Support Your Indie Slippers!

Dear Friends,

Ladyslipper Music keeps on blooming, thanks to the support of so many great folks like you. If you value receiving the information in this publication, we urge you to continue to show your support in the form of frequent music orders (as well as contributions, of course) ~ at least one order from each catalog!

During the past year, we've witnessed more closings of independent women's bookstores, including some we have been supplying with music for over 20 years. We've had customers tell us they've switched over to buying their music from some of the big, seductive chain stores, as well as from the on-line discounters.

We wish we could serve you a cappuccino right now, to make browsing our catalog as aromatic and "stimulating" an experience as perusing one of those plush, carpeted, corporate aisles.

You know, if we had billions of dollars to invest, and millions of dollars to lose each year (which of course we don't have), we could match the low prices of the big discounters. But if organizations like Ladyslipper and women's bookstores didn't exist to lend a base of support to independent women artists in the first place, you'd never see so much of their music ultimately wind up in the mega-stores.

We hope none of us ever need find out what would happen if our choices were to become so limited. If you value our service, won't you please make a commitment to send us at least one music order from each Ladyslipper Catalog you receive?

So sit back and enjoy a cup of delicious home-brewed coffee or tea, while you browse and order up some of the very best music on the planet. And take advantage of some great free bonus gifts for sending us your order right now ~ see below!

Classical

Gertrude Stein/Virgil Thomson The Mother of Us All (2-CD Set)

Capturing the final collaboration between Gertrude Stein (text) and Virgil Thomson (music), which Gertrude didn't live to hear, this very unique 2-CD set presents this work performed by the Santa Fe Opera. Focusing on Susan B. Anthony, the pioneer 19th century women's rights activist, it's a superb mix of incredible word-play about politics, women and men, and voting rights, set to Thompson's musical memory book of gospel hymns, marches, ballads, waltzes, intoned sermons and tunes derived from rural America. Originally released on LP in 1977, the original 4-track master tapes were meticulously remixed and cleaned up. (NWL288) CD: 29.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Jane Webster Wings of Passion

This 1998 release bestows a contemporary, ambient treatment upon the works of Hildegard, by combining the angelic soprano of Jane Webster and keyboards, layered over a subtle percussion track, with the original melodies and Latin texts written by the prolific mystic. Title translations include: O Sweetest Lover, As A Honeycomb Dropping With Honey, The Host of Virgins. English translations are provided for some of the lyrics which relate to St. Ursula and the 11,000 virgins. Serene and tranquil, and deeply beautiful. (NWA459) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Rosa Lamoreaux Luminous Spirit/Chants of Hildegard

We know, we know... a lot of Hildegard titles this year, but when celebrating your 900th birthday, you deserve a lot, and this 1998 release is a perfect one to end the year-long birthday party! Performed in single voice by soprano Rosa Lamoreaux, with accompaniment on recorders, vielle, viola da gamba, hammered dulcimer by early music ensemble Hesperus, it features selections from the different types of religious music she composed, from hymns to antiphons to sequences. Though based on medieval traditions and Gregorian Chant, her inspiration far exceeded the confines of the time, with compositions that transcend all boundaries: historical, musical and spiritual. (KOC7443) CD: 16.98

Jacqueline du Pre Hilary and Jackie (Soundtrack)

British cellist Jacqueline du Pre was one of the great musical geniuses of the century, and one of few women in a musical genre dominated by men. The story of her life - from her dazzling rise to stardom in the 1970s to her tragic death in 1992 from MS - is the subject of the 1998 film release Hilary and Jackie which dramatizes the complex bond between the musician and her older sister. This soundtrack from the film (a multi-fee) combines the film's score (featuring celloist Caroline Dale) with a famous live recording of du Pre's complete performance of her signature piece, Elgar's Cello Concerto, with the Philadelphia Orchestra. (SON60394) CD: 16.98

Global * World

La Sal de la Vida (Rasha/Uxia et al) 0742

This 1997 collaboration features 3 excellent vocalists from different cultures: Rasha (Sudanese, now living in Spain), Uxia (Galician, northern Spain) and Maria Salgado (Castilian, Spain), celebrating their diverse backgrounds and musical expressions on this audio delight. Primarily in Spanish and Portuguese plus a few in Sudanese, accompanied by Xesus Pimentel's acoustic flamenco guitar stylings and Rasha's North African percussion, the songs each feature 1, 2, or all 3 of the women on vocals. Some are lively, others mournful; some date back to the 12th century while others are more contemporary. But they are all evocative of deep emotion and pure beauty; highly recommended! (INM3235) CD: 16.98

Irene Farrera Soy de Ti / I Am Yours 0758

This long-awaited summer 1999 release contains 10 original songs in Spanish and English (plus a traditional gaita), on which Afro-Latin percussion, steel drums, violin, cuatro and accordion form a rich backdrop for Irene's deep, husky, passionate voice and her percussive guitar. Title track is a tender love ballad celebrating commitment between women. Je My Bones, inspired by the plight of a Haitian orphan, is an ode to the spirit and strength of all immigrants. Boleros, cumbia-soca, salsa rumba, samba reggae and Venezuelan hip-hop round out this exciting collection. We love this artist, recommended! (SSE1003) CD: 15.98

Lhasa La Llorona

The incredible voice of Lhasa de Sela, a Montreal resident who was born in the US to a Mexican father and American mother, will be familiar to many 1997 and '98 Lullaby Fair attendees, and she's featured on the Lullaby Fair double CD. Sung in Spanish, this evocative and passionate June Award-winning 1997 release (recorded in various acoustically-endowed Montreal locations), celebrates the vocal styles of 30's era jazz greats as well as the distinctive style of traditional Mexican ballads. An array of textures are described through accordion, flamenco-influenced guitar, slide bass, and even samples of falling rain. The songs are informed with the weight and wonder of Aztec mythology. La Llorona is the wind that glides between earth and sky, sighing and crying, seducing men with her melancholy melodies and then turning them to stone with her petrifying kiss. Recommended! (ATL81120) CD: 16.98

Mercedes Sosa Mi Historia

Like 30 Años, this is another wonderful compilation of 12 of her most magnificent tracks. In fact, as on many of her best retrospectives, there's some overlap between the 2 discs... but for the die-hard Sosa fan, both discs are required! It includes an unsurpassable live version of the Violeta Parra-performed Gracias a la Vida; a live duet with an unnamed collaborator on Si Se Calle El Corazón (we assume it's probably the songwriter, Horacio Guzmán); title tracks to previous albums such as La Maza and Yo Vengo A Ofender Mi Corazón - love the depth of her lower registers here. Al Jardín de la República and more. Highly recommended... again. (PLD539110) CD: 15.98

Various Artists: Voce: Music From Women of the World

If I had to compile an album with some of my very favorite artists and tracks, it might look something like this 1999 release! It features some of the world's most creative song musicians, who also happen to have some of the most transcendent voices: Laura Love, Loreana McKennitt, Mercedes Sosa, Susana Baca, Deep Forest, with Maria Sebastian (and the Grammy-winner Maria's Son), Caroline Lavelle, Victoria Williams, David Can Dance, Tish Hinojosa, Madeline Peyroux, Clannad, Naima, Jane Siberry (who contributes liner notes), and more. As Jane writes, "They are the future looking back at the music of their and other cultures. These women are preserving traditional styles before they are lost. They have rescued a connection to the past that perhaps gives us keys to the spirit of our musical ancestors." Highly recommended! (RH75613) CD: 16.98

Latina

Various Artists/ Maria Teresa Vera A Maria Teresa Vera (CD/Book Set)

This deluxe 1998 edition (for which you pay no extra for this lavish 80-page biographical booklet, in English and Spanish) pays homage to Maria Teresa Vera, the grand figure of Cuban song, in honor of the 100th anniversary of her birth. Fellow Cubans Omara Portuondo, Argelia Fragozo, Jacqueline Castellanos, and Geme y Pavel, along with Spanish musicians such as Uxia and Maria Salgado (all fabulous musicians in their own right, making this a must-have anthology anyway) have given life to 17 songs from the repertoire of one of the greatest representatives of the traditional Trova. Of these, 7 were original compositions, although some had never been recorded previously. In honoring her, these musicians have created a beautiful collection which is much more than a tribute to 1 person - Maria Teresa Vera is song, and this set shows why. Highly recommended! (INN3193) CD: 16.98

Various/"Holding Up Half the Sky" Voices of Latin Women

This 1998 release is a most impressive collection by some of the most important female Latin singers of the past 30 years. Tracks by Celia Cruz, Abitia, Lydia Mendoza, Maria Teresa Vera, La India Meliara, and many others - from Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Peru, etc. - are bound to appeal to all world music fans, and the biographical information in the notes gives a broad background to this important and powerful genre. (SHN66014) CD: 16.98

Virginia Rodrigues Sol Negro

From Salvador de Bahia, the heart of Brazilian music, this amazing artist was discovered by Caetano Veloso, who actively participated in bringing together this 1997 recording as musical director. While the pure tone of Virginia's voice (whose mother was a vendor in the São Joaquim market) is often associated with more classical styles such as choro, operas, masses,lieder and spirituals, she renders beautifully this repertoire of Brazilian classics: the well-known poignant Manha de Carnaval, plus songs by Caetano Veloso, Dorival Caymmi and others. Guest appearances by Brazilian music greats Milton Nascimento and Gilberto Gil are an added treat. Watch for her US tour! (MAN1425) CD: 15.98

Celtic

The Chieftains with Various Women Artists Tears of Stone

This 1999 concept album, featuring many women guest artists and focusing on the many facets of love from a woman's perspective, is a powerful exploration of love and the emotions it evokes: joy, regret, pleasure and pain. The list of participating female vocalists is breathtaking: Loreana McKennitt, Sinéad O'Connor, Diana Krall, The Rankins, Bonnie Raitt, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Joni Mitchell (Magdalene Laundries, about the unmarried pregnant women who were basically enslaved inside convents as recently as the past few decades), Natalie Merchant, Joan Osborne, Anuna, Sissel (you've heard her on the Titanic soundtrack), and for instrumentalists, you'll revel in hearing Eileen Ivers, Natalie MacMaster, and Moore Bretnich. The individual pieces are blended together by the signature sound of the Chieftains, a men's instrumental ensemble, resulting in a cohesive combination of modern and traditional elements. It's a masterpiece; highly recommended! (RCA69966) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

DruidStone, with Aine Minogue The Vow

This 1999 collection from Aine Minogue's ensemble, subtitled An Irish Wedding Celebration, features Irish songs of love and commitment from a variety of sources: some new, some old... some vocals, others strictly instrumental. My personal favorite is The Fair Haired Youth, a beautiful and moving air from County Antrim. The insert gives a brief description and history of each song, and includes lyrics in Gaelic and English. This disc covers a lot of Celtic ground and can be appreciated by many; you may even find the perfect selection for your own commitment ceremony! (NS0113) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Fiona Ritchie/Various Artists
Best of the Thistle & Shamrock

No other single human has done as much as this National Public Radio personality to familiarize the US listening audience with the breadth and depth, variety and beauty of Celtic music. Her familiar Scottish brogue is heard each week on over 350 stations, and her taste is acknowledged as the finest. This 1999 release, which presents her first volume of personal favorites from her show's first 15 years, includes tracks by Maura O'Connell, Clannad, Altan, Sileas, Relativity, Pierre Bensusan, and many more. "Traditional and contemporary, simple and intricate, gentle and powerful, melancholy and joyful, the instrument and the human voice all combining to tell a story." (HS11110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Liz Knowles

The Celtic Fiddle of Liz Knowles

Perhaps you saw this showstopping soloist with Riverdance, or caught her performing with Paula Cole, or Ensemble Galillei, or the John Whelan Band, or the Sinus String Quartet sometime, or, perhaps you've heard the album The Black Rose by Tír na nÓg, she's half of that duo. She's a great fiddler and composer too, as this 1998 solo debut proves. Liz grew up in Kentucky surrounded by music, and she now plays her role-model grandmother's violin, her mother played the bagpipes, and her grandfather serenaded her with Scottish songs. Deftly combining classical elements with her Celtic traditional and original repertoire, her music is infused with depth, pathos and beauty, as well as high spirit. She's backed by guests Joanie Madden, John Whelan and others. (LYR7444) CD: 16.98

Maggie Sansone

A Traveler's Dream

Her first solo recording in 4 years—and most interesting one to date—this 1999 release subtitled Celtic Explorations takes this master of the hammered dulcimer in adventurous new directions. With its layered percussive sound drawing on Persian and world music influences, (listen to the path of the hammered dulcimer as it followed the migrations of ancient travelers across Asia Minor, to the European continent, and then to North America. You'll hear celebrations of Samhain and Lughnass, the seasonal festivals of the ancient Celts; Persian-influenced improvisa and Sufi rhythms; music from Northumbria, Scotland, Ireland, Sweden, the compelling rhythmic pulse of master-struck world instruments (dulcimer, marmara, xylophone, world percussion) combined with fiddle, reed and wind instruments, clarinet, bass clarinet, soprano sax, piccolo. Recommended! (MM110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Song for Ireland

A 1998 release, in a manner of speaking (with the same title as an earlier release from DeLacanti on which Mary sang lead vocals—so, don't get confused!), but this time out it's for a retrospective of Mary's last six recordings. Contains all of her post-Celtic favorites including The Shadow, The Holy Ground, and Ellis Island. (GIF10050) CD: 15.98

Sileas

Play On Light

Pronounced "she-lis," Mary Macmaster and Patsy Sendon comprise the Celtic world's #1 voice and harp duo—both are harpers: one plays metal-strung, the other gut-strung—having been at the vanguard of the revitalization of Scottish music. (They're celebrated singers as well, most notably as half of the acclaimed quartet The Poodles.) This 1999 album, their 4th, is a delicate mix of timeless instrumentals and haunting vocal selections inspired by ancient traditions. Featured are 6 songs in Gaelic and 2 in English, many about or for women, plus an intriguing remake of Bill Withers' R&B classic Ain't No Sunshine. (GL3126) CD: 15.98

Susan McKeown/C. Ryan/R. Spielberg

Mother

0743

This 1999 celebration of Mothers and Motherhood is a collaboration between singer/songwriters Susan McKeown and Cathie Ryan, and pianist/composer Robin Spielberg (with guests like Anne-Marie and Joanie Madden). Ranging from Celtic lullabies, to a haunting rendition of the chant Ancient Mother translated into Gaelic, to an old song found in a Tíle Olsen collection, to original songs that explore the mother-child relationship, this collection will resonate with every listener—who has had a mother. "Unfortunately not all of our experiences with our mothers were good ones. Often, it is when we get to know our mothers again as adults that we are able to clean these gifts, be they born in pleasure or in pain. Mother is an album both in celebration and healing, for the mother and the child. Reflecting on our mother's lives is implicit to our own personal journey, our search for who we truly are." Recommended! (NS0111) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Heart of Scotland

There are lots of Irish and general Celtic compilations these days, but few are devoted exclusively to the wide variety of Scottish music. This 1998 release features amazing mouth music, mournful laments, spirited instrumentals, and more from both female and male artists: Catherine-Ann MacPhee, sisters Jennifer & Hazel Whigley, Janet Russell & Christine Kydd, Heather Heywood, the McCalmans, the Peatbog Faeries, and many more. Extracted from Scotland's Greenleaf label, these traditional and contemporary selections (over an hour's worth) are a great introduction to some excellent artists. (MCL50055) CD: 15.98

Joyful Noise (2-CD Set)

There are almost too many Celtic compilations these days, so anything we list must have something special...this one has 2 something's: as low cost—2 CDs for the price of 1! And of course the roster of artists is pretty great too: Capercaille, Joanie Madden, Eileen Ivers, Altan, Cherish the Ladies, Beanta, Liz Carroll, Patrick Street, the Tannahill Weavers, Relativity, Celtic Fiddle Festival, and many more. In fact, they're the most requested songs and tunes from Green Leaf's Celtic artists, 26 in all. You'll be inspired to make a joyful noise too! (GL0108) CD: 15.98

Edith Piaf

The Rare Piaf

Edith Piaf's life was a passionate mixture of love, tragedy, mysticism, and art; her soaring voice often masked the pain caused by those who would take advantage of her. On this unusual collection we hear many of her greatest songs from 1953-1962—including La Vie en Rose and No Regrets—all performed in English, allowing the English-speaking listener to be drawn into a deeper level of the artist's work. It also includes two previously unreleased out takes in French that were found by chance in a Paris flea market. A great introduction to her work for new fans, and a must for collectors. Mari Boine Persen

Gula Gula

Mari Boine is Sami (formerly known as a "Laplander," a term considered derogatory by the Sami), a people native to what is now known as Northern Finland, Norway, Sweden and Russia. As with many aboriginal cultures, maintaining their language and cultural sovereignty in the face of domination by another culture is very difficult, and this 1999 recording communicates thousands of words for each one uttered. Gula Gula means "Hear the Voices of Our Forefathers," and many of the songs reflect an oppressed woman's rage and determination to succeed. Sung in Sami with English translations, it includes Sadnan Ba'at (To Woman), transitions. (CAR2312) CD: 15.98

A Mediterranean Odyssey

Reading the liner notes on this 1999 compilation subtitled Athena to Andalus caused a serious attack of jealousy—I'm so envious of the head Putumayo guy's job! About half of these great tracks from Spain, France, Greece and Italy feature women, among them, Il Trillo with Lucilla Galeazzi from Italy. She's the diva from the Mammias ensemble whose voice makes my heart stop. I'm beside myself that they're putting out a video and CD.

Cantor Rebecca Garfein

Sacred Chants of the Contemporary Synagogue

0762

Berliners say New York's Rebecca Garfein is causing a revival of Reform Judaism in Germany; this mezzo-soprano is making history with her music recorded in the country where her great-grandmother perished in the Holocaust. In 1997, she became the first female cantor to sing in a synagogue in Germany, where she performed as part of Berlin's International Jewish Cultural Festival and the exquisite 1998 release captures that ground- (and stained-glass ceiling)-breaking moment. It contains Jewish songs and prayers in Hebrew and Yiddish, selections from the Book of Ruth and Song of Songs—liturgical music previously only chanted by male clergy—operatic in character, performed in what was once the women's gallery in the Oranienburger Strasse Synagogue before its destruction. This live performance was attended by Jews and non-Jews, women and men, together, shattering the historical separation of faiths and genders. Beautiful, significant, and highly recommended! (BAR1) CD: 15.98

Debbie Friedman

It's You

This captivating late '60s release represents a landmark for the artist; the production and arrangements by Yaron Gershovitsky, musical director of Manhattan Transfer, dramatically enhance her familiar style. The 13 songs, including several new ones such as Sarah's Song, Seize the Day, and her concert favorite Na'atru, are based on Jewish texts and life cycle events, reflecting the spiritual energy that has become the hallmark of her music. Klezmatronics w/ Chava Alberstein

The Well

Produced by the esteemed Ben Mink (known for his work with k.d. lang), this remarkable 1998 collaboration of extraordinary artists is a true triumph! The renowned Jewish roots sextet and "the first lady of Israeli song" have created a rapturous and intimate modern Jewish music. In 1995, Chava produced an award-winning documentary, Too Early To Be Quiet, Too Late To Sing, featuring interviews from some of the great Yiddish poets of the 20th century, the moving tales from these writers—perhaps the last from a once-flourishing Eastern European Jewish culture of music, drama and literature that abruptly ended with the Holocaust—inspired her to set their words to music. Drawing from the vibrant musical traditions of klezmer, Middle Eastern, French chanson, German cabaret, and American folk, Chava's lush, golden voice describes experiences of love and loss both profoundly Jewish as well as universal, accompanied by the Klezmatronics, radiant virtuosity. Yiddish lyrics, with English and Hebrew translations. (XEN4052) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various/ New England Conservatory

A Taste of Passover

Many musicians participate on this humorous, energetic and uplifting 1998 release, including Theodore Bikel, Judith Bensusan, Rebecca Shrimpton, and various ensembles from New England Conservatory, but frankly, what makes it essential is Chava Segal's 5-minute Matzo Ball Demonstration. Music genres include Yiddish, Hebrew, Ladino, even Iraqi, a swing version of Cavendish, an anthem of the Jewish Partisans to celebrate the Warsaw Ghetto uprising, and more. Passover is the favorite holiday of many Jewish people, both in its symbolism (freedom from slavery) and exuberant fun, and all that is captured in this live performance. Anoushka Shankar

Anoushka

This 1998 release is the momentous debut from the 17-year-old daughter of the world-renowned Ravi Shankar. The only starlet in the world 100% trained by her famous dad, she has been playing and studying with him since she was 9 and made her performing debut at age 13. Since then she has toured the world with Ravi, playing venues such as Carnegie Hall and Peter Gabriel's Womad Festival in Seattle. This young woman is uniquely poised to carry forward her father's legacy as one of the most creative and influential figures in world music. (ANG55729) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.98

Voices of Asian Women

Finally released in '99 as a single CD, this collection focuses on great female singers from various Asian cultures: India, China, Japan, Indonesia, Burma, Tibet and more. We're especially happy to see contributions from Sainkho (Republic of Tuva), in addition to Choying Drolma (Nepal, born of Tibetan exile parents) and Yungchen Lhamo (Tibet, Namgyal (India), Nasida Rio (Java/Indonesia), and several others we hadn't been previously familiar with. It's a great intro to the diverse musical styles of this continent. (SHN60015) CD: 16.98

Abida Parveen

Best of Abida Parveen

She is considered Pakistan's greatest female singing star, and this 1997 release presents 10 of the best selections from her 20+ albums. With her unique style rooted in Sufi spiritual tradition, she has rendered qawwali music (popularized internationally by Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan), additionally, she has made many recordings in the centuries-old ghazal style, which combines poetry and music, romantic and spiritual love. Her vocal delivery, with its 3-octave range, conveys a depth of emotional expressiveness. And with Pakistan in international news lately, we appreciate the opportunity to broaden our own exposure to cultural expressions we did not previously know a lot about, perhaps some of you will too! (SHN64056) CD: 16.98

Innes Mezel

Berber Singing Goes "World"

Anyone remember from our pages a totally fabulous now-out-of-print recording by Our Dura? Former members Fatima and Malika Messaoudi, two Paris-based sisters of North African Berber (father) and French-Italian (mother) descent, have created their own lively, captivating, infectious, extremely percussive and entirely delectable mix of traditional rhythms, jazz, folk, and pop. The name means "tell them never to despair!" and the blues will be the farthest thing from your mind as their exuberant work takes flight and gets your hips a-swinging. While most songs are original, their Berber heritage informs the language they sing in, the melodies, and some of the instruments, thus bringing to light the contributions of an underrepresented group to the world of music. French import, expensive but worth it highly recommended! (AUV225066) CD: 16.98

Natasha Atlas

Gedida

On her third recording, this vocal/dancer once again blends the melodic delicacy and technical refinement of North African music with the digital flow of western dance music to create an undulating, evocative 1999 release. Primarily recorded in Egypt, the lyrics here plug directly into ancient dreams and timeless emotions. In Gedida, she sings of "the dreams of girls that have not changed for a thousand years," and her music is similarly expansive. Its cinematic scope is evident not only in the breadth of instrumentation and emotional sweep of songs like Kifaya and Ezzay, but also in the evocative Mon Ame La Rose (a lament originally performed by Françoise Hardy). Also includes One Brief Moment, her very first vocal in English. (BSQ1014) CD: 16.98

Transcendental w/Rosie Wiederkehr

Steam (Original Soundtrack)

Subtitled Hammam: The Turkish Bath, this evocative soundtrack to the film combines melodies of Sufi devotional ceremonies and Turkish music from the 1900's with contemporary Middle Eastern influences and groove-oriented ambient trance music. Outstanding vocals by Rosie Wiederkehr enhance selections by the musical groups Transcendental and Agrifantus from southern Italy (instruments like darbuka, baglam, mandolin, oud, kaval, and the Romanian all-female "ethno-rock" group Secret) contribute their unique blend of vocals on Tayla. Many tracks here are highly recommended for belly dancing! (WCL11366) CD: 15.98

Vas Offerings

"Azam Ali is an ecstatic singer, intoning hymns, chants and prayers over an elaborate percussive landscape of Middle Eastern/Indian grooves." On their 1998 release, the intersections of trance, ambient, and chant are further explored within trans-cultural styles of sound that defy categorization. Filling the senses with a mesmerizing blend of captivating vocals and compelling rhythms, the duo employs arrangements which follow traditional lines, then at just the right moment a flash of modern innovation will take the reins and the music becomes something completely different. Extremely eclectic music is often confused and without focus, but Vas manages to arrange all the pieces into an exquisite tapestry. "After all, how many other artists do you know that can make the hammered dulcimer and the nyckelharpa work together?" (NA46289) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Vox

Divine Rites

On this remarkably haunting and beautiful 1999 release, Lebanese contralto Fadia El-Hage offers creative revivals of the early Christian women's chants of the Middle East, enhanced by modern electronic settings and processing. Drawing upon the ancient music of denominations such as the Maronite and Melchite churches, "the origins of these chants are traced to 4th and 5th century Lebanon and Syria, modified by later cross-pollination between Christian, Islamic and Jewish cultures." That these chants survived at all is remarkable. Despite following a period when women played a prominent role in the rituals of the early church, after the late 4th century there was an ecclesiastical ban on female singing in the liturgy. Unusual, reverent, and recommended! (WCL11395) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Faith Nolan

Compilation 1986-1996

Back in print! This lesbian singer/songwriter/activist incorporates music into her political work, a politics firmly rooted in her identity as a working class African-Canadian woman. Her excellent 1997 retrospective brings together 22 of her most prolific and political songs from her first 4 releases. Africville, Sistership, Freedom to Love and Hard to Imagine. Her original compositions, as well as her covers, are strongly rooted in the cultural language of Black North American music: spirituals, gospel, jazz and blues, each song a tool to inspire social change for a fairer and better world. (FNF1164) CD: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lillian Allen

Freedom & Dance

We extensively praised Lillian's previous albums of dub poetry Revolutionary Tea Party and Conditions Critical, and many of you agreed. If her earlier work was revolution you could work up a sweat dancing to, this 1998 release is more subtle and complex, still dancing, but in a more economical fashion, saving some energy for clean-up and daily life after the party. These songs "deep truth through crackle" through the routing rhythms of the musical tracts, "telling vignettes which reveal a little more about life and love — and resistance in the 90's and beyond — with each listening." (VTV109) CD: 16.98

Sally Nyolo

Multiculti

Over the years Sally has crafted a truly unique style that reflects her childhood in Africa and her adult life in Europe, with pygmy-inflected voices set to the beat of a boiling percussion section and penetrating bass lines. As an activist, a storyteller, and an artist her words are poetic and progressive. The title track in particular, performed in several languages, is a great anthem for our multicultural world; other songs deal with solidarity and racism, ancestors, environmental issues. Fans of her and Zap Mama's previous work (Sally was a Zap Mama and she's accompanied here by 2 other Zap Mama members) will be excited by the new directions she takes into some even more challenging arrangements on this 1998 release. It's a solid and enjoyable recording from one of the best voices in African music today. (TIN5400) CD: 16.98

Women's Spirituality * New Age

Beverly Frederick

Through the Darkness: Chants...

Starhawk described Beverly's 1998 ritual-like release, subtitled Chants from the Reclaiming Community, as "a haunting, magical CD that truly opens the gates to fairy, it includes some of my favorite songs and chants (including a few I've written myself)." Beverly's voice is strong and intense, sometimes solo acapella, other times with layered harmonies. It features 21 rich and varied selections from "between the worlds." Every Star's Sacred/The Midwife's Song, Weaver, Weaver, Goddess of the Sun, Fairy Queen Invocation, At Brigid's Well, and more by Starhawk, Sparky T. Rabbit, Beverly herself and others. (VLD1) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Carlen Wijnen & Rainbow Womyn Choir

Womyn in Circle

On this 1998 follow-up to the highly successful Womyn with Wings, 20 German women have come together to once again sing spiritual songs and carols from different cultures — over 60 minutes of songs honoring the power of nature, Mother Earth and the Great Goddess. Conducted by Carlen Wijnen, it features interesting accompaniment on percussion such as ocean drum, trance drum, and bembé. Titles include Yan-Yan, The Earth Is Our Mother, Spirit of the Wind, We Are the Power. (CWF2) CD: 17.98

Native American

Obsidian Butterfly

In the Aztec culture, Obsidian Butterfly is one of many female deities associated with the earth and its fertility. On this 1999 release, in collaboration with her long-time musical associates Madalyn Blanchet and Marilyn Rife, this flutist/composer again draws upon her multi-cultural background to create music inspired by the ancient rhythms and melodies of North, Central and South America. Celebrating the splendors of the earth including scenic landscapes and ancient ruins, it features an impressive array of percussion instruments, including marimba, log drums, Peruvian bombo, guiro, Indian gourd cabasa, and dante bells. (SWR319) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rose, a.k.a. Cherokee Rose

To All the Wild Horses

Some of you may know Rose Moore as Cherokee Rose, her recording and performing name for many years previous, though on her 1997 release, this Native artist identifies herself merely as "Rose." And while previous recordings leaned in the direction of country, this one blends drums, chants, flutes and whistles with contemporary styles, such as the funk of Get Tribal and folk-rock and ballads, several with Native American themes. Includes Ma Ko Wey, a chant she sang as a child, Baby of the Sky, a most lovely and gentle lullaby (makes me wish I had a baby to sing it to...), and We Dance, a song in celebration of the Cherokee Stamp Dance. (CLR3696) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Spirit Nation

This unique 1998 release is a seamless blend of organic instruments, trip-hop grooves, and Native American vocals. The lyrics, sung in the Lakota language by Judy Crescenzo of the Tsuchumut Tribe, mesh hauntingly with instrumentation from many cultures: Mellotron, guitars, Tibetan horns, cello, bamboo flutes, star, keyboards, percussion. Tracks include She Sleeps Beneath the Moon, Prayer to the Four Directions. (V2M7033) CD: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Native American Women

Weaving the Strands

Native American compilations abound, but thus far we have encountered none so lovely as this 1998 collection, representing some of the most talented Native artists performing today. The track listing actually reads like a "Best of the Ladieslipper Native American Section." It contains some of the loveliest selections from 12 albums (we stock 11 of them at the willing — and we can't wait to get information on the one we don't yet). Ullal, Walela (the Coolidge clan), Joanne Shenandoan, Sharon Birch, Mary Youngblood, Joy Harjo, Alice Gomez, The Markkies, and Melt Donovan contribute songs such as Woman's Dance, Mama Markkies' Song, For Anna Mae Pictou Aquash and more. Very highly recommended! (RF3001) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tribe of Twelve

Legends of the Drum

Native-inspired chant-like vocals by Costa Maroney... drums and percussion by Native artists Eric Cassilas and Gordon Ulmer... plus Native flutes by Ben Tavera King, nature sounds, and more — sonically create a texture suggestive of legend and ritual. This is an introspective, atmospheric music, rather than up-tempo drumming, with slower, deeper, almost sub-rhythmic, pulse-like and subtle. Titles include Corn Maiden's Ritual, Starhawk's Rhythm, Drums of the Canyon People, Wind Spirit. (TT137) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Dale Zola/ Kirsten Falke/ Rumi
The Breeze at Dawn:

Poems of Rumi in Song

On this 1999 release, composer Dale Zola has set to music 14 poems by Jalaludin Rumi, a 13th century Sufi mystic who lived in Turkey and recited his poems in Persian. Dale has been immersed in Rumi poetry for almost 20 years — she and her husband Dan produce evenings of Rumi's poetry called The Great Night of Rumi in northern California. She has also conducted a women's singing circle for many years, which is where she found Kirsten, the vocalist heard here. Oud, accordion, pedal steel guitar, bass, cello, didgeridoo, flute and violin set the backdrop for Kirsten's expressive vocalizations, creating a compelling setting for these timeless words of joy, humor, wisdom, spirituality, and connection with the Divine. (MAH500) CD: 15.98

Hollieana

Vision of the Grail

0758

This Renaissance, goddess, pagany, magical Celtic blend, with a serene and spiritual ambience, comes from a harper whose enchanting and passionate approach to music stems from a most auspicious and unique upbringing. Born and raised by a traditional Hungarian/ Irish family, her Gypsy blood and cultural heritage convinced her at an early age that music would be her way. As she grew, her travels with Gypsy musicians and dance troupes inspired her to share this culture with others. Her 1996 release combines her harp, interspersed with some layered vocals plus occasional incantation-like spoken poetry (some by Earl Scott), with evocative instruments like bouzouki, bodhran, derbake and violin, on selections such as Goddess of Grace, Searching for Lamba, A Winter Tale, Szegeen (her Gypsy-influenced piece), and title track. Intriguing and recommended! (WRK0001) CD: 15.98

K.J.

She Carane Hom:

Evoking/Honoring Divine Feminine

This 1998 release is one of the more engaging and enchanting women's spirituality recordings we've heard in a while. Celsofeminist, spacious and erotic, warm and melting, inspired by Sacred Sites and performed entirely by women, her original melodies, rounds, chants and spoken pieces are drenched in Feminine Power — recalling times when priestesses worshipped and queens reigned, and activating an ancient vibration deep within cellular memory! Her voice is strong and centered, sometimes enhanced by beautiful harmonies, backed by touches of drums, didgeridoo, guitar and flute. Some lyrics were channeled in a language she doesn't speak, but which when translated were found to be spiritually meaningful, also includes Greenwoman/ Elin, Kali Energy, Song of Avalon, and the spoken One Woman's Freedom. Very recommended! (KJ444) CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick

A Meditation for Healing

Libby is beloved world-wide as an inspiring and passionate writer and singer of songs celebrating the heights and depths of the human spirit (see our Folk section). This beautiful, devotional chant for protection and healing (a mantra in an ancient, sacred language from India) is something new for Libby — written at the request of a friend. Let her warm, clear voice and the exquisite melody relax, calm and heal you — people are using it for everything from massage and meditation to yoga to simply helping them (or their little ones) fall asleep peacefully and wake up renewed! This 1998 release offers an hour's worth of vocals over a gorgeous bed of guitar, English horn (courtesy of the great Nancy Rumbel), harp and percussion. (TRT1805) CD: 14.98

Lisa Lynne

Seasons of the Soul

Following up her Daughters of the Celtic Moon album, this critically acclaimed harpist returns with a heavenly journey for the soul. Angelic and harmonious, her 1999 release is filled with the lush sounds of plucked and bowed strings, percussion and more. Its effect is to offer solace to the heart and mind, reminding listeners that even the soul has a change of seasons, just like the world we live in. Lir produced and arranged it, as well as performed on most of the instruments: wire strung harp, Celtic harp, mandolin, electric bass, lap dulcimer, bouzouki and bandura. Inspiring and uplifting, recommended for massage, relaxation, meditation. (WH11427) CD: 15.98

Mia Jang

Sweet Dreams: Piano Solos

If you play this 1998 release while falling asleep, its promise will likely come true... its graceful elegance and simplicity of melody will relax and unwind you. This pianist/composer, born in Taipei and now living in the US, began classical training when she was 3. She says, "I enjoy melody. For me to tell a story in my music, melody is very important. I also value simplicity. My living environment and the objects I surround myself with are very minimal. Instead of adding, most of the time I take out. That's the way I like my life and my music." (NA45452) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ruth Huber

Spirit of Nurture

On her 1998 release, this classically trained and eclectically inclined artist evokes the wisdom of Goddesses, Witches, Mothers, Warriors, Lovers and Teachers down through the ages. On her lovely original songs Maiden, Mother, Crone, The Witch Song, Mother/ Shekhina, Four Directions, Voice of Conscience (for Barbara Jordan) and Joan of Arc (which she also created as a choral score), she co-directs the Rainbow Women's Chorus in San Jose; she mixes elements of folk melodies, African rhythms, Klezmer, jazz, blues and gospel harmonies. Produced by June Millington, the mood is alternately soothing, rocking, playful, seductive, inspiring, and yes, nurturing! (NFP1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sally Oldfield

The Collection

Here's a find at a classic low price! Anyone out there remember this British singer/songwriter sibling of new-age luminaries Mike and Terry, well-known in Europe, who developed a US cut following in the early 70s? She multi-tracked her vocals (which feature amazing range) and played a zithron instrument, like a renaissance woman, with themes that heralded the coming age of more spiritually-oriented musical releases. This import retrospective of his includes the title track of her pivotal release Water Bearer, plus Woman of the Night, Song of the Healer, Mandala, Path With a Heart, You Set My Gypsy Blood Free, 15 in all. (CSL125) CD: 11.98

Sara McIntosh

Beneath My Touch

If you've been a music-festival attendee, perhaps you've encountered those wonderful "Sara's Shoes" in the merchant area. Sara's 1995 solo piano release proves that her gift is every much with hands as feet — this music is exquisite! These 18 solo piano compositions, with titles like Hymn For Her, Gen's Tears, Strong Deep, are some of the most lovely, sweet, stirring, meditative, evocative melodies we've heard, all beautifully performed if you like Margie Adam's Naked Keys or any of George Winston's work, be sure to hear this. It'll make a believer, as well as a frequent listener, out of you. Highly recommended! (SRA1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

She has produced over 200 TV programs of yoga instruction, and this 1998 release contains original soundtracks to her shows (and home videos). She and Siddha, her spiritual teacher, composed the music and lyrics (and provide vocals on some) specifically to transport you to a world of relaxation and inspiration — perhaps while you are doing your yoga! Synthesizers and guitar seem to be the primary instruments; includes Yi Tribal Dance, inspired by an ancient Chinese folk song, Moon Among the Stars, Law of Tranquility, Spiritual Love. 61 min. (GMP110) CD: 15.98

This track, which was written about the film Contact, and what promises to be a new fan-favorite, Tomboy Girl. Ferron

Inside Out... The IMA Sessions

Fun with a capital 'F', Ferron does covers! This late spring/early summer 1999 release contains some of the sassiest renditions of really great songs many of us boomers grew up with: Different Drum, Walk Away Renee, Don't Worry Baby, Needles and Pins, I Feel Fine, Town Without Pity, What Becomes of the Brokenhearted, and more. She and some of SF's finest musical talent decided to go back and claim those songs, and that they did! Recorded at the Institute for the Musical Arts, a non-profit foundation devoted to encouraging and supporting women in the musical arts. (CWO10) CD: 15.98

Haicyon

Songs like Hold Out Hope and Every Cell will have you singing along the first time you listen, while darker, more subtle melodies, on songs like The Voice, also permeate this 1998 album. You'll see why this duo was named a finalist in the nationwide 1998 Fair Emerging Talent Contest. Haicyon fans and newcomers alike will find themselves humming these infectious songs under their breath all day long, and fully enjoying this terrific recording. (HAL1002) CD: 15.98

Jamie Anderson

Drive All Night

0748

With tongue planted firmly in cheek, Jamie (to whom we say welcome, neighbor!) calls her 1999 release "More Songs About Sex, Food and Maria." She's re-released the sultry and sexy Dark Chocolate (a long-time favorite of this editor), and recorded 10 new songs including the hilarious I Wanna Be A Straight Guy, Anchored in a Tight Groove, Feel Simmers with Anticipation, With My Smile is a poignant ballad about a woman who finds her birth mother, and Roses features the beautiful harmonies of the Burns Sisters. Judy Small

Let the Rainbow Shine

Here's the album this prolific Australian singer/songwriter (and as of recently, a lawyer too!) has always wanted to make: a whole album about gay and lesbian issues, yet an album for everybody. And with song titles like Lesbian Chic, A Man Among Men, and Country Town Gaytime Blues, this 1999 release fills her with pride. As always, her songs are extraordinary yet ordinary, as she leads us to find common ground between her own experiences and those of us, her listeners. This is a beautiful gift to the lesbian/gay community and beyond. (CRA011) CD: 15.98

Judy Small

Never Turning Back: A Retrospective

This 1998 release is a collection of songs from her earlier recordings, many of which are now out of print (and some of the others are soon to be). In fact, shortly, this and Best of the 80's will replace her entire back catalog. There are so many classics from the repertoire of this amazing Australian singer/songwriter, it's a must for your collection. (CRA010) CD: 16.98

Magdalen Hsu-Li

Evolution

0749

There's a buzz about this outspoken performer, so listen up! Described by many as a pioneer among Asian-American women in music, her contemporary songs reveal an awareness about issues affecting Asian-American women as well as other minorities. This 1998 debut release includes Submissive, which deals with prejudices and stereotypes between minorities, and hatred against gays and lesbians. More pop/alternative than rock, her music includes some fine piano playing. She was a finalist in the 1998 Fair Talent Search, and has toured extensively, including many appearances with Women's Music artists. If you haven't yet heard her, tune in now! (CPR003) CD: 15.98

Rebecca Riots

Live at the Freight & Salvage

This 1998 release, the third from this Berkeley-based acoustic female trio, features mostly new tracks, plus a few from their first 2 albums. The music is fresh and immediate, and they're not just singing about anything; their thought-provoking lyrics reveal an awareness and sensitivity to the world around them. You know these girls are for real because they frequently do benefits and support a variety of causes. You'll find yourself groovin' and swayin' to these rhythms and harmonies! (RR141) CD: 14.98

Therese Edell

From Women's Faces Plus

0731

Not only does this 1998 release bring back into print many selections from one of the greatest classic women's music, her 1977 album From Women's Faces, this 68-minute collection has new and previously unreleased tracks too! Some are newly-released live performances from the early 80s, including a couple recorded at the Michigan festival. A Woman's Love by Alix Dobkin, and 2 are performed by MUSE, Cincinnati's women's choir, including Goddess and Guts, a 19-part composition in which Betsy Lippitt, Therese's long-time collaborator sings a Saraswati invocation. So, even though Therese has been off the tour circuit for health reasons, she treats us to songs we didn't already have in our collections, plus old favorites: Moonflower, Emma, Jennifer, Leah's Song, Mama Let Your Children Go, Lou's Song, Sister, Heartspine's Calendar Days... this is an absolute must-have for all of Therese's fans whose ancient LPs are scratched (and/or lack a turntable altogether), as well as anyone who wants to newly experience one of the foundation pieces of the women's music and culture movement. Highly-of-course-recommended! (SEA313) CD: 15.98

Wishing Chair

Undisputed Country

On this 1998 follow up to their debut the integrated roots rock, Celtic and folk sounds that make Wishing Chair so unique are further explored and expanded. They're joined here by Karyn Terry, member Kiya Heartwood's former bandmate from the rock group Sleazin' Horsec. The sound is fuller but never takes away from the honest and poetic lyrics, musicianship, and commitment to their craft that fans first fell in love with. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this recording will be donated to Buffalo Nations to stop the killing of wild buffalo and to the Kentucky Women's Writers Conference. (TRK2) CD: 15.98

Private Wars

With their 3rd release, this Dublin duo-turned-quintet returns to their first big love, jazz, despite a nod or two in a soul and funk direction. The album remains firmly committed to a mellow mood. Maria Walsh wraps her ravishing voice around Carol Nelson's yuck, always finding an intense emotion and depth with no concession to sentimentality, to accompaniment both soulful and restrained. Most of these originals were recorded as first takes, capturing a freshness, spontaneity, and a great band vibe. Sheer class! (ZR1000) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Comedy

Attn: Butt Pirates & Lesbeterians

Subtitled Live at the C.S.W. Gay Pride Festival (NYC's Christopher Street West), The Supreme Love Goddess demands proper worship! On this 1994 release, the high priestess of Judism romps through an energetic comedy performance full of 4-letter words, delivered with her somewhat less-than-subtle sassy style. No one is safe from her razor wit as she jabs at everyone one from Cher to the men in the audience. Contains a just-too-cute parody of a bad club song for the boys. Judy gives her queer listeners a chance to relax and laugh at themselves and the world around them, not a bad line of work for a deity! (GOD9402) CS: 9.95 CD: 12.95

Karen Ripley

Born Butch

Karen has wowed the women's festival circuit for years, specializing in lesbian humor of a particularly risqué and irreverent nature. She uses her improv background to take her way into outright hilarity. Unafraid and uninhibited in the vein of Lea Delaria, this San Francisco comic, writer, and drama director convulses audiences with her comments on sex, sex toys, aging, health care, rainbow keychains, and Ken dolls. Lampooning an HBO's slogan, she says, "Good people, good medicine, — good luck!" and she responds to the religious right with "Jesus Saves but I Recycle." Her 1998 tape is guaranteed to make you laugh out loud. (KR1) CS: 9.98

Alternative

Supposed Former Infatuation Junkie

Being an international superstar and teen angst idol is no easy job, but on her 1998 sophomore effort, Alanis howls and moans her way through to a surefire classic. This release is an extraordinary blend of razor-sharp lyrical insight and passionate melodies that mark the next leap forward in Alanis's growth as an artist. Look for more exploration of electronic music as well as trademark pop hits, including the single Thank U, which reflects on her insight gained from her travels through India. (MAV47094) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Angela Motter

Pleasure and Pain

0732

This talented Atlanta artist presents sweet meldings of what she calls "folktronica" on her bold and personal 1998 release. It's about time she came out with something to follow up her great debut! She has infused it with searing lyrics, sensual vocals and quality musicianship (some from Michelle Mayne and DeDe Vogt) to create a gritty, yet at times humorous, collection of songs. Born no doubt of her own pleasure and pain, folktronica speaks pointedly about gender issues familiar to many of us. Cake is a defiant, alternative-sounding track that details a messy love triangle, while the joyful, redemptive I'm Free bounds with energy to offer hope to others who have struggled through a difficult childhood. Sounds of straight-up rock, aching slide-guitar blues and even minimalist beat-box are all here, welcome her back! (HEY1) CD: 14.98

Ani DiFranco

Up Up Up Up Up Up

Remember how you felt about your first Ani album? Get ready for her best one in years, she's come down a notch, and you'll often hear the phrase "returned to her roots" around our office. This '98 release finds Ani doing what she does best: taking stock of the world outside and inside herself. From story-songs like Ties of Time and Rockie Down, to deeply personal meditations like Angry Anywhere and Everest, to Har Shaped Hat, a simple, sunny ballad that has grown into a 13-minute jam, it's a joyous, mournful, funny, sober, sexy album rich with insight and emotional intensity. In addition to Ani's distinctively percussive acoustic guitar, you'll hear her wailing away on the occasional water cooler and a space phone, every now and then, accompanists also include drummer Andy Strachan, and the talented Julie Wolf on keyboards, accordion, and backing vocals. (RIG013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco/Utah Phillips

Fellow Workers

Utah knew only that he wanted to do a new album 'about anarchy'. Ani knew she wanted to try something a little different from their first cross-generational collaboration. This May 1999 release features these 2 musical commentators working side by side, in real time, along with Ani's band (including Julie Wolf) and a small intimate audience. Utah talks and sings, Ani plays guitar, contributes background vocals, and leads her band through a free-spirited session. The resulting collection of stories, songs, poetry, jokes, and spur-of-the-moment improvisation takes a fresh, intensely personal look at the long-hidden history of the modern American labor movement, celebrating activist-heroes like Mother Jones, and providing surprising new interpretations of such classic anthems as Bread and Roses. (RIG015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Central Reservation

0755

The rhythm-infused, acouf folk of this young British artist has garnered her much critical acclaim lately, her debut album Trailer Park went gold in the UK, and she's performed at the 1998 Lollapalooza and the CMJ music festival in the US. This 1999 release, adventuresome yet accessible, features Beth's sweet voice and guitar on all original songs, with guest appearances from Ben Watt (of Everyliving But the Girl) and Dr. John, includes Stolen Car and Sweetest Decline. (AR19038) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

0744

The spine-tingling harmonies, hip-shaking rock, and razor-sharp wit on their '89 release shows why this female trio of NYC singersongwriters has won numerous awards and captured a slavishly devoted international following. Best known for their wild stage shows, they have infused that energy into these 13 songs which explore the bewitching topics of love, sex, and sins of passion. Blistering performances from outstanding accompanists combine with the warmth and emotion of their interwoven voices. Kathy Najimy has claimed this album "will make my favorite band a household name," like Jett-O or Troians. Their unusual take on 21st-Century Life and mesmerizing music are a powerful combo! (BET4) CD: 14.98

Julie Ruin

Rising from the ashes of the tragic loss of Bikini Kill comes front woman Kathleen Hanna's alter ego and a fresh new sound with samplers and drum machines added to the mix of punk guitar riffs. The songs vary from aggressive to poppy, but remain true to Kathleen's fiercely progressive politics. This '98 album will inspire you to revolution as she wails lyrics like "it'll be a hot hot summer in hell, businessman." If you're looking for an exciting and cutting-edge addition to your collection, this is for you! (KRS297) CD: 13.98

Meg Hentges

Brompton's Cocktail

We'd describe Meg's third solo album since her days with Two Nice Girls as rock with a folk and pop sensibility, definitely plugged in — you can either pop or bang your head to it! The lyrics are smart and cover a variety of topics, including queer youth, God, religion, sex, tattoos, pollution, and relationships, of course. "There is no evil up in outer space, but I don't want to go. We paid good money for this crowded place, and I don't want to go," from Bob On the Waves. Some of the best songs from her first release Tattoo Urge (circa '92) have been re-recorded here, the Lou Reed-esque This Kind of Love, the multi-imaged Heaven Sent, and its title track. If you haven't yet heard this Austin-based rocker, or you're already a fan, check this '99 release out! (ROB75010) CD: 15.98

Interview Picture Disc

Remember Picture Disc LPs? Well folks, now we've got Picture Disc CDs. In 2 interviews, Jodie talks about her life and work, including her directorial debut Home For the Holidays (1995) and Contact (1997). (BAK4032) CD: 15.98

Sleater-Kinney The Hot Rock

In this day and age it's a rare feat to win over critics and fans with equal enthusiasm, but this pop rock trio has done just that. On their 1999 release, these 3 women add a bit more bounce to their grunge, as they remain solidly independent and fend off those nasty major label offers. Corin Tucker's vocals soar in a very Buffy Sainte-Marie sort of way, while never overshadowing guitarist Carrie Brownstein's forays to the lead mic. In the end, this band offers what so few others do these days: honesty, fun, and they just plain rock. (KRS321) CD: 13.98

Rock * Pop

Bette Midler Bathroom Betty

This 1999 album of sweeping ballads and sexy pop stands as one of The Divine Miss M's most sublime creations! The diverse range of material includes the longtime live favorite "Ladies First," Leonard Cohen's "Song of Bernadette," the jazzy "I'm Hip," "I Sold My Heart to the Junkman," and "My One True Friend," co-written by Carol King and Carole Bayer Sager and the end title theme song from the '96 Meryl Streep film One True Thing. (WB47078) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Blondie No Exit

This buoyant 1999 album from Deborah Harry's band of 4, which many of you have been asking us for, combines 80's pop with reggae, ska, hip-hop, and perhaps most notably, dance grooves, such as "Nothing Is Real But the Girl," "Divine," and the recent #1 hit in Great Britain, "Maria." (BYD78003) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dusty Springfield Dusty in Memphis

The world sadly lost this great songstress to breast cancer in 1999, ironically the same year of her induction into the Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Fame... we learned of her death just days after we added this album to our listings. Not only does this 1999 release reissue the famous original album by the same name, which Rolling Stone Abbie Hoffman deemed her finest effort and which includes her Top 10 hit "Son of a Preacher Man," it also features 11 previously unissued tracks — including rare singles and a complete album recorded in the US but never released. With its carefully remastered sound and special booklet, this deluxe edition is a chance to remember a great artist while discovering a classic all over again — and much more. (RH75580) CD: 16.98

Jewel Spirit

This 1999 release represents the evolution of this young singer-songwriter's (and best-selling poet's) musical artistry — simultaneously expanding her signature sound while paying tribute to her folk-oriented musical roots. This batch of honest, thoughtful songs includes "Hands," "Barcelona," "Fall Boy," and more. (ATL28950) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Julia Fordham

The Julia Fordham Collection

Over 10 years and 5 albums, this artist has been writing songs that reach listeners around the world, forming a strong and personal connection between them. Whether she is singing with gentle introspection or volatile emotion, her supple voice makes each moment as intimate and visceral as a shared heartbeat. ### Mary Cutrufello

When the Night is Through

Hearing a fascinating radio interview with this artist sent us in search of this '98 release. Her rich voice captured our attention, and the lovely ordinariness of her tale of climbing into her car and waving goodbye to her 2 moms before hitting the road in search of her future as a musician made us want to hear more. Off she drove, and emerged with this album of straight-up rock. Picture smoky small town pool halls and the dramas lived by the people inside, with the jukebox playing Janis Joplin tunes and road songs, and tuck this album into your American rock collection. ### Move into the Villa Villakula

Back by popular demand! Villa Villakula was that fabulous place where the coolest girl ever, Pipi Longstocking, lived. ### Michelle Malone For You Not Them

"I was trying to write for the record label instead of myself and it just wasn't working, so I dropped the record company and started writing for myself again." The 1993 collection of songs was written and recorded on her own terms. With her soulful, sexy voice, and straightforward, unfettered songwriting, she manages to make even a polished studio recording feel like a rousing live performance. This album is addressed directly to her audience and fans, and rightfully so. (SBS001) CD: 15.98

Against All Odds

With a style that "crosses acoustic rock, world rock, world pop, folk, roots folk funk and blues-folk funk" (!), this talented singer-songwriter has been compared to the likes of Stevie Nicks, Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crow, and so that list we add Teresa Trull! And her recent touring has been generating a buzz — so pay attention! Her 1998 indie release is a journey through the eyes of a melodic visionary who loves and cares about the essence of life, her bold-it-out voice, intense lyrics and rhythmic structures are crafted in a bed of emotion that slides into the small of your back. So give her your ear, her talent deserves it. (ECC1) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Squirrel Nut Zippers Perennial Favorites

This Carolina swing band features a local-gal-makes-great story! In fact, this 1998 album went GOLD 2 days after its release! Vocalist Katharine Whelan has been wowing audiences nationally with her sweet crooning — in fact, some have pointed out the uncanny resemblance of her sound to that of Billie Holiday. This is a cheerful, energetic mixture of good-time songs, written in a 20's jazz style, featuring some wild instrumentation and conveying a general atmosphere of fun, humor and abandon. Includes "Fat Cats Keep Getting Fatter," "Evening at Caddy's," and Katharine's silky vocals on "My Dog." (NAM1012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

It highlights the talents of this young singer/songwriter perfectly, accompanying her "Bonnie Raitt like blanket of a voice" (Austin Chronicle) with the guitar she built herself, she performs 9 originals and 3 covers. Ana's career got a jumpstart after being asked by Shawn Colvin to open for her US tour to 25 cities in spring '98. We concur with Shawn's opinion: "Ana has the rare gift of being so eloquent and simple that she takes your breath away." (GCE99012) CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler Sylvia Hotel

This stellar performer is outrageously funny one moment, and heartbreakingly vulnerable the next. With intelligent lyrics and graceful melodies, her original songs range from poignant observations on love and politics to hilarious parodies of 80's lifestyles. ## Jennifer Kimball

Veering From The Wave

Jennifer, one half of The Story, has been silent since the band's break up — until this long-awaited 1998 solo release. In keeping with The Story and its "other half" Jonathan Brooke, Jennifer sings on this album with unique music and intelligent lyrics. Her voice is by turn powerful and wispy, but always engaging. Her songs are universal without being impersonal, and easy to become involved in. This is simply a really good album; all you Story fans won't be disappointed! (IRR558081) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Rand

Family History

She calls this highly personal 1999 release an upbeat tribute to family — past, present and future — and to the art of storytelling. Some of the stories involve her own family — her southern ancestors, her 2 sisters and her expected baby — while others are about her "extended family," such as the late forestry activist Judi Bari and Alaska Native American activist Dune Lankard. Beautifully woven life-affirming lyrics, diversity of musical styles, and elegant sound quality are all here. Uplifting, brimming with hope and joy, and of course there's her amazing voice... a winning combination. (JRB) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

This living retrospective touches on the work of Cole Porter, Charlie Poole, and of course a few McGarrigle classics such as Nat!. The sisters swap leads with their guests and expand the boundaries of their signature harmonies... any fan of this critically and popularly loved family will feel at home and satisfied. (HAN1417) CD: 15.98

Lucy Kaplansky

Ten Year Night

Now that you've heard her as part of the Cry Cry Cry trio, it's time to explore her solo work again! This 1999 release, Lucy's third, combines a solid contemporary folk/roots-rock foundation with a tasty twinge of twang, always outdone by Lucy's sumptuous voice. Her former duo partner Shawn Colvin says, "Her singing has been a source of amazement, and comfort to me." Her innovative vocal phrasing and completely original approach to singing and songwriting continue to make her a refreshing presence in acoustic music. Includes the track which she has performed every night of the Cry Cry Cry tour: guest vocals by Jennifer Kimball and Richard Shindell. (RHR126) CD: 15.98

Lynn Miles

Night in a Strange Town

This 1998 song cycle places new strength behind the aching vulnerability of Lynn's exquisite voice and vivid imagery. Few artists can mix such a broad range of musical styles with such seamless clarity, as one song rooted in banjo moves to the next with an emphasis on drumming. These tracks lead the listener through the pathways of the heart and the country, with an honesty about the bad times and hope and joy for the good times. (PH1215) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nields

Play

Sisters Nerissa and Kathryn, along with Nerissa's husband David who took her last name when they got married, have combined elements of folk and psychedelia to present a most unique 1998 album, in which they communicate the message of the music through the metaphor of a dramatic stage performance. It moves from jaded to comical with skill and ease, really drawing in the listener who can follow along with the scenes in the CD booklet. The delivery is an interesting twist, but the real focus is the quality of the folk/pop melodies with a hint of Celtic mystique. (ZOE1002) CD: 15.98

Best of the Vanguard Years

This 1999 compilation represents this amazing vocalist's golden period, featuring the repertoire most associated with her artistry: the chants and cries that rose out of the struggles of African Americans in the US. Songs from the Southern work camps, such as Cotton Fields and If I Had A Hammer, as well as Southern gospel traditional songs like Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child are featured, also includes songs from her Carnegie Hall performances such as No More Auction Block For Me. Most feature the spare accompaniment of her guitar and (Speke's dad) Bill Lee's bass; a few feature choral back-up, and 3 previously unreleased tracks present her working with the blues, with piano/bass/drums. Over 60 min., extensive liner notes. (VAN75522) CD: 15.98

To Ella

Recorded at the 1966 Kenilworth Folk Festival on the night of Ella's death, this '98 release is not a jazz recording, on which Odetta sings Ella's material, but rather it honors Odetta's and Ella's shared roots in American gospel and folk music. Odetta fans will appreciate the material's always powerful guitar and voice paying homage to one of the many women singers who've influenced her music. Ella fans will appreciate the insight into the musical traditions that inspired the jazz singer. "If ever there was a meeting post in this country, I think it's been in the music," Odetta says during the 27-minute medley, Suite: Ancestors. And if there ever was a musician who respected the power of that music, it's Odetta. (SWF1012) CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary

Songs of Conscience & Concern

Rather than a compilation of their hits, this 1999 album of yet-to-be-discovered treasures contains 15 songs not found on any "best of" albums, few previously released on CD. All but the new Don't Laugh At Me, which was recorded specifically for this release, are drawn from 20 albums recorded during their nearly 4-decade association — the lesser-known songs that inspired the 3 to keep on keepin' on. Includes Sally Fingersh's Home Is Where the Heart Is, Phil Ochs' There But For Fortune, Woody Guthrie's Pastures of Plenty, and Pete Seeger's Wasn't That a Time. ### From the Heart of Studio A

Picture open mike nights at your favorite coffeehouse. Now picture that the evenings' line-up includes Issa Delment's bitter-sweet Our Town, Gar Williams' with This Was Potpourri, and Tish Hinojosa with Love Is on Our Side: nothing but talent and fine songs recorded live on the FolkScene radio show, unadorned by studio additions. Strong voices, beautiful musicianship, and stories which could stand alone as poetry: superb modern folk music offered by masters of the craft. Kate and Anna McGarrigle, Maureen O'Connell, and Mary Black share pieces as well, along with an assortment of similarly talented men. (RHR109) CD: 15.98

Dolly Parton/ E Harris/ L Ronstadt

Trio II 0759

Three big voices, each a star in her own right, come together in a majestic display of talent on this 1999 sequel to Trio. Covering songwriters like Maybelle, Sara and A.P. Carter, Jennifer Kimball, and Dolly herself, and singing lead in turn, Emmylou, Linda and Dolly create memorable magic. The lively mix of country and folk and the attendant skilful instrumentation set of the individual strengths and perfect harmonies of these badasses. You'd have to walk a lot farther than a country mile to find anything surpassing the fun of I Feel the Blues Movin' In, or the utter beauty of High Sierra and Do I Ever Cross Your Mind. This album shimmers! (EL62275) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Dolly Parton/ E Harris/ L Ronstadt

Trio

Dolly, Emmylou and Linda are together again in '99, so we thought it fitting to bring back in for you their original 1987 collaboration. Includes My Dear Companion, Wildflowers, Those Memories of You, Hobo's Meditation, Farther Along, and more. (WB25491) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Heather Myles

Highways & Honky Tonks

Her deep voice and thick country melodies make this 1999 release one of the most entertaining country releases we've seen in a while — it's easy to imagine every song being sung along to, in a dimly lit saloon. Her songs are delivered with just the right mix of pop bounce and twang. She duets with Merle Haggard on No One Is Gonna Love You Better, and covers the Charley Pride hit Kiss An Angel Good Morning. And, of course, what country album would be complete without some ironic humor, as in Rock at the End of My Rainbow?. So get out your spurs and chaps, and two-step your troubles away. (ROU3147) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Rosie Flores

Dance Hall Dreams

This Tejana country rocker, with her whiskey voice, big electric guitar, and dusty-from-the-road songs, treats us to her 1999 release. Freelance writer Jenny Whiteside writes, "While her music is firmly rooted in the traditional sound pioneered by women like Rose Maddox and Wanda Jackson, she continues, as they did, to explore the boundaries of the musical form. A veteran of the Texas dance halls, Rosie is also respected as one of the most innovative guitarists on the honky tonk scene today." Dance Hall Dreams brims with Rosie's unstoppable passion and perseverance, while reflecting her sense of connection to country music's past and dedication to its future. ## Various Artists

Tammy Wynette... Remembered

The influence of Tammy Wynette (1942-1998) cannot be overstated: with 30 million albums sold, 35 #1 hits, a career that spanned 50 albums and 4 decades, she dominated the charts and urged female country singers towards greater horizons. This 12-song tribute includes tracks by a variety of artists who were touched by her music: Melissa Etheridge

(Apartment No. 9), Etta Jones (Stand By Your Man), Wynona (Woman), Rosanne Cash (I-V-O-U), Emmylou Harris and Linda Ronstadt dueting on Golden Ring, and even Tammy's final recording: a duet with Beach Boy Brian Wilson, in My Room. (ASY62277) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Babyslipper

Maria Del Rey

Lullabies of Latin America

Studies show that lullabies are unique in that they are readily identifiable across cultures and languages, and are great teaching tools for bilingual education, with their simple pitch, repeated rhythms, and elongated vowel sounds. The 1999 debut solo release from this Cuban-born music producer contains 14 of the best-loved songs, lullabies, and poems of Latin America (by poets like Gabriela Mistral), utilizing indigenous instruments and performed in both Spanish and English — 28 tracks in all, the equivalent of 2 albums! Great for young children in bilingual households, as well as adults who are students of either language; recommended. (MLP75685) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Gospel

This 1972 classic double album, recorded with James Cleveland & The Southern CA Community Choir, contains gospel greats such as "I'll Fly Away," "Don't You Weep, Don't You Cry," "Climbing Higher Mountains," and "Rolling Stone." She sings like never before on record, the sounds of unqualified joy, his with tremendous power. (ATL906) CS: 12.98 CD: 24.98

Marion Williams The Gospel Soul of Marion Williams

Listen to these accolades: "the greatest singer ever" (Rolling Stone), "America's greatest singer" (Pulse), "The greatest gospel singer of her generation" (Time). To our knowledge, no other singer of any genre of music has ever garnered such amazing praise in so many diverse sources. Her work has been featured in Fried Green Tomatoes, Bill Moyer's TV specials, as well as the CBS movie based on Alex Haley's book Mama Flora's Family. This 1995 album contains 20 previously unreleased tracks including standards like "I'll Fly Away" and "Just a Closer Walk" (SHN6036) CD: 16.98

Rev. Delores P. Berry This Is Why I Sing!

This talented African-American gospel singer and MCC minister from Lancaster PA is the director of the Delores P. Berry Evangelistic Ministries, a Special Work of the United Federation of Metropolitan Community Churches. She presents a wonderful and inspiring selection of gospel songs and hymns, including Amazing Grace/God's Eye Is On the Sparrow/Blessed Assurance, It Is Well, Why We Sing and more, backed by members of the MCC of Washington, DC Gospel Choir. (OPB1) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Blues

Rory Block Confessions of a Blues Singer

On her 1996 release, this 1995 W.C. Handy Award-winning vocalist continues her raw and intense journey through authentic acoustic Delta blues. Following in the footsteps of such blues legends as Robert Johnson, Charley Patton and Blind Willie McTell, she captures a soulful moment in time with each song. (ROU3154) CD: 15.98

Ruth Brown A Good Day for the Blues

As long as Ruth Brown is singing, everyday is a good day for the blues! On her 1995 release, she shows us that age is no obstacle to artistic endeavor. At the age of 70, Ruth shows no sign of slowing down: as she explores the territory between jazz and the blues. As one of the first R&B superstars, Brown has received numerous awards and men to the peak of her genre. Her repertoire here ranges from classic ballads like "Never Let Me Go" and "A Lover Is Forever" to the foot-tapping, make-you-wanna-sing-along title track, a must for all your blues lovers out there! (BUL9613) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shemekia Copeland Turn the Heat Up

Wow, it's hot in here! This 1998 debut album of scorching urban blues is like Texas Pete on some down-home pit-cooked barbecue ribs. Shemekia's voice is hot spice over smooth soul. Daughter of blues guitar legend Johnny Copeland, she started young, singing onstage with her father at the Cotton Club when she was only 6. In the 11 years since, she has developed her own distinctive style: a fusion of traditional Delta blues, Memphis soul, gospel and the unique flavors of Harlem, where she grew up listening to street musicians by day and singing smoky club blues by night. Kick back and let her roar your blues away! (ALL4857) CD: 15.98

Jazz

Alice Coltrane Ptah the El Daoud

When her magnificent album Journey in Satchidananda went once again to out-of-printland, we searched for something worthy to take its place in our catalog and encountered this 1970 gem. (Since then, it has luckily once again become available, but who knows what its status will be in the future!) Recorded shortly before Satchidananda, this album hints a bit more in a jazz direction (a highly melodic one), with more Western instrumentation. Pharoah Sanders and Joe Henderson's tenor sax and alto-flute accompaniment (both on both) are split between the 2 channels in that old-time total stereo way which is way cool. Titles include Turiya and Ramanahna. Blue Nile, Mantha, recommended. (IMP201) CD: 16.98

Betty Carter I'm Yours, You're Mine

There was no one like Betty "Bebo" Carter, who died in 1998 at age 59 — what a huge loss. She didn't just sing, she took a song, bent it in the way a saxophone would, and pulled out heretofore hidden nuances. Her 1996 release, which she also produced, is simply one of the best jazz albums out there. The title track, which she co-wrote, is over 9 minutes of mystical soaring over an amazing infectious bassline. June Styrce's This Time, Antonio Carlos Jobim's Useless Landscape, East of the Sun and September. Song are transformed. Betty infuses Lovely House, written by Kurt Weill with lyrics by Langston Hughes, with a languid potency. Realizing that she wanted more control over her career years ago, Betty started her own production company and called her own shots. This album is a bullseye, absolutely essential. (VRV33182) CD: 16.98

Cassandra Wilson Traveling Miles

This amazing 1999 release pays homage to the late jazz great, Miles Davis, and for Cassandra's fans it will come as no surprise that she has produced a tribute album (we know, in this daring project, she doesn't simply reprise a number of Miles Davis tunes, she actually rewrites the songs, writing new lyrics in some cases and new arrangements in others — creating a mid-album both true to its roots and to the innovative style we have come to expect from this artist. Also includes some new songs as well as a guest appearance by Afro-pop star, (and Ladykiller favorite),

Angelique Kidjo. (BLN54123) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lois Dawson Sunrise

Her name is as beautiful as her music, as smooth as her voice, as warm as her spirit. Although she hails from right here in Durham, NC, her name is spreading farther than just around the corner. Her 1998 debut album is slightly reminiscent of another, amazing vocalist, Cassandra Wilson — they both have lush, low, warm voices that move like honey. But unlike Wilson, Dawson has composed all pieces on this release, and so beautiful! Even if you haven't previously heard her name, we can almost promise you that this elegant recording will take a prominent place in your CD shelf — highly recommended! (LD1) CD: 15.98

Patricia Barber Modern Cool

On this excellent 1998 release, Patricia sets provocative and poetic lyrics to the cool beat of her own unique jazz style. Tracks range from the political satire of Postmodern Blues, which laments the decline of the 20th Century's great ideological movements, to great revivals of Light My Fire and She's a Lady (female pronouns intact, making them seem pretty "out"), to deeply personal reflections on love and loss in Silent Partner. This is an intelligent album, with lyrics that will make you think and melodies that will make you stop and listen. She says, "People need music now. They need music that speaks to their souls, not just their heads, being impressed by music is not the same as being moved by it. People need music that grabs them where they don't know they needed to be grabbed. They need art." We agree — and here you'll discover some great art by one of jazz's most daring vocalists. (PRM741) CD: 15.98

R&B * Hip-Hop

Chaka Kahn

Epiphany: The Best of... Vol. One

This 1996 landmark anthology, from an artist whose refusal to be categorized has helped to expand and blur the boundaries of R&B, dance, pop and jazz, features her greatest hits plus 5 new tracks. Among the new: Never Miss the Water, on which she is joined by the Shelli Ndegeocello on vocals. Among the classics: I'm Every Woman (also the title of her autobiography), Avi's Nobody (recorded with Rufus), and the Prince-penned I Feel for You. She's one of this reviewer's absolute favorite divas, a 5-time Grammy winner and a voice to die for. (REP45065) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lauryn Hill

The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill

It's the 1999 Grammy award-winner for Album of the Year, the first time a hip-hop album has won... and Lauryn received 5 Grammys, the most any woman has ever received. When hip-hop superheros The Fugees dropped their first album, critics said: "The guys should stop rapping, the girls should go solo." Well, the guys didn't stop, but the girl, Lauryn Hill, has delivered in this bomb-diggity of a solo album. Not only is her singing voice incredibly beautiful (check her ode to her newborn son Zion, Bob Marley's grandson), but she's got those crazy rhythmic skills. Doo Wop is the only #1 single this decade to be written, produced, and recorded solely by a woman. And her interpretation of Can't Take My Eyes Off of You has just got to be heard. Her lyrics are deep, conscious, and strongly feminist, and are perfectly combined with head-nodding beats as well as some slow grooves. I'm sure she has some faults, maybe she doesn't roll her footpasta from the bottom of something. No faults on this album though! Get at it! (RFF69035) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Cabaret

Barbara Cook All I Ask of You

Composed of selections performed at her 50th Anniversary Concert at Carnegie Hall, as well as many other songs never before recorded, this 1999 release presents this vocalist at the top of her craft. After an impressive Broadway career that included starring roles in The Music Man, Candide and She Loves Me, she began to reinvent herself as a sassy, more worldly-wise performer who could swing a little, be sassy, and still convey a heartfelt romantic optimism. Her singing here is even richer than in her youth; there's simply more warmth, heart and understanding of life. (DRG1456) CD: 15.98

Linda Eder

It's Time

One of the best of the new school of Broadway-esque pop songwriters is enjoying extended success with this 1997 release. The combination of her soaring dramatic voice, along with repertoire from Frank Wildhorn and Jack Murphy, puts Linda in a class with Doris Day and Barbara Streisand. In addition to the originals by her writing team, she lends her voice to such standards as Man of La Mancha and Over the Rainbow. (ATL92977) CD: 16.98

(ANS557788) CD: 16.98

Sarah Brightman Eden

This anxiously-awaited 1999 release blends the artist's imitable interpretations of classical material such as Nessun Dorma and Nella Fantasia with haunting ballads (The Last Words You Said and Only An Ocean Away) and more pop-leaning material (title track and Deliver Me). As she moves a host of influences, instruments and languages — deftly shifting from opera to film music to pop, from Italian to English to Spanish — the common element is always her gorgeous voice. Welcome to paradise! (ANG56789) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ute Lemper All That Jazz: Best of Ute Lemper

Ute has excelled as a singer, a model, and an actress, and on this 1998 compilation we are treated to her best-loved vocal performances. From the woman who was so diva as to once stroll down the runway at a fashion show while 9 months pregnant, we get a glimpse of her work from movies and music, as well as classics from Marlene Dietrich and Edith Piaf, plus the lesbian and gay anthems, When That Special Girlfriend and The Lavender Song. The smooth sensuousness of her voice keeps the listener's every last bit of attention whether she's raising the roof or slowly crooning in your ear — a must for jazz or cabaret fans! (LON480594) CD: 16.98

Inkululeko 0741

The name comes from the South African Xhosa language and means "freedom, redemption, and emancipation" — and the group is an inspiring 5-woman acappella world music ensemble from Austin, TX that performs a variety of songs from South Africa, West Africa, and the African Diaspora including the US, Cuba, Brazil, and Haiti, in addition to Eastern European and original improvisations. Their compositions are organically arranged with both tightly and freely voiced harmonies. On this 1998 recording they have selected songs that represent a progression of life's themes, ranging from welcoming songs to songs that praise the Creator and the Great Mother, Yemaya. (INK1) CD: 14.98

Kitka Nectar 0745

This 1999 collection of 18 haunting and emotive songs from Bulgaria, Georgia, Hungary, Macedonia, Russia, and Ukraine, is performed mostly a cappella by the ensemble's 8 vocalists (with some accompaniment on tambura/Bulgarian lute, folk harp and hand percussion). With their mastery of the demanding techniques of Balkan and Slavic vocal stylings, they bring Eastern European women's vocal traditions to a US audience and beyond. These songs were gathered from a variety of sources, including including ethnographic field recordings collected by Kitka in Eastern Europe, and reflect women's experiences as expressed through centuries-old traditions of women singing together through life's passages: love, loss, work, play and resistance. (DPH098) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sound Circle 0729

The debut 1998 release from the 21-voice women's acappella ensemble is a beautiful representation of their talent and purpose. Their repertoire, which includes music that speaks to the sounds, rhythms and experiences of their own lives, emphasizes music by women. They include works here by Sandra Washington, Ysaie Barwell of Sweet Honey in the Rock, Anne Lister, Rachel Bagby, Cns Williamson and Holly Near. And to less stunning here is the William Butler Yeats Bill Douglas composition Golden Apples of the Sun. It was recorded in-studio rather than live which gives it a qualitative edge over many choral releases. Members of GALA and Sister Singers, the ensemble's work is spiritual, progressive, grounded, and of course harmonious. Very highly recommended — to all Libras fans and more! (SOU1599) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Rick Knight The Rainbow Room 0751

Angela Davis

Blues Legacies and Black Feminism

In this 1988 publication, the renowned activist and feminist thinker analyzes the work of Gertrude "Ma" Rainey, Bessie Smith, and Billie Holiday to illustrate their significance in early black feminism. She seeks to challenge the notion that feminism began in white culture by showing how the work of these women often challenged the social, sexual, and economic rules of the male-dominated record industry and culture at large. Her engaging and fluid style will educate the reader on not only the careers of these women but the social context in which they creatively flourished; also contains the first complete transcription of the works of Rainey and Smith. Don't worry, this isn't some difficult academic text; it's an interesting read on a fascinating topic. Recommended! (PNT1BK): 14.98

She has compiled all this into a behind-the-scenes, under-the-ribs, into-the-tents tour of festivals from Michigan to Yosemite, as she explores the changing definitions of women's music, sexual identities, political ideologies debated at the events, and other facets of festival culture. Photos, comic strips, and festival literature add personality to this intimate portrait of a unique cultural movement. (ALY477BK): 15.98

Fire

Written and directed by Deepa Mehta, this is truly one of the most excellent films seen by this reviewer in a long time. Banned in India, this 1996 release is the first film we know about to confront the topic of lesbianism in a culture which, entrenched in tradition, denies that such a love could exist. Wonderful, emotion-evoking performances by Shabana Azmi and Nandita Das, as sisters-in-law in loveless marriages who find each other, highly recommended! (NYV65398VC): 79.98

Classical Music

Adiemus featuring Miriam Stockley Songs Of Sanctuary 0585

This unusual and beautiful recording mixes Karl Jenkins' original compositions (performed by the London Philharmonic) with the wonderful singing of Miriam Stockley. The twist is that the delicate western classical instrumentation intertwines with phonetically written lyrics, so that the voices become another instrument without the distraction of words. Miriam has an "untrained" voice and sings fortissimo and without vibrato, the style of singing in her native South Africa. The effect is of lush multi-tracked "world" choral music that will send Enya fans into a swoon. The combination of elements from classic orchestral, Celtic, New Age, and chanting from a variety of cultures makes this 1995 English recording an amazing find! Highly recommended! (CAR7524) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Anima/Hildegard von Bingen Circle of Wisdom 0685

A 900th birthday celebration! This rich and contemplative album is a collection of the chants of Hildegard von Bingen (1098-1179), medieval nun, abbess and mystic — which were sung by the nuns of her abbey, day after day, year after year, but not written down until near her death. The voices of the group's 14 women, rising and circling with Hildegard's stunning melodies, are full of the earthy spirituality of the middle ages; medieval fiddle and flute accompany. (ANM002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anima/Hildegard von Bingen & Others Sacred Music of the Middle Ages 0047

Anima is a 15-woman ensemble which specializes in the vocal music of Hildegard von Bingen and other (mostly anonymous) medieval composers. They have studied with members of the performance group Sequentia, and like their mentors, they remain true to the original purity of the chants and songs. Primarily a cappella, with intermittent accompaniment on recorders, harp, vielle and organ, they perform plainchant, polyphony, ornamented chant, and motets from the 12th-14th centuries, with Hildegard's music forming the core of their work. Latin texts with English translations show that many of these ethereal, exquisitely beautiful pieces sing the praises of Mary. We are most happy to add this 1994 recording to our catalog and recommend it wholeheartedly! (ANM001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anonymous 4 An English Ladymass

Named after the unknown author of a 13th-century manuscript, the American vocal ensemble Anonymous 4 has devoted itself to exploring and illuminating sacred and secular medieval repertoire. The 4 female singers, noted for their exquisite vocal blend, make their recording debut in 1992 with a program of 13th- and 14th-century chant and polyphony in honor of the Virgin Mary. Lavishly presented with complete texts in 5 languages, including Latin and Old English. (HMU7060) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 Miracles of Santiago

The church of Santiago at Compostela in Spain was one of the main centers of medieval pilgrimage. Compostela was the legendary burial place of St. James the Greater, who was the first apostle and the first to die a martyr; his power as a miracle worker was renowned, and visitors to his tomb sought both physical and spiritual healing, as they do to this day. From the 12th century Codex Calixtinus (sermons, chants, legends, and lessons on Saint James), Anonymous 4 draws another hauntingly beautiful selection of chant and polyphony for this 1996 album. After I saw the Anonymous 4 in concert, I felt that the rest of my life would seem idle and banal, don't pass up the opportunity to hear them in person, if it comes your way. (HMU7156) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4 Portrait

This spring 1997 release includes selections from the 6 previous releases by this wondrous vocal quartet, plus a sneak preview of the fall '97 release 11,000 Virgins: chants by Hildegard von Bingen for the feast of St. Ursula. (HMU7210) CD: 10.98

Anonymous 4/Hildegard von Bingen 11,000 Virgins

The members of our favorite classical female vocal quartet turn their talents toward the music of the pivotal and amazing medieval composer, for this 1997 release. Hildegard's rhapsodic chants, inspired by the legend of St. Ursula and the Eleven Thousand Virgins, are full of imagery, weaving a hypnotic web of sound. The 4, who sing with "an ethereal clarity that is absolutely captivating," are the ideal interpreters of this music. (HMU7200) CS: 12.98 CD: 18.98

Anonymous 4/Sœur Marie Keyrouz/etc Ancient Voices/Vox Sacra

This low-priced sampler of ancient sacred music contains works by three different artists — Anonymous 4, Ensemble Organum (primarily male voices, directed by Marcel Peres) and Sœur Marie Keyrouz — each from a different album in their discographies. This is some of the most mystical, heavenly music we've heard, and an excellent way to familiarize yourself with the variety of work performed by each artist. 15 tracks, 67 minutes of music! (HMU290608) CD: 10.98

Anonymous 4 A Lammis Ladymass

This 1996 release presents chant and polyphony of votive masses in Mary's honor, celebrated weekly or even daily in medieval England. Mary was often worshipped more fervently than Jesus, as one member of the ensemble points out, "She got the best music, and the best poetry." Medieval England celebrated both the Assumption of the Virgin Mary and her Coronation during Lammis, the Celtic festival of harvest (also marking the end of summer and the beginning of autumn). "We have drawn on 13th and 14th century repertoire to create a Ladymass for the summer portion of the church year, as it might have been sung around the feast of Mary's Assumption in August." To the settings of the liturgical texts of the Ladymass, we have added several devotional works in praise of Mary. (HMU80722) CD: 18.98

Ars Femina Ensem./Francesca Caccini La Liberazione di Ruggiero

Francesca Caccini (1581-1640) was a singer, harpsichordist, lutenist, and court composer to the Medici family of 17th century Florence, where the musical genre we now know as opera flourished. Her work is brought to life by the Ars Femina Ensemble, dedicated to researching, rediscovering and recording music by early women composers. This opera is based on 3 cantos from an epic Renaissance poem, Orlando Furioso; it depicts an intriguing world of fantasy and reality as the nephew of Charlemagne struggles and chooses between love and fame. Beautifully performed and interpreted, the ensemble deserves much praise for this effort, which is one of the only recorded operatic works by a woman to our knowledge. Libretto included, most highly recommended. (NAN003) CS: 12.98 CD: 16.98

Ars Femina Ensemble Musica De La Puebla De Los Angeles

Subtitled Music by Women of the Mexican, Cuban and European Baroque, this 1996 release collects both vocal and instrumental compositions by women from the 16th and 17th centuries. The notes detail the musical intermingling of cultures and regions of the "old" and "new" worlds, representing a variety of nationalities (Mexico, Cuba, Spain, Italy, Germany, Netherlands). Most of the composers worked from the relative freedom of a convent, and their music is religious in nature. The exception is Teodora Gines, who was born into slavery in Cuba, and is credited with being the "mother of Cuban folkloric music." Highly recommended! (NAN004) CD: 16.98

Ars Femina Ensemble Non Tacetel (I'll Not Be Silent!)

