If you order, for instance, a title which is only available as a cassette, and you check the CD box, you will be sent the cassette, and any returns will be at your own expense. SO PLEASE ORDER CAREFULLY!

INTERNATIONAL POSTAGE & HANDLING RATES: Surface Rates: $5.95 first item, $1.95 each additional item. Air Rates: $8.95 first item, $3.95 each additional item. ## Ladyslipper Listen Line: 919-644-0000

Remember wishing you could hear some of the albums which sound so intriguing in their descriptions? Now you can! We are pleased to offer readers the opportunity to actually listen to samples of music from many of the titles we list! We want you to know what they sound like, and that's why we annotate them, but language can only go so far in describing the art of music, which is always way beyond what mere words can convey. Until the day comes when each of you can spend weeks in our Listening Room, our Listen Line is the next best thing.

All album titles which have a phone symbol (☎) in the upper right hand corner of the description are now accessible by touchtone phone: just dial 919-644-0000 any time day or night, and listen for instructions. When prompted, enter the 4-digit Listen Line selection number (next to the ☎) of the album you wish to preview, and you can hear 3 tracks per title.

Some tips: Press the [*] key anytime you need help or instructions. Press the [#] key to return to previous menu. Press [4] for previous track; [5] to repeat track; [6] for next track. If you are previewing by category such as New Additions, press [1] for previous album; [2] to repeat album; [3] for next album. You can also press [7] to lower the volume or [9] to raise the volume. If you wish to place an order directly from the Listen Line during our normal business hours, return to the main menu by pressing [#] until you're there; then press [0].

Some titles with Listen Line selection numbers are "coming soon" (not "on line" yet), so we'll add them as they arrive . . . keep checking in. We hope to add new titles each catalog, so be sure to stay on our mailing list. We hope this feature awards you an informative and enjoyable interactive experience. . . Have fun browsing!

Vision for a Comprehensive Resource

For almost 25 years, Ladyslipper's goal has been both to provide information to the public about the achievements of women artists and musicians, and to expand the availability of their recordings. The primary vehicle to accomplish this goal has been our annotated print catalog, and more recently our internet catalog, which provides libraries, schools, stores, distributors and individuals a source of both information and supply. This information has been presented in both descriptive written form, and lately, as sound clips for many of these titles.

We are extremely proud of the collection of music we have drawn together each year, and are thankful to be able to provide this service to the many thousands of you who use it. The freshness, diversity, and talent is awe-inspiring. However, to make "room" for the new, in both our pages and on our shelves, each year we have been forced to discontinue many excellent titles. And, for every title you see listed, another 100+ incredibly talented artists, from whom we have received submissions, have received "reject" letters from us. These omissions are frustrating to us, to the artists, and to the folks out there looking for information on these titles.

The original vision of Ladyslipper was to provide a comprehensive resource for all recordings by women artists. This ambitious goal was a reflection of both youthful energy and the then-current reality, which was that there just weren't that many of them! Perhaps it would have been possible to ultimately accomplish in a print version, had there not been such a geometric increase of recordings by women. As our catalog has grown, so too did the number of recordings that we cannot find the space to include.

Now comes the internet. This medium deems our previous limitations (shelf space in our physical building, funds to print catalog pages) increasingly irrelevant. Not only is access to information revolutionized, issues of availability are also drastically transformed. Perhaps our original starry-eyed, youthful goal isn't so impossibly far-fetched any longer!

Now our dream is to create an internet database which provides easy-to-find information on a much larger group of recordings by women -- maybe, someday, even most of them! Perhaps for many titles, it would simply give the reader information on how to reach the artists directly and/or other sources for the music itself.

The post-feminist age hasn't yet come, and any presence in the world that honors and is dedicated to women's achievements is still as necessary as it was when we began our mission in 1976. We look forward to finding ways to increase the scope of our work, and to reach more people with more, and ever more useful, information and services. The development of this database would help fulfill our original dream and intention.

This expanded service would not yield revenue from purchases, so we are seeking other means of support. If you would like to be part of our ongoing projects such as the creation of this more truly comprehensive resource for music by women, please consider making a tax-deductible contribution to Ladyslipper. If you are interested in other way to participate, such as grant-writing, internships or volunteer opportunities, please contact us. We welcome your comments and feedback on this project.

Mailing List Information

If you have never received a Ladyslipper Catalog before this one and have never requested one by phone or mail, or if you picked this one up at a concert or event without signing the Ladyslipper Mailing List, chances are excellent that you're not on our mailing list.

If you'd like to be, because you plan to order in the future, please fill out and mail in the ADD ME form. We're glad to send catalogs to friends too; donations of a few dollars for each help defray printing and mailing costs.

If you received this catalog but do not want to receive another in the future, check the code above your name on the mailing label. If it doesn't begin with a letter code of SB, R, F, AM, LR, or LS, you are probably NOT on our in-house mailing list, but rather on someone else's list that we mailed to on a one-time basis (this is how we find many of our new customers!). We cannot remove you from our mailing list if you are not already on it.

and having received a catalog doesn't necessarily mean that we have your name in our files or computer. In this case, you should contact all the other companies from whom you mail-order, and the publications you subscribe to, and ask them not to exchange or rent your name to other organizations.

If you are ordering from us and do not want to occasionally receive mail from other like-minded organizations (all exchanges or rentals are always for one-time use only -- your name would never become part of someone else's permanent file under any circumstances, unless you order from them), ask when you place your order with us to be on our "Privacy List."

Some of you may receive more than one catalog, because you're on mailing lists of several organizations in addition to ours. We try to eliminate as many duplicates as possible, but the computers don't catch them all, so we'd appreciate it if you'd circulate extra catalogs to friends.

How Listings Are Organized

Recordings are organized into categories and then alphabetically by first name. We do this because as women, first names have been more truly our own. Last names have usually been transferred in a patrilineal fashion: historically, husbands and fathers were legally the property owners of the women in their families, and sometimes surnames actually came from slave owners of immigration officers. Our alphabetization-by-first-name is a small gesture toward acknowledging and altering these customs. Some artists have listings in more than one category. We don't have space to cross-reference, so be sure to check the artist index (which is alphabetical by last name), in addition to reading the entire catalog at least once!

Ladyslipper's Top 100

100 Great Women in Music They Missed

We noticed lots of women they missed, so we came up with our own list. This is a pared-down version because of course, we couldn't fit them all! We didn't confine our selections to Rock 'n Roll, nor to this century. We could easily publish a list of the 1000 Greatest Women in Music, and may do so when our Internet Database is a reality. They aren't ranked, just alphabetized.

Ho * Ho * Holiday Music

An A Cappella Christmas

0795

These 3 gloriously angelic-voiced women truly sound like more like a mass choir than a trio! They all hail from Michael Jackson's Broadway show "Sisterella," in addition to individual gigs like singing backup for Elton John and the film The Color Purple. On their 1999 release, they create some of the most spirited, joyful, percussive, crisp, precise, stunning a cappella music this reviewer has ever heard. Even if you think you've heard enough Xmas music, their repertoire of traditional Christmas carols will give you goosebumps — great, original arrangements and excellent production, too. They include a great gospel rendition of the spiritual Go Where I Send Thee, as well as Chanuka, O Chanuka. With harp by Lisa Lynne Franco plus well-placed touches of guitar and percussion. Highly recommended. (WAL8303) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

To Warm the Winter's Night

This 1995 Celtic Holiday Celebration from Irish emigre harpist and singer Aine is a beautiful collection of songs and spoken word pieces gathered from Ireland, England, Wales, Scotland and Brittany. A few of the songs such as Oiche Chuan/Silent Night and The Old Year Now Away Has Fled/Greenpeace are well known, but most of them are ancient, nearly forgotten celebrations of winter, Yule, New Year and Winter Solstice. Produced by Nightnoise fiddler Johnny Cunningham. Aine and her harp are also joined by Irish pipes and whistles, Cello, and oboe for this enchanting holiday journey. (EVM014) CS: 9.99 CD: 14.99

Legends of St. Nicholas

For the 1999 holiday season, this always-fabulous women's vocal quartet celebrates the legends of St. Nicholas — from his visits to evil-doers to his altruistic and miraculous acts — with a wonderful program of Medieval Chant and Polyphony. Patron of ancient sailors, as well as modern icon, he has long been the subject of many popular liturgical works. Listeners will immediately recognize the opening hymn Innocent Hodie, and will be delighted to discover several hidden gems, such as the 12th-century song Sainte Nicholas. (HMU7232) CS: 12.99 CD: 15.99

Atlanta Gay Men's Chorus

Carols, Revels and Holiday Cheer

Recorded live at the Cathedral of St. Philip in Atlanta, the AGMC performs 18 world holiday favorites on this 1998 release. The 100-plus member chorus offers both a cappella arrangements, as well as some accompanied by their pianist and a 5-member ensemble, includes Bashana Habaiah from Israel, Akakomborewa, Irish Blessing, My Favorite Things, Medieval Gloria, and more. (DRC198) CD: 15.99

Benadictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's

Gregorian Chant: Christmas Chant

These timeless medieval chants from the Christmas Liturgy, sung in the original Latin, express a rare serene, spiritual beauty; recorded live at St. Cecilia's Abbey, Isle of Wight. (RW1154) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Boston Gay Men's Chorus

Freedom, Merriment & Joy

Recorded live in 1995 with a 25-piece orchestra, this lovely album mixes memorable versions of U.S. favorites with French, Spanish, and English carols — and the Yiddish title track! I especially enjoyed the Christmas Waltz medley for the Alvin and the Chipmunks' Christmas Time Is Here segment and the 14 1/2 minute Audience Sing-Along finale (audience participation sing-alongs, I thought only lesbian folk musicians did that...). (AFK422) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Burns Sisters

Tradition: Holiday Songs Old & New

This beautiful and eclectic 1997 recording of Christmas and Chanukah songs is performed by these three contemporary harmonizing folk divas, who say, "The tradition here is singing as we come from generations of singers and lovers of song. They perform the most exquisite arrangement of O Come O Come Emmanuel this reviewer has ever heard; Come Come with lyrics by 13th century Persian poet Rumi; the traditional Irish Golden Cradle; Shalom Shalom Y'Rushalayim; and the monks of Nam Gyal Monastery offer a Tibetan Prayer for Peace. Highly recommended! (PH1208) CD: 15.99

Christmas Revels

To Drive the Dark Away

Every December, thousands of people in ten cities across the US gather to sing, dance and "to drive the dark away" at the Christmas Revels. Their first-ever 1997 live recording — containing songs and dances for the Winter Solstice from Russia, Finland, Sweden and Norway — captures the excitement in a musical celebration that raises the roof. (RVL1098) CD: 15.99

Cindy Paley

Chanukah: A Singing Celebration

20 spirited Chanukah songs performed in English, Hebrew, and Yiddish from a variety of sources and traditions: contemporary songwriters such as Marvin Reynolds and Peter Yarrow; Russian and Israeli folksongs; and the traditional blessing over the candles. The songs tell the story of the Festival of Light, with beautiful harmonies and instrumental arrangements, and booklet with lyrics. Recommended (CP2) CS: 12.99 CD: 15.99

Cris Williamson

Snow Angel

A 1995 album to warm you and friends and family on a mid-winter's night. This is a winter holiday album, with songs for the variety of seasonal holidays. You could think of it sort of as a "Cris-Ms" album — okay, moving on. A perfect gift item. (OL943) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Dei Rubio Triplets

Jingle Belles

For Xmas in that inimitable Dei Rubio way, here are their always surprising interpretations of old holiday stand-bys like Jingle Bell Rock, White Christmas, I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus, Winter Wonderland, plus added bonuses like Chipmunk Song, Christmas Polka, Cu Cu Ru Cu Cu Paloma, an Ave Maria Medley, and Domineque. A "must-have" for fans of "Jingle Belles" Milla, Elena and Eadie! (DRT3) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Desert Wild

Christmas: Rhythms of the Holy Land

Here's something different on this 1998 release: familiar Christmas songs are created again with luscious ancient rhythms from the Middle East. Several drummers provide a rich tapestry colored by Andain Bachman's warm wooden flute tones. Her flute interplays with the passionate virtuoso drumming of Rami Ziadah (currently residing in the Bay Area; he was raised as a child in Bethlehem and born on Christmas Day — no wonder he shines on Little Drummer Boy). While mostly instrumental, several songs feature the lovely voice of Amy Faust. We now have Christmas music from many parts of the world, but this is the first we know of with more direct links to where it all happened in the first place. (DW1008) CD: 15.99

Dordan

The Night Before: A Celtic Christmas

7023

This widely acclaimed 4-woman ensemble living in County Galway, Ireland (consisting of Mary Bergin, Kathleen Loughane, Martina Goggin and Dearbhail Standun) creates a harmonious marriage of Irish traditional and European baroque classical music. Steeped in tradition and refined with classical sensibilities, this 1997 release is an Irish celebration of Christmas — a lively party where carols, tunes, songs, and poetry are combined in a joyous, sometimes nostalgic spirit. (NA61063) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

DruidStone

The Spirit of Christmas

Produced by Irish harpist/singer Aine Minogue, who is a member of the DruidStone ensemble, this 1999 release of favorite carols calls on some of the world's finest Celtic musicians: Joanie Madden, whose Irish whistle has delighted souls across the globe; accordionist John Whelan of Riverdance fame; and world-class fiddlers Johnny Cunningham and Seamus Connolly. (NS0118) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Wishes You a Swinging Christmas

Ella wants you to swing, you should swing! 12 classics, such as Jingle Bells, Santa Claus Is Coming To Town, The Christmas Song, and Winter Wonderland are performed by The First Lady of Song. 1988. (VRV827150) CD: 15.99

Ensemble Choral du Bout du Monde

Noels Celtiques

One of the world's most fervent and festive enclaves of Celtic culture exists in Brittany, the Northwest province of France, and Brittany's thriving Celtic Breton community boasts a culture as steeped in tradition as any other in the Pan-Celtic Diaspora. Created in 1977, this magnificent 100+ voice ensemble, whose name translates as The Choral Ensemble from the Ends of the World, presents a program sung in Breton (the Gaelic dialect spoken in Brittany) accompanied by renaissance and medieval instruments such as cornemuse, flutes, guitars and percussion. The majority of voices, and all soloists, are female. Both joyous and mysterious, this is a truly authentic Celtic holiday recording, with tremendous appeal to fans of Anuna, Celtic and choral music. Recommended! (GL3124) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Enya

Oiche Chiun (Silent Night)

This 1992 CD maxi-single contains 3 songs: title track (the holiday classic) in Gaelic, plus 2 gorgeous originals composed by Enya. One Window and 3 again me, Enya. Neither of these last 2 sound holiday-specific, so they're quite recommended for year-round listening pleasure. A great holiday gift for any friends who are Enya fans! (REP40660) CD: 8.99

12 Songs of Christmas

This great blues/R&B artist, Grammy Award winner and inductee into the 1993 Rock & Roll Hall of Fame turns on her vocal power and appeal for this 1998 release! She interprets Merry Christmas Baby, O Holy Night, Joy to the World and many more. Your holiday will definitely be better with Etta! (PVT82166) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles

'Tis the Season

The most whimsical and merry of all their recordings, this 1998 release blends traditional holiday favorites such as Joy To the World with pop tunes for the season like We Need A Little Christmas, and the always popular Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas. Guest vocalist Adelaide Sinclair joins the 140-voice male ensemble, for their finest studio recording to date. (GMC5) CD: 16.99

Don We Now

This 1997 holiday offering includes old chestnuts like Winter Wonderland; a powerful version of the traditional spiritual Rise Up Shepherd and Follow; and lesser known pieces such as You're Home For the Holidays, commissioned for the chorus in 1993, which acknowledges the importance of our families of choice... equally fine for adding holiday aura in the background, or for focusing on the lovely presentation of lyrics and sound. (GMC4) CD: 16.99

Herdman, Hills & Mangsen

Voices of Winter

Priscilla Herdman, Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen blend their intricate harmonies and artful arrangements on this 1997 collection of songs of the winter season. Taken from contemporary and traditional sources, this journey through the ages spans more than 7 centuries, while circling the globe. The songs are new, old, funny, and memorable, a few will be familiar, most a discovery. Priscilla's voice can be likened to a sonorous cello, Cindy's to the deep reedy quality of a clarinet, and Anne's vocal clarity to that of a flute... each is a respected name in contemporary folk music, but together they are enchanting. (GAD215) CD: 15.99

Inner Voices

Christmas Harmony

Four studio vocalists join precision-drill-proficient forces to share their interpretations of almost 20 traditional and contemporary carols and Christmas songs, and the result is stunning! Multi-layered harmonies bend and flow over the crisp arrangements (primarily a cappella — think Manhattan Transfer meets Sweet Honey) and you'll be in awe of their vocal feats and virtuosity... This would make a great party selection or gift. Includes Cherry Tree Carol, Fum Fum Fum, the fantastic Child Medley and the unbelievable Ave Maria. Highly recommended! (RH70714) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Child: Music for Xmas Season (2-CD)

This totally gorgeous double album was recorded in '96 at NYC's Bottom Line. Setting out to uncover a group of holiday songs from around the world, Jane conducted her research in an obviously thorough, deep and loving way... so the familiar songs here are surrounded by an eclectic and fascinating repertoire (plus some originals), delivered in a warm, spontaneous, very live-in-concert way. Great supporting musicians make for a family-participatory feeling. From the klezmer sounds of Shir Amari, to 20th century composer John Rutter's Wildwood Carol, to her moving, somber but redemptive spoken poem New Year's Baby about a teen's suicide attempt, to the ensemble singing on What Is This Fragrance Softly Stealing? we highly recommend this unusual collection. (5HB62158) CD: 19.99

Beautiful classical arrangements, utilizing a consort of recorders, a consort of viola, lute, harpsichord, baroque organ, as well as winds, strings and percussion, and of course Joan's perfect soprano, of traditional Christmas songs, gentle, tasteful, dignified. (VAN79230) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Lynn Stillman and Friends

Christmas Remembered

This 1991 release, subtitled Classic Holiday Chamber Music, is simply and absolutely gorgeous! Internationally acclaimed pianist Judith Lynn Stillman joins with musicians from The Cleveland Orchestra, The New York Philharmonic, and other well-known orchestras to create a subtle blend of traditional carols and familiar classical music of the season, elegantly arranged for chamber ensembles. Intimate combinations of piano, violin, viola, cello, guitar, and flute weave together a sound that is sometimes joyful, sometimes pensive, and always compelling. Very highly recommended! ### Celtic Christmas

Like all works by this outstanding harper, a stunning collection of obscure, classical, and well-known pieces, from the 13th century on. Includes two by J. S. Bach, plus Rosa Mystica, Divinum Mysterium. (INV110) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron

Celtic Christmas II

0292

On harp and cello respectively, these two masters invoke heavenly magic with their holiday repertoire from Italy, France, Spain, Czechoslovakia, and Austria plus Huron Indian, medieval, plainsong, and American folk music. The richness of their tones and the weaving of the melodies is truly stunning, and the fact that most of these songs are not known Christmas tunes makes this especially suitable for year-round enjoyment. Highly recommended! (INV119) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Klezmer Conservatory Band

Oy Chanukah!

7005

It's about time, is all this Jewish girl can say. Klezmer is jazz-tinged Yiddish music which originated in the old country—Eastern Europe—and was further developed by Jewish immigrants in the first part of this century. Primary instruments are woodwinds, horn, violin, accordion, mandolin, drums, bass, piano, the energy and spirit is among the highest of any style. This recording, by a band of 15 women and men, contains celebratory instrumental, informative narratives, and strong vocals by Judy Bressler. Includes Jewish Heroines: Dora, Dora, The Struggle for Freedom, Chassidim Dance, Making Latkes (with recipe and demonstration!), Klezmerized. Very highly recommended! 1997. ## Liz Story

The Gift

Is there anyone else in the world who could turn ordinary holiday songs into such heart-breaking works of art, dignity and beauty? If so, please write and tell us who! This artist is like a channel for some pure and glorious expression... she herself truly has The Gift. Included are a Trappist chant/benediction, a traditional Sicilian hymn, a traditional melody of Lourdes, a moving jazz-influenced treatment of We Three Kings, and a Mel Torme song, extremely recommended! 1994. (WH1151) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

A Winter Garden

0411

This 1995 5-song EP, subtitled A Short Collection for the Winter Season, includes Coventry Carol, her musical setting of words from a 15th century pageant; Snow and Little Track, on which she matches a 100-year-old poem and a traditional folk lyric with her own spectral music; and a couple of classic McKennitt reinterpretations of familiar yuletide favorites. (WB46096) CS: 8.98 CD: 12.98

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

0013

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with viola, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Glenstal Abbey in Limerick and Guelph's Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Season, St. Michael, Let All That Are to Birth Inclined. (QR102) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Carols & Capers

This unique and accomplished British vocalist presents 503 years of Yuletide melodies on this import album, her pure voice, accompanied by the medieval instruments of the 5-member Carnival Band, exult and celebrate. Features both remarkable arrangements of readily recognizable carols and little-known gems from Christmas past. The Boar's Head celebrates a feast featuring this rarest dish; Wassail conjures roving bands of merry-makers; the instrumental 17th-century Monsieur Charpentier's Christmas Stomp employs traditional instruments in the style of court music from the period. Refreshing and true to its roots. (PRK9) CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone

Sounds of the Season

This magnificent 1988 album of Traditional Christmas Carols and Dances with Hammered Dulcimer, Celtic Harp, and Other Instruments can be enjoyed all throughout the year, because of the fresh interpretations to both familiar and unusual tunes. Some carols, originally danced in ancient times, are recreated with the joyous rhythms of the cittern and Irish drum. Baroque-style medieval pieces are elegantly enhanced with recorder, viola da gamba, and finger cymbals; most of the musicians are women. Maggie's artistry on the hammered dulcimer, with all its inventiveness and musical expression, really shines through. Highly recommended! (MM102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone & Ensemble Galilei

Ancient Noels

Haunting gregorian-style chants, medieval hymns and dancing carols evoke images of ancient civilizations, desert landscapes, and stone monasteries. This 1993 instrumental release is an exciting and upbeat collection of primarily little-known carols from England, Ireland, Holland, medieval Spain and its Basque country. The folk classical arrangements are performed on a wonderful array of instruments, including hammered dulcimer, medieval and Renaissance frame drums, treble and bass viola, Celtic harp, fiddle, psaltery and recorders. (MM108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bonnie Rideout/ Al Petteway

From across the Highland moors... the haunting wail of fiddle and bagpipe, into the castle drawing rooms... the elegant chamber sound of viola and cello. And out in the village squares... lively country dances with hammered dulcimer and guitar. Celebrate the many moods of a Scottish Yuletide holiday, with this 1996 release from Maggie, Bonnie and Al, plus guest artists Abby Newton and Eric Rigler (the piper from the film Braveheart). Highlights include Shetland country dance tunes Christmas Day, De Mooinin, Bottom of the Punch Bowl, and Ale is Dear, as well as other favorites performed with Scottish flair. ### Winter Solstice Carols

NEW

We rejoice whenever we find holiday releases with inclusive, altered lyrics we like, and this one truly qualifies. In addition to a couple of new original Solstice tunes, here we have "Joy to the world the Goddess comes, for she is everything," "Oh real ye merry folks and friends," "Oh Mother Earth our sacred home, how still we see you lie," "Voices we have heard on high," "Hark the time has come to sing" — angel images have been replaced with the universal community of people on earth! Lyrics are included, so you can easily adapt these songs for your own use. (MGH10) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Michelle Malone

A Swingin' Christmas at the Attic

You'll be thrilled at the beatnik version of Night Before Christmas, bongos and all... there's Rudolph, Let it Snow, I'll Be Home for Christmas, and more. For a fun, rockin' holiday, don't miss this 1992 album recorded live at Eddie's Attic, recommended! (SB55003) CD: 15.98

On this 1994 release subtitled Music For the Winter Solstice, the ritual mixed chorus of the EarthSpirit Community presents a beautiful and upbeat blend of voices, Celtic harp, African drums, Renaissance instruments and keyboard. Includes Winter Solstice Sunrise, Winter Queen, Old Women, The Fairest Maid, Gaia Carry Us Home, and assorted short verse and storytelling. A great way to celebrate the winter holidays with earth-based material many of us can relate to! (EBC5) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Noirin Ni Rlain w/Monks of Glenstal

The Darkest Midnight

The simple but powerful sound of Noirin's stunning voice combined with the meditative sound of the monastic chorus from Glenstal Abbey resounds off of the ancient stones of a Gaelic church. On this 1992 release subtitled Religious Songs from the Irish Tradition, they perform the 17th and 18th carols of Luke Wadding and William Devereaux of the Fermois diocese in County Wexford, Ireland, with stark, unaccompanied grace. The carols are sung both in English and Gaelic and includes such songs as The Seven Joys of Mary, Christmas Day is Come, Song for New Year's Day, O Pia Virgo, O Blessed Virgin, and Scathureach Mhuir/Mary's Breastplate. Perfect for the winter holiday season and way beyond. (SNO322) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nylons

Harmony - The Christmas Songs

The queens — I mean kings — of quartet acappella harmony turn their talents to holiday music on this 1994 release. Primarily familiar songs, great for adding your own harmony lines. (SCT75446) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Odetta

Christmas Spirituals

This collection of Black American spirituals, while appropriate to the holiday season, is a pleasure all year, because none of these gospel songs are specifically about Christmas! Odetta harnesses her deep, distinctive, flexible, far-ranging, bone-shaking voice with passion and sensitivity, making spirituals like Go Tell It On the Mountain and Shout For Joy fresh and inspiring with her brilliant interpretations. Recommended! (VAN79079) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Olympia's Daughters

Winter Solstice Live!

This 20+ voice acappella women's ensemble, with Unitarian-Universalist roots, presents a most excellent 1996 recording in celebration of the Winter Solstice.

In the Libano tradition, the 20 rounds, chants, songs and carols come from a wide variety of sources, from early Renaissance to contemporary Hungarian folk melody, Welsh, African, 16th century Spanish villancico, e.e. cummings, Linda Hirschhorn, Jan Harmon (Libano fans will recognize her name) and even some originals. And they've altered some lyrics and pronouns on a few traditional tunes here, such as Good Rest Ye (Merry Gentlefolk) in which the Christmas-specific references are changed to Winter and Solstice ones. The sound is harmonious and festive, and makes a great alternative to traditional holiday music, highly recommended! (OD1012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Roches

We Three Kings

A full 60 minutes (24 songs) of Roches-style holiday cheer here, and if you haven't heard this but are familiar with their earlier works, simply recall their awe-some rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus, that's the full-chor treatment they endow these songs with. They throw in a few zany versions of familiar tunes for good measure, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say that it's not always clear which are tongue-in-cheek, and that's okay, because it all feels good, like joy, which is the point anyway. (RYK311) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

RuPaul

Ho Ho Ho

Uptempo classics abound on this 1997 release, from I Saw Daddy Kissing Santa Claus, to RuPaul the Red Nosed Drag Queen, to dance-inspired Firky Christmas, to the all-out camp of All I Want For Christmas (Is...). Upbeat and Breast Implants! (RHT2936) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

RuPaul Little Drummer Boy

This 1997 CD-single is the perfect stocking-stuffer for that special boy-or-girl-friend! (TBT593) CD: 5.99

Sally Oldfield & Terry Oldfield Star of Heaven

Before there was "New Age," there were the Oldfield siblings. Mike Oldfield with his Tubular Bells, brother Terry, and sister Sally who developed a large cult following in the US in the mid 70's with her amazing album Water Bearer (I just checked, and am very sad to find that my copy is missing, even tho I'd have nowhere to play it... it featured exquisite, multi-tracked vocals — over a decade before Enya, mind you — on all original songs, on which she played every single one of a plethora of instruments). Anyway, we've been trying to add one of her works to our catalog for years...and here's our first success. Her voice is still a pleasure to behold: words like majestic, pure, graceful and celestial come to mind, on her chant-like vocals on Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring and Terry's original 23-minute Ave Maria. And listen, if you have a copy of Water Bearer you'd part with, would you let me know? (NW184) CD: 19.99 CD: 15.99

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus

Seattle Men's Chorus

Holiday Concert: CAPTURED LIVE!! 0399
On this 1995 release, this acclaimed 180-voice men's chorus takes a warm, joyous musical look at the many traditions of the holiday seasons: Christmas, Chanukah and Kwanzaa. From the childhood reminiscences of the chorus members to a herd of dancing reindeer, from frolicking elves on parade to Benice Johnson's Reasons, Seven Principles, from Stephen Sondheim's Children Will Listen to classic carols, the SMC Holiday Concert is an experience of renewal, depth and joy. (SMC6) CD: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Seattle Men's Chorus

Snowbound
The nation's largest gay chorus (170 voices!) captures the holiday spirit in this 1991 release, with songs ranging from traditional selections to the Christmas Cantata. The Chorus' close-harmony a cappella ensemble, the Philandros Singers, adds vocal jazz arrangements to such favorites as The Christmas Song and The Twelve Days After Christmas. Here's your chance to share the holidays with an ensemble whose performances and broadcasts have brought the message of gay pride to millions throughout the US and Canada. (SMC2) CD: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Holiday Songs and Lullabies

Shawn recorded this 1999 collection of seasonal holiday classics and traditional children's lullabies while she was 8 1/2 months pregnant with her first child, Caledonia-Jean Marie. The inspiration came from Lullabies & Night Songs, a book of lullabies illustrated by (my favorite children's illustrator) Maurice Sendak, which was given to Shawn by her parents when she was 8 and which she cherished throughout her childhood. And her memories of the Colvin family singing Christmas carols in 4-part harmony in the car at year-round provided a warm touchstone for the recording of this album. (COL9559) CD: 11.99 CD: 17.99

Sid Spencer

Family Ties 0310
Sid Spencer died in 1996, of complications from AIDS. His 1994 country Christmas album, dedicated to individuals who fight AIDS in a daily battle, depicts a Christmas tree decorated with a rainbow flag. Tracks include Bling Him Home (from the musical Les Miserables), two songs written by Dolly Parton (With Belly On and Believe in Santa Claus), and the traditional O Holy Night. The style is warm and down-home, and is a great memorial to his spirit. (AMT0078) CD: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Therapy Sisters 0712

Codependent Christmas

A swing tune about the codependent family at Christmas...the one about Santa going to therapy...in 1998, the Sisters have added 7 new songs to most of the ones many of you have known and loved on cassette, to bring you an enlarged and even better 15-track version of this best-selling classic! Includes the parody Pachelbel's Tatum, The 12 Days of Analysis, and their generic holiday song, Happy Whatever You're Having. Give the gift of head-shrinking this holiday season...Therapy Sisters style! (TS1005) CD: 15.99

Therese Schroeder-Sheker In Dulci Jubilo

We call this 1991 album a holiday recording, but you may well inquire "exactly which holiday?" after listening and reading! Therese has an in-depth appreciation for Christianity's origins in Goddess and nature religions, and many of her selections reflect her own personal devotion "to all things Marian"...in other words, this is more about Mary than about Jesus! With her sublime, seraphic voice, and impeccably played medieval and renaissance harps, psalteries, recorders and bells, she performs The Holy and the Ivy (with subtle Grail and Goddess overtones). Down in Yon Forest (contrasts a fully developed Grail-epic imagery with the ancient sature's May Queen, all the while remembering the Nativity), the Salve Mater (a more recent processional hymn in praise of Mary), and more. Highly recommended! (CEL039) CD: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Tish Hinojosa

Memorabilia Navidena

This 8-song 1992 release grew out of a 4-song Christmas card cassette Tish had sent to friends and relatives the previous year. Fans learned of its existence, and high demand necessitated a commercial release, much to our pleasure! Her gorgeous voice, sweet acoustic guitar and understated backup band evoke a multicultural Christmas celebration which combines the two languages of Texas/Tejas and contrasts the contemporary with the past. Includes Arbolito (Little Christmas Tree) in both languages, Malaga, A La Noche Nana (a traditional Spanish lullaby). Recommended highly! (WAT1008) CD: 7.99 CD: 12.99

Voice of the Turtle Circle of Fire

A quartet of 2 women and 2 men, Turtle specializes in the folk songs of the Sephardic Jews who were expelled from Spain and Portugal during the 15th centuries; this 1987 live recording is Volume 5 of their Songs of the Sephardim series. They combine vocal harmonies with exotic historical instruments (such as 'ud, shawm, soprano chalem, saï, baglama), reflecting the traditions of the Sephardim, preserving both the Judeo-Spanish culture and those of the lands through which they traveled while in exile. Songs are performed in Ladino and Hebrew. An unusual and historic Hanukkah gift! (TI159) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women of the Calabash The Kwanzaa Album

After thrilling audiences worldwide for over 20 years with their dynamic stage presence (including women's music festivals), this dramatic, amazing trio of singing percussionists has finally released just as magnificent a debut release in 1998 — crisp, exciting, and one of the finest releases we've added to our listings in years. Their use of different varieties of percussion instruments — many hand-crafted by their leader, Madeline Yagadele — explodes the air with harmonious percussive beauty. Some of the repertoire is inspired by the ideals, stories, and history of this important African-American holiday, but this album clamors, and deserves, to be heard all through the year. With the exception of one track — Lift Every Voice and Sing, featuring the Free Voices of Praise Choir — every instrument and every vocal is performed by the 3 women of the trio, though you'll feel sure you are listening to a much larger ensemble. The group flows effortlessly from language to language on this trip through the African diaspora; you'll hear mbira (thumb piano), balafon (African harp), steel-drum, calypso, calabash rattles, and their harmonizing voices. Includes Kozol Bikel's Africa, the anthem of the African national Congress, Osun Chant, Seven Principles, and more, with short informational narrations at the beginning of some selections. Very, very highly recommended! (BR1823) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Animal Hildegard von Bingen Circle of Wisdom

A 900th birthday celebration! This rich and contemplative album is a collection of the chants of Hildegard von Bingen (1098-1179), medieval nun, abbess and mystic — which were sung by the nuns of her abbey, day after day, year after year, but not written down until near her death. The voices of the group's 14 women, rising and circling with Hildegard's stunning melodies, are full of the earthy spirituality of the middle ages, medieval fiddle and flute accompany. (ANM002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Animal/Hildegard von Bingen & Others Sacred Music of the Middle Ages

Animal is a 15-woman ensemble which specializes in the vocal music of Hildegard von Bingen and other (mostly anonymous) medieval composers. They have studied with members of the performance group Sequentia, and like their mentors, they remain true to the original purity of the chants and songs. Primarily acappella, with intermittent accompaniment on recorders, harp, vielle and organ, they perform plainchant, polyphony, ornamented chant, and more from the 12th-14th centuries, with Hildegard's music forming the core of their work. Latin texts with English translations show that many of these ethereal, exquisitely beautiful pieces sing the praises of Mary. We are most happy to add this 1994 recording to our catalog and recommend it wholeheartedly! (ANM001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anonymous 4 A Lammis Ladymass

This 1998 release presents chants and polyphony of votive masses in Mary's honor, celebrated weekly or even daily in medieval England. Mary was often worshipped more fervently than Jesus, as one member of the ensemble points out, "She got the best music, the best poetry." Medieval England celebrated both the Assumption of the Virgin Mary and her Coronation during Lammis, the Celtic festival of harvest, marking the end of summer and the beginning of autumn. We have drawn on 13th and 14th century repertoires to create a Ladymass for the summer portion of the church year, as it might have been sung around the feast of Mary's Assumption in August. To the settings of the liturgical texts of the Ladymass, we have added several devotional works in praise of Mary. (HMU90722) CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 13th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoires. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1993 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly presented with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU7080) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 Portrait

This spring 1997 release includes selections from the 6 previous releases by this wonderful vocal quartet, plus a sneak preview of the fall '97 release 11,000 Virgins: chants by Hildegard for the feast of St. Ursula. (HMU7210) CD: 10.98

Anonymous 4/ Hildegard von Bingen 11,000 Virgins

The members of our favorite classical female vocal quartet turn their talents toward the music of the pivotal and amazing medieval composer, for this 1997 release. Hildegard's meso-dic chants, inspired by the legend of St. Ursula and the Eleven Thousand Virgins, are full of imagery, weaving a hypnotic web of sound. The Anonymous 4, who sing with an ethereal clarity that is absolutely captivating, are the ideal interpreters of this music. (HMU7200) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4/ Sœur Marie Keyrouz/ etc Ancient Voices (Vox Sacra)

This low-priced sampler of ancient sacred music contains works by three different artists — Anonymous 4, Ensemble Organum (primarily male voices, directed by Marcel Peres) and Sœur Marie Keyrouz — each from a different album in their discographies. This is some of the most mystical, heavenly music we've heard, and an excellent way to familiarize yourself with the variety of work performed by each artist. 15 tracks, 67 minutes of music! (HMU290608) CD: 10.98

Ars Femina Ensem./Francesca Caccini La Liberazione di Ruggiero

Francesca Caccini (1587-1640) was a singer, harpsichordist, lutenist, and court composer to the Medici family of 17th century Florence, where the musical genre we now know as opera flourished. Her work is brought to life by the Ars Femina Ensemble, dedicated to researching, reclaiming and recording music by early women composers. This opera is based on a cantata from an epic Renaissance poem, Orlando Furioso. It depicts an intriguing world of fantasy and reality as the nephew of Charlemagne struggles and chooses between love and fame. Beautifully performed and interpreted, the ensemble deserves much praise for this effort, which is one of the only recorded operatic works by a woman to our knowledge. Libretto included, most highly recommended. (NAN003) CS: 12.98 CD: 16.98

Ars Femina Ensemble Musica De La Puebla De Los Angeles

Subtitled Music by Women of the Mexican, Cuban and European Baroque, this 1996 release collects both vocal and instrumental compositions by women from the 16th and 17th centuries. The liner notes detail the musical intermingling of cultures and religions of the "old" and "new" worlds, representing a variety of nationalities (Mexico, Cuba, Spain, Italy, Germany, The Netherlands) which give us an opportunity to compare and contrast. Most of the composers did their work from the relative freedom of a convent, and their music is religious in nature. The exception is Teodora Ginés, who was born into slavery in Cuba, and is credited with being the "mother of Cuban folkloric music." Highly recommended! (NAN004) CD: 16.98

Ars Femina Ensemble Non Tacet! (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Nonnet!, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself, and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 8 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Carl Maria von Bianca Maria Meda, an Ursuline nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1680 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica," a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented, and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! (NAN002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Barbara Strozzi/ Catherine Bott To the Unknown Goddess

This 1996 release of baroque music consists of madrigals, arias, and cantatas written by the 17th-century Venetian singer and composer Barbara Strozzi. She enjoyed a great deal of acclaim from her contemporaries due to the strong emotional content of her music, powerful lyrics, the scope and richness of her rhythmic and harmonic vocabulary, and her perfect knowledge of the human voice. And it is truly lovely to listen to soprano Catherine Bott, a widely recognized interpreter of early vocal music, accompanied by harpsichord, baroque guitar, double harp, and chitarone. The booklet provides interesting information on her exposure to "feminist" ideas during childhood, and the ways she transcended the institutionalized misogyny of her era in a variety of ways. Recommended! (CRU0041) CD: 18.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Ave Maria

The calm, stilling voices of the nuns of St. Cecilia's Abbey on the Isle of Wight radiate purity of heart and the depth of their devotion, ancient and timeless. (NW150) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Venite Ad Me

Beautiful medieval compositions sung by the calm, stilling voices of the Benedictine Nuns, radiating a purity of heart and a sense of attainment, with a depth of devotion and peace that is almost unparalleled. These chants are from the Feast of the Sacred Heart. (NW151) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Cello Subliminal Blues & Greens

Defying a traditional image, this unique 4-woman classically-trained all-cello quartet has joined a growing number of musical groups pioneering the next wave of chamber music. On this 1996 release, they perform an eclectic yet accessible repertoire that runs the gamut from world music to classical... these compositions by 9 different "young and hip" American composers were written specifically for the album. Unpredictable and broadly appealing, this dynamic group captivates younger and older audiences across the US and Europe. (DNT1011) CD: 16.98

Charlotte Church Voice of an Angel

This is the chart-topping debut album by the world's youngest classical diva — and age aside, one of the world's most amazing sopranos at any age. Born in Wales, she recorded this 1998 album when she was 12, and you will be astounded by the richness, maturity, power, purity and exquisite beauty of her voice. In fact, it debuted at #1 on the classical crossover chart, reaching double-platinum within 5 weeks of its release in the UK, and close to that in the US. Her repertoire consists of sacred music such as Amazing Grace, Ave Maria and Andrew Lloyd Webber's Pie Jesu from his Requiem, as well as Celtic classics like My Lagan Love, plus several Welsh folk songs performed in the beautiful Welsh language. She is accompanied here by harp and Celtic harp, and by the Orchestra and Chorus of the Welsh National Orchestra. An inspiring gift for any girl studying classical music, highly recommended, of course, for adults too. (SON60957) CD: 16.98

Choir of the Abbey at Regina Laudis Women in Chant

This 1997 collection of women's Gregorian chant was recorded at the first Benedictine Abbey in the US, by the choir of the Benedictine nuns at the Abbey of Regina Laudis. These chants, beautiful in their simplicity, passion and devotion, are performed 20 times daily and once in the middle of the night. (SND004) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Clara Schumann/ Yoshiko Iwai Piano Music

As the wife of famous composer Robert Schumann, Clara Schumann had a great many limits imposed upon her own time and energy to compose. While giving her husband the support and encouragement he needed, she did her best to continue her own career. During her lifetime she was a distinguished concert artist, but promoted her husband's compositions rather than her own. On this 1996 release, performed by award-winning pianist Yoshiko Iwai in 1990, we are treated to a beautiful collection of Clara Schumann's own piano pieces, reflecting her superb musical education and natural talent. (NAX553501) CD: 8.98

Daughters of Mary Spirit of the Daughters of Mary

From the Catskill Mountains and a religious congregation of nuns known as The Daughters of Mary comes this 1997 recording of Gregorian chant. The Sisters lift their voices in the spirit of prayer and song in this ancient form of praise. Having chosen to live a religious life based on an age-old tradition, they commit themselves to a life of prayer, contemplation, community and good works. Gregorian chant is a major component of that life as these Sisters chant each morning, noon and night. Capturing the essence of this ancient meditative prayer, the music transports the listener to the echoing halls of a stone abbey. (ET77064) CS: 9.98 CD: 18.98

Fanny Mendelssohn Lieder & Trio

In 1847, just a few days before the first public performance of any of her compositions, Fanny Mendelssohn died unexpectedly. She spent her life staging private concerts to showcase her compositions, because in her position as a woman she was unable to pursue a career as a composer as her brother Felix did. She was, however, among her contemporaries, considered to be just as gifted as her brother, and towards the end of her life she defied her father and published a number of her works, gaining enthusiastic critical acclaim. This collection, performed by soprano Donna Brown, pianist Françoise Tillard, and Trio Brantato, displays her extraordinary talent as a composer of lieder, and allows us to experience the gifts of a woman who has been long overlooked. (OPS1001) CD: 15.98

Gertrude Stein/ Virgil Thomson
The Mother of Us All (2-CD Set)

Capturing the final collaboration between Gertrude Stein (text) and Virgil Thomson (music), which Gertrude didn't live to hear, this very unique 2-CD set presents this work performed by the Santa Fe Opera. Focusing on Susan B. Anthony, the pioneer 19th century women's rights activist, it's a superb mix of incredible word-play about politics, women and men, and voting rights, set to Thompson's "musical memory book" of gospel hymns, marches, ballads, waltzes, intoned sermons and tunes derived from rural America. Originally released on LP in 1977, the original 4-track master tapes were meticulously remixed and cleaned up. (NWL288) CD: 29.95

Grail Singers 0050
Women's Celebration/Chant & Harmony

This beautiful collection of chant and chant-inspired choral selections, released in 1994, celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Grail — an ecumenical multi-national organization of women which has been committed to spirituality, ecology, feminism, the arts and social justice since 1944. Convinced that the weaving of song into the pattern of daily life is the basis of a vital musical culture, the 15 women of the choir, ranging in age from 17 to 67, developed a treasury of song, ranging from Gregorian chant through polyphony and contemporary composers. The 28 pieces, sung in Latin and English, impart a deeply prayerful, meditative spirit; you may hear some ambient noises which occurred naturally during the recording session, including birds, crows, the creaking of the barn at Grailville, and the wind. (SKR1801) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Ellen Oak
The Harmony of Heaven 0397

This 1995 album of works by Hildegard is about as pure as you can get, probably sounding much as it did when Hildegard sang it herself — unadorned, contemplative and devotional. Here was a very feminine-oriented spirituality — several texts extolling virgins and numerous womanly attributes are included, with English translations. The music is performed here by the solo acappella voice of Ellen Oak, a singer, composer, conductor, dancer and minister rooted in the Roman Catholic tradition; she tours the country with her one-woman show Sounding the Living Light, weaving together Hildegard's songs and writings which she has been studying for 15 years. (BR50001) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen
A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovingly even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. This 1983 release, one of the first of the Hildegard revival albums, is beautifully performed by soprano Emma Kirkby, with Gothic Voices. (NYP66039) CS: 14.95 CD: 18.98

Illumination: Fire of the Spirit

Continuing the theme of "re-composing" ancient music and texts in a modern synthesized context that he first explored on Vision, Richard Souther's 1997 release again explores Hildegard von Bingen's timeless legacy. Richard's electronics and acoustic piano again blends with the rich soprano of Benedictine prioress Sister Germaine Fritz; this album also adds Gaelic vocalist Norin Ni Rian, Katie McMahon and Davy Spillane of Riverdance and the 4-woman quartet Cello. (SON62853) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Norma Gentile
Meditation Chants

Norma Gentile's unaccompanied bell-like soprano graces her interpretations of Hildegard's poetry with serene beauty. Perspectives gained from her study of voice, vibrational healing and music history inform the sound and feel of this 1999 recording. The ethereal chant cycle featured, Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, comes from Hildegard's first theological text Scivias, which is based on a series of 26 visions. This cycle is a musical rendering of her final vision, in which Hildegard experienced "a sound like the voice of a multitude singing in harmony, in praise of the celestial hierarchy." The resulting song cycle characterizes Hildegard's belief that music makes the soul symphonic. (SKR1803) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen NEW
Heavenly Revelations

Hildegard von Bingen, in the tradition of many female composers, was not popular during her lifetime. Given to the convent by her parents as a little at eight years old, she spent her life there, composing a great body of work as both musician and poet. This hour-long collection of hymns, sequences, antiphons and responsories, recorded in '83, is a beautiful representation of the sensuality of Hildegard's work. Included are English translations for all chants, displaying her colorful imagery and ethereal accounts of visions and inspirations, as well as her individualistic view of high Benedictine life. (NAX550998) CD: 8.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sequentia
Canticles of Ecstasy 0052

On this 1994 release, the medieval ensemble Sequentia (which consists of a 7-woman vocal ensemble, 2 fiddles and medieval harp) brings an incoherent and authentic interpretation to Hildegard's original works. Extensive notes explain Hildegard's essentially feminist interpretations of biblical texts, attributing the victory of womanhood as a reversal of the Fall, present in the female form (female form) — manifest in the divine and victorious Maria, as well as in Caritas, who is at once the Bride of the Song of Songs, Divine Wisdom, and Charity of the New Testament. Very recommended for the painstaking scholarship in the written material as well as for the authenticity and beauty of the musical presentation. (DHM77320) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Symphonies: Spiritual Songs

The recording of spiritual songs contains texts and music in praise of the female divinity who figured prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Mary, the virgins who inhabit heavenly realms at the end of time, St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered a feminine deity. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harps, psalteries, fiddles, flutes, and symphony. (DHM77020) CD: 14.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sinfonye
Harmony of Celestial Revelations 0470

Sinfonye — a women's ensemble with a particular interest in repertoires sung, inspired or composed by women — combines improvisatory skills derived from traditional music with performance practices recreated from historical research. On this 1996 recording, they are joined by members of the Oxford Girls Choir to deliver an unforgettable celebration of Hildegard's praises, hymns, antiphons and sequences honoring saints, virgins and Mary, in the plainchant tradition — a single vocal melodic line, common in liturgical singing of her time. (ICEL127) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/J. Montgomery
Lux Vivens (Living Light)

It's Hildegard's 900th birthday in 1998, so it's fitting there should be such a plethora of excellent releases. On this one, Jocelyn Montgomery (who developed her interest in Hildegard while working with the medieval women's troubadour group Sinfonye) presents modern interpretations of works by the finally famous feminist abbess. Angelic soprano melodies play off deeper, hair-raising drones which were originally supplied by monks, her soaring vocals intertwine with producer David Lynch's brooding soundscapes, breathing new life into these stunning works, both sacred and secular. (MAM0183) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Jane Webster
Wings of Passion

This 1999 release bestows a contemporary, ambient treatment upon the works of Hildegard, by combining the angelic soprano of Jane Webster and keyboards, layered over a subtle percussion track, with the original melodies and Latin texts written by the prolific mystic. Title translations include O Sweetest Lover, As A Honeycomb Dripping With Honey, The Host of Virgins. English translations are provided for some of the lyrics which relate to St. Ursula and the 11,000 virgins. Serene and tranquil, and deeply beautiful. (NW459) CD: 15.98

Vision 0051

This is a unique 1994 album — its producers have created a contemporary landscape of world beat rhythms, samples and electronic syntheses to supplement Hildegard's 1200-year-old melodies, in a musical merger of the 12th and 20th centuries. Performed by Benedictine Sister Germaine Fritz and early music vocalist/historian Emily van Evers. (ANG55246) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Rosa Lamoreaux
Luminous Spirit/Chants of Hildegard

We know, we know... a lot of Hildegard titles this year, but when celebrating your 900th birthday, you deserve a lot, and this 1998 release is a perfect one to end the year-long birthday party! Performed in single voice by soprano Rosa Lamoreaux with accompaniment on recorders, vielle, viola da gamba, hammered dulcimer by early music ensemble Hesperia. It features selections from the different types of religious music she composed, from hymns to antiphons to sequences. Though based on medieval traditions and Gregorian Chant, her inspiration far exceeded the confines of the time, with compositions that transcend all boundaries: historical, musical and spiritual. (KOC7443) CD: 16.98

Jacqueline du Pre
Hilary and Jackie (Soundtrack)

British cellist Jacqueline du Pre was one of the great musical geniuses of the 20th century, and one of few women in a musical genre dominated by men. The story of her life — from her dazzling rise to stardom to her tragic death from MS — is the subject of the 1998 film release Hilary and Jackie which dramatizes the complex bond between the musician and her older sister. This soundtrack from the film (a must-see) combines the film's score (featuring cellist Caroline Dale) with a famous live recording of du Pre's complete performance of her signature piece, Elgar's Cello Concerto, with the Philadelphia Orchestra. (SON60394) CD: 16.98

Lara St. John
Bach: Works for Violin Solo 0523

This virtuosic violinist has posed the question, "What is classical music? If not the epitome of sensuality, passion and understated erotica that popular music, even with all of its energy and life, cannot even begin to touch?" One of the reasons we're offering this excellent but controversial 1996 recording is because so many stores are refusing to carry it. (To explain the cover features the bare torso of the 24-year old artist — looking much younger to many, apparently — in a spartan blow photo in which the violin covers her breasts, so without considering the artist's age or wishes, reviewers write only about the packaging, and male chain-store owners have decided this is child pornography. Never mind the violent, misogynist stuff depicted in so much popular music. We're reminded of how we cannot use some of the most beautiful images of bare-breasted women on our catalog covers, because the Postmaster will not allow them through the mail. ) Back to the recording, she performs Bach's Partita No. 2 in D Minor (ending with the well-known Chaconne/Giacca) and Sonata No. 2 in C Major, with amazing strength, refinement, richness, tension, and beauty of phrasing. And in her words, "If this unusual album cover is responsible for even a few more people hearing and loving these incontestably great works of Bach, then to me it is all worthwhile." Lara St. John
Gypsy 0813

Lara has done it again, in every sense! This 1997 release features some of the most beautiful, heart-breaking, breathless rhapsodies, nocturnes, and fantasies ever written for violin and associated with "Gypsy" music. (While two are traditional compositions, others are by classical and contemporary composers who have interpreted Gypsy themes and melodies.) Her technique and skill are almost beyond belief for such a young artist... listen to her performance of Zigeunerweisen, by Pablo de Sarasate! And, she has again wrapped her amazing music in a cover which will no doubt shock or unnervingly so the stiff classical crowd. (Her black leather jacket isn't exactly buttoned up, you see. ) We don't know whether once again CD stores will refuse to stock such a magnificent work from such an incredibly talented musician, but if they do, that's our obscenity in our opinion! Highly recommended! (WTP5185) CD: 17.98

Maria Callas NEW
Her Greatest Hits

Maria Callas was not only a legend in her own time, she was a veritable cyclone of charisma, controversy, coquetry, and consummate skill. Broadway's The Master Class, while fascinating, barely skims the surface of her deep, divinely dramatic personality. On this moderately-priced CD, you can hear her magnificent voice at its most lovely and most thrilling. Selections from Medea and La Gioconda demonstrate the full range of her instrument and illustrate her evocative emotional intensity and 4 excerpts from La Traviata are particularly haunting. Recommended! (LEG387) CD: 8.98

Maria Zemtanski NEW
Mrs. Laughinghouse

We've had many requests for flamenco music lately, and are glad to offer this title. Many of you have seen Maria touring with the irremediably Latina vocalist Irene Ferrera, but this talented guitar virtuosa also has a fabulous 1997 solo recording of instrumental guitar music from or inspired by the classical or flamenco repertoire. (She's also a cultural anthropologist, specializing in gender ideology in the flamenco art form.) In the male-dominated genre of flamenco guitar, Maria stands out as one of the very few women to incorporate this style into her music. A unique blend of artistic freedom, innovation and tradition, this is guitar playing at its best — fiery, percussive and passionate. Original compositions, as well as works by Albeniz and Sabicas are included; highly recommended! (FOP001) CD: 14.98

Marian Anderson Softly Awakes My Heart

Whichever your musical taste, you shouldn't miss the chance to hear the incomparable Marian Anderson on this 1999 compilation of original recordings from 1928-1946. A favorite with European audiences and the first African-American soloist to appear with the NY Metropolitan Opera Company, Marian Anderson was hailed by Toscanini as having a voice that "is heard but once in a hundred years." This release showcases that spine-tingling voice on 22 songs, half of them spirituals, the other half a mix of opera, classical selections, and romantic songs. Her renditions of Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child, Ave Maria, and Go Down Moses are alone worth the price of the CD and will probably give you goosebumps — highly recommended. ### Salva Nos

The members of this unique 12-woman troupe (which includes one ex-stripper, a number of exotic dancers, a systems analyst, and former members of Miranda Sex Garden) have been described as hard-core Anglo-Saxon acid-meat mistresses of the Middle Ages music scene! This debut 1997 classical/pop cross-over release, an introduction to the life-funk and chant of the 14th century, includes Salva Virgo Virginitas, Gaudete (once previously made famous to a rock-pop audience by Maddy Prior's rendition with Steeleye Span), An Adult Lullaby, Now Springs the Spray, and 12 more. ## Muriel Anderson

Arioso From Paris

0783

This gifted guitarist has performed with symphony orchestras and solo around the world, playing everything from Bach to Japanese koto music to Spanish Flamenco to King of the Road. Raised in a musical family (her grandfather played saxophone in John Philip Sousa's band!), she has been playing guitar since age 10, has learned every style that she could find, and has won the National Fingerpicking Guitar Championship. On this 1992 recording, she plays music that was written, arranged and/or recorded in Paris, drawing from many cultures, but all inspired by the French countryside. With guest guitarists Jean-Felix LaSalle and the legendary Chet Atkins, Muriel delicately plucks originals such as Rosalee, Read My Heart To Me and Along the Seine, and diverse covers like the Dire Straits tune Why Worry, Koyo No Taki, and Campanas del Alba. A real find for fans of classical guitar! (CGD200) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Guadalupe: Virgen de Los Indios

This 1998 release by the mixed-gender choral group is the stunning first-recorded recreation of sacred music written in the late 1500's by Aztec descendants in honor of the Virgin of Guadalupe, who appeared to the Nahuatl Indian Juan Diego in 1531 (10 years after the Aztec conquest by Cortes) on the very hill where the Aztecs had worshipped the goddess Tonantzin ("Our Mother"). This event triggered millions of conversions to Christianity, and the subsequent fusion of European and indigenous cultures — and demonstrates how Goddesses have been absorbed/transformed into Christianity. The Virgin of Guadalupe, referred to as the Queen of the Heavens, continues to be a major figure in the Catholic Church of the Americas, particularly with millions of US Latinos. The 7 harmonizing voices of SAVAE (San Antonio Vocal Arts Ensemble) combine with traditional wind and percussion instruments of the Aztecs, yielding a spellbinding fusion of cultures and music — recommended! ### El Milagro de Guadalupe

In this 1999 follow-up to Guadalupe: Virgen de los Indios, the hypnotic rhythms of Aztec drums and flutes again blend with the 7 voices of the ensemble to delve deeper into the unique music that fused European and Meso-American influences in 16th-century Mexico. This music reflects the shared heritage of the Virgin of Guadalupe, known as the patron saint of Latin America in Roman Catholicism, with the Aztec "Mother Goddess" known as Tonantzin. A focus of the release is the re-creation of an Aztec processional drum song used when the miraculous cloth, or tilma, was presented in the Mexico City Cathedral. The basis of the song was originally used to praise Tonantzin. (JAG214) CD: 15.98

Women of Note

Works by women composers are presented on this 1997 compilation, from Clara Schumann, Lili Boulanger, Germaine Tailleferre, and Fanny Mendelssohn, to Amy Beach, to Theda Musgrave, to contemporaries like Ellen Taffe Zwilich and Meredith Monk. Performers range from the solo piano of Virginia Eskin, to various mixed chamber groups, to the Women's Philharmonic. While this represents just a small fraction of the music composed by women all over the world since the Middle Ages, the quality and variety will no doubt encourage you to explore the subject further! ### Chamber Works by Women Composers

This 2-CD boxed set contains over 140 minutes (!) of music, performed by the Macalester Trio, composed for piano, violin, and cello by the following women: Clara Schumann, Amy Beach, Germaine Tailleferre, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Teresa Carreno, and Cecile Chaminade. Several of these compositions have been rarely (or never) previously performed, and demonstrate the creativity of the composers; booklet with autobiographical information included. ### Women's Voices: 5 Centuries of Song

If you're looking for an overview of classical works for voice by female composers, here it is. This 1996 recording compiles vocal music written by 28 different female composers from the 16th century through the present! Soprano Neva Pilgrim begins with O Death, rock me asleep by Anne Bolyn (1507-1536; this piece is thought to have been written by her while she awaited her execution), continues through works by an extensive list of composers such as Barbara Strozzi, Anna Amalia, Fanny Mendelssohn, Clara Schumann, Lili Boulanger, and Alma Mahler, to Judith Lang Zaimont... then ends her program with Libby Larsen's When I Am An Old Woman and Elizabeth Vercoe's Anonymous Rag. Ms. Pilgrim is accompanied on harpsichord and piano. (LEQ338) CD: 15.98

The Medieval Lady

The late duo Elizabethan Conversation (with guest soprano Andrea Folan) presents a beautiful program of Medieval Chant, Songs & Dances and then several courtly 16th & 17th Century Songs & Lute Duets; most by female composers. Beginning with 12th century works, they perform compositions by Countess of Dia, Queen Blanche, Lady Kilgrew, Hildegard von Bingen, and others — including several by "Anonymous." Period instruments are employed: symphonia, medieval lute, recorders, viola da gamba, psalter, organetto, and lutes. It's heartening that this exquisite music by women from the era is being preserved, and not just music about women. (LEQ340) CD: 15.98

Opera's Greatest Mothers

"Being a good mother has never been easy, and on the operatic stage it is next to impossible." If she's not a high "virgin" priestess with two illegitimate children (Norma), she has her heart set on marrying, only to find out she's about to wed her son (Marcellina in Le Nozze di Figaro). Sometimes she's a bit befuddled, either inadvertently poisoning her son (Lucrezia Borgia) or having trouble remembering whether she threw him over a bonfire or not (Azucena in Il Trovatore). On her worst days, when she's really feeling under the weather, she sends her son out to play so she can kill herself in peace (Madama Butterfly). On this 1998 collection, Leontyne Price, Montserrat Caballe, and other greats give voice to the many indignities that mothers of the stage go through, radiantly rendering the greatest arias ever written for Mom. ### Women Write Music

The voices of women composers have been largely lost in the past. This 1999 collection brings us 9 orchestral compositions by 20th century classical women composers, displaying a variety of textures, styles, and techniques. From the beautiful echoing of Chen Yi's Qi Xu, to the royal, rhythmic dance of Doreen Carwithen's Suffolk Suite, to works by Germaine Tailleferre, Barbara Kolb, and 5 others, all are excellent representations of women's contributions to the genre. ### Lesbian American Composers

This 1998 release is a welcome addition to the otherwise more male-dominated genre of gay classical composers. Compositions by 10 living composers are featured, several performed by the composers themselves... includes Pauline Oliveros, the Canadian clarinet/piano duo Queen Mab, Nurt Tilles playing an original rag, and an excerpt by Paula Kemper from the opera Patience and Sarah. "As beautiful, strong and diverse as the voices of women in America today, the music of these ten lesbian American composers speaks to the heart, soul and conscience of our times." (CR780) CD: 16.98

Fluffy Ruffle Girls: Women/Ragtime

Over 150 women composed and published ragtime music — a very disciplined and structured, almost classical form — around the turn of the century, but only recently has this fact been unearthed. It's the old, too-familiar story: many composed under pseudonyms, or with initials, or never had their works published. Here the acclaimed pianist plays 23 of the best of these catchy, tuneful, gorgeously swaying pieces by the most important female composer-pianists of that era: a dozen composers are represented, about whom biographical info was difficult to come by. Previously released under the title Pickles & Peppers, CD has 3 extra tracks. (HE9002) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

From Spain to Spain

0306

With members from six European countries, Vox creates especially meaningful reinterpretations of early Spanish music, and a musical odyssey through Spain, Africa and South America from 711 A.D. forward. Their 1992 album explores developments in music and history, unpacking the cultural legacy of the Christians, Moors, and Jews who coexisted at a time of artistic flowering. Medieval instruments (especially the Arabic oud), African, Middle Eastern, and Latin percussion, subtle synth orchestrations, lead vocals by a spectacular female trio (Fadia El-Hage, Catherine Rey and Rose Brier-Shah), and a woman-directed male choir communicate both the sound and spirit of their medieval selections... from the meditative beauty of Bells for the Virgin, to the lyrical yearning of Bearer of Cups, to the glory of Maravillosos, to the dense drama of Deux ex Machina. The majority of compositions are about the Mother of God/Holy Mary. Excellent, fascinating historical notes included; highly recommended! (RLM9000) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Vox/ Hildegard von Bingen

Diadema

0053

On this exceptional release, the European group Vox imaginatively adapts profound religious musical compositions by Hildegard von Bingen, the 12th century German mystic, for contemporary audiences. Medieval strings, woodwinds and percussion blend with atmospheric synthesizers and a virtuosic trio of female singers, whose soaring voices are both powerful and ethereal. The treatment maintains the purity and mysticism of the original hymns, while bringing them into a virtual cathedral. Luminous to the ears, and the packaging of the CD is visually opulent as well. Beautiful, womanly lyrics are contained in the hymns, performed in Latin, including To the Eleven Thousand Virgins, When the Voice of the Blood (of Ursula), To Mary. ## The Women's Philharmonic

It's a lovely recording, ranging from the stately to melancholic to spirited, skillfully blended and presented by this country's premier women's orchestra. Features Angela Cheng on piano and Gillian Benet on harp. (KOC7169) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sisters: Women's Music from... 0557

Celestial Harmonies — that's the last part of the title and the label presenting this 1996 anthology of diverse and wonderful 14 female artists/groups. The common thread is that the women are all musical alchemists with a deep sense of history: blending ancient song with a modern production, or actively involved in extending the boundary of possibilities for their chosen instrument. It opens with a West African percussion piece by Francine Maitre from the group Takada... then we hear Tanoko Sunzaki on koto, Nancy Hennings on Tibetan bells; soprano Anna Meilan sings a haunting medieval Armenian chant; sitar player Krishna Chakravarty combines ragas with tala; Ida Wadswat performs classical Sundanese music of ancient lyrical court poetry. Sylvan Grey demonstrates her mastery of the kantele, Finland's national zither-like instrument; the trio Sinfonie pays tribute to Hildegard von Bingen; the Hue Traditional Art Troupe honors Vietnamese sisters Trung Trac and Trung Nhat; Theresa Schroeder-Sheker offers a delicate tune for harp and voice; violinist Coles Pearce from the Australian ensemble Coolangubra thrills with her virtuosity. This spectacular 1994 release, which could be subtitled The World's Best, is a collection of 14 songs by female and male artists from Spain, India, Morocco, Zaïre, Mozambique, Mongolia, Tahiti, Argentina, Corsica and America. What musical discoveries it contains! Tando Nomade by Sainkho tells of a nomadic life in Tuva, land of shamanistic traditions and "throat singing"; Mercedes Sosa sings Gracias a la vida with characteristic power, serenity, and eloquence. The title of vocalists extraordinaire Cesaria Evora's Sodade has been translated from Portuguese as "a longing for what once was, or might have been." Vox: an Anglo/German/Libebese ensemble, here contributes While the Birds Sing; lead singer Fadja El-Hager's voice features the vibration and embellishment that makes the beauty of Arab song. ### Voce: Music From Women of the World

If I had to compile an album with some of my very favorite artists and tracks, it might look something like this 1999 release! It features some of the world's most creative song musicians, who also happen to have some of the most transcendent voices: Laura Love, Lorraine McKennitt, Mercedes Sosa, Susana Baca, Deep Forest with Marta Sebesyen (and the Grammy-winner Marta's Song), Caroline Lavelle, Victoria Williams, Dead Can Dance, Tish Hinojosa, Madeleine Peyroux, Clannad, Nagma, Jane Siberry (who contributes liner notes), and more. As Jane writes, "They are the future looking back at the music of their and other cultures. These women are preserving traditional styles before they are lost. They have rescued a connection to the past that perhaps gives us keys to the spirit of our musical ancestors." Highly recommended! (RH75613) CD: 18.98

Women of Spirit 5101

Our friend Jennifer Einhorn writes that this 1993 compilation is "a convergence of extraordinary musical muses from around the world... Each of these women has pioneered and persevered. By defying long-standing musical and cultural categorizations, they are redefining contemporary music and connecting the past with the present through song. These 13 women remind us that spirit and music are so thoroughly intertwined, it's sometimes tough to distinguish between the two." What an incredibly interesting group of artists: Karen Matheson of Cepeceallie performs with Rijas del Sol (Sicilia), 2 sisters from Guinea: Toshi Reagon sings A Song with her mom; Bernice Johnson Reagon of Sweet Honey, there's Cassandra Wilson, Susana Baca, Ani DiFranco, Tarika, Rasha, and many more. ## Celia Cruz con la Sonora Matancera

