads as well as dance tunes with a full band, such as title cut; also includes the notable No Way about the pain of incest and battery. We're certain we'll recommend it once we've heard it! (FAB404) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Reel World

Appalachian Wind

This all-woman band celebrates their tenth anniversary of making music together with this 1990 album featuring several additional female musicians as guest performers. They alternate lead vocals on this great selection of songs — several original, and several about women. Includes Haitouise Lament, Lily May, Mama Used to Dance, Eileen's Song, as well as the South African freedom song Too Many People and Bernice Reagon's Chile, Your Waters Run Red Through Soweto — different material for a stringband — plus a lovely instrumental. (FF517) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alive!, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material: from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Sheranadeah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Volcestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Rose, Janet Small, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Geber, Barbara Borden and others. This album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! (LR202) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Loosen Up and Improvise

This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alive!) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns... exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon takes you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique; if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHN1) CS: 9.98

Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy... for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-up, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHW2) CS: 9.98

Robin Flower

Babies with Glasses

This 1987 release chronicles the development of this instrumentalist singer/songwriter's new acoustic sound, a mixture of bluegrass with jazz influences and bits of rock and classical strains. Contains 8 originals plus 2 by ace violinist Crystal Reeves, including a couple of lightning instrumentals. The War Song, the sensual Midnight Soup. With the Bleachers — lots of great women musicians! (FF428) CS: 9.98

Robin Flower & Libby McLaren!

This self-produced 1989 cassette features the talents of two of the industry's finest instrumentalist singer/songwriters. Their lyrics are catchy and relevant, the arrangements tight, and their voices light and sweet. Includes Back to Her, Movie Music, Oregon Waltz, Denver to LA (these last two originally recorded on Robin's debut album More Than Friends, one of our favorites and unfortunately out of print). (RFL1) CS: 9.98

Ronnie Gilbert

Love Will Find A Way

Ronnie's 1989 solo release includes Music in My Mother's Accuse, The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, Happy Birthday Mrs. Miller, No Rockin' Chalk, and more great folk songs affirming women, growing older, love, and humanity in general. Primarily recorded live in concert, with John Buchino. Dedicated to her dear friend Donna. (AA915) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Spirit Is Free

On this, Ronnie's first solo recording in over 20 years, we hear stories of liberation and struggle. Ronnie is one of the original members of the Weavers, and her sense of history is clearly portrayed in this recording. With Holly Near on back-up vocals, Ronnie's title cut makes you want to leap with pleasure. Also includes Midnight Special, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and Judy Small's Mother's Daughters. Wives, a definite must for any serious folk collector. This woman has still got what it takes to pluck the heartstrings of social justice. (RR408) CS: 9.98

Rude Awakening

Dedicated to rude girls everywhere and to their awakening, this lively women's acoustic quartet presents a fine debut folk album. High on heart-breaking harmonies, strung instruments, original tunes like Female Rambling Sailor, Ballad of Francine Hughes ("The Burning Bad"), The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, and Pete Sutherland's Yuppe T-Y-O ("get a job you old hippie"). Excellent production by Cathy Fink, back-up by Abby Neelson, Nancy Maxner and other women... we recommend it heartily. (FF424) CS: 9.98

Mixed Messages

This long-awaited follow-up to their slap-in-the-face debut, this feminist string band is not afraid to get raunchy, even downright rude. As Ronnie Gilbert testifies on the back of their outlandish album art, "You Rude Girls don't know when to stop, do you? Thank goodness! I love your outrageously mixed messages." Includes Melvina Raynotes, We Don't Need the Men (one of this reviewer's all-time faves) and the condom-awareness song Safety First. (FF511) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sanders, Kass & White
Feels Like Home

With a song roster reading like a Ladyslipper Best-Seller List (covers of songs by Ferrer, Chris Williamson, Connie Kaldor, plus Christine Lavin's hilarious Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind), and some touching originals (Be Still is a beautiful ballad about a person with AIDS, and is dedicated to the Names Project), this women's vocal trio conjures up some astounding harmonies, mostly in a jazz ballad style. You may recognize Anne Louise White from Trapeze's Moon Run album. Backup instrumentation is simple, with piano, guitar and bass, lending more room for their voices to dance and weave and intertwine. Highly recommended! (WSK101) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Sapphic Journeys

A unique album, and now at a great price! The music makes this tape of lesbian erotic poetry by a variety of authors outstanding. The intermittent accompaniment on violin, viola, harp and flute—refined, wonderful, exquisite—was composed and arranged (and strings played) by E. Marcy Dieterow, who has done string arrangements and performed on various women's music recordings including Chris Williamson's The Changer and the Changed. The music glides from oyster-like passion to gentle reflection and savoring. The poetry, by Sappho, Floris Bavenport, Carol Schmidt, and others, is read by Elaine Monet and Dimitra Stukas, an all-woman production; don't miss it! (WOM201) CS: 6.98

She Is
Kissing in the Deep End

Ripping dream of consuming passion... sweet, soft longing... young love... hot funky leather and lace... bubbling cool fun. Does any of this interest you? Get this 1992 5-song collection of original women's music by this DC-area 4-women band; includes Billboard Magazine's award-winning song, In My Dreams. (LSP495) CS: 7.98

Sue Fink
True Life Adventure

Sue's long-awaited second album of "songs of risk and reality" has finally been released in 1999, with two of her most fantastic songs in her Big Promise tradition—Popular War and Letters to Mine—as well as many other fine originals, more in a jazzy pop torchy style. It's a very polished, sophisticated production; if you're an Anita Baker fan, or a Sue Fink fan of course, you won't want to miss this True Life Adventure. (FRO101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sue Fink
Big Promise

Size on the LP! On this globally important album, this wild and crazy woman unleashes her boundless energy, wit, and genius. It opens with the first totally contemporary (we wave it dance tune from a female perspective, Boys Are Thugs... proceeds with The End Is Near, the anti-nuke, technological extravaganza featuring the LA Women's Community Chorus, expressing the wisdom of a bag-lady, then, to slice-cut, a technopop tune about a woman who relates to a politician who promises her the same big choices he promises the voters... and more, from ballads to jazz to straight-ahead rock. The overall result is polished, creative, funny, refreshing, substantive and outrageous. Very highly recommended, if we do say so ourselves! (LR201) LP: 6.98 CD: 9.98

Suede

Easily Suede

Suede's long-awaited debut solo album features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Dotcha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals. Finally you can take her home... her music, that is. (EAS1001) CS: 9.98

Suede

Barely Blue

This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy, bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister My Foolish Heart), as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Buocchio songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Buocchio and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sunny McHale Skyedancer
Lesbian Nation

Subtitled One Nation Among Many, this 1991 album (her 3rd) represents one of the best lesbian-affirming submissions we've received lately — there aren't many to choose from anymore. You'll appreciate her wry and affirming humor shining through her lyrics in these 13 songs... her voice is strong and versatile, and her acoustic guitar accompaniment clear and melodic. In songs such as Got No Need For Scared, Keep Goin' Out, Hummingbird, Sweet, she takes the essence of her life as a lesbian and distills it into songs which contain insight and celebration, weave webs of cultural power, shatter shackles of homophobia, and offer unexpected resolutions to daily problems. (SMS5910) CS: 9.98

Susan Graetz
Somewhere Between

Susan tragically died in 1985; but she gave a lot to Ladyslipper, and we'd like everyone to know her spirit and her music, which live on. Her album of 14 original, traditional and contemporary songs attests to her great sense of humor and strong love for woman. Includes Peace Camp (to the tune of Downtown), I Don't Know Where I'm Going (to the tune of I Know Where I'm Going), Why Do You Bob Your Hair, Girls, More Pretty Girls Than One, I'm Not Too Fat, Healing Time, and feature Kay Gardner on flute, among others. Susan's voice was big and wise—she sang it right out! (OOW001) LP: 1.98 CD: 2.98

Susan Herrick

Loving Me

Now that you (hopefully) have Susan's newer album, some of you will probably want this debut folk recording too! While not specifically dealing with recovery issues, there is a strong healing theme — not surprising from a music therapist! Includes Wartiness, The Dreams I Work For Are Mine, Step By Step, Inner Voice, The Embrace, title song... plus White Porch (a lovely image of two old lesbians in rocking chairs comes to this reviewer's mind). (SH1) CS: 9.98

Susan Herrick
Truth & the Lie

A remarkable recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! (WFR1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Highly recommended. (RR412) CS: 9.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie Unexpected

The women of this dynamic duo show their stuff on this LP as they have been doing on four around the country. An eclectic bunch of styles — country, gospel, ballads — some simple, some fairly produced. Barbara is a pianist extraordinaire — don't miss her LPs on Windham Hill. (see "Jazz" section). Includes our favorite Melissa Manchester oldie, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.98

Terry Garthwaite Moving Day

Now back in print, and for the first time on cassette! This 1985 release contains mostly original material in a contemporary vein, softer than previous releases, and one she considers to be more truly representative of her sound, with her sultry expressive voice right up front. Back-up musicians include Barbara Borden, Mary Fetteg, Sheila Glover, and — on the outstanding cut Mother Earth — the San Geronimo Valley Girls. For those of you too young to remember, Terry (along with Toni Brown) was one of the first women to form and lead a successful rock 'n' roll band. The Joy of Dooking; and she was one of the most enthusiastically-received performers at some of the early Michigan festivals. So give your fore-mothers some respect! Buy this! (FJ007) CS: 10.98

The Therapy Sisters Multiple Personalities

Laboratory-tested, original songs of love, anger, and conflict resolution in which More, Gail and Lisa convert mundane situations into opportunities for self-actualization. Their music goes through mood swings, from tongue-in-cheek to heart-on-sleeve. Lisa beams her job in Gyps in Tass, while Gail sings a poignant coming out song to her mother in Ocean. Kathy Kornloff from Two Nice Girls joins them for their punk ballad of a Middle Class White Girl who seeks a hipper image, if only for an evening. At least as much fun as your next therapy session. (TS1001) CS: 9.98

The Therapy Sisters Relapse

The Therapy Sisters are back with more harmonic tonic to keep your spirits high! Their 1991 second release contains 14 tunes, including the anatomically correct An Auditory Laboratory, the solidarity-conscious Muffie and I Are One, Moms and Dads will relate to the explosive Teenager and Five Day for the Blues. Also includes Peanuts Envy and Shopping. For those who believe in the healing power of music! (TS1002) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Tiye Giraud Hokumbe! (Celebration!!)

Seven years the lead singer and percussionist with Woman of the Calabash, and now a founding member of the 4-woman ensemble LadyGourd Sangoma, this incredible artist performs traditional music of the Black diaspora. She draws upon African celebration, work, praise and love songs, slave songs from the American South, and stories from the Caribbean, reinterpreting and blending genres, rhythms, vocal styles and cultural traditions. From Soporesa to Gap (both written to O' Lady Dinah) to perhaps the most outstanding track of the album, Moo Mae — a celebration song from Angola's Zaire — Tiye completely draws the listener into her material, which she adapted, arranged, plays various traditional percussion (some of which she handcrafted) such as bembias, mbedus, gourds, and sings; her voice has rightly been called "so malleable, percussive and snaky that it is mesmerizing." A note, a personal priority of hers is researching and exploring the music of third world women everywhere. One of our top picks for 1992... very highly recommended! (TOR1) CS: 9.98

Topp Twins High Time

Jocie and Lynda Topp, our favorite New Zealand sibling duo, bring their offbeat humor, genetic harmonies, and a unique acoustic guitar sound to this 1992 release and last-minute addition to our catalog! (TOP3) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Toshi Reagan Justice

Finally, it's here... a stunning new album from this young multi-instrumentalist and singer-songwriter who fuses traditional soul with contemporary energy. The material here is mostly original, though she does include a Georgia Sea Island song and Sting's Walking in Your Footsteps. With her famous mother, Bernice Johnson Reagan of Sweet Honey in the Rock, as well as GSalisbury-Dupree and Ametia Aguilera. Recommended! (FF526) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Toshi Reagan Demonstrations

Not only a "strong voice in a new generation of Black women's music," a really fine voice, fine songwriting and stylistically distinctive musicianship from this woman of diverse and growing talents, Toshi plays electric lead and rhythm guitar, acoustic guitar, drums and bass, and does lead and background vocals. Co-producer with Toshi and a contributing percussionist and vocalist is Toshi's mom, Bernice Reagan of Sweet Honey in the Rock. The folk and rock 'n' roll-ish numbers here are equally strong. (TR582) CS: 9.98

Tracy Chapman Matters of the Heart

At last, you can hear the young singer/songwriter everyone's been talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary; her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Takin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fear Can For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL6077X) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Tracy Chapman Crossroads

The second release by this Grammy-winning artist is an exploration into new styles and techniques, while maintaining her tradition of exposing life's realities through often haunting ballads: a worthy follow-up to her first album! (EL60888) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Tracy Chapman Matters of the Heart

This 1992 release captures ten original songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her folk-rock melodies and literate, lyrical compassion. Her evocative vibrato soars with hope on Dreaming On a World, Bang Bang Bang turns an unthinking eye on the frightening realities of the urban poor; while Open Arms is a love song for real people in an often harsh world; also includes Woman's Work, I Used To Be a Sailor. Throughout the album, her voice rings clear and her vision shines true. (EL61215) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Tracy Drach Another Door

LadySlipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own Slippers! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing, whether performing solo or opening for such acts as k.d. lang or the Washington Sisters. This late 1990 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Laura Berkson's Miriam, to her lyric tale of young novice Sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. With a little piano help from Nancy Day and a style that is uniquely Tracy, this album marks a personal favorite around our office and is wholeheartedly recommended. (DND001) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Tret Fure Terminal Hold

Gradually becoming a familiar presence on the music scene, starting with a solo LP in the 70's (now out-of-print) and later known as a back-up musician and vocalist for June Millington, Tret Fure (pronounced "Fury") is now squarely in the spotlight where she belongs. Her lyrical and vocal abilities bring an inevitable yet positive comparison to Chris Williamson, who co-produces and sings harmony vocals here. The songs are mostly rock ballads, with a scrappy insistence towards what can only be termed "melodic new wave." Songs include Angel Fire, Cold, Cold Heart, Annie Aircraft. (SW22009) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure Edges of the Heart

Her long-awaited second release peeks her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements; a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly-hot number Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. Recommended! (SW22009) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure Time Turns the Moon

This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual!), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Two Nice Girls Chloe Liked Olivia

Vinyl on sale! Funny, kitschy, feisty, smart, brave, sexy, political, warm, or just plain wonderful... all of these qualities are in abundance on their 1991 release, a musical hybrid which transcends the boundaries of most musical genres. From the faux-disco of Let's Go Bording, to the smooth-as-Smokey Swimming in Circles, to The Queer Song and Princess of Power (be on the lookout for the video!), the Girls have outdone themselves with 10 brilliant songs that run their usual range from tender to tongue-in-cheek. Title is from a Virginia Woolf novel. Highly recommended! (RTR262) LP: 6.98 . . . CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Two Nice Girls 2 nice girls

This classic is now only on LP... so grab one while you still can! They're not two, they're not nice, and they're not girls; they are three talented women who make great music together! If you can imagine the layered harmonies and humor of the Roches, blended with vibrant, kaleidoscopic imagery as well as a true women-identified sensibility, you'll have an inkling of the Girls' style. They spoof hetero love, in I Spent My Last $10.00 (On Birth Control and Beer); they sing of their women-lovers unself-consciously. And their rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection, which they integrate into Dear Jane, is alone worth the price of the album. Highly recommended! (RTR58) LP: 7.98

Two Nice Girls Like A Version

Save bucks on the vinyl! This 1990 EP release contains primarily covers... of material by artists from Donna Summers to Ronie Youth, Carpenter to Janis Martin! Also included is I Spent My Last $10.00, from their debut album. Six songs in all. (RTR78) LP: 5.98 . . . CS: 7.98 . . . CD: 12.98

Various Artists Fried Green Tomatoes: O.S.T.

If you loved the movie, you may want this as a memento! Includes Patti Labelle's performance of the Bessie Jackson tune Barbecue Bessie; a couple of contributions by gospel wailer Marion Williams, plus the instrumental Visioning Ruth. (MCA10461) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

For Therese

On March 10, 1995, to celebrate Therese Eodel's 40th birthday, a group of artists and friends gathered to put on a one-of-a-kind concert that was also a loving tribute to Therese and her musical contributions; and, lucky for us, 60 minutes of this event have been preserved! Therese produced the album, which features musicians like Sue Fink, Becky Lippin, Kay Gardner, Deirdre McCauley, Nydia Mara, the Atlanta Families' Women's Choir, and the MUSE choir... instrumentation such as flute, oboe, bassoon, cello, harp, Glockenspiel... and songs which include Betsy's For Therese, Sue Fink performing Therese's Emma, plus Sister Heath's Calendar Days, Katie's Song, Good Friends Are the Best, Holly's Waltz, and O My Friends, co-written by Therese. Some songs even feature combined choirs! An early 1991 release, we know it will be fabulous! (SEA312) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Live performances by Holly Near, Kay Gardner, Alex Dobkin, Ferron, Lucia Blue Tremblay, and others have been superbly engineered into a body of work which flows as beautifully as the landmark festival it commemorates. A must for every lover of women's music, and a perfect gift for anyone! (MF010) CS: 14.98

Voices of Battered Lesbians
This 1990 tape was produced by the Lesbian Caucus of the Massachusetts Coalition of Battered Women Service Groups, created by survivors, and features the experiences of battered lesbians from differing cultural, economic and racial backgrounds. Opening with Alex Dobkin's Fittin' of True Love, it attempts to define abusive behavior and to dispel the myths surrounding what is still a very taboo subject in our communities. It would be helpful for anyone wondering whether her situation should be considered battering, and useful for anyone working with battered women. Includes support services numbers, including 1-800-333-SAFE. 30 min. (MCB1) CS: 7.95

Venus Envy

Understated
This debut album of hot sounds by identical twins Sandra and Sharon is full of unique harmonies and special songs: Breathe, Sweet Inspiration, Brown Like Me, Find the Spirit, and more. Acappella funk is combined with contemporary pop/folk/jazz and a touch of calypso. Back-up vocals by Linda Tillery and Vicki Randle; expertly produced by Teresa Trull. Out of print, limited quantity, hurry! (ICE221) CS: 10.98

The Washington Sisters

Take Two
Even better and more stylistically diverse than the harmonizing twins' first album, this 1991 follow-up includes blues, jazz, swing, country, and love songs. Most songs by Sandra, plus Sharon makes her debut as a songwriter here with Next Step, a touching love ballad. Also includes Pray for Peace, an upbeat Brazilian dance tune; Fly Me Away, a bossa-nova calypso acappella number with voice orchestra; and others they've been performing in concert. Produced by Teresa Trull, with back-up artists such as Linda Tillery, Melanie Moivre, Nina Gerber, Paul McCandless, John Bucchino, even Teresa herself. (SH5222) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Wimmin on the Edge
Herstory from the Edge

Highly harmonic songs of loving and healing, punctuated by an unexpected sense of humor, mark this wonderful debut album. With an unusual sound — a 67 Les Ford electric guitar, finger-picked in a traditional folk style — Tracy Fiorozan and Gwen Rector have created memorable and moving pieces like Song for Iva (Grandmother's Song), Big Strong Woman, and the wry hate-song to a lover's cat, I Don't Love Lucy. They've played the Southern Women's Music Festival and gay pride marches, and we imagine we'll be seeing them around a whole lot more... Recommended! (WOT1) CS: 9.98

Yasmeen

Yasmeen of Sweet Honey in the Rock
This 4-song cassette represents the solo debut of Yasmeen, a 13-year member of the acclaimed acappella group, Sweet Honey in the Rock. Loosening up with a jazzy, contemporary R&B band behind her, she shows off her songwriting skills, gorgeous sultry voice, and just generally throws her hat into the Anita Baker ring — watch out Anita! Includes a moving gospel tune, Walking With God, plus the smoky Walking in the Way of Love. We can't wait for more! (SMR1) CS: 7.98

Yasmeen

Still Walking in the Way of Love
Well, we didn't have to wait long, because a month after we received her cassette, she informed us of the imminent release of her 1992 CD! In addition to the 4 songs on the tape, it features an array of R&B, jazz, songs with spiritual content, and topical songs, in the tradition of Sweet Honey in the Rock. Included: title song, about homophobia; Corax, a pro-choice song; Monrovia, Liberia; a song by Michelle Lancaster of In Process... and covers of Knocking on Heaven's Door and James Brown's I Feel Good. Absolutely recommended for all Sweet Honey fans. (SMR2) CD: 15.98

Yeastie Girlz

Ovary Action (7" EP)
Back in print! In this day and age of deleting vinyl from our catalog, you might notice that we have not only added a piece of vinyl, but one with only a 7" diameter. Know that it's got to be real special, and this one is! About the most outrageous we've ever heard (and most of their graphics are reworking we've ever heard) and most of their graphics are reworking we've ever heard (and most of their graphics are reworking we've ever heard) and most of their graphics are reworking we've ever heard. (LKT9) LP: 5.98

Yer Girlfriend
L-Word Spoken Here

Their 1992 release is a re-dedication to the out and proud lyrics and toe-tapping sounds audiences can't get enough of. Blues, rock or folk, they deliver each song with style, energy and heart. From the ballad Bill Waters, a song about taking risks, to Take Back Our Lives, suggesting that women have more to conquer than just the night, their messages are as clear as their sound is hot. (ER102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Yer Girlfriend
We Won't Be Silent

Yer Girlfriend is five Kentucky women who are committed to maintaining a strong political voice through the medium of popular music... to break down walls of homophobic prejudice and traditional stereotypes about women, while their audiences are tapping their toes to music that's fun. They do just that on this debut tape of original wonderfully-out lesbian and feminist songs, employing beautiful vocal harmonies. Watch for them at women's music festivals and lesbian/gay events! (ER101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Zoe Lewis Soup Kitchen "Swing"

Every once in awhile you run into a not-so-famous artist who turns out to be a complete delight — such is the luck here! With a peasant's high range voice given to leaping into jazz inflections at the drop of a hat, a lighthearted sense of humor crossed with a social consciousness, and a great band (guitar, sax, bass, percussion, fiddle), Zoe throws quite the bash! Here's hoping she'll tour more of the festivals soon. 10 original songs include titles like, Looking for Bagdad (inspired by the film Bagdad Cafe perhaps?), Shopping Mall, Mother Earth, Blues. ### George On My Mind

If you're depressed about life under the Bush administration, cheer up with this great musical political satire from the group often heard on NPR's All Things Considered. Lyrics primarily by Elaine Newport and Bill Strauss, with lots of folks singing in the chorus. Highlights include Your Statue Needs a Tu-Tu, written especially for Jesse Helms who says "No Nudes Is Good Nudes" and You Light Up My Flag. (CS1008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sheik, Rattle & Roll!

Not missing a beat in current events, this 1990 release contains hits-to-be such as We Are the World, Read My Figs, Who'll Put a Bomb on Saddam?, Lyny Diets, Stifelytes of the Fich and Ramous, and many more from these musical political satirists. (CS1009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

76 Bad Loans

These crazy folks ought to run for office — anyone who does a Dan Quayle falsetto interpretation of "Stayin' Alive" (Stipped Disco: Keep Him Alive) deserves a vote or two! This, the Steps' 10th album, is brimming full of satirical send-ups of the goings-on in our nation's political machine, the no one really escapes their invective — see (big breath now) You Don't Bring Me Floriculturally Diverse, Polyfragant, Sociosically Challenged, Multipetaled Victims of Peacidal Food Chain Chauvinism, a spoof on the current Multiculturalism debates. Also includes Mille the Poocher, Fun, Fun, Fun, Til Teddy Puts His T-Shirt Away, I Feel Petty, and the unfortunately racist Sushi and the M.C.A.. 23 songs in all. (CS1010) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fools on the Hill

More silly sendups, just in time for the '92 elections! Maybe this would make you feel better about the whole mess: give Ground Control to Jeddi Brown a spin, and you'll cheer up immediately! Or perhaps the Tourists of Tongak, and the well-timed poke at David Duke. Stand by Your Klan: As usual, their humor falls off the deep end on at least one song; this album's offensive ditty is Hello Mullah, Hello Farah, which makes fun of the Midast Peace process. This group is most successful when taking on the culture from which most of them hail, namely the white middle class. (CS1011) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Debra Riggin Waugh

Homo Neurotica

This DC-area storyteller/comic addresses your gaggle of garden-variety lesbian issues with a wry wit and self-deprecating humor. Taking her experiences growing up (Prepubescent Training in Heterosexuality and White Middle Class Values), A Fairy of Sorts, When I Was Sixteen I Was Cool, Chicken Dinner and coming out (Putting Out the Trash, Ex-Lover Word Spin), she condenses them into funny vignettes that many of us will relate to. We hope she'll hit the festival circuit; her talent and style will be warmly received, we're sure of it! Recorded live in '92. (DRW1) CS: 9.98

Dos Fallopa

My Breasts Are Out of Control

This outrageous feminist comic duo — a.k.a. twin sisters of different cul-de-sacs — consists of Lisa Koch (also known for her participation in Venus Envy) and Peggy Platt, who create a riotous program of music, sketch comedy, stand-up, razor sharp wit, left-wing politics and general lunacy, to produce an act of wickedly funny commentary from a woman's point of view! Includes Fran and Annie's 12-Step Day Care, Spudd Family Gospelers, The Surly Sitches in Concert (with Laura Love and Linda Severt from Venus Envy), a really great Camp Song, and of course the title track. So warped, so refreshing! Recommended! (TNG300) CS: 9.98

Judith Sloan

The Whole K'CUFIN' WORLD

This long-awaited 1992 release captures Judith in a selection of live performances replete with her assortment of characters. ## Kate Clinton

Live at Great American Music Hall

Note the sale price on the LP! In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (coveting her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, salutes personal in papers, sings her song for parthenogenesis, and tells how she answered the question What Do YOU Do? at an S/M workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material; get your TV sets tuned up! (WHY103) LP: 6.98 CS: 9.98

Kate Clinton

Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (deed doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politic to build laughter of fading tears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme park; rubbernecking on the Planet of the Days, getting scared straight in a Gender De-Tox, and falling away at Mom. Pinata in Familyland! ## Lea DeLaria

Bulldyke in a China Shop (Double)

She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. ## Roseanne Barr

I Enjoy Being a Girl

Stall comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Shcker says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on T.V." — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version) covers Sexual Preferences, Women's Medley, Men's Medley, 20 Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Rodeo Queen, Arsenio Hall, and more — something to offend everyone. The Summer Angels are a zany comedy act consisting of 3 women (with some overlap with The Fallen Angel Choir — see Holiday Section), plus one guy — or "three white chicks and a Simile." From The Juggs, Jingle Jamboogie to Fairwell to Fair Barbie to Mother Nature's On the Rag, they mix pop, progressive politics and parody... musically satirizing sports, sex, shopping, the Woodstock generation, the Gulf War, and the S&Ls, among other topics, mixing ragtime, rap, doo-wop, opera, jazz, heavy metal and polka. ## Adrienne Cooper/Irena Klepfisz/etc.

Partisans of Vilna

Subtitled The Songs of World War II Jewish Resistance, these 12 songs and poems reflect the strength and spirit of the Jewish resistance to Nazi occupation and domination. Originally heard in the 1938 documentary film by the same name, these songs were re-recorded in 1988 by various performers dedicated to preserving the cultural continuity of Yiddish-speaking Jews. Includes the haunting Yiddish song by a young boy; Adrienne Cooper (of Vilna Klavay)'s achingly clear soprano on two selections; moving readings by writer Irena Klepfisz; and other contributions from women and men. Informative liner notes. Lyrics sung in Yiddish, printed in English. (FF450) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Austin Klezmerim

Texas Klez

Klezmer Jazz? You bet! This recording involves images of the Roaring 20s in Europe — a fusion of Middle-Eastern, Eastern European and European musical and vocal styles which seem to bring the best out of each genre without losing the strength and beauty of the original form... Features the gorgeous vocals of Donna Mithal, Suzie Stern and Susanna Shupe, and some fantastic instrumental arrangements (tuba, accordion, violin, drums, bass, reeds, trumpet). Highly recommended, especially if you're new to exploring Jewish artistic and cultural expressions. (BAM1) CS: 9.98

The Aviva Duo

From Generation to Generation

"From generation to generation Jewish song has provided a rich legacy for its dispersed people — a binding force for ethnic consciousness, a continuous musical expression of a culture, a history, a religion." And these two Canadian women, Merida Sachs and Shirley Steinberg, feel that although the songs are all in Hebrew and Yiddish, they have a universal quality and also want to share them with a non-Jewish audience. Translations included. It's an exceptionally lovely recording, with beautiful instrumentation by Kathryn Moses on flute and others. It includes a wordless Chasidic melody, modern Israeli compositions, a Yemenite folk melody, and Corra, Corra, a Yiddish folk melody. Highly recommended. (AV1001) CS: 9.98

Cindy Paley

A Singing Seder

Cindy is well-known to the Jewish community of Los Angeles as a Hebrew and Yiddish folk singer. Here she sings all the songs from the traditional Passover Hagaddah (with a little help from a Cantor and a children's chorus), after she receives a brief introduction for each; beautiful arrangements, with harmony vocals, keyboards, flute, bass, and tambour. Booklet includes Hebrew, English, and transliterations. (CP1) CS: 12.98

The Courage to Dare

This excellent resource celebrates strong Jewish women by bringing a lesbian voice to Jewish liturgy — pretty unique, in our opinion! Many pieces are written by Marcia Falk, author of The Book of Blessings: A Feminist-Jewish Reconstruction of Prayer. Faith accompanies herself on acoustic guitar, and accompanies some lovely self-harmonies... includes the passionate My Sister, My Bride. ("With one flash of your eyes you excite me! One jewel on your neck ains my heart! O my sister, my bride! Friendship Blessing, Sabbath Candle Blessing, and the traditional Hazzak, Hazzak, Don't let the homemade quality of this recording keep you from being uplifted by Faith's message. (FR1) CS: 9.98

The Klezmer Conservatory Band

Old World Beat

One of Klezmer's leading exponents, this band has spent the last decade spreading this old world beat around the planet. With traditional melodies alongside brand new tunes, this 1991 release reflects the eclectic nature of Klezmer — alternately brooding and raucous, always spirited and engaging. (ROU3115) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Touch of Klez!