This talented and dedicated group of musicians and researchers has uncovered more than 500 "lost" works by European women composers since its inception in 1985. Their label, Nannet, is named for Mozart's sister, said to be as talented as Mozart himself, and about as well-known as Jesus' baby sister! The 8 works here, all written before 1800, include the stunning Carl Muzci by Bianca Maria Meda, an Ursuline nun who composed in direct defiance of the Pope's 1588 edict that women not be allowed any access to musical expression, and Sonata Quarta by "Mrs. Philharmonica", a pseudonym reflecting the restrictions placed upon women composers at the time. The instruments are authentic to the periods represented, and the performers, in an effort to be inclusive, are female and male, black and white, gay and straight. Highly recommended! (NAN002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Barbara Strozzi/Catherine Bott To the Unknown Goddess

This 1996 release of baroque music consists of madrigals, arias, and cantatas written by the 17th-century Venetian singer and composer Barbara Strozzi. She enjoyed a great deal of acclaim from her contemporaries due to the strong emotional content of her music, powerful lyrics, the scope and richness of her rhythmic and harmonic vocabulary, and her perfect knowledge of the human voice. And it is truly lovely to listen to soprano Catherine Bott, a widely recognized interpreter of early vocal music, accompanied by harpsichord, baroque guitar, double harp, and chitarone. The booklet provides interesting information on her exposure to "feminist" ideas during childhood, and the ways she transcended the institutionalized misogyny of her era in a variety of ways. Recommended! (CRL0041) CD: 16.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Ave Maria

The calm, stilling voices of the nuns of St. Cecilia's Abbey on the Isle of Wight radiate purity of heart and the depth of their devotion; ancient and timeless. (NW150) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's Gregorian Chant: Venite Ad Me

Beautiful medieval compositions sung by the calm, stilling voices of the Benedictine Nuns, radiating a purity of heart and a sense of atonement, with a depth of devotion and peace that is almost unparalleled. These chants are from the Feast of the Sacred Heart. (NW151) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cello Subliminal Blues & Greens

Defying a traditional image, this unique 4-woman classically-trained all-cello quartet has joined a growing number of musical groups pioneering the next wave of chamber music. On this 1996 release, they perform an eclectic yet accessible repertoire that runs the gamut from world music to classical... these compositions by 9 different "young and hip" American composers were written specifically for the album. Unpredictable and broadly appealing, this dynamic group captivates younger and older audiences across the US and Europe. (DNT1011) CD: 16.98

Chamber Works by Women Composers

This 2-CD boxed set contains over 140 minutes (!!) of music, performed by the Macalester Trio, composed for piano, violin, and cello by the following women: Clara Schumann, Amy Beach, Germaine Tailleferre, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Teresa Cernano, and Cecile Chaminade. Several of these compositions have been rarely (or never) previously performed, and demonstrate the creativity of the composers; booklet with autobiographical information included. (VOX5029) CD: 15.98

Choir of the Abbey at Regina Laudis Women in Chant

This 1997 collection of women's Gregorian chant was recorded at the first Benedictine Abbey in the US, by the choir of the Benedictine nuns at the Abbey of Regina Laudis. These chants, beautiful in their simplicity, passion and devotion, are performed 20 times daily and once in the middle of the night. (BND004) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Daughters of Mary Spirit of the Daughters of Mary

From the Catskill Mountains and a religious congregation of nuns known as The Daughters of Mary comes this 1997 recording of Gregorian chant. The Sisters lift their voices in the spirit of prayer and song in this ancient form of praise. Having chosen to live a religious life based on an age-old tradition, they commit themselves to a life of prayer, contemplation, community and good works. Gregorian chant is a major component of that life as these Sisters chant each morning, noon and night. Capturing the essence of this ancient meditative prayer, the music transports the listener to the echoing halls of a stone abbey. (ETT7064) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ensemble Gaillei The Mystic and the Muse

Queens and subjects, mothers and daughters, patrons and mystics: the music featured on this 1997 release, subtitled Celebrating 600 Years of Women in Music, is the legacy. Women's passions, strength and courage have given rise to these melodies, performed by this 6-woman instrumental ensemble. From an 11th-century monastery in Rupertsburg to the court of Queen Elizabeth, from the letters of a Swedish immigrant to the ballads of the Appalachian mountains, they combine early music, folk/traditional, Celtic, and even New Age elements. National Public Radio is a collaborator on this most wonderful project. (DOR90247) CD: 16.98

The Grail Singers Women's Celebration/Chant & Harmony

This beautiful collection of chant and chant-inspired choral selections, released in 1994, celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Grail — an ecumenical multi-national organization of women which has been committed to spirituality, ecology, feminism, the arts and social justice since 1944. Convinced that the weaving of song into the pattern of daily life is the basis of a vital musical culture, the 19 women of the choir, ranging in age from 17 to 67, developed a treasury of song, ranging from Gregorian chant through polyphony and contemporary compositions. The 28 pieces, sung in Latin and English, impart a deeply prayerful, meditative spirit; you may hear some ambient noises which occurred naturally during the recording session, including birds, cicadas, the creaking of the barn at Grailville, and the wind! (BKR1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hildegard of Bingen/ Ellen Oak The Harmony of Heaven

This 1995 album of works by Hildegard is about as pure as you can get, probably sounding much as it did when Hildegard sang it herself. Unadorned, contemplative and devotional. Hers was a very feminine-oriented spirituality — several texts extolling virginity and numerous womanly attributes are included, with English translations. The music is performed here by the solo acappella voice of Ellen Oak, a singer, composer, conductor, dancer and minister rooted in the Roman Catholic tradition: she tours the country with her one-woman show Sounding the Living Light, weaving together Hildegard's songs and writings which she has been studying for 15 years. (BIS0001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Hildegard v Bingen/Ensemble Organum Laudes de Sainte Ursule

Saint, visionary, healer, composer. The many miraculous attributes granted to Hildegard have perhaps served to take her music out of its true context of the liturgical reality and values of her time. The aim here of the Ensemble Organum, the performance group on this 1997 release, is to consider her in the light of the Benedictine tradition of the post-Carolingian period — and also in the wake of the creative spirit that inspired the whole 12th century. These psalms and antiphons in honor of Saint Ursula and her 11,000 martyred virgins perpetuate a powerful Rhineland legend that haunted the popular imagination throughout the last centuries of the Middle Ages and beyond. (HMU1026) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to sing with its classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. This 1993 release, one of the first of the Hildegard "revival" albums, is beautifully performed by soprano Emma Kirkby, with Gothic Voices. (HYF66039) CS: 14.98 CD: 18.98

Hildegard von Bingen Illumination: Fire of the Spirit

Continuing the theme of "re-composing" ancient music and texts in a modern synthesized context that he first explored on Vision, Richard Souther's 1997 release again explores Hildegard von Bingen's timeless legacy. Richard's electronics and acoustic piano again blends with the rich soprano of Benedictine professed Sister Germaine Fritz. This album also adds Gaelic vocalist Noinn Ni Riain, Kate McEneaney and Evely Spillane of Riverdance and the 4-woman quartet Celtic. (SON42653) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen The Songs of Hildegard von Bingen

This Canadian release, Las Canciones de Hildegard von Bingen, presents new arrangements of songs by the beloved German mystic who has fascinated generations of people. Performed by soprano Claudia di Fabio, the Air Ensemble, counter-tenor John Duncan and soprano saxophonist Lenny Thompson, it bridges the gap between classical and new age music. (ORM5403) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen Vision

This is a unique 1994 album — its producers have created a contemporary landscape of weird beat rhythms, samplers, and electronic syntheses to supplement Hildegard's 1000-year-old melodies. In a musical merger of the 12th and 20th centuries. Performed by Benedictine Sister Germaine Fritz and early music vocalist/narrator Emily van Evers. (ANG55246) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Norma Gentile Unfurling Love's Creation

More than 600 years after her death, the great 12th-century musician, mystic, author, naturalist, scholar and abbess has at last found universal recognition. On this 1997 release, soprano Norma Gentile, accompanied only by the ambient sound of a 27-person "drones" chorus, sings eleven of Hildegard's chants. The selections focus on the story of the martyr St. Ursula. In the 5th century, St. Ursula led an army of women to Rome who, on their return trip home, were slaughtered by Attila the Hun's army for refusing to serve as concubines. Other selections deal with the paradox of bloodshed, both as a precursor to death and a monthly sign of a woman's good health. This resulting album is a powerful, yet serene realization of pure spiritual devotion, exquisitely expressed through the human voice. (LYR8027) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sequentia Canticos of Ecstasy

On this 1994 release, the medieval ensemble Sequentia (which consists of a 7-woman vocal ensemble, 2 fiddles and medieval harp) brings an incoherent and authentic interpretation to Hildegard's original works. Extensive notes explain Hildegard's essentially feminist interpretations of biblical texts, attributing the victory of womanhood as a revelation of the Fall, present in the feminine form (female form) — manifest in the divine and victorious Mary, as well as in Canticos, who is at once the Bride of the Song of Songs, Divine Wisdom, and Charity of the New Testament. Very recommended for the painstaking scholarship in the written material as well as for the authenticity and beauty of the musical presentation. (DHMT7320) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/J. Montgomery Lux Vivens (Living Light)

It's Hildegard's 900th birthday in 1998, so it's fitting there should be such a plethora of excellent releases. On this one, Jocelyn Montgomery (who developed her interest in Hildegard while working with the medieval women's troubadour group Sinfonia), presents modern interpretations of works by the finally-famous feminist abbess. Angelic soprano melodies play off deeper, haunting drones which were originally supplied by monks; her soaring vocals intertwine with producer David Lynch's brooding soundscapes, breathing new life into these stunning works, both sacred and secular. (MAM0183) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sequentia Ordo Virtutum (2-Set)

Back in stock due to popular demand! This double set includes title selection, one of Hildegard's mystery plays, in which she confronts the Devil and her own temptations, ultimately triumphing over them. The Sequentia ensemble also performs medieval sequences, the most significant poetic and musical form of the Middle Ages, with fiddle, psaltery, flute, harp and hurdy-gurdy. (DHMT7051) CS: 14.98 CD: 29.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sequentia Symphoniae: Spiritual Songs

This recording of spiritual songs contains texts and music in praise of the female divinity who figured prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Mary, the virgins who inhabit heavenly realms at the end of time, St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered a feminine deity. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harp, psalteries, fiddles, flutes, and symphony. (DHMT7020) CD: 14.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sequentia Voice of the Blood

Yet another transcendent rendering of the work of the "rediscovered" 12th century abbess! Hildegard viewed her compositions as having been divinely inspired and, like all sacred music, one of the highest forms of human activity as it aspires to the sounds of the heavenly spheres and angel choirs. The focus on this 1995 release is on St. Ursula of Cologne who, along with the 11,000 virgins who were her companions, was martyred by barbarian soldiers, and whose cult of worship was at a peak in Hildegard's time. Sequentia's high standards of musical scholarship and integrity have yielded a stunning recording of meditative beauty. (DHMT7346) CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sinfonia Harmony of Celestial Revelations

Sinfonia — a women's ensemble with a particular interest in repertoires sung, inspired or composed by women — combines improvisatory skills derived from traditional music with performance practices recreated from historical research. On this 1996 recording of the Symphony of the Harmony of the Celestial Revelations — the first volume of The Complete Hildegard von Bingen (more are yet to come) — they are joined by members of the Oxford Girls Choir to deliver an unforgettable celebration of Hildegard's praises, hymns, anthems and sequences honoring saints, virgins and Mary, in the plainchant tradition — a single vocal melodic line, common in liturgical singing of her time. (CEL127) CD: 15.98

Hildegard von Bingen/Norma Gentile Meditation Chants

Norma Gentile's unaccompanied bell-like soprano graces her interpretations of Hildegard's poetry with serene beauty. Perspectives gained from her study of voice, vibrational healing and music history inform the sound and feel of this 1996 recording. The ethereal chant cycle featured, Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, comes from Hildegard's first theological text Scivias, which is based on a series of 26 visions. This cycle is a musical rendering of her final vision, in which Hildegard experienced "a sound like the voice of a multitude singing in harmony, in praise of the celestial hierarchy." The resulting song cycle characterizes Hildegard's belief that music makes the soul symphonic. (SKR1803) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lara St. John

Bach: Works for Violin Solo

This virtuosic violinist has posed the question, "What is classical music if not the epitome of sensuality, passion and understated eroticism that popular music, even with all of its energy and life, cannot even begin to touch?" One of the reasons we're offering this excellent but controversial 1996 recording is because so many stores are refusing to carry it. (To explain: the cover features the bare torso of the 24-year old artist — looking much younger to many, apparently — in a spartan b&w photo in which the violin covers her breasts... so without considering the artist's age or wishes, reviewers write only about the packaging, and male chain-store owners have decided this is child pornography... never mind the virtuosic, misogynist stuff depicted in so much popular music. We're reminded of how we cannot use some of the most beautiful images of bare-breasted women on our catalog covers, because the Postmaster will not allow them through the mail...) Back to the recording: she performs Bach's Partita No. 2 in D Minor (ending with the well-known Chaconne/Caconna) and Sonata No. 2 in C Major, with amazing strength, refinement, richness, tension, and beauty of phrasing. And in her words, "If this unusual album cover is responsible for even a few more people hearing and loving these inimitably great works of Bach, then to me it is all worthwhile." (WTP5180) CD: 17.98

Lara St. John Gypsy

Lara has done it again, in every sense! This 1997 release features some of the most beautiful, heart-breaking, breathless rhapsodies, nocturnes, and fantasies ever written for violin and associated with "Gypsy" music. (While two are traditional compositions, others are by classical and contemporary composers who have interpreted Gypsy themes and melodies.) Her technique and skill are almost beyond belief for such a young artist... listen to her performance of Zigeunerweisen, by Pablo de Sarasate. And, she has again wrapped her amazing music in a cover which will no doubt shock or unnervingly some of the stiff classical crowd. (Her black leather jacket isn't exactly buttoned up, you see...) We don't know whether once again, stores will refuse to stock such a magnificent work from such an incredibly talented musician, but if they do, that's obscenity in our opinion! Highly recommended! (WTP5185) CD: 17.98

Leila Josefowicz Violin for Anne Rice

In 1997, Anne Rice's novel Violin, the story of 3 figures bound together by their obsession with music, was published. After learning that Leila Josefowicz was a huge inspiration to Anne Rice throughout the writing of the book, the 2 women joined forces to create this 1997 recording. Featuring Anne's favorite selections from Leila's recordings, by Tchaikovsky, Saint-Saens and others, it also debuts a new arrangement of Sting's Mo'N'Over Bourbon Street, which he was inspired to write after reading Anne's best-seller Interview with the Vampire. ## Liona Boyd The Best of Liona Boyd

This Canadian artist is one of the world's foremost performers on classical guitar, renowned for her sensitive interpretations, imaginative arrangements, and technical skill. This limited-quantity 1992 "cut-out" title contains 16 very lovely compositions by a variety of Spanish and other classical composers, plus one of her originals. Includes Maza's Campanas del Alba, Lecuona's Malagueña, and Alicia's Asturias. Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring and What Child is This? Greenesleeves are perfect for holiday times, but this album is very recommended for year-round enjoyment. (SON37758) CD: 11.98

Mediaeval Baebes Salva Nos

The members of this unique 12-woman troupe (which includes one ex-stripper, a number of exotic dancers, a systems analyst, and former members of Miranda Sex Gatzien) have been described as hard-core Anglo-Saxon acid-meat mistresses of the Middle Ages music scene. This debut 1997 classical/rock cross-over release, an introduction to the fire-funk and chant of the 14th century, includes Salva Virgo Virginum, Gaudete (once previously made famous to a rock/pop audience by Maddy Prior's rendition with Steeleye Span), An Adult Lullaby, Now Sprunges The Spray, and 12 more. (VIR46228) CD: 15.98

Muriel Anderson Arioso From Paris

This gifted guitarist has performed with symphony orchestras and solo around the world, playing everything from Bach to Japanese koto music to Spanish Flamenco to King of the Road. Raised in a musical family (her grandfather played saxophone in John Philip Sousa's band), she has been playing guitar since age 10, has learned every style that she could find, and has won the National Fingertapping Guitar Championship. On this 1992 recording, she plays music that was written, arranged and/or recorded in Paris, drawing from many cultures, but all inspired by the French countryside. With guest guitarists Jean-Faust Lalanne and the legendary Chet Atkins, Muriel delicately picks originals such as Rosa Lee, Read My Heart To Me and Along the Seine, and diverse covers like the Dire Straits tune Why Worry, Koto No Tsuki, and Campanas del Alba. A real find for fans of classical guitar! (CGO200) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg Humoresque

This 1998 release is based on a 1947 film about a young concert violinist born in the Jewish ghetto of NYC, which originally featured the playing of a young Isaac Stern. The music, from composers as diverse as Cole Porter, George Gershwin, J. S. Bach and Antonin Dvorak, helped tell the film's story, and here this brilliant young instrumentalist brings a fresh perspective to this unusual repertoire. (NON79464) CD: 16.98

Rebecca Kite Prism

We've known this multi-talented instrumentalist/percussionist since 1984 — she's the timpanist you hear on Kay Gardner's A Rainbow Path (she's also currently director of "Drumheart," a women's percussion ensemble). On this 1998 release, she plays marimba, a centuries-old instrument made of rosewood bars suspended over resonators, found in Indonesian Gamelan, African, Vietnamese, Central American and Mexican traditional music. She skillfully manipulates those mallets, performing pieces by women composers such as Keiko Abe, Alice Gomez and Marilyn Rife, as well as by J.S. Bach and others (many written for classical guitar, lute and cello, which she has transcribed for marimba). Evocative and unique! (GP9802) CD: 15.98

Guadalupe: Virgen de Los Indios

NEW

This 1998 release by the mixed-gender, choral group is the stunning first-recorded recreation of sacred music written in the late 1500's by Aztec descendants in honor of the Virgin of Guadalupe, who appeared to the Native Indian Juan Diego, in 1531, 10 years after the Aztec conquest by Cortes, on the very hill where the Aztecs had worshipped the goddess Tonantzin ("Our Mother"). This event triggered millions of conversions to Christianity, and the subsequent fusion of European and indigenous cultures... and demonstrates how Goddesses have been absorbed/transformed into Christianity. The Virgin of Guadalupe, referred to as the Queen of the Heavens, continues to be a major figure in the Catholic Church of the Americas, particularly with millions of US Latinos. The 7 harmonizing voices of SAVAe (San Antonio Vocal Arts Ensemble) combine with traditional wind and percussion instruments of the Aztecs, yielding a spellbinding fusion of cultures and music — recommended! # Sharon Isbin

Journey to the Amazon

Classical guitarist Sharon Isbin teams up with legendary jazz saxophonist Paul Winter and Brazilian percussionist Gaudencio Thiago de Melo for this 1997 adventure in jazz and classical-tinged world music. The soprano sax and a variety of mostly self-made percussive instruments evoke distinctive sounds of the rainforest, offering a playful and provocative interplay with Sharon's virtuosic guitar on compositions by 8 South American composers. ## Lesbian American Composers

This 1996 release is a welcome addition to the otherwise more male-dominated genre of gay classical composers. Compositions by 10 living composers are featured, several performed by the composers themselves... includes Pauline Oliveros, the Canadian clarinet/piano duo Queen Mob, Nurit Tilles playing an original rag, and an excerpt by Paula Kimper from the opera Patience and Sarah. "As beautiful, strong and diverse as the voices of women in America today, the music of these ten lesbian American composers speaks to the heart, soul and conscience of our times." (CR780) CD: 15.98

The Renaissance Album

NEW

If you are among those (like me) who inevitably find the courtly music of Renaissance Europe spirit-shriving, you are sure to enjoy this 1998 Windham Hill collection. Performances by the inimitable Liz Story, Angels of Venice, Shelley and Barry Phillips, Lisa Lynne, and Ensemble de Musica are lovely, of course. George Winston plays, not piano, but an 8-string lute-like steel string guitar... Kevla Seamer performs a John Dowland piece on Hawaiian slack-key guitar... and Ann & Nancy Wilson (remember Heart?) sing the almost-bawdy My Thing Is My Own. (WH11216) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.98

Women of Note

Works by women composers are presented on this 1997 compilation, from Clara Schumann, Lili Boulanger, Germaine Tailleferre, and Fanny Mendelssohn, to Amy Beach, to Thia Muegrave, to contemporaries like Ellen Taft Zwilich and Meredith Monk. Performers range from the solo piano of Virginia Eskin, to various mixed chamber groups, to the Women's Philharmonic. While this represents just a small fraction of the music composed by women all over the world since the Middle Ages, the quality and variety will no doubt encourage many to explore the subject further. ## Opera's Greatest Mothers

NEW

"Being a good mother has never been easy, and on the operatic stage it is next to impossible." If she's not a high "virgin" priestess with two illegitimate children (Norma), she has her heart set on marrying, only to find out she's about to wed her son (Marcellina in La Nozze di Figaro). Sometimes she's a bit befuddled, either inadvertently poisoning her son (Lucrezia Borgia) or having trouble remembering whether she threw him into a bonfire or not (Azucena in Il Trovatore). On her worst days, when she's really feeling under the weather, she sends her son out to play so she can kill herself in peace (Maddama Butterfly). On this 1996 collection, Leontyne Price, Montserrat Caballe, and other greats give voice to the many indignities that mothers of the stage go through, radiantly rendering the greatest arias ever written for Mom. ## Classical Erotica

If you are familiar with Sensual Classics, Too, you'll know it's an album of classical music marketed specifically to gay men: consider this one a similarly-targeted release for the lesbian community. This 1995 romantic journey through some of the world's most famous sensuous orchestral works features music by male composers such as Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff, Debussy, and Puccini. Striking album artwork by lesbian photographer Judy Francesconi: a beautiful erotic photograph of two women passionately engaged. (RS0280) CD: 15.98

The packaging features exclusively commissioned photography by Judy Francesconi, making this edition like its predecessor in the Classical Erotica series, the perfect bedtime companion for lovers. ## Women in Electronic Music - 1977

It was the late 1970's and New Music had no superstars yet. Composer Charles Amirkhanian was producing, for the now-defunct label Artn 1750, a collection of electronic music by women composers. At the last minute, when his friend Philip Glass recommended he include something by an extraordinary young woman named Laurie Anderson, two short works by her (New York Social Life and Time To Go) were included at the end of Side B — and this became the first commercial release of New Music's ambassador to the mainstream. This entire album is re-released in 1997, containing many other treasures such as a rare recording by cult figure Johanna Beyer, an early sonic meditation by Pauline Oliveros and more by Laurie Spiegel, Armin Lockwood and others. ## Acoustic Passion

This instrumental trio consists of Sunita Staneslow on harp, Laura Sewell on cello, and Steve Yeager on vibraphone and other percussion — a winning combination of instruments if there ever was one! But it's their flawless execution of a superbly-selected repertoire which make this 1994 release truly exceptional. They redefine chamber music by melding ethnic, jazz and classical traditions; their primary sources are Mediterranean Rm — Spain, Ladino (songs from the Sephardic Jews of Medieval Spain) — plus Brazil, with shades of other evocative musics blended in. Of course, any good rendition of Villa-Lobos' Ale from Bachianas Brasileiras No. 5 has a place in my collection, and this one is excellent! Highly recommended; our only problem is that it doesn't fit neatly into any of our categories! (MAX2051) CS: 7.98 CD: 11.98

Virginia Eskin, pianist

Pickles & Peppers

Over 150 women composed and published ragtime music — a very disciplined and structured, almost classical form — around the turn of the century, but only recently has this fact been unearthed. It's the old, too-familiar story, many composed under pseudonyms, or with initials, or never had their works published. Here the acclaimed pianist plays 23 of the best of these catchy, tuneful, gorgeously swaying pieces by the most important female composer-pianists of that era; a dozen composers are represented, about whom biographical info was difficult to come by. # Vox

From Spain to Spain

0306

With members from six European countries, Vox creates especially meaningful reinterpretations of early Spanish music, and a musical odyssey through Spain, Africa and South America from 711 A.D. forward. Their 1992 album explores developments in music and history, unpacking the cultural legacy of the Christians, Moors, and Jews who coexisted at a time of artistic flowering. Medieval instruments (especially the Arabic oud), African, Middle Eastern, and Latin percussion, subtle synth orchestrations, lead vocals by a spectacular female trio (Fadia El-Hage, Catherine Rey and Rose Bihler-Shah), and a woman-directed male choir communicate both the sound and spirit of their medieval selections... from the meditative beauty of Beats for the Virgin, to the lyrical yearning of Bearer of Cups, to the glory of Maravillosa, to the dense drama of Dein ex Machina. The majority of compositions are about the Mother of God/Holy Mary. Excellent! Fascinating historical notes included; highly recommended! (RLM9000) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Vox/Hildegard von Bingen

Diadema

On this exceptional release, the European group Vox magisterially adapts profound religious musical compositions by Hildegard von Bingen, the 12th century German mystic, for contemporary audiences. Medieval strings, woodwinds and percussion blend with atmospheric synthesizers and a virtuosic trio of female singers, whose soaring voices are both powerful and ethereal. The treatment maintains the purity and mysticism of the original hymns, while bringing them into a virtual cathedral, luminous to the ears, and the packaging of the CD is visually opulent as well. Beautiful, womanly lyrics are contained in the hymns, performed in Latin, including To the Eleven Thousand Virgins, When the Voice of the Blood (of Ursula), To Mary. It's a lovely recording, ranging from the stately to melancholic to sprightly, skillfully blended and presented by this country's premier women's orchestra. ### Women of Spirit

Our friend Jennifer Elhorn writes that this 1998 compilation is "a convergence of extraordinary musical muses from around the world. Each of these women has pioneered and persevered. By defying long-standing musical and cultural categorizations, they are redefining contemporary music and connecting the past with the present through song. These 13 women remind us that spirit and music are so thoroughly intertwined, it's sometimes tough to distinguish between the two." What an incredibly interesting group of artists: Karen Matheson of Capercaille performs with Hija del Sol (Sibela), 2 sisters from Guinea; Tochi Reagon sings A Song with her mom Bernice Johnson Reagon of Sweet Honey, there's Cassandra Wilson, Susana Baca, Ani DiFranco, Farika, Rasha, and many more. ### Sisters: Women's Music from...

Celestial Harmonies — that's the label presenting this 1995 anthology of diverse and wonderful 14 female artists/groups. The common thread is that the women are all musical schemists with a deep sense of history, blending ancient song with a modern production, or actively involved in extending the boundary of possibilities for their chosen instrument. It opens with a West African percussion piece by Francine Marfel from the group Takida... then we hear Tomoko Sunazaki on koto; Nancy Hennings on Tibetan bells; soprano Anna Mallen sings a haunting medieval Armenian chant; sitar player Krishna Chakravarty combines ragas with tala; Ida Wadawer performs classical Soudanese music of ancient lyrical court poetry; Sylvan Gray demonstrates her mastery of the kantele, Finland's zither-like instrument; the trio Sinfonia pays tribute to Rüdiger von Bingen; the Hue Traditional Art Troupe honors Vietnamese sisters Trung Trac and Trug Nih; Therese Schroeder-Sheker offers a delicate tune for harp and voice; violinist Claes Pearce from the Australian ensemble Coolangubra thrills with her virtuosity. This spectacular 1994 release, which could be subtitled The World's Best... is a collection of 14 songs by female and male artists from Spain, India, Morocco, Zaire, Mozambique, Mongolia, Tahiti, Argentina, Corsica and America. What musical discoveries it contains! Tanola Nomade by Sankho tells of a nomadic life in Tuva, land of shamanistic traditions and "throat singing." Mercedes Sosa sings Gracias a la Vida with characteristic power, simplicity, and eloquence. The title of vocalist extraordinaire, Cesaria Evora's Sodade has been translated from Portuguese as "a longing for what once was, or might have been." Vox, an Anglo/German/Lebanese ensemble, here contributes While the Birds Sing; lead singer Fadia El-Hage's voice features the ululation and embellishment that marks the beauty of Arab song. ## Albino

Una Mujer Como Yo / A Woman Like Me

Albino was a commissioned singer for the Cuban government but defected to Mexico. Then, perhaps after a brief nap, she and her band walked across the border into the US, to Miami and the clubs of Little Havana. Her explosive stage presence, her deep resonant voice, the percolating mambo rhythms of her music, her penchant for wearing men's suits, all helped make her a local sensation and attracted the enthusiasm of the famous, including Madonna. This 1997 album of high-energy dance-party music exudes the energy and charisma this vocal-ist-composer-bandleader is known for — if you've seen her on stage, you'll know what we mean! ## Celia Cruz con la Sonora Matancera

The Best of Celia Cruz

The reigning Queen of Latin music began singing with one of her native Cuba's biggest bands, Sonora Matancera, in 1950. She earned world fame in the 50's, was a salsa pioneer in the 60's when she helped define and create the genre, scored her first gold record in the 70's, became a Fania All-Star in the 80's, and won a Grammy in the 90's with Ray Barreto and the film Mambo Kings. This 1997 release features 19 tracks recorded from 1951-1965, la crema de the Salsa Queen's golden years with La Sonora Matancera. Includes Ritmo, Tamba y Flores; Ritmo de Mi Cuba; Oye Mi Rumba y mucho mas. (RH72816) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Conjunto Céspedes

Una Sola Casa

0441

"Sol" is the soul music of Cuba — a fiery, poly-rhythmic marriage of African drumming, Spanish flamenco and Caribbean heat. This group is led by the powerful sensual vocals of Cuban-born Gladys (Bob) Céspedes — a priestess in the Afro-Cuban Lucumi tradition with over 25 years as a "daughter of Obatala" — and her nephew, Guillermo Céspedes, backup is provided by some of the Bay Area's hottest Latin instrumental talents. With this album, they invite a new generation of music lovers to dance to the commanding pulse of the bata, the tick of the claves and the shake of the shakers... music so compelling and sexually electric, it was once outlawed in Cuba. Virgin de la Candelaria contains prayers to both a Yoruba goddess and a Catholic saint, and Respeto a la Tierra is an anti-war statement emphasizing the belief that the environment must not be despoiled. Fantastic percussion and an irresistible spirit on this 1993 release. (GL4007) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Gloria Estefan

Mi Tierra (My Homeland)

0443

In our opinion, her 1993 release is her best ever! With high-energy accompaniment by all-star Latin musicians including Sheila E. and Tito Puente, she performs a wide variety of songs in Spanish. The styles reflect and illustrate pride in her Cuban heritage as well as the musical tradition itself, with jubilant Afro-Cuban percussion and rhythms. The liner notes include translations as well as some information which will be helpful to a non-Latin audience — a bit of a cultural bridge. As her closing song says, "And with great admiration I offer this celebration of my roots! I bring you this guaguancó (another typical Afro-Cuban rhythm)! So you'll never forget this unusual rhythm! And to awaken your pride in your origins..." (EPC53807) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Irene Farrera

Alma Latina / Latin Spirit

0309

Back by popular demand! Venezuelan singer-songwriter Irene Farrera possesses the kind of rich, smoky voice that one associates with good chocolate: full of spice and flavor, and inspiring passionate declarations! At one moment, that voice is shy and tender, caressing the lyrics as if they were children, or it might wrap an ethereal fist around poetry that cuts like a knife. Like her compatriot Soledad Bravo, Irene imbues her work with the essence of the Latin spirit — a fierce passion combined with romantic tenderness. This 1995 recording features her interpretations of classic songs by Latin American composers, including Chabuata Granda, Violeta Parra, and Antonio Carlos Jobim. (RR5502) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Walking in the Jungle

Fantastic! This Venezuelan musician (singer, songwriter, guitarist, arranger) extraordinaire brings us, en inglés y español, a beautifully diverse collection of original works, backed by a small yet sophisticated band (amazing bass, great percussion, keyboards and sax). Her voice has a deep, husky, jazzy quality reminiscent of Julia Forthman, especially on the hypnotic Desperta/Awake. The title song (which she dedicates to all creatures, including people of every political, spiritual and sexual orientation) is also a highlight, sinuous bass lines snake around bird calls and a lazy saxophone melody, with Irene's lovely voice breathing heat into the steamy clearings — y que calor tiene! Her notes speak out against racism and homophobia several times, letting us know that these are priority issues to her. Highly recommended! (IF2) CD: 14.98

Ivon Ulibarri

Cafe Mocha

0587

Hey, salsa fans, go no farther! This amazing 1995 release is everything you need! Ivon used to lead the women's band Amigas y el Grupo Ritmo (whose recording we carried years ago until they broke up and the album ran out), so we are quite happy that she is back! Cafe Mocha, Ivon explains, "is coffee with chocolate, a blend of two flavors. My music is a blending of many flavors, Caribbean rhythms with top 40 pop rhythms, and Mexican rhythms." The predominant flavor is good salsa, and Ivon and her album rightfully swept the 1995 New Mexico Hispanic Music Association awards! She sings her original compositions, both in Spanish and English, in a resonant voice that complements and enhances the percolating rhythms of her band. Trust me on this one — highly recommended! ### Gracias a la Vida / Here's To Life

0067

Dedicated to her father, who gave the artist her Latin name as well as her optimism about life, this re-release of a 1974 album contains 14 songs, all sung in Spanish. Includes the beautiful title-track by Violeta Parra, as well as Dida, Guantanamera, La Llorona, The Weeping Woman, Las Madres Cansadas, All the Weary Mothers, Te Recuerdo Amanda, I Remember Your Amanda, and No Nos Moverán / We Shall Not Be Moved. We're pleased to add this to our catalog, in response to your requests. (AM614) CD: 15.98

Katia Cardenal (of Guardabarranco)

Katia is known to and beloved by a large audience who followed the work of the Nicaraguan sister-brother duo Guardabarranco. Having launched her solo career from her new home in Norway, she offers her 1997 release (recorded in Managua) featuring works by various Hispanic composers — including herself and her brother Salvador! She's accompanied by Nicaraguan acoustic guitarist Eduardo Arce, so the style will sound familiar to you Guardabarranco fans: melodic, poetic, quiet yet emotion-filled. Norwegian import, lyrics in Spanish; recommended! (KC197) CD: 15.98

Latin Fever

We are ecstatic that this long-out-of-print 1978 classic — an absolutely inimitable rhythmic concoction of women's voices — is back! Among these 14 female musicians you'll hear some of the country's finest jazz talents: percussionist Nidia Mata, Jean Finberg and Ellen Seeling of DEUCE, and more, featuring very strong multi-member percussion and horn sections. With a few instrumentalists, vocals mostly in Spanish, some bilingual, it includes La Mujer Latina ("The Latin American Women") by Cuban-born Rosa Soy. Very highly recommended, for dancing and listening, as well as difficult to find. It's truly a treasure... don't pass it up! (FNA527) CD: 17.98

Vestigios

If you love Mercedes Sosa, absolutely give this woman your ear! This Puerto Rican born singer/songwriter performs her original "Nuevas Canciones" in the style of Mercedes Sosa, with a voice deep and rich and warm. In fact, her 1997 release includes her Homenaje a Mercedes Sosa (Homage to Mercedes Sosa). This very womanly album features a duet with Irene Ferrer, a song about her mother and another about her grandmother... and to increase lesbian visibility in Puerto Rican music, a passionate love song for a woman entitled Noche de Ronda (Requiem for Night). Into Pienso en ti, she incorporates the familiar Que Bonita Bandera about the beautiful Puerto Rican flag, stating "how much more beautiful it would look if the imperialists didn't own it." Recommended! (VVV1001) CD: 15.98

Mercedes Sosa

Escondido en mi Pais

From the upbeat, tropical Viejas Promesas, to the swaying title track, this 1995 release, translated as Hidden in My Country, is classic Mercedes! Most of the songs travel the terrain of great passions, usually political, and hope-despite-despair. My favorites are simply interlaced with Spanish guitar, piano, violin and percussion (I love that synthesizer-less, mate-finish intensity). Also includes Zamba a Morélos, Si Llego a Ser Tucumana, Ojos Azules, La Navidad de Luis, 15 in all. (PLD533031) CD: 15.98

Mujeres Argentinas

Translated as Argentine Women, this 1991 reissue is very simply produced with Hector Zolli playing organ and the composer Ariel Ramirez playing piano and clavier (which has a harpsichord-like sound). Each song, with lyrics by Felix Luna, describes a heroic woman who fought for her country's freedom. Small descriptions (in Spanish) accompany each song, such as Gringa Chacabá, Alfonso Y El Mar, Manuela La Tucumana and Corotés, La Cautiva. Of course, Mercedes majestic dusky jewel of a voice sounds wonderful in any setting, but I especially liked the unusual sounds found here, recommended! (PLG510509) CD: 15.98

30 Años

0040

Wow — what a fantastic compilation! Celebrating and representing 30 years of performance, this album contains some of her very best material ever, including her earlier, more acoustic recordings, which this reviewer is admittedly quite partial to. Contains her beloved classic Gracias a la Vida, plus other favorites such as Alfonso y el Mar, Si Se Caía el Cántaro, Luna Tucumana, her beautiful lullaby Quiero Negrito, crowd pleaser María, María, a live song with Milton Nascimento and writer Chirley García entitled Inconsciente Colectivo, and many others; songwriters covered include Violeta Parra, María Elena Walsh, and Atahualpa Yupanqui. It's probably this long-time fan's favorite compilation... we highly highly highly recommend this one to both newcomers and devotees alike! (PLG518789) CD: 15.98

Nana Mouskouri

Nana Latina

Probably the best-selling female artist of all time (she has sold over 800 million albums!), this Greek diva of the famous square black glasses — who was born with only one vocal cord — is known for her repertoire of love songs in many languages. Featuring a duet each with Mercedes Sosa and Julio Iglesias, the 1995 all-Spanish release includes Violeta Parra's Gracias a la Vida as well as other songs familiar to us Mercedes Sosa fans, such as Alfonso y el Mar. (MER534102) CD: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Hot Organization

Red Hot & Latin/ Silencio=Muerte

Some of the most exciting and influential artists of the Americas offer their voices in song on this 1997 recording that helps raise money and awareness to stop the spread of HIV. This is an eclectic collection of musical genres uniting for a common cause, breaking the silence surrounding AIDS in Latin America. Melissa Etheridge sings her popular U.S. song, Nowhere to Go, in Spanish (I) while Sepultura performs a techno-punk grunge version of Bob Marley's War which concludes this powerful compilation. Don't miss Los Lobos and Fishbone who also appear on this album! (PLG341005) CD: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Soledad Bravo

Chants du (Songs of) Venezuela

0521

One of the most beloved vocalists in South America, this Spanish-born singer (whose family fled Franco's oppressive regime and emigrated to Venezuela) has an enchanting, deeply resonant but clear-as-a-bell voice — similar to Joan Baez's, but often a good octave lower. She is accompanied by cuatro and bandola, traditional Colombian and Venezuelan stringed instruments, as well as harp and percussion. Song styles range from traditional Goipe (based on a melodic theme that is repeated and varied), Portuguese and African fufas, traditional work songs and lullabies — tied together by her voice which cuts right through and breaks your heart a little. She makes any language barrier a moot issue: this import recording is absolutely majestic and very highly recommended! (BUD52544) CD: 18.98

Susana Baca

We've been watching for it — here it is! Her voice first revealed to the world at large on the compilation The Soul of Black Peru (and later on Divine Divas), Susana presents her 1997 full-length worldwide debut, heralding not only the return of an evocative voice, but the arrival of a veritable cultural treasure. She has dedicated herself to the preservation of the history and culture of her people, African-descended Peruvians. Tender, melancholic, rhythmic and poetic, her material ranges from contemporary to centuries old, reflecting a unique blend of African, Spanish and Caribbean music. (LB46627) CD: 16.98

Tish Hinojosa

Aquella Noche

0449

Inspired by such luminaries as Mercedes Sosa and Frida Kahlo, this Mexican-American political activist / singer / songwriter / guitarist brings an emotional integrity to her work that readily surpasses that of your average "folk singer"... this recording is warm, emotionally strong, thoroughly enjoyable! Tish sings in both English and Spanish, and the in-depth liner notes provide line-for-line English translations. Songs include a haunting version of Tu Que Pasa, Vuelvete (You Who Can Return — the Atahualpa Yupanqui classic anthologized so beautifully by Mercedes Sosa), her original, wistful Menos, Huesos Y Sangre (Hunks, Bones and Blood, for Mexican artist Frida Kahlo), the traditional La Llorona (Weeping Woman), plus 11 others. Buy the recording — you won't be disappointed, we promise! (WAT1005) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Legend of the Sun Virgin

Set your ears a-tingling with this album, which was released after the phenomenal success of Voice of the Xtabay. Boiling over with lavish excitement, Yma recounts the stories of the virgins who guarded the Incan temple of the Sun god. At least, I think that's what the swooping, diving and soaring tracks (e.g. Karibe Taki, Witallai, Zana and Cochi Canastay) are about. Yma has the power to "talk with the birds, the beasts, the winds, the sounds of life and nature" with plenty of fire left over to blow your mind. Big strings and drums and Yma's fascinating vocal pyrotechnics. I can ask for no more out of my hi-fi! (TRF91250) CD: 15.98

Mambo!

0561

This time we're on the dance floor: the horns blow and the rhythms move your hips, working little-used muscles. The floor is parquet, perfume and smoke fill your nostrils, the only light comes from torches whose flames cast heat and dark shadows which crawl across your partner's face. On this reissue from her (and mambo music's) heyday during the 1950's, Yma dazzles and sears, on songs written by South American composer Moises Vivanco and arranged by Billy May. More fun and exciting than should be legal... Once you listen, Yma fever will grab hold and never let go; you have been warned! (TRF0863) CD: 15.98

Voice of the Xtabay

The rediscovery of Yma Sumac is a wonderful thing, but the English language is an inadequate tool to describe either her music or the eternally exciting experience of listening to her. Her identity is shrouded in mystery: either she was born in the village of Incahuasi, Peru, a direct descendant of the last of the Inca Kings, or she was and is not. The songs she sings are either traditional Incan hymns and ceremonial songs or they are not. I personally think it's best not to know. The only incontrovertible fact is that she amazed! Her voice swoops through 4 or 5 octaves; she sings operatically one moment and then moves guttural or piercing otherworldly noises the next. This album combines two different classic recordings of the 50's: Voice of the Xtabay, conducted with dramatic orchestral overkill and supposedly one of the few albums to never go out of print, and Inca Tequil, conducted with not much less drama by her then-husband Moises Vivanco. It has not, does not, and conceivably will not get any better than Yma — she breathes life and color and excitement into the most human of days! (TRF91217) CD: 15.98

Crossing to Scotland

If you swoon over the exquisite tones of a perfectly-played cello, and/or if you have appreciated Abby's long-time accompaniment for two of Scotland's premiere musicians — singer Jean Redpath and fiddler Alasdair Fraser — this is for you! Her 1997 debut solo release of Celtic chamber music ranges from the sprightly to the uplifting to the sublime, presenting the cello at the rhythmic heart of traditional Scottish tunes. Traditionally the favored instrument in Scotland for accompanying dance fiddlers, the cello is hereby brought back into the fold under her skilled guidance. From the evocative Catskill Mountain Air to the jaunty Independence Trail (composed by producer Alasdair Fraser), this album features a stellar ensemble of guest musicians. Very highly recommended! (CUL110) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Circle of the Sun

0696

This 1998 release from the renowned Irish harpist and vocalist is a Celtic celebration of the seasons, with a world music accent. Includes Harvest Moon, A Winter Story, and A Midwinter Concerto — Music of Turlough O'Carolan. (RCA63108) CD: 16.98

The Mysts of Time

This delicate and "mystic" 1996 album, subtitled Chants and Melodies of the Ageless Celtic Lands, intertwines the foggy haunts with a church above. Aine (pronounced On-ya) interprets plaintive songs (Christe Redemptor), traditional Celtic religious (both the Christian I N Gaoi De and the pagan Keening Song) and secular music (Anach Cuan) — as well as originals honoring the goddess Brigid. Accompanied by guitar, cello, tabla, fiddle, oboe, bodhran, mandolin, Irish pipes and a wonderfully rich chorus, her harp and vocal music is lush yet airy, a very lovely feast. (NS0083) CD: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Between the Worlds

This harpist/vocalist hails from the town of Berrisokane in County Tipperary, Ireland, the family records of her large musical family, the Minogue Clan, date back to the 11th century... and comments such as "musical tears from heaven" often describe her. On her 1997 release, she explores — with her "harp soundscapes" — the emotional journey of leaving her homeland to begin a new life in America, and the difficulty of living between the old world and the new. Song titles include Fyvie Castle, Rosemary Fair, Joyce Carol. (RCA68846) CD: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Altan

The Best of Altan

9002

This 1997 release collects 9 songs and 7 tunes from this much-hailed Dublin-based quartet's last 5 albums. Drawing on the wide variety of traditional Irish dance music, they play jigs, reels, hornpipes, German, strathspeys, mazurkas and highlands. Special bonus: the CD comes with a free limited-edition extra CD of Altan recorded live in Germany in January 1989. (GL1177) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Anam

Riptide

NEW!

We're told "Anam" means "soul" in Gaelic, and this energetic quartet (2 women, 2 men) certainly puts theirs into the music! On this 1998 debut release, you'll find a peppy blend of Celtic, folk, and acoustic pop, with light and lively vocals (in both English and Gaelic) from singer Anne Leonard, often harmonizing or sharing lead vocal tasks with her bandmates. Instruments are primarily traditional (bodhran, bouzouki, guitar), but Anam definitely creates their own modern flair with many intriguing original tracks here showcasing their skills. They've been compared to early Altan, but no comparisons are truly needed: these Celts stand brightly on their own! (GL3121) CD: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Lister

A Flame in Avalon

We have been hearing about this British singer/songwriter for many years now (she wrote the beautiful song Demeter's Daughter covered by Grace Griffith), so we are pleased to be able to offer you this 1995 recording. Her songs stem from myths and legends and have their roots in traditional Celtic story telling. With "massed choir" harmonies by Mary McLaughlin (and on some songs by herself), the simple yet moving songs are filled out by her acoustic guitar, harp, whistle, pipes, crone, Scottish small pipes, bouzouki and mando cello. Highlights are: The Goddess and the Sea, a retelling of the legend of Icarus, the gateway to the land of Faerie Hawthorn, and the faithful search in the title track. (HF003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Anuna

Anuna is a unique Irish choir of young women and men (average age of 25) who dress in black and perform a broad span of Celtic, chant-like music, much of it steeped in medieval tradition. Their ethereal, otherworldly, almost pagan sounds have been described as a "message for the soul" and their live performances, often held in churches, regularly draw a devout following. They have worked with the likes of Sinead O'Connor, Sting, and Marie Brennan of Clannad. Their 1993 debut release includes Invocations, Sancius, Chari, and St. Mary. Faigh An Gheas, and many more with equally evocative titles and an even more evocative sound — very recommended (CH82733) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Omnis

This 1997 release marks a return to the original acoustic sound of the debut recording, but expanded and broadened from the gentle simplicity of Marie Matrem Viperem, to the exhilaration of Salve Rex Glorise. The texts and music span a millennium, and the pure, fresh and unique sonic ambience produced by this Irish choir (which has garnered worldwide renown because of their involvement with Riverdance) makes these ancient melodies and words live again. (CH83098) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

The Black Family

The first release by Mary plus her 4 siblings: her sister Frances, and her brothers Martin, Shay, and Michael (and we learn that they come from a long line of musicians and vocalists, with wide repertoires — no great surprise, really). They alternate lead on the vocals, then join together on some of the most exquisite harmonies to be heard in all of folkdom. Songs are a delightful mixture of original, traditional, and familiar songs of love, life and history, some favorites include Tomorrow is a Long Time, The Bramble and the Rose, plus traditionalists like The Ploughboy Lads, Colcannon, Will Ye Gang, Lover, Donkey Riding, and more. An absolute must-have for Mary's fans! (BLX10019) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Bonnie Ridesout

Celtic Circles

Some of you know this fiddle champion from her collaborations with Maggie Sansone as a member of Ensemble Gaelic. On this 1994 album inspired by the ancient Celtic circles of her Scottish heritage, she paints a musical picture joining the heavens and earth's cycles to the cycles of everyday life. The traditional and 2 Celtic-inspired originals — performed on fiddle, Great Highland bagpipe, Scottish smallpipes, Uilleann pipes, guitar, Celtic harp, viola da gamba, hammered dulcimer, bass and drums — are grouped according to the cycle of the day: tunes for dawn, noonday, eventide, and night flow beautifully and naturally. (MM208) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Beautiful Wasteland

Recorded in the mountains of Andalusia in southern Spain (a land that bridges the UK and Africa), under the glow of Camel Hale-Bopp, this 1998 release is truly a World Music album. Karen Matheson's thrillingly pure voice sings Celtic and English tunes accompanied by the African female duo Hajas del Sol (formerly called Sibbe), creating a wondrous convergence of African and Celtic rhythms, traditional and modern melodies, ancient mouth music and avant ambient textures. This joyful clash of cultures makes for this fan's favorite album since their Delirium. (RYK441) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Delirium

The triumph follow-up to Sidewalk is finally available in the US! Originally released in the UK in 1991, it marked a watershed in the band's career, boasting a breathtaking range of material, it includes their hit track, Coonch, a Run, the first Gaelic-language single to crack the UK's Top 40. Instrumentation here includes contemporary sounds of wind synthesizer, percussion and drums, blended with the more traditional bouzouki, whistles, fiddle, guitar, accordion... and of course, Karen Matheson's lovely vocal performances. (GL3108) CS: 15.98 CD: 15.98

Sidewalk

0335

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited "walking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums; in the meantime, enjoy her on this 1989 release! (GL1094) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Carreg Lafar

Ysbryd y Werin/Spirit of the People

0662

Dirty Linen Folk & World Music Magazine said, "Carreg Lafar might just have done for Welsh music what early Steeleye Span did for English folk. The sound may be acoustic, but there's enough electricity crackling through this to light the Rhonda Valley!" On this 1995 album, this Welsh quartet (2 women, 3 guys) presents mostly traditional material with much spirit, indeed. Love the vocals by Llew and Antwn, notes in Welsh and English. Recommended! (BLX10037) CD: 15.98

Cathy Palmer

Fiddler Play the Light

0579

Here's a new category for you: "Celticlection." This 1995 debut solo recording from Connemara's fiddler blends the lyricism of Celtic melodies with the elegance of a chamber ensemble and the diversity from "world music" instruments (chimes, Tibetan Singing Bowl, cello, bodhran, didgeridoo, and tamboura). Cathy is joined by Connemara's harpist Mary Fitzgerald, Elise Kress (founding member and vocalist of The New St. George, playing flute and penny whistle), and Jody Marshall (on ironwood, playing hammered dulcimer and keyboard). They enjoyed recording the album so much, that they have formed the folk music group Moonfire. Includes the indie-esque original Ceolbhe (Song of the Heart), the "marriage" of a Shetland air and Pachelbel's Canon in D transforming into Kanon in D, Stock Light, and a variety of pleasing hybrids from the Celtic tradition. (SS3128) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Ceoltoiri

Women of Ireland

0567

Through the mystical resonance of strings and winds, this trio of talented women takes you on a journey to the barely visible past. With Celtic harp, hammered dulcimer, Uilleann pipes, Irish flute, pennywhistle, button accordion, medieval percussion and Irish-Gaelic vocals, this 1998 release explores (mostly) traditional and (a few) contemporary Celtic tales and tunes about women that spin a magical soundtrack from Celtic memory. Includes the title track, Mná na hÉireann (Women of Ireland). (MM218) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ceredwen

O'r Mabinogi: Legends of the Celts

0802

Long ago, when Britain was known as the "Island of the Mighty" (Ynys Prydain), the land was ruled by many different tribes, known as the Celts, united by a common religious leadership held by the Druids. Storytellers recounted the heroic deeds of their kings and queens, weaving into the tales the myths of their goddesses and gods. These stories, "Mabinogi," were passed on from generation to generation, until they were written down in medieval times and translated from the original Welsh in the last century. On this lush 1997 release, the duo Ceredwen (Renee Gray and Andrew Fryer) masterfully crafts the Mabinogi into an exquisite, ancient-yet-contemporary musical journey, sung by Renee in Welsh (her first language), shrouded in mystery yet at the same time hauntingly familiar. Their name is derived from the Celtic goddess of inspiration, also known as the "Keeper of the Cauldron." Recommended for fans of Clannad and Enya — unlike many recent imitations, this has its roots in the real thing! (RLM9333) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cherish The Ladies

New Day Dawning

0549

With new member Aoife Clancy on lead vocals, Cherish The Ladies' 1995 release is their strongest collection yet of their trademark mix of instrumentals and vocals, traditional and new songs, fast jigs and reels and slow, gentle ballads, sung both in English and Gaelic. Includes Aoife's beautiful treatments of Robert Burn's Green Grow the Rushes Oh and of Scott Dougie McLean's Broken Wings, the fiddler's Siobhan Egan's original Rayleen's Reel, and band-leader Joanie Madden's lonesome solo flute performance on Nad of the Hill. (GL1175) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Cherish The Ladies

One & All: The Best of...

0551

Led by flute and whistle-master Joanie Madden, this all-female ensemble has grown from a 1-time concert concept to an Irish traditional music sensation for over a decade. Their spectacular blend of virtuosic instrumental talents, beautiful female vocals, and captivating arrangements are captured at their best on this 1998 hour-long collection. Treat yourself to the talents of singers Cathie Ryan and Aoife Clancy, fiddlers Winifred Horan and Siobhan Egan, a slew of box players, and the inimitable Joanie Madden. (GL1187) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Clannad (with Enya)

Fuaim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire Ní Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Claran and Pól, and their 2 uncles, Padraig and Noel O Dugain. Enya, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. Pronounced "foam" and meaning "sound," this 1991 release (the only complete Clannad album with Enya) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional, you'll hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 5-part genetic harmonies, makes this a must for all Enya and Clannad fans. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (ATL82481) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Clannad

Landmarks

This 1996 release combines the lush, engaging sounds and traditional Celtic stylings which, when combined with a contemporary sensibility, is the ensemble's trademark. Includes Let Me See and An Ghair, with space but melodic piano touches and melancholy guitar lines; A Mhúinn, O, with quick fluid rhythms and a bodhran-driven call to dance; and Bridge of Tears, highlighted by an inspired and seamlessly flowing vocal performance by Maire Brennan. (ATL83083) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Clannad

Rogha: The Best Of Clannad

9D18

"Rogha" means "the best" in Gaelic, and this 1997 release showcases the best of Clannad's recordings from 1982-1989. Their innovative, progressive folk style is an atmospheric blend of ancient Celtic material with jazz-influenced contemporary music. Includes Theme From Harry's Game, their duet with U2's Song, in A Lifetime, and Second Nature and Something To Believe In, featuring Bruce Hornsby on piano, accordion and vocals. (RCA66978) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connemara

Beyond the Horizon

0244

This DC-area trio performs beyond all expectation, beyond what can be described as beautifully, beyond your wildest dreams! Simply, one of the finest Celtic recordings we've received. Vocalist Grace Griffith breathes warmth and life into the carefully chosen and expertly arranged songs — the emotional resonance she creates is the closest to the incomparable Sandy Denny's that this reviewer has heard! Ace fiddler Cathy Palmer and harp virtuosa Tracie Brown round out the strong trio, each delivering award-winning performances. Soulful narrative tales intersperse with sprightly jigs, airs and strathspeys, all of which exude something special. A few interpretations of contemporary Celtic composers Loreena McKennitt (Hi Soul's Night) and Clannad are included. Highly recommended! (BLX10032) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Siren Song

On this 1995 release from one of our favorite DC-area Celtic-oriented ensembles, all the selections are ocean-related: songs about mermaids, songs about legends of the seas, songs about ships, songs about sailing. Harper Sue Richards contributes her virtuosity to a couple of tracks. Includes Abbie's Music Box, Witch of the Waves, Dublin Lady, The Mermaid's Tale, and Ripples in the Rockpool, one of the best (and bubbliest, speaking of water) tunes from their debut cassette: The Tempest. (BLX10031) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover

If Ever I Return

In the interests of full disclosure, Connie is my favorite artist in that overwhelmed-by-quality Celtic vocals genre. So, I am happy to report that this 1997 release is very wonderful. She thoroughly researches each song and the results make for timeless music that is firmly grounded in its historical and cultural context. Continuing to draw on many cultures for her music, Connie sings the simple, crystalline 19th-century Scottish ballad Lady Keith's Lament, the full Enya-ish Gaelic Fear an Bhaile (The Boatman), along with the happy peppy whistle in Peggy and The Soldier, the self-harmonized French 18th c. Le Fontaine, the traditional Appalachian Shady Grove, and her own environment airtight Who Will Comfort Me. She is joined by instrumentalists from Boys of the Lough, Capercaille, Whiffons and Battleford Bend. All this and she releases her albums on her own record label: Go, Connie! Connie Dover
Somebody

0298

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scatlighen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scots/Irish bands Silly Wizard, Capercaille and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Sherrinodagh River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Sherrinodagh. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Connie Dover
The Wishing Well

0299

With Connie's second album, she's achieved the goal all artists seek — she's topped herself! A bit more upbeat than her debut, this 1993 release once again offers a magical mix of songs from Scotland, Ireland, and America; her voice is rich and clear, her phrasing delicate, and the pure acoustic backing is a collage of instrumental lushness performed by Scotland's and Ireland's finest traditional musicians. Cusan Tan
Kiss of Fire

0247

Gazette: now on sale on this hard-to-find title! Cusan Tan is an incredible Welsh ensemble (2 women, 5 men) whose name translates "Kiss of Fire," and their album is different — magical — captivating — entrancing! Some intricate vocal harmonies by their fiddle and primary songwriter, Ann Morgan Jones, and also Sue Jones-Davies (whose other claim to fame is that she played Judith, Jesus' girlfriend, in Monty Python's Life of Brian); these two women, both from Aberystwyth in Wales, are the group's founders. With instruments that include guitar, cello, and Welsh triple harp, they create a sound which is a heart-breaking combination of Celtic traditional, neo-traditional and classical, yet fresh and unique. Even the spellings of the Welsh words evoke a sense of mystery and magic. Very highly recommended! (FAM15002) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Dolores Keane
Solid Ground

Known for her work with such influential groups as Planxty and De Dannan, one of Ireland's warmest voices now offers us a taste of what she can do solo, and it's delectable indeed! The title confirms the quality of her deep vocal timbre: words like deep-rooted and earthy come to mind, especially when she's harmonizing with the likes of Emmi-Lou Harris! The (mostly) contemporary selections range from the courtly Storm in My Heart and the stately Emigrant's Eyes, to the sprightly title cut and a surprisingly successful cover of Steve Winwood's The Finer Things. 1993 (SHN8007) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Dolores Keane
The Best of Dolores Keane

0061

Top of the charts in Ireland, first released in the US in 1997, this album by the spectacular, mesmerizing vocalist contains 13 classic songs, including Never Be the Sun (with additional vocals by Emmi-Lou Harris), Lili Marlene, Galway Bay, My Love Is in America. (BLX10038) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Eilidh Mackenzie
Eidheadh Na Sgeulachd

Dr. The Rainment of the Tale: Songs of the Scottish Gael. It's not often we find a whole album sung in Gaelic, and we're hooked out here! Eilidh has won the Scottish national vocal medal for singing more than once (as has her sister Gillian, who joins in on vocal harmonies here), and it's easy to hear why: her voice is light and airy, and infused with such sweetness and longing, it's simply unbelievable when she self-harmonizes! The 14 songs feature traditional Gaelic material, like a Fuirt-e-beul medley, meaning a light-hearted likely-split bit of nonsense (also known as mouth music), ballads and acapella love poems. Features Alison Kinneard on Scottish harp. Delightful, and Western audiences who enjoyed the Bulgarian Women's Choir will probably like this as well. (TEM048) CS: 8.98 CD: 16.98

Eleanor McEvoy

This 1993 release is back in our catalog, and now at a great price! This Dublin singer-songwriter is perhaps best-known for her bittersweet, heartstring-tugging song Only A Woman's Heart (featured as a duet with Mary Black on the compilation album by the same name), and she solos on that song here. Also includes Breathing Hope — "I heard music lighting up my darkness, felt the phrase melting away my sadness, a melody as potent as wine" — which could be part of Ladyslipper's mission statement. (GEF24608) CD: 8.98

Emer Kenny

The uniqueness of this Dublin-based artist's evocative instrumental voice — its purity, clarity and depth — blended with modern grooves, makes her 1997 debut release one of the most unusual Celtic derivatives we've heard. Among her original songs, Sobhan is a powerful tribute to the modern meeting the ancient. Una suggests musical links with North Africa. Amhran na Leabhar is a song of the dispossessed. Joale pays tribute to both urban hip hop grooves and boppy Irish reels. Accompanied by her own delicate harp plus Uilleann pipes, beautiful violins, flute and percussion, Emer's performances create images of an Irish landscape infused with feelings of sadness, loneliness, redemption and love. Recommended! (TRL8228) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Enya

Paint the Sky w/Stars: Best of Enya 0658
This 1997 release collects many of the artist's best-loved songs (including Orinoco Flow, Caribbean Blue, Storms in Africa, Shepherd Moons, Watermark, The Memory of Trees, Book of Days, The Celts) from 4 previous albums, plus 2 newly recorded (and ravishingly evocative) songs: Only If... and Paint the Sky with Stars. (REP46835) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Enya

Shepherd Moons

More of that gorgeous, hypnotic, sensuous, "thickly" plucked string sound (as if she were playing a rainbow harp or raw silk), her sultry multi-layered vocals and shimmering keyboards, all swirling around stately dance rhythms and hymn-like anthems to freedom and love and art. Highlights include the Gaelic Ebulla and the prayerful Angels. Highly recommended, and it made our Top 20 before it was even listed in our catalog! (REP26775) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya

The Celts

This is Enya's debut album (previously issued under the title Enya), and it's truly glorious: multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. The artist is definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice, complemented by Uilleann pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! 1986 (REP45881) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Enya

The Memory of Trees

0414

This long-awaited follow-up to Shepherd Moons has been four years in the making, and the result is a haunting, mysterious, supernaturally beautiful 1995 album that finds her artistry in full flower. As we have come to expect, Enya herself plays virtually all the instruments and self-harmonizes all the parts; and once again, she recorded with her long-time producer Nicky Ryan. Songs include Anywhere Is, Per Seolum, Athair, at Naímh, Tea-House Moon, La Sonadora. (REP46106) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Enya

Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! 1988 (REP26774) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Frances Black
The Sky Road

This 1995 album soared to reached #2 on the Irish charts, and in 1997 is finally released in the States. As on her debut, she interprets a diversity of songs with care and respect. The title track retraces the path of immigration, underscoring the melancholy of loss; we experience the more jazzy side of her performance on Love's Magic Bite, and her portrayal of the love song Once You Said You Loved Me is a triumph in the Black family tradition. (CH53097) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this album... "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm and there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered acappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2018) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joanie Madden

Song of the Irish Whistle

0503

While we've always been fond of the instrumental music by this reigning queen of the Irish tin whistle, we were unprepared for the achingly intense beauty of this 1996 release. Whether she's drawing out wistful, sweet ballads or tripping through bright-eyed dances, her dazzling musicality will alternately set hearts a-fire, and then melt them! The lush arrangements, featuring world-class musicians like fiddler Eileen Ivers, percussionist Glen Velez, and fretless bassist Dave Anderson, counterbalance her primary instrument which might otherwise sound sparse and minimalist in other musical settings. Includes Women of Ireland and The Mountain of Women (Snáth na Mban), notes by Fiona Ritchie of the PBS radio show, The Thistle and Shamrock, highly recommended! (HS11094) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolyn's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!) Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Betty MacNeill, Blind Mary, Hammer dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan Consort — an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitar, a flute, a violinist, and harp. Sylvia Woods — all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended! (DM102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Celtic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Defense of Guinevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage; and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. 1994 (SG123) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Changes Like the Moon

This very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording contains selections based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: The Robe of Feathers and The Silkie. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this 1995 release is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful debut. (SG147) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Price

Deep Hearts' Core

0076

This 1995 release, Kate's second, is more produced than her debut. She once again merges Celtic music with other world music rhythms — this time from Bulgaria and Sweden, making for a most interesting musical travelogue! Multi-layered vocals are beautifully blended with ethnic instruments in a western motif, played by virtuosos such as Párl McCandless and Teja Bell. Contains 7 vocals and 5 instrumentals; songs include Rest Sweet Nymph, Places of Spirit, and Seamstress of Dreams. (ACC500) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Katie McMahon

After the Morning

NEW!