The Best of Celia Cruz 2498

The reigning Queen of Latin music began singing with one of her native Cuba's biggest bands, Sonora Matancera, in 1950. She earned world fame in the 50's, was a salsa pioneer in the 60's when she helped define and create the genre, scored her first gold record in the 70's, became a Fania All-Star in the 80's, and won a Grammy in the 90's with Ray Barreto and the film Mambo Kings. This 1997 release features 19 tracks recorded from 1951-1965, la crema of the Salsa Queen's golden years with La Sonora Matancera. Includes Ritmo, Tambo y Flores, Ritmo de Mi Cuba, Oye Mi Rumba y mucho mas. (RH72915) CD: 16.98 CD: 16.98

Mi Tierra (My Homeland) 0443

In our opinion, her 1993 release is her best ever! With high-energy accompaniment by all-star Latin musicians including Sheila E. and Tito Puente, she performs a wide variety of songs in Spanish. The styles reflect and illustrate pride in her Cuban heritage as well as the musical tradition itself, with jubilant Afro-Cuban percussion and rhythms. The liner notes include translations as well as some information which will be helpful to a non-Latin audience — a bit of a cultural bridge. At her closing song says, "And with great admiration I offer this celebration of my roots I bring you this gusguano (another typical Afro-Cuban rhythm) So you'll never forget this unusual rhythm! And to awaken your pride in your origins." (EPC53807) CD: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Irene Farrera

Alma Latina/Latin Spirit 0309

Back by popular demand! Venezuelan singer-songwriter Irene Farrera possesses the kind of rich, smoky voice that one associates with good chocolate, full of spice and flavor, and inspiring passionate declarations! At one moment, that voice is shy and tender, caressing the lyrics as if they were children, or it might wrap an ethereal fist around poetry that cuts like a knife. Like her compatriot Soledad Bravo, Irene imbues her work with the essence of the Latin spirit — a fierce passion combined with romantic tenderness. This 1995 recording features her interpretations of classic songs by Latin American composers, including Chabuata Granda, Violeta Parra, and Antonio Carlos Jobim. (RR9502) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Soy de Ti / I Am Yours

This long-awaited summer 1999 release contains 10 original songs in Spanish and English (plus a traditional gaita), on which Afro-Latin percussion, steel drums, violin, cuatros and accordion form a rich backdrop for Irene's deep, husky, passionate voice and her percussive guitar. Title track is a tender love ballad celebrating commitment between women. In My Bones, inspired by the plight of a Haitian orphan, is an ode to the spirit and strength of all immigrants. Soleros, calypso-soca, bats rumba, serbia reggae and Venezuelan hip-hop round out this exciting collection. We love this artist, recommended! (SSE1003) CD: 15.98

Walking in the Jungle 0450

Fantastic! This Venezuelan musician (singer, songwriter, guitarist, arranger) extraordinaire brings us, in ingles y español, a beautifully diverse collection of original works, backed by a small yet sophisticated band (amazing bass, great percussion, keyboards and sax). Her voice has a deep, husky, jazzy quality reminiscent of Julia Fordham, especially on the hypnotic Despertar/Awake. The title song (which she dedicates to all creatures, including people of every political, spiritual and sexual orientation) is also a highlight, sinuous bass lines snake around bird calls and a feisty saxophone melody, with Irene's lovely voice breathing heat into the steamy clearings — y que calor! Irene. Her notes speak out against racism and homophobia several times, letting us know that these are priority issues to her. Highly recommended! (IF2) CD: 14.98

Ivon Ulibarri

Cafe Mocha 0587

Hey, salsa fans, go no farther! This amazing 1995 release is everything you need! Ivon used to lead the women's band "Amigas del Grupo Ritmo" (whose recording we carried years ago until they broke up and the albums ran out), so we are quite happy that she is back! Cafe Mocha, Ivon explains, "is coffee with chocolate, a blend of two flavors. My music is a blend of many flavors. Caribbean rhythms with top 40 pop rhythms, and Mexican rhythms." The predominant flavor is good salsa, and Ivon and her album rightfully swept the 1995 New Mexico Hispanic Music Association awards! She sings her original compositions, both in Spanish and English, in a resonant voice that complements and enhances the percolating rhythms of her band. Trust me on this one — highly recommended! Katia Cardenal (of Guardabarranco)
Katia Cardenal
 Katia is known to and beloved by a large audience who followed the work of the Nicaraguan sister-brother duo Guardabarranco. Having launched her solo career from her new home in Norway, she offers her 1997 release (recorded in Maragua) featuring works by various Hispanic composers... including herself and her brother Salvador! She's accompanied by Nicaraguan acoustic guitarist Eduardo Anaya, so the style will sound familiar to you Guardabarranco fans: melodic, poetic, quiet yet emotion-filled. Norwegian import, lyrics in Spanish; recommended! (KC197) CD: 15.98

Latin Fever 0465
 We are ecstatic that this long out-of-print 1978 classic — an absolutely incredibly rhythmic concoction of women's salsa — is back! Among these 14 female musicians you'll hear some of the country's finest jazz talents: percussionists Nydia Mata, Jean Fineberg and Ellen Seeling of DEUCE, and more, featuring very strong multi-member percussion and horn sections. With a few instrumentalists, vocals mostly in Spanish, some bilingual, it includes La Mujer Latina ("The Latin American Woman") by Cuba-native Rosa Soy. Very highly recommended, for dancing and listening, as well as difficult to find. It's truly a treasure... don't pass it up! (FNA527) CD: 17.98

Lhasa
La Llorona
 The incredible voice of Lhasa de Sela, a Montreal resident who was born in the US to a Mexican father and American mother, will be familiar to many 1997 and '98 Lillith Fair attendees, and she's featured on the Lillith Fair double CD. Sung in Spanish, this evocative and passionate Juno Award-winning 1997 release (recorded in various acoustically-endowed Montreal kitchens), celebrates the vocal styles of 30's era jazz greats as well as the distinctive style of traditional Mexican ballads. An array of textures are described through accordion, flamenco-influenced guitar, slide bass, and even samples of falling rain. The songs are informed with the weight and wonder of Aztec mythology: La Llorona is the wind that glides between earth and sky, singing and crying, seducing men with her melancholy melodies and then trying them to stone with her petrifying kiss. Recommended! (ATL83120) CD: 16.98

Lourdes Perez
Vestigios
 If you love Mercedes Sosa, absolutely give this woman your ear! This Puerto-Rican born singer/songwriter performs her original "Nuevas Canciones" in the style of Mercedes Sosa, with a voice deep and rich and warm. In fact, her 1997 release includes her Homenaje a Mercedes Sosa (Homage to Mercedes Sosa). This very womanly album features a duet with Irene Ferreira, a song about her mother and another about her grandmother... and to increase lesbian visibility in Puerto Rican music, a passionate love song for a woman entitled Noche de Ronda (Remembrance Night). Into Plenas II, she incorporates the familiar Cue Bonita Bandera about the beautiful Puerto Rican flag, stating "how much more beautiful it would look if the imperialists didn't own it." Recommended! (VVV1001) CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa
30 Años 0040
 Wow — what a fantastic compilation! Celebrating and representing 30 years of performance, this album contains some of her very best material ever, including her earlier, more acoustic recordings, which this reviewer is admittedly quite partial to. Contains her beloved classic Gracias a la Vida, plus other favorites such as Alfonso y El Mar, Si Se Calle El Cantor, Luna Tucumana, her beautiful lullaby Duerme Negrillo, crowd pleaser Maná, María, a live song with Milton Nascimento and writer Charly García entitled Inconciente Colectivo, and many others; songwriters covered include Violeta Parra, María Elena Walsh, and Atahualpa Yupanqui. It's probably this long-time fan's favorite compilation... we highly highly highly recommend this one to both newcomers and devotees alike! (PLG518789) CD: 16.98

Mercedes Sosa
Mi Historia
 Like 30 Años, this is another wonderful compilation of 12 of her most magnificent tracks. In fact, as on many of her best retrospectives, there's some overlap between the 2 discs, but for the die-hard Sosa fan, both titles are required! It includes an unsurpassable live version of the Violeta Parra-penned Gracias a la Vida, a live duet with an unnamed collaborator on Si Se Calle El Cantor (we assume it's probably the songwriter, Horacio Guarany), title tracks to previous albums such as La Maza and Yo Vengo a Ofrecer Mi Corazon — love the depth of her lower registers here; Al Jardín de la República, and more. Highly recommended, again. (PLD539110) CD: 15.98

Nana Mouskouri
Nana Latina
 Probably the best-selling female artist of all time (she has sold over 800 million albums!), this Greek diva of the famous square black glasses — who was born with only one vocal cord — is known for her repertoire of love songs in many languages. Featuring a duet each with Mercedes Sosa and Julio Iglesias, this 1996 all-Spanish release includes Violeta Parra's Gracias a la Vida as well as other songs familiar to us Mercedes Sosa fans, such as Alfonso y El Mar. (MER534102) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Hot Organization
Red Hot & Latin/ Silencio=Muerte
 Some of the most exciting and influential artists of the Americas offer their voices in song on this 1997 recording that helps raise money and awareness to stop the spread of HIV. This is an eclectic collection of musical genres uniting for a common cause, breaking the silence surrounding AIDS in Latin America: Melissa Etheridge sings her popular U.S. song, Wherever To Go, in Spanish (!) while Sepultura performs a techno-punk grunge version of Bob Marley's War which concludes this powerful compilation. Don't miss Los Lobos and Fishbone who also appear on this album! (PLG341005) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Soledad Bravo
Chants du (Songs of) Venezuela 0521
 One of the most beloved vocalists in South America, this Spanish-born singer (whose family fled Franco's oppressive regime and emigrated to Venezuela) has an enchanting, deeply resonant but clear-as-a-bell voice — similar to Joan Baez, but often a good octave lower. She is accompanied by cuatro and bandola, traditional Colombian and Venezuelan stringed instruments, as well as harp and percussion. Song styles range from traditional Golpe (based on a melodic theme that is repeated and varied), Portuguese and African fúlas, traditional work songs and lullabies — tied together by her voice which cuts right through and breaks your heart a little. She makes any language barrier a moot issue, this import recording is absolutely majestic and very highly recommended! (BUD92544) CD: 18.98

Susana Baca
The Soul of Black Peru 2457
 Her voice first revealed to the world at large on the compilation The Soul of Black Peru (and later on Divine Divas), Susana presents her 1997 full-length worldwide debut, heralding not only the return of an evocative voice, but the arrival of a veritable cultural treasure. She has dedicated herself to the preservation of the history and culture of her people, African-descended Peruvians. Tender, melancholic, rhythmic and poetic, her material ranges from contemporary to centuries old, reflecting a unique blend of African, Spanish and Caribbean music. (LB46627) CD: 16.98

Tish Hinojosa
Aquella Noche 0449
 Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist / singer / songwriter / guitarist brings an emotional integrity to her work that readily surpasses that of your average "folk singer". This live recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide line-for-line English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Pasaes, Vuelvete (You Who Can, Return — the Atahualpa Yupanqui classic anthemized to beautifully by Mercedes Sosa), her original waltz Manos Huesas Y Sangre (Hands, Bones and Blood, for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Buy this recording — you won't be disappointed, we promise! (WAT1006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists/ Maria Teresa Vera
A Maria Teresa Vera (CD/Book Set)
 This deluxe 1996 edition (for which you pay no extra for this lavish 80-page biographical booklet, in English and Spanish) pays homage to Maria Teresa Vera, the grand figure of Cuban song, in honor of the 100th anniversary of her birth. Fellow Cubans Omar Portuondo, Angelica Frago, Jacqueline Castellanos, and Gema y Pavel, along with Spanish musicians such as Uxa and Maria Selgado (all fabulous musicians in their own right, making this a must-have anthology anyway) have given life to 17 songs from the repertoire of one of the greatest representatives of the traditional Trova. Of these, 7 were original compositions, although some had never been recorded previously. In honoring her, these musicians have created a beautiful collection which is much more than a tribute to 1 person — Maria Teresa Vera is song, and this set shows why. Highly recommended! (JNM3193) CD: 16.98

Various Artists
Women of Tango NEW!
 Here are the great female voices of tango! This 1999 compilation features 15 different women vocalists from Argentina, recorded with various orchestras during the 60's, 70's and 80's. If you are a tango aficionado, this passionate and dramatic collection (along with a long-term rose) is a must! (HEM96412) CD: 15.98

Various/ Holding Up Half the Sky
Voices of Latin Women
 This 1998 release is a most impressive collection by some of the most important female Latin singers of the past 30 years. Tracks by Celia Cruz, Abita, Lydia Mendoza, María Teresa Vera, La India Meliara, and many others — from Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Peru, etc. — are bound to appeal to all world music fans, and the biographical information in the notes gives a broad background to this important genre. (SHN60014) CD: 16.98

Virginia Rodrigues
Sol Negro
 From Salvador de Bahia, the heart of Brazilian music, this amazing artist was discovered by Caetano Veloso, who actively participated in bringing together this 1997 recording as musical director. While the pure tone of Virginia's voice (whose mother was a vendor in the São Joaquim market) is often associated with more classical styles such as choro, operas, masses, lieder and spirituals, she renders beautifully this repertoire of Brazilian classics: the well-known poignant Manha de Carnaval, plus songs by Caetano Veloso, Dorival Caymmi and others. Guest appearances by Brazilian music greats Milton Nascimento and Gilberto Gil are an added treat. Watch for her US tour! (HAN1425) CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac
Legend of the Sun Virgin
 Set your ears a-tingle with this album, which was released after the phenomenal success of Voice of the Xtabay. Boiling over with lavish excitement, Yma recounts the stories of the virgins who guarded the Incan temple of the Sun god. At least, I think that is what the swooping, diving and soaring tracks (e.g. Kanbe Taki, Witallai, Zana and Coon Canastay) are about. Yma has the power to "talk with the birds, the beasts, the winds, the sounds of life and nature" with plenty of fire left over to blow your mind. Big strings and drums and Yma's fascinating vocal pyrotechnics. I can ask for no more out of my hi-fi! (TRF91250) CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac
Mambo! 0561
 This time we're on the dance floor; the horns blow and the rhythms move your hips, working little-used muscles. The floor is parquet, perfume and smoke fill your nostrils, the only light comes from torches whose flames cast heat and dark shadows which crawl across your partner's face. On this release from her (and mambo music's) heyday during the 1950's, Yma sizzles and sears, on songs written by South American composer Moises Vianco and arranged by Billy May. More fun and exciting than should be legal... Once you listen, Yma fever will grab hold and never let go, you have been warned! (TRF80863) CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac
Voice of the Xtabay
 The rediscovery of Yma Sumac is a wonderful thing, but the English language is an inadequate tool to describe either her music or the eternally exciting experience of listening to her. Her identity is shrouded in mystery: either she was born in the village of Ichocan, Peru, a direct descendent of the last of the Incan Kings, or she was and is not. The songs she sings are either traditional Incan hymns and ceremonial songs or they are not. I personally think it's best not to know. The only incontrovertible fact is that she amazes! Her voice swoops through 4 or 5 octaves; she sings operatically one moment and then makes guttural or piercing otherworldly noises the next. This album combines two different classic records of the 50's: Voice of the Xtabay and Inca Taqui. It has not, does not, and conceivably will not get any better than Yma — she breathes life and color and excitement into the most hum-drum of days! (TRF91217) CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac
The Spell of Yma Sumac/ Double Play NEW!
 We now bring back this double-length cassette at an unbeatable price! This unique artist, one of a kind, long's influences as she was preparing to record Ingenue, displays absolutely phenomenal vocal range on this dramatic, operatic 1967 release. It contains songs in both Spanish (with distinct flamenco influence) and native Incan language: Accha Taqui (Chant of the Chosen Maidens), Sumac Soretina (Beautiful Jungle Girl), Xtabay (Lure of the Unknown), and more. Limited quantity! (PR1172) CS: 6.98

Celtic ~ British Isles

Abby Newton

Crossing to Scotland

0677

If you swoon over the exquisite tones of a perfectly-played cello, and/or if you have appreciated Abby's long-time accompaniment for two of Scotland's premiere musicians — singer Jean Redpath and fiddler Alastair Fraser — this is for you! Her 1997 debut solo release of Celtic chamber music ranges from the sprightly to the uplifting to the sublime, presenting the cello at the rhythmic heart of traditional Scottish tunes. Traditionally the favored instrument in Scotland for accompanying dance fiddlers, the cello is hereby brought back into the fold under her skilled guidance. From the evocative Catskill Mountain Air to the jaunty Independence Trail (composed by producer Alastair Fraser), this album features a stellar ensemble of guest musicians. Very highly recommended! (CUL110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Mysts of Time

This delicate and "mystic" 1996 album, subtitled Chants and Melodies of the Ageless Celtic Lands, intertwines the loggy neath with a church above. Aine (pronounced On-ya) interprets plainsong (Christe Redemptor), traditional Celtic religious (both the Christian I N Gaoi De and the pagan Keening Song) and secular music (Ariach Cuim), as well as originals honoring the goddess Brigs. Accompanied by guitar, cello, tabla, fiddle, cello, bodhran, mandolin, Irish pipes and a wonderfully rich chorus, her harp and vocal music is lush yet airy, a very lovely feast. (NS0083) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Aine Minogue, DruidStone, et al

Celtic Spirit: North Star Sampler

NEW!

This 1999 anthology compiles 12 songs from 4 excellent albums, 2 of which you'll find described herein: Irish harpist/vocalist Aine Minogue's The Mysts of Time; DruidStone's The Vase, as well as 2 fine instrumental releases by Jay Artists, Kingsway's Come Join the Dance, and Steve Schuch & The Night Heron Consort's Crossing Waters. The tracks flow beautifully and serenely from one to the other. (NS0115) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Altan

The Best of Altan

9002

This 1997 release collects 9 songs and 7 tunes from this much-heralded Dublin-based quintet's last 5 albums. Drawing on the wide variety of traditional Irish dance music, they play jigs, reels, hornpipes, German strathspeys, mazurkas and highlands. Special bonus: the CD comes with a free limited-edition extra CD of Altan recorded live in Germany in January 1989. (GL1177) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Lister

A Flame in Avalon

We have been hearing about this British singer/songwriter for many years now (she wrote the beautiful song Gemeter's Daughter covered by Grace Griffith), so we are pleased to be able to offer you this 1995 recording. Her songs stem from myths and legends and have their roots in traditional Celtic story telling. With "massed choir" harmonies by Mary McLaughlin (and on some songs by herself), the simple yet moving songs are filled out by her acoustic guitar, harp, whistle, pipes, drone, Scottish small pipes, bouzouki and mando-cello. Highlights are The Goddess and the Sea (a retelling of the legend of Iranus, the gateway to the land of Faerie Hawthorn), and the faithful search in the title track. (HF003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anuna

Anuna is a unique Irish choir of young women and men (average age of 25) who dress in black and perform a broad span of Celtic, chant-like music, much of it steeped in medieval tradition. Their whistles, other worldly, almost pagan sounds have been described as "a message for the soul," and their live performances, often held in churches, regularly draw a devout following. They have worked with the likes of Sinéad O'Connor, Sting, and Maire Brennan of Clannad. Their 1993 debut release includes Invocation, Sanctus, Cant and St. Mary. Fagh An Gles, and many more with equally evocative titles, and an even more evocative sound — very recommended! (CH82733) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Omnis

This 1997 release marks a return to the original acoustic sound of the debut recording, but expanded and broadened, from the gentle simplicity of Maria Materem Virginem, to the exultation of Salve Rex Glorie. The texts and music span a millennium, and the pure, fresh and unique spirit ambience produced by this Irish choir (which has garnered worldwide renown because of their involvement with Riverdance) makes these ancient melodies and words live again. (CH83088) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Black Family

The first release by Mary plus her 4 siblings, her sister Frances, and her brothers Martin, Shay, and Michael (and we learn that they come from a long line of musicians and vocalists, with wide repertoires — no great surprise, really). They alternate lead on the vocals, then join together on some of the most exquisite harmonies to be heard in all of folkdom. Songs are a delightful mixture of original, traditional, and familiar songs of love, life and history; some favorites include Tomorrow is a Long Time, The Bramble and the Rose, plus traditionalists like The Ploughboy Lads, Colcannon, Wit Ye Gang, Love Donkey Riding, and more. An absolute must-have for Mary Black fans! (BLX10019) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Beautiful Wasteland

Recorded in the mountains of Andalusia in southern Spain (a land that bridges the UK and Africa), under the glow of Comet Hale-Bopp, this 1998 release is truly a World Music album: Karen Matheson's thrillingly pure voice sings Celtic and English lyrics accompanied by the African female duo Hias del Sol (formerly called Sibebe), creating a wondrous convergence of African and Celtic rhythms, traditional and modern melodies, ancient mouth music and avant ambient textures. This joyful clash of cultures makes for this fan's favorite album since their Delirium (RYK441) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sidewalk

0035

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoires. 4 of the 5 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty, one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to, another is a wonderfully spirited "waulking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a lathe and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums, in the meantime, enjoy her on this 1995 release! (GL1994) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Carreg Lafar

Ysbryd y Werin/Spirit of the People

0062

Dirty Linn Folk & World Music Magazine said, "Carreg Lafar might just have done for Welsh music what early Steeleye Span did for English folk. The sound may be acoustic, but there's enough electricity crackling through this to light the Rhonda Valley!" On this 1995 album, this Welsh quintet (2 women, 3 guys) presents mostly traditional material with much spirit, indeed. Love the vocals by Linda and Arwen; notes in Welsh and English. Recommended! ## Cathy Palmer

Fiddler Play the Light

Here's a new category for you: "Celticlectic!" This 1996 debut solo recording from Connemara's fiddler blends the lyricism of Celtic melodies with the elegance of a chamber ensemble and the diversity from "world music" instruments (chimes, Tibetan Singing bowl, cello bodhran, dargendoo, and tamboura). Cathy is joined by Connemara's harper Mary Fitzgerald, Elise Kress (founding member and vocalist of The New St. George, playing flute and penny whistle), and Jody Marshall (of Ironweed, playing hammered dulcimer and keyboard). They enjoyed recording the album so much that they have formed the folk music group Moonfire! Includes the Indian-esque original Ceoloidhe (Song of the Heart), the "marriage" of a Shetland air and Pachelbel's Canon in D transforming into Kanon in De Stock Light, and a variety of pleasing hybrids from the Celtic tradition. ## Ceoltóirí

Women of Ireland

Through the mystical resonance of strings and winds, this trio of talented women takes you on a journey to the barely visible past. With Celtic harp, hammered dulcimer, Uilleann pipes, Irish flute, pennywhistle, button accordion, medieval percussion and Irish-Gaelic vocals, this 1998 release explores (mostly) traditional and (a few) contemporary Celtic tales and tunes about women that span a magical soundtrack from Celtic memory. Includes the title track, Mná na hÉireann (Women of Ireland) (MM218) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ceredwen

O'r Mabinogi: Legends of the Celts

0602

Long ago, when Britain was known as the "Island of the Mighty" (Ynys Prydein), the land was ruled by many different tribes, known as the Celts, united by a common religious leadership held by the Druids. Storytellers recounted the heroic deeds of their kings and queens, weaving into the tales the myths of their goddesses and gods. These stories, "Mabinogi," were passed on from generation to generation, until they were written down in medieval times and translated from the original Welsh in the last century. On this lush 1997 release, the duo Ceredwen (Rheer Gray and Andrew Fyfe) masterfully crafts the Mabinogi into an exquisite, ancient-yet-contemporary musical journey, sung by Rheer in Welsh (her first language), shrouded in mystery yet at the same time hauntingly familiar. Their name is derived from the Celtic goddess of inspiration, also known as the "Keeper of the Cauldron." Recommended for fans of Clannad and Enya — unlike many recent imitations, this has its roots in the real thing! (RLN9333) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cherish the Ladies

At Home

This acclaimed all-female traditional Irish music ensemble has gathered a host of friends and family for a raucous musical house party! Their 1999 release is a collection of soulful songs and high energy reels, inspired by the band's illustrious Irish musical heritage. With a great mix of original compositions and traditional Irish folk songs (such as Is fada dom uaim i uaim / I Long For Her), they pay tribute to all of their individual inspirations and musical roots. The 6 women are joined by guest performers such as The Clancy Brothers and fiddling sensation Eileen Ivers. (RCA83377) CS: 15.98

One & All: The Best of...

9051

Led by flute and whistle master Joanie Madden, this all-female ensemble has grown from a 1-time concert concept to an Irish traditional music sensation for over a decade. Their spectacular blend of virtuosic instrumental talents, beautiful female vocals, and captivating arrangements are captured at their best on this 1999 hour-long collection. Treat yourself to the talents of singers Cathie Ryan and Aoife Clancy, fiddlers Winifred Horan and Siobhan Egan, a slew of box players, and the irreplaceable Joanie Madden. ## Chieftains w/Various Women Artists

Tears of Stone

This 1999 concept album, featuring many women guest artists and focusing on the many facets of love from a woman's perspective, is a powerful exploration of love and the emotions it evokes: joy, regret, pleasure and pain. The list of participating female vocalists is breathtaking: Loreena McKennitt, Sinéad O'Connor, Diana Krall, The Rankins, Bonnie Raitt, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Joni Mitchell, Magdalena Laundries, about the unnamed pregnant women who were basically enslaved inside convents as recently as the past few decades; Natalie Merchant, Joan Osborne, Anuna. Sissel (you've heard her on the Titanic soundtrack)... and for instrumentalists, you'll revel in hearing Eileen Ivers, Natalie MacMaster, and Maire Breabach. The individual pieces are blended together by the signature sound of the Chieftains, a man's instrumental ensemble, resulting in a cohesive combination of modern and traditional elements. It's a masterpiece, highly recommended! (RCA88968) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Clannad (with Enya)

Fuaim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire N. Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Garán and Pól, and their 2 uncles, Pádraig and Noel O'Duignan. Ethne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. Pronounced "foam" and meaning "sound," this 1981 release (the only complete Clannad album with Enya) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional: you will hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 5-part genetic harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (ATL82481) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Clannad Landmarks

This 1998 release combines the lush, engaging sounds and traditional Celtic stylings which, when combined with a contemporary sensibility, is the ensemble's trademark. Includes Let Me See and An Grian, with spare but melodic piano touches and melancholy guitar lines. A Mummer's O' with quick fluid rhythms and a bodhran-driven call to dance, and Bridge of Tears, highlighted by an inspired and seamlessly stirring vocal performance by Maire Brennan. (ATL83083) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Connemara Beyond the Horizon

This DC-area trio performs beyond all expectation, beyond what can be described as beautiful, beyond your wildest dreams! Simply, one of the finest Celtic recordings we've received. Vocalist Grace Griffin breathes warmth and life into the carefully chosen and expertly arranged songs — the emotional resonance she creates is the closest to the incomparable Sandy Denny's that this reviewer has heard! Ace fiddler Cathy Palmer and harp virtuoso Tracie Brown round out the strong trio, each delivering award-winning performances. Soulful narrative tales intersperse with sprightly jigs, airs and strathspeys, all of which exude something special. A few interpretations of contemporary Celtic composers Loreana McKennitt (All Soul's Night) and Clannad are included. Highly recommended! (BLX10031) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connemara Siren Song

On this 1995 release from one of our favorite DC-area Celtic-oriented ensembles, all the selections are ocean-related songs about mermaids, songs about legends of the seas, songs about ships, songs about sailing. Harper Sue Richards contributes her virtuosity to a couple of tracks. Includes Abbie's Music Box, Witch of the Waves, Dublin Lady, The Mermaid's Tale, and Ripples in the Rockpool, one of the best (and bubblest, speaking of water) tunes from their debut cassette, The Tempest. (BLX10031) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover If Ever I Return

In the interests of full disclosure, Connie is my favorite artist in that overwhelmed-by-quality Celtic vocals genre. So, I am happy to report that this 1997 release is verily wonderful. She thoroughly researches each song and the results make for timeless music that is firmly grounded in its historical and cultural context. Continuing to draw on many cultures for her music, Connie sings the simple, crystalline 19th century Scottish ballad Lady Keith's Lament, the full Enya-ish Gaelic Fear an Bhrata (The Boatman), along with the happy penny whistle in Peggy and The Soldier, the self-harmonized French 18th c. La Fontaine, the traditional Appalachian Shady Grove, and her own environment alert Who Will Comfort Me. She is joined by instrumentalists from Boys of the Lough, Capercaille, Wolfstone and Battlefield Band. All this and she releases her albums on her own record label Go. Connie! (TPM0301) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scarlatina, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scottish/Irish bands Silly Wizard, Capercaille and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover The Wishing Well

With Connie's second album, she's achieved the goal all artists seek — she's topped herself! A bit more upbeat than her debut, this 1993 release once again offers a magical mix of songs from Scotland, Ireland, and America; her voice is rich and clear, her phrasing delicate, and the pure acoustic backing is a collection of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland's and Ireland's finest traditional musicians. (TPM0201) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cusan Tan Kiss of Fire

Cassettes now on sale on this hard-to-find title! Cusan Tan is an incredible Welsh ensemble (2 women, 5 men) whose name translates "Kiss of Fire," and their album is different — magical — captivating — entrancing! Some intricate vocal harmonies by their flutist and primary songwriter, Ann Morgan Jones, and alto Sue Jones-Davies (whose other claim to fame is that she played Judith, Jesus' girlfriend, in Monty Python's Life of Brian), these two women, both from Aberystwyth in Wales, are the group's founders. With instruments that include guitar, cello, and Welsh triple harp, they create a sound which is a heart-breaking combination of Celtic traditional, neo-traditional and classical, yet fresh and unique. Even the spellings of the Welsh words evoke a sense of mystery and magic. Very highly recommended! (FAM15002) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Dolores Keane The Best of Dolores Keane

Top of the charts in Ireland, first released in the US in 1997, this album by the spectacular, mesmerizing vocalist contains 13 classic songs, including Never Be the Sun (with additional vocals by Emmylou Harris), Life Machine, Galway Bay, My Love Is in America. (BLX10038) CS: 11.98 CD: 18.98

Dordan Celtic Aire

Reminiscent of the early recordings by the Chieftains, Dordan transcends time and traditions by breathing new life into Ireland's rich musical past. Four women from County Galway come together to bring the musical heritage of Turlough O'Carolan to the present day with elegance and vitality. On this 1999 release, they bridge the traditional and the classical with sinuously played Irish airs and reels, balanced delicately with original songs and engrossing arrangements of compositions by Handel and Mozart. (NA47801) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

DruidStone The Vow

This 1999 collection from Anna Minopius's ensemble, subtitled An Irish Wedding Celebration, features Irish songs of love and commitment from a variety of sources: some new, some old, some vocals, others strictly instrumental. My personal favorite is The Fair Hired Youth, a beautiful and moving air from County Armagh. The insert gives a brief description and history of each song, and includes lyrics in Gaelic and English. This disc covers a lot of Celtic ground and can be appreciated by many; you may even find the perfect selection for your own commitment ceremony! (NS0113) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Emer Kenny

The uniqueness of this Dublin-based artist's evocative ethereal voice — its purity, clarity and depth — blended with modern grooves, makes her 1997 debut release one of the most unusual Celtic derivatives we've heard. Among her original songs, Sídhéan is a powerful tribute to the modern meeting of the ancient; Una suggests musical links with North Africa; Amhrán na Leabhair is a song of the dispossessed; Jose pays tribute to both urban hip hop grooves and poppy Irish reels. Accompanied by her own delicate harp plus Uilleann pipes, beautiful violins, flute and percussion, Emer's performances create images of an Irish landscape infused with feelings of sadness, loneliness, redemption and love; recommended! (TRL8228) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "thickly" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of new silks), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all entwining around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art... Highlights include the Gaelic Ebuda and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya The Celts

This is Enya's debut album (previously issued under the title Enya), and it's truly glorious, multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. The artist is definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice, complemented by Uilleann pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! 1986. (REP48681) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many vocal textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at it lost for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! 1988. (REP26774) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya The Memory of Trees

This long-awaited follow-up to Shepherd Moons has been four years in the making, and the result is a haunting, mysterious, supernaturally beautiful 1995 album that finds her artistry in full flower. As we have come to expect, Enya herself plays virtually all the instruments and self-harmonizes all the parts, and once again, she recorded with her long-time producer Nicky Ryan. Songs include Anywhere Is, Pax Deorum, Athair ar Nearn, Tea-House Moon, La Sonadora. (REP48106) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Enya Paint the Sky w/Stars: Best of Enya

This 1997 release collects many of the artist's best-loved songs (including Orinoco Flow, Caribbean Blue, Storms in Africa, Shepherd Moons, Watermark, The Memory of Trees, Book of Days, The Celts) from 4 previous albums, plus 2 newly recorded (and ravishingly evocative) songs: Only If... and Paint the Sky with Stars. (REP48835) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Fiona Ritchie/Various Artists Best of the Thistle & Shamrock

No other single human has done as much as this National Public Radio personality to familiarize the US listening audience with the breadth and depth, variety and beauty of Celtic music. Her familiar Scottish brogue is heard each week on over 350 stations, and her taste is acknowledged as the finest. This 1999 release, her first volume of personal favorites from her show's first 15 years, includes tracks by Maura O'Connell, Clannad, Altan, Sileas, Relativity, Pierre Bensusan, and more... traditional and contemporary, simple and intricate, gentle and powerful, melancholy and joyful, the instrument and the human voice all combining to tell a story... recommended! (H511110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanie Madden Song of the Irish Whistle

While we've always been fond of the instrumental music by this reigning queen of the Irish in whistle, we were unprepared for the achingly intense beauty of this 1995 release. Whether she's drawing out wistful, sweet ballads or tripping through bright-eyed dances, her dazzling musicality will alternately set hearts afire, and then melt them! The lush arrangements, featuring world-class musicians like fiddler Eileen Ivers, percussionist Glen Velez, and fretless bassist Dave Anderson, counterbalance her primary instrument which might otherwise sound sparse and minimalist in other musical settings. Includes Women of Ireland and The Mountain of Women (Siabh Na Mban); notes by Fiona Ritchie of the PBS radio show, The Thistle and Shamrock; highly recommended! (H511060) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!) Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Betty MacNeill, Blind Mary. Hammered dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan consort — an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitarist, a flutist, a violinist, and harpist Sylvia Woods — all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended! (DM102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter Celtic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Defense of Guenevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. 1984. (SG123) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter Changes Like the Moon

This very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording contains selections based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: The Robe of Feathers and The Silkie. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this 1986 release is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful debut. (SG147) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Price Deep Hearts' Core

Lorena McKennitt fans, take note! This contralto, who has been described by some reviewers as one part gypsy and one part fairy, presents a repertoire which is influenced by both Celtic and Slavic musical and literary traditions, as well as traditional ballads from Europe and the British Isles. On her 1995 release, Kate merges Celtic music with other world music rhythms from Bulgaria and Sweden, making for a most interesting musical travelogue! Multi-layered vocals are beautifully blended with ethnic instruments in a western motif, played by virtuosos such as Paul McCandless and Taja Bati. Contains 7 vocals and 5 instrumentals; songs include Red Sweet Nymph, Places of Spirit, and Sleepers of Dreams. (ACC500) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Rusby

Hourglass
This former child prodigy has an extraordinary grasp on the spirit and feel of traditional folk music, and yet still somehow manages to make each song her own. Also a member of the 4-woman Celtic group The Prodigies, her 1997 solo release has been the UK's top-selling traditional folk album, and is now available in the US. As you listen, notice how the beauty of the Celtic and British folk songs in her repertoire blend in perfectly with her own compositions. From epic sagas (Annan Waters) to sweet love songs (Radio Sweethearts), she delivers a constantly expressive and enchanting performance. Recommended! (CMS4255) CD: 15.95

Kate Rusby & Kathryn Roberts

"These young women are guardians of a future for this music," says John Tams, and he is exactly right — these two singers have a fresh, young approach to traditional music, and yet sing with the wisdom and fortitude of veterans. Their voices weave together like gossamer on these 10 tracks of Celtic and British Isles folk songs, backed by a gentle combination of traditional folk instruments — guitar, flute, violin, cello, and piano — bringing to mind some early June Tabor/Maddy Prior collaborations. You'll easily see why this exquisite collection was named "Album of the Year" by Folk Roots Magazine. Highly recommended! (CMS4270) CD: 15.95

Katie McMahon

After the Morning
Riverdance fans will recognize this voice from the lead singer of that production, and the other 8 of us who have missed the show are in for a treat. With her ethereal voice, she performs lively and beautiful tunes, primarily traditional (but including a performance of Heartland, her favorite song from the show). With clean arrangements and simple accompaniment, this 1995 album is a pleasure. (PAR031) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson, Joemy Wilson, et al

Celtic Forest
Joemy Wilson, Kim Robertson, and Anissa Angarola all present magical selections on their respective instruments — hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and classical guitar — on this 1997 collection of traditional Celtic melodies, culled from several Dargason releases. They all share technical virtuosity as well as a love for this ancient music, and this anthology will transport you on a wonderful journey through the forests of the British Isles. Includes The Gentle Maiden, Fanny Power, Dance of the Lambs. (ETT700) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Liz Knowles

The Celtic Fiddle of Liz Knowles
Perhaps you saw this showstopper soloist with Riverdance, or caught her performing with Paula Cole, or Ensemble Galil, or the John Whelan Band, or the Sirius String Quartet sometime, or perhaps you've heard the album The Celtic Rose by Tri na Oig, she's half of that duo. She's a great fiddler and composer too, as this 1998 solo debut proves. Liz grew up in Kentucky surrounded by music, and she now plays her role-model grandmother's violin; her mother played the bagpipes, and her grandfather sponsored her with Celtic traditional and original repertoire; her music is infused with depth, pathos and beauty, as well as high spirit. She's backed by guests Joanie Madden, John Whelan and others. (LYR7444) CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Elemental
This extremely talented musician/vocalist must have been incarnated just to bring the music of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1995 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and V.E. Years set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Canterbury, She Moved Through the Fair. Harp, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Parallel Dreams
This 1999 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection, from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Amieche Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Bellare Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's explanation of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music; highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

Live in Paris and Toronto
In her first-ever full-length live album, Loreena presents a lavishly packaged, audiophile-quality double live CD. Recorded on European and North American tours in '98, it contains 17 songs and over 100 minutes of music, including all of The Book of Secrets (and its supporting cast of musicians) and the best-loved tracks from previous albums, such as The Lady of Shalott, The Bonny Swans, The Mystic's Dream and All Souls Night. All proceeds will be donated to the water safety charity The Cook-Rose Memorial Fund For Water Safety. This was originally released only in Canada, and we're glad we can now oblige the many fans who've been calling us looking for this! (VLY15045) 2-CD: 24.98

The Book of Secrets
At long last, Loreena presents an album with similar textures to The Mask and Mirror, by far her best work previous to this one! Inspired by experiences as diverse as a journey on the Trans-Siberian Express and a visit to an ancient Italian monastery, this 1997 release is a musical gateway to an era long past. She writes, "The songs on this recording have been assembled like a mosaic, with disparate pieces collected from many places and lined together one by one. I was inspired by both my own travels to Greece and Turkey, and the resonances of the journeys of others encountered in my research." Features one of our favorite cellists, Caroline Lavelle, and includes The Mummer's Dance, Marco Polo, and Dante's Prayer. Rich, complex, full of beauty and mystery, and always highly recommended. (WB46719) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

The Mask and Mirror
On this sagely-awarded 1994 release, Loreena combines her Celtic influences with world music to create a magical work of deep beauty and profound mystery. She says, "I looked back and forth through the window of 15th century Spain, through the hues of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and was drawn into a fascinating world: history, religion, cross-cultural fertilization." Blending harp and fiddle with electric guitars and exotic percussion, mixing traditional songs with musical settings of Shakespeare and Yeats, this is a dazzling kaleidoscope of feelings unified by the intensity of her voice. Contains The Mystic's Dream, The Dark Night of the Soul, Marrakesh Night Market, The Bonny Swans, Full Circle; instruments include oboe (played by virtuoso Orla Hainey!), bouzouki, bodhran, tamboura, dumble, oud, balalaika, liljeann pipes and more. Highly recommended as usual! (WB45420) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Loreena McKennitt

The Visit
This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Childe, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Souls Night and the instrumental Tango To Europa, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album: hear the Italian lute coloring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greenleeves. And her indescribably musical rendition of Tennyson's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments; great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new age vocal Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB25880) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Macha Tri

The Bear Dance
This female Celtic trio, named after a trinity of ancient Irish goddesses, hails from St. Paul, Minnesota. Multi-instrumentalist Laura Mackenzie plays a 19th-century wooden concert flute, tin whistle, English concertina, Scottish snarepipes, medieval greatpipes, border half-long bagpipes, and somehow manages to have breath left over to sing. Patricia Pako does piano, oboe, shakers, tambourine and bell duties and Mag McDermott rounds it out on fiddle and harmony vocals. On this 1996 recording they mix the musical traditions from all over Ireland and the British Isles, playing both traditional and Laura's originals, and come up with a whole new bagpipe! (SNT1001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior

Memento: The Best of Maddy Prior
On this 1985 retrospective from one of Britain's foremost folk divas, the 18 tracks are drawn mostly from 5 albums representing her solo career, although Doffin Mistress and Grey Funnel Line are from her collaboration with June Tabor on Silly Sisters. Fans will be pleased to know that the latter track served as the theme song to Sirens, a 1994 film. Also includes some rare and previously unreleased material. Mohr Zolotora and a new version of Deep in the Darkest Night, Maddy comments that she chose not to include material from Steele's Span and Carnival Band, preferring to represent a seam of work less familiar and largely unavailable. Our fave: Accomplice Still from Changing Winds — worth the price of the album! (PRK23) CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior & Rick Kemp

Happy Families
Here's a bargain-priced Canadian import; this 1991 release contains 13 tracks, most of which are originals. Titles include Mother and Child, Good Job, Newcastle, and title song. If you're a Maddy Prior fan (like some of us here), how can you pass it up at this great price?? (PRG007) CD: 9.95

Maggie Sansone

A Traveler's Dream
Her first solo recording in 4 years — and most interesting one to date — this 1999

release subtitled Celtic Explorations takes this master of the hammered dulcimer in adventurous new directions. With its layered percussion sound drawing on Persian and world music influences, listen to the path of the hammered dulcimer as it followed the migrations of ancient travelers across Asia Minor, to the European continent, and then to North America. You'll hear celebrations of Samhain and Lughnasadh, the seasonal festivals of the ancient Celts, Persian-influenced improvis and Sufi rhythms, music from Northumbria, Scotland, Ireland, Sweden, the compelling rhythmic pulse of metal-struck world instruments (dulcimer, marmba, xylophone, world percussion) combined with fiddle, reed and wind instruments, clarinet, bass clarinet, soprano sax, piccolo. Recommended! ## Maire Brennan

Perfect Time
Also known as the amazing lead singer of Clannad, and Enya's sister, Maire (pronounced Moy-ah) graces us with another solo release in 1998. It combines her ethereal, mesmerizing vocals with a lush, captivating tapestry of sound, often featuring her Celtic harp. Includes songs in both English and Gaelic: Gra Ce, Na Pasa, Heal This Land, Doon Well, The Big Rock and The Big Rock Instrumental. (EPC69143) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

By the Time It Gets Dark
This fan's favorite of Mary's back catalog is finally being re-released in 1994! Hear this indescribably wonderful vocalist sing Kate's song of lost love, Sandy Denny's title song, Joan McColl's song of coalminers, Schoolboys Over. The accompaniment is exquisite, her phrasing impeccable, harmonies made in heaven, arrangements tasteful, and her vocals have that quality which can pierce one's heart. Highly recommended! (GIF10013) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Collected
This 1986 album contains both previously released and unreleased material, many traditional songs with Irish instrumentation (uilleann pipes, bouzouki, fiddle, etc.), including a beautiful Gaelic ballad and She Moves Through the Fair. (GIF10066) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Looking Back
This 1992 release offers 10 songs from 4 of the artist's past recordings, plus 2 new tracks. Highlights include a new duet version with Emily Lou Harris of Only A Woman's Heart (titled out from a compilation album which has become the best-selling album in Irish history), her first single, Soul Sister, plus Elks Island, No Frontiers, Looking Forward, The Loving Time, Vanities, and more. (GUR7718) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Shine

Mary Black

Song for Ireland
A 1993 reissue, in a manner of speaking (with the same title as an earlier release from DeDanann on which Mary sang lead vocals — so, don't get confused!), but this time out it's for a retrospective of Mary's last six recordings. Contains all of her pop/Celtic favorites including The Shadow, The Holy Ground, and Elks Island. (GIF10050) CD: 15.98

Mary Coughlan After the Fall

The words that come to mind when hearing this amazing Irish song interpreter (known in her own country for her outspoken views, progressive lyrics and her political stance) are very unlike those associated with most in her genre: stark, sultry, emotionally intense, deep, bluesy-jazzy, anguished. Perhaps you've heard her on A Woman's Heart 2. Years ago Ladyslipper offered her debut album Tired and Emotional, and we're thrilled she's returning from a long absence with an unusual 1997 collection of songs, whose title is derived from the opening track, Woman Undone. Includes Dorothy Parker's poem set to music, Delirium, Marc Almond's Saint Judy about Judy Garland, Poison Words, a song about physical abuse, and others, honestly and frankly infused with her difficult but transforming life experiences. (BCT01823) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary Jane Lamond Suas e!

You may already know this young Cape Breton singer for her delightful vocal contributions to Ashley MacIsaac's Hi, How Are You Today? On this 1997 album, her first solo work, she weaves a marvelous fusion of traditional Gaelic vocal stylings with modern rhythms, planting herself firmly in the emerging "New Celtic" genre with artists such as Natalie MacMaster, Cape Breton's Eileen Ivers, and MacIsaac. Her rich, distinctive voice is powerful and moving, equally at home in traditional laments or straightforward folk-pop interpretations. Refreshing, delightful, and definitely recommended! ## Mary McLaughlin The Daughter of Lir

0480

We were so taken with the mystical opening track on the anthology Celtic Voices: Women of Song, we told you that it alone was worth the price of the album. Well, it also opens this entire 1994 album by this amazing artist (we've been hoping one would materialize) which combines Irish, ambient, and world beat sounds with her incredible vocal range. It contains mostly original songs which are thematically linked by images of Ireland, Women and the Sea. The title track "was written after watching a television programme on prominent Irish women" and I was struck by the particular quality of spirit they had. The song Motherland uses the allegory of "the poor old woman" who is Ireland: a woman with strength and love who had been battered so much she had reached the point of saying "No more." Eyes of Africa contains gorgeous harmonies... and Seawoman combined with the Hebridean chant Yondah is still the winner here. We have space limitations, so I must stop now. Very recommended! (ROW1) CD: 16.98

Mary McLaughlin & William Coulter Celtic Requiem

In this 1998 release, Mary McLaughlin has crafted a haunting, profoundly moving tribute to the depth of human sorrow, and the hope that can come from its expression. Working with guitarist William Coulter, she has drawn from sources spanning some 1100 years: from Pagan times to Catholicism. The material explores Irish laments: the caoineadh, a keen, the marbha, an elegy for a loved one, and the cumtha, an elegy without words. The sparse yet exquisite backdrop of both traditional and modern instrumentation lends a quiet strength to these ancient and modern Celtic tales of life, death, and the journey of the human spirit. Beautiful and powerful! (WH11314) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary O'Hara Irish Traditional Folk Songs

NEW!

Mary O'Hara is one of the most popular singers in Ireland. On this collection of traditional Irish folk songs, she treats all 29 selections with the same grace, subtlety and simplicity, painting a beautiful portrait of pastoral Ireland. Accompanying herself on harp, she captures to perfection the evasive and delicate style of a true Irish folk singer, which cannot be notated in musical symbols. Includes Down By the Sally Gardens, I Will Walk With My Love, and Hugh Did I Cum. (LEG333) CD: 8.98

Maura O'Connell Wandering Home

At last, we have the much-anticipated 1997 release by Ireland's transplant to the South! The album was made in and inspired by the country of the singer's birth, she unites the influence of her Nashville home with her Dublin roots. Beautiful rich vocals pierce the air as she blends traditional Irish songs with contemporary compositions, interpreting material as diverse as Richard Thompson's Down Where the Drunkards Roll alongside the poetry of WB. Yeats and Nobel Laureate Seamus Heaney. Her fabulous sound will surely thrill anxious fans as well as gather many new listeners. Wholeheartedly recommended! (HAN1410) CD: 15.98

Natalie MacMaster No Boundaries

This 1995 release from the remarkable Cape Breton fiddler focuses on the interpretation and evolution of traditional Scottish fiddle tunes as they are passed through generations of fiddlers around the world. Natalie and her backing musicians skillfully interweave timeless reels, jigs, airs and laments with contemporary instrumentation: drums, keyboard, electric guitar, even synthesizer. The result is strikingly modern, touching on folkrock, jazz/funk, and even country, yet still retaining the essential character of the original Highland fiddle tunes, a unique and engaging look at how past inspiration and present innovation can interact to create the future of traditional music. (ROU7023) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Noirín Ni Riain Celtic Soul

On this 1995 album of songs/meditations recorded with the Paul Winter Consort, Noirín's voice works like the evocative wail and mellifluous trills of Paul Winter's soprano sax. She mixes ancient Celtic tunes with Indian Hindi songs, and finds a surprising kinship between them. The album has a cavernous sound, on which her ethereal voice and the sparse instrumentation — cello, uilleann pipes, guitar, pansuri, supeid (Indian harmonium), sax, synthesizers, tin whistle — create a wonderful and wondrous space. Includes Song of the Pooka (pookas are Celtic faeries)... the classic Down By the Sally Gardens... Ode to Mrs. Bar, a famous Indian female saint, and a Celtic counterpart, Ode to Bridget. Magical, unique, recommended! (LM31) CD: 16.98

The Poozies Infinite Blue

Boasting members such as Kate Rusby and the women from Sileas, The Poozies are the leading female folk ensemble in the UK and Europe. Supplementing a repertoire of traditional and contemporary Scottish, English and Irish compositions with the occasional pop song, these 4 women push the boundaries of Celtic/British Isles folk music. This 1996 recording blends traditional folk instruments with ethereal vocals and the interesting texture of an electro harp, giving their debut release a unique and exciting sound. (CMS4281) CD: 16.98

The Rankins Uprooted

NEW!

The booklet shows a picture of the Rankin family sitting around a table, talking and drinking coffee, and this is exactly the way you can imagine their music beginning. A very clear collaboration is present in this terrific group of musicians: everyone writes, everyone plays, and lead vocals are traded off from song to song. This 1999 collection includes original songs, mixed in with traditional Irish folk songs arranged by the Rankins. The sounds vary from a driving rock beat, to a full orchestral accompaniment, to a beautiful, haunting Gaelic chant. A host of talented musicians joins them — the list of instruments is sometimes longer than the song itself! Includes a stunning version of Bruce Cockburn's One Day I Will. (ROU7027) CD: 15.98

Sileas Play On Light

Pronounced she-lis, Mary MacMaster and Patsy Seddon comprise the Celtic world's #1 voice and harp duo — both are harpers, one plays metal-string, the other gut-string — having been at the vanguard of the revitalization of Scottish music. (They're celebrated singers as well, most notably as half of the acclaimed quartet The Poozies.) This 1999 album, their 4th, is a delicate mix of timeless instrumentals and haunting vocal selections inspired by ancient traditions. Featured are 6 songs in Gaelic and 2 in English, many about or for women, plus an intriguing remake of Bill Withers' R&B classic Ain't No Sunshine. (GL3126) CD: 15.98

Sinead Lohan No Mermald

We like this album! Ever since we heard the opening track Sailing By from A Woman's Heart 2, we've been wanting more of Sinead Lohan, but import costs have kept her out of reach; finally this 1998 release allows listeners on this side of the Atlantic to hear more of this mesmerizing singer-songwriter. Capturing a wide range of human experience and emotion, while blending musical styles ranging from Celtic folk to trip-hop, dreamy to danceable, the result is a powerful and hypnotic album which we recommend to fans of Dar Williams, Maura O'Connell, and Mary Black. (INT90199) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

Susan McKeown Bushes & Briars

This 1998 release is like a luminous mosaic of Celtic stories. Traditional tales of love and emigration, sung in English and Gaelic, assume interesting new depth and dimension, with the incorporation of Eastern rhythms (Sami Chatterjee on tabla and tambura), Seamus Egan's almost Native-tinged whistles and bodhran, and a host of other surprising instruments like French horn, mandocello, bassoon, and tuba! Full of power and grace, her voice is captivating, sensual and beautiful. Her last name is pronounced mick-jone - you don't want to forget it, and you won't once you have heard her! (ALU1008) CD: 15.98

Susan McKeown/C. Ryan/R. Spielberg Mother

This 1999 celebration of Mothers and Motherhood is a collaboration between singer/songwriters Susan McKeown and Cathie Ryan, and pianist/composer Robin Spielberg (with guests like Aimee Minogue and Joanne Madden). Ranging from Celtic Lullabies to a haunting rendition of the chant Ancient Mother translated into Gaelic, to an old song found in a Tilly Olsen collection, to original songs that explore the mother-child relationship, this collection will resonate with every listener — who has had a mother. "Unfortunately not all of our experiences with our mothers were good ones. Often, it is when we get to know our mothers again as adults that we are able to glean these gifts: be they born in pleasure or in pain. Mother is an album both in celebration and healing, for the mother and the child. Reflecting on our mother's lives is implicit to our own personal journey, our search for who we truly are." Recommended! (NS0111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tir na N'og The Black Rose

In Celtic mythology, Tir na N'og is "The Land of Eternal Youth". For our purposes, it is a New York-based instrumental duo featuring Liz Knevel on fiddle and Colleen Donahue on 12-string guitar, cittern and mandolin. Their 1995 debut release includes heart-rending airs such as the weeping solo fiddle title track, Rosin Dubh (that's the Gaelic translation), driving reels, and rollicking jigs — original compositions as well as music from Cape Breton, Scotland, and the US. Unusual touches, like Colleen's lovely solo mandolin on Man Of Steel, which she wrote for her sheet metal worker father, the jaunty old-timey Southern Whiskey Before Breakfast, Gumblin' On Man, Growing Old Woman, and the blues of Nocturne for Cittern and a Fiddle Foray in A make this album stand out from the Celtic crowd. Recommended! (TIR1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists A Woman's Heart

Six Irish women — Mary Black, her sister Frances Black, Maura O'Connell, Dolores Keane, Sharon Shannon and Eleanor McEvoy — each contribute two tracks, some from previous albums. This highly recommended 1998 anthology, subtitled New Scots Music, focuses on music which reflects the fiercely independent Scottish spirit — rooted in tradition but often incorporating contemporary and innovative influences from the world over. Includes tracks by both Karen Matheson and her group Cape Breton, Ashley MacIsaac, Mary Jane Lamond (the most noteworthy vocalist who has toured and recorded w/MacIsaac), the 3-woman 1-man ensemble Tannas which features 2 sister-vocalists, vocalist and highland piper Anna Murray, Dougie MacLean, Brian Douglas with his creative Nelson Mandela's Welcome to the City of Glasgow, and Maura, Crisp and clear, this music will inspire joy, happiness, and definitely dancing! ## Various Artists Celtic Legacy

They've done it again! A 1995 companion to Celtic Odyssey, this exceptional compilation represents a global Celtic journey through the British Isles and beyond. One track which makes this an absolute must-have: a traditional walking song with 4-part harmonies and an extraordinarily beautiful arrangement for harp, accordion, and guitar by the Poozies, a 4-woman Scottish band. Other artists featured are Eileen Ivers, Natalie MacMaster, Maura Braatnach, Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill (accompanied by her sister Tríona), Yvonne MacKenna (of the original Mouth Music), Lucy MacNeil (of the Barra MacKells), and Mary Dillon (of Deante), as well as several male musicians. Clearly much thought and care went into selecting artists, tracks, and sequence, very strongly recommended again! (NA3916) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

This compilation, originally released on the Welsh label Ffiliach Records, features Judd Murphy (of Fernhill), Annie Ebrat, Mairi Smith, and Lillia O'Loone (he's a guy!) performing this very compelling and haunting scapellato expression from 4 Celtic cultures, with its basis in tiered praise poetry. It has grown with us, travelled with us, spoken for us, cried for us, it invites us to dance and get wild, it fills us with pride and emotion." ## Alexis Kochan et al

Paris to Kyiv - Variances 0605
Combining the deepest layers of an ancient culture with elements of newly-composed music, this amazing 1996 release truly spans the bridges of time and geography. It captures the essence of the Ukrainian spirit, weaving together pre-Christian ritual songs and harmonies inspired by folk polyphony with fragments of medieval chant, as well as with contemporary influences from polytonality to jazz in a multi-layered fabric of voices and instruments. One of the goals of singer/producer/culture-maker Alexis Kochan is to de-stereotype and broaden Ukrainian cultural traditions, long relegated to a sometimes-outsidey image of colorfully-clad dancers, here she collaborates with Julian Kyriakou on bandura and vocals, and other instrumentalists on jazz vocal, cittern, Northumbrian pipes and percussion, to create one of the most unusual and evocative of Ladyslipper's offerings. (OLE3) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bisserov Sisters

Music from the Pirin Mountains 0426
If you like Balkan and Eastern European women's singing, this is the REAL STUFF — it's about authentic as it comes, fresh and strong and vibrant, with no edges softened for western ears. This sister duo does the authentic singing characteristic of the Pirin region of Bulgaria where they were born into a musical family. Lubinka sings the first part, Mila and Nedra steadily and tenderly "lay" the second part. All 3 have mastered some musical and percussion instruments, and they are also accompanied by the instrumental trio Karadzovska. Bulgaria was under Turkish rule 1393-1878, and the Turkish influence on the modes (scales) and instrumentation is quite audible. 25 selections, 70+ minutes, informative notes (an ethnomusicologist's dream) recommended! (PAN133) CD: 15.98

Edith Piaf

The Rare Piaf
Edith Piaf's life was a passionate mixture of love, tragedy, mysticism, and art; her soaring voice often masked the pain caused by those who would take advantage of her. On this unusual collection we hear many of her greatest songs from 1950-1962 — including La Vie en Rose and No Regrets — all performed in English, allowing the English-speaking listener to be drawn into a deeper level of the artist's work. It also includes two previously-unreleased cut takes in French that were found by chance in a Paris flea market. A great introduction to her work for new fans, and a must for collectors. (DRG5570) CD: 15.98

Edith Piaf

Very Best of: Voice of the Sparrow 0429
In this world of ever-changing availability on Piaf titles, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (16 songs) and available on CD. Lots of hits, and we hope this 1991 release stays in print longer than 15 minutes. Includes La Vie, L'Amour, La Vie en Rose, Le Vieux Piano, Hymne à L'Amour. (CAP96632) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Irina Mikhailova

Russian Twilight 0619
Of Russian descent, Irina was born and raised in Kazakhstan, a Central Asian republic of the former Soviet Union (it shares a border with China; let us not forget that the USSR was more Asia than Europe — please take out your atlas and locate this now!), home to many Muslims, Greeks, Asians, Russians and Europeans. Her childhood memories recall the sounds of the dombra strings struck by Kazakh elders, bouzuki and clarinet at Greek weddings, prayers by Muslim women in mosques, Mongolian monks chanting and playing Jew's harp. Cypriot melodies, these threads intertwine with Russian stylings to create the multi-ethnic tapestry of her music on the 1997 release. Her beautiful voice (at various times powerful, plaintive, evocative or ethereal) is accompanied by a literal world-full of instruments from India, Egypt, Pakistan, China, Romania, Norway and more. Enthralling and interesting, this is music from where continents and cultures merge, cross-pollinated since the ancient days of Marco Polo's silk route, recommended! (WTP5184) CD: 16.98

Kirile Loo

Saat (Fate) 0617
I used to want to be a diver, and search for buried treasure in old shipwrecks, occasionally I feel like one in my job as catalog editor, when I discover something so unusual and unexpected as this 1994 recording based on ancient magical runic-verse songs from Estonia. The stringed instrument, called a kannel (once made of fish bones and wood, with strings from a maiden's hair, said to have magical powers) sounds similar to the Finnish kantele — and the notes speak of the "common Baltic-Finnic protolanguage" — so when I checked my atlas, I wasn't surprised to see that Estonia is right across a channel from Finland. Other traditional instruments which accompany the haunting, beautiful voice of this artist — who was raised by her grandmother in northern Estonia and sings in several dialects — are the olepik (saw whistle), roopik (reed pipe), jokk (wooden gong), "As timeless as the pineval forests that blanket the Estonian landscape," this 1994 recording is highly recommended to all who desire to stretch their musical exposure — and it is just plain gorgeous to boot. ## Mammas

0659

The power! The electricity! The voices — can the human voice really be this spectacular? Absolutely one of the most haunting, entrancing and exciting pieces we've encountered in a long time — read on! An exquisite blending of Mediterranean cultures, rhythms and textures, it reflects the backgrounds of the 4 incredible women vocalists who make up the ensemble: Lucilla Galeazzi (Italy), Yvona Vei (Greece), Equidada Bares (Spain/Southern France), and Hayel Ayad (Algeria). Lyrics are in their native languages, but above all, it is the intense beauty of the music which will speak to you and move you — the passion, the diva-esque voices (they rotate lead), the ancient to atmospheric acoustic instrumentation (percussion, accordion, charango, bouzouki, violoncello, oboe, oud, violin, rebec, clarinet, and much more). Produced by Philippe Eidel of France, this is way, way recommended! (LB547770) CD: 16.98

Mari Boine Persen

Gula Gula

Mari Boine is Sami (more commonly known as "Lapländers", a term considered derogatory by the Sami), a people native to what is now known as Northern Finland, Norway, Sweden and Russia. As with many aboriginal cultures, maintaining their language and cultural sovereignty in the face of domination by another culture is very difficult, and this 1990 recording communicates thousands of words for each one uttered. Gula Gula means "Hear the Voices of Our Foremothers," and many of the songs reflect an oppressed woman's rage and determination to succeed. Sung in Sami with English translations; it includes Eadrian Baki (To Woman). (CAR2312) CD: 15.98

Marta Sebestyen

The Best of Marta Sebestyen

5094

The soundtrack of award-winning movie The English Patient, featuring the haunting voice of Marta, was as affecting as any of the sand-swept vistas. This 1997 release includes Szerelem, Szerelem (Love, Love) and En Csak Azt Csodálom (Lullaby for Katerina) from The English Patient, and selections from her previous albums, both solo and with the Hungarian ensemble Muzsikás. From traditional renditions of Transylvanian folk songs to gorgeous, intricate modern pieces, Marta transcends ethnic music categories with her mysteriously wonderful voice. (HAN1412) CD: 15.98

Marta Sebestyen and Muzsikás

Morning Star

Incorporating swirling violins, Marta's low-billing vocals and various other traditional Hungarian instruments, this 1997 collection from one of the foremost exponents of Hungarian folk music is intriguing and exceptional. You'll discover similarities in style to traditional Bulgarian folk music, and even some distant connections with Celtic folk music, in this material from Hungarian villages and regions like Szek, Ordogosfuzes, Mers and Transylvania. Ranging from wedding songs to songs about love lost, these gems reflect yet transcend their ancient roots. Some of us here would place this squarely on our top-10-world-music-lists list! (HAN1401) CD: 15.98

Red Hot + Lisbon: Onda Sonora

First off, you need this for a d. lang's Fado Hilaro, alone worth the price of the CD (she should devote her next whole album to this quintessential century-old Portuguese song form). This eclectic mixture of tracks from Portuguese, Brazilian, Cape Verdean, Angolan, and other artists and sources is Red Hot Organization's 1999 release to benefit AIDS research and relief. Names like the Portuguese ensemble Madredeus and Brazilian artists Caetano Veloso appear next to those of David Byrne and the female percussion-ensemble Banda Feminina Dida, while electronic artist such as DJ Soul Slinger spice things up by adding hip-hop and drum 'n' bass beats. The 23 artists in this exciting collection cover the best musical terrain from traditional to contemporary. (BNO107) CD: 16.98

Star of the Sea

0684

Amazing vocalist Sonja Drakulich (2nd generation Serbian) and multi-instrumentalist Jeffery Spitz make up this creative duo, which incorporates elements of medieval European and Arabic music (such as classical Sufi music of Turkey) with the mystery and depth of ambient electronics. Drakulich is singing real lyrics but she intones her Eastern European and Galician dialects in a way that draws your ears towards their musicality rather than their literal meaning. Within her voice, often layered in choirs, she synthesizes Bulgarian, Middle Eastern and Gregorian chant styles entwining them around a percussion bed of frame drums, darbukas and dumbeks... a global symphony spun through minarets and grounded in the earth. This 1997 album is totally exquisite and highly recommended, especially if you like the music of Loreena McKennitt, Dead Can Dance, Vas, Bulgarian Women's Choir, Vox, Adamus, and others who artfully and respectfully combine world cultures and idioms. ### A Mediterranean Odyssey

Reading the liner notes on this 1999 compilation subtitled Athens to Andalusia caused a serious attack of jealousy — I'm so envious of the head Putuayo guy's job! About half of these great tracks from Spain, France, Greece and Italy feature women... among them, it trills with Lucilla Galeazzi from Italy. She's the diva from the Mammas ensemble whose voice makes my heart stop. (I'm beside myself that they're putting out a video and CD, An Italian Odyssey, in fall '99, on which she's featured). If Mediterranean music — with its Arabic, Sephardic, Celtic and gypsy influences — moves you like it does me, you won't be disappointed; here's to wanderlust! (PUT148) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra

Moonsong

Critics and fans have long acknowledged Sheila Chandra as a pioneer in world music — from her legendary work with Monsoon through her bold experiments with lyricless tones and textures: vocal percussion, and minimalist solo voice and drone. This '99 retrospective showcases the extraordinary voice and innovative scope of this imaginative vocalist, with excerpts from her RealWorld albums Abonecronecrone, Weaving My Ancestors' Voices, and The Zen Kiss plus 2 previously unreleased tracks. She seamlessly weaves vocal styles of India, the Arab world, Andalusia, Ireland and such ancient structures as Gregorian plainsong. (RW47164) CD: 15.98

Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice... absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the ornamentation of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Bhajan. She writes, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument — it is the one means of expression used by every culture." The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice — it links all cultures throughout time. (CAR2322) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Anoushka Shankar

Anoushka

This 1998 release is the momentous debut from the 17-year-old daughter of the world-renowned Ravi Shankar. The only artist in the world 100% trained by her famous dad, she has been playing and studying with him since she was 8 and made her performing debut at age 13. Since then she has toured the world with Ravi, playing venues such as Carnegie Hall and Peter Gabriel's World Festival in Seattle. This young woman is uniquely poised to carry forward her father's legacy as one of the most creative and influential figures in world music. (ANG55729) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Choying Drolma and Steve Tibbets