From the 16 women and men who brought us Oy Chanukah!, an album of dance tunes and Yiddish songs, with Eastern touches in melody and harmony, for the rest of the year. The stand-outs are the rich vocals by Judy Bressler (described by a fan as a heaven-sent Russian goddess), including her brand of Klezmer scat; and Ingrid Monson's poignant cornet improvisations. (VAN79455) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Koleet

A Celebration of Jewish Folk Music

Koleet is an ensemble of three distinctive women's voices: Cindy Paley, Ann Brown, and Amy Hopern Kriva. With new and traditional arrangements in vocal harmony and instrumentation, they weave beautiful melodies and rhythms which span the multitude of languages reflected in Jewish culture: Ladino, Yiddish, Russian, Hebrew and Yemenite. Includes Chasidic Melody: D'vor Yik'ra ("A Call to Freedom"), a Yemenite Shabbat song; and Yiddish songs from the Second Avenue Theatre era. Recommended! (CP3) CS: 9.98

Laura Wetzler

A World of Jewish Folk Music

Celebrating both the traditional and non-traditional role of Jewish women in Jewish life, Laura sings of the woman who hates to cook as well as the proud matron. Drawing from both Sephardic and Ashkenazic musical sources, she includes songs of garment workers, teachers, lovers, pioneers and resistance fighters. All 15 songs are sung in Hebrew, Yiddish, or Ladino, and are accompanied on guitar and Yemenite drum. Spirited and lovely! (MG1) CS: 9.98

Lauren Pomerantz

Jewels of the Sephardim

Subtitled "Songs from Medieval Spain," this totally unique volume contains songs in Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) which originated between 900 and 1300 A.D. on the Iberian peninsula, at which time a marvelous cultural exchange was occurring between Hebrews, Arabs (Moors) and Christians (Spaniards). This ceased in 1492 with the Inquisition, and the Sephardic Jews scattered into mid-eastern, Mediterranean and North African areas. Since then the music has been passed from generations via the oral tradition. Lauren has done much of the research for this album. Her voice is just lovely and she also plays medieval fretted dulcimer, to a background of futes and percussion. Lyrics in Ladino (15th century Castilian, almost identical to present-day Spanish). (AEA1401) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn

Songs for Shabbos

Linda, who freelances as a cantor in progressive synagogues, is a singer-songwriter of Jewish, women's, and political material. This album is an instructional tape that teaches how to sing — note by note and syllable by syllable with many repetitions — traditional Shabbos "Z'mira" (songs) including the blessing over the candles, and the option to use the feminine or masculine name of God. Lyrics included. (OYS1113) CS: 7.98

Gather Round (Tape)

Subtitled Songs of Celebration and Renewal, this collection of original rounds and songs in Hebrew and English celebrates our heroines (Miriam, Ruth and Naomi), daily ritual, cycles of life, and peace and justice, with reference only to a genderless and/or feminine God. Song mostly by an a cappella women's ensemble with stunning harmonies, giving a unique sense of the feminist potential within Judaism. Includes Chanukah/Solstice, Miriam's Slow Snake Dance, The Full Moon Songs, Ruth and Naomi, Woman Gathering Round. Recommended! (OYS1116) CS: 9.98

Roots and Wings

This 1992 follow-up to Gather Round combines contemporary concerns with ancient teachings. Original rounds and songs with intricate harmonies celebrate the earth, speak out against injustice, bless our children and commemorate the friends who have died — especially notable is a beautiful peace round, Not By Might, in English, Hebrew and Arabic. Features the singing of Linda's a cappella performing group, Vocot. (OYS1117) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Miriam Dvorin

Grandma Soup: Yiddish Songs

"When we were kids we loved to go to Grandma's house. In the small apartment above the tailor shop the sounds of Yiddish songs mingled with the appetizing aroma of what we kids called Grandma Soup. Here is a taste of Grandma soup, that mysterious blend of culinary and cultural delights we are still trying to appreciate fully." Not only does Miriam have an astonishingly beautiful voice, she gives impressively zesty performances here on violin, mandolin, autoharp, electric and acoustic guitar and electric bass — and, she produced it. Pronunciation guide and translations included. Very highly recommended for kids and adults. (SOU101) CS: 9.98

Ofra Haza

Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Ofra's Yemenite Jewish heritage. Ofra may be Israel's biggest star, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old) and contemporary rhythms... resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra is part of the Musica Mizrah movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. (SHN64002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kirya

One of our favorite artists returns to the style of our very favorite of all her albums, Fifty Gates of Wisdom. This 1992 release features vocals in Aramaic, Hebrew and English, with some new surprises, backing vocals by Was Not Was, and a guest appearance by rock legend Iggy Pop, in a narrative role on the track Dave Da Kirya, a song about a young woman sentenced to death for expressing her sexuality. Even when you don't speak the language she's singing in, the strikingly pure tone of her voice gets the meaning across; recommended! (SHN54043) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Most of the songs on Ofra's 1990 release, which fittingly coincides with her first US concert tour, are sung partially in English, but the content is still about the Yemenite Jewish community, Yemenite tradition, and peace in the Middle East, with the imagery and rhythm of the desert an integral part of this music. Fantasmorgana, a tribute to her mother and other Yemenite Jews who were persecuted and banished to Yemen's desert, includes the voice of her mother chanting in Arabic. The times are ripe for this sort of world music to gain a foothold in the arena of commercial recognition and success. (SR25976) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Shady

Combines some of the best of Ofra's previously reissued Yemenite material (re-recorded and resynthesized, with added English verses), plus other traditional Yemenite tunes and original tunes she performs in English. This album is obviously intended to be more accessible to English-speaking audiences, and raises her to the same superstar status in the Western world that she already enjoys in Israel. We prefer her earlier Fifty Gates of Wisdom, but this traditional material here makes this worthwhile for all Ofra Haza fanatics. (SR25618) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tofa'ah

The Sound of Joyous Song

An absolutely gorgeous album by a group of 7 women living in Jerusalem, Israel, originally from the U.S. and Australia. They combine a variety of musical heritages to create new and original Jewish music which speaks of individual and collective Jewish struggles and joys. Instruments are voices, acoustic and electric guitar, bass, percussion, harp, flute, and violin. Songs are in Hebrew with translations enclosed. Includes New Moon: "Woman.../Moon.../With each new moon comes a new woman.../You are unique and full as the moon is light in the darkness.../Flow with new life of coming months.../Moon.../Celebrate Woman!" These are the written words to the most beautiful song in the collection; it is vocalized with musical tones only, no words. Very highly recommended. (TOF7) CS: 9.98

Tofah Lights

This collection of songs exclusively by women and for women is beautifully performed by this women's ensemble from Israel, on their third release. Dedicated to awakening and inspiring the Jewish spirit through music, with some of their work focusing on the joys and struggles of Jewish women, they artfully blend voices and instruments: flutes, guitar, harp, clarinet, sax and more. They perform for women-only audiences, in accordance with Jewish law, in order to give women a total positive female experience, and to stimulate the elevated female level of spirituality. Notes in English and Hebrew. (TOF3) CS: 9.98

From the Shores of the Golden Horn

The first volume in the "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora" series (500 years after Columbus set sail by this 2-woman, 2-man quartet); it features music of the Spanish Jews of Turkey, one of several discrete paths of exile following the inquisition and expulsion from Spain. This collection includes lyric songs, romances, coplas (tropic festival songs), endechas (laments) and more, performed in Ladino, a language preserved largely by the women. Accompaniment consists of dumbeks, ud, kamanijs, naqara, saz, baglamas, finger cymbals, and such: a highly unusual and valuable repertoire. (TI173) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bridges of Song

Subtitled Music of the Spanish Jews of Morocco, this is the second volume in the ensemble's "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora: Paths of Exile" series. Unlike the Jews who traveled to the Ottoman Empire, those who settled in Morocco maintained continual exposure to European influence, especially during the period when Spain ruled parts of Morocco; so their spoken language, Hassania, as well as their repertoire, reflect Spanish, as well as Hebrew and Arabic, influence. (TI189) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Balkan Vistas/ Spanish Dreams

1992 marks not only the year the Native Americans discovered Columbus intruding their shores; it also marks 500 years since the inquisition, and subsequent exile, for Spanish Jews. This remarkable album follows two paths of this exile, and brings to light the music of the Sephardic Jewish communities which flourished for centuries in Bulgaria and Yugoslavia, mostly Sarajevo. Influences of Turkish instrumentation and Balkan folk rhythms can be heard. During WWII, the Bulgarian Jews were protected by their government, but many Yugoslavian Jews were led to the concentration camps. Most of the remaining Yugoslavian and Bulgarian Jews eventually emigrated to Israel. Recommended as always! (TI203) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Les Amazones De Guinée Au Coeur de Paris

This live recording of a women's vocal group from Guinea conveys such a joie d' vivre that you wish you'd been at the show! The next best thing is this CD, which is guaranteed to generate movement in your body and your heart! Liner notes are in French, which this reviewer exhausted her repertoire of in the first sentence, so we are left guessing as to the content of the lyrics, but the exuberance of the performance is such that you'll enjoy it immensely regardless of your native tongue... it's worth the high import price. (BOL42078) CD: 22.98

Angelique Kidjo Logozo

We don't know much about this artist... we don't know what country she's from, or the language of many of these songs... (notes are in French and English, so we assume she's from a French-speaking African country) except that it includes the dance hit Balafon and that this 1991 album is fantastic! We'll try to find out more in time for our next catalog... anyone out there have any info? In the meantime, believe this: great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance... very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG5918) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Aster Aweke

Wow! Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing this talented DC resident: she sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wail, croons to a lively harp and light percussion, keens over a classically-tinged piano — this is "World Beat" at its best! Highly recommended! (COL48848) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Aster Aweke Kabu

The second effort of this amazing Ethiopian songwriter and vocalist has more of an Afro-pop musical sound, with the exception of the haunting love ballad, Kabu, which means "sacred rock" and employs a slow mambo for both rhythm and melody... simply lovely! Backed up on other cuts by a variety of percussion instruments, horns, keyboards and acoustic bass, Aster's voice is again rich and enchanting. Lyrics are translated in the liner notes. Also includes several traditional Ethiopian songs with contemporary arrangements. Recommended! (COL47846) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Balafon Marimba Ensemble

We didn't know where to list this album, because it's African instrumental music created by an American 5-woman, 4-man marimba ensemble! So here it is, for lack of a more accurate category. Their purpose is to promote understanding of other cultures with the ultimate goal of global unity, peace, and sense of community. With a full chorus of marimbas (bass, baritone, tenor and soprano!), plus congas, timbales, hosho, bells and other percussion, they produce a high energy recording which is recommended for dance, listening, and educational uses — it's great music! Histories of the compositions are explained in the liner notes. (SHN67002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dorothy Masuka Pata Pata

This Zimbabwean woman has a beautiful, flowing voice and is backed up by other female vocalists and a "typical" Afro-pop band — twangy finger-picked electric guitar, steady percussion with lots of handclaps, keyboards and horns, yielding a tribal, hypnotic effect, some of it great for dancing. We learned from Dirty Linen Review that she is "well known in her native country since the 60's as a singles artist" and that this is her first worldwide album release. CD contains 3 bonus tracks. (MNG9911) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Kronos Quartet et al Pieces of Africa

This is a beautiful and unique 1992 release, which like many of today defies categorization, so here it lives for now. Kronos Quartet is a 3-woman 3-man classically-trained string quartet (2 violins, viola and cello) from the US, known for their interpretations of world folk music. Here they perform songs by African composers, most with the composers also contributing musically to the performances, vocally and instrumentally. The sounds are stunning blends of cultures, or perhaps the creation of something new from traditional elements — much like the patchwork quilt design suggested by the cover art. Commentary from the composers is included. (EL73275) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

M'Bella Bel Bamali Soy

One of our top six for the year! By one of Africa's top female vocalists. She is from Zaire, and the album is replete with Congolese rhythms, harmonies, percussion and energetic joyousness. (SHN43025) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Mahotella Queens

Izibani Zomqashiyo

Striking harmonies in the Mbube style, from 4 women of South Africa's best female vocal group. They sing in Zulu, with the very upbeat backing of Mbaqanga music: an electric guitar with machine-gun ticks of panned notes, whizzing up and down the fretboard; bass notes of rapid counter-melodies played high up in the instrument's register. The content of their material is not overtly political, since it would be banned and the musicians probably jailed if it were, but it reflects the strength and indomitability of their spirits. Recommended! (SHN43036) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens

Marriage Is A Problem

South Africa's premiere mbaqanga harmony quartet soars with unlimited energy and exacting harmonies on this 1991 release, as they look back to traditional ways, to a time before Apartheid. Songs include Señalali, Attractive Woman, Kqashe, Baga Mofusa, Mofusa's Daughter, Nyala Ea Tshwenya. Marriage Is A Problem (luckily one that many of us don't have to contend with!) Very danceable, upbeat, certain to lift any dragging spirit! Highly recommended as always! (SHN43088) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens & Mahiathini Rhythm and Art

Already widely known and recognized for high energy stage shows and soaring vocals, this female trio (back after their temporary retirement, and now just 3) and male vocalist have revolutionized the South African pop scene. On this 1990 album the group performs 5 new compositions and 2 English versions of their most popular songs; includes what could be the most incredible version of a gospel song, God Is On Your Side, ever recorded! Again, don't expect overtly political lyrics, but be prepared to be swept away by the sheer power of this release! Highly recommended! (SHN43088) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens & Mahiathini Mbaqanga

This 1992 album finds itself way up there on the Billboard charts, signifying the worldwide recognition that this South African group is finally enjoying, deservedly. Joyful harmonies, spiced with guitars, saxophone, penny whistle, and intense drumming characterize their rhythmic style. (VRV51780) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Miriam Makeba Africa

This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1960-1965, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and timely! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup — guitar, percussion — and a lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (refreshing to hear the original African rendition!), The Retreat Song, The Click Song, Kwazulu In the Land of the Zulus, Nongqongqo To Those We Love, 23 songs in all. (RCA3155) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Pata Pata

Do you kinda wonder why recordings by this vocalist from South Africa are becoming so rare?? This limited-quantity import contains "a multifaceted repertoire that knocks down walls, bridges, barriers, and transforms a dozen different languages into a universal tongue." Her daughter Bongi does back-up vocals; includes several originals such as Amantando, West Wind, Ngoma Kuria, plus Tanzanian folklore Majika, and other writers' works. The CD contains 4 extra songs. (ESP165508) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Eyes on Tomorrow

This 1991 release features some very special guest artists: Nina Simone, Dizzy Gillespie, and Hugh Masakela! Freedom is the absolute theme on this internationally-recorded album (Johannesburg, Brussels, Bologna, NYC), with a very upbeat and dedicated spirit. Nina Simone collaborates with Miriam on a song well known in Nina's repertoire; they combine the traditional African Thulasizwe with I Shall Be Released. Rich, resonating backing vocal choirs throughout. Recommended! (PLG849313) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Welela

This dynamic 1989 release contains songs in both English and African dialects, including a re-interpretation of her classic Pata Pata, which means Touch, Touch, as well as African Sunset, Soweto Blues. (UR8836268) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sangoma

A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused; these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate prolifically and stunningly the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. (An interesting note: she was also exiled from the U.S. in 1966, after she married Stokely Carmichael.) Highly recommended. (WB25873) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Chaba Fadela

You Are Mine

While other ethnic stars can provide excellent examples of Rai music — a modern Arabic pop style whose roots lie in traditional Algerian folk music with African, Moroccan, Spanish and French influences — Chaba (title for a young female; Fadela is the premiere voice of the movement that blends cultures and generations to produce a distinctive and beautiful sound. Her rough, sensuous voice has been described as "the pride of Algeria," and her compositions as the best example of Rai music to be found. In fact, the success of Rai, in spite of government attempts to ban it for political reasons, is in large part attributable to her. A strong dance beat, with synthesizers, drum machines and multitracking, are paired with her haunting traditional Arabic vocals on this 1986 release. Includes her major hit, N'Sei Fik, performed with Cheb (title for a young male) Sahraoui. Very highly recommended! (MNG9927) CD: 16.98

Chaba Fadela & Cheb Sahraoui

Hana Hana

If you liked You Are Mine, you'll love this too. Fadela co-wrote most of the selections, and performs them all with her male duo partner... they are compelling and unique. Contains the 89 Mix of the hit N'Sei Fik. A bonus is that the insert contains actual photos of the artists; many other Rai albums, including You Are Mine and Nights Without Sleeping, instead show models on the cover, presumably in accordance with the Islamic prohibition of photographs. (MNG9856) CD: 16.98

Miriam Makeba, w/Beaufonte Singers

The Click Song

This is a classic: Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Beaufonte Folk Singers! It includes her well-known songs, The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Wimoweh", House of the Rising Sun, Iya Guduza, which triple tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, the humorous One More Dance, and others, performed in Xosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. Highly recommended! (ESP15554) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Nahawa Doumbia

Didadi

Recognized in the 1984 Radio France competition as the best talent in the category of African music, this artist is a newcomer only to the universality of appeal her music has achieved. Her birthplace, Mali, serves as a gateway between Africa and the Middle East, and her music is rooted in those cultural traditions. Malian music has drawn upon Latin music from Senegal, highlife from Ghana, Afrobeat from Nigeria, soukous from Zaire; this album blends a mixture of horns, percussion and powerful vocals into a showcase for Nahawa's majestic abilities. Includes Banani, a discourse on living well and avoiding evil, and Alerwe, a tale of how a person's life is judged. Highly recommended! (SHN64015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Oumou Sangare

Moussolou / "Women"

Recorded in 1989, when Oumou was a mere 21, this fantastic recording has sold over 200,000 copies in West Africa alone! Her strong voice, rhythmic melodies and progressive lyrics make this import a must for your collection. Songs are in Wassoulou (a Malian dialect), and instrumentation, while not listed in the otherwise informative liner notes, features a smooth bass, light percussion, and violin-ish strings both plucked and bowed. Includes the title song, which encourages society to recognize and respect her "contributions," and Diya Gnaba (Great Love), which favors couples being able to choose their own partners rather than submit to prearranged weddings. Highly recommended! (WCD521) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sanougue Kouyate

Balendala Djibe

Here's how a reviewer from Optim Magazine described this album: "This woman has pipes! Kouyate comes from Mali, and a family of Mandingo Griots, traditionally singers, tribal historians, and storytellers. The music is very traditional, the dominant instruments being the harp-like kora and the marmba-like balafon. The instrumental accompaniment, then, is delicate; and what a contrast to Kouyate's volcanic voice, which soars over the hypnotic kora and balafon lines, scorching everything in its wake, leaving absolutely no doubt as to its authority. The only western comparison I can think of is Aretha Franklin. But I can't think of another world music recording I've heard that is so instantly electrifying..." Why try saying it better? Very highly recommended! (MNG5874) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sona Diabate

Girls of Guinea

A member of a famous griot (traditional singers/musicians/storytellers) family from Guinea, one of the richest areas of African musical tradition, Sona has also made an impact as singer-guitarist with the all-female Les Amazones de Guinea band. On this solo recording, her powerful, passionate vocals are backed by female voices and acoustic guitars, creating an enchanting, melodious sound steeped in tradition yet recasting ancient melodies and rhythms in new settings. Definitely recommended! (SHN65007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chaba Zahouania

Nights Without Sleeping

On this excellent recording of Rai music, Zahouania uses her deep and sultry voice to convert Bedouin chants into vocal improvisations; the accompaniment blends traditional middle-eastern instrumentation with contemporary western instruments and production techniques. She's following in the footsteps of the originators of Rai: rural women singers called "Cheikates" who, in the early part of this century, adapted the chants of the nomadic herders to their own improvised words, often singing of the labor subjects of sex and alcohol. Her family has prohibited public performances and photographs, so the cover here features the same model as Fadela's You Are Mine. (MNG9831) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Fairuz

The Very Best of Fairuz

This Lebanese vocalist is one of the best-known female singers in the Arab world; the songs are in Lebanese, and she incorporates traditional Arabic music into her style. Her maternal stands in solidarity with the oppressed people of Palestine, and in support of their right to a nation-state under leadership of their choosing. (VO1241) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 19.98

Various Artists

Soweto Never Sleeps

Absolutely outstanding! Following the success of THE INDESTRUCTIBLE BEAT OF SOWETO, this 1995 release features "Zulu Jive" tracks by four women's groups from South Africa: The Dark City Sisters, The Mgababa Queens, Irene and the Melodians, and The Mahotella Queens. The rhythms, the harmonies, the pure energy all make for a vibrant anthology... this is the spirit that can't be killed. Highly recommended! (SHN43041) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Women of Mali: The Wassoulou Sound

Wassoulou is the Southern region of Mali, a relatively medium-sized West African country with strong Middle Eastern cultural influences. Its traditional songs originate in a culture based on farming and hunting, and the region bears distinction due to the fact that 90% of its singers are women! Features strong, fast-paced melodies and rhythms which are led by upper register strings, rather than percussion. Singers include: Sali Sidibe, Oumou Sangare, and Coumba Sidibe (founder of L'Ensemble Instrumentale du Mali). Recommended! (STN1035) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nesrin Sipahi

Sharki: Love Songs of Istanbul

The "sharki" is a lament or love song from the Ottoman empire of Turkey. The tone is generally melancholy, and as it has been presently preserved, is played on European instruments. This 1991 recording of sharki is the first to use authentic instrumentation, thus providing a unique look at the repertoire from the 18th through early 20th centuries. Nesrin was born in Istanbul, and like many of her generation, initially wanted to become more "Europeanized" in her artistic expression. Lucky for us, she has become a leader in the renaissance of Turkish classical music, lending her graceful and expressive voice to the flowing melodies and plaintive lyrics. (CMP3009) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Umm Kulthum

The Twinkling Star

No longer living, this woman (whose name is also written Oum Kalthoum, Um Kalthoum, or Imm Kulsaim) remains Egypt's and the Arab world's most esteemed vocalist. She sang into her 60s, performing lengthy concerts with long improvised epic tales, projecting dignity and strength. An interesting fact to note: in addition to being married, she also had a long-time, very public female companion named Shawfiqa Diab; this relationship was supported by her husband, and tolerated for the most part by the Arab public; she basically transcended the boundaries of convention. ### Mieko Totem

First of all, this is fantastic dance music, so all you DJ's (closest or otherwise) take note! Japanese singer-songwriter Mieko blends Japanese melodies with African rhythms, Arabic overtones, and western technology, creating a unique, high-energy sound and style from a melting pot of cultural references. She began her career performing traditional Japanese songs, moved on to jazz and then to "ethno-jazz", and is now concentrating on developing her personal style while incorporating various types of world music and still maintaining a wide-spread appeal. She recently moved to England, and this is a U.K. import. (WOL0011) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Najma Qareeb

This beguiling album showcases the ethereal, haunting music of this stunning Indian vocalist based in Great Britain. With power and grace, she mixes ancient Indian ghazals (short romantic poems) with original melodies in an "Indipop" style, combining traditional and western instrumentation. An album of great immediacy and impact, offering an arresting new musical experience. (SHN64003) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Najma Atish

This 1990 release, Najma's second, extends the musical fusion introduced by her first album — traditional Indian melodies and rhythms synthesized with western jazz and pop styles — as her soaring voices hit spine-tingling heights. (SHN64025) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra The Struggle

"I'm proud to be Asian, an Asian Woman, and an Asian Woman in the Music Business." One of our best-sellers from years past — and one of the loveliest and most creative works in our catalog — is back in print! On this lushly textured, harmonic, innovative, up-tempo dance album, Sheila brings together the seeming paradoxes and polarities of her life. A British citizen of Indian descent (known previous to her solo releases for her vocal work with the band Monsoon), her heritage is steeped in ancient traditions, and she values them, yet feels they must be used in a progressive context. The recording blends traditional eastern sounds, vocals, chants, and instruments (sitar, gamelan, Sitar, tabla, tabla, tambura, etc.), with western rhythms and technology to create...Indipop! If you have enjoyed Odra Haza, try this for sure...very highly recommended! (IND3) CS: 12.98 . . . CD: 18.98

Sheila Chandra Roots and Wings

Note sale on LP! This 1988 release is Sheila's first album since her eccentric decision to "retire" in 1985 at the age of 20. Part of that hiatus was spent researching fresh musical and vocal approaches, which she explores here! Kannokoi A Dante incorporates a musical language of percussive vocal syllables — the Indian version of scat; various multi-tracked vocals over traditional Indian instruments such as ghataam (a finely tuned clay pot) and mridangam (a very intricate percussion instrument); even mixes of African log drum and conga with Indian percussion. We welcome her back to the recording world! (IND5) LP: 10.98 . . . CS: 12.98 . . . CD: 16.98

Sheila Chandra Silk 1983-1990

This is a "best of" retrospective, covering material from her five solo releases to date. The Struggle, Nada Brahma, Roots and Wings, Quiet, and Out On My Own. Styles range from crossover Indipop to traditional chants to a Scottish lament. A wonderful way to sample her work, and to experience the breadth of her talent and her growth as an artist. And, her first title to be pressed domestically! (SHN64036) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

The Tahitian Choir Rapa Iti

One of the most spectacular albums to come our way, over 126 female and male voices sing the story of the people on the tiny island of Rapa Iti — total population 328 — 1000 miles southeast of Tahiti, the last piece of land before the South Pole. The quarter-tonal choral sound is often reminiscent of African singing, sometimes of western hymns, and at moments even Eastern European singing, in the vocal strength of the women especially. Some songs are translated into English, and others were not able to be translated, since much of the original dialect has been lost. A rare gem, highly recommended! (TRL1192) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Tomoko Sunazaki

Togoto: Japanese Koto Music

From one of Japan's foremost koto masters, a "best of" compilation, from previous Fortuna releases (Moon at Dawn, Spring Night, Sound of Silk Strings), and is, of course, exquisite. Melancholy, contemplative, playful and elegant, she performs classical and contemporary Japanese pieces. Over 67 minutes. (FOR17058) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Uzume Taiko

Chiroshi

This exciting and incredible trio of percussionists from Vancouver, consisting of 2 women, Leslie Komori and Eileen Kaga, and 1 man, John Endo Greenway, revives the traditional Japanese taiko, which means "big drum", the renewal in popularity of this instrument is occurring in both Japan and among samurai (third generation Japanese North American). The trio is adeptly assisted by other musicians such as Xiao Yu on pipe, a stringed instrument, and Takeo on atakatutachi, a bamboo flute, and together they weave magic with their blend of Asian and North American music and rhythms. Dedicated to the spirit of Ame No Uzume No Mikoto, "The Heavenly Dazzling Female," graceful and hypnotic...recommended! (FF558) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Various Artists

CompilAsian 1

Works of both Sheila Chandra and Najma are included in this unusual anthology of female and male artists who define and expand upon the term "Indipop". A beautiful, creative fusion of South Asian and western forms, styles, and technologies. New Bhangra alongside Ghazal-Jazz, Indipop alongside Asian house/hip-hop, dancefloor mixes alongside Indian classical experiments. We only wish the insert offered more information on the 13 or 14 musicians represented. Very rhythmic, and much of it is quite danceable. (IND7) CS: 12.98 . . . CD: 18.98

Alison Kinnaird

The Harper's Gallery

One of the leading exponents of Scottish harp music, Alison carries on the tradition of the great clarsach (small harp) players of the past. The opening of this album is actually stunning — and I try never to use that word — on which Ann is joined by harpsichordist Lucy Carran, flute a fiddle, and viola...transporting. The collection consists of courtly 16th, 17th and 18th century music; Alison lends her voice to a few of the pieces. Includes one said to have been written by Mary Queen of Scots the night before her execution. The recording quality is excellent — very bright and clear and almost eerily present. Recommended. (TEM003) CS: 9.98

Aitan

The Red Crow

Considered to be one of the world's best bands playing Irish music, this 1990 release is their third. As is so often true, the one female, in this case ace vocalist/fiddler Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh (pronounced Ma-radee Nee Mooney), provides the center and foundation for the rest of the ensemble. The selections offer a balanced mix of rhythms and tempos, with reels, jigs, ballads, waltzes, some are all-instrumental and some feature vocals. (GL1109) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Harvest Storm

This 1992 release contains 4 songs and 9 instrumentals tracks of riveting music that both reaffirms and enlarges the international stature of the Irish band. Never complacent, they experiment with harmony and chordal singing on such stirring songs in Irish as Danaí agus Maraig and Mo Chailín, led by Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh's extraordinarily expressive voice. This album proves that their vocal blend can match the mastery of their fiery instrumental playing! (GL1117) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola

Irish Aires and Dances

Since 1984, Anisa's guitar artistry has enhanced all 7 of Joemy Wilson's hammered dulcimer recordings, as well as her own duet recording with Valerie King. Pastorale. Now Anisa takes center stage, in this exciting collection of traditional dance music from Ireland. Accompaniment of flute, recorder, hammered dulcimer (Joemy, of course) and bodhran add special color; impeccable classical technique and the energy and emotion of the music unite to create a recording of special charm. (DM110) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola/Valerie King

Pastorale

If we could install flashing neon arrows on our catalog pages, we'd use one in this margin! Anisa on classical guitar and Valerie on flute and piccolo are a pair of musicians whose skill is honed to near perfection in their execution of medieval, renaissance, Irish, Spanish, and impressionistic compositions. The phrasing and arrangements are elegant and dignified; even the sequencing is just right. Includes Parsons Farewell, Godesses and the lively, embellished Canovana Concerto. Have we said enough? Highly recommended. (JM100) CS: 9.98

Capercaille

Crosswinds

This is the great 1987 debut release that introduced Karen Matheson's angelic vocals — soaring above mystical back-ground — to the American public. These Scottish musicians move effortlessly from highly charged gigs and reels to serene, spellbinding ballads in both Gaelic and English, in a style that has been described as early Clannad crossed with Sily Wizard. Instruments include accordion, recorder and whistles, bouzouki, guitar, fiddle, basses, percussion. Do not miss! (GL1077) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Sidewalk

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, ensuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited, "walking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums, in the meantime, enjoy her here! (GL1094) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Silver Apples of the Moon

Ceoltoiri continues to ascend heavenward, expanding their repertoire to include vocals and some original compositions. Connie continues her pristine guitar work while adding her celestial voice. Sue's harp work is flawless, and Karen adds pennywhistle and bonewood flute to her dulcimer contributions! The songs include Gaelic versions of Anise and Dress Yourself, and Or 'Se Do Sheath Bhaile, which is sung in tribute to Grainne Wheat, a woman pirate from the O'Malley Clan of County Mayo; plus a Yalta poem set to music, a celebration of Samhain (Halloween), the Scandinavian Pohla Se!, and The Plain Girl's Lament. About half the selections are gorgeous instrumentals... Highly recommended! (MM202) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Celtic Lace

Ceoltoiri ("Kyul-tory") is comprised of Sue Richards on Harp, Karen Ashbrook on Hammer Dulcimer, and Connie McKeena on Guitar, and "lacy" is the correct image one gets from the compositions they combine; light, airy and delicate reels, waltzes, aires, jigs, pipe marches and strathspoyls. While many Celtic musicians occasionally combine two tunes for an interesting medley, this is the first recording we can recall where all of the pieces are woven into quite like combinations, different textures and colors interspersed within a graceful and stately meter...lovely! (MM203) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Cherish the Ladies
The Back Door

Irish America's first all-woman music and dance ensemble has dazzled audiences in Ireland, the US and Canada; here's their first true ensemble album (1992). Jigs, reels, polkas and hornpipes pour forth with tremendous energy from these 8 musicians, and 2 tracks feature some extraordinary hard-shoe stepdancing! Cathy Ryan's lovely voice graces 6 of the 14 songs — one in Irish, the rest in English. Fiddles, bodhrans, flutes, tin whistle, guitar and banjo punctuate such songs as Jessica Polka, The Shepherd's Daughter, Maire Mhor (Big Mary), and the song, which is dedicated to all undocumented Irish aliens. (GL1119) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad
Macalla

Considered by some to be their best album, it is also one of their most produced, with haunting, mystical effects created with synthesizer, multi-tracked Maire vocals, reverberating harmonies, and lots of contemporary instrumentation on top of their traditional accompaniment. Includes The Wild Cry, Closer To Your Heart, Beachball, On Erne. (RCA8059) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad
Dulaman

In this 5-person family ensemble, it is the exquisite voice of Maire Ni Bhraonain which centers the vocal harmonies, and her harp playing which provides the focal point for the instrumental arrangements. Their repertoire consists of traditional Gaelic songs which they infuse with an up-tempo, improvisational yet precise and delicate musicianship. Includes Two Sisters. (SHN79008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad
In Concert

Spectacular lead singer Maire Ni Bhraonain is Enya's sister, but if you didn't know that, you might deduce it when you hear their styles... and in fact, the entire ensemble consists of close relatives to these two! This album affords you a rare opportunity to hear this ensemble in person — almost! (Really do it if you ever have the chance...) Includes Faithless Hornpipe, Oh To California, Down By the Sally Gardens, and many Gaelic tunes. (SHN79030) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad
Crann Uil

This 1980 recording from Dublin's Tara Records contains pure traditional Gaelic and Irish material, impeccably performed, naturally revolving around Maire's heavenly voice... it's one of the last straight-forward, all-acoustic albums Clannad recorded before they embarked on their experimentation with more contemporary sounds. Includes Gathering Mushrooms, The Last Rose of Summer. (TAR3007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad
Magical Ring

A gorgeous, magical mixture of Irish, Gaelic and contemporary sounds, with lyrics in both Gaelic and English, this 1983 crossover release was one of their pivotal albums in engendering a New Age following, and many fans consider it their best. Includes The Fairy Queen, Theme from Harry's Game, Newgrange, and other original and traditional tunes. Irish import; recommended! (TAR3010) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad
Anam

Six songs in English, two in Gaelic, plus two shimmering instrumentals... this Irish import features a splendid combination of their earlier, more traditionally-based style with a foray into a contemporary Fleetwood Mac-flavored vein, incorporating the so-always-incomparable vocals of Maire Brennan (the Anglicized version of Bhraonain) — suited to the old and the new, that is to say, simply beautiful; however she uses it! — plus lovely saxophone, multi-layered backup vocals, and a softly effective rhythm section. Lyrics in Gaelic and English... recommended! (TAR3025) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad (with Enya)

Fuaim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire Ni Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Ciaran and Pól, and their 2 uncles, Padraig and Noel O Dugain. Eithne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. This 1982 release (the only one with Enya, and probably their last before the now back-in-print Magical Ring) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional; you will hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 6-part a cappella harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (TAR3008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clishmaclaver

Hearing Double

The debut release by a long-acquainted duo is marked by its rich vocal harmony; Jennifer Cully and Brooke Parkhurst blend complementary voices in this collection which reflects their appreciation for the traditional Gaelic sound (even their name is a Scottish Gaelic phrase meaning "idle gossip"). They incorporate history into their songs, employing one of the oldest traditions of storytelling. For instance, Susanrae Mairín, the story of a woman accused in Old Salem of being a witch, is recounted as the timeless medium of the "song tale" is maintained. Also includes a sample of Scottish "mouth music" (a lickety-split tongue-twister), an Appalachian shape-note hymn and a few contemporary ballads. Recommended! (BRP001) CS: 9.98

Clishmaclaver

Roots Entwined

This recording, the duo's second, features mostly a cappella versions of Celtic (primarily Scottish) ballads and laments, both traditional and contemporary. They are also joined in space, yet crystalline acoustic accompaniment — harp, bouzouki, cello, guitar — often one instrument per song, for a rich, clean sound, makes one think of sea-washed air and soft colors... Also includes Frankie Armstrong's I Don't Want Your Red, Red Roses, Twiddles, The First in the Glen, and Alleluia. (BRP002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Connie Dover

Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group SpartaGlen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scots/Irish bands Billy Wizard, Capercaille, and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

DeDannan (with Mary Black)

Song for Ireland

Before launching her solo recording career, Mary Black was known as the breathtaking vocalist with DeDannan; and here is one of the albums on which she is featured, for those of you who want a more complete discography. This Irish band transcends musical boundaries, while maintaining their advocacy for traditional music. (BUG1130) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dordan

Irish Traditional & Baroque

Some of you long-time Ladyslipper customers may recall an album by Irish tin whistle master Mary Bergin called Feadoga Stain. She's back (again on tin whistle of course), joining forces with Kathleen Loughmane and Dearbhail Standon on harp and fiddle in a great new Irish trio. Their music ranges in mood from the delicacy and sensibility of a chamber trio, to the vigorous attack characteristic of traditional musicians. Many pieces reflect the lively musical links between Europe and Ireland over the last few centuries, including: Oh How Pleasant 'Tis to Lava Syllia, The Fairy Reel, The Queen of the West, From a Little Notebook for Anna Magdalena Bach. Recommended! (SHN79079) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Enya

This is Enya's debut album, and it's truly glorious; multi-layered harmonies, choral like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. Enya's definitely charting some new musical territory in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music; performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice; complemented by millian pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! (ATL1642) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Enya

Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This her second release, includes Chinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! (GEP24233) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Enya

Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hymnic, sensuous, "trickily" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of faw silk), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all entwining around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art... sigh... Highlights include the Gaelic Ebuda and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this album... "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm & there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered a cappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jean Redpath

First Flight

This 60-minute-plus collection brings together the best of her long, out-of-print first recordings made for Elek in the 60's. Recently over from Scotland, she sings traditional songs from varied sources, accompanying herself on guitar. (ROU-556) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

SP6 1993

Jean Redpath, with Abby Newton
Lady Nairne

If you're collecting albums by Jean, we hope you'll consider this one. Inferring us that many of the best known and loved of Scottish popular songs are in fact the work of one woman, Jean here brings focused attention to this little-celebrated composer. Lady Nairne, a.k.a. Caroline Oliphant, wrote during the late 1700's and early 1800's; usually anonymously with disguised handwriting, because women at the time were taught to shun notoriety. The songs were written for voice only (instruments were considered artificial music and were not permitted) but here are accompanied by Abby's lovely cello. Recommended (PH1087) CS: 9.98

Joemy Wilson
Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!). Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkert, Betty MacNeill, Blind Mary. Hammered dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan consort—an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a gullane, a flute, a violinist, and harper Sylvia Woods—all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended! (DM162) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson
Carolyn's Cottage

Joemy's second volume of music on hammered dulcimer by Turlough O'Carolan is yet another supreme album which deserves a spot on your shelf and stereo. With graceful accompaniment by the Carolan Consort (which includes Sylvia Woods and Anise Angorola), Joemy will transport you to the hills and fields of 18th century Ireland, via pianiciss and airs. Enchanting; don't miss it. (DM104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson
Celtic Dreams

Joemy's third volume in her Irish series truly captures the mystical Celtic spirit. On the 9 glorious O'Carolan tunes and other magical melodies from Ireland, Wales, Scotland and the Isle of Man, her shimmering dulcimer is complemented by the usual brilliant accompaniment of Sylvia Woods' harp, Anise Angorola's guitar, Valarie King's lute, and Miamon Miller's violin. Includes Fairies' Lamentation, Asn Grove, Mabel Kelly. (DM107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pintar
Celtic Harp: Secrets From The Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pintar creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like in Defense of Guinevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who falls in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. (SG123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pintar
Changes Like the Moon

A very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording, based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: THE ROSE OF FEATHERS and THE SILKIE. Each tells a story of a beautiful magical female creature who is captured by a human male and is forced into marriage, until one day she escapes joyfully to her freedom. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful Secrets From the Stone. (SG147) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

June Tabor
Airs and Graces

Few finer voices exist anywhere; this old favorite was originally released in 1976 on the Topic label, and was hard to find domestically. June was deservedly voted Top British female vocalist more than once, and no collection of British Isles music would be complete without this. Features richard, bassoon and soprano; some double-tracked vocals; some acappella ballads carried solely by her mysterious, lower-register rare vocal timbre. Recommended (SHN79055) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