Riverdance fans will recognize this voice from the lead singer of that production, and the other 8 of us who have missed the show are in for a treat. With her ethereal voice, she performs lively and beautiful tunes, primarily traditional (but including a performance of Heartland, her favorite song from the show). With clean arrangements and simple accompaniment, this 1998 album is a pleasure to listen to. (PAR031) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron
Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosity supreme. "The two stringed instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complementary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far, many Eastern sounds, interesting scales. Includes Women of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past, or if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson, Joemy Wilson, et al
Celtic Forest

Joemy Wilson, Kim Robertson, and Anisa Angarola all present magical selections on their respective instruments — hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and classical guitar — on this 1997 collection of traditional Celtic melodies, culled from several Dargason releases. They all share technical virtuosity as well as a love for this ancient music, and this anthology will transport you on a wonderful, romantic journey through the forests of the British Isles. Includes The Gentle Maiden, Fanny Power, Dance of the Lambs. (ET7700) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Lynne
Daughters of the Celtic Moon

Lisa Lynne, previously known as Lisa Franco, has a long performance history with the duo Celestial Winds. This gorgeous 1999 album, her first for Windham Hill and produced by David Arkenstone, features Lisa on harp, mandolin and Appalachian lap dulcimer, accompanied by an ensemble of world class players on viola da gamba, 16-string archlute, violin and more. Throughout her 10 originals, plus a beautiful rendition of Sting's Fields of Gold and Clannad's moving ballad A Gentle Place, the organic sound of plucked strings captures the mystique of Celtic Renaissance, and ancient music styles in a contemporary context. Recommended! (WH11293) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
Elemental

This extremely talented musician/vocalist must have been incarnated just to bring the music of the British Isles to life, such is the power of the images she evokes — perfectly airy, with shades of mist and surf. This 1995 album captures her magic in 9 selections, ranging from poems by William Blake and W.B. Yeats set to music, to traditional songs like Banks of Claudy, Campfire, She Moved Through the Fair. Harp, strings and keyboards accompany her beautiful voice. (QR101) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
Parallel Dreams

This 1989 Canadian recording weaves the recurrent thread of deep yearnings toward love, liberty and connection from the wistful original, Moon Cradle, to a haunting rendition of Annabette Gordon, her unearthly voice transports the listener to another realm. Beautiful contemporary arrangements of an ancient sound bring such pieces as the instrumental Huron Beltane Fire Dance (honoring the parallel reverence for dreams shared by North America's First Peoples and the ancient Celts) into an almost spiritual realm. Also features the outstanding Devil's Dublin, which likewise weaves two separate experiences into a seamless and emotional montage that of a homesick Irish girl in the 1800's with another child's explanation of the first Christmas eve. Gorgeous and a must for any lover of Celtic music. Highly recommended! (QR103) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
The Mask and Mirror

On this eagerly-awaited 1994 release, Loreena combines her Celtic influences with world music to create a magical work of deep beauty and profound mystery. She says, "I looked back and forth through the window of 15th century Spain, through the hues of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and was drawn into a fascinating world, history, religion, cross-cultural fertilization." Blending harp and fiddles with electric guitars and exotic percussion, mixing traditional songs with musical settings of Shakespeare and Yeats, this is a dazzling kaleidoscope of feelings united by the intensity of her voice. Contains The Mystic's Dream, The Dark Night of the Soul, Marjess Night Market, The Bonny Swans, Full Circle. Instruments include cello (played by virtuoso Orla Harey), bouzouki, bodhran, tamboura, dumbek, oud, balalaika, Uilleann pipes and more. Highly recommended as usual! (WB45420) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
The Visit

This Canadian harpist, keyboardist, composer and singer brings such a classical affinity to Celtic music, you'd swear she was the reincarnation of Childe, or someone equally influential on the genre. Some of it is infused with pre-Christian pagan imagery and sensibility, such as her opening piece All Souls Night and the instrumental Tango To Evora, written for the film The Burning Times. This is not to say she doesn't add other influences on this 1991 album. Hear the Italian tint coloring Courtyard Lullaby, or the Tom Waits-inspired version of Greeneyes. And her indescribably musical rendition of Tennyson's poem The Lady of Shalott. Her voice is simply angelic, and she is as proficient with it as she is with her other instruments: great accompaniment too. If you only buy one new age vocal Celtic recording this year, you'd probably better make it this one! Highly recommended! (WB26800) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Loreena McKennitt
The Book of Secrets

At long last, Loreena presents an album with similar textures to The Mask and Mirror, by far her best work previous to this one. Inspired by experiences as diverse as a journey on the Trans-Siberian Express and a visit to an ancient Italian monastery, this 1997 release is a musical gateway to eras long past. She writes, "The songs on this recording have been assembled like a mosaic, with disparate pieces collected from many places and fitted together one by one. I was inspired, by both my own travels to Greece and Turkey, and the resonance of the journeys of others encountered in my research." Features one of our favorite cellists, Caroline Lavelle, and includes The Mimmers' Dance, Marco Polo, and Dante's Prayer. Rich, complex, full of beauty and mystery, and all — highly recommended! (WB45719) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Macha Tri
The Bear Dance

This female Celtic trio, named after a trinity of ancient Irish goddesses, hails from St. Paul, Minnesota. Multi-instrumentalist Laura Mackenzie plays a 13th century wooden concert lute, tin whistle, English concertina, Scottish emmel pipes, medieval gaitheaps, border half-long bagpipes, and sometimes manages to have breath left over to sing. Patricia Pekiz does piano, oboe, shakers, tinbouline and bell duties and Mag McDermott rounds it out on fiddle and harmony vocals. On this 1995 recording they mix the musical traditions from all over Ireland and the British Isles, playing both traditional and Laura's originals, and come up with a whole new bagpipe! (SNT1001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior & Rick Kemp
Happy Families

Here's a bargain-priced Canadian import, released in 1991, this last-minute catalog addition contains 13 tracks, most of which are originals. Titles include Mother and Child, Good Bye Newscasts, and Life Song. If you're a Maddy Prior fan (like some of us here), how can you pass it up at this great price?? (PRG007) CD: 9.98

Maddy Prior
Memento: The Best of Maddy Prior

On this 1995 retrospective from one of Britain's foremost folk divas, the 18 tracks are drawn mostly from 5 albums representing her solo career, although Dorset, Adelphi and Grey Funnell Line are from her collaboration with June Tabor on Silly Sisters. Fans will be pleased to know that the latter track served as the theme song to Spens, a 1994 film. Also includes some rare and previously unreleased material: Maid Delovana and a new version of Drop in the Ocean. Maddy comments that she chose not to include material from Steeleye Span and Carnival Band, preferring to represent a seam of work less familiar and largely unavailable. Our fave: Accapella Steve from Changing Winds — worth the price of the album! (PRK28) CD: 14.98

Maire Brennan
Maire

Look out Enya, here comes your sister Maire, lead singer of the Clannad ensemble, with an exquisite solo album of her own... which we've been hoping for ever since we first heard Clannad. Mostly original songs in English and Gaelic, rooted in tradition but embracing progressive styles and speaking of change, employ Celtic and contemporary instrumentation as well as wonderful, multi-layered, familial harmonies by Dee Brennan, Olive Brennan and Brian Brennan. Includes Land of Youth, Voices of the Land, Against the Wind, and Oia, which she wrote as a lullaby for her daughter, who's pictured on the cover with her. (ATL52421) CD: 14.98

Maire Brennan
Perfect Time

Also known as the amazing lead singer of Clannad, and Enya's sister, Maire (pronounced Moy-ah) graces us with another solo release in 1996. It combines her ethereal, mesmerizing vocals with a lush, captivating tapestry of sound, often featuring her Celtic harp. Includes songs in both English and Gaelic: Grá De, Ná Páid, Naí Láimh, Donn Well, The Big Rock, and The Big Rock Instrumental. (EPC9143) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black

Mary Black
By the Time It Gets Dark

This fan's favorite of Mary's back catalog is finally being re-released in 1994! Hear this indescribably wonderful vocalist sing Katie — a song of lost love, Sandy Denny's little song, Ewan McColl's song of co-existence, Schooldays Over. The accompaniment is exquisite, her phrasing impeccable, harmonies made in heaven, arrangements tasteful, and her vocals have that quality which can pierce one's heart. Highly recommended! Mary Black
Looking Back

This 1996 release offers 10 songs from 4 of the artist's past recordings, plus 2 new tracks. Highlights include a new duet version with Emmylou Harris of Only A Woman's Heart (title cut from a compilation album which has become the best selling album in Irish history), her first single, Soul Sister, plus Elig Island, No Frontiers, Looking Forward, The Loving Time. Varieties and more! (CUR77718) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Black
Shine

The culmination of two years of intense musical growth, this 1997 release showcases a powerful and intense side of Mary Black. Her voice has a new edge and emotion on the 12 songs, including the poppy One and Only, the duet I Will Be There with Paul Brady, and the Richard Thompson-penned Misunderstand. (CUR78888) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Coughlan
After the Fall

The words that come to mind when hearing this amazing Irish song interpreter (known in her own country for her outspoken views, progressive lyrics and her political stance) are very unlike those associated with most in her genre: stark, sultry, emotionally intense, deep, bluesy-jazzy, anguished. Perhaps you've heard her on A Woman's Heart 2. Years ago Ladykiller offered her debut album Tired and Emotional, and we're thrilled she's returning from a long absence with an unusual 1997 collection of songs, whose title is derived from the opening track, Woman Undone. Includes Dorothy Parker's poem set to music, Dilemma, Marc Almond's Saint Judy about Judy Garland, Poison Words, a song about physical abuse, the classic blues Nobody, and others, honestly and frankly infused with her difficult but transforming life experiences. (BCT1823) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Coughlan
Live in Galway

Recorded in 1995 but not released in the US until 1998, this intimate concert album presents a most interesting repertoire. The "bus track" Magdalen Laundry, tells the story of a surprising discovery in Ireland some 20 years ago. Mary thousands of unmarried, pregnant women had been hidden away by the Church, their babies given away for adoption. They lived out their lives performing domestic chores for the clergy, then were buried in unmarked graves; this song is dedicated to these "forgotten" women. (BCT1816) CD: 14.98

Mary Jane Lamond
Suas e!

You may already know this young Cape Breton singer for her delightful vocal contributions to Ashley MacIsaac's Hi, How Are You Today? On this 1997 album, her first solo work, she weaves a marvelous fusion of traditional Gaelic vocal stylings with modern rhythms, planting herself firmly in the emerging "New Celtic" genre with artists such as Natalie MacMaster, Cape Breton, Eileen Ivers, and MacIsaac. Her rich, distinctive voice is powerful and moving, equally at home in traditional laments or straightforward folk-pop interpretations. Refreshing, delightful, definitely recommended! (TLM63246) CD: 15.98

Mary McLaughlin
The Daughter of Lir

We were so taken with the mystical opening track on the anthology Celtic Voices: Women of Song, we told you that it alone was worth the price of the album. Well, it also opens this entire 1994 album by this amazing artist (we've been hoping one would materialize), which combines Irish, ambient, and world beat sounds with her incredible vocal range... it contains mostly original songs which are thematically linked by images of Ireland, Women and the Sea. The title track was written after watching a television programme on prominent Irish women, and I was struck by the particular quality of spirit they had. The song Motherland uses the allegory of "the poor old woman" who is Ireland, a woman with strength and love who had been battered as much as she had reached the point of saying "No more." Eyes of Africa contains gorgeous harmonies... but SeaWoman combined with the Hebridean chant Yondah is still the winner here. We have space limitations, so I must stop now... Very recommended! (ROW1) CD: 15.98

Mary McLaughlin & William Coulter
Celtic Requiem

In this 1998 release, Mary McLaughlin has crafted a haunting, profoundly moving tribute to the depth of human sorrow, and the hope that can come from its expression. Working with guitarist William Coulter, she has drawn from sources spanning some 1100 years, from Pagan times to Catholicism. The material explores Irish laments, the caoineadh, a keen, the marbha, an elegy for a loved one, and the cunna, an elegy without words. The sparse yet exquisite backdrop of both traditional and modern instrumentation lends a quiet strength to these ancient and modern Celtic tales of life, death, and the journey of the human spirit. Beautiful and powerful! (WH11314) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell Wandering Home

At last, we have the much-anticipated 1997 release by Ireland's transplant to the South. The album was made in and inspired by the country of the singer's birth; it unites the influence of her Nashville home with her Dublin roots. Beautifully rich vocals pierce the air as she blends traditional Irish songs with contemporary compositions, interpreting material as diverse as Richard Thompson's Down Where the Drunkards Roll alongside the poetry of W.B. Yeats and Nobel Laureate Seamus Heaney. Her fabulous sound will surely thrill anxious fans as well as gather many new listeners. Wholeheartedly recommended! (HAN1410) CD: 15.98

Natalie MacMaster No Boundaries

This 1996 release from the remarkable Cape Breton fiddler focuses on the interpretation and evolution of traditional Scottish fiddle tunes as they are passed through generations of fiddlers around the world. Natalie and her backing musicians skilfully interweave timeless reels, jigs, and airs with contemporary instrumentation: drums, keyboard, electric guitar, even synthesizer. The result is strikingly modern, touching on folkrock, jazzfunk, and even country, yet still retaining the essential character of the original Highland fiddle tunes... a unique and engaging look at how past inspiration and present innovation can interact to create the future of traditional music. (ROU7023) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Noirín Ní Riain Celtic Soul

On this 1996 album of songs/meditations, recorded with the Paul Winter Consort, Noirín's voice works like the evocative wall and mellifluous trills of Paul Winter's soprano sax. She moves ancient Celtic tunes with Indian Hindi songs, and finds a surprising kinship between them. The album has a cavernous sound, on which her ethereal voice and the sparse instrumentation — cello, uilleann pipes, guitar, banjo, supelid (Indian harmonium), sax, synthesizers, tin whistle — create a wonderful and wondrous space. Includes Song of the Pooka (pookas are Celtic faeries), the classic Down by the Sally Gardens, Ode to Mrs. B., a famous Indian female saint, and a Celtic counterpart, Ode to Bolder. Magical, unique, and recommended! (LMS1) CD: 15.98

Noirín Ní Riain Soundings

This collection of Spiritual Songs From Many Traditions is a most unusual release. Noirín, an angelic Irish soprano with a voice of startling clarity, is joined by the Irish Chamber Orchestra (under the leadership of Fiorenzo Hunt) to perform a rich repertoire of compositions ranging from Gregorian chant to Irish laments. Many female spiritual leaders are recognized; highlights include Ave Maria, and other heavenly masterpieces by Hildegard of Bingen, the Shakers (Noirín honors their founder, Anne Lee), and a bhajan by Mirabai. India's most famous medieval saint. The artist has often shared the stage with the Paul Winter Consort; he co-produced one track here. Recommended! (SHD271272) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Noirín Ní Riain The Virgin's Lament

The only recording of the oldest surviving Celtic music, Noirín and the monks of Glenstal Abbey give uplifting tribute to medieval religious songs, women's spirituals, Gregorian chants and more. (SND320) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Sinead Lohan No Mermaid

We like this album! Ever since we heard the opening track Selling By from A Woman's Heart 2, we've been wanting more of Sinead Lohan, but import costs have kept her out of reach. Finally this 1996 release allows listeners on this side of the Atlantic to hear more of this mesmerizing singer-songwriter. Capturing a wide range of human experience and emotion, while blending musical styles ranging from Celtic folk to trip-hop, dreamy to danceable, the result is a powerful and hypnotic album which we recommend to fans of Dar Williams, Maura O'Connell, and Mary Black. ## Solas

Sunny Spells and Scattered Showers

Featuring lead singer Karen Casey and fiddler Winifred Horan, this fiery Irish-American 5-piece band has been electrifying audiences everywhere. This 1997 album, their second, presents a fine balance of beautiful, evocative vocals and high-octane instrumentals, with an definite underlying feminist sensibility. Karen's voice carries songs in both Gaelic and English; most contain female characters, some as lovers ("White and I kissed away her tears; My fond arms around her flinging..."), some as great women in history, and others as clever and independent thieves! Recommended! (SHN7610) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Susan McKeown & The Chanting House Bones

In high school in her native Dublin, Susan McKeown — born Susan Ryan, but she took her mother's maiden name — abandoned an opera singer career track to concentrate on her burgeoning interest in Irish traditional music and folklore. She founded her band in Ireland and then emigrated to NYC. Her traditional Celtic music is now mixed with original progressive acoustic rock songs with a decided and intentional feminist sensibility. This gorgeous 1996 debut album includes Gorm, a traditional "wen" — a pre-Christian lament/ritual passed down through generations by women — and Snakes? Mine ne hEireann, a folkrock original dealing with the oppression of women in Ireland. Highly recommended! (SHE791) CD: 15.98

Susan McKeown Bushes & Briars

This 1998 release is like a luminous mosaic of Celtic stories. Traditional tales of love and emigration, sung in English and Gaelic, assume interesting new depth and dimension, with the incorporation of Eastern rhythms (Sami Chatterjee on tabla and tambura), Seamus Egan's almost Native-tinged whistles and bodhran, and a host of other surprising instruments like French horn, mandocello, bassoon, and tuba! Full of power and grace, her voice is captivating, sensual and beautiful. Her last name is pronounced McKee-yone — you don't want to forget it, and you won't once you've heard her! (ALU1008) CD: 15.98

Tir na n'Óg The Black Rose

In Celtic mythology, Tir na n'Óg is "The Land of Eternal Youth." For our purposes, it is a New York-based instrumental quartet featuring Liz Knowles on fiddle and Cofeen Dorahue on 12-string guitar, cittern and mandolin. Their 1996 debut includes heart-rendering airs such as the weeping solo fiddle title track, Roan Dubh (that's the Gaelic translation), driving reels, and rollicking jigs — original tunes as well as music from Cape Breton, Scotland, and the US. Unusual touches, like Colleen's lovely solo mandolin air Man Of Steel, which she wrote for her steel mill worker father, the jaunty old-timey Southern Whiskey Before Breakfast, Gumming Old Man, Growing Old Woman, and the blues of Nocturne for Cittern and a Fiddle Fork in A make this album stand out from the Celtic crowd. Recommended! (TIR1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists A Woman's Heart

Six Irish women — Mary Black, her sister Frances Black, Maura O'Connell, Dolores Keane, Sharon Shannon and Eleanor McEvoy — each contribute two tracks, some from previous albums. The title track, Only A Woman's Heart, has elicited the most enthusiasm from listeners. It's a newly recorded duet between Mary Black and Eleanor McEvoy. Irish import (DAR158) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists A Woman's Heart 2

Riding on the success of Volume 1 comes another great compilation! In addition to featuring 5 of the 6 artists from A Woman's Heart (Mary Black, Frances Black, Dolores Keane, Maura O'Connell, and Sharon Shannon), the album also includes songs by Sinead O'Connor, Sinead Lohan, Mary Coughlan, and Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill. 15 tracks in all. (DAR63) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists The Voice of Celtic Women

The price is fabulous, but the music is even better on this compilation, subtitled There Was A Lady. 13 tracks from female lead singers, with their bands, including: Karen Matheson and Capercaille, Aoife Clancy with Chieftain Ladies, Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill with Altan, Mary Dillon with Deamain, Tríona Ní Dhomhnaill with Touchstone, and more. A great sampler for yourself, and for introducing your friends and family to the artists too. (CL1962) CD: 8.98

Various Artists Celtic Voices: Women of Song

On this 1995 release, 4 gifted women of song express the passion and soul that are at the heart of Celtic music: Connie Dover, Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill, Emma Christian, and Mary McLaughlin, whose opening track, the mystically charged Sealwoman's Yundah, is alone worth the price of the album. She incorporates the traditional Hebridean chant Yundah, which she learned from Frankie Armstrong (one of her mentors) and Joan Mills. (NA3921) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Celtic Tales and Tongues

This recording will appeal to Early Music fans as well as Celtic connoisseurs: it contains "aeon" songs, one of the oldest styles of secular vocal music with roots in the Middle Ages, first popularized by the Celtic bards traveling throughout Ireland, Scotland, Wales and Brittany. This compilation, originally released on the Welsh label Fflach Records, features Julie Murphy (of Fennell), Annie Eber, Mairi Smith, and Lillie O'Loane (the 5 a guy) performing this very compelling and haunting a cappella expression from 4 Celtic cultures, with its basis in bardic praise poetry. (TT209) CD: 15.98

Various Artists Brave Hearts

This highly-recommended 1998 anthology, subtitled New Scots Music, focuses on music which reflects the fiercely independent Scottish spirit — rooted in tradition but often incorporating contemporary and innovative influences from the world over. Includes tracks by both Karen Matheson and her group Capercaille; Ashley MacIsaac; Mary Jane Lamond (the most noteworthy vocalist who has toured and recorded with MacIsaac); the 3-woman 1-man ensemble Tannas which features 2 sister-vocalists, violinist and highland piper Anna Murray; Dougie MacLean; Blair Douglas with his creative Nelson Mandela's Welcome to the City of Glasgow; and more. Clear and clear, this music will inspire joy, happiness, and definitely dancing! (NA45445) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Celtic Legacy

They've done it again! A 1995 companion to Celtic Odyssey, this exceptional compilation represents a global Celtic journey through the British Isles and beyond. One track which makes this an absolute must-have: a traditional walking song with 4-part harmonies and an extraordinarily beautiful arrangement for harp, accordion, and guitar by the Poodles, a 4-woman Scottish band. Other artists featured are Eileen Ivers, Natalie MacMaster, Maire Breatnach, Maighread Ní Dhomhnaill (accompanied by her sister Tríona), Talina MacKenzie (from the original Mouth Music), Lucy MacNeil (of the Barra MacNeils), and Mary Dillon (of Deamain), as well as several male musicians. Clearly much thought and care went into selecting artists, tracks, and sequence, very strongly recommended again! (NA3916) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Holding Up Half the Sky Voices of Celtic Women

This 1997 15-song compilation purports to contain some of the "greatest tracks featuring Celtic female singers," and since it contains so many of our favorites, we agree! Showcasing artists both as individuals and as lead singers for bands, the collection ranges from very traditional to more pop-oriented ballads. Includes Karen Casey's She Is Like the Swallow, Maura O'Connell (with Deamain's Maggie) with Mary Black, Maire Brennan with Glanville, Karen Matheson with Capercaille, Gay Woods with Steeleye Span on the classic The Water is Wide, Talina MacKenzie with a Gaelic walking song, and more. (SHN76311) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Celtic Magic

Before we sing (or play) the praises of this sweet instrumental compilation, we want to point out the very low price right away: no, that's not a misprint. It's just one of the "magical" elements of this title! Subtitled Eleven Irish Instruments, this 1997 collection features Riverdance artists Eileen Ivers and John Whelan on Lorraine's Waltz, plus many more great musicians like Ciarán the Ladies, Joanne Madden, Altan, and John Williams. Fiddles, harps, guitars, accordions, bagpipes and flutes convey the mystery and magic of the Emerald Isle. (EDC9008) CS: 5.98 CD: 8.98

Various Artists Celtic Spirit

The poignant beauty of the Celtic landscapes, with their ancient majesty, draws out spiritual thoughts and meditations. This 1996 collection of evocative religious-themed songs, mostly reworkings of ancient texts and prayers, shimmers with reverential gentleness. Connie Dover has set new music to a 5th century Gregorian Chant on Lib. Cantata. Aoife Ní Fhearraigh sings the ancient medieval hymn praising Mary, Seacht Sgoile na Maighdeine Muir. Anne Minogue offers the 14th century Latin psalm Puer Natus. Harpal Tenosa Schneider-Shearer performs her symbolic Rose Mystica. A perfect companion for prayer, meditation, or anytime you need to reflect on the eternal. (NA3929) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Celtic Romance on Hammered Dulcimer

Small wooden masters dancing above dozens of silvery strings — this creates the magical beauty of the hammered dulcimer — an ancient ancestor of the piano. In the hands of acclaimed artists Miltie Collins, Glenn Morgan and Joemy Wilcox, the hammered dulcimer captivates the ear and the soul on this 1998 offering. Along with flutes, fiddles, Celtic harp, pedal harp, guitar, cittern, cello, bodhran and bones, the dulcimer brings a true Celtic flavor to these Irish, Scottish, and Welsh favorites... at a great low price! (KLR213) CD: 9.98

Various Artists Celtic Romance on the Celtic Harp

Let the magical and haunting sounds of the Celtic harp paint a landscape of misty seascapes, ageless mountains, and ancient ruins, as 3 of America's most devoted performers delve into the beauty of the Celtic lands and their traditions. The creative mixture of Kim Robertsons (jazz stylings), Sylvia Wood's classic elegance, and Dinan LeHaven's distinctive wye-strung harp tones complement and contrast each other in new and exciting ways. ### Her Infinite Variety (2-CD Set)

Sublime Celtic Women in Music & Song and featuring 2 CDs priced as one, this 1996 release is chock-full of great music by fabulous female artists from the Green Linnet label, no Jenny-come-lately to the Celtic scene. Fiona Ritchie (probably alone responsible for most of the Celtic music fans in the US, who grew up mesmerized by her voice, even if some of us only understood half of what she was saying) writes in the liner notes: "This is a music for all seasons and for all time. It has grown with us, travelled with us, spoken for us, cried for us, it invites us to dance and get wild, it fills us with pride and emotion." More great artists than we can name, including Cherish the Ladies, Karen Matheson & Capercaille, Eileen Ivers, Niamh Parsons, Deanta, Alan, Sinead, Joanie Madden, and June Tabor. (GL0107) CD: 15.98

In addition to Anne McEachern's unusual small bellows-blown pipes, you'll hear Mary Bergin's playful tin whistle, John Whelan's soulful button accordion countering Lisa Gidwin's heart-breaking violin, and many more astounding and truly wonderful pieces, of more depth, substance, quality and variety than most Celtic instrumental compilations. ## Alexis Kochan et al

Paris to Kyiv - Variances

Combining the deepest layers of an ancient culture with elements of newly-composed music, this amazing 1996 release truly spans the bridges of time and geography. It captures the essence of the Ukrainian spirit, weaving together pre-Christian ritual songs and harmonies inspired by folk polyphony with fragments of medieval chant, as well as with contemporary influences from polytonality to jazz in a multi-layered fabric of voices and instruments. One of the goals of singer/producer/culture-maker Alexis Kochan is to de-stereotype and broaden Ukrainian cultural traditions, long relegated to a sometimes-cutesy image of colorfully-clad dancers; here she collaborates with Julian Kytasty on bandura and vocals, and other instrumentalists on jazz viola, cello, Northumbrian pipes and percussion, to create one of the most unusual and evocative of Ladyslipper's offerings. ## Bisserov Sisters

Music from the Pirin Mountains

If you like Balkan and Eastern European women's singing, this is the REAL STUFF — it's about authentic as it comes, fresh and strong and vibrant, with no edges softened for western ears. This sister trio does the artphone singing characteristic of the Pirin region of Bulgaria where they were born into a musical family. Lyubinka sings the first part, Mira and Nedra steadily and tunefully "lay" the second part. All 3 have mastered some musical and percussion instruments, and are also accompanied by the instrumental trio Karadzovska. Bulgaria was under Turkish rule 1383-1876, and the Turkish influence on the modes (scales) and instrumentation is quite audible. 26 selections, over 70 minutes, informative notes (an ethnomusicologist's dream), recommended! (PAN133) CD: 15.98

L'Accordeoniste

Passionate and uncompromising, this artist is considered to be the defining voice of 20th-century France. Though small in frame, her giant heart and powerful vocal renderings made her, in the eyes of all who knew her, a genuine force of nature. 18 tracks including Le Chant d'Amour, 66 minutes in all. (ARK75101) CD: 15.98

Mon Legionnaire

The critic Jean Cocteau said that Edith Piaf was like the nightingale, who when it sings, "throws everything into confusion." This 1997 re-release, remastered from original recordings, contains all different songs than L'Accordeoniste and shows why she was one of the most beloved stars in France. 66 minutes. (ARK75108) CD: 15.98

Very Best of Voice of the Sparrow

0429

In this world of ever-changing availability on Piaf titles, here's one for our 1992 catalog that's nice and long (18 songs) and available on CD. Lots of hits, and we hope this 1991 release stays in print longer than 15 minutes. Includes La Vie, L'Amour, La Vie en Rose, Le Vieux Paris, Hymne à L'Amour. (CAP96632) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Irina Mikhailova

Russian Twilight

0619

Of Russian descent, Irina was born and raised in Kazakhstan, a Central Asian republic of the former Soviet Union (it shares a border with China; let us not forget that the USSR was more Asia than Europe — please take out your atlas and locate this now!), home to many Muslims, Greeks, Asians, Russians and Europeans. Her childhood memories recall the sounds of the dombra songs stroked by Kazakh elders... bouzouki and clarinet at Greek weddings... prayers by Muslim women in mosques... Mongolian monks chanting and playing Jew's harp... Gypsy melodies... these threads intertwine with Russian stylings to create the multi-ethnic tapestry of her music on this 1997 release. Her beautiful voice (at various times powerful, plaintive, evocative or ethereal) is accompanied by a literal world-ful of instruments from India, Egypt, Pakistan, China, Romania, Norway and more. Entrancing and interesting, this is music from where continents and cultures merge, cross-pollinated since the ancient days of Marco Polo's silk route. recommended! (WTP5184) CD: 15.98

Kirile Loo

Saatus (Fate)

0617

I used to want to be a diver, and search for buried treasures in old shipwrecks; occasionally I feel like one in my job as catalog editor, when I discover something as unusual and unexpected as this 1994 recording based on ancient magical runic-verse songs from Estonia. The stringed instrument, called a kannel (once made of fish bones and wood, with strings from a maid's hair, said to have magical powers) sounds similar to the Finnish kantele — and the notes speak of the "common Baltic-Finnic proto-language" — so when I checked my atlas, I wasn't surprised to see that Estonia is right across a channel from Finland. Other traditional instruments which accompany the haunting, beautiful voice of this artist — who was raised by her grandmother in northern Estonia and sings in several dialects — are the olepik (straw whistle), roopik (reed pipe), joki (wooden gong). "As timeless as the primeval forests that blanket the Estonian landscape," this 1994 recording is highly recommended to all who desire to stretch their musical exposure — and it is just plain gorgeous to boot. (ALU1004) CD: 15.98

Kitka

Voices on the Eastern Wind

0430

Now a 10-woman ensemble from diverse ethnic and musical backgrounds, this amazing group is dedicated to gathering and preserving the vocal music of Eastern Europe, and with good reason! If you are familiar with this magical singing, you will understand their commitment — and recognize their expertise. If this singing is new to you, we invite you to take the plunge! — they describe it as "stunning dissonances, asymmetric rhythms, exotic ornamentation, lush harmonies, and resonant strength." This 1992 album, their second, is like a spring lake of pure water and glittering ice... invigorating and beautiful. (OPH092) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mammas

The power! The electricity! The voices — can the human voice really be this spectacular? Absolutely one of the most haunting, entrancing and exciting pieces we've encountered in a long time — read on! An exquisite blending of Mediterranean cultures, rhythms and textures, it reflects the backgrounds of the 4 incredible women vocalists who make up the ensemble: Lucilla Galeazzi (Italy), Yiota Vail (Greece), Equidada Beres (Spain/Southern France), and Hayat Ayad (Algeria). Lyrics are in their native languages, but above all, it is the intense beauty of the music which will speak to you and move you — the passion, the diva-esque voices (they relate lead), the ancient to atmospheric acoustic instrumentation (percussion, accordion, charango, bouzouki, violoncello, cello, oud, violin, rebec, clarinet, and much more). Produced by Philippe Eidel of France; this is way, way recommended! (LB547770) CD: 15.98

Mari Boine

Radiant Warmth

Mari is considered the most eloquent and exciting voice of the Sami (more commonly known as "Laplanders," a term considered derogatory by the Sami), a people native to what is now known as northern Norway, Finland, Sweden and Russia. Her powerful sound is a unique celebration of her culture and heritage. This 1996 release is a compilation of songs from her previous albums Eagle Brother and Unfolding; she combines ancient and modern textures, integrating her poetic imagery with a relentless groove, incorporating elements of rock, ambient, folk, and "folk" — the native chant of the Sami people. (ANS533520) CD: 15.98

Marta Sebestyen

The Best of Marta Sebestyen

5094

For those of us who have seen the award-winning movie The English Patient, the soundtrack, featuring the haunting voice of Marta, was as affecting as any of the sand-swamp vistas. This 1997 release includes Serenity, Scream (Love, Love) and En Csak Az Csodak (Lullaby for Katherine) from The English Patient, and songs from her previous albums, both solo and with the Hungarian ensemble Muzsikás. From traditional renditions of Transylvanian folk songs to gorgeous, irreplaceable modern pieces, she transcends ethnic music categories with her mysteriously wonderful voice. (HAN1412) CD: 15.98

Marta Sebestyen and Muzsikás

Morning Star

Incorporating swirling violins, Marta's low-singing vocals and various other traditional Hungarian instrumentations, this 1997 collection from one of the foremost exponents of Hungarian folk music is intriguing and exceptional. You'll discover similarities in style to traditional Bulgarian folk music, and even some distant connections with Celtic folk music, in this material from Hungarian villages and regions like Szek, Gyimes, Erdogostfuzes, Miera and Transylvania. Ranging from wedding songs to songs about love-lost, these gems reflect yet transcend their ancient roots. — Some of us place this squarely on our top-10-world-music-titles list! (HAN1401) CD: 15.98

Stellamara

Star of the Sea

0664

Amazing vocalist Sonja Drakulich (2nd generation Serbian) and multi-instrumentalist Jeffery Stott make up this creative duo, which incorporates elements of medieval European and Arabic music (such as classical Sufi music of Turkey) with the mystery and depth of ambient electronics. Drakulich is singing real lyrics but she intones her Eastern European and Galician dialects in a way that draws your ears toward their musicality rather than their literal meaning. With her voice, often layered in choirs, she synthesizes Bulgarian, Middle Eastern and Gregorian chant styles entwining them around a percussion bed of frame drums, darbuka and dumbeks. "a global symphony spun through myriads and grounded in the earth." This 1997 album is totally exquisite and highly recommended, especially if you like the music of Loreena McKennitt, Dead Can Dance, Vas, Bulgarian Women's Choir, Vox Adriaticus, and others who artfully and respectfully combine world cultures and idioms. (COT117) CD: 15.95

Uxia

Estou Vivendo No Céu

NEW

Uxia (pronounced u-SHEE-ah) hails from the Galician region of NW Spain, known for its Celtic roots, and the music on her 1997 release is a wonderful mix of cultures. Based on medieval songs plus contemporary and historical poetry of Galicia, Spain, and Portugal, she utilizes constructions ranging from simple folk accompaniment to very edgy, almost avant-garde pieces, some with Arabic percussion. The album opens with an "relaxa," a traditional song style notable for its lack of structure. Arqueadas Nobres Tan Longas (Those Long Nights) is an adaptation of a 13th century poem, with Galician roots but a modern thrust. Unusual, and recommended! (INM167) CD: 15.95

Vartina

Seleniko

0435

As the great-granddaughter of Finnish immigrants, I was pleased and curious to review this recording, never suspecting the enormous beauty it contains! Four incandescent women singers with indescribable harmonies and vocal strength are accompanied by an array of acoustic instruments — accordion, sax, bouzouki, kanтеле, banjo, bass and more — giving contemporary interpretation to traditional songs, many of them runic spells and incantations. As one reviewer said, the vocal effect will make your hair stand on end!... and as another said, this is some of the richest, densest acoustic music you've ever heard. By the end of the second song, I was in tears, simply in awe of the intense effect their voices evoke, similar in flavor to their Balkan cousins. Songs generally reflect the forbearance of Finnish women, one is a plaintive, sweet song sung by the sister of the groom, welcoming her new sister-in-law into the family home. Most highly recommended! (GL4006) CD: 10.95

Buddhist Nuns at Chuchikjall Tibetan Prayer

This 1995 release contains Tibetan prayer chants which were recorded at the site of the 1000-year-old temple of the 11-headed god Avalokitesvara, overlooking the Tibetan village of Karshi. These hypnotic chants, floating in the rarified atmosphere of the Himalayas, are meditative reminders of a serene state of being. Includes Wisdom Shall Overcome and Prayer for the Dalai Lama. Here are some of the female voices which have been missing from the recent, highly popular chant albums. (INAS709) CD: 16.95

Choying Drolma and Steve Tibbets

Cho

0590

In the hills above Kathmandu, The Nagi Gompa monastery is home to more than 100 Tibetan nuns, who sing and chant as part of their Buddhist practice of Cho, which involves mentally offering their body as a means of severing ego attachment. Choying Drolma has been a nun there since age 12, born in Nepal of Tibetan exile parents. Jazz guitarist Steve Tibbets heard her and the other nuns singing and, transfixed, recorded their voices. Back in Minneapolis, he added musical accompaniment (including guitar, bouzouki, cello, viol d'gamba, violin, bass and percussion) to subtly enhance the music, and sent the exquisite result back as a gift to the nuns. The vocals embody the meditative qualities of Gregorian chants, and Tibbets' musical arrangements are an elegant frame — very evocative and unusual, and we highly recommend it! Royalties will go to the nuns, with which Choying hopes to build a college of philosophy for other nuns in Nepal. "So far," she says, "only the monks have the chance to learn all the profound aspects of Buddhist philosophy. I want to create an institute where my fellow nuns can receive an equal education." (HAN1404) CD: 15.95

Dadawa

Sister Drum

0472

Tagged as "The Chinese Enya", this 25-year-old from the Mainland abandoned carefully-laid plans for a teaching career and went to Tibet to immerse herself in its musical and spiritual culture. The resulting 1995 album is a beautiful and meditative work suffused with Buddhist philosophy, the music resonates and rolls, buoyed by melody and underpinned by a calm steady beat. Dadawa weaves a lush web of music and chant and soul and watery vocals on such tracks as Home Without Shadow and Sky Burial to create a stunning piece of art. (SIR61889) CD: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Voices From the Sky

In Tibet, highly talented singers are said to be possessed by a musical deity, the Melodious Goddess... and on her 1995 release, which opens with a track by that very name, she demonstrates the truth of this! Drawing her inspiration from the spiritual and cultural legacy of Tibet, she seamlessly joins grand vocal and choral arrangements, acoustic and electronic instruments, Tibetan traditional forms and modern Chinese musical composition. Also includes Seven Drums, Himalayas, The Sixth Dalai Lama's Love Song. (SIR31009) CD: 16.95

Hasu Patel

Gayaki Sitar

Hasu began learning the sitar at the age of 9, and after many years of study and practice (6-8 hours a day!) she became the first woman to receive a music degree at the University of Baroda in India. She has developed a style of playing the sitar (a droning, buzzing, seasoned-gourd-and-lakewood stringed instrument) called "Gayaki Angi Vocal Style," which sounds as if one were singing through it. On this 1997 release, which is dedicated to Goddess Ma Kali, she plays "Alaps" (slow invocations presenting the raga in an expressive, meditative mood). Includes the very difficult-to-perform Raga Bharaban-Kanad, the popular evening Raga Yaman Kalyan, and the early-morning devotional Raga Bharavi. (HASU1) CD: 15.95

Mahealani Uchiyama

Tuahuine Rain

NEW

We are told that tuahuine is "the name of a misty rain famous in Manoa, Oahu," but don't be fooled... this Tuahuine Rain is bright, clear, and quite delightful! A musician, dancer, and teacher of Polynesian performing arts, Mahealani has created a wonderful journey through a wide variety of Hawaiian and Tahitian musical styles — from earthy chants, to energetic traditional percussion, to vibrant harmonies backed with guitar and her own ukulele. Featuring accompaniment by two Bay Area performance troupes, Hui Tama Nui and Ka Ua-Tahine Polynesian Dance Company, this collection is an excellent introduction to the genre of Polynesian music, and is recommended for dance as well as listening. ## Sheila Chandra

Weaving My Ancestors' Voices

This innovative 1992 album is an amazing exploration of the possibilities of the human voice... absent are the dance beat and lush instrumentation of her earlier works. The songs here are steeped in the ornamentation of Indian classical music, but her vocal virtuosity allows her to utilize (and stretch) classical, pop and folk traditions with equal confidence. She effortlessly moves from a remarkable spoken percussion piece, to a thousand-year-old Irish ballad, to a lullaby adapted by the Spanish composer Manuel De Falla, to a Muslim Call, to an Indian Bhajan. She wiles, "The voice is the first and ultimate instrument — it is the only means of expression used by every culture... The spirit of my ancestors is more accessible to me via the voice — it links all cultures throughout time." (CAR2322) CD: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Sheila Chandra/ Monsoon

Monsoon with Sheila Chandra

0043

Back in '92, the trend Monsoon, fronted by the young vocalist Sheila Chandra, made major musical waves (and developed a large cult following) with their brilliant blend of traditional Asian music, contemporary western rhythms and avant-garde sounds — and coined the phrase "Indopop" to describe their sound. This compilation contains their complete album Third Eye, plus the 8-sides, special Hindi versions and 12" mixes released as singles in the UK. Instrumentation ranges from sitar, tabla, gamelan and gong to wasp, hurdy gurdy and fire extinguisher! Includes Shakti (The Meaning of Within), Indian Princess, Third Eye and Tikka T.Y. A true classic has returned for its first US release. (MER6527) CD: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Sister Chan Khong & Thich Nhat Hanh

Drops of Emptiness

Mindfully chosen songs, chants and poetry invite listeners into the sanctuary of the Zen Buddhist practice, with "soothing droplets" to cool the heart. This 1990 release includes the Buddhist hymns and Vietnamese folk songs of Sister Chan Khong, the poetry of the beloved Buddhist teacher Thich Nhat Hanh, and chants performed by the nuns and monks of a Zen monastery in Plum Village, France... in English, French and Vietnamese. ## Yungchen Lhamo

Tibet Tibet

Like the phoenix rising out of the ashes, so too does the transcendently pure voice of Tibet's leading female vocalist rise above the dense, repetitive chants of the Buddhist monks, gently blanketing you with her songs of devotion and love. More graceful and dynamic than the men, Yungchen (which means "Goddess of Song") empowers her songs with such an intense spirituality that it makes you wonder why there aren't more female spiritual leaders. Born and raised in Tibet, the artist's talent and spirituality were nurtured by her mother, grandmother and aunt... at age 25, she trekked over the Himalayas from Tibet to India to meet and be blessed by the Dalai Lama. Light some incense and listen to this 1996 recording; you may be inspired to meditate or practice your yoga. Shanti! (RW2383) CD: 16.95

Doula

In the Garden

NEW

Maryam Hassan (born in Egypt) and Roula Said (a Palestinian born in Kuwait) met 4 years ago in an Arabic singing class in Canada where their families immigrated. Finding their talents highly compatible (both are vocalists, Maryam plays the no and oud, Roula the qanun, daf and darabuka), they joined forces with percussionist Dibashie Sinha to explore the rich musical heritage of their cultures. They perform in the Mouassanat Tradition, which is a form of Sufi devotional poetry set to music, utilizing a rich vocabulary of modes and rhythms. The music is heartfelt and hypnotic, communicating beyond language barriers. The swooning passion of the women's voices allows one to feel the depths of their praise. For fans of traditional Arabic music or those who enjoy listening to the sounds of spiritual exploration, this 1997 release is a must. (MAR1) CD: 16.95

Fairuz

The Legendary Fairuz

NEW

This Lebanese vocalist, who incorporates traditional Arabic music into her style, is one of the best-known female singers in the Arab world. "Others sang of love more than Fairuz did, but each of her songs intrinsically celebrates love." Her voice inspires internal communication of which no tiny particle is squandered on superficiality. Every time you listen to Fairuz you feel that her voice was born just for you. (Doursi El Hage) This 1998 release presents performances recorded live during the 1990's, with music composed and/or arranged by the Rahbani brothers, with whom she has collaborated for 3 decades. (HER23572) CD: 15.95

Natacha Atlas

Halim

NEW

This multi-talented artist, singer, bellydancer — whose music always provides great accompaniment for this dance form, in case you're looking — grew up in the Moroccan suburbs of Brussels, where she immersed herself in Arab culture. This 1997 release takes influences from a wide range of Middle Eastern and North African music. While Amulet draws heavily on Moroccan styles, featuring Rai vocals, much of the focus elsewhere is on Egypt, ranging from Arabic pop, to nostalgic tango, to more "classical" sounds which are slow and sweet, sweeping and dramatic, haunting and impressionistic. In Arabic, to be Halim is to be beautiful on the inside; a fitting title indeed. (KOC7981) CD: 16.95

Om Kalsoum

La Diba

No longer living, this remarkable artist (whose name is also written Umm Kulthum, Umm Kulaim, or Oum Kalsoum) remains Egypt's and the Arab world's most esteemed vocalist. She sang into her late 70's, performing limply concerts with long improvised epic tales, projecting dignity and strength. She never lost the respect of others for having had 4 husbands, an unusual situation for an Arab woman in the 1950's, she basically transcended the boundaries of convention. This is one of hundreds of titles in print. (EMC7243) CD: 10.95 CD: 17.95

Sazlar

Several folks have requested music appropriate for Middle Eastern and belly dancing — here's one we enthusiastically recommend for this purpose! Sazlar consists of 5 women from New Mexico, dancers and dance instructors, who studied Middle Eastern music with world class musicians after deciding they'd like to create live music for dancers. They perform traditional and contemporary music in Greek, Rumanian, Turkish, Arabic, Lebanese, Hebrew, Egyptian, Tunisian and Moroccan styles. All 5 women contribute vocals and play instruments including nay, oud, saz, darbuka, def, tar, violin, guitar, mandolin and clarinet. Whether you study Middle Eastern dance or not, this music is wonderful to accompany expressive movement of any kind. (SAZ1) CS: 9.98

Sazlar Unveiled

For their 1997 CD release, this all-women's ensemble from Albuquerque has added a sixth member, who plays the kanun, adding a level of mystical depth to their music. It features over an hour of Turkish and Arabic music, with some long medleys specially designed for dance. Includes the 17-minute Egyptian Dance Set, the 22-minute Turkish Dance Set, and 4 other evocative tracks. Their self-titled cassette has been a great seller for us because so many of you are looking for belly dance music, and we expect this one to surpass it! (SAZ2) CD: 15.98

Vas

Sunyata

Vas is a duo comprised of Iranian-born Azam Ali and American Greg Ellis, their 1997 debut release brings Azam's fluidly pure voice together with Greg's unique, traditional Eastern-sounding percussion creating an unorthodox, ethereal music. Sunyata means "emptiness, the wondrous source of creation" and Vas means "vessel" — both apt metaphors for what happens here when voice and instrument intertwine, pulsating as one. Azam has created her own personal idiom, where "free from the constraints of any written language, the voice is capable of sounds no man-made instrument can create." Very gorgeous, for listening as well as for Middle Eastern dance accompaniment. (NA63039) CS: 10.99 CD: 15.98

Yosefa

Calling all Ofra Haza fans, don't miss this similarly exciting 1993 "world beat dance" release! This young vocalist was born in Israel of Moroccan and Yemenite descent, she began her career as a soloist while serving in Israel's armed forces, and has continued in an upward spiral of success in both the Middle East and Europe. Kaskira instruments such as the kanoun, oud, zurna, eastern violin and clarinet combine with traditional percussion such as the darbuka and tin drum; these are blended with western technology and production technique to create an amalgam both mystically ancient and hi-tech. Includes Green Eyed Lady, Yareya ("I feel the presence of Yareya — the spirit of love! She travels beside me through the desert"), and the traditional Moroccan Sif Habi. Recommended! ## Alicia Svigals

Fiddler's House

Some of you are already familiar with this master of Klezmer violin — she has toured and recorded extensively with the Klezmatics (of which she is a founding member) and performed with Itzhak Perlman on the PBS special In the Fiddler's House. Her virtuosic yet intimate interpretations of the traditional klezmer repertoire have made her one of the most important voices in klezmer music today. On this 1997 debut solo recording, she performs both poignant improvisations and lively klezmer melodies; don't miss this! (TCR4396) CD: 15.98

Chava Alberstein

Crazy Flower: A Collection

You'll immediately hear why this diva, whose albums in Israel consistently go gold or platinum, is considered Israel's "First Lady of Song." Her voice is rich and deep and resonant, her style dramatic and intense, and her repertoire (primarily in Hebrew, some original — plus a few in French, Yiddish) is varied and fascinating, as she combines the ancient sounds of one of the oldest languages with modern mythen and instrumentation. On this 1996 release she transforms the well-known Passover song Chad Gadyo into a probing, passionate, urgent commentary about the madness of the cycle of war and death. Also includes Old Yiddish, The Dove of Love, Mother Used to Say: A Woman in a Watermelon, 17 in all. Highly recommended! (SHN0330) CD: 15.98

And You Shall Be a Blessing...

We've had several people request Debbie's music now, so we're happy to offer you some of her work! She is known as an artist who presents Jewish tradition in a progressive and dignified way. This 1989 album reflects her belief that blessings are not nebulous, distant, magical intangibles, but rather the affirmation of faith in the Source of All Life and the enactment of the potential goodness with which each soul has been endowed. Includes her original Miriam's Song, and others in Hebrew and English, all with captivating original music, some lyrics based on traditional text, performed with her very lovely voice and a multitude of instruments. Arranged and orchestrated by E. Marcy Dieterow-Vaj, who contributed to some early women's music albums like Changer. Especially love the evocative V'shamu! (SWP601) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Renewal of Spirit

She served as cantor for three years at a Reform Confirmation in L.A. she has directed music and singing programs at a number of universities, and has appeared before national conventions for most of the major Jewish organizations. Not surprisingly, Debbie is one of the best known and sought after artists on the Jewish scene! This 1995 release is a recording of songs from her healing service. Accompanied by Lynda Roth on keyboard and synthesizer, Debbie plays guitar and sings these prayers that "sometimes offer courage, sometimes challenge, and sometimes a cold, uncomfortable reality." She explains, "These words of prayer show me that healing has little to do with being sick and recovering and more to do with how we see ourselves and our roles in this sometimes torn and fragmented world." Sung both in English and Hebrew, songs include Ashrei Yatzir and Elohai N'Shamah from the morning liturgy, 23rd Psalm, You Are the One (Reb Nachman's Prayer), and more. ### At Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

This double set contains 27 of Debbie's best-loved songs as well as new ones, recorded in 1996 at her 25th Anniversary Concert to celebrate song, spirit and community. She is accompanied by piano, bass, percussion, and a string quartet arranged (and played in part) by Alicia Svigals, of the Klezmatics. Includes some wonderful songs from her early cassette-only releases, such as Not By Night, Not By Power, plus Miriam, The Angels' Blessing, Amos My Love from Song of Songs, and more. (SWP612) CS: 15.98 CD: 24.98

Judy Frankel

Silver & Gold/Plata Y Oro

We were first enthralled with the voice of Judy Frankel when we heard her on the anthology Divine Divas, which presents some of the world's best female artists, alongside luminaries like Cassandra Wilson, Ani DiFranco, and Norin Fe Riain. If you, like us, wished for a whole album, search no longer. Although of Lithuanian descent, this singer of 20 languages says her attraction to Sephardic music is so strong that she wonders whether her roots somehow go back to Spain! Her 1997 album contains 14 traditional and contemporary Sephardic songs from Spain, Turkey, Greece, France, Morocco, Portugal, the US, and the former Yugoslavia, performed in her crystalline, somehow perfect voice. Judeo-Spanish lyrics and English translations included. Recommended! (JF2) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Jews With Horns

Klezmer is "Yiddish party music", a cross fertilization of smug Middle Eastern melodies, gypsy music and circus-like kinetic rhythms of Eastern Europe — happy and sad at the same time, like laughter through the tears. The world's only radical Jewish roots band is an imaginative, adventurous, whirling dervish of a klezmer band; they weave in merengue, guiro, hip-hop rhythms, Brazilian jazz chords and experimental rock. Members include openly lesbian fiddler Alicia Svigals and openly gay lead vocalist/accordionist Lora Sklamberg (note that most vocals are male). Songs include the non-stop and lively Man in a Hat, Bulgaria/The Kiss, which was inspired by an ACT-UP kiss-in; Fishbird, featuring backup vocals by BETTY; and in Kamif, a popular Yiddish labor song ("We're hated and pursued — only because we love") which they perform to comment on anti-gay bigotry. (XEN4032) CS: 15.98 CD: 15.98

Possessed

Mystic and moaning, spiritual and slamming, these downtown New Yorkers celebrate klezmer's ancient Jewish roots with ecstasy, attitude, and serious chops. They lift at tradition on this 1997 release with a party-band attack, utilizing jazz, ska and Middle Eastern rhythms. Includes An Undoing World, co-written by fiddler Alicia Svigals, Mizmor Shir LeHallel (Releaser Song) — a psalm of praise; and several excerpts from the score of A Dybbuk: Between Two Worlds. (XEN4050) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn & Fran Avni

Marcia Falk's Blessings in Song

A combination of cantorial, Middle Eastern motifs and dynamic drones, counterpoints and rhythmic syncopation makes this 1997 a wonderful complement to poet/translator/Israeli scholar Marcia Falk's 1996 publication The Book of Blessings: New Jewish Prayer for Daily Life, The Sabbath, and the New Moon Festival. Marcia's innovative work restructures Jewish liturgy in Hebrew and English from a non-hierarchical, gender-inclusive perspective. At a time when people are searching for more spiritual connection in their lives, this recording offers listeners chants and melodies to many of Marcia's prayers, for immediate incorporation into their own and their community's ritual observances and practices. 21 selections, 52 min. Highly recommended! (HA1111) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn and Vocolist

Behold!

Drawing upon ancient and contemporary sources that evoke the spiritual power of centuries of Jewish women, this 5-woman vocal ensemble (who take their name from the English word "vocal" and the Hebrew word "kol" meaning voices) weaves a most beautiful tapestry of harmony and poetry on these songs and rounds. Their incredibly exquisite voices revitalize tradition, while dedicating listeners to a universal vision of social justice (i.e. this is music for everyone). Primarily composed by Linda, but drawing from sources as diverse as Walt Whitman and Zentabwian folk wisdom, their repertoire mixes traditional Jewish modes with folk, jazz and classical influences. On some selections they're accompanied by light percussion and acoustic instrumentation; but of course, the voices are the thing, and their scappella selections are indelibly gorgeous! Includes ema Na (My Sister), Lo Yisa Goy (Study War No More), Blessed is the Flame (Freedom is a fire in our soul). Produced by Fran Avni; very highly recommended! (JOYS1118) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Miraj

A Moon Note

Miraj is an acronym of the names of the members of this Philadelphia-based Jewish feminist vocal trio: Margot Stein Azam, Juliet Irene Spitzer, and Geelle Rayzel Raphael. Their voices weave in and out as they sing their original gender-sensitive songs, some in English and some in Hebrew. Miraj of Women and Love Umi if Please are empowering songs about "earthly" matters. Some songs are about Jewish culture and belief. Gather in and Neshama Yetzira, with references to Shacharit, the divine feminine presence, celebrates Shabbos. Rabbi Chodesh Moon is a beautiful "moon song," and Rock to the Rock combines Psalm 95 with the African-American gospel tradition. From ballads to klezmer to rounds, Miraj playfully blends many seemingly disparate elements on this 1996 release. (RTH1) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Ofra Haza

Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yemenite Jewish heritage, Ofra may be Israel's biggest star, winning awards year after year, successfully combining her incredible voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old!) and world beat/dance/contemporary rhythms and instrumentation, resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women, some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra is part of the Musica Mizrah movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended! 1997 (SHN64002) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tofa'ah

For All Time

This group of Jewish women musicians living in Jerusalem surprises many people because they perform for women-only audiences, in accordance with Jewish law — in order to give women a total positive female experience and to stimulate the elevated female level of spirituality. Celebrating 15 years of playing together, this 1995 release combines jazz, rock, folk, Latin and Middle Eastern elements, with instrumentation as varied as sax, bagpipes, harp (by guest artist Sunita Soneslow), English horn, flutes, electric guitars, percussion. Songs are original: Women (It's time for you to sing your song... Hands together we are strong... Share your spirit, set it free... ) could be Ladyslipper's theme song; plus Syncopeed Lady, Jerusalem Awakening and more. If you've been waiting for them to return to our pages, they're back! ## Angelique Kidjo

Logozo

Last year, we asked for info on this extraordinary artist, and you all sent us reams, for which we thank you! Born and raised in Benin on Africa's west coast, her extraordinarily fantastic music is a fusion of African polyrhythmic styles reflecting African roots (which includes Brazilian rhythms resulting from the Portuguese colonization of Benin), and Western influences... in which you can also hear strains of Arabic and Caribbean sounds. She speaks 8 languages fluently, but recorded this 1991 album in her native tongue of Swahili and Fon. Her political stance is subtly woven into the lyrics which address issues ranging from censorship to torture. She moved to Paris to study law, but now wages her fight for human rights through her music, which reflects a broadening multi-culturalism: includes the dance hit Batonga... a beautiful version of one of the most famous traditional African songs, Malika... Great voice, great rhythm, terrific for movement and dance, very highly recommended! Buy this! (MNG9918) CD: 16.95

Angelique Kidjo

Oremi

1444

Angelique's 1995 release is an exciting mixture of sounds, uniting the rhythms and spirits of Africa with the grooves and vibes of such diverse styles as Hip-Hop, Afro-Celtic, and Jazz... creating a more pronounced contemporary R&B feel. Branford Marsalis contributes his creative saxophone stylings to the funky Itche Koutche; Angelique's daughter makes her singing debut on Lokoye; and jazz songstress Cassandra Wilson contributes her earthbound soul harmonies to the duet Never Know. Angelique also revitalizes Hendrix's Woodoo Chant (Sight Return). A very worthwhile listen! (MNG624521) CS: 16.95 CD: 16.95

Aster Aweke

Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing the music of this talented DC resident. She sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, emotional wail, croons to a native harp and light percussion, keeps over a classically-tuned piano — this is World Beat at its best! Why high in our recommendation, and to balance the equation, way low in price! (COL46848) CD: 8.95

Kabu

1017

This release by an amazing Ethiopian singer and vocalist, now residing in Washington DC, has an Afro-pop sound, with the exception of the haunting love ballad, Kabu, which means "ached rock" and employs a mambo for both rhythm and melody... simply lovely! Backed on other tracks by a variety of percussion instruments, horns, keyboards and acoustic bass, her voice is rich and enchanting. Also includes several traditional Ethiopian songs with contemporary arrangements; lyrics are translated in brief notes; recommended! (COL47846) CS: 5.95 CD: 8.95

Cesaria Evora

Cabo Verde

1339

Long known to Cape Verde's small expatriate community in Massachusetts and Rhode Island as the African Island nation's finest singer, Cesaria exploded to fame on these shores with her '95 self-titled album. For this 1997 release, she again sublimely sings Morras, the "Cape Verdean blues", but also features a varied group of songs from the festive to the mournful. Many of Cape Verde's best musicians play on the album, as well as jazz saxophonist James Carter on Coragem (Courage). Spanish-style guitars, accordion, percussion, and violin sweep us away on her blanket of exquisite sadness. She'll simply take your breath away. (NON79450) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Mar Azul

The exquisitely melancholic contralto of the "mistress of morras" brims with saudade (wistfulness, nostalgia) on this import album... with surprising but perfect accompaniment on clarinet, harmonica, and trumpet in addition to the more expected guitar and piano. Booklet contains beautiful and atmospheric photographs of her native Cape Verde, with lyrics in French and Portuguese (speaking of which, here's an interesting fact: due to the emigration to New England coastal areas, there are more Cape Verdeans in the US than in Cape Verde). Essential for all Cesaria fanatics! (MEL79533) CD: 16.95

Full Circle: Spanish Jews/Jerusalem

This 1998 release of Musica of the Spanish Jews of Jerusalem presents secular traditions preserved by the community of Spanish-Sephardic Jews in Jerusalem. These musical and poetic expressions reflect a community's determination to maintain a normalcy worn out of passion, humor, wayward youth, parental concern and love — at the same time as it struggled for survival amid volatile realities. Informed by field recordings, the arrangements are composed collaboratively by Turtle members, each drawing upon the more than 20 dozen instruments played by this versatile quintet. (TJ251) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Here's an album of deep, exquisite beauty! Born on the Cape Verde island of Sao Vicente (off the coast of West Africa; obviously colonized by Portugal, as you'll hear in the language and music — the similarities to Brazilian music are no surprise), she later emigrated to Paris where she began her recording career. Backed by an array of acoustic instruments — multiple guitars (including the cavaquinho, a small 4-string rhythm guitar), violin, accordion and clarinet — she creates a compelling musical atmosphere with her blend of smooth, intoxicating vocals and heartfelt lyrics. If you can imagine a sort-of-Brazilian-sounding Mercedes Sosa, she might sound something like Cesaria; highly recommended! (NON79378) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Miss Perfumado

Opening with Sodade, the exquisite track on the Tranca Planet Volume 1 compilation (we'd been wondering when that album would surface), this 1992 import features the incomparable voice of the "barefoot diva" accompanied by guitar, violin, baritone piano and cavaquinho. Complete your collection! (MEL79540) CD: 15.95

Dark City Sisters/Flying Jazz Queens

Back in stock! In the history of modern South African music, the Dark City Sisters form the crucial link between Miriam Makeba and Mahatini & the Mahotella Queens. The Sisters loosened up the 4-part harmonies of groups like these and poured in a distinctly Zulu vocal style. Their sound, known as isive, has echoed in the vocal harmonies of virtually every South African pop group of the past 30 years. Released in the US in 1993, this is a collection of 14 of the historic group's most popular singles from the 1960's, plus 2 hits by their friendly rivals, The Flying Jazz Queens. (EW31) CD: 16.95

Hijas del Sol

Kotto

1443

Formerly known by their African name (Sibeba), Hijas del Sol ("Daughters of the Sun") amaze us again with their energetic harmonies and respect for tradition. The 1997 release features tracks with cello, violin and clarinet (in addition to the djembe, batak, tres, clavés, guitars and bass from their previous album), creating a deeper, richer sound which crosses the lines between Africa, the Caribbean, Eastern Europe and Spain (sometimes with a flamenco feel). Their songs deal with single motherhood, and others from a woman's point of view. Gorgeous, and very recommended! (INM3229) CD: 15.95

Hijas del Sol

Sibeba

1293

The harmonies and energies are stunning, on this 1996 album by two women from the island of Boko, located off the West Africa coast near Equatorial Guinea — whose name means "Daughters of the Sun." Some selections are performed in a fabulously punchy and joyful acappella style, others with a percussion-driven, guitar-jangling band. Their recording preserves some of the traditional Boko language and culture, lyrics plus Spanish and English translations are included. Booklet doesn't give as much info about the artists as we'd like, but their music will speak for itself; recommended! (INM3178) CD: 15.95

Les Go (meaning a cherished and protected girl) de Kotéba is a young, revered female dance and vocal trio from the Ivory Coast, backed by a crisp multi-piece band (including guest sax-player Manu Dibango). We happily present this women-produced recording (on a new US label devoted to promoting the work of women and world music — yay!) a spirited reminder of the roots of R&B, funk and hip-hop. If you are looking beyond all the recent inviting world music compilations to more sustained expressions, here's a great gateway to the sound from West Africa (in this case, modern pop blended with ancient Mandingo culture) that lately has been getting lots of Western-world listeners grooving and thinking more globally. (JUN2813) CD: 15.95

A Different Night

Subtitled A Passover Musical Anthology, this 1996 recording will satisfy the longing of modern audiences for the sounds of Jewish chant. The internationally acclaimed 16-year-old quartet presents an astonishing collection of Passover chants and ballads — including 23 versions of Hallel Gadyal. Instruments include ud, baglama, psalteri, harp, medieval fiddle, kamanja, Spanish medieval bagpipe, cornetto, chalumeaux, bombard, dumbeks and more (how many of these can you identify?). sung in Aramaic, Yiddish, Judeo-Spanish, Hebrew, Italian, Judeo-Provençal, and Judeo-Arabic. Long-awaited, and truly unique! (KOL918) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

The Journey

0651

Before her stunning voice could be heard in the west, Miriam was forced to spend 7 months walking across the Horn of Africa with her 5 children as she fled the civil war, with its anarchy, death and starvation, in her native Somalia. They hitched rides on trucks, rode on donkeys, and walked — out of Mogadishu, across Kenya, through Ethiopia. One of the first women to sing professionally in the deeply male-dominated Islamic society of Mogadishu, she had absorbed the remarkable hybrid sounds created by centuries of cross-cultural fertilization between migrating African and Arabo nomadic tribes. This 1998 album, a highly charged modern take on her Somali roots, features guitars, back-up vocals and sequencers by Peter Gabriel. (RW2370) CD: 16.95

Africa

0381

This 1991 compilation encompasses several recordings from Miriam's early U.S. career, from 1950-1955, yet the content and arrangements sound fresh and timely! Includes works from her collaborations with Harry Belafonte, and former husband Hugh Masekela, with spare instrumental backup — guitar, percussion — and a lovely backup chorus. Songs include Mbube, the tune which "The Lion Sleeps Tonight" uses (refreshing to hear the original African rendition); The Retreat Song; The Click Song; Kwazulu in the Land of the Zulus; Ningongongo To Those We Love; 23 songs in all. (RCA3185) CD: 15.95

Sangoma

0383

A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused: these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate prolifically and sunnily the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. (An interesting note: she was also exiled from the U.S. in 1968, after she married Stokely Carmichael.) Highly recommended. (WB25673) CD: 15.95

Miriam Makeba, w/Belafronte Singers

The Click Song

0380

This is a classic. Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Belafonte Folk Singers. It includes her well-known songs, The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Womwen", House of the Rising Sun, Iya Guduzi, which triple tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, the humorous One More Dance, and others, performed in Kosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. Highly recommended! (ESP155564) CD: 15.95

Oumou Sangare

Worotan

From their perspective, birds can see things that escape humans; in West Africa, it is believed that certain birds can communicate their view of the world to humans. Oumou is the songbird, and this native of Mali expresses her anger about injustices toward women with strength and vitality, stunning vocals and insightful lyrics. In an ironic tone, she sings about the "big men" in a polygamist culture... she reveals the unfairness of a system that defines a good wife as a submissive woman, and sings out against violence toward women. Joined by a host of traditional and non-traditional instruments on this 1996 release, she is an amazing force! (WRC045) CD: 16.95

Rasha Sudaniyat

For world music fans, the excitement and wonder this 1997 album will inspire might be similar to your first experience of Casanova Evora — it will draw you in, caress you, please you and amaze you. This young vocalist/percussionist, raised with 10 (!) siblings in the Sudanese capital Khartoum, presents a contemporized but authentic blend of the principal music of her country (from which she has fled): the Nubian tradition of the Islamic-influenced north, and the black-African music of the south. Full of complex rhythms, melodic yet melancholic, predominantly defined by oud and percussion but sometimes backed by a full band, the repertoire is varied and interesting. She even performs some Sufi meditations, usually sung by men only. Highly recommended! (INM3214) CD: 15.95

Sally Nyolo

Tribu 1385
A former member of Zap Mama (and the only one who spent her childhood in Africa), Nyolo brings to her music the same inventiveness, attitude and adventurousness as the world-famous ensemble with whom she has toured the world. Fans of Zap Mama will find much to appreciate on this 1997 album, although Nyolo's music is stylistically unique. Performed in her native tongue of Ebon and fueled by influences from her home country of Cameroon, her music reveals a cosmopolitan diversity, thanks to the years she has spent in Paris absorbing sounds from all over the globe. Fabulous rhythms, upbeat melodies, recommended! (TIN4678) CD: 15.95

African Heritage

Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi et al Africans in America: Complete 3-Set

Composed and produced by the esteemed Dr. Bernice Johnson Reagon, this soundtrack to the landmark 1995 PBS documentary series depicts the story of Africans and Europeans who created America even as they bitterly struggled over the meaning of freedom...retelling the story of our nation's founding from a new perspective, such as the published accounts of ex-slaves. The period was rich with musical sound, full of the varied music of Africa, Europe, Irish and English workdays and sailors, and the music of the pious, the royal courts and the church. All this is reflected here, there's a collaboration between the two Reagon women and Scottish fiddler Bonnie Rieckert...duets with Bernice and Toshi, songs from Sweet Honey in the Rock (3-set only), Chanele Williams Quartet, James Weaver and more. (RYK90444) CS: 34.95 CD: 34.95

Bernice Johnson Reagon, Toshi et al Africans in America: Single Album

This single album features 22 of the tracks from the 3-volume set. About half are by mother-daughter team Bernice and Toshi. (Remember Me, Shabazz, Ship of Zion), the others by various solo and ensemble artists such as Djimon Kouyate, United Southern Prayer Band of Baltimore and Washington, and more. (RYK444) CS: 70.98 CD: 15.95

Bernice Johnson Reagon River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible 1986 acappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacqui's Ladder, Since I Lay My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.95

Bernice Reagon Give Your Hands to Struggle

Produced by Barbara Dancie, this 1997 release was originally released on LP in 1975 on the Paredon label. It is stylistically similar to Sweet Honey in the Rock, except that Bernice herself is singing all the harmonizing voices, and features classics such as Joann Little, They Are Falling All Around Me, Room in the Circle, There's A New World Coming. Originally subtitled The Evolution of a Freedom Fighter, this is an important historical documentary which has thankfully been preserved. (SF40049) CD: 15.95

This duo, so long a favorite of audiences at women's festivals and pride rallies, synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary, soul, even country, in an extraordinary and exciting blend. From the urban title track, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Obatala, the political South Africa, to the elegy written by Dory Previn to "a black woman that did exist" — Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Masterfully produced by Linda Tillery, highly recommended! (LR203) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.95

Soweto Never Sleeps 0385
Absolutely outstanding! Following the success of THE INDESTRUCTIBLE BEAT OF SOWETO, this 1985 release features "Zulu Jive" tracks by four women's groups from South Africa: The Dark City Sisters, The Mqababa Queens, Irene and the Melodians, and The Mahotella Queens. The rhythms, the harmonies, the pure energy all make for a vibrant anthology — this is the spirit that can't be killed. Highly recommended! (SHN43041) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various/"Holding Up Half the Sky" Voices of African Women

This 1997 release presents the first comprehensive collection of popular female African vocalists — only fitting, since in countries such as Mali and South Africa, the greatest singers have long tended to be women. The collection brings together 14 performers from 11 different countries...from internationally famous stars such as Miriam Makeba, Angelique Kidjo and The Mahotella Queens, to revered performers such as Stella Chiweset and Ami Kola, to favorites from old Ladyslipper catalogs, such as The Lijadu Sisters, Mbilis Bel, and Tshala Mwana. A highly recommended way to experience a panorama of diverse and incredible talent! (SHN4073) CD: 16.95

Casseberry-DuPree Hot Corn in the Fire

Cassettes on sale! In source and feeling, this 1994 release on Ladyslipper Records moves from ancient to traditional to contemporary, giving the listener a sense of the boundless depth and breadth of the duo's talent. Producer Toshi Reagon has assembled a group of first rate musicians, and you'll hear the evolution of their signature sound, from acoustic to songs featuring dynamic ancient drum ensembles and shakers...with styles incorporating African, reggae, folk, gospel, R&B, as well as Cajun shuffle! Their material is as relevant and revolutionary as ever, from Last Pioneers, about the struggle for lesbian and gay rights (which they sang at the very first National Lesbian/Gay March on Washington)...to Pink Dress On (worn by a little girl whose elders are implying her to sit still in such impractical attire)...an original song, inspired by Odetta's folk style...to The Khan, a compelling song many of us first heard performed by Richie Havens many years ago. Very highly recommended! (LR204) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.95

Faith Nolan Freedom to Love

Focusing on black women historically and presently, Faith's selections — both her originals and her covers — give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles. Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman, an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire, the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery, Ma Rainey's Prove It On Me, and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians, recommended! (RR8903) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Linda Tillery/Cultural Heritage Chr Front Porch Music

This 1997 release invites you to participate, to sing along step, clap, shout, dance and be part of the tradition that is African-American music-making, the very foundation of popular music today. Dedicating herself to research and reconstructing the folklore, religion and language associated with her African-American heritage, in 1993 Linda founded the Cultural Heritage Choir, an active touring group that incorporates vocals with pounding rock, feet and hands to create a powerful rhythmic experience. Their second album includes Voice of Mother Africa, Spiritually Medley, See Line Woman Children's Medley, and Lift Every Voice and Sing. (EB72881) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.95

Linda Tillery/Cultural Heritage Chr Good Time, A Good Time

This '95 release is an incredible presentation of African American music (much of it from the Gullah sea islands culture): work songs, field hollers, play songs, spirituals, incised sermons, folk tales and African music, such as the rhythmic chant to the African ocean goddess Yemaya. The Cultural Heritage Choir, which consists of 6 women — Melanie DeMore and Rashida Oji, and of course Linda and her stunning, fluid alto among them — employs call and response, multi-layered harmonies, poly-rhythms and repetitive verse, song forms which are considered by many historians, anthropologists and ethno-musicologists to be the very root sources of all American popular music. The Choir was assembled by Linda, as part of a 6-year research project in the field of African American Folk Art. Highly recommended! (TUM1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.95

Zap Mama Adventures in Afropea 1

Pronounced with an accent on the second "ma", this fabulous 5-woman group is led by Marie Daurine, an African/Belgian woman who left her native Zaire as a child to escape the violence there. Returning after years in Belgium, she connected with the forest Pygmies who sheltered her as a child, and the music she and the group offer reflect that shared heritage. Sung in Bantu, French and English, primarily acappella with some minimalist bass and percussion back-up, the multi-layered harmonies bloom in a riotous profusion of beauty and color. A sincere and superior tribute to and example of the power of the human voice. (LB45183) CD: 16.98

Zap Mama

7
Zap Mama makes a hard turn in another musical direction for their 1997 release, on which their astonishing harmonies are backed by a rhythm section and a kinetic complement of musical sounds. Includes a version of Phoebe Snow's Poetry Man that features guest vocalist Michael Franti. New World which features guest vocalist reggae legend U Roy, Beigo Zoro, Nostalgie Amoureuse, African Sunset and more. (LB46486) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Maya Angelou Miss Calypso

Well, most of us know her as a powerful, majestic writer, poet and Presidential inauguration speaker, but in 1956, at the height of her nightclub singing career, Maya Angelou recorded this calypso record. (The story goes that she really wanted to be a concert dancer, and could only get to dance if she sang too.) With only a gentle bongo/conga and electric guitar backing, Maya mixes jazz, gospel, blues with Caribbean sounds. As part of the big Harry Belafonte-inspired calypso craze, she channels Trinidad on her originals like Tamo, Neighbor, Neighbor, Scandal in the Family, the Louis Jordan covers Run Joe and Push Ka Pici Pi and the always odd lighthearted murder-of-the-wife-beating-husband tale Stone Cold Dead in the Market. This is a very cool and retro-funky album! (SCM9705) CD: 16.98

Maya Angelou with Ashford & Simpson Been Found

The multi-talented R&B duo Ashford & Simpson are known for classics like Ain't No Mountain High Enough, Your Precious Love and Ain't Nothing Like The Real Thing amongst others. This '96 release, their first in 7 years, is a smooth mix of "quiet storm" and easy grooves. Renowned poet and author Maya Angelou adds the distinctive flavor of her authoritative voice on several tracks, including the gospel-inflected title track, and the sing-song "voiceover" of Just Talking; her poetic riffs are filled mostly with love imagery this time around. Maya recorded the album Miss Calypso in the early 60's but had avoided revisiting the musical medium...until now! (HSS4512) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Melanie DeMore Share My Song

Melanie's buoyant vocals and rich lyrics, rooted in African American folk tradition, are captured in this 1992 release, featuring the title track, plus Lady Of Peace, I Hear the Mother Calling, Rise Up, Song for Mena, Kumbaya and a scintillating rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection. Recommended! (RR8203) CS: 6.98

Nedra Johnson Testify

With a style that's mostly blues with snatches of gospel, jazz, reggae, R&B and rock, and a voice comparable to any of the great blues women, it's hard to believe that this is Nedra's first release, but don't think that she's new to the music business, because she's been performing and gaining fans around the country for several years. It is this experience that shows through with a maturity and energy that is unique and refreshing. The songs, mostly very political and woman-identified, are personal explorations into events and issues which are part of Nedra's life. Where Will You Be? was inspired by the lives and works of Audre Lorde and Pat Parker...also includes poems by Alice Walker and ntotoz shange to music. CD expected late '97. Highly recommended! ## Sweet Honey in the Rock Feel Something Drawing Me On

A different album concept from their previous discography, this 1985 release is unique. On this album of sacred music from Christian gospel songs sung by congregations in the deep south as well as Liberia, to traditional lullabies, to Mayanga, a West African funeral song, they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in...beautifully documenting the cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. ## Sweet Honey in the Rock