Cho

0590

In the hills above Kathmandu, The Nagi Gompa monastery is home to more than 100 Tibetan nuns, who sing and chant as part of their Buddhist practice of Cho, which involves mentally offering their body as a means of severing ego attachment. Choying Drolma has been a nun there since age 12, born in Nepal of Tibetan exile parents. Jazz guitarist Steve Tibbets heard her and the other nuns singing and, transfixed, recorded their voices. Back in Minneapolis, he added musical accompaniment (including guitar, bouzouki, cello, viol di gamba, violin, bass and percussion) to subtly enhance the music, and sent the exquisite result back as a gift to the nuns. The vocals embody the meditative qualities of Gregorian chants, and Tibbets' musical arrangements are an elegant frame — very effective and unusual, and we highly recommend it! Royalties will go to the nuns, with which Choying hopes to build a college of philosophy for other nuns in Nepal. "So far," she says, "only the monks have the chance to learn all the profound aspects of Buddhist philosophy. I want to create an institute where my fellow nuns can receive an equal education." (HAN1404) CD: 15.98

Dadawa

Sister Drum

0472

Tagged as "The Chinese Enya," this 25-year-old from the Myanmar abandoned carefully-laid plans for a teaching career and went to Tibet to immerse herself in its musical and spiritual culture. The resulting 1995 album is a beautiful and meditative work suffused with Buddhist philosophy; the music resonates and rolls, buoyed by melody and underpinned by a calm, steady beat. Dadawa weaves a lush wall of music and chant and soul and wailing vocals on such tracks as Home Without Shadow and Sky Burial to create a stunning piece of art. (SIR1889) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hasu Patel

Gayaki Sitar

Hasu began learning the sitar at the age of 6, and after many years of study and practice (8-8 hours a day!) she became the first woman to receive a music degree at the University of Baroda in India. She has developed a style of playing the sitar (a droning, buzzing, seasoned-gourd-and-teakwood stringed instrument) called "Gayaki Ang" (Vocal Style), which sounds "as if one were singing through it." On this 1997 release, which is dedicated to Goddess Ma Kali, she plays "Aapso" (slow invocations) presenting the raga in an expressive, meditative mood. Includes the very difficult-to-perform Raga Darbari-Kanad, the popular evening Raga Yaman Kalyan, and the early-morning devotional Raga Bhairavi. (HASUT1) CD: 15.98

Mahealani Uchiyama

Tuahuine Rain

0790

We are told that Tuahuine is "the name of a misty rain famous in Manoa, Oahu," but don't be fooled... this Tuahuine Rain is bright, clear, and quite delightful! A musician, dancer, and teacher of Polynesian performing arts, Mahealani has created a wonderful journey through a wide variety of Hawaiian and Tahitian musical styles — from earthy chants, to energetic traditional percussion, to vibrant harmonies backed with guitar and her own ukelele. Featuring accompaniment by two Bay Area performance troupes, Hui Tahiti Nui and Ka Ua Tahine Polynesian Dance Company, this collection is an excellent introduction to the genre of Polynesian music, and is recommended for dance as well as listening. (DGT1001) CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra/Monsoon

Monsoon with Sheila Chandra

0043

Back in 1982, the band Monsoon, fronted by the young vocalist Sheila Chandra, made major musical waves (and developed a large cult following) with their brilliant bond of traditional Asian music, contemporary western rhythms and avant garde sounds. They coined the phrase "Indipop" to describe their sound. This compilation contains their complete album Third Eye, plus the 8-sides, special Hindi versions and 12" mixes released as singles in the UK. Instrumentation ranges from star, tabla, gamelan and gong to wesp, thirty pury and fire extinguisher! Includes Shakti (The Meaning Of Withen), Indian Princess, Third Eye and Tikka T.V. A true classic; has returned for its first US release. (NER6327) CD: 16.98

Sikkil Sisters

Flute Trio

These 3 renowned female flautists from India have rendered some of the most popular compositions in Karnatic music. The horizontal bamboo flute (venu) has been a part of the Indian musical tradition from the dawn of history. Karnatic music is rich in sruti (fine pitch differences) and gamakas (ornamentation) which are best achieved by skilful fingering techniques, variation of blowing pressure and in the angle of the flute on the lips. The skill and dexterity of this ensemble lies in their playing exquisite gamakas while adhering to the strict rules of the classical style. (KOE084) CD: 16.98

Sister Chan Khong & Thich Nhat Hanh

Drops of Emptiness

Mindfully chosen songs, chants and poetry invite listeners into the sanctuary of the Zen Buddhist practice, with "soothing droplets" to cool the heart. This 1998 release includes the Buddhist hymns and Vietnamese folksongs of Sister Chan Khong, the poetry of the beloved Buddhist teacher Thich Nhat Hanh, and chants performed by the nuns and monks of a Zen monastery in Plum Village, France. In English, French and Vietnamese. (SND003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Voices of Asian Women

Finally released in '99 as a single CD, this collection focuses on great female singers from various Asian cultures: India, China, Japan, Indonesia, Burma, Tibet and more. We're especially happy to see contributions from Sainkho (Republic of Tuva); in addition to Choying Drolma (Nepal, born of Tibetan exile parents) and Yungchen Lhamo (Tibet), Najma (India), Nasida Rai (Java/Indonesia), and several others we hadn't been previously known. It's a great introduction to the diverse musical styles of this continent. (SHN66016) CD: 16.98

Yungchen Lhamo

Tibet Tibet

5062

Like the phoenix rising out of the ashes, so too does the transcending pure voice of Tibet's leading female vocalist rise above the deep, repetitive chants of the Buddhist monks, gently blanketing you with her songs of devotion and love. More graceful and dynamic than the men, Yungchen (which means "Goddess of Song") empowers her songs with such an intense spirituality that it makes you wonder why there aren't more female spiritual leaders. Born and raised in Tibet, the artist's talent and spirituality were nurtured by her mother, grandmother and aunt... at age 25, she trekked over the Himalayas from Tibet to India, to meet and be blessed by the Dalai Lama. Light some incense and listen to this 1996 recording; you may be inspired to meditate or practice your yoga. Shanti! (RW2363) CD: 15.98

Abida Parveen

Best of Abida Parveen

She is considered Pakistan's greatest female singing star, and this 1997 release presents 10 of the best selections from her 20+ albums. With her unique style rooted in Sufi spiritual tradition, she has recorded qawwali music (popularized internationally by Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan); additionally, she has made many recordings in the centuries-old ghazal style, which combines poetry and music, romantic and spiritual love. Her vocal delivery, with its 3-octave range, conveys a depth of emotional expressiveness. And with Parveen in international news lately, we appreciate the opportunity to broaden our own exposure to cultural expressions we did not previously know a lot about; perhaps some of you will too! (SHN4086) CD: 15.98

Doula

In the Garden

Maryam Hassan (born in Egypt) and Roula Said (a Palestinian born in Kuwait) met 4 years ago in an Arabic singing class in Canada where their families emigrated. Finding their talents highly compatible (both are vocalists, Maryam plays the rig and oud, Roula the kanun, daff and darabuka), they joined forces with percussionist Debashis Sinha to explore the rich musical heritage of their cultures. They perform in the Mowashah Tradition, which is a form of Sufi devotional poetry set to music, utilizing a rich vocabulary of modes and rhythms. The music is heartfelt and hypnotic, communicating beyond language barriers. The swooning passion of the women's voices allows one to feel the depths of their praises. For fans of traditional Arabic music or those who enjoy listening to the sounds of spiritual exploration, this 1997 release is a must. (MAR1) CD: 16.98

Fairuz

The Legendary Fairuz

This Lebanese vocalist, who incorporates traditional Arabic music into her style, is one of the best-known female singers in the Arab world. "Others sang of love more than Fairuz did, but each of her songs intrinsically celebrates love." Her voice inspires internal communication of which no tiny particle is squandered on superficiality. Every time you listen to Fairuz you feel that her voice was born just for you. (Duna El Hage) This 1998 release presents performances recorded live during the 1950's, with music composed and arranged by the Rahbani brothers, with whom she has collaborated for 3 decades. (HEM23572) CD: 15.98

Iness Mezal

Berber Singing Goes World

Anyone remember from our pages a totally fabulous now-out-of-print recording by Dyr Djura? Former members Fatma and Maïka Messaoudi, two Paris-based sisters of North African Berber (father) and French-Berber (mother) descent, have created their own lively, captivating, infectious, extremely percussive and entirely danceable mix of traditional rhythms, jazz, folk, and pop. The name means "let them never to despair" and the blues will be the farthest thing from your mind as their exuberant work takes flight and gets your hips swaying. While most songs are original, their Berber heritage informs the language they sing in, the melodies, and some of the instruments, thus bringing to light the contributions of an underrepresented group to the world of music. French import, expensive but worth it, highly recommended! (AUV225068) CD: 18.98

Natacha Atlas

Gedida

On her third recording, this vocalist/dancer once again blends the melodic delicacy and technical refinement of North African music with the digital flow of western dance music to create an undulating, evocative 1999 release. Primarily recorded in Egypt, the lyrics here reflect ancient dreams and innermost emotions. In Bahiam, she sings of "the dreams of girls that have not changed for a thousand years"; and her music is similarly expansive. Its operatic scope is evident not only in the breadth of instrumentation and emotional sweep of songs like Kifaya and Ezzay, but in the majestic Moi Amie La Rose (a lament originally performed by Françoise Hardy). Also includes One Brief Moment, her very first vocal in English. (BBQ1014) CD: 16.98

Hailam

This multi-talented artist, singer, and belly dancer — whose music always provides great accompaniment for this dance form, in case you're looking — grew up in the Moroccan suburbs of Brussels, where she immersed herself in Arab culture while becoming fluent in French, Spanish, Arabic and English. This 1997 release takes influences from a wide range of Middle Eastern and North African music. While Atlas draws heavily on Moroccan styles, featuring Rai vocals, much of the focus elsewhere is on Egypt, ranging from Arabic pop to nasheed songs to more "classical" sounds which are slow and sweet, sweeping and dramatic, haunting and impressionistic. In Arabic, to be Hailam is to be beautiful on the inside, a fitting title indeed. (KOC7581) CD: 16.98

Om Kalsoum

La Diva

No longer living, this remarkable artist (whose name is also written Umm Kulthum, Umm Kulsum, or Umm Koursoum) remains Egypt's and the Arab world's most esteemed vocalist. She sang into her late 70's, performing lengthy concerts with long improvised epic tales, projecting dignity and strength. She never lost the respect of others for having had 4 husbands, an unusual situation for an Arab woman in the 1950s; she basically transcended the boundaries of convention. This is one of hundreds of titles in print. (EMC7243) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Sazlar

Several folks have requested music appropriate for Middle Eastern and belly dancing — here's one we enthusiastically recommend for this purpose! Sazlar consists of 5 women from New Mexico, dancers and dance instructors, who studied Middle Eastern music with world class musicians after deciding they'd like to create live music for dancers. They perform traditional and contemporary music in Greek, Rumanian, Turkish, Arabic, Lebanese, Hebrew, Egyptian, Tunisian and Moroccan styles. All 5 women contribute vocals and play instruments including ney, oud, tez, darbuka, def, tar, violin, guitar, mandolin and claret. Whether you study Middle Eastern dance or not, this music is wonderful to accompany expressive movement of any kind. (SAZ1) CS: 9.98

Unveiled

For their 1997 CD release, this all-women's ensemble from Albuquerque has added a sixth member, who plays the kanun, adding a level of mystical depth to their music. It features over an hour of Turkish and Arabic music, with some long medleys specially designed for dance. Includes the 17-minute Egyptian Dance Set, the 22-minute Turkish Dance Set, and 4 other vocative tracks. Their self-titled cassette has been a great seller for us because so many of you are looking for belly dance music, and we expect this one to surpass it! (SAZ2) CD: 15.98

Vas

Offerings

"Azam Ali is an ecstatic singer, intoning hymns, chants and prayers over an elaborate percussive landscape of Middle Eastern/Indian grooves." On their 1998 release, the interactions of trance, ambient, and chant are further explored within trans-cultural styles of sound that defy categorization. Filling the senses with a mesmerizing blend of captivating vocals and compelling rhythms, the duo employs arrangements which follow traditional lines, then at just the right moment a flash of modern innovation will take the reins and the music becomes something completely different. Extremely eclectic music is often confused and without focus, but Vas manages to arrange all the pieces into an ecstatic tapestry. After all, how many other artists do you know that can make the hammered dulcimer and the mycelharpa work together? (NA46289) CS: 18.98 CD: 15.98

Sunyata

Vas is a duo comprised of Iranian-born Azam Ali and American Greg Ellis; their 1997 debut release brings Azam's fluidly pure voice together with Greg's unique, traditional Eastern-sounding percussion creating an unorthodox, ethereal music. Sunyata means "emptiness, the wondrous source of creation" and Vas means "vessel" — both apt metaphors for what happens here when voice and instrument interlink, pulsating as one. Azam has created her own personal idiom, where free from the constraints of any written language, the voice is capable of sounds no man-made instrument can create. Very gorgeous, for listening as well as for Middle-Eastern dance accompaniment. (NA46339) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Divine Rites

On this remarkably haunting and beautiful 1999 release, Lebanese contralto Fadie El-Hage offers creative revivals of the early Christian women's chants of the Middle East, enhanced by modern electronic settings and processing. Drawing upon the ancient music of denominations such as the Maronite and Melchite churches, the origins of these chants are traced to 4th and 5th century Lebanon and Syria, modified by later cross-pollination between Christian, Islamic and Jewish cultures. That these chants survived at all is remarkable. Despite following a period when women played a prominent role in the rituals of the early church, after the 4th century there was an ecclesiastical ban on female singing in the liturgy. Unusual, reverent, and recommended! (WCL11208) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alicia Svigals

Fiddl - Klezmer Violin

Some of you are already familiar with this master of klezmer violin — she has toured and recorded extensively with the Klezmatics (of which she is a founding member) and performed with Itzhak Perlman on the PBS special In the Fiddler's House. Her virtuosic yet intimate interpretations of the traditional klezmer repertoire have made her one of the most important voices in klezmer music today. On this 1997 debut solo recording, she performs both poignant improvisations and lively klezmer melodies; don't miss this! (TCR4288) CD: 15.98

Barry Sisters

Their Greatest Yiddish Hits

The Barry Sisters began performing when they were children and grew to become one of the biggest hits on the Yiddish Theatre circuit, thrilling audiences from the NY Catskills to Miami. They were such a hot act that they even landed a spot on the Ed Sullivan show! Bringing a pop-ish show tune sound to classics such as Yooch Yooch and Tumbalaska is no easy task, but they pull it off with style. Also includes Hava Nagila, Eishes - Chiyel (A Woman of Values), and more Yiddish songs which were brought to the US at the time of the huge wave of emigration of Eastern European Jews in the early 1900's. (LEG336) CD: 8.98

Cantor Rebecca Garfein

Sacred Chants of Contemp. Synagogue

Berliners say New York's Rebecca Garfein is causing a revival of Reform Judaism in Germany; this mezzo-soprano is making herstory with her music, recorded in the country where her great-grandmother perished in the Holocaust. In 1997, she became the first female cantor to sing in a synagogue in Germany, where she performed as part of Berlin's International Jewish Cultural Festival, and this exquisite 1998 release captures that ground- (and stained-glass ceiling)-breaking moment. It contains Jewish songs and prayers in Hebrew and Yiddish, selections from the Book of Ruth and Song of Songs — liturgical music previously only chanted by male clergy — operatic in character, performed in what was once the women's gallery in the Oranienburger Strasse Synagogue before its destruction. This live performance was attended by Jews and non-Jews, women and men, together, shattering the historical separation of faiths and genders. Beautiful, significant, highly recommended! (BAR1) CD: 15.98

Chava Alberstein

Crazy Flower: A Collection

You'll immediately hear why this diva, whose albums in Israel consistently go gold or platinum, is considered Israel's "First Lady of Song." Her voice is rich and deep and resonant, her style dramatic and intense, and her repertoire (primarily in Hebrew, some original — plus a few in Yiddish) is varied and fascinating, as she combines the ancient sounds of one of the oldest languages with modern rhythms and instrumentation. On this 1998 release she transforms the well-known Passover song Chad Gadya into a probing, passionate, urgent commentary about the madness of the cycle of war and death. Also includes Old Violin, The Dove of Love, Mother Used To Say, A Woman In a Watermelon, 17 in all. Highly recommended! (SHN8030) CD: 16.98

Debbie Friedman

And You Shall Be a Blessing...

We've had several people request Debbie's music now, so we're happy to offer you some of her work! She is known as an artist who presents Jewish tradition in a progressive and dignified way. This 1989 album reflects her belief that blessings are not nebulous, distant, magical intangibles, but rather the affirmation of faith in the Source of All Life and the enactment of the potential goodness with which each soul has been endowed. Includes her original Miriam's Song, and others in Hebrew and English, all with captivating original music, some lyrics based on traditional text, performed with her very lovely voice and a multitude of instruments. Arranged and orchestrated by E. Marcy Ocherow-Vaj, who contributed to some early women's music albums like Changer. Especially love the evocative V'shamru (SWP601) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

At Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

This double set contains 27 of Debbie's best-loved songs as well as new ones, recorded in 1996 at her "26th Anniversary Concert" to celebrate song, spirit and community. She is accompanied by piano, bass, percussion, and a string quartet — arranged (and played in part) by Alicia Svigals, of the Klezmatics. Includes some wonderful songs from her early cassette-only releases, such as Not By Might - Not By Power, plus Miriam, The Angels' Blessing, Arise My Love from Song of Songs, and more. (SWP612) CS: 19.98 CD: 24.98

Debbie Friedman It's You

This captivating late '90s release represents a landmark for the artist, the production and arrangements by Yaron Gershtovitz, musical director of Manhattan Transfer, dramatically enhance her familiar style. The 13 songs, including several new ones such as Sarah's Song, Seize the Day, and her concert favorite Hallelu, are based on Jewish texts and life cycle events, reflecting the spiritual energy that has become the hallmark of her music. (SWP616) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Debbie Friedman Renewal of Spirit

She served as cantor for three years at a Reform Congregation in L.A. she has directed music and singing programs at a number of universities, and has appeared before national conventions for most of the major Jewish organizations. Not surprisingly, Debbie is one of the best known and sought after artists on the Jewish scene! This 1995 release is a recording of songs from her healing service. Accompanied by Lynda Roth on keyboard and synthesizer, Debbie plays guitar and sings these prayers that "sometimes offer courage, sometimes challenge, and sometimes a cold, uncomfortable reality." She explains, "These words of prayer show me that healing has little to do with being sick and recovering and more to do with how we see ourselves and our roles in this sometimes torn and fragmented world." Sung both in English and Hebrew, songs include Asher Yatzel and Elohah N'Shamah from the morning liturgy, 23rd Psalm, You Are the One (Reb Nachman's Prayer), and more. (SWP611) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Judy Frankel Tresoroc Sephardis

0769

We were first entranced with the voice of Judy Frankel when we heard her on the anthology Divine Divas, alongside luminaries like Cassandra Wilson and Ani DiFranco. Although of Lithuanian descent, this singer of 20 languages says her attraction to Sephardic music is so strong that she wonders whether her roots somehow go back to Spain! This 1998 retrospective compiles, from her 3 previous recordings, the most popular selections of non-liturgical Sephardic songs from Egypt, Rhodes, Morocco, Turkey, Venezuela, and the former Yugoslavia, performed in her crystalline voice. (JF3) CS: 9.99 CD: 14.99

Klezmatiks Jews With Horns

Klezmer is "Yiddish party music," a cross fertilization of sinuous Middle Eastern melodies, gypsy music and circus-like kinetic rhythms of Eastern Europe — happy and sad at the same time, like laughter through the tears. The world's only radical Jewish roots band is an imaginative, adventurous, whirlwind dervish of a klezmer band, they weave in merengue guiro, hip-hop rhythms, Brazilian jazz chords and experimental rock. Members include openly lesbian fiddler Alicia Svigals and openly gay lead vocalist/accordionist Lorin Sklamberg (note that most vocals are male). Songs include the homoerotic and lively Man in a Hat, Bulgars/The Kiss, which was inspired by an ACT-UP kiss-in, Fishnet, featuring backup vocals by BETTY, and in Kamif, a popular Yiddish labor song ("We're hated and pursued... only because we love") which they perform to comment on anti-gay bigotry. ## Klezmatiks Possessed

Mystic and moaning, spiritual and slithering, these downtown New Yorkers celebrate klezmer's ancient Jewish roots with ecstasy, attitude, and serious chops. They tilt at tradition on this 1997 release with a party-band attack, utilizing jazz, ska and Middle Eastern rhythms. Includes An Undying World, co-written by fiddler Alicia Svigals; Mkzmor shir leha'el (Healer Song) — a psalm of hemp! and several excerpts from the score of A Dybbuk: Between Two Worlds. ## Klezmatiks w/ Chava Alberstein The Well

Produced by the esteemed Ben Mink (known for his work with k.d. lang), this remarkable 1996 collaboration of extraordinary artists is a true triumph! The redheaded Jewish roots saxist and "the first lady of Israeli song" have created a rapturous and intimate modern Jewish music. In 1995, Chava produced an award-winning documentary, Too Early To Be Quiet, Too Late To Sing, featuring interviews from some of the great Yiddish poets of the 20th century, the moving tales from these writers — perhaps the last from a once-flourishing Eastern European Jewish culture of music, drama and literature that abruptly ended with the Holocaust — inspired her to set these words to music. Drawing from the vibrant musical traditions of klezmer, Middle Eastern, French chanson, German cabaret, and American folk, Chava's lush, golden vocals describe experiences of love and loss both profoundly Jewish as well as universal, accompanied by the Klezmatiks' radiant virtuosity. Yiddish lyrics, with English and Hebrew translations. (XEN4082) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Linda Hirschhorn & Fran Avni Marcia Falk's Blessings in Song

A combination of cardonal, Middle Eastern motifs and dynamic drones, counterpoints and rhythmic syncopation makes this 1997 a wonderful complement to poet/translator Judith Scholier. Marcia Falk's 1995 publication The Book of Blessings: New Jewish Prayer for Daily Life, The Sabbath, and the New Moon Festival. Marcia's innovative work restructures Jewish liturgy in Hebrew and English from a non-hierarchical, gender-inclusive perspective. At a time when people are searching for more spiritual connection in their lives, this recording offers listeners chants and melodies to many of Marcia's prayers, for immediate incorporation into their own and their community's ritual observances and practices. 21 selections, 52 min. highly recommended! (HA1111) CS: 11.99 CD: 16.99

Linda Hirschhorn and Vocelot Behold!

Behold upon ancient and contemporary sources that evoke the spiritual power of centuries of Jewish women, this 5-woman vocal ensemble (who take their name from the English word "vocal" and the Hebrew word "kolel" meaning voices) weaves a most beautiful tapestry of harmony and poetry on these songs and rounds. Their incredibly exquisite voices revitalize tradition, while rededicating listeners to a universal vision of social justice (i.e. this is music for everyone). Primarily composed by Linda, but drawing from sources as diverse as Walt Whitman and Zennabween folk wisdom, their repertoire mixes traditional Jewish modes with folk, jazz and classical idioms. On some selections they're accompanied by light percussion and acoustic instrumentation, but of course, the voices are the thing, and their a cappella sections are indescribably gorgeous! Includes Yima Na (My Sister), Lo Yisa Goy (Study War No More), Blessed in the Flame (Freedom is a fire at our soul). Produced by Fran Avni. Very highly recommended! ## Michele Gingras & Cincinnati Klezmer Project Klezmer's Greatest Hits

According to my housemate who plays in a Klezmer band, this 1998 collection of lively dance melodies and poignant tunes is especially notable for the beautiful and very pure, clarinet tone of Michele, a French-Canadian clarinetist who has played on 4 continents and served as Principal Clarinet with the Santiago Philharmonic. She makes her clarinet sing with joy and spirit with spritz. The Cincinnati Klezmer Project performs with panache a wide variety of Jewish music including Godesa Bulgarian, Patch Tantz, and Arzak Alina. When the music's playing, it's impossible not to dance or at least hum along. (IN3691) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Noa Both Sides of the Sea

Known for her gorgeous voice and mastery of the Darbukaah, a hand-beat Arabic drum, Noa reveals a lyrical sensibility, layered over distinctly Middle Eastern harmonies. On this 1996 collection, the Israeli-born and American-raised artist demonstrates her wide range of abilities and sounds. From songs with beautiful string arrangements, to earthier sounds of drums and guitar, this excellent album — which contains tracks from her various Israeli albums, previously unreleased in the US — is full of soaring melodies and infectious rhythms. ## Otra Haza Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yemeric Jewish parentage, Otra may be Israel's biggest star, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her inescapable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old) and world beat dance contemporary rhythms and instrumentation... resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemeric Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Otra is part of the Musica Mithra movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. 1997 (SHN64002) CD: 16.99

Ruth Wieder Magan Songs to the Invisible God

For centuries the Jewish sacred music tradition has forbidden women from singing its holy music, even as these same women have served as witnesses to a history of overwhelming joy and sorrow. This pioneering artist in the revival of the female voice in Jewish prayer and song breaks that silence, with her excursion into the feminine spirit hidden within Judaism's mystical roots. Ruth's parents, both Holocaust survivors, were an inspiration for the melodies and intonations on her 1999 release. Recorded in Jerusalem, it is a journey into the deepest yearnings, lamentations, and revivings of Jewish prayer and song — from the authentic niggunim and piyyut to the magical words of the Zohar to the passionate Ladino folk songs of medieval Spain. ## Sunita Staneslow City of Gold

Back in our catalog by popular demand! Delicate, dignified and graceful, this 1996 album of harp improvisations and orchestrations, entitled A Musical Portrait of Jerusalem was recorded in honor of Jerusalem's 3000th anniversary. This acclaimed performer of Jewish music on the harp (and founder of the acoustic instrumental ensemble, Vida), is accompanied by a chamber ensemble which includes Laura Sewall on cello, producer Sheryl Hanson on clarinet, Rachel Green on oboe and English horn, plus some achingly beautiful duets with violinist Tracy Silverman from the Turtle Island String Quartet. Includes Theme From Schindler's List, On the Rivers of Babylon, and the Israeli song Jerusalem, dedicated to the memory of Yitzhak Rabin. Very highly recommended, this is music of nobility and tenderness. (MAX3061) CS: 7.99 CD: 11.99

Various/ New England Conservatory A Taste of Passover

Many musicians participate on this humorous, energetic and uplifting 1998 release, including Theodore Bikel, Judith Berkson, Rebecca Shrimpton, and various ensembles from New England Conservatory, but frankly, what makes it essential is Chasid Segal's 5-minute Matzon Ball Demonstration! Music sources include Yiddish, Hebrew, Ladino, even bagel, a swing version of Davenu, an anthem of the Jewish Partisans to celebrate the Warsaw Ghetto uprising, and more. Passover is the favorite holiday of many Jewish people, both in its symbolism (freedom from slavery) and exuberant fun, and all that is captured in this live performance. ## African

Angelique Kidjo Logozo

Last year, we asked for info on this extraordinary artist, and you all sent us reams, for which we thank you! Born and raised in Benin on Africa's west coast, her extraordinarily fantastic music is a fusion of African polyrhythmic styles reflecting African roots (which includes Brazilian rhythms resulting from the Portuguese colonization of Benin), and Western influences, in which you can also hear strains of Arabic and Caribbean sounds. She speaks 8 languages fluently, but recorded this 1991 album in her native tongues of Swahili and Fon. Her political stance is subtly woven into the lyrics which address issues ranging from censorship to torture. She moved to Paris to study law, but now wages her fight for human rights through her music, which reflects a broadening multi-culturalism. Includes the dance hit Balongo, a beautiful version of one of the most famous traditional African songs, Malaka. Great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance, very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CD: 16.99

Angelique Kidjo Oremi

Angelique's 1998 release is an exciting mixture of sounds, uniting the rhythms and spirits of Africa with the grooves and vibes of such diverse styles as Hip-Hop, Afro-Celtic, and Jazz... creating a more pronounced contemporary R&B feel. Bradford Marshall contributes his creative saxophone stylings to the funky Itche Koutche. Angelique's daughter makes her singing debut on Lolaye, and jazz songstress Cassandra Wilson contributes her earthbound scat harmonies to the duet Never Know. Angelique also revitalizes Hendrix's Voodoo Child (Slight Return). A very worthwhile listen! (MNG534921) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.99

Aster Awake

Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing the music of this talented DC resident. She sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wall, croons to a native harp and light percussion, keeps over a classically-tinged piano — this is World Beat at its best! Way high in our recommendation, and to belated the equation, way low in price! (COL45548) CD: 8.99

Aster Awake Kabu

1017

This release by an amazing Ethiopian songwriter and vocalist, now residing in Washington DC, has an Afro-pop sound, with the exception of the haunting love ballad, Kabu, which means "sacred rock" and employs a marimba for both rhythm and melody... simply lovely! Backed on other tracks by a variety of percussion instruments, horns, keyboards and acoustic bass, her voice is rich and enchanting. Also includes several traditional Ethiopian songs with contemporary arrangements, lyrics are translated in liner notes, recommended! (COL47848) CS: 8.99 CD: 8.99

Cesaria Evora

Cafe Atlantico NEW!
Good news for Cesaria fans who are also aficionados of Cuban music: her 1999 release is a tribute to her Cape Verde hometown of Mindelo — a small port where the influence of Portuguese, Spanish and Cuban cultures have created a rhythmic and enchanting style of music. Though still singing the traditional Cape Verdean "mornas," here she emphasizes the Cuban elements in her music, delivering complex yet danceable tunes that blend her singular voice with sensual Cuban rhythms. You may not understand the words, but the mood she evokes is universal! (RCA65401) CD: 16.98

Cesaria Evora

Cabo Verde 1339
Long known to Cape Verde's small expatriate community in Massachusetts and Rhode Island as the African Island nation's finest singer, Cesaria exploded to fame on these shores with her '95 self-titled album. For this 1997 release, she again sublimely sings Mornas, the "Cape Verdean blues," but also features a varied group of songs from the festive to the mournful. Many of Cape Verde's best musicians play on the album, as well as jazz saxophonist James Carter on Coragem (brave), Spanish-style guitars, accordion, percussion, and violin sweep us away on her blanket of exquisite sadness. She'll simply take your breath away! (NON79450) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.98

Cesaria Evora

Here's an album of deep, exquisite beauty! Born on the Cape Verde island of Sao Vicente (off the coast of West Africa, obviously colonized by Portugal, as you'll hear in the language and music — the similarities to Brazilian music are no surprise), she later emigrated to Paris where she began her recording career. Backed by an array of acoustic instruments — multiple guitars (including the caçapinho, a small 4-string rhythm guitar), violin, accordion and clarinet — she creates a compelling musical atmosphere with her blend of smooth, intoxicating vocals and heartfelt lyrics. If you can imagine a sort-of-Brazilian-sounding Mercedes Sosa, she might sound something like Cesaria, highly recommended! (NON79378) CS: 10.99 CD: 16.98

Cesaria Evora

Mar Azul
The exquisitely melancholic contralto of the "mistress of mornas" brims with saudade (wistfulness, nostalgia) on this import album... with surprising but perfect accompaniment on clarinet, harmonica, and trumpet in addition to the more expected guitar and piano. Booklet contains beautiful and atmospheric photographs of her native Cape Verde, with lyrics in French and Portuguese (speaking of which, there's an interesting fact due to the emigration to New England coastal areas; there are more Cape Verdeans in the US than in Cape Verde). Essential for all Cesaria fanatics! (MEL79533) CD: 16.98

Letta Mbulu

Not Yet Uhuru NEW!
Once again we're able to offer you this recording by this fabulous South African vocalist — this time a South African pressing. Following 25 years of voluntary exile from her homeland, she found her return to be a bittersweet experience. Her voice is so sweet, so pure, so full of emotion in its beautiful vibrato, and her material, while quite varied in style, primarily pertains to the struggle of her people for freedom and unity. If you like Miriam Makeba, you need to hear Letta Mbulu, highly recommended! (FLT505) CD: 17.98

Miriam Makeba

Africa 0381
This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1960-1965, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and timely! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup — guitar, percussion — and a lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (refreshing to hear the original African rendition!), The Retreat Song, The Click Song, Kwazulu (in the Land of the Zulus), Nongqongqo (To Those We Love), 23 songs in all. (RCA3155) CD: 15.98

Miriam Makeba

Sangoma 0383
A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused; these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate so prolifically and stunningly the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. (An interesting note: she was also exiled from the U.S. in 1968, after she married Stokely Carmichael.) Highly recommended! (WB25673) CD: 15.98

Miriam Makeba, w/Belafronte Singers

The Click Song 0380
This is a classic Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Belafonte Folk Singers! It includes her well-known songs The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Wimoweh," House of the Rising Sun, Iya Gudusa, which title tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, the humorous One More Dance, and others, performed in Xosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. Highly recommended! (ESP155564) CD: 16.98

Rasha Sudaniyat

For world music fans, the excitement and wonder this 1997 album will inspire might be similar to your first experience of Cesaria Evora — it will draw you in, caress you, please you and amaze you. This young vocalist/percussionist, raised with 19 (!) siblings in the Sudanese capital Khartoum, presents a contemporary but authentic blend of the principal music of her country (from which she has fled), the Nubian tradition of the Islamic-influenced north, and the black-African music of the south. Full of complex rhythms, melodic yet melancholic, predominantly defined by oud and percussion but sometimes backed by a full band, the repertoire is varied and interesting. She even performs some Sufi meditations, usually sung by men only. Highly recommended! (INM3214) CD: 15.98

Sally Nyolo

Multiculti 1453
Over the years Sally has crafted a truly unique style that reflects her childhood in Africa and her adult life in Europe, with pygmy-inflected voices set to the beat of a boiling percussion section and penetrating bass lines. As an activist, a storyteller, and an artist her words are poetic and progressive. The title track in particular, performed in several languages, is a great anthem for our multicultural world; other songs deal with solidarity and racism, ancestors, environmental issues. Fans of her and Zap Mama's previous work (Sally was a Zap Mama and she's accompanied here by 2 other Zap Mama members) will be excited by the new directions she takes into some even more challenging arrangements on this 1998 release: it's a solid and enjoyable recording from one of the best voices in African music today. (TIN5400) CD: 15.98

Various "Holding Up Half the Sky"

Voices of African Women 0569
This 1997 release presents the first comprehensive collection of popular female African vocalists — only fitting, since in countries such as Mali and Senegal, the greatest singers have long tended to be women. The collection brings together 14 performers from 11 different countries... from internationally famous stars such as Miriam Makeba, Angelique Kidjo and The Mahotella Queens, to revered performers such as Stella Chiweshe and Ami Koto, to favorites from old Ladyslipper catalogs, such as The Lijadu Sisters, Mbube Bel, and Tshala Muna. A highly recommended way to experience a panorama of diverse and incredible talent! (SHN64073) CD: 15.98

Zap Mama

Adventures in Afropea 1 0387
Pronounced with an accent on the second "ma," this fabulous 5-woman group is led by Marie Delme, an African/Belgian woman who left her native Zaire as a child to escape the violence there. Returning after years in Belgium, she connected with the forest Pygmies who sheltered her as a child, and the music she and the group often reflect that shared heritage. Sung in Bantu, French and English, primarily a cappella with some minimalist bass and percussion backup, the multi-layered harmonies bloom in a riotous profusion of beauty and color. A sincere and superior tribute to and example of the power of the human voice. (LB45183) CD: 15.98

African Heritage

Bernice Johnson Reagon

River of Life / Harmony: One
This incredible, incredible 1986 a cappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Since I Led My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi et al

Africans in America: Complete 3-Set
Composed and produced by the esteemed Dr. Bernice Johnson Reagon, this soundtrack to the landmark 1995 PBS documentary series depicts the story of Africans and Europeans who created America even as they bitterly struggled over the meaning of freedom... retelling the story of our nation's founding from a new perspective, such as the published accounts of ex-slaves. The period was rich with musical sound, full of the varied music of Africa, Europe, Irish and English workers and sailors, and the music of the parlor, the royal courts and the church. All this is reflected here: there's a collaboration between the two Reagon women and Scottish fiddler Bonnie Rideout... duos with Bernice and Toshi... songs from Sweet Honey in the Rock (3-set only), Charles Williams Quartet, James Weaver and more. (RYK90444) CS: 34.98 CD: 34.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi et al

Africans in America: Single Album
This 1998 single album features 22 of the tracks from the 3-volume set of the same name (see description). Some are by mother-daughter team Bernice and Toshi, (Remember Me, Shabazz, Ship of Zion), the others by various male and female solo and ensemble artists, both vocal and instrumental, such as Djimon Kouyate, United Southern Prayer Band of Baltimore and Washington, and more. (RYK444) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bernice Reagon

Give Your Hands to Struggle
Produced by Barbara Dane, this 1997 release was originally released on LP in 1975 on the Pardon label. It is stylistically similar to Sweet Honey in the Rock, except that Bernice herself is singing all the harmonizing voices, and features classics such as Joann Little, They Are Falling All Around Me, Room in the Circle, There's A New World Coming. Originally subtitled The Evolution of a Freedom Fighter, this is an important historical documentary which has thankfully been preserved. (SF40049) CD: 15.98

Casselberry-DuPree

City Down 0203
Cassettes on sale! One of the finest releases of the last decade is now back in print (on Ladyslipper, we are proud to announce). This duo, so long a favorite of audiences at women's festivals and pride rallies, synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary, soul, even country, in an extraordinary and exciting blend. From the urban life track, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Olatas, the political South Africa, to the elegy written by Dory Previn to "a black woman that did exist" — Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Masterfully produced by Linda Tillery; highly recommended! (LR203) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Casselberry-DuPree

Hot Corn in the Fire 0204
Cassettes on sale! In source and feeling, this 1994 release on Ladyslipper Records moves from ancient to traditional to contemporary, giving the listener a sense of the boundless depth and breadth of the duo's talent. Producer Toshi Reagon has assembled a group of first rate musicians, and you'll hear the evolution of their signature sound, from acoustic to songs featuring dynamic ancient drum ensembles and shakers... with styles incorporating African, reggae, folk, gospel, R&B, as well as Cajun shuffle! Their material is as relevant and revolutionary as ever, from Last Pioneers, about the struggle for lesbian and gay rights (which they sang at the very first National Lesbian/Gay March on Washington), to Pink Dress On (worn by a little girl whose elders are importing her to sit still in such impractical attire) — an original song, inspired by Odette's folk style... to The Kian, a compelling song many of us first heard performed by Richie Havens many years ago. Very highly recommended! (LR204) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Faith Nolan
Compilation 1986-1996

Back in print! This lesbian singer/songwriter/activist incorporates music into her political work, a political firmly rooted in her identity as a working-class African-Canadian woman. Her excellent 1997 retrospective brings together 22 of her most prolific and political songs from her first 4 releases: Africville, Sisterhood, Freedom to Love, and Hard to Imagine. Her original compositions, as well as her covers, are strongly rooted in the cultural language of Black North American music: spirituals, gospel, jazz and blues — each song a tool to inspire social change for a fairer and better world. (PNF1164) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Faith Nolan
Freedom to Love

Focusing on black women historically and presently, Faith's selections — both her originals and her covers — give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength through a variety of styles. Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman, an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire, the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery, Ma Rainey's Prove It On Me, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians. (RR8803) CS: 9.98

Lillian Allen
Freedom & Dance

We extensively praised Lillian's previous albums of dub poetry, Revolutionary Tea Party and Conditions Critical, and many of you agreed. If her earlier work was revolution you could work up a sweat dancing to, this 1998 release is more subtle and complex, still dancing, but in a more economical fashion, saving some energy for teen-up and daily life after the party. These songs "keep truth through cracks" through the routing rhythms of the musical tracks, using vignettes which reveal a little more about life and love — and resistance in the 90's and beyond — with each listening. (VTN109) CD: 16.98

Linda Tilley/ Cultural Heritage Choir
Front Porch Music

This 1997 release invites you to participate, to sing along, step, clap, shout, dance and be part of the tradition that is African-American music-making, the very foundation of popular music today. Dedicating herself to research and reconstructing the folklore, religion and language associated with her African-American heritage, in 1993 Linda founded the Cultural Heritage Choir, an active touring group that incorporates vocals with pounding stick, feet and hands to create a powerful rhythmic experience. Their second album includes Voice of Mother Africa, Spirituals Medley, See Line Woman, Children's Medley, and Lift Every Voice and Sing. (EB72881) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.98

Good Time, A Good Time

This '95 release is an incredible presentation of African American music (much of it from the Gullah sea islands culture) work songs, field hollers, play songs, spirituals, inscribed sermons, folk tales and African music, such as the rhythmic chant to the African ocean goddess Yemaya. The Cultural Heritage Choir, which consists of 6 women — Melanie DeMore and Rashida Oji, and of course Linda and her stunning, fluid alto among them — employs call and response, multi-layered harmonies, poly-rhythms and repetitive verse, song forms which are considered by many historians, anthropologists and ethno-musicologists to be the very root sources of all-American popular music. The Choir was assembled by Linda, as part of a 5-year period of research in the field of African American Folk Art. Highly recommended! (TUM1) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.98

Maya Angelou
Miss Calypso

Well, most of us know her as a powerful, majestic writer, poet and Presidential inauguration speaker, but in 1955, at the height of her nightclub singing career, Maya Angelou recorded this calypso record! (The story goes that she really wanted to be a cabaret dancer, and could only get to dance if she sang, too.) With only a gentle bongobongo and electric guitar backing, Maya mixes jazz, gospel, blues with Caribbean sounds. As part of the big Harry Belafonte-inspired calypso craze, she channels Trinidad on her originals like Tamo, Neighbor, Neighbor, Scandal in the Family, the Louis Jordan covers Run Joe and Push Ka Pici Pi and the always odd lighthearted murder-of-the-wife-beating-husband law Stone Cold Dead in the Market. This is a very cool and retro-funky album! (SCM9705) CD: 16.98

Maya Angelou with Ashford & Simpson
Been Found

The multi-talented R&B duo Ashford & Simpson are known for classics like Ain't No Mountain High Enough, Your Precious Love and Ain't Nothing Like The Real Thing amongst others. This '95 release, their first in 7 years, is a smooth mix of "quiet storm" and easy grooves. Renowned poet and author Maya Angelou adds the distinctive flavor of her authoritative voice on several tracks, including the gospel-infected title track, and the sing-song "voiceover" of Just Talking; her poetic riffs are filled mostly with love imagery this time around. Maya recorded the album Miss Calypso in the early 50's but had avoided revisiting the musical medium... until now! (H54512) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Melanie DeMore
Share My Song

Many of you have heard this powerful vocalist performing with Linda Tilley's ensemble, the Cultural Heritage Choir. Melanie's buoyant vocals and rich lyrics, rooted in African American folk tradition, are captured in this 1992 release (now out-of-print, and "out-of") featuring the title track, plus Lady Of Peace, I Hear The Mother Calling, Please Up: Song For Mera, Kuumba and a sizzling rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Get one while you can — recommended! (RR9203) CS: 6.98 CD: 12.98

Nedra Johnson
Testify

With a style that's mostly blues with touches of gospel, jazz, reggae, R&B and rock, and a voice comparable to any of the great blues women, it's hard to believe that this is Nedra's first release, but don't think that she's new to the music business, because she's been performing and gaining fans around the country for several years. It is this experience that shows through with a maturity and energy that is unique and refreshing. The songs, mostly very political and woman-identified, are personal explorations into events and issues which are part of Nedra's life. Where Will You Be? was inspired by the lives and works of Audre Lorde and Pat Parker. Also includes poems by Alice Walker and nozake change to music. CD expected late '97. Highly recommended! (BIG1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sister Carol
Isis: The Original Womb-Man

Rare is the artist who can craft music that is perfect for a party while taking the listener to new spaces of learning. Sister Carol has long been regarded as one of reggae's strongest voices; her lyrical wordplay ranks her among the top DJs, toasters and singers. On this 1999 release, she celebrates Mother Culture, and the Egyptian personification of the great feminine — as she explores politics, love and religion with poetic clarity and passion. The smooth reggae rhythms move from playfully sensual on tracks like Gentle Lover to eerie dub prophecy on HIV. Also includes Rasta Girl, I-Sis Apollo, herbal in Natural. (TUF54334) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
B'lieve I'll Run On...

This 1978 album contains glorious acappella vocals, gospel-influenced, with an emphasis on harmonies. We have a special fondness for this album because it contains one of their most specific pro-lesbian statements: a song for women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers. It also contains originals about nuclear proliferation and Jimmy Carter, the experiences of Black women, and a few classics about specific strong Black women: Soujourner Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. Recommended! (RR3500) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Feel Something Drawing Me On

A different album concept from their previous discography, this 1985 release is unique. Here they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in, and beautifully document the diverse cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. Sacred Ground

African American religious music, born of oppression and tempered by resistance, profoundly influences almost every other modern genre: jazz, blues, rock and even country. On this 1995 release, this peerless ensemble revisits traditional African American religious music with reverence and passion, and adds their own boldly original explorations of what "sacred" means today. No More Auction Block and Jordan River testify to faith and fortitude during centuries of slavery, whereas Mystic Oceans and Would You Harbor Me expand and clarify modern notions of sanctity and right action. ## Rose, a.k.a. Cherokee Rose To All the Wild Horses

Some of you may know Rose Moore as Cherokee Rose, her recording and performing name for many years previous, though on her 1997 release, this Native artist identifies herself merely as "Rose." Includes Ma Ko Wey, a chant she sang as a child. Baby of the Sky, a most lovely and gentle lullaby (makes me wish I had a baby to sing it to...), and We Dance, a song in celebration of the Cherokee Stamp Dance. ## Walela (Rita Coolidge et al)

Walela is the Cherokee word for "hummingbird" as well as the symbol of inspiration for this family of women singers, featuring rock icon Grammy-winner Rita Coolidge, her sister Priscilla Coolidge, and Priscilla's daughter, Laura Satterfield. Some of you have heard them on the Robb Robertson/Road Road Ensemble Native Americans album, their own 1997 debut, anchored by their exquisite vocal blend, combines their Cherokee heritage with the gospel sounds that filled their Southern childhood home. Rita and Priscilla's father, a full-blooded Cherokee, was a Baptist minister, and their mother, of Scottish descent, gave music lessons and played organ in the church. ## Wayquay Tribal Grind

Wayquay (full name Swangideed Wayquay) means "lady unafraid." Retracing steps on the path left by her Ojibwa/Achikame ancestors, this musical poet brings messages of simplicity, sharing and honor. With a style that is compelling and powerful (at times reminiscent of U2/Bono), she brilliantly fuses the rhythms and chants from her Native American background with the grooves of blues, rock, funk and poetry to create an incredibly transcendent collection of original pieces. And, if you hear a dog or a coyote, a scream or a warble, it's her too, the many varied sounds she creates with her voice all make music. "I gear my writing towards empowerment, moving people, opening eyes through truth and humor. I gear music towards healing, forgiveness and celebration." Includes Sister's Keeper, Hope Child, Prophecy Walk, very different, and very very highly recommended! (GBL10392) CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden Beauty in the Beast

This 1996 release "opens the global possibilities of rhythm-driven melodies." It's like a trip around the rhythm world! Barbara employs many types of drums and percussion, including trap drums, hand drums, wooden blocks, bells and shakers — 40 different instruments in all — capturing the universal power of drumming with a delicacy that is rarely heard. Each of the 8 pieces, including Heaven's Bells, Heartbeat Culture, and Drumming-A-Round, is a story, a mood, an exotic country of its own, imbued with a calm excitement that relaxes and energizes simultaneously. Very hot and very fabulous! (CL655) CD: 15.98

Betsy Sansby & Alan Dworsky A Rhythmic Vocabulary (Book/CD Set)

Subtitled A Musician's Guide to Understanding and Improvising with Rhythm, this intensive 208-page book/CD set is not just for percussionists, but is a comprehensive course for all musicians who want to study rhythm in a systematic way. It includes hundreds of patterns drawn from African and Afro-Cuban rhythms, rhythmic techniques you can use to create your own patterns, easy-to-read charts that non-musicians can understand, and a CD that creates a rhythmic context for you to practice in (like a metronome). There's even a chapter on "rhythm walking" — how to create rhythms with your whole body while you walk! (DAN123) CD: 29.98

Betsy Sansby & Alan Dworsky Conga Drumming (Book & CD/Tape)

Want to learn conga drumming? Here's the perfect way to begin! Subtitled A Beginner's Guide to Playing With Time, this complete step-by-step course on conga drumming features charts which are big and easy to understand, instructions which are clear and accessible to the non-musician, and a CD or tape (narrated by Alan) which contains samples of all 175 rhythms included in the book. The authors say, "The conga drum grabbed us a few years back and plunged us deep into the magical world of Afro-Cuban rhythms. It was as if after a lifetime of singing in unison we had suddenly discovered harmony. We found a way to meditate that didn't require silence, a source of community that didn't require words, and a wellspring of pleasure that never ran dry." Don't wait to get started! ## Bonnie Devlin

Action of Grace/Soul of Urban Vodou

This remarkable percussionist is the only woman ever initiated as a Huntu (ceremonial drum master) in the Haitian religious Vodou tradition where she is also an initiated Sou-Mambo (priestess), and has drummed at hundreds of Vodou ceremonies. She is also an ordained minister and music therapist, she has performed with Babelunde Olutunji, Returnee Con Pie, and many other ensembles, at women's music festivals and other community, religious, and political events. This 1999 release is a recorded representation of a Vodou service of thanksgiving, with over an hour of prayers, invocations, libations, chants, calls, and trance-inducing drumming. All vocals, instrumentals, and arrangements here are her own: timbale, congas, bell, rattle, and many more percussion instruments. (LYR7446) CD: 16.99

Brooke Medicine Eagle

Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a fast hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk") and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. (BME10) CD: 10.98

Evelyn Glennie

Her Greatest Hits (2-CD Set)

This 1998 2-CD set (priced as a single CD) provides an excellent sampling of why this amazing Scottish artist, who happens to be deaf, is considered a percussion wizard. Ever the experimenter, she uses a variety of everyday objects and percussion instruments to explore a wide variety of musical styles including jazz, classical, ragtime, alternative (Yes, alternative!) This release features the only available recording of Evelyn, Glennie's collaboration with Björk, as well as their only other song together, My Spine. Highly recommended! (RCA78292) CD: 16.98

Fatu (Judy Henderson)

Lady Drummer

This most excellent musician first became interested in traditional African drumming as a child, listening to local troupes practice in the Omaha, Nebraska park on Saturdays. Because she was a girl, however, she was told she was not allowed to play the drums, and had to secretly practice the rhythms she heard. It wasn't until 1990 that she met an instructor who was willing to formally teach her traditional drumming! Now she is the lead drummer and musical director of the Harambee African Dancers and Drummers at the U. of Colorado in Boulder, and has released her first album of original music and traditional music from the African Diaspora: Playing the Dances and djun-djun, traditional Mali instruments. Judy also sings both lead and harmony vocals in a deep, rich voice. It's hard to pick out highlights from this WONDERFUL 1999 release, but I'll try: Sisters celebrates her African, Choctaw and Jicarilla heritage ("I've found my way home!"); Norma's Song is a very sensual love song, the traditional Senegalese Mandiana is used at a young girl's initiation celebration, Gorey Island remembers "last port of exit" for Africans being shipped off to slavery in the Americas, and Harambee is a playful challenge to the dancers in her troupe. Amazing stuff, this, and very highly recommended! (DRH1) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth

Endless Wave Vol. 1

This 1996 album, divided into two parts, artfully combines her subtle, mesmerizing narrations with percussion-oriented dance music. The first half is a companion piece to the video "work-out", The Wave, and is designed to lead listeners/participants through the Five Rhythms (Flowing, Staccato, Chase, Lyrical, Stillness), with narrated instruction by Gabrielle. The second half features new music, without narration, to inspire listeners to create their own unique and unguided "movement journey". Listeners can move at their own level of skill, regardless of age, weight, dance experience or fitness level. Great for exercise, trance dancing, and/or spiritual release! (RAV3954) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Bones

"... a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones." Gabrielle's 1985 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! (RAV5894) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Trance

This 1992 release is "trance" dance music that calls the soul into the body, the body into the beat and the beat into the belly... as it explores primal dance rhythms and ecstatic trance. Great for dancing around a fire... or around your living room! Drums and other percussion are accompanied by sax, djembe, dhol, synthesizer, and Bio-pent ashtray(!), among other exotic and exotic instruments. (RAV5927) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey. I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind."

Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music, meant to be played at full volume, it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV5883) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Luna

Gabrielle graces us with a 1994 release that is remarkably female-inspired, from the cover art to the album title to the song titles (Mother Night, Persephone's Song). This percussive brew weaves a sensuous web of mystery and delight that echoes deep into our ancestral bones and celebrates the dawn and dusk of our humanity. (RAV5948) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Tongues

This 1995 release is intense! A lot of vocal work is embedded in strong rhythmic pulses; it includes chanting, vocalizations, percussive sounds, humming sounds, inspirational sounds, and even a song with actual words — in English — a first for this artist! Also features beautiful guitar work on several tracks, as well as their trademark acoustic drums: congas, asheiko, djembe, djun-djun, etc. Gabrielle and her troupe continue to turn out fabulous soundtracks for the union of body and spirit. (RAV5959) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Refuge

Take the world beat percussion and music of this dynamic ensemble, add Tibetan Buddhist chants sung by legendary Russian rooker Boris Gribenshikov, seek Refuge! In addition to 8 tracks featuring Boris, including the well-known Tibetan chant Chen Resi, the voices of female singers dominate on the mind-boggling Tara Mantra, for the Goddess Tara. Once again on her 1998 release, this imaginative artist draws from, combines and economically transforms a variety of musical and spiritual practices. (RAV5982) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-trance music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of asheiko or djembe, Taps drum, kimbembe, log drum, loke, jun-jun, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Ekane. We have nothing else like this in our catalog. Let yourself loose with this one! (RAV5882) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Zone Unknown

This 1997 release has a more urban feel to it than past recordings, with a very eclectic, jazzy-blues sound. There are the various percussive instruments we've come to expect from Gabrielle Roth, along with more traditional instruments such as cello, violin, and some very excellent trumpet playing on Downtown. All combine to create an undeniable body-shaking rhythm that has the tapping my toes and swiveling my chair as I write this. As the cover says, "Dance your heart out and your ass off — into the zone." (RAV5971) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Stillpoint: A Compilation

This 1996 release compiles songs from Gabrielle's past albums for "stillness". Includes tracks from Ritual, Trance, Tongues and Bones that are perfect for massage, yoga and "the subtle movements of the inner dance of stillness." (RAV5960) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Ritual

Subtitled "... of remembrance for a forgotten earth, this is trance music for movement, massage, meditation and other rituals of remembrance. Extraordinary sounds of percussion are embellished with viola, oboe, synthesizer and vocal chants. 1990. (RAV5905) CD: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Inanna

Listen

One member of this ensemble said, "During the making of this recording, I have had this recurring image of a long procession of women... traveling through time in a common rhythm... As I play these rhythms, I am finding my place in the line, joining in with sound and soul of the Women of all ages." This 1998 release was inspired by the traditional rhythms of West Africa and the work of Layne Redmond, musician and author of When the Drummers Were Women. Features powerful drumming arrangements voiced through the djembe and the heartfelt tones of various bass drums, along with the meditative sounds of frame drums and the melodic accompaniment of balaphones, kalimba, violin and voices... including several chants to the Goddess in Her many forms. They invite you to Listen. (INN2) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Inanna, Sisters in Rhythm

Inanna 1994-1996: A Compilation

This 6-woman percussion ensemble, which takes its name from the Sumerian goddess who held reign more than 4000 years ago when drummers and dancers were primarily women, plays original arrangements as well as traditional West African rhythms learned from West African drumming teachers. Their array of instruments includes djembe, kplango, and asheiko drums, bass drums (such as djundjun, kenken and sangba), balaphone (an African xylophone), rainsticks, shakers and bells. This 1998 CD release combines tracks from their original 1994 self-titled studio recording, plus the full-length of their live '94 recording at the Left Bank Cafe. (INN1) CD: 15.98

Therapeutic Drumming

This specially metered drumming, in beats of three to correspond to a normal heartbeat, is intended to reduce heart rate and blood pressure, because your body will attempt to synchronize itself with external sounds. The music starts at exactly 80 beats a minute, and gradually slows down to 50 beats per minute. Accompanying the drum are Andean clay flute, alto recorder, flute, cello and recorded wind sounds... so it's beautiful and relaxing, even aside from the specific therapeutic effects! Also good for shamanic work, it will help you into a hypnotic state, and enhance your inner vision imagery. (RMS2) CD: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Layne Redmond

Being in Rhythm

This 1997 release by acclaimed frame drummer and author of When the Drummers Were Women offers essential guidance for both beginning and experienced meditation practitioners. The first part is a guided rhythmic meditation with music and instruction for balancing the seven chakras; the second section is a musical presentation without narration to be used as a focus for self-directed meditation or everyday enjoyment. An excellent introduction to shamanic journey work as well as an invaluable tool for advanced holistic and spiritual healers — highly recommended! (IWM927) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels

Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/ North African/ Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius; the instruments speak in torrents of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrances in the listener. Titles include Cone of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together; several feature spoken parts. This 1992 album is simply one of the most honest and respectful recordings of women's ritual music we've ever listened to... also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Highly recommended! (RDM11) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff

Yamantaka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuosses Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later. Sounds heard here are unlike any other, emanating echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, mysterious, and meditative, raising the level of intensity through whirling gyrations, spectral harmonics and the cyclical resonances of the Tibetan Bells. # Nuru (Nurudafina Pili Abena)

Drum Call 0114

"Rhythm is life. Vibration is breath. The heartbeat is the core of one's being." So says Nuru, conga, djembe player, and Afro-Caribbean and West African percussionist, who some of you know from the OneSpirit duo... and we proudly release this mid-1994 album on the Ladyslipper label! It opens with an inspired program of calls, celebratory chants and prayers, to the orisa (pronounced 'orisha'), or Yoruba deities. They're performed in the Yoruba/Lucumi language in a call-and-response style, with Nuru in lead, and several voices in response, with chants to deities such as Yemaya, ocean goddess and mother of all; Oshun, river goddess of love; Shango, god of thunder and lightning. Nuru then performs 3 all-instrumental djembe pieces, then to a Cuban instrumental, La Lumbera, and lastly the unexpected hip-hop of the title track, with chorus and children's voices, and its critical message. Throughout, Nuru plays an astounding array of percussion, including 3 different congas (conga, quinto, tumba), djembe, shekere, rain rattle, Ghanaian rain stick, bells, agogo, maracas, claves, djon djon, and more!! Experience the talent of this master percussionist. Highly recommended! (LR114) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tribe of Twelve

Legends of the Drum

Native-inspired chant-like vocals by Govita Maroney, drums and percussion by Native artists Eric Casillas and Gordon Ulmer, plus Native flutes by Ben Tavera King, nature sounds, and more — sonically create a texture suggestive of legend and ritual. This is introspective, atmospheric music, rather than up-tempo drumming, with slower, deeper, almost sub-rhythmic, pulse-like and subtle. Titles include Corn Maiden's Ritual, Star-maker's Rhythm, Drums of the Calfyon People, Wind Spirits (TT137) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ubaka Hill

Dance the Spiral Dance 0118

Think danceable, think upbeat. For long-time fans and new... for dancers, drummers, and all those needing inspiration to get up and MOVE... this highly-anticipated 1995 release is a must! Ubaka has drawn together a bevy of talent, in addition to the ShapeShifters ensemble, master drummer Edwina Lee Tyler guests on several tracks, and over 20 women percussionists of the Drumming Orchestra participate on The Singing in the Silence. Many tracks here are chants, tribal improvisational in feel, and there are a couple of outstanding instrumentals. From Silence, an absolutely phenomenal djembe duet between Ubaka and Edwina, to Suhir Blackie's funky Intense Woman Unite, to the joyful title track which reminds us how to use power to heal, you can't help but feel inspired to join in. And, we highly recommend that you do! (LR118) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

ShapeShifters 0115

1995 brings a cause for true celebration: one of the most dynamic performers anywhere on earth finally releases her debut album, on Ladyslipper Records! We've never had so many requests for a single artist over so many years! Ubaka is a fiery, passionate, and radiant drummer/chanter/singer whose performance builds bridges and transcends boundaries while elevating the spirits of all who hear — her music is intensely woman-identified, life-loving, transformative, spiritual, and revolutionary, blending song, poetry, and rhythm into a heady brew. Motherbeat joyfully brings to life the exuberant imagery of women dancing down through the centuries; Night Flight, an evocative performance piece which incorporates the chant Spirit of the Wind, is a perfect vehicle for Ubaka's depth, artistry and grace; her intense rendition of the Jayne Cortez poem If the Drum is a Woman will send chills down your spine; in Hugh Masekela's Marketplace, she extols the beauty of a woman she meets and spends a night of ecstasy with; and her trademark, The Womyn United (which never be defaced/divided) is emerging and inspirational. Also includes a few fantastic percussion instrumentals for movement and dance. Our highest recommendation here — it deserves to go platinum! Warning: be prepared to experience an uncontrollable urge to buy a drum and join a drumming circle. (LR115) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women's Spirituality ~ New Age

Adiemus featuring Miriam Stockley

Songs of Sanctuary 0555

This unusual and beautiful recording mixes Karl Jenkins' original compositions (performed by the London Philharmonic) with the wonderful singing of Miriam Stockley. The twist is that the delicate western classical instrumentation intertwines with phonetically written lyricsless vocals, intending that the voices become another instrument, without the distraction of words. Miriam has an 'untrained' voice and sings fortissimo and without vibrato, the style of singing in her native South Africa. The effect is of lush multi-tracked 'world' choral music that will send Enya fans into a swoon. The combination of elements from classic orchestral, Celtic, New Age, and chanting from a variety of cultures makes this 1995 English recording an amazing find! Highly recommended! ## Return to Remember 0319

Even more beautiful than her first tape, she calls this one a musical map, a journey of remembering, and indeed something here seems to spark some ancient recall. Very female, ritualistic, and powerful, the songs and chants by this white student of healing and wholeness, earth stewardship and Native-based spirituality are poems to the Divine Mother and Mother Earth in Her various forms. It's again a source of new chants, as well as an absolutely gorgeous blend of instrumental tone colors and lush vocal textures, woven into a shimmering tapestry of light. Includes Goddess of Fire, She Alike They Sing Over, Earthling, Danu, Ancient Voices, and more. 1991. (MB2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Angels of Venice

What was a trio is now a primarily a female quartet (3 new women plus Carol Tatum from the original Angels), with some contributions by a male percussionist, and this 1995 instrumental recording represents their debut on the Windham Hill label. A few tracks are re-released from their album Awake Inside a Dream, but most are new, and as courtly and as lovely as we'd expect and hope for. Includes several of Carol's originals such as Queen of the Sun, Mick Jagger's As Tears Go By, made famous by Marianne Faithfull in the 60's, and 2 new arrangements of 14th century compositions. (WH11440) CD: 15.98

Awake Inside a Dream 0514

This 1995 album is like a rich, velvet-lined treasure chest of musical jewels! The addition of guest vocalists (along with the hurdy gurdy, oud, Irish bouzouki, recorder, Chinese bamboo flute, hammered dulcimer, udu, nagada, dundun, and Moroccan clay drum) creates a mystical, exotic album that ignores musical borders. Harpist Carol Tatum wrote many of the songs, inspired by photos of China (China Moon), the film Braveheart (Lionheart), and French pianist Erik Satie (Light at the Edge of the World). She also arranged A Chantier Mer, the only surviving piece of French medieval troubadour music (12th century) written by a woman, Comtesse Beatrice de Dia. Absolutely recommended! ## Music for Harp, Flute, and Cello

These three women — Carol Tatum, Suzanne Teng, and Sarah O'Brien — state that they are dedicated to expressing, through music, the beauty and mystery of the human spirit and celebrating the gift of life. One way they express beauty and mystery is to defy convention and perform in white instead of traditional black. And although their 1995 album opens with the well-known Pachelbel's Canon, it immediately moves beyond what we already know to break new ground with all original pieces, with the exception of the traditional Greensleeves. Includes Night Spirits, Lone Mystica, The Enchanted Forest, Charmcatcher, Romantic and dreamy! (EPH1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Avalon Rising

Playing Celtic-Medieval-rock-fusion, Avalon Rising is a shimmeringly original 4-person band. The intricate interplay among Margaret Davis (lead vocals, flute, Celtic Harp, recorder), Kristoph Klover (lead vocals, electric and acoustic guitars, mandala, cello), Deirdre McCarthy (bodhran, vocals, bongos, doumbek, zis, rig, tar, guitar) and Beth Milne (bass, French horn, vocals) evokes a band of Lorens McKinnitt and early Grateful Dead. This 1995 release includes both original and traditional songs that range from driving, danceable songs to haunting harp-based ballads. Their lyrics, including some in Medieval French and Portuguese, speak of love and longing, quests and reveals, magic and transformation. Includes Cynthia McQuillan's Dark Moon Circle ("Lady hey, steal away — join us in the woodlands"), and their mystical original God Walks Among Us, "She loves us every one, She waits with tender mercy, Until we all come home." Recommended! (FLM002) CD: 14.98

Through the Darkness: Chants... 0746

Starhawk described Beverly's 1998 ritual-like release, subtitled Chants from the Reclaiming Community, as "a haunting, magical CD that truly opens the gates to fairy, it includes some of my favorite songs and chants (including a few I've written myself)". Beverly's voice is strong and intense, sometimes solo acappella, other times with layered harmonies. It features 21 rich and varied selections from "between the worlds". Every Step is Sacred/The Midwife's Song, Weaver, Weaver, Goddess of the Sun, Fairy Queen Invocation, At Brigid's Well, and more, by Starhawk, Sparky T. Rabbit, Beverly herself and others. Subtitled Frauen singen Heiligs- und Kraftlieder, this 1995 German import features a 17-woman mostly-acappella ensemble performing 18 of the best-loved Goddess and circle chants — 14 in English. Recorded in a church, their reverberating harmonies sound glorious indeed! Includes many Libana favorites, such as A River of Birds in Migration, plus Old Woman is Watching (Weave and Mend), We All Come From the Goddess, Mother Ocean, Rainbow Woman, Our Magic is Our Gift Away, and the classic by Naomi Littlebear Morana, Like A Mountain, a.k.a. You Can't Kill the Spirit (Old and Strong). 0513

This lushly beautiful 1995 album feels like taking a warm bath while surrounded by delicate crystal. The sumptuous, velvety sound of her rich voice matches the smooth, intense, and elegant textures of her acoustic and electric cello playing (I love a good cello). She elaborates: "I use cello where other may use guitar or saxophone. It's a lead instrument." A mixture of ambient beats and rhythms, Celtic-inspired melodies and classical structures make this reminiscent of Sarah McLachlan, Loreena McKennitt (who she actually records with - you can hear her on The Book of Secrets), Enya and Jane Siberry - yet totally fresh and unique. Mostly original compositions washed with strings and synthesizers (with a snaky version of Joni Mitchell's A Case Of You) will take your breath away with their loveliness. Highly recommended! Cecilia
The Voice of Violet 19