June Tabor and the Oyster Band
Freedom and Rain

The majestic Queen of British folk collaborates here with renegades of electric folk, resulting in a stunning symbiosis of sound. This exuberant 10-song collection, featuring both traditional and contemporary material by writers such as Si Kahn, Billy Bragg, and Richard Thompson, makes us glad that June continues to stretch her musical self. (RYK194) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior & June Tabor
Silly Sisters

An exquisitely wonderful duet album of traditional English songs. Though lyrics aren't your most progressive, these two outstanding British vocalists create perfect harmonies, plus a few fine solos... a better blend of voices is hard to find. Includes My Husband's Got No Courage in Him and The Seven Joys of Mary. (SHN79040) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior/J. Tabor: Silly Sisters
No More To The Dance

Twelve years after their first recorded collaboration, a new masterpiece by these two vocalists, whose harmonies do truly sound like they are of a family, breaks new ground for traditional music. It features innovative features with touches of Eastern European harmony, and constantly shifting combinations of western, eastern, modern and traditional instruments (Chinese flutes, soprano sax, Celtic harp by the women of Seas, bagpipes, more). One of the most eagerly-awaited releases ever, and very highly recommended! (SHN79069) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone
Hammered Dulcimer Traditions

Maggie's second tape features all-instrumental arrangements of Celtic dance tunes and folk songs from England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, and America spanning the 13th to 20th centuries. The hammered dulcimer is embellished with an array of traditional instruments—harp, pennywhistle, concertina, bouzouki, viola da gamba, recorder, dombek, percussion—adding interesting and varied accompaniments, harmonies, and counter-rhythms. And, most of the musicians are women. High quality duplication, nice! (MM102) CS: 9.98

Maggie Sansone
Traditions

This CD-only release contains (almost) all the material from her first two hammered dulcimer releases, Hammered Dulcimer & Guitar and Hammered Dulcimer Traditions. (MM104) CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone
Mist & Stone

This 1990 release is a beautiful collection of Celtic tunes from Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, and Galicia, performed on hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and other instruments. The selections explore the rich and varied musical kingdoms of an ancient past, as they create textures and moods which are often evocative and haunting. Includes Foggy Dew, Sally Gardens, 18th century harp airs, jigs and rears. Recommended! (MM106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black
No Frontiers

Characterized by lots of tremendous harmonies, this 1989 release leans more toward a pop sound, while still retaining an acoustic foundation: guitars, double bass, accordion, piano, sax... and Mary's interpretive abilities still shine through. Includes several beautiful love songs, and, no less, a cover of the Dionne Warwick hit Say a Little Prayer. (GIF77308) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary Black
Babes in the Wood

This 1991 recording is a collection of contemporary ballads and softly rocking pop songs in which Mary has succeeded in convincing this reviewer that her lovely voice is suited to styles other than traditional Celtic... Accompanied here by a rich variety of acoustic instruments (dobro, mandolin, accordion, guitars, piano, fiddle, double bass), she covers home other than Jon Mitchell's The Urge for Going, Richard Thompson's The Dimming of the Day, as well as other gems by contemporary folk songwriters. Impeccable arrangements and production. (GIF77528) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Maura O'Connell
A Real Life Story

Moving into a more slick production and electric sound can't hide the fact that Maura's lovely voice is deepening into a seasoned richness that is as rare as it is enjoyable — joined or one out (A Family Tie, about alcoholism) by her three sisters. Other highlights include Shawn Colvin's I Don't Know Why, Janis Ian's Unwinding, and Lennon/McCartney's For No One, with only dobro and acoustic guitar accompaniment — gorgeous! (WB26342) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Just in Time

This Irish artist is a chart-topping star in her own country, for obvious reasons known to anyone who's listened to her incredibly smooth, rich vocals, and she's now gaining an international reputation in the acoustic music community. Her U.S. debut release, produced by Bela Fleck, features Nancy Griffith and Jonathan Edwards on background vocals. Includes an acappella, multi-tracked version of her self-harmonies on The Water Is Wide, plus others perfectly selected to complement her Irish inflections, such as The Isle of Malachy, Leaving Neidin. Recommended (PH1124) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell
Helpless Heart

Gorgeously, lulling, rich, Irish — these adjectives come immediately to this reviewer's mind upon first listening to Maura's voice. Produced by the estimable Bela Fleck, this recording combines the above qualities with New Acoustic influences & musicians (Bela, Dave Gismann, Clay Larson) on acoustic guitar, dobro, banjo, mandolin, piano, pedal steel guitar, fiddles and bass — simply the greatest! Material covered is primarily contemporary folk, like Cheryl Wheeler's Sunmerly, Nancy Griffith's Trouble in the Field, Paul Brady's Helpless Heart, and Karla Bonoff's Only A Fool and Not I If Always Love. Highly Recommended! (WB26016) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Pentangle
Think of Tomorrow

This 1991 release reconfirms the legendary group's pre-eminence in the British folk-rock scene. The unique combination of Jacqui McInerney's haunting vocals, Nigel Portman-Smith's virtuosic bass and keyboards, and Bert Jansch's amazing guitar, creates a vibrant blend of folk, jazz and blues. After 20 years, the ensemble continues to flourish at the top of a very notable heap. (GL3057) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith
A Dulcimer Harvest

Ever since 1979 when Ruth and Cynthia began their musical collaboration, folks have been requesting an all-instrumental album. Twelve years later, their wishes are answered with this elegant and magical collection of favorites from the duo's first 3 albums, plus new compositions and traditional pieces. Their classical fingerpicking style is complemented by added acoustic instruments, such as Sylvia Woods' harp, Miamon Miller's violin (both from Joemy Wilson's consort), cello and more. Includes Fairies' Love Song, King of the Fairies, Grace's Dance, I Live Not Where I Love. An excellent holiday gift for any season... recommended! (AEO004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sandy Denny
Who Knows Where the Time Goes 3-Set

This definitive collection, a 3-CD boxed set with 20-page booklet, features over 50 per cent previously unreleased material from studio recordings, live performances, out-takes and demos, plus remixed versions of some of her best. The songs and notes trace her history and remarkable singing and songwriting contributions to Fairport Convention and Paganini, plus early work from Sandy and the Strawbs, rockers from The Bunch, and many solo selections. She was one of the originators of British folk-rock, influencing a decade of British and American music by introducing traditional balladry and a revivalist folk approach to the acid rock generation. A must for fans! (HANS301) CD: 49.98

Sandy Denny
Best of Sandy Denny (Best of Box)

Selections from the 3-CD boxed set Who Knows Where the Time Goes... sort of the best of the best, from one of the most formidable folk talents who ever lived. Includes, of course, Who Knows Where the Time Goes, plus Listen, Listen: The Lady, Late November, The Pond and the Stream. (HAN1326) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Kitka

Called "Le Mystere de Voix San Francisco" by one of the soloists of the Bulgarian State Female Vocal Choir, Kitka performed at the Michigan festival in 1990, and this debut tape is available for those of you who didn't make the gala event! They're indisputably one of the most outstanding U.S. women's vocal ensembles specializing in the hauntingly beautiful and emotive vocal music of Eastern Europe. Included here are diaphanous village-style duets, modern Balkan choral works, and original arrangements of traditional melodies by artistic director Ben Brown. Cello, recorder, cimbalom and flute accompany the 14 vocalists, who can sound like twice that many. The selections are tremendous; highly recommended! (KIT1) CS: 9.99

Koutev Bulgarian National Ensemble Bulgaria's Great Women's Voices

Years before Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares, this recording was issued, and has been sitting in the record labels' back catalog in relative obscurity... well, it's time to change that, so buy this! This company of 75 singers, dancers and musicians from Sofia performs traditional songs and dances. The vocal harmonies are particularly astounding, of course. Also contains 4 selections by the Pirin Bulgarian Folk Ensemble — equally incredible. Recommended! (MON402) CS: 9.99

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares

An entrancing and thoroughly gorgeous recording which has captivated the imaginations of thousands of American listeners. The Bulgarian Female Vocal Choir performs traditional folk tunes with breathtaking harmonies which can be either melodic or discordant, natural or surprising, but are always precise, luxuriously rich, and resonant. Over the years we have featured many recordings of US women performing Balkan choral singing; here's who they've learned from. (NON70165) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares Vol. 2

This album, every bit as haunting and as gorgeous as the first volume, primarily contains selections by the Bulgarian State Radio and Television Female Vocal Choir, but additionally features five other women's vocal ensembles. Most songs are acappella but some feature traditional accompaniment, and a variety of soloists. The vocal strength and harmonies are awesome. Recommended! (NON79201) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares Vol. 3

Another enchanting recording of Bulgaria's premier female voices, including Choir Trakia, Choir Dobruja, Choir RTB (now touring under the name of "Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares"), to confuse things a bit), and Choir Rodope-Serbian, as well as featuring a few incandescent soloists. This music will quite simply blow you away — you've never heard anything like it, we promise! (PLG34626) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares A Cathedral Concert

The Bulgarian State and Television Female Vocal Choir returns with their first live album, featuring the enigmatic choir performing at a large church in Bremen, Germany: a perfect setting to capture the magic of their live show. The LA Herald Examiner says "Magical, mysterious singing, haunting, eerily beautiful, other-worldly, with just the right mix of ecstasies and gorgeous romantic harmonies." Includes A Young Girl Is Coming, Lovely Jana, Todora's Dream. (VRY510714) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Maria Burmaka Maria

This Ukrainian singer possesses a vibrant, passionate and endearing voice, so even if you don't speak her language, you'll probably understand the emotion and political statement behind her words. Drawing upon centuries of her culture's folk repertoire, plus songs by powerful young poets, her music is a statement of pride — of being Ukrainian, at a time of Ukraine's rebirth. Compelling and gorgeous; reminiscent of Latin American New Song, both aurally and in purpose and effect. Recommended! (YFP1084) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Marta Sebestyen Muzsikas

Muzsikas is Hungary's most popular folk group; Marta is the band's wonderful lead singer, and this album is considered to be one of her best. The traditional dances and songs feature instruments such as violin, zither, kobza, kontra, buzuki, duduk, and shawm, creating very haunting, gypsy-like sounds, blending eastern and western idioms. (HAN1330) CS: 6.99 CD: 15.99

Marta Sebestyen

Apocrypha

Known to most as the lead singer of the Hungarian traditional group, Muzsikas, Marta also has 3 collaborations with Karoly Cserepes: Love, Christmas and Emigration. Western demand has been steadily increasing, and this resulting compilation features cuts from each of those albums. The instrumentation is a rich blend of synthesized and traditional sounds, quite unique and beautiful, with lyrics sung in Hungarian — English and French translations provided. The best contemporary Hungarian music we've found to date! (HAN1388) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Sophia Bilides Greek Legacy

This Greek-Italian second-generation American presents traditional songs from the mainland, island, and Asia Minor populations of Greece for both listening and dancing. Comfortable with a wide variety of regional vocal styles, from island tyro to urban zebekiko, her voice is deep and rich and expressive. She accompanies herself on the traditional santouri (hammered dulcimer), while being supported on laouto (lute), violi (violin), clarina (clarinet), and dumbekai (drum). These aren't updated, westernized versions of traditional songs with dance beats or synthesized instrumentation; it's the pure stuff, well researched, with an "old world" sound of ageless beauty. (ET101) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Vychodna Dolina Echoes of Slovakia

This album features a choir of 12 Carpatho-Rusyn Slovak women from Czechoslovakia (now residing in NYC) accompanied by director Stephanie Salony on accordion, performing 16 songs from the different Slovak regions, in each area's particular dialect. Many of the songs feature the chorus with solo vocal interludes. The overall effect is bouncy and fun-inspiring — polka, anyone? (VYC25) CS: 9.99

Altazor

Blending music from the New Song movements of South America, from Afro-Puerto Rican ritual, from the traditional rhythms of Cuba, and from other sources, Altazor's sounds and messages are vibrant, passionate, and wonderful! The ensemble of 4 women — Licha Fuentes from Chile (some of you will remember her from Grupo Ritmo), Vanessa Wang from the US, Dulce Arguelles from Cuba, and Jacqueline Rago from Venezuela — employ gorgeous harmonies and a rich variety of traditional instrumentation, with lyrics reflective of the struggles of people the world over. Recommended! (RR8904) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Amigas Y Su Grupo Ritmo

This fantastic Latin salsa ensemble from New Mexico is headed by two women, Yvonne Jilbari and Oris Phillips; vocalists, instrumentalists and songwriters. Their band, consisting of one woman and 4 men, provides an astounding amount of percussion; together they create one of the liveliest, most rhythmic, exciting and danceable offerings in our catalog. Most songs in Spanish. (UB1) CS: 9.99

Amparo Ochoa El Cancionero Popular

This album of political folk songs features the contributions of another of Mexico's primary voices of Nueva Cancion, Los Folkloristas. Songs include El Barzán, Tierra Humada, Jugar a la Vida, Mi Acuario. Extensive liner notes and lyrics, in Spanish. Mexican import. (ALC022) CS: 11.99

Latin American

Celia Cruz & Ray Barretto Ritmo en el Corazon

Produced by and backed up by Ray Barretto and his orchestra, Celia continues to scorch the airwaves with her lightning-hot vocals. The music here reflects more of an island influence, with the piano and congas in the forefront, and a slightly mellower horn section than is usual for many salsa recordings. Songs include El Chisme (The Gossip), Mata Suerte (Bad Luck), and Bambawaka Tungal. Recommended! (HOT124) CS: 10.99

Celia Cruz The Best

One of the reigning queens of salsa, Celia's music is celebratory and relentlessly energetic, with lots of percussion, horns and harmonies. This album, originally issued on Fania Records, includes Yo Soy la Voz, Madona, Latinos en Estados Unidos. (SON80587) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Edi Machado

Edi With an unmistakably Afro-Brazilian beat and a vibrant array of percussion instruments, Edi makes her mark by successfully combining elements from the following traditions: Brazilian samba, African rhythms, Latin and American funk, reggae, and jazz soul! Edi is also a renowned dancer, and she builds the sound and rhythm very specifically around the dance. (She grew up in the Brazilian city of Bahia; there, she learned the dancing styles of the candombe rites, which fused African tribal with Roman Catholic traditions.) Her material is original, her voice spicy, her delivery high-energy, and the overall performance a creative blend of cultures. (BNS102) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Emma Junaro/ Matilde Casazola Mi Corazon en la Ciudad

Mercedes Sosa fans, take note! Here's another artist you'll probably appreciate. Emma Junaro's history: the Bolivian group Altaplano's lead singer, and the one who introduced them to Nueva Cancion, she chose to stay on after the 1980 coup forced many artists to flee, developing a more subtle style of protest song — obvious to the people but incomprehensible to the government. Her first solo album went gold, one of the only Bolivian releases to ever do so. Here she performs all songs by another great Bolivian woman — composer/poet/singer/guitarist/painter, Matilde Casazola — in an inspired effort to develop a new direction for Andean music. It's a quietly beautiful album, led by acoustic guitar, with Andean pan pipes, piano and percussion, all wrapped around her soft, strong voice. First in a series entitled Women of the World. Highly recommended! (RVB1003) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Flor de Cano

Dancing on Wall/Ballando en Murala

There's much more to say about this 1981 album than space allows, but here goes: This 2-woman, 5-man group combines a very successful blend of Latin American musics, from Puerto Rican bombas and Dominican merengues to Uruguayan candombes and vals from Venezuela (plus a variety of salsas). Lead vocalist Rosmaria Strajer-Amador's delivery is sweet and succinct, while the lyrics (primarily Spanish, with printed English translations) succeed in conveying the pain and exaltation of "political" issues without being metrical or ranting. The rich bevy of instruments are expertly played, and while reflecting the heritage of the cultures they are from, are also mixed up with a light-hearted irreverence, e.g. using Andean pipes on an Afro-Puerto Rican bomba. Highly recommended! (FF577) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Guardabarranco

Si Buscabas (If You Were Looking)

Sister and brother Katia and Salvador Cardenal are part of the Nicaraguan New Song movement called Volcanto—from volcano (volcano) and canto (song)—symbolic of the eruption of music, poetry, and cultural expression in Nicaragua since the triumph of the Sandinista revolution in 1979. Produced by Jackson Browne, this is one of the first albums of Nicaraguan music available in the U.S. Its beauty is virtually indescribable—but could easily bring tears to one's eyes; the quiet vibrance and richness of the music and poetry transcends any language barriers...and "destroys" State Department rhetoric right there before your eyes" says Holly Near. Spanish lyrics and English translations included only with LP. Recommended! (RR9501) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Días de Amar (Days of Love)

I didn't think I would find Guardabarranco's second release as moving, as breath-taking, as shockingly beautiful as I found their debut album. It seemed physically impossible! But, I am here to admit that this is true, es de verdad... Katia's voice still reaches that pure sweetness which bursts open the heart, with words of love, strength, y esperanzal hope. When she duets with her brother Salvador, the power of their genetic harmonies has the strength to move mountains! Includes Corazon de Niño, A Child's Heart, Colibri (Hummingbird), and the luminous title song, Gorgonzola, lovely, just plain great — get it! Sung in Spanish, with printed lyrics and English translations. (RR9102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Huayucaltia

Amazonas

Cindy Harding, a founding member of the group Sabia, is married to the incredible Peruvian guitarist Ciro Hurtado; both of them are pivotal members of this very excellent quintet (Cindy is the only woman, the primary occasional vocalist, and the only member from the US; the others are from Mexico, Argentina, and Colombia). This 1992 release is a primarily instrumental passage through a teeming jungle of primordial rhythms and glistening cascades of sound. The music is like no other: a blending of elegant jazz, jubilant flamenco, and haunting folk and classical styles. They perform on a myriad of Andean instruments from which they coax incredible sounds: rushing water, birds, weening winds. Musically outstanding! (ROM26012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Irene Ferrera

Irene

A voluptuous, very womanly and woman-oriented tape by a Venezuelan singer/guitarist who now resides in Oregon. Her voice is strong, deep, and richly textured; her rhythms abundant; and she beautifully interprets works of contemporary Brazilian composers and other South American songwriters such as Chilean and Peruvian poets Violeta Parra and Chabuata Granda. The sambas, reggae, and baiños are performed with Brazilian/Cambbean/Latin nuances...she plays the music of a continent, of the tropics, of the people of Latin America. Includes Gracias a la Vida, Magdalena, Senora Melancholy. Highly recommended! (IP1) CS: 9.98

La India Mellyara

La Sonora Mellyara

Melida Yara Yanguma, nicknamed "La India" due to her strong native appearance, has become one of Colombia's only female band leaders... as well as a fabulous singer, known to many for her work with supergroup Sabor Dinámico. Here, interpreting cumbia (Colombia's traditional national rhythm) with great skill and passion, she presents an album perfect for dancing and moving, with lots of percussion and horns. One of the Women of the World series. (RVB1005) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Los Folkloristas

Mexico!

This 2-woman, 5-man ensemble has been in existence for 25 years (I don't think there have always been women in it — I'm sure someone will correct me if I'm wrong), and in spite of such an extensive performing and recording history, this is the first U.S. pressing of any of their titles. Involved in the preservation of the traditional music of Latin America and its massive repertoire, they sing in Spanish and several indigenous dialects, and play over 100 different instruments! This volume offers an overview of music from all over Mexico, representing a variety of cultures, and includes lyrics and English translations. (FF521) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Margareth Menezes

Elegido

This African/Brazilian vocalist has a husky style reminiscent of Lorraine Segato (Parachute Club), and an eclectic musical sensibility: songs range from pop to samba to merengue to reggae, in languages from Portuguese to Yoruban to French! Elegido is an ancient Yoruban city, and the song is an exaltation to Oxalá, god of the African rituals; other titles include: Natureza Mãe (Mother Nature), Maravilha Morena (Dark Skinned Wonder), Negra Melodia (Black Melody) and Hino Das Águas (Hymn to the Waters). Produced by David Byrne of the Talking Heads. (MNG9855) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Maria Bethania

Memória da Pele/ Memory of Skin

This wonderful and popular "tropicalist" singer, sister of the famous lyricist Caetano Veloso, is quite "out" in her native Brazil, so we hear her deep, smooth, husky coffee-with-cream voice caress songs in a variety of lush styles on this 1988 release. Includes Morena (Dark-Skinned Girl), Faço do Ouro (Storehouse of Gold), whose lyrics translate: "Oxum, goddess of the waters. I'm a singer/queen. You reign over my throat, from whence this sound comes. Offer you perfume and flowers for having given me this talent"; and Salve as Folhas (Save the Leaves), a song to the spirit which governs the leaves, an integral part of Afro-Brazilian rhythm. (PLG838928) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Marimba Quest

Incidents in Travel

This instrumental trio from San Antonio, Texas, presents both traditional and contemporary music for marimba, a most evocative and magical instrument which originated in the rainforests of Central America. Trio leader Alice Gomez, a nationally-known composer and marimba player, is joined by Marilyn Rife on marimba and Michael Richter on nylon-string guitar, plus percussion and occasional flute selections include Rainforest, Eagles, Gambel. (TT114) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa

Assorted Titles-Ladyslipper To Pick

Mercedes Sosa is an Argentinian New Song vocalist/interpreter, people's musician, whose vocal qualities are not easily described, but words like penetrating, melancholy, soaring, dark, intense, reverent, steadfast, beautiful, exquisite, soothing, intelligent come close. She sings in Spanish, but somehow communicates a message that is political even to those who don't speak that language. Her music was banned in Chile in the early '70s when the military junta took power, and was also banned in her home country for awhile. Perhaps some of you will have heard her on Holly's 1990 release Singer in the Storm, and, being as moved by her as we are, will want to explore her discography. We hope everyone who reads this catalog will try out her music; but, supply is so erratic, we can rarely predict which titles will be available. The simplest thing to do is to order this generic "Assorted Titles," and let us pick one for you. If there are any you already have or do not want, please specify. (SOSA7) CS: 13.98 CD: 19.98

Milly, Jocelyn y los Vecinos

7+1 = Vecinos

Meet Milly Quezada, merengue's first and most well-known female superstar, her sister Jocelyn, and her two brothers. Merengue is lickety-split-fast fantastic dance music originating in the Dominican Republic, with lots of percussion and horns, and some vocals reminding us of Scottish-mouth music in its sheer speed. Milly's also the first woman to sing merengue commercially, and the only merengue great to live outside the Dominican Republic (her family came to New York in 1965). She reputedly enjoys singing about women leaving machista men; no lyrics or translations are provided here, so we're not sure of the content, but this is one of their most recent releases (1991), and includes La Reina (The Queen). Fabulous sound; you'll never sit still; highly recommended! (MP8058) CD: 15.98

Sabia

Portavoz

Fortunately we still have some recordings available from this accomplished Nueva Cancion ensemble which is unfortunately (for us) now disbanded. This 1986 release presents a repertoire of political and liberation songs about the people of Nicaragua, El Salvador, Somalia, and other parts of the globe. About a third is instrumental, a third in Spanish, and a third in English; recommended! (FF412) CS: 9.98

Live! En Vivo!

Their tenth anniversary live-in-concert album features some of their best material and all of the group's present and alumni members. Includes La Andina, Volaverá (see 17 by Violeta Parra), Mujer Sandinista and more. Never Turning Back includes spontaneous participation by the LA Women's Community Choir. Spirited, rhythmic, political, compassionate, harmonious. Recommended! (FF494) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sukay

Mama Luna

This 1-woman 2-man trio presents lovely Ecuadorian, Peruvian, and Bolivian music featuring notched bamboo flutes, pan pipes, and charangos or Andean guitars, with lead vocals by Queen Howard (a woman). Some contemporary material with Spanish lyrics is included in addition to their trademark traditional instrumentals; so this, their fifth release, should appeal to an even broader audience. (FF433) CS: 9.98

Homeland

A fusion of country/folk/pop melodies and Latin instrumentation, the songs of this 1989 album reflect this Mexican-American singer/songwriter's musing in the liner notes, "...wondering how my love for my parents' humble Mexican heritage and language would mix with idealistic American images of a musical future." The first cut Jacquin imagines the motivations for illegal border crossing, while West Side of Town recreates the story of her parents' lives; and Ranchito Little Ranch Girl, is a sweet song of courtship. Song partly in English and partly in Spanish, this album employs a variety of instruments, including harmonica, pedal steel, tabor, accordion, fiddle, bongos and more. (AM8263) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Aquella Noche

Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist/singer/songwriter/guitarist brings an emotional integrity to her work that readily surpasses that of your average "folksinger". This live recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide line-for-line English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Pasa, Vuelvete (You Who Can Return — the Atahualpa Yupanqui classic anthrized so beautifully by Mercedes Sosa), her original waltz Mama, Huérfanos Y Sangre (Mama, Bones and Blood for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Buy this recording — you won't be disappointed. We promise! (WAT1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Culture Swing

A fall 1992 release from one of our favorite artists, themes range from the timeless to current social issues. A beautiful blending of Anglo and Hispanic cultures! (ROU3122) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Amazulu

Amazulu is a British 3-woman "2-tone" reggae band whose sound is a polished mix of island rhythms, nice harmonies and tight horn arrangements. Includes Mongoose Bay, Caro, and a fine dance tune, All Over the World. (MNG9805) CS: 9.98

Vodou Adjae

We're carrying this recording, despite the predominance of male singers and musicians, because it's the only Haitian recording we've found with any women on it, and you've been requesting them! Here, the songs are primarily sung in Creole French, and are about the different elements of the Haitian peoples' traditional culture and religion. Vodou (more commonly spelled "voodoo" in the states), as well as their historic and constant struggles for political unity and independence. Their name comes from a priest named Boukman, a slave leader who launched the revolution which led to the establishment of the first black republic in the world. This particular dance music "Vodou Adjae" bridges influences from religious drumming and the high-energy springtime festival, called "Rara." One song is particular, Mizik a Mandou (Song for a Woman) insists that it's time for women's equality to be recognized, and is sung by the female songwriter, Mimerose Beaubrun. Lyrics with translations are provided. Hypnotic and compelling! (MNG9899) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cedella Marley Booker

Awake Zion

As was her son Bob Marley, the "Grandmother of Reggae," is a strong Rastafarian. In the fullness of her songs, she speaks to her sorrow as a mother separated from her child — for instance, in Mother Don't Cry — and of consolation, resolution, strength and faith. Here she fulfills Bob Marley's request that she should sing, in an impressive album complete with many original songs combining reggae and gospel styles, with backup by many members of the Wailers. Originally released under the title Redemption Songs. (RYK204) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

I-Three

Beginning

Wow! A superlative full-length LP by this dynamic consisting of Judy Mowatt, Rita Marley and Marcia Griffiths: the harmonies and rhythms are thrilling and joyful — very tight, will take your breath away at times. The opening cut, Coming Out Around the World, has the makings of a major hit, as an inspiring message to relate to and embrace the good in life. Vital, vibrant, and sincere... Recommended! (TG3) CS: 9.98

Reggae ♦ Caribbean

Black Woman

Probably the best release ever by this familiar voice in mainstream reggae. She wrote & arranged 6 of the 10 songs, giving us a rare glimpse into a Rastafarian woman's perspective. Black Woman is a tribute of remarkable strength and beauty. Slave Queen exhorts women to "remove the shackles on your mind," while Sisters' Chant & Strength to Go through give promise to the vision of women shaping our personal & political futures. An exciting album, both political & spiritual. A very danceable...highly recommended! (SHN43011) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lillian Allen

Conditions Critical

Lillian brings her mixture of resistance dub poetry and unrelenting reggae rap rhythms to new heights here, as she vocalizes her searing political and personal insights, indictments, and visions with poetic brilliance. Assisted by Parachute Club members Lorraine Segato, Lauri Gonger, producer Billy Bryans, plus percussional Nydia Liberty Mata and others, the sound is energizing and inspiring. Includes Sister Hold On, Da Ya Mamma Earth, and Freedom is Azania for Black South Africa. Recommended! (RR8802) CS: 9.98

Revolutionary Tea Party

Merely the finest album of dub poetry in our reggae section and in our catalog...but what else would you expect from a righteous feminist dub poet who teams up musically with Parachute Club members Lorraine Segato, Laurie Conger, and Billy Bryans?? A Jamaican-born Canadian resident, Lillian incorporates the ferment of the Black Power movement of the 60's; the Antiwar, Liberation, Peace and Women's movements of the 70's; and the revitalized activism of the 80's, to create a voice for equality, justice, pleasure and empowerment. Includes unique selections written expressly from a woman's perspective: Birth Poem, Birth Version, and also features the Toronto All-Girls Subversive Chorus! Lillian herself describes it as "the basest get down and boogie message album to hit the streets this decade. WATCH OUT! So, take heed...Highly recommended. (RR8807) CS: 9.98

Ranking Ann

A Slice of English Toast

This fortunately-released album contains two "must-have" classics of the "toasting" style — this is when a DJ raps or talks, often about current issues, over a "dub rhythm" track. Kill the Police Bill, originally a separate EP, is a highly political, highly incredible recording about the need to revise a bill which is turning England into a police state by allowing the arrest and detention, without charge, of any "suspicious-looking" i.e. unemployed or minority person. The sounds and rhythms create an eerie, frightening atmosphere, suggestive of brutality, with a clear call for resistance... how timely! Also includes Liberated Woman. Ranking Ann, born in England to Jamaican parents and identifying as Jamaican, has played a leading role in the development of the toasting style. Recommended! (ARW002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Who Feels It Knows It

Too long defined as "Bob Marley's wife," Rita has emerged from his shadow to express her beliefs, mostly spiritual, to the world. Her first album, which she co-produced, is pure reggae, very smooth and tightly arranged. Includes One Draw, a humorous anthem to the Amazon of Marijuana, sinsinella, plus Thank You Jah, Play Play, and Easy Sailing. (SHN43003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

We Must Carry On

This 1991 release, Rita's first in seven years, presents a strong collection of songs, including four Bob Marley compositions (two of which have never been released before), in this year of tenth anniversary tributes. Includes Dem A Fight, a strong appeal against war and violence, and Earth Runnings, a rocking tempo, rhythmic tune complemented by Rita's wailing gospel-like vocals along with rich supporting harmonies. (SHN43082) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jah Disciple

One of our best-selling reggae artists (of Black Cinderella fame) offers more political, social, and personal commentary on this 1988 release of original songs. She performs in the DJ dub, or "toasting" style; this is when a DJ raps or talks, often about current issues, over a rhythm track. Includes Intelligence, a trait she esteems and cultivates as a woman, Get It Straight Africans, and A No Me Name Peggy, stating that "I don't like when a man does not show respect to a woman." (RAS3053) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mother Culture

One of reggae's strongest presences, Sister Carol is renowned for her fierce combination of serious lyrics and rapid fire toasting, for her intelligence and charisma. She has a degree in education, but feels she can teach people more through music than she could in the classroom (how true!). This 1991 release, "invited" to Nelson and Winnie Mandela and the Freedom Fighters in Azania (South Africa), contains Mandela's Release, Shackles, Mother Culture. (RAS3077) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Country

Thank Heavens for Dale Evans

This very last minute addition to our 1993 catalog has been requested and suggested, so we're glad we can offer it even though we don't even have time to review it properly! Terrific music from an all-woman's ensemble on their 1992 debut release: a perfect blend of country, bluegrass, and western swing played with impressive vocal skill and sterling vocal harmonies. (CCR9103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Little Ol' Cowgirl

Ditto on their second, 1992 release; here they present a little less bluegrass and a little more country, with a bit of pop-wop and even the jazzy original Pink Tonatils. Good choices in covers too: includes an interesting bluegrass version of Sam Cooke's You Send Me, and a raging take on Mary Chapin-Carpenter's A Road to Just a Road. Be sure to not miss!! (CCR9250) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dolly Parton, L. Ronstadt, E. Harris

Trio

This long-awaited collaboration by 3 top country artists—Dolly, Linda and Emmylou—includes Willowwee, Those Memories of You, Hobbes Meditation, Farther Along, Sweet. (WB25491) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Emmylou Harris

Bluebird

Favored by some as her best recording, this 1988 effort certainly shines! Always a "songwriter's singer", she chooses material here which features her strongest vocal trait—the ability to break your heart in just a few notes! Joined by Boonie Flatt, Kate and Anna McGarrigle and a host of other talented folks, songs include the McGarrigles' Love Is, her original A River for Him, John Hiatt's Joy Blue Heart, and the rollicking Heartbreak Hill. (REP25776) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Iris DeMent

Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelborn by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Cry). Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with tunes like Harder Than Moses in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing—she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. (PH1138) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

k.d. lang and the Reclines

A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found a supply of k.d.'s debut release, which we've been trying to get our hands on for about 4 years. Unfortunately, they come to us at a very high import cost. It's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chroni-cled: Bopwina ("she's my gal"), Hanky Panky, her original Pine and Staw, plus Patsy Cline's Stop, Look and Listen and 5 others. No k.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM85) CS: 14.98 CD: 25.98

k.d. lang and the Reclines

Angel With A Lariat

This Canadian artist has become a major sensation in country-rock, and for good reason! Her deep voice is strong and resonant (yes, even that worn-out word powerful), her delivery punchy, and her high energy inspires a raucous good time, and she's already creating some new fans of country and rockability, from the ranks of women's music as well as from the mainstream. Includes several originals such as Watch Your Step, Poriz and title song, plus other rousing numbers like Time Into My Wave. Fabulous! (SR25441) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang

Shadowland

Highlight here is Honky Tonk Angels' Medley (a medley of In the Evening, When the Sun Goes Down, You Nearly Lost Your Mind, and Blues Stay Away From Me), with vocals by "The Honky Tonk Angels" (consisting of no less than Kitty Wells, Loretta Lynn, Brenda Lee, and k.d. herself!!) Some of you have no doubt seen the terrific video. More evocative, sultry and powerhouse vocals from k.d., in less of a rowdy, more country-ballad style than her first release. It's dynamic; don't miss it! (SR25724) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang and The Reclines

Absolute Torch and Twang

Following Shadowland, this album is true to the title, with country ballads resonating from the Canadian prairies. Some great originals, such as Nowhere To Stand, It's Me, Walkin' In and Out of Your Arms, and Big-Boned Gal, as well as absolute country croons like Full Moon Full of Love, as her love songs quite genderless. A talent to be reckoned with, and an album for all fans. (SR25677) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ingenue

Since we're writing this prior to its actual release, here's from the blurb sheet: "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of 16n songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dropped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chapeleine, Constant Craving, Wash Me Clean, and Save Me. (SR26840) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

K.T. Oslin

80's Ladies

This release by one of country music's rising stars is gaining a lot of word-of-mouth popularity in the women's community. Most of the songs are original, and it's all solid pop country material, broken hearts, mended hearts, loves lost and found, and, of course, a few memories. In the title song, she sings about the ways women her age (late 30's) have grown up over the years. Also includes the humorous Younger Men ("the only trouble with being a woman my age is the men my age") (RCA924) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kathy Mattea