Still On the Journey: 20th Anniv. 0026
Celebrating 20 years of performances, this 1993 release demonstrates the unequal mastery of these 5 African-American women warriors for justice — as they continue to push the boundaries of unaccompanied choral music, singing a wide range of African-American traditional song styles, including blues, ballads, hymns and rap. Songs include Stay, Waiting Memories, Run On For a Long Time, Ballad of the Broken Word, Come By Here, No Mirrors in My Nana's House, Sojourner's Battle Hymn, Wodeabe Nights. Produced by mother-daughter team Bernice Johnson Reagon and Toshi Reagon, the album coincides with the publication of the book. (EB2534) CS: 9.98... CD: 16.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock

B'lieve I'll Run On...
This 1978 album contains glorious a cappella vocals, gospel-influenced, with an emphasis on harmonies. We have a special fondness for this album because it contains one of their most specific pro-abortion statements, a song for women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers. It also contains originals about nuclear proliferation and Jimmy Carter; the experiences of Black women; and a few classics about specific strong Black women: Sojourner Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. Recommended! (RR3500) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Sacred Ground 0307
African American religious music, born of oppression and tempered by resistance, profoundly influences almost every other modern genre: jazz, blues, rock and even country. On this 1995 release, this peerless ensemble revisits traditional African American religious music with reverence and passion, and adds their own boldly original explorations of what "sacred" means today. No More Auction Block and Jordan River testify to faith and fortitude during centuries of slavery, whereas Mystic Oceans and Would You Harbor Me expand and clarify modern notions of sanctity and right action. Together, these songs create a deeply personal yet evocative journey, diving into the mists of distant memory for contemporary relevance. (EB42580) CS: 10.98... CD: 15.98

... twenty-five ... 0722
On their 1995 25th anniversary release, Sweet Honey explores new choral and small ensemble vocal textures. They raise their a cappella voices to sing of many things: Greed, domestic violence in Run, the women's conference in Beijing, ecology and environmental justice in Chant and Battered Earth. Sometimes a love song to their fans, and in Bob Marley's Redemption Song and Motherless Child, they address the impact of slavery on people throughout the Diaspora. Celebrate with them their remarkable 25-year performing history... in which they have used music to inform, politicize, document, affirm, inspire, empower, and build community. (RYK541) CS: 10.98... # Native American

Alice Gomez

Flute Dreams
This 1994 release is a particularly evocative instrumental album with a multiple-flute sound, revealing influences of the cultural heritage of the Native peoples of the Americas (especially Aztec, Inca and Mayan)... and reflecting the specific belief that playing a flute or a variety of flutes would bring special dreams. Composer Alice Gomez is a Mexican-American of Mayan descent, with several symphonies and chamber works to her credit. Here she plays keyboard, guitar and ceremonial acoustic percussion. Along with her sister Madalyn Blanchett on recorder/flutes and Marilyn Rife on marimba, keyboards, and more percussion, she has created gorgeous music which ranges from primal/tribal to symphonic in scope. Gorgeous. Recommended! (TT125) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Alice is accompanied by Madalyn Blanchett and Marilyn Rife on this graceful and serene album. (TT130) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Journeys of the Flute 0057
Through a series of original compositions, Alice Gomez traces the migrations of the Native peoples of the Western Hemisphere and their flute music. The journey starts on the American Great Plains, then moves to the fabled city of Chichen Itza where the cries of an eagle mix with a haunting flute melody; then onto Mayan themes and legends, and finally the sonic journey is completed in the Incan region of the Andes mountains. Exquisite, evocative multiple flutes/recorders are backed by guitar, synthesizers, marimba and percussion, performed by Alice, her sister Madalyn Blanchett, and Marilyn Rife. The composer has drawn on her multi-cultural background to create a work of deep beauty — recommended! (TT128) CS: 9.98... CD: 15.98

Brooke stood deep in a vaulted, dripping chamber (a challenging setting for a "live" recording!) near where a stone altar still remains, when this altar was found, a huge old buffalo skull lay upon it, and a stone carved on one side with a bear, on the other side a buffalo. Includes Altar Song, Women's Healing Song, vision Wise. (BME13) CS: 10.95

Walela (Rita Coolidge et al)

Walela

0606

Walela is the Cherokee word for "hummingbird" as well as the symbol of inspiration for this family of women singers. Featuring rock icon Grammy-winner Rita Coolidge, her sister Priscilla Coolidge, and Priscilla's daughter Laura Satterfield. Some of you have heard them on the Robbie Robertson/Red Road Ensemble Native Americans album, their own 1997 debut, anchored by their exquisite vocal blend, combines their Cherokee heritage with the gospel sounds that filled their Southern childhood home. Kila and Priscilla's father, a full-blooded Cherokee, was a Baptist minister, and their mother, of Scottish descent, gave music lessons and played organ in the church. From The Warrior to the rhythmic drumming of Wash Your Spirit Clean, they deliver pure sound and beauty, energy and spirit. Also includes Cherokee Morning Song, Earth Children, Circles of Light, and Amazing Grace, an extraordinary invocation sung in the Cherokee language, with bagpipes accompanying. And the closing track, Oh, Turn My Radio On, is sung with their late grandmother, Laura Stewart. Highly recommended! (TRL6049) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Wayquay

Tribal Grid

0847

Wayquay (full name: Sengideed Wayquay) means "lady unafraid." Retracing steps on the path left by her Ojibwa/Anishinaabe ancestors, this musical poet brings messages of simplicity, sharing and honor. With a style that is compelling and powerful (all times reminiscent of Ukiha Hill), she brilliantly fuses the rhythms and chants from her Native American background with the grooves of blues, rock, funk and poetry to create an incredibly transcendent collection of original pieces. And, if you hear a dog or a coyote, a scream or a warble, it's her too, the many varied sounds she creates with her voice all make music. "I gear my writing towards empowerment, moving people, opening eyes through truth and humor. I gear music towards healing, forgiveness and celebration." Includes Sister's Keeper, Hope Chant, Prophecy Walk, very different, and very highly recommended! (GBL10202) CS: 15.98

Edwina Lee Tyler

Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of djembe drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals; we've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "the cool side," and progressively heats things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage) as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wide in the Water) and a West African song (Ki Yak Ki Yak). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive, in your mind and your body! (PPQ1) CS: 9.98

Evelyn Glennie

Drumming

Dubbed a "percussion wizard," this young Scotswoman, who happens to be clinically deaf, has captivated worldwide audiences with her dazzling virtuosity and athleticism. Her innovative drumming performances on the classical concert stage, both solo and with major symphony and chamber orchestras, have won her titles such as "Scots Woman of the Decade" and "Royal Philharmonic Society's Soloist of the Year." On this 1995 recording, Evelyn performs contemporary solo percussion works, many of them original (faded Sorfets... they are improvised and spontaneous performances), on a wide variety of conventional (snare drum, Chinese cymbals, bongos, wood-block) and especially-constructed instruments of her own design. Includes a piece, To the Earth, on which Evelyn recites text from a 7th-century hymn To the Earth Mother of All... a prayer to Goro Goro, goddess of the Earth. A fascinating tour de force for fans of percussion! (CAT88195) CD: 16.98

Fatu (Judy Henderson)

Lady Drummer

0582

This most excellent musician first became interested in traditional African drumming as a child, listening to local troupes practice in the Omaha, Nebraska park on Saturdays. Because she was a girl, however, she was told she was not allowed to play the drums, and had to secretly practice the rhythms she heard. It wasn't until 1990 that she met an instructor who was willing to formally teach her traditional drumming! Now she is the lead drummer and musical director of the Harambee African Dancers and Drummers at the U. of Colorado in Boulder, and has released her first album of original music and traditional music from the African Diaspora. Playing the djembe and djun djuns, traditional Mali instruments, Judy also sings both lead and harmony vocals in a deep, rich voice. It's hard to pick out highlights from this WONDERFUL 1995 release, but I'll try. Sisters celebrates her African, Choctaw and Javanese heritage ("I've found my way home"), Norma's Song is a very sensual love song, the traditional Senegalese Mandiana is used as a young girl's initiation celebration. Goro Island remembers "last part of soil" for Africans being shipped off to slavery in the Americas, and Harmonize is a playful challenge to the dancers in her troupe. Amazing stuff, this, and very highly recommended! (DRH1) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

This 1997 release has a more urban feel to it than past recordings, with a very eclectic, jazzy-blues sound. There are the various percussive instruments we've come to expect from Gabrielle Roth, along with more traditional instruments such as cello, violin, and some very excellent trumpet playing on Downtown. "...a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones..." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! (RAV5894) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth & the Mirrors Initiation

Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map... it can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. ### Inanna 1994-1996: A Compilation

This 8-woman percussion ensemble, which takes its name from the Sumerian goddess who held reign more than 4000 years ago when drummers and dancers were primarily women, plays original arrangements as well as traditional West African rhythms learned from West African drumming teachers. Their array of instruments includes dambé, kiplango, and ashiko drums, bass drums (such as dundun, kenkeni and sangba), balaphone (an African xylophone), ransatics, shekeres and bells. This 1996 CD release combines tracks from their 1994 self-titled studio recording, plus the full-length of their live '94 recording at the Left Bank Cafe. (INN1) CD: 15.98

Inanna Listen

One ensemble member said, "During the making of this recording, I have had this recurring image of a long procession of women... traveling through time in a common rhythm... As I play these rhythms, I am finding my place in the time, joining in with the sound and soul of the Woman of all ages." This 1998 release was inspired by the traditional rhythms of West Africa and the work of musician/author Layne Redmond. Includes powerful drumming arrangements voiced through the dambé and the heartfelt tones of various bass drums, along with the meditative sounds of frame drums and the melodic accompaniment of balaphones, kalimba, violin and voices. They invite you to Listen. (INN2) CD: 15.98

Janalea Hoffman Therapeutic Drumming

This specially metered drumming, in beats of three to correspond to a normal heartbeat, is intended to reduce heart rate and blood pressure, because your body will attempt to synchronize itself with external sounds. The music starts at exactly 80 beats a minute, and gradually slows down to 50 beats per minute. Accompanying the drum are Andean clay flute, alto recorder, flute, cello and recorded wind sounds... so it's beautiful and relaxing, even aside from the specific therapeutic effects! Also good for shamanic work: it will help you into a hypnotic state, and enhance your inner vision imagery. (RMS2) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Josefina Cupido One Woman One Drum

This 1998 UK import is most intriguing and unusual! The artist is a wonderful vocalist in addition to playing Algan drum and percussion, and splashes of sax and clarinet are added to a few of the more avant-garde selections. Her reverby voice is evocative and jazzy (at times reminiscent of Rihannon, at other times Mahina, for those of you old enough...), on songs ranging from the ethereal invocation ("I fell in love with the air of a woman! And since a woman is air in the air I will stay") to the part-spoken performance-art piece Mary Magdalena to the scatted Family. Her lyrics are spiritual, poetic, political and feminist; recommended! (SLP4000) CD: 15.98

Layne Redmond Being in Rhythm

This 1997 release by acclaimed frame drummer and author of When the Drummers Were Women offers essential guidance for both beginning and experienced meditation practitioners. The first part is a guided rhythmic meditation with music and instruction for balancing the seven chakras; the second section is a musical presentation without narration to be used as a focus for self-directed meditation or everyday enjoyment. An excellent introduction to shamanic journey work as well as an invaluable tool for advanced holistic and spiritual healers — highly recommended! (JWM927) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Layne Redmond & the Mob of Angels Since the Beginning

Inspired over a decade ago by her introduction to the family of frame drums to which she is now dedicated, Layne has gathered a group of (mostly) women together to revive the ancient Mediterranean/ North African/ Middle Eastern tradition of women's ceremonial drumming among goddess-worshipping societies. Her compositions, and their arrangements, are pure genius; the instruments speak in torrents of rhythm and meaning, communicating ancient stories which will stir remembrance in the listener. Includes Come of Power, The Elements, We Are Always Together, several feature spoken parts. This 1992 album is one of the most honest and respectful recordings of women's ritual music we've ever listened to... also features the incredible violin of Vicki Richards, not to be missed! Highly recommended! (RDM11) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart/Nancy Hennings/H. Wolff Yamantaka

In 1982, Grateful Dead drummer Mickey Hart teamed up with Tibetan Bell virtuoso Nancy Hennings and Henry Wolff to create a uniquely expressive journey to the mystical roots of percussion, bringing his own collection of percussion instruments from around the world. Critically acclaimed for its subtle yet masterful percussion soundscapes, it is back into print ten years later! Sounds heard here are unlike any other, amazing echoes from the inner core of the spirit to the outer reaches of the universe... somber, hysterical, and meditative, raising the level of intensity through swirling gyrations, spectral harmonics and the cyclical resonations of the Tibetan Bells. ## Nuru (Nurudafina Pili Abena) Drum Call

"Rhythm is life. Vibration is breath. The heartbeat is the core of one's being." So says Nuru, congas, dambé player, and Afro-Caribbean and West African percussionist, who some of you know from the OneSpill duo... and we proudly release this mid-1994 album on the Ladyslipper label! It opens with an inspired program of calls, celebratory chants and prayers, to the orisa (pronounced "orisha"), or Yoruba deities. They're performed in the Yoruba/Lucumi language in a call-and-response style, with Nuru in lead, and several voices in response, with chants to deities such as Yemaya, ocean goddess and mother of all, Oshun, river goddess of love, Shangó, god of thunder and lightning. Nuru then performs 3 all-instrumental dambé pieces; then to a Cuban instrumental, La Rumbera, and lastly the unexpected hip-hop of the title track, with chorus and children's voices, and its critical message. Throughout, Nuru plays an astounding array of percussion, including 3 different congas (conga, quinto, lumba), dambé, shekere, ran rante, Ghanaian rain stick, bells, ago go, maracas, claves, djoung djoung, and more! Experience the talent of this master percussionist... Highly recommended! (LR114) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Stacey Fox Terra Drums (Double Set)

Based in Tempe, Arizona, this multi-talented drummer's areas of expertise are North Indian tabla, Latin American conga, West African dambé, talking drum, brikels, Irish bodhran, orchestral timpani and percussion and Japanese maimbo. So, it's no surprise that on this 1995 double release she explores a worldwide variety of rhythms. With help from a few guest percussionists, she performs 15-minute jams of West African 4/4, 7/4, and 6/4 beats with congas, dambé, arriké bells, bongos and brikels; a gallop rhythm with dambé, congas and maracas; samba with requinto, congas, garza and auto; funk and a few others. 2 full hours of rhythm; the next best thing to a live percussion group for dance and movement; a percussion lover's and dancer's dream! ## Ubaka Hill Dance the Spiral Dance

Think danceable, think upbeat. For long-time fans and new... for dancers, drummers, and all those needing inspiration to get up and MOVE... this highly-anticipated 1998 release is a must! Ubaka has drawn together a bevy of talent; in addition to the ShapeShifters ensemble, master drummer Edwina Lee Tyler guests on several tracks; and over 20 women percussionists of the Drumming Orchestra participate on The Singing in the Stencil. Many tracks here are chants, tribal improvisational in feel, and there are a couple of outstanding instrumentalists. From Story, an absolutely phenomenal dambé duet between Ubaka and Edwina, to Suhir Blackbeagle's funky intense Womyn Unite, to the joyful title track which reminds us how to use power to heal, you can't help but feel inspired to join in. And, we highly recommend that you do! (LR118) CS: 15.98 CD: 15.98

Ubaka Hill ShapeShifters

In 1995, one of the most dynamic performers anywhere on earth finally released her debut album, on Ladyslipper Records! We've never had to make requests for a single artist over so many years! Ubaka is a fiery, passionate, and radiant drummer/charmer/singer whose performance builds bridges and transcends boundaries while elevating the spirits of all who hear — her music is intensely woman-identified, life-loving, transformative, spiritual, and revolutionary, blending song, poetry, and rhythm into a heady brew. Motherbeast joyfully brings to life the exuberant imagery of women dancing down through the centuries. Night Flight, an evocative performance piece which incorporates the chant Spirit of the Wind, is a perfect vehicle for Ubaka's depth, artistry and grace; her intense rendition of the Jayne Cortez poem If the Drum Is a Woman will send chills down your spine; in Hugh Masekela's Marketplace, she exalts the beauty of a woman she meets and spends a night of ecstasy with; and her trademark The Womyn United ("shall never be defeated/divided") is energizing and inspirational. Also includes a few fantastic percussion instrumentals for movement and dance. Our highest recommendation here — it deserves to go platinum! Warning: be prepared to experience an uncontrollable urge to buy a drum and join a drumming circle. (LR116) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Amy Williams

Voices from the Temple Within

0607

Trained in classic opera, Amy Williams had not originally intended to write music. A licensed massage therapist and Reiki healer, she began "toning" on her massage clients to soothe and heal them. Soon the tones transformed into chants and then into the songs that are on this 1995 album. Her soprano voice sings out praises to angels, the Lord, Mother Goddess, The Maker, Great Spirit, Earth Mother and the Light. Her combination of acappella performances (Invocation) and songs accompanied by subtle piano, synthesizer and harmony vocals (Earth Mother) yields an unusual album that speaks to the soul. (TMP1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Andrea Lyman

Return to Remember

0319

Even more beautiful than her first tape, she calls this one a musical map, a journey of remembrings...and indeed something here seems to spark some ancient recall. Very female, ritualistic, and powerful, the songs and chants by this white student of healing and wholeness, earth stewardship and Native-based spirituality are passed to the Divine Mother and Mother Earth in Her various forms. It's again a source of new chants, as well as an absolutely gorgeous blend of instrumental tone colors and lush vocal textures, woven into a shimmering tapestry of light. Includes Goddess of Fire, She Alone They Sing Over, Earthing, Gaea, Ancient Voices, and more. 1994. (MB2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Angels of Venice

Awake Inside a Dream

0514

This 1995 album is like a rich, velvet-lined treasure chest of musical jewels! The addition of guest vocalists (along with the hurdy gurdy, oud, Irish bouzouki, recorder, Chinese bamboo flute, hammered dulcimer, udu, nagada, dundun, and Moroccan clay drum) creates a mystical, exotic album that ignores musical borders. Harpist Carol Tatum wrote many of the songs, inspired by photos of China (China Moon), the film Braveheart (Lionheart), and French pianist Erik Satie (Light at the Edge of the World). She also arranged A Chantier Mer, the only surviving piece of French medieval troubadour music (12th century) written by a woman, Comtesse Beatrice de Dia. Absolutely recommended! (EPH1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Music for Harp, Flute, and Cello

These three women—Carol Tatum, Suzanne Tang, and Sarah O'Brien—state that they are dedicated to expressing through music, the beauty and mystery of the human spirit and celebrating the gift of life. One way they express beauty and mystery is to defy convention and perform in white instead of traditional black. And although their 1995 album opens with the well-known Pachelbel's Canon, it immediately moves beyond what we already know to break new ground with all original pieces, with the exception of the traditional Greensleeves. Includes Night Spirits, Luna Mystica, The Enchanted Forest, Dreamcatcher, Romantic and Dreamy! (EPH1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Avalon Rising

Playing Celtic-Medieval-rock-fusion, Avalon Rising is a shimmering original 4-person band. The intricate interplay among Margaret Davis (lead vocals, flute, Celtic Harp, recorder), Kristin Klover (lead vocals, electric and acoustic guitars, mandala, oboe), Doreen McCarthy (bodhran, vocals, bodhran, doumbek, zila, rig, tar, guller) and Beth Mine (bass, French horn, vocals) evokes a blend of Loreena McKennitt and early Grateful Dead. This 1995 release includes both original and traditional songs that range from driving, danceable songs to haunting harp-based ballads. Their lyrics, including some in Medieval French and Portuguese, speak of love and longing, quests and reveals, magic and transformation. Includes Cynthia McQuillen's Dark Moon Circle ("Lady, stay away—Join us in the woodlands"), and their mystical original God Walks Among Us: "She loves us every one, She waits with tender mercy, Until we all come home." Recommended! (FLM002) CD: 14.98

All Libera-lovers and Goddess chant-lovers, listen up! Subtitled Frauen singen Haltungen-und Kraftlieder, this 1995 German import features a 17-woman mostly-acappella ensemble performing 16 of the best-loved Goddess and circle chants—14 in English. You Can't Kill the Spirit (Old and Strong)*. Excellent arrangements; undoubtedly includes a few rounds and chants which will be new to the listener. Truly a demonstration of the global woman's spirituality community. (CWF1) CS: 12.98 CD: 17.98

Caroline Lavelle

Spirit

0513

This lushly beautiful 1995 album feels like taking a warm bath while surrounded by delicate crystals. The sumptuous, velvety sound of her rich voice matches the smooth, intense, and elegant textures of her acoustic and electric cello playing (I love a good cello). She elaborates: "I use cello where other may use guitar or saxophone, it's a lead instrument." A mixture of ambient beats and rhythms, Celtic-tinged melodies and classical structures make this reminiscent of Sarah McLachlan, Loreena McKennitt (who she actually records with— you can hear her on The Book of Secrets), Enya, and Jane Siberry—yet totally fresh and unique. Mostly original compositions washed with strings and synthesizers (with a snaky version of Joni Mitchell's A Case Of You) will take your breath away with their loveliness. Highly recommended! (DIS7028) CD: 15.98

Cecilia

The Voice of Violet 19

The "Voice of the Feminine Spirit" returns with a new album for '97. Based on a mystical novel by Stuart Wilde about the spiritual quest of two young boys for their sister, it is a lavishly orchestrated creation. Cecilia, a Norwegian classically-trained operatic soprano, combines her love of classical music with "songs that express higher ideals, that inspire and elevate the human spirit." Accompanied by a forty-plus choir, coets, French horns, flute, Celtic harp and a wash of keyboards, she sings of a gently majestic vision of star children. (WD410) CS: 11.98 CD: 16.98

Celestial Winds

Moon Songs

How unusual and refreshing, Celestial Winds was a well-known mixed-gender duo until recently when they became an all-female duo...and their 1995 release reflects this new configuration. Lisa Franco, who has been a principal since the beginning, plays electroacoustic Celtic harp, mandolin and Appalachian dulcimer; she is accompanied by Susan Craig on a variety of recorders and flutes. Many of the dreamlike tunes are originals (Adeline's Arms is for Lisa's grandmother; Luna de Amor, Still the Moon and more...), also includes an instrumental version of Ann and Nancy Wilson's Just the Way. (LV32504) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Gallagher

Pregnant Pause

0575

Cheryl is a concert harpist who originally created this 1997 release with mothers and children in mind...though its appeal extends to all who like tasteful instrumental arrangements for harp, sax, woodwinds, flute, cellos and keyboards. Upbeat original tunes like the jazzy Harp Groove are counterpointed with classical or traditional compositions like a 13th century Italian piece, Laude Ad Sancta Medallana, arranged for harp, flute, oboe and keyboard; Amazing Grace (for harp and 2 cellos); Greensleeves (for 4 harp); and the all-time favorite of babies and their moms, Brahms' Lullaby. (GGR5701) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Chloe Goodchild

This 1995 release is a way-spectacular album from an acclaimed voice teacher in England with an unbelievable range! Devil, which means Divine Feminine or Goddess, contains her favorite devotional chants from the Hindu, Christian, Buddhist and Sufi traditions. She multi-tracks her own voice, which spans many many octaves, creating a full-choir sound at times; contemplative, other-worldly, full of grace and power. ## Chloe Goodchild

Sura

This 1996 release from this British-born "Judeo/Christian/Hindu/Buddhist/Quaker" features a stronger rhythmic impulse than her previous work, while continuing to draw upon the world's mystic traditions for source and inspiration: Asia (mythical-hypnotic), Europe (harmonic), and Africa (magical-ritualistic). Includes 3 works by Hildegard von Bingen, celebrating Mary and the Divine Feminine; Everywhere Longing, an ancient Jewish chant combined with the words of Laila, a 14th century Kashmiri woman saint "who lived beyond all religious boundaries"; and the Hindu Gayatri Mantra accompanied by a pulsating Egyptian beat. (RAV1972) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Constance Demby At Alaron

With a synthesizer that sounds like the most glorious pipe organ, and with a psalter, gamelan and cheng, Constance gave a performance in 1983 whose magic and energy have been captured here, and she often played two instruments at once, seemingly effortlessly, overlaying the ensuing rich mixture with her electronically altered voice. This very recommended classic is now at a special low price!! (SC4) CS: 6.98

Deb Criss Inner Chambers

Part of the Sex Temples musical series, this 1996 release weaves, through music, sexual celebration and meditative practices from ancient to modern times. The album focuses on the reaping of the sexual center and the transformation of shame, inhibition and control patterns surrounding sex, to an aware, joyful experience. She utilizes the pathways of Tantra from Tibet and Eastern India, plus Chulekwa-Guodoukwa, shamanist teachings from North and South Americans, regarding the sexual, creative life force. Subtitled Spirit of the Celtic Mysteries, this unusual 1995 recording is a Druid Earth Rite, honoring the Great Mother manifesting as Bridget, that fuses chanting (in both Gaelic and English) with lush, sophisticated neo-classical music. No simple circle-singing here! Grayhawk David Gibney collaborated with magician Helene Hess in creating trance channeling the ritual of initiation, healing and blessings (as with she were credited on the album jacket); he composed the music and conducts the late of Avalon Orchestra. Using Celtic Shamanism and the craft of Magical and Wicca practitioners from both North America and Europe, this is a powerful and transcendent album filled with the Bardic Mystery Choir's beautiful choral accompaniment, with solos by priestesses and priests, and music of wooden flutes, hammered dulcimer, David Darling's cello, and percussion from the Faery Drumming Circle. ### Gypsy Enchantress

Gypsy is a present-day witch/priestess from Salem (no kidding) who writes and performs very magical pagan songs to honor the Goddess and the witches, to cast magic spells, to invoke medicine spirits and world peace. Accompaniment on violin and flute by Kenny and Tzipora Klein. Includes Lady, Two Witches, Magic, Merina's Theme, Medicine Song, and a new solstice song of the Old Religion, Bring Back the Light. Enchanting! (WLP1) CS: 10.98

Incubus Succubus Wytches

NEW!

One of the foremost Pagan bands in the UK, their melodic songs and punchy musical delivery is distinctly Gothic in style on this 1994 import, capturing the vibrant energy of the Craft. Powerful lead vocals by Candie are backed by driving electric guitars, bass and drums alongside acoustic 12-string bodhran and accordion. Songs like title track, Pagan Born, Queen of the May, Dark Mother, Song to Pan tell of joy and the earth's cycles, while The Rite of Maude Brown, Burning Times, Church of Madness ("What do they tell the people? Of their old crusades? Of the women and children impaled on Christian blades") recount the persecution and brutality committed by the historical church. (PMR7) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Jami Sieber Lush Mechanique

We've known about Jami's incredible artistry for a long time now, through her musical associations with Charlie Murphy. Rumours of the Big Wave, and most recently with Fecon. Her 1995 debut solo album of electric cello music is peerless, however, if there is music in the next realm (which I'm sure there is), some of it must sound like this. She describes "lush mechanic" as the meeting of two different worlds — of one giving birth to the other — of them living side by side. The accompanying percussion, along with occasional layers of voice, creates a tribal, vibrant, intense, emotional spiritual, evocative atmosphere, with her exquisite classically-influenced cello tones at the center. What depth and breadth, highly recommended! (OFM1008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Second Sight

This rich 1990 sonic journey weaves the warmth and beauty of Jami's unsurpassable electric and acoustic cello with drums, trumpet, sax, piano, accordion, vocals and nylon-string guitar. Features guest vocalist Rhianon on I Carry You, Julie Wolf on piano on two tracks, and a beautiful poem by Charlie Murphy (one of Jami's longest-term collaborators) entitled Tree of Love. A delicious variety in arrangements too, ranging from the full richness of bass, drums, and vocals plus cello, to the poignant simplicity of solo cello. One of the most talented musicians we know has gifted us with another expression of her art. panache (OFM1009) CD: 15.98

Canticles of Light

Good news: after 10 years, this landmark album of songs and chants is being re-released in 1994! Performed with the Total Experience Gospel Choir, this expression of a pro-feminist, grounded spirituality is harmonious, lively and quite lovely. The lyrics of Blood of the Ancestors, Calling On the Spirits, Light is Returning, and others are empowering and inspiring. Instrumentation is diverse, representing a planetary orientation: cheng, sampona quena, kalimba, star, ocarina, in addition to English horn, cello, guitar and piano. Recommended! Janalea Hoffman
Mind-Body Rhythm

Sensitive to the many sounds we involuntarily listen to daily and the healing response music produces, composer/lecturer/music therapist Janalea adopted music as a healing tool. On her 1990 release, she recorded her original instrumentation (including flutes, strings, acoustic piano and celestial voices) at 50 beats per minute. At that slow, steady beat, the heart and breathing rate harmonizes with each other, resulting in relaxation and reduced stress. Also perfect for massage! (UNY1) CS: 11.95 CD: 15.98

Janalea Hoffman Musical Acupuncture

0304

Janalea developed this innovative concept in Music Therapy, which enables the listener to experience how music can conduct and move energy in the body similarly to an acupuncture treatment — without needles! Particularly effective for chronic pain such as arthritis, back pain, and headaches, as well as for preventive medicine, it features music specially metered at 50 beats per minute. Includes both music with vocal instruction and music alone. It's a beautiful melody (and acoustic) that the second part is also recommended for meditation, deep relaxation, and stress management! Musical Massage

0284

If you're looking for massage music, this is perfect! Created with very beautiful piano, cello, flute, violin and viola — all acoustic — the melody is flowing, soothing, and healing. This music will actually slow the heartbeat of the listener to 50 or 60 beats per minute, as the body tries to synchronize with earthly rhythms. Therefore, the music itself acts as a massage, as your body feels the vibration of the music! Each side has continuous music, suitable for uninterrupted body work. (RMS1) CS: 11.98 CD: 14.98

Jennifer Berezan w/Olympia Dukakis
She Carries Me

This 1995 release is a highly original creation weaving gorgeous layers of vocals and instrumentation — a powerfully evocative and meditative piece of healing music to the Goddess in her many forms. Features Chris Webster, and special guest Olympia Dukakis reciting the Charge of the Goddess; also includes the long-playing pieces Who Hears the Cries of the Wind and title track. Jillian Klari
Womanspirit: Women's Songs & Chants

Ideal for use in women's ritual groups, Jillian self-harmonizes on this lovely 1991 album, some acappella, some to simple drumbeat accompaniment. Her layered vocals are beautiful and crystalline, so even though lyrics aren't included, you can easily learn these songs. Contains several Goddess traditions, such as She's Been Waiting and May the Circle Be Open, plus chants by Z. Budapest and Lisa Thiel, one Seneca chant, and 2 originals by Jillian herself. The track and Blessed Sister. Even though some of these songs are included on other compilations, we recommend this one for its clear sound and the beauty of its production. (JK1) CS: 9.98

Vein of Gold II: Kingdom of Sound

On this 2-cassette set, Julia Cameron, author of the best-seller The Artist's Way, and flutist/composer/sound healer Tim Wheatler join to teach how the energy and magic of sound connect with the energy of the human body — and the act of creation itself. Includes several exercises and "tasks" which teach the theory and practice of using sound to activate energy centers and utilize creativity... make simple healing melodies to create the body... and investigate the silence between sounds as a window to God. 3 hours. Inside the Light

0502

Right away, you'll be blown away by her voice. Katie is a Reiki master, a trained singer with an amazing, angelic alto voice of much volume and perfect pitch, and vocal coach to hundreds of big name rock stars (Anne Lennox, Cyndi Lauper, Phoebe Snow, Carole King, Connie Francis, members of the Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, the Who, Turtles, Beastie Boys, Hooters, and on and on; her list of students is daunting). For this 1995 album, she combines extended ancient Sanskrit chants — Sachana meditations for the Aquarian age — with beautiful original melodies (using keyboards, synthesizer, guitars and bass) to serve to "balance the left and right brain hemispheres". Majestic yet soothing, healing, and recommended. (AUB1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner
A Rainbow Path

0103

Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this 1984 recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready!) flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording. This is one element of its uniqueness, and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Rowe on viola, Marsha Segel on cello, Vivian Stoll on vibraphone, Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. LP includes bibliography and discography for further study. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, many-dimensional experience. (LR103) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sounding the Inner Landscape:
Guided Meditations and Music

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, this special long-playing project is Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path; Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other imbalance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. My Mother's Garden:
Piano Melodies

0119

Kay Gardner is first and foremost a composer of healing music — a pioneer in the genre. Usually she composes for acoustic ensembles, and/or for her own evocative flute — but when she's at work on one of her larger ensemble works, most often you will find her at her piano. On this 1990 release of original neo-romantic piano compositions, Ladyslipper presents a glimpse into the composer in her medium. She performs both works she has composed expressly for the piano as well as ones written for orchestral settings, pared down to their essence. Includes To Elsa (for poet Elsa Gidlow). To Jen (for her daughter), the lush and heart-breaking Rhapsody, Etude (on a 13th Chord) and almost all the pieces from her best-selling A Rainbow Path. (LR119) CD: 15.98

Kay Gardner
Music as Medicine (6-Cassette Set)

On this 1990 6-tape set with booklet, this pioneer in transformative music reveals her unique system for creating melodies, rhythms, and harmonies with the power to heal. She explores 5 healing components of sound, yielding practical methods for supporting the body's own healing strategies at a cellular level, and introduces new explorations of medicine wheels, chakras, anatomy, and wave theory. Skillfully interlacing technical expertise and music samples (some from Ladyslipper titles) with spiritual understanding, she unveils the therapeutic essence of sound, making this potent tool available to all. Kay Gardner
Ouroboros (Seasons of Life)

This 1994 recording is nothing short of a miracle... to tell you all about it would take volumes. Subtitled Women's Passages, this oratorio by Kay for 6 female soloists, women's chorus and orchestra is set to exquisite solo texts by Charlie Hutchins (a woman), and powerful chant texts by Ilse Suzanne. It's a live recording of its premiere performance at the 20th National Women's Musical Festival in Bloomington, IN, and is one of the largest-ever classical productions featuring women musicians: 84 voices, 40 orchestra members. Except it's not classical, in the traditional sense. Performers as well as audience members were often teary-eyed during the performance, they were so profoundly moved. The work celebrates the ages of Woman, with each age corresponding to a holy day on the ancient Celtic calendar (sabbats, equinoxes, Beltane, etc.) is strongly centered in female spirituality, and relates to the birth/death/rebirth cycle. Lush and deeply healing, the music itself is somewhat reminiscent of A Rainbow Path. Stunning performances by soloists Sarahah Carol, Amanda Barnett (Kay's 15-year-old daughter), and so many others (wish we could name them all) are interwoven with majestic choral interludes... this is Kay's absolute masterpiece to date. We're so thankful that the performance was preserved on tape, and proud that we can offer it to you now. Most highly recommended — whether or not you relate to "classical" music! Kay Gardner
Drone Zone

Continuing her pioneering work with the healing properties of music, on this 1995 album Kay employs droning sounds and vibrations that resonate with the soul and the body, using tone to "unpack" and heal. She combines a buzzing Indian tambura with bamboo flute, Amazon insects with ocarina and renaissance pipe organ pedal with concert flute in an Ancient Greek Dorian style, the chant Om, Scottish pipes, a windpiper, a Brazilian berimbau, and an Australian didgeridoo to create a wonderful worldwide spiritual sonic tapestry. Another masterpiece of improvisation from Kay... this summerfall 1992 release brings the full sound and ambience of the Peruvian Rainforest right into your headspace and heart. Alto flute meditations are blended with Kay's own on-site recordings of birds, tree frogs, rainfall, waterfalls, and pan pipes, which she made when she visited the Amazon River with a women's troupe in February of 1992. Evocative, magical, celebratory, remarkably present, almost visual, and again, mystically healing: perfect for relaxation, meditation, and massage work. Pieces include Shaman's Dream, Jungle Morning, After the Downpour, Pink River Dolphins, Waterfall Spirit. And, note sale price on cassettes. (LR111) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Cassettes now on sale! This summer 1993 release is like a magical musical trip around the world. The One Spirit duo is a charismatic collaboration between two masters of their instruments — Kay Gardner on flutes, Nurudafina Pili Abena on drums and percussion — performing original and traditional pieces inspired by global musics and myths from 4 continents. You'll travel through Nigeria, Senegal, Peru, Cuba, Brazil, East India, and North America as you undertake this aural journey. Features a cameo appearance by Brooke Medicine Eagle on the Native American-inspired composition by Kay entitled Medicine Eagle, also includes Mother of Creation, Dance of Strength, The Gypsy Kiss, Silencia, Carnival, Asian Sunset, Happy Life. We welcome Nuru — with her congas, djembe, guaca, dundun, pandero, batáfon, agogo, dumbek, surdo, and rain rattles — to the Ladyslipper label (and promise you'll be hearing more from her in the near future). Exciting, energetic, and meditative all at once. Highly recommended, of course! (LR113) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary, eastern, western, northern, southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1995 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path. Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, Adrienne Torris' piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudalra Pili Adams. But perhaps most important and most notable is Vinditas, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very, very highly recommended! ### Ocean Moon

0235

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special. This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lullabies, which she considers the best piece she ever composed, with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release, which we heartily recommend! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson & Bettine Clemen

Love Song To a Planet

0289

Virtually ignored by the mainstream music industry, Kim probably be one of those composers who graces a relatively small number of us with her magic, then becomes posthumously knighted, or something! We keep saying that each new album is really her best, and it can't be helped, her artistry is perfect on so many levels, one wonders what goddess she pleased to be so blessed. Joined here, on her 14th recording, by the equally prolific Bettine Clemen, for a joyful, reverent, gently loving and creative tribute to our Mother, our home. Flute and harp dance and blend into universal layers of sound, sometimes together, and sometimes joined by cello, bell, synthesizer and percussion, for an experience utterly drenched in grace. Includes Shanti, The Dark Island, Amazing Grace, Day of the Dolphin, and the ambitious Love Song for the Water Planet. Very highly recommended! (INV112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim Rosen & Cathie Malach

Naked Waters

NEW!

The women previously known as Delphys (who brought us Ocean Born) present their 1998 offering, an exquisite blending of poetry, songwriting, pop, and new age that challenges the boundaries of all. Kim Rosen's voice is both passionately spoken and even, at times, rapped. Cathie Malach's deeply spiritual vocals soar through rhythms that range from meditative to danceable... with backing from vocalist Chris White, and instrumentalists David Darling, Paul McCandless, and producer Peter Keller. Never does this innovative work get stuck in traditional ruts or suffer from the lameness of innovation for its own sake. It is a rare feat of art that can soothe, inspire, and challenge all at once, yet this is exactly what these two women have given us. (ESE1068) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Each song invites you to immerse yourself in the deep full sounds, and to remember the gifts and call of the divine Mother. This is an extraordinary album that will refresh and revitalize the spirit and atmosphere of any environment. Highly recommended! (KIV6) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mother Wisdom: Orig. & Trad. Chants

This 1994 album is an invitation to experience the Goddess in some of her many forms. Through original and traditional chants and songs, primal wisdom is shared about connecting to our ancient source, the roots of which grow deep to Africa, Tibet, Greece, the Americas, India and beyond. These evocations to the divine feminine remember a time, past and future, of balance with Mother Earth. Lovely percussion and some sound effects accompany, as well as the 12 voices of 'The Chorus of Powerful Women'. (KIV4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lady Isadora

The Queen of Earth and Sky

Lady Isadora's long-awaited solo effort features songs of love, magic, and Goddess religion in folk, rock, and medieval/Renaissance styles. The use of overdrive on several selections creates striking harmonies and multi-vocal textures. Original lyrics and mostly original melodies, includes Mistress of the Mysteries, The Penelope and the Rose, Lion-Hearted Woman (a ballad about a Witch condemned to be burned at the stake), Ye Birds and Ye Beasts (a vegetarian anthem) and a medley of Yule carols including Our Lady, Green Sleeves. ### Legends of the Goddess

NEW!

This 1998 release brings forth a new perspective on Celtic Goddess music. On this all-original album, this songwriter with a fascination for Celtic and Goddess mythology has blended traditional Celtic and contemporary New Age sounds with folk and pop-influenced lyrics and rhythms to create music full of lush imagery. She counts among her influences such singer-songwriters as Shawn Colvin, and indeed, this work has a distinctively lyrical focus, with such tracks as Morgan's Quest, an exploration of the mythology of the Celtic Bardic Goddess, and Circle of Stone, a very personal take on Stonehenge. ### Tree of Life

0688

Inspired by the Jewish mysticism of the Kabbalah, an ancient oral tradition first recorded in Medieval Spain, the original music on this 1997 release is meditative, soothing and intentionally sound-healing. The Tree of Life myth has 11 spheres, each representing a Divine attribute and a unique tonal vibration; together they form a sacred geometry. Into this context she has organized her 14 original songs, making the mysterious spheres accessible to a listener with little or no background in the Kabbalah. The perspective is very female, with pieces such as Dream of the Goddess, Divine Mother, Shekinah and The Middle Pillar, an ancient sound system for balancing female and male energies within the body. Accompanying her lovely voice are quartz crystal bowl, Celtic harp, Tibetan flute, guitars, piano and strings, recommended! (BBM0087) CD: 15.98

Life Between the Lines

Back by popular demand! When there's so much medicine instrumental music around, how do we communicate that an instrumental album is truly spectacular? We can tell you how you'll be immersed in the passionate, sensual and energetic soundscape of her music, then swept away in an emotional torrent pushing mind, body and soul to its extremes... and hope you'll believe us! A classically trained pianist, she performs her original compositions on a variety of synthesizers, with some accompaniment on guitar, bass, tenor sax and drums. Textured, layered, melodic, with great depth, intensity and sophistication, we highly recommend this 1995 release! (ZP0102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Roots

If you like the piano works of Margie Adam or George Winston, you must buy this! The first solo acoustic piano album from this amazing composer-instrumentalist traces her life's journey back to the roots of her childhood, chronicling her experiences in musical snapshots from early writings to present improvisations. From the restless yearnings of a 17-year-old in the title track, to the alienation of Stranger in a Familiar Land, she submits her life to the listener in music that is direct, soulful and passionate. And her technical prowess is impressive, this 1987 album was recorded live without edits or overdubs. Reflective, evocative, hopeful, inspirational, and highly recommended! ### Triple Aspect

Here's something way different... heavy metal riffs with solid Pagan content — no gentle rounds and circle chants here! This most unique and intense UK import, imbued with ancient craft and religion, is from a British quarter, with lead vocals by Debbie Chapman (the guys do mostly the instrumental things). Title track, almost a half hour, has 5 movements, Overturn, Maiden, Mother, Crone, Full Circle. Others like All Hallows Eve, Holly King tell stories of the Pagan/Celtic Wheel of the Year. Cunning Man was inspired by a 19th-c. Essex man who was considered the most powerful Witch in Britain. "I wield an ancient power! I feel it in my soul! Used for healing! With compassion! NOT for control... We pagans know a sacred truth! To live and love in peace is at... Great lyrics, informative notes, recommended! (PMR9) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

A Circle Is Cast

0001

This 1986 release from this feminist ensemble is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo-Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements; most is a cappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPH002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fire Within

The sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast. Synthesizing their two musical identities — as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual — this 1990 release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German and contemporary American sources. Its primarily a cappella form gives it a very meditative feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here, several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltery, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman, Needs, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Tree Planter's Round, Clear Horizon, Rise Up O Flame, O Virgin Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you — on the Ladyslipper label — Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LR108) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Libana Borderland

On this 1993 release, Libana deftly traverses hemispheres, continents, and borders with a dazzling repertoire of contemporary and traditional World Music. From a lyrical Finnish song of longing to the captivating pulse of Arabic rhythms... the stark poignancy of an Argentinian lament to the raving drumming of the Zar, an Egyptian ritual ecstatic dance... Libana's music speaks to the essence of women's inner and outer realities. Compelling rhythms, incomparable vocal versatility, tenderness and strength join to create a musical mosaic of spirited integrity. Includes Djur Djura's Fabel Azimem. Don't miss this! ### Linda Allen

Lay It Down: Images of the Sacred 0651
In addition to offering some earth-centered Goddess anthems, this 1997 release addresses the struggles of Christian feminists, and retells Christian stories from a woman's perspective. Linda's bell-like voice is accompanied by soft piano, guitars and strings on such original songs as Mary, Mary, new lyrics to the old hymn Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing, which is entitled God, I Cannot Call You Father ("God, I know you as a mother! Giving birth to all I am!"). Waiting For the Morning, a song from Mary Magdalene's viewpoint, Womanspirit and Lady River, which weave together women's spirituality with Christianity. Also includes a response to the petition by the Oregon Citizens' Alliance to deny civil rights to lesbians and gays, They're Coming After You, plus Sarajev, featuring Jami Sieber on cello, about a cellist who played on the site of a Serbian bombing to commemorate those who died. ### Lisa Thiel

Invocation Of The Graces 0632
This 1997 collection of magical and powerful song prayers, adapted from and inspired by the Ancient Celtic Tradition, includes new material as well as some of her earlier Celtic works as heard on Songs For My Ancestors. All tracks were recorded in a live performance format, where musicians are playing together in the studio, capturing the essence and spirit of the music: songs include Triple Goddess Blessing, Daughter of the Elements, Jewel of the Night (Chant), Blessings of the Animals. Joining Lisa are Jody Bergama, shamanic artist who lends her knowledge of the healing power of sound to the vocal harmonies; Anna Schaad and her amazing violin; and David MacIntyre on bouzouki, flute and pipes. Filled with inspiration, depth and authenticity, we gratefully welcome and recommend this work. (SD6) CD: 15.98

Lisa Thiel

Rising of the Phoenix
Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected, and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Gateway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. Contains a guide for using the songs for healing and in ceremony. As always, highly recommended. (SD4) CS: 8.98

Lisa Thiel

Lady of the Lake 0112
We proudly welcome Lisa to the Ladyslipper label, for this late 1992 release! Borrowing from traditions as old as music itself, Lisa once again strikes chords that move the body, mind and spirit. She blends her silky voice with ancient rhythms and enlightening lyrics to express messages of beauty, inner peace, and an intense appreciation for the elements of nature. In many ways this release is a journey, as she takes you from the arms of the Great Mother in Divine Mother Chant to the search for truth and beauty in Rune Song. She calls on the spirits of nature in Elemental Song, and leads you to the ultimate acknowledgment that all the love you need lies within yourself. Also includes Mother of Grace, Turquoise Woman, and title track. An uplifting treasure; most highly recommended! (LR112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Thiel/ Ani Williams

Sisters of the Dream
The blending of these two musicians gives us a unique look into the power of nature as expressed through the Great Mother. This 1992 release is a gorgeously sequenced retrospective from previous albums by both artists (see our listings for both artists in this section). This would be an excellent way to sample works by both artists (we're sure many of you'll want to add more of their recordings to your collection), and this is also a magical compilation in its own right. Song For My Ancestors 0396
On this 1995 follow-up to Sisters of the Dream with all new material, these two talented musicians have collaborated to create a stirring tribute of song to the Sacred Ancestors. Lisa's prayers of respect and thanks to her Celtic Ancestors come through in beautiful melodies with striking instrumentation; some of her songs have been adapted from translations of ancient Gaelic prayers. Ani creates soaring music from her Gaelic background that dives deep into the sister circle of our roots to discover our power and connection to all living things. (WW4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Liz Story

17 Seconds to Anywhere
Listening to this brilliant solo pianist is always a veritable religious/spiritual experience — and this 1998 release is no exception. Her first album of original material in over 5 years, it's filled with grace and delight, sparkling like precious gems in the sun. Her notes contain glimpses into her thoughts behind the keys, such as "17 seconds to anywhere is the proposal that once we have begun to dance with quantum reality, it will only take 17 seconds to accomplish what otherwise might have taken hours or years or decades." We'll go for that, highly recommended! (WH11281) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Luscious Trance

The "new tribal music" of Luscious Trance is graced by the voices of Adele Gatti and Lou Montgomery, who write that "the songs are rooted in a vision of the earth and a hope for future generations." Waterfall is a spare but powerful chant to the goddesses ("Mother, you're in everything"). Walk Through the Door is a call for a revolutionary shift for an earth-nurturing world. The Cowp Spirit Song, enhanced by the sounds of birds and shaking rattles, is a lovely prayer to the universe. Crisp production adds to the pleasure of listening to these uplifting songs and chants that stay with you long after you've heard them. (MNM1) CD: 15.98

Marcey

Inward Harmony
Marcey Hamm, a former nuclear engineer, became a healing music technician after a successful experience with alternative healing techniques following her car accident in 1995. Now she composes in a meditative trance in her self-designed computer music studio, and the resulting music is simply otherworldly, celestial choirs, sweeping drone sounds, all very soothing and beautiful. Hundreds of people have come forth with remarkable testimonials about healings and other life changes this album has effected. Listening to this, you'll feel enveloped in a blanket of divine love. Tape is 90 minutes of continuous music, CD is 72 minutes. Recommended! 1995 (MRC1) CS: 13.98 CD: 15.98

Marina Raye

Heart of the Mother
This instrumentalist is an African-born woman of Dutch descent who plays the evocative and haunting Native-inspired flute. This 1994 release expresses the emotions and sounds of Mother Earth, as she takes you on a journey via flutes, nature sounds, keyboards and drumming, from the desert to the ocean, from mountain heights to the rainforest. An especially powerful piece is Taste My Tears, which she composed in California's San Fernando Valley just days prior to the earthquake of 1/94. (NHH1102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mindia Devi Klein

Ragini: Fluted Voice of the Goddess 0331
Ragini, the female Ragas of North Indian classical music, are musical embodiments of different forms of the Goddess. This 1995 rendering of the Raginis Durga and Bhairavi, and the bhajans Jai Ambe (Victory to the Mother) and Jai Jai Bhairavi (Victory to the Goddess) is a rarity, there are few recordings of female musicians performing in the North Indian classical tradition. Mindia Devi, known for her founding work with the ensemble Ancient Future and her fusion of Indian, western and Baines elements, performs on the bansuri, the deeply resonant bamboo flute of India, accompanied by Dana Pandey on tabla, the dynamic and intricate Indian drums. The soft, mesmerizing drone of the tanpura weaves its strings throughout. Fast and furious, playful and joyous, introspective and soothing, the Raginis bring you into the world of Raga, the "coloring of the mind" by the many moods of the Goddess. ## Nancy Vedder-Shults and friends Chants for the Queen of Heaven

Susan Robbins, musical director of Libana, described this program of songs and chants to the Goddess as "a wonderful and varied collection of multicultural and original chants, performed with spirit and conviction, and arranged using a many-colored palette of instrumental and vocal textures." And, we recommend this for all of you who have loved Libana and were searching for something else sort of like them! Containing women's sacred and ritual music from around the world, this 1993 album reflects the richness and variety of many woman-honoring traditions. Material ranges from a celebratory Renaissance procession (with English horn, flute, cello and percussion) to meditative Eastern incantations accompanied by Tibetan bell, from the driving poly-rhythms of an Afro-Brazilian chant to the tranquil Shikuhachi flute of a Japanese song, from simple but haunting modal melodies to complex harmonies by a 9-woman ensemble. ## Radha Sahar Joan of Arc

The exquisite music on this most unique 1996 tribute, which describes the life and times of the devout warrior saint, was composed and arranged by Radha Sahar. Atmospheric and classical pieces, performed on keyboards (by Radha) plus oboe, recorders, cello, violin, whistle and harp, offer a haunting and melodic simplicity that reaches a crescendo of awesome reverence in soaring medieval choral sections. The booklet tells Joan's story (the composer acknowledges Regine Pernoud's book Joan of Arc by Herself and Her Witnesses as a source), relating her persecution for not being "submissive enough" to Church or King. ## Serpentine Darker Than Black

This 1996 release is guaranteed to thrill and delight, as it combines the raw erotic muscle of her debut The First Call (now out of print) with the mesmerizing, mystical power grooves of her follow-up, Rock the Goddess. Her deep space, deep with devotion offers up a sumptuous sonic feast, again in an "Alternative" style: song titles include Divine Vagina, Trembling Angel, She Who Prays On the Winds, Death Star, and a riveting 'live' version of Little Witch House. Serpentine has obviously shed several skins in the making of this; and so may you, when you hear it! (GRR3) CD: 15.98

Serpentine Rock the Goddess

This 1994 release contains passionate, compelling Goddess rock tracks, delivered in an unexpected neo-punk style. It is Diamanda Galas (wars it not for the specific content, we'd let this in our Alternative section). Most are fascinating originals such as Ride My Broom, Hentia-ha, I Am Your Husband, Into the Cauldron, Vicious and Little Witch House, but the traditional We All Come From the Goddess (here given the title Rock the Goddess) is given an electric treatment which magnifies its intensity and interest. ## Shawna Carol Goddess Chant: Sacred Pleasure

We are beside ourselves, we are so thrilled about the most unique and gorgeous work on our very own Ladyslipper label. This 1995 release elevates the "genre" of Goddess-centered and woman-honoring chants to a new level, rather than simple circle rounds and chants, these are lush, elegant, harmonious, deeply layered original extended choral chants... yet easy to learn and sing with. One senses how these chants emerged from the artist over time, and they invite us to move with her, through this mass-like ritual over and over, centering and expanding. From the joyful and celebratory Sacred Pleasure which many of you already know ("I am the Goddess, I am the Mother! All acts of love and pleasure are my ritual"), to the nurturing Mother's Gift, to the sacred sounds of Blessed Be, to the gospel-infused Praise Her, this music is meditative, inspirational, and awesome. Both we and author Margot Adler — who has danced ecstatically to "I am the Goddess" and has been waiting for this album for years — highly recommend it! (LR117) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Great Mother: Harp & Heartbeat 0624

This 1997 album contains over 60 minutes of tender harp lullabies with a continuous background of mother's heartbeat, to soothe young babies and older ones too! The balance between the heartbeat and harp level was carefully chosen so that the heartbeat is available for those who have ears to hear, and also subtle enough so that the album can be enjoyed as soothing dinner music! The original harp pieces have lovely, nurturing titles like Mother Love, Safe and Secure, Angel Wings, Starry Sky. A perfect gift for new mothers or mothers-to-be, and also highly recommended for relaxation, massage, and prenatal (ATM1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Shelley Snow

Shamaneya

With her exquisite 1997 "invented languages" recording, this vocalist/futurist composer joins the ranks of Enya and Miriam Stockley (Adiemus) — she has created a deeply beautiful sound with a made-up language that sounds ancient, sacred, and magical. 8 of the 10 songs here are in this original tongue, with titles such as Emerging Goddess, A Mother's Cry for the Earth, Lullaby, expressing a deeply female sensibility and spirituality. The instrumentation is elegant and gorgeous: violin, piano, percussion, etc. She took a risk here, and we hope you will too, by giving this your ear. recommended! (SMY1110) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kim double-tracks harp over her keyboard, and with Singh Kaur's voice, the result is not of this earth. It's floating bodiless in the galaxy. (INV306) CS: 9.98

Singh Kaur & Gary Stadler

Fairy NightSongs 0747

Ladyslipper has listed works by the incomparable vocalist Singh Kaur since 1996, when she and Kim Robertson collaborated to create the Crimson extended chary series (among the first extended charys ever recorded). Sadly, she passed away in 1998 of ovarian cancer — a month or so before the release of this title — and we will really miss her and the gift of her music. It's a fact that her music has helped more than one slipper through a rough personal time. On her last recorded work, her heavenly sweet voice combined with Gary's magical keyboard style. They take the listener deep into the mystical world of the Fairy night, with haunting melodies, tender lullabies and timeless visions of the Celtic Fairy tradition. Highly recommended! Sophia

This 1994 album is a prayer of celebration for the Goddess in all her glorious aspects, from angelic to erotic. The title track is a Sotia song; Shakti calls upon Spirit, Fire, Earth, and Sea to dance with us; and Laxshmi is a devotional chant to the Goddess of Abundance, Love, and Beauty. On what is probably the most surprising track, Sophia also honors the Goddess manifestation of artist Annie Sprinkle with Anya! Her heavenly voices are carried on exquisite orchestration featuring gifted soloists (Jas Uttal on dotar and Steve Gorn on bansuri flute), as well as exotic percussion. An ethereal album that conjures up both yearning and salvation! (IMR6794) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Starhawk, Reclaiming & Friends

Let It Begin Now

Subtitled Music From the Spiral Dance, this 1992 release features 11 songs which follow the structure of the Spiral Dance ritual, an annual tradition in the Bay Area celebrating the festival of Halloween as well as Starhawk's book The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Ranging from acappella harmonies to full chorus and instrumentation, this music is intended to be shared and sung by all who wish to broaden their understanding of Halloween. Written and performed by Starhawk and the Reclaiming Collective, women and men working to link earth-based spirituality and eco-feminist politics, and friends. (REC2) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

From the Mother

0706

Subtitled Songs of the Sacred Feminine, this 1997 recording is a beautiful exploration and celebration of female imagery through the world's spiritual traditions and texts: Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Tibetan Buddhist and more. The opening track, This Is My Body (a communion song from the Mother) is alone worth the price of the album, for any woman for whom the Christian ritual of communion may have had deep meaning in the past (and/or present). Her song gives the ritual a new meaning which makes perfect sense — in a woman's spirituality context. The spirited closing track, Ruach, references Hebrew Scripture, and Stechman from the mystical Kabbalah. Some songs are chant-like, some in Spanish, utilizing several musical styles and delivered in her strong and lovely voice. Highly recommended! (MLR104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker

Rosa Mystica

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 20th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Triple Crescent

Music Celebrating the Goddess

What a wonderful melding of women's music and women's spirituality! And, of course, any album which contains the classic song Amazon by Maxine Feldman — a precursor of both the women's music and culture movement and women's spirituality movement, and the song which still opens the Midpian Festival every year — has a place in our catalog! The trio (Norma Jean Burton and Jade on vocals, Barbara Chusid on keyboards) performs Willie Tyson's stunning Witching Hour, Charlie Murphy's The Burning Times, Judee Sill's beautiful Lady O (old times: stretch your memories, now, back to Ginn Clemmens' first album), Karen Mackay's Arms of the Goddess, Ruth Barrett's Every Woman Born, and more... all truly classics of classics! This is a must-have for the priceless, precious material contained herein! (TRC1) CS: 9.98

Invocation

This exquisite 1997 collection of medieval chant, ambient electronics, and healing music spans many centuries, cultures, spiritual traditions, and musical genres (as well as the genders). For instance, the brilliant young English composer/vocalist/multi-instrumentalist Jocelyn Pook is represented in OpenHeaven, a work that in just a few minutes, evokes ancient Hindu scripture, the Latin Requiem, and Jewish laments, all in a haunting electroacoustic landscape. Naim Ni Rian and the monks of Glenstal Abbey bring the ancient tradition of Celtic sacred song into the 20th century. The Buganran Women's Choir and the Hillard Ensemble of London present very different lullabies. Fans of Kate Bush may be startled to find that they recognize a traditional Gregorian song performed by the American vocal group Kaviyana. Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan, the great singer in the Sufi mystical style known as qawwali, collaborates with a Gregorian chant ensemble from Italy... all this and more, for contemplative times during the holiday season and beyond. (SIX7825) CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Sounds Like Love

With a woman's touch, some of the very best female contemporary pianists deliver a collection of some of the world's most famous romantic love songs. (RS0370) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Zingia

Beneath the Veil

An ecstatic trance... a Goddess dance. Katiya Braune, luminary of the Goddess tradition, and her instrumentalist husband Michael collaborate on this evocative and lovely 1997 debut release. "It was conceived and born in the love of its creators as a hymn to the Goddess. Each song is a call to the Eternal Divine Feminine, a call to the Dance which inspires the heart. It is the music of Shakti, the mysterious force of Life Giving Love." On tracks like She Beckons, Veil of Inanna, and Sirens of the Moonlit Tide, they artfully weave together exotic rhythms and percussion, Katiya's poetic spoken-word invocations, tribal and ambient sounds, and modern magic to create a new music of the ancient mysteries. Especially recommended for Middle Eastern-oriented creative dance! (SEQ102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women's Music ~ Feminist ~ Lesbian

Alice Di Miele Demons & Angels

0684

On these acoustic alternative tunes from the Northwest indie days, the singer-songwriter's octave-leaping voice recalls Rory Block's in its gorgeous elasticity and Tracy Chapman's in its warm resonance (East Bay Express). Her kick-ass band — which includes June Millington, drummer/percussionist Janette Burdell (O Cuckoo), Shelley Phillips and Froyda Epstein — gives a passionate performance on this 1998 release, the album Alice has always wanted to make. Love the edgy Witch's Magic ("stitch in shining armor come to save me make me pure..."), the bluesy Do You Dare ("I need a woman who knows where she belongs"), and the redemptive Alive, Awake (ADM106) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alice Di Miele Naked

This 1994 release was recorded live, in studio and concert, to capture the spirit of her performances. Her wide-ranged voice is at its best here, with a variety of styles, from the folksy Bring Back the Rain to the jazzy If I Could Move the World to the hilarious TV Song. Includes live 2 women-identified blues numbers with the terrific jazz guitar of Mini Fox, and 2 tunes with violin. Topics include love, personal healing, activism, traveling, and defending diversity. Acoustic music doesn't get any better than this — highly recommended! (ADM105) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Alix Dobkin Living With Lesbians

This outrageously funny yet warm and wise tribute to lesbians contains not only words of support, but the sweet voice of Alix. Trained in Babel singing by Ethel Raim, Alix has incredible control over her voice, and utilizes it well on her own songs & a few traditional Balkan ones. Original compositions feature her on guitar with all-woman back-up singing to & about lesbians. Includes Mary B., Good Old Dora & Amazon ABC ("a saucy romp through the zebra alphabet") (WWA002) CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin Love & Politics: A 30 Year Saga

Basically a Best of Alix collection, this 70-minute summer 1992 release documents Alix's life in songwriting — and the landmarks of her life which inspired those songs. It's well balanced, with 20 songs spanning 1962-1992: six generic love songs, six specific love songs, six political analysis songs, and two "inspirational," one generic and one specific. In addition to some of everyone's favorites, she includes a brand-new recording of the previously unreleased, very controversial My Lesbian Wars... plus a 1970 pre-lesbian recording of Shinn! Through which gives great perspective on her journey — one that parallels that of many lesbian-feminists. This release coincides with her first year off the road in 2002, making it especially precious. Includes The Woman In Your Life, Amazon ABC, Lesbian Code, Over the Banks, Some Boys, Crushes, 14 more. Absolutely recommended! (WWA007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin, Kay Gardner Living With Lavender Jane

At long last, releasing in winter '97, two absolute and essential Women's Music classics on a single, double-length CD: Lavender Jane Loves Women, within weeks of its 1973 release, swept women off fences and out of closets. With delight and disbelief, they passed the records from hand to hand, or sent them speeding across oceans and continents. Everywhere women listened, amazed, to songs which actually verbalized the previously unthinkable joy and pride of Lesbian consciousness and identity. Alix's equally wonderful Living With Lesbians soon followed. This appearance of women-centered culture signaled the end of women's historical isolation and silence, and provided structures to voice the exuberant spirit and outlaw perspective of an idea long overdue. You've been needing to replace that vinyl anyway — treat yourself to this vital piece of history! (WWA001/2) CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin Yahoo Australial Live from Sydney

Note sale price on cassette! This wonderful release was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Unting Alix's identity as a world folk singer (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australial, Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Husbands, The Girls Want To Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very highly recommended! (WWA008) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Alix Dobkin, Kay Gardner Lavender Jane Loves Women

Includes The Woman In Your Life & You, Talking Lesbian & View From Gay Head (WWA001) CS: 9.98

Barbara Higbie I Surrender

0580

This long-anticipated 1996 release from the Grammy-nominated, critically acclaimed singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist has been well worth the wait! Accompanied by guitarist Nina Gerber, vocalist Chris Webster and a host of others, she presents a warm and lively mix of songs and tuneful instrumental originals, full to the brim with soulfulness, heart and joy. Hopefully some of you have witnessed her performance at one of the '96 "Three of Hearts" shows, with Margie Adam and Liz Story. (SLB82211) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Betsy Rose Motherlight

Betsy is a singer-songwriter whose music we have respected for a good 20 years... we're quite glad to see her back in the recording world. Her first release since before the birth of her son Matthew in 1992, it contains new music from the heart of parenting, in which her connection to earth, consciousness and her years of activism thread through her songs, fueling her awakened love of a child with a passion for "a world worthy of our children." Includes Mama's Milk, a rollicking barnhouse tribute to breast feeding (with hot piano by Barbara Higbie) — and a tip of the hat to La Leche League; Barnmother, a deeply personal song of a teenage birth and loss; and two meditative songs based on the teachings of Thich Nhat Hahn. This 1997 release is a beautiful reminder that nurturing the future is a sacred path. (PC48) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Candye Kane Diva La Grande

Delivered with humor and sensuality, the songs from this 1997 release will make you laugh ecstatically. In a vaudevilian rock-a-billy bluesy style, this singer/songwriter (known to some for her flamboyant, outspoken X-rated past) performs mostly original compositions, with lyrics addressing social issues like sexism, sexism, censorship and homophobia. She declares in the song, The Lord Was a Woman that "When you say your prayers at night, Call the Goddess and get it right," also includes I'm in Love With a Girl, the raucous All You Can Eat (and You Can Eat It All Night Long), You Need A Great Big Woman. And, the marvelous vocal talents of this Diva La Grande won't be overshadowed by the campy, comedic performances - this woman can sing! Great cover too, co-created with Annie Sprinkle, Taste a Little of This Candye, she's great for the body and soul. (DS174710) CD: 16.98

The balladry of This Love features the pure acoustic sound of wood and steel. Wash yourself clean with inspiration, melt into a tender love ballad, and heat back up with their bluesy country and rock — it's all here! (COM003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which every of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour, Celebrity Jane, "good-time cowgirl romp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways... and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably A&R ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! 1989 (SW22013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson
Wolf Moon

The varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout. From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kase Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("No longer the lone wolf"), to the title song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show. Also Goodnight Marjorie (Morrison), for Natalie Wood. Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence, and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (OL355) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Recommended! (OL353) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

NEW!

Diana Jones
The One That Got Away

On her 1996 recording, her beautiful alto voice wraps around you like a blanket, with lyrics that put color back into faded memories. This collection of 10 engaging songs was crafted with the storytelling of a folk artist, and choruses big enough to bridge the gap between folk and pop. The title track has been her most sought-after, off-requested song, even before her first album was released — so no longer is this the song that got away. It's finally here for you to enjoy again and again! (NEW2) CD: 15.95

Diana Jones

Fem 2 Fem
Animus

In 1994, this group excited and aroused the minds and ears of the lesbian community — and the American public — both with their music, and by speaking on the subject of lesbianism on TV, radio, on tour and on the news. They returned with this 1995 follow-up album, which captures their trademark sound while highlighting their growth as a group — a compelling mix of both high energy pop tracks, which made the group a dance floor favorite in the clubs; and sultry ballads with erotic and sensual lyrics. Includes their first single, Where Did Love Go. "Cut out," don't wait! (TIG18429) CD: 13.95

Ferron

This 1992 in-concert album, subtitled Live at the Great American Music Hall, contains selections from all her previous releases of vocal music, including her 1970's releases Ferron (I Am Hungry) and Ferron Backed Up (Light Of My Light, Call Me Friend, and Dear Mary). Also includes a couple of selections not included on any albums: the concert favorite I Know A Game, and Shady Gate, plus live versions of songs from Testimony, Shadows On A Dime, and Phantom Center. 56 in all. A great retrospective of her songwriting career, and a chance to enjoy her in a more personal way than the studio recordings afford. (CW007) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Ferron
Shadows on a Dime

This Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite, very highly recommended! (CW004) CS: 9.95

Ferron
Testimony

There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter, hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyric, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock 'n' roll. Her testimony: "By our lives be we spirit... by our hearts be we woman... by our eyes be we open... by our hands be we whole." (CW003) CS: 9.95

Ferron

Driver

In Ferron's own words: "The road may go on forever but it is easier if we remember that the vehicle may change... From the opening song called Breakpoint, the Invocation to perfect love, to the last song Maya, the dedication to actual love, this album of 10 songs is an exploration of how change and commitment interact with each other and with approved meaning in our lives... I asked myself, and each of the 12 musicians, to play as though we had already got to where we were going and craved nothing more than to stretch out and hold sacred the joy of the song. There is a place in each of the songs where I forget where I am, very much like what sometimes happens when we drive and think." Lyrical, lots of depth, layers and substance on this 1994 release, as usual, and as always, very highly recommended. (EB42544) CS: 10.95

Ferron

Many songs were re-recorded and/or re-mixed for the new version; guests include the Indigo Girls and Toni Amos. Francine and Nymiah

The self-titled 1997 debut by these West Coast earth-loving wild women with guitars is a testimony to their love of Life, Truth, Women and Earth. Here is a marvelous tool for reconnecting your thoughts with personal and planetary healing. More than music, this is magic! This captivating collection of original songs ranges from the driving rhythms and blatant political messages of Fallen Rainforest, Liberty and Justice, to the introspective and melodic soul-searchings of All She Wants to Be is Free and Journey. Believe in magic with these provocative singer/songwriters! (FNN13) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Girls in the Nose

One of our top "picks" of the last decade, and way cheap too! Wild, raunchy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 5-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wider persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hut, Prisoners of Pantyhose ("So here's some advice from Girls in the Nose Women unite, take back your nose! Take them back to the damn store... Let nylons be bygone!"), and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (GIN1) CS: 8.98

Origin of the World 0234

Wherever these girls blow their nose, audiences hold out their handkerchiefs for a distinctly different musical point of view! Nine great songs from one of our all-time favorite bands, kickass lesbian rockers from the Lone Star State whose philosophy loosely translates as Viva la Vulva or Feminism for the Fearless... This 1992 release contains Breast Exam, More Madonna, Less Jesus, Pink Guitars, Madusa, Sodomus, Incongruity, and more, singing to and with sensuality, passion and humor... don't even think of missing this pro-choice, pro-homo recording! CD's very limited quantity, please list alternative. (GIN2) CS: 6.98 CD: 16.98

Halcyon

I'm Naked and I'm Going to Paris

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies, ringing acoustic guitars, catchy tunes and upbeat rhythms. Their 1994 release is just in time for fans hungry for more, after their successful debut and festival tours, here with bass/drum/percussion accompaniment. Stephanie Callahan and Debbie Hunsicker write their songs primarily around the post-love theme in its various manifestations, as well as the more political Fire in the Church and Wait For You, about the patience and persistence of love. (HAL1001) CD: 15.98

Slightly Confusing to Strangers 0258

Expanded instrumentation on their 1995 album takes them even farther than their last release: Electric guitar solos add intensity to the competing, personal, political I Tell You Who I Am, and keyboards add dramatic flair on The Story. Good intentions have an scapella introduction so soulful it hurts! Eleventh Hour shows that their folk-rock is as upbeat as ever. They branch out into a rockabilly sensibility with Innocent Blues, then into a funky style in Dreams From Reality, with a little help from a wah-wah pedal. (HAL1002) CD: 15.98

Heather Bishop

A Taste of the Blues

This 1987 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for... that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seduced, Leslie Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armatrading's Taking My Baby Upstairs (with a pratty person on my arm), Carolyn Brandy's Spirit Healer, and many originals... Simultaneous (sleazy, fine production, excellent artist, wonderful woman. (MOP006) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Daydream Me Home 0093

A rollicking, rousing and romantic "thinking person's" recording, this 1994 release follows in the tradition of Old, New, Borrowed, Blue of which Heather's review said, "individually and collectively these are love songs for a pianist and a people." Songs include the tongue-in-cheek If You Leave Me Dartin' (Can I Come Too?), the compelling spiritual Dream Line Special, Ann Mortifee's stirring Born To Live, and Kim Baryluk's song about a woman growing into her own sense of power and purpose, Warrior. (MOP010) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Old New Borrowed Blue

This 1992 compilation has all of these elements! OLD: 2 or 3 selections from each of Heather's albums for adults; Walk That Edge, A Taste of the Blues, I Love Women Who Laugh, Celebration, and Grandmother's Song. She's included favorites she has written, like Break My Heart, If You Love Freedom, and Yukon Rain. NEW: 5 newly-recorded songs, including Ancient Cry and Yes To Life. BORROWED: songs like Old Jesus Have a Baby Sister? and Nothing Like the Freedom. BLUE: Tell Me More, Do I Move You?, and more. 19 songs, about 70 minutes in length, and timely since her early albums are going out of print, lots of her best work here, very recommended! ### Hang In There

This classic, pivotal, essential 1973 debut release by the beloved singer-songwriter is still available in limited quantities, during a time when almost all her solo releases are disappearing off the face of the earth, as fond but out-of-print memories. So all you collectors, archivists, and women's and protest progressive music devotees, don't wait to nab yourself a copy! Recorded after a visit to Viet Nam during the war, it reflects her anti-war, anti-imperialist and beginning feminist consciousness, and a concern for oppressed people worldwide. Includes No More Genocide, Birthday Children, and a song performed by a choir of Viet Namese women. (RR3300) CS: 10.98

With a Song in My Heart

Holly shares with us her 1997 recording of 14 songs from the 30's and 40's — that era of great songwriters like Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, Fats Waller, Rogers and Hart. She says, "Definitive versions of these songs have already been recorded by Ella Fitzgerald, but they are worth singing again, to keep them alive, to keep some sweet innocence in our revolution, to share with our parents — those who have disapproved of us, those who have envied us and those who have mentored us." And it's true, Holly's mother was wowed by it, its simple production (voice plus John Buchholz's piano only) makes it sound as if Holly is singing right in your own living room! ### Imagine My Surprise!