The "Voice of the Feminine Spirit" returns with a new album for '97. Based on a mystical novel by Stuart Wilde about the spiritual quest of two young boys for their sister, it is a lavishly orchestrated creation. Cecilia, a Norwegian classically-trained operatic soprano, combines her love of classical music with "songs that express higher ideals, that inspire and elevate the human spirit." Accompanied by a forty-plus choir, oboes, French horns, flute, Celtic harp and a wash of keyboards, she sings of a gently majestic vision of star children. (WD410) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

This 1994 album is one of unusual beauty, purity and clarity, impeccably performed by Norwegian-born Cecilia Knussen, who possesses a haunting, bell-like, classically trained voice, the sprigs inspire and soothe. The album also features renowned guitarist and composer Tim Wheeler, as well as lyrics by Stuart Wilde, international lecturer and author of the mystical books Tao Quinter. Sound effects from nature, including the sounds of wind, water, birds, and wolf add dimension; also some male voices included. Contains (WD400) CD: 16.98

Celestial Winds
Moon Songs

How unusual and refreshing. Celestial Winds was a well-known mixed-gender duo until recently when they became an all-female duo. Their 1995 release reflects this new configuration. Lisa Franco, who has been a principal since the beginning, plays electroacoustic Celtic harp, mandolin and Appalachian dulcimer; she is accompanied by Susan Craig on a variety of recorders and flutes. Many of the dreamlike tunes are originals (Adele's Arms is for Lisa's grandmother; Luna de Amor, Still the Moon and more), also includes an instrumental version of Ann and Nancy Wilson's Just the Way. Devi

0550

This 1996 release is a way-spectacular album from an acclaimed voice teacher in England with an unbelievable range! Devi, which means Divine Feminine or Goddess, contains her favorite devotional chants from the Hindu, Christian, Buddhist and Sufi traditions. She multi-tracks her own voice, which spans many many octaves, creating a full-chorus sound at times, contemplative, otherworldly, full of grace and power. Includes Ave Maria (her own improvised interpretation) and Kyrie; Thy Will Be Done Bhagavan which is based on an Indian kirtan she learned from her spiritual teacher, Sri Ananda Mayi Ma (one of India's greatest women saints); the track which invokes and celebrates the presence of the Divine Mother within the heart of the singer, a 4-part Armenian chant, and one which translates the Buddhist Heart Sutra. Highly recommended! (RAV1961) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Chloe Goodchild
Sura

This 1996 release from this British-born "Judeo/ Christian/ Hindu/ Buddhist/ Quaker" features a stronger rhythmic impulse than her previous work, while continuing to draw upon the world's mystical traditions for source and inspiration. Asia (mythical-hypnotic), Europe (harmonic), and Africa (magical-intellectual). Constance Demby
At Alaron

With a synthesizer that sounds like the most glorious pipe organ, and with a psalter, gamelan and cheng, Constance gave a performance in 1983 whose magic and energy have been captured here, and she often played two instruments at once, seemingly effortlessly, overlaying the ensuing rich mixture with her electronically altered voice. This very recommended classic is now at a special low price! (SC4) CS: 6.98

Dale Zola/Kirsten Falke/Rumi
The Breeze at Dawn: Poems of Rumi

On this 1999 release, composer Dale Zola has set to music 14 poems by Jelaludin Rumi, a 13th century Sufi mystic who lived in Turkey and recited his poems in Persian. Dale has been immersed in Rumi poetry for almost 20 years - she and her husband Dan produce evenings of Rumi's poetry called The Great Night of Rumi in northern California. She has also conducted a women's singing circle for many years, which is where she found Kirsten, the vocalist heard here. Oud, accordion, pedal steel guitar, bass, bells, didgeridoo, flute and violin set the backdrops for Kirsten's expressive vocalizations, creating a compelling setting for these timeless words of joy, humor, wisdom, spirituality, and connection with the Divine. Inner Chambers

Part of the Sex Temples musical series, this 1999 release weaves, through music, sexual celebration and meditative practices from ancient to modern times. The album focuses on the opening of the sexual center and the transformation of shame, inhibition and control patterns surrounding sex, to an aware, joyful experience. She utilizes the pathways of Tantra from Tibet and Eastern India, plus Chikuzo-Quadoshka, shamanist teachings from North and South Americans, regarding the sexual, creative life force. Delicate harmonized vocals, strings, dulcimer, percussion, synthesizer, tambura create the rhythmic, meditative atmosphere of Windows of Love, Sacred Night, Tiger Awakening, Luscious Nectar and more. Included on her 1993 release are both instrumentals and powerful vocal songs - all originals - that take you on a journey of the heart. Her keyboards and percussion evoke a most ethereal, celestial mood. Sort of Enya-esque, and suggested to fans of Lisa Ther's material. (ETH7102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Gala, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hypnotic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kristen Gygi on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements: "The earth is my body! Her water is my blood! Her winds are my breath! Her fire is my spirit." Kristen is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Dianic Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind
Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary-sounding devotional Goddess recordings we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is soothing yet full of contained energy, while Rhea Kroma is all vibrant movement. Kristen is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the West Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include Wind Dancer, Exploding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Return to the Goddess-Chants & Song

0245

This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristen and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the cradle, and the material continues to honor and revere the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include 2. Budapest's From the Goddess Chant, which anyone who's attended a woman's spirituality gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Say Yes To Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more acoustic in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended - and we additionally recommend all their albums for bellydancing and other movement. (DW1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Grayhawk/Helene Hess

Blissful Magic

Subtitled Spirit of the Celtic Mysteries, this unusual 1995 recording is a Druid Earth Rite, honoring the Great Mother manifesting as Bridget, that fuses chanting (in both Gaelic and English) with lush, sophisticated neo-classical music. No simple circle-singing here! Grayhawk David Gibney collaborated with magician Helene Hess in creating a trance channeling this ritual of initiation, healing and blessings (we wish she were credited on the album jacket); he composed the music and conducts the Isle of Avalon Orchestra. Using Celtic Shamanism and the craft of Magical and Wicca practitioners from both North America and Europe, this is a powerful and transcendent album filled with the Bardic Mystery Choir's beautiful choral accompaniment, with solos by priestesses and priests, and music of wooden flutes, hammered dulcimer, David Darling's cello, and percussion from the Faery Drumming Circle. ## Gypsy

Enchantress

Gypsy is a present-day witch/priestess from Salem (no kidding) who writes and performs very magical pagan songs to honor the Goddess and the witches, to cast magic spells, to invoke medicine spirits and world peace. Accompaniment on violin and flute by Kenny and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady, Two Witches, Magick, Merlin's Theme, Medicine Song, and a new solstice song of the Old Religion, Bring Back the Light. Enchanting! (WLP1) CS: 10.98

Holliene

Vision of the Grail

This Renaissance goddess, pagery, magical Celtic blend with a serene and spiritual ambience, comes from a harper whose enchanting and passionate approach to music stems from a most auspicious and unique upbringing. Born and raised by a traditional Hungarian Irish family, her Gypsy blood and cultural heritage convinced her at an early age that music would be her way. As she grew, her travels with Gypsy musicians and dance troupes inspired her to share this culture with others. Her 1996 release combines her harp, interspersed with some layered vocals plus occasional incantation-like spoken poetry (some by Earl Scott) and animal sounds with evocative instruments like bouzouki, bodhran, dumbek and violin, on selections such as Goddess of Grace, Searching for Lambs, A Winter Tale, Szezan (her Gypsy-influenced piece), and the track, Intoxicating and recommended! (WRK0001) CD: 15.98

Incubus Succubus

Wytches

One of the foremost Pagan bands in the UK, their melodic songs and punchy musical delivery is distinctly Gothic in style on this 1994 import, capturing the vibrant energy of the Craft. Powerful lead vocals by Candia are backed by driving electric guitars, bass and drums alongside acoustic 12-string bodhran and accordion. Songs like title track, Pagan Bitch, Queen of the May, Dark Mother, Song to Pan tell of joy and the earth's cycles, while The Rape of Maude Brown, Burning Times, Church of Madness ("What do they tell the people of their old crusades? Of the woman and children impaled on Christian blades") recount the persecution and brutality committed by the historical church. (PMR7) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lush Mechanique

We've known about Jami's incredible artistry for a long time now, through her musical associations with Charlie Murphy, Rumors of the Big Wave, and most recently with Fenton. Her 1999 debut solo album of electric cello music is peerless. However, if there is music in the next realm (which I'm sure there is), some of it must sound like this. She describes "lush mechanics" as the meeting of two different worlds — of one giving birth to the other — of them living side by side. The accompanying percussion, along with occasional layers of voice, creates a tribal, insistent, intense, emotional spirit, evocative atmosphere, with her exquisitely classically-influenced cello tones at the center. What depth and breadth, highly recommended! (OFM1008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Second Sight

This rich 1996 sonic journey weaves the warmth and beauty of Jami's unsurpassable electric and acoustic cello with drums, trumpet, sax, piano, accordion, vocals and nylon-string guitar. Features guest vocalist Rhannon on I Carry You, Julie Wolf on piano on two tracks; and a beautiful poem by Charlie Murphy (one of Jami's longest-term collaborators) entitled Tree of Love. A delicious variety in arrangements too, ranging from the full richness of bass, drums, and vocals plus cello, to the poignant simplicity of solo cello. One of the most talented musicians we know has gifted us with another expression of her art, partake! (OFM1009) CD: 15.98

Mind-Body Rhythm

Sensitive to the many sounds we involuntarily listen to daily and the healing response music produces, composer/therapist Janalea adopted music as a healing tool. On her 1996 release, she recorded her original instrumentation (including flutes, strings, acoustic piano and celestial voices) at 60 beats per minute. At that slow, steady beat, the heart and breathing rate harmonizes with each other, resulting in relaxation and reduced stress. Also perfect for massage! (JUNY1) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Musical Acupuncture

Janalea developed this innovative concept in Music Therapy, which enables the listener to experience how music can conduct and move energy in the body similarly to an acupuncture treatment — without needles! Particularly effective for chronic pain such as arthritis, back pain, and headaches, as well as for preventive medicine. It features music specially metered at 60 beats per minute. Includes both music with vocal instruction and music alone. It's so beautifully melodic (and acoustic) that the second part is also recommended for meditation, deep relaxation, and stress management! (RMS3) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

Musical Massage

If you're looking for massage music, this is perfect! Created with very beautiful piano, cello, flute, violin and viola — all acoustic — the melody is flowing, soothing, and healing. This music will actually slow the heartbeat of the listener to 50 or 60 beats per minute, as the body tries to synchronize with external rhythms. Therefore, the music itself acts as a massage, as your body feels the vibration of the music! Each side has continuous music, suitable for uninterrupted body work. (RMS1) CS: 11.98 CD: 14.98

Jayne Eliason & Philip Riley

The Blessing Tree

Occasionally albums come across our desks here that are gloriously elegant and almost sacred-sounding; this is one which offers true aural blessings! If you like the music of Enya, this emotionally intense 1998 release from this New Zealand duo will comfortably fit into your music collection, standing far above other Enya-esque releases. Songs such as Pictish Girl ("Wild and dark she runs in Pagan black! Within her world/Who will ever catch the wind? Or tame my pictish girl?") embody lush, poetic lyrics and magical melodies, leaving your senses intrigued. Jayne Eliason and Philip Riley's instruments create an eternal scene of euphoric beauty — highly recommended! (WHC1036) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jennifer Berezan

Returning

To record this exceptional 1999 multi-cultural meditative chant/Women's Spirituality collaboration, Jennifer and a group of musicians travelled to Malta, to one of the world's most ancient and important sacred goddess sites, the Hypogeum. This 3-story underground chamber was carved from stone over 6000 years ago, to honor and celebrate the Mother Goddess and her sacred cyclical mysteries of birth, death and regeneration. The oracle chamber, created with an advanced understanding of acoustics, probably demonstrates that these ancient peoples recognized the healing power of sound and music. Special guests Linda Tillery, Navajo singer Sharon Burch, Qwasil singers Sukhwat Ali Khan and Rifat Salamat, Rick Lazar (Loreana McKenney's percussionist on Mummers Dance), and others weave elements of chant, goddess spirituality and Buddhism from a variety of cultures, evoking the image of ancient singing Priestesses. Highly recommended — by us and by Olympia Dukakis, who says, "Motherheart whispering to us from over the ages, yearning for us to know her." (EOW13) CD: 15.98

Jennifer Berezan w/Olympia Dukakis

She Carries Me

This 1995 release is a highly original creation weaving gorgeous layers of vocals and instrumentation — a powerfully evocative and meditative piece of healing music to the Goddess in her many forms. Features Chris Webster, and special guest Olympia Dukakis reciting the Charge of the Goddess; also includes the long-playing pieces Who Hears the Chant of the Wind and title track. The multi-layered chant honors the Chinese goddess Quan Yin, the Tibetan goddess Tara, and includes a reworking of Jennifer's Catholic past in a reworking of the Hail Mary. ## Jillian Klari

Womanspirit: Women's Songs & Chants

Ideal for use in women's ritual groups, Jillian self-harmonizes on this lovely 1991 album, some scapella, some to simple drumbeat accompaniment. Her layered vocals are beautiful and crystalline, so even though lyrics aren't included, you can easily learn these songs. Contains several Goddess traditions, such as She's Been Waiting and May the Circle Be Open, plus chants by Z. Budapest and Lisa Thiel, one Seneca chant, and 2 originals by Jillian herself: title track and Blessed Sister. Even though some of these songs are included on other compilations, we recommend this one for its clear sound and the beauty of its production. (JK1) CS: 9.98

Julia Haines

Thunder: Perfect Mind

Her name isn't a household word, but harpist/vocalist Julia Haines ranks among the all-time favorite artists of this Ladyslipper Catalog editor! Julia's compelling, lyrical, unique 1999 release (9 years in the making) will be of interest to anyone who has investigated the Gnostic Gospels. The 5-part title track contains some of its ancient texts set to music, about which she says, "More than 1500 years ago there was a voice of feminine energy, duality, ambivalence, paradox, contradiction and passion calling out." She meditated on these words morning and evening for over a year, and the depth of her exploration is evident in the musical delivery. Other tracks are equally excellent. The Mystery by early Irish poet Amgus, with the chant "I am the wind which breathes upon the sea, I am a wave of the ocean." Jato Je, a traditional Mandingo song, and Wind/Water/Light from her debut release by that name, as half of the duo Wind/Harp. Meaningful and melodic, there are many treasures to mine on this beautifully produced, very highly recommended recording. (AH2) CD: 15.98

K.J.

She Carane Hom: ...Divine Feminine

Subtitled Evoking and Honouring the Divine Feminine, this 1996 release is one of the more engaging and enchanting women's spiritually recordings we've heard in a while. Cello/feminist, spacious and erotic, warm and inviting. Inspired by Sacred Sites and performed entirely by women, her original melodies, rounds, chants and spoken pieces are drenched in Feminine Power — recalling times when priestesses worshipped and queens reigned, and activating an ancient vibration deep within cellular memories. Her voice is strong and centered, sometimes enhanced by beautiful harmonies, backed by touches of drums, didgeridoo, guitar and flute. Some lyrics were channeled in a language she doesn't speak, but which when translated were found to be spiritually meaningful, also includes Greenwoman, Eleni, Kai Energy, Song of Avalon, and the spoken One Woman's Freedom. Very recommended! (KJ444) CD: 14.98

Kay Gardner & Sunwomyn Ensemble
Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1989 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path. Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Toff's) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annalisa Aguiar and Nurudafina Pili Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Vindicta, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! (LR107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner
Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summer/fall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your headspace and heart. Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing; perfect for relaxation, meditation and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. And, note sale price on cassettes. (LR111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner
Drone Zone

Continuing her pioneering work with the healing properties of music, on this 1996 album Kay employs droning sounds and vibrations that resonate with the soul and the body, using tones to "unlock" and heal. She combines a buzzing Indian tambora with bamboo flute, Amazon insects with ocarina and renaissance pipe organ pedal with concert flute in an Ancient Greek Dorian style, the chant OM, Scottish pipes, a windsinger, a Brazilian berimbau, and an Australian didgeridoo, to create a wonderful worldwide spiritual sonic tapestry. (REL3188) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Kay Gardner*Ouroboros (Seasons of Life)

This 1994 recording is nothing short of a miracle... to tell you all about it would take volumes. Subtitled Women's Passages, this oratorio by Kay for 6 female soloists, women's chorus and orchestra is set to exquisite solo texts by Charlie Hudkins (a woman), and powerful choral texts by Ila Suzanne. It's a live recording of its premiere performance at the 20th National Women's Music Festival in Bloomington, IN, and is one of the largest-ever classical productions featuring women musicians: 84 voices, 40 orchestra members. Except it's not classical, in the traditional sense. Performers as well as audience members were often teary-eyed during the performance, they were so profoundly moved. The work celebrates the ages of Woman, with each age corresponding to a holy day on the ancient Celtic calendar (solstices, equinoxes, Beltane, etc.), is strongly centered in female spirituality, and relates to the birth/death/rebirth cycle. Lush and deeply healing, the music itself is somewhat reminiscent of A Rainbow Path. Stunning performances by soloists Geraldine Carol, Amanda Barrett (Ruff's 15-year-old daughter), and so many others (wish we could name them all) are woven with majestic choral interludes... this is Kay's absolute masterpiece on tape, and we're so thankful that the performance was preserved on tape, and proud that we can offer it to you now. Most highly recommended — whether or not you relate to "classical" music! (LR115) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner*My Mother's Garden: Piano Melodies

Kay Gardner is first and foremost a composer of healing music — a pioneer in the genre. Usually she composes for acoustic ensembles, and/or for her own evocative flute... but when she's at work on one of her larger ensemble works, most often you will find her at her piano. On this 1995 release of original neo-romantic piano compositions, Ladyslipper presents a glimpse into the composer in her medium. She performs both works she has composed expressly for the piano as well as ones written for orchestral settings, pared down to their essences. Includes To Elise (for poet Elsie Giddow), To Javi (for her daughter), the lush and heartbreaking Rhapsody Elude (for a 13th Chord) and almost all the pieces from her best-selling A Rainbow Path. (LR118) CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner*Music as Medicine (6-Cassette Set)

On this 1999 6-tape set with booklet, this pioneer in transformative music reveals her unique system for creating melodies, rhythms, and harmonies with the power to heal. She explores 9 healing components of sound, yielding practical methods for supporting the body's own healing strategies at a cellular level, and introduces new explorations of medicine wheels, chakras, anatomy, and wave theory. Skillfully interlarding technical expertise and music samples (some from Ladyslipper files) with spiritual understanding, she unveils the therapeutic essence of sound, making this potent tool available to all. Kay Gardner*Ocean Moon

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special... This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamuse, which she considers the best piece she ever composed, with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release, which we heartily recommend! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner*Emerging

An exquisite instrumental masterpiece by Kay and a host of other classical musicians. Sounds range from Renaissance to contemporary to oceanic. Like Mooncircles, this music has an uncanny way of teaching you into one's depths and subtly producing a healing effect within body and spirit of the listener. Kay has demonstrated her ability as a composer of the highest caliber. (WWE83) CS: 6.98

Kay Gardner*Mooncircles

This beautiful, classic 1990 album of flute compositions is a must for all women's music collections. Kay has played the flute for many years and this album reflects her mastery of both the instrument and of compositional music. Much of it is an ancient and, according to the album cover, Sapphic mode, and perfect for meditation or love-making; also includes three vocal tracks. Classical guitar accompaniment is by Meg Christian, piano by Althea Waters. (WWE80) CS: 9.98

Kay Gardner/ Nurudafina Pili Abena*OneSpirit

Cassettes now on sale! This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world. The OneSpirit duo is a chthonic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flutes, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global musics and rhythms from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this surreal journey. Features a cameo appearance by Brooke Medicine Eagle, on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle... also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Silencia, Carnival, Asian Sunset, Happy Life. We welcome Nuru — with her congas, djembe, guaca, dundun, pandero, palaton, agogo, dumbek, surdo, and rain rattles — to the Ladyslipper label. Exciting, energetic, and meditative all at once. Highly recommended, of course! (LR113) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner*Sounding the Inner Landscape

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, this special long-playing project is Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditations, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path, Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom, and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Have your own private 70-minute workshop with Kay, anytime... now on CD! (LR100) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner*A Rainbow Path

Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which was years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this 1984 recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, double bass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording, and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, multi-dimensional experience. Kim Robertson*The Spiral Gate

Follow Kim into a world of mystery and mysticism with her Celtic harp and evocative vocal layerings. Weaving harp and vocals with flute, fiddle, accordion, guitar, cello and percussion, she will transport you into a heady labyrinth of sound and rhythm. The themes of exploration and discovery, as represented in the symbol of the spiral, find perfect musical interpretation on her 1999 release, one of her finest to date. Her approach to her instrument is distinctly non-traditional and unexpected among the standouts are the jazzy Comb Your Hair and Curl It, with its compelling 9/8 meter, and Gaudete, a medieval hymn (which both she and I first learned from a Steeleye Span album). This harp master once again stretches boundaries, creating a new gateway to an exquisite sonic web; highly recommended! (RA47323) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Bettine Clemen*Love Song To a Planet

Virtually ignored by the mainstream music industry, Kim will probably be one of those composers who graces a relatively small number of us with her magic, then becomes posthumously knighted, or something! We keep saying that each new album is really her best, and it can't be helped, her artistry is perfect on so many levels, one wonders what goddess she pleased to be so blessed... Joined here, on her 15th recording, by the equally prolific Bettine Clemen, for a joyful, reverent, gently loving and creative tribute to our Mother, our home. Flute and harp dance and blend into ethereal layers of sound, sometimes together, and sometimes joined by cello, bell, synthesizer and percussion, for an experience utterly drenched in grace. Includes Shanti, The Dark Island, Amazing Grace, Day of the Dolphin, and the ambitious Love Song for the Water Planet. Very highly recommended! (JHV112) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron*Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtually supreme. "The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unlike the different yet complimentary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far, many Eastern sounds, interesting scales. Includes Worner of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fall. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past... or, if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (JHV125) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Live at the Forest Inn Volume 1

Expanding melodies, magical chants and a wealth of instrumental and vocal splendor emanate from the balcony of the Forest Inn where Kiva created this 1997 recording. The group performs mostly new and some previously released songs (Star of the Sea, Green Man) in the tradition of Goddess-centered spirituality. Each song invites you to immerse yourself in the clear full sounds and to remember the gifts and call of the divine Mother. This is an extraordinary album that will refresh and revitalize the spirit and atmosphere of any environment. Highly recommended! (KIV6) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mother Wisdom: Orig. & Trad. Chants

This 1994 album is an invitation to experience the Goddess in some of her many forms. Through original and traditional chants and songs, primal wisdom is shared about connecting to our ancient source, the roots of which grow deep to Africa, Tibet, Greece, the Americas, India and beyond. These invocations to the divine feminine remember a time, past and future, of balance with Mother Earth. Includes Yemaya, Rushing Water, Aphrodite, Green Tara Chant, The Earth Is Our Mother, Jai Me, and more. Lovely percussion and some sound effects accompany, as well as the 12 voices of "The Chorus of Powerful Women." (KIV4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lady Isadora (with Lord Pan)

The Witching Hour

Lady Isadora is a feminist witch priestess and singer-songwriter. Her lovely 1991 debut cassette of witchy material, considered a classic in the Neo-Pagan community, contains 15 songs, one spoken chant with drums (Heartbeat of Creation), and one spoken ritual chant poem with musical accompaniment, with such titles as Witches and Amazons, The Goddess Brings Tears, The Hallowen. Her clear soprano and guitar styles are in keeping with traditional Celtic lore; the majority of the songs are original, the rest by Lord Pan, accompaniment includes guitar, recorder, piano, pipe organ, vocal overdubs. ### Legends of the Goddess

This 1998 release brings forth a new perspective on Celtic Goddess music. On this all-original album, this songwriter with a fascination for Celtic and Goddess mythology has blended traditional Celtic and contemporary New Age sounds with folk and pop-influenced lyrics and rhythms to create music full of lush imagery. She counts among her influences such singer-songwriters as Shawn Colvin, and indeed, this work has a distinctively lyrical focus, with such tracks as Morrighan's Quest, an exploration of the mythology of the Celtic Battle Goddess, and Circle of Stone, a very personal take on Stonehenge. ## Lauren Pomerantz

Tree of Life

Inspired by the Jewish mysticism of the Kabbalah, an ancient oral tradition first recorded in Medieval Spain, the original music on this 1997 release is meditative, soothing and intentionally sound-healing. The Tree of Life glyph has 11 spheres, each representing a Divine attribute and a unique tonal vibration; together they form a sacred geometry. Into this context she has organized her 14 original songs, making the mysterious spheres accessible to a listener with little or no background in the Kabbalah. The perspective is very female, with poems such as Dream of the Goddess, Divine Mother, Shekinah and The Middle Pillar, an ancient sound system for balancing female and male energies within the body. Accompanying her lovely voice are quartz crystal bowl, Celtic harp, Tibetan flute, guitar, piano and strings. Recommended! (SBM0007) CD: 15.98

Life Between the Lines

Back by popular demand! When there's so much mediocre instrumental music around, how do we communicate that an instrumental album is truly spectacular? We can tell you how you'll be immersed in the passionate, sensuous and energetic soundscape of her music, then swept away in an emotional torrent pushing mind, body and soul to its extremes... and hope you'll believe us! A classically trained pianist, she performs her original compositions on a variety of synthesizers, with some accompaniment on guitar, bass, tenor sax and drums. Textured, layered, melodic, with great depth, intensity and sophistication, we highly recommend this 1995 release! (ZP0102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Roots

If you like the piano works of Margie Adam or George Winston, you must buy this! The first solo acoustic piano album from this amazing composer-instrumentalist tracks her life's journey back to the roots of her childhood, chronicling her experiences in musical snapshots from early writings to present improvisations. From the restless yearnings of a 12-year-old in the little track, to the alienation of Stranger in a Familiar Land, she submits her life to the listener in music that is direct, soulful and passionate. And her technical prowess is impressive: this 1997 album was recorded live without edits or overdubs. Reflective, evocative, hopeful, inspirational, and highly recommended! Plus, Kay Gardner contributes flute tracks on a few selections, and any musician friend of Kay's is a friend of ours! Leah has a strong, rich voice, which she multi-tracks with layers of harmony, some vocals also provided by producer Doug Watts, additional accompaniment by drums and percussion instruments from a variety of cultures. Includes Mother's Call, Earth Mother, Body Mine, Healing Chant, Spinning Round. (LWS1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Triple Aspect

Here's something very different... heavy metal riffs with solid Pagan content — no gentle rounds and circle chants here! This most unique and intense UK import, imbued with ancient craft and religion, is from a British quartet, with lead vocals by Debbie Chapman (the guys do mostly the instrumental things). The track is almost a half hour, with 5 movements: Overture, Maiden, Mother, Crown, Full Circle. Other songs like All Hallow's Eve and Holly King tell the stories of the Pagan Celtic Wheel of the Year, and Cunning Man was inspired by a 19th-century Essex man who was considered to be the most powerful Witch in Britain. "I wield an ancient power! I feel it in my soul! Used for healing! With compassion! NOT for control." We pagans know a sacred truth! To live and love in peace is all! Great lyrics, informative notes, recommended! (PMR9) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Libana

A Circle Is Cast

This 1996 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and coincidences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women, deities drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist tunes. They sing each section in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements; most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (RPN002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fire Within

The sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast. Synthesizing their two musical identities—as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual—this 1999 release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel; yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here, several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman, Nereia, by a contemporary Sephardi woman, Tree Planter's Round, Clear Horizon, Rise Up O Flame, O Virgo Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you — on the Ladyslipper label — Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LR106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On this 1993 release, Libana deftly traverses hemispheres, continents, and borders with a dazzling repertoire of contemporary and traditional World Music. From a lyrical Finnish song of longing to the captivating pulse of Arabic rhythms... the stark poignancy of an Argentinean lament to the rousing drumming of the Zar, an Egyptian ritual ecstatic dance... Libana's music speaks to the essence of women's inner and outer realities. Compelling rhythms, incomparable vocal versatility, tenderness and strength join to create a musical mosaic of spirited integrity. Libby is beloved world-wide as an inspiring and passionate writer and singer of songs celebrating the heights and depths of the human spirit (see our Folk section). This beautiful, devotional chant for protection and healing (a mantra in an ancient, sacred language from India) is something new for Libby — written at the request of a friend. Let her warm, clear voice and the exquisite melody relax, calm and heal you — people are using it for everything from massage and meditation to yoga to simply helping them (or their little ones) fall asleep peacefully and wake up renewed! ### Lay It Down: Images of the Sacred

In addition to offering some earth-centered Goddess anthems, this 1997 release addresses the struggles of Christian feminists, and retells Christian stories from a woman's perspective. Linda's bell-like voice is accompanied by soft piano, guitar and strings on such original songs as Mary, Mary, My Ynca to the old hymn Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing, which is entitled God, I Cannot Call You Father ("God, I know you as a mother! Giving birth to all I am"). Waiting For the Morning, a song from Mary Magdalene's viewpoint, Winnamint and Lady River, which weave together women's spirituality with Christianity. Also includes a response to the petition by the Oregon Citizens' Alliance to deny civil rights to lesbians and gays, They're Coming After You, plus Sarajevo, featuring Jami Sieber on cello, about a cellist who played on the site of a Serbian bombing to commemorate those who died. Joining Lisa are Jody Bergama, shamanic artist who lends her knowledge of the healing power of sound to the vocal harmonies, Anna Schrad and her amazing violin, and David MacVittie on bouzouki, flute and pipes. Filled with inspiration, depth and authenticity, we gratefully welcome and recommend this work. (SD6) CD: 15.98

Lady of the Lake 0112
 We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arches of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Rune Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and title track. An uplifting treasure, most highly recommended! (LR112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

 Listening to this brilliant solo pianist is always a veritable religious/spiritual experience — and this 1998 release is no exception. Her first album of original material in over 5 years, it is filled with grace and delight, sparkling like precious gems in the sun. Her notes contain glimpses into her thoughts behind the title, such as "17 seconds to anywhere is the proposal that once we have begun to dance with quantum reality... it will only take 17 seconds to accomplish what otherwise might have taken hours or years or decades." We'll go for that, highly recommended! (WH11291) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

 If you play this 1998 release while falling asleep, its promise will likely come true... its graceful elegance and simplicity of melody will relax and unwind you. The pianist/composer, born in Taipei and now living in the US, began classical training when she was 3. She says, "I enjoy melody. For me to tell a story in my music, melody is very important. I also value simplicity. My living environment and the objects I surround myself with are very minimal. Instead of adding, most of the time I take out. That's the way I like my life and my music." Mindia Devi Klein
Ragini: Fluted Voice of the Goddess 0331
 Ragini, the female Ragas of North Indian classical music, are musical embodiments of different forms of the Goddess. This 1995 rendering of the Raginis Durga and Shriyaji, and the bhajans Jai Ambe (Victory to the Mother) and Jai Sri Bhairavi (Victory to the Goddess) is a rarity, there are not many recordings of female musicians performing in the North Indian classical tradition. Mindia Devi, known for her founding work with the ensemble Ancient Future and her fusion of Indian, western and Balinese elements, performs on the bansuri, the deeply resonant bamboo flute of India, accompanied by Dana Pandey on tabla, the dynamic and intricate Indian drums. The soft, mesmerizing drone of the tanpura weaves its strings throughout. Fast and furious, playful and joyous, introspective and soothing, the Raginis bring you into the world of Raga, the "coloring of the mind" by the many moods of the Goddess.  Subtitled A Collection of Songs from Healing Circles, this album was created to commemorate the Ecstatic Woman Gathering held in Santa Barbara on Halloween of 1991. These 24 chants and songs — both traditional invocation and Goddess songs, and original healing and affirming songs — are intended to open women's hearts to the power of healing. Beautiful harmonies and rhythms are employed by these 5 women (Mujiba Cabugos, Valerie Girard, Lorin Grean, Chris Loya, and Julie Lewis), with tasteful accompaniment on percussion and occasional flute, harp and guitar. Lyrics included to make learning these easy, includes Honored Maiden Huntress, She's Been Waiting, Powerful Woman, Spider Woman, She Changes, Heal the Mother, Moon Sister Moon, We All Come from the Goddess, and Like A Mountain by Naomi Littlebear Morena, which they call Old and Strong. An excellent collection! (MVB1) CD: 14.98

Chants for the Queen of Heaven
 Susan Robbins, musical director of Libani, described this program of songs and chants to the Goddess as "a wonderful and varied collection of multicultural and original chants, performed with spirit and conviction, and arranged using a many-colored palette of instrumental and vocal textures." And we recommend this for all of you who have loved Libani and were searching for something else sort of like them! Containing women's sacred and ritual music from around the world, this 1993 album reflects the richness and variety of many women-honoring traditions. Material ranges from a celebratory Renaissance procession (with English horn, flute, cello and percussion) to meditative Eastern incantations accompanied by Tibetan bell, from the driving poly-rhythms of an Afro-Brazilian chant to the tranquil Shikharachi flute of a Japanese song, from simple but haunting modal melodies to complex harmonies by a 9-woman ensemble. Chants include Volkano Woman, Old Crane of Mystery, Rise Up and Call Her Name, Yemaya, Om Tara. Lyrics plus beautiful cover art. Recommended! (MMM001) CS: 9.98

Nhanda Devi
Chants from Isis
 Her lovely voice echoing through old German churches (known as "power spots"), Nhanda Devi's unaccompanied chants to the ancient female divine force, embodied by the goddess Isis, are marvellous sounds that soothe and calm. She is the founder of "Mystery Voice", where she assists people through energy work, meditation and the power of the voice to connect with their own inner healing power and wisdom. This 1994 recording is beautiful for meditation or just unwinding! (AIM0095) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

A Dulcimer Harvest

Ever since 1979 when Ruth and Cynthia began their musical collaboration, folks have been requesting an all-instrumental album. Twelve years later, their wishes are answered with this elegant and magical collection of favorites from the duo's first 3 albums, plus new compositions and traditional pieces. Their classical fingerpicking style is complemented by added acoustic instruments, such as Sylvia Woods' harp, Mamon Miller's violin (both from Joemy Wilson's consort), cello and more. Parthenogenesis

1. From the Greek Parthenos, 'Virgin' plus GENESIS, unitary creation without conjunction. 2. Process of a woman creating her Self by opening to her ability to define herself apart from the patriarchal mythos. 3. The album: An award-winning collection of original songs with powerful woman-identified mythic imagery, celebrating the Goddess with a unique blend of contemporary and traditional instrumentation. Kay Gardner calls Ruth a musician/priestess to lead us into the next century, and this album a must for anyone who believes in the political power of women's spirituality. We proudly present this to you on the Ladyslipper label, it's one of the most woman-loving, sensual/sexual, angry, mystical and magical albums we have heard. Songs include Crone, Naiad, Kakato (Holy Woman), Sisters' Eyes. Very highly recommended! (LR110) CS: 9.98

Ruth Huber
Spirit of Nurture

On her 1998 release, this classically trained and eclectically inclined artist evokes the wisdom of Goddesses, Witches, Mothers, Warriors, Lovers and Teachers down through the ages. On her lovely original songs Maiden, Mother, Crone, The Witch Song, Motherwit, Shekhina, Four Directions, Voice of Conscience (for Barbara Jordan) and Joan of Arc (which she also created as a choral score — Ruth co-directs the Rainbow Women's Chorus in San Jose CA), she mixes elements of folk melodies, African rhythms, Klezmer, jazz, blues and gospel harmonies. Produced by June Millington, the mood is alternately soothing, rocking, playful, lilting, seductive, inspiring, and yes, nurturing, recommended! (NPP1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sally Oldfield
The Collection

Here's a find at a classic low price! Anyone out there remember this British singer/songwriter, sibling of new-age luminaries Mike and Terry, well-known in Europe, who developed a US cult following in the early 70's? She multi-tracked her voices (which feature amazing range) and played a zillion instruments, like a renaissance woman, with themes that heralded the coming age of more spiritually-oriented musical releases. This import retrospective of hers includes the title track of her pivotal release Water Bearer, plus Woman of the Night, Song of the Weaver, Mandala, Fath With a Heart, You Set My Gypsy Blood Free. 15 in all. (CSL123) CD: 11.98

Sara McIntosh
Beneath My Touch

If you've been a music-festival attendee, perhaps you've encountered those wonderful "Sara's Shoes" in the merchant area... Sara's 1995 solo piano release proves that her gift is every much with hands as feet — this music is exquisite! These 18 solo piano compositions, with titles like Hyatt For Her, Don't Tears, Shining Deep, are some of the most lovely, sweet, stirring, meditative, evocative melodies we've heard, all beautifully performed. If you like Margie Adam's Naked Keys or any of George Winston's work, be sure to hear this, it'll make a believer, as well as a frequent listener, out of you. Highly recommended! Serpentine
Rock the Goddess

This 1994 release contains passionate, compelling "Goddess rock" tracks, delivered in an unexpected neo-punk style. A Diamond Goddess (were it not for the specific content, we'd list this in our Alternative section). Most are fascinating originals, such as Ride My Broom, Heru-ra-ha, I Am Your Husband, Into the Cauldron, Victorious and Little Witch House, but the traditional We All Come From the Goddess (here given the title Rock the Goddess) is given an electric treatment which magnifies its intensity and interest. Themes of strength and defiance, pleasure and power, set to tribal rhythms and evocative orchestrations, what a brew! (GRR002) CD: 15.98

Sharon Knight
Incantation

This 1996 album of original pagan music is quite unexpected and amazing! The songs range from the full-blown rock of Bardic Voices, to the Celtic ballad based upon a 18th-century Scottish tale Bewitched, to the rhythmic ritual song Mother of the World. To the inspiring solo vocal Path, Sharon sings in a clear, expressive voice and plays the Celtic drum, bodhran, acoustic guitar and mandolin. Others add flute, drums, synth, electric guitars, bass and harmony vocals for a full, rich sound. The lyrics reference ancient Celtic themes, Druids, Sheva, Majord and witchcraft as well as love and passion. (TRJ68) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Goddess Chant: Sacred Pleasure

We are beside ourselves, we are so thrilled about this most unique and gorgeous work on our very own Ladyslipper label. This 1998 release evokes the "genre" of Goddess-centered and woman-honoring chants to a new level, rather than simple circle rounds and chants, these are lush, elegant, harmonic, deeply layered original extended choral chants... yet easy to learn and sing with. One senses how these chants emerged from the artist over time, and they invite us to move with her through this mass-like ritual over and over, centering and expanding. From the joyful and celebratory Sacred Pleasure which many of you already know ("I am the Goddess! I am the Mother! All acts of love and pleasure are my ritual"), to the nurturing Mother's Gift, to the sacred sounds of Blessed Be, to the gospel-infused Prayer Her, this music is meditative, inspirational, and awesome. Both we and author Margot Adler — who has danced ecstatically to "I am the Goddess" and has been awaiting this album for years — highly recommend it! (LR117) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Shawndeia
The Great Mother: Harp & Heartbeat

This 1997 album contains over 60 minutes of tender harp lullabies with a continuous background of mother's heartbeat, to soothe young babies and older ones too! The balance between the heartbeat and harp level was carefully chosen so that the heartbeat is available for those who have ears to hear, and also subtle enough so that the album can be enjoyed as soothing dinner music! The original harp pieces have lovely, nurturing titles like Mother Love, Safe and Secure, Angel Wings, Starry Sky. A perfect gift for new mothers or mothers-to-be, and also highly recommended for relaxation, massage, and insomnia! (ATM1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shelley Snow
Shamaneya

With her exquisite 1997 "invented languages" recording, this vocalist/flutist/composer joins the ranks of Enya and Marian Stockley (Adiemus) — she has created a deeply beautiful sound with a made-up language that sounds ancient, sacred, and magic! 8 of the 10 songs here are in this original tongue, with titles such as Emerging Goddess, A Mother's Cry for the Earth, Latifah, expressing a deeply female sensibility and spirituality. The instrumentation is elegant and gorgeous: violin, piano, percussion, etc. She took a risk here, and we hope you will too, by giving this your ear; recommended! (SHY1110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Singh Kaur / Kim Robertson
Crimson Vol. 1: Guru Ram Das
 This absolutely unique series for healing, with celestial vocals by Singh Kaur, and Celtic harp and keyboards by Kim Robertson, consists of long recordings (40 minutes per side) and repeated on both sides of the same phrase chanted over and over, with some of the most gorgeous music ever heard, and which truly uses some power to transform the listener into a serene state. This volume induces a healing state of consciousness, in the ancient scriptures the phrase is said to strengthen the connection with the inner spirit and to develop a sense of purpose and guidance. Very highly recommended! (INV301) CS: 10.99

Crimson Vol. 2: Mool Mantra
 The second volume is designed to open the heart; this mantra will gently remove the problems of the day and free the resources of the spirit, becoming relaxed, graceful and radiant with dignity and success assured. Harp and synthesizers by Kim are haunting, ethereal, and the vocals are heavenly. 1987. Very highly recommended! (INV302) CS: 10.99

Singh Kaur / Kim Robertson
Crimson Vol. 5: Mender of Hearts
 This sound current, recorded in 1987, has the ability to heal the heart and the wounds of life, and to reawaken joy and enthusiasm; a love-song in the purest sense, to the infinite within. (INV305) CS: 10.99

Singh Kaur / Kim Robertson
Crimson Vol. 6: Ardas
 In ancient times, Ardas was known as the prayer that goes beyond all prayers; the power of this healing sound will continue even after the audible sound current has finished. Kim double-tracks harp over her keyboard, and with Singh Kaur's voice, the result is not of this earth. It's floating bodiless in the galaxy. (INV306) CS: 10.99

Singh Kaur & Gary Stadler
Fairy Night Songs 0747
 Ladyslipper has listed works by the incomparable vocalist Singh Kaur since 1985, when she and Kim Robertson collaborated to create the Crimson extended chant series (among the first extended chants ever recorded). Sadly, she passed away in 1998 of ovarian cancer — a month or so before the release of this title — and we will really miss her and the gift of her music. It's a fact that her music has helped more than one listener through a rough personal time. On her last recorded work, her heavenly sweet voice combines with Gary's magical keyboard style. They take the listener deep into the mystical world of the Fairy night, with haunting melodies, tender lullabies and timeless values of the Celtic Fairy tradition. Highly recommended! Sophia
Return 0574
 This 1994 album is a prayer of celebration for the Goddess in all her glorious aspects, from angelic to erotic. The title track is a Sostice song. Shekinah Shakti calls upon Spirit, Fire, Earth, and Sea to dance with us, and Laxmi is a devotional chant to the Goddess of Abundance, Love, and Beauty. On what is probably the most surprising track, Sophia also honors the Goddess manifestation of artist Annie Sprinkle with Angel! Her heavenly vocals are carried on exquisite orchestration featuring gifted soloists (Ja) Ubai on ocarina and Steve Gorn on bansuri flute, as well as exotic percussion. An ethereal album that conjures up both yearning and salvation! (MR6794) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Starhawk
The Way to the Well
 Utilizing drumming, song, chanting and visualization, this contemporary guided meditation is subtitled A Trance Journey for Empowerment, referring to accessing the well of power within us all, rather than always searching outside of ourselves for fulfillment. The listener is encouraged to become the protagonist of the story, thus facing an opportunity for transformation. 1991 (STAR1) CS: 9.99

Starhawk, Reclaiming & Friends
Let It Begin Now
 Subtitled Music From the Spiral Dance, this 1992 release features 11 songs which follow the structure of the Spiral Dance ritual, an annual tradition in the Bay Area celebrating the festival of Halloween as well as Starhawk's book The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Ranging from acappella harmonies to full chorus and instrumentation, this music is intended to be shared and sung by all who wish to broaden their understanding of Halloween. Written and performed by Starhawk and the Reclaiming Collective, women and men working to link earth-based spirituality and eco-feminist politics... and friends. (REC2) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Sue Young
From the Mother 0706
 Subtitled Songs of the Sacred Feminine, this 1997 recording is a beautiful exploration and celebration of female imagery through the world's spiritual traditions and texts: Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Tibetan Buddhist and more. The opening track, This Is My Body (a communion song from the Mother) is alone worth the price of the album, for any woman for whom the Christian ritual of communion may have had deep meaning in the past (and/or present)... her song gives the ritual a new meaning which makes perfect sense — in a woman's spirituality context. The spirited closing track, Ruach, references Hebrew Scripture, and Shekinah from the mystical Kabbalah. Some songs are chant-like, some in Spanish, utilizing several musical styles and delivered in her strong and lovely voice. Highly recommended! (MLR104) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Therese Schroeder-Sheker
Rosa Mystica
 This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 20th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Music Celebrating the Goddess
 What a wonderful melding of women's music and women's spirituality! And, of course, any album which contains the classic song Amazon by Maxine Feldman — a precursor of both the women's music and culture movement and women's spirituality movement, and the song which still opens the Michigan Festival every year — has a place in our catalog! The trio (Norma Jean Burton and Jane on vocals, Barbara Chusid on keyboards) performs Willie Tyson's stunning Witching Hour, Charlie Murphy's The Burning Times, Judee Sill's beautiful Lady O (old timers: stretch your memories, now, back to 'Ginn' Clemm's first album), Karen Mackay's Arms of the Goddess, Ruth Barnett's Every Woman Born, and more... all truly classics of classics! This is a must-have for the priceless, precious material contained herein! (TRC1) CS: 9.99

Yoga Music of the Heart
 Born in Hong Kong, this yoga instructor/author has traveled around the world during the past 15 years, inspiring now as well as veteran yoga practitioners throughout Asia and increasingly in the West. She has produced over 200 TV programs of yoga instruction, and this 1998 release contains original soundtracks to her shows (and home videos). She and Siddha, her spiritual teacher, composed the music and lyrics (and provide vocals on some) specifically to transport you to a world of relaxation and inspiration — perhaps while you are doing your yoga! Synthesizers and guitar seem to be the primary instruments; includes Yi Tribal Dance, inspired by an ancient Chinese folk song, Moon Among the Stars, Lake of Tranquility, Spiritual Love. Zingia
Beneath the Veil
 An ecstatic trance... a Goddess dance... Katyn Greene, luminary of the Goddess tradition, and her instrumentalist husband Michael collaborate on this evocative and lovely 1997 debut release. It was conceived and born in the love of its creators as a hymn to the Goddess. Each song is a call to the Eternal Divine Feminine, a call to the Dance which inspires the heart. It is the music of Shakti, the mysterious force of Life Giving Love. On tracks like She Dances, Veil of Inertia, and Sirens of the Moonlit Tide, they artfully weave together exotic rhythms and percussion, Katyn's poetic spoken-word invocations, tribal and ambient sounds, and modern magic to create a new music of the ancient mysteries. Especially recommended for Middle Eastern-oriented creative dance! (SEQ102) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Alice Di Miele
Demons & Angels 0684
 On these acoustic alternative tunes from the Northwest indie diva, the 'singer-songwriter's octave-leaping voice recalls Rory Block's in its gorgeous elasticity and Tracy Chapman's in its warm resonance. (East Bay Express). Her kick-ass band — which includes June Milington, drummer/percussionist Janelle Burdell (Duckoo), Shelley Phillips and Freyde Epstein — gives a passionate performance on this 1998 release, the album Alice has always wanted to make. Love the edgy Witch's Magic (butch in shining armor! come to save me make me pure...), the bluesy Do You Dare ("I need a woman who knows where she belongs"), and the redemptive Alive. This 1998 CD release, from one of the world's finest women's jazz groups, finally compiles many of their best tracks from their 3 earlier titles Alive!, Call It Jazz and City Life. Spirit Healer, Yamaya, Wild Women Don't Get the Blues, Willing, Stop By Stop, Heaven Is In Your Mind, 14 in all, 77 minutes of Alive! music. Alix Dobkin
Love & Politics: A 30 Year Saga 0007
 Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian, plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shinji. Through which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists. This release coincides with her first year off the road in song, making it especially precious! Includes The Woman in Your Life, America ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes, 14 more. Absolutely recommended! (WWA007) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Living with Lavender Jane 0633
 At long last, releasing in winter '97, two absolute and essential Women's Music classics on a single, double-length CD! Lavender Jane Loves Women, with its 1973 release, swept women off fences and out of closets. With delight and disbelief, they passed the records from hand to hand, or sent them speeding across oceans and continents. Everywhere women listened, amazed, to songs which actually verbalized the previously unthinkable joy and pride of Lesbian consciousness and identity. Alix's equally wonderful Living With Lesbians soon followed. This appearance of women-centered culture signaled the end of women's historical isolation and silence, and provided structures to voice the exuberant spirit and outflow perspective of an idea long overdue. You've been needing to replace that vinyl anyway — treat yourself and loved ones to this piece of history! (WWA012) CD: 15.99

Alix Dobkin*Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney 0006

Note sale price on cassette! This wonderful release was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia! Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Hussy, The Girls Want To Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very highly recommended! Betsy Rose*Motherlight 0879

Betsy is a singer-songwriter whose music we have respected for a good 20 years... we're quite glad to see her back in the recording world! Her first release since before the birth of her son Matthew in 1992, it contains new music from the heart of parenting, in which her connection to earth consciousness and her years of activism thread through her songs, fusing her awakened love of a child with a passion for "a world worthy of our children." Includes Mama's Milk, a rollicking barbershop tribute to breast feeding (with hot piano by Barbara Higbie) — and a tip of the hat to La Lucha League: Birthmother, a deeply personal song of a teenage birth and loss, and two meditative songs based on the teachings of Thich Nhat Hanh. This 1997 release is a beautiful reminder that nurturing the future is a sacred path. (PC48) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.98

Candye Kane*Diva La Grande 0623

Delivered with humor and sensuality, the songs from this 1997 release will make you want to laugh ecstatically. In a vaudeville rock-a-billy bluesy style, this singer-songwriter (known to some for her flamboyant, outspoken X-rated past) performs mostly original compositions, with lyrics addressing social issues like sexism, sexism, censorship and homophobia. She declares in the song, The Lord Was a Woman that "When you say your prayers at night, Call the Goddess and get it right," also includes I'm in Love With a Girl, the raucous All You Can Eat (and You Can Eat It All Night Long), You Need A Great Big Woman. And, the marvelous vocal talents of this Diva La Grande won't be overshadowed by the campy, comedic performances — this woman can sing! Great cover too, co-created with Annie Sprinkle. Taste a little of this Candye, she's great for the body and soul. (DJS74710) CD: 15.98

Commonbond*Colors of Life

Recorded live in 1995 at the Birchmere in Virginia, the dynamic DC duo performs their original acoustic tunes with their voices ringing in harmony. Includes the AIDS benefit song People Laugh, the lilting Forever in My Rain, and their final-by-Nashville tune Hippie Cowgirl. (COM002) CD: 14.98

Commonbond*Naked Soul Dance 0713

Ashley and Mary Beth bring an elevated level of craft and broad array of musical styles to their 1998 release, Naked Soul Boogie, featuring fun lyrics, sassy vocals, and super boogie woogie piano by guest Deanna Bogart, brings back the days of 50's swing and shag. Old River and Fir, both songs about fading love, but vivid imagery and powerful vocals. The ballad of This Love features the pure acoustic sound of wood and steel. Wash yourself clean with inspiration, melt into a tender love ballad, and heat back up with their bluesy country and rock — it's all here! (COM003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson*Best of Cris Williamson

Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically, a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology, Portrait). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Woman, Sister Joanna, Surrender Dorothy — and many others of her best ever, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. (OL959) CS: 14.95 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson*Blue Rider

This 1992 classic album features rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry, with string arrangements by Mary Watkins. Includes Lucille, featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals. Loosestar which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Rendall. Levathan — a song about whales, and Heart to Heart. (OL931) CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson*Circle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in '90, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Sweet Woman, Shooting Star, Dreamchild, Sister, Song of the Soul — as well as previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire: If I Were? For the Music (well, it was released, but on a 45 rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Olivia, Millworker, Hey Good Looking. A wonderful way to remember and honor the album and the era. 72+ min. (OL963) CS: 14.95 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson*Prairie Fire

This classic album of pioneering spirits and western expanses is fortunately released on CD in 1998. Highlights include the driving sounds of the title track, the reggae of Colorado Duet, Days, and the visionary rock of Tsunami (a Japanese word for new wave!). Bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, tight rhythm. (OL941) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson*The Changer and the Changed 0019

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child of Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. 1975. (OL904) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson*Wolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout. From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free (no longer the tone wolf...), to title song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also Goodnight Marjorie Morningstar, for Natalie Wood; Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence; and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (OL951) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Meg Christian*Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire heretory-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 15th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Betsy Rose's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on Am I No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite closes. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW933) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull*Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour, Calamity Jane, "good-time cowgirl romp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways... and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably A&R ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! 1989. (SW22013) CS: 8.95 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret Fure*Between the Covers

On this collection of originals, Cris and Tret traverse the musical map: joyful rockers and poignant ballads mix with reggae, folk, and steamy rhythms. Recorded at the innovative Institute for Musical Arts in '96, it features crisp production, stellar vocals, commanding lyrics and electrifying melodies. Standouts include the title track, Positive Solution, and the concert fave, New Year's. (WWS401) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret Fure*Postcards From Paradise 0039

On this 1993 collaborative effort from two of the best-loved artists in women's music, evocative songwriting and stirring vocals challenge us to live in peace, honor the earth and love each other. About half the tracks are duets, most of the rest feature Cris on lead vocals, and Tret provides lead vocals on two. Includes Living On and The Best Interests of the Children, on which Cris and Tret are joined by Michael Callen, the "Diva" and former member of the Flirtations. Also includes Little World Spinning Blue, The Stones From Heaven's Fire, Garden Ring, Dreamboat (River of Heaven), My Father's Hands. (OL971) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret Fure*Radio Quiet

This dynamic duo of women's music, who have been partners in life and music for 18 years now, strike again. Their '99 title includes many concert faves such as On the Line, Choices, Keeper of the Light, The John Deere Song. Title track, which was written about the film Contact, and what promises to be a new fan-favorite, Tomboy Girl. And what Cris and Tret recording would be complete without a love song or 2, written to each other? A must-have for old fans, and a great intro for the new. (WWS402) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.98

Darthe Jennings*Lessons of the Heart 0780

If you appreciate songwriting, you'll find Darthe's quirky and poignant — and unabashedly lesbian — lyrics entrancing. Her 1999 release has a common place for everyone with sing-along melodies that flatter the uniqueness of every song. Tracks include Two Mommies, a witty foot-tapping number describing parental differences in families, No Federal Funding takes a more political approach and the title track, assisted by Kay Gardner, reminds you what love is all about. This album is entertaining, thought-provoking and recommended for those hearts wanting a brush-up lesson. (DJ1) CD: 15.98

Deldre McCalla*Everyday Heroes & Heroines 0271

This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deldre's best yet! — demonstrates this singer-songwriter's exceptional talent again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a foot-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love lost to social criticism. Includes All Over the World, Outside, Girl You Don't Know, Blessings, Sing Me To Sleep. Highly recommended! (OL965) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Deldre McCalla*With a Little Luck

...and a lot of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deldre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her 1987 album is even better than her first, from the irrepressible celebratory exuberance of All Day Always (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words. Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Diana Jones*The One That Got Away 0721

On her 1998 sophomore release, her beautiful alto voice wraps around you like a blanket, with lyrics that put color back into faded memories. This collection of engaging songs was crafted with the storytelling of a folk artist, and choruses big enough to bridge the gap between folk and pop. The title track has been her most oft-requested, sought-after song, even before her first album was released — so, no longer is this the song that got away, it's finally here for you to enjoy again and again! (NEW2) CD: 15.98

Dianne Davidson*Breaking All the Rules

Here's your chance to snag one of the finest-ever women's music classics at a great price — get one before they're gone! The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away. It booms, it wails, it burns, it belts her mixture of blues, country, gospel, R&B, and ballads. About 50% her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist), the balance is perfectly chosen: includes Bull for Comfort, Heaven Bound, Everything To Me. Guest vocals on one track by Tracy Nelson, an artist who's an obvious comparison to Dianne. Highly recommended! (SW22011) CS: 5.95 CD: 10.98

Disappear fear*Seed In The Sahara

Their June '96 album is intimate and uplifting at one moment, poignant and melancholic in another. Cindy Frank comes to sing again with Sonia and Klaudia Promessi (Blazing Redheads) plays sax on Millions of Roses. Includes a new version of Michelangelo, the long-awaited recording debut of B.Y.O.G. (bring your own god), the queer rights clarion cry Laws of Nature, Laura, 11 in all. It's the embodiment of Sonia embracing a strong and passionate direction for the sound of disappear fear's future. (PH1180) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.98

disappear fear

I've been looking for this generation's Bob Dylan — a songwriter with passion and power — and I think that I've found that. Only it turned out to be a woman named Sonia. That's how producer Craig Krampf feels about Sonia Frank, the creative force and songwriter for disappear fear, and that's why he produced this 1994 release. It features 10 new disappear fear songs and an updated cover of Phil Ochs' 60's anthem Is There Anybody Here? Special guests include Janis Ian and the Indigo Girls. (PH1171) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.98

Doria Roberts*Restoration 0779

For those who think the heyday of queer women's folk music is over, we offer you an unforgettable 1998 release from one of the organizers of the traveling Queenslock festival (which showcases lesbian and gay musicians). In her home town of Atlanta she's already a crowd favorite, and now the rest of the country can share in her talents. She combines the acoustic strumming and poetic lyrics of an expert folk songwriter with the rhythms and southern-tinged vocals of an R&B singer. The material moves from the celebratory and romantic Perfect to the socially conscious Jesus Is Coming. Beautiful arrangements and pristine production give wings to this release and send it soaring above the rest of the field. Highly recommended! (HDR2871) CD: 13.98

Dyketones Live in P-Town (Double)

The Fabulous Dyketones album is once again back in print: a full hour and a half by everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's at a dance party at Dyke High! From "To Know Her Is To Love Her" to "My Girlfriend's Back" to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykeangels Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended (RRR1001) CS: 10.98

Erica Wheeler Three Wishes

Erica's 1999 release represents another exemplary contribution to folk music. Expanding upon the distinctive songwriting style that she has established for herself, she delivers smart, intimate, image-driven songs. She sings as if describing a photograph, the emotion shining through her scenes as if you were in them yourself. Songs like "Onward from Here" and "Nowhere to Go" hint of her country/bluegrass influence, while smoother, more soulful songs like "Saturday" drop the drums and guitar completely, letting Erica sing alone with the piano. The result is stirring, don't miss out on something extraordinary! (SSR1250) CS: 15.98

Fem 2 Fem Animus

In 1994, this group excited and aroused the minds and ears of the lesbian community — and the American public — both with their music, and by speaking on the subject of lesbianism on TV, radio, on tour, and on the news. They returned with this 1995 follow-up, which captures their trademark sound while highlighting their growth as a group — a competing mix of both high energy pop tracks which made the group a dance floor favorite in the clubs, and sultry ballads with erotic and sensual lyrics. Out of print, "out out," don't wait! (TRQ18429) CD: 13.98

Ferron Inside Out... The IMA Sessions

Fun with a capital "F" — Ferron does covers! This late '99 or early 2000 release contains some of the sassiest renditions of really great songs many of us boomers grew up with: "Different Drum," "Walk Away Renee," "Don't Worry Baby," "Needles and Pins," "I Feel Fine," "Town Without Pity," "What Becomes of the Brokenhearted." Ferron and some of San Francisco's finest musical talent decided to go back and claim those songs, and they accomplished their mission, so dance along, laugh along and sing along! Please call for release date, or if you order, know we'll ship the moment they arrive. (IMA0001) CD: 15.98

Ferron Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any albums: the concert favorite "I Know A Game," and "Shady Gals" plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center. 16 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CD: 15.98

Ferron Phantom Center

One of the longest-awaited albums in the history of independent music, by an artist as singular as her name! Connecting rich, poetic, archetypal imagery with vibrant musical textures, this 1999 re-release of an album originally released in 1990 is guaranteed to create an immediate emotional impact. Many songs were re-recorded and/or re-mixed for the new version: guests include the Indigo Girls and Toni Amos. Songs include "Stand Up, My My," "Heartless Love," "Indian Dreams," "White Wing Mercy," "Higher Wisdom." (E942576) CD: 16.98

Ferron Shadows on a Dime

This Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite, very highly recommended! (CW004) CD: 15.98

Ferron Testimony

There is some mysteriously magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter. Hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock n' roll. Her testimony: "By our lives be we spun... by our hearts be we women... by our eyes be we open... by our hands be we whole." (CW003) CD: 15.98

Girls in the Nose

One of our top picks of the last decade, and way cheap too! Wild, raunchy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 6-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wider persona. Here are some of the song titles: "Come and Die" (can you guess what that's about?), "Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian," "Menstrual Hut," "Phantoms of Parity," "So here's your advice from Girls in the Nose: Women unite, take back your lives! Take them back to the damn store... Let nymphs be nymphs... and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (GIN1) CS: 8.98

Girls in the Nose Origin of the World

Wherever these gals blow their nose, audiences hold out their hankies for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands, "kickass lesbian rockers from the Love Star State" whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless. This 1992 release contains "Breast Exam," "More Madonna, Less Jesus," "Pink Guitar, Medusa, Sodomy," "Ingratitude," and more, singing to and with sexuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pro-choice, pro-homo recording! CD's very limited quantity, please list alternative! (GIN2) CS: 8.98

Halcyon

I'm Naked and I'm Going to Paris
This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies, ringing acoustic guitars, catchy tunes and upbeat rhythms. Their 1994 release is just in time for fans hungry for more, after their successful debut and festival tour, here with bass/drums/percussion accompaniment. Stephanie Callaghan and Debbie Hunseder write their songs primarily around the lost-love theme in its various manifestations, as well as the more political Fire in the Church and Wait For You, about the patience and persistence of love. (HAL1001) CD: 15.98

Halcyon Slightly Confusing to Strangers

Expanded instrumentation on their 1995 album takes them even farther than their last release! Electric guitar solos add intensity to the compelling personal, political "I Tell You Who I Am," and keyboards add dramatic flair on "The Story." Good intentions fail as an scapellato introduction as spiritual it hurls. Elsewhere Hal shows that their folk-rock is as spiritual as ever. They branch out into a rockabilly sensibility with "Inkblot Blues," then into a funky style in "Dreams From Reality," with a little help from a wah-wah pedal. (HAL1002) CD: 15.98

Halcyon Two Bars Short of a Hit

With broad, ringing vocals, and strong, smart harmonies, Deb and Stephanie incorporate a bit of a country edge into their folk-rock sound. Songs like "Hold Out Hope" and "Every Cat Will have you singing along the first time you listen, while darker, more subtle melodies, on songs like "The Voice," also permeate this 1998 album. You'll see why this duo was named a finalist in the nationwide 1998 Fair Emerging Talent Contest. Halcyon fans and newcomers alike will find themselves humming these infectious songs under their breath all day long... and fully enjoying this terrific recording. (HAL1003) CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults. Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written: "I'm Break My Heart," "If You Love Freedom," and "Yukon Rain." NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs including "Ancient Cry" and "Yes To Life." BORROWED: songs like "Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister?" and "Nothing Like the Freedom." BLUE: "Tell Me More, Do I Move You?" and more. 18 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print. Lots of her best work here, very recommended! (MOP005) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Holly Near Sky Dances

This 1988 folksy, intimate, emotion-filled release features Holly at her best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Ferron (Testimony), Bernice Johnson Reagon (They Are Falling All Around Me), Phil Ochs, Malvina Reynolds, as well as Holly herself... plus her inimitable interpretation of "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." (RRR002) CS: 10.98

Holly Near With A Song in My Heart

Holly shares with us her 1997 recording of 14 songs from the 30's and 40's — that era of great songwriters like Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, Fats Waller, Rodgers and Hart. She says, "Definitive versions of these songs have already been recorded by Ella Fitzgerald but they are worth singing again, to keep them alive, to keep some sweet innocence in our revolution, to share with our parents — those who have disapproved of us, those who have envied us and those who have mentored us." And it's true. Holly's mother was wowed by it! Its simple production (voice plus John Buchino's piano only) makes it sound as if Holly is singing right in your own living room! (CTM9701) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Holly Near Fire in the Rain

Holly's incredible talent as a singer/songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (she also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this classic album has a tight arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as "Golden Thread," "Voices," & a remake of "My Man's Got Trouble" called "I Got Trouble." Out of print, limited quantity (RR402) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Holly Near Hang In There

This classic, pivotal, essential 1973 debut release by the beloved singer-songwriter is still available in limited quantities, during a time when almost all her solo releases are disappearing off the face of the earth, as fond but out-of-print memories. So all you collectors, archivists, and women's and protest/progressive music devotees, don't wait to nab yourself a copy!! Recorded after a visit to Viet Nam during the war, it reflects her anti-war/anti-imperialist and beginning feminist consciousness, and a concern for oppressed people worldwide. Includes "No More Genocide," "Birthday Children," and a song performed by a choir of Viet Namese women. (RR3800) CS: 10.98

Holly Near Imagine My Surprise!