A Collection of Hits

Kathy was nominated for country singer of the year in 1990, gaining her much-deserved recognition, and this album is a taste of all of her best. From the first cut, a rendition of Nancy Griffith's Love at the Five and Dime, she demonstrates her ability to make a song her own. This album also includes Walk the Way the Wind Blows, Train of Memories and 18 Wheels and a Dozen Roses. A must for all long time Kathy Mattea fans and new converts. (PLG842330) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kim Person & Lana Puckett

I Don't Know if They Let Cowgirls In

From lead and harmony vocals, to pedal steel, banjo, guitars, keyboards, mid bass and tin drum, to production, to engineering, to graphics... these two women did it all! They cover favorite country tunes, stylistically as true to form as one can get, with wonderful harmonies and arrangements: Just When I Needed You Most, The Rose, I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, Help Me Make It Through the Night, Texas When I Die, and others requested by the audiences in the women's bars where they often perform. Buy this tape and help them get their name out there a bit farther; they deserve it, and it's pure enjoyment. Recommended! (CIM001) CS: 9.98

Lucinda Williams

This 1988 album created quite a buzz. Her delivery is straightforward and frank, expressing in her songs an approach to love she feels is an outgrowth of feminism—a wish to have what she wants, live as she wants. She has a great country voice; strains of Louisiana and Texas; and the back-up is tasteful, just country enough. (RTR47) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Passionate Kisses — 5-Song EP

This specialty-priced EP contains 4 new live performances—a new version of Side of the Road, plus 3 previously unreleased songs—in addition to the title cut, which is from her self-titled album... now back in print. (RTR66) CS: 5.98 CD: 9.98

Happy Woman Blues

Ladyfinger carried this 1980 recording years ago! Scheduled for re-release in 1990 in all formats, it's a country blues recording consisting of original tunes which deserves a spot in your Lucinda Williams collection. (SF40003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ramblin'

Recorded in 1978, this album reminds us that few artists have shared Lucinda's ability to get to the heart of country blues. She brings to the songs of Robert Johnson, Memphis Minnie and others, her already distinctive sound, filled with melancholy yet powerfully direct. Remastered and re-released in 1991. (SF40042) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter

Shooting Straight in the Dark

This 1990 release of mostly original songs confirms the promise of the earlier albums of this city girl gone country. Ranging from raucous and highly danceable cuts such as Right Now and Down at the Twist and Shout to the plaintive hill sound of The More Things Change, these songs are about looking for love and love lost. Shawn Colvin makes a guest appearance on The Moon and Saint Christopher. Strongly suggested. (COL46077) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Come On Come On

Her spectacularly smooth voice and suggestive, often hard-hitting lyrics make a great combination once again on this 1992 release—she blends her country/folk rhythms with some feminist messages that should make many men think twice! He Thinks He'll Keep Her looks at the motivations of many housewives who choose the road instead of their husbands, while The Hard Way will remind many women to appreciate how far we've come against odds men never face. Also includes a great rendition of Lucinda Williams' Passionate Kisses, and the outstanding title cut. Some background vocals by Indigo Girls, Shawn Colvin, Roseanne Cash. (COL46881) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter*Hometown Girl

Her 1987 debut album contains 10a. Heroes and Heroines, A Lot Like Me, Other Streets and Other Towns and more — mostly originals, with her fabulous voice being the reason you just gotta have this. We didn't know about this in 1987, but are glad we do now! (COL40758) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Mary-Chapin Carpenter*State of the Heart

If you weaken at the knees at the sound of a great voice, this is for you. This rising star has one of the strongest, sweetest, most wonderful voices in contemporary country music, and this 1989 album is a testament to her songwriting, vocal, and instrumental talents. Includes Read My Lips, This Shirt, Down in Mary's Land, Outin' Time, and back-up vocals by her good friend Shawn Colvin! (COL44229) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith*Little Love Affairs

Nanci's album covers are nearly as evocative as her music, and this one's no exception. It's an intimate portrait of her crossed as a Texas schoolgirl (complete with bolo tie on her school uniform and bluebonnet in hand) surrounded by books and records by other Texans who've obviously been significant to her. The album is full of touching portraits of real lives and loves, beautifully rendered by Nanci and her back-up musicians. Features the poignant, Irish-sounding title song. (MCA42162) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith*One Fair Summer Evening

This 1988 release, recorded live in concert, contains Looking For the Time (Markin' Girl), Trouble in the Fields, favorites from A Distance, Once in a Very Blue Moon, and more — on her only bare-boned acoustic album to date. Intimately communicates the ambience of her musical heritage — the club it was recorded in, Anderson Fair, is where she received much of her musical education when she was growing up. (MCA42255) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith*Lone Star State of Mind

Underscoring her full-fledged move into the country arena, her first major-label release comes complete with dobro and pedal-steel backup. Includes In the Distance, Sing One for Sister, Cold Hearts, Closed Minds, For Economic (for Rosalia Sarrett and Kate Wolf), Trouble in the Fields, about the difficulties of the farmers, and a re-recording of the sweet tribute to her best childhood friend, There's A Light Beyond These Woods (Mary Margaret). Highly recommended — a favorite in the Slipper office! (MCA5527) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith*Storms

This 1992 release, like her previous titles, is another great traveling companion, primarily original ballads, with images of the road, driving with music playing, and the country south. Includes Drive-In Movies and Dashboard Lights, It's A Hard Life Wherever You Go. (MCA8319) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith*Late Night Grande Hotel

On this 1991 release, this "folkabilly" artist continues her tradition of singing "tones and ringtones of life" — her literate short-story songs with deftly-drawn characters. Highlight is Heaven, another jewel by Julie Gold, of From A Distance fame (and in fact, you can hear Julie herself sing this on the folk compilation On A Winter's Night, under Various Artists in our Folk Section). Also included are duets with Tanita Tikaram (It's Too Late Now) and Phil Everly (It's Just Another Morning Here). (MCA16306) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith*Once in a Very Blue Moon

Nanci's third release has a real country rock sound that makes you want to grab your favorite partner and dance. Daddy Said is among her best, followed closely behind by Ballad of Robin Hunter-Smith. Her style, though definitely Texan, brings to mind the reviewer's time spent in the El Dorado Hotel in Woodbury, NY: got the picture? If you like Rosalinda Cash, Bonnie Raitt, or Emmylou Harris, you're sure to love Nanci. (PH1095) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith*There's A Light Beyond These Woods

The title song is a touching original ballad to her childhood best friend, Mary Margaret, many other originals of love, lost dreams, and her Texas home. Lovely acoustic guitar and vocal! Eric Taylor on the lead vocal. Recommended. (PH1097) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith*Poet In My Window

A beautifully self-produced LP of original country-style songs, dedicated to Marilyn Monroe and Carson McCullers, among others. Fine voice and harmonies with tasteful accompaniment. Includes Marilyn Monroe, Nanon and Waitress, Julia Anne, Heart of a Miner. (PH1098) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith*The Last of the True Believers

Nanci's 10th album is beautifully filled out with acoustic instrumentation, providing a perfect backdrop for her vignettes of Americana, her voice smooth and silvery as ever. Nanci is rapidly becoming one of the top country/folk performers. (PH1109) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline/Kitty Wells*20 Great Hits

Two of the most influential vocalists in the history of country music alternate hits on this album. Includes Kitty's If I Were a God Who Made Honky-Tonk Angels, Hasn't Break U.S.A., Makin' Believe, and Patsy's Crazy, I Fall to Pieces, Walking After Midnight, and lots more! (DLX7860) CS: 9.98 CD: 10.98

Patsy Cline*The Rocky Side: 1st Recordings 3

This album focuses on her rockabilly! rock 'n' roll recordings: hillbilly boogie, jump honky-tonk swing, urban R&B, and uptempo pop songs! Some of her best, and most of this is not included in other collections of her material, thus it is an aspect of her talent often overlooked. Includes Gotta Lot of Rhythm in My Soul, Ain't No Wheels on This Ship. (RH70050) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline*Greatest Hits

For some, hard to listen to without an image of Jessica Lange! Twelve songs which represent the apex of Patsy's long country-music career, including Crazy, I Fall to Pieces, Swamp DREAMS (Oh You), Walking After Midnight, She's Got You. Her exceptional voice epitomizes emotion and heart; recommended! (MCA12) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline*At Her Best

This 1992 release has hit the Billboard charts for Top Country Albums! Includes Stop the World, Too Many Secrets, In Care of the Blues, Walkin' After Midnight, and 5 others. (HOL482) CS: 9.98 CD: 10.98

Patsy Cline, Kitty Wells, et al*Country Gals

This anthology contains selections by 5 great women in country music: Patsy Cline, Kitty Wells (If I Were a God Who Made Honky-Tonk Angels), Loretta Lynn (Don't Come Home a Drunkin' With Lovin' on Your Mind), Tanya Tucker, Donna Fargo, Jeanne C. Riley (Harper Valley P.T.A.), Jan Howard, and Jeanne Pruett, performing country classics, many of them songs that became associated with their names. (MCA20534) CS: 9.98

Patsy Cline*20 Golden Hits

Lots of her greatest: I Fall to Pieces, Walking After Midnight, Crazy, Hungry for Love, I'm Blue Again, The Heart You Break May Be Your Own, and 14 more. (DLX7887) CS: 9.98 CD: 10.98

Ranch Romance*Western Dream

From several coming dates for a d. lang to their 1990 debut women's festival performances, this 4-woman trad-but-rad band has brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythm, hot instrumental work, and wild yodeling to thousands of new fans around the country! Perfect for 2-stepping or any other partner dancing you'd care to do, as well as feet-stomping and finger-snapping, their old standards like Why Don't You Love Me (Like you Used To) and Covesick Blues are mixed with originals by lead vocalist Jo Miller: her Baby's On the Run features heartack Jo singing of her woman lover who's playing the town. Highly recommended! (SUG3799) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance*Blue Blazes

This 1991 release is a hot mix of "regressive country" originals, incorporating acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing. Characterized by thoughtful original lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass, it has been described as a d. lang and Patsy Cline meet Bob Wills. Includes The Buckaroo, which could be called an oral version of Thelma & Louise. Look for more tour dates on the East Coast! (SUG3794) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweethearts of the Rodeo*Sisters

The Sweethearts are Kristine Arnold and Janis Gil, and their music is easy and sweet with gentle, country-style harmonies. Wendy Waldman co-produced, co-wrote some of the songs, and provides some back-up vocals here. Includes Sisters (Best of Friends), a proclamation of everlasting devotion and friendship. (COL47638) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Tim Williams*Creole Nightingale

Yes Tim's a woman, and yes the power of her deep voice might send you through the ceiling! It's clear why she's the best loved female country singer in Louisiana, and why she's raised 10,000 people to her feet at the New Orleans Jazz Festival — she has the makings of a superstar. If you're a country fan who has ever wished for a little more gusto in the voices of female vocalists, here's your ticket. Includes Laissez Le Bon Temps Roulez, Make Your Woman Feel Wanted, Steppin' Out Blues. Recommended! (GS11022) CS: 9.98

Wynonna Judd*Wynonna

Flying solo on this 1992 release, Naomi's daughter holds true to the pure, soft country sound she and her mom were famous for. Includes the hit song One Is Her Only Need, the inspirational When I Reach the Place I'm Goin', and a heartfelt ballad of unrequited love in My Strongest Weakness. ... and she jazzes things up a bit with the hit single, No One Else on Earth. Sure to please any Judds fan! (MCA10529) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Alleen Vance*Take A Step

This 1988 recording debuts Alleen's wonderful sweet voice, 9- and 12-string guitar, and covers both original and interpreted material. Like many other female folkies of note (Sally Rogers and Claudia Schmidt, for example), Alleen's "spark" as a folk singer comes from her ability to take the small personal details of our lives and speak larger truths about them. Includes Grandma's Banjo — a lively, passionate reminiscence to a daughter by a grandmother marching to protect future generations, plus Four Daughters and Your Sons and The Strength Keep Going. (AVE001) CS: 9.98

Alleen Vance*After the Night

One of the winners of the Songwriter's Contest at the 1990 Knoxville Folk Festival (that's where Michelle Shocked made her recording debut with the Sony walkman...), Alleen is indeed a singer/songwriter of note. Just ask Judy Small, sponsor of Alleen's Australian tour! Weaving together contemporary and traditional styles, she sings of ordinary people, of peace and justice, of personal growth and humor. Included here: The Country of the Savior, her award-winning song about the priests murdered in El Salvador; Amarok, a hauntingly original of a traditional wolf; and She's Like the Swallow, a re-write of a traditional ballad which transforms the female subject from victim to proud survivor. Give her a listen! (AVE003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Alison Brown*Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Bela Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Alison show the show here — Alison Krass accompanies on fiddle; Dave Griesman on mandolin; Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, one of our Top Picks for 1992, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this, so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79459) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss

I've Got That Old Feeling

This prodigious artist picked up the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Recording for this album at the 1991 ceremonies. At the ripe old age of 19! Expert fiddler and soulful vocalist, she breathes vitality and passion into these songs about leaving and being on the road. She and banjo-playing Alison Brown are the show-stoppers, along with other members of her acoustic band. (ROU0275) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss and Union Station

Every Time You Say Goodbye

This Grammy winner returns with this outstanding 1992 album of contemporary bluegrass and country music, backed by the men of her band, Union Station. She affirms her bluegrass roots with the same fresh vocal style and award-winning fiddle playing that have brought her success on the country music charts. She draws material from the country, bluegrass and gospel traditions, along with songs by Shawn Colvin and Karla Bonoff, and originals by current and former members of Union Station. Includes New Foot. (ROU0265) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Amy Fradon & Leslie Ritter

Amy & Leslie

Their second release is technically excellent, with more beautiful harmonies and several selections definitely worth hearing. Highlights for us include the Celtic-influenced women's spiritual songs: The Moonrise, Nadja, Faerie Song; their version of Once in a Very Blue Moon; and Hymn to Her for the earth... also includes more love songs to men than their previous release. Rory Block briefly guests on slide guitar. (ALC110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco

"With a 'oo' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" (to quote our venerable purchasing manager, Haggae)... Ani (pronounced "Ah-nee") is a young songwriter, singer and guitarist whose songs and poems are lyrical, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile vocal! Songs include: Work Your Way Girl, Dog Coffee, Last Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin... highly recommended! (RIG001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Not So Soft

Well, this release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani! The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get active in the listening; when you hear her, you'll be compelled to move closer to the speakers; rock your body, experience your heart brimming over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic... She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful self-harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dust broom! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented... Again, highly recommended. (RIG002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Imperfectly

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Unflinching in her pursuit of honesty, she strikes sparks incessantly as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She struggles with sexual identity in In or Out and If It Isn't Her, and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in I'm No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shades of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the third time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Anne Hills

Woman of a Calm Heart

What most of us aspire to be, for sure...and the title song, written by assistant producer Irene Weiss, is alone worth the price of this beautiful contemporary folk album. Anne's voice is pure and smooth, crystal clear, and her carefully-selected repertoire is a perfect match. Includes a lovely duet with Livingston Taylor, Akasha Wind, plus Eliza Gilkyson's Tennessee Road, Polinco, her own The Child Within, and Angel in Paradise, featuring background vocals by Rory Block. (FP464) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen

Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the result is as fabulous as their fans might expect! It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their scappella work: most songs include back-up by producer/cellist Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...!) Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities

Take A Dance

How to characterize this lovely bit of musicianship? As their extensive and informative liner notes indicate, this is a problem the band faces regularly, but can best be summed up as "beautiful but slightly esoteric English dance music." The mostly traditional material on this 1991 release is arranged in a unique manner: one person plays the melody while the others improvise harmonies and counter-melodies, making the recording especially fresh and spontaneous. Includes the achingly beautiful classical piece, The Wood Duck. Again, highly recommended! (FF564) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lea, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddis in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk-dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and biting beauty sounds Baroque/classical/new-agey, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, soar, float, and chase each other with counter-melodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, flageolet, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Beth Holmgren & Jane Peppier

Courting Disaster

These 21 songs about love (mostly failed, of course, with a few cheerful exceptions) reflect women's perspectives — with some anti-marriage undertones — of several centuries from the following sources: traditional music, early music, world music, rhythm and aweing, from Siberia to Macedonia to Scotland to New York, from Godric the Monk to the Boswell Sisters (whew!). Beth and Jane have sung together since the 70's, when they were both members of Laduvana, an acappella women's ensemble specializing in music of the Balkans. Beth currently sings with the women's quartet Malaka; Jane directs the Solstice Assembly, a vocal ensemble specializing in Gregorian chant, Medieval Beach Music and more (listed elsewhere in our catalog). Strong harmonies, acappella or with tasteful accompaniment. (SKY208) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

blackgirls

Procedure

blackgirls are 1/3 white women from North Carolina who bring together vocal excellence and classical training on a variety of acoustic instrumentation (among on violins; no percussion) to create a new folk/punk sound. The melodies reflect their musical background, adding a simple beauty to the thought-provoking lyrics imparted in 3-part harmonies. The tempo changes from song to song, from dreamy to jarring, keeping listener interest sparked. Produced by Joe Boyd, known for his work with Fairport Convention, Sandy Denny, and 10,000 Maniacs, to give you a clue about the sound. Includes A Visit to the Behaviorist. Highly recommended! ### blackgirls

Happy

When the computer ate my somewhat rambling first review of this recording not once but thrice, I figured it was Divine Intervention, and thus went back and listened again. How to describe the uncategorizable? To compare them thematically and musically to the Indigos, Bush, Joni, Roches & Raincoats does not do justice. But, life ain't fair, a fact these girls recognize and (sometimes cheerfully) lament. No simple downer misdeeds of life's and love's lumps, but wistful observations, multi-layered declarative chants, honest (& therefore clever) statements — all with lovely vocals and instrumentation. Produced again by Joe Boyd. Buy this, I mean it. (MAM0024) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blue Rose

This is a 5-woman super-stringband! Cathy Fink, Marcy Marxer, Laurie Lewis, Molly Mason, and Sally Van Meter, some of the finest players in the country-folk field, put their talents together beautifully, creating one of the smoothest, clearest, loveliest albums you'll encounter. The material, which underscores their perfectly-matched harmonies, is unusual. Garaldine and Ruthie Mae, for instance, is a touching tale of two bag ladies; and we guess they got their name by combining their songs Blue Love and Wild Rose. Recommended. (SUG3768) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Carla Sciaky

Spin the Weaver's Song

This 1992 release is a remarkable celebration of weaving, spinning, and sheep-shearing songs from all over the world. This 30-song, 75-minute plus album tells the story of the people who have carried the process "from sheep to shawl" over the years. In addition to the British Isles as a source to be expected, the collection also represents Croatia, Armenia, Hungary, Australia, Paraguay, and other locales. Beautiful harmonies to Carla's vocals are provided by Cindy Mangsen, Pete Sutherland, and others. A great gift for any weaver or spinner you know, but don't limit this to them; fans of traditional folk music will love this too. (GL2106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cathy Fink

Banjo Haiku

This 1992 release is a terrific collection of 26 clawhammer banjo tunes, played by an award-winning, expert instrumentalist. Diverse enough for the banjo connoisseur and tasteful enough for all acoustic instrumental fans to enjoy, she covers a wide variety of tunings, tempos and timbres demonstrating the versatility of the old time banjo... in 55 minutes! One vocal is included, and two feature the guitar accompaniment of her partner Marcy Marxer. Includes Ladies Waist Ribbon, Buffalo Gals, Ms. McLeod's Reel, Liza Jane, Kitchen Girl. High quality duplication; recommended! (CMM202) CS: 11.98

Cathy Fink/Marxer/R & L Williams

Learn to Sing Harmony (3-Tape & Bk)

Cathy, Marcy, Robin and Linda — all wonderful singers themselves — teach beginners or experienced singers the principles of two, three, and four-part harmonies to enhance favorite folk, country and bluegrass songs. A special feature: the parts are recorded on separate stereo tracks for practicing either with the melody or harmony lines. This handsome volume contains three one-hour cassettes and a music book... great lessons and great fun! (HOM3) CS: 37.98

Catie Curtis

Dandelion

This 1989 cassette debuts the inestimable talent of Catie Curtis, a young singer/songwriter who got her start drumming in a local production of Marlo Thomas' "Free to Be... You and Me" at the age of 11! Here, she writes poignant and humorous (mostly love) songs, sings them alternately with great feeling and a quiet restraint — an element crucial to any folk singer's success, in this reviewer's opinion! Joined by a terrific saxophonist and bassist on most cuts, the band also utilizes mandolin, guitar, percussion and harmonica. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes: Street Shoes, Baby Grace, Love on the Line, and a sweet ode to her sister's pregnancy, Shif Round. (MG5101) CS: 9.98

Catie Curtis

From Years to Hours

This woman's stunning voice is going to be compared to Karla Bonoff and Cheryl Wheeler for a long time, I can tell. What's going to set her apart is an uncanny blend of strength and vulnerability, a gorgeous combo, if you ask me! This is her second recording, and features 11 originals packed with evocative, bitter-sweet lyrics, a great folk-rock band (including Janet Hood on piano — remember Jane and Sisaparilla? — and a fabulous sax player, Myanna Pontopolidan), and of course, Catie's fantastic voice and acoustic guitar. Highlights include the sassy sweet Grandmother's Name ("I've got my grandmother's name! But she don't remember who I am... 'Is it morning? Is it night? She don't know! Can't remember which is dark and which is light"), the Ferris-wheel Wallpaper Dreams, and the hilarious Pwacher. Recommended! (MGS102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

At Home with the Chenille Sisters

Recorded live, their second album captures all of the outrageous charm, wacky humor, and lush vocal harmonies that have made The Chenilles a legend in the Midwest. From the sly hilarity of originals like Girl Shoes and The Break-Up to rarely-heard chestnuts like Kalamazoo, To Timbuktu and songs of conscience like Holly Near's Hay Una Mujer Desaparecida, this release should ensure their national fame. (RH25) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

Tight, luscious harmonies and a substantial dose of humor might briefly characterize the debut release by these 3 mid-western talents who have appeared on Prarie Home Companion. They sail through an upbeat, zippy, varied repertoire: originals, Dawn, 50s and 60s pop tunes, contemporary stuff... some excellent acappella performances. Even the lyric sheet is funny. If you think their harmonies sound genetic, they say "We really are sisters. We just have different parents." Definitely recommended. (RH29) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm

From a hilarious reworking of La Samba, wherein the refrain becomes "listen to your mama," to an ode to chocolate, to a beautiful original by Connie Huper called Roadmaps, to their exquisite harmonizing on jazz classics like The Wind and Hummin' To Myself, the Chenilles hit their stride to new heights on this 1991 release. (RH39) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Half a Book

On this 1997 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (AM0107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Before we encountered this album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Lianna soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual, strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes, best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk-pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts. In addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrows, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses." Limited quantity, list alternative. (CAP92063) CS: 9.98

Christine Lavin

Future Fossils

This is Christine's first LP (she had an earlier EP called Husbands and Wives, about relationships—the unequal kind) full of social commentary, 50/50 humor and sarcasm, somewhere between live and studio, of original songs. This artist is someone the NY Times calls "a pungent folk-pop humorist... writes wryly comic vignettes of city life that also have an emotional edge." Includes Cold Pizza for breakfast, a spoof of diets. Repeating What I Said when pleasers men who find it difficult to tell the truth, and Don't Ever Call Your Sweetheart by His Name which turns the tables on men who've called women "darling" for centuries... this song was banned from Gracie Mansion. During a discussion of New Age music with this reviewer Christine said, "My mantra is pizza." (PH1104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Beau Woes

From undoubtedly the sharpest wit in the contemporary folk scene, a splendidly entertaining, lively, honest and eclectic album. Includes her clever Biological Time Bomb, her song for all those athletically challenged, Ballad of a Ballgame, the more serious Gettin' Used to Leavin' with veteran folkie Eric Anderson; her spot on Camping, and other humorous and cynical vignettes. A gem. (PH1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind

First of all, if you are a Suzanne Vega listener, this album is an absolute must for your collection... Christine's Mysterious Woman adds new dimensions to the existential meanings of delousing the refrigerator! The song accurately describes the delicious experience of eating sushi (sucking down a bucketful of tentacle slimy, or chewing the suction cups off the bottom of an old bathtub mat) and other activities tolerated in the name of love. Both satire and good folk music fill this album, and even a duet with Livingston Taylor. (PH1131) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Attainable Love

Ten more serio-comic songs that debunk, explore and create the myths of contemporary (net) romance; includes Shopping Cart of Love and Sensitive New Age Guys, as well as the somewhat more serious Victim/Volunteer, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From, and title. A straightforward acoustic production from this insightful, observant commentator. (PH1132) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin

Compass

People Magazine said: "She is a slyly witty songwriter who seems to have undergone an irony-lift... It's as semi-detached observer that Lavin is most striking, though. If we could get her and Loudon Wainwright III named our national folk music laureates, we'd have most of the country's problems accurately described, if not solved, in no time." This 1991 release takes a light-hearted look at inter-personal relationships and includes Blind Dating Fun, I Bring Out the Worst In You, Replaced, and more... like song in a response to the oft-heard line "I'd be lost without you," which made her wonder if they were dating a compass! Recommended! (PH1142) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cindy Kallet

Working on Wings to Fly

"Listening to you is like lying on your back while someone feeds you grapes," said someone to this Martha's Vineyard musician. We rarely carry LPs of folksinger-with-guitar music unless there's something really distinctive about it, and in this case it's her enchanting voice—a good octave lower than your average folksinger but with the same sort of timbre heard in the clearest soprano. An outstanding acappella number in 3 parts (with friends), plus other original songs about New England coastal life. Acappellated guitar accompaniment. Highly recommended. (FL83) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet, E. Epstein, M. Cicone

Angels in Daring

Cindy teams up vocally here with Ellen Epstein and Michael Cicone to present a stunning collection of primarily acappella music drawn from contemporary and traditional sources of the British Isles and America, with a liberal sprinkling of sea music. Their close, perfectly-pitched harmonies have inspired enthusiastic responses from audiences and critics alike, described as warm and healing, technically elegant... and it's all true. Includes Sail Away Ladies, a couple of shape-note hymns, and Cold Is the Night, which Cindy wrote expressly for these 3 minstrels. Definitely recommended! (KEC1) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet

Dreaming Down a Quiet Line

The title encapsulates the beauty and the peaceful simplicity of both the northern New England coast and of this 1989 release of primarily original contemporary folk songs. Featuring beautiful harmony vocals on some by Ellen Epstein, Michael Cicone, and Lisa Kallet-Marx, it includes Song for Margaret, Swah's Song, Glacier Song. (STM1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt/ Sally Rogers

Closing the Distance

An absolute aural delight by two of the finest musicians in the acoustic music universe. They trade licks, leads and harmonies on their first joint album of original, traditional and new material... includes Lovely Agnes, Mama, I Miss You Tonight; the acappella Appalachian Round; a Native American melody Hey Hey Watanoy; I Walk in Beauty highly recommended! (FF425) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt

Essential Tension

Her most personal statement to date, this 1991 release of all original material communicates an introspectiveness that clearly marks a period of profound growth and change for the artist. Her voice has a powerful new edge and, with its incredible 3-octave range, has never been more expressive. The album reflects a greater maturity as both a composer and a poet in love with the sound and meaning of language. Worth the 3-year wait! (RH38) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt & Sally Rogers

While We Live

This 1991 release breaks new ground for both artists at every turn — it's a blending of voices and musical spirits rooted in a friendship that goes back many years. Exciting originals as well as stirring covers are included: Claudia's Going By is a profound life anthem that reverberates with Balkanesque harmonies... Sally's I See the Moon is a tender and beautiful lullaby... Cathy Finn's Sowing a Name is a moving song about the AIDS Quilt... and many more gems. (RH45) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Caution Horses

Their third release — 1990 — contains Witches ("There are witches in the hills calling my name! saying come join us sister, come kiss the flame"), as well as Sun Comes Up, It's Tuesday Morning, Cause Cheap is How I Feel, Rock and Bird, and Powderfinger. (RCA2058) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Cowboy Junkies

Whites Off Earth Now!!

Recorded live in 1988, this is the little-known first recording by the Cowboy Junkies. It includes eight covers (that don't sound anything like the originals) of material by artists ranging from Bruce Springsteen to John Lee Hooker and Robert Johnson, plus one original by Margo and Michael Timmins. Margo is so torchy that she steams on cuts like State Trooper and Forgive Me. Slow and smoky, this album is highly recommended. (RCA2380) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 18.98

Cowboy Junkies

Black Eyed Man

This album, the Junkies' 4th, is — dare we say it? — more upbeat than their previous honey-drippin' pace. Hot that this is fast, mind you, it just picks up the beat a tad. Margo's voice continues to strengthen, as if she were taking her vitamins now, yet still with that sweet hickory-smoked flavor, for which the word "anguid" could have been created... We love how the instruments are recorded to sound like they're in a hazy club, each musician staring off into space wondering if the book will spring for burgers and beer... Includes If You Were the Woman and I Was the Man, Cowboy Junkies Lament. Recommended. (RCA61049) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Trinity Sessions

Margo Timmins is the vocalist of this mostly-Timmins ensemble, and her voice is the distinguishing characteristic of the group; it's smoky, moody, bluesy, evocative, and electric guitar is the prevailing instrumentation, making for a heady ambience. Includes the loneliest version of I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry ever recorded; and a cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane. Recorded live in Toronto. (RCA6568) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Eileen Joyner

Always Wear Underwear

If you ask most female songwriters who their main influence has been, 80 percent of them will name Joni Mitchell. Not Eileen Joyner. "Frank Zappa and Dr. Seuss" she replies when asked. Social, political, and personal commentary till her 1991 debut release. With track, Periodic Blues, Trickle Down, Socially Appropriate (Politically Correct), and several relate to her relocation to Washington, DC. From the outer cover to what's under—I mean inside, definitely off-beat! (VND1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Pilgrims

If you think folk music is lacking lyrically, melodically, or spiritually, never fear, Eliza Gilkyson is here! This accomplished singer-songwriter has created this dazzling album from her very heart, and it's sure to touch a chord in yours. As a captain in self-exploration, she charts aspects of her quest for love and understanding with a compelling, magnetic voice—at times reminiscent of the qualities of Chris Williamson or Ferron. Includes Maternal Men ("docking with the dollars, missile-envy madness..."), Foolish Heart, Calling All Angels. Her first release since her out-of-print 1979 debut album on Helios Records, which we had long ago... incredibly talented, intensely aware, searching and caring, Eliza offers a musical gift not to be passed by. Highly recommended! (GC171007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Legends of Rainmaker

Most notable here is an original country-rock song Rose Strike Back, a passionate plea for a woman to leave an abusive relationship, on which she is backed by Bonnie Raitt... second, a beautiful cover of the early-60's hit song written by her father, Terry Greenfield (surely some of you remember that? "Once there were greenfields kissed by the sun..."). A nice follow-up to Pilgrims. (GC17323) CS: 9.98

Elizabeth Cotton

Freight Train & Other NC Folk Songs

It's hard to believe that a talent as rare and true as Ubbas can go unrecognized for so many years, but thankfully, by the time she died in 1987 at the age of 95, she was finally gaining a small portion of her deserved acclaim. What she was able to record in her first 30 years is best described as legendary. Her most popular original song Freight Train, her well-known Oh Babe If Ain't No Lie, and her beautifully simplistic rendition of the gospel classic What a Friend We Have in Jesus appear on this recording which was originally released in 1958 as Folksongs & Instrumentals for Guitar. Any fan of traditional folk, blues and gospel will appreciate this treasure, and will recognize the impact she has had on countless other performers: from the Seepers to Faith Noan. Includes Junk Food, Lunch Lunch, Sensitive New Age Gyps, Prisoners of Their Hairsdos, Not Bad For a Spread, These Boots Are Made For Walkin', and Home Is Where the Heart Is, a touching vignette by Sally about a lesbian couple and a gay couple. Home

Her sound embodies the strong but supple spirit of primal warrior woman, of Womanspirit Rising. Her voice comes across exuberant yet steadfast, with an unyielding sensuality... If there is a category called Environmental Female Singers, Joanne Rand has quickly and forcefully become a favorite with the most unquestionably Deep Ecology lyrics yet. (Earl First Journal) Start your Joanne Rand collection with Choosing Sides, and if you like that one, come back for this worthwhile 1988 debut release; includes Nobody Lays a Hand On Me, Radiation On My Windshield, Thanks. Joanne Rand

Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice gorgeous voice gorgeous voice environmental songs gorgeous voice social/political/spiritual songs gorgeous voice... This woman's range will take your breath away! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves; her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness; and I already told you about her voice, about which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1989 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaanisqatsi, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

This Georgia native-turned-Northern Californian possesses one of the finest voices we've heard — see above reviews for further raves — and this tape gives one the privileged experience of hearing her live performance. Includes Dream of Peace, Never Alone, Sacred Spaces, Working Woman and Earth My Body. (JR3) CS: 9.98

Judy Collins

Fires of Eden

Another mix of original songs and interpretations by this legendary folk voice, this 1990 release includes Fortune of Soldiers, which is presented as a hope for peace, and Queen of the Night, a tale of a streetwoman who but for fortune could be any one of us. This mesmerizing 1991 release fills a musical void left by the sisters' 5-year absence from the recording studio! With their trademark glorious vocals, flawless harmony and haunting guitar work, this collection melds a variety of styles, from folk to pop to Cajun to Celtic. Includes Love Is ("Love is a minor chord/Love is a mental ward... Love is its own reward"), Mother Mother. (PVT2070) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Kate Wolf

Back Roads

Recorded with friends in the living room, this record of country-folk music is remarkably well done. While some songs lean towards melancholic nostalgia, others show that it's more desire for a simpler life ahead that inspired the words of this singer/songwriter. (KAL06) CS: 9.98

Lines on the Paper

Mostly soft country-folk music, almost all written by Kate. Her songwriting reflects feelings about life and changes. Her voice is even & well-suited to the laid-back folk sound. The second album from this northern California native. (KAL07) CS: 9.98

Kate Wolf

Close to You

A sweet collection of Kate Wolf songs...sweet harmonies, gentle rhythms, thoughtful lyrics, and this woman can sing. (KAL15) CS: 9.98

The Wind Blows Wild

This 1989 release contains all previously unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's untimely death at age 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1986; the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Rising of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on...and on...through her still-growing discography. (KAL30) CS: 9.98

Gold in California (Double Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1986. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death; she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rises Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Emma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. (KAL3001) CS: 14.98

An Evening in Austin (Soundtrack)

The full 74 minutes of the 1985 concert that's also available as a video (see our Videos section for the description). This appearance, just a few months before she was diagnosed with leukemia, was her first major television exposure, for the show Austin City Limits, and it captures her ease and radiance. Included are some songs not previously recorded by her. (KAL36) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kristina Olsen

Here's what Christine Lavin had to say: "The first time I saw Kristina Olsen in concert I was knocked out by every aspect of her performance — her songwriting, her singing, her mastery of instruments and musical styles, her sense of humor, and her rapport with the crowd. They went wild, simply wild. After the show I was shocked to find out that she had never released an album nationally. Thank goodness that is no longer the case... and what an album it is! Beautiful songs, superbly produced, and like Kristina Olsen herself, an exquisite piece of work." (PH1147) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Laurie Lewis & Kathy Kallick