Holly's most woman-identified album contains some funky country-style music, inspiring political stories, beautiful musical and vocal arrangements by Meg Christian, and a sweet lullaby. Includes title, Mountain Song, Kentucky Woman, The Woman in My Life, You Bet I Sing Love Songs, Rock Me in Your Arms, Nina, Fight Back! (RR401) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Don't Hold Back

Very limited quantity, dailyn' not recommended... Holly seems to present her listeners with one surprise after another, and this 1987 album is no exception! An entire volume of love songs: passion, heartbreak, and sheer fun... with hot arrangements and guest vocals by Bonnie Raitt, Linda Tilley, and Kenny Loggins. If you like the energy of contemporary radio and wish you could hear your favorite artists on it, you can rock out with this! (RR413) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Fire in the Rain

Holly's incredible talent as a singer/songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (who also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this classic album has a light arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as Golden Thread, Voices, & a remake of My Man's Got Trouble called I Got Trouble. Out of print, limited quantity. (RR402) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Journeys

This representative sampling from her first six albums was compiled because so many folks, new to her music, asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of I Could Have Been Me. Out of print, and very limited quantity. (RR405) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Sky Dances

This 1989 folk, intimate, emotion-filled release features Holly at her best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Fernon (Teasimory), Bernice Johnson-Reagan (They Are Falling All Around Me), Phil Ochs, Melvyn Reynolds, as well as Holly herself... Plus her inimitable interpretation of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. (RR8902) CS: 10.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert

This Train Still Runs 0501

The magic is still there! It's been more than a decade since these two magnificent singers joined forces and recorded their first album, Lifeline... This 1995 collection features passionate duos and stunning solos from these long time artists, activists and cultural workers who have touched and transformed many lives. 19 tracks in all, including When I'm Not Near the Girl I Love, More, Features of Plenty, Agitator, Home Is Where the Heart Is, Music in My Mother's House. ## Holly Near/ Arlo/ Ronnie/ P. Seeger

HARP

Historical folk music at its best, this live recording is again available, but in limited quantity. Bridging the gap between generations, Holly, Arlo Guthrie, Ronnie Gilbert and Pete Seeger (2 original members of the Weavers) share a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. ## Jamie Anderson

Never Assume

This favorite women's music performer's 1995 album delivers what her fans (and we) have come to expect: outrageously funny stories of true life adventures and touching ballads of life and love, all told with her evocative vocals. The title track challenges a few preconceived ideas: Midnight Alice is inspired by a teenage love affair — with a cat. The true story of breast cancer, One Out of Three, is a strong, positive song with starting honesty and hope. Tell us the tale of growing up with family secrets... And what Jamie Anderson album would be complete without a few songs to make you laugh out loud? Menstrual Tango and When Cats Take Over the World will do the job. (TSU1005) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Bad Hair Day

0321

This late 1993 release features some of Jamie's funniest songs ever! Tell us, a Ladieslipper personal favorite, looks at a problem we've all had at one time or another, while Sweet Maiden is simply a dandelion folk song. Wyndy, Why Not? has a full Nashville sound, and Love Song is a look at some of the music we survived during the 70's; both these songs were produced by Lisa Koch of Venus Envy and Des Faliopolis. Together with songs from her first two albums, classics like Nothing (I'm nothing without you) and I'm Sorry (a song of condolences for heterosexuals), this comedic collection will brighten even your worst hair day. Highly recommended! (TSU1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Global Village

0064

This 1995 release is as close to Judy's alt-country performance style as any of her prior recordings, voice with guitar and fiddle as the principal instruments. The songs reflect a mature reflectiveness, with just the right mixture of pathos, humor and politics. Includes Music in the Movement, a tribute to all women singers and songwriters who have nourished the women's movement in the last few decades; Love is a Fearome Thing, a ballad about people persecuted for falling in love outside of the socially accepted parameters; and What Was Her Name which celebrates the centenary of women's suffrage in Australia. (CRA008) CD: 16.98

Second Wind

Cassettes on sale! On this 1993 album, she collaborates with pianist/composer David Bates, whose background is strongly influenced by jazz, and the result brings a new sophistication to Judy's composition. And, she goes to come out from behind her guitar! The songs still reflect her concern with matters of conscience, they speak of love, tell stories about people's lives with which others can identify, and sometimes poke gentle fun at a world that at times takes itself too seriously. Includes Daughters of the Second Wave, Life Begins at Forty, Sacred Ground, Man Among Men, Lunch in a Modern World and Maddy Prior's Woman in the Wings. Truly demonstrates this coming of age of a fine Australian artist. (CRA008) CS: 6.98 CD: 16.98

The Best of the 80's

This wonderful 1993 retrospective contains some of the best material — 17 songs! — from Judy's first 4 albums: Mothers, Daughters Wives, One Voice in the Crowd, Home Front, and A Natural Selection. Song titles include The I.P.D., The Family Maiden Aunt, Women of Our Time, From the Lantano To the Wolf. In addition, she includes her popular but never before recorded song for recessionary times, Ordinary People. It's a lot of great songwriting for the money! And, watch for Judy on tour in the states, US Immigration Service willing. (CRA007) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Julie Wolf

Walk The Worn Out Floor

0585

I've seen Julie play piano and sing with the exquisitely goofy Lisa Koch, the boisterous Laura Love, and the fireball Teresa Trull. Her musical talent and deep, well-phrased voice have always seized my attention — and now that I've heard her 1995 solo album, they show no sign of loosening their grip. It is an intimate recording. Julie's piano and tubs of accordion (what a dream girl!) tastes of Jani Sieber's cello and Hans Teuber's flute and sax, and, of course, her singing. From standards like My Foolish Heart to Elvis Costello's harrowing Baby Plays Around, to Keith Jarrett's My Song (with lyrics by Rhannon), to the blues of Someone Else is Steppin' (with background vocals by Laura Love), to her original The Walk, Julie takes us on a wonderful jazzy trip. I just swoon. Recommended! (PAL30) CD: 14.98

June and Jean Millington

Ticket to Wonderful

This long-awaited 1993 release is the Millington sisters' best work yet. They combine their Philippine island roots, elevated lyrics and a folk-rock sensibility (honored in the 70's with their pioneering work in Fanny, the first all-woman rock band to achieve international prominence) to create a unique World Beat blend of island consciousness and rock-hippy global rhythms. Original songs range from the upbeat and passionate Lighting the Night, to the crisp and hauntingly beautiful Indigo Skies, to the playful Goin' to Hawaii, to the playful Family (World of Love). (FAB707) CD: 15.98

Justina & Joyce
So Strong

Here's one customer's testimonial: "This is a truly great recording! The best one I've ever purchased from Ladyslipper, and that goes back to your first year (and some great artists)! Rich, dark, imbric and sweet harmonies characterize the magic this duo works. Each song rings with an uncommon emotional depth and vocal beauty, not to mention gorgeous acoustic instrumentation and an exquisitely clear recording. The original song, Deer Rain, moved this reviewer to tears just reading the lyrics! These women have a true gift, and we're grateful they've chosen to share it with us. Includes Dark Eyed Molly, a lovely Celtic ballad, the anthemic Affirmation, which states 'No I will not let you down, I will not submit! I will not quit, I will resist...' a moving cover of Patron's Tesimory, and a traditional Latinista chart, Amor Mother. 12 songs in all, each one So Strong, we just can't recommend this 1991 recording enough! (HSR101) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Justina & Joyce
Rhythms, Rhymes and Tides

The 1995 release by this intense vocal duo contains 8 of Joyce's original songs (about love, passion, disappointment, freedom) plus 3 great covers: Marcia Taylor's universally true Why Forgive and Forget (When You Can Remember and Blame), Jamie Anderson's song about breast cancer, One Out of Three, and a gorgeous 16th century acappella motet, Mille Regrets, featuring the sublime voices of Cindy Kallal and Susan Henick. Favorite tracks include the erotic Sip of Water, the moving harmony of A Light To Lead Me Home, and of course the motet. 4 voices suited perfectly for the genre. (HSR102) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

k.d. lang
All You Can Eat

My what a title. Ahem. From the moment you spy the garish faux-industrial, faux-import cover art, you can feel pretty confident that k.d. hasn't dulled off her vinyl cowboy boots for this one. Sure enough, on this 1995 release she has moved far away from the prairie to a place of shimmeringly beautiful and sophisticated pop. This is music that doesn't hit you over the head, rather, it inaudibly gets under your skin and affects you in ways you don't even realize. Sexuality is a slinky yet square-in-the-face come-on. It would be hard to say no. In Aqueduct, I enjoy her repeated imploring commands to do just that, especially since masterful usage of that word is so rare. Like a rich slice of chocolate cake, this is decadent! (SR46034) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang
Drag

This 1997 release is perhaps both the most unusual and the most beguiling to date from our premiere chanteuse. It is a collection of ballads by other writers, all of which center on images of... SMOKING! Investigating the cigarette's musical resonance as an all-purpose metaphor for love, addiction or oral fixation, k.d. has created a lush, languorous album, delivered with an appropriately smoldering vocal passion. Along with such tobacco-themed standards as Don't Smoke in Bed, Smoke Dreams and Love is Like a Cigarette are tunes by Jane Siberry, Dory and Annie Prevlin, Roy Orbison and T-Bone Burnett, along with playfully ironic treatments of The Hollies' The Air That I Breathe and Steve Miller's The Joker. (WB46223) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang
Ingenue

Here's what the blurb sheet from the label said, we agree with it totally! "...the definitive k.d. lang album, a set of ten songs that finds one of the most heartful vocalists on Earth creating music that transcends all categories. The results are unclear. Nothing you've heard before has prepared you for the quality of k.d.'s singing... and the music that accompanies it is a perfect match for the passion in her voice. We could try and describe what it all sounds like until the adjectives dripped off the page. We still wouldn't be any closer to capturing the essential beauty and mystery of this record. You'll simply have to hear it for yourself." She co-produced and co-wrote this 1992 album, which includes Miss Chantalaine, Constant Craving, Save Me (SR26840) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

k.d. lang and the Reclines
A Truly Western Experience

Fortunately we've found an import supply of k.d.'s debut release... it's a great rock-out album (1984) in her earlier style; a couple of the cuts here you may have seen on her video Cropped and Chronicled. Boyskin ("she's my girl"), Hanky Panky, her original Blue and Silver, plus Patsy Cline's Stop Look and Listen and 5 others. No k.d. collection is complete without this! (BUM95) CD: 10.98

Lifted By Love: CD Maxi-Single

Take the original Cowgirls haunting ballad, install it in a silky beat under it and presto! you have yourself a slithering sexy dance song (the Club Xanax Mix). Or, if you rather, turn up the beats-per-minute knob and move your body to the Elevate Your Love Mix. You also get the tropicalized Miss Chantalaine and the enhanced Just Keep Me Moving. Most exquisite, however, is k.d.'s duet with gay boy Andy Bell from the group Erasure on the Diana Ross/Bette Midler '79 classic No More Tears (Enough is Enough)! It's k.d. our new disco diva? Imagine while linen in the surf and you can get all toes of the scintillating drip-dry cover photo. A must-have for any fan! (SR41379) CD: 9.98

Kate Wolf (The Seattle-ite)
Daisy Petals On My Head

Let there be any confusion, this Kate Wolf isn't the California singer-songwriter with the long discography, but rather, she's the Seattle-based talented twin sister of the talented musician Julie Wolf, and this 1998 release is her fabulous debut. Buoyed by classical training, this self-taught bassist and adventurous explorer presents a virtuosic example of her theory of casting the characters for each tune, and then allowing each singer and player arrange their own parts. Her lyrics read like poetry, and the music reveals a strong love of harmony. This cd will definitely quench all of your musical tastes... it is rich in lyrics, and leaving you to hear something new on every whirl! (CK70512) CD: 15.98

Kathryn Warner
True North

What a voice! With the purity of an alto Joan Baez and the richness of Toles, Kathryn Warner is a wonderful gift to church and home alike. Her '95 album has a direct line to your heart and once there it tugs on the strings for all it's worth. Includes the inspirational, following-the-dream Freedom From Here, the redemptive I Remember You, written for a friend who has died, the empowering Survivor-of-domestic-abuse I'm Leaving You and the Ecce-inspired We Are The Women. From blues to ballads, she creates beautiful mini-captives with each song. Highly recommended! (FC101) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Kathy Fire
Songs of Fire/Songs of a Lesbian Anarchist

This veritable classic, first released in 1978, has come back to life! Songs of a Lesbian Anarchist, a certain this revolutionary singer-songwriter's original takes on topics such as what to do when the FBI comes knocking on your door! It was recorded in just one hour of studio time, with improvisational and piano accompaniment by Mojo. Lyrics such as "Get your rapist hands off my shoulder now! Damn your sweet smiling mask of care for me! Fuck your little boy games you characterize I've seen what you've done and I know who you are" (from Mother Paper) recall some of the sentiments of the early lesbian-feminist movement — as personal rage about rape, brutality and oppression translated into political rage. This was part the movement from which early Women's Music and Culture sprang. Historically necessary! (BF6585) CS: 9.98

Kid Sister
Dashboard Buddha

This 1996 release fulfills all of your cravings for girls and their guitars. The Durham-based duo holds onto its folk roots while branching out into spoken word in search of that Perfect Glass Of Tea, and rock with an electric Found Out (about you). Their lyrics create a picture better than any polaroid I have ever taken, particularly in Apocynth. There will definitely be 'faces smilin' and thumbs up 'fingers drawn' for this highly recommended album. If you are not a former fan, you're about to become a faithful one! (KS3) CD: 14.98

Laura Love
Octoroon

"Discovered" at the New York Singer-Songwriter Festival, where she stole the hot off Carnegie Hall, Laura is now playing in the big leagues. She slips into her 1997 major label debut, funk-a-fying with her exquisite-keen yodel and bottom-shaking bass guitar. Bad Feeling slips in a little bit of James Brown and Sly Stone. Can't Understand takes you on a beat ride through the dark swamp while Laura ruminates on racist-hypocrisy. I Am Wondering undulatingly scats along. Amazing Grace, with its acappella intro sliding into some Delta Blues is as powerful as it darn well should be. Miriana's Come As You Are comes up some of its therefore unknown carnal doors. Somebody slip me! Blending socially incisive lyrics with flashes of soultron, steel-guitar, riddie, flute, harmonica, she just keeps getting better. Indubitably recommended! (MER034649) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

The Laura Love Collection

This beautifully-designed compilation contains selections from Laura's 3 albums on her own Octoroon Biography label: Z Therapy, Pangaea, and Helvetica Bold. The Putumayo World Music label, who fell in love with her "Afro-Celtic" style, issued this retrospective in 1994 in the hopes of bringing her music to a wider listenership, and we hope they succeed — she deserves it, and we think she's well on her way to greatness! (PUT118) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Love
Shum Ticky

This as-always-fabulous '98 release contains her trademark blending of African and Caribbean rhythms, traditional acoustic instrumentation, and intriguing harmonies into her form she calls "Afro-Celtic". With distinctive bass playing, her twisting-turning lyrics, and unique mix of instruments, she weaves African and American roots rock into her wonderfully original sound. Some tracks are all new, others familiar to fans: Ana Me A Riddle I'm A Givin' Way, Manboytay Bang Bang (MER058566) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Love
Helvetica Bold

Incredible vocals, amazing African/Bulgarian yodeling and unique, percussive bass playing are featured in a mix of original and novel renditions of well-loved classics... as she layers Appalachian, Celtic, African, and urban American sounds and sentiments into a pastiche of unforgettable melody and groove. In addition to her own tunes, she imprints her style on the folk chestnuts 200 Miles, Wayfaring Stranger, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and possibly the year's best dance party rave, Jackie DeShannon's Put A Little Love In Your Heart. Themes are where we live in the world — how she sees it, how she wishes it were; how she hopes it will be... in her words, "that middle ground between Pollyanna and suicidal." She's one of our favorite artists, so we urge you not to miss this 1994 release. (OB4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laura Love
Pangaea

Fabulous, kickin', polished, vibrant — all these words exemplify this 1992 self-produced release; the vocal arrangements (by Laura and Linda Severi) alone are worth the price of the album! The 14 songs here cover a wide range of issues, but even if she weren't a fine songwriter, her vocal mastery and exuberant spirit would probably be equally captivating if she were reading her grocery list! This is an artist with clear vision, lots of ideas, a great band, and a marvelous set of pipes — there's no excuse if you haven't listened to her yet! Includes All Our Lives, with incredible harmonizing. Nelson, Voices Very highly recommended! (OB3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laura Love
Z Therapy

Laura's 1990 release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band — thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat G! Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos, Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Laurie FreeLove
Songs From The Ninline

She founded the wonder-dyke band Two Nice Girls in the 1980's, then released a critically-acclaimed solo album Smells Like Truth. Since the record companies which released those albums have joined the big distribution center in the sky, this 1997 "recorded live at radio stations" release is the first stuff available from her in a good while... Sounding somewhat like Marianne Faithfull with a few less canons of cigarettes, Laurie hauntingly sings her original compositions either solo or with the compelling harmonies of Gemma Cochran, accompanied simply by her own guitar or with didgeridoo, violin, percussion, and fretless bass. Her cover of Dear Prudence, recorded for a John Lennon Birthday Tribute for Yoko Ono, transforms the simple tune into a swining, mystical piece. It's good to go! (CHT6909) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lionfish
Too Much Love

This 1997 debut release is more than certain to garner Lionfish some well-deserved attention. Lead vocalist Laura P., with her opera vocal training, expresses such emotion and power that at times the music seems to disappear, and the band itself (Alicia and Todd on guitars, drums and percussion) has great musical chemistry and is basically incredible. The recording, which features all-original material by Laura and Alicia, has a raw, gritty, non-polished sound, reminiscent of the first Melissa Etheridge release. The more you listen, the more impressed you'll become. Recommended! (LF007) CD: 15.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay
Tendresse/Tenderness

Regifting her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her 1989 album included perceptive socio-political songs Poivre, Peaking, ever-touching love songs Montreal, Absence, and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay I'm Ready

Fans have been more than ready for this '97 release! It's filled with the moving, sweet, lyrical ballads and love songs (in English and French) that this Quebecois singer-songwriter is known and loved for across North America. Most songs are original, such as this title track, which features Women's Music faves like Chris Williamson, Tret Fure, Ann Dotkin, Shelley Jennings and Hilary Kay on supporting vocals and accompaniment... and Leaving Someone Like You, expressly by a woman to a woman. A highlight is her cover of Kathleen Hanna's If You've Ever Loved, about lesbians and guys who romantically lose the love of their families in the name of Christ, the very one who taught love for everyone. ## Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Lucie has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Chris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Chris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Chris, Tret Fure, Teresa Trull, and Daidre McCabe. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — treat yourself now! Recommended. 1996 (OL947) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay

Transformations
Another charmed release for late 1992 from this charming performer, songs in both English and French include Chez Nous, All Out of Love Tonight, Homeless, Sail Away, The Gully One. Recommended! (OL967) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Lynelle Tyler

I'm Not Lost, I Just Don't Know...

...Where I'm Going. On her 1998 debut, Lynelle's sly, but very out, lyrics combine with bouncy rhythms to produce the sorts of songs I wish I'd learned at summer camp. I mean songs that, like a compass, allow you to be prepared. You will surely someday have a use for the persuasive sentiment, "If you want to prove your love for me all ya gotta do is let me drive your car." Similarly instructive is the song which reviews possible responses to a P.E. teacher who may one day ask Are We of the Same Persuasion? Lynelle has kept many an audience up late into the night with her jamming blues tunes! Be among those who find her. (LNL1) CD: 15.98

Margie Adam

Best of Margie Adam

This late 1990 double-length retrospective pays tribute to one of Women's Music best-selling pianists and songwriters. Includes Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Tender Lady, Naked Keys, and 14 more. (PLE1990) CS: 6.99 CD: 15.98

Naked Keys

Eleven original solo piano performances... soothing, drifting, whimsical. This is Margie in some ways at her truest: her medium, her style. Her ears at the piano, having this music flow through her, precede & underlie her singing & her song-writing ones. 1990. (PLE2748) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Soon and Again

We have journeyed with Margie from Songwriter, featuring two piano solos to Naked Keys, with all piano instrumental, to Another Place, with its instrumental interludes, and we arrive with her in 1995 at a creative project that is exclusively instrumental. Margie's solo piano is still purely her and still purely women's music. Of all the possible emotions that the pieces on this album could evoke, two of the strongest are hope and love. The title of one song, Smelling About Us, speaks perhaps about a relationship between two people, or perhaps about an entire community. A brilliant, expressive work. (PLE2752) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Gauthier

Dixie Kitchen

The 2 things folks venture down to the Big Easy for most are the food and the music. How appropriate, then, for this southern Louisiana-born chef ("say Go-shay, y'all") to turn her talents to the recording studio. Her sound isn't jazz or barrelhouse, but the rockier side of old time country, with a Zydeco backbeat on the songs that cook, and a touch of Hank Williams twang and heartache on others... it's almost strange to hear this sound with lyrics that are openly gay and challenging! Her ballads are touching, about things like heartbreak and the AIDS epidemic. I imagine a small crowd in a coffeehouse in Boston (near where she now resides) swaying and foot-tapping — then asking in surprise across a table, "Did she just say what I think she said?" (RGM001) CD: 11.98

Meg Christian

Best of Meg Christian

A special long-playing compilation, approx. 75 minutes, containing all your favorites from this revered artist, and for the first time on compact disc! This musical time capsule portrays a poignant journey of an artist constantly seeking and discovering joy, laughter, love, and transformational awareness in her life and through her music. Includes Valentine Song, Sweet Darlin' Woman, The Road I Took to You, Cow to a Gym Teacher, Gym to Me, From the Heart, and 11 more. (OL957) CD: 15.98

I Know You Know

Christian's first album, by one of the original Women's Music artists... a veritable classic which helped to herald in the age of Women's Music! The poignant & humorous lyrics, the folk & classical influences in Meg's singing, song-writing, guitar playing, convey so much warmth & continue to carry a wealth of meaning. Includes Valentine Song, Joanna, Ode to a Gym Teacher. No Women's Music collection is complete without it! 1974 (OL902) CS: 9.98

Melissa Etheridge

Brave and Crazy

With tremendous energy and one of the sexiest voices ever recorded, Melissa seizes her blockbuster debut with a 1998 album guaranteed to please. From the chilling You Can Sleep While I Drive to the string No Souvenirs, she produces great range of tempo and rhythm, mixed with some of the most provocative lyrics in mainstream music. Also includes The Angels and Testify. Highly recommended! (PLG842302) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Melissa Etheridge

Nowhere to Go (CD EP)

It's little, it's cute, it has the VH-1 duet with Joan Osborne on Bring Me Some Water, and a live version and a remix of Nowhere to Go from the album You Little Secret. And it's almost gone, so hurry! (PLG854721) CD: 8.98

Melissa Etheridge

Yes I Am

And we're so glad she is!! This 1993 release is a testament to the exhilaration of unbridled rock and roll, with Melissa at her most passionate — capturing the live feel Melissa wanted. Includes the bluesy, straight-ahead rocker I'm the Only One, plus Come to My Window, Silent Legacy, Talking to My Angel, and I Will Never Be the Same, originally heard in the Winona Ryder movie Welcome Home Romy Carmichael and re-recorded here. (PLG848660) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Peggy Seeger

The Folkways Years 1955-1992

For over 35 years, she has been a dominant figure in the folk song movement in the US and England; and for close to 10 years, we've been getting requests for her early feminist song Gonna Be an Engineer, ever since both her LP Different Therefore Equal and Willie Tyson's Debutante went out of print... we're thrilled the song's back in print, by its author no less, and we won't have to disappoint customers anymore! Contains 21 songs, including her own Little Girl Child, Lady What Do You Do All Day?, Song of Myself, the famous song Ewan MacColl wrote for her, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face; Fred Small's Talking Wheelchair Blues; and lots more... frankly, some of her best material ever! (Except for cover graphics) we highly recommend it! (SF40048) CD: 15.98

Period Pieces: Women's Songs...

...For Men & Women... that's the complete title of this 1998 recommended release. This important singer-songwriter, from the famous musical and political Seeger family, has given voice to feminist and many other progressive issues for many years. Last anyone believe these songs "retro" because we live in a post-feminist world, her roles state that "The privileges and rights won in the last three decades were won mostly by and for white younger, unmarried middle-class Western women. They have yet to apply to the bulk of human females...". This album speaks of issues that are still close to the lives of women today. Includes her classics: I'm Gonna Be an Engineer, Different Therefore Equal, Reclaim the Night, Carry Graham Home, Union Woman II, Winnie and Sam, Nine Month Blues, 17 in all, written over a 30-year period. (TRD1078) CD: 13.98

Pele Juju

This ensemble consists of 8 white American women who make some of the best world beat music this reviewer has heard!! Rooted in the pulse of ancient, traditional, and modern cultures, their polymorphic and melodic eruption of sound generates an energy that connects people and packs dance floors... as did the Parachute Club some years ago. Politically positive lyrics, powerful harmonies, textured instrumentation (abundant sax), and omnipresent percussion characterize their blend of African, Caribbean, reggae, rock, funk and jazz elements. Their name combines the Hawaiian goddess of fire, Pele, and African magic juju. Song titles include We the People, Woman, Big Girl, Trust Yourself, Happy To Be Alive, and this 1992 release is as up-beat as the titles suggest. Highly recommended! (PEL001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Pele Juju Live!

From the opening Afro-beat grooves of Ankles to lead singer Dana Hudson's scorching hot vocals on Concrete and Steel, this wild 8-woman band winds its way through tastes of zydeco, soul, pop and R&B, to delight and ignite its audience at every turn. This 1997 release includes the catchy All We Got with a bit of pop and a lot of funky rhythms, the deep groove extended jams on Kyrie Postcards and We the People, and the hot spicy Cajun-style Happy To Be Alive. The peppy and invigorating soul-style Higher and Higher and Move are guaranteed to heat up dance floors, and the captivating love song Magic is exactly that. (PEL003) CD: 15.98

Rhythm Rite (7-song EP)

This 1996 7-song EP actually contains remixed versions of selected cuts from a maybe-someday-to-be-released full-length album... so buy this now, unless you're the deferred gratification type. Dubbed "the wild women of world beat", this 8-piece all-women's band from Santa Cruz easily backs up that claim with a mixture of jazz, funk, rock, reggae and African rhythms. This project takes the energy of Madame Pele and mixes it with the juju magic of producer extraordinaire George Acogny (Senegal) whose previous credits include Manu Dibango, Youssou N'Dour, and virtually every other major African recording artist, as well as Peter Gabriel and Sinéad O'Connor. (PEL602) CS: 8.98 CD: 12.98

Phranc

Folksinger

Phranc's classic first album — modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective, blending topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary — is once again available. Includes some of her greatest songs: Amazons ("I wanna live with Martina, like Nancy Lieberman"), Female Mud Wrestling, Carolyn, Ballad of the Dumb Hairdressers, One of the Girls. Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. (PLG846368) CS: 6.98

Phranc

I Enjoy Being a Girl

Phranc's 1989 album could be the first major label release to contain a line such as "I'm a Jewish lesbian, you see," in a song called Take Off Your Swastika. A terrific mixture of serious and humorous, whimsical and satirical, personal and topical material, right down to the 50's cover artwork (Phranc with her glass of milk and her bushy do!) Includes her second paragon to M-A-R-T-I-N-A, a memorial to her grandmothers Myram and Esther, and others ranging in theme from South African apartheid to Toys R Us. Out of print, limited quantity, don't dawdle! (PLG843579) CS: 6.98

Phranc

Goodyfoot

This 6-song CD EP is the 1995 release from the inimitable pioneering Jewish lesbian folk-singer! L.A. punk rocker, s.k.a. "my favorite butch" to some AOL subscribers! It contains 3 classic covers (including Mrs. Brown, You've Got A Lovely Daughter — on ukulele!) and 3 originals (including title track and Bulldagger Swagger). Accompanists include Kaia on electric guitar, Donna Dresch on bass. Phranc says, "Unplugged is a word I would use to describe my toaster, not my music!" There is nothing wrong with folk music." (KRS233) CD: 5.98

Milkman

One of our favorite Jewish lesbian folksingers returns in October '98 (on National Coming Out Day) with her first full-length album in 7 years. Includes the Israeli folksong Tzena Tzena (which brings back fond childhood memories of my favorite Weavers album), Ozzy and Harriet, They Lied, The Handsome Cabin Boy and more. (PHA1) CD: 15.98

Phranc

Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 80's music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader/ member and play the jazz she so desperately loved, Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful scapella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Gettrude Stein, Dress Code, I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG848282) CS: 6.98

Rebecca Riots

This Berkeley-based feminist folk trio (Eve Decker, Andrea Pritchett, and Lisa Zeiler), previously known as Final Girl, presents a 1995 "radical folk-rock" album which has garnered comparisons to Casselberry-Dupree — both in the intense acoustic sound and the dynamic and political lyrics. Desperate Measures is a cry for civil disobedience in the face of injustice, while Slow Burn describes, from both perspectives, an encounter between a frightened woman and a homeless man. Cut Through The Sugar wonders "what would happen if one woman told the truth about her life?" Other tracks like Fath, Chances, No Wings and Landfills are by and about women who live the examined life. Recommended! (RR13) CD: 14.98

Rebecca Riots Some Folks

The second album by this feminist trio contains more excellent personal and political acoustic songs about women's lives. Women's Bodies follows the history of Western "Civilization," in which "women were permanent children under the law." Come and Go and How I Feel are lovely, wistful songs of love for a woman, stories of people's struggles, and other progressive topics. Round out this 1995 release. (RR4292) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Rene Russell

A native of Columbia SC, and now a part of the fertile Austin TX music scene, Rene has been on the road for over 10 years with her finger-picked 12-string guitar and friendly rock-n-roll. An out lesbian, she has opened for the Indigo Girls, Tori Amos, and, hold on to your hats, Hootie and the Blowfish. Her 1995 album of original mid-tempo originals with a little growl is reminiscent of Melissa Ferrick and gets down easily. (As I'm writing this, fellow "Slits" keep popping in to ask who I'm listening to. She's picked our interest! Well-produced (not to be taken for granted!) with tasty arrangements for guitar, keyboards, bass, and drums, her songs are about universal themes with special interest to lesbians and gays. Choices is an indictment of hate-filled bigotry, and We Live and Breathe is an autobiographical song about knowing that you are different from other children (i.e. queer). Recommended! (VRG8950) CD: 14.98

Rhiannon

Loosen Up and Improvise

THIS VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon, because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic duets with Rhiannon, call and response... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns, exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon talks you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique, if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RHN1) CS: 9.98

Finding Your Voice

This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reason: being "tone-deaf," having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy... for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-up, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RHN2) CS: 9.98

Rhiannon

Live... On Tamales Bay

0537

This concert album is all the more personal and intimate because it was recorded close to the artist's home on the California coast. It's like having a front row seat for a whole evening of her inspired musical artistry. Exuberantly rendered jazz standards like My One and Only and Love Comes and Goes are mixed with exciting performances of Caped Bird, Flying and more, all interwoven and punctuated with classic Rhiannon improvisations. She is irreverent, zany, tenderly heart wrenching, powerful jubilant and always touched by a higher spirit. This late-summer 1996 collection reaffirms her place as one of the most original and gifted stylists of our time. (RHN3) CD: 15.98

Toward Home

0202

Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alive!, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. Here she presents a veritable smorgasbord of vocal material, from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Shenandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting skills of Betsy Rose, Janet Small, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this 1991 album beautifully showcases her range and style... very highly recommended! (LR202) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Roy Orbison with k.d. lang King of Hearts

True, Roy Orbison was not a woman — good point — but this posthumous album, a collection of masters and demos from the late rock-n-roll legend, includes the much-deared, 1989 Grammy Award-winning duet with k.d. lang, a remake of his classic Crying. She's also heard doing the back-up vocal thing on You're the One. Remember, her experience with Roy influenced her musical change of direction away from Patsy Cline & gave the world Ingenue! (VIR86520) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

SONIA (of disappear fear)

Almost Chocolate

Half of the duo known to the world as disappear fear has struck out on her own, with her 1998 acoustic solo debut. Compared with John Lennon, Bob Dylan and Phil Ochs, SONIA guides the listener into the depths of her soul... armed with just her guitar and harmonica. Listening to this CD will feel like listening to an old friend because she maintains that people have come to expect from disappear fear. She's always been a favorite with the Ladyslipper staff, and this CD doesn't disappoint — highly recommended! (PH1207) CD: 15.98

Sandra Bernhard

Excuses for Bad Behavior, Part One

Found a small supply of "out-of" copies of this sought-after out-of-print title, to the first lucky caller. "It's all about bad behavior, and accepting it... with love." A musical and vocal album with spoken words and raps along the way, this 1994 release is a work about liberation and regression, love and loss, dreams and survival — a thought-provoking and entertaining comment about our culture and our times. Backed by her band, the Slip-Ons, she moves from rap to dance to soulful balladry. She salutes the late Sylvester with Mighty Real, remembers her friends lost to AIDS in the meditative Incubence, and employing layered rap, sings about voyeurism and detachment — projecting your fantasy onto someone you never have to meet — on Phone Sex (Do You Want Me Tonight). Mixing boldness, honesty and vulnerability, she turns pop culture on its side! (EPC87693) CD: 12.98

Sue de Nym

Contains Real Fruit Juice (EP)

On this 1997 5-song EP, Canadian artist Suzanne Nuttall, a.k.a. Sue de Nym, offers a very cool, fruity, and fun concoction. Utilizing her trademark vocal surfing over a funky, jamming, groove-driven soulful vibe, she presents clever, sexy original songs that unabashedly celebrate physical love — between women — and insist on the right to not be forced to choose between the 2 doors (of sexuality we presume). "Be fruitful and multiply! This is what God said! Let's fiddle this equation! Let's do math in bed." Her back-up band adds sax, trumpet, and violin, in addition to the bass-drum-guitar. We're looking forward to a whole album, but in the meantime, drink this! (PGR001) CD: 10.98

Barely Blue

0334

This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy, bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister, My Foot on Heart) as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Buichino songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Buichino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EA51002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Suede

Easily Suede

0334

The release of Suede's solo debut album in 1998 was long anticipated. It features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home, her music, that is. The CD has a few bonus tracks! (EA51001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick

Paint

0603

For several years, this gifted singer-songwriter has mesmerized Philadelphia-area fans and selected festival-goers around the country, with this 1997 release, she unleashes another distinctive set of songs and vocals! Her arrangements range from fully-orchestrated masterpieces to solo vocal/frame-drum performances, on songs such as Called By the Angels, Dear Myth, and Circle Run. This album captures the artist's essence, as she celebrates the creative force within us all. (QAD234) CD: 15.98

Susan Herrick

Truth & the Lie

0232

A remarkable 1991 recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult, which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet, musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! (WFR1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Soul Chant

We're so thrilled this artist has blessed us with another release for 1994! It includes songs she's been performing to wild audience response (and getting lots of requests that she put them on an album) — such as Motherland, Thunder, A Little More Laughter, Climb Your Tree, No Way Out — and features guest artists Margie Adam and Justina & Joyce. Soulful, sincere, insightful, passionate, intense, healing, rhythmic, mystical and archetypal... these are the words that come to mind when reflecting upon Susan's music, and it's been a joy for us to experience her growth as an artist. Highly recommended! (WFR1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Teresa Trull

A Step Away

This classic, which is being re-released by the artist in 1998, is one of our all-time faves, in every respect: music, material and production. Each song has a complexity and depth, as well as a contagious hope and joy. Includes Marie, Rosalee, How Lucky... we are to have this great title once again here on our pages! (RR412) CD: 15.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie

Playtime

0654

After all these years, another album by this beloved duo has arrived in 1998! On this upbeat collection of acoustic blues-flavored songs, strong harmonizing and songwriting from these 2 multi-talents blend with their top-notch fancy fiddle- and piano-playing. Special guest Cric Williamson joins in, as the newly reunited duo finds serious fun and inspiration in each other's gifts. All originals, except for a song each from BB King and Billie Holiday. (SLB82212) CD: 15.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie

Unexpected

Unexpected but welcome news, this classic from this dynamic duo is re-released in 1998! Featuring an eclectic mix of styles: country, gospel, ballads — some simple, some fairly produced — the blend of talent and material is impeccable! Includes the editors' favorite Melissa Manchester ode, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Therese Edell & Friends

For Therese

On March 10, 1990, to celebrate Therese's 40th birthday, a group of artists and friends gathered to put on a one-of-a-kind concert that was also a loving tribute to Therese and her musical contributions; lucky for us, 60 minutes of this event have been preserved! Therese produced the album, which features musicians like Kay Gardner, Deirdre McCalla, Nydia Mata and the MJSE choir... instrumentation such as fule, oboe, bassoon, cello, harp, glockenspiel... and songs which include Betsy Lippitt's For Therese, Sue Fink performing Therese's Emma, plus Sister Heathen, Winter's Calendar Days, Good Friends Are the Best, and O My Friends, co-written by Therese. (SEA312) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Topp Twins

Two Timing

Since this NZ duo has been back in the states for a tour, we're bringing back this 1994 release from one of our and your very favorite sets of twins in the whole wide world. Lynda and Jodie combine their wonderful harmonies with their keen sense of humor and timing, throwing in a yodel or 2 for good measure. Includes Call Clio Day (an important New Zealand tradition), the C&W line dancing anthem Horse, and a heartwarming song to their mom, Jean Emily. (TOP4) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Tracy Drach

Another Door

0231

Ladyslipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own Slippers! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing. This 1993 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Laura Berkson's Myram, to her lyric tale of young novice Sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. This album, a personal favorite around our office, is wholeheartedly recommended. (BND001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tret Fure

Time Turns the Moon

This 1993 release is a tight, skilful combination of vulnerable lyrics and dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual), who has recruited expert musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melody and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Edges of the Heart/CD:Terminal Hold

Tret's 1996 release, Edges of the Heart, packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements; a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly-not-number, Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. The 1996 CD re-release of this title has a great bonus: the entire earlier album of Terminal Hold is also included! (i.e. the cassette is a single title, the CD is a double title) (SW22009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

A Family of Friends

Women for Women

This 1995 compilation includes tracks by some of the best loved and most popular contemporary female artists who have donated their time to promote breast health and breast cancer awareness: Melissa Etheridge, Sheryl Crow, Kathy Mattea, Aretha Franklin, Celine Dion, Annie Lennox, Tina Turner, Julia Fordham, and others. Some proceeds will go to NABCO — The National Alliance of Breast Cancer Organizations, a non-profit network of 300 organizations — to provide information, assistance, and referrals. We think it's wonderful, and about time that this grave threat to women's health receives as much attention and support as the AIDS crisis has been generating. "Women for women!" The ninth volume in the series veers from its usual dance focus to pay homage to the women, offering tracks with decidedly female appeal. Includes a remix of Cate Curtis' Radical, Janis Ian's At Seventeen, Lauran Wood's Fallen, Cheryl Wheeler's Moonlight & Roses, and more from Tanita Tikaram, Cowboy Junkies, Everything But the Girl, and others. ### I Am Woman

This odd little poppy post-ironic "tribute" to feminism hails from the hipster kid's cable channel, Nickelodeon. The cartoon retro 70's cover art has the appearance of a death-before-sincerely-sensibility... I really don't think that the producers "got it." Nonetheless, it's a groovy collection of excellent songs: Helen Reddy's anthem, Gloria Gaynor's I Will Survive, Dolly Parton's 9 to 5, Aretha's Respect and Roseanne Cash's Man Smart, Woman Smarter as well as Peggy Lee's I'm A Woman, Dionne Warwick's Walk on By, Pat LaBelle's New Attitude, Donna Summer's She Works Hard For the Money, Pat Benatar's Love is a Battlefield and more. ## Various, Inc. Phranc, 2 Nice Girls

Women Like Us: Lesbian Favorites

This fall '97 lesbian compilation — one of the very few which have ever been issued, and probably the only in-print collection with the word "lesbian" in the title — is notable for lots of reasons. Firstly, it contains the often-and-desperately-sought-after song by Two Nice Girls: I Spent My Last $10.00 (On Birth Control and Beer)... no longer must seekers go away disappointed and empty-handed! Secondly, it includes liner notes by Phranc and Gretchen Phillips (Two Nice Girls), tracing the history of lesbians in pop music from "woman's music" and punk of the 70's and 80's through today's alternative queercore stars. Last but not least is the great roster of long-out and recently-out musicalians: Ferron, Ani DiFranco, k.d. lang, Kristen Hall, BETTY, disapper fear, Jane Siberry, Dar Williams, Janis Ian, Jill Sobule, Fern Z Fern, Tanita Tikaram, Windy & Lisa (ex-Prince's band), Sandra Bernhard, and of course Phranc, Gretchen Phillips, Experience and Two Nice Girls... as you'll see, not many of the traditional "women's music labels" here, but an interesting mix of artist-owned, independent and major labels represented. A portion of the proceeds will be donated by The Label, Rhino Records (an indie label with major-label distribution), to Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund. A must-have for women's music and lesbian music fans and collectors! (RH72915) CD: 15.98

The Wyrd Sisters

Inside the Dreaming

The Ladyslipper Catalog editor says, "One of the most brilliant albums to be released in 1994." The name of this excellent Canadian trio is pronounced "weird," but they are not, although they are unusual... unique, original and provocative — rather, their name comes from the ancient Triple Goddess who represented the maiden, mother and crone. Like their harmonies, lyrically each song has layers of meaning which continue to reveal themselves during repeated listenings (inspirational without being syrupy), supported by arrangements that are varied, subtle and perfect. The title track is moody and evocative. One trip Shaking is a bluesy, sensuous song of love lost. Dance, Little Brother is a well-crafted emotional plea for action against AIDS. Wamp is an acappella feminist anthem equal in impact to Ferron's Testimony; in fact, all 11 tracks are gems, no throw-aways here! Andy Stachursky (drummer for Ani DiFranco) is one of several talented guest performers featured. Instrumentation is light and all-around superb. Don't miss out — to all fans of women's music, harmony, and substantive contemporary singer-songwriting, very highly recommended! (WYR2) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Raw Voice

You'll find another treasure-box of songs on this 1997 release — a worthy follow-up to Inside the Dreaming. The trio again combines their finely-honed craft of poetic songwriting with superb harmonies, eloquently expressing their personal blend of irony, bitterness, pain, humor and hope. Love the evocative, dreamy, fearless bass from producer db Benediction... Kim's veritable baritone... the crisp, tasteful arrangements... the twists and turns this lyric take. Includes The Night of Her Persistence, Same Old Story, Borrowed Time, very recommended again! (WYR3) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Yer Girlfriend

Not Afraid To Love

This late-1995 release, which our girlfriends consider their most powerful yet, once again blends gorgeous harmonies and melodies into songs of passion and political empowerment. From the jamming rap number Get Over It, to a version of Marge Adam's Beautiful Woman that will set you tingling and remind you what women's music is all about — this album is set to provide plenty of lyrical, instrumental, and emotional fulfillment! ## Zoe Lewis

Full of Faraway

This "gutter twanging, ivory licking, penny whistling, harmonica bending, accordion squeezing, ukulele crooning, kazoohoning" Provincetown-via-Brighton, England singer/songwriter has optimistic (but clued in) charm oozing out of every pore. Late of the Lesbian Lounge Lizards, The Minny Sisters and Smiley Fish, Zoe is a modern troubadour. On this 1996 release, she infuses her originals songs with musical experiences she absorbed during her world-wide vagabond travels. The boogie-woogie of Tap Dancing mixes with the Latin-funk of Let's Get Poetic, the Appalachian-esque ballad, Gardener, the bossa-nova Lately, the South African jive of Africa Jive are all grounded by her guitar strumming and bubbly folk-jazz vocals. Those prone to Anglophilia (i.e. a sucker for a cute accent), you have been warned. (DOGT) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Zoe Lewis

Sheep

Songs about sheep, old women and a good cup of tea... Auntie Gladys and Res For the Public... this is some of what you'll find on this artist's 1998 release. As the Bay Area Reporter reported, her "writing style is clever and evocative, her subject matter as kooky as her musical style." She shows a fondness for human quirkiness and is affectionate when poking fun of everybody, including herself. Features 14 original songs in all, with special appearances by Julie Wolf and her twin sister Kalle! (DOGT) CD: 15.98

Come Out Everybody

This female duo from Dublin, Ireland makes some mighty catchy, out and outie pop music! Maria Walsh (vocals, bodhran, flute, percussion) and Carol Nelson (keyboards, sax, and tin whistle) first stormed the Irish charts with the ecdasy tune I'm in Love with Mother Nature, and have slowly taken over Europe while performing at major gay/lesbian festivals. On this 1997 release, their songs range from the techno cyber-eek tune Make the Connection, to the queer liberation 1970's-soul-balled-wave-your-hands-in-the-air title track (No turning back now, no one can deny me this freedom lies inside me), to the Barry White/Lisa Stansfield-y feel-good Keep It Real, to the edgy new wave for a dominatrix's Beautiful Boy, to the simple piano on the unsettling "love song" Heaven Blessed, to the glorious stand-out-as-sweet-as-sugar-for-your-teeth teenage reminiscence Suburban Girl. Just don't try to box these gals in. They deserve heavy rotation! Recommended! (PUR642480) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Club Verboten (4-CD Set)

Wow! This 4-CD set with an accompanying 50-page booklet purports to be a musical history of the "underground" world of the lesbian and gay community. No easy task there, but whatever the historical accuracy, this is an amazing (and idiosyncratic) collection of music and factoids! The first disc includes the great queer blues singers from the 1920's — Bessie Smith, Gladys Bentley and Ma Rainey — as well as gay icons of the 1930's: Marlene Dietrich, Edith Piaf, Mae West, Josephine Baker and Noel Coward. Disc 2 (1940's-60's) features Judy Garland, Carmen Miranda, Lana Horne, Chet Baker, Marilyn Monroe, Shirley Bassay, Donovan, the bad poetry of Rod McKuen, and Doris Day's gender-bending Sadist Love. Disc 3 does the 1970's up right with everyone from Helen Reddy to Sister Sledge to Aid Dobkin to Meg Christian (followed by Barry Manilow) back to Lou Reed. Disc 4 should chill out your spinning head. It's classical music from Leonard Bernstein, Saint-Saëns, Aaron Copland, John Cage and others. From actual lesbian/gay artists to those (like Judy) who are/were loved by us, to those who mention us in their songs to those who... well, I'm not sure about all of the "connections", but what a grab-bag! ### Fruit Cocktail

An effortless mix of tangy Latin rhythms, sweet jazz and lush, late-night ballads grace this 1995 first-ever rainbow collection of lesbian and gay lounge music. What an array of performers! Rhannon, Lea DeLara, Holly Near, Irene Fornes, Maja, Michael Callen, Tom Robinson, Ian Shaw, Steven Kowalczyk... and even an ultra-cool jazz number from Steven Grossman, whose 1974 Mercury album Caravan Tonight was probably the first release on a major label by an out gay artist. It's a zesty, heady musical brew for sure. fruit cocktail served not-so-straight up! (ST1005) CD: 15.98

"With a 'do' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" (to quote our venerable purchasing manager, Reggie)... Ani (pronounced "Ah-nee") is a young songwriter, singer and guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Last Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's 1990 debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin... highly recommended! ## Ani DiFranco

Dilate

This May 1996 release is guaranteed to demolish any preconceived notions about what Ani's up to! It's a journey through various emotional states — melancholy, anger, and so on — to the moment of personal deliverance expressed in Amazing Grace, culminating in the final track, Joyful Girl. And if you think you know what an Ani DiFranco song is supposed to sound like, take a listen to the hard-edged thrash of Chute Me On. You or the dreamy electronic textures of Going Down. Also includes many satirical favorites like Untouchable Face; Napoleon, built around her stark electric guitar work; and Adam and Eve, on which her voice swoops to the heavens before touching earth. (RIG008) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Imperfectly

0018

With her third (1992) album, Ani achieves a level of intensity that folk-rock rarely reaches. Unflinching in her pursuit of honesty, she strikes sparks necessarily as she challenges sexual politics, social conventions and the meaning of existence, including her own. She debates issues of sexual identity in In or Out and if it isn't Her, and she exposes and indicts the patriarchy in I'm No Heroine and Make Them Apologize. For the first time, other musicians appear as accompanists to add shades of viola, trumpet, mandolin. For the third time, we highly recommend this — and we wouldn't be surprised if it becomes her national breakthrough. (RIG003) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Like I Said

0025

On this 1995 release, 15 tracks from Ani DiFranco and Not So Soft have been combined, re-recorded, embellished, and generally messed with to make a new album. (RIG005) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ani DiFranco

Puddle Dive

0024

On this 1993 release, her most complex effort to date, Ani (dubbed a folk-rock-feminist by one reviewer) goes boldly where no one has gone before... joined at various moments by pianist Ann Radson from Saffire, the Upply Blueswomen, virtuoso violinist Mary Ramsey from the folk-rock duo John & Mary, and English harmonica sensation Rory McLeod. An in-your-face lyrical who exposes our hidden thoughts and feelings, she confronts the status quo in sex, psychology and society by reaching unflinchingly into her experience and personal politics. (RIG004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Living in Clip (2-CD Set)

Ani is at long last releasing a live album — a double-CD set! Wahoo! Containing over 2 hours of music, it was recorded primarily during her 1995 US tour with bassist Sara Lee and drummer Andy Stochansky. Culled from a variety of venues, from "baroque, acoupled theatres and dark, skanky rock clubs, hockey stadiums and airplane hangars, tents, ballrooms and sweaty basement bars where I could smell the audience (and vice versa, god forbid)" includes 2 previously unreleased songs, Gravel and Hide and Seek, her famous between-song stories and impromptu musings, and "songs that have changed since their first appearance on studio albums, songs that have mutated into something completely different" (including orchestral versions of Amazing Grace and Both Hands with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Doc Severinsen). FYI: the title refers to Ani's penchant for playing too loud on stage and blowing out the speakers! (RIG011) CD: 24.98

Not So Soft

0017

Well, this 1991 release will make future reviewers compare other people to Ani. The delivery is sweet and urgent here, giving blood to her poetry and making the listener get alive in the listening... when you hear her, you'll be compelled to move closer to the speakers, rock your body, experience your heart brimming over with recognition and appreciation, and turn all your friends on to Ani's magic... She employs a very rich acoustic guitar on most songs, does some beautiful self-harmonizing, and also adds some conga drum and dust broom! She writes the kind of lyrics you wish someone would write about you, were they so inspired and talented... Again, highly recommended. (RIG002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Past Didn't Go Anywhere

Utah Phillips is a 61-year-old traveling storyteller, songwriter and political activist whose very observations on life are subversively provocative and very funny. Ani has selected recordings from 20 years' worth of Utah's acoustic musings/performances and created unexpected but fitting musical settings for them. The result is, in Ani's words, "a spoken word, storytelling, rambling, sage-like, hip-hop, acoustic, dance-trance album" full of humor, emotion and insight. Utah's tales of real-life quirky characters are set amongst the sounds of funk, ambient, classical and rap music. Ani doesn't sing, but she's at over the 1996 release playing all sorts of instruments (plus some wordless vocals as instrumentation or ambient sound stuff) and produced the whole damn thing. Very cool. (RIG009) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

More Joy, Less Shame

This late-'95 EP consists of all previously-unreleased remixes and rare live tracks (none of which will appear on the live album which is slated for release during the first half of '97). Contains exciting versions of Shameless, Both Hands, and Joyful Girl, including the Danger and Uncertainty mix of the latter, featured in her video. (RIG010) CD: 7.98

Little Plastic Castle

0673

This 1996 title may be Ani's most poetic release to date. While she has been blasted by some for veering away from the politics of her earlier releases, she's not afraid to fight back: "people talk about my image! like I come in two dimensions! like lipstick is a sign on my declining mind! like what I happen to be wearing! the day someone takes a picture! is my new statement for all of womankind" (from the title track). Ani has found new ways to communicate messages about love, life, respect, relationships, collective memory, cross-marketing, girl police, and (even) goldfish. Recorded with her touring band (drummer Andy Stochansky and bassist Jason Mercer) plus guest musicians Sara Lee, Jerry Marotta, Jon Hassell, and a 3-piece horn section. A favorite among the Slipper staff! (RIG012) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Not a Pretty Girl

0136

The album title isn't just a title, it's a theme on her 1995 album. Ani comments, "God help you if you are an ugly girl! course too pretty is also your doom." In 32 Flavors a beautifully produced song with subtle percussion solos. She observes that she isn't "really all that pretty, but no one will know" in The Million You Never Made — a corporate-rock-sounds mind-blower. And, of course, the title track declares, "I am not a pretty girl that is not what I do." Also here: Asking Too Much (she calls it the German song for its mechanical rhythm and probing angst), a new poem, a new take on Coming Up (with thumb piano), and 9 others... some danceable, all quality! (RIG007) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Out of Range

0008

This 1994 release is hailed as Ani's most adventurous effort to date. The 12 tracks include 2 versions of the title song — solo acoustic and rocking with a full band; The Diner, with sound effects scooped from an all-night eatery in Toronto; How Have You Been, with a full-fledged horn section blowing funk riffs; Letter to John, a troubling song that breathes the bitter afterlife of sexual abuse from a stark and cynical point of view; If He Tries Anything, an outrageous snapshot of female desperados on the road; and the guilty personal regrets of You Had Time. The power and penetrating insights of her poetry achieve a new peak here — we highly recommend Ani! (RIG006) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

BETTY

Limboland

0425

Majorly on sale! Now an enhanced CD for CD-ROM — take your ears and your eyes on a magical expedition through the meiotic expanses of Limboland. This 1995 release is a 13-song masterpiece of rich harmonies, seductive melodies and infectious grooves. Included are the often-requested Hoodoo and Brainy Old World, the lovely acappella Two Chimes which we first heard on a live Valentine's Day interview on NPR, and A Typical Love from the film The Incredibly True Adventure of Two Girls in Love. As Mistella Magazine says, "BETTY is the world's foremost, all-girl, bi-racial, rock and roll performance 'ho of our time'." (IN9175) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

Bikini Kill

Reject All-American

0531

In a world where "alternative" bands are being mined by major labels like so much Pittsburgh steel, Bikini Kill has held firm and fast to their independent, socially-conscious roots. Their long-awaited 1996 release will throw you off balance: these women have shed their grunge past and moved up to their rightful place as queens of modern punk. It's their most accessible, sing-along-friendly album yet — gone are the heavy grunge hooks and muffled lyrics; remaining, and stronger than ever, is their fierce, strongly pro-woman attitude, enmeshed in some of the catchiest pop hooks I've heard in a long time. "Get this album, 'cause when you're singing along with Kathleen on Let Ski ('I'm not you're oil well, I'm not your dirt store novel'), it's good to be a girl." (KR5250) CS: 9.96 CD: 12.98

The Singles

NEW!

The name says it all! This 1998 release (probably their last, since the band has broken up) contains all 9 songs from Bikini Kill's 7" singles: New Radio, The Anti-Pleasure Dissertation, and I Like Fucking. The first 3 tracks were even produced by Joan Jett (the reigning Queen of rock). The songs represent the full spectrum of the Bikini Kill experience, or in Kathleen Hanna's words, "A wacky ride through the Bikini Kill phenomenon." (KR5298) CD: 13.98

The Butchies

Are We Not Femme?

NEW!

0725

It's time for one and all to meet The Butchies... the new band fronted by Kaia Wilson (ex-Teen Dreads) with Melissa York and Alison Marlow. After Kaia's previous two acoustic-based solo albums you can consider this one "Kaia Plugged In... Again." She kicks up the volume of her guitar, while Melissa attacks the drums like nobody's business, and Alison turns up the funk on her bass to give this 1998 release quite the altmapunk flavor. Features an incredible cover of Chris Williamson's Shooting Star and an all too-danceable disco tune. Highly recommended... and we're not just saying that because Kaia works here! (MRL02) CD: 15.98

Danielle Howle and The Tantrums

Do A Two Sable

NEW!

Welcome to another one of the many faces that is Danielle Howle. On this 1998 release Danielle is backed (for the second time) by what could be called her electric project, The Tantrums, taking her sound to a much more refined expression of what she wants to do with her music... a story set to rock/folk/country/funk sounds. Throw her amazing vocals into the mix and there you have it... a sound that is all her own while maintaining a semblance to what is already known within the mainstream. Hey now... I'm not saying that she is mainstream, but I don't expect it to take much longer before she becomes recognized as a force in womyn's music. Highly recommended! (DAE19016) CD: 16.98

Dead Can Dance

Toward The Within

0137

Recorded live in concert in Santa Monica, this 1994 release contains 9 new tracks which offer spellbinding proof that their ability to enchant and surprise is no mere phenomenon of the recording studio. Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry lead a group of multi-instrumentalists through a set of remarkable variety that ranges from Lisa's sweeping vocal flights to Brendan's Tin Buckley-esque balladry. Includes Persian Love Song, Rakim, Cantata, Yulunga, The Wind That Shakes the Barley. (4AD45769) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Spiritchaser

This 1995 album has a bit of a Moroccan feel on Nierika, Native American chant on Song of the Stars, Indian/Gothic on India, Spanish on Song of the Dispossessed, all overlaid with their trademark trippy groove. Take a "trip" around the world without having to worry about drinking the water! (4AD46230) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Erin McKeown

Monday Morning Cold

NEW!

One listen to this incredible performer will have you wondering why there aren't more people out there doing what she is... the reason is that no one else can. On this 1998 release, this young artist deftly demonstrates that age doesn't matter when it comes to being a well-seasoned musician. Erin's rapidly making a name for herself, redefining contemporary folk music her way, which she describes as "original folk blues jazz fusion." Tackling complex subjects, her powerful songs are punctuated by her top-notch guitar-playing. To experience her music is to be invited to get beneath her surface and find your own description. Highly recommended! (TVP2504) CS: 9.98

Songs To Save Your Soul

NEW!

(6-Song EP)
This ex-Nice Girl, ex-Girl in the Noise (but very much a musician/songwriter in the present tense) offers her 1998 release. This concept album traces the journey of the soul from isolation and loss, to questions of morality, to eventual redemption through closeness... and lesbian sex! Includes On Sharp Satan's Jewel Crown, Peace On Earth, I Can Hear the Angels Singing (when I touch you there...). (SSK1) CD: 10.98

When I Was A Boy

This 1993 release, a brilliantly conceived set of impressionistic songs and visions, combines innovation with accessibility. A highlight is her memorably unearthly duet with k.d. lang, Calling All Angels, which first appeared on the Until The End Of The World soundtrack (lang's long-time musical/business cohort Ben Mink also contributes vocals on this track)... also includes Sail Across the Water, The Gospel According To Darkness, and Sweet Incarnadine. Co-produced by Brian Eric. So it has a weird life, she's still one of our all-time favorite artists! (REP26824) CD: 16.98

Joules Graves

Waterfall Child

NEW!

We have received many requests for this 1995 title by Joules, which up until now, was only available at her concerts and festivals. Finally, in '98, we can offer it to all you patient folks who weren't so lucky as to attend one! 17 wonderful tracks, such as Grandmother's Back, Brown Skin Woman, Seamstress of Visions, Drive Me Wild, Can't Justify War, Coming of Age poetically reflect her connection with the earth, her dedication to women and non-violence and love, her sensuality and passion. The women and men of the Pagan Tabernacle Choir accompany on 3 songs. If you love Plunge!, don't miss this earlier recording by this young singer-songwriter. (JG0002) CD: 15.98

Plunge!

0665

Once you hear this 1997 release, you'll immediately understand why Joules has been causing such a stir along the west coast. Vocally and musically she can best be described as a combination of Toni Childs, Joni Mitchell, and Ani DiFranco, with songs ranging from the personal to the political. I Like You delves into the love between two women. Teaching My Heart focuses on "learning how to love and be loved". Anger delves into rage and the victimization of women and children, and Outta Control explores the estrangement felt within social constructs. If the lyrics don't hook you in, then her excellent guitar and drum work should be more than convincing (she's joined by producer Bruce Harvie on mandolin, dobro, kazoo, acoustic, electric & slide guitars, bass, drums and percussion). Highly recommended! (JG1112) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lady Man

0687

It's a pressure situation when writing about an artist's new album, when said artist is hovering nearby, insistent that I compare her music to Chris Williamson's early work and if I won't do that can't I PLEASE say that she's Crystal Gayle's unknown sister, Hippie? Of course neither is true. Kaia has a sound that is uniquely her own, and it's becoming more fully realized on this 1998 release. This time round there's a lot more instruments (including a lovely electro-synth interlude) to accompany Kaia on her guitar. Stream-of-consciousness lyrics (no word on refrains here!) tell stories about, oh, her girlfriend, her friends, being a lesbian rocker in small-town Indiana and some other stuff I haven't figured out yet (or can't tell). Brama's love song is You Make Me Cry, Tell Somebody, mine's OFF (Extended Dance Mix) and Kaia's is Little Brave One. (MRL01) CD: 15.98

Kaia

Kaia's first solo album shows her taking a break from Teen Dreads' punk-inspired pop. This 1996 creation is acoustic, but never folk, and is full of those minor chord, melancholic love songs that make you feel like any other time you've suffered through was better than how you are feeling now. Kaia's voice has such a sweet, longing ache that you will immediately be reminded of that one last love you will never quite get over. Perfect for those lonely nights when you just want to wallow. (CHN14) CD: 15.98

Melanie Sparks

Mabel's Beauty Shop/Chainsaw Repair

For the past several years, this NC artist has been captivating audiences all over the east coast with amazing performances. Her unique songwriting style transcends the usual "get with guitar" label, lending itself to production interpretations as diverse as "cowpunk funk", "heavy R&B" and "dark jazz", while maintaining a satirical sense of humor with compelling lyrics and hypnotic melodies. Then there is her amazing voice, which seems to come from some deep dark recess to fill you with a richness and soulfulness reminiscent of Alison Moyet. All of this comes from a woman with the heart of a poet — highly recommended! (NOS6017) CD: 14.98

Meryn Cadell

Bombazine

Back in stock, now at a great price on these "out-of-print" The clever off-beat lyrics of this exciting 1993 release express an intelligent, original, openly bisexual, sardonic view of life. This Canadian artist clearly reveals in words, combining traditional song structure with spoken word musings to perfectly capture what it is like to be twenty-something and not really sure about the who's, the what's, the where's, the how's and the why's. Voice for Gloria, the best poem to sex with a woman this reviewer has ever heard, contains the line which is the philosophical anchor to the whole Bombazine. "You don't have to do anything that you don't want to, but don't get up in arms about what others choose to do." Jonny and Betty open the album with a bang, with lyrics about gays and gay-bashing. Astelyne and Window of Opportunity were co-written with k.d. lang's collaborator, Ben Mink (the duo accompanied on strings, guitar and more), with musical references to Ingenue yet completely original. Extremely recommended! (SIR43388) CD: 8.98

The Murmurs

Blender

Previously described as the acoustic voice of the 20-something generation, Heather Grody and Laisha Harey (star of All Over Me) have plugged in their guitars and added a drummer and a bass player for this 1998 title, which actually re-releases 8 tracks from the now-out-of-print 1997 Plunge! Smut, plus adds 3 new ones. 6 of the 11 tracks here were produced by "special friend" k.d. lang! Includes La Di Da, Smash, Underdog, Sucker Upper, I'm A Mess and more. (MCA11002) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patty Griffin

Flaming Red

NEW!

0726

Unlike her debut recording Living With Ghosts (a collection of Griffin's demos featuring only her and her guitar), this 1998 release features a full backing band and an edgier sound, as it combines elements of rock, blues, country and folk with electric guitars and percussion without sacrificing her poignant lyrics. Tony explores the suicide of a homosexual youth: "He looked in the mirror/Saw that little faggot staring back at him/Pulled out a gun and blew himself away". They write in the local tag/Death comes to local tag. Recommended! (AM340907) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Living With Ghosts

On her 1996 release, Patty Griffin moves effortlessly between folk and country, telling stories about hard times, hard love and insanity (but not trucks or mothers), with just an acoustic guitar and a voice so pure it could break your heart... although she's not afraid to get raw and country when the times right. Her songs are not always pretty — actually they can be downright bleak — but there is a beauty and a humanity always present, much like a Flannery O'Connor story. Standout tracks are Forgiveness and You Never Get What You Want, an unsettling snapshot about insanity and relationships. (AM450) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Rachael Sage

Smashing the Serene

NEW!

0727

Following the lead of such self-contained contemporaries as Ani DiFranco, this young NYC artist releases in '98 (on her own label, of course!) her second album of lush, ethnically-tinged pop songs that are as catchy as they are emotionally insightful. This well-taught singer/songwriter/ pianist crafts songs grounded in honesty, empathy and a healthy dose of cynicism, inspired by an eclectic mix of influences (including Carole King, Elvis Costello, The Indigo Girls, Ani DiFranco and Gertrude Stein, as well as elements of Irish, Russian and Middle Eastern music). Rachael creates a unique mix of poetry and melody. Don't miss out, we recommend! (MP3636) CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan
The Freedom Sessions

0159

This 1995 release is a collection of fan favorites from Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, newly recorded live and acoustic in the studio by Sarah and her band, plus her cover of a Tom Waits song. BUT, the CD is the big deal here. It contains a 30-minute bonus multi-media track for MAC and WINDOWS, with interactive music samples for every track from her catalog, video clips of Sarah on tour, backstage, in the studio, and her trip to Thailand; plus audio narration and commentary by Sarah. This is a first, but no doubt a harbinger of things to come, as the music medium becomes revolutionized by computer technology. (AR18784) CS: $ 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan
Sofa

Her voice contains a gorgeous Irish lilt, kinds like Sinead O'Shea, both soft and sweet and as strong and multicolored as polished titanium. Absolutely captivating! The material on her 1994 debut album is mostly original: she writes simple vignettes about longing (Home), and loneliness (Last), and lost love (I Will Not Forget You, The Path of Thorns, Mercy), and the compassion and frustration she feels about the homeless (Shelter). The most upbeat song is a cover of Donovan's Wear Your Love Like Heaven; instrumentation is a well-produced blend of piano, drums, synthesizers, and guitars. (AR18631) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sarah McLachlan
Surfacing

In 1997, Sarah took the wonderful Lith Fair Festival on the road, touring 40 US cities with an amazing roster of female artists. She also released her fifth album, containing 10 extraordinary new songs: powerful, sensuous, literate and quite remarkable. Sarah never fails in what she does, continuing to give audiences what they expect, while remaining original. Adia, Witness and Full of Grace are three of the most hauntingly beautiful songs I have heard in a long time. This is also an Enhanced CD, so those of you with CD-ROM's get an extra treat, while the CD can still be played in a regular CD player. (AR18970) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Sarah McLachlan
Rarities, B-Sides & Other Stuff

NEW!

This 1996 Canadian import quite possibly features some of Sarah McLachlan's best performances. It includes some very rare covers, such as a powerful version of XTC's Dear God and a haunting remake of Joni Mitchell's Blue (which you might swear is really Joni singing). Also featured are remixed versions of some of her own material, including Fear, Driven To The Rhythm, Shelter, Vox, Into The Fire, and Possession. And, as an extra-special treat, I Will Remember You, which was only available previously on a maxi-single or the Brothers McMullen soundtrack. Highly recommended! (MU330109) CD: 21.98

Sarah McLachlan
Fumbling Towards Ecstasy

This 1994 release from a ruby-throated artist is pure sensation. Introspective lyrics weave through the blissfully restrained production — a subtle mix of guitar, bass, drums and keyboard topped off by Sarah's layered vocals. The title track along with Good Enough and Circle Shimmer with soulful intensity and strength. Joe Cream serves up a tasty composition of love to chocolate as well as to our favorite frozen treat (mmm!). Sarah skillfully rounds out the triumvirate she shares with Kate Bush and Tori Amos. Includes an unlabeled bonus track, recommended. (AR18725) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Team Dresch
Personal Best

0143

This lesbianic all-dyke 4-woman punk band from the north-west has been making major waves nationally from the alternative scene to the queer bars they play (and straight bars, as long as they advertise their show as a queer show) to the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival in 1995! The material on their 1994 debut is actually quite melodic and lyrical, yet filled with intense emotional and sexual rhythm and energy. Songs include Fagelation and Dyke Hate the Christian Right, She's Amazing. One writer said, "On yeah and core of them have ever had a boyfriend... pretty cool." (CAS11) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Tori Amos
From the choirgirl hotel

She is known for her poetic open-diary approach and outspoken discussion of women's lives. This 1998 release continues along a similar path but with one very important difference here, a full set of back-up musicians allows her to explore new rhythmic complexity and all-around musical expansiveness. This recording will definitely expand her already faithful fan base... in fact, one of the Slipper staff, who wasn't a fan previously, just converted! (ATL83095) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tribe 8
Role Models for Amerika

Amerika's favorite estranged daughters are back in 1998 with 15 originals, plus a cover of Black Flag's Rise Above for good measure. It's probably their most punk-sounding effort so far, but still contains all the musical "party-snack-pak" flavors — rock 'n' roll, heavy metal, funk, blues, reggae — from these genre-bending dyke rock gals. (VR5212) CD: 13.98

Carole King
Tapestry

This 1968 classic, one of the best selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cat B'lues
Deep Down

0655

Having read about these gals in places like Girlfriends Magazine and the CD notes for Lesbian Favorites: Women Like Us, we're glad to offer their so-reasonably-priced 1996 album [low enough for you to "take a chance"!]. Their 10 original rockin' bluesy tunes, tinged with soul, highlight rich power and attitude on time-honored topics such as love and suspicions of "meat" around. Citing influences from Etta James and Aretha Franklin to Prince and Free, this 5-woman band (with lead vocals by Cat Bell) incorporates driving rhythms, sultry vocals, and sweet melodies into this captivating collection. (CBL1) CD: 10.98

The Del Rubio Triplets
Anthology

NEW!

In loving memory of their sister Eddie, who passed away in 1996, Elena and Millie have issued this fabulous 1997 retrospective of the triplets' classic song interpretations. Beloved by a large devoted "cult" following, these amazing gals have chosen their very favorite tunes, 23 in all, which provide a big dose of good times through all 4 decades of their joyous music... including 7 previously unreleased tracks, plus a bonus fold-out poster inside! Includes Whip It, Besame Mucho, I Will Survive, YMCA, These Boots Are Made For Walkin', I Love the Night Life, Diva Dang!, The Witch It Dead, an unforgettable collection! (DVE50) CD: 15.98

Dusty Springfield
The Very Best of...

NEW!

Heart throb! With his like Wahin' and Room, I Only Want To Be With You, and You Don't Have To Say You Love Me, who needs those scratched up old 45's (that you can't even find a turntable for) anymore? Only why did they wait until 1998 to relieve these from the vault?? It's about time... 20 tracks in all! (MER58208) CD: 16.98

Tribe 8
Snarkism

Their second full-length album, a 1996 release, is chock-full of snide comments and sarcasm, hence the title Snarkism. Liberally sprinkled throughout their unique brand of social commentary are traces of ska, funk, pop, punk and outright trash and surprising touches of saxophone and violins — lesbian chic has never sounded so... unique! Long known for their aggressive in-your-face live shows and confrontational posture, Tribe 8 still manages to break down the queercore barrier to rock everyone's world. (VR5181) CD: 13.98

Various, inc. Sarah McLachlan
Brewed Awakening

Featuring tracks by Sarah McLachlan, Tara MacLean, Deleuran and others, this 1997 release is being touted as the "unofficial" CD of the Lith Fair... 5 of the 10 artists have performed at various dates on the tour. Sarah McLachlan sings a sultry (previously unreleased) version of Unchained Melody, while the remainder of the CD showcases many newer talents, representing a wide variety of musical styles and influences, including a little country (Dayna Manning), mellow fusion (Alicia De Luca), and acoustic rock (The Ids), among others. (NET30115) CD: 12.98

Veda Hille
Spine

NEW!

If you can possibly imagine a more eclectic Tori Amos, you're still nowhere near a suitable description of this Canadian artist. Her musical background stretches from early classical piano training to her undeniable mix of new music, punk rock, and electro-acoustic songs. This 1998 (her first in the US) features her passionate singing style and complex song structures, backed by an interesting and atypical array of instruments: mandola, dumbek, dudu, saw, yakkab, nq and more. Andy Stochansky (of Ani DiFranco fame) lends his talents on percussion. Highly recommended! (BLR47303) CD: 15.98

Rock ~ Pop

Alana Davis
Blame It On Me

Hmmm, could it really be a song by Ani DiFranco on AAA radio... covered by someone with Ani's initials, whose name even sounds remarkably like Ani, or Alanis... yes indeed, but it's someone who definitely has a sound of her own. Listen to her strong, earthy, soulful voice, and the jazz rooted deep within her acoustic guitar, singing what she thinks about life, love and all the trials in between. In addition to a luscious version of Ani's 32 Flavors, there are the 11 songs Alana wrote or co-wrote, including the title track about breaking up and growing up. Whether you saw her or missed her on the Lith Fair tour, here's your chance to catch this young woman's debut 1997 release. (EL62112) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Beth Wood
New Blood

0659

Our interest was sparked because this singer-songwriter, originally from the music town of Austin TX, currently resides just up the road from us in Asheville NC. She has toured as a solo acoustic artist in folk venues, coffee shops, and street corners, amassing quite a following of loyal fans with her captivating voice and beautifully crafted songs. For this 1998 debut, she enlisted folks who have worked with the Indigo Girls (Don McCollister, Kristian Bush) to create a larger sound, combining elements of bluesy rock, jazz and soul with her folkier singer-songwriter style. (ARR5688) CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt Collection (Double)

This highly recommended double-length album is the cream of her crop! Here are some of the highlights: Women Go Wild, in an previously unreleased duet with Sippie Wallace; No Way To Treat a Lady, one of her many songs for women who've "had it"; Louise, Sugar Mama, Angel from Montgomery, 19 in all, culled from her 9 albums on Warner Brothers, before they decided not to renew her contract! (WB26242) CS: 14.98 CD: 16.98

Bonnie Raitt
Fundamental

This 1998 release, which includes One Brief Away, Blue For No Reason, and Lover's Will, will hopefully add to the artist's collection of 9 Grammy Awards! (CAP56397) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Ellen McIlwaine
Up From the Skies: Polydor Years

NEW!

