So... What's New?

Alana Davis Fortune Cookies

Her first release since her 1997 debut which featured her hit rendition of Ani DiFranco's 32 Flavors, this 2001 release is another lush, well-crafted collection of 11 soul-inflected, mostly original acoustic pop songs, infused with stylish flourishes of jazz, funk and folk. Her earthy, sensuous voice is again the centerpiece, bearing the songs aloft with elegance, honesty and emotion. (EL62404) CD: 17.98

incantations: When the War Is Over, the holiday carol Rio Rio, the 12th century chant Christus 2000; the Irish folksong Buechall on Eime; the Celtic sounds of Furghin Mee'n Balle Seo; the 19th century standard I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls; and the well-known Pre Jesus. (DNU12) CD: 16.98

Barbra Streisand Christmas Memories

Although this 2001 release by the great and beloved vocalist contains a few classics such as Ave Maria, primarily you'll find a pretty creative repertoire. Among the tracks, Grown-Up Christmas List by Linda Thompson and David Foster, saying that all we really want and need for Christmas is peace on earth... Christmas Lullaby, newly written by Ann Hampton Callaway, Stephen Sanchez's I Remember, from a musical about a girl hiding out in a department store where she finds other people seeking refuge from the harsh realities of the outside world, and One God which Barbra learned from a Johnny Mathis album when she was 16. (COL85929) CD: 15.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi et al Africans in America/Single Cassette

This 1998 single sale-priced cassette features 22 of the tracks from the 3-volume set of the same name (see description). Some are by mother-daughter team Bernice and Toshi Reagon, (Remember Me, Shalazz, Ship of Zion), the others by various male and female solo and ensemble artists, both vocal and instrumental, such as Djimon Kouyate, United Southern Prayer Band of Baltimore and Washington, and more. (RYK444) CS: 7.98

Billie Holiday Lady Day: The Best Of (2-CD Set)

The recordings that Billie made between 1933 and 1944 for Columbia Records represent not only her finest work, but American jazz and pop singing at its zenith. These 36 tracks offer the ultimate introduction to this remarkable artist. Accompanied by a Who's Who of the Swing Era (Lester Young, Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, Teddy Wilson, and more), she masterfully renders a host of classic tunes. A fine holiday gift for a fan. (COL85979) CD: 24.98

Boston Gay Men's Chorus Gloria

Just in time for the 2001 holiday season, this recording features a lively variety of songs from the chorus's performances of December 2000. The repertoire ranges from classical pieces by Felix Mendelssohn and Sergei Rachmaninoff, to traditional selections such as Come With Torches Jeanette (Isabella) and In Dulci Jubilo, to popular tunes like that one about Rudolph. (BGM05) CD: 15.98

Capercaillie Get Out

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so. Blending Scottish repertoire with contemporary instrumentation, they conjure up the atmosphere and anxiety of a vocal tradition steeped in mythic beauty. Partially released in 1992, this collection of five tracks and rare songs features a storming live version of Caisich a' Ruin, the first Gaelic song to break into the UK Top 40, as well as exclusive mixes from their highly successful Delirium album. Additionally, 5 bonus tracks of rare and exclusive material are now included. (VLY15155) CD: 16.98

Celeste Howard Place With a View

Both a virtuoso pianist with astonishing dexterity and a skilled composer, Celeste creates innovative contemporary instrumental music (with some vocalizations) that embraces a myriad of styles, blending them perfectly for dramatic effect. She starts with lingering piano melodies and then arranges for other instruments: flute, saxophone, bass, guitar and drums. The Pat Metheny Group, Chick Corea and Oregon are among her inspirations, and you can hear some similarities — totally gorgeous and highly recommended! (ACC200) CD: 12.98

Charlotte Church Enchantment

This young diva describes her 2001 release as "very different from what's come before... I really wanted to try a lot of different things, but at the same time give my audience what they've come to expect from me." She truly does explore a dazzling spectrum of musical styles here, from show tunes to contemporary, while still including a few selections such as the haunting Celtic lament Carrickfergus to satisfy her long-time fans... all brought together by her astonishing interpretive abilities. Includes songs like Tonight, The Water Is Wide, Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man, Somewhere, Ballad, (SON89710) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98, 18.98

Cher Living Proof

On this 2001 release, Cher returns with an electrifying set of modern pop grooves... an exceptional effort from the legendary diva and Oscar-winning actress. (FOF8010) CD: 16.98

Cindy Bullens Neverland

"I strayed on the electric, baby, and you couldn't hold me back... There's a balance of good, meaningful songs and jump-off-the-piano, guitar-between-your-legs rock, which is also very much who I am." This 2001 recording features guest artists like Emmylou Harris, John Hyatt and Steve Earle — musicians in Cindy's peer group. She's long been known as a singer-songwriter, whose material has been covered by performers ranging from New Orleans soul queen Irma Thomas to the pop-country superstars Dixie Chicks. With Cindy handling lead vocals and electric guitars here, these 11 original songs are brought to life by vibrant arrangements and some of her best vocal performances on record. Includes Send Me An Angel (with Emmylou Harris), first performed by Cindy at the 1990 Roy Orbison tribute which also featured K.D. Lang and Bonnie Raitt. (ART1090) CD: 17.98

Constance Demby Sanctum Sanctorum

One of the few well-known female music synthesists in the world, this high priestess of electronica and new age pioneer has almost single-handedly created and crafted the genre "symphonic sacred space music," using keyboards to compose lush sound vistas and symphonic choir works. Currently many people are seeking music for stress relief, serenity and contemplation, and this profound, passionate, spiritual 2001 release, which combines Gregorian Chant with ambient atmospheres, deftly employs the healing power of sound. The waves literally enter the body and rearrange atoms, affecting it on a cellular molecular level. This glorious music is like a sonic therapeutic bath which can lower blood pressure and harmonize thoughts and feelings while striking a universal chord. (FTL30050) CD: 15.98

Eleanor McEvoy Yola

Everyone who loves the classic Celtic compilation A Woman's Heart and its title track, the Mary Black and Eleanor McEvoy duet Only A Woman's Heart, should already be a fan, as we are. For this 2001 Irish import CD, most of the songs were written and arranged in southwest Wexford, an area so isolated that it developed its own dialect of early English mixed with Anglicized Irish that was called Yola. (The dialect is now mostly extinct, but Eleanor borrowed the word for her title; her songs are in English.) Centered around piano accompaniment, the stripped back arrangements let the songs speak for themselves, as they explore the frustrations, dreams and desires of women through beautiful music and the exquisite voice of Eleanor McEvoy. (BLD1) CD: 16.98

Emmylou Harris Spyboy

This 1999 release is the artist's 20th in her career. While not her first live album, it's the first one that includes songs she'd first recorded in the studio... from a total of 10 previous albums dating way back to her collaborations with Gram Parsons (Love Hurts). Many fan favorites are included here: Songbird (which first appeared on her 1977 album Quarter Moon in a Ten Cent Town), Green Pastures, Tulsa Queen, Prayer in Open D, Born To Run. Co-produced and accompanied by her buddy, Buddy Miller, as well as the Spyboy band, this collection provides an experience of the breadth and depth of the artist's career. (EMT25001) CD: 17.98 way for the Women's Music and Culture movement, as well as for more mainstream women's bands like the Go-Go's. For decades we've gotten periodic requests for anything by this band... and great news: not only do we finally have something, but this 2001 release contains all previously unavailable material.

Recorded in Cincinnati in 1972, it contains live renditions of Charity Ball, Rock Bottom Blues, Cat Fever, Wonderful Feeling, Think About the Children. Essential for devotees of the herstory of Women in Music. (SLM008) CD: 15.98

Freeana A Woman's Chant

With training in Western, Middle-Eastern and Indian music, the most unusual vocalist/multi-instrumentalist/composer has truly presented a one-of-a-kind musical journey through a unique soundscape. Her voice is an extraordinary instrument: singing in her own evocative language, we hear her voice in a multi-layered polyphony, creating rich canonical structures ranging over 3 octaves, which give the feeling of tribal unity, her melodies beautifully complementing the melodic line incorporating pulsing drumbeats and percussion grooves, warm synthesizer textures, and delicately ornamented melodies from her alto recorder, the sounds on tracks such as Tribal Woman and Promise of Joy move from a serene, timeless drone to a hypnotic, trance-like, dancing peak. This 1997 release is a powerful and expressive conception of ritual sound — as eloquent and surprising as a haiku — highly recommended! (FRN1) CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & The Mirrors Bardo

Once again featuring the Russian vocalist Boris Grebenshikov, this January 2002 release has the feel of these collaborators' highly successful 1995 title Refuge, although this time, Boris is singing in a language that he invented, rather than Tibetan. Beautiful strings, lush background vocals, many flutes, and of course Gabrielle's world-best percussion accompany Boris' sensuous baritone. Order now for earliest delivery! (RAV5013) CD: 15.98

Harvey Fierstein This Is Not Going To Be Pretty

The first ever performance album from this 3-time Tony Award-winning gay playwright and actor (Torch Song Trilogy, La Cage aux Folles, Mrs. Doubtfire, Bullets Over Broadway) displays the multiple dimensions of his talent. Recorded live at NYC's Bottom Line, this provocative 1995 album includes stand-up comedy, 2 compelling dramatic monologues, and his special musical style. Hilarious, moving, and completely entertaining. Back in stock — and on sale! (PLU5904) CD: 12.98

Holly Near
Early Warnings

This early 2002 collection finally re-releases songs from 2 of Holly's heretofore out-of-print back catalog titles: Watch Out — never before available on CD, recorded in 1984 with members of the great folk quartet Trappazoid, chock-full of pre-peace songs like The Meek Are Getting Ready, War of the Flea and the title track — and Sky Dances (1989). We are thrilled to see some of her incomparable work of the past decades finally become available again and know her fans will feel the same way. Order now for earliest possible delivery. (APR1056) CD: 15.98

Jennifer Warnes
The Well

For decades, some of us Slippers have been fans of this artist: during her career, her songs have won 3 Oscars, 2 Grammys, and 3 Number One singles spots on the Billboard charts. Up Where We Belong, (I've Had) The Time of My Life, Right Time of the Night. This 2001 collection of sunlit vocals is her first recording since '92. Featuring many of the players from her celebrated album Famous Blue Raincoat: Songs of Leonard Cohen, it offers material as diverse as Naomi Neville's bluesy It's Raining to the folksy meditation of Arlo Guthrie's Patriots Dream (he's a guest artist here, too). It also features originals like Prairie Melancholy and her interpretation of the standard You Don't Know Me on which she duets with blues-master Doyle Bramhall. Blurring the lines between the genres of folk, blues, jazz and pop, this longed-for return is a tribute to the timeless quality of her music. (BIN0960) CD: 16.98

Jewel
This Way

This 2001 release, her first collection of all-new, self-penned material since 1998's 4x-platinum Spirit, marks Jewel's first work as co-producer. She wanted to focus on the craft of performing and songwriting, letting her voice shine through while staying relevant as a writer, with the hopes that in maintaining her authenticity, this music will continue to sound honest and good in 20 years. This enhanced CD includes Standing Still. (ATL83518) CD: 17.98

Jill Scott
Experience: Jill Scott (2-CD Set)

Jill has proven that she deserves all the accolades bestowed upon her recently, and her career-defining performance at the 2001 Grammys set the world on notice that she is a talent to be reckoned with. This 2001 2-CD release offers one disc of live music recorded principally at DC's Constitution Hall during her sold-out "Words and Music" tour, plus another CD of new studio offerings. Includes a live rendition of our favorite One Is the Magic #, the Top 10 R&B hits A Long Walk, Gettin' In the Way and The Way, a boogie club remix of He Loves Me, and the new uptempo studio track Gimme. (EPC86150) CD: 19.98

Juliana
Woman Wisdom

The heavenly vocals of Juliana combine with the ethereal musical mastery of Ulewellyn to create music of magical beauty. We've heard her pristine harmonies and pure angelic tone on albums by artists like Medwyn Goodall and Terry Oldfield. Here she takes the spotlight: this 2001 debut solo album features personal songs about spirit guides, guardian angels, healing crystals, animals, self-belief, and includes favorite myths and legends about the Celts and Mermaids, as well as a version of the Crya classic Mermaid's Lullaby. This spiritual journey reawakens, through music and voice, some of the wisdom inside us all. (NW516) CD: 15.98

Lisa Koch
Both Of Me

This Dos Falopias/Venus Ervy alum strikes again in 2001, with a mix of catchy folk/pop tunes, haunting ballads, and of course, her trademark demented comedy offerings (thank heavens). Among the terrific new songs are Staines in My Undies, The Women's Health Care Medley, and I Won't Survive (The Festival), plus special guest appearances by Laura Love, Peggy Platt (Dos Falopias), and piano by the amazing Barbara Higbie. If you've been pining to hear more from Ms. Koch, this is for you! ("Lisa Koch picks up where Bette Midler left off...") (TNG2459) CD: 15.98

Lisa Lynne
Maiden's Prayer

In addition to a few solo releases, this accomplished harpist is known for being half the duo Celestial Winds (we have listed their album Moon Songs for years). Her 2001 release is a peaceful and contemplative instrumental tapestry of Celtic harp, woodwinds, lute, santour, tar, dulcimer, strings and gentle wind percussion. She's accompanied by female and male members of the Persian group Lian Ensemble (whose name means "Peace," who had to emigrate from their native Iran because they are Sufis, and ironically whose shows have been cancelled recently because promoters fear gathering crowds of Middle Eastern descent), as well as Renaissance musicians from Musica Angelica. She includes both 16th century Celtic and Renaissance repertoire includes tunes such as A Ladie Sweet and Kind, Eleanor Plunkett, Chanter's Tune, Lauda de Maria Maddalena, as well as originals such as As Ye Lay in Summer (Song for Annetysa). Her notes open with her thanks to Infinite Wisdom/Mother of Life. This is the spirit of this beautiful collection. (NEA2107) CD: 15.98

Liz Story
Welcome Home/Very Best of Liz Story

In addition to being one of the founding artists on the Windham Hill roster, Liz is truly world class, one of the finest pianists and composers of our time... her unique approach to instrumental music has won her fans around the globe over the course of her 20-year career. This 2001 release features beautiful melodies tied to searching, introspective arrangements which are the hallmark of her style; it also includes one previously unreleased track, plus music from her out-of-print Novus recordings. Recommended! (WH1819) CD: 16.98

Liza Minnelli
Ultimate Collection

This 2001 first-ever multi-label career-spanning collection covers 25 years of hits (1964-1989) from the Capitol, A&M, Sony and DRG labels. 21 tracks in all, it includes the duet Together (Wherever We Go) with her mom, Judy Garland, original versions of New York, New York and Say Liza (Liza With a Z), a live version of Cabaret, her signature songs Ring Them Bells, City Lights, The Singer, standards like Can't Help Lovin' That Man and Stormy Weather, and so much more. Her strong vocals and classic recordings such as these keep Liz revered through the ages. (HIP556504) CD: 17.98

Madonna
GHV2

To complement 1991's The Immaculate Collection, this 2001 "Greatest Hits Volume 2" retrospective spans 1991-2001, from Bedtime Stories to Erotica to Evita to the Grammy-winning Ray of Light to Music. Madonna has more Top 10 singles than any woman in history and has sold over 150 million albums worldwide... important stuff for any historian of Women in Music! Includes What If I Feel Like For a Girl, Deeper and Deeper, 15 tracks in all. (WB48000) CD: 17.98

Magdalen Hsu-Li
Fire

In the Chinese 5 Element System of medicine, the Fire element governs how a person builds relationships, community, love, trust and intimacy. This 2001 sophomore release hails from one of the first Chinese-American singer-songwriters in the US to develop a national following in the acoustic/folk/alternative genres, from college campuses to feminist and LGBT circles. Showcasing her talent as a composer, instrumentalist and singer, it offers a powerful message about love, multiculturalism, spirituality, relationships, awareness and diversity. Laramie pays tribute to Matthew Shepard and the community of Laramie, Wyoming. Mother dissects prejudice in the family, and Clink emphasizes the importance of being yourself while looking at the major side of being a minority. (CPR004) CD: 15.98

Maria Muldaur
Richland Women's Blues

Maria has a long recording history, dating back into the 60's when she performed with the Jim Kweskin Jug Band, with then-husband Geoff Muldaur. Her 1973 self-titled debut platinum solo album contained her big hits Midnight At the Oasis and Don't You Feel My Lag — hopefully this rings a bell with some of our readers. This 2001 release (her 25th recording!) was inspired by classic blues artists of the '20s and '30s, several of them women such as Memphis Minnie and Bessie Smith. Fabulous guest collaborators here, including Bonnie Raitt, Tracy Nelson, Taj Mahal, John Sebastian (Lovin' Spoonful). "Far from being either a tribute album or a pale imitation of great country-blues stylists, Richland Women's Blues is a robust, sweaty and sometimes salacious celebration of life lived hard, and expressed in the most invigorating and elemental musical forms. We may never hear music like this played again with such authority, wit and energy." (Greg Gull, Toronto Star) (STN1270) CD: 15.98

Mary Black
Best of Mary Black V. 2 (2-CD Set)

Wow! 30 tracks on this 2001 2-CD retrospective from the beloved vocalist, Ireland's most successful female singer of the past 20 years. The first CD, a 15-song studio collection drawn from the last decade of her career, features 2 new recordings including Song for Ireland 2001. The second CD, entitled Hidden Harvest, is a fabulous mix of live tracks, duets and studio recordings not previously available on any of her albums. Among the gems here: Sonny with Emmylou Harris and Dolores Keane; The Moon & St. Christopher with Mary Chapin Carpenter; Ring Them Bells with Joan Baez and more. Recommended! (CUR78724) CD: 24.98

Maura O'Connell
Walls and Windows

This Irish-born song interpreter extraordinaire presents this 2001 release, her first in 5 years! Her return is a markedly grimmer approach than previous releases: acoustic music with an edge, but still permeated by her trademark soul, heart and of course her incredible voice. As always she has assembled a wonderful collection of songs, including those from the pens of artists like Patty Griffin, John Prine, Van Morrison and Eric Clapton. (SUG3937) CD: 15.98

Maya Angelou Miss Calypso

Again available but very limited quantity. Most of us know the artist as a powerful, majestic writer, poet and Presidential inauguration speaker, but in 1956, at the height of her nightclub singing career, Maya Angelou recorded this calypso record! (The story goes that she really wanted to be a cabaret dancer, and could only get to dance if she sang too.) With only a gentle bongolongo and electric guitar backing, Maya mixes jazz, gospel, blues with Caribbean sounds. As part of the big Harry Belafonte-inspired calypso craze, she channels Trinidad on her originals like Yamó, Neighbor, Neighbor, Scandal in the Family, the Louis Jordan covers Run Joe and Push Me Back and the always odd lighthearted murder-of-the-wife-beating husband tale Stone Cold Dead in the Market. This is a very cool and retro-funky album! (SCN9705) CD: 16.98

Michelle Malone Hello Out There

I heard most of these songs live before I heard this 2001 CD. Usually when that happens, I am inevitably disappointed with the recorded versions, but not in this case. Here, Michelle easily transfers the energy and exuberance of her live performances into the studio, delivering clever, catchy pop/rock songs, with accompaniment on guitar, bass, piano, and drums. Sleepy Sunday Morning is co-written by Emily Sellers, who joins Michelle on vocals and guitar. Also includes Twice in A Lifetime, Carry Me, and Super Ball. (SPS006) CD: 16.98

Michelle Malone Strange Bird Vol. 3

Michelle is a true rocker and her guitar licks will drop your jaw. Recorded live direct to 2 track digital tape November 1999 - October 2000 all over the U.S. in theaters, clubs, and living rooms... no kidding... this 2001 release is full of all the energy that those who thrive on live performance possess — and Michelle Malone definitely falls into that category. Includes concert favorites Green, Butter Biscuit (including guest appearance by Michelle's mom and little brother) Tanya Tucker, and her amazing rendition of Wild Horses. (SPS006) CD: 16.98

Mikveh

Named for the traditional Jewish women's mikveh (ritual bath) — the place of monthly immersion marking the cycles of women's lives, sexuality, and creativity — this all-star Jewish women's ensemble was formed by Klezmerics violinist Alice Svigals at the behest of the producers of Eve Ensler's Vagina Monologues. Engaging the experience and spirit of Jewish women, these 6 women combine rare historical and new Yiddish and English songs with ecstatic klezmer melodies. Among the topics are celebrations of fertility, a daughter's bat mitzvah, and forbidden love, to the terror spousal abuse, the quiet grief of miscarriage, and the spirit of Friday night table. One of the highlights is a fabulous cover of a Pennywhistle's song arranged by the great Ethel Raim. (TCR4305) CD: 16.98

Mirah

You Think It's Like This But...

Really It's Like This brims with maturity, complexity and honesty. The delectable love tunes and salty lullabies on the artist's 2001 full-length debut are delivered among rich layers of dreamy guitar and seductive vocals. At center stage are her silken pipes, which strike your attention immediately as her voice pillows an intelligent lyrical wordplay, sculpting songs of love and loss, small town imagery, and clever tales laced with playfully provocative innuendoes. Her tunes are wrapped in a colorful and varied musical bow, multi-textured and musically intoxicating, stylistically vacillating between 50's jazz vocals and modern organic folk/pop/rock songwriting. Some of these tracks will rock you into daydream with sexy sweet, utterly hummy harmonies. An up and coming talent, don't miss it! (K112) CD: 16.98

Natalie Merchant Motherland

This 2001 release is a musically adventurous collection of songs that are passionate, shimmering and softly soulful, with lush arrangements and a rich instrumental backing for Natalie's radiant ilk. It's the first studio recording since 1998's Ophelia, from the artist who initially gained world-wide recognition as the leader of the multi-instrument band 10,000 Maniacs. Includes Just Can't Last. (ELX2721) CD: 17.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass Bliss: Om Namah Shivaya II

This 2001 release presents an even more beautiful and moving rendition of one of the most powerful of the Sanskrit mantras. Accompanied on bamboo flute, the heavenly voices of the chrons On Wings of Song will transform any space into a temple of inner peace and joy. Within moments of its opening notes, Bliss lifts the spirit and brings a state of peaceful, renewing calm. (SHM0032) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Peregrina

Flower of Love: Chant for Christmas

Peregrina is a women's choir, directed by Charlotte Miller, who has transcribed most of their music from manuscripts. Here they present a beautiful program of unusual chants, not widely recorded, for Advent and Christmas, including 5 of the famous "O" antiphons, which are sung during the week preceding Christmas. Several of the first outgrowths of chant are represented here: Cuncti Simus is a measured chant with a beat, while two pieces from Hildegard von Bingen demonstrate florid chant over a drone. They also use a technique called "organum duplum", which creates polyphony using one line of chant with another, voice a fifth above — very haunting and lovely. (OGC1) CD: 15.98

Rachel Z

Room of One's Own

The sticker on this limited-quantity CD proclaims "Celebrating the Triumphs of Women in the Arts" — and this sounded so much like our own purpose, we had to listen! Rachel is an amazing jazz pianist and composer, she has collaborated with such greats as Ron Carter and Wayne Shorter, and musicians like Chick Corea are singing her praises. She's accompanied on this 1996 release by Regina Carter on violin, Tracy Wornworth on bass, Cindy Blackman and Terri Lynn Carrington on drums, and others. On some selections she wows you with her beautiful melodies and harmonies, and on others she blows you away with her technical virtuosity and awareness of musical spaces — when to fill them and when to leave them open. Each song is dedicated to a woman who has influenced her: Virginia Wolfe, Zora Neal Hurston, Billie Holiday. (NYC6023) CD: 12.98

Rickie Lee Jones Red Rocks

This 2001 live recording of her best-known songs finds her in top form... the sold-out crowd is thrilled, and there are striking moments of interaction between artist and fans. It features dynamic full-band versions of well-known songs like Chuck E's in Love, Satellite and Coolsville, a sensitive rendition of Don't Let the Sun Catch You Crying, and a heart-rocking version of Van Morrison's Gloria. (ART1101) CD: 17.98

Rory Block

I'm Every Woman

From the acclaimed master of acoustic blues comes this 2002 vocal showcase, which matches sensual, emotionally powerful versions of classic R&B with stunning a cappella gospel and stark, traditional ballads. Within these arrangements are some of the deepest, purest musical expressions you'll ever hear, along with her smoldering passion for her music. The delicious slide riff that opens the disc also closes it, affirming Rory's reverent love for traditional roots. Features Gayle Adegoal on Saffire on See Lion Woman, Reverend Herb Sheldon on Hold On, Change Is Coming, and other guests. (ROU3174) CD: 16.98

Rosemary Clooney Sweet Melodies

Starting as a Big Band singer in the 40's, she had a string of hits in the 50's, made some memorable movies, and has been one of America's favorite singers ever since. These classic songs include some of her biggest hits as well as some wonderful collaborations with Duke Ellington and his orchestra. Highlights of this 2001 release include I Got It Bad (And That Ain't Good), In the Cool, Cool, Cool of the Evening, It Don't Mean a Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing). (NS0149) CD: 16.98

Sarah Brightman Classics

This 2001 release sees Sarah return to tradition with a gorgeous collection of classical works culled from her extensive archive, as well as newly recorded versions of favorites such as Pie Jesu from Andrew Lloyd Webber's Requiem and O Mio Babbino Caro from Puccini's Gianni Schicchi. In addition it features 5 completely new tracks, not heard on any previous albums or in concert, including the perennial favorite Ave Maria. (ANG33257) CD: 17.98

Sarah Dougher The Bluff

On her third solo, she has successfully created a world where disguises are worn, sexual deception is the norm, truth is counterfeited and fake is real! This 2001 release explores a diverse sonic and emotional landscape: imagine Dusty Springfield and Lucinda Williams songs over the music of The Smiths and you'll have the basic musical sound! Features John Nicks's original and fanciful guitar playing, Janet Weiss (Gleason-Kinney) on drums, and guest vocalist Corn Tucker from Sleater-Kinney doing her trademark tunnel yell. (NRL21) CD: 16.98

Shelby Lynne Love, Shelby

On her 2001 release, this singer-songwriter ups the rock ante even further than on her 2000 Grammy-winning album, I Am Shelby Lynne. Here, her gritty natural twang is present between the lines and the grooves... all 10 tracks a decidedly eclectic mix incorporating all the greatest elements of classic pop music. Includes rocker Jesus Oh a Greyhound, plus Mother, Kind, and the soaring ballad Wall in Your Heart. (ISL586436) CD: 16.98

Topp Twins Grass Highway

On their 2001 release, Joels and Lynda Topp, our favorite yodeling twins from New Zealand, combine their wonderful harmonies with their keen sense of humor and timing, to serve an earthy cocktail of roots-style music flavored with blues, love ballads, rockabilly, and -- of course -- their trademark yodels. Their signature tune Unbreakable Girl has been remixed into a respectable rockabilly version. Fire in the Barn and One Horse Town are self-respecting country fan should have. Big Ol' Moon fits the howlin' blues/dirty swamp music genre, and Songs of Home and Pacific reminds the world that they are 100% Kiwi. Hot, sweet, highly recommended! (TOP5) CD: 16.98

Tracy Chapman The Collection

This 2001 long-awaited "Best of" collection contains her greatest hits from 5 previous albums: Tracy Chapman, Crossroads, New Beginning, Matters of the Heart, Telling Stories. Includes Fast Car, Talkin' Bout A Revolution, Baby Can I Hold You, Bang Bang Bang, Wedding Song, Telling Stories. 15 in all. (FOF0011) CD: 16.98

Voices on the Verge: Erin McKeown... Live in Philadelphia

I like to describe it as trying on each other's clothes. This unique collaboration features 4 individual, accomplished artists — Erin McKeown, Ross Polenzani, Jess Klein and Beth Ansel — blending together their own distinctive styles and voices to make this acoustic collective a truly cohesive band. Each musician is represented on this 2001 release, recorded live over 2 nights, with 3 of her own songs which have been shaped and reworked by the other 3 members, who add all of the accompanying instruments and vocal harmonies. 5 tracks are previously unreleased, and none have been available as live recordings. (RYK606) CD: 16.98

Yoko Ono
Blueprint For a Sunrise

This artist has long been dedicated to the causes of feminism and political action, and she gives expression to this dedication once again on her 2001 CD, a concept album consisting of live tracks, studio tracks and samples... and companion to her book Yoko Ono Art Book. "Sometimes, I wake up in the middle of the night hearing thousands of women screaming. Other times just one woman seems to try to talk through me." Yoko screams for women who have been beaten and brokenhearted. I Want You To Remember Me represents a conversation between a woman trying to leave a relationship and the man who would rather see her dead than gone. Is This What We Do points out the disrespect and hurt that women often receive, in exchange for their gift of life. On the global call It's Time for Action, lyrics are presented in Arabic, French, Turkish, Chinese, Punjabi, Ethiopian, German, Hungarian, Russian, Hebrew, Korean, Portuguese, Japanese, Italian and Farsi. The closing track Are You Looking For Me proclaims "I'm the goddess in your dream! I'm the devil in your scream!" Among the accompanists: Sean Lennon on guitars, keyboards, bass and background vocals. (CAP36035) CD: 17.98

Acappella Angels

An A Cappella Christmas

0793

These 3 gloriously angelic-voiced women truly sound like more like a mass choir than a trio! They hail from Michael Jackson's Broadway show "Sisterella." In addition to individual gigs like singing backup for Elton John and the film The Color Purple. On their 1999 release, they create some of the most spirited, joyful, percussive, crisp, precise, stunning acappella music this reviewer has had the good fortune to hear. Even if you think you've heard enough Xmas music, their repertoire of traditional Christmas carols will give you goosebumps — great, original arrangements and excellent production, too. They include a great gospel rendition of the spiritual Go Where I Send Thee, as well as Chanuka, O Chanuka. With harp by Lisa Lynne Franco plus well-placed touches of guitar and percussion. Highly recommended! (WAL6203) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Aine Minogue

To Warm the Winter's Night

This 1995 Celtic Holiday Celebration from Irish emigre harpist and singer Aine is a beautiful collection of songs and spoken word pieces gathered from Ireland, England, Wales, Scotland and Brittany. A few of the songs such as Oiche Chuan/Silent Night and The Old Year Now Away Has Fled/Greenleaves are well known, but most of them are ancient, nearly-forgotten celebrations of winter, Yule, New Year and Winter Solstice. Produced by Nightnoise fiddler Johnny Cunningham, Aine and her harp are also joined by Irish pipes and whistles, Celso, and oboe for this enchanting holiday journey. (EVM014) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Christmas: Rhythms of the Holy Land

Here's something different; on this 1999 release, familiar Christmas songs are created again with luscious ancient rhythms from the Middle East. Several drummers provide a rich tapestry colored by Andsein Bachman's warm wooden flute tones. Her flute interplays with the passionate virtuoso drumming of Rami Ziaoh (currently residing in the Bay Area, he was raised as a child in Bethlehem and born on Christmas Day — no wonder he shines on Little Drummer Boy)! While mostly instrumental, several songs feature the lovely voice of Amy Faust. We now have Christmas music from many parts of the world, but this is the first we know about with more direct links to where it all happened in the first place. (OW1008) CD: 15.98

Ensemble Choral du Bout du Monde

Noels Celtiques

One of the world's most fervent and festive enclaves of Celtic culture exists in Brittany, the Northwest province of France, and Brittany's thriving Celtic Breton community boasts a culture as steeped in tradition as any other in the Pan-Celtic Diaspora. Created in 1977, this magnificent 100+ voice ensemble, whose name translates as The Choral Ensemble from the Ends of the World, presents a program sung in Breton (the Gaelic dialect spoken in Brittany) accompanied by renaissance and medieval instruments such as cornemuse, flutes, guitars and percussion. The majority of voices, and all soloists, are female. Both joyous and mysterious, this is a truly authentic Celtic holiday recording with tremendous appeal to fans of Ars Nova, Celtic and choral music, recommended! (GL3124) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Voices of Winter

Priscilla Herdman, Anne Hills and Cindy Mangsen blend their intricate harmonies and artful arrangements on this 1997 collection of songs of the winter season. Taken from contemporary and traditional sources, this journey through the ages spans more than 7 centuries, while circling the globe. These songs are new, old, funny, and memorable: a few will be familiar, most a discovery. Priscilla's voice could be likened to a sonorous choir, Cindy's to the deep reedy quality of a cello, and Anne's vocal clarity to that of a flute... each is a respected name in contemporary folk music, but together they are enchanting. Jane Olivor

Songs of the Season

NEW!

It would seem that she's making quite a comeback in the 21st century, though for loyal fans it was like she never left. For 2001, she treats her fans again — the ultimate holiday gift from Jane to her fans. Includes 2 newly-composed songs by the renowned, Oscar-winning composer Stephen Schwartz (Godspell, Pocahontas) that are bound to become standards... and composer Lee Holdridge (Misty of Avalon) works magic with the arrangements on Ave Maria and a medley of Christmas classics. Songs like The Hanukkah Song and Elusive Butterfly round it out. (V966355) CD: 15.98

Jewel

Joy: A Holiday Celebration

Jewel's 1999 holiday title includes a Christmas-themed version of her hit Hands; an inspirational rendition of Ave Maria, and a Gospel Medley, which encompasses the spiritual standard Go Tell It On the Mountain, the singer's own Life Uncommon, and the Julie Gold-penned, Nanci Griffith/Bette Midler staple, From A Distance... plus Latin Song, I Wonder As I Wander, Face of Love and some traditional carols. (ATL83250) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Joan Baez

Noel

NEW!

Back in the old days of LP recording, the producers often recorded more songs than could fit on an LP. Lucky for us they kept the original masters! Originally released in 1966 and re-released for 2001, this new version contains 6 previously unreleased songs such as Burgundian Carol, Virgin Mary, and a French version of Away in a Manger... so this makes a wonderful holiday gift for any long-time Joan Baez fan. These beautiful classical arrangements of traditional Christmas songs utilize a consort of recorders, a consort of viola, lute, harpsichord, baroque organ, as well as winds, strings and percussion and Joan's perfect soprano, gentle, tasteful, dignified. (VAN79596) CD: 15.98

Judith Lynn Stillman and Friends
Christmas Remastered

This 1991 release, subtitled Classic Holiday Chamber Music, is simply and absolutely gorgeous! Internationally acclaimed pianist Judith Lynn Stillman joins with musicians from The Cleveland Orchestra, The New York Philharmonic, and other well-known orchestras to create a subtle blend of traditional carols and familiar classical music of the season, elegantly arranged for chamber ensembles. Intimate combinations of piano, violin, viola, cello, guitar, and flute weave together a sound that is sometimes joyful, sometimes pensive, and always compelling. Very highly recommended! Judy Collins

Christmas at the Biltmore Estate

Judy returns to Elektra Records for the first time in 15 years with a lovely 1997 release of holiday carols, recorded at the historic North Carolina location. (EL62120) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Linda Eder

Christmas Stays the Same

This divine diva presents 13 holiday classic carols on her 2000 release, such as The Bells of St. Paul's, Ave Maria, Little Drummer Boy, O Come O Come Emmanuel, What Child Is This?, Christmas Song and more. (ATL83408) CD: 17.98

Liz Story

The Gift

Is there anyone else in the world who could turn ordinary holiday songs into such heart-breaking works of art, dignity and beauty? If so, please write and tell us who! This artist is like a channel for some pure and glorious expression... she herself truly has The Gift. Included are a Trappist chant/benediction, a traditional Sicilian hymn, a traditional melody of Lourdes, a moving jazz-influenced treatment of We Three Kings, and a Mel Torme song; extremely recommended! 1994 (WH1151) CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

A Winter Garden

This 1995 5-song EP, subtitled A Short Collection for the Winter Season, includes Coventry Carol, her musical setting of words from a 15th century pageant. Snow and title track, on which she matches a 300-year-old poem and a traditional folk lyric with her own spectral music, and a couple of classic McKennitt reinterpretations of familiar yuletide favorites. (WB46096) CS: 8.98 CD: 12.98

Loreena McKennitt

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

A superb collection of traditional British Isles carols (and a few shimmering originals) which simply overflow with serenity and grace. The arrangements are simpler than Loreena's usual flourish, featuring her exquisite harp with viola, accordion and finger cymbals. Recorded live in 1987 in various sacred spaces (primarily Glenstal Abbey in Limerick and Guelph's Church of Our Lady), the sound is rich with a quiet beauty. Includes In Praise of Christmas, The Seasons, Balulaw, Let All That Are to Mirth Inclined. (QR102) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior

Carols & Capers

This unique and accomplished British vocalist presents 500 years of Yuletide melodies on this import album: her pure voice, accompanied by the medieval instruments of the 5-member Carnival Band, exult and celebrate. Features both remarkable arrangements of readily recognizable carols and little-known gems from Christmases past. The Boar's Head celebrates a feast featuring this rarest dish; Wassail conjures roving bands of merry-makers; the instrumental 17th-century Monseigneur Charpentier's Christmas Stomp employs traditional instruments in the style of court music from the period. Refreshing and true to its roots. (PRK9) CD: 16.98

Maggie Sansone & Ensemble Galilei

Ancient Noels

Haunting gregorian-style chants, medieval hymns and dancing carols evoke images of ancient civilizations, desert landscapes, and stone monasteries. This 1993 instrumental release is an exciting and upbeat collection of primarily little-known carols from England, Ireland, Holland, medieval Spain and its Basque country. The folk classical arrangements are performed on a wonderful array of instruments, including hammered dulcimer, medieval and Renaissance frame drums, treble and bass viols, Celtic harp, fiddle, psaltery and recorders. (NM108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone/B Rideout/A Petteway
A Scottish Christmas

From across the Highland moors... the haunting wail of fiddle and bagpipe, into the castle drawing rooms... the elegant chamber sound of viola and cello. And out in the village squares... lively country dances with hammered dulcimer and guitar. Celebrate the many moods of a Scottish Yuletide holiday, with this 1996 release from Maggie, Bonnie and Al, plus guest artists Abby Newton and Eric Rieger (the piper from the film Braveheart). Highlights include Shetland country dance tunes Christmas Day Is A Moorin, Bottom of the Punch Bowl, and Alp Is Dear, as well as other favorites performed with Scottish flair. Megha Morganfield

Winter Solstice Carols

We rejoice whenever we find holiday releases with inclusive, altered lyrics we like, and this one truly qualifies. In addition to a couple of new original Solstice tunes, here we have "Joy to the world the Goddess comes, for she is everything..." "Oh rest ye merry folks and friends..." "Oh Mother Earth our sacred home, how still we see you lie..." "Voices we have heard on high..." "Hark the time has come to sing!" — angel images have been replaced with the universal community of people on earth. Lyrics are included with CD (not cassette), so you can easily adapt these songs for your own use. (MGH10) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

MotherTongue

This Winter's Night

On this 1994 release subtitled Music For the Winter Solstice, the ritual mixed chorus of the EarthSpirit Community presents a beautiful and upbeat blend of voices, Celtic harp, African drums, Renaissance instruments and keyboard. Includes Winter Solstice Sunrise, Wintry Queen, Old Woman, The Fairest Maid, Gala Carry Us Home, and assorted short verse and storytelling. A great way to celebrate the winter holidays with earth-based material many of us can relate to! (ESC6) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Noirin Ni Riain w/Monks of Glenstal

The Darkest Midnight

The simple but powerful sound of Noirin's stunning voice combined with the meditative sound of the monastic chorus from Glenstal Abbey resounds off of the ancient stones of a Gaelic church. On this 1992 release subtitled Religious Songs from the Irish Tradition, they perform the 17th and 18th carols of Livia Wadding and William Devereaux (of the Fenna diocese in County Westford, Ireland), with stark, unaccompanied grace. The carols are sung both in English and Gaelic and includes such songs as The Seven Joices of Mary, Christmas Day Is Come, Song for New Year's Day, O Ria Virgo/O Blessed Virgin, and Scathluirich Mhuine/Mary's Breastplate. Perfect for the winter holiday season and way beyond. (BND332) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Harmony - The Christmas Songs

The quaters — I mean quirs — of quietest acappella harmony turn their talents to holiday music on this 1994 release. Primarily familiar songs, great for adding your own harmony lines. (SCT75448) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Odetta

Christmas Spirituals

This collection of Black American spirituals, while appropriate to the holiday season, is a pleasure all year, because none of these gospel songs are specifically about Christmas! Odetta harnesses her deep, distinctive, flexible, far-ranging, bone-shaking voice with passion and sensitivity, making spirituals like Go Tell It On the Mountain and Shout For Joy fresh and inspiring with her brilliant interpretations. Olympia's Daughters

Winter Solstice Live!

This 20+ voice acappella women's ensemble, with Unitarian-Universalist roots, presents a most excellent 1996 recording in celebration of the Winter Solstice. In the Libano tradition, the 20 rounds, chants, songs and carols come from a wide variety of sources, from early Renaissance to contemporary: Hungarian folk melody, Welsh, African, 16th century Spanish villancico, e.e. cummings, Linda Hirachhorn, Jan Harmon (Libano fans will recognize her name) and even some originals. And they've altered some lyrics and pronouns on a few traditional tunes here, such as Good Rest Ye (Merry Gentlefolk) in which the Christmas-specific references are changed to Winter and Solstice ones. The sound is harmonious and festive, and makes a great alternative to traditional holiday music; highly recommended! (OD1012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ron Merritt with Kathy Mann

The Christmas Collection

This atmospheric 1997 holiday release includes a mix of solo piano by Ron, piano and flute duets by Ron and Kathy, and two pieces with haunting bass-flutistike vocals by Kathy subtly interspersed. Beautifully arranged traditional and familiar pieces: We Three Kings, O Holy Night, Angels We Have Heard On High and more. (FCM1004) CD: 15.98

Rosemary Clooney

Let It Snow

Is there a more treasured holiday memory than seeing Bing Crosby and Rosemary Clooney in the film White Christmas? That voice, the casual way with a lyric that made her always sound like she was singing just for you... This 2001 collection contains her beautiful version of the title song from that motion picture along with 11 other timeless holiday favorites, beautifully arranged for full orchestra. Sally Oldfield & Terry Oldfield

Star of Heaven

Before there was "New Age," there were the Oldfield siblings. Mike Oldfield with his Tubular Bells, brother Terry, and sister Sally who developed a large cult following in the US in the mid 70's with her amazing album Water Bearer (I just checked, and am very sad to find that my copy is missing, even tho I'd have nowhere to play it... it featured exquisite, multi-tracked vocals — over a decade before Enya, mind you — on all original songs, on which she played every single one of a plethora of instruments). Anyway, we've been trying to add one of her works to our catalog for years, and here's our first success. Her voice is still a pleasure to behold: words like majestic, pure, grace-full and celestial come to mind, on her chant-like vocals on Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring and Terry's original 23-minute Ave Maria. And listen, if you have a copy of Water Bearer you'd part with, would you let me know? (NW184) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Shawn Colvin

Holiday Songs and Lullabies

Shawn recorded this 1998 collection of seasonal holiday classics and traditional children's lullabies while she was 8 1/2 months pregnant with her first child, Caledonia-Jean Marie. The inspiration came from Lullabies & Night Songs, a book of lullabies illustrated by (my favorite children's illustrator) Maurice Sendak, which was given to Shawn by her parents when she was 8 and which she cherished throughout her childhood. And her memories of the Colvin family singing Christmas carols in 4-part harmony in the car all year-round provided a warm touchstone for the recording of this album. (COL89550) CS: 11.98

Therapy Sisters

Co-dependent Christmas

0712

A twinge tune about the co-dependent family at Christmas. The one about Santa going to therapy. In 1998, the Sisters have added 7 new songs to most of the ones many of you have known and loved on cassette, to bring you an enlarged and even better 15-track version of this best-selling classic! Includes the parody Pachelbel's Tantrum, The 12 Days of Analysis, and their generic holiday song, Happy Whatever You're Having. Give the gift of head-shrinking this holiday season. Therapy Sisters style! (TS1506) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Chorale

Peace

This men's chorus, known in the Dallas/Fort Worth area for raising significant funds and services for people living with AIDS, presents an elegant, dignified, and joyful program of holiday music. 150 voices strong. Strings, winds, horns, percussion and piano accompany beautifully. Includes Ave Maria, Who Is She That Travels?, Angels' Carol, Gloria A Fanfare for Christmas. (TCC2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Simply Christmas

The Chorale's 1998 Christmas offering is a simple and lovely collection of traditional favorites. Accompanied only by piano, piccolo, flute and oboe, their voices ring out on Carol of the Bells, Do You Hear What I Hear?, The First Noel, Silent Night as well as the Appalachian carol, I Wonder As I Wander and the French Veni, Veni, Emmanuel. Perfect for when the fire turns down low. (TCC1100) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Remember when holiday time meant a fur-bedecked room, taking you to Gumbel's toy department and then to Horn and Hardart's Automat for lunch? Of course you don't, unless you're a 50-year-old New Yorker. If you are, this could be the soundtrack to these memories. Eartha Kitt, Julie London, Rosemary Clooney, Ella Fitzgerald, Peggy Lee, Lana Horne, Dinah Washington and a bevy of other recreate the holiday sound of the late 50's and early 60's, when the word was broadcast in black and white and the year 2000 was only a distant dream. Women of the Calabash

The Kwanzaa Album

After thrilling audiences worldwide for over 20 years with their dynamic stage presence (including women's music festivals), this dramatic, amazing trio of singing percussionists has finally released just as magnificent a debut release in 1998 — crisp, exciting, and one of the finest releases we've added to our listings in years. Their use of different varieties of percussion instruments — many hand-crafted by their leader, Madeleine Yayoide — explodes the air with harmonious percussive beauty. Some of the repertoire is inspired by the classic stories, and history of this important African-American holiday, but this album clamors, and deserves, to be heard all holiday through the year. With the exception of one track — Lift Every Voice and Sing, featuring the Free Voices of Praise Choir — every instrument and every vocal is performed by the 3 women of the trio, though you'll feel sure you are listening to a much larger ensemble. The group flows effortlessly from language to language on this trip through the African diaspora: you'll hear mbira (thumb piano), balafon (African marimba), steel-drum, calypso, calabash (rattles), and their harmonizing voices. Includes Nkosi Sikelel' iXhosa, the anthem of the African national Congress; Ohuru Africa, Seven Principles, and more, with short informational narrations at the beginning of some selections. Very, very highly recommended! (BR1823) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Animal Hildegard von Bingen

Circle of Wisdom 0685 (4)
A 900th birthday celebration!! This rich and contemplative album is a collection of the chants of Hildegard von Bingen (1098-1179), medieval nun, abbess and mystic — which were sung by the nuns of her abbey, day after day, after year, but not written down until near her death. The voices of the group's 14 women, rising and circling with Hildegard's stunning melodies, are full of the earthy spirituality of the middle ages; medieval fiddle and flute accompany. 1000: A Mass For The End Of Time

Their 2000 release is appropriately timed, as they are singing music that was composed exactly 1000 years ago, when the new millennium was at hand and the world was witnessing the same hysteria and fear that accompanied the onset of this one. It also inspired an intense burst of creativity in Christian liturgy and music, which this recording captures beautifully. This renowned vocal ensemble has recreated an Ascension Mass based on late 10th and early 11th-century French and British sources, reflecting the era's obsession with the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgement. (HMU7224) CD: 18.98

A Lammas Ladymass

This 1998 release presents chants and polyphony of votive masses in Mary's honor, celebrated weekly or even daily in medieval England. Mary was often worshipped more fervently than Jesus, as one member of the ensemble points out: "She got the best music, the best poetry." Medieval England celebrated both the Assumption of the Virgin Mary and her Coronation during Lammas, the Celtic festival of harvest, marking the end of summer and the beginning of autumn. "We have drawn on 13th and 14th century repertoire to create a Ladymass for the summer portion of the church year, as it might have been sung around the feast of Mary's Assumption in August. To the settings of the liturgical texts of the Ladymass, we have added several devotional works in praise of Mary." (HMU90722) CD: 18.98

An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 13th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoire. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1992 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly presented with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU7080) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4/ Hildegard von Bingen

11,000 Virgins 0764 (4)
The members of our favorite classical female vocal quartet turn their talents toward the music of the pivotal and amazing medieval composer, for this 1997 release. Hildegard's rhapsodic chants, inspired by the legend of St. Ursula and the Eleven Thousand Virgins, are full of imagery, weaving a hypnotic web of sound. These 4, who sing with an ethereal clarity that is absolutely captivating, are the ideal interpreters of this music. (HMU7200) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Ars Femina Ensem/Francesca Caccini

La Liberazione di Ruggiero
Francesca Caccini (1587-1640) was a singer, harpsichordist, lutenist, and court composer to the Medici family of 17th-century Florence, where the musical genre we now know as opera flourished. Her work is brought to life by the Ars Femina Ensemble, dedicated to researching, reclaiming and recording music by early women composers. This opera is based on 3 cantos from an epic Renaissance poem, Orlando Furioso; it depicts an intriguing world of fantasy and reality as the nephew of Charlemagne struggles and chooses between love and fame. Beautifully performed and interpreted, the ensemble deserves much praise for this effort, which is one of the only recorded operatic works by a woman to our knowledge. Libretto included; most highly recommended. (NAN003) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's

Gregorian Chant: Ave Maria

The calm, stilling voices of the nuns of St. Cecilia's Abbey on the Isle of Wight radiate purity of heart and depth of their devotion; ancient and timeless. (NW160) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cello

Subliminal Blues & Greens

Defying a traditional image, this unique 4-woman classically-trained all-cello quartet has joined a growing number of musical groups pioneering the next wave of chamber music. On this 1996 release, they perform an eclectic yet accessible repertoire that runs the gamut from world music to classical... these compositions by 5 different "young and hip" American composers were written specifically for the album. Unpredictable and broadly appealing, this dynamic group captivates younger and older audiences across the US and Europe. (DNT1011) CD: 18.98

Charlotte Church

If you loved her debut and have been hoping for additional material by the 13-year old Welsh diva, this 1999 release is here! In addition to 16 of the world's favorite arias, it includes Just Wave Hello, written especially for the artist and her appearance in a worldwide millennium Ford TV commercial. But in case you're not excited by TV or Ford or a million dollar ad campaign, it still includes a beautiful and worthwhile repertoire by an amazing soprano: Gershwin's Summer Time, the traditional She Moved Through the Fair, Dvorak's Songs My Mother Taught Me, Rossini's La Pasticceria, J.S. Bach's If Thou Art Near, Mozart's Tell Me What Love Is, Brahms' Lullaby. (SON64356) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Charlotte Church

Voice of an Angel

This is the chart-topping debut album by the world's youngest classical diva — and age aside, one of the world's most amazing sopranos of any age. Born in Wales, she recorded this 1998 album when she was 12, and you will be astounded by the richness, maturity, power, purity and exquisite beauty of her voice. In fact, it debuted at #1 on the classical crossover chart, reaching double-platinum within 5 weeks of its release in the UK, and close to that in the US. Her repertoire consists of sacred music such as Amazing Grace, Ave Maria and Andrew Lloyd Webber's Pie Jesu from his Requiem, as well as Celtic classics like My Lagan Love, plus several Welsh folk songs performed in the beautiful Welsh language. She is accompanied here by harp and Celtic harp, and by the Orchestra and Chorus of the Welsh National Orchestra. An inspiring gift for any girl studying classical music, highly recommended; of course, for adults too. (SON80857) CD: 18.98

Clara Schumann/ Yoshiko Iwai

Piano Music

As the wife of famous composer Robert Schumann, Clara Schumann had a great many limits imposed upon her own time and energy to compose. While giving her husband the support and encouragement he needed, she did her best to continue her own career. During her lifetime she was a distinguished concert artist, but provided her husband's compositions rather than her own. On this 1999 release, performed by award-winning pianist Yoshiko Iwai in 1990, we are treated to a beautiful collection of Clara Schumann's own piano pieces, reflecting her superb musical education and natural talent. Daughters of Mary

Spirit of the Daughters of Mary

From the Catalin Mountains and a religious congregation of nuns known as The Daughters of Mary comes this 1997 recording of Gregorian chant. The Sisters lift their voices in the spirit of prayer and song in this ancient form of praise. Having chosen to live a religious life based on an age-old tradition, they commit themselves to a life of prayer, contemplation, community and good works. Gregorian chant is a major component of that life as these Sisters chant each morning, noon and night. Capturing the essence of this ancient meditative prayer, the music transports the listener to the echoing halls of a stone abbey. (ET77084) CS: 8.98 CD: 18.98

Ensemble Alcatraz with Kitka

Cantigas de Amigo

Paying tribute to the Divine Feminine as embodied by the Virgin Mary, this 2000 recording features 13th century Galician-Portuguese songs and dances of love, longing and devotion. The premiere women's vocal ensemble Kitka performs along with the internationally acclaimed 5-member Ensemble Alcatraz, which includes Cheryl Ann Fulton, one of America's leading historical harpists (whose solo albums have been featured in LadySlipper's pages). These selections, which tell stories of and sing praises to the miracles of the Blessed Virgin, were composed in Spain's pilgrimage region of Santiago de Compostela. You'll hear recorders, psalter, vielle, rebec and percussion, in addition to harp and voices. (DOR90289) CD: 17.98

Fanny Mendelssohn

Lieder & Trio

In 1847, just a few days before the first public performance of any of her compositions, Fanny Mendelssohn died unexpectedly. She spent her life staging private concerts to showcase her compositions, because in her position as a woman she was unable to pursue a career as a composer as her brother Felix did. She was, however, among her contemporaries, considered to be just as gifted as her brother, and towards the end of her life she defied her father and published a number of her works, gaining enthusiastic critical acclaim. This collection, performed by soprano Donna Brown, pianist Francois Tiliard, and Trio Brantano, displays her extraordinary talent as a composer of lieder, and allows us to experience the gifts of a woman who has been long overlooked. Florence Price/ Women's Philharmonic

The Oak/ Miss. River Suite/ Symphony #3

Florence Price was an outstanding, trail-blazing, African-American classical composer. Born into a climate of unrest, activism and the cultural movement called the Harlem Renaissance in 1897, she began composing at age 11 and continued to write symphonies, chamber works, arrangements for spirituals, and solo piano works until her death in 1963. This 2001 release features 3 of her compositions: The Oak, Mississippi River Suite, and the 4 movements of Symphony No. 3 in C Minor, performed by the Women's Philharmonic under the direction of conductor Apo Hsu. Grail Singers

Women's Celebration/Chant & Harmony

This beautiful collection of chant and chant-inspired choral selections, released in 1994, celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Grail — an ecumenical multi-national organization of women which has been committed to spirituality, ecology, feminism, the arts and social justice since 1944. Convinced that the weaving of song into the pattern of daily life is the basis of a vital musical culture, the 18 women of the choir, ranging in age from 17 to 67, developed a treasury of song, ranging from Gregorian chant through polyphony and contemporary compositions. The 28 pieces, sung in Latin and English, impart a deeply prayerful, meditative spirit; you may hear some ambient noises which occurred naturally during the recording session, including birds, cicadas, the creaking of the barn at Grailville, and the wind. Hildegard von Bingen

A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. This 1983 release, one of the first of the Hildegard 'revival' albums, is beautifully performed by soprano Emma Kirkby, with Gothic Voices. (NYP66039) CS: 14.98 CD: 18.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Sequentia

Canticles of Ecstasy

On this 1994 release, the medieval ensemble Sequentia (which consists of a 7-woman vocal ensemble, 2 fiddles and medieval harp) brings an incandescent and authentic interpretation to Hildegard's original works. Extensive notes explain Hildegard's essentially feminist interpretations of biblical texts, attributing the victory of womanhood as a reversal of the Fall, present in the feminine form (female form) — manifest in the divine and victorious Maria, as well as in Cantigas who is at once the Bride of the Song of Songs, Divine Wisdom, and Charity of the New Testament. Very recommended for the penetrating scholarship in the written material as well as for the authenticity and beauty of the musical presentation. (DHN77320) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen Heavenly Revelations

Hildegard von Bingen, in the tradition of many female composers, was not popular during her lifetime. Given to the convent by her parents as a little girl at eight years old, she spent her life there, composing a great body of work as both musician and poet. This hour-long collection of hymns, sequences, antiphons, and responds, recorded in '93, is a beautiful representation of the sensuality of Hildegard's work, including are English translations for all chants, displaying her colorful imagery and ethereal accounts of visions and inspirations, as well as her individualistic view of high Benedictinism. (NAX550998) CD: 8.98

Hildegard von Bingen Illumination: Fire of the Spirit

Continuing the theme of "re-composing" ancient music and texts in a modern synthesized context that he first explored on Vision, Richard Souther's 1997 release again explores Hildegard von Bingen's timeless legacy. Richard's electronics and acoustic piano again blends with the rich soprano of Benedictine prioress Sister Germaine Fritz. This album also adds Gaelic vocalist Niamh Ni Rian, Katie McMahon and Davy Spillane of Riverdance and the 4-woman quartet Cello. (SON25853) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Mimi Dye Spiritual Songs of Hildegard

There are many albums of music by Hildegard von Bingen, but this one is unique: this former student of Itzhak Perlman has adapted Hildegard's music for solo violin. Mini performs 14 compositions by Hildegard, plus 2 related originals, with purity of style and warmth of tone. The resulting environment of soothing, comforting, and inspiring sound offers meditative moments of peace and healing. A great way to celebrate Hildegard's 901st (and 902nd, and...) birthday! (MDY924) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Jane Webster Wings of Passion

This 1998 release bestows a contemporary, ambient treatment upon the works of Hildegard, by combining the angelic soprano of Jane Webster and keyboards, layered over a subtle percussion track, with the original melodies and Latin texts written by the prolific mystic. Title translations include: O Sweetest Lover, As A Honeycomb Dipping With Honey, The Host of Virgins; English translations are provided for some of the lyrics which relate to St. Ursula and the 11,000 virgins. Serene and tranquil, and deeply beautiful. (HW488) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Norma Gentile Meditation Chants

Norma Gentile's unaccompanied bell-like soprano graces her interpretations of Hildegard's poetry with serene beauty. Perspectives gained from her study of voice, vibrational healing and music history inform the sound and feel of this 1996 recording. The ethereal chant cycle featured, Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, comes from Hildegard's first theological text Scivias, which is based on a series of 26 visions. This cycle is a musical rendering of her final vision, in which Hildegard experienced "a sound like the voice of a multitude singing in harmony, in praise of the celestial hierarchy." The resulting song cycle characterizes Hildegard's belief that music makes the soul symphonic. (SKR1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lara St. John

Bach: Works for Violin Solo

This virtuosic violinist has posed the question, "What is classical music if not the epitome of sensuality, passion and understated eroticism that popular music, even with all of its energy and life, cannot even begin to touch?" One of the reasons we're offering this excellent but controversial 1996 recording is because so many stores are refusing to carry it. (To explain the cover features the bare torso of the 24-year old artist — looking much younger to many, apparently — in a spartan b&w photo in which the violin covers her breasts... so without considering the artist's age or wishes, reviewers write only about the packaging, and male chain-store owners have decided this is child pornography... never mind the violent, misogynist stuff depicted in so much popular music. We're reminded of how we cannot use some of the most beautiful images of bare-breasted women on our catalog covers, because the Postmaster will not allow them through the mail...) Back to the recording: she performs Bach's Partita No. 2 in D Minor (and with the well-known Chaconne/Giaccone) and Sonata No. 2 in C Major, with amazing strength, refinement, richness, tension, and beauty of phrasing. And in her words, "If this unusual album cover is responsible for even a few more people hearing and loving these incredible great works of Bach, then to me it is all worthwhile" (WTP5180) CD: 17.98

Lara St. John Gypsy

Lara has done it again, in every sense! This 1997 release features some of the most beautiful, heart-breaking, breathless rhapsodies, nocturnes, and fantasies ever written for violin and associated with "Gypsy" music. (While two are traditional compositions, others are by classical and contemporary composers who have interpreted Gypsy themes and melodies.) Her technique and skill are almost beyond belief for such a young artist... listen to her performance of Zigeunerweisen, by Pablo de Sarasate! And, she has again wrapped her amazing music in a cover which will no doubt shock or unsettle some of the stiff classical crowd. (Her black leather jacket isn't exactly buttoned up, you see...) We don't know whether once again, CD stores will refuse to stock such a magnificent work from such an incredibly talented musician, but if they do, that's obscenity in our opinion! Highly recommended! (WTP5185) CD: 17.98

Maria Callas Her Greatest Hits

Maria Callas was not only a legend in her own time, she was a veritable cyclone of charisma, controversy, coquetry, and consummate skill. Broadway's The Master Class, while fascinating, barely skims the surface of her deep, divinely dramatic personality. On this moderately-priced CD, you can hear her magnificent voice at its most lovely and most thrilling. Selections from Medea and La Gioconda demonstrate the full range of her instrument and illustrate her evocative emotional intensity, and 4 excerpts from La Traviata are particularly haunting. Recommended! (LEG387) CD: 8.98

Marian Anderson Softly Awakes My Heart

Whoever your musical taste, you shouldn't miss the chance to hear the incomparable Marian Anderson on this 1999 compilation of original recordings from 1928-1946. A favorite with European audiences and the first African-American soloist to appear with the NY Metropolitan Opera Company, Marian Anderson was hailed by Toscanini as having a voice that "is heard but once in a hundred years." This release showcases that spine-tingling voice on 22 songs; half of them spirituals, the other half a mix of opera, classical selections, and romantic songs. Her renditions of Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child, Ave Maria, and Go Down Moses are alone worth the price of the CD and will probably give you goosebumps — highly recommended! (ASV5282) CD: 15.98

Mediaeval Baebes Undrentide

The theme is springtime and reawakening... an alluring magical world of spells, sexy maidens, lovers' potions, drinking songs and sexual liaisons. This 2000 release marks a significant and evolutionary musical progression for the ensemble — produced by the legendary musician and iconoclast John Cale (founding member of the Velvet Underground), who worked with the Baebes to create a mesmerizing soundscape with a decidedly 21st century attitude. Includes Maiden in the Mor Lay, Dance of the Troika, Summerisle, Isabella, Now Welcome Summer. (NET30156) CD: 16.98

Mediaeval Baebes Wordes Blysse

The members of this unique 12-woman ensemble have been described as acid-mad mistresses of the Middle Ages music scene! Don't let this description mislead you: on this 1999 release, they perform fascinating pieces, full of romantic, religious, and mystical references — some scappellie, others with period instrumentation — in a variety of interesting Middle Ages dialects, from a wide variety of lands. Even their booklet is full of intriguing imagery, crowns of thorns everywhere. Booklet provides translations, and a suggestion of the long-ago world brought to life. (VIR30142) CD: 15.98

Nuns of the Abbey of Regina Laudis Women in Chant: Recordare

The artwork features pictures of nuns in habits with chainsaws, so right away we knew this is a release we didn't want to miss — it's a strong depiction of the independent and self-sufficient lives of communities of religious women. On their 2001 release, the Benedictine Nuns from the hills of the Connecticut town of Bethlehem (no kidding) invite us to enter their sacred cloister. Subtitled Remembering the Mysteries in the Life of Jesus, Son of Mary, this rare choral celebration honors Jesus through the life of Mary. Featuring meditations read by Mother Dolores Hart (in her previous life, the actress who gave Elvis his first on-screen kiss!), they bring together for the first time Gregorian plainchant and the spoken prayer of the Rosary. (SND123) CD: 16.98

Sarband/ Various Women Composers Sacred Women

Subtitled Women as Composers and Performers of Medieval Chant, this 2001 release is a mesmerizing program of early Christian women's chants — expressions of women's spirituality, rooted in mysticism and seeking ecstatic connection with the infinite — in spite of a 4th-century ban which forbade women's chants in the liturgy. Founded to demonstrate the relationships between European early music and the musical cultures of Islam, Sarband is a fascinating, lively and authentic international ensemble of musicians from several Middle Eastern and European countries, including Lebanese vocalist Fadia El-Hage (known to our listeners for her work with Vox) and UK vocalist and shawm/baglamas player Belinda Sykes. Here they perform chants from Middle Eastern churches, works by Hildegard, chants by Kassia, the most significant female composer of Byzantine church music who wrote during 9th century, and from Codex de las Huelgas, a large collection of liturgical and secular works sung daily by the Cistercian nuns of the convent of Las Huelgas de Burgos. Recommended! (DOR93235) CD: 17.98

Savay El Milagro de Guadalupe

In this 1999 follow-up to Guadalupe: Virgin de los Indios, the hypnotic rhythms of Aztec drums and flutes again blend with the 7 voices of the ensemble to delve deeper into the unique music that fused European and Meso-American influences in 16th-century Mexico. This music reflects the shared heritage of the Virgin of Guadalupe, known as the patron saint of Latin America in Roman Catholicism, with the Aztec "Mother Goddess" known as Tonantzin. A focus of the release is the re-creation of an Aztec processional drum song used when the miraculous cloth, or tilma, was presented in the Mexico City Cathedral. The basis of the song was originally used to praise Tonantzin. (IAG214) CD: 15.98

Savay Guadalupe: Virgen de los Indios

This 1998 release by the mixed-gender choral group is the stunning first-recorded recreation of sacred music written in the late 1500's by Aztec descendants in honor of the Virgin of Guadalupe, who appeared to the Nahua Indian Juan Diego in 1531 (10 years after the Aztec conquest by Cortes) on the very hill where the Aztecs had worshipped the goddess Tonantzin ("Our Mother"). This event triggered millions of conversions to Christianity, and the subsequent fusion of European and Indigenous cultures... and demonstrates how Goddesses have been absorbed/transformed into Christianity. The Virgin of Guadalupe, referred to as the Queen of the Heavens, continues to be a major figure in the Catholic Church of the Americas, particularly with millions of US Latinos. The 7 harmonizing voices of SAVAY (San Antonio Vocal Arts Ensemble) combine with traditional wind and percussion instruments of the Aztecs, yielding a spellbinding fusion of cultures and music — recommended! Sharon Isbin Dreams of a World

The reigning queen of classical guitar presents this 1999 recital recording of little-known treasures of the world. The international cast of composers attests to a stimulating mix of repertoires, ranging from the works of Spanish master Enriquez Granados to a setting of the beloved Lonesome Air by the Japanese sound colorist, Toro Takemitsu. A world premiere work includes John Duarte's Appalachian Dreams, Op. 21, written specifically for Sharon, and the first performance of Naomi Shemer's Four Songs as arranged for classical guitar. (TEL25736) CD: 16.98

Various Composers The Medieval Lady

The late duo Elizabethan Conversation (with guest soprano Andrea Folan) presents a beautiful program of Medieval Chant, Songs & Dances and then several courtly 16th & 17th Century Songs & Lute Duets, most by female composers. Beginning with 12th century works, they perform compositions by Countess of Dia, Queen Blanche, Lady Kiligrew, Hildegard von Bingen, and others — including several by "Anonymous". Period instruments are employed: symphonia, medieval fiddle, recorders, viola da gamba, psaltery, organetto, and lute. It's heartening that this exquisite music by women from the era is being preserved, and not just music about women. (LEO340) CD: 15.98

Various Artists Dreams of Desire

Subtitled Classics for Bedtime, this 1997 release is a collection of solo piano, violin and orchestral favorites for romance, rest time, going to bed and any quiet, intimate times. Many are well-known favorites by Bach, Pachelbel, Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms, Stravinsky, Copland; some were composed specifically as lullabies, some convey a spirit of repose, others of romance. The packaging features exclusively commissioned photography by Judy Francesconi, making this edition, like its predecessors in the Classical Erotica series, the perfect bedtime companion for lovers. (RS0390) CD: 15.98

Various Artists Classical Erotica

If you are familiar with Sensual Classics, Too, you'll know it's an album of classical music marketed specifically to gay men; consider this one a similarly-targeted release for the lesbian community. This 1995 romantic journey through some of the world's most famous sensual orchestral works features music by male composers such as Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, and Puccini. Striking album artwork by lesbian photographer Judy Francesconi, a beautiful erotic photograph of two women passionately engaged. (RS0280) CD: 15.95

Various Artists Classical Erotica II

The follow-up to the highly successful first volume is released in Nov. 1995; again, Judy Francesconi's photographic art graces the cover. In addition to classical selections by male composers, this volume features Marge Adam performing her original Beautiful Soul/Tender Lady, plus contemporary romantic compositions like Leonard Bernstein's Somewhere from West Side Story. Various Artists Lesbian American Composers

Now on sale! This 1998 release is a welcome addition to the otherwise more male-dominated genre of gay classical composers. Compositions by 10 living composers are featured, several performed by the composers themselves... includes Pauline Oliveros, the Canadian clannet/piano duo Queen Mab, Hunt Tiles playing an original rag, and an excerpt by Paula Kemper from the opera Patience and Sarah. "As beautiful, strong and diverse as the voices of women in America today, the music of these ten lesbian American composers speaks to the heart, soul and conscience of our times." (CR780) CD: 12.95

Various Artists Gay American Composers

Now on sale! The booklet will inform you that throughout this century, gay composers have played a central role in the maturing art form of American classical music. This 1996 compilation, which includes both instrumental and vocal pieces written by gay male composers and performed by both male and female soloists and ensembles (including Kronos Quartet), is a good way to dip a toe into the world of modern classical music. The liner notes convey each composer's thoughts on the "gayness" of his music. (CR721) CD: 12.95

Various Artists Gay American Composers, Vol. 2

Also on sale! This 1997 volume focuses not on openly gay contemporary composers as did the first volume, but rather on legends of American music who weren't necessarily out. Included are works by Aaron Copland, Samuel Barber, John Cage, Virgil Thomson, Harry Partch and others, reflecting the romantic, rational and rebellious terrain of American classical music. (CR750) CD: 12.95

Various Artists Sensual Classics, Too

"Over 75 Minutes of Musical Passion" packaged for a gay audience (on the cover is a photograph of two men in a romantic embrace), this classical compilation includes concertos, nocturnes, pavanés and symphonies by Chopin, Beethoven, Schubert, etc. The sale-priced cassette makes a sweet little stocking-stuffer! Vox From Spain to Spain

With members from six European countries, Vox creates especially meaningful reinterpretations of early Spanish music, and a musical odyssey through Spain, Africa and South America from 711 A.D. forward. Their 1992 album explores developments in music and history, unpacking the cultural legacy of the Christians, Moors, and Jews who coexisted at a time of artistic flowering. Medieval instruments (especially the Arabic oud), African, Middle Eastern, and Latin percussion, subtle synth orchestrations, lead vocals by a spectacular female trio (Fadia El-Hage, Catherine Rey and Rose Blier-Shah), and a woman-directed male choir communicate both the sound and spirit of their medieval selections... from the meditative beauty of Bells for the Virgin, to the lyrical yearning of Bearer of Cups, to the glory of Maremagnum, to the dance drama of Deus in Machina. The majority of compositions are about the Mother of God/Holy Mary. Excellent, fascinating historical notes included; highly recommended! (RLM9000) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Vox/Hildegard von Bingen Diadema

On this exceptional release, the European group Vox imaginatively adapts profound religious musical compositions by Hildegard von Bingen, the 12th century German mystic, for contemporary audiences. Medieval strings, woodwinds and percussion blend with atmospheric synthesizers and a virtuosic trio of female singers, whose soaring voices are both powerful and ethereal. The treatment maintains the purity and mysticism of the original hymns, while bringing them into a virtual cathedral. Luminous to the ears, and the packaging of the CD is visually pulchre as well. Beautiful, womanly lyrics are contained in the hymns, performed in Latin, including To the Eleven Thousand Virgins, When the Voice of the Blood of Unleavened Bread, To Mary. Global

La Sal de la Vida

This 1997 collaboration features 3 excellent vocalists from different cultures: Rasha (Sudanese, now living in Spain), Usha (Galician, northern Spain) and Maria Salgado (Castilian, Spain)... celebrating their diverse backgrounds and musical expressions on this audio delight. Primarily in Spanish and Portuguese plus a few in Sudanese, accompanied by Xesus Pimentel's acoustic flamenco guitar stylings and Rasha's North African percussion, the songs each feature 1, 2, or all 3 of the women on vocals. Some are lively, others mournful, some date back to the 12th century while others are more contemporary. But they are all evocative of deep emotion and pure beauty; highly recommended! (INM3235) CD: 17.95

Various Artists Global Transmissions (2-CD Set)

From Irish reels to gawwel, Middle Eastern fusion, and Afro-Peruvian soul... the Narada label always issues exciting and worthwhile compilations, and this 2000 double World Music Sampler is no exception. Drawing primarily from Narada and Real World releases, it features tracks by Susana Baca, Zap Mama, Yungchen Lhamo, Sheila Chandra, the very fabulous Life Downs (whose solo release we've also just added - don't miss it!), Maryam Mursal, the ensembles Axiom of Choice, Vas and Ahan, plus John Whelan, Oscar Lopez, Afro Celt Sound System and many more from all around the planet. (NA50130) CD: 16.95

Various Artists Voice: Music From Women of the World

If I had to compile an album with some of my very favorite artists and tracks, it might look something like this 1999 release! It features some of the world's most creative song musicians, who also happen to have some of the most transcendent voices: Laura Love, Loreena McKennitt, Mercedes Boss, Susana Baca, Deep Forest with Marta Sebestyan (and the Grammy-winning Mata's Song), Caroline Lavelle, Victoria Williams, Dead Can Dance, Tish Hinojosa, Madeleine Peyroux, Clannad, Najma, Jane Siberry (who contributes liner notes), and more. As Jane writes, "They are the future looking back at the music of their and other cultures. These women are preserving traditional styles before they are lost. They have rescued a connection to the past that perhaps gives us keys to the spirit of our musical ancestors." Highly recommended! (RH75613) CD: 16.95

Various Artists Women of Spirit

Our friend Jennifer Enhorn writes that this 1998 compilation is "a convergence of extraordinary musical muses from around the world. Each of these women has pioneered and persevered. By defying long-standing musical and cultural categorizations, they are redefining contemporary music and connecting the past with the present through song. These 13 women remind us that spirit and music are so thoroughly intertwined; it's sometimes tough to distinguish between the two." What an incredibly interesting group of artists: Karen Matheson of Capersville performs with Hias del Sol (Soboba), 2 sisters from Guinea; Toshi Reagan sings A Song with her mom Bernice Johnson Reagan of Sweet Honey; there's Cassandra Wilson, Susana Baca, Ani DiFranco, Tarika Rasha, and many more. If you're looking for a delicious slice of the world on a single disc, look no further! (PUT137) CS: 8.95

Various Artists Anthology of Sacred World Music 1

Take a trip around the globe and into the ecstatic world of sacred sound — for pennies! On this specially-priced 1997 anthology you'll find Ireland's "Voice of an Angel," Morin ni Rian... Vietnamese chants, songs and poetry from Thich Nhat Hanh, Sister Chan Khong and the monks and nuns of a Zen monastery... the Benedictine Nuns of Regina Laudis... flute meditations of a former Tibetan monk... mesmerizing Sufi music of the whirling dervishes... chant from Morocco, India, and Senegal... and more rare moments from the Fes Festival of World Sacred Music, held annually in Morocco. (SND6) CD: 9.95

Various Artists Gifted: Women of the World

This 2001 release brings together 8 extraordinary female voices from cultures around the globe, in celebration of the female experience — from the contemporary everyday to the sacred realm of the Goddess. In different tongues and with individual spiritual visions, the following artists contribute timeless and exquisite performances: Sheila Chandra (Song to the Siren), Susana Baca, Susheela Raman (Mamasalu), Yungchen Lhamo (Incantation) — you've seen solo recordings by these artists in our listings — plus from Greece, Eleftheria Aravakaki's Sappho, as well as artists from Mali, Spain and India. And sales benefit Wilans, a non-profit human rights organization involved in a variety of women-oriented projects — so your purchase does further good in the world. Recommended! (RW60033) CD: 15.95

Latina

Bebel Gilberto Tanto Tempo

Continuing the esteemed Gilberto legacy, the daughter of bossa nova master Joao Gilberto has created a modern classic with her critically acclaimed 2000 debut. With the help of several Portuguese music veterans, she transports us back to the golden age of bossa nova, when it effortlessly crossed musical boundaries between Brazilian, pop, and jazz music. Her cool, lovely voice lends its magic to brilliant arrangements with a modernist angle, featuring contributions from young electro-brazilophiles Smoke City. Includes gems such as August Day Song, Sem Contencao. (SIX57036) CD: 16.95

Buena Vista Social Club Presents Omara Portuondo

A key artist in the original Buena Vista sessions, Omara was one of the most talked-about "discoveries" to emerge from the project, and has since established a name for herself as a talented performer, touring widely with Ibrahim Ferrer. On this 2000 album, which represents the first reunion of the original Buena Vista musicians since the landmark sessions, she performs ballads and uptempo numbers with full band support, including Ibrahim Ferrer, Ruben Gonzalez, Compay Segundo, and Eliades Ochoa. The stirring nostalgia of these romantic numbers, recorded in Havana, captures a lost era of music that has been resurrected by a new generation of music fans. Includes Ella y Yo (She and I). Irene Ferrera Soy de Ti / I Am Yours

This long-awaited summer 1999 release contains 10 original songs in Spanish and English (plus a traditional gaita), on which Afro-Latin percussion, steel drums, violin, cuatro and accordion form a rich backdrop for Irene's deep, husky, passionate voice and her percussive guitar. Title track is a tender love ballad celebrating commitment between women... In My Bones, inspired by the plight of a Haitian orphan, is an ode to the spirit and strength of all immigrants... Goleros, calypso-soca, bata rumba, samba reggae and Venezuelan hip-hop round out this exciting collection. We love this artist; recommended! (SSE1003) CD: 15.95

Irene Ferrera Walking in the Jungle

Fantastic! This Venezuelan musician (singer, songwriter, guitarist, arranger) extraordinaire brings us, on ingles y español, a beautifully diverse collection of original works, backed by a small yet sophisticated band (amazing bass, great percussion, keyboards and saxes). Her voice has a deep, husky, jazzy quality reminiscent of Julia Fordham, especially on the hypnotic Desperta! Awake. The title song (which she dedicates to all creatures, including people of every political, spiritual and sexual orientation) is also a highlight, sinuous bass lines snake around byrd calls and a lazy saxophone melody, with Irene's lovely voice breathing heat into the steamy clearings — y que calor tene! Her notes speak out against racism and homophobia several times, letting us know that these are priority issues to her. Highly recommended! (PF2) CD: 14.95

Latin Fever

We are ecstatic that this long out-of-print 1978 classic — an absolutely incredibly rhythmic concoction of women's salsa — is back! Among these 14 female musicians you'll hear some of the country's finest jazz talents: percussionist Nydia Mata, Jean Fineberg and Ellen Seeling of DEUCE, and more, featuring very strong multi-member percussion and horn sections. With a few instrumentals, vocals mostly in Spanish, some bilingual. It includes La Mujer Latina ("The Latin American Woman") by Cuban-native Rosa Boy. Very highly recommended, for dancing and listening, as well as difficult to find. It's truly a treasure... don't pass it up! (FNA527) CD: 17.95

Lhasa

La Llorona

The incredible voice of Lhasa de Sela, a Montreal resident who was born in the US to a Mexican father and American mother, will be familiar to many 1997 and '98 Litch Fair attendees, and she's featured on the Litch Fair double CD. Sung in Spanish, this evocative and passionate Juno Award-winning 1997 release (recorded in various acoustically-endowed Montreal kitchens), celebrates the vocal styles of 30's era jazz greats as well as the distinctive style of traditional Mexican ballads. An array of textures are described through accordion, flamenco-influenced guitar, slide bass, and even samples of falling rain. The songs are informed with the weight and wonder of Aztec mythology: La Llorona is the wind that glides between earth and sky, sighing and crying, seducing men with her melancholy melodies and then turning them to stone with her petrifying kiss. Recommended! (ATL83120) CD: 17.98

Lila Downs

Border (La Linea)

Lila reflects through her art the most personal and deep side of the Mexican and Mestizo traditions. Her intense performances, provocative voice, and bold lyrics have made her a phenomenon wherever she performs and a superstar in her native Mexico. Forging a bridge between culture and time, this 2001 release presents a collection of stirring songs inspired by border life, the plight of migrant workers, and the hardships endured by indigenous peoples. Accompanied by pre-Colombian and Mexican folk instruments, she infuses jazz, gospel and hip-hop influences into traditional cumbias, creating powerful music in any language. (NA10265) CD: 15.98

Lila Downs

Tree of Life

Arbol de la Vida... Yutu Tata... This is one of the most exciting additions to our Winter 2000-01 Catalog, according to various Ladyslipper women from all across the wide spectrum of musical tastes. Not since first hearing Mercedes Sosa has a single artist had quite the impact on this editor, and the comparison is inevitable. Born near the mountains of Oaxaca to a Mestizo Indian mother and Anglo-American father, Lila unites cultures and boundaries with her extraordinary and evocative voice: intense, dramatic, and artistic. Through the songs and stories of her Mexican ancestors, to exquisite acoustic accompaniment, she explores the great ballads, boleros and rancheras — bringing to life the codices of the Mestizo and Zapotec lyrics, which are presented bi- or tri-lingually in the notes, are quite woman-oriented. Very highly recommended! (NA49798) CD: 15.98

Maria Marquez

Eleven Love Stories

You don't need to understand a bit of Spanish to appreciate this brilliant 2001 debut. Born in Caracas, Venezuela, Maria comes from the bolero tradition of such artists as Omara Portuondo, Ibrahim Ferrer, and Elia Regina. Spare yet beautiful instrumentation highlights her gorgeous, impassioned voice and allow her passionate connection to the words full reign. The lyrics are significant Venezuelan composers of the past 70 years, making this album an archive of authentic Venezuelan ballads and boleros. It should pre-empt Maria's ascent into the ranks of Latin and World Music divas such as Mercedes Sosa, Susana Baca, Lila Downs, Caterina Evora, and all the other extraordinary women who continue to preserve the music of their cultures. Recommended! (PLM2061) CD: 15.98

Mariana Montalvo

Cantos del Alma (Songs of the Soul)

This 2000 release, her debut in the US, is overflowing with engaging melodies, lushly poetic Spanish lyrics and the evocative instrumentation of her native Chile. Many years of residence in Paris has added a global flavor to her work. We hope some of you caught her US tour in the fall of 2000, but in any case, you're not too late to catch her here. (PUT1174) CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa

30 Años

Wow — what a fantastic compilation! Celebrating and representing 30 years of performance, this album contains some of her very best material ever, including her earlier, more acoustic recordings, which this reviewer is admittedly quite partial to. Contains her beloved classic Gracias a La Vida, plus other favorites such as Alfonso y El Mar, Si Se Calla El Cantor, Luna Tucumana, her beautiful lullaby Duerme Niño, crowd pleaser Maria, Maria, a live song with Milton Nascimento and writer Chely Garcia entitled Inconciente Colectivo, and many others; songwriters covered include Violeta Parra, Maria Elena Walsh, and Atahualpa Yupanqui. It's probably the long-time fan's favorite compilation... we highly highly recommend this one to both newcomers and devotees alike. (PLG518789) CD: 16.98

Rita Ribeiro

Perolas Aos Povos

One of the rising stars on the Brazilian pop scene, Rita presents songs that are catchy, fun, and very danceable! Incorporating reggae, samba, and funk as well as traditional music from her native country, she proves herself to be both a skilled song interpreter as well as a talented songwriter, penning songs like Na Gra, and co-writing To Many of her songs deal with religion and spirituality, which is refreshing because all her songs invoke a sense of fun and play — a great way to worship! English translations provided. (PUT1171) CD: 15.98

Soledad Bravo

Chants du (Songs of) Venezuela

One of the most beloved vocalists in South America, this Spanish-born singer (whose family fled Franco's oppressive regime and emigrated to Venezuela) has an enchanting, deeply resonant but clear-as-a-bell voice — similar to Joan Baez's, but often a good octave lower. She is accompanied by cuatros and bandolas, traditional Colombian and Venezuelan stringed instruments, as well as harp and percussion. Song styles range from traditional Goipe (based on a melodic theme that is repeated and varied), Portuguese and African fujas, traditional work songs and lullabies — tied together by her voice which cuts right through and breaks your heart a little. She makes any language barrier a moot issue, this import recording is absolutely majestic and very highly recommended! (BUD92544) CD: 18.98

Susana Baca

Eco de Sombras/ Echo of Shadows

This 2000 release represents the further emergence of the artist from the rich Afro-Peruvian musical tradition she has now introduced to audiences worldwide. — a musical/cultural ambassador among the ranks of artists like Mercedes Sosa. Produced by Craig Street, known for his work with K.D. Lang and Cassandra Wilson, it features the work of various session players, yielding a brew of cultural influences. Alongside the traditional Afro-Peruvian grooves are the modern rocks and atmospherics of the guest musicians, so that on tracks like Valentin and Xenajen, sometimes eerie, sometimes playful sounds build on atmospheres created by Baca and her incredible Peruvian band. (LB48912) CD: 15.98

Tish Hinojosa

Sign of Truth

This May 2000 release is quintessential Tish: a true fusion of disparate styles, where identifiable components come together to form something indescribable and fresh. Feisty corrido-style accordion dances alongside twangy steel guitar, while her illuminating lyrics unravel tales of discovery and redemption. Multi-cultural and multi-layered, her distinct, intoxicating brew is warm, rich and invigorating. (ROU3172) CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Latinas: Women of Latin America

This 2000 compilation may well have you packing your bags and booking the next flight for Rio. The label, Pucunayo, has a knack for producing excellent compilations that combine established artists with new artists and capture the musical essence of a particular region. So treat yourself to some of Latin America's finest artists including Lila, whose sultry ballad on love and loss will make you long for Mexico... Susana Baca, whose smoldering voice and Afro-Peruvian beats will transport you to the heart of the Andes... and Mercedes Sosa whose deep, forceful voice resonates with the pride and bravura that is Argentina. Many of these tracks have never been released in the US including the Brazilian Rita Ribeiro and Chilean Mariana Montalvo. Highly recommended — you really can't lose with this one! (PUT1172) CD: 15.98

Virginia Rodrigues

Nos

The NY Times declared her "The new voice of Brazilian music" after her 1999 debut. She returns with this stunning 2000 follow-up — a tribute to the Carnival music of her native state of Bahia. With a deeply resonant, peppy voice that rings with wisdom and spirit, she communicates love and reverence with every note. The list of instruments here is endless, from woodwinds, strings and guitars to a calimba, tamboura, berimbau, and lyre. Nos, meaning Us, includes a broad selection of songs, from the traditional Canto Para Exir to the passionate love song Je e Impar; translations included. Yma Sumac

Mambo!