Holly's most woman-identified album contains some funky country-style music, inspiring political stories, beautiful musical and vocal arrangements by Meg Christian, and a sweet lullaby. Includes title, "Mountain Song," "Kentucky Women," "The Women in My Life," "You Bet I Sing Love Songs," "Rock Me in Your Arms," "Nine, Fight Back!" (RR401) CS: 10.98

Holly Near Journeys

This representative sampling from her first six albums was compiled because so many folks, new to her music, asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of "I Could Have Been Me." Out of print, and very limited quantity. (RR405) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert This Train Still Runs

The magic is still there! It's been more than a decade since these two magnificent singers joined forces and recorded their first album, Lifeline. This 1996 collection features passionate duos and stunning solos from these long time artists: activists and culture workers who have touched and transformed many lives. 19 tracks in all, including "When I'm Not Near the Girl I Love," "Marie," "Features of Hefty," "Applaud Home to Where the Heart Is," "Music in My Mother's House." (AA696) CD: 15.98

Holly Near/ Arlo/ Ronnie/ P. Seeger HARP

Historical folk music at its best, this live recording is again available, but in limited quantity. Bridging the gap between generations, Holly, Arlo Guthrie, Ronnie Gilbert and Pete Seeger (2 original members of the Weavers) share a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. (RR409) CS: 10.98

Jamie Anderson Bad Hair Day

This late 1993 release features some of Jamie's funniest songs ever! Tell us, a Ladieslipper personal favorite, "look at a problem we've all had at one time or another," while "Sweet Maiden" is simply a derailed folk song. Wynona, Why Not? has a full Nashville sound, and "Love Song" is a look at some of the music we survived during the 70's, but these songs were produced by Lisa Koch of Venus Envy and Dos Fallopos. Together with songs from her first two albums, classics like "Nothing (I'm nothing-without-you)" and "I'm Sorry (a song of condolences for heterosexuals), this comedic collection will brighten even your worst hair day. Highly recommended! (TSU1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Jamie Anderson Drive All Night

With tongue planted firmly in cheek, Jamie (to whom we say welcome, neighbor!) calls her 1999 release "More Songs About Sex, Food and Mama." She's re-released the sultry and sexy "Dark Chocolate" (a long-time favorite of this editor) and recorded 10 new songs including the hilarious "I Wanna Be A Straight Guy," "Anchored in a tight groove," "Feel sinners with anticipation," "With My Smile" is a poignant ballad about a woman who finds her birth mother, and "Roses" features the beautiful harmonies of the Burns Sisters. She's accompanied by Joyce Zymek (of Justina and Joyce) and 2 members of Paula Cole's touring band. (TSU1029) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Jamie Anderson
Never Assume

0320

This favorite women's music performer's 1995 album delivers what her fans (and we) have come to expect: outrageously funny stories of true life adventures and touching ballads of life and love, all told with her evocative vocals. The title track challenges a few preconceived ideas; Midnight Alice is inspired by a teenage love affair — with a car. The true story of breast cancer, One Out of Three, is a strong, positive song with startling honesty and hope. Ted is the tale of growing up with family secrets. And what Jamie Anderson album would be complete without a few songs to make you laugh out loud? Menstrual Tango and When Gals Take Over the World will do the job. Produced by the infamous Lee Koch. (TSU1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Judy Small
Global Village

0094

This 1995 release is as close to Judy's acoustic performance style as any of her prior recordings: voice with guitar and fiddle as the principal instruments. The songs reflect a mature reflectiveness, with just the right mixture of pathos, humor and politics. Includes Music in the Movement, a tribute to all women singers and songwriters who have nourished the women's movement in the last few decades. Love Is a Fearless Thing, a ballad about how people are persecuted for falling in love outside of the socially accepted parameters, and What Was Her Name which celebrates the centenary of women's suffrage in Australia. (CRA009) CD: 15.98

Judy Small

Let the Rainbow Shine: Out & Proud

0752

Here's the album this prolific Australian singer/songwriter (and as of recently, a lawyer too!) has always wanted to make, a whole album about gay and lesbian issues, yet an album for everybody. And with song titles like Lesbian Chic, A Man Among Men, and Country Town Gaytime Blues; this 1995 release fills her with pride. As always, her songs are extraordinary yet ordinary, as she leads us to find common ground between her own experiences and those of us, her listeners. This is a beautiful gift to the lesbian/gay community and beyond. (CRA011) CD: 15.98

Judy Small

Never Turning Back: A Retrospective

This 1996 release is a collection of songs from her earlier recordings, many of which are now out of print (and some of the others are soon to be). In fact, shortly, this and Best of the 80's will replace her entire back catalog. There are so many classics from the repertoire of this amazing Australian singer/songwriter. It's a must for your collection. (CRA010) CD: 15.98

Judy Small

The Best of the 80's

This wonderful 1993 retrospective contains some of the best material — 17 songs! — from Judy's first 4 albums: Mothers, Daughters, Wives; One Voice in the Crowd; Home Front; and A Natural Selection. Song titles include The I.P.D., The Family Maiden Aunt, Women of Our Time, From the Lambing to the Wool. In addition, she includes her popular but never before recorded song for recessionary times, Ordinary People. It's a lot of great songwriting for the money! And, watch for Judy on tour in the states. US Immigration Service willing. (CRA007) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Julie Wolf

Walk The Worn Out Floor

0585

I've seen Julie play piano and sing with the exquisitely goofy Lisa Koch, the boisterous Laura Love, and the fireball Teresa Trull. Her musical talent and deep, well-phrased voice have always seized my attention — and now that I've heard her 1996 solo album, they show no sign of loosening their grip. It is an intimate recording. Julie's piano and laments of accordion (what a dream girl!) tastes of Jani Seiber's cello and Hans Teuber's flute and sax, and, of course, her singing. From standards like My Foolish Heart to Elvis Costello's haunting Baby Plays Around, to Keith Jarrett's My Song (with lyrics by Rhiannon), to the blues of Someday Else is Steppin' In (with background vocals by Laura Love), to her original The Wall, Julie takes us on a wonderful jazzy trip. I just swoon. Recommended! (PAL30) CD: 14.98

So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from Ladyslipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)!" Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works; each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exuberant clear recording. The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Affirmation, which states "No! I will not lie down, I will not submit! I will not quiet, I will resist...," a moving cover of Ferron's Testimony, and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this 1991 recording enough! Rhythms, Rhymes and Tides

0095

The 1995 release by this intense vocal duo contains 8 of Joyce's original songs (about love, passion, disappointment, freedom) plus 3 great covers: Marcia Taylor's universally true Why Forgive and Forget (When You Can Remember and Blame), Jamie Anderson's song about breast cancer, One Out of Three, and a gorgeous 16th century acappella motet, Miller Regrett, featuring the sublime voices of Cindy Kaller and Susan Herick. Favorite tracks include the erotic Sip of Water, the moving harmony of A Light To Lead Me Home, and of course the motet. 4 voices suited perfectly for the genre — do you think they'd make a whole album of that if enough of us asked? All You Can Eat

0410

My, what a life. Ahem. From the moment you espy this garish faux-industrial, faux-import cover art, you can feel pretty confident that K.d. hasn't dusted off her vinyl cowboy boots for this one. Sure enough, on this 1995 release she has moved far away from the prairie to a place of shimmeringly beautiful and sophisticated pop. This is music that doesn't hit you over the head, rather, it insidiously gets under your skin and affects you in ways you don't even realize. Sexuality is a slinky yet square-in-the-face come-on, it would be hard to say no. In Aquescence, I enjoy her repeated imploring commands to do just that, especially since masterful usage of that word is so rare. Like a rich slice of chocolate cake, this is decadent! 0630

This 1997 release is perhaps both the most unusual and the most beguiling to date from our premiere chanteuse; it is a collection of ballads by other writers, all of which center on images of... SMOKING! Investigating the cigarette's musical resonance as an all-purpose metaphor for love, addiction or oral fixation, K.d. has created a lush, languorous album, delivered with an appropriately smoldering vocal passion. Along with such tobacco-themed standards as Don't Smoke in Bed, Smoke Dreams and Love Is Like a Cigarette are tunes by Jane Siberry, Dory and Andre Previn, Roy Orbison and T-Bone Burnett, along with playfully ironic treatments of The Hollies' The Air That I Breathe and Steve Miller's The Joker. A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found an import supply of K.d.'s debut release. It's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style, a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chronicled. Spokane ("she's my gal"), Nanky Dinko, her original Pine and Stew, plus Patty Cline's Stop Look and Listen and 5 others. No K.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM85) CD: 15.98

Ingenue

Here's what the blurb sheet from the label said, and we agree with it totally! "...the definitive K.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of K.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dripped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chetelaine, Constant Craving, Wash Me Clean, and Save Me. 1992. Kate Wolf (The Seattle-ite)

Daisy Petals On My Head

0715

Last there be any confusion, this Kate Wolf isn't the California singer-songwriter with the long discography; rather, she's the Seattle-based talented twin sister of the talented musician Julie Wolf and this 1998 release is her fabulous debut. Buoyed by classical training, this self-taught bassist and adventurous explorer presents a victorious example of her theory of casting the characters for each tune, and then allowing each singer and player arrange their own parts. Her lyrics read like poetry, and the music reveals a strong love of harmony. This CD will definitely quench all of you musical tastes. It is rich in layers, and leaving you to hear something new on every whiff! (CK70512) CD: 15.98

Dashboard Buddha

This 1998 release fulfills all of your cravings for girls and their guitars. The Durham-based duo holds onto its folk roots while branching out into spoken word in search of that Perfect Glass Of Tea, and rock with an electric Fourth Out (about you). Their lyrics create a picture better than any polaroid I have ever taken, particularly in Abandoned. There will definitely be "face smiler" and thumbs up "fingers drawn" for this highly recommended album. If you are not a former fan, you're about to become a faithful one! (KSJ) CD: 14.99

"Discovered" at the New York Singer-Songwriter Festival, where she stole the roof of Carnegie Hall, Laura is now playing in the big leagues. She slips into her 1997 major label debut, funk a-fying, with her exquisite keening yodel and bottom-shaking bass guitar. Bad Feeling slips in a little bit of James Brown and Sly Stone. Can't Understand takes you on a boat ride through the dark swamp while Laura ruminates on insidious hypocrisy. I Am Wondering undulatingly soars along. Amazing Grace, with its acappella intro sliding into some Delta Blues is as powerful as it can well should be. Nirvana's Come As You Are opens up some of its heretofore unknown cabinet doors. Somebody slap me! Blending socially incisive lyrics with flashes of accordion, steel guitar, fiddle, fute harmonica, she just keeps getting better. Indubitably recommended! This all-ways-fabulous 1996 release is true to Laura's blending of African and Caribbean rhythms, traditional acoustic instrumentation, and intriguing harmonies into the form she calls "AfroCeltic." Her distinctive bass playing style, coupled with a unique mix of instruments (not to mention her twisting-turning lyrics), weave ethnic and American roots rock into her wonderfully original sound. Some tracks are all-new, others familiar to fans: includes Aha Me A Riddle, I'm A Givin' Way, Manbootsy, The Clapping Song ("to clap is human but to yodel is divine"). Z Therapy

Laura's 1990 release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band — thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat Gr. Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos, Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Helvetica Bold

0418

Incredible vocals, amazing African/Bulgarian yodeling and unique, percussive bass playing are featured in a mix of originals and novel renditions of well-loved classics... as she layers Applesauce, Celtic, African, and urban American sounds and sentiments into a pastiche of unforgettable melody and groove. In addition to her own tunes, she imprints her style on the folk chestnuts 500 Miles, Wayfaring Stranger, Harik Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and possibly the year's best dance party rave, Jackie DeShannon's Put A Little Love In Your Heart. Themes are where we fit in the world — how she sees it, how she wishes it were, how she hopes it will be... in her words, "that in-between ground between Pollyanna and suicidal." She's one of our favorite artists, so we urge you not to miss this 1994 release. (OB4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

0038

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant — all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release, the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severi) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Nancy Griffith's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes — there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing, Nelson, Voices. Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

This beautifully-designed compilation contains selections from Laura's 3 albums on her own Octopus Biography label: Therapy, Pangea, and Helvetia Bold. The Putumayo World Music label, who fell in love with her 'Afro-Celtic' style, issued this retrospective in 1994 in the hopes of bringing her music to a wider listenership, and we hope they succeed — she deserves it, and we think she's well on her way to greatness! I'm Ready

Fans have been more than ready for this '97 release! It's filled with the moving, sweet, lyrical ballads and love songs (in English and French) that this Quebecois singer-songwriter is known and loved for across North America. Most songs are original, such as title track, which features Women's Music faves like Cris Williamson, Tret Fure, Alix Dobkin, Shelley Jennings, and Hillary Kay on supporting vocals and accompaniment. And Leaving Someone Like You, expressly by a woman to a woman. A highlight is her cover of Kathleen Hannan's If You've Ever Loved, about lesbians and gays who ironically lose the love of their families in the name of Christ, the very one who taught love for everyone. Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Olivia has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Cris Williamson and Meg Christian, here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Cris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Cris, Tret Fure, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McCalla. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — ease yourself now! Recommended: 1996 (OL947) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tendresse/Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her 1999 album includes perceptive socio-political songs: Polisique, Feeling, ever-touching love songs, Montreal, Abandon, and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Another charmed release for 1992 from this charming performer, songs in both English and French include Chez Nous, All Out of Love Tonight, Homeless, Sail Away, The Gully One. Highly recommended! (OL967) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lynelle Tyler
I'm Not Lost, I Just Don't Know...

Where I'm Going. On her 1998 debut, Lynelle's sly, but very out, lyrics combine with bouncy rhythms to produce the sorts of songs I wish I'd learned at summer camp. I mean songs that, like a compass, allow you to be polarized. You will surely someday have a use for the persuasive sentiment, "If you want to prove your love for me all ya gotta do is let me drive your car." Similarly instructive is the song which reviews possible responses to a P.E. teacher who may one day ask Are We of the Same Persuasion? Lynelle has kept many an audience up late into the night with her jamming blues tunes! Be among those who find her. (LNL1) CD: 15.98

Magdalen Hsu-Li
Evolution

There's a buzz about this outspoken performer, so listen up! Described by many as a pioneer among Asian-American women in music, her contemporary songs reveal an awareness about issues affecting Asian-American women as well as other minorities. This 1998 debut release includes Submissive, which primarily deals with insulting stereotypes about Asian women, and references hatred against gays and lesbians. More pop/alternative than rock, her music includes some fine piano playing. She was a finalist in the Little Fair Talent Search, and has toured extensively, including many appearances with Women's Music artists. If you haven't yet heard her, tune in now! (CPR003) CD: 15.98

Naked Keys

Eleven brilliant solo piano performances, soothing, drifting, whimsical. This is Margie in some ways at her truest: her medium, her style. Her years at the piano, having this music flow through her, precede & underlie her singing & her song-writing ones. 1980. (PLE2748) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Soon and Again 0457

We have journeyed with Margie from Songwriter, featuring two piano solos to Naked Keys, with all piano instrumentals, to Another Place, with its instrumental etudes, and we arrive with her in 1995 at a creative project that is exclusively instrumental. Margie's solo piano is still purely her and still purely women's music. Of all the possible emotions that the pieces on the album could evoke, two of the strongest are hope and love. The title of one song, Something About Us, speaks perhaps about a relationship between two people, or perhaps about an entire community. A brilliant, expressive work. (PLE2782) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Gauthier
Dixie Kitchen

The 2 things folks venture down to the Big Easy for most are the food and the music. How appropriate, then, for this southern Louisiana-born chef ("say Gosh, y'all") to turn her talents to the recording studio. Her sound isn't jazz or baroque, but the rockier side of old time country, with a Zydeco backbeat on the songs that cook, and a touch of Hank Williams twang and heartache on others. It's almost strange to hear this sound with lyrics that are openly gay and challenging. Her ballads are touching, about things like heart-break and the AIDS epidemic. I imagine a small crowd in a coffeehouse in Boston (near where she now resides) swaying and foot-tapping — then asking in surprise across a table, "Did she just say what I think she said?" (RGM001) CD: 11.98

Mary Gauthier
Drag Queens in Limousines

Mary's 1999 release begins with the line, "I hated High School, I prayed it would end..." — an appropriate beginning for an album of songs about people whose lives are lived outside of "normal." She writes about Carla Faye Tucker, the woman executed by the state of Texas in '80, about the darker side of drinking in I Drink, about falling for a hard-core stripper in Evangeline, and about feeling at home with society's outcasts in the title track. Supporting vocalists include Cate Curbs, Caroline Akeri, and The Austin Lounge Lizards. If you've ever felt different from those around you, you'll relate to the characters you meet in these songs. Face the Music

We're bringing Meg's inimitable 1977 release back, due to the many requests we've had lately for the Sue Fink/Joeany Grippio-penned classic Leaping Lesbians — while we are unsure what has sparked this round of inquiries (perhaps this is still being hummed at homophobic gatherings by all the cool maiden aunts??), we are delighted. Humor as well as personal reflection and social awareness are reflected in these wonderful songs, which feature the talents of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Holly Near, and others. (OL913) CS: 9.98

Peggy Seeger
Period Pieces...

— Women's Songs For Men & Women — is the complete title of this 1998 recommended release. This important singer-songwriter, from the famous musical and political Seeger family, has given voice to feminist and many other progressive issues for many years. Last anyone believe these songs "retro" because we live in a post-feminist world, her notes state that "The privileges and rights won in the last three decades were won mostly by and for white younger unmarried middle-class Western women. They have yet to apply to the bulk of human females." This album speaks of issues that are still close to the lives of women today. Includes 17 classics, I'm Gonna Be An Engineer, Different Therefore Equal, Reclaim the Night, Carry Greenham Home, Union Woman, Winnie and Sam, Nine Month Blues, written over a 30-year period. The Folkways Years 1953-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England, and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be An Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Willie Tyron's Debutante went out of print, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face, Fred Small's Talking Wheelchair Blues, and lots more...frankly, her best material ever! Pete Juju Live!

From the opening Afro-beat grooves of Ankew to lead singer Dana Hudson's scorching hot vocals on Concrete and Steel, this wild 8-woman band winds its way through tastes of zydeco, soca, pop and R&B to delight and ignite its audience at every turn. This 1997 release includes the catchy All We Got with a bit of pop and a lot of funky rhythms, the deep groove extended jams on Krypic Postcards and We the People, and the hot spicy Cajun-style Happy To Be Alive. The peppy and invigorating soca-style Higher and Higher and Move are guaranteed to heat up dance floors, and the captivating love song Magic is exactly that. (PEL003) CD: 15.98

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 8 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard! Rooted in the pulse of ancient traditions, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive and this 1992 release is as upbeat as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! ### Rhythm Ride (7-song EP)

This 1996 7-song EP actually contains remixed versions of selected cuts from a maybe-someday-to-be-released full-length album... so buy this now, unless you're the deferred gratification type. Dubbed "the wild women of world beat", this 6-piece all-women's band from Santa Cruz easily backs up that claim with a mixture of jazz, funk, rock, reggae and African rhythms. This project takes the energy of Madame Pele and mixes it with the Juju magic of producer extraordinaire George Acogny (Senegal) whose previous credits include Manu Dibango, Youssou N'Dour, and virtually every other major African recording artist, as well as Peter Gabriel and Sinead O'Connor. ## Phranc

Folk Singer

Phranc's classic first album — modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective, blending topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary — is once again available. Includes some of her greatest songs: Amazons ("I wanna live with Marina, like Nancy Lieberman"), Female Mud Wrestling, Carolyn, Ballad of the Dumb Harems, One of the Girls. Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. (PLG946358) CS: 6.95

Goofyfoot

This 6-song CD EP is the 1995 release from the inimitable pioneering Jewish lesbian folk singer/L.A. punk rocker, a.k.a. "my favorite butch" to some AOL subscribers!! It contains 3 classic covers (including Mrs. Brown, You've Got a Lovely Daughter — on ukulele) and 3 originals (including title track and Buildagger Swagger). Accompaniment on electric guitar, bass, drums by Kara, Donna Dreshch, et al. Phranc says, "Unplugged is a word I would use to describe my toaster, not my music! There is nothing wrong with folk music." (KRS233) CD: 9.95

Phranc

I Enjoy Being a Girl

Phranc's 1989 album could be the first major label release to contain a line such as "I'm a Jewish lesbian, you see," in a song called Take Off Your Swastika. A terrific mixture of serious and humorous, whimsical and satirical, personal and topical material, right down to the 50's cover artwork (Phranc with her glass of milk and her butch doll) includes her second poem to M.A.R.T.I.N., a memorial to her grandmothers Myra and Esther, and others ranging in theme from South African apartheid to Toys R Us. Out of print, very limited quantity, don't dawdle! (PLG542579) CS: 9.95

Milkman

One of our favorite Jewish lesbian folk singers returns in October '98 (on National Coming Out Day) with her first full-length album in 7 years. Includes the Israeli folk song Tzena Tzena (which brings back fond childhood memories of my favorite Weavers album), Ozzie and Harriet, The Lind, The Handcuff Cabin Boy and more. (PHA1) CD: 15.95

Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60's music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a string account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader member and play the jazz she so desperately loved, Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful a cappella ballad performed with Syd Straw, and other outstanding tunes such as Gertrude Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG546282) CS: 9.95

Rebecca Riots

Live at the Freight & Salvage

This 1998 release, the third from this Berkeley-based acoustic female trio, features mostly new tracks, plus a few from their first 2 albums. The music is fresh and immediate, and they're not just singing about anything, their thought-provoking lyrics reveal an awareness and sensitivity to the world around them. You know these girls are for real because they frequently do benefits and support a variety of causes. You'll find yourself groovin' and awayin' to these rhythms and harmonies! (RRT41) CD: 14.95

Rebecca Riots

This Berkeley-based feminist folk trio (Eve Decker, Andrea Pritchett, and Lisa Zeiler), previously known as Final Girl, presents a 1995 "radical folk-rock" album which has garnered comparisons to Cassia-Berry-Dupree — both in the intense acoustic sound and the dynamic and political lyrics. Desperate Measures is a cry for civil disobedience in the face of injustice, while Slow Burn describes, from both perspectives, an encounter between a frightened woman and a homeless man. Cut Through The Sugar wonders "what would happen if one woman told the truth about her life?" Other tracks like Faith, Chances, No Wings and Landmines are by and about women who live the examined life. Recommended! (RRT3) CD: 14.95

Some Folks

The second album by this feminist trio contains more excellent personal and political acoustic songs about women's lives. Women's Bodies follows the history of Western "Civilization" in which "women were permanent children under the law." Come and Go and How I Feel are lovely, wistful songs of love for a woman — stories of people's struggles, and other progressive topics, round out this 1996 release. ## Rhiannon

Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy... for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs... Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-up, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHN2) CS: 9.95

Rhiannon

Live... On Tomales Bay

This concert album is all the more personal and intimate because it was recorded close to the artist's home on the California coast. It's like having a front row seat for a whole evening of her inspired musical artistry. Exquisitely rendered jazz standards like My One and Only and Love Comes and Goes are mixed with exciting performances of Caged Bird, Flying and more, all interwoven and punctuated with classic Rhiannon improvisations. She is irreverent, zany, tenderly heart wrenching, powerful and always touched by a higher spirit. This late-summer 1996 collection reaffirms her place as one of the most original and gifted stylists of our time. (RHN3) CD: 15.95

Loosen Up and Improvise

This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alivel) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns... exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon talks you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique. If you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHN1) CS: 9.95

Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around) for her years as lead singer of Alivel, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Sherandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member) on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Rose, Janet Small, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! ## Roy Orbison with k.d. lang

King of Hearts

True, Roy Orbison was not a woman — good point — but this posthumous album, a collection of masters and demos from the late rock-n-roll legend, includes the much-desired, 1969 Grammy Award-winning duet with k.d. lang, a remake of his classic Crying. She is also heard doing the back-up vocal thing on You're the One, Remember, her experience with Roy influenced her musical change of direction away from Patry Cline and gave the world Ingenue! (VIR8520) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Sandra Bernhard

Excuses for Bad Behavior, Part One

Found a small supply of "out-of" copies of this sought-after out-of-print title to the first lucky callers. It's all about bad behavior, and accepting it... with love! A musical and vocal album with spoken words and raps along the way, this 1994 release is a work about liberation and repression, love and loss, dreams and survival — a thought-provoking and entertaining comment about our culture and our times. Backed by her band, the Strap-Ons, she moves from rap to dance to soulful balladry. She salutes the late Sylvester with Mighty Real, remembers her friends lost to AIDS in the meditative Innocence, and employing layered rap, sings about voyeurism and detachment — projecting your fantasy onto someone you never have to meet — on Phone Sex (Do You Want Me Tonight). Mixing boldness, honesty and vulnerability she turns pop culture on its side! (EPC57663) CD: 12.95

I'm Still Here... Damn It!

With a divine mix of brassy wit and rockin' vocals, this inimitable personality pokes fun at the 90's, from Lulù Fair to fashion and modeling. She is able to cut through the seriousness surrounding an issue and offer an insightful and humorous perspective. Of course, you don't always realize you've fallen prey to such sharp social commentary because you're too busy laughing. Recorded live in NY, this 1998 recording is mostly spoken, but contains a few songs. Nothing is spared Sandra's irreverence: buy this, damn it! (TVT3290) CD: 15.95

SONIA (of disappear fear)

Almost Chocolate

Half of the duo known to the world as disappear fear has struck out on her own, with her 1998 acoustic solo debut. Compared with the likes of John Lennon, Bob Dylan and Phil Ochs, SONIA guides the listener into the depths of her soul, armed with just her guitar and harmonica. Listening to this CD will feel like listening to an old friend because she maintains what people have come to expect from disappear fear. She has always been a favorite with the Ladyslipper staff, and this CD doesn't disappoint — highly recommended! (PH1207) CD: 15.95

Suede

Barely Blue

This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister, My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unreleased works. She interprets two John Bucchino songs. If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Bucchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1502) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Easily Suede

The release of Suede's solo debut album in 1988 was long anticipated. It features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals: piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home... her music, that is. The CD has a few bonus tracks! (EAS1001) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Susan Herrick

Truth & the Lie

A remarkable 1991 recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace, her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! (WFR1) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Teresa Trull

A Step Away

This classic, which is being re-released by the artist in 1998, is one of our all-time faves, in every respect: music, material and production. Each song has a complexity and depth, as well as a contagious hope and joy. Includes Maria, Rossini, How Lucky... we are to have this great title once again here on our pages! (RR412) CD: 15.95

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higgie

Playtime

After all these years, another album by this beloved duo has arrived in 1998! On this upbeat collection of acoustic blues-flavored songs, strong harmonizing and songwriting from these 2 multi-talents blend with their top-notch fancy fiddle, and piano-playing. Special guest Cira Williamson joins in, as the newly reunited duo finds serious fun and inspiration in each others' gifts. All originals, except for a song each from BB King and Billie Holiday. (SLB82212) CD: 15.95

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie Unexpected

Unexpected but welcome news: this classic from this dynamic duo is re-released in 1998! Featuring an eclectic mix of styles: country, gospel, ballads — some simple, some fairly produced — the blend of talent and material is impeccable! Includes the editor's favorite Melissa Manchester duet, Ruby and the Danter. (SW22001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

From Women's Faces Plus

Not only does this 1998 release bring back into print many selections from one of the greatest classics in women's music, her 1977 album From Women's Faces, this 65-minute collection has new and previously unreleased tracks too! Some are newly-released live performances from the early 80s, including a couple recorded at the Michigan festival, A Woman's Love by Alix Dobkin, and 2 are performed by MUSE, Cincinnati's women's chorus, including Goddess and Gnu, a 19-part composition in which Betsy Lipoff, Therese's long-time collaborator sings a Saraswati invocation. So, even though Therese has been off the tour circuit for health reasons, she treats us to songs we didn't already have in our collections, plus old favorites: Moonflower, Emma, Jennifer, Leah's Song, Mama Let Your Children Go, Leah's Song, Sister, Heavenly Bodies, Calendar Days... this is an absolute must-have for all of Therese's fans whose ancient LPs are scratched (and/or lack a turntable altogether), as well as anyone who wants to newly experience one of the foundation pieces of the women's music and culture movement. Highly-of-course recommended! (SEA313) CD: 15.98

Tret Fure

Edges of the Heart/CD: Terminal Hold

Tret's 1995 release, Edges of the Heart, packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements, a sure winner. Yes, this includes that sweetly-hot number, Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. The 1998 CD re-release of this title has a great bonus: the entire earlier album of Terminal Hold is also included! (i.e. the cassette is a single title, the CD is a double title) (SW22009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Time Turns the Moon

This 1995 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual!), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

A Family of Friends

This 1993 release may be the best sampler of women's music ever created! The title song, an anthem-to-be and a must-have for every woman's music lover, is one of the sweetest and most memorable tunes ever composed... as a collaboration, it expresses some of the highest spirit of our lesbian culture. Co-written by Sue Fink, Jamie Anderson, June Millington, Jane Emmet and Dakota, it is performed by (take a deep breath), songwriters Sue, Jamie, June and Jane, plus Margie Adam, Deirdre McCalla, Cris Williamson, Tret Fure, Sharon Washington, Jean Millington, Susan Henick, Robin Flower, Monica Grant, Helen Hooke, Mary Watkins, Barbara Borden, and others! ### Climb Against the Odds

0797

This 1999 benefit to assist The Breast Cancer Fund is the spontaneous soundtrack to the award-winning documentary (narrated by Olympia Dukakis) about a 1998 attempt by 12 women — 5 of them breast cancer survivors — to climb Alaska's Mt. McKinley. Beside the fact that this release raises funds and awareness about this critical issue (and artists are donating their royalties), the list of contributing artists is stupendous. Includes previously-released selections by k.d. lang, Indigo Girls, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Catie Dion, Jani Sieber, Nanci Griffith, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Billie Myers (performing Mother, Daughter, Sister, Lover), Paula Cole, and more. Original, newly-released songs include theme song by Karen Pernick, and Marcy's Theme by Laura Karpman. Essential! (WB47493) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

I Am Woman

This odd little poppy post-hippie "tribute" to feminism hails from the 1970s kid's cable channel, Nickelodeon. The cartoon retro '70s cover art has the appearance of a death-before-sincerity sensibility. I really don't think that the producers "get it." Nonetheless, it's a groovy collection of excellent songs: Helen Reddy's anthem, Gloria Gaynor's I Will Survive, Dolly Parton's 9 to 5, Aretha's Respect and Roseanne Cash's Man Smart, Woman Smarter as well as Peggy Lee's I'm A Woman, Dionne Warwick's Walk on By, Patti LaBelle's New Attitude, Donna Summer's She Works Hard for the Money, Pat Benatar's Love is a Battlefield and more. ### Women Like Us: Lesbian Favorites

This fall '97 lesbian compilation — one of the very few which have ever been issued, and probably the only in-print collection with the word "lesbian" in the title — is notable for lots of reasons. Firstly, it contains the often-and-desperately-sought-after song by Two Nice Girls, I Spent My Last $10.00 (On Birth Control and Beer), no longer must seekers go away disappointed and empty-handed! Secondly, it includes live notes by Phranc and Gretchen Phillips (Two Nice Girls), tracing the history of lesbians in pop music from "women's music" and punk of the 70's and 80's through today's alternative queercore scene. Last but not least is the great roster of long-out and recently-out musicians: Ferron, Ani DiFranco, k.d. lang, Kristen Hall, BETTY, disappear fear, Jane Siberry, Dar Williams, Janis Ian, Jill Sobule, Felt 2 Feet, Tanita Tikaram, Wendy & Lisa (ex-Princes band), Sandra Bernhard, and of course Phranc, Gretchen Phillips, Experience and Two Nice Girls... as you'll see, not many of the traditional "women's music" labels here, but an interesting mix of artist-owned, independent and major labels represented. A portion of the proceeds will be donated by the label, Rhino Records (an indie label with major-label distribution), to Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund. A must-have for women's music and lesbian music fans and collectors! (RHT2915) CD: 15.98

Wyrd Sisters

Inside the Dreaming

0257

The Ladyslipper Catalog editor says, "One of the most brilliant albums to be released in 1994!" The name of this excellent Canadian trio is pronounced "wyrd" but they are not, although they are unusual, unique, original and provocative — rather, their name comes from the ancient Triple Goddess who represented the maiden, mother and crone. Like their harmonies, lyrically each song has layers of meaning which continue to reveal themselves during repeated listenings (inspirational without being syrupy), supported by arrangements that are varied, subtle and perfect. The title track is moody and evocative. One Hip Shaking is a bluesy, sensuous song of love lost. Dance, Little Brother is a well-crafted emotional plea for action against AIDS. Warrior is an acappella feminist anthem equal in impact to Ferron's Testimony. In fact, all 11 tracks are gems, no throw-aways here! Andy Stochaneky (drummer for Ani DiFranco) is one of several talented guest performers featured. Instrumentation is tight and all-around superb. This album is too hot to map out on — to all fans of women's music, harmony, and outstanding contemporary singer-songwriting, very highly recommended! (WYR3) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Raw Voice

0658

You'll find another treasure-box of songs on this 1997 release — It's a worthy follow-up to their great Inside the Dreaming. The Canadian trio again combines their finely-honed craft of poetic songwriting with superb harmonies, eloquently expressing their personal blend of irony, bitterness, pain, humor and hope. Love the evocative, dreamy bitterness bass from producer db Benediction... Kim's versatile baritone... the crisp, tasteful arrangements... the lyrics and lyrics that lyrics take. Includes The Night of Her Insistence, Same Old Story, Borrowed Time, very recommended again! (WYR3) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Full of Faraway

This guitar twanging, ivory tickling, penny whistling, harmonica bending, accordion squeezing, ukulele crooning, kazoo honking Provincetown-via-Brigton, England singer/songwriter has optimistic (but clued in) charm oozing out of every pore. On her 1996 release, this modern troubadour infuses her original songs with musical experiences she absorbed during her world-wide vagabond travels. The boogie-woogie of Tap Dancing mixes with the Latin-funk of Let's Get Poetic; the Appalachian-esque ballad, Gardener, the bossa-nova Let's, the South African live of Africa Live are all grounded by her guitar strumming and bubbly folk-jazz vocals. ### Sheep

0710

Songs about sheep, old women and a good cup of tea... Rainie Girdley and Pies for the Public... this is some of what you'll find on this artist's 1998 release. As the Bay Area Reporter reported, her "writing style is clever and evocative, her subject matter as quirky as her musical style." She shows a fondness for human quirkiness and is affectionate when poking fun of everybody including herself. Features 14 original songs in all, with special appearances by Julie Wolf and her twin brother Kate! (DOG2) CD: 15.98

Permanent Happiness/ Come Out...

This female duo from Dublin, Ireland makes some mighty catchy, soul and dance pop music! Maria Walsh (vocals, bodhran, flute, percussion) and Carole Nelson (keyboards, sax, and tin whistle) first formed the Irish charts with the eco-dance tune I'm in Love with Mother Nature and have slowly taken over Europe while performing at major gay/lesbian festivals. On this 1997 album, their songs range from the techno cyber-sex tune Make the Connection, to the queer liberation 1970's soul-ballad wave-your-hands-in-the-air title track (No turning back now, no one can deny me this freedom love inside me), to the edgy new wave for a dominatrix's Blasted Boy, to the simple piano on the unending "love song" Heaven Blessed, to the glorious stand-out on Sweet It's Bad for your teeth teenage reminiscence Suburban Girl. Just don't try to box these girls in. They deserve heavy rotation! Recommended! (PUR642480) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Private Wars

With their 3rd release, this Dublin duo-tuned-quiet returns to their first big love, jazz, despite a nod or two to a soul and funk direction: the album remains firmly committed to a mellow mood. Maria Walsh wraps her ravishing voice around Carole Nelson's lyrics, always finding an intense emotion and depth with no concession to sentimentality. In accompaniment both soulful and restrained. Most of these original songs were recorded as first takes, capturing a freshness, spontaneity, and a great band vibe! Sheer class! (ZR1000) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Club Verboten (4-CD Set)

Wow! This 4-CD set with an accompanying 90-page booklet purports to be a musical history of the "underground" world of the lesbian and gay community. No easy task there, but whatever the historical accuracy, this is an amazing (and idiosyncratic) collection of music and factsoids! The first disc includes the great queer blues singers from the 1920's — Bessie Smith, Gladys Bentley and Ma Rainey — as well as gay icons of the 1930's: Marlene Dietrich, Edith Piaf, Mae West, Josephine Baker and Noel Coward. Disc 2 (1940's-60's) features Judy Garland, Carmen Miranda, Lena Horne, Chet Baker, Marilyn Monroe, Shirley Bassey, Donovan, the bad poetry of Rod McKuen, and Doris Day's gender-bending Secret Love. Disc 3 does the 1970's up right with everyone from Helen Reddy to Sade. Sledge to Alix Dobkin to Meg Christian (followed by Barry Manilow) back to Lou Reed. Disc 4 should chill out your spinning head: it's classical music from Leonard Bernstein, Saint-Saens, Aaron Copland, John Cage and others. From actual lesbian/gay artists to those (like Judy) who are/were loved by us, to those who mention us in their songs to those who... well, I'm not sure about all of the "connections," but what a grab-bag! ## Various Artists

Fruit Cocktail

An effervescent mix of tangy Latin rhythms, sweet jazz and lush late-night ballads grace this '95 first-ever rainbow collection of lesbian and gay "louche" music! What an array of performers! Rhannon, Lee DeLaria, Holly Near, Irene Ferreira, Majia, Michael Callan, Tom Robinson, Jan Shaw, Steven Kowalczyk, and even an ultra-cool jazz number from Steven Grossman, whose 1974 album Caravan Tonight was probably the first release on a major label by an out gay artist. It's a zesty, heady musical brew for sure, though served not so straight up! (ST1006) CD: 15.98

Alternative

Supposed Former Infatuation Junkie

Being an international superstar and teen angst idol is no easy job, but on her 1998 sophomore effort, Alanis howls and means her way through to a surefire classic. This release is an extraordinary blend of razor-sharp lyrical insight and passionate melodies that mark the next leap forward in Alanis's growth as an artist. Look for more exploration of electronic music as well as trademark pop hits including the single Thank U which reflects on her insight gained from her travels through India. ## Angeia Motter

Pleasure and Pain

This talented Atlanta artist presents sweet melodies of what she capably calls "folk-alternative" on her bold and perky 1998 release — it's about time she came out with something to follow up her great debut! She has infused it with searing lyrics, sensual vocals and quality musicianship (some from Michelle Malone and DeDe Vogt) to create a gritty, yet at times humorous, collection of songs. Born no doubt of her own pleasure and pain, Infatuation speaks pointedly about gender issues familiar to many of us. Cake is a defiant, alternative-sounding track that details a messy love triangle, while the joyful, redemptive I'm Free bounds with energy to offer hope to others who have struggled through a difficult childhood. Sounds of straight-up rock, aching slide-guitar blues and even minimalist beat-box are all here. Welcome her back! (HEY1) CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco

With a do-like Sinead and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong? (Is quite our venerable purchasing manager, Reggiana). Ani (pronounced "Ah-nee") is a young songwriter, singer, and guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Lost Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's 1990 debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin. Highly recommended! (RIG001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dilate

0464

This May 1998 release is guaranteed to demolish any preconceived notions about what Ani's up to! It's a journey through various emotional states — melancholy, anger, and so on — to the moment of personal deliverance expressed in Amazing Grace, culminating in the final track, Joyful Girl. And if you think you know what Ani DiFranco sing is supposed to sound like, take a listen to the hard-edged thrash of Cut Me, Ono or the dreamy electronic textures of Going Down. Also includes many set list favorites like Untouchable Face, Napoleon, built around her stark electric guitar work, and Adam and Eve, on which her voice swoops to the heavens before touching earth. (RIG008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Imperfectly

0016

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Unflinching in her pursuit of honesty, she shines sparks incessantly as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She debates issues of sexual identity in In or Out and If I Tell Her and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shades of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the third time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Like I Said

0025

On this 1993 release, 15 tracks from Ani DiFranco and Not So Soft have been combined, re-recorded, embellished, and generally messed with to make a new album. (RIG005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Up Up Up Up Up

Remember how you felt about your first Ani album? Get ready for her best one in years: she's come down a notch, and you'll often hear the phrase "returned to her roots" around our office. This '95 release finds Ani doing what she does best: taking stock of the worlds outside and inside herself. From story-songs like Fix of Thee and Tickle Down to deeply personal meditations like Angry Anytime and Everest to Half Shaped Hat, a simple, surreal little ditty that has grown into a 13-minute jam, it's a joyous, mournful, funny, sober, sexy album rich with insight and emotional intensity. In addition to Ani's distinctively persuasive acoustic guitar, you'll hear her wailing away on the occasional water-cooler and "space phone" every now and then; accompanists also include drummer Andy Slachansky, and the talented Julie Wolf on keyboards, accordion, and backing vocals. (RIG013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco
Little Plastic Castle

0673

This 1998 title may be Ani's most poetic release to date! While she has been blasted by some for veering away from the politics of her earlier releases, she's not afraid to fight back: "people talk about my image like I come in two dimensions like lipstick is a sign on my declining mind like what I happen to be wearing! the day someone takes a picture is my new statement for all of womankind" (from the title track). Ani has found new ways to communicate messages about love, life, respect, relationships, collective memory, cross-marketing, girl police, and (even) goldfish. Recorded with her touring band (drummer Andy Stochensky and bassist Jason Mercer) plus guest musicians Sara Lee, Jerry Marotta, Jon Hassell, and a 3-piece horn section. A favorite among the Slipper staff! (RIG012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco
Living in Clip (2-CD Set)

Ani is at long last releasing a live album — a double-CD set! Wahop! Containing over 2 hours of music, it was recorded primarily during her 1996 US tour with bassist Sara Lee and drummer Andy Stochensky. Cut from a variety of venues, from "baroque, sculpted theatres and dark stinky rock clubs, hockey stadiums and airplane hangars, tents, ballrooms and swanky basement bars where I could smell the audience (and vice versa, god forbid)." Includes 2 previously unreleased songs, "Gravel and Hide and Seek," her famous between-song stories and impromptu musings, and "songs that have changed a lot since their first appearance on studio albums," songs that have mutated into something completely different! (including orchestral versions of "Amazing Grace" and "Both Hands" with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Doc Severinsen). FYI: the title refers to Ani's penchant for playing too loud on stage and blowing out the speakers! (RIG011) CD: 24.98

Ani DiFranco
More Joy, Less Shame

This late '90s EP consists of all previously unreleased singles and rare live tracks (none of which will appear on the live album which is slated for release during the first half of '97). Contains exciting versions of "Shameless," "Both Hands," and "Joyful Girl," including the "Danger and Uncertainty Mix" of the latter, featured in her video which should be receiving widespread exposure by the end of '96. (RIG010) CD: 7.98

Ani DiFranco
Not So Soft

0017

Well, this 1991 release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani! The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get active in the listening. When you hear her, you're compelled to move closer to the speakers, rock your body, experience your heart brimming over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic. She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful self-harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dust broom! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented. Again, highly recommended! (RIG002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco
Not a Pretty Girl

0136

The album title isn't just a title, it's a theme on her 1995 album. Ani comments, "God help you if you are an ugly girl! course too pretty is also your doom." In 32 flavors, a beautifully produced song with exotic percussion solos. She observes that she isn't "really all that pretty, but no one will know" in "The Million You Never Made," a corporate-rock-sucks mind-blower. And, of course, the title track declares, "I am not a pretty girl that is not what I do." Also here: "Asking Too Much" (she calls it the German song for its mechanical rhythm and probing angle), a new poem, a new take on "Coming Up" (with trumpet piano), and 8 others... some danceable, all quality! (RIG007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco
Puddle Dive

0024

On this 1992 release, her most complex effort to date, Ani (dubbed a folk-rock-feminist by one reviewer) goes boldly where no one has gone before... joined at various moments by pianist Ann Rabson from Saffire, the Uppity Blueswomen, virtuosic violinist Mary Ramsey from the folk-rock duo John & Mary, and English harmonica sensation Rory McLeod. An in-your-face lyricist who exposes our hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status quo in sex, psychology and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. (RIG004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco
Out of Range

0008

This 1994 release is hailed as Ani's most adventurous effort to date. The 12 tracks include 2 versions of the title song — solo acoustic and rocking with a full band; "The Diner" with sound effects scarred from an all-night satery in Toronto; "How Have You Been," with a full-fledged horn section blowing funk riffs; "Letter to John," a troubling song that breaches the bitter afterlife of sexual abuse from a stark and cynical point of view; "If He Tries Anything," an outrageous snapshot of female desperadoes on the road, and the guilty personal regrets of "You Had Time." The power and penetrating insights of her poetry achieve a new peak here — we highly recommend Ani! (RIG006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco & Utah Phillips
The Past Didn't Go Anywhere

Utah Phillips is a 61-year-old traveling storyteller, songwriter and political activist whose wry observations on life are subversively provocative and very funny. Ani has selected recordings from 20 years' worth of Utah's acoustic musings/performances and created unexpected but fitting musical settings for them. The result is in Ani's words, "a spoken word storytelling rambling, sage-like, hip-hop, acoustic dance-

france album full of humor, emotion and insight. Utah's tales of real-life quirky characters are set amongst the sounds of funk, ambient, classical and rap music. Ani doesn't sing, but she's all over this 1996 release playing guitars, bass, Hammond organ, wurlitzer, piano, thumb piano, percussion, and drum samples (plus some wordless vocals as instrumentation of ambient sound stuff) and produced the whole darn thing. Very cool! (RIG009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fellow Workers

Utah knew only that he wanted to do a new album "about anarchy." Ani knew she wanted to try something a little different from their first cross-generational collaboration. This May 1995 release features these 2 musical commentators working side by side, along with Ani's band (including Julie Wolf) and a small intimate audience. Utah talks and sings. Ani plays guitar, contributes background vocals and leads her band through a free-spirited session. The resulting collection of stories, songs, poetry, jokes, and spur-of-the-moment improvisation takes a fresh, intensely personal look at the long-hidden history of the American labor movement, celebrating activist-heroes like Mother Jones, and providing surprising new interpretations of such classic anthems as "Bread and Roses." To the Teeth

NEW!

This last-minute listing, which features vocals by The Artist Formerly Known as Prince and is due Nov. 1999, will be further described in our next edition. Meanwhile don't hesitate to place your order! (RIG017) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Beth Orton
Central Reservation

0755

The rhythm-infused, soulful folk of this young British artist has garnered her much critical acclaim lately. Her debut album Trailer Park went gold in the UK and she performed at the 1998 Lillith Fair. This '99 release, adventurous yet accessible, features Beth's sweet voice and guitar on all original songs, with guest appearances by Ben Watt (Everything But the Girl) and Dr. John. (ARI9038) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

BETTY
Hello, BETTY!

This favored harmonizing DimeRock trio announces their 1991 debut release — it features the hit singles "Wolfwoman," "Bedroom Junction," "Mr. Snake," "Picnic Love Affair," "Go Ahead and Say Mr. America Man," 21 songs in all 46 minutes of fun. (BET1) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Limboland

0425

Fabulous sale price on this enhanced CD for CD-ROM — take your ears and your eyes on a magical expedition through the melodic expanses of Limboland. This 1995 release is a 13-song masterpiece of rich harmonies, seductive melodies, infectious grooves. Included are the often-requested "Houdini" and "Brave Old World," the lovely "Acappella," "Two Cherries" which we first heard on a live Valentine's Day interview on NPR, and "A Typical Love from the film The Incredibly True Adventure of 2 Girls in Love." (IN9175) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

BETTY

0744

The spine-tingling harmonies, hip-shaking rock, and razor-sharp wit on their '95 release shows why this female trio of NYC singer/songwriters has won numerous awards and captured a slavishly devoted international following. Best known for their wild stage shows, they have infused that energy into these 13 songs which explore the bewitching topics of love, sex, and sins of passion. Battering performances from outstanding accompanists combine with the warmth and emotion of their interwoven voices. Katly Najmy has claimed this album "will make my favorite band a household name, like Jell-O or Trojans." Their unusual take on 21st-Century Life and mesmerizing music are a powerful combo! (BET4) CD: 14.98

Bikini Kill
Reject All-American

0531

In a world where "alternative" bands are being mined by major labels like so much Pittsburgh steel, Bikini Kill has held firm and fast to their independent, socially-conscious roots. Their long-awaited 1996 release will throw you off balance: these women have shed their grunge past and moved up to their rightful place as queens of modern punk. It's their most accessible, sing-along-friendly album yet — gone are the heavy grunge riffs and muffled lyrics; remaining, and stronger than ever, is their fierce, strongly pro-woman attitude, enmeshed in some of the catchiest pop hooks I've heard in a long time. Get this album "cause when you're singin' along with Kathleen on 'Let's Get It' (I'm not your s---, well, I'm not your dime store novel)," it's good to be a girl. (KR5280) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

Bikini Kill
The Singles

The name says it all! This 1996 release (probably their last, since the band has broken up) contains all 9 songs from Bikini Kill's 7" singles: New Radio, The Anti-Pleasure Dissertation, and I Like Fucking. The first 3 tracks were even produced by Joan Jett (the reigning Queen of rock). The songs represent the full spectrum of the Bikini Kill experience, or in Kathleen Hanna's words, "A wacky ride through the Bikini Kill phenomenon." (KR5298) CD: 13.98

Bitch and Animal
What's That Smell?

NEW!

Find out for yourself what all the buzz is about surrounding Bitch and Animal. Maybe you heard of them because they opened for Ani DiFranco, or maybe someone you know saw them at a festival — regardless, they stick in the memory of anyone who has seen them perform. These 2 sport 10 instruments between them — Bitch plays the electric violin and bass, while Animal breaks loose on an assortment of drums and sometimes even a ukulele. The result is a wild and unique sound, undoubtedly unlike anything you've ever heard. These women are smart and hilarious, from the foot stomping hoodwink Drop King Bar to their unforgettable Manifesto (check out the hidden track). (DOP1) CD: 15.98

The Butchies
Are We Not Femme?

0725

It's time for one and all to meet The Butchies... the new band fronted by Kara Wilson (ex-Team Dresch) with Melissa York and Alison Marlow. After Kara's previous two acoustic-based solo albums you can consider this one "Kara Plugged In... Again." She kicks up the volume of her guitar, while Melissa attacks the drums like nobody's business, and Alison turns up the funk on her bass to give this 1998 release quite the atypical flavor. Features an incredible cover of Kris Williamson's "Shooting Star" and an all too danceable disco tune. Highly recommended... and we're not just saying that because Kara works here! (MRL02) CD: 15.98

Dead Can Dance
Spiritchaser

This 1996 album has a bit of a Moroccan feel on Nienka, Native American chant on "Song of the Stars," Indian/Gothic on "Indus." Spanish on "Song of the Crisscrossed," all overlaid with their trademark trancy grooves. Take a "trip" around the world without having to worry about drinking the water! (4AD46230) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dido
No Angel

0776

The sweet and sultry voice of Dido (pronounced dye-dough), who some of you have heard at Lillith Fair or on the first Lillith Fair sampler album, is as unique as her name. Her 1999 release is like the perfect dish — flavorful, colorful and deliciously filling. Appetizing tracks such as "Here With Me," "Thankyou and I'm No Angel" almost had me feeling guilty for finishing the decadent album. This menu leaves little room for dessert, bon appetit! (ARI9025) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Gretchen Phillips

Songs To Save Your Soul (6-Song EP)

This ex-Nice Girl, ex-Girl in the Nose (but very much a musician) songwriter in the present tense; offers her 1998 release. This concept album traces the journey of the soul from isolation and loss to questions of morality, to eventual redemption through closeness and... lesbian sex! Includes On Shant, Satan's Jewel Crown, Peace On Earth, I Can Hear The Angels Singing ("when I touch you there"). (SSK1) CD: 10.98

When I Was A Boy

This 1993 release, a brilliantly conceived set of impressionistic songs and visions, combines innovation with accessibility. A highlight is her memorably unearthly duet with k.d. lang. Calling All Angels, which first appeared on the Unleash The End Of The World soundtrack (lang's long-time musicbusiness cohort Ben Mink also contributes viola on this track), also includes Sail Across The Water, The Gospel According To Darkness, and Sweet Incantation. Co-produced by Brian Eno. So if there's a weird tale, she's still one of our all-time favorite artists! (REP25624) CD: 16.98

Joules Graves

Plunge!

0655

Once you hear this 1997 release, you'll immediately understand why Joules has been causing such a stir along the west coast. Vocally and musically she can best be described as a combination of Toni Childs, Joni Mitchell, and Ani DiFranco, with songs ranging from the personal to the political. I Like You delves into the love between two women. Teaching My Heart focuses on "teaching how to love and be loved." Angel delves into rape and the victimization of women and children... and Quita Control explores the estrangement felt within social constructs. If the lyrics don't hook you in, then her excellent guitar and drums work should be more than convincing (there's joined by producer Bruce Harvie on mandolin, dobro, keyboard, acoustic, electric & slide guitars, bass, drums and percussion). Highly recommended! (JG1112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Waterfall Child

We have received many requests for this 1995 title by Joules, which up until now, was only available at her concerts and festivals. Finally, in '98, we can offer it to all you patient folks who weren't so lucky as to attend one! 17 wonderful tracks, such as Grandmother's Back, Brown Skin Woman, Seamstress of Visions, Drive Me Wild, Cannot Justify War, Casting of Age poetically reflect her connection with the earth, her dedication to women and non-violence and love, her sensuality and passion. The women and men of the Pagan Tabernacle Choir accompany on 3 songs. If you love Plunge!, don't miss this earlier recording by this young singer-songwriter. (JG0002) CD: 15.98

Julie Ruin

Rising from the ashes of the tragic loss of Bikini Kill comes front woman Kathleen Hanna's after-ego and a fresh new sound with samplers and drum machines added to the mix of punk guitar riffs. The songs vary from aggressive to poppy, but remain true to Kathleen's fiercely progressive politics. This '98 album will inspire you to revolution as she wails lyrics like "it'll be a hot hot summer in hell, businessmen" if you're looking for an exciting and cutting-edge addition to your collection, this is for you! (KR5297) CD: 13.98

Kaia

Kaia's first solo album shows her taking a break from Team Dresch's punk-inspired pop. This 1996 creation is acoustic, but never folksy, and is full of those minor chord, melancholic love songs that make you feel like any other time you've suffered through was better than how you are feeling now. Kaia's voice has such a sweet, longing ache that you will immediately be reminded of that one lost love you will never quite get over. Perfect for those lonely nights when you just want to wallow. (CHN14) CD: 15.98

Lady Man

0687

It's a pressure situation when writing about an artist's new album, when said artist is hovering nearby, insistent that I compare her music to Chris Williamson's early work and if I won't do that can't I PLEASE say that she's Crystal Gayle's unknown sister, Nipple? Of course neither is true. Kaia has a sound that is uniquely her own, and it's becoming more fully realized on this 1998 release. This time round there's a lot more instruments (including a lovely electro-synth interlude) to accompany Kaia on her guitar. Stream-of-consciousness lyrics (no worn out refrains here!) tell stories about, oh, her girlfriend, her friends, being a lesbian rocker in small-town Indiana and some other stuff I haven't figured out yet (or can't tell). Bramer's love song is You Make Me Cry That Special Way, mine's OFF (Extended Dance Mix) and Kaia's is Little Brave One 97. (MRL01) CD: 15.98

Meg Hentges

Brompton's Cocktail

We'd describe Meg's third solo album since her days with Two Nice Girls as rock with a folk and pop sensibility, definitely plugged in — you can either pop or bang your head to it! The lyrics are smart and cover a variety of topics, including queer youth, God, religion, sex, tattoos, pollution, and relationships, of course. Some of the best songs from her first release Tattoo Uge (cirs '92), have been re-recorded here: the Lou Reed-esque This Kind of Love, the multi-maged Heaven Sent, and its title track. If you haven't yet heard this Austin-based rocker, or you're already a fan, check this '98 release out! (ROB75010) CD: 15.98

Meryn Cadell

Bombazine

Back in stock, now at a great price on these "cut-outs"! The clever off-beat lyrics of this exciting 1993 release express an intelligent, original, openly bisexual, sardonic view of life. This Canadian artist clearly revels in words, combining traditional song structure with spoken word musings to perfectly capture what it is like to be twenty-something and not really sure about the who's, the what's, the where's, the how's and the why's. Voice for Gona, the best poem to sex with a woman this reviewer has ever heard, contains the line which is the philosophical anchor to the whole enchilada. "You don't have to do anything that you don't want to, but don't get up in arms about what others choose to do." Jonny and Betty opens the album with a bang, with lyrics about gay and gay-bashing. Abelene and Window of Opportunity were co-written with k.d. lang's collaborator Ben Mink (he also accompanies on strings, guitar and more), with musical references to Ingenue yet completely original. Extremely recommended! (SIR45398) CD: 8.98

Murmurs

Blender

Previously described as the acoustic voice of the twenty-something generation, Heather Grody and Leisha Bailey (star of All Over Me) have plugged in their guitars and added a drummer and a bass player for this 1998 title, which actually re-releases 8 tracks from the now-out-of-print 1997 Praline Smut, plus adds 3 new ones. 5 of the 11 tracks here were produced by "special friend" k.d. lang! Includes La Di Da, Smash Underfoot, Sucker Uppor, I'm A Mess and more! (MCA11602) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patty Griffin

Living With Ghosts

On her 1995 release, Patty Griffin moves effortlessly between folk and country, telling stories about hard times, hard love and insanity (but not trucks or mothers), with just an acoustic guitar and a voice so pure it could break your heart... although she's not afraid to get raw and country when the time is right. Her songs are not always pretty — actually they can be downright bleak — but there is a beauty and a humanity always present, much like a Flannery O'Connor story. Standout tracks are Forgiveness and You Never Get What You Want, an unsettling snapshot about insanity and relationships. (AM490) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Rachael Sage

Smashing the Serene

0727

Following the lead of such self-contained contemporaries as Ani DiFranco, this young NYC artist releases in '98 (on her own label, of course!) her second album of lush, ethically-tinged pop songs that are as catchy as they are emotionally insightful. This self-taught singer/songwriter pianist crafts songs grounded in honesty, empathy and a healthy dose of cynicism. Inspired by an eclectic mix of influences (including Carole King, Elia Cosellio, The Indigos, Ani and Gershwin as well as elements of Irish, Russian and Middle Eastern music), Rachael creates a unique mix of poetry and melody. Don't miss out, we recommend! (MP3636) CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan

Solace

Her voice contains a gorgeous Irish tint, kinda like Sinéad meets Enya, both soft and sweet and as strong and multicolored as polished titanium... Absolutely captivating! The material on her 1994 debut album is mostly original, writes simple vignettes about longing (home), and loneliness (Lost), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thorns, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven; instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, and guitars. (ARI631) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rarities, B-Sides & Other Stuff

This 1995 Canadian import quite possibly features some of Sarah McLachlan's best performances. It includes some very rare covers, such as a powerful version of XTC's Dear God and a haunting remake of Joni Mitchell's Blue (which you might swear is really Joni singing!). Also featured are remixed versions of some of her own material, including Fear, Drawn To The Rhythm, Shelter, Vox, Into The Fire, and Possession, and, as an extra-special treat, I Will Remember You, which was only available previously on a maxi-single or the Brothers McMullen soundtrack. Highly recommended! (MUS0105) CD: 21.98

Mirrorball

This 1999 release of live performances, with songs which span her entire catalog and career to date, includes I Will Remember You, Ice Cream, Sweet Surrender, Ada, Building a Mystery, Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, 13 in all. (ARI9049) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Sarah McLachlan

Surfacing

In 1997, Sarah took the wonderful Leth Brer Festival on the road, touring 40 US cities with an amazing roster of female artists. She also released her fifth album, containing 10 extraordinary new songs: powerful, sensual, lyrical and quite remarkable. Sarah never fails in what she does, continuing to give audiences what they expect, while remaining original. Ada, Witness and Full of Grace are three of the most hauntingly beautiful songs I have heard in a long time. This is also an Enhanced CD, so those of you with CD-ROM's get an extra treat, while the CD can still be played in a regular CD player. (ARI9570) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Fumbling Towards Ecstasy

This 1994 release from a ruby-throated artist is pure sensation. Introspective lyrics weave through the beautifully restrained production — a subtle mix of guitar, bass, drums and keyboard topped off by Sarah's layered vocals. The title track, along with Good Enough and Circle shimmer with beautiful intensity and strength. Ice Cream serves up a fairly comparison of love to chocolate as well as to our favorite frozen treat (mmm!). Sarah skillfully rounds out the triumvirate she shares with Kate Bush and Toni Amos. Includes an untitled bonus track, extremely recommended! (ARI6725) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan

The Freedom Sessions

0158

This 1995 release is a collection of fan favorites from Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, newly recorded live and acoustic in the studio by Sarah and her band, plus her cover of a Tom Waits song. BUT, the CD is the big deal here: it contains a 30-minute bonus multi-media track for MAC and WINDOWS, with interactive music samples for every track from her catalog, video clips of Sarah on tour, backstage, in the studio, and her trip to Thailand, plus audio narration and commentary by Sarah. This is a first, but no doubt a harbinger of things to come, as the music medium becomes revolutionized by computer technology. (ARI6784) CS: 9.98 CD: 17.98

Sleater-Kinney

The Hot Rock

In this day and age it's a rare feat to win over critics and fans with equal enthusiasm, but this pop rock trio has done just that. On their 1999 release, these 3 women add a bit more bounce to their grunge, as they remain solidly independent and fend off those nasty major label offers. Corin Tucker's vocals soar in a very Buffy Sainte-Marie sort of way, while never overshadowing guitarist Carrie Brownstein's forays to the lead mic. In the end, this band offers what so few others do these days: honesty, fun, and they just plain rock. (KR321) CD: 13.98

Tori Amos

From the choirgirl hotel

She is known for her poetic open-diary approach and outspoken discussion of women's lives. This 1998 release continues along a similar path but with one very important difference: here, a full set of back-up musicians allows her to explore new rhythmic complexity and all-around musical expansiveness. This recording will definitely expand her already faithful fan base. In fact, one of the Slipper staff, who wasn't a fan previously, just converted! (ATL83099) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tori Amos

to venus and back (Double Set)

0801

This 1995 2-album release consists of a full-length studio album (entitled venus orbiting) plus a live-in-concert one (venus live still orbiting), recorded during her 1998 "plugged" world tour — her first with a full band. It was originally conceived as a collection of Tori rarities, but "all of these songs just kept coming. The writing gods decided to stop by, and you try and be there when the muse decides she wants to hang around with you," includes the buoyant 1,000 Oceans (ATL83230) 2-CS: 19.98 2-CD: 24.98

The New Women's Music Sampler

Welcome to the class of 1999! This compilation, featuring 12 tracks by the Butchies - playing Sex (I'm A Lesbian) - Tribe 8, Doris Roberts, Ruben, Kaia and more spare many different styles: punk and classic rock, metal meets mod, sac and wail, straight up sweet. Liner notes by Tammy Rae Carland (self-proclaimed vice lezard of the record label Mr. Lady) speak about feminism in the late 90's. Every song is unique and excellent: it's not the kind of comp where there's 20 songs and you have to skip through half of them. It's rather short and sweet, destined to be a hit for road trip tapes! (MRL05) CD: 13.98

Various, Inc. Sarah McLachlan Brewed Awakening

Featuring tracks by Sarah McLachlan, Tara MacLean, Delerium and others, this 1997 release is being touted as the "official" CD of the Lilith Fair. 5 of the 10 artists have performed at various dates on the tour. Sarah McLachlan sings a sultry (previously unreleased) version of Unchained Melody, while the remainder of the CD showcases many newer talents, representing a wide variety of musical styles and influences, including a little country (Dayna Manning), mellow fusion (Astor De Lucie), and acoustic rock (The JBs), among others. ### Move Into the Villa Villakula

Back by popular demand! Villa Villakula was that fabulous place where the coolest girl ever, ol' Pippi Longstocking, lived. This 1997 CD would be the perfect recording to hear blasting out of the Villa's basement window. Released by a brand-new woman-run label, it's full of indie-rock divas like Sleater-Kinney, Ruby Falls, Kaia, and Azaria Snail, plus several, um, eclectic spoken word pieces from Eileen Myles. Experience a delicious, lip-smackin' sampler of what some other cool girls are doing with their time. So go braid your hair, climb up onto the roof and have some fun, ok? (VVK6) CD: 13.98

Veda Hille Spine

If you can possibly imagine a more eclectic Tori Amos, you're still nowhere near a suitable description of this Canadian artist. Her musical background stretches from early classical piano training to her indefinable mix of new music, punk rock, and electro-acoustic songs. This 1998 (her first in the US) features her passionate singing style and complex song structures, backed by an interesting and atypical array of instruments: mandola, dumbek, davul, saw, yankak, nq, and more. Andy Stochansky (of Ani DiFranco fame) lends his talents on percussion. Highly recommended! (BLR47303) CD: 15.98

Rock ~ Pop

Her Greatest Hits/Songs of Long Ago

When I was 12, my 4-4 camp played I Feel the Earth Move over the loudspeaker every day. (I guess the counselors were tired of Kumbaya.) Two weeks later, I went right home and bought Tapestry, my first-ever record purchase. Apparently so did everyone else in America, as the album won 4 Grammys and has gone Platinum 10 times. Five Tapestry classics, including It's Too Late and a live Carnegie Hall version of You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, grace this 1999 collection. Add to them 5 other songs such as Nightingale, Been to Canaan, and Only Love Is Real, and you have plenty of reasons to make this selection your next music purchase. (EPC58446) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carole King Tapestry

This 1971 classic, one of the best selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Every Day Is a New Day

Now and forever pop royalty, Diana soars to new heights with her '99 release. Pop sensibilities are blended with contemporary R&B stylings, then driven home with a fierce Hex Hector remix of Until We Meet Again... for a final presentation that reminds us why we loved her in the first place... and convinces us we'll go on loving her. Several tracks are featured in the TV movie Double Platinum starring Diana and Brandy. (MOT548522) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield/Various Artists

Forever Dusty: Homage to an Icon

This loving and humble 1999 tribute compilation (which has been in the works since before Dusty Springfield died of breast cancer but was not complete until just a few months after her death) contains 16 performances of Dusty classics, by artists such as Indigo Girls, Laura Love Band, The Butchies, SONIA, Michelle Malone with her mom Karen Malone, Ana Eggi, Zazzy, Jill Sobule, Jennifer Kimball, Mrs. Fun, Sara Lee (bass player with Indigo Girls, Ani DiFranco) and countless others. Finally gets to shine in front and center! Vicki Randle, Lord Douglas Philips (with Gretchen Phillips) and other innovative women artists from the cutting edge of contemporary popular music. Many great Dusty songs are here, in fabulous new renditions which must be heard. A portion of proceeds will benefit breast cancer support organizations. (RND3101) CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield Dusty in Memphis

The world sadly told this great songstress to breast cancer in 1995, ironically the same year of her induction into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame... we learned of her death just days after we added this album to our listings. Not only does this 1969 release include the famous original album by the same name, which Rolling Stone Album Guide deemed her finest effort and which includes her Top 10 hit Son of a Preacher Man... it also features 11 previously unused tracks — including rare singles and a complete album recorded in the US but never released. With its carefully remastered sound and special booklet, this deluxe edition is a chance to remember a great artist while discovering a classic all over again — and much more. (RHT3580) CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield

The Very Best of...