Us older gals at Ladyslipper are pretty thrilled about the 1998 re-release of Ellen's first 2 albums on 1 singly-priced disc: Honky Tonk Angel (1972) and We the People (1973). It's about time! This red-headed white woman was a "uniquely fearless talent in control of a vast array of tonal washes and rhythmic complexities from gospel to rock to R&B... during a decade when powerful female musicians were few and far between. Brilliant side guitarist, freetail vocalist with unbelievable range, great scatting, fine songwriting... it's all here. Her amazing, shamanistic rendition of the spiritual Wade in the Water is alone worth the price, but other classics like Everybody Wants To Go To Heaven (But Nobody Wants To Die), Losing You and the title songs are great too. It even includes a previously unreleased track, highly recommended! (CRN557576) CD: 16.98

Indigo Girls
Shaming of the Sun

The Girls continue their work for the forces of good and for good music on this 1997 release! (EPC67891) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Indigo Girls
1200 Curfews (Double Set)

This 1995 double live album captures the warmth and magnetism of the Girls in a way the studio albums never do. With 26 songs, it contains 24 hours of live concert favorites culled from a wide range of venues over the years, plus 6 in-concert versions of previously unreleased songs and their new studio recording of Butty Sainte-Marie's Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee. Other memorable moments include their covers of Joni Mitchell's River, Neil Young's Down By the River, and Bob Dylan's Tangled Up in Blue, with a surprisingly down and dirty vocal from Emily. (EPC67229) CS: 15.98 CD: 24.98

Indigo Girls
Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains title track plus Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

We had already gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area where they played frequently, when they made their debut on a major label in '89. This album is folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, need, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

Rites of Passage

Swamp Ophelia

This May 1994 release covers a broad range of emotions and musical thoughts, from Power of Two, a simple, hopeful love song, to Touch Me Fall, a raw opus that deals with ego, the industry and true love, then journeys lyrically and musically toward chaos. Least Complicated is about learning lessons in love and life, and This Train (Revised) is a stark, powerful piece written after a visit to the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. Guest artists include Jane Siberry, Lisa Germano, and the Roches. (EPC57621) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

(COL67005) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Jewel

Pieces of You

I must admit the cover photo of the sun-kissed blonde young woman on this 1994 album and her one-word moniker had me expecting rapid synth-pop, but my ear did a double take when the first moody acoustic strains of these heartfelt songs with jagged edges of pain poured over me. Jewel's songs get through all of the scar tissue with the indelible Who Will Save Your Soul, the disorienting examinations of the title track ("They say I'm a faggot, does it make you want to hurt him... are you afraid you're just the same"), the Tort Amos-like intensity of Rockin' Games. Some of the songs were recorded live at a coffeehouse, which adds an even more intimate pallor. An auspicious debut from a true poet for a new generation! Recommended for those who enjoy the sharp blade of sadness and drink their coffee without sugar. (ATL82700) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Armatrading

Greatest Hits

This 1995 release contains truly the best ever of Joan Armatrading — all the way back to her acoustic beginnings in 1973, with Whatever's For Us, For Us, through Back to the Night, Down to Zero, Love and Affection, Show Some Emotion, all the way up to 1985's Kind Words (And a Real Good Heart). 18 selections in all (the CD even has a bonus track, a live version of Kissin' And A Huggin'), this is a highly recommended retrospective. (AM525) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

What's Inside

This 1995 release, considered by the artist to be her most personal to date, contains the spectrum of classic Armatrading styles: the elegant acoustic simplicity of Merchant of Love, the blues of Lost the Love, the country/gospel strains of Beyond the Blue, complete with slide guitar, the driving beat of Can't Stop Loving You. Her ballad Troutie is a stately, loving tribute to her mother. And one of the best tracks, Shapes and Sizes, even features the strings of the Kronos Quartet! Over two decades of recording and delighting audiences with her rich, warm vocals, and still going strong, Cassette is bargain 'n' out. (RCA27269) CS: 6.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Jett & the Blackhearts

Fit to Be Tied: Great Hits

One of the key members of the legendary all-female rock group The Runaways, then embarking on a solo career in 1979, Joan was one of the first to prove women could rock. This 1997 retrospective spans her entire solo career, from 1980's Bad Reputation, through all her biggest Top 40 hits including I Love Rock 'n Roll and Crimson and Clover, to her 1995 single, Love Is All Around (theme song from the Mary Tyler Moore Show). AND the previously unreleased World of Denial. (MER536440) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Osborne

Early Recordings

We have received many plaintive requests for Joan's early recordings which were released on her own label, Womany Hic. Happily, we can now offer this 1996 combo of 1991's Soul Show (Live at Delta 11), which includes Son of a Preacher Man, and My Away, plus her 1993 3-song EP featuring Captain Beefheart's My Eyes Are a Blue Million Miles. Yee! (BLG534235) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joni Mitchell

Hits

This 1996 compilation includes Joni's biggest, well, "hits" from 1967 to 1994. Includes Big Yellow Taxi, Chelsea Morning, Both Sides Now, River, Raised on Robbery, Woodstock, The Circle Game, and more! If you aren't aware of this musical genius (a favorite even of Led Zepplin!), this is a nice introduction. (If you already are "with it," this would be just nice to have around the house.) (REP46326) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Taming the Tiger

This 1999 release contains a masterful collection of songs from a legendary figure who remains one of the most compelling, complex and original performers in popular music today. Features Wayne Shorter on sax, songs include Harlem in Havana, Tiger Bones, Lead Balloon, The Crazy Cities of Love. (REP46451) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Julia Fordham

East West

The fifth release from this British singer/songwriter, this 1997 album features her developed sharper talents, demonstrating her ability to draw listeners into her deeply personal songs. Simple yet warm, the album's wide-open atmospheres provide a perfect backdrop for the sumptuous vocals and incisive songwriting which have been the artist's forte. This is a sensuous, vocally and instrumentally rich recording, whether singing with gentle introspection or volatile emotion. Her aim is to make each moment as intimate and visceral as a shared heartbeat. (VIR44323) CD: 16.98

Karen Carpenter

One of my favorite childhood memories is playing my mother's Carpenters' albums. Karen's exquisite alto voice still biases me out, and I still think it was SO COOL that she played drums! So I am giddy with excitement to discover that her self-titled solo album, recorded in 1976, is finally being released! Without any "help" from her "oh let's add some more overdubbed strings" brother Richard, this recording is one of the last ones she made before her death from an eating disorder. Produced by Phil Ramone and recorded with Billy Joel's backup band (it's a 1970's lite rock groove), this album includes Paul Simon's Still Crazy After All These Years, Last One Singing the Blues, and a duet with Chicago's Peter Cetera on My Making Love in the Afternoon. (AM588) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro

Stoned Soul Picnic: Best of (2-CD)

This 2-CD set celebrates the innovative artistry of Laura Nyro's singing and songwriting, and it's about time! A key figure in the late '60s/early '70s music scene, her earthy, drinkin'-sweet-wine-by-the-riverbank lyrics were juxtaposed with a sweet, gospelly voice and an R&B/soul/blues/folk sound. Barbara Streisand had a huge hit with her Stoney End; Fifth Dimension hit paydirt with Wedding Bell Blues; Stoned Soul Picnic; and Blowing Away. Blood, Sweat and Tears paid the rent with And When I Die, and Laura herself did a celebrated album of R&B covers (with backup from Labelle), including I Met Him On A Sunday, you can hear Laura's own renditions of all of these here! Also includes her love song for Emmie, Mother's Spiritual, A Woman of the World, plus the requisite dangle carrot for the big fans: previously unreleased stuff. (COL48880) CD: 24.98

Mother's Spiritual

Post-humously re-released in 1997, but already out of print again, this classic album is one of the most women-identified works from this beloved artist. Musical arrangements are light, yet flowing, and her rich mellow voice gives depth of emotion and nuance to her rock-flavored ballads. To A Child evokes a serenity and peaceful sense of well-being, while the upbeat Sophia will get you dancing. Contributing musicians include Nydia Mata, Barbara Cobb, and Laura's brother, Jan Nyro. Don't dally, we have only a very limited quantity. (LNE960924) CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro/Various Artists

Time & Love: Music of Laura Nyro

This wonderful compilation — a tribute to the passionate poet of pop — was released almost immediately after her death from ovarian cancer in 1997. (Why is it we always wait until someone is no longer with us before we elevate them to deity status?) Interpretations of Nyro classics include Phoebe Snow's version of the title cut, Jill Sobule with Stoned Soul Picnic; the Roches's Wedding Bell Blues; Patty Larkin's Poverty Train; Sweet Honey in the Rock's And When I Die; Jane Siberry, Suzanne Vega, and Jonatha Brooke help round out the cast. For new fans as well as long-time followers of this timeless artist. (ATR4007) CD: 16.98

Lauren Wood

She's sung backup for Ferron, but she's best known as the singer-songwriter of the international hit Fallen from the Pretty Woman soundtrack, selling over 15 million copies and earning her platinum record status and much critical acclaim. This charmingly wacky artist has an undeniably unique, sultry voice that has captivated a loyal following. From a well of intimacy and vulnerability to a hint of Beatlesque and humor, her 1997 debut includes 12 new gems plus the bonus track, you guessed it, Fallen. (BA4200) CD: 15.98

Linee

Hard Questions

Linee Perrenon is a New England-based singer/songwriter with a voice as unique as that of Toni Childs or Kristin Hall. With gripping lyrics that delve deep into relationships and human interaction, she will take all your "hard questions" and have you singing, "who really cares anyway..." Her folk roots and her intense acoustic rock style will inspire you to tap your toe and sing along before the first song is over. Highly recommended, she will rock you! (SOR52665) CD: 16.98

Luscious Jackson

Fever in Fever Out

Let's talk funk; better yet let's groove, 'cause these girls have captured it! Their style moves effortlessly from the sound of a 70's movie background clip to the top 40 "sell out" sound, all within the same song. It's an original marriage of style AND marketability. Radio devotees will instantly recognize Naked Eye, where their eclectic funk sound takes a back seat, but folks with an ear for the original will devour the silky voice, pulsating rhythms, and cool guitar riffs that flow through the rest of the tracks like a pipe organ in a Sunday service. As one of their groove tunes suggests, Take a Ride — I recommend an open road, top down, volume up, and a radar detector on! (CAP35534) CD: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Madonna

Ray of Light

This 1998 release, which contains some of the most sophisticated and personal music she's made, includes Frozen, Mer Girl, Shanti/Ashtangi, Skin. (WB46847) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Melissa Ferrick +1

You are reading this right... Melissa Ferrick is back! Recorded live in LA, Boston, and Santa Monica, this 1997 independent release of old and new material is sure to satisfy those of you who have been devoted fans, and to reel in new fans to boot. With her incredible songwriting and amazing guitar ability, it's hard to avoid comparisons to other greats (i.e. Ani DiFranco et al), but she is more than capable of standing on her own and even surpassing those who have come before her. The old material, such as Willing to Wait, seems to have taken on new meaning (she even takes a jab at her old record company for not making it the single from the album of the same name), while the newer songs highlight her style of personalized songwriting. Highly recommended. (WHR00025) CD: 15.98

Melissa Ferrick
Everything I Need

A brief hiatus prior to this 1996 release gave the artist the opportunity to reflect on personal growth, and the 11 new songs here are the result. An expressive guitar player with a powerful voice, she has brought in some extra musical muscle from talented friends, who help make this rich, dynamic audio effort as gritty and exciting as her live shows. (VH100033) CD: 16.98

Michelle Malone
Beneath the Devil Moon

Michelle has been keeping good company and holding her own amongst them. She has toured with the Inigo Grix, and been invited to join several dates on Sarah McLachlan's Summer '97 Lullaby Tour. This 1997 release demonstrates the artist's mature integration of musical styles from gospel, blues, jazz, and rock. She rocks with her own developing style in songs like Medicated Magdalene, where the guitar, drums, and vocals scream — recommended. (VEL75703) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Michelle Malone
New Experience

This Atlanta artist takes a rest from her recent tours with the Inigo Grix to re-issue the 10 songs from her first album, with the addition of 6 new tracks recorded at Daemon Studios (actually Amy Ray's living room). Her vocals are gritty yet eloquent, revealing a woman who has lived through a lot, but still possesses passion and charismatic warmth. Two songs co-written with Kristin Hall, the rest are originals, some acoustic, others more rockin'. This 1993 release offers a welcome glimpse into her past as well as her future. (AJ5025) CD: 15.98

Mickey Hart w/Mint Juleps
Mickey Hart's Mystery Box

Grateful Dead drummer, Planet Drum maestro Mickey Hart has a whole new bag! This 1996 pop music collection features the superb London female vocal sextet, The Mint Juleps, lushly backed by members of the Planet Drum troupe. The sound is like Bananarama on a tropical isle accompanied by digerido. Mickey talks/sings on 3 tracks, including the tribute to the late Jerry Garcia Down the Road. A highlight is Where Love Goes (Sits), an empowering song about dealing with violence against women. (RYK338) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Natalie Merchant
Ophelia

In this 1996 poetic, passionate outpouring of music and mystery, listeners can once again be swept away by Natalie's mesmerizing voice and tantalizing lyrics. Like the Bronte of mythology, the songs cast a spell, demanding closer scrutiny of their multilayered meanings. Dedicating it to the visionary poet Allen Ginsberg, she seems to pursue her own enigmatic visions as she takes up and discards various personas in this intimate song cycle. It's impossible to adequately convey the rich sensuality and liquid sound captured in songs such as Night & Genesis, My Skin, and Break Your Heart. Recommended. (EL62156) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Patti Smith
Peace and Noise

Dedicated to the late William Burroughs, this 1997 release continues to explore the issues of relationships, mortality and loss. Patti is truly an artist of the highest caliber, oblivious to trends, she continues to pursue her own path, never fearing to dredge the depths of her own pain to arrive at a life-affirming and accepting place. With Lenny Kaye's familiar, haunting guitar and Patti's equally haunting voice, she once again has created an album that is timely, layered and beautiful. (AR10966) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Paula Cole
This Fire

Paula radiates more power, both vocally (Tor Amos, watch your back) and musically (she sings, plays piano, juno, tube Wuritzer, harmonium, bass box, toy xylophone, digerido and clarinet, and produced the whole kit and kaboodle) on this 1996 sophomore effort — it's mature, complex, intense and very intelligent pop music. Peter Gabriel guests on Hush, Hush, Hush, and I can't help but notice a similar aesthetic. Also includes Tiger, Carmen, Throwing Stones, I Don't Want to Wait and more. (IMG4424) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Phoebe Snow
I Can't Complain

On this 1996 release, her first in 7 years, Phoebe Snow pays homage to her favorite singer/songwriters of the past 4 decades. Drawing from her folk and blues-infused roots, with a little rock and soul mixed in, Phoebe is back in full force, included on this extraordinary set of cover songs a Place of My Heart (Janis Joplin), A Case of You (Joni Mitchell), I Tunes A Lot to Laugh, I Tunes A Tear (Bob Dylan) along with many more. (PL1161382) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rebekah
Remember to Breathe

The young woman can write a book! This 25-year-old Cleveland singer/songwriter, who grew up singing in the church choir, presents her strong 1998 debut, a direct, intensely personal collection of songs that range from delicate to playful to sultry to raucous. One listen to Sin So Wet and you are sure to follow suit, as it will be immediately and permanently imbedded in your brain cells! Also includes the playful finger-wagging dance-down of Hay Genius, the world weary title track, and the tender, sad Little Black Girl. Look for a splash from this new artist! (EL62115) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various: New Wave Women
Just Can't Get Enough

After the testosterone-driven classic rock and punk eras, female artists emerged in the late 70s/early 80s in the US and challenged the male-dominated status quo in the UK. By the mid-80s, there was more gender equality in pop music as female artists took their rightful place in the mainstream. This 1997 release pays tribute to some of these pioneering women includes Eurythmics' Sweet Dreams (Are Made of This), Divinyls' I Touch Myself, Josie Cotton's Johnny, Are You Queer?, the uncensored version of Romeo Void's Never Say Never, songs from the Go-Go's, Bangles, Pretenders, Lene Lovich and more; plus the CD has bonus tracks from Laurie Anderson (O Superman), Belle Stars, Pandoras and Joan Armatrading. Vonda Shepard
It's Good, Eve

Surround yourself with the songs of this 1995 release that go beyond mere reminiscence and sad love songs. Here is a reflective and honest work with depth! Vonda's sensuously racy voice imparts beauty with every note, and the creative and surprising instrumentation make a most harmonious accompaniment. The opening track, Maryland, appears on the Putumayo compilation, Women's Work, which features some of the most celebrated and up-and-coming artists of our time. Listen to this album and you'll know why she's included: a highly recommended recording! (VES85003) CD: 16.98

Vonda Shepard
Radical Light

Originally released in 1992 by Reprise, it was only available for five weeks — do you think someone is kicking themselves now? Re-released in '96, the opening track, Searchin' My Soul, is the theme song on Ally McBeal. This recording gives you more of what you love about the music on the show, and demonstrates why she deserves all of the attention being given to her. (VES85005) CD: 16.98

Vonda Shepard
Songs from Ally McBeal

If you love the show, you'll love this 1998 original soundtrack featuring Vonda's sultry vocal talents. Every song will remind you of a favorite episode or a favorite stop on Ally's emotional roller coaster. Even if your attitude toward the show, its notoriously short skirts or the law in general is more problematic, you'll still find plenty of romantic pleasure in Vonda's sizzling covers of such classics as Walk Away Renee, You Belong to Me, and I Only Want to Be with You. Mixed in with the make-out music and the dance tunes are 4 of Vonda's own songs, including the show's theme song Searchin' My Soul. Recommended... (especially for anyone who wants to see Ally and her roommate Renee get together!) (SON89385) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Vonda Shepard
Further proof that there is no such thing as an overnight success story will be found on Vonda's 1989 debut album. Yes, she was around long before Ally McBeal was even a thought, and just as good. This release includes her top 15 Billboard hit, Don't Cry (she's on an album full of incredible songs. (VES85004) CD: 16.98

Sinead O'Connor
So Far... The Best of Sinead...

Capturing the essence of the paradoxical and tumultuous 7 years of the artist's recording history, this 1997 album contains some of the best tracks from her first 4 albums to date, plus a couple of songs from soundtracks. You'll see why her music and persona are often described with words like provocative, outspoken, emotional, sensual, and confessional. (EMC21581) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tara MacLean
Silence

This debut recording has steadily captured fans since its initial release in 1996. Tara has put writing back into the singer/songwriter genre with intimate glimpses into her soul, exploring a wide range of subjects including child abuse, loss and hope. She has recently toured with Paula Cole, Ashley McIsaac and Der Williams, and made appearances on the Lilith Fair tour, expect to see a lot more of this remarkable Canadian. (NET30106) CD: 16.98

Toni Childs
The Woman's Boat

Back in print, now at a great price! Toni has always used her music as a vehicle for intensely personal views of major social issues, but on this 1994 release, she journeys beyond that, into the spiritual realm. Thematically it traces the course of women's lives through the cycle of birth, growth, death and rebirth. Many songs are danceable, and there's a world music feel with some tracks recorded in India, and contributions by Peter Gabriel and members of Zaz Mama. If you're already familiar with her incredible voice, you'll probably be buying this anyway. If not, buy it for the artwork, and because she dedicates it "to the female spirit in every living thing." Amazing, outstanding, instantly recommended. (GEF24619) CD: 8.98

Tracy Nelson/ Mother Earth
Best of Tracy Nelson/Mother Earth

This 1995 anthology brings back into print, for the first time in decades, some of the truly remarkable music made by Tracy and her band in the late 60's and early 70's. Mixing strains of R&B, country, folk and rock in a decidedly straightforward style — miles removed from the more over-the-top acts of the era — Mother Earth was an extraordinarily sympathetic vehicle for Tracy's powerful singing. Includes their veritable classic Down So Low, plus Temptation Took Control of Me and I Fell, Satisfied. Cry On, Mother Earth, Ruler of My Heart, 17 in all. (WAR46232) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Artists from around the world have donated songs (some rare and never before released) of hope and spiritual strength, to this 1997 fundraising project for cancer research and treatment. Includes Ani DiFranco on title track, Melissa Etheridge's I Will Never Be the Same, Jane Siberry's Calling All Angels, Angelique Kidjo's Sunshine, plus more by Cranberries, Bob Marley, and others. # Folk ~ Singer-Songwriter

Alison Brown Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Bela Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twirls and lurch. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Alisons steal the show here — Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle. Dave Gramen on mandolin, Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, one of our Top Pix for 1997, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this. So don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79455) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Alison Krauss Now That I've Found You

This 1995 retrospective traces Alison's evolution from a fiddle prodigy to a mature (at age 23) musician and singer with an unerring ear for choosing and interpreting songs. Includes highlights from all previous Rounder releases, tracks from outside projects, and 3 brand new tracks. (ROU0329) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Alison Krauss & Union Station So Long So Wrong

Alison has almost single-handedly brought bluegrass into the bright lights of mass popularity. On this 1997 release, her inimitable singing and fiddle playing soars with a new maturity: she hasn't forsaken bluegrass traditions, but has traded in plainness for softer edges. With additional vocals by guitarist Dan Tyminski, and mandolin, banjo, and acoustic bass from the other boys, this record is a treasure-stuffed grabbag of last-love songs like the title track, I Can Let Go Now and Deeper Than Crying, bittersweet instrumentals like Little Lisa Jane, and hard-core faith as in There Is A Reason. (ROU0365) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ana Egge River Under the Road

Gambling accolades left and right, the 1997 debut album of this young Austin-based artist combines bluegrass chords and a clear melodious voice in original songs which soulfully recount tales of life with lovers, friends, and family in small midwestern towns. However, there is nothing small about the waves created by the chords and lyrics as this rising prodigy twangs on the listener's heart strings! In Bless Me Mother, she sadly recalls the lower side of troubled love relationships as she sings, "It shouldn't hurt so to leave like this if it's not your face but your voice I miss." (LSR0002) CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Hole in the Day

Our favorite midwestern singer/songwriter/guitarist is one prolific gal, lucky for y'all! This 1993 12-song release features her thriving brown-sugar-&-molasses voice, that damn-fine guitar playing of hers, and of course, her wry love songs. Thoroughly enjoyable! Includes Too Much Trouble, Some Hearts, Miles Home to You, and No Road to Jureau. (AML2) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Life Gets Real

This 1995 release is a quintessential midlife exploration to complete the trilogy that began with Road of the Heart and Hole in the Day. Ann's full, deep, exquisite voice and artful self-harmonizing are just two of the features that make this album distinctive. The title track is a rocking really check that offers insights about perspective and philosophy of life. Love Online is a humorous country song about e-mail relationships. "Your hair, your eyes, well these are things I've never seen! But ooh your voice appears so warm upon my screen." Walk is a beautiful and compelling piece dealing with domestic violence. Excellent rhythms and melodies — her best yet — highly recommended! (AML4) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Timing Is Everything

Grab a cup of something hot and settle in for a cozy visit with Ann's 1997 collection of new love songs (I Write a Letter, Love Like This), insightful tunes of friendship (I Will Be There For You, Watching Over You), miss-you-baby blues (Can't Sleep), Ann borrows the melody to Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend as a backdrop for Power Tools, a ditty which ought to become our office manager's theme song. The album title is taken from the chorus of Martha, a story of a homeless woman and her gradual journey from life's mainstream to its leeward streets ("Crazy didn't happen overnight! Just so you know! Timing is everything"). Ann's award-winning guitar work is showcased in the instrumental piece The Dark, The Outhouse & The Creatures on Either Side, one of a handful of tunes written on an island during an Artist-in-Residence Program. If you've loved Ann's previous recordings as much as we have, you'll be pleased with this one! (AML1101) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Back & Forth

The Best is back, in print, that is, this contains the best from her first releases Carpenter and Road and Board, such as The Woman You'd Love, Jessie, Jayne, plus 3 new songs: Push the River, What Made You Love Her, and Where the Hell is Boston? We're so glad! (TC001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ann Reed Road of the Heart

Listening to Ann's inimitable voice and incredible guitar work here is akin to sitting down to read a big fat letter from an old friend — rich with familiarity and ease; and full of love, humor, a few of those "aw-damn" love songs, and songs that explore both the smooth and rough edges of our lives. Compelling, retrospective, and all acoustic, in a folksy/jazzy/bluey vein. (TC10074) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/P Herdman/C Mangsen Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the result is as fabulous as their fans might expect! It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their scappella work; most songs include back-up by producer/arranger Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game, included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...!) Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Babes With Axes Live Axe

If you'd expected some woman's heavy metal or loud screaming rock from their name, guess again! These babes are a fabulous women's acoustic quartet from Oregon, rich in 4-part harmonies. Their axes are their instruments, and they all play acoustic guitars plus lots more (piano, banjo, upright bass, dobro). Rotating lead vocals, instruments and songwriting, this live 1996 performance is full of vibrancy and variety. Their songs are progressive, funny, serious and startling, as they do so-called One Size Fits All clothes, among other topics. Recommended! (BWA002) CD: 13.98

Bare Necessities English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one! We are placing this exquisite 1995 instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lee, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddis in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk-dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and lilting beauty sounds: Baroque! classical! new-agey, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, soar, float, and cheer each other with counter-melodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, flageolet, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

blackgirls Happy

When the computer ate my somewhat rambling first review of this recording not once but twice, I figured it was Divine Intervention, and thus went back and listened again. How to describe the unategorizable? To compare them thematically and musically to the Indigos, Bush, Joni, Roches and Raincoats does not do justice. But, life ain't fair, a fact these girls recognize and (sometimes cheerfully) lament. No simple downer missives of life's and love's lumps, but wistful observations, multi-layered declarative chants, honest (and therefore, clever) statements — all with lovely vocals and instrumentation. Buy this, I mean it. (MAM0024) CS: 5.98

Caroline Aiken Butler Field

Although this is the woman who originally united the Indigo Girls, she is by no means only distinguished for that. She has two live self-produced albums already under her belt, and now this 1997 release on an independent label — it's about time! Here is a beautifully rich and robust voice, full of ebbs and emotional expansion: "I escape into ink and paper" she says. Her lyrics are simple, but she has a way of filling simple phrases with more than just words. The Indigo Girls, with whom she is touring to promote her album, join her on the title song. Poetry in emotion! (SWF1007) CD: 15.98

Carrie Newcomer My True Name

One of our favorite singer-songwriters returns with this 1996 release, another understated masterpiece which blends her unflinchingly honest lyrics, clear and moving vocals, and wonderful playing and production. The Moon Over Tucson, inspired by a Barbara Kingsolver essay, relates how people are connected to the physical universe in ways we may not understand consciously but we feel at our deepest level. Something Worth Fighting For, co-written with Pierce Pettis, delves into the complexity of adult love. To her acoustic foundation she adds touches of roots-rock sensibility, and a tasty slice of country. (PH1223) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Catie Curtis

0644

Remember the first time you heard the plaintive, unadorned voice of James Taylor singing Fire and Rain or Tracy Chapman's quietly poignant Fast Car — moments that forever changed the way you experienced music? Listening to Catie's opening vocals here creates a similar epiphany, then she extends her crystalline folk sound into a musically lush environment. Like the simple electricity of her live performances, this 1997 release captures a unique artist at the height of her craft. Includes Soulfully, Do Unto Others, Come To Me. (GUA57209) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Catie Curtis Truth From Lies

If you loved her earlier stuff as much as we did, you won't be disappointed by this 1994 follow-up. Her heart-breaking vocals and acoustic guitar are backed up by drums and bass, with some guest appearances by Patty Larkin and John Gorka. Our favorite songs include Everybody Was Dancing, the poignant tale of a woman's loneliness in a 30-year marriage, and Radical, which affirms the freedom of loving with no political statements attached. ## Chenille Sisters Haute Chenille: A Retrospective

Find out why Hillary and Chelsea Clinton asked reporters in Ann Arbor, Michigan, "Is it this where the Chenilles are from?" This '95 release is a knock-out collection from their first 7 albums, plus two hilarious new tracks — 13 songs in all — featuring the very best of what Chenille fans have come to adore: clever yet human lyrics, smooth-as-silk harmonies, and a sound that ranges from folk to jazz to pop. (RHR81) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Before we encountered this 1995 album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Linnas soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual: strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes, best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts, in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses!" (PH1162) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler
Driving Home

The sweet-sounding, rhyming slices of life provided on this 1993 release are mostly nostalgic and thoughtful, delivered in Cheryl's straightforward manner and lovely alto. She writes with insight about relationship dead-ends, and with true appreciation of the changing seasons. The tempo is occasionally lightened by selections such as the tongue-in-cheek Don't Forget the Guns. With vocal support on a few selections by Mary-Crispin Carpenter, Alison Krauss, and Patty Larkin (and Jonathan Edwards, who also produced) how can you go wrong? (PH1152) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Cheryl Wheeler
Half a Book

On this '87 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Admitted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. (MS0005) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Cheryl Wheeler
Mrs. Pinocci's Guitar

0422

This 1995 collection of 14 Wheeler originals reaffirms her reputation as one of the premiere singer-songwriters on the contemporary folk scene. Whether yearning for simplicity (Howl at the Moon) or diving headlong into the complexities of love (So Far to Fall) or goofing on pop culture (TV and Is It Peace Or Is It Prozac?), Cheryl always gets to the heart of the matter and delivers every nuance. (PH1102) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Christine Lavin
Shining My Flashlight on the Moon

For this 1997 release, Christine goes back to her gentle, wry, stripped-down style. The best way to describe the essence of this artist is to let her song topics, a commemorative divorce song, a trip to the Louvre in Paris, a hospital operating room music, inventions she would create if she ruled the world, fishing from the fishes' perspective, polka-ing bus drivers, and the planet Pluto. (This last song, Planet X, features a theremin and is perhaps the first song to contain a URL address!) Classic Christine! (SHN024) CD: 10.95

Christine Lavin
One Wild Night in Concert

NEW!

This 1998 release on her own label is exactly what her audiences clamor for: a spontaneous example of the hilarity, creativity and rapport for which her concerts are renowned. Among the new songs in inimitable Christine style: They Look Alike, They Walk Alike, inspired by Dolly the sheep; Animal Apology Day, her proposal for world peace; and The Vision on the Relaxation Tape, a very funny send-up to the New Age movement. Concert favorites include Oh No (about losing things), the classic Sensitive New Age Guys, and her most-requested song The Kind of Love You Never Recover From. Even the baton-twirling grand finale is here (minus light sticks)! The album captures much of what makes her one of the most popular performers on the folk circuit, capable of turning new listeners into enthusiastic fans within the course of one song! (CLV1) CD: 15.95

Dana & Karen Kletter
Dear Enemy

0694

This unusual 1998 release is a suite of songs relating the extraordinarily strange family life of these Raleigh, NC-based twin sisters. Dana was a member of the all-rock musical groups Blackgates and Dish plus Courtney Love's back-up singer on Hole's Live Through This; Karen is a medieval religious historian... their dad was a gangster, their mom a Holocaust survivor. Their debut, 8 years in the making (so long because, as they suggest, "time sure flies when you hate your sister"), features their haunting harmonies and darkly evocative lyrics. Includes Sister Song, Melior Moin, Father Song, Your Mother Wants to Know. (HAN429) CD: 15.95

Danielle Howle
Live at McKissick Museum

Back by popular demand, especially since she's been opening for the Indigo Girls and Ani DiFranco. This Columbia, SC artist (whose album is manufactured by Amy Ray's Daemon label) sounds like someone you would accidentally stumble upon in a southern college town, someone who's funny and wryly observant and wearing old jeans and really easy to hang out with. This 1995 album is just her, a guitar, and an appreciative, intimate audience, as she chats and sings through songs like Big Puffy Girl Hardwiring, Frog Song, Why You Worry. There are flashes of a mellow Janis Joplin, but all in all it's a down-home, acoustic thing. (DAE19010) CD: 15.95

Dar Williams
The Honesty Room

0154

This young, vibrant singer-songwriter is making waves around the country lately, acoustic luminaries such as Christine Lavin have been raving about her. The Folk Music bulletin boards of the Internet have been buzzing, she's gathered a fair bit of radio play, and made knockout folk festival appearances. Her remarkable lyric style is coupled with a supple sense of melody and a superb 3-octave voice, which carresses songs that convey a great mix of politics, social commentary, love and observation. This 1993 release includes the gender-twister When I Was a Boy, plus The Babysitter's Hers, Atellus, The Great Unknown. On the look-out for some fine new talent? Try Dar. (RAT2818) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Dar Williams
End of the Summer

0700

Dar turns up the heat with her third album, packed with the kind of articulate, provocative and witty songs that have become her trademark. Sonic landscapes dovetail with kinetic narratives, and rhythms run the gamut from the simple and spare accompaniment of I Wrote You to the Classic Rock backbeat of Party Generation. What Do You Hear in These Sounds? features dazzling wordplay around the theme of psychotherapy, and her wry social commentary comes through loud and clear in Teenagers, Kick Our Butts, Background vocals, by Justice and Joyce, as well as Lucy Kaptenaky and the Nalids, adding the finishing touches to this highly recommended 1997 release. (RAT2830) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Dar Williams
Mortal City

0461

What can you say about brilliance? Well, a lot, really. This 1998 sophomore effort by critically acclaimed folk musician and Joan Baez tourmate Dar Williams is so substantial and exquisite and meaningful and accomplished that it shines like polished bronze. Kicking off with the bouncing As Cool As I Am, an upbeat feminist tune with the sing-a-long anthem-like chorus "I will not be afraid of women" can start your day right. February brings you down with her wistfully evocative soprano and a tender metaphor for a failed love. The Christians and the Pagans is an endearing story about a pagan lesbian couple sharing an ecumenical Christmas celebration with an uncle's family. Other songs such as The Pointless, Yet Poignant, Critics of a Co-Ed and Southern California Wants to Be Western New York live up to their billing. Oh, I could go on but I mustn't... highly I really really mean it recommended. (RAT2821) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Domestic Science Club
Three Women

This really sweet trio consists of Sara Hickman, Robin Macy (from The Dixie Chicks), and Patty Laga; on this 1996 release, they chart new territory while maintaining their charming vocal harmony blend reminiscent of the Andrews Sisters sipping in with the Carter Family. They describe their sound as "retro meets", suggesting an updated female vocal trio sound for the cool cocktail lounges and sophisticated uptown pads of the digital age. Includes title track, Nanci Griffith's Time of Inconvenience, Sara Hickman's signature Gave It Every Little Thing You Got, plus What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Unseen Angels, the tour-de-force Calm of Your Heart... AND (get this) a hidden track containing a vocal rendition of the Bolivian National Anthem! (CCR9623) CD: 15.95

Eileen Edmonds

The voice is breathy, at times sultry with the slightest bit of an edge, the lyrics poignant. Everything you might look for in a folk-rock album, Eileen delivers on her 1996 solo debut. If you remember her from her Theories of the Old School Days, you'll be pleased to know that she hasn't lost much in losing the band. In fact, the more limited instrumental back-up gives the songs a raw simplicity that was the best part of the Old School anyway... As for a recommendation, suffice it to say I'll probably steal the demo copy myself! (EDM96301) CS: 9.50 CD: 12.50

Eliza Gilkyson
Redemption Road

We once again welcome this singer-songwriter back to the recording world, where she blends together such diverse influences as folk, Celtic, pop, rock and Americana to create a refined, passionate, and accessible 1997 album. This music is laced with earthy grooves, soaring harmonies, mandolins, and fiddles, while her intimate, honest lyrics draw focus to her rich and versatile vocals. If you've been a fan for all these years, you'll definitely want to accompany her on this leg of her journey. (MT397) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Elizabeth Von Trapp
One Heart, One Mind

Remember The Sound of Music, which portrayed the story of the Austrian family, the von Trapps? Elizabeth is the granddaughter of the very same Baroness Maria von Trapp. This Vermont singer-songwriter carries on her family tradition of making beautiful music. On this 1996 release, her exquisite, angelic voice intertwines seamlessly with an elegant blend of classical arrangements of her original songs, graced by folk-style flourishes. Her haunting melodies, rich with baroque undertones, create musical patterns vigorous and precise, echoing her background in folk, classical and liturgical traditions. Other family members do participate, and on the closing title track, an all-women's vocal ensemble provides the otherworldly sounds of a medieval choir. (VTM201) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Eva Cassidy
Songbird

NEW!

0719

We bring this incredible (and uncategorizable) vocalist to you with great sadness and joy in our hearts — this 1996 best-of release was issued posthumously, as Eva died of cancer at age 33 in 1996. During her lifetime, her notoriety was stifled by paralyzing stage fright, yet those who did know of her versatile talents sang her praises mightily... until the greater music world both found and lost her simultaneously at her death, when she was awarded Nine Mammies (Washington Area Music Awards) in DC! She performed folk, blues, gospel, and pop with equal flair, adding new dimensions to all her interpretations. One can almost hear the tears behind each note as she flows effortlessly through everything from Wade in the Water to Over the Rainbow, from Pete Seeger's On, Had I a Golden Thread to Sting's Fields of Gold. We think you'll be blown away by her artistry; highly recommended! (BLX10045) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Four Bitchin' Babes
Fax It, Charge It...

...Don't Ask Me What's For Dinner... but this 1995 release serves up some great bitches' tunes by Babes Christine Lavin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingerhut, now joined by Debi Smith. Tracks range from poignant ballads like Debi's My Mother's Hands and Sally's indictment of domestic violence, She Won't Be Walkin' to the chuckle-generating Great Big Bug, where Christine takes us on a cockroach hunt, and Megan's Microwave Life. Includes a studio version of Christine's classic What Was I Thinking, sung with help from guest Babe Mary Travers. (SHN0018) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Four Bitchin' Babes
Life According to 4 Bitchin' Babes

Christine Lavin plus Patty Larkin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingerhut were recorded Live at the Birchmere, alternately entitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair... their unforgettable concert tour together has been eternalized and immortalized. You'll get to experience their humor, indescribable voices, and very on-target material. Includes Junk Food, Ladies Lunch, Sensitive New Age Guys, Prisoners of Their Hairsdos, Not Bad For a Broad, These Bitches Are Made For Walkin', and Home is Where the Heart Is, a touching vignette by Sally about a lesbian couple and a gay couple. Recommended! 1991. (PH1140) CS: 9.95 CD: 16.95

Gayla Drake Paul
How Can I Keep From Singing?

O lovers of solo guitar instrumental music, read this! It's a catchy title, for a totally instrumental release — obviously she figured it out! Gayla is a GREAT performer of acoustic finger-style guitar music, offering original compositions almost exclusively in the DADGAD tuning (common in Irish music). Some of this is very meditative and impressionistic stuff, as titles such as Wednesday in the Park with Rimpie and A Walk with Peter into the Big Nothing would suggest... and even her tunes with words like Jig, Plunkety, Reel, and Hompie in their titles are on the quiet side. With each piece like a lovely painting, this 1997 album is perfect for chilling out from the frenzied world in the Windham Hill tradition but on her very own label, very recommended! (VW41597) CD: 15.95

Gillian Welch
Hell Among the Yearlings

NEW!

The stripped-down old-time style of this truly outstanding folk artist has been dropping the jaws of critics and fans across the country. On this 1998 sophomore effort, she further explores American traditional music while indulging in some powerful songwriting, employing a pristine presentation which is sure to move her one step closer to legendary status. The tracks chronicle and explore the experiences of poor rural white folks with Whiskey Girl, Winter's Come & Gone, and Miner's Hehman. This staff favorite will move you with the brilliance of her simplicity. (ALB0021) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Gillian Welch
Revival

I cannot understand how, but Gillian manages to convey the entire weight of the sadness in Appalachian/Deep Southern poor, rural lives on this 1996 release. Whung from her young heart, ageless tales of crushed hopes, death, bad luck and lives that never stood a chance are leavened only by steadfast faith in a fair shake when they "cross over". Simple arrangements, direct lyrics, and a delicately plain, but not overly plaintive singing style have grabbed us and won't let us go. The easy-to-take twang of Orphan Girl, Tear My Silt House Down, Barroom Girls and By the Mark seem like timeless classics gathered in the back mountain hollers, but they are all her original! Essential listening to realize your perspective on the important things. (ALB0008) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Ian & Sylvia
The Best of Ian & Sylvia

This single-volume anthology is truly the best of the best, containing 12 beloved songs you surely must know by heart from campfires and sing-alongs past, many of these were title tracks from the fairly vast discography of this Canadian folk-singing duo. Includes You Were On My Mind, Early Morning Rain, Four Strong Winds, Four Roads By, Changes, Darcy Farrow. Recommended! (VAN79269) CD: 15.95

First Things First

What an unexpected and absolute delight... What talent! What whimsy! What charm! This violinist—who has already been an accomplished instrumentalist, as concertmaster of the Bay Area Women's Philharmonic and co-founder of the Turtle Island String Quartet—enters a new realm of musicianship with this finely-crafted album of original songs. This 1997 solo debut as singer-songwriter (plus violin and piano) is like a creative sunrise: wistful, improvisational, rhythmic, melodic and emotionally exciting. Highly recommended buy that! (ELR6896) CD: 14.98

Janis Ian Between the Lines

Now that this well-known artist from the 60's and 70's has publicly come out as a lesbian (confirming years of audience hope and/or speculation), we've been getting requests for her material. Here's a classic 1975 album, containing several of her hits: At Seventeen, Tea & Sympathy, Lover's Lullaby, and more. (COL33394) CS: 9.98 CD: 13.98

Janis Ian Breaking Silence

Nostalgic for the 60's and 70's? You're not alone! Fans everywhere are crying for new releases from the folk legends, and after a 12-year hiatus, Janis delivers! Not shying away from controversy personally (coming out of the closet) or in her music, her song topics touch issues such as the Holocaust in Tattler, physical abuse in His Hands, child abuse and molestation in the title track, and eroticism (given new meanings) in Ride Like a Wave. Two songs were co-written with Jess Leary, whose music she impressed us years ago that we listed her as. And whatever you do, don't miss Guess You Had To Be There, because if you were conscious at all during the 60's, she's playing your song. 1992 (MOR20023) CS: 10.98 CD: 14.98

Janis Ian Hunger

With this 1997 release, Janis starts off her 30th year of recording as strong as ever. The songs are lyrically personal and poignant. Searching For America, with Ani DiFranco, is a musically haunting examination of life in America. Honor Them All explores the importance of remembering and paying tribute to those who have helped make you who you are and continue to shape your life. Black & White investigates prejudice and the deterioration of race relations. And the power of her lyrics is only one side of the coin — Janis has reached a new pinnacle with her instrumentation, adding even more strength to what is already a superb album. Hopefully it's just the beginning of the next 30 years of Janis's incredible music. Highly recommended! (WH11274) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Janis Ian Revenge

When Janis Ian performed songs from this 1995 album at the National Women's Music Festival, thousands of women were ecstatic about her very "out" commentary as well as her artistry. Golden Fire is a passionate angry piece written following a breakup, and When Angels Cry speaks movingly about AIDS. "Some say it's a judgment on us all, can't believe that God could be that small." This acclaimed songwriter — with a voice that can be touching in its delicacy or surging in its vigor — is going strong in her comeback, over 30 years after her first major hit! (BEC11559) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Jann Arden Happy?

This Canadian singer-songwriter is a Juno Award-winner (like the Canadian Grammys), and this 1997 recording is her third, so we are hoping that the US will finally catch up with regions in which she has achieved widespread recognition (Canada, Australia and Italy) and catch on to her wonderful artistry. The question mark in the title is deliberate, as her original songs search and struggle for the deeper meanings of the word, exploring survival, passion and the often difficult intricacies of intimate relationships. She looks within and reaches out, confronting pain and in the process healing from it. (AM789) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Jennifer Berezan Refuge

Glimpses of the Goddess in contemporary culture can be seen as you listen to this 1997 pop-rock recording of stirring vocals, creative instrumentation, and aware lyrics. All of the songs are original and reflect the holistic perspective of the singer-songwriter. In Crazy Saints she draws ancient mythology into the present as she relates, "I dreamed I saw Cassandra walking through Los Angeles/ Snakes at wrapped around her, weaving patterns on her dress/ I swear I saw her climbing high upon a T.V. tower/ Reaching for a present moon, summoning a midnight power." Take refuge in this thoughtful and moving release. (EOW10) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jo Miller and Laura Love Sing Bluegrass & Old-Time Music

Ranch Romance's lead singer and the inimitable Laura Love join forces on this '95 release of 16 lovely, intense, pretty much traditional bluegrass and old-time songs — most of them duets. Full of fast-paced raves, beautiful ballads, and yes, yodeling, it features accompaniment by the amazing dobro/mandolin player Orville Johnson, plus Nancy Katz, Nova Davoria and David Keenan of Ranch Romance. Jo and Laura have been occasionally performing as the Jo Miller/Laura Love Connection, between their other commitments, and crowd response has been phenomenal, so if you haven't yet, catch their gig here! (RDC100) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Baez

Baez Sings Dylan

This 1998 release, which compiles 20 classic tracks from 4 of Joan's albums from the 60's, "reintroduces performances from one of our most treasured singers interpreting the early work of the most important songwriter of our time, both timeless, as well as timely... relives the strong, lasting impact that both artists had on music, society and each other." Includes Forever, Angelina, I Shall Be Released, Don't Think Twice, It's All Right, Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, and more. (VAN79512) CD: 15.98

Joan Baez Diamonds & Rust

This classic contains her original Dia and title track, Janis Ian's Jesse Jackson Browne's Fountain of Sorrow, and more. (AM1233) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Baez Gone From Danger

From Bob Dylan to Leonard Cohen and countless others, this golden-voiced artist has demonstrated an uncanny ability to identify brilliant new songwriters. On her 1997 release, she presents songs by new writers she deems important voices, including the critically acclaimed Dar Williams (February, If I Wrote You), Betty Elders, Sinead Lohan and more. (GUA59387) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Baez Live at Newport

Contrary to what you might assume, almost all the songs on this 1996 album have never before been released! Recorded live at the 1963-1965 Newport Folk Festivals, when Joan's soprano was ruling the world, it includes All My Trials, Come All Ye Fair and Tender Maidens, Farewell Angelina, a duet with Mary Travers on Lonesome Valley, a duet with Peter Yarrow on Hush Little Baby, and duets with little Bobby Dylan on It Ain't Me Babe and With God On Our Side. Armed with an acoustic guitar, a mean vibrato and a great nobility of spirit, Joan bowed over the crowd sitting (?) on the grass and how you too can have that experience. (VAN77016) CD: 15.98

Joan Baez w/Indigos, Janis Ian, etc Ring Them Bells

Over 4 special nights in April '95, at NYC's Bottom Line, a remarkable array of women artists shared the spotlight with Joan Baez in an amazing celebration of the art and timelessness of American music. Songs include Jesse (with Janis Ian), Don't Think Twice It's Alright (with Indigo Girls), title track (with Mary Black), Shallow Song (with Joan's sister Mini Farnal), Diamonds and Rust (with Mary Chapin Carpenter), You're Aching Well (with Dar Williams), Pajarillo Baranquero (with Ish Hinojosa), Wile Moore (with Kate and Anna McGarrigle), and other Baez classics such as The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down. Even if you weren't one of the 1,200 folks lucky enough to be there for this historic event, you can still share these moments of great music and inspiring artistry. (GUA34889) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Joan Baez Rare, Live & Classic (Boxed Set)

An incredible collection of work spanning an incredible 31-year career! This boxed set of 4 tapes or 3 CD's contains: a 32-page book with interviews and photos; 60 songs, including 18 previously unreleased, from live performances and broadcasts as well as recordings from 8 different record labels; and a plethora of songs featuring Joan with other great artists such as: Bob Dylan, the Grateful Dead, her sister Mini Farnal, Judy Collins, Donovan, Kris Kristofferson, Odette, and more! This 1993 release, two years in the making, makes a great gift for any fan you know and love, including yourself. (VAN1257) CS: 36.98 CD: 44.98

Joan Baez The First Ten Years (Double Set)

This double-album set contains eighteen of the best songs from Joan's earlier repertoire: includes Love Is Just a Four-Letter Word, Mary Hamilton, Farewell Angelina, There But For Fortune, other Dylan, contemporary and traditional songs. (VAN4560/1) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Joanne Rand Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice gorgeous voice gorgeous voice! Gorgeous voice! Gorgeous voice! Gorgeous voice! Gorgeous voice! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves, her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness, and I already told you about her voice, about which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1999 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaanisqatsi, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Joanne Rand Grant Me Eyes

Allowing bone and sinew to show through, Joanne turns inward on this fiercely personal 1995 release. In her own words, "This album describes a one year cycle, punctuated midstream by the loss of my brother, Jordan, to AIDS. I offer it up as a map to help you on your own course through change." The confessional/redemptive mood (think Parron meets Lori Amos) creates a setting for her songs which examine her relationship with and feelings for her brother, his death and its lasting resonances. Quintan Angel cries out "Nothing is secure," and The Great Divide sings, "But now you are gone somewhere I cannot see... I feel like I have found the edge of the earth. Bring on the dawn, bring on the birth." She also includes a few of her brother's interestingly metaphorical songs, such as Humane Party and O.J.'s Song (yes, that O.J.). A deeply felt work, borne of lingering pain that is ultimately beautiful and redemptive. (JR5) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Jonatha Brooke 10 Cent Wings

Jonatha, formerly of The Story, sings her original songs with wistful, haunting longing and an upstart backdrop. Are these half-empty glasses of regret, or half full ones? Easy to picture the character in the songs sitting in the bar just before closing, staring into her drink before pulling on a jacket and sliding to the drier for a cup of coffee with which to start the day. Includes Secrets and Lies, a very effective "keep on plugging through depression and hope" song. (MCA11706) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Judy Collins Forever (2-CD Set)

This definitive 1997 retrospective from her entire 2-decade career on Elektra collects 31 of her treasured songs of yore, plus 4 new tracks that bring her legacy into the 90's. Featuring extensive notes by Judy plus an essay about the artist by Gloria Steinem, this 2-volume set truly contains the best of her best! With so many classics it's hard to know which to name here, but here's a "short" list: Suzanne, Praise Jenny, In My Life, Amazing Grace, Maid of Constant Sorrow, Bread and Roses, Since You've Asked, Chaise Morning, Who Knows Where the Time Goes, Bird On a Wire, Both Sides Now, plus so many more great songs and poignant memories. A must-have for baby boomers and folk lovers everywhere! (EL62164) CD: 24.98

Judy Collins Judy Sings Dylan Just Like a Woman

Great song interpreter, great songs, and great price: what more could you ask for? Includes Like A Rolling Stone, With God On Our Side, It's All Over Now Baby Blue, Love Minus Zero/No Limit, and of course, Just Like a Woman. (GEF24612) CD: 8.98

Julie Gold Dream Loud

Bette Midler may be more famous, but it's Julie Gold who wrote Bette's (and Nanci's) mega-hit, From A Distance, along with the other 11 songs on this album. That she wrote it while she was a secretary at HBO living in a small artist's apartment gives some clue about her qualifications in telling us to Dream Loud. (GAD239) CD: 15.98

Karen Capaldi Parade

Karen's graceful alto-voice, with the slight catch and breathy quality, as whispers and trembles running through it, makes you hear truth. On this 1995 sophomore release, she explores challenge and triumph, prejudice and freedom, love and communication, and evokes hope and joy in its modern world. She is a compelling and contemporary folk/rock artist, whom you are bound to hear more about and from — highly recommended! (LGP001) CD: 14.98

Karen Pernick
Apartment 12

0622

We're not the only ones absolutely impressed with this artist — so's Ferron, who has been having Karen open for her on some cross-continent tours lately! Ballads of love and loss permeate the 1995 release of this sensuously-throated performer. The beginning title track, featuring Laura Love and Julie Wolf on backing vocals, sets the tone for the entire album. In Love's a House (with Laura Love and Julie Wolf again, plus Jami Sieber) she takes an uncommon perspective: "If love's a house, we'll need a window. / We'll need the neighbors with a cup o' sugar from next door." Sometimes sad, sometimes humorous, her spectacular voice conveys depth and meaning in these original scores; treat yourself to hearing this wonderful talent; highly recommended! (SHN8021) CD: 19.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle
Heartbeats Accelerating

This mesmerizing 1991 release fills a musical void left by the sisters' 8-year absence from the recording studio! With their trademark gorgeous vocals, flawless harmony and haunting guitar work, this collection melds a variety of styles, from folk to pop to Cajun to Celtic. Includes Love Is ("Love is a minor chord! Love is a mental ward! Love is its own reward") and Mother Mother. (PVT2070) CS: 8.98 CD: 12.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle

Finally back in print, for real! The debut classic 1975 album by these Canadian sisters with "genetic" harmonies includes their beautiful original ballad Heart Like A Wheel, also featuring their third sister Janie on vocals and organ, which propelled them (and Linda Ronstadt) to fame and fortune. Instrumentation — accordion, fiddle, harmonica, guitar, banjo — and vocal style are drawn from French Canadian tradition, though most of the material is original. Also includes Tell My Sister, Jigsaw Puzzle of Life, Travelling On For Jesus. (HAN4401) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate & Anna McGarrigle
Love Over and Over

This golden oldie, re-released in 1997, contains gems like My mammy drives a cab for the Star Cab Co., Move Over Moon, and the classic fabulous title song (I like to write rock and roll but it doesn't always hang together so what do I know or anyone know about love...). (HAN1405) CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf
Close To You

One of Kate's best-loved albums, originally released in 1981, we bring it back to Ladyslipper by popular request! Sweet harmonies, gentle rhythms, thoughtful lyrics. Includes Across the Great Divide, Like A River, Friend of Mine, Unfinished Life. (RH71482) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Wolf
Give Yourself to Love (2-Set)

This live 1993 release of mostly previously-unrecorded material features Kate's long-time colleague Nina Gerber on mandolin, harmonica, guitar, and vocals throughout the "show." Most closely resembles her concerts and includes some songs by other musicians that she enjoyed performing over the years. Compiled from three performances, in San Francisco (Great American Music Hall), Davis, and Nevada City. Includes a live version of Redtail Hawk, and her original Green Eyes and title song. (RH71483) CS: 14.98 CD: 24.98

Kate Wolf
Gold in California (2-Set)

Kate Wolf died of leukemia on Dec. 10, 1986. This is a retrospective which she planned before her death; she began it because she realized she might not ever record again, and finished it shortly before she became unable to work. All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rides Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Emma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. (RH71485) CS: 14.98 CD: 24.98

Kate Wolf
Looking Back At You

From the back roads of the north coast of California, the transcending voice of this beloved artist rang true for more than a decade, beginning in the mid-70's. Her singing and songwriting were rooted in the pure folk tradition, which shares the simple joys and pains of everyday life with a near-confessional intimacy. Her performances and recordings were winning her an increasing legion of fans when she died of leukemia in 1986. This 1994 release presents 10 early Kate Wolf renditions of original songs, traditional folk ballads, and songs from some of her favorite contemporaries like Jackson Browne and Leonard Cohen. Like many of her best albums, it was recorded live in concert, at various venues in Los Angeles between 1977 and 1979. Includes Bad On A Wire, Hold On To Me Babe, and more. (RH71613) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Wind Blows Wild

This 1995 release contains all previously unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's death at the young age of 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1986, the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Riding of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on, and on, through her still-growing discography. (RH71486) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Fact and Fiction

This excellent 1992 release (we think it's her best ever) showcases the artist's captivating songwriting, contagious melodies, reflective lyrics, and distinctive voice. Including both acoustic and band-oriented songs, the album features guest appearances by Emily Saliers (Indigo Girls), Cindy Wilson (B-52's), and Sara Lee (Indigo Girls, ex-Gang of Four and B-52's). It's one of our favorites around the office; many of us are especially taken with her song Out in the Country, and some with I Have My Reasons. Highly recommended! (HST10316) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall
Be Careful What You Wish For...

Kristen has one of those hickory-smoked voices that could make the most wildly exuberant thoughts sound wistful. This 1994 release is a big heaping plateful of the "Atlanta Sound", the gently rolling beats of electrified folk, and some help from friends Matthew Sweet, Sara Lee, Jules Shear, Michelle Malone, and 4-Girl Emily Saliers. Although in Don't Tell Me Kristen sings a carswom "Well, to tell you the truth I'm lonely, but that is a feeling I do well," the gist of the album is that she is beginning to get some ideas as how to navigate through the stormy ocean of life (see Following My Compass). Though far from content and serene, she has learned enough from her burns to realize "Baby, look before you leap into the fire" (from Heaven Knows). Good stuff for those beautiful, thoughtful, sad-little-smile days. (HST10326) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall
Real Life Stuff

The debut album from this Atlanta-based singer-songwriter is a powerful and insightful collection of songs dealing with emotions, relationships and, well, real life stuff. She performs acoustically, stripping the songs bare with a minimalist approach that cuts straight to the heart of the matter. We can't come up with just the right adjective to describe her voice. It's just unique, great, wrenching, deep, raspy... aw heck, you won't forget it once you've heard it — trust us. If the medium is really the message, then her voice and guitar are emphasizing simple strength and beauty, and her lyrics drive the point home. Recommended! (DAE055) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kristen Hall
Thumbprint: Bootleg Demos

We're glad to make available this rare, limited-availability cassette for fans everywhere. Once again, her fine sense of melody creates a strong base for her raspy voices and true-to-life lyrics. (And not to worry, this collection is presented by Kristen herself — this isn't an artist-proof underground-type bootleg!) Some of these 10 tracks are studio recordings, while others were recorded in her own house. Atlanta artist Michelle Malone backs up on Long Way Down. Kristen has yet to let her audience down, and we know you'll enjoy this first-hand glimpse into the material she's been writing lately. (KH1) CS: 14.98

Kym Tuvim

0707

I'm sitting here listening to this CD, thinking about how great it is and what to say about it when the phone rings. "Hi, this is Kym Tuvim." I wonder whether I've dropped into the Twilight Zone, because you have to figure that the chances are very slim that you would be sitting there crisscrossing a release and the artist would call. Well, I haven't dropped into the Twilight Zone, but I have fallen in love with her debut 1996 release. As Erin Corday has said, "Her voice alone will stop you in your tracks... [her] music is sensual, sophisticated and widely subtle." It's complemented by sophisticated songwriting, and excellent musical support from Jami Sieber, Michael Manning and Julie Wolf. Recommended! If You See a Dream

0037

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accords vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. By far the most popular song here is her internationally acclaimed, poignantly simple ballad, How Could Anyone Ever Tell You, which has been sung at everything from insect recovery groups to kindergarten classes to peace gatherings. Also notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; additionally includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women, Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout, and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed Her grace on these. An excellent debut! (TRT1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick
If the World Were My Lover

0349

This feminist singer/songwriter just keeps getting better, as she proves on this 1993 release, which will truly move you to see the world as your lover. Includes the hauntingly beautiful title song; a hilarious country swing number Heaven Down Here; the poignant Because You Do; and Libby's first rock and roll song (!) Thunder, which warns of the rise of fundamentalism in US politics. We always recommend Libby! (TRT1003) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Lay It All Down

0610

When we heard the news about this 1997 release from the Alaskan chanteuse who channeled our new building with its first live concert, we were excited, as well as a bit curious. Could Libby really follow up her first three recordings with another collection of original, introspective, poetic, articulate, politically conscious and spiritually inspired songs? The answer is a definitive and resounding YES! Don't let the tender vocals fool you, Libby's power lies in her lyrics. Songs include I Wish I Still Believed in Angels, Road to Ecstasy, Hold Your Ground, Forgiveness, and Listen To a Devil (that's Jami Sieber on cello — she's no devil though!). (TRT1004) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Libby Roderick
Thinking Like a Mountain

0348

This exquisitely-produced 1991 release from Alaska's feminist phenomenon contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including the plus Is That What You Really Want, about staying true to our deepest dreams, Go, Holy Thing to Love, and Dancing in Front of the Guns, to inspire us to meet the social and ecological challenges of our times. Recommended! (TRT1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Right Now

Maybe it's her background as an English teacher, but this gal can write one mean song! The songs on this Vermont singer-songwriter's 1996 debut are not actually mean; they are witty, intelligent, literate and original enough to rise above the seeming folk masses. Crisply produced by Jonathan (1971's Sunshine) Edwards, so that it is a lightly swinging folk/rock album rather than a "rustic" one, Lisa sings about brief connections with people in revolving doors (Asteroid), the eerie emotional parallels of Cars, Cars, Cars, Relationships, unwitting obsession (All I Want Is You), coffee house waitresses (If Anything Ever Happens), and losses out lines like "It's one of those tedious days where I am reading for meaning. / Why that particular chicken? Why that particular road?" from Boat. (And don't forget the editor's clear favorite, Sax and Consequences.) She has shared stages with Ani DiFranco, Patty Larkin, Amee Mann and the Story. I'm sure she fit right up there with other talented, articulate women with great voices! Recommended! (RSN10102) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Sanders
Isn't Life Fine

This young African American woman is by far one of the freshest voices to emerge on the music scene in a while. Her impact will be no less startling and refreshing than Tracy Chapman and her Fast Car! (Music Monitor) "Proudly wearing the influence of Joni Mitchell and Joan Armatrading, she boasts a charming, poetic flair and a smoky, soulful voice that you'll want to listen to for hours" (Billboard). So, how do we communicate we think you should buy this album?? In the slow of fine singer-songwriter albums that come across our desks here daily, this one's a clear stand-out — it's her intonation, the timbre in her voice... If you're in the mood for a discovery you'll be glad you made, look no further! (CRG85011) CD: 15.98

Here

NEW!

0708

This 1997 debut album was selected by Performing Songwriter Magazine as one of their Top 12 Independent Recordings, saying "There is a purity in [her] voice that reaches into your heart, grabs you and doesn't let go until the last beautiful note has faded. Match that purity with the clarity of her lyrical vision and you have an artist and an album you'll go back to time and time again." Produced by Charlie Murphy, this compilation of 13 original songs featuring her evocative lyrics, illuminating vocals and strong guitar, is solidly acoustic, with back-up from excellent musicians like Jami Sieber. (CK70212) CD: 15.98

Michelle Nagy Art Museum

Listening to the 1997 debut release by this Pennsylvania artist is not a passive experience, but a passionate, multi-dimensional rendering of voice, spirit and song. The sound is melodic, sophisticated acoustic pop, on which her powerful voice paints each emotional track in broad strokes with more than just the pretty blues. The musical nuances give fresh perspective with each listen, and her images linger on the consciousness long after the final notes have been played. In museum fashion, liner notes depict an original work of art inspired by each track. (ACR701) CD: 12.98

Michelle Shocked The Texas Campfire Tapes

Back by popular demand, this amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording first created a raging cult following (as this young literate folk artist, then catapulted her to national fame and fortune). Her style on this 1988 "debut" recording (a re-issue of the very same walkman-recording) is an absolutely appealing blend of talking blues and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and tonics, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the crowd who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long-wearing gets better and more intriguing with every listening. Recommended! (MER834581) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Mollies Moon Over the Interstate

A hot summer night in Arizona, the local cantina is crowded, and the Mexican traditional band outside is keeping it steady rhythm. In the rear, a traveling Irish songwriter wanders in, seeking to nurse her melancholy homesickness with music, or perhaps some tequila. OK, maybe this wasn't the way the Mollies were formed, but you never know if from the result! Their blend of Irish and Mexican folk/traditional music is truly unique, and definitely inspired. They mix everything from pop to polkas, pub stompers to tearful ballads, pennywhistle to accordion, and create a marvelous musical fusion that is sure to please. Their 1996 release is enchantingly eclectic, delightfully different, righteously recommended! (APN9801) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Mollies Hat Trick

The Mollies write and rock what they know. An unexpected and delightful combining of lead singers Nancy McCallon and Catherine Zavada's cultural and musical backgrounds (Irish-American and Mexican-American), their music truly defies traditional labeling... if you haven't heard them already, you'll become a believer when you hear their 1997 release! The Celtic-Tojano folk melodies intermingle and offer originality with a style that hasn't been heard since the birth of rock 'n' roll; this Tucson-based group has done something daring here which warrants a listen to and a passing on to friends. Highly recommended! (APN9701) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Odetta At the Gate of Horn

The classic 1957 studio recording from the beloved vocalist, a mix of African-American spirituals and traditional folk songs, has fortunately been re-released in 1997, proving its timelessness. Includes Sail Away Ladies, Pretty Horses, Midnight Special, He's Got the Whole World in His Hands, Gallows Tree, Maybe She's Gone, Last of the Low Country, and more. In addition to her own guitar, Bill Lee (Spike's dad!) accompanies on acoustic bass. (TRD1063) CD: 13.98

Pamela Means Cobblestones

The new 1998 release from this amazing folk artist is certain to advance Pamela Means as a recognized name within the circle of great singer-songwriter guitarists. You need me right? The woman plays guitar like nobody's business, and writes songs with such honesty and passion you'll feel like you know her. Most of the songs feature just her and her guitar, and demonstrate her incredible skill on guitar; additionally, there are also two band cuts, which gives her sound even more depth. I love this woman!... Highly recommended! (WR1003) CD: 15.98

Pamela Means (w/Ani DiFranco) Bone Spurs

We are most pleased to offer this 1995 recording of original introspective songs, from a folk artist who is making quite a name for herself. The album features the clear-voiced singer playing mad acoustic guitar, doing some mellow groovin' to a background of smooth percussion and horns blown in on occasion. On Speak she is joined by Ani DiFranco in a riveting live jam session where they sing, "If you got something to talk about, why don't you raise your voice?" In her songs such as Scary Dog Man, Black Boots and Potholes, she's got a lot to say. Highly recommended! (WR0091) CD: 15.98

Pat Humphries Same Rain

Back in our catalog, by popular demand! Pat's the kind of songwriter you stumble upon very infrequently — one with the ability to anthemic common struggles and triumphs. She sings in a clear, steady voice, often in lively self-harmonies, songs which name us, for all our differences, as beings all washed in the same rain. Contrast Thread is a beautiful ode written on the eve of the Michigan Women's Music Festival, while Face the Music celebrates the support and validation many of us felt upon listening to Turning Back, sung at rallies and marches everywhere — not only was it her first song, she composed it at a workshop in two minutes! (MFM360) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin Perishable Fruit

Here's an album which, like its title, you'll want to get fresh — a 1997 release full of tasty tracks diverse enough for varied palates. Her voice is captivating, deep and bluesy on songs like Angel's Wings and Wolf at the Door, and with synthesized radio-physics on The Book I'm Not Reading. Special guests include Jane Siberry and Jennifer Kimball from The B-52's. The penetrating vocals, emotion-filled lyrics, dynamic instruments (bass and acoustic guitar, drums, accordion), and distinctive flavors and textures on each track make listening a thrill at every turn. Highly recommended! (HBT10354) CS: 16.98 CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary &... LifeLines

Better than a folk festival! This revered trio again shares the stage with a fabulous roster of artists they've sung with at festivals, marches and concerts: Ronnie Gilbert, Holly Near, Pete Seeger, Judy Collins, Cary and Lucy Simon, Richie Havens, B.B. King, Emmylou Harris, John Sebastian, Dave van Ronk and others. They say, "We share the music on this album as if PPSM had expanded and added new members. And, in a way that's what happened... The sum is greater than the parts that's what folk music is all about." This 1995 release includes House of the Rising Sun, River of Jordan, and a duet between Mary Travers and Holly Near on Home Is Where the Heart Is. Sally Fingerett's beautiful song about lesbian and gay relationships, alone worth the price. Recommended! (WB45851) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Red Letter Day Four Bowls of Colour

Wow, these gals are catchy! This Maryland duo features Suzanne Mallow on vocals and guitar and Andrea Jones on vocals, saxophone, harmonica and recorder, and their '96 release is very tasty acoustic folkrock (and I mean that in the best, poppiest way possible). The closest comparison I can make, and I wish I were more imaginative, would be The Indigo Girls — you know, good lyrics, interesting arrangements and instrumentation, intense harmonies, all in all a real pleasure to listen to. California is a swell west coast duo; their hearts coze all over the lovely On The Chesapeake Bay; Peacocks Box is as beguiling as the title promises. Trust me on this one. (ANT100) CD: 14.98

Rory Block Gone Woman Blues: Country Blues

This 1997 compilation collects all of Rory's amazing interpretations of classic country blues, from several previous albums. Her singular voice, her acoustic guitar and the occasional harmonica stem through her own Gone Woman Blues, Robert Johnson's Terrible Blues, Hellbound On My Trail and Come On In My Kitchen, Mattie Delany's Tallahatchie Blues and many other tasty nuggets. (ROU11575) CD: 16.98

Rosalie Sorrells & Utah Phillips The Long Memory

Two grand masters of American topical folk present this unique 1996 collection of songs and stories about the labor struggle in America's mines, mills and factories — a side of our history that's usually omitted from the history books! Rosalie presents some of the words of organizer Aunt Molly Jackson, and her great song I Am a Union Woman, as well as gems by her friend Malvina Reynolds, Coalminers' Strike and Bury Me in My Overshoes. Utah Phillips, the subject of several tribute projects himself (including one by Ani DiFranco) tells and sings about Mother Jones and Nevada Jane and much more. Anyone working for justice will love the detail and depth of this educational and inspirational piece. (RHR83) CD: 15.98

Shawn Colvin A Few Small Repairs

Face of Shawn Colvin love her with unshakable devotion. A singer-songwriter extraordinaire, this 1995 release traverses craggy terrain — Shawn's muse probably doesn't let her sleep well at night. The songs sound pretty and poppy and made in a big studio with many expensive blinking lights, but they don't paint a picture that would match your couch. Songs like Get Out of This House, Sunny Came Home, and Trouble don't budge on your, their images remove the varnish and expose your fears, your disappointments, your pain to the air. Meanwhile, her voice is subtle and soft and sweet, something her incisive lyrics straight under your skin. This is good stuff. (COL67119) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Shawn Colvin Live '88

For the first time on CD, this 1985 acoustic release includes the original 8 tracks from her original rare live "tape" that she sold at her early gigs — plus 3 more never before available. Includes Shogun Down the Asadone, Diamond in the Rough, and I Don't Know Why. A must for anyone wanting her complete discography! (PLU9901) CS: 11.98 CD: 17.98

Susan Werner Live at the Tin Angel

This wonderful 1993 independently-released live album is back in print! Her classically trained voice is pure and angelic; she turns the gamut from Plaf's La Vie En Rose to the jazzy Cole Porterian Maybe It's Spring Cole Porter to the tempo stompin' country of Ain't I Lonely Tonight. Well-produced, with self-accompaniment on piano and guitar, this is a lovely and intimate recording from a talented artist. (SU9002) CD: 15.98

Susan Werner Midwestern Saturday Night

Christine Eavin has called this Philadelphia artist "the fastest rising new star in the folk world," and this 1983 studio debut backs up the claim. Highlights are the title song about an old-fashioned date, the humorous Rubber Glove Blues (sex in the 90's), and the poignant Uncle John about the "unmarried" but not-unloved family member. Accompaniment includes Julia Haines' Celtic harp, plus bass, percussion, harmonica, and Susan's piano, keyboards, and guitar. (SU5001) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Terri Binion Leavin' This Town

Originally issued on Terri's own indie label, Shenola Records, this 1997 album quickly became a favorite at Amy Ray's Daemon Records (who chose to release it in order to give it the distribution it deserved). Compared to artists like Rickie Lee Jones, Nanci Griffith, and Michelle Shocked, she presents unassuming melodies, remarkable guitar lines and insightful lyrics, all wrapped up in an alternative country folk package. Highly recommended... by both us and Daemon Records! (DAE19019) CD: 15.98

Tracy Chapman New Beginning

As a singer and songwriter, few artists can match Tracy's gentle but passionate vibrato, her literate lyrical compassion and her uncompromising stance. This 1995 album was recorded virtually live in the studio with her own band, and contains 11 songs in subtle arrangements that bring out the immediacy of her melodies and the depth of her emotions. Her voice rings clear and her vision shines true on the uplifting Heaven's Here On Earth, the tender love song Smile and Asker, the delicate longing of The Promise, and the spiritual I'm Ready. (ELS1850) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Tracy Chapman

Her 1988 album made her the young singer/songwriter everyone was talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armistead. She has played to widely appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the waltzers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary, her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Talkin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can't Hold You. Highly recommended! (ELS0774) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists/Pete Seeger Where Have All the Flowers Gone

Wow! We hardly know whether to begin with praise for the fabulous artists, the incredible range of songs, a recap of Pete Seeger's career in social change, or praise for the highly informative liner notes in this very highly recommended 1998 2-CD compilation. Veteran folkies will revel in hearing Odetta, Ronnie Gilbert, Judy Collins, PPSM, Tom Paxton, and The Weavers (to name a few) sing both well- and lesser-known songs written, arranged, or popularized by Pete. Readers whose parents listened to the aforementioned artists will be drawn in hearing Ani DiFranco, the Indigo Girls, Holly Near, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Bruce Springsteen (singing We Shall Overcome), Richie Havens, Billy Bragg, Cordelia's Dad, Donovan, Bonnie Raitt, Tish Hinojosa, Nanci Griffith and others interpreting their choices from Pete's vast repertoire... over 2 1/2 hours of music! Whatever your tastes, if you value superb musicianship and/or engagement with the world, don't miss this album. (APR1024) CD: 29.98

Various Artists Remembering Kate Wolf...

Treasures Left Behind, part of the title of this 1998 tribute, perfectly describes this collection of rich and beautiful voices wrapped around Kate's haunting timeless songs. In this poignant treat of an album, artists such as Cera Williamson & Trer Fure, Feron & Greg Brown, Nanci Griffith, Lucinda Williams, Terry Garthwaite, Rosalie Sorrells, and Kathy Mattea offer graceful renditions of Give Yourself to Love, Comin' Over Blue, In China or a Woman's Heart, and more. Liner notes by each performer reflect on Kate's legacy to those of us left behind. As one artist says, "I don't know much about Kate Wolf's life and loves but in a few raw and tender lines she sure knew a lot about mine." (RHR114) CD: 15.98

Various Artists/Christine Lavin Big League Babe/C. Lavin Tribute I

How refreshing when we don't all wait for someone to die before honoring them! Christine Lavin is a multi-talented performer, a dedicated advocate for other folk musicians, and a great songwriter whose songs are distinguished by intelligent clever, socially conscious lyrics. To give sat a little bit of her gift back, this compilation was actually recorded in secret by the contributing artists, and presented to Christine at her show at the Bottom Line in 1997. On it, several of her (and our) favorite performers — Cheryl Wheeler, Barbara Kessler, Susan Werner, Megumi McDonough, Julie Gold, Dave Van Ronk, and others — perform classic Christine songs... plus Cheryl Wheeler's original Christine Lavin Could Do It. (PCD37) CD: 15.95

Various Artists/Christine Lavin Big League Babe II

The second volume, released in 1998, contains Lavin classics performed by Dar Williams, Patti LaBelle, Sally Fingerett, Deb Smith (these latter 3 have all toured as Bitchin' Babs!), Sara Hickman, Dee Casterman, and other guys and gals who have all appreciated the support and encouragement from their respected peer. (PCD38) CD: 15.95

Cowboy Envy Real Cowboy Girl

The reasons for Cowboy Envy's origins seem as obscure as the reason that men saddle cows, but this we do know: their rhythms kick like a branded heifer, their harmonies twirl the ambition of singing birds, and their humor makes folks in big Western States pause for a moment. Three yodelin' harmonizers — Atlanta musicians — 'Frenchie' Poliakoff, Kathleen Hatfield, and the omnipresent DeDe Vogt — present a great program of both classic and original cowboy tunes on their 1997 release, the title track from the 30's High Rollin' Woman from the 50's ('She commands and men obey'). Dale Evans' Happy Trails, their own Harmony the Cowboy Way and many more. They're getting rave reviews, check them out today! (NVM1) CS: 9.95 CD: 14.95

Deana Carter Did I Shave My Legs For This?