This time we're on the dance floor; the horns blow and the rhythms move your hips, working little-used muscles. The floor is parquet, perfume and smoke fill your nostrils, the only light comes from torches whose flames cast heat and dark shadows which crawl across your partner's face. On this release from her (and mambo music's) heyday during the 1950's, Yma sizzles and sears, on songs written by South American composer Moises Vianco and arranged by Billy May. More fun and exciting than should be legal... Once you listen, Yma fever will grab hold and never let go, you have been warned! (TRF80683) CD: 15.98

Yma Sumac

The Ultimate Yma Sumac Collection

This 2000 release, marking the 50th anniversary of the Peruvian diva's American debut at the Hollywood Bowl, is probably the most comprehensive collection of her work ever assembled. Includes 21 tracks, 3 of which are previously unreleased (Negrito Filomena, Hukyo, Inca Waltz), plus many of her best-known, such as Xtabay, Wimoweh and Virgenes Del Sol. Experience her amazing 4.5-octave vocal range... And, you especially won't want to miss these liner notes which finally "reveal the mystery of Yma Sumac!" It contains biographical information about her background (she was born Zoila Augusta Emperatriz Chavari del Castillo, to Peruvian parents Imma Sumac Emilia Atahualpa Chavari, a Quechuan Indian, and Sixto Chavari, her half-Spanish, half-Indian father) — and pinpoints (and dispels) the rumor that she was really Amy Carnus from Brooklyn. (CAP21434) CD: 16.99

Yma Sumac

Voice of the Xtabay

The rediscovery of Yma Sumac is a wonderful thing; but the English language is an inadequate tool to describe either her music or the eternally exciting experience of listening to her. Her identity is shrouded in mystery; either she was born in the village of Iloca, Peru, a direct descendant of the last of the Inca King, or she was and is not. The songs she sings are either traditional Inca hymns and ceremonial songs or they are not. I personally think it's best not to know. The only incontestable fact is that she amazed! Her voices swoop through 4 or 5 octaves; she sings operatically one moment and then makes cultural or piercing otherworldly noises the next. The album combines two different classic records of the 50's: Voice of the Xtabay, conducted with dramatic orchestral overkill by Les Baxter and supposedly one of the few albums to never go out of print, and Inca Tapes, conducted with not much less drama by her then-husband Moises Vianco. It has not, does not, and conceivably will not get any better than Yma — she breathes life and color and excitement into the most humdrum of days! (TRF91217) CD: 15.98

Jewish

Barry Sisters

Their Greatest Yiddish Hits

The Barry Sisters began performing when they were children and grew to become one of the biggest hits on the Yiddish Theatre circuit, thrilling audiences from the NY Catskills to Miami. They were such a hot act that they even landed a spot on the Ed Sullivan show! Bringing a pop-like show tune sound to classics such as Yooch Tzoch Tzoch and Tumbalalika is no easy task, but they pull it off with style. Also includes Have Nagla, Elahes - Chiyel (A Woman of Value), and more Yiddish songs which were brought to the US at the time of the huge wave of emigration of Eastern European Jews in the early 1900's. (LEG338) CD: 8.98

Cantor Rebecca Garfein

Sacred Chants of Contemp. Synagogue

Berliners say New York's Rebecca Garfein is causing a revival of Reform Judaism in Germany; this mezzo-soprano is making history with her music, recorded in the country where her great-grandmother perished in the Holocaust. In 1997, she became the first female cantor to sing in a synagogue in Germany, where she performed as part of Berlin's International Jewish Cultural Festival, and this exquisite 1998 release captures that ground- (and stained-glass ceiling)-breaking moment. It contains Jewish songs and prayers in Hebrew and Yiddish, selections from the Book of Ruth and Song of Songs — liturgical music previously only chanted by male clergy — operatic in character, performed in what was once the women's gallery in the Oranienburger Strasse Synagogue before its destruction. This live performance was attended by Jews and non-Jews, women and men, together, shattering the historical separation of faiths and genders. Beautiful, significant, and highly recommended! (BAR1) CD: 15.98

Chava Alberstein

Yiddish Songs

This artist is the premier voice of Yiddish culture in Israel and the world, and her work in tracking down old songs and even setting Yiddish poems to music is a bridge to a vibrant culture and language that is disappearing. When it came to selecting the songs for this 1999 release, she sought to portray Yiddish life in as much complexity as the repertoire itself conveys. Except for Dane, Dane (Dane, Dane) which was written in America, all the songs here were written in Poland, Romania and Russia, portraying daily village life of the past as well as contemporary history, such as the Holocaust, and the partitions in Poland during the rebellion of the Warsaw ghetto. Debbie Friedman

And You Shall Be a Blessing...

We've had several people request Debbie's music now, so we're happy to offer you some of her work! She is known as an artist who preserves Jewish tradition in a progressive and dignified way. This 1989 album reflects her belief that blessings are not nebulous, distant, magical intangibles, but rather the affirmation of faith in the Source of All Life and the enactment of the potential goodness with which each soul has been endowed. Includes her original Miracle's Song, and others in Hebrew and English, all with captivating original music, some lyrics based on traditional text, performed with her very lovely voice and a multitude of instruments. Arranged and orchestrated by E. Marcy Dictrow-Vaj, who contributed to some early women's music albums like Changer. Especially love the evocative V'shamiru. (SWP601) CS: $8.98 CD: $15.98

Debbie Friedman

At Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

This double set contains 27 of Debbie's best-loved songs as well as new ones, recorded in 1995 at her 25th Anniversary Concert to celebrate song, spirit and community. She is accompanied by piano, bass, percussion, and a string quartet—arranged (and played in part) by Alicia Svigals, of the Klezmatics. Includes some wonderful songs from her early cassette-only releases, such as Not By Might - Not By Power, plus Miriam, The Angels' Blessing, Arise My Love from Song of Debbie, and more. Debbie Friedman

It's You

This captivating late '90s release represents a landmark for the artist: the production and arrangements by Yaron Gershovitsky, musical director of Manhattan Transfer, dramatically enhance her familiar style. The 13 songs, including several new ones such as Sarah's Song, Seize the Day, and her concert favorite Hallelu, are based on Jewish texts and life cycle events, reflecting the spiritual energy that has become the hallmark of her music. Debbie Friedman

Renewal of Spirit

She served as cantor for three years at a Reform Congregation in LA; she has directed music and singing programs at a number of universities, and has appeared before national conventions for most of the major Jewish organizations. Not surprisingly, Debbie is one of the best known and sought after artists on the Jewish scene! This 1995 release is a recording of songs from her healing service. Accompanied by Lynda Roth on keyboard and synthesizer, Debbie plays guitar and sings these prayers that "sometimes offer courage, sometimes challenge, and sometimes a cold, uncomfortable reality." She explains, "These words of prayer show me that healing has little to do with being sick and recovering and more to do with how we see ourselves and our roles in this sometimes torn and fragmented world." Sung both in English and Hebrew, songs include Ashtet Yalzer and Elohai N'Shamah from the morning liturgy, 23rd Psalm: You Are the One (Reb Nachman's Prayer), and more. Klezmer Conservatory Band

Dance Me To the End of Love

With this 2000 release, KCB returns to the roots of Yiddish music... while at the same time bringing their shimmering arrangements to unusual repertoire. One of the most striking examples of what their touch can bring is their arrangement of Leonard Cohen's Dance Me To the End of Love, a song which seems to fit perfectly into the European art song tradition. Judy Bressler and Jeff Werschauer's interpretations of Cohen's poetic lyrics are surrounded by the band's klezmer melodies and ornamentation. Judy's singing covers great expanses of emotional territory, while Ilene Stani leads with her clarinet, swirling her way through a variety of Yiddish tunes. (ROU3168) CD: $15.98

Linda Hirschhorn & Fran Avni

Marcia Falk's Blessings in Song

A combination of cantorial, Middle Eastern motifs and dynamic drones, counterpoints and rhythmic syncopation makes this 1997 a wonderful complement to poet/translator/Israeli scholar Marcia Falk's 1996 publication The Book of Blessings: New Jewish Prayer for Daily Life, The Sabbath, and the New Moon Festival. Marcia's innovative work restructures Jewish liturgy in Hebrew and English from a non-hierarchical, gender-chalving perspective. At a time when people are searching for more spiritual connection in their lives, this recording offers listeners chants and melodies to many of Marcia's prayers, for immediate incorporation into their own and their community's ritual observances and practices. 21 selections, 52 min. highly recommended. Metropolitan Klezmer/ Isle of Klezbos

Mosaic Persuasion

This lovely and interesting 2000 release features the work of 2 klezmer ensembles, both led by drummer Eve Siculer: the mixed-gender group Metropolitan Klezmer, and the all-woman sextet Isle of Klezbos — which has charmed audiences at the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival and features former and current members of Metropolitan Klezmer, the Mazeltones and the Klezmatics. This is tight and swinging Yiddish music, some tracks quite mellow and smooth (a welcome change from some klezmer collections which are non-stop frenetic); much is traditional, reflecting eastern European and Middle Eastern roots, plus a few originals such as Rivka's Dream. Great vocals by Deborah Karpel, outstanding trumpet and flugelhorn from Pam Fleming. We even love the derivation of the title (which you'll have to read about in the CD booklet). Recommended. (RMR002) CS: $9.98 CD: $15.98

Ofra Haza

Fifty Gates of Wisdom

This great artist tragically died recently, at a relatively young age. Of Yemenite Jewish parentage, Ofra was one of Israel's biggest stars, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old) and world beat/dance/contemporary rhythms and instrumentation, resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This 1987 album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra was part of the Musica Mizrahi movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended; if you can only buy a few albums this year and not already have this, definitely make this one of them. (JHN44002) CD: $16.98

Pharaoh's Daughter

Out of the Reeds

Led by vocalists/instrumentalist Basya Schechter, this mostly-women's ensemble mixes Ashkenazi and Sephardic Jewish music with Moroccan rhythms, Turkish and Malian melodies with Indian tabla music and klezmer, ancient liturgical text with African percussion... with sounds running from chantlike to belidance to world beat. Born and raised in the Orthodox world of Borough Park, Brooklyn, Basya became a world traveler, studying music, percussion and Middle Eastern dance on several continents... upon arriving home from travels in Israel, Egypt, Turkey and Africa, she re-tuned her guitar to sound like a cross between an Arabic oud and a Turkish saz. A compelling and instructive vocalist who navigates with acrobatic ease through snake-like melodies, she incorporates Hasidic Jewish spiritual tunes and Hebrew Torah-chanting from her childhood with Yiddish and Ladino song, Middle Eastern arrangements, Armenian melodies and more. Instruments include oboe, tabla, flute, clarinet, drum, electric guitar and various percussion. (KFW273) CD: $15.98

Sunita Staneslow

City of Gold

Back in our catalog by popular demand! Delicate, dignified and graceful, this 1996 album of harp improvisations and orchestrations entitled A Musical Portrait of Jerusalem was recorded in honor of Jerusalem's 3,000th anniversary. This acclaimed performer of Jewish music on the harp (and founder of the acoustic instrumental ensemble, Vida) is accompanied by a chamber ensemble which includes Laura Sewall on cello, producer Shelly Hanson on clarinet, Rachel Green on oboe and English horn, plus some achingly beautiful duets with violinist Tracy Silverman from the Turtle Island String Quartet. Includes Theme From Schindler's List, On the Rivers of Babylon, and the Israeli song Jerusalem, dedicated to the memory of Yitzhak Rabin. Very highly recommended; this is music of nobility and tenderness. (MAX2061) CD: $15.98

Here's one of our top picks for the 2000 season — it's difficult to convey the elegant and delicate beauty of this unusual recording in words, so dial up or download the sound samples! This primarily acoustic ensemble creates cutting-edge Persian cross-over music, with rich instrumentation, emotive vocals, and an array of world percussion — stylized, poignant and contemplative. The Iran-born, US-residing duo of vocalist Mamak Khadem and guitarist Loga Ramtin Torkian are at the group's heart. At a time when female vocalists have a limited scope in Iran, Mamak is one of the few women who, while preserving the tradition, have dared to explore further. Loga's innovative quarter-tone guitar, retuned with moveable frets and sympathetic strings allows him to play Middle Eastern scales and create new ornamentation. (Anyone out there remember Peter Walker's Rainy Day Raga, from late 60's WBAI-FM77? Together they composed and arranged most selections, ranging from evocative and spiritual to upbeat, based on Persian classical melodies and modes but incorporating sounds from India, Europe and beyond... with strains of flamenco and even Appalachian-sounding folk melodies. A track of 2 is suitable for Middle Eastern dance, but mostly they're more meditative; a few feature texts from Rumi and other poets. Very highly recommended! (NA49288) CD: $15.98

Doula

In the Garden

Maryam Hassan (born in Egypt) and Roula Said (a Palestinian born in Kuwait) met 4 years ago in an Arabic singing class in Canada where their families emigrated. Finding their talents highly compatible (both are vocalists), Maryam plays the qanun and oud, Roula the qanun, daf and darabuka, they joined forces with percussionist Deneb Sirha to explore the rich musical heritage of their cultures. They perform in the Mowashahat tradition, which is a form of Sufi devotional poetry set to music, utilizing a rich vocabulary of modes and rhythms. The music is heartfelt and hypnotic, communicating beyond language barriers. The swooning passion of the women's voices allows one to feel the depths of their praises. For fans of traditional Arabic music or those who enjoy listening to the sounds of spiritual exhortation, this 1997 release is a must. (MAR1) CD: $15.98

Natacha Atlas

Ayeshten!

NEW

On her 2001 release, Natacha once again blends the melodic delicacy and technical refinement of North African Arabic music with the digital flow of western dance beats into a most unique and intriguing sound. Of Egyptian ancestry, her family moved through Palestine from Meknes in Morocco several generations ago. Born in the Arabic quarter of Brussels, she has spent much of the last several years in Cairo immersing herself in shabbi, Egypt's bluesy pop music. She takes this wide array of musical influences and synthesizes them into something brand new. (BBQ1024) CD: $15.98

Natacha Atlas

Gedida

On her third recording, she blends the melodic delicacy and technical refinement of North African music with the digital flow of western dance music to create an undulating, evocative 1999 release. Primarily recorded in Egypt, the lyrics here reflect ancient dreams and timeless emotions. In Bahlam, she sings of "the dreams of girls that have not changed for a thousand years"; and her music is similarly expansive. Its cinematic scope is evident not only in the breadth of instrumentation and emotional sweep of epics like Kifaya and Ezzay, but in the anagogic Mon Amie La Rose (a lament originally performed by Francoise Hardy). Also includes One Brief Moment, her very first vocal in English. (BBQ1014) CD: $15.98

Natacha Atlas

Halim

This multi-talented artist, singer, and belly dancer — whose music always provides great accompaniment for this dance form, in case you're looking — grew up in the Moroccan suburbs of Brussels, where she immersed herself in Arab culture while becoming fluent in French, Spanish, Arabic and English. This 1997 release takes influences from a wide range of Middle Eastern and North African music. While Amulet draws heavily on Moroccan styles, featuring Rai vocals, much of the focus elsewhere is on Egypt, ranging from Arabic pop, to nostalgic tango, to more "classical" sounds which are slow and sweet, sweeping and dramatic, haunting and impressionistic. In Arabic, to be Halim is to be beautiful on the inside, a fitting title indeed. (BBQ1011) CD: $15.98

Natacha Atlas

The Remix Collection

This 2000 compiles the best 12" remixes from her 3 previous albums: Diaspora, Halim and Gedida, previously released only in the UK. It's a more beat-heavy, dance-friendly affair, but never betrays her style which is fully immersed in Shabbi, Egypt's indigenous bluesy pop music. 8 tracks in all, including 2 remixes of Amulet plus 3 remixes of Yalla Chant, by Transglobal Underground, Talvin Singh, and others. (BBQ1022) CD: $15.98

Sazlar

Several folks have requested music appropriate for Middle Eastern and belly dancing — here's one we enthusiastically recommend for this purpose! Sazlar consists of 5 women from New Mexico, dancers and instructors, who studied Middle Eastern music after deciding they'd like to create live music for dancers. They perform traditional and contemporary music in Greek, Rumanian, Turkish, Arabic, Lebanese, Hebrew, Egyptian, Tunisian and Moroccan styles. All 5 women contribute vocals and play instruments including nay, oud, saz, darbuka, def, tar, violin, guitar, mandolin and cello. Whether you study Middle Eastern dance or not, this music is wonderful to accompany expressive movement of any kind. (SAZ1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sazlar Unveiled

For their 1997 CD release, this all-women's ensemble from Albuquerque has added a sixth member, who plays the kanun, adding a level of mystical depth to their music. It features over an hour of Turkish and Arabic music, with some long medleys specially designed for dance. Includes the 17-minute Egyptian Dance Set, the 22-minute Turkish Dance Set, and 4 other evocative tracks. Their self-titled cassette has been a great seller for us because so many of you are looking for belly dance music, and we expect this one to surpass it! (SAZ2) CD: 15.98

Vas In the Garden of Souls

Once again, Azam Ali's stunning vocal textures exquisitely intertwine with Greg Ellis' percussion to produce a uniquely stirring musical and spiritual atmosphere. The distinctive sound will appeal to fans of Sheila Chandra and Dead Can Dance, covering a wide range of moods and melodies, with an array of different instruments, complementing each extraordinary composition. From the gorgeous title track to the haunting Beyond Despair, to the simple beauty of Lila, their 2000 album is an engaging journey through the talents of these unusual and outstanding musicians. Vas Offerings

"Azam Ali is an ecstatic singer, intoning hymns, chants and prayers over an elaborate percussive landscape of Middle Eastern Indian grooves." On their 1998 release, the intersections of trance, ambient, and chant are further explored within trans-cultural styles of sound that defy categorization. Filling the senses with a mesmerizing blend of captivating vocals and compelling rhythms, the duo employs arrangements which follow traditional lines, then at just the right moment a flash of modern innovation will take the reins and the music becomes something completely different. Extremely eclectic music is often confused and without focus, but Vas manages to arrange all the pieces into an elegant tapestry. After all, how many other artists do you know that can make the hammered dulcimer and the nyckelharpa work together? (NA46289) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Vas Sunyata

Vas is a duo comprised of Iranian-born Azam Ali and American Greg Ellis; their 1997 debut release brings Azam's fluidly pure voice together with Greg's unique, traditional Eastern-sounding percussion creating an unorthodox, ethereal music. Sunyata means "emptiness, the void, the source of creation," and Vas means "vessel" — both apt metaphors for what happens here when voice and instrument intertwine, pulsating as one. Azam has created her own personal idiom, where "free from the constraints of any written language, the voice is capable of sounds no man-made instrument can create." Very gorgeous, for listening as well as for Middle-Eastern dance accompaniment. (NA63039) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Vox Divine Rites

On this remarkably haunting and beautiful 1999 release, Lebanese contralto Fadé El-Hage offers creative revivals of the early Christian women's chants of the Middle East, enhanced by modern electronic settings and processing. Drawing upon the ancient music of denominations such as the Maronite and Melchite churches, "the origins of these chants are traced to 4th and 5th century Lebanon and Syria, modified by later cross-pollination between Christian, Islamic and Jewish cultures." That these chants survived at all is remarkable. Despite following a period when women played a prominent role in the rituals of the early church, after the late 4th century there was an ecclesiastical ban on female singing in the liturgy. Unusual, reverent, and recommended! (WCL11305) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anoushka Shankar Anoushka

This 1998 release is the momentous debut from the 17-year-old daughter of the world-renowned Ravi Shankar. The only sitarist in the world 100% trained by her famous dad, she has been playing and studying with him since she was 3 and made her performing debut at age 13. Since then she has toured the world with Ravi, playing venues such as Carnegie Hall and Peter Gabriel's WOMAD Festival in Seattle. This young woman is uniquely poised to carry forward her father's legacy as one of the most creative and influential figures in world music. (ANG56728) CD: 18.98

Cindy Combs Slack Key Lady

Here's something for all of you who've been requesting Hawaiian women's music! Hailing from the island of Kauai, Cindy is known all across her home state of Hawaii as one of the top contemporary slack key guitar artists, in the tradition of the renowned Keola Beamer — in fact, she took a few lessons from him. Produced by pianist George Winston, this 2001 release features 2 originals, plus 10 Hawaiian classics including the Hawaiian over-80s anthem Kaulana, Na Pua and a track composed by Keola Beamer. She ends the album with Whispering Hope, a hymn in honor of her grandmother and mother. (DC38041) CD: 18.98

Hasu Patel Gayaki Sitar

Hasu began learning the sitar at the age of 9, and after many years of study and practice (8-8 hours a day!), she became the first woman to receive a music degree at the University of Baroda in India. She has developed a style of playing the sitar (a droning, buzzing, seasoned-gourd-and-leakwood stringed instrument) called "Gayaki Angi Vocal Style," which sounds "as if one were singing through it." On this 1997 release, which is dedicated to Goddess Ma Kali, she plays "Alaps" (slow invocations) presenting the raga in an expressive, meditative mood, includes the very difficult-to-perform Raga Darbari-Kanad, the popular evening Raga Yaman Kalyan, and the early-morning devotional Raga Bhairavi. Sheila Chandra Moonsung

Real World Retrospective Critics and fans have long acknowledged Sheila Chandra as a pioneer in world music — from her legendary work with Monsoon through her bold experiments with lyrics, tones and textures, vocal percussion, and minimalist solo voice and drone. This retrospective showcases the extraordinary voice and innovative scope of this imaginative vocalist, with excerpts from her albums Abonecrone, Weaving My Ancestors' Voices, and The Zen Kias plus 2 previously unreleased tracks. She seamlessly weaves vocal styles of India, the Arab world, Andalusia, Ireland and such ancient structures as Gregorian plainsong. (RW47184) CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra Nada Brahma

This 2001 album re-releases, at long last, an important but limited edition Indipop recording from 1985, which illustrates a great variety of Indian and pop vocal styles. On the 27-minute track Nada Brahma (Sound is God), she really develops the idea of the voice as the most expressive instrument. Also contains 4 rhythm-based compositions, with a "live" feel, and instruments as diverse as ghungru (dancers' ankle bells), ghata (clay pot), and soprano sax. (NA50471) CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra This Sentence Is True

(The Previous Sentence Is False) subtitled Sheila's 2001 release, her first new recording in 5 years. Performed with the Ganges Orchestra, this astounding vocal experimentation reaffirms her place at the cutting edge of her art. Tracks include Not a Word in the Sky, Abonecrone, This Sentence Is, and, in case it wasn't obvious, True. (SHK50954) CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra Out On My Own

Sheila originally developed much renown as the vocalist of the "Indipop" group Monsoon. (Indipop was both the name of their label, as well as the phrase describing their crossover sound which blended traditional Indian music with world dance beats). Her very first solo recording, this release showcases the Indian-influenced pop genre she and her band developed. Tablas, keyboards, guitar and sitars provide the backing for her evocative vocals, and point the way forward to her experiments with voice and sound. Includes Village Girl, Unchanged Malady, Storm Trance, and Prema, Shanti, Dharma, Satya. (NA48398) CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra Quiet

Originally recorded in 1984 and issued by the UK-based Indipop label, and re-released (for the second time) in 2000, this groundbreaking album contains 10 interrelated movements which can be described as fragile, meditative islands of minimalism. Piano, bells, sitar, and other instruments undulate under her spoken rhythmic chants which are based on traditional Indian drumming but incorporate some rock/dance influences — no lyrics, only vocalized cyclic riffs of percussion. The resulting creative, interesting and mesmerizing ambient soundscapes are highly recommended! (NA48521) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice — absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the ornamentalism of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Bhajan. She writes, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument — it is the one means of expression used by every culture. The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice — it links all cultures throughout time." (CAR2322) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

NEW

This 2001 release marks the debut of an extraordinary talent on the world music scene. A singer born in the UK to Bengali parents, her bold and sensuous voice weaves the music of India with sounds from her western upbringing, celebrating the collision of European, African and Asian musical cultures. Empowered by her Indian classical training but not limited by it, she maps out a new musical landscape of intense beauty and innovation which will appeal to a diverse audience, from fans of Tracy Chapman to Sheila Chandra. Performed in both English and various Indian languages, it includes Woman, Song To the Siren, Maya. (NA50985) CD: 15.98

Yungchen Lhamo Tibet Tibet

Like the phoenix rising out of the ashes, so too does the transcendently pure voice of Tibet's leading female vocalist rise above the deep, repetitive chants of the Buddhist monks, gently blanketing you with her songs of devotion and love. More graceful and dynamic than the men, Yungchen (which means "Goddess of Song") empowers her songs with such an intense spirituality that it makes you wonder why there aren't more female spiritual leaders. Born and raised in Tibet, the artist's talent and spirituality were nurtured by her mother, grandmother and aunt. At age 25, she trekked over the Himalayas from Tibet to India, to meet and be blessed by the Dalai Lama. Light some incense and listen to this 1995 recording, you may be inspired to meditate or practice your yoga. Shanti! (RW2343) CD: 15.98

Alexis Kochan

Prairie Nights and Peacock Feathers

Part of her intriguing Paris to Kiev series, this 2000 release continues her exploration into ancient Ukrainian music, to the interfaces where traditional music meets the modern world, and where the global meets the culturally specific. Combining pre-Christian ritual songs, fragments of medieval chant and modern influences, it is timeless music, spanning the centuries, evoking distant places. Here, her own vocal tracks are accompanied by male vocalists and instrumentalists, with soundscapes ranging from spare 2-part vocal harmonies to lush ensemble arrangements. Booklet contains English translations. (OLE4) CD: 15.98

Alexis Kochan et al Variances

Combining the deepest layers of an ancient culture with elements of newly-composed music, this amazing 1996 recording in the Paris to Kiev series truly spans the bridges of time and geography. It captures the essence of the Ukrainian spirit: weaving together pre-Christian ritual songs and harmonies inspired by folk polyphony with fragments of medieval chant, as well as with contemporary influences from polytonality to jazz in a multi-layered fabric of voices and instruments. One of the goals of singer/producer/culture-maker Alexis Kochan is to de-stereotype and broaden Ukrainian cultural traditions, long relegated to a sometimes-cutesy image of colorfully-clad dancers; here she collaborates with Julian Kytasty on bandura and vocals, and other instrumentalists on jazz viola, cittern, Northumbrian pipes and percussion, to create one of the most unusual and evocative of Ladyslipper's offerings. Annbjorg Lien Baba Yaga

Hopefully by now you've heard the great Nordic compilation Wizard Women of the North, and you've discovered why this Hardanger fiddler is considered Norway's leading "Wizard Woman." Weaving a mystical tapestry here from ancient sounds and spirits with modern instruments and technology, the former child prodigy brings a seasoned sophistication to this 2000 release, combining world elements with a traditional Norwegian base, includes title track (a powerful old Russian fairy-tale witch, Baba Yaga was known to hold the secret of the Water of Life and Death), Aja (the Sami word for "source"), Rinval, Wackidoo, and more magical and fascinating compositions. Very Best of Voice of the Sparrow 0429 (CD) (CD) In this world of ever-changing availability on Piaf titles, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (16 songs) and available on CD. Edith Piaf

The Rare Piaf

Edith Piaf's life was a passionate mixture of love, tragedy, mysticism, and art; her soaring voice often masked the pain caused by those who would take advantage of her. On this unusual collection we hear many of her greatest songs from 1950-1962 — including La Vie en Rose and No Regrets — all performed in English, allowing the English-speaking listener to be drawn into a deeper level of the artist's work. It also includes two previously-unreleased out takes in French that were found by chance in a Paris flea market. A great introduction to her work for new fans, and a must for collectors. Irina Mikhailova Russian Twilight

Of Russian descent, Irina was born and raised in Kazakhstan, a Central Asian republic of the former Soviet Union (it shares a border with China; let us not forget that the USSR was more Asia than Europe... please take out your atlas and locate this now!), home to many Muslims, Greeks, Asians, Russians and Europeans. Her childhood memories recall the sounds of the dombra strings stroked by Kazakh elders, bouzouki and clarinet at Greek weddings, prayers by Muslim women in mosques, Mongolian monks chanting and playing Jew's harp, Gypsy melodies... these threads intertwine with Russian stylings to create the multi-ethnic tapestry of her music on this 1997 release. Her beautiful voice (at various times powerful, plaintive, evocative or ethereal) is accompanied by a literal world-fut of instruments from India, Egypt, Pakistan, China, Romania, Norway and more. Entrancing and interesting, this is music from where continents and cultures merge, cross-pollinated since the ancient days of Marco Polo's silk route, recommended! (WTP5154) CD: 16.98

Mammas

Although now out of print and "cut-out" (which means there's a little nick in the packaging, but the CD is perfect), fortunately we have snagged a limited-quantity stash of this amazing and electric performance — so hurry! The voices — can the human voice really be this spectacular? Absolutely one of the most haunting, entrancing and exciting pieces we've encountered in a long time — read on! An exquisite blending of Mediterranean cultures, rhythms and textures, it reflects the backgrounds of the 4 incredible women vocalists who make up the ensemble: Lucilla Galeazzi (Italy), Ylota Vel (Greece), Equidat Barres (Spain/southern France), and Hayel Ayed (Algeria). Lyrics are in their native languages, but above all, it is the intense beauty of the music which will speak to you and move you — the passion, the diva-esque voices (they rotate lead), the ancient to atmospheric acoustic instrumentation (percussion, accordion, charango, bouzouki, violoncello, oboe, oud, violin, rebec, clarinet, and much more). Produced by Philippe Enel of France, this is way, way, highly recommended! (LB347770) CD: 15.98

Red Hot Organization

Red Hot + Lisbon: Onda Sonora

First off, you need this for k.d. lang's Fado Hilano, alone worth the price of the CD (she should devote her next whole album to this quintessential century-old Portuguese song form). This eclectic mixture of tracks from Portuguese, Brazilian, Cape Verdean, Angolan, and other artists and sources is Red Hot Organization's 1999 release to benefit AIDS research and relief. Names like the Portuguese ensemble Madredeus, and Brazilian artists Caetano Veloso and Nana Vasconcelos, appear next to those of David Byrne, k.d. lang, and the female percussion ensemble, Banda Feminina Dida, while electronic artist such as DJ Soul Slinger spice things up a bit by adding hip-hop and drum n' bass beats. The 23 artists in all that make up this exciting collection cover the best musical terrain from traditional to contemporary. (BNO107) CD: 16.98

Savina Yannatou Mediterranea

From the fertile landscape of the Mediterranean rim comes this evocative, polyphonic offering of songs performed by one of the region's most stellar voices. Joining forces with the acclaimed Primavera en Salonicco ensemble, she presents a mosaic of ethereal voice and rhythm from the nearly-lost traditions of Greece, Tunisia, Sicily, Corsica, Albania, the Holy Land and more. Many languages and dialects are represented, as well as instrumentation: tambouras, bouzouki, laouti, daouli, an ethnomusicologist's dream. Several of these songs are ancient and sublime love songs to women. (SND1118) CD: 15.98

Stellamara Star of the Sea

Amazing vocalist Sonja Drakulich (2nd generation Serbian) and multi-instrumentalist Jeffery Stott make up this creative duo, which incorporates elements of medieval European and Arabic music (such as classical Sufi music of Turkey) with the mystery and depth of ambient electronics. "Drakulich is singing real lyrics but she intones her Eastern European and Gascian dialects in a way that draws your ears towards their musicality rather than their literal meaning. Within her voice, often layered in choir, she synthesizes Bulgarian, Middle Eastern and Gregorian chant styles entwining them around a percussion bed of frame drums, darbuka and dumbeks... a global symphony spun through minarets and grounded in the earth." This 1997 album is totally exquisite and highly recommended, especially if you like the music of Loreena McKennitt, Dead Can Dance, Vas. Bulgari, Women's Choir, Vox Adamus, and others who artfully and respectfully combine world cultures and idioms. (COT017) CD: 15.98

A Mediterranean Odyssey

Reading the liner notes on this 1999 compilation subtitled Athens to Andalus caused a serious attack of jealousy — I'm so envious of the head Putumayo guy's job! About half of these great tracks from Spain, France, Greece and Italy feature women... among them, it Trille with Lucilla Galeazzi from Italy. She's the diva from the Mammas ensemble whose voice makes my heart stop. (I'm beside myself that they're putting out a video and CD, An Italian Odyssey, in fall '99, on which she's featured). Wizard Women of the North

The Wizard Woman of the North is a daughter of the Earth, she's a mother, a sister, a daughter, a worker, a dancer, a poet, a gardener, a free spirit and a musician; she honors traditions while she defies limits. This wonderful 1999 19-track compilation features talented Norwegian, Swedish and Finnish women vocalists and instrumentalists who are "taking the music of their foremothers and making it relevant to today." It begins with "Kulning" — the Nordic herding call that pierces the air. As the journey unfolds, the women's voices lead us through evocations of wind, water, apries, and rolling mist. This sampler will introduce you to many musicians you'll crave to hear more from (as it did for us with master of Hardanger fiddle Annbjorg Lien); recommended! (NSD6053) CD: 15.98

Ilmatar

In the Finnish creation myth, "The Kalevala," Ilmatar is the Goddess of Air, who created heaven and earth by breaking two eggs brought to her by the eagle Kokko. This 2001 release from the world's most famous Nordic band is their most adventuresome to date, a dramatic leap forward. Ranging from energetic to contemplative and from haunting to joyous, songs like Kivutar (Goddess of Pain), Kappee (Lousy Dude) and Meri (The Sea) are woven with their sparkling female vocal gymnastics. Their arrangements are fresh and crisp, and their imaginative use of acoustics and percussion will knock your socks off! (NSD6054) CD: 16.98

Seleniko

Fortunately back in print! As the great-granddaughter of Finnish immigrants, I was pleased and curious to review this recording, never suspecting the enormous beauty it contains. 4 incandescent women singers with indescribable harmonies and vocal strength are accompanied by an array of acoustic instruments — accordion, sax, bouzouki, kantele, bery, bass — giving contemporary interpretation to traditional songs, many of them runic spells and incantations. As one reviewer said, the vocal effect will make your hair stand on end... and as another said, this is some of the richest, densest acoustic music you've ever heard. By the end of the second song, I was in tears, simply in awe of the minae effect their voices evoke, similar in flavor to their Balkan cousins. Songs generally reflect the forebears of Finnish women: one is a plaintive, sweet song by the sister of the groom, welcoming her new sister-in-law into the family home. Most highly recommended! Bernice Johnson Reagon River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible 1986 acappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Since I Laid My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals. I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention talenting enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi et al Africans in America: Complete 3-Set

Composed and produced by the esteemed Dr. Bernice Johnson Reagon, this soundtrack to the landmark 1998 PBS documentary series depicts the story of Africans and Europeans who created America even as they bitterly struggled over the meaning of freedom... retelling the story of our nation's founding from a new perspective, such as the published accounts of ex-slaves. The period was rich with musical sound, full of the varied music of Africa, Europe, Irish and English workers and sailors, and the music of the parlor, the royal courts and the church. All this is reflected here: there's a collaboration between the two Reagon women and Scottish fiddler Bonnie Riechers... duos with Bernice and Toshi... songs from Sweet Honey in the Rock (3-set only). Charles Williams Quartet, James Weaver and more. (RYK90444) CS: 16.95 CD: 34.95

Cassettes on sale! One of the finest releases of the last decade is now back in print (on LadySlipper, we are proud to announce). This duo, so long a favorite of audiences at women's festivals and pride rallies, synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary soul, even country, in an extraordinary and exciting blend. From the urban title track, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Obatala, the political South Africa, to the elegy written by Dory Previn to "a black woman that did exist" — Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Masterfully produced by Linda Tillery, highly recommended! (LR253) CS: 6.95 CD: 15.95

Cassellberry-DuPre Hot Corn in the Fire

Cassettes on sale! In source and feeling, this 1994 release on LadySlipper Records moves from ancient to traditional to contemporary, giving the listener a sense of the boundless depth and breadth of the duo's talent. Producer Toshi Reagon has assembled a group of first rate musicians, and you'll hear the evolution of their signature sound, from acoustic to songs featuring dynamic ancient drum ensembles and shekere... with styles incorporating African, reggae, folk, gospel, R&B, as well as Cajun shuffle. Their material is as relevant and revolutionary as ever, from Last Pharaohs, about the struggle for lesbian and gay rights (which they sang at the very first National Lesbian/Gay March on Washington)... to Pink Dress On (worn by a little girl whose elders are imploring her to sit still in such impractical attire)... an original song, inspired by Odetta's folk style... to The Klan, a compelling song many of us first heard performed by Richie Havens many years ago. Linda Tillery/Cultural Heritage Choir Front Porch Music

This 1997 release invites you to participate, to sing along, step, clap, shout, dance and be part of the tradition that is African-American music-making, the very foundation of popular music today. Dedicating herself to research and reconstructing the folklore, religion and languages associated with her African-American heritage, in 1993 Linda founded the Cultural Heritage Choir, an active touring group that incorporates vocals with pounding sticks, feet and hands to create a powerful rhythmic experience. Their second album includes Voice of Mother Africa, Spirituals Medley, See Line Woman, Children's Medley, and Lift Every Voice and Sing. (EB7288) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Linda Tillery & Cultural Heritage Choir Say Yo' Business

On this 2001 release, Linda and the cultural heritage choir are joined by a host of musical guests, including Laura Love, Kiki, Odetta, Richie Havens, and Wilson Pickett! Recorded live at several folk festivals and cultural centers, the songs are newly-arranged traditional, inspirational spirituals and international folk songs with a call and response energy. This is what LIVE albums should be: the joy of musicians playing together! Depicting a time in history of remarkable triumph and endurance of the human spirit, they inspire hope and unity in today's world. Includes Wayfaring Stranger, I'm Angry, Stand Tall & Be Happy, Lift Every Voice & Sing. (EB76762) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Linda Tillery & Cultural Heritage Choir Good Time, A Good Time

Back in stock! This 95 release is an incredible presentation of African American music (much of it from the Gulf of Guinea islands culture): work songs, field hollers, play songs, spirituals, intoned sermons, folk tales and African music, such as the rhythmic chant to the African ocean goddess Yemaya. The Cultural Heritage Choir, which consists of 5 women — Melanie DeMore and Rashida Oji, and of course Linda and her stunning, fluid alto among them — employs call and response, multi-layered harmonies, poly-rhythms and repetitive verse, song forms which are considered by many historians, anthropologists and ethno-musicologists to be the very root sources of all American popular music. The Choir was assembled by Linda, as part of a 5-year period of research in the field of African American folk art. Highly recommended! (TUM1) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Maya Angelou with Ashford & Simpson Been Found

Back in stock! The multi-talented R&B duo Ashford & Simpson are known for classics like Ain't No Mountain High Enough, Your Precious Love and Ain't Nothing Like The Real Thing among others. This '96 release is a smooth mix of "quiet storm" and easy grooves. Renowned poet and author Maya Angelou adds the distinctive flavor of her authoritative voice on several tracks, including the gospel-inflected title track, and the sing-song "Voiceover" of Just Taking her poetic riffs are filled mostly with love imagery this time around. Maya recorded the album Miscellaneous in the early 60's but had avoided revisiting the music medium... until this! (HSS4512) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Rashida Oji Big, Big Woman

This 1992 recording is finally and fortunately back in print! Rashida artfully combines the honesty of women's stories with contemporary music, drawing from spiritual, folk and rap. Her deliveries range from the acappella Vivry's Song, about an enslaved black woman, to acoustic ballads as well as dance tunes with a full band. Includes No Way, about the pain of, and triumph over, domestic violence, as well as songs which deal with racism, alienation, love of earth, and love of woman. Honest, playful, innovative, intense, powerful... it has been described as "bleeding, crying and laughing all at the same time." Recommended! (MOL1) CS: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock B'lieve I'll Run On...

This 1978 album contains glorious acappella vocals, gospel-influenced, with an emphasis on harmonies. We have a special fondness for this album because it contains one of their most specific pro-lesbian statements, a song for women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers. It also contains originals about nuclear proliferation and Jimmy Carter, the experiences of Black women; and a few classics about specific strong Black women: Solomon Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. Recommended! (RR3500) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock Selections (2-Set)

With this 1997 release, Sweet Honey, formed in 1973, moves toward the quarter century mark with a look back at their finest recordings on the Flying Fish and Redwood labels, 1976-1988. The repertoire of this powerful acappella ensemble of African-American women singers covers an unprecedented range of original and traditional songs based in an historical legacy of resistance against oppression. With an exciting range of vocal styles and harmonic blends, this 2-volume edition features many of their most-requested songs, including Fannie Lou Hamer, Dugthis Be a Woman, Testimony, Biko, They Are Falling All Around Me, More Than a Paycheck, On Children, Breaths, plus 2 previously unreleased tracks, As Long As I Have Breath In My Body and Cape Fear River Chant — 34 in all! Sweet Honey in the Rock Twenty-five...

On this brilliant 1996 25th anniversary release, Sweet Honey explores new choral and small ensemble vocal textures. They raise their acappella voices to sing of many things: domestic violence in Run, the women's conference in Beijing, Greed, ecology and environmental justice in Chant and Battered Earth. Sometime is a love song to their fans; and in Bob Marley's Redemption Song and Motherless Child, they address the impact of slavery on people throughout the Diaspora. It's even an enhanced CD-ROM with further information and links to internet resources for the issues they deal with. Celebrate with them their remarkable 25-year performing history... in which they have used music to inform, politicize, document, affirm, inspire, empower, and build community. Sweet Honey in the Rock Still On the Journey: 20th Anniv.

Celebrating 20 years of performances, this 1993 release demonstrates the unequalled mastery of these 5 African-American women warriors for justice — as they continue to push the boundaries of unaccompanied choral music, singing a wide range of African-American traditional song styles, including blues, ballads, hymns and rap. Songs include Stay, Waiting Memories, Run On For a Long Time, Ballad of the Broken Word, Come By Here, No Mirrors in My Nana's House, Solomon's Battle Hymn, Wodabe Nights. Produced by mother-daughter team Bernice Johnson Reagon and Toshi Reagon, the album coincides with the publication of the book. (EB2536) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock In This Land

In the struggle for peace, freedom and justice, 5 incomparable voices rise up in stunning acappella harmonies, reflecting the trying times we all face together. In the inspired congregational tradition of African American culture, this 1992 album goes straight to the hearts and souls of our lives, sharing truth, tragedy, comfort, outrage, hope, love, healing, solidarity and wisdom — and always at the highest levels of beauty and art. Includes (Women Should Be) A Priority, Fulani Chant, Patchwork Quilt, Now That the Buffalo's Gone, I Be Your Water. Always recommended. (EB2583) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock Live at Carnegie Hall (Double)

This 1988 double-album release, containing all new material from both secular/folk and spiritual sources, was recorded live to preserve the dynamism, vitality, and immediacy of an in-concert experience of this acappella ensemble. Includes The African Denko, Song of the Exile, Ode to the International Debt, Dream Song, Letter to Martin, Beatitude. Always highly recommended. (FF106) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock Sacred Ground

African American religious music, born of oppression and tempered by resistance, profoundly influences almost every other modern genre: jazz, blues, rock and even country. On this 1995 release, this peerless ensemble revisits traditional African American religious music with reverence and passion, and adds their own boldly original explorations of what "sacred" means today. No More Auction Block and Jordan River testify to faith and fortitude during centuries of slavery, whereas Mystic Oceans and Would You Harbor Me expand and clarify modern notions of sanctity and right action. Together, these songs create a deeply personal yet evocative journey, delving into the most distant memory for contemporary relevance. (EB42560) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock et al Freedom Song

This 2000 release is the soundtrack to the powerful film, which was inspired by the heroic men and women on the front lines of the civil rights movement. The title track, written by Carole King, is performed by Carole and Sweet Honey in the Rock. Also includes many spirituals, hymns and protest songs that were the anthem for struggle of this political movement in the 60's, performed by Sweet Honey. Eyes On the Prize, This Little Light Of Mine, Oh Freedom, Wake Up This Morning With My Mind On Freedom, You Better Leave Segregation Alone, and more. Sweet Honey in the Rock Breaths

This compact disc-only release is a combination of the cassette titles Good News and We All... Everyone of Us. Includes Biko, Ella's Song, Dugthis Be a Woman, More Than a Paycheck, Azarian Freedom Song, Study War No More, Chile Your Waters Run Red Through Soweto, little and more. Over 60 minutes in length. (FF105) CD: 15.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock Feel Something Drawing Me On

A different album concept from their previous discography, this 1985 release is unique. It is an album of sacred music: from Christian gospel songs sung by congregations in the deep south as well as Liberia, to traditional lullabies, to Meyarpo, a West African funeral song. Here they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in, and beautifully document the diverse cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. Toshi Reagon Kindness

Toshi's back! This 1997 release, which features retro-funk, rap, urban blues, and ancient chants, has been described as "a rockers' intimate encounter with her roots." With just an acoustic guitar for accompaniment, Toshi still electrifies with My Mountain, My Conductor Man, I Call You, Where You Gonna Be Standin', For Our Love. (3F40095) CD: 15.98

Toshi Reagon

The Righteous Ones

0796

On her 1995 release, Toshi delves further in to the dynamic lyrics and funk/soul/blues sound that has made her one of the most loved singer-songwriters around. She weaves tales of love and resistance that are delivered with the passion of a true troubadour. The opening track, Real Love, features vocals from none other than the group her mom founded: Sweet Honey in the Rock. Whether softly crooning a ballad or rocking her way through a blues jam, Toshi remains an artist who will leave you satisfied. (RAT2839) CD: 16.98

Every Tone a Testimony (2-CD Set)

Subtitled An African American Aural History, this 2001 2-CD release is an ambitious and colossal collection! These 59 tracks document oral and literary traditions from an unparalleled assembly of activists and luminaries in music, oratory, poetry, and prose: Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi Reagon, Angela Davis, Langston Hughes, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Nikki Giovanni, Jayne Cortez, Margaret Walker, Elizabeth Cotten, Paul Robeson, Gwendolyn Brooks, Sonia Sanchez, Bobbie Seale, Big Bill Broonzy, Sonny Terry & Brownie McGee, Muddy Waters, and many more. Tracks alternate between musical and spoken, creating a most engaging aural documentary. Much of the material is culled from the FolioWay Records archive; 40-page booklet included. Voices of Civil Rights Movement (2-CD Set)

This 2-CD set, subtitled Black American Freedom Songs, 1960-1966, contains 43 tracks that "are a series of musical images of a people in conversation about their determination to be free." The songs draw from and re-arrange spirituals, gospel, r&b, folk, blues, and cello. Disc 1 consists of recordings of mass meetings, primarily in churches, where African Americans of different backgrounds and a few white supporters drew strength and courage from singing together. Disc 2 gathers various ensembles such as the SNCC and CORE Freedom Singers. Includes several rare recordings by organizer/orator/songleader Fannie Lou Hamer! Notes by Bernice Johnson Reagon expound on African-American musical culture and its role in the Civil Rights movement. An essential cultural document. (SF40084) CD: 24.98

Various: Wade in the Water Vol. I

African American Spirituals

Bernice Johnson Reagon, founder of Sweet Honey in the Rock, compiled and annotated the valuable Wade in the Water series; this is its first volume, subtitled The Concert Tradition. The African American concert spiritual tradition, which combines African and formal European classical performance styles, began with a tour by Fisk College students in 1871 and continues today on college and university campuses throughout the US. This 1994 release contains 19 tracks by a variety of choirs, including The Fisk Jubilee Singers. (SF40072) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various: Wade in the Water Vol. III

African American Gospel

On this 1994 release subtitled The Pioneering Composers, vocalists such as Toshi Reagon, Sweet Honey, Michèle Lanchester, Bernice Johnson Reagon, and Yasmine celebrate the work and legacy of six composers who created a new repertoire of sacred song. African American gospel music, which synthesizes African music, dance, poetry, oratory and drama, is as much a declaration of cultural identity as it is a celebration of the Christian experience of salvation and hope. Compiled by Bernice Johnson Reagon. (SF40074) CD: 16.98

Ysaye Barnwell

Singing in the African American Tradition

This 4-CD set with instructional booklet teaches rhythms, harmonies, vocal techniques and stylistic subtleties of the African American singing tradition. Sweet Honey member Ysaye Barnwell teaches all the parts to 20 wonderful choral and congregational songs, including Chants and Calls, Spirituals, Early Gospel, Songs of the Civil Rights Movement and Contemporary South African Songs of Resistance and Protest. Perfect for individuals, church, camp and community groups of any background. Recommended by Alice Walker, Ronnie Gilbert, Pete Seeger, and Ladyslipper! (HOM1) CD: 39.98

Angelique Kidjo

Keep On Moving... Best of Angelique

NEW!

This amazing Benin-born vocalist has united the rhythms and spirit of Africa with the vibe of the African Diaspora, masterfully taking it places where few world music artists have gone before. On her 2001 retrospective, which includes tracks from 5 previous knock-out successes in many parts of the planet, her compelling contralto soars and swirls above percolating percussion, deep grooves, (that beats, chank-a-chank guitars and diva harmonies), in a mélange of styles and languages blending African Beat, funk, reggae and pop. Includes Batonga, Naima with Carlos Santana, The Sound of the Drums, and the Jimi Hendrix-inspired Voodoo Child. (COL55758) CD: 18.98

Angelique Kidjo

Logozo

0270

Born and raised in Benin on Africa's west coast, this artist's extraordinarily fantastic music is a fusion of African polyrhythmic styles reflecting African roots (which includes Brazilian rhythms resulting from the Portuguese colonization of Benin), and Western influences... in which you can also hear strains of Arabic and Caribbean sounds. She speaks 8 languages fluently, but recorded this 1991 album in her native tongue of Swahili and Fon. Her political stance is subtly woven into the lyrics which address issues ranging from censorship to torture. She moved to Paris to study law, but now wages her fight for human rights through her music, which reflects a broadening multi-culturalism. Includes the dance hit Batonga... a beautiful version of one of the most famous traditional African songs, Makaka... Great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance, very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CD: 17.98

Aster Awoke

Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing the music of this talented DC resident. She sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wail, or onto a native harp and light percussion, keeps over a classically-tinged piano — this is World Beat at it's best! Way high in our recommendation, and to balance the equation, way low in price! (COL48848) CD: 8.98

Cesaria Evora

Cabo Verde

1339

Long known to Cape Verde's small expatriate community in Massachusetts and Rhode Island as the African Island nation's finest singer, Cesaria exploded to fame on these shores with her '95 self-titled album. For this 1997 release, she again sublimely sings Mornas, the "Cape Verdean blues", but also features a varied group of songs from the festive to the mournful. Many of Cape Verde's best musicians play on the album, as well as jazz saxophonist James Carter on Coragem (brave). Spanish-style guitars, accordion, percussion, and violin sweep us away on her blarney of exquisite sadness. She's simply take your breath away. (NON79450) CD: 17.98

Cesaria Evora

Cafe Atlantico

Good news for Cesaria fans who are also aficionados of Cuban music: her 1999 release is a tribute to her Cape Verde hometown of Mindelo — a small port where the influence of Portuguese, Spanish and Cuban cultures have created a rhythmic and enchanting style of music. Though still singing the traditional Cape Verdean "mornas," here she emphasizes the Cuban elements in her music, delivering complex yet delectable tunes that blend her singular voice with sensual Cuban rhythms. You may not understand the words, but the mood she evokes is universal! (RCA65491) CD: 18.98

Here's an African of deep, exquisite beauty! Born on the Cape Verde island of Sao Vicente (off the coast of West Africa; obviously colonized by Portugal, as you'll hear in the language and music — the similarities to Brazilian music are no surprise), she later emigrated to Paris where she began her recording career. Backed by an array of acoustic instruments — multiple guitars (including the caquinho, a small 4-string rhythm guitar), violin, accordion and clarinet — she creates a compelling musical atmosphere with her blend of smooth, intoxicating vocals and heartfelt lyrics. If you can imagine a sort-of-Brazilian-sounding Mercedes Bosa, she might sound something like Cesaria, highly recommended! (NON79379) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

NEW!

Following her Grammy-nominated Cafe Atlantico, this 2001 release from the Cape Verde diva is both a souvenir album looking back at tougher days — which she remembers with nostalgia despite the hardship — and the album of a woman fulfilled, happy to have finally achieved widespread recognition. It features contributions by musical greats like Cesario Valente, Orquestra Aregon, and even includes a most lushly haunting duet with Bonnie Raitt — alone worth the price of the disc, recommended! Djur Djura

Voice of Silence

"We sing about what our mothers hummed under their breath." We learned about this group from Libina years ago, and are thrilled it's back in print. Djura, an Algerian Berber musician, is the composer, lyricist and principal vocalist of this band based in Paris. (She is also a filmmaker and author of The Veil of Silence). Passionately opposed to the constraints on women under an omnipotent, outdated patriarchy, she has dedicated herself to speaking and singing out her message of rebellion, often at the risk of her own safety. The songs, to "all women who have been deprived of love, knowledge and freedom," combine Berber folk melodies with non-traditional poetry about the continuing struggle of women in North African societies, and the liberation of Algeria. Whether expressing pain, anger, sorrow, nostalgia or festivity, the music is rhythmic and fresh, with a subtle polyphony. Includes Ad Cethen (The Young Girls Are Going to Dance) and Fihel Azimem (You Must Act). Very highly recommended! (LB45211) CD: 15.98

Miriam Makeba

Africa

0381

This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1960-1965, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and lively! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup — guitar, percussion — and a lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (refreshing to hear the original African rendition!), The Retreat Song, The Click Song, Kwazulu (In the Land of the Zulus), Nongq'ingqo (To Those We Love), 23 songs in all. (RCA3195) CD: 15.98

Miriam Makeba

Homeland

"Mama Africa" returns in the new millennium with a new album! She was the first African artist to have a worldwide hit, when in 1967 her song Pata Pata reached the Top 10 in the US and around the world; over 30 years later, she is still actively touring the globe. This 2000 release includes Pata Pata 2000, plus Africa Is Where My Heart Lies, Unhome, Cause We Live For Love, Mazakhane and more. (PUT184) CD: 15.98

Miriam Makeba, w/Belafronte Singers

The Click Song

0380

This is a classic: Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Belafonte Folk Singers! It includes her well-known songs, The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Wimoweh", House of the Rising Sun, Iya Guduzi, which triple tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, performed in Xosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. (ESP155864) CD: 17.98

Sally Nyolo (Zap Mama)

Multiculti

1453

Over the years Sally has crafted a truly unique style that reflects her childhood in Africa and her adult life in Europe, with pygmy-inflected voices set to the beat of a boiling percussion section and penetrating bass lines. As an activist, a storyteller, and an artist her words are poetic and progressive. The title track, performed in several languages, is a great anthem for our multicultural world; other songs deal with solidarity and racism, ancestors, environmental issues. Fans of Zap Mama (Sally was a Zap Mama member) will be excited by the new directions she takes into the challenging arrangements on this 1998 release. It's a solid and enjoyable recording from one of the best voices in African music today. (TIN5400) CD: 15.98

Sally Nyolo (Zap Mama)

Tribu

1365

A former member of Zap Mama (and the only one who spent her childhood in Africa), Nyolo brings to her music the same inventiveness, attitude and adventurousness as the world-famous ensemble with whom she has toured. Performed in her native tongue of Eton and fused by influences from her home country of Cameroon, her music reveals a cosmopolitan diversity, thanks to the years she has spent in Paris absorbing sounds from all over the globe. Fabulous rhythms, upbeat melodies, recommended! (TIN4679) CD: 15.98

Zap Mama

A Ma Zone

0655

This amazing and innovative 1999 release once again demonstrates the incredible creative power of this 6-woman African/Belgian ensemble. Group leader Maria Dialine continues to explore the relationship between modern hip-hop and traditional West African sounds, producing a unique album that defies simple categorization. Joined by guest artists The Roots, Speech (of Arrested Development) and Cameroonian sax man Manu Dibango, with beautiful vocals and great beats, this highly recommended album is sure to please world music and hip-hop aficionados alike. (LB48412) CD: 15.98

Zap Mama

0387

This fabulous 5-woman group is led by Marie Daubine, an African/Belgian woman who left her native Zaire as a child to escape the violence there. Returning after years in Belgium, she connected with the forest Pygmies who sheltered her as a child, and the musics she and the group offer reflect that shared heritage. "Sung in Bantu, French and English, primarily accompanied with some minimalist bass and percussion back-up, the multi-layered harmonies bloom in a riotous profusion of beauty and color. A sincere and superior tribute to and example of the power of the human voice. (LB45183) CD: 15.98

'Slipper Internet Radio Listeners Say:

"Listening from California and am so very happy. This is perfect."

"I am so excited about Ladyslipper radio. I've told all my friends. I love having it on in the background! Thanks, Ladyslipper!"

"I just received the new Ladyslipper catalog last week and read about this radio station. This is the greatest idea. I now can listen at work, which really is wonderful. Thanks for creating the radio station!!!!"

"This is wonderful! I live in the middle of nowhere (Wyoming), and this is a precious gift. Thank you!"

"Let me just add my 'way to go' to those already expressed. The internet radio was a great idea."

"Hi, Thanks for Ladyslipper Radio. I'm at work with it playing in the background and have heard absolutely wonderful music in categories that I never previously looked at in your catalog. I'm also finding the sound quality to be excellent (thanks to the new computer they installed last week) with only occasional problems with gaps in the sound (could be a network problem). Thanks for expanding my musical horizons!"

"I just got home from work and found my 'Slips catalog with Internet Radio emblazoned on it! Whoo hoo! I was down here and logging in fast. I am really enjoying this. Thanks for including some oldies."

"Hello ladies, what a super idea. Your music will be with me from now on as I browse. Love you all."

"Thank you sooooo much for this wonderful music. I can only listen when everyone else is out of the office, but I DO every chance I get. I am glad that you have decided to support women's music. We sure have a great voice. It needs to be heard more. Namaste"

"yes, this is very good internet music...the best....and I would love to listen all day...."

"I cannot get anything done because I keep listening."

"Absolutely fabulous...will spread the word in the UK."

"What a great thing it is to have music by women all day long. Who would've think it?? I appreciate all of your hard work, vision, and dedication."

"THIS IS FANTASTIC!!! Thank you very much for providing this wonderful access to the music we love and live...I've longed for this for years. Continued success!"

"I love this. Ladyslipper has always been an oasis for those of us in the 'boonies'. I especially like the ability to listen to new music (new to me) before I invest in new cd's. I don't live close enough to come in and experience the music on-site so this is a real blessing for me. I can now order music that I know I will like. Thanks."

"Hi All! Ladyslipper Internet Radio is wonderful!! My list of CDs to buy from Ladyslipper is growing rapidly. Keep up the great work, ladies!"

"THANKS! I just got my catalogue in the mail. My local classical station has gone from interesting music to the top 100 dead white male European composer list. So, now I've turned off my radio and turned on my computer. YEAH!"

Sadie Rakusin Sabbats Series Notecards (Set of 8)

A spectacular set of 8 color notecards — all reproductions of original oil paintings by Sadie Rakusin, an artist whose incredible portraits of women embody strength and power. Each personifies one Sabbat and holds the symbols, phase of the moon, the feeling of the season, what is growing and being harvested — against a background color of the corresponding chakra. The 8 Sabbats are Winter Solstice, Candlemas, Spring Equinox, Beltane/ May Eve (our favorite, this daring woman playing maracas and tambourine was our catalog cover in 1993), Summer Solstice, Lammas, Autumn Equinox, and Halloween. Exquisite, gorgeous, order at least one set to keep and one to send. (SRK11NC): $19.95

Abby Newton

Crossing to Scotland

0677

If you swoon over the exquisite tones of a perfectly-played cello, and/or if you have appreciated Abby's long-time accompaniment for two of Scotland's premiere musicians — singer Jean Redpath and fiddler Alasdair Fraser — this is for you! Her 1997 debut solo release of Celtic chamber music ranges from the spritely to the uplifting to the sublime, presenting the cello as the rhythmic heart of traditional Scottish tunes. Traditionally the favored instrument in Scotland for accompanying dance fiddlers, the cello is hereby brought back into the fold under her skilled guidance. From the evocative Catskill Mountain Air to the jaunty Independence Trail (composed by producer Alasdair Fraser), this album features a stellar ensemble of guest musicians. Very highly recommended! (CUL110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Aine Minogue

The Mysts of Time

This delicate and "mystic" 1996 album, subtitled Chants and Melodies of the Ageless Celtic Lands, intertwines the foggy heath with a church above. Aine (pronounced On-ya) interprets plainsong (Christe Redemptor), traditional Celtic religious (both the Christian Ni Gaoi De and the pagan Keening Song) and secular music (Anach Gnan) — as well as originals honoring the goddess Brigid. Accompanied by guitar, cello, tabla, fiddle, oboe, bodhran, mandolin, Irish pipes and a wonderfully rich chorus, her harp and vocal music is lush yet airy, a very lovely feast. (NS0083) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Celtic Spirit: North Star Sampler

This 1999 anthology compiles 12 songs from 4 excellent albums, 2 of which you'll find described herein: Irish harpist/vocalist Aine Minogue's The Mysts of Time, DruidStone's The Vow, as well as 2 fine instrumental releases by guitar artists, Kingsway's Come Join the Dance and Steve Schuch's The Night Heron Consort's Crossing Waters. The tracks flow beautifully and serenely from one to the other. (NS0115) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anuna

Anuna is a unique Irish choir of young women and men (average age of 25) who dress in black and perform a broad span of Celtic, chant-like music, much of it steeped in medieval tradition. Their ethereal, otherworldly, almost pagan sounds have been described as a "message for the soul" and their live performances, often held in churches, regularly draw a devout following. They have worked with the likes of Sinéad O'Connor, Sting, and Maire Brennan of Clannad. Their 1993 debut release includes Invocation, Sancius, Crat and St. Marie, Faigh An Gleas, and many more with equally evocative titles, and an even more evocative sound — very recommended! Black Family

The Black Family

The first release by Mary plus her 4 siblings: her sister Frances, and her brothers Martin, Shay, and Michael (and we learn that they come from a long line of musicians and vocalists, with wide repertoires — no great surprise, really). They alternate lead on the vocals, then join together on some of the most exquisite harmonies to be heard in all of folkdom. Songs are a delightful mixture of original, traditional, and familiar songs of love, life and history; some favorites include Tomorrow Is a Long Time, The Bramble and The Rose, plus traditionalists like The Ploughboy Lads, Colcannon, Will Ye Gang Lower, Donkey Riding, and more. An absolute must-have for Mary Black fans! (BLX10019) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bonnie Rideout

Scottish Fire

0650

Containing much of this Scottish fiddle champion's favorite repertoire, this 2000 release ignites the fire and passion of Scotland! In addition to the music she has attained through the oral tradition, both within her childhood home and at sessions, it contains selections researched and drawn from the National Archives and other private collections in Scotland. Grant's Rare displays her famous affinity for difficult pipe ornaments which has earned her reputation as "the piping fiddler," while What the Devil Ails You! features Bonnie's unique textures and impetus on viola as well as violin, plus Tina Chaney on voice, da gamba and Maggie Samson on hammered dulcimer. (MM222) CD: 14.98

Capercaillie

Dusk Till Dawn/Best of Capercaillie

From the eminent Scottish ensemble, this 1996 retrospective compiles some of their best tracks from 6 albums between 1991 and 1997, plus a previously unreleased rare live version of Sirens. (Selections from Sideways were excluded, for contractual reasons, so you'll still need that one!) Contains Cowich a Ruin, the first Gaelic Top 40 ever, and Allen Dunn, theme song from the film "Rob Roy." As always, Karen Matheson's lead vocals, and her preservation of the Hebridean songs she learned from her grandma, are the best reason to have this. (SUR23) CD: 15.98

Capercaillie

Nadurra

This 2000 recording, their 8th to be released in the U.S., but the first to be issued simultaneously here and in Europe, finds the Scottish band returning to their deep, musical roots with a much more organic approach than on their recent projects. (The title means Naturally in Gaelic.) Includes Arnyk Lassies (Soyuz), Rapture, The Hollybush, Hoireann O. (VLY15131) CD: 15.98

Carreg Lafar

Ysbryd y Werin/Spirit of the People

Dirty Cren Folk & World Music Magazine said, "Carreg Lafar might just have done for Welsh music what early Steeleye Span did for English folk. The sound may be acoustic, but there's enough electricity crackling through this to light the Rhonda Valley!" On this 1995 album, this Welsh quintet (2 women, 3 guys) presents mostly traditional material with much spirit, indeed. Love the vocals by Linda and Arwyn; notes in Welsh and English. Recommended! Women of Ireland

Through the mystical resonance of strings and winds, this trio of talented women takes you on a journey to the barely visible past. With Celtic harp, hammered dulcimer, Uilleann pipes, flute, pennywhistle, button accordion, medieval percussion and Irish-Gaelic vocals, this 1998 release explores (mostly) traditional and (a few) contemporary Celtic tales and tunes about women that spin a magical soundtrack from Celtic memory. Includes the title track, Mná na hÉireann (Women of Ireland). (MM218) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

O'r Mabinogi: Legends of the Celts

Long ago, when Britain was known as the "Island of the Mighty" (Ynys Prydain), the land was ruled by many different tribes, known as the Celts, united by a common religious leadership held by the Druids. Storytellers recounted the heroic deeds of their kings and queens, weaving into the tales the myths of their goddesses and gods. These stories, "Mabinogi," were passed on from generation to generation, until they were written down in medieval times and translated from the original Welsh in the last century. On this 1997 release, the duo Ceredwen (Renee Gray and Andrew Fryer) masterfully crafts the Mabinogi into an exquisite, ancient-yet-contemporary musical journey, sung by Renee in Welsh (her first language), shrouded in mystery yet at the same time hauntingly familiar. Their name is derived from the Celtic goddess of inspiration, also known as the "Keeper of the Cauldron." Recommended for fans of Clannad and Enya — unlike many recent imitations, this has its roots in the real thing! (RLM9333) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ceredwen

The Golden Land

History-lovers will especially enjoy this 1999 release from the Welsh duo, named after the Celtic goddess of inspiration. The songs and accompanying notes tell the epic story of the Druids in A.D. 51, as they and their Warrior Queen Boudicca (a leader with the spiritual gift to invoke the goddess Andrasta) strove to preserve their freedom and power against Roman conquest. All songs are performed in Welsh (with English translations provided — you can see that the Welsh word for Goddess is "Arglwyddes"), as Renee Gray's silken, ethereal voice evokes the spirit and mystery of the legends. Includes Bellian, Boudicca, Tir Aur (The Golden Land). (RLM9360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Chieftains w/Various Women Artists

Tears of Stone

This 1995 concept album, featuring many women guest artists and focusing on the many facets of love from a woman's perspective, is a powerful exploration of love and the emotions it evokes: joy, regret, pleasure and pain. The list of participating female vocalists is breathtaking: Loreena McKennitt, Sinéad O'Connor, Diana Krall, The Rankins, Bonnie Raitt, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Joni Mitchell (Magdalene), Laurie Anderson, about the unmarried pregnant women who were basically enslaved inside convents as recently as the past few decades), Natalie Merchant, Joan Osborne, Anuna, Sissel (you've heard her on the Titanic soundtrack), and for instrumentalists, you'll revel in hearing Eileen Ivers, Natalie MacMaster, and Maire Breatnach. The individual pieces are blended together by the signature sound of the Chieftains, a men's instrumental ensemble, resulting in a cohesive combination of modern and traditional elements. It's a masterpiece, highly recommended! (RCA88568) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Fuaim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire Ni Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Claran and Pól, and their 2 uncles, Padraig and Noel O Dugan. Eitíne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. Pronounced "foam" and meaning "sound," this 1981 release (the only complete Clannad album with Enya) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional you will hear intermitted (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clannet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 5-part genetic harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! Beyond the Horizon

0244

This DC-area trio performs beyond all expectation, beyond what can be described as beautifully, beyond your wildest dreams! Simply, one of the finest Celtic recordings we've received... Vocalist Grace Griffith breathes warmth and life into the carefully chosen and expertly arranged songs — the emotional resonance she creates is the closest to the incomparable Sandy Denny's that this reviewer has heard! Ace fiddler Cathy Palmer and harp virtuosa Tracie Brown round out the strong trio, each delivering award-winning performances. Soulful narrative lines interpose with sprightly jigs, airs and strathspeys, all of which exude something special. A few interpretations of contemporary Celtic composers Loreena McKennitt (At Soul's Night) and Clannad are included. Highly recommended! (BLX10032) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover

If Ever I Return

0581

In the interests of full disclosure, Connie is my favorite artist in that overwhelmed-by-quality Celtic vocal genre. So, I am happy to report that this 1997 release is really wonderful. She thoroughly researches each song and the results make for timeless music that is firmly grounded in its historical and cultural context. Continuing to draw on many cultures for her music, Connie sings the simple, crystalline 19th century Scottish ballad Lady Keith's Lament, the full Enya-ish Gaelic Fear an Bhata (The Boatman), along with the happy penny whistle in Peggy and The Soldier, the self-harmonized French 18th c. La Fontaine, the traditional Appalachian Shady Grove, and her own environment alert Will Comfort Me. She is joined by instrumentalists from Boys of the Lough, Capercaillie, Wolfstone and Battlefield Band. All this and she releases her albums on her own record label! Go, Connie! (TPM0301) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On her exquisite-as-always 2000 release, Connie brings together the moving ballads of the Celtic and British Isles, and places them side by side with American folk songs (such as Sweet Betsy From Pike) that grew out of these traditions. These are the songs that crossed the ocean in the hearts of immigrants to bloom anew on the American frontier, songs of adventure, longing and hope. Showcased in rich acoustic accompaniment by legendary instrumentalists from both sides of the Atlantic, her heavenly voice and repertoire reveal the essence of the Celtic-American musical connection. With vision and grace, she'll take you to the border of heaven and beyond. (TPM0401) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scartagail, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scottish/Irish bands Silly Wizard, Capercaillie and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie DoverThe Wishing Well

0299 (4)

With Connie's second album, she's achieved the goal all artists seek — she's topped herself! A bit more upbeat than her debut, this 1993 release once again offers a magical mix of songs from Scotland, Ireland, and America; her voice is rich and clear, her phrasing delicate, and the pure acoustic backing is a collage of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland's and Ireland's finest traditional musicians. Cusan TanKiss of Fire

0247 (4)

Great sale price on this hard-to-find title! Cusan Tan is an incredible Welsh ensemble (2 women, 5 men) whose name translates "Kiss of Fire," and their album is different — magical — captivating — entrancing! Some intricate vocal harmonies by their fustier and primary songwriter, Ann Morgan Jones, and also Sue Jones-Davies (whose other claim to fame is that she played Judith, Jesus' girlfriend, in Monty Python's Life of Brian); these two women, both from Aberystwyth in Wales, are the group's founders. With instruments that include guitar, cello, and Welsh triple harp, they create a sound which is a heartbreaking combination of Celtic traditional, neo-traditional and classical, yet fresh and unique. Even the spellings of the Welsh words evoke a sense of mystery and magic. Very highly recommended! (FAM16002) CS: 5.98 CD: 10.98

Dolores KeaneNight Owl

Nanci Griffith says, "As long as Dolores Keane is walking around the earth, I won't call myself a singer. I think she's the voice of Ireland. I want the world to hear her voice." We do too! On this recording, released in the US in 2000, the ruby-throated song interpreter from County Galway sings traditional ballads with exquisite contemporary arrangements, joined by a wealth of veteran Celtic musicians. It will be obvious why her exceptional voice has made her one of the best-known proponents of Celtic traditional music in the world today. (ALU1020) CD: 16.98

Dolores KeaneThe Best of Dolores Keane

0661 (4)

Top of the charts in Ireland, first released in the US in 1997, this album by the spectacular, mesmerizing vocalist contains 13 classic songs, including Never Be the Sun (with additional vocals by Emmylou Harris), Li Maheine, Galway Bay, My Love Is in America. (BLX10038) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

DruidStoneThe Vow

This 1999 collection from Aine Minoque's ensemble, subtitled An Irish Wedding Celebration, features Irish songs of love and commitment from a variety of sources: some new, some old... some vocals, others strictly instrumental. My personal favorite is The Fair Haired Youth, a beautiful and moving air from County Armagh. The insert gives a brief description and history of each song, and includes lyrics in Gaelic and English. This disc covers a lot of Celtic ground and can be appreciated by many; you may even find the perfect selection for your own commitment ceremony! (MS0113) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Emer KennyFades Into Day

0952 (4)

Showcasing Emer's haunting ethereal voice and leaning her trademark celestial-gone-hip-hop harp playing with techno beats and pop sensibilities, her sophomore 2001 release retains suggestions of her Dublin home while she turns the music inside out! Reflective, bittersweet lyrics, infused by her understated vocals, float over a swaying, hook-laden bed of groove-filled playfulness. Fine-spun melodies and imaginative arrangements collide with edgy guitar lines and funky break beats... traditional instruments and sounds are framed by stellar production values. Both accessible and inventive, this recording is recommended to fans of Sinéad O'Connor and Loreena McKennitt — among others! (TRL7500) CD: 16.98

EnyaThe Memory of Trees

0414 (4)

This long-awaited follow-up to Shepherd Moons has been four years in the making, and the result is a haunting, mysterious, superlatively beautiful 1995 album that finds her artistry in full flower. As we have come to expect, Enya herself plays virtually all the instruments and self-harmonizes all the parts; and once again, she recorded with her long-time producer Nicky Ryan. Songs include Wherever Is, Pax Decorum, Athair ar Neamh, Tea-House Moon, La Sonadora. (REP46106) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

EnyaThe Celts

This is Enya's debut album (previously issued under the title Enya), and it's truly glorious: multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. The artist is definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and verifiably makes a new instrument of her voice, complemented by Uilleann pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! 1986 (REP45681) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

EnyaShepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "thickly" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp of raw silk), her satiny multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all swirling around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art... sigh... Highlights include the Gaelic Eboda and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 25 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Tracks include Flora's Secret, Isabella, Deora Ar Mo Chro. (WB47426) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

EnyaPaint the Sky w/Stars: Best of Enya

0656 (4)

This 1997 release collects many of the artist's best-loved songs (including Orinoco Flow, Caribbean Blue, Storms in Africa, Shepherd Moons, Watermark, The Memory of Trees, Book of Days, The Celts) from 4 previous albums, plus 2 newly recorded (and ravishingly evocative) songs: Only If... and Paint the Sky with Stars. (REP46834) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

EnyaWatermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystical and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! 1995 (REP26774) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Fiona Ritchie/Various ArtistsBest of the Thistle & Shamrock

No other single human has done as much as this National Public Radio personality to familiarize the US listening audience with the breadth and depth variety and beauty of Celtic music. Her familiar Scottish brogue is heard each week on over 350 stations, and her taste is acknowledged as the finest. This 1999 release, which presents her first volume of personal favorites from her show's first 15 years, includes tracks by Maura O'Connell, Ciaran, Alan Stiles, Relativity, Pierre Bensusan, and many more. "Traditional and contemporary, simple and intricate, gentle and powerful, melancholy and joyful, the instrument and the human voice all combining to tell a story." recommended! Joanie MaddenSong of the Irish Whistle

0503 (4)

While we've always been fond of the instrumental music by this reigning queen of the Irish tin whistle, we were unprepared for the achingly intense beauty of this 1995 release. Whether she's drawing out wistful, sweet ballads or tripping through bright-eyed dances, her dazzling musicality will alternately set hearts afire, and then melt them! The lush arrangements, featuring world-class musicians like fiddler Eileen Ivers, percussionist Glen Velez, and fearless bassist Dave Anderson, counterbalance her primary instrument which might otherwise sound sparse and minimalist in other musical settings. Includes Women of Ireland and The Mountain of Women (Síadh Na Mban), notes by Fiona Ritchie of the PBS radio show, "The Thistle and Shamrock," highly recommended! (HS11090) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith PinterCeltic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you! Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times like In Defense of Gnomes, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. 1994 (SG123) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Judith PinterChanges Like the Moon

This very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording contains selections based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: The Robe of Feathers and The Silkie. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this 1996 release is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful debut. (SG147) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

June TaborA Quiet Eye

If you (like this catalog editor) are a major long-time fan of this British folk music revivalist — whose rich, velvety vocal timbre and depth of emotional power are legendary — you won't want to miss this 2000 release. Her tasteful-as-always selections range from traditional ballads to contemporary folk songs by writers like Richard Thompson and Ewan McColl, but for the first time she collaborates with an 11-piece chamber ensemble, The Creative Jazz Orchestra. This collection, set off by claret, sax, French horn, tuba and trombone, makes for one of the most extraordinary musical statements of her illustrious career, recommended! (GL3129) CD: 15.98

Karen MathesonThe Dreaming Sea

If you, like we, have always wanted a solo album from Capercaille's lead singer, at long last here it is! Karen helped form the Celtic group while still in high school in western Scotland; since then, Capercaille has become one of the foremost Celtic bands in the world. Karen's vocal talents highly lauded in the process. On this 1996 solo debut, her stunning voice is fully displayed in all its range and color. About half of the songs on this album are sung in Gaelic and the other half in English, creating a beautiful blend of contemporary and traditional sounds. Includes Evangeline, Fithell Ait, Le Iain, Sheumais, the title track, and more. (VLY16127) CD: 15.98

Kate PriceThe Isle of Dreaming

Kate's musical vision goes far beyond the Celtic genre in which we and most others place her works. Creating masterful dreamscapes centered around her angelic vocals and her expertise on the 4.5-octave, 100-string hammer dulcimer, this 2000 release is an emotional, multi-faceted journey featuring instruments from many cultures: cello, classical guitar, nyckle-harpa, Irish pennywhistle, star, electric star, tabla, Nigerian udu, oboe and English horn. From the jubilant and mystical Voices of My People to the joyous percussiveness of The Phoenix, she artfully reveals the "Deeper Face of Beauty." (OM48526) CD: 16.98

Kate PriceDeep Hearts' Core

0078 (4)

Loreena McKennitt fans, take note! This contrast, who has been described by some reviewers as one part gypsy and one part fairy, presents a repertoire which is influenced by both Celtic and Slavic musical and literary traditions, as well as traditional ballads from Europe and the British Isles. On her 1995 release, Kate merges Celtic music with other world music rhythms from Bulgaria and Sweden, making for a most interesting musical travelogue! Multi-layered vocals are beautifully blended with ethnic instruments in a western motif, played by virtuosos such as Paul McCandless and Teja Bell. Contains 7 vocals and 5 instrumentals; songs include Rest-Sweet Nymph, Places of Spirit, and Seamstress of Dreams. (ACC500) CD: 15.98

Kate Rusby*Little Lights

"Young, colorful, funny, outrageously talented, and with a voice blessed with rare grace, style and purpose, Kate Rusby has made a sensational impact over the last few years. The sweet-heart of the English folk song, she's at the forefront of a vibrant new generation of influential new British singers. Her first 2 albums have been praised and decorated with awards, and her exciting 2001 release will strengthen her growing reputation as an incomparable folk singer and songwriter. With lovely stories, glowing melodies, and beautiful instrumentation, featuring guest artists Alison Brown and Eddi Reader, it will transport you into Kate's enchanted world and leave you smitten, if by some chance you aren't already. Recommended! (CM54310) CD: 15.98

Kate RusbySleepless

"Kate Rusby is mesmerizing... she has to be heard." This rave from the Wall Street Journal is just one of the many praises that have been showered on this extraordinary young artist. Her much-anticipated 1999 follow-up album is another outstanding collection of traditional Celtic folk songs and originals, arranged and sung in Rusby's inimitable style. Her unassuming approach to each tune is absolutely bewitching, combining original pieces with traditional ones, she creates classic folk songs of her own. Includes The Cobbler's Daughter, Sho Heen, The Sleepless Sailor, and Cowboy. (CM54277) CD: 15.98

Kate Rusby & Kathryn Roberts

"These young women are guardians of a future for this music," says John Tams, and he is exactly right — these two singers have a fresh, young approach to traditional music, and yet sing with the wisdom and fortitude of veterans. Their voices weave together like gossamer on these 10 tracks of Celtic and British Isles folk songs, backed by a gentle combination of traditional folk instruments — guitar, flute, violin, cello, and piano — bringing to mind some early June Tabor/Maddy Prior collaborations. You'll easily see why this exquisite collection was named "Album of the Year" by Folk Roots Magazine: highly recommended! (CMS4270) CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson

Dance To Your Shadow

From one of the premier Celtic harpists of today comes a 2001 release, rich with tradition and innovation... as she artfully layers harp with pipes, accordion, strings, and fiddles with atmospheric vocals and an electronic undercurrent. Her overlaying of Robert Burns' brooding ballad "The Yowes onto the quicker rhythm of the Irish reel Plough the Stars juxtaposes traditional acoustic instruments with modern drum loops and intriguing techno sounds. And she knows how to pare back a melody to reveal its core beauty. Her harp-harmonica duet with guest George Winston on the shimmering Insheer is a marvel of understated grace and charm, while her rendition of the Irish reel Morning Dew conveys a primal urgency through the inspired merging of harp, fiddle, accordion and whistle with guest Sandip Berman's mouth music and tabla playing. Recommended! (NA50627) CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson, Joemy Wilson, et al Celtic Forest

Joemy Wilson, Kim Robertson, and Anissa Angiarola all present magical selections on their respective instruments — hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and classical guitar — on this 1997 collection of traditional Celtic melodies, culled from several Dargason releases. They all share technical virtuosity as well as a love for this ancient music, and this anthology will transport you on a wonderful, romantic journey through the forests of the British Isles. Includes The Gentle Maiden, Fanny Power, Dance of the Lambs. (ET7700) CD: 15.95

Loreena McKennitt

Elemental

This extremely talented musician's vocalists must have been incarnated just to bring the music of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1985 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Bank of Claudy, Carrigfergus, She Moved Through the Fair. Harp, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Live in Paris and Toronto (2-CD)

Recorded on European and North American tours in '96, the artist's first-ever double live CD contains 17 songs and over 100 minutes of music, including all of The Book of Secrets (and its supporting cast of musicians), and the best-loved tracks from previous albums, such as The Lady of Shalott, The Bonny Swans, The Mystic's Dream and All Souls Night. All proceeds will be donated to the water safety charity The Cook-Rees Memorial Fund For Water Safety. Originally released only in Canada, we're glad we can now oblige the many fans who've been calling us looking for this. Now at a great sale price! (VLY15045) CD: 19.98

Parallel Dreams

This 1980 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection, from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annache Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron-Beltane Fire-Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Dickens's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage: that of a homeless Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's aspiration of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music; highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Book of Secrets

At long last, Loreena presents an album with similar textures to The Mask and Mirror, by far her best work previous to this one! Inspired by experiences as diverse as a journey on the Trans-Siberian Express and a visit to an ancient Italian monastery, this 1997 release is a musical gateway to eras long past. She writes, "The songs on this recording have been assembled like a mosaic, with disparate pieces collected from many places and fitted together one by one. I was inspired... by both my own travels to Greece and Turkey, and the recollections of the journeys of others encountered in my research." Features one of our favorite cellists, Caroline Lavelle, and includes The Mumpers' Dance, Marco Polo, and Dante's Prayer. Rich, complex, full of beauty and mystery, and always highly recommended! (WB46719) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt

The Mask and Mirror

On this this eagerly-awaited 1994 release, Loreena combines her Celtic influences with world music to create a magical work of deep beauty and profound mystery. She says, "I looked back and forth through the window of 15th century Spain, through the hues of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and was drawn into a fascinating world: history, religion, cross-cultural fertilization." Blending harp and fiddles with electric guitars and exotic percussion, mixing traditional songs with musical settings of Shakespeare and Yeats, this is a dazzling hazy-scope of feelings unified by the intensity of her voice. Contains The Mystic's Dream, The Dark Night of the Soul, Marrakesh Night Market, The Bonny Swans, Full Circle; instruments include cello (played by virtuoso Ofra Harnoy!), bouzouki, bodhran, tamboura, dumbek, oud, balalaika, Uilleann pipes and more. Highly recommended as usual! (WB45420) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Loreena McKennitt

The Visit

This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Childe, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Souls Night and the instrumental Tango To Evora, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album; hear the Italian tint coloring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greenleafes! And her indescribable musical rendition of Terryson's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments; great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new age vocal Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB26880) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Maddy Prior Memento

On this 1995 retrospective from one of Britain's foremost folk divas, the 18 tracks are drawn mostly from 6 albums representing her solo career, although Daffin, Mistress and Gray Funnel Line are from her collaboration with June Tabor on Silly Sisters. Fans will be pleased to know that the latter track served as the theme song to Sirens, a 1994 film. Also includes some rare and previously unreleased material. Mater Dolorosa and a new version of Deep in the Darkest Night. Maddy comments that she chose not to include material from Sheebye Span and Caraval Band, preferring to represent a seam of work less familiar and largely unavailable. Our fave: Accapella Stella from Changing Winds — worth the price of the album! (PRK29) CD: 16.98

Celtic Meditations: Into the Light

This 2001 bagpipe-voiced release contains music that soothes the soul, a rich tapestry of Celtic moods for gentle, quiet relaxation, meditation, and massage. With roots that harken back to medieval times, the hammered dulcimer has a magical effect. The percussive, melodious sounds of leather-covered mallets bring a special beauty to the ancient melodies of the Celts. Add a rich overlay of strings, the deep, tonal quality of woodwinds, and early music and traditional Celtic instruments, and you have music that will take you into the light. (MM302) CD: 11.98

Maigread & Triona Ni Dhomhnaill

Idir An Da Sholas/ Between 2 Lights

Sisters Triona and Maigread hail from one of the most famous and musically prolific Irish families (the O'Donnells). To the Celtic-challenged? There have been many past recordings from the siblings and other family members in various configurations, as well as with countless great ensembles, but this is the first we know about which focuses on their duet work. With those unique blood harmonies, and instrumental accompaniment by Donal Lunny, Sharon Shannon, brother Michael and others, they present traditional repertoire in both English and Gaelic, preserving this material for additional generations to come. Whisper to the Wild Water

Clannad's founder and inimitable lead vocalist (and Enya's sister of course) presents her fourth solo album for 1999. While retaining all the key ingredients of her previous work — lush harmonies, ethereal vocals, mesmerizing melodies, and sweeping soundscapes of deep beauty — it also manages to capture a newfound pop sensibility. Songs in Gaelic and English, including Mary of the Gales, A Peacemaker, is Tu Amhair (You're the Only One). (EPC63859) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

By the Time It Gets Dark

This fan's favorite of Mary's back catalog is finally being re-released in 1994! Hear this indescribably wonderful vocalist sing Kate, a song of lost love: Sandy Denny's title song. Ewan McColl's song of coalminers, Schooldays Over. The accompaniment is exquisite, her phrasing impeccable, harmonies made in heaven, arrangements tasteful, and her vocals have that quality which can pierce one's heart. Highly recommended! Mary McLaughlin

The Daughter of Lir

We were so taken with the mystical opening track on the anthology Celtic Voices: Women of Song, we told you that it alone was worth the price of the album. Well, it also opens this entire 1994 album by this amazing artist (we've been hoping one would materialize), which combines Irish, ambient, and world beat sounds with her incredible vocal range. It contains mostly original songs which are thematically linked by images of Ireland, Women and the Sea. The title track "was written after watching a television programme on prominent Irish women, and I was struck by the particular quality of spirit they had." The song Motherland uses the allegory of "the poor old woman" who is Ireland, a woman with strength and love who had been battered so much she had reached the point of saying "No more." Eyes of Africa contains gorgeous harmonies... but Sealwoman combined with the Hebridean chant Yundah is still the winner here. We have space limitations, so I must stop now... Very recommended! Mary O'Hara

Irish Traditional Folk Songs

Mary O'Hara is one of the most popular singers in Ireland. On this collection of traditional Irish folk songs, she treats all 22 selections with the same grace, subtlety and simplicity, painting a beautiful portrait of pastoral Ireland.