Heart throb! With hits like Wishin' and Hopin', I Only Want to Be With You, and You Don't Have to Say You Love Me, who needs those scratched up old 45s (that you can't even find a turntable for) anymore? Only why did they wait until 1999 to reissue these from the vault? It's about time... 20 tracks in all! (MER558208) CD: 16.98

Eddi Reader

Angels & Electricity

This Scottish vocalist started her career as the voice of the 80's pop group Fairground Attraction, but on this 1999 solo release, she can hardly be pinned down to a label such as "pop singer". In collaboration with other writers and musicians, she shines as a vocalist, delivering an extremely organic collection of songs. The 12 tracks travel through a variety of sounds — folk, rock, jazz, pop — all tied together by intelligent lyrics and her amazing, golden voice. Not to be missed are Postcard, Prayerwheel, and Bel, Book, & Candle. (CM54265) CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Come On Now Social

Their 1999 release finds them working with a great group of notable guest musicians, including Joan Osborne, Sheryl Crow, Mr. Shell Nodge/Ocello, Luscious Jackson drummer Kate Schellenbach, and Natacha Atlas, as well as a whole new band. Songs include Fay Tucker, about the first woman executed by the state of Texas since the Civil War, plus Go, We Are Together, Peace Tonight, and Sister. (EPC69914) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

1200 Curfews (Double Set)

This 1999 double live album captures the warmth and magnetism of the Girls in a way the studio albums never do. Featuring 26 songs, it contains over 2 hours of live concert favorites, culled from a wide range of venues over the years, plus 5 in-concert versions of previously unreleased songs and their new studio recording of Buffy Sainte-Marie's Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee. Other memorable moments include their cover versions of Joni Mitchell's River, Neil Young's Down By the River, and Bob Dylan's Tangled Up in Blue, with a surprisingly down and dirty vocal from Emily. (EPC67220) CS: 15.98 CD: 24.98

Rites of Passage

This 1992 release rides high on a rhythmic undercurrent of Latin and African percussion, a new maturity in songwriting, and a renewed sense of vitality in their delivery. Includes guest vocal appearances by the Roches, Jackson Browne and David Crosby, great fiddle by Lisa Germano, includes Virginia Woolf, Cedar Rise, Ghost. Emily Saliers says, "The freshness of this album is that we recorded these songs without any preconceived notions of how they should sound." (EPC48885) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Indigo Girls

Shaming of the Sun

The Girls continue their work for the forces of good and for good music on this 1997 release! (EPC67851) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Swamp Ophelia

This May 1994 release covers a broad range of emotions and musical thoughts, from Power of Two, a simple, hopeful love song, to Touch Me Fall, a raw opus that deals with ego, the industry and true love, then journeys lyrically and musically toward chaos. Least Complicated is about learning lessons in love and life, and The Train (Revised) is a stark, powerful piece written after a visit to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. Guest artists include Jane Siberry, Lisa Germano, and the Roches. (EPC57621) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Jane Olivor In Concert

Many customers have put in requests for titles by this vocalist, and we see why... gorgeous, expressive voice, excellent selection of songs. This 1982 release contains Pretty Girl, Arnie's Song, and more. (COL37938) CD: 13.98

This 1995 volume is like the best of the best: 70+ minutes, digitally remastered, from her earliest album through her last. Includes all her classic greatest hits, plus rare gems, live recordings, and previously-unissued tracks: an acoustic version of Me and Bobby McGee, an alternate take of Summertime, a live, not-previously-issued version of Ball and Chain, and more, from one of the greatest rock and blues artists of all time. (COL57905) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

This batch of honest, thoughtful songs includes Hands, Fat Boy, Barcelona and more. (ATL52950) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Armatrading Greatest Hits

This 1995 release contains truly the best ever of Joan Armatrading — all the way back to her acoustic beginnings in 1973, with Whatever For Us, For Us, through Back to the Night, Down to Zero, Love and Affection, Show Some Emotion, all the way up to 1995's Kind Words (And a Real Good Heart). 16 selections in all (the CD even has a bonus track, a live version of Kissin' And A Huggin'), this is a highly recommended retrospective. (AM525) CD: 16.98

Joan Armatrading What's Inside

0406

This 1995 release, considered by the artist to be her most personal to date, contains the spectrum of classic Armatrading styles: the elegant acoustic simplicity of Merchant of Love, the blues of Lost the Love, the country-gospel strains of Beyond the Blue, complete with slide guitar, the driving beat of Can't Stop Loving You, her ballad Trouble is a stately, loving tribute to her mother, and one of the best tracks, Shades and Sizes, even features the strings of the Kronos Quartet! Over two decades of recording and delighting audiences with her rich, warm vocals, and still going strong. Cassettes here are "cult-out" bargain editions. (RCA27269) CS: 6.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Jett and the Blackhearts Fit to Be Tied: Great Hits

One of the key members of the legendary all-female rock group The Runaways, then embarking on a solo career in 1979, Joan was one of the first to prove women could rock. This 1997 retrospective spans her entire solo career, from 1980's Bad Reputation, through all her biggest Top 40 hits including I Love Rock 'n Roll and Crimson and Clover, to her 1996 single Love Is All Around (theme song from the Mary Tyler Moore Show). AND the previously-unreleased World of Denial. (MERS36440) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell Hits

This 1996 compilation includes Joni's biggest, well, "hits" from 1967 to 1994. Includes Big Yellow Taxi, Chelsea Morning, Both Sides Now, River, Raised on Robbery, Woodstock, The Circle Game and more! If you aren't aware of this musical genius (a favorite even of Led Zepplin!), this is a nice intro. (If you already are "with it," this would be just nice to have around the house.) (REP46326) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell Taming the Tiger

This 1996 release presents a masterful collection of songs from a legendary figure who remains one of the most compelling, complex and original performers in popular music today. Features Wayne Shorter on sax; songs include Harlem in Havana, Tiger Bones, Lead Balloon, The Crazy Ones of Love. (REP46451) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Julia Fordham Collection

Over 10 years and 5 albums, this artist has been writing songs that reach listeners around the world, forming a strong and personal connection between them. Whether singing with gentle introspection or vibrant emotion, her supple voice makes each moment as intimate and visceral as a shared heartbeat. This '99 album features several of her best, plus 2 new songs and 2 new remakes of popular classics. (VIR44315) CD: 16.98

Karen Carpenter

One of my favorite childhood memories is playing my mother's Carpenters' albums. Karen's exquisite alto voice still blows me out, and I still think it was SO COOL that she played drums! So I am giddy with excitement to discover her self-titled solo album, recorded in 1979, is finally released! Without any "help" from her "on let's add some more overdubbed strings" brother Richard, this album is one of the last ones she made before her death from an eating disorder. Produced by Phil Ramone, recorded with Billy Joel's back-up band (it's a 1970's like rock groove!), this album includes Paul Simon's Still Crazy After All These Years, Last One Singing the Blues, and a duet with Chicago's Peter Cetera on his Making Love in the Afternoon. (AM588) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro

Stoned Soul Picnic: Best of (2-CD)

This 2-CD set celebrates the innovative artistry of Laura Nyro's singing and songwriting, and it's about time! A key figure in the late '60s/early '70s music scene, her earthy drinking-sweet-wine-by-the-riverbank lyrics were juxtaposed with a sweet gospel voice and an R&B/soul/blues/folk sound. Barbara Streisand had a huge hit with her Stoney End, Fifth Dimension hit paydirt with Wedding Bell Blues, Stoned Soul Picnic, and Blowing Away, Blood, Sweat and Tears paid the rent with And When I Die, and Laura herself did a celebrated album of R&B covers (with backup from Labelle), including I Met Him On A Sunday, you can hear Laura's own renditions of all of these here! Also includes her love song for Emmis, Mother's Spiritual, A Woman of the World, plus the requisite dangling carrot for the big fans: previously-unreleased stuff. (COL48880) CD: 24.98

Laura Nyro/Various Artists

Time & Love: Music of Laura Nyro

This wonderful compilation — a tribute to the passionate poet of pop — was released almost immediately after her death from ovarian cancer in 1997. (Why is it we always wait until someone is no longer with us before we elevate them to deity status?) Interpretations of Nyro classics include Phoebe Snow's version of the title cut, Jill Sobule with Stoned Soul Picnic, the Roches's Wedding Bell Blues, Patty Larkin's Poverty Train, Sweet Honey in the Rock's And When I Die, Jane Siberry, Suzanne Vega, and Jonathan Brooke help round out the cast. For new as well as long-time fans of this timeless artist. (ATR4007) CD: 16.98

Lauren Wood

She's sung backup for Patti, but she's best known as the singer-songwriter of the international hit Fallen from the Pretty Woman soundtrack, selling over 15 million copies and earning her platinum record status and much critical acclaim. This charmingly wacky artist has an undeniably unique, sultry voice that has captivated a loyal following. From a well of intimacy and vulnerability to a hint of Beatlesque and humor, her 1997 debut includes 12 new gems plus the bonus track, you guessed it, Fallen. (BA4200) CD: 15.98

Linda Ronstadt & Emmylou Harris

Western Wall: The Tucson Sessions

0800

Featuring songwriting collaborations with Luscious Jackson, Patty Griffin, Bruce Springsteen and Jackson Browne, this lovely and spirited 1999 duet album finds these 2 musicians at the peak of their artistry. It's not like Trio and it's not country. It's adult rock. Their creative partnership — a genuine musical camaraderie — is evident, with harmonies warmer than mercy. Includes Sweet Spot, For a Dancer, Valencia. This is to Mother You: with back-up vocals by Kate & Anna McGarrigle and Neil Young. (ASY62408) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Luscious Jackson Electric Honey

NEW!

This 1999 album of groovy (now passed down to a trio) notoriety for their hip, rock/alternative originality. Their 3rd release features a new Luscious edge, sounding slightly techno with a modern pop-adapted beat. Stand-out tracks include Ladyfingers (with backing vocals by Emmylou Harris), Nervous Breakthrough and Fantastic Fabulous (on which Deborah Harry sings). We were excited to hear this album for the first time, and even more excited to put it on again! (CAP96064) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Madonna

Ray of Light

This 1998 release, which contains some of the most sophisticated and personal music she's made, includes Mer Girl, Shanti/Ashtangi, Skin. (WB46847) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Melissa Ferrick

Everything I Need

A brief hiatus prior to this 1998 release gave the artist an opportunity to reflect on personal growth; these 11 songs are the result. An expressive guitar player with a powerful voice, she has brought in some extra musical muscle from talented friends, who help make this rich, dynamic studio effort as gritty and exciting as her live shows. (WHR50033) CD: 16.98

You are reading this right... Melissa Ferrick is back! Recorded live in LA, Boston, and Santa Monica, this 1997 independent release of old and new material is sure to satisfy those of you who have been devoted fans, and to raise in new fans to boot. With her incredible songwriting and amazing guitar ability, it's hard to avoid comparisons to other greats (i.e. Ani DiFranco et al), but she is more than capable of standing on her own and even surpassing those who have come before her. The old material, such as Willing to Wait, seems to have taken on new meaning (she even takes a job at her old record company for not making it the single from the album of the same name), while the newer songs highlight her style of personalized songwriting. Highly recommended! (WHR50025) CD: 15.98

Michelle Malone Beneath the Devil Moon

Cassettes on sale! Michelle has been keeping good company and holding her own amongst them. She has toured with the Indigo Girls, and been invited to join several dates on Sarah McLachlan's Summer '97 Lillith Tour. This 1997 release demonstrates the artist's mature integration of musical styles from gospel, blues, jazz, and rock. She rocks with her own developing style in songs like Medicated Magdalene, where the guitar, drums, and vocals scream — recommended! (VEL70703) CS: 4.98 CD: 15.98

For You Not Them

"I was trying to write for the record label instead of myself and it just wasn't working, so I dropped the record company and started writing for myself again." This 1993 collection of songs was written and recorded on her own terms. With her soulful, sexy voice, and straightforward, unfeigned songwriting, she manages to make even a polished studio recording feel like a rousing live performance. This album is addressed directly to her audience and fans, and rightfully so. (SBS5001) CD: 15.98

Natalie Merchant

Ophelia

In this 1998 poetic, passionate outpouring of music and mystery, listeners can once again be swept away by Natalie's mesmerizing voice and tantalizing lyrics. Like the Sirens of mythology, the songs cast a spell, demanding closer scrutiny of their multilayered meanings. Dedicating it to the visionary poet Allen Ginsberg, she seems to pursue her own esoteric vision as she takes up and discards various personas in this intimate song cycle. It's impossible to adequately convey the rich sensuousness and liquid sound captured in songs such as Kind & Generous, My Skin, and Break Your Heart. Recommended. (EL52196) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

New Mongrels (Amy Ray/ Emily Saliers, etc.)

NEW!

Big Cup of Empty

If you're like me, you may be surprised (and somewhat ashamed) to realize that this amazing collaboration missed your attention in the past. The New Mongrels are a huge group of exceptional musicians, including Amy Ray, Emily Saliers, Michelle Malone, Caroline Aiken, Michael Lofant, and Gerard Mofugh, just to name a few. This 1998 recording feels like a great big round robin, with everyone taking turns on the mike and guitars, and songs that clearly show the combined talent of this group. As the Mongrels state on the album insert — "We hunker down, then come out singing, ever true to our mandate: the joyful promotion of song and rhythmic utterance." (DAE19017) CD: 14.98

Nona Hendryx

Transformation/ The Best of Nona

In her post-Labelle career Nona climbed even higher as she belted out one scorching hit after another, she mastered everything from rock to R&B and never missed a step. This 1999 release, her first greatest hits collection, will have you dancing to her upbeat party tracks and crying to her ballads. As you may have guessed, we absolutely adore Nona here and think you will too. Features Bustin' Out, Winds of Change (Mandela To Mandela), and SkinDiver. (RAT2182) CD: 16.98

Phoebe Snow

I Can't Complain

On this 1998 release, her first in 7 years, Phoebe Snow pays homage to her favorite singer/songwriters of the past 4 decades. Drawing from her folk and blues-infused roots, with a little rock and soul mixed in, Phoebe is back in full force. Included on this extraordinary set of cover songs is Place Of My Heart (Janis Joplin), A Case Of You (Joni Mitchell), It Takes A Lot To Laugh, It Takes A Train To Cry (Bob Dylan) along with many more. (PLT151352) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Pretenders

Viva El Amor!

Chrissie Hynde just keeps rocking. Not only is she blessed with one of the most distinctive voices heard on the airwaves, but the woman really writes a mean lyric. Consider the likes of "Every time I try to get close to you, you throw nails in the road," or "Why did you send me roses? Save them for someone's death." The Pretenders deliver rollicking dance songs like Popstar and Legs like their skinner people and society, but they also dish out sensual slow songs like Samurai and Slam that make you long for sex. If you're looking for sweetness, look elsewhere; but if you crave incisive wit, savage irony, and a driving beat, this is the music for you! (WB47342) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rita Coolidge

Thinkin' About You

NEW!

This 2-time Grammy-winner's participation in the Native American trio Walela has been her most visible work this past decade, but many of us in our, well, 40's-plus, remember her as one of our favorite rock/pop vocalists. Her 1998 album, created for an adult contemporary audience with a smooth country flavor, will have you re-living and rediscovering why you loved her in the first place. Includes I'll Remember You by her niece Laura Satterfield, also of Walela, and country line dance fans should check out Without Love and Runaway Love. (NW2100) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sara Church
Against All Odds

0730

With a style that "crosses acoustic rock, world pop, folk, roots, funk and blues-folk funk" (1), this talented singer-songwriter has been compared to the likes of Stevie Nicks, Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crow... and to that list we'd add Teresa Trull. And her recent touring has been generating a buzz — so pay attention. Her 1998 indie release is a journey through the eyes of a melodic visionary who loves and cares about the essence of life, her bell-i-out voice, intense lyrics and rhythmic structures are cradled in a bed of emotion that slides into the small of your back. So give her your ear: her talent deserves it. (ECC1) CS: 9.95 CD: 13.95

Sinead O'Connor
So Far...The Best of Sinead...

Capturing the essence of the paradoxical and tumultuous 7 years of the artist's recording history, this 1997 album contains some of the best tracks from her first 4 albums to date, plus a couple of songs from soundtracks. You'll see why her music and persona are often described with words like provocative, outspoken, emotional, sensual, and confessional. (EMC21581) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sophie B. Hawkins
Timbre

NEW!

You know Sophie B. from her lavishly potent songs, such as Damn, I Wish I Was Your Lover. She's back with a '99 release, and again, she chooses soothing melodies to accompany her raspy voice. Songs include Strange Thing, No Connection and Mmm My Best Friend. On the bolder side is The Darkest Child, a robust explanation of a young person who is considered a "bad seed." This fine recording contains more colors than my closet! (COL87651) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Squirrel Nut Zippers
Perennial Favorites

This Carolina swing band features a local-gal-makes-great story. In fact, this 1998 album went GOLD 2 days after its release! Vocalist Katharine Whalen has been wowing audiences nationally with her sweet crooning — in fact, some have pointed out the uncanny resemblance of her sound to that of Billie Holiday. This is a cheerful, energetic mixture of good-time songs, written in a 20's-jazz style, featuring some wild instrumentation and conveying a general atmosphere of fun, humor and abandon. Includes Fat Cats Keep Getting Fatter, Evening at LaFite's, and Katharine's silky vocals on My Drag. (MAM1012) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.98

Toni Childs
The Woman's Boat

Back in print, now at a great price! Toni has always used her music as a vehicle for intensely personal views of major social issues, but on this 1994 release, she journeys beyond that, into the spiritual realm. Thematically it traces the course of woman's lives through the cycle of birth, growth, death and rebirth. Many songs are danceable, and there's a world music feel with some tracks recorded in India, and contributions by Peter Gabriel and members of Zap Mama. If you're already familiar with her incredible voice, you'll probably be buying this anyway. If not, buy it for the artwork, and because she dedicates it "to the female spirit in every living thing." Amazing, outstanding, insistently recommended. (GEF24618) CD: 8.99

Tracy Nelson/ Mother Earth
Best of Tracy Nelson/Mother Earth

This 1996 anthology brings back into print, for the first time in decades, some of the truly remarkable music made by Tracy and her band in the late 60's and early 70's. Mixing strains of '60s country, folk and rock in a decidedly straightforward style — miles removed from the more over-the-top acts of the era — Mother Earth was an extraordinarily sympathetic vehicle for Tracy's powerful singing. Includes that veritable classic Down So Low, plus Temptation Took Control of Me and I Fell Satisfied. Cry On, Mother Earth, Ruler of My Heart. 17 in all. (WAR48232) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Folk ~ Singer-Songwriter

Alison Brown Quartet
Out of the Blue

NEW!

Unquestionably one of today's finest instrumentalists, Alison has established herself as a leader in a new generation of banjo virtuosos, moving far beyond traditional bluegrass styles, while delving into jazz, classical, Latin, samba and pop. Her unique blend of these styles has never been more evident than on this 1999 collection of original compositions. From the Brazilian-inspired languor of Coast Walk to the spicy, infectious rhythms of Samba del Sol, she magically transcends every cliché associated with banjo playing. (CWS4248) CD: 15.98

Various, Inc. Melissa Etheridge
Ain't Nuthin' But A She Thing

This 1995 album benefits the Shirley Divers Foundation, a clearinghouse which distributes funds to women-oriented charities. Melissa Etheridge performs Joan Armistead's Weakness in Me. Sinead O'Connor sings an a cappella version of a traditional Gaelic song translated as Women of Ireland, plus great tracks by Michele NdegeOcello, Patti Smith, Queen Latifah, Annie Lennox, Jani-J-Papa, Luscious Jackson, and more. (LON826674) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Vonda Shepard
It's Good, Eve

Surround yourself with the songs of this 1995 release that go beyond mere reminiscence and sad love songs. Here is a reflective and honest work with depth. Vonda's sensuously raspy voice, infused with every note, and the creative and surprising instrumentation make a most harmonious accompaniment. The opening track, Maryland, appears on the Putnamayo compilation, Women's Work, which features some of the most celebrated and up-and-coming artists of our time. Listen to this album and you'll know why she's included, a heartily recommended recording! (VES85003) CD: 16.98

Vonda Shepard
Radical Light

Originally released in 1982 by Reprise, it was only available for five weeks — do you think someone's kicking themselves now? Re-released in '96, the opening track, Searchin' My Soul, is the theme song on Ally McBeal. This recording gives you more of what you love about the music on the show, and demonstrates why she deserves all of the attention being given to her. (VES85006) CD: 16.98

Vonda Shepard
Songs from Ally McBeal

If you love the show, you'll love this 1998 original soundtrack featuring Vonda's sultry vocal talents. Every song will remind you of a favorite episode or a favorite stop on Ally's emotional roller coaster. Even if your attitude toward the show is notoriously short-skirts or the law in general is more problematic, you'll still find plenty of romantic pleasure in Vonda's sizzling covers of such classics as Walk Away Renee, You Belong to Me, and I Only Want to Be with You. Mixed in with the make-out music and the dance tunes are 4 of Vonda's own songs, including the show's theme song Searchin' My Soul. Recommended... (especially for anyone who wants to see Ally and her roommate Rene get together!) (SON69365) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Vonda Shepard
By 7:30

Further proof that there is no such thing as an overnight success story will be found on Vonda's 1995 debut album. Yes, she was around long before Ally McBeal was even a thought, and just as good. This release includes her top 15 Billboard hit, Don't Cry Wene on a album full of incredible songs. (VES85004) CD: 16.98

Vonda Shepard (w/Emily Saliers)
By 7:30

NEW!

On her 1999 melodious, slightly darker album, Vonda struts her dam stuff. Eschewing covers, she sings her songs of bitterness, love with increased confidence and vocal richness. Backed by a wide range of instruments, including Calamari bass, Indian harmonium, cello, accordion, and backwards piano, Vonda paints vivid pictures of passion and despair. Even before I knew all the words, I was trying to sing along with the refrains. The Middle Eastern-inspired title track, as well as Confetti, Scotch Me, and Baby, Don't You Break My Heart Slow, which pairs Vonda with Indigo Girls Emily Saliers, all seem me looking for a piano bar. (JAC2222) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Alison Brown
Simple Pleasures

0276

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how now incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Bela Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Allisona steal the show here — Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle, Dave Grisman on mandolin, Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this, so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order that! Very highly recommended! (VAN75458) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Alison Krauss
Now That I've Found You 0149
 This 1999 retrospective traces Alison's evolution from a fiddle prodigy to a mature (at age 23) musician and singer with an unerring ear for choosing and interpreting songs. Includes highlights from all previous Rounder releases, tracks from outside projects, and 3 brand new tracks. (R000225) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss
Forget About It NEW!
 Heart-wrenching lyrics and a truly touching vocal performance characterize Alison's 1999 release. This time out, the emphasis is much more on the song structure and emotional explorations, but, of course, she never fails to deliver dazzlingly precise instrumentation. Her old-time style is tempered by pop sensibilities, placing this album somewhere between Hazel Dickens and Dolly Parton (who actually guests here). With tracks like Empty Heart, Ghost in This House, and I Don't Matter Now, the theme of loss and redemption is mined for their full emotional impact. A perfect choice for rainy day introspection. (R000465) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss & Union Station
So Long So Wrong
 Alison has almost single-handedly brought bluegrass into the bright lights of mass popularity. On this 1997 release, her meaty singing and fiddle playing scores with a new maturity; she hasn't forsaken bluegrass traditions, but has traded in pieties for softer edges. With additional vocals by guitarist Dan Tyminski, and mandolin, banjo, and acoustic bass from the other boys, this record is a treasure-stuffed grabbag of lost-love songs like the title track, I Can Let Go Now and Deeper Than Crying, barn-burning instrumentals like Little Lisa Jane, and hands-on faith as in There Is A Reason. (R000356) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ana Egge
Mile Marker
 Ana follows up her critically acclaimed, award-winning debut, with this solo acoustic live album, released in '99. It highlights the talents of this young singer/songwriter perfectly, accompanying her "Bonnie Raitt like blanket of a voice" (Austin Chronicle) with the guitar she built herself, she performs 9 originals and 3 covers. Ana's career got a jumpstart after being asked by Shawn Colvin to open for her US tour to 25 cities in spring '98. We concur with Shawn's opinion: "Ana has the rare gift of being so eloquent and simple that she takes your breath away. I just love her." (GCE99012) CD: 14.98

Ana Egge
River Under the Road 0821
 Gearing up accolades left and right, the 1997 debut album of this young Austin-based artist combines bluegrass chords and a clear melodious voice in original songs which soulfully recount tales of life with lovers, friends, and family in small midwestern towns. However, there is nothing small about the waves created by the chords and lyrics as this rising prodigy twangs on the listener's heart strings! In Bless Me Mother, she sadly recalls the lower side of troubled love relationships as she sings, "It shouldn't hurt so to leave like that it's not your face but your voice I miss." (LS9002) CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Back & Forth
 The Best is back... in print, that is, this contains the best from her last releases Carpenter and Room and Board, such as The Woman You'd Love, Jessie, Jaynie, plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Scotty? We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Hole in the Day
 Our favorite midwestern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for y'all! This 1993 12-song release features her thrilling brown-sugar-&-molasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her very love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miles Home to You, and No Road to Juneau. (AML3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Life Gets Real 0089
 This 1995 release is a quintessential midlife exploration to complete the trilogy that began with Road of the Heart and Hole in the Day. Ann's full, deep, exquisite voice and artful self-harmonizing are just two of the features that make this album distinctive. The title track is a rocking reality check that offers insights about perspective and philosophy of life. Love Online is a humorous country song about e-mail relationships: "Your hair, your eyes, well these are things I've never seen/But oh your voice appears so warm upon my screen." Walk is a beautiful and compelling piece drawing with domestic violence. Excellent rhythms and melodies — her best yet — highly recommended! (AML4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Road of the Heart
 Listening to Ann's irresistible voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and at acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluey vein. (TC10074) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Timing Is Everything
 Grab a cup of something hot and settle in for a cozy visit with Ann's 1997 collection of new love songs (I Write a Letter, Love Like This). Insightful tunes of friendship (I Will Be There For You, Watching Over You), this-you-baby blues (Can't Sleep). Ann borrows the melody to Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend as a backdrop for Power Tools, a ditty which ought to become our office manager's theme song. The album title is taken from the chorus of Mantra, a story of a homeless woman and her gradual journey from life's mainstream to its littered streets ("Crazy didn't happen overnight/Just so you know/ Timing is everything"). Ann's award-winning guitar work is showcased in the instrumental piece The Dark, The Outpost, & The Creatures on Either Side. If you've loved Ann's previous recordings as much as we have, you'll be quite pleased with this one! (AML1101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen
Voices 0275
 When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the result is as fabulous as their fans might expect! It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their scappella work, most songs include back-up by producer/cellist Abby Newson and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...) Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF948) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Babes With Axes
Live Axe
 If you'd expected some women's heavy metal or loud screaming rock from their name, guess again! These babes are a fabulous women's acoustic quartet from Oregon, rich in 4-part harmonies. Their axes are their instruments, and they all play acoustic guitars plus lots more (piano, banjo, upright bass, dobro). Rotating lead vocals, instruments and songwriting, this live 1996 performance is full of vibrancy and variety. Their songs are progressive, funny, serious and entertaining, as they did so-called One Size Fits All clothes, among other topics. Recommended! (BWA002) CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities
English Country Dances 0273
 Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite 1995 instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lee, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddis in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk-dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and lifting beauty sounds. Baroque classical new-age, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, soar, float, and chase each other with counter-melodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, bagpipe, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Blackgirls
Procedure
 Blackgirls are in reality 3 white women from NC who bring together vocal excellence and classical training on a variety of acoustic instrumentation (strong on violins, no percussion) to create a new folkpunk sound. The melodies reflect their musical background, adding a simple beauty to the thought-provoking lyrics imparted in 3-part harmonies. The tempo changes from song to song, from dreamy to jarring, keeping listener interest sparked. Produced by Joe Boyd, known for his work with Fairport Convention, Sandy Denny and 10,000 Maniacs, to give you an idea about the sound. Highly recommended! (MAM0017) CS: 5.98

Carrie Newcomer
My True Name
 One of our favorite singer-songwriters returns with this 1998 release, another understated masterpiece which blends her unflinchingly honest lyrics, clear and moving vocals, and wonderful playing and production. The Moon Over Tucson, inspired by a Barbara Kingsolver essay, relates how people are connected to the physical universe in ways we may not understand consciously but we feel at our deepest level. Something Worth Fighting For, co-written with Pierce Pettis, delves into the complexity of adult love. To her acoustic foundation she adds touches of roots-rock sensibility and a tasty slice of country. (PH1223) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis
A Crash Course in Roses NEW! 0786
 With the distinctly sweet twang in her voice and her usual spirit and spark, Catie shines brighter than ever on this 1999 release, which beautifully displays the emotional sincerity and musical vibrancy of her vocals and songwriting. The 13 tracks travel through a range of stories and sounds with a loose and energetic vibe, as Catie and her band (including a dobro, wurlitzer, and electric mandolin player) improvise and rock out to create a rich and honest recording. Especially singable are Gave Me Love, World Don't Owe Me, and Look At You Now. (RYK478) CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis 0644
 Remember the first time you heard the plaintive, unadorned voice of James Taylor singing Fire and Rain or Tracy Chapman's quietly poignant Fast Car — moments that forever changed the way you experienced music? Listening to Catie's opening vocals here creates a similar epiphany, then she extends her crystalline folk sound into a musically lush environment. Like the simple electricity of her live performances, this 1997 release captures a unique artist at the height of her craft. Includes Soulfully, Do Unto Others, Come To Me. (GUA57209) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis
Truth From Lies 0151
 If you loved her earlier stuff as much as we did, you won't be disappointed by this 1994 follow-up. Her heartbreaking vocals and acoustic guitar are backed up by drums and bass, with some guest appearances by Patty Larkin and John Gorka. Our favorite songs include Everybody Was Dancing, the poignant tale of a woman's loneliness in a 30-year marriage, and Radical, which affirms the freedom of loving with no political statements attached. (GUA35435) CD: 15.98

Chenille Sisters
Haute Chenille: A Retrospective
 Find out why Hillary and Chelsea Clinton asked reporters in Ann Arbor, MI, "Isn't this where the Chenilles are from?" This '95 release is a knock-out collection from their first 7 albums, plus two hilarious new tracks, featuring the very best of what Chenille fans have come to adore: clever yet human lyrics, smooth-as-silk harmonies, and a sound that ranges from folk to jazz to pop. (RHR81) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler 0269
 Before we encountered this 1985 album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Llanes soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual: strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes; best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Circles & Arrows
 The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and wit in this artist's music, in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses." (PH1162) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Driving Home
 The sweet-sounding, rhyming slices of life provided on this 1993 release are mostly nostalgic and thoughtful, delivered in Cheryl's straightforward manner and lovely alto. She writes with insight about relationship dead-ends, and with true appreciation of the changing seasons. The tempo is occasionally lightened by selections such as the tongue-in-cheek Don't Forget the Guns. With vocal support on a few selections by Mary Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, and Patty Larkin (and Jonathan Edwards, who also produced) how can you go wrong? (PH1162) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Half a Book
 On this '87 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (NS0005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Mrs. Pinocci's Guitar 0422
 This '95 collection of 14 Wheeler originals reaffirms her reputation as one of the premiere singer-songwriters on the contemporary folk scene. Whether yearning for simplicity (Howl at the Moon) or diving headlong into the complexities of love (So Far to Fall) or goofing on pop culture (TV and Is It Peace Or Is It Prozac?), Cheryl always gets to the heart of the matter and delivers every nuance. (PH1192) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Sylvia Hotel
 This stellar performer is outrageously funny one moment, and heartbreakingly vulnerable the next. With intelligent lyrics and graceful melodies, her original songs range from poignant observations on love and politics to hilarious parodies of 90's lifestyles. Featuring the crowd-pleaser If I Were Up To Me, this '99 release is sure to add to her reputation as one of the premier singer/songwriters on the contemporary folk scene. (PH1212) CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin
One Wild Night in Concert

This 1995 release is exactly what her audiences always ask for: a spontaneous example of the hilarity, creativity and rapport from which her concerts are renowned. Among the new songs: They Look Alike, They Walk Alike, inspired by Dolly the sheep, National Apology Day, her proposal for world peace, and The Voice On the Relaxation Tape, a very funny send-up to the New Age movement. Concert favorites include Oh No (about losing things), the classic Sensitive New Age Guys, and her most-requested song, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From. Even the balon-winding grand finale is here (minus light sticks). The album captures what makes her one of the most popular performers on the folk circuit, capable of turning new listeners into enthusiastic fans within the course of one song. (CLV1) CD: 15.98

Dar Williams

End of the Summer

0700

Dar turns up the heat with her third album, packed with the kind of articulate, provocative and witty songs that have become her trademark. Song landscapes dwell with kinetic narratives, and rhythms run the gamut from the simple and spare accompaniment of If I Wrote You to the classic rock backbeat of Party Generation. What Do You Hear in These Sounds? features dazzling wordplay around the theme of psychotherapy, and her very social commentary comes through loud and clear in Teenagers, Kick Our Butts. Background vocals by Justin and Joyce, as well as Lucy Kaplansky and the Neilsens, add the finishing touches to this highly recommended 1997 release. (RAT2630) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mortal City

0481

What can you say about brilliance? Well, a lot, really. This 1995 sophomore effort by critically acclaimed folk musician and Joan Baez tourmate Dar Williams is so substantial and exquisite and meaningful and accomplished that it shines like polished bronze. Kicking off with the bouncing As Cool As I Am, an upbeat feminist tune with the sing-along anthem-like chorus "I will not be afraid of women," can start your day right. February brings you down with her wistfully evocative soprano and a tender metaphor for a failed love, The Christians and the Pagans is an endearing story about a pagan-sebian couple sharing an ecumenical Christmas celebration with an uncle's family. Other songs such as The Pointless, Yet Poignant, Crisis of a Co-Ed and Southern California Wants To Be Western New York live up to their billing. Oh, I could go on but I mustn't... highly I really really mean I recommended. (RAT2621) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Honesty Room

0154

This young, vibrant singer-songwriter is making waves around the country lately, acoustic luminaries such as Christine Lavin have been raving about her. The Folk Music bulletin boards of the Internet have been buzzing, she's garnered a fair bit of radio play, and made knockout folk festival appearances. Her remarkable lyric style is coupled with a supple sense of melody and a superb 3-octave voice, which caresses songs that convey a great mix of politics, social commentary, love and observation. This 1993 release includes the gender-twisted When I Was A Boy, plus The Great Unknown, Alleluia, The Babysitter's Hymn. On the lookout for some fine new talent? Try Dar. Dar Williams/Lucy Kaplansky/Richard Shindell
Cry Cry Cry

0736

This 1996 release allows the members of this folk dream team (Dar Williams, Lucy Kaplansky, Richard Shindell) to take time off from their solo careers and put together a tribute to what they simply call "the song." Through their vision and passion they interpret a diverse set of songs, from artists such as Melissa Neilsen, REM, Greg Brown, Julie Miller, all showcasing the fine craft of songwriting. A truly collective effort, each artist performs on almost every track, whether it's harmonizing with the others or taking their moment to shine in the spotlight. Fans of any of these artists will be delighted by the insight into what has influenced them in their own work. (RAT2640) CD: 16.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Redemption Road

We once again welcome this singer-songwriter back to the recording world, where she blends together such diverse influences as folk, Celtic, pop, rock and Americana to create a refined, passionate, and accessible 1997 album. This music is laced with earthy grooves, soaring harmonies, mandolins, and fiddles, while her intimate, honest lyrics draw focus to her rich and versatile vocals. If you've been a fan for all these years, you'll definitely want to accompany her on this leg of her journey. (MT397) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Eva Cassidy
Songbird

0719

We bring this incredible (and uncategoryable) vocalist to you with great sadness and joy in our hearts — this 1996 best-of release was issued posthumously, as Eva died of cancer at age 33 in 1995. During her lifetime, her notoriety was stifled by paralyzing stage fright, yet those who did know of her versatile talents sang her praises mightily... until the greater music world both found and lost her simultaneously at her death, when she was awarded nine Walmarts (Washington Area Music Awards) in DC. She performed folk, blues, gospel, and pop with equal flair, adding new dimensions to all her interpretations. One can almost hear the tears behind each note as she flows effortlessly through everything from Wade in the Water to Over the Rainbow from Pete Seeger's Oh, Had I A Golden Thread to Sing's Fields of Gold. We think you'll be blown away by her ability, highly recommended! (BLK10045) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Gayla Drake Paul
A Woman's Touch

0753

On her 1999 recording subtitled Romantic Solo Guitar Music, this guitarist/composer once again winks us with her extraordinary playing, passion and emotion. These 13 compositions are mini-portraits of women who have catalyzed her creativity and inspired her life, sung without words by the deep expressiveness of her solo fingerstyle guitar playing. Flowing from one song to the next, the album draws the listener in to the love that she has had for these women. The unique packaging consists of a CD inside an elegant greeting card in an envelope, perfect for a gift for a special person or a treasure for yourself. Exquisitely recorded, and just so recommended! (JVN20499) CD: 15.98

Gillian Welch

Hell Among the Yearlings

The stripped-down old-time style of this truly outstanding folk artist has been dropping the jaws of critics and fans across the country. On this 1998 sophomore effort, she further explores American traditional music while indulging in some powerful songwriting, employing a pristine presentation which is sure to move her one step closer to legendary status. The tracks describe and explore the experiences of poor rural white folks with Whiskey Girl, Winter's Come & Gone, and Miner's Reclaim. This staff favorite will move you with the brilliance of her simplicity. (AL80021) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Gillian Welch

Revival

I cannot understand how, but Gillian manages to convey the entire weight of the sadness in Appalachian/Deep Southern poor, rural lives on this 1996 release. Whung from her young heart, ageless tales of crushed hopes, death, bad luck and lives that never stood a chance are leavened only by steadfast faith in a far shake when they "cross over." Simple arrangements, direct lyrics, and a delicately plain, but not overly plaintive singing style have grabbed us here at Ladyslipper and won't let us go. The easy-to-take twang of Orphan Girl, Tear My Soulhouse Down, Barroom Girls and By the Mark seem like timeless classics gathered in the back mountain hollers, but they are all her originals! Essential listening to regain your perspective on the important things. (AL80006) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Hazel Dickens et al
Heart of a Singer

This 1996 release features three generations of country/bluegrass/old-time singers: Hazel Dickens, Elizabeth Carol Jones, and Ginny Hawker, whose styles and contributions bind the roots to the modern of traditional Appalachian music. They harmonize in duets and trios, as well as each taking a moment to let her pipes loose on her own. The heartache, the tenderness, and the lush sounds all mix and flow wonderfully, on covers by songwriters such as Woody Guthrie as well as originals from all three women. Fans of Hazel's early work and Gillian Welch are guaranteed to love this collection! (ROU0443) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Janis Ian

Hunger

0652

With this 1997 release, Janis starts off her 30th year of recording as strong as ever. The songs are lyrically personal and poignant. Searching For America, with Ani DiFranco, is a musically haunting examination of life in America. Honor Them All explores the importance of remembering and paying tribute to those who have helped make you who you are and continue to shape your life. Black & White investigates prejudice and the deterioration of race relations. And the power of her lyrics is only one side of the coin — Janis has reached a new pinnacle with her instrumentalation, adding even more strength to what is already a superb album. Hopefully Hunger is just the beginning of the next 30 years of Janis's incredible music. Highly recommended! (WH11274) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Janis Ian

Revenge

When Janis Ian performed songs from this 1995 album at the National Women's Music Festival, thousands of women were ecstatic about her very "out" commentary as well as her artistry. Stolen Fire is a passionately angry piece written following a breakup, and When Angels Cry speaks movingly about AIDS. "Some say it's a judgment on us all, can't believe that God could be that small." This acclaimed songwriter — with a voice that can be touching in its delicacy or energizing in its vigor — is going strong in her comeback, over 30 years after her first major hit! Between the Lines

Now that this well-known artist from the 60's and 70's has publicly come out as a lesbian (confirming years of audience hope and/or speculation), we've been getting requests for her material. Here's a classic 1975 album, containing several of her hits: At Seventeen, Ten & Sympathy, Love's Lullaby, and more. (COL33394) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Breaking Silence

Nostalgic for the 60's and 70's? You're not alone! Fans everywhere are crying for new releases from the folk legends, and after a 12-year hiatus, Janis delivers! Not shying away from controversy (coming out of the closet) or in her music, her song topics touch issues such as the Holocaust, in Tattoo, physical abuse in His Hands, child abuse and molestation in the title track, and eroticism (given new meaning) in Ride Me Like A Wave. Two songs were co-written with Jess Leaty, whose music so impressed us years ago that we loved her 45... And whatever you do, don't miss Guess You Had To Be There, "cause if you were conscious at all during the 80's, she's playing your song. 1992 (MOR20923) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Bottom Line Encore Collection

Recorded live at the Bottom Line in NYC in 1980, released in 1999, this is Janis' first live album ever, and features many of her internationally renowned compositions. Her contributions as a singer/songwriter have spanned 4 decades; included here are Society's Child, At Seventeen, Jesse, and Fly Too High which were all Top 20 songs in the US, and Silly Habits, which was nominated for a Grammy in 1987. It's a virtual Greatest Hits Live! (BLR53440) CD: 15.98

Jennifer Kimball

Veering From the Wave

Janis Ian, one half of The Story, has been silent since the band's break up — until this long-awaited 1998 solo release. In keeping with The Story and its "other half" Jonathan Brooke, Jennifer lights up this album with unique music and intelligent lyrics. Her voice is by turn powerful and wistful, but always engaging... her songs are universal without being impersonal, and easy to become involved in. This is simply a really good album, all you Story fans won't be disappointed! (TRR55801) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jo Miller and Laura Love

Sing Bluegrass and Old-Time Music

Ranch Romance's lead singer and the inimitable Laura Love join forces on this '95 release of 16 lovely, intense, pretty much traditional bluegrass and old-time songs — most of them duets. Full of fast-paced raves, beautiful ballads, and yes, yodeling, it features accompaniment by the amazing dobro/mandolin player Orville Johnson, plus Nancy Katz, Nova Devonne and David Keenan of Ranch Romance. Jo and Laura have been occasionally performing as the Jo Miller/Laura Love Connection, between their other commitments, and crowd response has been phenomenal, so if you haven't yet, catch their go here! Ring Them Bells

0417

Over 4 special nights in April '95, at NYC's Bottom Line, a remarkable array of women artists shared the spotlight with Joan Baez in an amazing celebration of the art and timelessness of American music. Songs include Jesse (with Janis Ian), Don't Think Twice It's All Right (with Indigo Girls), title track (with Mary Black), Swallow Song (with Joan's sister Mimi Fariña), Diamonds and Rust (with Mary Chapin Carpenter), You're Aging Well (with Dar Williams), Pajarillo Barranquero (with Tish Hinojosa), Willie Moore (with Kate and Anna McGarrigle), and other Baez classics such as The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down. Even if you weren't one of the 1,200 folks lucky enough to be there for this historic event, you can still share these moments of great music and inspiring artistry. (GUA34889) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Live at Newport

Contrary to what you might assume, almost all the songs on this 1995 album have never before been released! Recorded live at the 1963-1965 Newport Folk Festival, when Joan's soprano was ruling the world, it includes All My Trials, Come All Ye Fair and Tender Maidens, Farewell Angelina, a duet with Mary Travers on Lonesome Valley, a duet with Peter Yarrow on Hush Little Baby, and duets with little Bobby Dylan on It Ain't Me Babe and With God On Our Side. Armed with an acoustic guitar, a mean vibrato and a great hobby of spirit, Joan bowed over the crowd sitting (?) on the grass and now you too can have that experience. (VAN77015) CD: 15.98

Joanne Rand

Family History

She calls this highly personal 1999 release an upbeat tribute to family — past, present and future — and to the art of storytelling. Some of the stories involve her own family — her southern ancestors, her 2 sisters and her expected baby — while others are about her "extended family" such as the late forestry activist Judi Bari and Alaska Native American activist Dune Lankard. Beautifully woven life-affirming lyrics, diversity of musical styles, and elegant sound quality are all here. Uplifting, brimming with hope and joy, and of course there's her amazing voice... a winning combination. (JRS) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

10 Cent Wings

Fans of The Story and newcomers alike will not be disappointed! In fact, since becoming a solo artist, Jonatha's already extensive songwriting has reached new heights — her lyrics are intelligent, her harmonies unique and her storytelling bold. This 1997 album manages to sound polished and raw at the same time, much like Jonatha's amazing voice, and the instrumentation ranges from simple to multi-layered. These are songs you can listen to 100 times and still find something new. From the ephemeral title track to the turbulent Crumble to the upbeat Secrets and Lies, we love it — highly recommended! ### Live

Jonatha is the type of artist you should experience live — this is when the true soul of her music comes through. In addition to being in her own class as a songwriter, her rare musician-ship as a singer and guitarist is impossible to miss in her live performances. This 1999 collection features songs from all of Jonatha's previous recordings (including her 2 with The Story), often giving an exciting new twist on an old song. Jonatha rocks out with the band on Where Were You, and gives an unforgettable performance of In the Gloaming with her incredible back-up singer, Ingrid Graudin. A must-have for Jonatha fans! Finally back in print, for real! The debut classic 1975 album by these Canadian sisters with "generic" harmonies includes their beautiful original ballad Head Like a Wheel, also featuring their third sister Janis on vocals and organ, which propelled them (and Linda Ronstadt) to fame and fortune. Instrumentation — accordion, fiddle, harmonica, guitar, banjo — and vocal style are drawn from French Canadian tradition, though most of the material is original. Also includes Tell My Sister, Jigsaw Puzzle of Life, Travelin' On For Janis. (HAN4401) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Rosaryville

In Kate's music, you'll find the bizarre, the mythical and the mundane — characters and landscapes that amuse and amaze. This singer-songwriter is often compared to authors like Flannery O'Connor and Eudora Welty as well as musicians like Lucinda Williams, and her 1995 album (her 14th) presents another broad vision of pan-American culture. In My Mother's House deals with the struggles and changing relationships between mothers and daughters. Rosa's Cornudas describes the dedication and pride a Cuban woman feels in her art of making cigars, and title track contemplates the pursuit of art and marching to the beat of a different drummer. Like so many Southerners, Kate knows a good story when she hears it, and in the retelling, opens the doors to one more corner of the universe and invites the rest of us to come along for the ride. ### Close To You

One of Kate's best-loved albums, originally released in 1981, we bring it back to Ladyslipper by popular request! Sweet harmonies, gentle rhythms, thoughtful lyrics, includes Across the Great Divide, Like a River, Friend of Mine, Unfinished Life. (RH71482) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Give Yourself to Love (2-Set)

This live 1983 release of mostly previously-unrecorded material features Kate's long-time colleague Nina Gerber on mandolin, harmonica, guitar, and vocals throughout the "show." Most closely resembles her concert and includes some songs by other musicians that she enjoyed performing over the years. Compiled from three performances in San Francisco (Great American Music Hall), Davis, and Nevada City, includes a live version of Redtail Hawk, and her original Green Eyes and title song. ### Gold in California (2-Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1996. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death; she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released, except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rises Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Emma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. ### The Wind Blows Wild

This 1989 release contains all previously unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's death at the young age of 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1996, the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Rising of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on... and on... through her still-growing discography. (RH71486) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release (we think it's her best ever) showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice including both acoustic and band-oriented songs. The album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's) and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Que of Four and B-52's). It's one of our favorites around the office, many of us are especially taken with her song Out in the Country, and same with I Have My Reasons. Highly recommended! (HST10316) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Be Careful What You Wish For...

Kristen has one of those hickory-smoked voices that could make the most widely exuberant thoughts sound wistful. This 1994 release is a big heaping plateful of the "Atlanta Sound," the girly rolling beats of electrified folk, and some help from friends Matthew Sweet, Sara Lee, Jules Shear, Michelle Malone, and i-Girl Emily Saliers. Although in Don't Tell Me, Kristen sings a careworn "Well, to tell you the truth I'm lonely, but that is a feeling I do well," the gist of the album is that she is beginning to get some ideas as how to navigate through the stormy ocean of life (see Following My Complex). Though far from content and serene, she has learned enough from her burns to realize "Baby, look before you leap into the fire" (from Heaven Knows). Good stuff for those beautiful, thoughtful, sad-little-smile days. (HST10328) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Thumbprint: Bootleg Demos

We're glad to make available this rare, limited-availability cassette for fans everywhere. Once again, her fine sense of melody creates a strong base for her raspy vocals and true-to-life lyrics. (And, not to worry, this collection is presented by Kristen herself — this isn't an artist-proof underground-type bootleg.) Some of these 10 tracks are studio recordings, while others were recorded in her own house. Atlanta artist Michelle Malone backs up on Long Way Down. Kristen has yet to let her audience down, and we know you'll enjoy this first-hand glimpse into her heart. (KH1) CS: 15.98

Real Life Stuff

The debut album from this Atlanta-based singer/songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and, well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice: it's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy... aw heck, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE5055) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kym Tuvim

I'm sitting here listening to this CD, thinking about how great it is and what to say about it when the phone rings. "Hi, this is Kym Tuvim." I wonder whether I've dropped into the Twilight Zone, because you have to figure that the chances are very slim that you would be sitting there critiquing a release and the artist would call. Well, I haven't dropped into the Twilight Zone, but I have fallen in love with her debut 1998 release. As Erin Corday has said, "Her voice alone will stop you in your tracks... [her] music is sensual, sophisticated and widely subtle." It's complemented by sophisticated songwriting, and excellent musical support from Jam Sieber, Michael Manning and Julie Wolf. Recommended! ### If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message: the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vast and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. By far the most popular song here is her internationally acclaimed, poignantly simple ballad, How Could Anyone Ever Tell You, which has been sung in everything from incest recovery groups to kindergarten classes to peace gatherings. Also notable is Rose, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; additionally includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women; Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout; and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on thee! An excellent debut! (TRT1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Lay It All Down

When we heard the news about this 1997 release from the Alaskan chanteuse who christened our new building with its first live concert, we were excited, as well as a bit curious. Could Libby really follow up her first three recordings with another collection of original, introspective, poetic, articulate, politically conscious and spiritually inspired songs? The answer is a definitive and resounding YES! Don't let the tender vocals fool you; Libby's power lies in her lyrics. Songs include I Wish I Self Believed in Angels, Road to Ecstasy, Hold Your Ground, Forgiveness, and Listen To a Devil (that's Jamie Sieber on cello — she's no devil tho!). ### Thinking Like a Mountain

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including the plus 15 That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams; Go, Holy Thing Is Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. This feminist singer-songwriter just keeps getting better, as she proves on this 1993 release, which will truly move you to see the world as your lover. Includes the hauntingly beautiful title song, a hilarious country swing number Heaven Down Here, the poignant Because You Do, and Libby's first rock and roll song (!) Thunder, which warns of the rise of fundamentalism in US politics. We always recommend Libby! (TRT1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Lucy Kaplansky
Ten Year Night

Now that you've heard her as part of the Cry Cry Cry trio, isn't it time to explore her solo work again? This 1999 release, Lucy's third, combines a solid contemporary folk/roots-rock foundation with a tasty twinge of twang, always outdone by Lucy's sumptuous voice. Her former duo partner Shawn Colvin says, "Her singing has been a source of amazement, and comfort to me." Her innovative vocal phrasing and completely original approach to singing and songwriting continue to make her a refreshing presence in acoustic music. Includes title track, which she has performed every night of the Cry Cry Cry tour; guest vocals by Jennifer Kimball and Richard Shindell. (RHR126) CD: 15.98

Lucy Kaplansky
The Tide

Grammy-winner Shawn Colvin (Lucy's former duo partner) both produced and performed on this exciting 1994 debut release. Lucy's been an important part of the Greenwich Village folk scene, sharing the stage with Suzanne Vega, the McGarrigles, and Nancy Griffith. Her album contains striking originals like You Just Need a Horse and title track, plus songs by heavyweight composers such as Richard Thompson and Sting. One of her most outstanding characteristics is her innovative vocal phrasing: her original approach to singing and songwriting has made her a refreshing presence in acoustic music, and her membership in the Cry Cry Cry trio has thankfully brought her work to the attention of even more listeners. Lynn Miles
Night in a Strange Town

This 1998 song cycle places new strength behind the aching vulnerability of Lynn's exquisite voice and vivid imagery. Few artists can mix such a broad range of musical styles with such seamless clarity, as one song rooted in baroque moves to the next with an emphasis on drumming. These tracks lead the listener through the pathways of the heart and the country, with an honesty about the bad times and hope and joy for the good times. (PH1215) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.98

Marjorie Richards
Here

0708

This 1997 debut was selected by Performing Songwriter Magazine as one of their Top 12 Independent Recordings, saying "There is a purity in [her] voice that reaches into your heart, grabs you and doesn't let go until the last beautiful note has faded. Match that purity with the clarity of her lyrical vision and you have an artist and an album you'll go back to time and time again." Produced by Charlie Murphy, this compilation of 13 original songs featuring her evocative lyrics, illuminating vocals and strong guitar, is solidly acoustic, with back-up from musicians like Jami Sieber. The Mollys
Hot Trick

0626

The Mollys write and rock what they know. An unexpected and delightful combining of lead singers Nancy McCallion and Catherine Zavada's cultural and musical backgrounds (Irish-American and Mexican-American), their music truly defies traditional labeling. If you haven't heard them already, you'll become a believer when you hear their 1997 release! The Celtic-Tejano folk melodies intermingle and offer originality with a style that hasn't been heard since the birth of rock 'n' roll. This Tucson-based group has done something daring here which warrants a listen to and a passing on to friends. Highly recommended! (APH9701) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

The Mollys
Moon Over the Interstate

0714

A hot summer night in Arizona, the local cantina is crowded, and the Mexican traditional band onstage is keeping a steady rhythm. In the rear, a traveling Irish songwriter wanders in, seeking to nurse her melancholy homesickness with music, or perhaps some tequila... OK, maybe this wasn't the way the Mollys were formed, but you'd never know it from the result! Their blend of Irish and Mexican folk/traditional music is truly unique, and definitely inspired. They mix everything from jigs to polkas, pub stompers to tearful ballads, pennywhistle to accordion, and create a marvelous musical fusion that's sure to please. Their 1998 release is enchantingly eclectic, delightfully different, righteously recommended! (APH9801) CS: 8.98 CD: 15.98

Nields
Play

Sisters Nerissa and Karyna, along with Nerissa's husband David who took her last name when they got married, have combined elements of folk and psychedelia to present a most unique 1998 album, in which they communicate the message of the music through the metaphor of a dramatic stage performance. It moves from jaded to convivial with wit and wit really drawing in the listener who can follow along with the scenes in the CD booklet. The delivery is an interesting twist but the real focus is the quality of the folktop melodies with a hint of Celtic mystery. (ZOE1002) CD: 15.98

Odetta*At the Gate of Horn

0693

This classic 1957 studio recording from the beloved vocalist, a mix of African-American spirituals and traditional folk songs, has fortunately been re-released in 1997, proving its timeless appeal. Includes Sail Away Ladies, Pretty Horse, Midnight Special, He's Got the Whole World in His Hands, Gallows Tree, Maybe She Go, Lass of the Low Country, and more. In addition to her own guitar, Bill Lee (Spike's dad), accompanies on acoustic bass. (TRD1063) CD: 12.98

Odetta*Best of the Vanguard Years

This 1999 compilation represents this amazing vocalist's golden period, featuring the repertoire most associated with her artistry: the chants and cries that rose out of the struggles of African Americans in the US. Songs from the Southern work camps, such as Cotton Fields and If I Had A Hammer, as well as Southern gospel traditional songs like Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child are featured; also includes Carnegie Hall performances such as No More Auction Block For Me. Most feature the superb accompaniment of her guitar and (Spike's dad) Bill Lee's bass; a few feature choral back-up, and 3 previously unreleased tracks present her working with the blues, with piano/bass/drums. Extensive notes, 60-min. (VAN79522) CD: 15.98

Odetta*The Best of Odetta: Ballads & Blues

Easily one of the most loved and lauded singers of our time, Odetta has been moving fans with her soaring vocals and passionate performances for decades. On this bargain-priced collection, we get a wonderful sampling of traditional folk songs like The Fox as well as classic gospel blues such as Gory, Gory. With a voice that is simultaneously loving, sorrowful, and penetrating, you can't help but get drawn in to the artistry that has made her one of the best. (LEG354) CD: 6.98

Odetta*To Ella

0792

Recorded at the 1996 Kerrville Folk Festival on the night of Ella's death, this '98 release is not a jazz recording, on which Odetta sings Ella's material, but rather it honors Odetta's and Ella's shared roots in American gospel and folk music. Odetta fans will appreciate the material's always powerful guitar and voice paying homage to one of the many women singers who've influenced her music. Ella fans will appreciate the insights into the musical traditions that inspired the jazz singer. "If ever there was a melting pot in this country, I think it's been in the music," Odetta says during the 27-minute medley Suite: Ancestors. And if there ever was a musician who respected the power of that music, it's Odetta. (SWF1012) CD: 15.98

Pamela Means
Cobblestones

0750

The 1998 release from this amazing folk artist is certain to advance Pamela Means as a recognized name within the circle of great singer-songwriter/guitarists. The woman plays guitar like nobody's business, and writes songs with such honesty and passion you'll feel like you know her. Most of the songs feature just her and her guitar, and demonstrate her incredible skill on guitar; additionally, there are also two band cuts, which gives her sound even more depth. (Love this woman!) Highly recommended! (WR1003) CD: 15.98

Pamela Means (w/Ani DiFranco)
Bone Spurs

We are most pleased to offer this 1995 recording of original introspective songs, from a folk artist who is making quite a name for herself. The album features the clear-voiced singer playing mad acoustic guitar, doing some mellow grooving to a background of smooth percussion and horns blown in on occasion. On Speak she is joined by Ani DiFranco in a rousing live jam session where they sing, "If you got something to talk about, why don't you raise your voice?" In her songs such as Scary Dog Man, Black Boots and Ponies, she's got a lot to say, highly recommended! (WR001) CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries
Same Rain

Pat's the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to anthemicize common struggles and triumphs. She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us for all our differences, as beings all washed in the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! (MPN360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin*Perishable Fruit

Here's an album which, like its title, you'll want to get fresh — a 1997 release full of tasty tracks diverse enough for varied palates. Her voice is captivating, deep and bluesy on songs like Angel's Wings and Wolf at the Door, and with synthesized radio-physics on The Book I'm Not Reading. Special guests include Jane Siberry and Jennifer Kimball from The Story. The penetrating vocals, emotion-filled lyrics, dynamic instruments (bass and acoustic guitar, drums, accordion), and distinctive flavors and textures on each track make listening a thrill at every turn, highly recommended! (HST10354) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary*Songs of Conscience and Concern

Rather than a compilation of their hits, this 1999 album of yet-to-be-discovered treasures contains 15 songs not found on any "best of" albums, few previously released on CD. All but the new Don't Laugh At Me, which was recorded specifically for this release, are drawn from 20 albums recorded during their 4-decade association — lesser-known songs that inspired the 3 to keep on keepin' on. Includes Sally Fingersett's Home Is Where the Heart Is, Phil Ochs' There But For Fortune, Woody Guthrie's Pastures of Plenty, and Pete Seeger's Wasn't That a Time. (WB47292) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Peter, Paul & Mary &... LifeLines

Better than a folk festival! This revered trio again shares the stage with a fabulous roster of artists they've sung with at festivals, marches and concerts. Ronnie Gilbert, Holly Near, Pete Seeger, Judy Collins, Gary and Lucy Simon, Richie Havens, B.B. King, Emmylou Harris, John Sebastian, Dave Van Ronk and others. They say, "We share the music on this album as if PPSM had expanded and added new members. And in a way, that's what happened. The sum is greater than the parts, that's what folk music is all about." This 1995 release includes House of the Rising Sun, River of Jordan, and a duet between Mary Travers and Holly Near on Home Is Where the Heart Is. Sally Fingersett's beautiful song about lesbian and gay relationships, alone, worth the price of the album. Recommended! (WB45851) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Letter Day
Four Bowls of Colour

0646

Wow, these gals are catchy! This Maryland duo features Suzanne Morrow on vocals and guitar and Andrea Jones on vocals, saxophone, harmonica and recorder, and their '96 release is very tasty acoustic folk/rock (and I mean that in the best, poppiest way possible). The closest comparison I can make, and I wish I were more imaginative, would be The Indigo Girls — you know, good lyrics, interesting arrangements and instrumentalists, intense harmonies, all in all a real pleasure to listen to. California is a swell west coast dis; their hearts oze all over the lovely On The Chesapeake Bay; Pandora's Box is as beguiling as the title promises. Trust me on this one. (ANT100) CD: 14.98

Shawn Colvin
A Few Small Repairs

Fans of Shawn Colvin love her with unshakable devotion. A singer-songwriter extraordinaire, this 1996 release traverses raggy tenor — Shawn's muse probably doesn't let her sleep well at night. The songs sound pretty and poppy and made in a big studio with many expensive thinking lights, but they don't paint a picture that would match your couch. Songs like Get Out of This House, Sunrise Came Home, and Trouble don't budge you; their insights remove the varnish and expose your fears, your disappointments, your pain to the air. Meanwhile, her voice is subtle and soft and sweet, seeping her incisive lyrics straight under your skin. This is good stuff. (COL67119) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Werner
Live at the Tin Angel

This wonderful '93 independently-released live album is back in print! Her classically trained voice is pure and angelic; she runs the gamut from Pat's Le Vie Et Rose to the jazzy Cole Porterish Maybe I'll Sang Cole Porter to the rampin' stompin' country of Ain't I Lonely Tonight. Well-produced, with self-accompaniment on piano or guitar, this is a lovely and intimate recording from a very talented artist. (SUS002) CD: 15.98

Susan Werner
Midwestern Saturday Night

Christine Lavin has called this Philadelphia artist "the fastest rising new star in the folk world," and this 1993 studio debut backs up the claim. Highlights are the title song about an old-fashioned date, the humorous Rubber Glove Blues (sex in the 60s), and the poignant Uncle John about the "unmarried" but not unloved family member. Accompaniment includes Julia Barnes' Celtic harp, plus Susan's piano, keyboard, and guitar. (SUS001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Terre Roche

The Sound of a Tree Falling

Terre Roche is a Blabbermouth. Or so she confesses since emerging from the Roches. Her 1998 solo release is a startling musical landscape of secret places in the heart of a masterful storyteller. Like a portraitist's portrait, each dot is an amalgam of tragicomic circumstance. As in the title track, which draws simile between the crescendo of silence when a tree falls in the forest — or when a heart breaks — and no one is there to hear, the songs unravel like mini-movies about lives about to unravel on the road to redemption. Self-produced by Nobody, the CD nevertheless carries the imprint of its auteur: a wringing, self-deprecating sense of irony, underscored by unwavering guitar virtuosity, and spare but elegant vocals. joined on 3 by her sister Maggie, recalling that magical mix of voices from their debut LP, 2+ decades ago. We're lucky Terre didn't follow her own advice on her song Blabbermouth where she urges "everybody hold on to your secrets." Our lives are enriched by her inability to hold onto hers. (ERW0001) CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman

New Beginning

As a singer and songwriter, few artists can match Tracy's gentle but passionate voracity, her literate lyrical compassion and her uncompromising stance. This 1995 album was recorded virtually live in the studio with her own band, the immediacy of her melodies and the depth of her emotions. Her voice rings clear and her vision shines true on the uplifting Heaven's Here On Earth, the tender love song Smoke and Ashes, the delicate longing of The Promise, and the spiritual I'm Ready. (EL61850) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Tracy Chapman

Her 1998 album made her the young singer/songwriter everyone was talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary, her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Talkin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL50774) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Silverwolf Story

This 1998 compilation provides us with a great collection of folk artists, all of whom are first-rate singer/songwriters. Contributors include Ani DiFranco, Dar Williams, Wendy Bucklew, Cate Curtis and Caroline Aiken... and you can even expect guest appearances by Shawn Colvin and the Indigo Girls. Don't miss Odette's amazing version of Amazing Grace, which is possibly the highlight of this well-crafted collection. (SWF1013) CD: 15.98

The Women of Kerrville Vol. 2

Recorded live at the '95, '97 and '98 Kerrville Folk Festivals, this 1999 collection reflects the exciting and continuing emergence of women singer-songwriters. This great compilation captures 14 unique and inspired performances by women artists such as Cate Curtis, Sherry, Katy McIntosh, Barbara Kessler, and Pete Juju, to mention just a few. The variety of styles and approaches shown on this collection is an excellent representation of all the ways in which women have contributed to folk music, from the upbeat, bluesy God Made Women by The Burns Sisters, to Dee Carsten's story-song Time, to the sheer melodic beauty of Anne Hill's First Day of Autumn. ### From the Heart of Studio A

Picture open like night at your favorite coffeehouse. Now picture that the evenings' line-up includes Iris DeMent's bittersweet Our Town, Dar Williams with This Was Pompeii, and Tish Hinojosa with Love Is on Our Side, nothing but talent and fine songs recorded live on the FolioScene radio show, unadorned by studio additions. Strong voices, beautiful musicianship, and stories which could stand alone as poetry, superb modern folk music offered by masters of the craft. Kate and Anna McGarrigle, Maura O'Connell, and Mary Black share pieces as well, along with an assortment of similarly talented men. (RHR109) CD: 15.98

Various Artists/ Pete Seeger

Where Have All the Flowers Gone

Wow! We hardly know whether to begin with praise for the fabulous artists, the incredible range of songs, a recap of Pete Seeger's career in social change, or praise for the highly informative liner notes in this very highly recommended 1998 2-CD compilation. Veteran folkies will revel in hearing Odette, Ronnie Gilbert, Judy Collins, PPAM, Tom Paxton, and The Weavers (to name a few) sing both well- and lesser-known songs written, arranged, or popularized by Pete. Readers whose parents listened to the aforementioned artists will be drawn in hearing Ani DiFranco, the Indigo Girls, Holly Near, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Bruce Springsteen (singing We Shall Overcome), Richie Havens, Billy Bragg, Cordeiro's Dad, Donovan, Bonnie Raitt, Tish Hinojosa, Nanci Griffith and others interpreting their choices from Pete's vast repertoire... over 2 1/2 hours of music. Whatever your tastes, if you value superb musicianship and/or engagement with the world, don't miss this album. (APR1024) CD: 29.98

Remembering Kate Wolf...