How could we pass on an album with this title? Anyone who has ever put some effort into an evening expecting romance, and found instead that it's perfectly clear, between the TV and beer, I won't get so much as a kiss knows the background behind the title song. Funny, that clear-eyed assessment of a relationship full of unfulfilled promises and dashed hopes is the one song co-written with another woman. 'Views of love from 11 angles' could be the sub-title to this collection of contemporary country, including the hit Strawberry Wine, songs about falling in love with your best friend (How Do I Get There?), recovering from love, discovering love, remembering love, and disremembering love. Very pretty — dare I say 'lovely' album, rec'd. (CAP37514) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Iris DeMent Infamous Angel

Do you remember hearing Emmylou Harris for the first time? That amazing heartbreak contained in every cracked note? Well, she is now joined in the ranks of Angelism by newcomer Iris DeMent (in fact, Emmylou joins us in welcoming her, adding her harmonies to the sweet Mama's Cry). Most are originals, gems one and all, poignant remembrances, wry observations, and lovely portraits, with titles like Mother Than Mojave in My Heart and 50 Miles of Elbow Room. She embodies everything that's wonderful about traditional country music, incorporating bluegrass, gospel, blues, and a bit of swing — she's the best thing we've heard in years! Highly recommended 1992 (WB45231) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Iris DeMent The Way I Should

On this 1995 release, Iris looks out at the world and is not really thrilled about what she sees. Her voice, beautifully twangy, speaks for those who do not have a protective coating. Wasteland of The Free declares 'We got preachers' deat' in politics and diamond mines and their speech is growing increasingly unkind'. Letter to Mom lances the shame of a woman who finally reveals that she had been sexually molested by her mother's boyfriend. There's a Wall in Washington is a (sad) cry at the unhealed wounds of the Vietnam War. In a more personal vein, there is the self-explanatory I Take My Sorrow Straight, When My Mommy Comes Around which instigated a serious bout of soul searching on my end, and a respite of cheerfulness in the Merle Haggard co-written This Kind Of Happy. The final cut, Trouble, is a road house blues, devil-may-care duet with Debbi McCClinton that warms us up before sending us out into the chilly night. I'll have another round of this, please. (WB46188) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Iris DeMent My Life

Before country was 'cool' or 'hot', a twangy voice and acoustic guitar were the staples of artists sharing heartbreak and hard times with eager listeners. Iris captures that feeling with a style reminiscent of honky-tonk and slow dancing... her voice is the most genuine since early Loretta Lynn, and the simple acoustic arrangements are the perfect backdrop. Messages of joy and sorrow abound in her lyrics, almost all originals. This reviewer's favorites are No Time To Cry, Childhood Memories, and The Shores of Jordan. An excellent follow-up to her debut, and quite recommended. 1994 (WB45493) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Kathy Chiavola The Harvest

If you love bluegrass but don't already know this name, consider that a great injustice of the music business: this artist is incredible! In addition to containing a duet with the late, great Bill Monroe (recorded at his cabin) which is believed to be his last vocal recording, her 1995 debut album also features guest artists Emmylou Harris, Chet Atkins, Vince Gill, Bela Fleck, and Tony Rice. She has performed professionally for over 20 years; backed up hundreds of artists including Kathy Mattea, Garth Brooks, Emmylou Harris, Ricky Scaggs, toured with Vassar Clements and Jerry Douglas, and was named Backus Vocalist of the Year in the 1995 Nashville Music Awards. It's about time she stepped out of the background and into the limelight — because her voice and her interpretive ability are tremendous, as she'll show you on the self-issued recording. And it includes a couple of tunes she co-wrote with other women. Don't wait to discover her for yourself! (MYL1002) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Lucinda Williams Car Wheels On A Gravel Road

With this 1998 release, her 1st in 6 years, Lucinda sets us down in a world of hot days, dusty roads, Ford Galaxie 500's and empty bars in the late afternoon haze. No net-surfing, laptop-using cyber-people here: this is gritty life sung with a gritty voice and a twangy guitar by a woman who knows that the simple life is everything but simple. If you like to linger, as I do, in the restless melancholy of half-healed memories while holding a cold long-neck, these Car Wheels give the smoothest ride there. Hey, it's country, alright? (MER58338) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Lucinda Williams Passionate Kisses — 5-Song EP

This specially-priced 1992 EP contains 4 live performances — a new version of Side of the Road, plus 3 previously unreleased songs — in addition to the most excellent title track, which is from her self-titled album. Now back in stock. (CHM91388) CS: 5.95

Mary Chapin Carpenter A Place In The World

Grammy Award-winning Mary-Chapin is slowly taking over the world! A country artist with big pop crossover appeal and a right-on gal who wears her feminist sensibilities like jacket fringe, we welcome her 1995 release. Filled with her trademark twang-less ballads like That's Real and easy rockers like The Better To Dream of You and I Want to Be Your Girlfriend, she has also thrown in the honky-tonking Keeping the Faith and the fat horns-Stax-soul sound of Let Me Into Your Heart. Kudos to the poetic imagery wafting through the thoughtful ideas Are Like Stars. (COL47501) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Nanci Griffith Other Voices, Other Rooms (Album)

On this 1993 album, Nanci, an interpreter extraordinaire, performs 17 classic songs by her favorite writers, including Kate Wolf (Across the Great Divide), Bob Dylan (Bicycle of Spanish Leather), Mavis Reynolds (Turn Around), Tom Paxton, Woody Guthrie, John Prine, and others. Guest artists include Emmylou Harris, the Indigo Girls, Loretta, Arlo Guthrie and Iris DeMent, including Woman of the Phoenix, Morning Song for Sally, From Clare To Here. Quite a tribute to great songwriting! (EL41464) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Nanci Griffith Blue Roses From The Moons

Singing of love, and their concomitant bittersweet joys, this Grammy Award-winning 'folksy' veteran adds another great album to her impressive list of accomplishments with this 1997 release. Highlights include the tender St. Teresa of Avila, a rollicking cover of I Fought the Law featuring Sonny Curtis, the twangy rocker Morning Train, the optimistic Everything's Coming Up Roses, and a duet with Hootie and the Blowfish's Dennis Rucker on her own classic Gulf Coast Highway. And if that weren't enough, Buddy Holly's famous Crickets back her up on several tracks. (EL52015) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Wendy Bucklew Asleep In The Swing

'Wendy Bucklew is cool,' says Amy Ray, and that's the short of it! But if you need more, here's the scoop. Wendy's been the (barely) hidden gem of the Atlanta 'electric folk' scene for years. One might describe her distinctive sound as 'the love child of Janis Joplin and Rickie Lee Jones, with Joni Mitchell and Joan Osborne as the baby-sitters.' This gal can play, her lively acoustic guitar work is intense, with definite jazz influences and just a hint of Amy D'Franco. She uses her voice like another instrument, one moment wailing full-on, the next sliding and seeping all around the music like wisps of fog on a warm night. The combination is deeply magical and unforgettable! Listening to Wendy has often caused bursts of spontaneous sing-along in my vehicle (not that I could keep up with her, mind you), now it's your turn to roll up the windows in traffic! Recommended! (SWF1010) CD: 15.95

Nanci Griffith Country Gold

This specially-priced album collects some of our favorite artist's best songs from 1985-90. Trouble in the Fields, From A Distance, Once In A Very Blue Moon, I Wish It Would Rain, more! 10 songs at a great price! (MCA21000) CD: 7.95

Nanci Griffith Other Voices, Too: Trip 2 Bountiful

Imagine Odetta and Gillian Welch among the group singing harmony on The Weavers classic If I Had a Hammer, and you'll have only begun to scratch the surface of the talents represented on this tribute to songwriters Nanci has admired over the years. Subtitled A Trip Back to Bountiful, this 1998 album, like the movie it references, reflects a passion for a time and a place which have passed and yet which remain within reach to those who remember. Lucinda Williams, Delores Keane, Tish Hinojosa, Emmylou Harris, and countless others lend their voices on this journey to Bountiful and back again. (EL82235) CS: 10.95 CD: 16.95

Patsy Cline The Birth of a Star

A delightful insight into the transformative stages of the emerging star! Here is a veritable treasure of vocal and lyrical artistry, conveying early longing as only a soul such as Patsy Cline could. The year was 1957, and she was bound for national exposure as she sang her heart out on the CBS-TV show Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts. This 1997 release takes you to the stage, with introductory remarks and dialogue between Godfrey and Cline woven throughout these previously unreleased performances of classics like Walking After Midnight. An absolute must for all of you old and new fans of the great Patsy Cline. (RAT2108) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Ranch Romance Blue Babies

From several opening dates for k.d. lang (they've been named one of k.d.'s fave groups) to a variety of live performances, this 4-woman (plus a guy) trad-bluegrass 'regressive country' band brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythm, hot instrumental work and wild yodeling to fans everywhere. Characterized by thoughtful lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass, their mixture of acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing has been described as k.d. lang and Patsy Cline meet Bob Dylan. Lead singer Jo Miller is known to some of y'all as Laura Love's old-time-music collaborator. Includes The Buckaroos, sort of an oral version of The Linda & Louise. (SUG3794) CS: 6.95 CD: 15.95

Various Artists Queens of Country

There is absolutely nothing like classic country music. This collection of the great women of country has some of the best big-haired music you could hope for; I love these women! Their songs have the most self-effacing, go-ahead-and-let-it-out-your-roses-on-me lyrics, but you know they can kick serious butt around the saddest bar floor. (Actually, female country musicians were in charge of their own careers decades before it was considered acceptable). These songs have twang, the pathos, the wonderfully cheesy arrangements, and the soul that's missing from the airbrushed tunes of modern 'country'. There's Patsy, Loretta, Reba, Kitty, Tanya, Dolly, Tanya, Crystal and others with whom we might not be on a first name basis. Rose Garden, Coal Miner's Daughter, Harper Valley PTA and even Stand By Your Man all in one place! Ecstasy! Check out what you got k.d., all bathed in the first place! (GNP2233) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Lavender Light: Lesbian/Gay Gospel Choir

Lavender Light 0070
Lavender Light: The Black and People of All Colors Lesbian and Gay Gospel Choir is the complete name of this fabulous chorus — a one-of-a-kind group that has thrilled New York audiences for 8 years with their boundless energy and vocal mastery. And their 1994 release guarantees the rest of the world the opportunity! It spans the rich musical terrain of gospel music, with selections ranging from rocking, hand-clapping numbers to anthems to spirituals, including stunning arrangements of Over My Head, Oh Glory, and I've Been Sucked. Founded to preserve the Black Gospel tradition in an environment supportive of lesbian and gay people, the choir brings a message of hope and inspiration that will make you shout for joy. (LVL1) CD: 14.98

Marsha Stevens

No Matter What Way! 0672
Marsha's record label, publishing company, and ministry is named B.A.L.M. — for Born Again Lesbian Music, which already tells a great deal about this artist. The songwriter of the famous contemporary Christian hymn For Those Tears I Died (or Come to the Water), Marsha spent much time as a professional in mainstream gospel music, singing on shows such as Oral Roberts, Pat Robertson, Jim and Tammy Bakker Show, and then, after she came out as a lesbian, much time heading from it. During this second chapter of her life, she has been actively involved in the Metropolitan Community Church, happily performing and writing for the lesbian/gay community. This polished 1997 release contains originals such as Light of the World, the theme for the UFMCC's 1997 General Conference... Needing You, Needing Me, for 2 lesbian adoptive parents and their new daughter... and other songs of inspiration relevant to lesbian and gay Christians. (BLM301) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

MCC of Washington, DC Gospel Choir

Something Inside So Strong
The Metropolitan Community Church, founded as a lesbian-and-gay-supportive Protestant denomination, has grown into a thriving community of faith. The first release from this lively and diverse 50-voice gospel choir is a joyful testament to their vision and spirit. Includes traditional gospel favorites Leaving on the Everlasting Arms and The Lord Will Make My Way. Somehow, the prayerful originals Come Holy Spirit and God Cares, as well as gospel hits Ready For A Miracle, Center of My Joy and a soulful Battle Hymn of the Republic. A highlight is Julia Nixon's soaring guest solo on the title track. (MCC1) CS: 9.98 CD: 11.98

Sisters of Glory

Good News in Hard Times
The universal and elemental force of gospel music, its message of good news and hope in hard times borne of a celebration of faith in a higher power, reaches beyond commercial considerations, religious affiliations, racial separations and age differences. This gospel super-group, which includes Albertina Walker, Phoebe Snow, Thelma Houston, CeCe Peniston, and Lois Walden, releases their debut title in '95, following a classic performance at Woodstock '94. Includes Will the Circle Be Unbroken, Precious Lord, and an unusual rendition of Oh Happy Day. Notes include an excellent historical overview of the genre and its pioneers. "Cut out." Recommended! (WB45990) CS: 6.99... CD: 13.98

Various Artists

The Great Gospel Women
This 1993 release spotlights the most legendary female figures in the gospel field, with over 70 minutes of all-time great gospel music performances. Contains 31 songs by 16 artists, including Mahalia Jackson, Willie Mae Ford Smith, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Marion Williams, Clara Ward, Core Martin and others. An outstanding collection, and an excellent way to introduce yourself to many of the women who created and sustained this important African-American music genre. If you don't already know them... a style of music which has been passionate, dynamic, commanding, expressive, and improvisatory. (SHN6004) CD: 16.98

R&B ~ Rap ~ Hip-Hop

Aretha Franklin

The Very Best of Aretha Franklin
Includes Respect, You Make Me Feel Like A Natural Woman, Do Right Woman — Do Right Man, Chain of Fools... in other words, just what the title says. (RH71598) CS: 6.98 CD: 13.98

Erykah Badu

Baduizm
There are few artists that can record a debut album and instantly have it considered a classic, but that is exactly what Erykah has done on this 1997 release. Her style is so fresh, her voice so beautiful (she's been compared to Billie Holiday) that as soon as I first heard this album, nothing else went into my CD player for weeks. Her songs are positive, loving, spiritual, funny and poignant. (And if you're not a fan of BET or MTV and have never had a chance to see Erykah's videos, try to give them a look. Not only did she write and produce her album, she directs her own videos, which are gems.) During a time when so much of current R&B is wallowing in a wasteland of name-dropping and label-flashing, Baduizm is such good food for the soul (it'd be a crying shame to miss it). Highly, highly recommended. (UNV53027) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Erykah Badu

Live
Erykah's beautiful, hypnotic lyrics, combined with her smooth, emotional voice and dynamic soul-filled live performances, have won her fans worldwide. This follow-up 1997 release was recorded live in-studio before an enthusiastic audience. Accompanied by her 3-piece band and background singers, she recorded 6 new unreleased tracks, including the original song Tyrone (dubbed by Rolling Stone Magazine a "feminist anthem-in-waiting"), plus live versions of favorites On & On, Next Lifetime, Certainly, Other Side of the Game. (UNV53109) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Me'Shell NdegeOcello

Peace Beyond Passion
This 1996 release reaches beyond soul, funk, jazz and hip hop into a brand new groove. Her heavy bass lines and deep funk vocals shimmer, and the inclusive lyrics cut deep and true. She squarely tackles religion, and a whole bunch of "...isms" with Leviticus, Faggot, Deuteronomy, Niggerman, A Seduction of Mary Magdalene and a spiritual God Shiva, amongst other cuts, and comes through shining. Me'Shell gets a little help from Billy Preston on organ and Joshua Redman on sax on this stupendous, so-good-it-almost-hurts album. (NAV46033) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Missy Elliott

Supa Dupa Fly
If you missed her at Lillith, now's your chance! Rapper, producer, composer... Missy is like a one-woman hip-hop task force. Her revolutionary style, plus her commitment to doing it her own way, have changed the face of the hip-hop industry. Her track The Rain (SupaDupaFly) and the accompanying video have been "copied" so many times now, Missy herself jokes about it. With appearances by Da Brat, Aaliyah, Lil' Kim, and Nicole, this 1997 album is destined to become a classic! (EW62095) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Patti LaBelle

Flame
Patti LaBelle has an ageless quality that is irrefutable. She's been making music for a long time and yet there is always a fresh, contemporary feel to her music that appeals to younger R&B fans as well as to those old enough to remember the funkiness that was LaBelle. As always, on her 1997 recording, Patti is singing about LOVE, not one sings love songs quite like she does. As she says on track 9, "When you talk about love, you should be talking about me." Oh yes! Her voice is divine, pure and infinitely soulful, for those in love with Love, let Patti take you there. (MCA11642) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Queen Latifah

Nature of a Sista
Afrocentric, woman-identified, artistic, and graciously non-nonsense, Queen Latifah reigns proud here, on her 1997 recording! Musically and stylistically diverse, she warns men that Latifah Had It Up To Here, describes her various attributes in Sexy Fancy and Bad As A Mutha, and puts on the steam with two of the hottest songs this reviewer has had sex to. Give Life Your Love and the incandescent How Do I Love Thee. If it weren't for racism (and sexism on the part of male R&B radio programmers), she would have the same (or more!) impact and fame as Madonna... as it stands, you'll barely hear her on the airwaves, but here's your opportunity to experience something really special. CD's are bargain-priced "cut outs." (TB1035) CS: 10.98 CD: 11.98

Queen Latifah

Order in the Court
The first thing that struck me about her 1996 release was the Ballerina artwork. Surreal is not how I would describe the music though this is the down-to-earth, keeping-it-real Queen Latifah that we know and love. Kickin' it about relationships, strong Black community, and other MC's who lyrically cannot enter the queenendom, Hip-hop is a constantly evolving artform, and queens can be laid by the wayside faster than you can say "check, 1, 2, 3." Props to the Queen for maintaining with integrity, and continuing to be a strong female voice in the hip-hop world. (MOT630895) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Queen Pen

My Melody
This Brooklyn-born funky rappin' gal is turning the hip-hop world on its ear with her frank discussion of being in a lesbian relationship... but don't start thinking she's Ellen in a fur coat. This album is phat! The Queen of lyric-dropping was first heard throwin' down on Blackstreet's #1 single No Diggity, and she's not letting up here. Plus, Me'Shell NdegeOcello guests on this 1998 release! (JNT90151) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Various Artists

Go, Girl! Soul Sisters Tellin' It...
Like it is, on this 40-no-miss collection of R&B songs from the 60's and early 70's by women who just won't take any more sass, Aretha's canon cry, Respect, sets the mood and tone. Then there's Laura Lee's Women's Love-Flights and Wedlock Is A Redneck, Ann Peebles' I'll Get Along, and righteous, dust-off-and-hold-your-head-high tracks from Mable John, Betty Wright Honey Cone, Ima Thomas and more... 18 proto-feminist anthems on one CD! Janice Tyrone's song, which opens the album, says it all: "I gotta make it this time... I'm taking over my life today... I've got to stand up and be a WOMAN!" No, YOU go, girl! (RH72506) CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Women in Hip-Hop 1: Classic Hip-Hop
Early on, rap was a guy thing, female rappers had a hard time being heard. By the late 80's, though, sisters had made inroads, reaching both male and female audiences. This is the first volume in the 1995 Fat Beats and Bra Straps series (a play on the term "phat beats & bass lines"), the first-ever compilation to pay tribute to the women who have broken the gender barrier in the male-dominated world of rap and hip-hop. Compiled by Zenobia Simmons, each volume collects some of the most cutting-edge hits, 12" singles and album tracks featuring (and in many cases produced by) women. This 70-minute volume contains 15 tracks by some of the earliest female pioneers: includes Queen Latifah's Whore of My Madness, plus The Conscious Daughters, Roxanne Shante, and more. (RH72984) CD: 13.98

Various Artists

Women in Hip-Hop 3: New MC's
This volume features some of the most recent and most talented artists from the still-evolving underground movement — women who are taking creative control of their careers, and not waiting for a major label to put out their records. Includes 16 tracks, from Bahamadia, Mama Mystique, Makeba Monrocycle, and more. (RH72988) CD: 13.98

Blues

Ann Rabson

Music Makin' Mama

This founding member of Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women treats fans to a 1997 solo release as she performs original material as well as songs from the likes of Bessie Smith, Roosevelt Sykes and Z.Z. Hill. She shows a command of everything from classic blues to infectious New Orleans R&B to contemporary acoustic blues. Showcasing her marvelous piano work, the album solidifies her as one of the most accomplished barroomhouse players of her generation. Fans of Saffire will appreciate that the music is set squarely in the Uppity vein as they get a taste of One More Ball, General Love and the title track: a must hear! (ALL4848) CD: 15.98

Bessie Smith

0351

Released in 1989, this 16-song collection is a great introduction to this early lesbian Blues Queen's hits! Her voluptuous, rich voice is incomparable on songs like Young Woman's Blues, Taint Nobody's Business If I Do, Gimme A Pigfoot, Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out, You've Been A Good Ole Wagon, Alberta Hunter and Lovie Austin's Downhearted Blues, and many others. Includes ample liner notes, which many missives don't, and sound's not bad, considering this is some of the earliest recorded music. (COL4444) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton

Bail N' Chain

0352

This 60-minute album is an excellent Big Mama anthology, includes Howl Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it, even though over 2 million copies were sold). The title song, which Big Mama wrote, was recorded also by Janis Joplin — but Big Mama never received any royalties, because she had to sign over the copyright in order to record it herself! (And please note that this artist died at age 57, in virtual financial destitution... how different it would have been had she been compensated for her irreplaceable contributions!) Other titles here are Wade in the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH305) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Katie Webster

Swamp Boogie Queen

0353

Bonnie Raitt considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion, which we'd agree with. And, she's already released over 500 recordings: it's about time for her to gain some notoriety. This 1988 album is a musical jumble of blues, gospel, Louisiana-swamp pop, R&B and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie piano. Includes Who's Making Love?, Black Satin. (ALL4766) CD: 15.98

Maria Muldaur

Louisiana Love Call

Forget the oasis, let's head down south and get some real comfort, the "Bluesiana" type, that is. She's older, she's wiser, and she's found a new home. Every song on this 1992 release (again available) evokes that steamy, sexy nighttime heat. Joined by a plethora of local talent (Dr. John, Neville Brothers), Maria sings in that primal way of hers, combining harmonies and heart for a potent combination. The title waltz is a knock-out, with Aaron Neville on back-up vocals, while Cajun Moon is more contemporary sounding (and just as hot); also includes her bad-girl hit, Don't You Feel My Leg. (BLT1061) CD: 15.98

Saffire

The Uppity Blues Women

0357

The Washington Post describes this 1990 album as "Sassy, peppy, raunchy... rock blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jellolite harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their second release includes Even Yuppies Get the Blues, Annie's Blues, Fess Up When You Mess Up. Yeah! (ALL4780) CD: 15.98

Saffire -- The Uppity Blues Women

Cleaning House

4535

Their previous release, Old, New, Borrowed & Blue, paid tribute to the classic blues performers who inspired them; but this 1990 album contains mostly original songs featuring their unique interpretation of the blues. The most popular blues act in the world, these 3 women mix downhome musical settings (acoustic guitar, upright bass, acoustic piano, plus harmonica and mandolin) with their contemporary, earthy (and sometimes bawdy) lyrical observations. Join their diverse following that includes devotees of classic blues, folk and women's music! (ALL4840) CD: 15.98

Hot Flash

0358

If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy blueswomen live, by all means go! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles on their 1991 release include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1, No Need to Run, On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4796) CD: 15.98

Live & Uppity

4574

Their first live album, this 1998 release was recorded over 3 nights at the famous The Barrs At Wolftrap in Alexandria, VA, in addition to fan favorites like Middle Aged Blues Boogie and (Mr. Insurance Man) Take Out That Thing. It contains new songs destined to become Saffire Classics (Silver Beaver, Cold Pizza & Warm Beer, The Thing That You Need) plus an inspired cover of the C&W classic Crazy. (ALL4856) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

0163

After pairing down to a duo for 1992's BroadCasting, the band is now a trio again with the addition of vocalist Andrea Faye McIntosh to founding members Gayle Adegoaba and Ann Rabson. This 1994 release is the band's musical tribute to the blues legends who inspired them, like Bessie Smith, Ma Rainey, Big Mama Thornton and Pine Top Singer. In addition to cover versions of some of their favorites by these and other artists, it also features band originals, including some of their most popular live material such as Do Your Duty, You Got To Know Her, and Fools' Night Out. Essential for fans of classic blues! (ALL4836) CD: 15.98

Susan Tedeschi

Just Won't Burn

4576

This relative newcomer to the blues, who is making waves with her powerful and soulful vocals as well as her guitar prowess, really shows her stuff on this 1998 release. "From straight-ahead blues such as Junior Wells' Little Big and a rocking update of Mama, He Treats Your Daughter Mean (originally made famous by Ruth Brown), to the soul, gospel and R&B shades of I Hurt So Bad, Angel From Montgomery and the title track, she demonstrates her ability to draw out the emotion, tension and feeling of the lyrics. She's joined by harmonica-blower Annie Raines and others. (TCL1164) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Swamp Mama Johnson

Wetlands

0500

Awwwwwwright! Sweaty, classic rhythm and blues (as in that 60's Muscle Shoals "Soul Music" sound) from a smoking 5-woman band with a "taking not one drop of gulf" attitude. Hailing from the decidedly non-swampy environs of Bellingham WA, the band lays it down with wailing harmonica, honking tenor sax, burning fat guitar, and heavy drums and bass. Vocalist Lisa Miller proudly carries the whiskey-soaked 70's Bonnie Raitt tradition on their mostly original songs. My pig of favorite is Gasoline ("You're playin' with matches in a pool of gasoline... if you're playing with me boy, you're gonna get burned"). Oooh, I can feel the humidity rising! Love it! (BMS995) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Swamp Mama Johnson

0614

These 5 groovin' women's 1997 release mixes several tasty influences into the stewpot: funk, ska, roots rock, country, blues, calypso and 60's psychobelia, yielding a right spicy jambalaya of sounds. The 11 tracks are mostly originals, 54 minutes in all, including Sistershake, Voodoo Angel, Irresistible Diah, and Pucker Up Buttercup. C'mon, be a Gatorhead (a Swamp Mama Johnson fan) and have a slurp of this! (BMS1137) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The blues roots of this remarkable contralto run deep on this 1993 release. Both before and since her late 60's days with Mother Earth, she has demonstrated that she can sing the blues with a power and emotion that is rarely matched. Here she pays tribute to the music that inspired her, more in the urban R&B vein than the acoustic country blues many of us recall from her 1965 debut Deep Are the Roots, although this album does include Motherless Child Blues, which also appeared on that out-of-print classic. We'd give anything to have that early album back in our catalog, but in its absence, here's the next best thing. The closing track, Please Send Me Someone To Love, features a duet vocal with Irma Thomas, soul queen of New Orleans. (ROU3123) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sing It!

3 incredible R&B singers together on 1 fabulous 1998 album! It's mostly upbeat Southern soul, country, and party music — which they obviously had a blast recording! — with an all-star back-up band of Memphis and New Orleans players contributing to this real down-home stomp. Each singer has her moment as a soloist, but the 3-part harmonies truly shine when they come together. The slower songs are delivered with waves of soulful emotion, as each woman puts her heart into every verse. Be sure not to miss 3 masters of their craft, doing what they do best! ### Essential Women In Blues (2-CD Set)

4509

This 1997 2-CD release from The House of Blues (a non-profit organization with some great objectives) is packed-to-over-stuffing with sassy, life-with-double-entendres songs. Spanning the 1920's to the present, the 30 tracks are not laments from long-suffering women, rather they are non-sentimental sentiments from lake charge, damn-it-contradicting, social-conventions women. Includes gems from Bessie Smith, Alberta Hunter, Memphis Minnie, Sippie Wallace, Big Mama Thornton, Dinah Washington, Ma Rainey, Big Maybelle, Etta James, Nina Simone, Kokoro Taylor, Saffire, Rory Block, Ruth Brown and many more. This collection is both historically and musically indispensable! Let's play it again! (PLT1161257) CD: 29.98

Alice Coltrane

Journey in Satchidananda

Blessedly back in print! Before there was "New Age", there was an amazing composer and instrumentalist... who used her knowledge of world music, jazz, and Eastern spirituality, and created sounds that were to become foundations for a genre. Recorded in 1970, this album combines her virtuosity on harp and piano with Pharoah Sanders' most excellent transcendental soprano sax, plus tamboura and oud, yielding original compositions that are evocative, meditative, searching, yearning, and just simply beautiful. Includes title, Isis and Ozms. Something About John Coltrane, Shiva-Loka. A personal favorite of this reviewer 25 years ago, and still highly recommended! (JMP223) CD: 16.98

Alivet

Cessetles back in print and on sale! With Rhamon as lead singer, Alivet was one of the most dynamic jazz ensembles ever to hit the Women's Music scene... & one of the most dynamic ensembles of any kind ever to hit the jazz scene. This 5-woman band weaves instrumental & vocal improvisation with jazz & classical sounds, with traditional African & Latin polyrhythms, with female images & feminist lyrics. Out of this blend has flowered some of the most revolutionary, unified & beautiful sounds being created these days by anyone. Among the songs here are City Life, Somebody's Taken, Dark Side of the Moon, and one of their greatest songs ever, Spirit Healer. 1976 (WWE54) CS: 6.98

Alive!
Always Alive! 1976-1986

In 1993 the quintet gathered for a performing reunion at the National Women's Music Festival (where they played one of their first festival gigs ever, in 1977). This 1996 CD release, from one of the world's finest women's jazz groups, finally compiles many of their best tracks from their 3 earlier titles Alive!, Call It Jazz and City Life. Spirit Healer, Yemaya, Wild Women Don't Get the Blues, Willing, Step By Step, Heaven is in Your Mind. 14 in all, 77 minutes of Alive! music. (ALV7656) CD: 15.98

Alive!
Call It Jazz

Now back in print, and at a great sale price! If you love Rhiannon as a vocalist, but weren't around when she formed this ensemble, take our word for it, you'll love this! Recorded at the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco in May 1981. It's dynamic, this recording actually preserves that elusive, most magical spirit which Alive! embodied in performance. (ALV8484) CS: 6.98

Alive!
City Life

Cassettes are back in print, and on sale! "A triumph of human and musical spirit—that is City Life at its best. Their individual and collective mastery of idioms—from bebop and ballads to Afro-Cuban and pop—is abundantly evident on this album"—this quote from their jacket sums it up. The reasons Alive! gained so much recognition and respect in the greater jazz world will be no mystery to listeners. (ALV543) CS: 6.98

Billie Holiday
Lady in Satin

Originally recorded in February of 1956, only 17 months before her death, this recording shows an extraordinary singer at her best. Although the quality of her voice was not what people would have expected from her earlier recordings, the edge and roughness add an incredibly emotional essence. Billie draws from the deepest depths of personal experience, essentially pouring her heart out, her interpretations are then framed by Ray Ellis' lush arrangements. Also contains 4 previously unissued alternative takes, and some beautiful photographs from the session. Highly recommended! (COL55144) CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday
The Billie Holiday Songbook

0278

This excellent anthology includes one of the very few in-print issues of Strange Fruit—about the lynching of African-Americans. It was one of the most haunting and significant recordings she ever made. Banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio, it is frequently omitted from anthologies even today. Also: Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song, clear sound, we recommend this collection highly. (VVR823246) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday
Ultimate Billie Holiday

Vocalist/pianist Shirley Horn had a difficult time selecting her favorite Billie Holiday songs for this 1997 release — "Billie helped to show me that the lyrics have got to mean something... interpret the lyric and try to paint a picture, tell a story." She settled on 16 such stories, each one a signature tune which Billie so personalized that they became hers. Includes Strange Fruit, Don't Explain, God Bless the Child, Lady Sings the Blues, Time and Melow. (VVR539651) CD: 15.98

Billie Holiday, Ella F., et al
Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!

0363

Containing works by Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Lena Horne and Sarah Washington, this 1994 collection has been growing and changing since the release of "Ella, Lena and Billie" in 1956. Featuring some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever, it includes Billie's What a Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's East of the Sun (And West of the Moon). (COL67638) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Cassandra Wilson
New Moon Daughter

With a voice as deep and as transformative as night, Cassandra Wilson sings haunting originals and covers that she has re-arranged in her own lustrous image. She is one of the most interesting of modern jazz singers, steeped in equal parts of the blues and fierce pride. This woman has presence. On this 1996 release, the sound of a match being lit harrowingly begins her haunting cover of Strange Fruit (an unforgettable song about lynching made famous by Billie Holiday). In addition to her fine original compositions, she also metamorphoses songs by U2, Hank Williams, The Monkees and Neil Young into high art! Do not miss this artist! (BLN32861) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Diana Krall
Steppin' Out: The Early Recordings

NEW!

On this re-release of her 1992 debut album, originally only available in Canada, we see the seeds of a brilliant and successful jazz singer/pianist. Performing standards from the likes of Duke Ellington as well as an original thrown in for extra sass, her gorgeous voice and expert instrumentation will have your heart aching in no time. Subtle backing on bass and drums completes the picture of artistic mastery that draws the listener in close to the tears that run through these songs. Sit back, relax, light some candles and let one of the smoothest voices of our time take you away. (GRP9825) CD: 15.98

Dinah Washington
Ultimate Dinah Washington

Both Abbey Lincoln — who assembled and annotated this 1997 collection — and her subject share a healthy spirit of defiance in their music. Dinah, who was called "Queen of the Blues," was a mischievous queen at times; "but when she went to the microphone to sing, it was like another dimension." Includes 16 of her classic songs: The Bitter Earth, Cry Me a River, Blue Gardenia, Since I Fell For You. (VVR539053) CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald

The Essential Ella: The Great Songs

0368

The First Lady of Song has been swingin' the band for nearly 60 years, and here's a great hour-long anthology with some of her best tunes. Included are Lady Be Good in both scat and slow versions; A-Tisket A-Tasket, Summertime, Ding! Dong! The Witch Is Dead, Drop Me Off in Harlem, Mack the Knife, Little Jazz, and 8 more. And unlike many reissues, this one has good sound and liner notes! Love that great bouncy big band sound, put this on at your next party for an enjoyable romp. (VVR517170) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Ella Fitzgerald

Ultimate Ella Fitzgerald

"She always told a story like she was telling it for the first time. She was plaintive, innocent, whimsical, and tender... people loved her all over the world. She was gifted and she shared her gift with everybody. Songwriters would stand in line to get her to sing their songs." So said vocalist Joe Williams, who selected these 16 very classic tracks for this 1997 issue. Includes Bess, You Is My Woman Now, plus Lullaby of Birdland, A-Tisket A-Tasket, Oh, Lady Be Good!, and more. (VVR539054) CD: 15.98

Etta James

Mystery Lady: Songs/ Billie Holiday

This album of Billie Holiday tunes might seem somewhat unusual to longtime Etta fans, who know her for her hard-hitting rhythm and blues, but after one listen it's obvious she is more than capable of beautifully interpreting some of Billie's most soulful, heartbreaking songs. Dedicated to her mother Dorothy as well as to Billie Holiday, Mystery Lady is a reflective look back on the people and music that shaped her. "It took a long time to get to Mystery Lady, because these songs require maturity. They're quiet songs, inside the heart songs." Beautifully accompanied by Cedar Walton on piano and Red Holloway on saxophone. (PVT2114) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Girl Talk

Talkin' Jazz

0592

I must shamelessly confess that when I saw this album from an all-female Norwegian jazz trio I was not expecting much, but I exuberantly admit that I was greatly mistaken. Girl Talk makes stupendous jazz! Tenor saxophonist Bodil Niska (whose hometown of Haimmerfest, Norway is the northernmost town in the world) has had Sonny Rollins compare her tone to Stan Getz, and her rich, gentle, burnished sound definitely hangs in the same neighborhood as Getz, Lester Young and Ben Webster. Ohio expatriate pianist Elizabeth Walker and bassist Tina Asmundsen complete the picture. They work in a late 1940's/early 1950's groove as they shine their creative light on their spongy tunes: Bessie's Blues and Sentimental, Van Heusen/Burke's Polka Dots and Moonbeams, Styne/Cahn's I Fall in Love Too Easily, Monk's Let's Cool One, Jobim's O Grande Amor and others. This 1996 release has sent me to jazz heaven. I defy anyone to not fall sighing in love with this little evanescence object. (HCR91) CD: 15.98

Lani Hall
Brasil Nativo

0703

The Grammy Award-winning vocalist of Sergio Mendes - Brasil 66 delivers this soulful 1998 masterpiece with the energy and myth of a Brazilian carnival. Smooth and sensual, her elegant diva-quality voice caresses and wraps itself around these Brazilian songs (most sung in Portuguese), on which she is backed by the muted trumpet and flugel horn of collaborator/husband Herb Alpert, and several male Brazilian artists: percussionist Paulinho Da Costa, acoustic guitarist and vocalist Don Claym, pianist and string arranger Eddie Del Barrio. Love her English-language interpretation of Antonio Carlos Jobim's Waters of March. Passionate, engaging and oh so sweet. Highly recommended! (WHJ11372) CD: 15.98

Mary Lofstrom
My Secret Joy

0629

I LOVE this album! Some of the sweetest, smoothest, swingingest, most melodic, foot-tapping, finger-snapping jazz on disc — with fabulous lesbian lyrics! With a voice described as mellifluous in almost every review she's received, not to mention excellent range, she performs 9 original songs (all of which sound like standards!) steeped in the jazz and blues tradition. Working from a lesbian perspective, each song is carefully built around the lyrical and melodic qualities, expressing irony and melancholy, humor and heartbreak, honesty and immovability which is accessible to all listeners. Songs like I Wish I Had a Motorcycle, She Rarely Wants Me, I'm Your Debutante, and the scatted Slave To You are accompanied by guys on piano, bass and drums, with a dash of trumpet. Buy this if you like jazz, and buy this if you don't think you do — very highly recommended! (SFB1) CD: 15.98

Nina Simone

The Best of Nina Simone

0370

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes black-listed and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Pirate Jenny, plus Four Women, See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You, which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHP622846) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Nina Simone

Ultimate Nina Simone

Dianne Reeves, who selected the songs for this 1997 edition, explains, "I understand why they called Nina the High Priestess of Soul. To me, she has a tear in her voice. It is rich and dark and beautiful. Her sound is undeniable." Many of her lyrics tell of women yearning for freedom; includes Four Women, See-Line Woman, Wild as the Wind, Take Me To the Water, and more. (VVR539050) CD: 15.98

Nnenna Freelon
Maiden Voyage

This amazing artist (who happens to be a Ladyslipper neighbor) has been hailed internationally as "the greatest female vocalist to come along in 3 decades." This 1998 release, which she describes as "a joyous celebration of feminine spirit and passion," includes a bluesy rendition of Sippie Wallace's Women Be Wise, an unexpected interpretation of Buffy Sainte-Marie's Until It's Time For You To Go, and her original Sing Me Down. Whether you are new or familiar to her artistry, you should absolutely hear this! (CJ4784) CD: 15.98

Rachel Z

Room of One's Own

The sticker on the CD, we received proclaims "Celebrating the Triumphs of Women in the Arts" — and this sounded so much like our own purpose, we had to listen! Rachel is an amazing pianist and composer; she has collaborated with such greats as Ron Carter and Wayne Shorter, and musicians like Chuck Corea are singing her praises. She is supported here by Cindy Blackman, Terri Lyne Carrington, Tracy Wornworth, Regina Carter, and Maria Schneider, among others. On some selections she works you with her beautiful melodies and harmonies, and on others she blows you away with her technical virtuosity and awareness of musical spaces — when to fill them and when to leave them open, creating beauty with silence. Each song on this 1998 album is dedicated to a woman who has influenced her: Virginia Wolfe, Zora Neal Hurston, Billie Holiday. If you've been looking for some women in jazz lately, try this! (NYC6023) CD: 15.98

Red Hot Organization
Red Hot & Rio

2386

This 1996 benefit release from the AIDS Awareness/Education Red Hot Organization features an amazing hybrid of classic 60's bossa nova sounds with contemporary pop/dance/jazz/funk. Sophisticated but more importantly very, very fun, this great album includes spins on bossa nova standards by Everything But the Girl, Cesaris Evers with Caetano Veloso and Ryuichi Sakamoto, Flora Purim and Airto with PM Dawn, and Crystal Waters (with the absolutely essential Boy From Ipanema). Don't miss this one! (AN5533183) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

And for an extra special treat, guests k.d. lang and Linda Ronstadt join her on the Gershwin tune Our Love Is Here To Stay, the one newly-recorded track on this 1998 album. (CJ4804) CD: 16.98

Sarah Vaughan

Ultimate Sarah Vaughan

Sarah Vaughan has stood as an inspiration to anyone aspiring to vocal jazz excellence. The influence she had on the celebrated vocalist Dee Dee Bridgewater, who selected the songs for this 1997 volume, was deep, profound and unmistakable. Includes Summertime, Shade A Day, Little Girl Blue, Smoke Gets in Your Eyes. (VVR539052) CD: 15.98

Straight Ahead Dance of the Forest Rain

Blending traditional jazz with the contemporary sounds, this 4-woman combo (flute, piano, bass and drums) jams at jazz clubs and women's music festivals. Their 1995 release features original compositions and vocals by each member. Their originals run the gamut from the jagged Latin rhythms/ smooth R&B vocals/ Spanish guitar bridge mix of Gemma, to the frolicking flute and piano of the title track, to the Eastern flavor of Charlie Pilow's guest-obo on Mariposa, to the bossa-nova-esque My Heart Keeps Crying, to the complex Suite Arthur (Parts 1-4) with Kenny Garrett's lively alto sax riffs. The girls also throw in the mellow stylings of Herbie Hancock's Come Running To Me (complete with futuristic sampled background vocals) and the "straight ahead" funk (they didn't scrimp on the was-was guitar) of Me/She/It NdegeOcello's Step into the Projects. How sweet it is! (ATL62644) CD: 14.95

Ann Hampton Callaway To Ella With Love

It takes someone with great chutzpah to "take on" Ella Fitzgerald's oeuvre, and even greater talent and spirit to put it off. Ann has got what it takes. Performing professionally since 1979, she has an amazing 3-octave contralto voice and the technique and showmanship to go with it. On this 1996 recording, Ann is joined by Wynton Marsalis on trumpet, Cyrus Chesnut on piano, Christian McBride on bass, Lewis Nash on drums and an orchestra from Esplanade. With Ella's chops (both her impeccable timing and scatting) and Lena's grandeur, Ann breathes fresh, but classy, individuality into Ella's classic like Embraceable You, Lady Be Good, Body and Soul, How High The Moon. I usually bristle at anyone attempting to "improve" upon the jazz canon, but Ann's talent has given her a permanent visa to my heart. Imperative! (TW2906) CD: 16.95

Ann Hampton Callaway/Liz Callaway Sister Revelry

Oooh, this is nice! Recorded live at Rainbow & Stars in NYC in 1995, sisters jazz chanteuse Ann and Broadway (Miss Saigon and Cats) star Liz charmingly work the room. Their voices blend in exquisitely sweet harmony as they sing duets (and shine on their solos) with a swinging piano/bass/drums accompaniment. Prepare to be thoroughly entertained by Ann's scat in Rhythm in My Nursery Rhymes, Liz's tenderness in My Heart Is So Full of You, and their big 10-minute blowout in their 18-song The Hugs Medley. It's the cabaret life for me! (DRG1443) CD: 15.95

Barbra Streisand Higher Ground

The recording of this 1997 tour de force was inspired by Barbra's relationship with, and the life and death of, Virginia Kelly, the mother of President Bill Clinton — to whom the album is dedicated. Her first studio recording in 4 years, she selected these songs to transcend any specific religion, but to speak to the hearts of all persons of faith. These songs are, to the artist, like prayers. Includes Tell Him, a duet with Celine Dion, plus Circle, Avinu Malkeinu, The Water Is Wide, Deep River. (COL66181) CS: 10.95... CD: 17.95

Josephine Baker J'ai Deux Amours

Chanteuse, cabaret star, and cause celebre, this artist (1905-1975) was born in St. Louis and became famous in Paris while still in her teens. She later was known for her efforts to break down the "color line" by refusing to perform before segregated audiences. Dubbed by the French writer Colette "the Most Beautiful of Panthers," she captivated audiences everywhere with fiery performances that were both humorous and seductive. The 18 tracks on this 1997 re-release were originally recorded between 1931 and 1936; includes Sous le Ciel d'Alger, Nuit d'Alger, Haiti, Suppose. (ARK75103) CD: 15.95

Marlene Dietrich The Cosmopolitan Marlene Dietrich

The first time I heard the jaded, heavily-accented, singing of Ms. Dietrich, I really did not understand her appeal. I'm all grown up now and, sounds, she just moves me! This compilation of 18 well-mastered recordings from the early 1950's, with an equal breakdown of German and English lyrics renderings, oozes with her powerful sexuality. I swear that she turns The Surrey With the Fringe on Top, sung in her native tongue (the usually-extremely-anti-sexy German) into sheer seduction. Also includes the song that first made the world sit up and take notice, Falling in Love Again from the film Blue Angel, plus two versions of Lili Marlene, an international smash on both sides of the WWII battle line. (COL53209) CD: 15.95

Tuck & Patti The Best of Tuck & Patti

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart — this woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk — and her vocal relationship to husband Tuck Andress' incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slip and slide around the corners of jazz ballads, contemporary songs and originals. This 1994 retrospective includes the best tracks from their previous Windham Hill releases: Takes My Breath Away, Tears of Joy, Dream, Love Warriors, As Time Goes By, and Cindy Lauper's Time After Time. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in their collaboration is impressive and engaging — recommended! (WH1152) CS: 10.95... CD: 15.95

Various Artists Women in Jazz: Feminist Retrospect

This 1989 two-compact-disc set contains material from the Slash label's double LP Jazz Women plus cuts from their Women in Jazz series, now out of print as single albums. In other words, selections from the also out-of-print 5-LP set Forty Years of Women in Jazz. Over 40 cuts, over 2 hours, featuring women as bandleaders, arrangers, horn players, pianists, with liner notes by Mary Lou Williams. Historically significant, highly recommended! (JAS910) CD: 24.95

Marlene Dietrich Lili Marlene

This legendary artist, two parts ice-queen and one part vamp, was the arch-duchess of cabaret, and her voice — strong off in this classic collection of Marlene at her best — was an instrument she used to tease, seduce and mock. This 18-track 1997 re-release was originally recorded between 1931 and 1939; includes title track, Lola, Mein Blondes Baby, with 3 of the tracks sung in French. (ARK75104) CD: 15.95

Sarah Brightman Time To Say Goodbye

This international star of the musical stage, who was married to Andrew Lloyd Weber and inspired his Phantom of the Opera, presents a stylistically diverse 1997 album, with dramatic renditions of songs from Queen and the Gypsy Kings to Mozart and Puccini. The centerpiece is the hypnotic, bel canto title track, performed with Italy's superstar tenor, Andrea Bocelli. Accompanied by the London Symphony Orchestra, she deftly combines elements of pop, musical theater and the classical genre in a manner that underscores her reputation as one of the world's leading divas. (ANG56511) CD: 15.95

Ute Lemper Berlin Cabaret Songs

As we learned from Cabaret, the Weimar Germany Republic (1919-1933) had a thriving arts culture and strong lesbian and gay communities before the Nazis' reign of fascism and genocide took hold. On this 1997 release, German chanteuse Ute Lemper (think Dietrich meets Broadway) performs, with English lyrics, some of the witty, urbane, cynical, cosmopolitan, amused-about-sex-and-gender-roles songs from that time. The gay rights anthem The Lavender Song, When The Special Girlfriend (which was first sung by Margo Lion and Marlene Dietrich in 1928 and became the unofficial anthem of the German lesbian movement), the gender-poking, of Masculinum-Femininum, the lively Catch Out The Men, and many others are sung with great verve and humor. A fascinating and very entertaining release; I will be looking out for more by this very talented vocalist. Highly recommended! (LON452949) CD: 15.95

Various Artists A Tribute to Barbra Streisand

Not a vocal album but a tribute to one of the greatest interpreters of our time, this 1996 release features piano orchestrations of many of Barbra's best-loved songs by pianists such as Sally Hammon, Mary Beth Carlson, Mike Strickland and others. Includes People, The Way We Were, Tell Him, You'll Medley and more. (RS0410) CS: 9.95... CD: 15.95

Various Artists Sex Kittens in Hi-Fi/The Brunettes

Employing the always sensible classification system of women's hair color, this CD has a cringe-worthy high-cheese factor cover wrapped around many excellent songs! Gleaming on the velvet cushion of jazzy orchestral arrangements, Lena Horne's Watch What Happens, Vicki Lane's You Hit the Spot, Doree Jo's I Found A Brand New Baby, Polly Bergen's What I Wouldn't Do For That Man and others (just sizzle! Eartha Kitt rises above the pre-feminist lyrical sensibilities with her rocking empowered-before-the-term-was-invented I'd Rather Be Burned As A Witch. These voices knock me good! Sigh... (DCC99) CD: 13.95

Various Artists Sirens of Song: Classic Torch Singers

Arrrh, yesssss... Even if you don't smoke and you keep all the lights turned up high, it would be impossible not to enjoy the sounds of Julie London, Sarah Vaughan, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Judy Garland, Lena Horne, Marlene Dietrich, Eartha Kitt, Edith Piaf, Etta James, Nina Simone, Dinah Washington, Carmen McRae, LaVern Baker and Ruth Brown. With such a stellar collection of some of the all-time great women of pop, jazz and R&B, what are you waiting for? (RH72514) CD: 12.95

Various Artists Satin Dolls/Women of Jazz (Book/CD)

This 1994 set includes both a digitally remastered CD and 72-page illustrated book which provides a comprehensive look at the emergence of female jazz vocalists from Beanie Smith to Betty Carter. The 20-track CD includes songs by Billie Holiday, Sarah Vaughan, Doree Jo, Carmen McRae, and more. The set is a remarkable tribute to the women of jazz, a valuable preservation of their music, and an educational tool. (FFX24876) CD: 15.95

Beautiful Thing

The slightly bitter, slightly sweet 1996 film about love between two working class British boys was filled with the sound of Cass Elliot's wonderful contralto. Features both her work with The Mamas and Papas and her solo endeavors which were cut short by her untimely death. (MCA11552) CD: 15.95

Billy's Hollywood Screen Kiss

This 1996 gay date movie has similar cross-over appeal to that of Priscilla: Queen of the Desert. Music tracks include some drag queen favorites, there's a new remix of Petula Clark's Happy Heart by house legend Junior Vasquez, another Petula Clark tune, This Is My Song, and Nina Simone's Love Me Or Leave Me. (WVL33654) CD: 16.95

The original score by Mark Chat provides the rhythmic life (think synthesizer and harpsicord) classical accompaniment to Nicole Conn's 1995 film. (WOL10015) CD: 15.95

Fairy Tales

The soundtrack to this utterly charming show by Chicago composer/lyricist/director Eric Lane Barnes is both witty and sweet. The 1995 recording features 14 songs concerned with a wide variety of gay and lesbian issues. Stonewall Serenade sounds like a choral society favorite. The Gay Guys laments a straight woman's track record of falling in love with gay men. You're The Bottom is, contrary to what you might think, a hilarious mirror image of Cole Porter's classic. The Letter copes with being dumped for criticizing your ex's poor grammar. The Ballad of Tommy Brown is a heart-wrenching tale of betraying a childhood friend. No need to settle for mediocrity just because of the queer subject matter! These are gems of show tunes — recommended! Save me a seat, okay? (FFL1) CD: 14.95

Family Jewels/Gems of Rainbow Stage

This 1996 anthology of "alternative" theater traces 20 years (1975-1995) of gay-themed musicals. Includes 23 selections performed by members of the original casts from 10 productions: The Gay Nineties Musical, In the Blood, The Ballad of Little Mike, All That He Was, Aids: The Musical, In Gay Company, Sparkles, Joseph McCarthy Is Alive and Well and Living in Dade County and Boy Meets Boy. ## The Hanging Garden

Can you believe this — the soundtrack for this Canadian film features music by (get ready) Ani DiFranco, Myd Sisters, Jane Siberry, Mervyn Codel, Mary Jane Lamond, Ashley MacIsaac, Leahy, the Rankin Family, and many others? It was a limited-release film, which we hope we have the privilege of seeing, given the fusion of Celtic traditions with fabulous contemporary artists. (ANG44908) CD: 16.98

Harvey Milk (2-CD Set)

0680

Composer Stewart Wallace and librettist Michael Korte created this contemporary opera which tells the dramatic life story of San Francisco's first openly gay supervisor, from his rise to prominence to his assassination in 1978. San Francisco Opera music director and conductor Donald Runnicles edited and orchestrated the original score for this world premiere recording, performed by the SF Opera Chorus and Orchestra, released in the US in 1998. Drawn from the vigorous vocabulary of contemporary opera, American popular song and the Broadway musical, this expose of homophobia has all the ingredients of great opera. (TEL15856) CD: 39.98

In Gay Company

The revival cast performance from a witty and timely piece by Fred Silver. (AE28) CD: 16.98

Incredibly True Adventures, 2 Girls in Love

This incredibly true soundtrack is back in stock and at an incredibly low price! Maria Maggenti's 1995 film features music by BETTY (A Typical Love), Lole, Scrawl, and Mozart. Most of the instrumental music, however, was written by composer and multi-instrumentalist Terry Dame, founding member of the Celtic instrumental group "Jew's Airs," which performed at such venues as the Michigan and East Coast Lesbian festivals; here these selections are performed by a quartet (3-woman, 1-man) in which Terry plays soprano saxophone. A classic for every collection! (MIL35724) CD: 9.98

Indigo Girls and Others

Jesus Christ Super-Star (Double)

0175

Subtitled A Resurrection, this 1994 reinterpretation of the famous rock opera features Indigo Girls Amy Ray and Emily Saliers as Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene respectively! Over 55 minutes of music on 2 CDs or double-length cassette, 25 tracks, proceeds will go to benefit victims of violent crimes and for gun control. Ambitious and wide-ranging in both sound and scope. (DAE19006) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Lilies

The film was a hit on the independent gay film scene; here is the 1998 soundtrack full of aerie original Catholic chants. Composer Mychael Danna draws from the musical traditions of the Church from the Dark and Middle Ages, to create original music that reflects the themes of both the church and the film — beautiful boys and beautiful chanters. Performed by the English-based Hillard Ensemble, the music invokes the style of Gregorian chants performed acappella as well as with cello and trumpet accompaniment. (VS5868) CD: 16.98

Midnight in Garden of Good & Evil

The star-studded soundtrack to the film based on the gay-charactered bestseller (drag queens, voodoo priestesses, and more) includes k.d. lang's Skyline, plus tracks from Cassandra Wilson, Paula Cole, Alison Krauss, Rosemary Clooney, Tony Bennett, Frank Sinatra, and stars of the film itself, Clint Eastwood, his daughter Alison Eastwood, and Kevin Spacey — all interpreting jazz tunes by the great Johnny Mercer. (MPS46529) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Priscilla: Queen of the Desert

The great disco-fut soundtrack to the '94 gay film hit which describes itself as "a comedy that will change the way you think, the way you feel, and most importantly... the way you dress" — it's the story of two drag queens and a transsexual who take a trip into the Australian outback. Disco hits include Gloria Gaynor's I Will Survive, Alicia Bridges' I Love the Nightlife, the Village People's Go West, Peaches and Herb's Shake Your Groove Thing, and it even contains songs like Take a Letter Maria, 20 songs in all. (MTH516937) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Rent (2-Set)

This 1996 soundtrack from the excellent hit production was written by 35-year-old visionary lyricist/composer Jonathan Larson, who ironically died of an aortic aneurysm the night before it opened on Broadway. Hailed as the rock opera of the 90's, it quickly outgrew its underground theater beginnings to become a cultural landmark on the level of Hair, with over 6 million in pre-ticket sales. Inspired by Puccini's La Bohème, Larson created a deeply moving and tragically funny work celebrating a modern day community of young NY East Villagers as they struggle with soaring hopes amid the tough realities of poverty, AIDS, drugs and sexual definition. (DRM50003) CS: 19.98 CD: 29.98

The Secret of Roan Inish

On this 1995 soundtrack from the film by John Sayles, starring Jeni Courtney, Mason Daring's compositions set the mood for the plot turns of Rosalee K. Fry's novel. The Roan Inish Theme is graceful and enigmatic; Fiona's is perky; Fiona's Walk tells a story of melancholy; Scampering Away establishes a festive mood only to shift into quiet reflection. The sounds of fiddles, flutes, whistles, pipes, harp, bouzouki, bodhran, and mandocello combine in Daring's traditional Irish music. All vocalists on this album are women; Eileen Loughran sings Zeke's Song in Gaelic, and the female vocals in Return to Roan Inish are no less than sublime. (DRN3015) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

To Wong Foo/Thanks for Everything!

A lot like the Priscilla soundtrack except without the ABBA! This 1995 release features music by Salt-N-Pepa, the High Holy Divas reunion of LaBelle (that's Patti LaBelle, Nona Hendryx, and Sarah Dash, if you have to ask), Chaka Kahn, Crystal Waters, and a re-mix of Cyndi Lauper's Hey Now (Girls Just Want To Have Fun). Close-out price on the cassette! (MCA11231) CS: 6.98 CD: 15.98

Victor/Victoria

0195

Twelve years after the fabulous film's release, the soundtrack shows up — and we're getting requests for it, so here it is! Who wouldn't think back nostalgically on songs like The Shady Dame From Seville and Gay Pines? Vocals by Julie Andrews, Robert Preston, and Lesley Ann Warren; music by Henry Mancini, lyrics by Leslie Bricusse. (GNP0038) CD: 15.98

When Night Is Falling Soundtrack

Now you can hear the music from the lesbian film by Patricia Rozema. This 1997 album, sparse and rich, invokes a dream-like state, sensually and sexually beautiful — it exists as a work in itself apart from the movie. Lesley Barber composed, arranged and conducted the music, and she played accordion, Hammond B3 organ and percussion on the CD. Wow! When night is falling, pop in this soundtrack and wake up dreaming. (NAP204) CD: 15.98

Xena: The Bitter Suite

0598

This 1998 soundtrack to the Xena Broadway-style musical episode features Lucy Lawless singing! Includes all of the excellent songs from the episode, a lavishly-produced, multi-layered expression of the power of love over hatred and sorrow, done in the grandest Broadway tradition. Woven fancifully with imagery from the Tarot, there's also a scattering of styles from Sondheim to the Wizard of Oz, layered liberally with the neo-lesbian undertones Xena fans call "subtext." Even if you can't sing a two-handed broadsword or wallop ruffians with an Amazon quarterstaff, now you can at least sing along! Powerful stuff! (VS5918) CD: 15.98

Xena: Warrior Princess

The soundtrack to the popular New Zealand television series starring Lucy Lawless as the leather-clad big-woman-with-a-big-word Amazon fighter is a mixture of traditional orchestration by Joseph LoDuca and Middle Eastern/Bulgarian choruses. Includes Bural, a haunting original composition written and sung by Lucy. It's dramatic! (VS5760) CD: 15.98

Xena: Warrior Princess Vol. 2

With Lucy Lawless appearing recently in the Broadway show Grease, even more Xena fanatics have been born... and there's even more music! This second CD continues Xena music producer Joseph LoDuca's innovative mix of haunting orchestration with traditional Bulgarian and Middle Eastern instruments and chants. Hmmm, music to Wile E. Coyote to? Music For Thrashing Evil Warlords? (VS5883) CD: 15.98

Acappella

DykeAppella

At the Gates of Heaven

This 1997 live-in-concert recording from a Madison WI women's quintet is chock-full of great songs! Many focus affectionate humor on the vicissitudes of Lesbian existence: Lesbian Picnic, Femme at Heart, Teenaged Lesbian, classics like Maxine Feldman's Amazon and Cassie Cuervo's I'm Late Again. Judy Grahn's Plainsong: a funeral plainsong from a younger woman to an older woman. Your Women's Bookstore recounts several reasons to hang out there, while Hollywood Haircut gives serious tribute to the butch/femme lesbians who paved the way for lesbian/feminist liberation... 15 in all! (HFR002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Live: Out On the Road

0008

Our favorite gay acappella quintet (in fact, the world's most famous openly gay, politically active, multi-cultural acappella singing group) has at last released this fantastic 1992 album, recorded live in Vancouver. Selections include So Much in Love (Lesbian Love), The Homecoming Queen's Got a Gun, Cughta Be a Woman by June Jordan and Bernice Reagon, Donde Esta Dolores?, Michael Callen's Living in Warzone, and fun faggot favorites like Boy from New York City and Johnny Angel. A terrific mixture of pleasure and politics, highly recommended again! (FLR1002) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Michael Callen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Fort. Sweet Honey's Breathin', and an incredible cover of Chris Williamson's Shooting Star. A wonderfully varied album, very highly recommended! 1990 (SRG902) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Three

0480

They are now a trio, and a mixed one at that — the acclaimed women's jazz vocalist Suede has become the first female member of the famed acappella group, joining veteran Jimmy Ruffalo and group founder Jon Ardenon — and we happily present their third album in June, 1999! Highlights include the Suede favorite Sister, plus Time After Time, Think, Master Sandman, Something To Talk About, and We Shall Be Free. (FLR3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

The Kinsey Sicks

Dragapella!

Grand harmonies, wicked parodies, and scary drag captures the essence of America's favorite dragapella quartet! Full-throated, light 4-part harmonies turn Bobby McFerrin's Don't Worry, Be Happy into Worry, convert the Jackson Five song ABC into a wittily acronym-filled A2T, and send off self-absorbed 90's queer boys in a revealing version of Holly Near's anthem Gentle Loving People. Also features Buster Baby Blues, the Macarena-derived Macarons, and Men Are Pigs (But Why Keep Koshing?). Passersby will stop to listen in and laugh when you play this one! (TKS129) CD: 14.98

Maiaika

Live

"Maiaika" means both "angel" in Swahili and also a 4-woman, multi-racial acappella group from Ontario, Canada. On this 1996 release, they blend traditional, contemporary, and original songs in English, French, Swahili, Japanese, and Xhosa in a variety of styles and rhythms. Their originals include When A Woman ("... makes up her mind, to leave the shadows of fearfulness behind, celebrate the life she makes, what do we see? A woman who's free"), and Stand Up ("We can all feel proud when we speak out of that place that connects you to me beyond gender and race"). Other highlights are the South African Mbembela and the beautiful Rickie Lee Jones Woody And Dutch. (MAL001) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Mary Schmary

Smarty Pants

This Bay Area women's acappella quartet presents a repertoire of clever, intelligent, offbeat original on their delightful debut 1997 release. Some songs are politically inspired, some are personal and poetic, some are understated spoofs, some mix humorous and serious elements... they reflect a progressive sensibility based in feminism, anti-racism, and evolved human consciousness in most creative and wonderful ways. Check them out — acappella aficionados will find a treasure box of musically fun material! (BOR156) CD: 14.98

Men Out Loud

Sweet Enuf 2 Eat (Full-Length)

The styles of this openly gay acappella-based vocal quartet encompass pop, doo-wop, Gregorian chant, gospel, musical theater, R&B, and classical, with their smooth, close-harmony vocals always the centerpiece. This debut 1997 album opens with their first single by the same name, and includes More Than A Woman, Moonance, Somebody Good Lovin', Rock-A-My Soul, and others. (PUR642390) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Mint Juleps Round Our Way

Finally, in 1994, here's the American debut by a vibrant 5-woman a cappella group from London's East End... who combine soul, gospel, reggae, pop and doo-wop in unique arrangements. Some of you may know them from their contributions to the Do It A Cappella compilation, or from their appearances on "Saturday Night Live." This album combines live material and studio performances of their original songs mixed with covers of crowd-pleasers such as The Snake, Higher and Higher, Mumble and more... their songwriting and vocal talent is sure to capture the imagination of music lovers everywhere. (HT8052) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

The Nylons Fabric of Life

This 1997 release features some intriguing front and back cover graphics (X and Y chromosomes... probably supposed to signify gender-bending, but it reminds me of centrifuging!) plus of course great Nylonized a cappella tracks. Includes a get-up-off-your-feet R&B treatment of Let It Be, tight soulful harmonies on their warm remake of Ain't No Sunshine, and 6 new songs especially penned for them by producer Ian Prince. (PAC2500) CD: 15.95

Peaceful Women Earth Walker

The beauty of female voices — dipping and weaving into, over and under each other — are in full display on this 1996 release by a feminist a cappella quartet. Singing a mixture of songs and rounds, both originals and well-chosen covers, they are concerned themselves with social activist themes: Bernice Johnson Reagon's Give Your Hands to Struggle, the Telles Noires' Why Are the Farmers Dying?, and Peaceful Women Madeline Hart's anti-capitalism Bank Teller and anti-guns Protect the Children. Their earth focus connects with the Zap Man-ish original Sing Back the Balance, the round Ring Around the Moon, and Chief Seattle's Every Part of This Earth. Finally they just have fun with Libby Roderick's How Could Anyone Ever Tell You and the Jackie Wilson/Rita Coolidge hit Higher and Higher. (PW2) CS: 9.95

Choral

Amasong Over Here the Water Is Sweet

Dedication to the pursuit of choral excellence within an atmosphere that celebrates all forms of women's devotion to women is how Amasong's founding director defines the mission of this 50-woman Lesbian Feminist chorus from Illinois. Sung in 11 different languages, the songs on this collection focus on the traditions, life experiences, and history of women — ranging from ancient to contemporary, from the spiritual to the political, but always powerful. Sooch I Will Be Done, a tribute to Sojourner Truth, Harriet Tubman, and Audre Lorde, stirs the listener with its rhythms and rich layering of voices. The haunting Strange Fruit, first performed by Billie Holiday, is presented a cappella. Todor Todorika features two solitary women moving towards each other, sung in the undulating Balkan style (where one's voice must be heard from mountain to mountain). The listener is bound to be moved by this collection, which holds beauty as the ultimate criterion. (AMA9706) CD: 15.95

Choeur Maha Different Angels

This feminist choir from Montreal comes with an intriguing "electro-acoustic" twist. "Maha" is the Sanskrit word meaning "great or powerful" and it evokes the energy of the 30 women in the choir, which was formed by musical visionary Kathy Kennedy in 1991. The styles on their 1996 debut range from sampled avant-garde sounds... to the 14th-century composition Shefa Splendens, on which they pepper the Latin lyrics with hard percussion, bells, violin, dulcimer and an upbeat chanting vocal arrangement... to the religiously meditative echoey a cappella hymn Create in Me, to the traditional Japanese Monkey Chant. My favorite is the early loopy version of Willie Nelson's Crazy — this isn't a Patsy Cline rehash, trust me! For those looking for a choir which pushes the musical envelope without throwing pleasurable sound overboard, check this ensemble out! (SXK0001) CS: 9.95 CD: 14.95

SoVoSo World Jazz A Cappella

SoVoSo is a 6-person multi-ethnic a cappella ensemble that sings a unique, rhythmic mix of jazz, gospel, world and R&B music. Originally known as Voicestra, the group was founded in 1985 by Bobby McFerrin, performing with him and under his direction through 1993. They are now made up of 3 women (including Rhianon and possible Jerry's kid Sunahine Garsie) and 3 men. On this 1997 album, their first post-McFerrin release, they perform their imaginative arrangements of Sly Stone's Thank You, Curtis Mayfield's People Got Ready, the traditional Dance by the Riverside, and the Dix suite co-composed by McFerrin as a dance score for Brenda Way's Western Women. The album closes with the Betsy Rosel Rhianon/Patty Weinstein composition Say a Prayer, with a solo by Rhianon! (PAC2700) CD: 15.95

SoVoSo Truth & Other Stories

Think "I" words for this 1995 release: imaginative, innovative, improvisational, intricate, and inspired. Rhianon's strikingly personal funk tune In My Prime, one of the only songs about menopause we have ever heard, is reason enough to own this disc! Also includes the harmonically lush Gift of Music, a rousing gospel/rap tribute to Martin Luther King, Jr. entitled Thank You For the Dream, the Afro-Cuban jazz classic Afro Blue, and For the Forest, an amazing improvisational tribute to California's Headwaters Forest. (PAC2710) CD: 15.95

Three Sheets to The Wind Grace Under Pressure

This Canadian a cappella trio first came to our attention when ensemble member Rebecca Campbell sang with Jane Siberry on the night stage at Michigan. She still tours with Jane's band, but, in her own words, "There comes a time when you just want to get together to sing with the girls." Founded in 1991, the trio is made up of Rebecca, Mary Burns and Beverly Wolfe. Their eclectic repertoire draws on traditional Bulgarian, Finnish and Celtic songs (e.g. The Flowers of Maghway), to country (Things in Life), to jazz standards with a twist, to contemporary Canadian folk songs (e.g. Fernon's The Cat and Gordon Lightfoot's The Way I Feel), and Rebecca's original compositions such as Magdalena and White Fetters. I like their renditions of Silver Threads and Golden Needles, the charity The Female Rambling Sailor and Awake Ye Crowsy Seepers. The title track, another Rebecca original, inspired the "Grace Under Pressure" Award, presented each year to an extraordinary Canadian athlete by the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Women in Sport. Highly recommended! (CNL254) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

The Undertones Six Women, No Strings

This all-woman a cappella sextet has been performing together since 1991; we had the good fortune to hear them at the '95 GALA (Gay and Lesbian Association of Chorus) Festival where they were a BIG hit. On this 1996 recording, they cover the gamut of a cappella styles: classic doo-wop with In the Still of the Night, the Fifties arrangements of Something Inside So Strong and Cris Williamson's Shooting Star; a madrigal interpretation of Dorothy Parker's sardonic poem, Coda; Leadbelly; Bernice Johnson Reagon's Silvie; a Manhattan Transfery version of Fred Small's feminist Fifty-Nine Cents; even a radical reworking of Disney's Kiss the Girl from The Little Mermaid — I certainly prefer this version! Solid, tight, political, fun... what more do you need? (UT96) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Various Artists Voices Only - A Cappella Originals

A fabulous sampler of some of the best a cappella groups of our time: Sweet Honey in the Rock, Jezebelia, Street Sounds, the Nylons, the Bobs, the Blenders, Rockapella, and many more. (PAC2600) CD: 14.95

Vida In Bloom

The 1997 album from this 4-woman a cappella group is bound to shake the ground of preconceived notions regarding world music and who performs it. Drawing from many traditions from around the world, these young white college students (from IU, Bloomington, IN) — why haven't we seen them at the women's music festival there, we wonder? — demonstrate a special ability to capture the power of such diverse repertoires as Bakken folk song, African American spirituals, South African Freedom songs, contemporary and traditional songs from the U.S. and other areas. Combining and harmonizing their distinct and powerful voices, they cultivate and mesmerize listeners with beautiful and spirited performances. A must hear! (WRM002) CD: 15.95

Denver Women's Chorus First Ten Years: A Decade of Daring

A wonderful and varied repertoire from the 80 voices of one of the oldest women's choruses around. Lovely 4-part harmonies on Ancient Mother... one of the finest songs ever penned by Holly Near. Simply Love, Fred Small's Everything Possible (nice to hear it performed by multiple women's voices)... Fair Warning ("When I am an old woman, I shall wear purple")... Pat Humphries' Never Turning Back with joyful percussion and syncopation... an African Medley... and many more to keep your spirits lifted. (DWC1) CS: 11.95 CD: 15.95

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles Diversity

The repertoire of this recording is taken from the 109-member GMCLA's 1991 European tour, and reflects the diversity of American music and of gay life in America. Contains both popular and concert music: traditional men's choral pieces and recently composed works, with an emphasis on works by gay composers. Cuts include Somewhere Medley, Connie Kaidor's There Comes a Time, Ned Rorem's stunning Love Alone, a poem cycle by Paul Monette elegizing the death of his lover, Roger Horowitz, plus Canto de Esperanza, Family, and a gorgeous rendition of Ave Maria, in Latin, of course! If you enjoy men's voices, you're sure to appreciate this recording! (GMCL) CD: 15.95

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles Songs of Love

For its 1995 recording, the chorus recorded a newly-commissioned song cycle by Hollywood composer Thomas Pasatun, Enlivened Mornings. Innocent, it consists of six songs based on poems by May Swenson: Adrienne Rich and Bl Wright, which chronicle the stages of romantic lesbian and gay love relationships. Also contains songs expressing "love of nature" (The Residue, based on a Robert Frost poem and Shenandoah), "love in the face of AIDS" (All There Is is Love, with text by Paul Monette) and "love as a blessing and a gift" (Geek Blessing and Lover's Gift). (GMC3) CD: 15.95

Gay Men's Chorus of Washington DC Singing Free

A very eclectic mix of material, similar to their live performances, appears on this 1994 release: opera to gospel, Broadway to comedy ballads, even 2 originals. Founded in 1981, the 140-member chorus has appeared in the Kennedy Center, the Cherry Blossom Parade and inaugural celebrations for a Mayor and a President. Favorites include a great rendition of Christine Lavin's Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind; Love Don't Need a Reason, co-written by Michael Callen; and Leonard Bernstein's My House, for a now-forgotten version of Peter Pan. (GMW1) CS: 10.95 CD: 15.95

Hersong: Quad Cities Women's Chorus Sister Circle

The philosophy of this 10-year-old Iowa chorus is "to promote, develop and perform women's music and culture that celebrates the strength, dignity and sisterhood of all women, as well as social justice, world peace, cultural diversity, healing of the environment and harmony among all beings of Earth." To that end, they present 15 great songs on their 1997 recording, including the Righteous Mothers, Big Legged Women, Grand and Robes (the classic version by James Cagney and Mimi Farrow), Holly Near's Perfect Night, Bernice Reagon's Seven Principles, Karen Bath's Wynneford Rising, and Cris Williamson's Lullaby. (HRS2) CS: 9.95 CD: 15.95

Portland Lesbian Choir Making Light

What a glorious sound, the 60-plus voices of the first-named lesbian choir in the US! Subtitled 10 Years of Heart and Humor, their 1997 release celebrates their special dedication to wonderful songs that "make the darkness bearable, and the lightness of spirit that eases the burden on arduous and long journeys." Includes Judy Collins' Song for Judith, Violeta Parra's Gracias a la Vida, the beautiful traditional How Can I Keep From Singing, an original composed by 3 chorus members which is dedicated to all individuals and couples struggling with illness, one by Francesca Caccini, even a song they learned from a lesbian chorus in Sweden (did you know there was one?) — all great selections! A few tracks were recorded live at GALA V in Tampa; recommended! (PLC10) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus ExtraABBAganza

0625

Connecting to a staple of 70's pop culture, the SFGMC pays tribute in song to ABBA, the top-selling music act of that decade. The choral presentation of songs is filled with lush and complex harmonies and recognizable ABBA tunes. They have made a collection of the very finest from ABBA that will thrill, amaze and delightfully surprise you! (SFG97) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus How Fair This Place

Born in 1978 at an impromptu gathering on the steps of City Hall (singing to ease the shock and grief at the assassinations of Mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk), this group of men was the first to tour nationally (1981) and proudly proclaim their gay identity, inspiring other gay men and lesbians to form the now over 100 affiliated member choruses. While celebrating its musical history, the SFGMC now faces the future determined to be an instrument for artistic accomplishment, healing and love — a commitment evident in their live recording, a beautiful collection of popular (Love Medley, including Unchained Melody), theatrical (selections from Mozart, Swan, Chase and Jekyll & Hyde), and sacred pieces (Irish Blessing, Gabriel's Oboe, On Earth As It Is In Heaven). English translations are included for all Latin pieces. Most highly recommended! (SFG10-01) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus Naked Men

Commissioned by the chorus for their performance at the 1996 GALA (Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses) conference, this album is a song cycle composed by Robert Seeley (their composer-in-residence) with libretto by Philip Little. Philip interviewed and spent time with the chorus, gathering their perceptions and feelings on "gay life in the 90's". The result captures the hopes, disappointments, joy and rage of gay male sexuality, pride, death, identity and other specific and universal themes. (SFG96) CS: 11.98 CD: 15.98

Seattle Men's Chorus The Pink Album

This welcome 1996 release includes guest appearances by Holly Near, who lends her voice to The Great Peace March, Michael Callen's Love Don't Need a Reason, and Our Love Is Saving Across the Land. Harvey Flanstein who joins them in a new "dance version" of I Am What I Am; jazz sensation Diana Schuur in an emotional Over the Rainbow; Ann Hampton Callaway in a hauntingly beautiful song by Portia Nelson and David Friedman called Let There Be Music; and Ladies Don't Drum perform on a couple of tunes too! (SMC7) CD: 15.98

Seattle Men's Chorus We Are Family

NEW

This time out for '88 the fellas are paying tribute to the fabulous 70's, with a series of medleys that mix the harmonies of everything from oldies such as I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing, to the disco energy of Play that Funky Music, to the romantic heartache of Killing Me Softly. And, of course, what 70's retrospective by a bunch of gay men would be complete without a round of Village People songs for a finale? (SMC8) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Chorale Reflections: Songs Without Words

TCC does something completely new and different for this 1997 release, an hour-long, meditative musical oasis of choral music... without words! Allow yourself to be transported to tranquility by their lush vocalizing over music, in Looking Back, Looking In, Looking Out, Looking Up, and Looking Forward. (TCC120) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Chorale The Gershwin Scrapbook

Their first album that contains all popular repertoire by one composer, this 1996 release is a collection of classic and not-so-well-known George and Ira Gershwin tunes from the 1930's and 40's. Features the 200-voice choir, 10 TCC soloists, a guest solo by Gershwinist Michael Feinstein (who inspired and selected songs for this project), and a solo by Tint Seelig, the artistic director. The Chorus sings with its characteristic lush sound, while capturing the buoyancy inherent in these delightful pieces. (TCC1900) CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek Chorale When We No Longer Touch

Subtitled A Cycle of Songs for Survival, this album is a benefit for the American Foundation for AIDS Research, created by Kristopher John Anthony. The first half features the chorus, and deals with the stages of grief: denial, isolation, anger, bargaining, depression, and finally acceptance and then hope. (And through all the sadness and the pain comes the one thought that can make one smile again: I have loved.) The second part, Traces of Myself, is a piece inspired by poet Peter McWilliams from his work How To Survive the Loss of Love, and is performed by the Teresa-Sing Quartet. Solemn yet redemptive. (TCC3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Turtle Creek, Women's Chorus/Dallas Requiem/5 Anthems (by John Rutter)

This 1994 album is a stunning combined performance by the 100-voice Women's Chorus of Dallas and the 200-voice Turtle Creek Chorale, with Timothy Seelig conducting. They perform a rich and emotionally moving program by John Rutter, one of today's most-performed composers of choral music. His Requiem was influenced by the intimate, contemplative style of Faure; and his shorter pieces — A Gaelic Blessing, All Things Bright and Beautiful, and more — share this lyrical quality. The 300 voices of the combined choruses have performed in Carnegie Hall, at Texas Governor Ann Richards' Inauguration, and in a command performance for Queen Elizabeth II. With accompaniment on harp, cello, pipe organ, several winds and tympani, this is one of the best choral albums we've heard. Highly recommended! (REF57) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women's Chorus of Dallas Our Turn

This glorious 90-voice women's chorus, under the able direction of Dr. Timothy Seelig (who also directs the Turtle Creek Chorale), releases its first album in 1994 to celebrate its fifth season. Selections range in style from Mozart's Alcina, to a haunting composition by Pablo Casals, to a medley from Les Miserables, to a Women's Medley, with accompaniment on piano, oboe, English horn, flute and harp. Some proceeds benefit the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, so it's a great cause too. One of the best women's chorus recordings we've heard, especially for the more classically-leaning pieces; very light and professional, great arrangements by their principal accompanist Anne Albritton, highly recommended! (WCD1) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women's Chorus/Dallas w/Holly Near Change of Heart

Once again this chorus unites over 100 women's voices in a dynamic performance of contemporary and classical compositions celebrating love in all its many forms. Holly Near, featured guest artist and soloist on several selections, contributes her lush vocals to the chorus as she integrates world consciousness, personal and spiritual discovery, femininity and singing from the heart. You'll hear some of the best arrangements by the chorus' principal accompanist, Anne Albritton, their resident composer/arranger since the chorus' inception. This lovely 1997 album will make your heart sing; wholeheartedly recommended! (WCD3) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Women's Chorus of Dallas In the Mood

NEW

What a fabulously swingin' 1998 collection of songs! Swing is the operative word — with a big band to back them up, they bring us a whole album of songs that helped their and our parents survive the war years of the 40's. Route 66, Train Medley (Take the A Train, Chattanooga Choo Choo, Choo Choo Ch Boogie), Flat Foot Boogie, It Don't Mean A Thing, and more scrumptious morsels for your listening pleasure make this a unique choral offering, and worth your while! ## ABBA Gold - Greatest Hits

This Swedish 2-woman 2-man supergroup's bright pop nuggets achieved world domination in their time. The irresistible strains of Dancing Queen, Knowing Me, Knowing You, Waterloo, Take a Chance on Me, Voulez-Vous, Fernando... they're all here. You know your life will be better, happier, more hopeful, with this album by your side. ABBAlicious! (PLD617007) CS: 10.98 CD: 17.98

Donna Summer The Donna Summer Anthology (2-Set)

Assuming that the boycott against the only true disco superstar is over (like grapes, I'm never sure...), this double album, the first-ever complete career collection (34 tracks, including her digitally remastered 14 top ten hits and with a glossy 24-page booklet) is enough to give one a nosebleed of ecstasy. From Love to Love You Baby to She Works Hard for the Money and Don't Cry for Me Argentina (?!?) it's all here, kids! Just roll around and cover yourself in it! (CHC518144) CS: 16.98 CD: 24.98

Grace Jones Private Life: Compass Pt. Sessions

This 1998 2-CD collection, which spans the length of Grace Jones' musical career, is a true feat of the ultra-avant-garde that could only be found in the early 80's clubs. Disco was evolving into something darker, sharper and more sophisticated, and more than anyone else, Grace Jones embodied the breathtaking weirdness of it all. Songs like Warm Leatherette and Put Up to the Bumper stand the test of time well, and her voice can still rattle and soothe you all in one song. With 26 tracks, including 2 previously unreleased songs and 4 previously unreleased versions of hits, this is a FABULOUS collection that will automatically give you higher points. (P.S. liner notes mention that in a recent poll by Men's Health magazine, the male readership named Grace, along with Hilary RuPaul and "my mother" as the women who scared them the most! How could you pass that up?) (BL524801) CD: 24.98

Joi Cardwell

0682

This out, African-American/Latina lesbian has been burning up the dance floors! Offering an intriguing combination of dance, R&B and jazz, it isn't surprising that she's been able to gain recognition in a traditionally male-dominated genre. Joi is much more than a dance vocalist, often displaying a more jazz-inspired style; her different vocal stylings shine through in the music, changing gears within and between songs to keep the dancer motivated (and not numbed by the beat). It is well worth checking out this 1997 release! (LY54238) CD: 16.98

Martha Wash The Collection

If you like dance music you'll love this, and if you don't usually like dance music you just may love this anyway! Transcending genres and trends, Martha has been responsible for some of the top-selling, most recognizable pop hits of the 80's and 90's — including the cult classic It's Raining Men, which is included here as a duet with RuPaul in It's Raining Men. The Sequel songs here span the realms of dance, pop, R&B and gospel. Come blends African rhythms with the power of club music; God Bless the Road features a great gospel choir; the glorious anthem Catch the Light is presented here in 2 versions. Gonna Make You Sweat (Everybody Dance Now) sold 5.5 million copies worldwide. She's been instrumental in shaping pop music as we know it, and this 1998 release presents all of her multi-platinum hits together for the first time. (LOG46895) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists/ DJ Susan Morabito Equinox

Dance Floor Divas: The 70's

On the dance floors of the 70's and 80's, disco music thrived on the flamboyant emotionalism of its divas, creating an energy shared between dancer and performer. Yet the albums they made have a life beyond the confines of the club: disco's greatest singers grounded their vocal flights in R&B's gospel and blues roots, giving them an amazing power. This 1996 compilation contains some of the most classic of classics: Sister Sledge's We Are Family, A Taste of Honey's Boogie Oogie Oogie, LaBelle's Lady Marmalade, and more from Chic, Chaka Khan and others. 16 in all — almost all Top 10 hits and the biggest records of each artist's career. ## "Mehn's Music"

"I like the fact that we're part of a movement of gay and straight men who are creating non-sexist music. But for those who have never heard of the men's movement, to say that we do Men's Music only conjures up images of songs about pick-up trucks. Indeed, most music since the beginning of time has been Men's Music by subliminally or not-so-subliminally promoting patriarchal values. For this reason, I think we need to make a distinction by spelling it Mehn's Music."