Accompanying herself on the harp, she captures to perfection the evasive and delicate style of a true Irish folksinger, which cannot be notated in musical symbols. Includes Down By the Selly Gardens, I Will Walk With My Love, and Haigh Oidi Dum. (LEG333) CD: 8.98

Meav

Meav

Meav (pronounced "meave") is the enchanting young Irish soprano who gained international attention as featured soloist in the choral group Anuna, and performed in the London and U.S. productions of Riverdance. For 2000, her first solo album reveals an effortless mastery of both Celtic and classical pieces, traditional songs and early music. From familiar folk songs such as She Moved Through the Fair and I Wish My Love Was A Red, Red Rose, to the bewitching Solveig's Song by Edvard Grieg, Meav has a sublimely pure and timeless beautiful voice presented in a warmly elegant contemporary production. Natalie MacMaster

My Roots Are Showing

Following her recent foray into the pop sphere, the artist proudly returns to exploring traditional Cape Breton music on this 2000 US release. It features plenty of lively jigs, strathspeys, and reels, but is nicely balanced by the inclusion of 2 beautiful slow airs, The Shakin' o' The Pocky and A' Chuttag (The Cuckoo). Notes provide background info on the history of each of the tunes, as well as how she came to learn them. Several date from the early 20th century, but she breathes such life into them they still sound fresh and vital. A standout is the final track, A Glenoe Dance Set, which features a duet with her uncle, famed Cape Breton fiddler Buddy MacMaster, and includes the tune Sandy Macintyre's Trip to Boston which Natalie says must be the most popular Cape Breton tune ever! The Poozies

Infinite Blue

Boasting members such as Kate Rusby and the women from Sirens, The Poozies are the leading female folk ensemble in the UK and Europe. Supplementing a repertoire of traditional and contemporary Scottish, English and Irish compositions with the occasional pop song, these 4 women push the boundaries of Celtic/British Isles folk music. This 1998 recording blends traditional folk instruments with ethereal vocals and the interesting texture of an electric harp, giving their debut release a unique and exciting sound. Sinead Lohan

No Mermaid

We like this album! Ever since we heard the opening track Sailing By from A Woman's Heart 2, we've been wanting more of Sinead Lohan, but import costs have kept her out of reach; finally this 1996 release allows listeners on this side of the Atlantic to hear more of this mesmerizing singer-songwriter. Capturing a wide range of human experience and emotion, while blending musical styles ranging from Celtic folk to trip-hop, dreamy to danceable, the result is a powerful and hypnotic album which we recommend to fans of Dar Williams, Maura O'Connell, and Mary Black. Susan McKeown/C. Ryan/R. Spielberg

Mother

This 1999 celebration of Mothers and Motherhood is a collaboration between singer/songwriters Susan McKeown and Cathie Ryan, and pianist/composer Robin Spielberg (with guests like Aine Minogue and Joanie Madden). Ranging from Celtic lullabies, to a haunting rendition of the chant Ancient Mother translated into Gaelic, to an old song found in a Tille Olsen collection, to original songs that explore the mother-child relationship, this collection will resonate with every listener — who has had a mother. "Unfortunately not all of our experiences with our mothers were good ones. Often, it is when we get to know our mothers again as adults that we are able to glean these gifts: be they born in pleasure or in pain. Mother is an album both in celebration and healing, for the mother and the child. Reflecting on our mother's lives is implicit to our own personal journey, our search for who we truly are." Recommended! (NS0111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Teresa Doyle

Stowaway

Back in stock! Drawing inspiration from the history of Prince Edward Island, this Canadian artist weaves imaginative arrangements of traditional Celtic songs with folk-rock originals that pay tribute to the Scottish settlers of the island. Belle Marie and Stowaway chronicle the lives of 2 extraordinary women who came to the island centuries ago: Marie Granville was tried and burned at the stake for witchcraft; Christie Campbell was a stowaway on an immigrant ship. Like Lorena McKennitt, Teresa expands our understanding of Celtic music, stretching boundaries to create "Celtic music on the fringe." (BL003) CD: 18.98

A Woman's Heart

Six Irish women — Mary Black, her sister Frances Black, Maura O'Connell, Dolores Keane, Sharon Shannon and Eleanor McEvoy — each contribute two tracks, some from previous albums. The title track, Only A Woman's Heart, has elicited the most enthusiasm from listeners; it's a newly recorded duet between Mary Black and Eleanor McEvoy. Irish import. (DAR158) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Celtic Mist

Soothe your soul (and wallet) with quiet moods from ancient lands, at a low price. This 1999 collection of ensemble instrumental music — with occasional vocals — creates a peaceful and relaxing atmosphere, with music drawn from the deepest well of ancient traditions. With Celtic harp, Irish flute, cello, piano, hammered dulcimer, guitar, Scottish fiddle, Uilleann pipes and world percussion, it includes Ceoltoin's Women of Ireland, sung in Irish Gaelic; the traditional Scottish Hebridean Hymn performed by Bonnie Rieckert; Saye Aine from Maggie Samson, and more from Sue Richards, Al Petteway, Robin Bullock, and Karen Ashbrook. Celtic Woman

Containing several tracks which are probably not available domestically, this is a particularly lovely compilation of female Celtic vocalists. We love Rita Connolly's rendition of a song to a beautiful woman in Venezuela (perhaps she's singing it to Irene Farrer!), as well as her interpretation of Ripples in the Rockpool, about pirate queen and military leader Grace O'Malley. Other artists featured are Marian Bradfield, Aine Furey, Melanie O'Reilly, Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill, Fiona Joyce, and Lorena McKennitt. You're likewise bound to hear some fine new voices who richly deserve to be heard; recommended! (VLY15017) CD: 15.98

Celtic Woman 2

This 2000 follow up to the first volume is another dazzling compilation of Celtic-influenced women singer and songwriters, ranging from traditional Gaelic and Celtic Romance songs, to contemporary songwriting. It includes some Ladyslipper favorites, such as Rita Connolly, cellist extraordinaire Caroline Lavelle, and Capercaillie (Hebridean Hymn), as well as new artists such as The Fallen Angels (She Moved Through the Fair) and d'goyá, a duo whose sensuous harmonies on Breave Heart mingle effortlessly with both pop and old world sensibilities. Faire Celts: A Woman's Voice

This 2000 release is another scrupulously lovely collection from the Narada label [whose compilations are generally among the most painstakingly selected and sequenced, near perfection]. Includes the previously unreleased rendition of A Woman's Heart from Mary McLaughlin, plus Sinead O'Connor's incomparable version of He Moved Through the Fair, Karen Matheson's Hebridean Hymn, Talitha MacKenzie's Hebridean Hymn, and more from Connie Dover, Kim Robertson, Mairead Ní Mhaoldomhnaigh of Altan, and others. Joyful Noise (2-CD Set)

There are almost too many Celtic compilations these days, so anything we list must have something special... this one has 2 somethings: its low cost — 2 CDs for the price of 1! And of course the roster of artists is pretty great too: Capercaillie, Joanie Madden, Eileen Ivers, Altan, Cherish the Ladies, Deanta, Liz Carroll, Patrick Street, the Teanahill Weavers, Celtic Fiddle Festival, and many more. In fact, they're the most requested songs and tunes from Green Linnet's Celtic artists, 26 in all. You'll be inspired to make a joyful noise too! (GL0100) CD: 15.98

Celtic Romance on Hammered Dulcimer

Small wooden mallets dancing above dozens of silvery strings — this creates the magical beauty of the hammered dulcimer, an ancient ancestor of the piano. In the hands of acclaimed artists Mitzie Collins, Glenn Morgan and Joemy Wilson, the hammered dulcimer captivates the ear and the soul on this 1998 offering. Along with flutes, fiddles, Celtic harp, pedal harp, guitar, cittern, cello, bodhran and bones, the dulcimer brings a true Celtic flavor to these Irish, Scottish, and Welsh favorites... at a great low price! Celtic Romance on the Celtic Harp

Let the magical and haunting sounds of the Celtic harp paint a landscape of misty seascapes, ageless mountains, and ancient ruins, as 3 of America's most devoted performers delve into the beauty of the Celtic lands and their traditions. The creative mixture of Kim Robertson's jazz stylings, Sylvia Wood's classic elegance, and Dinah LeHoven's distinctive wire-strung harp tones complement and contrast each other in new and exciting ways. This edition of the 1998 Celtic Romance series is both a treat and a bargain. (KLR212) CD: 9.98

Her Infinite Variety (2-CD Set)

Subtitled Celtic Woman in Music & Song and featuring 2 CDs priced as one, this 1998 release is chock-full of great music by fabulous female artists, from the Green Linnet label, no Jenny-comelately to the Celtic scene: Fiona Ritchie (probably alone responsible for most of the Celtic music fans in the US who grew up mesmerized by her voice, even if some of us only understood half of what she was saying) writes in the liner notes, "This is a music for all seasons and for all time. It has grown with us, travelled with us, spoken for us, cried for us. It invites us to dance and get wild. It fills us with pride and emotion." More great artists than we can name, including Cherish the Ladies, Karen Matheson & Capercaillie, Eileen Ivers, Niamh Parsons, Deanta, Altan, Sileas, Joanie Madden, and June Tabor. Native

Alice Gomez

Flute Dreams

This 1994 release is a particularly evocative instrumental album with a multiple-flute sound, revealing influences of the cultural heritage of the Native peoples of the Americas (especially Aztec, Inca and Mayan)... and reflecting the specific belief that playing a flute or a variety of flutes would bring special dreams. Composer Alice Gomez is a Mexican-American of Mayan descent, with several symphonies and chamber works to her credit. Here she plays keyboard, guitar and ceremonial acoustic percussion. Along with her sister Madelyn Blanchett on recorder/flutes and Marilyn Rife on marimba, keyboards, and more percussion, she has created gorgeous music which ranges from primal/ritual to symphonic in scope. You may already be familiar with some of their other work, if you've listened to Marimba Quest. Gorgeous... Recommended! (TT125) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alice Gomez

Obsidian Butterfly

In the Aztec culture, Obsidian Butterfly is one of many female deities associated with the earth and its fertility. On this 1999 release, in collaboration with her long-time musical associates Madelyn Blanchett and Marilyn Rife, this flutist/composer again draws upon her multi-cultural background to create music inspired by the ancient rhythms and melodies of North, Central and South America. Celebrating the splendors of the earth including scenic landscapes and ancient ruins, it features an impressive array of percussion instruments, including marimba, log drums, Peruvian bombo, gourd, Indian gourd cabasa, and dance bells. Brooke Medicine Eagle

A Gift of Song

Songs with messages of change and rebirth, with Brooke's drum accompaniment and gorgeous harmony vocals (plus a little harp) by Anne Williams. Includes Mother I Feel You, Blood of Life, about a woman's moon time cycle, Whispering Woman, or shaman woman, and others from Seneca, Iroquois, African, Maori, and other traditions, as well as originals by both Brooke and Anne. A wonderful collaboration; newly released on CD in late 1995. (BME8) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle (w/K Gardner)

The Shaman's Cave

This late 1993 release contains 11 songs actually recorded in an ancient ceremonial Shaman's cave, known to have been used by two legends for at least 6000 years, with beautiful background flute music by Kay Gardner and Ken Light. Brooke stood deep in a vaulted, dripping chamber (a challenging setting for a "live recording") near where a stone altar still remains; when this altar was found, a huge old buffalo skull lay upon it, and a stone carved on one side with a bear, on the other side a buffalo. Includes Altar Song, Women's Healing Song, Vision Wise. (BME13) CS: 10.98

Buffy Sainte-Marie

Best of Buffy Sainte-Marie I (Double)

This double-length album includes many of her best-known songs: Little Wheel, My Country 'Tis of Thy People You're Dying, Cripple Creek, Now That the Buffalo's Gone, I'm Gonna Be a Country Girl Again, Universal Soldier, Codina, God is Alive, Magic is Afoot, Many a Mile, Groundhog. Dovie Thomason with Ulali Lessons From the Animal People

This captivating 1997 collection of Native American stories is retold by Lakota/Kiowa Apache storyteller Dovie Thomason, with music by the female acapella trio Ulali. The 9 stories, "for people of all ages, nations and races," come from the Lakota, Catawba, Algonquin, Penobscot, and other tribes. Taught to her by her grandmother, Dovie explains that "they are the traditional way to guide young (and not so young) lives without punishment or embarrassing confrontation. Through the mistakes, bad choices, and often wryly ironic of the animal people we are shown human weaknesses and gently, and humorously reminded to look at our own." (YMS9) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Joanne Shenandoah Eagle Cries

In the past, Joanne has explored traditional Native chant, new age hybrid, and children's music, all to rave critical reviews. Here she takes to the folk-rock path, giving expression to yet another facet of her creativity. This 2001 release features duets with Bruce Cockburn (One Silver One Gold) and Bill Miller, and also includes Dancing On Mother Earth and We Give Thanks To the Women. (RF7005) CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah Life Blood

This 1995 release features ancient Iroquois/Haudenosaunee chants and melodies beautifully sung by Joanne (whose Native name means "She Sings" in the Oneida language), accompanied by the contemporary piano stylings of Peter Kaler. Included are 2 women's songs — Women's Dance and Path of Beauty — as well as a friendship song, a thunder dance, a fish dance, a pigeon song, and 2 rabbit songs. The project was recorded in Saugerties, NY near the site of the Woodstock '94 festival which she opened with her original song America, and some of you saw her in a segment of the 1995 PBS series How The West Was Lost. (SWR809) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah Matriarch

This 1999 release is a collection of complex women's songs rooted in the history of the Haudenosaunee (the People of the Longhouse), composed to honor all women as the Lifegivers and as a series of thanksgivings for the bounties of Mother Earth, the true Matriarch and sustainer of us all. Recording of Joanne's solo voice was done on ancient village sites with live sounds of water, wind and fowl, subtly complementing instrumentation includes Native American flute, percussion, resonating stones and. The liner notes offer an excellent overview of Haudenosaunee women's history and culture; individual songs are named after women members of the Shenandoah family, with notes about their personalities and contributions to the community. (SWR913) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah Peacemaker's Journey

This 2000 collection tells the story of the Peacemaker who helped bring peace to the Iroquois Nations. Sung in her native Iroquois language, these original and inspired compositions are accompanied by violin, viola, cello, guitar, bass, and a lush array of other instruments, bestowing a profoundly moving message of peace — a message that, according to the Iroquois prophecy, will one day be heard by all. (SWR923) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah Warrior in Two Worlds

Of Oneida descent, Joanne is one of the premier Native American artists to combine original songs with both traditional and contemporary instrumentation. This 2000 release is the soundtrack to the PBS film about the life of Ely Parker, a Warrior in Two Worlds during the 19th century, both a Six Nations Confederacy Chief, and a US Army Brigadier General. (RF2002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Shenandoah/Lawrence Laughing Oranda

"Oranda" is an Iroquois word meaning "the soul of all things." Subtitled Native American Songs of Life, the songs on 1998 release celebrate life and our connection to the universal spirit. With voices that echo grace and beauty, Joanne (Oneida) and Lawrence (Mohawk) sing spirited melodies and elegant harmonies, creating a sense of peace, balance, and gratitude. The Mankillers

All Woman Northern Drum

This 1997 release is a true gem of a find. All-women drumming groups are extremely rare in Native American cultures, and even considered taboo in some. Performing in the northern pow-wow style, the members of this ensemble have broken new ground while keeping true to the traditions and obligations of their various backgrounds. Ranging in age from 15 to 39 and representing 13 different tribes, a variety of perspectives inform these compositions. Interspersed in the traditional works are original pieces on topics such as honoring veterans and women, such as Wilma Mankiller's Song, to whom they give thanks in their booklet as a role model and leader. (They confess it was hard to resist using the name for their ensemble... and we confess, it was hard to resist adding it to our listings.) (WOR1030) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Mankillers Coming to Getcha!

On their 1999 sophomore effort, this all woman multi-tribe northern drumming group deliver another set of traditional and original compositions. The songs on this recording include vocables (melodies without words) and songs sung in many languages, including English, Choctaw, Pueblo, and Timbisha Shoshone. (WOR1040) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Youngblood The Offering

Of Aleut/Chugach and Seminole ancestry, Mary is one of the first Native women to record the sacred Native American flute, as this role has been traditionally been held by men. Her haunting music is much more than a song. It is "liquid poetry, a prayer." This debut 1998 release features original compositions, vibrantly performed and recorded in the natural acoustic space deep inside the Moaning Caverns of California. She advises, "Listen with an open heart and you will hear the whispers of the Ancient Ones. May their timeless voices soothe your soul." (SWR917) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Youngblood w/Joanne Shenandoah Heart of the World

Colorful, poignant, and textured, the songs here are uniquely presented, including multi-chambered flutes, guitar, percussion, and, on 6 tracks, the exquisite voice of Joanne Shenandoah. Both meditative and playful, Mary's original sounds will take you places you've never been with the Native American flute. Dedicated to 3 Americans who have worked with the U'wa people of the rainforest, this 1999 recording shares its name with that given by the U'wa people to their native lands in South America. (SWR921) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Native Flute Ensemble Gathering of Shamans

The theme of this 1993 release is the regular gatherings held by shamans in the Black Hills of South Dakota, The Four Corners Region of the American Southwest, and Aitlan in Guatemala. Each of the 9 compositions, spotlighting the Native American cedar flute with enhancements by Native percussion and synthesizers, relates to one of these "power" areas, with distinct sounds and styles that will guide listeners on their aural journey. (TT118) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sharon Burch Colors of My Heart

This gorgeous 1999 release shares an intimate glimpse into the relationship of mother and child in the traditions of the Dine. Sharon was raised in the traditional Navajo culture, and spoke only Navajo until she began school. Inspired by songs sung by her mother and grandmother, the joyful and well-produced selection in Navajo and English celebrates family, Mother Earth, and a connection to all living things. The booklet is chock-full of vibrant pictures of the woman in her family, especially her mother and her daughter, adding a beautiful dimension to the whole. Highly recommended! Mahk Jchi

Several of you have requested music by this First Nations women's acapella trio who have toured with the Indigo Girls. ("We don't go by the name Native America, because our blood and people are older than America will ever be and we don't recognize the borders.") Pura Fe (Katenusga/Tuscarora), Soni (Mayan/Apache), and Jennifer (Katenusga/Tuscarora) blend their talents to deliver a mystical and sweeping sound which combines a variety of traditional and contemporary indigenous music of the Americas. Singing about struggles and prophecies, their work is a form of personal and historic expression. This album contains Mother, Women's Shuffle, Necklace of Broken Hearts, and their well-known title track, which translates "Our Hearts." Highly recommended! (THR7581) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Native American Women Weaving the Strands

Native American compilations abound, but thus far we have encountered none so lovely as this 1998 collection, representing some of the most talented Native artists performing today. The track listing actually reads like a "Best of the Ladyslipper Native American Section" — it contains some of the loveliest selections from 12 albums (we stock 11 of them at this writing — and we can't wait to get information on the one we don't yet). Ulali, Walela (the Coolidge clan), Joanne Shenandoah, Sharon Burch, Mary Youngblood, Joy Harjo, Alice Gomez, The Mankillers, and Mahi Dohovan contribute songs such as Woman's Dance, Wilma Mankiller's Song, For Anna Mae Pictou Aquash and more. Walela

Walela is the Cherokee word for "hummingbird" as well as the symbol of inspiration for this family of women singers, featuring rock icon Grammy-winner Rita Coolidge, her sister Precilla Coolidge, and Precilla's daughter Laura Safford. Some of you have heard them on the Robbie Robertson/Red Road Ensemble Native Americans album; their own 1997 debut, anchored by their exquisite vocal blend, combines their Cherokee heritage with the gospel sounds that filled their Southern childhood home. Rita and Precilla's father, a full-blooded Cherokee, was a Baptist minister, and their mother, of Scottish descent, gave music lessons and played organ in the church. From The Warrior to the rhythmic drumming of Wash Your Spirit Clean, they deliver pure sound and beauty, energy and spirit. Also includes Cherokee Morning Song, Earth Children, Circle of Light, and Amazing Grace, an extraordinary invocation sung in the Cherokee language, with bagpipes accompanying! And the closing track, If I Turn My Radio On, is sung with their late grandmother, Laura Stewart. Highly recommended! Cassette only for 2001. CD re-released in early 2002. Drumming * Percussion

Afia Walking Tree Soul Affirmations

From one of the original members of Ase Drumming Circle comes an eclectic 2000 collection of drum-songs. Of African descent, Jamaican-born and raised (now living in CA), Afia is a healer, minister, facilitator, educator, and advocate. Her fusion of West African, Afro-Cuban and Caribbean percussive traditions with hip-hop, R&B soul and spoken word affirmations, all give voice to her transcultural experiences. With revolutionary lyrics, her original pieces focus on healing, passion, responsibility, self-affirmation and self-forgiveness. She accompanies her performances on more than 15 instruments (including djembes, congas, djun djuns, naked gourds, shakers, bells, and bimbembas) with her palolo-tinged voice. Includes Mama Souljourn, Yemaya-OceanSong, and Rediscoveries, a powerful expression of her feelings of displacement in America. (SDZ1) CD: 15.98

Ase Drumming Circle Souls A'Gathered

NEW!

0482

Finally and fortunately back in print! Pronounced Ah-Share, this women's drumming and percussion group celebrates the diversity of African cultural expression through music and song. Their rich vocal blends, energetic songs and spirit-driven drumming speak to their experiences as children of a culturally rich and musical diaspora. Their repertoire ranges from folkloric and ceremonial to contemporary music from North America, Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean. Strongly influenced by the rhythms, chants and legends of the Yoruba, Dahomey and Vodoun traditions... and embedded with themes of celebration, liberation and love. Individually, members have performed with Women of the Calabash, Rhythmic Express, MotherSpirit Theatre Ensemble, Sista Root, Daughters of the Drum, and other groups you may have had the good fortune to see. This exciting 1994 release is very highly recommended! (ASE1) CD: 15.98

Barbara Borden Beauty in the Beat

This 1996 release "spans the global possibilities of rhythm-driven melodies"... it's like a trip around the rhythm world! Barbara employs many types of drums and percussion, including trap drums, hand drums, wooden blocks, bells and shakers — 40 different instruments in all — capturing the universal power of drumming with a delicacy that is rarely heard. Each of the 8 pieces, including Heaven's Bells, Heartbeat Culture, and Drumming-A-Round, is a story, a mood, an evocative country of its own, imbued with a calm excitement that relaxes and energizes simultaneously. Very hot and very fabulous! (CL58) CD: 15.98

Betsy Sansby & Alan Dworsky A Rhythmic Vocabulary (Book/CD Set)

Subtitled A Musician's Guide to Understanding and Improvising with Rhythm, this intensive/extensive 206-page book/CD set is not just for percussionists, but is a comprehensive course for all musicians who want to study rhythm in a systematic way. It includes: hundreds of patterns drawn from African and Afro-Cuban rhythms; rhythmic techniques you can use to create your own patterns; easy-to-read charts that non-musicians can understand; and a CD that creates a rhythmic context for you to practice in (sort of like a metronome). There's even a chapter on "rhythm walking" — how to create rhythms with your whole body while you walk! (DAN123) CD: 29.95

Beverly Botsford Movin' Up: Percussion Grooves/Dance

Finally released on CD! "I invite you to use these polyrhythmic tapestries to create Choreograph, Work out, Exercise Jam with it on your instrument, Meditate, Clean house!" This invitation has been cordially extended by this inspiring, dynamic percussionist, on her 1998 long-overdue solo debut, subtitled Percussion Grooves for Dance. Respectfully drawing from the musical cultures of Africa, Brazil, the Caribbean and her home state of NC, she creates percussion tracks that are interesting, easy to hear and count, with a wide variety of sounds (she plays over 30 percussion instruments) and tempo: perfect for dancers and dance educators. We urge you to take her up on her invitation! (HH1) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Bonnie Devlin Action of Grace/Soul of Urban Vodou

This remarkable percussionist is the only woman ever initiated as a Huntujo (ceremonial drum master) in the Haitian Vodou tradition where she is also an initiated Sou-Mambo (priestess), and has drummed at hundreds of Vodou ceremonies. She is also an ordained minister and music therapist; she has performed with Babatundé Olatunji, Returnees Con Pie, and many other ensembles, at women's music festivals and other community, religious and political events. This 1999 release is a recorded representation of a Vodou service of thanksgiving, with over an hour of prayers, invocations, libations, chants, calls, and trance-inducing drumming. All vocals, instrumental, and arrangements here are her own: timbale, congas, bell, rattles, and many more percussion instruments. (LYR7446) CD: 15.98

Brooke Medicine Eagle Drumming the Heartbeat

Brooke's first drumming tape was created for meditation, ceremony and dancing, as well as for learning to drum. She begins with a half hour of basic heartbeat drumming, excellent for meditation ("We begin... with the heartbeat of our sweet Mother Earth, a heartbeat which brings us gently, safely, back into the true rhythm of our natural Earth walk"), and proceeds with 15 minutes of two different dance rhythms, which can be used in circles and ceremonies if you don't have a drum. (BME10) CD: 10.98

Edwina Lee Tyler Things Are Gonna Change

Edwina is considered to be the foremost of the women's drumming movement; many master drummers regard her as their original mentor and teacher. Fully in 2000 we have a CD release to offer, which features Edwina on marimba, kalimba, djembe, tom tom, kick drum, and vocals; Gabrielle Schavan on cello (some of you know her from the ShapeShifters ensemble); and Linda Thomas-Jones on conga, djembe, sit drum and bass drum. The tracks are more melodic and evocative than intensely driving, lending an atmosphere of spiritual depth. Includes Souls A'Gathered, Ear Meets Weat, My Two Spirits, and the meditative and lovely Climbing the Mountain. (ELTY) CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth Endless Wave Vol. 1

This 1996 album, divided into two parts, artfully combines her subtle, mesmerizing narrations with percussion-oriented dance music. The first half is a companion piece to the video "workshop", The Wave, and is designed to lead listeners/participants through the Five Rhythms (Flowing, Staccato, Chaos, Lyrical, Stillness), with narrated instruction by Gabrielle. The second half features new music, without narration, to inspire listeners to create their own unique and unguided "movement journey". Listeners can move at their own level of skill, regardless of age, weight, dance experience or fitness level. Great for exercise, trance dancing, and/or spiritual release! (RAV954) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth Endless Wave Vol. 2

Get ready for the next Wave! The year 2000 brings us this high energy dance music experience that frees your body so your mind will follow: a moving meditation based on the five universal rhythms that flow through our lives: Flowing, Staccato, Chaos, Lyrical and Stillness. Both tracks feature the amazing vocal gymnastics of Mindy Jostyn and Catherine Russell; the combination of high energy drums and female singing is incredible! (RAV3005) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Bones

"... is a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! (RAV5894) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythmic patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume, it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV5883) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Luna

Gabrielle graces us with a 1994 release that is remarkably female-inspired, from the cover art to the album title to the song titles (Mother Night, Persephone's Song). This percussive brew weaves a sensuous web of mystery and delight that echoes deep into our ancestral bones and celebrates the dawn and dusk of our humanity. (RAV5945) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & The Mirrors Refuge

Take the world beat percussion and music of this dynamic ensemble; add Tibetan Buddhist chants sung by legendary Russian rocker Boris Grabenstikov, seek Refuge. In addition to 6 tracks featuring Boris, including the well-known Tibetan chant Chen Resi, the voices of female singers dominate on the mind-boggling Tara Mantra, for the Goddess Tara. Once again on her 1995 release, this imaginative artist draws from, combines and alchemically transforms a variety of musical and spiritual practices. (RAV5862) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Ritual

Subtitled "...of remembrance for a forgotten earth", this is trance music for movement, massage, meditation and other rituals of remembrance. Extraordinary sounds of percussion are embellished with viola, cello, synthesizer and vocal chants. 1990 (RAV5905) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & The Mirrors Stillpoint: A Compilation

This 1995 release compiles songs from Gabrielle's past albums for "stillness". Includes tracks from Ritual, Trance, Tongues and Bones that are perfect for massage, yoga and the subtle movements of the inner dance of stillness. (RAV5960) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Totem

Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-trance music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of ashiko or djembe, Taos drum, kilemba, log drum, toke, jum-jum, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Esans. We have nothing else like this in our catalog. Let yourself loose with this one! (RAV5862) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Trance

This 1992 release is "trance" dance music that calls the soul into the body, the body into the beat and the beat into the belly. — as it explores primal dance rhythms and ecstatic trance. Great for dancing around a fire... or around your living room! Drums and other percussion are accompanied by sax, didgeridu, dafar, synthesizer, and Bic pen! ashtray!! among other erotic and exotic instruments. (RAV5927) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gabrielle Roth & The Mirrors Tribes

Yet another lively and intense recording from the prolific and creative ensemble under the direction of Gabrielle Roth, this 2000 release is music to get you moving — whether you call it dance, prayer, workout or meditation. Drum- and percussion-oriented, it features bass plus the vocals by Catherine Russell and Mindy Jostyn. It offers from previous titles in that there are 2 extended length tracks, each of which have sub-sections which can be programmed for repeated play. Tsunami features her renowned system of 5Rhythms, woven together over a 27-min. extended dance music foundation. Taking Sides features over 70 tracks by 7 drummers, stacked like building blocks. Inanna Skin and Bone

This 6-woman drumming ensemble takes their name from an ancient Sumerian goddess, who held reign more than 4,000 years ago during a period when it is believed drummers and dancers were predominantly women. Utilizing a wide array of percussion — including African instruments like Djembe, Kpanlogo and Ashiko drums; bass drums such as the Doudoumba, Kankani and Sangba; frame drums; and other hand-crafted instruments such as Balaphone (African xylophone), rainsticks, kalimba (thumb piano), shakers and bells — they perform lively original arrangements as well as traditional West African rhythms. This 2000 release also includes 2 songs with lyrics: the Middle Eastern-influenced, violin-powered Rhythmic Migrations, and the original Rainbow People, inspired by a speech by Archbishop Desmond Tutu. (INN3) CD: 15.98

Inanna Listen 0701 (C)

One member of this ensemble said, "During the making of this recording, I have had this recurring image of a long procession of women, traveling through time in a common rhythm. As I play these rhythms, I am finding my place in the line, joining in with sound and soul of the Woman of all ages." This 1998 release was inspired by the traditional rhythms of West Africa and the work of Layne Redmond, musician and author of When the Drummers Were Women. Features powerful drumming arrangements voiced through the djembe and the heart-felt tones of various bass drums, along with the meditative sounds of frame drums and the melodic accompaniment of balafones, kumbas, violin and voices... including several chants to the Goddess in Her many forms. They invite you to Listen. (IIN2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Janalea Hoffman Therapeutic Drumming

This specially metered drumming, in beats of three to correspond to a normal heartbeat, is intended to reduce heart rate and blood pressure, because your body will attempt to synchronize itself with external sounds. The music starts at exactly 80 beats a minute, and gradually slows down to 50 beats per minute. Accompanying the drum are Andean clay flute, alto recorder, flutes, cello and recorded wind sounds... so it's beautiful and relaxing, even aside from the specific therapeutic effects! Also good for shamanic work: it will help you into a hypnotic state, and enhance your inner vision imagery. (RMS2) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Josefina Cupido One Woman One Drum 0915 (C)

This 1995 UK import is most intriguing and unusual! The artist is a wonderful vocalist in addition to playing Afghan drum and percussion, and splashes of sax and clarinet are added to a few of the more avant-garde selections. Her rhytm-y voice is evocative and jazzy (at times reminiscent of Rihannon, at other times Mahina, for those of you old enough...), on songs ranging from the ethereal invocation ("I felt in love With the air of a woman! And since a woman is air! In the air I will stay") to the part-spoken performance-art piece Mary Magdalene to the scatting Family. Her lyrics are spiritual, poetic, political and feminist; recommended! (SLP400) CD: 15.98

Layne Redmond Being in Rhythm

This 1997 release by acclaimed frame drummer and author of When the Drummers Were Women offers essential guidance for both beginning and experienced meditation practitioners. The first part is a guided rhythmic meditation with music and instruction for balancing the seven chakras; the second section is a musical presentation without narration to be used as a focus for self-directed meditation or everyday enjoyment. An excellent introduction to shamanic journey work as well as an invaluable tool for advanced holistic and spiritual healers — highly recommended! (IWM927) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Thomas-Jones Sacred Waters NEW

If you attended the 2001 Michigan Womyn's Music Festival, perhaps you were privileged to experience the group Ibu Ayar. Deep Piece of the Goddess of the Sound of the Drum — Linda is its director. Her spirit-ed 2000 recording features the artistry of 9 women musicians... a variety of percussion instruments (plus some keyboards, acoustic and electric guitars), deeply spiritual lyrics... and many vocal styles reflecting the African American traditions of funk, soul, jazz and gospel. Songs like Cool Water, Oya, Djembe Funk, African Woman Drumming, Spirits Speaking indeed speak to the spirit — and the body. Recommended! (DWP1) CD: 16.98

Nuru (Nurudafina Pili Abena) Drum Call 0114 (C)

"Rhythm is life. Vibration is breath. The heart-beat is the core of one's being." So says Nuru, conga, djembe player, and Afro-Caribbean and West African percussionist, who some of you know from the OneSpirit duo... and we proudly release this mid-1994 album on the LadySlipper label! It opens with an inspired program of calls, celebratory chants and prayers, to the orisha (pronounced "orisha"), or Yoruba deities. They're performed in the Yoruba/Lucumi language in a call-and-response style, with Nuru in lead, and several voices in response, with chants to deities such as Yemaya, ocean goddess and mother of all, Oshun, river goddess of love, Shango, god of thunder and lightning. Nuru then performs 3 all-instrumental djembe pieces; then to a Cuban instrumental, La Rumbera, and lastly the unexpected hip-hop of the title track, with chorus and children's voices, and its crucial message. Throughout, Nuru plays an astounding array of percussion, including 3 different congas (conga, quinto, tumbal), djembe, shekere, rattle, Ghanaian rain stick, bells, ago go, maracas, claves, djoung djoung, and more!! Experience the talent of this master percussionist. Highly recommended! (LR114) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tribe of Twelve Legends of the Drum

Native-inspired chant-like vocals by Covita Maroney... drums and percussion by Native artists Eric Casillas and Gordon Ulmer... plus Native flutes by Ben Tavera King, nature sounds, and more — sonically create a texture suggestive of legend and ritual. This is introspective, atmospheric music, rather than up-tempo drumming, with slower, deeper, almost sub-rhythms, pulse-like and subtle. Titles include Corn Maiden's Ritual, Star-maker's Rhythm, Drums of the Canyon People, Wind Spirits. (TT137) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ubaka Hill ShapeShifters 0116 (C)

1995 brings a cause for true celebration: one of the most dynamic performers anywhere on earth finally releases her debut album, on LadySlipper Records! We've never had so many requests for a single artist over so many years! Ubaka is a fiery, passionate, and radiant drummer! Chanting singer whose performance builds bridges and transcends boundaries while elevating the spirits of all who hear — her music is intensely woman-identified, life-loving, transformative, spiritual, and revolutionary, blending song, poetry, and rhythm into a heady brew. Motherbeat joyfully brings to life the exuberant imagery of women dancing down through the centuries; Night Flight, an evocative performance piece which incorporates the chant Spirit of the Wind, is a perfect vehicle for Ubaka's depth, artistry and grace; her intense rendition of the Jayne Cortez poem If the Drum Is A Woman will send chills down your spine; in Hugh Masekela's Marketplace, she exalts the beauty of a woman she meets and spends a night of ecstasy with; and her trademark The Womyn United ("shall never be defeated/divided") is energizing and inspirational. Also includes a few fantastic percussion instrumentals for movement and dance. Our highest recommendation here — it deserves to go platinum! Warning: be prepared to experience an uncontrollable urge to buy a drum and join a drumming circle. (LR116) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ubaka Hill Dance the Spiral Dance 0115 (C)

Think danceable, think upbeat. For long-time fans and new... for dancers, drummers, and all those needing inspiration to get up and MOVE... this highly-anticipated 1996 release is a must! Ubaka has drawn together a bevy of talent: in addition to the ShapeShifters ensemble, master drummer Edwin Lee Tyler guests on several tracks; and over 20 women percussionists of the Drumsong Orchestra participate on The Singing in the Silence. Many tracks here are chants, tribal improvisations in feel, and there are a couple of outstanding instrumentals. From Sistroy, an absolutely phenomenal djembe duet between Ubaka and Edwin, to Suhir, Blackagla's funky Intense Womyn Unite, to the joyful title track which reminds us how to use power to heal, you can't help but feel inspired to join in. And, we highly recommend that you do! (LR118) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Voices of Africa We Play Drums NEW

We're happy to add long last-often recordings by this 8-woman vocal and percussion ensemble — they've been appearing at women's festivals for years, and we've been receiving requests for as long! They joyfully engage their audiences with their incredible energy, blending their beautiful a cappella harmonies with resounding African poly-rhythms on traditional West African instruments such as shekere, agogo (bell), sekara and samba drums. Their material spans the Diaspora, from both African and African-American sources: traditional message music, gospel and inspirational. This 1996 debut release features both vocal and instrumental compositions; the title track was written specifically to dispel the rumor that women don't play drums! (VOA1) CD: 15.98

Women's Spirituality

* New Age

Adiemus featuring Miriam Stockley Songs Of Sanctuary 0588 (C)

This unusual and beautiful recording mixes Karl Jenkins' original compositions (performed by the London Philharmonic) with the wonderful singing of Miriam Stockley. The twist is that the delicate western classical instrumentation intertwines with phonetically written lyricless vocals, intending that the voices become another instrument without the distraction of words. Miriam has an "untrained" voice and sings fortissimo and without vibrato, the style of singing in her native South Africa. The effect is of lush multi-tracked "world" choral music that will send Enya fans into a swoon. The combination of elements from classic orchestral, Celtic, New Age, and chanting from a variety of cultures makes this 1995 English recording an amazing find! Highly recommended! Adrienne Wentworth Water in the Eyes of Time 0454 (C)

All ya who find chant albums centering and useful, read on. This 1995 album contains 9 mantras set to original, rhythmic, upbeat melodies. Gentle bells, keyboards, didgeridoo, percussion, strings and nature sounds accompany the mantras to Gayatri, Lakshmi, Krishna, Durga, Shiva, Ganesh, Rama, Hanuman and Panduranga — meditative chants which were created to empower, heal and invoke protection. High production values enable this work to come together into a beautiful and interesting weaving of sound and voice; recommended! (CRT8888) CD: 15.98

Alessandra Belloni Tarantata: Dance of Ancient Spider

The mystical-erotic trance rituals of southern Italy... haunting prayers to the Black Madonna and the Goddess of the Mediterranean... here is a very unique recording from an accomplished singer, dancer, and percussionist. Acclaimed as one of the greatest living women percussionists in the world (tambourine and frame drums), she is working to bring the healing powers of drumming, dance and the matriarchal traditions of southern Italy (once part of Magna Graecia) to women today. This 2000 release contains new world arrangements of healing prayers, processional chants, love laments, and original songs dedicated to the goddesses of love, the sea, and rivers — bringing together the passion of Italy's mystical roots with distinctive influences from Brazil, North Africa and Latin America. With her soaring mezzo-soprano and mesmerizing tambourine rhythms, she casts a spellbinding web of sensuality and ignites the healing power of magical curative folk music. Extensive and informative notes included; highly recommended! (SND117) CD: 15.98

Amber Wolfe with Kay Gardner Moon Dancing

Guided imagery to Kay's evocative solo flute. Includes Dark Moon — Release Cycle; Full Moon — Renewal Cycle; and Moon Dancing Imagery — Attunement to Cycles of Self. Amber takes the listener to magical places, and guides her to let go of self-limitations, encircle herself with power and strength, and explore her own life cycles using the ancient goddess symbol of the moon. Avalon Rising

Playing Celtic-Medieval-rock-fusion, Avalon Rising is a shimmeringly original 4-person band. The intricate interplay among Margaret Davis (lead vocals, flute, Celtic Harp, recorders), Kristoph Klover (lead vocals, electric and acoustic guitars, mandala, oboe), Deirdre McCarthy (bodhran, vocals, bongos, doumbek, zils, riq, tar, guitar) and Beth Milne (bass, French horn, vocals) evokes a blend of Loreana McKernill and early Grateful Dead. This 1995 release includes both original and traditional songs that range from driving, danceable songs to haunting harp-based ballads. Their lyrics, including some in Medieval French and Portuguese, speak of love and longing, quests and reveals, magic and transformation. Includes Cynthia McQuillen's Dark Moon Circle ("Lady hey, steal away — join us in the woodlands"), and their mystical original God Walks Among Us: "She loves us every one, She waits with tender mercy, Until we all come home." Recommended! (FLM002) CD: 14.98

Barbara Higbie
Variations on a Happy Ending 0895 (4)

This versatile artist's career has taken as many twists and turns as her talents, with previous recordings featuring her duet work with Teresa Trull and with Carol Anger, her ensemble participation with Montreaux, and her own music as a singer-songwriter. Among other things, she is a brilliant pianist, and on her 2000 Solo Piano release, for the first time we are treated to a full program featuring her elegant and expressive renditions of mostly original compositions (plus 2 by Egberto Gismonti and 1 by Joni Mitchell). It's lyrical, melodic, emotional, soothing, smooth, very direct and pure. Listen to the tenderness of Asleep in My Arms, and to the jubilation and grace of To Be (SLB2214) CD: 15.98

Beverly Frederick 0897 (4)
In the Arms of the Wild/More Chants

...from the Reclaiming Community contains 25 inspired chants, songs and instrumentals dedicated to the fierce love-in-action of Julia Butterfly. On December 18, 1999, Julia's feet touched the ground for the first time in 2+ years, the first tree after to permanently save an ancient redwood grove from the blade of corporate greed. Highlights include Beverly's gospel rendition of We Are Your People, Way to the West and Rise With the Fire; the soulful blues moans of Divine Mother, Heaven the Earth and Innana (Take Us), the percussive dance of Shamba Sada Shiva; and the traditional South African Chico Le-Le... over an hour of divine inspiration from Starhawk, Shoshoni Mountainwater, Beverly herself and others. Through the Darkness: Chants...

Starhawk described Beverly's 1996 ritual-like release, subtitled Chants from the Reclaiming Community, as "...a haunting, magical CD that truly opens the gates to fairy, it includes some of my favorite songs and chants (including a few I've written myself)." Beverly's voice is strong and intense, sometimes solo scapella, other times with layered harmonies. It features 21 rich and varied selections from "between the worlds." Every Step Is Sacred/The Midwife's Song, Weaver, Weaver, Goddess of the Sun, Fairy Queen Invocation, At Brigid's Well, and more, by Starhawk, Sparky T. Rabbit, Beverly herself and others. Blackmore's Night
Shadow of the Moon

The debut album from Candice Night, Ritchie Blackmore and ensemble has finally been released in the US in 2000. Described on its cover as Medieval Mood Music and Gypsy Melodies (though it also contains a few rock-driven tracks), it features Candice's vocals on songs such as Ocean Gypsy, Spirit of the Sea, Magical World and Renaissance Fair, interspersed with tasteful and courtly instrumentals. (PLT3756) CD: 15.98

Blackmore's Night
Under a Violet Moon

Featuring the primary vocals of Candice Night (wearing the cloak of high priestess), over instrumentals from acclaimed guitarist Ritchie Blackmore, the Minstrel Hall Consort and more, this spirited duoband presents magical, pagan, minstrel, gypsy, medieval and Renaissance music on their 1999 release. The sheer number of instruments and musicians is impressive — plenty of horns and percussion — the production light, and the mood so jubilant that you'll be inspired to find the next moonlit celebration and join in the merriment. Songs (originals and traditional with original arrangements) include Avalon, Castles and Dreams, Fool's Gold, and little track, if you can't make a Renaissance Fair, this is the next best thing. (PLT3741) CD: 15.98

Blackmore's Night NEW!
Fires At Midnight

Finally released in the US in 2001, this enchanting and beguiling mélange of rock music and folk melodies from the 16th centuries pays homage to the music of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. With acoustic and electric guitars, strings and a variety of period instruments, vocalist Candice Night and guitarist Ritchie Blackmore fuse romanticism and mysticism, passion and enthusiasm. This time around, they draw more material from the medieval music of Central and South-Eastern Europe than from the Celtic tradition, though you'll also find a fine rendition of Dylan's The Times They Are a-Changin', both audio and video on this CD! Also: the track, an ode to the Seven Sisters constellation, and Mid Winter's Night, borrowed from a Provencal French carol. (STH7243) CD: 16.98

Britta Alexander
Mysterious Pleasure

Daughter of Ariel (co-writer of Mayan Oracle), Britta presents her debut album of riot-to-serious, fun-loving songs reminding us to love and celebrate life, along with the goddesses, angels and devils in our midst. Dance-like tracks are interspersed with spoken word snippets, and songs from writers like Sheila Chandra, Paul Winter and Laura Allen are alternated with originals. It's upbeat, playful, and basically bacchanalian! (BTA1335) CD: 15.98

Carlen Wijnen & Friends 0680 (4)
Womyn With Wings

All Libans-lovers and Goddess chant-lovers, listen up! Subtitled Frauen singen Heilungs- und Kraftlieder, this 1995 German import features a 17-woman mostly-a cappella ensemble performing 16 of the best-loved Goddess and circle chants — 14 in English. Recorded in a church, their reverberating harmonies sound glorious indeed! Includes many Libans favorites, such as A River of Birds in Migration, plus Old Woman Is Watching (Weave and Mend), We All Come From the Goddess, Mother Does, Rainbow Womyn, Our Magic Is Our Give Away, and the classic by Naomi Littlebear Morena, Like A Mountain, a.k.a. You Can't Kill the Spirit (Old and Strong). Excellent arrangements, undoubtedly includes a few rounds and chants which will be new to the listener, truly a demonstration of the global women's spirituality community! (CWF1) CD: 17.98

Carlen Wijnen & Rainbow Womyn Choir
Womyn in Circle

On this 1998 follow-up to the highly successful Womyn With Wings, 20 German women have come together to once again sing spiritual songs and canons from different cultures — over 60 minutes of songs honoring the power of nature, Mother Earth and the Great Goddess. Conducted by Carlen Wijnen, it features interesting accompaniment on percussion such as ocean drum, trance drum, and berimbau. Titles include Yani Yoni, The Earth Is Our Mother, Spirit of the Wind, We Are the Power. (CWF2) CD: 17.98

Caroline Lavelle NEW!
Brilliant Midnight

If you're a fan of Sarah McLachlan, Dido, or some of Sarah Brightman's recent albums such as La Luna, then you're a good candidate to be a fan of Caroline Lavelle. This 2001 release — the second solo album by this accomplished cellist/singer/songwriter (she has toured as a cellist with Loreena McKennitt) — employs elements of electronic, exquisite string arrangements, and her ethereal voice to create a sound that is decidedly contemporary in its inventiveness, but whose roots point to strong classical training. This lovely, mellow album will appeal to many musical tastes. (TEL84837) CD: 17.98

Caroline Lavelle 0513 (4)
Spirit

This lushly beautiful 1995 album feels like taking a warm bath while surrounded by delicate crystal. The sumptuous, velvety sound of her rich voice matches the smooth, intense, and elegant textures of her acoustic and electric cello playing (I love a good cello). She elaborates: "I use cello where other may use guitar or saxophone. It's a lead instrument." A mixture of ambient beats and rhythms, Celtic-tinged melodies and classical structures make this reminiscent of Sarah McLachlan, Loreena McKennitt (who she actually records with — you can hear her on The Book of Secrets), Enya and Jane Siberry — yet totally fresh and unique. Mostly original compositions washed with strings and synthesizers (with a snaky version of Joni Mitchell's A Case Of You) will take your breath away with their loveliness. Highly recommended! Inner Harmony

This 1999 recording, from the Norwegian classically-trained vocalist who sings like an angel, is finally available in the US! Many of the top authors in the field of healing and personal transformation, such as Louise Hay and Deepak Chopra, are saying very wonderful things about her these days. In fact, this release features lyrics by Deepak Chopra (We Have Met Before, about reincarnation) and James Redfield (The Prayer and Angel of Love, a heart-touching song for anyone who has lost a loved one). One selection is in Norwegian, the remainder in English, but really, they are all about the universal language of Love, inviting us to follow our heart and dreams to make both our inner and outer world a beautiful place. Cecilia
The Voice of Violet 19

The "Voice of the Feminine Spirit" returns with a new album for '97. Based on a mystical novel by Stuart Wilde about the spiritual quest of two young boys for their sister, it is a lavishly orchestrated creation. Cecilia, a Norwegian classically-trained operatic soprano, combines her love of classical music with "songs that express higher ideals, that inspire and elevate the human spirit." Accompanied by a forty-plus choir, oboe, French horn, flute, Celtic harp and a wash of keyboards, she sings of a gently majestic vision of star children. (WD410) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Voice of the Feminine Spirit

This 1994 album is one of unusual beauty, purity and clarity, impeccably performed by Norwegian-born Cecilia Krusner, who possesses a haunting, bell-like, classically trained voice the songs inspire and soothe. The album also features renowned flautist and composer Tim Wheeler, as well as lyrics by Stuart Wilde, international lecturer and author of the mystical books, Tao Quintet. Sound effects from nature, including the sounds of wind, water, birds, and wolf add dimension; also some male voices included. Contains: Daughter of the Midnight Sun, The Sacred Hum, Unto the Tribe, Moon Song, Rowland's Silver Wings, G. r. a. g. a. a. Solweig's Song, and a gorgeous rendition of Amazing Grace (Prayer to the Whales), with whale sounds. (WD400) CD: 15.98

Celeste Alayne NEW!
Portrait of The Goddess

A magical tribute to goddess traditions from around the world, this 2001 release blends new age, world and western music styles with sacred texts, ancient chants and original lyrics rooted in the history of each goddess. Each of the 10 original compositions — Gaea, Morgan La Fay, White Tara, Kwan Yin, Mara, Changning Woman, Isis, Gwenhwyfar, Saraswati and Oshun — reflects Celeste's personal and spiritual relationship with each deity, as well as her connection and devotion to "The Goddess Path" and pagan traditions. With varied and evocative musical settings, this collection is a lovely source of new songs with ancient roots. Recommended! (KRN65201) CD: 15.98

Celestial Winds
MoonSongs

How unusual and refreshing, Celestial Winds was a well-known mixed-gender duo until recently when they became an all-female duo... and their 1995 release reflects this new configuration. Lisa Franco, who has been a principal since the beginning, plays electroacoustic Celtic harp, mandolin and Appalachian dulcimer; she is accompanied by Susan Craig on a variety of recorders and flutes. Many of the dreamlike tunes are originals (Adeline's Arms is for Lisa's grandmother, Luna de Amor, Still the Moon and more). Also includes an instrumental version of Ann and Nancy Wilson's Just the Way. (LVS2504) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Chloe Goodchild 0550 (4)
Devi

This 1995 release is a way-spectacular album from an acclaimed voice teacher in England with an unbelievable range! Devi, which means Divine Feminine or Goddess, contains her favorite devotional chants from the Hindu, Christian, Buddhist and Sufi traditions. She multi-tracks her own voice, which spans many many octaves, creating a full-choir sound at times; contemplative, other-worldly, full of grace and power. Includes Ave Maria (her own improvised interpretation) and Kyrie, Thy Will Be Done which is based on an Indian kriya she learned from her spiritual teacher, Sri Ananda Mayi Ma (one of India's greatest women saints), little track which invokes and celebrates the presence of the Divine Mother within the heart of the singer, a 4-part Armenian chant, and one which translates the Buddhist Heart Sutra. Highly recommended! (RAV1981) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Chloe Goodchild
Sura

This 1998 release from this British-born "Judeo/Christian/Hindu/Buddhist/Quaker" features a stronger rhythmic impulse than her previous work, while continuing to draw upon the world's mystic traditions for source and inspiration: Asia (mythical-hypnotic), Europe (harmonic), and Africa (magical-ritualistic). Includes 3 works by Hildegard von Bingen, celebrating Mary and the Divine Feminine; Everywhere Longing, an ancient Jewish chant combined with the words of Laila, a 14th century Kashmiri woman saint "who lived beyond all religious boundaries"; and the Hindu Geyam Mantra accompanied by a pulsating Egyptian beat. Circle of Soul NEW!
Bowl of Soul 0831 (4)

This 2000 release of circle songs and chants is presented in full ritual format. It begins by calling in the elements of Earth, Air, Fire and Water, casting a circle, invoking deities, raising power, grounding, releasing the directions, and opening the circle. This 11-member a cappella ensemble has come together in song to honor Mother Earth and to create sacred community as a way of engendering transformation, celebration and peace. Here they include material from Buddhist, Native American, and Celtic traditions as well as originals... plus, Sharna Carol's The Charge of the Star Goddess. (CRS61) CD: 15.98

Colorado Midwives Association

Ritual Songs

Acappella chants and songs performed by 4 members of the Colorado Midwives Association (C.M.A.), designed for sing-along learning. It contains material for gatherings (Blessingway, Rituals and Birth), as well as private meditations to cleanse, heal and strengthen. Selections include Woman I Am, I Am the Circle, Mother Moon, We Are Sisters, as well as more traditional images such as May the Blessings of God Rest Upon You and We All Come From God, Simple and lovely; we've been getting requests for this "underground classic," and are glad to be able to make it available; proceeds benefit the non-profit C.M.A., dedicated to providing better birth experiences through homebirth services. Constance Demby

At Alaron

With a synthesizer that sounds like the most glorious pipe organ, and with a psaltery, gamselan and cheng, Constance gave a performance in 1983 whose magic and energy have been captured here, and she often played two instruments at once, seemingly effortlessly, overlaying the ensuing rich mixture with her electronically altered voice. This very recommended classic is now at a special low price! (SC4) CS: 8.98

Dale Zola/ Kirsten Falke/ Rumi 0890

The Breeze at Dawn: Poems of Rumi

On this 1995 release, composer Dale Zola has set to music 14 poems by Jelaluddin Rumi, a 13th century Sufi mystic who lived in Turkey and recited his poems in Persian. Dale has been immersed in Rumi poetry for almost 20 years — she and her husband Dan produce evenings of Rumi's poetry called The Great Night of Rumi in northern California. She has also conducted a women's singing circle for many years, which is where she found Kirsten, the vocalist heard here. Oud, accordion, pedal steel guitar, bass, cello, didgeridoo, flute and violin set the backdrop for Kirsten's expressive vocalizations, creating a compelling setting for these timeless words of joy, humor, wisdom, spirituality, and connection with the Divine. Deb Criss

Inner Chambers

Part of the Sex Temples musical series, this 1996 release weaves, through music, sexual celebration and meditative practices from ancient to modern times. Deb combines her skills as a singer-songwriter with those from her Asheville, NC healing practice (including work with survivors of sexual abuse) to create this set of drone-based, chakra-opening lyrical songs. The album focuses on the reopening of the sexual center and the transformation of shame, inhibition and control patterns surrounding sex to an aware, joyful experience. She utilizes the pathways of Tantra from Tibet and Eastern India, plus Chulauqui-Quodoutika, shamanist teachings from North and South America, regarding the sexual, creative life force.

Detailed harmonized vocals, strings, dulcimer, percussion, synthesizer, tambourine create the rhythmic, meditative atmosphere of Windows of Love, Sacred Night, Tiger Awakening, Luscious Nectar and more. Includes instructions for sensual meditative exercises. (CLS012) CS: 9.98

Desert Wind

Gaia, Earth Goddess - Ritual Dances

Hypnotic, trance Dances of the Mother, mostly electronic keyboards and percussion by female and male musicians, featuring Kirsten Gygi on flute and gorgeous vocals (especially when she self-harmonizes!). The title chant/song is a loving invocation to the elements: "The earth is my body! Her water is my blood! Her winds are my breath! Her fire is my spirit..." Kirsten is a classically trained flutist and vocalist, and more recently a Dianic Priestess with a love of creating rituals. Her contributions to this album make it the perfect addition to any pagan's collection! (DW1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Return to the Goddess-Chants & Song

This group just keeps getting better and better! Kristin and Kathryn sound like they were meant to sing together from the cradle, and the material continues to honor and revere the Goddess in her many forms, with her many names. They include Z. Budapest's From the Goddess Chant, which anyone who's attended a women's spiritually gathering would probably recognize, as well as the life-affirming Day Yes To Life and the amazing Goddess Dance Cycle. The music is a bit more acoustic in feeling, with lots of percussion, while maintaining the contemporary feel of the earlier recordings. Highly recommended — and we additionally recommend all their albums for bellydancing and other movement. (DW1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Kali Ma - Dances of Transformation

One of the most contemporary-sounding devotional Goddess recordings we've heard (the artists call it New Age Tribal Fusion). The title chant is spitting yet full of contained energy, while Rites of Kali is all vibrant movement. Kristin is joined on some vocals by the amazing Kathryn Warner, whom some of you may remember from her standing ovation at the West Coast Women's Music Festival. Titles here include Wind Dancer, Exploding Star, Moon Goddess, Goddess Dance Cycle. Recommended! (DW1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

She Is a Tree of Life (2-CD Set)

Emphasizing the feminine aspect of divinity from Jewish and Biblical influences as well as world healing, this 2-fer contains 2+ hours of moving Jewish music, with rockin' Middle Eastern flavor. With kabbalistic overtones, the lyrics blend ancient wisdom with modern thought. This 1995 release reassures some previously recorded material, and along with World Dance, replaces the out-of-print 4-CD set Sarasvati. (DW1007) CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Shekhina, Hebrew Goddess

This 1993 release, subtitled Restoring the Balance, is about Shekhina, the Hebrew Goddess of the Kabbala; the music and lyrics contain a blend of Middle Eastern, Spanish, Celtic, and Hindustani influences, about half in Hebrew and half in English. Sources are Old Testament, Talmud and Kabbalistic writings, showing the survival of the triple goddess in the basic foundations of Judaism. Extensive liner notes, a full 79 minutes in length; unique and recommended! (DW1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

World Dance (2-CD Set)

This 1995 2-for-the-price-of-1 compilation presents some of the best dance music honoring the Goddess from their 4-CD set Sarasvati, with the addition of the all-new Power Flute. It contains over 2.5 hours music, 32 tracks which feature various rhythms from all over the world (and they are all named on the back cover). CD #1 is instrumental (flutes, mandolins, dulcimers, tablas and more), while CD #2 includes female vocals on songs ranging from the Om Tara chant to the Latin American song La Llorona (Weeping Woman), to Mother of Light. Earth Dance Singers

Songs of the Sacred Wheel

This circle of 7 women is inspired to sing these songs in honor of the Earth they love... and over 50 chants and circle songs are included here! Titles such as Mother/Daughter Circle Dance Song, I Am the Goddess, Mother I Feel You, Ocean Mother — by authors such as Starhawk, Z. Budapest, Lisa Thiel, Adele Getty, Charlie Murphy, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and Kate Wolf, as well as members of this ensemble — flow easily from song to song, to song. One of the most complete recordings of women's circle songs we know about! (ED1) CS: 9.98

Elaine Silver

Faerie Goddess

This 1997 collection of 13 original and borrowed songs showcases "Faerie Elaine's" beautiful and lucid voice, and reflects the grown-up side of her Faeriness. Great song selection, including Charlie Murphy's Burning Times, Pat Humphries' Swimming To The Other Side, Libby Rodenick's How Could Anyone, plus her own Faeries' Moon, Divine Emotion, Blue Moon Song, Heavenly Kingdom; accompanying instruments include guitars, cello, fiddle, hard drums, hammer dulcimer, woodwinds, string bass and percussion. Believe in magic, faeries and the Goddess, listen to this! (SSM007) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Elaine Silver

The Lady of the Lake

Plenty of goddessy-pagany songs here to please earth spirituality people and universalists everywhere! Elaine's crystalline voice, accompanied by Janice Kolar's luscious harmonies, takes listeners on a journey to ancient places of the heart and sacred spaces of the mind on this 2001 recording brimming with blessings, light and joy. Magical originals — such as Welcome To the Garden and Walkin' Under Scorpio — are interspersed with favorites like Heart of the Mother, Grandmother Moon Goddess Guide Us, and Aleluia Canon (the one Pachabel wrote the music to). Instrumentation is tasteful and liner notes include great stories like "Reality." It's over-rated. Quite recommended! (SSM010) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Flight of the Hawk

Shamanic Songs and Ritual Chants

Many members of the Flight of the Hawk community in California perform on this 1994 album, under the musical direction of Victoria McCarthy. With a primarily women's vocal ensemble, it includes beautiful renditions of favorites like The River She is Flowing and Sweet Surrender, as well as contemporary shamanic songs such as Bones, plus originals like Victoria McCarthy's Grandmother Moon and Adele Getty's O Great Spirit. Excellent drumming and instrumentation on: hoop drum, dumbek, djembe, conga, bongos, tabla, bone whistle, violin, acoustic bass, didgeridoo, alto flute and more. Very professionally done, and we recommend it wholeheartedly! (RT4071) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sundari: A Jivamukti Yoga Class 0865

This 1999 release is a one-hour class, set to tribal world beat music by Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors and Chloe Goodchild. But — there's no voice-over, so it's equally excellent for listening, movement, massage and meditation. Additional participants include Jai Uttal (vocals, synth, piano, dhol), Minny Joelyn and Catherine Russell (vocals), and lots of percussionists. It does contain an instructional diagram for the 21 postures that will get you into the beat of a bare bones Jivamukti yoga class; suitable for all practitioners! (RAV0992) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gaia's Voice

Passions and Passages

In this Pagan choral music society founded in 1987, the 10 women and men sing earth-centered music for the Pagan community and Mother Earth. Their repertoire reflects the diverse community they serve (they never charge fees for their performances), and the group acts as a vehicle for the wide range of ritual music written by those in the community as well as their own members — intricate choral arrangements as well as multi-rhythmic chants. The selections on this 1998 recording range from new adaptations of traditional songs, like Unorthodoxology (if you've sung the Oxology, you'll appreciate this version), to intricate and lovely original pieces that celebrate nature's beauty. (GV2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Grayhawk/ Helene Hess

Blissful Magic

Subtitled Spiral of the Celtic Mysteries, this unusual 1995 recording is a Druid Earth Rite, honoring the Great Mother manifesting as Bridget, that fuses chanting (in both Gaelic and English) with lush, sophisticated neo-classical music. No simple circle-singing here! Grayhawk, David Glibney collaborated with magician Helene Hess in creating/trace channeling this ritual of initiation, healing and blessings (we wish she were credited on the album jacket); he composed the music and conducts the late of Avalon Orchestra. Using Celtic Shamanism and the craft of Magical and Wicca practitioners from both North America and Europe, this is a powerful and transcendent album filled with the Bardic Mystery Choir's beautiful choral accompaniment, with solos by priestesses and priests, and music of wooden flutes, hammered dulcimer, David Darling's cello, and percussion from the Faery Drumming Circle. Gypsy

Enchantress

Gypsy is a present-day witch/priestess from Salem (no kidding!) who writes and performs very magical pagan songs to honor the Goddess and the witches, to cast magic spells, to invoke medicine spirits and world peace. Accompaniment on violin and flute by Kerry and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady Two Witches, Magick, Morina's Theme, Medicine Song, and a (new) solstice song of the Old Religion, Bring Back the Light Enchanting! (WLP1) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Herdman, Hillis, & Mangsen

At the Turning of the Year

With gorgeous harmonies and complementary instrumentalists, this trio of women sing Mother Earth around the Wheel of the Year. Combining traditional arrangements with brand new compositions on this 2000 release, their message of harmony is accompanied by almost every acoustic instrument you can think of, from oboe to spoons, accordion to banjo. Conjuring up images of a time when the turning of the Wheel was a community event, one to be shared and celebrated — a time that will hopefully be one day resurrected — their music helps fuel the hope that we can learn to live with the earth, not just on it. Some tracks here are absolute must-have gems: Away Ye Merry Lassies about a "girls' night out" riding their broomsticks through the sky, and the most beautiful round ever written or recorded, Forget-Me-Not, for which this album is most very highly recommended! Hollienea

Ascending Souls

Alive with the spirit of long ago, graciously touched by the mystic, Hollienea takes you on an expressive and interpretive journey of her own cultures. Singing in her own native language Hungarian, her original creations combine Hungarian eastern chants, spoken and sung, with melodies and instrumentation representing many world influences: Gypsy, Celtic and more... Includes Mayer's (She Moved Through the Fair), Serenity, Hungaria. (WRK0003) CD: 15.98

Vision of the Grail

This Renaissance, goddess, pagany, magical Celtic blend, with a serene and spiritual ambience, comes from a harper whose enchanting and passionate approach to music stems from a most auspicious and unique upbringing. Born and raised by a traditional Hungarian Irish family, her Gypsy blood and cultural heritage convinced her at an early age that music would be her way. As she grew, her travels with Gypsy musicians and dance troupes inspired her to share this culture with others. Her 1996 release combines her harp, interspersed with some layered vocals plus occasional incantation-like spoken poetry (some by Earl Scott) and animal sounds, with evocative instruments like bodhran, bodhran, dambek and violin, on selections such as Goddess of Circe, Searching for Lambs, A Winter's Tale, Sagean (her Gypsy-influenced piece), and title track (intriguing and recommended!) (WRK0001) CD: 15.98

Holly Tannen

Between the Worlds

On her 1985 release, at long last on CD, Holly explores the worlds of spirits — the Otherworld, nature spirits, faeries, souls of the dead — where pre-Christian pagan beliefs were merged into Christian ones. In addition to several traditional ballads, it includes Holly's slightly altered version of Catherine Madsen's The Heretic Heart, as well as Through All the Worlds Below, a "hymn" that was turned into a "her." The fact that spiritual guidance was provided by the Rev. Virginia Dentata is one more excellent reason to add this to your shopping list. (GLR101) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Incubus Succubus

Wytches

One of the foremost Pagan bands in the UK, their melodic songs and punchy musical delivery is distinctly Gothic in style on this 1994 import, capturing the vibrant energy of the Craft. Powerful lead vocals by Candice are backed by driving electric guitars, bass and drums alongside acoustic 12-string, bodhran and accordion. Songs like the track, Pagan Born, Queen of the May, Dark Mother, Song to Pan tell of joy and the earth's cycles, while The Rape of Maude Brown, Burning Times, Church of Madness ("What do they tell the people of their old crusades?") Of the women and children impaled on Christian blades") recount the persecution and brutality committed by the historical church. (FMR7) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jami Sieber

Lush Mechanique

We've known about Jami's incredible artistry for a long time now, through her musical associations with Charlie Murphy, Rumors of the Big Wave, and most recently with Fearon. Her 1995 debut solo album of electric cello music is peerless, however, if there is music in the real realm (which I'm sure there is), some of it must sound like this. She describes "lush mechanique" as the meeting of two different worlds — of one giving birth to the other — of them living side by side. The accompanying percussion, along with occasional layers of voice, creates a tribal, insistent, intense, emotional spiritual, evocative atmosphere, with her exquisite classically-influenced cello tones at the center. What depth and breadth, highly recommended! (OFM1008) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jami Sieber

Second Sight

This rich 1998 sonic journey weaves the warmth and beauty of Jami's unsurpassable electric and acoustic cello with drums, trumpet, harp, piano, accordion, vocals and nylon-string guitar. Features guest vocalist Rhianon on I Carry You, Julie Wolf on piano on two tracks, and a beautiful poem by Charlie Murphy (one of Jami's longest-term collaborators) entitled Tree of Love. A delicious variety in arrangements too, ranging from the full richness of bass, drums, and vocals plus cello, to the poignant simplicity of solo cello. One of the most talented musicians we know has gifted us with another expression of her art; please! (OFM1009) CD: 15.98

Janalea Hoffman

Mind-Body Rhythm

Sensitive to the many sounds we involuntarily listen to daily and the healing response music produces, composer/therapist Janalea Hoffman adopted music as a healing tool. On her 1995 release, she recorded her original instrumentation (including flutes, strings, acoustic piano and celestial voices) at 60 beats per minute. At that slow, steady beat, the heart and breathing rate harmonizes with each other, resulting in relaxation and reduced stress. Also perfect for massage! (UNY1) CD: 15.98

Janalea Hoffman

Musical Acupuncture

Janalea developed this innovative concept in Music Therapy, which enables the listener to experience how music can conduct and move energy in the body similarly to an acupuncture treatment — without needles! Particularly effective for chronic pain such as arthritis, back pain, and headaches, as well as for preventive medicine, it features music specially metered at 60 beats per minute. Includes both music with vocal instruction and music alone; it's so beautifully melodic (and acoustic) that the second part is also recommended for meditation, deep relaxation, and stress management! Janalea Hoffman

Musical Massage

If you're looking for massage music, this is perfect! Created with very beautiful piano, cello, flute, violin and viola — all acoustic — the melody is flowing, soothing, and healing. This music will actually slow the heartbeat of the listener to 50 or 60 beats per minute, as the body tries to synchronize with external rhythms. Therefore, the music itself acts as a massage, as your body feels the vibration of the music! Each side has continuous music, suitable for uninterrupted body work. (RM51) CD: 11.98 CD: 14.98

Jayne Elleson & Philip Riley

The Blessing Tree

Occasionally albums come across our desks here that are gloriously elegant and almost sacred-sounding, this is one which offers true aural blessings! If you like the music of Enya, this emotionally intense 1998 release from this New Zealand duo will comfortably fit into your music collection, standing far above other Enya-esque releases. Songs such as Pictish Girl (Wild and dark, she runs! In Pagan black! Within her world! Who will ever catch the wind? Or tame my pictish girl?) embody lush, poetic lyrics and magical melodies, leaving your senses intrigued. Jayne's vocals and Philip's instrumentals create an eternal scene of euphonious beauty — highly recommended! (WHC11036) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Jeanette Alexander

Still Point

This 1998 release takes the listener on a spiritual journey with piano music that is soulful, emotional, tranquil, and spirited. Jeanette is accompanied by a talented group of musicians, on violin, guitar, cello, and percussion. Although completely instrumental, this is a collection of story-songs, each with a clear and beautiful melody that evokes peace and introspection. This aptly performed and produced recording has received raves from critics, fellow composers, and fans alike — the heartfelt nature of each song succeeds in touching all who listen. Jennifer Berezan

Returning

To record this exceptional 1999 multi-cultural meditative chant Women's Spirituality collaboration, Jennifer and a group of musicians travelled to Malta, to one of the world's most ancient and important sacred goddess sites, the Hypogeum. This 3-story underground chamber was carved from stone over 6000 years ago, to honor and celebrate the Mother Goddess and her sacred cyclical mysteries of birth, death and regeneration. The oracle chamber, created with an advance understanding of acoustics, probably demonstrates that these ancient peoples recognized the healing power of sound and music. Special guests Linda Tillery, Navajo singer Sharon Burch, Qawal singers Sukhawal, Ali Khan and Rafat Salamati, Rick Lazar (Lorena McKenna's percussionist on Mumma's Dance), and others weave elements of chant, goddess spirituality and Buddhism from a variety of cultures, evoking the lineage of ancient singing priestesses. Highly recommended — by us and by Olympia Dukakis, who says, "Motherheart whispering to us from over the ages, yearning for us to know her." (EOW13) CD: 15.98

She Carries Me

This 1995 release is a highly original creation weaving gorgeous layers of vocals and instrumentation — a powerfully evocative and meditative piece of healing music to the Goddess in her many forms. Features Chris Webster, and special guest Olympia Dukakis reciting the Charge of the Goddess, also includes the long-playing piece Who Hears the Cries of the Wind and title track. The multi-layered chant honors the Chinese goddess Quan Yin, the Tibetan goddess Tara, and includes a reworking of Jennifer's Catholic past in a rewriting of the Hail Mary. Jo St. Clair

OM of the Goddess

Here is a mystical blend of layered voices chanting the OM, with specific sound frequencies added. Beginning against a backdrop of subtle music, it continues in layers, with Jo's voice singing over, under, and through itself, always the OM. This reverent devotion to the Goddess and God has been recognized in many religions, particularly Buddhism, as the syllable to be exhaled during meditation in order to keep the mind free of thoughts of the external world. In 50 minutes of continuous OM, this 2000 recording of ceremonial chant facilitates meditation, deepens the connection to the inner self, enables the mind to focus, and inspires true beingness. Jocelyn Pook

Untold Things

The music on the Stanley Kubrick film Eyes Wide Shut earned this composer, who is also a classically-trained cellist, broad critical acclaim for her eclectic fusion of classical and unorthodox, blurring boundaries, densely atmospheric — invoking a sense of faith, loss and yearning — this 2001 release of new repertoire melds obscure medieval instruments with strings, taking drums, the sounds of birds and a stunning juxtaposition of voices, from sepulchral to plainsong to Persian to unrecognizable and otherworldly. Recommended for meditation, or a transcendent listening experience! (RW50781) CD: 15.98

Julia Haines

Thunder: Perfect Mind

Her name isn't a household word, but harpist/vocalist Julia Haines ranks among the all-time favorite artists of this Ladyslipper Catalog editor. Julie's compelling, lyrical, unique 1999 release (9 years in the making) will be of interest to anyone who has investigated the Gnostic Gospels. The 5-part title track contains some of its ancient texts set to music, about which she says, "More than 1500 years ago there was a voice of feminine energy, duality, ambivalence, paradox, contradiction and passion calling out." She meditated on these words morning and evening for over a year, and the depth of her exploration is evident in the musical delivery. Other tracks are equally excellent. The Mystory which breathes upon the sea, I am a wave of the ocean. "Jelo Je," a traditional Mandingo song, and Wind/Water/Light from her debut release by that name, as half of the duo Windharp. Meaningful and melodic, there are many treasures to mine on this beautifully produced, very highly recommended recording! (AH2) CD: 15.98

K.J.