Treasures Left Behind, part of the title of this 1999 tribute perfectly describes this collection of rich and beautiful voices wrapped around Kate's haunting timeless songs. In this poignant treat of an album, artists such as Kris Williamson & Tret Fure, Fernon & Greg Brown, Nanci Griffith, Lucinda Williams, Terry Garthwaite, Rosalee Scorsone, and Kathy Mathis offer graceful renditions of Give Yourself to Love, Comforter Blue, In China or a Woman's Heart, and more. Liner notes by each performer reflect on Kate's legacy to those of us left behind. As one artist says, "I don't know much about Kate Wolf's life and loves but in a few raw and tender lines, she sure knew a lot about mine." (RHR114) CD: 15.98

Wendy Bucklew

Rage in the Ring

As I listened to this album for the first time, I felt a bit caught off guard by the fact that I had never before heard of this extraordinary singer-songwriter. With her raw, rocking vocals and stripped-down acoustic accompaniment, Wendy comes clearly across as an intense, brilliant artist who commands attention with every note. From the sexy title track to the bluesy, soulful Sid Sleepin', this recording (originally released in '90, remastered and re-released in 1998) covers everything from love to family to politics. Recommended! (SWF1011) CD: 15.98

Cowboy Envy

Real Cowboy Girl

The reasons for Cowboy Envy's origins seem as obscure as the reason that a man saddle cows, but this we do know: their rhythms kick like a trained heifer, their harmonies thwart the ambition of singing birds, and their humor makes folks in big Western States pause for a moment. Three yodelin' harmonizin' Atlanta musicians — "Frenchie" Poliakoff, Kathleen Hatfield, and the omnipresent DeDe Vogt — present a great program of both classic and original cowgirl tunes on their 1997 release, the title track from the 30's, High Ridin' Woman from the 50's ("She commands and men obey"), Dale Evans' Happy Trails, their own Harmony the Cowboy Way and many more. They're getting rave reviews, check them out today! (NVM1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Dixie Chicks

Fly

Having gone from indie recording artists to mega-superstars in recent years, they follow up their multi-platinum major label debut Wide Open Spaces (the best-selling release by a duo or group in country music history) with this 1999 release. It contains 13 songs all written or co-written by all 3 women, including the single Ready to Run (again re-recorded; it's the first "Triple crown" entry on the country charts in radio history). Greatest Gainer, Hot Shot Debut and Most New Stations in the first week. (MMT59678) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dolly Parton/ E Harris/ L Ronstadt

Trio

Dolly, Emmylou and Linda are together again in '99, so we thought a fitting tribute to bring back in for you their original 1987 collaboration. Includes My Dear Companion, Wildflowers, Those Memories of You, Hobo's Lullaby, Farther Along, and more. (WB34491) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Trio II

Three big voices, each a star in her own right, come together in a melodic display of talent on this 1999 sequel to Trio. Covering songwriters like Maybelle, Sara and A.P. Carter, Jennifer Kimball, and Dolly herself, each singing lead in turn, Emmylou, Linda and Dolly create memorable magic. The lively mix of country, folk and the attendant skilful instrumentation set off the individual strengths and perfect harmonies of these balladeers. You'd have to walk a lot farther than a country mile to find anything surpassing the fun of I Feel the Blues Movin' In, or the utter beauty of High Sierra and Do I Ever Cross Your Mind. This album shimmers! (EL62275) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Heather Myles

Highways & Honky Tonks

Her deep voice and thick country melodies make this 1998 release one of the most entertaining country releases we've seen in a while — it's easy to imagine every song being sung along to, in a dimly lit saloon, her songs are delivered with just the right mix of pop bounce and twang. She duets with Merle Haggard on No One Is Gonna Love You Better, and covers the Charley Pride hit Kiss An Angel Good Morning. And, of course, what country album would be complete without some ironic humor, as in Rock at the End of My Rainbow? So get up your spurs and traps, and two-step your troubles away. (ROU3147) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Asleep in the Swing

"Wendy Bucklew is cool," says Amy Ray, and that's the short of it. But if you need more, here's the scoop: Wendy's been the (barely) hidden gem of the Atlanta "electric folk" scene for years. One might describe her distinctive sound as, "the love child of Janis Joplin and Rickie Lee Jones, with Joni Mitchell and Joan Osborne as the babysitters." This gal can play her bluesy acoustic guitar work as intense, with definite jazz influences and just a hint of Ani DiFranco. She uses her voice like another instrument, one moment wailing full-on, the next standing and seeping all around the music like wisps of fog on a warm night. The combination is deeply magical and unforgettable! Listening to Wendy has often caused bouts of spontaneous singing in my vehicle (not that I could keep up with her mind you).

now it's your turn to roll up the windows in Asleep in the Swing. Recommended! (SWF1010) CD: 15.98

Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelinos by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Dory). Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Hotter Than Mojave in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing — she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. 1992 (WB45238) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Way I Should

On this 1995 release, she looks out at the world and is not really thrilled about what she sees. Her voice, beautifully twangy, speaks for those who do not have a protective coating. Wasteland of the Free declares "We got preachers, doctors, in politics and diamond mines and their speech is growing increasingly unkind." Later to Mom laments the shame of a woman who finally reveals that she had been sexually molested by her mother's boyfriend. There's a Wall in Washington is a rapful cry at the unhealed wounds of the Vietnam War. In a more personal vein, there is the self-explanatory I'll Take My Sorrow Straight. When My Morning Comes Around which instigated a serious bout of soul searching on my end, and a respite of cheerfulness in the Merle Haggard co-written This Kind of Happy. The final cut, Travels, is a road house blues, devil-may-care duet with Delbert McClintock that warns us up before sending us out into the chilly night. I'll have another round of this, please. (WB46188) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kelly Willis

What I Deserve

Start with the title track to this outstanding 1995 release, and get ready to fall in love with Kelly. She's been called "the voice of Austin," and this singer, guitarist, and songwriter possesses a pure, classic country voice that sounds like a sweet mix of Stevie Nicks and Nanci Griffith. Her first album in 5 years, it's a subtly strong, warm, and evocative 13-track affair that crosses between country and rock gracefully, with smart and personal lyrics blessed by the magic of her supreme musicality. (RYK488) CD: 13.98

Lucinda Williams

Car Wheels On a Gravel Road

With this 1998 release, Lucinda sets us down in a world of hot days, dusty roads, Ford Galaxies 500's, and empty bars in the late afternoon haze. No net-surfing, laptop-using cyber-people here, this is gritty life sung with a gritty voice and a twangin' guitar by a woman who knows that the simple life is everything but simple. If you like to linger, as I do, in the restless melancholy of half-healed memories while holding a cold long-neck, these Car Wheels give the smoothest ride there. Hey, it's country, ain't it? (MER558336) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mandy Barnett

I've Got A Right To Cry

On her 1999 debut, this Nashvilleite summons the ghosts of the great country female singers that came before her. In an openly retro style, her honey-throated voice drips over standards and newly-penned songs. Adding to the nostalgic feel is the production by Owen Bradley, who not only worked with Patsy Cline, Loretta Lynn and Brenda Lee, but produced L.D. Ling's Shadowland. Comparisons to past legends are as easy as they are incomplete. Mandy's performance on The Whispering Wind is enough to convince anyone that this artist is in a class all her own. (SIR31048) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter
Party Doll and Other Favorites

There's nothing like the rarity of obtaining an album for one or two songs and loving the whole thing! Her 1999 release is a refreshing "Best Of... Plus More" that includes live versions of favorites like Down At The Twist And Shout, I Take My Chances, Stones In the Road, and Quiltin' Time. Additionally, she has furnished us with 3 new recordings and the unforgettable Grow Old With Me, which is from the John Lennon Tribute Album. (COL68751) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter
A Place in the World

This Grammy Award-winner is slowly taking over the world! A country artist with big pop crossover appeal and a right-on gal who wears her feminist sensibilities like jacket fringe, we welcome her 1999 release. Filled with her trademark twang-less ballads like That's Real and easy collectors like The Better To Dream of You and I Want To Be Your Girlfriend, she has also thrown in the honky-tonk sounding Keeping the Faith and the fat horns-Stax-soul sound of Let Me Into Your Heart. Kudos to the poetic imagery washing through the thoughtful Idea Are Like Stars. (COL67501) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Country Gold

This specially-priced album collects some of the artist's best songs from 1985-1990. Trouble In the Fields, From A Distance, Once In A Very Blue Moon, I Wish It Would Rain and more. 10 songs at a great price! (MCA21000) CD: 7.98

Nanci Griffith
The Dust Bowl Symphony

On her 1999 release, Nanci has chosen 14 of her best-loved songs and recorded them anew with the backing of the London Symphony Orchestra, giving them a fresh warmth and coloring. Spanning 20-odd years of her songwriting, it includes Trouble In the Fields, Love at the Five and Dime (featuring Hootie and the Blowfish's Darious Rucker), Late Night Grand Hotel, and 1937 Pre-War Kimball, on which she duets with Beth Nielsen Chapman. (EL62418) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Nanci Griffith
Revisited

This 1999 release broadens the artist's illustrious career, as it revives many of her mesmerizing hits, re-recorded and remixed in new and unusual styles. For instance, Gulf Coast Highway is presented in 3 versions here: a "Baroque String Mix", a "Cyprian Mix", and its original mix. Late Night Grand Hotel and St. Teresa are likewise presented in 3 versions. (DAM12233) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith
Other Voices, Other Rooms (Album)

On this 1993 album, Nanci, an interpreter extraordinaire, performs 17 classic songs by her favorite writers, including Kate Wolf (Across the Great Divide), Bob Dylan (Boots of Spanish Leather), Malvina Reynolds (Turn Around), Tom Paxton, Woody Guthrie, John Prine, and others. Guest artists include Emmylou Harris, the Indigo Girls, Odetta, Arlo Guthrie and his DeMent, including Woman of the Phoenix, Morning Song for Sally, From Clare To Here. Quite a tribute to great songwriting! (EL61464) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Nanci Griffith
Other Voices, Too: Trip 2 Bountiful

Imagine Odetta and Gillian Welch among the group singing harmony on The Weavers classic If I Had a Hammer, and you'll have only begun to scratch the surface of the talents represented on this tribute to songwriters Nanci has admired over the years. Subtitled A Trip Back to Bountiful, this 1998 album, like the movie it references, reflects a passion for a time and a place which have passed and yet which remain within reach to those who remember. Lucinda Williams, Delores Keane, Tish Hinojosa, Emmylou Harris, and countless others lend their voices on this journey to Bountiful and back again. (EL62235) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ranch Romance
Blue Blazes

From opening dates for k.d. lang (they've been named one of k.d.'s fave groups) to a variety of live performances, this 4-woman (plus a guy) trad-but-rad "regressive country" band brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythm, hot instrumental work and wild yodeling to fans everywhere. Characterized by thoughtful lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass, their mixture of acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing has been described as k.d. and Patsy Cline meet Bob Wills. Lead singer Jo Miller is known to some as Laura Love's old-time music collaborator. Includes The Buckaroo, sort of an oral version of Thelma and Louise. (SUG3794) CS: 6.98 CD: 16.98

Rosie Flores
Dance Hall Dreams

This Texana country rocker, with her whiskey voice, big electric guitar, and dusty-front-the-road songs, treats us to her 1999 release. Freelance writer Jonny Whiteside writes, "While her music is firmly rooted in the traditional sound pioneered by women like Rose Maddox and Wanda Jackson, she continues, as they did, to explore the boundaries of the musical form. A veteran of the Texas dance halls, Rosie is also respected as one of the most innovative guitarists on the honky-tonk scene today." Dance Hall Dreams brims with Rosie's unstoppable passion and perseverance while reflecting her sense of connection to country music's past and dedication to its future. Listen to these accolades: "...the greatest singer ever..." (Rolling Stone) "America's greatest singer..." (Pulse) "The greatest gospel singer of her generation..." (Time) "...To our knowledge, no other singer of any genre of music has ever garnered such amazing praise in so many diverse sources. Her work has been featured in Fried Green Tomatoes, Bill Moyer's TV specials, and the CBS movie based on Alex Haley's Mama Flora's Family. Marsha Stevens
No Matter What Way!

Marsha's record label, publishing company, and ministry is named B.A.L.M.—for Born Again Lesbian Music, which already tells a great deal about this artist. The songwriter of the famous contemporary Christian hymn For Those Tears I Died (or Come to the Water), Marsha spent much time as a professional in mainstream gospel music, singing on shows such as Oral Roberts, Pat Robertson, Jim and Tammy Bakker Show, and then, after she came out as a lesbian, much time healing from it. During this second chapter of her life, she has been actively involved in the Metropolitan Community Church, vigorously performing and writing for the lesbian/gay community. This polished 1997 release contains originals such as Light of the World, the theme for the U.M.C.C.'s 1997 General Conference, Needing You, Needing Me for 2 lesbian adoptive parents and their new daughter... and other songs of inspiration relevant to lesbian and gay Christians. Queens of Country

There is absolutely nothing like classic country music. This collection of the great women of country has some of the best big-haired music you could hope for. I love these women! Their songs have the most self-effacing, go-ahead-and-real-out-your-resolve-on-me lyrics, but you know they can kick serious butt around the saedust bar floor. (Actually, female country musicians were in charge of their own careers decades before it was considered acceptable.) These songs have twang, the pathos, the wonderfully cheesy arrangements, and the soul that's missing from the brushed tunes of modern "country." There's Patsy, Loretta, Reba, Kitty, Tanya, Dolly, Crystal and others with whom we might not be on a first name basis. Rose Garden, Coal Miner's Daughter, Harper Valley PTA and even Stand By Your Man all in one place! Ecstasy! Check out what got k.d. all hot and bothered in the first place! (GNP2233) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tammy Wynette... Remembered

The influence of Tammy Wynette (1942-1998) cannot be overstated; with 30 million albums sold, 36 #1 hits, and a career that spanned 50 albums and 4 decades, she dominated the charts and urged female country singers towards greater horizons. This 12-song tribute includes tracks by a variety of artists who were touched by her music: Melissa Etheridge (Apartment No. 9), Elton John (Stand By Your Man), Wynonna (Woman To Woman), Rosanne Cash (D-I-V-O-R-C-E), Emmylou Harris & Linda Ronstadt dueting on Golden Ring, and Tammy's own final recording: a duet with Beach Boy Brian Wilson, in My Room. MCC of Washington, DC Gospel Choir
Something Inside So Strong

The Metropolitan Community Church, founded as a lesbian-and-gay-supportive Protestant denomination, has grown into a thriving community of faith. The first release from this lively and diverse 50-voice gospel choir is a joyful testament to their vision and spirit, includes traditional gospel favorites Leaning on the Everlasting Arms and The Lord Will Make My Way. Somehow, the powerful originals Come Holy Spirit and God Bless, as well as gospel hits Ready For A Miracle, Center of My Joy and a soulful Battle Hymn of the Republic. A highlight is Julia Nield's soaring guest solo on the title track. (MCC1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Chaka Kahn

Epiphany: The Best of... Vol. One

This 1995 landmark anthology, from an artist whose refusal to be categorized has helped to expand and blur the boundaries of R&B, dance, pop and jazz, features her greatest hits plus 5 new tracks. Among the new, Never Miss the Water, on which she is joined by Me'Shell NdegeOcello on vocals. Among the classics: I'm Every Woman (takes the title of her autobiography), Ain't Nobody (recorded with Rufus), and the Prince-penned I Feel For You. She's one of this reviewer's favorite divas, a 5-time Grammy winner and a voice to die for. (REP45965) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Erykah Badu

Baduizm

There are few artists that can record a debut album and instantly have it considered a classic, but that is exactly what Erykah has done on this 1997 release. Her style is so fresh, her voice so beautiful (she's been compared to Billie Holiday) that as soon as I first heard this album, nothing else went into my CD player for weeks. Her songs are positive, loving, spiritual, funny and poignant. (And if you're not a fan of BET or MTV and have never had a chance to see Erykah's videos, try to give them a look. Not only did she write and produce her album, she directs her own videos, which are gems.) During a time when so much of current R&B is wallowing in a wasteland of name-dropping and label-flashing, Baduizm is such good food for the soul I'd be crying shame to miss it. Highly, highly recommended. (UNV32027) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Live

Erykah's truthful, hypnotic lyrics, combined with her smooth, emotional voice and dynamic soul-filled live performances, have won her fans worldwide. This follow-up 1997 release was recorded live in-studio before an enthusiastic audience. Accompanied by her 3-piece band and background singers, she recorded 8 new tracks, including the original song Tyrone (dubbed by Rolling Stone as "Feminist anthem-in-waiting") plus live versions of On & On, Next Lifetime, Certainly, Other Side of the Game. ## Etta James

Heart of a Woman

"I dedicated my last album to the great men of the blues. I decided to do this one for the women. I wanted to do an album that would be truthful, one that women would love." On her 1999 release, bearing a dedication to Dinah Washington, Billie Holiday, Sarah Vaughan and Carmen McRae, one of the world's premier singers explores the heights and depths of a loveless life, through standards such as You Don't Know What Love Is and Only Women Bleed. Her deep throaty voice holds strong over the sweeping movements that draw us in to a cathartic sense of loss, leaving us, whenever we have loved, nodding our heads with sad remembrance. And though many of these tracks have graced the throats of legends like Billie and Ella, Etta's modern blues interpretation makes them all her own. (PVT82180) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lauryn Hill

The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill

1995 Grammy award-winner for Album of the Year, the first time a hip-hop album has won, and Lauren received 5 Grammys, the most any woman has ever received. When hip-hop superheros The Fugees dropped their first album, critics said, "The guys should stop, but the girl, Lauryn Hill, has delivered in this bomb-diggity of a solo album! Not only is her singing voice incredibly beautiful (check her ode to her newborn son Zion, Bob Marley's grandson), but she's got those crazy rhythmic skills. Doo Wop is the only #1 single the decade to be written, produced, and recorded solely by a woman." And her interpretation of Can't Take My Eyes Off of You has just got to be heard. Her lyrics are deep, conscious, and strongly feminist, and are perfectly combined with head-nodding beats as well as some slow grooves. I'm sure she has some faults, maybe she doesn't let her toothpaste from the bottom of something. No faults on this album though! Get at it! (RFF9035) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Les Nubians

Princesse Nubiennes

These French sisters have stormed across the Atlantic with their 1999 debut. Combining hip-hop, jazz, and Afro-European soul, they take their much deserved place next to the likes of Erykah Badu and Lauryn Hill. With the exception of the socially conscious Super Game, all songs are sung in French, offering the English speaker the chance to hear new combinations of vocal patterns and rhythmic sensibilities. Recorded with some of the cream of British soul and acid jazz musicians on board, this album declares a bold new sound in cross-cultural music. Be sure to check out their exciting cover of Sade's By Your Side. (OM45997) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Me'Shell NdegeOcello

Bitter

Her first release in 3 years, this 1999 album from the acclaimed singer-songwriter is a highly personal, often gentle, sometimes sultry, more acoustic recording than her previous efforts. Produced by Craig Street, who has produced albums by k.d. lang and Cassandra Wilson among others, it includes Grace, Faithful, Adam, Eve, and title track. (MAV47439) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Me'Shell NdegeOcello

Peace Beyond Passion

This 1996 release reaches beyond soul, funk, jazz and hip hop into a brand new groove. Her heavy bass lines and deep funk vocals shimmer, and the incisive lyrics cut deep and true. She squarely tackles religion, and a whole bunch of "isms" with Leviticus, Faggot, Deuteronomy, Niggerman, a seducing of Mary Magdalene and a spiritual God Shiva, amongst other cuts, and comes through shining. Me'Shell gets a little help from Billy Preston on organ and Joshua Redman on sax on this stupendous, so-good-it-almost-hurts album. (MAV46033) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Natalie Cole

Snowfall On the Sahara

A token to her highly successful career, this 1999 release features picturesque songs (appropriate to the album title) that uphold her unforgettable style and grace. The title track will add decadence to that Saturday night slow dance. Everyday I Have The Blues combines sassy jazz with old-fashioned blues and let me not forget the album's tear-jerking finish, Stay With Me. Undeniably smooth. (EL62401) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Queen Latifah

Nature of a Sista

"Cut-out" and on sale cheap! Afrocentric, woman-identified, artistic, and gracefully no-nonsense, Queen Latifah reigns proud here, on her 1991 recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah's Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Fancy and Bad As A Muffin, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to. Give Me Your Love and the incoherent How Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism (and sexism on the part of male R&B radio programmers), she would have the same (or more!) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. Highly recommended! (TB1035) CD: 8.98

Order in the Court

The first thing that struck me about her 1998 release was the D&B-esque artwork. Surreal is not how I would describe the music though; this is the down-to-earth, keeping-it-real Queen Latifah that we know and love, kickin' it about relationships, strong Black community, and other MC's who lyrically cannot enter the queen's domain. Hip-hop is a constantly evolving artform, and queens can be led by the wayside faster than you can say "check, 1, 2!" Props to the Queen for maintaining with integrity, and continuing to be a strong female voice in the hip-hop world. (MDT63065) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Go, Girl! Soul Sisters Tellin' It...

Like it is, on this do-no-miss collection of R&B songs from the 60's and early 70's by women who just won't take any more ass. Aretha's clarion cry, Respect, sets the mood and tone. Then there's Laura Lee's Woman's Love, Right and Wrong, A Padlock, Ann Peebles, I'll Get Along, and righteous dust-off-and-bald-your-head-high tracks from Mable John, Betty Wright, Honey Cone, Ima Thomas and more... 18 proto-feminist anthems on one CD! Janice Tyrone's song, which opens the album, says it all: "I gotta make it this time... I'm taking over my life today... You got to stand up and be a WOMAN!" No, YOU go, girl! (RH72504) CD: 15.98

Intimate Portrait: Women with Soul

This 1999 volume of the Intimate Portraits series offers a close-up view of the women who from the 70's to the 90's defined, expanded, and continually reinterpreted soul music. Such essential tracks as Sister Sledge's We Are Family and Labelle's Lady Marmalade stand proudly alongside modern classics like Donna Farris, I Know, Dance, Learn, and Swoon with this diverse sampling of smooth sounds and dynamic voices. ### Women in Hip-Hop 1: Classic Hip-Hop

Early on, rap was a guy thing, female rappers had a hard time being heard. By the late 80's, though, sisters had made inroads, reaching both male and female audiences. This is the first compilation to pay tribute to the women who have broken the gender barrier in the male-dominated world of rap and hip-hop. Collecting some of the most cutting-edge hits, 12" singles and album tracks featuring (and in many cases produced by) women, this 70-minute volume contains 15 tracks by some of the earliest female pioneers, includes Queen Latifah's Whut? Of My Madness, plus The Conscious Daughters, Roxanne Shante, and more. (RH72964) CD: 13.98

Blues

Bessie Smith

The Collection

Released in 1989, this 16-song collection is a great introduction to this early bisexual Blues Queen's hits! Her voluptuous, rich voice is incomparable on songs like Young Woman's Blues, Tain't Nobody's Bizness If I Do, Gimme A Pigfoot, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, You've Been A Good Ole Wagon, Alberta Hunter and Love Austin's Downhearted Blues, and many others. Includes ample liner notes, which many releases don't, and sounds not bad, considering this is some of the earliest recorded music. (CD44441) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton

Ball N' Chain

This 50-minute album is an excellent Big Mama anthology; includes Hard Day, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it, even though over 2 million copies were sold). The title song, which Big Mama never received any royalties, because she had to sign over the copyright in order to record a herself! (And please note that this artist died at age 57, in virtual financial destitution... how different it would have been had she been compensated for her tremendous contributions!) Other titles here are Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH3505) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Katie Webster

Deluxe Edition

From the bewdy I'm Bad to the heartfelt Sea of Love, all of the swamp boogie queen's hits are here on this 1999 release! Features guest appearances by Kim Wilson and Bonnie Raitt, who considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century" (we agree). She has released over 500 recordings featuring her musical gumbo of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, R&B and soul, and, of course, her incomparable boogie woogie piano. (ALL3406) CD: 15.98

Ma Rainey

The Mother of the Blues 1923-1928

No music collection is complete without a bit of the blues from the one and only Gertrude "Ma" Rainey. Her work is at once historically important and artistically brilliant, laying the ground work for the vocal stylings of nearly everyone who came after her. From broken-hearted laments such as Jealous Hearted Blues to tales of drunken reflection like Moonshine Blues, she shows us that the blues is as celebratory as it is sad. For anyone concerned with the contributions of women in music and culture in general, this is a must-have title. (EPM159232) CD: 15.98

Maria Muldaur

Louisiana

Love Call

Forget the oasis, let's head down south and get some real comfort, the "Bluesians" type, that is. She's older, she's wiser, and she's found a new home. Every song on this 1992 release (again available) evokes that steamy, sexy night-time heat. Joined by a plethora of local talent (Dr. John, Neville Brothers), Maria sings in that primal way of hers, combining harmonies and heart for a potent combination. The title track is a knock-out, with Aaron Neville on back-up vocals, while Cajun Moon is more contemporary sounding (and just as hot), also includes her bad-girl hit, Don't You Feel My Leg. (BL11081) CD: 15.98

Rory Block

Gone Woman Blues: Country Blues

This 1997 compilation collects all of Rory's amazing interpretations of classic country blues, from several previous albums. Her singular voice, her acoustic guitar and the occasional harmonica storm through her own Gone Woman Blues, Robert Johnson's Terraplane Blues, Halfbound On My Trail and Come On In My Kitchen, Mattie Delany's Tallahatchie Blues and many other tasty nuggets. (ROU11575) CD: 15.98

Rory Block

Confessions of a Blues Singer

On her 1996 release, this 1996 W.C. Handy Award-winning vocalist continues her raw and intense journey through authentic acoustic Delta blues. Following in the footsteps of such blues legends as Robert Johnson, Charley Patton and Blind Willie McTell, she captures a soulful moment in time with each song. (ROU3154) CD: 15.98

Ruth Brown

A Good Day for the Blues

As long as Ruth Brown is singing, everyday is a good day for the blues! On her 1989 release, she shows us that age is no obstacle to artistic endeavor. At the age of 70, Ruth shows no sign of slowing down, as she explores the territory between jazz and the blues. As one of the first R&B superstars, Brown has received numerous awards and risen to the peak of her genre. Her repertoire here ranges from classic ballads like Never Let Me Go and A Lover Is Forever to the foot-tapping, make-you-wanna-sing-along title track, a must for all you blues lovers out there! (BUL9613) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Saffire

The Uppity Blues Women

The Washington Post describes this 1990 album as "Sassy, brassy, raucous... racy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jellolif harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their second release includes Even Vuppies Get the Blues, Annie's Blues, Fess Up When You Mess Up, Yeah! (ALL4766) CD: 15.98

Saffire -- The Uppity Blues Women

Cleaning House

Their previous release, Old, New, Borrowed and Blue, paid tribute to the classic blues performers who inspired them, but this 1996 album contains mostly original songs featuring their unique interpretation of the blues. The most popular blues act in the world, these 3 women mix downhome musical settings (acoustic guitar, upright bass, acoustic piano, plus harmonica and mandolin) with their contemporary, earthy (and sometimes bawdy) lyrical observations. Join their diverse following that includes devotees of classic blues, folk and women's music! (ALL4840) CD: 15.98

Hot Flash

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy blueswomen live, by all means go! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles on their 1991 release include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1/2, No Need Fussin' On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4795) CD: 15.98

Live & Uppity

Their first live album, this 1998 release was recorded over 3 nights at the famous The Barris At Wolftrap in Alexandria, VA. In addition to fan favorites like Middle Aged Blues Boogie and (Mr. Insurance Man) Take Out That Thing, it contains new songs destined to become Saffire Classics (Silver Beaver, Cold Pizza & Warm Beer, The Thing That You Need) plus an inspired cover of the C&W classic Crazy. (ALL4058) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Old, New, Borrowed & Blue

After pairing down to a duo for 1992's BroadCasting, the band is now a trio again with the addition of vocalist Andrea Faye McIntosh to founding members Gaye Adegbalola and Ann Rabison. This 1994 release is the band's musical tribute to the blues legends who inspired them, like Bessie Smith, Ma Rainey, Big Mama Thornton and Pinetop Smith. In addition to cover versions of some of their favorites by these and other artists, it also features band originals, including some of their most popular live material such as Do Your Duty, You Got To Know Her and Fools' Night Out. Essential for fans of classic blues! (ALL4826) CD: 15.98

Shemekia Copeland

Turn the Heat Up

When it's hot in here! This 1995 debut album of scorching urban blues is like Texas Pete on some down-home pe-cooked barbecue ribs. Shemekia's voice is hot spice over smooth soul. Daughter of blues guitar legend Johnny Copeland, she started young, singing onstage with her father at the Cotton Club when she was only 8. In the 11 years since, she has developed her own distinctive style, a fusion of traditional Delta blues, Memphis soul, gospel and the unique flavors of Harlem, where she grew up listening to street musicians by day and singing smoky club blues by night. Kick back and let her roar your blues away! (ALL4857) CD: 15.98

Susan Tedeschi

Just Won't Burn

This relative newcomer to the blues, who is making waves with her powerful and soulful vocals as well as her guitar prowess, shows her stuff on this 1998 release. From straight-ahead blues such as Junior Wells' Little By Little and a rocking update of Mama, He Treats Your Daughter Mean (originally made famous by Ruth Brown), to the soul, gospel and R&B shades of It Hurt So Bad, Angel From Montgomery and title track, she demonstrates her ability to draw out the emotion, tension and feeling of the lyrics. She's joined by harmonica-blower Annie Raines. (TCL1164) CS: 15.98 CD: 15.98

Swamp Mama Johnson

Wetlands

Awwwwwright! Sweaty, classic rhythm and blues (as in that 60's Muscle Shoals "Soul Music" sound) from a smoking 5-woman band with a "taking not one drop of gulf" attitude! Hailing from the decidedly non-swampy environs of Bellingham WA, the band lays it down with wailing harmonica, honking tenor sax, burning fat guitar, and heavy drums and bass. Vocalist Lisa Miller proudly carries the whiskey-soaked 70's Bonnie Raitt tradition on their mostly original songs. My big favorite is Gasoline ("You're playin' with matches in a pool of gasoline... if you're playing with me boy, you're gonna get burned"). Oooh, I can feel the humidity rising! Love it! ## Swamp Mama Johnson

peachfish stew

These 5 groovin' women's 1997 release mixes several tasty influences into the swampy funk, ska, roots rock, country, blues, cajun and 60's psychedelia, yielding a riotous spicy jambalaya of sounds. The 11 tracks are mostly originals, 54 minutes in all, including Sistershake, Voodoo Angel, Inseparable Dish, and Pucker Up Buttercup. C'mon, be a Gatorhead (a Swamp Mama Johnson fan) and have a slurp of this! (BMS1197) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Fresh, Raw, & LIVE!

Nothing matches the intensity of these women live, listen and enjoy as the groove gets deeper and wider as the night goes on! The band has toured nonstop, creating a loyal following of "Gatorheads" with their funky blues style. Their 1999 release has a variety of mood-enhancing favorites from their 3 previous studio albums along with a great cover of Half Moon (originally by Janis Joplin). The catchy Enough Of You is still in my head, and I can't forget the infectious Don't Burn Baby/Want To Take You Higher. Also includes Sistershake, and Dr. John's Right Place Wrong Time. It's time to dust off my CD rack for this newcomer! (BMS1290) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Tracy Nelson/ Irma Thomas/ Marcia Ball

Sing It!

3 incredible R&B singers together on 1 fabulous 1998 album! It's mostly upbeat Southern soul, country, and party music — which they obviously had a blast recording! — with an all-star back-up band of Memphis and New Orleans players contributing to this real down-home stomp. Each singer has her moment as a soloist, but the 3-part harmonies truly shine when they come together. The slower songs are delivered with waves of soulful emotion, as each woman puts her heart into every verse. Be sure not to miss 3 masters of their craft, doing what they do best! Subtitled The Best of the New Generation, this 1998 anthology features a fascinating range of contemporary women blues artists, who have been part of the larger resurgence of blues over the last decade. Among the contributors: Zakiya Hooker who is John Lee Hooker's daughter, Saffire, the Uppity Blueswomen, Deborah Coleman, Rory Block, Lucinda Williams, (with Taj Mahal), BB Queen, bassist/singer/bandleader Sarah Brown who has performed with many of the legendary blues artists still around, and more. ### Essential Women in Blues (2-CD Set)

This 1997 2-CD release from The House of Blues (a non-profit organization with some great objectives) is packed-to-over-stuffing with sassy, rife-with-double-entendres songs spanning the 1920's to the present, the 30 tracks are not spartans from long-suffering women; rather they are non-sentimental sentiments from take-charge, damn-the-contracting-social-conventions women. Includes gems from Bessie Smith, Alberta Hunter, Memphis Minnie, Sipha Wallace, Big Mama Thornton, Dinah Washington, Ma Rainey, Big Maybelle, Ella Jarnes, Nina Simone, Koko Taylor, Saffire, Rory Block, Ruth Brown and more. This collection is both historically and musically indispensable! Let's play it again! (PLT181257) CD: 29.98

Better Boot That Thing

This bargain-priced "cut-out" compilation, subtitled Great Women Blues Singers of the 1920's, features works from 4 classic artists: Alberta Hunter (some of us were fortunate to catch her shows in NYC, where she energetically performed into her late 80's), Bessie Tucker, Ida May Mack, and Victoria Spivey (who ran her own Spivey record label, and shortly before her death, performed at the National Women's Music Festival). Songs include Whirling Women Blues, Seals Street Blues, Blood Hound Blues. (RCA69065) CS: 5.98

Jazz

Alice Coltrane

Journey in Satchidananda

Blessedly back in print! Before there was "New Age", there was an amazing composer and instrumentalist, who fused her knowledge of world music, jazz, and Eastern spirituality, and created sounds that were to become foundations for a genre. Recorded in 1970, this album combines her virtuosity on harp and piano with Pharoah Sanders' most excellent transcendental soprano sax, plus tamboura and oud, yielding original compositions that are evocative, meditative, searching, yearning, and just simply beautiful. Includes title, Isis and Oasis, Something About John Coltrane, Shiva-Loka. A personal favorite of this reviewer 25 years ago, and still highly recommended! (IMP228) CD: 16.98

Alice Coltrane

Ptah the El Daoud

When her magnificent album Journey in Satchidananda went once again to out-of-printland, we searched for something worthy to take its place in our catalog and encountered this 1970 gem. (Since then, it has luckily once again become available, but who knows what its status will be in the future!) Recorded shortly before Satchidananda, this album leans a bit more in a jazz direction (a highly melodic one), with more Western instrumentation. Pharoah Sanders and Joe Henderson's tenor sax and alto flute accompaniment (both on both) are still between the 2 channels in that old-time total stereo way which is way cool. Titles include Turiya and Ramakrishna, Blue Nile, Mantra; recommended! (IMP201) CD: 15.98

Betty Carter

I'm Yours, You're Mine

There was no one like Betty "Bebo" Carter, who died in 1998 at age 69 — what a huge loss. She didn't just sing, she took a song, bent it in the way a saxophone would, and pulled out heretofore hidden nuances. Her 1996 release, which she also produced, is simply one of the best jazz albums out there. The title track, which she co-wrote, is over 9 minutes of mystical scattering over an amazingly infectious bassline. Jules Styne's This Time, Antonio Carlos Jobim's Useless Landscape, East of the Sun and September Song are transformed. Betty infuses Lonely House, written by Kurt Weill with lyrics by Langston Hughes, with a languid potency. Realizing that she wanted more control over her career years ago, Betty created her own production company and called her own shots. This album is a bulls-eye, absolutely essential! (VRV53192) CD: 16.98

Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald et al

Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!

Containing works by Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Lena Horne and Sarah Washington, this 1994 collection has been growing and changing since the release of Ella, Lena and Billie in 1995. Featuring some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever, it includes Billie's What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's East of the Sun (And West of the Moon). (COL57638) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday

Ultimate Billie Holiday

Vocalist/pianist Shirley Horn had a difficult time selecting her favorite Billie Holiday songs for this 1997 release — "Billie helped to show me that the lyrics have got to mean something. Interpret the lyric and try to paint a picture, tell a story." She settled on 15 such stories, each one a signature tune which Billie so personalized that they became hers. Includes Strange Fruit, Don't Explain, God Bless the Child, Lady Sings the Blues, Fine and Mellow. (VRV539051) CD: 15.98

Lady in Satin

Originally recorded in February of 1958, only 17 months before her death, this recording shows an extraordinary singer at her best. Although the quality of her voice was not what people would have expected from her earlier recordings, the edge and roughness add an incredibly emotional essence. Billie draws from the deepest depths of personal experience, essentially pouring her heart out; her interpretations are then framed by Ray Ellis' lush arrangements. Contains 4 previously unissued alternative takes, and beautiful photographs from the session. Highly recommended! (COL85144) CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday
The Billie Holiday Songbook

This excellent anthology includes one of the very few in-print issues of Strange Fruit—about the lynching of African-Americans. It was one of the most haunting and significant recordings she ever made. Banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio, it is frequently omitted from anthologies even today. Also, Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song, clear sound, we recommend this collection highly. (VRV823246) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

Cassandra Wilson
New Moon Daughter

With a voice as deep and as transformative as night, Cassandra Wilson sings haunting originals and covers that she has re-arranged in her own lustrous image. She is one of the most interesting of modern jazz singers, steeped in equal parts of the blues and fierce pride. This woman has presence. On this 1996 release, the sound of a match being lit harrowingly begins her haunting cover of Strange Fruit (an unforgettable song about lynching made famous by Billie Holiday). In addition to her fine original compositions, she also metamorphoses songs by U2, Hank Williams, The Monkees and Neil Young into high art! Do not miss this artist! (BLN32961) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cassandra Wilson
Traveling Miles

This amazing 1999 release pays homage to the late jazz great, Miles Davis, and for Cassandra's fans it will come as no surprise that she has produced a tribute album like no other. In this daring project, she doesn't simply reprise a number of Miles Davis tunes, she actually remolds the songs, writing new lyrics in some cases and new arrangements in others—creating a bold album both true to its roots and to the innovative style we have come to expect from this artist. Also includes some new songs as well as a guest appearance by Afropop star (and Ladyslipper favorite) Angelique Kidjo. (BLN54123) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Diana Krall
Steppin' Out: The Early Recordings

On this re-release of her 1992 debut album, originally only available in Canada, we see the seeds of a brilliant and successful jazz pianist. Performing standards from the likes of Duke Ellington as well as an original thrown in for extra sass, her gorgeous voice and expert instrumentation will have your heart aching in no time. Subtle backing on bass and drums completes the picture of artistic mastery that draws the listener in close to the music that runs through these songs. Sit back, relax, light some candles and let one of the smoothest voices of our time take you away. (GRP9825) CD: 15.98

When I Look In Your Eyes

There is no other adjective for this 1999 recording than beautiful—from the heart-tugging cover photo, to the graceful orchestrations of Johnny Mandel, to, of course, Diana's startlingly dynamic yet smooth interpretations of 13 entrancing selections. Her gift is her ability to capture the moment, the essence of the story—"the goosebump factor," as described by Grammy-winning producer Tommy LiPuma. Songs range from the playful Popcorn to the seductive Do It Again; her interpretations of popular standards such as Let's Face the Music and Dance, Devil May Care, and a bossa nova arrangement of Cole Porter's I've Got You Under My Skin. Dinah Washington
Ultimate Dinah Washington

Both Abbey Lincoln—who assembled and annotated this 1997 collection—and her subject share a healthy spirit of defiance in their music. Dinah, who was called "Queen of the Blues," was a mischievous queen at times, "but when she went to the microphone to sing, it was like another dimension." Includes 16 of her classic songs: The Bitter Earth, Cry Me a River, Blue Gardenia, Since I Fell for You. (VRV539053) CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald
The Essential Ella: The Great Songs 0368

The First Lady of Song has been swingin' the band for nearly 60 years, and there's a great hour-long anthology with some of her best tunes. Includes Lady Be Good in both scat and slow versions, A-Tisket A-Tasket, Summertime, Ding! Dong!, The Witch Is Dead, Drop Me Off in Harlem, Meckle the Knife, Little Jazz, and 8 more. And unlike many reissues, this one has good sound and liner notes! Love this great bouncy big band sound, put this on at your next party for an enjoyable romp. (VRV517170) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald
Ultimate Ella Fitzgerald

"She always told a story like she was telling it for the first time. She was playful, innocent, whimsical, and tender... people loved her all over the world. She was gifted and she shared her gift with everybody. Songwriters would stand in line to get her to sing their songs." So said vocalist Joe Williams, who selected these 16 very classic tracks for this 1997 issue. Includes Bess, You Is My Woman Now, plus Lullaby of Birdland, A-Tisket A-Tasket, Oh, Lady Be Good, and more. (VRV539054) CD: 16.98

Etta James

Mystery Lady: Songs of Billie Holiday

This album of Billie Holiday tunes might seem somewhat unusual to longtime Etta fans, who know her for her hard-hitting rhythm and blues, but after one listen it's obvious she is more than capable of beautifully interpreting some of Billie's most soulful, heartbreaking songs. Dedicated to her mother Dorothy as well as to Billie Holiday, Mystery Lady is a reflective look back on the people and music that shaped her. "It took a long time to get to Mystery Lady, because these songs require maturity... They're quiet songs, inside the heart songs." Beautifully accompanied by Cedar Walton on piano and Red Holloway on saxophone. (PVT2114) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

I Feel Like Some Jazz Today

This highly decorated up-and-coming jazz vocalist, from our hometown of Durham, takes another step towards stardom with the second release on her own label. Along with hubby Chip Crawford, Eve casts a wide net of vocal talents that has a smidge of Billie's mystery and a heaping spoonful of Lena's energy and sass. This 1999 album combines standards such as My Funny Valentine with 4 refreshing tracks that feature original music and lyrics. Reflecting years of focused study and performance, their final presentation is a unified and mature exploration of her talent. (PLK9904) CD: 15.98

Giri Talk
Talkin' Jazz

I must abjectly confess that when I saw this album from an all-female Norwegian jazz trio I was not expecting much, but I exuberantly admit that I was greatly mistaken. Giri Talk makes stupendous jazz! Tenor saxophonist Bodil Niska (whose hometown of Hammerfest, Norway is the northernmost town in the world) has had Sonny Rollins compare her tone to Stan Getz, and her rich, gentle, burnished sound definitely hangs in the same neighborhood as Getz, Lester Young and Ben Webster. Ohio expatriate pianist Elizabeth Walker and bassist Tina Asmundsen complete the picture. They work in a late 1940's-early 1950's groove as they shine their creative light on their eponymous tune, Bessie's Blue and Sentimental, Van Heusen/Burke's Polka Dots and Moonbeams, Styne/Cahn's I Fall in Love Too Easily, Monk's Let's Cool One, Jobim's O Grande Amor and others. This 1996 release has sent me to jazz heaven. I defy anyone to not fall sightingly in love with this little minimate object. (HCR91) CD: 15.98

From Squirrel Nut Zippers' lead vocalist comes this 1999 solo debut, and you may want to sit down before listening to this. Sauntering her way through a set of jazz standards with poise and sultry style, she makes the big leap from honorable comparisons to other artists: to unique and innovative performances lending new shades of meaning to classics such as There is No Greater Love and All My Life. Lani Hall
Brasil Nativo

The Grammy Award-winning vocalist of Sergio Mendes & Brasil '66 delivers this soulful 1998 masterpiece with the energy and rhythm of a Brazilian carnival! Smooth and sensual, her elegant diva-quality voice caresses and wraps itself around these Brazilian songs (most sung in Portuguese), on which she is backed by the muted trumpet and flugel horn of collaborator Herb Alpert, and several male Brazilian artists: percussionist Paulinho Da Costa, acoustic guitarist and vocalist Dorci Caymini, pianist and string arranger Eddie Del Barrio. Love her English-language interpretation of Antonio Carlos Jobim's Waltz of March. Passionate, engaging and oh so sweet... highly recommended! (WHJ11372) CD: 15.98

Lois Dawson
Sunrise

Her name is as beautiful as her music, as smooth as her voice, as warm as her spirit. Although she hails from right here in Durham, NC, her name is spreading farther than just around the corner. Her 1998 debut album is slightly reminiscent of another amazing vocalist, Cassandra Wilson—they both have lush, low, warm vocals that move like honey. But unlike Wilson, Dawson has composed all pieces on this release, and so beautifully! Even if you haven't previously heard her name, we can almost promise you that this elegant recording will take a prominent place on your CD shelf—highly recommended! (LD1) CD: 15.98

Mary Lofstrom
My Secret Joy

I LOVE this album! Some of the sweetest, smoothest, swingingest, most melodic, foot-tapping, finger-snapping jazz on disc—with fabulous lesbian lyrics! With a voice described as mellifluous in almost every review she's received, not to mention excellent range, she performs 9 original songs (all of which sound like standards!) steeped in the jazz and blues tradition. Working from a lesbian perspective, each song is carefully built around the lyrical and melodic qualities, expressing irony and melancholy humor and heartbreak, honesty and irreverence which is accessible to all listeners. Songs like I Wish I Had a Motorcycle, She Rarely Wants Me, I'm Your Debutante, and the scatted Steve To You are accompanied by guys on piano, bass and drums, with a dash of trumpet. Buy this if you like jazz, and buy this if you don't think you do—very highly recommended! (SFB1) CD: 15.98

Mary Lou Williams
Lady Piano

This great jazz pianist and composer, who lived from 1910-1981 and spent her last years in Durham NC, was the only major jazz pianist who lived through and played the music of each new era. She began recording in 1927, and stayed in the forefront through the big band, swing, and modern transitions; she owned and administered her own record label too. (In fact, her musical accomplishments were among the original inspirations for the Ladyslipper catalog!) These rousing and energetic jazzy/bluesy piano compositions, half originals, were recorded with her trio in 1955, includes Sweet Sue, Army, and her own Mama, Pin a Rose On Me. Patricia Barber
Modern Cool

On this excellent 1998 release, Patricia sets provocative and poetic lyrics to the cool beat of her own unique jazz style. Tracks range from the political satire of Postmodern Blues, which lament the decline of the 20th Century's great ideological movements, to great reworks of Light My Fire and She's a Lady (female pronouns intact, making them seem pretty "out"). To deeply personal reflections on love and loss in Silent Partner. This is an intelligent album, with lyrics that will make you think and melodies that will make you stop and listen. She says, "People need music now. They need music that speaks to their souls, not just their heads, being impressed by music is not the same as being moved by it. People need music that grabs them where they didn't know they needed to be grabbed... They need art." We agree—and here you'll discover some great art by one of jazz's most daring vocalists. ### Audra McDonald Way Back to Paradise

Audra McDonald is relatively new to the Broadway stage, but has already established herself as a major talent, winning two Tony awards and being put in the ranks with singers such as Judy Garland and Maria Callas. On her powerful 1999 debut recording, she makes a bold move by recording not Broadway standards, but brand new music by contemporary composers who are writing just for her. With the range, technique, and quality of an opera singer, and the warmth, agility, and rhythm of a jazzblues master, she breathes life into the 14 songs on this album, including the title track on which Dawn Upshaw guests. Especially interesting are several Langston Hughes poems (including Dream Variations and Song For a Dark Girl), set actually to music. Chanteuse, cabaret star, and caennaise, this artist (1906-1975) was born in St. Louis and became famous in Paris while still in her teens. She later was known for her efforts to break down the "color line" by refusing to perform before segregated audiences. Dubbed by the French writer Colette "the Most Beautiful of Panthers," she captivated audiences everywhere with fiery performances that were both humorous and seductive. ### Marlene Dietrich Lili Marlene

This legendary artist, two parts ice-queen and one part vamp, was the arch-duchess of cabaret, and her voice — shown off in this classic collection of Marlene at her best — was an instrument she used to tease, seduce and mock. This 18-track 1997 re-release was originally recorded between 1931 and 1939, includes title track, Lois, Mein Blondes Baby, with 3 of the tracks sung in French. (ARK75104) CD: 15.98

Marlene Dietrich The Cosmopolitan Marlene Dietrich

The first time I heard the jaded, heavily-accented, singing of Ms. Dietrich, I really did not understand her appeal. I'm all grown up now and, sounds she just moves me! This compilation of 18 well-mastered recordings from the early 1950's, with an equal breakdown of German and English lyrical renderings, oozes with her powerful sexuality. I swear that she turns The Surrey With the Fringe on Top, sung in her native tongue (historically extremely anti-sexy German) into sheer seduction. Also includes the song that first made the world sit up and take notice, Falling in Love Again from the film Blue Angel, plus two versions of Lili Marlene, an international smash on both sides of the WWII battle line. In celebration of George Gershwin's 100th birthday, this 1996 release features an eclectic line-up of legendary stars and cutting-edge players from the current music scene — Natalie Merchant, Sinead O'Connor, Luciano Jackson, Finley Quaye and others — interpreting timeless Gershwin songs in updated styles as varied as hip-hop, hip-hop, R&B, Brit pop and jazz, making the material accessible to new audiences, and once again raising money to fight AIDS. (ANS557788) CD: 15.98

Sarah Brightman Eden

This anxiously-awaited 1999 release blends the artist's inimitable interpretations of classical material such as Nessun Dorma and Nella Fantasia with haunting ballads (The Last Words You Said and Only An Angel Away) and more pop-leaning material (Little Rock and Deliver Me). As she moves a host of influences, instruments and languages — deftly shifting from opera to film music to pop, from Italian to English to Spanish — the common element is always her gorgeous voice. Welcome to paradise! (ANG56789) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah Brightman Time To Say Goodbye

This international star of the musical stage, who was married to Andrew Lloyd Weber and inspired his Phantom of the Opera, presents a stylistically diverse 1997 album, with dramatic renditions of songs from Queen and the Gipsy Kings to Mozart and Puccini. The centerpiece is the hypnotic, bel canto title track, performed with Italy's superstar tenor, Andrea Bocelli. Accompanied by the London Symphony Orchestra, she deftly combines elements of pop, musical theater and the classical genre in a manner that underscores her reputation as one of the world's leading divas. (ANG56511) CD: 15.98

Sarah Brightman The Andrew Lloyd Weber Collection

One of the most exciting collaborations in musical theatre is that of composer/impresario Andrew Lloyd Weber and singer/actress Sarah Brightman. In this comprehensive collection, Brightman brings her own interpretations to songs that have become classics, delivering showstoppers from Cats, Phantom of the Opera, Evita, and more. Also included is a breathtaking performance of the Five Jesu from Weber's Requiem, where the true range and beauty of Brightman's voice really becomes clear. Lending voice to this 1997 retrospective are Michael Crawford, Jose Carreras, and Sir John Gielgud. (DEC539336) CD: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Ute Lempert All That Jazz: Best of Ute Lempert

Ute has excelled as a singer, a model, and an actress, and on this 1996 compilation we are treated to her best-loved vocal performances. From the woman who was so diva as to once stroll down the runway at a fashion show while 9 months pregnant, we get a glimpse of her work from musicals and movies, as well as classics from Marlene Dietrich and Edith Piaf, plus the lesbian and gay anthems, When That Special Girlfriend and The Lavender Song. The smooth sensuousness of her voice keeps the listener's every last bit of attention whether she's raising the roof or slowly crooning in your ear — a must for jazz or cabaret fans! (LON460534) CD: 16.98

Ute Lempert Berlin Cabaret Songs

As we learned from Cabaret, the Weimar Germany Republic (1918-1933) had a thriving arts culture and strong lesbian and gay communities before the Nazis' reign of fascism and genocide took hold. On this 1997 release, German chanteuse Ute Lempert (think Dietrich meets Broadway) performs, with English lyrics, some of the witty, urbane, cynical, cosmopolitan, amused-about-sex-and-gender-roles songs from that time. The gay rights anthem The Lavender Song, When That Special Girlfriend (which was first sung by Margo Lion and Marlene Dietrich in 1928 and became the unofficial anthem of the German lesbian movement), the gender-poking of Masculinum-Femininum, the lively Chuck Out The Men, and many others are sung with great verve and humour. A fascinating and very entertaining release. I will be looking out for more by this very talented vocalist. Highly recommended! (LON452349) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Divas Exotica

This 1998 compilation contains a simply fabulous roster of artists (all considered gay icons, interestingly, in addition to being revered by many other music lovers across all genres). It contains tracks by Nina Simone, Billie Holiday, Yma Sumac, Marlene Dietrich, Edith Piaf, Maya Angelou, Eartha Kitt, Marilyn Monroe, Josephine Baker, Carmen Miranda, Jayne Mansfield, Astrud Gilberto (a.k.a. the "Girl from Ipanema"), and many more — even Sophia Loren, whose contribution here, Zoo Be Zoo Be Zoo, is concurrently being released as a dance remix single, just as her new cookbook hits the streets! Gaudy sparkly gold on the packaging sets the stage for these timeless performances. (CAP98420) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Sirens of Song/Classic Torch Singers

Ahhh, yessssss. Even if you don't smoke and you keep all the lights turned up high, it would be impossible not to enjoy the sounds of Julie London, Sarah Vaughan, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Judy Garland, Lena Horne, Marlene Dietrich, Eartha Kitt, Edith Piaf, Etta James, Nina Simone, Dinah Washington, Carmen McRae, LaVern Baker, and Ruth Brown. With such a stellar collection of some of the all-time great women of pop, jazz and R&B, what are you waiting for? (RH72514) CD: 12.98

Better Than Chocolate

All Over Me

Fabulous music from the film by Ani DiFranco, The Mummies, Michelle Malone, The Patti Smith Group, Sleater-Kinney, Babes in Toyland, more! (TVT8110) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Beautiful Thing

The slightly bitter, slightly sweet '96 film about the love between two working-class British boys was filled with the sound of Cass Elliot's wonderful contralto. Features both her work with The Mamas and Papas and her solo endeavors which were cut short by her untimely death. (MCA11552) CD: 15.98

Better Than Chocolate

The movie tells the story of Maggie who meets the woman of her dreams the day before her mother and brother move in with her. Our Canadian customers have been requesting the soundtrack even before its release. Along with Ani DiFranco's lascivious 32 Flavors and Farron's stand-out Stand Up, the CD offers the sweet guitar pop of Melanie Dekker, 2 great dance tunes by West End Girls and 2 lyrical love songs, one by Tami Greer and one by Feisty, as well as 5 other good songs by talented newcomers. (WIL33666) CD: 16.98

Billy's Hollywood Screen Kiss

This 1998 gay date movie has similar cross-over appeal to that of Priscilla: Queen of the Desert. Music tracks include some drag queen favorites: there's a new remix of Petula Clark's Happy Heart by house legend Junior Vasquez; another Petula Clark tune, This Is My Song; and Nina Simone's Love Me Or Leave Me. (WIL33654) CD: 16.98

Claire of the Moon - O.S.T.

This original soundtrack from the film includes an original song composed and performed by Teresa Trail, Could It Hurt, plus piano themes, by a variety of artists and performers. (DEM1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Fairy Tales

The soundtrack to this utterly charming show by Chicago composer/lyricist/director Eric Lana Barnes is both witty and sweet. The 1995 recording features 14 songs concerned with a wide variety of gay and lesbian issues. Stonewall Serenade sounds like a choral society favorite; The Gay Guys laments a straight woman's track record of falling in love with gay men; You're The Bottom is, contrary to what you might think, a hilarious mirror image of Cole Porter's classic. The latter copes with being dumped for criticizing your ex's poor grammar; The Ballad of Tammy Brown is a heart-wrenching tale of betraying a childhood friend. No need to settle for mediocrity because of the queer subject matter! These are gems of show tunes — recommended! Save me a seat, okay? (FFL1) CD: 14.98

Incredibly True Adventures/ 2 Girls in Love

This incredibly true soundtrack is back in stock and at an incredibly low price! Maria Maggenti's 1995 film features music by BETTY (A Typical Love), Lois Scrawl, and Mozart. Most of the instrumental music, however, was written by composer and multi-instrumentalist Terry Darrin, founding member of the Celtic instrumental group "Jane's Arre," which performed at such venues as the Michigan and East Coast Lesbian festivals; here these selections are performed by a quartet (3 women, 1 man) in which Terry plays soprano saxophone. A classic for every collection! (MIL35724) CD: 9.98

Indigo Girls and Others

Jesus Christ Super-Star (Double) 01755
Subtitled A Resurrection, this 1994 reinterpretation of the famous rock opera features Indigo Girls Amy Ray and Emily Saliers as Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene respectively! Over 95 minutes of music on 2 CDs or double-length cassette, 25 tracks, proceeds will go to benefit victims of violent crimes and for gun control. Ambitious and wide ranging in both sound and scope. (DAE19006) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lilies

The film was a hit on the independent gay film scene, here is the 1995 soundtrack full of eerie original Catholic chants. Composer Michael Danna draws from the musical traditions of the Church from the Dark and Middle Ages, to create original music that reflects the themes of both the church and the film — beautiful boys and beautiful chants! Performed by the English-based Hilliard Ensemble, the music invokes the style of Gregorian chants performed a cappella as well as with cello and trumpet accompaniment. (VSS5568) CD: 16.98

Original Soundtracks

Priscilla: Queen of the Desert

The great disco-funk soundtrack to the '94 gay film hit which describes itself as "a comedy that will change the way you think, the way you feel, and most importantly... the way you dress!" — it's the story of two drag queens and a transsexual who take a trip into the Australian outback. Disco hits include Gloria Gaynor's I Will Survive, Alicia Bridges' I Love the Nightlife, the Village People's Go West, Peaches and Herb's Shake Your Groove Thing, and it even contains songs like Take a Letter Maria; 20 songs in all. (MTH516537) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Queer As Folk (2-CD Set)

A hard-hitting UK drama about three socially active young men and the loves and longings of their lives in Manchester's gay village certainly deserves an energetic soundtrack. The selections on this 1999 release cover all the romantic territory from Bianca's Crush to Ruff Diverz' Deeper Love to Hannah Jones' Was That All It Was. (ALM28) CD: 29.98

Rick Knight

The Rainbow Room 07515
This 1998 Musical About Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Fabulous explores being gay in the 90's, with a story about 2 men in a NYC gay piano bar, and a pregnant cocktail waitress who has just realized she may be a lesbian. Their changing lives provide a dramatic backdrop for whimsical, and, at times, emotional discussions about spirituality, growing up gay, the specter of AIDS, and the sometimes incompatible factions within the gay community. Lyrics, music, keyboards and lead vocals all by Rick. (RSR55902) CD: 16.98

The Secret of Roan Inish

On this 1995 soundtrack from the film by John Sayles, starring Jeni Courtney, Mason Daring's compositions set the mood for the plot turns of Rosalie K. Fry's novel. The Roan Inish Theme is graceful and enigmatic; Fiona is peppy; Fiona's Walk tells a story of melancholy. Scampering Away establishes a festive mood only to shift into quiet reflection. The sounds of fiddles, flutes, whistles, pipes, harp, bodhran, and mandolin combine in Daring's traditional Irish music. All vocalists on this album are women; Eileen Loughanna sings Seilke Song in Gaelic, and the female vocals in Return to Roan Inish are no less than sublime. (DRN3016) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Steam

Subtitled Hamam: The Turkish Bath, this evocative soundtrack to the film combines melodies of Sufi-dervish trance ceremonies and Turkish music from the 1900's with contemporary Middle Eastern influences and groove-oriented ambient trance music. Outstanding vocals by Rosie Waderkier enhance selections by the groups Transcendental and Agracanta from southern Italy (instruments like darbuka, crageb, kawaal), and the Romanian all-female ethnorock group Secret contributes their unique blend of vocals on Tavia. Many tracks here are highly recommended for belly-dancing! (WCL11306) CD: 16.98

Victor/Victoria

Twelve years after the fabulous film's release, the soundtrack shows up, so here it is! Who wouldn't think back nostalgically on songs like The Shady Dame From Seville and Gay Paree? Vocals by Julie Andrews, Robert Preston, and Lesley Ann Warren; music by Henry Mancini; lyrics by Leslie Bricusse. (GNP8038) CD: 16.98

When Night Is Falling

Now you can hear the music from the lesbian film by Pamela Rozema. This 1997 album, sparse and rich, invokes a dream-like state, sensually and sexually beautiful — it exists as a work in itself apart from the movie. Lesley Barber composed, arranged and conducted the music, and she played accordion, Hammond B3 organ and percussion on the CD. Wow! When night is falling, pop in this soundtrack and wake up dreaming. (NAP204) CD: 16.98

Wolves

Gamming raves as one of the best independent film scores of the last 4 years, the 1998 moving orchestral piece, composed by Debbie Wiseman, is the perfect complement to the tale of one of the world's most famous dandies, Oscar Wilde. (SMB8013) CD: 16.98

Wolves

Wolves is a fabulous IMAX giant-screen film, and the soundtrack likewise conveys the beauty of the species, with "tracks" by Native American artists Vaseela (Rita Coolidge), Priscilla Coolidge and Laura Satterfield, Joanne Shenandoah, Mary Youngblood, Robbie Robertson, and Sacred Spirit, as well as Paul Winter (with wolves), Bruce Cockburn and others. Proceeds benefit the National Wildlife Federation. (SWR920) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Xena: Warrior Princess

The soundtrack to the popular New Zealand television series starring Lucy Lawless as the leather-clad big-woman-with-a-big-word Amazon fighter is a mixture of traditional orchestration by Joseph LoDuca and Middle Eastern Bulgarian choruses. Includes Burial, a haunting original composition written and sung by Lucy. It's dramatic! (VSS750) CD: 16.98

Xena: Warrior Princess Vol. 2

With Lucy Lawless appearing recently in the Broadway show Grease, even more Xena fanatics have been born, and now there's even more music! This CD continues Xena music producer Joseph LoDuca's innovative mix of haunting orchestration with traditional Bulgarian and Middle Eastern instruments and chants. Heim, music to White Bardic Spirits! Music For Thrashing Evil Warlords? (VSS5883) CD: 16.98

Xena: The Bitter Suite

This 1998 soundtrack to the Xena Broadway-style musical episode features Lucy Lawless singing! Includes all of the excellent songs from the episode, a lavishly-produced, multi-layered expression of the power of love over hatred and sorrow, done in the grandest Broadway tradition. Woven fancifully with imagery from the Tarot, there's also a scattering of styles from Bonham to the Wizard of Oz, layered liberally with the neo-lesbian undertones Xena fans call "subtext." Even if you can't swing a two-headed broadsword or wallop ruffians with an Amazon quarterstaff, now you can at least sing along! Powerful stuff! (VSS918) CD: 16.98

Xena: Warrior Princess Vol. 4

It's incredibly hot out, you're stuck on the freeway in bumper-to-bumper traffic behind some guy in the fast lane and his left blinker has been on for the last 15 minutes. Cool folk jazz music just isn't going to do it. We feel your pain and we can help. When you need to feel powerful, who better than Xena? This 4th installment provides us with another innovative mixture of Middle Eastern and Bulgarian chorus music and traditional orchestra scores that will transport you right out of today to a time when Amazons ruled. (VSS8031) CD: 16.98

Acappella

Copper Wimin American Tyranny

"Copper Wimin are magic!" says June Millington, producer of this excellent debut recording. It's true — the 3 members sing one minute as if they are one voice, and the next as if they are fifty. Your attention is demanded from the first note, as they deliver smart, strong, straightforward lyrics that deal with racism, sexism, classism and homophobia. More personal songs are mixed in with the political, sung with the same intensity and beautiful harmony that is consistent throughout this unique and impressive album. Highly recommended! (COP1) CD: 16.98

DykeAppella At the Gates of Heaven

This 1997 live in-concert recording from a Madison WI women's quintet is chock-full of great songs! Many focus affectionate humor on the vicissitudes of Lesbian existence. Lesbian Picnic, Femme at Heart, Teenaged Lesbian, classics like Maxine Feldman's Amazon and Cassie Culver's I'm Late Again. Judy Grahn's Plainsong — a funeral plainsong from a younger woman to an older woman. Your Women's Bookstore recounts several reasons to hang out there, while Hollywood Haircut gives serious tribute to the butch/femme lesbians who paved the way for lesbian/feminist liberation. (HPR002) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Flirtations

Three 04605
They are now a trio, and a mixed one at that — the acclaimed women's jazz vocalist Suede has become the first female member of the famed acappella group, joining veteran Jimmy Rutland and group founder Jon Afferton for this 1998 release. Highlights include the Suede favorite Sister, plus Time After Time, Think, Mister Sandman, Something To Talk About, and We Shall Be Free. (FLR3) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Flirtations

Live: Out On the Road 00095
Our favorite boy acappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural acappella singing group) offers this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Includes So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun, Cughta Be A Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon, Michael Callen's Living in Warzone, and fun faggot favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. A terrific mix of pleasure and politics; highly recommended! (FLR1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wetflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Fort. Sweet Honey's Breath, and an incredible cover of Chris Williamson's Shooting Star. A wonderfully varied album, very highly recommended! 1990 (SIG902) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.98

Inkululeko

0741

The name comes from the South African Xhosa language and means "freedom, redemption, and emancipation". And the group is an inspiring 5-woman acappella world music ensemble from Austin, TX that performs choral pieces from South Africa, West Africa, and Haiti, in addition to Eastern Europe and original improvisations. Their compositions are organically arranged with both tightly and freely voiced harmonies. On this 1998 recording they have selected songs that represent a progression of life's themes, ranging from welcoming songs to songs that praise the Creator and the Great Mother. Yemaye (PINK1) CD: 14.98

Kinsey Sicks

Boyz 2 Girlz

NEW!

Our favorite dragappella beautyshop quartet releases their second release in 1999. 15 tracks of biting parodies and original songs, ranging from motown to madrigals. Over an hour long, and it sounds so sublime! (TKS2) CD: 14.98

Dragappella!