— Ron Romanovsky, originator of the Mehn's Music spelling!

Ashley MacIsaac
Hi how are you today?

Celtic grunge? Celtic alternative? Whatever you want to call it, this kilted queer boy from Nova Scotia plays one heck of a mean fiddle, layered energetically over a grunge-rock backing band. Innovative, passionate and very catchy, he brings a breath of fresh "air" to several traditional fiddle tunes. Check out the amazing Glenroy Maggie, one of 2 tracks with vocals by Mary Jane Lamond, the other being Sad Wedding Day, a highly modern reworking of the classic Barbara Allen. Recommended (AM822) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

David Brown
Splendid Wings

Sounding like a blend of the lesbian singer/songwriter Phranc and Simon and Garfunkel (well, I guess he couldn't sound like both Simon AND Garfunkel, but you get the idea...), this New Yorker has lovingly molded a very fine album of stories told from an aware gay male perspective. Accompanying himself on piano and guitar (and, of course, with a little help from friends), his young, friendly voice sings gentle folk about anonymous sex (Mr. Right), a simple and lovely harmonized duet with Crissy Wade (Do You Need Me?), a gay pride anthem (Every Kiss is a Revolution), the lovely title song about transforming AIDS grief, and a "gay roommate" poem about a lesbian couple's story (Cathy and Claire). Evocative details delivered straightforwardly yet warmly make this a very satisfying listen! (CHU1) CD: 11.98

David Campbell
Taking the Wheel

Waiting his way effortlessly through familiar favorites such as Garth Brooks' I Got Rhythm and Ann Hampton Callaway's Never Really Mine to Lose, on his 1997 release this acclaimed vocalist voers like Streisand and croons like Feinstein. (PMP337036) CD: 16.98

Doug Stevens & The Outband
When Love Is Right

New low price! This 1995 release blends Cajun and bluegrass with reggae rhythms, and it comes out country! 6 of the 15 original songs are written and performed by women, reflecting the evolving influence of women in the band. The material is both compelling and fun, addressing the gay community while enlightening the mainstream listener. The poignant Living a Lie tells the story of a lesbian being banned from her small town. Can't Get It Right parodies the lighter side of gay "revelousness," and politics stance are examined in Proud To Be an American. (DGS102) CS: 6.98 CD: 10.98

Jallen Rix
The Sacred and the Queer

On this 1995 release from a non-profit label, this songwriter and keyboardist integrates themes of sexuality and spirituality in his folk-pop music. He travels in many directions to explore the connections between the two and arrives at valuable insights. While he examines how religion has been used to support discrimination in We Have Learned to Hate Each Other and tells the story of a boy sexually assaulted in What the Preacher Did to Me, Jallen's songs also find the sacred in his own experience, including his sexuality and community (one of his most memorable lines is "I saw Jesus down at Screwball"). Especially recommended for his gorgeous song The Pendulum Swings. (TRM87426) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

John Whitley/ Peter Saxe
History Remembers

Performed with great heart and understated humor by Sons & Lovers member John Whitley (and featuring the NYC Gay Men's Chorus Chamber Choir on the title track), this 1997 release is a 10-song cycle, written by gay composer-lyricist Peter Saxe, about one man's search for purpose and joy. This timeless musical journey of love, desire, sex and soul is set to lush, sweeping orchestrations and choral arrangements by Michael Gayford. The title track has been used as an anthem at several high-profile AIDS-awareness events; also includes Ernie and Bert (Living Together), celebrating the longtime companionship of Sesame Street's famous couple! (MAJ6560) CD: 15.98

Michael Callen
Legacy (Double Set)

This 1996 release is a long-awaited deluxe double volume of works by the beloved singer/songwriter/activist who died of AIDS after surviving the disease for over a decade. Highlights include a stunning version of Bernice Johnson Reagon's They Are Falling All Around Me, performed with Chris Williamson, Holly Near and John Bucchino; Healing Power of Love, an AIDS anthem; Two Men Dance the Tango, a duet with Tom Robinson, one of the first openly gay musicians; Glider and Be Gay from Candide by Leonard Bernstein (on which Michael "does" a great Barbara Cook); Sometimes Not Often Enough, sung with the Fortitudo; We've Had Enough, an ACT UP anthem; Mother Mother, performed with Chris Williamson and Tati Fure; Redefine the Family, Love Worth Fighting For, and many many more, variously infused with sadness, silliness, anger, humor, triumph, and extraordinary vision and love. Approximately half are originals, many recorded during the final months of his life; instrumentalists include Greg Wells from k.d. lang's band, jazz musician Fred Herch and others. Celebrate Michael's life, spirit, and legacy with this beautiful retrospective. In his own words: "Trust me: it'll be the queerest solo album I've ever heard." (SIG951) CD: 24.98

Pussy Torette
Who does she think she is?

This long-awaited 1996 release contains dance, blues, cabaret, boogie-woogie and camp à la Pussy. There's the Gilbert and Sullivan-esque Dyke That You Are, a boogie woogie entitled All You Can Eat, the title track which is set to be video-cued, and... kiss and All My Misery from the "Maxi-Triples," a cover of The Car Hop Song from the Fifties TV show plus many more. (FB303) CD: 15.98

Pussy Torette
In Hi-Fi

Now for something completely different... Raunchy, ribald and ridden with double entendres, this sexually-in-your-face 1999 offering from the Bay Area drag queen — with a large lesbian fan contingent — is not for the easily offended or aurally conservative. He (or as some would say, she) serves up both dance music and cabaret plus a Gilbert and Sullivan-esque ditty I Think He's Gay, aided and abetted by 2 very soulful female back-up singers, shaking up some commonly-held ideas of "male" and "female" with a whole new thing. Some hard at Ladyship are wondering what this is doing in our catalog; others say, "Create a scene, frighten the neighbors, make a statement — get this album!" (FB301) CD: 15.98

Let's Flaunt It!

Recorded in February 1994 live in concert (at the cabaret room at Choices, Cathedral City CA — near the gay/lesbian resort at Palm Springs), this 1995 release features four favorite guys at their best, relating to a live audience. All new hits, including Missy and Heidi, If There Is a God (He's a Queen), Hornophobe in Robes (about the lovely dresses worn by KKK, popes and justices, as they pass their judgments on the queens), Some Of My Best Friends Are Straight, He Is My L-O-V-E-R, and more great songs with humorous, political, on-target lyrics. If you're new to the genius of these rowdy birds, get with it! Buy it! And flaunt it! (FRF106) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Brave Boys - The Best of & More

This 1994 retrospective-plus includes 12 original songs from their first 5 duo albums and Ron's solo, in addition to 2 new songs. Includes a new studio version of No Ho Hornophobe — a very hip dance tune — and five renditions of the following with updated lyrics: Don't Use Your Penis (For A Brain), What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot? Politically Correct Lesbian Am I?, The Prince Charming Tango, Hear the Best... and more... of the reigning queens (truly the best of the male's music genre). They are unequaled in their consciousness, wit, and charm, and remain our very favorites always. (FRF107) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips

Emotional Rollercoaster

Returning to more of an acoustic sound, the 1988 album from the "queens" of political camp (and we don't mean Camp David) is again shock-full of humor and social commentary. It's as gay- and lesbian-positive as the others, with even more political determination because of the fight against AIDS and the renewed homophobia from the Right. The empowering Living With AIDS could be the theme song of our generation — and makes this album a must for everyone. And from an episode of the absurdity of the Crimes Against Nature laws to the rallying cry for unity and responsibility in the face of AIDS fear ("We don't have to sacrifice our passion or our pride; we just have to be on the safe side") and the humor of My Mother's Clothes, Waltz For the New Age, Straightening Up the House a la Kate Clinton, Ron and Paul demonstrate they know that the personal is political. Very highly recommended! (FRF103) CS: 5.98 CD: 15.98

RuPaul

Supermodel of the World

Everybody say love! If the film Paris Is Burning had been made a few years later, Supermodel (You Better Work) could have been its theme song. This drag queen has satiated into MTV superstardom with his glamorous attitude coupled with a driving dance-club beat. Includes Back To My Roots, a tribute to his mother's hair dressing salon and racial pride. What other top 40 performer sings about love at first sight between two men? RuPaul takes up where the late great Sylvester left off. Subversive and eminently danceable! (TB1055) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Sid's fourth and final album, released late '96 or early '97, is a true testament to his talent and his spirit. Includes 8 previously unreleased tracks, then a surprise (isn't your curiosity piqued?), and a few of his best-loved songs from other albums. (AMT4) CD: 15.98

Sid Spencer

Out-n-About, Again

Sid's 1995 album is country-western music with a twist after many years of listening to mainstream country music, this independent artist created an album especially for the lesbian and gay community. His songs are about painful breakups, being single, monogamy. When he sings songs by other artists, he changes pronoun gender so that the songs correlate with his own experience: includes both ballads and fast-stepping dance numbers. (AMT3) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Steve Cohen

Silent Too Long

Heartbreak, longing, and bitter-sweet wisdom in a smoky voice leap out of this 1997 offering. Steve writes about lost love, high school true love ("Try walking down the street with someone you love. But keep your hands in your pockets so you don't get beaten up"), and love of country (with sizzling commentary on the "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy in Silent Too Long), capturing melancholy with an undercurrent of hope. When not making music, the artist is busy doing cultural work: he founded the Philadelphia chapter of OutMusic, and organized the first weekend Philadelphia Lesbian and Gay Music Festival in 1997. ### Can't Help Lovin' That Man

A collection of 25 songs from the 1920's and 1930's, when singers were not allowed to change one single word that the songwriters penciled, resulting in some very "queer" tunes indeed! Treat yourself to chaps crooning The Man I Love, Hold Your Men, Love for Sale, Come Up and See Me Sometime, and, of course, the title track. Be sure to not miss crooner numero uno, Bing Crosby, treating us to Gay Love. Notes analyzing gay music by Village Voice's Michael Muir and historical context. Sit back, loosen your tie, pour yourself something to drink and sing along! (COL52955) CD: 15.98

Keith Haring - Retrospective

His work hung in subways and museums, documenting his world in a unique and tangible fashion, as folk from all walks of life recognized his genius, he became one of the most visible gay artists of the 80s. His free-flowing graffiti style was directly informed by the post-disco hip hop and house music that was emerging in the NY party scene, and this 1997 collection highlights some of the boldest, hippest club tracks from the height of his career. Whether taking a nostalgic trip or gaining a new perspective on the times, this evocative music by Junior Vasquez, Diane Ross, Todd Terry Project, Whodini and others, will keep you movin'. Sale-priced stocking stuffers! During much of its reign as one of the top club labels, Strictly Rhythm has provided the soundtrack to many prideful lesbian and gay parties across the world. This 1995 release recalls a variety of their more memorable uplifting house music anthems, while introducing a fresh crop of new material. To pay homage to the community that has so embraced their style of music, the label is donating ten percent of profits to several street-level AIDS organizations. (STM321) CS: 8.98 CD: 8.98

God Shave The Queen!

If the title doesn't immediately pique your interest, perhaps the group cover photo of the multi-talented drag queens will. (I feel the amount of work that drag artists should qualify for a tax write-off. These gals sing, too!) Miss "Lady" Bunny does the free-bowdy dripping-with-70's-disco-soul, The Pussycat Song. Pussy Tournet offers a remix of Who Does She Think She Is? Varta Jean Merman (yes, that reference is correct) treats Grace Slick's White Rabbit to a Phantom of the Opera interpretation. Joey Arias' No One Knows could tragically becomen next to a Billie Holiday song. Other cuts would nicely fit into any artilly-it MTV video. This strong collection of diverse (and fabulously dressed) tunes demonstrates that music needs no rigid gender roles. (SWN1) CD: 15.98

Stage 2: The Human Heart

Tracing the stages of romantic entanglements, this 1997 album features 18 all-new arrangements of musical theatre classics sung by and to men. Singers Francis Cruz, Charlie Owens, Ralph Pera, and Sean Ray are accompanied by tasteful piano, flute, cello, percussion, guitar, clarinet and violin. Includes compositions by Bernstein, Gershwin, Rodgers, Sondheim and Weill from shows such as Allegro, Show Boat, Evita and West Side Story. A very lovely album for the boys and for anyone who enjoys great voices singing great songs. (DINK1997) CD: 15.98

Comedy

Dos Fallopia

My Breasts Are Out of Control

This outrageous feminist comic duo — s.k.a. twin sisters of different cut-de-sacs — consists of Lisa Koch (also known for her participation in Venus Envy) and Peggy Platt, who create a riotous program of music, sketch comedy, stand-up, razor sharp wit, left-wing politics and general lunacy, to produce an act of wickedly funny commentary from a woman's point of view. Includes Fran and Annie's 12-Step Day Care, Squid Family Gossipeers, The Surly Bitches in Condo (with Laura Love and Linda Severn from Venus Envy), a really great Camp Song, and of course the title track. So warped, so refreshing! Recommended! (TNG300) CS: 9.98

Ellen DeGeneres

Taste This

It's a long way from working at the Dinah Shore Classic... She does TV, movies, and books (and has an exhibit at Disney's EPOTC center), but, surprisingly, this 1996 live recording is Ellen's first full-length comedy album! Ellen gives her unique spin on Camping and Hunting, Cat in Heat, Public Bathroom, Licking a Frog and her classic Phone Call to God. The "enhanced" CD includes a unique, downloadable "Ellen"-style computer screensaver and soundbites! So funny it hurts! (ATL52724) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Georgia Ragsdale

Always Forward, Never Straight

The hysterical 1997 debut album from this L.A.-via-Texas lesbian comedian will have you rolling on the floor with laughter! A keen observer of human behavior, she riffs on being a gay child, gay personal ads, dating Neil (Jodie Foster), women's prisons, the WNBA, lesbian movies, Ellen's Coming Out and much more. (RS0380) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Joan Rivers

What Becomes a Semi-Legend Most?

The only comedy album released by the often controversial and provocative comedian earned Gold status. This 1997 release makes this collector's item available on CD for the first time in the US, now at a great price. Includes Men vs Women, Going to the Gynecologist, Childbirth, and more. (GEF4007) CD: 8.98

In Goddess We Trust

"Hey, Pigs! Just blow hard on the Goddess, kiss her squoosy box and she'll let you chew her cunt forever. It could happen! Welcome to Judy's magical world. Recorded live in 1995, this is a combination of raucously bad disco originals of questionable taste, plus skewerings of everybody/thing from Reba McEntire to the Kennedys to most of the top news stories of the year. Judy has her audience participate, whether mountain pig snorting, having a couple dances to The Wedding Polka and then renew their wedding vows as is Judy, or mending a man's broken heart with the 3rd Pumper, Healing and Bong. Not for the easily or not so easily offended. I'll see you at her next show. (GOD1041) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Karen Williams

Human Beings: What A Concept

Known as "The Diva of Comedy," Karen is recognized as a comic craftsman, a multi-talented writer and actress, as well as a proven crowd pleaser. This is easy to understand, given Karen's views on humor. "The possession of good humor endows one's life with enthusiasm, energy, and enlightenment... People who find humor in their daily life trials and tribulations become good will ambassadors." With topics covering the entire hilarious gamut of lesbian experiences (Ellen, Lesbian Sex Workshops, Little Dolphin Dicks, Our Ex's, White People/Being Black, Lesbian Mom, and more) it's likely that you too can find something on this 1998 release that endows your life with enthusiasm, energy, and enlightenment. Recommended! (UPR1783) CS: 10.98 CD: 16.98

Kate Clinton

Comedy You Can Dance To

Self-proclaimed feminist (feminist humorist) Kate Clinton returns with another classic live recording. Comprised of almost all new material, mixed in with little snippets of some old favorites, this '98 release includes political material as well as the daily news, savvy send-ups of modern family relationships and illuminating perspectives on life as a lesbian American. Hysterically funny! (UPR3780) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton
Don't Get Me Started
(2-Tape Set)

On this 1996 abridged reading from her book, Kate gives us her hysterically funny take on modern living, politics, family issues, and trends. "Let's get one thing straight, I'm not. And yes my brother is Bill Clinton." But not the Bill Clinton. These two guys are very different. For one thing, whenever I hear President Bill speaking on guys in the military, health-care reform - I hear the sound trucks make when they're backing up. Now I've written a book. That's all I'm going to say because I don't want to spoil it for you. That's a job for Jesse Helms! 2 cassettes, 3 hours. (PML50) CS: 16.98

Various Artists
The Best of Lesbian Comedy, Vol. 1

This 1997 release is an absolutely hysterical collection of some of the best routines from 10 of the most popular and funny lesbian comedians performing today — the first ever "best of lesbian comedy" CD compilation! Featured are Lea DeLaria, Kate Clinton, Georgia Ragsdale, Lacie Harmon, Sara Cytron, Vickie Shaw, Karen Ripley, Karen Williams, Amy Boyd, and Dora Fallopia. (RS0380) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton
Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politics to build laughter of fading fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with-them-than-against. Join her as she gallops through the Joyland Theme Park: rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and flailing away at Mom Pinata in Familyland! (WHY104) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Kate Clinton
Live at Great American Music Hall

In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (coveting her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, satirizes personals in papers, sings her song for parenthood, and tells how she answered the question "What Do YOU Do?" at an S/M workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material: get your TV sets tuned up! 1995 (WHY103) CS: 9.98

NEW!

Kathleen Madigan

In 1988, Kathleen Madigan was working as a waitress. In 1989, she won "Best Female Stand-Up Comic" at the nationally televised American Comedy Awards. Judging from the hilarious and outrageous material on this 1996 debut album, she richly deserves her success. She makes fun of everything and everyone ranging from floods, earthquakes and body-piercing to boxing, bible-thumpers, and boring politicians. Tossing out the absurdity lurking in everyday encounters and merely skewering pretty much anyone who crosses her path. On a plane on a bus, waiting tables, waiting for her parents to figure out how to use technology, Kathleen does not suffer fools gladly, but she uses her scintillating wit and her expressive voice to entertain us madly. Highly recommended! (UPR3766) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lea DeLaria
Box Lunch

We've been looking forward to this May 1997 release from someone we've been known to refer to as our favorite "no holes barred" lesbian comic, recorded live at the famous Jose's Cabaret in San Francisco. The original bad girl of lesbian comedy delivers her unique style of stand-up, flavored with jazz and blues standards of 80s Holiday, George Gershwin, Duke Ellington and more. P.S. We hear Lea is writing a screenplay for Leslie Feinberg's Stone Butch Blues, in which she plans to co-star. (RS0386) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Lea DeLaria
Bulldoze in a China Shop (Double) 0089

Cassettes on sale! The long-awaited debut recording by this bawdy, riotously funny comic legend (dubbed the "lesbian Lenny Bruce"), packed with non-stop laughs lampooning lesbian life... plus music! She's a terrific jazz vocalist, and includes classic tunes such as Straight No Chaser, Why Don't You Do Right, and You Don't Know What Love Is. Comedy highlights include Ms. DeLaria's Damp Tips for Dykes in which audience questions on sex and dating are spontaneously answered from the stage. Recorded live in Atlanta, highly recommended for all but the timid! (GSP69) CS: 7.98 CD: 15.98

Lisa Koch
You Make My Pants Pound 0251

This 1994 compilation contains splendid selections from musical theatre shows on which the comic genius has worked. The hilarious title track, a story of "last-at-first-sight" at a fast food drive-through, and All My Steppaddies are done by dysfunctional mother-daughter country western superstars. The Spudds, who were also featured on Dora Fallopia's My Bawdy Are Out of Control. The Spudds: a "much loved, little known 80's girl group" campy, often variety and The Curve of No Return (which includes the requisite tragic teen car crash). On the more serious side are Three Times a Year, a heart-rending ballad from a straight man about his gay brother, and Violent, a beautiful song about one woman's "all-consuming infatuation" for another from the point of view of saloonwives from the 1920s. All these and more, so do not miss this sampler of musical treasures! CD includes 4 bonus tracks. (TNG2458) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Marga Gomez
Hung Like A Fly

Join the uproar over this 1997 comedy release! Marga creates hilarious visuals on audio as she covers topics ranging from Gay Pride marches, a woman pilot, the politics of pockets, National Coming Out Day and Candace Gingrich. She packs a punch filled with hearty laughter. You'll be unable to keep a straight face during this believably funny stand-up routine. It is a riot, so if you need some hearty laughter, here's your ticket! And be looking for Marga in the film Sphere, with Sharon Stone and Dustin Hoffman. Vary recommended for funny bones! (UPR3776) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Margaret Cho
Drunk With Power

Born and raised in San Francisco, Margaret derives a good deal of her material from her birthplace ("Some people are raised by wolves, I was raised by drag queens") and a good deal more from her upbringing as a second-generation Korean American. Her starring role in a variety of feature films, and in the now-defunct television show All American Girl, has not tarnished her or her topics. She discusses weight, body image, drugs, sex, kidney stones, and racism all with amazing candor. She is so hysterically funny that I'm just starting to recover from hearing this 1995 album. Her impression of her mother arguing that she KNEW that Margaret was a lesbian is alone worth spending your rent money on! Not for the easily offended... so just don't be that way! (UPR3770) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Roseanne
I Enjoy Being a Girl

Start comments here at Ladyslipper (all Roseanne fans) ranged from "Too dreadful for words" to "I was laughing so much, people kept coming into my office to see if I was okay." Be your own judge! Sticker says "Contains language Roseanne can't say on T.V." — her routine on this uncensored version (the label also issued a clean version) covers Sexual Preferences, Women's Medley, Men's Medley, 20 Day Cycle, Sex Discrimination, Roddey Queen, Arsenio Hall, and more — something to offend everyone. If you miss her show as much as we do, console yourself with this recorded-live-in-1990 "cut-out" relic! (HR51000) CS: 6.98 CD: 8.98

Suzanne Westenhofer
Nothing in My Closet But My Clothes

How long has it been since you've laughed "in your side hurts"? Too long? Well, get ready and hold onto your sides! Suzanne talks about lesbians on television, bugs in Provincetown, gay Amish, Jesus as her brother-in-law, hecking the 700 club, moving in with her girlfriend and her pets, purse-bearers, and many more issues that concern the modern dyke-on-the-go! Love it! (UPR3772) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Therapy Sisters
Beyond Prescription

This wacky duo is ready to treat you! In fact, the Austin Lounge Lizards writes about this 1997 release on Clinical Records. "We laughed, we cried, we threw away our medication!" Among the 13 original songs you'll find a Western swing ballad about having Two Minds, a jazz number called Don't Touch Me When I'm Beautiful, and several songs based on outrageous news stories such as Weekee (Wacker), Avon in the Amazon, and Don't Get Stuck in a Pop! No prescription needed! (GLN9708) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Gay from Las Vegas

This lively recording, due February '97, is hosted by Frank Marino, the famous Joan Rivers female impersonator! (she once sued him over it but they're now the best of friends...) and features comedy by Suzie Berger, Elvira Kurt, Scott Kennedy and Mark Davis. (UPR3773) CD: 15.98

Various Artists
XXtreme Comedy... The Women

If you're one of those people tired of the emphasis on political correctness, these women are for you! Raucous, sexual, and just plain "no holds barred," the four women on this compilation take comedy to the extreme. Each woman demonstrates the hilarity of women taking control of the words used against them, and then turning the tables on men. Not for the faint of heart, or the weak of spirit. (UPR3778) CD: 15.98

Various Artists
The Hot & Spicy Mamitas

Featuring the comedy of Sully Diaz, Dyana Ortel, Lydia Nicole, Marilyn and Ludo Vika, this 1996 release showcases the strength and humor of these Latina women. Topics run the hilarious gamut from all-too-sexy cartoon women, to mrolling mrr's, to being Catholic, and just about anything else you can think of. The only down side is the somewhat enraging male MC... there's just something out of place about those splashes of testosterone between all the incredible female energy. If you can deal with that, you're in for quite a treat. (UPR3784) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

Whoopi Goldberg
Fontaine: Why Am I Straight? (Tape)

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Mu'tikin' Banner, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the junkie with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religion wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here!"), AIDS, and everyone and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings of this 1988 "cut-out" title - very highly recommended! (MCA42243) CS: 5.98

Whoopi Goldberg
Original Broadway Show Recording

Thankfully back in print AND at a low price, this was the show that first brought the artist to national attention, and represents some of the most brilliant work of her career. Simultaneously hilarious and poignant, her characterizations successfully challenge and exceed the limits of comedy-as-social-political commentary. Her junkie with a degree in literature (Fontaine) recounts his tale of visiting Anne Frank's home in Germany... the unplanned pregnancy of the Surfer Chick takes on a chilling significance as she confronts the Catholic Church, her mother and a coat hanger... the Crippled Lady challenges an able-bodied world's prejudice... and the Little Girl thinks she needs "long luxurious blonde hair and blue eyes" to get her dreams. Very highly recommended! (GEF24065) CS: 5.98 CD: 8.98

Clarissa Pinkola Estes

Women Who Run With the Wolves 2-Set

Back by popular demand! This 2-cassette program preceded the publication of the best-selling book by the same name, and is similar in content, though not identical — it is a magical story-telling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and woman and wildness really have been tamed with the same brush. They have been destroyed, exiled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tree of females indeed. These tapes are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine." Her delivery is excellent, and the subject matter fascinating: female sexuality, lust and sublimation, passion and creativity, wolf-woman, and much more. 2 tapes, 3 hours. (SND069) CS: 16.98

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer Nobody Else Like Me

NEW!

This 1998 release, subtitled Celebrating the Diversity of Children, is a necessity for every child you know. For not only does it celebrate different cultures, languages and physical abilities, it includes (with lyrics intact) a beautiful rendition of the Fred Small classic, Everything Possible. Incorporated into a child's consciousness, this song's message will help release them from gender roles, heterosexism and homophobia, by communicating the many possibilities for love in their lives, and in the lives of people they know and encounter. This song appears on many adult collections, but it is wonderful to find it sung for young ones — that's who it was written for! A great kids' chorus joins them on 8 tracks, very highly recommended! (ROU8079) CS: 9.98 CD: 16.98

Cathy Winter & Betsy Rose As Strong as Anyone Can Be

The Chenille Sisters The Big Picture

The Chenille Sisters are back in '92 with a children's release even more delightful and infectious than their first! It has it all: story songs, word play, games, body movement, songs that help young listeners learn to express innermost feelings, plus plan fun! And it's adult friendly — it won't drive parents and other adults crazy with repeated listenings on rainy afternoons and car trips. The only complaint from kids is that sometimes the adults borrow the Chenilles and forget to put them back! (RHR46) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Judi Bari

Who Bombed Judi Bari?

Dedicated to saving the Pacific Northwest's redwood forests from King Timber, radical protest organizer Judi Bari was one of the most inspirational rabble-rousers in the history of the environmental movement. 23 selections of her greatest speeches, plus a few assorted newscasts and great songs, comprise this 72-minute treasure trove of cutting edge wit and wisdom, released in 1997 after her death from breast cancer. She spoke the language of the streets, the woods, and the working class from which she came, blending razor blade humor, witty feminism, labor consciousness, movement history, and ecological awareness into a mesmerizing fusion that regularly brought listeners to their feet in standing ovations; her mantra: one battle, many fronts. When a bomb exploded in a car in which she was traveling to an organizing action — and almost killed her — the FBI immediately blamed her rather than searching for the would-be assassin. This unique and necessary album allows this contemporary heroine to tell you her own story. (VRS205) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

Moved by a lifelong love for the great Chinese spiritual and philosophical classic written by Lao Tzu 2500 years ago, novelist Ursula K. Le Guin has been working on her own rendition of the text for over 40 years. "I wanted to make a completely personal version, in the poetic vocabulary of the time, for my own contemporaries, to bring the Tao Te Ching back alive." ## Heather Bishop

Bellybutton

Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC, Canada's national radio network, this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' albums around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaldor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's if You Love a Hippopotamus (and you love her a lot) and I Love Song. "Oh my bellybutton I love you... You're the only friend I have! The one who really cares/cause every time I need you you're always there. When things get down and looking kinda grumpy simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in." Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. (MOP003) CS: 10.98

Chickie's On the Run

From the lilting song featuring a clever and heroic chicken, this beloved Canadian musician goes on a romp through a wacky and wondrous landscape populated by a chimp on roller blades, lonesome rearing up for the Tortoise Race, a legendary magical cat, a walaby with humongous feet, and Sleepy John, sleepwalking with his jammer on. 10 of the 11 are originals, she sings about unconditional love in Connie Kaldor's Love That Cop, relates the tale of a girl who knows about self-esteem in Class Rap, even deals with the positive side of expressing anger and owning up in I'm Mad. ### Maria Muldaur Swingin' in the Rain

0704

When swing was queen, life was simpler and just a bit more carefree... so what better period from which to steal music for a children's recording? It works: the music is fun and catchy, the lyrics light and positive. It would be hard to imagine kids not singing along with classics like Zip-A-Dee-Do-Do and Jeopardy Creepers, especially when you combine them with the fresh new arrangements that Maria just seems to have a ton of fun with (her scat alone on Three Little Fishes is worth the cost of admission). The scary part is that my inner child kept singing the tunes to my adult brain all day and I only listened once. So take heed, this is definitely an over-and-over again recording for kids! (MLP75311) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Mario Thomas & Friends Free To Be... You And Me

With Carol Channing, Diana Ross, Alan Alda, & others. There may never have been any kids' album in history which so thoroughly charmed kids, adults & anyone else as this 1972 classic. That it can communicate anti-sexual material in such a delightful, creative, appealing, exuberant way is remarkable. Includes numbers like Get Land, William's Doll, Parents Are People, It's All Right to Cry. One kid said "Listening to this record is like listening to my heart laughing." Highly recommended! ### Pamala Ballingham Earth Mother Lullabies, Vol. 1

Selected by the ALA as a Notable Children's Recording for 1996, this is a lovely and even essential collection of timeless lullabies from a myriad of traditions. Includes carefully-chosen representations from the Icelandic, Inuits (the chant-like Ho No Watanav), Irish (Garten Mother's Lullaby), Jewish, Japanese, African, Australian, Russian, and Spanish cultures. It's unique in the fact that the instrumentation—harp, flute, mandolin, guitar and percussion—is sophisticated enough for adults to enjoy, without diminishing the effectiveness of its purpose: to put little ones to sleep! Booklet of words included. (EMI) CS: 9.98

Pamala Ballingham Treasury of Earth Mother Lullabies

A collection, released in 1990, of 14 of the best selections (68 minutes) from Pamala's 3 volumes of Earth Mother Lullabies, from all over the world, proven effective for sleeplessness in both children and adults. (EMI) CD: 14.98

Priscilla Herdman Daydreamer

This extraordinary songfinder and eloquent performer presents a worthy follow-up to her best-selling children's album, Star Dreamer, with this 1993 release. The 13 songs celebrate the power of imagination, as she dedicates the album to daydreamers of all ages. She's joined in the effort by Annie Hills and Cindy Mangsen on harmony vocals, Abby Newton on cello, Molly Mason on bass, songs include Dreamcatcher, A Fairy Went A-Marketing, What A Wonderful World. A portion of the royalties are being donated to UNICEF. (MLP42891) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Priscilla Herdman Star Dreamer-Nightsongs & Lullabies

For ages womb to forever, this is a veritable classic album of children's music by a vocalist extraordinaire. The first side contains wonderful fantasy nightsongs, about the moon and sky and waiting bears and stuff; side 2 consists of 9 lullabies, some familiar and some new. Springing from generations of oral history, it's dedicated to her mother, and was created for the daughters of Priscilla and accompanying cellist Abby Newton. Instrumentation is simple and elegant, with supporting vocals by Annie Hills and Cindy Mangsen. Charming! (ALA1001) CS: 9.98 CD: 14.98

The Roches Will You Be My Friend?

The beautiful harmonies that characterize this sister trio bring to life some of the most emotional and humorous themes you can find on this 1994 children's album. The symbolic and serious message of the title track is followed by an ode to the dog every child seems to inevitably wish for in Rover. Do the doo-wah-ee-ahs of the album, winning the awards for both catchiest tune and most humorous, as it takes you through feeling-inspired dance steps. Also includes When Kids Are Mean, Little Betty Betty, My New Bicycle, and more... all original... a great range of serious to silly, sure to capture a child's attention and imagination. And the vocal prowess of the sisters will surely do the same for the adults as well. Highly recommended! (BB3004) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock All For Freedom

This is technically a children's album, but will inspire and be enjoyed by adults and children alike. Drawing on their rich heritage of African musical traditions, Sweet Honey has put together this dynamic and empowering collection of African songs, African stories, and gospel songs, including Calypto Freedom, Kumbaya, Juba, The Little Shakers, and title. (MLP2230) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock I Got Shoes - Album Only

Produced by Toshi Reagon (who is also a guest performer), this 1994 release is a collection of 14 traditional and new songs selected for their ability to inspire, educate and empower youngsters growing up in troubled and confusing times. Adding their youthful voices to the joyful and powerful recording is the Sweet Honey in the Rock Children's Chorus. This is a stunning range of African-American music appropriate for children, including Tama Tama Tamah, African Numbers, Freedom Now, Freedom Train, Young and Positive, Down the Road I Be Going, Run Moly Run, Spirit Lullaby, and more. (MLP42534) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock I Got Shoes - The Book and Tape

Written by Tonya Bolden (whose work appears regularly in Young Brothers & Sisters magazine) and Bernice Johnson Reagon, the interactive 28-page booklet that accompanies the cassette contains a wealth of information, activities, and valuable suggestions for further listening and reading in African American history and culture. We highly recommend that you spring for the extra cents for this colorful, informative, wonderful addition! 1994, (MLP42552) CS: 11.98

Tina Mali Lullaby Favorites

Great for a baby budget, note the low price! We first heard this talented teenager on the Circle of Women album; having the opportunity to hear her solo here, we are captivated by her gorgeous, evocative voice, like a feather or a bird in the forest! For this 1997 album, she has indeed selected most everyone's all-time favorite lullabies: All Through the Night, Summertime, All the Pretty Little Horses, Over the Rainbow, plus Jewish Lullaby, Gaelic Lullaby, and the multi-voiced acappella Dark Brown Is the River. Background vocals by Nymiah, recommended! (MLP72740) CS: 9.98 CD: 7.98

Tish Hinojosa Cada Nino Every Child

This charming 1996 album features gently colicking sing-along tunes with a Tex-Mex flavor. (Accordion is so hard to find on kid's songs!). All of the songs are sung in both English and Spanish with the lyrics (along with accompanying song descriptions and crayon art) printed in the detailed liner notes. My favorite is Banana Dance! Baile Vegetal, a vaudeville-sounding ruse-up about dancing vegetables. Warning: if you get this for your favorite small person you will have to resist the temptation to keep it for yourself. (ROU8032) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Lullabies For Little Dreamers

This 1995 release can be enjoyed by both babies and harnessed parents who want musical reminders of simpler times when they could sleep through the night (my hunch is that it's really for the parents). It's like a compilation tape of some of the great artists (mostly of the 1970's) without loud rockers or anything with drug references. Includes Cass Elliot's Dream A Little Dream of Me, Fleetwood Mac's Songbird, Emmylou Harris's Master Sandman, The Carpenters' Crystal Lullaby and more by Carly Simon, James Taylor, Aretha Franklin, Don McLean, Mannheim Transfer, Hall & Oates. (RH72265) CS: 9.98 CD: 12.98

Various Artists A Child's Celebration of Folk Music

When people used to talk of "folk music," sounds of laughing mandolins, diatonic banjos, warm guitars, playful pennywhistles and lilting choruses came to mind: sounds of home and hearth, with songs passed down from generation to generation. This collection honors that folk tradition, with songs that generations can gather together and share. Children will love to learn the simple melodies and fun-to-sing lyrics of Michelle Shocked's See The Sea, Pete Seeger's Shall Be Come, Round the Mountain, Woody Guthrie's Car Song, Maria Muldaur's Would You Like To Swing On A Star, Sweet Honey in the Rock's Run Moly Run, Taj Mahal's Little Brown Dog, Doc Watson's Grandfather Clock, David Grisman and Jerry Garcia's There Ain't No Bugs On Me, and more! Here's to a joyous family gathering! (MLP42585) CS: 9.98 CD: 15.98

Various Artists Lullaby

If I were a baby, I'd put my order in for this album ASAP! (MLP42565) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

A Child's Celebration of the World

This is quite simply one of the most positive, reflective and inspiring children's albums in the whole genre. The cultural mix is inspired and well-rounded. The sounds are catchy, the music is polished, the messages are critical. So can you tell we loved this one? A taste of languages, wonderful messages of tolerance and respect, and some of the most popular artists like Miriam Makeba, Raffi, Joan Baez, Chevelle Sisters, Taj Mahal and Maria Muldaur make this an excellent choice. Add in the clever bonus of Sweet Honey in the Rock singing during the song breaks, counting numbers in different languages, and kids and adults alike will appreciate this one! ### Hand in Hand: Songs of Parenthood

"One listen and the formidable task known as parenthood will take on new dimensions." On this 1995 release, which is actually for parents as much as for children, some of popular music's best-loved performers offer their personal insights into raising a family. Includes Joni Mitchell's Circle Game, a classic summation of growing up; Sweet Honey in the Rock's rendition of Khalil Gibran's classic On Children; Bobby McFerrin's Baby, a mesmerizing acappella chant of love and advice to a new-born; John Lennon's Beautiful Boy, a touching tribute to his son Sean; Ferron's Sunshine; Jackson Browne's Only Child, and songs by The Pretenders, Marc Cohn, Yoko Ono, Judy Collins, and Tom Rush. A great gift for families with children of all ages. (MLP42569) CS: 10.98 CD: 15.98

All God's Children

This excellent 1996 documentary deals with the effects of homophobia on African Americans, and presents interpretations of what the African-American struggle for civil rights means within the context of fighting discrimination against lesbian and gay people of all races. Spiritual, intellectual, cultural, and political leaders, such as Rev. Jesse Jackson, Senator Carol Moseley-Braun, Congresswoman Maxine Waters, and Maria Elena Grant of Lavender Light, Black and People of All Colors Lesbian and Gay Gospel Choir, speak out about exclusion and discrimination, and inclusion, justice and healing. Produced and directed by Dr. Dee Mosbacher and Frances Reid, in conjunction with Dr. Sylvia Rhue, an African-American lesbian psychologist and filmmaker, highly recommended. (WMV1VC): 29.98

All Over Me

Just your average babydyke-falls-in-love-with-straight-best-friend movie... Oh, wait, that's not average, is it? And neither is this movie! While this gritty (but totally charming) tale of teenage love, life, death, and rock 'n' roll is set in the Hell's Kitchen district of NYC, it hits home for any of us who can remember being head-over-heels for a gal with a boyfriend. This boyfriend, though, may make your memories look good in comparison (hint: the gritty parts). Allison Folland's subtle performance as a young lesbian coming to terms with herself and the world is simply astounding, and she gets some excellent support from Leisha Hailey of the Murders. Warning: Be prepared to re-live some less-than-comfortable moments from your adolescence... but you'll know it was worth it in the end! Recommended! (NL4576VC): 19.98

America's First Women Filmmakers

Long before Hollywood took over, women were directing films. The Library of Congress and the Smithsonian present 4 rare works from the silent era's 2 most accomplished and successful women directors, who both ran their own production companies: Alice Guy-Blache (whose career began in 1896, and who was probably the first person of either gender to direct a narrative film) and Lois Weber (who filmed a complex drama about abortion in 1916 entitled Where Are My Children?, not included here). This anthology contains Matrimony's Speed Limit, A House Divided, How Men Propose (1913 short comedies), and Too White Wives (a 1921 feature-length film), which all display a will toward the institution of marriage... 114 min.; film notes enclosed. ### Art Observed

"Art must be, for women, more like a personified, ancient ritual where every spiritual thought is made visible, enacted, represented." This intimate portrait is an actual 1973 film of the renowned author at work and at home, narrating, reflecting upon and sharing her philosophy, experiences, influences, and approach to life and her craft. Any fan of her writing will enjoy this chance to meet the artist! 60 min. (MYS352VC): 29.98

Anne Heche

& Joan Chen

Wild Side

Anne Heche (Ellen's famous flame, at least as of this writing), Joan Chen, and Christopher Walken star in this lesbian love story/action full-length film, sort of like a lower-budget version of Bound. Its (somewhat thin) plot involves master criminals, international banking, money-laundering, high-class prostitution, dangerous computer viruses, and an FBI sting, plus a happy ending in which the lesbian couple, outsmarting both the criminals and the corrupt FBI agents, prevail! Closed captioned. (EVN95153VC): 19.98

Armistead Maupin

Tales of the City (3-Video Set)

If you missed this marvelous series on PBS's American Playhouse (their most widely-viewed drama series ever), or live in a state where you only get to see the "censored" version, or want to have it for always, here's your opportunity! A full 8 hours of viewing, as the author's beloved bestseller comes to life in this hilarious and poignant chronicle of San Francisco life in the 1970's. With Olympia Dukakis, Chloe Webb, and more. (PGV1VC): 59.98

Around the World the Lesbian Way

This 1997 collection is a veritable international Lesbian Film Festival! It contains 5 lesbian films: A Day in the Life of a Bull Dyke, a Canadian comedy-drama; This Marching Girl, a film from Australia, starring Toni Collette (from Muriel's Wedding); Casting, an edgy erotic film from Germany; the Swiss film Go Girl, a light-hearted look at the potential woman of your dreams; and the Scottish Dancing, starring film star Sylvia Sims who recalls a passionate love affair in her youth. 60 min. (NAV188VC): 29.98

Ballot Measure 9

This excellent Sundance-award-winning documentary is both chilling and inspirational. Produced and directed by Heather MacDonald, it vividly relates the story of a 1992 initiative in Oregon intended to deny civil rights to lesbian and gay people, and the community which organized in love, anger, and conviction to cause its defeat. As the radical right continues to provoke hatred and anti-gay sentiment around the country, this film is a worthy reminder of the need for community involvement and the power of activism. (FLV1208): 29.98

Bar Girls

Here's the full-length film of a fresh and funny romantic comedy featuring lesbians whose lives intertwine against the backdrop of a Los Angeles bar... Ah, the drama of the lesbian dating game! Closed captioned. (TWV1VC): 19.98

Bastard Out of Carolina

Anney Boatright (Jennifer Jason Leigh) is a young and single mother trying to raise a family in South Carolina in the 1950's. Her daughter Bone (brilliantly acted by the young Jena Malone) is the remarkable girl who tells a wrenching and powerful story of her new stepfather's abuse and her own defiance. Based on the best-selling novel by Dorothy Allison, directed by Anjelica Huston, narrated by Laura Dern, screenplay by Anne Meredith; closed captioned. (BMV2VC): 19.98

Bellydance! Magical Motion

Presented by Ales and friends, this one-hour program features a good history of bellydance, plus beginner through advanced movements; low-impact exercise techniques; dance demonstrations by Ales and 5 other bellydance pros; veil techniques; and finger cymbal basics, all in an easy-to-learn format. It's one of the best movement disciplines for women, since it was developed especially for a woman's body... and it's sensual, and fun! And if you're learning bellydancing and need some music, we recommend all the albums by Desert Wind, in the Women's Spirituality section — see our artist index. (MMN1VC): 29.98

Bound

What, it's hot in here... This 1996 film stars femme fatale Jennifer Tilly as mobster's girlfriend, Violet, and the over-pouty Gina Gershon as Corky, her ex-con neighbor. They, covertly couple (big kudos to Rosie Bright, a.k.a. Susie Sexton, for her "technical advice") and decide to bkk the mob. It's wonderfully sexy, funny film-not-with-a-refreshing-twist. If you are squeamish about violence, I recommend watching with a milk-fick-loving friend who can monitor (and allow you to hide your face in their armpit) until the few scary scenes have passed. Closed captioned. (RP6286VC): 19.98

What Do I Care / I Don't Have Any Kids

The consummate singer-songwriter mixes hilarious songs and stories with some of the most elegantly crafted ballads being written today on this 1996 release recorded at the Iron Horse in Northampton, MA. Whether evoking sadness or raucous laughter with her wonderfully expressive voice, she is at the top of her art when she sings, and the line between the personal and universal disappears. ## Childhood's End

This '86 release of a feature-length film tells a layered tale of 4 people in unconventional relationships: 2 young lesbians, and an older woman involved with a younger man. Complex and interesting characters, provocative themes, and excellent performances make this a compelling film, well worth your time. Directed by Jeff Lipinsky, who previously distributed such landmark films as Desert Hearts. 85 min. (NAV225VC): 29.98

Claire of the Moon

Here's the feature-length film of the lesbian love story of Claire and Noel, who meet at a writers' colony on the Oregon coast. It's a story of one woman's journey into her sexual identity, and another woman's journey through fear to intimacy. The movie was made on a deceptively low budget, (you'd never know that by watching it) by film-maker/writer Nicole Conn, and has played at major theaters across the country. Many great scenes, definitely worth seeing! (DEM3VC): 19.98

Conga Drumming: Beginner's Video

If you wish to learn conga drumming, this is one of the best instructional videos we have seen, and is a great companion to the book by Betsy Sanby and Alan Dworsky, Conga Drumming. Conga parts — rhythms and techniques — for clypspe, rumba, conga, bomba, and bembé are taught in an easy-to-follow method. The primary instructor here is a man, Jorge Bermudez, with some sections taught by Alan and Betsy, and Raul Rellow of Santana. (DAN1023VC): 29.98

Costa Brava

This fabulous, quirky, sophisticated comedy from Catalonia, Spain (but, hey, it's in English!) has racked up a number of "Best Picture" awards at 1996 Lesbian/Gay Film Festivals and for very good reason. Written, directed by and starring Marta Ballarín-Cot (a cross between Woody Allen and Rosie O'Donnell) the film centers around her tour-guide lesbian playwright character Ana and her relationship with Moroccan, an Israeli scientist (played by the lesbian San Francisco actress Desi del Valle), who originally insists that she is not a lesbian but falls for Ana anyway. With its dead-pan humor, excellent characters, and innovative filming techniques, this is one of the best films I've seen in quite a while. (NAV153VC): 49.98

Cynara, Poetry in Motion

This beautifully filmed sweeping romance from Nicole Conn, maker of Claire of the Moon, is set against the backdrop of the northwest coast in 1883. The story begins with the simple elegance of girl meets girl on the haunting shoreline; one is a sculptress in exile, the other an expatriate in search of solitude. Sort of a lesbian Wuthering Heights, starring Melissa Hallmark as "Heinrich," sensual and subtle, primal and passionate. 35 min. (WV21VC); 29.98

Everything Relative

Sort of like a lesbian Big Chill, this is a romantic comedy about a reunited group of women who went to college together. Their quick-witted repartee reveals irony, humor, and a touch of nostalgia for the 70's and for how their lives, loves and politics have changed. (WV901VC); 29.98

Forbidden Love

This is a great flick about the lesbian pulp novel genre of the 50's...totally delightful, lots of historical information, and the highlight is when one of these novels comes to life! Competing, often hilarious and always rebellious, the 10 women interviewed paint a portrait of lesbian sexuality and survival during the 50's and 60's, when lesbian love was "the love that dare not speak its name." Starring Ann Bannon, author of the Beebo Brinker series. Highly recommended! (WMM1VC); 39.98

Georgia Ragsdale

A 40-minute video from an up-and-coming lesbian comic is always a welcome item in this day and age when we all need more laughs! She skewers modern culture and celebrates her sexual orientation. Told in her own words, it includes her thoughts, reflections, and recollections of her closest friends, as well as footage from Saturday Night Live, movies, and rare personal photos. We and the world at large miss her wit and brilliance; but think that she would have said about her death from cancer in 1989, "It's always something." (AAE10453VC); 19.98

Goddess Grace: A Moving Meditation

Presented by Maril and friends, this 2-hour video demonstrates a wonderful moving meditation which weaves together movements from yoga, bellydance, other dance forms and exercise routines in a continuously flowing Tai Chi-style format. ### Meditations & Visions

Subtitled Meditations & Visions of Hildegard of Bingen, this 1996 video is a most excellent presentation on the life and writings, music and art of the amazing, visionary composer/leader/artist/mystic, whose works expressed an intense relationship with Sophia, or Mother Wisdom. First some facts and details of her life are presented (for instance, did you know she was "given" to a convent at a very early age, as a little, because she was the tenth child in her family?). Then many of her writings are recited, to a background of music she composed (performed by 4 women on voice, vielle, harp, recorder, psalter and percussion), while her illuminations and works of art are shown. Informative, instructive, and recommended! (WSM1VC); 19.98

Layne Redmond & The Mob of Angels

This unique video (originally released under the title Ritual Drumming) successfully combines instructions on practical drumming techniques with primal metaphysical concerns on drumming and rhythm. In a very straightforward manner, Layne shows how the basic tones and strokes of a frame drum, such as the tambourine, have a direct relationship to the elemental qualities of earth, water, fire and air. Drawing on the long heritage of women frame drummers and the nurturing nature of the archetype feminine spirit, this program will enrich the viewer with a new sense of the power of rhythm and pulse. Through luminous demonstrations and inspiring performances, Layne and The Mob of Angels, a women's ensemble, show how drumming and chanting can be used to create new and empowering ritual. Recommended! (IWM2VC): 24.98

Drawn mostly from Sweet Honey's award-winning children's recordings, All for Freedom and I Got Shoes, the songs include old spirituals, tradition-rich play songs, a moving medley of civil rights anthems, and even an uplifting acappella rap. Interviews with children in the audience and Bernice Johnson Reagon, founder and artistic director of the group, add depth and perspective to this "concert for the child in each of us." ## War Widow

Ever since this play by Harvey Fierstein was televised on PBS several years ago, we've had several requests for it, and happily we can make it available. It tells the story of a young mother whose husband is overseas during WWII, her search for self, and her developing relationship with a lesbian photographer. These video adaptations aren't film quality, so expect a bit of fuzziness here and there, overlook these minor flaws, and enjoy the show! (HP1VC): 39.98

The Watermelon Woman

In this fun, feature-length film by Cheryl Dunye, the African-American lesbian filmmaker playfully stars as herself, a young woman working in a video store, who is making a documentary about an obscure black actress from the 30s known as "The Watermelon Woman". At the same time she discovers that the actress had a white female lover, she begins a romance with "a cute white woman" - who is played by Guinevere Turner (War of Sex). Great footage and photos from early black films and film stars. Cast also includes (playing themselves) Toshi Reagon and a hearty, speechless Camille Paglia. 95 min. (FIR933VC): 29.98

The Weavers

Highly recommended - to see, to own, to archive! (WAR36304VC): 24.98

When Night Is Falling

Patricia Rozema, the creator of the exquisite film I've Heard the Mermaids Singing, has created another lyrical, intelligent, metaphorical love story: the dog, another beautifully filmed, well acted, erotic, chock full of interesting characters kind of picture. The story revolves around the meeting and defining of the relationship between Camille, a professor at a Christian college, and Petra, a performer at an "alternative circus." This 1997 video release is a rare and exquisite gem of ally entertainment and a lesbian film that you do not need to "handicap" - hooray! (OCT1VC): 89.98

Whoopi Goldberg

Fontaine: Why Am I Straight

This is a very hysterical characterization of Fontaine, who has just graduated from the Betty Ford Clinic, facing the world sober for the first time in years. He is shocked at what he finds! Politicians, evangelists, homosexuality, and many other subjects will evoke belly laughs as well as nods of affirmation, as Whoopi's comic genius takes center-stage. Closed captioned, highly recommended! (HBO90235VC): 19.98

Witchcraft in America

This 50-minute educational documentary should help to eradicate some common misconceptions among the uninformed. It opens with a somewhat "sensationalist" approach, but goes on to describe - and explain the differences between - the various religions often lumped under the heading "witchcraft": neo-Paganism, Wicca, voodoo, and Satanism (which in fact has nothing to do with witchcraft). It also gives a historical overview of the persecution and murder of people who were perceived to be witches, beginning with the Salem witch trials and continuing through this century. This film is like a program you'd see on public TV; it's for beginners and the general public, not for advanced students or those who already have basic knowledge about the subject. (AAE10007VC): 19.98

Woman and Her Symbols - Part I Great Mother Earth

An excellent, highly educational series of value to anyone - beginner or veteran of women's culture - who wants to know how and why the patriarchal perspective has been not only reflected but sustained by the imagery in the art of our culture... the Goddess culture which preceded this... the power of symbols... and much much more. This first volume starts with the beginnings of human history, and includes a feminist critique of the myth of the Virgin Mary. No matter how much you think you already know, you'll learn something more from watching this; it's the result of many years of research by writer-narrator Mary R. Hopkins. Produced by Claire Simon. (QV2VC): 29.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 1 Goddess Remembered

This stunning and poetic documentary is a salute to 35,000 years of "pre-history" to the matriarchal cultures of ancestors only recently remembered, and to our ancient goddess-worshipping religions. The caves of paleolithic France, the mysterious earthworks of ancient Britain, and the sun-drenched palaces of Delphi and Crete are brought to life here, with exquisite musical accompaniment by Loreana McKennitt. This 3-part series is expertly directed by Donna Reed. (QV2VC): 29.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 2 The Burning Times

Part Two in the Women and Spirituality series, offers new insights into the legends and misconceptions that surround the term witch. In the attempt to eradicate the women-based power of midwives, wise old crones and healers, the Christian church instigated a reign of terror which resulted in the genocide of millions of women and the destruction of what had been an organic way of life. The film illustrates how the sanctioned torture and murder set the stage for modern society's cultural acceptance of massive violence against women. Building on ideas set forth in the discovery of goddess-based culture, this is a beautifully crafted tribute to the value and strength that women brought and bring to life. Music by Loreana McKennitt, highly recommended! (DCL330VC): 39.98

Women and Spirituality, Part 3 Full Circle

In this final part of the Women and Spirituality trilogy, the filmmaker examines the many present-day manifestations of the women's spirituality movement. She finds authors like Anne Cameron, leaders and social activists like Starhawk, and others, meeting around kitchen tables and in circles on hilltops, discussing spirituality and performing rituals that give them strength to transform their inner beliefs into political and social action. This is her most personal film of the three - she discusses her own journey - and we finally learn about the dancer who has appeared in all 3 films - so the tale is a fitting one. Music again by Loreana McKennitt, recommended again! (DCL462VC): 39.98

Women From Down Under

This collection of 4 short films made by female directors from New Zealand and Australia runs the gamut from silly to serious to sensual. The big headline-grabber is Peach, starring Lucy Lawless (television's Xena, Warrior Princess) as a dyke towtruck driver who is attracted to a young Maori woman with a jerky boyfriend. Also includes Just Desserts, a film that explores the metaphors between Italian food and female sexual awakening. Jumping the Gun, a woman on the "morning-after" fantasizing about the future with the woman with whom she's had a one-night stand, and my favorite, Excursion to the Bridge of Friendship, a wonderfully odd and quirky story about an Aussie feminist artist and her Bulgarian folk-singing cousin. (WW1055VC): 19.98

Women Speak Up

This wonderful video document was recorded at the 1995 United Nations International Women's Forum, which was held in Hualou and Beijing, China, and was attended by 30,000 women from 185 countries. Produced by Linda Leeman and Esther Farnsworth, members of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, this "collage of plenaries, workshops, interviews, spontaneous events and music" combines both the serious themes of the conference (e.g. the effects of militarism, globalization of the economy, and violence against women and girls) with the "joyfulness and celebration of women coming together for peace and justice". Includes a study guide and resource booklet. 58 min. (MCM2001VC): 19.98

Work

This 1998 feature-length film depicts the small-town relationship between Jenny, a young white unemployed (and seemingly futureless) married woman, and June, a younger African-American lesbian (with a promising future in medicine and athletics). Writer/director Rachel Reichman chose lesbian actors for the leading roles, a lesbian composer for the score, and a gay cinematographer. Stark and un sentimental (no they-lived-happily-ever-after type story), 95 min. (NAV224VC): 29.98

Wyoma

African Healing Dance

Wyoma is the respected lead dancer and director of the DAMBALLA dance troupe, which performs dance and music of Africa and the diaspora. On this 1997 video release, she offers step-by-step instruction on the healing tradition and expressive movements that are unique to Africa's dance heritage. She teaches symbolic animal and elemental gestures, as well as hip, torso and shoulder articulations. More than just physical movement, this is a direct and transformative way to celebrate life and create healing. Booklet included; 70 min. (SND006VC); 29.98

T-Shirts

4000 Years of Womyn's Music T-Shirt

This wonderful t-shirt design, based on ancient Egyptian artwork, teaches that our history is a long one, harkening back to the beginnings of civilization. A project of Marlene Winmill, screen-printed by Snake & Snake, we're happy to make this great shirt available to all of you who might not make it to the festivals. Multi-colored design on 100% cotton t-shirt. Specify size L, XL, 2XL, 3XL; if you don't specify a size, we'll send XL. (MWT1TS); 16.98

Nurudafina Pili Abena

Drum Call T-Shirts

We are so taken with the beauty of Nur's album design, created by Momodu Gessay: a male West African artist, because of its strength and because it breaks the stereotype that women don't play percussion. We want to see a society in which there's nothing "non-traditional" about women playing drums. Wear it and inspire all who see you! Specify size L, XL, 2XL; if you don't specify size, we'll send XL. (DRC1TS); 16.98

Xena Trilogy (3-Video Set)

The complete Trilogy is a complete necessity for all Xena fans! This 3-video set from the HERCULES 1995 TV season (released for home video in 1998) marks the first appearance of Lucy Lawless in the role of the beautiful and deadly warrior princess Xena. In the first episode, Xena seduces Iolus, Hercules' friend, in an attempt to lure Hercules to his doom. In the second part, Xena begins to experience a change of heart, but is nearly killed by her malicious army. Xena teams up with Hercules in the third episode to defeat a demonic warlord, and the pair have a few... ahem... romantic moments. These are the episodes that started it all: viewer response to Xena was so overwhelming that a character planned to appear only a few times was given her own series — now a worldwide phenomenon! Don't miss out! (UNV83642VC); 29.98

Xena

Hercules and the Amazon Women

Lucy Lawless (Xena) stars as Lysia, one of the Amazon warriors in the powerful, goddess-worshipping, all-female Amazon village. Also stars Roma Downey (Touched By An Angel) as Hippolyta the Amazon Queen, Kevin Sorbo as Hercules and Anthony Quinn as Zeus. Closed captioned. (MCA82083VC); 19.98

Specify size L, XL, 2XL, 3XL; if you don't specify a size, we'll send XL. (UBK1TS); 16.98

Barbara Lachman

The Journal of Hildegard of Bingen

This book is like a great piece of historical fiction. It is the imagined diary of approximately one year — 1152 — in the life of this great medieval composer/leader/writer/mystic/visionary, rooted in the facts of her life. We know books about Hildegard are abundant these days, but this one is a must-read for anyone who wants to delve into some of the probable and fascinating intricacies of her very female-oriented thinking. In spite of a fabulous base, it rings with depth and truth, highly notated, and just as highly recommended! (BTS1998BK); 19.98

The Hunger Poems: Unbound, Signed

10 poems by the amazing poet-songwriter-singer, printed on exquisite paper, unbound and held inside a handmade envelope, signed by the author. She describes them: "These 10 poems are about fragility and delicacy of balance. What we want or ask for is not always known to us and certainly not what we think we intend. These are hard times and nothing knows this more clearly than the soul. Life wants us to understand our relationship to its ebb and flow and walk with humility amongst its lessons." (BUN2BK); 19.98

Gabrielle Roth

Sweat Your Prayers

NEW! "Sweat Your Prayers as Spiritual Practice," this celebrated composer/dancer/teacher guides us through an exploration of the long-buried tradition of dance and sweat as the very pulse of life. Her message is that movement is prayer — a way to connect with the inner core of our beings... a way to rediscover magic, power and karmic energy. She teaches how to harness various types of rhythm to tap into creative energy (sacred self-definition, flowing self-discovery, lyrical inspiration, etc.) and how to find music conducive to each. Get moving! NEW! in paperback! (TRH2BK); 12.98

Hildegard of Bingen

Meditations w/ Hildegard of Bingen

This introduction to the thought and writings of the great medieval mystic — and musician, composer, poet, scholar, scientist, healer, abbess, and visionary — contains selections from Hildegard's eleven books. Compiled by Gabriele Uhlen. (BEA12BK); 9.98

Hildegard of Bingen's Medicine

This ground-breaking contribution to medicine and healing, written by Richard Sirenow and Gottfried Hertzka, is based on Hildegard's divinely inspired visions — which included information on how to feel and which plants and herbs to use. Her remedies are being used actively in Germany today. She discusses ways to heal nervous disorders, indigestion, heart problems, and cancer, and gives tips on diet and fasting. (BEA44BK); 12.98

Hot Wire Magazine: 15 Back Issues

The best journal on Women's Music unfortunately ceased publishing, but fortunately for us, 15 back issues are available at a fabulous sale price of less than a dollar-fifty apiece! Fantastic, insightful, educational articles, interviews, features, photographs, and more... of many of the women who have been involved in the creation of women's music and culture for the past several years. They're HOT! — and heavy, so please include postage/handling for 15 items (free standard postage/handling on orders over $100); counts as one item for freebie offers. (ECE3BK); 19.95

Joyce Luck

Melissa Etheridge/Our Little Secret

Although this isn't an "authorized biography," Melissa is said to be happy with it! The first full biography of the openly lesbian international rock star, which chronicles her personal and professional life and accomplishments, is illustrated with over 50 photos, many full color, many previously unpublished. Carefully researched, it is filled with anecdotes from fans, plus insights from her friends and colleagues — including Alex Dobkin! Also features bibliography of over 250 sources plus discography; 235 pages. (ECW298BK); 16.98

Don't Get Me Started (Book)

NEW! Have you ever had the experience of laughing out loud while reading a book and having everyone in the room look at you like you're nuts? If so, get ready for it to happen again. If not, there's a first time for everything. This 1998 title gives Kate's take on anything and everything, from President Clinton (no relation) to Nixon's funeral to music festivals to coming out. She has easily translated her comedy to the written word, giving us quite the funniest (funniest humorist) gem. But don't just take our word for it: "Kate Clinton cracks me up." — Melissa Etheridge (KCL1BK); 21.99

Sounding the Inner Landscape (Book)

Subtitled Music as Medicine, this long-awaited book by a pioneer in healing music and the woman's spirituality movement is the culmination of years of Kay's research into the curative and transformational elements of music and sound. As she explores the ingredients (rhythm, melody, harmony, instruments, droning, mantra chants, etc.), she offers insights into their origins and mysteries, and how they may be used in the healing process. Published in late 1990, when the companion tape by the same title was also released (see description in New Age section), it provides the context and underlying basis for all her musical works. We're glad to finally have the opportunity to better understand why music — by Kay and other artists — affects us as profoundly as it does. Illustrated; 250 pp. Highly recommended! (CDC3BK); 13.98

Laura Post

Backstage Pass

Subtitled Interviews with Women in Music, with a foreword by Dar Williams, this 1997 publication presents interviews with 40 vibrant women musicians (plus photos). It's an intimate look into the personal and political lives of artists as diverse as

Are D'Amico, Sweet Honey in the Rock, Ferron, Alex Dobkin, Marge Adam, Holly Near, Joan Osborne, and Marinette Faithful, whose songs of empowerment have influenced and enriched generations of women. Laura Post writes personal musical history and influences, plus philosophical insights into the music business, definitions of "Women's Music," and the role of "coming out" for lesbian musicians. This edition belongs (along with your archived Ladyslipper Catalogs) in the library of everyone interested in women's music and contemporary women's culture! (NVP54BK); 16.98

Layne Redmond When The Drummers Were Women

This learned drummer/teacher presents the history of the sacred drum in the ancient Goddess civilizations of the Mediterranean and the Middle East. Subtitled A Spiritual History of Rhythm, this 1997 publication is filled with photos from her collection of images gathered during more than five years of research and travel in the Middle East and Europe. Bringing together current scientific research on rhythm's harmonious effects on the body, mind and spirit with fascinating myth, archeology, and history, Layne demonstrates how women can reclaim drumming as a spiritual heritage and sacred technology. (HMY001288K): 17.99

Nanci Griffith & Joe Jackson Nanci Griffith's Other Voices

Having delighted in the literary lyricism of Nanci's songs and liner notes, in which she writes about her enduring interest in "the songwriter who captures lyrically and musically a panoramic view of the social climate and the writer's sense of place for the next of us to hear and sing in the voice of our own time," we welcome her 1998 Personal History of Folk Music. As one such songwriter and performer, she shines, and we relish the chance to hear her reflections on the times and artists who have shaped her, and in turn been shaped by her. (RDH3078K): 19.98

Robert Weisbrot Xena: Warrior Princess (Guide Book)

Subtitled The Official Guide to the XenaVerse, this 1997 book contains tons of trivia and information for the budding Xenafans, as well as "insider" interviews and stories on the show's origin and production that make it fascinating for even the "HCNB" (HardCore NutBall) as ultra-Xenafans jokingly call themselves. Includes a detailed episode guide of the first two seasons of the show, with commentary by Lucy (Xena) Lawless — and lots of photos, too! (MSB1368K): 19.98

Sadie Rakusin The Coloring Book for Big Girls

Sadie's art has often graced the cover of our catalog. Her 1998 publication is a delightful adult book filled with drawings of strong, high-spirited women, each with a descriptive caption: goddesses, guides, angels and friends, many with an animal companion. The experience of coloring in this book will take you away from the chaos of the outer world, into a place of centered calm. With a box of colored pencils or crayons, it makes a wonderful gift for all sorts of celebrations and rites of passage. (SRK988K): 9.98