She Carane Hom: ...Divine Feminine

Subtitled Evoking and Honouring the Divine Feminine, this 1996 release is one of the more engaging and enchanting women's spirituality recordings we've heard in a while. Celtic-infused, spacious and erotic, warm and inviting, inspired by Sacred Sites and performed entirely by women, her original melodies, rounds, chants and spoken pieces are drenched in Feminine Power — recalling times when priestesses worshipped and queens reigned, and activating an ancient vibration deep within cellular memories! Her voice is strong and centered, sometimes enhanced by beautiful harmonies, backed by touches of drums, didgeridoo, guitar and flute. Some lyrics were translated in a language she doesn't speak, but which when translated were found to be spiritually meaningful, also includes Greenwoman's Ellen, Kali Energy, Song of Avalon, and the spoken One Woman's Freedom. Very recommended! (KJ444) CD: 14.98

Kate Marks & Friends

Circle of Song: Chants & Songs... 0862

for Ritual & Celebration is the companion album to one of our best-selling songbooks, Circle of Song, edited by Kate. This 1999 recording contains 16 songs, rounds and chants from the book, drawn from Buddhist, Sufi, Jewish, African, Native American, Wicca and Celtic traditions as well as contemporary earth-based ritual and circle songs. Kate's friends are numerous here: Anne White, Doug Hewitt — even the 100-voice Brattleboro Women's Chorus — and they provide multi-layered arrangements and beautiful harmonies to percussion and mostly-acoustic accompaniment. Includes Celtic Blessing, I Will Be Gentle With Myself, Sanctify the Earth. (FOP98) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner

A Rainbow Path

Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this 1994 recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness, and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical,

Indian, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Rowe on viola, Martha Siegel on cello, Vivian Stoll on vibraphone, Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. This is truly a deluxe, many-dimensional experience. (LR103) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Amazon

Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summertime 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your head (and heart). Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's tour in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing, perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. And, note sale price on cassettes. (LR111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Emerging

An exquisite instrumental masterpiece by Kay and a host of other classical musicians. Sounds range from Renaissance to contemporary to oceanic. Like Mooncircles, this music has an uncanny way of reaching way into one's depths and subtly producing a healing effect within body and spirit of the listener. Kay has demonstrated her ability as a composer of the highest caliber. (WWE83) CS: 6.98

My Mother's Garden: Piano Melodies

Kay Gardner is first and foremost a composer of healing music — a pioneer in the genre. Usually she composes for acoustic ensembles, and/or for her own evocative flute... but when she's at work on one of her larger ensemble works, most often you will find her at her piano. On this 1998 release of original neo-romantic piano compositions, LadySlipper presents a glimpse into the composer in her medium. She performs both works she has composed expressly for the piano as well as ones written for orchestral settings, paired down to their essences. Includes To Elia (for poet Eliza Giddow), To Jen (for her daughter), the lush and heartbreathing Rhapsody, Etude (on a 13th Chord) and almost all the pieces from her best-selling A Rainbow Path. Ocean Moon

0235

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special. This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamuse, which she considers the best piece she ever composed, with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release, which we heartily recommend! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner

Sounding the Inner Landscape Audio

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, this special long-playing project is Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and debatably utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path: Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. Have your own private 70-minute workshop with Kay, anytime — now on CD! (LR109) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner & Mary Watkins

Dancing Souls

0203

This elegant instrumental album — subtitled Piano & Flute Improvisations — is a collaboration between two masters, as well as two foremothers of women's music! Mary is known to many of us old-time women's music fans for her 1978 LP on Olive Records, Something Moving — but she's known to peers as a musician's musician, whose artistry as a pianist is breathtaking and awe-inspiring. Their improvisations flow like practiced compositions, with varied styles ranging from romantic to whimsical. Some tracks were recorded at the 1999 National Women's Music Festival, some at the 1999 Michigan Women's Music Festival, and some in-studio, released in 2000 by yours truly, LadySlipper. (LR120) CD: 14.98

Kay Gardner

Ouroboros

(Seasons of Life) 0115

This 1994 recording is nothing short of a miracle... to tell you all about it would take volumes. Subtitled Women's Passages, this oratorio by Kay for 5 female soloists, women's chorus and orchestra is set to exquisite solo texts by Charlie Hutchins (a woman), and powerful chant texts by the Suzanne. It's a live recording of its premiere performance at the 20th National Women's Music Festival in Bloomington IN, and is one of the largest-ever classical productions featuring women musicians: 54 voices, 40 orchestra members. Except it's not classical, in the traditional sense. Performers as well as audience members were often teary-eyed during the performance, they were so profoundly moved. The work celebrates the ages of Woman, with each age corresponding to a holy day on the ancient Celtic calendar (solstices, equinoxes, Beltane, etc.) is strongly centered in female spirituality, and relates to the birth/death/rebirth cycle. Lush and deeply healing, the music itself is somewhat reminiscent of A Rainbow Path. Stunning performances by soloists Sarah Carol, Amanda Barrett (Ruth's 15-year-old daughter), and so many others (wish we could name them all!) are interwoven with majestic choral interludes... this is Kay's absolute masterpiece to date. We're so thankful that the performance was preserved on tape, and proud that we can offer it to you now. Most highly recommended — whether or not you relate to "classical" music! Kay Gardner & Sunwomyn Ensemble

Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1999 studio recording (on the LadySlipper label) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path. Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, trumpet, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Torff) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudafina Pili Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Vividas, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! Kay Gardner/ Nurudafina Pili Abena

Cassettes now on sale! This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world. The OneSpirit duo is a charismatic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flutes, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global musics and rhythms from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this aural journey. Features a cameo appearance by Brooke Medicine Eagle, on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle... also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Silencia, Carnival, Axan Sunset, Happy Life. We welcome Nuru — with her congas, djembe, quica, dundun, panderia, cefalon, agogo, dumbek, surdo, and rain rattles — to the LadySlipper label. Exciting, energetic, and meditative all at once... highly recommended! (LR113) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson

The Spiral Gate

0804

Follow Kim into a world of mystery and mysticism with her Celtic harp and evocative vocal layerings. Weaving harp and vocals with flute, fiddle, accordion, guitar, cello and percussion, she will transport you into a heady labyrinth of sound and rhythm. The themes of exploration and discovery, as represented in the symbol of the spiral, find perfect musical interpretation on her 1999 release, one of her finest to date. Her approach to her instrument is distinctly non-traditional and unexpected, among the standouts are the jazzy Come Your Hair and Curl It, with its compelling 9/8 meter, and Gaudelet, a medieval hymn (which both she and I first learned from a Steeleye Span album). This harp master once again stretches boundaries, creating a new gateway to an exquisite sonic web; highly recommended! (NA47323) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Bettine Clemens

Love Song To A Planet

0289

Virtually ignored by the mainstream music industry, Kim will probably be one of those composers who graces a relatively small number of us with her magic, then becomes posthumously knighted, or something! We keep saying that each new album is really her best, and it can't be helped; her artistry is perfect on so many levels, one wonders what goddess she pleased to be so blessed. Joined here, on her 18th recording, by the equally prolific flautist Bettine Clemens, for a joyful, reverent, gently loving and creative tribute to our Mother, our home. Flute and harp dance and blend into ethereal layers of sound, sometimes together, and sometimes joined by cello, bell, synthesizer and percussion, for an experience utterly drenched in grace. Includes Shanti, The Dark Island, Amazing Grace, Day of the Dolphin, and the ambitious Love Song for the Water Planet. Very highly recommended! (INV112) CD: 16.98

Mother Wisdom: Orig. & Trad. Chants

This 1994 album is an invitation to experience the Goddess in some of her many forms. Through original and traditional chants and songs, primal wisdom is shared about connecting to our ancient source, the roots of which grow deep to Africa, Tibet, Greece, the Americas, India and beyond. These invocations to the divine feminine remember a time, past and future, of balance with Mother Earth. Includes Yemaya, Rushing Water, Aphrodite, Green Tara Chant, The Earth is Our Mother, Jai Ma, and more. Lovely percussion and some sound effects accompany, as well as the 12 voices of "The Chorus of Powerful Women." (KIV4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laura Powers

Legends of the Goddess

This 1998 release brings forth a new perspective on Celtic Goddess music. On this all-original album, the songwriter with a fascination for Celtic and Goddess mythology has blended traditional Celtic and contemporary New Age sounds with folk and pop-influenced lyrics and rhythms to create music full of lush imagery. She counts among her influences such singer-songwriters as Shawn Colvin, and indeed, this work has a distinctively lyrical focus, with such tracks as Morgana's Quest — an exploration of the mythology of the Celtic Battle Goddess, and Circle of Stone — a very personal take on Stonehenge. (PUN008) CD: 15.98

Laura Powers

Beyond the Pale: Legends of the Goddess II

Subtitled Legends of the Goddess II, this 2000 release is the second in her Goddess Series. With lyrics reflecting spiritual power, her original songs such as The Goddess of the Sea Mist, Bethune Fire, Sisters of the Wind, In the Arms of the Milky Way utilize harmonies, counter-melodies and layered vocal arrangements, set to rich instrumentation and rhythms. A Heart in Winter creatively intertwines Pachelbel's Canon, spoken French, and a lush pop chorus. This talented singer/songwriter has combined her extensive research in Celtic mythology with her skill as a painter (her oil paintings are featured as the cover art) to create a lovely package. Recommended! (RHP1672) CD: 15.98

Laurel Masse

Feather and Bone

0948

Please read: This exploration of the divine feminine truly is an astoundingly exquisite recording. Laurel's a vocalist extraordinaire with a 4-octave range and quite a performing and recording history; a founding member of Manhattan Transfer, she has headlined internationally at major jazz clubs, performed with Paul Winter Consort (where she stole the show) and with Layne Redmond. Laurel's lengthy discography dates back to '75. On this 1999 recording, she weaves together song and myth, ancient chant and spontaneous improvisation, creating a trance-like atmosphere with music of profound beauty. She is joined by Ysaye M. Barnwell of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Layne Redmond, Molly Scott, Jay Ungar and other guests on this varied repertoire which includes Radiant Flame of Gold, an invocation to the Celtic goddess Brigit, the dual Mother it is Night with Ysaye Barnwell, a Bach Minuet written for cello but performed a cappella; and a composition by Hildegard. Highly recommended! (VOS1) CD: 16.98

Lauren Pomerantz

0888

Inspired by the Jewish mysticism of the Kabbalah, an ancient oral tradition first recorded in Medieval Spain, the original music on this 1997 release is meditative, soothing and intentionally sound-healing. The Tree of Life glyph has 11 spheres, each representing a Divine attribute and a unique total vibration; together they form a sacred geometry. Into this context she has organized her 14 original songs, making the mysterious spheres accessible to a listener with little or no background in the Kabbalah. The perspective is very female, with pieces such as Dream of the Goddess, Divine Mother, Shekinah and The Middle Pillar (an ancient sound system for balancing female and male energies within the body). Accompanying her lovely voice are quartz crystal bowl, Celtic harp, Tibetan flute, guitar, piano and strings; recommended! (BBM0007) CD: 15.98

Layne Redmond & Guests
Chanting Chakras/Roots of Awakening

Mesmerizing Mantras are chanted in their original Sanskrit syllables here by Ami Chatterjee, who translated Sanskrit and Bengali texts detailing the structure of the 2000 year-old meditation practice; his scholarship and musicianship are informed by his many years of meditation practice. Laurel Messe, a founding member of the Manhattan Transfer, also brings her powerful chanting to this 1999 recording. The chants are accompanied by sitar melodies, tambour drones, and bamboo flute, which flow over a foundation of steady, hypnotic drum beats. Layne, generally known for her percussion work and who brought this all together, contributes overtone singing as well as bodhran and Balinese bells. Includes a 24-page booklet on this ancient practice. (RWN931) CD: 15.98

Layne Redmond & Tommy Brunjes
Trance Union

This 2000 release is the culmination of 8 years of drumming and exploring ecstatic Trance Dance Rhythms from many cultures. The frame drum has been used for thousands of years in religious and ecstatic rituals and is the oldest known drum, and is also the oldest means for altering consciousness through sound for healing and spiritual purposes. This drum forms the basis for all the rhythms heard here, and many different types of the drum were used along with the dambé, conga, doumbek, and other hand percussion instruments. Layne and Tommy are working to create a distinct North American style of hand drumming by collecting, creating, and synthesizing new rhythms. Recommended especially for ecstatic dance and ritual work. (GSM100) CD: 15.98

Leah Wolfson
Songs of the Circle

This 2000 collection of songs, chants and rounds of empowerment (all but 1 original) are easy to learn and at the same time satisfying to listen to. Leah presents the melody line of each song clearly before crafting the intricate harmonies, making it easy to take her up on her invitation to sing along! Some tracks also welcome movement and dance, while others suggest deep reflection. In the round Open My Heart, the voices build and soar, accompanied by the watery rhythms of world percussion instruments. Featuring Woman Chant, Circle of Power, Grandmother, Midnight Moonlight. It's a great source of new material for circles everywhere. (RDN1004) CD: 15.98

Libana
A Circle Is Cast

This 1986 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements, most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very highly recommended! (SPN002) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Libana
Fire Within

The sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast. Synthesizing their two musical identities—as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual—this 1990 release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here; several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman, Neesa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Tree Planter's Round, Clear Horizon, Rise Up O Flame, O Virgin Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you—on the Ladyslipper label—Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LR108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Libana
Night Passage

A long-awaited and stunning sequel to their beloved collections A Circle Is Cast and Fire Within, this luminous gathering of rounds, chants and songs—subtitled Invocations for the Journey—gives soulful reflection to the infinite mysteries of life's seasons. From a mystical ode invoking the new moon, to an undulating chant honoring the Yoruba Goddess Yemaya, from a South African ancestral incantation, to lush settings of the poet Rumi, the 7 women of Libana sing with a reflective reverence, infusing every selection with harmonic power and musical grace. This exquisite, soul-piercing, resonating, transcendent music is a profound and gentle blessing on the journey to hope and inspiration. We give this 2000 release our very highest recommendation! (SPN003) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Libana
Borderland

On this 1993 release, Libana deftly traverses hemispheres, continents, and borders with a dazzling repertoire of contemporary and traditional World Music. From a lyrical Finnish song of longing to the captivating pulse of Arabic rhythms, the stark poignancy of an Argentinian lament to the riveting drumming of the Zair, an Egyptian ritual ecstatic dance, Libana's music speaks to the essence of women's inner and outer realities. Compelling rhythms, incomparable vocal versatility, tenderness and strength join to create a musical mosaic of spiritual integrity. Includes Dhur Djura's Final Anthem. Don't miss this! (SHN67003) CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick
A Meditation for Healing

Libby is beloved world-wide as an inspiring and passionate writer and singer of songs celebrating the heights and depths of the human spirit (see our Folk section). This beautiful, devotional chant for protection and healing (a mantra in an ancient, sacred language from India) is something new for Libby—written at the request of a friend. Let her warm, clear voice and the exquisite melody relax, calm and heal you—people are using it for everything from massage and meditation to yoga to simply helping them (or their little ones) fall asleep peacefully and wake up renewed! This 1995 release offers an hour's worth of vocals over a gorgeous bed of guitar, English horn (courtesy of the great Nancy Rumbel), harp and percussion. (TRT1005) CD: 14.98

Linda Allen
Lay It Down: Images of the Sacred

In addition to offering some earth-carried Goddess anthems, this 1997 release addresses the struggles of Christian feminists, and retells Christian stories from a woman's perspective. Linda's bell-like voice is accompanied by soft piano, guitars and strings on such original songs as Mary, Mary, new lyrics to the old hymn Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing, which is entitled God, I Cannot Call You Father (God, I know you as a mother! Giving birth to all I am!), Waiting For the Morning, a song from Mary Magdalene's viewpoint, Womanspirit and Lady River, which weave together women's spirituality with Christianity. Also includes a response to the petition by the Oregon Citizens' Alliance to deny civil rights to lesbians and gays, They're Coming After You, plus Sanyajo, featuring Jami Secker on cello, about a cellist who played on the site of a Serbian bombing to commemorate those who died. Lisa Thiel
Invocation Of The Graces

This 1997 collection of magical and powerful song prayers, adapted from and inspired by the Ancient Celtic Tradition, includes new material as well as some of her earlier Celtic works as heard on Songs For My Ancestors. All tracks were recorded in a live performance format, where musicians are playing together in the studio, capturing the essence and spirit of the music. Songs include Triple Goddess Blessing, Daughter of the Elements, Jewel of the Night (Chant), Blessings of the Animals. Joining Lisa are Jody B. Argente, a shamanic artist who lends her knowledge of the healing power of sound to the vocal harmonies; Anna Schaad and her amazing violin; and David MacVittie on bouzouki, flute and pipes. Filled with inspiration, depth and authenticity, we gratefully welcome and recommend this work. (SD6) CD: 15.98

Lisa Thiel
Journey to the Goddess

As a 10th anniversary celebration, Lisa's label—Sacred Dream Productions—releases this 1994 retrospective of her favorite Goddess songs from her first 4 Sacred Dream albums. Included are explanations and history of each Goddess; the background on how the music came about and how the songs are to be used; and lyrics. Some songs have been re-recorded for improved sound, includes Commother Chant, I Am the Goddess, Moon Mother, Rainbow Woman, Song of the Mermaid, and others. Cover art features Commother, this reviewer's favorite of Lisa's paintings—a beautiful package for a special collection. (SD5) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Thiel
Lady of the Lake

We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arms of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Rune Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and Idle Track. An uplifting treasure; most highly recommended! (LR112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Thiel
Songs of Transformation

Anne Williams again collaborates (on vocals and harp) with Lisa on this beautiful recording of Goddess chants. Lisa selects both original and traditional songs and mantras from a range of cultures—Tibet, Sikh, Hindu—which express the human search for divine wisdom, strength, joy and love, through spiritual transformation. Includes Lady of the Flowing Waters, She's Been Working, Candlemas Song, May the Circle Be Open. Lisa is also the creator of the lovely cover artwork. 1999. (SD3) CS: 9.98

Lisa Thiel
Songs of the Spirit

A collection of visionary medicine songs—for healing and awakening the consciousness of our own divinity—from eastern and western Indian traditions as well as her own talented songwriting skills, presented with bells, guitar, Lisa's divine voice, chants, self-harmonies... Includes White Buffalo Woman, I Am the Goddess, Mother of All Things, There is a Goddess, Rainbow Trail. A highly recommended selection for anyone interested in women's spirituality. (SD1) CS: 9.98

Lisa Thiel/ Ani Williams
Sisters of the Dream

Finally back in print! The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother. This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists. A magical compilation; recommended! (WW1) CD: 15.98

Lydia McCauley
Sabbath Day's Journey

Loreana McKennitt fans, read on! The soul of this artist's music is rooted in the quiet beauty of contemplation. By combining the ancient sounds of the Celts, the spirituality of Medieval Mystics, and the wondrous morn of the Appalachian tradition, she writes new music that evokes a sense of the past. Her 1996 release maintains a passion for ancient musical modes and traditions, while remaining true to her own individual style. Sweeping across the centuries, crossing the continents (akin to McKennitt's Mask and Mirror), from Italy to England, Ireland to the Southern Appalachian Mountains, she weaves a beautiful musical tapestry of her own journeys. Margot Anand
SkyDancing Tantra: A Call to Bliss

This 2000 release is a companion to her best-selling book The Art of Sexual Ecstasy. A unique blend of voice and music created in the spaciousness of tantric meditation, this recording is intended for those who want to listen and relax alone, as well as for lovers who want to energize and harmonize their energy fields and prepare themselves for love-making. The 6 compositions focus on the connection between sexuality and spirituality, relaxing the body, opening the heart, and bringing the mind into clear focus. When this integration has taken place, the listener is ready for a new sexual experience in which physical pleasure becomes a delight of the heart and an ecstasy of the spirit. When practiced with a partner, Tantra has for centuries been shown to contribute to a healthy and loving relationship. (SHM6024) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marie Summerwood & In Her Name

She Walks with Snakes

0944

On this recording subtitled Women's Sacred Chants, Marie and a group of women singing friends who call themselves "In Her Name" perform 17 of Marie's original chants, with light, rhythmic percussion accompaniment. She created them to reclaim recognition of the inherent sacredness of women's powers of creation and nourishment, sexuality and old age. Use this as a source for learning new chant material, such as Crone's Chant, The Beauty of the Woman, Sambhara's Door, Woman of the Sacred Temple, and more. (MSV1) CD: 15.98

Goddess & Child/Healing Meditations

NEW

Subtitled Healing Meditations for the Inner Child, this 2001 collection of guided and sound meditations takes the listener deep within to connect to both their inner child and the loving arms of the Goddess — teaching self-love, self-nourishing and self-compassion. Includes Healing the Inner Child, a nurturing guided meditation; MA Chant, a unique sound meditation featuring 13 female voices chanting "MA" evoking the simplicity and beauty of the primordial Great Mother Goddess that could have existed within a healing Goddess temple 5-6000 years ago; and Coming Home - Creating a Safe Place to help you create a sacred healing circle in which you can connect with the profundity and wisdom at the core of your inner child. (MMZ4001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Quiescence

72 timeless minutes of exquisitely pure, almost liquid-like sounds of the bansuri — the deeply resonant classical bamboo flute of India — are accompanied by 5-string taboura and 40-string zither. From its first quivering pulsation of tone, this recording carries a soulful and soothing vibration, simply and effortlessly transporting the body-mind into a place of peace and release. Painted in colors as vivid as the world of Nature that the music celebrates, it is based on the Indian concept of the cycles of Raga, expressing different moods for different times of day. This 1999 release demonstrates both the technical virtuosity of this highly-trained musician as well as her passion, sensitivity and spirit. (BAM2) CD: 15.98

Ragini: Fluted Voice of the Goddess

Ragini, the female Raga of North Indian classical music, are musical embodiments of different forms of the Goddess. This 1995 rendering of the Ragini Durga and Bhairavi, and the bhayans Jai Ambe (Victory to the Mother) and Jai Ji Bhairavi (Victory to the Goddess) is a rarity, there are not many recordings of female musicians performing in the North Indian classical tradition. Mindia Devi, known for her founding work with the ensemble Ancient Future and her fusion of Indian, western and Balinese elements, performs on the bansuri, the deeply resonant bamboo flute of India, accompanied by Dana Pandey on tabla, the dynamic and intricate Indian drum. The soft, mesmerizing drone of the tanpura weaves its strings throughout. Fast and furious, playful and joyous, introspective and soothing, the Raginis bring you into the world of Rasa, the "coloring of the mind" by the many moods of the Goddess. Moving Breath

She Dreams

This 1994 release breaks ground in the emerging realm of Numinous World Music. The 5 women of the ensemble infuse 13 original compositions with intriguing harmonies that will inspire and uplift, exploring the Earth's rhythms through voice and musical instrumentation (guitar, bass, piano, Celtic harp, recorder, flutes and percussion), they create a myriad of powerful images of the Sacred. This collection of chants, prayers, and songs, which includes Dreaming Woman, Winged Omens, Oya Aya, Sute of the Tides, and Asaras (Angel Lullaby), is designed to take listeners on a journey into and through the Dream. (MVB2) CS: 9.98

Moving Breath

She Changes

Subtitled A Collection of Songs from Healing Circles, this album was created to commemorate the Ecstatic Woman Gathering held in Santa Barbara on Halloween of 1991. These 24 chants and songs — both traditional invocation and Goddess songs, and original healing and affirming songs — are intended to open women's hearts to the power of healing. Beautiful harmonies and rhythms are employed by these 5 women (Mujica Cabugos, Valerie Girard, Lorin Green, Chris Leja, and Julie Lewis), with tasteful accompaniment on percussion and occasional flute, harp and guitar. Lyrics included to make learning these easy, includes Honored Maiden Huntress, She's Been Waiting, Powerful Woman, Spider Woman, She Changes, Heal the Mother, Moon Sister Moon, We All Come from the Goddess, and Like A Mountain by Naomi Littlebear Morena, which they call Old and Strong. An excellent collection! (MVB1) CD: 14.98

Music For the Goddess

Goddess Mandala

The Great Goddess welcomes the return of progressive rock, with this 1999 contemporary Wiccan Pagan Goddess tribal, trance-dance rock album! Wendy Sheridan wrote most of the music and lyrics and handles most of the vocals, though Rich Sheridan's voice is also heard on a few tunes. Add guitars, keyboards, zils, and the rhythms of bass and drums for an energetic and evocative mix. Round and Round can easily be learned for circles or bonfires. When She Wears Purple pays tribute to the Crone aspect of the Goddess; the title track is a spirited blend of classic and original chants which covers 150 names of the Goddess, including Isis/Astara/Diana chant (Ladyslipper's most often requested song). Calling the Quarters invokes the 4 directions/elements, plus there's On Eve's Eve of May, Shamanic Dreams, 11 in all, for rituals, dance and enjoyment. Chants for the Queen of Heaven

Susan Robbins, musical director of Libana, described this program of songs and chants to the Goddess as "a wonderful and varied collection of multicultural and original chants, performed with spirit and conviction, and arranged using a many-colored palette of instrumental and vocal textures." And, we recommend this for all of you who have loved Libana and were searching for something else sort of like them! Containing women's sacred and ritual music from around the world, this 1993 album reflects the richness and variety of many woman-honoring traditions. Material ranges from a celebratory Renaissance procession (with English horn, flute, cello and percussion) to meditative Eastern incantations accompanied by Tibetan bell, from the driving poly-rhythms of an Afro-Brazilian chant to the tranquil Shiwahachi flute of a Japanese song, from simple but haunting modal melodies to complex harmonies by a 3-woman ensemble. Chants include Volcano Woman, Old Crone of Mystery, Rise Up and Call Her Name, Yemaya, Om Tara,... Lyrics plus beautiful cover art... Recommended! (MMM001) CS: 9.98

Nhanda Devi

Bridge to Isis

This vocalist is a channeler, her vocalizations are expressions, not with lyrics in any language we can identify, but rather of a deep spiritual connection and experience. Whereas her debut recording was acappella, this melodic, beautiful, and evocative 2000 release includes accompaniment on harp, gu-cheng, keyboards, didgeridoo, samples, bells and percussion. We highly recommend this invocation to the ancient female divine force, for stillness and meditation, and for your journey to Remember (Who You Are). (AIM0090) CD: 15.98

Nhanda Devi

Chants from Isis

Her lovely voice echoing through old German churches (known as "power spots"), Nhanda Devi's unaccompanied chants to the ancient female divine force, embodied by the goddess Isis, are marvellous sounds that soothe and calm. She is the founder of "Mystery Voice", where she assists people through energy work, meditation and the power of the voice to connect with their own inner healing power and wisdom. This 1994 recording is beautiful for meditation or just unwinding! (AIM0095) CS: 9.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass

From the Goddess

This magical blend of well-known Goddess chants captures the essence of pre-Christian feminist traditions, to inspire the contemporary rebirth of the feminine spirit. Twenty-five beautifully harmonizing female voices of the On Wings of Song chorus are blended with ocean sounds and supporting instrumentalists by the Doah ensemble. Unique, and highly recommended! 1989. (SHM1010) CS: 9.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass

From the Goddess / O Great Spirit

This 1993 CD contains the extended chants From the Goddess, a well-loved celebration of the Divine Feminine, as well as the Native American - inspired O Great Spirit. 60 minutes of "new spiritual" choral music. (SHM6003) CD: 15.98

On Wings of Song & Robert Gass

Om Namaha Shivaya/ 10th Anniversary

On this 1996 release, this Sanskrit chant is re-issued on a deluxe edition. It contains the entire original album, plus a newly recorded 20-minute extended chant of the ancient Sanskrit syllable Om, including Tibetan and Mongolian over-tone chanting. (SHM6018) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On Wings of Song/Robert Gass/Guests

Ancient Mother

0014

The spirit of the Great Goddess comes to life as traditional female singers, priestesses and shamans from Celtic, Afro-American Yoruba, Hawaiian, East Indian, Hungarian and Native American traditions — including Nurudafina Pili Aberia, Kay Gardner, Brooke Medicine Eagle, and Z. Budapest — are joined by the renowned On Wings of Song singers, on this 1993 release. The music is both ancient and contemporary, ranging from the 11th century plainsong of Hildegard of Bingen to ecstatic gospel rock, all set in natural environmental back-grounds of birds, rivers, cicadas and crickets, humpback whales and the ocean. 60 minutes. Rasa

Devotion

NEW

Ordinarily we don't stock releases of Asian music performed by an American and a European, but this is one of those exceptions — in other words, it's exceptional. The duo is comprised of vocalist Kim Waters, whose haunting renditions might bring to mind Singh Kaur, and instrumentalist Hans Christian, a classically-trained cellist and one of the few Westerners to master difficult Indian instruments like the sarangi. They draw their source material from traditional Indian devotional songs in the Bengali and Sanskrit languages; they're not devotees of any lineage or guru, but share a genuine respect for and appreciation of the spirituality and traditions of India. Their reverent approach creates an ambience of mystical prayer and provides a sonic haven in a loud and chaotic world. (HS11099) CD: 15.98

Rebecca Wing

Spirit Chant

0702

Produced by Ladyslipper recording artist Kay Gardner, this 1998 release features Rebecca's original vocal and acoustic instrumental compositions which are perfect for meditation and relaxation. A practicing Buddhist and founder of Maine Friends of Tibet, her rich vocal chants weave ancient mantras with improvisational "heart singing." From the inspirational Buddhist mantra of compassion, Om Mani Padme Hum, to the magical bird calls and flutes on Shaman Forest, the recording takes the listener deep into the realms of sacred sound and silence. Reclaiming & Friends

Chants: Ritual Music

The Reclaiming Community, co-founded by Starhawk, is a group working to unify spirit and politics. Rooted in Goddess spirituality, members of the collective hold public rituals for empowerment and change. This 1987 album of chants, created as a teaching tool, contains material by Starhawk, Deena Metzger, Shekinah Mountainwater, Judy Grahn, Z. Budapest and other, performed by the Reclaiming women (many) and men (a few). Includes Touching Her Deep, Snake Woman, Return to the Mother, Goddess Medley, and many others. A wonderful resource for group singing and ritual. (REC1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Reclaiming & Friends

Second Chants

This 1994 collection of 16 original ritual songs, rounds and chants is presented in musically diverse yet complimentary styles, from a bluesy call and response Circle Casting Song to the country gospel chant When We Are Gone, to I Am But One, sung with a Pagan children's chorus. Strong and wonderful vocal harmonies are supported by hand drums and beautiful layers of acoustic guitar, flute, violin and cello. Many of the songs are based on Reclaiming's magical work with Celtic myth and story, includes Rhannon, Inanna, Return of the Goddess, Who Is She, Harvest Chant, His Mystery. Sound quality is excellent, lyrics included; recommended! (SRP1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Dreaming of Summer

NEW

Released on her own label, this delicious 2000 recording of original piano solo compositions is imbued with the touch that a "perfect, sometimes velvet, sometimes sparkling..." It is filled with creative, beautiful, intensely personal compositions that soothe and inspire. Recommended! (PMM101) CD: 14.98

Ruth Barrett & Cynthia Smith

The Early Years

0834

This 1999 CD re-releases this duo's first 2 albums, Aeolus and Music of the Rolling World, which featured material inspired by and drawn from women-identified mythology and British Isles traditional music. Reflecting the neo-Pagan movement, the songs and instruments celebrate the Earth's seasonal cycles, magic, ritual, and Goddess mythic imagery. Songs include Every Woman Born, written for an LA "Take Back the Night" March and Z. Budapest's 40th birthday, The Mermaid, Lullaby for Amanda, Feeries Love Song, Uncoms, Lovers of the Moon, and others depicting strong women and working women: Sovay/The Female Highwayman, The Weaver and the Factory Maid. Sally Oldfield Flaming Star

NEW

Anyone who remembers this U.K. singer-songwriter, sibling of new-age luminaries Mike and Terry, well-known in Europe, she developed a US cult following in the mid 70's, with her multi-tracked vocals with amazing range, her renaissance-woman instrumental accompaniment (she played a zillion instruments), and her themes which heralded the coming new age of more spiritually-oriented solo releases. Her first solo recording in many years, this 2001 release once again combines her unique and beautiful vocals with intricate harmonies, passionate bass rhythms, earthy percussion, and divine keyboards to create a contemporary album of power. Inspired by the knowledge of the unity of all creation, each song — such as the track, Invocation, Samurai of the Sun, Shaman — points us to a higher understanding. (HW70019) CD: 15.98

Serpentine Rock the Goddess

This 1994 release contains passionate, compelling "Goddess rock" tracks, delivered in an unexpected neo-punk style as in Diamonds Galas (were it not for the specific content, we'd list this in our Alternative section). Most are fascinating originals such as Ride My Broom, Huru-ra-hu, I Am Your Husband, Into the Cauldron, Victorious and Little Witch House, but the traditional We All Come From the Goddess (here given the title Rock the Goddess) is given an electric treatment which magnifies its intensity and interest. Themes of strength and defiance, pleasure and power, set to tribal rhythms and evocative orchestrations: what a brew! (GRR992) CD: 15.98

Serpentine Temple of the Heart

This reed priestess performs sonic alchemy. On her 2000 release, each song is a shimmering facet of her diamond voice, which trembles with a scorching tenderness over veils of tabla, frame drum, violin, trumpet, didgeridoo and harmonic overtones. A master of wordless vocal improvisation, her 4-part self-harmony on Sex is Holy is like a Byzantine mosaic. On Dinosaur! We All Come From the Goddess, she rises and rides with both power and restraint. Stretching limits, she delves into a multi-cultural frenzy on Baby Tantric, then contrasts into a stark landscape of eldritch and moonwater on White Witch. Mikdashay Halev, a haunting incantation in Hebrew, is sure to thrill fans of Anne Rice, and the pure sweet joy of Goddess Girl, with its neo-jazz roll call, just may be the woman's dance anthem of the year. (GRR004) CD: 15.98

Sharon Knight Incantation

The 1996 album of original pagan music is quite unexpected and amazing! The songs range from the full-blown rock of Baric Voice, to the Celtic ballad based upon a 16th-century Scottish tale Bewitched, to the rhythmic ritual song Mother of the World, to the inspiring solo vocal Faith. Sharon sings in a clear, expressive voice and plays the Celtic drum, bodhran, acoustic guitar and mandolin. Others add flute, drums, synth, electric guitars, bass and harmony vocals for a full, rich sound. The lyrics reference ancient Celtic themes, Druids, Sheva, Majick and witchcraft as well as love and passion. (TRJ88) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sharon Knight & Winter Pandemonium

"Pandemonium: exuberant celebration of all life in the New Aeon." This late 2000 release (it should be here by the Solstice at the latest), is a magical blend of Celtic and Middle Eastern-inspired melodies, driving rhythms, and rocking trance, ritual and tribal grooves... which may leave you feeling as though you've been swept away by psychedelic gypsies! Full of pagan imagery, harmony vocals and lots of percussion, the music is mythical, vivid, sensual and spiritual — the sound has been described by some as "Led Zepplin meets Dead Can Dance." Laurie Lovecraft and John Mitchell round out the band. Includes This Night I Ride, Serpentine, Kashmir. (TRJ2) CD: 15.98

Shawna Carol SpiritSong

Subtitled Freeing the Voice, Sounding the Spirit, this 1998 tape teaches SpiritSong — a powerful method of freeing the voice and expressing our true song by building on the ancient practice of toning. Includes complete instructions on how to SpiritSong, as well as an actual SpiritSong session designed to be used to practice SpiritSong again and again. Find out why author Julia Cameron calls Shawna's work "an extremely powerful technique" in her book on freeing creativity, The Vein of Gold. (SU8001) CD: 10.98

Shawna Carol Vows: A Songwriter's Sketchbook

NEW

This intimate 9-track CD of SpiritSong contains both traditional chants and original compositions, accompanied on guitar. Included are a musical setting of Debra Metzger's exquisite poem, Vows; the well-known The Earth is Our Mother, Kiss Wolf's Give Yourself To Love, and the original Joy is Yours; Magical Ring, I Am Receiving. Simple, straightforward, satisfying. (BPS1603) CD: 11.98

Goddess Chant: Sacred Pleasure

We are beside ourselves, we are so thrilled about this most unique and gorgeous work on our very own Ladyslipper label. This 1998 release elevates the "genre" of Goddess-centered and woman-honoring chants to a new level: rather than simple circle rounds and chants, these are lush, elegant, harmonic, deeply layered original extended choral chants... yet easy to learn and sing with. One senses how these chants emerged from the artist over time, and they invite us to move with her through this mass-like ritual over and over, centering and expanding. From the joyful and celebratory Sacred Pleasure which many of you already know

("I am the Goddess! I am the Mother! All acts of love and pleasure are my ritual"), to the nurturing Mother's Gift, to the sacred sounds of Blessed Be, to the gospel-infused Praise Her, this music is meditative, inspirational, and awesome. Both we and author Margot Adler — who has danced ecstatically to "I am the Goddess" and has been awaiting this album for years — highly recommend it! (LR117) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Great Mother: Harp & Heartbeat

This 1997 album contains over 60 minutes of tender harp lullabies with a continuous background of mother's heartbeat, to soothe young babies and older ones too! The balance between the heartbeat and harp level was carefully chosen so that the heartbeat is available for those who have ears to hear, and also subtle enough so that the album can be enjoyed as soothing dinner music! The original harp pieces have lovely, nurturing titles like Mother Love, Safe and Secure, Angel Wings, Starry Sky. A perfect gift for new mothers or mothers-to-be, and also highly recommended for relaxation, massage, and insomnia. (ATM1001) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Singh Kaur & Gary Stadler Fairy NightSongs

Ladyslipper has listed works by the incomparable vocalist Singh Kaur since 1986, when she and Kim Robertson collaborated to create the Crimson extended chant series (among the first extended chants ever recorded). Sadly, she passed away in 1998 of ovarian cancer — a month or so before the release of this tape — and we will really miss her and the gift of her music... it's a fact that her music has helped more than one slipper through a rough personal time. On her last recorded work, her heavenly sweet voice combined with Gary's magical keyboard style. They take the listener deep into the mystical world of the Fairy night, with haunting melodies, tender lullabies and timeless visions of the Celtic Fairy tradition. Highly recommended! This CD contains both Guru Ram Dasa and Mool Mantra... our favorite combination of the series! (INV308) CD: 15.98

Singh Kaur & Kim Robertson Crimson Vol. 1: Guru Ram Dasa

This absolutely unique series for healing, with celestial vocals by Singh Kaur, and Celtic harp and keyboards by Kim Robertson, consists of long recordings (40 minutes per side and repeated on both sides) of the same phrase chanted over and over, with some of the most gorgeous music ever heard, and which truly uses some power to transform the listener into a serene state. This volume induces a healing state of consciousness; in the ancient scriptures the phrase is said to strengthen the connection with the inner spirit and to develop a sense of purpose and guidance. Very highly recommended! (INV301) CD: 15.98

Sophia

Hidden Waters/Sacred Ground

Widely used for healing work, meditation, relaxation, tantra, birthing and other life transitions, this beautiful recording is divided into 2 parts. Sacred Ground contains a birthing chant, a devotional chant, the Lakota chant The Earth is Our Mother, and then a round. Hidden Waters is an affirming chant about letting in the light. Sophia is considered a songhealer, and many spiritual leaders testify to the power of her music — her words transcend religious boundaries, concentrating on a universal Higher Power and a deep spirituality that everyone yearns for. An excellent aid to any healing practice, this album is a classic in its genre. (HWS6103) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sophia

Return

0574

This 1994 album is a prayer of celebration for the Goddess in all her glorious aspects, from angelic to erotic. The title track is a Sointice song. Shekinah Shakti calls upon Spirit, Fire, Earth, and Sea to dance with us, and Laxmi is a devotional chant to the Goddess of Abundance, Love, and Beauty. On what is probably the most surprising track, Sophia also honors the Goddess manifestation of artist Anne Sprinkle with Anyall. Her heavenly vocals are carried on exquisite orchestration featuring gifted soloists (Jai Uttal on dotar and Steve Gorn on bansuri flute), as well as exotic percussion. An ethereal album that conjures up both yearning and salvation! (IMR5794) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Spiral Dance Magick

Led once again by the strong and enchanting lead vocals of Adrienne Piggett, Spiral Dance's 1999 release marks a turning point for this great folk-rock band. Beautifully produced, and full of well-arranged, tuneful songs with intelligent and timeless lyrics, it's a lovely collection of ballads and story-songs, all based in Pagan legend and ideology... from the lively and melodic Fan and Flame Song, to the dark and mysterious Shadow Wood, to the intense and unique cover of Charlie Murphy's The Burning. (SPL3) CD: 17.98

Spiral Dance

Woman of the Earth

Spiral Dance is an Australian band, focused on the concepts of magic, myth, and legend. These 6 talented musicians have joined to create a project based on their shared beliefs, interest and love of the mystical elements in life. Fronted by female vocalist Adrienne Piggett and Bronwyn Lloyd who are supported by a back line of guitar, bass, keyboards and drums, with arrangements that blend lean acoustic rock styles with lush Celtic harmony, the band will spirit you into the realms of magic and mystic of ancient legend. Includes The Goddess and the Weaver, Moonlight Hour of the Witch, and the lovely title track. (SPL1) CD: 17.98

Starhawk

The Way to the Well

Utilizing drumming, song, chanting and visualization, this contemporary guided meditation is subtitled A Trance Journey for Empowerment, referring to accessing the well of power within us all, rather than always searching outside of ourselves for fulfillment. The listener is encouraged to become the protagonist of the story, thus facing an opportunity for transformation. 1991. (STAR1) CD: 9.98

Starhawk, Reclaiming & Friends Let It Begin Now

Subtitled Music From the Spiral Dance, this 1992 release features 11 songs which follow the structure of the Spiral Dance ritual, an annual tradition in the Bay Area celebrating the festival of Hallowe'en as well as Starhawk's book The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Ranging from acappella harmonies to full chorus and instrumentation, this music is intended to be shared and sung by all who wish to broaden their understanding of Hallowe'en. Written and performed by Starhawk and the Reclaiming Collective, women and men working to link earth-based spirituality and eco-feminist politics... and friends. (REC2) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Stephannie with Gary Stadler Fairy HeartMagic

Become enchanted, as this 2000 release takes you into the fairy world of ancient Celtic lore. "Enya-esque" vocals by Stephannie and renowned Celtic harpist Lisa Lynne join with Gary's wonderful piano, to take you on a soul-healing journey into a place where innocence and wisdom are one. Listen, and your heart will be renewed with a mystical beauty. (SEQ105) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sue Young

From the Mother

Subtitled Songs of the Sacred Feminine, this 1997 recording is a beautiful exploration and celebration of female imagery through the world's spiritual traditions and texts: Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Tibetan Buddhist and more. The opening track, This Is My Body (a communion song from the Mother) is alone worth the price of the album, for any woman for whom the Christian ritual of communion may have had deep meaning in the past (and/or present)... her song gives the ritual a new meaning which makes perfect sense — in a woman's spirituality context. The spirited closing track, Reach, references Hebrew Scripture, and Shekinah from the mystical Kabbalah. Some songs are chant-like, some in Spanish, utilizing several musical styles and delivered in her strong and lovely voice. Highly recommended! (MLR104) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Suzanne Sterling
Bhakti

NEW

0965 (4)

Blending devotional dance music that combines Indian, Middle Eastern and Celtic influences with English lyrics, this amazing release invites an ecstatic experience of the Divine. Suzanne has been a Reclaiming priestess and ritual leader for 13 years (this is the Goddess-rooted community, founded by Starhawk, working to unify spirit and politics by holding public rituals for empowerment and change). Speaking of priestesses, another Reclaiming musician/priestess, Beverly Frederick, describes this 2000 release as "the auditory equivalent of a tribe of dancing temple priestesses spinning and gyrating in multicolored veils at a desert oasis. By turns lyrical, smoky, ecstatic, haunted and haunting, Suzanne's voice, always emotive, moves you. And the exotic instrumentation is an auditory feast for dancing tools like myself." OK, we'll embellish that: her voice is piercingly exquisite. She accompanies her multi-layered original vocal chants based on visions, longings and healings on harmonium, guitar, dumbec and tar, plus the contributions of a bevy of fine percussionists and musicians. Reminiscent of Stellamaris or Dead Can Dance, this is really fine, powerful, sophisticated, dense, transformative, trance-inspiring stuff. Very highly recommended! (BSP1358) CD: 15.98

Terry Garthwaite
Sacred Circles

0904 (4)

This singer-songwriter has been known and loved by the music world since the late 60's, when she fronted the rock band Joy of Cooking with Toni Brown — the 2 of them went on to form the duo The Joy. Since then, she's gained a reputation as a great producer, teacher, and in 92 her recording life took a new direction, when she released the cassette AM/rhythms: rhythmic affirmation chantsongs. This 2000 CD continues with the theme. These infectious, percussive, positive chants and messages of compassion and strength, harmony and joy, relax your mind and inspire your spirit, as they go bone-deep. Includes Woman Now Know, Moonflow, Surrounded By the Light, and even a few delightful instrumentals like Cuppa Chai. With the improvisation of jazz, the vibration and expression of blues, the textures and tones of world music, and the heart of a healer, Terry makes music that will open the listener to the Joy of Living. Thea
Year of the Wicca

On her 2000 release, this famous German witch presents mystical callings, rituals and incantations to the old goddesses and gods — primarily to the goddess Aredia (also to Ceredwen and Mabonada) and the god Kamaya. In addition to a summons for Beltane, Summer Equinox, Lammas, Autumn Equinox, Samhain and Winter Equinox, she includes Prayer for Protection and a Finale. Accompaniment on acoustic guitar, keyboards, bass and drums, plus chime, cymbals and sound samples, yields a powerful, rhythmic and atmospheric, ancient yet contemporary brew. (LX9902) CD: 15.98

Triple Crescent
Music Celebrating the Goddess

What a wonderful melding of women's music and women's spirituality! And, of course, any album which contains the classic song Amazon by Maxine Feldman — a precursor of both the women's music and culture movement and women's spirituality movement, and the song which still opens the Michigan Festival every year — has a place in our catalog! The trio (Norman Burton and Jade on vocals, Barbara Christ on keyboards) performs Willie Tyson's stunning Witching Hour; Charlie Murphy's The Burning Times; Judas Gil's beautiful Lady O (old timers: stretch your memories, now, back to Geni Clemmens' first album); Karen Mackay's Arms of the Goddess; Ruth Barrett's Every Woman Born, and more... all truly classics of classical! This is a must-have for the priestess, precious material contained herein! (TRC1) CS: 9.98

Beneath the Veil

An ecstatic trance... a Goddess dance... Kallyn Braene, luminary of the Goddess tradition, and her instrumentalist husband Michael collaborate on this evocative and lovely 1997 debut release. "It was conceived and born in the love of its creators as a hymn to the Goddess. Each song is a call to the Eternal Divine Feminine, a call to the Dance which inspires the heart. It is the music of Shakti, the mysterious force of Life Giving Love." On tracks like She Beckons, Veil of Innance, and Sirens of the Moonlit Tide, they artfully weave together exotic rhythms and percussion. Kallyn's poetic spoken-word invocations, tribal and ambient sounds, and modern magic to create a new music of the ancient mysteries. (SEQ102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Zorah Staar
Pagan Pop

This Canadian artist rocks and boops you across the dance floor! Her songs blend lyrics about the earth, the Goddess, and other age-old pagan themes with wild new pop, disco and Celtic rock sounds, plus some gentler ballads. Submerged off the coast of Holland is a 1st century temple to the Goddess Nehalennia — used by Zorah's Celtic and Frisian ancestors and other pagans of past times... fast forward to her 21st-century dance club tune Nehalennia, which melds pulsing rhythms with lyrics of transformation. Then, Spinal Dance twirls and swirls with a bouncing bass line and sparkly electric guitar riffs. It's fun and life-loving! (PPM2000) CD: 15.98

Alice Di Micela
Alice Live

0853 (4)

Bonnie Raitt has said, "Alice's music had that great combination of earthiness and groove that keeps it funky from the inside out. She's for real!" This excellent 2000 release is a snapshot of in-concert Alice, an artist who clearly feels at home on stage. With her resonant, soulful voice and skilful, honest songwriting, she manages to shine as a performer while successfully involving the audience. Compiled from two shows, one solo and one with bassist Rob Kohler, this recording includes songs from previous albums, lots of new songs, and a great cover of Abbey Lincoln's Throw It Away. Alix Dobkin
Love & Politics: A 30 Year Saga 0007 (4)

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian War... plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shinin'. Through (which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists). This release coincides with her first year off the road in eons, making it especially precious! Includes The Woman in Your Life, Amazon ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes, 14 more. Absolutely recommended! (WWA007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Living with Lavender Jane 0633 (4)

At long last, releasing in winter '97, two absolute and essential Women's Music classics on a single, double-length CD! Lavender Jane Loves Women, within weeks of its 1973 release, swept women off fences and out of closets. With delight and disbelief, they passed the records from hand to hand, or sent them speeding across oceans and continents. Everywhere women listened, amazed, to songs which actually verbalized the previously unthinkable joy and pride of Lesbian consciousness and identity. Alix's equally wonderful Living With Lesbians soon followed. The appearance of women-centered culture signalled the end of women's historical isolation and silence, and provided structures to voice the exuberant spirit and outlaw perspective of an idea long overdue. You've been needing to replace that vinyl anyway — treat yourself and loved ones to this piece of history! (WWA001/2) CD: 15.98

Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney 0006 (4)

Note sale price on cassette! This wonderful release was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out), as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Ireland, Woman Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Hysteria, The Girls Want to Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very highly... recommended! Built Like That

This award-winning spoken word performer and poet's debut CD treats us to collaborations with two of our favorite artists, Pamela Means and Katie Curtis. Alix's commentary on the current socio-political climate is honest, controversial, and thought-provoking. We laugh at her description of our movement as "amazona sans com" — and we concur with Alison Bachdel (creator of Dykes to Watch Out For) that Alix is "a red-hot, fire-belched, feminismo-spewin' volcano." Plus she rhymes. Listen to her now. (FTF01) CD: 15.98

Amy SimpsonCircumstances Strange

0621

This 1999 release, from a Gay and Lesbian Music Awards debut artist who has played the cafe scene at Campfest, Michigan Women's and National Women's Music Festivals, includes a number of fabulous musicians you may recognize: Mary Watkins, June and Jean Millington, Jeannie Feinstein and Ellen Seeling from Decca, Melanie Morisur, Michaelle Goeritz from Wild Mango. But that's the secondary reason you should hear this — the first one is Amy's own talent. This bold album will titillate your senses with raw and passionate vocals, steamy and skilful songwriting, amazing rhythm arrangements, brilliant string sections, and sizzling guitar licks. Her quirky but complex and interesting lyrics express lesbian courtships, butch/femme things, humor and emotional landscapes, in a haunting and engaging way. Pick this one, if you're looking for something new in women's music: recommended! (MST1) CD: 15.98

Candye KaneThe Toughest Girl Alive

On her 2000 release, this flamboyant, outspoken artist — with a not-to-be-missed sound, style and world view — remolds blues, swing and R&B into an ultra-modern sound that celebrates life as it delightfully flouts sexual and social convention. This is rockin' stuff, with her band augmented by musicians such as pianist Marcia Ball and bassist Larry Taylor. Includes (Hey Mister) She was My Baby Last Night, Let's Commit Adultery and title track, an accurate self-descriptor. Have some Candye, it's good for the soul! (BUL9605) CD: 15.98

CommonbondColors of Life

Recorded live in '95 at the Birchmere in Virginia, the dynamic DC duo performs original acoustic tunes with their voices ringing in harmony. Includes the AIDS benefit song People Laugh, the lifting Forever in My Rain, and their trial-by-Nashville tune Hippie Cowgirl. (COM002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

CommonbondNaked Soul Dance

0715

Ashley and Mary Beth bring an elevated level of craft and broad array of musical styles to their 1998 release. Slick Skin Boogie, featuring fun lyrics, sexy vocals, and super boogie wobble piano by guest Dennis Bogart, brings back the days of 50's swing and shag. Old River and Fly, both songs about fading love, too vivid imagery and powerful vocals. The ballad of This Love features the pure acoustic sound of wood and steel. Wash yourself clean with inspiration, melt into a tender love ballad, and heat back up with their Muddy country and rock — it's all here! (COM003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonBest of Cris Williamson

Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically, a double-length album, chosen from her large discography. Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Woman, Sister, Joanne, Surrender Dorothy — and many others of her best ever, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. (OL956) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonBlue Rider

This 1992 classic album features rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry, with string arrangements by Mary Watkins. Includes Lucille, featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals, Lodestar which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Randle, Leviathan — a song about whales, and Heart to Heart. (OL931) CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonCircle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Sweet Woman, Shooting Star, Dreamchild, Sister, Song of the Soul — plus previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire: If It Weren't For the Music (well, it was released, but only on a 45-rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Olivia, Millworker, Hey Good Lookin'. A wonderful way to remember and honor the album and the era. 72 min. (OL963) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonPrairie Fire

This classic album of pioneering spirit and western expanses is fortunately released on CD in 1996. Highlights include the driving sounds of the title track, the reggae of Colorado Dustbowl Days, and the visionary rock of Taurami (a Japanese word for new wave). Bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, tight rhythm. (OL941) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonThe Changer and the Changed

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child of Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. 1975. (OL904) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonAshes

NEW

This 2001 release has been compared by some critics to Changer and the Changed, even before it's out, and Cris considers these songs the best she has ever written to date. Following the loss of a 20-year relationship, the album tracks her passage through grief and into healing and light, like the proverbial Phoenix Rising. Contributors include Bonnie Raitt on Cry, Cry, Cry, plus Teresa Trull, Linda Tillery, Vicki Randle, Nina Gerber, Barbara Higbie, and Jami Sieber. With talent like this, how can you go wrong? (WMS403) CD: 15.98

Cris WilliamsonWolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout. From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("no longer the lone wolf") to title song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also Goodnight Marjorie Morningstar, for Natalie Wood, Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence, and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (OL951) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Meg ChristianMeg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire heretofore-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Betty Rose's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite oldies. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW033) CS: 14.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa TrullCountry Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour, Calamity Jane, "good-time cowgirl camp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways. And proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably ASR ("Artist & Repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! 1989. (SW22013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret FureBetween the Covers

On this collection of originals, Cris and Tret traverse the musical map: joyful rockers and poignant ballads mix with reggae, folk, and swampy rhythms. Recorded at the innovative Institute for Musical Arts in '99, it features crisp production, stellar vocals, commanding lyrics and electrifying melodies. Standouts include the title track, Please Say, Positive Solution, and the concert fave, New Year's. (WMS401) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret FurePostcards From Paradise

On this 1993 collaborative effort from two of the best-loved artists in women's music, evocative songwriting and stirring vocals challenge us to live in peace, honor the earth and love each other. About half the tracks are duets; most of the rest feature Cris on lead vocals, and Tret provides lead vocals on two. Includes Living On and The Best Interests of the Children, on which Cris and Tret are joined by Michael Callen, the "Diva" and former member of the Flirtsations. Also includes Little World Spinning Blue, The Stones From Helen's Field, Garden Ring, Dreamboat (Rivers of Heaven), My Father's Hands, and more. (OL971) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Tret FureRadio Quiet

This dynamic duo of women's music, who have been partners in life and music for 18 years now, strike again. Their '99 tale includes many concert faves such as On the Line, Choices, Keeper of the Light, The John Deere Song... title track, which was written about the film Contact, and what promises to be a new fan-favorite, Tomboy Girl. And what Cris and Tret recording would be complete without a love song of 3, written to each other? A must-have for old fans, and a great intro for folks new to their music. (WMS402) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Deldre McCallaEveryday Heroes & Heroines

This long-awaited 1992 release — beautifully produced by Teresa Trull, and Deldre's best yet! — demonstrates this singer-songwriter's exceptional talent again with bright, energetic material. The title track is a foot-stomping, good-time country tune, and the others reach from love lost to social criticism. Includes All Over the World, Outside, Girl You Don't Know, Blessings, Sing Me To Sleep. Highly recommended! (OL945) CD: 15.98

Deldre McCalla*With a Little Luck

...and a ton of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deldre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album (1997) is even better than her first, from the irrepressible celebratory exuberance of All Day Always (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words. Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Doria RobertsRadio Doria

NEW

Highly political and infused with a great amount of justified anger, Doria continues her crusade with music on this 2000 release. Philadelphia-born and a vocal activist, describing her mission as being "to inspire compassion as well as educate and entertain," she shares her topical songs about the American Dream, women's rights (Death of a Day), gun control (What's the Matter?), and the music industry (What I Said). Recommended! (HDR828713) CD: 15.98

Doria RobertsRestoration

For those who think the heyday of queer women's folk music is over, we offer you an unforgettable 1998 release from one of the organizers of the traveling Quakerstock festival (which showcases lesbian and gay musicians). In her home town of Atlanta she's already a crowd favorite, and now the rest of the country can share in her talents. She combines the acoustic strumming and poetic lyrics of an expert folk songwriter with the rhythms and southern-tinged vocals of an R&B singer. The material moves from the celebratory and romantic Perfect to the socially conscious Jesus Is Coming. Beautiful arrangements and pristine production give wings to this release and send it soaring above the rest of the field, highly recommended! (HDR82871) CD: 15.98

DyketonesLive in P-Town

The Fabulous Dyketones album is once again back in print, a full program by everyone's favorite "rock n' roll" 5-woman band, performing their trademark slightly reworked hits from the 50's and early 60's, at a dance party at Dyke World! From To Know Her Is To Love Her to My Girlfriend's Back to 24 others, hear them croon and rock out to the max... with help from the Dykeville Choir and Dyke High Chorus! Highly recommended! (RRR1001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Erica WheelerFrom That Far

NEW

Back in stock! This singer-songwriter embodies the finest qualities of folk music: the vocal warmth, the clear acoustic tones, the simplicity of the stories of our lives. Her voice is silky and sweet, her songwriting direct and poetic, and tasteful production, coupled with great accompaniment, all serve to highlight her original songs. Includes Amanda Crazy Wolf, the glowing Down River, the polyamorous song Back Bumer Blues, and Car With No Brakes, about being partners with an incest survivor. Infused with spirituality, landscapes, poetry and wit, we highly recommend this 1992 release! (BP200) CD: 15.98

Fem 2 FemAnimus

0091

Great sale price! In 1994, this group excited and aroused the minds and ears of the lesbian community — and the American public — both with their music, and by speaking on the subject of lesbianism on TV, radio, on tour and on the news. They returned with this 1995 follow-up album, which captures their trademark sound while highlighting their growth as a group — a compelling mix of both high energy pop tracks, which made the group a dance floor favorite in the clubs, and sultry ballads with erotic and sensual lyrics. Includes their first single, Where Did Love Go. Out of print, "out out," don't wait! (TIG15429) CD: 8.98

FeminazisTo Ordinary Women

0877

Whatever your reaction to the name of this 4-woman NC rock band might be (I'm Jewish, and mine is still double-take material), the material on their 1999 CD is both laughing-out-loud funny and absolutely serious... clever, and revolutionary, and one of the most feminist discs we've encountered in a long time! They say, "The name feminazis comes from a desire to reclaim feminism from the negative press generated by the right wing name-caller of recent years. Ruth Limbaugh called all feminists 'feminazis,' and defined them as women who try to make sure that as many abortions as possible are performed. This ludicrous, narrow, yet popularized view of a long-term beneficial social movement like the women's movement has succeeded in undermining it." (Ed. comment: we're all for reclaiming the word 'feminist', but not the term 'nazi'.) Among their great songs with sing-along melodies and fabulous lyrics: Harry-Legged Man-Hating Lesbians ("We're not all hairy-legged man-hating lesbians, lesbians" sung as a round, ending with "But some of us are"), PMS ("We're not your little girls and we're tired of putting up with men's SHIT"), Pissed-Off Women's Blues, I Scream Revolution, Thelma and Louise Live, Woman's Work. You'll feel delight and righteousness passed off all at the same time when you listen. Aside from their name (which we hope they'd consider changing) this music is highly recommended! Ferron

Impressionistic Ferron (2-CD Set)

30 years, 30 songs, under 30 bucks. This 2000-song essential retrospective contains not only all the best tracks from the currently-unavailable Testimony (title track, Misty Mountain, Almost Kissed), but lots of tracks from her completely out-of-print Warner Brothers titles to which she has finally been able to buy the rights and release here herself. From Still Riot title track, Alice Says Yes, Venus as Appearances, I Am Hungry, The Chosen Ones, From Driver, Maya, from Phantom Center, Harmless Love, My My, Stand Up, and some Shadows on a Dime highlights as well, such as Spowin' in Brooklyn, I Never Was To Africa, Proud Crowd. Enclosed is a 24-page book that tells a bit about the landscape around each song. Neither she nor we would suggest that anyone ought to listen to a double Ferron CD all at one sitting, but there's enough on here for hours, days, months and years worth of layered discovery. Highly recommended! (CW10) CD: 24.98

Ferron

Inside Out... The IMA Sessions

Fun with a capital 'F'. Ferron does covers! This late spring '99 release contains some of the sassiest renditions of really great songs many of us boomers grew up with: Different Drum, Walk Away Renee, Don't Worry Baby, Needles and Pins, I Feel Fine, Town Without Pity, What Becomes of the Brokenhearted. Ferron and some of San Francisco's finest musical talent decided to go back and claim those songs, and they accomplished their mission: so dance along, laugh along and sing along, this is pure enjoyment! (IMA0001) CD: 15.98

Ferron

Not A Still Life

A dream fulfilled for all you fans who have asked where you could obtain copies of Ferron's first two out-of-print albums. This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any album: the concert favorite I Know A Game, and Shady Gate, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center. 15 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CD: 15.98

Ferron

Shadows on a Dime

This Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite, very highly recommended! (CW004) CD: 15.98

Ginni Clemmens

Underneath Hawaiian Skies

Ginni is one of the founding mothers of the Women's Music Movement. Her round robin at the early women's music festivals helped foster the newly emerging phenomenon as a participatory network, rather than a group of performers playing to a passive audience. In celebration of her 55th birthday in 2001, we're happy to offer this sing-along CD of her beautiful original songs, inspired by living on the island of Maui. Infused with insightful lyrics, humor, and her genuine spirit, it includes some veritable gems that put this CD on our list of recommended ones. Kanaka O Hawaii speaks eloquently of the shame of Hawaii's colonization and commercial development, while Broken Open is one of the most beautiful love songs ever written (think of this if you ever need a song for a commitment ceremony). Of course, no recording by Ginni would be complete without one of her sassy blues tunes, and she delivers it with Volcano Mama (Geothermal Blues). Do yourself a favor, and recapture the spirit of the early women's music movement with this DIY recording. (GNC1) CD: 14.98

Gwen Avery

Sugar Mama

2000 has brought us fabulous releases from some of the original Women's Music greats: Mary Watkins, Woody Simons, Holly Near... and now vocalist/keyboardist/songwriter Gwen Avery! Among her claims to fame from the Women's Music World of the mid-70's: her hit song, the out-and-proud Sugar Mama from the pivotal Olivia compilation Lesbian Concentrate (newly recorded for this album), plus contributions to Mary Watkins' LP Something Moving. Expertly produced by Linda Tillery, this CD also features classic blues tracks like Thin Is Gone, great gospel songs like Thomas A. Dorsey's Precious Lord, Take My Hand, the contemporary folk of Leonard Cohen's Suzanne, the balladry of Georgia On My Mind, Nina Simone's jazzy Sugar in My Bowl, and best of all, 6 soulful and woman-identified originals. Long overdue, and very recommended! (SMM1) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Holly Near

Edge

Holly's 2000 release of all new recordings — 8 originals and 5 covers — reminds us again how much we have missed her! (Not that anyone's counting, but it must be at least a decade since her last solo release of all new songs by herself and other contemporary singer-songwriters.) Beginning with the appropriately entitled Fired Up, it includes her originals 1000 Grandmothers, When Do We Rest?, I Ain't Afraid, and title track, as well as the Michael Callen/Peter Allen/Barbra Streisand classic Love Don't Need A Reason, Paul Simon's Further To Fly, Pat MacDonald's Standard White Jesus and more. So join us in beginning another new decade of nourishing music from this eloquent and inspiring artist. (CTM0004) CD: 15.98

Holly Near

Journeys

This representative sampling from her first six albums was compiled because so many folks, new to her music, asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of It Could Have Been Me. Unfortunately out of print, and very limited quantity; jacket may be punched and not shrink-wrapped but LP's are new. (RR405)

Musical Highlights From The Play...

Good news: CDs are back in print! About this '93 release of highlights from her play Fire in the Rain, Holly said, "While doing the play, audiences kept asking for the cast recording. We didn't have one. The songs were spread out on 15 different recordings made over the last 20 years! A compilation? No, let me record these songs one last time... not like I sang them back then... maybe not even how I sing them in the show! I hope you enjoy this recording... a celebration of the last 20 years and a reassurance that there are many surprising years yet to come." Also includes a few previously unrecorded songs: originals Find Me and Change of Heart, plus a few Broadway-type covers. (CTM0002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Simply Love/Women's Music Collection

This 2000 2-CD compilation of songs celebrating Women's Music is cause for celebration itself. In addition to several songs from Imagine My Surprise (over 20 years after its initial release), it contains some irreplaceable collaborations, such as the Holly/Rhiannon duet of Waterfall recorded at the Michigan Women's Music Festival, and Singing With You with Ronnie Gilbert. Besides a few older tracks that were demoed but never released, there are new recordings of Women's Music classics: Alix Dobkin's The Woman in Your Life; Theresa Edell's Emma; Linda Tillery's Wonderful; Margie Adam's Tender Lady; The Rock Wellys' Way Away written by Holly and Meg Christian, and a new version of Ray Line with a brilliant piano solo by Adrienne Tori. With its photo-filled booklet, this is a tribute and testament to 20 years of cultural herstory. recommended! (CTM0003) CD: 24.98

With a Song in My Heart

Holly shares with us her 1997 recording of 14 songs from the 30's and 40's — that era of great songwriters like Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, Fats Waller, Rogers and Hart... She says, "Definitive versions of these songs have already been recorded by Ella Fitzgerald but they are worth singing again, to keep them alive, to keep some sweet innocence in our revolution, to share with our parents — those who have disapproved of us, those who have envied us and those who have mentored us." And, it's true. Holly's mother was wowed by it! Its simple production (voice plus John Buchino's piano only) makes it sound as if Holly is singing right in your own living room! (CTM9701) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

recommended recording, in LP only! Other than a tiny hole punched in the jacket, these are brand-new, mint-condition, never-unwrapped LP's. Singing With You - LP Only

Only a very limited supply of this out-of-print classic, without which no collection is complete, so hurry! Contains both studio and live recordings, including a medley of old favorites (Imagine My Surprise, Something About the Women, etc.). Ferron's Kid Song, Ruth Peltzman's touching I Cried, and others relating to social issues, friendship and love. Not shrink-wrapped, but mint condition. (RR410) LP: 10.98

Halcyon

I'm Naked and I'm Going to Paris

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies, ringing acoustic guitars, catchy tunes and upbeat rhythms. Their 1994 release is just in time for fans hungry for more, after their successful debut and festival tours, here with bass/drums/percussion accompaniment. Stephanie Callahan and Debbie Hunseder write their songs primarily around the lost-love theme in its various manifestations, as well as the more political Fire in the Church and Wait For You, about the patience and persistence of love. (HAL1001) CD: 15.98

Separately Together

The opening track of this 2000 release, an a cappella rendition of the Star Spangled Banner, demonstrates Halcyon's greatest strength — strong, precise harmonies coupled with catchy, upbeat melodies. What makes this Florida duo so magnetic is their incredibly strong vocal harmonies and the way Steph and Deb's voices complement each other, blending together as one dynamic sound that travels straight through you. They sing about the intricacies of relationships — beginnings, endings, and everything in between. They don't limit themselves to this subject matter, however, with tracks like Oz serving as commentary on the O.J. Simpson verdict, and a dance mix of Under the Same Sun. (HAL1004) CD: 15.98

Halcyon

Slightly Confusing to Strangers

Expanded instrumentation on their 1995 album takes them even farther than their last release! Electric guitar solos add intensity to the compelling, personal, political I Tell You Who I Am, and keyboards add dramatic flair on The Story. Good intentions have an a cappella introduction so soulful it hurts. Eleventh Hour shows that their folk-rock is as upbeat as ever. They branch out into a rockabilly sensibility with Inconvinced Blues, then into a funky style in Dreams From Reality, with a little help from a wah-wah pedal. (HAL1002) CD: 15.98

Halcyon

Two Bars Short of a Hit

With broad, ringing vocals, and strong, smart harmonies, Deb and Stephanie incorporate a bit of a country edge into their folk-rock sound. Songs like Hold Out Hope and Every Cell will have you singing along the first time you listen, while darker, more subtle melodies, on songs like The Voice, also permeate this 1998 album. You'll see why this duo was named a finalist in the nationwide Lilith Fair Emerging Talent Contest. Halcyon fans and newcomers alike will find themselves humming these infectious songs under their breath all day long, and fully enjoying this terrific recording. (HAL1003) CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

Live

This 2000 live recording will delight long-time fans as well as draw new listeners in with clever lyrics and strong, rich vocals. Highlights include Heather's impressive yodeling in I Want to be a Cowgirl Sweetheart, the taunting, sexy Whisper Talk, and The Letter, which tells a story heartwrenching in its familiarity. The opening track, Ageing Grace is a hilarious confession of what it's like to grow older. This album is a guaranteed good time! (MOP012) CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements: OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults: Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Rain. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Ancient Cry and Yes To Life. BORROWED: songs like Old Jesus Have a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom. BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 19 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print; lots of her best work here, very recommended of course! HARP: A Time To Sing (2-CD Set)

NEW!

Finally... not only is this 1984 classic coming back into print in 2001, this total makeover contains 13 previously-unreleased tracks from live performances from this super-group consisting of Holly Near, Arlo Guthrie, Pete Seeger, and Ronnie Gilbert (2 original members of the Weavers). This is quintessential historical folk music at its best. Bridging the gap between generations, the artists share and communicate an informed sense of the social and political struggles that have brought us to where we are today. Includes Small Business Blues (sic), Mothers, Daughters, Wives, Emma, Oh Mary Don't You Weep, Singing For Our Lives, 27 in all. Still fresh, relevant, and as precious as ever — in fact, even more so since it's a whole CD worth of new stuff! (APR1054) CD: 22.98

Second Coming

NEW!

It's about time that this ground-breaking release from the early 70's arrives back in print! It's the debut album (originally self-titled, the old cover art showed their gold-leafed naked selves in front of a pyramid - remember?) by one of the earliest all-women rock bands who had their fame at the time: they toured with Eagles, Three Dog Night, Leon Russell - and folks like Phoebe Snow, Hall and Oates and Charlie Daniels opened for them. Among their trademarks were the great horn and percussion sections, from musicians like Nydia/Liberty Mata, Lolly Bienenfeld, Janine Fineberg and Stella Bass, under the leadership of Carol MacDonald and Ginger Bianco. And it contains one of the earliest recorded love songs by a woman for a woman, She Loves Me... This was decades ago, mind you. An essential piece of women's music history — with a beat. Our only question is, where's the rest of their discography? We hope it's coming too! (SIS599) CD: 15.98

NEW!