Together

This bluegrass duet album hails from two of the Bay Area's most popular acoustic performers: both are singer-songwriters, Laurie a fiddler, Kathy a rhythmic guitarist. Their long-time friendship and association (they were both members of the Good Ol' Persons string band, and Kathy is still their lead singer) is evident in their collaboration. We're excited about this fall 1991 release! (KAL44) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Malaka

Women on the Edge

This eclectic quartet specializes in lovely vocal harmonies, which they employ on a variety of (mostly) traditional European folk songs with the delightful odd ditty thrown in. Most are acappella, but occasionally you'll hear guitar and spoons, mountain and hammer dulcimers. Includes several Bulgarian tunes, plus Java Jive, Coor of the Day, and the lovely Sephardic Quando El Rey Nimrod. Lovers of women's voices, don't miss this; their spectacular vocals make this 1992 release highly recommended in our catalog! (MAL191) CS: 9.98

Mary McCaslin

Old Friends

Who'd ever think anyone could send chills up your spine by singing the Supremes' song My World Is Empty Without You (aka of the Beatles' Things We Said Today)? Mary has done it on this record — with an unusual minor guitar tuning & exquisite harmonies in her arrangements. These 2 songs, plus her original title cut, make this album one of our favorites & are worth the price of the album. (PH1046) CS: 9.98

Megon McDonough

Day by Day

Finally, the fourth "Bitchin' Babe" joins our catalog; we've been searching for this for the past couple of years, due to customer requests! As suggested by the cover, love is one of the themes on her debut release, the spiritual kind, that is... as well as respect for life and Mother Nature. Titles include Everlasting Love, Serenity Song (of the 12-step program), On Great Spirit, Joy in the Journey, Katy's Sweet, Every Living Thing, and the beautiful Wake Up and Dream. (BFM1) CS: 9.98

American Girl

Megon's second release is more filled out and produced than her first (tastefully, of course), with love as a theme again, this time the personal kind, with metaphors of water and dreams a frequent image in her songs. The majority of songs are again originals, and feature lovely arrangements with accompaniment on recorder, harmonica, mandolin, piano, guitar and bass. Includes Dreams of Deep Water, River of Wishes, If Love is a Dream, Big Blue River. (See what we mean about the water imagery?) (SR51) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked

Arkansas Traveler

Rambling along in a Winnebago with a mobile recording unit set inside an 18-wheeler, Michelle traveled the country (and beyond). She recorded songs, fiddle tunes mostly, that she put her own words to, with some of her all-time heroes and respected contemporaries: Doc Watson, Taj Mahal, Allison Krauss, to name a few. This album brings to fruition her trilogy concept, which began with Short Sharp Shocked on through Captain Swing. Includes Prodigal Daughter (Cotton Eyed Joe), Strawberry Jam, Come A Long Way, 33 RPM Soul. (MERS12101) CS: 16.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Texas Campfire Tapes

The amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording, first creating a raging cult following for this young itinerant folk artist, then catapulting her to national fame and fortune! Her style on this "debut" recording (a re-issue of the very same walkman-recording) is an absolutely appealing blend of talking blues and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and ironies, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the crickets who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long-wearing, gets better and more intriguing with every listening; recommended! (MER834581) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

Short Sharp Shocked

Michelle's first studio recording, a wild success for her, and established her firmly in the US music scene. This comes from a behavior modification technique used by the psych industry. (MER834924) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Michelle Shocked

Captain Swing

On this highly anticipated follow-up to Short Sharp Shocked, Michelle once again surprises and challenges her audience. The 10 original songs are decidedly swing oriented, with full band and horn sections. She describes this as "music that goes from one end of Mississippi to the other, from Chicago R & B to New York be-bop to New Orleans mambo." Includes God is a Real Estate Developer, Must Be Love, My Little Sister. (MER838978) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Odetta

Movin' It On

Odetta's first album in 12 years, this 1987 release of a live concert recording celebrates Odetta's 40th year as a performer and our love, joy, and participation as her audience. Includes House of the Rising Sun, When I Was a Young Girl, Irene Goodnight, Sail Away Ladies. The recent birth of this label assures us that Odetta's velvety soulful voice will be heard for at least several more years! (RQ101) CS: 9.98

At Town Hall

This thankfully-back-in-print classic contains Carry It Back to Rosie, Freedom Trilogy, Children's Trilogy, and 13 other great songs from folk, blues, spiritual, and work song repertoires... all grounded in dignity, strength and resistance. (VAN2109) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Odetta

The Essential Odetta

This "twotier" includes No More Auction Block For Me, If I Had a Hammer, When I Was a Young Girl, much more. (VAN43/44) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries

Same Rain

Pat's the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to synthesize common struggles and triumphs. This album represents 7 years of work, "most of it internal." She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed by the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the 1986 Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes songs co-written with Judy Small and Aileen Vance; her exquisitely beautiful Shooting Star; and her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! Joined by Cathy Fink, Marcy Marner and others; highly recommended! (MFM350) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin

Tango

Proving that change can be inspirational, forever-Bostonite Patty has headed West, and with the help of several of the SF Bay Area's premier musicians (most notably Michael Manning on bass) has given birth to a beautiful new baby — et. album! The production is first rate, Patty's vocals are soft and clear, and the acoustic tones of the band are sparkling and pure. As ever, her lyrics explore the myriad of directions our paths take us on: inner reflections, outward quests, and the nature of relationships. Song titles include: Upside Down, Solo Flight, Deadlines and Dollar Signs, and Kathleen. (HST10312) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Step Into the Light

A well-produced debut album from a New England artist who has been appearing at women's music festivals since 1985. Some of her original songs have a country bent; some are satirical (Not Bad For a Broady); some are about beloved substances (Caffeine!); and several are love songs. (PH1103) CS: 9.98

I'm Fine

Fairly stunning production by Darleen Wilson, who also engineered and mixed this Boston-area artist's second release; buy it for the title cut alone! Patty's fine, as is her voice, which has seasoned and grown richer... nice. Includes the sleazy blues sound of Pucker Up. (PH1115) CS: 9.98

In the Square

Recorded live at Sanders Theater in Harvard Square, this 1990 release includes both new and favorite songs, with the added sparkle of Patty's witty introductions and off-the-cuff asides with the audience. The album demonstrates why she's one of the most in-demand acoustic performers, particularly in her home region of New England. (PH1138) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary

The Best of PP&M: 10 Years Together

13 of their "greatest hits": Put the Magic Dragon, Leaving On a Jet Plane, Blowin' in the Wind, If I Had a Hammer, Stewball, and more, from their first 10 years of performance. (WB3105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Priscilla Herdman
Darkness Into Light

Buy this for a most superb acappella rendition of Sojourner Truth's speech: Am I A Woman? set to music by Priscilla with harmony vocals by Anne Hills, Cindy Mangsen—chilling! Her flowing alto, with Abby Newton's smooth cello and other acoustic instrumentation, also does justice to songs by some of the best contemporary writers, such as Judy Small, Connie Kaidor, Malvina Reynolds, a quintessential folk album, with themes of peace, children growing, people working and loving. (FF420) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Queen Ida and Her Zydeco Band
Cookin' with Queen Ida

She cooks up a hearty menu of traditional Zydeco and Cajun harmony, blending in blues, reggae and more, on this 1999 release. Includes Hard Headed Woman and Great Mol, her personal lament to life on the road. (GNP2197) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Queen Ida & the Bon Temps Zydeco Band
Band On Tour

Winner of the 1992 Grammy Award for Best Ethnic/Traditional Folk Album! (GNP2147) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches
A Dove

This 1992 release adds a new dimension to these sisters' repertoires. On previous albums, they've generally written and arranged songs collaboratively, most of these songs were written individually, making this a rich and diverse collection of witty, insightful songs with the usual amount of imaginative vocal interplay and harmonizing. Includes Ing, Someone's Gonna Have To Be Me, You're The One, You're The Two. (MCA10601) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches
Speak

The three New York sisters return with their patented blend of crystal-clear harmonies, incisive songwriting and oodles of humor. From the poignant I Love My Mom to the sarcastic pop number Big Nuthin' to the gospel-tinged ballad Losing Our Job, Maggie, Tere and Suzzi prove their quirky lyrical charm and musical gracefulness all over again. (MCA6345) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches
Keep On Doing

Their famous Hallelujah Chorus is on this one, plus Ward Not Want Not, Jerk on the Loose. (WB23725) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches
Another World

We've had requests for this 1995 release, so in 1998 we're adding it! Includes Love Radiates Around ("her love is true music and it radiates around... My chance for true happiness awaits upon her kiss... she is mine and I am hers through seasons all..."), Older Girls, Face Down at Folk City, Gimme A Slice, the song, and more great songs. (WB25321) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches
Quitting Time

Their first album as a trio, and the one which firmly endeared them to great numbers of music lovers who also appreciated humor and ingenuity. Their harmonic and lyric accomplishments reached new peaks here. All acoustic, simply and skillfully produced. Includes the autobiographical We, Mr. Sellack, Quitting Time. Recommended! (WB3298) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Roches
Nurds

If you love to laugh, you'll love this group and everything they record, including this album. Includes The Death of Suzzy Roche, Factory Girl, The Feminine Position, My Sick Mind. (WB3475) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block
Rhinestones & Steel Strings

This recording certainly has the sparkle suggested in the title. Rory's voice has developed in timbre and elasticity; it springs all over, seemingly without effort, and she sure doesn't stay stuck in one style. Treat yourself to the incredible way she uses her blues voice on an old folk tune, The Golden Vanity to hammered dulcimer accompaniment—stunning—and, to a guitar/synthesizer almost-classical instrumental, El Viejo Del Alma. Also notable is the acappella God's Gift to Women with the Persuasions. And of course, plenty of good blues and steel guitar. Recommended! (ROU3085) CS: 9.98

Rory Block
I've Got a Rock in My Sock

With musical contributions by Steve Wonder and Taj Mahal, this album features blues, traditional and original contemporary material — her most varied to date — and all done justice by Rory's forceful and heart-rending vocals, plus her new ventures into synthesized bass and drum programming. Includes her own Sing the Main Back Home, as well as a lovely acoustic guitar/synthesizer instrumental. Recorded and mixed in 7 different locations; probably a record-setter, so to speak. Recommended! (ROU3097) CS: 9.98

The Early Tapes 1975-1976

This young white artist began performing the music she learned from the Mississippi Delta in the early '70s in Greenwich Village; her pure blues style, with its original spontaneity and genuine flavor, is preserved here in this collection of standards and originals culled from her first LP recording sessions. (ALC111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block
House of Hearts

Dedicated to her son Thiele who died tragically in 1986 at age 20, this is Rory's most personal album to date. With the exception of Mye, written and performed by her other son, the songs here are all Rory's—filled with hauntingly beautiful melodies and poetic lyrics. Her brilliant guitar and synthesizer playing and exquisite blues-soul voice carries every line of this very touching eulogy. Recommended! (ROU3104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mama's Blues

Bonnie Raitt says, "Rory Block has been an inspiration to me since we started out years ago. Her guitar playing, singing and songwriting are some of the most adult in traditional and modern blues." This is Rory at her blues best here! On this outstanding 1991 release, she pays tribute to the great musicians who have always been her source of inspiration: Robert Johnson, Son House, Tommy Johnson, Bessie Smith, and others. Several are "originals" (but stylistically culled from lots of rural blues material), and others are her personal renditions of songs she has heard and studied. This recording should answer her most-often-asked question: "How come a young white girl from NYC was drawn to the blues music of the black rural south of the 1930's?" (ROU3117) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rory Block
Ain't I A Woman

This 1992 release is, quite frankly, absolutely superb. The stylistic variety is amazing, for one thing (folk, rock, blues, jazz, gospel, with absolute artistry in each genre), as are her voice and guitar-playing, as always. Several songs are about women here: the title cut of course, featuring the words of Sojourner Truth, given a deeply impassioned (jazz-tinged) treatment by Rory; also includes Sister's Aria, Maggie Campbell. And her renditions of the blues song Cool Drink of Water and the gospel standard Walk in Jerusalem are spectacular. Her best yet; very highly recommended! (ROU3120) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels
Be Careful There's A Baby...

...In the House. We're proud to announce the arrival of The Perfect Gift it's for those loved ones who are expecting a Little Person to join their household soon — they'll need to learn liabilities, soothing and hustles (Baby Rocking Medley) and stories (Mother and her Kittens; those with children, so they can be reminded just why they had them in the first place (London Wainwright; it's like song, plus God Bless the Child, Two Years Later), those who don't have any kids, and need an excuse to gloat; and yourself, because you deserve the best! Warm, alternately whimsical and serious, Rosalie introduces many of the songs with personal observations and stories (great liner notes too), and makes clear her opinion that children and motherhood are sacred, but to be chosen, not required. Includes an emotional reading of Marge Piercy's Right to Life. Recommended! But of course! Please treat yourself and others right now! (GL2100) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels
Report from Grimes Creek

This 1991 release is the culmination of a career and of a remarkable life. As reflected in thoughts and recollections of the log cabin in Utah in which she grew up and now again lives, she weaves a tale, through song and story, of home, roots, and rural western America. Poignant and articulate. (GL2105) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sally Fingerett
Unraveled

A woman of many identities, Sally's also known as one of the "4 Belkin' Babes," and should be considered Shawn Colvin's stylistic soul sister. Indeed, if you were as hooked by Shawn's artistry as we were, do yourself the favor of discovering Sally. Her 10 original songs explore the landscape of the myriad of relationships, whether it's enjoying the nostalgia of an old flame (Smilin' Boy), realizing the nature of her love for her child (The Return), or what sounds like the lament of anyone's parents (He Loved Her So: The Ballad of Harry and Esther). All in all, the treatment is tender and feeling, the music beautiful, and her voice warm and inviting. Recommended! (AME97798) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sam Weis
So True!

With a deep, earthy voice and celestial 12-String guitar, Sam Weis is perhaps familiar to you from her debut instrumental album of several years ago, called Hologram. Anyway, she's a delightful songwriter as well, focusing on this reviewer's favorite subject, yes, LOVE! The satisfying kind (Til We've Seen It All, When You Rock Me) and the bumper kind (Trouble In Paradise, You Lied). Also includes an inaudient instrumental, Nasty Habits. Nicely produced fool! (SRM101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan
Touch

We were introduced to this singer-songwriter when she shared a bill with Holly Near, and here's her debut 1989 release; it features her wide vocal range, gorgeous harmonies, and introspective lyrics. Tape and CD contain one bonus track. (AR18594) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan
Solace

We don't have much specific info about this woman, but her voice contains a gorgeous Irish tint, kinda like Sinead meets Enya; both soft and sweet and as strong and multicolored as polished titanium. Absolutely captivating! The material is mostly original; she writes ample vignettes about longing (Home), and loneliness (Lost), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thorns, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven; instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, guitars, and the packaging is quite impressive, even for a major label. (AR18521) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin
Steady On

Shawn contributes back-up vocals on Suzanne Vega's album (including her best-known song Luxury). Suzanne does the same on Shawn's; that simple fact tells you a bit about what to expect here. The debut album by this "acoustic pop" singer-songwriter (whose history includes eight months performing with the Red Clay Ramblers) features her silvery vocals, acoustic guitar and thoughtful lyrics, against a backdrop of tasteful accompaniment. Includes Diamonds in the Rough. (COL45298) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Short Sisters
A Planet Dancing Slow

Three women (neither short nor sisters) present material which truly reflects their fondness for gorgeous melodies, opportunities for interesting harmonies, and both pertinent and important subject matter. In celebration of their first decade together, they put together this 1991 collection of songs about seasons and changes. Includes two beautiful rounds: My Camellies (the Chanukah Chorus) and Round and Round, plus Queer Bird, The Reign of the Fair Maid, and a song every person who heats with wood will appreciate only too well, More Wood. Recommended! (BS865412) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Solstice Assembly
Under the Drawbridge

Subtitled Music from the 13th to 20th Century, this hour-long 1991 recording of music from every season is performed by the Solstice Assembly (18 singers directed by Jane Peppiar), New Hope Harmony, and the Band of Ages; primarily mixed-gender acappella vocal ensembles, with a few instrumental groupings. They say "Let us take you to the strange worlds we inhabit for an out-of-century experience," and they accomplish that quite successfully! Their repertoire spans centuries, continents, and world-views, with interesting arrangements by Jane Peppiar. A most eclectic collection, with an underlying foundation of fun, amusement, humor, and great music. (SKY206) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Story
Grace in Gravity

D'ya know that feeling, when you first hear a new group of artist, where the voices and music reach that perfect synergy and you just sink into a warm relaxation of wonder and pleasure? Well, hello yourself to this! These two Boston area women, Jonathan Brooke and Jennifer Kimball, synthesize their voices, lyrics, acoustic and occasional electric accompaniment into a superb arrangement of contemporary folk with jazz and New Acoustic influences — lots of pristine acoustic guitar, floating acoustic bass, and crisp drum work, plus simply angelic vocals (Suzanne Vega meets Jeannine) and poetic, painterly lyrics. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed it. S. — Love the comic-strip feeling of Dog Dreams. (EL61321) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Graham White

Rescue

Every once in a while, you hear an artist whose voice seems to jump right off the speakers into your living room... Susan is such an artist. One reviewer described her voice as "unvarnished"... the appeal is in its directness, presence, lack of ornament, honesty, realness. This 1992 debut release from this DC-area artist includes two DC-area themes: Homeless Heart, a song for the homeless, is dedicated to Mitch Snyder; and Fading the Wall expresses the grief experienced by most viewers of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall. She also reflects on love, the seasons, music on the radio, and other universal topics. If you enjoy discovering new talent, put this on your must-have list. (OOPT) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Suzanne Vega

Already likened to Canadian counterparts Ferron and Janis Sibeiry for her poetic lyrics and emotional intensity, Suzanne Vega is rapidly gaining national attention for her debut album. While the crisp and sparkling instrumental arrangements alone are enough to recommend it, it is the subtly-layered lyrical complexity that puts it in this reviewer's all-time Top 10... Using colorful analogies and stark images, the effect sparks recognition and identification with the situations she illustrates, however obscurely... Highly recommended. (AM5072) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Annie Lennox

Divya

"In a sense I feel like this is my very first album, and because of that it had to be something that represented me totally and exactly... I wanted to come up with material that was authentic and completely true to myself... In preparing for this album I also knew that I wanted to take my time, releasing it only when I felt it was strong enough — and not a moment before." Annie's 1992 solo debut proves that her artistry is a lot more than just half the Eurythmics. Includes Money Can't Buy It, Little Bird, The Gift. (AR18704) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

London Warsaw New York

The second release (1989) by this Polish singer-songwriter, creator of beautiful many-tracked harmonies, conveys a big airy sound. Styles range widely, from the primary theme song Copernicus, with a rhythmic, Brazilian sound, to the jazzy and playful You're Mine. Love is a strong theme — ending, beginning, changing. (EPC45472) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Begonia

Blueswoman

Begonia doesn't do your typical hot and heavy blues wail about drinking and drugging and cheating lovers. Instead, they fuse rock, reggae, folk, country and soul around a solid blues core. The strong, sensuous, sultry voices of Beth Jochum and Brenda Fisher sing affirming lyrics about loving lovers and strong women and controlling your own life. With ten years experience together and three cassette releases, this is an all-female rock/blues band without a "gimmick" — except they do a great music. (KK202) CS: 9.98

Gaiting Standing

Galting her a significantly more wide-spread recognition of her exceptional lyric talent, this second release includes Luka, about an abused child (the initial "hi" on the album — says something for a bit of public consciousness), the scapelle Tom's Diner, the pure folk progression of Oxyg, the title song with images of the female persona of solitude. Again, sharp fragments of life as we have all experienced it, tumbling in a kaleidoscope arrangement, juxtaposing all sorts of contrasts; recognizing yet transcending the limitations of language. (AM5136) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

days of open Hand

The lullable voice and emotionally inspired songs make her third release "classic Vega," as it expands on her folk forte and includes her unique communications of consciousness and observation. Background vocals by Shawn Colvin and rhythmic accompaniment accent her thought-provoking messages. Includes Song of Dreams and Big Science, which calls for "passion in the language." (AM5293) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Theories of the Old School

Time to Heal / Even the Navajo

Tight, interesting instrumentation, crafted phrasing, and thoughtful lyrics characterize this captivating ensemble composed of 2 female singer/songwriter/instrumentalists and a male percussionist. Using guitars, flutes, Chapman Stick, congas, piano and various percussion, Theories harmonizes its way through a range of original songs covering subjects from love to nuclear waste; includes Earl Dophin, Yucca Mountain, title. By the way, this is almost the same album which was previously released under the title Even the Navajo. Recommended! (CUE21992) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists, inc. Suzanne Vega

Tom's Diner

Did you happen to catch the bootleg version of Suzanne's song Tom's Diner on the radio in 1990? The one where her ethereal, angelic voice ("eah dah doo dah, dah dah doo dah, dah dah doo dah, doo dah...") swirled in and out of hip hop drums and synth samples? Well, that one creative dobbing served as a sort of notice to the world of frustrated songsters who came up with their own versions! Yes, this album consists of 13 versions of the same song, collected (although not solicited) by Suzanne, Wannies Diner, Tom's Diner Rap, and more. Some completely change the lyrics, while reinterpreting the catchy tune and chorus. The result, in Suzanne's words: "some are funny, some are brilliant, some are... very strange." We like this one a lot — if you appreciate quirky musicians, you will too! (AM5363) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Beaches

The incredible soundtrack from the incredible movie sums up the amazing breadth of Bette's talent as a vocalist and song interpreter; a favorite around the LadySlipper office. We hope it truly brings her the recognition she should have received years ago, for her supreme musicianship. Includes Under the Boardwalk, I Think It's Going to Rain Today, The Glory of Love. Highly recommended...Bette, we love you! (ATL81833) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Some People's Lives

Once again Bette lends her outstanding vocal style to the works of contemporary songwriters such as Janis Ian, Odeya Porter, and Julie Gold. This release includes the smash hit From a Distance, a song of timeless importance but which carries a special message for the 90's. Also includes Night and Day and The Gift of Love. Highly recommended. (ATL82129) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists

The Redwood Collection

This sampler album includes selections by Holly Near, Ronnie Gilbert, Inti-Illimani, "H.A.R.P.", Ferron, Linda Tilley, Mary Watkins, Guardabarranco, Judy Small, and Nancy Vogl. — all of whom have records released on the Redwood label. Great for introducing new audiences to the Redwood roster. (RR411) CS: 6.98

Various/producer: Christine Lavin

On A Winter's Night

Subtitled The Best of the New Singer/Songwriters, as well as Ballads to Warm the Heart, this anthology includes songs by several artists that make it well worth the purchase price. Firstly is Heaven, a gorgeous song written and performed by Julie Gold, author of the now-very-famous From A Distance. I forwarded right to this cut, and was not disappointed! (So where's her solo album??) Also included are selections by the 3 other Blotch Babes — Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, and Megan McDonough — as well as Cheryl Wheeler, and other women and men. Christine has done lots over the years to create exposure for artists, which we really appreciate, and you will too! (NS90028) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

When October Goes

Subtitled Autumn Love Songs, this lovely collection features some of today's best folk artists offering their favorite songs about that sad, quiet season. Opening with Cheryl Wheeler's sweetly gorgeous, When Fall Comes to New England, and including solos by (we dare you to figure this one out!) 5 of the 4 Blotch Babes (Christine, Megan McDonough, Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, Julie Gold), and others, 15 songs in all, over half by women. Four yourself a cup of tea, light a few candles, and settle in for a cozy evening with this warm recording! (PH1143) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Velma Frye

I Am To Someone

We're not sure how this 1988 release escaped notice, but we're sure glad to be able to offer it to you now! Velma is an accomplished pianist and songwriter, with a strong, clear voice and a talent for interpreting and creating intelligent, poetic folksongs. Many are graced with her ragtime-influenced piano, and she includes a couple of original instrumentals here: the old-timey-sounding Terrycloth Rag conjures up images of an old saloon, while Sea Dive includes scating and wordless vocalizations — lovely! And when she overdubs and self-harmonizes (some acappella), she manages to sound like the Roche Sisters! Includes the soulful Grandmother's Song, the plaintive My Simple Request, and the gorgeous Shores of Your Sweetness. Recommended! (FF498) CS: 9.98

The Weavers

Greatest Hits (Double Set)

For the hard-core fan, this is of course the definitive collection; it contains If I Had A Hammer, Guantanamera, Aunt Rhodie, Goodnight Irene, Windows, and 25 others. (VAN1518) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Rock

Good Clean Fun

Many of you will remember Bonnie from Teresa Trull's tour in the late 60's, post Barbara Hight... Bonnie's a SF Bay Area rock icon, writing for the likes of Huey Newton and performing regularly with her band, Wild Combo. She's got light, saucy vocals and rollicking good-time rock 'n roll, San Francisco style, plus a habit of writing infectious pop melodies infused with fun lyrics (see Teresa Trull's A Step Away for examples). Includes her hit Sheryl's Boyfriend plus Girls Like Me, Raglene, Loverboy. (SLH112) CS: 6.98

Bonnie Raitt

Nick of Time

Could be the best recording she's ever done; this 1989 release has a distinct air of maturity, and apparently grows out of her new sobriety... includes her own The Road's My Middle Name and the title cut; about aging and realizing one is running out of time; two by Bonnie Hayes; and Nobody's Girl. Plenty of her signature blues, some background vocals by David Crosby and Graham Nash. (CAP91266) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Luck of the Draw

The anxiously-awaited follow-up to the multi-Grammy-award-winning Nick of Time, this 1991 release is filled with heartier ballads as well as open-in-the-groove bluesy rockers... songs that are highly personal, and disarming in their honesty and clarity about relationships. Bonnie has reached a smoother point in life — sobriety, love, success and recognition all rolled into one — and her music has never sounded better. Contains Something to Talk About, plus 4 originals, including Come To Me. Bonnie financed the special environmentally-friendly packaging of the CD, it's free of plastic jewel box and blister pack, all that permanent junk! (CAP96111) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Woman Be Wise, in an previously unreleased duet with Sloppe Wallace; No Way To Treat a Lady, one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louise, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery, 19 in all, culled from her 9 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract! (WB25242) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Carole King

Tapestry

This classic, one of the best selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Concrete Blonde

Walking in London

Remember when you fell in love with the Pretenders? Well, prepare to fall in love again! This 3-piece band is led by bassist/vocalist/songwriter Jannet Napolitano, and she penned all the songs on this feminist-leaning 1992 album except James Brown's It's A Man's World. She's deep and dark on City Screaming, quirky and funny on Ghost of a Texas Ladies' Man, knowingly cynical on I Wanna Be Your Friend Again, and just plain great on Woman to Woman. Recommended to anyone who likes a strong tough woman's voice. By the way, Jannet's hair is not blonde. (IR513137) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance

A Passage in Time

This duo consists of Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Ferry, but from the sounds they create, you'd think there were at least 6 of them! Australians of Anglo-Irish descent, they find their musical inspiration in the musics of the Middle Ages through the early Renaissance, or for us history junkies, from the 13th through the 15th centuries... and, they're a rock band! Lisa's gorgeous voice rings like a bell, Brendan like a flute, scorns like a bird—plainly, one of the most distinctive singers of the decade! Includes Song of Sophia, The Host of Seraphim, The Song of the Sybil, Spirit, plus 12 more. This 1991 recording isn't like anything you've heard lately, at least not for the past 5 or future 2 centuries! Heavenly! (RYK215) CS: 9.99 ... CD: 15.98

Diamanda Galas

The Singer

Operatic anarchy, gothic emotional rampages... this is how Diamanda's usual work would be characterized. Focusing on death and morbidity after her brother succumbed to AIDS, she became an imposing performer on the NYC scene. This 1992 recording is a collection of ten gospel and blues standards, interpreted as only Diamanda could, with just her deep-deep-deep voice and a piano. Includes I Put a Spell On You, Gloomy Sunday, Balm in Gilead, See That My Grave Is Kept Clean, Judgement Day. (MUT51278) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

Shooting Rubberbands at the Stars

Artfully blending the music, ambience, sentiments, and vocal and lyrical styles of the Bohemian 50s, folk-rock 60s, punk 70s, and New Folk/ New Age 80s, Edie adds her own light touches and distinguishing signature to her debut album of original material. Primary instrumentation consists of guitars of various sorts—many of them electric—drums and bass; and her vocal quality is somewhat reminiscent of Suzanne Vega, Michelle Shocked, Christine Lavin, you get the picture. (GEF24192) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ghost of a Dog

Picking up where their first album left off, this release uses a more varied instrumentation to produce a slightly smoother sound. Opening with the catchy and clever Mama Hele Me, Edie weaves words into that distinctive bohemian sound. Also includes Carmelite, a lighthearted tale of infidelity, and the romantic Times Like This. (GEF34904) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Ellen James Society

Reluctantly We

This 2-woman 2-man band combines the riveting energy of the punk movement with post-punk intricacy and accuracy... their music demands attention, captivating the listener both musically and lyrically. Lots of Indigo Girls connections: the album features a live cut recorded with them; the two ensembles have been touring together; this record label was created by Amy Ray of the Indigo Girls; and she co-produced it with the 2 women of the band, Chris McGuire and Cooper Seay. You might recognize the Society's name from The World According to Garp; Ellen James was a woman whose tongue was cut out by her rapist, and many women cut out their own tongues to express their support for her. (DAE01) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ellen James Society

The Survivors Parade

Their second (1992) release spins punchy with pop sensibilities and underground attitude, expanding their trademark loud guitar sound with slide and bowed guitar, cello, trumpet and more vocal interplay... a logical progression of the Ellen James sound. Includes Resistance, Proper Rocket, Squinting at the Sun, and 7 others. (DAE9054) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eurythmics

Be Yourself Tonight

Aretha Franklin teams up with Annie Lennox here to perform the phenomenal feminist declaration Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves!, "a song to celebrate the conscious liberation of the female state/ Mothers, daughters and their daughters too/ Woman to woman/ We're singing with you... Sisters are doing it for themselves/ Standin' on their own two feet/ And nighn' on their own bells." (RCA5429) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Everything But the Girl

Idewild

This English duo consists of Tracey Thorn on vocals and Ben Watt on guitars and (mostly) backing vocals. And they co-write many of the songs. How to describe the results? How about poetic, literary vignettes of love and life and relationships, backed by some of the poppiest percussive effects and pristine keyboards and guitar this reviewer has ever heard? Tracey's voice is simply lovely: sounds kinda like caramel tastes, dark and rich and sweet, and her lyrics are like letters home to a friend. I like that she's not afraid to show her warts, as they say, on subjects like jealousy and possessiveness (I Always Was Your Girl), Wear My Dyer Town, and that she honors her girlfriends (Blue Moon Rose) and loves her nephew (These Early Days). Overall, a wonderful recording, worthy of playing over and over! (SIR25621) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Happy Rhodes Volume I

Most debut releases are a bit tentative, and usually rightly so. However, this upstate New York native debuted herself into the music world with a double cassette (this, plus Volume II) in 1986, obviously having no qualms about showing herself... and how thrilled we are that she's here! Incredible voice, lots of dramatic synthesizer, plus her earlier work such as this album is also characterized by lovely acoustic interludes. The artwork is an original painting of something hungry-looking (out of Olive Barker's "Cabal"). Highly recommended (a comment you're going to be reading frequently among the next few listings!) (AG0008) CS: 15.98

Happy Rhodes Volume II

If you haven't read the review of Volume I yet, please do so now, then order them both. In fact, read on, and get them all! I promise you won't regret it, unless the covers give you nightmares, or something (and if they do, perhaps this is the time to check out that great therapist your hands keep recommending). Includes Under and Over the Bink, One Alien, To the Funtytown, The Revolution. (AG0007) CD: 15.98

Rearmament

More electronic than her first two releases, this 1986 recording contains shades of early Kate Bush (most notably Lionheart): lovely ethereal vocals, multi-layered melodies that reach right in and hook you, and wry, quirky lyrics. Her first 3 albums were released within the same year, all we can assume is that she's been singing, songwriting and playing since the early embryonic stages, given the high level of sophistication and all-around superb quality. Includes The Perfect Honey, I Am a Legend, Drama Via, Crystal Orbs, Atty Atty Oxenfree. Also some stylistic references to Cocteau Twins' Love This Artist, and each of her recordings! (AG0011) CD: 15.98

Ecto

Happy has a voice which will be (exhaustively) compared to Kate Bush and Annie Lennox; there's just no way to avoid the comparisons, but her visions are a bit darker, say in the gothic-apocalyptic vein — or, rather, lots of blood her teases and peeling wallpaper kind-of moods... Anyway, it's just the greatest voice, and when she self-harmonizes, the result is just heavenly! The instrumentation is highly melodic and sometimes heavy synth, with brightly counterpoints — "complex and labyrinthine but at the same time totally natural." This 1987 release is her 4th; highly recommended! (AG0013) CD: 15.98

Warpaint

The 1991 release, Happy's 5th (not bad for a mere babe of 28!) and most polished to date, "drifts into the listener's psyche like urgently whispered messages from the spirit world"... This self-confessed music addict brings a fresh energy to our collection of electronic/ experimental music by combining fly-on-the-wall observations of life and living with an impressive array of electronic effects, plus a touch of haunting European-ish violin... The result is warmer than most synthesizer recordings, mostly due to her voice, which remains primarily in the lower registers here (Annie Lennox, is she yours?...) Her bold and beautiful expression, vision and artistry account for her large cult following, which we predict you'll be joining as soon as you experience her. Highly recommended! (AG0017) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hole

Pretty On the Inside

Those of you who follow Madonna's every move may have heard about Hole — they were the first band she wanted to sign when she acquired her own record label (but so far hasn't). Even though her musical style couldn't be more different from this 3-woman 1-man band's grungy punk, there's a similarity, they both push their limits as far as they can. Lead singer Courtney Love (who says, "Yeah coming at things with a more feminine, lunar viewpoint. There's been so much white male posturing in rock that what's really important to me is getting across the female perspective — and that includes both rage and vulnerability") has a voice from hell that you want to make love to and run from at the same time. This 1991 album's been compared to Patti Smith's Horses — it's a raw nerve, completely uncensored. Kim Gordon of Sonic Youth produced this gut-wrenching, pissed-off piece of work; highly recommended for those that can handle it. (CAR1710) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Indigo Girls

We've gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area where they've played frequently, so as they debut on a major label, we thought it time to answer to our customers' wishes. Folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, need, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains little cut plus Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls, w/Ellen James Society

Nomads * Indians * Saints

While the music of Emily Saliers and Amy Ray is firmly rooted in the folk-rock tradition, this 1990 release leans more towards the contemporary-pop end of the spectrum. Thoughtful, introspective and self-challenging are still apt descriptions of their lyrical content, but the music has a harder edge to it, especially those songs which feature Amy's husky voice. With guest appearances by Mary Chapin Carpenter on Southbound in the Springtime and the Ellen James Society on 1, 2, 3, A must for fans who want to follow the evolution of the band. (EPC45820) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Live: Back On the Bus Y'All