Grand harmonies, wicked parodies, and scary drag captures the essence of America's favorite dragappella quartet! Full-throated, tight 4-part harmonies turn Bobby McFerrin's Don't Worry, Be Happy into Worry, convert the Jackson Five song A&C into a witty acronym-filled AZT, and send off self-absorbed 90's queer boys in a revealing version of Holly Near's anthem Gentle Loving People. Also features Buster Baby Blues, the Macarena-drenched Macaroni, and Men Are Pigs (But Why Keep Kosher?). Passersby will stop to listen in and laugh when you play this one! (TKS129) CD: 14.98

Kitka

Nectar

0745

This 1999 collection of 15 haunting and emotive songs from Bulgaria, Georgia, Hungary, Macedonia, Russia, and Ukraine, is performed mostly acappella by the ensemble's 8 vocalists (with some accompaniment on tambura/Bulgarian lute, folk harp and hand percussion). With their mastery of the demanding techniques of Balkan and Slavic vocal stylings, they bring Eastern European women's vocal traditions to a US audience and beyond. These songs were gathered from a variety of sources, including including ethnographic field recordings collected by Kitka in Eastern Europe, and reflect women's experiences as expressed through centuries-old traditions of women singing through life's passages: love, loss, work, play and resistance. (DPH098) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Voices on the Eastern Wind

0430

Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal music of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment — and recognize their expertise! — this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge! — they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, exotic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength". This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice... invigorating and beautiful. (DPH092) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Malaika

Live

"Malaika" means both "angel" in Swahili and also a 4-woman, multi-racial acappella group from Ontario, Canada. On this 1996 release, they blend traditional, contemporary, and original songs in English, French, Swahili, Japanese, and Xhosa in a variety of styles and rhythms. Their originals include When A Woman ("... makes up her mind, to leave the shadows of fearfulness behind, celebrate the life she makes, what do we see? A woman who's free") and Stand Up ("We can all feel proud when we speak out of that place that connects you to me beyond gender and race"). Other highlights are the South African Moonbeams and the beatnik-y Rickie Lee Jones Woody And Dutch. (MAL901) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Men Out Loud

Sweet Enuf 2 Eat (Full-Length)

The styles of this openly gay acappella-based vocal quartet encompass pop, doo-wop, Gregorian chant, gospel, musical theater, R&B, and classical, with their smooth, close-harmony vocals always the centerpiece. This debut 1997 album opens with their first single by the same name, and includes More Than A Woman, Moonbeams, Somewhere, Good Lovin', Rock-A-My Soul, and others. (PUR942380) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

We're thrilled to bring this spectacular 1993 album to your attention! Original songs and chants, some with great rhythms and fantastic percussion, some suitable for circles... especially Full Woman (an anthem for encouraging and celebrating full womanhood), and one to the African goddess Yemaya. Recorded with members of Bobby McFerrin's vocal group Voicestra, and expertly produced by Linda Herry. If you love circle chants, extended chants, choral chants, and some incredible jazz scat here and there... if you've been missing the contributions, heritage and presence of women of color in the materials you've been using for circles... and if you're taken with music that's unique, inspired, inspiring, and celebratory you'll love this! Very highly recommended! (OTB107) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Sound Circle

The debut 1998 release from this 21-woman acappella ensemble is a beautiful representation of their talent and purpose. Their repertoire, which includes music that speaks to the sounds, rhythms and experiences of their own lives, emphasizes music by women; they include works here by Sandra Washington, Ysaya Marie Barnwell of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Anne Lister, Rachel Bagby, Cris Williamson and Holly Near. And no less stunning here is the William Butler Yeats' Bill Douglas composition Golden Apples of the Sun. It was recorded in-studio rather than live which gives it a qualitative edge over many choral releases. Members of GALA and Sister Singers, the ensemble's work is spiritual, progressive, grounded, and of course harmonious, very highly recommended - to all Libera fans and more! (SOU1598) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

SoVoSo

Truth & Other Stories

Think "I" words for this 1998 release: imaginative, innovative, improvisational, intricate, and inspired. Rhiannon's strikingly personal funk tune In My Prime, one of the only songs about menopause we have ever heard, is reason enough to own this disc! Also includes the harmonically lush Gift of Music, a rousing gospel-like tribute to Martin Luther King Jr. entitled Thank You For the Dream, the Afro-Cuban jazz classic Aho Blue, and For the Forest, an amazing improvisational tribute to California's Headwaters Forest. (PAC2710) CD: 15.98

SoVoSo (featuring Rhiannon)

World Jazz A Cappella

SoVoSo is a 5-person multi-ethnic acappella ensemble that sings a unique rhythmic mix of jazz, gospel, world and R&B music. Originally known as Voicestra, the group was founded in 1995 by Bobby McFerrin, performing with him and under his direction through 1993. They are now made up of 3 women (including Rhiannon and possible-Jerry's kid Sunshine Garcia) and 2 men. On this 1997 album, their first post-McFerrin release, they perform their imaginative arrangements of Sly Stone's Thank You, Curtis, Mayfield's People Get Ready, the traditional Down By The Riverside, and the Divorce co-composed by McFerrin as a dance score for Brenda Way's Western Woman. The album closes with the Betsy Rosal/Rhiannon/Patty Weinstein composition Say A Prayer, with a solo by Rhiannon! (PAC2700) CD: 15.98

Three Sheets To The Wind

Grace Under Pressure

0584

This Canadian acappella trio first came to our attention when ensemble member Rebecca Campbell sang with Jane Siberry on the night stage at Michigan. She still tours with Jane's band, but, in her own words, "There comes a time when you just want to get together to sing with the girls!" Founded in 1991, the trio is made up of Rebecca, Mary Burns and Beverly Wolfe. Their eclectic repertoire draws on traditional Bulgarian, Finnish and Celtic songs (The Flowers of Maghera) to country (Things in Life), to jazz standards with a twist: to contemporary Canadian folk songs (e.g. Ferron's The Car and Gordon Lightfoot's The Way I Feel), and Rebecca's original compositions such as Magdalene and White Pellets. I like their renditions of Silver Threads and Golden Needles, the chantly The Female Rambling Sailor and Awake Ye Drowsy Sleeper. The title track, another Rebecca original, inspired the "Grace Under Pressure" Award, presented each year to an extraordinary Canadian athlete by the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Women in Sport. Highly recommended! (CNL264) CS: 10.98 CD: 10.98

Undertones

Six Women, No Strings

0522

This all-woman acappella sextet has been performing together since 1991, we had the good fortune to hear them at the '96 GALA (Gay and Lesbian Association of Chorus) Festival where they were a BIG hit. On this 1996 recording, they cover the gamut of acappella styles: classic doo-wop with In the Still of the Night, the Flirtations' arrangements of Something Inside So Strong and Cris Williamson's Shooting Star, a madcap interpretation of Dorothy Parker's sardonic poem, Coda; Leadbelly/Bernice Johnson Reagon's Slave; a Manhattan Transfer version of Fred Small's feminist Fifty-Nine Cents; even a radical reworking of Disney's Kiss The Girl (from The Little Mermaid — I certainly prefer this version!). Solid, tight, political, fun... what more do you need? (UT96) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Choral

Over Here the Water Is Sweet

Dedication to the pursuit of choral excellence within an atmosphere that celebrates all forms of women's devotion to woman is how Amasong's founding director defines the mission of this 50-woman Lesbian Feminist chorus from Illinois. Sung in 11 different languages, the songs on this collection focus on the traditions, life experiences, and history of women — ranging from ancient to contemporary, from the spiritual to the political, but always powerful. Soon I Will Be Done, a tribute to Sojourner Truth, Harriet Tubman, and Audre Lorde, stirs the listener with its rhythms and rich layering of voices. The haunting Strange Fruit, first performed by Billie Holiday, is presented acappella. Todor Todor features two solitary women moving towards each other, sung in the undulating Balkan style (where one's voice must be heard from mountain to mountain). The listener is bound to be moved by this collection, which holds beauty as the ultimate criterion. (AMAS706) CD: 15.98

Atlanta Feminist Women's Chorus

Many Strong/Beautiful Women Singing

This chorus is one of the oldest and largest non-auditioned feminist choruses in the US, but you wouldn't guess the non-auditioned part from their 1996 release. From the very first strains of the opening track, Carly Simon's Let the River Run (originally arranged for MUSE, Cincinnati Women's Chorus), "inspired" is the word to describe how you'll feel when listening. The repertoire is as wonderful as the album title. Ann Reed's Heroes, Theresa Edell's Emma, Ruth Huber's Big Dogs, Music, and Wild Women, Ysaya Barnwell's Soundbites from Beijing, Karen Beth's Womanspirit Rising. It's comforting to know that long-established feminist institutions, such as this chorus, are still strong and vibrant, and continuing to make the world a better place for us all. # Olympia's Daughters Deep Peace

This inspiring women's a cappella vocal ensemble began as a 9-member group in 1989, primarily singing rounds as a guest choir for the First Unitarian Society, and has evolved into a 27-member performance and touring ensemble that presents complex, moving and entertaining music. Their name honors Olympia Brown, mother, businesswoman and suffragist who in 1893 became the first ordained female Universalist minister. Their goal is to carry on her commitment to social causes and women's empowerment through the spiritual message of their music by challenging attitudes, fostering healing, and building bridges between communities. To that end, this 1997 release includes excellent material by Carolyn McDade, Carole Ezzet Ezzet, Ysaie Barnwell, Fred Small, Thomas Dersay, their director Penny Green, and Hildegard von Bingen. spiritual, feminist, conscious and recommended! Subtitled 10 Years of Heart and Humor, their 1997 release celebrates their special dedication to wonderful songs that "move the darkness, beat the lightness of spirit that eases the burden on arduous and long journeys." Includes Judy Collins' Song for Judith, Violetta Panna's Gracias a ti Vida, the beautiful traditional How Can I Keep From Singing, an original composed by 3 chorus members which is dedicated to all individuals and couples struggling with illness, one by Francesca Casotti, even a song they learned from a lesbian chorus in Sweden (did you know there was one?) — all great selections! # San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus How Fair This Place

Born in 1978 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to sing nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity, inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing and love — a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular (Love Medley, including Unchained Melody), theatrical (selections from Alles Sagen, Chess and Jekyll & Hyde), and sacred pieces (Irish Blessing, Gabriel's Oboe, On Earth As It Is in Heaven). English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SFG99-01) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Seattle Men's Chorus We Are Family

This time out for '98 the fellas are paying tribute to the fabulous 70's, with a series of medleys that mix the harmonies of everything from disco, such as I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing, to the disco energy of Play that Funky Music, to the romantic heartache of King Me Softly. # Turtle Creek/ Women's Chorus of Dallas Requiem/ 5 Anthems (by John Rutter)

This 1994 album is a stunning combined performance by the 100-voice Women's Chorus of Dallas and the 200-voice Turtle Creek Chorus, with Timothy Seelig conducting. They perform a rich and emotionally moving program by John Rutter, one of today's most-performed composers of choral music. His Requiem was influenced by the intimate, contemplative style of Fauré, and his shorter pieces — A Gnostic Blessing, All Things Bright and Beautiful, and more — share this lyrical quality. The 300 voices of the combined choruses have performed in Carnegie Hall, at Texas Governor Ann Richards' Inauguration, and in a command performance for Queen Elizabeth II. With accompaniment on harp, cello, pipe organ, several winds and tympani, this is one of the best choral albums we've heard. Highly recommended! (REF57) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Windy City Gay Chorus Legacy: 20 Years of Song

This glorious 90-voice women's chorus, under the able direction of Dr. Timothy Seelig (who also directs the Turtle Creek Chorus), releases its first album in 1994 to celebrate its fifth season. Selections range in style from Mozart's Alceste, to a haunting composition by Pablo Casals, to a medley from Les Miserables, to a Woman's Medley, with accompaniment on piano, oboe, English horn, flute and harp. Some proceeds benefit the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, so it's a great cause too. One of the best women's chorus recordings we've heard, especially for the more classically leaning pieces, very tight and professional, great arrangements by their principal accompanist Anne Abritton, highly recommended! You'll hear some of the best arrangements by the chorus' principal accompanist, Anne Abritton, who has been resident composer/arranger since the chorus' inception. This lovely 1997 album will make your heart sing; wholeheartedly recommended! (WCD3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Grace Jones Private Life: Compass Pt. Sessions

This 1998 2-disk collection, which spans the length of Grace Jones' musical career, is a true test of the ultra-avant-garde that could only be found in the early 80's clubs. Once was evolving into something darker, sharper and more sophisticated, and more than anyone else, Grace Jones embodied the breathtaking weirdness of it all. Songs like Warm Leatherette and Pull Up to the Bumper stand the test of time well, and her voice can still rattle and soothe you all in one song. With 36 tracks, including 2 previously unreleased songs and 4 previously unreleased versions of hits, this is a FANTASTIC collection that will automatically give you higher points. (And, liner notes mention that in a recent poll by Men's Health magazine, the male leadership named Grace, along with Hilary Duff and "my mother" as the women who scared them the most. How could you peak that up?) (SL524501) CD: 24.98

Joi Cardwell

This cut, African-American/Latina lesbian has been burning up the dance floors! Offering an intriguing combination of dance, R&B and jazz, it isn't surprising that she's been able to gain recognition in a traditionally male-dominated genre. Joi is much more than a dance vocalist, often displaying a more jazz-inspired style, her different vocal stylings shine through in the music, changing gears within and between songs to keep the dancer motivated (and not humbled by the beat). It is well worth checking out this 1997 sophomore release! (L754236) CD: 16.98

Martha Wash The Collection

If you like dance music you'll love this, and if you don't, usually if dance music you just may love this anyway! Transcending genres and trends, Martha has been responsible for some of the top-selling, most recognizable pop hits of the 80's and 90's — including the cult classic It's Raining Men, which is included here as a duet with RuPaul in its Raining Men. The Sequel: Songs here span the realms of dance, pop, R&B and gospel. Come blend African rhythms with the power of club music, God Bless the Road features a great gospel choir; the glorious anthem Catch the Light is presented here in 2 versions. Some Make You Sweat (Everybody Dance Now) sold 5.5 million copies worldwide. She's been instrumental in shaping pop music as we know it, and this 1998 release presents all of her multi-platinum hits together for the first time. (LOG44895) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

"Mehn's Music"

Ashley MacIsaac

Hi how are you today?

Gaelic grunge? Celtic alternative? Whatever you want to call it, this kilted queer boy from Nova Scotia plays one heck of a mean fiddle, layered energetically over a grunge-rock backing band. Innovative, passionate, and very catchy, he brings a breath of fresh "air" to several traditional fiddle tunes. Check out the amazing Sleepy Maggie, one of 2 tracks with vocals by Mary Jane Lamond, the other being Said Wedding Day, a highly modern reworking of the classic Barbara Allen. Recommended! ### Splendid Wings

Sounding like a blend of the lesbian singer/songwriter Phranc and Simon and Garfunkel (well, I guess he couldn't sound like both Simon and Garfunkel, but you get the idea...), this New Yorker has lovingly molded a very fine album of stories told from an aware gay male perspective. Accompanying himself on piano and guitar (and, of course, with a little help from friends), his young, friendly voice sings a simple and lovely harmonized duet with Crispy Wade (Do You Need Me?), a gay pride anthem (Every Kiss is a Revolution), the lovely title song about transforming AIDS grief, and a "gay roommate" poem about a lesbian couple's story (Calvin and Glenn). Evocative details delivered straightforwardly yet warmly make this a very satisfying treat! (CHU1) CD: 11.98

When Love Is Right

New low price! This 1995 release blends Cajun and bluegrass with reggae rhythms, and it comes out country! 6 of the 15 original songs are written and performed by women, reflecting the evolving influence of women in the band. The material is both compelling and fun, addressing the gay community while enlightening the mainstream listener. The poignant Living a Lie tells the story of a lesbian being barred from her small town, and political stances are examined in Proud To Be an American. (DGS102) CS: 6.98 CD: 10.98

Crimes Against Nature

Labeled "a Masterstroke" by the LA Times, this album has garnered raves of glowing reviews. Like an eclectic radio station that plays a slow blues song after a reggae tune and then throws in a punk cover, the recording is full of surprises and unexpected moments—this work. Includes some unusual versions of classic pop, blues, and standards, with 2 originals that fit right in. And the price is right! (FR001) CD: 6.98

Mark Weigle

The Truth Is

It's good to know that the rich tradition of positive gay male singer songwriters is still going strong. On his 1998 release, Mark moves from country-tinged romantic tunes such as Two Cowboy Wails to folk-flavored pop on When I See You Say, about a death-defying relationship... and even includes a duet with Boudicca, one of the earliest creators of mehn's music. At the heart of his work are stories of the young artist's life as a gay man, while still shining a light on the commonalities of romantic relationships. Whether musing on love or rocking with the electricity of a bar band gig, this artist delivers the goods! (MKW3066) CD: 15.98

Legacy (Double Set)

This 1996 release is a long-awaited deluxe double volume of works by the beloved singer/songwriter/activist who died of AIDS after surviving the disease for over a decade. ### Purple Heart

This 1988 debut recording from this great activist-musician is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic" without getting caught up in the polemic), from How To Have Sex. Songs include When the Boys Are Me & Dicks D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Wartime, performed with band-partner, ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. ### Supermodel of the World

Everybody say love! If the film Paris is Burning had been made a few years later, Supermodel (You Better Work) could have been its theme song. This drag queen has cashed into MTV superstardom with his glamorous attitude coupled with a driving dance-club beat. Includes Back To My Roots, a tribute to his mother's hair dressing salon and racial pride. What other top 40 phenomenon sings about love at first sight between two men? RuPaul takes up where the late great Sylvester left off. This classic "out-out" is subversive, admirably campable, and cheap! (TB1055) CS: 6.98 CD: 7.98

Steve Cohen

Silent Too Long

Heartbreak, longing, and bittersweet wisdom in a smoky voice leap out of this 1997 offering. Steve writes about lost love, high school true love ("try walking down the street with someone you love. But keep your hands in your pockets so you don't get beaten up"), and love of country (with singing commentary on the Don't Ask, Don't Tell policy in Silent Too Long), capturing melancholy with an understanding of hope. When not making music, the artist is busy doing cultural work: he founded the Philadelphia chapter of OutMusic, and organized the first week-long Philadelphia Lesbian and Gay Music Festival in 1997. ### God Shave The Queen!

If the title doesn't immediately pique your interest, perhaps the group cover photo of the multi-talented drag queens will. (I feel the amount of work that drag entails should qualify for a tax write-off). These gals sing, (oo!) Miss "Lady" Bury does the tras bawdy dripping with 70's-disco-soul. The Pussycat Song, Pussy Touriste offers a remix of Who Does She Think She Is? Vania Jean Merman (yes, that reference is correct) treats Grace Slick's White Rabbit to a Phantom of the Opera interpretation. Joey Arias' No One Knows could tragically become next to a Billie Holiday song. Other cuts would nicely fit into any act-in-MTV video. This strong collection of diverse (and fabulously dressed) tunes demonstrates that music needs no rigid gender roles. (SWN1) CD: 15.98

Elvira Kurt Kitten With a Wit

Despite the silly title, this 1999 release is a very funny CD—the self-described "fella girle" turns out to be a kitten with really sharp claws. She brilliantly revisits the playgrounds, costumes, and parents of yesteryear. Compacting the current ubiquity of safety features to our less-protected childhoods, she says: "Electrical outlets were a trial by error thing. On, look at your steaming, curly head." "We had 8-foot monkey bars on concrete." Elvira also finds comic gold in lesbian and gay issues. "Of course we have a homosexual agenda." 1. Don't get killed. 2. A decent brunch. "Relating how people knew she was gay before she did, she quotes her kindergarten report card, 'Nice child, but rarely stays on her own mat at nap time.' Whiskers up! (UPR3800) CD: 15.98

Georgia Ragsdale Always Forward, Never Straight

The hysterical 1997 debut album from this L.A.-via-Texas lesbian comedian will have you rolling on the floor with laughter! A keen observer of human behavior, she riffs on being a gay child, gay personal ads, dating Neil (Jodie Foster), women's prisons, the WABA, lesbian movies, Ellen's Coming Out and much more. (RS0380) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Rivers What Becomes a Semi-Legend Most?

One of the few comedy albums released by the often controversial and provocative comedian, this album earned Gold status. This 1997 re-release makes this collector's item available on CD for the first time in the US, now at a great price. Includes Men vs. Women, Going to the Gynecologist, Childbirth, and more. (GEF4007) CD: 8.98

Judy Tenuta Att'n: But Pirates & Lesbians

Subtitled Live at the C.S.W. Gay Pride Festival (NYC's Christopher Street West), The Supreme Love Goddess demands proper worship! On this 1994 release, the high priestess of Judyism romps through an energetic comedy performance full of 4-letter words, delivered with her somewhat less-than-subtle sassy style. No one is safe from her razor wit as she jabs at everyone from Cher to the men in the audience. Contains a just-too-cute parody of a bad club song for the boys. Judy gives her queer listeners a chance to relax and laugh at themselves and the world around them, not a bad line of work for a ditty! (GOD9402) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

Karen Ripley Born Butch

Karen has wowed the women's festival circuit for years, specializing in lesbian humor of a particularly raucous and irreverent nature, she uses her improv background to take her way into outright hilarity. Unafraid and uninhibited in the vein of Lea DeLaria, this San Francisco comic, writer, and drama director convulses audiences with her comments on sex, sex toys, aging, health care, rainbow keychains, and Ken dolls. Lampooning an HBO's slogan, she says, "Good people, good medicine, — good luck!" and she responds to the religious right with "Jesus Saves but I Recycle." Her 1999 tape is guaranteed to make you laugh out loud. (KRT) CS: 9.98

Karen Williams Human Beings: What A Concept

Known as "The Dive of Comedy," Karen is recognized as a comic craftsman, a multi-talented writer and actress, as well as a proven crowd pleaser. This is easy to understand, given Karen's views on humor: "The possession of good humor endows one's life with enthusiasm, energy, and enlightenment." People who find humor in their daily life trials and tribulations become good wit ambassadors. With topics covering the entire hilarious gamut of lesbian experiences (Ellen, Lesbian Sex Workshops, Little Dolphin Dicks, Our Ex's, White People/Black Lesbians Mom, and more) it's likely that you too can find something on this 1998 release that endows your life with enthusiasm, energy, and enlightenment. Recommended! (UPR3783) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (and doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politics to build laughter of fading fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme Park, rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and fleeing away at Mom Pinata in Familyland! (WHY104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton Comedy You Can Dance To

0788

Self-proclaimed feminist (feminist humorist) Kate Clinton returns with another classic live recording. Comprised of almost all new material, mixed in with little snippets of some of the old favorites, this 1998 release includes political material as fresh as the daily news, savvy send-ups of modern family relationships and illuminating perspectives on life as a lesbian American. Hysterically funny! (UPR3790) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton Don't Get Me Started (2-Tape Set)

On this 1998 abridged reading from her book, Kate gives us her hysterically funny take on modern living, politics, family issues, and trends. "Let's get one thing straight, I'm not. And yes my brother is Bill Clinton. But not the Bill Clinton." These two guys are very different. For one thing, whenever I hear President Bill speaking on gays in the military, health-care reform, I hear the sound trucks make when they're backing up. Now I've written a book. That's all I'm going to say because I don't want to spoil it for you. That's a job for Jesse Helms." 2 cassettes, 3 hours. (PML59) CS: 15.98

Kate Clinton Live at Great American Music Hall

In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (coveting her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, sanitizes personals in papers, sings her song for pantheism, and tells how she answered the question What Do YOU Do? at an SM workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material, get your TV sets tuned up! 1985, (WHY103) CS: 9.98

Kathleen Madigan

In 1988, Kathleen Madigan was working as a waitress... in 1998, she won "Best Female Stand-Up Comic" at the nationally televised American Comedy Awards. Judging from the hilarious and outrageous material on this 1998 debut album, she richly deserves her success. She makes fun of everything and everyone ranging from foods, earthquakes and body piercing to bawdy, bawdy-fringe, and boring politicians... ferreting out the absurdity lurking at everyday encounters and merrily skewering pretty much anyone who crosses her path. On a plane, on a bus, waiting tables, waiting for her parents to figure out how to use technology, Kathleen does not suffer fools gladly, but she uses her scintillating wit and her expressive voice to entertain us readily. Highly recommended. (UPR3786) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lea DeLaria Box Lunch

We've been looking forward to this May 1997 release from someone we've been known to refer to as our favorite "no holes barred" lesbian comic, recorded live at the famous Josie's Cabaret in San Francisco. The original bad girl of lesbian comedy delivers her unique style of stand-up, flavored with jazz and blues standards of Billie Holiday, George Gershwin, Duke Ellington and more. P.S. We hear Lea is writing a screenplay for Leslie Fainerberg's Stone Butch Blues, in which she plans to co-star. (RS0360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lea DeLaria

Buildyke in a China Shop (Double)

0069

The long-awaited debut recording by this bawdy, riotously funny comic legend (dubbed the "lesbian Lenny Bruce"), packed with non-stop laughs lampooning lesbian life... plus music! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Recorded live in Atlanta, highly recommended for all but the timid! (GSP69) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Koch You Make My Pants Pound

This 1994 compilation contains splendid selections from musical theatre shows on which this comic genius has worked. The hilarious title track, a story of "last-at-first-eight" at a fast food drive-through, and All My Shredpaddles are done by dysfunctional mother-daughter country western superstars. The Spudds, who were also featured on Didi Fallopia's My Breasts Are Out of Control. The Bouffants, a much loved, little known 60's girl group, campily offer Vanity and The Circle of No Return (which includes the requisite tragic teen car crash). On the more serious side are Three Times a Year, a heart-rending ballad from a straight man about his gay brother, and Violette, a beautiful song about one woman's "all-consuming infatuation" for another from the point of view of saloonistas from the 1920's. All these and more, so do not miss this sampler of musical treasures! CD includes 4 bonus tracks. (TNG2455) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marga Gomez Hung Like A Fly

Join the uproar over this 1997 comedy release! Marga creates hilarious visuals on audio as she covers topics ranging from Gay Pride marches, a woman pilot, the politics of pockmarks, National Coming Out Day and Candace Gingrich. She packs a punch filled with hearty laughter. You're unable to keep a straight face during this believably funny stand-up routine. It is a riot, so if you need some hearty laughter, here's your ticket! And be looking for Marga in the film Sphere, with Sharon Stone and Dustin Hoffman. Very recommended for funny bones! (UPR3776) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Margaret Cho Drunk With Power

Born and raised in San Francisco, Margaret derives a good deal of her material from her birthplace ("Some people are raised by wolves, I was raised by drag queens") and a good deal more from her upbringing as a second-generation Korean American. Her starring role in a variety of feature films, and in the now-defunct television show All American Girl, has not fazed her or her topics. She discusses weight, body image, drugs, sex, kidney stones, and racism all with amazing candor. She is so hysterically funny that I'm just starting to recover from hearing this 1996 album. Her impression of her mother arguing that she KNEW that Margaret was a lesbian is alone worth spending your rent money on! Not for the easily offended... so just don't be that way! (UPR3770) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maryellen Hooper Dignity Under Duress

NEW

Don't give up if initially you find Maryellen Hooper's rather shrill voice and the preponderance of make-up jokes grating. By the 5th track of this 99 release you'll be hooked and by the final sketch you'll be a fan. In between the girly-girl giggling and the preposterous gender-posturing, Maryellen scores with rap-like wit. Her one-liners ring and then reverberate as you realize their full import. Relating the impossible desires of her salon patrons, she responds, "It's a comb not a wand." On 2nd date, hiring, I met his family, 3rd date, the beach, and Shaving. Maryellen executes extended comic riffs that string you along until you collapse in gales of giggles yourself. (UPR3792) CD: 15.98

Michele Balan Neurotic By Nature

With her distinctive NY accent, dynamite delivery, and dead-on timing, this comic favorite at Dinet Shore and Michigan proves Freud's theory that neurosis leads to comedy. People who walked by my office while I was listening to this 1999 debut CD must have wondered why my shoulders kept shaking up and down. Whether she's making fun of cities, dating, body parts, social mores, camping, meditation tapes or sex, she causes helpless laughter. She mocks LA's anti-smoking laws, "God forbid the smog should be filled with smoke." Looking back at her childhood, she comments, "The only time we went to temple was to play Snop. I thought the Jewish language was BA, OVS." Even her inner notes are funny, highly recommended! (UPR3801) CD: 15.98

Monique Marvez Built for Comfort

NEW

Not for the faint of heart, this bawdy Latinx comedienne dishes out raucous, raunchy, forthright humor. Describing men ogling strippers, she says, "That's how I look in front of a decent case, but at least I get to eat mine." Most of her comedy revolves around the games of romance and sexuality, and she makes it clear that she's playing by her own rules and playing to win. She advises women to stop judging each other like at "Ovarian Star Search panel" because there's not a man in this room that can't be replaced by a winning Lotto ticket and a water pick. (UPR3797) CD: 15.98

Roseanne
I Enjoy Being a Girl

Staff comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Sticker says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on T.V." — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version) covers Sexual Preference, Women's Medley, Men's Medley, 28 Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Rodeo Queen, Arsona Hall, and more — something to offend everyone. If you miss her show as much as we do, console yourself with this recorded-live-in-1990 "cut-out" relic! (HR61000) CS: 6.98

Suzanne Westenhoefer

Nothing In My Closet But My Clothes 0766
How long has it been since you've laughed 'til your side hurts? Too long? Well, get ready and hold onto your sides! Suzanne talks about lesbians on television, bugs in Provincetown, gay Amish, Jesus as her brother-in-law, heckling the T30 club, moving in with her girlfriend and her pets, purse-bearers, and many more issues that concern the modern dyke-on-the-go! Love it! (UPR3772) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Therapy Sisters
Beyond Prescription

This wacky duo is ready to treat you! In fact, the Austin Lounge Lizards writes about this 1987 release on Clinical Records, "We laughed, we cried, we threw away our medication!" Among the 13 original songs you'll find a Western swing ballad about having Two Minds, a jazz number called Don't Touch Me When I'm Beautiful, and several songs based on outrageous news stories, such as Weenie (Wecker), Avon in the Amazon, and Don't Get Stuck in a Pool. No prescription needed! (CLN9704) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Whoopi Goldberg

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight? (Tape)

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Mu'fuckin' Banner, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the junkie with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religious wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here!"), AIDS, and everyone and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings of this 1988 "cut-out" title — very highly recommended! (MCA42243) CS: 5.98

Whoopi Goldberg

Original Broadway Show Recording

That's why back in print AND at a low price, this was the show that first brought the artist to national attention, and represents some of the most brilliant work of her career. Simultaneously hilarious and poignant, her characterizations successfully challenge and exceed the limits of comedy-as-social/political commentary. Her junkie with a degree in literature (Fontaine) recounts his tale of visiting Anne Frank's home in Germany, the unplanned pregnancy of the Sister Chick takes on a chilling significance as she confronts the Catholic Church, her mother and a coat hanger... the Crippled Lady challenges an able-bodied world's prejudice... and the Little Girl thinks she needs "long luxurious blonde hair and blue eyes" to get her dreams. Very highly recommended! (GEF24068) CS: 5.98 CD: 8.98

Spoken

This rare and precious cassette includes both conversations with and readings of her poems, stories and essays along with comments by Adrienne Rich, Alice Walker, Joseph Beam, Mary Helen Washington, Kate Rushin, and others, about how her work and her life has influenced them. Audre herself commented on this recording: "I think this is a very important piece. What I love about the profile is that it is Essential." (PRP1) CS: 11.98

Ursula K. Le Guin/ Lao Tzu

Tao Te Ching

Moved by a lifelong love for the great Chinese spiritual and philosophical classic written by Lao Tzu 2500 years ago, novelist/poet Ursula K. Le Guin has been working on her own rendition of the text for over 40 years. "I wanted to make a completely personal version, in the poetic vocabulary of the time, for my own contemporaries, to bring the Tao Te Ching back alive." As she reads during this live studio performance, Todd Barton improvises on Tibetan songs, frame drum, kalimba, bells, blows and bamboo flutes. (SLE033) CS: 10.98

Maya Angelou

Black Pearls/Poetry of Maya Angelou

This 1988 release, a reissue of a rescued out-of-print 1969 LP, features the amazing author reading 33 of her poems — most of which were first published in her 1971 book Just Give Me A Cool Drink Of Water 'Fore I Die — about her struggles in the South, growing up with relatives following her parents' divorce, includes the original notes by James Baldwin, plus new notes by poet/songwriter Elizabeth Pavone and writer Robin Marcus Vazquez. (RH72967) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Babyslipper Music

Really Rosie

Carole King wrote and sings the score from this at-time-kids' favorite musical starring Rosie, a wonderful role model for girls! Derived from the equally delightful book by Maurice Sendak, this title has been one of our best sellers — and is finally on CD! (COL34555) CS: 7.99 CD: 15.98

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer
Nobody Else Like Me

This 1998 release, subtitled Celebrating the Diversity of Children, is a necessity for every child you know. For not only does it celebrate different cultures, languages and physical abilities, it includes (with lyrics intact) a beautiful rendition of the Fred Small classic, Everything Possible. Incorporated into a child's consciousness, this song's message will help release them from gender roles, heterosexism and homophobia, by communicating the many possibilities for love in their lives, and in the lives of people they know and encounter. This song appears on many adult collections, but it is wonderful to find it sung for young ones — that's who it was written for. A great kids chorus joins them on 8 tracks; very highly recommended! (ROU9079) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cathy Winter & Betsy Rose
As Strong as Anyone Can Be

For children of all ages, especially those between 5 and 12, this lively collection of singalongs, "write-alongs," and old favorites reveals a new dimension in the artistry and outreach of these feminist musicians. Includes I Want to Grow Up to Be an Old Woman, Kid's Liberation Song, Truck Driving Woman, What Does Your Mama Do, The Old Woman Who Swallowed Swiss Cheese, Long Time Friends. Highly recommended, especially in this age of diminishing feminist materials for children! (GW1016) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Chenille Sisters
The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RHR49) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Elaine Silver (Faerie Elaine)
Faeries, Dreams & Other Friends

All little girls must of course believe in faeries and magic (big girls too), and here is the perfect recording to validate this reality! To those of us who do believe, Faerieland is right here on the planet Earth. The faeries are the nature spirits who inhabit the trees, flowers and rocks... the sparkles of light on the water... the lovers of life and the keepers of the flames of eternal knowledge... the consciousness that continues to create beauty in the world.

Faerie Elaine shares wonderful faerie songs like Faeries Are Gathering, Kumbando!, Green Blessings, Infinitely Faerie, Houseful of Faeries, singing to us this magical and very female vision of the forces of Good and Global Harmony with her lovely crystalline voice. Highly recommended for magic-lovers everywhere! (SSM006) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Heather Bishop
Bellybutton

Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC, Canada's national radio network, this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' albums around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaidor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lot, mus") and title song: "On my bellybutton I love you. You're the only friend I have! the one who really cares! cause every time I need you/you're always there... When things get down and looking kinda grim/I simply lift up my shirt and stork my finger in." Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. (MOP003) CS: 10.98

Jill Rogoff
The Celtic Cradle

On this lovely 1995 album of traditional Celtic lullabies, Jill sings ancient songs from Ireland, the Isle of Man, Wales, Scotland, Brittany, Cornwall, all in the original language (English lyrics are enclosed on the liner notes). She accompanies herself on lap harp and guitar (with a little help from friends on mandolin, fiddle, piano and uilleann pipes). Timeless music to soothe both young and old bonnie lassies and lads; recommended! (ALC2003) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Joemy Wilson
Dulcimer Lullabies

Featuring Joemy on hammered dulcimer with her usual ensemble of Celtic harp, guitar, violin and flute, this instrumental 1991 collection of lullaby favorites (Bach's Lullaby, All Through the Night, Hushabye) as well as some less familiar quiet-time gems from several countries is bound to be a favorite of adults as well as kids! It was the logical album for Joemy to record, since for years parents and teachers have been telling her that they play her soothing sounds to settle down their hyper young things! (DM111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Tillery, Taj Mahal et al
Shakin' a Tailfeather 0676

Children and adults alike will be swinging and grooving to this unique 1997 collection of classic danceable tunes, performed by Linda Tillery and the Cultural Heritage Choir. Taj Mahal, and Eric Bibb. Contemporary sounds such as Shrimps, Bread in hip-hop style join with classic rock 'n' roll like Rockin' Robin, plus Ask Grandma, Oh Mary Mack, Little Sally Walker, The Name Game, Follow the Drinking Gourd, Land of 1,000 Dances and more. Recommended (MLP72940) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maria Del Rey
Lullabies of Latin America

Studies show that lullabies are unique in that they are readily identifiable across cultures and languages, and are great teaching tools for bilingual education, with their simple pitch, repeated rhythms, and elongated vowel sounds. The 1995 debut solo release from this Cuban-born music producer contains 14 of the best-loved songs, lullabies, and poems of Latin America by poets like Gabriela Mistral, utilizing indigenous instruments and performed in both Spanish and English. — 26 tracks in all, the equivalent of 2 albums! Great for young children in bilingual households, as well as adults who are students of other language. Recommended (MLP75685) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maria Muldaur
Swingin' in the Rain 0704

When swing was queen, life was simpler and just a bit more carefree. So what better period from which to steal music for a children's recording? It works: the music is fun and catchy, the lyrics light and positive. It would be hard to imagine kids not singing along with classics like Zip A Dee Doo Dah and Jeepers a Creepers, especially when you combine them with the fresh new arrangements that Maria just seems to have a ton of fun with (her scat alone on Three Little Fishies is worth the cost of admission). The scary part is that my inner child kept singing the tunes to my adult brain all day and I only listened once. So take heed, this is definitely an over-and-over again recording for kids! (MLP75311) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mario Thomas & Friends
Free To Be... You And Me

With Carol Channing, Diana Ross, Alan Aida, & others. There may never have been any kids' album in history which so thoroughly charmed kids, adults & anyone else as this 1972 classic. That it can communicate anti-racist material in such a delightful, creative, appealing, exuberant way is remarkable. Includes numbers like Girls Land, William's Don't, Parents Are People, It's All Right to Cry, One Kid Said "Listening to this record is like listening to my heart laughing." Highly recommended! (ARJ1225) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Pamala Ballingham
Earth Mother Lullabies, Vol. 1

Selected by the ALA as a Notable Children's Recording for 1996, this is a lovely and even celestial collection of timeless lullabies from a myriad of traditions. Includes carefully-chosen representations from the Icelandic, Icelandic (the chant-like Ho Ho Watanay), Irish (Gaelic Mother's Lullaby), Jewish, Japanese, African, Australian, Russian, and Spanish cultures. It's unique in the fact that the instrumentation—harp, flute, mandolin, guitar and percussion—is sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy, without diminishing the effectiveness of its purpose: to put little ones to sleep! Booklet of words included. (EM1) CS: 9.98

Pamala Ballingham
Treasury of Earth Mother Lullabies

A collection, released in 1990, of 14 of the best selections (56 minutes) from Pamala's 3 volumes of Earth Mother Lullabies, from all over the world, proven effective for sleeplessness in both children and adults. (EM5) CD: 14.98

Priscilla Herdman
Star Dreamer-Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinaire. The first side contains wonderful, fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waiting bears and stuff. Side 2 consists of 8 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Springing from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen. Charming! (ALA1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Roches
Will You Be My Friend? 0178

The beautiful harmonies that characterize this sister trio bring to life some of the most emotional and humorous themes you can find on this 1994 children's album. The symbolic and serious message of the title track is followed by an ode to the dog every child seems to inevitably wish for in Rover, Do The Boondance leads off the album, winning the awards for both catchiest tune and most humorous, as it takes you through feine-inspired dance steps. Also includes When Kids Are Mean, Little Sissy Betty, My New Bicycle, and more, all original. — a great range of serious to silly, sure to capture a child's attention and imagination. And the vocal prowess of the sisters will surely do the same for the adults as well. Some are "cut-outs" — Highly recommended! (B83004) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

I Got Shoes - The Book and Tape

Written by Tonya Bolden (whose work appears regularly in Young Brothers & Sisters magazine) and Bernice Johnson Reason, the interactive 20-page booklet that accompanies the cassette contains a wealth of information, activities, and valuable suggestions for further listening and reading in African American history and culture. We highly recommend that you spring for the extra cents for this colorful, informative, wonderful addition! 1994 (MLP42552) CS: 11.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock
All For Freedom

This is technically a children's album, but will inspire and be enjoyed by adults and children alike. Drawing on their rich heritage of African musical traditions, Sweet Honey has put together this dynamic and empowering collection of African songs, African stories, and gospel songs, including Garyppo Freedom, Kumbaya, Jubba, The Little Shekels, and title. (MLP2230) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tina Maria
Lullaby Favorites

Great for a baby budget, note the low price! We first heard this talented teenager on the Circle of Women album, having the opportunity to hear her solo here, we are captivated by her gorgeous, evocative voice, like a feather or a bird in the forest! For this 1997 album, she has indeed selected most everyone's all-time favorite lullabies: All Through the Night, Summertime, All the Pretty Little Horses, Over the Rainbow, plus Jewish Lullaby, Gaelic Lullaby, and the multi-voiced acappella Dark Brown is the River. Background vocals by Nymiah, recommended! (MLP72746) CS: 5.98 CD: 7.98

Tish Hinojosa
Cada Nino/Every Child

This charming 1995 album features gently rollicking sing-along tunes with a Tex-Mex flavor. (Accordion is so hard to find on kids' songs!). All of the songs are sung in both English and Spanish with the lyrics (along with accompanying song descriptions and trapeze art) printed in the detailed liner notes. My favorite is Berryland Dance/Baila Vegetal, a vaudeville-sounding rave-up about dancing vegetables. Warning: if you get this for your favorite small person you will have to resist the temptation to keep it for yourself. (ROU8032) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Lullabies For Little Dreamers

This 1995 release can be enjoyed by both babies and harnessed parents who want musical reminders of simpler times when they could sleep through the night (my hunch is that it's really for the parents). It's like a compilation tape of some of the great artists (mostly of the 1970's) without loud rockers or anything with drug references. Includes Cass Elliot's Dream A Little Dream of Me, Fleetwood Mac's Songbird, Emmylou Harris's Master Sandman, The Carpenters's Crystal Lullaby and more by Carly Simon, James Taylor, Aretha Franklin, Don McLean, Manhattan Transfer, Hall & Oates. (RH72265) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

Various Artists
Celtic Twilight 3: Lullabies 0559

This 1996 release, the third in the popular series, focuses on vocal and instrumental lullabies for sleepy children (or for those who need to get sleepy) of all ages. Includes traditional and newly composed songs from Talitha Mackenzie, Barbara Higgs, Nomin Ni Riain, Maired Sullivan, Aruna, Niarni Parsons and Frances Black (in Arcady), children's singer Linda Arnold and more. An exquisite sampler of some of the best Celtic music around, highly recommended! (HS11107) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
The World Sings Goodnight

This 1993 album is beautiful and unique collection of 33 lullabies from around the world, sung in their native languages. Voices of grandmothers, mothers, fathers, and aunts, truly "folk" singers experienced in the art of singing children to sleep, bring variety, richness and authenticity to the album, highlighting the diversity of the planet as well as the closeness of the human family. Produced and compiled by Tom Warringer. 51 minutes, some proceeds to Amnesty International! (SWR803) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Lullaby 0248

This special 1994 lullaby collection contains selections by some of our very favorite artists: Susan Robins of Libana (Swedish Lullaby from the album Fire Within), Loreana McKennitt, Sweet Honey (Spirit Lullaby), Judy Collins (Winnie and Winnie), Freyda Epstein, Bobby McFerrin, Tan Hingosa, LadySmith Black Mambazo and others. If I were a baby, I'd put my order in for this album ASAP! (MLP42565) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

A Child's Celebration of Folk Music

When people used to talk of "folk music," sounds of laughing mandolins, staccato banjos, warm guitars, playful pennywhistles and lilting choruses came to mind: sounds of home and heart, with songs passed down from generation to generation. This collection honors that folk tradition, with songs that generations can gather together and share. Children will love to learn the simple melodies and fun-to-sing lyrics of Michelle Shocked's See The Sea, Pete Seeger's She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain, Woody Guthrie's Car Song, Maria Muldaur's Would You Like To Swing On A Star, Sweet Honey in the Rock's Run Moly Run, Taj Mahal's Little Brown Dog, Doc Watson's Grandfather Clock, David Grisman and Jerry Garcia's There Ain't No Bugs On Me, and many more classics! Here's to a joyous family gathering! (MLP42565) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
A Child's Celebration of the World 0705

This is quite simply one of the most positive, reflective and inspiring children's albums in the whole genre. The cultural mix is inspired and well-rounded. The sounds are catchy, the music is polished, the messages are critical! So can you tell we loved this one? A taste of languages, wonderful messages of tolerance and respect, and some of the most popular artists like Miriam Makeba, Rolf, Joan Baez, Cherille Sisters, Taj Mahal and Maria Muldaur make this an excellent choice. Add in the clever bonus of Sweet Honey in the Rock singing during the song breaks, counting numbers in different languages, and kids and adults alike will appreciate this one! (MLP75341) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hand in Hand: Songs of Parenthood

"One listen and the formidable task known as parenthood will take on new dimensions." On this 1995 release, which is actually for parents as much as for children, some of popular music's best-loved performers offer their personal insights into raising a family. Includes Joni Mitchell's Circle Game, a classic summation of growing up; Sweet Honey in the Rock's rendition of Khalil Gibran's classic On Children; Bobby McFerrin's Baby, a mesmerizing acappella chant of love and advice to a newborn; John Lennon's Beautiful Boy, a touching tribute to his son Sean; Ferron's Sunshine; Jackson Browne's Only Child; and songs by The Pretenders, Marc Cohn, Yoko Ono, Judy Collins, and Tom Rush. A great gift for families with children of all ages. (MLP42589) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Under the Green Corn Moon 5138

All God's Children

This excellent 1996 documentary deals with the effects of homophobia on African Americans, and presents interpretations of what the African-American struggle for civil rights means within the context of fighting discrimination against lesbian and gay people of all races. Spiritual, intellectual, cultural, and political leaders, such as Rev. Jesse Jackson, Senator Carol Moseley-Braun, Congresswoman Maxine Waters, and Maria Elana Grant of Lavender Light: Black and People of All Colors Lesbian and Gay Gospel Choir, speak out about exclusion and discrimination, and inclusion, justice and healing. Produced and directed by Dr. Dee Mosbacher and Frances Reid, in conjunction with Dr. Sylvia Rhue, an African-American lesbian psychologist and filmmaker, highly recommended! (WNV1VC): 39.98

All Over Me

Just your average baby-dyke-fetish-in-love-with-straight-best-friend movie... oh, wait, that's not average, is it? And neither is this movie! While this gritty (but totally charming) tale of teenage love, life, death, and rock 'n' roll is set in the Hell's Kitchen district of NYC, it hits home for any of us who can remember being head-over-heels for a gal with a boyfriend. This boyfriend, though, may make your memories look good in comparison (hint: the gritty parts). Allison Folland's subtle performance as a young lesbian coming to terms with herself and the world is simply astounding, and she gets some excellent support from Leisha Hailey of the Murders. Warning: be prepared to relive some less-than-comfortable moments from your adolescence... but you'll know it was worth it in the end! Recommended! (NL4576VC): 19.98

America's First Women Filmmakers

Long before Hollywood took over, women were directing films. The Library of Congress and the Smithsonian present 4 rare works from the silent era's 2 most accomplished and successful women directors, who both ran their own production companies: Alice Guy-Blache (whose career began in 1896, and who was probably the first person of either gender to direct a narrative film) and Lois Weber (who filmed a complex drama about abortion in 1916 entitled Where Are My Children?, not included here). This anthology contains Motherhood's Speed Limit, A House Divided: How Men Propose (1913) short comedies, and Too Wise Wives (a 1921 feature-length film), which at display a will about the institution of marriage. 114 min., film notes enclosed. (UPX70003VC): 19.98

Anal Nin

Anal Observed

"Art must be, for women, more like a personified, ancient ritual where every spiritual thought is made visible, enacted, represented." This intimate portrait is an actual 1973 film of the renowned author at work and at home, narrating, reflecting upon and sharing her philosophy, experiences, influences, and approach to life and her craft. Any fan of her writing will enjoy this chance to meet the artist! 60 min. (MY5362VC): 29.98

Anne Heche and Joan Chen

Wild Side

Anne Heche (Ellen's famous flame, at least as of the writing), Joan Chen, and Christopher Walken star in this lesbian love story action full-length film, sort of like a lower-budget version of Bound. Its (somewhat thin) plot involves master criminals, international banking, money-laundering, high-class prostitution, dangerous computer viruses and an FBI sting, plus a happy ending in which the lesbian couple, outsmarting both the criminals and the corrupt FBI agents, prevail! Closed captioned. (EVN95153VC): 19.98

Armistead Maupin

Tales of the City (3-Video Set)

If you missed this marvelous series on PBS's American Playhouse (their most widely-viewed drama series ever), or live in a state where you only got to see the "censored" version, or want to have it for always, here's your opportunity! A full 6 hours of viewing, as the author's beloved bestseller comes to life in this hilarious and poignant chronicle of San Francisco life in the 1970's. With Olympia Dukakis, Chloe Webb, and more. (PGV1VC): 59.98

Armistead Maupin

More Tales of the City (3-Video Set)

In this 6-hour, 3-volume set, representing the second volume of Armistead Maupin's beloved bestseller brought to life, the quirky inhabitants of 26 Barbary Lane follow their fortunes and follies under the watchful eye of their maternal landlady Anna Madrigal (played by Olympia Dukakis). (UPX21378VC): 59.98

Around the World the Lesbian Way

This 1997 collection is a veritable international Lesbian Film Festival! It contains 5 lesbian films: A Day in the Life of a Bull Dyke, a Canadian comedy-drama; This Marching Girl Thing from Australia, starring Toni Collette (from Muriel's Wedding); Calling, an edgy erotic film from Germany; the Swiss film Go Girl, a light-hearted look at the potential woman of your dreams; and the Scottish Dancing, starring film star Sylvia Sims who recalls a passionate love affair in her youth. 60 min. (NAV188VC): 29.98

Bar Girls

Here's the full-length film of a fresh and funny romantic comedy featuring lesbians whose lives intertwine against the backdrop of a Los Angeles bar... Ah, the drama of the lesbian dating game! Closed captioned. (WV17VC): 19.98

Bella Abzug

Intimate Portrait: Bella Abzug

This 1996 video program is a righteously inspiring portrait of one of the most committed feminist and outspoken politicians in US history. This is an informative and perceptive glimpse into many facets of her life, from her early years in a Russian Jewish family, to Columbia Law School (one of the first women in the class), to the House of Representatives and beyond, always fiercely advocating for women's rights, peace, environmentalism, and many other progressive causes. (UPX70489VC): 14.98

Bellydancing Magical Motion

Presented by Alas and friends, this one-hour program features a good history of bellydance, plus beginner through advanced movements, low-impact exercise techniques, dance demonstrations by Alas and 5 other bellydance pros; veil techniques, and finger cymbal basics, all in an easy-to-learn format. It's one of the best movement disciplines for women, unlike it was developed especially for a woman's body... and it's sensual, and fun! And if you're learning bellydancing and need some music, we recommend all the albums by Desert Wind, in the Women's Spirituality section — see our artist index. (BMN1VC): 29.98

Bound

When it's hot in here... This 1996 film stars femme fatale Jennifer Tilly as mobster's girlfriend, Violet, and the overly-pouty Gina Gershon as Corky, her ex-con neighbor. They covertly couple (big kudos to Susie Bright, a.k.a. Susie Sexpert, for her "technical advice") and decide to talk the mob. It's wonderfully sexy, funny film-for-with-a-refreshing-twist. If you are squeamish about violence, I recommend watching with a mafia-flick-loving friend who can monitor (and allow you to hide your face in their armpit) until the few scary scenes have passed. Closed captioned. (RP6288VC): 19.98

Celluloid Closet

Narrated by Lily Tomlin, this wonderful and militant film, based on the book by Vito Russo, recounts the role of lesbians and gays in the 100-year history of film-making. It was many years in the making, and then completed by Vito's friends after his death. Available late '98; closed captioned. (CCL1VC): 19.98

Celtic Tides

Travel to Ireland, Scotland and Eastern Canada to visit artists such as Loreena McKennitt, Karen Matheson of Capercaille, 3 female members of the Rankin Family, Maire Brennan of Clannad, Mary Black, Mary Jane Lammond, Ashley MacIsaac, Natalie MacMaster, and many other. Insightful interviews and fiery performances are filmed against the dramatic backdrop of beautiful rugged landscapes, ancient Celtic ruins and windswept ocean shores, revealing the connection between the music and the timeless lands where the music originates. This 1998 musical and cultural documentary is a great way to learn about and appreciate the artists more deeply! (PUT1413VC): 19.98

Charlotte Church

In Concert: Voice of an Angel

Her album is wonderful, but to fully appreciate this young artist, who embodies both child and woman, this live performance video is a necessity. She exudes warmth, charm, effervescence, confidence and dignity, establishing an excellent rapport with her packed-house audience at London's Bridon Academy, as she treats them to her artistry. Her expressive phrasing and articulation is always perfect, and you will enjoy watching this glorious concert over and over. With orchestral and choral accompaniment, highly recommended. (SHV61770VC): 19.98

Cheryl Wheeler

What Do I Care/Don't Have Any Kids

The consummate singer-songwriter mixes hip-hop songs and stories with some of the most elegantly crafted ballads being written today, on this 1998 release recorded at the Iron Horse in Northampton, MA. Whether evoking sadness or raucous laughter with her wonderfully expressive voice, she is at the top of her art when she sings, and the line between the personal and universal disappears. (PH002VC): 19.98

Claire of the Moon

Here's the feature-length film of the lesbian love story of Claire and Noel, who meet at a writers' colony on the Oregon coast. It's a story of one woman's journey into her sexual identity, and another woman's journey through fear to intimacy. The movie was made on a deceptively low budget, (you'd never know that by watching it) by film-maker/writer Nicole Conn, and has played at major theaters across the country. Many great scenes, definitely worth seeing! (DEM3VC): 19.98

Conga Drumming: Beginner's Video

If you wish to learn conga drumming, this is one of the best instructional videos we have seen, and is a great companion to the book by Betsy Barsky and Alan Dworsky, Conga Drumming. Conga parts — myths and techniques — for calypso, rumba, conga, bomba and bembé are taught in an easy-to-follow method. The primary instructor here is a man, Jorge Bermudez, with some sections taught by Alan and Betsy, and Raul Rekow of Santana. (DAN1323VC): 29.98

Costa Brava

This fabulous, quirky, sophisticated comedy from Catalonia, Spain (but, hey, it's in English!) has racked up a number of "Best Picture" awards at 1995 Lesbian/Gay Film Festivals and for very good reason. Written, directed by and starring Maria Ballester-Coll (a cross between Woody Allen and Rosie O'Donnell) the film centers around her tour-guide/lesbian playwright character Ana and her relationship with Monserrat, an Israeli scientist (played by the lesbian San Franciscan actress Desi del Valle), who originally insists that she is not a lesbian but falls for Ana anyway. With its dead-pan humor, excellent characters, and innovative filming techniques, this is one of the best films I have seen in quite a while. (NAV163VC): 29.98

Changer: A Record of the Times

Celebrating the 15th anniversary of The Changer and the Changed, this video tapestry of memories — rich in the recollections of Cris and the women who made musical history — features interviews and performances with Meg Christian, Margie Adam, Holly Near, and many others. ## Cynara, Poetry in Motion

This beautifully filmed sweeping romance from Nicole Conn, maker of Claire of the Moon, is set against the backdrop of the northwest coast in 1883. The storyline begins with the simple elegance of girl meets guy on the haunting shoreline, one is a soulless in exile, the other an expatriate in search of solitude. Sort of a lesbian Wuthering Heights, starring Melissa Helman as "Heathcliff," sensual and subtle, primal and passionate. 35 min. (WV21VC): 29.98

Dos Fallopa

Pretty Girls, Not Too Bright

Seattle's "reigning queens of sketch comedy" (Lisa Koch and Peggy Platt) serve up a slew of hysterical and dysfunctional characters in their debut 1996 video. Shot from live performances, the duo brings their hilarious comedy and music to life through their twisted alter egos. (DOS1VC): 19.98

Ellen DeGeneres Presents

Trevor

In this 23-minute show, Ellen presents the 18-minute award-winning short film by Peggy Rajski (long-time collaborator of John Sayles). Told narratively as diary entries, it's the story of 13-year-old Trevor, who loves to lip-synch to Diana Ross and develops a crush on another boy. When schoolmates ostracize him for being a "fairy," he tries to give himself electric shock, runs away from home, and attempts suicide; but, all ends well. Historically significant, and essential for fans! (PTH1VC): 29.98

Entre Nous

Now back in print, and back in our catalog! This excellent classic film is a true love story between 2 married women, who find fulfillment with each other that their husbands cannot provide. (MGM452VC): 19.98

Everything Relative

Sort of like a lesbian Big Chill, this is a romantic comedy about a reunited group of women who went to college together. Their quick-witted repartee reveals irony, humor, and a touch of nostalgia for the 70's, and how their lives, politics and loves have changed. (WV9011VC): 29.98

Fire

Written and directed by Deepa Mehta, this is truly one of the most excellent films seen by this reviewer in a long time. Banned in India, this 1996 release is the first film we know about to confront the topic of lesbianism in a culture which, entrenched in tradition, denies that such a love could exist. Wonderful, emotion-evoking performances by Shabana Azmi and Nandita Das, as the sisters-in-law in loveless marriages who find each other, highly recommended! (NYV65398VC): 29.98

French Twist

Told in her own words, it includes her thoughts, reflections, and recollections of her closest friends, as well as footage from Saturday Night Live, movies, and rare personal photos. Color, 52 min. (VV9895VC): 24.98

Hildegard of Bingen Radiant Life:

Meditations & Visions

Subtitled Meditations & Visions of Hildegard of Bingen, this 1996 video is a most excellent presentation on the life and writings, music and art of the amazing, visionary composer, healer, artist, mystic, whose works expressed an intense relationship with Sophia, or Mother Wisdom. First, some facts and details of her life are presented (for instance, did you know she was "given" to a convent at a very early age, because she was the tenth child in her family, and custom was to give one tenth of your wealth as a tithe to the church??!!). Then many of her writings are recited, to a background of music she composed (performed by 4 women on voice, viola, harp, recorder, psaltery and percussion), while her illuminations and works of art are shown. Informative, instructive, and recommended! (WSM1VC): 19.98

She's strong, feminist, intelligent, sharp, and her own person — she has never let anyone else define her. We listed this in our '94 catalog, so of course it predates Monica, impeachment, Hillary's run for the Senate, and all such subjects, but we figure it's time to bring it back. 50 min., recommended! (AAE19431VC): 29.98

The Hunger

This dazzling erotic vampire thriller is a lesbian cult classic, due to the unparalleled scenes between Susan Sarandon and Catherine Deneuve. Also stars David Bowie. Great fun, horror (except a lot of blood), suspense, and beauty! 100 min., closed captioned. (MGM800381VC): 19.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 1

Goddess Remembered

This stunning and poetic documentary is a salute to 35,000 years of "pre-history" to the matriarchal cultures of ancestors who recently remembered, and to our ancient goddess-worshipping religions. The caves of paleolithic France, the mysterious earthworks of ancient Britain, and the sun-drenched palaces of Greece and Crete are brought to life here, with exquisite musical accompaniment by Loreena McKennitt. This 3-part series is expertly directed by Donna Reed. (DCL307VC): 39.98

The Burning Times (Video)

Part Two in the Women and Spirituality series offers new insights into the legends and misconceptions that surround the term "witch" in the attempt to eradicate the woman-based power of midwives, wise old crones and healers: the Christian church instigated a reign of terror which resulted in the genocide of millions of women and the destruction of what had been an organic way of life. The film illustrates how this sanctioned torture and murder set the stage for modern society's cultural acceptance of massive violence against women. Building on ideas set forth in the discovery of goddess-based culture, this is a beautifully crafted tribute to the value and strength that women brought and bring to life. Music by Loreena McKennitt, highly recommended! (DCL330VC): 39.98

Full Circle

In this final part of the Women and Spirituality trilogy, the filmmaker examines the many present-day manifestations of the women's spirituality movement. She finds authors like Anne Cameron, leaders and social activists like Starhawk, and others, meeting around kitchen tables and in crises on hilltops, discussing spiritually and performing rituals that give them the strength to transform their inner beliefs into political and social action. This is her most personal film of the three — she discusses her own journey — and we finally learn about the dancer who has appeared in all 3 films, so the title is a fitting one. Music again by Loreena McKennitt, recommended! (DCL462VC): 39.98

Work

Xena teams up with Hercules in the third episode to defeat a demonic warrior, and the pair have a few, ahem, romantic moments. These are the episodes that started it all: viewer response to Xena was so overwhelming that a character planned to appear only a few times was given her own series — now a worldwide phenomenon! Don't miss out! (UNV83642VC): 39.98

Libana: A Circle is Cast Songbook

This 30-page songbook contains words, music, and annotations to the 23 selections from their gorgeous cassette of the same name, an excellent resource for round- and chant-singing. (BPN25B): 11.95

Lilith Fair Songbook

In spite of some of the continually-repeated mis-information stated by Ms. McL, in the intro (such as "the dominated", but don't get me started), this songbook, with piano/vocal/guitar parts, offers a nice composite of songs — 22 altogether, from the repertoires of Sarah, Dar Williams, Indigo, Shawn Colvin and more. (HLD62485B): 18.95

Rise Up Singing

Subtitled The Group-Singing Songbook, with 1200 songs, this is probably the most comprehensive songbook ever published, even though it offers no melody lines, and no musical notations other than chord sequences. But it tells you where you can hear each song, if you don't already know it, and many many will already be familiar enough that you'll be able to pick out the tunes. Edited by Peter Blood-Patterson, topics include Ecology, Peace, Struggle, Women, Work, Play, Freedom, Funny Songs, Rounds, Sacred Rounds & Chants, and more. Songwriters include Holly Near, Cris Williamson, Malvina Reynolds, Betsy Ross, Charlie Murphy, Buffy Sainte-Marie, Pete Seeger, and on and on. You're guaranteed to never run out of something to sing! (SNG1375B): 17.95

Sarah McLachlan Songbook

With piano, vocal, and guitar parts, this contains all the songs from Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, plus a few songs each from Touch and Solace, as well as original fine art drawings by Sarah, and a color photo section. (HLD3062565B): 16.95

Songs for Earthlings

Subtitled A Green Spirituality Songbook, this encyclopaedic tome contains 433 sacred songs, chants, rounds and hymns celebrating the Earth and all of us who live here — designed for use by women's circles and those who seek to use singing together to deepen commitments to one another and build community. The music is easy to learn — complete editor Julie Forest Middleton encourages us to move away from the printed page and teach others these songs! To that end she gives us clear transcriptions, many 3- and 4-part arrangements, often supplying chords. Thoroughly annotated and indexed, with complete citations, this 1999 publication is a major reference work. (KEP15B): 26.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock Continuum

Subtitled The First Songbook of Sweet Honey in the Rock, this unique, historic 1999 publication features 170 pages of music and lyrics, biographical essays of the core members, instructions in performing the songs, as well as short explanations of each song — written by the authors themselves. Compiled and edited by Ysaye M. Barnwell, with a foreword by Harry Belafonte, Jr., it is certain to become a collector's item for generations to come and for those who have had the privilege to share in the group's timeless message of human struggle and triumph. (TWP2115B): 24.95

Nurudafina Pili Abena Drum Call T-Shirts

We are so taken with the beauty of Nur's album design, created by Momodu Cessay, a male West African artist, because of its strength and because it breaks the stereotype that women don't play percussion. We want to see a society in which there's nothing "non-traditional" about women playing drums. Wear this and inspire all who see you! Specify size L, XL, 2XL. If you don't specify a size, we'll send XL. (DRC175): 16.95

Shawna Carol Goddess Chant T-Shirt

"I am the Goddess, I am the Mother. All acts of love and pleasure are my ritual." This beautiful t-shirt, with Shawna Carol's new album cover Goddess Chant pictured as well as these words to her now-famous chant Sacred Pleasure, celebrates the Goddess as well as this amazing recording. 100% cotton, specify size L, XL, or 2XL. Specify size L, XL, 2XL, 3XL. If you don't specify a size, we'll send XL. (UBK175): 16.95

Books

Angela Davis Blues Legacies and Black Feminism

In this 1998 publication, the renowned activist and feminist thinker analyzes the work of Gertrude "Ma" Rainey, Bessie Smith, and Billie Holiday to illustrate their significance in early black feminism. She seeks to challenge the notion that feminism began in white culture by showing how the work of these women often challenged the social, sexual, and economic rules of the male-dominated record industry and culture at large. Her engaging and fluid style will educate the reader on not only the careers of these women but the social context in which they creatively flourished; also contains the first complete transcription of the works of Rainey and Smith. Don't worry, this isn't some difficult academic text, it's an interesting read on a fascinating topic. Recommended! (PNT119K): 14.95

Hot Wire Magazine: 15 Back Issues

The best journal on Women's Music unfortunately ceased publishing, but fortunately for us, 15 back issues are available at a fabulous sale price of under a dollar-fifty apiece! Fantastic, insightful, educational articles, interviews, features, photographs, and more... of many of the women who have been involved in the creation of women's music and culture for the past several years. They're HOT — and heavy, so please include postage/handling for 15 items (free standard postage/handling on orders over $100), counts as one item for freebie offers. (EJC3BK): 19.95

Joyce Luck Melissa Etheridge/Our Little Secret

Although this isn't an "authorized biography," Melissa is said to be happy with it. The first full biography of the openly lesbian international rock star, which chronicles her personal and professional life and accomplishments, is illustrated with over 50 photos, many full color, many previously unpublished. Carefully researched, it is filled with anecdotes from fans, plus insights from her friends and colleagues — including Alix Dobkin! 235 pages. (ECW290BK): 19.95

Kate Clinton Don't Get Me Started (Book)

Have you ever had the experience of laughing out loud while reading a book and having everyone in the room look at you like you're nuts? If so, get ready for it to happen again... if not, there's a first time for everything. This 1998 title gives Kate's take on anything and everything, from President Clinton (no relation) to Nixon's funeral to music festivals to coming out. She has easily translated her comedy to the written word, giving us quite the feminist (feminist humor!) gem. But don't just take our word for it. "Kate Clinton cracks me up." — Melissa Etheridge (KCL1BK): 21.95

Kay Gardner Sounding the Inner Landscape

Subtitled Music as Medicine, this book by a pioneer in healing music and the women's spiritual movement is the culmination of years of Kay's research into the curative and transformational elements of music and sound. As she explores the ingredients (rhythm, melody, harmony, instrumentation, drone, mantra, chants, etc.), she offers insights into their origins and mysteries, and how they may be used in the healing process. Published in late 1990, when the companion album by the same title was also released (see description in New Age section), it provides the context and underlying basis for all her musical works. We're glad to have the opportunity to better understand why music — by Kay and other artists — affects us as profoundly as it does. Illustrated. 250 pp. Highly recommended! (CDC3BK): 13.95

Layne Redmond When The Drummers Were Women

This learned drummer/teacher presents the history of the sacred drum in the ancient Goddess civilizations of the Mediterranean and the Middle East. Subtitled A Spiritual History of Rhythm, this 1997 publication is filled with photos from her collection of images gathered during more than 5 years of research and travel in the Middle East and Europe. Bringing together current scientific research on rhythm's harmonious effects on the body, mind and spirit with fascinating myth, archeology, and history, Layne demonstrates how women can reclaim drumming as a spiritual heritage and sacred technology. (HMY5012BK): 17.95

Nanci Griffith's Other Voices...

Having delighted in the literary lyricism of Nanci's songs and liner notes, in which she writes about her enduring interest in "the songwriter who captures lyrically and musically a panoramic view of the social climate and the writer's sense of place for the next of us to hear and sing in the voice of our own time," we welcome her 1998 Personal History of Folk Music. As one such songwriter and performer, she shines, and we relish the chance to hear her reflections on the times and artists who have shaped her, and in turn been shaped by her. (RDH307BK): 19.95

Robert Weisbrot

Xena:

Warrior Princess
Subtitled The Official Guide to the XenaVerse, this 1997 book contains tons of trivia and information for the budding Xena fan, as well as "insider" interviews and stories on the show's origin and production that make it fascinating for even the "HCNB" (HardCore NutBall, as ultra-Xenafans jokingly call themselves). Includes a detailed episode guide of the first two seasons of the show, with commentary by Lucy (Xena) Lawless — and lots of photos, too! (NSB136BK): 13.95

Sudie Rakusin

Sudie's art has often graced the cover of our catalog. Her 1998 publication is a delightful adult book filled with drawings of strong, high-spirited women, each with a descriptive caption of goddesses, guides, angels and friends, many with an animal companion. ## Ferron The Hunger Poems: Unbound, Signed

10 poems by the amazing poet-songwriter-singer, printed on exquisite paper, unbound and held inside a handmade envelope, signed by the author. She describes them: "These 10 poems are about fragility and delicacy of balance. What we want or ask for is not always known to us and certainly not what we think we intend. These are hard times and nothing knows this more clearly than the soul. Life wants us to understand our relationship to its ebb and flow and walk with humility amongst its lessons." (BUN2BK): 19.95

Gabrielle Roth Sweat Your Prayers (Paperback)

Subtitled Movement as Spiritual Practice, this celebrated composer/dancer/teacher guides us through an exploration of the long-buried tradition of dance and sweat as the very pulse of life.