This eloquent and sharp-witted singer-songwriter's late 2001 (or early 2002) release contains more songs about food, sex and mama, with some great accompaniment from women such as Kiya and Miriam from Wishing Chair. This all-woman release features the poignant ballad Maybe You Miss Me; a song about gay families entitled Forever Family; the steely Invitation which fans of Dark Chocolate will love; and the reason you should never break up with a songwriter, the country-flavored I Miss the Dog (More Than I Miss You). Jamie Anderson

Drive-All Night

With tongue planted firmly in cheek, Jamie calls her 1999 release More Songs About Sex, Food and Mama. She's re-released the sultry and sexy Dark Chocolate (a long-time favorite of this editor), and recorded 10 new songs including the hilarious I Wanna Be A Straight Guy, Anchored in a Tight Groove, Fear Sinners with Anticipation, With My Smile is a poignant ballad about a woman who finds her birth mother, and Roses features the beautiful harmonies of the Burns Sisters. She's accompanied by Joyce Zinech (of Justina and Joyce) and 2 members of Paula Cole's touring band. (TSU1029) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Never Assume

This favorite women's music performer's 1995 album delivers what her fans (and we) have come to expect: outrageously funny stories of true life adventures and touching ballads of life and love, all told with her evocative vocals. The title track challenges a few preconceived ideas; Midnight Alice is inspired by a teenage love affair — with a car. The true story of breast cancer, One Out of Three, is a strong, positive song with startling honesty and hope. Tell us the tale of growing up with family secrets. And what Jamie Anderson album would be complete without a few songs to make you laugh out loud? Menstrual Tango and When Cats Take Over the World will do the job. Produced by the infamous Lisa Koch. (TSU1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Never Turning Back: A Retrospective

This 1996 release is a collection of songs from her earlier recordings, many of which are now out of print (and some of the others are soon to be). In fact, shortly, this and Best of Judy Small will replace her entire back catalog. There are so many classics from the repertoire of this amazing Australian singer/songwriter, it's a must for your collection. (CRA010) CD: 15.98

Best of Judy Small

This wonderful 1993 retrospective contains some of the best material — 17 songs! — from Judy's first 4 albums: Mothers, Daughters, Wives, One Voice in the Crowd, Home Front, and A Natural Selection. Song titles include The I.P.D., The Family Maiden Aunt, Women of Our Time, From the Lamenting To the Wood. In addition, she includes her popular but never before recorded song for recessionary times, Ordinary People. It's a lot of great songwriting for the money! And, watch for Judy on tour in the states, US Immigration Service willing. (CRA007) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Let the Rainbow Shine: Out & Proud

Here's the album this prolific Australian singer/songwriter (and as of recently, a lawyer too!) has always wanted to make, a whole album about gay and lesbian issues, yet an album for everybody. And with song titles like Lesbian Chic, A Man Among Men, and Country Town Gaytime Blues, this 1995 release fills her with pride. As always, her songs are extraordinary yet ordinary, as she leads us to find common ground between her own experiences and those of us, her listeners. This is a beautiful gift to the lesbian/gay community and beyond. (CRA011) CD: 14.98

Walk The Worn Out Floor

I've seen Julie play piano and sing with the exquisitely goofy Lisa Koch, the boisterous Laura Love, and the frabell Teresa Trull. Her musical talent and deep, well-phrased voice have always seized my attention — and now that I've heard her 1996 solo album, they show no sign of loosening their grip. It is an intimate recording, Julie's piano and riffs of accordion (what a dream girl!) tastes of Jami Sieber's cello and Hans Teuber's flute and sax, and, of course, her singing. From standards like My Foolish Heart to Elvis Costello's harrowing Baby Plays Around, to Keith Jarrett's My Song (with lyrics by Rhiannon), to the blues of Someone Else is Steppin' In (with background vocals by Laura Love), to her original The Wall, Julie takes us on a wonderful jazzy trip. I just swoon. Recommended! (PAL36) CD: 15.98

So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from LadySlipper... and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)! Rich, dark timbres and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works; each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording... The original song, Desert Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Animalia, which states 'No! I will not let down, I will not submit, I will not quit, I will resist...' a moving cover of Feron's Testimony, and a traditional Lakota chant, Ancient Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this 1991 recording enough! Drag

0630

This 1997 release is perhaps both the most unusual and the most beguiling to date from our premiere chanteuse; it is a collection of ballads by other writers, all of which center on images of... SMOKING! Investigating the cigarette's musical resonance as an all-purpose metaphor for love, addiction or one fixation, k.d. has created a lush, languorous album, delivered with an appropriately smoldering vocal passion. Along with such tobacco-themed standards as Don't Smoke in Bed, Smoke Dreams and Love Is Like a Cigarette are tunes by Jane Siberry, Dory and Andre Previn, Roy Orbison and T Bone Burnett, along with playfully ironic treatments of The Hollies' The Air That I Breathe and Steve Miller's The Joker. Ingenuie

Here's what the blurb sheet from the label said, and we agree with it totally! "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartfelt vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are uncanny. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dropped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote the album, which includes Miss Chateaux, Constant Craving, Wash Me Clean, and Save Me. 1992 (SIR26540) CD: 17.98

The first-ever live album from this musical and cultural icon, this 2001 release captures most of her magical 2000 performance which was broadcast on A&E. With her voice in spectacular form, her grace and power not only marked the special as one of the highest-rated in the network's history, but ensured that the album would be cherished by fans. Includes Constant Craving, Consequences of Falling, Big Boned Gal, Crying, Miss Chateaux, 14 fan favorites in all. (WB48106) CD: 17.98

Lifted By Love: CD Maxi-Single

0030

Take the original Cowgirls haunting ballad, install a sinky beat under it and presto! you have yourself a sithery sexy dance song (the Club Xanax Mix). Or, if you rather, turn up the beats-per-minute knob and move your body to the Elvisette Your Love Mix. You also get the tropicalized Miss Chateaux and the enhanced Just Keep Me Moving. Most exquisite, however, is k.d.'s duet with gay boy Andy Bell from the group Erasure on the Diana Ross/Burtina Streisand '79 classic No More Tears (Enough is Enough)! It is k.d.'s our new disco diva? More Tears (Enough is Enough) in the surf and you can get an idea of the scrumptious drip-drip cover photo. A must-have for any fan! (SIR1378) CD: 9.98

A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found an import supply of k.d.'s debut release... it's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chronicled. Goodbye ("she's my gal"), Hanky Panky, her original Pine and Slew, plus Patsy Cline's Stop, Look and Listen and 5 others. Fourteen Days

0908

No one we know can resist her invigorating, pan-ethnic melange. Dousing her infectious compositions in shades of folk, funk, R&B and world musics, this singer-songwriter/producer creates music that is as much fun for the mind as it is for the feet. On her 2000 release she delivers more of her witful, earthy fusion that has made her a festival favorite. With a stunning batch of originals, plus an inviting cover of Laura Nyro's classic Stoned Soul Picnic, this album is an intoxicating voyage into the mind of a witty, boundless artist. Holyetica Bold

0416

Incredible vocals, amazing African/Bulgarian yodeling and unique, persuasive bass playing are featured in a mix of original and novel renditions of well-loved classics... as the layers of Appalachian, Celtic, African, and urban American sounds and sentiments into a patchwork of unforgettable melody and groove. In addition to her own tunes, she imprints her style on the folk chestnuts 500 Miles, Wayfaring Stranger, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and possibly the year's best dance party rave, Jackie DeShannon's Put A Little Love In Your Heart. Themes are where we fit in the world — how she sees it, how she wishes it were, how she hopes it will be... in her words, "that middle ground between Pollyanna and suicidal." She's one of our favorite artists, so we urge you not to miss this 1994 release. (OB4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Octoroon

"Discovered" at the New York Singer-Songwriter Festival, where she tore the roof off Carnegie Hall, Laura is now playing in the big leagues. She rips into her 1997 major label debut, funk-a-lyin' with her exquisite keening yodel and bottom-shaking bass guitar. Bad Feeling slips in a little bit of James Brown and Sly Stone. Can't Understand takes you on a boat ride through the dark swamp while Laura ruminates on mad-dog hypocrisy. I Am Wondering undeniably scats along. Amazing Grace, with its acappella intro sliding into some Delta Blues as powerful as it can well should be. Nirvana's Come As You Are opens up some of its heretofore untapped cabinet doors. Somebody slap me! Blending socially incisive lyrics with flashes of accordion, steel guitar, fiddle, fiddle, harmonica, she just keeps getting better. Indubitably recommended! This as-always-fabulous 1998 release is true to Laura's blending of African and Caribbean rhythms, traditional acoustic instrumentation, and intriguing harmonies into the funk she calls AfroCeltic. Her distinctive bass playing style, coupled with a unique mix of instruments (not to mention her twisting-turning lyrics), weave ethnic and American rock rock into her wonderfully original sound. Some tracks are all-new, others familiar to fans, includes Aha Me A Riddle, I'm A Givin' Way, Melody, The Clapping Song ("to clap is human but to yodel is divine"). Pangaea

0038 (NEW)

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant—all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severi) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! With more than a passing resemblance to Nancy Griffith's emotional warmth, this is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes—there's just no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing. Nelson, Voices. Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Z Therapy

Laura's 1990 release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Henna Christopher from the Z-Band—thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat Gi. Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos, Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

This beautiful tribute to folkies to the community of Womenkind and our collective strengths and joys, originally released in the '80s, is back in print! Linda's Gone is a poignant memorial to Elizabeth Cotten, sung and strummed in Linda's trademark style. Rose the River—Revisited is performed as an a cappella British ballad with lovely harmonies. Spirit Song is an expression of women's spirituality, with thanks to Starhawk. Each song, like each slice of a quilt, reveals another aspect of creativity and vision. (OR1013) CD: 14.98

Not the Girl Next Door

(NEW)

Some of you have heard Lisa Arana back, when she was lead vocalist and lyricist for the ensemble Gaea's Heart, on their album Drumming the Dream. On her 1999 CD, original compositions blend acoustic slide blues with Appalachian folk sounds. Her hard-edged yet soulful vocal stylings cover topics from homelessness to the impact of infidelity on the acquisition of cats, often with an ironic finger, on songs such as Big Daddies and Playin' Jass Joplin Loud. She's a committed feminist too—her wish is to share her music while supporting the women's community. The price is right on this debut, check her out! (NGN1) CD: 9.95

I'm Ready

Fans have been more than ready for this '97 release! It's filled with the moving, sweet, lyrical ballads and love songs (in English and French) that this Quebecois singer-songwriter is known and loved for across North America. Most songs are original, such as title track, which features Women's Music faves like Kris Williamson, Tret Fure, Alex Dobkin, Shelley Jennings and Hilary Key on supporting vocals and accompaniment... and Leaving Someone Like You, expressly by a woman to a woman. A highlight is her cover of Kathleen Harman's If You've Ever Loved, about lesbians and gays who ironically lose the love of their families in the name of Christ, the very one who taught love for everyone. Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Lucie has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Kris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of the debut album features back-up vocals by Kris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Kris, Tret Fure, Teresa Trull, and Debra McCulla. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous—treat yourself now! Recommended. 1996. (OL947) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Evolution

0749 (NEW)

There's a buzz about this outspoken performer, so listen up! Described by many as a pioneer among Asian-American women in music, her contemporary songs reveal an awareness about issues affecting Asian-American women as well as other minorities. This 1995 debut release includes Submissive, which primarily deals with insulting stereotypes about Asian women, and references hatred against gays and lesbians. More pop/alternative than rock, her music includes some fine piano playing. She was a finalist in the Little Fair Talent Search, and has toured extensively, including many appearances with Women's Music artists. If you haven't yet heard her, tune in now! (CPR003) CD: 15.95

At long last, Margie's singing to us again! Her clear voice and elegant piano are at the center of each song on this mesmerizing excursion into the spirit and power of woman-loving, even as she's joined by many familiar names in Women's Music. Along with a new classic Margie love song, Woman Of My Heart, this 2001 release includes a great rendition of Carole King's Will You Still Love Me Tomorrow?, the anthemic A Woman's Work Is Never Done which is destined to enter the repertoire of women's choruses everywhere, and 3 of her inspiring instrumentals. Soon and Again

We have journeyed with Margie from Songwriter, featuring two piano solos to Naked Keys, with all piano instrumentals, to Another Place, with its instrumental interludes, and we arrive with her in 1995 at a creative project that is exclusively instrumental. Margie's solo piano is still purely her and still purely women's music. Of all the possible emotions that the pieces on this album could evoke, two of the strongest are hope and love. The title of one song, Something About Us, speaks perhaps about a relationship between two people, or perhaps about an entire community. A brilliant, expressive work. (PLE2762) CS: 5.95 CD: 15.95

Mary Gauthier

Drug Queens in Limousines

0770 (NEW)

Mary's 1999 release begins with the line, "I hated High School, I played a wild end..."—an appropriate beginning for an album of songs about people whose lives are lived outside of "normal." She writes about Kasey Pavey Tucker, the woman executed by the state of Texas in '90; about the darker side of drinking in I Drink; about falling for a hard-core stripper in Evangeline; and about feeling at home with society's outcasts in the title track. Supporting vocalists include Cate Curtis, Caroline Aiken, and The Austin Lounge Lizards. If you've ever felt different from those around you, you'll relate to the characters you meet in these songs. Meg Christian

Face the Music

We're bringing Meg's inimitable 1977 release back, due to the many requests we've had lately for the Sue Fink/Joelyn Grippo-penned classic Leaping Lesbians—while we are unsure what has sparked this round of inquiries (perhaps this is still being hummed at homophobic gatherings by all the cool maiden aunts?), we are delighted. Hilarious as well as personal reflection and social awareness are reflected in these wonderful songs, which feature the talents of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Holly Near, and others. (OL913) CS: 9.95

On her 2001 release, personal experience, art, and catharsis all come together in a way that even this artist hasn't explored before. "It's the closest I've ever come to recording a concept album. It has a beginning, middle and end. It's a journey." It also features the most eclectic mix of styles thus far—from Lower Plessie, the heavy rocking opener that's a plaintive wail from the gut, to the country-blues of The Prison, the melancholy of Walking On Water, the pop crescendos of I Want To Be In Love, to the hopeful closing track Heart Me. It's basically bandless. Melissa plays all keyboards, harmonicas and guitars. (VIR548551) CD: 15.95

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 11 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polyrhythmic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic, juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive... and this 1992 release is as upbeat as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! (PHA1) CD: 15.95

Phranc

Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60's music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader/manager and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful a cappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Gertrude Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG40382) CS: 5.95

Rebecca Riots

0506 (NEW)

This Berkeley-based feminist folk trio (Eve Decker, Andrea Pritchett, and Lisa Zeiler), previously known as Final Girl, presents a 1995 "radical folk-rock" album which has garnered comparisons to Cassia Berry-Dupree—both in the intense acoustic sound and the dynamic and political lyrics. Desperate Measures is a cry for civil disobedience in the face of injustice, while Slow Burn describes, from both perspectives, an encounter between a frightened woman and a homeless man. Cut Through The Sugar wonders "what would happen if one woman told the truth about her life?" Other tracks like Faith, Chances, No Wings and Landmines are by and about women who live the examined life. Recommended! (RRT3) CS: 9.95 CD: 14.95

On this Interactive Guide to Vocal Improvisation, Rhiannon and her all-star host of friends (Linda Tillery, David Worm and Joey Blake from Voicecraft and others) teach listeners how to leave the sheet music behind — and start "cutting loose" in the jazz, gospel, Latin and African traditions. This 2000 release is an excellent step-by-step private workshop on a cappella singing and vocal improv, as you build confidence and skills at your own pace. Learn breathing exercises, call-and-response singing, interval singing, and creating inspired melodies, harmonies, mouth/body percussion and more, as you discover your own musical language and voice. Rhiannon Live... On Tomales Bay

This concert album is all the more personal and intimate because it was recorded close to the artist's home on the California coast. It's like having a front row seat for a whole evening of her inspired musical artistry. Exquisitely rendered jazz standards like My One and Only and Love Comes and Goes are mixed with exciting performances of Caged Bird, Flying and more, all interwoven and punctuated with classic Rhiannon improvisations. She is inventive, zany, tenderly heart wrenching, powerful and always touched by a higher spirit. This late-summer 1999 collection reaffirms her place as one of the most original and gifted stylists of our time. (RHN3) CD: 15.98

Rhiannon Loosen Up and Improvise

This Vocal Stretching and Improvisation Tape, created by Rhiannon because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes, is now back in stock. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns... exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon talks you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique. If you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHNT) CS: 9.98

Rhiannon Toward Home

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alvin, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Shenandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicecraft, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Rose, Janet Smail, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! Sandra Bernhard Excuses for Bad Behavior, Part One

Found a small supply of "out-of-print" copies of this tough-as-nails, out-of-print title, to the first lucky callers... "It's all about bad behavior, and accepting it... with love." A musical and vocal album with spoken words and raps along the way, this 1994 release is a work about liberation and repression, love and loss, dreams and survival — a thought-provoking and entertaining comment about our culture and our times. Backed by her band, the Strip-Ons, she moves from rap to dance to soulful balladry. She salutes the late Sylvester with Mighty Real, remembers her friends lost to AIDS in the meditative Innocence, and employing layered rap, sings about voyeurism and detachment — projecting your fantasy onto someone you never have to meet — on Phone Sex (Do You Want Me Tonight). Mixing boldness, honesty and vulnerability, she turns pop culture on its side! (EPC67683) CD: 8.98

Siammin' Babes (Millington Sisters) Melting Pot

We've all been anxiously awaiting this 2000 release from these famous and talented sisters; it's their first recording in many years. Recorded at The Institute for the Musical Arts, it conveys a powerful message of unity and hope. Drawing from rock, funk, and rap, June and Jean Millington not only sing about crossing cultural boundaries, their style also draws from other cultures to add flavor to their unique sound. Highlights include the title track, a positive rap in English, Portuguese, French, and Spanish, about unity and the possibility that someday the whole world could party together, and Understanding, a song about fighting ignorance and working together to accept each other. (FAB908) CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick Truth & the Lie

A remarkable 1991 recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong; her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! Teresa Trull A Step Away

This classic, which is being re-released by the artist in 1999, is one of our all-time faves, in every respect: music, material and production. Each song has a complexity and depth, as well as a contagious hope and joy. Includes Marie, Roseale, How Lucky... We are to have this great title once again here on our pipes! (RR412) CD: 15.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie Playtime

After all these years, another album by this beloved duo has arrived in 1998! On this upbeat collection of acoustic blues-influenced songs, strong harmonizing and songwriting from these 2 multi-talents blend with their top-notch fancy fiddle- and piano-playing. Special guest Cns. Williamson joins in, as the newly reunited duo finds serious fun and inspiration in each other's gifts. All originals, except for a song each from BB King and Billie Holiday. (SLB2212) CD: 16.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie Unexpected

Unexpected but welcome news: this classic from this dynamic duo is re-released in 1998! Featuring an eclectic mix of styles: country, gospel, ballads — some simple, some fairly produced — the blend of talent and material is incredible! Includes the editor's favorite Melissa Manchester duet, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Terry Garthwaite Moving Day

If you are a historian of women in music, you need something by Terry Garthwaite in your collection! She's one of the first women to have formed and led, along with Toni Brown, a commercially successful rock 'n' roll band back in the 70's. The Joy of Cooking. This solo album was recorded in 1985, after the band had broken up and both women had continued on to develop solo careers. Finally re-released in 2001, it contains original material in a contemporary vein, softer than her previous work and one she considered to be more truly her sound, with her sultry expressive voice right up front. Accompanists include drummer Barbara Borden, saxophonist Mary Feltz, and, on the outstanding track Mother Earth, the San Geronimo Valley Girls. (JOY007) CD: 15.98

Therese Edell From Women's Faces

Plus 0731 (CD) Not only does this 1998 release bring back into print many selections from one of the greatest classics in women's music, her 1977 album From Women's Faces, this 88-minute collection has new and previously unreleased tracks too! Rima are newly-released live performances from the early 80's, including a couple recorded at the Michigan festival. A Women's Love by Alts Dobkin, and 2 are performed by MUSE. Contrasts women's choruses, including Goddess and Guru, a 19-part composition in which Betsy Lipicki, Therese's long-time collaborator sings a Saraswati invocation. So, even though Therese has been off the tour circuit for health reasons, she treats us to songs we didn't already have in our collections, plus old favorites: Moonflower, Emma, Jennifer, Leah's Song, Mama Let Your Children Go, Love's Song, Sister Heatherspinners' Calendar Days. This is an absolute must-have for all of Therese's fans whose ancient LP's are scratched (and/or lack a turntable altogether), as well as anyone who wants to newly experience one of the foundation pieces of the women's music and culture movement. Highly-of-course-recommended! (SEA313) CD: 15.98

Tracy Drach Listen for the Kiss

10 years after her debut, this 2000 release from a former Ladyship is a delight well worth the anticipation! She treats us to an eclectic collection of mostly originals, her sweet and smoky vocals accompanied by her "Drach 'n' Drift" trio, plus the help of old and new friends. The driving force of cello, violin and percussion provide the lush backdrop for the lyrical and haunting Back When Words Were the Enemy, a piece about the lingering effects of telling one's own truth. Relax into the warmth of Sonata and Judy Small's No Tears For the Widow, and swing to an updated version of Melodrama. A guest appearance by Sandy Garfinkel (who toured with the Indigos) and his harmonica heats up the classic When You Wish Upon a Star as well as Tracy's upbeat anthem of faith and patience, Waiting For the Seeds to Fall. Not to be missed! (DND2002) CD: 15.98

Tret Fure Back Home

Tret continues to demonstrate her talent, versatility, and perseverance on her 2001 release. Having left her relationship of 20 years and moved to Wisconsin after 30 years in California, Tret not surprisingly takes a bittersweet and sometimes melancholy tone in this, her first solo album in 10 years. Her guitar melodies jam perfectly with the other instruments and musicians featured, while allowing her rich voice to shine at the front. There are some surprises here: in addition to June and Jean Millington on guitars, bass and percussion, and Novi Novog (long-time Ferron accompanist) on viola, folkie John McCutcheon contributes some harmony vocals. A strong return to what promises to be a highly successful solo career. (TGR20100) CD: 15.98

Tret Fure Edges of the Heart/CD: Terminal Hold

Tret's 1996 release, Edges of the Heart, packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements; a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly hot number, Tight Black Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. The 1998 CD re-release of this title has a great bonus: the entire earlier album of Terminal Hold is also included! (i.e. the cassette is a single title, the CD is a double title) (SW22099) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Tret Fure Time Turns the Moon

This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Various Artists Women for Women

This 1995 compilation includes tracks by some of the best loved and most popular contemporary female artists who have donated their hits to promote breast health and breast cancer awareness. Melissa Etheridge, Sheryl Crow, Kathy Mattea, Aretha Franklin, Oleta Adams, Annie Lennox, Tina Turner, Julia Forcham, and others. Some proceeds will go to NABCO — The National Alliance of Breast Cancer Organizations, a non-profit network of 300 organizations — to provide information, assistance, and referrals. We think it's wonderful, and about time that this grave threat to women's health receive as much attention and support as the AIDS crisis. Women for Women! (HL328334) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Women for Women 2

Once again, proceeds from a great 1996 compilation are going to breast cancer research, so when you're thinking of gifts that give, think of this one! Artists here include Indigo Girls (Power of Two), Carole King (Beautiful/Natural Woman Medley), Tina Turner, Joan Osborne, Amy Grant, Sheryl Crow, Vanessa Williams (Sister Moon), Oleta Adams and others. (HL535671) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Climb Against the Odds

This 1999 benefit to assist The Breast Cancer Fund is the anonymous soundtrack to the award-winning documentary (narrated by Olympia Dukakis) about a 1998 attempt by 12 women — 5 of them breast cancer survivors — to climb Alaska's Mt. McKinley. Beside the fact that this release raises funds and awareness about this critical issue (and artists are donating their royalties), the list of contributing artists is stupendous. Includes previously-released selections by k.d. lang, Indigo Girls, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Celine Dion, Jani Sieber, Nancy Griffith, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Billy Myers (performing Mother, Daughter, Sister, Lover), Paula Cole, and more. Original, newly-released songs include theme song by Karen Pettick, and Mercy's Theme by Laura Karpman. Essential! (WB47493) CS: 11.98... CD: 17.98

Octaves Beyond Silence

The extraordinary and ambitious 2000 compilation focuses on, and raises funds to benefit, women survivors of war and violence. Perhaps most notably, it includes the only recording to date from feminist playwright/costume designer, author of The Vagina Monologues, here reading My Vagina Was My Village. (This ground-breaking Off Broadway presentation has featured summaries such as Diahann Carroll, Gena Rowland, Audra McDonald, Rita Moreno, Alanis Morissette, Marie Perle, Amy Irving, Brooke Shields, Erica Jong, Teri Garr and many others.) Additional music tracks from Ani DiFranco, Indigo Girls, Meshell Ndegeocello, BETTY, and many other artists are interspersed with narratives and songs from women in Bosnia, Rwanda, Afghanistan and the U.S. Proceeds support the following organizations: Women for Women International, Center for Women War Victims, Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan, The V-Day Fund, Center for Gender and Refugee Studies, and Refugee Women in Development, Inc. R-E-S-P-E-C-T: Century of Women...

This eclectic 5-disc 1999 collection joyously celebrates a Century of Women in Music. Each disc swings you back into another decade, with terrific song selections from the era along with sound-bites from women of the time, such as Amelia Earhart, Eleanor Roosevelt, Margaret Mead, and Anita Hill. Every style is represented — from Broadway, blues, swing and torch songs to Motown, rock, punk, pop, and hip-hop. On what other compilation will you find recordings by Fanny Brice, Bessie Smith, Patsy Cline, Judy Garland, Laura Nyro, Dolly Parton, The Shirelles, Janis Joplin, Carole King, Blondie, Liz Phair, Kate Bush, Ani DiFranco, Queen Latifah, and, of course, Aretha Franklin — to name just a few? My Sister Sings

This collection from our northern neighbors presents a perfectly rounded group of women singer-songwriters who are making their voices heard. It starts off with the rousing title track by Melanie Doane, then goes on to showcase others you may know, such as Sarah McLachlan, Tara MacLean, Mary Jane Lamont, and Natalie MacMaster. Besides offering a great way to hear new women singers that you may have missed in the past, this anthology contains some real gems, such as Coleman Power's Mary Got a Baby and Adina's Prayer by Four The Moment. A Family of Friends

This 1993 release may be the best sampler of women's music ever created! The title song, an anthem-to-be and a must-have for every woman's music lover, is one of the sweetest and most memorable tunes ever composed... as a collaboration, it expresses some of the highest spirit of our lesbian culture. Co-written by Sue Fink, Jamie Anderson, June Millington, Jane Emmert and Dakota, it is performed by (take a deep breath) songwriters Sue, Jamie, June and Jane, plus Margie Adam, Debbie McCalla, Cris Williamson, Tril Fure, Sharon Washington, Jean Millington, Susan Herrick, Robin Flower, Monica Grant, Helen Hooley, Mary Watkins, Barbara Borden, and others! Also included tracks by the following individual artists: Alia Dotson (with her previously unreleased My Kind of Girl), Pam Hall, Venus Envy, Teri Griffith performing Lez-Bop, OneSpirit (Kay Gardner and Nurudafina Pili Abena), Sue Fink, June and Jean Millington, Mimi Baczowska, Laura Berkman, Diane Lindsay, Leah Zoran, and Jamie Anderson. Women Like Us: Lesbian Favorites

This fall '97 lesbian compilation — one of the very few which have ever been issued, and probably the only in-print collection with the word "lesbian" in the title — is notable for lots of reasons. Firstly, it contains the often-and-outrageously-sought-after song by Two Nice Girls, I Spent My Last $10.00 On Burt Cortright and Beer, no longer must seekers go away disappointed and empty-handed! Secondly, it includes liner notes by Phranc and Gretchen Phillips (Two Nice Girls), tracing the history of lesbians in pop music from "wimmin's music" and punk of the 70's and 80's through today's alternative queercore stars. Last but not least is the great roster of long-cut and recently-out musicians! Ferron, Ani DiFranco, K.D. Lang, Kristen Hall, BETTY, disappear here, Jane Siberry, Dar Williams, Janis Ian, Jill Sobule, Fern Fenn, Tanya Tikanam, Wendy & Lisa (ex-Francis and the Lights), Sandra Bernhard, and of course Phranc, Gretchen Phillips Experience and Two Nice Girls... as you'll see, not many of the traditional "women's music labels" here, but an interesting mix of artist-owned, independent and major labels represented. A portion of the proceeds will be donated by the label, Rhino Records (an indie label with major-label distribution), to Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund. A must-have for women's music and lesbian music fans and collectors! (RH72915) CD: 16.98

BanjoRAMA

This revered and talented women's music old-timer is back! Her very long-awaited 2000 release is a collection of banjo instrumentalists recorded over a 22-year span, from 1977-1999, plus 3 brand-new bonus tracks for 2001! It includes favorites from her first 2 albums (Oregon Mountains and self-titled) as well as previously-unreleased compositions, with styles ranging from a meditative, east-indian influence, to a fully orchestrated and introspective feel, to a light bluegrass touch... Very eclectic, it deserves an uninterrupted listening session to experience the full depth of the music. (DHR1100) CD: 19.98

Wyrd Sisters

Sin & Other Salvations

As Ladyslipper Catalog editor for oh, about a quarter century, I'll mention that their 2001 release is the kind of album I live for — but then, I'm a devoted fan of this Canadian trio. If you are too, you'll find enough song-treasures on here to satisfy your craving for whatever it is that these women do to listeners like us. The breadth and depth of the emotional and spiritual territory traversed is, as usual, intensely conveyed in the poetry of their lyrics and the exquisiteness of their harmonies. Love, loss, and sin and redemption in relationships with god, ourselves and others — it's all here. (WYRA) CD: 15.98

Wyrd Sisters

Inside the Dreaming

The Ladyslipper Catalog editor says, "One of the most brilliant albums to be released in 1994." The name of this excellent Canadian trio is pronounced "wyrd", but they are not, although they are unusual, unique, original and provocative — rather, their name comes from the ancient Triple Goddess who represented the maiden, mother and crone. Like their harmonies, lyrically each song has layers of meaning which continue to reveal themselves during repeated listenings (inspirational without being syrupy), supported by arrangements that are varied, subtle and perfect. The title track is moody and evocative. One High Shaking is a bouncy, sensuous song of love lost. Dance, Little Brother is a well-crafted emotional plea for action against AIDS. Warrior is an acapella feminist anthem equal in impact to Ferron's Testimony, in fact, all 11 tracks are gems, no throw-aways here! Andy Stochansky (drummer for Ani DiFranco) is one of several talented guest performers featured; instrumentation is tight and all-around superb. This album is too hot to miss out on — to all fans of women's music, harmony, and substantive contemporary singer-songwriting, very highly recommended! (WYR2) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Wyrd Sisters

Raw Voice

You'll find another treasure-box of songs on this 1997 release — it's a worthy follow-up to their great Inside the Dreaming. The Canadian trio again combines their finely-honed craft of poetic songwriting with superb harmonies, eloquently expressing their personal blend of irony, bitterness, pain, humor and hope. Love the evocative, dreamy free-form bass from producer db Benediction. Kim's veritable baritone, the crisp, tasteful arrangements... the twists and turns their lyrics take. Includes The Night of Her Insistence, Same Old Story, Borrowed Time... recommended again! (WYR3) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Zoe Lewis

Sheep

Songs about sheep, old ladies and a good cup of tea... Auntie Gladys and Pies for the Public... this is some of what you'll find on this artist's 1996 release. As the Bay Area Reporter reported, her "writing style is clever and evocative, her subject matter as lively as her musical style." She shows a fondness for human quirkiness and is affectionate when poking fun of everybody, including herself. Features 14 original songs in all, with special appearances by Julie Wolf and her twin sister Kate! (DOG2) CD: 15.98

Zoe Lewis

Fishbone, Wishbone, Funnybone

Finally, for 2001 come 13 songs from underneath the skin! These are groovy, word-savvy originals that'll take you from Flow to the form of the ancient Pharaoh, a little samba, a little jazz, a little circus, and a lot of great songwriting. She's accompanied by her Rubber Band Sylvie Richard on percussion, Kate Wolf on bass, Roxanne Layton (Mammoth Steppin' on recorder, and many special guests. (DOGS) CD: 15.98

Zrazy

Permanent Happiness/ Come Out...

This female duo from Dublin, Ireland makes some mighty catchy, but and quite pop music! Maria Walsh (vocals, bodhran, flute, percussion) and Gerie Nelson (keyboards, sax, and tin whistle) first stormed the Irish charts with the eponymous tune I'm in Love with Mother Nature, and have since taken over Europe while performing at major gay/lesbian festivals. On this 1997 album (the Irish version is Permanent Happiness, the US one is entitled Come Out, Everybody), their songs range from the techno cyber-sex tune Make the Connection, to the queer liberation 1970's soul-bated Wave your hands in the air title track, to the simple piano on the unsettling "love song" Heaven Blessed, to the glorious stand-out so-sweet-it's-bad-for-your-teeth teenage reminiscence Suburban Girl. Just don't try to box these girls in. They deserve heavy rotation! Recommended! (PUR54288) CD: 15.98

Zrazy

Private Wars

With their 3rd release, this Dublin duo-turned-quintet returns to their first big love, jazz, despite a nod or two in a soul and funk direction, the album remains firmly committed to a mellow mood. Maria wraps her ravishing voice around Gerie's lyrics, always finding an intense emotion and depth with no concession to sentimentality, to accompaniment both soulful and restrained. Most of these original songs were recorded as first takes, capturing a freshness, spontaneity and a great band vibe. Sheer class! (ZR1000) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Ani DiFranco To the Teeth

This '99 release sends up yet another batch of Ani tunes into orbit, carried aloft by her trademark combo of political and personal insight, vocal fireworks, high-velocity fingerwork, and funk-fortified grooves. Spanning everything from what were originally intended as solo demos made at the Dust Bowl (her new home studio apparatus) to fully fleshed-out band recordings, it includes several songs first performed during her summer '99 "F-Word Tour," as well as a few "nocturnal experiments" not previously heard by anyone. On hand, The Artist Formerly Known as Prince, on vocals... the talented Julie Wolf on keyboards, accordion and vocals... and several others. As always, her songs ring with the urgency of newspaper headlines and the intimacy of journal entries. "The sun is setting on the century, and we are armed to the teeth." (RIG017) CS: 9.96 CD: 15.95

Ani DiFranco Up Up Up Up Up Up

Remember how you felt about your first Ani album? Get ready for her best one in years; she's come down a notch, and you'll often hear the phrase "returned to her roots" around our office. This '99 release finds Ani doing what she does best, taking stock of the worlds outside and inside herself. From story-songs like "Tis of Thee and Trickle Down," to deeply personal meditations like "Angry Anymore and Elsewhere," to "Hat Shaped Hat," a simple, surreal little ditty that has grown into a 13-minute jam, it's a joyous, mournful, funny, sober, sexy album rich with insight and emotional intensity. In addition to Ani's distinctively percussive acoustic guitar, you'll hear her wailing away on the occasional water cooler and "space phone" every now and then; accompanists also include drummer Andy Stochanaky, and the talented Julie Wolf on keyboards, accordion, and backing vocals. (RIG013) CS: 9.99 CD: 14.95

Ani DiFranco & Utah Phillips Fellow Workers

Utah knew only that he wanted to do a new album "about anarchy." Ani knew she wanted to try something a little different from their first cross-generational collaboration. This May 1999 release features these 2 musical commentators working side by side, along with Ani's band (including Julie Wolf) and a small, intimate audience. Utah talks and sings. Ani plays guitar, contributes background vocals and leads her band through a free-spirited session. The resulting collection of stories, songs, poetry, jokes, and spur-of-the-moment improvisation takes a fresh, intensely personal look at the long-hidden history of the American labor movement, celebrating activist-heroes like Mother Jones, and providing surprising new interpretations of such classic anthems as Bread and Roses. (RIG015) CS: 9.96 CD: 15.95

Ani DiFranco & Utah Phillips The Past Didn't Go Anywhere

Utah Phillips is a 61-year-old traveling storyteller, songwriter and political activist whose wry observations on life are subversively provocative and very funny. Ani has selected recordings from 20 years' worth of Utah's acoustic musings/performances and created unexpected but fitting musical settings for them. The result is, in Ani's words, "a spoken word, storytelling, rambling, sage-like, hip-hop, acoustic, dance-trance album," full of humor, emotion and insight. Utah's tales of real-life quirky characters are set amongst the sounds of funk, ambient, classical and rap music. Ani doesn't sing, but she's all over this 1996 release playing guitars, bass, harmonium organ, wurlitzer piano, thump bass, percussion, and drum samples (plus some wordless vocals as instrumentation or ambient sound stuff) and produced the whole darn thing. Very cool. (RIG009) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Beth Orton Central Reservation

The rhythm-infused, soulful folk of this young British artist has garnered her much critical acclaim lately; her debut album Trailer Park went gold in the UK, and she's performed at the 1998 Lilith Fair and the CMJ music festival in the US. This 1999 release, adventuresome yet accessible, features Beth's sweet voice and guitar on all original songs, with guest appearances from Ben Watt (of Everything But the Girl) and Dr. John; includes Stolen Car and Sweetest Decline. (ARI9038) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Betty Betty3

The spine-tingling harmonies, hip-shaking rock, and razor-sharp wit on her '99 release shows why this female trio of NYC singer-songwriters has won numerous awards and captured a slavishly devoted international following. Best known for their wild stage shows, they have infused that energy into these 13 songs which explore the bewitching topics of love, sex, and sins of passion. Blistering performances from outstanding accompanists combine with the warmth and emotion of their interwoven voices. Kathy Najimy has claimed this album "will make my favorite band a household name... like Jell-O or Trojans." Their unusual take on 21st-Century Life and mesmerizing music are a powerful combo! Bitch and Animal What's That Smell?

Find out for yourself what all the buzz is about surrounding Bitch and Animal. Maybe you heard of them because they opened for Ani DiFranco, or maybe someone you know saw them at a festival — regardless, they stick in the memory of anyone who has seen them perform. These 2 sport 10 instruments between them — Bitch plays the electric violin while Animal breaks loose on an assortment of drums and sometimes even a ukulele. The result is a wild and unique sound, undoubtedly unlike anything you've ever heard. These women are smart and hilarious, from the foot stomping hoedown Drag King Bar, to their unfortunate Manifesto (check out the hidden track). (DDP1) CD: 16.95

Bitch and Animal Eternally Hard

This NYC duo dishes out a sexually-charged mix of socially conscious and politically daring performance art — laced with biting wit and a provocative twist — on this 2001 debut on Righteous Babe (Ani's label). Or as they describe it, "tribal chick hoedown funk-poetry with a political wedge and bass line edge."

Between them they play 10 instruments, from violin and African drums to tap shoes, nails and ukuleles. Their words are smart and multi-layered... as political as punk, and more personal than your roll-on. Ani lends vocal harmonies and electric guitar to the grrrrs! recipe for a robust gumbo of mayhem. Bjork

Selmasongs: Dancer in the Dark OST

Who better to score the 2000 soundtrack to Dancer in the Dark than the film's award-winning star, Bjork? (She won best actress for this role at Cannes.) The title is appropriate because these are songs that give the listener and the viewer of the film deeper insight into the world and the mind of Bjork's character Selma, a single mother slowly losing her eyesight, who fantasizes about being in musicals — the music on this album is the music she's singing to, in her imagination. These are more orchestrated and lush soundscapes than the pop song structures that have shaped her music in the past; her reckless off-kilter style has been expanded upon by the sweeping arrangements of Vince Mendoza. Includes the single I've Seen It All. (EL62533) CD: 18.95

Bjork Vespertine

This highly-anticipated 2001 release, after being postponed and renamed a few times, is finally here! Following her star-making turn in the film Dancer in the Dark, which garnered her an Oscar nomination as well as the best actress award at Cannes, it finds this creative artist from Reykjavik, Iceland delving deeper than ever before into her haunting and exhilarating sound and vision. Includes Pagan Poetry, Aurora, Cocoon, and Hidden Place. (EL62553) CD: 18.95

Bratmobile Ladies, Women and Girls

We revelled in the music by this threesome almost a decade ago, when we listed their debut Pettymouth — but hadn't heard anything from them in a while, after they disbanded in 1994. Lucky for their audience, they regrouped in 1998 and have been going strong ever since. Still full of wit and wisdom, humor and politics, they've beefed up their rudimentary punk sound with bigger guitars and fisker drums. Lacing bubble gum with badery acid, they take their place alongside bands like Sleater-Kinney and Le Tigre on the front line of rebel-girl rock. (LKT252) CD: 15.95

The Butchies 3

The million dollar question: Who gave birth to The Butchies? Though I have yet to be awarded my million dollars, I'm fairly certain it was Joan Jett and Bruce Springsteen. Maybe it's The Butchies' seemingly effortless ability to make hand claps and "La La La's" sound so darn rock 'n' roll, or maybe it's that lying-on-my-bed-thinking-of-you-I-would-call-but-I'm-grounded kind of beautiful angstiness that only the best albums can evoke without simultaneously making the listener feel nervous and humorously out-of-control. In any case, this 2001 album is The Butchies' 3rd, and hands down their best. Flawless production (those hand claps sound so-o-o good!), well-crafted song structure and those ever-inspiring lyrics. Three's a charm! (MRL16) CD: 14.95

The Butchies Are We Not Femme?

It's time for one and all to meet The Butchies, the new band fronted by Kasia Wilson (ex-Team Dresch) with Melissa York and Alison Marlow. After Kasia's previous two acoustic-based solo albums you can consider this one "Kasia Plugged In." Again! She kicks up the volume of her guitar, while Melissa attacks the drums like nobody's business, and Alison turns up the funk on her bass to give this 1998 release quite the after-napunk flavor. Features an incredible cover of Cris Williamson's Shooting Star and an all too-danceable disco tune. Highly recommended, and we're not just saying that because Kasia works here! (MRL02) CD: 14.95

The Butchies Population 1975

The title track on this 1999 release forms the heart of why The Butchies do what they do — play brilliant music and be outspoken politically. The concept, artistically, musically and lyrically, is a firm dedication and commitment to the queer movement and particularly to queer youth. With its share of anthems, ballads, dance and punk rock, it shows how Kasia, Melissa and Alison have progressed in their cohesiveness, continuing to defy boundaries and definitions. Whether or not you have seen them live, opening for the Indigos or at a festival, get with it — get it! (MRL05) CD: 14.95

Cat Power The Covers Record

A friend once stated that when she hears an unfamiliar song, but can name the band immediately, they must be doing something right. Such is the power of chanteuse Chan Marshall, a.k.a. Cat Power. Her unique style hailed as a paragon of modern songwriting, Chan deconstructs these covers until they are nearly unrecognizable as anything but Cat Power originals: beautiful, melancholy melodies that are sure to tug at your heart. Covering everything from Nina Simone's Wild is the Wind to the Stones' (I Can't Get No) Satisfaction, this 2000 album will surely find a special place in your music collection. (OE425) CD: 15.95

Cowboy Junkies Best of Cowboy Junkies

The word "languid" was probably invented to describe the voice of Margo Timmins, lead singer of this mostly-Timminses musical enterprise. Smoky, moody bluesy, evocative... and her distinguishing voice is probably responsible for the enormous cult following they've developed. This 2001 retrospective contains tracks from 4 of their albums: The Trinity Sessions, The Caution Horses, Black Eyed Man, and Pale Sun, Crescent Moon; over 70 minutes of their heady, honey-drippin' sound. Includes their great cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane; the loneliest version of I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry ever recorded; Cowboy Junkies Lament and 13 more. (RCAS8052) CD: 17.95

Dido No Angel

The sweet and sultry voice of Dido (pronounced dye-dough), who some of you have heard at Lilith Fair or on the first Lilith Fair sampler album, is as unique as her name. Her 1999 release is like the perfect dish — flavorful, colorful and deliciously filling. Appetizing tracks such as Here With Me, Thankyou and I'm No Angel almost had me feeling guilty for finishing the decadent album. This menu leaves little room for dessert, bon appetit! (ARI9025) CS: 11.95 CD: 17.95

Erin McKeown Distillation

How do you dance and think at once? With her 2000 studio album, Erin answers the question with the jousissance of a femme confident and a guitar style somewhere between Django and G. Love. Those in search of innovative songwriting, spectacular guitar playing and singing, plus a shoutout or 2, will find it here. Produced by Dave Chaffant (the Nields), it features live favorites like Petit Mort (Oh Estelle!) and Blackbirds. Get in on this now, so you can say you knew her when. (SSR1282) CD: 16.95

Erin McKeownMonday Morning Cold0838

One listen to this incredible performer will have you wondering why there aren't more people out there doing what she is... the reason is that no one else can. On this 1998 release, this young artist deftly demonstrates that age doesn't matter when it comes to being a well-seasoned musician. Erin's rapidly making a name for herself, redefining contemporary folk music her way, which she describes as "original folk funk blues jazz fusion." Tackling complex subjects, her powerful songs are punctuated by her top-notch guitar playing. To experience her music is to be invited to get beneath her surface and find your own description. Highly recommended! (TVP2504) CD: 15.98

Fiona AppleWhen the Pawn...

If you're like me, Fiona Apple's 1997 debut was a bit of a guffy pleasure, as her slick, Top 40 image belied the actual depth and quality of her music. Well, the guff is gone! Fiona proves herself beyond a doubt on this widely critically acclaimed follow-up, boasting production by the incomparable Jon Brion, and a host of grown-up, intelligent, soul-baring songs. This 1999 release is unique and surprisingly cohesive, with an underlying dissonance throughout the wide range sounds - from bare piano to strings, woodwinds, and a carnival-style wurlitzer. Breaking free from her previous album's over-smooth production, her voice emerges with resonance and unrestrained emotion. Now that she seems to have taken control of her own image and career, Fiona is developing into a seriously excellent artist. (EPC69195) CD: 17.98

The GossipThat's Not What I Heard

I wish The Gossip had played at my high school prom! For if they had, I would've actually found a reason to attend it - so bear witness to the coolest, most punk rock food fight that most certainly would have ensued! This country punk trio will surely add weight to your list, passion to your stars, and shake to your booty with their catchy, infectious riffs, songs like Jailbreak, Callgirl, and Where the Girls Are would be best appreciated as the soundtrack to that movie you made in your head - remember it? The one where you're the leader of the baddest all-girl gang in town... (KRS368) CD: 15.98

Joules GravesA Sacred Trantum0917

This 2000 release is Joules' most intimate, feminist and woman-centered to date... sparse like Waterfall yet with a higher sonic quality like Plunge! Folks have commented, "It sounds like you're right here with me in my living room, singing just to me." The last few songs were recorded at live shows, although they sound radically different from the studio tracks, they're included for the excitement and for the beauty of many voices singing as one. Contains Applephobia, Magdalena, Cup of Fire, Spirit Plea, Let It Rip!, Banish the Shame, Alone and All One. (JG1018) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joules GravesPlunge!0665

Once you hear this 1997 release, you'll immediately understand why Joules has been causing such a stir along the west coast. Vocally and musically she can best be described as a combination of Toni Childs, Joni Mitchell, and Ani DiFranco, with songs ranging from the personal to the political. I Like You delves into the love between two women. Teaching My Heart focuses on "learning how to love and be loved." Anger delves into rape and the victimization of women and children, and Outta Control explores the estrangement felt within social constructs. If the lyrics don't hook you in, then her excellent guitar and drum work should be more than convincing (she's joined by producer Bruce Harvie on mandolin, dobro, tablas, acoustic, electric & slide guitars, bass, drums and percussion). Highly recommended! (JG1112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joules GravesWaterfall Child

"We have received many requests for this 1995 live by Joules, which up until now, was only available at her concerts and festivals. Finally, in '98, we can offer it to all you patient folks who weren't so lucky as to attend one of 17 wonderful tracks, such as Grandmother's Back, Brown Skin Woman, Seamstress of Visions, Drive Me Wild, Cannot Justify War. Coming of Age poetically reflect her connection with the earth, her dedication to women and non-violence and love, her sensuality and passion. The women and men of the Pagan Tabernacle Choir accompany on 3 songs. If you love Plunge!, don't miss this earlier recording by this young singer-songwriter. (JG0002) CD: 15.98

Kaia (of the Butchies)

You know Kaia if you know the Butchies - but her musical history goes way back to Team Dreech. Here, Kaia's first solo 1995 creation (post-Team Dreech) is acoustic, but never folksy, and is full of those minor chord, melancholic love songs that make you feel like any other time you've suffered through was better than how you are feeling now. Kaia's voice has such a sweet, longing ache that you will immediately be reminded of that one lost love you will never quite get over. Perfect for those lonely nights when you just want to wail, and a must for every Butchie fan! (CHN14) CD: 15.98

Laurie Anderson*Life On A String

The intensity of this 2001 release is heightened by its spare sound: it draws on the emotive power of strings (she plays violin for the first time since her debut Big Science) and the rich variety of rhythmic beds. One of the most successful artists to straddle the line between avant-garde performance art, multimedia and popular music, Laurie describes her lyrical approach here as follows: "I tried to be simple. Just to say what I saw. It is dark. But I tried about that, because there are plenty of cheerful songs around." With guest appearances by Dr. John and Lou Reed. (NON79539) CD: 18.98

Laurie AndersonTalk Normal: Anthology (2-CD Set)

Subtitled The Laurie Anderson Anthology, this ambitious 2000 double album is the only collection to cover this varied musical, literary, visual and performing artist's entire career to date. It showcases 35 tracks from singles and albums released from 1982-1995. Includes her first big hit O Superman (the complete 8-minute extract from her 7-hour United States project), Sherkey's Day, Language Is a Virus, Walk the Dog, as well as spoken selections from all of her performance pieces. It's a great way to catch up with and celebrate her fascinating career. (RH76648) CD: 29.98

Le TigreFeminist Sweepstakes

Their 2001 release delivers the rollicking jams, sampler-punk and political dance-trax you've come to expect from this trio, while upping the ante for electro-conceptual, feminist pop music everywhere. Influenced by basement recordings as well as Top 40 electronic production, sub-bass and breakbeats figure prominently in the loud, live-show oriented songwriting. Kathleen Hanna, Johanna Fateman, and new band member J.O. Salomon each have solo vocal moments. Even when their songs veer into introspection or absurdity, politically complicated, feminist perspectives inform their lyrical approach to their subject matter. (MRL19) CD: 15.98

Le TigreFrom The Desk Of... Mr. Lady

"First, I tested this EP on my roommate while she was doing dishes. Then, I secretly slipped it in to the mix at a party. And just to be sure, I accidentally left it playing over the intercom at work. Now I would like to announce that the results are in, and this 2001 release has secured its place as 'EP Most Like To Start A Dance Party.' Anywhere." Le Tigre could not have given us a better follow-up to their debut, with the same bleeps, bips and bangs coupled with their great political message, but this time with a bit more sass, and a lot more ambition! If it makes this reviewer dance, I'm nearly certain it'll make you dance - consider it the first-ever feminist work-out record. What could be better? (MRL14) CD: 10.98

Le Tigre

This band features Kathleen Hanna (formerly of Bikini Kill, Julie Ruin, The Fakes and Suture), Sadie Benning (renowned videomaker), and Johanna Fateman (writer behind the zines Artaud-Manual and My Need to Speak on the Subject of Jackson Pollock). Using samples, guitar, voices, claves, bells, and a live DJ to make their music, their 1999 release touches on conceptual garage, digital arithmetic, political sadness and unfinished soundtracks. Catchy or danceable moments are complicated by repetition in which flaws become apparent and/or political content challenges "the groove." (MRLD7) CD: 14.98

Oriflamme

Listening to this CD is like a grandmother looking into her granddaughter's eyes, and seeing bits and pieces from every generation thus far, manifesting itself in something fresh and full of life. Following in the steps of greats Sleater-Kinney and Team Dresch, this 2000 self-released album is raw, inspiring and energizing - all the proof you need that the underground girl revolution is alive and well! If you liked their track on the 2001 Mr. Lady comp Calling All Kings and Queens, you'll fall in love with this album! (GRF001) CD: 9.98

PJ HarveyStories From The City... the Sea0945

For this 2000 release, Polly Jean Harvey returns to the energetic style of her earlier recordings. Much of the album was written in, and influenced by, her 5-month stay in NY during 1999, which may account for its grimey feel. This is the sound that initially garnered PJ a loyal following, beginning with the release of the independent single Dress. With the release of Dry, critics began to take notice of PJ's raw, raw, raw style and emotive, often angry lyrics. This album promises to be a favorite for critics and fans alike, as it blends the harshness of Dry with the more toned-down sound of Is This Desire. Not to be missed! (ISL546144) CD: 17.98

Rachael SagePainting of a Painting0827

This is the kind of album that some of us here at Ladyslipper live for. It's the next wave of creative women's music! Her engaging lyrics are pure poetry, grounded in strength, spirituality and awareness, and her artwork is all over the place. She opens with a very erotic love song, "my lover's sweet as sugar because she's made of it." I look to her for comfort we melt like chocolate swallow dust, chew the answers to the questions in my mouth. Then with wisdom beyond her 27-or-so years, her next track continues, "I am old and I do not know the ways of you young women with your black clothes and your blue nails and your sarcasm! what do I have to say to you? to gain your slow respect? I am old, you've forgotten me! but I'm useful yet." We absolutely recommend her 2001 release! (MP5454) CD: 12.98

Sara LeeMake It Beautiful

We've experienced the talent of this bassist for decades now, she has been a presence on many releases from the Atlanta area. More recently, she has toured with artists like Indigo Girls, Ani DiFranco, B-52's, Joan Osborne, Fiona Apple and more. An album in which she's center-stage is more than overdue, and we welcome this 2000 release on Ani's Righteous Babe label with open arms! It's a joyous celebration of the groove: 10 tracks of pop-funk pleasure, in which her dance-driven melodies and vocals (plus bass, guitar and keyboards) are partnered with thoughtful lyrics by 5 women songwriters, including Ani, Indigo Girls, Emily Saliers, and Kristin Hall. Sara and the players, including Ani on backing guitar and vocals, BETTY on backing vocals, and Ani Klein on guitar, have made it beautiful. (RIG021) CD: 15.98

Sarah HarnerYou Were Here

With a voice that can be sparse and serene and at moments desperately mournful, Sarah incorporates a rich texture of roots, pop and folk sensibilities into her music. Having previously led the Canadian rock band Weeping Ties, she presents her solo debut, a moving collection of 12 songs ranging from the ethereal to the forthright, yet all featuring her impressive melodic and lyrical gifts. She has opened for artists such as Indigo Girls, and this release is sure to bring the charms of this talented Canadian artist to an appreciative American audience. (ZOE1017) CD: 10.98

Sarah McLachlanFumbling Towards Ecstasy

This 1994 release from a ruby-throated artist is pure sensation. Introspective lyrics weave through the blissfully restrained production - a subtle mix of guitar, bass, drums and keyboard topped off by Sarah's layered vocals. The title track along with Good Enough and Circles shimmer with soulful intensity and strength. Ice Cream serves up a tasty comparison of love to chocolate as well as to our favorite frozen treat. (mmml). Sarah skillfully rounds out the triumvirate she shares with Kate Bush and Toni Amos. Includes an unlimited bonus track, extremely recommended. (ARI8725) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlanMirrorball

This 1999 release of live performances, with songs which span her entire career to date, includes I Will Remember You, Ice Cream, Sweet Surrender, Building a Mystery, Fumbling Towards Ecstasy. (ARI9049) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Sarah McLachlanRarities, B-Sides & Other Stuff

This 1999 Canadian import quite possibly features some of Sarah's best performances. It includes some very rare covers, such as a powerful version of XTC's Dear God and a haunting remake of Joni Mitchell's Blue (which you might swear is really Joni singing). Also features remixed versions of some of her own material, including Fear, Drawn To The Rhythm, Shelter, Vox, Into The Fire, and Possession, and, as an extra-special treat, I Will Remember You, which was only available previously on a maxi-single or the Brothers McMullen soundtrack. Highly recommended! (NUS30105) CD: 21.98

Sarah McLachlanSurfacing

In 1997, Sarah took the wonderful Lillith Fair Festival on the road, touring 40 US cities with an amazing roster of female artists. She also released her fifth album, containing 10 extraordinary new songs: powerful, sensual, literate and quite remarkable. Sarah never fails in what she does, continuing to give audiences what they expect, while remaining original. Ada, Witness and Fall of Grace are three of the most hauntingly beautiful songs I have heard in a long time. This is also an Enhanced CD, so those of you with CD-ROMs get an extra treat, while the CD can still be played in a regular CD player. (ARI8970) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Sleater-KinneyAll Hands On The Bad One

On their 2000 release, this band moves away from the introduction of their previous release The Hot Rock and returns to "the rock" with a subtle, playful attitude that reveals just how much fun they've been having. Corin Tucker and Carrie Brownstein continue as usual with their vocal interplay, but the new development is that drummer Janet Weiss on vocals means radical 3-part harmonies and even more interesting intertwining melodies: their most positive, upbeat, fun, casual, confident, and accessible work to date. (KRS360) CD: 13.98

Tami Hart No Light in August

We're privileged to announce the debut album from our local musical prodigy, who has successfully made a name for herself with her catchy, raw and powerful style. The 2000 release features back-up vocals by Indigo Girls Amy Ray, as well as special appearances by members of The Butchies and Ruben — 2 bands near and dear to Ladyslipper. An eclectic assortment of poppy ballads, emotional harmonies and poppy rhythmic flutters her sweet, soulful voice, guaranteed to leave your eardrums right up to the last track. (MRL11) CD: 14.98

Tori Amos Strange Little Girls

This 2001 studio album is an assemblage of songs written by men — but performed by Tori from the perspectives of a diverse cast of female characters. She wanted to explore how men see women and how they see themselves. "I've always found it fascinating how men say things and women hear them." Songs composed by artists like Neil Young, Lennon/McCartney, and Lou Reed are taken apart and put back together darkly, gently, and in an uncompromising fashion. (ATL83486) CD: 16.98

Transisters

Goddesses of the "Pink Rock" (multi-gendered rock 'n' roll) movement, this NYC-based band features lead singer/lyricist Chloe (a male-to-female transsexual), bassist/guitarist Cyda Gosh, drummer Tracy Amazeen, and guitarist Kathy Rey (from one of the first all-female punk bands, The Bloods). With a sound reminiscent of late '70s/early '80s classic punk, they tackle subjects such as incest (Caroline Vagina) and the politics of gender and sexuality (Transsexual Boy/Girl). In your face, this 1995 7-song EP CD cuts close to the edge. Back in stock, limited quantity. (TRH100) CD: 8.98

Various Artists Calling All Kings and Queens

The school bell rings, but not before your music teacher hands out this evening's homework assignment, which is to write a song that includes one of the following phrases: 1) Take me to your robot dancer, 2) God, this sure is pretty, 3) Don't blame me, I voted for Vaginal Cream Davis or 4) Shake that ass. Cash down already, it was just a bad dream for you, but a real assignment for the musicians on this special 2001 comp (imagine the possibilities!). Oh, how the Mr. Ladies of Mr. Lady Records have been working hard to put together a cornucopia of new material from faves Le Tigre, Sleater-Kinney, Amy Ray and The Butchies, plus tracks from newcomers The Sistas, Mrs. Vaginal Davis, Oriflamme and so many more. Calling All... is a pink feather bow or new pair of platform shoes guaranteed to add a flare to your musical wardrobe! (MRL15) CD: 14.98

Various Artists Powerpuff Girls: Heroes & Villains

There just aren't enough cartoons where little girls are superheroes, so we rushed to add to our catalog this 2000 soundtrack to the Cartoon Network's coolest new program. Kids will love listening to the music their favorite superheroes fight to, but you don't have to be a kid to appreciate the Powerpuff Girls — just a kid at heart with a sense of justice. Interspersed with dialogue from the cartoon, this high-energy music from artists like Shonen Knife and Devo will inspire you to get out and fight the evils of the world! Oh, and stop by Pokey Oaks Kindergarten and pick up Blossom, Bubbles, and Buttercup on your way. (RH78848) CD: 15.98

Various Artists She: A Female Trip-Hop Experience

So, if you've always wondered what exactly trip-hop is, now is your chance to expand your musical horizons with this dreamy, sit-back-and-chill, and very sexy 2001 compilation. Fans of Portishead, come one, come all! You will not be disappointed. With artists like Julee Cruise with Hybrid, Bronagh Slevin with Crucifixion, Nicola Hitchcock with Mandala, and many more, this is electronics at its finest. Beautiful and haunting, relaxing and disarming, sometimes danceable, but always beat-driven, these women are quite possibly forging the path for the future of music. Very highly recommended! (SRM8930) CD: 15.98

Various Artists The New Women's Music Sampler

Welcome to the class of 1999! This compilation, featuring tracks by The Butchies, Tribe 8, Donna Robins, Ruben, Kase and others spans many different styles, incredible punk and classic rock, metal meets mod, sad and wistful, straight-up sweet, and a little garage punk. Liner notes by Tammy Rae Carland (vice president of the record label Mr. Lady) speak about feminism in the late '90s. Every song is unique and excellent. It's not the kind of comp where there's 20 songs and you have to skip through half of them. It's rather short and sweet, recommended for road trip tapes! (MRL05) CD: 14.98

Rock * Pop

Aimee Mann Bachelor No. 2

Aimee Mann could be the posterchild for major label disaster — she recorded her latest release just in time to get dropped by her "megabel" for lack of commercial viability. Fortunately, she was able to buy the masters back, and released this exceptional and critically-acclaimed 2000 solo album on her own independent label. The result is possibly her best to date, with her trademark wit and wisdom supplying 13 excellently produced pop-infused tracks. She writes about conflict and heartache with clever and emotive insight, and her voice conveys a beauty and richness that comes only with experience. Throw in some terrific musicians and co-writers (Michael Penn, Jon Brion, Elvis Costello), and you have the definitive Aimee Mann album — written, produced, and released on her own terms. Includes 4 tracks from the Magnolia soundtrack. Recommended! (SE002) CD: 17.98

Aimee Mann Ultimate Collection

So you've worn out your copy of the Magnolia soundtrack, what next? Here we have the perfect Aimee Mann collection — whether you're a brand new fan, or a die-hard who just can't get enough. Including tracks from her Til Tuesday days, her first 2 solo albums, plus some hard-to-find songs from collections and soundtracks, this 2000 retrospective beautifully covers all facets of this excellent artist's career. Includes Voces Carry, That's Just What You Are, Wise Up (from Magnolia and Jerry Maguire), and 17 more. (HIP24756) CD: 17.98

Amy Ray Stag

Talk about about an artist who really walks (and rocks) her talk! On her highly-anticipated, well-worth-the-wait 2001 album, she takes her politics all the way to the limits, challenging sexism and misogyny as she goes. "The songs on Stag deal frankly with my confrontations with the oppressive elements of the music industry, my frustrations with imposed standards of gender all around us, and the shortcomings I see in myself." The heart of the record is in that rebellion and in a certain spirit of recovery I have found in the South, and in that southern punk ethic — subversiveness with a smile. Includes Hey Castrator featuring Joan Jeff, Kate Stollenbach (Luscious Jackson) and Josephine Wiggs (Dusty Trails). Lycrystoners was recorded here in Durham NC with The Butchies, and 2 tracks with both The Butchies and backing vocals by Danielle Howe. Recommended! (DAE19030) CD: 14.98

Anastacia Not That Kind

Anastacia is already a pop sensation in Europe, and the buzz is just starting here in the States. Her music first infiltrated clubs in the US and tracks from this 2001 release proceeded to top 40 radio, MTV, and VH1. Not to make comparisons or anything, but her voice often resembles that of Tina Turner, and if you are into the up-and-coming rock artist Kina, definitely check this album out. Around here, Anastacia's voice has elicited exclamations of "Who IS that?" because she has that beautiful, forceful sound that can't be ignored. Listen for yourself — she's headed for stardom. (EPC88948) CD: 17.98

Bette Midler Bette

Some are saying that this 2000 release will mark Bette's ascent back into the realm of divadom — we know she never left. It's definitely a return to that ultrasexy and commanding Divine Miss M who first astonished the globe in the early '70s with her singular talent, style and personality. Includes the soul classic Just My Imagination (Running Away With Me), and the upbeat, danceable Bless You Child. This album is sure to follow in the footsteps of her previous albums that have gone multiplatinum. (WB47843) CD: 18.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly-recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Women Be Wise, an previously unreleased duet with Sippie Wallace; No Way To Treat a Lady, one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louise, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery, 19 in all, culled from her 4 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract! (WB26242) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

Carole King Her Greatest Hits/Songs of Long Ago

When I was 12, my 4-H camp played I Feel the Earth Move over the loudspeaker every day. (I guess the counselors were tired of Kumbaya.) Two weeks later, I went right home and bought Tapestry, my first-ever record purchase. Apparently so did everyone else in America, as the album won 4 Grammys and has gone Platinum 10 times. Five Tapestry classics, including I'm Too Late and a live Carnegie Hall version of You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, grace this 1989 collection. Add to them 9 other songs such as Nightingale, Been to Canaan, and Only Love is Real, and you have plenty of reasons to make this selection your next music purchase. (EPC85846) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Carole King Love Makes the World

With the best-selling female solo album for over 25 years (Tapestry, of course), this artist broke ground for many female singer-songwriters to follow. Her first studio album in 8 years, this 2001 release features performances by several good friends — including K.d. lang (on Uncommon Love), plus Celine Dion and Wynton Marsalis. Written in collaboration with writers like Carole Bayer Sager, it's a lustrous collection of touching, personal songs. (KOC8346) CD: 16.98

Carole King Tapestry

This 1971 classic, one of the best selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes (You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cher The Way of Love (2-CD Set)

This 2000 double CD covers the highlights of Cher's musical career from 1965-1979, including the Sonny & Cher hits All I Ever Need is You, A Cowboy's Work is Never Done, When You Say Love, and live versions of The Beat Goes On and I Got You Babe. From her beginnings as a hippie/wallflower child to her reinvention as a sexy lounge singer, to disco diva, to 80's rocker, and back to dance floor diva, Cher has traveled the musical spectrum. This is the most comprehensive collection of her early work, mastered from the original tapes and including photos and liner notes. (MCA560209) CD: 29.98

Cyndi Lauper She's So Unusual (Expanded Edition)

If you missed it the first time, here's your chance to experience one of the most fun albums of the 80's. Her original 1983 solo debut produced 4 Top Five singles — a first from a female solo debut album. She has gone on to prove that she was more than just a flash in the pan — she has always had real talent to back up her colorful, funky image. In this expanded edition of that 1983 release, you'll get all your favorites plus 3 previously unreleased live versions of Money Changes Everything, She Bop, and All Through The Night. Recommended! (EPC62169) CD: 15.98

Diana Ross All The Great Hits

After Diana left The Supremes in 1970, she launched a solo career that would take her fame to new heights. From ballads to disco, she quickly adapted to whatever was hot, whatever her fans wanted. Her hook-laden songs drove fans to the record stores by the millions, to make her one of music's greatest divas. This 2000 collection contains 16 of her greatest solo hits remastered, including the anthem of the lesbian/gay liberation movement I'm Coming Out, the disco hit Upside Down, the inspiring Ain't No Mountain High Enough, and more! (MOT159538) CD: 17.98

Diana Ross Why Do Fools Fall in Love

When the lead singer of The Supremes went solo, she produced this platinum album featuring the title track, an old Frankie Lynton doo-wop standard, plus other great songs like Endless Love, Mirror, Mirror, and Work That Body. (BMG44544) CD: 6.98

The Donnas Turn 21

As all-girl garage rock bands go, it really doesn't get any better than The Donnas. These newly-legal women sensuously rock out on their 2001 release, driven by Donna C.'s noisy drums. Donna R.'s great riffs, and Donna F.'s powerful basslines. Heading it all up is Donna A., singing about sex, drugs, video games and getting ditched at the mini-mart, like it's all the greatest fun in the world. Just listening to this record could be the greatest fun you've ever had, depending on how loud you turn it up. Includes 40 Boys In 40 Nights, Do You Wanna Hit It, and a cover of Living After Midnight as only The Donnas can do. (LKT255) CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield The Very Best of...

Heart throb! With hits like Wishin' and Hopin', I Only Want to Be With You, and You Don't Have to Say You Love Me, who needs those scratched up old 45's (that you can't even find a turntable for) anymore? Only why did they wait until 1998 to retrieve these from the vault?? It's about time — 20 tracks in all! (MER558200) CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield Dusty in Memphis

The world sadly lost this great songstress to breast cancer in 1999, ironically the same year of her induction into the Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Fame. We learned of her death just days after we added this album to our listings. Not only does this 1999 release reissue the famous original album by the same name, which Rolling Stone Album Guide deemed her finest effort and which includes her Top 10 hit Son of a Preacher Man, it also features 11 previously unreleased tracks — including rare singles and a complete album recorded in the US but never released. With its carefully remastered sound and special booklet, this deluxe edition is a chance to remember a great artist while discovering a classic all over again — and much more. (RH75580) CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield/ Various Artists Forever Dusty

This loving and humble 2000 tribute subtitled Homage to An Icon (which has been in the works since before Dusty's death from breast cancer but was not complete until after she died) contains 17 performances of Dusty classics, by artists such as Indigo Girls, Laura Love Band, The Butchies, SONIA, Michelle Malone, her mom Karyn Palmer Malone, Crazy, Jill Sobule, Jennifer Kimball, Mrs. Fun, Sara Lee (bass player with Indigo Girls), Ani DiFranco and countless others finally gets to shine front and center), Vicki Randle, Lord Douglas Phillips (with Gretchen Phillips) and other innovative women artists from the cutting edge of contemporary popular music. Your favorite Dusty songs are here, in fabulous new renditions which must be heard. A portion of proceeds will benefit breast cancer support organizations. (RND0101) CD: 16.98

Dusty Trails

Former Breeders member Josiephine Wiggs and former Luscious Jackson member, Vivian Trumble, team up for this self-produced debut 2000 release. Both artists demonstrate ample skills as songwriters, producers and musicians, playing everything from mellotron, to bongos to stand-up bass. The music sets a mellow mood with its smooth melodies and subdued grooves while the complex instrumentation and unique arrangements keep it from falling into the background. The track Order Coffee, sung by Emmylou Harris and expressly written for her, stands out as the album's strongest, excellently produced in a spare, simple style that allows Harris' voice to convey all the pain that is unrequited love without sounding like a cliché. Other highlights include Roll the Dice featuring Jill Cumruff (of Luscious Jackson) and They May Call Me a Dreamer, an ethereal song that captures the essence of the contented daydreamer. This is great hanging out music — if you like to kick back and relax, this album probably belongs in your collection. (ATL83311) CD: 17.98

Ellen McIlwaine

Up From the Skies: Polydor Years

Up older gals at Ladyslipper are pretty thrilled about the 1998 re-release of Ellen's first 2 albums on 1 single-priced disc: Hanky Tonk Angel (1972) and We the People (1973). This red-headed white woman was a 'uniquely fearless talent in control of a vast array of tonal washes and rhythmic complexities from gospel to rock to R&B.' During a decade when powerful female musicians were few and far between, brilliant slide guitarist, fireball vocalist with unbelievable range, great scolding, fine songwriting... it's all here. Her amazing, shamanic rendition of the spiritual Wade in the Water is alone worth the price, but other classics like Everybody Wants to Go to Heaven (but Nobody Wants to Die), Losing You and the title songs are great too. It even includes a previously unreleased track, highly recommended. (CRN557574) CD: 16.95

The Go-Go's

God Bless the Go-Go's

They're back — all the original 6 members gathered together to create their first album in 16 years! This band originally exploded into the consciousness of the post-punk landscape with a foolproof combination of energy, talent, persona and fun. This 2001 release delivers more of their trademark mixture of top-notch songs, undiminished energy and unself-conscious fun... including their single, Unforgiven. (BEY78182) CD: 17.98

Grace Slick

The Best of Grace Slick

This 2000 bargain-priced collection includes tracks from the memorable vocalist's 30+ year career — solo works as well as hits from her San Francisco-based band in its many incarnations: Jefferson Airplane, Jefferson Starship and Starship. Includes Somebody to Love, White Rabbit, Relay, We Built This City, Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now, and 5 more. (BMG45742) CD: 8.99

Indigo Girls

Cold Beer & Remote Control

This 2000 CD single contains 2 interview segments in addition to 3 music tracks: title plus Shame On You and Peace Tonight. (EPC79470) CD: 8.98

Indigo Girls

Come On Now Social

Their 1999 release finds them working with a great group of guest musicians, including Joan Osborne, Sheryl Crow, Me Shell Nodger Ocello, Luscious Jackson drummer Kate Schellenbach, and Natasha Allas, as well as a whole new band. Songs include Fay Tucker, about the first woman executed by the state of Texas since the Civil War, Go, We Are Together, Peace Tonight, and Sister. (CPC69914) CD: 17.98

Indigo Girls Retrospective

This 2000 release "Best of" edition contains 18 top tracks from previous releases, including Power of Two, Strange Fire, Closer to Fine, Watershed, Gallies, Kid Fears, Get Out the Map and more. (EPC61602) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Jane Olivor In Concert

Many customers have put in requests for this vocalist, and we see why: gorgeous, expressive voice, excellent selection of songs. This 1992 release contains Pretty Girl, Annie's Song, and more. (COL37938) CD: 13.95

Jane Olivor

Love Decides

Jane has been bringing down packed houses for over 2 decades with her interpretation of classic love songs, ballads, and emotion-filled melodies. A true song stylist, she has a unique way of imbuing lyrics with her amazing emotional power. This 2000 release, produced by Steve Addabbo (Shawn Colvin, Suzanne Vega) combines traditional acoustic instruments with subtle electronic effects to create a sound that is at once modern and classic. From heartfelt ballads to lively tracks, the album offers listeners an emotional ride through the heart of an impassioned artist. (V566198) CD: 17.98

Janet Jackson All For You

Pop diva Janet continues to prove her staying power with her hottest album yet. The title track single debuted at #14 on Billboard's Top 100 — the highest ever for a single that wasn't yet commercially available; and this 2001 release also includes her 2000 smash hit, Doesn't Really Matter. You asked for it, we offer it! (VIR10144) CD: 18.98

Janis Joplin

18 Essential Songs

Culled from the boxed set, this 1995 distilled version is like the best of the best: over 70 minutes, digitally remastered, from her earliest album through her last. Includes all her classic greatest hits, plus rare gems, live recordings, and previously-unissued tracks: an acoustic version of Me and Bobby McGee, an alternate take of Summertime, a live, not-previously-issued version of Ball and Chain, and more, from one of the greatest rock and blues artists of all time. (COL67005) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Janis Joplin Love, Janis

Janis' life and career was, and continues to be, surrounded by a lot of hype and legend. This extraordinary 2001 soundtrack to the musical — inspired by the book Love, Janis — strives to show Janis' full as an artist and a person. In between each familiar and beloved song is a letter, read in its original version, that Janis wrote to her family throughout her career. The result is the portrait of a real human — an extraordinarily talented song interpreter, a rock star, and a woman desperate for love and acceptance from a world from which she felt very separated. Includes insightful notes from her sister, Laura Joplin. (LEG85730) CD: 17.98

Jill Sobule

I Never Learned To Swim: Best of...

This Best of Jill Sobule 2001 collection brings together a decade of her great songs, populated by leather-clad mystery women and prom queens turned porn stars, herpies and wretches. Of course it includes her famous hit song, I Kissed A Girl, in addition to Margaret, Claire, Karen By Night, Pilar (Things Here Are Different) and more. This artist has never wanted for company or been at a loss for words or melodies. Bringing together material from 3 different record labels, it's a must for the fan and the newbie who just might know a song or 2. (BEY78181) CD: 17.98

Jill Sobule

Pink Pearl

Standing alone as a writer of intelligent and sophisticated pop songs, Jill has certainly graduated from her one-hit-wonder status. This 2000 release represents a major leap forward artistically, with her lyrical growing and deepening, and her arrangements and instrumentation encompassing an ambitious musical soundscape. It's her trademark wit, however, that truly places her apart, with wry observations about people and life that are cleverly funny as well as being true. Starting off with the ferociously singable Rainy Day Parade, it's full of gems like The Secret Life of Claire, and the earnest and lovely New Mexico. Recommended. (BEY70068) CD: 18.98

Joan Armatrading

Best of Joan Armatrading/ Millenium

With a recording career spanning 3 decades, this beloved artist has presented a seamless merger of folk intimacy and jazz elegance that has been matched by few. Although she was considered a folksinger for her early period, she confounded the pigeonhole by favoring a heartier, earthier delivery that derived its strength from comforting her feelings rather than merely expressing them. Her Caribbean roots underscored much of her early material, from the palpitating pulse of Cool Blue State My Heart to the contagious reggae beat of Rosie. But she is revered most for her acoustic guitar-based confessional ballads: her soaring signature tune Love and Affection, the gospel-flavored Down to Zero. These are all here, plus Me Myself I, Willow, Show Some Emotion, All the Way From America and more. (AM90696) CD: 15.98

Joan Armatrading Greatest Hits

This 1995 release contains truly the best ever of Joan Armatrading — all the way back to her acoustic beginnings in 1972, with Whatever's For Us, For Us, Through Back to the Night, Down to Zero, Love and Affection, Show Some Emotion, all the way up to 1995's Kind Words (And a Real Good Heart). 18 selections in all (the CD even has a bonus track, a live version of Kissin' And A Huggin'), this is a highly recommended retrospective. (AM825) CD: 18.98

Joan Osborne Righteous Love

Finally! The highly-anticipated 2000 follow-up to her platinum album Relish is well worth the wait. An eclectic yet cohesive collection, it represents everything Joan has absorbed musically, lyrically, intellectually, and spiritually to date. The tracks range from throw down rock tunes and spirit-lifting love ballads to dreamy, exotic tones and string-laced gospel blues. As always, her rich, sassy, soulful voice is what really delivers, giving each song her distinct strength and sound. Includes Baby Love, If I Was Your Man, and a beautifully simple cover of Bob Dylan's To Make You Feel My Love. (INS486737) CD: 17.98

Joni Mitchell Both Sides Now

Joni has rarely recorded other songwriters' works, but this 2000 release features her sultry, jazzy, dramatic interpretations of love songs from the 1920's to the 1970's, such as Stormy Weather and You're My Thrill. Two of her own original classics are also included, Both Sides Now and A Case of You. 12 tracks in all. Backed by a 70-piece orchestra, it reveals a side of Joni that's never been heard before on disc. (REP47620) CD: 17.98

Joni Mitchell Hits

This 1996 compilation includes Joni's biggest, well, 'hits' from 1967-1994. Includes Big Yellow Taxi, Chelsea Morning, Both Sides Now, River, Raised on Robbery, Woodstock, The Circle Game and more! If you aren't aware of this musical genius (a favorite even of Led Zeppelin), this is a nice introduction. (If you already are 'with it', this would be just nice to have around the house.) (REP46328) CS: 11.95 CD: 17.98

Karen Carpenter

One of my favorite childhood memories is playing my mother's Carpenters' albums. Karen's exquisite alto voice still biases me out, and I still think it was SO COOL that she played drums! So I am glad with excitement to discover that her self-titled solo album, recorded in 1979, is finally being released! Without any 'help' from her 'oh let's add some more overdubbed strings' brother Richard, this recording is one of the last ones she made before her death from an eating disorder. Produced by Phil Ramone and recorded with Billy Joel's back-up band (it's a 1970's like rock groove!), this album includes Paul Simon's Still Crazy After All These Years, Last One Singing the Blues, and a duet with Chicago's Peter Cetera on his Making Love in the Afternoon. (AM588) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Karla Bonoff

Best of Karla Bonoff: All My Life

She's considered an artist's artist, songs by this singer-songwriter have captivated listeners all over the globe, from her solo recordings, to her collaborations with Linda Ronstadt, James Taylor and Don Henley to her current work with her band Bryndle. This 1999 release is a 16-track career-spanning collection personally chosen by the artist (not usually the case with major-label retrospectives). Includes great song after great song: Love Again, Someone To Lay Down Beside Me, Isn't It Always Love, Restless Nights, The Water Is Wide, Baby Don't Go. (COL95766) CD: 16.98

Kasey Chambers

The Captain

Winner of the 2000 ARIA Award for Best Female Vocalist of the Year in her native Australia (the equivalent of our Grammys), this young singer-songwriter has been compared to artists such as Sarah McLachlan, Jewel, Emmylou Harris and Lucinda Williams. In fact, Lucinda has succinctly summarized her appeal: "Kasey sings with a whole lot of soul and she writes damn good songs. You don't run across that combination often." This debut solo album, which already went platinum in her homeland and is garnering rave reviews in the U.K., now introduces her to America. (ASY47623) CD: 17.98

Lara Fabian

Lara's truly a citizen of the planet: of Italian and Belgian parentage, she has lived in Belgium, Italy, France and Montreal, and is fluent in English, French, Italian and Spanish. She's a superstar in French-speaking areas, where she's sold 6 million albums in under 3 years — her 1997 album Pure (sold 2 million copies) contained the single La Différence, which called for an end to homophobia. This 2000 release, her (mostly) English-language debut, is filled with emotional and evocative songs that speak of love in both its most personal and universal form. (COL49053) CD: 17.98

NEW!

Laura Nyro Angel In The Dark

The 2001 release contains the last recordings made by Laura before her death in 1997. 7 new compositions are balanced with 8 "heartbreak songs" those she sang in her youth with NY street corner harmony groups, includes Triple Goddess, Twilight, Let It Be Me, Walk On By. Half are accompanied only by her own piano and harmony vocals, the remainder feature instrumental back-up. This self-produced album is an extremely intimate, heartfelt, and well-crafted curtain call from this legendary singer/songwriter. (ROU3176) CD: 15.98

Laura Nyro Stoned Soul Picnic: Best of (2-CD)

This 2-CD set celebrates the innovative artistry of Laura Nyro's singing and songwriting, and it's about time! A key figure in the late '60s/early '70s music scene, her earthy, smoky-sweet-wine-by-the-riverbank lyrics were juxtaposed with a sweet, soulful voice and an R&B/soul/funk/folk sound. Barbara Streisand had a huge hit with her Stoney End, Fifth Dimension hit paydirt with Wedding Bell Blues, Stoned Soul Picnic, and Blowing Away. Blood, Sweat and Tears paid the rest with And When I Die, and Laura herself did a celebrated album of R&B covers (with backup from Labelle), including I Met Him On A Sunday, you can hear Laura's own renditions of all of these here! Also includes her love song for Emmie, Mother's Spiritual, A Woman of the World, plus the requisite dangling carrot for the big fans: previously unreleased stuff. (COL48880) CD: 24.98

Laura Nyro Time & Love: The Essential Masters

Laura's groundbreaking style paved the way for the contemporary female singer/songwriter, intense, joyful, deeply felt and often heartbreaking, her high-spirited and passionate vocals blend the fervor of soul music with the many-colored emotional inflections of blues, pop, jazz and gospel. This 2000 retrospective spotlights her most incandescent performances, including the infectious songs Sweet Blindness and Stoned Soul Picnic, her memorable cover of Up On The Roof, and 3 of her songs that went on to become huge hits for other marquee artists: Wedding Bell Blues (The Fifth Dimension), Stoney End (Barbara Streisand), and And When I Die (Blood, Sweat and Tears). (COL48880) CD: 15.98

Lauren Wood

She's sung backup for Ferrer, but she's best known as the singer-songwriter of the international hit Fallen from the Pretty Woman soundtrack, selling over 15 million copies and earning her platinum record status and much critical acclaim. This charmingly wacky artist has an undeniably unique, sultry voice that has captivated a loyal following. From a well of intimacy and vulnerability to a hint of Beatlesque and humor, her 1997 debut includes 12 new gems plus the bonus track, you guessed it, Fallen. (BA4290) CD: 15.98

Linda Ronstadt & Emmylou Harris Western Wall: Tucson Sessions

Featuring songwriting collaborations with Lucie Arnott, Patty Griffin, Bruce Springsteen and Jackson Browne, this lovely and spirited 1995 duo album finds these 2 musicians at the peak of their artistry. It's not like Trio and it's not country, it's adult rock. These creative partnerships — a genuine musical camaraderie — is evident, with harmonies warmer than mercy. Includes Sweet Spot, For a Dancer, Valerie, This Is to Mother You, with back-up vocals by Kate & Anna McGarrigle and Neil Young. (AST62408) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Madonna Music

Despite its colorful country/western cover, this 2000 release is a sexy dance mix of Europop that is sure to be heard in dance clubs all over the world. Madonna jumps on the techno wave and with her characteristic flawless production, tries her hand at electronica, creating very original futuristic sounds on almost every track. Even her ballads like Nobody's Perfect are infused with the latest technology. Though not quite as introspective as Ray of Light, the last 3 tracks are more personal and less dance-oriented. As always, this album is right on time, delivering that perfect blend of dance and pop that has made Madonna a superstar. (WB47598) CD: 18.98

Madonna Ray of Light

This 1998 release, which contains some of the most sophisticated and personal music she's made, includes Mer Girl, Shanti/Kentangi, Skin. (WB46847) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Melanie

The Encore Collection

This native New York folk-era flower child brings her distinctive sound and sentiment to this 2000 low-priced collection of her best-known songs: Brand New Key, Lay Down (Candles in the Rain), What Have They Done To My Song, Ma, plus great songs of the period such as Ruby Tuesday, Mr. Tambourine Man, and Carolina in My Mind. (BMG44504) CD: 8.98

Melissa Ferrick Valentine Heartache

This 2001 studio release is chock-full of songs about those topics we all revel in: breakups, and torments, and love. Her sound is dazzlingly clear, with her guitar wound up tight and nesting next to her voice, which is husky with passion one moment, then effortlessly soaring as she works through her trademark lyrics brimming with raw honesty, aching vulnerability and fresh images. Includes Welcome To My Life, Break Up Song, One Night Stand, Sky Above. (ROR2648) CD: 15.98

Melissa Ferrick Skinner, Faster/Live at BPC (2-CD)

Recorded in May 2000 to a capacity crowd at Berklee Performance Center in Boston, this 2001 release truly captures the energy and essence of the Melissa Ferrick concert experience. Contains 21 songs from all of her 5 critically acclaimed albums, plus 3 previously unreleased songs: Will You Be the One, Welcome To My Life, and the much anticipated remix of Drive. This live 2-CD album faithfully captures her unique, fiery, compelling, bold and captivating performance! (ROR2624) CD: 24.98

Melissa Ferrick Everything I Need

A brief hiatus prior to this 1998 release gave the artist an opportunity to reflect on personal growth, and the 11 songs here are the result. An expressive guitar player with a powerful voice, she has brought in some extra musical muscle from talented friends, who help make this rich, dynamic studio effort as gritty and exciting as her live shows. (WHR80033) CD: 15.98

Melissa Ferrick Freedom

This 2000 release is a powerful collection of seamless songs and fiery guitar, capturing her unbridled passion and ruthless honesty. This time, her forum of expression grows more electric and edgy than her past work. The whole album was written, performed, recorded and produced almost entirely by herself (with a little assistance from former band mate, bassist Maria Tjelios). Delivered with inspiration and intimacy, it holds an air of newfound grace, her staccato voice soaring and her acoustic guitar ringing clear, as each song tells a story of lust, love, loss, and liberation. (WHR80037) CD: 15.98

You are reading this right... Melissa Ferrick is back! Recorded live in LA, Boston, and Santa Monica, this 1997 independent release of old and new material is sure to satisfy those of you who have been devoted fans, and to reel in new fans to boot.