This 1991 release is an 8-song album containing live renditions of some of their most-often-requested material from their earlier albums, plus their cover of Dylan's All Along the Watchtower (not currently available on other sites) and a previously released version of 1 2 3 thrown in for good measure. They are accompanied on several selections by the Ellen James Society. Rather than lyrics, you'll find four photos in the insert. (EPC47508) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rites of Passage

This 1992 release rides high on a rhythmic undercurrent of Latin and African percussion, a new maturity in songwriting, and a renewed sense of vitality in their delivery. Includes guest vocal appearances by the Roches, Jackson Browne and David Crosby; great Eddie by Lisa Germano; includes Virginia Woolf, Cedar Tree, Ghost. Emily Saliers says, "The freshness of this album is that we recorded these songs without any preconceived notion of how they should sound." (EPC48865) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Insane Jane

A Green Little Pill

This Georgia-based band, who recently played at the Atlanta Gay Pride celebration, has audiences and critics alike responding to their passionate vocals, stinging guitar lines and rock steady rhythm section. The one female in the 4-person band — of course, the center around which it all revolves — is founder/lead vocalist/lyricist Yellow, whose vocals are fantastic; full and earthy, at one moment delicate and beautiful, relentless and raging the next, inspiring comparisons by various reviewers to Grace Slick, Patsy Smith, Janis Joplin, Exene Cervenka, and Jannette Napolitano of Concrete Blonde. This 1991 album includes Empress of Pop, She Is Falling, Once I... Your Mouth. Recommended! (SKR6040) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jane Olivor

In Concert

Many customers have put in requests for titles by this vocalist, and we see why... gorgeous, expressive voice, excellent selection of songs. This 1982 release contains Pretty Girl, Annie's Song, and more. (COL37938) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

First Night/Chasing Rainbows

This specially priced 2-on-1 cassette contains 2 entire albums; songs include Come Softly To Me, Important C-Est La Rose, Lalena, The French Waltz, and 16 more heartfelt interpretations. (COL36224) CS: 9.98

Jane Siberry

No Borders Here

One of the most highly recommended recordings in our catalog and even better than her first; lyrically and instrumentally adventurous, features beautiful harmonics and harmonies; electricity; takes you on a journey, includes Dancing Class, Waltz, Extra Executives, Symmetry. Like new air for old, fresh, lyrical arias. The form here is more rock/new wave (not acoustic) and again we don't know which category to place it in. Your record collection, perhaps? (OAG302) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jane Siberry

Bound By the Beauty

Newly announced as we go to press, and certainly bound to be beautiful, as she's one of our very favorite artists. (REP25942) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Jane Siberry

The first release by an artist most of you are familiar with (we hope); this Toronto-based musician has, for good reason, been likened to Joni Mitchell, Dory Previn, and The Roches, and we'd add Feron to that, but she's too quirky to really be like anyone else. These are clever, imaginative original songs; Jane accompanies her voice with ringing harmonies, plus guitar, piano, synthesizer, and co-produced on her label. There isn't an accurate category for this album... it has strains of folk and even punk, in her bizarre sense of humor. One of the best here is The Mystery of Ogwen's Farm, a lament for a cow who disappeared. Our endorsement is qualified by the lyrics to one song which promote a generalized, oppressive misconception about why fat women are fat (fear of being attractive to men)...but all in all, the strengths outweigh this flaw, and we highly recommend this for all the other cuts. (STR002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98 ... LP: 6.98

Janis Joplin

Pearl

This classic contains Me and Bobby McGee, Mercedes Benz, Cry Baby, A Woman Left Lonely, Buried Alive in the Blues, and more. (COL30322) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Janis Joplin

Farewell Song

Contains material which was never released prior to her death, some from live performances. Includes Tell Mama, Medley, Amazing Grace/Hi Heel Sneakers, One Night Stand with the Hatfield Blues Band, and title song, with an eerie reference to dying at the end. (COL37569) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Janis Joplin's Greatest Hits

Includes Summerhaze, Piece of My Heart, Ball and Chain, Me and Bobby McGee, accompanied by Big Brother and the Holding Company, Kozmic Blues Band, and Full Tilt Boogie Band. (COL32168) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Jennifer Warnes

Best of Jennifer Warnes

Some of her biggest hits here, including Right Time of the Night, I Know A Heartache When I See One, Shot Through the Heart, I'm Restless, Come To Me, and more, from 1975 through 1982. (AR18348) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Hunter

The long-awaited follow-up to Famous Blue Raincoat, this 1982 release by one of the world's most spectacular voices includes the tender Rock You Gently, a song that could probably describe many of our love relationships! Also: a great song/chart co-written with Leonard Cohen, Way Down Deep, plus Lights of Louisiana, The Whole of the Moon, and more. (PVT2089) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Famous Blue Raincoat

Inspired interpretations of 9 songs by one of the '60s most important songwriters, Leonard Cohen — Jean of Arc, Song of Bernadette, Bird On a Wire — performed in Jennifer's inimitable vocal style, recorded in 1986. (PVT2092) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joan Armatrading

Whatever's For Us

Joan's very first recorded work, at age 22, a collaboration with Pam Nestor — almost all acoustic and all as lovely as the magical jacket. Joan was born in St. Kitts in 1950, Pam in Guyana in '46. Both moved to England during childhood, met in '68 and started writing together shortly afterwards, to create classics like Visionary Mountains, Game It a Try, and the title love song. Recommended! (AM3227) CS: 8.98

Joan Armatrading

Includes Love and Affection, Down to Zero, Save Me, Somebody Who Loves You. (AM3228) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Joan Armatrading

Show Some Emotion

With the title song, Winona Come On Home, Opportunity, Mama Mercy Willow, this 1977 release showcases her distinctive throaty vocals and superb guitar style. (AM3273) CD: 14.98

Track Record

A sort of "Greatest Hits" album, which really demonstrates her diversity. Includes cuts from The Key, Walk Under Ladders, Me Myself I, Joan Armatrading, Show Some Emotion, and the EP How Cruel. Also features two songs not recorded elsewhere, Heaven and Frustration. (AM3315) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Hearts and Flowers

This 1990 release, all written, performed and arranged by Joan, can best be described as the after-ep to The Shouting Stage. The subject matter is once again relationships, but this time focuses on the positive side; she explores the depth of true friendship in More Than One Kind of Love, talks about finding true love only when the rules of society are abandoned in Promise Land, and describes the wonderful changes in a person's outlook when love is found in The Power of Dreams. A must for fans, and a great place to start for newcomers to her unique blend of synthesized sounds and tender ballads. (AMS288) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Square the Circle

In ancient spirituality, the circle depicted the spirit, the square the material plane; squaring the circle was bringing a spiritual idea into material reality. On this 1992 release, she brings her art into real life, blending her smooth vocals with poignant, astute lyrics, and delivers messages of love and betrayal. She dives with heart and soul into topics such as infidelity in Weak Woman, abuse on Sometimes I Don't Wanna Go Home, on love and trust on True Love and title track. Most outstanding though is the song If Women Ruled the World — what a concept! (AMS388) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell

Court & Spark

We think this is one of her best releases ever, so we're offering it for all you nostalgic types. (ASY1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chalk Mark in a Rain Storm

This 1988 release, which features guest artists such as Peter Gabriel, Willie Nelson, Billy Joel, Tom Petty, and Wayne Shorter, contains Lakota, My Secret Place, The Tree Leaf/Prophecy (Lay Down Your Arms), and others, as she addresses the institutions of militarism, materialism, marriage and more. Also: her lovely version of the traditional Contra, Contra, which she calls A Bird That Whistles. (GEF24172) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Night Ride Home

From the first cricket call on the title song, this album pulls the listener in with its mellow, sensuous sound. Described as a mixture of her older and more recent styles, this 1991 release is highly accessible yet still retains the Joni Mitchell stamp of individuality. With a richness musically, lyrically, and vocally, titles include Cherokee Louise, about an abused child; Slouching Towards Bethlehem, and Rays a Dad's Caerulac. Strongly suggested listening material. (GEF24302) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Blue

Here's another classic classic; if it's time to replace that old worn-out vinyl! (REP2039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Julia Fordham

Sweet

"Don't scare me, don't scare me/With talk of forever and always/Just stay" (Scare Me) sums up Julia's favorite theme on her third recording. Sadness and fear fuel her incredible "instrumental", her voice, as she croons, moans, and cries out her pain in songs like Shame and Walk, Talk, Drive. Sounds like a total bummer, but it's not! Her jazzy intonations and clever phrasing will really hook you — Love Moves in Mysterious Ways is guaranteed to implant itself into your brain cells — most song arrangements lean towards the lounge. (VIR91741) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Juliana Hatfield

Hey Babe

Following the demise of the Boston alternative pop trio the Blake Babies, this bassist and singer/songwriter's first solo effort is a heady, poignant mixture of her sweet voice and potent rocking arrangements. She sings about bad relationships and self-doubt using quirky melodies bedded in layers of power pop. Ironic lyrics are delivered by her vulnerable soprano — a contradiction that works. A Who's Who in alternative music fills out the tracks, including Evan Dando of the Lemonheads and John Wesley Harding. (NAM0035) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Karla Bonoff

One of our favorites, with Love Again, isn't it Always Love. Someone to Lay Down Beside Me. Most songs are original; in addition to her outstanding voice, she contributes piano and acoustic guitar. Wendy Waldman and Linda Ronstadt on background vocals. (COL34872) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Restless Nights

Includes the beautifully harmonic song Baby Don't Go and The Water is Wide. We love her. Midline. (COL35799) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Kate Bush

Hounds of Love

This 1985 recording resembles little in Kate's previous discography. Images of spirituality and conflicting layers of consciousness pervade; myth and reality merge and split love and life and death and rebirth—you'll be lucky to land with your feet on the ground! Instrumentation is similarly textured; subtle vocals and piano peek through waves of electronically-altered keyboards, drums, vocals, a wide array of synthesizers. Side 2 is subtitled "The Ninth Wave" in reference to Tennyson's The Coming of Arthur. Highly, highly recommended for the acoustically challenged. (EM117171) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Kate Bush
Lionheart

The mellowest Kate Bush we've found, if Kate can ever be called mellow... Symphony in Blue and Oh England My Lionheart are both melancholy and beautiful, while Kashka from Baghdad is a light, shimmering piece about two men in love, and Fullhouse documents the inner splits and struggles that we face as women. (EMI17008) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Kate Bush
The Whole Story

This is a BEST OF album, with some of her most well-known cuts from previous recordings including Babooshka, Wow, Breathing, Wuthering Heights, Hounds of Love, The Dreaming. (EMI17242) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kristen Hall
Real Life Stuff

The debut album from this Atlanta-based singer/songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and... well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice; it's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy... aw heck, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE5055) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall
Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's) and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Gang of Four and B-52's). It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Cut in the Country and same with I Have My Reasons; highly recommended! (DAE5053) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

L7
Bricks Are Heavy

Finally! Punk by women whose gender is consequential only because there are so few women in the genre. This 1992 album has everything: buzz saw guitars, raspy voices, kick-ass lyrics. These 4 women are unafraid and they believe real rock n' roll isn't pretty... they're not chicks with lots of hair holding guitars looking cute; they're for real, and will shove that fact down your throat if you get a chance to see them live. And if you like your bands to be politically correct, L7 helped found "Rock for Choice." Contains the college radio favorite Pretend We're Dead, an anthem to non-conformity. (SLH26764) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro
Christmas and the Beads of Sweat

One of her most wonderful early albums; includes Brown Earth, When I Was A Firepart and You Were The Main Drag; Up On The Roof, and more. (COL30298) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Laura Nyro and Labelle
Gonna Take a Miracle

Sweet, wild harmonies, and some great old tunes — Monkey Time, Dancing in the Streets, Spanish Harlem, Jimmy Mack, I Met Him on a Sunday Nydia Mata on congas and bongos. (COL30987) CD: 13.98

Laura Nyro
Nested

Original songs about passion, the universe, and her unborn child. Also some social commentary, as in American Dreamer; "Autumn's child is catchin' hell." For having been too naive to tell "Property rights from wedding bells..." Cut-out, limited quantity. (COL35449) CS: 6.98

Laurie Anderson
Mister Heartbreak

Oh, Measus Lady! This album will put you under Laurie Anderson's magical spell, as she takes you on a journey through lush, surreal musical landscapes. The high level of structural and emotional diversity seems impossible to attain, but the universal result will reach into the tender depths of any listener's soul. Gorgeous instrumentation (Korean kayagum, synthesizer, electronic conchas, shakere, violin, bells, wood blocks, guitars, bass, bamboo, to name a few) with help from such talents as Roma Baran, Peter Gabriel, Bill Laswell, Anton Fier, William Burroughs, Phoebe Snow. Songs include Kokoku, Blue Lagoon, Excellent Birds, Sharky's Day, Sharky's Night, Gravity's Angel. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed. (WB25077) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie Anderson
Strange Angels

Two intense years in the making, this 1989 release is Laurie's most direct to date, more melodic, with Laurie somehow more emotionally exposed than in previous recordings. Her vocal abilities are more upfront (hey, she's a soprano!), and she incorporates vocal contributions from such greats as Bobbie McFerrin and the Roches. Includes Beautiful Red Cross, a paean to her period ("look out baby! I'm at high tide") with sarcastic references to unequal pay for equal work ("for every dollar a man makes a woman makes 63 cents. Now, fifty years ago that was 62 cents. So, with that kind of luck, it'll be the year 2,068 before we make a buck"). Angels are another primary theme, and their counterparts, devils, too. A significant piece in the developing vision of this artist — recommended! (WB25900) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laurie Anderson
Big Science

This excellent album is a wonderfully bizarre compilation of poetic musings taken from an original body of work entitled United States I-IV. The rhythm and flow of the lyrics are enhanced by the synthetic re-structuring of Laurie's voice... various electronic instruments and synthesizers work to render it from a clipped and almost inhuman chant to an echo-y and dreamlike narration... spooky fun! Songs include: Sweaters, O Superman, It Tamps. Co-produced by the talented Roma Baran. Highly recommended. (WB3674) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Germano
On the Way Down From Moon Palace

Known to some as the fiddler who performs with John Cougar Mellencamp, or on the Indigo Girls' Rites of Passage album, Lisa is a great musician in her own right, and deserves to be heard. The Moon Palace is a place where women live through men's light; she's on her way outta there! A highly diverse album in style and mood, this 1991 solo debut contains both original instrumentals (she plays almost all the instruments: violin, guitar, mandolin, piano, accordion, autoharp) and rockers with vocals and a fuller band. Quite unique, and somehow compelling, with her beautiful violin-playing holding the many strands together. (MBL191) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mamas & Papas
16 Greatest Hits

All the hits by the classic foursome which included Cass Elliott and Michelle Phillips (for those of you who weren't born yet... mother to Chynna Phillips of Wilson Phillips, and Paige Malneson of Kholo Landings). Includes California Dreamin', Dedicated To the One I Love, I Saw Her Again Last Night, Monday Monday, I Call Your Name, Dream a Little Dream of Me, and more. (MCA1647) CS: 6.98

Martha Reeves and the Vandellas
Greatest Hits

Includes Dancing in the Street, (Love Is Like a Heatwave, and more by one of the greatest girl groups of all time. (MOT204) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

My Sister Jane

This is a great last minute addition to our 1991-92 catalog... and if it weren't so much fun, this album would have been set aside for next spring's consideration! This 5-woman band from Salt Lake City defies form and function — their songs are direct and unpredictable, yet altogether appealing. They combine blues, folk, country, and funk roots with an unorthodox approach to rock; interesting rhymes and rhythms, with instrumentation ranging from mouth harp to rhythm guitars, bass and drums, to sax, flute and mandolin — and vocals, lots of vocals. Some were members of Wild Woman for Peace, and most were previously in a band called Cowgirls Kinda...; we advise you to catch them in this reincarnation. Recommended! (MSJ1) CS: 9.98

Nona Hendryx
Female Trouble

This 1987 album from this power-filled, passionate singer-songwriter — now at a great price — is dedicated to Winnie Mandela, and contains Winds of Change (Mandela to Mandela), a beautiful tribute, as well as Too Hot to Handle, Drive Me Wild, and other tunes, mostly original, brimming with sexuality, desire and confidence. (EMI46550) CS: 5.98 CD: 9.98

Oleta Adams
Circle of One

Discovered in a small hotel piano bar by the band Tears for Fears, Oleta was first tapped to contribute vocals to their 1989 album — in fact, they refused to finish recording until she consented to quit her job and join them! One listen to the smoky, glowing embers of her incredible voice shows you why! Features the hit Get Here, plus Rhythm of Life as well as title, I've Got a Right and other originals. Pull up a comfy chair, pour a cup of tea, and warm yourself by her fire! (PLG848346) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patti Smith
Easter

This is our favorite Patti Smith album jacket... where else in the commercial realm did you see hairy amputees on a woman in 1976? Includes Rock n' Roll Nigger, opening with frantic poetry. Because the Night, co-written with Springsteen, Space Monkeys, Babelogue, High on Rebelion. (AR18349) CS: 6.98 CD: 14.98

Patti Smith
Dream of Life

Finally, the album that so many have been awaiting, as Patti comes bounding out of a long retirement with this 1989 release. Beginning with the visionary People Have the Power and ending with the gentle lullaby The Jackson Song, she explores the relationships and the thin boundaries between dreaming and waking life, heaven and earth, physical and spirit worlds... showing she has lost neither her punch nor her poetry. (AR18453) CS: 8.98

Rickie Lee Jones
Flying Cowboys

Her best ever, take our word for it... right from the opening cut, Flight seems to be a theme here, as well as her usual collage/kaleidoscope of wonderful images, personalities, truths, emotion, nuances and poetic clips. Includes Rodeo Girl. (GEF24246) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rickie Lee Jones
Pop Pop

This 1991 release is a sparse, acoustic, jazz-influenced album featuring songs both familiar and obscure... an intriguing collection. Includes Bye Bye Blackbird, Song Can Really Hang You Up the Most, Up From the Sails. (GEF24426) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor
I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got

This 1990 release opens with the Serenity Prayer and ends with the title cut which sounds like a Buddhist meditation; in-between are songs about topics ranging from social statements to the physical aspects of love to recognition of spiritual realities and inner strength. Includes Nothing Compares 2 U and I Am Stretched On Your Grave; ("my grief for the girl that I loved as a child... the priests and the flars' approach me in dread because I still love you... if your hand were in mine I'd be sure we'd not sweat my apple free my brightness"). (CHR21759) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor
The Lion and the Cobra

Sinead has been part of the renaissance of women artists which has been the surprise of the 1988 commercial music scene. Her debut album is raw, intense, and varied, demonstrating her own quick astuteness and contradictions (fierce yet demure; wild and loud yet innocent) as well as her ability to create within a multitude of musical styles. (CHR41612) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Slits
The Peel Sessions

Recorded in '77-'78 for Jon Peel's Radio One program, this could very well become a collector's item in a few years! Featuring seven of this quintessential band's early songs (Love and Romance, Shop Lifting, So Tough, FM), it really epitomizes the anger and attitude of the early-to-mid punk movement, where women took the liberty to be as obnoxious as they damn well pleased. Remember that quick drum phrasing and guitar thumping, choppy vocals swooping in and out of (and behind) the music? God, they were great... (SFT8304) CS: 8.98 CD: 11.98

Sophie B. Hawkins
Tongues and Tails

We've heard her concerts are enlightening, or rather "outstanding," and she's a favorite pick of DJ's everywhere (including our shipping room). Her smooth sensual voice carries you through Damn I Wish I Was Your Lover and moves you uncontrollably to Mysteries We Understand. Also includes Live and Let Live a title we take to heart. Just put this on at your next party (or press the Repeat button — it has a bit of every mood you want to generate!) (COL46797) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hope Chest

This compilation is a Maniacs' fans dream! Reissuing their previously out-of-print first two recordings, Human Conflict No. 5 (1982) and Secrets of the I Ching (1989) is the kind of treatment one usually wishes for, but rarely gets realized! The liner notes give extensive information on the band's early days, as they scraped out a living taking leaves and writing songs — including My Mother the War, Natalie's song which propelled the band to fame first in England, then in the U.S. 14 songs in all, a little rougher and jangly (and perhaps more adventurous) than their now characteristic seamless pop, but gems nonetheless! Lyrics included. (EL50962) CS: 8.98 CD: 14.98

House Tornado

Looking (and sometimes sounding) like a demurred cherub, band leader Kristin Hersh writes songs where you think you're following her thought, when Bam! she's off on an impressionist Surrealist/Cubist kinda tangent, but hey, it works, so you keep following her down the peculiar fobby trail she leaves. Very imaginative, heavy on jangly guitars and staccato drums, light on traditional rock structures. Includes Mexican Women, a kinda Frida Kahlo-does-acid experience, plus The River, Saving Grace, Marriage Free, Giant. (SR25710) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

The Real Ramona

This 1981 album favors a more conventional form than their previous releases, utilizing more vocal harmonies and recognizable rhythms. While Kristin still leads the band, Tanya Donelly now adds songwriting to her guitar and vocal contributions. The songs remain strange and painterly, with such titles as Golden Thing, Ellen West, Book in Her Head, Moneychain. (SR25488) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

'Til Tuesday

Welcome Home

This 1988 release is just the thing to put on the stereo after a hard day at the grind — the lyrics are sweet, soothing, wistful, literate and sensitive, to use just a few appropriate adjectives! Bassist and songwriter Aimee Mann also happens to have one of the most gorgeous voices this reviewer has ever heard — trust me, and give this a try. Includes Coming Up Close, Lovers' Day, Angels Never Call, and No One is Watching You Now. Oh, yeah, most enthusiastically recommended! (EPC40314) CS: 9.98 CD: 18.98

Everything's Different Now

Many documentations of the loss of one's lover will simply wallow in melancholy and blame, boring us to tears — well, this is certainly not the case here! As with any exceptional artist, Aimee Mann has taken the stuff of her life and skillfully transformed it into a thing of beauty. Some of the songs on this 1988 release do reflect pain, yes, but with such sweet candor and desire to process what went wrong and get on with life, that the listener is gifted with the resulting recording — highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! (EPC44041) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Toni Childs

Unlon

Infused with polyethnic rhythms, moods, arrangements and background vocal styles, Toni's debut album showcases her amazingly rich, deep, but expressive, emotive, powerhouse voice (at intermittent moments recalling Joan Armatrading or Nina Simone) as well as her conceptual, songwriting, and collaborative abilities. Zimbabwe and other cuts feature vocal tracks by African choirs from Zambia and Swaziland. This album offers depth and sustained interest, each listening will uncover new strands and layers...recommended! (AM5175) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

House of Hope

Combining a voice like Ringo Starr's and the intensity of Melissa Etheridge, Toni Childs adds something all her own to create unique and compelling songs. Her themes on this latest album are varied — spouse and child abuse, failing in love, angst — but no simple phrase can express the nuance she manages to pack into each piece. With a great voice, complex music and soul-searching lyrics, this is a fantastic follow-up to a promising debut album. Listen for the title song during one of the driving sequences in the movie Thelma and Louise. (AM5358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tori Amos

Little Earthquakes

If you're a Kate Bush fan, buy this! If you aren't a Kate Bush fan, buy this too — Tori possesses only KB's best qualities, and none of her worst ones. The lyrics are intelligent and literary, the arrangements are lightly layered, her acoustic piano rivals Kate's in sheer beauty and melody, and her voice is slightly fuller and not given to heavenward histrionics...OK, OK, enough comparisons. Songs include the pop tune Leviathe, the poetic ballad Mothet, plus the acappella Me and a Gun, a haunting narrative of a rape [yes, I wore a slinky red thingy that meant I should spread for you, your friends, your father...]. Highly recommended. (ATL82358) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Screaming Sirens, and more; titles include This is My Body, Ain't Nobody's Business, Around the World the Ladies Way, Lucky Lady, She Lay There In Bed Sleeping, Family. (PCE31) CD: 16.98

(RH70772) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Red Hot & Blue

This collection, created as a benefit for AIDS, is a sensational treatment of Cole Porter songs by hot, current artists. Its range includes a traditional rendition of You Do Something to Me by Sireed O'Connor, a heartbreaking version of So In Love by k.d. lang, and contributions by David Byrne, Annie Lennox, Neneh Cherry, and others. This is one compilation tape that really works, with eclectic nature, originality and imagination... a great album for expanding your horizons! (CHR27199) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various, inc. The Mint Juleps

Do It A Cappella

At this point in 1991, this is the only recorded audio work we have of the oft-requested amazing women's acappella sextet the Mint Juleps; they perform 3 cuts here: Don't Let Your Heart, I Want to Live Easy and Higher and Higher, and they collaborate with Ladysmith Black Mambazo on The Lion Sleeps Tonight. Also features works by the Persuasions, Rockapella, Take 6, True Image, and more by Ladysmith. This is the original soundtrack recording from the film starring Spike Lee, Debbie Allen, and the above musicians. (EL60953) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Wendy Waldman

Letters Home

She's been one of our faves for years, even though it's not always easy to keep her titles in stock... she has a beautiful voice, kinda bluesy. This 1987 album contains all original songs, and she really rocks out on some of them: The Wall, Desired To Be Wild, The Renegade Side, and more. And, a budget price! (CYP861114) CS: 4.98

Whoopi Goldberg et al

Sister Act - Original Soundtrack

You saw the movie — right?? And you loved it — right again? Now you can enjoy the fabulous music over and over again! In case you were wondering, that was Whoopi singing all her own vocal parts! Dennis & The Sisters perform Hail Holy Queen, My Guy (My God), I Will Follow Him, Shout. Also includes DeLores & The Ronettes' opening lounge medley: Farewell Boss' Rescue Me, Lady Soul's If My Sisters in Trouble, and more. Recommended, of course! (HR61354) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Yoko Ono

Walking on Thin Ice

Following the 1992 release of the 6-CD boxed set of Yoko's music, this single album of 19 highlights was compiled from the 105-song retrospective. Once considered experimental, her music now sounds incredibly contemporary, and this album is a testament to the fact that Yoko was simply way ahead of her time. It reveals her many compelling musical sides: from the undeniable groove of the title cut, a 1960 hit, to the tender lilt of Nobody Sees Me Like You Do, to the all-out rock and camp of Midsummer New York; Hell in Paradise could set any dance floor jumping, while Death of Samantha is a cool, almost jazz-influenced tune about the spiritual death of a young woman. And then there's Woman Power, released in 1973, mind you! Over 70 minutes, a great opportunity to more fully appreciate this passionate, precocious artist who was too often primarily defined by her relationship to a man. (RYK230) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stealin Horses

Mesas and Mandalins

Kays and Kopta (and band) are back, this time on an independent record label which gave them the creative control they needed to bring their vision into being. Frankly, this 1991 album is the better for it! If there were such a genre as "Southwestern Rock", they would be the divas of it. The vocals are husky and light (move over Melissa), the guitars are spunky and melodic, and Kopta's drumming keeps the arrangements crisp. Highlights include This House, If You Want to Be Lovers, and Broad Form Dead, a lovely adaptation of the traditional Shady Grove. (WAL7406) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stevie Nicks

The Other Side of the Mirror

A special for you bargain-hunters! Stevie is known for her many years with Fleetwood Mac, as well as for her accomplishments as a solo artist in her own right. Her silvery voice, always her trademark, here graces mostly original songs, including Julee and Alice. This 1989 album is dedicated to "Alice [in wonderland], my grandmother, the Queen of Hearts." (ATL91245) CS: 8.98 CD: 8.98

Ancient Heart

There's a quality about this British woman's voice that's almost mesmerizing: it's so deep, yet light and airy, so expressive, so unusual. If you want something with a truly unique sound, try this. All original songs, Tanika on all vocals and guitar, very tastefully and simply produced. Recommended! (REP25839) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Sweet Keeper

This follow-up to her debut album contains more original songs of inner secrets and stories, in her amazing, exotic voice that's a good octave below most women's ranges — and that much richer. Beautiful melodies and arrangements, includes Little Sister, Leaving Town, Once & Not Again. (REP26091) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Everybody's Angel

This 1991 release manages to be incredibly rich, simple and sophisticated all at the same time. While the list of instruments is impressive in itself — fugal horn, alto and tenor sax, trumpet, guitar, drums, piano, Hammond organ, loop horn, and a whole string orchestra — Tanita's deep, husky voice soars above, weaving through lyrics which defy easy interpretation. Jennifer Warnes provides vocal support on Mud In Any Water and Only the Ones We Love. (REP26466) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Eleven Kinds of Loneliness

Simply the most distinctive voice in the biz, guaranteed to make those unfamiliar with her stop and ask, "Who is that?" On this 1992 release, her 4th, you may ask "What in the world is she talking about?" Well, we can't give you any answers to that, but rest assured, she's the real thing! Her voice and lyrics become dance partners, each dependent upon the moves of the other, yet each mesmerizing in and of themselves. Includes Hear You, You Make the Whole World Cry. (REP26838) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Blind Man's Zoo

Natalie Merchant offers a second album full of musical, social, pointed song-vignettes. She gracefully tackles topics from poverty to environmental pollution to war to imperialism — succinct, powerfully communicating messages of conscience. Songs like Hallelu! Hate, Jubilee, The Lion's Share, Dust Bowl, Parson in the Wall. May the radio signals ever be filled with sounds like these! (EL60015) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

R&B ♦ Rap ♦ Dance

Adeva

The New Jersey native turned European sensation, where she is the undisputed queen of "house" music, exudes tremendous lung power as well as a volcanic eruption of attitude and conviction. With driving acid house beats and string melodies, the tracks on this debut album encapsulate the energy and excitement of the 90's dance boom. By the time of its 1990 release in the US, it had already gone platinum and gold in several countries around the world. Includes her incredible dance cover of Respect, plus Musical Freedom, Warring!, I Thank You. Recommended! (CAP93708) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Love or Lust

Well, either one is just fine with Miss Adeva, if you ask me! This dancefloor demi-goddess seems equally at home ripping it up (If Should Have Been Me) or smoothing it out (Try My Love)... also includes Independent Woman, I Would Die For You, Cold Blooded. Put this on at your next dance party (or aerobic class!) and get ready to move. (CAP95752) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin

What You See Is What You Sweat

This hot 1991 release includes Everyday People, Mary Goes Round, Ever Changing Times, and her electrifying version of I Dreamed A Dream from the Broadway show Les Miserables, which she has adapted as an unforgettable tribute to Martin Luther King. (ARR18528) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Aretha's Greatest Hits

Includes Respect, Natural Woman, Baby I Love You, Do Right Woman, Do Right Man, Spanish Harlem, Chain of Fools... in other words, just what the title says. (ATL8295) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Deee-Lite

Infinity Within

Racine Pepper, writer/music critic/music buyer, describes this album this way: "... pointedly political. Infinity Within has just as many songs which deal with serious issues like racism, environmental awareness and voter registration as it does about the powers of love. And whatever the sexual orientation of the three members of the band, everything... from Deee-Lite's statement about being pro-choice to their thanks to folks like ACT UP and Anita Hill to their sound and look and lyrics, is about as queer-identified as it gets... And though Deee-Lite may always be known more for their danceable beat than for the changing politics of our time, at least hip city kids, burnt out on activism and just wanting to rave, can at least feel political as they party." (EL81313) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

En Vogue

Funky Divas

Salt-worth, bigotry, pride, losing and finding love are only some of the themes found on the multi-sound second release (1992) by these 4 young women. They call upon rap, reggae, soul and rock to deliver their contemporary commentary, putting it all together with great vocals and harmonies. Includes Kiss Your Mind, My Lovin' (You're Never Gonna Get It), and their self-proclaiming it Ain't Over Till the Fat Lady Sings. (EWS2121) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Grace Jones

Nightclubbing

This recording is Grace's finest, in this reviewer's humble opinion... it combines crucial elements of island rhythms and rock/disco hits to create a sultry, smoky-hot compilation of dance tunes. Recommended! (PLG842366) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Monie Love

Down to Earth

Perhaps familiar to you as Queen Latifah's partner on the incendiary Ladies First, or perhaps from her radio hit, It's A Shame — regardless, buy this immediately, put it on your stereo, push the "repeat" button, and get ready for some serious fun! Monie is one of the few female rappers who doesn't spend most of her time complaining about or berating off-dishes from the guys — she's got better things to do, like telling the music industry bosses Don't Funk Wit the Mo, exhorting her slack sisters to clean up their acts in Funk Like a Bitch, Bone, struggling off an abusive lover in Just Don't Give A Damn, and thoroughly embodying self-respect, independence and a joyous intelligence. Highly recommended! (WB26358) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Pointer Sisters

Serious Slammin'

Emerging from the age of funk, the Pointer Sisters use and live on the spirit of today's dance and rap music. This recent album features songs like Serious Slammin', Shut Up and Dance, and Pivacious — draw your own conclusions! So if you're ready to dance, let June, Anita and Ruth turn you on. (RCA8562) CS: 4.98

Queen Latifah

All Hail the Queen

Queen Latifah, a.k.a. Dana Owens, has established herself as one of the most significant forces shaping the powerful fusion of rap, dancehall/reggae, hip-hop and funk... with a healthy dose of political content. Included here are the soothing The Evil That Men Do, which attacks the oppressions of racism and poverty; Ladies First ("Stereotypes have got to go!"); A King and Queen (Creation in which she traces her ancestry, and that of all Black people, back to Queen Nefertiti of Egypt, Mama Give Birth to the Soul Children, Princess of the Palace. Recommended! (TB1022) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nature of a Sista

Afrocentric, woman-identified, artistic, and graciously non-sensational, Queen Latifah rights proud here, on her second recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah's Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Fancy and Bad As A Mutha, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to, Give Me Your Love and the incandescent How Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism (and sexism on the part of male P&B radio programmers), she would have the same (or more!) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. Highly recommended! (TB1055) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Salt-N-Pepa

Blacks' Magic

Considered to be one of their best albums ever, this 1990 release contains a "Mystery Side" and a "Magical Side". Salt, Pepa and Spinderella kick off with what was the platinum Number One Rap single of the year, Expression, and continue with the driving thyme and rhythms of their gold singles Let's Talk About Sex and Do You Want Me, plus Independent, Life track and more. (NP41019) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Hits Remixed

This rap trio (Salt, Pepa, and Spingerella, their DJ) has been ripping it up for years now, with their trademark snazzy, sassy feminist lyrics and great beat; this collection of remixed hits is a fine chronology of their careers. Beginning with Do You Want Me, and of course featuring their monster hit Push It, it also includes Independent and Let's Talk About Sex... truly a blitz of Salt-N-Pepa hits! (NP41025) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Soho

Goddess

Soho broke easily into the alternative dance music scene with their hit HippyDink, and their rhythm permeates this entire album. This playful release bounces from the light clear lyrics of Out of My Mind, to Girl On a Motorbike, to the happy-with-life-and-love message of Nuthin' on My Mind, to the title cut. We can't say enough about the great beat and danceability of this album, so we dare you to try it and sit still while listening to it! (ATL91585) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Thug

15 tracks of the highly synthesized Soho sound on this 1992 release! We could spend weeks deciphering the meaning of their lyrics so we'll leave that up to you (heck, we're still trying to figure out the titles). Suffice to say this London-based group does some occipella experimentation but holds true to their dance floor domain. Includes Fade, Racho Soul Groove, Hawa, Vippie Saves the World. (ATL82141) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Red Hot & Dance

Once again, popular artists have contributed their talents to raise funds to fight AIDS, but this time they've done it with original cuts and some dynamic re-mixes of their own songs. Contributions by Madonna, George Michael (including smash hit Too Funky), Lisa Stansfield, Sabrina Johnston, and the Family Stone, and Crystal Waters are showcased on this all-star compilation. (COL52828) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Yo Yo

Make Way For the Motherlode

Familiar to rap fans as the LA high schooler/hip-hopster who suits NWA's Ice Cube in his place, this founder of the intelligent Black Women's Coalition is a delight as she rhymes her way through such issues as pregnancy, sex, and disrespect! Includes Stand Up for Your Rights, You Can't Play with My Yo-Yo, Sisterland. The IBWC National Anthem, Girl Don't Be No Fool. Ice Cube shows up to do and be dressed on one cut. (EWS1605) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Black Pearl

Hard-hitting and no-holds-barred lyrics deliver messages on issues many artists shy away from. She does a bit of everything here, from redefining superheroes to bashing the Bush-Quayle agenda. She reminds us that things could be worse, and issues a challenge to everyone to beat the system; this mix is rap at its roughest and best! Includes Home Girl, Don't Play Dat, Woman to Woman, Cleopatra. (EWS2120) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

The Mahalia Jackson Collection

Probably the greatest gospel singer ever recorded, every nuance of this woman's voice embodies spiritual devotion; you don't have to subscribe to Christianity to appreciate her lovely countenance! Contains 20 well-known and loved traditional hymns, including The Upper Room (parts 1 and 2), Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen, Wahine to Jerusalem, My Story, Bless This House. (DV2096) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marion Williams

Strong Again

And what incredible strength she possesses! Marion recently received ecstatic reviews in Rolling Stone and NY Times for her previous album, as well as national attention for her performance in the PBS Special, Amazing Grace. This 1991 release considered her best yet, contains a generous 20 selections, including several geared to the modern gospel audience. (SP1013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Sincerely, Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Not just gospel—blues and jazz too—by the foremother who popularized gospel music on the secular stage. At spots such as the Cotton Club and the Apollo. As Sippie Wallace said, "None there ain't no difference [between blues and gospel]. In the church we say Jesus, and in the blues we say baby." Many church members felt Rosetta had committed sacrilege, but she felt the Lord would listen whenever she sang. Selections were recorded primarily in the 40s, including Shout Sister Shout, Swing Low Sweet Chariot, Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child, Down by the Riverside. Several are accompanied by her own hot guitar. Recommended! (ROS1317) CS: 9.98

Alberta Hunter

Amtrack Blues

A variety of material, representative of her performances at the NYC Club "The Cookery," over the past several years. Includes Sweet Georgia Brown, My Handy Man Ain't Handy No More. (COL36490) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Bessie Smith

The Bessie Smith Collection

This ten-song compilation is a good introduction to this early lesbian blues Queen's popular "hits"...you might supplement it with a book or some reading material, since like many releases there are no liner or recording notes, just her velvety, rich voice. Pretty good recording quality for such old stuff. You includes Young Woman's Blues, Careless Love, Alexander's Ragtime Band, Hard Time Blues. (DV2008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton

Ball N' Chain

This 60-minute CD is an excellent Big Mama anthology. Includes Hound Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it); title song, one of her originals, recorded also by Janis Joplin; Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH305) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bobi Jackson

Alligator Woman

This woman heralds the next generation of Swamp Queens — lighter on the boogie, heavier on the funk — with a joyous, amphibious splash! This 1992 debut features 6 Crocko-Rocker originals, plus 2 covers, all guaranteed to move you in a variety of directions! Bobi plays keyboards, electric guitar and bass, plus wails croon/ belts it out — you get the picture! Includes the sweet Would You Be Here, for Janis Joplin, plus Hard Rockin' Woman, Born Under a Bad Sign, Menda, which introduces Venetta Phillips on trumpet. (ELP411) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Etta Baker

One-Dime Blues

She's a virtuoso performer in a style heard infrequently these days — the finger-picked guitar tradition known as the "Piedmont blues." Using a 2- and 3-fingered technique similar to that of other North Carolina guitarists such as Elizabeth Cotten and Reverend Gary Davis; Etta fingerpicks with clarity and precision. However, she never sacrifices emotion for technique, creating music that's remarkable in range and depth — by turns gentle and strong, subtle and assertive. This 1991 album contains her first recordings since 1956: masterworks from an exceptional artist. (ROU2112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ida Cox

Wild Women Don't Have the Blues

A volume originally recorded in 1961. Many folks have since belted this blues song, but here is the woman who wrote & first sang it in 1924...& it's one of the strongest, no-nonsense women's statements ever made. Ida was one of the most important Classic Blues singers of the golden era ("the only decade when women reigned"). (ROS1304) CS: 9.98

Various Artists

Gospel Warriors

A wonderful anthology of some of the most exemplary female gospel soloists in history, with recordings from 1931-1992...passionate, dynamic, commanding, and improvisatory...from the sanctified denominations, the only ones in which women were allowed full expressive freedom. Includes cuts by Clara Ward, The Georgia Peach, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Mary Johnson Davis, Marion Williams, Bessie Griffin, Sister Jessie Mae Reno, and Francis Steadman. (SF1003) CS: 9.98

Katie Webster

Swamp Boogie Queen

Bonnie Radd considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion...which we'd agree with. And, she's already released over 500 recordings. It's about time for her to gain some notoriety! This, her first album in several years, is a musical tumbler of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, r&b and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie diablo. Includes Who's Making Love?, Black Satin. (ALL4766) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Two-Fisted Mama!

To find a better mix of blues, soul and boogie than this, one would have to club-hop in New Orleans for a week! Her booming voice and piano prowess predominate on every song, and the transition from blues to boogie proves to be no challenge for her big league talent. Includes C.O. Boogie, a song commemorating the birth of her grandchildren, and So Far Away a gospelized version of the Dire Straits song. Recommended for anyone with an appreciation for the down-home New Orleans sound! (ALL4777) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

No Foolin'!

More rollicking good times with Katie and crew — this woman is simply the best piano-thumping, floor-stomping, blues-beltin' Delta Queen this reviewer has ever heard! She can croon, she can holler, she can hurt ya bad and make ya beg for more! Includes A Little Meat on the Side, I'm Bad, Mama Cut Cuttin' No Slack. (ALL4803) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Koko Taylor

Queen of the Blues

On this all-out, foot-stomping, house-rocking recording, Koko wraps her giant voice around 10 great songs, including Queen Bee, Flamin' Mamie, Come to Mama, I Can Love You Like a Woman (I Can Fight You Like a Man). With guest performances by Albert Collins, James Cotton, Son Seals, and Lonnie Brooks. (ALL4740) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marcia Ball/A. Strehli/L.A. Barton

Dreams Come True

These 3 Gulf Coast Blueswomen (Marcia, Angela, and Lou Ann) each have flourishing solo careers in the Austin, Texas music scene, and it took 5 years to pull this group effort together. We're glad they hung in there, because the result is a fantastic testament to each of their strengths: vocally, musically, and lyrically. Joined by bassist/producer/songwriter Sarah Brown, they move smooth as silk and hard as nails through 12 tracks, ranging from Ike Turner's A Fool in Love to Marcia's Snake Dance and Sarah's Bad Thing. The liner notes are a bit disappointing, but recommended anyway! (AN0014) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marcia Ball

Gatorhythms

Blending a fine mix of original hot Gulf Coast Blues, R&B and swamp-rockin' Boogie Woogie with some classics (What's A Gin To Do, Red Hot), this get ups it up with smoky vocals, soulful piano, bouncy accordion and organ riffs... she could be a one-woman band, but is joined here by some fantastic accompanists plus the joyful background vocals of hometown girls Angela Strehli and Lou Ann Barton. Includes Mama's Cooking and the ravenous Power of Love. (ROU3101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire

The Middle Aged Blues

Natural acoustic down-home blues on this debut tape by a culturally and geographically diverse trio: Gaye, a black Virginia Baptist; Earlene, part Cherokee and all Okie; and Ann, a Jewish Onion. They relate vocals on this collection of blues songs, some original, and all play a variety of the following instruments: guitar, bass, piano, harmonica. Includes Middle Aged Boogie Blues, Your Husband's Cheating On Us, Fuel. (SAF1) CS: 9.98

Various Artists

Say Amen, Somebody (Double Set)

Music from the original soundtrack plus more recorded live in performance. If you saw the documentary film, you witnessed the afterglow and amazing vocal powers of Willie Mae Ford Smith, affectionately known as "Mother Smith," and the Barron Sisters. Also includes music by Thomas A. Dorsey (called "The Father of Gospel Music," who was Ma Rainey's accompanist back in '24), Zella Jackson Price at the "Mother" Smith Tribute, the O'Neal Twins, and Mahalia Jackson, i.e., many of the gospel greats. (DRG12584) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Uppity Blues Women

The Washington Post describes this as "Sassy, brassy, raunchy...racy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jellied harmonies. Last, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their second release includes Even Yuppies Get the Blues, Amie's Blues, Pass Up When You Mess Up. Yeah! (ALL4780) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women

Hot Flash

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy blueswomen live, by all means go! Humorous, affirming, bewdy yock sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1/2, No Need Pissin' On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4796) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sue Foley

Young Girl Blues

This young Canadian blues singer/guitarist is simply amazing! Some quotes from the artist: "Women grow up faster than men and that shows in the way they play guitar." And: "I'm going to play as good as a man and I ain't gonna be no rhythm player." Well, at the tender age of 22, this is already true — in fact, she's probably better than most men. Her 1992 debut release showcases her diverse abilities: she mixes jam-down originals in the Lightning Hopkins vein with cool instrumentalists from Earl Hooker and vintage numbers from Memphis Minnie and Tampa Red; also a vocal duet with Angela Strehli. Recommended! (AN0018) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Valerie Wellington

Million Dollar Secret

A strong, wonderful debut album by the popular hot young Chicago blues singer who appeared as Big Maybelle in the movie Great Balls of Fire; the story of rockabilly legend Jerry Lee Lewis; other theatrical roles have included portrayals of Ma Rainey and Bessie Smith — get the picture of her power? This followed her opera and classical training! Includes great originals like Independent Blues, songs that cry out from the blues' most extreme depths like Cold, Cold Feeling; Bessie Smith classics like Dirty No-Gooder's Blues, which harbor no illusions about men... Accompanied by Sunnyland Sim and other Chicago musicians. Recommended for all blues fans! (ROO619) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Sissy Man Blues: Str't & Gay Blues

Women's Blues* (B.D. for Gail Dagher or Bill Dyke, the story goes). (JAS13) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Another dynamic collection of tunes, mostly reissued here for the first time. See Ethel Waters's No Many Mamas, Ora Alexander's Man-Sure-Are-Decalving, Billie Holiday's Now Batty or Never, Rosette Reltz compiled the series; background noises are filtered out, yielding a very clean, clear sound quality. (ROS1306) CS: 9.99

Ind. Women's Blues 3: Super Sisters

An anthology of bawdy blues, most dealing with women's sexuality, others just rowdy in language, spoken or omitted, such as a line by Sweet Peas Spivay (younger sister of Victoria who died at age 33): "When I first met you, I thought I fell in good luck! Now I know you ain't worth a...". A humorous and delightful compilation and jacket. Songs by Ida Cox, Bertha Idaho, Mildred Bailey, Ella Fitzgerald, Lizzy Miles (Take Your Fingers Off It), Martha Copland (I Ain't You Hen, Me Fly Rooster), and others. (ROS1308) CS: 9.99

(ROS1311) CS: 9.99

Various Artists

Boogie Blues: Women Sing & Play

Passion, vitality, sensuality, intensity... these are the foundations of the type of blues known as boogie woogie. In fact, the word "boogie" was a euphemism for sex around the turn of the century, and that "to boogie and the boogie beat" was integral to the blues. "Boogie woogie was referred to as 'western' or 'fast blues', as differentiated from the slow blues of New Orleans and St. Louis. Sixteen cuts from 1930 to 1941, including Christine Chatman's The Boogie Woogie Girl, Hazel Scott's Brown Bee Boogie, Ella Fitzgerald's Cow-Cow Boogie and other greats. (ROS1309) CS: 9.99

Various Artists

Sorry But...: Women's RR Blues

In the 1920's & 1930's, thousands of black men headed north on the trains for the factory jobs... jobs not accessible to women, so they stayed behind. This experience was one the blues were largely founded upon: listen to the sound of the blues harp, to lines like "Goin' to Chicago, sorry but I can't take you." This record gives us the side we haven't heard much about: tunes by Bessie Smith, Gippe Wallace, Bessie Jackson, Sister Rosetta Thayer, & others. (ROS1301) CS: 9.99

B. Holiday, E. Fitzgerald, et al

Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!

A collection which has been growing and changing since the release of "Ella, Lena and Bille" in 1956. Some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever. Includes Billie's What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's Little of the Sun (And West of the Moon). (COL36611) CS: 6.99

Billie Holiday

The Billie Holiday Collection

Ten golden greats, including one of the very few currently in-print issues of Strange Fruit. This song, about lynching, was one of the most political and significant recordings she ever made. It was banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio, even today, it is almost always omitted from anthologies — except occasional European ones, like this release from Italy — to remind us how far our society hasn't come. One of our best sellers. (DV5019) CS: 8.99... CD: 15.99

The Billie Holiday Songbook

Here's an excellent anthology we've located, which also includes Strange Fruit in addition to Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song; clear sound; we recommend this collection highly. (VVR823346) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Bougainvillea

Light Foot on the Exhilarator

A fantastic Boston women's jazz ensemble releases their fantastic 1990 debut album! Vibraphonist/composer Jeanette Muzina has been leading this flexible quintet (usually) for 10 years, so it's a bit overdue, but welcome nonetheless. This configuration consists of 7 women, adding tenor sax, bass, keyboards, drums and percussion, and even a vocal. Audible influences are Latin and Eastern in addition to pop and jazz. Jeanette's compositions here include the lyrical Shalom Salaam with haunting Eastern modalities, plus Cyale and Yelapa Dream. If you've been missing the sounds of women's jazz lately, let this fill the void. (MUZ1) CS: 9.99

Cafe Noir

An amazing album of "symphonic gypsy swing," a unique repertoire which blends European and American jazz with Middle Eastern, gypsy and classical elements. By a 11-woman, 9-man ensemble. The violin, viola, and clarinet of Gate Hess stand at the center, and her heart-wrenching virtuosity is bound to send chills up and down your spine. She's joined by acoustic guitars and bass, and the result is hot, soulful, haunting and incredible. Includes Villa-Lobos' Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5, Ana Carolina and Variations on a Theme by Paganini. (GAJ1901) CS: 9.99

Cleo Laine

Woman To Woman

Cleo, an internationally acclaimed artist with a career spanning 3 decades, is the only singer ever to receive Grammy nominations in the categories of jazz, classical, and female popular vocals... she's amazing! A 1989 release. (RCA7999) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.99

Diane Schuur

In Tribute

Diane's a great jazz vocalist who's been pretty "out" lately... and this is a wonderful tribute to the great legendary female jazz vocalists and their songs, because they had the power to free a little girl to express her feelings, learn about living, and give her hope for the future! Each song description specifies which artist she is paying tribute to: so Sweet Georgia Brown is in tribute to Anita O'Day; Sophisticated Lady is in tribute to Ella Anderson; How High the Moon to Ella; God Bless the Child we don't have to tell you; Body and Soul to Libby Holman; and others to Carmen McRae, Sarah Vaughan, Dinah Washington, Peggy Lee, Helen Morgan, Mabel Mercer, and Nancy Wilson. Love the concept and its execution; photos of the vocalists included in the insert. (GRP2006) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.99

Dinah Washington

Wise Woman Blues

"Miss D was a witch and didn't hesitate to use her witcraft, shouting unadorned incantations to cast a magic spell." This compilation contains both blues and jazz tunes, genres which the artist helped bring, combining the best of both Bessie and Billie, while making the music her own. This volume, part of the Foremothers series, includes some great tunes, in addition to the title track: Mellow Mama Blues; My Violets Really Bloom; Shoo Shoo Baby (play this one at your next inter-bug party). Most songs recorded 1943-45, one in 1963. (ROS1313) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Dorothy Donegan

Dorothy Romps

This retrospective of the works of one of the most outstanding pianists in jazz history spans 1953-1979, as Volume 9 in Rosetta Records' Foremothers series. From boogie woogie to honky-tonk to blues, pop and even classical. This album demonstrates the spectacular technique and breathtaking abilities of the artist. Includes Greig's Boogie, Louise I Want A Little Girl, Minuet in G, Lullaby of Birdland. (ROS1318) CS: 9.99... CD: 16.99

Ella Fitzgerald

The Ella Fitzgerald Collection

This ten-song collection begins with a version of Lower Come Back to Me which must be from the 40's (like many reissues, this has no liner or recording notes) and ends with a slightly more mature-sounding A Ticket A Ticket, but they could have been from the same recording session... The sound quality is pretty good, and the selections are that great bouncy big band sound. Put this on at your next party for an enjoyable romp. (DV2004) CS: 9.99... CD: 15.99

Emily Remier

This Is Me

"It is important to understand what this collection of music is all about. Emily, while being acknowledged the world over as one of the great jazz guitarists, was encumbered with the reputation of being a straight-ahead player who could interpret other people's music her way, however great that was. What drove her intensity was a passion to get to a point in her career which would allow her to play and write her music her way. And that is what she accomplished with this collection." This 1990 release, Emily's last before her untimely death, is truly incredible, bringing out her song-writing talents for the world to hear! music that is emotive, fluid, melodic, transformative... Includes Song for Maggie, Deep In a Dance, Carnegie Majestic Dance. Highly recommended! (JUS0501) CS: 10.99... CD: 15.99

Esther Phillips

Set Me Free (Double Play)

The no-nonsense, genuine, expressive texture of her voice combines artfully with the perfect balance of jazz/blues/r&b in each syllable to create an unusual presence and fullness of sound. This double-length tape contains 25 tracks; includes Van Morrison's Crazy Love, plus Woman Will Do No Wrong, Fever, Ma Jo Hanna. (ATL81682) CS: 7.99

Flora Purim

Queen of the Night

Considered by many to be the premier Brazilian jazz vocalist since the death of Elis Regina, Flora definitely has our vote for Queen! Her voice is mature yet sweet, and capable of an amazing range. This album is more hybrid Brazilian jazz than her trademark experimental work, yet many pieces will remind the listener of Alvin's (especially Rianon's) later sound... her duets with the horns are simply fabulous! Most songs in Portuguese; great band, very tight, and includes the great sax player Mary Feltig on one cut. English translations included. (50W89009) CS: 10.99... CD: 16.99

International Sweethearts of Rhythm

There were many all-women's jazz bands in the 40's (men were away, women could play) but this was the hottest and the first integrated women's group. Although the band lasted over a decade, it was ignored by the white media because it played primarily for black audiences and is still omitted from history books. Don't miss this essential history. (ROS1312) CS: 9.99

Judy Garland

Greatest Hits

You know what the greatest greatest hit here is; of course, Over the Rainbow. Also contains Rock-A-Bye Your Baby With a Dixie Melody, Zing Went the Strings of My Heart and more. (EVR0852) CS: 8.99... CD: 14.99

Marian McPartland

Solo Concert at Haverford

Marian has always been one of our favorite jazz pianists, and this album has always been one of our favorites of Marian's albums from her huge discography — just her and her incredible talent, performing both original compositions and wonderful pieces like Sand in the Clocks. Note great price on the LP, too. (HAL111) LP: 6.99... CD: 15.99

The Marilyn Monroe Collection

25 greatest hits by this mythical persona, some of which were recently rediscovered in MGM's vaults — perfect for educating the entry-level Marilyn fan; many know her for her incandescent sexuality, but she actually had a great voice. Includes Bye Bye Birdie with Jane Russell, Happy Birthday Mr. President, which she sang to JFK at Madison Square Garden in 1962, Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend, How Wonderful (a very dated and so-dumb-a-lummy Berlin tune), Little Girl From Little Rock, Kiss, and more. (DV2001) CS: 9.98

Mary Lou Williams

Zoning

Check out the super-bargain price on the LP! Mary Lou Williams, 1910-1981, was the only major jazz pianist who lived through and played the music of each new era of jazz. She started recording in 1927 and stayed in the forefront through the big band, swing and modern transitions. This, her last album on her own Mary label (which the LP is still on; the CD has been re-issued by Smithsonian/Folkways), consists of instrumental compositions for piano and back-up instruments. Each selection stands in its own right, but they all blend together to form a whole, part of her concept of musical zoning. Highly recommended! (SF40811) LP: 4.98 . CD: 15.98

Natalie Cole

Unforgettable... With Love

Anyone who has heard Natalie's trademark smooth voice and sensual delivery will be thrilled with this 1991 recording! Told by her record company that the idea wouldn't sell, she found another label and went on to win a Grammy! She offers up her own interpretations of 22 of her father Nat King Cole's best-known and -loved songs, and the effort proves to be simply fabulous! She croons through a "duet" with Nat on Unforgettable thanks to modern technology, and the effect is lovely and heart-breaking at the same time. If you enjoy romantic ballads and swoony orchestral back-up, you'll love this recommendation! (EL61649) CS: 16.98 . CD: 14.98

Nina Simone

My Baby Just Cares for Me

Nina has a lot of fun with this live recording. Her charm and energy come through loud and clear on songs as love-laced as Do What You Got to Do and as unique as You Took My Breath. It also includes an audience-assisted version of the title cut and the rollicking Pirate Jenny, as well as Misissippi Goddam, Four Women, Sugar in My Soul, and more. (HD4374) CS: 9.98

The Nina Simone Collection

This Golden Greats edition by one of the most unusually honest artists in the music world includes her unique interpretations of House of the Rising Sun, Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood, The Way I Love You, her original See-Line Woman, When I Was a Young Girl, ten great songs in all. #### The Best of Nina Simone

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes blacklisted and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Pirate Jenny, plus Four Women, See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You, which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHP82846) CS: 9.98 . CD: 15.98

Sarah Vaughan

Memorial Album: I'll Be Seeing You

Sarah began singing professionally in 1943 and continued to become one of the greatest jazz vocalists ever, with the distinguishing characteristics of a pronounced vibrato and perfect control. She died in April of 1990, and this collection was created as a tribute to her greatness. Includes unissued performances from 1945-1962, with Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Woody Herman, Joe Williams and Nat King Cole. A portion of the proceeds from this project will be donated to Lung Cancer research in the name of the Vaughan family. 67 min. (VJ1015) CD: 15.98

Tuck & Patti

Love Warriors

Their second incredible release maintains the intimacy of the first recording while reaffirming their position in the realm of contemporary jazz. With one voice and one acoustic guitar, they present an eclectic combination of Brazilian sounds, jazz standards and gospel. It showcases Patti Cathcart's production and writing skills as well, with two originals, including the stand-out sassy title cut. Recommended. (WH0116) CS: 10.98 . CD: 16.98

Tears of Joy

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart, accompanied only by her husband Tuck Andress' guitar. Each song is a perfect gem; notably Cindy Lauper's Time After Time, plus Take My Breath Away, title, and more. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in her style is impressive and engaging, the result of nine years of working in this duo. Very fine. (WH0111) CS: 10.98 . CD: 15.98

Dream

No ordinary "girl with guitar" here! This woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk, and her vocal relationship to Tuck's incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slip and slide around the corners of jazz ballads (As Time Goes By, Friends in High Places), 3 of Patti's originals (High Heel Blues is her acappella ode to the agony and ecstasy of addictive shoe shopping, which this reviewer is also cheerfully powerless over) and Wendy & Lisa's From Now On (We're One!). Recommended. (WH0130) CS: 10.98 . CD: 16.98

The Uptown String Quartet

Just Wait a Minute!

Bringing together 4 very accomplished female musicians in a jazz-oriented string quartet (2 violins, viola and cello), this 1992 release (their second) presents a wide-ranging assortment of compositions — some extremely complex — performed in their unique all-string swinging sound. Includes bebop standards such as Along Came Betty; a great rendition of the traditional hymn Amazing Grace; Gershwin's Summer-time; a talko drum piece, Sister Harriet, as well as original compositions by two of the members. Outstanding talent, recommended! (BLM79174) CS: 10.98 . CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Women in Jazz: Feminist Retrospect

This two-compact-disc set contains material from the Stash label's double LP Jazz Women plus cuts from their Women in Jazz series, now out of print as single albums... in other words, selections from the also out-of-print 5-LP set Forty Years of Women in Jazz. ## AMY BEACH Grand Mass in E-Flat Major

Aihea Waites

The Music of Florence Price

A premiere recording of an outstanding, trail-blazing Black American classical woman composer, by virtuoso pianist Aihea Waites (who also played with Kay Gardner on Moonlight). Born into a climate of unrest, activism and the cultural movement called the Harlem Renaissance in 1892, Florence began composing at age 11 and continued to write symphonies, chamber works, arrangements for spirituals, and solo piano works until her death in 1953. This very lovely and accessible recording includes Sonata in E Minor, The Old Boatman, Cotton Pick, Dances in the Canyons. Produced by Jeannie Cole. Very highly recommended for both new and seasoned listeners of classical music. (ICAM1027) CS: 9.98

Amy Beach

Grand Mass in E-Flat Major

"Mrs. (H. H. A.) Beach was an American composer at a time when an American composer could not be taken seriously as an artist. And she did it anyway. Mrs. Beach was a serious woman composer. And she did it anyway. They called her Mrs. Ha Ha Beach. And she did it anyway. She did it anyway. And her life is a story of success," wrote Michael May, of the Michael May Festival Chorus, the performers here. We're glad that more and more works by this prolific Romantic composer (1867-1944) are being brought to the public's attention. She composed this unusual, non-traditional, exuberant mass — with chants, chorus, organ and percussion (to which she incorporated some waltz and jazz elements [as revolutionary then as a rock mass would be now... as per Sister Act]) — at age 18. A footnote is that her use of the name Mrs. was actually a bold move at the time, because she was making her gender unmistakable during an era when most women composers and published under male pseudonyms. (NC60006) CS: 9.98 . CD: 15.98

The Ars Femina Ensemble

Non Tacete! (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Namer, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself... and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 8 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Cari Music by Bianca Maria Meda, an Ursluine nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1686 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica," a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented, and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! (NAN002) CS: 10.98 . CD: 16.98

Barbara Harbach

18 C Harpsichord/Women Composers I

This unique series by harpsichord master Barbara Harbach brings to light works by several neglected 18th century women composers who wrote for solo harpsichord. Back then, society didn't approve of professional women composers (big surprise), so while their male counterparts wrote for the church or courts, these women wrote for themselves, informal salons and each other, and therefore had more freedom to be innovative... and so they introduced new twists of harmony and melody. This volume includes beautiful works by Cecilia Maria Barthelmon, Marianne Martinez, Marianne d'Auenbrugg, Elisabeth de Guarnari, and Mary Hester Park. 68 min. Recommended! (KIN2010) CD: 14.98

Baroque Treasures

This long-awaited release, which we welcome with open arms, contains brilliantly executed 18th century works by women composers: Marianne Martinez, Camilla de Rossi, Mile, Duval, Maddalena Laura Lombardini Sirmen, and Elizabeth Jacquet de la Guerre. Four of the five works were first performed in the US by this orchestra; all the composers represented were noted in their time, though little is now known about some of them. Conducted by JoAnn Fallotta, the Bay Area Women's Philharmonic was founded in 1980 by Miriam Abrams to promote women composers, conductors and performers. 75 minutes. Highly recommended! (NC60102) CS: 9.98 . CD: 15.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's

Gregorian Chant: Ave Maria

The calm, stilling voices of the nuns of St. Cecilia's Abbey on the Isle of Wight radiate purity of heart and the depth of their devotion; ancient and timeless. (NW150) CS: 9.98 . CD: 16.98

Carolann Martin, conductor

Journeys: Orchestral Works by Women

Works by 7 contemporary American women — Kay Gardner, Nancy Van de Vate, Libby Larsen, Margie Richter, Katherine Hoover, Ursula Mamlok, and Jane Brockman — are performed by the Bourne-mouth Sinfonietta and the Arlington Chamber Orchestra. Carolann Martin, a proponent of orchestral works by women, has conducted works by women of the 18th, 19th, and early 20th centuries, as well as by contemporary composers; she is the conductor of the Southeast Karlela Symphony Orchestra and the Mid-Atlantic Youth Symphony. Over 55 minutes. (LEO327) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cello

Cello is an all-women cello quartet, and they perform an interesting mixture of contemporary, classical and jazz compositions, by composers such as Bela Bartok (Hungarian Peasant Song), Miles Davis (So What), Claude Debussy (Sarabande), and even Lennox-McCartney (Eleanor Rigby). The digital recording features innovative arrangements and excellent musicianship. (PRO500) CD: 15.98

Clara Schumann & Fanny Mendelssohn

Piano Trios

The Darlington Piano Trio (piano/violin/cello) artfully performs Clara Schumann's Piano Trio in G Minor, Op. 17 and Fanny Mendelssohn's Piano Trio in D Major, Op. 11, two rarely-performed works by women composers whose talents have historically been veiled in the light of their more famous and acknowledged male relatives. 56 min. (HYR66337) CD: 19.98

Duo Pontremoli

Works of Amy Beach/Grazyna Baciewicz

Teri Pontremoli on violin and Anita Pontremoli on piano — Duo Pontremoli — premiere compositions by two women composers. In the works of Polish composer Grazyna Baciewicz (1909-1969), influences from such diverse composers may be heard; but hers is an original musical language, as the Sonata No. 4 performed here will demonstrate. Amy Beach (1867-1944) is finally beginning to receive the recognition she has long deserved; the musicians here perform her Sonata in A Minor (CNR2119) CD: 19.98

Elena Polanska

The Medieval & Renaissance Harp

Music of 5 centuries is performed beautifully by Elena on harp, with La Camerata on almost every other instrument of the period: crumhorn, vielle, schalmey, lute, zorb and more. 12 pieces from medieval days and 33 from the Renaissance are brought together on this 62-minute album, making it easy to follow the transition from vocal style to a more dance-oriented instrumental basis over the years. (TRN714E) CS: 6.98 CD: 11.98

The Baroque Harp

During the 17th century, the harp was primarily used to perform music written for the lute, spinet, organ, and clavichord (except for in the Celtic countries, where it enjoyed a reputation in its own right, due to the traveling poets). This recording demonstrates material drawn from both sources of repertoire, primarily performed as solo harp pieces, accompanied by recorders on a few. Includes minuets, marches, sarabandes, Welsh Air, Johann Pachelbel's Cloacome and 13 Variations, and the anonymous but easily recognizable My Lady Greenleaves... quite lovely. (TRN7171) CS: 6.98 CD: 11.98

Hildegard von Bingen

Ordo Virtutum (2-Set)

This double set includes Ordo Virtutum, one of Hildegard's mystery plays, in which she confronts the Devil and her own temptations, ultimately triumphing over them. Also includes the musical ensemble Sequentia performing medieval sequences — the most significant poetical and musical form of the Middle Ages — with lute, psaltery, lute, harp and hurdy-gurdy. Once again available! (DHM77020) CS: 15.98 CD: 25.98

Hildegard von Bingen

A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as a politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. Currently a rebirth of interest is occurring in this composer, though her works are hard to come by. (HYR66039) CS: 14.98 CD: 19.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Sequentia

Symphoniae: Spiritual Songs

This recording of spiritual songs contains texts and music in praise of the female divinities who figured prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Mary, the virgins who inhabit heavenly realms at the end of time, St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered a feminine deity. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harp, psalteries, lutes, flutes, and symphony. (DHM77020) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joya: Women Composers Around World

With works by female composers Haruna Aoki, Ruth Watson Henderson, Debn Nielsen Price and Kazuko Osawa, this album offers a rare blend of Eastern sounds and the classical genre. Side one, entitled Joya for Fifteen Musicians, from a traditional Buddhist New Year ceremony, is a composition whose tempo was originally set by Buddhist monks who struck a gong in cadence with their heartbeats; the music and translated poetry focus on the positive side to every life situation. Side two, which includes Missa Brevis for Concert Choir, Big Sur Triptych, and Mos, also accents positive emotion, through its uplifting tempo. Produced by Jeanine Pool; proceeds benefit the CSUN International Institute for the Study of Women in Music. (CAM1025) CS: 9.98

Lucille Field

Songs by American Women Composers

Lucille Goodman, accompanied by Hermet Wingreen on piano, employs an explosive, hysterical voice to bring to life original compositions by 5 renowned female composers: Florence Price, Ruth Crawford Seeger, Nancy Van de Vate, Miriam Gideon, Patsy Rogers, and Dorothy Klotzman. Her range and intensity go beyond performance alone and reflect a commitment to the intended emotion of the songs. As a founding member of the International Congress of Women in Music, her contributions to the promotion of work by women is already established. Highly recommended for those who appreciate outstanding vocal discipline. (CAM1037) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The first volume includes works by Ellen Taaffe Zwilch, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Barbara Kolb, and 12 other women, as well as a few male composers. ### Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg

Mendelssohn/Saint-Saens/Massenet

The fire, the intense emotionality of this young violinist (her nickname is Flash!), combined with her fierce virtuosity, has caught the attention of audiences from both within the world of classical music and without, who respond to her strong, ebullient, free-spirited, and feminist presence. She was born in Rome to an Italian-American mother and Russian father, and made her debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra at age 10. Here she performs Mendelssohn's popular Concerto in E Minor, Saint-Saens' Introduction & Rondo Capriccioso and Habanera, and Massenet's Meditation from Thaïs, with the New York Chamber Orchestra. (VIR90717) CD: 16.98

In Recital: Diaries

For many years, the name of Anais Nin could be found only in avant garde literary magazines. Rediscovered in the 80's (and again with the film release of Henry and June), her reputation grew. She never lost the quality of her personal communication, as this 1979 recording of her appearance at the 92nd St YM/YWCA in NYC proves. Questions from the audience can be heard interspersed with her reading of excerpts from Source: The Diary of Anais Nin. 39 min. (VT1613) CS: 11.98

Acclaimed writers Anais Nin (Diaries), Joan Didion (Play It As It Lays), and Dory Previn (author of Midnight Baby, as well as a fascinating musician whose albums are unfortunately all out of print) give wonderfully insightful interviews that shed light on their personalities. Nin: "...never give anybody the power to decide what is right or wrong in your creativity." Didion: "...just my sheer interest in the techniques of writing kept me going and also I needed money." Previn: "...I found the world so intolerable that my psyche cracked." Three interviews by Sally Davis from the Pacifica Radio Archive, 1972. 96 min. (PCF0611) CS: 18.98

Audre Lorde

Eroticism and Pornography

The major part of this tape from the Pacifica Radio Archive is a speech given by Audre Lorde in San Francisco in 1978. She talks about erotica, why it's needed, what it is, and why it's feared. Helene Rosenbluth, producer of the program, gives a long introduction that includes definitions of both pornography and erotica. In conclusion, Adrienne Rich reads a poem inspired by her visit to Crete and the statues of women she saw there. Mixed with music. 49 min. (PCF8884) CS: 13.98

A perfect introduction to the herbalist's medicine chest. 50 min. (SND071) CS: 9.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes

Women Who Run with the Wolves 2-Set

Magical storytelling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and women and wildlife really, have been tarred with the same brush. They have been destroyed, exiled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tribe of females indeed. These tapes are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine." ## Lynne Dusenberry Crow

Coming Home to N. American Roots

Excellent, Excellent, Excellent! — it's simply a must for any woman of European descent interested in Native culture and spirituality! Too often, many white women (lacking connection to their own roots, appalled by their own culture's racism, seeking to distance themselves from their cultural history) are drawn to more Earth-based cultures. Lynne's father was adopted by Salish Indian elders; her childhood, and subsequent return as an adult, taught her much about white interaction with Native peoples and attraction to those cultural and spiritual values. Now with a Masters degree in Anthropology, she teaches multicultural understanding for people who seek personal, spiritual and cultural identity. This tape consists of six talk sessions, from A Native American Connection to The Attraction of Native Teachings to The Quest for Earth Roots. She is a quiet yet charismatic speaker who uses her own experience to help us understand the elements of empowerment. A great teaching tool for those doing multicultural, anti-racism work; highly recommended! (EWS11) CS: 9.98

Snake Talk/Messages from the Mother

Presented by "A Traveling Jewish Theater", this unique program, subtitled Urgent Messages from the Mother, is built around the following premise: In pre-patriarchal times the Goddess had as her ally and teacher the snake. Together they carried the wisdom of the cyclical nature of all existence. The 3 aspects of woman — the maiden, the mother and the crone — were seen as the Three Fates or the Triple Goddess who served as the creator, preserver, and destroyer of life in ancient peoples' mythologies. In this theatrical piece, each of these aspects is embodied in a contemporary character: Etse, Rilke, and the Hag. As Naomi moves from one character's home place to the others, we witness one woman simultaneously experiencing 3 parts of herself while moving through the circle of her life. (TJT1) CS: 10.98

It weaves strands from the musical traditions of gospel, blues, and rap, with lyrics by Rose Sanders which are at once poetic and direct, speaking out against racism and sexism and war-making, and for self-respect, a rainbow coalition. Piano by Jane Sapp, vocals by 25 female and male children and teens. Includes Unite Children, Black is Beautiful, If Children Rule the World, I Just Want to Be Me. Highly recommended. Heather Bishop

Bellybutton

Save on the LP: Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC—Canada's national radio network—this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' LP's around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaldor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lotamus") and the song, "Oh my bellybutton I love you... you're the only friend I have—the one who really cares/ cause every time I need you—you're always there... When things get down and looking kinda grim/I simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in..." Also a song by Fernon, Boom Boom, which was on her 2nd now-out-of-print LP. Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. Heather produced and mixed. (MOP003) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

The Re-Bops*Funny 50's & Silly 60's

This isn't just a "Volume II" of the Re-Bops' first hit album; it's a collection of some of the wackiest, nuttiest songs that the baby-boom generation ever trove. These parents crazy with updated versions of those favorites, from Purple People Eater to Wooly Bully to Witch Doctor to Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on the Bedpost Overnight?, will keep you and the kids in your life giggling, jumping and singing for years to come. (RB102) CS: 9.98

The Re-Bops*Raised on Rock n' Roll

This collection of bouncy, fun tunes (More Oldies for Kool Kids and Their Grownups) will keep you and your kids busy for hours, as you first listen, sing along, and then try to explain to them the meaning of songs like Who Put the Bomb and the Lion Sleeps Tonight. Also includes Poison Ivy, Come Go With Me, Mockingbird. Features both male and female lead vocals, with kids' chorus (and commentary). (RB103) CS: 9.98

Robin Goodrow & Michael Goodrow*Amazing!