With her incredible songwriting and amazing guitar ability, it's hard to avoid comparisons to other greats (i.e. Ani DiFranco et al), but she is more than capable of standing on her own and even surpassing those who have come before her. The old material, such as Willing to Wait, seems to have taken on new meaning (she even takes a job at her old record company for not making it the single from the album of the same name), while the newer songs highlight her style of personalized songwriting. Highly recommended! (WHR80025) CD: 16.98

Meredith Brooks See It Through My Eyes

Bargain-priced close-out! Created from demos recorded in 1984, this album was released in 1997 following the success of Blurring The Edges. Born near Portland, Oregon, Meredith fronted several bands in the northwest following her high school graduation at age 15. Therefore, this collection features Meredith and her various bands producing fun, catchy 80's pop, but with that extra edge Meredith brings to all her songs. Includes title track, Jessica, The Look, Thunder and Lightning. (ULG17767) CD: 8.98

New Mongrels (Amy Ray/Emily S.etc)

Big Cup of Empty

If you're like me, you may be surprised and somewhat ashamed to realize that this amazing collaboration missed your attention in the past. The New Mongrels are a huge group of exceptional musicians, including Amy Ray, Emily Saliers, Michelle Malone, Caroline Aiken, Michael Lorant, and Gerard McHugh, just to name a few. This 1998 recording feels like a great big round robin, with everyone taking turns on the mike and guitar, and songs that clearly show the combined talent of the group. As the Mongrels state on the album insert — "We hummer down, then come out singing, ever true to our mandate: the joyful promotion of song and rhythmic utterance." (DAE19017) CD: 14.98

Pat Benatar Extended Versions

Several Grammys, multi-platinum albums and gold singles made Pat one of the most popular female vocalists of the 80's; her unique combination of a hard rock stance amidst pop arrangements garnered her a big following. On this 2000 newly-priced collection, she rips through her best-known arena anthems, including I Need a Lover, In the Heat of the Night, Fire & Ice and Treat Me Right. (BMG45697) CD: 8.98

Phoebe Snow The Very Best of Phoebe Snow

Emerging from NYC's Greenwich Village scene in the early 70's, Phoebe quickly gained a reputation as one of the most celebrated and deeply personal singer-songwriters of the era. This 2001 release, overseen by the artist, is the first-ever career-spanning retrospective of her most well-loved songs, recorded during the 70's, 80's and 90's. In addition to 2 previously-unreleased live tracks recorded at Carnegie Hall in '97, Napco's Blues and Let the Good Times Roll, it contains her original Poetry Man plus 12 more. (COL62241) CD: 15.98

Phoebe Snow I Can't Complain

On this 1998 release, her first in 7 years, Phoebe Snow pays homage to her favorite singer/songwriters of the past 4 decades. Drawing from her folk and blues-infused roots, with a little rock and soul mixed in, Phoebe is back in full force. Included on this extraordinary set of cover songs is Peace Of My Heart (Janis Joplin), A Case Of You (Jonico Mitchell), It Takes A Lot To Laugh, It Takes A Train To Cry (Bob Dylan), along with many more. Out of print, limited quantity, hurry! (PLT161352) CD: 16.98

Rickie Lee Jones It's Like This

This vocalist turns her unique interpretive powers to contemporary standards on this 2000 release. With guests like Joe Jackson and Taj Mahal, she covers tunes like I Can't Get Started, One Hand, One Heart, On the Street Where You Live, Marvin Gaye's Trouble Man, the Beatles' For No One, and the first single, Steeley Dan's Show Biz Kids. (ART1054) CD: 17.98

Rita Coolidge Best of...Millennium Collection

She's continuing to gain recognition for her work with the Native American trio Walela, but highlights from the "Delta Lady's" illustrious solo career of the 70's and 80's are fortunately back in print now too! Digitally remastered from the original tapes, this 2000 retrospective includes acclaimed hits like Fever, Only You Know and I Know, Your Love Has Lifted Me, Higher and Higher, and Loving Arms, the duet with Kris Kristofferson that earned them a Grammy nomination. (AN90604) CD: 15.98

Sade Lovers Rock

There's lots of love on this 2000 release, whether it's lost love, new love, or deep, mature love. Sade covers it with her classic hypnotic, beat-driven melodies and endlessly sexy voice. However, the depth of this album doesn't end there. There's also Slave Song about an enslaved warrior who prays that her son will be spared the same fate, immigrant which deals with racism in predominantly white countries, and it's Only Love That Gets You Through, an anthem to the strength of women. Very highly recommended! (EPC85165) CD: 15.98

Sara Church Against All Odds

Now at a great sale price!! With a style that "crosses acoustic rock, world rock, world pop, folk, roots folk funk and blues-folk funk" (!!!), this talented singer-songwriter has been compared to the likes of Steve Nicks, Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crow, and to that list we'd add Teresa Trull! And her recent touring has been generating a buzz — so pay attention. Her 1998 indie release is a journey through the eyes of a melodic visionary who loves and cares about the essence of life; her belt-it-out voice, intense lyrics and rhythmic structures are cradled in a bed of emotion that slides into the small of your back. (ECC1) CS: 6.98 CD: 10.98

Sara Church Pure Honey

We are offering this 2000 release at a great introductory price. It's more rhythm, blues and funk than it is rock as Sara grows, belts and punts her way through this album. Contains rousing tracks like Good Lovin', What About You, and For You. (ECC2) CD: 10.98

Shelby Lynne

I Am Shelby Lynne

Find out why everyone's talking about Shelby Lynne! 10 years ago she was just starting out in Nashville, trying to find her place as a country singer. 5 country albums later, she's shed the rigid confines of the genre and emerged as a major talent. This critically-acclaimed and well-produced 1999 release is as soulful and diverse as Shelby's distinctive voice, running the stylistic gamut from R&B to country, blues, and more... from the lazy, bluesy acoustic ballads like Black Light Blue to the upbeat, pop-infused Gotta Get Back, to country throwbacks like Life Is Bad. (PLG546177) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Shelley Dots X-tet

Possible Reasons For My Insomnia

What shall we rave about first — the ferocious attack of her masterful electric and acoustic guitar riffs, the elegance of her lyrics, or the soulful depth of her resonating voice? The pure talent of this singer/songwriter/guitarist is stunning, as her authentic raw energy cuts through the air with vibrant imagination and freshness. A solid groove develops throughout this 1999 disc, as she covers topics from love to lunacy, moving from flowing jazz numbers to blues-tinged treasures to edgy rock rumpages. You may have heard her on one of these releases: Pete Juju Live, The Redwood Project, Given Avery's Sugar Mama, or the compilation Calling All Kings and Queens (this editor's favorite track on that comp). At Lillith Fair, she was invited to play guitar for the final number with Sheryl Crow, Chrissie Hynde, Sarah McLachlan and Bonnie Raitt — this tells you the league she's in. Her music bridges gaps between young and old, black and white, pop and jazz — highly recommended! (HOW426) CD: 13.98

Sinead O'Connor

Faith and Courage

Sinead O'Connor has been a revolutionary force in popular music for more than a decade and now (and she's in the limelight again, this time for more or less acknowledging that she is a lesbian). Her 2000 release is a strikingly expressive collection of songs that traverse the human experience, touching on such universals as love and lust, respect and responsibility, strength and spirit. Songs include No Man's Woman, Jealousy, The State I'm In and Hold Back The Night. A MUST for your Sinead collection. (ATL83337) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Sophie B. Hawkins

Timbre (2-CD Set Enhanced)

You know Sophie B. from her twisty potent songs, such as Damn, I Wish I Was Your Lover. Well, she's back with a 1999 release, and again, she chooses soothing melodies to accompany her raspy voice. Songs include Strange Thing, No Connection and When My Best Friend. On the bolder side is The Darkest Child, a robust explanation of a young person who is considered a "bad seed." This fine recording contains more colors than my closet! (RYK609) CD: 16.98

Stavie Nicks

Trouble in Shangri-La

This 2001 release — the first in 7 years from the silver-throated chanteuse beloved by many of us boomers as well as the first solo release since Fleetwood Mac's reunion — includes major contributions from Sarah McLachlan, Macy Gray, Sheryl Crow, and for you Fleetwood Mac fans, Lindsey Buckingham. Songs include Parasols of the Universe, Fall From Grace, Candlelight and Somewhere. (REP47372) CD: 18.98

Tegan & Sara

This Business of Art

This 2000 release is full of youth, energy, and passion. Their notable energy onstage started the buzz about this twin duo, with their debut album released on Neil Young's label, and with a song featured on the film and soundtrack Sweet November, they are looking forward to a promising future. Hailing from Calgary, Alberta, the twins have been playing together since they were 8, beginning with piano, moving on to punk bands in high school, and now blasting through North America with their edgy acoustic-rock, touring with artists like Melissa Etheridge. Tracks include Freedom, More For Me, Superstar, The First Proud, and more. (VPR47664) CD: 16.98

Toni Childs

The Ultimate Collection

This 2000 release is Toni's first US compilation. With her smooth blend of rock, folk, African rhythms and pop sensibilities, she has achieved mainstream success while staying true to her vision — a hard band to master. This collection features 16 of her most well-respected and critically acclaimed songs, such as her chart single Don't Walk Away, the topical Zimbabwe, and Lay Down Your Pain. It also contains many titles from her previous albums Unite, House of Hope, The Woman's Boat, plus the single Many Rivers To Cross from the Lost Highway soundtrack. (HIP490741) CD: 17.98

Toni Childs

The Woman's Boat

Back in print, now at a great price! Toni has always used her music as a vehicle for intensely personal views of major social issues, but on this 1994 release, she journeys beyond that, into the spiritual realm. Thematically it traces the course of women's lives through the cycle of birth, growth, death and rebirth. Many songs are danceable, and there's a world music feel with some tracks recorded in India, and contributions by Peter Gabriel and members of Zaz Mama. If you're already familiar with her incredible voice, you'll probably be buying this anyway. If not, buy it for the artwork, and because she dedicates it to the female spirit in every living thing. Amazing, outstanding, masterfully recommended. (GEP24618) CD: 8.98

Tracy Nelson/Mother Earth

Best of Tracy Nelson/Mother Earth

This 1999 anthology brings back into print, for the first time in decades, some of the truly remarkable music made by Tracy and her band in the late 60's and early 70's. Mixing strains of R&B, country, folk and rock in a decidedly straightforward style — miles removed from the more over-the-top acts of the era — Mother Earth was an extraordinarily sympathetic vehicle for Tracy's powerful singing. Includes their veritable classic Down So Low, plus Temptation Took Control of Me and I Fell Satisfied, Cry On, Mother Earth, Ruler of My Heart, 12 in all. (WAR46232) CD: 17.98

Girl Groups

This marvelous and essential 2000 collection chronicles chart-topping hits from the original "girl groups" of the 50's, 60's and 70's, with liner notes providing each song's position on the Pop and/or R&B charts. These women, who have influenced many subsequent great female musicians, played a crucial role in the history of women in music, and rock 'n' roll and popular music in general. Includes The Angels, My Boyfriend's Back, The Supremes, Baby Love, Lollipop by The Chordettes, The Cookies, Don't Say Nothing 'Bout My Baby, The Shangri-Las, Remember (Walkin' in the Sand), The Ad Libs, Boy From New York City, The Jaynetts, Sally Go Round the Roses, Martha & The Vandellas, Dancin' in the Street, The Chiffons, He's So Fine, The Murmaids, PoPoletto and Loose, the Doo Cups (no kidding). In other words, everything you'd find in this editor's 45-mp3 collection from sixth grade! (V566110) CD: 16.98

Female Singer-Songwriters

This 2001 release spotlights pioneers who helped define the contemporary genre, artists who helped soothe America's psyche and soul in the early 70's, as people sought solace from the political turmoil of the 60's. Their profiles graced the magazine pages of the time, and their influence on singer-songwriters who followed them is universally acknowledged today. Includes Phoebe Snow's Poetry Man, Buffy Sainte-Marie's Until It's Time For You To Go, Kate Bush's Wuthering Heights, Kate and Anna McGarrigle's Heart Like a Wheel, and more from Laura Nyro, Joan Baez, Janis Ian, Bonnie Raitt, Carly Simon and Melanie. Folk * Singer-Songwriter

Alison Brown Quartet

Out of the Blue

Unquestionably one of today's finest instrumentalists, Alison has established herself as a leader in a new generation of banjo virtuosos, moving far beyond traditional bluegrass styles, while delving into jazz, classical, Latin, samba and pop. Her unique blend of these styles has never been more evident than on this 1999 collection of original compositions. From the Brazilian-inspired languor of Coast Walk to the spicy, infectious rhythms of Samba del Sol, she magically transcends every cliché associated with banjo playing. (CMS4248) CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss

Forget About It

Heart-wrenching lyrics and a truly touching vocal performance characterize Alison's 1999 release. This time out, the emphasis is much more on the song structure and emotional explorations, but, of course, she never fails to deliver dazzlingly precise instrumentation. Her old-time style is tempered by pop sensibilities, placing this album somewhere between Hazel Dickens and Dolly Parton (who actually guests here). With tracks like Empty Hearts, Ghost in This House, and It Don't Matter Now, the theme of loss and redemption are mined for their emotional impact. A perfect choice for rainy day introspection. (ROU0405) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss & Union Station

New Favorite

This 2001 collection is a set of artful, soulful songs that will appeal not only to the many established fans of bluegrass, but also to listeners who have discovered their music through sources such as the phenomenally successful film O Brother Where Art Thou? Under the direction of vocalist and fiddler Alison Krauss, the band members unite their formidable talents to present 13 tracks of hard-driving bluegrass, introspective ballads and everything in-between. Includes Momma Good, Choclaw Hayride, Bright Sunny South. (ROU0405) CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Back & Forth

The Best is back... in print, that is, this contains the best from her first releases Capedim and Room and Board, such as The Woman You'd Love, Jessie, Jaynie, plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston? We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Hole in the Day

Our favorite midwestern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for ya! This 1993 12-song release features her thrilling brown-sugar-s-moosasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her very love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miss Home to You, and No Road to Juneau. (AML2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's inimitable voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big, fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease, and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, introspective, and an acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy bluesy vein. (TC10074) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed

Through the Window

For 2001, Ann treats us to another solid and intimate collection of original songs that many of us can relate to, in her captivatingly deep and golden voice. I "e" is a humorous but accurate description of the scary direction many of our lives seem to be taking into cyberspace. Look At Her Go proudly honors women in sports. Northern Star is a tribute to a long and steady love. All of you "Ann's fans" will welcome another chance to wrap yourselves up in her musings on life's journeys, in her rich musical palette of acoustic guitar, mandolin, accordion, harmonica, and even the occasional dog bark, and most especially in her voice — as we do. (TC12) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Life Gets Real 0089 (CD)
This 1995 release is a quintessential midlife exploration to complete the trilogy that began with Road of the Heart and Hole in the Day. Ann's full, deep, exquisite voice and artful self-harmonizing are just two of the features that make this album distinctive. The title track is a rocking reality check that offers insights about perspective and philosophy of life. Love Online is a humorous country song about e-mail relationships. "You hear, your eyes, well these are things I've never seen/But ooh your voice appears so warm upon my screen." Well, it is a beautiful and compelling piece dealing with domestic violence. Excellent rhythms and melodies — her best yet — highly recommended. (AMLA) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis 0644 (CD)
Remember the first time you heard the plaintive, undomestic voice of James Taylor singing Five and Ten or Tracy Chapman's quietly poignant Fast Car — moments that forever changed the way you experienced music? Listening to Catie's opening vocals here creates a similar epiphany, then she extends her crystalline folk sound into a musically lush environment. Like the simple electricity of her live performances, this 1997 release captures a unique artist at the height of her craft. Includes Soulfully, Do Unto Others Come To Me (RYK602) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed
Timing Is Everything
Grab a cup of something hot and settle in for a cozy visit with Ann's 1997 collection of new love songs (I Write a Letter, Love Like This). Insightful tunes of friendship (I Will Be There For You, Watching Over You), miss-you-baby duets (Can't Sleep). Ann borrows the melody to Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend as a backdrop for Power Tools, a duet which ought to become our office manager's theme song. The album title is taken from the chorus of Matilda, a story of a homeless woman and her gradual journey from life's mainstream to its littered streets. ("Crazy didn't happen overnight/Just so you know/ Timing is everything") Ann's award-winning guitar work is showcased in the instrumental piece The Dark. The Outhouse & The Creatures on Either Side, one of a handful of tunes written on an island during an Artist-in-Residence Program. If you've loved Ann's previous recordings as much as we have, you'll be quite pleased with this one! (AMLA1101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen
Voices 0275 (CD)
When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Patricia Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the result is as fabulous as their fans might expect. It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their acappella work, most songs include back-up by producer/arranger Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues). It includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Be Good Tanyas
Blue Horse
Citing Emmylou Harris, the Carter Family and Hazel & Alice as primary influences, this old-time women's trio has set the music world a-buzz. They specialize in the Americana genres of Appalachian-based country, bluegrass and folk, though their career first really took off in their native Canada, where they played all the leading Canadian folk festivals, and where their debut album was initially released in 2000. Backing their 3-part vocal harmonies with guitar, mandolin and banjo plus upright bass and drums, they offer a tasty mix of originals and traditionalists, including a rendition of Stephen Foster's Oh Susanna. (NET30245) CD: 16.98

Burns Sisters
Out of the Blue
With a perfect blend of sass and elegance, their harmonic vocal blend and witty songwriting have been long-revered by music-lovers everywhere. This 2000 release is both their most rocking and most sensitive — blending country, Celtic, folk and pop, they ruminate over life's hardships with defiant zeal and irrepressible spirit. From the opener God Made Woman to the final Prayer to Saint Francis, their sly observations will tickle your imagination while their shimmering sisterly harmonies wash over you. (PHY128) CD: 15.98

Carrie Newcomer
The Age of Possibility 0938 (CD)
Barbara Kingsolver says, "To my mind — a writer's mind — Carrie Newcomer is much more than a musician. She's a poet, storyteller, shaker, hammer, good neighbor, friend and lover, minister of the wide-eyed gospel of hope and grace. All this, and she comes with a voice that declares: 'Sit down here a minute and listen. Who could ask for more?'" We concur. The sum of Carrie's talents — some flashily apparent, some more subtle — come together and create an artist of bottomless depth, infinite warmth, and a slow-burn intensity. Armed with keen eyes for detail and keen ears for harmony, the songs on her 2000 release are evocative, thought-provoking, and moving. (PHY126) CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis
A Crash Course in Roses 0786 (CD)
With the distinctly sweet tang in her voice and her usual spirit and spark, Catie shines brighter than ever on this 1999 release, which beautifully displays the emotional sincerity and musical vibrancy of her vocals and songwriting. The 13 tracks travel through a range of stories and sounds with a loose and energetic vibe, as Catie and her band (including a djembe, wurlitzer, and electric mandolin player) improvise and rock out to create a rich and honest recording. Especially singable are Gave Me Love, Wagon Don't Owe Me, and Look At You Now (RYK478) CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis
My Shirt Looks Good On You 0958 (CD)
This 2001 release is Catie's strongest collection of songs yet — the lyrics are passionate and emotionally direct, the melodies more memorable than ever, the voice clear and pure. Best of all, the excellent production has captured Catie's engaging personality and the energy of her great live shows, welcome news for fans who already knew the magic of seeing this great performer play in person. Includes The Kiss That Counted, Now-Bicycle Named Heaven. (RYK613) CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis
Truth From Lies 0151 (CD)
If you loved her earlier stuff as much as we did, you won't be disappointed by this 1994 follow-up. Her heart-breaking vocals and acoustic guitar are backed up by drums and bass, with some guest appearances by Patty Larkin and John Gorka. Our favorite songs include Everybody Was Dancing, the poignant tale of a woman's loneliness in a 30-year marriage, and Radical, which affirms the freedom of loving with no political statements attached. (RYK601) CD: 16.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Before we encountered this 1995 album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Llama soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual, strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes, best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Circles & Arrows
The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts, in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses" (PH1162) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Driving Home
The sweet-sounding, rhyming slices of life provided on this 1993 release are mostly nostalgic and thoughtful, delivered in Cheryl's straightforward manner and lovely alto. She writes with insight about relationship dead-ends, and with true appreciation of the changing seasons. The tempo is occasionally lightened by selections such as the tongue-in-cheek Don't Forget the Guns. With vocal support on a few selections by Mary-Chapin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, and Patty Larkin (and Jonathan Edwards, who also produced) how can you go wrong? (PH1152) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Mrs. Pinocci's Guitar 0422 (CD)
This 1995 collection of 14 Wheeler originals reaffirms her reputation as one of the premiere singer-songwriters on the contemporary folk scene. Whether yearning for simplicity (Howl at the Moon) or diving headlong into the complexities of love (So Far to Fall) or goofing on pop culture (TV and It's Peace Or Is It Potac?), Cheryl always gets to the heart of the matter and delivers every nuance. (PH1192) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Sylvia Hotel
This stellar performer is outrageously funny one moment, and heartbreakingly vulnerable the next. With intelligent lyrics and graceful melodies, her original songs range from poignant observations on love and politics to hilarious parodies of 80's lifestyles. Featuring the crowd-pleaser If It Were Up To Me, this '99 release hails from one of the premier singer/songwriters on the contemporary folk scene. (PH1212) CD: 15.98

Christine Kane
A Thousand Girls
This 1997 release is a lyrical journey that will take you from the brilliant colors of an Arizona desert, to the sticky heat of an August night in North Carolina, to the chill in the quiet of a night spent alone. With shades of Mary Chapin Carpenter, Christine will make you sigh and take off your shoes with one track, then get up and dance on the next. This relaxing and energizing album paints a musical picture you can see and feel, and as the title track promises, it will speak to the sensibilities of many women. (BRZ671) CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin
Getting in Touch w/My Inner Bitch 0853 (CD)
After you get past the absolutely priceless cover of this 2000 album, you'll be treated to a great collection of live performances by this smart and hilarious songwriter. As always, she mixes the serious and sweet with the outrageous and absurd, and is at her comical best in front of a live audience. Most are new songs, but a few old ones are thrown in with a new twist, like What Was I Thinking In 1999?. She sings about an encounter with Harrison Ford, really lets loose with the title track, and finishes off with the "sing-along" Piranha Women Of The Avocado Jungle Of Death. A must-have for Christine Lavin fans! (CLV2) CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin
One Wild Night in Concert
This 1996 release is exactly what her audiences always ask for, a spontaneous example of the rianity, creativity and rapport for which her concerts are renowned. Among the new songs: They Look Alike, They Walk Alike, inspired by Dolly the sheep; National Apology Day, her proposal for world peace; and The Voice On the Relationship Tape, a very funny send-up to the New Age movement. Concert favorites include Oh No (about losing things) and her most-requested song, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From. Even the bottom-twisting grand finale is here (minus light sticks)! The album captures what makes her one of the most popular performers on the folk circuit, capable of turning new listeners into enthusiastic fans within the course of one song! (CLV1) CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin
The Subway Series
Subtitled Songs From Above and Below the Streets of New York, this 2001 release collects songs inspired by the grand metropolis of NYC, written by the artist during the 25 years that she has lived there. Includes updated versions of some of her most popular works, such as Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind and Shopping Cart of Love. The Play, a well as new songs never recorded, including Moon Rising, Tide We Are the Lucky Ones and If We Had No Moon. Recorded live at Fordham U., it's her valentine to the city that continues to inspire songwriters! (CLV6) CD: 15.98

Cindy Kallet
This Way Home
This is the quintessential folk album — intricate guitar picking, poetic story lyrics, and beautiful harmonies. Most of the original songs spill out in brilliant images accompanied by her meticulous guitar melodies. In true folk spirit, she tackles many pressing contemporary issues such as the pollution and the desecration of our rivers and streams (Salmon River), and the increasing amount of violence perpetrated against women (I Used to Go Walking). Overall this 2000 album is rich and full of artistry, and we highly recommend it. (BTM2) CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt
Wings of Wonder
It has been 6 years since we've heard from this multi-talented artist, but this 2000 album was well worth the wait. During her hiatus from recording, Claudia both owned and ran a bed-and-breakfast as well as a restaurant. Now she just has the restaurant, her 12-string guitar and her exhilarating 3-octave vocals. True to the folk tradition, she infuses her work with jazz, blues, and even beautiful classical compositions such as Chamada, written by Brazilian composer Milton Nascimento about a forest siren who lures hunters to her with her hauntingly magnetic voice. Like the siren, Claudia will draw you in with her captivating voice and her lyrics that are pure poetry. Don't miss this stunning return! (BHR144) CD: 15.98

Dar Williams/L. Kaplansky/R. Shindell
Cry Cry Cry 0736 (CD)
This 1998 release allows the members of this folk dream team (Dar Williams, Lucy Kaplansky, Richard Shindell) to take time off from their solo careers and put together a tribute to what they simply call "the song." Through their vision and passion they interpret a diverse set of songs, from artists such as Nerissa Neikos, REM, Greg Brown, Julie Miller, all showcasing the fine craft of songwriting. A truly collective effort, each artist performs on almost every track, whether it's harmonizing with the others or taking their moment to shine in the spotlight. Fans of any of these artists will be delighted by the insight into what has influenced them in their own work. (RAT2640) CD: 16.98

Dar Williams
Out There Live

Recorded over 3 sold-out shows during 2000's "Green World" tour, this 2001 release effectively captures the essence and excitement of Dar's amazing live shows. Showcasing material from her 4 acclaimed solo albums, this first-ever live album also includes fresh, full-band interpretations of fan favorites like As Cool As I Am, Are You Out There, and Better Things. It's a must-have for all current Dar fans as well as a dazzling intro for anyone unfamiliar with one of the most critically acclaimed songwriters of our generation. (RAT2871) CD: 17.98

Dar Williams
Mortal City

What can you say about brilliance? Well, a lot, really. This 1996 sophomore effort by critically acclaimed folk musician and Joan Baez tourmate Dar Williams is so substantial and exquisite and meaningful and accomplished that it shines like polished bronze. Kicking off with the bouncing As Cool As I Am, an upbeat feminist tune with the sing-a-long anthemic chorus "I will not be afraid of women" can start your day right. February brings you down with her wistfully evocative soprano, and a tender metaphor for a failed love. The Christians and the Pagans is an endearing story about a pagan lesbian couple sharing an ecumenical Christmas celebration with an uncle's family. Other songs such as The Pointless, Let Pigeons, Crave of a Co-Ed and Southern California Wants To Be Western New York live up to their billing. Oh, I could go on but I mustn't. Highly I really really mean it recommended. (RAT2821) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dar Williams
End of the Summer

Dar turns up the heat with her third album, pecked with the kind of articulate, provocative and witty songs that have become her trademark. Sonic landscapes drenched with kinetic narratives, and rhythms run the gamut from the simple and spare accompaniment of If I Write You to the classic rock backbeat of Party Generation. What Do You Hear In These Sounds? features dazzling wordplay around the theme of psychotherapy, and her very social commentary comes through loud and clear in Teenagers, Kick Our Butts. Background vocals by Justin and Joyce, as well as Lucy Kaplansky and the Neils, add the finishing touches to this highly recommended 1997 release. (RAT2830) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dar Williams
The Green World

We've waited a long time for Dar's 4th release, but it was well worth the time and anticipation. For this 2000 album, her familiar humor and insight are in ample supply, and have grown and deepened into truly excellent songwriting. With her enchanting voice and lovely, playful melodies, Dar paints elaborate storylines and intimate confessions against a lush musical background, complete with guitars, banjo, organ, trombone, and Jane Scarpantoni on cello. There's the clever I Won't Be Your Yoko Ono, the beautiful natural imagery of Calling the Moon and Playing To The Moment, and the trademark Dar wisdom and heartache of It Happens Every Day. Highly recommended! (RAT2856) CD: 17.98

Dar Williams
The Honesty Room

This young, vibrant singer-songwriter is making waves around the country lately, acoustic luminaries such as Christine Lavin have been raving about her, the Folk Music bulletin boards of the Internet have been buzzing, she's garnered a fair bit of radio play, and made knockout folk festival appearances. Her remarkable lyric style is coupled with a supple sense of melody and a superb 3-octave voice, which cradles songs that convey a great mix of politics, social commentary, love and observation. This 1993 release includes the gender-twister When I Was A Boy, plus The Baby-sitter's Home, Adeline, The Great Unknown. On the box-out for some fine new talent? Try Dar. Dee Carstensen
Regarding the Soul

Now on sale! On Dee's 1995 album, marked by a new, richer sound, her distinctive voice and songwriting style are accentuated by the addition of lush string arrangements, background harmonies and even the occasional wurlitzer and trumpet. The opening track, Time, draws you in with a story that seems both exceptional and familiar. She retains her ability to capture tales and moments that possess beauty and human nature in perfect balance. As always, her harp adds the ethereal touch that makes this artist truly unique. Includes a great cover of Jimi Hendrix's Angie. (EX19001) CD: 10.98

Dee Carstensen
Beloved One

Now on sale! This 1993 album reveals the unmistakable voice of an unforgettable singer-songwriter. Accompanying herself on the piano and harp, Dee spins a string of enchanting story-songs and mystic, moody, romantic ballads that hold timeless images and heart-breaking truths. She trades effortlessly between driving beats and slow, wandering melodies, delivering each song with the passion and confidence of a true musician. From the haunting title track, to the simplicity of The Wish, to the rousing urgency of Finally Free, this is a consistently excellent and exciting recording. (NYC6005) CD: 10.98

Dolly Parton
Little Sparrow

This is an AMAZING album! Combining folk, bluegrass, and Irish music, Dolly continues along the path she forged with her Grammy-winning and critically acclaimed The Grass Is Blue. Although this one's not all bluegrass, it's just as rootsy and remarkable, if not more so. The Irish group Altan appears on several of the tracks, and harmony vocals are performed by Alison Krauss and Maureen O'Connell. 3 tracks are newly written by Dolly herself (Little Sparrow, Bitter Pastures, and Mary Me). The others are stunning re-interpretations of the songs of others as well as her own earlier work. Even if you're not a fan of her commercial country standards, check this 2001 album out — it really is stunning, and very highly recommended! (SUG3927) CD: 15.98

Dolly Parton
The Grass Is Blue

Her first bluegrass album ever, this 1999 release — from an artist who last issued a dance remix — is 100% unadulterated high lonesome stuff. Bill Monroe would have loved it. It's raw, unfettered bluegrass music, featuring many of the songs she grew up hearing and singing as a girl. Guest vocalists include Alison Krauss and Patty Loveless, and the instruments, played by an all-star band, are acoustic guitar, mandolin, banjo, fiddle, bass, resonator guitar, a.k.a. dobro — no drums. Includes songs by Hazel Dickens, Lester Flatt, Louvin Brothers, Johnny Cash, and some Dolly originals. Recommended! (SUG2900) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Edie Carey
Call Me Home

With the heart of a folkie and the soul of a popster, Edie Carey emerges as a terrific new talent on the contemporary folk scene. This eclectic and beautifully-produced 2000 release showcases her at her best, singing with playful abandon and clear-eyed, emotional honesty. Edie recaptures perfectly her own 10-year-old freedom and love for music in Disco Ball Heart, and allows glimpses at her more serious side with heart-breakers like Fall or Fly and the openly confessional title track. Her expressive voice, which gives each tune an enchanting edge, is what truly sets this exceptional performer apart. Recommended! (ACP1) CD: 14.98

Edie Carey
The Falling Places

Armed with a graceful, soaring voice, and her undeniable skill for carving out everyday images in almost startling detail, Edie gives us her 1998 debut album, and it feels just like spending an evening with an old friend. This Boston-based singer-songwriter has been making a name for herself everywhere she goes, including the Southern Women's Music Festival. This is a perfect debut — she reveals herself with quiet intimacy and humor, displaying her knack for a strong melody and a good story, all richly told with her irresistible charm. Recommended! (LMN100) CD: 14.98

Eliza Gilkyson
Hard Times In Babylon

Known for her songwriting, penning lyrics for such luminaries as Rosanne Cash, Eliza is finally making a name for herself and her music. This 2003 collection of 12 gutsy, raucous, passionate songs prove that no one can sing Eliza's songs better than she can. From the dark and haunting Persimmon to the Americana-friendly Beauty Way, she shows us that she can get down-home as quickly as she can twist your brain around a metaphor you've just never thought of in that way before. Then she'll pour out a heart-wrenching ballad right after she pounds out Wallace, which borders on spoken word and showcases her original poetry at its finest and most disturbing. Highly recommended! (RHR146) CD: 15.98

Elizabeth Cotten
Live!

Libba Cotten's story is actually one of Ladyslipper's original inspirations: her famous song Freight Train, written when she was 12 about the train on Chestnut Street, Carboro NC (a stone's throw from Ladyslipper's hometown), for many years brought her no personal recognition. (As contrary, some of the folkie public once assumed the song was written by Peter Paul and Mary about the train on NYC's Bleecker Street!) Since then we have learned the fascinating story about her domestic work for the Seeger family, which is how the song originally worked its way into the repertoire of folkangers with big audiences and recording contracts. Eventually she received some of her due, and won a Grammy for this release, recorded in 1983 when she was 92. In addition to conveying her warm rapport with audiences, it includes her delightful commentary plus all of her best-loved tunes: Freight Train, Shake Sugaree, Honey Babe, I Ain't No Lie (Deadheads like to remember the Grateful Dead's cover of this), Instrumentals like Washington Blues which feature her unique, self-taught left-handed "upside-down" guitar-picking style, and stories about growing up. Very essential, highly recommended. (ARH477) CD: 16.98

Eva Cassidy
Eva By Heart

This post-mortem collection was released by Eva's parents in 1998, two years after her death from melanoma. It contains 11 of her most beloved songs, including traditional folk and spiritual songs. Never really able to be categorized, Eva was adept at jazz, blues, folk, and gospel, and this collection demonstrates her amazing versatility as a vocalist. Even though Eva never actively sought a career in music, she considered it her obligation to share her gift, which she fulfilled by arranging classic standards for her voice, keyboard, and guitar so that they became a true expression of herself. Includes Songbird, How Can I Keep From Singing, Wayfaring Stranger, Blues in the Night, and more. Highly recommended! (BLX10047) CD: 15.98

Eva Cassidy
Live at Blues Alley

Recorded at Blues Alley in Georgetown, Washington DC in 1998, this album was hailed by critics and fans alike as an amazing solo debut album. Despite Eva's reservations about the whole project, it is a testament to her evolution as a performer, from a shy, reluctant singer to the amazing presence you'll experience here. True to form, Eva jumps from genre to genre, covering artists from Billie Holiday. Tracks include Cheek to Cheek, Bridge Over Troubled Water, Fields of Gold, and more. Very highly recommended. (BLX10046) CD: 15.98

Eva Cassidy
Songbird

We bring this incredible (and uncategorizable) vocal to you with great sadness and joy in our hearts — this 1998 best-of release was issued posthumously, as Eva died of cancer at age 33 in 1996. During her lifetime, her notably stilled by paralyzing stage fright, yet those who did know of her variable talents sang her praises mightily... until the greater music world both found and lost her simultaneously at her death, when she was awarded Nine Womans (Washington Area Music Awards) in DC. She performed folk, blues, gospel, and pop with equal flair, adding new dimensions to all her interpretations. One can almost hear the tears behind each note as she flows effortlessly through everything from Made in the USA to Over the Rainbow, from Patsy Cline's Oh, Had I A Golden Thread to Singing a Fields of Gold. We think you'll be blown away by her artistry, highly recommended. (BLX10045) CD: 15.98

Eva Cassidy
Time After Time

Few vocalists can bring tears to this editor's eyes within the first few measures of the opening track, but Eva Cassidy's music can. She was the consummate song interpreter, both her talent and vocal qualities bringing to mind the late and great Sandy Denny. Released posthumously in 2000, those who are already fans will wonder: where do they keep finding such treasures? This is a stunning and eclectic collection of previously-unreleased contemporary songs and timeless standards, some familiar and some new: Cyndi Lauper's title track, Paul Simon's Kathy's Song, Jon's Woodstock, Bill Withers' Ain't No Sunshine, Marian Howard's I Wish I Was a Single Girl Again, and more. Let yourself be graced by a true miracle — very highly recommended. (BLX10073) CD: 15.98

Eva Cassidy & Chuck Brown
The Other Side

This really is her first-ever album — recorded in 1992, it's a duet album with DC legend, vocalist Chuck Brown. The classics here make this a must for your collection, whether you are a long-time fan or are newly discovering that Eva was one of the greatest vocalists on our planet. Includes Over the Rainbow, Fever, Let the Good Times Roll, God Bless the Child, You've Changed. (CBD2263) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Four Bitchin' Babes Beyond Bitchin'

The Babes are back in 2000, and this time their dream team is made up of Sally Fiergert, Deb Smith, Megan McDonough, and newest member Camille West. With a terrific cover (think Meet the Beatles), and lots of great new songs, old fans and newcomers alike will not be disappointed. The selections range from the clever and hilarious to the beautiful and wise, with, as always, gorgeous vocal harmonies complementing every song. Includes Too Toe With The HMO, Wanna Be The Water, If I Were Brave, and the absolutely infectious Hold On To My Love. (VAN8035) CD: 15.95

Gillian Welch Hell Among the Yearlings

The stripped-down old-time style of this truly outstanding folk artist has been dropping the jaws of critics and fans across the country. On this 1998 sophomore effort, she further explores American traditional music while indulging in some powerful songwriting, employing a pristine presentation which is sure to move her one step closer to legendary status. The tracks chronicle and explore the experiences of poor rural white folks with Whiskey Girl, Winter's Come & Gone, and Miner's Refrain. This staff favorite will move you with the brilliance of her simplicity. (AL80021) CD: 16.98

Gillian Welch Revival

I cannot understand how, but Gillian manages to convey the entire weight of the sadness in Appalachian/Deep Southern poor, rural lives on this 1995 release. Wring from her young heart, agonies tales of crushed hopes, death, bad luck and lives that never stood a chance are leavened only by steadfast faith in a fair shake when they "cross over." Simple arrangements, direct lyrics, and a delicately plain, but not overly plaintive singing style have grabbed us here at Ladyslipper and won't let us go. The easy-to-late twang of Orphan Girl, Tear My Stillhouse Down, Banquet Girls and By the Mark seem like timeless classics gathered in the back mountain hollers, but they are all her originals! Essential listening to regain your perspective on the important things. (AL80006) CD: 16.98

Gillian Welch Time (The Revelator)

This Grammy-nominated artist releases some of most passionate work for 2001. Recorded in Nashville and produced by her songwriting partner David Rawlings, this honest-from-the-heart journey in soulful storytelling features the hauntingly ethereal Revelator, as well as a live performance of I Want To Sing That Rock and Roll. As the LA Times says, "Gillian combines echoes of bluegrass musical purity with lyrics about troubled lives that carry the gritty authenticity of old black-and-white photos." (ACH103) CD: 16.98

Grace Griffith Minstrel Song

She's been one of our favorite vocalists since her days with the Celtic women's trio Connemara (when we compared her emotional resonance to that of Sandy Denny), and this 2000 release brings more expressive and graceful interpretations. Material ranges from traditional songs such as the Scottish ballad Searching for Lame and the Irish ballad Kind Friends and Companions, to contemporary works, such as the haunting Swallow Song by Richard Farnes and the reflective My Life by Its Dement. The album is enhanced by the fine musicianship of Al Petteway and a guest appearance by Dougie McClean, as well as excellent production by Marcy Marxer. (BLX10068) CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry Hush Now

This spellbinding artist pursues a new direction with her 2000 release, delivering eloquent, stripped-down interpretations of traditional American spirituals, plus traditional songs from Ireland, Scotland and elsewhere. Using vocal layering accompanied by minimalist keyboard and percussion, she creates vibrant, introspective renditions of such standards as Jacob's Ladder and Sing Low Sweet Chorus. Applying her angelic vocal work to these timeless classics, she manages to embellish the songs vocally without sacrificing their integrity. (SND121) CD: 16.98

Janis Ian Revenge

When Janis Ian performed songs from this 1995 album at the National Women's Music Festival, thousands of women were ecstatic, about her very "out" commentary as well as her artistry. Stolen Fire is a passionately angry piece written following a breakup, and When Angels Cry speaks movingly about AIDS. "Some say it's a judgment on us all, can't believe that God could be that small." This acclaimed songwriter — with a voice that can be touching in its delicacy or energizing in its vigor — is going strong in her comeback, over 30 years after her first major hit! (BEC81559) CD: 12.95

Janis Ian God and the FBI

If only there could be more artists like Janis — 30 years after she emerged as a prodigy, she's still singing and writing as powerfully as ever. Almost alone among her contemporaries, she has found a way to translate her extraordinary gifts into every era of modern American popular song. Yet another triumph, this album of distinct and memorable songs features a guest appearance from Willie Nelson on Memphis. Other standout tracks include the heartbreaking The Must Be Beautiful, and the priceless Boots Like Emmylou's. This 2000 album is the work of a woman whose talent has already carried her through one of the most impressive pop-music careers of our time. (WH11498) CD: 15.95

Janis Ian The Bottom Line Encore Collection

Recorded live at the Bottom Line in NYC in 1980, released in 1995, this is Janis' first live album ever, and features many of her internationally renowned compositions. Her contributions as a singer/songwriter have spanned 4 decades; included here are Society's Child, At Seventeen, Jesse, and Fly Too High, which were all Top 20 songs in the US, and Silly Habits, which was nominated for a Grammy in 1987. It's a virtual Greatest Hits Live! (BLR63440) CD: 16.98

Jess Klein Draw Them Near

This young Boston-based singer-songwriter seems to have appeared on the scene like a startling lightning bolt! (Of course, that's never really true. She has been nominated for the Boston Music Award 4 times, and has been opening for luminaries like Cate Curtis, Jill Sobule, 10,000 Maniacs, Luka Bloom and Richard Shindell.) Concurrent with this 2000 release, she's on the bill for the Newport Folk Festival. Her vibrant songs are full of passion, originality and soul. The Boston Phoenix said, "Her lyrical prowess evokes the smooth focused trajectory of a short story. If you haven't heard Jess Klein play, you're doing yourself a disservice." Well, what are you waiting for? (SRR56) CD: 13.95

Jo Miller and Laura Love Sing Bluegrass and Old-Time Music

Ranch Romance's lead singer and the inimitable Laura Love join forces on this '95 release of 15 lovely, intense, pretty much traditional bluegrass and old-time songs — most of them duets. Full of fast-paced raves, beautiful ballads, and yes, yodeling, it features accompaniment by the amazing oboe/mandolin player Orrville Johnson, plus Nancy Katz, Nova Devonia and David Keenan of Ranch Romance. Jo and Laura have been occasionally performing as the Jo Miller/Laura Love Connection, between their other commitments, and crowd response has been phenomenal, so if you haven't yet, catch their gig here! (ROC100) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Joan Baez Baez Sings Dylan

This 1996 collection of 20 classic tracks from 4 of Joan's albums from the 60's reintroduces performances from one of our most treasured singers interpreting the early work of the most important songwriter of our time... both timeless, as well as timely... relives the strong, lasting impact that both artists had on music, society and each other. Includes Farewell, Angelina, I Shall Be Released, Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, Don't Think Twice, It's All Right. (VAN75512) CD: 15.95

Joan Baez Best of Joan Baez/ Millennium Collection

11 of her best and most famous tracks appear on this 2000 release, including original songs such as Dido (performed with Joni Mitchell) and Diamonds and Rust; Violeta Parra's Gracías a la Vida; The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down; Janis Ian's Jesse; In the Quiet Morning (written by Joan's sister Mimi Fariña and performed for Janis Joplin) and other classics from this beloved singer-songwriter and song interpreter. (AM90418) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Joan Baez Diamonds & Rust

This classic contains her original Dido and title track; Janis Ian's Jesse; Jackson Browne's Fountain of Sorrow; and more. (AM3233) CS: 8.95 CD: 14.95

Joan Baez Gone From Danger

From Bob Dylan to Leonard Cohen and countless others, this golden-voiced artist has demonstrated an uncanny ability to identify brilliant new songwriters. On her 1997 release, she presents songs by new writers she deems important voices, including the critically acclaimed Dar Williams (February, If I Wrote You), Betty Elders, Sinead Lohan, and more. (GUA59357) CD: 15.95

Joan Baez Live at Newport

Contrary to what you might assume, almost all the songs on this 1996 album have never before been released! Recorded live at the 1963-1965 Newport Folk Festivals, when Joan's soprano was ruling the world, it includes All My Trials, Come All Ye Fair and Tender Maidens, Farewell Angelina, a duet with Mary Travers on Lonesome Valley, a duet with Peter Yarrow on Hush Little Baby, and duets with little Bobby Dylan on It Ain't Me Babe and With God On Our Side. Armed with an acoustic guitar, a mean vibrato and a great nobility of spirit, Joan bowed over the crowd sitting (?) on the grass and now you too can have that experience. (VAN77015) CD: 15.95

Joan Baez The First Ten Years (Double Set)

This double-album set contains eighteen of the best songs from Joan's earlier repertoire, includes Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, Mary Hamilton, Farewell Angelina, There But For Fortune, other Dylan, contemporary and traditional songs. (VAN65601) CS: 11.95 CD: 15.95

Joan Baez w/Indigos, Janis Ian, etc Ring Them Bells

Over 4 special nights in April '95, at NYC's Bottom Line, a remarkable array of women artists shared the spotlight with Joan Baez in an amazing celebration of the art and emasculation of American music. Songs include Jesse (with Janis Ian), Don't Think Twice It's All Right (with Indigo Girls), title track (with Mary Black), Swallow Song (with Joan's sister Mimi Fariña), Diamonds and Rust (with Mary-Chapin Carpenter), You're Aging Well (with Dar Williams), Pajarito Barranquero (with Tish Hinojosa), Willie Moore (with Kate and Annie McGarrin), and other Baez classics such as The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down. Even if you weren't one of the 1,200 folks lucky enough to be there for this historic event, you can still share these moments of great music and inspiring artistry. (GUA34969) CD: 16.95

Jonatha Brooke Steady Pull

As Jonatha Brooke's huge fan, I'm hesitant to use superlatives when describing her long-awaited 2001 release. There's really no other word for her talents, however, than excellent, as displayed in this incredible celebration of familiar emotions, unique viewpoints, and exciting new songwriting territory. There's a playful, seductive tint this time around, with hip-hop flavored beats, soaring pop-infused melodies, and sexy riffs like the title track, which features guest vocals by Michael Franti (Spearhead). Jonatha's bewitching voice turns each song to gold, transcending lush arrangements on Linger and Red Dress, while carrying the sparsely and lovely walls of Your House and Lullabye. Highly recommended! (BDR69801) CD: 17.95

Judy Collins Forever (2-CD Set)

This definitive 1997 retrospective from her entire 2-decade career on Elektra collects 31 of her treasured songs of yore, plus 4 new tracks that bring her legacy into the 90's. Featuring extensive notes by Judy plus an essay about the artist by Gloria Steinem, this 2-volume set truly contains the best of her best! With so many classics it's hard to know which to name here, but here's a short list: Suzanne, Prate Jenny, In My Life, Amazing Grace, Maid of Constant Sorrow, Bread and Roses, Since You've Asked, Children Morning, Who Knows Where the Time Goes, Bird on a Wire, Both Sides Now, plus so many more great songs and poignant memories! A must-have for baby boomers and folk lovers everywhere! (EL82104) CD: 24.95

Judy Collins Judy Sings Dylan Just Like a Woman

Great song interpreter, great songs, and great price; what more could you ask for? Includes Like A Rolling Stone, With God On Our Side, It's All Over Now Baby Blue, Love Minus Zero/No Limit, and of course, Just Like A Woman. (GEF24612) CD: 8.95

Judy Collins The Very Best of Judy Collins

She was a vanguard artist of the late 50's and early 60's folk boom, and this low-priced 2001 collection is a great retrospective of her work from 1954-1975, with 16 signature singles and prime tracks from her 9 albums on Elektra, every one a gem. Includes Suzanne, Who

Julie Miller Broken Things

Julie's a songwriter whose works have been covered by artists like Emmylou Harris, Gillian Welch and Lucinda Williams. Her debut Blue Pony drew critical raves, and this sparkling follow-up proves that her initial effort was no fluke. Almost all tracks on this 1999 release are originals, expressing complex emotions about the paradoxes of life and love. She's joined by Emmylou Harris, Victoria Williams, Patty Griffin, Steve Earle, and her husband/fourth partner and the album's producer, Buddy Miller. The song (recently also covered by Lucy Kaplansky on her 2001 release) has been a highlight of Julie's live performances. (HT8103) CD: 16.95

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Finally back in print, for real! The debut classic 1975 album by these Canadian sisters with "genetic" harmonies includes their beautiful original ballad Heart Like A Wheel, also featuring their third sister Janis on vocals and organ, which propelled them (and Linda Ronstadt) to fame and fortune. Instrumentation — accordion, fiddle, harmonica, guitar, banjo — and vocal style are drawn from French Canadian tradition, though most of the material is original. Also includes Tell My Sister, Jigsaw Puzzle of Life, Travelin' On For Jesus. (HAN4401) CD: 15.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle et al The McGarrigle Hour

This 1998 release serves as a celebration of the extended family of North American music by one of the greatest folk families of all time, with a cast of singers that includes (in addition to the McGarrigle sisters) Emmylou Harris, Linda Ronstadt, and Rufus Wainwright. This living retrospective touches on the work of Cole Porter, Charlie Poole, and of course a few McGarrigle classics such as NaCr. The sisters swap leads with their guests and expand the boundaries of their signature harmonies... any fan of this critically and popularly loved family will feel at home and satisfied. (HAN1417) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf Close To You

One of Kate's best-loved albums, originally released in 1981, we bring it back to Ladyslipper by popular request! Sweet harmonies, gentle rhythms, thoughtful lyrics, includes Across the Great Divide, Like A River, Friend of Mine, Unfinished Life. (RH71482) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Kate Wolf Give Yourself to Love (2-Set)

This live 1983 release of mostly previously-unrecorded material features Kate's long-time colleague Nina Gerber on mandolin, harmonica, guitar, and vocals throughout the "show." Most closely resembles her concerts and includes some songs by other musicians that she enjoyed performing over the years. Compiled from three performances, in San Francisco (Great American Music Hall), Davis, and Nevada City. Includes a live version of Redtail Hawk, and her originals Green Eyes and title song. (RH71483) CS: 14.98 CD: 24.98

Kate Wolf 0876 (CD) Kate Wolf Anthology/ Weaver of Visions

Subtitled Weaver of Visions, this track-packed, 2.5-hour 2000 2-CD set threads together 35 of the artist's best-known studio and live performances, recorded between 1975-1986. The songs were chosen by Kate for a 1989 retrospective, and by her collaborators, fans, friends, and family. Includes 2 previously-unreleased tracks, Shadow of a Life and The Minstrel, live versions of 5 classics from her 1985 Austin City Limits appearance: She Rises Like the Dolphin, Extra Rose, Unfinished Life, Safe at Anchor, Give Yourself to Love, Pacheco/The Redtail Hawk, The Wind Blows Wild, and other timeless and enduring songs. It's the definitive tribute to a great artist. (RH76896) CD: 29.98

Kate Wolf The Wind Blows Wild

This 1989 release contains all previously-unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's death at the young age of 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1986, the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously-unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Rising of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on... and on... through her still-growing discography. (RH71486) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall Fact and Fiction 0255 (CD)

This excellent 1992 release (we think it's her best ever) showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's), and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Gang of Four and B-52's). It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Out in the Country, and same with I Have My Reasons; cassettes now on sale; highly recommended! (HST10316) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall Thumbprint: Bootleg Demos

We're glad to make available this rare, limited-availability cassette for fans everywhere. Once again, her fine sense of melody creates a strong base for her raspy vocals and true-to-life lyrics. (And, not to worry, this collection is presented by Kristen herself — this isn't an artist-ripoff underground-type bootleg!) Some of these 10 tracks are studio recordings, while others were recorded in her own house. Atlanta artist Michelle Malone backs up on Long Way Down. Kristen has yet to let her audience down, and we know you'll enjoy this first-hand glimpse into the material she's been writing lately. (KH1) CS: 15.98

Libby Roderick If You See a Dream 0037 (CD)

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. By far the most popular song here is her internationally acclaimed, poignantly simple ballad, How Could Anyone Ever Tell You, which has been sung in everything from incest recovery groups to kindergarten classes to peace gatherings. Also notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; additionally includes When I Hear Music about the true roles of women, Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout, and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on these! An excellent debut album. (TRT1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick If the World Were My Lover 0340 (CD)

This feminist singer/songwriter just keeps getting better, as she proves on this 1993 release, which will truly move you to see the world as your lover. Includes the hauntingly beautiful title song; a hilarious country swing number Heaven Down Here; the poignant Because You Do; and Libby's first rock and roll song (!) Thunder, which warns of the rise of fundamentalism in US politics. We always recommend Libby! (TRT1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick Lay It All Down 0610 (CD)

When we heard the news about this 1997 release from the Alaskan chanteuse who chartered our new building with its first live concert, we were excited, as well as a bit curious. Could Libby really follow up her first three recordings with another collection of original, introspective, poetic, articulate, politically conscious and spiritually inspired songs? The answer is a definitive and resounding YES! Don't let the tender vocals fool you: Libby's power lies in her lyrics. Songs include I Wish I Still Believed in Angels, Road to Ecstasy, Hold Your Ground, Forgiveness, and Listen To a Devil (that's Jamie Sieber on cello — she's no devil tho!). (TRT1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick Thinking Like a Mountain 0346 (CD)

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including the title plus Is That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams. Go, Holy Thing to Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. Recommended! (TRT1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Lori B. Hurricane Child 0999 (CD)

The first (and title) track of this 1998 CD is beautifully stark in its confessional style and tripping waltz instrumentation. It's the perfect start to a lovely storm of an album that's an unapologetically emotional introduction to Lori B. Her acoustic, contemporary, broed-in-the-bone brand of folk feels like music she'd play just for you in your living room, as a way of telling you where she's been and what she's done. The songs are spare, poetic, simple golden threads, delivered in Lori's intimate style — a voice that whispers with intense clarity and instruments that range from electric and classical guitar to xylophone and glockenspiel, to toy piano. Recommended! (LOR1) CD: 15.98

Lucy Kaplansky Every Single Day NEW

For her 2001 release, Lucy turns her reflective eye on the many facets of being: love and longing, guilt and sorrow, promises and lies, hope and redemption. It features some great harmonies, most notably from Jennifer Kimball (about whom Lucy says "I have a new metaphor for what happens when we sing together: we jump off a cliff together, and then we fly!") as well as Cry Cry Cry co-member Richard Shindell plus Buddy Miller and John Gorka. In addition to 7 originals, she covers 4 songs by other artists such as Julie Miller's Broken Things — it's her way of paying homage to the work of writers she admires. (RHR154) CD: 15.98

Lucy Kaplansky Ten Year Night

Now that you've heard her as part of the Cry Cry Cry trio, isn't it time to explore her solo work again? This 1999 release, Lucy's third, combines a solid contemporary folk/roots-rock foundation with a tasty twinge of twang, always outdone by

Malvina Reynolds Ear to the Ground

2000 marks the centennial of this great songwriter/activist's birth, as well as the release of the first retrospective of her work. Recorded in the 60's and 70's, both studio and live, these powerful, political, sometimes somber, sometimes light-hearted songs address many issues still pertinent today: women's rights, workers' rights, environmental deterioration, social justice, and homogenization of culture. With extensive notes by musician Rosalie Sorrels, it includes Magic Penny, Little Boxes, Look On the Sunny Side, The Judge Said, Rose Marie, The Little Mouse, What Have They Done to the Rain?, It Isn't Nice, There's a Bottom Below. 21 in all, bound to include songs you've known by heart even if you didn't know the songwriter. She gifted the world with so much humor and insight (in fact, she was one of Ladyslipper's original inspirations), we're proud to offer this title in honor of her contributions. (SF40124) CD: 16.98

Mimi & Richard Farina Pack Up Your Sorrows/ Best of...

Great news for long-time fans: finally in 1999, this folk duo's best work is released on CD. Culled from 3 classic albums, Celebrations From a Grey Day (1965), Reflections in a Crystal Wind (1965), and Memories (1968), the set also features a previously-unreleased version of Tularem. Mimi is the younger sister of Joan Baez; Richard, songwriter (who hung out with Bob Dylan) and author of the cult classic Been Down So Long It Looks Like Up To Me, was killed in a motorcycle accident on his way to a publication party for his novel in 1968 (he was 30, she was 25). With their crystalline guitar, autoharp and dulcimer accompaniment, this album features all their best songs performed with their perfect harmonic vocal blend: Swallow Song, Raven Girl, Bold Marauder, Children of Darkness, House Un-American Blues Activity Dream, Hard-Living Loser, The Falcon, title track. 22 in all, full of rory humor, intense and haunting imagery, passionate political thought, and pathos. (VAN79536) CD: 15.98

Mollie O'Brien Things I Gave Away 0826 (CD)

This seasoned recording artist and superb song interpreter performs some jazzy and bluesy tunes — such as Abbey Lincoln's Throw It Away — in addition to the folkier ones, lending an airy, sultry mood to this 2000 release. Excellently produced by Nina Gerber, who also contributes acoustic and electric guitars. It's a wonderful, varied and satisfying collection. Join Mollie in a stylistic return to her formative years of performing in clubs... recommended! (SUG3919) CD: 15.98

Nina Gerber Not Before Noon NEW

In 2001 comes the debut solo release from a West Coast guitarist/producer whose musical presence has been felt for decades — in fact, she's been in the Ladyslipper pages for decades, since the 70's when we brought our readers the early works by Kate Wolf — they were steadfast musical companions. On this half-instrumental, half-vocal album, Nina collaborates with colleagues like Lucy Kaplansky, Vicki Randle, Terry Garthwaite, Rhianon and Linda Tillery in the acappella ensemble Da We Be's, Greg Brown, Jami Sieber, Barbara Higbie and others. Known as a musician's musician, she now shines in the spotlight. (GS101) CD: 15.98

Odetta Absolutely the Best

There are few artists whose first name conjures up an era, but mention Odetta and 60's folk and blues fans will recall a dramatic solo performer who cradled a guitar she called "Baby" while singing songs from her African-American heritage. Odetta introduced Americans and audiences worldwide to the power and dignity inherent in the stories that comprise African roots music and especially African-American folk, blues, and gospel. This 2000 collection honors her powerful message and influence with 18 of her best-loved songs, including Take This Hammer, Another Man Done Gone, Alabama Bound, Spiritual Trilogy, and many more. The title tells the truth: this is really the only Odetta album you need. (VS61078) CD: 16.98

Odetta
Lookin' For a Home

This 2001 tribute to Leadbelly is comprised of songs either written or made famous by Huddie Ledbetter, better known as Leadbelly. One of the first folk-blues and country-blues musicians to achieve fame among white audiences, his 500-song repertoire is full of classics like Midnight Special, Goodnight Irene, and Gallie Lee. It's a long-time coming as Odetta, often called the "female Leadbelly," has been performing and recording Leadbelly songs for years. She's now in her 70's, and her voice is as strong and impressive as ever. (MC0044) CD: 15.98

Odetta
To Ella

Recorded at the 1996 Kerrville Folk Festival on the night of Ella's death, this '96 release is not a jazz recording, on which Odetta sings Ella's material, but rather it honors Odetta's and Ella's shared roots in American gospel and folk music. Odetta fans will appreciate the matron's always powerful guitar and voice paying homage to one of the many women singers who've influenced her music. Ella fans will appreciate the insight into the musical traditions that inspired the jazz singer. "If ever there was a melting pot in this country, I think it's been in the music," Odetta says during the 27-minute medley Suite: Ancestors. And if there ever was a musician who respected the power of that music, it's Odetta. (SWF1012) CD: 12.98

Odetta
Best of the Vanguard Years

This 1999 compilation represents this amazing vocalist's golden period, featuring the repertoire most associated with her artistry: the chants and cries that rose out of the struggles of African Americans in the US. Songs from the Southern work camps, such as Cotton Fields and If I Had a Hammer, as well as Southern gospel traditional songs like Sometimes I Feel Like a Mothless Child are featured; also includes songs from her Carnegie Hall performances such as No More Auction Block For Me. Most feature the spare accompaniment of her guitar and (Spike's dad) Bill Lee's bass; a few feature a full band; and 3 previously unreleased tracks present her working with the blues, with piano/bass/drums. Over 60 min., extensive liner notes. (VAN79522) CD: 15.98

Odetta
The Best of Odetta: Ballads & Blues

Easily one of the most loved and lauded singers of our time, Odetta has been moving fans with her soaring vocals and passionate performances for decades. On this bargain-priced collection, we get a wonderful sampling of traditional folk songs like The Fox as well as classic gospel blues such as Glory, Glory. With a voice that is simultaneously loving, sorrowful, and penetrating, you can't help but get drawn in to the artistry that has made her one of the best. (LEG354) CD: 8.98

Over the Rhine
Good Dog Bad Dog

Getting their start just a stone's throw away from the Ohio river, this group has found much success as an underground phenomenon. The sound brings to mind great bands like Cowboy Junkies or The Sundays, but with a dreamy, intensely lyrical style that is all their own. Karin Bergquist's vocals are beautiful, ringing with a raw, honest purity that permeates the entire 1999 acoustic collection of home recordings, with its relaxed, informal feel yet excellent production. From the gloomy and pensive loneliness of Latter Days, to the perfect, bare heartache of Poughkeepsie, to blummy, sexy, slow final track, Go Down Easy, it feels like, as Karin puts it, "a handwritten diary, a secret love." (NA48787) CD: 15.98

Peggy Seeger/Scott: No Spring Chickens
Almost Commercially Viable

Artists like Peggy Seeger and Irene Scott, who call their duo No Spring Chickens, keep this reviewer going — commercial viability being the poor judge of quality that it is. Their deep roots in both traditional and contemporary folk flower beautifully on this album, resulting in a rich palette of songs clearly nourished by lives full of loving and critical engagement with the world. Timeless love songs, with a rich, almost bittersweet quality — songs of sexual politics (Give 'Em an Inch, about the inch of flesh on boy babies), "the sceptre that makes kingdoms, the key that opens doors, the reason why this little baby won't be scrubbing kitchen floors"), and political critique (A Good War) make this an album sure to miss the Top 40, but equally sure to delight the old folks among us. (GEP2) CD: 15.98

Pamela Means
Peals

This official bootleg is compiled from other bootlegs... made by both fans of Pamela, and by the artist herself. The 10 tracks — recorded in environments ranging from house concerts, to gigs at the Cambridge folk club Passim's, to super-charged noisy rock 'n' roll clubs — capture the artist at her best, which is live performance. All but 2 are previously unreleased, and all are originals, except for her cover of Bob Dylan's Maggie's Farm. It's her gift back to all her listeners and supporters. If you like Dr. Bronner's soap, you'll probably love Pamela! (That's no joke.) (WR1004) CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries
Hands

The long-awaited follow-up to Pat's 1992 debut Same Rain promises to become another folk classic. Rooted in the tradition of social activism through music, her 2001 release recounts the government's indifference to the struggles of American Indians (Indians), sweat shops in "Third World" countries (No Sweat), and the plight of migrant and rural workers (Cold Cup Of Water). The title song, written but never released by Phil Ochs, is a strong, pro-labor anthem. Pat also pays homage to activist songwriters before her by covering Bread And Roses and We Were There. Recommended! (APR1045) CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries
Same Rain

Back in our catalog, by popular demand! Pat's the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to anthemicize common struggles and triumphs. She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lovely self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed in the same rain. Common Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Pace the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Women's Music on the radio. Includes her well-known Never Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! (MFM360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin
Regrooving the Dream

This remarkable 2000 album from the incomparable Patty Larkin presents a cast of characters caught up in change. Patty turns the viewfinder on love, desire, the mailing of America... examining the charged emptiness of contemporary lives. Musically and lyrically she conjures up familiar forms and twists them ever so slightly, the sounds sleepied in the American melting pot of sound: samba, R&B, blues, Celtic, rock, folk, jazz. From the breathy, hypnotic Brazilian-tinged Only One and the R&B romp of Anytime The Man Thins It, to the multi-rhythmic Bag To Order and the uniquely incorporated cello in Mink Coat, this passionate and dynamic recording is full of new sounds and ideas. Says Patty, "We are forced to rethink things... — to regroove, to start again — to regroove the dream." (VAN79552) CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary
Songs of Conscience and Concern

Rather than a compilation of their hits, this 1999 album of yet-to-be-discovered treasures contains 15 songs not found on any "best of" albums, few previously released on CD. All but the new Don't Laugh At Me, which was recorded specifically for this release, are drawn from 20 albums recorded during their nearly 4-decade association — the lesser-known songs that inspired the 3 to keep on keeping on. Includes Sally Fingerhut's Home Is Where the Heart Is, Phil Ochs' There But For Fortune, Woody Guthrie's Pastures of Plenty, and Pete Seeger's Washin' That Time. (WB47292) CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary &... LifeLines

Better than a folk festival! This revered trio again shares the stage with a fabulous roster of artists they've sung with at festivals, marches and concerts: Ronnie Gilbert, Holly Near, Pete Seeger, Judy Collins, Carly and Lucy Simon, Richie Havens, B.B. King, Emmylou Harris, John Sebastian, Dave Van Ronk and others. They say, "We share the music on this album as if PPSM had expanded and added new members. And, in a way, that's what happened... The sum is greater than the parts; that's what folk music is all about." This 1995 release includes House of the Rising Sun, River of Jordan, and a duet between Mary Travers and Holly Near on Home Is Where the Heart Is. Sally Fingerhut's beautiful song about lesbian and gay relationships, alone worth the price of the album. Recommended! (WB45851) CD: 15.98

Red Letter Day
Beefcandy

The definition of beefcandy, as printed inside the album, is "a rich, sweet confection made with sugar and flavored with beef, sweet and meaty." I could not think of a more perfect way to describe this 2000 album. Suzanne Mallow and Andrea Jones take turns with lead vocals, providing a richness and diversity that equally displays both singers' unique styles — and, they both play a wide range of instruments including guitar, mandolin, percussion, sax, piano and woodbox. With the help of around 30 supporting musicians, their sound ranges from the sweetness of The Mumsins to the straight-up rock 'n' roll of Concrete Blonde. Recommended! (RLD704) CD: 14.98

Rosalie Sorrels
No Closing Chord/ Malvina Reynolds

Subtitled The Songs of Malvina Reynolds, this 2000 release pays loving tribute to the repertoire of a American Folk icon, as it celebrates the 100th birthday of this legendary topical singer-songwriter. It features mesmerizing vocals and richly adorned arrangements of some of the Pease Movement's most powerful songs, and a fabulous cast of players including Bonnie Raitt, Terry Garthwaite, Laurie Lewis and Barbara Higbie. A folk legend herself, Rosalie Sorrels is the perfect artist to deliver to the world this wonderful and significant collection. (RHR143) CD: 15.98

Sandy Denny
No More Sad Refrains (2-CD Set)

Subtitled The Anthology, this 2000 release is the definitive portrait of the distinguished and much-loved singer-songwriter. It features 34 career-spanning tracks, digitally remastered from the original analog tapes, including solo recordings, works with Fairport Convention, Fotheringay and The Bunch, plus singles and demos, many of which are hard-to-find. The accompanying 24-page book, with rare photos, complete annotation and commentary from her biographer, offers a perceptive look into the life and contributions of this talented woman. Songs include Who Knows Where the Time Goes, Listen, Listen, Like An Old Fashioned Waltz, When Will I Be Loved, Life Track and many more. Highly recommended! (AMS42747) CD: 29.98

Shana Scudder
Ask Again

We got a 2-in-1 deal with this one: a brand new Ladyslipper employee (who has written some of the excellent annotations you have read) and a terrific new artist to add to our catalog. This 1999 5-song EP, subtitled I Wonder If I Fit Into Your Resume of Beauty, is an exciting and promising debut, armed with just her guitar and her expressive, intense voice. Shana presents an engaging and self-assured range of emotions and sounds. She has a timbre reminiscent of Patti Smith, and a tuneful twang all her own that's complemented beautifully by her smart and straightforward songwriting. This impressive taste will leave you wanting more! (SJS1) CD: 9.98

Shawn Colvin
Whole New You

On this eagerly awaited 2001 release, her first album of originals in 5 years, this ace singer-songwriter offers a collection of songs investigating the nuances of the female psyche, coming to terms with the complexities of maturity, domesticity, human relationships and artistic growth. (COL69988) CD: 18.98

SONIA
LIVE at the Down Home

Recorded late 2000 in Johnson City, TN, this homecoming benefit had audience members weeping, even while giving this solo artist standing ovations. While confronting the hypocrisies and biases of our culture, her captivating songs convey a positive message of openness and optimism. This 2001 release includes some early favorites from SONIA's years with the duo disappear fear, Sexual Telepathy, Sink the Demagogue, Box of Tissues, plus songs from her solo repertoire such as Me, Too. (WIN2201) CD: 15.98

Susan Osborn
ReUnion

Her first album of original songs in 15 years, this 2000 release brings this extraordinary vocalist back to our catalog. From 1978-85, Susan was the vocalist with the Paul Winter Consort, recording with eagles, whales, and wolves and performing annual concerts at NYC's St. John the Divine. Her music is music of the spirit, joyful, soulful, full of heart and passion. If you've missed her, you'll find many worthwhile songs here. Nile pays tribute to her grandmother, while She Speaks celebrates the power and beauty of nature. (GT110) CD: 15.98

Susan Werner
Last of the Good Straight Girls

This 1995 release from Susan Werner is one of those albums you just can't quit listening to — kicking off with a delightfully catchy folk anthem, followed by one after another smart, fun, well-written songs. Her rich, evocative voice and expert guitar playing complement her great tunes. Back in stock due to popular demand! (PVT2125) CD: 15.98

Susan Werner
Midwestern Saturday Night

Christine Lavin has called this Philadelphia artist "the fastest rising new star in the folk world," and this 1993 studio debut backs up the claim. Highlights are the title song about an old-fashioned date, the humorous Rubber Gully Blues (see in the 90's), and the poignant Uncle John about the "unmarried" but not unloved family member. Accompaniment includes Julia Haines' Celtic harp, plus bass, percussion, harmonica, and Susan's piano, keyboards, and guitar. (SUS001) CD: 15.98

Suzanne Vega
Songs in Red and Gray

We heard someone say "This is Little Blue Thing grown up..." Suzanne continues to be one of the greatest folk-inspired singer-songwriters of her generation. She's a poet of the streets whose eye catches the motion and vibrant color of life that surrounds us all. With evocative images and clear-sighted truth, she transforms experiences into dark and beautiful art on her 2001 release. Includes (I'll Never Be) Your Maggie May, St. Clare, Priscilla, Widow's Walk, and Penitent. (AM493111) CD: 15.98

Terre Roche

The Sound of a Tree Falling

Terre Roche is a Bababoom. Or so she confesses since emerging from the Rockies. Her 1998 solo release is a startling musical landscape of secret places in the heart of a masterful storyteller. Like a portraitist's aural portrait, each dot is an amalgam of trip-comic circumstance. As in the title track, which draws a line between the crescendo of silence when a tree falls in the forest — or when a heart breaks — and no one is there to hear, the songs unravel like mini-movies about lives about to unravel on the road to redemption. Self-produced by Nobody, the CD nevertheless carries the imprint of its auteur: a winking, self-deprecating sense of irony, underscored by unwavering guitar virtuosity, and spare but elegant vocals joined on 3 by her sister Maggie, recalling that magical mix of voices from their debut LP 2+ decades ago. We're lucky Terre didn't follow her own advice on Bababoom where she urges "everybody hold on to your secrets." Our lives are anchored by her inability to hold onto hers. (ERW0001) CD: $9.98

Tracy Chapman

New Beginning

As a singer and songwriter, few artists can match Tracy's gentle but passionate vibrato, her literate lyrical compassion and her uncompromising stance. This 1995 album was recorded virtually live in the studio with her own band, and contains 11 songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her melodies and the depth of her emotions. Her voice rings clear and her vision shines true on the uplifting Heaven's Here On Earth, the tender love song Smoke and Ashes, the delicate longing of The Promise, and the spiritual I'm Ready. (EL61950) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Tracy Chapman

Telling Stories

This 2000 release blossoms with the same potent love that has become the trademark of this singer-songwriter, esteemed for her literate lyrical compassion and uncompromising stance. The up-tempo title track is pushed along by whirling keyboards, drum loops and sharp, straight guitar parts. Less than Strangers unfolds to the beat of diary pages turning to a breeze. Tracy and Emmylou Harris deliver lovely harmonies on The Only One, a tale of love lost through death, their voices waltz like smoke plumes through bone-dry guitars and mandolin strums. This album marks the auspicious return of one of the most compelling artists of our time. (EL62471) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Tracy Chapman

Her 1985 album made her the young singer-songwriter everyone was talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armistead. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs tell straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary. Her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Talkin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL60774) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Where Have All the Flowers Gone: 2-CD Set

Wow! We hardly know whether to begin with praise for the fabulous artists, the incredible range of songs, a recap of Pete Seeger's career in social change, or praise for the highly informative liner notes in this very highly recommended 1968 2-CD compilation. Veteran folkies will revel in hearing Otis Redding, Ronnie Gilbert, Judy Collins, PP&M, Tom Paxton, and The Weavers (to name a few) sing both well- and lesser-known songs written, arranged, or popularized by Pete. Readers whose parents listened to the aforementioned artists will be drawn in hearing Ani DiFranco, the Indigo Girls, Holly Near, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Bruce Springsteen (singing We Shall Overcome), Rodde Havens, Billy Bragg, Cordelia's Dad, Donovan, Bonnie Raitt, Tish Hinojosa, Nanci Griffith and others interpreting their choices from Pete's vast repertoire over 2 1/2 hours of music. Whatever your tastes, if you value superb musicianship... and/or engagement with the world, don't miss this album. (APR1024) CD: $9.98

Concerts for a Landmine Free World

Some years ago, Emmylou Harris became concerned about the prevalence of landmines used as weapons, mostly in "third world" countries, whose victims (90%) are civilians, often children. So in 1996 she organized a concert series to benefit the Campaign for a Landmine Free World, an organization designed to aid landmine victims as well as work for the removal of landmines. This 2001 compilation is a snapshot of that concert series, and is also a benefit for the Campaign. Included are selections by Emmylou Harris (of course), Mary Chapin Carpenter, Nanci Griffith, Gillian Welch, Patty Griffin, and more great singer-songwriters dedicated to this good cause. Remembering Kate Wolf...

Treasures Left Behind, part of the title of this 1998 tribute, perfectly describes this collection of rich and beautiful voices wrapped around Kate's haunting, timeless songs. In this poignant treat of an album, artists such as Cree Williamson & Trent Fure, Fretton & Greg Brown, Nanci Griffith, Lucinda Williams, Terry Garthwaite, Rosalee Sorrells, and Kathy Mattea offer graceful renditions of Give Yourself to Love, Comflower Blue, In China or A Woman's Heart, and more. Liner notes by each performer reflect on Kate's legacy to those of us left behind. As one artist says, "I don't know much about Kate Wolf's life and loves but in a few raw and tender lines, she sure knew a lot about mine." (RHR114) CD: $9.98

'Til We Outnumber 'Em/Woody Guthrie

Woody Guthrie's plainspoken lyrics decried social and political injustices have made him a primary influence on several generations of folk and rock musicians around the world. Songs like This Land Is Your Land and Deportee have left their mark on the American landscape. On this tribute album to Woody, produced by Ani DiFranco and released in 2000, Woody's songs — performed by Ani, Indigo Girls, Ani Guthrie, Billy Bragg, Country Joe McDonald, Bruce Springsteen, Ramblin' Jack Elliott and Dave Pirner at a 1996 Rock & Roll Hall of Fame concert, are juxtaposed with his stories and poems (delivered by son Arlo and narrator Tim Robbins). The result is no mere collection of randomly selected songs but a thoughtful, moving journey through the whole of Guthrie's life and work. (RIG019) CD: $9.98

FolkScene Collection Volume III

If you're a fan who wants to have everything released by Loreena McKennitt, you'll want this 2001 CD. It contains a previously unreleased live version of Huron "Betane" Fire Dance with a brand-new arrangement, recorded at a UCLA concert exclusively for FolkScene — an organization that creates great radio shows and CD compilations. This edition also features previously unreleased live tracks, recorded on-air, by Janis Ian (At Seventeen), Cheryl Wheeler, Kate Wolf, Rosie Flores & Katy Moffatt, Laurie Lewis, Jackson Browne, and other luminaries of the folk scene. The SilverWolf Story

This 1998 compilation provides us with a great collection of folk artists, all of whom are first-rate singer-songwriters. Contributors include Ani DiFranco, Dar Williams, Wendy Bucklew, Catie Curtis and Caroline Aiken, and you can even expect guest appearances by Shawn Colvin and the Indigo Girls. Don't miss Odetta's amazing version of Amazing Grace, which is possibly the highlight of this well-crafted collection. (SWF1013) CD: $9.98

Wendy Bucklew

Rage in the Ring

Now on sale! With her raw, rocking vocals and stripped-down acoustic accompaniment, this extraordinary singer-songwriter comes clearly across as an intense, brilliant artist who commands attention with every note. From the very title track to the bluesy, soulful Side Steppin', this recording (originally released in 1990, remastered and re-released in 1998) covers everything from love to family to politics. Recommended! (SWF1011) CD: $9.98

Wendy Bucklew

Asleep in the Swing

"Wendy Bucklew is cool," says Amy Ray, and that's the short of it. But if you need more, here's the scoop. Wendy's been the (barely) hidden gem of the Atlanta "electric folk" scene for years. One might describe her distinctive sound as "the love child of Janis Joplin and Rickie Lee Jones, with Joni Mitchell and Joan Osborne as the babysitters." This gal can play her bluesy acoustic guitar work as intense, with definite jazz influences and just a hint of Ani DiFranco. She uses her voice like another instrument, one moment wailing full-on, the next sliding and seeping all around the music like wisps of fog on a warm night. The combination is deeply magical and unforgettable! Listening to Wendy has often caused bursts of spontaneous sing-along in my vehicle (not that I could keep up with her, mind you), now it's your turn to roll up the windows in traffic! Recommended! Country

Dixie Chicks

Fly

Having gone from indie recording artists to mega-superstars in recent years, they follow up their multi-platinum major label debut Wide Open Spaces (the best-selling release by a duo or group in country music history) with this 1999 release. It contains 13 songs, all written or co-written by all 3 women, including the single Ready to Run (again record-setting, it's the first "Triple Crown" entry on the country charts in radio history). Greatest Gainer, Hot Shot Debut and Most New Stations in the first week! (MMT69678) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Dixie Chicks

Wide Open Spaces

By popular demand, we're now stocking their 1998 mainstream "debut," which as always ignores their long hard-working history, but be that as it may... 5x platinum, with 3 #1 singles, and 2 Grammy wins including Best Country Album. Includes There's Your Trouble, Tonight the Heartache's On Me, and title track. (MMT68195) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Dolly Parton

The Best There Is

From the leading lady of country, this 2000 low-priced collection includes Jolene, 9 to 5, I Will Always Love You, Hank, You Come Again, Coat of Many Colors, Do I Ever Cross Your Mind, Aqueduct Memories, 9 in All. How can you pass it up?? (BMG44780) CD: $9.98

Dolly Parton, Loretta Lynn, Tammy Wynette

Honky Tonk Angels

Dolly Parton, Loretta Lynn, Tammy Wynette... 3 veritable queens of country team up on this classic 1993 release. They alternate lead vocals, and add their light sweet harmonies on tunes like If I Were Your Man, Made Honky Tonk Angels — on which they're joined by Kitty Wells, Lovesick Blues — which features Patsy Cline, Lafayette, Linda Ronstadt's Silver Threads and Golden Needles, the gospel tune Wings of a Dove, and I Dreamed of a Hillybilly Heaven, recorded a few years before Tammy Wynette's death. We confess that somehow we missed this when it first came out, but no matter, it's still as great now as it was back then. (COL53414) CD: $9.98

Dolly Parton/ E Harris/ L Ronstadt

Trio

Dolly, Emmylou and Linda are together again in '98 so we thought it fitting to bring back in for you their original 1987 collaboration. Includes My Dear Companion, Widdowson, Those Memories of You, Hobo's Meditation, Farther Along, and more. (WB24491) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Dolly Parton/ E Harris/ L Ronstadt

Trio II

Three big voices, each a star in her own right, come together in a meteoric display of talent on this 1990 sequel to Trio. Covering songwriters like Maybelle, Sara and A.P. Carter, Jennifer Kimball, and Dolly herself, and singing lead in turn, Emmylou, Linda and Dolly create memorable magic. The lively mix of country and folk and the attendant skillful instrumentation set off the individual strengths and perfect harmonies of these balladeers. You'd have to walk a lot farther than a country mile to find anything surpassing the fun of I Feel the Blues, Movin' In, or the utter beauty of High Sierra and Do I Ever Cross Your Mind. This album shimmers! (EL62275) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Emmylou Harris

Red Dirt Girl

This 2000 release from the esteemed artist is almost entirely self-penned — except for one song by Patty Griffin, one of the guest vocalists here (along with Kate McGarrigle, Bruce Springsteen and Patty Scialfa). Songs include My Antonio, a duet with Dave Matthews, I Don't Wanna Talk About It Now, The Pearl, My Baby Needs a Shepherd, and title track. Critic's early response points to formidable success for this album — which will be richly deserved. (NON79616) CS: $9.98 CD: $9.98

Emmylou Harris

Anthology (2-CD Set)

In addition to bringing country music to people who never considered listening to something considered so "politically incorrect," Emmylou brought true country, as opposed to pop-country, to long-time country music fans. This amazing, 44-song collection chronicles her career from 1975-1997, when she brought many overshadowed songwriters into public awareness with her unique soprano twang and smart collaborations with other talented vocalists and musicians. Includes Sweet Dreams, The Bower, If I Needed You, Too Far Gone, and Wayfaring Stranger, among others. This 2001 set delivers 2+ hours of classic country by one of its greatest interpreters! (RH76709) CD: $9.98

Iris DeMent Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelina by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Ory). Most are originals, gems one-and-all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Hotter Than Mojave in My Heart and 30 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing — she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended. 1992 (WB46238) CD: 17.98

Iris DeMent The Way I Should

On this 1996 release, Iris looks out at the world and is not really thrilled about what she sees. Her voice, beautifully twangy, speaks for those who do not have a protective coating. Wasteland of the Free declares "We got preachers deatin' in politics and diamond mines and their speech is growin' increasingly unkind." Letter to Mom lances the shame of a woman who finally reveals that she had been sexually molested by her mother's boyfriend. There's a Wall in Washington is a ragged cry at the unhealed wounds of the Vietnam War. In a more personal vein, there is the self-explanatory I'll Take My Sorrow Straight. When My Morning Comes Around which instigated a serious bout of soul searching on my end, and a respite of cheerfulness in the Merle Haggard co-written This Kind of Happy. The final cut, Trouble, is a road house blues, devil-may-care duet with Delbert McClinton that warms us up before sending us out into the chilly night. I'll have another round of this, please. (WB46188) CD: 17.98

Lucinda Williams

Car Wheels on a Gravel Road 0716 (NEW)
With this 1996 release, her 1st in 8 years, Lucinda sets us down in a world of hot days, dusty roads, Ford Galaxies 500's, and empty bars in the late afternoon haze. No hot-dogging, lap-top-using cyber-people here; this is gritty life sung with a gritty voice and a twangin' guitar by a woman who knows that the simple life is everything but simple. If you like to linger, as I do, in the restless melancholy of half-healed memories while holding a cold long-neck, these Car Wheels give the smoothest ride there. Hey, it's country, alright? (MER558338) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lucinda Williams Essence

If you fell in love with Lucinda in Car Wheels on a Gravel Road and are expecting more of the same here, you will be disappointed — at first. But give it another listen, riding around in your car with the windows down on a rare, cool summer night, or home alone at night with candles lit, and then tell me this isn't the best album you've ever heard. Lucinda is a true poet and a brilliant artist; nowhere is that more evident than in this 2001 release. The songwriting on many songs, especially Blue and I Envy the Wind, rival that of Dylan and the title track is a disturbingly sexy, obsessive love song that will stay in your head for days. It's a gorgeous work of art that any lover of music and of words will savor. (LOS70197) CD: 15.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter Party Doll and Other Favorites

There's nothing like the rarity of obtaining an album for one or two songs and loving the whole thing. Her 1999 release is a refreshing "Best Of... Plus More!" that includes live versions of favorites like Down At The Twist And Shout, I Take My Chances, Stones in the Road, and Quiltin' Time. Additionally, she has furnished us with 3 new recordings and the unforgettable Grow Old With Me, which is from the John Lennon Tribute Album. After listening, I just had one question: "Do I get this on CD or cassette?" (COL58751) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter Time*Sex*Love

Like many contemporaries, Mary Chapin has opted for a mel-lower approach to her 2001 release. Unlike some other contemporaries, especially in other genres, she is still reaching out to her generation, singing about issues that affect many middle and working class adult women. Simple Life addresses the effort to maintain simplicity in a complicated world. The Long Way Home is about focusing on success and forgetting to enjoy life, and Love For Your Life advocates taking chances. Overall, the reflective tone invites the listener to pause for a moment and evaluate her life — are you who you want to be? (COL58178) CD: 17.98

Nanci Griffith Best of Nanci: Millenium Collection

This 2001 retrospective contains classics from a singer-songwriter who helped redefine the acoustic arena during 80's and 90's. Includes From a Distance, Trouble in the Fields, There's a Light Beyond These Woods, Mary Margaret, Lone Star State of Mind, Late Night Grand Hotel plus live versions of Once in a Very Blue Moon and Love at the Five and Dime and more. Blending the broad and the harsh reality, her songs emit a rare honesty through her trademark slice-of-life vignettes. (NCA170191) CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Clock Without Hands

Over the last decade, Nanci has become one of the most beloved artists of well-crafted country-folk-pop. This 2001 release is her first recording of originals since '97, and in many ways, the first album of regular songs since '94's Flyer. This vibrant, elegant collection of new originals, plus a few well-chosen covers, tells of stirrings and journeys of the heart and spirit. Includes Last Song For Mother, In the Wee Small Hours, Traveling Through This Part of You. (EL62680) CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Country Gold

This specially-priced album collects some of our favorite artist's best songs from 1985-1990. Trouble in the Fields, From a Distance, Once in a Very Blue Moon, I Wish It Would Rain, more. 10 songs at a great price! (MCA21000) CD: 7.98

Nanci Griffith Other Voices, Too: Trip 2 Bountiful

Imagine Odessa and Gillian Welch among the group singing harmony on The Weavers classic If I Had a Hammer, and you'll have only begun to scratch the surface of the talents represented on this tribute to songwriters Nanci has admired over the years. Subtitled A Trip Back to Bountiful, this 1998 album, like the movie it references, reflects a passion for a time and a place which have passed and yet which remain within reach to those who remember. Lucinda Williams, Delores Keane, Tish Hinojosa, Emmylou Harris, and countless others lend their voices on this journey to Bountiful and back again. (EL62235) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Nanci Griffith The Dust Bowl Symphony

On her 1999 release, Nanci has chosen 14 of her best-loved songs and recorded them anew with the backing of the London Symphony Orchestra, giving them a fresh warmth and coloring. Spanning 20-odd years of her songwriting, it includes Trouble in the Fields, Love at the Five and Dime (featuring Hootie and the Blowfish's Darus Rucker), Late Night Grand Hotel, and 1937 Pre-War Kimball, on which she duets with Beth Nielsen Chapman. (EL62418) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Stacey Earle Dancin' with Them That Brung Me

Full of understated charm and folk finesse, and featuring guest musician Sheryl Crow, this is folk/country pop at its very best. This 2000 sophomore effort from the sister of country star Steve Earle combines her knack for pretty, thoughtful songwriting with excellent production and great instrumentation, plus infectious tunes reflecting various influences (rock, blues, bluegrass) — resulting in an organic yet diverse collection of songs. Along with Stacey's skilful acoustic guitar, you'll hear accordion, mandolin, harmonium, and terrific lap steel guitar. Includes Kiss Her Goodnight, Why, and the rousing title track. (IGA312803) CD: 16.98

Various Artists Girls' Night Out

This budget-priced 2000 collection features 4 of the top female stars in country music — Sara Evans, Martina McBride, Mindy McCready and Lorie Morgan — taking turns on 3 tracks each. Includes Sara's Cryin' Game, Mindy's Ten Thousand Angels, Lorie's Go Away, and Martina's Happy Girl. (BMG45815) CD: 8.98

Various Artists Women of the Heartland

This fabulously-priced 2001 comp is a warm, musical quilt, threading together performances by a bevy of great contemporary female artists. No posers here! All know their musical history and, along with their gorgeous voices, poetic and often very personal lyrics plus old-fashioned musicianship, they have applied their appreciation of the past to their work, creating new songs relevant to women's lives today. Includes tracks by Dar Williams, Iris DeMent, Lucinda Williams, Victoria Williams, Emmylou Harris, Gillian Welch, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Rosanne Cash, Nanci Griffith, 16 in all. (RH76647) CD: 12.98

Gospel

Aretha Franklin Amazing Grace/Complete Recordings

This completely remastered, 90-minute, 2-CD set (1999 release) features all the material from the original album, unedited, plus bonus tracks from the 2 nights of these special 1972 concerts, when the Queen of Soul revisited her gospel roots at the LA New Temple Missionary Baptist Church. The original Top 10, double-platinum release won the Grammy for Best Gospel Album in 1972. Recorded with James Cleveland and the Southern Community Gospel Choir, in addition to Aretha's rock-steady Atlanta rhythm section, it contains gospel greats such as Mary Don't You Weep, Climbing Higher Mountains, and of course the title track. (Please note: the cassettes are not the remastered version, and do not have the bonus tracks.) (RH75627) CS: 12.98 CD: 24.98

Lavender Light Lesbian/Gay Gospel Choir Lavender Light

Lavender Light: The Black and People of All Colors Lesbian and Gay Gospel Choir is the complete name of this fabulous chorus — a one-of-a-kind group that has thrilled New York audiences for 8 years with their boundless energy and vocal mastery. And their 1994 release guarantees the rest of the world the opportunity! It spans the rich musical terrain of gospel music, with selections ranging from rocking, hand-clapping numbers to anthems to spirituals, including stunning arrangements of Over My Head, On Glory, and I've Been Baked. Founded to preserve the Black Gospel tradition in an environment supportive of lesbian and gay people, the choir brings a message of hope and inspiration that will make you shout for joy. (LVL1) CD: 14.98

Lavender Light Lesbian/Gay Gospel Choir Light in the House

They came, they conquered, and they blew the audience away. The Black and People of All Colors Lesbian and Gay Gospel Choir is one of the very best lesbian and gay choruses in the world — no doubt about it. In 2000 they took the GALA conference (Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses) by storm, again fulfilling their mission to "uplift, entertain and educate," as they always do, from Carnegie Hall to Queens, Gay Pride. Capturing the infectious energy of their performances, this 2000 live album roars like a funeral, good-time freight train with a backbeat. Their repertoire ranges from old-time gospel favorites to inspirational favorites, from spirituals to pop anthems revamped with a 21st-century praise-the-creator twist — from Shirley Caesar's Sweeping Through the City, to Oleta Adams' I've Gotta Sing My Song, to the fabulous Couldn't Keep It To Myself (where's the solo album from this amazing vocalist, Terry Spivey??). Don't keep it to yourself, this is a great gift item! (LVL2) CD: 16.98

Marsha Stevens The Waiting's Over

Christian Century called this professional gospel singer-songwriter "Conservative Christianity's worst nightmare — a God-fearing... Jesus-loving lesbian Christian." But Rev. Nancy Wilson of MCC says, "Of all the things that live on after us, Marsha's music may be what best expresses all that we tried to do and be for our community." From Jesus Wept, a song about her own childhood abuse, to Don't Change Me ("You know I got so afraid of you strikin' me straight that I forgit about You makin' me new"), her songs are especially welcome for lesbian and gay Christians, but are also recommended for folks who may be neither of the above, but simply appreciate good inspirational music. Includes a great gospel arrangement of The Solid Rock. (BLM188) CD: 14.98

Sisters of Glory Good News in Hard Times

"The universal and elemental force of gospel music, its message of good news and hope in hard times borne of a celebration of faith in a higher power, reaches beyond commercial considerations, religious affiliations, racial separations and age differences." This gospel super-group, which includes Albertina Walker, Phoebe Snow, Thealma Houston, CeCe Peniston, and Lois Walden, releases their debut in '95, following a classic performance at Woodstock '94. Includes Will the Circle Be Unbroken, Breathes Lord, and an unusual rendition of On Happy Day. Notes include an excellent historical overview of the genre and its pioneers. "Cut out" — Recommended! (WB45990) CD: 13.98

Various Artists The Great Gospel Women

This 1993 release spotlights the most legendary female figures in the gospel field, with over 70 minutes of all-time great gospel music performances. Contains 31 songs by 16 artists, including Mahalia Jackson, Willie Mae Ford Smith, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Marion Williams, Clara Ward, Cora Martin and others. An outstanding collection, and an excellent way to introduce yourself to many of the women who created and sustained this important African-American music genre. If you don't already know them, a style of music which has been passionate, dynamic, commanding, expressive, and improvisatory. (SHN6004) CD: 16.98

Aretha Franklin Aretha's Best

NEW!

20 hits from the Queen of Soul. Aretha has always possessed that rare quality of being able to bring tears to a listener's eyes with one powerful, piercing note. Almost every song on this 2001 collection reached #1 on the R&B charts, and garnered her 15 Grammys throughout her career. One of the most talented and influential singers of our time, Aretha has sung the soundtrack to generations, and collections like this help ensure that her classic works continue to receive the appreciation they deserve. These are songs to be treasured and shared — a fabulous gift! (RH74295) CD: 17.98

Aretha Franklin The Very Best of Aretha Franklin

Includes Respect, (You Make Me Feel Like A) Natural Woman, Do Right Woman — Do Right Man, Chain of Fools. In other words, just what the title says. (RH71598) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Erykah Badu Baduizm

There are few artists that can record a debut album and instantly have it considered a classic, but that is exactly what Erykah has done on this 1997 release. Her style is so fresh, her voice so beautiful (she's been compared to Billie Holiday) that as soon as I first heard this album, nothing else went into my CD player for weeks. Her songs are positive, loving, spiritual, funny and poignant. (And if you're not a fan of BET or MTV and have never had a chance to see Erykah's videos, try to give them a look. Not only did she write and produce her album, she directs her own videos, which are gems.) During a time when so much of current R&B is wallowing in a wasteland of name-dropping and label-flashing, Baduizm is such good food for the soul I'd be crying shame to miss it. Highly, highly recommended! (UNV53027) CS: 10.98 CD: 18.98

Erykah Badu Mama's Gun

Here's what's written about it: "Remember when you ventured into Big Ma's room on your summer vacation as a child. Remember when you found that gentle, sweet grandma had a big shiny thing in the closet where you weren't supposed to find it. Remember thinking 'Wow, Big Ma can protect me if she has to.' Well, Erykah Badu's Mama's Gun is here in music form to protect us from all the garbage we're fed in entertainment." Includes the hit single Sag Lady. (MOT53259) CD: 18.98

Etta James Heart of a Woman

"I dedicated my last album to the great men of the blues. I decided to do this one for the women. I wanted to do an album that would be truthful, one that women would love." On her 1999 release, bearing a dedication to Dinah Washington, Billie Holiday, Sarah Vaughan and Carmen McRae, one of the world's premier singers explores the heights and depths of a woman's life, through standards such as You Don't Know What Love Is and Only Women Bleed. Her deep, throaty voice holds strong over the sweeping movements that draw us in to a cathartic sense of loss, leaving us, wherever we have loved, nodding our heads with sad remembrance. And though many of these tracks have graced the throats of legends like Billie and Ella, Etta's modern blues interpretation makes them all her own. (PVT82180) CD: 16.98

Etta James Love Songs

NEW!

If there ever was an award show with a category for the most requested love songs, At Last would surely be the winner, and many of the songs on this 2001 collection would be runners-up. Many listeners have been introduced to the magnificent voice of Etta James through movies, commercials, and even weddings; she has become one of the voices of love and longing. This collection is Etta at her best, singing about love; even those who generally shy away from "love songs" will delight in this album of classic standards and soulful oldies. Tracks include At Last, A Sunday Kind of Love, Trust in Me, and a brand-new recording of Someone to Watch Over Me. Highly recommended! (NCA112498) CD: 15.98

Etta James Matriarch of the Blues

Over her long and illustrious career, Etta has been recognized as a master of R&B, blues, rock, pop, funk, and even country. While she scored her biggest hits with soul singles like Tell Mama, she achieved lasting fame with her pop ballad At Last. In 1993, she was inducted into the Rock 'N' Roll Hall of Fame and has been nominated for 6 Grammy Awards — and in 1994 earned her first Grammy for Mystery Lady: The Songs of Billie Holiday. On this 2000 release, Etta covers classic rock and R&B by Bob Dylan, The Rolling Stones, Otis Redding, Creedence Clearwater Revival, Elvis, AC/DC, and more, infusing each of them with the style that has made her a legend. (PVT82208) CD: 16.98

Gladys Knight & The Pips Midnight Train to Georgia

NEW!

This low-priced collection from one of the most popular soul/R&B acts of the 70's includes the #1 smash hit title track, plus Georgia On My Mind, Where Peaceful Waters Flow, So Sad the Song, Feel Like Makin' Love. 10 in all. (BMG44510) CD: 9.98

India.Arie Acoustic Soul

NEW!

It's not her debut album, but this 2001 release of folksy R&B should propel India.Arie into the national limelight. This gifted singer/songwriter/guitarist, with a richly textured voice and a spare but enveloping sound, brings to mind artists like Roberta Flack, Tracy Chapman and Bill Withers. Blending acoustic and hip-hop elements, her eloquent and inspiring songs on friendship, life and love include her first single Video plus Brown Skin, Courage and Wisdom, Nature, I See God in You. Stevie Wonder says, "A gentle genius lives in the mind, voice and hands of this woman." (MOT32770) CD: 18.98

Jill Scott Who Is Jill Scott? Words & Sounds

NEW!

If by some chance you've been out of the country, and you missed the buzz on this amazing woman, it's not too late to catch up. Jill Scott's 2000 release received 3 Grammy nominations, transcending color and genre lines, it proves that excellent music, coupled with a sense of individuality, can indeed act as a catalyst for success. This feminist singer/songwriter/poet/actress/activist has been glowingly compared to Lauryn Hill, and Erykah Badu, but the truth is that she has a style all her own: her mix of sexy, soulful, tunes and spoken word is evocative and unique. "She is for real, she is the moment, she is the thought you just had."

Recommended! (EPC62137) CD: 17.98

Lauryn Hill The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill

What an accomplishment. 1998 Grammy award-winner for Album of the Year, the first time a hip-hop album has won... and Lauryn received 5 Grammys, the most any woman has ever received. When hip-hop superheros The Fugees dropped their first album, critics said, "The guys should stop rapping, the girls should go solo." Well, the guys didn't stop, but the girl, Lauryn Hill, has delivered in this bomb-diggity of a solo album! Not only is her singing voice incredibly beautiful (check her ode to her newborn son Zion, Bob Marley's grandson), but she's got those crazy rhythmic skills. Doo Wop is the only #1 single this decade to be written, produced, and recorded solely by a woman. And her interpretation of Giant Take My Eyes Off of You has just got to be heard. Her lyrics are deep, conscious, and strongly feminist, and are perfectly combined with head-noddy beats as well as some slow grooves. I'm sure she has some faults; maybe she doesn't roll her toothpaste from the bottom or something. No faults on the album though! Get at it! (RFF69033) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Les Nubians Princesse Nubiennnes

These French sisters have stormed across the Atlantic with their 1999 debut. Combining hip-hop, jazz, and Afro-European soul, they take their much deserved place next to the likes of Erykah Badu and Lauryn Hill. With the exception of the socially conscious Sugar Cane, all songs are sung in French, offering the English speaker the chance to hear new combinations of vocal patterns and rhythmic sensibilities. Recorded with some of the cream of British soul and acid jazz musicians on board, the album declares a bold new sound in cross-cultural music. Be sure to check out their exciting cover of Sade's Taboo. (DM45997) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Macy Gray On How Life Is

"Listen to that VOICE, velvet shredded on switchblades and sapphires." ... Inspiring such comments, this 1999 debut is garnering major raves across many genre-lines. Characterized by a unique blend of straight-up soul and modern hip-hop, these 10 tracks feature original lyrics that tell snippets and stories of the artist's life. But it's her voice that's unmistakable, as intimate as the wee hours and as exciting as a packed nightclub; disarmingly sweet on one song, harsh and raspy on another. While the obvious comparison is to post-war Billie Holiday ("with beats"), there are traces of Abbey Lincoln, Nina Simone, Tina Turner. But at the end, she sounds like no one but herself. Includes Do Something, I've Committed Murder. (EPC69490) CS: 11.98 CD: 18.98

Macy Gray The Id

NEW!

This Grammy Award-winning artist, certified 3x Platinum for her debut release, offers a follow-up for 2001. The Id is "the part of the psyche that houses all primal urges," she has thus entitled it because it defines the emotions that force us to go with our gut, the kind of thing we do before we think about whether it's the right thing to do — the perfect title for an album that is as raw, honest and unflinching emotional as a first love. Contains Sweet Baby, an easy, winful rock 'n' roll ballad featuring background vocals from Erykah Badu. And if you order quickly before the first pressing is sold out, your CD will contain the bonus track Shed. (EPC65200) CD: 18.98

Me'Shell Ndege'Ocello Cookie (The Anthropological Mixtape)

NEW!

Jewelry and Gun Emporium is "a very open record with a lot of different styles pumping through it. I felt like I needed to do some social commentary on the R&B and hip-hop scene. The title explains my view of what I think is happening in the music industry." Blending old and more recent influences, this early 2002 release features guests Talib Kweli as well as Lalah Hathaway and Caron Wheeler, formerly of Soul II Soul, includes the single Hot Night (Revolutionary Soul Single) (MAV7) CD: 17.98

Me'Shell Ndege'Ocello Bitter

0798 ☎

Her first release in 3 years, this 1999 album from the acclaimed singer-songwriter is a highly personal, often gentle, sometimes sultry, more acoustic recording than her previous efforts. Produced by Craig Street, who has produced albums by k.d. lang and Cassandra Wilson among others, it includes Grace, Faithful, Adam, Eve, and title track. (MAV47439) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Missy Elliott Miss E... So Addictive

NEW!

The queen of hip-hop is back with a vengeance, proving once again to be one of the most creative forces in music, both as a musician and as a producer. This 2001 release is a terrific showcase of all this amazing woman is capable of, headed off by the rhythmically adventurous, weird, super-fun funk of Get Ur Freak On. She's got some excellent guest artists backing her up, like Jay-Z, Methodman, and the incomparable Eve. Find out just how addictive Ms. Misdemeanor really is! (EL62830) CD: 18.98

Various Artists Intimate Portrait: Women with Soul

This 1999 volume of the Intimate Portrait series offers a close-up view of the women who from the 70's to the 90's defined, expanded, and continually reinvented soul music. Such essential tracks as Sister Sledge's We Are Family and Labelle's Lady Marmalade stand proudly alongside modern classics like Donna Farris' I Know. Dance, learn, and swoon with this diverse sampling of smooth sounds and dynamic voices. (RH75812) CD: 12.98

Blues

Ann Rabson Struttin' My Stuff

This 2000 release, the first solo one in 3 years from Baffire's Ann Rabson, was well worth the wait. Ann has been picking the blues since age 4 and began playing the piano at age 35. Amazingly enough, today she is best known for her hard boogie-woogie and barrelhouse piano playing. She's a 6x W.C. Handy Award nominee — 3x for Female Traditional Blues Artist (her most recent in 2000) — and for Acoustic Album and Traditional Blues Album. You'll see why on this recording — 7 solo piano and vocal performances, 3 featuring Ann on guitar and vocals, and 5 blend cuts. There's plenty to keep your toes tappin'! (MCO041) CD: 15.98

Bessie Smith The Collection

0351 ☎

Released in 1989, this 15-song collection is a great introduction to this early blues/R&B Queen's heat. Her voluptuous, rich voice is incomparable on songs like Young Woman's Blues, Taint Nobody's Business If I Do, Gimme A Pigfoot, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, You've Been A Good Ole Wagon, Alberta Hunter and Love. Austin's Downhearted Blues, and many others. Includes ample liner notes, which many reviews don't, and sound's not bad, considering this is some of the earliest recorded music. Big Mama Thornton

Ball N' Chain

0352

This 60-minute album is an excellent Big Mama anthology, including Hound Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it, even though over 2 million copies were sold). The title song, which Big Mama wrote, was recorded also by Janis Joplin — but Big Mama never received any royalties, because she had to sign over the copyright in order to record it herself! (And please note that this artist died at age 57, in virtual financial destitution — how different it would have been had she been compensated for her tremendous contributions!) Other titles here are Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. Francine Reed

Shades of Blue

This Chicago-born diva, lauded by Bonnie Raitt as a "national treasure" and currently gracing the town of Atlanta with her presence, has recorded a stellar 1999 collection of jazz standards, blues, and R&B, interspersed with new songs that deserve to be standards. Among the highlights are a duet with her sister Margie Reed, I've Got a Right to Sing the Blues, and 3 songs written by Brenda Burns: the heartfelt ballad When Love Was New, the bluesy A Touch of Love, and the deep-soul I Have a Right to Know. If you appreciate great singing, don't miss experiencing this talent. (PLT9595) CD: 10.99

Gaye Adegbalola

Bitter Sweet Blues

0654

The very first song of this bewitching '99 solo release, from a founding member of Saffire — The (fabulous) Uppity Blues Women, pulls you up on your feet and gets you dancing. Each succeeding song casts some other kind of spell, whether it's the hypnotic sensuality of Need a Little Sugar in my Bowl, the chilling honesty of Fire, the raucous humor of Big Ovaries, Baby of the Night, Got a Hold on Me, the pure fun of You Ready Got a Hold on Me, the powerful original works with compelling covers of material by Ma Rainey (her lesbian song Prove It On Me Blues), Bessie Smith, and Nina Simone. This album produced by Rory Block (who also sings background vocals and plays a mean slide guitar) and featuring Yvette Barmore and Sweet Honey on background vocals is a must-hear, highly recommended. (ALL4870) CD: 15.99

Koko Taylor

Royal Blue

Appropriately entitled to convey the royalty of today's undisputed Queen of the Blues, this 2000 release ranges from foot-stomping barnburners to powerful slow blues. Among the 12 tracks and 4 originals, it includes her smokin' remake of Melissa Etheridge's Bring Me Some Water, the rockin' blues advice of Save Your Breath, the humorous warning in Don't Let Me Catch You (With Your Drawers Down), and the final bit of wisdom in Keep Your Mouth Shut And Your Eyes Wide Open. Koko's blues are hard-hitting, joyous and life-affirming. (ALL4873) CD: 15.99

Ma Rainey

The Mother of the Blues 1923-1928

No music collection is complete without a bit of the blues from the one and only Gertrude "Ma" Rainey. Her work is at once historically important and artistically brilliant, laying the ground work for the vocal stylings of nearly everyone who came after her. From broken-hearted lamentations such as Jalous Hearted Blues to tales of drunken reflection like Moonshine Blues, she shows us that the blues is as celebratory as it is sad. For anyone concerned with the contributions of women in music and American culture in general, this is a must-have title. (EPM159232) CD: 15.99

Marcia Ball

Presumed Innocent

This 2001 release (her 9th) is a tour-de-force of potent, imaginative songs fueled by leg-swinging boogie, deeply original, rocking blues and heart-stopping ballads... touching all of the styles and emotions of one of her unforgettable live shows. From the soulful You Make It Hard, to the pleading I Have the Right, to the foot-stomping declaration of independence Count the Days, to the heartbreaking Let the Tears Roll Down, it's her most emotionally candid and mature recording to date. (ALL4879) CD: 15.99

Odetta

0837

Blues Everywhere I Go

On her first full-length studio album in 14 years, Odetta conjures up the ghosts of Bessie Smith, Memphis Minnie, Alberta Hunter, Ma Rainey, among others, and passionately recreates the mood and the meaning of urban blues of the 1920's and 30's. Special guest Dr. John joins her on 2 songs, including a vocal duet on the Percy Mayfield classic Please Send Me Someone to Love. Maya Angelou contributes an intro to this 1999 release. (MC0038) CD: 15.99

Saffire

The Uppity Blues Women

0357

The Washington Post describes this 1999 CD as "Sassy, brassy, raunchy, racy blues and ragtime tunes with spickin' jellyroll harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their 2nd, it includes Evan Yuppies Got the Blues, Annie's Blues, Fess Up When You Mess Up, Yeah! (ALL4780) CD: 15.99

Saffire -- The Uppity Blues Women

Ain't Gonna Hush!

We hope they never will. Gaye Adegbalola, Ann Rabson, and Andrea Faye took up some more great tunes on this 2001 release, their first studio recording in half a decade, with loads of humor, passion and rollicking soul. It features fabulous originals like Coffee Flavored Kisses, Blues for Sharon Bottoms, and Happy Birthday to Me — plus covers of Birthday Suit, Nobody Ever Touched Me There and Sale track. Down home acoustic instrumentation includes guitar, piano, upright bass, mandolin, fiddle and harp. (ALL4880) CD: 15.99

Cleaning House

4533

Their previous release, Old, New, Borrowed and Blue, paid tribute to the classic blues performers who inspired them, but this 1996 album contains mostly original songs featuring their unique interpretation of the blues. The most popular blues act in the world, these 3 women mix downhome musical settings (acoustic guitar, upright bass, acoustic piano, plus harmonica and mandolin) with their contemporary, earthy (and sometimes bawdy) lyrical observations. Join their diverse following that includes devotees of classic blues, folk and women's music! (ALL4540) CD: 15.99

Hot Flash

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy blueswomen live, by all means get it! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles on their 1991 release include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1&2, No Need Fessin' On a Skunk. Lots of fun! Live & Uppity

4574

Their first live album, this 1998 release was recorded over 3 nights at the famous The Bams At Wolftrap in Alexandria, VA. In addition to fan favorites like Middle Aged Blues Boogie and (Mr. Insurance Man) Take Out That Thing, it contains new songs destined to become Saffire Classics (Silver Beaver, Cold Pizza & Warm Beer, The Thing That You Need) plus an inspired cover of the G&W classic Crazy! (ALL4856) CS: 9.99 CD: 15.99

After paying down to a duo for 1992's BroadCasting, the band is now a trio again with the addition of vocalist Andrea Faye McIntosh to founding members Gaye Adegbalola and Ann Rabson. This 1994 release is the band's musical tribute to the blues legends who inspired them, like Bessie Smith, Ma Rainey, Big Mama Thornton and Pinetop Smith. In addition to cover versions of some of their favorites by these and other artists, it also features band originals, including some of their most popular live material such as Do Your Duty, You Got To Know Her, and Food, Night Out. Essential for fans of classic blues! (ALL4825) CD: 15.99

Shemekia Copeland

Turn the Heat Up

Wow, it's hot in here! This 1998 debut album of scorching urban blues is like Texas Pete on some down-home pit-cooked barbecue ribs. Shemekia's voice is hot sauce over smooth soul. Daughter of blues guitar legend Johnny Copeland, she started young, singing onstage with her father at the Cotton Club when she was only 8. In the 11 years since, she has developed her own distinctive style, a fusion of traditional Delta blues, Memphis soul, gospel and the unique flavors of Harlem, where she grew up listening to street musicians by day and singing smoky club blues by night. Kick back and let her roar your blues away! (ALL4857) CD: 15.99

Shemekia Copeland

Wicked

Having been recognized and celebrated for years in the blues community, her sophomore album may well bump Shemekia into the mainstream. She won 4 1998 Living Blues Awards — 2 from readers and 2 from critics — and her debut spent 4 months at #1 on the Living Blues Radio Chart, an unprecedented feat for any debut artist. This 2000 release skillfully showcases the qualities that garnered her such renown: her stunningly powerful voice and breathtaking command of blues rapture. Tracks such as Wild, Wild Woman, and It's 2 A.M. show her ability to really rock out with R&B flair, while Beat Up Guitar demonstrates that she can sing old-style blues with the best of them. Includes a guest appearance by Ruth Brown. (ALL4876) CD: 15.99

Sue Foley

Love Comin' Down

Sue Foley's 2003 release has secured her a position squarely at the forefront of contemporary blues/rock. With a voice that combines the country grit of Lucinda Williams (in fact, it features a guest appearance by Lucinda who is Sue's new fiancé) and the bluesy passion of Bonnie Raitt, Foley's songs will get under your skin. Evoking the heat of a summer night in Memphis, songs range from the slow, sexy, smoldering Same Thing to the raucous, toe-tapping honky-tonk of Let Me Drive. In addition to her great song-writing, Foley is an accomplished blues guitarist and the album is testimony to her excellent musicianship. Highly recommended! (SHN8036) CD: 15.99

Susan Tedeschi

4570

This relative newcomer to the blues, who is making waves with her powerful and soulful vocals as well as her guitar prowess, shows her stuff on this 1999 release. From straight-ahead blues such as Junior Wells' Little By Little and a rocking update of Mama, He Treats Your Daughter Mean (originally made famous by Ruth Brown), to the soul, gospel and R&B shades of I Hurt So Bad, Angel From Montgomery and the track, she demonstrates her ability to draw out the emotion, tension and feeling of the lyrics. She's joined by harmonica-blower Annie Raines and others. (TCL1164) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.99

Fresh, Raw, & LIVE!

Nothing matches the intensity of these women live, taken and enjoyed as the groove gets deeper and wider as the night goes on! The band has toured nonstop for the last 6 years, creating a loyal following of "Gatorheads" with their funky blues style. Their 1999 release has a variety of mood-enhancing favorites from their 3 previous studio albums along with a great cover of Half Moon (originally by Janis Joplin). The catchy Enough Of You is still in my head, and I can't forget the infectious Don't Burn Baby/Want To Take You Higher. Also includes Sister's Love, and Dr. John's Right Place Wrong Time. It's time to dust off my CD rack for this newcomer! (BMS1289) CS: 9.99 CD: 14.99

3 incredible R&B singers together on 1 fabulous 1998 album! It's mostly upbeat Southern soul, country, and party music — which they obviously had a blast recording! — with an all-star back-up band of Memphis and New Orleans players contributing to this real down-home stomp. Each singer has her moment as a soloist, but the 3-part harmonies truly shine when they come together. The slower songs are delivered with waves of soulful emotion, as each woman pulls her heart into every verse. Be sure not to miss 3 masters of their craft, doing what they do best! Alice Coltrane

Journey in Satchidananda

Blessedly back in print! Before there was "New Age," there was an amazing composer and instrumentalist... who fused her knowledge of world music, jazz, and Eastern spirituality, and created sounds that were to become foundations for a genre. Recorded in 1970, this album combines her virtuosity on harp and piano with Pharoah Sanders' most excellent transcendental soprano sax, plus tamboura and oud, yielding original compositions that are evocative, meditative, searching, yearning, and just simply beautiful. Includes title, Isis and Osiris, Something About John Coltrane, Shiva-Loka. A personal favorite of this reviewer 25 years ago, and still highly recommended! (IMP228) CD: 17.98

Billie Holiday

The Billie Holiday Songbook

This excellent anthology includes one of the very few in-print issues of Strange Fruit — about the lynching of African-Americans. It was one of the most haunting and significant recordings she ever made. Banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio, it is frequently omitted from anthologies even today. Also: Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song, clear sound, we recommend this collection highly. (VRV23246) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!

Containing works by Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Lena Horne and Sarah Washington, this 1994 collection has been growing and changing since the release of "Ella, Lena and Billie" in 1956. Featuring some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever, it includes Billie's What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's East of the Sun (And West of the Moon). Billy Tipton Memorial Sax. Quartet

Box

This women's saxophone quartet is named in honor of the late sax player and jazz band leader who lived her life passing as a man in order to be accepted as a serious musician. The "all sax all the time" configuration (solidly grounded by ex-Two Nice Girls drummer Pam Barger) makes for an unusual and arresting listening experience: funk, punk, New Orleans, klezmer and Eastern European folk tunes. This 1996 release features a frisky mix of up-tempo romps like Tri-Mook and Disgruntled Postal Worker, the traditional Cajun tune Belle, as well as the Jimi Hendrix Miles Davis hybrid At Manic Thrown in for added favor. Their brave new frontier of jazz is where avant-garde runs into the listenably fun! (NWL80495) CD: 14.98

Diana Krall

Stepping Out

Back in stock, and with an extra track! On this re-release of her 1992 debut album, we see the seeds of a brilliant and successful jazz singer/pianist. Performing standards from the likes of Duke Ellington as well as an original thrown in for extra sass, her gorgeous voice and expert instrumentation will have your heart aching in no time. Subtle backing on bass and drums completes the picture of artistic mastery that draws the listener in close to the tears that run through these songs. Sit back, relax, light some candles and let one of the smoothest voices of our time take you away. (JIT50) CD: 16.98

Diana Krall

The Look of Love

Diana's star has risen to a point that transcends jazz. Her 2001 release maintains her emphasis on songbook standards, with a level of musicianship bound to captivate anyone and everyone privileged to hear it. Includes George and Ira Gershwin's S Wonderful, Hoagy Carmichael's I Get Along Without You Very Well, Johnny Mercer's I Remember You, Burt Bacharach and Hal David's The Look of Love, and more... with accompaniment from top musicians like Paulinho Da Costa on percussion, Donny Catron on guitar, and the London Symphony Orchestra. Diana Krall

When I Look in Your Eyes

There is no other adjective for this 1999 recording than beautiful — from the heart-hugging cover photo, to the graceful orchestrations of Johnny Mandel, to, of course, Diana's startlingly dynamic yet smooth interpretations of 13 entrancing selections. Her gift is her ability to capture the moment, the essence of the story — "the goosebump factor," as described by Grammy-winning producer Tommy LiPuma. Songs range from the playful Popsicle Toss to the seductive Do It Again, to her interpretations of popular standards such as Let's Face the Music and Dance, Devil May Care, and a bossa nova arrangement of Cole Porter's I've Got You Under My Skin. Blue Gardenia

The queen of sultry songs returns with her sexiest sizzler to date! Chock-full of some of the best jazz ballads ever written, this 2001 release includes a one-time vocal performance by Etta's mom, Dorothy Leatherwood, on the title track. Also includes Don't Let the Sun Catch You Crying, The Bitter Earth, There Is No Greater Love and more. (PVT11580) CD: 17.98

Mystery Lady: Songs/ Billie Holiday

This album of Billie Holiday tunes might seem somewhat unusual to longtime Etta fans, who know her for her hard-hitting rhythm and blues, but after one listen it's obvious she is more than capable of beautifully interpreting some of Billie's most soulful, heartbreaking songs. Dedicated to her mother Dorothy as well as to Billie Holiday, Mystery Lady is a reflective look back on the people and music that shaped her. "It took a long time to get to Mystery Lady, because these songs require maturity... They're quiet songs, inside the heart songs." Beautifully accompanied by Cedar Walton on piano and Red Holloway on saxophone. (PVT2114) CD: 15.98

Eve Cornelious

I Feel Like Some Jazz Today

This highly decorated up-and-coming jazz vocalist, from our hometown of Durham, takes another step towards stardom with the second release on her own label. Along with hubby Chip Crawford, Eve casts a wide net of vocal talents that has a smidge of Billie's mystery and a heaping spoonful of Lena's energy and sass. This 1999 album combines standards such as My Funny Valentine with 4 refreshing tracks that feature original music and lyrics. Reflecting years of focused study and performance, their final presentation is a unified and mature exploration of her talent. (PLX9904) CD: 15.98

Flora Purim

Perpetual Emotion

Queen of Brazilian jazz, this seasoned vocalist is well-known to US audiences from her long-time performing partnership with Airta Morais. On her 2001 release, her sensuous voice adds spontaneity and fire to classic originals. Brazilian jazz and classic songs by Chick Corea, McCoy Tyner, Ira Gershwin and Kurt Weill — at the powerful juncture where Brazilian music and jazz meet. You'll see why she's a 4-time winner of Downbeat's Best Female Jazz Vocalist award, and a 2-time Grammy nominee for Best Female Jazz performance. Features contributions by Airta as well as Oscar Castro Neves. (NAS0625) CD: 15.98

Jane Monheit

Come Dream With Me

This 2001 recording is charting runaway sales at its release — over 40,000 in 7 weeks — a major accomplishment for a jazz artist. This stellar second album showcases her easy command of melody, phrasing and lyric interpretation, but also reflects maturity, growth and confidence. She's joined by some of the most talented musicians in jazz, on the beautiful ballad rendition of Somewhere Over the Rainbow, the samba feel of Waters of March, the uptempo groove of Nobody Else But Me and the subtle swing of Hit The Road To Dreamland. (NCM4219) CD: 17.98

Jane Monheit

Never Never Land

Her voice resounds with clarity and range, her sense of phrasing belies her young age. With a wonderfully fresh approach to classic repertoire and an all-star cast (including bassist Ron Carter), this 2000 debut has shot right up the charts. Sparkling renditions of classics such as Save Your Love For Me, Twisted and Never Let Me Go are performed with vitality, charm and class. (NCM4207) CD: 18.98

Lea DeLaria

Play It Cool

Happily you already know this artist as an outrageous breakthrough lesbian comic, and have had a hint of her jazz talent from her debut recording Bullylike in a China Shop. Finally, we all get to experience her musical talent in depth. On her 2001 release, backed by some of contemporary jazz's best players, she makes her all-music debut featuring many songs not ordinarily associated with jazz, from Broadway composers such as Stephen Sondheim to pop and songwriters such as Randy Newman and Tom Waits. But then, Lea has never been ordinary. Includes All That Jazz, Loosing My Mind, With Every Breath I Take. (WB47993) CD: 17.98

Marian McPartland

The Music of Mary Lou Williams

This 1994 album from the great jazz pianist Marian McPartland marks the first time anyone has ever recorded an entire album of the legendary Mary Lou Williams' timeless music (besides the composer/pianist herself). Of the 14 tunes in this heartfelt tribute, 11 were penned by Ms. Williams, most of them based on the blues. Of the 3 non-MLW cuts, 2 were favorites of hers: It's a Grand Night for Swingin' (her theme song) and My Blue Heaven; the other, Therapy, is a McPartland floating waltz dedicated to Mary Lou. The stripped down sound of the pianobassdrums format ensures delightful treatment of such classics as What's Your Story, Morning Glory?, to which someone else's later and more famous tune, Black Coffee, seems eerily similar (Hmmm...). A must-have for jazz fans or any fans of great American music! (CJ4605) CD: 16.98

Nina Simone

Bittersweet: The Very Best of...

This 2000 release is the first to feature Nina's works from 4 record labels on 1 disc. Covering 1957-1971, it contains 18 important tracks, including the controversial Mississippi Goddam, To Be Young, Gifted and Black, Blues For Mama, I Want a Little Sugar in My Bowl, I Loves You Fanny, the recently discovered Jelly Roll, My Baby Just Cares For Me, Don't Smoke in Bed, and more. Remastered from the best possible source tapes, this collection includes an extensive essay from noted Nina writer David Nathan. Despite never having enjoyed true crossover success, this remarkable artist has proven herself to be a star in her own right and her beautiful, classic songs have never been without a large audience and a strong following. (BDA77010) CD: 16.98

Nina Simone

The Best of Nina Simone

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes blacklisted and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Pirate Jenny, plus Four Women, See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You, which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHP822846) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patricia Barber

Nightclub

This 2000 recording of jazz standards has been a long time in coming — in fact, since the beginning of Patricia's career, over 20 years ago, devoted fans have been asking her for such a collection. These songs have always been a part of my repertoire and are a big part of who I am, but I wanted to try and define myself in a different way before making a record like this. Within simple approaches, she maintains her individuality, jazz traditionalists will hear an astonishing voice inside well-known melodies, giving itself over to the song, as the American popular songbook is given new life by one of the most expressive vocalists in contemporary music. Rosemary Clooney 70

To celebrate Rosemary's 70th birthday, here's a collage of musical snapshots representing the best performances from her many acclaimed recordings on the Concord label. And for an extra special treat, guests k.d. lang and Linda Ronstadt join her on the Gershwin tune Our Love Is Here To Stay, the one new track on this 1998 album. (CJ4804) CD: 16.98

Sue Palmer

Boogie Woogie & Motel Swing

Her email address begins "suequeenofboogiewoogiepiano" and she's not fooling, anyone who hears this 1999 CD will immediately concur with the title. This woman's amazing! (If you've heard Candy Kane's recordings you've probably heard Sue Palmer's wild keyboards already. Or, maybe you've experienced her at west coast Lesbian and Gay Prides, or performing with artists like Lea DeLaria and Sue Foley, or on the Roseanne show.) On these great tunes, about half of which are originals, she's well-backed by Sharon Shuffett on drums, April West on trombone (both women co-produced this disc with Sue) and other jazz instrumentalists. She dedicates this to a bevy of great pianists down through the ages, many of whom are women (Mary Lou Williams, Katie Webster, Lil Armstrong, Dorothy Donegan.). Sue is clearly of the same lightning-fingered lineage. Recommended! (SUE1) CD: 15.98

Suede

Barely Blue

This long-awaited late-1999 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy/bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister, My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Bucchino songs, I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Bucchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Suede

Easily Suede

The release of Suede's solo debut album in 1988 was long anticipated. It features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home... her music that is. The CD has a few bonus tracks! (EAS1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

On the Day We Met 0832 (CD)
 This anxiously-awaited, four-track, live 2001 release, Suede's first new recording in many years, includes Moon Dance, Sugar in My Bowl, Emily Remick, Miss New Orleans, Harold Arlen Medley, Dream a Little Dream, Built for Comfort and more! From jazz scat à la Ella to naughty blues, to love ballads that will make you swoon... in the words of the venerable Kate Clinton, "No kidding, Suede's voice will blow your hair back!" Not only is this a live recording, but it was recorded in one take at The Birchmere in Alexandria, VA and it still sounds fabulously polished. It's a wonderful, fun album of great songs, interpreted by this most talented jazz singer. (EAS1003) CD: 15.98

Crystal Gayle 0760 (CD)
Heart & Soul of Hoagy Carmichael
 Now out of print, and on sale! This country artist changes gears here, warmly paying tribute to one of the greatest songwriters of all time: Hoagy Carmichael was an early jazz musician and composer who helped pioneer the genre before it even had a name. Her inspiration for this 1999 release came when they performed several duets together on the TV special "Country Comes Home" when Hoagy was 81 years old. This self-produced album contains many of Hoagy's most beloved and well-known compositions, such as Heart and Soul, Georgia On My Mind, Lazy River, and Rockin' Chair. (PLT332) CD: 10.98

Dinah Shore
Fascination: The Encore Collection
 For the nostalgic among us, one of the top singers during the 50's offers up a sampling of the tunes that made her America's sweetheart. This 2000 budget-priced CD includes I Could Have Danced All Night, Fascination, Deep Purple, Whatever Lola Wants, Personality, and 5 more. (BMG44507) CD: 8.98

Judy Garland
Judy at Carnegie Hall (2-CD Set)
 On 24 karat gold-plated CD's for the ultimate in sound quality, this landmark 2000 2-CD set presents the time-honored diva at the peak of her career. And, for the first time, this material is presented in the same sequence as the actual performance. Recorded live in 1951, this widely-acclaimed concert was characterized as incredible and supercharged. Includes Me and My Gal, Over the Rainbow, Stompy Weather, The Man That Got Away, The Trolley Song, Puttin' On the Ritz, 26 in all, includes sweet booklet and 2 sets of liner notes. (DCC1135) CD: 48.98

Judy Garland 0760 (CD)
Over the Rainbow/ The Very Best Of
 The lady is eternal. The original diva and as electrifying a performer to ever record or hit a stage, Judy packed a musical wallop few before or since have equaled. With her big, versatile voice, her range stretched from the most tender ballads to the biggest show-stoppers. Included on this 2001 release are the hits that made her a legend: Over the Rainbow, Zing! Went the Strings of My Heart, I'm Nobody's Baby, The Trolley Song, For Me and My Gal (duet with Gene Kelly), Friendship (duet with Johnny Mercer), Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas, 19 tracks in all. (DEC112691) CD: 18.98

Linda Eder 0760 (CD)
It's Time
 One of the best of the new school of Broadway-esque pop songstress is enjoying extended success with this 1997 release. The combination of her soaring dramatic voice, along with repertoire from Frank Wildhorn and Jack Murphy, puts Linda in a class with Doris Day and Barbra Streisand. In addition to the originals by her writing team, she lends her voice to such standards as Man Of La Mancha and Over the Rainbow. (ATL82977) CD: 16.98

Liza Minnelli 0940 (CD)
16 Biggest Hits
 This 2000 CD compilation brings together for the first time many of the tunes that have marked Liza's extraordinary career. Includes her signature songs Cabaret and Theme from New York, New York, as well as hits like All That Jazz, Bye Bye Birdie, Say Liza, Old Friend, and more. 16 in all. (COL53778) CD: 15.98

Marlene Dietrich
The Cosmopolitan Marlene Dietrich
 The first time I heard the jaded, heavily-accented, singing of Ms. Dietrich, I really did not understand her appeal. I'm all grown up now and, sounds, she just moves me! This compilation of 18 well-mastered recordings from the early 1950's, with an equal breakdown of German and English lyrics renderings, cooos with her powerful sexuality. I swear that she turns The Surrey With the Fringe on Top, sung in her native tongue (the usually-extremely-anti-sexy German) into sheer seduction. Also includes the song that first made the world sit up and take notice, Falling in Love Again from the film Blue Angel, plus two versions of Lili Marlene, an international smash on both sides of the WWI battle line. (COL53209) CD: 15.98

Peggy Lee
Bewitching-Lee... Her Greatest Hits
 "Sultry" Peggy is perfect for setting the mood in anyone's lounge of love... just pop in this 1999 re-release of greatest hits, and let the rhythm of love be your guide! Features the pop-charting hits Fever and Is That All There Is? (a.k.a. Ellen's song - her infernal coming out moment), and 12 more. This timeless piece of Americana includes all the original album artwork, and has been mastered directly from the original master tapes for premium sound quality. (DCC179) CD: 13.98

Sarah Brightman
Eden
 This anxiously-awaited 1999 release blends the artist's imitable interpretations of classical material such as Nessun Dorma and Nella Fantasia with haunting ballads (The Last Words You Said and Only An Ocean Away) and more pop-leaning material (title track and Deliver Me). As she mixes a host of influences, instruments and languages - deftly shifting from opera to film music to pop, from Italian to English to Spanish - the common element is always her gorgeous voice. Welcome to paradise! (ANG56759) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah Brightman
Time To Say Goodbye
 This international star of the musical stage, who was married to Andrew Lloyd Weber and inspired his Phantom of the Opera, presents a stylistically diverse 1997 album, with dramatic renditions of songs from Queen and the Gipsy Kings to Mozart and Puccini. The centerpiece is the hypnotic, bel canto title track, performed with Italy's superstar tenor, Andrea Bocelli. Accompanied by the London Symphony Orchestra, she deftly combines elements of pop, musical theater and the classical genre in a manner that underscores her reputation as one of the world's leading divas. (ANG56511) CD: 16.98

Sarah Brightman
La Luna
 This 2000 recording, which charted all over Europe before its U.S. release, features another mix of classical and pop stylings. Plus bonus tracks not on the European edition! In addition to the title track by Dvorak, it includes Hijo de La Luna by J.M. Cano, the traditional Scarborough Fair, How Fair This Place, which she herself adapted from Rachmaninov's music and lyrics, Prociol Harum's Whiter Shade of Pale, the bluesy Gloomy Sunday, and other from Beethoven, Dvorak, Brothers Gibb and more, performed in English, French, Spanish and Italian. (ANG56968) CD: 17.98

Sarah Brightman
The Andrew Lloyd Weber Collection
 One of the most exciting collaborations in musical theatre is that of composer/impressionist Andrew Lloyd Weber and singer/actress Sarah Brightman. In this comprehensive collection, Brightman brings her own interpretations to songs that have become classics, delivering showstoppers from Cats, Phantom of the Opera, Evita, and more. Also included is a breathtaking performance of the Pie Jesu from Weber's Requiem, where the true range and beauty of Brightman's voice really becomes clear. Lending voice to this 1997 retrospective are Michael Crawford, Jose Carreras, and Sir John Gielgud. (DEC539330) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

The Great Songs of George Gershwin
 Subtitled A Centennial Celebration, this 1998 release contains some great vocalists on these timeless Gershwin tunes, including several women. Billie Holiday's classic interpretation of Summertime, Aretha Franklin's cover of I Ain't Necessarily So, Judy Garland's Swanee, Mildred Bailey's They Can't Take That Away From Me, Mary Martin's I've Got Rhythm, Doris Day's But Not For Me. If you're gonna celebrate, do it right! (COL65501) CD: 15.98

Choral

Amasong Amal

Amal means "mother" or "woman" in Shona, the language of Zimbabwe. This lesbian-feminist chorus is dedicated to performing material that celebrates all forms of women's devotion to women, including love songs, personifications of natural phenomena as women, children and mothers mourning the loss of one another, and prayers to the Mother Creatrix. On their 1999 release, 50 acappella women's voices sing music from 13 cultures in 9 languages, including the title track and 23 others, from Yiddish, Shaker, African, Russian, Scandinavian, Cuban, Gullah, and many other traditions. (AMA9912) CD: 15.98

Anna Crusis Women's Choir Spaces Between the Stars

Celebrating the 25th anniversary of our country's first feminist choir is no small event! This moving and beautiful 2000 collection of songs is wonderfully celebratory: from love songs and lullabies to myths of goddesses and crones and secret lovers to the hilarious Menopause, Anna Crusis creates and shares their own empowerment, hopes, and visions. The title is a lyric that stands as a spiritual metaphor for the span of women's lives here on earth; also includes Higher Ground, Corazon Caraza, Crushes, and lots more. (ANN3) CD: 15.98

Atlanta Feminist Women's Chorus Many Strong/Beautiful Women Singing

This chorus is one of the oldest and largest non-auditioned feminist choruses in the U.S., but you wouldn't guess the non-auditioned part from their 1998 release. From the very first strains of the opening track, Carly Simon's Let the River Run (originally arranged for MUSE, Cincinnati Women's Chorus), "inspired" is the word to describe how you'll feel when listening. The repertoire is as wonderful as the album title: Ann Reed's Heroes, Theresa Edell's Emma, Ruth Huber's Big Dogs, Music, and Wild, Wild Women; Ysaye Barnwell's Soundbites from Beyoncé, Karen Beth's Womanspirit Rising. It's comforting to know that long-established feminist institutions, such as this chorus, are still strong and vibrant, and continuing to make the world a better place for us all. Boston Gay Men's Chorus Eos

This 2000 recording is rich with tradition as well as innovation. In the "Old American Songs" section you will hear many recognizable favorites by composer Aaron Copland. The Mystic Trumpeter features text by Walt Whitman. The title piece is yet another demonstration of the beauty produced when composer David Conte and librettist Nicholas Gardini collaborate. It is an epic of hate, pride, and freedom through music, guaranteed to bring hope and comfort to those still persecuted for loving. (BGM04) CD: 15.98

Boston Gay Men's Chorus Oz and Beyond

A great horn section makes this 1999 release, subtitled The Music of Harold Arlen, swing! Includes Get Happy/Accentuate the Positive, Wizard of Oz Medley, Over the Rainbow, Stormy Weather, The Man That Got Away, Blues Medley and more, some featuring guest soprano Kerry Dowling. If you pick your ruby slippers and send us your 15.98, you can go home and listen to their wonderful choral interpretations of these classic tunes to your heart's content. (BGM03) CD: 15.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles A Grand Night for Singing

This full program of works by Rodgers and Hammerstein was captured live in performance in July '98. Guest soloists Christine Ebersole and Davis Gaines offer star turns with such classics as Some Enchanted Evening and The Gentleman Is a Dope; they and the 140 men of GMLCA thrill the audience to the point of cheering with medleys from Oklahoma and South Pacific as well as refreshing new arrangements of My Favorite Things, Do Re Mi and June Is Bustin' Out All Over. (GMC6) CD: 15.98

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles With a Mighty Voice

From the groundbreaking ensemble comes another inspiring album of celebratory, traditional, classical, and original arrangements and compositions. The opening piece, Gloria, is a ruff-shaking proclamation of faith, followed by the upbeat, and very appropriate Quaker Hymn How Can I Keep From Singing. The song Jonathan Wessley Oliver, Jr. reminds us that the AIDS crisis is far from over, still killing and in some way affecting almost everyone in the gay and lesbian community, if not everyone in the world. This 2000 album presents a diverse range of compositions, demonstrating this chorus' depth, flexibility, and ability to carry out their enduring vision of unity and hope. (GMC7) CD: 15.98

MUSE: Cincinnati Women's Choir Sing to the Universe Who We Are

One of the most fabulous women's choruses in the country, under the direction of Catherine Roma, graces us with their 1999 release. Among the 17 audience favorites included here are Fred Small's Everything Possible, Holly Near's Simply Love, Ysaye Barnwell/Kahlil Gibran's On Children, and Theresa Edell's Take Back the Guns. As a whole, the recording is a shining reflection of the commitment to musical excellence and social change of this feminist choir, which has been going strong since 1982. (MU2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

NYC Gay Men's Chorus Gay Century Songbook

Anyone who loves New York, New York will enjoy this 2000 world premiere recording, which evokes a bygone era of NY through songs that celebrate where we were at the beginning of the last century and illuminates where we might be heading in the new one. With music by Larry Grossman and libretto and lyrics by Michael Korie, the chorus guides us on a trip through the 1901 Hudson River Piers, 1910's Gramercy Park, 1921's Julius Tavern, 1923's Hamilton Hall, up to present day NYC. (DRG9015) CD: 16.98

Olympia's Daughters Deep Peace

This inspiring women's acappella vocal ensemble began as a 9-member group in 1989, primarily singing rounds as a guest choir for the First Unitarian Society, and has evolved into a 27-member performance and touring ensemble that presents complex, moving and entertaining music. Their name honors Olympia Brown, mother, businesswoman and suffragist who in 1893 became the first ordained female Universalist minister. Their goal is to carry on her commitment to social causes and women's empowerment through the spiritual message of their music by challenging attitudes, fostering healing, and building bridges between communities. To that end, this 1997 release includes excellent material by Carolyn McCade, Carole Elzer, Eaglehart, Ysaye Barnwell, Fred Small, Thomas Dorsay, their director Penny Gnessin, and Hildegard van Bingen, spiritual, feminist, conscious and recommended! (OD1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Olympia's Daughters How Can I Keep From Singing

An inspiring and uplifting collection that reminds us that we can make it through hard times, this 2000 release contains music from 2 of the NJ ensemble's favorite music programs and worship services. "Music from Living Song" is full of fun tunes that awaken the heart and spirit, such as Welcome Table, Vine and Fig Tree, Old Time Religion, Freedom Is Coming. "Songs for Survival" honors the memory of the Vocal Orchestra that was created in a WWII concentration camp for women in Sumatra. Captive Hymn and Chopin's Prelude in C Minor come directly from that Vocal Orchestra, while selections such as the title track and Something Inside So Strong are songs that have helped the chorus members get through their own hard times. Portland Lesbian Choir Making Light

What a glorious sound, the 60-plus voices of the first-named lesbian choir in the US! Subtitled 10 Years of Heart and Humor, their 1997 release celebrates their special dedication to wonderful songs that "make the darkness bearable, and the lightness of spirit that eases the burden on arduous and long journeys." Includes Judy Collins' Song for Judith, Violeta Parra's Gracias a la Vida, the beautiful traditional How Can I Keep From Singing, an original composed by 3 chorus members which is dedicated to all individuals and couples struggling with illness, one by Francesca Cascon: even a song they learned from a lesbian choir in Sweden (did you know there was one?) — all great selections! A few tracks were recorded live at GALA in Tampa; recommended! (PLC10) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus How Fair This Place

Born in 1978 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to tour nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity, inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing and love — a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular Love Medley, including Unchained Melody, theatrical (selections from Miss Saigon, Chest and Jekyll & Hyde), and sacred pieces (Lord Blessing, Gabriel's Oboe, On Earth As It Is in Heaven). English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SFG10-91) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus ExtrABAganza

Connecting to a staple of TC's pop culture, the SFGMC pays tribute in song to ABBA, the top-selling music act of that decade. The choral presentation of songs is filled with lush and complex harmonies and recognizable ABBA tunes. They have made a collection of the very finest from ABBA that will thrill, amaze and delightfully surprise you! (SFG97) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Seattle Men's Chorus et al Soul Full (2-CD Set)

One of their most powerful concerts to date, this 1998 2-disk set captures the essence of what many consider to be their finest hour. Joined by the Northwest Girlchoir, Total Experience Gospel Choir, and Urban Rhythms — 3 of the nation's finest gospel and singing ensembles — they bring some of the greatest inspirational favorites to life: We Shall Not Be Moved, There's a Man Goin' Round, Still I Rise and a medley from the Broadway musical Ain't Misbehavin'. (SMC9) CD: 17.98

Tim Seelig, Turtle Creek Chorale, Women's Chorus of Dallas

The worlds of classical music and jazz are magically combined in this 2001 release, as are the worlds of the oft-collaborating choruses Turtle Creek Chorale and the Women's Chorus of Dallas. Artistic director Dr. Timothy Seelig, supported by members of both of these fine choral groups, performs classical pieces arranged in Buddy Shannahan's incomparable jazz style. (TCC1200) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Chorale Lifetime Friend

This 1998 recording tells a story, it tells their story, and perhaps it tells some of your story, as well. From the very first notes, they celebrate all of our lives, our journeys, and the fact that "here we are, in the right place, at the right time." A friend of this Chorale composed every song on this CD, which includes many of their favorite pieces, from the opening track Listen To My Heart to the last, Never Ever. Features beautiful orchestrations, and a guest appearance by the Women's Chorus of Dallas. (TCC1140) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Chorale w/Maya Angelou Sing for the Cure (2-CD Set)

In June 2000, TCC plus Women's Chorus of Dallas and the Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra premiered a choral symphony commissioned for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Composed in 10 movements and narrated by Dr. Maya Angelou, with text and narration written by Pamela Martin, this benefit 2-CD set tells the story of those affected by breast cancer from the perspectives of the patient, the partner and the family. It's an important work for an important cause. For more info on breast cancer awareness, you can visit www.breastcancerinfo.org or call 1-800-I'M AWARE. (TCC1180) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek, WCD, Mario Thomas Song of Wisdom from Old Turtle

Proceeds benefit the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. (TCC1180) CD: 15.98

Acappella

Copper Whimmin American Tyranny

"Copper Whimmin are magic," says June Millington, producer of this excellent debut recording. It's true — the 3 members sing one minute as if they are one voice, and the next as if they are fifty. Your attention is demanded from the first note, as they deliver smart, strong, straightforward lyrics that deal with racism, sexism, classism and homophobia. More personal songs are mixed in with the political, sung with the same intensity and beautiful harmony that is consistent throughout this unique and impressive album. Highly recommended! (COP1) CD: 15.98

The Flirtations

Michael Calen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Willowweaver, a powerful song about AIDS. Lids Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Font. Sweet Honey's Breasts, and an incredible cover of Cris Williams's Shooting Star. A wonderfully varied album, very highly recommended! 1990. (SIG902) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

0009 (4)

Our favorite boy acappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural acappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun, Oughta Be a Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon; Donde Esta Dolores?, Michael Callera's Living in Wartime; and fun taggots favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. Love Cafe

If you have a soft spot in your heart for small-ensemble acappella music by women, this is for you. They are only 5—but the depth, richness, and percussiveness of their sound is much larger. They explore a variety of styles here, pop, jazz, classical and folk. Many of the selections on this 1999 release were written or composed by their director Joanna Lyndon, so this could be a great source of new material for choral directors! They include a few familiar songs like Brick (the Color of My True Love's Hair), with delightful, original arrangements, and a rendition of the Robert Frost poem The Road Not Taken. Recommended! (VCR102) CD: 14.98

Kinsey Sicks

Boyz 2 Girls

Who says drag queens can't sing—and sing beautifully? 19 tracks of biting parodies and original songs run the gamut from Motown to madrigals. Several parodies—Titanic, Why does Celine Go On?, Where the Boys Are, I Will Swallow Him, and Baby Dyke—will inspire your laughter, while some of their original songs, such as I Wish You Peace and Dead Princess, will amaze and move you with their musical and lyrical beauty. To top it off, there's an amazing rendition of the Yiddish classic Paprossen. This sublime 1999 release by our favorite dragapella beautyshop quartet is a must for acappella lovers and for fans of cutting edge social satire. (TKS2) CD: 14.98

Dragapella!

Grand harmonies, wicked parodies, and scary drag captures the essence of America's favorite dragapella quartet! Full-throated, tight 4-part harmonies turn Bobby McFerrin's Don't Worry, Be Happy into Worry, convert the Jackson Five song ABC into a witty acronym-filled AZT, and send off self-absorbed 90's queer boys in a revealing version of Holly Near's anthem Gentle Loving People. Also features Baglar Baby Blues, the Macarena-derived Macadons, and Men Are Pigs (But Why Keep Kasher?). Passersby will stop to listen in and laugh when you play this one! (TKS129) CD: 14.98

Nectar

0745 (4)

This 1999 collection of 18 haunting and emotive songs from Bulgaria, Georgia, Hungary, Macedonia, Russia, and Ukraine, is performed mostly acappella by the ensemble's 8 vocalists (with some accompaniment on tambura/Bulgarian kute, folk harp and hand percussion). With their mastery of the demanding techniques of Balkan and Slavic vocal stylings, they bring Eastern European women's vocal traditions to a US audience and beyond. These songs were gathered from a variety of sources, including including ethnographic field recordings collected by Kitka in Eastern Europe, and reflect women's experiences as expressed through centuries-old traditions of women singing together through life's passages: love, loss, work, play and resistance. Voices on the Eastern Wind

0430 (4)

Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal musics of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment—and recognize their expertise. If this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge—they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, exotic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength." This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice, invigorating and beautiful. (DPH092) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

We're thrilled to bring this spectacular 1993 album to your attention! Original songs and chants, some with great rhythms and fantastic percussion, some suitable for circles, especially Full Woman (an anthem for encouraging and celebrating full womanhood), and one to the African goddess Yemaya. Recorded with members of Bobby McFerrin's vocal group Voicestra, and expertly produced by Linda Tillery. If you love circle chants, extended chants, choral chants, and some incredible jazz scat here and there... if you've been missing the contributions, heritage and presence of women of color in the materials you've been using for circles... and if you're taken with music that's unique, inspired, inspiring, and celebratory, you'll love this! Sound Circle

The debut 1998 release from this 21-voice women's acappella ensemble is a beautiful representation of their talent and purpose. Their repertoire, which includes music that speaks to the sounds, rhythms and experiences of their own lives, emphasizes music by women; they include works here by Sandra Washington, Ysabel Maca Barnwell of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Anne Lister, Rachel Bagby, Cria Williamson and Holly Near. And no less stunning here is the William Butler Yeats/Bill Douglas composition Golden Apples of the Sun. It was recorded in-studio rather than live which gives it a qualitative edge over many choral releases. Members of GALA and Sister Singers, the ensemble's work is spiritual, progressive, grounded, and of course harmonious, very highly recommended—to all Libiana fans and more! If you've been a SoVoSo fan, you'll groove in their 2000 release! (Although our beloved Rhiannon isn't present for this session, other members of Bobby McFerrin's Voicestra were, as was Sunshine possible-Jerry's-kid Sunshine Garcia.) They continue to forge thoughtful lyrical territory, from love songs to anthems calling us toward our universal humanity, all rendered in superlative musicianship through the fundamental human instrument—the voice. From Serengeti rhythms to New Orleans funk to Jamaican reggae dub, they remain on the cutting edge of world-soul-beat music. (PAC2720) CD: 15.98

SoVoSo (featuring Rhiannon)

World Jazz A Cappella

SoVoSo is a 5-person multi-ethnic acappella ensemble that sings a unique, rhythmic mix of jazz, gospel, world and R&B music. Originally known as Voicestra, the group was founded in 1986 by Bobby McFerrin, performing with him and under his direction through 1993. They are now made up of 3 women (including Rhiannon and possible-Jerry's-kid Sunshine Garcia) and 2 men. On this 1997 album, their first post-McFerrin release, they perform their imaginative arrangements of Sly Stone's Thank You, Curtis Mayfield's People Get Ready, the traditional Down By The Riverside, and the Dixie suite co-composed by McFerrin as a dance score for Brenda Way's Western Women. The album closes with the Betsy Rose/Rhiannon/Patty Weinstein composition Say A Prayer, with a solo by Rhiannon! (PAC2700) CD: 15.98

Soundtracks

Beautiful Thing

The slightly bitter, slightly sweet 1996 film about the love between two working class British boys was filled with the sound of Cass Elliot's wonderful contralto. Features both her work with The Mamas and Papas and her solo endeavors which were cut short by her untimely death. (MCA11553) CD: 15.98

The 19 songs on this 2001 original soundtrack of the acclaimed musical revue explore the confusing, poignant and often hilarious lives of 5 young men facing the challenges of being Gay Today. Its 4-month Off-Broadway run garnered critical acclaim from Playbill, NY Post and NY Daily News, who described it as "A witty and terrifically tuneful look at gay life." Music by Alfredo Alvarez, lyrics by Jeff Dobkins, performed by the original cast. (DINK2001) CD: 15.98

Better Than Chocolate

0842 (4)

The movie tells the story of Maggie who meets the woman of her dreams the day before her mother and brother move in with her. Variety calls the Canadian film "a terrifically entertaining romantic comedy," and our Canadian customers have been requesting the soundtrack even before its release. Along with Ani DiFranco's luscious 32 Flavors and Ferraro's stand-out Brand Up, the CD offers the sweet guitar pop of Melanie Dekker, 2 great dance tunes by West End Girls and 2 lyrical love songs, one by Tami Greer and one by Feisty, as well as 5 other good songs by talented newcomers. (WIL33666) CD: 16.98

The Broken Hearts Club

This soundtrack to an official Sundance film selection for 2000, characterized as a "gay Diner", is a great party mix of club hits and groovy ballads, by Kim English, Mary Beth Maziarz, Kym Mazelle and more. (WIL33674) CD: 16.98

Claire of the Moon - O.S.T.