One of the most amazing kids' albums we've heard, and we know others share our sentiments. The music's extremely high-energy, the production very professional, the instrumentation representative of world cultures, the lyrics pretty right on and aware as well as fun, and we can't imagine that this wouldn't be a hit anywhere! Songs promote self-confidence, owning one's inner power (as opposed to transferring it to TV superheroes), peaceful co-existence, friendship, and mischief! Includes Chocolate Pudding Queen, Rainbow of Colors, The Power, I'm Cool. For ages 4-11... highly recommended! (AM201) CS: 9.98

Sally Rogers

Susan Nimue (w/Lisa Thiel)
Muffin's Story

With gorgeous music provided by Lisa Thiel (Inner Mother Song), Susan warmly and quietly leads the listening child (of any age) into a story which is intended to help create inner tools for self-reliance, self-love, and self-esteem. Many adults have found the concept of the inner child helpful. Susan turns this around here for the listener, recounting Muffin's journey to meet her Inner Mommie (an inner helper). She learns what intimacy and trust are and discovers what is nurturing for herself. Very loving, sweet, and relaxing; recommended. (HTHT) CS: 9.98

Adoption Adventure

This unique collection of songs about adoption explores the feelings and perspectives of all members of the adoption triad: birthparents, adoptive parents, and adoptees. Several of the participants in this project are adoptees, others adoptive parents; the material deals with subjects like self-esteem, searches and reunions with birthparents, adopting a child from another land, loss and separation as well as love and happiness. Very well done, enlightening, entertaining. Musicians include six-year-old adoptee Christy Tofaneli, adoptee Sammi Whytecap, adoptive father Ken Scoggs, and Tom Paxton. Recommended for educators, caseworkers, all triad members, relatives, and general listenership, young and adult both. (ADPT) CS: 9.98

Vitamin L
Walk A Mile

One of the most animated, contemporary, professional, hippest kids' recordings we've heard; it should have strong appeal to kids from a wide range of cultural and socio-economic backgrounds, as it cures the problem of boring children's music! This ensemble of mixed gender, race, and age (half are kids; half adults) sings songs by Jan Nigro, Laura Nyrø's brother, leading us to conclude that good songwriting is a family trait. Great messages, about independent thinking, justice, truthfulness, conflict resolution, and more. Winner, 1989 Parents' Choice Award. Highly recommended! (LCM101) CS: 9.98

Whoopi Goldberg & Herbie Hancock
Koi and the Kola Nut

This west African story is told by the very expressive Whoopi and set to music by the ultra-talented Herbie Hancock. It tells of a christian's son who sets out on a journey to find his rightful place in the world. His acts of generosity to the animals he befriends are rewarded after he is captured and intended for the cooking pot. The story is generally sweet, yet contains a stereotypical overly-hungry fat woman and traditional reward-of-the-king's-daughter ending; good opportunities to discuss these issues with your kids! Whoopi is a spectacular storyteller and we hope she'll continue. Side 2 is instrumental only. (RH70454/5) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

"Mehn's Music"

"I like the fact that we're part of a movement of gay and straight men who are creating non-sexist music. But for those who have never heard of the men's movement, to say that we do Men's Music only conjures up images of songs about pick-up trucks. Indeed, most music since the beginning of time has been Men's Music by subliminally or not-so-subliminally promoting patriarchal values. For this reason, I think we need to make a distinction by spelling it Mehn's Music."

— Ron Romanovsky, originator of the Mehn's Music spelling!

Bill Folk
Lookin' for Mr. Right

A wonderfully honest, frank, emotion-filled, gay-affirming 1991 album by a Bay Area singer/songwriter. With the instrumental assistance of folks such as Barbara Borden, John Bucchino, and Jan Martinelli, he presents songs such as title track; A Song About Women and Love about being the only man at a women's music concert; Man Lovin', Lovin' Man and No More Daydreams, two tender love songs; and Castro Street Station, a cruising tune. Recommended! (BRM9173) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Communards
Red

We have a small stash of this out-of-print gem, but hurry, as supplies are limited! This forthright, catchy and polished album contains two songs dealing with AIDS: the incredible For A Friend, and Victims; the celebratory There's More To Love Than Boy Meets Girl; and Tomorrow, about partner abuse. (MCA42106) CS: 8.98

Consolidated
Friendly FaScism

The first anti-patriarchal, pro-feminist, anti-racist & non-homophobic radical vegetarian hip hop group of guys this reviewer has ever encountered! The liner notes don't give their identities, but the lyrics are printed, and damn, they're good! San Francisco-based, they employ rap, hip hop & industrial styles to convey their disgust at this culture's anti-life systems, artistically and intelligently exposing the connections between all the rampant "isms": Unity of Oppression compares patriarchal devaluing of women with meat-eating; Typical Male describes the different identities today's jerk may wear ("the sensitive rapist... the pseudo feminist... thinks with his D.I.C.K."); and the daily atrocities they commit; the title song is a chilling, bouncy tune that makes George Orwell's vision look like a child's story... All in all, this is one of the most important releases of the decade, politics you can't help but dance to. Highly recommended. (IRS13089) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dan Martin
Homo Love Songs

This heartfelt recording features 9 songs, many of them ballads, from the theatrical musical show of the same name by Dan and his lover of 15 years, Michael Biello. Covering such subjects as first love, sexual exploration, long-term relationships, separation and healing, Dan sings and accompanies himself on solo piano. Very honest, loving and open — play this on a quiet day for yourself and bear witness to one gay couple's expression of love. (HMO1) CS: 8.98

Dan Martin & Michael Biello
Hu'Man'Be'Ing

On the second (1992) release by the makers of Homo Love Song, these co-writers continue to carve out a place as gay songwriters and performers. Simply produced, Dan performs their out and heartfelt songs, including Let Me Love You Now, Drag Dance, So Many/ Lay Your Burden Down and more. (HMO2) CS: 9.98

Elliot Pilshaw
Feels Like Home

A wonderfully gay-affirming theme runs through this album, now happily back in print! The list of contributing songwriters reads like a Who's Who of progressive artists: Holly Near, Jeff Langley, Willie Sordil, Gary Lapow... Elliot's vocals are expertly complemented by John Bucchino's piano, to give this recording a simple but palatial feeling. Includes Walls to Roses, You Are Poetry, Sit With Me. Native Tongue

Inspired by the artist's love of Hebrew and commitment to the flourishing of secular Jewish culture, this is a treasury of 12 songs by some of Israel's best-loved contemporary songwriters. Its elegant simplicity, beautiful harmonies, and warm acoustic sound will delight the ears of both Hebrew and non-Hebrew-speaking listeners. (EDP102) CS: 9.98

The Flirtations
Live: Out On The Road

Our favorite boy a cappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural a cappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun; Oughta Be A Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon; Donde Esta Dolores?; Michael Callen's Living in Wartime; and fun faggot favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. A terrific mixture of pleasure and politics; highly recommended again! (FLR1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay a cappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Font; Sweet Honey's Breathe; and an incredible cover of Cris Williamson's Shooting Star. A wonderfully varied album; very highly recommended! (SIG902) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fred Small*Love's Gonna Carry Us

Fred's debut recording contains one of his most well-known and most-often-recorded songs, Fifty-Nine Cents, the amount women make for every dollar made by male counterparts, plus I Lost That Pretty Little Girl of Mine (to Title IX), A Modest Proposal (The Long Underwear Song), and others written with wit and insight into various issues. (AQU1) CS: 9.98

Fred Small*I Will Stand Fast

This 1988 release contains a beautiful duet with Cris Williamson, This Love, Scott and Jamie, the true story of two children removed from their foster home solely because the parents were two gay men; Denmark 1943, the story of the escape of 7000 Jews from occupied Denmark to Sweden on the eve before their arrest; If I Were A Moose, based on the true tale of moose-cow courtship; and other vignettes, each a gem of lyric, melody and thought. Accompanists include John McCutcheon, Lorraine Duail of Trapezoid. (FF491) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fred Small*Jaguar

On this 1991 release, lawyer-turned-folksinger/activist performs his own material that addresses everything from war to endangered wildlife to child abuse. Each song tells a story and makes a point in his inimitable manner. Includes Light in the Hall, based on the recollections and writings of an incest survivor; Simple Living: All the Time in the World. (FF570) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fred Small*The Heart of the Appalachians

Fred's prolific and eloquent songwriter, who has written a wealth of material in support of various progressive political movements, including feminist, environmental, peace, and disability. This album, which features the instrumental and vocal talents of folks like Betty Ross, Sally Rogers, and Maxine Feldman, includes Talking Wheelchair Blues; Faces At the Window, a powerful song which deals with rape, queer-bashing, and violence, discrimination, and outlaw status awarded to minorities and "heretics" everywhere; and Annie, about a lesbian teacher. Great songs and excellent delivery and production. (ROU4014) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fred Small*No Limit

This one, which features Cindy Kallet and Priscilla Hardman on a couple of duets, includes Big Italian Rose, for large, real women who don't match the Madison Avenue ads; The Peace Dragon; Crazes Over Hiroshima; and Father's Song. (ROU4018) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles*Diversity

The repertoire of this recording is taken from the 109-member GMCLAs 1991 European tour, and reflects the diversity of American music and of gay life in America. Contains both popular and concert music, traditional men's choral pieces and recently composed works, with an emphasis on works by gay composers. Cuts include Somewhere Madley, Ginnie Kador's There Comes A Time, Ned Rorem's stunning Love Alone, a poem cycle by Paul Monette elegizing the death of his lover, Roger Horowitz, plus Canto de Esperanza, Family, and a gorgeous rendition of Ave Maria, in Latin, of course! If you enjoy men's voices, you're sure to appreciate this recording! (GMC1) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Jimmy Somerville*The Singles Collection 1984/1990

This fantastic 17-song compilation features great dance material with Bronski Beat and the Communards, as well as his own solo hits (plus one with Marc Almond). Includes Smacktown Boy, Why?, You Make Me Feel (Mighty Real), To Love Somebody, There's More To Love Than Boy Meets Girl. (PLG828226) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joe Bracco*True To Myself

This gay songwriter was on the verge of receiving national acclaim when he was taken by AIDS in 1991, at age 38. Thanks to amazing modern technology as well as the dedication of a friend, Paul Phillips (half of the Romanovsky and Phillips duo) was able to take 10 of Joe's rough home recordings into the studio, adding rhythm, instrumental and additional vocal tracks (some by Ron and Paul) to Joe's vocal and guitar — to create this post-humous release. Friend in My Pocket encourages condom use; With Our Voices is a stirring anthem written after the '87 March on Washington for Lesbian/Gay Rights; Coming Out is a song which Joe had recorded in the studio himself; and Golden Boy is presented without any extra instrumentation. We're uncomfortable with some of the sentiments expressed in a couple of the songs, You No Paga and Kiss Me in Spanish; maybe they'll spark some productive discussion. (FRFJB1) CS: 9.98

John Bucchino*On the Arrow

Known to many as the talented pianist generally in Holly Near's company, John has written, arranged, and produced a tape of his own vocal material... which reflects both lyrical acumen and a vulnerability, as well as some of his lightning piano. (DIN301) CS: 9.98

John Bucchino*Solitude Lessons

If you're a romantic, this is for you! John writes eloquent and beautiful pieces about the many aspects of love in a way that's likely to speak to you and your experiences, with titles like: To The Heart in Each Other's Eyes, If It's Been With Him, Love, We Find A Way. We especially like Period of Time, a play on words that is both clever and sensitive. With his trademark keyboards, expanded to include synthesized drums and rhythms. (DIN302) CS: 9.98

Lunacy

This album is a first, an entrancing album of pagan/goddess spirituality music from two "lunatic witches," as they call themselves. This acappella duo — Greg Johnson and Spery T. Rabbit — performs primarily original songs, with occasional material from Starhawk and others. One of the most notable songs here is Boys Burned No, a very tender and touching tribute to the gay men who were burned along with the witches. Also includes Paula Walowitz's She's Been Walking, Aphrodite's Song, Demetri's Song, The Moon Song ("The full moon is her vagina spread wide! With the wild realm of all possibilities! Every possibility pouring out..."), Nail Me ("Dark Mother! Black Mother!"), Purple God ("Queer God"). We like this album — recommended! (LUN1) CS: 10.98

Lunacy*The Hand of Desire

This fall 1992 release is, like their first effort, acappella, pagan in intent, and queer in its messages... containing both original material and newly-arranged pieces from Starhawk and others. This description is in advance of its release, so we'll write more next year! (LUN2) CS: 10.98

Marc Almond*Enchanted

This "out" musician has worked with Bronski Beat and Jimmy Somerville. This 1990 release (no longer in print, but we've located a stash) is a pretty fabulous album of synthesized pop... and though his lyrics are not overtly gay, there is little question of his sensibility on dance tunes like Madame de la Luna and Carnival of Life. "Eros awaits! Our hearts to take! Ready to break every law! I said I'm no longer! Chasing my youth! The truth is that I'm cheating yours..." (CAP94404) CS: 9.98

Mark Ginsberg*Reclaiming the Wind

This gay composer, singer and musician (piano, guitar, synthesizer, flute, congas and percussion!) says this release "is about bringing back the magic that has been long forgotten, buried deep within our hearts... By listening to the inner voice we will find the loving truth of the living God/Goddess." Mainly Jewish spiritual themes, sung in Hebrew and English, some truly beautiful lyrics from traditional Hebrew sources (translated from Shir Hashirim: "O that he would kiss me with his lips. Indeed your caresses are better than wine...") We Will Make This an upbeat song peace in the Middle East. Altogether musically and vocally superior, and lyrically imaginative — highly recommended! (MRK1) CS: 9.98

Mark Weigle*One Good Reason

Mark's original, guitar-accompanied folk songs deal with his process of coming out; they recall his previous pain and isolation, and his discovery of peace and pride since affirming his gayness. Includes Leave the Light Alone, a declaration of love between two men; Love is So Hard To Hide, inspired by the book The Front Runner; and more. (MKW1) CS: 9.98

Michael Callen*Purple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who has been battling AIDS since 1981, has been in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education: testifying before Congress, editing publications, appearing on major TV shows, participating in fund-raising events. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic/without getting caught up in the poetics... from How To Have Sex"). Songs include Where the Boys Are, Me & Dickie D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Wartime, performed with band-partner ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. And, he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance. Enough to recommend it highly. (SG881) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

New York City Gay Men's Chorus*Love Lives On

The best known of the 100 gay choruses in the US, NYCGMG has a huge following, and, thankfully, a recording back in print with this 1991 release! Composed of 150 all-volunteer voices who make and perform music for the education, enjoyment and cultural enrichment of their vast audience, they produce 3 sold-out concerts annually at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. A portion of the proceeds from this album will be donated to AIDS research. Includes title, Boogie Woogie Boogie Boy, No One Is Alone, Tusado Junction, 14 more. (VIR91647) CD: 15.98

New York Gay Men's Chorus*NY, NY - A Broadway Extravaganza

A fantastic tribute to NYC by the city's own Gay Men's Chorus, a non-profit educational organization founded in 1980. Directed by Gary Miller, this group lovingly paints the town red with songs like Jerome Kern's All the Things You Are, a Sonchheim medley, Rodgers and Hart's New York, and, of course, the title song. Excellent orchestration and recording. (PRO198) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Nylons*Four on the Floor

Marc Connor died (we think of AIDS) in 1991, and this 1990 in-concert recording is a wonderful commemoration of his contribution to this fantastic quartet. Included are Marc's lead vocals on his original Amazon, as well as on Up On the Roof and Wildfire; it also contains Good Old Acappella, Dream, Heavenly Bodies, Kiss Him Goodbye, and other favorites. Recommended! (SCT75224) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Nylons*Rockapella

In addition to an exuberant acappella-with-percussion version of the Parachute Club's paean to liberation, Rise Up, this 1989 release includes both originals like Another Night Like This and covers of great tunes such as Drift Away, Fusion (w/ Wildfire), All I Have To Do Is Dream. One of their best recordings to date. (WH1085) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Romanovsky & Phillips*I Thought You'd Be Taller!

An energetic, humorous, loving, campy, gay-affirming album, as evidenced by some of the song titles: Womb Envy, The Prince Charming Tango, Closest Case, I Can Have. Attitude, these guys are simply the cat's p.j.'s, the crown prince(s) of the Renaissance of gay men's music... don't miss an opportunity to see them live! (FRF101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips*Trouble in Paradise

Dedicated to gay and lesbian activists around the world, this LP practically leaps out of your speakers and turns your immediate environment into a rollicking carnival of gay delight! Produced by Teresa Trull, it's one of the finest examples of music/commentary/comedy to emerge from the growing genre of political gay men's music. You can't listen to some of the songs — What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot Am I?, Wimp, Gull! Trip — without feeling, at the very least, wry amusement at seeing yourself in them... also includes Hemophobia and some great advice for Roma and others, Don't Use Your Penis (For a Brain). Instrumentation is sophisticated; some of the best of Bay Area talent put in an appearance. Highly recommended. (FRF102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips*Emotional Rollercoaster

Returning to more of an acoustic sound, the third album from the "queens" of political camp (and we don't mean Camp David) is again chock-full of humor and social commentary. It's as gay- and lesbian-positive as the others, with even more political determination because of the fight against AIDS and the renewed homophobia from the Right. The empowering Living With AIDS could be the theme song of our generation — and makes this album a must for everyone. And from an exposé of the absurdity of the Crimes Against Nature laws to the rallying cry for unity and responsibility in the face of AIDS fear ("We don't have to sacrifice our passion or our pride; we just have to be on the safe side") and the humor of My Mother's Clothes, Wait For the New Age, Straightening Up the House à la Kate Clinton, Ron and Paul demonstrate they know that the personal is political. Very highly recommended! (FRF103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips
Be Political, Not Politic

Packed with 15 new songs, this challenging and political — perhaps even a bit controversial — hour-long 1991 release is their best, in their opinion! John Buccchino is keyboardist/arranger, and they've enlisted the help of a few friends to sing backup on several songs: Holly Near, Alex Dobkin, Phranc, and Michael Callen (of the Flirtations). Includes Oh No... I'm in Love (With My Therapist), When Heterosexism Strikes, Queers in the Closet, Love Is All It Takes, for lesbian and gay parents, and many other new hits. Of course we recommend this! (FRP104) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Ron Romanovsky
Hopeful Romantic

Produced by Teresa Thull, Ron Romanovsky's first solo effort is best described as "a romantic album with moments of cortic relief." The 12 original cuts include collaborations with John Buccchino and Tom Wilson Weinberg, and run the gamut from pop ballads such as The Telephone Company Loves Me (a long-distance love song) to the eccentric and hilarious I Live To Polla. A temporary departure from his work with Paul Phillips, this album could be subtitled Romanovsky Lite: 60 percent less politics! (FRP105) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rumors of the Big Wave
Burning Times

This eclectic rock/ folk-rock 1992 album features the most haunting rendition ever recorded of band member Charlie Murphy's Burning Times, his well-known original song about the burning of the witches during the inquisition, plus 3 other vintage Charlie Murphy songs. Haunting and powerful. (OXM201) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus
How Fair This Place

Born in 1976 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to tour nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity, inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing and love — a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular (Love Medley including Unchained Melody), theatrical (selections from Miss Saigon, Chess and Jerry's Hyde), and sacred pieces (Josh Sings, Gabriel's Oboe, On Earth As It Is in Heaven). English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SFG10-91) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Seattle Men's Chorus
Over the Rainbow!

The premiere 1990 album brings together many audience favorites from this 100-voice gay men's chorus' first ten years. Famously, Holly Near's The Great Peace March, Mood Indigo, and Eulogy are all featured in this eclectic album of stirring music — not to mention their perennial favorite and signature song, Over the Rainbow. Includes Hard Up, Making Love Into My Own Hand, Sex, One Night Only, Thru in Paradise, Do You Wanna Funk, and more! Immortal

This posthumous release, compiled of both previously unleased material and fresh "house" remixes of his classics, demonstrates why he was so loved in so many communities, from gay to inner city teenagers to aerobizing housewives. Includes Do You Wanna Funk, Messy, Man Enough, He's Unleashed, Rock the Box, and even a rousing and moving gospel rendition of How Great Thou Art. The cover photo is what Sylvester sent back to the president of his record company, upon being asked to "tone down the drag (butch it up)...". He died of AIDS in 1988. His lover, Rick, died a year earlier, after having given much of his time toward educating the Black and minority communities about the disease, as well as bringing in millions of dollars through fundraisers and benefits. the wimps

War and Quiche

the wimps are a punyish Philadelphia band dedicated to challenging, or at least exposing, outmoded patriarchal concepts of men's roles, especially toward women, and traditional concepts of what makes a man "manly." Their second release (1992) continues their tradition of wit, insight and outrage. Besides the two title topics, the album looks at small-town homophobia (Rosie Fingers Dawn, a story of little girls' games) and cross-dressing (My Favorite Skirt), and asks the musical question, "If Robert Bly and his pals want to prove their manliness, why don't they stay home and actually do some work?" Our sentiments exactly! Sometimes melodic, sometimes noisy, always inreverent; lyrics included; recom mended! (WIM2) CS: 6.98

Greta Garbo
Queen Christina

Queen Christina of Sweden, played by Garbo, was independent, witty, androgynous, and she wore men's clothes. This film, while throwing in the obligatory Hollywood het romantic stuff, does communicate an ambiguity in Queen Christina's sexuality with a bit of a lesbian undertone. Since the notes call the film a blend of history and fiction, we like to think that she really ran off with the woman she keeps kissing throughout the flick. 1934, black & white. 100 min. ### Katherine Hepburn

Sylvia Scarlett

Katherine Hepburn masquerades as a boy in this daring 1935 film of comedy, tragedy, and sexual ambiguity. It wasn't a hit then and rarely gets selected for Hepburn festivals now... wonder why? (TNR8195VC) 29.98

Kay Weaver

Take the Power

Sequel to ONE FINE DAY, this new video-anthem begins where Kay's first video leaves off, with present-day women's lives, famous and unknown, and projects us into the future. It urges us to "take the power", for if this planet is to survive, we women must not only take the reins in our own lives, but also assume roles of leadership on a national and international scale. 6 minutes. (CRC2VC) 39.98

Ritual Drumming

This unique video successfully combines instructions on practical drumming techniques with primal metaphysical concerns on drumming and rhythm. In a very straightforward manner, Layne shows how the basic tones and strokes of a frame drum, such as the tambourine, have a direct relationship to the elemental qualities of earth, water, fire and air. Drawing on the long heritage of women frame drummers and the nurturing nature of the archetype feminine spirit, this program will enrich the viewer with a new sense of the power of rhythm and pulse. Through luminous demonstrations and inspiring performances, Layne and The Mob of Angels, a women's ensemble, show how drumming and chanting can be used to create new and empowering ritual. Recommended! (WM2VC) 39.98

Lesbian Tongues

Lillian Hellman

The Children's Hour

Starring Shirley MacLaine (she's great!) and Audrey Hepburn, this 1961 film, based on Lillian Hellman's controversial play, shattered the stage and film taboo against depicting or mentioning lesbianism. It was inspired by an actual case of two school-teachers whose careers and lives were radically damaged when rumors that they were in a lesbian relationship circulated in their community. It doesn't end as any of us would wish it did, but you can either cut off your VCR in minute early, or acknowledge the reality of internalized homophobia, especially back then. Recommended! (MGM20047VC) 29.98

Lily Tomlin, Mario Thomas et al

NOW's 20th Anniversary

Recommended! (PE1VC) 29.98

Long-Awaited Pleasure

Produced by women for women, this is a story about two women meeting, courting, and falling in love. Sound's a shade muddier in spots, but it's a nice first effort by a lesbian video company, and you'll enjoy the story and the "soft" love scenes, smoothly integrated into the plot. Lois and Peggy, the stars, co-founded the New York feminist theater company, Split Britches, and recently completed an extended run in the play version of Patience and Sarah. Directed by Giovanna Marana, starring Lois Weaver and Peggy Shaw. 90 min. (POP1VC) 29.98

This suspenseful drama revolves around a 13th century Dominican friar who, sent by the Pope to seek out heretics, arrives in a small French village where he discovers Elida, the strangely beautiful and mysterious forest woman. Elida is respected in the village because she performs ancient healing rituals and understands nature's secrets. As an inquisitor, the friar sets out to investigate these practices, resulting in an explosive confrontation between the pagan — based on a costume and the patriarchal religious dogma. Produced, directed and written primarily by women. 98 minutes, a compelling film, and highly recommended! (MYS177VC) 29.98

Su Friedrich

Damned if you Don't

This "experimental narrative" is about a young nun who becomes attracted to another woman. It's an avant garde, dream-like, strange film, with several sub-themes woven in and out, such as a reading from a 17th century account of a lesbian nun, and reminiscences of an ex-nun about the crushes in the convent. The final love-making scene is probably more erotic than any video with that explicit intention. For recovering Catholics and non-Catholics alike! (SFR1VC) 49.98

Subtitled A Glimpse into the Lives of Nine Old Lesbians, here are candid portraits of women who all part of a support group. They say, "We call ourselves old to reclaim the word 'old' has been used disparagingly in our society for people over 50. We are Old Lesbians inventing ways to live out our aging... fighting our own internalized ageism and the ageism of society... We do not represent or speak for the whole Old Lesbian community. We are a support group of white, mostly middle class Old Lesbians... We are political. Old Lesbians. One of the ways we practice our politics is by sharing with each other the stories of who we are." This one-woman showcase by a major talent of the decade will alternately have you in stitches, in tears, and in stunned silence; her genius characterizations expose external and internalized oppressions, as well as universal realities, successfully challenging and exceeding the limits of "comedy as social/political commentary." Her junkie with a degree in literature (Fontaine) recounts his tale of visiting Anne Frank's home... the unplanned pregnancy of the Surfer Chick takes on a chilling significance as she confronts the Catholic Church, her mother, and a coat hanger... the Crippled Lady challenges an able-bodied world's prejudice, and the Little Girl thinks that she needs "long luxurious blond hair and blue eyes" to get her dreams. 75 minutes; very highly recommended! ## Woman and Her Symbols - Part I

The Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone — beginner or veteran of women's culture — who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture... the Goddess culture which preceded this... the power of symbols... and much much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. This documentary traces the careers and films of such filmmakers as Alice Guy Blache, Ida Lupino, Ruth Ann Baldwin, and many others who made lasting contributions to cinema history. The use of clips from many of these rare films, as well as stills and other archival material, brings to life the works of these often-neglected filmmakers.  FAX: 919-682-5601 Anytime!

PAYMENT: Orders can be prepaid or charged (we don't bill or ship C.O.D. except to stores, libraries and schools). Make check or money order payable to Ladyslipper, Inc. and mail to PO Box 3124-R, Durham NC 27715. International money order in U.S. dollars required from foreign countries including Canada.

PHONE ORDERS AND INQUIRIES: You may charge Mastercard and Visa orders by phone on our toll-free line: 1-800-634-6044. For all other inquiries, please call 919-683-1570. We can take your call Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Eastern time. For charge orders, please have your order blank filled out, your charge card handy, and please read us your charge number very carefully! If you are calling to inquire about your order, please have a copy of your filled-out order blank on hand.

FAX ORDERS: You may fax your charge order; our fax line is 919-682-5601.

CUSTOMER #: For faster service please have your 6-digit customer number ready. If this is your first order, we'll need the last 3 digits of your social security number to create your unique customer #.

SHOPPING IN PERSON: You are invited to visit our Listening Room and to shop at our Durham location, 613 Vickers Ave., anytime you are passing through North Carolina! We are open Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and in the fall we will have some additional weekend hours; please call ahead for our fall schedule at (919) 683-1570.

NC SALES TAX: North Carolina residents must include 6% sales tax.

RETURNS: Occasionally recordings are damaged in some way. We hope you never receive a defective item from us, but if you do, please return it with an explanation of the problem and we'll replace it immediately with another copy of the same title. Sorry, we are unable to swap opened recordings for other titles.

BACK-ORDERS AND ALTERNATIVES: If we are temporarily out of stock on a title, we will automatically back-order it unless you include alternatives (should be same-priced titles). Listing alternatives will give you faster service. If we back-order for you, you may contact us at any time to instead choose a substitute, credit or refund. Your packing slip will serve as your only back-order notice. If the recording should become unavailable, we'll send you credit or refund. All back-orders are shipped ground.

ADDITIONAL ORDERS: If you've used your order blanks, use a plain sheet of paper, and indicate stock #, title, format, page number, quantity and price; add postage/handling, give your name and address, and enclose payment.

GIFT ORDERS: We'll be glad to send your gift orders directly. You may enclose your own gift card; please indicate whether you'd like us to enclose a catalog. If you don't specify, we'll send one.

RECEIVING: You should receive your shipment within 2-6 weeks from the time we receive your order if you have specified special fourth class; 1-3 weeks for UPS; less than a week for Second Day Air. Please notify us if you have not received a shipment or a back-order notice after that time has elapsed.

SECOND DAY AIR SHIPMENTS: Second day air means two days in transit from date shipped, not date ordered. We will give priority to second day air shipments, and we usually ship within 48 hours unless the item is out of stock, but cannot guarantee arrival date. Best to phone in second day air shipments. All back-orders are shipped ground.

CATALOG EXPIRATION AND PRICES: We will honor prices in this catalog (except in cases of dramatic increase) until September. After that, when our new catalog will be in circulation, these prices are subject to change.

BOUNCED CHECKS: $15.00 service charge on all returned checks.

CHARGE CARD ORDERS: are processed as prepaid orders, just like checks with your entire order billed up front.

FORMAT: Each description states which formats are available. LP = record, CS = cassette, CD = compact disc. Some recordings are available only on LP or only on cassette, as indicated in the description. If you order, for instance, a title which is only available as a cassette, and you check the LP box, you will be sent the cassette, and any returns will be at your own expense. SO PLEASE ORDER CAREFULLY!

LP's: are an endangered species. Please indicate on the order which formats (if any) you will accept as substitutes for LP's. Many LP titles which are still available as we go to press will probably be out of print within the next 12 months.

How Listings Are Organized

Recordings are organized into categories and then alphabetically by first name. We do this because as women, first names have been more truly our own. Our last names have usually been transferred to us in a patrilinear fashion; historically, husbands and fathers were legally the property owners of the women in their families; and sometimes surnames actually came from slave owners or immigration officers. So our alphabetization-by-first-name method is a small gesture toward acknowledging and altering these customs. Some artists have listings in more than one category. We don't have space to cross-reference, so be sure to check the artist index (which is alphabetical by last name), in addition to reading through the entire catalog at least once!

Come For a Visit

We hope you'll stop in for a visit whenever you're in the neighborhood. We have a comfortable "Listening Room" open to the public, where you can check out all those recordings you've been curious about. We're open Monday through Fridays, 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., with some additional weekend hours in the fall. Our address is 613 Vickers Ave. in Durham. Call us at (919) 683-1570. Hope to see you soon!