This original soundtrack from the film includes an original song composed and performed by Teresa Trull, Could It Hurt, plus piano themes, by a variety of artists and performers. (DEM1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Hedwig and the Angry Itch

Winning 2 Sundance Film Festival awards and making its rounds at lesbian/gay film festivals everywhere, this film follows the tradition of Rocky Horror Picture Show and brings the movie musical back with a capital 'M'. Featuring all new recordings of songs from the cast album, as well as previously unreleased gems, this 2001 rockin' soundtrack includes contributions by members of Girls Against Boys. (HY20624) CD: 17.98

If These Walls Could Talk 2

0923 (4)

If you didn't catch this terrific 3-part film on HBO, see the video! Starring Ellen DeGeneres, Sharon Stone, Chloe Sevigny, Michelle Williams, and Vanessa Redgrave, it tells 3 intimate stories (of 3 lesbian couples) that unfold within the same 4 walls over a 40-year span. It's heartbreaking, joyous, funny, and uplifting. The music spans the different eras as well, with hits from Melissa Etheridge, Three Dog Night, Natalie Cole, Indigo Girls, The Eurythmics, Doris Day, Odo and more. (JBR5018) CD: 15.98

Incredibly True Adventures/ 2 Girls in Love

This incredibly true soundtrack is back in stock and at an incredibly low price! Maria Maggenti's 1995 film features music by BETTY (A Typical Love), Loui, Screw, and Mozart. Most of the instrumental music, however, was written by composer and multi-instrumentalist Terry Daine, founding member of the Celtic instrumental group "Jane's Arre," which performed at such venues as the Michigan and East Coast Lesbian festivals; here these selections are performed by a quartet (3-woman, 1-man) in which Terry plays soprano saxophone. A classic for every collection! (MIL35724) CD: 9.98

The Mists of Avalon

This 2001 soundtrack from TNT's lavish production of Marion Zimmer Bradley's epic novel is a glorious creation all its own. The music features The Mystic's Dream from Loreena McKennitt's album The Mask and Mirror, and Aeon's haunting song I Will Remember You SW, as well as orchestrations by Lee Holdridge. The film tells the story of legendary Camelot, as seen through the eyes of the women who wielded power behind King Arthur's throne. Angelica Huston plays Viviane, the Lady of the Lake, who tries to preserve the pagan beliefs of Avalon. (VSG6286) CD: 17.98

Priscilla: Queen of the Desert 0010 NEW!
The great disco-funk soundtrack to the '94 gay film hit which describes itself as "a comedy that will change the way you think, the way you feel, and most importantly... the way you dress" — it's the story of two drag queens and a transsexual who take a trip into the Australian outback. Disco hits include Gloria Gaynor's I Will Survive, Alicia Bridges' I Love the Nightlife, the Village People's Go West, Peaches and Herb's Shake Your Groove Thing, and it even contains songs like Take a Letter Maria. Songcatcher NEW!
Rarely does a soundtrack come around that makes me think, "I guess I don't need to see the movie because this is surely the best part of it," or "now I have to see this movie because a soundtrack this good must go with a great movie." Listening to this beautiful 2000 release causes both of those thoughts to simultaneously run through my head. This is the ultimate compilation for any and all fans of traditional folk and old-time music sung by today's most beautiful voices including Dolly Parton, Emmylou Harris, Allison Moorer, Patty Loveless, Julie Miller, Maria McKee, Sara Evans, Gillian Welch, and Deana Carter. Whether or not you choose to see the movie, this soundtrack is a necessity for anyone who loves and respects roots music. (VANT9586) CD: 15.98

Steam 0781 NEW!
Subtitled Hamam: The Turkish Bath, this evocative soundtrack to the film combines melodies of Sufi dervish dance ceremonies and Turkish music from the 1900's with contemporary Middle Eastern influences and groove-oriented ambient trance music. Outstanding vocals by Rosie Wiedenkehr enhance selections by the groups Transcendental and Agnicetus from southern Italy, and the Romanian all-female ethnodance group Secret contributes their unique blend of vocals on Tavia. Many tracks here are highly recommended for belly-dancing! (WCL11356) CD: 15.98

The Secret of Roan Inish 0225 NEW!
On this 1995 soundtrack from the film by John Sayles, starring Jeni Courtney, Mason Daring's compositions set the mood for the plot turns of Rosalie K. Fry's novel. The Roan Inish Theme is graceful and enigmatic. Fiona is peppy. Fiona's Walk tells a story of melancholy. Scampering Away establishes a festive mood only to shift into quiet reflection. The sounds of fiddles, flutes, whistles, pipes, harp, bouzouki, bodhran, and mandolin combine in Dancing a traditional Irish music. All vocalists on this album are women: Eileen Loughan sings Seize Song in Gaelic, and the female vocals in Return to Roan Inish are no less than sublime. (DRN3015) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

When Night Is Falling Soundtrack
Now you can hear the music from the lesbian film by Patricia Rozema. This 1997 album, sparse and rich, invokes a dream-like state, sensually and sexually beautiful — it exists as a work in itself apart from the movie. Lesley Barber composed, arranged and conducted the music, and she plays accordion. Hammond B3 organ and percussion. When Night Is Falling, pop in this CD and wake up dreaming. (NAP204) CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls and Others
Jesus Christ Super-Star (Double) 0175 NEW!
Subtitled A Resurrection, this 1994 reinterpretation of the famous rock opera features Indigo Girls Amy Ray and Emily Saliers as Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene respectively! Over 95 minutes of music on 2 CDs or double-length cassette. 25 tracks, proceeds will go to benefit victims of violent crimes and for gun control. Ambitious and wide ranging in both sound and scope. Various: Enya, k.d. lang, et al 0953 NEW!
Sweet November
Although the film is not so hot, this 2001 soundtrack is! Among the highlights: Enya's crossover Only Time, a previously unreleased remix of k.d. lang's dreamy Consequences of Falling, Stevie Nicks' previously unreleased Touched By an Angel, and My Number from the rising young Canadian stars Tegan & Sara. (REP47944) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Xena: Warrior Princess
The soundtrack to the popular New Zealand television series starring Lucy Lawless as the leather-clad big-woman-with-a-big-sword Amazon fighter is a mixture of traditional orchestration by Joseph LoDuce and Middle Eastern/Bulgarian choruses. Includes Burial, a haunting original composition written and sung by Lucy. It's dramatic! (VSS750) CD: 16.98

Xena: Warrior Princess Vol 6 (2-CD) NEW!
As the tremendously successful series nears its grand and glorious end, the most spectacular volume of songs yet is released for 2001: this 2-CD set contains 53 tracks, over 2 hours of the music fans have been demanding from the grand finale trip to Japan and the Ring Trilogy, as well as unreleased songs and novelty items. Plus, the booklet's photo of Xena and Gabrielle kissing will be yours to treasure. (VSS255) CD: 10.98

Lyre, Lyre, Hearts on Fire
The 5th volume in the series contains all of the songs — and more than a few surprises — from the Xena rock musical Lyre, Lyre, Hearts on Fire. Featuring Lucy Lawless' showstopping People Got To Be Free, as well as Amazon Dance Party, Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves, Always Something There To Remind Me, War, Xena Rap, Tara's Dance, and lots more! For 2000, Lucy Lawless and the cast of Xena deliver one soundtrack no fan can be without. (VSS145) CD: 17.98

ABBA Gold - Greatest Hits
This Swedish 2-woman 2-man supergroup's bright pop nuggets achieved world domination in their time. The irresistible strains of Dancing Queen, Knowing Me, Knowing You, Waterloo, Take a Chance On Me, Voulez-Vous, Fernando — they're all here. You know your life will be better, happier, more hopeful, with this album by your side. ABBA-licious! (PLD517007) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

DJ Tracy Young NEW!
Inside My Head
Subtitled A Progression Into Trance, DJ Tracy spins mixes that will transform your mind and body in this 2000 release. With mixes like Evolution Mix, The Driver Don't Stop Mix, Science Department Mix, and Entering The Sea Of Fire Dub, Tracy's repetitive beats and skilled mixes will definitely take you out of your body as it moves to the beat. Tracks include Penetrate My Body by ACL, Porcelain by Moby, We Like The Music by Supagroup, Roaches by Trancesters, Dreaming by BT featuring vocals by Kitty Hackshaw, and more! (MXM722406) CD: 16.98

Donna Summer
Liveandmore - Encore!
When I think of the word diva, one name always comes to mind first, and she's sounding better than ever. In this explosive 1999 release, Donna awards us with 3 brand new recordings, including I Will Go With You (Con Te Partiro), which is a new interpretation of the song Time To Say Goodbye, originally recorded by Andrea Bocelli and Sarah Brightman. She also leads us on a nostalgic roller-coaster of disco Donna classics, such as On The Radio, She Works Hard For The Money and Last Dance. WARNING: This album contains 13 live tracks and is considered Hot Stuff. I dare you to sit still through this one! (EPC59910) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Eartha Kitt
The Best of Eartha Kitt
This 1997 release features Where Is My Man? (including the '94 Mix and Mega Mix), plus Cha Cha Heels, My Discarded Men (with Bronski Beat), and more dance classics. (HTP61) CD: 15.98

Everything But the Girl
Temperamental
This 1999 album of trip-hop beats is the direct result of vocalist Tracey Thorn and instrumentalist/programmer Ben Watt's recent excursions into the dance music underground. A myriad of rhythmic pop stylings are here, the deep house grooves of Five Fathoms and title track, fierce drum 'n' bass in Compression, and the hip-hop-infused funk of Low Tide at Night and Dowhill Racer. This duo (of musical collaborators as well as partners in the other sense) continues to dance on modern music's cutting edge. (ATL83214) CD: 17.98

Hannah Jones
Coming Back For More
The legendary British diva releases her first British album in 2000. This stunning 16-track recording, from one of the world's finest vocalists, features the club hits What the Child Needs, No One Can Love You More Than Me, Wish That All It Was, Bridge Over Troubled Water, You Only Have To Say You Love Me, More To This, and of course more. (ESE01) CD: 28.98

Dance

Loleatta Holloway NEW!
Queen of the Night
With roots firmly planted in gospel and R&B, Loleatta's ascension to the throne of queen diva of the dance scene is a case of natural selection. Her vocal talents propelled a string of chart hits during disco's heyday, firmly establishing her as a clubland idol. Her songs have been heavily sampled, providing the basis for hits by other artists and remixers; she has been the rock upon which dance hits are made! Gathering together 10 of the best-known mixes into a continuous remix for non-stop partying, this 2001 collection includes 2 mixes of Dreamin', Junior Vasquez's Gotta Be #1 and more! (RSF29549) CD: 16.98

Martha Wash
The Collection
If you love dance music you'll love this, and if you don't usually like dance music you just may love this anyway! Transcending genres and trends, Martha has been responsible for some of the top-selling, most recognizable pop hits of the 80's and 90's — including the cult classic It's Raining Men, which is included here as a duet with RuPaul in its Raining Men: The Sequel. Songs here span the realms of dance, pop, R&B and gospel. Come bandle African rhythms with the power of club music: God Bless the Road features a great gospel choir; the glorious anthem Catch the Light is presented here in 2 versions. Gonna Make You Sweat (Everybody Dance Now) sold 5.5 million copies worldwide. She's been instrumental in shaping pop music as we know it, and this 1998 release presents all of her multi-platinum hits together for the first time. (LOG46895) CD: 16.98

Sarah Brightman NEW!
Whiter Shade of Pale/Question of Honor
Have you been introduced to the new dance diva Sarah Brightman? This 2001 release not only contains 5 remixes each of 2 songs, Whiter Shade of Pale and A Question of Honor — totaling 10 dance tracks — but is also an enhanced CD which includes a La Luna interactive screen-saver and music video! For the Sarah Brightman fan who has everything — except this! (ANG79374) CD: 13.98

Various Artists NEW!
Divas of Dance
This 2001 release highlights some of the finest dance divas of our time: Eartha Kitt (Where Is My Man?), Donna Summer (Carry On), Amber (Above the Clouds), Brenda K. Starr (Hold Me), and more. (DST70885) CD: 16.98

Dance Floor Divas: The 70's
On the dance floors of the 70's and 80's, disco music thrived on the flamboyant emotionalism of its divas, creating an energy shared between dancer and performer. Yet the albums they made have a life beyond the confines of the club: disco's greatest singers grounded their vocal flights in R&B's gospel and blues roots, giving them an amazing power. This 1998 compilation contains some of the most classic of classics: Sister Sledge's We Are Family, A Taste of Honey's Boogie Oogie Oogie, LaBelle's Lady Marmalade, and more from Chic, Chaka Khan and others, 16 in all — almost all Top 10 hits and the biggest records of each artist's career. Dancing Queens (2-CD Set)
This 2001 2-CD compilation is great to jumpstart any party! Includes great hits like I'm Every Woman by Chaka Khan, I Will Survive by Gloria Gaynor, It's Raining Men by The Weather Girls, Supermodel (You Better Work) by RuPaul, Girls Just Want to Have Fun by Cyndi Lauper, Culture Club's Karma Chameleon, and many more. And don't miss their fabulous infomercial on cable TV! (MDL620746) CD: 24.98

Various Artists Queer as Folk (Import 2-CD Set)

A hard-hitting UK drama about three socially active young men and the loves and longings of their lives in Manchester's gay village certainly deserves an energetic soundtrack. The selections on this 1999 release cover all the romantic territory from Bianca's Crush to Ruff Drivers' Deeper Love to Hannah Jones' Was That All It Was. This is the original, genuine, import version that started the current craze — accept no substitutes! (ALM26) CD: 29.95

Various Artists Queer as Folk 2 (2-CD Set)

Subtitled Same Men, New Tracks, this double import features music from the 2-part sequel to the original series. Contents: Divine's Work Like a Man, songs from Erasure, Hannah Jones, Natalie Brown, Urban Cooks Collective, and more! (QAF2) CD: 29.95

Various Artists Work It! Dance=Life

Now on sale, this 1998 benefit release for The Los Angeles Gay & Lesbian Center offers up jammy dance remixes of Janet Jackson, Gloria Estefan, Annie Lenox, Traci Lords and others, along with surprises from country star Reba McEntire and, don't arch that eyebrow, Barry Manilow! (PRT05950) CD: 5.99

Various Artists/ DJ Susan Morabito Equinox

The world's #1 woman DJ strikes exactly the right chord with this sensational 1998 follow-up to her debut. One of the only female DJs to infiltrate one of the most intensely male networks on the planet, she is known for her ability to mix anything, from trance to techno, to underground house to Europop, and create a seamless effect. Here she mixes hit dance tracks from Europe, most unavailable except on vinyl — several have charted on Billboard Club Charts, several others not even released domestically. Includes Lolita's Holiday's Lifting Me Up, Salsa House by Salsa Man, Oda Main's Lovin' You, 5 more. (WRL3006) CD: 15.95

Various Artists/ DJ Manny Lehman Circuit Sessions 00.1

He's the #1 requested circuit DJ, continuing to pack dance floors all over the country with the Big Room Anthems included in this Y2K collection, from CeCe Peniston, Junior Vasquez, Abigail, and more. (FP84407) CD: 15.95

Various/ DJ Jellybean Benitez Divine Divas (Dance)

This 2000 release (not to be confused with a 3-CD set of vocalists from around the world, issued previously by Rounder) features some of the moment's hottest dance tracks heard in clubs and radio. With 5 #1 Billboard Dance Club hits, it features vocalists like Veronica, Cyndi Lauper, Jennifer Holliday, Sandy B., Antonette Robinson. (JBR5035) CD: 15.95

Various Artists Dance With Angels

One of the most successful dance-pop comps in recent years, this 1999 release, containing tracks from Aretha Franklin, Madonna, Sting, Gloria Estefan and others, continues to fly off our shelves, year after year! (GEN30007) CD: 15.95

Who's That Girl! Exposed (2-CD Set)

If you're mad about that girl, this 2001 UK dance import contains a fabulous selection of Madonna hits remade for the disco! In addition to the regular 14-track CD, which contains some new mixes exclusive to this collection, you get a continuously-mixed CD for your non-stop dancing pleasure. Includes What I Feel Like For a Girl, Justify My Love, Burning Up, Like a Prayer, Holiday, Express Yourself. (ALM35) CD: 29.95

"Mehn's Music"

Doug Stevens From Christopher to Castro

Gay Country's most visible spokesperson, plus band, release this 2000 collection of songs, a spirited, raucous romp of terrific country music that defies convention. (DGS103) CD: 15.95

Doug Stevens & The Outband When Love Is Right

New low price!! This 1995 release blends Cajun and bluegrass with reggae rhythms, and it comes out country! 6 of the 15 original songs are written and performed by women, reflecting the evolving influence of women in the band. The material is both compelling and fun, addressing the gay community while enlightening the mainstream listener. The poignant Love Is a Lie tells the story of a lesbian being banned from her small town. Can't Get It Right parodies the lighter side of gay "heterodivous"; and political stances are examined in Proud To Be an American. (DGS102) CD: 5.95

Fred Small Only Love

Fred is one of a relative handful of men still working actively to end sexism. In fact, in 2000, the National Organization of Men Against Sexism (NOMAS) honored him for his contributions to gender justice. And, just because he has recently become an ordained Unitarian Universalist minister, and sings more often now in worship services than at clubs, doesn't mean this extraordinary singer/songwriter has stopped sharing his gift with the wider public. This 2001 release, his first in 7 years, rewards fans with some of his best work. His unique blend of intelligence, passion, tenderness and humor finds its voice in songs like Not in Our Town, the true story of the anti-bigotry memoir campaign in Billings, Montana; the Zen hip-hop Buddha Behind the Wheel; and the achingly simple title track. Nobody's Beauty is a country-rock chaser that isn't just skin deep, and The Weed sets to music a startling poem by George Brooks, Jr., a convict on death row. His voice and guitar are deftly backed by clarinet, soprano sax, violin, viola and drums. (AQU2001) CD: 15.95

Jallen Rix Time On a Chain

This 2000 release is so personal and powerful that you will almost feel as if you are reading straight out of Jallen's diary, especially if you read the notes he's included after the lyrics to each song. With very professional, polished production by Michael Rodriguez and Garin Berfield on guitar and fretless bass, this album presents an all-star Mehn's Music cast. Together with Jallen's poetic lyrics about life's simple truths such as the importance of honesty, tolerance, and love, these men present a collaboration hard to match. This album is sure to equal if not surpass the success of The Sacred and the Queer, which garnered Jallen 3 GLAMA nominations. (EN0003) CD: 14.95

Jeff Krassner Maybe

Fans since his debut, we're glad he's back in 2000 with another well-produced album. If you saw the film Trick, you've already heard the title track here, his original song Maybe (Love It Make Sense To Me). Landing solidly in the dancepop format, this CD is at least as good as anything you'd hear on the radio or club dance floors. His warm, soulful tenor, backed by some great female vocals, spans over the 11 tracks. Most are original, and with the gospel fervor and conviction he whips up, his cover of the U2 anthem I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For is brand new and personal. (IDE540) CD: 15.95

John Buccino & Various Artists Grateful: Songs of John Buccino

John is the brilliant pianist who toured with Holly Near for many years, impressing thousands of Holly's fans with his eloquent and elegant keyboard. He's also a literate songwriter-composer, and on this exceptional 2000 release, his songs are performed by vocalists like Judy Collins, Liza Minnelli, Art Garfunkel, Michael Feinstein, Ann Hampton Callaway, David Campbell, and many others. This collection is cohesive and flowing, and will appeal to listeners of varied musical tastes. (I don't ordinarily necessarily care for "this kind" of music, but I absolutely love this!) If you remember John from those old Holly days, you won't be disappointed, if you don't, here's your chance to make his acquaintance, and we recommend you take it. (RCA63594) CD: 17.95

Lavender Country

This 2000 CD releases what is probably the earliest openly gay LP, originally released in 1973. Fortunately for us archive-minded folks, it's now recovered and preserved for many more years to come, and has actually been inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame! The band features founder Patrick Haggerty, a genuine pioneer of gay country music, plus Michael Carr, Robert Hammerstroff, and Eve Morris, who here offers her own early lesbian song, To a Woman. Other tracks include Come Out Singin' and Back in the Closet Again (to the tune of, you guessed it, Back in the Saddle Again). Historically significant, and a must for collectors. (GCS02) CD: 15.95

Various Artists Queer as Folk

The US major labels jump on the bandwagon, with this 2001 domestic single-CD dance soundtrack to the Showtime drama about the lives of a group of gay men and lesbians living in Pittsburgh, based on the UK's controversial series. Lots of the action takes place at a happening dance club, making the music an essential part of the characters' lives and a key element to the success of the show. (RCA63789) CD: 17.95

Various Artists Queer as Folk/Abridged 1-CD Version

This domestically-issued single CD, sort of a Queer as Folk Lite, is now available to coincide with the first U.S. airings of the British hit TV series. It contains 15 selections (of the 32 tracks on the original double import CD), including Jimmy Somerville's Can't Take My Eyes Off You and The Weather Girls' It's Raining Men. (As of this writing, you can still get the original complete 2-CD set.) (NET40014) CD: 17.95

Various Artists Digital Empire: DJ Girl

Female DJ's are packing dancefloors worldwide, and this 2000 comp presents the first collection of electronic girl hits. Jordana, aka 187, is one of the hottest drum & bass DJ's on the East Coast; can she work a crowd? Neotropic, aka Rd Maslen, has been around for years producing cutting-edge experimental stuff under about 10 different names, and has worked with practically everyone in the dubambient scene. Sandra Collins is one of the top 25 trance DJ's in the world. Charlotte the Baroness has 2 fine mix CD's of 5F funky house out, and regularly draws huge crowds wherever she shows up to rule the house decks. Shorties is half of Faust & Shorties, one of the best turntable duos in the world. All in all, quite a mix of styles with no cheesy pop dance music — it's a high quality compilation, on which any serious electronic buff will surely find something to her taste. (CFR6454) CD: 15.95

Various Artists Gay Happening Volume 7

This 2001 release includes Eartha Kitt, Where Is My Man, Donna Summers and Giorgio Moroder, Carry On (Hysteria Mix), Amber, If You Could Read My Mind, The Force featuring BB Queen, If I Could Turn Back Time, and so much more, party on! (DST77779) CD: 15.95

Various Artists Glad To Be Gay/ Live at Queer Nation

This hard-to-find, moderately-priced dance compilation comes to you courtesy of our queer cousins from down under. Mixed live at Melbourne, Australia's 1999 Pride celebration, this collection features such hits as Levy 9's cover of Kate Bush's Running Up the Hill and Alex Neri's Planet Funk. This rare and out-of-print import is a must for dance fans and party-goers everywhere. (order before we run out!) (COS1) CD: 10.95

Various Artists Movie Mania on the Dancefloor (2-CD)

All the anthems and chart hits that came from the big screen now send you to the dance floor... and it's all at your fingertips! With 32 songs, this 2000 2-CD set will complement parties for hours and years to come. Included are Perfect Day, My Heart Will Go On, Star Wars, The Crying Game. (ALM31) CD: 29.95

Various Artists New Millennium Disco Party/The Divas

OK folks, this is probably it — the one disco compilation that has just about every critical song on it. (I don't own any disco CD's yet, but I've got to have this one.) Sister Sledge: We Are Family, Gloria Gaynor: Will Survive, A Taste of Honey: Boogie Boogie Oogie, Alicia Bridges: I Love the Nightlife, Abba: Dancing Queen, Anita Ward: Ring My Bell, Donna Summer: Bad Girls, Blondie: Heart of Glass, and 10 more. 14 Top 10 and eight #1 hits. With roots firmly planted in the traditions of gospel and 60's soul, these are the divas who created, shaped, and defined the disco movement. Highly recommended! (RHT7776) CD: 11.95

Mark Weigle All That Matters

This artist has taken huge creative strides since his critically acclaimed debut album. His sweet, soothing voice and smart, straightforward vocals are complemented beautifully by more complex instrumentation and harmonies. Writing about love and life and loss, he has mastered the ability to state his emotions with both clarity and subtlety. He has also developed a knack for creating infectious melodies — you'll be singing along to the opening track, "A Good Day," the first time you hear it. This 2000 release also includes a great duet with SONIA of Disappear Fear, Other Houses. Recommended! (MKW0015) CD: 15.98

Mark Weigle The Truth Is

It's good to know that the rich tradition of positive gay male singer songwriters is still going strong. On his 1995 release, Mark moves from country-spiced romantic tunes such as "Two Cowboy Waltz" to folk-flavored pop on "When I See You Say," about a disaffection relationship, and even includes a duet with Blackbird, one of the earliest creators of mirth music. At the heart of his work are stories of the young artist's life as a gay man, while still shining a light on the commonalities of romantic relationships. Whether musing on love or rocking with the electricity of a bar band gig, this artist delivers the goods! (MKW3066) CD: 15.98

Michael Callen Legacy (Double Set)

0541

This 1996 release is a long-awaited deluxe double volume of works by the beloved singer/songwriter/activist who died of AIDS after surviving the disease for over a decade. Highlights include a stunning version of Barbara Johnson Reagan's "They Are Falling All Around Me," performed with Chris Williamson, Holly Near and John Bucchino; "Healing Power of Love," an AIDS anthem; "Two Men Dance the Tango," a duet with Tom Robinson, one of the first openly gay musicians; "Gitter and Be Gay from Candide by Leonard Bernstein (on which Michael "does" a great Barbara Cook); "Sometimes Not Often Enough," sung with the Flirts; "We've Had Enough," an ACT UP anthem; "Mother Mother," performed with Chris Williamson and Trent Furr; "Redefine the Family," "Love Worth Fighting For," and many many more, variously infused with sadness, silliness, anger, humor, triumph, and extraordinary vision and love. Approximately half are originals; many recorded during the final months of his life; instrumentalists include Greg Wells from K.D. Lang's band, jazz musician Fred Hersch and others. Celebrate Michael's life, spirit, and legacy with this beautiful retrospective. In his own words: "Trust me, I'll be the queerest solo album I've ever heard." (SIG951) CD: 24.98

Michael Callen Purple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who had been battling AIDS since 1981 (and died in 1994), was in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education for many years: testifying before Congress, editing publications, appearing on major TV shows, participating in fund-raising events, and performing with the Flirts. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic without getting caught up in the polemic" from How To Have Sex). Songs include "Where the Boys Are," "Me & Dickie D (this Nice Jewish Boy)," and "Living in Watline," performed with band-partner ex-Deadly Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. And, he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance... a tribute to his incredible life. 1988. (SIG881) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips

Brave Boys - The Best of & More

0004

This 1994 retrospective-plus includes 12 original songs from their first 5 duo albums and Ron's solo, in addition to 2 new songs. Includes a new studio version of Ho Ho Homophobia — a very hip dance tune — and live renditions of "Don't Use Your Penis (For A Brain)," "What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot? Politically Correct Lesbian Am I?" "The Prince Charming (Tally the best... and more... of the reigning queens (mug the best) of the mirth music genre. They are unequalled in their consciousness, wit, and charm, and remain our very favorites always. (FRF107) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Let's Flaunt It!

Recorded in concert (near the gay/lesbian resort of Palm Springs), this 1995 release features our favorite guys at their best, relating to a live audience. Hits include Missy and Hed, "If There Is a God (He's a Queen)," Homophobes in Robes (about the lovely dresses worn by KKK, popes and justices, as they pass their judgments on the queers), Some Of My Best Friends Are Straight, "He Is My L-O-V-E-R," and more great songs with humorous, political, on-target lyrics. If you're new to the genius of these rowdy bards, get with it! Buy it! And flaunt it! (FRF106) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Comedy

Elvira Kurt Kitten With a Wit

0764

Despite the silly title, this 1999 release is a very funny CD — the self-described "fella grile" turns out to be a kitten with really sharp claws. She brilliantly revisits the playgrounds, costumes, and parents of yesteryear. Comparing the current ubiquity of safety features to our less-protected childhoods, she says, "Electrical outlets were a trial by error thing. Oh, look at your steaming, curly head!" "We had 8-foot monkey bars on concrete." Elvira also finds comic gold in lesbian and gay issues. "Of course we have a homosexual agenda. ... 1. Don't get killed. 2. A decent brunch." Relating how people knew she was gay before she did, she quotes her kindergarten report card, "Nice child, but rarely stays on her own mat at nap time." Whiskers up! (UPR3800) CD: 15.98

Georgia Ragsdale Always Forward, Never Straight

The hysterical 1997 debut album from this L.A.-via-Texas lesbian comedian will have you rolling on the floor with laughter! A keen observer of human behavior, she riffs on being a gay child, gay personal ads, dating Neil (Jodie Foster), women's prisons, the WNBA, lesbian movies, Ellen's Coming Out and much more. (RS0380) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judy Tenuta

Attn: Butt Pirates & Lesbians

Now sale-priced! Subtitled Live at the C.S.W. Gay Pride Festival (NYC's Christopher Street West), The Supreme Love Goddess demands proper worship! On this 1994 release, the high priestess of Judyism romps through an energetic comedy performance full of 4-letter words, delivered with her somewhat less-than-subtle sass style. No one is safe from her razor wit as she jabs at everyone one from Cher to the men in the audience. Contains a just-too-cute parody of a bad cult song for the boys. Judy gives her queer listeners a chance to relax and laugh at themselves and the world around them: not a bad line of work for a deity! (GDD9402) CD: 8.98

Kate Clinton

Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politics to build laughter of fading fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme Park, rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and falling away at Mom-Pinata in Familyland! (WHY104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton

Comedy You Can Dance To

0768

Self-proclaimed feminist (feminist humorist), Kate Clinton returns with another classic live recording. Comprised of mostly new material, mixed in with little snippets of old favorites, this 1998 release includes political material as fresh as the daily news, savvy send-ups of modern family relationships and illuminating perspectives on life as a lesbian American. Hysterically funny! (UPR3790) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton

Don't Get Me Started (2-Tape Set)

On this 1998 abridged reading from her book, Kate gives us her hysterically funny take on modern living, politics, family issues, and trends. "Let's get one thing straight, I'm not. And yes-my brother is Bill Clinton. But not the Bill Clinton. These two guys are very different. For one thing, whenever I hear President Bill speaking on gays in the military, health-care reform - I hear the sound trucks make when they're backing up. Now I've written a book. That's all I'm going to say because I don't want to spoil it for you. That's a job for Jesse Helms." 2 cassettes, 3 hours. (PML50) CD: 16.98

Kate Clinton

Read These Lips

Kate Clinton strikes again in this 2001 release in which no one is spared. In this brilliant piece of comedy, Kate attacks AOL and computers in general, describes her adventures while "slogging" discusses her interactions with cell-phone users, and shares her opinion of the Pope's apologies and the Ten Commandments. Of course, no Kate Clinton album would be complete without her sparkling political commentary. Don't miss her analysis of the 2000 presidential campaign, the crusade for gay marriage, and her ideas for what to chant at a pride march. Highly recommended! (UPR3821) CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton

Live at Great American Music Hall

In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (covey her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, satirizes personals in papers, sings her song for perthenogenesis, and tells how she answered the question "What Do YOU Do?" at an SM workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material; get your TV sets tuned up! 1985. (WHY103) CS: 9.98

Lea DeLaria

Box Lunch

We've been looking forward to this May 1997 release from someone we've been known to refer to as our favorite "no holes barred" lesbian comic, recorded live at the famous Joe's Cabaret in San Francisco. The original bad girl of lesbian comedy delivers her unique style of stand-up, flavored with jazz and blues standards of Billie Holiday, George Gershwin, Duke Ellington and more. P.S. We hear Lea is writing a screenplay for Leslie Fienberg's Stone Butch Blues, in which she plans to co-star. (RS0340) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lea DeLaria

Bulldoze in a China Shop (Double)

The long-awaited debut recording by this bewdy, riotously funny comic legend (dubbed the "lesbian Lenny Bruce"), packed with non-stop laughs lampooning lesbian life... plus music! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as "Straight No Chaser," "Why Don't You Do Right," and "You Don't Know What Love Is." Comedy highlights include "Lea DeLaria's Dating Tips for Dykes" in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Recorded live in Atlanta, highly recommended for all but the timid! (OSP89) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Koch

Colorblind Blues

A.k.a. one-fourth of the fabulous Venus Envy band, half of the comedy duo Dos Fallopa, former Fabulous Dyketone Ms. Koch ("Coke") has put together a smashing first solo release in 1991, great production, vocals, lyrics — shades of June Millington meets Kate Clinton! Features the lovely At Night Long, the hilarious Beaver Cleaver Fever, the semi-autobiographical retro tune Hickey, and the AIDS anthem, Light of a Memory. Loads of talent here — a must! (TNG1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

You Make My Pants Pound

This 1994 compilation contains splendid selections from musical theater shows on which this comic genius has worked. The hilarious Life track, a story of "lust-at-first-sight" at a fast-food drive-through, and All My Stepparents are done by "dysfunctional mother-daughter country western superstars." The Spudds, who were also featured on Dos Fallopa's My Brevets Are Out of Control. The Bouffants, a "much loved, little known 60's girl group" campily offer Vanity and The Curve of No Return (which includes the requisite tragic love-car crash). On the more serious side are Three Times a Year, a heart-rending ballad from a straight man about his gay brother, and Violette, a beautiful song about one woman's "all-consuming infatuation" for another from the point of view of salonnières from the 1920's. All these and more, so do not miss this sampler of musical treasures! CD includes 4 bonus tracks. (TNG3458) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maggie Cassella

Because I Said So

0882

This self-described "Italian lawyer dyke comic" is funny, fast, frank, and fearless. Maggie pulls no punches on this '99 release, but delivers plenty of potent punchlines as she takes on gay pride security personnel, East German swimmers, Gligan's Island, landmark legal decisions, 60, drugs, sex, and women's basketball. Depicting effective drug education she says, "Mom, what do you think about pot? Well Billy, you know how Mommy can never find her keys..." Discussing the possibility of legal gay marriage in Alaska, Maggie exhorts, "Think of the weather. Think of what we like to do in bed. Think of your tongues. Think of the ice cube tray." Highly recommended! (UPR3805) CD: 15.98

Marga Gomez

Hung Like A Fly

0767

Join the uproar over this 1997 comedy release! Marga creates hilarious visuals on audio as she covers topics ranging from Gay Pride marches, a woman pilot, the politics of pockets, National Coming Out Day and Candace Gingrich. She packs a punch filled with hearty laughter. You'll be unable to keep a straight face during this believably funny stand-up routine: it is a riot, so if you need some heady laughter, here's your ticket! And be looking for Marga in the film Sphere, with Sharon Stone and Dustin Hoffman. Very recommended for funny bones! (UPR3776) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Margaret Cho Live in Concert (2-CD Set)

Is there anybody funnier than Margaret Cho? This 2001 release is the actual soundtrack to her hysterical and personal one-woman show I'm The One That I Want (not to be confused with the audio version of her book by the same name, which is also in print). Recorded live in San Francisco in 1999, tracks include Lesbians Love Whale Watching, I Am a Fag Hag, KKKomart, Once Upon a Time I Had My Own TV Show and more. Not only does she leave your sides hurting from laughter, she gives real insight into her life as a stand-up comic, sit-com star, and seriously empowered woman. (MCH3505) CD: 24.98

Margaret Cho I'm The One That I Want (4-Set)

This 2001 4-CD or 4-cassette set is the abridged version of her book from her 1998 off-Broadway show, her account of her nightmare with network television, drug abuse, alcohol abuse, and anorexia. Oh — and it's comedy. Treat yourself to approx. 5 hours of her whip-smart, raucous, raunchy, howlingly funny yet searingly honest material. (HBA5511) CS: 19.98 CD: 24.98

Margaret Cho Drunk With Power

Born and raised in San Francisco, Margaret derives a good deal of her material from her birthplace ("Some people are raised by wolves, I was raised by drag queens") and a good deal more from her upbringing as a second-generation Korean American. Her starring role in a variety of feature films, and in the now-defunct television show All American Girl, has not tamed her or her topics. She discusses weight, body image, drugs, sex, kidney stones, and racism all with amazing candor. She is so hysterically funny that I'm just starting to recover from hearing this 1999 album. Her impression of her mother arguing that she KNEW that Margaret was a lesbian is alone worth spending your rent money on! Not for the easily offended... so just don't be that way! (UPR3770) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Margaret Smith As It Should Be

In her flat-affect, nasally voice, Margaret gives us her unique take on everything from AIDS to piercing in this hilarious 2000 release. She debates with the audience about underwear, relates the "joys of motherhood," and gives instructions on how to deal with hairy man and gardening mishaps. Oh, and in case you were wondering what it's like to have a near-death experience while scuba diving, she covers that too. So if you want a good endorphin rush, try out this recording and just see if you can keep a straight face! (UPR3812) CD: 15.98

Suzanne Westenhoefer I'm Not Cindy Brady

Suzanne is back, and she's funnier than ever. The title of her 1999 release comes from a case of mistaken identity in an acting class, but Suzanne makes no mistakes as she riotously wheels from topic to topic reeling us into her comic caper. Whether she's talking about her parents, her girlfriend, Martha Stewart, The Home Depot, butch and femme, or how to get the entire airplane row to yourself by telling people you're a lesbian, she entertains at high speed. Discussing the Amish who got caught using cocaine she says, "Look at Ezekiel — he put that barn up in 15 minutes." Describing her lover's moseying ways, "You can't follow her upstairs, cause you'll just fall right back down again." Commenting on her audience, "The straight women totally stop going to the bathroom in pairs or totally overcompensate and take like 9 of their friends." Highly recommended! (UPR3806) CS: 15.98 CD: 15.98

Suzanne Westenhoefer Nothing In My Closet But My Clothes

How long has it been since you've laughed 'til your side hurts? Too long? Well, get ready and hold onto your sides! Suzanne talks about lesbians on television, bugs in Provincetown, gay Amish, Jesus as her brother-in-law, heckling the 700 club, moving in with her girlfriend and her pets, purse-bearers, and many more issues that concern the modern dyke-on-the-go! Love it! (UPR3772) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists

The Best of Lesbian Comedy, Vol. 1

This spring 1997 release is an absolutely hysterical collection of some of the best routines from 10 of the most popular and funny lesbian comedians performing today — the first ever "best of lesbian comedy" CD compilation! Featured are Lea Delaria, Kate Clinton, Georgia Ragsdale, Lacie Harmon, Sara Cyron, Vickie Shaw, Karen Ripley, Karen Williams, Amy Boyd, and Doe Fatolipa. (RS0350) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Whoopi Goldberg

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight? (Tape)

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Meltdown, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the jinxed one with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religious wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here!"), AIDS, and everyone and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings of this 1988 "cut-out" title — very highly recommended! (MCA42243) CS: 9.98

Anne Hill Circle Round & Sing: Goddess Tradition

19 songs, chants, rounds, full and new moon songs, seasonal songs and magical singalongs are presented on this 2000 recording, subtitled Songs for Family Celebrations in the Goddess Tradition, for nature-based family and community celebrations. (13 of these songs are contained in its companion book Circle Round: Raising Children in the Goddess Tradition, by Starhawk, Diane

Baker and Anne Hill). Anne's two daughters lend their voices on these joyful songs celebrating the cycles of life, for the whole family to enjoy. Includes title track, Ocean Lullaby, Place of Power, Full Moon Song, The Give Away Song, The Witch Song by Bonnie Lockheart, When You're Magic by Anne and Starhawk, and many more. (SMP7) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer Nobody Else Like Me

This 1999 release, subtitled Celebrating the Diversity of Children, is a necessity for every child you know. For not only does it celebrate different cultures, languages and physical abilities, it includes (with lyrics intact) a beautiful rendition of the Fred Small classic, Everything Possible, incorporated into a child's consciousness, the song's message will help release them from gender roles, heterosexism and homophobia, by communicating the many possibilities for love in their lives, and in the lives of people they know and encounter. This song appears on many adult collections, but it is wonderful to find it sung for young ones — that's who it was written for. A great kids' chorus joins them on 8 tracks; very highly recommended! (RDU8078) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Chenille Sisters The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plain fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RHR49) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Elaine Silver (Faerie Elaine) Faeries, Dreams & Other Friends

All little girls must of course believe in faeries and magic (big girls too), and here is the perfect recording to validate this reality! To those of us who do believe, Faerieland is right here on the planet Earth. The faeries are the nature spirits who inhabit the trees, flowers and rocks... the sparkles of light on the water... the lovers of life and the keepers of the flames of eternal knowledge... the consciousness that continues to create beauty in the world. Faerie Elaine shares wonderful faerie songs like Faeries Are Gathering, Kumbaloor Green Blessings, Infinitely Faerie, Houseful of Faeries, singing to us this magical and very female vision of the forces of Good and Global Harmony with her lovely crystalline voice. Highly recommended for magic-lovers everywhere! (SSM006) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Heather Bishop Bellybutton

Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC, Canada's national radio network, this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' albums around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaidor, and they're terrific! (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lotus") and title song, "Oh my bellybutton I love you... You're the only friend I have the one who really cares! Cause every time I need you you're always there... When things get down and looking kinda grim, simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in..." Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. (MOP003) CS: 10.98

Linda Tillery, Taj Mahal et al Shakin' a Tailfeather

Children and adults alike will be swaying and grooving to this unique 1997 collection of classic danceable tunes, performed by Linda Tillery and the Cultural Heritage Choir, Taj Mahal, and Eric Bibb. Contemporary sounds such as Shoutin' Bread in hip-hop style join with classic rock 'n' roll like Rockin' Robin... plus Ask Grandma, Oh Mary Mack, Little Sally Walker, The Name Game, Follow the Drinking Gourd, Land of 1,000 Dances and more. Recommended! (MLP72949) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Maria Muldaur Swingin' in the Rain

When swing was queen, life was simpler and just a bit more carefree... so what better period from which to steal music for a children's recording? It works: the music is fun and catchy, the lyrics light and positive. It would be hard to imagine kids not singing along with classics like Zip A Dee Doo Dah and Jeeper's Creepers, especially when you combine them with the fresh new arrangements that Maria just seems to have a ton of fun with (her scat alone on Three Little Fishies is worth the cost of admission). The scary part is that my inner child kept singing the tunes to my adult brain all day and I only listened once. So take heed, this is definitely an over-and-over again recording for kids! (MLP75311) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marlo Thomas & Friends Free To Be... You And Me

With Carol Channing, Diana Ross, Alan Alda, & others. There may never have been any kids' album in history which so thoroughly charmed kids, adults & anyone else as this 1972 classic. That it can communicate anti-sexist material in such a delightful, creative, appealing, exuberant way is remarkable. Includes numbers like Girl Land, William's Doll, Parents Are People, It's All Right to Cry. One kid said "Listening to this record is like listening to my heart laughing." Highly recommended! Pamala Ballingham Earth Mother Lullabies, Vol. 1

Selected by the ALA as a Notable Children's Recording for 1998, this is a lovely and even celestial collection of timeless lullabies from a myriad of traditions. Includes carefully-chosen representations from the Icelandic, Inuit, Irish (the chant-like Ho Ho Watanay), Irish (Gaelic Mother's Lullaby), Jewish, Japanese, African, Australian, Russian, and Spanish cultures. It's unique in the fact that the instrumentation — harp, flute, mandolin, guitar and percussion — is sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy, without diminishing the effectiveness of its purpose: to put little ones to sleep! Booklet of words included. (EM1) CS: 9.98

Pamala Ballingham Treasury of Earth Mother Lullabies

A collection, released in 1990, of 14 of the best selections (58 minutes) from Pamala's 3 volumes of Earth Mother Lullabies, from all over the world, proven effective for sleeplessness in both children and adults. (EM5) CD: 14.98

Priscilla Herdman Star Dreamer: Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinaire. (All you folks have heard the trio Herdman, Hills, & Mangen, right??) It contains wonderful fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waltzing bears and stuff, as well as 8 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Sprung from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by — you guessed it — Anne Hills and Cindy Mangen. Back in stock. Recommended! (ALA1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Robin Spielberg Beautiful Dreamer

This beautiful 2000 collection of solo piano lullabies for parent and child was inspired by pianist Robin Spielberg's daughter Valerie, who spent 4 months in intensive care after being delivered by emergency C-section. Robin found that playing familiar childhood music by the incubator helped the healing process of her daughter, as well as the other babies in the nursery. The 14 soothing and sweet songs on this recording air fond memories, from Brahms's Lullaby, to The Water is Wide, Puff the Magic Dragon, and Edelweiss. All are played with the tenderness of a parent rocking a child to sleep, and are perfect for the two to enjoy together. (NS0123) CD: 15.98

Roches

Will You Be My Friend?

(0178) (C)

Great price on a kid "cut-out" classic! The beautiful harmonies that characterize this sister trio bring to life some of the most emotional and humorous themes you can find on this 1994 children's album. The synoptic and serious message of the title track is followed by an ode to the dog every child seems to inevitably wish for in Rover. Do The Boonies leads off the album, winning the awards for both catchiest tune and most humorous, as it takes you through feline-inspired dance steps. Also includes When Kids Are Mean, Little Betty Betty, My New Bicycle, and more, all originals. A great range of serious to silly, sure to capture a child's attention and imagination. And the vocal prowess of the sisters will surely do the same for the adults as well. Highly recommended! (BB3004) CD: 8.95

Back To the Beat

(NEW)

Subtitled Fresh Versions of 60's and 70's Tunes for Kids, this 1997 sale-priced release received the National Parenting Honors Award. The performing adults plus chorus of kids bring back to life those really great songs of boomers' youths, such as Locomotion, You Really Got Me, Celebration, Do You Love Me, Mockingbird, (it was good to only fat a sampling, but there are so many great tunes, I might as well keep going here...) Iko Iko, I Can See Clearly Now, La Bamba, Show Me the People, Money Money and more... A great gift for a child whose adults are in the right age bracket! (BB33) CD: 8.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock

All For Freedom

This is technically a children's album, but will inspire and be enjoyed by adults and children alike. Drawing on their rich heritage of African musical traditions, Sweet Honey has put together this dynamic and empowering collection of African songs, African stories, and gospel songs, including Calypso Freedom, Kumbaya, Juba, The Little Shekera, and title. I Got Shoes - Album Only

Produced by Toshi Reagon (who is also a guest performer), this 1994 release is a collection of 14 traditional and new songs selected for their ability to inspire, educate and empower youngsters growing up in troubled and confusing times. Adding their youthful voices to this joyful and powerful recording is the Sweet Honey in the Rock Children's Chorus. This is a stunning range of African-American music appropriate for children, including Tama Tama, African Numbers, Freedom Now, Freedom Train, Young and Positive, Down the Road I Be Going, Run Moly Run, Spirit Lullaby, and more. I Got Shoes - The Book and Tape

Written by Tanya Boleen (whose work appears regularly in Young Brothers & Sisters magazine) and Bernice Johnson Reagon, the interactive 26-page booklet that accompanies the cassette contains a wealth of information, activities, and valuable suggestions for further listening and reading in African American history and culture. We highly recommend that you spring for the extra cents for this colorful, informative, wonderful addition! 1994 (MLP42562) CD: 11.95

Sweet Honey in the Rock

Still the Same Me

Using only their voices and percussion instruments, and accompanied occasionally by a chorus of children, this ensemble offers an extraordinary soulful, uplifting and entertaining collection of songs and improvisations for children. They fill this 2000 release with positive messages, conveying them both subtly and right up-front. Sing along, dance along, play along or just listen, both kids and adults will enjoy. Includes Improv Time — Rhythm Start — Your Turn, We Shall Not Be Moved, I Love To Laugh, Nature Song, Way Down Deep. (R08100) CD: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Lullaby Favorites

Great for a baby budget, note the low price! We first heard this talented teenager on the Circle of Women album, having the opportunity to hear her solo here: we are captivated by her gorgeous, evocative voice, like a feather or a bird in the forest! For this 1997 album, she has indeed selected most everyone's all-time favorite lullabies: All Through the Night, Summertime, All the Pretty Little Horses, Over the Rainbow, plus Jewish Lullaby, Gentle Lullaby, and the multi-voiced scappetta Dick Brown is the River. Background vocals by Nymiah; recommended! (MLP72746) CD: 5.95 CD: 8.95

Cada Nino/ Every Child

This charming 1996 album features gently rollicking sing-along tunes with a Tex-Mex flavor. (Accordion is so hard to find on kid's songs!) All of the songs are sung in both English and Spanish with the lyrics (along with accompanying song descriptions and crayon art) printed in the detailed liner notes. My favorite is Bartender Dance, Baile Vegetal, a vaudeville-sounding rave-up about dancing vegetables. Warning: if you get this for your favorite small person you will have to resist the temptation to keep it for yourself! (R08032) CD: 10.95 CD: 15.95

A Child's Celebration of Folk Music

When people used to talk of "folk music," sounds of laughing mandolins, staccato banjos, warm guitars, playful pennywhistles and lilting choruses came to mind: sounds of home and hearth, with songs passed down from generation to generation. This collection honors that tradition, with songs that generations can share. Children will love to learn the simple melodies and fun-to-sing lyrics of Michelle Shocked's See the Sea; Pete Seeger's She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain; Woody Guthrie's Car Song; Maria Muldaur's Would You Like To Swing On a Star; Sweet Honey in the Rock's Run Moly Run; Taj Mahal's Little Brown Dog; Doc Watson's Grandfather Clock; David Grisman and Jerry Garcia's There Ain't No Bugs On Me; and many more classics! Here's to a joyous family gathering! (MLP42585) CD: 9.95 CD: 15.95

A Child's Celebration of the World

(0705) (C)

This is quite simply one of the most positive, reflective and inspiring children's albums in the whole genre. The cultural mix is inspired and well-rounded. The sounds are catchy, the music is polished, the messages are critical! So can you tell we loved this one? A taste of languages, wonderful messages of tolerance and respect, and some of the most popular artists like Miriam Makeba, Raffi, Jean Baez, Chenille Sisters, Taj Mahal and Maria Muldaur make this an excellent choice. Add in the clever bonus of Sweet Honey in the Rock singing during the song breaks, counting numbers in different languages, and kids and adults alike will appreciate this one! Welcoming Children into the World

This 1996 release, associated with the Sound & Spirit public radio show hosted by Ellen Kushner, compiles wonderful tracks by Sweet Honey in the Rock, Libana, Woody Guthrie, Sharon Burch, SAVAE, John McCutcheon, Sally Rogers, Malcolm Dalglish and others, to create a beautiful multi-cultural album in celebration of infants in their first year on earth. Bouncy songs, rocking songs, rhyming songs are here... traditional Bosnian and Nepalese lullabies, a Navajo birth chant, even Happy Adoption Day. A great gift for any family just welcoming a wee one into their midst. (RYK460) CD: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Hippy Hop

This 1999 compilation is probably the first hip-hop album designed for, but not limited to, kids! Produced by Linda Tillery, it features tracks by Linda herself, the Cultural Heritage Choir, percussionist Sheila E., Taj Mahal and Maria Muldaur, combined with the street rap talents of teenage rappers. They create recognizable and danceable rhythms to songs like Cookie Jar, Funky Nursery Rhymes, Mary's Dancing Lamb, and the traditional slave song Juba Dis and Juba Dat, transformed by contemporary hip-hop sounds. Small ones will move to the groove! (MLP75951) CD: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Ysaye Barnwell

Um Hmm (2-Cassette Set)

From a long-time member of Sweet Honey in the Rock comes this delightful 2000 release of African-American stories, songs and poems. Young and older listeners alike will discover stories behind old spiritual songs, the Underground Railroad, and personal stories from Ysaye's childhood that shaped her life as a singer... and will meet characters like a frog who wanted to be a singer, and inverted rhythm and blues. Ysaye's dynamic vocal range and African percussion breathe fresh life into classic children's tunes such as The Hairy Pokey and Hambone. Features 2 Sweet Honey songs, comes with 9 story trading cards and poster. (ENB9) CD: 18.95

Maya Angelou

Black Pearls/Poetry of Maya Angelou

This 1998 release, a reissue of a resoundingly out-of-print 1993 LP, features the amazing author reading 33 of her poems — most of which were first published in her 1971 book Just Give Me A Cool Drink Of Water 'Fore I Die — about her struggles in the South, growing up with relatives following her parents' divorce. Includes the original notes by James Baldwin, plus new notes by poet/songwriter Elizabeth Payne and writer Robin Marcus Vazquez. Soon to be out of print, hurry! (RH72987) CD: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Sister Spit's Ramblin' Road Show

Greatest Spits: A Spoken Word Compilation

This SF entourage has been touring the country with their writers, porn stars and lounge singers, dazzling the literary punk set and their friends with a menu of spoken feminist bitch rock, and inspiring legions of loudmouths to grab a pen and take it to the streets. They're sure to crack open any and all expectations of the spoken word genre! This 2001 compilation is non-stop beauty and action, culled from 3 unavailable previously released CD's in addition to unreleased gems from the vault. Featured performers include curators Sini Anderson and Michelle Tea, plus Tara Jepsen, Beit Lisk, Harniel Dodge. (MRL17) CD: 14.95

Ursula K. Le Guin/ Lao Tzu

Tao Te Ching

Moved by a lifelong love for the great Chinese spiritual and philosophical classic written by Lao Tzu 2500 years ago, novelist/poet Ursula K. Le Guin has been working on her own rendition of the text for over 40 years. "I wanted to make a completely personal version, in the poetic vocabulary of the time, for my own contemporaries: to bring the Tao Te Ching back alive." As she reads during this live studio performance, Todd Barton improvises on Tibetan songs, frame drum, kalimba, bells, blows and bamboo flutes. (SLE033) CD: 10.95

Around the World the Lesbian Way

This 1997 collection is a veritable international Lesbian Film Festival! It contains 5 lesbian films: A Day in the Life of a Bull Dyke, a Canadian comedy-drama; This Marching Girl, a film from Australia, starring Toni Collette from Muriel's Wedding; Casting, an edgy erotic film from Germany; the Swiss film Go Girl, a light-hearted look at the potential woman of your dreams; and the Scottish Dancing, starring film star Sylvia Sims who recalls a passionate love affair in her youth. 80 min. (NAV188VC): 29.98

Bar Girls

Here's the full-length film of a fresh and funny romantic comedy featuring lesbians whose lives intertwine against the backdrop of a Los Angeles bar. Ah, the drama of the lesbian dating game! Closed captioned. (WV17VC): 19.98

Bellydance! Magical Motion

Presented by Alia and friends, this one-hour program features a good history of bellydance, plus beginner through advanced movements, low-impact exercise techniques, dance demonstrations by Alia and 5 other bellydance pros: veil techniques, and finger cymbal basics, all in an easy-to-learn format. It's one of the best movement disciplines for women, since it was developed especially for a woman's body... and it's sensual, and fun! And if you're learning bellydancing and need some music, we recommend all the albums by Desha Wind, in the Women's Spirituality section — see our artist index. (MMN1VC): 29.98

Better Than Chocolate (VHS or DVD)

Whew, it's hot in here... This fun and exuberant Vancouver-based film, with a screenplay by Peggy Thompson, tells the tale of Maggie who meets Kim, the woman of her dreams, just hours before her mother and brother move in with her. In addition to love, lust, and families, it thematically covers violence against lesbians and gays, and transgender issues. Video is 39.98, DVD is 29.98. (TMR5228VC): 39.98 (TMR5228DV): 29.98

Bound

Whew, it's hot in here... This 1996 film stars femme fatale Jennifer Tilly as mobster's girlfriend, Violet, and the overly-pouty Gina Gershon as Corky, her ex-con neighbor. They covertly couple (big kudos to Susie Bright, a.k.a. Susie Sexpert, for her "technical advice") and decide to bilk the mob. It's wonderfully sexy, funny film-not-with-a-refreshing-twist. If you're squeamish about violence, I recommend watching with a mafia-flick-loving friend who can monitor (and allow you to hide your face in their armpit) until the few scary scenes have passed. Closed captioned. (RPE298VC): 19.98

Boys of Manchester: On the Set of Queer as Folk

This behind-the-scenes hour-long documentary features footage, commentary and interviews with the cast and producers of Queer as Folk. Hear what they say about this groundbreaking UK drama series that's become a world-wide rave phenomenon! (In England, 50% of its viewers are women.) Produced by "In the Life", the Emmy-nominated lesbian and gay not-for-profit TV news magazine. (GF3VC): 29.98

Celtic Tides

Travel to Ireland, Scotland and Eastern Canada to visit artists such as Loreena McKennitt, Karen Matheson of Capersallie, 3 female members of the Rankin Family, Maire Brennan of Clannad, Mary Black, Mary Jane Lamond, Ashley MacIsaac, Natalie MacMaster, and many other. Insightful interviews and fiery performances are filmed against the dramatic backdrops of beautiful rugged landscapes, ancient Celtic ruins and windswept ocean shores, revealing the connection between the music and the timeless lands where the music originates. This 1998 musical and cultural documentary is a great way to learn about and appreciate the artists more deeply! (PUT1413VC): 19.98

Chutney Popcorn (VHS or DVD)

The basic plot of this feature-length film, in 25 words or less: lesbian South Asian sister offers to become inseminated by brother-in-law's sperm when straight big sister discovers she is unable to conceive herself. This comedy remarkably depicts the myriad of mixed feelings among the characters: the waspy, jolly lesbian girlfriend, the waspy and strangely enthusiastic husband, the terribly serious and reluctant straight sister-wife, and the initially very traditional South Asian mother of the sisters. Don't expect a tidy ending — this film expands the boundaries of extended families into new territory. VHS video is 39.98, DVD (and soundtrack) is 24.98, (CHP1VC): 39.98 (CHP1DV): 24.98

Desert Hearts

To our great delight, this fine title is actually back in print, no foolin'. Based on the excellent novel by Jane Rule, turned into film by Donna Deitch, and needs no introduction because most of you have probably seen it several times already! If you haven't, suffice it to say it's a love story between two women with one of the most erotic scenes ever filmed, one you'll want to watch over and over — highly recommended. DVD is available for 29.98, video for 19.98. (VES1120VC): 19.98

Everything Relative

Sort of like a lesbian Big Chill, this is a romantic comedy about a reunited group of women who went to college together. Their quick-witted repartees reveals irony, humor and a touch of nostalgia for the 70's, and how their lives, politics and loves have changed. (WV9011VC): 29.98

Fire

Written and directed by Deepa Mehta, this is one of the most excellent films seen by this reviewer in a long time. Banned in India, this 1996 release is the first film we know about to confront the topic of lesbianism in a culture which, entrenched in tradition, denies that such a love could exist. Wonderful, emotion-evoking performances by Shabana Azmi and Nandini Das, as the sisters-in-law in loveless marriages who find each other, highly recommended! (NYV65398VC): 39.98

Go Fish

Back in print! Love, comedy, gossip, dating and matchmaking... This 95-minute feature-length film is a fun and sexy glimpse into the lives, loves and drama of a cluster of lesbian friends. (GF1VC): 19.98

Goddess Grace: A Moving Meditation

Presented by Maribel and friends, this 2-hour video demonstrates a wonderful moving meditation which weaves together movements from yoga, bellydance, other dance forms and exercise routines in a continuously flowing Tai Chi-style format. The movements are coordinated with a spoken meditation which invokes 25 goddesses from around the world, in alphabetical order from Athena to Zoe. It includes their geographical origins, imagery, and empowering, first-person affirmations. The program provides you with step-by-step instruction, the Goddess affirmations, the entire form set to Maribel's original music, and the Ten Suggestions for Enjoying Goddess Grace, which double as guidelines for a more satisfying life. If you've ever wanted to begin a movement discipline, but everything you tried felt too male to you, or just not right, this is perfect. Written affirmations included. Highly recommended! (USU1VC): 29.98

Late Bloomers

One of the most charming and excellent lesbian-themed feature flicks we have seen in a long, long time! Two women who are employees in a public school, one a married mom and the other a single math teacher/girls basketball coach, fall in love and create a HUGE scandal in the school. We don't want to ruin the end for you, but it's an absolutely funny, sensual, and joyous film — including 2 baseball scenes which are priceless. This 1998 video release by Gretchen & Julia Dyer, was an official selection of the Sundance Film Festival. 104 min. Highly recommended! (STR6708VC): 59.98

Living with Pride:

Ruth Ellis @ 100
Ruth Ellis died in 2000 at age 101, how fortunate that Yvonne Walton made this most excellent documentary in 1999. It is a beautiful and inspiring portrait of the woman who was probably the closest "out" African-American lesbian when this was filmed — she was still going strong at 100 years of age as she was entering her third century (she was born in 1893). Interviews, memories of younger friends, photographs, archival footage and dramatic recreations of her past create a candid, warm and intimate picture of her pioneering life. She was the first woman to own her own printing business in NE Detroit, and for 30 years she and her partner Babe provided a social haven for African-American gays and lesbians who faced discrimination at the gay bars. Whether or not you already know Ruth from the women's music festivals, this film is a must; highly recommended! (3171VC): 29.98

Northern Exposure: Cicely

This was the wonderful "lesbian episode" of the popular TV show Northern Exposure, dramatizing the founding of Cicely. It's a great portrayal of the love, devotion and intimacy between two women. If you missed it, now you can have your permanent copy. Includes a special "featurette" — a behind-the-scenes look at the characters of the show. Closed captioned. (WV10VC): 19.98

Not For Ourselves Alone (2-Video)

This excellent PBS documentary on the 100-year struggle of the Women's Suffrage Movement, and on the lives, awe-inspiring dedication, and friendship between feminists Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton, is fortunately now available as a 2-video set. Very highly recommended; it should probably be "required viewing" for Second- and Third-Wave Feminists, for students of all ages, and for all women and men who are citizens of the U.S. for that matter. (PBS1VC): 39.98

November Moon

This award-winning film tells the gripping story of a wartime romance between 2 beautiful and strong-willed women. On the brink of WWII, November flees her native Germany for the relative safety of Paris, where she falls in love with Ferial. When the Germans occupy the city, Ferial decides to hide November, and takes a job with a Nazi paper to disguise both her lesbianism and her sympathy for the Jews. Directed by Alexandra von Grote, German with English subtitles, 106 minutes. (WV3399VC): 39.98

Out of Season

Barbara Grier of Naïd Press has anointed this feature-length film with the comment, "By far the best lesbian film ever made!" While we may not agree with the superlative (we don't think it's in the same league as Desert Hearts), this film about 2 women who fall in love has won some awards, and is certainly worth watching and owning if you want your collection to be complete. Produced and directed by Jeanette Buck, 98 min. (PTH1061VC): 29.98

Paris Was a Woman

A fascinating film portrait of the women (many lesbian) writers, artists and photographers who flocked to the Left Bank of Paris during the first half of the 20th century. This excellent 1998 video documentary recreates the mood of this creative female artistic community which fueled a world-wide renaissance in art and literature. Includes rare film footage and stills of Gertrude Stein and Alice B. Toklas, Djuna Barnes, Natalie Barney, Berenice Abbott, and many others. Directed by Greta Schiller, written and researched by Andrea Weiss, 75 min., recommended! (JGF1VC): 39.98

Sorceress

This suspenseful drama revolves around a 13th century Dominican friar who, sent by the Pope to seek out heretics, arrives in a small French village where he discovers Elda, the strangely beautiful and mysterious forest woman. Elda is respected in the village because she performs ancient healing rituals and understands nature's secrets. As an inquisitor, the friar sets out to investigate these practices, resulting in an explosive confrontation between the pagan-based ancient customs and the patriarchal religious dogma. Produced, directed and written primarily by women, 98 minutes, a compelling film, and highly recommended! (MYS177VC): 29.98

Strangers in Good Company (VHS or DVD)

Back in print! This Canadian film is the delightful story about a group of remarkable women travelers who, when stranded, turn their escapade into a truly magical time of humor and adventure. They lost their way... and found each other. It was not produced in the usual fashion, wherein actors are given precise scripts; rather, the basic story was outlined, and the women (most not professional "actors") improvised, just like their characters, yielding a more authentic and honest story, with more depth than films usually reach. Especially loved Mary Meigs' portrayal of her lesbian self, though there is not a single woman you won't love by the end. Closed captioned; very highly recommended! Video is 19.98, DVD is 29.98. (TS11354VC): 19.98 (TS11354DV): 29.98

The Hunger

This dazzling erotic vampire thriller is a lesbian cult classic, due to the unparalleled scenes between Susan Sarandon and Catherine Deneuve. Also stars David Bowie. Great fun, horror (expect a lot of blood), suspense, and beauty! 100 min., closed captioned. (MGM800281VC): 19.98

The Watermelon Woman

In this fun, feature-length film by Cheryl Dunye, the African-American lesbian filmmaker basically stars as herself, a young woman working in a video store, who is making a documentary about an obscure black actress from the 30's (known as "The Watermelon Woman"). At the same time she discovers that the actress had a white female lover, she begins a romance with "it cute white woman" — who is played by Guinevere Turner (star of Go Fish). Great footage and photos from early black films and film albums. Cast also includes (playing themselves) Toshi Reagon and a nearly speechless Camille Paglia. 85 min. (FIR833VC): 29.98

War Widow

Ever since this play by Harvey Fierstein was televised on PBS several years ago, we've had several requests for it, and happily we can make it available. It tells the story of a young mother whose husband is overseas during WWII, her search for self, and her developing relationship with a lesbian photographer. These video duplications aren't film quality, so expect a bit of fuzziness here and there, overlook these minor flaws, and enjoy the show! (HP1VC): 39.98

When Night Is Falling

Patricia Rozema, the creator of the exquisite film I've Heard The Mermaids Singing, has created another lyrical, intelligent, metaphorical (I love Bob the dog), beautifully filmed, well acted, erotic, chick full of interesting characters kind of a picture. The story revolves around the meeting and defining of the relationship between Camille, a professor at a Chisholm college and Petra, a performer at an "alternative circus". Released on video in '97, this is a rare gem of any entertainment and a lesbian film that you do not need to "handicap" — hooray! Closed captioned. (OCT1VC): 19.98

Zan Chen (Woman's Warrior Workout)

Inside an award-winning dojo in Boulder, a remarkable transformation is taking place among the women there. They are learning a system for self-protection that was created by a woman — for other women. And though the workout pace is intense, they radiate power and calm from within their bodies, where all true warriorship begins. Their teacher is Melanie Murphy, one of only 2 women in the country to hold a 4th-degree black belt from the National Karate Association, who here presents an intense, concentrated 38-minute workout program for mental, physical, and spiritual preparedness for women of any size or athletic ability. Previously released under the title Women's Warrior Workout. (SND009VC): 19.98

Anais Nin

Anais Observed

"Art must be, for women, more like a personified, ancient ritual where every spiritual thought is made visible, enacted, represented." This intimate portrait is an actual 1973 film of the renowned author at work and at home, narrating, reflecting upon and sharing her philosophy, experiences, influences, and approach to life and her craft. Any fan of her writing will enjoy this chance to meet the artist! 60 min. (MYS353VC): 29.98

Bella Abzug

Intimate Portrait: Bella Abzug

This 1995 video program is a rigorously inspiring portrait of one of the most committed feminist and outspoken politicians in US history. This is an informative and perceptive glimpse into many facets of her life, from her early years in a Russian Jewish family, to Columbia Law School (one of the first women in the class), to the House of Representatives and beyond, always fiercely advocating for women's rights, peace, environmental, and many other progressive causes. (UPX70489VC): 14.98

Charlotte Church In Concert:

Voice of an Angel

Her album is wonderful, but to fully appreciate this young artist, who embodies both child and woman, this live performance video is a necessity. She exudes warmth, charm, effervescence, confidence and dignity, establishing an excellent rapport with her packed-house audience at London's Brixton Academy as she treats them to her arioso. Her expressive phrasing and articulation is always perfect, and you will enjoy watching this glorious concert over and over. With orchestral and choral accompaniment, highly recommended. (SHV61770VC): 19.98

Ellen DeGeneres

The Beginning

Ellen returns to her stand-up roots on this 65-minute HBO special, finally released on video in 2001. Recorded live at the Beacon Theater in NYC — after her TV show was cancelled — her presentation is hilarious, outspoken, outrageous and OUT! Her comedy is at its peak, as she covers topics from how to deal with forgetting people's names to videotaping your sex life. We love Ellen and still miss her weekly show! But we're glad she's still working and bringing her brilliant gift of humor to her audience. (HBO91767VC): 19.98

Ellen DeGeneres

The Real Ellen Story

This 1996 release is the behind-the-scenes story of the battle behind Ellen, the most controversial sitcom episode in history, when 42 million people tuned in to watch Ellen acknowledge she's gay, and an intimate look at her decision to "out" herself as well as her TV character. This authorized documentary produced for England's Channel 4, features Anne Hachs, Laura Dern, Melissa Etheridge, Diane Sawyer, Ellen's mom Betty, brother Vance, and former ABC/Disney executives and the writers of the coming-out episode. Historically significant, and essential for fans! (PTH1VC): 19.98

From this pioneer in the development of ecstatic dance, this set brings together 3 complete ecstatic dance workouts: her popular title The Wave, the 2000 video release The Power Wave, and the 2001 release The Inner Wave, at a special price. 90 min. (SND023VC): 49.98

Gabrielle Roth

The Wave
Subtitled Ecstatic Dance for Body & Soul, this moving meditation journeys through 5 powerful universal rhythms: Flowing Staccato, Chaos, Lyrical and Stillness. Inspiring your own natural style of movement, your intuitive dance, these rhythms can be experienced as metaphors for events and people in your life and work. Exploring them can enable you to free your body and spirit from ordinary consciousness and catalyze deep motion in your soul, to move beyond resistance and self-consciousness into your wild and mysterious free spirit, and to unleash your intuition, imagination and inspiration! (RAV14VC): 19.98

Hildegard of Bingen

Radiant Life: Meditations & Visions

Subtitled Meditations & Visions of Hildegard of Bingen, this 1996 video is a most excellent presentation on the life and writings, music and art of the amazing, visionary composer/ healer/ artist/ mystic, whose works expressed an intense relationship with Sophia, or Mother Wisdom. First some facts and details of her life are presented (for instance, did you know she was "given" to a convent at a very early age, because she was the tenth child in her family, and custom was to give one tenth of your wealth as a tithe to the church??!!). Then many of her writings are recited, to a background of music she composed (performed by 4 women on voice, vielle, harp, recorder, psaltery and percussion), while her illuminations and works of art are shown. Informative, instructive, and recommended! (WSM1VC): 19.98

Joni Mitchell

Painting With Words & Music (VHS or DVD)

The only thing better than listening to a Joni Mitchell song is watching her play. Recorded live in front of an intimate audience, this 1998 concert is a must-have for any Joni fan. With a backdrop of her very own paintings, Joni shares stories and songs with her audience, performing classics such as Big Yellow Taxi and Woodstock, along with some newer songs and even a few great covers. See this incredible musician at her best! Video is 24.98, DVD is 39.98. (IM5514VC): 24.98 (IM5514DV): 39.98

Julie Cypher, Melissa

Etheridge, k.d. lang

Teresa's Tattoo

Directed by Melissa Etheridge's life former partner/kid, Julie Cypher, this screwball comedy video follows two thugs who accidentally kill the woman they are holding for ransom and quickly need a replacement. Their search for another red-headed, prominently-tattooed gal is enhanced by cameo appearances by Melissa and k.d. lang. (WV25VC): 19.98

Live in Sydney

k.d.'s first-ever live home video captures performances from her '96 world tour, includes the very thought-after What's New Pussycat? and a new interpretation of Rose Garden, plus classic like Baroque, Constant Craving, Miss Chastelaine, Crying, Sexuality, and 9 others, as well as exclusive backstage footage and interviews. 1997. 63 min., closed captioned. (WBV38489VC): 19.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle et al
The McGarrigle Hour: Video

It lasts a little longer than an hour and includes not just the McGarrigles, but is a unique live performance that brings together a family of astounding musicians. Kate and Anna are joined by Loudon, Martha, and Rufus Wainwright, Linda Ronstadt, Emmylou Harris, and more. Their concert captures one of the greatest folk families of all time, paying tribute to the spirit of North American song. Also includes interview clips with Kate and Anna, as well as 4 bonus tracks from their 1991 concert at the Theatre Expo in Montreal. (HAN1447VC): 19.98

Kate Wolf
An Evening in Austin

A 74-minute concert video, which had been edited for Austin City Limits, but here's the entire show! A must for all Kate Wolf fans, and will make a fan out of anyone who's not one already. She and guitarist Nina Gerber exhibit a wonderful rapport on stage, as the genuineness, sweetness, ease and radiance of Kate's personality really shine through. Includes many of Kate's favorite concert songs, most are original, lyric booklet included. Recommended! (OWL005VC): 19.98

Layne Redmond
Rhythmic Wisdom

If you'd like to learn to access the universal powers of drumming by playing the Frame Drum, the world's most ancient drum, here's your chance to learn from one of the foremost experts. For beginning through advanced players, she covers the basic strokes for the Doun, Tak, Kah and Brush tones, combination strokes and rhythms for various tonal patterns, interlocking rhythms for group drumming, and much more. And, the introduction to this 1999 release relates the instrument to unique historical and spiritual insights. (WWM312VC): 24.98

Lily Tomlin Video Collection

Highlighting the creative diversity of the performer, this 5-video collection captures vintage Lily Tomlin portraying 25 now-classic characters — including Ernestine, Edith Ann, Mrs. Beasley, Tommy Velour, and Trudy the Bag Lady — as she presents her unique and hilarious view of American culture and its idiosyncrasies. Contains Tony Award-winning The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe and Appearing Nightly (a Ladieslipper favorite), Emmy Award-winning Lily: Sold Out, plus Ernestine: Peak Experiences and Lily for President? Each tape includes "fan bonuses" from Lily — personal archive footage, much of it never seen before, all of it fun! You'll find yourself traveling through today and yesterday to exotic trouble spots of the human condition... so realistic you'll think you actually were there. Over 20 years in the making, over 5 hours, highly recommended! (TWT8VC): 79.98

Lily Tomlin/ written by Jane Wagner
Search for Signs... Intelligent Life

The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe is finally available! Starring humanity in a role of a lifetime, finally humankind's mood swings are captured on film. In this movie that asks the question, "What was the question?" Trudy the bag lady narrates this travelogue of the 20th century, threading her way through the dozen characters that populate the play. Lily received the 1985 Tony Award for Best Actress for this performance. 120 minutes. (TWT8VC): 29.98

Lucy Lawless, et al
Women From Down Under

This collection of 4 short films made by female directors from New Zealand and Australia runs the gamut from silly to serious to sensual. The big headline-grabber is Peach, starring Lucy Lawless (TV's Xena, Warrior Princess) as a lowtruck driver who is attracted to a young Maori woman with a jerky boyfriend. Also includes Just Desserts, a film that explores the metaphors between Italian food and female sexual awakening; Jumping the Gun, a woman on the "morning-after" fantasizing about the future with the woman with whom she's had a one-night stand; and my favorite, Excursion to the Bridge of Friendship, a wonderfully odd and quirky story about an Aussie feminist artist and her Bulgarian folksinging cousin. (WV1055VC): 16.98

Marija Gimbutas
World of the Goddess

An absorbing view of the culture, religious beliefs, symbolism and mythology of the prehistoric, pre-patriarchal cultures of Old Europe, who revered and celebrated the Great Goddess of Life, Death, and Regeneration. The scholar/artist who has made the exploration of these cultures her life work, and is known as one of the world's foremost experts, presents the material here in a lecture format, illustrated with over 100 images of figurines and painted artifacts from these cultures. 103 minutes. (MYS282VC): 29.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter
Jubilee: Live at Wolf Trap

A stunning performance piece is captured here live, as filmed for PBS's In the Spotlight series, plus a few never-before-released performances not included in the PBS airing. Includes duets with special guests Shawn Colvin (That's the Way Love Goes) and Joan Baez (Stones in the Road), plus solos on Come On Come On, He Thinks He'll Keep Her, Passionate Kisses, 19 min. (CMV50126VC): 19.98

Maya Angelou
Intimate Portrait: Maya Angelou

Honored by presidents and revered by scholars, Maya Angelou's life is a collection of great achievements as well as survival of many personal tragedies; her background is as complex as the woman herself. Oprah Winfrey narrates this 1999 video release, which presents a candid retelling of Maya's amazing life, as she shares her story. Includes rare photographs of her childhood days, and interviews with her brother and son. The strength of this creator of 5 autobiographical volumes, several books of poetry, screenplays, plays and songs, and recipient of countless degrees and awards, comes shining through. 60 min. (UPX70432VC): 19.98

Odetta/ Ysaye M. Barnwell, host
Odetta: Exploring Life, Music, Song

This 80-minute video preserves an informative conversation between Odetta and her interviewer, Dr. Ysaye M. Barnwell (performer, educator, and member of Sweet Honey in the Rock). In addition to a few vocal performances, Odetta shares her thoughts, her history and life experiences on many topics, from her vocal style and technique, to choosing her repertoire, to her musical influences. Released in 1999, when Odetta was celebrating her 50th year as a professional performer! (HOM526VC): 29.98

Ruth Barrett
Singing the Wheel of the Year

Subtitled Pagan Chant Workshop, this Dianic high priestess introduces 11 chants on this 2001 video release. She teaches them to a circle of women, men and children here — actually, the Covenant of Unitarian Universalist Pagans and friends — and as the chanting and percussion builds, visuals evoke the seasons. Includes 6 seasonal chants for Hallowmas, Imbolc, Beltaine, Lamas, the Solstices and Equinoxes, plus chants for opening, closing, and invoking the directions written by Starhawk, Shekinah Moutonwater, Kay Gardner and others. 40 minutes, words and music included. (GAU1VC): 19.98

Suzanne Westenhofer
HBO Comedy Special

Get ready — hold your sides together! One of the world's highest profile lesbian comedians is now available for a personal gig in your home any time of the day or night! This 1995 video release was nominated for an ACE award, closed captioned. (SWV1VC): 19.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
Singing for Freedom

This video captures a 1995 live performance in San Francisco where Sweet Honey, the congregation of the Glide Memorial Church, and children all sang along in joyous celebration. Drawn mostly from Sweet Honey's award-winning children's recordings, All for Freedom and I Got Shoes, the songs include old spirituals, tradition-rich play songs, a moving medley of civil rights anthems, and even an uplifting acappella rap. Interviews with children in the audience and Bernice Johnson Reagon, founder and artistic director of the group, add depth and perspective to this "concert for the child in each of us." (MLPS205VC): 19.98

Weavers
Wasn't That a Time

One of the most moving documentaries ever made is again available. The members of the pivotal, legendary folk quartet, The Weavers, reflect on their history as they prepare for their 1980 reunion concert at Carnegie Hall. Features the early meetings of Ronnie Gilbert and Holly Near, and their musical meeting on Hay Una Mujer, which led to their subsequent collaborative performances and recordings. Highly recommended — to see, to own, to archive! (WAR38304VC): 24.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part I
Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone — beginner or veteran of women's culture — who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture. The Goddess culture which preceded this, the power of symbols, and much much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. No matter how much you think you already know, you'll learn something more from watching this: it's the result of many years of research by writer-narrator Mary R. Hopkins. Produced by Claire Simon. (QV2VC): 24.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 1
Goddess Remembered

This stunning and poetic documentary is a salute to 35,000 years of "pre-history," to the matriarchal cultures of ancestors only recently remembered, and to our ancient goddess-worshipping religions. The caves of paleolithic

France, the mysterious earthworks of ancient Britain, and the sun-drenched passages of Delphi and Crete are brought to life here, with exquisite musical accompaniment by Loreena McKennitt. This 3-part series is expertly directed by Donna Read. (DCL307VC): 29.98

The Burning Times

Part Two in the Women and Spirituality series offers new insights into the legends and misconceptions that surround the term witch. In the attempt to eradicate the woman-based power of midwives, wise old crones and healers, the Christian church instigated a reign of terror which resulted in the genocide of millions of women and the destruction of what had been an organic way of life. The film illustrates how this sanctioned torture and murder set the stage for modern society's cultural acceptance of massive violence against women. Building on ideas set forth in the discovery of goddess-based culture, this is a beautifully crafted tribute to the value and strength that women brought and bring to life. Music by Loreena McKennitt, highly recommended! (DCL330VC): 29.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 3
Full Circle

In this final part of the Women and Spirituality trilogy, the filmmaker examines the many present-day manifestations of the women's spirituality movement. She finds authors like Anne Cameron, leaders and social activists like Starhawk, and others, meeting around kitchen tables and in circles on hilltops, discussing spirituality and performing rituals that give them strength to transform their inner beliefs into political and social action. This is her most personal film of the three — she discusses her own journey — and we finally learn about the dancer who has appeared in all 3 films — so the title is a fitting one. Music again by Loreena McKennitt, recommended again! (DCL462VC): 29.98

Wyoma
African Healing Dance

Wyoma is the respected lead dancer and director of the DANCEALLA dance troupe, which performs dance and music of Africa and the diaspora. On this 1997 video release, she offers step-by-step instruction on the healing tradition and expressive movements that are unique to Africa's dance heritage. The teaches symbolic animal and elemental gestures, as well as hip, torso and shoulder articulations. More than just physical movement, this is a direct and transformative way to celebrate life and create healing. Booklet included, 70 min. (SND006VC): 19.98

Songbooks

Alix Dobkin

Adventures in Women's Music

The two photographs of Miss Alix Dobkin, International Folk singer (1962, 1964), are alone worth the price of this book, which is already a bargain! Lead sheets with lyrics and background for the songs on Lavender Jams and Living with Lesbians, plus others; material on Alix's life and career. Bajan singing, photographs and lesbian comic-strip illustrations. A wonderful volume. (TOM158): 4.98

Highly recommended. (FCP258): 29.98

The Dar Williams Songbook

A must-have for every fan, this songbook includes selections from Dar's first 3 albums. Along with the lyrics to these 12 songs, you'll find guitar chords, tablature, drum patterns and alternate tunings, as well as a guitar notation legend. Includes favorites such as Are You Out There, When I Was a Boy, and her essential, brilliant The Christians and the Pagans. (HLD690320S): 17.98

Indigo Girls

Come On Now Social Songbook

In addition to lyrics, piano and vocal parts, this 2001 companion songbook also contains a special guitar section, which focuses on the parts played by Amy and Emily. Not only on guitars but on mandolin, banjo and bouzouki as well! These transcriptions give detailed info on capo placement and tunings too, so you can play each complete song just as it was recorded. Includes Cold Beer and Remote Control, Sister Faye Tucker, Peace Tonight, Philosophy of Loss, all the songs from the album. (HLD306329S): 19.98

The Kate Wolf Songbook

For several years, Kate talked about compiling a songbook, but she never found time between her work on the road and in the studio. After she died, her family and friends designed this book with her thoughts in mind. Includes 56 songs she wrote and recorded, plus her favorite closing piece, Redtail Hawk. 60 photos from her musical life, long biography and discography. 160 pages in all. A beautiful commemoration. (ASD158): 19.98

Libana: A Circle Is Cast Songbook

This 30-page songbook contains words, music, and annotations to the 22 selections from her gorgeous cassette of the same name; an excellent resource for round- and chant-singing. (SPN258): 11.98

Libana: Fire Within Songbook

The companion songbook to Libana's 1990 release on Ladyslipper Records is the perfect tool for learning and teaching the rounds and chants on the album. (LRS106S): 12.98

Libana: Night Passage Songbook

Here is the companion songbook to their highly-anticipated 2000 collection of rounds and chants on the cycles of life and renewal... so that your choral group or singing circle need waste no time in learning another batch of stunningly beautiful songs. (SPN358): 15.98

Rise Up Singing

Subtitled The Group-Singing Songbook, with 1200 songs, this is probably the most comprehensive songbook ever published, even though it offers no melody lines, and no musical notations other than chord sequences. But it tells you where you can hear each song, if you don't already know it, and many many will already be familiar enough that you'll be able to pick out the tunes. Edited by Peter Blood-Patterson, topics include Ecology, Peace, Struggle, Women, Work, Play, Freedom, Funny Songs, Rounds, Sacred Rounds & Chants, and more. Songwriters include Holly Near, Chris Williamson, Malvina Reynolds, Betsy Rose, Charlie Murphy, Buffy Sainte-Marie, Pete Seeger, and on and on... you're guaranteed to never run out of something to sing! (SNG137S): 17.98

CIRCLE OF SONG

WORDS, CHANTS, AFFIRMATIONS AND RITUAL AND CELEBRATION
A companion to Kate Marks

Songs for Earthlings (Unbound)

Now in a lower-priced unbound version, with holes punched for easy use in a 3-ring binder! Subtitled A Green Spirituality Songbook, this encyclopedic tome contains 433 sacred songs, chants, rounds and hymns celebrating the Earth and all of us who live here — designed for use by women's circles and those who seek to use singing together to deepen commitments to one another and build community. The music is easy to learn — compiler/editor Julie Forest Middleton encourages us to move away from the printed page and teach others these songs! To that end she gives us clear transcriptions, many 3- and 4-part arrangements, often supplying chords. Thoroughly annotated and indexed, with complete citations, this 1998 publication is a highly recommended major reference work. (EEP258): 19.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock

Continuum

Subtitled The First Songbook of Sweet Honey in the Rock, this unique, historic 1999 publication features 170 pages of music and lyrics, biographical essays of the core members, instructions in performing the songs, as well as short explanations of each song — written by the authors themselves. Compiled and edited by Ysaye M. Barnwell, with a foreword by Harry Belafonte, Jr., it is certain to become a collector's item, for generations to come and for those who have had the privilege to share in the group's timeless message of human struggle and triumph. (TWP2158): 24.98

Sarah McLachlan

The Songs of Sarah McLachlan

This 1999 songbook contains easy arrangements for guitar with notes and tablatures, for 18 of her best-loved songs from the albums Surfacing, Solace and Fumbling Toward Ecstasy. (HLD702128S): 12.98

Terry Garthwaite

Sacred Circles & Affirmations Songbook

This ex-rock star writes some great rounds and chants! (See our Women's Spirituality section for the CD Sacred Circles.) Her songbook contains all the songs from the CD plus 5 additional musical affirmations. Many are transcribed as 7-part melody lines. But some are 2- and 3-part harmonies and rounds. Healing, energizing and empowering for women's circles and singing groups everywhere. (JOY158): 9.98

NEW!

Bernice Reagon & Sweet Honey We Who Believe In Freedom

We fortunately have some copies back in stock, even though it's out of print! Subtitled Sweet Honey in the Rock... Still On the Journey, this 1993 publication is a pious, lyrical celebration of the renowned musical ensemble that reintroduced a cappella music to the contemporary national and international music scene. Moving with energy and good pacing through the lives and rhythms of the women who make up Sweet Honey, it includes essays by each member and their support team, historical essays, and appreciations by Alice Walker and Angela Davis. 384 pages, inc. 52 pages of photos. (DBL4662BK): 18.98

Layne Redmond

When The Drummers Were Women

This learned drummer/teacher presents the history of the sacred drum in the ancient Goddess civilizations of the Mediterranean and the Middle East. Subtitled A Spiritual History of Rhythm, this 1997 publication is filled with photos from her collection of images gathered during more than 5 years of research and travel in the Middle East and Europe. Bringing together current scientific research on rhythm's harmonious effects on the body, mind and spirit with fascinating myth, archeology, and history, Layne demonstrates how women can reclaim drumming as a spiritual heritage and sacred technology. (HMY80128BK): 17.98

Sudie Rakusin

The Coloring Book for Big Girls

Sudie's art has often graced the cover of our catalog. Her 1998 publication is a delightful adult book filled with drawings of strong, high-spirited women, each with a descriptive caption, goddesses, guides, angels and friends, many with an animal companion. The experience of coloring in this book will take you away from the chaos of the outer world, into a place of centered calm. With a box of colored pencils or crayons, it makes a wonderful gift for all sorts of celebrations and rites of passage. (BRK98BK): 9.98

Sudie Rakusin Dear Calla Roo... Love, Savannah Blue

For all of you who have appreciated Sudie's coloring book for adults, here is her illustrated children's book for the younger humans in your life, and for dog-lovers of any age. The story of a pen pal friendship between the dog Savannah Blue and a little girl named Calla Ruth, this 2000 publication is also a tribute to the character, love, and charm our dogs represent. (BRK4805BK): 15.98

Ysaye M. Barnwell/Sweet Honey No Mirrors in My Nana's House-w/CD

Beautifully illustrated with brilliant paintings by Synthia St. James, this 1998 hardcover children's book is written by Sweet Honey in the Rock member Ysaye Barnwell — many of you have heard the song at a Sweet Honey concert. Includes a 9-minute CD, which includes a reading of the book and 2 versions of the song performed by Sweet Honey. This story of a girl who discovers the beauty in herself by looking into her grandmother's eyes, is a wonderful gift for a child. (HAR1825BK): 17.98

Octaves Beyond Silence

This extraordinary and ambitious 2000 compilation focuses on, and raises funds to benefit, women survivors of war and violence. One of the first and only recordings to address the situations of women in Afghanistan, Rwanda and Bosnia, its proceeds support the following organizations: Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan, Women for Women International, Center for Women War Victims, The V-Day Fund, Center for Gender and Refugee Studies, and Refugee Women in Development, Inc.

Of particular interest at this moment is the track This Passage (for the woman who has awoken) -- performed by Feng Shui with members of RAWA: The Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan, an organization whose members have been risking their lives for over 20 years, in their fight for women's rights, education and health care. On this track, you will hear the words of their founder, Meena, who was assassinated in 1987 at age 30. We hope you'll visit two highly recommended websites: www.rawa.org and www.afghanwomensmission.org.

A benefit for women survivors of war and violence

The CD also includes the only recording to date from feminist playwright/ poet Eve Ensler, author of The Vagina Monologues, here reading My Vagina Was My Village. Additional music tracks from Ani DiFranco, Indigo Girls, Me'shell NdegeOcello, BETTY, and many other artists are interspersed with narratives and songs from women in Bosnia, Rwanda, Afghanistan and the US. A great recording for a great cause; support it! Buy it! (OBS1) CD: 16.98

HOLLY NEAR

Holly's outspoken songs for peace and social justice have always been articulate and inspirational, and her 2000 release offers a perfect blend of originals such as I Ain't Afraid and 1000 Grandmothers, as well as songs like Standard White Jesus and Love Don't Need a Reason by other contemporary singer-songwriters. Nourishing music from an eloquent and essential artist. (CTM0004) CD: 15.98

Holly Near: "Edge"

I Ain't Afraid by Holly Near

I ain't afraid of your Yahweh
I ain't afraid of your Allah
I ain't afraid of your Jesus
I'm afraid of what you do in the name of your God

I ain't afraid of your churches
I ain't afraid of your temples
I ain't afraid of your praying
I'm afraid of what you do in the name of your God

Rise up to your higher power
Free up from fear, it will devour you
Watch out for the ego of the hour
The ones who say they know it
Are the ones who will impose it on you

Rise up, and see a higher story
Free up from the gods of war and glory
Watch out for the threats of purgatory
The spirit of the wind won't make
A killing off of sin and satan

MUSIC BY KAY GARDNER

Kay Gardner: "A Rainbow Path"

Almost 2 decades after its release on the Ladyslipper label, this remarkable album is still known as a classic. This evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music was created specifically for meditation, relaxation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing, by a pioneer in the field of healing through music, arts and color. Representing a milestone in her research, each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center), with a written meditation and visualization for each one. Scored for flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, with vocal drones provided by members of Libana, Kay's compositions draw from classical, Celtic, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. If you haven't yet discovered the healing properties of music, here is the perfect introduction. (LR103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Libana: "Night Passage"

If you're searching for music to uplift and comfort your spirit during times of transition, we recommend Libana. A long-awaited and stunning sequel to their beloved collections A Circle Is Cast and Fire Within, this luminous gathering of rounds, chants and songs — subtitled Invocations for the Journey — gives soulful reflection to the infinite mysteries of life's seasons. From a mystical ode invoking the new moon, to an undulating chant honoring the Yoruba Goddess Yemaya... from a South African ancestral incantation, to lush settings of the poet Rumi... the 7 women of Libana sing with a reflective reverence, infusing every selection with harmonic power and musical grace. This exquisite, soul-piercing, resonating, transcendent music is a profound and gentle blessing on the journey to hope and inspiration; we give this 2000 release our very highest recommendation! (SPN003) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98
